Combined Tax
$1.27 Lower in City This Year

Local Levy Is Same,
While County, School
Bills Drop

By PETE LOCHBILER
Combined city, county
and school tax rates in Pontiac will be $1.27 lower this year, according to the current tax picture.

The total tax bill is scheduled to be $43.29 for each $1,000 in assessed valuation, compared with $44.58 last year.

The city's share will be $13.27
for the second straight year.

With a feeling of pride, city commissioners adopted the rate
last night.

While other Michigan cities have seen a rise in taxes this year or a cutback in services, Pontiac will be able to hold the line on both taxes and services, said City Manager Walter K. Willman.

"The city manager and the city assessor deserve everyone's thanks for their successful efforts to keep taxes down," said Mayor Philip E. Rowston.

The school tax in terms of assessed values is scheduled to be only $22.90, compared with $23.70 last year. The county tax will also go down, said City Assessor
W. Ray Ransom.

It will drop from $7.94 to $7.12
if county equalized valuations are not upset by the Michigan Tax Commission.

VALUATIONS DIP

Reason for the dip is that county and state equalized valuations in Pontiac have dropped this year,
although the city assessed valuations have gone up.

County and school tax allocations are based on state equalized values, while the city spreads taxes on the lower, assessed valuations set by the Pontiac Assessing Dept.

The drop in equalized valuations (county and state figures are virtually identical) was from $335-000,000 to $319,000,000.

Behind the cutback is the fact that the Pontiac Assessing Dept. convinced the County Equal-

Employment Up 1 Million in May

WASHINGTON (P)—Employment rose by a million in May to a record 66,016,000 for the month. Unemployment fell by 238,000 to 3,389,000.

Announcing the figures today, Secretary of Commerce Lewis L. Strauss and Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell said they reflected further substantial improvement in the nation's job picture.

An unusually large pickup in factory employment accompanied a May seasonal rise in farm work.

The May total of 66,016,000 employed was the largest number of Americans with jobs for any month of May. It compares with an all-time peak of 67,221,000 set in July 1957.

The new figures represent a drop of about 1 1/2 million among the unemployed in the past year.
However, the idle total is about 70,000 higher than it was in May 1957.

The ratio of unemployment to the labor force declined in May to 4.9 per cent compared with 5.3 per cent in April and around 6 per cent during last winter. This is the first time the idle ratio has dropped below 5 per cent since November 1957.

Factory worker earnings averaged $90.32 in May—representing the first time in history the average passed the $90 mark. Earnings among durable goods workers averaged $98. Among soft goods workers it was $80.

Secretary of Labor James P.
Mitchell called the report extraordinarily good.

Mitchell predicted to reporters
Tuesday that the joint Labor-Commerce Department report would show an excellent gain in employment and a new decline in unemployment.

The last prior count showed 65,012,000 employed in April with 3,627,000 unemployed.

Unemployment dropped sharply in Michigan last month, the Michigan Employment Security Commission reported today.

The MESCC said a preliminary report showed 240,000 jobless workers as of May 15, a drop of 60,000
over the same time a month ago.
Unemployment in Detroit was pegged at 140,000, down 30,000 from April.

High Schooler Away Since Early Monday

Garage Man Reports
Seeing Youths in Car
With Detroit Teenager

DETROIT (AP)—
Clothing found on a suburban golf course today turned out not to be that of a missing Detroit schoolgirl. For a time the clothing had been considered a prime clue, but her parents said it wasn't that of 14-year-old Susan Lawrence, missing from her northwest Detroit home
since Monday when she left for school.

DETROIT (P)—Clothing, which may be that of a missing Detroit schoolgirl, was reported today to have been found at a golf course in suburban Redford Township, Wayne County deputies said.

The girl, 14-year-old Susan Lawrence, has been missing from her northwest side home since Monday when she left for school.

The county sheriff's road
patrol said a red and white gingham dress and underclothing, matching a description of Susan's clothes, were found by a golfer in underbrush at Glenhurst Golf Club.

Police Det. Elmer Reed reported
"what may be a lead." He said a west side service station owner, Ernest Winkles, 47, reported he was "quite sure" he had seen Susan earlier yesterday morning.

"She was with two young boys in a 1946 Buick with Arkansas tags," Winkles said. "They stopped and bought gas. The boys were in the front of the four-door and on the back seat was this girl lying down with a quilt over her. I am quite sure the girl in the car was the missing one."

Winkles said one boy was 17 or 18 and the other about two years younger.

More than 200 officers sought the girl last night.

Susan, a Mumford High School
freshman, left home at 9 a.m.
Monday to study for examinations.
She was to go to either her school

Reds Propose Year's Deadline

West Considers Plan
Another Ultimatum to Get Out of Berlin

GENEVA (P)—The Soviet Union proposed a one-year deadline for the Western Allies to end their occupation of West Berlin.

The first reaction of the American, British and French to the Soviet proposal was that it looked like another ultimatum, similar to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's original demand last November that they end their occupation by May 27.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko made the new proposal at a secret session of the Big Four ministers Tuesday.

Conference officials said the new Soviet plan has these four main points:

1. The Soviet Union will guarantee the continuance of the existing occupation status of West Berlin for one year.
2. It will guarantee unrestricted Allied access into West Berlin by operating traffic controls along the access routes as at present.
3. The Western powers in turn will agree to the creation of an East-West German commission to develop contacts and technical cooperation between the two Germans.
4. The Big Four will agree to conclude a peace treaty either with a united German government or with the governments of the two Germans.

The Western foreign ministers indicated immediately that the proposals were totally unacceptable.

The growing possibility that the foreign ministers' conference will collapse without an agreement on Berlin raised the specter of a new East-West crisis.

A break in negotiations presumably would kill prospects for an early summit conference.

Officials of Teamsters
Union Face Trouble If Monitors Disregarded

WASHINGTON (P)—The U.S. Court of Appeals today gave U.S. District court power to enforce its cleanup order against Teamster
James R. Hoffa of the Teamsters Union.

In a unanimous decision,
the appellate court said
Dist. Judge F. Dickinson Letts was within his rights in modifying a consent order which terminated litigation to bar Hoffa from taking office.

Under the order, Hoffa was allowed to take office but a three-member board of monitors was set up to watch over the union's affairs and make recommendations for restoring democracy to the union.

In its opinion today, the apellate court said recommendations of the monitors are not self-enforcing, but that they may go to Judge Letts for orders putting them into effect.

If Hoffa and the other Teamsters officials fail to comply with

Hoffa Can See No Wrong
in Using 5th Amendment

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Teamster President James R. Hoffa has explained the reason he believes so many Teamster officials invoke the Fifth Amendment before the Senate Rackets Committee. The Teamster president said yesterday, "It doesn't mean there is anything to hide"
when officials of his union claim up before the committee.

"They took the protection of the Fifth Amendment because they didn't have the formal education to compete with the lawyers and didn't want to run the risk of perjury," he stated.

recommendations, the appellate court said, the monitors may report this fact to Judge Letts.

"The court, after affording a hearing to the defendant, may take any action necessary within the scope of its decrees," Judge
Charles Fahy said in an opinion

Central, Northern Highs Plan to Graduate 526 This Week

The graduating classes of Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern high schools will be addressed at commencement exercises by Dr.
Lowell R. Eklund and D. B. Varner.

Three hundred and forty-five Central graduates, their guests and school officials will hear Dr. Eklund's speech entitled "The Fabulous Future." The commencement will be held 8 p.m. Thursday at Warner Memorial Stadium.

Principal Francis W. Staley will officiate during the presentation of the class.

"The Fortunate Few" is the subject of the address to be delivered to the 181 graduates of Northern by Varner, chancellor of MSO.
The program will begin 8 p.m.
Friday in Northern's auditorium.

The Northern Band, assisted by Madison and Lincoln Junior high school students, will be conducted by Eldon E. Rosegarn in the procession and recessional and "Dedication," by Hermann.

The Rev. James W. Deeg, pastor of the Oakland Park Methodist Church, will deliver the invocation and benediction.

James Lyons, senior class president, will address his remarks to the assemblage and Principal Philip J. Wargelin will present the class and awards.

Glenn Griffin, president of the Pontiac Board of Education, will preside over both commencements.

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of Pontiac Public Schools, will award diplomas at both exercises.

A number of scholarship awards will be announced commencement nights. Those to be given to Central students are the PTA Scholarship, Sarah Mc-Carroll Foundation, Regents
Alumni, University of Michigan,
H. V. Y. Teen, and the Michigan State University Entrance scholarships.

Also included are scholarships
from the MSU Club of Oakland County, Alma College, State Board of Education, Central State University, University of Detroit
"Grant-in-Aid," Baldwin Wallace in Berea, Ohio, Metropolitan Detroit
Science Fair Scholarship, W. Allen Booth mathematics award, and the MSO Entrance Scholarship.

Scholarships to be awarded to winners announced at Northern's commencement are the MSO scholarship, State Board of Education Scholarship and the John Thors Jr. Student Scholarship Award.

335 Will Graduate Tonight at Waterford High School

Roy A. Larmee, director of the University of Chicago Laboratory School, will deliver the commencement address at Waterford Township High School graduation exercises tonight for 335 seniors.

Scheduled to begin at 8, the program will be held outdoors on the school football field, weather permitting. The gymnasium is the alternative.

The prelude, processional and recessional will be played by Beverly Wells. The Rev. Benjamin Bohn, pastor of the Crescent Hills Baptist Church, will deliver the invocation and benediction.

Lanny Younger will present
the valedictory message.

Superintendent of Waterford
Township Schools William Shumck will do the introductions, while Principal James S. Fry will present the class. Mrs. Elizabeth Adams, president of the Waterford Township Board of Education, will award diplomas.

This is the school's 12th annual commencement service. (Graduates are listed on page 2.)

Milwaukee Kick Pulled From Beatniks' Java

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)— Milwaukee beatniks were mumbling in their beards today.
They weren't getting the same kicks from their cafe espresso.

Five policewomen testified in Federal Court yesterday that they donned Bohemian dresses and posed as arty patrons of two coffee shops to get samples of the strong Italian coffee. They found the coffee was spiked illegally with a liqueur.

U.S. District Judge Frank Gregorski continued the cases for one year when the owners of the shops promised to stop jazzing up their brew.

Ike Addresses Nation's Physicians

"BE REASONABLE, DOCTORS"—President Eisenhower riffs
through his speech before addressing members of the American Medical Association at their annual convention in Atlantic City, N. J., Tuesday night. He asked the nation's doctors to help fight inflation by charging fees that their patients can "reasonably pay."
The President warned that uncontrolled inflation inevitably would force Americans to seek government medical assistance, which he considered most undesirable. At left is Dr. Gunnar Gunderson of LaCrosse, Wis., retiring AMA president; and at right is Dr. Louis

M. Orr of Orlando, Fla., the new president. For more details, see

Business Blooms in Downtown Shopping Area

Business is blooming in downtown Pontiac.

Large cedar? buckets filled with bright red geraniums are decorating the fronts of downtown stores, bringing sparkle and color to the city's business district.

More than 50 shops have purchased plants thus far.

The appearance of plants is a project of the Downtown Merchants Assn., designed to beautify the shopping district.

"Before we're through, we'd like to see plants in front of every store downtown," said George Richman, owner of the Wiggs Colony Shop, who is spearheading
the project.

He said 20 other stores have ordered the plants, which have drawn much favorable comment
from local shoppers.

Flight to Chicago No Quick Trip Via Honolulu

HONOLULU (AP)—Tired, he boarded the plane and dozed off. Waking, he looked out of the window and saw the blue Pacific.

Richard Fuerst had intended to go to Chicago. He arrived in Honolulu.

He told the stewardess he apparently went through the wrong gate at Burbank, Calif. The pilot suggested he remain a day as the airline's guest. But Fuerst, of Marinette, Wis., insisted: "Got to get to Chicago."

After a 2-hour hula holiday, he caught a plane for the mainland.

Hospital Pickets Battle Police

Graduation of Doctors Turned Into Melee as Strikers Join March

NEW YORK (AP)—Fifty policemen, swinging nightsticks, and about 100 pickets clashed Tuesday in the first outbreak of mass violence in the month-old hospital strike.

Seven pickets were arrested. No serious injuries were reported.

Leon Davis, president of the striking union, called for an investigation by Mayor Robert F. Wagner.

"We vigorously protest the brutal clubbing of the defenseless strikers by the police," he said. "And we call upon Mayor Wagner to investigate and take immediate action against the policemen responsible for these outrageous attacks."

The brief flareup occurred at a medical school graduation ceremony near one of the seven hospitals struck by nonprofessional workers.

The academic procession was made up of the faculty of New York Medical College and 123 students who were to receive degrees. They marched three blocks in 90-degree heat in academic robes. The hospital pickets gradually joined the end of the procession.

The trouble broke out when police formed a solid wall to move the pickets, by then a group almost as large as the procession, out of the line. Doctors and students were not involved.

The New York Medical College owns Flower & Fifth Ave. Hospital, the latest to be struck by the Retail Drug Employees Union.

Young Father Is Killed in Fall Under Tractor

LANSING (UPI)—A 22-year-old father of three died near here yesterday when he fell under a farm tractor he was using to cultivate a corn field.

Frank Goebel apparently lost control of the tractor while backing, fell off and was killed when the vehicle ran over his skull, Eaton County sheriff's officers said. The machine then rolled down a 20-foot embankment and into the Grand River. The body is at the Fields Funeral Home, Dimondale, pending funeral arrangements, officers said.

Back in 1749, New York and New Hampshire nearly fought a war over territory. They were able to make peace before anything serious developed.

Ortonville Child Shoots Himself Unloading Rifle

A five-year-old Ortonville boy accidentally shot himself in the leg Tuesday while attempting to unload a .22 caliber rifle.

Oakland County sheriff's deputies said Eric Wollerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wollerman of 1512 Hummer Lake Rd., was alone in a tent behind his home when the accident occurred shortly after noon.

The boy was treated by Dr. Paul Schoen Jr. of Ortonville, and was then taken to Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital for further treatment and X-rays. His condition is not serious, deputies said.

Eric told detectives that he saw the gun in the corner of the tent and picked it up. He said he was sitting on a cot "trying to get the bullets out" when it discharged.

The rifle, used by an older brother to shoot crows, had been left in the tent loaded, detectives reported.

Annuals or Perennials?

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, regarded as a contender for the Republican nomination for president, is having a sizable landscaping project done, at his own expense, around the governor's executive mansion. Wags are wondering whether he's planting annuals—or perennials.

Erhard to Test Adenauer Move

Will Have to Muster Support of Christian Dem Party

BONN: Germany (AP) — Angry Ludwig Erhard confronted Konrad Adenauer today with the sharpest challenge to the aged chancellor's political supremacy since he took office a decade ago.

Returning from a visit to Washington, Erhard announced he would contest the 83-year-old Adenauer's decision last week to remain as chancellor rather than carry out his previously announced plan to step up to the West German presidency. Erhard had been the favorite to take over the government.

The big question was whether Erhard could muster enough support in the ruling Christian Democratic party to force the Adenauer to loosen his iron grip.

As economic minister and the architect of West Germany's post-war recovery, Erhard is considered one of the party's biggest vote getters. But Adenauer was strong enough last week to win the reluctant consent of the party's parliamentary caucus to his change of plans.

Asked if he would resign as economic minister, Erhard replied, "That depends."

"I will under no circumstances," he told reporters, "tolerate the continued existence of the historical lie that I am less qualified than the chancellor to guide the German fate during this serious situation of our people."

Will Too Vague, So Two Claim $20,000 Theirs

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — When the late Charles J. Wrightsman drew up his will, he included a $20,000 bequest for a Negro employee named George Tatum.

The trouble is, he didn't say which George Tatum, and two men by that name may claim the inheritance left by the 50-year-old oilman who died May 30.

Warren, Scarborough, Wrightsman's attorney, said his client intended the money for George Tatum, 33, of Fort Worth, who served Wrightsman as house boy, chauffeur and yardman for nearly 25 years.

But in Tulsa, Okla., George Tatum, 29, said he thought the money was meant for him because Wrightsman "said I made the best barbecue sauce in the world."

Times Sticks by Lloyd Story

Says Its Article About His Being Transferred in Fall Correct

LONDON (AP) — The Times of London today stood by every word of its story suggesting Selwyn Lloyd's days as British foreign secretary are numbered and denied slapping him in the back.

The influential daily said in an editorial that some journalists and diplomats had misinterpreted the story appearing June 1 and pointed out the headline emphasized that any possible transfer for Lloyd was still several months ahead.

The Times had come under criticism for printing the story while Lloyd was taking part in the Big Four conference in Geneva. The story said Lloyd would be transferred to another post after the general election, which is expected in the fall.

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan repudiated the story and telegraphed Lloyd assurance that his removal was not contemplated.

With tongue in cheek, Laborite legislator Emrys Hughes introduced a bill in the House of Commons to nationalize the Times under government control. The House went along, agreeing to consider the measure.

The office of public governor of the New York Stock Exchange was created in 1928 so that the public interest would be represented on the board.

Northern Joins Program of Summer Playgrounds

There'll be a summer playground program this year at Pontiac Northern High School for the first time.

This will be one of several new features in the Department of Parks & Recreation's 1936 summer playground program, June 22 through Aug. 14.

Aimed at teenagers and adults, the Pontiac Northern program will take place from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays, featuring such activities as weight lifting, tumbling, tennis, volleyball, badminton, archery, basketball and wrestling.

This program is similar to the one rescheduled for Pontiac Central High School for teenagers and adults, 6-9 p.m. weekdays.

There will be a few changes in the department's regular summer-time program for youngsters age 6 to 15, said Leonard T. Buzz, city recreation supervisor.

Playground programs will be held Monday through Friday at 22 locations, including the Lakeside Community Center and 21 schools: Bagley, Baldwin, Bethune, Lincoln Junior High School, McConnell, McCarroll, Webster, Wilson, Longfellow, Crofoot, Emerson, Jefferson Junior High School, LeBaron, Washington Junior High School, Wever, Herrington, Central, Malkin, Mark Twain, Owen and Wisner.

This will be the first time Wisner has been included, and the first time in two years that Owen has been used. While Mark Twain will have a full day's program for the first time, the Central program will be in the mornings only and in the Malkin during the afternoons.

The playground program, conducted by Parks & Recreation supervisors, includes athletics, games, field trips, arts and crafts, music and dramatics. At some locations, the play times run from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

In addition, the department this year will offer supervision for group outings at Murphy, Oakland, Optimist and Rotary Parks. The supervisors will be available to groups to organize and equip games and other activities.

Cowboys, Girls and Even Cow Attend Party

LONDON, UPI — Cowboys, cowgirls, and a genuine cow went to a millionaire's party that broke up early today in the wild country west of Buckingham Palace.

The cow and her escorts were part of the 150 guests who hung their Stetsons at the Chelsea home of textile magnate Michael Lewis and his American wife Gloria.

Lewis likes themes for his parties. Last fall everybody dressed up like servants and the left-wing press blasted him for stirring up class-consciousness.

Several wild west guests rode horses to the party and one arrived with an arrow through his tangle hat.

There was hard liquor but no gunplay, and a sign banned lynchings without permission of the hosts.

The guests included Lord and Lady Kilmarnock, Prince and Princess Lowenstein, Viscountess Tarbat, and Lady St. Just, and pedigreed cow Pretty Princess. Pretty Princess was herded to the party by Mrs. Diana Barnato-Walker.

Cambridge University students last night matched the Chelsea party by throwing one on a chartered rail car between Cambridge and London. Their "Hell on Wheels" special had a jazz band and dancing in the aisles all the way.

GOP Solons Support a 'State Rights' Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Republican Policy Committee has endorsed a "state rights" bill, despite the opposition of Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers.

The committee endorsed the bill Tuesday with most of its 33 members present and only a few opposing the action. The bill was drafted by Rep. Howard W. Smith, Virginia Democrat.

The Smith bill would declare that no act of Congress should supersede a state law unless Congress specifically states its intention of doing so, or unless there is a clear case of conflict between the two.

Piped Curiosity Gives Henry Static Afternoon

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Poor Henry, thought 12-year-old Cheryl Hammons. What a way to spend an afternoon—with one arm stuck in a drain pipe.

Henry French Jr., with the insatiable curiosity of an 11-year-old, had thrust his arm up to the elbow into a drain pipe leading out of a building near his home. "I just wanted to see what was in there," he remarked.

Cheryl, tugging as hard as she could, couldn't pull his arm out. So for nearly three hours Tuesday, Henry could do little but wait while a crew with an air hammer chipped at concrete surrounding the pipe. They finally were able to cut through the pipe and free Henry's arm, swollen but otherwise unhurt.

Henry, who had gone through the ordeal without a whimper, broke into tears when it was all over.

Annual Affair Slated Tonight

Euler to Address Elks Flag Day Dinner

Harold B. Euler, Pontiac General Hospital administrator, will be the guest speaker at the 16th annual Flag Day dinner tonight at Pontiac Elks Temple.

Sponsored by the Elks committee for Americanism, the banquet begins at 6:30 p.m.

Nearly 90 new U.S. citizens will attend as invited guests. These are people who have won U.S. citizenship in Oakland County in the past year.

Several of the new citizens will appear in a brief program directed by Janice Antona, instructor of the Pontiac school system's citizenship classes.

The banquet is held every year on the Wednesday preceding Flag Day, June 14.

A Day for Bermudas

BURLINGTON, Vt. (UPI)—University of Vermont students proclaimed a Bermuda Shorts Day "to organize spirit and see if the students would do something to gether."

This year, the Americanism Committee is headed by Lynn Allen Jr., son of the late county clerk who was chairman of the committee from its inception in 1943 until his death last year.

Past exalted rulers of the Elks lodge instituted a new custom this year. They presented a new, 49-star American flag to present Exalted Ruler Ruben M. Kinport, which will fly at the lodge during the remainder of Kinport's term in office.

Ground Raisins Change Peanut Butter Cookies

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

There seems to be no end to the variety of peanut butter cookies. Today's version calls for ground raisins. Although it is a sticky job with your food grinder, it is essential to the recipe.

Mrs. Jack King of Hammond Lake is today's cook. Right now the family lives, eats and sleeps baseball. Mr. King works with the Little Leaguers. Mrs. King also enjoys sewing, swimming and bowling.

RAISIN PEANUT BUTTER COOKIES

By Mrs. Jack King

1 cup butter or margarine
1 cup peanut butter
1 cup granulated sugar
1 cup brown sugar
2 eggs
1 1/2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup raisins, ground

Mix shortening and peanut butter and cream with sugars until light and fluffy. Add eggs and beat well. Add sifted dry ingredients. Stir in raisins. Roll into balls the size of walnuts. Then roll in granulated sugar. Flatten with a fork. Bake 10 minutes at 375 degrees.

Eunice Hayward Feted at Home of Mrs. Koch

Mrs. Alta Koch of North Saginaw, J. W. Baker of North Johnson street was hostess at her home for Attendants announced at the shower are Shirley Hayward, the bride-elect's sister, maid of honor; Bessie Gnanakos, Stephanie Jones, Eleanor Hassenzahl, bridesmaids; Linda Sundahl, junior bridesmaid; and Deborah Davis, flower girl.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hayward of Grande street and Mr. and Mrs.

The children rehearse for their part in the City and Country School carnival this Sunday. Left to right are Shelly Engenbaum and Barbara Zallman, who will be can can girls, and Nancy Ginn, daughter of Mr. James Ginn, cochairman of the affair.

School for Gifted Sets Scholarship Carnival

A special feature of the City and Country School carnival this year will be a water ballet. The 12th annual scholarship carnival, sponsored by parents at the school for gifted children, will be held Sunday from 1 to 6 p.m. on the school grounds, located half a mile north of Long Lake road on Woodward avenue.

The theme this year is "Western Jamboree." Fun for everyone in the family has been planned. An open pit barbecue will continually broil chicken and roast beef and complete dinners will be served throughout the day.

There will be a variety of games and prizes. The children will have an opportunity to ride ponies, pan for gold, dig for buried treasure and play darts.

There will be a continuous show, complete with can can girls at the "Last Chance Saloon."

The carnival helps raise money each year for scholarships to assist parents who have talented children and cannot otherwise afford to send their children to the school.

If you are going on a trip, have a look at those soft little leather slippers that fold into a tiny leather case. Most department stores have them. They tuck into a corner of a suitcase.

Shower Fetes Jean Wahr, Bride-Elect

Guests at the shower were Mrs. Wahr, Mrs. Benson, Mrs. Ralph Rouse, Mrs. John Dugan, Mrs. Bryan French, Mrs. Robert O'Reilly and Mrs. Willard Bennett.

Others were Mrs. Charles Borst, Mrs. William McCreedy, Mrs. Claude Winter, and Mrs. John Hubbard and Mrs. Bert Curtis of Rochester.

New Jersey Firm Specializes in Preserving Wedding Gowns

By MARY PRIME

NEW YORK (UPI) — Memo to the bride: If someone spills champagne in your lap or steps on your veil, call John Van Drill. He's been patching up wedding gowns for 25 years.

Van Drill owns the Le Boeuf Co., of East Orange, N.J., which has specialized in restoring and preserving dresses for more than 70 years. Last year, the plant processed 31,000 bridal gowns, most of them in July and August after June weddings.

Few cleaners will touch a wedding dress except at owner's risk, Van Drill said. His firm — the first and largest of its kind — insures its work. Average cost of preserving a gown is about $35, depending on the value of the dress.

When preserved, a gown is sealed in a case. If it is worn after processing, the guarantee is broken.

Some dresses come to the firm decayed by age or ripped by accident. One bride-to-be arrived to see Van Drill the day before her wedding, clutching what looked like a rag.

Her dog had got its collar caught in the dress. The dog ran out the door and down the street, chasing a cat. By the time the sobbing girl recovered the dress, the beads were almost gone, and the lace and satin were ripped and covered with mud and grease.

Van Drill and his crew worked most of the night on the gown. Stains were removed with carbon tetrachloride and oleic acid. Then the gown was dry-cleaned. A lacemaker remade the torn rosepoint. A seamstress reshaped the pleats and mended the satin. Oil sizing with a plastic base was applied. Finally, the dress was pressed.

The wedding took place on schedule, and the dress looked like new.

In addition to bridal gowns, the firm does special jobs for museums, bridal shops and department stores, private customers, and New Orleans Mardi Gras Kings.

Several years ago, Van Drill restored and preserved all the inaugural gowns of the wives of Arkansas governors. The gowns, some dating back to the 1800's now are on display in the state's museum at Little Rock.

One customer brought in a gown with a note urging caution in handling the lace. It had been made by a male ancestor in a confederate-prisoner-of-war camp during the Civil War.

Another family sent in a gown with a note urging caution in handling the lace. It had been made by a male ancestor in a confederate-prisoner-of-war camp during the Civil War.

LEG CRAMPS?

One of the most common causes of painful muscle cramps is a prolonged deficiency of calcium.

So says a famous doctor and widely-read newspaper columnist, formerly with the Mayo Clinic, and other well-known health authorities

When meals, consistently deficient in calcium, are fortified with DYNACAL Calcium Tablets, tormenting calcium-deficient muscle cramps can be promptly relieved. But don't confuse DYNACAL Tablets with ordinary calcium-phosphorus products. DYNACAL Tablets contain no phosphorus which frequently interferes with the absorption of calcium. And DYNACAL Tablets contain a special ingredient which helps to put calcium into the blood stream quicker—bringing faster relief to cramping, calcium-starved muscles. Pleasant-to-take DYNACAL Tablets with calcium, glutamic acid, hydrochloride, and vitamins D and C contain no drugs. They are safe, harmless, calcium food supplements. Walled Lake Seniors to Hold Class Party at School Till Dawn

ELEANOR G. DUCKWITZ
Walled Lake Correspondent

WALLED LAKE — Parents of graduating seniors, who used to face the hours after the commencement exercises with apprehension, have a far happier prospect this year. No more will they lie awake wondering where their young people are. This year they will know.

This year the graduates will be at the Walled Lake Senior High School participating in an all-class party which will continue until dawn.

The idea for the party, the first in this immediate area, originated last fall when mothers of several seniors informally expressed their thoughts on the subject. They wanted their young people to have a good time but didn't like the idea of them driving from one open house to another. They also didn't like unchaperoned open houses.

Another consideration was the expenses involved in holding open houses.

One party for everyone, they thought, would solve all these problems and still permit the graduates to have the fun and entertainment they desired.

Mrs. Frank Roemer of Westacres was so enthusiastic about the idea that her daughter, Marge, a member of the Senior Executive Board, obtained permission to present the idea to the entire class.

The students recognized its value and they themselves decreed the party would be just for the class of '59 — no dates, no guests. It would be the last time they would be together as a class so they wanted to keep it a closed party.

With student support, letters were sent to all senior parents inviting them to participate. Mrs. Roemer also organized a telephone committee so that the parents of each of the 269 graduates were contacted personally.

The response was terrific. Mrs. Roemer said. Parents attended meetings, volunteered their services and contributions began pouring in. It was clearly understood that the ability of his parents to donate should not keep any student home.

Now with commencement scheduled for 3 p.m. tomorrow, all is in readiness for the party which will follow. The committees have attended to all details to make this party one long to be remembered and perhaps to set a tradition to be followed by future classes.

As soon as the cap and gown clad seniors march out of the auditorium Mrs. Robert Sommer will start her committee transforming the huge room into a "night club."

Allowing the students approximately an hour for family reunions by 11:30 p.m. the fun will begin. Entertainment is the responsibility of Mrs. Norman Smith. She has engaged John Bookout of Orchard Lake Music who will play records for dancing, conduct "mixers" and get the party moving.

Mrs. Smith has also promised some surprise talent and arranged games for non-dancers.

Drawing for door prizes will be conducted at frequent intervals, the first one at midnight.

The rules committee, headed by Mrs. Harold Welch, has stated that no one may enter the party after 12:30 a.m. and if he leaves he may not come back. No one who has been drinking will be admitted nor will any alcoholic beverages be permitted at the party. Mrs. Donald MacLean's committee will see to it that plenty of snacks are on hand until 3 a.m. when Mrs. Edward Brinker's group will serve breakfast.

During the hours that the party is in progress, Mrs. Arthur Mowrey has arranged for parents to be present to chaperone as "unobtrusively as possible."

It is expected that the party will break up about 4 a.m. but participants may stay until 5 if they wish.

In the following days after the party, Mrs. David Whitcomb, as finance chairman, will see that all accounts are settled with the donated funds.

If the energy and enthusiasm being expended on plans and preparations are any criteria, this senior party should be a rousing success, its sponsors say.

Notes Car Import Fight

LONDON (UPI)—Chancellor of the Exchequer Derick Heathcote today told Parliament yesterday would "take note" of an opposition laborite proposal for higher taxes on American-built cars.

VEACHEL BILYEU

Civic Center Site Approved

Southfield Will Buy 166 Acres for $740,000 Despite Xway Threat

SOUTHFIELD—The purchase of a 166-acre site for a civic center on Evergreen road, between 10 and 11 Mile roads, has been authorized by the City Council, Administrator Robert J. McNutt said today.

The land, which will cost Southfield $740,000, will be possibly in the path of the proposed east-west expressway. The council, happy over the purchase, will fight any effort to put an expressway through the property, McNutt said.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bilyeu of 2000 Dunwoody Rd., Ortonville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Veachel Yvonne, to Glenn C. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Allen of Grosse Pointe. An Aug. 21 wedding is planned.

Novi Board Hopefuls Must File by Friday

NOVI — Candidates for the Novi School Board election, July 13, must file their petitions at either the superintendent's office or at the office of the secretary of the Board before 5 p.m. Friday, Dr. William Medlyn, schools superintendent, announced today.

All petitions which are submitted must bear the names of at least 50 registered voters.

There will be two three-year and one one-year positions open.

Arthur Heslip, president of the Board; Russell Taylor, secretary and Dr. Harold Morris, trustee, are the men whose terms will expire.

X-rays are now being used to find defects in logs and heavy timbers.

Schedule Issued for Rochester

Lawn Sprinkling Curbed

dent Clarence M. Burr has issued a proclamation establishing a schedule for lawn sprinkling to be in force until a permanent ordinance is adopted by the Rochester Village Council.

The proclamation specifies that householders with even-numbered houses sprinkle their lawns only on the even days of the month. Those with odd-numbered houses will be allowed to water their lawns only on the odd-numbered dates, it reads.

The reason for the edict, Burr said, is that the advent of warm, dry weather and the increase in sprinkling has reduced the water pressure to such a degree that it is not available to meet the minimum domestic needs of a large section of the village population.

The proclamation further states that because the emergency already exists the restrictions are effective immediately.

Meanwhile village officials are taking the initial steps toward adoption of a permanent ordinance to take care of the water-pressure situation.

Legality Halts Township Sanction

Youth Guidance OK Denied

OAKLAND TOWNSHIP — Upon advice of corporation counsel, the Oakland Township Board last night turned down a request to approve a proposal sanctioning Rochester Area Youth Guidance program.

In a letter from Attorney Charles Davis, the township was advised that statutes under which township governments operate do not include action of this kind. Consequently it cannot be taken despite the program's desirability, the lawyer said.

The Rochester Village Council gave its official sanction to the guidance program, now in operation, in April. And the committee in charge of the program said that, as long as the program would cover the entire Rochester Community School District, it would seek approval of the ordinance from both the Avon and Oakland Township Boards.

The Avon Township Board passed a similar measure at its May 27 meeting.

A special election is being held in Oakland Township today to determine if residents will approve a Consumers Power Co. franchise to install and maintain power lines here for the next 30 years. The polls will be open until 8 p.m.

In other action, the appointment of Francis Hughes as Justice of the Peace was approved. He will fill the two-year unexpired term of Kenneth Waite.

Royal Oak Garden Club to See Film on Insects

ROYAL OAK — The Royal Oak Farm and Garden Club will hold its final meeting of the current year at 7:25 p.m. tomorrow in the church house of the First Baptist Church of Royal Oak, located at 309 N. Main St.

Lester Swan, authority on biological control, will show a colored film supplemented by colored slides. The film, made by the Biological Control Laboratory of the University of California, is entitled "Natural Control of Insect Pests."

The meeting is open to the public.

Jack Benny to Eulogize

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Jack Benny will deliver the eulogy Thursday at memorial services for veteran motion picture director Charles Vidor at Wilshire Boulevard Temple, Vidor, 58, died last week in Vienna where he was making a movie. Interment will be at the Home of Peace Mausoleum.

The Main Library at 330 Orchard Lake Ave. and the Branch Library located at 7300 Cedar Bank in Westacres are the two facilities open to the township.

Milford Job's Daughters Slate Installation Rite

DAVISBURG—Installation of officers of Milford Bethel 68, International Order of Job's Daughters, will be held at 8 p.m. Saturday at the Davisburg Temple. Jean Woodfill will be installed as honored queen.

Patricia Trask, retiring honored queen, will serve as installing queen, assisted by past honored queens from Rochester Bethel 51.

Other officers to be installed will be Darlene Duke, senior princess; Marilyn St. Charles, junior princess; Gloria Reynolds, guide; Bonnie Ashton, marshal; Lydia Lavers, chaplain; Marian Smith, recorder; Sherry Hart, treasurer; Helen Bell, librarian; Sara Peterson, senior custodian; Judy Elmore, junior custodian; Sally Bell, inner guard; Pamela Weaver, outer guard; and Susan Galt, musician.

Messengers will be Susan Burton, first; Kim McCracker, second; Janet Hunt, third; Carol Major, fourth; and Susan Parks, fifth.

Bible School Planned

FOUR TOWNS — The Vacation Methodist Church will be in session from 9 a.m. to noon daily June 15 to 26. Mrs. Carl Damos announced today. The school is open to youngsters four years old and up.

If transportation is needed, parents are requested to contact Mrs. Damos, who lives at 573 Woodbridge Rd.

GETS HONORARY DEGREE — The man who recently played a leading role in promoting and building the Romeo Community Youth and Civic Center, Walter F. Sheetz, right, receives an honorary degree of Doctor of Humanities from Lawrence Institute of Technology, Detroit.

Sheetz, who lives in Romeo and is president of the R. C. Mahon Co., Detroit, is shown receiving his degree from Edward Spencer, treasurer of the Detroit Edison Co., and institute board member, before E. George Lawrence, institute president.

Honor 2 Girls for Posters

One Bloomfield Twp. Student First; Other Gets Special Mention

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Donna Schwand, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schwand of 202 Glenbrook St., Kengo Harbor, has been awarded first prize for the poster she submitted in the West Bloomfield Township Library Board contest.

Betty Serdyarian, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Serdyarian of 330 Ward's Point Rd., Orchard Lake, received honorable mention in the competition.

Both Donna and Betty are students of West Bloomfield High School.

The library contest was open to all students of the township enrolled in grades 9 through 12.

Inaugurated by the Library Board, it was designed to increase awareness of residents of the community of the facilities offered by its libraries, a Library Board spokesman said today.

The Main Library at 330 Orchard Lake Ave. and the Branch Library located at 7300 Cedar Bank in Westacres are the two facilities open to the township.

Milford High Junior to Sail for Belgium on Fellowship

MILFORD — Attractive, brown-eyed Carole Hagerty, Milford High School junior, is hastily making preparations to spend six weeks in Belgium. She will sail from New York on the S. S. Zudenkrans on June 18.

Carole, 17-year-old daughter of the James E. Hagerty of White Lake, is the recipient of an American Field Service fellowship under the Summer Program.

Although Carole received word in April that she had been accepted for the program, it was only one week ago she learned her destination.

She will leave Detroit Metropolitan Airport on June 16 accompanied by three other AFSers from the area. They are Janet Howe of Holly who will go to Great Britain; Sheila Mumpsey of West Bloomfield, going to Sweden; and Patricia Cobb Farmington, whose destination is Norway.

The American Field Service Summer Program enables selected juniors from high schools participating in the foreign student program to spend six weeks of the summer living with a family abroad. It was instituted in 1950.

CLARKSTON HIGH SCHOOL — More than 100 workmen are swarming over the 70-acre school building site, as the new 2½-million-dollar high school begins to take shape. Schools Superintendent Dr. L. F. Greene and construction engineer Edward Powell look over progress made since voters approved the school bond issue by a 2½-to-1 margin.

Clarkston High School Rises on 70-Acre Site

CLARKSTON — The 70-acre site is furnished with the very latest by the Board of Education some school site in the southeast section equipment, according to Schools Superintendent Dr. L. F. Greene.

Provisions have been made for future expansion of the high school, right on the same huge site which was purchased by a far-sighted Board of Education for $16,000 in 1950. Greene estimated that the same property would probably cost between $150,000 to $200,000 today.

The present overlanded high school will be used as a junior high school after the new building has been completed and made ready for operation in 1960.

There are some 3,500 pupils in the Clarkston Community School District at the present time. Based on past enrollment trends, there will be an estimated 4,600 pupils attending Clarkston schools within the next four years, Greene said.

Bids for driveways, sidewalks and parking lots will be accepted.

Chicago Plans Big Hello
for Queen Liz, Entourage

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
HOLLYWOOD—I said "goodbye" to Chicago on the wave of the biggest "hello" ever planned in its history—the arrival of Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip, aboard their private yacht, on July 6.

Gene Kelly was in and out of New York in a flash, but not before I had a chance to learn he's very excited over the offer from the Paris opera to be the first American ever invited to choreograph and stage a ballet there next June.

He isn't exactly set on his theme, but he thinks it will be a modern ballet set to Gershwin music.

Among some telegrams awaiting me at the Waldorf Towers was one from Sam Spiegel with news that he's signed Mercedes McCambridge to play Elizabeth Taylor's mother in "Suddenly Last Summer."

Sam says, "Luckily, Mercedes happened to be vacationing here in London—and we could get her."

Another wire — David Janssen (that dashing private eye of "Richard Diamond") inked his contract with Joseph Schenck Enterprises for a brand new TV series, "The Racers."

If you ask me, my good friend Joe has himself a winning star in Mr. J.

Dean Martin is much more of a sentimental than his wisecracks would lead you to believe.

His birthday happened to fall on the same day as Nancy Sinatra Jr.'s (she hit 19), so Jeanne and Dean hosted a dual birthday party at La Rue with two cakes. Young Nancy's 11-year-old sister, Tina, also got in on this "do."

Same place, same night—Joan Tanglewood Gets New Stage Canopy

LENOX, Mass. (UPI)—A new $10,000 stage canopy will replace the present shell when the Boston six-week summer concert series at Symphony Orchestra opens its Tanglewood Music Shed here.

Mrs. Edmund H. Talbot donated the sum in memory of her late husband, a Boston attorney, for whom the structure will be named.

The new acoustical canopy will consist of 67 triangular plywood panels of various sizes, connected tip-to-tip and suspended from the roof trusses with side walls of plywood.

State Leads Lakes Area in Acreage for Trees

MANISTEE—Michigan has 572 certified Tree Farms, consisting of 1,028,584 acres, the Chairman of the Michigan Tree Farm Committee reported.

Rowland W. Blair, chief forester for the American Box Board Co. of nearby Filer City, said Michigan leads all Great Lakes states in the amount of acreage covered by the Tree Farm program which is designed to properly manage their woods and thereby help supply the nation's timber needs.

There are about 23 million pet dogs in the United States and their owners spend $250 million a year to feed them.

Aga Khan to Receive
Degree at Harvard

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—An undergraduate affectionally called "K" by his classmates gets his bachelor of arts degree Thursday at Harvard College's 308th commencement.

"K's" formal title is His Highness the Aga Khan IV, spiritual leader of some 20 million Ismaili Moslems.

It is in his capacity as Imam of the Middle East sect that he has donated to Harvard $30,000 to establish a 10-year program of scholarships, preferably for students of his faith.

To Aga Khan's gift, Harvard is expected to put in another $50,000 to make a scholarship fund of $100,000 available in the next decade for students from Pakistan, India, the United Arab Republic, Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Lebanon, Jordan, Iran, East Africa, including Kenya, Tanganyika, Uganda and Zanzibar.

The Aga Khan, 22, who succeeded his late grandfather Aga Khan III as Ismaili Moslem leader while a sophomore at Harvard, announced the scholarship plan in a formal statement distributed by the college news service.

Picks Michigan-Built Plane for Tokyo-to-New York Record Try

By A.F. MAHAN JR.
TECUMSEH (AP) — Michigan still is building airplanes.

And Peter Gluckman, San Francisco's flying watchmaker, has picked a Michigan-made Meyers 200 for a Tokyo-to-New York crack at Max Conrad's brand new non-stop record of 7,638 miles.

Gluckman, who has hopped light planes across the Atlantic and to Honolulu and back, said he picked the creation of Allen H. Meyers for his first attempt at the non-stop record "because I think it is the best airplane built."

Meyers is a 50-year-old Michigan resident who built his first airplane in 1953 when he ran a flying school at Wayne. This year he hopes to build 25 of his $23,750, four-place, executive-type planes at the Meyers Aircraft Co. plant outside this southeastern Michigan town.

Meyers, who builds from the airframe up, likes to brag his plane is "all-Michigan." It is powered by a 260-horsepower engine built by Continental Motors at Muskegon.

The Civil Aeronautics Administration has put its stamp of approval on the Meyers 200, a successor to the Meyers 145, a two-place, $9,750 flying job. Meyers built 35 of the latter.

Meyers learned to fly and barnstormed in a Jenny of World War I vintage. Finally he settled and started a flying school at Wayne, but he couldn't find a plane that gave him everything he wanted. So he designed and built his own. He scraped together the funds slowly from tuition fees at his school.

That first plane later became the Air Force's OTW bi-wing trainer of World War II.

Between barnstorming junkies, Meyers had worked in the engineering and mechanical departments of the Glenn Martin, Chance-Vought and Stinson Aircraft plants.

Both the Detroit-made Stinson and the old Ford tri-motor have passed. So has Willow Run's plane-a-minute Liberator factory of World War II.

Although not a graduate engineer, Meyers built his first ship from scratch. And that is the way he has built its successors.

He holds a commercial pilot's license and divides up testing with his test pilot, or does it with him. If he isn't in the air, Meyers is likely to be found on his back aground, helping a mechanic adjust this or that under a wing. Or he may be helping to hang a motor, or running the gas pump or sweeping up behind one of his 75 employees.

Meyers advertises his plane as

"the safest ship of its class," adding "—and we can prove it."

TELLS OF STRUCTURE

He starts with a straight forward truss section made of chrome-alloy steel tubing. The structure extends outboard to include the wing wheels of the plane's retractable tricycle landing gear.

Chrome-alloy steel tubing also encloses that four-passenger cabin. The Meyers 200 has a wingspan of 30 feet 6 inches, is 24 feet 4 inches long and stands 7 feet 4 inches tall.

Its 260-horsepower, fuel-injection Continental engine gives it a cruising speed of 264 miles per hour at 75 per cent of power at 7,500 feet. It has a range of 1,380 miles without refueling.

The sleek little plane has a landing speed of only 55 miles an hour, weighs 1,870 pounds empty and has a load capacity of 1,130 pounds. Back of the four-place cabin is a 200-pound luggage compartment.

Thick carpeting overlies the floors of the sound-proofed cabin virtually surrounded by glass.

Meyers started his Wayne flying school in 1933 and ran it until 1940, when he moved his airplane-building to a broad farm field outside Tecumseh.

That field now has runways stretching 2,600 and 2,400 feet and they can handle anything up to a DC-3, a two-engine transport popular on U. S. airlines until a few years ago.

But airplanes aren't the only thing Meyers builds. There are also Meyers boats, aluminum jobs of 10, 12 and 14 feet length. And there are Meyers truck bodies for pickups. In addition, he does much airframe assembly work under subcontract for other aircraft builders.

Will Be Held at Cobo Hall in Fall

National Auto Show Slated for Detroit

DETROIT (UPI) — The first National Auto Show ever held in Detroit will be staged in the fall of 1960, the Automobile Manufacturers Association has announced.

The site will be at the city's new Cobo Hall and the show will be held Oct. 15 through 23.

AMA President L. L. Colbert, who also is president of Chrysler Corp., announced the show in a joint news conference with Mayor Louis C. Miriani.

The mayor predicted the show would attract one million visitors.

Colbert said the Detroit show would be a bigger one than the National Auto Show held in New York in 1958. That one cost $10,000,000.

The auto show will also provide the first major public exhibition of Cobo Hall, the 54 million dollar exposition center now under construction.

"We are gratified that we can now bring the national show to the heartland of the automotive industry," said Colbert.

"It is our intention to put on the greatest exhibition in the long history of the National Auto Show. We expect to make it an event of worldwide interest that will focus attention on the Detroit area, its industry and many new attractions."

The National Auto Show is the only one sponsored collectively by the passenger car and truck manufacturers.

Orioles Tie White Sox for AL Lead

By The Associated Press

The Orioles are tied for the American League lead! Never since Baltimore returned to the majors in 1954, have the Birds been in first place after the first few days of a season. But now Manager Paul Richards' collection of castoffs has made it. They did it by beating Cleveland's suddenly dead Indians 7-3 last night while Washington beat the Chicago White Sox 7-4. That left the White Sox and Orioles with 29-24 records and a 1½ game lead over third place Cleveland in one of the closest AL pennant races ever.

There's only a ½ game spread from top to bottom. New York's defending champions finally reached 500 with a 9-8, 13-inning victory over Kansas City that hosted the Yankees from sixth into a fourth place tie with Detroit, beaten 5-2 at Boston. Both are only 2½ games behind the leaders.

Kansas City, now sixth, trails by only three games. Seventh place Washington is five games behind with Boston last, 5½ back.

The castoffs, players labeled expendable by other clubs, did the job as the Orioles handed the Indians their ninth defeat in 10 games. Gene Woodling, who even Richards once traded away, and Chico Carrasquel, peddled by the White Sox, Indians and A's, each belted two-run homers. And Billy Loes, once with the Dodgers and the guy Baltimore tried to dump this spring, saved it with another fine relief job. Ernie Johnson, the want, won it.

Loes, the right hander, whose trade to Washington was mixed by arm trouble, came on as the Birds' third pitcher last night with the bases loaded and none out in the seventh inning. He pitched Woody Heid on a pop up, then Minnie Minoso, finishing with a hitless three-inning mop up. Johnson (3-1), who gave up two hits and two walks, had relieved starter Billy O'Dell in the fifth.

The Birds packed it away in the bottom of the fifth on a pair of walks and errors by loser Mudcat Grant (3-2) and Rocky Colavito that scored three runs. Grant threw wild after fielding Willie Tasby's bunt, and Colavito then threw wild to third after retrieving the ball in right field. It was the Orioles' fifth victory in their last eight games and was bagged before a crowd of 46,601—Baltimore's second largest in modern history.

Rookie Bob Allison drove in three of Washington's first four runs with his 13th and 14th homers. Then the Senators won it with three in the eighth against losing reliever Turk Lown (3-2) on a single, an error, three walks, a hit batter and a balk. Washington also scored a run in the fourth when J. W. Porter was struck in the face by a Bob Shaw pitch the game, but was not injured with the bases loaded. Porter left seriously. Tex Clevenger (2-1) was the winner with two innings of three-hit, shutout relief.

Hector Lopez, late of the A's, tripled and scored a tying run for the Yankees in the ninth, then singled home the clincher in the 13th against Tom Sturdivant (1-3), late of the Yankees. Jim Coates won his first in the majors as the Yankees' sixth hurler and 10th in the game, joining relievers Bobby Shantz and Ryne Duren for a hitless shutout over the last six innings. Norm Siebern and Mickey Mantle homered for the Yanks, who had 17 hits, but twice blew leads while getting their 10th victory in 12 games.

Calls It a 'Maverick' Organization

Trautman Raps Minors

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Is a "civil war" brewing in minor league baseball? What's all this talk about "a house divided against itself cannot stand"? That quote, by President Lincoln in Civil War times, was reiterated yesterday by George M. Trautman, head of the minors, in referring to the newly created Independent Baseball Clubs Assn.

Trautman called the association "a maverick organization which clearly has the capability of doing much more harm than good." In Portland, Ore., Clyde Perkins, IBCA president, replied that his association does not intend "in any way to impede the operation of baseball or do any thing detrimental to its interests. But we believe the majors are shortsighted in letting the minors continuously, one after another, go broke."

"They are driving our customers from our ball parks," Perkins continued, "especially with their Saturday and Sunday TV." By that he referred to major league baseball being televised into minor league territory. "For this loss of patronage we divide with us (the minors) the money received for such an invasion of our territories, and is there anything rebellious, revolutionary, threatening or maverick to that?"

Trautman said the IBCA's or-

Top Drivers in Flin' Auto Event Thursday

Pontiac area race fans will have an opportunity to see some of the Midwest's leading drivers in a United States Automobile Club-sponsored midget car race Thursday at Auto City Speedway's quarter-mile dirt track on Dort Highway, near Flint.

An array of Indianapolis "500" drivers will headline the eight-event card to be climaxed by a 50-lap feature race.

The field of about 20 Offenhauser midget cars and drivers will be headed by Shorty Templeman, three-time USAC midget race national champion and for several years an Indianapolis "500" competitor. He will race against such other midget car and "500" specialists as Rex Easton, Jack Turner, Gene Hartley and LeRoy Warriner.

Time trials will be from 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.
