

Romney Winner; Ferency Stumbles

GEORGE ROMNEY

DETROIT (AP)—Republican Gov. George Romney was re-nominated to a third term without opposition yesterday—but the major surprise of the gubernatorial primary was the slim vote polled by unopposed Democratic candidate Zolton Ferency.

While the heated Democratic U. S. Senate race pulled nearly twice as many voters to the Democratic primary as the Republican, Romney still outpolled Ferency in what was only a popularity contest.

Many voters in the Democratic primary didn't even give Ferency, the party's state chairman, a courtesy vote.

With 5,192 of 5,315 precincts reporting, Romney had 416,754 votes and Ferency had 364,890.

The Ferency total was barely more than half that polled by the two Democratic senatorial candidates—G. Mennen Williams and Jerome P. Cavanagh.

Some of the Cavanagh total apparently came from Republicans and independents unwilling to vote for Ferency.

Even in heavily Democratic Wayne County, Ferency could not manage even a 2-to-1 edge over Romney even though more than four times as many Democrats as Republicans voted in the primary.

The results pinpoint Ferency's major problem—identification. He has been touring the state in a campaign bus for weeks, and is expected to follow the pattern right through the Nov. 8 election.

Romney is not expected to follow the pattern right through the Nov. 8 election.

Romney is not expected to begin his campaign until about Labor Day, but has already promised it will be his most vigorous yet.

The governor is confident of reelection but wants to bring Sen. Robert Griffin, at least four new congressmen and control of the State Senate in with him.

A big victory—by more than his 1964 edge of 384,000 votes—would further stimulate Romney's unannounced drive for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination.

LOOKS TO WILLIAMS

Ferency will be looking for a rub off from G. Mennen Williams, winner of six statewide elections and Griffin's challenger.

As Williams accepted victory last night, Ferency was at his shoulder.

The fiery state chairman is a workmen's compensation lawyer and articulate debater who is expected to try to provoke (Continued on Page A-3, Col. 3)

Kuhn Loses to McDonald in 19th District

Republican Will Face Congressman Farnum in General Election

Showing balanced vote-getting strength on either side of the Wayne-Oakland County line, Redford Township Supervisor Jack H. McDonald outpointed Oakland County's Richard D. Kuhn yesterday to gain the Republican nomination in the 19th Congressional District.

McDonald polled a total of 13,256 votes to Kuhn's 12,679—a winning margin of 1,176.

A third contender for the 19th GOP nod, Larry D. Vandermeulen, tallied 1,338 votes.

The 34-year-old McDonald will oppose incumbent Billie S. Farnum, 50, of Waterford Township, in the Nov. 8 general election. Farnum, serving his first term, was unopposed in the primary for the Democratic nomination in the 19th.

Meantime, the former chief assistant U.S. attorney in Detroit, William H. Merrill, will (Continued on Page 2, Col. 1)

GOP Nominees for Congress Rated High

DETROIT (AP)—Moderates topped conservatives in three major Republican congressional fights today as all 18 Michigan incumbents were renominated.

The three are all given strong chances to unseat freshman Democrats in November.

Democratic Rep. Jacion Nedzi of Detroit, the incumbent facing the strongest primary test, outdistanced former Rep. Harold Ryan in a race where Nedzi's support of open occupancy housing was the key issue.

State Sen. Guy VanderJagt of Cadillac handily won the Republican nomination and favorite's role for November in the 9th district of northwestern Michigan, only district without an incumbent.

The moderate-conservative battles were in the 2nd, 3rd and 19th districts. State Sen. Garry Brown of (Continued on Page A-3, Col. 7)

HAPPY GATHERING—Former Michigan Gov. G. Mennen Williams is surrounded by a smiling family and well-wishers as he makes an appearance at his Detroit campaign headquarters after winning the Democratic nomination for the U.S.

Beasley Tops Circuit Court Vote

The race for three seats on the Oakland County Circuit Court bench was narrowed down to six candidates in yesterday's primary, with a Ferndale attorney topping the list by a 5,000 vote margin.

In all, 22 candidates were hiding for the nomination, the largest field of hopefuls ever in a judicial campaign in the county.

Winning the top six spots and a place on the Nov. 8 general election ballot were William R. Beasley, 27,896 votes; Farrell E. Roberts, 22,841; S. Jerome Bronson, 22,688; Robert L. Templein, 15,453; John N. O'Brien, 12,509; Cecil B. McCallum, 12,495.

Beasley had received the highest number of preferred votes in a poll taken among Oakland County attorneys two weeks ago. At that time he received 2 1/2 times more votes than the next two highest candidates, both of whom garnered 108 each.

PAST PRESIDENT

A past president of the county bar association, Beasley is presently the city attorney for Huntington Woods, and legal counsel for Birmingham and Ferndale city districts.

He served one term as a

Ferndale City Commissioner, 1951-53.

Beasley, 47, of 330 W. Drayton, was an organizer of the Oakland Legal Aid Society.

Roberts, 43, of 2468 LaFay, West Bloomfield Township, presently is serving as state senator from the 14th District, and did not enter the primary for the legislative post.

With 5,194 of 5,315 precincts reporting, Williams' vote was 428,778 against 283,576 for Cavanagh.

The former six-term governor rolled up a commanding lead in Cavanagh's hometown of Detroit and clobbered him in most outstate counties.

GM Factories in City Close for Inventory

Production of 1966 model Pontiacs and Tempests ends today after breaking all the records which were established just last year.

The majority of Pontiac's 16,500 production employees will be laid off for a period of inventory, after which production of cars for the 1967 model run will begin on a gradual basis.

Pontiac assembly operations are expected to resume on August 23 with the production of 1967 models.

Layoffs at Fisher Body plant began yesterday with production operations to be closed out by about noon today. An estimated 3,400 workers are to be laid off until the latter part of August, a spokesman said.

An estimated 8,000 GMC Truck & Coach Division employees will be idled next week by model changeover which begins Monday. Truck and coach production is slated to resume Aug. 15.

PRODUCE $31.331

At the close of today's second shift at Pontiac Motor Division a total of $31,331 cars will have been assembled during the model year, breaking the record of $20,000 units set last year by nearly four per cent.

The 1966 total includes 672,233 Pontiacs and 359,000 Tempests.

Moore, Shifman Top Field of 5 Candidates

A young Birmingham attorney and an Oak Park Municipal judge won the nomination for Oakland County probate judge in yesterday's primary election. Eugene A. Moore of Birmingham, son of Circuit Judge Arthur E. Moore, led the field of five candidates with a total vote of 34,513.

His opponent in the November election will be Burton R. Shifman, of Oak Park, who polled 16,482 votes.

Trailing the two successful candidates were Barry M. Grant, 14,708; Hayward Whitlock, 6,479; and Lincoln Welton, 4,876.

The $26,500 a year probate post was established last December, and when filled will reach 76.

Bright and cheery with a few light clouds in the sky is the outlook for tomorrow.

The weatherman forecasts fair and not so cool tonight; partly cloudy and warmer tomorrow. Temperatures, falling to 52 to 60 during the night, will aim for 76 to 82 tomorrow.

Partly cloudy and warmer is Friday's prediction.

Today's winds, northwest at 8 to 16 miles per hour, will become light and variable tonight.

A mild 53 was the low prior to 8 a.m. in downtown Pontiac. By 1 p.m., the mercury had reached 76.

the Democratic nomination in the 18th District, qualifying him to vie in November with incumbent William S. Broomfield of Royal Oak for that district's seat in Congress.

Broomfield, unopposed for the 18th GOP nomination, received 27,181 votes.

Merrill, who won nomination by a nearly 2:1 margin, received 8,533 votes to 4,693 votes credited to real estate salesman Theodore N. Kratzet of Royal Oak, who also sought nomination.

Serving his third term as the head of the most populated township in the state, McDonald picked up balanced voter support in the 18th District, which spreads across the western half of Oakland County and crosses into Wayne County to take in Northville, Livonia and Redford Township.

Wayne County voters gave McDonald 9,744 votes, while Oakland voters pushed his vote level 5,811 times.

KUHN'S TALLY
Kuhn, 36, of 205 Gateway, Waterford Township, Farnum's 1964 foe in the general election, polled 9,188 Oakland votes and 2,911 in Wayne County.

A Pontiac attorney and businessman, Kuhn, prior to the 1964 campaign, was an unsuccessful candidate for the GOP nomination for state senator from Oakland County six times.

Vandermolten, 26, who finished third in the three-way race for the 18th GOP nomination, is a political science instructor at Schoolcraft College in Livonia. He lives at 31675 Shawasee, Farmington.

The 18th Congressional District, where Merrill will oppose the 44-year-old Bloomfield, is a sixth term in the House, takes in roughly the eastern half of Oakland County.

Carl O'Brien Is Victor

An incumbent state senator and a former state senator won their respective party nominations yesterday in 17th District primaries.

Incumbent Carl W. O'Brien won nomination to vie for a second term in the Senate, edging out Waterford Township businessman Richard D. Campbell, 6,477 to 3,855 in the Democratic primary.

Meantime, L. Harvey Lodge, formerly a two-term senator from the old 12th District which he formerly comprised all of Oakland County, won the Republican nomination, outdistancing two GOP rivals.

Lodge received 4,539 votes to 2,151 garnered by Atlica Township dairy farmer James N. Harsen and 2,117 awarded Stanley M. Brown, former Southfield Township justice of the peace.

The 36-year-old O'Brien of 513 Moore, and Pontiac attorney, Lodge, 63, of 8610 Longworth, Waterford Township, will vie in November.

1964 LOSER
In winning the 17th District GOP nod, Lodge accomplished what he failed to do in 1964 when he lost the Senate nomination.

The 17th District takes in Pontiac, the townships of Waterford, Independence, Brandon, Oxford, Addison, Oakland, Orion and Lapeer County.

In the 16th District primaries, Robert J. Huber, incumbent senator, outpolled attorney Dale A. Winnie, 12,702 to 3,059 to win the GOP nomination.

Mrs. Mary Braden, who withdrew from the race, but whose name appeared on the ballot received 1,854 votes.

ROYAL OAK MAN
On the Democratic side, the primary nomination went to Edward A. Kavanagh of Royal Oak with 4,619 votes to 3,439 for Clawson school teacher Jon E. Daniels and 3,002 votes to Mrs. Eileen Marz of 140 Alice, Bloomfield Township.

In the 14th State Senatorial District, which takes in 12 townships west and south of Waterford Township, plus the Wayne County communities of Plymouth Township and Livonia, the nominees selected yesterday were Paul F. Livingston, Democrat, and George W. Kuhn, Republican.

Livingston, 42, of 7232 Tratham, West Bloomfield Township, polled 6,535 votes to outdistance Earl J. Demel of Plymouth Township with 4,447 and Louis C. Odette, 46, of 6500 Cascade, Commerce Township, who finished with 2,644.

Kuhn, 41, of 7222 Cottonwood, West Bloomfield Township, with 6,425 votes, won the 14th District GOP nomination by a comfortable margin over attorney John A. MacLellan, 56, of 6939 Dandison, West Bloomfield Township, with 4,444 votes, and Carl D. Pursell of Plymouth with 5,369.

COUNCILMAN
Southfield City Councilman Thomas C. Rowley, a marketing consultant with Michigan Bell Telephone Co., secured the 15th District Republican nomination with 4,529 votes, compared to 2,862 for Mrs. Mary G. Rice of Southfield.

The 15th District Democratic nomination went to incumbent State Senator Sander M. Levin of Berkley, who was unopposed in the primary. He received 17,761 votes.

The 15th and 16th Senatorial Districts begin east of Pontiac, incorporating Pontiac, Avon, Bloomfield, Southfield, and Royal Oak Townships and the cities of Troy, Royal Oak, Pleasant Ridge and Birmingham in the 15th, and five south Oakland County cities in the 16th.

Pension Plan Wins Approval

City voters yesterday approved an amendment to the city charter to permit full-time elected officials to join the city's general employee pension plan.

The vote was 1,792 for the amendment and 1,542 against according to unofficial returns tallied by City Clerk Mrs. Olga Barkeley.

The amendment will permit the city's two municipal court judges, currently the only full-time elected officials, to join the pension plan.

The judges will also be allowed to make up contributions to the pension plan back to Dec. 31, 1965 to obtain pension service credit for their years of service.

According to the unofficial tally, a large segment of the voters yesterday ignored the charter amendment proposal on city ballots. Only 3,334 of those 9,733 voting cast a vote for or against the ballot proposition.

MISSSED PROPOSAL
City election officials said a lot of voters might have missed the proposal at the top of the ballot.

Better than 25 per cent of the city's 32,320 registered voters went to the polls in yesterday's primary.

Recently elected to new six-year terms, the city's municipal court judges initiated the charter amendment. One of the judges, Cecil B. McCallum, was nominated on other ballots for the Circuit Court bench.

He was returned to the senate, however, in a special election that was called in early 1965 to fill a vacancy created by the death of Paul Chandler.

The first Democrat to hold the position in more than 30 years, Bronson presently is the Oakland County Prosecutor, serving two years of a four-year term to which he was elected in 1964.

Bronson, 37, of 26450 Seneca Oak Park, has been an attorney for 11 years, obtaining his law degree from Wayne State University.

In 1962, he lost in his first bid for prosecutor to the then incumbent, George Taylor.

He is a member of the law firm of Bronson and Kutinsky in Madison Heights.

Templin, like Roberts, is a former Oakland County assistant prosecutor.

Two years ago, Templin, 44, of 3199 Pebble Lane, won the Republican nomination for prosecuting attorney, and then lost the election to Bronson.

LAW FIRM
A member of the law firm of Wilson, Templin, Bass & Bass, Templin is active in the county Republican party, heading the Lincoln Republican Club, and as a member of GOP executive and county committees.

O'Brien received his law degree from the University of Detroit, where he had earlier graduated from the College of Commerce and Finance.

McCallum has been a municipal judge in Pontiac since 1964.

Prior to election as a judge, McCallum, 65, of 266 Cherokee, was in private law practice for 21 years.

As a judge, he was instrumental in establishing a nonstop plan which provides for payments to families through a check-off system operated by the court, and in setting up the first traffic school in the county for traffic offenders.

supporter of President Johnson's administration and generally approves of the conduct of the war in Viet Nam.

WAS CRITICAL
Cavanagh, 38, criticized some of Johnson's Viet Nam and economic policies.

Even before Cavanagh conceded defeat, he was dropping in at the mayor's campaign headquarters to seek his support. He did not see Cavanagh.

"I invite all of Mayor Cavanagh's supporters to join with us in making sure that there will be representation for Michigan in the Senate that is above partisanship and beyond the reach of boss control," Griffin said.

Griffin, 44, was appointed by Republican Gov. George Romney to fill the vacancy left by the death of Democratic Sen. Patrick McNamara.

THIRD TERM
Romney, unopposed in the primary, will be seeking his third term as governor in November against a vociferous critic, Democratic State Chairman Zolton Ferency.

Since Romney is expected to make a bid for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination, the nation's political pundits will be watching to see how well he fares against Ferency and whether he can help carry Griffin to victory over Williams.

President Johnson, Vice President Hubert Humphrey and Sen. Robert Kennedy, D-N.Y., are expected to head a Democratic task force into Michigan to help the former governor and blunt Romney's national image.

Both Williams and Cavanagh indicated they would forget any hard feelings generated by the hard-fought primary in an effort to beat Griffin, who is best known as coauthor of the Landrum-Griffin Labor Act.

HAS BACKING
Even though Williams already has the backing of the powerful AFL-CIO organization, labor leaders will have an extra incentive in trying to knock off the man who helped write a piece of legislation viewed with particular loathing by many union officials.

Bloomfield Twp. Passes Two Millage Increases

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP
Voters in yesterday's primary election approved two millage increases.

A full slate of Republican candidates for township offices will be on the November ballot.

The first proposal calling for an increase of 1.3 mills in the tax rate for one year and 2.8 mills for 10 years for the continuation of fire, police and other protective services was approved by a vote of 4,351 to 1,384.

The second proposal asking for an increase in the tax rate by 1/4 mill for one year and 1 mill for 10 years for continued highway construction and maintenance was approved by a vote of 2,389 to 2,476.

With the approval of the millage proposal, nine men will be added to the police force and six to the fire department.

No pay increases for police or firemen are included in the proposal.

WON PASSAGE
Local police and firemen and the Citizens for Essential Service Committee campaigned in recent weeks to win passage for the levy hikes.

All maintained that the extra millage is vital to the safety and welfare of the community.

That 'Unknown Feeling' Played Havoc With Jerry

By GENE SCHROEDER

Associated Press Writer

The pretty young blonde behind the restaurant counter watched as a dozen supporters cheered Jerry Cavanagh's brief remarks at the outstate Michigan airport.

A newsman asked who was her choice for the Democratic senatorial nomination—Cavanagh or Soopy Williams?

"Frankly," she replied, "I never heard of Cavanagh until a few minutes ago. I actually thought Sen. Kefauver was supposed to be coming here today."

Sen. Estes Kefauver has been dead for three years and as far as many Michigan voters are concerned, Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh might as well be, too.

UNRECOGNIZED

The airport episode took place just three days before Tuesday's primary election and illustrated one of the campaign's widest spread nonrecognition outside the Detroit area.

There were other reasons Cavanagh fared so poorly.

One was illustrated four days before the election when Cavanagh was about to set out on a motorcade tour of a predominantly Negro section in Detroit's inner city.

A car pulled up to a stoplight alongside the caravan, a passenger leaned out and yelled, "How about search-and-frisk, Cavanagh?"

HOT WATER

Perhaps more than anything else in the Negro community, the mayor's brief toying with the idea of a stop-and-frisk last November put him in hot water with many voters.

The idea of a law which would allow police to stop and search anyone they suspect of a crime is repugnant to a large number of Negroes.

Cavanagh, whose strong civil rights stand in the past had helped him win two easy majority races, was clobbered this time in most Negro precincts. The vote favoring Williams was 13-to-1 in Detroit's 17th precinct; 1-to-1 in Ward 1, precinct 28A; 7-to-1 in another.

As the mayor explained it, there is a long-standing emotional appeal in the Negro community for Williams, who was in the forefront of the civil rights movement long before it monopolized newspaper headlines.

"The biggest problem I had among the Negroes was that they wanted to keep me in the mayor," Cavanagh contended.

Low Vote for Ferency Is Surprise

Romey to anger—or intensity, as the governor calls it.

All three incumbents challenged for nomination are Democrats.

In the first District, incumbent Francis A. Crowley won 2,852 votes for the Democratic nomination while Donald L. Collier received 1,348.

Crowley will face Republican Loren D. Anderson in the November general election.

Anderson, with 2,234 votes, topped John D. McKinlay's 886 votes and L. J. Vaillancourt's 570.

FIRST TERM

Currently serving his first term in the Legislature, Crowley, 57, lives at 7340 Deer Lake, Independence Township. Anderson, 46, of 2361 Edinburgh, Waterford Township, is an insurance agent and has been a Waterford Township trustee for five years.

Arthur J. Law, incumbent 62nd District Democrat, beat his intraparty challenger, Charles J. Nasstrom, 3,025-793. Republican John VanTassel received 1,413 votes in her un-

POINTE AUX BARQUES (AP)—This little Lake Huron port town failed to live up to its tradition in Michigan's election Tuesday.

Over uncounted hours past, Pointe Aux Barques counted and announced its dozen or so votes early on Election Day as the first community in the state to report its results.

It was different Tuesday. Neal Schubel, township supervisor, said they were absentee ballots and these were not expected in the mails until late afternoon. He said the results would not be announced until the polls closing at 8 p.m.

contested bid for nomination in the 63rd District.

Law, 60, of 27 Miami is seeking his fifth term in the Legislature, where he is a member of the House Ways and Means Committee. Miss VanTassel, 28, of 51 E. Iroquois is an advertising agency copy writer.

Republican nominee from that South Oakland County district is Max D. Hill, whose 1,515 votes topped E. Leonard Howarth's 1,182.

In the 60th District, Democrat picked Dwight R. Lawler to challenge incumbent Rep. Clifford H. Smart, a Republican, in November. Lawler tallied 2,254 votes against 1,157 cast for Ted D. Goupil.

Unopposed for his party's nomination, Smart received 4,162 votes in the district, a majority of which is in Genesee County.

Smart, 61, of 555 W. Walled Lake, is a former Walled Lake schools superintendent who is serving his first term in the Legislature. Lawler, 26, of 5270 S. Linden, Swartz Creek, is employed at the Chevrolet Motor Fabricating Plant in Flint.

NOD TO DEM

Republican Donald E. Bishop will run against incumbent Rep. Robert J. Slingerland, a Democrat, in the 63rd District. Bishop outpolled his opponent.

James F. Carey, 2,264-2,048 yesterday.

Running without competition, Slingerland received 3,286 votes for the Democratic nomination.

Slingerland, 51, of 3301 Lake George, Oakland Township, is a first-term legislator who employed a chemical engineer for Chrysler Corp. A recent law graduate, Bishop, 33, lives at 1816 Ansari, Avon Township.

Democrats in the 64th District nominated Leonard P. Baruch to challenge incumbent Rep. Raymond L. Baker in November. Baruch chalked up a 2,506-2,056 victory over Evelyn LaBelle.

Baker earned 5,977 votes in the uncontested bid for the Republican nomination.

Seeking his fourth legislative term, Baker, 58, is a pharmacist and lives at 32718 Grand River, Farmington. Baruch, 44, of 22304 Chatsford Circuit, Southfield, is the librarian at Detroit's Cooley High School.

Roy F. Strauss tallied 1,177 votes over 460 for Stephen Soloski to win the Republican nomination in the 66th District. Incumbent Rep. Bill S. Huffman, unchallenged for the Democratic nomination in the 66th District, received 3,738 votes.

Now serving his second legislative term, Huffman, 41, of 415 W. Barrett, Madison Heights, is a bar owner. A machinist, Soloski, 39, lives at 1336 Dulung, Madison Heights.

WINS VICTORY

Republicans in the 67th District of South Oakland County gave Fred E. Wilson a 1,353-1,151 victory over William E. Kish to pit him against incumbent Albert A. Kramer in the general election. Kramer, unopposed, got 6,929 votes in the 67th District Democratic primary election.

In south Oakland County's 68th District, Democrats chose William M. Richards to face incumbent Rep. William Hay-

Schoolcraft overwhelmed Merle Augustine of Battle Creek by a 3-to-1 margin in the south Michigan 3rd. He will challenge freshman Paul Todd of Kalamazoo.

State Rep. Marvin Esch of Ann Arbor hung on for a 600-vote victory over former Rep. George Meador in the 2nd district. He will face freshman Weston Vivaldi.

Jack McDonald, former chairman of Wayne County supervisors, rode a heavy Wayne County margin to a nearly 1,200-vote victory over oft-times conservative candidate Richard Kuhn.

Kuhn carried Oakland County by 2,600 votes but McDonald made up the difference by winning more than two-thirds of the Wayne vote.

VOTE HIGHER

In each of the three districts, the combined Republican vote topped the vote for the unopposed incumbent.

Thirteen of 18 incumbents were unopposed. Four others, Reps. Martha Griffiths, Charles Diggs, Raymond Cleveland and William D. Ford, all Democrats, smothered their opponents.

Nedgi had a tougher fight but Rylan by a 3-to-2 margin.

Vanderjagt was a surprising early winner at nearly 3-to-1 over Grand Haven businessman Edward Meany in a three-way test, even beating Meany in Meany's home county of Ottawa.

Strike Order Accord Eyed

WASHINGTON (AP)—A divided Senate today seeks a compromise course under which Congress and President Johnson would share the political blame for any order to 30,000 striking machinists to return to their jobs on five grounded airlines.

"That's the crux of it," said Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen. "Who accepts the coup?"

Waterford Vote Pits Olson Against Johnson in the Fall

Incumbent Dorothy W. Olson won the Democratic nomination for supervisor in Waterford Township yesterday convincingly over schoolteacher Gerald R. McLeod.

She will face three-time-former supervisor Elmer R. Johnson in the Nov. 8 election.

Johnson, 62, of 3230 See-baldt, gained the Republican nomination in the primary.

DOROTHY OLSON

ELMER JOHNSON

FIRST BID

Making his first bid for public office, McLeod, a sixth grade teacher at Riverside School in Waterford Township, polled 1,323 votes against 1,814 for Mrs. Olson.

McLeod of 1400 Merry carried only two of the township's 23 precincts against Mrs. Olson.

Johnson, 55, of 3599 Shools served four full two-year terms as treasurer and part of another prior to being appointed James E. Seeterlin's replacement as supervisor.

Johnson, who served as supervisor from 1957 to 1963, registered 1,586 votes against 700 for Frank E. Richardson, 39, of 3133 Coventry.

Richardson's name was on the ballot even though he announced his withdrawal from the race last week.

OTHER WINNERS

Unopposed township Democratic candidates winning their party's nomination included Elmer R. Fangbner, 59, of 3327 Meinrad for clerk; James F. Schell, 39, of 2866 Beacham for treasurer; and Rudy Mansfield, 36, of 3426 Pontiac Lake and William J. Dean Jr., 33, of 4355 Forest for trustee.

Unopposed Republicans gaining nomination in the primary were Mrs. L. Catherine Walters, 45, of 4248 Woodstock, for treasurer; Arthur J. Salley, 40, of 3149 Shawnee, for clerk; and trustee aspirants Herbert C. Cooley, 40, of 995 N. Cass Lake and Ted McCullough Jr., 33, of 3596 Brookdale.

Fangbner, Schell, Mansfield and Dean are all incumbents.

A former township fire chief and clerk since 1963, Fangbner walked away with "popularity" laurels, outpolling all other township office-seekers with 2,481 votes.

Only 19th District Congressman Billie S. Farnum, unopposed in his bid for the Democratic nomination, drew more votes in Waterford Township.

FARNUM'S TALLY

A resident of Waterford Township, Farnum collected 2,537 votes.

Township electors gave strong support to Loren D. Anderson, who yesterday swamped John McKinlay and Lawrence Vaillancourt for the Republican nomination for 61st District State Representative.

A five-year "veteran" of the township board, Anderson polled 1,451 votes compared with 439 for McKinlay and 393 for Vaillancourt.

Winning nominations for township constable were Democrats Gerald C. Carter and J. W. Greene and Republicans Glenn M. Wolters and James L. Smith.

Africans Push for U.N. Debate on South-West Controversy

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — African members of the Sept. 20, would agree to debate the South-West Africa immediately by and they can usually count on 25 more from the Asians and Western Africa at the start of its general debate for which for another 10 from the Communists. Others pointed out that the Africans theoretically could put in a complaint brought by Ethiopia and Liberia, ruling that they stop doing that. If such a decision had no legal right to bring the case had come out, the Africans could have asked the Security Council for action to enforce it. Ethiopia and Liberia asked the court to rule that South Africa had violated her League of Nations mandate over South-West Africa by practicing apartheid. There are 13 states which do not tax corporate income. Tax Foundation, Inc., reports.
