GOP Delegates Greeted by Call for 'Devoted, Hard Work'

SAN FRANCISCO (U) — Republicans arriving early to prepare for their national convention were greeted by a call for "hard, devoted work" from President Eisenhower.

The President's message, contained in the 100-page convention program, declared the work was needed "to help make the bright promise of the party's future more than equal to the record of the past."

He added "I know our united efforts will be rewarded with success."

The convention opens next Monday.

Addressed to "Republicans everywhere," the message said they were embarking "on a new century of political action" and called for "complete dedication to our country and a determination that the Republican party will constantly grow in effectiveness as a political instrument to serve the country."

Republicans are celebrating of the party's formation.

Rep. Frances B. Bolton (R-Ohio) noted the 56 delegates from her state were pledged to Vice President Nixon as the President's running mate. She added the ticket would be "strong" should the convention nominate Gov. Christian Herter of Massachusetts instead.

Howard Pyle, former governor of Arizona and a deputy assistant to the President, was the first prominent member of the White House staff to reach San Francisco. At the airport to meet him yesterday was Leonard W. Hall, GOP national committee chairman.

Republicans made it no secret of their elation over the conflict between the two top Democratic candidates, Adlai Stevenson of Illinois and Gov. Averell Harriman of New York. Eisenhower has the Republican nomination clinched.

Still No Trial Jury in Brink's Robbery

BOSTON (U) — The Brink's trial moved into its second week today with an empty jury box and little hope that the jury will be selected shortly.

Counsel for the eight men charged with the $1,218,211 robbery of Brink's headquarters on Jan. 17, 1955, still have 162 of their original 262 preemptory challenges.

Chief defense counsel Paul T. Smith has indicated he will continue to challenge jurors as long as his preemptory (without cause) challenges hold out.

He has maintained that the eight men charged with the nation's largest cash robbery cannot get a fair trial because of the wide publicity given a statement by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover that the case was "solved" with the arrest of six of the defendants last January.

Gov. Averell Harriman's headquarters contends that Stevenson is now on the defensive for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Lloyd Benefield of Oklahoma, Harriman's campaign director, said the New Yorker already is assured of about 400 first-ballot votes and predicted the number will climb by voting time Thursday.

Needed to nominate are 686½.

City Court to Try State Cases

Starting today, Pontiac Municipal Court will shoulder more of the cases which have crowded dockets in Oakland County Circuit Court.

The city court will assume jurisdiction over violations of state law within the city limits which bring penalties up to $500 in fines and one-year terms in jail.

The change was brought about by Public Law No. 184, passed by the Legislature earlier this year.

It affects municipal courts all over the state in counties with a population of 35,000 or more. Legislators figured that court work should be spread out more in crowded counties.

JUDGE BALKS One city judge, Cecil McCallum, has objections to the change. He says it means more work at the city taxpayer's expense, and no additional income.

Fines collected by the court under state law will continue to go into the county treasury and not the city's. This has been the channel for such fines collected for the few violations of state law which the court has handled previously.

McCallum has criticized overcrowded dockets in Municipal Court, advocating a third judge. The main business of the court, he points out, is to handle jurisdiction over city ordinances. Fines collected under the ordinances go to the city treasury.

Here are some of the many crimes set by state law which the court will now cover:

Immoral advertising, aiding prisoners to escape, ambulance chasing, aggravated assault, possessing short-wave radios in autos without a permit, bribery and corruption of public employees, interfering with legal custody of children.

Accosting and soliciting, dueling, illegal voting, impersonating public officers, purchase or sale of fraudulent documents, adultery, indecent exposure, accepting a bribe and selling goods with false labels to defraud.

The law empowers the court to issue all warrants and writs in the violations under its jurisdiction. Previously, the court could fine up to $100 or sentence to 90 days in jail.

Aim New Complaint at Detroit Hospital

DETROIT (INS) — The Detroit Times said today a Grosse Pointe insurance executive plans to make a formal complaint against Children's Hospital to City Health Commissioner Dr. Joseph G. Molner.

Molner said Saturday he would launch an investigation upon receiving a written request.

The hospital has been under fire since Mrs. Caroline McAbee, 27, said doctors and nurses at the institution neglected her dying 15-month-old son, Jimmie, Wednesday night.

The Times said the Grosse Pointe complaint will tell of an alleged "runaround" he received last February when he took his critically ill four-year-old daughter to the hospital.

Hospital officials, meanwhile, are conducting their own inquiry into the McAbee case.

Junior Achievement Unit Names Osmun Chairman

Appointment of Carroll Osmun, Community National Bank vice president, as chairman of the 21-member Pontiac Junior Achievement Committee was announced today by Wallace L. Fleming, JA executive director for Southeastern Michigan.

At the same time, Fleming disclosed six local businesses have pledged themselves to counsel "junior businessmen" in the coming year. The group includes:

Community National Bank, Consumers Power Co., Fisher Body Division, Pontiac Exchange Club, the Standard Oil Co. and Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

Osmun pointed out, however, that the six are only the first to make pledges. No limit has been placed on the number of sponsoring firms, he added, although the organization is seeking to rent space for from 12 to 16 JA units.

Others named to the coordinating committee include: W. C. Clifford, Fisher Body; Henry Gotham, Pontiac Retail Store; James F. Spence, Pontiac Manufacturers Assn.; George Watson, Pontiac Motor Division; V. W. Hoerath, S. S. Kresge Co., and Russell Bassett, The Pontiac Press.

The Day in Birmingham

CITY TO STUDY PURCHASES OF SIREN, RADAR, AND TRUCK

BIRMINGHAM — An air raid siren, a second traffic speed radar unit and a new rescue truck for the fire department are among purchases that the city commission is asked to consider tonight.

With Conelrad the only present method of warning residents of an attack, Civil Defense director Dana Whitman Jr., recommends the city provide one large or two small units, and allot $3,000 or less to cover half the cost of the siren.

Police report they can operate less than a day without repairs on their present radar equipment, purchased in 1951. They would place the present outfit on stand-by duty.

The proposed rescue truck would replace truck No. 1.

Rezoning of the Twining property on the east side of Adams just north of Bowers to Business C, and the Lambert property on the northeast corner of Woodward and 14 Mile Road, to Business A will be subjects of a hearing tonight.

Plane Crashes Field, Student Pilot Injured

A West Bloomfield Township student pilot is in "fair" condition at Pontiac General Hospital today after suffering severe injuries yesterday afternoon when his plane crashed at Pontiac Municipal Airport.

Roy Hawver, 47, of 2032 Alendale, is facing the possibility of losing his left eye as the result of injuries suffered in the accident. He is being treated for a fractured nose, back injuries, and face cuts.

Hawver was reportedly practicing landings when the single engine plane stalled 25 feet above the runway approach. The aircraft struck the ground and skidded over 130 feet along the landing strip.

The student flier had completed 40 hours solo time and required only a few more hours to qualify for a private pilot's license when the crash occurred. The plane, a four-seater Cessna 170, was a total wreck, according to Airport officials. It was owned by Barber's Flying Service at the airport.

Marilyn Shows Britain Her Form --- on a Bicycle

ENGLEFIELD GREEN, England — Sheathed in a form-fitting blue slack suit, Marilyn Monroe took her first bicycle ride in the English countryside yesterday. Hardly a British cyllid fluttered. Marilyn pedaled along beside her husband, playwright Arthur Miller, for an hour through country lanes near the home they have rented while she makes a film here.

Her bike ride, which she announced was one of her dreams when she arrived here three weeks ago, went almost unnoticed. There were no fans, no autograph hunters.

But one bystander at a polo match they stopped to watch commented tersely: "She doesn't look very stable."

"Don't worry about that," Miller replied. "She's far better on a bike than I am."

Seaway Half-Ready;
Target Date: 1958

TORONTO, Ont. (U. P.) — The St. Lawrence Seaway power project today reached the halfway mark. It was started two years ago and the proposed finish is in August 1958.

Project Director Gordon Mitchell said 4,100 workers are engaged in the 1,640,000-kilowatt power project being undertaken by the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission. The power Authority of the State of New York is tackling the U. S. end of the job.

The face of the St. Lawrence area has changed since the undertaking began. The north channel of the St. Lawrence River was diverted through a channel south of Barnhart Island. Some 650 million gallons of water were drained from a 2½-mile stretch sealed off by cofferdams.

Bob Considine Says:

It's Pepsi vs. Coke at Dems' Convention

CHICAGO (INS) — Most grueling contest in the week before the convention opened was the slogging duel between Coca Cola and Pepsi Cola for the parched affections of delegations, reporters and free-loaders in general.

"Pepsi has infiltrated our corridor," a Coke man white with rage announced to newsmen at the Conrad Hilton the other day. There followed 48 hours of intensive shoring up of this breakthrough.

Great iron clad Coke containers wheeled into place and opened up with free broadsides. Pepsi's high command, headed by Bernard Rehn, issued a statement saying that after an agonizing reappraisal of the situation, massive retaliation was the only course.

He hired two midjets to motivate big papier mache Pepsi bottles and a couple of full sized people to be a horse.

Malcolm Johnson, Coke strategist, may mine the Chicago River near the pier where Pepsi tanks tie up.

When you call the headquarters of Adlai Stevenson on the phone, a brisk voice sings out, "Stevenson-for-President Headquarters," call Gov. Harriman and you get "Harriman-for-President Headquarters," call Happy Chandler and it's "Chandler-for-President Headquarters." That goes for all the favorite son's headquarters, too.

But when you call Estes Kefauver's headquarters the phone rings for a time and then a glum voice says:

"Hello."

Cong. Charles Diggs of Michigan, liberal Michigan Governor Soapy Williams' representative on the platform committee, asked Harry S. Truman a basic English question on civil rights the other day.

What guide would Truman offer to the committee in the writing of a 1956 civil rights plank?

Truman looked him in the eye and replied:

"I thought the 1948 and 1952 planks were good. I preferred the 1948 one because I ran on it and got elected."

"In 1948 at Potsdam I suggested to those fellows—argued with them for two days—that we internationalize the Panama Canal, Suez Canal, Kiel Canal, Rhine-Danube Waterway and all the other places like that."

We braced Diggs later and asked him how he liked the former President's answer.

"It contained a number of inferences," the solemn young man said.

Truman brought a blanch to Atomic Energy Commission security officers, and added fresh statistics to the atomic age, in the course of his lecture to the platform committee.

"You'll recall," he said to New Mexico Sen. Clint Anderson, "that we spent $2,600,000,000 in order to touch off that first 13-pound bomb in your state. That bomb cost us $200,000,000 a pound."

Truman hurt business at Washington Park Saturday.

His news conference to announce his choice immobilized hosts of reporters and delegates who had planned to go to the races as guests of Col. Jack Arvey, the man behind Adlai Stevenson.

It may have cost the Democratic Party the pari-mutuel vote.

ocratic National Committee headquarters at the Conrad Hilton has a nice name: George Washington. Probably a federalist spy.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) —

For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ~~gone~~ to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

U. S. Army Unit in Japan Wages Battle With Truth Over the Bamboo Curtain

TOKYO (INS) — Asian Communists are finding out that the truth hurts—especially when it's a U.S. Army unit carrying on a long-range battle against Communism with a strangely unaggressive arsenal of weapons. It consists of radio, transmitters and printing presses, the standard equipment for psychological warfare.

It is a pretty safe bet that the Army's continuous campaign of truth in broadcasts, pamphlets and leaflets is badly damaging Communist prestige in Asia.

The evidence lies in a violent counter-drive the Reds have launched. One Communist pamphlet picked up in Tokyo described the Tokyo "Psywar" unit as a "sinister organization, which employs murder, forgery, and other common law crimes . . . to carry out its missions."

Col. William R. Robinette, Psywar officer, declared: "This kind of tirade usually means that our work is hurting them."

The colonel described his mission as two-fold:

"First we work to tell the facts about the free world to captive nations. We explain our ideals and our concepts of freedom."

"Secondly, we strive to expose the aggressive nature of Communism, to reveal the truth about its slave labor camps, its purges, the loss of individual human rights under its fist, and its government by tyranny."

Communist Chinese and North Korean audiences heard the news of Stalin's death broadcast by Psywar stations 24 hours before it was announced officially by the Red governments.

And the Army was first to break the stories that Malenkov had been ousted and Beria purged.

These broadcasts, well in advance of official announcements, have built up confidence in Psywar's newscasts on the part of Communist listeners.

Recently, Chinese Communist soldiers heard a radio commentator describing an uprising by Chinese farmers against their Communist bosses.

He warned them in their native tongue that Peiping might later attribute this to guerrilla action. Actually, exorbitant taxes on crops had driven the farmers to revolt, he declared.

The Chinese people have no other access to the truth. Without such broadcasts, they would be forced to swallow whatever line Peiping was using.

Such broadcasts are a daily routine in Psywar's campaign to open the eyes of Asian people under Communist rule to the truth about themselves.

During the Korean war, the unit dropped nearly 4 billion leaflets behind enemy lines.

THE POWERHOUSE

There is no excuse for repeated bad manners on the part of a public hero. Especially a hero who is well paid. Ted Williams unquestionably was guilty of a series of almost incredibly childish tantrums at Fenway Park Tuesday. He was very likely warned. It is doubtful he was told his next infraction would bring a $5,000 fine.

Ted knew that in recent years a prominent manager had fractured the jaw of a GI heckler under the stands of his park while a so-called security officer held the victim's arms.

He knew the air waves were scorched by a howling insane tirade of obscene words that almost blew out every receiving set in a radius of 100 miles of the metropolitan area.

Hundreds of shocked parents, sitting in the front boxes well within ear shot of most dugouts, will tell you of disgusting experiences far worse than Williams' sophomoric expressions of contempt.

Let's face it, baseball is not a pretty world of good manners, clean language and kind deeds. We have a pitcher recently intent on winning at the expense of a possible fracture of the skull of his opponent.

We see that pitcher flinging the ball at his victim and running in craven flight to the safety of his comrades. We see repeated spikings at second base. Billy Martin has been an exciting player and a highly explosive storm center.

Even the revered Bill Dickey fractured the jaw of Carl Reynolds after a close play at home plate.

In kindergartens, children stick out their tongues. Children go through the mockery of expectorating in the general direction of the object of their disdain. Does all this fall into the $5,000-fine class? Aren't we being a little childish and holier-than-thou?

BABE DID THINGS IN A GRAND MANNER

Babe Ruth did things on a more magnificent scale. When the Babe went on a toot, it was an all-time, all-America wing-ding. There is still some debate over the actual payment of the Babe's $5,000 fine. Babe's conduct at the time was interpreted as causing the loss of ball games.

In the Ted Williams case, the former war hero and flyer had just won a game. Previously, he had misjudged a fly in a windswept field. He came back to make a circus catch on Yogi Berra.

Then, with nerves steady on a 3-2 count, and the bases loaded, his famous eyes watched the pitch sail toward the plate and in a fraction of an instant they judged the pitch correctly—a ball, and victory. Naturally he was elated. The hated Yanks were beaten. Up went the bat—50 feet into the air.

I have the feeling a psychiatrist should be writing our sports pieces these days. And he would have plenty of customers on both sides.

Olympic Stars Sparkle During Water Carnival

Although rain delayed the start of the Oakland Hills annual Water Carnival Saturday night at the club pool, the program was carried out completely for a most entertaining evening.

Swimming and diving stars from the recent Olympic trials in Detroit combined with club swimmers to provide the colorful feature.

Jack Wardrop showed the free style technique; Dick Hanley, U. of M. swimmer, demonstrated the new dolphin stroke. Record-breaker Shelley Mann of Washington, demonstrated the type of training Olympic performers go through in preparation for the big events. She also showed the butterfly and free style strokes.

Others included Jeanne Stunyo, Olympic diver who did the brilliant final dive at Detroit that won her a place on the 1956 Olympic squad, and Doug Gray, freestyle star.

A relay, with the Olympians teaming with OH swimmers, and comedy diving were other features. Stands were jammed for the show.

Pontiac Bows in Double Bill

Clawson, Berkley Win Here Sunday, Rochester and B'ham Victors

The home town representative in the District Junior American Legion baseball loop took it on the chin twice Sunday. But the double loss didn't pull Boys' Club off the league's top spot, where they have a 7-2 mark.

First game went to Clawson 3-2 while Berkley who had lost earlier in the day to Birmingham took the nightcap, 4-2. In the last tilt a new Berkley player, Bill Arno, hit a homer with one on, in the 5th, to break a 2-2 tie and win the contest.

Birmingham dumped Berkley at Birmingham 8-1, with Dick Clonnan pitching a 3-hitter. He fanned 11 in the 7-inning game and drove in two runs with a 2nd inning double, to win his own battle.

Rochester blanked Milford 6-0, with a superlative mound job by Evans. Evans allowed only two hits, struck out 9 in his first game as a hurler. He was formerly an outfielder.

CHICAGO (U)—Ted Kroll, golf's Purple Heart hero, today went after and captured the game's richest prize, the $50,000 top swag of the "World tourney."

There was more than poetic justice as the 37-year-old Kroll, long seeking a major title, hit the jackpot with a sizzling 15-under-par total of 273 at Tam O'Shanter yesterday and prepared to pocket another $50,000 in exhibition money.

Kroll, who is short at 5-8 1/2, compact at 152 and iron-nerved (he was wounded four times in World War II), indicated he would sign today with Promoter George S. May for a minimum of 50 promotional exhibitions at $1,000 per appearance.

Kroll fine string of 67-69-71-66 rounds matched the 1931 "World" record aggregate of 273 by Ben Hogan.

The $50,000 first prize made Kroll the year's top money winner with $72,835, but fame and fortune have been elusive to this native of New Hartford, Conn., up until the world show.

In finishing three strokes ahead of Fred Hawkins (276) with his bristling 32-34-66 finish through a crowd estimated at 61,000, Kroll finally won his "big one" after 18 years as a pro.

Kroll won the Tucson Open with a 265 effort and the Houston Open and was defeated by Jack Burke in the National PGA finals this year. That had given him third place in PGA money-winners entering the World meet, for his best showing since turning pro.

Hawkins, who closed with a 67 for his 276 collected $10,000, still a lot more money than the top prize in the average tourney, was followed by Roberto de Vicenzo of Mexico City. De Vicenzo had the best closing round, 65 for a 277 and third money of $5,000.

Fourth prize went to another foreigner, Australia's Peter Thomson, winner of the past three British Opens, who folded on the last nine for a 71 and a 278 total, good for $3,000.

Marlene Bauer Hagg won the $6,000 first prize in the women's pro division with 298, defeating Betty Jameson by one stroke.

Ward Wetlaufer, 20-year-old Hamilton College golf captain

from Buffalo, N.Y., took the men's amateur with 290, seven strokes ahead of Martin Stanovich, Chicago.

Anne Richardson, of Columbus, Ohio, finished with 309 to win by 10 strokes over Jackie Yates of Honolulu in the women's amateur division.

Kroll accepted the $50,000 check from Promoter May and then fled to his hotel to see how his two ailing youngsters, Deborah, 3, and Donna, 1, were faring.

He had to be summoned, through a torrential downpour, which hit Tam O'Shanter shortly after the tourney ended, to the press room for an interview.

Asked how he felt playing through the huge galleries streaming from the 61,000 persons scattered over Tam, Kroll replied: "I guess the crowd was with me. They cheered just about everything I did."

Walter Burke, who had shared the 54-hole world lead with Kroll and Thomson, wound up in a four-man tie for fifth place at 280, good for $2,050 apiece. His companions were former U.S. Open champions Ed Furgol, Jack Fleck and Pete Cooper.

The defending World champion, Julius Boros, was knotted with seven others at 284, 11 strokes off the pace. Boros collected $344, compared with his $50,000 last year.

It was Bolling's 4th home run that sewed up the contest and spiraled Pierce to his fifth loss. The little leaguer has won 17—tops in the league.

Paul Foytack probably will open the Cleveland series and Early Wynn is the choice to oppose him. Foytack has beaten every club in the league at least once and is 1-1 against the Indians.

CHICAGO (U)—Quixotic, fastest boat of its class built in America, held a commanding lead today with only three races to go in the U. S. Olympic 5.5-meter trials.

Quixotic, sailed by Marblehead sailmaker Ted Hood, registered a third straight victory by defeating Any Schoettie's Rush IV from Philadelphia by a minute and a half.

The triumph boosted Quixotic's point total to 4,082. Bob Moshbacher's Carina from Houston, Tex., was second with 3,304, followed by Rush IV with 2,753.

Two other Houston entries trailed in order, Ernest Fay's Sabre with 2,636, and Albert Fay's Flame with 2,034.

The defending World champion, Julius Boros, was knotted with seven others at 284, 11 strokes off the pace. Boros collected $344, compared with his $50,000 last year.

It was Bolling's 4th home run that sewed up the contest and spiraled Pierce to his fifth loss. The little leaguer has won 17—tops in the league.

Paul Foytack probably will open the Cleveland series and Early Wynn is the choice to oppose him. Foytack has beaten every club in the league at least once and is 1-1 against the Indians.

Quixotic, sailed by Marblehead sailmaker Ted Hood, registered a third straight victory by defeating Any Schoettie's Rush IV from Philadelphia by a minute and a half.

The triumph boosted Quixotic's point total to 4,082. Bob Moshbacher's Carina from Houston, Tex., was second with 3,304, followed by Rush IV with 2,753.

Two other Houston entries trailed in order, Ernest Fay's Sabre with 2,636, and Albert Fay's Flame with 2,034.

CHICAGO (U)—Ted Kroll, golf's Purple Heart hero, today went after and captured the game's richest prize, the $50,000 top swag of the "World tourney."

There was more than poetic justice as the 37-year-old Kroll, long seeking a major title, hit the jackpot with a sizzling 15-under-par total of 273 at Tam O'Shanter yesterday and prepared to pocket another $50,000 in exhibition money.

Kroll, who is short at 5-8 1/2, compact at 152 and iron-nerved (he was wounded four times in World War II), indicated he would sign today with Promoter George S. May for a minimum of 50 promotional exhibitions at $1,000 per appearance.

Kroll fine string of 67-69-71-66 rounds matched the 1931 "World" record aggregate of 273 by Ben Hogan.

The $50,000 first prize made Kroll the year's top money winner with $72,835, but fame and fortune have been elusive to this native of New Hartford, Conn., up until the world show.

In finishing three strokes ahead of Fred Hawkins (276) with his bristling 32-34-66 finish through a crowd estimated at 61,000, Kroll finally won his "big one" after 18 years as a pro.

Kroll won the Tucson Open with a 265 effort and the Houston Open and was defeated by Jack Burke in the National PGA finals this year. That had given him third place in PGA money-winners entering the World meet, for his best showing since turning pro.

Hawkins, who closed with a 67 for his 276 collected $10,000, still a lot more money than the top prize in the average tourney, was followed by Roberto de Vicenzo of Mexico City. De Vicenzo had the best closing round, 65 for a 277 and third money of $5,000.

Fourth prize went to another foreigner, Australia's Peter Thomson, winner of the past three British Opens, who folded on the last nine for a 71 and a 278 total, good for $3,000.

Marlene Bauer Hagg won the $6,000 first prize in the women's pro division with 298, defeating Betty Jameson by one stroke.

Ward Wetlaufer, 20-year-old Hamilton College golf captain

from Buffalo, N.Y., took the men's amateur with 290, seven strokes ahead of Martin Stanovich, Chicago.

Anne Richardson, of Columbus, Ohio, finished with 309 to win by 10 strokes over Jackie Yates of Honolulu in the women's amateur division.

Kroll accepted the $50,000 check from Promoter May and then fled to his hotel to see how his two ailing youngsters, Deborah, 3, and Donna, 1, were faring.

He had to be summoned, through a torrential downpour, which hit Tam O'Shanter shortly after the tourney ended, to the press room for an interview.

Asked how he felt playing through the huge galleries streaming from the 61,000 persons scattered over Tam, Kroll replied: "I guess the crowd was with me. They cheered just about everything I did."

Walter Burke, who had shared the 54-hole world lead with Kroll and Thomson, wound up in a four-man tie for fifth place at 280, good for $2,050 apiece. His companions were former U.S. Open champions Ed Furgol, Jack Fleck and Pete Cooper.

Demand Action on Acacia Drain

Board Determines Need for Sewage Processing in Friday Confab

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP — The Board of Determination, meeting at Beverly and Pierce roads to study the Acacia Park Drain, has decided that some mechanical means of processing sewage is necessary.

Some form of disposal plant, filtration beds or other mechanical method should be used, before the drain waters enter the Rouge, the members voted. They were Floyd Andrews, Lloyd Anderson, and James L. Gardner.

The city of Birmingham recently took a stand against such a treatment plant, resolving that the drain commissioner should intensify efforts to construct the Evergreen interceptor rather than construct small sewage treatment plants along the Rouge Valley.

The Acacia drain has earlier been found by the Michigan State Health Department to be polluted.

A petition on July 28 asked an abatement of the menace to public health resulting from improperly purified sewage carried by a discharge from the Acacia Park Drain.

Roadwork Foretells Tree-Lined Drive

MILFORD — As workmen put the final touches to the newly blacktopped Wixom road, residents are making plans to beautify the seven-mile stretch of road connecting the towns of Milford and Wixom.

For more than five years people living on the road have literally "fought" to get the controversial road blacktopped. Heavy week-end traffic to and from Kensington Park, Proud Lake Recreation Area and Camp Dearborn more than tripled, as heavy clouds of dust rolled into homes in the area.

With the organizing of the Wixom Road Improvement Assn. in 1952, delegations were sent to Lansing; meetings were held with the Oakland County Road Commission and finally in 1955 orders for blacktopping three and a half miles of the road was authorized by the commission.

A new, $60,000 bridge has been constructed across the Huron River at the Proud Lake Recreation area and with completion of the road this week, total cost of the project is $193,455.91, according to Commissioner Lee Brooks. $24,427 was Federal Aid, and the balance came from the Road Commission funds, he said.

It was necessary for workmen to remove some 400 century-old trees for widening of the road, and it is these trees that residents plan to replace.

People living along the Wixom road plan to order the Michigan State Forestry and wind-breaks, as soon as orders are taken at Lansing, for fall planting.

Al Masini, Proud Lake Recreation manager stated that the Conservation Department will cooperate fully in planting-instructions, and will supervise the installation of the trees.

Arthur Burkund, Elementary Supervisor has indicated that sixth grade students of the Huron Valley school system will help plant trees as part of their Science and Conservation study.

"The Wixom road is the only gravel road in the county to have been blacktopped within the last five years," Lee Brooks said.

"Many concrete roads have been re-surfaced, however," he added.

Michigan Corn Crop Drops From July

Grain Demand Up on Market

CHICAGO (U) — Demand for all grains except wheat became quite excessive on the Board of Trade today, forcing prices fractionally to around two cents higher.

Buying followed issuance of the agriculture department's Aug. 1 crop report after the market closed last Friday. Wheat tended to lag because of profit taking, plus the fact the department's wheat forecast was a little higher than a month earlier.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1/4 lower to one cent higher, September $2.19 1/2; corn 1/4 to 1/2 higher, September $1.48 1/2; oats 1/4 to 1/2 higher, September $1.39 1/2; soybeans one to 1 1/2 higher, September $2.45 1/2; and hard red 17 to 35 cents a hundred pounds higher, September $12.10.
