OAKLAND UNIVERSITY

Two OU campus highlights — the beauty of Beer Lake and the renowned Kresge Library.

In 1957, the late Alfred G. and Matilda Wilson donated $2 million and their 1,500-acre Meadow Brook estate to Michigan State University to establish a college in Oakland County.

Oakland University was founded in 1957 as a branch campus of MSU, with 570 first-year students. By the mid-1960s, it had evolved into a medium-sized university and in 1970 became an independent, state-assisted university. It now offers more than 70 undergraduate programs and more than 30 graduate programs, and enrolls about 12,000 students.

OU's distinct instructional programs — the college of Arts and Sciences, School of Economics and Management, School of Engineering and Computer Science, School of Health Sciences, School of Human and Education Services and School of Nursing — offer a diverse curricula of general education and career preparation courses. Virtually all of these courses are taught by faculty members, not teaching assistants.

The Honors College, a division of the College of Arts and Sciences, meets the educational needs of highly motivated students. The Division of Continuing Education meets the needs of nontraditional adult learners through evening and extension programs.

Academic support facilities include such notable entities as the Eye Research Institute, the only major eye research center in the United States not affiliated with a medical school; the Meadowbrook Health Enhancement Center, which provides health maintenance/health improvement and cardiac rehabilitation community outreach programs; and the Center for Robotics and Advanced Automation, a unit of the school of Engineering and Computer Science that utilizes high technology manufacturing methods.

And OU's professional arts programs annually attract thousands to the campus. OU has received national recognition and local kudos for its Meadow Brook Theatre, Meadow Brook Art Gallery, Meadow Brook Hall and Meadow Brook Music Festival, the summer home of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

OU is located 25 miles north of Detroit, in the small town of Rochester. OU's modern campus, which houses the university's many academic and public service programs, is located on a beautifully wooded site — much of it still undeveloped.

OU President, Dr. Joseph Champagne

OU ATHLETIC STAFF

DR. PAUL HARTMAN

Athletic Director

Oakland University Director of Athletics Dr. Paul Hartman has never been one to turn down a challenge. The seven-year chief of Pioneer athletics has taken four different athletic programs to new heights in an administrative career that has spanned four decades. But Hartman may have faced his biggest challenge this past summer, recovering from a heart attack suffered in late April to return to work at OU in time for the 1989-90 school year.

The OU athletic program has flourished under Hartman. In 1988-89 Oakland equalled its best finish ever in the President's Cup, the all-sports trophy in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. The Pioneers finished third in the Cup standings with just 10 league sports, trailing winner Ferris State, which has 16 sports, and runner-up Hillsdale, with 14. OU had the highest average of points per sport of any GLIAC school. OU won four GLIAC Championships last year, and eight of the 10 league teams finished no lower than third. Men's and women's swimming won league titles and finished in the top three nationally. Women's basketball and women's volleyball also won league crowns, with the hoopsters advancing to the NCAA tournament. Soccer, Oakland's only non-GLIAC sport, was defeated in the national semi-finals.

Hartman has made a number of changes since arriving at OU. The department has brought back a Varsity "O" club for former athletes, brought back baseball as a varsity sport, and made a number of improvements in the Lepley Sports Center, ranging from the refurbishing of the locker rooms and equipment area to renovation of offices. The department has also added the Pioneer Lounge, which is used for conferences and athletic receptions.

Previously Hartman had developed additional summer camp programs, created a new season ticket plan, instituted a Hall of Honor for exceptional Pioneer athletes, and introduced the first athletic team banquet. Additionally since Hartman's arrival, there has been a large changeover in the coaching staff, as well as the department's support staff.

The OU athletic director also made a large impact in his previous posts. At Plymouth State College in New Hampshire, his first post, Hartman started a football program with enthusiastic student support. Fifteen years later, a running back named Joe Dudek put that program on the map with a bid for the Heisman Trophy. In his second post, at Florida International University, Hartman began a women's golf program. One of the first women's scholarship award winners was Pat Bradley, who later became the first $2 million winner on the Ladies Pro Golf Association tour. Hartman did not begin the basketball program at his next stop, the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, but one of his athletes there, Terry Porter, drew national attention as an NBA draftee from a non-scholarship school, and is now a successful pro basketball player.

A graduate of Ohio State University and a native of Columbus, Ohio, Hartman lives in Rochester with his wife, Jane. He is the third OU director, succeeding Corey Van Fleet in June of 1983. The only other AD was OU's founding father of athletics, Hollie Lepley.

The program has seen improved records, improved attendance, and improved camp numbers since Harman's arrival in 1983. After winning the battle with his heart, the optimistic Pioneer athletic director is sure the best is yet to come.

ANDY GLANTZMAN

Sports Information Director

In his fifth year as Sports Information Director is Andy Glantzman. Andy joined the Pioneer staff in June, 1985 after six years in the University of Detroit's Sports Information Office. A native of Brooklyn, New York, Glantzman has won nine publications awards from CoSIDA, including three last year. The 1988-89 women's and men's swimming guides were selected as the top two swimming guides in the nation in Division II for the second straight year, while last season's soccer guide was selected the third best nationally. Glantzman earned a bachelor of science degree in athletic administration from St. John's University (NY) and a Master of Business Administration from U of D. He is single and lives in Auburn Hills.

RON FORBES

Business Manager

In his 20th year at Oakland University, Ron Forbes serves as business manager for the OU athletic department. A graduate of Western Michigan University, Forbes also holds the job of Pioneer ticket manager. A native of Royal Oak, Forbes is an avid marathoner, participating in a number of marathons, including several Detroit Free Press International Marathons.

TOM FORD

Head Athletic Trainer

Tom Ford is in his second full year as Oakland University's head athletic trainer. Ford joined the OU staff in January of 1988. He came to Oakland from Cypress Creek High School in Houston, Texas, where he was the school's head trainer for five-and-a-half years. Ford went to Cypress Creek after earning a Master of Science degree in Physical Education with a specialization in athletic training from the University of Arizona. He earned a bachelor of science degree from Ball State University. Ford served as a trainer in the Winter World University games last February in Sofia, Bulgaria, and has worked at sports festivals and Olympic Training Centers. He is also the District 4 representative to the National Athletic Trainers Association Information and Services Committee. Tom and his wife, Kathleen, live in Rochester with their sons, Tom, Jr. and Travis.

TOM VAN VOORHIS

Marketing and Promotions

Tom Van Voorhis handles marketing and promotions for the athletic department. Among his duties are selling advertising for Pioneer publications, arranging special game and sports camp promotions and scheduling speaking engagements for the coaching staff. A retired General Motors public relations and marketing employee, the University of Michigan graduate lives in Birmingham with his wife, Anemarie.

GARY PARSONS

Head Soccer Coach

Since his arrival at Oakland University eight years ago, soccer coach Gary Parsons has developed the OU squad into a perennial national power. The Pioneers have been selected to the NCAA tournament six of the last seven years and averaged over 15 wins a year during Parsons' tenure.

The Pioneers are getting closer and closer to that elusive goal of a national championship. Last year's squad went 17-3-3 and lost in the national semi-finals on the road in overtime to California State University at Northridge. OU dominated the game and hit two crossbars in the extra periods before falling, 3-1. The loss ended the Pioneers' 12-game unbeaten streak.

"When we hit those crossbars I knew it just wasn't our day," Parsons said. "We had two great chances in overtime and when you don't put them in it comes back to haunt you."

Parsons has had plenty of good days as Pioneer coach. After going to four straight Division I tournaments as an assistant coach at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, he almost led OU to the playoffs in his first year with a 14-4-1 record and the number one ranking in the Mideast Region. He upgraded the schedule and shored up some weak areas for his second season and Oakland became one of the top soccer powers in the nation.

His 1982 squad lost in the national semi-finals to Florida International University. The following season the Pioneers returned to the final four, suffering a 1-0 loss to Seattle Pacific. Both losses were on the road to the eventual national champion. After those two tough semi-final losses, the Pioneers returned to the national tournament for the third consecutive season. This time, Seattle Pacific needed a penalty kick shootout to oust the Pioneers. In 1985, OU missed out on the playoffs despite a 14-3-2 mark which included a 13-1-1 record in the last 15 games. This just fueled OU's fire in 1986.

That year's run to the national finals included a pair of 1-0 home playoff wins against Lock Haven University and Davis and Elkins College. These games sandwiched a stunning 2-1 win on the road against Gannon University, a team the Pioneers had never beaten before. The playoff run ended in Seattle, when Seattle Pacific scored two early goals and coasted to a 4-1 title win. In 1987 OU returned to the national tournament, losing a first-round match-up to semi-finalist Missouri-St. Louis.

Parsons won his fifth Mideast Coach of the Year honor last season and second in the last two years. This past April he was the coach of the victorious West team in the 1989 Soccer Senior Bowl in St. Louis, a team which included John Stewart, the second two-time All-American in Oakland soccer history. In all Parsons has had players win seven different All-America honors, 23 All-Region honors, and had five players play in the Senior Bowl. His Pioneers have never won less than 14 games in a season at OU.

Parsons is serving as the coordinator of the Intercollegiate Soccer Association of America Division II national top 20 poll for the third straight season, and is in his second year as a member of the NCAA Soccer Committee.

In addition to his coaching prowess, Parsons enjoyed a noteworthy playing career. He was voted the Most Valuable Defensive Player at Plymouth State College as a senior and helped the Panthers make the New England State College Athletic Conference finals in his past two years. Parsons holds degrees in math and physical education from Plymouth State.

A native of Oakham, Massachusetts, Parsons also coaches the Michigan State Select Team and directs his highly successful Oakland University youth soccer camps during the summer.

Parsons lives with his wife, Joanne, in Auburn Hills.

DAN FITZGERALD

Assistant Coach

One of Oakland's many former players in the coaching ranks, Dan Fitzgerald, is back as an assistant coach at his alma mater for a third season. Fitzgerald played for OU coach Gary Parsons for his first three years as the Pioneer coach.

Fitzgerald was a four-year performer on OU's soccer squads from 1980-83. Those teams compiled a four-year record of 60-15-7 and advanced to the NCAA final four twice, losing to the eventual national champion on the road in both 1982 and 1983. Fitzgerald had 14 goals and 22 assists in his career, with the assist total representing the 10th best in OU history. The former OU captain is the older brother of another Pioneer soccer alum, Brian Fitzgerald.

"Dan is an excellent assistant coach," Parsons said. "He has a strong knowledge of the game and his philosophy fits well with our program."

The former Rochester High School coach will become the longest running Pioneer soccer assistant with his third year of duty. He is the third Pioneer soccer alumnus to serve as Parsons' assistant coach. Lawrence Murray was an OU assistant in 1981, and Tony Hermiz served as Parsons' assistant during the 1983 campaign.

MORRIS LUPENEC

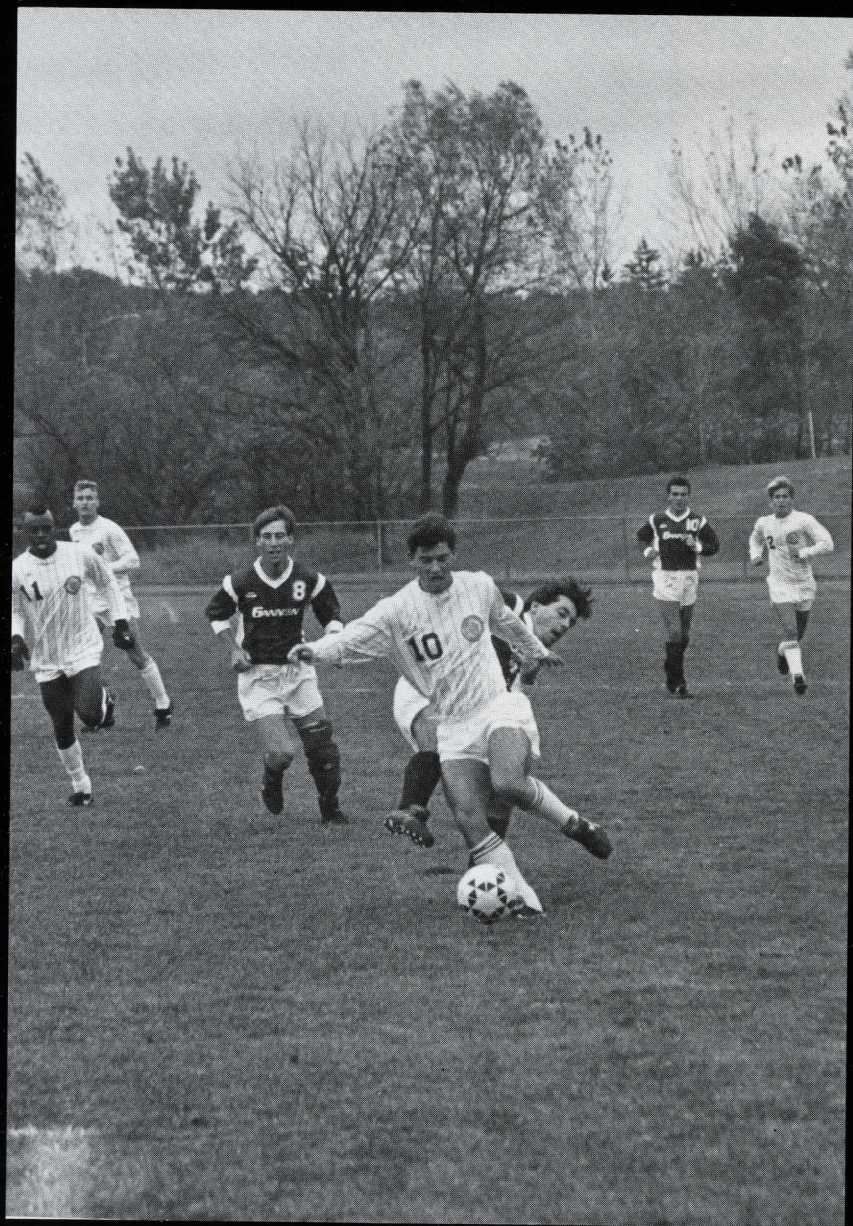

Assistant Coach

Gary Parsons brings back yet another of his former players to assist him as Morris Lupenec returns to the Rochester campus to work with the Pioneer soccer program. Lupenec and Fitzgerald were teammates from 1980-83 on the OU squad.

Lupenec is number two on the Pioneers career list in goals, assists, and points with 57, 38, and 152 respectively. He has three of the top five single-season goal scoring totals, including 20 in 1981, which ties him for the top spot with top scorer Ken Whiteside. His 47 points in 1983 ties Whiteside for the top spot in that category as well. He also holds the one-game record for goals and points, notching six goals and 13 points against Toledo on October 31, 1981.

Lupenec was a two-time All-Region selection at OU, earning his honors as a freshman and senior. He played in soccer's version of the Senior Bowl in 1983, scoring a goal in the West's 4-0 win over the East.

Lupenec's coaching experience includes stints with the girl's squad at Birmingham Marian High School, the boy's team at Troy High School, and with the Vardar III Select club team.

PIONEERS' RETURN TO FINAL FOUR DEPENDS ON FIVE SENIORS

Clang!

Clang!

Oakland University soccer coach Gary Parsons must wake up at night hearing the sound of not one but two Sel Eren shots hitting the crossbar in overtime of OU's NCAA Division II semi-final match last December. The two near misses spelled the beginning of the end for the Pioneers, as they lost to host California State University at Northridge one game short of advancing to their second national championship game in three seasons. The 3-1 overtime loss will go down as one of the most frustrating in OU history.

"When Sel hit the bar I knew it wasn't our day," Parsons said. "The game is basically over when you score in overtime, so you try to make something happen and you give up chances. It doesn't matter if you lose 2-1 or 3-1 in overtime."

The Pioneers lose five starters from last year's squad, including two-time All-American John Stewart and three-quarters of the starting defense. Parsons will be relying on five solid seniors to provide the leadership and ability necessary to return Oakland to the final four. Three-year veterans Alan Stewart, Simon Mayo, and Erik Enyedy have seen post-season play all three seasons and been close to the championship twice. Stewart had his best season last year with nine goals and 13 assists after being moved up front from the midfield. No longer just John's brother, Alan should be among the Pioneers' top goal-scorers. Both Mayo and Enyedy are looking to bounce back from injuries. Mayo was hampered all year by a foot injury, but still managed to earn All-Region honors for the second straight campaign. Enyedy was playing his best soccer at OU when his season was cut short by a broken leg suffered in practice with five games left in the regular season. Both are expected to be back at full strength and in the starting midfield.

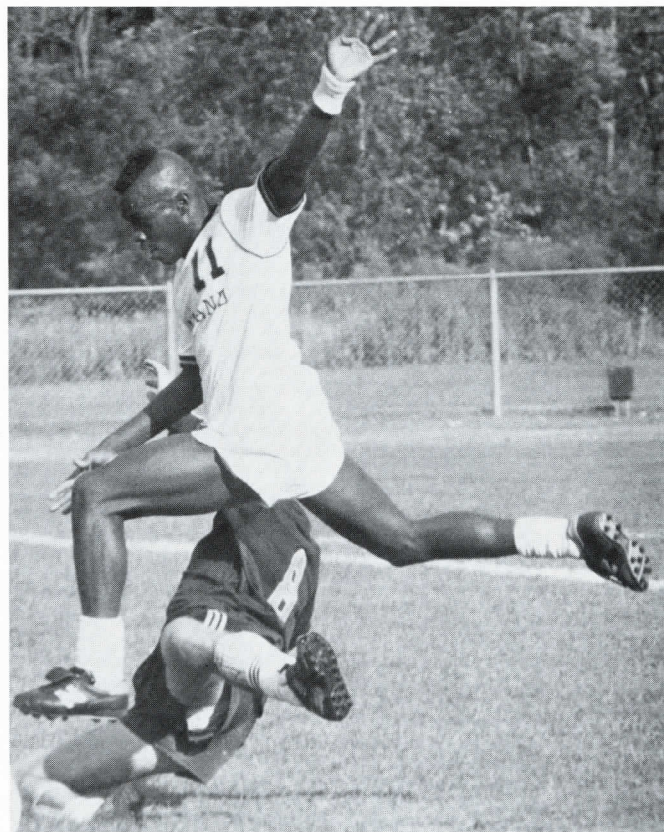

The Pioneers' other two seniors earned All-Region laurels a year ago. Earl Parris was OU's co-leader in scoring with 11 goals and 10 assists for 32 points. The explosive winger/midfielder had a hat trick and an overtime game-winner during his second straight All-Region campaign. Ralph Torre became the Pioneers' every-game goalkeeper in his first year, posting 11 shutouts and a 0.74 goals against average.

"We lost a lot of leadership from last year, so we need our seniors to step in and take over responsibility," Parsons said. "We will have four new starters, and with that much of a turnover in your starting team, it is imperative that the seniors take over and do a good job."

Junior Paul Phillips, Oakland's top scorer as a freshman, saw his goal output drop last season but will be back as a starter looking to return to his first-year form. Another junior, Dan Weinerth, is the lone defensive returnee. The Pioneer stopper developed into a tough defender as the year progressed. Another experienced veteran is junior midfielder John Brennan, who saw almost 1,000 minutes of action last year. Also back looking for their share of playing time is a quartet of sophomores - forwards Jason Armstrong, Goran Stojanovski and Ron Stefanovski, and defender John Kropinski.

"We are going to have to work very hard with our defense," Parsons said. "We may have to move a midfielder from last year to the back line. Either way we will have new players on defense. The back line will be a big question mark."

Parsons spent the majority of his recruiting time on midfielders and defenders to remove that question mark. Trinidadians Emmanuel Charles and Gerald Walker could play either defense or the midfield, and play right away. Charles was on the under-19 national team in Trinidad, while Walker made the Collegiate 11 high school all-star team. Another player with international experience is Iraqui Masood Goro, an accomplished sweeper with experience on his country's junior national team. Two All-State defenders from Michigan, Ortonville Brandon's Jeff Forshey and Derek Williford of state champ Livonia Stevenson, will battle for playing time on the back line. Another heralded newcomer is Jim Heisler, an All-State and junior college All-American goalkeeper from Michigan who is the heir to Torre's goalkeeper spot.

Parsons didn't stop there in adding to the Pioneer roster. Two more defenders, Royal Oak Kimball's Jim Harrison and Eric Gillespie of Chippawa Valley, will be in the hunt for playing time. The midfield depth was improved with the addition of Lake Orion's Brian Drury, the top high school scorer in Oakland County, and Chris Stogiera of Woodhaven. Up front Parsons added Utica Eisenhower's Vuk Jovanovic.

"All our newcomers are quality players on their level," Parsons said. "Any one could be a factor right away. There is always an adjustment period, and who makes it through fastest will determine who plays. Any one has the potential to do it."

The Pioneers will play their typically difficult slate, including four in-season tournaments. The Marriott Soccer Classic on the OU campus includes 1988 tournament teams Tampa and Missouri-St. Louis plus tough California State-Sacramento. Oakland will also play host Lock Haven and Keene State at the Lock Haven Tournament early in the season, and at the Southern Indiana and Florida Institute of Technology Tournament on back-to-back weekends in October. At FIT the Pioneers will battle the host defending NCAA Division II champions, as well as the College of Boca Raton, the number one team in the NAIA all last year. Add tough regional rivals Gannon and Lewis and five Division II's and you have a tremendous test for a young squad.

"We will have to get the new players adjusted on defense," Parsons said. "We lose a lot of starters, but the players we are bringing in are quality players. It is imperative that our seniors take over the leadership role. If they come through, we can return to last year's form and possibly take it a step further."

If the seniors do come through, it could once again be a case of the Pioneers reloading instead of rebuilding. Oakland is 135-35-17 in the eighties, with six NCAA Tournament trips, including four to the final four. The national championship still eludes Parsons, but if things go according to his plans the nightmares of last December could be replaced by sweet dreams this year.
