Americans Told: Be Loyal

Johnson Warns We Pose Threat to Ourselves

Vice President Speaks to Detroiters of Soviet Propaganda Traps

By DICK HANSON

The only Communist threat to freedom is the threat we pose ourselves. This was Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's warning in a major speech delivered last evening in Detroit.

In addressing about a thousand persons in the Ford Auditorium the vice president assured them that Russia's military power never will be greater than that of the United States.

Instead of military might "the Communists are going to wage a war of doubt and disunity," Johnson declared.

"They are constantly sowing the seeds of discord and strife, hoping to tear asunder the free world alliances.

"They are striving desperately to array brother against brother, class against class, race against race, so as to transform America from a fortress of freedom to a house divided against itself."

'BLUNDERBUSS CHARGES'

He referred to "blunderbuss charges" of traitor leveled at those high in the ranks of American leadership by persons who already have become the dupes of communism.

"We have throughout the land today, Americans who, in the very name of freedom, are urging the people to distrust their own elected leaders, their own long-cherished institutions.

"These are the people who scream that the judiciary is biased and that its decisions ought not to be obeyed.

"They are the Americans who spread rumors that the Executive Branch is loaded with traitors, and that distinguished former presidents, Democrat and Republican, were either disloyal or dupes.

These are the people who are crying that Europeans have become cowards and that Asians and Africans are not to be trusted, so we must withdraw from the world and crouch like

WELCOME JOHNSON — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson was greeted by an enthusiastic crowd of well-wishers when he arrived in Detroit yesterday to deliver a major address on the Kennedy Administration's accomplishments and aspirations for the future. An estimated 1,000 persons heard him speak in Ford Auditorium last night.

News Flash

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gen. Lucius D. Clay, President Kennedy's special representative in Berlin, has been asked to return here for consultations this weekend, the State Department said today.

Con-Con Gets 29 Proposals

Higher Property Tax Limits Urged

Delegates submitted 29 proposals Tuesday, a one-day record, bringing the total since the convention assembled Oct. 3 to 250. Deadline for delegates proposals is Dec. 1.

★ ★ ★

Julius C. Sleder, R-Traverse City, proposed to lift the property tax ceiling set by the constitution from 15 to 20 mills, with counties to receive eight mills, schools 10 and townships two if the full amount is levied. He also proposed to permit voters to levy whatever additional taxes they want, removing the present five per cent (50 mill) limitation.

TAX PROPOSAL

The presidential primary would require delegates to the national political conventions to vote, at least on the first ballot, for the candidates who led the field in the Michigan election.

A proposal by Richard D. Kuhn, R-Waterford Township, would allow a Supreme Court justice to file for re-election merely by submitting an affidavit of his intention to run at least 90 days before the election.

New candidates for the State Supreme Court would be required to file nominating petitions containing signatures totaling at least 1 per cent of the votes cast for governor in the last election. Justices now are nominated at party conventions.

Delegate Edward L. Douglas of Detroit and four other Democrats joined on a proposal to allow the state to make loans totaling as much as $50 million at any one time for financing industrial, manufacturing and municipal development projects. Legislative approval of each project would be required.

Voters rejected a similar proposal in an election last spring.

Proposes Split of 18th District

Law's Bill Would Give Oakland Two Seats in Congress

A proposal to make the state's new 19th congressional district the western half of Oakland County—including all of Pontiac—has been submitted to the legislature by Rep. Arthur J. Law, D-Pontiac.

The new district, awarded the state on the basis of increased 1960 census figures, would also take in Livonia and Redford Townships in Wayne County to the south.

The 18th, currently consisting of all of Oakland County, would then include just the eastern half.

Law, who co-signed two other proposals submitted by Reps. George Montgomery and Joseph A. Gillis Jr., both of Detroit, said his plan was based on "as close a split on past voting as could be achieved."

SEES SLIGHT EDGE

He said, however, the Republicans would have a "slight edge" in electing the new congressman should his proposal pass the 1962 session of the legislature.

If the 1962 legislature fails to pass one of the seven congressional reapportionment plans submitted to date, or others that might be introduced, the new member of the U.S. House of Representatives would be elected at large. This would supposedly favor the Democrats.

Redistricting bills introduced last year failed to pass because of a partisan fight between Democrats and Republicans over who might have the edge in winning the new seat.

Law's bill would seek to satisfy the two parties by putting the usually Democratic city of Pontiac with the GOP-strong northwestern section of Oakland County. The 18th would be made up of the heavily Democratic cities of Madison Heights, Hazel Park, Ferndale, and Royal Oak Township, with the GOP townships in the eastern half of the county.

Law said he didn't see how the four GOP Oakland state representatives could oppose his plan which he called the "fairest and most reasonable."

Syria Has Constitution

DAMASCUS (AP) — The government announced a provisional constitution today for "a sovereign independent state" to be known as the Arab Syrian Republic.

Sam Rayburn Is Reported Close to Death

Spokesman for Family Says End 'Only Matter of Hours'

BONHAM, Tex. (UPI)—House Speaker Sam Rayburn sank toward death today. His alertness diminished and his family felt the end was near.

A medical bulletin issued by the Risser Hospital in Bonham this morning said the cancer-stricken speaker slept "unusually soundly" Tuesday night. There was no change in his blood pressure or pulse.

He has been having fewer rallies from sinking spells, and each rally is weaker than the last. The bulletin said he no longer was as alert as he had been.

A spokesman for the Rayburn family said the 79-year-old "Mr. Sam's" death is "only a matter of hours."

Rayburn's two sisters spent much of the night with him, then left in the early morning hours.

The cancer, diagnosed as inoperable last Oct. 5, has spread through much of his body.

HOUSE VETERAN

Rayburn has been a member of the U.S. House of Representatives 48 years, longer than any other man in history. He has been speaker 16 years, more than twice as long as any other man.

★ ★ ★

He started suffering severe back pains more than three months ago, while Congress was still in session. Doctors in Washington sent him home to Bonham.

He became progressively worse and on Oct. 2, Dr. Joe Risser, his Bonham physician, sent him to Baylor University Medical Center in Dallas for a detailed test.

The cancer was discovered Oct. 5. It was too far advanced to operate. Rayburn was dosed with experimental cancer drugs. They had little or no effect and on Oct. 31 he returned to Bonham to die, as he wished, among his friends and neighbors.

He has had periodic sinking spells, but his condition from the cancer itself was pronounced critical for the first time last Saturday.

Who Bagged Whom?

DEER'S REVENGE — Deer reading the Pontiac Press may get a chuckle out of this photo in which the deer bagged the hunter. The gag was staged by three St. Ignace sportmen and friend on Mackinac Bridge as deer season opened today in Northern Michigan. Left to right they are: John Donnelly, Buck Antlers (behind wheel), Al Phillips (on fender) and Benson Wiggins Jr.

Deer Season Opens With a Quiet Bang

By DON VOGEL
Outdoor Editor, Pontiac Press

ROSE CITY — The opening of Michigan's deer season was unusually quiet for the second straight year.

Last year the weather raised havoc with hunters. There was a definite decline in the number of nimrods who headed into the woods at dawn today. Only scattered shots could be heard, about one every half hour.

Gunfire normally rings through the woods at more frequent intervals the first day.

"You wouldn't believe we have over 200 hunters in here," said Keith Sampson, a field worker at the State Conservation Department's Rifle River area.

Hunters must check in and out of this 3,000-acre area located three miles east of here in Ogemaw County.

"Last season 273 hunters took nine bucks out of here on opening day," he said, "and we are looking for a better kill this year."

23 FROM COUNTY

Two bucks, both about 1½ years old and each weighing less than 100 pounds, were in at the area check station by 9:30 this morning. There are 26 Oakland County hunters in this area. None had checked out at 10 a. m.

★ ★ ★

Deer taken by Oakland hunters in the Rifle River area before noon today will automatically be entered in The Pontiac Press big deer contest.

Those downed later in the day and until the Nov. 30 closing must have a weigh slip signed by the person weighing that day, and another witness.

The hunter entering the heaviest buck in the contest will receive $150 savings bond. Dressed weight will be used to determine the winner. The contest is open to all Oakland County residents.

Days Ahead Appear to Be Rather Messy

Rainy and windy is the forecast for Thursday. Temperatures will drop to 45 tonight and rise to a mild 52-57 tomorrow.

Thursday night and Friday will be colder with snow flurries or showers. Saturday will be somewhat warmer but Sunday and Monday will be cold again with a chance of rain or flurries.

Morning southwesterly winds at 3 miles per hour will become south to southeast at 8 to 15 m.p.h. tonight.

Thirty-three was the lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The mercury reading at 2 p.m. was 40.

Switch Due Soon in Pontiac

Phones Will Replace Fire Boxes

BY DICK SAUNDERS

Imagine yourself standing at Saginaw and Huron streets waiting for the light to change.

A man standing next to you suddenly suffers a heart attack.

You rush to a fire alarm box on the corner and pull the switch. Response is quick. Almost instantly you hear sirens.

What you get are three pumper trucks, a ladder truck, an aerial truck and one chief's car.

Plenty of equipment but all the wrong kind.

You still don't have what you need—a rescue unit with a resuscitator.

Firemen radio back and in a few more minutes the rescue truck pulls up—but maybe a few minutes too late for the victim.

This is the way Pontiac Fire Chief James R. White vividly illustrates Pontiac's need for a new fire alarm system.

This "new" system being installed by Michigan Bell Telephone Co. will change a Pontiac citizen's method of reporting emergencies.

The familiar Gamewell alarm boxes in which you pull a switch will be replaced by emergency reporting boxes—you pick up a telephone and talk directly to fire or police department operators.

The big change will take place before next spring, to become effective with the opening of Pontiac's new central fire station early next year.

ADVANTAGES

The biggest advantage is obvious — vocal communication pinpoints the need and exact location of that need.

There are other advantages as well. White feels that vocal communication itself will result in less false alarms.

Pontiac Press Photo

CALL FOR HELP—Pretty Pat London, 20, of 138 Palmer St., is trying out a prototype of Michigan Bell Telephone Co.'s new emergency reporting phone box. She can report a fire to firemen or a serious auto accident to police simply by lifting the phone off the hook. These bright red boxes will replace the familiar Gamewell fire alarm boxes on Pontiac street corners by next spring.

"The false alarm culprit can't just throw a switch and run. He must stay there long enough to report the emergency and this means he may be seen and identified by someone."

Through Oct. 1 this year, 166 alarms have come into the fire department from boxes. Of these, 125 have been false. Only 41 were bona fide fires.

Just cutting false alarms in half would save the city a lot of money. Of the 41 fires, many didn't require the standard complement of two engines and one ladder truck; a few required more.

This year's figures are not unusual. In the five years through Dec. 31, 1960, there were 928 box alarms—691 were false.

SAFETY FACTOR

"Another advantage is if there's a break or short circuit in one phone box, only that box goes out. With our present system, if one box on a 20-box circuit goes out, they all go out," said White.

He pointed to underground wiring as a safety feature. "Our circuits now are about 46 per cent underground. The phone system will be 84 per cent underground.

"If we ever have a tornado or damaging storm, the underground circuits reduce chances of wires snapping and circuits going out," White explained.

In such cases when many calls are coming in at one time, the board can be split for two-man operation. It also guards against the possibility of an operator suffering a heart attack.

Shoppers in Cars to Get Christmas Gift From City

The city gave its okay last night to an agreement with the Downtown Merchants Association for about $6,000 in free parking for Christmas shoppers.

Commissioners approved a resolution whereby the city and association will split the bill as in past years.

Cost is figured at 35 cents per meter per day in municipal parking lots. There are about 100 more off-street spaces this year than were available last Christmas.

The agreement will provide 1,036 free parking spaces for area residents Dec. 7-25. One lot not affected by the contract is on W. Lawrence Street west of Cass Avenue.

★ ★ ★

The meters in all other lots will be hooded.

Leftist Defies Leopoldville; U.N. May Act

2 Government Leaders Forced to Flee Kivu, Scene of Mutiny

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Acting Secretary General U Thant today authorized the U.N. force in the Congo to take "every measure possible" to restore order in Albertville and Kindu, two Congo towns where mutiny has erupted.

LEOPOLDVILLE, Congo (AP) — The United Nations announced today that more than 2,000 Congolese troops have risen in mutiny in the Eastern Congo.

Diplomatic informants said the rebellion was being directed by Antoine Gizenga, the leftist heir of former Premier Patrice Lumumba.

He thus emerged into open and forceful defiance of the United Nations and the central Congo government. A U. N. spokesman said the United Nations intends to put down the lawlessness by force if necessary.

Diplomatic informants said Gizenga is directing a mutiny against central government authority in Kindu, the Kivu provincial town north of the secessionist province of Katanga.

Other mutineers were reported to have created serious disorders in the north Katanga city of Albertville.

A spokesman for the United Nations said it intends to put down lawlessness in the two towns by force if necessary.

★ ★ ★

Diplomatic sources said the leftwing politician set himself up in Kindu last Saturday, leaving his former stronghold at Stanleyville in Oriental Province to one-time allies who now adhere to the Leopoldville government.

FORCED TO FLEE

Gizenga, who once accepted the post of vice premier in Premier Cyrille Adoula's central government here, made his defiance open and apparently final Tuesday when he forced two of his former allies, Gen. Victor Lundula and Christophe Gbenye, out of Kindu in fear of their lives.

Mutinous soldiers at Kindu refused to hand over 13 Italian airmen they had arrested and beaten Saturday.

Lundula and Gbenye had gone to Kindu to get the Italians freed.

City Officials Honor Willman

Laud Retiring Manager at Last Meeting Before His Terminal Leave

The city commission publicly saluted retiring City Manager Walter K. Willman last night. It was Willman's last commission meeting before beginning terminal leave this weekend.

"The citizens of Pontiac have been the beneficiaries of Mr. Willman's long experience in municipal management" a resolution read. "This commission acknowledges the retirement of a great public servant who has worked for more than 37 years quietly, effectively and efficiently.

"His friendly and sympathetic personality made for him a wide circle of friends. Forthrightness characterized his actions.

"He spoke as he believed and if there was a sting in his remarks, there was also a twinkle in the eyes."

WISH WILLMAN LUCK

His successor, Assistant City Manager Robert A. Sheer, speaking for himself and the administrative staff, pointed to

JFK Promises Aid to S. Korea

Pledges Troops if Attack Starts

Park Assured of U.S. Cooperation to Develop Nation; Regime OKayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — South Korea's Gen. Chung Hee Park has President Kennedy's promise of U.S. aid "including the use of armed forces if there is a renewal of armed attack."

* * *

Kennedy assured Park that the United States would continue to extend all possible economic aid and cooperation for the further development of the nation for which U.S. troops fought a decade ago.

* * *

The pledge was also official approval for Park's military regime, which overthrew the U.S.-supported government six months ago.

The approval came Tuesday in a joint communique after Kennedy and Park held two meetings lasting about three hours.

CABINET TALKS

The 44-year-old Korean leader was to confer today with three of Kennedy's Cabinet members — Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges.

For the first time the President publicly declared "gratification at the many indications of progress" being made by Park's junta after it seized power last May 16 and ousted an elected government.

* * *

In addition, Kennedy pledged the U.S. government to "extend all possible economic aid and cooperation to the Republic of Korea in order to further long-range economic development."

* * *

Korean sources said that working groups of Korean and U.S. officials would consider detailed plans later.

Southwest U.S. Starts to Shovel

Call Snowstorm Worst in 30 Years; Blamed for Deaths of Six

By The Associated Press

Parts of the Southwest began digging out of its first big snowstorm of the season today. It was labeled as the worst in 30 years at El Paso, Tex.

The storm was responsible for the death of one man in New Mexico and five in Texas.

* * *

Air and auto travel were disrupted, schools were closed, several small towns were isolated and deer hunters were stranded by the storm, which dumped as much as 30 inches of snow in some places.

Airports were closed at Santa Fe and Clovis, N.M., stranding a number of travelers.

RAIN TURNS TO ICE

Eastern New Mexico and West Texas were the hardest hit areas. Thirty inches fell at Ruidoso in Southeastern New Mexico. A drizzling rain which turned to ice covered most of the West Texas plains.

* * *

El Paso schools and Texas Western College were closed after the city was hit by 7 inches of snow which piled up in drifts 4 and 5 feet deep. At least eight New Mexico school systems —Corona, Carrizozo, Capitan, Hondo, Ruidoso, Elida, Causey and Truth or Consequences — also closed.

* * *

New Mexico state police closed two roads Tuesday night, isolating Carrizozo. They reopened one which permitted travel into Truth or Consequences, isolated Tuesday.

Appoints Unit to Help the Young Find Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy appointed a presidential committee today to help young people find jobs, saying he is disturbed over the "serious plight of the nearly one million out-of-school and out-of-work youth."

The President declared that "our youth are our greatest resource." He said the continued unemployment among a million young job seekers today and the prospect that many millions will enter the labor force in the next few years demand immediate attention and action.

Youth Caught in Combine

SAGINAW (AP — A 17-year-old Saginaw youth was caught by his left foot in a bean combine chopper for two hours Tuesday before he could be freed. Albert Beasley was reported in fair condition at St. Luke's Hospital, where spokesmen said part of his mangled leg may be amputated.

JFK Aides Told of Area's Plight

A delegation of Oakland County government officials attended sessions of the White House regional conference in Detroit yesterday hoping to learn more about President Kennedy's plans for full employment and economic growth.

* * *

While the value of what they learned in light of local problems hasn't been ascertained yet, it is certain that members of Kennedy's Administration attending will return to Washington with a broader picture of the metropolitan area's unemployment and economic plight.

Local representatives of government, labor and management did not hesitate to lay these problems on the line for the administration's benefit.

In a discussion headed "Adjusting to Automation" the local people made it clear that they were not satisfied with what has been done to date by the federal government to enable the retraining for new jobs of thousands who have been replaced by machines mostly in the automotive field.

20,000 NOT RECALLED

Fred V. Haggard, president of the Oakland County AFL-CIO Council, noted that a drop in union membership in this area indicates that 20,000 workers laid off in the past three years have not been recalled to the plants.

Automation has accounted for the vast majority of these lost jobs, he said.

The panel of experts from Washington, headed by Seymour Wolfbein, deputy assistant secretary for the department of labor, said efforts were being made to retrain 4 million unemployed throughout the nation, so that they could find new work in today's highly technical field.

Those listening objected that the retraining program was not realistic, mainly because this new work wasn't available locally nor was the training extensive enough.

In opening the session on employment and economic growth Gov. Swainson declared that "Michigan is particularly attuned" to feel the economic changes of the nation.

"When the nation sneezes economically, Michigan catches pneumonia," he said.

CITES STATE RESOURCES

Outlining Michigan's potential for the technological age that already has arrived Swainson cited manpower and natural resources that make this state a desirable location for new industries as it has in the past.

Also on Michigan's credit side, the Governor stated are management knowhow, a skilled labor force and the brainpower supplied by universities researching better methods to make the greatest use of existing skills.

"But an over all economic program in Michigan is essential . . . We need an industrial development corporation to go after new industries," he said.

Among those attending from Oakland County were County Corporation Counsel Norman H. Barnard; Chairman pro tem of the County Board of Supervisors Arno L. Hulet; and board members Frank F. Webber of Addison Township; and Wallace B. Hudson of Troy.

* * *

frightened hermits in our Fortress America."

He asked:

"Does anyone expect the hungry and harassed of the world to stand steadfast in the face of a tyrant's assault if they see us thrashing in despair?"

HIGHLIGHT OF CONFERENCE

Johnson's speech highlighted a two-day White House Conference in Detroit that opened yesterday with discussion of economic and youth problems.

He said the downward trend in jobs and income has been reversed, farm income is up, unemployment compensation has been improved, and 5 million more workers have been brought under minimum wage law protection under the Kennedy administration.

"This (economic) rise is going to continue in 1962," he predicted. "While more of our people are working today than ever before our attention should be given to those not working.

* * *

"We want the world to see in President Kennedy the justice and dignity they clamor for."

In praising the new administration, Johnson referred to $6.4 billion more for defense spent this year.

"Our military strength is far greater today than that of any nation on earth," Johnson assured, "but primarily it is a measure of our domestic strength.

"Our success in influencing that great portion of humanity that now stands at the fork in the road will be a reflection largely of what we do in the towns and cities of America, and not just what we promise to do in faraway lands.

"I say there is an inescapable code of justice in the world, and the nations live or die according to their respect for that code."

West to Oppose Congo Motion

Africans to Urge Use of Force to Drive Out Katanger Mercenaries

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — An Asian-African demand for use of force to drive foreign mercenaries out of the Congo's Katanga Province was expected to run into strong Western opposition today.

* * *

The Security Council meets this afternoon to take up a resolution by Ceylon, Liberia and the United Arab Republic that would authorize acting Secretary-General U Thant to use force if necessary to expel foreign fighting men hired by Katanga President Moise Tshombe's secessionist regime.

OUTBURST CERTAIN

A new African outburst against Tshombe also was certain in the wake of a U.N. investigating committee's suggestion that former Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba was murdered last January, probably in the presence of high Katanga officials.

* * *

Britain and France were scheduled to take the floor at the outset of today's debate. They have reportedly joined the United States in opposing any council action that would direct U.N. forces to join the Congo army in an offensive against Katanga.

URGES CONCILIATION

The West is seeking adoption of a milder resolution reaffirming support of the U.N. Congo command and urging negotiations to end the Katanga secession.

Informed sources said U Thant is also against the use of force as a matter of principle and strongly favors using conciliation to deal with the crisis.

* * *

The three-nation resolution assailed Tshombe's insurgent stand and rapped his regime for taking armed action when U.N. forces seized key points in South Katanga last September. The resolution called on U Thant to take necessary steps to prevent entry or return of mercenaries to Katanga and to stop the flow of arms to Tshombe's forces.

Inmates Refuse to Leave Cells at Sing-Sing

OSSINING, N.Y. (AP)—The majority of prisoners at Sing Sing State Prison, claiming two grievances, refused to leave their cells today. There was no disorder.

When the cell blocks were opened at 7 a.m., to permit the inmates to go to breakfast, 1,451 prisoners refused to emerge, Warden Wilfred L. Denno said. A total of 280 came out as usual.

* * *

Deno said the prisoners would be fed in their cells if they continued to remain there. A few straggled out during the morning.

The warden said the prisoners were demanding that the Department of Corrections guarantee time they get off for good behavior.

190 Reported Killed in Mexican Cyclone

ACAPULCO, Mexico (AP)—Belated reports Tuesday night from coast villages flattened by a cyclone brought word of at least 190 dead.

U.S., Russia Agree... in Part

Both Want to Resume Disarmament Talks; Differ on Negotiators

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States and the Soviet Union agreed today that disarmament negotiations should be resumed at the earliest possible moment, but they clashed anew over the composition of the negotiating body.

Soviet delegate Valerian A. Zorin insisted that any new arms talks must be organized on the troika principle — with equal numbers of Western, Communist and nonaligned countries taking part.

U.S. delegate Adlai E. Stevenson said the United States recognized the principle of having the nonaligned countries represented, but he objected to a troika arrangement since it was based on the concept that "the world can be neatly divided into three blocs."

SPOKE BEFORE DEBATE

The two diplomats spoke before the General Assembly's main political committee at the beginning of a comprehensive U.N. disarmament debate.

Both Zorin and Stevenson pressed their rival disarmament plans, both of which had been presented earlier. They also exchanged charges that the blame for the disarmament deadlock should be placed on the other side.

Just before Stevenson spoke, Zorin handed to him a draft resolution proposing that the U.N. General Assembly set up a new negotiating committee representing equally the Communist, Western and neutralist nations.

The resolution proposed that June 1962 be fixed as the target date for reaching agreement on a treaty for general and complete disarmament, and that the General Assembly be called into special session immediately after the deadline to examine the treaty.

Dismiss Charges Against Commie Claude Lightfoot

CHICAGO (UPI) — A federal district court today dismissed charges against Claude Lightfoot, the first top American Communist to be indicted simply because he was a member of the Communist party.

The Federal Government itself asked Judge William J. Campbell to throw out the 4-year-old charges against Lightfoot, a veteran Red and executive secretary of the Illinois Communist party.

U.S. Attorney Donald Manion said that, in light of recent U.S. Supreme Court decisions, the government was not sure it could prove that Lightfoot had knowledge of the Communist party's intent to teach and advocate the violent overthrow of the government.

Campbell, the chief judge of the Federal District Court, ruled that in view of the government statement it would be a waste of the court's time to proceed with a trial.

The letters were received Tuesday by Mrs. Dagmar Wilson, a Washington mother of three who was one of the organizers of the movement.

Mrs. Kennedy mentioned that her husband knows war first hand and that she is confident "he will do everything in his power to avoid it."

Mrs. Khrushchev said that threats "are made to destroy our homes, to kill our husbands, to take lives of our children."

New Ruling Sparks Hills to Purchase Insurance

BIRMINGHAM — The recent State Supreme Court ruling making cities liable for accidents prompted the Bloomfield Hills City Commission last night to purchase a half million dollars of insurance.

The blanket liability policy will cost the city approximately $1,300 annually, according to City Manager Elmer Kephart.

"The action is quite important to the city," Kephart said. "We were carrying some insurance but only on injuries that might occur in City Hall."

"The commission has been studying the purchase of insurance for the last month, ever since the court decision made the city vulnerable," the manager said.

The policy will be purchased from General Underwriter of Detroit.

A Requiem Mass for Ellery J. Cloutier Sr., 67, of 1771 Derby St., will be said 10 a.m. tomorrow at Holy Name, Church. Burial will be in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Southfield.

Mr. Cloutier, a retired automotive engineer with the Ford Motor Co., died Monday at his home.

A resident of Birmingham 1½ months, he had moved here from Beverly Hills, where he had made his home for six years.

A veteran automobile body engineer, he served as chief body engineer at Graham-Paige from 1928 to 1941 and in the same capacity with the Brunswick-Balke-Collender Corp., Muskegon. He also was with the Chrysler and Briggs corporations.

He was the first president of the Dads' Club at the U. of D. High School and was a charter member of the American Society of Body Engineers.

Surviving are his wife Mary; five sons, Ellery J. Jr., William M. and Thomas C., all of Birmingham, John C. of Rochester, and James J. of Detroit; a daughter, Mrs. Edward DuCharme of Ferndale; a brother and a sister.

A Rosary will be said 8:30 p.m. today at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co.

Mrs. M. Ray Cook

Service for Mrs. M. Ray (Cleo) Cook, 68, of 1626 Taunton St. will be 2 p.m. Friday at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

* * *

A member of the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham, Mrs. Cook died yesterday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, after a brief illness.

* * *

She and her husband had operated a cleaning establishment for 21 years until they retired in 1951. She was a member of the Birmingham Business Women's Club, the Charles Edward American Legion Post Auxiliary and a life member of the Robert Morris chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Detroit.

She is survived by her husband.

Edmond D. Mansfield

Service for Edmond D. Mansfield, 84, of 984 Forest Ave., will be 1 p.m. tomorrow at the Bell chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. Entombment will be in Woodlawn Cemetery, Detroit.

Mr. Mansfield died yesterday at his home following a long illness.

* * *

He had been a manufacturer's representative for the Herbst Shoe Co. for 26 years. He was a past president of the Birmingham Gun Club and a member of the Michigan Shoe Travelers Club.

Surviving are his wife, Ruby C.; a son, Edmond D. Jr. of Lathrup Village; and three grandchildren.

Woman Given Damages for Hours Couldn't Talk

LONDON (AP)— Three biscuit tins fell on Queenie Fory's head at the grocer's shop where she works. She lost her voice.

Later Mrs. Fory spilled a kettle of boiling water on her foot and her voice came back.

A court awarded her 5 pounds —$14— damages against the firm Tuesday for those lost hours of talking.

Willman Is Honored at Final Meeting

"many fine improvements" under Willman's guidance.

"His vision of a better city and plans for the future inspired many people to be proud of Pontiac and to work for a better city — a city with a heart.

* * *

"We inherit these things. This is his legacy. We are going to miss him very much," Stierer said.

Then, breaking into a smile, Stierer looked at Willman and said, "We look forward to seeing you as a non-combative taxpaying resident at the annual city employes awards banquet Dec. 4 when you will hold the unique position of guest of honor and master-of-ceremonies."

Pontiac Postmaster William W. Donaldson, a former Pontiac mayor, attended the meeting and spoke briefly in appreciation of Willman's guidance during his years on the commission.

Phones Will Replace Fire Boxes in Pontiac

predetermined time, a bell is automatically tripped in the quarters of the captain on duty.

OTHER USES

"The beauty of all this is that it isn't only for fires," said Donald Porter, Pontiac district sales manager for Michigan Bell.

"People can report anything where police or fire equipment is needed immediately. A woman walking home at night can phone for aid if she sees a strange man following her," Porter said.

Pontiac will be the 10th Michigan city to use the Bell system.

* * *

This is how it works:

1. You open the door on the box and take the phone receiver off its cradle. This instantly activates a buzzer and a light on the big master switchboard at the fire station, identifying the box location.

2. The board operator plugs you into his headset. If you need police, he switches you into the police department where your call is handled and police dispatched.

3. If you need fire equipment, the operator finds out what type of fire is involved and its exact location.

4. Then, he pulls a switch that activates a paging circuit to the appropriate fire station. The tone is an alert.

5. He then dispatches trucks vocally over the public address paging system wired from the board to all stations. He can talk to individual stations or all at once.

* * *

While the phone boxes will completely replace Gamewell boxes on streets, the change in business, industrial and public buildings will be varied, said Porter.

* * *

The number of boxes will be cut in residential areas and increased in areas where there is high life and property loss hazard, such as downtown. Many will be placed on arterial highways or major intersections.

* * *

Schools, industry, hospitals and other large buildings hooked up in the present Gamewell system will be offered the phone system, but it won't be forced on them.

Oh, No, Not That

PLATTSBURGH, N.Y. (AP)—A welfare recipient, whose support check did not arrive when expected, sent a letter to Clinton County Welfare Commissioner Richard H. Duquette.

It said: "My check was so late that my husband had to go to work."

But Yugoslav Is None Too Pleasant

Expect OK of Wheat Shipments to Tito

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Security Council likely will recommend that the United States continue selling surplus wheat to Communist Yugoslavia, informants said today.

But, they said, Marshal Tito didn't help his own case.

At Skoplje on Monday, he criticized what he called American reactionaries and capitalists" and accused them of hindering the sale of wheat to his drought-ridden country for political purposes.

Tito's speech did not surprise Yugoslav specialists here. The Yugoslav president, they said, is not the man who could bear in silence the increased U.S. criticism of various U.S.-Yugoslav dealings, such as the sale to Belgrade of obsolete jets and atomic reactors.

REVIEW ASKED

President Kennedy has ordered a review of the U.S. aid program to Yugoslavia in the wake of the Belgrade conference of nonaligned countries last September. Marshal Tito, who professes to be independent, supported Soviet policy at the conference.

The National Security Council is expected to complete its review of the Yugoslav situation by the end of this month.

Despite its disappointment with some of Tito's public statements, the Kennedy administration feels it should continue aid to Yugoslavia, informants said.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk told a news conference in October that U.S. aid programs "are not designed to purchase agreement with us."

PURPOSE TO HELP

The basic purpose of American aid is, Rusk said, "to strengthen the efforts of recipient countries to maintain their independence and national sovereignty."

In April and in July, the United States sold $64 million in surplus agricultural products to Yugoslavia for Yugoslav currency. About half of it was 500,000 tons of wheat which reached Yugoslavia a few weeks ago.

At the end of July Yugoslavia submitted a new request for a million tons of wheat. The request, the State Department announced Tuesday, is still under consideration.

Antarctic Expedition Sails From Leningrad

MOSCOW (AP)—The seventh Soviet antarctic expedition sailed Tuesday from Leningrad aboard the diesel-electric research vessel OB.

The official Soviet news agency Tass said the vessel is carrying 3,000 tons of supplies including four new tractors designed to operate at extremely low temperatures. The ship's captain is Nikolai Svirido, a veteran of the six earlier expeditions.

Aboard are new automatic radio weather stations designed for low temperatures and for wind velocities up to about 150 miles an hour.

The expedition will continue glaciological, meteorological, gravimetric and other studies started by previous antarctic expeditions.

Indian Flood Toll Huge

NEW DELHI (AP) — At least 3,000 persons have perished in floods in India in 1961 and more than $315 million worth of damage was done. This estimate was given to the Central Board of Irrigation and Power Tuesday by its president, U. Ananda Rao.

December Will See Reduced Draft Call

WASHINGTON (AP) — A reduced draft call has been issued for December.

★ ★ ★

The Defense Department announced Tuesday that 16,000 men would be inducted for Army service next month. The total compares with 20,000 called in November, 20,000 in October and 25,000 in September.

★ ★ ★

The first half of next month's quota will report to induction stations by Dec. 8. The other half will report by Dec. 15.

★ ★ ★

The Defense Department also asked Selective Service officials to draft 345 more doctors for the Army to support the military buildup. It was the third call for doctors this year and raised to 1,025 the number of physicians called to military duty in 1961.

See Compromise in Fight Over Sleeping Bear

BEULAH (UPI) — The real possibility of compromise in settling the fight over the Sleeping Bear sand dune was emphasized today by the announcement that the Benzie County Board of Supervisors now support the establishment of the national seashore in the area.

Benzie and Leelanau counties would be the site of the area, which might include as many as 92,000 acres of scenic sand dune property.

Supervisor Allen Blacklock of Gilmore Township introduced the resolution which superceded a September statement asking for a go-slow policy in setting up the park.

The original resolution said the park should not be established until "such time as objectionable provisions are eliminated."

Pontiac City Affairs

Vacating Awaits Deeding

No objections were voiced by the public at hearings last night on resolutions to vacate parts of Grove and Baltimore avenues, but the City Commission deferred approval of both resolutions pending further action.

★ ★ ★

City Engineer James N. Carlisle recommended that final approval be held up until developers in the area deeded all lots fronting on Grove to property owners on Kettering Street.

The lots on Kettering back up to those on Grove, Carlisle also suggested that the area may have to be replatted by the city assessor once lots are so deeded.

The resolutions are for vacating Grove from Madison south through Lot 752 in Perry Park Subdivision, and Baltimore, Kettering to Grove. Neither stretch has been fully developed.

Commissioners approved revised estimates for a Mt. Clemens Street water main. Originally planned to run from Bay Street to Lot 1, block 104, the main has been shortened about 140 feet, cutting the estimated cost from $7,598 to $6,128.

The city will pay $3,725 and $2,402 will be paid through special assessments.

A public hearing was slated for Nov. 21.

ACCEPT ESTIMATE

Also accepted was City Engineer James Carlisle's estimate of $19,439.20 for construction of a storm drain from Kettering Avenue east to Grand Trunk Western Railroad property near Baltimore Avenue.

The city will pay the total cost of the relief sewer designed to drain storm water from Kettering.

A resolution to rezone eight lots on the northeast corner of Cass Avenue and Wisner Street was introduced and slated for public hearing Dec. 5.

The commission also passed a resolution expressing sympathy to the family of Commissioner Bottom on the death of his mother, Mrs. Minnie A. Bottom yesterday.

Commissioners recognized her as "a devoted mother who exhibited a keen interest in community, church and civic activities." The resolution was offered by Commissioner William H. Taylor Jr.

A special assessment roll for construction of curbs and gutters on Hillside Drive, Burt to City Line Road, was confirmed in four payments.

Commissioner Bottom requested that the city try to effect some temporary relief at the intersection of Oakland and Montcalm Avenues for storm water drainage and ice in the winter months.

The intersection has been a problem for sometime and City Manager Walter K. Willman reported a permanent solution will be part of next year's public improvement program.

Pope, Bishop Meet at Vatican

American Episcopalian Has Pleasant Visit in Papal Apartments

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Pope John XXIII and Bishop Arthur D. Lichtenberger, president bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, held a 35-minute talk in the Vatican today. Both men are highly interested in the subject of Christian unity.

The unusual audience took place in the private library of the papal apartments. A high Vatican source said the meeting was "very cordial."

Bishop Lichtenberger planned to hold a news conference later today to give his impressions of the meeting.

As he returned from the Vatican to St. Paul's Protestant Church in a U.S. Navy car borrowed for the occasion, the bishop told newsmen: "It was a very pleasant and cordial meeting."

Lichtenberger, an erect silver-haired man of 61, wore his Episcopal robes for the meeting with the white-clad pontiff who will be 80 years old on Nov.25.

The American bishop was accompanied by Dr. Lauriston L. Scaife, Episcopal bishop of West New York and Mr. Clifford Phelps Morehouse of New York, a prominent Episcopal layman.

Goes to Prison for Shooting Mother-in-Law

A father of nine children today was sentenced to 3- to 10-years in Jackson Prison for the nonfatal shooting of his mother-in-law in the city last June.

Circuit Judge William J. Beer imposed the sentence upon Joel Rodgers, 36, of 488 California Ave.

Rodgers, an unemployed factory worker, was found guilty last month of assault with intent to murder for shooting Mrs. Rose Lee Jones, 41, of 189 Bassett Ave. The shooting took place June 24 in the midst of a Centennial celebration carnival on Cass Avenue.

Mrs. Jones was shot once in the shoulder with a 25-caliber automatic when she stepped between Rodgers and his father-in-law, Roosevelt Jones, with whom Rodgers had been quarreling over payment of a $225 loan Jones had made to Rodgers.

Mrs. Jones recovered from the wound.

'Talkative' Envoy's Fate Up to Adenauer

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials said today the future of Hans Kroll as West German ambassador to Moscow is strictly up to Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

State Department authorities are known to have been annoyed by what they consider Kroll's "free wheeling diplomacy" during a discussion of the Berlin crisis with Soviet Premier Khrushchev in Moscow last Thursday. But officials said it would be improper for Americans to suggest that Kroll be transferred to another assignment.

The Soviet news agency Tass was quoted in a dispatch from Moscow Tuesday night as saying the West German government was ready to sacrifice Kroll in order to satisfy Washington. But authorities here said there was no uncertainty in Washington about the West German government's basic views on the need for a coordinated Western approach to the Soviet Union in dealing with the Berlin dispute.

Kroll was summoned back to Bonn by Adenauer and a statement issued there said that the Berlin settlement proposals which he outlined to Khrushchev were his own personal ideas and were not authorized by the West German government.

ADVISED THOMPSON

According to information made available here, Kroll advised U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson and the British and French envoys in Moscow, following his meeting with Khrushchev, that he had advanced a number of suggestions for a Berlin settlement. He said Khrushchev solicited his ideas as to how the crisis might be ended.

His suggestions included a four-power agreement on the future of West Berlin, including the continued presence of Western forces there; a Soviet agreement with East Germany binding the East Germans to respect Berlin status, and a technical agreement between the Western powers and the East Germans on operations arising out of Berlin's special status and the operation of the supply lines across East German territory.

Authorities here seem to be most annoyed by Kroll's willingness to indicate to Khrushchev that the Western powers might be ready to write off East Berlin entirely and come quickly to negotiations with the Soviet Union on West Berlin, thereby perhaps giving a bargaining point.

They were also surprised by the suggestion for an agreement with the East Germans on technical operations since there is no agreed Western position on this point.

Adenauer is due here for talks with President Kennedy next Monday and Tuesday on precisely the kind of issues covered in the Kroll-Khrushchev discussion.

U.S. officials say privately that Khrushchev evidently wants to influence the course of the Kennedy-Adenauer talks and primarily for that reason took the initiative in setting up the meeting with Kroll.

If you'd like to know how the poinsettia got its name, here's the story. It was discovered in Mexico in 1828 by the first U.S. minister to that country, Dr. Joel Poinsett, and named for him.

New Police Chief Koren Will Serve City Well

In one of his last official acts as City Manager, WALTER K. WILLMAN appointed JOSEPH KOREN, Chief of the Pontiac Police Department. KOREN had been serving as acting chief since mid-June 1960.

KOREN

Chief KOREN is not a newcomer to the Pontiac Police Department. He joined the force some years ago and has been an exemplary officer right from the start.

★ ★ ★

We have known Chief Koren for a number of years and cannot think of a finer choice to direct our police department.

Koren has been trained in all facets of police work and commands the respect of the men around him. The chief has an outstanding temperament which especially fits him for this job.

We wish him well in his new appointment and feel that the community is deserving of his type of leadership.

Would U.S. Be Wrong in Resuming Tests?

An organization called the Detroit Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy says it would be the greatest mistake in American history if the United States imitated the criminal tactics of the Soviet Union and resumed atomic tests in the atmosphere.

This committee terms the Russian explosion of a 50-megaton bomb as a monstrous act, and adds that no nation has the right to poison the air that belongs to the people.

We'll agree that the Russian blast should never have occurred, but we part company when it comes to foregoing similar tests for the U.S.

If this Nation is to survive, it must be prepared to defend itself. If atmospheric tests are necessary for advancing our weapons technology, then test we must.

What alternative is there? Let the Russians pull ahead in this horrible race? The Russian blast was also an instrument of terror as well as an experiment. We cannot rally the free world to our side of the conflict for men's minds by cringing.

We have said repeatedly that to subscribe to the LENIN dogma of "any means to the end" would jeopardize the very freedoms we seek to preserve. But to fight any battle with one hand tied behind your back is inviting certain defeat.

Some Superior Pupils Tend to Underachieve

One of the greatest challenges to any teacher is getting truly superior students to rise to the height of their abilities. Quite often this is a problem because there is little motivation.

There may not be enough competition within the classroom. In many cases, superior students are loath to give their all because excelling separates them from the crowd. It is important to be part of "the crowd."

The United States Office of Education reports that from 20 to 30 per cent of the Nation's able students are not measuring up to their abilities. This is true on both a high school and college level, they say.

Assuming the information to be correct, it presents a problem which lasts far beyond the formative schooling years. If superior individuals get in the habit of achieving only what is necessary to get by, and fail to utilize their superior talents, they may never reach their potential.

The duty to awake these "underachievers" does not lie solely with the schools. Parents can assist by requiring more of their children who have indicated high ability.

This country and the business and professions in it need every possible leader for the future. It would appear that "underachieving" is a serious problem.

Prejudice: Being down on somebody you're not up to.

This column's hat today is very respectfully doffed to

Mrs. Jessie Crocker

of 644 Riverside Drive, Pontiac. We congratulate her on her super determination not to rust out. If millions of others would emulate her, one of mankind's greatest problems would be solved.

In her younger days she was an accomplished pianist, and a member of prominent orchestras. She had that excellent tonal touch and a full grasp of music.

Then for 50 years she did not even have a piano. She rarely played, got out of practice, and family circumstances made it seem that her music career was ended.

Now at 84, (one month and ten days younger than the writer of these lines), she again has a piano, and has resumed taking music lessons as she did in her youth—or is she still in her youth?

When she is ready to resume her stage and orchestra work, here's the first application to be her manager.

David Lawrence Says: Watch It, Bob

Are Political Plums Free of Taint?

WASHINGTON — Antitrust violators should, of course, be penalized, but people are beginning to wonder whether or when Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy intends to enforce certain other federal statutes besides the antitrust laws.

LAWRENCE

It is, for example, a violation of federal law for anyone, whether or not in public office, to promise an appointment to any federal job as a reward "for any political activity."

Yet on Monday of this week, the United Press International carried a news dispatch from New York City which reads as follows:

JOB OF JOBS

"Mayor Robert F. Wagner said today that President Kennedy has given him the job of dispensing federal patronage in New York state instead of Democratic State Chairman Michael H. Prendergast. . . .

★ ★ ★

"Wagner told a city hall news conference he had been authorized to take over the patronage duties at a meeting last Friday with Richard Maguire, White House appointment secretary."

Yet the U.S. Criminal Code, Section 600, says:

"Whoever, directly or indirectly, promises any employment, position, work, compensation, or other benefit, provided for or made possible in whole or in part by any act of Congress, to any person as consideration, favor, or reward for any political activity or for the support of or opposition to any candidate or any political party in any election, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both."

★ ★ ★

Will it be claimed that, during a state or city election campaign, rewards of federal jobs can be lawfully offered as a consideration, and that Congress did not intend to include this type of "political activity" in the law forbidding such practices? The section of the law quoted above, however, makes no such distinction.

NO RELATIONSHIP?

It can hardly be argued persuasively that New York city's recent election campaign has no relationship to the 1962 congressional elections or to the 1964 presidential election, since the party organization for federal, state and city elections in New York City is virtually identical.

President Kennedy himself, with an eye no doubt to 1962 and 1964 federal elections, went to New York to help Mayor Wagner get elected.

It wouldn't take the average lawyer in the antitrust division of the Department of Justice long to establish a "collusion" between the managers of federal and city elections in New York City.

★ ★ ★

It will be contended that "patronage" has also been dispensed as a political "reward" by Republican administrations in Washington in the past without regard to federal laws forbidding it. But the answer is that "two wrongs do not make a right."

CHECK POLITICIANS

Also, if the businessmen of the nation now are to be described as "racketeers" because they transgressed the highly complicated antitrust laws, maybe it's time to examine what the politicians are doing to violate federal laws governing appointments to public office.

Were there no "conspiracies" in secret in the last election campaigns to reward some of those persons who "delivered" a certain vote in a given area or district, or those who contributed large sums and have been or presently will be rewarded with posts as ambassadors or ministers to foreign countries?

Are all the 112 new federal judges, moreover, being chosen by the Department of Justice in a process that is wholly free from political taint or reward for services rendered to the Democratic Party?

And if the Department of Justice itself dispenses "patronage" to the party members as a "reward," who will check up on on the enforcement of any federal laws that may have been violated? Is it possible that only businessmen violate federal laws and that the politicians are 100 per cent pure?

Dr. Harold Hyman Says:

Don't Inflict Injury on Your Own Stomach

In a preceding column, I started to list some of the "crimes" many of us self-inflict on our digestive organs whose justifiable complaints we then label "indigestion," "dyspepsia," "heartburn" and the like. Here are some more of these misdemeanors:

★ ★ ★

Not giving your stomach a chance to provide you with "appetite juice."

By reading the paper or carrying on a lively conversation while you eat.

By hasty gobbling as if you were only given so much time to "come and get it."

By the clatter, noise and confusion of a busy lunch room, eating counter or cafeteria at regular meal hours.

By the solitude and loneliness of a "table for one."

By the disgust due to greasy tableware, a cup rimmed with lipstick or the smell of offensive cooking odors.

By the appearance of an overloaded platter that looks like something set out for the dog.

Failing to moisten your food so that it gets into your stomach like a big dried cake.

CULPING BEVERAGES

All too often, many of us gulp down iced, carbonated beverages that chill the delicate stomach lining and add to its difficulties by filling its upper portion (cardia) with a gas bubble that may be as big around as an orange.

Not giving your stomach a chance to empty.

When you're on your feet, you delay its emptying time when you fail to sit awhile after you've eaten. And, if your clothing or corset is tight around the middle or you have pulled your belt to the last notch.

★ ★ ★

By making a poor choice of foods and drinks, such as continuing to eat things like fish, eggs, strawberries or pork to which you know, by experience, you're allergic.

DRINKING TOO MUCH

Such as drinking excessive amounts of coffee, tea and caffeinated beverages despite the fact that we've been warned that ulcers have been produced in laboratory animals by just such excesses.

And finally, for present purposes, by forgetting that our tummies also may be insulted by medicines, notably most painkillers, including aspirin alone or in combination and buffered or unbuffered.

Don't let what you have read keep you from consulting your doctor if your distress persists.

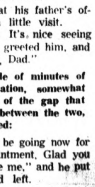
Case Records of a Psychologist:

Dads: Let Sons Plan Their Future

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE K-451: Roger T., aged 24, has just finished four years in the Marine Air Corps.

His father is a wealthy manufacturer who always wanted Roger to follow in his paternal footsteps and operate the family factory.



DR. CRANE

But Roger's interests didn't lie in that field, so friction developed, even while Roger was a high school-er.

So he called at his father's office, to have a little visit.

"Hello Roger. It's nice seeing you," his father greeted him, and Roger said "Hi, Dad."

After a couple of minutes of casual conversation, somewhat stilted because of the gap that had developed between the two, his father added:

"Well, I must be going now for I have an appointment. Glad you dropped in to see me," and he put on his hat and left.

Roger hadn't expected his dad to roll out the velvet carpet or greet him like a long lost Prodigal Son.

"But it did seem to me he might have shown a little more interest in what I was doing and my future plans," he grumbled.

"So I'll never visit him again. He can go his own way and I'll go mine.

"I can get along without him and he apparently doesn't need me for anything. Isn't that right, Dr. Crane?"

DAD'S FLUNK OUT

Suppose I were to ask you readers to diagnose this case and prescribe a solution. What would you say?

Roger's dad is an educated man. He finished four years of college. He has made a great deal of money. He operates a large mill.

But is he a successful father? Or is he flunking out?

Remember, you can be a very talented lawyer or business man or even a topnotch teacher or clergyman, yet not be a successful father.

Indeed, the Bible is full of stories about leading men who weren't very outstanding as dads to their children.

Adam's first two sons feuded until Cain murdered his brother Abel.

Isaac's sons were hostile to each other, especially after Jacob stole Esau's birthright, so maybe Isaac wasn't very successful on my "Tests for Parents" mentioned below.

And David likewise could have profited from those same tests, for his sons feuded with him, as well as with their brothers and sisters. Absalom thus slew Amnon, after the latter had assaulted Absalom's sister.

FATHER'S BEWARE

The Bible says that a rich merchant went to Hades, and then begged Abraham to send a messenger back to earth to warn his wealthy brothers to mend their ways.

Many a modern father may some day feel the same way. After he wins a fortune in cash but is then nursing his peptic ulcer while sitting in a deck chair of a ship, en route to a health spa, maybe he wishes he could roll time backward and win more success in dealing with his children.

If you make enough money for food, lodging and a TV set, the difference between the average wage earner and the millionaire is very slight.

So we better not become too enslaved by business, if in so doing we lose our own sons and daughters. It's a big task to be a successful Dad.

To help raise your batting averages, send for my "Tests for Successful Parents," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People:

Social Worker Endorses Welfare Work Program

The Oakland County Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers in general endorses The Press' support of welfare work program in Macomb County.

★ ★ ★

We would like to point out that our support of Macomb County's program is based upon many differences in planning and implementation, as compared, for example, with the work program in Newburgh, N.Y.

★ ★ ★

Macomb County planned their program well. They have selected work projects that will enhance the community. The services of the Michigan Employment Security Commission are being utilized. The workers themselves have an incentive beyond simply continuing their eligibility for "welfare aid." They will in part be paid by vouchers which can be used to buy essentials for living.

Macomb's program is a more positive approach and we hope it will succeed. Newburgh's approach is a negative one. Its popularity stems in part from our natural frustration that some social programs have not been solved.

We face a ruthless enemy in the Kremlin whose announced goal is a Communist world. With modern weapons and from bases in Russia, the Reds have the capability of destroying any target on earth. There are no natural barriers to deter such an attack.

Unless the United States possesses sufficient nuclear striking power to deter a major war, there is no effective barrier against Communist world domination by force.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Tomorrow's teacher must be a truly superior person with a solid foundation of knowledge and intellectual toughness, a Nebraska educator said today.

"The future calls for more and better teachers and the challenge lies squarely on our doorstep," Dean W. K. Beggs of the University of Nebraska told the American Association of Land Grant Colleges and State Universities.

The time is long overdue, he said, to "throw out the assortment of course patterns we are now using and start afresh" in teacher education.

"Obviously, we must start with superior material," Beggs said in a prepared address. "The professional training will be built upon a solid foundation of knowledge and intellectual toughness."

The problem of teacher education, Beggs said, is compounded by three cultural eruptions: the population explosion, the skyrocketing volume of knowledge and the freedom explosion in the emerging nations.

It is imperative, the Nebraska dean said, to find ways to teach more knowledge to more learners ranging from "a bottom of almost complete illiteracy to a summit of highly sophisticated learning capability."

Con-Con Given Unique Plan for Organizing Legislature

LANSING (AP) — A revolutionary "homemade" plan for reorganizing the legislature into a one-house body equally divided between Republicans and Democrats came before the constitutional convention today.

Dr. Melvin Nord, D-Detroit, conceded that his blueprint probably would not find much serious support among the other 143 delegates, even if they approve of it.

"But it's basically a good idea, eminently fair and equitable, far more so than our present legislative system," he said. "I hope that it at least will stir up some serious discussion."

Nord, a chemical engineer and patent attorney, proposed a unicameral legislature of 114 senators, two elected from each of 57 districts. Three districts, equal in population, would be allotted each of the state's 19 congressional districts when the boundaries of the 19th district assigned to Michigan after the 1960 census are drawn up.

VOTING SYSTEM

Each political party could nominate only one candidate from each district, virtually assuring election of a Republican and Democratic senator from each district. Each voter would cast a ballot for only one candidate.

Voting strength of every senator would be equal to the number of votes cast for him in the last election. Thus, if the Republican candidate collected 100,000 votes and the Democratic candidate 50,000, the GOP senator would have twice the voting power in the legislature.

"With electronic tabulators, this is practical," said Nord.

★ ★ ★

"This is a proxy system of representation, like in a corporation where each shareholder votes the number of shares he owns, or holds by proxy," he said. "Voters, in effect, would assign their votes by proxy to the senator they elect.

★ ★ ★

"In each district, the minority, as well as the majority would be represented, not shut out as they are under the present system. Everyone who voted would be represented in the legislature, and his vote would count each time his senator voted on a bill."

Senators would be elected to four-year terms and earn $10,000, subject to revision by the legislature.

Nord also devised a measure to discourage a political party with a heavy majority of voters in a district from splitting up into two parties, for ballot purposes, in an attempt to prevent the rival party from winning a senate seat. Any third-party candidates who got 20 per cent of the vote also would be elected, thus enlarging membership in the legislature.

Nord said he had been working on the plan for about two months.

"It's strictly homemade," he said. "I simply sat down and tried to devise a fair, effective and practical system, and this is what I came up with. I have outlined it to a number of people, looking for some major flaw that I might have missed.

"Practically all of them support the idea, but say I can't sell it to the convention."

Nord started his selling campaign with a 3,000-word letter to each of his fellow delegates, explaining the proposal in detail and offering arguments to support it.

★ ★ ★

"The legislature, as it is now set up, is a farce," he declared. "It is not truly representative; each legislator may represent the views of only 51 per cent of the voters in his district."

To Bury and Not Burn U.S. 31 Poison Sumac

LANSING (AP)—The State Highway Department has ordered burial at least a foot deep for a 40-acre patch of poison sumac in the path of the U.S. 31 freeway south of Kalamazoo.

The department said burial was ordered instead of burning because smoke from the poison sumac can cause severe blistering and itching.

Plan New Trial for 3 Prisoners

Another Person Names Man Guilty of Killing Detroit Druggist

DETROIT (AP)—Three Detroiters serving life prison terms for the 1960 slaying of a druggist may get a new trial.

Max Silverman, assistant Wayne County prosecutor, said Tuesday that another man has named a partner as the one who did the shooting.

Silverman said a motion has been filed for a new trial. It will be heard Monday at the home of Recorder's Judge Gerald W. Groat, who presided at the original trial.

Silverman prosecuted the case that sent to jail Lindbert Hall, 33, Seccolo Kuykendall, 21, and Epraim R. Clark, 35. But he said he was never fully convinced of their guilt.

The holdup has been confessed by Gene Adams, 21, of River Rouge, Silverman revealed. He said Adams implicated Ronald Gilliam, 23, of River Rouge, another member of the five-man gang as the one who did the shooting. Gilliam is held in Washington, D.C., on a fugitive warrant from Detroit.

The druggist, David Lipton, 32, of Livonia, was shot during a holdup of his store in October 1960.

Chartered Plane Victim of Hit-and-Run Vulture

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—A huge vulture smashed into the windshield of a chartered oil company plane flying at 4,000 feet, it was reported Tuesday.

Flying glass cut an arm of the copilot and an eye of the steward. A passenger fainted.

Despite damage to the radio and navigation systems, the pilot managed to land the plane safely at Ghaghsaran Airport. The injured were hospitalized. The vulture fled.

Flint City Acts on Annexation

Ready to Petition Clerk for 5,422 Acres in Four Townships

FLINT (AP)—Another major move was ready Tuesday on the big checkerboard of the Flint area annexation proposals.

The city of Flint prepared to petition the Genesee County clerk for an election for annexation of 5,422 acres in parts of four townships.

The area—in Flint, Genesee, Mount Morris and Berton townships—includes city-owned land such as Bishop Airport and a number of General Motors auto factories and shopping centers.

Some of the total area, outside the Flint city limits, gets water and sewer service directly or indirectly from the city.

The Flint city commission at a special meeting this morning authorized Mayor Charles A. Nobley to sign the petition for annexation of Flint Township.

★ ★ ★

The city holds that since it owns more than half of the property in Flint Township only the signature of the mayor is required to make the petition legal. Otherwise, such petitions require one per cent of the taxpayers and qualified voters.

★ ★ ★

The city's annexation proposal followed on one by the city of Mount Morris for annexation of surrounding territory and another for incorporation of Flint Township as a city. Last September voters defeated a proposal to annex the whole of Flint Township to the city of Flint.

Sunday Workers Are Warned by Free Church

STORNOWAY, Isle of Lewis, Scotland (AP) — Persons tempted to work Sundays on a projected North Atlantic Treaty Organization airbase were warned today they will be deprived of all privileges on the island's 14 Free Church parishes.

★ ★ ★

Among other things, pastors will refuse to baptize the children of such backsliders from strict Sabbath rectitude.

★ ★ ★

A resolution to this effect, adopted by the island's Free Church presbytery, or governing body, was mailed to all clergymen involved. The Free Church is independent of Britain's established Church of England.

The Free Church has opposed establishment of the base from the outset of the plan, fearing its effect upon the unworldly Hebrides islanders.

Mayor of Hastings Retiring From Office

Neither West Nor East Wants War but Each Will Fight

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Just how great is the danger of a nuclear war? Is it greater than a year ago—and if so, how much, and why? In this dispatch UPI sums up views on these questions by authoritative observers around the world.)

LONDON (UPI) — The Cold War is hotter today than at any time since World War II, and more dangerous than during the grim days of the 1948-49 Berlin blockade.

For the second time in less than 15 years Berlin is the focal center of East-West ensions, but it is not the only danger point.

The potential flashpoints extend from Europe to Southeast Asia, and from Africa to Latin America.

Despite the war fears, there appears general agreement among competent observers in all major capitals that war will not come from any deliberate act of either East or West. The concern is far a war by "misstep or miscalculation."

The present situation began building about 18 months ago when Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev broke up, in searing anger, the 1960 four-power summit meeting in Paris following the U2 incident. Since then the Cold War has warmed up month by month.

★ ★ ★

Nowhere has the danger of an international explosion been more alarmingly demonstrated than in Berlin, at the Communist-built city-dividing wall where Russian and American tanks have faced each other nose to nose, and armed men face each other daily across a few yards of No-Man's Land on either side of the barrier.

★ ★

Until now, Khrushchev has avoided overstepping the brink to which both sides in the Cold War conflict have moved several times in the nervous weeks since the Berlin wall went up on Aug. 13.

Just how do things stand now?

A United Press International poll of authoritative diplomatic opinion around the world produced the following assessment:

WASHINGTON — The danger of a "deliberate" war is slight and no great now than a year ago. But the possible outbreak of a nuclear war by "ignorance, mistake or miscalculation" is greater today. The Washington observers give as reason for their fears the danger of incidents in Berlin getting out of hand. They also are apprehensive that growing Communist guerrilla activity in Southeast Asia, and especially in Laos, could spark a major conflict.

LONDON — Observers here also fear more a war by "misstep" than by calculation. As British observers see it, Khrushchev is determined on a showdown with the West over Berlin and other European problems largely because he is stronger now than he might be a year or two hence.

The British believe Khrushchev—unless he suffers from or develops a Hitler-type megalomania—will shy away from a war showdown.

In the British view Khrushchev can afford to walk up to the brink and back away from it without risking his position at home. The British believe his recent triumph over party adversaries at the 22nd Party Congress has enhanced his prestige and power at home enough so that he can operate—for a time, anyway—with a fairly free hand.

FAR EAST — Observers in this part of the world hold much the same opinion as Western experts—that the main war danger is a war by mistake. But they agree this danger is a grave one, more so than a year ago.

They also have misgivings about the situation in Laos and elsewhere in Southeast Asia, but that the worst flashpoint—from the standpoint of possible outbreak of a nuclear war—is Berlin.

Although there is general agreement that Berlin provides the biggest challenge at this stage to world peace, there also is agreements that it is not the only area of dangerous tension.

Communist efforts to extend control to"South Vietnam and the embattled kingdom of Laos pose real dangers.

In Southern Europe, Turkey and, even more so, Iran, are under pressure from Moscow. Most recently the Kremlin has been maneuvering in the direction of Scandinavia, with a major diplomatic offensive against Norway, Denmark and Sweden and Finland called upon for "defense" consultations.

In Latin America Moscow looks to Cuba as an operative foothold in that hemisphere and a jumping-off place for infiltration of the United States' "backyard."

THEN THERE'S AFRICA

Then there's Africa. Temporary setbacks in this continent have by no means ended Russia's activities there. In the black continent the Cold War is fought on the economic plane, laced with Soviet arms and heavy doses of "anti-imperialist" propaganda to undermine the Western position with the newly emerging nations.

★ ★ ★

There is a wide feeling that Khrushchev wants now to consolidate what he's got and feels he can do this by pushing the Cold War to the limit.

★ ★ ★

During and since World War II Russia, in one of the most imperialistic expansions in history, has annexed outright areas totaling 182,000 square miles of territory with populations totaling some 25 million. These areas include parts of Finland, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Romania and German East Prussia, plus all of Estonia, Lithuania and Latvia. In addition the Soviet Union has extended control to the satellites in Europe taking in 393,000 square miles of territory with populations of more than 90 million.

It is formal recognition of this booty that Moscow means when it talks about wanting the West to recognize the "status quo," extending the Iron Curtain to Russia's boundaries in Europe.

To make this empire watertight, the Kremlin feels it must remove Western influence from Berlin.

Why is Khrushchev suddenly pushing so hard now? He may feel time is running out for him.

First, he is now at the peak of his power.

Second, Russia is at a peak of strength.

Khrushchev appears to feel that at this point Russia has the edge on the United States in rocketry and "nuclear delivery." It could be he calculates that in another year or two Allied strength, and especially that of the United States, will be too great.

These are only suppositions, but they are suppositions by persons in a position to assess international affairs at the highest diplomatic levels.

There are many other factors, not the least of them economic. Russia is worried, for example, by the growing movement toward European unification through the Common Market. It looks uneasily upon increasing Western European political ties, along with the military. Today, communism in Europe is on the decline. An economic boom, full employment and to some degree political disillusionment within the Communist bloc countries themselves all are working to the Kremlin's disadvantage.

If the bewildering complexities of the Cold War can be summed up in a few words it might be said that the Soviet Union wants to keep what it has, extend it power wherever it can—and give up nothing. The West, which already has given up so much, is determined to give no more.

Neither side wants war.

But either side would fight if it felt the time had come when it had it. And that is the danger that confronts the world today.

Find Roman, Islamic Ruins

Dig Into Alexander's City

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt (UPI) — Excavators are digging their way into the ancient city of Alexander the Great.

Prof. Kazimierz Michalowsky, chief of the Polish Center for Mediterranean Archaeology, has announced important archaeological discoveries in the Kom El-Dic area in the center of Alexandria, dating from the 1st to 16th Centuries.

The excavations," he said, "will continue to the Ptolemaic strata dating to the dynasty that reigned in Egypt immediately following the death of Alexander the Great."

"I think," said Michalowsky, "the tomb of Alexander the Great is in Alexandria. The mausoleum of Alexander was built in the early days of the Ptolemaic city, and it would be much nearer the harbor where the royal palace and the mausoleums of other kings were built."

Kom El-Dik is a hill which is now being leveled by the Alexandria municipality. The Egyptian Antiquities Department has entrusted the Polish mission with the task of excavating the area.

3 CHAMBERS

"When we reached the depth of 10 meters (32 feet) we found three vaulted chambers of a huge stone building belonging to the end of the 7th Century and the beginnings of the 8th Century — the transitional period between Byzantine and the Moslem rule. These are the first discoveries of this period," Michalowsky said.

"The three vaulted chambers are well preserved, but there must be a lot more. We have excavated only part of this huge building.

"Next to this Islamic building with vaulted chambers we found the remains of Roman public baths of the 1st Century A.D. made of bricks, plaster and mosaics, stucco painted. All these are fine specimens of Roman art."

Michalowsky emphasized that never before have such systematic excavations been made in Alexandria, once the world center of culture and education.

Woodpile More Secure Than Bank

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — An individual can keep his money where he likes, in a money belt, a mattress or a woodpile.

★ ★ ★

But when a bank keeps the deposits in a woodpile, it does give rise to some concern.

The banks of today are fine structures, molded of steel and stone and principle. But the history of the Old West, and Oregon in particular, reveals banking procedures that make one wonder how we got this far.

Not until 1907 were state banks in Oregon subject to examination. As a result the assets and transactions of the banks were not segregated from those of the owner. For many years banks continued to be operated in a corner or across an end of a general store.

In one bank, he found the books $5,000 dollars short. This appeared to be a shock to the banker.

A second and third count still showed a shortage. After a bit of head scratching, the banker remembered.

He led Sargent to a woodshed at the rear of the bank and busied himself lifting wood from a pile. Finally he pulled out a sack containing the missing funds.

He explained that the bank had only a small safe which was not burglar proof. If it were robbed, the bank would save at least some of the money.

In another case, Sargent found the combination of the safe written on a small piece of paper pasted to the safe.

The reasoning was that since the safe was not burglar proof, and the burglar had the combination, he would not blow up the safe. And though they might lose the assets, they still would have the safe.

Pioneer merchants and express companies often accepted special deposits such as gold dust and pouches of cash. This did not actually constitute banking, although Burrell says many banks did evolve from this practice.

Cons Can't Con U.S.

Tells How to Get Into World Affairs

NEW YORK (UPI) — Three hundred and fifty ways for individuals and organizations to participate in world affairs are described in a new handbook published by the Foreign Policy Association World Affairs Center.

The activities range from the eighth annual Great Decisions discussions scheduled for next February and March through a number of people-to-people projects carried on by communities, organizations or informal groups, to individual hospitality projects.

The handbook, included in the current issue of the Association's publication Intercom, also lists more than 20 publications offering practical guidance in conducting such programs.

3,100 State Deer Died in Traffic Last Year

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — The "Deer Crossing Area" signs that dot Michigan highways mean what they say.

Last year more than 3,100 deer were killed on the roads by automobiles and trucks. The toll was the highest for any one year since the Michigan Conservation Department began keeping records of the car-killed animals in 1954.

President Eisenhower was born farther to the west and to the south than any of his predecessors.

See No End to Chicago's Gangland Slaying Spree

CHICAGO (UPI) — A year ago today, a bookie named Michael Demarte was shot and killed. He was the first of 15.

Month after month in Chicago, small-time hoodlums were found shot, knifed or even tortured to death. In most cases, the bodies had been casually abandoned in automobiles.

The string of slayings wrote a new, sordid chapter in the history of Chicago crime, and the end is not in sight.

The total of 15 unsolved gangstyle killings in Chicago during one year was the worst in a decade and rivalled the bloody days of the 20's and 30's when the lords of the Chicago underworld battled for the spoils of prohibition.

There was one big difference. The Chicago gangsters of the 20's fought wars of conquest. The looting of a city was at stake. Today's crop of killers—with a few exceptions—appear to be as small-time as their victims. They lack the true professional touch.

Yet, none of them has been caught.

BYPASS BIG SHOTS

Few big shots have fallen victim to Chicago's latest gang-killing spree. The victims are burglars, gamblers, narcotic pushers, sharp operators on the fringe of the underworld. They range from loan sharks' bully boy named "Action" Jackson who was a giant of a man to a midget burglar known to police as "Transom" Testa. A skid row bartender, a city truck driver, and a livery service driver were among the men in the morgue.

One killing only bore the mark of the shadowy underworld empire known as the "Syndicate."

The victim was a 55-year-old Irishman named Jack Kilpatrick. He was a tough product of a tough union, the Independent United Industrial Workers of America (UIWA). Until Kilpatrick took over, the UIWA's boss was a nails-tough labor hoodlum, Angelo Inciso. Kilpatrick was his protege.

Master and pupil fell out and Kilpatrick came out the winner. It was his testimony which led to Inciso's conviction last spring on charges of labor racketeering.

On Oct. 20, Kilpatrick's body was found in his car on the Southwest Side two blocks from his union headquarters. He had been shot at close range behind the left ear and his car was wired with dynamite which had failed to explode.

Virgil Peterson, director of the Chicago Crime Commission, said "this is the only one of the killings which smacks of Syndicate."

School Launches Study Into Sewage Disposal

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI) — Oregon State University is beginning a long-range study into the best means of disposing of sewage and industrial waste at sea without danger of coastal contamination.

A U.S. Public Health Service grant of $38,356 has been made to help support the project.

Dentistry Discovers a Gold (Filled) Mine

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI) — Dentistry has solved the problem of using gold for its good filling qualities without making a patient's mouth look like a jewelry store window.

Dr. John F. Johnson of the Indiana University School of Dentistry told a dental meeting here recently that porcelain veneers baked to the gold filling surface cover the gold and closely resemble the color and surface texture of natural teeth.

The new process is based on a natural binding that exists between gold and porcelain when they are baked together.

Red Chinese Are Facing Starvation, but Won't Revolt

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Her people are hungry, sick, disillusioned and in rags, but don't expect them to revolt. The only U.S. reporter to pierce the Bamboo Curtain now reports the chaos of today in Red China.)

By JOHN STROHM

MACAO (NEA) — The Communist bosses of China today are faced with the gigantic problem of saving 25 million of their people from starvation this winter. To prevent this mass famine, Peiping may have to dig into its skimpy treasury for as much as a half-billion dollars to buy seven million tons of foreign wheat.

And this is only one of the problems, for Red China's rulers are faced with their worst crisis since they seized power in a Communist walkover 12 years ago.

John Strohm

But the crisis does not mean that the sick and disillusioned citizens of The People's Republic of China may revolt.

"Revolt? We can't fight with hoes," was the hopeless reply of a tough but disillusioned ex-soldier of the Red Army who had just escaped from the mainland. He is one of scores of refugees with whom I have had lengthy interviews.

The Communist bosses are in firm control of their 700 million subjects. The party leaders already are rolling with the punch thrown at them by three years of bad weather and worse management.

Already they have been forced to make concessions to the peasants that Marxist theoreticians scream are "capitalistic." Already this year they have imported more than five million tons of grain—which may have prevented 10 to 20 million persons from starving.

But the worst is yet to come. The Great Leap Forward that I saw in all of its frenzy when I toured Red China just three years ago has stumbled badly.

I pieced together this following picture of chaos by interviewing refugees who had risked their lives to escape from the Communist area in recent days, by talking with objective observers and intelligence sources and by studying the Red Chinese press.

My trip through Red China in 1958, as the first and only accredited American newspaper corespondent to get behind the Bamboo Curtain gave me the background to evaluate these facts:

The Red Chinese people are hungry. A skimpy dole of three to five ounces of rice per meal, twice daily, has forced many to fill their empty bellies with roots and the despised leaves of the sweet potato vine that they formerly fed to their pigs.

They have no meat, except on holidays, and only two ounces of vegetable oil a month. A distraught refugee, who had just escaped with her own children, told me:

"I saw a mother gather her three small children and jump into the river to drown with them — rather than see them die of slow starvation."

HAVE NO CLOTHING

They are in rags. They go into this winter with less clothing than they've had in living memory. Ration, so far in 1961, is one skimpy piece of cotton cloth, 18 by 28 inches. I talked with one indignant commune worker who said:

"They tell us we must wear clothing three years new, three years old, and three years patched. We wear patches on patches."

They are sick. "Every refugee I've seen is suffering from malnutrition," says the head of a Catholic welfare clinic on Macao. I saw swollen feet due to vitamin deficiency, children with rickets.

One commune refugee mentioned that he had personally seen at least seven persons drop dead in the fields this past summer from bad health and overwork. O doctor from a commune clinic told me:

"Since 1958, health of the people has grown steadily worse—largely due to prolonged food shortages. Chronic malnutrition is the No. 1 enemy of the children."

ESCAPE POINTS — This map shows the location of Portuguese Macao and British Hong Kong, points of refuge for those fleeing Red China.

RATION — This bowl holds a day's ration of rice for a family of five.

They are disillusioned. Refugees freely admitted that after years of marauding war lords, periodic famines and domineering landlords, they had welcomed the Communists with hope for a better life.

THINGS CHANGED

"This People's Liberation Army looked like true saviors to us," confessed a landless laborer to whom they gave one acre of land. But then his land was taken from him. Little by little, he lost his freedom and individuality. He was separated at times from his family. He worked harder, but his rice rations were cut and finally:

"I even had to sleep in the fields during the summer—so I could work longer."

The government cadres are confused. These Communist party hatchet men, who are in charge of every factory, farm and school, have been blamed for the fiasco.

Since Mao and the Communist party are always 'correct," the finger of failure was pointed at "overzealous" cadres. An escaped doctor says many cadres are suffering from nervous breakdowns and insomnia because of fear of carrying out what later may be a "bad decision."

A bitter 28-year-old brigade leader who was kicked out of the party for giving the peasants an extra ounce of rice a meal, after the commune had had a good harvest, told me:

"We got blamed for carrying out policies we once were rewarded for — and yet then we were told to do things that once were punishable as "reactionary" and "rightist."

DON'T EXPECT REVOLT

But with all of the trouble, problems and admitted unrest, don't expect the 700 million mainland Chinese to throw off the Communist yoke. I fear nothing short of World War III could jar loose the strangle hold the Communists have on this unhappy land.

"Will the people revolt?" I asked a dozen different men who had just risked their lives to escape from the mainland. "No chance," was the unanimous reply.

The Peiping bosses are still very much in control and furthermore are taking necessary steps to straighten out the chaos compounded of wishful thinking, amateurish enthusiasm, bad management and the desire to outdo Russia.

"Up until 1958, Red China was making fair progress in both agriculture and industry," voiced one economic expert in Hong Kong. "But most Communist leaders are in their 60s and the desire of these old men to leap forward into communism during their lifetimes, and to outshine Russia caused them to do a lot of foolish things."

"But they do show signs of being less stupid today," another observer grudgingly admits. They're tackling their problems — the chief one being food.

Reports of mass starvation in China today are discounted by American authorities in Hong Kong. I could find no objective observer who believes this. Statistics do not support it. And my own personal observations, plus careful questioning of recent escapees, do not suggest it. Rationed misery, yes. People dying from widespread malnutrition and resulting illnesses, yes.

But if foreign observers' estimates of a 190 million-ton food grain harvest are anywhere near accurate, the average Red Chinese is getting around 1,650 to 1,750 calories daily.

Rations vary with heavy workers getting the most, children and old folks the least. The diet is very low in rice and wheat which the Chinese prefer and must be bulked out with sweet potatoes and rough foods the Chinese despise ordinarily as swine food.

Although I saw Red Chinese junks unloading thousands of hogs, cattle, chickens in Hong Kong, there is practically no meat eaten on the mainland.

"Of course, the Communist party secretary has pork and chicken," said a refugee, bitterly.

FLEE BY SEA — In sampans like this, a small but steady flow of refugees slips out of Red China into Macao and Hong Kong.

Detroit's Traffic Is Moved at Rapid Pace

DETROIT (UPI) — Detroit — world renowned for the way it builds automobiles — also does a pretty good job of moving them around.

That's the opinion of Alger F. Malo, for the past 10 years director of the city's Department of Streets and Traffic.

Malo is proud of the fact that every working day between the hours of 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. an average of 155,000 cars, trucks and buses move in and out of the central business district with a minimum of traffic congestion.

* * *

He also is proud of the fact that most Detroiters can drive home from downtown during the peak traffic period in less than half an hour — regardless of where they live in the city.

CARS INCREASING

Ironically, the number of cars coming into the downtown area is increasing each year, while the number of people entering the central business district dropped from 420,000 a day in 1944 to 342,000 in 1960, Malo said.

He attributed the seeming discrepancy to the fact that more people are traveling by automobile, in preference to public transportation, and that shoppers are frequently close-to-home shopping centers rather than downtown stores.

The solution to Detroit's traffic problem rests largely with a costly system of depressed expressways started during the 1950s.

The two main expressways in use today are the Edsel Ford, which carries east-west traffic, and the John Lodge, which travels in a northwesterly direction from downtown.

In connection with the expressway program, Malo said the city is continuing to widen and improve surface streets, particularly those feeding the expressways.

"You defeat your purpose if you build expressways without proper access roads," he explained.

WIDEN STREETS

Some surface streets, principally Woodward, Jefferson and Wayne, have been widened right in the heart of the business district — "something very few cities have been able to do," Malo said.

He added that the city has only 60 miles of one-way streets, considerably less than other municipalities of comparable size.

The reason, he explained, is that Detroit is laid out like a cart wheel instead of a gridiron, and very few main streets run parallel to each other for any distance. He said parallel streets are one of the chief requirements for an effective one-way street system.

He added, however, that the planners who laid out Detroit endowed it with a goodly number of wide avenues extending in all directions.

Woodward, Gratiot, Michigan and Jefferson, for example, are 90 feet wide and Fort and Grand River are 72 feet wide. Each street carries a heavy volume of traffic.

Detroit also has adopted a progressive stop-light system on its main arteries to keep traffic flowing smoothly. Furthermore, special timing of stop lights during morning and even rush hours favor arterial traffic over side-street traffic.

* * *

Surface traffic has been eased further by the elimination of street cars, which opened up center lanes for left turns on many streets.

This Angler Is Fishing for Figures, Not Trout

BRYSON CITY, N.C. (UPI) — An engineer aide for the water resources division of the U.S. Geological Survey has a job dropping a line in the mountain streams of Western North Carolina.

But the aide, Ed Dillard, doesn't catch any fish. His assignment is to measure the volume of water in the streams.

They Really Mean 'No'

UNDERHILL, Vt. (UPI) — A sign on the road leading to the Vermont Army National Guard's training area here reads "No fishing, no picnics, no nothin."

Talented Rattlesnake Can't Be Relied Upon

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — Contrary to popular belief, the Eastern Diamondback rattlesnake, largest and most poisonous viper native to North America, doesn't always sound a warning before he strikes.

* * *

Another belief — that he has to be coiled to strike — also is not true.

The rattler usually buzzes the horny rattles at the end of his tail before striking, but he sometimes neglects to do so. And he can launch his incredibly fast lunge from any position.

Charles Follen, a German professor at Harvard, is believed to have set up the first Christmas tree in America in 1832.

Dwarfing Trees Is Oriental Art

Bonsai Was Originated in China During the 12th Century

OAKLAND, Calif. (UPI)—One of the highest forms of green thumb gardening is bonsai, the ancient art of growing normal trees reduced to miniature size in containers.

Bonsai was originated in China in the 12th century, and was adapted and perfected by the Japanese about 200 years later. Many specimens now existing in Japan date back several hundred years.

John A. Dutro, Oakland bonsai expert, said bonsai, contrary to common belief, does not distort trees. It reproduces in containers unusual shapes found in nature—uprights, wind-blown, cascades and trees trampled by snow.

The bonsai grower reduces the size of his chosen tree by root and branch pruning, by bud pinching and by controlled feeding and watering. The normal shape of the tree is usually retained.

Carried to perfection, bonsai can produce a perfectly shaped evergreen tree only two or three inches tall in 100 years.

Ceiling 'Granary' Yields Some Mightly Old Oats

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI) — An old fire station building was purchased by a business firm which started some remodeling. Fred J. Reineke, head of the firm, removed a piece of moulding from the ceiling and from a storage room above there came tumbling down half a bushel of oats.

The horse-driven fire fighting equipment was motorized in 1914.

For 1962...an all-new kind of Ford!

You've never seen anything like it, because there's never been anything like it . . . until today. On the outside the new Ford Fairlane 500 measures a quick 197 inches from stem to stern. A good foot shorter than the cars from which it borrowed its name, it calls the snuggest parking places home. It slices through traffic like a knife through cream—garages as easily as your lawn mower. At the same time, on the inside the new Fairlane 500 is every inch as big as some of the biggest Fords ever built. Stretch your legs, don't bother to watch your hat—you get big-car leg and head room. And the Fairlane trunk—a cavernous 29 cubic feet—takes on luggage like a baggage checkroom. How did Ford engineers do it? They devised a completely new unitized body that shaves bulk while it saves room.

The new Fairlane 500 is priced way under previous Fairlanes: it is well under many compacts. But Fairlane economy doesn't stop with a pretty price tag. It runs to amazing gas savings—with either the world's first economy V-8 or the nickel-nursing Fairlane Six. It tramps down hard on service costs—with Ford's remarkable twice-a-year maintenance. Routine service has been reduced to a minimum—30,000 miles on many items, only twice a year or 6,000 miles on the rest. You go 30,000 miles between major lubrications . . . 6,000 miles between oil changes and minor lubrications. Even the engine coolant-antifreeze goes two years—or 30,000 miles—without requiring a change. The new Fairlane 500 adjusts its own brakes. See and drive America's newest cars—the Fairlane and Fairlane 500.

American Snowmen Stage Fresh Egg Bacchanal

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Writer

SOUTH POLE STATION, Antarctica (AP)—The men at America's coldest and most remote scientific station at the bottom of the world went on a midnight binge last Thursday night—on fresh eggs.

The occasion was the arrival of the first relief contingent for the 20 scientists and U.S. Navy men who wintered at this lonely outpost buried under up to eight feet of drifted snow. With them came the first fresh eggs and milk the South Pole group had seen in almost nine months of isolation from the outside world.

The celebration got under way right after the nightly movie. Within an hour, 15 men had tucked away more than 100 eggs in the warmth of the galley while the temperature above the snow-covered roof stood at 45 degrees below zero.

I ATE EIGHT

"I ate eight eggs myself," C. D. McKenny of Phoenix, Ariz., a meteorology technician, said grinning. "I had two poached, two boiled and the rest fried."

McKenny, who doubles as first assistant cook, has served two tricks in the antarctic and also spent a year on an ice island floating around north polar regions.

The relief contingent of sailors and Seabees, and three crates of eggs and 10 gallons of milk, came on a Navy cargo plane from the McMurdo station some 800 miles away.

On another plane were a group of New Zealand government officials and nine newsmen.

The two planes were only the fourth and fifth aircraft to land here since the beginning of the "summer season." One, on Oct. 30, brought the first fresh oranges, apples, lettuce, potatoes and radishes the men had seen since Feb. 17, when the South Pole station buttoned down for the antarctic winter. But the men still yearned for fresh eggs and milk.

TIRED OF OMELETS

"We had frozen eggs and vegetables all along," said chief cook Charles Wagner of Rochester, Minn., "but all you can do with frozen eggs are scramble them and make omelets and you get tired of those after awhile."

The station's scientific leader, bearded chief meteorologist Ben W. Harlin, said the lowest temperature of the winter was 102 below zero, on Aug. 12. The record is minus 110 degrees, recorded on Sept. 13, 1959.

To give an idea of what minus 102 means, Harlin said at "only" 55 degrees below zero diesel oil will freeze to the consistency of lard.

Last January and February were the coldest for those months during the five years the station has been in operation, he said. August and October were windier than the same months in the four previous years. But August, June and October on the average were warmer than in previous years.

The chief recreational project during the winter was the building of the "Bamboo Room," a cozy little place with walls surfaced with bamboo rods ordinarily used for markers on the snow.

Beer is available in this southernmost bar in the world, and a bosomy blonde mannequin, clad in slinky velvet, stands next to the door as hostess. Two pairs of lace panties hang on the wal behind the bar.

Here, and in the galley-mess hall, the team at the polar station celebrated "Christmas" on June 21, and "Sunrise Day" on Sept. 23.

The latter is the date on which the sun officially rises again after the months-long winter night although a kind of eerie twilight prevails for several weeks before.

Although the two tunnelled entrances to the buried camp were blocked by snow during the winter, meteorologists several times a day squeezed through escape hatches to check on instruments scattered over several acres. Rope lines guided them back to camp when the winds whipped the snow.

Weather balloons were launched to heights of 35,000 feet twice a day. Geophysicists regularly traversed a narrow 1,000-foot-long tunnel to check on geomagnetic instruments which have to be kept isolated from iron and other metals.

Dr. Philip K. Swartz of Napa, Calif., a physician, is presently in charge of the camp although his relief, Dr. Malcolm Lentz of York, Pa., is among the new arrivals.

Dr. Swartz sees to it that all hands at the camp—scientists as well as sailors—pitch in on such housekeeping chores as kitchen police and shoveling snow to the station's most precious commodity—water.

Social Security Office Warns Those 65 to File

An estimated 4,000 residents of Oakland County who are 65 or older and are still employed may lose some social security benefits if they do not file an application by Jan. 31, according to William E. LaRock, district manager of the Pontiac Social Security Office.

LaRock pointed out that many of these people are under the impression that earnings of more than $1,200 in 1961, would make them ineligible to receive benefits. But recent amendments to the Social Security law make it possible in some cases for a family to receive some benefits for the year even though the worker has yearly earnings of as much as $4,497.

All residents of Oakland County who are 65 or over, have worked under social security, and have not applied for benefits should apply before Jan. 31, LaRock said.

It is difficult to tell whether or not any benefits may be payable until the records have been assembled, he said, but the filing of an application can never be harmful and in many cases may prevent the loss of benefits which could have been paid if an application had been filed.

WON'T HALT BENEFITS

The general rule applicable to persons under 72 who are still working is that earnings of $1,200 or less in a year will not prevent an eligible person from receiving social security benefits.

Earnings between $1,200 and $1,700 would result in the suspension of one dollar of benefits for every two dollars of earnings. Benefits are stopped on a dollar-for-dollar basis for earnings over $1,700 in a year.

Regardless of the total earnings, an eligible person can receive benefits from social security for months in which he earns $100 or less wages and does not work in a business of his own.

Any person now 65 or older would be eligible for benefits if he had worked under social security for about two and one-half years, LaRock said.

Some would be eligible with as little as one and one-half years of employment.

Any social security benefits received are considered to be nontaxable for federal income tax purposes.

President Orders Drive for Economy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy Tuesday ordered government offices outside of Washington to work more closely together for effectiveness and economy.

In a memorandum to heads of all departments and agencies, Kennedy called for improvement of the management and direction of federal offices throughout the country.

His directive also called for regional working groups to mesh federal activity across department and agency lines in important centers.

Tuesday's order followed by less than three weeks a general directive to Cabinet members and agency heads to be "careful and frugal" in order to reduce this year's government deficit and make a balanced budget possible next year.

Hare Reports License Sales Running High

LANSING (AP) — Sales of 1962 vehicle license plates are running 150 per cent above last year, Secretary of State James M. Hare reported Tuesday.

Hare said 181,270 plates were sold within a week after they went on sale Nov. 1, compared with 40,729 tabs in the like period last year.

The desire of many motorists to get low-numbered plates, the first full-sized ones issued in three years, is probably the main reason for the buying surge, he said, adding:

"The improved picture of new car sales, I am sure always helps, as does the status urge to get something new Before all the neighbors beat you to it."

The first glass tree ornaments were made in central Germany by glass blowers in the 1850s.

Instant Meat Tenderizer May Be Used Effectively on Venison Cuts

Venison, originally the meat of kings and queens was a special favorite of the father of our country, George Washington. And over the years, the hunters in our midst have rejoiced in bringing this regal meat to their festive holiday tables.

Today you are fortunate because you can quickly and simply combat the inevitable toughness of venison, thanks to Instant Meat Tenderizer . . . a treasured secret for making venison tender, juicy, irresistible—in minutes.

Venison can be tenderized and frozen. Tenderize each cut, refrigerating what you will cook within three days, and freeze the remainder. In this way, you'll have a supply of tender meat, ready to cook; you can feast on venison whatever the season.

Freeze as soon as possible; aging is not necessary when the tenderizer is used. Properly packaged venison can be stored in your home freezer for 6 to 8 months.

And now for our game dinner! The recipes for the accompaniments, too, come from across the seas where venison cookery is so important and such an art.

ROAST HAUNCH OF VENISON

5 to 7 pound leg of venison
Instant Meat Tenderizer
1 clove of garlic, slivered
5 strips bacon or salt pork

For Marinade

½ cup salad oil
2 cups red wine
2 cloves garlic
½ teaspoon each: thyme, tarragon, basil, rosemary, freshly ground pepper

Ingredients for Gravy:

1 cup black currant jelly
1 cup water
Dash powdered ginger
Dash powdered cloves
1 teaspoon lemon juice
½ cup sour cream
1 teaspoon brandy flavoring

Prepare all surfaces of venison, one side at a time, as follows:

Thoroughly moisten the surface of the meat with water—pat the water on from the faucet with your fingers, or use a pastry brush or draw a wet fork across the surface of the meat. Sprinkle Instant Meat Tenderizer evenly, like salt, about ½ teaspoon per pound over the entire surface of the meat. Use no salt.

To insure penetration and retain meat juices, pierce deeply with a long pronged kitchen fork at approximately ½-inch intervals.

Combine ingredients for marinade. Pour over the venison and marinate in the refrigerator overnight, turning the venison occasionally.

To roast, remove meat from marinade (reserve for basting); insert slivers of garlic into the venison; cover with strips of bacon or salt pork. Place on rack in roasting pan; roast in pre-heated 325 degree F. oven 20 to 25 minutes per pound for rare, basting frequently with marinade. (Cook 30 minutes per pound for larger roast, 25 minutes per pound for small roast.)

Haunch of Venison may also be boned and rolled for spit barbecuing, with or without a basting of barbecue sauce. Allow 25 minutes per pound for rare, 25 to 30 minutes for medium rare.

When venison is done, remove to hot platter. For more attractive and uniform slices, allow roast to stand 15 to 20 minutes before carving.

To make gravy, add currant jelly to pan with drippings; add water, and heat slowly until jelly is melted. Add spices and lemon juice and remaining marinade to juice. When gravy has thickened, add sour cream and blend in.

If you prefer the gravy thicker, add balls of butter and flour kneaded together. Just before serving, stir in the brandy flavoring. Serve the gravy separately in a gravy boat or tureen.

NOTE: If you are fortunate enough to have any of this tenderized venison roast left over, it makes delectable sandwiches.

Easy as Pie

A delectable Brazil Nut Crust is easy to make for no-bake pies: Combine 1 cup ground Brazil nuts with 2 tablespoons sugar. Press with a tablespoon against the bottom and sides of a pie plate. Fill with a chiffon pie filling, garnish with chopped Brazil nuts, and chill.

Save Your Baking Time by Fixing Nuts Early

During the holiday season, Brazil nuts are on the market in abundance. Save time when you bake by preparing a quantity beforehand.

One pound of Brazil nuts in shell yields ½ pound shelled nuts. One pound shelled nuts equals 3 cups. One cup shelled nuts equals 1¼ cups coarsely ground or sliced nuts, or 1 cup finely chopped nuts.

Wheat Germ for Power; Candied Fruit for Fun

Fruit nut bars are good eating. Children wolf them after school with tall glasses of milk. They make nutritious bedtime snacks for adults. To give them a little extra nutrition value and a more crunchy texture; add wheat germ to your recipe. The result is rather special snacking.

* * *

Put the fruit bars in school or factory lunch box, or serve for lunch or dinner at home. Top with a scoop of ice cream for festive affairs. For future use, make an extra batch, wrap in foil and store in the freezer.

Wheat Germ Fruit Nut Bars

¾ cup sifted all-purpose flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup (packed) lumo-free brown sugar
¾ cup wheat germ
2 eggs
¼ cup melted shortening or cooking oil
¼ cup honey
½ cup chopped walnuts or pecans
¼ cup chopped mixed candied fruits
Confectioners' sugar if desired

Sift together the flour, baking powdered, salt and cinnamon. Stir in brown sugar and wheat germ. Beat eggs, shortening or oil and honey together well. Gradually add dry ingredients and mix well after each addition. Fold in nuts and fruits.

Spread batter evenly into a greased 10x6x1¾-inch pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until done, about 30 minutes. Cool on rack. Cut into bars 2½-inches long and 1½-inches wide. Serve plain or with confectioners' sugar sifted over top.

You can add as much as 1½ cups diced celery to 2 cups of diced chicken when you are making a salad.

Crimson Cranberry Contributes Color to Cooks

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Had you been one of the passengers on the Mayflower, one of the sights in the new world would have been cranberries growing in the swamps. Indians used these bright little berries and taught the Pilgrims how to prepare them.

In a cookbook published in 1683 there was a recipe for cranberry juice:

* * *

"Put a teacupful of cranberries into a cup of water and mash them. In the meantime, boil 2 quarts and a pint of water with one large spoonful of oatmeal and a very large bit of lemon peel. Then add the cranberries and as much fine Lisbon sugar as shall leave a smart."

Today we revel in cranberries during the fall and winter months and continue to enjoy them from the freezer and cans the rest of the year.

If you are serving fresh cranberry relish for Thanksgiving dinner, spoon it into scooped-out orange shells for individual servings. Here is the relish recipe for those who have never made it.

Tangy Orange Cranberry Relish

4 cups fresh cranberries
3 unpeeled California oranges, quartered
2 cups sugar
3 oranges, halved
Walnut halves for garnish

Put cranberries and unpeeled orange quarters through the food chopper. Add sugar and mix well. Chill. When ready to serve, scoop out orange halves and fill with the relish. Top with walnuts. Arrange filled oranges around roast turkey.

* * *

In the olden days a sherbet instead of a salad was used to refresh the palate before another meat course was served (medieval dinners were heavy with meat). You may serve cranberry sherbet as a first course with fruit, along with the turkey, or as dessert. Made with strawberry gelatin, it adds a pleasing tart course to the meal.

Cranberry Strawberry Sherbet

1 pint cranberry juice cocktail
1 package strawberry flavored gelatin
½ cup sugar
1 cup light cream or milk
¼ cup lemon juice

Heat 1 cup cranberry juice cocktail; add gelatin and sugar; stir until dissolved. Add remaining cranberry juice cocktail, cream and lemon juice; mix thoroughly. Freeze in ice cube tray until firm. Spoon into chilled bowl; beat with electric mixer or hand beater until smooth. Return to tray; freeze until firm. Makes 1 quart.

* * *

Did you ever make a fresh cranberry pie? This one will remind you a bit of pecan pie, although not so rich.

Southern Style Cranberry Pie

1½ cups sugar
2 tablespoons flour
3 eggs
1½ tablespoons melted butter or margarine
3 cups fresh cranberries, put through coarse blade of food grinder
1 9" unbaked pastry shell

Combine sugar and flour. Beat eggs slightly. Add to sugar-flour, beating 'til smooth. Add butter and ground cranberries. Blend thoroughly. Pour into pie shell. Bake in 450 degree F. oven 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 350 degree F. and bake 30 minutes. Makes 1 9" pie.

AFL-CIO Foes Trade Blasts

Reuther Claims Union Has Failed to Solve Traditional Rivalries

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rival industrial and craft union camps in the AFL-CIO traded broadsides today in a fresh outburst of organized labor's civil war.

Walter Reuther, Auto Workers Union president and commander of the industrial union forces, charged that the six-year old AFL-CIO has united unions in name only because, he said, the federation has failed to solve traditional union rivalries. He blamed the craft unions for the impasse.

C. J. (Neal) Haggerty, leader of the crafts as president of the AFL-CIO Building and Construction Trades, retorted that the industrial unions are ignoring agreed-upon disputes settlement machinery, "making us wonder what an agreement with them is worth."

"Mr. Reuther," said Haggerty, "apparently thinks his best defense is an all-out offense."

The basis for the feuding is the same job rights controversy that split the old AFL into the rival AFL and CIO organizations in 1935. Since the AFL-CIO merger was agreed upon in 1955 there have been fruitless efforts to work out a binding arbitration arrangement for interunion disputes.

Deploring this, Reuther said in a report prepared for the annual convention of the Industrial Union Department he heads that there must be some type of nonaggression pact for the AFL-CIO to survive. The convention opens Thursday and runs through Friday.

Inkster Man Charged in 2 Hit-Run Deaths

EAST JORDAN (UPI) — Police today held Milton A. Warren, 26, Inkster, for a hit-and-run accident which killed two homebound school children. Warren was driving a stolen vehicle.

Warren was charged with manslaughter after his arrest in a local bar less than three miles from the scene of the accident Tuesday. Fast police work brought about his arrest.

Police said Warren was speeding down the wrong side of a county road when his auto hit and killed Gordon Boss, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Boss, and Mary Fisher, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fisher, both of rural East Jordan.

Jean Fisher, 12, Mary's sister, also was struck by the car. She suffered a fractured arm and other injuries and was listed in serious condition following emergency treatment at the office of Dr. Gary Vandellin.

State police said the children had alighted from a school bus at a county road intersection. They were walking east on the left side of the road to their homes nearby when the car struck them from behind.

Four Southgate policemen who were on a hunting trip arrested Warren, Sgt. Robert Tyo and Patrolmen Lawrence Lokuta, Eugene Glanin and William Haber passed the accident scene on their way here to hunt deer.

The officers got a description of the hit and run car from witnesses and raced here to pass it on to Police Chief Joseph H. Hammond.

Hammond asked them to check the city's bars. They found the car behind a bar and Warren inside.

Caller Saves Tavern From Destruction

An unidentified citizen is credited with saving the Orchard Lake Tavern at 404 Orchard Lake Ave. from more serious damage after a fire broke out there early today.

Damage to the one-story brick building was estimated at $10,000 by Fire Marshal Charles E. Metz who said the blaze apparently was touched off by defective wiring in the floor.

Someone called the Pontiac Police Department to report that a light was on in the building about 5:30 a.m.

Police arrived to find the floor of the building in flames and firemen were called to the scene.

The fire department had the blaze extinguished in an hour. Metz said part of the floor and a portion of the bar in the middle of the tavern were destroyed. However, firemen arrived in time to keep flames from spreading to the walls and ceiling.

Griffin Blasts at Dems, Keeps Mum on Own Plans

Rep. Robert P. Griffin, R-Traverse City, had much to say last night about the "inaction" of the Kennedy administration but little to say about his political future.

Considered by some a front runner for the GOP nomination for governor next year, Griffin chose his answers cautiously as some in the audience in Waterford Township sought to find out whether he will be a candidate for re-election to Congress or run for governor.

Griffin, 38, a former resident of Pontiac, spoke to 65 members of the Waterford Township Republican Club. The group included Griffin's parents and other relatives, residents of the city or township.

When Griffin told how he increased his vote last year in heavily industrial Muskegon County despite his cosponsorship of the controversial Landrum-Griffin labor reform bill, one woman asked if he didn't think this was indicative of your popularity around the entire state."

SNAPS ANSWER

Griffin snapped a fast "no."

He said he hadn't made up his mind on whether to run for a fourth term in Congress or try to unseat Gov. John B. Swainson. He inquired who his opposition might be in the GOP primary for governor.

Griffin, who last year pondered whether to run for U.S. senator from Michigan, lashed out at the current administration, which he said was "moving backward" under the leadership of "old re-tread New Dealers who were rejected by the people."

"We're back to the old idea that we can somehow spend ourselves into prosperity," Griffin said.

★ ★ ★

He termed the group of administration officials, including Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, currently in Detroit "a traveling road show trying to sell to the people the Kennedy program that hasn't even passed the Congress yet."

★ ★ ★

Asked to evaluate Swainson's administration to date, Griffin said: "Swainson is a very attractive young man with a lot of natural abilities but controlled.

"If there is anything Michigan needs above anything else it is to change the image that it is strangled by special interest groups," the congressman said.

Newman Church Finds an 'Angel'

To make a big urban renewal program work, a city must have shrewd financial planners, hard-working administrators and far-sighted commissioners not afraid to cope with tons of red tape.

Last night the Pontiac City Commission added one more requirement — you gotta have heart.

The commission's "heart" showed up big as all seven members voted unanimously to sell Newman AME Church a new homesite.

The site is city-owned property at Bagley and Brush streets. It had been appraised at $20,000. The church bid $1,000 — every penny it could scrape together — for the land.

★ ★ ★

Commissioners had agreed in principle long ago that the city should attempt to give the congregation all help possible.

BEING TORN DOWN

The church building at 14 Auburn Avenue is being torn down in the urban renewal program. City Commissioner Milton R. Henry, who represents the area, even suggested the city sell the four Bagley-Brush lots for $1.

Last night City Attorney William A. Ewart made a report on the sale of property so far below the appraised value.

He said that appraisers had judged the land as zoned for manufacturing and that if it were to be restricted for religious purposes only, its market value would be "greatly reduced."

Thus, Ewart said the $1,000 sale in his opinion would be legally acceptable. Commissioners ordered him to prepare a deed and accepted the church's $1,000 check.

★ ★ ★

So, the congregation will begin salvaging the bricks of its beloved parish, and build a new home at Bagley and Brush.

School Bond Issue OK'd

TRENTON (AP) — Trenton school district voters approved an $850,000 bond issue Tuesday for construction of a 14-room addition to Slocum-Truax Junior High school. The addition will boost the school's capacity from 600 to 1,100 students.

Britain Pondering Change in Monies

LONDON (AP) — John Selwyn Lloyd, the chancellor of the exchequer, said Tuesday he would make an announcement before Jan. 1 on whether Britain will adopt the decimal system of currency and coinage.

Lloyd told the House of Commons he has had discussions on the subject with officials of other nations which would be affected by such a change.

The question recently has become fairly urgent in view of Britain's bid to become a member of the European common market—an economic grouping of nations which divide their currency and coinage into units of 10.

Youth Returns, Slashes Clerk

Donald Shaver Tells of Attack While Waiting to Foil Burglar

A Bloomfield Township supermarket clerk was slashed three times in the face last night by a teen-ager when a trap to catch the youth robbing the store failed.

Donald Shaver, 25, of 187 Osmun St., Pontiac, was cut above his right eye by an unidentified boy who had been in the store just before closing time and was rightly suspected to return.

According to Bud Phelps, manager of the Long Lake Market, 1075 Long Lake Road, the boy had entered the store a few minutes after 6 p.m. and walked directly to the rear door and walked out, unlocking the door as he left.

Shaver volunteered to stay in the store to see if the youth returned. When he did about an hour later, Shaver grabbed at the boy and was slashed with a razor or a knife, according to Bloomfield Township police.

The youth was identified as about 16 years old, 5 feet 9 inches tall and 165 pounds. He was wearing a tan jacket and khaki pants.

★ ★ ★

Shaver, who was treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and released, said the boy ran toward Telegraph Road following the incident.

A 287-foot high obelisk housing a museum and a make-believe spaceship cabin will be built in Moscow to commemorate Soviet space triumphs.

Stuff Twin Pork Chops to Braise in Orange Juice

When did you last serve stuffed pork chops? Maybe it's been a long time because in these days of packaged fresh meats in self-service marts, seldom do we find double-thick pork chops on the counter; nor are we inclined to wait while the butcher cuts and slits them to order.

But we can make use of the single-cut chops for the same purpose, stuffing them — or more properly, sandwiching between two chops the wheat germ-fruit filling featured in our recipe today. If the chops are well skewered they cook up just like the old-fashioned double-thick, pocketed chops.

The wheat germ lends its nutty flavor and nutrient-rich substance to the stuffing, while the chopped prunes (or apricots), the orange rind and orange juice add that tangy taste-balance one always enjoys with pork. Sound good, don't they? They taste even better.

Fruit Wheat Germ Pork Chops

¾ cup chopped cooked dried apricots or pitted prunes
¼ cup light brown sugar, packed
½ cup (no packed) finely torn bread
½ cup wheat germ
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
½ cup orange juice
12 pork chops, 3/8 to ½-inch thick
1¼ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon shortening or cooking oil
¼ cup water
1 tablespoon flour

Combine apricots or prunes, brown sugar, bread, wheat germ, orange rind and 2 tablespoons orange juice; mix carefully. Sprinkle 1½ teaspoons salt over chops.

Spread 6 chops with an equal amount of stuffing. Top with a second chop. Fasten chops together securely with wooden picks or short skewers. Brown on both sides in hot shortening or oil, turning carefully.

Drizzle remaining orange juice over chops; cover pan and cook slowly until chops are tender, about 1 hour, turning once during cooking. Remove chops to serving dish; keep hot.

Combine water, flour and remaining ¼ teaspoon salt; blend well. Add to juices in skillet; cook, stirring constantly until thickened. Serve over chops. Yield: 6 servings.

Best Size Turkey Waits at Store

Today's turkeys are sized to fit your family needs, says the marketing Agent, Mrs. Josephine Lawyer. This is just one way the poultry industry has adjusted to meet consumer preferences. With this great choice, turkey has become a protein food to use more often.

★ ★ ★

If the family is small, a fryer-roaster turkey may be the right choice. This is a young 3 to 4 month old bird which weighs about 3 to 8 pounds. It can be cut for frying or broiling. Or, it can be stuffed and roasted.

The average size family may choose the medium-sized turkey weighing 5 to 15 pounds. If so, buy three-fourths pound per person for one serving.

The large turkey is usually the best value for the money spent for two reasons. It usually costs less per pound and there is a large proportion of meat to bone than for the smaller sizes. Most large turkeys weigh 16 to 24 pounds in retail stores. Heavier weights go to restaurants, hotels, etc.

A large turkey can be cut in half at the food store. This will provide two turkey roasts of from 7 to 12 pounds, enough for 15 to 25 servings from each half. One half used for one occasion and another half wrapped and kept frozen in the freezer for another meal is the choice of many families. Turkey anyone? There is a size to fit your family needs.

Add chopped prunes to your regular turkey dressing for a delicious ly fruity, rich taste.

Shrimp Soup Good Sauce for a Curry

If you like curry, and haven't yet tried this combination, we believe you'll find this recipe worthwhile.

Easy Shrimp Curry

1 pound medium-sized shrimp
2 cans (each 10 ounces) frozen condensed cream of shrimp soup
2 teaspoons curry powder
¼ cup undiluted evaporated milk

Wash shrimp in cold water; drain. Simmer shrimp in 1 cup water (without salt), covered, about 5 minutes. Drain, reserving ½ cup of the cooking water. Shell and devein shrimp; cut in half lengthwise so shrimp retain original shape.

Turn soup into a saucepan; add the shrimp cooking water and curry powder; stir often over low heat until soup thaws. (Don't worry if soup looks curdled.) Add evaporated milk; beat lightly with a fork or whisk and bring to boiling to make smooth. Add cooked shrimp; reheat but do not boil so as not to toughen added shrimp.

Serve with salted peanuts and chutney. Makes 5 servings.

Mince Filled Turnovers Please Men

"Are you tender and scrupulous, —you must eat more mince pie." You can so easily follow Emerson's suggestion with all the modern mixes and prepared foods available today.

★ ★ ★

The hearty, luscious mincemeat, as close as the jar on your cupboard shelf, is hidden inside a tender, flaky pastry turnover made from pie crust mix.

Mincemeat Turnovers

2 sticks instant mixing pie crust mix
1 cup mincemeat

Heat oven to 425 degrees (hot). Prepare pie crust mix as directed on pkg. Divide in half. Roll each half into a rectangle, 12x8". Cut each rectangle into six 4" squares. Place 1 tablespoon mincemeat in center of each square. Moisten edges with cold water, then fold over to make triangles. Seal edges by pressing together with tines of a fork. Prick top with fork. Brush tops with water; sprinkle with sugar.

Place on baking sheet and bake 15 to 20 minutes, until golden brown. Serve warm, plain or with hard sauce.

He Needs Room

You can aid the carver when a roast is the center of attention on the dinner table. One helpful hint is not to overgarnish the platter. Give the carver as much room as possible for his task. Remember to keep carving knives well sharpened.

Crisp Cabbage Slaw Is Gift From Dutch Settlers

A well-made cole slaw is a coast-to-coast favorite in America, a relish-salad which makes any main dish taste better. It is the one salad made from a leafy green vegetable which is served in both plain and fancy restaurants and roadside stands, at church suppers, clambakes, wiener roasts and chicken fries.

While raw cabbage seems to have been dressed with olive oil and spices as early as the 15th Century in England, it was the Dutch housewife of the Hudson Valley who first made "kool sla" famous.

Much of the two billion pounds of fresh cabbage we Americans polish off annually goes into the cole slaw bowl. Probably no two good cooks make slaw quite the same way; for hundreds of variations are possible.

Use either green, red or crinkly Savoy cabbage. Add finely minced onion, celery, green pepper (or find a ripe pepper which has turned a lovely red). Crisp cucumber is delicious with shredded cabbage. So are shredded carrots or creamy avocado bits.

Sprinkle chopped fresh dill, chives, parsley or watercress over the mixture. Diced fresh fruits are delightful in a cole slaw, about one part fruit to three of shredded cabbage. Use apples, pineapple, plums, green grapes, pears or whatever's at hand.

Much depends on the dressing. A creamy dressing is one of the most popular. Blend a good mayonnaise with a little fresh lemon juice and a couple tablespoons of sweet or sour cream. When you're looking for a deluxe cole slaw fold a little whipped cream into mayonnaise — about 1 part cream to 3 to 4 of mayonnaise.

Cabbage Cucumber Slaw

2½ cups medium-fine shredded cabbage
1 cup coarsely shredded unpeeled cucumber
½ cup finely diced celery
¼ cup finely chopped onion
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground black pepper
2 tablespoons sour cream or mayonnaise
1 tablespoon French dressing

Combine all ingredients. Toss lightly and serve soon after making. Yield: 6 servings.

★ ★ ★

Red and Green Cole Slaw

½ medium head green cabbage
¼ medium head red cabbage
1-3 cup finely chopped onions
1-3 cup finely chopped green pepper
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon ground black pepper
2 teaspoons sugar
1 teaspoon fresh lemon juice
1 teaspoon cider vinegar
½ cup mayonnaise

Shred cabbage finely and combine with remaining ingredients. Mix well. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

Must Cover Some Foods Held in Warming Oven

Now that ovens are equipped to hold a low 140-degree temperature, homemakers can decide more easily which foods to cover or uncover in the oven. Margaret Spader, home service consultant for the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association, suggests that yeast rolls, breads, mashed potatoes, gravy and cooked vegetables should be tightly covered.

★ ★ ★

Uncarved meats, pastries and casserole dishes look and taste best if left uncovered. Meats, such as ham or roast beef, carved, should be covered if held for periods longer than 15 minutes.

4-Year Term, Higher Pay, Fair Apportionment

About 85 per cent of the new homes built this year will be of the one-family, one-story type.

Williams Back Home, Tells Con-Con What's What

LANSING (AP)—The most experienced voice in Michigan state government — former Gov. G. Mennen Williams — returned with some words of advice for the constitutional convention.

Williams, who filled the job of Chief Executive for an unprecedented six terms, gave his views Tuesday to a committee studying the powers of the executive branch.

The tall, graying Williams was the third man to speak from experience on the subject. Previous witnesses were Gov. Swainson, who succeeded Williams this year, and former Gov. Wilber Brucker.

Williams, now assistant secretary of state for African affairs, drew the largest crowd of the three.

250 CROWD IN

Some 250 persons crowded into the committee room to hear Williams sum up his conclusions based on 12 years in the Chief Executive's chair.

★ ★ ★

"I believe strongly in the theory of balance of powers," he said. "But I believe that the way to meet this challenge—particularly in this day when the states must be active to maintain their rightful place in the federal system—is to create the strongest possible executive and balance with the strongest possible legislature.

★ ★ ★

"In this way Michigan can benefit from two strong arms of government rather than suffer from two weak ones."

Michigan's governors should be elected to four-year terms rather than the present two years, Williams said, adding that he saw no merit in limiting the number of terms a governor could serve.

"If the governor is a good one, the people are entitled to his services as long as they want," Williams declared. "If he is a bad one, one term is too long."

The ex-governor was emphatic in his opposition to the state's spring elections, which he described as "detrimental to good government."

He said the elections disrupt the legislative session and bog down the lawmakers.

SPRING VOTE BAD

"Important legislation fails to get consideration until the legislators get the returns of the spring elections, either in hope or fear, that the returns will reinforce or upset the fall election," Williams asserted, adding:

"In short, the spring election diverts public officials from the main job at hand and the people's business is hindered or prevented."

Williams said the election could be held in the fall of the odd years, thus avoiding the legislative upset.

Williams, who clashed frequently with the legislature during his lengthy term in office, made several suggestions for strengthening the lawmaking body.

★ ★ ★

Reapportionment topped the list. He said the legislature must be equally and fairly apportioned because otherwise "it is improbable that the legislature will keep up with its responsibilities in a fast-moving world."

★ ★ ★

Other suggestions included allowing the senate to elect its own president (a duty handled now by the lieutenant governor); raising legislators' pay; giving the legislature the right to call a special session and the right to select the auditor general.

Macapagal Appears Victor in Philippines

MANILA (AP)—Vice President Diosdado Macapagal piled up an apparently insurmountable lead today in the Philippine presidential election and exaultantly proclaimed, "We made it!"

With more than 60 per cent of the estimated seven million votes counted, unofficial returns gave Macapagal 2,685,110 to 2,031,667 for President Carlos P. Garcia.

Macapagal told newsmen, "The lead is such that any attempt to alter the results will fail." But he said that he would not issue a victory statement until Garcia concedes "in accordance with the usual practice."

Garcia, studying returns at his home on Bohol Island in the south central Philippines, sent word he was not conceding yet. But it seemed all but impossible for him to overtake Macapagal's lead.

LEAD WIDENING

Macapagal needed to take only about 800,000 more votes to win a majority and his lead was still widening.

With about 32,000 of the country's 41,000 precincts reported, Macapagal had 57 per cent of the votes to Garcia's 43 per cent.

The president's strongholds in the southern islands were generally giving him majorities but not nearly heavy enough to stem the Macapagal tide, which had been rising steadily since the first returns.

Macapagal's running mate, Emmanuel Pelaez, held a smaller lead in the vice presidential race over Sergio Osmena Jr.—1,796,928 to 1,650,038.

Garcia's running mate, Gil J. Puyat, lagged with 1,360,790.

Mock CD Test Surprises City

Patrol Car Early Today Calls 'Disaster,' Crews Rush to Rescue

Fire trucks, police cars, rescue units and ambulances rushed to the Department of Parks and Recreation service building at East Boulevard and Featherstone Road in a mock civil defense test this morning.

Some 100 city employes were involved in the exercise.

It was a surprise to just about everyone except David S. Teel, administrative assistant, who directed the test.

The exercise was triggered at 8:45 a.m. when a patrol car reported a "disaster area" at the site.

Firemen were tested on fire control, police and auxiliary police worked on traffic control blocking off the area, and city crews handled six rescue problems.

A simulated morgue was set up as well as a first aid area. "Bodies" were scattered atop the two-story building and on the grounds.

Nixon Is Sure Reds for Peace

Predicts We'll Have No War With Russia at Fund Raiser

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon predicted Tuesday night there will be no war between the United States and Russia.

★ ★ ★

He told Indiana Republicans at a fund-raising "spectacular" that the intelligence of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and the "obsession for peace" of the Russian people will prevent a war.

"Khrushchev will not start a war for many reasons," Nixon said. "Despite his liquor drinking, he always is the master of his own temper. Unlike Hitler, the Russian leader is a cold, tough, sober man.

"The man's own people will not support a war. The Russians have an obsession for peace. They have seen the dire effects of war first hand. Khrushchev also knows that the people of the satellite nations will blow up in his face. Ninety per cent of them will go against him if they think they have a chance. And, in the rear, are the Chinese Communists."

★ ★ ★

Despite his belief there will be no war, Nixon strongly opposed a nuclear test ban treaty between the United States and Russia without airtight inspection systems.

Arrest Musician as Drug Addict

Blind Singer - Pianist Ray Charles to Appear in Indiana Court Today

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI) — The popular blind musician admitted he'd been on the stuff since he was 16, police said.

"A guy like me has to have something," singer-pianist Ray Charles (not the well-known choral director) told police when he was arrested as a drug addict Tuesday.

The recording star was scheduled for a municipal court appearance today.

Charles was freed under $1,250 bond by Judge Ernie S. Burke Tuesday so that he might make a scheduled appearance Tuesday night in Evansville, Ind., as part of his tour at the head of a troup of 20 musicians.

"I don't know what to do about my wife and kids. I've got a month's work to do and I've got to do it. I really need help. Nobody can lick this thing by themselves," the sobbing Negro musician told detectives.

Charles was arrested Tuesday after narcotics squad detectives raided his hotel room. Officers said they found 10 empty gelatin capsules containing a residue of heroin, a hypodermic syringe and a cold cream jar full of marijuana.

The other three stages and a capsule containing 38 experiments apparently fell in the sea, but their path was hidden by fog.

First Hunter Reported Coming Back With Deer

MACKINAW CITY (AP) — George Shorkey, a Bay City hunter, was reported by the Mackinac Bridge Authority to be the first person to cross the bridge with a deer since the 1961 deer season opened today at 6 a.m.

Shorkey told bridge officials he shot a spikehorn near Brevoort, in the Upper Peninsula, at 8:05 a.m., about two hours after the season opened.

Bridge authorities reported a drop in the number of hunters crossing the bridge into the Upper Peninsula this year. An estimated 17,206 hunters crossed the bridge in the four days before the season opened this year, compared with an estimated 20,991 last year.

Rocky Against N-Test Ban Pact

N.Y. Governor Claims U.S. Would Endanger Free World by Quitting

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says the United States could jeopardize the safety of the free world by agreeing now to a ban on testing of nuclear weapons.

President Kennedy has said that any such agreement would have to be accompanied by safeguards to make certain there was no cheating.

The President has ordered that preparations be made for testing in the air in the event that studies of the Soviet Union's recent series of tests show that the military position of the United States has been endangered.

Rockefeller said Tuesday that existing detection systems to police any such ban are not foolproof and would take at least three years to install.

WOULD MOVE AHEAD

That period, he said in a statement, could be used by the Soviet Union to prepare for new tests "while we stand still for another three years."

★ ★ ★

Rockefeller urged American resumption of full-scale nuclear testing, saying he considers testing in the atmosphere a prime factor in giving America superiority over the combined manpower of the Soviet Union and Communist China.

Army Muzzled Claims Brucker

Ex-Official Upset Over Richmond Plane Crash; Pentagon Mum

DETROIT (AP) — Former Army Secretary Wilber M. Brucker, commenting on a Nov. 8 air crash at Richmond, Va., in which 74 recruits died, charged that the U. S. military has become muzzled beyond common sense or traditional limits.

In his first commentary on the national military policy since leaving office last January, Brucker told the Detroit chapter of the Military Order of the World Wars Tuesday.

"These were our own sons. We were responsible for their safekeeping. They were already in the Army, soldiers for one day. Yet they were transported aboard a rattletrap plane, handled as indifferently as one might ship cordwood."

Bruckner said he has "waited and listened . . . from the Pentagon no one has spoken to say why it happened and where the blame lies. We hear nothing from the secretary of the Army.

"Is it because we have so muffled the military voice that it fears to speak, even when the truth clamors to be heard? I say shame on us that we seem to care so little."

Two Strong Shocks Hit North of Japan

NEW YORK (AP)—Two fairly strong earthquake shocks were recorded today by the Fordham University seismograph.

The Rev. Joseph Lynch, seismologist, said the shocks were recorded at 2:30:05 a.m. and 2:40:29, about 5,800 miles from New York City in the direction of Mongolia.

★ ★ ★

At Weston, Mass., Boston College seismologists said their recordings would place the earthquake in the Kurile Islands north of Japan.

62-Foot Rocket Disintegrates, Falls Into Sea

POINT ARGUELLO, Calif. (AP) —A 62-foot rocket carrying bits of living matter toward the earth's dangerous radiation belt came apart in the air today and the first stage fell on land near the coast.

★ ★ ★

The Navy said the impact area was seven miles south of the launch pad, about a half mile inland from a Coast Guard station. There was no damage to property.

Illinois Grants Parole to Hodge's Accomplice

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Edward A. Epping, imprisoned accomplice of former state auditor Orville Hodge in a $1.5 million theft of state funds, was granted a parole today.

Hodge and Epping, his one-time office manager, were sent to prison in 1956. Epping is serving a 1- to-10-year term in Menard State Prison for larceny, confidence game and embezzlement.

Battle Castro Police

HAVANA (AP) — Two anti-Castro insurgents exchanged gunfire with police and militiamen Tuesday night. The government said one insurgent was killed and the second wounded. Two policemen and a militiaman also were wounded.

Vopos Toss Rocks, Tear Gas Over Wall

BERLIN (AP)—East German police hurled tear gas and rocks over their wall into West Berlin during the night. West Berlin police reported today.

A bus and street light in Bernauerstrasse, in the French sector, were damaged. The West police said they didn't know what set the East Berliners off.

East and West Berlin guards exchanged tear gas fire across the wall earlier in Wittenau, another district in northwest Berlin. The East Berliners hurled 60 grenades at a West Berlin loudspeaker truck and the West police replied with 53.

Appetizer Goes Round 'n' Round

More often than not, it's easier to plan the main course for a dinner than it is to select appetizers which will appeal to the varied tastes of your guests.

★ ★ ★

Next time you're faced with such a dilemma, try this unusual Olive Appetizer Carousel. Easy to make, it combines the crisp, tangy flavor of stuffed green olives with minced ham, pickled onions and pickle relish, and cheese. Base for the mixture is a half-inch slice of large, round rye bread. Servings are cut in pie-shaped wedges and the finished carousel has eye appeal to match its mouth-watering, taste-pleasing qualities.

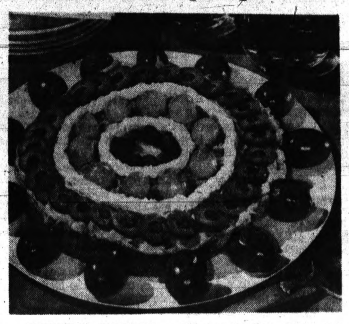
Olive Appetizer Carousel

½-inch-thick slice large, round rye bread (8 to 9 inches in diameter)
2 tablespoons mayonnaise or salad dressing
1 five-ounce jar cream cheese-chive spread
Sweet pickles
1 six-ounce jar minced ham
2 tablespoons well-drained pickle relish
Pickled onions
1 3-ounce jar sharp or smoked cheese, or cheese and bacon spread
Stuffed olives, sliced
1 3-ounce package cream cheese, room temperature
Green olives

Spread large bread slice with mayonnaise or salad dressing. Spread a 3-inch circle in center of bread with cream cheese-chive spread. Garnish with sweet pickle slices. Mix minced ham and pickle relish and spread an even circle around cheese, filling ⅓ of the space between cheese and crust. Top with pickled onions.

Cover remaining bread with sharp or smoked cheese, or cheese and bacon spread; cover with overlapping, stuffed olive slices. Force cream cheese through fine tip of pastry tube making a ribbon to cover space where fillings join.

Stick one end of wooden picks into green olives and plunge the other end into bread crust spacing olives evenly around appetizer pie. To serve, cut into wedges. Yield: 10-12 servings.



APPETIZER CAROUSEL — When party time comes, you won't be going around in circles if you hop onto this Carousel. Served on a platter, along with spiced apple juice or chilled apple juice, it's a happy combination that is certain to appeal.

Wrap that pound cake tightly and allow it to stand overnight before slicing; as a rule this stay improves flavor and texture.

Want Something Different? Try Trio of Fig Recipes

No richer gift has Autumn poured
From out her lavish horn!
J. G. Whittier

★ ★ ★

Between the thrills of summer fun and the excitement of winter's holidays comes the quiet time, the brilliant sun-fired days of autumn, when we pause for a moment to reflect on the wondrous bounties of nature. In local markets, this means the appearance of the season's richest harvest — plump, tender, succulent California Dried Figs from the rich, sun-blest San Joaquin Valley.

★ ★ ★

Fully ripened on the tree, dried in the sun for added natural fruit sugar, then sorted, steam-washed and packed under the most sanitary conditions, California Dried Figs offer unmatched goodness and nutritional value.

★ ★ ★

Try a typically autumn dessert that tastes better as the weather grows cooler.

Harvest Squares

1 cup brown sugar
½ cup sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 egg
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 medium tart apples, diced
½ cup flaked coconut
2-3 cup chopped dried figs

Combine sugar, flour, baking powder; add egg, butter and vanilla. Then apples, coconut and figs. Mix thoroughly but do not beat. Turn into greased 8-inch square pan. Bake at 400 degrees for 40 minutes or until apples are tender. Cut into 6 or 8 squares. Serve with whipped or ice cream. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

★ ★ ★

Richly flavored, chewy California Dried Figs in a butterscotch custard pudding is a welcome dessert most anytime. California Sherry blends the flavors in a magical way. Chopped filberts sprinkled on top of each serving makes a pleasant texture contrast.

Sherried Fig Custard

1 cup dried figs
1-3 cup California Sherry
½ teaspoon vanilla
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1½ cups brown sugar (packed)
½ cup sifted flour
⅛ teaspoon salt
1 2-3 cup rich milk
2 eggs, beaten
¼ cup butter or margarine

Clip stems from figs; cut fruit in small pieces. Combine figs, sherry, vanilla and lemon juice; let stand while preparing pudding.

Stir sugar, flour, salt and milk together in top of double boiler. Place over boiling water and cook until thickened, about 25 minutes. Stir now and then to keep mixture smooth. Beat in eggs and butter; continue cooking about 5 minutes longer. Remove from heat and add fig mixture.

Spoon into serving dishes and set aside to cool. Serve cold with thin cream. Serves 6 to 8.

Western Style Indian Pudding

¼ cup corn meal
2 tablespoons sugar
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon ground ginger
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
3 cups scalded milk
2 tablespoons butter
1-3 cup molasses
1 egg, slightly beaten
2-3 cup chopped, cooked dried figs
½ cup cold milk
Ice cream or whipped cream

In top of double boiler, mix corn meal, sugar, salt and spices. Add scalded milk, butter, molasses and egg. Heat and cook over boiling water for 20 minutes, stirring frequently. Add figs. Pour into a buttered 1½ quart baking dish; pour over the cold milk. Bake at 350 degrees for 1 hour. Serve hot with ice cream or whipped cream. Serves 6.

Pretty Pink Frosting Is Made With Drink Mix

Strawberry Butter Frosting is tops for festive cakes — it's made with the same quick strawberry-flavored mix that makes Junior's strawberry milk.

Dissolve 2 tablespoons quick strawberry-flavored mix in 3 tablespoons milk; reserve. Combine 1 cup confectioners' sugar, ⅓ cup soft butter, and ¼ teaspoon salt. Beat until creamy and gradually add 2 more cups confectioners' sugar alternately with strawberry mixture, beating until blended. Frosts and fills two 8-or 9-inch layers.

Carving Has Own Set of Basic Rules

Whether you dream of being a chessboard strategist, crack shot of the hunt or "master carver" of the family circle, you needn't be resigned to the costly mistakes of apprenticeship — if you learn the rules beforehand! The turkey carving "king", at least, can surely be saved some embarrassing moments if for the forthcoming holidays he is expertly primed with carving instructions.

★ ★ ★

The art of carving begins before bird even goes from pan to platter to table. Allow Mr. Turkey to "set" undisturbed 15-20 minutes . . . this permits the meat to firm up just enough for easier—and prettier—carving.

1. Place the turkey with legs to right of carver.
2. Bend back a leg with left hand and cut away from body.
3. Sever thigh from drumstick; slice drumstick meat by cutting downward.
4. With fork astride breast, cut down sharply on joint which joins wing to body.
5. Where wing was, cut thin slices of white meat working up to breast bone.

6. Repeat same carving instructions on other side of turkey.

What is a

CRIOCERAS EMERICIANUM?

A Crioceras emericianum is a highly organized invertebrate marine animal having a horny, circular shell.

The study of marine life as a part of zoology is important in tracing the development of all living creatures including man. From it may come a fuller understanding of our own bodily structure. Unfortunately many potential scientists may never pursue this science because they may never go to college. Already many colleges are overcrowded and in 10 years applications will double. We will need more and better college laboratories and thousands more of the highest quality professors.

Bobbie Burns' Countrymen Like to Eat

If you should travel through Scotland's cities and towns, you'll be drawn, as are all visitors, to their splendid, tantalizing pastry shops. The Scots are famous for their baked goods, and it takes a strong will to resist their short-breads, plump buns and sweet cakes . . . though who would want to, we don't know!

Wherever you go in Scotland, you will be treated to a wide variety of scones for this is where they originated. Some sweet, some made with buttermilk, some with citron and currants, others with fat raisins, but all deliciously tender and flaky. They're served as a breakfast greeting or as a tea-time partner, and are as easy to make as their American cousin, the biscuit. Biscuit mix makes a most authentic scone since flour varies so from country to country.

BURN'S SCONES

2 cups biscuit mix
2 tablespoons sugar
1 cup dark seedless raisins
2/3 cup milk
¼ cup melted margarine

Stir together biscuit mix, sugar and raisins. Make a well in center of dry ingredients and add milk and melted margarine. Mix until just blended. Roll out on generously floured surface to ½-inch thickness. Cut into rounds with a 1-inch cutter. Place on an ungreased cookie sheet and bake in a hot oven, 450 degrees, 12 minutes.

Apricot cream cakes are another Scottish treat you musn't miss for they truly melt-on-the-tongue, so short and tender are they! These little cakes are gold studded with tart, fresh-fruit apricot preserves. Serve as a meal-time hot bread, but they cut a tasty caper for dessert-too.

Aberdeen Apricot Cream Cakes

½ cup margarine
½ cup sugar
1 egg, beaten
1¼ sups sifted, all purpose flour
1½ teaspoons baking powder
½ cup apricot preserves
2 tablespoons cream

Cream margarine and sugar; blend in the egg. Sift together flour and baking powder and add alternately with preserves and cream, mixing well after each addition. Fill muffin cups 2/3 full. Bake in a hot oven, 425 degrees, 12 minutes.

* * *

A visitor can not leave Scotland without knowing that this is also a land of sturdier foods. It's said that until "foreign" foods came to Scotland after the war, they were the strongest, most robust folk on the earth for they lived on simple foods like oat cakes, porridge, haggis and barley soup.

This Scots Guard Platter is such a dish, made of thick slices of succulent turkey and crisp-tender broccoli spears topped with a cheese sauce which knows no peer. A wonderfully sharp cheddar club cheese makes this sauce smooth as velvet . . . but most important is its flavor . . . for it rates supreme. It's a cheese you'll want to use "as is" on crackers or — when you want flavor that's the best — in sauces such as this.

Next time you travel through your cookbook, don't forget Scotland . . . her pastries or her heartier fare . . . she has much to offer!

Scots Guard Platter

¼ cup margarine
¼ cup flour
2 cups milk
2 tablespoons prepared mustard
1 10-oz. stick Cheddar Club Cheese, crumbled

* * *

Cooked broccoli spears
Sliced roast turkey

Make a cream sauce with the margarine, flour, milk, and seasonings. Cook in a double broiler until thickened and smooth. Stir in the cheese until melted. Serve over broccoli and turkey.

Former Professor Dies

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — Dr. Sanford M. Salyer, 83, professor emeritus of English at the University of Oklahoma, died Tuesday after a long illness. Salyer was a member of the Oklahoma faculty from 1917 until 1922 and from 1927 until his retirement in 1950. He was born in Ovid, N.Y.

Don't Envy Early Plymouth Settlers

The first Thanksgiving dinners in early America sometimes were meager because of meat shortages, reports the American Meat Institute. Only limited supplies of grain were available and meat animals were scarce. The only real source for food in those days was the abundant wild fowl in the surrounding countryside. Bear and venison were meat mainstays that time of year, too.

Records show that four years after the settlers landed at Jamestown, meat was so limited that to slaughter meat animals without the High Marshall's permission was a capital offense. And in early Plymouth, cattle were so rare and valuable that often as many as six people were owners of one cow.

* * *

Today, turkey is still a Thanksgiving main dinner source, but the razorback hogs of long ago have given way to plump, corn-fed hogs for carefully cured hams, and tender, juicy beef roasts replace the bear and venison of the early days.

Turhen or Churkey?

NEW YORK (UPI) — The turhen or churkey is a large breed of chicken with a naked head and neck, says the National Turkey Federation. It is not a cross between chickens and turkeys, despite its names.

Bake a Batch of French Toast to Be Served With Fruit Toppings

Catch the mood "magnifique" of this breakfast carrousel. Whirled around the platter are slices of delectably flavored Oven Almond French Toast with a choice of three toppings.

One taste of this breakfast entree bespeaks its French origin. Who but the French were such early artisans with simple ingredients — bread, eggs, milk, a touch of flavor, a sprinkling of sugar. This recipe, a variation on the French theme, was created for modern entertaining — a built-in method to spare time when preparing a quantity of French toast.

Instead of being sauteed to a golden brown on a grill which demands constant attention, the toast slices are oven baked to perfection — delicately browned with a fluffy texture. Here, the hostess' helper in her oven timer — frees her from the kitchen.

Turkey for Breakfast

NEW YORK (UPI) — Start celebrating Thanksgiving at breakfast by serving oatmeal with jellied cranberry sauce silhouettes. Cut canned sauce into thin slices and use small cookie cutters to shape turkeys from each slice. Top with heaping spoonfuls of brown sugar and cream or milk.

The toppings suggested for this gay carrousel are: Tart Fresh Plum Sauce featuring orchard-fresh fruit simmered and treated to a touch of lemon; Strawberry Butter, soft butter "pinked" with the addition of strawberries; and minature scoops of French vanilla ice cream.

Oven Almond French Toast

2 eggs, beaten slightly
½ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons granulated sugar
1 cup milk
½ teaspoon almond extract
12 slices enriched bread
2 tablespoons confectioners' sugar

Combine beaten eggs, salt, sugar, milk and almond extract in a shallow dish. Dip bread into egg mixture, one slice at a time, turn slices to coat both sides. Place dipped slices on a well-greased cookie sheet.

Brown in a hot oven (450 degrees) for seven minutes. Turn toast and continue browning. Sift confectioners' sugar over top of each slice. Serve immediately with desired topping. Yield: 6 servings—2 slices toast per serving.

Tart Fresh Plum Sauce

1 pound or 3 cups fresh blue plums
1¼ cups water
cup granulated sugar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons cornstarch

Place plums and 1 cup water in a saucepan; cover and simmer for twenty minutes, or until soft. Remove plums and pit them. Add sugar and lemon juice to plum juice; heat to boiling. Dissolve cornstarch in ¼ cup water; add to juice mixture. Cook until thick and clear, stirring constantly. Add pitted plums to thickened juice. Serve hot over French toast. Yield: 2 cups.

Strawberry Butter

½ cup soft butter
1 (10-ounce) package frozen sliced strawberries, thawed
1-3 cup confectioners' sugar

Whip butter until creamy. Drain juice from thawed strawberries. Add drained berries to butter gradually, beating well after each addition. Beat in sugar. Chill until serving time. Use as topping for French toast. Yield: 1½ cups.

Before the Meal

Combine cranberry juice cocktail and syrup from canned fruit cocktail in a saucepan. Add a stick of cinnamon, a few cloves, a little nutmeg and a dash of ginger. Simmer 5 to 10 minutes to blend flavors. Add fruit cocktail and serve in large mugs for a refreshing hot punch with a colorful new look and delightful flavor.

Mashed Potato Balls

Make an entree of leftover or instant mashed potatoes: to 2 cups mashed potatoes, add ½ cup grated cheese, 1 teaspoon onion salad dressing mix and 1 well beaten egg. Blend thoroughly, form into balls about 1 inch in diameter, roll in flour and fry in Spanish olive oil until golden on all sides. Serve with lima beans and broccoli.

Select Right Pan

To roast a turkey, chicken or goose, whichever your preference may be, select a pan that is large enough so the fowl will not be crowded in the utensil. For a small turkey or large roasting hen choose a pan measuring approximately 14¼x9⅜ and from 3 to 7 inches deep, depending upon whether you prefer a shallow or deep roasting pan. For two chickens or a 16 pound turkey, select a pan that measures 16x11¼ inches and is suitably deep.

NOT A LITTERBUG—He's just a scrappaper truck driver guiding cars around two smashed bales of paper that fell from his truck Tuesday on the East Providence, R.I., Expressway. The driver, Walter Hopkins, continued to direct traffic for about 90 minutes until a second truck arrived and the paper was loaded onto it. The area was cleaned up early enough to avoid a rush hour tie-up at the busy intersection.

Attack on Failures Pays Off

Report Dip in DC8 Hydraulic Trouble

BY ROBERT J. SERLING
UPI Aviation Editor

WASHINGTON — The DC8's much-publicized hydraulic failures have declined significantly in the past month, Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) records revealed Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

Airline reports on malfunctions indicated that the concentrated government-industry attack on the giant jet's hydraulic difficulties appears to be paying dividends.

The reports showed this box-score of major DC8 hydraulic failures in which total or near-total loss of fluid resulted in such incidents as precautionary and unscheduled landings:

July — six; August — eight; September—six; October—three; November to date—none.

DEFINITE IMPROVEMENT

FAA's records included more than these 23 major failures over the past four months, for an airline is likely to report even so minor a difficulty as a leaking valve. But an FAA official said: "It's only fair to interpret the reports of major failures as indicating a definite improvement."

He said much of the "fix" the FAA, airlines and Douglas have put into effect to cure the DC8's hydraulic problems may not bear fruit until next March.

The official explained that some of the improvements involve major modifications and re-design which cannot be accomplished overnight.

★ ★ ★

The FAA spokesman said improved inspection and maintenance, plus certain minor modifications, appeared to have had immediate results.

★ ★ ★

FAA hydraulic experts are unanimous in feeling that the DC8's hydraulics headaches are being overcome.

"Right now," one said, "the DC8 isn't experiencing any more troubles than the other jets."

Chemistry Test Leaves 17 Hurt

Explosion of Bottle Injures Teacher, 16 Students in Detroit

DETROIT (UPI) — A chemistry experiment at Detroit Northern High School ended disastrously Tuesday when a bottle of sodium exploded, injuring 16 students and their teacher.

The teacher, Theodore Sims, 32, was performing the experiment when he added water to the bottle of sodium.

"I saw a slow reaction start and realized the mixture was going to burn," said Sims. He shouted for his 30 students to leave the classroom and covered the bottle with a rubber apron.

Seconds later the explosion occurred, spewing flaming liquid over the room. Most of the students had turned their backs and were heading for the door when the blast erupted, Sims said.

SUFFERS BURNS

Sims suffered 30 to 40 "pockmark" burns on the face and arms. The 16 students were given first aid for minor burns.

The experiment called for phosphorous, a student said. "Mr. Sims picked up a bottle which he thought contained phosphorous," 17-year-old Thomas Singleton recalled.

"He noted that the water level was getting low and proceeded to add water to the bottle," Singleton said. (Phosphorous ignites violently when exposed to air and is stored under water.)

★ ★ ★

"After adding the water, he realized the bottle contained sodium and oil. Sodium explodes when it comes in contact with water," Singleton said.

State to Open Bids Nov. 21 on Highway Projects

LANSING (AP) — Bids will be opened here Nov. 21 on 12 highway construction projects that will cost about $12.5 million, the State Highway Department said Tuesday.

The projects will include 6.1 miles of the U.S. 131 Freeway in Kalamazoo County from existing U.S. 131 north of Schoolcraft north to "O" Avenue near Interstate 94 at Kalamazoo.

With that contract, all but 4.4 miles of the 55-mile long freeway between Grand Rapids and Kalamazoo will be completed or under contract. Contracts will be let for the final section near Kalamazoo next April, the department said.

★ ★ ★

Other projects slated for next week's bidding include three miles of the Detroit-Toledo Freeway at the southwest edge of Detroit, 1.4 miles of the John C. Lodge Freeway extension in Detroit and five bridges and ramps at the Walter P. Chrysler-Edsel Ford Freeway interchange in Detroit.

2 Men Sentenced on Check Charges

Wilford Thibodeau and George L. McTaggart, both of 3861 Iris St., were placed on probation for one year and ordered to make $20 restitution and pay $50 court costs for passing worthless checks.

★ ★ ★

They were sentenced by Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland after they pleaded guilty Oct. 17.

2 More Policemen Charged in Denver

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Two more policemen were suspended and named in criminal charges Tuesday, bringing to 41 the number of Denver officers accused of participating in a police burglary ring.

Patrolmen John T. Butts Jr., 40, and Randall R. McElwain, 29, were charged with burglary and conspiracy. McElwain also was accused of grand larceny and receiving stolen goods.

A dozen policemen have been sentenced to prison. Robert M. Roberts, suspended sheriff of neighboring Adams County, was convicted of burglary and conspiracy last week.

Band Uniforms Stolen From Mathis' Tour Bus

UTICA, N.Y. (AP) — Singer Johnny Mathis' agent reported that clothing, including band uniforms, was stolen from a tour bus Tuesday night while Mathis was appearing at the Utica Municipal Auditorium.

John Nogas, the agent, said the bus was parked across from the police station.

Shunck to Tell Board Status of School Aid

Waterford Township's School Supt. William A. Shunck will report on the status of state school aid for next year and its standing with the constitutional convention at tomorrow night's 7:30 p.m. school board meeting.

★ ★ ★

The board of education finance committee will make recommendation covering the next two years.

Asst. Supt. Dr. Chandos Reid will report on curricular development now in progress in the Waterford Township school system.

English has been adopted as the second language of Indonesia, the former Dutch colony in the East Indies.

About 60,000 English and Welsh slum dwellings were demolished or closed last year and their 160,000 occupants re-housed.

Nation Unique in Hemisphere

Tiny El Salvador Boasts of 2.5 million Citizens; Trying to Boost Economy

WASHINGTON — In a world of fast-changing nations, El Salvador stands out as one with assets and liabilities all its own.

The Central American republic is the smallest and—except for Haiti—the most densely settled country in the Western Hemisphere, says the National Geographic Society.

According to a recent report from the capital, San Salvador, the national population has now passed the 2.5-million mark. In an area comparable to Massachusetts, this means an average of more than 300 Salvadoreans per square mile.

FERTILE AND SCENIC

To meet its economic problems, the Salvadorean government has turned to a many-sided program to promote larger and more diverse crops, encourage industry, and increase the tourist trade.

Favoring these efforts are fertile soil, a delightful climate, and a colorful Spanish-colonial and Indian atmosphere for sightseers. Despite the limited boundaries, scenic variety is spectacular, from Pacific-washed beaches and tropical lowlands to a mountain backbone studded with more than a dozen volcanoes.

The most famous volcano is 6,000-foot Izalco, 20 miles from the coast. Born in 1770, it erupted so regularly and cast its glow so far that sailors called it the "Lighthouse of the Pacific."

With rare pauses, Izalco continued to set off fireworks every few minutes until about two years ago. It then ceased abruptly, to the dismay of proprietors of a new hotel offering front seats for the show.

To further its ambitious plans, El Salvador has sought foreign investment funds as well as loans from the World Bank and Export-Import Bank of Washington. As a land handicapped by extremes of wealth and poverty, by primitive farming methods and housing, by malnutrition and illiteracy, is has welcomed aid from technical, welfare, and educational teams of United Nations organizations and the United States Point 4 program.

Tough Start Turned Into a Quick End

ROANOKE, Va. (AP) — Came the day for ground breaking for the new City Rescue Mission building. Howard Sigmon, president, wielded a shovel but his spading failed — the site was paved underneath the weeds. He tried again with a mechanical shovel and turned dirt.

At this point city manager Arthur Owens arrived and called a halt. He had just received a map from the highway department showing the lot would be taken for future Interstate Highway 81.

YOU MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS
AND NOT KNOW IT

Fidgeting, nose-picking, a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms...ugly parasites that medical experts say infest 1 out of every 3 persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, they must be killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with dangerous, highly contagious Pin-Worms which infect entire families. Get genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge's . . . small, easy-to-take tablets . . . special sizes for children and adults.

You are inside Shell's new all-weather laboratory at Wood River, Illinois. Here, Shell scientists test Super Shell for top performance in bitter cold.

COLD NEWS:

Super Shell's 9 ingredients now include extra Butane for quick starts, Pentane mix for fast warm-ups and an anti-icer to help fight stalling—all tested for top performance in Shell's "40 below" lab

Today's Super Shell gasoline is ready for winter's worst. Reason: it is primed with no fewer than three cold-weather ingredients to help protect your car when temperatures really drop.

Read how those ingredients work—and how Super Shell's winter blend is tested for top performance in a remarkable new laboratory.

THREE of Super Shell's nine ingredients work extra hard in winter to give you top performance.

Butane helps your engine start promptly on bitter-cold mornings. Pentane mix speeds the warm-up process. And an anti-icer helps guard your carburetor against critical ice build-up that can cause infuriating stalls.

But the work these ingredients do during normal winter driving is a lot easier than the tests they must pass in Shell's "40 below" lab.

There, Shell scientists can unleash a 100-mile-an-hour wind at the twist of a dial. They can send the temperature plunging to 40 below—or soaring to 125 above.

And they can drive a car in this remarkable room, through many kinds of "weather," without moving it an inch. A machine called a dynamometer does the trick. It turns with the car's wheels—like a treadmill. The car operates just as it would on the road. And the engine doesn't suspect a thing.

1. How Super Shell's winter blend is tested for cold-weather starting

A car, filled with Super Shell's winter blend, is driven into the lab and left there. Temperature: a shivery zero degrees. Twelve hours later, a well-bundled Shell engineer tries the ignition. The engine cranks, fights to catch hold and kicks over.

Shell scientists run cold-weather starting tests on a variety of cars. They insist that Super Shell start all of them promptly.

Butane—what it does. Butane is the quick-firing ingredient in Super Shell's winter blend. If you could remove it from the 9-ingredient formula, it would boil and turn to vapor—even when poured on ice! This makes Butane most helpful on a cold morning. Here's why:

Gasoline must turn to vapor before it can start your car. And in cold weather, gasoline doesn't vaporize nearly as fast as it does in summer.

During coldest months, Super Shell is primed with additional Butane just in case your engine needs a little extra help.

2. How Super Shell's winter blend is tested for fast warm-ups

Again, temperature in the lab is lowered to about zero. A car, filled with Super Shell, soaks up the cold overnight. Next morning, it is started and eased up to cruising speed. Suddenly, the driver pushes the accelerator pedal halfway to the floor. Did the car respond smoothly? Did it surge and fade? From tests like this, Shell engineers and scientists learn how to adjust Super Shell for fast winter warm-ups.

Pentane mix—what it does. Super Shell's talent for smooth running on winter mornings is due largely to its second cold-weather ingredient—Pentane mix.

It works like kindling in a log fire. In this case, the "logs" are the heavier hydrocarbons in gasoline. The lighter Pentane molecules act as "kindling" for the entire blend and help you enjoy top performance sooner.

3. How Super Shell's winter blend is tested for anti-icing protection

For this test, humidity is increased and the lab temperature is raised to 40 degrees above zero. Why raise the temperature? Because ice is most likely to form in your carburetor at that temperature—even though it is well above freezing. Here's how:

When you start your car, moisture-laden air flows into the carburetor along with the fuel. As the fuel evaporates, the temperature inside your carburetor drops.

The evaporating fuel cools the area around it—just as evaporating moisture on your skin cools the skin surrounding it. Suddenly, the inside of your carburetor is freezing cold.

The moisture in the air turns to ice. The ice clings to vital carburetor parts and chokes off the air-fuel mixture. Result: you stall.

The anti-icer—what it does. The anti-icer in Super Shell is designed to fight this maddening phenomenon by coating carburetor parts with a thin film. This film helps guard the cold metal parts against critical ice build-up.

Super Shell's winter blend, with three cold-weather ingredients, is at Shell stations today. And don't forget all the other ingredients in today's Super Shell (see below). They're working every day you drive, every season of the year, to give your car top performance.

Super Shell's 9 ingredients for top performance

#1 is TCP* for power, mileage, and longer plug life.
#2 is Pentane mix for fast warm-ups.
#3 is anti-knock mix to resist all kinds of knocks.
#4 is gum preventive to help keep carburetors clean inside.
#5 is Butane for quick starts.
#6 is "cat-cracked" gasoline—for power.
#7 is an "anti-icer" to help check cold-weather stalling.
#8 is Alkylate to help control "high-speed knock."
#9 is Platformate for extra mileage.

160 Play Cards So Local Girl Can Attend U. of M.

Pontiac Press Photos

University of Michigan Alumnae gathered 160 strong Tuesday evening at First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland for their annual benefit card party. The lighthearted evening provided funds for the group's annual scholarship award to send a local girl to the university. Enjoying the evening of cards were (from left) Mrs. Kenneth Long of West Iroquois Road, Mrs. Hugh Grove of James K Boulevard, Mrs. Bruce Frank of Franklin and Mrs. Wayne DeBeauclair of Riverview Drive, Drayton Plains.

Six local schools displayed the work of their art departments at the annual card party. The refreshment table, traditionally a work of art in itself carried out the maize and blue so dear to Michigan hearts.

Forget It, Says Abby

Let Her Win This Round

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I noticed a girl in study hall. I liked her looks so I asked her for a date. She accepted. As soon as she got into the car she let me know she was one of those "touch - me - nots." She sat so close to the car door on her side I was afraid she would fall out of the car.

ABBY

I was only checking to make sure her door was locked, but she thought I was trying to put my arm around her, so she hit me in the head with a French dictionary.

I didn't tell anybody, but she must have confided in a few dozen girl friends, because now the story is all over school. How can I get even with her?

FRENCH STUDENT

DEAR STUDENT: Let her win this round. You were lucky she didn't have access to WHO'S WHO or you never would have known WHAT was WHAT!

DEAR ABBY: How can I get my husband to quit drooling over every good-looking girl he sees? We can't go to a restaurant without his pointing out the waitress' legs, wasp waist or radiant complexion.

When I'm in the kitchen, he'll run and get me to show me some doll spraying her hair on television. I am no slouch myself but I can't compete with professional models and women who are 20 years younger. I need some advice.

CAN'T COMPETE

DEAR CAN'T: Beat him to the draw by pointing out all the lovely ladies and their good qualities before he has a chance to open his mouth. He'll have nothing to say and you'll show yourself to be a good sport.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I think I know the reason for juvenile delinquency. Baby sitters! I was never left with a baby sitter and none of my children was ever left with a baby sitter. And don't think for a moment that we didn't have our fun.

We never went any place we couldn't take the little ones. I think the mother's and father's place is at home with their children until they are old enough to stay by themselves.

AGAINST SITTERS

DEAR AGAINST: Sorry, but I can't agree with you. It is important for parents to get out occasionally without their children and a good reliable sitter (with plenty of patience) can be a pleasant and educational experience for the child.

How Not to Be Appreciated

By RUTH MILLETT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

No woman is attractive when:

She is yanking a small child along by one arm and glaring at him as she bawls him out.

She is cutting another woman down to size when the other woman isn't around to defend herself.

She ventures outside her home with her hair in pin curls or on rollers. (Even a scarf tied over the curlers doesn't improve matters much.)

One drink too many has convinced her that she is the life of the party.

She is so busy trying not to miss anything that is going on around her that she doesn't really listen to or look at the person who is talking to her.

She is doing her best to impress someone.

She is being difficult and hard to please, under the illusion that such behavior will mark her as a person who is accustomed only to the best.

She is giving a new acquaintance a cold, calculating stare and asking pointed questions to find out if the person is worth turning on the charm for.

She is setting forth her ideas and opinions in such a positive, overbearing manner that a conversation turns into a harangue.

Her voice grows louder and louder as she attempts to drown out everyone else so that she can hold the center of the stage.

She is being catty and showing her claws in a voice that positively purrs.

She is calling attention to her virtues.

Thanksgiving Program Held by Sisterhood

Mrs. George H. Putnam and Mrs. Kenneth L. Smalley were hostesses at Mrs. Putnam's West Iroquois home for the Monday meeting of Chapter CL, PEO Sisterhood. The Thanksgiving program was presented by Mrs. L. G. Rowley.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Martin J. Wager, chairman of the International Peace Scholarship committee, reported that the national PEO scholarship group has given 631 scholarships in the past 12 years. Girls and women from 63 foreign countries have participated in this program of aid to international college students. Michigan has had 16 of these girls studying here.

Tuesday Musicale Enjoys Baritone

By CHRIS GAENSBAUER

David Lemelin, young Detroit baritone, sang an interesting variety of songs to members of Pontiac Tuesday Musicale at the November program in Fellowship Hall of Grace Lutheran Church.

Mr. Lemelin opened his program with a descriptive song by Rachmaninoff, "The Island." Concluding this group was a dreamy "Duna" by McGill which, according to the artist, "painted a very pretty picture of the little hills of Duna."

The rendition of four Scandinavian songs, including compositions by Sinding and Sjogren, gave Mr. Lemelin the opportunity to exhibit his dramatic ability and the wide range of his voice.

The high point of the program was the aria "Largo al Factotum" from Rossini's "Barber of Seville." Mr. Lemelin sang this aria with vitality and understanding.

Appealing to the audience was the ever-popular "Sylvia" by the American composer Speaks. A rhythmical and comical spiritual, "Brother Will, Brother John," concluded the program and left the audience in a light-hearted mood.

At a short business meeting preceding the program, Mrs. Ralph Curtis, president of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs, spoke of the accomplishments and goals of the organization.

Greeting members at the door were Mrs. R. A. Becker and Mrs. C. B. Kinney. Mrs. J. B. Nicolls and Mrs. S. T. Angott, music therapy volunteers at Pontiac State Hospital, presided at the beautifully appointed tea table.

The social committee for the day included Mrs. H. C. Marsh and Mrs. John Blainy, cochairmen; Mrs. Donald Smith, Mrs. C. J. Strang, Mrs. E. H. Buddenbaum, Mrs. Charles Uligan, Mrs. Charles Whitfield and Mrs. Charles Galloway.

Silver and Gold

Choose your jewelry to enhance your skin tone. Gold, for instance, is ideal if your complexion has a creamy tone. If there is a good deal of pink in your skin, however, silver will flatter it and even tone down a ruddy complexion.

Girls' State Delegate Speaks to Auxiliary

The Saturday night meeting of Chief Pontiac Auxiliary No. 377, American Legion was highlighted by DiAnne Call's account of her nine-day stay at the University of Michigan as the auxiliary's representative to Girls' State. DiAnne is a student at Pontiac Northern High School.

Mrs. Joseph Charter, rehabilitation chairman, announced that Christmas gifts for the Veterans Hospital Gift Shop had been purchased and were on display for the members to view. A donation from the group was sent to the hospital to help defray expenses of repairing television sets used by the hospitalized veterans.

Budget for 1961-62 was presented by Mrs. Edward Myers, chairman, and was adopted by the group.

Mrs. Alfred Gulda, ways and means chairman, announced final plans for the "Country Fair" to be held 5 to 9 p.m. Dec. 2.

Chairmen of booths are: Mrs. Carter, snack bar; Mrs. Lewis Tate, wood working; Mrs. Frank Huebner, Christmas handicraft; Mrs. Donald Clark, baked goods; Mrs. Macom, handmade doll clothes; Mrs. William Tunesley, needlecraft; Mrs. Stephen Winowiski Jr., pig-in-a-poke; Mrs. James Cheyne, plant jungle; and Mrs. L. D. McLauchlin, rummage sale.

Mrs. McLauchlin, auxiliary president, introduced Commander McLauchlin who conducted the ceremony.

Fold Beaten Egg Whites Into Pumpkin Pie Filling

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Want to add another pumpkin pie recipe to your collection? This is one that rises very high during the baking, then drops a little as it cools.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Emery Pierce of Clarkston is our cook. She says she always makes two pies so that her family of four children have enough. Playing the piano is her hobby.

LIGHT PUMPKIN PIE
By Mrs. Emery Pierce

2 cups canned pumpkin
3 eggs, separated
1 cup milk
¾ cup sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon ginger
¼ teaspoon nutmeg

Blend together beaten egg yolks and rest of ingredients. Beat egg whites stiff and fold in last. Pour into 9-inch unbaked pie shell. Bake at 450 degrees for 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 325 degrees and bake an additional 45 to 50 minutes.

100 Nurses Honored at Hospital

The more than 100 licensed psychiatric attendant nurses of Pontiac State Hospital were feted at a ceremony in the hospital chapel.

To the organ music of Dr. Monica Toledo the attendants, in uniform, marched into the chapel. Members and friends were greeted by the local president of the Psychiatric Attendant Nurses Association of Michigan Mrs. Vernice Stratton.

Eugene Kipp, nursing supervisor of Mt. Pleasant Home and Training School was master of ceremonies. Rev. Theodore R. Allebach of the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church offered the invocation at the Thursday event.

Following a welcome address by Dr. Walter Obenauf, Ruth Mathwig and Phyllis McIlrath, registered nurses, spoke to the group.

Mrs. Ruby Eargle, director of nursing at Pontiac State Hospital, welcomed newly licensed attendants to the profession, and Mrs. Nellie Young, state president of PANAM, brought greetings from the group.

Rev. E. D. Johnson of First Church of God pronounced the benediction.

Mrs. Gertrude Ellis was refreshment committee chairman.

Avoid Gift That Is Personal

By the Emily Post Institute

Q. One of the young women with whom I work has gone out of her way on numerous occasions to do favors for me. I would like to show my appreciation by giving her a present at Christmas. She is single and I am married. Would this fact make the giving of a present improper? I don't want this gesture to be misconstrued by her or others in the office. Will you please give me your opinion?

A: I don't see how your kind intention could possibly be miscontrued as long as the present is not a personal one. Anything for her personal adornment would, of course, be very questionable.

* * *

Q: One of the young women in our office is to be married soon. The girls in the entire department will be giving her a shower and our immediate office will give her a wedding gift.

In accepting the invitation to her wedding and reception, will I be obliged to give her a separate wedding gift in addition to have contributed toward the one from the office?

A. If the others in your immediate office are invited to the wedding and reception, there is no obligation to send an additional gift. But if you are the only one she is inviting, she evidently considers you a special friend and, if you can afford it, a gift from you personally will surely please her.

* * *

Q: I am going to be married soon at a very small wedding with just the immediate families present. Many of my friends and relatives do, however, know of my forthcoming marriage.

I would like to know if wedding announcements should be sent to them anyway, or whether they are sent only to those who do not know of my marriage?

A: Correctly, wedding announcements are sent to all those who are not invited to the wedding.

Take a tip from President Kennedy and cushion an old-fashioned wooden rocker in buoyant foam rubber. It's one of the best household relaxers in the Jet Age.

Who said exercising was difficult? It looks like she's lying down until the urge to exercise goes away. Actually, she's stretching the spine—making herself as long as possible and "pushing" with the top of the head. This is good for the neckline.

To Keep Neck From Shrinking

You Can Stretch Spine

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

When I questioned one of the truly great teachers of physical education concerning what really happens to spoil the beauty of a woman's neckline, he reminded me that the spine shortens as one grows older and that this accounts for much of the slack. The neck settles and shortens.

He feels that the important thing is to stretch the spine. It is essential that you stand as tall and sit as tall and walk as tall as you possibly can. You should reach for the ceiling with the top of the head so that you feel the pull of the muscles at the back of the neck.

If you have a gymnasium nearby, try hanging from a horizontal bar, with your feet dangling. This helps stretch the spine.

The following exercises will be beneficial. Stnd tall or sit tall in front of a mirror. Keep your shoulders quiet and relaxed as you bend head toward your left shoulder. Hold for a few seconds.

Lift the head. This time bend it toward your right shoulder. Hold. Return to normal position. Now bend the head forward, bringing the chin close to the chest. Raise the head slowly and move the head backward. Return head to normal position and continue.-This loosens up the muscles.

* * *

Another for stretching the spine: Lie on your back on the floor, with your arms on the floor at your sides. Keep the head, shoulders and hips all on the floor as you try to make yourself as long as possible; keep trying, pushing back with the top of your head.

You will feel the pull through the neck. Work at this for a few seconds. Relax and continue.

There is no doubt that we should fight settling down and stiffening up physically as well as mentally and emotionally.

If you woud like to have my leaflet, "Is Your Chinline a Pain in the Neck&" send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 10. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Mary Ellen Turton Weds in Candlelight Ceremony

MRS. THOMAS L. WALLIS JR.

Before an altar banked with white pompons and carnations, Mary Ellen Turton became Mrs. Thomas L. Wallis Jr. Friday evening in a candlelight ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church. Rev. Galen E. Hershey officiated.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Coons of Fairfax Street, the bride chose princess-line white satin brocade styled with chapel train. The bodice featured a portrait neckline and fingertip sleeves. Silk illusion veiling caught by a jeweled crown, and a cascade of white roses and carnations completed her ensemble.

Wearing scoop-neck dresses of blue satin with white fur hats, the bridesmaids, Sara Ruff, Kay Butler and Judy Saincome, carried white fur muffs topped with red roses. Pink roses designated the maid of honor, Linda Baird.

ALSO IN PARTY

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Wallis of Omar Street, had Robert Winter for best man. James Wallis and David Ross ushered for their cousins with James Savage.

A gold blouse, hat and gloves accented the bride's black tweed suit worn for the Northern Michigan honeymoon. The couple will live in Drayton Plains.

Pink roses complemented Mrs. Coons' embossed pink and lavender silver brocade dress. Mrs. Wallis, in beige lace with gold hat and gloves, wore gold roses.

The Harry L. Turtons came from Escondido, Calif., for his sister's wedding.

SEW SIMPLE
By Eunice Farmer

This week's Tailor Trix winner is Mrs. R. H. Siervers, San Diego, Calif., who sent this idea.

"Stitching patch pockets with rounded corners to garment: Run a machine basting on seamline at corners and extending about 1 inch on either side. Gather slightly, thereby turning seam allowance to wrong side.

"Clip out excess fabric at corners and press entire seam allowance to wrong side. You are now assured perfect rounded corners and your pocket is ready to stitch to your garment."

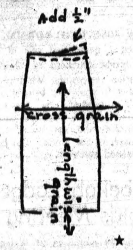
"Dear Mrs. Farmer,

"Will you please tell me how to adjust a skirt when one hip is a little higher than the other? Is it best to do this at the waist or hem?" Mrs. J.H.

Dear Mrs. J. H.:



Adjustments to your pattern for either the waistline or hips should be made in these respective places. The hemline must always be even with the cross-grain of the fabric as well as the lengthwise grain. In the case of one hip being higher than the other, you will add to both sides when cutting the garment, then cut the one side down to its original cutting line. Remember, this adjustment must be made to both front and the back of the same side.

★ ★ ★

"Dear Mrs. Farmer,

"Recently I made a cotton dress for myself in 4-H. I found out that I had a number of seams in my dress that were straight. My material had a selvage that was the same color as the material and made a neat seam. Should I have cut it off or wouldn't it have been perfectly all right if I used the selvage and clipped it every 6 inches?" Mrs. H.G.

Dear Miss H.G.:

The selvage may be used where the part of the pattern is cut straight. It is woven tighter than the rest of the fabric, however, and for this reason, must be clipped every inch to release any "pull" that might cause your seams to pucker.

★ ★ ★

WHICH WAY SHOULD NAP GO?

"Dear Mrs. Farmer,

"Would you please explain what is meant by the "nap" of the material. How can you tell which way the nap should go when cutting your material?" Mrs. D.B.

Dear Mrs. D.B.:

The "nap" of the fabric is the short fibers on the fabric that have been brushed in one direction. The nap on fabric of this nature should be smooth to the touch from the shoulder down. The important part to remember is that all pieces of the pattern must be cut in the same direction and in order to do this, you will usually need a little extra yardage.

With fabrics such as velvets, velveteen, and corduroy, while actually have a straight pile rather than a nap, the opposite rule applies. As you run your hand down on this type of fabric, it should feel rough to the touch. This will produce a deeper color, and also not flatten out as easily from sitting.

YOUR SEWING GLOSSARY:

Matelasse: A tyep of crepe, silk or synthetic, which has a arised or blistered effect. It is very new this season but requires a little extra care. This fabric could be easily stretched and must be handled and pressed carefully. Press over a turkish towel to avoid pressing out the raised effect.

Waterford PTA Units Will Meet

Four Waterford Township Parent-Teacher Associations have been reported convening tomorrow evening.

DONELSON

In conjunction with its regular PTA meeting, the Donelson School PTA will present an open house from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Teachers will greet parents visiting the children's class rooms. The programs will also feature the school's annual book fair in observance of National Book Week.

Mrs. Robert Clift has arranged a display of several hundred outstanding children's books which parents may browse through and order if they desire.

HUDSON COVERT

Beginning at 8 p.m., the Covert School will feature a book fair sponsored by the school's PTA. Books will be on display all this week and sales and orders will be taken at the school.

Each room will give a presentation and display concerning books they have been reading.

JAYNO ADAMS

The PTA meeting at Jayno Adams School on Thursday will be an open house. Rooms will be open for parents to visit and to examine their children's class work. Teachers will be on hand to explain their program.

★ ★ ★

Parents have been requested not to bring children to the meeting, as all rooms will be in use. The second grade class of Mrs. Florence Jencks, who currently is hospitalized, will observe open house at a later date.

ELIZA LEGGETT

Dr. Dodd E. Roberts, director of laungauge arts and education for the Board of Education, School District of Oakland County, will be guest speaker at 8 p.m. Thursday for the Eliza Leggett School open house which begins at 7:30.

"If He's Interested, Nothing Can Stop Him" will be Dr. Roberts discussion topic. A question and answere session will follow.

Vocal selections will be provided by Kathy Jackson. A business meeting will follow the program.

Church Unit Holds Luncheon Meeting

The Pilgrim Group of the First Congregational Church met for luncheon Friday at the home of Mrs. Norman Feet on Spokane Drive. Cohostesses were Mrs. Frank Allen, Mrs. Cora H. Cheal and Mrs. Lulu E. Ricamore.

Officers for the coming year are Mrs. Feet, president; Mrs. Lewis Cheal, first vice president; Mrs. Ivan Knight, second vice president; Mrs. Glenn Griffin, secretary and Mrs. Allen, Treasurer.

Mrs. Sidney Olson, Mrs. Amon Austin and Mrs. William Thomas, guests, joined the group sewing on bazaar linens. Devotions were read by Mrs. John Walls.

Gifts will be exchanged at a Christmas tea and meeting at the Sylvan Village home of Mrs. Leon F. Cobb.

Club Tells Winners

The Pontiac Bonneville Duplicate Bridge Club met Saturday evening at the Hotel Waldron with eight tables in play.

Winners were the Paul Van Roekels; David E. Utley and Henry Georgia; Dr. and Mrs. Edward F. Collins; the Clark Tellers; Mr. and Mrs. Ericson Lewis and Dr. and Mrs. Earl Lutz.

Grumbling Good Way to Blow Off Steam

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Her father-in-law had suffered a heart attack. Because his wife was too old to give him convalescent care, their daughter-in-law took them into her home until the invalid recoved.

She complained to me about the necessity of rearranging the down stairs floor when her youngster turned on a TV broadcast of a baseball game in the next room.

She called, "Turn that thing off!" -- and was obeyed. But we could both hear him grumbling something about this "yak-yak-yak again about grandpa."

"What was that you said?" his mother called. "Come in here and apologize — or go up to your room! The very idea of talking back like that to mother . . .!"

Yet for 30 minutes the lady herself had been grumbling about an obedience to family obligation that she didn't want to render.

If we were able to wholeheartedly indulge other people's demands on us, we would be entitled to demand unprotesting obedience from children. We can't and we don't. We, too, grumble at having to deliver obedience.

Although we appear in court for a traffic violation, we mutter to anyone who will listen, "Having to take time like this off from my business because a cop is too dumb to listen . . .!"

Although we lend Bill the $3 he asks for, we say, "Why do you always ask for cash at the end of the week when you know I'm short?"

TAKE ON JOBS

We accept the chairmanship of a PTA committee; but when we get home we complain, "It's just like Fran Pearce to saddle me with this extra work when I'm trying to get the rugs down and the drapes back up for the winter."

In us, as in children, this grumbling back talk serves a useful purpose. It enables us to withstand the strains involved in doing our duty.

If this release of protesting feelings were denied to us, we'd find it even harder than we do to manage our social existence.

So it behooves us to ignore it in children — and content ourselves with the fact of their obedience.

It's only tyrants or romantics who expect other people to obey them with pure and unprotesting gladness.

Educator Speaks at Meeting of Business Women

The Waterford-Clarkston Business and Professional Women's Club members attended a recent dinner meeting at the Hotel Waldron.

Mrs. H. A. Mitchell, career advancement chairman, introduced Steve Hubbell, vocational coordinator at Waterford Township High School. He discussed the work of his department and commented on the recent Career Day at the school.

Inis McClard of Clarkston, recipient of the club's current scholarship, gave details of her college work at Michigan State University Oakland.

Members will bring gifts for the girls at the Oakland County Youth Home to the annual Christmas party at the Hatchery Road home of Mrs. Edmund L. Windeler.

Mrs. Mitchell, hostess for the evening, was assisted by Florence Schlosser and Mrs. Windeler.

BONNIE SUE NEWBY

January vows are planned by Bonnie Sue Newby, daughter of the Walter J. Newbys of North Avalon Drive to Airman 3.C. Gary L. Barger, son of the Lowell Bargers of North Paddock Street.

Congregational Unit Elects New Officers

Mrs. William Miller was elected president of the Saybrook group of the First Congregational church Friday. At the luncheon meeting held at the home of Mrs. Grady Smith on Colrain Drive other officers elected were Mrs. James Cheal, vice president; Mrs. Willis Ott, recording secretary; Mrs. Forest Bouck, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Jack Moore, treasurer.

PTA Unit Sets Panel Program

Walled Lake Council Sponsors Discussion on School Planning

WALLED LAKE — A panel discussion on "School Program Planning" will be sponsored by the Walled Lake Council of Parent-Teacher Associations Tuesday at the Walled Lake Senior High.

The five-member panel will be moderated by Margaret Tuttle, assistant principal of the Larned School in Detroit and formerly a teacher in the Walled Lake school system.

Presenting their views on programming will be Supt. Clifford B. Smart; Julian Beals, school board member; Mrs. William Duckwitz, English and Journalism teacher at the senior high; and Mrs. William Murray, representing the lay group.

The 8 p. m. program, a phase of the Michigan Schools study originated by the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers three years ago, will cover total school programming, including curriculum, administration, teaching staff, buildings and counseling.

QUESTION SESSION

The panel discussion will be followed by a 20-minute "buzz session" to allow the audience to split up into small groups to formulate questions that will be directed to the members of the panel.

The council is covering this phase of the state-wide study as a pattern for local PTA program planning, according to Mrs. Watson Stringer, program chairman.

She said presidents from a number of other councils in Oakland County will attend the meeting to get a preview of this portion of the study.

Mrs. Edward Beaupre, council president, has urged all members of local PTA to attend the discussion as well as the general public.

Rochester Elks Thanksgiving Dance Saturday

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Elks will hold a Thanksgiving dance Saturday from 9 to 1 a.m. at the Elks Temple, Third and Walnut streets.

* * *

Music will be provided by Bob Smith and his Rythmaries.

Dance Chairman Allen Bartlebaugh asks those planning to attend to call him or a member of his committee and register. On his committee are Robert Width, Lee McCatter and Edward Fliss.

The local order is seeking donations of new or used playing cards for its "Elks Cards for the Handicapped Month" project which is now in progress.

Top quality decks fill be brailled for the blind and others will be sent to veterans hospitals and other institutions.

State Elks President Frank Clancy will pay his annual visit to Rochester Thursday when initiation of new members will take place. Refreshments will be served from 5:30 to 8 p.m. and dinner from 6 to 7 p.m. at the temple.

Elected to Health Unit

GOODRICH — Claude Zimmerman of 10486 Thayer Road, Groveland Township, has been elected to the board of the Community Health Foundation of Goodrich.

MUTUAL ADMIRATION—School crossing guard Grant Mapley has made a lot of friends among the youngsters in Oxford since he began guiding them across the busy intersection of Dennison and South Washington streets about 10 years ago. He is pictured here with one of his fondest admirers, Kathleen Fritch, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fritch, 30 Mill St.

Oxford's 'Gramps' Loved by One and All

By LEE WINBORN
Area News Editor

OXFORD — If a man can be called an institution, Grant Mapley is one in Oxford.

For almost 10 years Officer Mapley has been guiding school children across the busy intersection of Dennison and South Washington streets three times a day.

He is a familiar figure on his corner, known alike to drivers of large gravel trucks on their way to and from the American Aggregates Corp., north of town, and the youngsters, most of whom he calls by name.

Mapley's job is not unlike that of other school crossing guards but for a man his age it can be quite taxing, especially when the rain is coming down in torrents or the temperature dips nearly to zero.

75 ON CHRISTMAS

Mapley will be 75 "Christmas morning."

His fondness for children is understandable for, as he says, he raised eight of his own, six of whom are still living, and although most of them are grown now, he still likes to be around youngsters.

And the youngsters feel that warmth and count "Gramps" as one of their special friends.

Also enthusiastic about Mapley and the job he is doing are members of the board of education, administrative staff and teachers.

"The kids love him and when he first started helping them across the street, we immediately realized what a valuable man we had working for the village," said Board President Ted Pearson Jr.

NO IDLE HOURS

A member of the regular village police force, Mapley is on the job about five hours a day, five days a week. When he retired as sales manager for the Oakland Baking Co. in Pontiac in 1951 after 28 years in business, he thought he would have many hours of idleness on his hands.

It wasn't long, however, before two councilmen came to his door and asked him to take the school guard's job.

"I didn't even have an application in, and they hired me on the spot," Mapley said. He added that he also directs traffic for all the home high school football games and for all village parades.

Married 53 years Nov. 7, Mapley and his wife Mabel, 69, make their home in an apartment at 53 W. Burdick St. They now have 26 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

"Youngsters keep us young," they both declare.

Art Sale Saturday Set for Clarkston

CLARKSTON — The second annual Christmas Art Sale, sponsored by the Village Friends of Art, will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday at the old Methodist Church at Buffalo and Church streets.

All works submitted are by area artists and will include water color, pastels, oils, charcoal, metal work and ceramics.

Featured highlight of the day will be an art auction at 1 p.m. on the church grounds. In case of inclement weather, the sale will be held in the church parlors.

Southfield Couple Burned by Boiling Candle Wax

SOUTHFIELD — Thomas Brill, 31, and his wife, Patricia, 27, were burned yesterday when a pot of wax for Christmas candles boiled over on the stove.

Brill told firemen he was melting the wax in the kitchen of their home at 20576 Mada St. when it suddenly boiled over. He said when he tried to throw the boiling liquid out the back door, it spattered on him and his wife.

Mrs. Brill's pajamas caught fire and her husband put out the flame with his bare hands. Both were taken to William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, where they were treated and released.

Brill had burns on his right hand and hip, and his wife had serious burns over 10 per cent of her body. sc

Clarkston Pastor Moving to Lapeer

CLARKSTON — Rev. Clifford H. Haskins, pastor of Sashabaw United Presbyterian Church, has announced that he will be leaving his parish at the end of this month to become pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Lapeer.

Rev. and Mrs. Haskins arrived in Clarkston in December 1957. He has served on the Independence Township Library Board and has taken part in various school and community activities.

Feb. 5 Ballot to Decide 3 Recent Amendments

ORION TOWNSHIP — The township board last night set Feb. 5 as the date for a special vote to decide the fate of three of its recent rezoning amendments.

The referendum was petitioned by some 900 eligible property owners along Indianwood Road near the Artco plant where the three parcels of residential land were rezoned for industrial use by the board Sept. 19.

The land totals about 94 acres.

* * *

According to statements by Wesley B. Allen, vice president of the nonprofit Lake Orion Area Industrial Development Corp., at the Sept. 19 board meeting, the site was the only one available for new industry in the township.

Members of the Northwest Orion Homeowners Association, which represents most of the residents there, protested the rezoning, claiming that the new industry would lower their property values, increase traffic and smoke.

L. R. Bebout, township attorney, decided to allow only property owners to vote in the referendum after he discovered and investigated an inconsistent wording in the state law governing such elections.

The law states that both property owners and the general electorate are to decide a referendum issue. Bebout reasoned that property owners alone should vote on the basis of the intent of prior election laws.

In other business last night, the board reappointed Scherly Green, 3468 Gregory Road, to the township zoning board. Green, who has been on the board for the past four years, will serve for five more years.

The township board denied a rezoning request by Harry Paul of Huntington Woods, to have a parcel of residential land on West Clarkston Road between Pontiac and Orion drives rezoned industrial.

The County Planning Commission disapproved of the change as spot zoning and the board followed their recommendation.

Two Teen-Agers to Be Honored at Union Lake

UNION LAKE — A teen-age boy and girl will be honored tomorrow by the Union Lake Optimist Club in recognition of their contributions to the community.

* * *

The pair, not yet named, will be crowned king and queen in observance of National Youth Appreciation Week (Nov. 13-18).

The awards will be presented at a 7:30 p.m. ceremony at Dobski's Lounge.

Candidates for the titles have been selected by area schools, churches and service organizations. Requests for nominees were mailed to 16 organizations, asking that they select one outstanding boy and girl.

* * *

Character, citizenship and leadership will be the basis in the judging and selection of the two young people, according to Jack Leahy, chairman of the Optimist Club's youth committee.

MD 'Fighters' to Stage March

To Ask Funds for War on Muscular Dystrophy in Porch Light Drive

Marchers for the Muscular Dystrophy Association of America Inc., (MDAA) will culminate a month-long fund raising campaign Dec. 5 with a door-to-door solicitation throughout Oakland County.

The porch light drive from 7 to 9 p.m. will be part of a nationwide campaign. Money raised during the two-hour period will provide a year of care for patients.

With donations MDAA also contributes over 100 foreign grants and aids and operates the $5-million laboratory complex in New York City, the Institute for Muscle Disease, where MD and other neuromuscular disorders are studied.

In addition, the association supports clinics at Detroit Memorial Hospital and at St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, and cares for some 50 persons with muscular dystrophy in Oakland County.

All patients, regardless of financial condition, race or religion, are given complete care, including transportation, by the association.

Women Voters Set Rochester Meeting

ROCHESTER —The Rochester League of Women Voters will meet tonight to iron out recommendations for a tax program to be submitted to the state league for action by the constitutional convention.

The chapter will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the Municipal Building, 400 Sixth St.

Nat Simons, assistant professor of economics at Michigan State University, Oakland has spoken to the Rochester league about tax problems to be faced at con-con.

Lion Grid Star to Be Speaker at Church Dinner

WALLED LAKE — Earl Morrall, Detroit Lion's quarterback, will be the guest speaker Nov. 30 at a dinner meeting of the Men's Club of the Walled Lake Methodist Church.

The regular meeting which had been scheduled for tomorrow has been postponed until the end of the month to allow the football star to speak to the group.

Sons and daughters of members will be guests of the organization at the dinner which begins at 6:30 p.m., according to Cecil Morgan, program chairman.

Reservations for the dinner can be made by contacting Robert Philp of 1184 Wanda St.

Rochester Ups Water Inspection, Tap-In Fees

ROCHESTER — Inspection and tap-in fees for water and sewer service are up, Village Manager Paul York announced yesterday.

* * *

At its Monday meeting, the Village Council passed a new schedule of fees for the installation and maintenance of the lines and revised present methods of inspection.

York pointed out that the changes affect only water systems being put in or those being changed.

The council voted to tear down the old grandstands at Halbach Field, Woodward Avenue at Oak Street. York said the stands were unsafe.

* * *

In addition, the council approved paying 50 per cent of all employes' health insurance. Now village employes pay their own, he said.

Educator Assn. to Meet Thursday

The first Association for Childhood Education dinner meeting for the 1961-62 season will be held tomorrow at Kimball High School in Royal Oak.

* * *

Following the 6:15 dinner hour, Dr. D. L. McKinney, principal of Youth Home School, Detroit, will address the group. His topic will be "Confusion of Today's Values—Our Responsibility." A discussion period will follow.

* * *

Membership in ACE is comprised of elementary educators from 22 suburban areas in Southern Oakland County.

DISCUSS CIVIL DEFENSE—Dr. Edgar J. Geist Jr. (left), chairman of the Northeast Oakland County Civil Defense Council, reviews the problems that must be solved by schools in event of a nuclear attack with William Bishop, president of the Elmwood PTA, and Mrs. George Dill, president of the Avondale area PTA Council. Dr. Geist spoke to 50 members of the council at Elm wood School last night. He stressed that parents, teachers and administrators must formulate some type of plan that would offer protection and evacuation for children while at school.

Utica Resident Jailed, Fined

Convicted With 2 Others of Preseason Hunting Violations in UP

CEDARVILLE (AP)—Three men have been clapped in jail by an Upper Peninsula justice of the peace for hunting law violations—and they'll stay there for the full deer hunting season.

* * *

In fact, they'll be in jail for about 15 days beyond the season.

All three also were fined $85 each and ordered to pay court costs of $15, making an even $100 penalty apiece.

Justice George Anderson imposed the penalties on Donald Evans, 33, of Cedarville; William LaLonde, 34, of DeTour, and Charles Holbrook, 31, of 11367 Shilling St., Utica.

Their jail terms are for 30 days. They have been placed in the Mackinac County Jail at St. Ignace. The deer season started today and runs until Nov. 30.

LaLonde and Holbrook were convicted Monday of shining deer. Evans, in a separate case, was convicted of carrying a loaded rifle in his car. All were arrested in Clark Township of Mackinac County, known as a good deer hunting area.

Avondale High Band Sporting New Uniforms

The Avondale High School Band sports brand new uniforms now thanks to the combined efforts of the board of education, the Avondale Band Boosters Club and the community.

The new navy blue uniforms, trimmed with gold and white, were worn for the first time at the Rochester-Avondale football game.

700 Principals to Meet

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—The 40th annual conference of the Michigan Association of Secondary School Principals will be attended by some 700 principals at Grand Rapids Nov. 29-Dec. 1. The association is a department of the Michigan Education Association.

Four Panels to Highlight Seminar at Tamarack

GROVELAND TOWNSHIP — Four faculty panels will highlight Wayne State University's 14th semiannual weekend seminar beginning here Friday at Camp Tamarack.

Dr. Richard Bedford, assistant professor of English; Dr. Kuei-Sheng Chang, assistant professor of geography; and Dr. Frank Hartung, associate professor of sociology and anthropology, will discuss "Students at Wayne and Elsewhere."

Speaking on "Arts and Magazines" will be Dr. Donald N. Jobes, English instructor; Philip G. Fike, assistant professor of art; and William D. Snodgrass, assistant professor of English and a Pulitzer Prize winner.

"Ideas and Movements" will be discussed by Rev. Malcolm Boyd, Episcopal chaplain; Dr. Broadus Butler, assistant to the dean of the college of liberal arts; Martin Orans, assistant professor of social science; Dr. Robert E. Childs, professor of law; and Dr. David Herreshoff, English instructor.

The fourth panel will summarize the findings of the other panels. It will include Dr. Werner D. Falk, associate professor of philosophy; Otto Feinstein, assistant professor, science of society; Dr. Perry Schelnik, assistant professor in mathematics; and Dr. Horace J. Weiss, assistant professor in history.

* * *

Dr. Leo Stoller, assistant professor of English, will moderate all the panels. The program is sponsored by the Student-Faculty Council.

In addition to the formal panels, there also will be coffee hours and discussions, the traditional faculty-student volleyball game and other sports.

Stowell-Hebner Vows Told

Wed in Evening Ceremony

ROCHESTER — Wearing the same gown of ivory white satin her mother had worn over 20 years ago, Carole Elaine Hebner exchanged her nuptial vows with Harold Russell Stowell Saturday evening in St. John Lutheran Church.

Rev. Richard Schiect performed the candlelight ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Hebner of 148 Arizona Ave. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stowell of 322 Second St.

The bride's gown featured a chapel train, fitted bodice with a sweetheart neckline, and long sleeves ending in points over her hands.

Her silk illusion veiling fell from a crown of pearls and rhinestones, and she carried a cascade arrangement of white feather chrysanthemums, roses and stephanotis.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Judith Rammler.

Lawrence Stowell of Pontiac assisted his brother as best man while Westley Hall and Charles Johnson of Pontiac seated the guests.

A reception was held in the church hall following the rites. The bride's parents also received guests at their home the same evening after which the newlyweds left on a motor trip.

Fewest Strikes in Past Sixteen Years

Goldberg Likes Present Labor Picture as He Sees It

BY RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON — Labor Secretary Arthur Goldberg has taken an appraising look at his sometimes troubled domain and pronounced it good.

Ten months after the Democratic party regained control of the executive branch, Goldberg is pointing with pardonable pride to a vast realm of industrial peace.

"Strikes are at their lowest point since the end of World War II," he asserts, "We now have fewer strikes than America has known in 16 years."

The automobile shut-downs for which the nation had girded itself virtually failed to materialize. Major transportation tieups in the tugboat industry and the Southern Pacific railroad were prevented, and airlines strikes have been at least temporarily postponed.

This correspondent asked the labor secretary to explain the phenomenon, and with a pleased grin he replied:

★ ★ ★

"Let's give credit to the favorable climate in this administration. There's a good feeling that all we did in the automobile negotiations was to give helpful suggestions, and not to interfere. It will be fine if the same condition can carry over into the steel bargaining."

★ ★ ★

Goldberg foresees "over-all industrial peace for a considerable period ahead." The only trouble spot on his immediate horizon is the threatened airlines strike at Christmas time, but the secretary hopes all unions and carriers involved can be "resonable."

STEEL TALKS JULY 1

No major labor contracts expire until next July 1, when the steel industry will take center stage. Goldberg wants management and union leaders to sit down together long before then to agree on a peaceable renewal.

"Both sides have a tremendous responsibility to work out a sensible policy," he said. "The last thing we want is a big artificial inventory build-up like we had in the steel industry two years ago, and then a long decline."

Goldberg, a former top counsel for the AFL-CIO has chalked up a remarkably good record as a mediator since joining the New Frontier cabinet.

He is given credit for almost single-handedly bringing peace to the embattled Metropolitan Opera House, after union wage demands had threatened to darken the stage for the season.

The Kennedy administration has recently begun to pay heed to mounting charges that it was anti-business. President Kennedy, who will speak before the AFL-CIO National Convention in Miami Beach Dec. 7, has abruptly accepted an invitation to address the 66th annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers in New York the day before.

Goldberg professes to read no significance into this about-face from previous presidential activities, although JFK had refused earlier in the year to address the chamber of commerce.

The labor secretary insists that industrial peace has not been won at the expense of inflationary price rises.

He said the settlements have been "moderate, reflecting increased productivity." He added that although figures on productivity will not be ready for release until early in January, they will show "a sharp rise."

TOPIC IS RETRAINING

Goldberg feels confident that the new Congress will approve the administration request for a four-year retraining program for workers replaced by automation.

Already passed by the Senate, the bill is now in the House Rules Committee.

The legislation would provide special courses and vocational school training not only for displaced older workers, but also for the bumper crop of so-called "war babies" who are now beginnig to swell the labor market.

Of one thing Goldberg is certain. Says he flatly: "We've come out of the recession."

Earthquake Rocks S. California Cities

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A fairly heavy earthquake rolled through Southern California Tuesday night jolting a number of cities. There were no reports of damage.

The quake was centered 110 miles northwest of Pasadena, possibly in Kern County, reported Dr. Charles Richter, Cal Tech seismologist. It was strong enough to cause moderate damage within a small area, he said.

It was felt in Bakersfield, Santa Barbara, Downey, Pasadena, Santa Monica, Hollywood, Culver City, Northridge, Alhambra, San Diego and other communities.

Cubans Visit Mrs. K

MOSCOW (AP)—A delegation of Cuban women, visiting the Soviet Union at the invitation of the Soviet Women's Committee, met Nina Khrushchev, wife of the Soviet premier, and members of the committee Tuesday, the Soviet news agency Tass reported.

Nervous Finland Races Into Elections

HELSINKI (AP)—Finland today headed into a period of feverish political activity with three elections scheduled within a month in an effort to ward off defense talks with the Soviet Union.

President Urho Kekkonen dissolved Parliament Tuesday and moved up the date for parliamentary elections from July 2 to Feb. 4-5 in answer to a demand by the Soviet Union for assurance that Finland would maintain their friendly relations with it.

Three hundred electors for the presidential elections are to be chosen by voters Jan. 15-16. The electors will name a new president Feb. 15 and he will take office March 1.

Had Kekkonen not advanced the parliamentary election date, the new president would have been faced with a four-month period of political instability until a new government with parliamentary support could take office. The government submits its resignation when a new president starts his term.

DEMANDS ASSURANCES

A government communique said the Soviet Union had informed Finland that unless assurances of friendly relations were given, it would persist in its Oct. 30 demand for joint defense talks.

The Russians had contended that West Germany posed a threat to the safety of both Finland and the Soviet Union.

★ ★ ★

The decision by the president, made in a meeting with the Agrarian party minority cabinet of Premier Matti Miettinen, came after Foreign Minister Ahti Kajkalainen reported on his weekend mission to Moscow to discuss the Oct. 30 Soviet note.

★ ★ ★

A Foreign Ministry communique said Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko told Kajkalainen the U.S.S.R. had "not the slightest intention of intervening in Finland's domestic position" but "the political situation in Finland had become uncertain."

Road Equipment Ready for Use at First Snow

LANSING (AP)—A task force of more than 1,000 pieces of snow fighting equipment stands ready to tackle winter's first snowfall when it blankets Michigan's 9,400 miles of state highways.

Highway Department officials said the equipment—valued at more than $20 millions—ready to go at a moment's notice. It is owned by the state, counties and cities.

About $5.5 million is spent each winter for snow removal, said J. F. Oravec, department maintenance operations engineer. He added:

★ ★ ★

"The cost of snow removal on state highways is small when compared to economic losses the state would suffer if we did not keep our highways free of snow and ice."

Crosstown Grid Rivals Ready for Friday Night Clash

Restless Feeling in PCH Camp as Game With PNH Nears

By BILL CORNWELL

Paul Dellerba has that restless, uneasy feeling.

★ ★ ★

His Pontiac Central football team is a solid choice to defeat intracity rival Northern this Friday night at Wisner Stadium and he looks upon the favorite's role with fear and apprehension.

Dellerba himself has not seen the Huskies play during the 1961 campaign, but PCH scouting reports confirm his belief that PNH will be ready, willing and more than able.

"I haven't seen them play this year so I don't really know just how good they are," Dellerba said, "but any time a team wins six out of eight games, it must be doing a lot of things right."

"Besides, when two city rivals face each other, past performances and records go out the window," Dellerba continued, "anything can happen and everyone who follows football knows that."

Ed Heikkinen's Huskies have a better season record (6-2), but PCH has waded through some of Michigan's strongest outfits during the '61 Saginaw Valley Conference schedule while compiling a 3-4-1 mark.

All four PCH losses have come at the hands of Valley squads who were or still are ranked among the state's top 10 Class A grid powers — Valley champion Bay City Handy, runnerup Midland, Flint Central and Bay City Central.

Pontiac's victories were scored at the expense of Flint Southwestern, Flint Northern and Saginaw High. The Chiefs and Arthur Hill tied, 13-13.

The Chiefs have won their last two outings and they can break even for the season by conquering Northern. A 50-50 year will be their goal.

Pontiac Central was host at Wisner last year when the two crosstown foes met on the gridiron for the first time and the Chiefs rolled to a 54-14 triumph. PCH is the "visitor" this time.

A victory over PNH would conclude a satisfactory season for the Chiefs after a dismal beginning which found them losing three of the first four games. They've made a gallant effort to "rescue" the campaign by winning three of their last four contests, the last two in succession.

The mainstay of the PCH aggregation is senior halfback Roy Couser, a 150-pound speedster with toothpick-thin legs who goes both ways and does consistently outstanding work.

Not a spectacular performer, Couser is nevertheless the "bread-and-butter" runner on offense and the "heart" of the defensive secondary where he has been a steady standout, either breaking up or intercepting passes and returning one interception for a touchdown.

Offensively, he's the leading scorer on the club with six touchdowns for 36 points. He's also been the workhorse of the attack, carrying the ball 128 times for a total of 560 yards, an average of 4.3 yards per carry. In addition, he's the top pass receiver with six catches for 85 yards.

Although Couser is the team's No. 1 rusher, the Huskies also will have to keep their eyes on halfbacks Charley Humphrey and Jesse Hodge, a couple of juniors who have been pleasant surprises for Dellerba this year.

Humphrey, who did not start on offense in the season opener, has picked up 187 yards in 55 carries and tallied two TDs. Hodge, who never carried the ball until midseason, has gained 266 yards in 50 tries while scoring once. Against Saginaw he made 205 yards in 36 rushes.

The Chiefs boast more beef and more experience in the forward wall, spearheaded by 225-pound center Tom Eichhorn, 180-pound guard Wayne Lee, 200-pound tackle Dick Richards and veteran ends Elick Shorter and Milford Hillie, who scale 200 and 195, respectively.

Defensively, the Chiefs have been fairly sound, but their attack often has lacked punch. They gave their best offensive performance of the year against Saginaw and Southwestern.

Bob Pomeroy, a 190-pound senior, directs Central's T-formation attack and he's actually a better quarterback than the record would indicate. He's a fine ball handler, a good passer with two TD tosses to his credit and also kicks off and boots extra points. Pomeroy has converted six times.

Dellerba put his gridders through hard, head-knocking drills Monday and Tuesday, but began tapering off today. Starting time Friday is 8 p. m.

CHIEF THREAT — A strong running threat for Pontiac Central this week against Northern will likely be Jesse Hodge. He has come along fast in late season games.

Homecoming of Sorts for Iowans Saturday

Visit Ann Arbor Victory-Starved After 3 Losses

State Plans Air Attack Against Northwestern; Michigander Top 'Cat

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Saturday will mark a homecoming of sorts for several members of the Iowa football troupe, but Forest Evashevski, Jerry Burns and Co. hadn't better count on a warm welcome.

They can expect a cold, stiff shoulder from Michigan, which currently has a not-at-all-disgraceful 5-2 record and needs this victory to assure itself of surpassing the 5-4 mark it compiled in 1960.

A win over the Hawkeyes, in the first meeting of the two teams since 1958, would also assure U-M coach Bump Elliott of his best record in three years of Big Ten competition.

The Wolverines won three and lost four conference games in 1959 and again in 1960. They could at least break even in 1961 by whipping Iowa in the next-to-last game of the year.

Unbeaten Ohio State, sharing the conference lead with Minnesota, closes out the season here Nov. 25.

Iowa got off to a fast start by winning its first four games but now has dropped three in a row.

The squad that troubled Burns brings here will have a strong Michigan flavor. Former Michigan great Evashevski, of course, is the Iowa athletic director and Burns himself is a U-M graduate who played football but never got above reserve status.

Other Michigan graduates on the coaching staff are assistants Bob Flora and Archie Kodros. Backfield coach Andy McDonald is a Central Michigan University alumnus who once coached high school ball in Flint, and nine members of the Iowa team are Michigan products.

Conversely, Elliott served seven years (1952-58) as an assistant coach under Evashevski at Iowa before he was named to the head coaching job at Michigan.

The Wolverines came through the Illinois game without serious injuries and are expected to be in top shape for the Hawkeyes. They may even regain the services of tackle Jon Schopf and linebacker Ken Tureaud, who have been out two and three weeks respectively with injuries.

Bill Tunnicliff, the starting fullback, re-injured his ankle on U-M's first play from scrimmage at Champaign and returned for only a few plays later. But he wasn't needed as defensive specialist Paul Raeder filled in and scored two of the Wolverines' five touchdowns.

EAST LANSING (AP) — Northwestern will use a recruit from Michigan as its main weapon in the Big Ten football meeting with Michigan State here Saturday.

Coach Duffy Daugherty, meanwhile, says the Spartans will have to take to the air to end their two-game losing streak.

Best Wildcat runner is Bill Swingle, a fullback from Grand-Haven who has netted 435 yards at better than six yards a carry. The 193-pounder tops his teammates although he missed two games this season because of injuries.

"I guess Michigan and Michigan State just overlooked him," said Northwestern advanceman Walter Paulison of the sophomore back.

"We're going to have to throw," said Daugherty yesterday of his game plans. "A lot of teams have no respect for our passing game and have been gambling with us. I figure Northwestern, too, is going to concentrate on stopping our running game.

"We haven't got the balanced attack that you need when they gang up to stop your running," Daugherty admitted.

Daugherty also has been rehearsing some new running plays. Daugherty planned to start his senior backs—Smith at quarter, Carl Charon and Gary Ballman at the halves and Ron Hatcher at fullback.

Fetzer Takes Control of All Tiger Stock

DETROIT (UPI) — John E. Fetzer, by virtue of purchasing the one-third minority interest from the Knorr Broadcasting Co., was today the sole owner of the Detroit Tigers.

The purchase price for the stock of the Bengals, who finished a surprising second in the American League pennant race last year, was not revealed, but it was estimated at about $1.75 million. The purchase was announced yesterday.

The late Fred A. Knorr was one of Fetzer's partners in the syndicate which purchased the Tigers from the W. O. Briggs estate in 1956. Knorr died last December.

Fetzer purchased the stock from Fred A. Knorr, president of the Knorr Co.

The transaction gives Fetzer ownership of all stock in the Detroit Baseball Co., with the exception of an incidental minority upon which he hold an option to buy.

Fetzer, contacted at his winter home in Tucson, Ariz., said the deal was made to guarantee continued smooth operations at Tiger Stadium, home of the Bengals.

"The complications of baseball are such that it is extremely difficult to administer the affairs and activities of a club by group ownership," he said. "A team should be run by one autonomous individual who has the authority to make decisions and expedite them when it is required."

Fetzer, who is president of the Fetzer Broadcasting Co., with nine radio-television outlets, was a key figure in the group that paid $5.5 million for the Tigers and their properties five years ago.

He steadily purchased controlling interest of the club and was named president in October 1960.

Hornung Gone, Packers Talk 'Deals'

By The Associated Press

Paul Hornung, most prolific scorer in National Football League history, is back in the Army and his recall may not only weaken the Green Bay Packers but force them into an unofficial "deal" with the rival American League.

That stormy development became a possibility Tuesday when reports from widely separated sections of the country revealed:

1. Hornung, the Packers' triple threat halfback who holds the NFL scoring record and is the leading point-maker this season, will not be issued weekend passes from Ft. Riley, Kan., and will be unavailable for Green Bay's stretch drive toward a second straight Western Conference title.

2. The Packers, decimated by army call-ups and a key injury to their lone remaining kicker, are trying to swing what amounts to a "deal" for Ben Agajanian, now the property of the Dallas Texans of the AFL.

3. Agajanian, 41-year-old veteran of the NFL, AFL and long-ago defunct All-America Conference, admitted he had worked out with the Packers in Green Bay last week and planed to do so again Thursday, with the full consent of the Texans.

4. It was learned that only the refusal of rookie quarterback Val Keckin, a member of the Packers' taxi squad, to join the Texans has held up the "transaction."

Actually, deals between the rival leagues are not permitted. One league may sign a player after he has been waived out of the other league, however.

Hornung's loss became official Tuesday when he reached Ft. Riley and checked into the army base or at least a one-year tour of duty. An army spokesman said that no weekend passes will be issued to the former Notre Dame football great, or anyone else in his company.

Hornung, whose case has been highly publicized, said he was glad to be at Ft. Riley, but had no other comment. A private, Hornung was assigned as driver of a light truck and radio operator.

Meanwhile, the Packers, leading the western race with a 7-2 record, were set to start sophomore Tom Moore in Hornung's halfback post. They were minus a kicking specialist because of an ankle injury that has sidelined guard Jerry Kramer and were casting covetous glances toward Agajanian. Green Bay plays at home against Los Angeles Sunday.

Hornung, the third member of the Packers tapped for military duty—linebacker Ray Nitschke is serving at Fort Lewis, Wash., and flanker Boyd Dowler is due to report soon—had scored 10 touchdowns, kicked 12 of 17 field goal attempts and 34 consecutive conversions. He leads the NFL scorers with 130 points. He also was the leading NFL scorer the last two seasons, setting a record of 176 points last season.

Neither the Packers nor the Texans will admit the transaction is a trade, but it was reported the Texans are ready to obtain AFL waivers on Agajanian if they can get the player they want from Green Bay. AFL waivers would clear Agajanian to sign with Green Bay.

Keckin has balked and although he is carried on the Packers' payroll he is not a member of the official 36-player roster and the NFL technically lists him as a free agent eligible to sign with any club of his choice.

Wings Start 6-Game Trip

Abel Is Worried About Team's Poor Playing on Foreign Ice

CHICAGO (AP) — The home-loving Detroit Red Wings start their longest road trip of the season tonight against their Stanley Cup finals rivals of last April, the Chicago Black Hawks.

The Wings, evicted from Detroit's Olympia by an ice show, will play six road games before returning home Nov. 30.

Worrying coach Sid Abel is the Wings' futility on the road. Only one of Detroit's five victories was recorded on foreign ice.

Instead of battling for the Stanley Cup, this time the Wings and Hawks will be scrambling for the National Hockey League's fourth place.

Detroit holds fourth by two points over the Black Hawks.

The Stanley Cup champion Hawks haven't been able to get untracked this season. They've won only three of 15 games. Their two meetings with the Red Wings—both in the first week of the season—ended in ties.

The Wings played their finest game Sunday night at Detroit in shutting out the first-place Montreal Canadiens 3-0. But the night before they were at Toronto and turned in their worst game, losing 5-1.

The Red Wings will go from here to Toronto for this Saturday night's game and then play a Boston Sunday.

Falcon Mascot of Air Force Gone From Cage

ALAMEDA, Calif. (AP) — One of the falcon mascots the Air Force Academy football team brought along to Berkeley last Saturday has disappeared, the Air Force revealed Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

The Air Force said it had not the faintest notion what happened to the bird.

The Air Force academy brought five falcons and handlers to the California game, which it won, 15-14, then parked the mascots at the Alameda Air Station.

The air station was concerned about the Falcon's health, just in case it fell into the hands of someone not familiar with its eating tastes. Hamburger makes it ill and if it quits eating, it's only a matter of five days before it will die.

AP Grid Picker Has Own Forecasting Woe

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market averages keep going up and up. The college football forecasting averages keep going down and down. Will the twain ever meet? Last week's AP selections averaged 73% (44 correct, 16 wrong).

This week's picks:

Texas over Texas Christian: It is TCU's turn to stage another of the many upsets that dot this venerable series but the 1951 Longhorns are not that complacent.

Alabama over Georgia Tech: Tech has vowed to defeat every team that whipped the Engineers last year and that includes Alabama. It won't be a cakewalk but Alabama's defense is too rugged.

Ohio State over Oregon: Bob Ferguson will make the West Coast team wish it had declined the invitation to visit the Midwest.

Louisiana State over Mississippi State: Jerry Stovall and Wendell Harris hit with the best and will decide the issue.

Minnesota over Purdue: Sandy Stephens never fires that ball until he sees the white in the eyes of his receivers. Purdue already has engineered two upsets this season and that's enough for one year.

Mississippi over Tennessee: That defeat by LSU taught the Rebels you must play football to win in the SEC.

★ ★ ★

Pittsburgh over Southern California: Jim Traficant's passing will startle the Trojans.

Colorado over Nebraska: The Buffaloes, with their eyes on the Orange Bowl, will make amends for their startling loss to Utah.

Michigan State over Northwestern: The Spartan offense, held to six points in the last two outings, gets back into high gear with George Saimes.

Syracuse over Notre Dame: The Orangemen have made this game a crusade. Ernie Davis breaks loose with a bang.

Missouri over Kansas State: With the Orange Bowl designation still open, the Missourians will turn loose all their power.

UCLA over Washington: Washington has been the coast conference champion for the past two years. This year it will be UCLA.

Maryland over Wake Forest: Norman Snead will be missed by the Deacons while Gary Collins will star for Maryland.

Arkansas over Southern Methodist: The Porkers have skidded but still are strong enough to handle the Mustangs.

Without comment: Arizona State over Detroit.

2 Names Mentioned for Nebraska Post

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — The names of William H. (Tippy) Dye, Wichita University athletic director, and Hank Foldberg, Wichita football coach, figured Tuesday in published speculation on candidates for top athletic posts at the University of Nebraska.

★ ★ ★

Nebraska has been without an athletic director since Bill Orwig resigned last April 1 to take a similar post at Indiana.

★ ★ ★

The contract of Nebraska football Coach Bill Jennings expires in February and so far there has been no indication whether Jennings will stay or leave.

New speculation dealt with the possibility Dye might take the Cornhusker athletic directorship and bring Foldberg, ex-Army star, with him as grid coach in a package deal.

LSU Flirts With Rose Bowl

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Louisiana State says it's not interested in the Sugar Bowl, but you can get even money today that come Jan. 1, the Tigers will meet Alabama in the post-season classic.

LSU athletic director Jim Corbett rejected an invitation Tuesday for the nationally-ranked Bengals to play in the Sugar Bowl. Corbett said his decision was based on a resolution of the university athletic council and the team's "strong indication" they wanted an out-of-state trip if given the chance.

★ ★ ★

On the surface, the Corbett statement takes LSU out of the Sugar Bowl picture. What's more, both LSU and second-ranked Alabama are flirting with the Rose Bowl.

So, where does that leave the Sugar Bowl? Searching for lesser rated teams?

Possibly, but consider these points:

Where can LSU go?

Unless the school changes its policy concerning games with integrated teams, the Rose and Orange Bowls are automatically ruled out.

Corbett has been quoted as saying the racial question would present no problem, but the final word must come from the LSU board of supervisors. A source close to the board told the Associated Press that it will not approve LSU playing a team with Negro players.

Then the Rose Bowl is drawing criticism for considering Alabama and LSU. Sports columnist Melvin Durslag of the Los Angeles Examiner wrote Tuesday night that "it would be sheer lunacy for people who believe in integrated athletics to mess with a school whose leaders hold firmly to segregation."

Next year is election year in Alabama and the Crimson Tide is less likely to go bowling where the integration question might come up.

★ ★ ★

The Cotton Bowl? Mississippi is almost a certainty to cinch an invitation to meet Texas at Dallas New Year's Day. Cotton Bowl officials reportedly believe Mississippi is the most colorful team they can get. Besides, Texas wants revenge for the 39-7 drubbing Ole Miss gave them in the 1957 Sugar Bowl and the Longhorns think they can get it this year.

That leaves the Gator and Bluebonnet bowls and neither classic has as much to offer as the Sugar Bowl.

So, a Sugar Bowl meeting between LSU and Alabama is a natural. Either team is ready to slip into the No. 1 collegiate rating if Texas falls by the wayside, and the New Orleans game could decide the Dixie—if not the national—championship.

Then there's the tongue-in-cheek suggestion from Louisiana Gov. Jimmie H. Davis, a partisan LSU fan, He says LSU's three teams—the White, Go and Chinese Bandits—are each good enough to go to separate bowls.

But all things point to the White, Go and Chinese Bandit teams dueling Alabama in the Sugar Bowl next New Year's Day.

Pistons Face Hawks Tonight

DETROIT (AP) — The vacation's over for the Detroit Pistons. They return to National Basketball Association action tonight at Convention Arena against the St. Louis Hawks.

Three-day layoffs are unusual in the heavily scheduled NBA and coach Dick McGuire used the time to keep the Pistons sharp in Monday and Tuesday drills.

★ ★ ★

The Pistons were playing their best ball in a string of four games last week and emerged from the Western Division basement. They won two of the last three, an improvement over the horrible start in which they lost six of their first seven.

★ ★ ★

The Hawks also have been suffering after five years as Western Division champions. An aging team, St. Louis is under the .500 mark.

Bob Pettit, Clyde Lovellette and Cliff Hagan — the Hawks' three top scorers — average more than 30 years old.

George Lee is a doubtful starter for Detroit. The ex-Michigan player injured his toe Saturday and missed the practice sessions the last two days.

Will Be Official Friday

Schueler Set for Crown

By CHUCK ABAIR

It seems a pretty sure bet that Art Schueler of Birmingham Groves will be the 1961 Oakland County individual scoring champion.

After being a contender for most of the season, he went ahead on the final big weekend by scoring 30 points against Southgate Davison while previous head man Dorie Reid was being held to six.

He finished with 128 to 108 for Reid. The Pontiac Central-Pontiac Northern game wraps up the prep grid season Friday and only Huskie Chris Payne is in the top 23 point-getters. He had another 24-point night to take 7th place with 66.

Rick Golinski of Hazel Park holds 4th with 80, his teammate Frank Stagg and Northville's do-everything man Steve Juday follow with 79 and Ray Conti of Holly has 73. Golinski was blanked, Stagg tallied 14. Juday 18 and Conti 13 Friday.

Jim Sears of St. Fred had an 18-point game Saturday but only had seven for the year going into the contest.

Ferndale, Rochester, Hazel Park, Holly, Troy and St. James have two men each on the next to the last county list.

Payne, George Sharpe of Our Lady Lakes and sophomore pass catcher Dave Hallmark of Lake Orion are additions to the group this week.

Most of the area title battlers had concluded play a week ago while the Imlay City scoring for its final is still incomplete in our records. Dwight Lee heads that group with 85. The New Haven boy beat out Armada's Jim Porte, who totaled 81. Bill Trieloff of Romeo scored 61 and Jim Gould, Brown City, 60.

Tennessee Tailback Wins Backs Honors

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Mallo Faircloth, Tennessee's talented tailback, used his head as well as his hands and feet in leading the Vols to a 10-6 upset victory over Georgia Tech last Saturday.

The triumph spoiled Tech Coach Bobby Dodd's 53rd birthday, knocked the Yellow Jackets out of The Associated Press' top 10 rankings, and tarnished Tech's hopes for an Orange Bowl bid, and earned for Faircloth selection as AP back of the week.

The payoff play in a fine defensive battle was Faircloth's 22-yard touchdown pass to end Mike Stratton in the fourth period.

SQUARE AWAY
By DICK HOOVER
Youngest All-Star Champion

Square off to the pins. Face the target. Keep the shoulders squared to it.

This is the only way the delivery will take the straight path to the foul line.

Squaring to the target doesn't mean to become tense. It means having the shoulders parallel to the foul line in a relaxed manner, the weight evenly distributed on the feet. Don't start the approach until you are absolutely certain the stance is right. Keep the shoulders squared to the target from stance to follow through.

Next: Balance.

Squaring to the target doesn't mean to become tense.

Scholarship Offer 'Staggers' Briton

LONDON (AP) — A young British runner who said he had spurned a scholarship bid from an American university became the center of an international controversy Tuesday.

Adrian Metcalfe, a 19-year-old student at Oxford who has run 400 meters in 45.2 seconds, said he had received—and rejected—an offer from Arizona State University at Tempe.

"Quite frankly, their offer staggered me," Metcalfe said. "I have written saying that I am at a university which was founded when their ancestors were in trees."

At Tempe, Ariz., Baldy Castillo, Arizona State track coach, denied that Metcalfe had been offered a scholarship.

D'Amato Wants to Know About Million Bucks

TORONTO (AP) — Cus D'Amato, world heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson's manager, today became embroiled in a hassle with Tom McNeeley's pilot over a matter of a cool $1 million.

Patterson is scheduled to defend his title here on Dec. 4 against McNeeley. D'Amato accused Pete Fuller, McNeeley's millionaire manager, of failing to live up to the terms of their contract because he hasn't yet deposited $1 million in cash in a Boston bank.

★ ★ ★

"He'd better have it in the bank before this week is out—or else," thundered D'Amato.

D'Amato claimed the contract called for Fuller to deposit the money within 10 days after the Oct. 16 signing as a guarantee of a return match in four months should the unbeaten McNeeley win.

End Gets Lost in Fog

HANOVER, N.H. (AP) — Fog rolling in from the New Hampshire hills made Dartmouth's "lonely end" just that Tuesday.

The flanker couldn't be seen by the rest of the squad and coach Bob Blackman had to halt defense preparations for Cornell's "lonely end" attack Saturday. It was the heaviest fog in the area in years.

The spark was lit for long-awaited action in the forming of a bowling association in Pontiac at the state 700 Club Jamboree held recently at Huron Bowl.

Chapter 31 members passed a unanimous motion to initiate steps needed with the American Bowling Congress which it hopes will culminate with area keglers voting to organize a self-governing group for this region.

It was another big move in the right direction for the benefit of the thousands of male bowling participants around this section.

A resolution was also passed at the business meeting to again give all-out support to the 5th annual Press Bowlerama coming up next month. Teams of members will be organized to promote the big event throughout Oakland County.

The work of the 700 men was a key factor in the success of the 1960 tourney.

A nominating committee to conduct an election of officers by mail was selected and the naming of Ann Arbor as Jamboree host in 1963 were among the other items of business conducted.

Pontiac scores in the Jamboree not listed in the Monday story are as follows: Classic Division (190 and up)—Don Martell 608, Bill Bull 607, Bill Johns 601, Howard Fields 600, Sammy Laine 592, Les Rothbarth 589, Jack Chambers 562, Howie Peterson 555, Joe Foster 531, Mike Godoshian 525, Larry Laurence 523, Al Pietz 520, Jim Walker 500, Ken Willhite 489.

Upper Division (185-189)—Wally Johnson 558, Paul Miller 546, Pat Tinson 538, Dwight Pugh 537, Cliff Thompson 525, Wally Rennhack 521, Frank Spadafore 520, Jim Tinson 509, Karl VanDeMoortell 498, Arnie Osta 488.

Pontiac's Mitch Calbi won the granddaddy division for men 55 years of age and older with a 589 handicap score featuring a 589 actual. Karas was runnerup with 590 handicap.

All this year's Bowlerama sites have had big scores this fall. The 300 reported by Paul Horie of Wonderland makes it five perfect games combined at three of the tourney locations.

Paul Rabaut tells us work on his new Cooley Lanes going along good. Place will have all modern facilities highlighted by jet air ball return, pinspotters and dining room. Work on alleys is being done now and leagues should be rolling there about Dec. 1. Grand openings there and at Airway Lanes are coming up.

SKIPPING AROUND

Proprietors are asked to return secretary lists to The Press soon . . . Gene Noel fired a sanctioned 300 at the Hazel Park bowling center . . . Ron Councilor hit 199-224-278—701 in Nor-West Senior House League. Leader Oakland Music totaled 1105-2972.

Fireballs have taken command in the Women's Oakland County Employees loop. Nancy Cates had 199-513 . . . Big delegation of local Elks competed against Saginaw lodge last weekend . . . Marge Fields topped Wednesday Ladies Classic at 300 Bowl with 218-553. P. Benson's 155 was top average and four teams shared lead at last check.

Thunderbirds going good in pro league with Dale Seavoy of West Bloomfield a big reason . . . Dr. Millers heads pack in Elks Ladies race in won and lost and average. Gen Bradley had a 200-537 combination. Her average is tops at 164 . . . Few of his bowlers may realize it, but Red Collier of Collier's Lanes has 19 grandchildren. He is only 51 years old.

HAT TRICK—Golf professional Chi Chi Rodriguez, of Puerto Rico, sinks a putt with perhaps too much vigor, then throws hat over hole to keep ball from jumping out.

NFL Baby Next Foe for Hopeful Detroiters

DETROIT (AP) — The baby of the National Football League is growing up — just in time to act like a brat against the Detroit Lions.

To keep in title contention, the Lions will have to beat the Minnesota Vikings — new this season to the NFL—twice in the remaining five games.

The Vikings unexpectedly have grown stronger in their initial season. Expected to be the weekly doormat, the Vikings started acting up last Sunday when they beat the Baltimore Colts 28-20.

"It's a little early yet to say we've come of age," said coach Norm Van Brocklin. "But I'm sure we've at least gotten out of our diapers."

The Lions make their first visit to Minneapolis-St. Paul this Sunday. The Vikings will return the visit Dec. 10.

Minnesota has hastened its development on the strength of a tough defense. The pass defense has been extra-difficult for opponents.

The Vikings haven't allowed a touchdown via passing in their last two games. This can be annoying to the Lions, whose passing attack has just started clicking with Jim Ninowski's rebirth as an effective quarterback.

The Lions haven't lost since the Colts tripped them up 17–14 four games ago. But another defeat would just about crush their hopes of sticking in the Western Division race behind Green Bay.

Cousy Coaches as Celts Stretch Division Lead

By The Associated Press

They've been saying for years it's just like having a second coach the way Bob Cousy plays for the Boston Celtics. And Cooz showed why again Tuesday night.

With Boston coach Red Auerbach sitting out the first of a three-game suspension for tussles with National Basketball Association referees, the veteran backcourt star took over and led the once-beaten Celts to their seventh victory 119-117 over the stumbling St. Louis Hawks.

Auerbach, sitting in a seat some 20 rows behind the St. Louis bench, watched "coach" Cousy make two key moves.

The first was to play Bill Russell all the way without a rest. Russell responded with 35 points, his usual bundle of rebounds, and a defensive show that limited Clyde Lovellette, a 23-point a game scorer, to just two points.

The second was to give "player" Cousy a rest for the entire second period. Cooz came back after the intermission, triggered the Celts fast break and tossed in two timely baskets in the fourth period. He scored 16 points in all.

The Celts stretched their Eastern Division lead to 2½ games over Philadelphia, which lost to New York's hustling Knicks 124-122 in the windup of a doubleheader at Madison Square Garden — the only other action in the league. In the Garden opener, Cincinnati rushed to its sixth straight victory, and eighth in 12 games — 119-115 over Syracuse. The Royals trail Western Division leader Los Angeles by two games but hold second place now by 3½ games over St. Louis.

The Hawks, champions of the west the last five years, got 41 points from Bob Pettit and 33 from Cliff Hagan but Russell's smother job on Levellette sent them to their eighth loss in 13 games.

The Knicks, now third in the east, managed to limit Wilt Chamberlain to 34 points — 15 under his season average — and beat the Warriors on Richie Guerin's running jump shot with 4 seconds left.

Oscar Robertson scored 36 points and picked up 13 assists for Cincinnati, which blew a 21-point lead before rallying to stop Syracuse. Old faithful Dolph Schayes, playing in his 684th NBA game, paced Syracuse with 28 points.

Kansas City Cager Still Point Leader

CHICAGO (AP)—Bill Bridges of Kansas City boosted his lead to remain in front of the scoring leaders in the American Basketball League.

Through games of Sunday night, Bridges carried a 26.0 average for six games. Hal Lear and Dan Swartzz of Los Angeles were tied for second with 143 points in six games for 23.8 average.

Connie Hawkins of Pittsburgh with a 22.6 mark and George Yardley of Los Angeles round out the top five scorers and those with averages over 20 points per game. Yardley has 100 points in five games.

Texas' Moses Top Lineman in Weekly Poll

By The Associated Press

Bob Moses is a nice looking 21-year-old whose play at end for the University of Texas football team has helped the Longhorns gain the No. 1 national ranking in the Associated Press weekly poll.

Today he was named the lineman of the week by the AP for his outstanding performance Saturday as Texas beat Baylor 33-7.

Bill Olsavsky of Indiana and Johnny Baker of Mississippi, both ends, received high praise for their play against Ohio State and Auburn, respectively. Dan Underwood, Michigan State guard, similarly received praise for stopping two Purdue drives.

Saimes Keeps Lead in Big 10 Scoring

CHICAGO (AP) — Michigan State fullback George Saimes boosted his all-games Big Ten scoring lead last week when he scored his team's only touchdown in a 7-6 loss to Purdue.

Saimes now has eight touchdowns for 48 points and is comfortably ahead of Joe Williams of Iowa and Dave Raimey and Bennie McRae of Michigan. Williams, McRae and Raimey all have six touchdowns for 36 points.

Four others are tied for fifth place with 30 points each.

Baseball Draft Due

There's Some Reward Even Finishing Last

NEW YORK (AP) — Finishing last in baseball's American or National league has its reward—top priority in the major league draft.

The Washington Senators, tied with Kansas City for last place in the American League 1961 pennant race, will have the No. 1 pick of more than 1,000 eligible minor league players at the selection meeting in Tampa, Fla., Nov. 27.

While the long list is cluttered by a host of washed up veterans and inexperienced, untested youngsters, there are a number of fairly good prospects worth the draft price of $25,000.

This group includes Frank Zupo, Baltimore's bonus catcher of a few years back; pitcher Billy Short, considered one of the New York Yankees' finest farm hands only two years ago; Ron Henry, who impressed as a catcher with Minnesota last spring; pitcher Jim Bronstad, a Yankee farmhand; catcher Danny Kravitz, second baseman Jim Baumer, outfielders Lou Jackson and Gino Cimoli, infielders Chet Boak, Rick Herrscher, Julio Becquer, Ossie Virgil and Frank Torre, and pitchers Rudy Hernandez, Gerry Gatewood, Cal Browning and Dave Egan.

Also on the list are such former big leaguers as Ray Jablonski, Reuben Gomez, Duke Maas, Dusty Rhodes, Luke Easter, Rip Repulski, Billy Klaus, Bob Hale, Moe Drabowsky, Warren Hacker, R. C. Stevens and Rocky Nelson.

Some 20 players may be drafted this year. Last year the majors drew 23 players at a cost of $497,000. An additional 36 players were chosen, in the minor league draft which followed the big fellows.

The Senators won the right to make the first selection by the toss of a coin with the Athletics. The Philadelphia Phillies, National League tail-enders, will have second choice and the Athletics third. The clubs will continue to alternate according to their leagues and inverse order of finish last season.

Houston and New York, newcomers to the expanded 10-team National League, will be permitted to make their selections at the completion of the regular draft. While the other clubs may draft as many players as they wish, provided they don't exceed their 40-player limit, the Colts and Mets will be restricted to two players each.

Last month, at the conclusion of the World Series, Houston received 23 players and New York 22 from the other National League clubs in a special player draft. Each club shelled out nearly $2 million.

Clubs may choose only draft eligibles from teams of leagues below them in classification. In addition to the regular draft, restricted to players with four years of service in Double A or higher, three years in Class A, two in Class B, C and D, the majors may draft any first-year player. A first-year player is one who has appeared in 90 or fewer games in organized baseball.

Canadian Horsemen Lead Winter Show

TORONTO (AP) — Argentina moved up a notch into fourth place Tuesday night in the international jumping competition at the Royal Winter Fair horse show when Lieut. Eduardo Castaing turned in the best time on Merlin.

Castaing covered a difficult 14-jump course in one minute, 23.1 seconds to pick up the maximum of five points and move out of a last-place tie with Mexico in the five-country event.

BEAUMONT, Tex.—Mateo Pedroza, 165, New Orleans, and Rip Randall, 164, Beaumont, drew, 10.

HONOLULU—Bobo Olson, 177½, San Francisco, stopped Roy Smith, 166, Los Angeles, 8.

DISCOVERS JADE — Dr. Julian Greenlee studies a small rock containing jade in the science laboratory at the Oakland County board of education building. The large stone is almost pure jade and was found near Pontiac.

County Educator Leaves No (Gem)stone Unturned

By DON VOGEL
Outdoor Editor, Pontiac Press

An Oakland County educator has made a discovery that should send dedicated rockhounds hurrying to their favorite hunting grounds to double check on passed over stones.

Dr. Julian Greenlee, director of science education for county schools, has proved that jade exists in Michigan and other midwestern states.

And he has discovered some of the semi-precious gemstones a few minutes drive from downtown Pontiac.

Dr. Greenlee pointed out that no mention has ever been made of jade in this state by geologists, periodicals or books on gemstones. He has made it possible for writers and rock enthusiasts to include Michigan in lists of areas containing jade.

Federal mineral experts have supported his findings as jade. Geologists at Wayne State University made the same determination after microscopic examinations of rock material Dr. Greenlee submitted to them.

In the science laboratory at the county board of education building on Telegraph Road, Dr. Greenlee has a large collection of rocks turned up during his travels in the midwest and Ontario. One of the stones, weighing 128 pounds, is almost solid jade.

GOOD PLACES TO SEARCH

"I found the stone in a gravel pit near Pontiac," he said. "Many of the stones we have here (in the laboratory) were discovered in gravel pits."

The majority of the rocks contain jade. A few jasper stones, some agate, several chert and a sprinkling of other rock minerals are among the collection.

Jade, jasper, quartz, agate and other gemstones are primarily used in making costume jewelry. Earrings, pendants, rings and other jewelry containing jade stone are more expensive items.

What is the potential commercial value of jade and other gemstones in Michigan?

"I would say very little at this time," answered Dr. Greenlee. "Most of the commercial jade is found in Wyoming and California. China was once known for its jade, but little has been heard from this area in recent years.

"Midwestern jade could be important in the future. The Wyoming areas are being picked clean. California probably will begin to run out some day. Then Michigan jade may become more important."

Jade on the wholesale market is worth from $35 an ounce for pure black to 75 cents per square inch. The average is about $2 per pound.

★ ★ ★

"The two common forms of jade in Michigan are jadelte and nephrite, according to the doctor. "There may be other jade, but I haven't discovered any rocks containing it."

THE TEACHER STUDIED, TOO

Dr. Greenlee became interested in rocks, jade in particular, as part of his work in county classrooms.

"Many times I have been asked to identify rocks collected by students as part of class projects. At first, I knew little more than the students.

"In order to properly identify the rocks, I began to study the different kinds found in this state. One method was to start collecting them. Some of the rocks had the appearance of jade.

"I was assured by many geologists and other experts that Michigan rocks contained no jade. I sent pieces of the rocks I felt were jade to the government testing laboratory in California and they agreed with me."

Dr. Greenlee plans an exhibit in the laboratory. It will contain various gemstones, mostly jade, and can be seen by the public during hours the county board of education building is open.

★ ★ ★

"Anyone interested in learning about gemstones is welcome to contact me," he said. "One or two sessions with the stones we have in the collection should make it possible for a person to go out and discover some interesting rocks."

He asks those interested to contact his office for appointments.

Game Experts Plan to Study Area Deer Kill

County Has Good Herd; Many Nimrods Try Luck Near Their Homes

All deer hunting isn't confined to Northern Michigan.

Over 50 per cent of the hunters head in that direction, some because they believe it is the best area, others because it is traditional, and those who want to get away from home.

Some hunters don't have time to travel north. They slip out to an area near their Southern Michigan home, and a few down bucks that would put those coming down from the north to shame.

Oakland County has a nice deer herd. Numerous bucks are harvested from it each season. Many hunters who fail in the north continue to try near home until the season ends.

Hunters killing buck deer near Pontiac or elsewhere in Southern Michigan are urged to phone the Conservation Department's district office near Imlay City.

The hunter can telephone his report collect to this office at RA 4-4485. A game biologist will go to the hunter's residence or frozen food locker, determine the age of the deer by the amount of wear on the teeth, and measure its antlers and record the weight.

★ ★ ★

Even if only the head remains he can still obtain the necessary information.

"We need to examine 500 this fall," states Thomas Osmer, district game supervisor. "We are now engaged in an intensive study to secure information vital to the management of the southern Michiga deer herd.

"We cannot do the job without the cooperation of hunters. With the high productivity of two fawns from each doe, the herd should be increasing at a faster rate. First of all we need to know how many bucks are being shot and how many of each age class are being removed by the hunter.

"This will be followed around the year by a careful tally of all other causes of mortality including dogs, cars, fences and farm machinery."

The best locations in the Pontiac area are in the Hadley Hills and south of Holly and Fenton.

Await Final Results of Lamprey Chemical

LANSING (UPI)—The Michigan Conservation Department and the U.S. Bureau of Commercial Fisheries were awaiting results today of a chemical attack against lamprey larvae in East Bay at Grand Marais.

★ ★ ★

The test was the first conducted in a large body of water. Previous chemical attacks were in streams.

Some of the lamprey larvae were alive after the test and some game fish, including approximately 70 rainbow trout, were killed by the chemicals, the department reported.

★ ★ ★

Samples will be taken of the bay bed to determine how effective the chemicals were against the larvae.

Lake Trout Planted in Northern Waters

LANSING (UPI) — The planting of 39,000 two-year-old lake trout in eight Northern Michigan lakes was being completed by the Michigan Conservation Deparment, officials said today.

Higgins Lake in Roscommon County received 10,000 of the seven inch trout, the highest total of one lake.

★ ★ ★

Other lakes stocked included Elk, Bellaire and Torch Lakes in Antrim County, Walloon Lake in Charlevoix County, Duck Lake in Grand Traverse County, Glen Lake in Leelanau County and Lake Avalon in Montmorency County.

Plenty of Fishermen

WASHINGTON (AP) — A total of 19,080,604 sport fishermen purchased one or more licenses to fish last year in the 50 states, the Interior Department reported today.

Paying Guests of Farmers

West Virginia Project Goes Back to Old Days

By the Associated Press

There is such a grim, modern sound to the language in which fish and game authorities discuss the population explosion in relation to outdoor facilities that many an expert has forgotten the early American solution to such problems.

★ ★ ★

Like, you give the farmer a couple of bucks, and you don't have any more problem. At least for that day.

This is, of course, the foundation upon which shooting preserves have developed, although the development has been pretty fancy in many cases.

Under this system, a preserve operator — individual, co-op or club — fences off his hunting acreage against infiltration by wild birds, releases his own pen-raised birds and allows hunters to go after them on a cash basis.

★ ★ ★

In most cases, the preserve is set up primarily if not solely for the shooting of privately-owned birds, whether they be pheasants, quail, chukar or whatever. Sometimes a preserve operator is a dog handler, or he may raise enough birds to market them commercially, or he may combine the whole thing and rent out dogs, gear and such and at day's end deliver a packaged and possibly frozen product to his successful hunters.

Preserves now operate in 43 of the states, with most of the boom coming since World War II, although the idea goes back to 1911, when New York state passed the first enabling legislation.

But while pheasants at five dollars, or even ten dollars a copy may be a bargain for some city hunters who find their costs for travel, dog, car, food and incidentals averaging higher than that per bird, it's still quite a distance from the farmer you used to hand a couple of bucks for access to his back forty.

A bridge back to that simpler way of doing things is getting a test this year in West Virginia, where the departments of agriculture and of natural resources got together with some of the hunters and farmers who really need each other.

The result is quite an imposing list of landholders in prime hunting country who will be happy to welcome hunters to their house and fields, for a day or a week during hunting season, as paying guests.

For a good many landless West Virginians this will mean at least a few days of what you might call rich man's shooting at poor man's prices — an average of $5 a day with meals.

Conservation Corps Being Pushed Again

LANSING (UPI) — A group of Michigan legislators will make their second try next year to establish on the state level what has failed in Congress on eight tries — an organization similar to the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) of the 1930's.

★ ★ ★

Two million men were brought together under the 1933 congressional act designed to lessen the pressure of the depression by putting them to work on conservation projects which needed attention.

The prime objectives of the CCC were to fight the depression and revitalize the sagging conservation program.

Bi-partisan efforts to establish youth camps for both juvenile delinquents and non-delinquent unemployed youth in Michigan last year failed to gain the needed support.

This year a committee headed by state Rep. Harry De Maso, Battle Creek Republican, hopes to muster enough citizen support before the 1962 session to accomplish the creation of at least two camp-type operations for youth.

Two camp programs to be called for in the 1962 session will be explained here by De Maso's committee and members of the Michigan Youth Commission at a citizens meeting next month.

Sam Rabinovitz, secretary of the commission, and other members helped prepare the legislative proposals.

One camp would be for youths declared delinquent by Michigan courts and referred to the State Social Welfare Department and the second would be operated for non-delinquent "enlistees."

The former would be designed to accommodate 50 youths initially and two of the second camps, designated as youth conservation camps, were proposed to include 150 enlistees each.

Members of the legislature this year generally approved of the idea of the proposals — to put delinquent and unemployed youth to work on conservation projects—but lack of funds prohibited execution of the bills.

Conservation officials and the department of social welfare would cooperate under both camp program plans. The former would provide work and facilities for the camp participants, and the social welfare department would administer the program, including educational opportunities for the youths.

The proposals gained bi-partisan support last year and were expected to do the same in 1962.

'No Hunting' Signs Causing Confusion

Private lands posted with "no hunting" signs remain open to their owners and invited guests for sport during Michigan's regular game seasons, acording to E. E. Tucker, head of the Conservation Department's law enforcement program.

Tucker reports that a surprising number of landowners have the mistaken idea that once these signs are up, their lands are off limits to hunting by everyone, including themselves.

He adds that the department would like to see as much private land left open to the public as possible, but it respects the rights of landowners to post "no hunting" signs.

Shelter Areas in State Parks

Michigan's state parks, popular public playgrounds for millions each year, could serve as emergency housing areas in the event of a nucelar attack, according to Arthur C. Elmer, chief of the conservation Department's parks and recreation division.

Elmer cited Texas' use of state Hurricane Carla was on the rampage to point up what might be done in this state.

An estimated 30,000 people found refuge in the southern state's parks during and after the hurricane.

None of Michigan's parks feature fallout shelters and there are no plans afoot in the department to add them.

Elmer urged other states to adopt the Texas plan not only as "a means of bringing comfort and service to the temporarily homeless but also as a means of proving the adaptability of the parks and the versatility of their staffs."

Place First in Ohio

The Prairie Breeze, a setter owned and handled by Dave Grubb of Lake Orion, won the all age division of the Fairfield County Field Trail in Lancaster, Ohio, last weekend.

Joe, owned by Jim Wilmot of Rochester and handled by Grubb, won the derby stake.

Motors Show Minus Signs

Blue Chips Push Mart Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market pressed further into record high ground in heavy trading early this afternoon.

Gains of a point or more by a number of blue chips lifted the popular market averages but the general pattern was of an irregular advance with key stocks showing more small gains than losses.

New highs by such stocks as American Telephone, Woolworth and Sears Roebuck helped boost the indicators substantially. Meanwhile, Big Three motors showed minus signs, steels were narrowly mixed and rails merely edged ahead.

Wall Street's mood was confident and there was nothing in the overall news to spoil it. The advance, however, was not as emphatic as it appeared in the averages. Chemicals were spotty, aircrafts and drugs mainly lower. Oils and nonferrous metals moved higher on balance.

ON ACTIVE LIST

Benguet, the Philippine Gold mining issue which paced yesterday's market, insured itself a place on the most-active list again by opening unchanged on a huge block of 38,000 shares.

Amerada recouped more than 2 points of yesterday's loss of 5¼.

★ ★ ★

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange in moderate trading. Gains of about 2 points were posted for Technical Material, Gulf American Land and Mead Johnson. Up about a point were Vornado and Gulf States Land. Losses were taken by Occidental Petroleum, Continental Materials, United Improvement & Investing and White Eagle International.

Bonds Mixed at Opening

NEW YORK (AP) — Bond prices were mixed at the opening today in quiet dealings.

Over the counter dealers in U.S. government securities quoted long bonds of 2/32 and intermediates unchanged. The government list has been falling for the last four sessions.

Rails were the most actively traded among corporates on the New York Stock Exchange. They shaded lower while industrials edged upward. Utilities were mixed.

Maine Central Railroad 5½s added 1 at 84 at one time while C&O Railroad 4½s lost 1 at 98.

Fractionally higher were: Southwestern Bell 2¾s at 75⅝, Standard Oil (California) 4¾ at 100⅜ and Western Maryland Railroad 4s at 95½. Off fractions were: Norfolk & Western Railroad 4s at 92¼, Republic Steel 4¾s at 100 and Detroit Edison 3s at 91⅞.

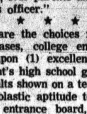
Character and Goals Are Evaluated

Grades Alone Won't Get One Into College

By LESLIE J. NASON, ED.D.
Professor of Education,
University of Southern California

Some places, like jails and oblivion, are easy to enter and difficult to leave. But not colleges.

Getting into college is a problem, with the applicants outnumbering the available facilities.



DR. NASON

Staying in college, once in, is another problem. It's a problem for students, parents and college authorities. In fact, in our Cold War situation, college drop-outs are a national concern.

Colleges try to limit admissions in the fairest possible way. They are dealing with the futures of individuals, and no one knows better than the admissions officer that the decisions need to be right.

John Steinbaugh, director of admissions to the University of Southern California, has stated: "One man excluded who could have succeeded and replaced by one man who does not succeed produces at least seven frustrated people: two students, four parents and one admissions officer."

* * *

How are the choices made? In most cases, college entrance is based upon (1) excellence of the applicant's high school grades, (2) the results shown on a test such as the scholastic aptitude test of the college entrance board, and (3) an analysis of the individual factors which might affect success, such as moral character, health, and personal goals.

Sounds sensible? Of course. Then why do students who pass this sort of screening still fail in college? Something must be involved that isn't measured by this process.

There are three areas that do not seem to be adequately measured:

* * *

—Goals. The sincerity and validity of a stated goal is difficult to evaluate in an interview. Goals do have a bearing on the problem of success in college. A study of dropouts among women students in a major state university indicated that a large proportion of them seemed to have a very hazy notion of why they were in college in the first place.

—The ability to communicate. A survey of college teachers of freshman English as to what knowledge and skills a freshman most needs could be summed up in the words: "He should be able to write a paragraph that communicates the desired thought." This sounds simple, but tells an important story.

—The ability to grasp quantitative ideas. The processes of comprehension on which modern science and technology rest call for thought processes that some students have not acquired and that they actually seem to resist.

THEY CAN'T THINK

Some students tend to avoid such subjects as physics or chemistry which require complete understanding of each idea, not just the memorization of a fact. They do not seem to realize that this type of thinking doesn't hurt. It's even rather pleasant, once they try it.

For example: solving the puzzle of balancing a chemical equation may call for 10 or 15 minutes of hard, concentrated thought the first time. Once the student sees exactly how one equation is balanced, he can balance chemical equations for the rest of his life. He only has to understand it once.

Students (with the help of parents and teachers) should be concentrating on these things. This will give more assurance to their futures. They need to set goals, practice writing and speaking, recognize that the importance of mathematics and science is worth the effort of overcoming a few fears.

Students must work hard in order to bring more than grades to college.

Coroner's Inquest Set in Drowning of Youth

LANSING (UP)—A coroner's inquest will be held Friday into the drowning of a 17-year-old Lansing youth on the Michigan State University campus.

* *

The youth, Rudolfo Rodriguez, drowned in the Red Cedar River Sunday night while fleeing a campus police officer.

The officer, Harold Kent, said he saw Rodrigues and a companion breaking into cars parked on campus. In the chase that ensued, Rodriguez waded into the river to escape, but started to flounder in midstream, Kent said.

* * *

He went in to rescue the boy, he said, but Rodriguez broke the policeman's grip and went down. Kent said he could not find the boy in the darkness.

* * *

Kent was treated at a Lansing hospital for shock and exhaustion.

Red Chinese Refugees Pouring Into Macao

MACAO (UP) — Relief organizations here reported Tuesday refugees from Red China are pouring into Macao.

* * *

No figures were given but estimates range from 100 to 400 refugees legally entering this Portuguese colony from Communist China every day.

* * *

The refugees, most of them old, ailing or otherwise classed as unproductive, are given legal exit permits by Communist authorities.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MRS. Sophia Omelian who passed away November 15, 1958.
Today our sad memories,
Of a dear mother gone to rest,
And those who think of her today
Is the one who loved her best.
Daughter Mrs. Elizabeth Franchuk.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY DEAR mother, Sophia Omelian who passed away three years ago today, November 15, 1958.
Your memory is dear to me
Your love remains with me yet
You were the kind of mother
One never forgets.
Sadly missed by loving daughter, Helen Nurenburg.

IN BELOVED MEMORY OF MY mother, Sophia M. Antons, who died November 15, 1949. Janice.

You Can Survive Atomic Attack—No. 8

Shelters Offer Blast Protection

(Editor's Note. A Nobel prize winner who is America's best known authority on fallout and radiation has written for The Pontiac Press 15 vital articles on what you can do if nuclear war strikes. The series is not intended to approve or oppose fallout shelters but to relate how the nuclear threat has become a part of your life. This is the eighth installment.)

By PROF. WILLARD F. LIBBY

So far, we've been talking about protection which could save many millions of lives from fallout radiation.

What about the terrific blast loosed by H-bombs? What about the superbomb with which Premier Khrushchev has been threatening us?

Your fallout shelter provides some protection. The stronger the shelter — and the farther from the center of the bombing — the better.

Fallout shelters are especially good against marginal blast effects, at the outer area of the circle blast destructiveness.

But let no one deceive himself. If you are right under or very near the center of a bomb exploding on the ground, there is no hope. Direct ground hits will dig huge craters, perhaps collapsing all but the deepest and strongest underground shelters there.

It will produce total destruction in all directions for at least two or three miles. Destructive blast waves could speed out for miles to shake or blow down houses.

You shouldn't panic unreasonably at Khrushchev's talk of a 100-megaton bomb.

Assume a one-megaton bomb. That means one equal to one million tons of TNT, or 50 times more powerful that the Hiroshima bomb.

The one-megaton bomb could wreck houses four miles away.

A 10-megaton bomb would wreck houses eight miles away, and bring down some frame houses ten miles distant. Notice it would NOT reach out 10 times farther than the one-megaton bomb.

EVEN A HOLE HELPS

A 100-megaton bomb, such as Khrushchev has mentioned would wreck houses 20 miles away—only five times as far as the one-megaton bomb.

Obviously your chances of surviving blast depend on where you are within or outside the circle of blast effects, and the size of weapon.

Shelters guaranteeing everyone against blast are impossible.

Really good close-up blast shelters are very expensive, almost to the point of impracticability for most families. Even fairly near the center, you would have good protection with a buried shelter built of concrete, but it would cost $3,000 to $5,000.

An outdoor shelter consisting of a hole in the ground could provide relatively good blast protection.

Indoors, a shelter of concrete blocks in the basement could withstand blast at reasonable distances from the center of a bomb, even if your house came tumbling down.

A basement fallout shelter with walls of concrete two feet thick could resist pressure of 10 pounds per square inch, which is more than enough to blow a house down. For that contingency, you need ax, pick and shovel to dig yourself out.

Plans for sturdy fallout shelters which also give some anti-blast insurance are available from your local office of Civil Defense.

CAN DO SOMETHING

Once more I want to emphasize that if you are caught outdoors in a bombing, throw yourself flat. Duck into a culvert or ditch, or behind some solid protection if it is available. You can at least gamble you will be far enough from the center not to be killed by blast.

And remember, the blast effect hurtles all kinds of objects about, like a tornado. If you remain standing, you could be hit and killed by such debris.

If you are at home or office when a bomb exploded without any warning, duck instantly away from windows. Windows can blow in, transformed suddenly into a hail of sharp, dangerous slivers of glass. This would happen at distances beyond that at which frame houses would be knocked about or down.

★ ★ ★

Many Japanese victims were badly or fatally cut by flying glass. In Civil Defense tests with A-bombs in Nevada, mannequins sitting in a living room were actually riddled with glass. Others escaped because they were in corridors, or behind protection, out of the line of flight of the cascade of glass.

If you have a fireplace, you might try to fling yourself into or very near the hearth. Chimneys can stand even when the blast is strong enough to bring down a frame house.

The least you can do is to check about and determine where your best chances lie, and hope the center is far enough away. We can all do something with what we have.

'Yours for a Song'? They Can Keep It

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — One dark and dreary night not so long ago, I had this nightmare about the "Sing Along With Mitch" show.

I dreamed that Mitch was switched and Bert Parks replaced him as the smiling host. Why? Oh, something about more warmth, stage presence, savvy and whiter teeth.

I recalled this nightmare with mounting terror Tuesday night while watching "Yours for a Song," a brand new ABC-TV half-hour sing-along-for-loot series presided over by Mr. Music Man himself, Bert Parks.

Can it be that I'm still dreaming, that my set is haunted and this is all some kind of joke?

★ ★ ★

What can I say about Bert's confused, loud, cheap, forced program? It's not very musical. It's not fun to watch. It sounds awful and has an artificial look. But I suppose some will excuse all this because, after all, it gives uninhibited housewives and other exhibitionists a chance to sing a few lines of "My Blue Heaven" and win a few hundred bucks in the bargain.

So the seemingly bland, uncorruptible "sing along" format moves into the game show genre, and badly, and another TV art form becomes polluted.

While I'm no admirer of Mitch's cornball show, at least his band knows the music, the songs gush forth in appropriate readings, and the host, despite other shortcomings, doesn't explode all over the stage with frenzied ebullience the way Parks does. Bert Parks reminds me of a rocket—after someone has pressed the "destruct" button.

★ ★ ★

Was it Sam Johnson, or Oliver Treyz, who once said, "Almost all absurdity of conduct arises from the imitation of those whom we cannot resemble?"

DIALING AND FILING

"Behind the Wall," the first in ABC-TV's two-part "Close-Up" dealing with divided Berlin and Germany, was a laudable attempt to contrast life as it really is in East Germany with life as the German Communist functionaries see it.

Some of the spoken accents were hard to follow, some camera statements weren't effectively formulated, but on balance, the half-hour captured a mood made up of fear, hopelessness, terror and bluff.

I saw only the first half of Chet Huntley's ABC-TV special, "The Face of Spain!" Tuesday night and found the camera work beautiful, the mounting of a bullfight-and-flamenco dancing segment inspired and spectacular. Besides, I'm for any show about Spain that doesn't bring Ernest Hemingway into the act during the first half-hour, at least.

Man Is Sentenced for Part in Swindle

Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland yesterday ordered Thomas H. Duncan to spend the first four months of his two-year probation period in the county jail for his part in the $20,000 swindle of an Oakland Township financier.

Duncan, 22, of Californis, pleaded guilty Oct. 19 to taking money under false pretenses from Frank R. Cook, 90, of 1860 Dutton Road.

Cook told police he paid Duncan and two other men the money believing he was buying stock in a magazine subscription firm.

★ ★ ★

Another man earlier received probation and a jail term for the same offense while a third is awaiting trial. Two other suspects in the scheme, including a woman, have never been apprehended, according to Chief Assistant Prosecutor Robert D. Long.

Hearing on Legality of Merger Recessed

LANSING (AP) — A hearing on a petition asking State Insurance Commissioner Frank Blackford to set aside his approval of a merger between a Detroit Insurance firm and one in Kentucky has been recessed until Thursday.

★ ★ ★

James E. Frazer, Detroit attorney, argued before Blackford here Thursday that the merger between the Detroit Metropolitan Assurance Co. and the Mammoth Life and Accident Insurance Co. of Louisville, Ky., failed to meet proper legal standards.

★ ★ ★

Blackford and the Kentucky insurance commissioner previously had approved the merger. The Detroit firm is owned by Rep. Charles C. Diggs Jr., D-Mich., and his father, both of Detroit. The elder Diggs is a former state senator.

Entertains 250 Guests 'at 'Small' Party

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — When "Flower Drum Song" premiered at Radio City Music Hall, I heard a report that Composer Richard Rodgers had quite a cozy little party there — actually 250 guests.

Unable to check it with Dick, I asked Nancy Kwan, star of the picture, and Producer Ray Stark about it later.

"I imagine it's correct," Stark said. "After all, that's only 125 couples."

In Civil Jury Case Jam-Up

Circuit Judges Race With Time

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

One of the largest backlogs of civil jury cases in Oakland County Circuit Court history gets top priority when a new jury starts work in two weeks.

Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams, presiding judge this term, said he and and other four circuit judges will hear only civil cases when the next term begins Nov. 28.

None of Prosecutor George F. Taylor's nearly 175 pending criminal cases will be tried. They'll have to wait until the term beginning in January.

Facing the circuit judges will be 523 cases, the majority being negligence or accident cases needing jury decisions.

"We're further behind than we've been in a long time," Judge Adams said.

"We disposed of many (160) last term and it appeared as though just as many new cases became ready for trial," he said.

It is the first time the judges can remember having to devote an entire term — Nov. 28-Dec. 15 — to civil cases. Usual procedure is for three judges to listen to civil cases and two to criminal.

AP Photofax

SUSPENDED — Charles O. Junge has been dropped from the payroll of the University of Washington after failing to return on time from a European trip he is taking with his wife. Mrs. Junge told the Seattle Post-Intelligencer Tuesday in a phone conversation from Prague, Czechoslovakia, that the couple did not plan to return.

Judge Adams said the new policy shouldn't put Taylor too far behind because there usually isn't a December jury term.

"But we were counting on using this one if it was to be impaneled," the prosecutor said.

The number of civil cases is double that of 1½ years ago, according to Louis E. Fairbrother, assignment clerk for the court.

Fairbrother said it is now running about nine months from the time a case is "noticed for issue" — ready for trial — and when the case is actually heard. A year ago the time lag was from five to six months, he said.

He attributed the backlog and delay to the rapid growth in the county and subsequent increase of number of cases, as well as more attorneys submitting their cases for jury decisions rather than seeking settlement out of court.

6TH CIRCUIT JUDGE?

The change in practice has suddenly renewed talk around the courthouse that Oakland County might be in need of adding a sixth circuit judge.

"I'm hopeful we will get two more judges," Taylor said. "We deserve them in Oakland County because our present judges are overworked."

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath". Get FASTEETH at drug counters everywhere.

Seek Murderer of Clubwoman

Police Run Into Web of Puzzling Clues in Attorney's Slaying

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police believe Rosalind Goodrich Bates, a successful Southern California lawyer and clubwoman, was murdered.

★ ★ ★

But they ran into a puzzling web of circumstances as they sifted clues in the gunshot death of the silver - haired, bespectacled widow.

WAS SHOT TWICE

Mrs. Bates, 67, who lived alone, was found dead Tuesday in her home, shot twice—once in the temple and once in the back. The death weapon has not been found. Neighbors reported no shots nor outcries. Mrs. Bates' big watch dog was strangely silent.

★ ★ ★

Police said there was no evidence of a struggle—her purse was unopened, the house was not disorganized and even her glasses were intact. There were no powder burns around the wounds. Police estimated the killer had fired from a distance of 10 to 12 feet.

★ ★ ★

A client, Dr. Frederick S. Rheinhold, chiropractor and psychologist, told newsmen that Mrs. Bates reported she got a threatening phone call last week.

Scottish Towns 'Adopt' U.S. Subs and Crews, Also

GREENOCK, Scotland (AP) — Two shipbuilding towns along the River Clyde have agreed to adopt two of four American nuclear submarines now based on the U.S. Polaris installation at Holy Loch.

Greenock town council approved the adoption of one of the USS Patrick Henry and the town council of Largs voted down the line for the USS George Washington.

The royal navy has requested the towns of Gourock and Port Glasgow to take care of the remaining submarines — the USS Robert E. Lee and USS Theodore Roosevelt. They are expected to comply.

The main object of the adoptions is to ensure that American submariners receive hospitality in Scottish homes while on shore leave.

Monty Gets Mixed Up; Pays Bad-Driving Fine

LONDON (AP)—Field Marshal Lord Montgomery was fined 10 pounds ($28) on charges of careless driving and driving the wrong way on a one-way street. He pleaded guilty.

The prosecutor in Bow Street court said the 70-year-old World War II commander went awry in the downtown borough of Westminster on July 22.

Monty, as the British call him, was not present at the hearing.

CHICAGO (UPI)—Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen will ask former President Eisenhower to hit the campaign trail in the Illinois Republican's bid for re-election next year.

Talk Canceled as Man Trapped by Environment

MILWAUKEE (AP)— A lecture at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee was canceled Tuesday night when the speaker, Yale Prof. emeritus Paul B. Sears, now visiting professor of botany at the University of Hawaii, was stranded at Santa Fe, N.M., in a snowstorm.

MARY PROCTOR FLIP-TOP IRONING TABLE

3 surfaces in 1. First . . . table is longer, yet tapered nose is closer. Narrower width is ideal for slim sheaths, children's clothes. Second . . . flip—and nose squares off. Perfect for ironing both shoulders of shirts or blouses at the same time. Provides two long straight edges for flat work. Third . . . flip again—table becomes so wide you can iron long trousers without shifting! Adjusts to your height at a finger's touch. Gold legs are curved for extra knee room. Steam-vent top. Easy-roll wheels.

Cost $11.19

MARY PROCTOR ZEDALON PADS & COVERS

Most scorch resistant — actually outwears others 5 to 1! Pad is two thick layers of heavy rayon with resilient polyfoam base.

$3.98

MARY PROCTOR SPRAY/STEAM/DRY IRON

Spray? Just touch the button, no pumping! Iron! In any position, water is "locked-in" to prevent spotting. Steam! Iron in any direction, steam vents are distributed over the entire soleplate. So trouble-free you can use ordinary tap water instead of distilled! Clear-view heel. Easy-to-read fabric dial. Lightweight. In stunning gold and white.

$14.88

MARY PROCTOR STEAM and DRY IRON

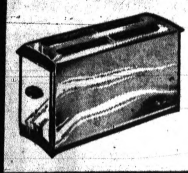
A beauty in gleaming gold topped by a milk-white handle! And with all the deluxe Proctor features, including plenty of steam vents distributed over the entire soleplate to give you more steam, more quickly. And with the clear-view heel that allows you to see all your ironing. Up-front fabric dial. Lightweight—less than 3 pounds!

$10.88

MARY PROCTOR Self-lowering TOASTER

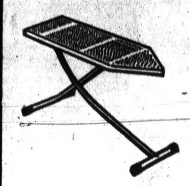
So advanced it practically thinks for itself. Just put in the bread, Proctor does the rest! Your bread is lowered automatically . . . toasted automatically. And because Proctor's exclusive Select-ronic Color Beam adjusts toasting time automatically, your toast always comes up the golden shade of "done-ness" you prefer. Comes up extra-high, too (so convenient for muffins) and in half the time . . . thanks to Proctor's jet-speed element. Elegant white porcelain-and-gold end panels and easy-to-clean chrome side panels.

$18.88



MARY PROCTOR "Foursome"

Toasts 1, 2, 3 or 4 slices at a time. Has exclusive Select-ronic Color Beam. In beautiful 24 Karat gold finished end panels . . . glistening chrome sides. $14.88



MARY PROCTOR Hi-Lo Back-Saver Ironing Table

Adjusts to height at a finger's touch for comfortable or stand-up ironing. Steam-vent top . . . gleaming gold curved legs for more knee room . . . wheels. $6.88

Polaroid J66: More Camera for Less Money

The Polaroid J66 costs less than the first Land Camera model introduced more than 12 years ago!

It takes the same large pictures—but with what a difference. It's fully automatic. There are no settings you have to make. An electric eye chooses the exposure. You don't even have to focus. You don't need an expensive light meter. The flash gun is built in too. And your picture is ready in just 10 seconds.

There are 12 years of improvements, refinements and brand new ideas in this camera. And yet it actually costs less than the first Land Camera on the market.

Gizenga Directs Uprising

Congo Erupting Again

Revolt Against Leopoldville Spreads to Kivu

Spokesman Claims U.N. Will Use Force to Put Down Lawlessness

LEOPOLDVILLE, Congo (AP) — The United Nations announced today that more than 2,000 Congolese troops have risen in mutiny in the Eastern Congo.

Diplomatic informants said the rebellion was being directed by Antoine Gizenga, the leftist heir of former Premier Patrice Lumumba.

He thus emerged into open and forceful defiance of the United Nations and the central Congo government. A U. N. spokesman said the United Nations intends to put down the lawlessness by force if necessary.

Diplomatic informants said Gizenga is directing a mutiny against central government authority in Kindu, the Kivu provincial town north of the secessionist province of Katanga.

Other mutineers were reported to have created serious disorders in the north Katanga city of Albertville.

A spokesman for the United Nations said it intends to put down lawlessness in the two towns by force if necessary.

Diplomatic sources said the leftwing politician set himself up in Kindu last Saturday, leaving his former stronghold at Stanleyville in Oriental Province to one-time allies who now adhere to the Leopoldville government.

FORCED TO FLEE

Gizenga, who once accepted the post of vice premier in Premier Cyrille Adoula's central government here, made his defiance open and apparently final Tuesday when he forced two of his former allies, Gen. Victor Lundula and Christophe Gbenye, out of Kindu in fear of their lives.

Mutinous soldiers at Kindu refused to hand over 13 Italian airmen they had arrested and beaten Saturday.

Lundula and Gbenye had gone to Kindu to get the Italians freed.

Gizenga's defiance of the United Nations and the central Congo government was reported one day after a U. N. investigating commission — in another development — said that in all probability Lumumba and two of his aides were killed last January in the presence of Katanga secessionist leader Moise Tshombe.

That report was issued in advance of a U. N. Security Council meeting on the Congo today to consider African demands for strong U. N. action to end the secession of Katanga Province.

Syria Has Constitution

DAMASCUS (AP) — The government announced a provisional constitution today for "a sovereign independent state" to be known as the Arab Syrian Republic.

Over 200 in Rose City Woods Hoping to Get That Big Buck

By DON VOGEL
Outdoor Editor, Pontiac Press

ROSE CITY — The opening of Michigan's deer season was unusually quiet for the second straight year.

Last year the weather raised havoc with hunters. There was a definite decline in the number of nimrods who headed into the woods at dawn today. Only scattered shots could be heard, about one every half hour.

Gunfire normally rings through the woods at more frequent intervals the first day.

"You wouldn't believe we have over 200 hunters in here," said Keith Sampson, a field worker at the State Conservation Department's Rifle River area.

Hunters must check in and out of this 3,000-acre area located three miles east of here in Ogemaw County.

"Last season 273 hunters took nine bucks out of here on opening day," he said, "and we are looking for a better kill this year."

23 FROM COUNTY

Two bucks, both about 1½ years old and each weighing less than 100 pounds, were in at the area check station by 9:30 this morning. There are 26 Oakland County hunters in this area. None had checked out at 10 a. m.

Deer taken by Oakland hunters in the Rifle River area before noon today will automatically be entered in The Pontiac Press big deer contest.

Those downed later in the day and until the Nov. 30 closing must have a weigh slip signed by the person weighing that day, and another witness.

★ ★ ★

The hunter entering the heaviest buck in the contest will receive $150 savings bond. Dressed weight will be used to determine the winner. The contest is open to all Oakland County residents.

DEER'S REVENGE — Deer reading the Pontiac Press may get a chuckle out of this photo in which the deer bagged the hunter. Con-Con Urged to Raise Property Tax Limitation

LANSING (AP) — Proposals to raise the property tax limitation to 20 mills and set up a presidential primary in Michigan confronted the constitutional convention today.

Delegates submitted 29 proposals Tuesday, a one-day record, bringing the total since the convention assembled Oct. 3 to 250. Deadline for delegates proposals is Dec. 1.

Julius C. Sleder, R-Traverse City, proposed to lift the property tax ceiling set by the constitution from 15 to 20 mills, with counties to receive eight mills, schools 10 and townships two if the full amount is levied. He also proposed to permit voters to levy whatever additional taxes they want, removing the present five per cent (50 mill) limitation.

Delegates James S. Farnsworth, R-Allegan, and Edward Hutchinson, R-Fennville, submitted a proposal to retain the 15-mill limitation.

The presidential primary would require delegates to the national political conventions to vote, at least on the first ballot, for the candidates who led the field in the Michigan election.

A proposal by Richard D. Kuhn, R-Waterford Township, would allow a Supreme Court justice to file for re-election merely by submitting an affidavit of his intention to run at least 90 days before the election.

New candidates for the State Supreme Court would be required to file nominating petitions containing signatures totaling at least 1 per cent of the votes cast for governor in the last election. Justices now are nominated at party conventions.

Delegate Edward L. Douglas of Detroit and four other Democrats joined on a proposal to allow the state to make loans totaling as much as $50 million at any one time for financing industrial, manufacturing and municipal development projects, legislative approval of each project would be required.

Voters rejected a similar proposal in an election last spring.

Macapagal Has Philippine Lead

Gap Growing Rapidly as Count Continues in Presidential Race

MANILA (AP)—Vice President Diosdado Macapagal piled up an apparently insurmountable lead today in the Philippine presidential election and exaultantly proclaimed, "We made it!"

With more than 60 per cent of the estimated seven million votes counted, unofficial returns gave Macapagal 2,695,110 to 2,031,667 for President Carlos P. Garcia.

Macapagal told newsmen, "The lead is such that any attempt to alter the results will fail." But he said that he would not issue a victory statement until Garcia concedes "in accordance with the usual practice."

Garcia, studying returns at his home on Bohol Island in the south central Philippines, sent word he was not conceding yet. But it seemed all but impossible for him to overtake Macapagal's lead.

LEAD WIDENING

Macapagal needed to take only about 800,000 more votes to win a majority and his lead was still widening.

With about 32,000 of the country's 41,000 precincts reported, Macapagal had 57 per cent of the votes to Garcia's 43 per cent.

The president's strongholds in the southern islands were generally giving him majorities but not nearly heavy enough to stem the Macapagal tide, which had been rising steadily since the first returns.

Macapagal's running mate, Emmanuel Pelaez, held a smaller lead in the vice presidential race over Sergio Osmena Jr.—1,786,928 to 1,609,038.

Garcia's, running mate, Gil J. Puyat, lagged with 1,260,790.

Posing Threat to Ourselves, Johnson Warns

Tells Detroit Audience Reds Waging a War of Doubt and Disunity

By DICK HANSON

The only Communist threat to freedom is the threat we pose ourselves. This was Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's warning in a major speech delivered last evening in Detroit.

In addressing about a thousand persons in the Ford Auditorium the vice president assured them that Russia's military power never will be greater than that of the United States.

Instead of military might "the Communists are going to wage a war of doubt and disunity," Johnson declared.

"They are constantly sowing the seeds of discord and strife, hoping to tear asunder the free world alliances.

"They are striving desperately to array brother against brother, class against class, race against race, so as to transform America from a fortress of freedom to a house divided against itself."

'BLUNDERBUSS CHARGES'

He referred to "blunderbuss charges" of traitor leveled at those high in the ranks of American leadership by persons who already have become the dupes of communism.

"We have throughout the land today, Americans who, in the very name of freedom, are urging the people to distrust their own elected leaders, their own long-cherished institutions.

"These are the people who scream that the judiciary is biased and that its decisions ought not to be obeyed.

"They are the Americans who spread rumors that the Executive Branch is loaded with traitors, and that distinguished former presidents, Democrat and Republican, were either disloyal or dupes.

WELCOME JOHNSON — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson was greeted by an enthusiastic crowd of well-wishers when he arrived in Detroit yesterday to deliver a major address on the Kennedy Administration's accomplishments and aspirations for the future. An estimated 1,000 persons heard him speak in Ford Auditorium last night.

Days Ahead Appear to Be Rather Messy

Rainy and windy is the forecast for Thursday. Temperatures will drop to 45 tonight and rise to a mild 52-57 tomorrow.

Thursday night and Friday will be colder with snow flurries or showers. Saturday will be somewhat warmer but Sunday and Monday will be cold again with a chance of rain or flurries.

Morning southwesterly winds at 3 miles per hour will become south to southeast at 8 to 15 m.p.h. tonight.

Thirty-three was the lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The mercury reading at 1 p.m. was 45.

City Officials Honor Willman

Laud Retiring Manager at Last Meeting Before His Terminal Leave

The city commission publicly saluted retiring City Manager Walter K. Willman last night. It was Willman's last commission meeting before beginning terminal leave this weekend.

★ ★ ★

"The citizens of Pontiac have been the beneficiaries of Mr. Willman's long experience in municipal management" a resolution read. "This commission acknowledges the retirement of a great public servant who has worked for more than 37 years quietly, effectively and efficiently.

"His friendly and sympathetic personality made for him a wide circle of friends. Forthrightness characterized his actions.

"He spoke as he believed and if there was a sting in his remarks, there was also a twinkle in the eyes."

WISH WILLMAN LUCK

Rayburn Sinks Close to Death

BONHAM, Tex. (UPI) — House Speaker Sam Rayburn sank toward death today. His alertness diminished and his family felt the end was near.

A medical bulletin issued by the Risser Hospital in Bonham this morning said the cancer-stricken speaker slept "unusually soundly" Tuesday night. There was no change in his blood pressure or pulse.

He has been having fewer rallies from sinking spells, and each rally is weaker than the last. The bulletin said he no longer was as alert as he had been.

A spokesman for the Rayburn family said the 79-year-old "Mr. Sam's" death is "only a matter of hours."

Rayburn's two sisters spent much of the night with him, then left in the early morning hours.

The cancer, diagnosed as inoperable last Oct. 5, has spread through much of his body.

HOUSE VETERAN

Rayburn has been a member of the U.S. House of Representatives 48 years, longer than any other man in history. He has been speaker 16 years, more than twice as long as any other man.

★ ★ ★

He started suffering severe back pains more than three months ago, while Congress was still in session. Doctors in Washington sent him home to Bonham.

He became progressively worse and on Oct. 2, Dr. Joe Risser, his Bonham physician, sent him to Baylor University Medical Center in Dallas for a detailed test.

The cancer was discovered Oct. 5. It was too far advanced to operate. Rayburn was dosed with experimental cancer drugs. They had little or no effect and on Oct. 31 he returned to Bonham to die, as he wished, among his friends and neighbors.

He has had periodic sinking spells, but his condition from the cancer itself was pronounced critical for the first time last Saturday.

Shoppers in Cars to Get Christmas Gift From City

The city gave its okay last night to an agreement with the Downtown Merchants Association for about $6,000 in free parking for Christmas shoppers.

Commissioners approved a resolution whereby the city and association will split the bill as in past years.

Cost is figured at 25 cents per meter per day in municipal parking lots. There are about 100 more off-street spaces this year than were available last Christmas.

The agreement will provide 1,036 free parking spaces for area residents Dec. 7-25. One lot not affected by the contract is on W. Lawrence Street west of Cass Avenue.

The meters in all other lots will be hooded.

Accidents Fatal to 1,319

EAST LANSING (AP) — Traffic accidents have killed 1,319 persons in Michigan so far this year, provisional figures compiled by State Police showed today. The toll for the same date a year ago was 1,357.

Switch Due Soon in Pontiac

Phones Will Replace Fire Boxes

By DICK SAUNDERS

Imagine yourself standing at Saginaw and Huron streets waiting for the light to change.

A man standing next to you suddenly suffers a heart attack.

You rush to a fire alarm box on the corner and pull the switch. Response is quick. Almost instantly you hear sirens.

What you get are three pumper trucks, a ladder truck, an aerial truck and one chief's car.

Plenty of equipment but all the wrong kind.

★ ★ ★

You still don't have what you need—a rescue unit with a resuscitator.

Firemen radio back and in a few more minutes the rescue truck pulls up—but maybe a few minutes too late for the victim.

This is the way Pontiac Fire Chief James R. White vividly illustrates Pontiac's need for a new fire alarm system.

This "new" system being installed by Michigan Bell Telephone Co. will change a Pontiac citizen's method of reporting emergencies.

The familiar Gamewell alarm boxes in which you pull a switch will be replaced by emergency reporting boxes—you pick up a telephone and talk directly to fire or police department operators.

★ ★ ★

The big change will take place before next spring, to become effective with the opening of Pontiac's new central fire station early next year.

ADVANTAGES

The biggest advantage is obvious — vocal communication pinpoints the need and exact location of that need.

There are other advantages as well. White feels that vocal communication itself will result in less false alarms.

Pontiac Press Photo

CALL FOR HELP—Pretty Pat London, 20, of 138 Palmer St., is trying out a prototype of Michigan Bell Telephone Co.'s new emergency reporting phone box. She can report a fire to firemen or a serious auto accident to police simply by lifting the phone off the hook. These bright red boxes will replace the familiar Gamewell fire alarm boxes on Pontiac street corners by next spring.

"The false alarm culprit can't just throw a switch and run. He must stay there long enough to report the emergency and this means he may be seen and identified by someone."

Through Oct. 1 this year, 166 alarms have come into the fire department from boxes. Of these, 125 have been false. Only 41 were bona fide fires.

Just cutting false alarms in half would save the city a lot of money. Of the 41 fires, many didn't require the standard complement of two engines and one ladder truck; a few required more.

This year's figures are not unusual. In the five years through Dec. 31, 1960, there were 928 box alarms—691 were false.

SAFETY FACTOR

Another advantage is if there's a break or short circuit in one phone box, only that box goes out. With our present system, if one box on a 20-box circuit goes out, they all go out," said White.

He pointed to underground wiring as a safety feature. "Our circuits now are about 46 per cent underground. The phone system will be 84 per cent underground.

"If we ever have a tornado or damaging storm, the underground circuits reduce chances of wires snapping and circuits going out," White explained.

In such cases when many calls are coming in at one time, the board can be split for two-man operation. It also guards against the possibility of an operator suffering a heart attack.

Mock CD Test Surprises City

Patrol Car Early Today Calls 'Disaster,' Crews Rush to Rescue

Fire trucks, police cars, rescue units and ambulances rushed to the Department of Parks and Recreation service building at East Boulevard and Featherstone Road in a mock civil defense test this morning.

Some 100 city employes were involved in the exercise.

It was a surpr to just about everyone except avid S. Teel, administrative assistant, who directed the test.

The exercise was triggered at 8:15 a.m. when a patrol car reported a "disaster area" at the site.

Firemen were tested on fire control, police and auxiliary police worked on traffic control blocking off the area, and city crews handled six rescue problems.

★ ★ ★

A simulated morgue was set up as well as a first aid area. "Bodies" were scattered atop the two-story building and on the grounds.

Pledges Troops if Attack Starts

Park Assured of U.S. Cooperation to Develop Nation; Regime OKayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — South Korea's Gen. Chung Hee Park has President Kennedy's promise of U.S. aid "including the use of armed forces if there is a renewal of armed attack."

Kennedy assured Park that the United States would continue to extend all possible economic aid and cooperation for the further development of the nation for which U.S. troops fought a decade ago.

★ ★ ★

The pledge was also official approval for Park's military regime, which overthrew the U.S.-supported government six months ago.

The approval came Tuesday in a joint communique after Kennedy and Park held two meetings lasting about three hours.

CABINET TALKS

The 44-year-old Korean leader was to confer today with three of Kennedy's Cabinet members — Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges.

For the first time the President publicly declared "gratification at the many indications of progress" being made by Park's junta after it seized power last May 16 and ousted an elected government.

In addition, Kennedy pledged the U.S. government to "extend all possible economic aid and cooperation to the Republic of Korea in order to further long-range economic development."

★ ★ ★

Korean sources said that working groups of Korean and U.S. officials would consider detailed plans later.

First Hunter Reported Coming Back With Deer

MACKINAW CITY (AP) — George Shorkey, a Bay City hunter, was reported by the Mackinac Bridge Authority to be the first person to cross the bridge with a deer since the 1961 deer season opened today at 6 a.m.

Shorkey told bridge officials he shot a spikehorn near Brevoort, in the Upper Peninsula, at 8:05 a.m., about two hours after the season opened.

Bridge authorities reported a drop in the number of hunters crossing the bridge into the Upper Peninsula this year. An estimated 17,206 hunters crossed the bridge in the four days before the season opened this year, compared with an estimated 20,991 last year.

Ready to Move on Arms Talks

Stevenson Set to Press for U.N. Action to Get Negotiations Resumed

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson was ready to press today for quick U.N. action to get the disrupted East-West disarmament negotiations started again.

This word came from authoritative sources as the General Assembly's main political committee prepared to begin a comprehensive debate on general disarmament. Stevenson was scheduled to speak immediately after Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin delivered a Soviet policy speech.

★ ★ ★

There was no direct word from the Russians as to what Zorin would say, but some delegations assumed he would offer to negotiate if five nonaligned countries are added to the five Western and five Communist countries that took part in the negotiations that collapsed in Geneva 17 months ago.

INSIST ON EXTENSION

The Soviets have been insisting upon this extension of the troika principle to the disarmament negotiations. The Western powers have refused to give equal representation to the nonaligned countries.

The question of how many countries should be included in the negotiations has been the main stumbling block to a resumption of negotiations. Stevenson and John J. McCloy, former U.S. disarmament representative, sought to resolve this issue last summer in a series of private meetings with Zorin but without success.

West to Oppose Congo Motion

Africans to Urge Use of Force to Drive Out Katanger Mercenaries

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — An Asian-African demand for use of force to drive foreign mercenaries out of the Congo's Katanga Province was expected to run into strong Western opposition today.

★ ★ ★

The Security Council meets this afternoon to take up a resolution by Ceylon, Liberia and the United Arab Republic that would authorize acting Secretary-General U Thant to use force if necessary to expel foreign fighting men hired by Katanga President Moise Tshombe's secessionist regime.

OUTBURST CERTAIN

A new African outburst against Tshombe also was certain in the wake of a U.N. investigating committee's suggestion that former Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba was murdered last January, probably in the presence of high Katanga officials.

★ ★ ★

Britain and France were scheduled to take the floor at the outset of today's debate. They have reportedly joined the United States in opposing any council action that would direct U.N. forces to join the Congo army in an offensive against Katanga.

URGES CONCILIATION

The West is seeking adoption of a milder resolution reaffirming support of the U.N. Congo command and urging negotiations to end the Katanga secession.

Informed sources said U Thant is also against the use of force as a matter of principle and strongly favors using conciliation to deal with the crisis.

★ ★ ★

The three-nation resolution assailed Tshombe's insurgent stand and rapped his regime for taking armed action when U.N. forces seized key points in South Katanga last September. The resolution called on U Thant to take necessary steps to prevent entry or return of mercenaries to Katanga and to stop the flow of arms to Tshombe's forces.

See Compromise in Fight Over Sleeping Bear

BEULAH (UPI) — The real possibility of compromise in settling the fight over the Sleeping Bear sand dune was emphasized today by the announcement that the Benzie County Board of Supervisors now support the establishment of the national seashore in the area.

Benzie and Leelanau counties would be the site of the area, which might include as many as 92,000 acres of scenic sand dune property.

Supervisor Allen Blacklock of Gilmore Township introduced the resolution which superceded a September statement asking for a go-slow policy in setting up the park.

The original resolution said the park should not be established until "such time as objectionable provisions are eliminated."

New Ruling Sparks Hills to Purchase Insurance

BIRMINGHAM — The recent State Supreme Court ruling making cities liable for accidents prompted the Bloomfield Hills City Commission last night to purchase a half million dollars of insurance.

The blanket liability policy will cost the city approximately $1,-200 annually, according to City Manager Elmer Kephart.

"The action is quite important to the city," Kephart said. "We were carrying some insurance but only on injuries that might occur in City Hall."

"The commission has been studying the purchase of insurance for the last month, ever since the court decision made the city vulnerable," the manager said.

The policy will be purchased from General Underwriter of Detroit.

Appointment of Herman F. Luhrs of 3798 Darlington Road, Bloomfield Township, as vice chairman of the American Legion's National Military Affairs Committee was announced today by Marshall M. Taylor, commander of the Michigan Department of the American Legion.

Luhrs' appointment to the high post in the national organization was made by National Commander Charles L. Bacon of Kansas City, Mo.

Luhrs also is a past president of the Department of Michigan.

The Birmingham Rotary Anns will meet Monday for a 1 p.m. luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. Wallace Reid, 2160 Northlawn St.

A talk on Christmas floral decorations will be given by John Moss.

Ellery J. Cloutier Sr.

A Requiem Mass for Ellery J. Cloutier Sr., 67, of 1771 Derby St., will be said 10 a.m. tomorrow at Holy Name Church. Burial will be in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Southfield.

Mr. Cloutier, a retired automotive engineer with the Ford Motor Co., died Monday at his home.

A resident of Birmingham 1½ months, he had moved here from Beverly Hills, where he had made his home for six years.

A veteran automobile body engineer, he served as chief body engineer at Graham-Paige from 1928 to 1941 and in the same capacity with the Brunswick-Balke-Collender Corp., Muskegon. He also was with the Chrysler and Briggs corporations.

He was the first president of the Dads' Club at the U. of D. High School and was a charter member of the American Society of Body Engineers.

Surviving are his wife Mary; five sons, Ellery J. Jr., William L. and Thomas C., all of Birmingham, John C. of Rochester, and James J. of Detroit; a daughter, Mrs. Edward DuCharme of Ferndale; a brother and a sister.

A Rosary will be said 8:30 p.m. today at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co.

Mrs. M. Ray Cook

Service for Mrs. M. Ray (Cleo) Cook, 68, of 1626 Taunton St. will be 2 p.m. Friday at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

★ ★ ★

A member of the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham, Mrs. Cook died yesterday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, after a brief illness.

★ ★ ★

She and her husband had operated a cleaning establishment for 21 years until they retired in 1951. She was a member of the Birmingham Business Women's Club, the Charles Edward American Legion Post Auxiliary and a life member of the Robert Morris chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Detroit.

She is survived by her husband.

Mr. Mansfield died yesterday at his home following a long illness.

★ ★ ★

He had been a manufacturer's representative for the Herbst Shoe Co. for 26 years. He was a past president of the Birmingham Gun Club and a member of the Michigan Shoe Travelers Club.

Surviving are his wife, Ruby C.; a son, Edmond D. Jr. of Lathrup Village; and three grandchildren.

Southwest U.S. Starts to Shovel

Call Snowstorm Worst in 30 Years; Blamed for Deaths of Six

By The Associated Press

Parts of the Southwest began digging out of its first big snowstorm of the season today. It was labeled as the worst in 30 years at El Paso, Tex.

The storm was responsible for the death of one man in New Mexico and five in Texas.

★ ★ ★

Air and auto travel were disrupted, schools were closed, several small towns were isolated and deer hunters were stranded by the storm, which dumped as much as 20 inches of snow in some places.

Airports were closed at Santa Fe and Clovis, N.M., stranding a number of travelers.

RAIN TURNS TO ICE

Eastern New Mexico and West Texas were the hardest hit areas. Thirty inches fell at Ruidoso in Southeastern New Mexico. A drizzling rain which turned to ice covered most of the West Texas plains.

★ ★ ★

El Paso schools and Texas Western College were closed after the city was hit by 7 inches of snow which piled up in drifts 4 and 5 feet deep. At least eight New Mexico school systems —Corona, Carrizozo, Capitan, Hondo, Ruidoso, Elida, Causey and Truth or Consequences — also closed.

★ ★ ★

New Mexico state police closed two roads Tuesday night, isolating Carrizozo. They reopened one which permitted travel into Truth or Consequences, isolated Tuesday.

JFK Aides Told of Area's Plight

A delegation of Oakland County government officials attended sessions of the White House regional conference in Detroit yesterday hoping to learn more about President Kennedy's plans for full employment and economic growth.

★ ★ ★

While the value of what they learned in light of local problems hasn't been ascertained yet, it is certain that members of Kennedy's Administration attending will return to Washington with a broader picture of the metropolitan area's unemployment and economic plight.

Local representatives of government, labor and management did not hesitate to lay these problems on the line for the administration's benefit.

In a discussion headed "Adjusting to Automation" the local people made it clear that they were not satisfied with what has been done to date by the federal government to enable the retraining for new jobs of thousands who have been replaced by machines mostly in the automotive field.

20,000 NOT RECALLED

Fred V. Huggard, president of the Oakland County AFL-CIO Council, noted that a drop in union membership in the area indicates that 20,000 workers laid off in the past three years have not been recalled to the plants.

Automation has accounted for the vast majority of these lost jobs, he said.

The panel of experts from Washington, headed by Seymour Wolfbein, deputy assistant secretary for the department of labor, said efforts were being made to retrain 4 million unemployed throughout the nation, so that they could find new work in today's highly technical field.

Those listening objected that the retraining program was not realistic, mainly because this new work wasn't available locally nor was the training extensive enough.

In opening the session on employment and economic growth Gov. Swainson declared that "Michigan is particularly attuned" to feel the economic changes of the nation.

"When the nation sneezes economically, Michigan catches pneumonia," he said.

CITES STATE RESOURCES

Outlining Michigan's potential for the technological age that already has arrived Swainson cited manpower and natural resources that make this state a desirable location for new industries as it has in the past.

Also on Michigan's credit side, the Governor stated are management knowhow, a skilled labor force and the brainpower supplied by universities researching better methods to make the greatest use of existing skills.

"But an over all economic program in Michigan is essential . . . We need an industrial development corporation to go after new industries," he said.

Among those attending from Oakland County were County Corporation Counsel Norman H. Barnard; Chairman pro tem of the County Board of Supervisors Arno L. Hulet; and board members Frank F. Webber of Addison Township; and Wallace B. Hudson of Troy.

Also, Hugh Charteris, Sidney Frid, Clarence J. Miller, all members of the board's Miscellaneous Committee and having to do with the county's manpower planning; and George Skrubb, director of the county Planning Commission.

crying that Europeans have become cowards and that Asians and Africans are not to be trusted, so we must withdraw from the world and crouch like frightened hermits in our Fortress America."

He asked:

"Does anyone expect the hungry and harassed of the world to stand steadfast in the face of a tyrant's assault if they see us thrashing in despair?"

HIGHLIGHT OF CONFERENCE

Johnson's speech highlighted a two-day White House Conference in Detroit that opened yesterday with discussions of economic and youth problems.

He said the downward trend in jobs and income has been reversed, farm income is up, unemployment compensation has been improved, and 5 million more workers have been brought under minimum wage law protection under the Kennedy administration.

"This (economic) rise is going to continue in 1962," he predicted. "While more of our people are working today than ever before our attention should be given to those not working.

★ ★ ★

In praising the new administration, Johnson referred to $6.4 billion more for defense spend this year.

"Our military strength is far greater today than that of any nation on earth," Johnson assured, "but primarily it is a measure of our domestic strength.

★ ★ ★

"Our success in influencing that great portion of humanity that now stands at the fork in the road will be a reflection largely of what we do in the towns and cities of America, and not just what we promise to do in faraway lands.

★ ★ ★

"I say there is an inescapable code of justice in the world, and the nations live or die according to their respect for that code."

190 Reported Killed in Mexican Cyclone

ACAPULCO, Mexico (AP)—Belated reports Thursday night from coast villages flattened by a cyclone brought word of at least 190 dead.

Authorities said the toll probably would rise still more with the restoration of communications cut along a 120-mile stretch north of Acapulco when the storm roared ashore last weekend.

Willman Is Honored at Final Meeting

"many fine improvements" under Willman's guidance.

"His vision of a better city and plans for the future inspired many people to be proud of Pontiac and to work for a better city — a city with a heart.

"We inherit these things. This is his legacy. We are going to miss him very much," Stierer said.

Then, breaking into a smile, Stierer looked at Willman and said, "We look forward to seeing you as a non-combative taxpaying resident at the annual city employes awards banquet Dec. 4 when you will hold the unique position of guest of honor and master-of-ceremonies."

Pontiac Postmaster William W. Donaldson, a former Pontiac mayor, attended the meeting and spoke briefly in appreciation of Willman's guidance during his years on the commission.

Phones Will Replace Fire Boxes in Pontiac

predetermined time, a bell is automatically tripped in the quarters of the captain on duty.

OTHER USES

"The beauty of all this is that it isn't only for fires," said Donald Porter, Pontiac district sales manager for Michigan Bell.

"People can report anything where police or fire equipment is needed immediately. A woman walking home at night can phone for aid if she sees a strange man following her," Porter said.

Pontiac will be the 10th Michigan city to use the Bell system.

This is how it works:

1. You open the door on the box and take the phone receiver off its cradle. This instantly activates a buzzer and a light on the big master switchboard at the fire station, identifying the box location.

2. The board operator plugs you into his headset. If you need police, he switches you into the police department where your call is handled and police dispatched.

3. If you need fire equipment, the operator finds out what type of fire is involved and its exact location.

4. Then, he pulls a switch that activates a paging circuit to the appropriate fire station. The tone is an alert.

5. He then dispatches trucks vocally over the public address paging system wired from the board to all stations. He can talk to individual stations or all at once.

★ ★ ★

While the phone boxes will completely replace Gamewell boxes on streets, the change in business, industrial and public buildings will be varied, said Porter.

★ ★ ★

The number of boxes will be cut in residential areas and increased in areas where there is high life and property loss hazard, such as downtown. Many will be placed on arterial highways or major intersections.

★ ★ ★

Schools, industry, hospitals and other large buildings hooked up in the present Gamewell system will be offered the phone system, but it won't be forced on them.

Vopos Toss Rocks, Tear Gas Over Wall

A bus and street light in Bernauerstrasse, in the French sector, were damaged. The West police said they didn't know what set the East Berliners off.

★ ★ ★

East and West Berlin guards exchanged tear gas fire across the wall earlier in Wittenau, another district in northwest Berlin. The East Berliners hurled 60 grenades at a West Berlin loudspeaker truck and the West police replied with 53.

Youth Caught in Combine

SAGINAW (AP) — A 17-year-old Saginaw youth was caught by his left foot in a bean combine chopper for two hours Tuesday before he could be freed. Albert Beasley was reported in fair condition at St. Luke's Hospital, where spokesmen said part of his mangled leg may be amputated.

But Jackie, Nina Disagree

First Ladies for Peace

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. John F. Kennedy and Mrs. Nikita Khrushchev agree that women should exert their influence for peace.

But, like their husbands, they disagree on how to go about achieving peace.

Each echoed her husband in written replies to the women's "Strike for Peace" launched here Nov. 1.

The letters were received Tuesday by Mrs. Dagmar Wilson, a Washington mother of three who was one of the organizers of the movement.

Mrs. Kennedy mentioned that her husband knows war first hand and that she is confident "he will do everything in his power to avoid it."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Khrushchev said that threats "are made to destroy our homes, to kill our husbands, to take lives of our children."

Woman Given Damages for Hours Couldn't Talk

LONDON (AP)— Three biscuit tins fell on Queenie Fory's head at the grocer's shop where she works. She lost her voice.

A court awarded her 5 pounds —$14—damages against the firm Tuesday for those lost hours of talking.

Truck Sparks Tagged as Cause of Blaze

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Stray sparks from a truck could have caused the fourth recent major brush fire in the Los Angeles area which swept 2,365 acres and leveled nine homes, officials say.

★ ★ ★

The blaze was controlled Tuesday. Fire danger was high because of gusty winds, low humidity and a prolonged drought in the area.

The blaze broke out Monday afternoon in little Tujunga Canyon about 25 miles northwest of downtown Los Angeles.

★ ★ ★

Most of the fire-scorched brush covered foothills of Angeles National Forest. The nine homes were gutted late Monday when hundreds of persons were evacuated from the area. The homes were valued at an average of $15,000.

War Hysteria Mounting Over Vote on West Irian

JAKARTA (AP)—War hysteria is mounting in Indonesia as the United Nations approaches a vote on a Dutch proposal to give West New Guinea self-determination.

Led by President Sukarno, who declared that Indonesia would get West New Guinea with or without the approval of the United Nations, top government leaders have called on the people to prepare for war.

★ ★ ★

Sukarno insists that West New Guinea, as part of the prewar Dutch East Indies, is an integral part of Indonesia.

★ ★ ★

The Dutch, which retained the western half of the big island after Indonesia won independence, contend that its mostly primitive Papuan population is ethnically separate from the Indonesians and entitled to determine its own future. The Dutch want the United Nations to administer the territory until the people are ready for a plebiscite.

JAKARTA TENSE

Australia governs the eastern half of New Guinea. So far the Indonesians have made no claim to it.

Jakarta is tense as U.N. debate on the Dutch proposal nears.

The air force has sent two bomber and fighter wings to patrol West New Guinea's borders.

The army has reinforced its garrisons in Ambon, East Indonesia.

★ ★ ★

Long-range Soviet-made TU16 jet bombers, acquired three months ago under a gigantic arms deal with the Soviet Union, have set off on training missions reportedly over North Sumatra.

★ ★ ★

In Jakarta's huge Merdeka Square, thousands of young men and girls have volunteered for rigorous military training, mainly in the use of rifles and guerrilla warfare.

★ ★ ★

Top military leaders are touring the country, calling on the population to "be ready to die" for West Irian, as the Indonesians call the territory.

Wheat Germ for Power; Candied Fruit for Fun

Fruit nut bars are good eating. Children wolf them after school with tall glasses of milk. They make nutritious bedtime snacks for adults. To give them a little extra nutrition value and a more crunchy texture; add wheat germ to your recipe. The result is rather special snacking.

★ ★ ★

Put the fruit bars in school or factory lunch box, or serve for lunch or dinner at home. Top with a scoop of ice cream for festive affairs. For future use, make an extra batch, wrap in foil and store in the freezer.

Wheat Germ Fruit Nut Bars

¾ cup sifted all-purpose flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
⅛ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup (packed) lump-free brown sugar
¾ cup wheat germ
2 eggs
¾ cup melted shortening or cooking oil
¼ cup honey
½ cup chopped walnuts or pecans
¾ cup chopped mixed candied fruits
Confectioners' sugar if desired

Sift together the flour, baking powdered, salt and cinnamon. Stir in brown sugar and wheat germ. Beat eggs, shortening or oil and honey together well. Gradually add dry ingredients and mix well after each addition. Fold in nuts and fruits.

Spread batter evenly into a greased 10x6x1¾-inch pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until done, about 30 minutes. Cool on rack. Cut into bars 2½-inches long and 1½-inches wide. Serve plain or with confectioners' sugar sifted over top.

You can add as much as 1½ cups diced celery to 2 cups of diced chicken when you are making a salad.

Crimson Cranberry Contributes Color to Cooks

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Had you been one of the passengers on the Mayflower, one of the sights in the new world would have been cranberries growing in the swamps. Indians used these bright little berries and taught the Pilgrims how to prepare them.

In a cookbook published in 1683 there was a recipe for cranberry juice:

★ ★ ★

"Put a teacupful of cranberries into a cup of water and mash them. In the meantime, boil 2 quarts and a pint of water with one large spoonful of oatmeal and a very large bit of lemon peel. Then add the cranberries and as much fine Lisbon sugar as shall leave a smart."

Today we revel in cranberries during the fall and winter months and continue to enjoy them from the freezer and cans the rest of the year.

If you are serving fresh cranberry relish for Thanksgiving dinner, spoon it into scooped out orange shells for individual servings. Here is the relish recipe for those who have never made it.

Tangy Orange Cranberry Relish

4 cups fresh cranberries
3 unpeeled California oranges, quartered
2 cups sugar
3 oranges, halved
Walnut halves for garnish

Put cranberries and unpeeled orange quarters through the food chopper. Add sugar and mix well. Chill. When ready to serve, scoop out orange halves and fill with the relish. Top with walnuts. Arrange filled oranges around roast turkey.

★ ★ ★

In the olden days a sherbet instead of a salad was used to refresh the palate before another meat course was served (medieval dinners were heavy with meat). You may serve cranberry sherbet as a first course with fruit, along with the turkey, or as dessert. Made with strawberry gelatin, it adds a pleasing tart course to the meal.

Cranberry Strawberry Sherbet

1 pint cranberry juice cocktail
1 package strawberry flavored gelatin
½ cup sugar
1 cup light cream or milk
½ cup lemon juice

Heat 1 cup cranberry juice cocktail; add gelatin and sugar; stir until dissolved. Add remaining cranberry juice cocktail, cream and lemon juice; mix thoroughly. Freeze in ice cube tray until firm. Spoon into chilled bowl; beat with electric mixer or hand beater until smooth. Return to tray; freeze until firm. Makes 1 quart.

★ ★ ★

Did you ever make a fresh cranberry pie? This one will remind you a bit of pecan pie, although not so rich.

Southern Style Cranberry Pie

1½ cups sugar
2 tablespoons flour
3 eggs
1½ tablespoons melted butter or margarine
3 cups fresh cranberries, put through coarse blade of food grinder
1 9" unbaked pastry shell

Combine sugar and flour. Beat eggs slightly. Add to sugar-flour, beating 'til smooth. Add butter and ground cranberries. Blend thoroughly. Pour into pie shell. Bake in 450 degree F. oven 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 350 degree F. and bake 30 minutes. Makes 1 9" pie.

Williams Back Home, Tells Con-Con What's What

LANSING (AP)—The most experienced voice in Michigan state government — former Gov. G. Mennen Williams — returned with some words of advice for the constitutional convention.

★ ★ ★

Williams, who filled the job of Chief Executive for an unprecedented six terms, gave his views Tuesday to a committee studying the powers of the executive branch.

The tall, graying Williams was the third man to speak from experience on the subject. Previous witnesses were Gov. Swainson, who succeeded Williams this year, and former Gov. Wilber Brucker.

Williams, now assistant secretary of state for African affairs, drew the largest crowd of the three.

250 CROWD IN

★ ★ ★

"I believe strongly in the theory of balance of powers," he said. "But I believe that the way to meet this challenge—particularly in this day when the states must be active to maintain their rightful place in the federal system—is to create the strongest possible executive and balance with the strongest possible legislature.

★ ★ ★

"In this way Michigan can benefit from two strong arms of government rather than suffer from two weak ones."

Michigan's governors should be elected to four-year terms rather than the present two years, Williams said, adding that he saw no merit in limiting the number of terms a governor could serve.

"If the governor is a good one, the people are entitled to h'is services as long as they want," Williams declared. "If he is a bad one, one term is too long."

The ex-governor was emphatic in his opposition to the state's spring elections, which he described as "detrimental to good government."

He said the elections disrupt the legislative session and bog down the lawmakers.

SPRING VOTE BAD

"Important legislation fails to get consideration until the legislators get the returns of the spring elections, either in hope or fear, that the returns will reinforce or upset the fall 'election,' Williams asserted, adding:

"In short, the spring election diverts public officials from the main job at hand and the people's business is hindered or prevented."

Williams said the election could be held in the fall of the odd years, thus avoiding the legislative upset.

Williams, who clashed frequently with the legislature during his lengthy term in office, made several suggestions for strengthening the lawmaking body.

★ ★ ★

Reapportionment topped the list. He said the legislature must be equally and fairly apportioned because otherwise "it is improbable that the legislature will keep up with its responsibilities in a fast-moving world."

Other suggestions included allowing the senate to elect its own president (a duty handled now by the lieutenant governor); raising legislators' pay; giving the legislature the right to call a special session and the right to select the auditor general.

HE'S HOME AGAIN—Former Gov. G. Mennen Williams was back in Lansing Tuesday to give his views on the executive office to a constitutional convention committee. Williams, now assistant secretary of state for African affairs, told the committee Michigan needs both a strong governor and a strong legislature. Here he flashes the famed smile that helped him win the governor's chair for an unprecedented 12 years. Next to Williams is committee chairman John B. Martin, R-Grand Rapids.

Chiropractors Rap Legislature

Attend Detroit Meeting; Ask Fair Treatment for Specialty

LANSING (AP) — The Michigan State Chiropractic Society has demanded that the legislature "be forced to quit doing the bidding of organized medicine."

It also has asked the legislature to "insist that Michigan's citizens have a free choice of doctor and mode of treatment as licensed in this state."

Dr. Russell R. Robbins, executive secretary, pointed out that the Medical Care for the Aged Act, amended in the last session of the legislature, included payment for nursing home care, but excluded outpatient services as supplied by licensed doctors of chiropractic services which are allowable under the State Welfare Act, he added.

Robbins' demand was sparked by an angry charge against the medical profession by Dr. Martin Cherkasky, director of the Columbia University-affiliated Montefiore Hospital.

Cherkasky, addressing the 89th annual meeting of the American Public Health Association in Detroit Monday, urged public health authorities to arouse the public to demand better medical care from doctors, hospitals and nursing homes.

Cherkasky rapped present medical care programs for encouraging bad practice.

N.Y. Governor Claims U.S. Would Endanger Free World by Quitting

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says the United States could jeopardize the safety of the free world by agreeing now to a ban on testing of nuclear weapons.

President Kennedy has said that any such agreement would have to be accompanied by safeguards to make certain there was no cheating.

★ ★ ★

The President has ordered that preparations be made for testing in the air in the event that studies of the Soviet Union's recent series of tests show that the military position of the United States has been endangered.

Rockefeller said Tuesday that existing detection systems to police any such ban are not foolproof and would take at least three years to install.

WOULD MOVE AHEAD

That period, he said in a statement, could be used by the Soviet Union to prepare for new tests "while we stand still for another three years."

★ ★ ★

Rockefeller urged American resumption of full-scale nuclear testing, saying he considers testing in the atmosphere a prime factor in giving America superiority over the combined manpower of the Soviet Union and Communist China.

Lucille Ball Shops Today for Wedding Dress

NEW YORK (AP)—Lucille Ball planned to shop today for a wedding gown appropriate for the "small, quiet and informal" ceremony she and comic Gary Morton plan Sunday.

★ ★ ★

The couple obtained a marriage license Tuesday at the Municipal Building. Their visit was a bright one, with Morton bantering with newsmen and his bouncy bride-to-be laughing often.

★ ★ ★

One of Miss Ball's happiest exclamations came when they filled out the application form. It bore the number 26614, which adds up to 19—Lucille's lucky number.

Midland Freeway Gap Now Open After Year

LANSING (AP)—A 1,000-foot gap in the U.S. 10 freeway business route into Midland has been opened to traffic after a year's delay caused by right-of-way problems, the State Highway Department announced.

More than three miles of the business route was opened last November. Temporary detours carried traffic around the unfinished gap.

Throws Dad in Jail for Gross Neglect

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Philip E. Wilber, 46, drew a 90-day jail sentence for letting his two teenaged daughters live for seven weeks in a dilapidated former corn crib.

Wilber was sentenced by acting municipal judge Alfred A. Sullivan, who termed the case "the most flagrant violation I have ever seen."

Police said Wilber, a widower, lived elsewhere and only once, during the seven weeks, brought food to the girls, aged 16 and 13. Wilber pleaded guilty to child neglect.

The girls are now staying with relatives. A probate court hearing to determine where they will live permanently has been set for later this month.

Upholds Grant to Music

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI)—The Iowa Supreme Court has upheld the will of the late William E. Hawks, who left $228,000 to provide voice instruction in the music curricula of Iowa grade schools and kindergartens.

Hagerty Has Sympathy for Successor Salinger

PITTSBURGH (AP)—James C. Hagerty, presidential press secretary in the Eisenhower administration, says he has much sympathy for Pierre Salinger, President Kennedy's press secretary.

★ ★ ★

"I have nothing but sympathy for him or anyone else in that job," Hagerty said Tuesday at a news conference. I'm for Pierre."

★ ★ ★

Hagerty, now vice president in charge of news for the American Broadcasting Co., said "I haven't lost my temper once since noon on Jan. 20."

Demands JFK Repudiate 'Slur' of Rocky by Dem

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican National Chairman William E. Miller says his Democratic counterpart's statement on Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was a "vicious and vulgar personal attack." He demands that President Kennedy repudiate it.

★ ★ ★

The Democratic national chairman, John M. Bailey, told a news conference Monday that a congressional redistricting bill signed by the New York governor was "Rockymandering" and "an example of political larceny in the robber baron tradition."

Bailey contended the measure, passed last Friday by the Republican-controlled legislature, would give the Republicans a distinct advantage and cost the Democrats six seats.

"Your granddad would have been proud of you, Nelson," Bailey added, in reference to the late oil magnate John D. Rockefeller.

Miller, in a statement Tuesday, said "this outside hatchet work will be deeply resented by the citizens of New York state no matter what their political affiliation."

PALMDALE, Calif. (AP)— The mother and stepfather of actor Robert Mitchum were injured critically Tuesday when their car collided with an empty hay truck, the highway patrol reported.

Set to Purchase Intertown Lines

Eastern Transit Firm Talks to Downriver Mayors, Union Men

DETROIT (AP) — A representative of a Washington, D.C., transit company today said his firm was ready to purchase and operate the idle Intertown Suburban Bus Lines Corp.

★ ★ ★

Intertown, which served 14 communities in Western Wayne County, has not operated since its drivers and mechanics struck 107 days ago to back up their contract demands.

★

Morris Fox, executive vice president of the D-C Transit Corp., met Tuesday night with several downriver mayors at Lincoln Park city hall. Earlier in the day he met separately with company and union officials.

"I have discussed the purchase with Intertown and they are willing to sell," Fox said. "I also have talked with the union and they are willing to go back to work.

"We can certainly provide immediate service to all communities concerned," he added, "but we must first receive certain concessions from both the union and the communities to be served."

★ ★ ★

Intertown was ordered by the Michigan Public Service Commission to resume service to its estimated 30,000 riders immediately. The MPSC acted after the union voted Monday to end its strike.

★ ★ ★

The company had notified the strikers on Oct. 4 that it planned to close down permanently. But the MPSC on Oct. 18 ordered Intertown to restore service upon termination of the strike.

About 85 per cent of the new homes built this year will be of the one-family, one-story type.

Girls' State Delegate Speaks to Auxiliary

The Saturday night meeting of Chief Pontiac Auxiliary No. 377, American Legion was highlighted by DiAnne Call's account of her nine-day stay at the University of Michigan as the auxiliary's representative to Girls' State. DiAnne is a student at Pontiac Northern High School.

Mrs. Joseph Charter, rehabilitation chairman, announced that Christmas gifts for the Veterans Hospital Gift Shop had been purchased and were on display for the members to view. A donation from the group was sent to the hospital to help defray expenses of repairing television sets used by the hospitalized veterans.

Budget for 1961-62 was presented by Mrs. Edward Myers, chairman, and was adopted by the group.

Mrs. Alfred Gulda, ways and means chairman, announced final plans for the "Country Fair" to be held 5 to 9 p.m. Dec. 2.

Chairmen of booths are: Mrs. Carter, snack bar; Mrs. Lewis Tate, wood working; Mrs. Frank Huebner, Christmas handicraft; Mrs. Donald Clark, baked goods; Mrs. Macom, handmade doll clothes; Mrs. William Tunningley, needlecraft; Mrs. Stephen Winowiski Jr., pig-in-a-poke; Mrs. James Cheyne, plant jungle; and Mrs. L. D. McLauchlin, rummage sale.

CONDUCTED CEREMONY

Mrs. McLauchlin, auxiliary president, introduced Commander McLauchlin who conducted the ceremony. Assisting him were Lyle Brown, William Tunningley, Marahall Charter, Verner Macom, Stephen Winowiski Jr., Donald Richmond and Cletus Reed.

Fold Beaten Egg Whites Into Pumpkin Pie Filling

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Want to add another pumpkin pie recipe to your collection? This is one that rises very high during the baking, then drops a little as it cools.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Emery Pierce of Clarkston is our cook. She says she always makes two pies so that her family of four children have enough. Playing the piano is her hobby.

LIGHT PUMPKIN PIE
By Mrs. Emery Pierce

2 cups canned pumpkin
3 eggs, separated
1 cup milk
¾ cup sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon ginger
¼ teaspoon nutmeg

Blend together beaten egg yolks and rest of ingredients. Beat egg whites stiff and fold in last. Pour into 9-inch unbaked pie shell. Bake at 450 degrees for 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 325 degrees and bake an additional 45 to 50 minutes.

Avoid Gift That Is Personal

By the Emily Post Institute

Q. One of the young women with whom I work has gone out of her way on numerous occasions to do favors for me. I would like to show my appreciation by giving her a present at Christmas. She is single and I am married. Would this fact make the giving of a present improper? I don't want this gesture to be misconstrued by her or others in the office. Will you please give me your opinion?

A: I don't see how your kind intention could possibly be misconstrued as long as the present is not a personal one. Anything for her personal adornment would, of course, be very questionable.

Q: One of the young women in our office is to be married soon. The girls in the entire department will be giving her a shower and our immediate office will give her a wedding gift.

In accepting the invitation to her wedding and reception, will I be obliged to give her a separate wedding gift in addition to have contributed toward the one from the office?

A. If the others in your immediate office are invited to the wedding and reception, there is no obligation to send an additional gift. But if you are the only one she is inviting, she evidently considers you a special friend and, if you can afford it, a gift from you personally will surely please her.

★ ★ ★

Q: I am going to be married soon at a very small wedding with just the immediate families present. Many of my friends and relatives do, however, know of my forthcoming marriage.

I would like to know if wedding announcements should be sent to them anyway, or whether they are sent only to those who do not know of my marriage?

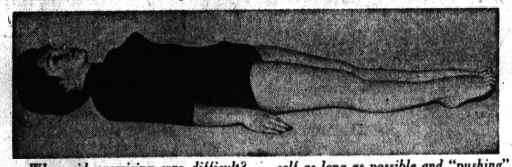
Does the bride's mother wear a long or a short dress? For information on the correct clothes of the bride and groom's parents as well as those of the wedding guests, send for the new Emily Post Institute booklet entitled "Clothes at Wedding Receptions." To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to cover cost of handling, and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to The Emily Post Institute, care of The Pontiac Press.



Who said exercising was difficult? It looks like she's lying down until the urge to exercise goes away. Actually, she's stretching the spine—making herself as long as possible and "pushing" with the top of the head. This is good for the neckline.

To Keep Neck From Shrinking

You Can Stretch Spine

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

When I questioned one of the truly great teachers of physical education concerning what really happens to spoil the beauty of a woman's neckline, he reminded me that the spine shortens as one grows older and that this accounts for much of the slack. The neck settles and shortens.

He feels that the important thing is to stretch the spine. It is essential that you stand as tall and sit as tall and walk as tall as you possibly can. You should reach for the ceiling with the top of the head so that you feel the pull of the muscles at the back of the neck.

If you have a gymnasium nearby, try hanging from a horizontal bar, with your feet dangling. This helps stretch the spine.

The following exercises will be beneficial. Stnd tall or sit tall in front of a mirror. Keep your shoulders quiet and relaxed as you bend head toward your left shoulder. Hold for a few seconds.

Lift the head. This time bend it toward your right shoulder. Hold. Return to normal position. Now bend the head forward, bringing the chin close to the chest. Raise the head slowly and move the head backward. Return head to normal position and continue. This loosens up the muscles.

★ ★ ★

Another for stretching the spine: Lie on your back on the floor, with your arms on the floor at your sides. Keep the head, shoulders and hips all on the floor as you try to make yourself as long as possible; keep trying, pushing back with the top of your head.

You will feel the pull through the neck. Work at this for a few seconds. Relax and continue.

There is no doubt that we should fight settling down and stiffening up physically as well as mentally and emotionally.

If you woud like to have my leaflet, "Is Your Chinline a Pain in the Neck&" send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 10. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Square Dance Club's Meeting Attended by 70

Thirty-five couples attended the Grand Square Dance Club's meeting in Donelson School Saturday evening.

An area orchestra played for novelty and square dancing with calling by Norman Hill.

Refreshments were served amidst Veterans' Day decorations. Serving on the evening's committee were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Klinkhammer, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blank, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Struble and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Todd.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mair, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Braski, Mr. and Mrs. Whitey Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neveile and Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Tomkine.

★ ★ ★

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Novotney, Mr. and Mrs. John Walworth, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Daul, Joseph Hughes, Garry Gazette, Patricia Rainey and Karen Wyatt.

The next dance, annual guest night, will be Nov. 25.

Grumbling Good Way to Blow Off Steam

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Her father-in-law had suffered a heart attack. Because his wife was too old to give him convalescent care, their daughter-in-law took them into her home until the invalid recoved.

She complained to me about the necessity of rearranging the down stairs floor when her youngster turned on a TV broadcast of a baseball game in the next room.

She called, "Turn that thing off!" -- and was obeyed. But we could both hear him grumbling something about this "yak-yak-yak again about grandpa."

"What was that you said?" his mother called. "Come in here and apologize — or go up to your room! The very idea of talking back like that to mother . . .!"

Yet for 30 minutes the lady herself had been grumbling about an obedience to family obligation that she didn't want to render.

If we were able to wholeheartedly indulge other people's demands on us, we would be entitled to demand unprotesting obedience from children. We can't and we don't. We, too, grumble at having to deliver obedience.

Although we appear in court for a traffic violation, we mutter to anyone who will listen, "Having to take time like this off from my business because a cop is too dumb to listen . . .!"

Although we lend Bill the $3 he asks for, we say, "Why do you always ask for cash at the end of the week when you know I'm short?"

TAKE ON JOBS

We accept the chairmanship of a PTA committee; but when we get home we complain, "It's just like Fran Pearce to saddle me with this extra work when I'm trying to get the rugs down and the drapes back up for the winter."

In us, as in children, this grumbling back talk serves a useful purpose. It enables us to withstand the strains involved in doing our duty.

If this release of protesting feelings were denied to us, we'd find it even harder than we do to manage our social existence.

So it behooves us to ignore it in children — and content ourselves with the fact of their obedience.

It's only tyrants or romantics who expect other people to obey them with pure and unprotesting gladness."

Educator Speaks at Meeting of Business Women

The Waterford-Clarkston Business and Professional Women's Club members attended a recent dinner meeting at the Hotel Waldron.

Mrs. H. A. Mitchell, career advancement chairman, introduced Steve Hubbell, vocational coordinator at Waterford Township High School. He discussed the work of his department and commented on the recent Career Day at the school.

Inis McClard of Clarkston, recipient of the club's current scholarship, gave details of her college work at Michigan State University Oakland.

Members will bring gifts for the girls at the Oakland County Youth Home to the annual Christmas party at the Hatchery Road home of Mrs. Edmund L. Windeler.

Mrs. Mitchell, hostess for the evening, was assisted by Florence Schlosser and Mrs. Windeler.

BONNIE SUE NEWBY

January vows are planned by Bonnie Sue Newby, daughter of the Walter J. Newbys of North Avalon Drive to Airman 3.C. Gary L. Barger, son of the Lowell Bargers of North Paddock Street.

Congregational Unit Elects New Officers

Mrs. William Miller was elected president of the Saybrook group of the First Congregational church Friday. At the luncheon meeting, held at the home of Mrs. Grieg Smith on Colrain Drive other officers elected were Mrs. James Cheal, vice president; Mrs. Willis Ott, recording secretary; Mrs. Forest Bouck, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Jack Moore, treasurer.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MRS. Sophia Omelian who passed away November 15, 1958.
Dear Mother and memories,
Of a dear mother gone to rest,
And the one who thinks of her today
Is the one who loved her best.
Remembered by daughter Francisco.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY DEAR mother, Sophia Omelian who passed away three years ago today, November 15, 1958.
Your presence is ever near me
You were kind and true
You never forgot me
Sadly missed by loving daughter, Heide Omelian.

IN BELOVED MEMORY OF MY mother, Annette H. Alston, who died November 15, 1949 Janice.

Circuit Judges Race With Time

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

One of the largest backlogs of civil jury cases in Oakland County Circuit Court history gets top priority when a new jury starts work in two weeks.

Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams, presiding judge this term, said he and and other four circuit judges will hear only civil cases when the next [illegible] begins Nov. 28.

None of Prosecutor George F. Taylor's nearly 175 pending criminal cases will be tried. They'll have to wait until the term beginning in January.

★ ★ ★

Facing the circuit judges will be 523 cases, the majority being negligence or accident cases needing jury decisions.

"We're further behind than we've been in a long time," Judge Adams said.

"We disposed of many (160) last term and it appeared as though just as many new cases became ready for trial," he said.

It is the first time the judges can remember having to devote an entire term — Nov. 28-Dec. 15 — to civil cases. Usual procedure is for three judges to listen to civil cases and two to criminal.

SUSPENDED — Charles O. Junge has been dropped from the payroll of the University of Washington after failing to return on time from a European trip he is taking with his wife. Mrs. Junge told the Seattle Post-Intelligencer Tuesday in a phone conversation from Prague, Czechoslovakia, that the couple did not plan to return.

Judge Adams said the new policy shouldn't put Taylor too far behind because there usually isn't a December jury term.

"But we were counting on using this one if it was to be impaneled," the prosecutor said.

The number of civil cases is double that of 1½ years ago, according to Louis E. Fairbrother, assignment clerk for the court.

Fairbrother said it is now running about nine months from the time a case is "noticed for issue" — ready for trial — and when the case is actually heard. A year ago the time lag was from five to six months, he said.

He attributed the backlog and delay to the rapid growth in the county and subsequent increase of number of cases, as well as more attorneys submitting their cases for jury decisions rather than seeking settlement out of court.

6TH CIRCUIT JUDGE?

The change in practice has suddenly renewed talk around the courthouse that Oakland County might be in need of adding a sixth circuit judge.

"I'm hopeful we will get two more judges," Taylor said. "We deserve them in Oakland County because our present judges are overworked."

Seek Murderer of Clubwoman

Police Run Into Web of Puzzling Clues in Attorney's Slaying

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police believe Rosalind Goodrich Bates, a successful Southern California lawyer and clubwoman, was murdered.

★ ★ ★

But they ran into a puzzling web of circumstances as they sifted clues in the gunshot death of the silver - haired, bespectacled widow.

WAS SHOT TWICE

Mrs. Bates, 67, who lived alone, was found dead Tuesday in her home, shot twice—once in the temple and once in the back. The death weapon has not been found. Neighbors reported no shots nor outcries. Mrs. Bates' big watch dog was strangely silent.

★ ★ ★

Police said there was no evidence of a struggle—her purse was unopened, the house was not disorganized and even her glasses were intact. There were no powder burns around the wounds. Police estimated the killer had fired from a distance of 10 to 12 feet.

★ ★ ★

A client, Dr. Frederick S. Rheinhold, chiropractor and psychologist, told newsmen that Mrs. Bates reported she got a threatening phone call last week.

Scottish Towns 'Adopt' U.S. Subs and Crews, Also

GREENOCK, Scotland (AP) — Two shipbuilding towns along the River Clyde have agreed to adopt two of four American nuclear submarines now based on the U.S. Polaris installation at Holy Loch.

Greenock town council approved the adoption of one of the USS Patrick Henry and the town council of Largs voted down the line for the USS George Washington.

The royal navy has requested the towns of Gourock and Port Glasgow to take care of the remaining submarines — the USS Robert E. Lee and USS Theodore Roosevelt. They are expected to comply.

The main object of the adoptions is to ensure that American submariners receive hospitality in Scottish homes while on shore leave.

Monty Gets Mixed Up; Pays Bad-Driving Fine

LONDON (AP)—Field Marshal Lord Montgomery was fined 10 pounds ($28) on charges of careless driving and driving the wrong way on a one-way street. He pleaded guilty.

The prosecutor in Bow Street court said the 70-year-old World War II commander went awry in the downtown borough of Westminster on July 22.

Monty, as the British call him, was not present at the hearing.

'Ev' to Ask Ike's Aid

CHICAGO (UPI)—Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen will ask former President Eisenhower to hit the campaign trail in the Illinois Republican's bid for re-election next year.

Talk Canceled as Man Trapped by Environment

MILWAUKEE (AP)— A lecture at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee was canceled Tuesday night when the speaker, Yale Prof. emeritus Paul B. Sears, now visiting professor of botany at the University of Hawaii, was stranded at Santa Fe, N.M., in a snowstorm.
