ARTISTS' RECEPTION: A public reception will be held Sunday for three Michigan artists whose work is currently on exhibit in the Student Center Lounge. The reception will be from 3 p.m. to 5 in the Lounge. All members of the Continuing Education faculty, the artists are Renee and Lloyd Radell and Mrs. Mary Hetenyi. Radell teaches basic drawing, and his wife teaches oil painting. Mrs. Hetenyi teaches sculpture. Hostess for the reception will be Mrs. Mildred Matthews. A concurrent show, featuring the work of students of the Radells and Mrs. Hetenyi, is on the second floor of South Foundation Hall and, also, is open to the public.

CONFERENCES: Mr. Fritz will attend the 38th annual International Conference of the Association of College Unions April 16-19 at Colorado Springs. He will serve as evaluator for one of the 31 program sessions. The conference's theme is "Higher Education and the National Purpose."

Mr. Hopkins will attend the meeting of the American Personnel and Guidance Association March 26-30 in Denver. He will serve on the national committee for professional standards and certification; the program committee for the American College Personnel convention, and will be a delegate to the National Vocational and Guidance Association.

CONTINUING EDUCATION: The Office of Continuing Education is mailing out 12,000 brochures listing 61 courses for the Spring Term beginning April 10. Included are 11 courses in four languages, 15 courses in the Humanities and Social Science, and eight courses in Fine Arts. Two sciences, astronomy and botany, have been added. Technical writing is the newest professional course.

FACULTY WOMEN'S CLUB: The last faculty square dance of the year has been moved ahead to Friday, April 14, at 8:30 p.m. in the Student Center. It will be followed by a share-the-cost party at the home of Mrs. John Galloway, Squirrel and Featherstone Roads.

SPRING SALE: "Charlie" Brown announces a Spring Sale on all sweatshirts and jackets.
