City election officials voiced hopes for heavier balloting this afternoon and evening following a light turnout this morning in the primary election.

Snow cut the number of residents going to the polls early this morning to place candidates on the April ballot.

The polls will remain open until 8 p. m. for the 26,000 eligible voters in the five precincts involved in today's contest.

All voters standing in line at 8 p. m. will be allowed to vote, City Clerk Ada R. Evans said.

Chrysler, UAW Discuss Issues

Colbert, Reuther Debate Problems That Threaten to Idle 70,000

DETROIT (AP) — L. L. Colbert, president of Chrysler Corp., and Walter P. Reuther today headed into a discussion of a labor dispute that could idle 70,000 auto workers.

The dispute is over work standards, the amount of work an employee is required to do under the company's contract with the United Auto Workers Union, at the huge Dodge Main plant here.

Because of the dispute, 3,000 to 13,000 employees have been idled daily for the last month. Chrysler sent the workers home, contending they were not needed because some employees were not performing their regular duties. The union countered that Chrysler was altering the work standards.

The meeting between Colbert and Reuther, president of the UAW, was called at Colbert's invitation after Reuther requested it.

The UAW's executive board has authorized a strike of some 14,000 workers at Dodge Main, although indicating it has no intention of calling a strike.

Colbert said earlier the union violated its contract "by failing to order its members to discontinue the slowdowns."

Reuther charged the company had arbitrarily set aside "properly established production standards."

Emil Mazey, UAW secretary-treasurer, has accused Chrysler of trying to provoke a strike because of a large inventory of unsold cars. Mazey said also that the union was considering a suit against Chrysler for breach of contract.

A shutdown at Dodge Main, where the firm's shuttle truck fleet is housed, could idle 70,000 Chrysler workers in the Detroit area.

'Dazed' During Cross-Country Walkout

Runaway Bride Still Plans to Wed

NEW YORK (AP) — Irene Arzedi and her fiancé Joseph Pinto say they are "definitely going to get married" despite the girl's cross-country walkout on their scheduled wedding nine days ago.

Why she chose a bus ride to Los Angeles instead of marriage to Pinto, Miss Arzedi wasn't quite sure when she got back to New York yesterday.

"I was in a daze half the time," she told detectives at a Brooklyn police station.

In a barely audible voice, Miss Arzedi said she had left for "personal reasons."

"I was afraid to call mother. I

Mack Expected to Tell Decision on Keeping Job

Commissioner of FCC Under Fire as Result of House Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Harris (D-Ark) of the House Committee investigating the FCC said today he will seek to impeach Commissioner Richard A. Mack, and that "certain senators" who intervened in a Miami television case are going to have to come before the committee.

WASHINGTON (INS) — A decision by Federal Communications Commissioner Richard A. Mack on whether he will resign under fire may be announced today.

At the same time, House investigators planned to look deeper into the controversial award of a Miami television license award to National Airlines—the case that put Mack into the limelight.

The embattled FCC member's attorney, William A. Porter, declared late last night that Mack had not submitted his resignation to the White House.

But Porter, who had met earlier with Mack, did not rule out a resignation at any time. "I do not know whether I will be called in to help him draft a letter Monday or not," he said. "Only he can answer that."

The White House, meanwhile, denied knowledge of published reports that presidential aides Sherman Adams and Gerald D. Morgan had told Mack flatly to quit or be fired. Mack, under mounting congressional pressure to resign, was incommunicado.

The House Legislative Oversight subcommittee which first probed Mack's involvement in the Miami TV case was to hear today from National Airlines President G. T. Baker and Vice President Alexander Hardy.

Mack again will take the stand Wednesday following testimony to

Battered School Bus Pulled From River

CARRIED 26 TO DEATH — School bus that carried 26 students and a driver to their deaths is shown after it was pulled from the Levisa Fork of Big Sandy River near Prestonville Sunday.

Bus was found across the river from where it went in Friday when a body of one of the victims came to the surface.

River Yields Bus, 15 Dead — 11 Children Still Missing

PRESTONSBURG, Ky. (AP) — Searchers swept Levisa Fork of Big Sandy River by boat and net today for bodies of 11 school children. Grief-stricken parents of 15 others killed in the nation's worst school bus tragedy began the sad task of preparing for funerals.

The 16th victim recovered was identified later by sobbing 18-year-old John Darby as his younger sister, Linda. Her body was found today wedged against a log about a mile downstream.

Grim search for the bus ended yesterday after 55 hours. The battered yellow vehicle, filled with mud, was dragged out of the swift waters yesterday by bulldozers. It yielded bodies of 14 students and the driver. Eleven others are missing.

Powerful currents had tumbled the submerged vehicle 200 yards down stream since it rolled in Friday after collision with another vehicle.

For some of the 16 families involved, the vigil continued. At least seven of them had lost more than one child.

'WORST SHOCK' — One coal miner who lost a son summed up the general feeling of this small mountain community: "It was the worst shock I ever had in the world."

The body of the miner's son, 15-year-old James Ousley, had floated out a window of the bus submerged in 10 feet of water. It was then that the bus was located. Navy divers attached cables and two bulldozers hauled it ashore.

Ten bodies were carried out gently, and scraped free of mud that encased them. Workers had to chop through the side of the smashed bus and shovel out mud to reach five others.

Thousands of onlookers bared their heads as a mountain preacher voiced a brief prayer over a loud speaker.

The bodies were taken to the Prestonsburg Armory, where parents identified them.

Private funerals were being arranged at three funeral homes.

Among those who waited along the bank was Kentucky Governor A. B. Chandler who — often

Ike Replies to Latest Bid for Summit Talks by Reds

WASHINGTON (INS) — President Eisenhower sends word to the Kremlin today that world peace settlements must be hammered out ahead of any new East-West summit conference.

The uncompromising U.S. position will be made known to Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov by the President and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles at a White House meeting today.

Menshikov, who has been smiling and hand-shaking with U.S. officials at a wholesale rate since he arrived in Washington, sought the appointment with Mr. Eisenhower to urge acceptance of Moscow's new proposal for a foreign ministers meeting in April.

The glad-handing Russian envoy asked to see the Chief Executive Friday to coincide with delivery of an aide-memoire by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko to U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson in Moscow.

However, the White House put off the meeting until today because the President went to Walter Reed Hospital that day for a tooth extraction and a physical checkup.

Officials said Menshikov will find little enthusiasm on the part of either Mr. Eisenhower or Dulles for the new proposal calling for a foreign ministers "little" (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Jury Hears Instruction of Judge Doty Again Regarding Possibilities

Jurors in the first-degree murder trial of Ray Goff returned to the courtroom this morning to hear again instructions by Judge Frank L. Doty, this time by means of a tape recorder because of illness of the judge.

The jury of six men and six women resumed their deliberation after a weekend recess at 9:30 this morning. After about an hour of deliberation, they asked to hear the charge of Judge Doty, which was made Friday.

In it, the Oakland County Circuit Judge said he would have to return an innocent verdict by reason of insanity if this was not a jury trial.

Earlier, Judge Doty had denied a defense motion for a similar verdict.

Goff, 35-year-old factory machinist from Flint, is charged with killing Mrs. Rita M. Cummings, 27, Flint divorcee, on August 21, 1955.

He was committed to Ionia State Hospital for the Criminally Insane after he was judged by four psychiatrists as being insane and unable to stand trial. He was released last December to face the first-degree charge.

The jury was sent home late Friday afternoon after three hours and 19 minutes of deliberation in which they failed to reach a verdict.

Judge Doty, suffering from a severe cold, said there were four possible verdicts to return. They were: guilty of first, or second-degree murder, manslaughter, or innocent by reason of insanity.

Beer Can on Moon?

LONDON (AP) — Dr. Wernher von Braun, the U. S. Army's rocket expert, says the United States could send a rocket to the moon right now if its objective were merely "putting a beer can on the moon. But who wants to put a beer can on the moon?" the German-born scientist said in a British television interview filmed in Washington and aired here.

Wednesday's outlook is mostly cloudy and warmer.

The Weather Bureau's five-day forecast predicts temperatures will average about seven to eight degrees above the normal high of 39 and normal low of 24. Temperatures will rise gradually through the week, turning colder Friday or Saturday.

Rain or snow is expected Thursday and Friday.

The lowest recorded temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a. m. was 28. The reading at 1 p. m. was 35.

Car Smashes Two Trees in City Cemetery

Speeds Hit 80 M.P.H. on Orchard Lake Road in Early-Morning Chase

A Waterford township driver was killed Sunday when he crashed into two trees in a cemetery while fleeing a pursuing police car.

Willie T. Hall, 36, of 1101 Lakeview St., was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital. He was employed at Pontiac State Hospital in the maintenance department.

The police chase began at 4:20 a. m. when Pontiac officers James Batchelor and Leroy Hartman spotted Hall's car speeding through the intersection of Cass avenue and Orchard Lake road.

They gave chase west on Orchard Lake at speeds up to 80 miles an hour.

The officers said Hall narrowly missed a car waiting to make a left turn from Orchard Lake into Lull street, ran the red light at Voorheis and went straight into the drive of Mt. Hope Cemetery through an open gate.

CAN'T STOP IN TIME — After entering the cemetery, Hall applied his brakes but was unable to stop in time to avoid a large tree, the officers said.

Hall's car hit the tree, skidded across the drive and sheared a smaller tree. He was thrown from his car.

Police found a half pint of vodka under the front seat of the car and theorize that Hall may have fled to avoid losing his driver's license and a jail term for drunk driving.

Hall was convicted in Pontiac of drunk driving Jan. 22, 1957 and his license was revoked by the Secretary of State's office for 90 days.

In April, he was arrested for driving with a revoked license and another 90 days were added along with a six-day jail term and a fine.

When he got his license back, it was restricted for three years to permit him to drive his own car only.

A blood sample was taken from Hall and sent to Lansing by the police for an alcoholic content check.

Victorious Fuchs Knew All Along He'd Make It

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP) — Dr. Vivian Fuchs says the idea he might fail to cross Antarctica never entered his mind, but he sometimes wondered how long it would take to make the hazardous 2,150-mile trek.

Fuchs and his nine-man British expedition arrived at Scott base 99 days after leaving Shackleton station on the other side of the Antarctic Continent. It was the first time man had ever crossed the frozen continent.

Sir Edmund Hillary, conqueror of Mt. Everest, had gone to the 700-mile point and shepherded the expedition along a route he had marked and stocked with supplies on his trip to the South Pole last year.

Lenten Meditations

By ROBERT L. DIEFFENBACHER, D.D.

Prayers are not counted in numbers, nor are they measured in minutes. God does not judge man by his vocabulary nor by his elegance of speech.

Our logic is doubtless lost on the Creator of all sequence and order. God cares not for the methods of our prayer nor for our dramatic abilities.

From the depths of our souls must come the sincerity with which we talk with God.

We pray because of our human need, because of our faith and because we seek guidance to honestly do His will. We kneel before His throne because we are humble. We believe in His compassion, His love and His strength.

If there be eloquence in prayer it is found in simplicity, in confession and in hunger for the food which gives strength for life eternal.

Weekend Traffic Claims 5 Lives

Snow, Sloppy Driving Conditions Encountered in Most of State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Despite rain, snow and generally sloppy driving conditions, Michigan counted only five weekend traffic fatalities.

The Associated Press traffic fatality tabulation begins at 6 p.m. Friday and ends midnight Sunday.

James Jacobson, 79, Jackson, was killed Sunday when struck by a car while crossing U.S. 12, two miles west of Jackson.

David W. Clark, 24, Hazel Park, was killed Sunday when his car collided with another at a Mt. Pleasant intersection.

Willie Hall, 35, Pontiac, was killed when his car struck two trees. Police said they were attempting to stop Hall for speeding.

Charles Lee, 40, Port Huron, was injured fatally in a two-car collision Saturday on M21 three miles west of Port Huron.

Prince Lott, 46, Detroit, was killed Saturday in a crash at a Detroit intersection.

Is a heavy frost a threat to aerial travel?

A heavy frost, if it settles on the wing of an airplane, should always be carefully removed before the aircraft attempts a take-off. Though it may surprise some, an aircraft's wing, if covered with a heavy frost, loses a surprising percentage of its lift capability.

In fact, it has been known to prevent successful take-off. Generally speaking, passengers on commercial airlines do not have to worry about this danger, but those flying in private aircraft, either as pilots or passengers, would be wise to see that all frost was wiped off the wing before they taxied out to the end of the runway.

Weather Shows Little Change Across Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The nation's weather showed little change today, with patches of light rain or rain snow in scattered areas and temperatures around normal levels.

Light snow or flurries continued from the Rockies across the north central states and through the Great Lakes region.

Rain which hit sections of Florida spread into parts of Virginia during the night. Showers sprinkled areas in Pennsylvania and snow flurries in the New England region changed to light rain in most areas. Rain was indicated near the coast from Virginia to Florida.

No severe cold was reported across the country, although readings dipped to near zero in some high mountain areas.

morrow by Thurman Whiteside, Miami lawyer charged before the committee with using his friendship with the FCC commissioner to influence his vote on the Channel 10 license.

Mack was told Friday by Subcommittee Chairman Aron Harris (D-Ark) that he should quit or that President Eisenhower should "unhesitatingly" ask him to resign. The stunned FCC member replied he would "seriously consider" leaving the $30,000-a-year post.

Harris has backed up his call for executive action on Mack with a demand that current laws be amended to make certain the President can fire federal regulatory agency members for "malfeasance in office."

Harris said it is questionable now whether the chief executive can legally dismiss members of quasi-judicial agencies.

On another front, the Justice Department put off until Thursday a grand jury appearance by Whiteside. The Miami attorney was subpoenaed to produce all his records concerning his dealings with Mack. His scheduled hearing today was postponed in order to let him collect his data.

The cause of the accident that sent the bus tumbling down the mountainside has not been determined. There has been speculation that the bus driver suffered a heart attack before the collision with a tow-truck and a disabled auto.

But one of the survivors said the driver fought to regain control of his vehicle until it sank in the water.

Winchell Claims $160,000 Seized in Godfrey Suite

NEW YORK (INS) — Columnist Walter Winchell reported from Miami Beach today that burglars broke into Arthur Godfrey's hotel suite in Bal Harbor, Fla., late Sunday and got away with $160,000 which Winchell said was "mostly cash."

Winchell, who telephoned the story to the New York Journal-American, said the stolen fortune belonged not to radio-TV star Godfrey, but to Chicago appliance tycoon Titus Haffa and his wife, in Miami Beach for the races at Hialeah.

The robbery occurred, Winchell said, in Godfrey's penthouse atop the Hotel Kenilworth, which the red-haired entertainer owns. The Haffas had been occupying the suite, the columnist stated, adding:

"Police have kept a mysterious silence about the theft—Bal Harbor's biggest in history."

"But the lobby of the Kenilworth was abuzz with the news spread by hotel employees who were in on the questioning by detectives."

"Just how the 'second story' men broke into the luxuriously furnished Godfrey penthouse was a puzzle which still had many pieces missing and no official police source cared to comment."

And I will kiss you again.
The moon I must explore—
Remember, my darling,
Only you I adore."

Mrs. Warner says her Hollywood agent thinks the song will "sell big."

Civic Leader Succumbs at 33

Funeral Service and Burial Held Yesterday for Mrs. G. E. Wyman

Funeral service was conducted yesterday for a Pontiac civic leader, Mrs. George (Roslyn) Wyman, 33, of 109 Ottawa Dr., at Temple Beth Jacob, 79 Elizabeth Lake Rd.

Mrs. Wyman died Saturday afternoon in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital of leukemia. She had been ill several months and entered the hospital Tuesday.

A resident of Pontiac for 12 years, Mrs. Wyman was active in civic affairs. She was born in Charleston, S. C.

Her activities included membership on the Michigan State University Oakland County Advisory Board and Pontiac League of Women Voters board.

She was past president of the Pontiac Chapter of Hadassah, vice president of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Jacob, treasurer of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra, Inc., member of the Tuesday Musicale and the Pontiac Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Wyman was also chairman of the Parent-Teacher Association health committee which in 1954 urged the fluoridation of local water supply as a teeth protection measure.

Surviving are her husband, George E., a son, Stephen, 13; a daughter, Leslie Ann, 6, and her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Leon Banov of Charleston, S. C. Two brothers, Dr. Leon Banov Jr. of Charleston, S. C., and Morton Banov of Knoxville, Tenn., also survive.

Burial was in the Clover Hill Park Cemetery, Royal Oak. Rabbi Nathan Hershfield conducted the service.

The family suggests memorial gifts may be given to Temple Beth Jacob or St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

summit" conference next month, to be followed as quickly as possible by a top-level summit parley.

The Soviet suggestion called for the foreign ministers to meet only to set the time, place, participants and agenda of conference of chiefs of state. The Kremlin also insisted that the agenda include the nine-point proposal made by Premier Nikolai Bulganin in his most recent letter to Mr. Eisenhower.

The U. S. position, in contrast, is that a foreign ministers meeting would work out details of genuine settlements for relaxing world tensions which could then be ratified in a brief summit meeting.

The U. S. and its NATO allies also insist that such subjects as control of outer space, an integrated disarmament agreement with footproof air-ground inspection, reunification of Germany and freedom for European satellite nations to determine their own system of government be discussed.

Menshikov, who has declared repeatedly since arriving in Washington that his mission is to serve the cause of peace and friendship, was expected to try a real "selling" job on the Russian proposals.

Police Officers Get New Posts

Straley Explains Shifts 'to Make Better Use of Existing Manpower'

Shifts in ranking officers of the Pontiac Police Dept. were made today by Police Chief Herbert W. Straley "to make better use of existing manpower."

Major change was the assignment of Lt. William Nesbitt, head of the Vice Squad, to the Detective Bureau, while Sgt. John DePauw was placed in charge of the Vice Squad.

DePauw, as an acting lieutenant, had been in the Detective Bureau. He was returned to his "permanent rank of sergeant after a recent court fight in which he sought to have his acting rank made permanent."

Lt. William Hanger, newly promoted by the city manager, was assigned to the uniformed patrol, while his old job as sergeant of the Traffic Bureau was given to Sgt. Lawrence LeBair.

Sgt. LeBair had been on the chief's administrative staff.

The moves came while City Manager Walter K. Willman is studying a reorganization plan for the department compiled by Chief Straley.

Willman has said he might approve the plan temporarily until a study of the department made last fall by the Public Administrative Service, of Chicago is in.

He promised to write to the Police Officers Assn. and give his views on promotions, after studying the plan.

Today's shifts in officers, however, make promotions unlikely since they fill up all vacant ranks.

Chief Straley said today the shifts were designed to get maximum effectiveness from available men, since the department is short-handed.

Sen. Potter Would Abolish Seaway Development Corps

WASHINGTON (U)—Sen. Potter (R-Mich) suggested today that the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp. be abolished. He said such a step would save the government $448,000 in the next fiscal year.

Potter said that saving could result from a shift in authority over the grant waterway from the development corporation to the Army Corp of Engineers.

The senator's statement was contained in a newsletter to constituents.

The Seaway corporation was established by the Seaway Act of 1954, but operates under Army administration.

Potter described the two agencies as "jockeying for control of the project" which will open for most ocean going traffic next year.

He said he received, as a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, information that the Army Engineers could take care of the Seaway for $448,000 less in the fiscal year beginning next July 1.

The committee, he added, should consider the possibility of sending the Seaway corporation into limbo.

"I, for one, would welcome an opportunity to disprove the fable that a federal agency, once set up, perpetuates itself — through empire-building or its own mistakes — forever," he added.

Lewis G. Castle, who heads the Seaway corporation, last year favored a Bureau of the Budget proposal that would shift responsibility over his agency from the Army to the Commerce Department.

After Potter and other midwestern lawmakers loudly cried "foul," the White House tabled the plans for the time being. The midwesterners contended the Commerce Department is dominated by Eastern railroad interests, traditional foes of the seaway.

The corporation has asked Congress for $301,000 to operate the seaway in the next fiscal year — $641,000 for lock and canal operation and traffic control and $260,000 for maintenance of plant and equipment.

"The chief of Army Engineers, however claims he can do it wholesale — that is for $553,000," said Potter.

Predict Temperatures of 45 Million Degrees

LONDON (U)—The Daily Herald said today British scientists working to harness the power of the hydrogen bomb are confident they will achieve laboratory temperatures of 45 million degrees Fahrenheit in the next eight months or less.

This temperature is still far from the minimum of 100 million degrees that scientists believe is needed to produce a net power gain and show the way toward fusion energy.

The Day in Birmingham

Commission to Consider Zone Ordinance Adoption

BIRMINGHAM — City commissioners tonight will consider adoption of the proposed zoning ordinance.

In an attempt to simplify the final hearing, meetings and public hearings were held between city commissioners, planners and interested residents earlier in the winter.

The new ordinance would regulate and restrict sizes, location and use of buildings for trade, industry, residential and other purposes.

It also would regulate and establish boundaries for certain types of businesses and provide for enforcement of zoning regulations.

Commissioners also will consider the most recent findings of the Greyhound Bus Corp. on how it plans to meet the situation on its open parking lot at Forest street and Hunter boulevard.

In a conference with city officials last week, the firm announced sale of the area franchise to Great Lakes Transit Co.

The new owners have indicated they will do everything in their power to remove what area residents consider a "nuisance and health hazard."

Birmingham Police today are investigating two unusual thefts.

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. reported taking of a telephone from a public booth at the corner of Merrill street and Woodward Avenue Saturday night.

This morning police received a complaint from Geraldine Harris of 655 Purdy St. that someone had made an attempt to steal a door from her car parked in her driveway.

The Ruth Shain International Relations Class will hold the first in a series of its "Great Decisions" course tomorrow morning at the Community House.

Shirlee Ann Block Service for Shirlee Ann Block, 6, of 6620 Halyard St., Bloomfield Township, will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. Burial will be in Glen Eden Cemetery, Livonia. Officiating will be the Rev. Henry Allward of Our Shepherd Lutheran Church.

A first grade pupil at Walnut Lake School, Shirlee died Saturday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after a brief illness.

Surviving are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Block; her sister, Andrea, at home; her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Clara Block, and her maternal grandfather, Marvin H. Addis of Pontiac.

Detention Home With Gun, Brass Knuckles

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Five young toughs forced their way into the Salt Lake County Detention Home last night and abducted a protesting 15-year-old girl in her pajamas.

Police put out a statewide kidnap alarm early today.

Claude Dean, superintendent of the home, said he recognized one of the youths as a former inmate. Four others piled in behind him, one waving a gun and another wearing brass knuckles.

Dean said they demanded the release of three girls they named. The three girls were returned earlier in the evening to the State

WANTED

1000 RUPTURED MEN TO MAKE THIS TEST

Kansas City, Mo. — A Doctor's invention for reducible rupture is proving so successful, an offer is now being made to give everyone who will test it a $3.50 Truss at no cost. This invention has no leg straps, no elastic belts, or leather bands. It holds rupture up and in. Is comfortable and easy to wear. After using it many report entire satisfaction. Any reader of this paper may test the Doctor's invention for 30 days and receive the separate $3.50 Truss at no cost. If you are not entirely satisfied with the invention—return it, but be sure to keep the $3.50 Truss for your trouble. If you are ruptured just write the Physician's Appliance Co., 4060 Koch Bldg., 2006 Main St., Kansas City, Mo., for their trial offer.

Industrial School at Ogden, from which they had escaped.

Told the girls were gone, the youths broke into the girls quarters of the home anyway.

Matron Martha Noss said they broke down the door of one room and then entered another where four girls were sleeping.

"They told the one girl to come with them," Mrs. Noss reported. "She told them: 'I don't want to go.' Then one of them struck her down, grabbed her and dragged her back to her feet. They pulled the girl downstairs."

Dr. W. S. Stone, resident physician at the home, arrived just as the youths were leaving. He said he saw the girl being pulled toward a car in which two other men were waiting.

Police Hunt 2 Men for Killing Merchant

DETROIT (INS) — Hamtramck police hunted two young men today for the murder of Bernard F. Delinski, 36, a Hamtramck sporting goods merchant.

Delinski was killed Saturday night by two men who shot him seven times with his own gun. He told of the shooting before he died at St. Francis Hospital.

He said he was forced into a washroom at knife point and then shot by one of the thugs. Delinski said they came in and wanted to buy shotgun shells. He thought they were too young to buy them and asked their ages.

Delinski said he offered to give them anything they were after.

Since the shooting police have questioned more than 65 young men, but all were released.

Gunman Picked on Wrong Man for Cab Holdup

NEW YORK (AP) — A holdup man last night picked the wrong taxicab driver as a victim—an off-duty policeman driving a cab owned by a friend.

The robber, identified by police as Edmund J. Rowe, 27, was shot by the patrolman and was reported in critical condition in a hospital today.

The policeman, Russell Cain, 39, picked up a passenger outside a tavern. The passenger pressed what turned out to be a toy gun against Cain's neck and demanded money.

Cain took $15 from a pocket and hid it on the seat beside him. As the holdup man reached for the money, Cain turned and fired two shots with his service revolver. One hit the robber in the chest.

1,500 Gather for Rites on Studio Sound Stage Cohn Given Biggest Movieland Funeral

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Hollywood yesterday after rites attended by 1,500 of Hollywood's great and near great.

The movie czar — his rule on Columbia's lot was as absolute as any monarch's — was entombed in a crypt of fear and iron.

Detectives Guard Home of Heiress

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Private detectives apparently are guarding the Santa Monica home of heiress-actress Marjorie Durant Waller, 28, and her husband Ron, professional football player.

But neither the actress nor her attorney Milton Zerin would say why they're there.

Zerin is representing the actress in her current trial on a misdemeanor drunk driving charge.

Mrs. Waller, heiress to a cereal fortune, referred newsmen to Zerin for information. Asked if the reason for the "stake out" on her home would come out in her trial, she replied: "It might."

Mrs. Waller, a tall blonde, has testified in the trial that the two police officers who arrested her last Jan. 13 made improper advances to her and a woman companion. The trial continues this week.

Father Kills Boy, 6, in Hunting Accident

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Six-year-old Jack Richard Rook Jr. was afraid his father's second shot at a rabbit would hit his dog, who was chasing the wounded animal.

The boy darted toward his dog just as Jack Sr. fired.

The bullet went through the boy's head and he died half an hour later.

Junior Editors Quiz on ANIMALS

QUESTION: Are animals as dumb as they say?

ANSWER: Never doubting that he is the most intelligent member of the animal kingdom, man has never been quite sure how to rate the intelligence of other animals. In recent years, however, scientists have developed various tests for this.

These tests include mazes through which bright animals find their way more easily than dumb ones. Another variety consists of mechanical puzzles, and devices that give slight electrical shocks to the dumber animals.

Such gadgets have convinced experimenters that the chimpanzee is the brightest animal. Following in order are the gorilla, orangutan, gibbon, monkey, dog, cat, elephant, pig, horse, birds, reptiles, toads frogs and fish.

FOR YOU TO DO: See how quickly you can teach a new trick to your dog. This is a test not only for the animal's intelligence but your own intelligence and persistence. Our picture shows a hunting dog trained to retrieve animals without hurting them.

(Cheryl Adkins of Council Bluffs Ia., gets $10 for this question. Send yours on a postcard to Violet Moore Higgins, AP Newsfeatures, in care of the Pontiac Press. Tomorrow: How far is the moon?)

Lost All but Old Car; It Finally Kills Him

SHAWNEE, Okla. (AP)—Last September a tornado ripped across the Amos Batt farm destroying almost everything except an old model auto.

Batt, father of 11 children, was working on the car Saturday. It slipped off a jack, pinning Batt underneath. He died yesterday at an Oklahoma City hospital of the injuries.

Hollywood Headlines

John Wayne's Son Pat Would Rather Be Doctor

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
HOLLYWOOD (INS)—John Wayne's promising young son, Pat, is giving up his acting career, although he was just chosen "Most Promising Young Actor" at the Hollywood foreign correspondents awards dinner. C. V. (Sonny) Whitney his boss, and Mrs. Whitney made the presentation.

Pat's decision to become a doctor isn't going to make Sonny very happy because he had such plans for the boy—but you can't help but admire young Pat.

Winging into Hollywood tomorrow via the polar flight is Janet Munro, who comes up the winner over the 50 actresses tested in Ireland and England by Walt Disney for the feminine lead in "Darby O'Gill and the Little People."

Although 23-year-old Janet is as Irish as a shamrock, Walt first saw her on the stage in London in "Daughters of Desire." She is the daughter of comedian Alex Munro and despite her youth has had many years experience in repertory.

variety, pantomime, movies and TV.

Auburn-haired and green-eyed with Gaelic charm, Janet plays Darby's daughter in this fantasy about leprechauns.

Paulette Goddard will see her bridegroom, Erich Remarque as an actor for the first time when "A Time to Love and A Time to Die" is given a special showing for the newlyweds on Wednesday.

Ed Muhl, production head of U.I. and director Douglas Sirk have planned to New York taking with them a print of the picture. Remarque, who is also the author, plays an anti-Nazi professor.

When he wrote "All Quiet on the Western Front," Erich was considerably younger and he was wanted for the role of the boy. But he said he was a writer, not an actor. Lew Ayres played this role and won fame.

Donald O'Connor called from Miami Beach with the "discouraging" (to California Chamber of Commerce) news that the weather has turned warm and delightful. He was very happy the way his act went over at the Deauville and was pleased that first nighters included Joe E. Lewis, Walter Winchell and Roberta Sherwood. I know how good Don's act with Sidney Miller is—I saw it at the Sahara in Las Vegas.

Don says his daughter Alicia is the prettiest redhead on the beach.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Meetings will be held this week at Columbia to determine who is to carry on in Harry Cohn's place.

Rita Gam, Princess Grace's closest friend, is expecting her second baby late next summer. Rita is the wife of publisher Tony Guinzberg.

The song Johnny Mathis will sing at the academy awards is "Wild Is the Wind."

All four of the Ritz Brothers have such bad colds that a doctor stands in the wings during their act at the Flamingo in Las Vegas to help them by giving them pills and spraying their throats.

Freak Fall Causes Bathtub Drowning

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—When William E. Caywood found his wife dead in a water-filled bathtub a doctor blamed it on a sequence of freak events.

City Physician Howard H. Haynes said Mrs. Alta Caywood, 44, apparently collapsed from a seizure as she entered the bathroom, falling toward the tub.

He said her head struck the tap, turning the water on, and her hand came to rest over the tub's drain plug, preventing the water from draining the tub. He found her hair net on the handle of the open water tap.

Dr. Haynes said she apparently drowned without regaining consciousness.

One Dies of Gas Fumes

FLINT (AP)—Richard Oliver, 27, of Big Rapids died in a Flint Hospital Saturday after he and seven others were overcome by escaping bottled gas fumes in a home at nearby Montrose. Oliver was a visitor at the home of Mrs. June Nygard, 33, and died some nine hours after being taken to the hospital.
