

Rock Hits King in Rights March

CHICAGO (AP) — Racial violence wracked a tidy all-white neighborhood yesterday for the second time this week and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., who was felled by a rock, said the eruption was fostered by the worst hate he has ever seen.

LBJ: Price Hikes Peril to Spending

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, acting after a wave of steel price boosts he did not challenge, has warned that such increases could force a cutback in government spending on projects such as the space program.

The President coupled the signing yesterday of a bill authorizing $5 billion for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration with this warning to business and union leaders:

"If particular segments of our economy continue to raise their prices and increase the cost of this and other programs, it will be necessary for the government to further reduce its expenditures, particularly in those areas where prices are rising in an inflationary way."

Although Johnson made no direct reference to this week's price increases in the steel industry, it was clear that his statement was prompted by that move and last week's rejection by the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists of an airlines contract calling for increases reported to be between 6 and 7 per cent.

Acceptance of the contract would have ended the month-old walkout against five major airlines.

'INFLATIONARY'

The White House has labeled the steel price hikes inflationary, but the industry called the $2 to $3 a ton boosts inconsequential and modest.

A Pentagon source said the boosts would amount to increased costs of less than $5-million annually under projected requirements, a minute sum in relation to the Defense Department's $57 billion-plus budget for fiscal 1967.

This fact may have contributed to the Pentagon's official silence on the price hikes.

88 Pontiac Area Women Become Practical Nurses

Eighty-eight Pontiac area women were officially graduated into the ranks of licensed practical nurses last night in commencement ceremonies at Pontiac Northern High School.

The program featured a commencement address by Rep. Billie S. Farnum, D-19th District, who paid tribute to the graduates as "great healers, great comforters, and great women in the service of mankind."

All 88 women were awarded the diplomas for completion of 48 weeks of training at the Pontiac Practical Nurse Center, a federally backed project.

It was one of the largest graduating classes in the three-year history of the training center, which operates in conjunction with the vocational education program of the Pontiac School District.

Prior to his remarks, Farnum announced to the estimated 700 persons attending the ceremonies that the center's training proposals for 1966-67 had been approved for federal funds.

The nurse center annually submits its fund requests to the federal government's Manpower Development and Training program.

Farnum, a member of the House Subcommittee on Labor, Health, Education, and Welfare, said the nurses graduated by the center were part of an "exciting new era."

Luci Johnson Is Wed in Washington Rites

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson gave his daughter Luci in marriage today to Patrick J. Nugent in the vast National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

To the old familiar question, put by the Rev. John Kuzniskas, Luci and Nugent each responded: "I do."

Then they solemnly pledged to take each other for lawful spouses "to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, until death do us part."

The blessing and the doing of the wedding rings followed. Luci, showing her individuality, had chosen two diamond circlets, to go on either side of her engagement ring. Nugent's was of traditional design.

The historic wedding, months in the planning, but taking a little more than an hour, attracted nationwide attention.

The wedding day dawned clear and bright and became mostly sunny with a high temperature in the lower 80s.

PAGEENTRY

The combined efforts of the White House and the Roman Catholic Church provided prominence and pageantry for the ceremony.

It all came to a climax at high noon, after an hour-long carillon concert, as President Johnson escorted his vivacious 18-year-old daughter to the great marble altar in the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception — the nation's largest Catholic Church.

There, Luci exchanged gold rings and the ancient vow to have and to hold "until death do us part" with tall, 23-year-old Nugent, whom her father calls "an all-American."

The huge church — rivaling imposing cathedrals in Europe — filled with white flowers and greenery, provided a dramatic setting for the nuptial Mass.

700 INVITED

Seven hundred family friends — some of them high level officials — and relatives were invited to view the marriage.

Luci is the eighth daughter of a President to marry while her father was in office.

A dramatic entrance was made by the 26-member wedding party after a 20-minute drive in limousines from the White House to the curving driveway of the church.

The wedding party stepped out before a battery of television cameras to make a long climb up 37 steps to the high arched doorway of the church.

MEMENTOS

Luci tried to keep her dramatic and elegant long white bridal gown a secret until the last moment. And, she sentimentally was provided with a sixpence and other mementos to carry on her wedding day.

She preferred the formal wedding and picked a pink and white theme.

Her 12 bridesmaids, including her sister, Lynda, the maid of honor, lead the slow-paced procession in their stately floor-length pink dresses down the 352-foot-long aisle of polished marble.

JOHN A. MACDONALD

Hearing Set Aug. 15 in Area Slaying

A Romeo-area man is held without bond at the Macomb County Jail following his arraignment yesterday on a charge of murdering his former employer.

Johnnie R. Prince, 21, of 319 Chandler, Bruce Township, demanded examination on the charge. Judge Edmund Schmidt scheduled a preliminary hearing for Aug. 15.

Prince is accused of the fatal stabbing of 61-year-old Mrs. John Riemann of 7070 Van Dyke, Romeo, wife of the owner of Riemann's Nursery.

The woman was found by her husband Thursday night lying at the foot of the basement stairs in their home. Romeo State Police said she had been struck on the head and stabbed in the neck.

Prince, who formerly worked at the nursery, was arrested at his home north of Romeo shortly after the discovery of the victim's body.

Police were told the suspect had been on "bad terms" with the dead woman's husband and that the two had argued Monday.

Found in Prince's possession at the time of his arrest, according to police, were a radio and $300 reported missing from the Riemann home.

Dogs Hunt New Jersey Girl's Killer

MANASQUAN, N.J. (UPI) — Three dogs, including a canine hero of the Shade Gap, Pa., kidnapping last May, were pressed into an all-night search by Wall Township police seeking the bludgeen killer of pretty Brunette Donna De Rier, 19.

The German shepherd, King, and his partners were offered by owner Tom McGinn of Rochester, N.Y.

He told police he was passing through New Jersey and thought the dogs could help in the investigation.

King was wounded in the shoulder during the Pennsylvania manhunt for William Holtenbaugh, and still bears the scars of the incident.

McGinn said the murderer of Miss De Rier would still have the coed's scent on him, and the dogs could possibly trace the killer's escape route from the wooded area.

Meanwhile, a bloody, splintered plank and a police theory were all detectives had to go on as they questioned scores of Jersey Shore residents in the "lovers' lane" slaying of the tall slender girl, the fourth teenager beaten to death in the area since September 1965.

MAKE FRIENDS

Most everyone likes friendship. I think Pontiac is the most friendly place I've ever seen, strangers, though, might think otherwise. One who is shy, or different, is inclined to shrink within himself and J.L. VOORHEES is the most lonely person on earth; if that person would only realize that others are equally lonely and all that is needed is that mutual spark to bring them together as friends both persons would gladly extend a hand, a smile or a greeting to make a friendship possible.

To the lonely person we recommend the church of your choice; smile at everyone as you enter the church, attend their social functions, before a week has passed, you will have found at least one friend.

'Other' Nugent a World Away

Pat's Brother Spends Routine Day in S. Viet

HILL 65, South Viet Nam (AP) — On the day of his brother Patrick's wedding to Luce Johnson, John L. Gerard (Jerry) Nugent led his company of U.S. Marines on a lonely windswept hill in South Viet Nam. Today was a routine day. Gerard, 24, commands Echo Company, 2nd Battalion, and marks his own first wedding anniversary Sunday.

Gerard spent part of his brother's wedding day cleaning his personal weapon, a 45-caliber pistol. At 3 p.m. he held a meeting of his lieutenants and senior noncommissioned officers.

LITTLE EFFECT — Jerry is a handsome, mustached professional with three years in the corps. He says he has been little affected by the romance of his brother.

"I've done my job just the same as any company commander," he said. "Naturally, I've taken some kidding about it, but it really hasn't affected my work or my career."

But at the moment he's probably the most talked about lieutenant in the Marine Corps.

His top kick, M. Sgt. Ralph Balora, 40, a 22-year Marine veteran, says: "Lots of times guys ask, 'Who is your C.O. (commanding officer)?' And you say, 'Lt. Nugent.' Then they say, 'Hey, that's the guy who's marrying the President's daughter.' Then we say 'No, but his brother is.'"

PRAISES 'SKIPPER' — Gunnery Sgt. Floyd Litchford, 42, of Fort Smith, Ark., in the Marines for 23 years, says, "Yep, we've got the best-known C.O. in the Marines." The veteran's three words added: "And he's one of the best skippers in the corps, too."

Jerry had C-ration roast beef, mashed potatoes and green beans for lunch and in the afternoon a couple of beers with Litchford and Balora.

At the officers and noncoms meeting Nugent gave orders concerning the digging of new bunkers, laying of barbed wire and getting some weapons repaired.

He puffed continually on a pipe and was shy about discussing the wedding.

Nugent has been in Viet Nam since January. Before that he served on Okinawa and now awaits orders for other duty, probably in the United States.

Cover-Up Job Irks Dancers

HENDERSON, Ky. (AP) — Two go-go dancers have testified each would lose $8 a night by covering up.

Nevertheless, a police court jury found the women guilty yesterday of public indecency and unbecoming behavior and fined them $50 apiece.

The jury deliberated 1 1/2 hours before returning the verdicts against Mary Ann Chapman, 21, Henderson, and Barbara Warner, 28, Evansville, Ind.

Fred Thomas, owner of the Silver Dollar discotheque, said he will appeal to the Court of Appeals, Kentucky's highest court, if necessary.

Thomas, testifying in the dancers' behalf, said they have danced in flesh-colored tops since summonses were served by Police Chief Charles Weiss.

This, said Miss Chapman, costs the girls $8 a night, since their nightly covered wage is $12 compared with $20 for topless.

Prosecutor Ned King told the jury the girls performed at the club "naked above the waist except for gimmicks at the ends of their bodies."

Most of Nation Is Summery

By the Associated Press
Most of the country had typical summer weather today except sections of the northern Midwest and along the Gulf Coast.

Temperatures for the most part were moderate except for high readings in the Deep South and desert Southwest and chilly climate in the Pacific Northwest.

A rain belt extended from the Dakotas through Minnesota and into Upper Michigan and in portions of the South and Western mountain area.

A few cities reported heavy early morning rain. Beaumont, Tex., got nearly 2 1/2 inches. Lake Charles, La., reported 1 1/2 inches in 30 minutes, and Duluth, Minn. had 1 1/2 inches.

Panama City, Fla., got 88 inches and a total of nearly 6 1/2 inches in the last 24 hours, the Weather Bureau reported.

More than a third of Argentina's estimated 22 million inhabitants reside in or adjacent to Buenos Aires.

High-Speed Crack-Up on I-75 Is Fatal

A Flint man was killed late yesterday when his car went out of control and somersaulted on I-75 in Pontiac Township according to Pontiac State Police.

Herschel H. Blay, 32, was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital following the accident about 5 p.m.

Troopers estimated Blay's speed at "over 100 miles an hour" when his car left the southbound lane of the freeway and skidded down the median before flipping into a culvert.

Blay was thrown from the car when the vehicle upended near the M24 exit, troopers said.

Blay was wearing his seat belt and had no other injuries.

Blay was a resident of Pontiac Township and was employed by a local business.
