Blasts Stand on Freeway; Hint Move by Legislature

Floyd Andrews Protests Delay by State Official

Supervisors' Chairman Says Turnpike Needed to Relieve Traffic

Chairman of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors Floyd Andrews has provided the Press with a copy of a letter he is sending to State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler. It calls on Ziegler to end his opposition to the proposed north-south toll road. The complete text follows:

Dear Mr. Ziegler:

I have served on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors for over 18 years, and I have never seen a public official as far off base as you are in this turnpike situation.

The turnpike goes through the Township of Independence of which I am supervisor. It is a needed public improvement which will relieve congestion on parallel roads which you cannot maintain up to standard.

The people of Michigan will not stand for your nonsense of building a parallel freeway along the route of the proposed turnpike in an effort to undermine the Turnpike Authority program, while hundreds of miles of other Michigan roads go a-begging for improvement and new construction.

You tell the toll road authority you can build a million dollar a mile Detroit to Bay City expressway in five years and still take care of other roads.

You tell me you have no money for sorely needed improvement of Oakland County two lane roads that are going to pieces.

You tell the authority to forego their plans to build two of Michigan's most needed and most expensive expressways as toll pay-as-you-go projects — that the State Highway Department will do it with gas money.

You turn around and tell the State Administrative Board you can't say when a four lane expressway to the new $100,000,000 Mackinac Bridge will be completed because you do not know when you will have the money.

In other words you are blocking turnpike plans with talk of a competing highway, while neglecting roads in the rest of Michigan.

You know there isn't a county in Michigan without a traffic bot-

Humphrey Throws Hat Into Democrat VP Ring

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn) says he would consider it a signal honor to be nominated as the vice presidential candidate of the Democratic party. He also told the Trojan Democratic Club at the University of Southern California that Adlai Stevenson was the leading candidate for the party's presidential nomination.

President's Recovery Continues

Eisenhower Aides Expect Ike Back Within a Month

DENVER (AP)—President Eisenhower's doctors reported this morning that he had a second comfortable night's sleep with satisfactory progress toward recovery.

A 7 a.m. Denver time medical bulletin from Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, White House physician, and Col. Byron E. Pollock, chief of heart services at Fitzsimons Army Hospital, said:

"For the second consecutive night the President slept comfortably throughout the night. He went to sleep last night at 8:30 o'clock and awoke refreshed at 6:30 o'clock this morning.

"His progress continues to be satisfactory without complications."

In Washington, reports such as this were the basis of confidence within the Eisenhower team that the President will be able to take over the helm of government within 30 days.

In the interval, Eisenhower's top aides reportedly were ready to carry on business as usual on the basis of policy decisions he had laid down before Saturday's attack.

Even so, the medical experts attending the President at Fitzsimons still cautiously avoided outright predictions that recovery is absolutely certain and that no complications now need be expected.

The first 10 days or two weeks are the critical time in heart attacks such as the one Eisenhower suffered.

Last night's medical communique, reporting that the President had had "another satisfactory day" devoid of complication brought word from heart specialist Dr. Paul Dudley White in Boston that while Eisenhower was "coming along nicely" he still was "not out of the woods yet."

The Boston physician, who flew here Sunday and left next day, said Eisenhower's progress was in the expected pattern — neither faster nor slower than normal.

U.S.-Britain Object to Egyptian Arming

NEW YORK (INS) — A Big Four source revealed today that Secretary of State Dulles and British Foreign Secretary Macmillan have appealed to V. M. Molotov against arming Egypt with heavy aggressive weapons.

Molotov replied, somewhat reluctantly, that he would immediately convey the Allied concern about Middle East arms to Moscow for consideration. He declined to commit himself further.

Macmillan broached the subject at the end of the conference, with the immediate support of Dulles. Both acted after reports from Cairo that agreements had been reached with Russia and Czechoslovakia for delivery of arms, including jet bombers and tanks.

Soviet, Satellites, Menon Bolt When Nationalist Chinese Open Talk

Indian delegate V. K. Krishna Menon also left the room as Yeh began his declaration in which he told the Assembly that any improvement in East-West relations is not due to Soviet good will. It is due, he said, "to the policy of strength adopted by the free world."

It was recalled that last year when Assembly delegates paid tribute to the late Soviet delegate, Andrei Y. Vishinsky, the Nationalist Chinese were absent.

Yeh told the Assembly that collective security measures in Europe and Asia have served as the main block to the advance of world communism.

Ike Permitted to Hear Quiet, Lulling Music

DENVER (INS) — Maj. John Eisenhower last night revealed that his father is permitted to listen to quiet background music in his sickroom at Fitzsimons Army Hospital.

The major took two long-playing record albums to his father's room early in the evening. He said the President has asked to hear the music. A portable phonograph had been taken to the room earlier in the day.

Maj. Eisenhower said the records consisted of "quiet background - type music such as played by the Melachrino Strings."

Turnpike Heads Suggest Action by Lawmakers

Governor Williams, Higgins, Whiting See Need for Appeal

LANSING (AP)—The Legislature may be asked to stop State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler from blocking the proposed Saginaw-Flat Rock toll road.

The possibility of a direct appeal to the Legislature was raised yesterday at a conference between Gov. Williams and two members of the Toll Road Authority —Chairman George N. Higgins of Ferndale and Justin R. Whiting, chairman of the board of Consumers Power Co.

Whiting told Williams that the Authority should be ready to sell its toll road construction bonds in December or January but that it cannot proceed unless it has assurance that Ziegler will not build a parallel competing freeway between Detroit and Bay City. Ziegler has said he intends to proceed with the freeway.

The bonds would be hard to sell if a competing free road is built, Whiting said.

Whiting said he did not think existing law required Ziegler to stand clear of the toll road and agreed, at Williams' request, to investigate the legal angles with the attorney general.

Higgins told Williams that if Ziegler will not cooperate there is no alternative but to appeal to the Legislature to change the law and forbid Ziegler's freeway for at least a five-year period.

Higgins, a former Republican senator, hinted he thought the Legislature would heed such an appeal.

He said "legislators all want their share of highway funds for their own districts. They won't want it to go all in one place."

Williams agreed that it might be necessary to appeal to the Legislature, but he remarked that this also would delay the toll road because the Legislature does not meet until mid-January.

Higgins said the only other obstacle to prompt start on the toll road is a pending State Supreme Court case challenging the authority's powers. He said he hoped to get decision in November or early December and Williams agreed to ask the court to act as fast as posisble.

Higgins told Williams that conferences and conciliation with local governments and opponents had removed much of the criticism of the toll road route.

He said the Authority still is considering a westerly alternate route south of Eight-Mile Road, but that he thought the originally-proposed route was still the best.

Janet Smashes British Honduras

200 Lost as Hurricane Lays Waste Caribbean Islands, Yucatan

The hurricane, the 10th of the season, slammed ashore with 115-mile-an-hour winds.

It was moving about 23 m.p.h. when it hit British Honduras. The newspaper Diario de Yucatan said the storm earlier hit Quintana Roo, the easternmost strip of Mexico, a lonely stretch of coastline.

Janet buffeted the Yucatan Peninsula after completing a destructive course through the Caribbean Sea.

Her course was expected to be somewhat erratic as she swept further inland but there was a good chance, the Weather Bureau said, that any strength she might lose in her journey overland would be regained when she reaches the open waters of the Bay of Campeche.

The worst was yet to come, the Weather Bureau warned.

The hurricane already had claimed about 200 lives in the Caribbean. Perhaps nine U. S. Navy men and two Canadians were among them. They were aboard a hurricane hunter plane that flew into the storm Monday morning and has been missing ever since.

Clearing Skies, Cool Prediction for Area

The weatherman promises today and tomorrow will be mostly clear and cool.

The U.S. Weather Bureau forecasts a low tonight of 46-50. Tomorrow will be partly cloudy and mild with the temperature reaching a high of 72-76.

At 8 this morning, the thermometer reading was 58 degrees. Today's high in Pontiac is expected to reach 70. At 2 this afternoon the temperature registered 70 degrees.

Grief-Stricken Kidnaper Hands Over Infant to Priest

STOCKTON, Calif. (AP)—A grief-stricken woman who kidnaped a baby because she deceived her husband with a story of motherhood surrendered 11-day-old Robert Marcus to a Roman Catholic priest today.

Officers said she confessed stealing the baby from the nursery of a San Francisco hospital nine days ago.

Police Chief Jack O'Keefe said Mrs. Betty Benedicto, 27, of Stockton delivered the baby to the Rev. Allen McCoy at St. Mary's parish after telephoning Dr. Sanford Marcus, the infant's father in San Francisco, and instructing him to meet her here.

The baby is in excellent condition and police said there is no question he is Robert Marcus.

Dr. Marcus, 34, grinning for the first time since his son was stolen, said, "We feel in our hearts he is ours. We are 99 per cent certain. But we will await footprint checks and blood tests."

Marcus and his grief-stricken wife, Hanna, 29, who has been in a state of near collapse since the kidnaping, made the 80-mile trip to Stockton in a San Francisco police car in 75 minutes.

Mrs. Benedicto, sobbing and near hysteria when taken to the Stockton police station, was booked on a technical holding charge. Chief O'Keefe said he understood San Francisco authorities would charge her with kidnaping.

The husband, Marcus Benedicto, 52, didn't know of the ruse, the chief said, and didn't become suspicious until last night. Then he went to police, almost at the moment his wife was telephoning Dr. Marcus, about 12:35 a.m. today.

O'Keefe said Mrs. Benedicto sobbed out this story:

She began gaining weight several months ago and people began teasing her about being pregnant. To stop the kidding, she said she was—and convinced her husband along with others.

When the approximate time came for a baby to arrive, she went to Los Angeles to visit her mother. Her mother put her on a diet. She lost several pounds and returned to Stockton. Her husband asked where the baby was. She told him it was sick but that she could get him in a couple of days.

When "Papa" Benedicto began passing out cigars, she went to San Francisco, looked over the Mt. Zion Hospital nursery and dashed away with the Marcus baby. She said she chose that particular one because Marcus was her husband's first name.

Advance and Be Known —You Don't Get Past Me

DENVER (INS) — The military policeman who guards the President's express elevator at Fitzsimons hospital today sternly shooed away a lanky good-looking man in civilian clothing.

When the visitor looked flustered at the rebuff, a secret service agent walked up and said:

"Good morning, Maj. Eisenhower."

Supervisors OK County Budget

Employe Pay Boost Accounts for Most of $1 Million Increase

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors today made final a 1956 county budget totaling $7,841,993, an increase of $1,105,175 over last year's figure.

Of the total $6,097,242 will be raised from taxation, a jump of $1,128,874 above 1955.

The county's tax rate this year has already been set at 4.37 mills ($4.37 per $1,000 of property valuation).

The main increase this year was in salaries paid to county employes. The total was raised $440,554 over last year.

Total outlay for salaries will be $3,644,401. The increase was due primarily to addition of new personnel plus regular yearly wage hikes, said Chairman of the Board of Auditors Robert Y. Moore.

Budgets of various county welfare services were jumped a total $151,000, said Moore, because of constantly increasing use.

Oakland-operated hospitals will receive $47,000 more, again because of accelerated use.

The Circuit Court appropriation was upped $49,889 to cover expense of providing quarters and a staff for Oakland's fourth circuit judge slated to begin duties Jan. 1 next year.

Key Stocks Are Up $1 to $4 on Rebound

Prices ran higher in key stocks from $1 to $4 a share as buying and selling orders churned the market. There were some losers here and there.

The ticker tape, which normally reports transactions within seconds, could not keep up with the rapid pace and ran as much as 3 minutes late but caught up after the first hour.

By early afternoon prices were shading their best but the tone was still good.

Du Pont was up $3.12 at $222.75, General Motors up $3.12 at $142.75 and Santa Fe up $3.50 at $139.75.

Most other departments received smaller budget increases.

Collins' 4-Base Clout in 4th Breaks 3 to 3 Tie in Opener Today

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

NEW YORK—The Yankees took the opening game of the World Series here this afternoon, 6 to 5, in a game sparked by five home runs.

Brooklyn scored first and was pushing the Yankees at the close, coming from a 6-3 score to within one run of sending the game to extra innings.

Joe Collins lined a home run into the right field stands to give the Yankees a 4-to-3 lead over the Dodgers after four innings.

Collins' leadoff smack broke a 3-3 tie.

Duke Snider slammed a tremendous home run into the upper right field stands leading off the third to break a 2-2 tie in the see-saw inaugural, but the Yankees reached Don Newcombe for a run in their half to deadlock matters.

Grandma Power 'Takes a Walk' From Big Query

NEW YORK (AP) — Grandma Myrtle Power, the baseball sage from the Southland, has taken her $32,000 and retired from big league play on TV after a perfect five-week season.

Urged by her children and a host of well-wishers not to take the risk, she passed up a chance at the grand prize on The $64,000 Question CBS giveaway show.

The 70-year-old widow says her winnings, estimated at $21,000 after income taxes, will be "put in a sock" and saved.

Mrs. Power, a baseball fan for 60 years and a Brooklyn Dodger rooter, said: "My Dodgers have won lots of pennants and I feel like I won a pennant, and they never won a World Series and I don't want to beat them to the draw."

If she had tried for the $64,000, she would have gotten only $12,000 or $13,000 more after taxes.

Before Mrs. Power stepped out, another baseball whiz advanced through the $8,000 question in his chosen category—also baseball.

He's Patrick Keough, 62, of St. Louis, a baseball fan for more than 50 years. He can try next Tuesday night for $16,000.

Ohio Will Open 241-Mile Turnpike Across State Saturday

COLUMBUS, Ohio — The Ohio Turnpike which opens its gates to cross-state traffic Saturday, will be a major link in a high-speed 850-mile-long toll road network to tie New York and Chicago within a year.

The road will have a number of innovations, including an automatic weighing and toll collection system and a depressed center strip, designed to trap out-of-control vehicles from crashing into oncoming traffic. Other features are extra-wide outside and inside shoulders, twin bridges and twin service areas.

Turnpike officials estimate the super-road will trim more than three hours from cross-state driving time and will save between $4 and $6 in gas and oil consumption.

Trucks will save over five hours and $8 to $30, they estimate.

The Ohio Turnpike is a four-lane, divided highway, streaching 241 miles across the state from Pennsylvania on the east to Indiana on the west. Interchanges for entering and leaving the turnpike are located at 15 points (see map) across the state.

Sylvan Petition Deadline Nears

Candidates for 2 Seats on Council Must File by Saturday Noon

Sylvan Lake City Council aspirants have until Saturday noon to file petitions for the two seats to be filled at the Nov. 8 municipal election, City Clerk Marjorie Willson said today.

The two positions, each for three years, are now held by Howard E. Wideman and Robert L. Evans. Neither has yet filed petitions for re-election according to Mrs. Willson.

The city's five council posts are filled on a rotating basis each November.

Mrs. Willson reminded residents that they must register no later than 8 p.m. Oct. 7 if they wish to vote this November.

To be eligible, a person must be a resident of Sylvan Lake for 30 days and of Michigan for six months. The clerk's office at city hall is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

tleneck, and if you forget all about competing with the turnpike it still would take you until 1970 to fix up the rest of the state roads.

The Township of Independence has 65 miles of Class C roads, taking a terrific pounding because of a big increase in their use. We have a budget of $18,902.22 to keep them up, and it just isn't enough. We have less than $900 left in our road budget as of Aug. 31, 1955.

This information is supplied to me by the Oakland County Road Commission which has control of all our funds allocated from the gas and weight tax. The township owns and operates two road trucks for which the only expense is the salary of one driver.

Maybe if we end up without enough money to remove the first snow, because you're so busy using your money to block turnpikes, the people will wake up to what you are doing.

We have primary roads here in Oakland County that do not have a seal coat as yet. You tell us "no money," but you tell the Detroit Economic Club in a debate with Turnpike Chairman Higgins that you've got enough money to handle road building alone without the Turnpike Authority help, including $115,000,000 for a Detroit to Bay City road within five years.

That $115,000,000, Mr. Ziegler, would build 500 miles of brand new two lane roads, widen to four lanes 300 miles of existing substandard two lane highways, improve 1,500 miles of Class C roads.

For pity sake, let the Turnpike Authority build the Detroit to Bay City road, and use your $115,000,000 for other needed work.

The legislature wants you to do this. They decided to establish a turnpike authority because they knew there wouldn't be enough tax money to build all the expensive expressways needed without some toll roads.

The legislature told you to serve on the turnpike commissin, and you have a responsibility to the people of Michigan to do so. The legislature already has decided that Michigan should have toll roads, but you seem to be assuming that authority with your competing freeway plan.

There are two roads in Michigan the Turnpike Authority can build (Rockwood to Saginaw and Detroit to Chicago) and hundreds of others they can't. You stick to those the authority can't handle and we will get the roads we need.

FLOYD ANDREWS,
Supervisor Independence Township.

P. S. Why not give the working man some decent roads to drive back and forth to work over? Also, why not give the children who ride school busses something besides chuckholes to ride over?

Hearings on Parking Set for October 30

Condemnation hearings are slated to begin Oct. 30 in Oakland County Circuit Court in Pontiac's attempt to acquire a parcel of land needed for a new municipal parking lot, City Attorney William A. Ewart said today.

The city has options for purchase of three other parcels needed for the lot and already owns a fourth. The site is behind the County Office Building at 1 Lafayette St.

The land in question is the only piece needed to complete the site. Owner Mrs. Frances N. Swisher now operates it as a private lot.

'Y' Teams Seeking Membership Goal

With 495 adult members enrolled, the Pontiac YMCA membership committee was working hard to reach its goal of 800 by tomorrow's deadline in an adult membership enrollment drive.

Final results of the campaign will be reported at a victory dinner served at 6:15 p.m. tomorrow in the YMCA banquet hall. Blue Star Mothers will serve the dinner.

Leading the four teams recruiting members are Richard Fisher and his "Alumni," followed by Arnold Whittaker's "All Stars." Close on their heels in the race to sign up 800 members are the 17-man "All Americans" headed by James Jenkins, and the "Pros" under Robert Sutton.

Some 30 gifts, including an electric shaver, a live turkey, sports shirts and tickets to all-star football games, will be auctioned off as part of the victory dinner program. Members of the campaign teams will buy the gifts with bogus money, given to them as their pay for signing up new members.

Sukos Festival Highlights Jewish Holiday Weekend

An ancient harvest festival with a modern spiritual note will be celebrated in Jewish congregations and homes beginning Friday evening.

The name of the holiday is Sukos, meaning Tabernacles, a reference to the meager abodes in which the Israelites lived during their wanderings from Egypt en route to the Promised Land.

During the holiday, celebrated eight days by Orthodox and Conservative Jews and seven by Reform, booths, hung with greenery, autumn fruits and vegetables, are constructed adjoining homes and synagogues or on the altar of the temples.

Each booth or suko, is a reminder of nature's bounty and is designed to prompt a feeling of gratitude to God for the earth's produce and for preserving those who strive for freedom.

At the worship services, prayers are recited sounding the theme of gratitude.

HOLIDAY THEME

The holiday's principal theme is struck by such prayers as the one which reads, "The earth is Thine and the fullness thereof; help us to realize that the blessings we enjoy are but tokens of Thy love and that when we use Thy gifts in the service of our fellowmen we offer thanksgiving unto Thee."

Nixon Reports Smooth Sailing

Sees No Major Legal Problems Involved in President's Illness

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Nixon said today operations of the government "are going smoothly and we see no serious legal problems involved" in President Eisenhower's illness.

Nixon thus appeared to be subscribing to the reported decision by other members of Eisenhower's team against delegating to Nixon, or anyone else, any presidential powers.

This decision was said to stem from confidence that within 30 days at the most Eisenhower himself again will be able to guide the nation.

Nixon was asked about reports that it had been decided yesterday, in conferences of top administration government officials here, that no delegation of presidential powers was needed.

Nixon said he would not deny the report, but would not comment specifically on the various meetings he is having with Cabinet officers and other officials.

2 Detroiters Mute on Zoo Raid Count

Two Detroit youths, charged with stealing a fawn and rabbit from the Detroit Zoo in Royal Oak, stood mute on breaking and entering charges in Oakland County Circuit Court yesterday.

Judge George B. Hartrick entered an innocent plea for George McDonnell, 17, of 631 Boston, and Peter Merem, 18, of 130 W. Chicago. They are in Oakland County Jail under $500 bond.

The pair broke into the zoo's Kiddy Korral, police said, with a group of juveniles. They supposedly intended to eat the animals, police stated.

Board Satisfies Law Formality

Meets Yesterday, Also Convening Today for 1956 Budget Session

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors assembled yesterday to hear results of the State Tax Commission's revision of county tax equalization figures read for the second time.

The changes were made after an appeal to the state by Waterford Township. They altered amounts of total 1956 county and school taxes which each individual governmental unit will pay.

The board had no power to fight the changes and yesterday's meeting amounted to only a formality required by law. Supervisors refrained from officially adopting the report.

"We had it shoved down our throat," said Birmingham Supervisor David Levinson, "and it's final whether we adopt it or not."

Two new supervisors were present, Lawrence H. Best, of Hazel Park, and Howard H. Grenshaw, of Berkley.

The board met again this morning in the office building at 1 Lafayette St. and was expected to make the tentative 1956 county budget final.

New York—Hank Bauer launched Yankee doings by outracing a bouncer to the right side. But Newcombe quelled any thoughts the Bombers had for a quick getaway by striking out Gil McDougald and inducing Irv Noren to bounce into a double play.

Second Inning

Yankees—It didn't take Bombers long to tie the score in the second inning. Berra grounded out and Joe Collins reached 1st via a walk, Elston Howard, making his 1st appearance ever in a World Series, drilled a home run into the left field stands. Billy Martin skied to right and Phil Rizzuto was thrown out by Robinson.

Third Inning

Dodgers—Snider, leading off the 3rd, blasted a rocket into right field balcony. It was the 6th World Series homer of the Duke's career, and a record for a National League player. Campanella popped to 3rd and Furillo walked. Hodges flied out and Robinson struck out.

Yankees — Yankees squared matters at 3-3 in their half. Ford walked, Bauer singled to left. Both moved up a base as McDougald grounded out. Ford scored from 3rd as Zimmer threw out Noren. Berra ended the inning by bounding back to Newcombe.

Fourth Inning

Dodgers—Dodgers failed to produce in the 4th despite two walks. Ford got out the inning when he got Reese to ground into a double play.

Yankees—Collins homered to start the Yankee 4th and break the 3-3 tie. Howard and Rizzuto were strikeout victims. In between them, Martin singled, but was out attempting to steal.

Fifth Inning

Dodgers—Dodgers threatened in the 5th but failed to score. Furillo and Hodges singled after two were down, but Robinson stopped the assault when he flied out to Noren in center.

Yankees — Newcombe retired Ford, Bauer and McDougald in order in the Yankee 5th.

Sixth Inning

Yankees—After Brooklyn again failed to score in the 6th, Yogi Berra singled in the Yankee half and Collins drove his 2nd homer into the right field bleachers. When Martin tripled, Newcombe was taken out and Don Bessent came in to pitch for Brooklyn. Martin tried to steal home as Eddie Robinson batted for Rizzuto but was thrown out.

Seventh Inding

Dodgers—Ford retired Reese, Snider and Campanella in order in the Dodger 7th. Collins contributed a fielding gem to his batting feats with a brilliant stop and throw on Snider's hard smash down the 1st base line. Gerry Coleman replaced Rizzuto at short at the start of the frame.

Yankees—Yankee 7th was a quiet affair, too. Bessent disposed of Coleman, Ford and Bauer without any difficulty.

Eighth Inning

Dodgers — Fighting Brooks came within 6-5 of the Yanks by scoring two runs in the 8th, aided by an error and some daredevil base running by the inimitable Robinson.

Zimmer delivered Furillo with a long sacrifice fly. Robinson stole home on Ford's windup and catcher Berra, Manager Stengel and other Bombers stormed around plate umpire Bill Summers to protest his "safe" decision. Frank Kellert pinch hit for Bessent and dumped a single into center. Don Bzak ran for Kellert and Gilliam ended the rally with a pop fly to short.

Yankees—Righthander Clem Labine came on to pitch for Brooklyn in the Yankee 8th. McDougald singled but Noren nudged into a Hodges-Reese-Hodges double play, Berra walked and Collins was out on a long smash which Gilliam caught in left center field.

Ninth Inning

Elmer Turner, Wife Face Check Charges

Elmer Turner, 36, former Auburn Heights man charged with cashing bad checks, waived examination when he was arraigned yesterday before Avon Township Justice Luther C. Green.

Turner's wife, Joyce, 23, held on the same charge, pleaded innocent at her arraignment before Pontiac Township Justice Robert Hodge. Both were returned to Oakland County jail under bond pending court appearance Oct. 3.

The couple was returned here last week by Sheriff's deputies from Bakersfield, Calif., where they had been arrested on a similar charge.

Bones in Basement Ruled 'Not Human'

Three small bones found in a wooden box by a Leonard man enlarging his basement were ruled "definitely not human" yesterday by St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Pathologist Dr. Richard E. Olson.

William Berndt, of 951 E. Leonard Rd., turned his find over to the Oakland County Prosecutor's Office yesterday. Dr. Olson told Prosecutor's Chief Investigator Robert C. Miller that the bones are probably those of a dog.

The Day in Birmingham

$2 Million in Bonds Sold by Board of Education

BIRMINGHAM — With its low bid showing a net interest rate of 2.88 per cent, the First of Michigan Corp. last night was awarded the sale of $2 million in building and site bonds by the Board of Education. The bonds are part of a $5.5 million school bond issue passed this summer.

"I am very happy that we were able to keep the interest rate under three per cent," said Supt. of Schools Dwight B. Ireland, in expressing satisfaction over the sale.

Also awarded were contracts for the six-classroom and kindergarten addition to Beverly Elementary School, with work to be started immediately. J. C. Nielsen Co. with a low bid of $183,458, was given the construction contract.

Staying within the $250,000 estimate prescribed by Dr. Ireland, expenses should total $242,347, including architect's fees, equipment and essential landscaping.

The board also held further school-site discussion with the Westchester Village developer, where over 550 homes are slated for eventual construction in the area bounded by Maple, Cranbrook, Fourteen Mile and Lahser Roads. The developer has offered to sell, at original cost, land for construction of an elementary school there.

Members ask that a more centrally located plot be investigated than one currently under consideration on Maple, west of Cranbrook and the homes already developed.

Despite a liquidated damages clause calling for $50 each day beyond the Sept. 23 date originally set for opening Municipal Parking Lot No. 1, the City Commission agreed this week to take no action if any, until the Pierce-Merrill parking area is completed.

Contractor Don Wells explained in a communication that the cement shortage had caused the delay, and asked for a time extension to Oct. 8.

At a savings of $470, commissioners also voted to have the contractor proceed as planned, using a smooth-surfaced stone to edge the top of the wall. Their other choice was a "rock faced" stone.

Thieves didn't miss a golden opportunity when they saw one, according to today's police blotter. Melvin A. Noonen, DDS, of 630 North Woodward, reported the larceny of about $50 in new gold, taken from an envelope inside a cupboard.

The dentist had not had occasion to seek out this particular cache since July, so police have theorized that the burglary occurred in July when several other larcenies were reported in the building, a doctor's clinic.

Firing Figures Under Attack

South Carolina Senator Says GOP Is Playing 'Numbers Racket'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) said today testimony by Veterans Administrator H. V. Higley supported Democratic charges that a "numbers racket" was being played with the government's employe security program.

* * *

Johnston is chairman of a Senate Civil Service subcommittee investigating the Eisenhower administration's controversial security program, put into effect in May 1953.

Higley told the subcommittee yesterday, before it recessed its hearings until today, that the "great majority" of 449 Veterans Administration employes listed as fired under the security program were "in the nonsecurity category." He said they would have been "fired anyway" for other reasons.

FOLLOW REGULATIONS

He said most of these dismissals came under regular civil service regulations which permit firings for incompetence and other causes, although the initial checks were run as part of the security program.

Johnston said he was convinced that "practically all' federal employes who have been tagged as security risks could have been discharged under regular civil service procedures "without besmirching anyone's name."

* * *

Higley said he didn't have anything to do with compiling the lists of the security firings.

Subcommittee Counsel Paul Hadlick asked him if any of the dismissed VA employes were Communists. "Not to my knowledge, sir," he replied.

Ike's Illness Delays Reply to Bulganin

NEW YORK (INS)—The U. S. has informed Russia that only President Eisenhower's illness has held up a reply to Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin's message on disarmament delivered last week.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles asked Russia's Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov last night in New York to advise Bulganin that no discourtesy was intended by the delay.

Informed sources said Dulles told Molotov he had talked to the chief executive on Friday, the day before Eisenhower was stricken with a coronary thrombosis.

The secretary said he had the impression that the President was planning to send an interium reply to Bulganin on Saturday.

British Naval Squadron Will Visit Leningrad

MOSCOW (AP)—The first British naval squadron to visit a Soviet port since World War II will sail into Leningrad harbor Oct. 12. The same day six Russian warships arrive at the British naval base at Portsmouth for an exchange visit.

In Washington, State Departmen officials said they knew of no plans for any such exchange between Russian and U. S. ships.

Physician Hits at Polio Fund

Accuses Foundation of Using Poor Judgment About Vaccine

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—The chairman of the Council of the Michigan State Medical Society, Dr. William Bromme of Detroit, says the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis showed poor judgment in its "arrogant position in promoting Salk polio vaccine."

"The polio foundation took too much responsibility in its own hands and didn't give enough to the American Medical Assn.", said Bromme in a speech yesterday to the Grand Rapids Lions Club.

He added "the 'hoopla" promoted by the coundation since it announced in Ann Arbor the result of its 1954 field tests of Salk vaccine has slowed development of a more potent vaccine.

"It is a blessing in disguise," said Bromme, "that there wasn't enough of the vaccine to give all children their second shots during the summer, because the shots would come at the height of the polio season. It generally is believed to be a poor time to inoculate for any disease at a time when the disease is most prevalent."

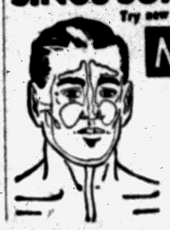

Dr. Bromme, who is attending the annual convention of the Michigan Medical Society, lauded the work of Dr. Jonas Salk, inventor of the vaccine.

"Dr. Salk is a wonderful scientist who has contributed much to science and the fight against polio," said Bromme. "But the polio foundation has gone overboard in promoting its particular hobby at the expense of medical scientists working in the same field."

DaVince Work, Bought for $450, Is Not for Sale

CHICAGO (AP)—A Chicago interior decorator says he will not sell his newly discovered Da Vinci oil painting of Madonna and child, but adds that "sooner or later I will donate it to an American museum.

"I will keep it and enjoy it awhile," said Hanns R. Teichert of his $450 purchase now valued at more than one million dollars.

Dr. Hans Huth, curator of research at the Chicago Art Institute, has not seen the painting but has expressed doubt that it is really the work of Leonardo da Vinci, famed for his Mona Lisa.

The painting, now kept in a vault, was identified as a Da Vinci by Dr. Maurice H. Goldblatt, director of the art galleries at the University of Notre Dame.

Teichert, who specializes in church and theater interiors, bought the painting in a New York antique shop a year ago for $450.

Pakistani Export Jute

East Pakistan is vital to Pakistan's national solvency, says the National Geographic Society. Its monsoon climate and rich alluvial soil produce more than 70 per cent of the world's jute, the plant fiber used in making burlap and twine. Jute exports provide nearly half of Pakistan's foreign exchange.

What Do You Know About Your Heart?

Rheumatic Fever Scars Vital Valves

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

NEW YORK (AP) — In backstage drama, medical science has achieved practical victory over a heart disease that probably cripples more children each year than polio.

* * *

The disease is rheumatic fever, a silent saboteur of heart valves. Wonder drugs have brought this victory in one of the brightest successes in heart research.

Other drugs are scoring successes too against another major killer—high blood pressure, often a contributing factor in heart attacks such as that President Eisenhower suffered.

Rheumatic fever is a disease of aches and pains and fever that involves the heart, often scarring vital valves, making them leaky and making the victim a heart cripple.

STREP GERM

Doctors sought and finally found the answer.

Rheumatic fever, they found, followed infections with a vicious type of germ, one type of "strep" or streptococcus. In a small percentage of humans, a curious kind of reaction explodes after a strep sore throat or scarlet fever. The victims of this achy rheumatic disease are most often children between the ages 5 and 9.

* * *

They often recover without ill effects. But too often the inflammatory disease hits the heart valves or the heart muscle, creating scars, interfering with the heart. Rheumatic fever can kill or cripple. It is estimated half a million children now suffer from it, and as many adults are its victims.

DAMAGE WAITS

Usually, damage does not occur with the first attack. But the child becomes sensitized to recurrent and damaging attacks.

While there still are mysteries as to exactly what happens, medicine has found the method of prevention. It is to treat any strep infections promptly with penicillin, and to give one of the wonder drugs continuously to the past victim of rheumatic fever, to prevent future attacks.

* * *

The American Heart Assn. has launched a campaign for prevention of this unnecessary crippler. Daily tablets of penicillin or sulfa drugs, or once-a-month shots of a long-lasting form of penicillin, now make it possible practically to eradicate rheumatic fever.

In the last five years have come new drugs that help control many cases of high blood pressure (hypertension in medical terms), blamed as directly the killer of 93,000 Americans annually, and a handmaiden of death directly or indirectly in another 150,000 fatalities. More than eight million Americans have some degree of it.

HYPERTENSION

Only in a small percentage of cases, such as certain kidney diseases and adrenal tumors, is the cause of hypertension known. In the rest, the exact cause is unknown. Nerves and emotions can play a role. So perhaps can peculiar chemicals in the kidneys and brain, according to recent research.

And any diseases producing a narrowing of arteries can bring increased pressure. Deposits of fatty material on the inner linings of arteries, the condition that brought on President Eisenhower's heart attack, can force the heart to work harder, to build up more pressure in order to push blood through the vast arterial highway of the body.

* * *

High blood pressure puts an overload on the heart, often making it increase in size. The greater pressure can damage blood vessels, leading to hemorrhages. In the brain, such bleeding from damaged arteries brings strokes that can paralyze or kill.

BLOOD FLOW DAMMED

In most cases, hypertension is believed to result from constriction of the smaller arteries, thus creating more resistance to blood flow.

Many of the new drugs bring good effects by acting upon the nervous system to bring relaxation of nervous or muscular control of these arteries. Some affect the central nervous system, others the sympathetic nervous system.

Only about five years ago, physicians had little in the way of drug armaments to combat hypertension. The sedative phenobarbital to calm the tense, keyed-up individual was a main standby.

Now there is an amazing array of drugs, which help bring hypertension under control for long periods in at least one third of patients.

The list includes extracts from the Indian snakewood plant, rauwolfia serpentina; veratrum from the green hellebore; synthetics such as hydralazine and hexamethonium and pentapyrrolidinium.

They are not the last word, said one heart specialist, but "they are a big step in the right direction." Improved drugs may be expected.

Special diets are credited with reducing hypertension in some cases. Researchers are seeking basic understandings of the cause of this disease, even exploring the possibility of a vaccine against it.

One of the best treatments is to cultivate serenity, or imperturbability.

Swift Heir Commits Suicide in California

CORONA, Calif. (AP)—Suffering from cancer, Louis F. Swift Jr., 60, grandson of the founder of the Chicago meat packing company, killed himself with a shot through the heart at his ranch home yesterday.

The coroner listed it as a suicide after receiving this report from sheriff's deputies:

Swift's wife Libby heard a shot and rushed into the bedroom to find her husband sprawled with a wound in the chest. A .38-caliber revolver lay nearby.

Swift had been suffering from throat cancer for several months. Last January part of his vocal cords was removed. He had been unable to speak since the operation.

Cost estimates also were ordered for a project requested by petitioners on Orlando avenue from Oakland to Monticello.

County Government's Modernization Urged

In the second bulletin of its educational campaign on the need for modernization of county government, Oakland Citizens League stresses the importance of the subject to the individual taxpayer.

While the League is critical of county government in general which hasn't changed much in 100 years, it is attacking no one in the existing Oakland County administration. Instead, the bulletin goes out of its way to stress League belief that Oakland's three county auditors are doing an excellent job.

★ ★ ★

The League is right in saying that the setup here, with its annual budget approaching $7,000,000, is quite complex. The governing body in Oakland as in all Michigan counties, is the Board of Supervisors. It is made up of 69 members, 25 of whom are township supervisors elected by the people. The rest are appointed by the governing bodies of municipalities in the county or elected by voters therein.

As so large a body, meeting periodically, cannot give sufficient attention to administrative and legislative affairs, it depends for help on 22 standing and three special committees.

In the League's opinion one defect in the Oakland system is the fact that the three man Board of County Auditors "more nearly represents a business manager for the county than any other group." Not only does this board run the county but audits its own work, subject to state audit. The League considers this lack of a single executive wrong in principle.

While citing changes made elsewhere, the League is taking no stand for any one form of county government over another. Instead, it is pointing out that long range planning for improvements "leading toward a constitutional revision in 1958, must be started now."

New Hope for Whoopers

Good news has come from that tragically narrow whooping crane front.

Advices from the newly discovered northern nesting grounds of this almost extinct species is that the flock has been increased this year by five fledglings.

If all of these youngsters reach the Winter sanctuary at Aransas National Wildlife Refuge on the Texas coast with the adult cranes, there will be new hope for survival of these majestic birds. Last Fall no fledgling reached the sanctuary.

As a result this Spring only 21 whooping cranes again flew north to the breeding area whose location is purposely kept secret for their protection.

The National Audubon Society and ardent conservationists deserve great credit for their efforts to protect the whoopers. But now the Canadian government has drawn the attention of our Defense Department to another threat to the flock.

It has asked Washington to relocate an Air Force photo-flash bombing range, originally planned for a site near the Texas refuge. Experts fear that such a range would frighten away the cranes and result in their early extinction.

Normally, Secretary Wilson's department would have little concern with such matters. But in this case with the future of the flock at stake it can be hoped that the proposed range can be relocated without great inconvenience.

First Two Phone Cables Soon to Span Atlantic

One of the most interesting projects ever attempted by man, the laying of the first transatlantic telephone cables, now is under way.

Undersea telegraph cables are no novelty. But the work which was begun by the cable ship Monarch at Clarenville, Nfld. is making communications history.

When the project is completed two one way cables 20 miles apart will link the Newfoundland station with Oban, Scotland, more than 1,900 nautical miles to the east. Each cable will have 52 one way repeaters and the two together will have a capacity of 36 telephone channels. From Oban connection will be made with London over the British long distance telephone network.

Transatlantic telephony isn't new. It began in 1927 with radio circuits handling the overseas part of the job. This service, however, has been limited by two factors.

One is the crowded radio spectrum which limits the number of circuits that can be provided. The other is disruption caused by periodic magnetic storms which impair the transmission of radio waves particularly over the North Atlantic.

Completion of this great international cable laying project is expected to eliminate these handicaps to first class service.

David Lawrence Says:

Stock Market's Reaction to Ike's Illness Indicates Americans Fear Dem Party

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — The American people are afraid of the Democratic Party — afraid of its present biased position in favor of state socialism, wasteful spending of the taxpayers' money and the gradual sabotage of the private-enterprise system.

* * *

That's the plain meaning of the stock market's violent reaction to the first news of President Eisenhower's illness. For the impression had been built up in recent months that unless the President ran for a second term the Democrats would sweep into all branches of the government including the judiciary. Fear of a Democratic victory has made businessmen panicky.

The illusion that only Dwight Eisenhower could win in 1956 has been fostered to some extent even by some Republicans who now perhaps see the unwisdom of their theories and are beginning to talk of the Eisenhower team as one that could be successfully continued under another Republican president.

But while the stock market may rally again and again as better news comes from Denver, the biggest impact of the break may yet be felt by the Democratic Party itself.

DIXIE CONSERVATIVES

The country moved toward the brink of disaster in fiscal affairs under the Truman Administration but was saved by conservatives in the Democratic Party in Congress who hail from the South. Now the number of these southern conservatives is dwindling as men like Sen. George of Georgia and Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas tend to go along with the once conservative but now politically radical Samuel Rayburn of Texas, speaker of the House, who is an ardent believer in Trumanism.

Sen. Byrd of Virginia, on the other hand, and his able colleague, Sen. Willis Robertson, stand at the head of a small band of conservatives who are preventing radicalism from capturing the entire Democratic Party. For the prospect is that now with the enormous labor-union funds available directly or indirectly for political purposes the Democratic party may be taken over lock, stock and barrel by the big labor-union monopoly known as the AFL-CIO merger.

What frightens businessmen is the type of comment made by former President Truman just the other day when he denounced the six justices of the Supreme Court who ruled against him in his seizure of the entire steel industry.

* * *

Neither the Hennings Committee of the Senate which supposedly is investigating constitutional rights nor "The Fund for the Republic" — a tax-free foundation which is distributing political propaganda allegedly about "due process of law" — is likely to study these abuses of constitutional rights and especially a dictatorial act by Truman. For he ignored the joint resolution of both houses of Congress requesting him to use his powers under the Taft-Hartley Act to halt the steel strike in 1952 and instead, without warrant of any law, ordered all steel plants to be taken over by the federal government.

The Supreme Court promptly nullified the order but the American business community has not forgotten that this is what happens under a Democratic Administration whose concepts of government ownership or control of the steel industry have not been confined to the single order of seizure but to arguments hinting of nationalization.

Maybe the stock-market break will have a sobering influence on the Democratic Party in the selection of a presidential candidate. Adlai Stevenson originally had a conservative background but in 1952 for expediency's sake he made common cause with the radicals and especially the labor-union politicians.

Governor Averell Harriman of New York inherited a fortune made by his father, the railroad pioneer, and himself spent a large part of his life in the financial and business district in New York City. He ought to know the limits to which radicalism can be accepted under the guise of "liberalism" and still retain in some measure the confidence of business.

* * *

But the handwriting on the wall is plain. Unless the Democrats as a party in the next Congress can prove themselves to be true friends of the private-enterprise system and remove the widespread belief that the Democratic leadership of today is the potential enemy of business, the Republicans will have an easy victory in November 1956 in winning not only the White House but both houses of Congress no matter whom they nominate.

A nation with 30,000,000 families earning incomes over $3,000 a year isn't going to risk a panic or a depression or a period of socialistic experimentation that can halt business expansion and produce unemployment.

Dr. Brady Says:

Graduated Exercise Aids in Heart Attack Recovery

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

Five years ago I told here a story about two men who, some months following coronary thrombosis, achieved outstanding athletic records, one in mountain climbing in Switzerland, the other in a marathon in South Africa.

Not that such extreme physical effort is advisable for every one who has had one or more coronary accidents. I cited these achievements merely to show that a person who has or has had one or another kind of heart trouble is not thereby barred from working and playing.

On the contrary, as I try to explain in detail in Little Lesson 2, C V D, about heart and artery troubles, (for a copy send 25c and stamped, self-addressed envelope), graduated exercise is an indispensable part of the successful treatment of any and every kind of heart trouble.

So I say to the individual with heart trouble, if you're not a malingerer, a tramp or a low-grade moron, by all means avail yourself of the remedial effect of graduated exercise, no matter what nineteenth century medical authorities thought about it.

TEMPER BOILS

Whenever I see a poor geek who has or has had some kind of heart trouble walking on eggs I feel about the same as I do when some reader sends me a clipping of a newspaper reporter's story, in the traditional humorous style, of the wholesale tonsillectomy perpetrated on an entire family or at least upon the defenseless children in the family; or when some gullible customer describes the suffering he or she endured for several days following the clamp and cautery operation for piles. I feel mad, I grit my teeth—and I still have a full complement of teeth in good working order, most of them my own—and I swear (mentally). Plague take such dumb doctors, I exclaim, or worse.

For many years I have told you timid souls that heart trouble, no matter just what kind of trouble it may be, should not prevent him or her from doing moderate work, walking, dancing, playing golf, bowling, gardening, skating, swimming or engaging in any ordinary physical activity.

In my opinion any one who claims he or she is totally disabled by weak heart or heart disease should be given the alternative of going to work or submitting to examination by an independent commission of two or more competent physicians whose judgment would be conclusive.

Such an unemotional way of dealing with the bad heart obsession would be a blessing to all concerned.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters, but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I have read many letters complaining of nothing for young people to do in this area. Last year someone told me about the Young Adult Program at the Pontiac YMCA, so I attended and had many pleasant evenings.

I'm sure there are many like myself that felt they weren't top dancers or mixers, but wanted to attend. I found a small group looking for more people to attend, also an opportunity to learn to square dance. It wasn't necessary for a fellow or girl to have a date or be a member to attend.

I hope some of the stay-at-homes will leave the TV sets and get going. If you are 18 to 35 years old and single you can attend the Thursday night programs, which consist of popular and square dances, hay rides, skating, dinners, etc.

There is room for plenty more, so come enjoy yourself and make new friends.

Politicians Shouldn't Use Farm Trouble as Football

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

* * *

A farm implement manufacturer in private life and a registered Republican, who served under F.D.R. during his first term of the New Deal, Peek used to remark: "I'm not in agriculture for politics, but I'm in politics for agriculture."

Having been one of the first of the Eastern economists to stress the importance of farm-industrial balance as a foundation stone for national prosperity, I don't want to see this important matter twisted for selfish partisan purposes.

In order to be objective, it would be factual to say that the current deterioration in the relative status of agriculture is a bipartisan failure. The drastic slump in farm commodity prices started during the last year and a half of the Truman administration, and continued more or less—though at a slower pace—under the Eisenhower administration.

Accordingly, the remedy is not to restore the Fair Deal formula of inflexible price supports, which proved unsatisfactory, for the flexible supports, advocated by Secretary Benson, which have not yet been fully tested.

NO REWARD

Secretary Benson, like Peek, recognizes that farm legislation should not reward farmers for acting contrary to the national welfare or the economic self-interests of agriculture.

* * *

Specifically, both of these students sensed the hazard of willful overproduction of specific commodities if the government guaranteed that there would be no penalty for such a blunder.

Thus, the flexible supports, while trying to put a disaster floor under agriculture, contemplates relative penalties for unbalancing the forces of supply and demand through unwarranted quantities of new output.

Like Peek in the past, Secretary Benson puts emphasis on economic relief through disposal of unneeded surpluses overseas.

* * *

As a result of domestic price fixing, the agriculture economy has to a substantial extent tended to price itself out of the export market.

While there is reason to keep the domestic market in reasonable balance as between farm and industrial products, foreign buyers have no interest in paying a premium for American cotton and other products in order to achieve domestic social objectives.

PEEK'S POLICY

Peek accordingly sought to solve the dilemma through a two-price system—an artificial domestic price, and an utterly free market for the exportable surplus.

Thus, if farmers over here produced, willy-nilly, without any attempt to attune output to demand, this decision would be reflected in lower than the artificial domestic price for an increasing ratio of their output going into the lower price export market.

* * *

Being in an Administration which is aiming toward freer trade, Secretary Benson is not at liberty to take a blunt view of the two-price system. But he has stressed finding ways overseas to reduce unwieldy surpluses, and through the flexible price support formula he has sought to find a way to penalize overproduction.

Perhaps the internationalists are shocked at the two-price system as a form of what is sometimes called "dumping."

While we may have avoided "dumping" in recent years, we have found that prevailing prices on American farm products, artificially bolstered by domestic farm legislation and federal subsidies, interfered with disposing of surpluses in the export field.

* * *

Economic balance is eminently to be desired, and it should be faced on its economic and technical merits. Only harm can come from making it a football of party politics.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Suggestions Implanted Under Hypnosis Operate After Subject Leaves Trance

Philip's hypnotic experiment shows that the power of the mind is tremendous. It can often tip the scales in favor of life or death. For our attitudes can be circumvented under hypnosis, even in a moment of time. In fact, hypnosis would probably have speeded up the brainwashing process by the Communists.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case P-351: George and Philip, our two older children, brought up some more points about hypnosis.

"Dad, the textbooks say a person under hypnosis will not commit murder," Philip began, "but I doubt the truth of that statement.

* * *

"Oh, I'll admit if I hypnotized a patient and told him to shoot a human being, he might not pull the trigger.

"But suppose I told him that a certain human being was a grizzly bear, approaching him or some other member of his family, to devour him.

"Then, if I gave the hypnotized subject a loaded revolver, I think he would readily shoot at the supposed bear, for the act of firing at a bear would not violate his previous taboo against murder."

To which I replied that I thought it was quite possible, in the manner Philip described, to delude the hypnotized patient and perhaps get him to kill a human being unwittingly.

CHANGED ATTITUDES

"Yes, Dad," George began, "I think if you can change a person's attitude under hypnosis, he might do as Philip suggested.

"For example, I hypnotized a girl who was a non-drinker, and then gave her a glass of ordinary drinking water, but I told her it was whisky.

"She refused to drink it. So I asked her if she liked coke, and she said she did.

"Then I poured her a fresh glass of plain water and handed it to her as a coke. She drank it delightedly.

"But I reminded her to be careful, for she might burp pretty soon and she knew what that would do to her nose.

"Sure enough, she soon screwed up her face in the exact manner of a person who gets that carbonic acid burn in the top of the nose after drinking carbonated beverages.

* * *

"Now, Dad, if she would take my word that water was coke, and if she would go through even the physiological process of a burning nasal sensation, why wouldn't she believe Philip if he told her a human being was a grizzly bear?"

BRAIN WASHING

From my professional experience with hypnosis, I think the Communists could have administered their brainwashing of our imprisoned Americans much faster by hypnosis.

For you can not only change a person's attitudes more quickly under hypnosis, but you can then implant suggestions that will later operate after the patient is restored to a normal waking state.

We call these post-hypnotic suggestions, since they are acted upon long afterwards.

* * *

Some drinkers and dope addicts have thus been hypnotized and told they would feel nauseated at the thought of taking their usual shot of whisky or morphine after they were awakened. Later, they felt the same type of nausea, apparently, that we medics can produce by giving them drugs.

COMING OF AGE

Psychology is just coming into its own as a medical technique. I don't want to create the impression that drugs are of minor value or that the mind can banish germs or other types of invading infection.

But the mind interacts with the body and can greatly help a patient recover, for if you are convinced you are dying, you may actually die in spite of curative drugs.

And many stubborn folks who refuse to give up, will recover when by all medical odds they should have died.

Read tomorrow's case about psychosomatic medicine, it's fascinating.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

Queen's Aunt Is Due in Quebec Thursday

LONDON (AP)—The Princess Royal, aunt of Queen Elizabeth II and only sister of the Duke of Windsor, is arriving in Quebec tomorrow for a month's tour of Canada. No plans have been announced for her to go to the United States, but she will see Niagara Falls from the Canadian side.

In her quiet way, she has devoted a lifetime to charity, hospital, social service and Red Cross work; the Girl Scout movement—and to a simple, family life. Her husband, Viscount Lascelles, died in 1947.

Curley Loses Again in Boston Primary

BOSTON (AP)—Mayor John B. Hynes and State Sen. John E. Powers were nominated for mayor of Boston yesterday in a nonpartisan preliminary election in which fewer than 38 per cent of the eligible voters participated.

Hynes and Powers defeated the old political warrior James M. Curley and State Supreme Court Clerk Chester A. Dolan.

It was the third consecutive defeat suffered by Curley at the hands of Hynes. It was the 10th time Curley has run.

Hynes served as acting mayor for five months in 1947 when Curley went to jail for mail fraud.

Boy Scout Fund Drive Starts Off With a Bang

No one was injured.

Farmer J. Van Heerden, arrested in Moorreesburg, South Africa, for illegally possessing "Witblitz" (brandy with a "kick"), said he used it in his bath — it helped his rheumatism. But he was fined $28 just the same.

Three Year Probation Given Royal Oak Pair

Two Royal Oak men were placed on three-year probation and assessed $200 court costs by Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick yesterday.

Thomas Fletcher, 54, and Robert D. Williams, 28, admitted Sept. 19 cashing a bogus $24 check in Birmingham last Feb. 26.

Portland Clears —in 34 Minutes

Business Area Empties Quickly in Civil Defense Air Raid Test

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—A 1,000-block area, including Portland's downtown business district, was evacuated in 34 minutes in yesterday's civil defense test.

* * *

The city's air warning system shrilled its previously announced signal at 3:10 p.m., and immediately afterwards orderly streams of vehicles and pedestrians began moving along the many evacuation routes.

The speed of the evacuation exercise, named Operation Green Light, was credited by civil defense officials to the fact that the area was not nearly so crowded as usual and to a traffic control system that turned all traffic lights green along the exit routes and eliminated cross traffic.

ALL CO-OPERATIVE

Portlanders had been told that the test might come yesterday, today or tomorrow. Apparently many of them expected it yesterday and left for home early or didn't come in to town.

The thousands who were downtown were turned out of business houses. Many got in their automobiles and, for the first 15 minutes, it appeared that a gigantic traffic jam was forming.

* * *

This was due partly to motorists slowing down to pick up pedestrians walking out of the area. But within 20 minutes the jams had cleared and the evacuation proceeded without incident.

Hoover Commission Work Is Completed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Hoover Commission, whose keynote was economy in government, went out of existence today on a consistent note. It returned $83,000 in unspent funds to the Treasury.

During its two-year life, the Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government, headed by former President Herbert Hoover, received $2,848,534 from congress to finance its federal operations and cut expenditures.

In its final formal statement, the commission said it made 314 recommendations, with 145 of these considered administrative and the remainder subject to legislative or presidential action.

The commission noted that more than 200 bills were introduced in the last congressional session, designed to carry out its recommendations.

Police Chief Gets Extra Duty Work for Defying Dems

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP)—Deputy Police Chief William V. McLaughlin, transferred from an eight-hour day job to a 12-hour cruising night shift, is taking the change philosophically.

McLaughlin, 60, who has been feuding with Public Safety Director Lawrence Whipple and refused to buy a ticket to a $100-a-plate Democratic dinner, said yesterday:

At police headquarters, he joked with newsmen and said he would "work 12 hours, sleep 6 hours—my God, I'd be able to watch the opening game of today's World Series, and have enough time to eat and get back to work."

* * *

In an unpublished order Saturday night, reportedly initiated by Whipple and signed by Acting Police Chief Michael Cusack, McLaughlin was ordered to work from 8 p.m. to 8 a.m., in full-dress uniform, and must regularly sign the blotter of the city's six precincts.

Cyprus Issue Cancels Exhibition by Mathias

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Greek sports fans won't see America's Olympic decathlon champion, Bob Mathias, perform because of the U. S., government's opposition to U. N. Assembly debate on the Cyprus issue.

Mathias was to give an exhibition at a track and field meet tonight in his honor. The Hellenic Amateur Athletic Assn. canceled the meet after a group of Greek athletes announced they would not participate in the meet because of the American action in the U. N.

John Arthur Quinn, a store manager of Shrewsbury, England, was sentenced to three years in jail on a manslaughter charge that resulted from a highway fatality.

Truman Cousin Named to Command in NATO

NAPLES, Italy (AP)—Brig. Gen. Louis W. Truman of Springfield, Mo., second cousin of former President Truman, has succeeded Brig. Gen. Earle G. Wheeler as plans and operations chief for NATO in Southern Europe.

The 47-year-old general is the son of Maj. Gen. Ralph E. Truman (Ret.) of Springfield. He was graduated from West Point in 1932. During World War II he was chief of staff for the 84th Infantry Division in Europe.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

OUR FRIENDS THE TREES—3.

There are hundreds of different kinds of trees but don't let that keep you from learning to know the ones most common near your home. Even if you can't find out the names used in books, you can make up your own names. It's always fun to recognize a tree, just as it is to recognize a friend.

Leaves usually provide the easiest means of recognizing a tree. Sometimes they are single, sometimes there are several of them on a slender stem. Sometimes they are smooth around the edges, sometimes deeply cut.

A good way to study the leaves is to gather some and press them in a big book for a week or two. Gather them while they have their autumn colors and they make very pretty keepsakes.

Another good trick is to make splatter pictures. Spread a newspaper over a work table. On it lay a sheet of clean white writing paper. Place your leaf on the paper and weight it down with buttons or spools so that it will lie flat. Above the leaf hold a piece of wire screen. Dip an old tooth brush in some colored ink and rub the brush over the screen so that the ink splatters down on the paper. Let the ink dry and then, if you like, splatter on another coat of different colored ink. When it all dries, lift the leaf and you will see a pretty impression.

Seaplane Will Link Detroit, Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — Port Director William J. Rogers today disclosed plans for a seaplane taxi service between Cleveland and Detroit starting next April.

A lease between the city and Taxi Air Group Inc., of Toledo, which will operate the seaplanes, is being drafted by Richard Horn, assistant city law director, Rogers said.

Four round trips will be made daily from April through November. The planes will operate here from a floating dock anchored along the west bulkhead of the Lake Front Airport.

Square D Chief Names Detroiter Vice President

MILWAUKEE (AP) — James S. Vaughan, Detroit, has been named a vice president of the Square D Co., F. W. Magin, president, announced Tuesday.

Vaughan, 40, is one of the youngest officers in the 52-year history of the firm, which manufactures electrical distribution and control equipment. He will make his headquarters in Detroit. Vaughan is a native of Madison, Wis., and a graduate of the University of Wisconsin.

Coal-Colored Indians

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—It is estimated that coal has been used in what is now the United States for nearly 1,000 years. As early as 1,000 A.D. it was being used as a source of paint color by Navajo Indians, records indicate.

Sharks Attack Downed Airmen

Surviving Crewmen Tell of Harrowing Ordeal in Pacific Ocean

HONOLULU (AP) —Two fliers snatched from the jaws of attacking sharks in a dramatic Pacific rescue arrive today aboard the rescue ship Steel Advocate for a joyous reunion with their wives.

The two are the only survivors of a Flying Tiger line cargo plane that ditched at sea Friday night while carrying military supplies to Wake Island. Three of the five-man crew perished one from shark bites.

One of the survivors copilot Robert C. Hightower of Vallejo Calif. was bitten on the foot as he was pulled from the water.

He and his companion, Capt. Anthony Machado of Hollywood, Calif. the pilot told of their ordeal yesterday in a radio-telephone interview with The Associated Press.

BATTLE SHARKS

Machado said he survived for 40 hours without a life jacket.

"I kept goin' by hanging on to one of the guys, then the other."

The battle with the sharks began almost immediately after the big four-motor plane went down, carrying navigator Dominick Ventresca of Sepulveda, Calif., who was pinned inside the wreckage.

* * *

Another navigator, Richard C. Olsen, died from shark bites only a few hours before his two companions were picked up by the freighter Sunday. Hightower said he was bitten 15 to 20 times and Machado said he bore the marks of several brushes with sharks.

Machado said copilot Warren F. Gin of Los Angeles died from swallowing salt water.

Draws Jackson Term for Waterford Breakin

Sentenced to 3 to 15 years in Jackson state prison yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick was Arnold Burby, 19, of 325 Lakeview.

An installation now under construction at Prouy Bay, New Caledonia, is designed to enable the shipment of 10,000 tons of iron ore annually to Australia.

Bob Considine Says:

Cleveland Kept Operation From Nation

NEW YORK (INS)—The world presses its nose to a plate glass window looking into President Eisenhower's sick room. But once things were different. The public "couldn't be trusted" to know . . .

* * *

On the black humid night of June 30, 1893, a closed carriage clopped on to pier A of New York's East River. A heavy-set man, sweating under his black suit, stepped out followed by a friend. They were met by the commodore of the New York Yacht Club and immediately boarded the club's yacht "Oneida." It slipped out into the river.

President Grover Cleveland was about to be operated on for cancer.

The shrouded adventure had taken form two weeks earlier when Cleveland complained to Dr. Robert M. O'Reilly, the White House physician, that a lump had been forming along the right wall of his upper jaw. O'Reilly was disturbed by what he saw. He called in Drs. W. W. Keen, E. G. Janeway, J. D. Bryant and a dental surgeon, Ferdinand Hasbrouck. All agreed that an operation was necessary.

Cleveland, in his second stay in the White House, had a brewing financial panic on his hands.

* * *

A special session of Congress had been called to deal with the sinking economy. In that comparatively primitive era of cancer research and treatment, he could be given no assurance he would survive. A further complication was the man himself. The President, then 56, was many pounds overweight and gave the appearance of having no neck at all.

PRESIDENT DETERMINED

He was determined to go through with the operation but frankly feared the reaction it would have on shaky public morale. The public couldn't be trusted not to panic.

For a week he searched for a way out then decided he had found it. He quickly made arrangements with his friend Commodore E. C. Benedict for the use of the "Oneida." All that then was needed was to entrain quietly for New York, comparatively easy in that day. Dr. O'Reilly accompanied him on the secret carriage ride from the N.Y. depot to the ship.

The President went immediately to Commodore Benedict's cabin where Drs. Keen, Janeway, Bryant and Hasbrouck were waiting. He ruggedly told them he was ready but they had agreed that it would be better to wait until the morning. The party adjourned to deck, took chairs, and watched the lamplights of New York drift by. The President smoked cigars and talked until midnight, then turned in and slept soundly.

OPERATION BEGAN

The next morning, July 1, he stepped into Benedict's cabin and sat down in a strong chair that had been placed in the middle of the partly cleared room. In that position he was given a morphine injection and the operation began. Dr. Hasbrouck pulled two teeth from the right upper jaw. Dr. Bryant cut into the jaw, located and extracted the malignancy. It was all over in 35 minutes. The yacht cruised slowly into Long Island Sound, its strange passenger list unknown.

Cleveland came to like a bull. "Who the Hell are you?". He bellowed through his battered mouth when he focused his eyes on the doctors who had just saved his life.

He was up and about July 3 and walking without assistance on the fifth, when the "Oneida" slipped quietly into Buzzards Bay, Mass. A private train was waiting to take him back to Washington, where Dr. K. C. Gibson fitted him with a rubber replacement for the missing part of his jaw.

E. J. Edwards, who wrote under the by-line of "Holland" for the Philadelphia Press broke the story in great detail on Aug. 29 of the same year.

* * *

It was indignantly denied by spokesmen for Cleveland and the public considered it a hoax. Cleveland plainly was never in better health, it was said, now that he had lost some weight. Cleveland performed the remainder of his presidential duties with zest and lived just 15 years after the operation. His secret illness was not known generally and accepted until Dr. Keen wrote the story for a national magazine in 1931.

Bank Teller Gets Teeth as Man's Identification

IONIA (AP) — A teller at the Ionia County National Bank said a customer offered toothsome identification today while asking to have a pay check cashed.

The teller, Miss Celia Kennedy, said the customer removed his false teeth and showed his name engraved on one of the plates. Miss Kennedy cashed the check.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

Tuesday Musicale Hears Report on Year's Agenda

Mrs. Ferdinand Gaensbauer opened her home on Illinois avenue Tuesday noon for a luncheon meeting of the Workshop members of the Pontiac Tuesday Musicale.

Mrs. Donald Hogue of the coordinating committee explained the topics to be illustrated during the coming year. Modern music is to be the subject, with contemporary American composers as the chief sources of reference for the study. This will include music in the vocal, piano, organ and orchestral fields.

Mrs. Hogue also related several events of current musical interest, among which she mentioned the 90th anniversary of Sibelius, the Finnish composer and the 200th anniversary of Mozart.

She said that many outstanding musical organizations, such as the Metropolitan Opera Co. and the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, will present special music in Mozart's honor during the coming season.

Mrs. John Wiley and Mrs. Rebecca Gould also participated in the afternoon program.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. E. D. Foley, Mrs. William Furlong, Mrs. Ralph Norvell, Mrs. Clyde Marshbanks and Mrs. Marvin Wager.

The sheer wool dress worn by Mrs. George Wyman of Ottawa drive has a matching tunic-length coat. A rhinestone clip at the neck is worn to relieve the all-black of the costume. When worn alone, the dress is excellent for late day or cocktail.

Pontiac Reflects Fashion Changes

By JUDITH L. CLEMENCE
Pontiac Press Women's Editor

The changes in fashions here in Pontiac this fall are evident in the new, beautiful materials and in the warm colors and magical innovations in design.

A trip through Pontiac stores reveals that the slim silhouette and ensemble idea are the dominant dress trends.

The waistline is still moving up and down with gay abandon leaving it a matter of personal choice exactly where to anchor the belt.

If you're fortunate to have one of the new and very beautiful ensembles, you'll note that the dresses are designed with distinction so they may be worn alone without necessarily depending on the matching coat or jacket.

COAT COORDINATES

Mrs. George Wyman of Ottawa drive chose such an outfit (a beautiful black sheer wool). The tunic-length coat coordinates with the basic dress for a really wonderful effect.

Another idea which varies from the original coat dress idea is the basic dress and the boxy jacket which Mrs. A. J. Michal of Colrain drive chose as her fall outfit.

The dress is of black sheer wool with heavy wool jacket. The silhouette is slim and the costume is softly sophisticated.

Because, in a shrinking world, places that seemed as remote as Shangri-La are no longer remote. Clothes that are correct today have to be right anywhere in the world —one more reason to look toward the ensemble.

Mrs. Benjamin Jerome of Ottawa drive recognized a very smart and versatile outfit in this costume consisting of a black sheer wool dress featuring a black and toast plaid coat. The dress, designed to go anywhere, has slim lines and is entirely in black. The buttons on the rounded neckline are its only accent.

Although brown is a very popular color this fall, we find many fashion-minded women clinging to sophisticated blacks for their cocktail and late-day dresses.

Mrs. James M. McHugh of the State Hospital Grounds is one who favors the black "dressy" dress. Her choice was a very becoming sheer wool featuring a collar which can be worn up or down.

By changing the collar arrangement, the dress has an entirely different look. Mrs. McHugh wears it with the collar up. She can adjust this with tiny buttons at the back of the neck.

Mrs. Walter H. Kresge of South Avery road chooses a two-piece dress of wool tweed and jersey — a dress that is good from morning till night.

PUSH-UP SLEEVES

The black jersey blouse is trimmed with the stripe detail of the wool tweed skirt, and has push-up sleeves.

* * *

Especially demanding of a firm figure is the slim cocktail dress which features subtle hip drapery and a tight, clinging bodice.

HAT BY DACHE

The slim silhouette is the choice of Mrs. Fred Collins of Silverhill road. Her gray sheer wool dress is accented with pearl teardrops at the midriff. The matching colored hat is one of Lilly Dache's famous "little hats."

* * *

A casual dress is an important feature of any woman's wardrobe. Mrs. Bruce Annett of Sylvan Shores drive has chosen this attractive David Crystal dress in turquoise. The ties at the neck can be worn in different arrangement.

These women whom the Press asked to pose with their new costumes agreed that they love the feel of elegant (though not costly) clothes. It has been proven conclusively that fine raiment means as much in today's fashion as it did to the world of the Rennaissance and other periods of great culture and prosperity.

The modern difference is that fine raiment is no longer a prerogative of royalty and riches, but is within the reach of all women. The Pontiac women have chosen costumes from a widely varied price range proving that any woman can be beautifully groomed.

The slim sheath-type dress is worn with the plaid coat which Mrs. Benjamin Jerome of Ottawa drive models on page 13. This costume is designed to go anywhere and goes straight through spring. The dress is of sheer wool.

Announcing Ultra Chic Paris Styles

PARIS (INS) — Back-buttoned clothes, one-color outfits and hair-hiding head-covers are among the leading Paris fashions which you can wear without going on a buying spree.

* * *

You can wear your cardigan front to back. Dior, Givenchy, Balenciaga and other top Paris designers consider clothes buttoned at the back as very elegant and extremely fashionable.

If you wear separates, pick the top and the skirt of an identical color. They can be of different materials.

A camel-hair colored sweater with a corduroy skirt of the same shade, for instance, looks very chic. Black separates will also give you the one-color look sponsored in Paris.

You may possess a French beret. Now is the moment to make use of it. Wear it straight and pulled right down over both ears. Worn that way it looks like a shower-cap, but that's the latest fashion in Paris.

All the fashionable hats for daytime are designed to completely cover the hair. The "shower-caps" are seen at Dior and Madeleine de Rauch as the latest chapeau style in Paris.

"Bright girl, my Betsy!"

I just can't get over the marvelous way my Betsy outsmarts her housework. Take wood floors for instance. I hear other wives complain about all the scrubbing and waxing they have to do. But not my Betsy! She cleans and waxes them in one easy operation with Bruce Cleaning Wax. Why, she's through in half the time and fresh as a daisy! And our beautiful wood floors are always getting compliments. My Betsy and her Bruce Cleaning Wax sure make small work of a big job. I'm mighty proud of both of them.

No Reason for Address to Be Hidden

By EMILY POST

"We have recently moved to a city far removed from most of our relatives and friends, and very few of them know our new address. We are expecting a baby soon and intend to send out birth announcements.

"It was my plan to include a return address on these envelopes but my husband has turned 'thumbs down' on this as he thinks a return address indicates that we expect presents. Will you please give me your opinion."

Answer: I see no reason for keeping your address a secret. Friends or relatives may want very much to send you something, or at least a message, and it leaves them helpless. There is certainly no obligation upon the receipt of a birth announcement.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Before going down a receiving line is it necessary to remove one's gloves? Also, what does one do and say?

"I was under the impression that you introduced yourself to the first person in line and that person passed your name to the next person and so on down the line. Do you say 'How do you do' to each person, and also do you shake hands with each one?"

Answer: You keep your gloves on and, if there is any doubt about their knowing who you are, you tell your name as you shake hands.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Recently a young woman (about 18 years my junior) came to my house and I shook hands with her. I was told later that I, being the older person, was wrong to make the first advance, and furthermore that it is not proper for women to shake hands. What is your opinion?"

Answer: A hostess always shakes hands with every guest who comes into her house. It would be the extreme of rudeness not to.

Count to Ten Before Quitting Job

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Remember the old trick of counting to ten when you were angry? The idea was that you would cool down, your thinking would change and you would save yourself an embarrassing, if not downright dangerous, temper tantrum.

* * *

When it comes to jobs, there are times when we all ought to "count to ten."

Many times, girls will leave a job in a fit of pique—or just from plain boredom — when, if they could just have mustered up some patience and stuck it out, they would have hit the jackpot.

A. N. is a case in point.

When I first met her, she was in a dead-end job, or so she felt. She had worked for the same firm for three years, was still a maid-of-all-work and her salary had not been boosted enough.

Moreover, she worked for a real battle-axe, a woman who was as mean as could be.

NO FUTURE?

"There's no possible future here," she told me, "so why should I stay on any longer?"

* * *

But I have lived long enough to learn that life keeps changing. Moreover, the field she was in was one which seemed to have a rapidly expanding future.

And, most important of all, A. N. wasn't really giving her best to the job. She was operating, so to speak, at half-mast.

When people do that and develope that habit, they are bound to take it with them into the next job and fail just as badly.

* * *

A. N. did finally take my advice, which was to stick it out for another six months.

And, since she knew it would only be six months, she determined to work her hardest and to leave, as she put it, "in a blaze of clerical glory."

INTERESTING TIME

It was an interesting six months.

* * *

First, her increased efficiency resulted in a raise. Second, she was transferred to a brand new department the company opened, with a superior who was much nicer in every way than the mean old battle-axe had been.

And third, she is in line for a promotion to head up another department which will be opening up soon.

SUCCESS A HABIT

Next time you feel like leaving your job, do try to talk yourself into "counting up to ten."

* * *

Resolve to take six months as a cooling-off period and to do your level best in that six months.

If worst comes to the worst and you do have to leave, you will be leaving with a good feeling all around, which will not only boost your morale but will make your next job more successful.

Best comes to the best, you'll hit the kind of jackpot which A. N. hit!

Husband Scorns Muddled Requests

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

This summer, Mr. Price's office manager needed his help with a discipline problem. So she pared it down to its facts—and took it to him.

* * *

She said, "I think we need a new ruling on lunch time. Several of the younger typists have been prolonging it to linger in air-conditioned restaurants. It's understandable. On the other hand, it seems unfair to the other girls. What do you think?"

Mr. Price showed most helpful interest in this discipline problem. After asking several questions, he took action on it.

He does not love his office manager. He loves Mrs. Price.

However, to Mrs. Price's discipline problems, he gives no helpful interest at all. When she presents them to him, he either gets bored or angry.

* * *

But then, unlike his office manager, she never pares them down to their essential facts. She just throws them at him in a big, untidy muddle that mixes the facts up with her own unassorted feelings.

POOR EXPLANATION

She presents a discipline problem like this: "Ed, look at this bill from Ransom's! Didn't I warn you that Lois was too young for her own charge account? She says you'll pay it. I hope you do. I certainly won't.

"Never in my life did I hear of giving a 16-year-old girl her own charge account. But then you didn't listen to me. You never do. If you'd listened to me when I told you that Tom needed tutoring last summer, he wouldn't have failed this term. But you never . . ."

It is at this point that Mr. Price shouts, "Oh, for God's sake . . ." and refuses all help or interest in her discipline problem.

I can't say that I blame him. She's presented it so mixed up with her own problem of resentment at her husband, that he can't advise on one without advising on the other. Though, at the end of a hard day, Mr. Price may want to discuss Lois' abuse of her charge account, he's too tired to enter the subject of his wife's displeasure with him.

* * *

If Mary is neglecting her chores, that is a discipline problem. Our conviction that we're overburdened by chores of our own is another problem. If we present them mixed up to her father, he'll simply leave us alone with both of them.

In the business world, men learn to think clearly. They develop quick, accurate judgment of wasteful character traits. They become used to people who can separate facts from their feelings—and, though they are coy about admitting it, expect the same competence from us.

So if your man seems bored by your children's problems, check your presentations. In them, you may find the same kind of double talk that has lost Mrs. Price the cooperation of her husband.

Date Pie Is Creamy and Smooth

Mrs. McRae Cooks Fruit and Hot Milk Used for Custard

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Lately we've had a run on date recipes. Here's another one, this time for an unusual pie. If you do not care to use pie crust, serve the filling as a pudding.

Mrs. Willard McRae, today's cook, is a busy homemaker. She makes use of her nurse's training by serving with the Blood Bank. For club work, she's active in Whitfield PTA, in a Garden club, as well as the Eastern Star. As relaxation she enjoys playing bridge.

DATE PIE
By Mrs. Willard McRae

2 cups milk
1 package dates, cut up
⅓ cup sugar
2 eggs, separated
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 teaspoon vanilla
Dash of salt
1 baked pie shell

Add dates to milk and cook in double boiler until dates are tender, about 10 minutes. Beat egg yolks slightly and add to milk mixture with cornstarch, sugar and salt. Cook until thickened. Cool.

Beat egg whites stiff and fold into cooled custard. Pour into baked pie shell and serve with whipped cream, if desired.

Women Told of Problems Facing City

Pontiac's future as a metropolitan city was envisioned for the Pontiac Business and Professional Women's Club when John A. Riley, assistant national advertising manager of the Pontiac Press, spoke at its dinner meeting held Tuesday evening at Hotel Waldron.

* * *

Some of the problems confronting the planners for an orderly, balanced growth were discussed and a challenge for the members to take an active interest in helping guide the development of these plans was issued.

"The kind of city we will have tomorrow depends upon what the people want," Mr. Riley stated. Therefore, support of those measures which will best serve the whole area was urged.

The program, presented by the public affairs committee with Mrs. Harry Randall as chairman, is part of the observance of National Business Women's Week which continues through Oct. 1.

QUEEN NAMED

During the meeting, members voted Josephine Seeley, who is Pontiac Business and Professional Woman of the Week, as the BPW Queen for the High Fever Follies being sponsored by the Auxiliary to the Pontiac General Hospital.

* * *

Guests for the evening included Mrs. H. H. Thatcher who was the first Pontiac BPW president as well as a past national vice president and a Michigan State Federation treasurer, Mrs. William C. McRath and Mary Durfee.

Members planning to attend a banquet to be held by the Detroit Inter-Club Council Saturday at Hotel Statler are Fritzi Stoddard, Vera Bassett, Mrs. Norman Dyer, Jane Danton, Hazel McGirr, Violet McCoy, Anny Koellner and Mrs. C. William Salton.

GOOD GROOMING! . . . is an indefinite quality, but basically we will no doubt agree. It can be defined as the routine of the four brushes (hair, tooth, clothes and shoe brush). Plus one or two other items.

In this group the hair brush is probably the most neglected, yet it will perform miracles if used regularly. Daily brushing gives the hair luster and makes it manageable. The soft sheen of healthy hair must not be mistaken for the artifical sheen produced by many shampoos. This type of shampoo, while giving a high luster at first, often proves detrimental if used constantly. It causes the hair in time to become dry, snarly and brittle. This hair will not take a good permanent.

Many vegetable color rinses also rob the hair of its natural elasticity. The best care for the hair is mild soap, soft water, a good hair cream, daily brushing. A good permanent properly given is the surest way to that lovely head of hair you have often dreamed of.

Airport Lights Blamed for Final End of Birds

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—A Charlotte naturalist says the lights of the city's airport may have brought death to hundreds of migrating birds.

Birds of 15 different species have fallen to earth in the Charlotte vicinity this week.

Mrs. Edwin O. Clarkson says birds, attracted by lights, fly around the beams until exhausted, then fold their wings and plunge to their deaths.

$5 Million Bomber Going Down Drain

SEATTLE (AP)—Five million dollars worth of bombing plane is being pulled, squeezed and squashed to pieces here to prove its structural strength.

The builder, Boeing Airplane Co., described the "torture test" on the B52 jet bomber as the most extensive structural proving program ever conducted on a single airplane.

The tests involve use of 60 miles of wiring and 3,000 strain gauge circuits and an intricate system of cables and pulleys.

Boeing said the tests saved time and money and provided precise information on the strain each plane part would stand under flight conditions.

Cigarette Usage Increases Since Health Debates

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department reported today that Americans are smoking more cigarettes now that, in its view, the "main impact" of the cigarettes-health controversy apparently has passed.

Reporting on "the tobacco situation," the department said Americans 15 years of age and over will smoke an average of nearly 10 pounds of tobacco in cigarettes during 1955.

That would represent a 1.2 per cent increase over last year but fall 4.8 per cent shy of the 1953 figure—a record.

* * *

Medical authorities have made numerous studies, some of them with conflicting conclusions, on a possible relationship between cigarette smoking and lung cancer.

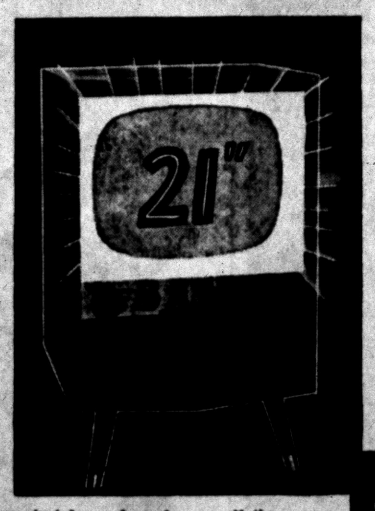

The department said it expected cigarette smoking to continue on an upward trend next year.

Realty Investments Up

NEW YORK—The nation's life-insurance companies increased their investment in real estate by $145,000,000 during the first half of 1955, to a total of $2,420,000,000.

Democrat Heads Meet for Talks

Adlai Stevenson's Austin Discussion May Evolve Election Policies

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Three of the Democratic party's biggest wheels meet here today for private talks which could pack strong political significance.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn and Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson will both welcome Adlai Stevenson on a visit to Texas for a lecture billed in advance as non-partisan.

Stevenson as the 1952 Democratic presidential candidate was swept under in the Dwight D. Eisenhower landslide that carried Texas for the GOP for the second time in a century.

Now, since President Eisenhower's heart attack may take him out of the running next year, many political pros in Texas are saying that Stevenson or almost any other Democratic nominee has a good chance to bring the state back into its traditional political position.

Stevenson will lecture on "America the Economic Colossus" at the University of Texas tonight. He will be the overnight guest of Johnson.

The senator's aides insist there is no political significance in the visit, which was arranged last August when Stevenson wrote Johnson wishing him a speedy recovery from his heart attack.

Ex-Circus Strongman Costars With Bogart

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Mike Lane, a big former circus strongman, has been signed to costar with Humphrey Bogart as the heavyweight champ in the movie "The Harder They Fall."

Based on the Budd Schulberg novel, Lane's part is reminiscent of the buildup and fall of Primo Carnera. The novel took a critical view of racketeering in the fight game.

The 24-year-old Lane wears a size 18 shoe, a size 20 shirt and a 58 suit. He stands 6 feet 10 inches and weighs 275. Discovered after an extensive search, he has no acting experience.

Tot, 5, Rides 90 Minutes Underneath Fast Truck

KENEDY, Tex. (AP)—Jim Chaney, 5, watched a touring revival truck being loaded and after awhile he disappeared.

An hour and 30 minutes later, a motorist noticed a boy hanging underneath the fast-moving revival truck, just inches above the pavement.

"I just wanted to go along for the ride," he said when he was returned to his father.

Airlines May Cut Rates

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Aeronautics Board has drafted and is studying a proposed new rule to permit airlines to offer reduced-fare vacation travel to U.S. military personnel overseas. This would improve morale and thereby aid the national defense the CAB said.

It said Pan American World Airways and Trans World Airlines recently expressed a desire to make "substantial rate reductions" for furloughed military personnel.

John Myers Receives Probation, Court Costs

Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick yesterday placed John Myers, 48, of 619 Spencer, Ferndale, on two-year probation and assessed $200 court costs.

Meyers pleaded guilty Sept. 14 to making improper advances to a 14-year-old girl in Troy Township last May 21.

House of Lords Reports Missing 'Horror Comics'

LONDON, Eng.—So that Peers of the Realm might be better prepared to debate the "Horror Comics" Bill, six specimen "horrors" recently were placed in the library of the British House of Lords.

And then a dreadful thing happened, so that heads were bowed in shame at Westminster.

On the day of the debate a member went to inspect the specimens but found three missing.

It developed that they had been "pinched." And they were, the Under Secretary to the Home Office admitted, the three most lurid ones.

An organized search developed that only one of the missing comics could be found, and it was being read by a member in another part of the House.

Released on Probation

In Oakland County Circuit Court yesterday, John W. Hawley, 17, of Detroit, was placed on two-year probation by Judge George B. Hartrick after admitting Sept. 19 to passing a bogus $25 check Aug. 20 in Birmingham.

Trinidad Bothered With Western Cars

PORT OF SPAIN—The colony of Trinidad, off the coast of Venezuela, is having a tough time remaining true to its British affiliation by keeping out left-hand drive cars.

An American who came to Trinidad to work for a few months for an oil company has been refused permission to bring in his American car.

The government declared that a bona fide tourist may get special permission to bring in his left-hand drive car and get special license plates. But if a foreigner comes to work there, no matter how short his stay, the prohibition against a left-hand drive car will not be relaxed.

Resin Coat Adds Life to Service Fuel Tanks

WASHINGTON—The Navy reports that use of a new synthetic reisin to coat the inside of ship and airplane fuel tanks resists the deterioration caused by aviation gasoline, sea water, and hot-water cleaning sprays so well that the tanks are now expected to last indefinitely.

They must be recoated with the resin every five years. Previously the tanks practically required rebuilding after 12 years of service.

Don't Battle Jellyfish

The victim of a Portuguese man-of-war—man, fish or crustacean — only makes matters worse by thrashing about in the water. By movement he is likely to draw more jellyfish tentacles about him. If he does not escape, a fatal dose of poison may be absorbed.

Indians' Rural Area Bolstered by State Bank

BOMBAY—The State Bank of India started to function recently, with headquarters in Bombay.

Its main purpose is to extend credit facilities to rural and semi-urban areas, which had been inadequately served by the previous banking system.

The business of the Imperial Bank branches in foreign countries will be taken over by the new bank, which must establish 400 branches in five years.

Plant Disease Toll Big

WASHINGTON — Some 350 plant diseases of major economic importance take a crop toll of nearly three billion dollars a year in the United States.

Electronic Designs Still Not Accepted by Many

NEW YORK—A magazine reports that although industry is becoming more and more receptive to electronic equipment, resistance to the novel and complicated-looking devices is still not quite dead.

Recently an electronic firm had to redesign some equipment so that it looked pneumatic in order to sell it to a refinery.

Planes Getting Noisier

WASHINGTON — Airplanes are becoming noisier. New jet engines with powerful afterburners generate 150 decibels, a fury of sound equivalent to 1,500,000,000 people all talking at once. Nothing in man's previous experience approaches that intensity, says the National Geographic Society.

Detergent May Be Pollution Cause

By ROGER D. GREENE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pollution of U.S. rivers, lakes and harbors is spreading an evil and potentially dangerous blight upon the American scene.

* * *

Countless cities and towns flush their raw, untreated sewage into once beautiful streams. Nearly 11,000 industrial plants spew millions of tons of poisonous, corrosive chemicals into the water we drink and brush our teeth with.

Many cities, such as Los Angeles, have closed down their bathing beaches at times because of pollution. In some areas pollution-stained waters have brought industrial expansion to a virtual halt.

TEN WORST CITIES

Here, as seen by a panel of sanitation experts who insisted on anonymity, are the nation's "10 most polluted cities"—that is, metropolitan areas where pollution is a major problem:

1. Pittsburgh—Has voted bond issue for treatment works.
2. St. Louis — No sewage treatment.

* * *

3. Miami—Putting in big sewage treatment and ocean outfall plant.
4. Kansas City.
5. Omaha—Making progress toward cleanup.
6. Seattle.
7. New York-New Jersey area.

* * *

8. Washington, D.C.
9. Charleston, W.Va. (Kanawha Valley area).
10. Youngstown, Ohio (Mahoning River area).

* * *

Scientists say even our "second-hand" water—fouled by sewage and recaptured to be used again—is generally safe to drink after going through modern water purification plants. But 31 million Americans live in cities wtih no water treatment facilities at all.

OHIO RIVER AREA

In the Ohio River watershed alone, 24 cities have no sewage treatment. And in 32 states, appropriations for water pollution control are less than $50,000 a year.

Federal health authorities today are gravely concerned about long-range effects on human health stemming from the vast influx of noxious industrial wastes into the nation's waterways.

"The whole problem in sewage treatment in the past was to break down organic waste. Now in the last 15 years we've got 700,000 new synthetic chemicals—plastics and so on—and they have changed the nature of waste.

KILLS FISH

As an example, Hollis said that an influx of two tenths parts per million (PPM) of copper into a stream doesn't affect the fish. Nor does 8 PPM of zinc.

"But if you combine as little as one tenth of that amount of copper and zinc in the stream, you kill all the fish," he said.

* * *

Some health authorities contend that chemicals found in common synthetic household detergents cause frothing and otherwise gum up the works at water treatment and sewage plants, thereby impeding the purification process.

To which the industry replies: "Nonsense!" or, "Prove it."

* * *

F. J. Coughlin, manager of Proctor and Gamble Co.'s research services and chairman of the research advisory subcommittee of the Association of American Soap and Glycerine Producers, said in an interview:

"Household synthetic detergents are no more toxic than ordinary salt. Some feed manufacturers are actually mixing detergents into feed for chickens, cows, pigs and other livestock, and there is some evidence it speeds their growth. At least, there's no harmful effect."

TESTS WERE MADE

As for assertions that detergents are clogging up water treatment plants, Coughlin said that in a recent test 2,800 pounds of a top-selling household detergent were dumped into the sewage treatment plant at San Antonio, Tex., without causing any marked degree of foaming.

Tests have shown that as little as 14 PPM of detergents in a stream killed fish. And rats given an 8 per cent mixture of detergents in their diet all died in a week.

* * *

Slowly awakening to the menace of foul water, more than 32 states have now enacted antipollution legislation, and many towns and industries have been ordered to clean up. They are beginning to realize that pollution deprives them of badly needed water in recurring times of drought.

Saipan Natives Donate

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Defense Department has announced that Saipan natives — whose weekly incomes average only $23 — have contributed $1,541.90 for U. S. flood victims.

The donation was entirely unsolicited, according to the department, and was the result of radio broadcasts describing the recent northeastern floods. The broadcasts were received by the mid-Pacific island from nearby Guam.

British Divers Seek Historical Treasure

LONDON, Eng.—Archaeologists are exploring underwater in an effort to write a few more missing pages of history. At two places in Britain aqualong divers are searching for submerged remains.

At Kirkstall Abbey the Leeds Under-Water Swimming Club will explore the bed of the River Aire for pottery and metal objects made by medieval monks, and off Whitstable another attempt is being made to recover objects from the Roman ships wrecked on Pudding Pan Rock.

Sobbing Actress Accuses Barker

Movie Hero Named Sire as Paternity Suit Opens in Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A pretty movie bit player broke down in sobs in Superior Court as she described her asserted love affair with actor Jess Barker, whom she accuses of fathering her unborn child.

* * *

Brunette Yvonne Doughty, 25, testified yesterday that when she informed Barker, 41, of her pregnancy last April 8, he replied, "What do you expect me to do about it?"

DIVORCE PENDING

Barker is still involved in a divorce contest with screen actress Susan Hayward. Miss Hayward was awarded a interlocutory decree Aug. 17, 1954, which has not been made final because Barker has an appeal on file.

Miss Doughty has asked Judge Elmer Doyle to make a preliminary order requiring Barker to pay $1,000 in medical bills plus reasonable support, pending trial of her suit to have him declared father of the baby expected in November.

Barker took the stand to testify he had only $6 in his pocket and "maybe a few dollars in the bank." Barker's attorneys said the actor will deny the paternity charges.

Miss Doughty said the affair began on their second date. Later she said they shared an apartment.

Marion Davies Sues California for Tax Refund

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Former movie star Marion Davies Brown has sued for the return of $37,819.27 in California sales taxes which she avers is being illegally held by the state.

She said in her complaint that the tax was paid under protest after she had been assessed by the State Board of Equalization on Personal Property.

Her lawyer said she disposed of more than one million dollars worth of personal property between July 1945 to September 1952, most of it oil paintings, and he contends that inasmuch as she is not regularly in the business of buying and selling, the mercantile-type sales tax does not apply to her.

$100 Costs, Probation Given Waterford Man

Tincher Given Sentence for Entering of Store

Joe S. Tincher, 36, no known address, was sentenced to 3 to 15 years in Jackson state prison yesterday b yOakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick.

Tincher admitted Sept. 19 breaking into a grocery store at 701 Orchard Lake Ave. Sept. 10.

EAT LIKE CRAZY TUMS FOR THE TUMMY "On The Spot" Relief For Acid Indigestion

MONORAIL BEING INTRODUCED TO U. S. — Jerrie Dell Davis, 9, uses a bottle of milk to "launch" a model of a monorail car planned for Houston, Tex. Designed for mass transportation, the car will run suspended from a single rail 20 feet above the ground, carrying 51 passengers at an average speed of 60 m. p. h. Track will be supported by a system of slender towers. An 830-foot test line, first such line in the United States, is being built in Houston by Monorail, Inc., to demonstrate the idea, which is supposed to cope successfully with heavy metropolitan traffic. Wuppertal, Germany, has had a monorail system in operation for over 50 years. It has been used there by 850 million persons without a single fatality, according to Monorail. The company estimates cost of the transportation system will be $500,000 a mile, which compares with the four to six-million-dollar cost for each mile of a freeway highway.

Harry Explains Store's Failure

Haberdashery Business Went Bankrupt Because GOP Ran Government

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former President Truman says his knowledge of history helped him deal "calmly" with the "Communists in government" controversy during his administration.

* * *

Truman likens the allegations of subversion in government to the "witch craze" of colonial days. He says they reflected "anti-Communist hysteria" and brought "indiscriminate branding of innocent persons as subversives."

In the second installment of his memoirs, published in the current issue of Life magazine, Truman says his actions in the situation were shaped in part by knowledge gleaned from reading in history of what he termed previous "waves of hysteria."

He deals also with two other items often cited by his political critics—the failure of his Kansas City haberdashery after World War I and his association with the late Tom Pendergast, once the "boss" of Kansas City Democratic politics.

Truman blames the Republicans for the 1922 failure of his clothing store, operated in partnership with Eddie Jacobson. He contends Secretary of the Treasury Andrew Mellon, a Republican, pursued economic policies that spelled financial disaster for Truman and thousands of others.

As for Pendergast, he tells of flatly rejecting an obvious bid by "Boss Tom" for the award of 10 million dollars in road contracts to a group of businessmen friendly to the Democratic city machine.

Truman, then presiding judge of Jackson County, relates that when Pendergast and the contractors called on him he announced the business would be "let to the lowest bidders" and, in keeping with a campaign promise, would be supervised by a bipartisan board of engineers.

* * *

He quotes Pendergast as telling the contractors:

"I told you he's the contrariest man in the state of Missouri."

Parties Scheduled for Local Soldiers

Irving Steinman, Pontiac USO chairman, today announced that a series of parties for servicemen at the Army's new guided missile base near Auburn Heights will be held, beginning in late October.

A different woman's club will provide refreshments and hostesses for each of the parties, Steinman said. Coordinating the activities is the Pontiac Federation of Women's Clubs.

Plans for the parties were begun, Steinman said, after Capt. Harold Strong, commander of the "Nike" base at Squirrel and Featherstone Rds., requested that the community help provide entertainment for his men.

Santa Fe Explains Away Wrigglers in Tap Water

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—Those "wriggling, wormy things" in Gallup's water supply are probably harmless midge fly larvae, a Health Department official says.

Charles Caldwell said the water is sufficiently chlorinated anyway, but "who wants to get a glass of cold water and find some sort of wriggling, wormy thing in it."

Handicapped Jobs Urged by President

President Dwight D. Eisenhower has urged the observation of National Employment of the Physically Handicapped Week October 2-8.

Adding impetus to the campaign he asked that a fourth "equality of opportunity" be added in our hearts to these of race, color and religion.

"Include in these equalities of opportunities" the president urged, "the equality of opportunity for anyone who may be physically handicapped so long as that person can be made a useful member of society."

Lucky Breaks Come to Young Songwriter

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—It's always been my contention that all you need to be a glowing success in New York is luck, pull, push, pleasing personality, attractive appearance and talent.

More or less in that order.

* * *

I have just met a suddenly successful young woman who agrees with me that luck—which embraces good timing, coincidence and accidentally being where things are happening—is the greatest factor of them all.

"When I was 16, I played hooky from school one day and went downtown to see a movie," says Carolyn Leigh. "While I was standing in line, a hand gripped my shoulder, and I thought, Oh-oh, the truant officer. This hand led me up to the theater manager's office and presented me with a $100 war bond."

"Congratulation," said the manager, "You are the millionth person to see 'For Whom the Bell Tolls.'"

* * *

This is the kind of luck Miss Leigh has had—the kind where things that looked bad suddenly turn out to be good—and it is one of the reasons why today she is a sought-after songwriter at the age of 29.

In less than two years, she has put herself on top of the heap by doing the lyrics for Mary Martin's Broadway version of "Peter Pan" the Max Liebman spectaculars, "The Chocolate Soldier" and "The Merry Widow" (in which she cleverly updated antiquated lyrics), and has just completed the all-new and original lyrics for "Heidi," which will be presented on TV Saturday night.

* * *

"It all started when I got bored," she says, "and began writing some poetry pieces down, and they seemed more like song lyrics than poems, so I decided to call somebody."

Carolyn tried to call a musical arranger whose name she had seen featured on some of the better TV shows, and the switchboard operator at the network gave her a number where he could be reached.

At this number, the man said the arranger was not in. But he and Carolyn had an enthusiastic phone discussion about the arranger's talents, and just as she was ready to hang up, the voice at the other end said, "Say, do you write lyrics?"

Carolyn said she frankly didn't know if what she wrote were lyrics or not. He said, "Well come on in, and bring some."

Miss Lucky Leigh was on her way. Her first song, "I'm Waitin' Just for You," which she describes with a wriggling nose as "Hideous," was a top-selling record. Her second song was "Young at Heart," which made a fortune for Frank Sinatra and a name for Carolyn Leigh.

The only thing that disturbs Carolyn in the slightest at this stage in her budding career is that she writes lyrics that are sweetly sophisticated, full of the love and luck she has known all her life. And the trend of the day, as every punctured-eared disc jockey listener knows, is toward rhythm and blues.

But with Carolyn's luck, she will probably wake up one morning and find that melody has replaced madness. And with her talent, she may even find the melody that turned the trick is hers!

Dems, GOP List Receipts From Michigan Parties

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democratic and Republican National Committees have reported receipt of $17,000 from Michigan State parties.

The GOP group said it got $10,000 from the Wayne County Republican Finance Committee.

The Michigan Democratic State Central Committee contributed $7,000 to the national committee.

Khrushchev Sends 'Get Well' Message

Another unofficial expression of the wish that the President regain his health soon, came from Soviet Communist Party Leader Nikita S. Khrushchev.

In a personal cable to Eisenhower released by the official Soviet news agency Tass, Khrushchev said:

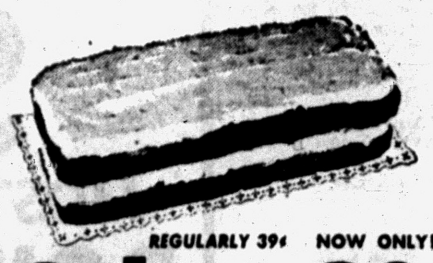

"Remembering our personal meetings in Geneva, I have learned with grief of your illness. I wholeheartedly wish you a speedy recovery."

Motorists of City Asked to Aid School Safety Plan

Pontiac has joined the State Safety Commission's "Watch Out for Kids" traffic program, Police Chief Herbert W. Straley said today.

"Each year," Chief Straley stated, "motorists need to be reminded that children are returning to classes and there is a special need to watch out for them. Many children have just returned from carefree summer vacations and are not adapted to the routine of going to and from school," the chief pointed out saying:

"Last year in Michigan, 5,075 children (from 1 to 14 years old) were struck down on street or highways—119 of them died and many others were crippled for life."

The Safety Commission and Straley have issued these rules for parents to teach their children: Stop at the curb. Look both ways. Wait until it's safe to cross. Walk across the street.

"Our department will pay particular attention to speeding near schools during this month as a forceful reminder to motorists to watch their speed as they watch for kids in school areas," he warned.

Concluding, the chief stated: "Hitting a little girl or boy with a ton and a half of steel is not a pleasant thin gto do. You, as a driver in such an accident, would find small comfort in the fact that the police may decide that the mishap was caused by the child's carelessness."

Roamin' Train Pilotless; Giulio Gives Fast Chase

TRENTO, Italy—Giulio Maccabei, 36, driver of an electric train, chased it vainly here.

He had stopped off for a quick cup of coffee and the train started off on its own. Giulio seized a bicycle and gave chase, fell off the bike, remounted and pedalled on.

But he gave up after several miles and put through an emergency call which resulted in the power being cut off and the train stopped. Giulio, with a bruised knee, was the only casualty.

Dope Cure Tests Seen Conducted Near Singapore

SINGAPORE—Doctors the world over are watching an experiment being tried with opium addicts on St. John's Island near here.

His formula: A total break with opium, good food, interesting work—tailoring, furniture making or poultry farming—and lots of exercise. Most present addicts acquired the habit when opium smoking was legal and was even encouraged by some governments as a source of revenue.

They have inhaled the drug of dreams since they were young. Now they have had to turn to crime to pay the smugglers, who force the price higher and higher. Some 50,000 opium smokers are said to be clamoring for the "cure."

$81 for 'Divining' Well

BELFAST, Ireland—Samuel McComb, laborer of Ballyshanaghill, Northern Ireland, got the $81 he sued for after "divining" water on Francis Wilson's land and sinking a well. When the judge asked McComb how the divining was done, he said, "With a wee stick." Wilson claimed that a Ministry of Agriculture man found the water and McComb only dug the well.

Avondale Cites Classroom Lack

Enrollment Up Seven Per Cent

High School Space Shortage Is Called Most Serious

AVONDALE — A seven per cent increase in enrollment since June and a continuing problem of class room shortages was reported by Supt. Raymond N. Baker of the Avondale school district yesterday.

Total enrollment in figures released for the middle of September is 2417 students as compared to closing figures of 2261 for the 1954-55 school year.

Until the new junior high school building is opened this fall, 150 seventh grade students will continue on half-day sessions and eight outside classrooms will still be rented.

However Baker said, "Even though we are building a new junior high school, our buildings will be filled as soon as it is completed." He further noted that the space shortage in Avondale High School is particularly serious.

FIFTEEN PER CENT INCREASE

Present high school enrollment is 545 compared to 473 for last year. Crowell said that the senior class alone with 103 students is up 33 per cent over last year's senior group.

Largest enrollment in the system is found in the 264-student 2nd grade. Other grades with over 200 students are the 3rd, kindergarten, 1st, and 8th grades.

Madison Heights Group to Appear in Circuit Court on Monday

MADISON HEIGHTS—Members of the Madison Heights Commission, eight in all, have been subpoeraed to appear in Oakland County Circuit Court next Monday to show cause why they should not write a new charter at this time.

John Archambault, president of the Madison Heights League, who opposed the first charter, has asked for the injunction until a suit challenging the validity of petitions asking for a new Charter Commission has been determined.

Joseph Noske, supporter of the first charter, filed the suit last July, which asked the court to prohibit the County Board of Supervisors from setting a date for election of a new Commission, until validity of petitions filed by the Madison Citizens League had been determined.

At a subsequent hearing, visiting Judge Lila M. Neuenfelt of Wayne County Circuit Court, ruled that no valid attempt had been made by the league to file petitions with acting Mayor Virginia M. Sobel.

Cinderella Girl MacLaine Lands Top Femme Role

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Cinderella girl, 21-year-old Shirley MacLaine, nabs her pixie self the top femme role in Mike Todd's "Around the World in 80 Days."

She's already in Durango, Colo., where she joined David Niven, Cantinflas and Robert Newton. She plays Aouda, the Indian princess whom Phineas Fogg meets in his dash around the world, and who attaches herself to him.

You may remember Shirley as the girl who made that old, old plot about the understudy come true. When Carol Haney, in "Pajama Game," broke her leg, understudy Shirley danced in.

Hal Wallis caught her that night, signed her, and I'm here to tell you she's plenty outstanding in her first picture, "The Trouble With Harry."

HOSTESS JUDY

Judy Garland's bad throat didn't keep her from being a fine hostess at the party she and Sid Luft gave at Romanoff's following her TV debut. There was plenty of talent at Judy's party, with everyone wanting to say a word to the little girl with the big voice.

David Wayne, who was such a competent co-star with Judy said, "Judy is a real trouper. She had trouble with her throat up to the moment of going on her show."

Kathryn Grayson's opening tomorrow night at the Riviera in Las Vegas will have Zsa Zsa Gabor, Jane Powell and Pat Nerney, Ginger Rogers and Jacques Bergerac in attendance.

Mary McCarty underwent major surgery this morning.

Brooks Confident, but Yankees Favored in Series Start Today

DODGERS		YANKEES

(20)	Newcome, p (20-5)	(1)	Martin, 2b
		(10)	Rizzuto, ss

NEW YORK (AP) — Two contrasting, consecutive streaks were on the line today as baseball's 52nd World Series was unfurled at Yankee Stadium with the New York Yankees seeking their 7th world championship and the Brooklyn Dodgers their 1st title.

Despite rain in the early morning hours, a near-capacity crowd of 67,000 was on hand for the opener.

The weather bureau forecast that the rain would end an hour or so before game time.

Big Don Newcombe, a 20-game winning righthander, was expected to be on the mound for Brooklyn. He was to be opposed by Whitey Ford, a compact little lefthander, whose 18 victories helped manager Casey Stengel win his sixth American league flag in seven years.

The game, to be viewed and heard on television and radio, was slated to start at noon (EST).

Walter Alston, going into his 1st World Series in his 2nd year at the Brooklyn helm, was confident the Dodgers would capture their 1st world title after seven failures in as many attempts since they won their 1st pennant in 1916. In their last five failures, it was the Yankees who turned them back.

Despite Brooklyn's optimism, the betting boys were stringing along with the Yankees, who have won 16 world championships in 20 attempts, since 1921, including their last seven in a row. The oddsmakers have installed the American League champions as 13-10 favorites to win the series and 6-5 to take the 1st game. This, despite the continued doubt that Mickey Mantle, the Yankees' top hitter, would be able to play only part of the series because of a torn muscle in his right thigh.

Mantle worked out along with his Yankee mates at Ebbets Field yesterday and managed to clout a couple of balls into the outfield seats but he couldn't run without pain.

"I'm not hopeful of playing — at least not in the 1st two games at the stadium," he said dejectedly. "It doesn't affect my hitting but I know I can't run on it."

Mantle said however that the leg was improving a bit each day since he injured it while beating out a bunt Sept. 16. He has been on the sidelines since except for two futile pinch hitting appearances in Boston Sunday.

Mickey's reduction to the status of pinch hitter would deprive the Yankees of their leading hitter (.306) and the league's leading home run hitter (37). Stengel, who said he would not make up his mind about Mantle until game time, indicated he would use Bob Cery in Mantle's spot in center field and play the left-handed hitting Irv Noren in left against righthanders. Against a lefthander, he will use Elston Howard in left in place of Noren.

Stengel was set in all other positions including shortstop where he finally decided on Phil Rizzuto, the grand little veteran of eight World Series. Alston had no reservations about his lineup. He stuck to the same one he announced Sunday.

The Brooks had seven righthanded hitters to fire at Ford who, in his only previous World Series start against the Dodgers, was kayoed early. In fact, there isn't a pitcher on the Yankee staff who owns a World Series triumph over Brooklyn. The three big Doger killers —Allie Reynolds, Vic Raschi and Eddie Lopat—are all gone. On the other hand, Carl Erskine has beaten the Yankees twice and Billy Loes once in World Series competition.

The main Dodger concern is Duke Snider who represents their main lefthanded strength. The star center fielder swatted 42 home runs during the regular season but not once since Labor Day. Roy Campanella, with 32 homers, hit his last on Aug. 30.

Based on performance in their five previous meetings, this should be a hitting series.

Can't Please Mentors

CHICAGO (AP)—The hardest guys to satisfy in football are Big Ten coaches, especially when their teams are winning.

Four coaches whose teams scored smashing victories in their opening games last week have the tear buckets out. They are Bennie Oosterbaan of Michigan; Hugh Daugherty of Michigan State; Forest Evashevski of Iowa and Wisconsin's Ivy Williamson.

Probably the most impressive team in the nation last week was Michigan after its rousing 42-7 victory over Missouri. The triumph hoisted the Wolverines to the No. 2 spot in The Associated Press poll and all appeared rosy at Ann Arbor.

"They didn't look as good as expected," he said. "We scored too easily and Missouri did not turn out to be a good test."

Bennie was so involved in pointing out his problems that no one bothered to mention that Missouri lost to Maryland, the nation's No. 1 team, by one point.

* * *

Daugherty saw his Spartans move to a convincing 20-13 decision over Indiana but he was moaning about Michigan and Wolverine end Ron Kramer.

The game of the week in the Big Ten will match Iowa and Wisconsin. And both schools are casting a wary eye towards the "showdown" battle."

The usual ballyhoo by school publicists is missing. One reason is the game is a sellout but a more important factor is the team that wins this game could go all the way.

Erik Wilson, Iowa publicist, said it's too early for a "showdown" game and Evashevski is not happy over Iowa's performance against Kansas State, a game which the Hawks won 28-7.

* * *

At Wisconsin, Coach Williamson is fretting over his line. Williamson claims the line is not as strong as it was last year when Wisconsin powered to an opening day

Last week the Badgers beat 52-14 victory over Marquette. Marquette 28-14.

Reese Says Big Newk Will Be Tougher for AL Club Today

By PEE WEE REESE
(Special to Pontiac Press)

NEW YORK — We're all kind of looking forward to today. Yesterday afternoon we had another look at Yankee Stadium. It's big but the bleachers are just as far away for anyone else as they are for Duke or Campy or any of the boys who hit the long ball. Both of them are overdue and, when you look at Walt's lineup for today, so are some of the other hitters.

I'll be plenty surprised if our batting average for the series isn't a lot higher than the Yankees. And that's a comment on our pitching as well as on what we do at the plate.

I don't think big Newk will have as tough a ball game as he had in '49. I'll take more than one run to beat us this time. Johnny Podres told me he's feeling fine and hopes to start one game. Erskine worked nicely today. Carl Furesillo stayed home. But he's had this sinus trouble before and he says on the phone that he's ready.

I hope Mantle and Rizzutto will be in good shape. We'd like to beat them with the best they've got.

The workout yesterday was not what you might expect for a team going into a big World Series today. It was a relaxed, confident practice session just to get the feel of the stadium—no high tension, no worries, just a good workout. I almost forgot to tell you. Big Newk is so full of pep that he was out running around the outfield at 11 o'clock this morning even though the workout wasn't supposed to start until noon. Nobody expects an easy series, but nobody expects to lose either.

Chief Harriers Chalk Up 33rd Straight Win

Capture 9 of 10 Top Places on Season's Opening Event

Pontiac High School's brilliant cross-country team Tuesday afternoon chalked up its 33rd straight dual meet victory, with an overwhelming count. Now, coach Wally Schloerke's distance runners are pointing for the 34th, and marking up each consecutive victory as a school record.

Chief Harriers yesterday took 9 of the 1st 10 places in the season's opening meet, with Waterford's Skippers. The count was Pontiac 15, Waterford 50. The higher the team finishes the lower its total, just the reverse of the usual method of counting scores.

An effort is being made to ascertain whether or not the 33 in a row constitutes some sort of a national prep record. As far as PHS officials know, it's a record for any Michigan prep cross-country team.

In yesterday's meet, over a wet and cold Beaudette Park, 2-mile course, Bill Douglas and Perry Williams finished in a tie for 1st, Rod Treais 3rd, sophomore Pete Cox 4th, Gene Cretal 5th, Don Evans 6th and Alex Barge 7th.

First Skipper to finish was John Oakley, 8th. Hasting Martin of PHS was 9th and Chiefs' Charles Johnson was 10th.

Douglas' and Williams' time was 11:10, somewhat slow for the course, for which the record is 10:17. But both finished easily, after leading all the way.

Forecast Looks Good for Series First Game

NEW YORK (AP)—It rained hard during the night, but the weather bureau predicted fair and mild weather this afternoon for the opening game of the World Series.

The 4 a.m. (EST) forecast read: "Cloudy with rain ending this morning followed by fair and mild weather this afternoon. High in the mid or upper 70's. Fresh to strong southerly winds early this morning becoming moderate west to southwest later this morning and diminishing to gentle westerly tonight."

Boyd-Fullmer to Clash in Tonight's TV Bout

Boyd, 20, is a 2½-1 underdog and goes into the nationally televised battle (ABC, 9 p.m. EST) with 34 victories, 6 losses and 2 draws. Twenty of his triumphs were by knockouts.

Issler, Ransom Matched Today

USGA Seniors Tourney Enters Into 2nd Round; Lambert, Hampton Out

* * *

Seven other matches today reduce the field, restricted to golfers 55 years and older, to eight for tomorrow's quarter-finals. Finals are set for Saturday at the Belle Meade Country Club here.

* * *

Issler and Ransom were extended to survive yesterday's opening round. Issler, 2-down after 12 holes, recovered to defeat Don Lambert of Clayton, Mo., 2 and 1. Ransom sank a par 4 on the 18th green to eliminate Stanlee Hampton of Nashville, 1 up.

O'Malley Lines Up Plans for Celebrating Victory(?)

By BILL CORUM

NEW YORK (INS)—The O'Malley and the writer were standing late last evening before the great market in downtown Brooklyn. One trusts that your readers are acquainted with the O'Malley, who is president of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

After the World Series, bye the bye, the O'Malley's title will be changed to become the-the-O'Malley. But let us not rush the Yankee mourners in the few short hours of happiness that are left to them.

"So you think," mused the O'Malley, "that 30 suckling pigs will be enough for the great victory banquet?"

"I should think so, sir," I told him. "After all, we should keep in mind that the royal victory hall of the world's champion Dodgers, built in secret, as you know, for this great occasion, will hold only 600 diners.

"And, unless my arithmetic is as bad, as usual, I figure that 1/20th of a roast pig should be enough for even a victory-starved Dodger fan."

"I suppose so," replied the O'Malley.

Whereupon, he took another long, reflective puff on his cigar—made to order in Havana, and as one puffs on them, the smoke spells out the letters O-M-a-l-l-e-y.

Avowed and lifelong National Leaguer though I am and readily admittting, that many times I have picked the better team, generally the Yankees, through sentiment, this time I believe Brooklyn to be the better team by a considerable margin.

TV Gets Lippy as Leo Signs NBC Contract

$50,000 Offer Lures Ex-NY Giant Mentor to Hollywood Job

NEW YORK (AP)—Television, long accused of stealing baseball's cash customers, now has lured away Leo Durocher.

The Lip revealed yesterday just why he had turned in his uniform as manager of the New York Giants, erstwhile world champions. It's TV—and a $50,000 a year job with the National Broadcasting Co.

* * *

Durocher, "terribly excited and elated," will take over his new duties in Hollywood upon returning to his California home after the World Series.

Robert W. Sarnoff, executive vice president of NBC, explained that Leo's "great executive ability," as evidenced in his role as manager in the major leagues since 1938, and his wife's acquaintances in the entertainment field would greatly benefit the organization.

* * *

Sarnoff added that Durocher would deal primarily with "talent relations," but also would be put into service as a sports commentator and a guest star on other productions.

Hardy Baseball Fans Brave Rain for Ducats to Series

NEW YORK (AP)—Fifty hardy baseball fans braved a cold, driving rain outside Yankee Stadium early today, waiting to buy bleacher seats for the opening game of the World Series.

Only four persons were in the line at 9 p.m. But near midnight others began to arrive. By 2 a.m., 50 had gathered, shielding themselves from the rain under umbrellas, cardboard cartons and other makeshift shelters.

One of those who braved the rain was 65-year-old John Boykin, an electrical maintenance man for the RKO movie studios in Los Angeles. He said he flew here on his vacation to see the games.

* * *

Asked which team he favored, Boykin replied: "I'm a neutral. I love baseball for itself." He said he had purchased tickets by mail for the Ebbets Field games, but had been unable to do so for the Yankee Stadium games.

Also in the line were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dow, of Saskatchewan Canada, who drove here for the games—their second World Series. They, too, said they had been able to get Brooklyn seats by mail, but had been unable to get Stadium tickets.

* * *

Pace said the game would be the first big league game he has ever seen. He explained that he and two fellow-cooks at the fort had been given special three-day leaves to attend series games because of an especially delicious meal the three concocted for men at the base.

He predicted a Brooklyn win in six games. "The Yankees beat Cleveland," he said, "so I want to see the Dodgers beat the Yankees."

By midnight, Ralph J. Belcore, 41-year-old carnival worker of Chicago, had regained his first place in line. He said a usurper, violating all beacher line tradition, had moved into the place earlier yesterday.

Lazy End Shows Tatum Promise

Giant Ed Cooke Quit Spring Drills, Is Now Called Top Prospect

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — A big kid from Norfolk, Va., twice told by Coach Jim Tatum he ought to quit football because he was lazy is today one of Maryland's most promising sophomore ends and its most fearsome physical specimen.

By next year, he'll be the "greatest end in the country." Those words are not Tatum's. They're Ed Cooke's, the end.

How did this transformation come about in a fellow who quit spring football practice for track at Tatum's advice and was told he ought to do the same shortly after fall practice started?

"He told me he just learned it was fun to knock guys down after I chewed him out about going to sleep during a lecture," recalls Tatum.

Winter Sports, Vacation Trips Hold Tigers' Interest

DETROIT (AP)—Members of the Detroit Tigers—their best season since 1950 now in the books—have scattered to the ends of the earth.

Young Bob Miller, bonus lefthander who compiled a 9-2 mark at Augusta, Ga., and then came up to defeat the Cleveland Indians twice in the final week of the season, will tour the Orient.

Miller will visit Japan, China, the Philippines, Korea and Australia with a group of athletes.

Wedding bells will ring for pitcher Duke Maas and shortstop Harvey Kuenn, who finished over the .300 mark for the 3rd time in as many seasons in big time.

Kuenn will be married Oct. 29 while the "Duke of Utica" has set Nov. 12 as the date for his wedding.

Outfielder Bubba Phillips and rookie hurler Paul Foytack plan to play in Latin America. Jim Bunning, another pitcher, is planning a sojourn to Havana. Jim Delsing may also play winter ball.

Al Kaline, batting champ of the major leagues, will return to Baltimore for a few exhibition contests. Al, at 20 the youngest batting champion the majors has ever seen, also plans to do some heavy work this winter.

Earl Torgeson and Ned Garver plan to do a little fishing. Garver also has a hunting trip scheduled for December in Wyoming.

Willie Pep Decisions Gault in 10-Rounder

HOLYOKE, Mass. (AP)—Willie Pep of Hartford, Conn., pounded out an easy 10-round decision over Henry (Pappy) Gault of Spartansburg, S. C., last night at the Valley Arena.

Pep, former featherweight champ, weighed 129½ and Gault, ex-North American bantam titlist, 123. There were no knockdowns.

NY Paper Reveals City to Get Track

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Mirror said today it had learned that racing will be held in New York City next August.

"The move means the end of Saratoga as a big-league racing center," the Mirror story said.

Saratoga, first opened in 1864, has held its meetings during August with the New York City flat tracks shut down.

Lane Is General Manager of Cards; Walker Through

NEW YORK (AP)—Frank Lane is in as general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals and Harry Walker is out as field manager of the Redbirds.

Eddie Stanky, who Walker succeeded as St. Louis manager last May, may be backin baseball as manager of the Minneapolis Millers, farm club of the New York Giants in the American Association.

* * *

These choice items were learned last night as the baseball folks gathered at the World Series headquarters on the eve of the opening game at Yankee Stadium.

* * *

At least one proposed deal fell through. Paul Richards' plan to step down as manager of the Baltimore Orioles and name George Kell of the Chicago White Sox as his successor was vetoed by the Baltimore board of directors. The board insisted that Richards' live up to his three-year contract calling for the dual role as field and general manager.

* * *

Lane, who resigned as White Sox general manager last week, already has conferred with Dick Meyer, executive vice-president of the Cardinals. They were to meet again either today or tomorrow when an official announcement will be made. Lane's salary is to be $50,000 a year for three years with the understanding that he is to have a free reign in running the club.

Gridder Leaves Bench at Game; Admits Mistake

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—Some 28,000 fans at Folsom Field last Saturday probably didn't notice the 205-pound University of Colorado guard on the four plays and one kickoff he was in during the Colorado-Arizona game.

* * *

Neither did his coaches or fellow players notice when Joe Connors, tired of bench-riding in the second half, walked to the dressing room, changed clothes and disappeared.

For the first time since then, the 23-year-old Pittston, Pa., second stringer showed up for practice yesterday and told Asst. Coach Ray Jenkins: "I made a mistake."

In 20 Years as Prep Coach Dan Barnabo Has Set Splendid Record at Romeo High

"It's a very nice situation here," Barnabo commented the other day, "and I hope to spend many more years at the school."

BARNABO

All his coaching since graduation from Western Michigan College at Kalamazoo in 1935, has been at Romeo.

Dan played football and baseball at Western, where he was a halfback on the grid squad and a 2nd baseman in spring baseball. He turned down bids for professional baseball in favor of the coaching job.

Records for Dan's teams reveal only one losing year (1952) in football (4-5). In 19 football seasons his clubs won 112, tied 11 and lost 48 games. Over the same time his baseball teams won 148, lost 49.

His best club was in 1942, Dan recalls. This eleven won 8 straight and only 6 points were scored against it.

Top Romeo athlete over the score of years was Bob Mellen. Dan believes. Mellen was an all-around athlete who captained Western Michigan's unbeaten war years grid team and was sought by the pros as well as by major league baseball clubs. Bob died in action during World War II.

Barnabo is a home man when not doing some coaching job. He has a family of wife, two daughters and a son Dan (Chip). He was born in Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb. 21, 1912.

Hamilton to Quit as Athletic Head

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Brutus Hamilton is resigning as athletic director for the University of California campus at Berkeley as soon as his successor is picked.

Hamilton, 55, submitted his resignation as director yesterday to the executive committee of the Associated Students of the University of California, but said he would remain as track coach, a position he has held since 1932.

The ASUC, surprised by Hamilton's move, has not named a replacement.

Texas Christian Boasts Leading Rusher in Swink

* * *

Swink is the greatest ball-carrier at TCU in 25 years and if he maintains his present pace will be not only the best at TCU but the top man of Southwest Conference history.

The conference record is 1,302 yards per season, set by Bob Smith at Texas A&M in 1950.

Swink came to TCU primarily because of his basketball ability. He was an outstanding player in Texas high schools and Coach Buster Brannon of the basketball team wanted him. So did Coach Abe Martin of the football team because Swink wanted to play football, too. It finally was agreed that he would play on the grid team and let basketball go.

* * *

Swink has made 31 points in the two games and if he keeps that up also will crack the conference scoring record—a matter of 128 points, set by Joe Hunt of Texas A&M in 1927.

Kramer MSU's Biggest Worry Saturday

EAST LANSING (UP) — "Beat Michigan and Kramer" is the motto scrawled in chalk on the blackboard at the Michigan State practice field this week.

Then that name "Kramer" is repeated around the edge of the board a half a dozen times.

So how are you going to construct a defense against an end like Ron Kramer who collected three touchdowns in his 1st game and added a handful of extra points?

That's the pretty problem facing MSU coaches this week.

"We're going to have a try at it," said coach Duffy Daugherty. "He's a great one, all right, and we have great respect for his ability. I don't know just what we will do or how we will try it, but it has to be done."

"I wish to could be sure that's all they would do with him," said Daugherty. "I'm in favor of that."

The Spartans remember Kramer well as a sophomore in last year's 33-7 defeat. He blocked one punt and scooped up the ball for a touchdown, partially blocked another kick, caught a collection of passes and was a gadfly on defense.

Michigan State had trouble controlling the Indiana passing game as the Hoosier quarterbacks had four big ends as targets. The only important statistic that favored the Hoosiers in the MSU opener was the yards passing, where Indiana gained 147 yards to 109 for the Spartans.

The defenders did well in getting down behind the enemy receivers, however, as there were no long touchdown runs. Only one short toss paid off with an Indiana score.

Joel Jones, the big and bruising sophomore end, will be tracking Kramer on the defense. Every one on the MSU ends and defenders is being rehearsed on how to play the potential All-America from Michigan.

* * *

Yesterday, there was a long pass drill on the practice field with the emphasis on Kramer. The squad also got its 1st taste of handling a wet ball as showers soaked the squad during part of the afternoon.

KING-SIZED—Hiles Stout gives Illinois a quarterback with the physical dimensions of a tackle. Standing six feet four and weighing 212 pounds, young Stout really gets off a jump pass. He carries well, too.

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

In teaching, I get pupils to slide, slide, slide . . . without using a ball. When Jimmy Smith, my instructor, put me through that phase of practice — shadow bowling — I at first thought it a waste of time. I was eager to mow down those pins. But I soon learned what shadow work meant, as I slid unfailingly into a chalked sketch of my foot at the foul line.

shows, assuring a straight-on, reaching follow-through for accuracy. After a month I raised my average 20 points, and by the end of the season I had gone up 35 points, beyond 190 average . . . one of the biggest thrills I've had in 45 years of bowling.

Finishing with a slide is highly important, and in recommending shadow bowling as a regular diet, I am confident it will reward you, as it did me, with a substantial boost in average in surprisingly short time.

State Colleges List 10 Boys From This Area

Ten Oakland County area football players, including three from Pontiac, dot the 1955 rosters of three college squads—the University of Detroit, Adrian College and Michigan Tech at Houghton.

Half of the area gridders are performing for the U. of D. led by junior halfback George (Mickey) Finn who starred at Center Line St. Clement High School. The others are end Fred Burnard of Troy and halfbacks Al Korpak of Algonac, Frank Reagan of Almont and R. Richardson who played at Ferndale St. James. All are sophs.

Four other footballers are listed at Adrian. Included are Russ Shindorf, sophomore fullback from Pontiac who played his high school ball for St. Michael, and full back Richard Robichard of Pontiac, fullback Leonard Schuneman and tackle Robert Harris, both of Imlay City. The latter three are freshmen.

Parker Wants Stout Defense Against Colts

Stits Will See Little Offense as Lions Prep for Tiff at Baltimore

DETROIT (UP) — In pro football, especially the way Buddy Parker looks at it, sometimes the offense has to suffer a bit for a brick wall defense.

Watch and see Saturday night when Parker's Detroit Lions take on the Baltimore Colts at Baltimore if injured Dave Middleton doesn't round into shape by then.

"Bill keeps that defense loose. He knows how to run and is a hard guy to corner." and defense coach Garrard (Buster) Ramsay says: "In my book, Stits is the greatest two way player in the league today."

Wisely, though, Parker figures he won't wear Stits out on offense, but will use him sparingly. After all, he says, you can make touchdowns all you want and they don't help a bit when you can't stop the other club.

Army-Navy football meeting of Saturday, Nov. 26 will be one of eight Saturday games to be televised nationally this season by NBC.

Looks From Sidelines

M's Injured Maentz Impatiently Bides Time

ANN ARBOR (UP) — Michigan's Tom Maentz, called "one of the greatest ends in the nation," is fidgeting away an impatient convalescence on the sidelines of the football practice field where he played just two short weeks ago.

Yet everytime he twists his 6-foot-3, 219-pound frame, a sharp pain in his back, "almost like a sprain," reminds him he's at least three games away from varsity duty.

When will he play, "I don't know," he says. "It's up to the coaches and the doctors."

Maentz stood on the field, clad in a gray sweat suit, fingering a football and doing some light running. Then he'd trot back to watch the team run some more plays until he got impatient again.

What would have happened if Maentz too had been on the field with Kramer? The only answer is that Michigan would have proved that it has what Oosterbaan bills as "the greatest end combination in the nation."

Maentz admits, "I'd really like to get in there," but the decision is not up to him. The injury he sustained is more painful than it is serious.

Coach Matt Patanelli, who scouted Michigan State, the Wolverines' opponent next Saturday at Michigan stadium, said reports that the Spartan team is green are not too well founded.

UD Titans After Wichita's Title

ST. LOUIS (UP)—The element of surprise, a potent factor in Wichita's First Missouri Valley football title last season, returns to haunt the Kansans this week as they face Detroit in the conference opener.

Detroit's 12-7 upset by Toledo last week only serves to make the Wheatshockers more wary Friday night at Detroit. Pete Tillman's men know the Titans are better than they looked on a wet field against the upstart Ohio club. Wally Fromhart has a veteran at every position and a flock of good sophomores.

Oklahoma A & M will face Texas Tech.

Turpin Will Meet Moore Next Year

LONDON (UP) —Archie Moore, whose bid for the heavyweight title was thwarted last week by champion Rocky Marciano, agreed today to defend his world light-heavyweight title against Randolph Turpin in London on Jan. 10, 1956.

Promoter Jack Solomons, who made the announcement, said he arranged the bout in transatlantic telephone negotiations with Charlie Johnston, Moore's manager.

Snubbed Texans Rekindle Flame for Coast Tiff

Longhorns, Not Invited to Rose Bowl in 1941, Take Aim at USC

The Texas Longhorns play Southern California here Friday night, their first appearance in California and first engagement with the mighty Trojans of USC.

Now for the benefit of the young Texans—

Longhorn backers who live out here still believe that Texas was snubbed and practically insulted when its great 1941 football team was not invited to the Rose Bowl.

That was the year when the Pacific Coast Conference champion, Oregon State, passed up Pete Layden, Jack Crain, Mal Kutner and other members of the Longhorn team, and invited Duke to the Bowl classic.

Understand, Southern Cal had nothing to do with this. But USC is a member in good standing in the Coast Conference, and as a matter of fact, passed up Texas Christian one year to play this same Duke University.

As things turned out in 1941, the war came on and the Rose Bowl game was shifted to Durham, N.C.

Texas did get a mild measure of consolation in the late season of 1941. If Southern California's young Trojans want to make something of it, the revenge motive works both ways.

After the Oregon State invitation went to Duke, Oregon had the misfortune to invade Texas and play the Longhorns.

The score: Texas 71, Oregon 7. (Worst score in Oregon history.)

Tribute Given to Bobby Jones at Stag Dinner

Banquet Honors 25th Anniversary of Slam; Ike Sends Letter

ATLANTA (AP)—About 600 friends paid tribute to Bob Jones, the golfer and the man, at a stag dinner last night commemorating the 25th anniversary of the day he won the National Amateur to complete a grand slam unique in the annals of the sport.

* * *

Jones received an ovation when he entered the banquet room at the Atlanta Athletic Club in his usual modest fashion and later spoke quietly of his achievements.

* * *

* * *

* * *

Cruz Stops Garza; Felton Outpointed

DETROIT (AP) — Lester Felton, still a tender 27, made his comeback to boxing last night at the Motor City arena. Those who saw it said he should never have gone near the ring.

Felton, weighing 146¾ from Detroit, was belted all over the ring, knocked down twice and barely landed a blow as he lost a one-sided six round decision to Rudy Gwinn, 146¼, of Cleveland.

But in the other six-round co-feature, Chicago's Abe Cruz, 158½, got off the mat in the 3rd round to take a split decision over Joe Garza, 152½, of Detroit, in a vicious battle.

League Contests Mark 3rd Week of Action for W-O Loop; Presidents Seek First Win

Wayne-Oakland League gridders swing into their 3rd week of action Friday night under the lights with three league encounters on the docket and one inter-sectional clash scheduled.

Hoping to register their 1st win plus their initial touchdown, West Bloomfield Presidents will be hosts to the Clarkston eleven, fresh from its league victory over Brighton last week, 31-0.

Coach Charles Guinnip's players will enter the tussle, their 1st league contest, with last week's starting lineup. George Ray, switched from tackle to end for last week's game with Walled Lake, will remain in the flanker position. In the other end slot will be Louis Doyle, formerly a halfback.

Out at Clarkston this week, Head Coach Ed Hintz has been stressing pass defense and blocking, expecting a strong Bloomfield single wing attack. "We are physically in good shape for the game," Hintz said, "and I expect Bloomfield's superior size to be a determining factor."

Holly Broncos, with a 1-1 record, will journey to Brighton for their 1st league test. They lost in their opener to Grand Blanc, 25-7 and last Friday stopped Hartland, 19-0.

Brighton Bulldogs hope to put number one in the win column after losing their 1st two games to South Lyon, 13-7 and Clarkston, 31-0.

Coach Ron Schipper will send his Northville Mustangs after their 1st TD and win when they entertain Milford. Redskins were blanked by league member Clarenceville last week, 26-0 after taking their opener from independent Oxford, 26-13.

It will be the Mustangs 1st league clash after being downed by Plymouth, 37-0 and Howell, 7-0.

Unscored upon Clarenceville meets Garden City in the only intersectional match in the league. Coach Nick Ianni reported that back Bob Soop probably will miss the game because of a minor back injury. Soop ran for two touchdowns last week to lead the Trojans to a 26-0 triumph over Milford.

NBA Official Quits as Ring 'Crusader'

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — An elder statesman of the boxing business today abandoned a two-year campaign to clean up the game, embittered by what he said was a lack of support.

Barton's decision to withdraw from the NBA's investigating committee came in a letter to NBA President Lou Radzienda of Chicago.

Former Jolson Gridder

Pete Jokanovich, reserve end on the Navy football team, was co-captain of Al Jolson's Sonny Boys team when he was 11 and 12. The team played at halftime between pro games in the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Good Fishing as Duck Season Nears

By JACK PATTERSON

Although upland hunting and wildfowling are about to steal the spotlight from the fishing front, fishing itself has not been forgotten. Not with butter-fat steelheads moving into streams from the Great Lakes in ever-increasing numbers and Lake St. Clair muskies showing a renewed interest in trolled lures, and perch swarming almost everywhere along the Lake Huron shore.

PATERSON

Champion steelheader to come to our attention this week is seven year old Randy Smith, 1620 Square Lake road. Fishing with his father Terry, Randy ran up a perfect score on the Au Sable, below Oscoda, with two strikes and two fish brought to net, both sassy two-pounders. If that sounds too easy remember that one fish out of three strikes is considered par for the course.

Laurels for the best local bluegill exterminator must go to hotel-owner Charlie Chapman, who has made still another whooping catch from Big Silver lake.

Further afield, Lake of the Woods is prime walleye territory at this season, according to Milo Cross, who recently returned from a nice deal there.

* * *

Seems that Milo's college roommate made good in a big way and every year takes about half a hundren bank presidents and other distinguished persons up to Canada for a spot of fishing.

City sporting goods stores have been deluged with calls on the legal opening hour for shooting ducks next Saturday morning. According to the Game Digest supplement proper shooting time on opening day will be one-half hour before sunrise.

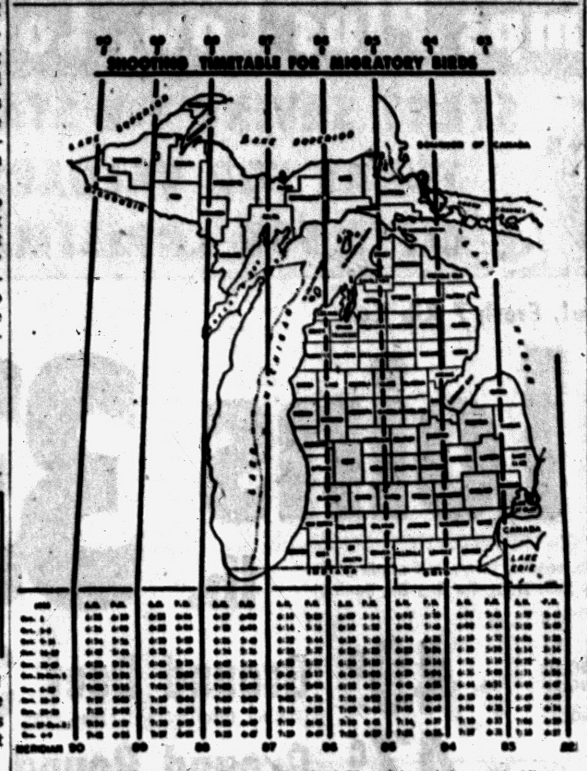

No waiting until the middle of the day this year. Only day with later starting hour will be Oct. 20th, when wildfowl may not be hunted in the lower peninsula until 10 a.m.

There will be a good supply of ducks this season and a good supply of hunters, too. Best opening bets should be the pot-holes, small marshes and lakes. The big waters will provide good shooting if the sky-shooters can restrain themselves, which is probably too much to hope for.

Actually the big marshes tend to improve as the season goes on. It has been noticed, for example, that over a period of a good many years, Wildfowl Bay is apt to provide its top shooting the last two weeks in October, with a little variation one way or another depending on weather.

Partridge are going to be where you find them with the overall picture at least as good as last year, better in some areas. Foliage is thick and many hunters will report no birds in their favorite areas.

Chances are the birds will be there but they are very, very easy to walk by in heavy cover and 99 out of a 100 pat hunters walk at least twice as fast as they should. Remember: pats in leafy cover would much rather sit tight, or run, than fly.

Game Seasons Expected to Draw 730,000

Ducks, Grouse, Deer Bow Hunting Lure Big Opening Crowd

LANSING—An estimated 730,000 hunters will go to Michigan's fields and forests this year for the annual small game seasons, some of which open Oct. 1.

Conservation Department leaders expect most hunting on the Saturday opening will be for waterfowl, ruffed grouse and deer by archery. A number of lesser seasons gets under way that day, but most generally draw only incidental hunting.

The important southern Michigan pheasant, squirrel and rabbit seasons don't start until Oct. 20, but all three species may be hunted in limited northern areas starting Oct. 1.

Raccoon hunting also starts in the north country Oct. 1, but in the south, baying hounds and midnight hunts under harvest moons won't get under way until Oct. 20.

All the state's 4,000 license dealers—hardware stores, sporting goods shops and farm stores—have been supplied with licenses, duck stamps, Game Law Digests and other information for hunters. The Digest gives details of all season regulations.

Darroid Erickson of Sioux Falls, S. D., played end and tackle for Army last season. This fall he has moved to center.

Eager Hunters Spoil Sport for Everybody

By MORT NEFF

If you're one of the 100,000 Michigan hunters who live for the fall waterfowl season in our state you're probably a dreamer—just as this reporter is—a dreamer of a windy, blustery day in your favorite marsh where you crouch expectantly in your blind as a long line of mallards come swinging across the sky. Other hunters are scattered throughout the marsh, too, but in your dream not one single shot is fired at those ducks while they're out of range! Of course that's the time to wake up, because a dream like that is nothing short of a hopeless night mare!

NEFF

The persistence and insistence of these "hunters" to sky-shoot throwing lead aimlessly into the wide open spaces makes one think it's some kind of a conspiracy.

Maybe there's a secret band of waterfowl lovers who don't believe any duck should ever be shot, and maybe they post their members in every marsh to scare off the ducks before harm can befall them!

At any rate, unintentionally perhaps, they're ruining their own and everyone else's shooting, and constitute the No. 1 aggravation on any good duck hunter's list today.

From reports of "resident" ducks in hundreds of our lakes and marshes there'll be a very heavy kill in the opening week of our 70 day season.

Particularly lethal to the ducks is the early opening shooting hour on the first day—and from license sale reports extra heavy concentrations of hunters will be on the marsh this fall.

Some 450,000 waterfowl will fall to these sportsmen if the season is normal—maybe more if pressure is heavier.

Area Setters Place in Trials

Irish Setter Club of Michigan held its annual AKC licensed two-day field trial Saturday and Sunday at Highland Recreation with the largest entry of dogs in the show's history.

Two Oakland County area dog owners won places with their Irish Setters. Fred Tetreau, field trial chairman from Farmington, took 2nd place in the open all-age stake with Robinette O'Dea. John Grant of Ferndale won 3rd spot in the novice class with Red Rust of Galloway.

Judges for the trial were Dick Wood and William Sczubielak, both of Livonia, Dr. C. F. DeVries of Lansing, and Paul J. Treadway from Berkley.

Puppy class—O'Leary, Ned LeGrande, Philadelphia, Pa.

It puts your business on Quality Street

LEAVE it to this Blue Chip GMC Runabout to spread glowing reports about you and your business.

There's an unmistakable air of prosperity in that smart design. But it's on the job especially that old-type trucks must look up to a Blue Chip GMC.

There's a 288 cubic inch V8 engine that delivers 155 horsepower on regular gas. It's an "over-square" design too—the stroke being less than the bore for extremely short piston travel.

There's Hydra-Matic Drive* that automatically and exactly fits the gear to the need—so smoothly, you forget about it all day long.

And while this shifting precision cuts fuel use, it also avoids shock-loading damage. Engine, drive line and rear end give you more years of repair-free service.

Finally, it's a Gibraltar of framing and axles for taking loads, and an easy-steering sweetheart for handling them.

So while folks are looking up to your truly modern equipment, savings are adding up every day you run it.

Railroad Refuses to Cut Rates for Honeymoons

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — India's nationalized railroads are giving reduced rate tickets to students and newsmen, but that does not mean honeymooners can expect the same benefits.

Answering a suggestion in Parliament that newlyweds be given the same privileges as students and journalists, a Railway Ministry spokesman said:

India's Increasing Use of Paper Shows Growth

NEW DELHI — The per capita consumption of paper in India, which until recently had been very low, has increased by 50 per cent in the past five years. With gains in literacy, expansion of industrial production, and improvement in the standard of living, paper consumption is expected to increase fast. Twenty-one factories in India now produce paper—out of bamboo, sabai grass, rags, wastepaper, and miscellaneous fibers.

Checker-Playing Addict Makes His Best Move

He finally got desperate enough to buy a grocery store here and installed a table and a couple of extra chairs to attract some opposition.

Among his customers, Weaver is able to snare a few to keep the checker board busy. If a game is going on when a customer drops in, he tells him to get what he needs—and make his own change.

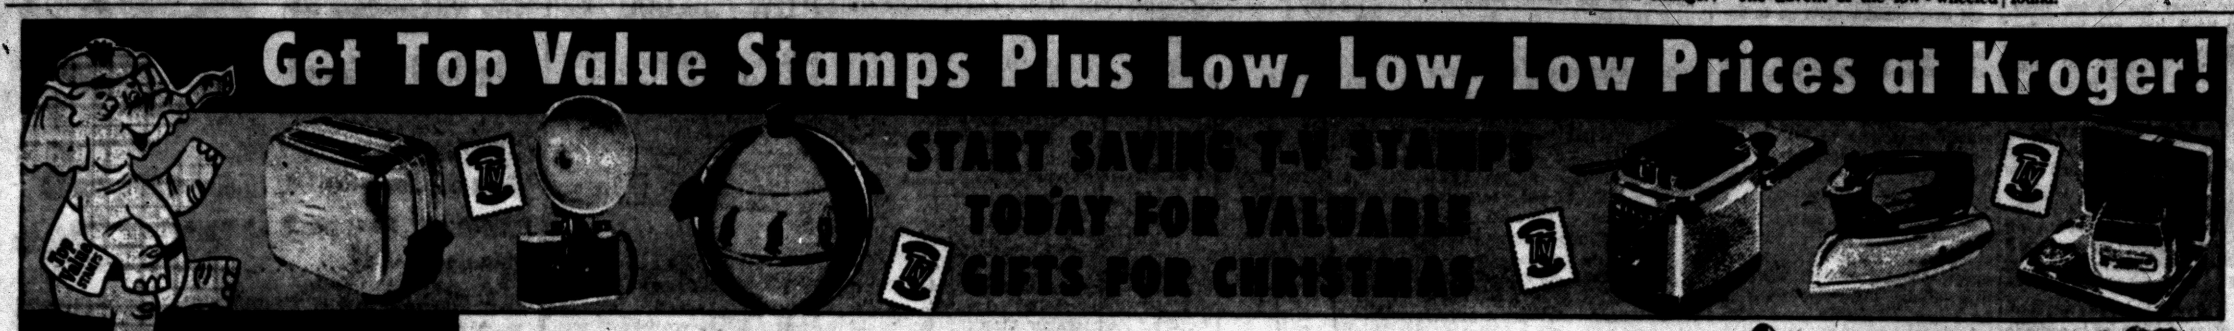

Free Road Maps Cost Ten Billion Each Year

BOSTON — Giving away road maps is a 10-billion-dollar-a-year business, with oil companies providing about half the estimated total of 300,000,000 maps.

The advent of the low-wheeled "safety" bicycle in the late 1880's generated the first quantity demand for road maps.

Francis Fiddler, 9, of Warrington, England, was wounded in the hand when his toy tank fired a live bullet the boy had found.

Is It Legal to Pay Your Bills in Pennies? Even Government Agencies Can't Say

By ARTHUR EDSON

WASHINGTON (AP)—Out in Downey, Calif., the other day, Raymond P. Vinzant tried to pay off an $88.19 debt by dumping 8,819 pennies on Anthony J. Rivera's sidewalk.

* * *

Rivera promptly yelled, Foul! It wasn't legal tender, Rivera said, and Municipal Judge A. Daniel Boone upheld him.

All of which explains why the guardians of the Ft. Knox gold deposits, the boys at the Treasury Department, were asked today:

What is legal tender? That is, what is a creditor compelled by law to accept as legal payment of a debt?

In one place the U.S. Code plainly says that pennies and nickels are legal tender in payments up to 25 cents. In another, the code says silver coins of less than $1 are legal tender for sums not exceeding $10.

But an official Treasury pamphlet, "Facts About United States Money," quotes still another portion of the code and says:

"All coins and currencies of the United States (including Federal Reserve notes and circulating notes of Federal Reserve banks and national banking associations) . . . are legal tender for all debts, public and private, public charges, taxes, duties and dues."

How come the discrepancy?

"I don't know," a legal eagle at the Treasury said. "Look, I'm not trying to duck this question. I really don't know. This is one of those conflicts that would have to be settled in the courts, and so far as I know, it never has been up for decision."

Actually, the question dates back to the time when legal tender really meant something. Various banks issued their own currency, and its value varied. A debtor had to keep a wary eye on the money with which he was paid.

* * *

Now not too much attention is paid to legal tender. For example, checks, even a certified one, aren't legal tender. But wouldn't you like to see one show up in the mail today?

Obviously, the U.S. Code on small coins is designed to prevent unnecessary harassment by dumping a bucketful of coins as a debt payment. Yet even here the law isn't consistent. There's nothing to keep anyone from legally paying a debt of $8,819 with 8,819 silver dollars.

Nobody at the Treasury seemed to know what the reaction there would be if you tried to pay a tax bill in pennies. It seemed generally agreed that if anyone would dump a bucket of pennies on Pennsylvania Avenue, Secretary Humphrey wouldn't go out and pick them up. At least, not personally.

* * *

"But if you showed up with a wheelbarrow full of pennies," a Treasury man said, "my guess is we'd take you right back to the money counting machines and start counting."

That's how the Treasury is about money. The consensus was you'd be lucky if you got back your wheelbarrow.

Given Probation, Costs

Calvin L. Ingold, 22, of 3420 Leo St., Alton, Ill., yesterday was placed on one-year probation and assessed $150 court costs by Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick.

Ingold admitted Sept. 19 having two concealed pistols in his car when arrested in Pontiac Sept. 14.

PIN-WORMS MAY BE A FAMILY AFFAIR

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms . . . ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge . . . the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Transatlantic Phone Cable Nearly Ready

OBAN, Scotland (AP)—The mammoth job of laying the first transatlantic telephone cable system is half done. Completion is expected by the end of next year.

The final splice in the west-to-east section of the three-inch armored cable was made last night aboard the British cable-ship Monarch. Nearly 2,000 miles long, the cable from Newfoundland to Britain has 51 repeaters at intervals of 37 miles.

Both-way conversation will be possible only after the east-to-west link is finished. The system, first such telephone link across any of the world's oceans, will cost 42 million dollars. Present transatlantic telephone communication is by radio, and subject to fadeouts and failures.

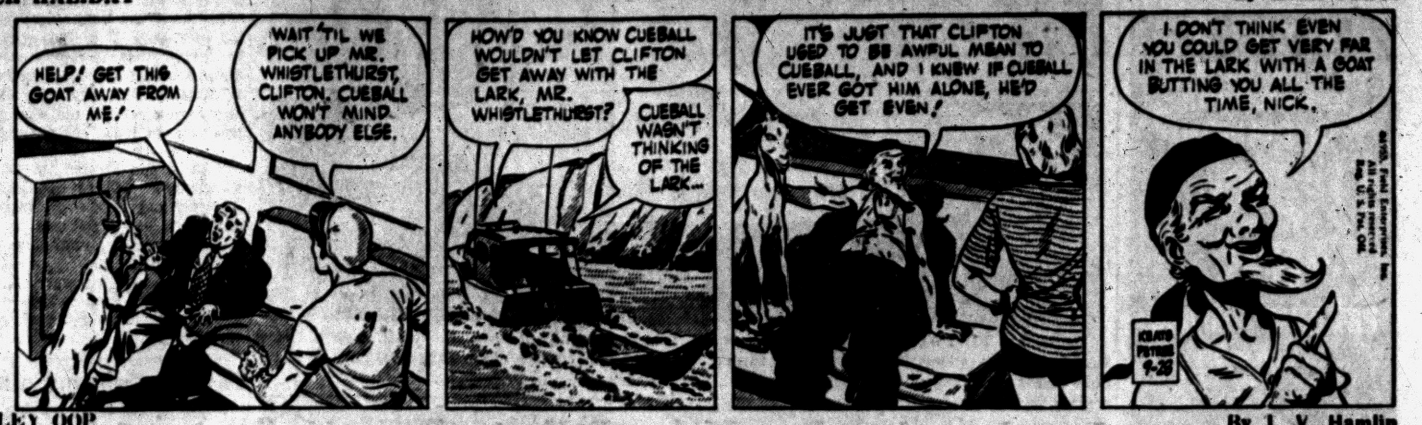

A record 3½ million cars were scrapped in 1954.

Auto Makers Gird for Sales Battle

Analysts Refute Given Figures

Experts Take Skeptical Look at Firms' Claims of Year End Totals

By DAVID J. WILKIE

DETROIT (AP) — Some of the speediest model changeovers in auto industry history are being made right now as the car makers prepare for the heaviest November-December output and sales they ever have known.

* * *

Most industry heads are saying overall output for the year will come to eight million cars. They will hit the six million mark some time next week.

Some makers are even saying actual retail deliveries will reach the eight million mark this year.

There is no question about new production and sales marks this year; all the former records already have been topped for the year to date; many companies already have topped their highest previous performances for any full year.

ANALYSTS DISAGREE

But all the industry analysts do not agree with the figures offered by some company executives. Most of the analysts expect the industry's total assemblies this year to approximate eight million retail deliveries to reach that unprecedented figure.

Many of them are inclined to put retail deliveries at around 7½ million this year. In round figures that would top the 1950 record mark by approximately a million units.

In raising a question about the passenger cars; all do not expect possibility of eight million new car sales this year the analysts point out that to reach it the retail division will have to sell an average of about 200,000 new cars a week for the final 10 weeks of the year. In addition, they say, retail car deliveries in December will have to compete with Christmas buying in many other lines of goods.

LAST QUARTER OUTPUT

Certain it is, however, that the nation's car builders are projecting the heaviest last quarter output in their history for this year. Their schedules call for more than two million assemblies between now and the year-end.

Ford, trying to get back into first place in production standing, is understood to be planning to build half a million 1956 model cars in the October-December quarter. Chevrolet, presently holding the No. 1 spot, could match that volume, although it has not yet swung over into 1956 model output.

At the end of last week Chevrolet, with a total 1956 output to date of 1,389,209 cars held a lead of nearly 135,000 over the Ford division.

The competitive battle in the car industry, of course, is not between Chevrolet and Ford alone. It runs all the way down the line to the smaller of the producers. And what lies ahead for the October-December period is unlike anything the industry ever before has experienced.

SALES OF '55's

Some of the cars to be sold in the October-December quarter will be 1955 models; there still are something in excess of 650,000 of these units in dealer hands. They will be counted in the year's volume, of course, but the big push will start when all the volume makes reach the market by early November.

Ford's full line already is on sale; the full Chrysler line will be on sale by Oct. 19, and all the GM divisions will have their cars in dealer hands early in November.

Some dealers disagree with the manufacturers as to the ability of the October-December market to absorb all the cars that will be built. But from present indications the cars will pour from the assembly lines in unprecedented numbers.

* * *

Federal Stores Plan Cleveland Additions

DETROIT (AP) — Davidson Bros., Inc., operators of Federal Department Stores of Detroit, announces it has been granted options for the purchase of four Bailey Department Stores in Cleveland.

The Bailey Stores, operated by National Department Stores of New York, include an eight-story downtown department store and three smaller buildings in outlying Cleveland.

The four reported a sales volume of a little more than 15 million dollars for the 1954 fiscal year.

I. D. Davidson, president of the Detroit firm, said if the purchase is completed it will be another step in his company's plan for expanding its Federal chain.

If the deal goes through it would give Federal's seven stores in Cleveland.

GOING, GOING, GONE — A house divided cannot stand, and that's why this four-story tenement otrn by floodwaters in Winsted, Conn., had to fall. Listing dangerously as citizens of Winsted look on, the wracked tenement was condemned and a wrecking crew called in. A blow from a crane (left) sends the half-house toppling to the ground (center) and moments later it is reduced to rubble (right). Ironically, the building toppled into the banks of the same river that flooded and caused the tenement's destruction—the Mad River, now little more than a tame stream.

Studebaker-Packard Head Sees '56 as Matching '55

Studebaker - Packard Corp., which displayed its 1956 line of cars to newsmen yesterday, anticipates the coming year will be as good for automotive production and sales as the current year.

"There is nothing in the picture today that indicates that the market will be less in 1956 than it was in 1955," James J. Nance president of Studebaker-Packard told a press conference at Utica.

The corporation plans to build as many cars as possible in the final quarter of this year, Nance said. Next year Studebaker capacout 10,000 a month in the final quarter of this year.

Nance emphasized that Studebaker-Packard's objective was to compete in every price line—with Studebaker in the low priced field; the Clipper line in the medium bracket and Packard in the upper price area.

Nance said nearly 1,000 Studebaker dealerships have taken the Packard franchise to increase representation in smaller markets where there previously has been no Packard dealer.

He said Studebaker has under way an expansion program to secure 20 per cent more dealers and Packard division will start a similar program.

Nance said the new Packards will feature electrically-activated pushbutton automatic transmissions and the "most powerful V-8 engines in the industry."

Studebaker will present new V-8 and six-cylinder passenger cars, described by company sources as the biggest and most powerful the company has ever produced; a line of high-powered, sports-type cars; a series of sedan-type station wagons, and a more powerful line of trucks.

He said the clipper models, covering the medium price field, will have torsion bar suspension and new, more powerful V-8 engines.

Measure Corn for Contest

Farm and Home Agent Says County Has One of Best Crops

Corn is now being measured for the Oakland County Corn Growing contest. Yields are running very high, well over 100 bushels on some fields, according to John Trocke, County Farm and Home Development agent.

"A lesson learned early in the measurement of plots is that the plant population is of the greatest importance. It is also important that fertility be built up through a series of years rather than by large quantities of fertilizer on the crop.

"Oakland County in general has had one of the better corn years in its history.

"Potatoes, on the other hand, are very poor this year due to the hot weather. Many outstanding growers are having one of their poorest crops. Ie seems as if the hot sun 'cooked' the green vines and prevented setting of enough potatoes. If killing frost holds off and we receive more rain, much growth of late sets may still be made.

"Wheat and spelt are being planted well on schedule but a few farmers have been delayed by difficult plowing conditions. It should be remembered that an extra shot of fertilizer and heavier seeding should be done when wheat is planted late." Trocke advises.

Edison Expands County Service

A Detroit Edison central communication system and customer service center, designed as a clearing house for prompt and efficient handling of customer service calls and new business inquiries, is being set up in Oakland County.

Jack Zeunen, manager of Edison's Pontiac office, said that all telephone calls from county customers will be received through a central answering system in the company's Birmingham office. Service orders will be sent by teletype or special messengers to servicemen stationed at six locations throughout the district.

For better coordination of customer service activities, several Edison departments have been centralized in the new Pontiac Service Center, located on Orchard Lake road just west of Telegraph.

Fashion Show at Pontiac High Set for Tonight

Members of the club report nearly 500 tickets sold, and are hoping for another 300 at the door to fill the auditorium. The 25-cent admission will help buy baskets for the needy, a club project, as well as finance field trips and other activities.

Mart Regains 40 Per Cent

By early afternoon today, the market had retraced an estimated 40 per cent of the Monday decline started by news of the President's illness.

Prices were up 1 to around 4 points at the best today. When the peak prices had been reached, however, there was a tendency to take quick profits. Prices backed down moderately from their tops, but no large minus signs appeared.

All areas of the market had a hand in the recovery today which started with a rush that caused the ticker to lag briefly all during the first hour. Prices were at their best during that rush. The pace slackened when prices began to back away.

The best performers were Santa Fe Railroad, Southern Railway, Standard Oil (NJ), American Airlines, Johns-Manville, Distillers Corp., American Telephone, Anaconda Co., Du Pont, International Paper, Aluminum Ltd., Youngstown Sheet & Tube, General Motors, Chrysler, and Boeing.

Grains Lower; Losses Small

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains turned lower on the Board of Trade today. Feed grains went down first, followed soon thereafter by wheat and soybeans. Rye again acted better than the rest of the market.

Losses were not very large and dealings proceeded at a more or less routine pace. Selling in feed grains partly reflected a slight pickup in receipts of cash grain, creating a little more hedging pressure.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅜ to ¾ lower, December $2.02¾, corn 1 to 1¼ lower, December $1.34¾; oats ½ to 1 cent lower, December 63½; rye unchanged to ½ lower, December $1.21¾; soybeans ¼ to 1½ lower, November $2.44½; and lard 5 to 12 cents a hundred pounds higher, October $10.87.

Catholic Groups Get $4 Million

UD, 3 Other Institutions Receive Estate Left by Campau Descendant

DETROIT (AP) — Four Detroit Catholic institutions, including the University of Detroit, have been left an estate valued at more than four million dollars to be divided equally.

* * *

The three other benificiaries are St. Vincent Orphanage, Sacred Heart Academy and Little Sisters of the Poor, which operates an old age home.

The estate was evaluated by Selden B. Daume, president of the Detroit Wabeek Bank & Trust Co., executors for the estate. Daume said the money will be turned over to the institutions when the final trust accounting is cleared by Probate Court.

* * *

The money was left to Mrs. Thompson's adopted daughter and her son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Springle of Oka, Que., when Mrs. Thompson died. Mrs. Springle, a widow, died Sept. 17, ending the trust and, under the will, the money went to the Detroit institutions.

How Long Will Lu Ann Remain With Godfrey?

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Irving Berlin says songs should be written tersely—like telegrams . . . Maybe news should, too . . . Alas, I've no talent for the Broadway brevity that O. O. McIntyre introduced . . . (Voice from the back row: "You've no talent period!")

Lu Ann Simms, out a-babying when Godfrey fired his Friends, is soon due back at CBS and her friends wonder whether she'll stay his friend.

LU ANN

"We'd like to thank Earl Wilson for the nice things he's written about us yet," the Dornan Brothers, comics, said in Hollywood recently. So . . . in the splendiferous new Hotel Pierre show headlined by Mimi Benzell they're splendidious.

Fresh, too! Samples: "He's the kind of a man who'd vote a town dry and then move out." They asked a ringsider his first name and when he hesitated, they snapped, "That's all right." You'll think of it."

That Miami motorcycle cop involved in the Philadelphia Story says he'll sue that wealthy family for a million . . . Irv Kupcinet said it well: "Cleveland's not done. All it has to do is win five out of its next three games."

Darryl Zanuck and Spyros Skouras are progressing nicely in London in negotiations for a new deal (more loot) for DZ . . . Capt. McCutchen turned down an offer from David O. Selznick who said he'd make him a movie star in five years, kind of a Jimmy Stewart . . . Lou Stillman, of famed Stillman's gym is suing Paramount for $200,000 alleging his muscle foundry was maligned in "The Country Girl".

Tommy Manville told his just-divorced ninth wife he wants to remarry her, "to get my money back" . . . Columbia Pictures may be the first major studio to release its old films to TV (to NBC) . . . Showgirl Marsha Rivers dated singer Danny Scholl at Joe Marsh's Spindletop.

Julie Wilson will get the divorce while she's working in Las Vegas . . . Johnnie Ray's ex, Marilyn Morrison, had her teeth recapped and signed with agent Henry Willson for a film career . . . Humphrey Bogart, unrecognized by a cop, was picked up and boosted out of Rocky Marciano's dressing room.

Beagle Music Devotee Prevents Interruption

When he came back the pup was in the front seat, had turned on the radio and was listening quietly. Burgess beamed at the dog's intelligence — until he tried to get in the car.

The dog had pushed down both inside door buttons, locking Burgess out.

O'Dwyer Is Planning Visit in New York City

MEXICO CITY (INS) — Former U.S Ambassador to Mexico William O'Dwyer will leave Mexico City tomorrow by plane for a visit to New York, where he was mayor for five years.

O'Dwyer, now associated with a Mexico City law firm, said the trip was "on my business" when he made the announcement yesterday.

Oleo Consumption Gains

WASHINGTON — The United States consumed 1,364,000,000 pounds of oleomargarine in 1954, an increase of 46 per cent in the five-year period since repeal of federal taxes on oleo.

Miner's Frontier Spurs Growth

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — The western galloped a good day's ride forward on television this week with the appearance of Worthington C. Miner's "Frontier" on NBC-TV.

* * *

The first of this adult Western series ran ahead of this department's second favorite, "The Life and Legend of Wyatt Earp" (ABC-TV), and left the CBS-TV entry in the big networks' western sweepstakes—"Gunsmoke"—wrapped in the smoke of its own gun.

REAL STORIES

When Miner, executive producer of "Frontier," announced the series, he said it would be concerned with "real stories of average people who went west."

The premiere program made a bow to the tastes of viewers who apparently are convinced the story of the west is the story of gunplay. It told the story of a 23-year-old Colorado fellow who was built into a feared gunman, "The Colfax Kid," through imaginary stories of his shooting prowess written by a newspaper reporter. Finally the Colfax Kid began to believe the stories written about him. He challenged famed gunman Clay Allison to a duel—and was killed.

The concern for truths of character as well as truths of history that marks "Frontier" is found also in "The Life and Legend of Wyatt Earp."

Due to the nature of its subject, however, it is full of gunplay, a pastime which palls on an adult audience after too much exposure.

"Gunsmoke," more imaginatively filmed than the third-rate package jobs that pour out of Hollywood, is nevertheless the same old Western story line.

Annexation Vote Set

KALAMAZOO (AP)—The Bronson Boulevard and Henderson Park Terrace districts will join Milwood in voting for annexation to Kalamazoo at a special election Nov. 8. The Kalamazoo county board of supervisors approved the action Tuesday. Combined population of the three suburbs has been estimated variously at between 12,000 and 20,000.

11,000-Year-Old Fossils Unearthed in Cheboygan

CHEBOYGAN (AP — Fossils of a reindeer which was believed to have roamed the Lower Peninsula some 11,000 years ago, have been found in a Cheboygan County gravel pit.

The fossils of legs and antlers of a caribou, or reindeer, were found buried near Indian River. Dr. A. H. Stockard, director of the University of Michigan biological station at nearby Burt Lake, said the animal probably was buried in sand and gravel from one of two glaciers which covered the area 11,000 years ago.

Women in Chicago May Visit Bars Soon

CHICAGO (INS) — Chicago women may soon be admitted to the bar — the cocktail bar, that is.

The city council judiciary committee has recommended that a wartime measure prohibiting unescorted women from frequenting bars be repealed. The ordinance was enacted in 1942 to protect servicemen from women of prey.

Alderman Patrick P. Petrone, in urging repeal of the measure, said "now that we are back to normal it is appropriate that we give women equal rights at the bar."

The alderman left unanswered, however, a question by a colleague as to "when the emergency passed?"

He's Tired of Being 'the Good Brother'

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (INS)—Jimmy Ray Douglas, 23, whose brother is in jail on arson charges, telephoned police that he had broken into the same supermarket three times in one night without getting caught.

His explanation:

"I want to be just as bad as my brother. I'm tired of being asked how I can be so good and my brother so bad."

Deaths Last Night

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y.—(AP) H. Beach Carpenter, 63, vice chairman of the board, American Sugar Refining Co., and former company president.

WASHINGTON—Jerry A. Mathews, 69, retired lawyer, former correspondent in Washington for the Chicago Daily News and the old New York Sun and a founder of the National Press Club.

Troopers Recapture Two Jailbreakers

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Two of three prisoners who hacked their way through a stone wall of the Ottawa County Jail Sunday with eating utensils were captured in a lonely Kalkaska County woods by state police yesterday.

Tropers found Vernon Hikade of Grand Rapids, and Merle Bowen of Holland, sitting in a stolen car on a trail in the woods. Neither put up a fight, police said.

Still missing is Larry Bouten of Lansing, who was awaiting arraignment on a charge of larceny of a speedboat which he told police he scuttled in Chicago harbor after stealing it at nearby Spring Lake.

Hikade was to be sentenced for auto theft and Bowen for non-support.

Hal Boyle Says:

Mr. Smerdley Sleeps in the Dutch Oven

WESTPORT, Conn. (AP) — There are many unusual characters in this community of artists, writers and intellectuals.

But "Mr. Smerdley," the only one in the neighborhood who sleeps in a Dutch oven, is perhaps the most unusual.

In an area teeming with watchdogs, Smerdley has the distinction of being the only "watchcat." He is a pet ocelot, a kind of tropical wildcat, owned by Arthur Kennedy, the well known Broadway and Hollywood actor.

Kennedy bought the wildcat, which came from Peru, as a 5-week old kitten on the West Coast while completing a starring role in M-G-M's film, "Traitor." Ocelot raising has become something of a fad on the West Coast, where two clubs devoted to the breed have been organized.

COMMON CAT COUSIN

The ocelot, a tree climbing cousin of the common cat, is known scientifically as felis pardalis, flourishes in Central and South America, once ranged as far north as Georgia. It is a beautifully spotted and barred animal of a tawny hue that, when full grown, is 3½ feet long and weighs 25 to 35 pounds.

* * *

These are ominous facts in the Kennedy household, for Smerdley at eight months is growing up fast on his daily diet of a pound of horse meat, two cans of baby food, and a spoonful each of vitamins, codliver oil and calcium.

Smerdley, who has developed a formidable armory of fang and claw, shows no interest in learning tricks and his main ambition in life seems to be to grow up a normal wildcat.

"We are enjoying a tentative relationship with him right now," said Kennedy, rubbing a deep scratch on the back of his hand. He and his wife are currently wondering if Smerdley wouldn't become more amicable on a diet of strained spinach instead of horse meat.

REAL JIVE CAT

Smerdley, while resenting adult handling, is quite amicable to the two Kennedy children—Laurie, 10, and Terence, 12. He loves to attend weekly rock 'n roll jam sessions in the studio barn with the neighborhood children, sticks his head against the phonograph and drinks in the music—a real jive cat.

"He also is quite a television fan," said Kennedy. "He particularly is fond of watching sports, such as football games, and likes to stay up for the late, late movie. But he doesn't care for Westerns—too much shooting in them — and is indifferent to British pictures, which he seems to find too slow and talky. He growls when he wants the program changed."

* * *

His role as a watchcat hasn't been tested in action against a burglar. But the ocelot, who has radar-keen hearing, growls, hisses and spits at the approach of any stranger.

Smerdley, part of whose resentment against life may stem from the fact a veterinarian robbed him of his virility while he was a kitten, actively dislikes having his menacing claws trimmed.

The 14-year-old Persian cats in the household loftily disdain all friendly overtures by this strange rude country cousin. So does Chippy, a 12-year-old Cocker-Sealyham terrier.

"Chippy is willing to play with him but he has a heart condition," explained Kennedy. "He can't stand the excitement."

Smerdley, who became housebroken in a few days, beds down in a Dutch oven in a fireplace in the old Kennedy colonial home, built originally in 1690. His potential skill as a burglar alarm is matched by his real skill as a catter.

"Whither Smerdley? A zoological expert told the actor no ocelot ever made a completely satisfactory pet. Ocelot lovers disagree with this emphatically.

"We're going to keep him as long as we can. Every time I mention giving him to a zoo, our daughter simply cracks up."

* * *

Malaya is being urged by the World Bank to give highest priority to rubber production, rather than tin, as it is believed demand for natural rubber will double by 1970, Singapore reports.

Sunken German Ship Boosts Normay's Scrap

TROMSOE, Norway — Scrap crews have recovered about 40,000 tons of metal from the Nazi battleship Tirpitz, which was sunk by Allied bombers near Tromsoe in World War II.

The work, begun in 1947, is expected to be finished in 1956. Salvagers have brought up 250 tons of ammunition without an accident, and salvaged motors from the Tirpitz now provide electricity for many homes and plants.

Nagging Backache Sleepless Nights

Nagging backache, headache, or muscular aches and pains may come on with over-exertion, emotional upsets or day to day stress and strain. And folks who eat and drink unwisely sometimes suffer mild bladder irritation — with that restless, uncomfortable feeling.

If you are miserable and worn out because of these discomforts, Doan's Pills often help by their pain relieving action, by their soothing effect to ease bladder irritation, and by their mild diuretic action through the kidneys—to help increase the output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes.
