Pontiac Federal Savings to Open New Main Office

Modern Structure Costs $400,000; Stone Front Accents Design

New headquarters for the Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Assn. open tomorrow in a $400,000 contemporary ledgerrock front, steel and masonry building at 761 W. Huron St.

This savings and loan institution which started business in Pontiac in June of 1934 with $20,000 in capital now has total assets of 7½ million dollars. It also maintains a downtown office and a branch in Rochester.

During the last few years, the association has shared in the rapid growth of Pontiac and Oakland County. Its assets have more than doubled in the past 2½ years, and it is playing an increasingly important role in the financing of new homes in this area.

R. Clare Cummings, one of the original seven charter trustees, has served as president of the organization for the past 21 years. Of the other six original charter directors, Clark J. Adams, M. A. Benson and W. Russell Farnes still are serving on the board.

Members of the board of directors, in addition to the four above, are Conrad N. Church, Louis-H. Cole, John Q. Waddell and George K. Zimmerman. Chauncey H. Hutchins is honorary director.

MODERN DESIGN

One of the most modern structures to be built in this area, the building is of masonry and steel frame construction. Tennessee ledgerrock frames the extensive glass front and the same stone extends into the interior lobby for the side walls. Full walls of windows at the back of the building give an additional illusion of space.

A low planter of the same ledgerrock extends across the front of the building. Planters, too, have been designed for the front of the interior lobby.

Ten tellers and cashiers' cages in natural finish birch are placed at the back of the spacious lobby, allowing patrons the full use of the interior lobby.

House Approves Atomic Vessel

Merchant Cruiser Needs Senate Consent Before Construction Starts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House voted yesterday to authorize a start on a newly designed merchant ship, to be driven by atomic energy and to serve as the merchant for a nuclear powered U. S. Merchant Marine.

A voice vote sent the bill to the Senate, where it could become a vehicle for authorizing the atomic "peace ship" which President Eisenhower has urged as a dramatic demonstration of this nation's interest in peaceful use of the atom.

Many Democrats and some Republicans have opposed this plan — the Senate already has voted it down once — as one which would result in a "showboat" but which would not advance nuclear know-how.

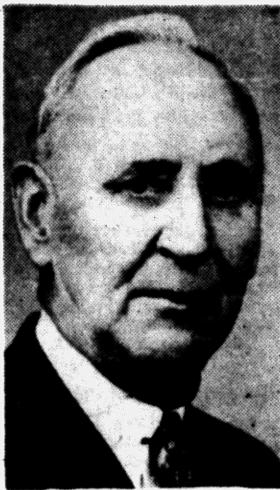

The bill approved by the House would authorize the Maritime Administration to construct an experimental commercial vessel that could carry both passengers and cargo in normal shipping business. Estimates are that the project will require from 5 to 10 years.

The Atomic Energy Commission, in a letter cleared by the President's Budget Bureau, had opposed the House bill as "premature." It said construction of such a vessel proposed "should be preceded by a thorough feasibility study."

Several bills to authorize atomic driven ships are pending in the Senate commerce committee, which may act tomorrow.

Some Republicans are pressing Eisenhower's plan to fit out an existing hull with an atomic power plant of the type used in the submarine Nautilus. Specialists say this type would not be practical in a commercial vessel.

Wiffi Leading in First Match

Injured Foot Fails to Slow Women's Amateur Favorite Today

A deep cut on the foot today failed to stop the progress of St. Clair River CC's Wiffi Smith in the Michigan Women's Amateur golf championship at Oakland Hills Country Club.

Wiffi, tourney medalist, cut her foot while swimming on the club's waterfront, last night, after firing a 79 to qualify. Today she turned the 1st nine of her match with Judy Reynolds four up. She is the top favorite to grab the title now held by Mrs. Fannie (E.O.) Reynolds, southpaw player from Lansing.

Wiffi and Miss Reynolds were the only players turning nine at noon today. Many were still leaving the 1st tee, at that time.

Judge Watts Remains in Critical Condition

DETROIT (INS)—Doctors at Detroit's Jennings Hospital said Traffic Judge John D. Watts remained in critical condition today although he spent a "fairly good night."

The judge, 58, underwent surgery 11 days ago and an emergency operation last Friday to correct complications. Doctors said intermittent hiccups, which began Sunday night, have stopped.

State Neglecting Oakland County Roads, Declares Pontiac Auto License Official

"I can't understand why the State of Michigan is neglecting Oakland County so badly in the matter of roads," declared Willis M. Brewer to the Press today. "The Oakland County Secretary of State office shows that we really have the automobiles here. We issued 52,778 licenses through June from the Pontiac office alone. Other branch offices in the county accounted for many additional."

"Next to Wayne, Oakland County residents pay the largest automobile tax of any county in the state. I doubt whether Kent or Genesee run half as much as Oakland. They stand third and fourth. We are entitled to more consideration than we are getting."

"I am very much surprised at the way Road Commissioner Ziegler side-steps immediate and important assistance to us. We

Senate Passes Bill to Supply Polio Vaccine

Free Shots for Needy Approved; House Plan Somewhat Different

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has voted to provide polio vaccine for millions of children under 20 and expectant mothers.

The next move is up to the House, whose Commerce Committee last week approved a somewhat different free vaccine bill.

Senate action yesterday came on a voice vote. The only audible "no" vote was cast by Sen. Morse (D-Ore). He objected that the measure "only scratches the surface."

During debate Sen. Welker (R-Idaho) took the Public Health Service to task for what he said was a failure to act against the Cutter Laboratories of Berkeley, Calif. Welker said Cutter vaccine is "directly" responsible for 118 polio cases in Idaho, four of them fatal.

Both Morse and Welker charged federal health officials with "cover-ups" in the vaccine program, but the Idaho senator was not in the chamber when the vote was taken.

The Senate bill, sponsored by Chairman Hill (D-Ala.) and 12 other members of the Labor and Public Welfare Committee, would authorize the government to buy vaccine which would be distributed to the states. The states then would spread it among local communities which may ask for it.

The House bill too would channel the vaccine through the states.

This is in line with Eisenhower administration proposals which called for appropriation of $5 million dollars to provide shots for children whose parents can't afford to pay for them.

However, the Senate measure places no ceiling on the amount which may be voted for the purpose. This is left to the decision of congressional appropriations committees.

The House bill would authorize $8 million for inoculation of needy children. It also would provide for grants to the states on a dollar-for-dollar matching basis for any broader immunization programs. No limit was set on the amount a state could get under such a matching program.

Neither the House nor Senate bills would require a showing of financial need—a "means" test—for a youngster to be eligible for the free vaccine.

Pontiac Refuses 'Whipping Boy' Role in Pollution

Pontiac will not be the "whipping boy" for Clinton River pollution charges, City Manager Walter K. Willman said today.

"We can't state we are not in on it. But we're not going to take the complete blame," he said. "I've traveled up the Clinton as far as Utica and there are plants all along it which use chromium in plating."

Willman said such communities as Auburn Heights, Rochester and Keego Harbor have factories which could be dumping the poisonous chromium wastes into the river.

His statements stemmed from last week's four-day contamination of Utica's drinking water, which is taken from the Clinton. City officials acknowledged that the large-scale pollution was due to about a ton of the chemical dumped into Pontiac sewers by some unknown industry.

"We can't deny that big shot originated in our city. But when it comes to pollution of the Clinton, the entire basin is involved — not just Pontiac," Willman said. In addition to the cities mentioned, he said the Red Run drain which runs through Ferndale and empties into the Clinton, might be adding to the pollution.

Willman said his statements were in no way intended to "disavow our responsibility."

Women Benefits Bill Approved

House Agrees, 372-31, to Lower Female Age for Social Security

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Democratic-sponsored bill to broaden social security benefits for women and disabled workers appeared today to have run its course for this year when it passed the House yesterday.

However, key senators were reluctant to pronounce dead for this session a measure with obvious political appeal.

The House pushed the measure through yesterday 372-31 with only 8 Democrats and 23 Republicans voting "no."

The bill would lower from 65 to 62 the age at which women may get social security benefits and permit payments to disabled workers after age 50 instead of 65.

Coverage also would be extended for the first time to about 200,000 additional professional workers, chiefly dentists and lawyers. Doctors are not included.

The increased benefits for women and the disabled, estimated to amount to about 600 million dollars in the first year, would be financed by adding ½ per cent each to the payroll tax paid by the employer and employee. The rate now is 2 per cent on each on the first $4,200 of annual earnings.

Both the new benefits and tax rate increase would take effect Jan. 1.

Sen. Byrd (D-Va.), chairman of the Finance Committee, which will handle the measure, called for a discussion of procedure at a closed session today. Declining to take a stand himself, he conceded the committee customarily holds extended public hearings on major bills such as this one. With Congress aiming for a July 31 adjournment, time is running short.

Reds Give Posies to Iowa Hosts

BOUQUETS FROM VISITORS—Vladimir Matskevich (right) first deputy minister of agriculture in Russia, thanks Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allenman for a dinner in Des Moines last night. The 12 Soviet farm leaders continue their tour of Iowa farms and allied industries today.

Russian and U. S. Farmers Inspect Each Other's Land

DES MOINES (AP)—Twelve visiting Soviet farm leaders set out today for a long cross-country drive across Iowa. At its end there's an Iowa country picnic waiting for them.

It's at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. George Hora, near Washington in the eastern part of the state.

This couple with their two children, Keith, 16, and Katherine, 7, occupy 160 acres which they own themselves and from which they reap rich harvests of pork, eggs, corn, oats and hay without any hired help at all.

Perhaps the most important news out here today is that the Russian agricultural big shots are making a hit.

Delegation leader Vladimir Matskevich has turned out to be an exceedingly able diplomat with a turn for the right phrase at the right time.

Amidst applause the Russians yesterday presented a bouquet of roses and an album to Mrs. Richard L. Allenman, of Slater, whose home they visited. And they gave Allenman a fine Russian-made Leica-type camera.

The four Des Moines college girls who thought up the idea of painting in Russian a welcome sign for the Russians' arrival at the Des Moines airport Sunday were presented bouquets of roses by the visitors.

Iowa Gov. Leo Hoegh last night spoke at a dinner given the Russians. He said the trip of the Russians to Iowa and the trip of Iowans to Russia would help "us live in peace not only with each other but also with the rest of the world."

Matskevich replied that he was particularly inspired by the portion of the governor's speech dealing with peace. He declared that if the Soviet Union and the United States live in peace together no one will dare attempt to start a war.

Weather Outlook Fair and Cooler

Mostly fair and somewhat cooler is the weather outlook for the Pontiac area today and tomorrow.

The mercury is expected to hit a high of 85 today, drop to 64 tonight and rise to the mid-80's again Wednesday. Wind velocity is from 5-10 m.p.h. in a north-northeasterly direction.

The U. S. Weather Bureau forecasts temperatures about 4-6 degrees above normal for the next five days.

Downtown, today's low before 8 a.m. was 68 degrees. The thermometer registered 83 at 1 p.m.

Eisenhower Keeps Pace With Domestic Duties

A pouch of mail, official documents and reports on bills passed by Congress since he left Washington arrived by courier plane.

The President has an office close by his villa on Lake Geneva. He worked there after breakfast on the new mail from the United States with his private secretary Mrs. Ann Whitman.

Nevada Prison Strike Still On

Rebel Convicts Demand Talk With Governor, Other Benefits

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP)—An occasional catcall pierced the desert silence throughout the night at the Nevada State Prison as some 225 convicts stubbornly carried on a sitdown strike in the flood-lit prison yard.

The prisoners—less 136 trustees—started their rebellion at 3:40 p.m. yesterday when they began milling about the open yard instead of lining up for dinner as is customary.

They demanded an interview with Gov. Charles Russell and declared they would not return to their cell blocks until they talked with him.

Among the inmates' demands were "more variety in food . . . discharge of a prison doctor and captain of the guard . . . twice yearly personal appearances before the State Parole Board . . . more work for inmates . . . no reprisals because of the rebellion . . . lower prices at the prison commissary."

"I'm not promising anything. Most of the grievances are unfounded," Warden Art Bernard said.

Floodlights were turned on around the 30-foot-high walls of the 60-year-old brownstone prison as dark fell over the milling prisoners. Fifty heavily armed highway patrolmen and prison guards patrolled the walls.

The prisoners had not eaten since noon, Bernard said, and could not take over any of the prison works or storm the walls.

Some of those in the yard wanted to quit early in the afternoon but were intimidated by the ringleaders, he said.

Strive to Pass $1 Wage Floor

House Dems Confident of Victory in Hiking Minimum Pay

WASHINGTON (AP)—Confident Democrats prepared to drive for House passage today of a bill to raise the federal minimum wage from 75 cents to $1 an hour.

House leaders called up the bill, anticipating approval before nightfall. This would send the measure back to the Senate for adjustment of a minor difference.

The Senate already has voted the $1 figure. President Eisenhower asked 90 cents.

The minimum wage covers some 24 million workers for companies doing interstate business. However, most of these already make $1 or more an hour. An estimated 2,100,000 — many in the South — would get automatic raises under the bill.

As the bill came to the floor, apparently outnumbered administration forces were ready to make a fight for the 90-cent figure. They expected some Southern Democratic support.

Organized labor has been pressing for a $1.25 minimum. But there was no sign of a move in this direction on the House floor.

The bill before the House did not deal with the controversial issue of extending coverage to more groups. This was left for next year.

Guess He's Arrived

HONG KONG (AP)—For the first time since his election, President Eisenhower's picture has appeared in Chinese Communist newspapers in Hong Kong. He made the Red front pages yesterday along with press reports of the Big Four summit talks in Geneva.

Big 4 Ministers Set-Up Agenda for Discussions

'Amiable Tone' of Talk Cited by Press Aide of President

GENEVA (AP)—The Big Four Powers agreed today to give the problem of German unification top priority on a four-point agenda for the summit talks.

The other three points were European security, disarmament and "development of contacts between East and West."

Priority for the German question was in accord with Western demands, since the Western foreign ministers had agreed in Paris last week that this was the central problem for the Geneva discussions.

The German issue also was stressed by President Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Eden and French Premier Faure in opening speeches yesterday.

Soviet Premier Bulganin, on the other hand, placed his major stress on European security, which was listed second on the agenda agreed upon this morning by the four foreign ministers at a closed session.

The meeting of the foreign ministers lasted only an hour and a half, indicating there was little difficulty over the order of business. A statement, issued by the three Western ministers said any additional item "will be referred to the heads of government for decision."

The four government heads were to meet this afternoon to begin talks on the agenda their ministers had prepared for them.

Western leaders were reportedly moderately optimistic today following the policy outlines given at yesterday's meetings by the Big Four.

Informants said the item on East-West contracts would include Eisenhower's bid for more freedom for the Communist satellites. Bulganin declared yesterday the present conference is not the proper place to take up the question.

It will also give the four powers a chance to discuss East-West trade, a subject which the Russians believe of great importance.

James Hagerty, the President's press secretary, said he wanted to call attention to what he termed the "tone of the meeting" of the foreign ministers.

"They met for an hour and a half and were able to agree on four items," he said.

Hagerty characterized that as a "not insignificant" achievement and added: "I think it is a very healthy sign of the way the conference is developing."

In reply to a question, Hagerty said it was his understanding the heads of government would start substantive discussion of the agenda topic, rather than first talking over whether to accept the items agreed upon by the foreign ministers.

Russian Press Chief Leonid Il'yichev said the decision setting up the order of discussion was unanimous.

Ike, Soviets Join in Toast to Geneva Success Hopes

GENEVA (INS)—President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin drank champagne toasts last night to the success of the Big Four "summit" meeting.

It was the most cordial U.S.-Soviet meeting in ten years.

Eisenhower played host to a two and one-half hour dinner for the Soviet delegation at the President's luxurious villa on the shore of Lake Geneva.

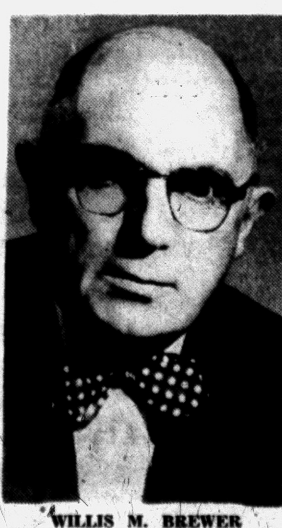

The stag affair was marked by extreme friendliness on both sides.

The cordial atmosphere spread even to dour Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, who thawed out and joined in the spirit of the occasion.

This over-all feeling of friendship among the guests strengthened opinion among American officials that the Big Four parley had gotten off to a "fairly good start."

Eisenhower and Bulganin clinked glasses and exchanged toasts on the success of their negotiations to ease cold war tensions.

The Russians downed one glass of vodka each before the dinner

Senate Probers to Recall Hatter

Harry Lev Due Back Before Investigators to Explain Finances

WASHINGTON (INS) — Harry "The Hat" Lev, who couldn't remember last month what he did with $214,000, was called back by Senate investigators today to see if he has refreshed his memory.

The Senate Investigations subcommittee summoned him to a public hearing because, according to one member, the Chicago manufacturer hasn't submitted the "sworn statement" he promised with reference to the funds.

Testifying June 9, he said his mind was a "blank" about the $214,000 which he passed around in cash in 1952 and 1953 after signing personal checks to get the money. However, he denied bribing federal procurement officials.

Lev was one of a series of witnesses questioned last month in the subcommittee's search for corruption in military procurement of caps and other items.

The 53-year-old, Polish-born immigrant was questioned primarily about personnel he contacted in connection with a two-million-dollar contract to make 6,823,000 white sailor hats at a plant in Puerto Rico.

Although Lev's somewhat garbled English and his references to such items as turtle steaks and "foam-rubber grommets" brought the house down with laughter, his testimony came to a somewhat serious finale when he couldn't answer for the $214,000.

Subcommittee Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) has written to Lev and called on him to submit the statement he promised as soon as he could think back on his expenditures.

Member of the subcommittee were skeptical in the first place, since Lev pointed out he keeps no personal records, not knowing how to write.

Asked how he would find out what he did with the money, he said he would "discuss" the matter back home. With whom, the senators wanted to know, "Myself," Lev replied.

The Day in Birmingham Plan Hearing to Discuss Need for 2nd Parking Lot

BIRMINGHAM — An August 8 hearing was scheduled at last night's City Commission meeting, to declare the necessity for a second municipal parking lot, costing an estimated $85,000, in the northern half of the block located immediately south of Shain Park.

However, outlines of assessment districts for all three city parking lots contemplated, will probably be discussed.

Lawmakers, last night asked for a manager's report on lots now under consideration for the area near Hamilton between Woodward and Hunter boulevard the third such project planned.

The city's first off-street parking lot is already under way on Pierce between Merrill and Brown streets. Commissioners want to combine discussion on all three lots to avoid possible double assessments where any overlapping of assessment districts might occur.

A Wednesday meeting at 8 p.m. at the South Bates street residence of Mrs. Darwin Kettering, is scheduled by Circle VII.

Weekly tether tennis and checker tournaments are under way by the Torry School playground program, sponsored by the Recreation Board, with a tournament to be held during the final week of the summer activity to determine the grand champion.

In checkers, Billy McKay took first place; Dick Granke, second and Richard Cowie, third.

Robbery Count Faces Two Men

Detroit Police Arrest Flushing Pair, 24 and 17, for Novi Crime

Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor Robert D. Long yesterday ordered a robbery armed warrant against two Flushing men which accuses them of robbing a Novi Township gas station attendant of $232 July 14.

Named are Richard G. Franck, 24, and Larry M. Annin, 17, both of 400 W. Main, Flushing.

The warrant alleges they held up James Killen in the station at 43034 Grand River.

The pair were arrested by Detroit Police who said they traced the two by checking out their car license number, supplied by Killen.

Franck was arrested hiding in back of a downtown Detroit apartment house. Police said he apparently planned an attempt to shoot his way out, but could not make his foreign-made .32 automatic work. Annin was apprehended in a Detroit hotel.

Franck is wanted on at least one other armed robbery charge. Detroit officials said, Oakland County Sheriff's Det. Mahlon France will probably bring the two back here today for arraignment.

Russian Farm Head Shows Comic Talent

DES MOINES, Iowa (INS) — Russia's acting minister of agriculture is showing some capitalistic tendencies.

Objecting to the crowding of reporters and cameramen during a tour of an Iowa farm yesterday, Vladimir V. Matskevich quipped: "Let the newsmen take the second wagon—and I hope it breaks down."

Later he exhibited fitness for the established "give and take" of American news conferences by replying when asked if he would consider the tour of his delegation "a conference at the summit of agriculture."

"I think the level of this meeting is very high, especially where the quality of the newsmen is concerned."

4 Electrocuted by Wire Fallen Through Puddle

ALEXANDRIA, La. (AP)—A power line that fell during a rainstorm was blamed for the death of four persons and the injury of a fifth.

Killed last night were M. E. Tillman, 36, truck-line operator; William Brosette, 23, dairy truck driver; William L. Voorhies, 33, supervisor of a fleet of dairy trucks, and Voorhies' 6-year-old daughter Linda Carolyn.

Voorhies' 5-year-old son William Jr. was treated for minor burns.

Police said the Voorhies family had been visiting the Brosettes, and decided to go home about the time a rainstorm was letting up.

The Voorhies boy ran to open the car door and was burned by the current from a power line that was lying in the flooded gutter parallel to the car.

The father ran out to help the boy and was killed. Linda Carolyn and Brosette then met a like fate.

A passing Motorist, Tillman, stopped to help and also was electrocuted.

County Psychologist Takes Detroit Post

David Faigenbaum has resigned as assistant director and chief psychologist for the Oakland County Juvenile Department, according to James W. Hunt, director.

Faigenbaum joined the department as a clinical psychologist in May 1949. He will take a position with the Detroit Children's Hospital where he will set up a psychiatric clinic.

His job here included programming interviews for youngsters with Dr. Clinton Mumby, department psychiatrist; supervising work of two other psychologists and handling some of the treatment program.

"Faigenbaum added a great deal to our program's development and his services will be sorely missed," said Hunt. No successor has been selected as yet.

Pontiac Kiwanis Hears Talk by NAM Official

John Convery, head of the National Assn. of Manufacturers employment stabilization program, was guest speaker at today's Kiwanis Club, noon luncheon meeting at the Hotel Waldron.

Convery spoke on the relation of the Ford Motor Co. and General Motors Corp. contracts with the UAW-CIO to Michigan unemployment compensation laws.

The NAM official is making a speaking tour of Michigan this week.

Highway Program Given Second Look

WASHINGTON (INS)—The House Public Works Committee decided to take another look today at a multi-billion-dollar highway construction program which it supposedly approved last week.

The committee voted behind closed doors yesterday to reconsider a Democratic measure calling for a 12-year, 48-and-one-half-billion-dollar road-building program and higher gasoline, truck and tire taxes to help pay for it.

The decision opened the bill to wholesale changes—mostly to exempt various groups from the higher taxes—and raised the possibility that no highway bill will be approved by Congress this year.

However, House leaders hoped to iron out the difficulties at today's committee meeting.

VANDERBILT AP — Ralph Sharp, 63, of Rosebush, drowned Monday in Pickering Lake near Vanderbilt when his small motorboat capsized while he was fishing with his wife. Mrs. Sharp was rescued by other fishermen.

Colored Children Attend Kentucky 'Mixed' Classes

MONTICELLO, Ky. (AP)—Six Negroes, ranging in age from 6 to 15, yesterday became the first to attend a desegregated public school in Kentucky.

It also was the first time the children of Clark Stonewall had studied inside a classroom.

Heretofore, their father had taught them rather than send them on a county school bus to Travis Elementary School here.

The teacher at the one-room Griffin School, with its 35 white pupils, said all "got along beautifully on this, the opening day of the fall semester."

The Stonewall family is the only Negro family living in the south-east section of the county served by the rural Griffin School.

On July 30, officials will meet to discuss desegregation of Wayne County High School.

UAW Keeps Mum on Chrysler Offer

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. made its first new contract offer to the CIO United Auto Workers Union yesterday.

Union negotiators asked for and were given an indefinite recess to study the proposal.

Neither side would reveal what the company offered.

Emil Mazey, UAW secretary-treasurer and head of the union bargaining team, said talks would be resumed "as soon as we have an opportunity to study the offer."

The current five-year contract covering 139,000 production workers expires Aug. 31.

Manslaughter Verdict Nets 10-Year Sentence

FLINT (AP) — John W. Lackey, 21, of Flint, was sentenced to 10 to 15 years for manslaughter and two to four years for Circuit Judge Philip Elliott.

Lackey had pleaded guilty in the slaying last April of his brother-in-law, J. Brown, 20, of Flint, and the wounding of Brown's brother, James, 25, also of Flint.

The shootings occurred following an argument at a birthday party given in honor of James Brown.

Two Flee Reformatory

IONIA (AP) — Paul Graves, 20, of Paw Paw, and Leo McGill, 18, of Lansing, escaped Monday from a work detail on the grounds of the Michigan State Reformatory. Graves was serving a sentence for forgery in Van Buren County. McGill was serving concurrent sentences for auto theft and burglary and entering.

Honey Queen Named

IONIA (AP) — Roberta Dyer of Detroit has been named Michigan honey queen by state beekeepers. She will be crowned by Gov. Williams Aug. 10 at Ionia State Fair.

Higgins Asks Help on 'Pike Problems'

FLINT (AP)—George N. Higgins, new chairman of the Michigan Turnpike Authority, urged some 200 Genesee County residents last night to appoint a citizens committee "to work with the authority in ironing out problems."

The authority proposes to build a toll turnpike from Flat Rock to Saginaw, which would run two miles east of the Flint city limits.

State Highway Commissioner Charles Ziegler, who has supported a state-built freeway instead of a toll road, said last night he didn't propose to say anything "for or against" the turnpike.

Carl Smith, authority treasurer, said a freeway might be preferable to a toll road, but that "the state doesn't have enough money."

Galen Wilson, chairman of the Michigan Oilmen's Legislative committee, appeared in opposition. He said gasoline and food concessions along the turnpike would be handled by "a monopoly" and that "exorbitant prices" would be charged.

Studebaker Shut Down Fourth Straight Day

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Production of Studebaker cars and trucks was halted today for the fourth straight working day by a walkout of 100 of the firm's 9,000 employees.

Final assembly line workers started the walkout last Thursday in a dispute over seniority.

Both the Studebaker-Packard Corp. and officials of the CIO United Auto Workers have branded the walkout unauthorized.

Woman Supervises Dearborn Cops

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE
DEARBORN (INS)—Perhaps the most remarkable accomplishment of remarkably accomplished Marguerite Johnson is that she has kept her husband for 32 years in love and intact.

"He complains sometimes, when I come home smelling like a brush fire. And I suppose he doesn't like it too well when I run another car into the curb. But, all in all," smiles Marguerite cherubically, "he has been extremely tolerant."

Now the reason Herbert Johnson is so easy-going about his charcoal-smelling lady is that she is probably the third biggest asset in Dearborn (auto parts first, Mayor Orville Hubbard second), and when she lugs in on a motorist, it is her job. She is the one and only — in the U.S. — lady commissioner of fire and police.

"I adore the job," says Marguerite, leashing her five-foot, eight-inches of enthusiasm to a chair for five minutes, "and men are my only problem."

She has 192 police officers and 126 fire inspectors under her, with the right to hire or fire "at will" for the good of the 100,000-population community.

"But they aren't my main problem. It's the male drivers. They are so inferior to women—careless, speedy, half-blind, some of them." By half-blind, she explained, she meant both ways, optically and alcoholically.

WOMEN MORE CAUTIOUS

"Women, I have found are invariably more conservative and cautious."

"After all," she shrugged, "many of them are mothers. And most mothers realize that their children want to continue to have mothers."

Mrs. Johnson explains her own rather uncautious actions—racing around fire scenes, heading drunk drivers into curbs, etc.—by saying:

"Well, my son is married and has a baby. I don't like to belittle myself but if worst came to worst, he could get along without a mother . . ."

Appointed Jan. 1, 1951, Marguerite promptly acquired the four syllable nickname "Commissioner" from her staff of burles, and just as quickly commanded their respect. She says she did it by "out-cussing 'em."

"The records, however, prove that she stood up on her two Cuban heels and made a few things clear."

She advised her police force, for instance, that the city exchequer didn't need the extra revenue of a lot of tickets given out for minor traffic violations where genuine guilt was questionable. "Some towns," Marguerite believes—and who wouldn't agree, "give out summonses just because they need money. We don't operate that way."

GOT LONGER HOURS

She also fought for longer working hours for Dearborn firemen, pointing out to the mayor that their existing schedule allowed them about 20 hours a day "for loading, finding fault with working conditions, scheming how to get more money and do less work, watching television, resting and eating." The work week was adjusted.

But Marguerite Johnson's most dramatic enterprise was her decision to form a canine division in the police force. She bought four German shepherd dogs, hired a Marine dog trainer to teach them the ins and outs of crime detection and prevention and three months ago put the quartet of dog detectives to work.

"The only trouble is," she mourns, "we haven't had a chance to show, really, what the dogs can do. Since the word has gotten round that we have canine police, Dearborn is the quietest, most law-abiding town in the country."

Only one dog, "Orvie," has shown his stuff. Last month a foot patrolman searched four men — "shady-looking characters"—loitering suspiciously in an auto on a street one night. He found they were equipped with a knife, and decided he'd better take them in for investigation, so the dog held the four against a wall while he walked two blocks to a police call box.

"We were most happy," beams Marguerite, "for an excuse to promote Orvie to sergeant. Long may his tail wave!"

Despite her "Man's Job," Marguerite never has lost her femininity. To wit:

"The first thing I do in the morning is pull on my girdle. Then I switch on my police radio. Beauty before duty!"

Fork Correct for Cutting Meat That Is Tender

By EMILY POST

"A friend and I were discussing the proper way to eat meat," a reader tells me. "She said that it is entirely proper to cut your meat with a fork if it is soft enough. I maintain that all meat should be cut with a knife. Will you please tell me which one of us is correct."

Answer: She is. A knife should never be used except when necessary.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married in three weeks at 2:30 in the afternoon. I live in a simple community where striped trousers and cutaway coats would look very much out of place.

"I was wondering if it would be proper for the men to wear white linen coats with dark blue trousers (not tuxedos) instead of the white trousers and blue coats which you suggest for a summer daytime wedding and which I do not happen to like.

Answer: Don't have them wear white coats and dark trousers. Instead they could wear their dark blue suits and plain blue or gray ties.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I was married two weeks ago and at that time received a number of telegrams from people I haven't seen for several years. Some were sent by distant relatives and others by former neighbors who knew me as a child. I would like to know if I should acknowledge these telegrams."

Answer: Although they don't demand an answer as a present does, it is certainly better manners to write a few words thanking them for their kind telegram.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Would birth announcements be sent to people who know of the baby's arrival. Might they feel hurt if they knew announcements were sent but not to them?"

Answer: Those who were told about it would not be sent cards unless you would like them to see the announcements because they are especially pretty.

Dealings Steady in Grain Market

CHICAGO (AP)—Most grains held steady on the Board of Trade today although some went into a tailspin once again at the outset. Oats recovered a bit as trading progressed.

Dealings were slow in all pits without much news to attract any aggressive buying or selling. On the depressing side were the very large crops while on the firming side were relatively low prices.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was unchanged to 1/4 lower, July $1.99; corn unchanged to 1/4 higher, July $1.40; oats 1/4 to 1/2 lower, July 95c; soybeans 1/4 to 1/2 higher, July $2.41, and lard 5 to 10 cents a hundred pounds higher, July $11.45.
