

Khrushchev Vows Rough Spy Trial for Pilot

LONDON (AP) — Pilot Francis G. Powers has been charged with espionage and Premier Nikita Khrushchev has promised "We shall try him—try him severely as a spy."

This was reported today by the Soviet news agency Tass.

The penalty for espionage in the Soviet Union ranges from 15 years in prison to execution by firing squad.

The latest developments were announced in Tass broadcasts from Moscow today in the wake of the news conference Khrushchev held Wednesday at the Moscow exhibit of espionage articles which the Soviets say Powers carried when he was downed May 1.

Part of Western correspondents' dispatches on the news conference had been held up in Moscow censorship. The Tass account of Khrushchev's remarks was carried from Moscow 30 hours after the news conference took place.

TASS VERSION:
The Tass version carried this exchange between correspondents and the Soviet premier:

Q. "Will this plane incident influence Soviet public opinion when Khrushchev comes to Moscow?"
A. "I would not like to be in Khrushchev's place. I would not like to answer the questions which might be put to him when he comes to the Soviet Union. I can only say the Soviet people and our public are very polite, so there will be no excesses. But questions will be asked of course."

Animation, laughter.
"I would put it this way: 'One person, namely U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, has helped the President particularly in this respect. At his press conference Herter made an outrageous statement. Far from feeling guilty and ashamed of aggressive actions, he justifies them and says that this will continue in the future.'"
"Only countries which are in a state of war can act in this way. We are not in a state of war with America. These aggressive actions and Herter's statement are impudence, sheer impudence!"

"Herter's statement has made us doubt the correctness of our earlier conclusions that the President, the American government, did not know about the flight. Herter's statement says that the plan was endorsed by the government."
"The Americans, obviously, were compelled to say this because otherwise, they would have had to bring Allen W. Dulles (head of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency) to account. Dulles, in turn, would have exposed the government by saying he carried out a plan approved by it, and, consequently, endorsed by the head of the government. I proceed from the statement that was made by Herter."

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) pointed his efforts at next week's Maryland primary today as political leaders assessed the effects of his victories in West Virginia and Nebraska.

Students Erupt at Lake Orion

Minor Riot Breaks Out in High School Row on Use of Lounge

A minor riot broke out during lunch hour at Lake Orion Community High School shortly after noon today as students began to demonstrate in protest of having to vacate the student lounge.

Some 300 students began to scream, break a few windows and cause disturbances that prompted school officials to shut down the system of using the lounge with certain provisions concerning use of the lavatories.

When the first trouble started, the administration divided this one lunch hour group into smaller units to put recreation in separate areas: the gymnasium, cafeteria and other rooms.

According to Asst. Principal James Hagg, crowds in the first lavatory sparked the demonstration.

Supt. A. A. Reed said that damage was being done there and that it was spreading to the lounge, which he immediately ordered evacuated.

"DIDN'T LIKE THAT"
"The students just didn't like that — period," the assistant principal said.

A half hour later, the students were all back in class after an agreement was reached that they would go back to the old system of using the lounge with certain provisions concerning use of the lavatories.

When the first trouble started, the administration divided this one lunch hour group into smaller units to put recreation in separate areas: the gymnasium, cafeteria and other rooms.

John D. Rockefeller Jr. Dies at 86 in Arizona

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — John D. Rockefeller Jr., famed philanthropist and head of one of the world's wealthiest families, died in a Tucson hospital Wednesday at the age of 86.

Death was attributed to pneumonia and heart strain. A great humanitarian who abhorred waste, Rockefeller poured millions of dollars into welfare and cultural projects around the world. He was the father of New York's Governor Nelson Rockefeller.

No estimate of his personal fortune was available, but his known gifts totaled more than 250 million dollars.

Once looked upon by fellow capitalists as a radical, Rockefeller also was a pioneer in urging better conditions and an eight-hour day for the American worker.

In his philanthropies, as in his business career, Rockefeller followed the footsteps of his father, founder of the Standard Oil Co., upon which the family's growth is based.

The total gifts of the Rockefellers are conservatively estimated at more than one billion dollars.

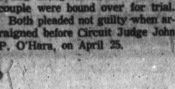

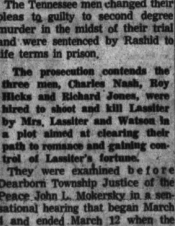

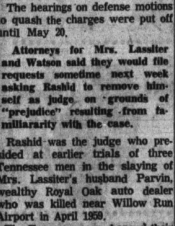

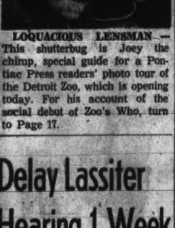

This does not include interest on endowments financing such organizations as the Rockefeller Foundation, General Education Board and Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research.

Rockefeller graduated from Brown University in 1897 with a Phi Beta Kappa key for academic attainment and immediately went to work for his father.

In 1901, Rockefeller married Abby Greene Aldrich, daughter of U.S. Sen. Nelson W. Aldrich of Rhode Island. They had six children, a daughter and five sons: Abby, John D. III, Nelson, Laurence, Winthrop and David.

Dismissal Near for Legislature as Holdout Ebbs

Resistance Cracks on Money for Colleges, Legislators' Wages

LANSING (AP) — A dam of resistance holding back quick adjournment of the 1960 Legislature appeared to be cracking today.

Spending for state colleges and universities and pay raises for the 144 legislators, were main issues in dispute.

Rep. Joseph J. Kowalski (D-Detroit), House Democratic floor leader, said there was "a good chance" Democrats would agree to compromise settlements at a caucus this afternoon.

Rep. Allan Green of Kingston, GOP floor leader, told lawmakers that "things may break fast" today.

CAN CAMPAIGN
The Legislature is scheduled to call it quits for the year tomorrow, clearing the way for members to swing into campaign for reelection.

The wrangle over higher education hinges on appropriations for Wayne State University, Northern Michigan College, Michigan Tech and adult education programs.

Less than $500,000 separates Democrats and Republicans from agreement.

Rep. James F. Warner (R-Ypsilanti) said Republicans are standing firm on their proposal for a $400,000 boost in the Senate-approved figure for Wayne and removal of a $125,000 House-approved increase for Michigan Tech and $95,000 for Northern Michigan.

Five of the six members of Senate's House Education Committee named to settle inter-chamber differences on a legislative pay raise have come to terms.

They stuck with a $1,000 increase in the $4,000 annual salary, a $250 boost in the $1,000 yearly expense allowance and a second 1-cent-per-mile round trip home each month.

Williams Gives Unsigned OK
Parks Fee Unlikely in '60
LANSING (AP) — Legislators and state conservation authorities purged today on ways to start action on a new state parks fee plan designed to finance a multimillion-dollar parks expansion and improvement program.

Rushing protests from Democratic lawmakers and the United Auto Workers, Gov. Williams allowed the fee bill to become law yesterday without his signature. He had vetoed similar measures twice since 1957.

The governor called on the Legislature to clear the way immediately for a bonding program to pay for parks improvements.

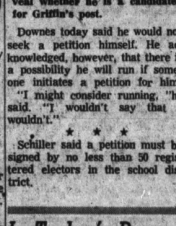

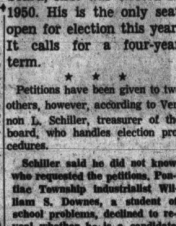

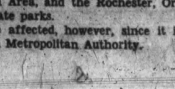

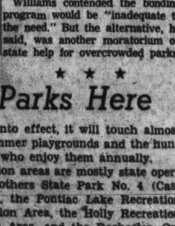

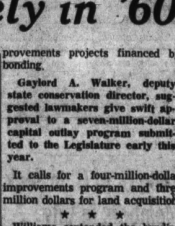

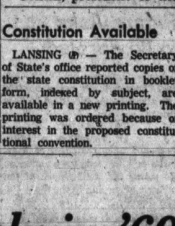

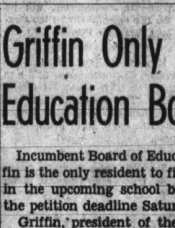

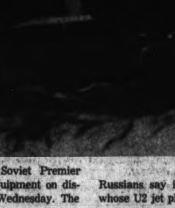

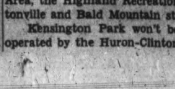

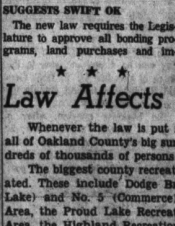

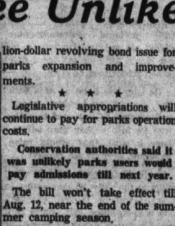

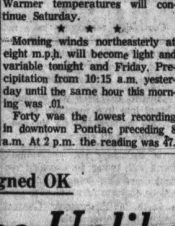

Unless they convene in special session, however, legislators have all but run out of time to get the program started this year. They are scheduled to wind up the 1960 session tomorrow.

PER YEAR
The bill authorizes a $2 windshield sticker which will add a $100,000 annual revenue to the state's $6.80 parks and recreation areas for a year.

A maximum 10-cent daily charge is allowed for cars not showing a sticker.

Proceeds will finance a 10-million-dollar revolving bond issue for parks expansion and improvements.

Gaylord A. Walker, deputy state conservation director, suggested lawmakers give swift approval to a seven-million-dollar capital outlay program submitted to the Legislature early this year.

President May Take Asian Tour if He's Snubbed

Says Nikita Must Be the One to Bring Up a Moscow Journey

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower was quoted as saying today he still plans to visit the Soviet Union next month unless Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev withdraws the invitation.

Rep. Arch Moore of West Virginia said Eisenhower told him and a group of other House Republican members that if Khrushchev does decide to pull back the invitation, "It's all right with me."

Eisenhower's views were reported against the background of Khrushchev's suggestion that the President might not be welcome because of the American spy plane incident.

More and several other GOP congressmen are meeting with Eisenhower at the White House.

Reporters asked whether there was any discussion of Khrushchev's remarks regarding the scheduled presidential visit to the Soviet Union.

"Yes, there was," Moore reported. Eisenhower said the invitation "still stands so far as he is concerned."

COULD GO ELSEWHERE
Moore quoted Eisenhower as saying further that the 10 days he now is scheduled to spend in the Soviet Union "could be utilized elsewhere" if the Kremlin leader should withdraw the invitation.

Eisenhower did not elaborate on that, Moore said.

But there has been talk that the President might make a stopover tour of Asian nations in such a case. He already has plans to visit Japan and Korea.

In response to a question, Moore said Eisenhower made it plain he intends to wait for Khrushchev to bring up the matter of the visit.

The Kremlin leader said Wednesday that he and Eisenhower would discuss the matter when they met in Paris next week for the summit conference.

Censors Slash K's Comments

News Reports Delayed; Perhaps Premier Had Second Thoughts on Ike

LONDON (AP) — Did Nikita Khrushchev have anything stronger to say about President Eisenhower than the remarks that got out of the Soviet Union?

The imposition of heavy censorship on Western correspondents in Moscow suggested the Soviet Premier might have had second thoughts after making his apparently off-the-cuff comments Wednesday.

The Premier's remarks were held up by censors in Moscow for 12 hours.

The censorship was applied on Moscow newspapers, the Pravda carried only four lines on Khrushchev's news conference at the exhibit of American spy plane wreckage. The Soviet Communist Party organ reported only that he gave "damned and circumstantial" answers to questions of Soviet and foreign correspondents.

Kennedy was asked by newsmen about reports he had poured money into his West Virginia campaign. Kennedy estimated outlays at $40,000 to $50,000, then upped the figure to about $70,000. But he said he "did not spend as much as Nixon did in Indiana."

He said Vice President Richard M. Nixon or his supporters spent "at least $150,000" in Indiana.

Traverse Miracle Mile Known for White Sand

By United Press International
A natural attraction for summer visitors in the Traverse City area is the Miracle Mile, a mile of beach fashioned by nature out of sand as pure and bright as the white sands of New Mexico.

The Miracle Mile borders the East Bay of Grand Traverse Bay. Just east of the city and furnishes an excellent bathing beach and sunning ground.

Adjacent to the Traverse City State Park a portion of the Miracle Mile has been preserved as a public bathing beach. It faces the blue waters of the bay and is back-dropped by pine forests.

The 10th annual Bear River canoe race will start Sunday at Walloon Lake.

Three classes of participants—professionals, amateur boys and amateur girls—will compete over the winding Bear River course from Walloon Lake to Petoskey.

Professionals and boys will race over an 18-mile course and girls contestants will compete over a six-mile course.

Spectators will be able to watch the races from vantage points at the starting and finish lines and from numerous bridges along the course.

Charlevoix's second annual week-long Northwest Michigan maple syrup festival starts Sunday and will feature tours of sugar bushes, exhibits of maple syrup products, a pancake supper and a square dance.

It is estimated 90 per cent of the sugar maples in the U.S. are located in Michigan. Charlevoix has 1,500 of the trees within city limits.

A four-block-long breakfast table will be the highlight attraction during Battle Creek's week-long third annual cereal festival which starts Monday.

Approximately 10,000 persons are given a breakfast featuring Battle Creek-made cereals each year at the festival. The 1960 event also will include a band festival.

Battle Creek is the home of Kellogg and Post cereal manufacturing plants.

Ford Fund Grants Colleges $1 Million

DETROIT (AP) — The Ford Motor Co. Fund has authorized one million dollars in grants to private universities and colleges during the next four years.

Henry Ford II, president of the board, said grants this year of $25,000 each will be made to 10 universities, based on the contribution their graduate programs make to the advancement of basic knowledge.

The recipients are Harvard, Northwestern, Yale, Stanford, California Institute of Technology, University of Chicago and University of Detroit.

Ford said subsequent grants will be made on an annual basis. The money can be used in any fashion the college presidents wish.

The fund has no connection with the Ford Foundation which has made extensive grants to educational institutions.

Teddy Roosevelt Memorial Plan Angers Solon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress is considering a proposal to build a memorial to President Theodore Roosevelt on an island in the Potomac River.

But Rep. Paul C. Jones (D-Mo)

doesn't like the idea, and he outlined his reasons.

"They are going to build a monstrosity," he said. "I don't like the design. I don't like the location. I don't think it is typical of what Roosevelt stood for, and I don't like the idea of spending what will certainly be a million dollars."

Despite his objections, a House subcommittee endorsed the proposal, Jones is chairman of the subcommittee.

Asks Laws Against Low Quality Drugs

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Consumers Union urged Congress Wednesday to take fast action on new laws to protect the sick from the danger of low quality drugs.

Dr. Mildred E. Brady, of Mt. Vernon, N.Y., an official of the nonprofit organization, told Senate investigators that the rising cost-of drugs and the possibility that some might be of poor manufacture amounted to an "absolutely intolerable situation."

"There is no escaping the urgent need to remove completely the possibility of the sale of a sub-standard drug by whatever name or at whatever price," she declared in prepared testimony.

Dr. Brady accused the drug industry of hamstringing past efforts in Congress to get such an investigation system.

Dems Ask Senate to Muffle Stahlin

LANSING (AP) — Sen. John H. Stahlin fired new criticism today at Michigan's highway bonding practices as minority Democrats called on the Senate to stifle his guns. One said Stahlin was a "disgrace to the Senate."

The Belding Republican said the highway bonding practices should be "severely censured" for "slovenly and illegal" practices harmful to the state's reputation.

He repeated a contention that a 50-million-dollar road bond issue in 1959 was not lawfully authorized and said 100 million dollars in obligations would prove to be illegal.

Census Up 35,000 in Saginaw County

SAGINAW (UPI) — Saginaw County's population increased from 154,391 to 189,229 between 1950 and 1960, census figures showed today, but the increase in the City of Saginaw was only 4,113.

The city's population in 1950 was 12,918, compared with 97,031 this year. The county's population—excluding the City of Saginaw—was 6,473 in 1950 and 22,196 in this year's census.

Two of the biggest gains were recorded in Saginaw Township which jumped from 5,400 to 15,691 and Buena Vista which climbed from 6,308 to 11,369.

Norvay factories produce approximately 50 million matches each working day.

Flint Population Up by 31,797 Since '50

FLINT (UPI) — Flint registered a population gain of 31,797 during the past decade and is awaiting word from Grand Rapids on which of the two cities is the second largest metropolis in Michigan.

The new census figures showed Flint population climbed from 163,143 in 1950 to 194,940 last month. Grand Rapids, which had a population of 176,815 in 1950, hasn't made public results of the recent census.

Genesee County, in which Flint is located, also experienced a big population increase in the past 10 years.

The county population climbed by nearly 100,000 from 270,963 in 1950 to a present figure of 370,200.

No-Down-Payment Hearings to Open

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congress will open public hearings Monday on a bill to pay off the mortgage, Rep. Albert Rains (D-Ala.) has introduced legislation providing for a chance to buy a house in the medium-priced range with little or no down payment.

financing for nonprofit corporations to build rental apartments for low and middle-income families displaced by slum clearance.

The mortgage terms: No down payment; 2 per cent interest; and 60 years to pay off the mortgage.

Rains is chairman of the House subcommittee on housing which will conduct the hearings.

Vetoes Bill to Reduce Patient Sleep Space

LANSING (UPI)—Gov. Williams has vetoed a bill to exempt the Dennette Sanatorium of Detroit from the minimum state requirements for patient sleeping space.

The bill exempted private hospitals caring for state patients under contract.

Rep. Harry J. Phillips (R-Port Huron), the sponsor, said it was specifically aimed at aiding the sanatorium, which was under the minimum space requirement.

Phillips said the hospital was doing a good job of caring for state patients for less cost than elsewhere.

Williams said abolition of patient space requirements in private hospitals is "an indefensible step toward lowering the standards of health care in Michigan."

Kennedy Sure of Nomination

JOHN F. KENNEDY hasn't been nominated but the Massachusetts Senator "is many, many steps nearer than he was Monday. In fact, Mr. HUMPHREY tossed in the sponge and quit cold. He says he's "had it." Well, he has. Many people think he "had it" even before he started.

The "Stop Kennedy" coalition in West Virginia failed. Humphrey was the ostensible figure running against Kennedy, but actually the entire pack of Democratic candidates was "in there," nudging negatively to the full extent of its abilities.

Tactically, they agreed that if John carried West Virginia, then the throttle was flush with the floor boards and he was out in front by a wide margin.

That's precisely what happened.

West Virginia is certainly the most strategic milestone in KENNEDY'S determined march toward the nomination. At the moment, he stands as a very difficult young man to head off and unless there are some unexpected developments, he will enter the convention as a heavy favorite.

Of course, there can be an upset in half a dozen different and spectacular ways. That's the path that politics treads. However, after all the theoretical obstacles and the laws of chance and a dozen other crystal ball elements are weighed and evaluated, one plain fact emerges. Kennedy's the boy to beat. He's the prime favorite now.

"There are 25,000 legitimate ways of making a living in the U.S.," says a statistician. We wish he'd send us a list of the ways that don't entail work, thought or investment.

The Man About Town

Almost Impossible to Do So Regarding Our County

Tulip: A flower that eradicates the blues of such a spring.

This column is sometimes accused of getting beyond truthful bounds "in our boosting for Oakland County. But people usually find, when they get the official facts, that we're too modest.

Such is the case regarding our population growth. We have long maintained that the 1960 census would show an increase of 250,000 over the 1950 figure of 386,001.

The final count gives us 687,611, an increase of 291,610.

This is a gain comparable to the total population of Toledo in 1950, much larger than Omaha or Miami at that time, and almost twice the 1950 figure for Flint.

It also is a gain of almost twice the total population of the entire state of Nevada in 1960, and more than that of Wyoming at that time.

Yes, it's almost impossible to exaggerate anything good about Oakland County.

Here's a record for all husbands to shoot at: On April 27, 1935,

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Chamberlin, of 557 Montclair St., were married. And their friends now tell me that on every 27th day of the 300 months since then he has had a florist deliver flowers to her.

Fruit growers in the Pontiac area tell me that we have the best "fruit" for a good 1960 crop—unless we get a May frost hard enough to kill the buds which are making an exceptionally favorable start.

Word comes to me from my sister, Mrs. Roy Smith

David Lawrence Asks:

Do We Want Ike to Visit Russia?

WASHINGTON — Do the American people want President Eisenhower to go to the Soviet Union next month as planned?

This question will be asked again and again as news dispatches tell of the insults flung at the President by Soviet Premier Khrushchev are widely read.

For the Soviet Premier has just announced that "the President would not be welcome in the Soviet Union. Under such circumstances, self-respect and the dignity of the nation would seem to require a polite statement postponing the visit till some day when the climate is better and there is a true understanding between the Soviet people and the American people of the issues in controversy."

"I would not like," said the Soviet Premier, "to be in the shoes when he comes to the Soviet Union."

"People will have a lot of questions to ask and they will be right, too. But there will be no excesses...."

"The Russian people are open-hearted. Can I expect them to welcome him as a dear guest? I would be mad to say to the Russian people to welcome as a host a man who sends espionage planes here."

CONVERSE ALICE TRUE — But the converse is also true. The President would be going to Russia to fraternize with a ruler who for years sent thousands of espionage agents to America and other countries.

Eisenhower has been ready to go to Russia despite the fact that Khrushchev gave the order in 1955 to shoot down in cold blood the most women and children of Hungary, and even today millions slave-labor camps where thousands of Russians who have dared to speak up on public affairs are imprisoned.

The President, in the interest of finding some basis for a better understanding between the Soviet Union and the United States, has been willing to put aside all personalities.

But Khrushchev now injects personalities. Asked whether the plane incident had changed his opinion of the President, he said:

"It has, of course. I was not aware of the fact that the plan of air espionage over the Soviet Union was not the work of an irresponsible officer."

"I am responsible for the acts of this government and I was horrified to learn that the President had endorsed these acts."

BEFORE IKE CONFAB — But the interview with the Soviet Premier, which several newspapers had in Moscow, happened before a press conference in Washington Wednesday in which Eisenhower formally explained American policy toward Soviet threats and arbitrary acts that have led to the making of the "cold war." The President said:

"No one wants another Pearl Harbor. This means that we must have knowledge of military force and preparations around the world, especially those capable of massive surprise attack."

Even while Khrushchev was adopting a holier-than-thou attitude

The third stage follows in the spleen, and various bone, liver, kidney, nerve, spinal cord and brain manifestations.

But, hold on, here. We have gone over the line into morbidity, which is out of place in a health column.

The only advice I can give anyone who has or fears he has syphilis is this: Consult a physician.

Significant letters more than one year or 10 years ago pertaining to personal health and hygiene, and the latest money, so scrupulously answered by Dr. William Brady, of the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan. (Copyright 1960)

Good grief! Here I've been eating in restaurants, coffee shops, at soda fountains, roadside lunch stands, dining cars, hot dog emporiums and picnic for years and years with never a thought about what I might catch there.

Syphilis is transmitted innocently in rare instances, but nearly always the disease is contracted through sexual relations.

An effeminate youth who carries a comb in his pocket and keeps his hair pretty at all times was the most popular guest at a party where a kissing game was played. The incubation period of syphilis is from two to six weeks.

Within that time several of the girls who had kissed the young man developed the primary sore of syphilis, called chancre, on lip or tongue. Although the young man's skin and complexion was clear and lovely he had the secondary lesions of syphilis in his mouth at the time of the party.

Syphilis is a CONTAGIOUS disease — communicated by contact — but fortunately only feebly infectious via contaminated objects or utensils.

Proper use of plain soap and water for washing the hands immediately after handling or touching anything that might conceivably be contaminated by syphilis germs, and use of soap or other detergent and HOT water for washing eating and drinking utensils (as prescribed by health authorities) makes everyday living safe enough, so far as risk of syphilis inoculation (syphilis in the innocent) is concerned.

The primary stage of syphilis is the chancre or hard sore which develops at the point of inoculation from two to six weeks after inoculation.

The secondary stage begins as the chancre heals, and it is characterized by some enlargement of lymph nodes throughout the body, skin eruptions which may not show

'Forand Bill's Little to Ask for Sake of Older Citizens'

Efforts on behalf of our senior citizens are commendable, but we don't need ad hoc conferences, high level talks or super-intelligent committees to determine their needs: a pension adequate to meet cost of living and health insurance to provide hospital and medical care in their few remaining years.

That's very little to ask for those who have given 40 years of honest toil, 40 years of toiling and another generation to the world. The millions now paying 20 per cent Federal income tax for politicians to shoot into the high heavens, at home and abroad, shouldn't object to another one-fourth of one per cent to make the old folk's dream come true and to build up security for themselves when they reach that age.

I feel the Forand bill is the answer for retired workers.

David Lawrence goes far away in credulity when he writes of the "taxes paid" as "contributions" to the Treasury for public good and even compares such payment of taxes to voluntary contributions to charity. The amounts wouldn't be paid unless the law said so.

I have no objection to or envy of the large salaries paid those executives, but everyone knows the amount is always large enough to leave plenty after taxes — most of these salaries increase with increase in tax rate.

Please, Mr. Lawrence, don't be so naive as to make comparisons in percentages, as between what Mr. Breach has left after taxes and what a body finisher has left.

Back Pan American for N.Y.-Orient Route

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Two Civil Aeronautics Board attorneys have recommended that Pan American World Airways be allowed to fly passengers and cargo between New York City and the Orient with stopovers in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

If approved, the action would give Pan American its first route over the continental United States. The airline currently flies around the world but has no domestic routes.

The recommendation was one of several sweeping changes in Pacific air routes contained in a report to a CAB examiner. It is a step toward final approval of changes in Pacific air routes requested by President Eisenhower to meet national needs.

The changes must be approved by the examiner, the CAB and by the President.

The attorneys, James L. Deegan and James E. Landry, also recommended that Northwest Airlines be given a Central Pacific route to the Orient with co-termini at Los Angeles and San Francisco and stops in Honolulu and Tokyo.

Pan American would be prohibited from carrying passengers between domestic terminals; Northwest would be prohibited from carrying passengers between San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Rustproof Plastic Bodies for Cars Still Pipedream

By JACK VANDENBERG
UPI Automotive Editor

DETROIT — The dream of a lightweight, rustproof plastic car body that never needs waxing or polishing is still only a pipedream, auto and chemical industry experts agreed today.

Stephen V. T. Marshall, automotive coordinator for Plastics Technical Services at Dow Chemical Co., said the use of plastics in the manufacture of cars will "rocket" in the next few years.

But he cautioned against over-optimism.

There is nothing in sight yet, he said, that would make a plastic body feasible for a volume-produced car.

Hopes for a plastic body ballooned about a decade ago when the chemical industry was just beginning to develop plastics and envisioned unlimited horizons for new products.

TALK GROWS AGAIN

Later talk of a plastic body for cars calmed down. Now the auto industry is on the verge of another large-scale conversion to plastic parts in cars and the talk of plastic bodies is growing again.

"A steel body coated with a good plastic film shows much more promise of providing the rustproofing everyone is looking for," Marshall said. "Good acrylic plastic base paints can provide a high degree of rustproofing and long lustre life."

"The aim of decreasing weight can best be achieved now by widespread use of plastics in other parts of the car," he said.

Specialized low-volume cars like the Chevrolet Corvette can use a body made of plastic impregnated Fiberglass but this type of body is not practical for higher volume cars, he said.

Tooling costs are low for this type of body for a low-volume car and offset the high cost of raw materials. But raw material costs are much more important than tooling costs when the tooling can be written off over a large number of units so the Fiberglass body becomes impractical for high volume cars.

Driver Holding License Dated Back to Year '21

HONOLULU (AP) — Police on Kauai Island were surprised to learn that Carlos Talabon has been driving a car for 38 years without a valid driver's license.

Talabon, 63, was equally surprised to discover his license was void.

The license, issued him Nov. 14, 1921, was good only for eight months.

Forgives His Debtors

ELLERSON, Va. (AP) — James Bryant of Ellerson, Va., bequeathed to six persons any and all money they owed him at the time of his death—the total, some $40,000. Friends believe the 71-year-old farmer had the Lord's Prayer in mind when he made his will seven days before his death April 4.

Americans consume upward of eight million tons of sugar per year.

Ex-Sheriff in Prison on Woman's Charge

GRAND HAVEN — An inmate's garb today covered the bulky figure of ex-Muskegon County Sheriff Arthur Davis in his second-floor cell at Ottawa County Jail.

Davis has 10 days to appeal the 90-day sentence handed down Wednesday by Muskegon Municipal Judge William T. Caughey on a conviction of assault and battery.

Before being transferred from Muskegon, the 50-year-old former officer told newsmen there would be "definitely no appeal." He added: "If I fight this any more it will mean more bad publicity for my family."

He was found guilty Tuesday night by a jury of four women and two men after trial on charges lodged by Mrs. Saralouise Dawson, 28, a Whitehall housewife and mother of four children.

She claimed he made improper advances toward her last March 8 in an investigation of a gun-firing incident at her home.

Youngsters Debut at Zoo Coming Out Party

By DICK SAUNDERS

One of the biggest coming out parties of the season was held yesterday—and it was quite a swank affair. Furs galore.

Detroit Zoological Park Director Frank G. McInnis held the reception for the first families in a quiet residential area on 16-Mile Road. The idea was to show all the new arrivals which have taken up residence since the zoo closed last fall.

Shortly before the tour began, your reporter heard the shy, calculated voice of a veteran tipster. "Hey, buddy, you got an honest face. Tell ya what I'm gonna do . . ."

And so began a Pontiac Press "exclusive"—a look at this year's zoo features through the eyes of our esteemed guide, Joey, a two-year-old Chimpanzee.

"Ya wanna get close to da heart of things, don't ya dad?" asked this amazing chimp. "Well, I'm da closest thing there is to it."

"Da big story aroun' here dis year is babies. I'm tellin'-ya, we got kids all over da joint," said Joey, himself the youngest of the zoo's performing chimps.

And right he was. The crop of newly born is the largest in many years, and even more births are expected this spring and early summer.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The newborn range from four cuddly lion cubs to polar bears and a baby hippopotamus.

Two zebra colts, one born in January and the other in April, are the first to make an appearance in the zoo's African Veldt for several years.

Three Kodiak bear cubs born Jan. 31 are almost inseparable playmates.

herd last winter and two baby Dorcas gazelles enliven the African swamp scene.

"But you ain't seen togetherness 'til you see Bubbles and Jenny," Joey advises.

He refers to the zoo's current pride and joy—the first opportunity for zoo visitors to view a mother and baby hippopotamus.

Jenny was born to Bubbles Dec. 4, 1959, and is the first hippo to be successfully reared in Detroit.

The Polar bear population has risen with the addition of Lou and Dan. Bertha gave birth to Lou Nov. 14 and mother Hilda gave birth to Dan Nov. 23.

—HE'S NO MONKEY

When we told Joey he was a very sharp monkey, he belated, "Look, Dad, get this straight: I'm an ape. Like there's no fail to this end."

He lectured us for 15 minutes on the difference between apes and monkeys and then he showed us an array of baboon and rhesus monkey babies that will delight the kiddies.

And after a suitable building, came the main event of the social afternoon. Added to the stack of calling cards on the hall table were the main attractions—chimps Julius, Jazbo, Chico, Albert, and of course—Joey.

HERD IS GROWING — Following the trend in other animal exhibits at the zoo, the mountain goats too are experiencing a population boom. Here, a recently born youngster stands by his protective elders. The "old goat" is giving way to the young goat. But papa is still master of the herd — a mighty rough customer to lock horns with.

ANOTHER SHOW — The chorus line performs each day with style and grace. For some really hot flamenco dancing, you'll find it hard to beat Mary, Mona, Ruth and Susie shown here in a finale with trainers Steve Leko and Jack Bruckman.

The quartet of cuties don colorful Spanish costumes for the program. Rain or shine, the zoo is open beginning today from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. weekdays and 9 to 6 Sunday and holidays.

LION CUBS — Only about six-weeks-old, these four newcomers are the frailest babies at the zoo right now. They were born to Diane on April 1. The playful cubs are fast outgrowing their "childhood" and must be handled with heavily padded gloves. Visitors will find them delightful to watch — from a distance.

ANOTHER OPENING — This is about the biggest opening around the Detroit Zoological Park. It belongs to Bubbles, and she opens it whenever she gets hungry (which is often for a hippopotamus). Tagging along is Jenny, who was born in December and is the first hippo to be raised in Detroit.

FAMILIAR WATCHMAN — One of the most familiar sights at the Detroit Zoo each year is the pompous tiger, sprawled lazily under a tree. He seems to be saying, "What? You back again so soon?" Visitors who have stopped to admire him before, will begin pointing back for another season today.

British Laborites Lambaste Spying

LONDON (UPI) — British concern about American spy flights over Russia exploded into a Parliamentary uproar Wednesday as angry Laborite charges that retaliation for such activities could bring "instantaneous destruction" to Britain.

But Air Secretary George Ward, despite Laborite pressure, refused flatly to say whether Britain and the United States are working together in carrying out aerial espionage over the Soviet Union.

"It has never been the practice to disclose either the nature or scope of intelligence activities," Ward said in replying to a barrage of Laborite questions. "In my judgment it would be contrary to public interest for me to make any exception to this practice."

Franked Mail Slow, Hawaiian Solon Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hawaiian Congress members are unhappy about the time it takes franked mail to reach their distant state from Washington.

Rep. Daniel K. Inouye (D-Hawaii) said Wednesday he's used up his $40 mail allowance and is now spending $100 a month out of his own salary for airmail stamps — "otherwise my constituents would get very poor mail service."

The franked, or free, mail, a privilege extended to all members of Congress, takes 12 to 20 days to reach Hawaii, he said. Inouye and his colleagues, Sens. Oren Long (D) and Hiram Fong (R), are backing a bill to permit airmail first class mail to Hawaii and Alaska.

Urges Resistance to Boosting Octane

DETROIT — Refiners were urged last night by the board chairman of the American Petroleum Institute to resist any suggestion from the automobile industry that octane ratings of regular grade gasoline be increased.

M. J. Rathbone, president of Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), said he had read that the auto industry wanted such an increase in order to satisfy advertising claims made for new economy engines.

The United States is first in the world in production of electricity with 42.5 per cent of the total, Russia is second with 3.1 per cent and England third with slightly less than that.

Pennsylvania to Stay Neutral: Lawrence

ROME (AP)—Gov. David Lawrence of Pennsylvania, a Democrat, said today Sen. John F. Kennedy had scored a great victory in the West Virginia Democratic primary, but the result will not change the position of neutrality of Pennsylvania delegates to the Democratic National Convention.

Lawrence is to head Pennsylvania's 21-vote delegation to the convention. He is on a vacation trip in Europe.

Lawrence declined to say whether he believed Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey's withdrawal would help Adlai E. Stevenson or other possible contenders for the nomination.

"That's all conjecture," he said.

Less than six million pounds of organic chemicals were obtained from petroleum in 1955. By 1959 the total had increased to 15 billion pounds.

Airlines Pile Up Records

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The nation's scheduled airlines set records last year in every category except profits, a survey reveals.

The 21st edition of "Air Transport Facts and Figures," published by the Air Transport Assn., reported that the airlines:

—Carried 55.9 million passengers, nearly seven million more than in 1958 for an all-time record.

—Flaw 34.3 billion passenger miles, another record, and five billion more than the previous year.

—Hauled $46,372,660 ton miles of mail, express and freight, for a 14.3 per cent jump over 1958.

—Netted profits of about 70 million dollars after taxes and interest, 25 million higher than in 1958 but 8 million under the best money-making year of 1955 (even so, 1959 gross revenues were 1 billion dollars higher than in '58).

The ATA said it was the eighth consecutive year in which domestic airlines had a fatality rate of less than one death for every 100 million passenger miles, and the seventh-straight year for the international carriers.

"Today it is three times as safe to travel by domestic scheduled airline as by automobile," the survey said.

"On the average, there are more highway fatalities every two weeks than occurred in the entire 10-year period of the 1950s on the domestic scheduled airlines."

Other statistical highlights of the report:

—The airlines are now the leading common carrier of intercity traffic, hauling 47.3 per cent, compared to 28.4 per cent for railroads and 24.3 per cent for buses. (Ten years ago, the airlines ran a poor third.)

—New jet-powered airliners are being delivered at a rate of one every 44 hours; about half the 600 ordered by U. S. airlines have been delivered and all 600 will be in service by the end of 1962.

—The nation's commercial air fleet totaled 1,864 planes at the end of 1959, including 94 pure jets and 213 prop-jets; they have a capacity of 108,730 seats daily, compared to 35,000 daily seats only 10 years ago.

The name Kentucky means "dark and bloody ground." It was the scene of numerous battles between opposing tribes of Indians.

Research Team Boosts Bowles for President

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UPI)—A psychology research team at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, headed by Dr. Davis Hovess, has started a drive to gain Rep. Chester Bowles (D-Conn.) the Democratic presidential nomination.

Hovess said the drive started in January when a group of people "who vote their convictions" decided that the current front-running Republican and Democratic candidates lacked experience both in domestic politics and foreign policy.

He said nearly 600 persons in Massachusetts had joined in support of Bowles.

The group in Massachusetts, he said, had contacted Bowles supporters in California, New York, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Missouri and Illinois. Hovess, an associate professor of psychology, said Bowles supporters in Massachusetts would continue to work for the Connecticut representative despite Sen. John F. Kennedy's spectacular victory in West Virginia.

End Federal Tax on Cars, Editor Urges

DETROIT (AP)—Tax authorities have been urged to reduce or eliminate the 10 per cent federal excise tax on motor vehicles by Robert B. Powers, editor and publisher of Ward's Automotive Yearbook.

Powers, in an editorial in the yearbook, yesterday said the tax, first enacted in 1917, was "a politically immortal, positive, war-time emergency measure."

He said the rise of the American compact car and its direct competition with its European counterpart has made such tax relief imperative. He said the three dominant European car builders either are government-owned or controlled and as such can make sharp price reductions.

"To bring relief to the industry from the excise tax at some later time when the need may become critical may cost us those friends throughout the world we have worked so diligently and expensively to win and influence," he said.

Ottawa County Shows 20,000 Population Rise

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Figures released Wednesday disclosed Ottawa County population at 97,812 persons in the 1960 census, a substantial gain over the 1950 figure of 77,751.

Carl B. Tugzie, Fifth District census supervisor, reported major gains at Grand Haven, Holland and Zeeland, the county's primary population centers.

Holland was listed at 13,321 compared to 15,856 in the 1950 census; Grand Haven stood at 11,654 compared to 9,536 in 1950 and Zeeland showed 5,689 compared to 5,075 in the last census.

COMES BACK BY MAIL
SADDLE BROOK, N.J. (UPI)—Mrs. Harry Nelson, 31, lost a wallet 10 years ago while taking a walk. It is the city closest to the present population center of the nation. Flora is about 100 miles east of St. Louis.

'61 Ford in Future of Many Drivers -for a Week

FLORA, Ill. (UPI)—There's a Ford in the future of each of the more than 5,000 residents of this southern Illinois town.

Mayor Norman Bryden said the residents have agreed to go along with a Ford Motor Co. plan to promote new model cars.

Under the plan, Ford will replace, for one week starting Sept. 15, all of the 1,500 plus cars and trucks in Flora with 1961 model Fords, Falcons, Thunderbirds and Ford trucks.

The citizens will drive the cars and trucks for a week and then return them and go back to using their previous vehicles.

George H. Brown, Ford Division market research manager, said Flora was picked because it is the city closest to the present population center of the nation. Flora is about 100 miles east of St. Louis.

City to Vacate Service Road

County Official Agrees
Oakland Should Tend West Blvd. Section

The City Commission apparently will move ahead with plans to vacate West boulevard in the Oakland County Service Center.

Mayor Philip E. Rowston reported to commissioners at an informal meeting last night that Robert Y. Moore, chairman of the Oakland County Board of Auditors, had agreed that it should not be the city's financial burden to maintain the new service road proposed to replace West boulevard.

City Manager Walter K. Williams delayed the vacation proceedings earlier this week until the police was settled.

It was decided last night that the county will be asked to sign an agreement stipulating that it will both construct and maintain the new road.

The county has asked that West boulevard be vacated in order to clear the site of future expansion of the six-story courthouse tower now under construction.

The city apparently will continue to maintain the northern portion of West boulevard as an Oakland avenue entrance to the service center.

Ike Will Greet Tokyo Crowds in 1938 Packard

TOKYO (AP)—President Eisenhower and Empress Hirohito will ride through Tokyo June 19 in a 22-year-old automobile.

The decision to make the 11-mile drive from the airport in an open car sent officials scurrying for open cars as a rarity in Japan.

Officials decided there wasn't time to order a new model from America. They finally located a 1938 maroon Packard stored away in the imperial garage. It will get new seat springs and upholstery for the occasion.

Hirohito and Empress Nagako customarily greet visiting chiefs of state and their wives at the airport and ride with them into the city. But the ride with Eisenhower will be the Emperor's first on such an occasion in an open car. The Empress and Mrs. Eisenhower will ride behind in a closed car.

DETROIT (UPI)—Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. announced Wednesday it plans a one million dollar expansion of its Stainless and Strip Division, which has headquarters in Detroit.

The expansion will be at plants in Detroit, Los Angeles and Louisville, Ky. Individual plant expenditures were not broken down.

Maine was the first state to earmark auto license fee revenues for the building of modern highways.

Pay Consultant Up to Workers

Fire, Police—Units Will Get Choice; Survey to Cover Entire City Staff

Pontiac fire and police representatives will be asked to consider the choice of an independent personnel consultant to prepare a new wage-job classification plan for municipal employees.

City Commissioners, meeting informally last night, tentatively decided on a particular consultant who will be recommended to the firemen and policemen.

Early this year, the Commission promised to review the pay plan after fire and policemen complained their wages were low in comparison with those in Detroit and Detroit suburbs.

One of the jobs of the consultant will be to decide whether Pontiac wages are more fairly compared with those in the Detroit Metropolitan area or with those in what the Michigan Municipal League describes as the metropolitan influence area.

Pontiac lies geographically in the latter category, according to the league.

Although police and firemen have been the only employee groups actively campaigning for raises, all municipal employees would be included in the study.

The study could be completed by July at a cost of a couple of thousand dollars, according to City Manager Walter K. Williams.

The Commission has already promised to consider new wage hikes at midyear if the study indicates they are proper and good tax collections bring in the necessary money.

Williams also wants the study so he can include recommended pay increases in his budget proposal this fall. In the past, the recommendations have not been made until after the Commission has received the tentative budget.

'Twas False Alarm but Police on Job

DULUTH, Minn. (U) — Three squad cars were at the scene in modeling the bank building. The less than two minutes after a burglar alarm sounded at the Northern City National Bank here — just in time to surround three men wheeling a safe out the back door.

But the trio turned out to be members of a contracting firm remodeling the bank building. The safe was an old one being hauled away as junk. A janitor had accidentally tripped the burglar alarm.

Clusiel Trujillo, capital of the Dominican Republic in the West Indies, was founded by Bartholomew, brother of Columbus.

Glass Manufacturers Try for Cheapness

NEW YORK (U) — Because of competition from metal, paper and plastics makers, the familiar glass milk bottle may soon be replaced by cheaper throw-away glass bottles similar to those used for beer and some other beverages, reports "Modern Packaging" magazine.

Glass container manufacturers, the magazine says, are intensifying research to overcome the inroads of other materials, which in the last five years have taken a 15 per cent bite of the milk container field.

The path of an average tornado is about one city block in width.

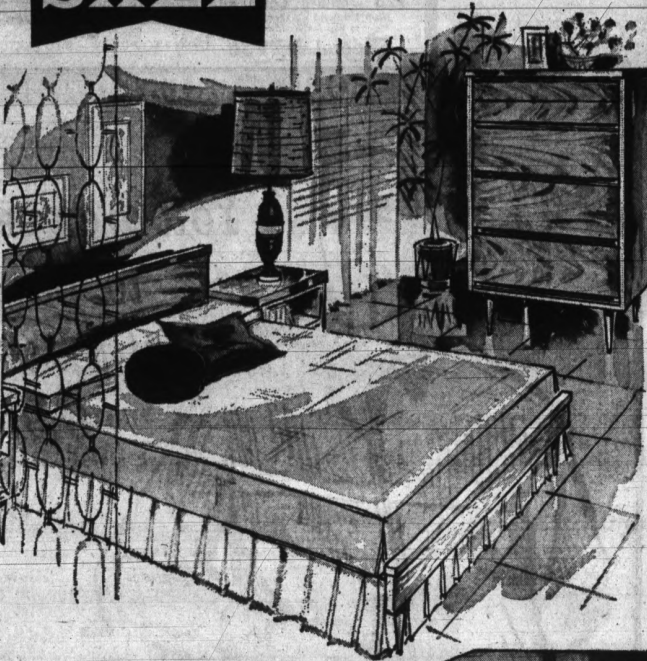

Say Mexicans Evade Duty

MEXICO CITY (U) — Officials say Mexican exporters have been evading 28 per cent of the export duty on pure lead by shipping it abroad as semifinished products such as lamp bases and wheels.

What's With This Skinned Buffalo Look?

Twin-Breasted Suits Forever!

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (U—) To fight inflation, save your double-breasted suits. They will return!

As an intermittent career fat man — my weight at least twice during the year tides back and forth from below 180 to above 210 pounds — I am convinced that a thoughtful man's best friend is not a double-breasted suit.

tie and skimp suit he will look slimmer.

Maybe this is so. Maybe if you skinned a buffalo alive he would have an Ivy League look and you couldn't tell him from any other Harvard, Yale or Princeton sophomore.

PEELED RABBIT

But the main thing that would be true if you robbed him of his living robe is—he would no longer look like a buffalo.

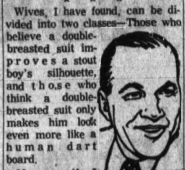

There may be a virtue in following the current masculine style of dressing in skin-tight clothes that make a fellow look like a suddenly peeled rabbit. But somehow I can't see it.

Men who dress that way look to me like fellows walking on tiptoe across grapes—and as if they took a deep breath or ate another calorie for lunch they would pop their buttons.

A man has to dress for his time and his feelings, but I think the American male would have more self-confidence if he had the expansive assurance that a double-breasted suit brings. I think he would also feel more secure if he also wore a vest and an old-fashioned open-faced gold watch—instead of a nervous alarm clock on his wrist.

My theory is that we still have time in this world to be and feel like ourselves—and that a man who dresses skimp and looks skimp is bound in time to feel skimp.

"But don't you realize that a double-breasted suit makes a fat

Cuba Students Rally to Halt U.S. 'Plot'

HAVANA (AP) — Student leaders called a mass meeting at the University of Havana today, continuing a new anti-U.S. campaign based on a report that the United States is planning to attack Cuba.

About 2,000 students demonstrated Wednesday night after the semi-official newspaper Revolution printed the report of an impending invasion.

My own wife, I regret to confess, is among the latter. She shares a widespread misconception common among many wives who otherwise show a great deal of judgment and considered integrity. They have the idea that a double-breasted suit makes a stylishly stout man look unstylishly fat.

Nothing could be further from the truth—as any fat man knows: "You may be built like a polo mallet," says Frances. "But you have to brag about it. Let's keep the secret in the family."

She has the ridiculous idea that if a fellow wears a skinty neck-

TENSION MAP — The recent spy flight by a U.S. plane over Russia has brought a warning to Pakistan and Norway (blackened) from Nikita Khrushchev that he would strike at any base used by American spy ships. These two countries are reported to be the intended terminal points of Francis G. Powers' flight over Russia. Other U.S. air bases are marked with stars. The solid line shows Powers' flight from Peshawar, Pakistan, to Sverdlovsk, where he was purportedly shot down. The broken line indicates his intended route to Oslo, Norway.

Presidential Golf Jokes May Be Passe

List Candidates' Playground Preferences

By MERRIMAN SMITH
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Backstairs at the White House:

There has been some interesting research recently on the recreational habits of the men most likely to be president. Particular attention has been paid to their taste in vacations.

This can be frightfully important to the more or less permanent residents of 1600 Pennsylvania Ave., such as the secret service agents, the signal corps detail, and the basic house and office staffs.

Sen. John Kennedy (D-Mass.) likes sailing vacations at Hyannisport, Mass., on the exclusive edge of Cape Cod, and sunny winter holidays in the sands of Palm Beach, Fla.

This conceivably could bring back the White House yacht, a perquisite of the presidency until Eisenhower came along and abolished the good ship Williamsburg as a shuddering symbol of luxury.

The White House would be just jim-dandy as it stands for Vice President Richard M. Nixon and his family. Nixon and his two girls love swimming.

The White House pool is ready and waiting and the girls could have some wonderful splash parties for their school friends. The vice president also likes golf, so the green on the south lawn probably would go undisturbed.

Although the Nixons hail from California, they like winter vacations in Florida, particularly at Key Biscayne near Miami, and at West Palm Beach. Perhaps he might revive Key West as a presidential resort — if the memories of a Democratic president are not too overpowering.

Another prominent Democrat,

Adlai E. Stevenson, probably would keep the tennis courts busy if he were elected president. Stevenson once was a golfer, but gave it up in favor of tennis. He's the quiet type on vacations and prefers places like Pinehurst, N.C., or Aiken, S.C.

Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri likes golf, hunting and deep sea fishing. The hunting is excellent in the Maryland Mountains near Camp David. The Symingtons take their holidays in south Florida and on an old estate of Mrs. Symington's family near Genesee, N.Y.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, another Democratic prospect, is so incurably Texan that much of any holiday time is spent at home. Home is a vast ranch 80 miles outside Austin, where the Senate Democratic leader likes to lounge beside his kidney-shaped swimming pool and telephone back to Washington.

Housing for a White House travel party on or near the Johnson ranch might present some problems. It might be interesting, at that. Secret service men in chaps and ten gallon hats, for example, packing their guns in low-slung hip holsters. And the squawk of walkie talkie radios around the ranch campfires at night, plus a melancholy guitar telling sad stories of days gone by, of days in air conditioned hotels with room service and television in every room.

Keep Job Appropriate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — When the time came to replace the 19-year-old beacon light atop Leavenworth Air Force Base's 169-foot water tower, the contractor did it in appropriate aerial fashion. The 400-pound beacon was lifted into place by helicopter.

Nevada became a state in 1864.

Sen. John Fitzgerald Will Seek Re-Election
 LANSING (UPI) — Sen. John Fitzgerald (R-Grand Lodge) Wednesday said financing of state government was the most important problem as he announced he would seek re-election.

"It is painfully obvious that we aren't getting the fullest value from the tax dollars the state collects," said Fitzgerald, the son of a former governor.

But Council Cuts Tax Millage

OKs Increased Sylvan Spending

The Sylvan Lake City Council last night passed a 1960-61 budget that calls for increased spending but a decrease in the present 26.4-mill tax rate.

The new operating budget is $117,162, compared to the present operating budget of $109,485.

But, due to a surplus in debt service, taxpayers will experience a drop of .4 of a mill in the current taxation rate.

The 1960-61 combined operating and capital budget will be $131,202.

INCLUDES BLACKTOPPING
 This includes a $19,040 debt service figure, plus a $45,000 blacktopping program to be financed by special property assessments and state shared tax monies.

Blacktopping to be done in the opening fiscal year is the first part of a proposed three-year program.

"The millage decrease is made possible by a reduction in our bonding debt and a surplus in the debt service which has been built up over the past few years," said City Manager David E. Firestone.

"The 26.4-mill rate in effect since 1956 has left a surplus in our sewer and water bond funds as the bonds were paid off; therefore, an adjustment in the rate was made," he explained.

"This year's debt service figure is a shade higher than last year's but the surplus will take care of that."

The operating budget increase is due to a combination of factors which add up to an increase in costs and services.

EXPECT STATE AID RISE
 Firestone also announced that the expected population rise in Sylvan Lake should increase state aid funds to the city by about $7,000.

It is estimated that 1960 census figures will show the city's population has doubled in the last 10 years.

Councilmen scheduled a public hearing for 8 p.m. Thursday, May 12, to discuss the blacktopping program.

Streets scheduled for blacktopping this year include all of Inverness, Pontiac drive from the east city limit to the bridge directly northwest of Lakeview, Cheltenham between Inverness and Garland, Avondale between Inverness and Pontiac drive, and Garland between Woodland and Pontiac drive.

Others are James K from Tel-graph road to the west city limits, and Pioneer, Tilden and Dick streets from James K to the north city limits.

The council discussed construction of a storm sewer on James K to precede blacktopping of that street. The sewer project will be voted on at a future meeting.

School Pay Hiked

PETOSKEY — Salary increases for Petoskey public school teachers have been announced by the board of education. Under the new program, base salaries will range from $3,800 to $5,500.

Road, Bar Head Dies

MEMONINEE — George Barstow, dean of the Menominee County Bar Assn. and chairman of the county's road commission, died here Tuesday after an illness. He was 77.

STOCK WHIZ — Douglas Steen, 34, of Seattle, is making a brokerage gesture. Steen jumped from a $7,400-a-year physicist job to championship bridge, to stock markets. He parlayed $6,000 to $240,000 in six years. He devotes full time to the market now. It's a "probability science," he says.

6 Nashville Stores Break Color Line

Negroes Eat at White Lunch Counters

By The Associated Press
Six Nashville stores have begun serving Negroes at previously all-white lunch counters on a partially-integrated basis. Small groups of Negroes sat without incident at the six counters Tuesday under a previously secret agreement to serve them during slack periods. Others planned a second test of the plan today.

Officials of the six Nashville stores said they reached an agreement with white and Negro civic leaders to serve Negro customers at the previously all white counters during slack periods. The agreement was not announced in advance. All six stores had closed their counters at various times in recent months during sit-in demonstrations which resulted in the arrest of nearly 150 Negroes.

RELIEF EXPRESSED
A spokesman for the merchants expressed relief that there had been no incidents but said it would be some time before the switchover to integrated seating could be called a success.

As part of the agreement, Negroes ended a boycott of downtown stores which store officials said had not been effective. They said the agreement was made to bring an end to the threat of violence which had caused many customers to shift their business to suburban shopping centers.

TWO ARRESTED
A demonstration by about 200 Negroes in Winston-Salem, N.C., resulted in two arrests. But a temporary truce was arranged by City Manager John D. Gold who agreed to call a meeting of store managers and Negro protest leaders.

Lunch counters in three Winston-Salem stores and one in Durham, N.C., were closed when the demonstrators crowded in demanding service.

Conviction of Dr. Richard NeSmith of MacMurray College, Jacksonville, Ill., who ate lunch with Negroes in Montgomery, Ala., may have set the stage for a test of a new city law enacted to deal with racial incidents.

NeSmith was fined $100 and costs on a charge of disorderly conduct. His wife and 10 white students were acquitted. All were charged under a new city ordinance which makes disorderly conduct any act "calculated to provoke a breach of peace."

The separate trial of seven Negroes and another white, student who ate with the Illinois party, is still in progress in another court.

It will require another 50 years to complete the job of mapping the nation at the present rate, according to the U.S. geological survey.

U. S. Tourists are getting ready to travel in record numbers. Over 2,000,000 Americans will go abroad in 1960—over 17 per cent more than in 1959. The job, transportation and hotel industry is expected to benefit. Libya in North Africa is about the size of the 48 states. Yet it has only about 200 miles of railway. A dachick is a four-toed bird without tail feathers which is found both in Europe and North America.

Up 6 Pct. in U.S.

DETROIT (U.S.) — Sales of foreign cars in the United States increased by about 6 per cent in the first quarter of this year compared with the first three months of 1959, official registration figures showed Wednesday.

Sales of domestic cars during the same period increased about 14 per cent over year-ago figures.

Ward's Automotive Reports said 123,484 imported cars were registered in the United States during the quarter. A year ago the total was 120,844.

Despite the over-all gain only Volkswagen and Renault among the volume imports showed registration gains. Volkswagen jumped from 22,783 in 1959 to 32,224 this year. Renault increased from 16,697 to 20,912.

March registrations of imports totaled 50,310 compared with 49,234 a year ago, again with only Volkswagen and Renault showing gains.

English Ford is third for the year followed by Opel, Fiat, Simca, Vauxhall, Triumph, Hillman and Volvo.

Bill Would Fight
Business Rackets

WASHINGTON (AP) — New York's two senators are to introduce a bill to create a national clearing house for phony business schemes.

Speaking on behalf of himself and Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y.), Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.) said: "The objective of the bill is to make it easier for the authorities to keep tabs on business rackets and to make it as difficult as possible for the promoters of these ventures to set up fly-by-night operations in localities after localities throughout the country."

QUICK TRICK CLAM CHOWDER—Now that you can have canned clams on your food shelf at any time this recipe for a clam chowder will be useful. Use the new instant scalloped potatoes that come in a package for the base of this hearty soup.

Fresh Meat and Produce Keep Price Levels High

This week there have been indications of higher prices on poultry and all meats except veal. The best values may be found in the store features or budget buys.

BEEF: Beef prices remain generally unchanged this week. There are a few features available on chuck roasts and a number of the markets are beginning their warm weather emphasis on boneless roasts for barbecuing — on rotisserie, rump, sirloin tip and eye of the round roasts. Such budget cuts as boiling beef and short ribs are also on special.

PORK: The expected shrinkage of hog arrivals has been evident during the past week. Most pork prices have advanced but some good buys may be found in center-cut chops and Boston butt roasts. In smoked hams, bacon and a variety of luncheon meats. Pork livers is also being suggested on the best economy buy.

POULTRY: Frying chickens advanced in price this week but there are a number of good values available in all fryer parts and the split birds for broiling. And turkey parts are also being advertised this week for small families who want more meat for their money.

EGGS AND DAIRY: After a short period of price increases caused by larger demand from the processors, prices on eggs have dropped off 2-3 cents a dozen again this week. The relationship between the large and medium sizes still indicates that the large eggs are the better buy by weight.

FRUITS: Much needed rain in Louisiana brought unexpected heavy production of strawberries and volume shipments are still rolling, though a few crops of Arkansas quarts are expected to begin next week. The new spring crop of avocados has begun to appear in the same large volume as the winter crop and the same low prices prevail. Bananas, too, are remaining in heavy supply. Florida watermelon shipments are on the increase each week.

VEGETABLES: With the advent of higher temperatures, the volume of New Jersey asparagus is expected to increase sharply this week — quality is also improving.

Packaged Spuds Go in Chowder

Quick Clam Chowder... yours in minutes!

What an elegant treat for unexpected company at noon. This quick idea calls for only a package of scalloped potatoes, a can of minced clams, butter and milk! All the seasonings you'll need are contained in the sauce mixture that comes with the potatoes. What a delightful combination... and it's so easy. Serve with buttered rye bread topped with olive slices for that extra touch.

To make the chowder, simply empty a package of scalloped potatoes, including the sauce mixture, clams and water into a saucepan. Bring to a boil, simmer until tender, then add milk and butter. Now, what could be easier?

Quick Trick Clam Chowder
1 package scalloped potatoes
2 cups water
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup butter

Mix contents of scalloped potato pkg., including seasoned sauce mix, water and clams in large saucepan. Bring to boil, stirring occasionally. Reduce heat, cover and simmer 15 to 20 min., until potatoes are tender. Add milk and butter. Heat.

Note: For a flavorful chowder variation, use No. 303 can chicken broth (about 2 cups) in place of 1 cup water and 1 cup of milk.

Ham and chicken are good together! You'll want to try this: Combine a can of chicken a la king (10 1/2 ounces) and a can of frozen condensed green pea with ham soup plus a soup can of water. Heat and serve to 4. Mighty good!

Bread Recipes Suitable Around the Clock

You're sure to find one favorite in this array of bread appetizers.

Then heat in a hot oven (400 degrees) for 10 minutes.

Cheese-Nut Triangles
Getting right to the point, Cheese-Nut Triangles are designed to delight late-evening snackers. Bite sized and served hot, they're prepared from enriched bread slices, spread with this mixture: 1/2 cup pimiento cheese spread and 1 raw egg yolk, seasoned with minced onion, dry mustard, salt and pepper.

Trim crusts from bread and cut each slice into 4 equal-sized triangles. Dip the top of each triangle into rounded, silvered almonds.

Seasoned Cracker Crips
There's good reason to season when the results are Seasoned Cracker Crips. Make these nifty little appetizer teasers from plain soda crackers, brushed with melted butter and sprinkled with poultry salt or garlic salt. Toast in a hot oven (400 degrees) until crispy—about 5 minutes.

Double Ring Sandwiches
Double Ring Sandwiches honor the sentimental twosome of the anniversary sets. To fashion each of these two-high tidbits, with a cookie cutter, cut two (4-inch) rounds from an enriched or whole wheat bread slice. Remove a circle from the center of one round to form a 1 1/2-inch wide "ring."

Butter the round and spread with a filling of egg salad and chopped, cooked bacon. Top the round with the bread "ring" and spot a slice of stuffed olive in the sandwich center.

Bonnet Sandwiches
Headline stealers at the spring luncheon will be Bonnet Sandwiches. Created from slices of enriched bread, these take shape from cookie cutter "patterns." Use a 3-inch and 1 1/2-inch cutter, respectively, to cut out "bonnet" and "crown" circles from the bread. Spread large and small circles with cottage cheese, whipped until creamy and blended with a little lemon juice plus a dash of salt.

For a springtime touch, add a few drops of food color—red, green, and yellow—to portions of the cheese mixture. Top each of the large "bonnet" circles with a 1 1/2-inch cucumber round, then with its matching "crown" circle, spread side up. Decorate with a watercress sprig and a few fresh blueberries or raspberries to represent a flower trim.

Chipped Beef-Cheese Diplomas
Graduates are twice lauded when Chipped Beef-Cheese Diplomas are after-the-exercises fare. To make the "diplomas," spread slices of crust-trimmed bread with a filling of sharp cheese spread combined with finely chopped chipped beef. Roll up each bread slice, jelly roll fashion, fastening with a toothpick, if necessary. Brush with melted butter and place, open edge down, on cookie sheet. Toast until golden brown in a hot oven (400 degrees) about 3 minutes, and "file" the center with a strip of dried beef.

Drop some freshly popped corn (salted) into bowls of cream of corn soup. Different and fun!

Seal Stuffed Eggs Inside Beef Patties

These hamburgers hold a delicious and interesting surprise.

Stuffed Egg Hamburgers

1 egg
1 tablespoon butter
1 tablespoon lightly drained pickle salt pepper ground round chuck beef
kaiser butter

Hard-cook eggs; shell and white hot cut in half lengthwise. At once remove yolks and mash with 1 tablespoon butter; mix in pickle relish and a dash of salt and pepper. Spoon yolk stuffing back into egg-white cavities; pack down.

Make 4 flat patties of the beef; place a stuffed-egg half in center of 4 of the patties; top with remaining 4 patties; press down lightly and seal edges thoroughly by working together with fingers.

Brown both sides of patties rapidly in hot butter in skillet, sprinkling with salt and pepper; reduce heat to cook meat to desired doneness. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

Festive Ham Slice

Place one-inch thick slice fully cooked ham in shallow baking dish; stud with whole cloves; sprinkle well with brown sugar; pour one-third cup of syrup drained from a No. 2 can of pineapple chunks or tidbits over ham and bake at 300 degrees F. for an hour uncovered. Top with drained pineapple chunks or tidbits and bake 15 minutes longer. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

BUTTER GRILLED SHRIMP—Seafood favorite served as a tempting appetizer; for easy serving keep warm in chafing dish or electric fry pan.

Butter Grill Herbed Shrimp

Have you often wondered what to serve dinner guests for an appetizer? Butter Grilled Herbed Shrimp can be the answer to your problem and will also give you the reputation of being an excellent cook.

Prepare the shrimp in a chafing dish or an electric fry pan right at the table so they will stay hot while being served—or keep hot over a candle warmer.

Butter Grilled Herbed Shrimp makes a taste-tempting main dish when served on toast points with fried rice and mushrooms, buttered broccoli, tossed green salad, lemon chiffon pie and milk. But, no matter when you choose to serve this seafood favorite the rich butter flavor gives it the gourmet touch.

Butter Grilled Shrimp
1/2 cup (1/2 stick) butter
1/2 lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 pound cooked, shelled fresh shrimp
Melt butter in skillet; saute garlic and remove. Stir in seasonings. Add shrimp and saute until warm and lightly browned, turning several times. Makes 5 servings.

Try Chick Peas
You can buy chick peas in cans in many food markets. They're delicious added to vegetable soups made with stock as a base. They won't do much for a creamstyle vegetable soup!

Tomato Sauce Italian Style for Steak

A flavorful sauce makes this dish for steak especially delicious for a main course.

MARY'S SWISS STEAK

1 1/2 pounds chuck beef steak (about 1 inch thick)
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 cup beef stock
1 cup (1 1/2 cups) stewed tomatoes

Cut most of fat away from around edge of steak. Mix together the flour, 1/2 teaspoon of the salt and the pepper; pound mixture well into both sides of steak.

Heat a small piece of the steak fat in a large very hot heavy skillet — enough to give pan a heavy film. Brown steak thoroughly using high heat and turning a few times.

Sprinkle onion, green pepper and pour stewed tomatoes (including liquid in can) around steak. Simmer, covered tightly, until meat is tender — 1 to 1 1/2 hours. Makes 4 servings.

Keep Dust Out of Oil

When you buy olive oil, keep it stored in the same container in which you bought it, whether metal or glass, advises the Spanish Olive Oil Institute. It is important to keep the container covered, or stop up the opening in a metal can with a wad of paper towel, for the oil must be kept clean. It is impurities, such as dust from the air, which cause olive oil to grow rancid. Refrigeration is not necessary.

Q. What is the name of this cut of meat?

A. Beef Blade Pot-Roast.

Q. Where does it come from and how is it identified?

A. Blade pot-roast is cut from the chuck. It contains portions of rib and blade bones.

Q. How is it prepared?

A. Blade pot-roast is cooked slowly in moist heat; that is, by braising. The meat is browned slowly on all sides in its own or a small amount of fat in a heavy utensil. It may be browned in seasoned flour before browning. If desired, after browning, add a small amount of liquid, cover tightly and cook at a low temperature until tender, allowing 3 to 4 hours for cooking.

Baked in Foil

Wrap thinly sliced potatoes in heavy foil along with salt, pepper, a little cream and grated cheddar cheese. Bake in a moderate oven until the potatoes are tender.

Cake Made in Advance Prevents Mealtime Rush

If you've been called a clock-watcher, consider yourself in good company. For you're a worried sister of millions of American women who are trying to crowd twenty-five hours into a day of twenty-four.

We don't recommend a new timepiece to help you mind your minutes, but we do suggest making ahead main dishes and desserts. Frozen dishes that need little or no attention before serving will permit you to stick to schedule, yet find time to welcome company with homelike hospitality and care.

You'll find make-ahead Chocolate Sundae Cake just as delicious the day it's eaten, as the day it was prepared. Yummy rich and chocolatey, this lick-good combination of cake and ice cream can be made at your convenience, frozen and stored until needed—several months later. The only secret to storing is to wrap the cake well in freezer wrap.

Chocolate loaf with the baked in flavor of delicious butter is the star in this Sundae Cake. Halved and stacked with a filling of vanilla ice cream, the luscious loaf needs only a topping of Chocolate Sauce at serving time.

The creamy topping may be blended before serving or made one to two weeks in advance, and refrigerated in an airtight container. For extra eating pleasure at no time cost, double the recipe for this sumptuous sauce, saving half to spoon over a dish of vanilla or your favorite flavored ice cream.

Chocolate Sundae Cake

1/2 cup (1 stick) butter
1 cup sugar
2 squares (2 ounces) unsweetened chocolate
1 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup instant vanilla
1/2 cup vanilla ice cream (in rectangular carton)
Butter and flour 8x12x2-inch cake pan; set aside. Cream butter and sugar. Add egg and beat until light and fluffy. Blend in chocolate. Sift dry ingredients and add to creamed mixture alternately with the buttermilk. Stir in vanilla.

Pour into prepared pan. Bake 30 minutes. Cool 10 minutes. Remove from pan onto cake rack.

When completely cool, cut cake in half, forming two 8x12x1/2-inch pieces. Place one-half on a large square of aluminum foil.

Remove ice cream from freezer and unfold carton. Place rectangles of ice cream side by side on top of the cake. Top with remaining half of cake. Wrap securely in foil and freeze.

When ready to serve, remove from freezer and trim edges. (If cake is extremely hard, remove from freezer 1/2 hour before serving time.) Top with 1/2 cup Chocolate Sauce. Pass additional Chocolate Sauce to spoon over individual servings.

Chocolate Sauce
3 squares (3 ounces) unsweetened chocolate
1/2 cup light cream
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup corn syrup
1/2 cup hot water
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon butter
Heat chocolate and cream over very low heat until chocolate is melted, stirring constantly. Remove from heat; blend in sugar and corn syrup. Add hot water and return to heat. Boil mixture 7 minutes. Blend in vanilla and butter. Cool and serve with Chocolate Sundae Cake.

Spicy Almond Sauce Blended for Fish Fillets

An excellent dressing for seafood, especially boiled shrimps or fried fish fillets, is this sauce of Spanish inspiration. Put 1/4 cup chilled almonds through food grinder or grind in electric blender until almost paste-like; combine with 1 cup minced parsley, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 6 tablespoons Spanish olive oil and 1/4 teaspoon salt.

If made in electric blender, add the oil slowly while blender is in motion at low speed, and it will become as thick as mayonnaise. Makes 1/2 cup thick, spicy sauce.

Dates Have Use as Tea Treats

If you want to satisfy that sweet tooth, you'll find lots of dates just waiting to oblige.

Legend has it that dates came from the Garden of Eden and that might well be, for dates are one of the oldest foods known to man. But the dates waiting for you at your food store are fresh from California.

When the Spanish explorers first went to California, they found a part of the country very much like the Sahara. Today we call that part the Coachella Valley of California, and it's there that a large percentage of the dates grown in the United States are produced.

Growers out there came up with one of the largest crops on record this season, and that's your cue to enjoy them as ready made confection, served just as they are, or give them special place in fruit salads or in baked products such as cakes, cookies and muffins.

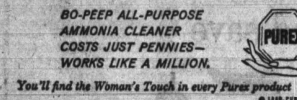

There are many ways to use dates for delightful tea-time treats, and here are four ways that'll really satisfy a sweet tooth:

1. Stuff dates with a wedge of cinnamon-apple (cooked). Decorate with a ribbon of cheese, spread through a pastry tube.
2. Pit dates, and top with a walnut half.
3. Fill dates with candied citrus mix, moistened with orange juice.
4. Stuff dates with marshmallow halves; roll the cut side of the marshmallow in ground peanuts.

Springsweet Onions Will Be Just Right

Orange Onion Ring Salad
1 tablespoons olive oil
1 tablespoons white wine vinegar
2 teaspoons salt
2 teaspoons sugar
2 medium onions, preferably red onions
Cut into paper-thin slices and separate the rings. Soak in mixture, marinate 1 hour and put into hot oil.

In a small container, with a fork, beat together the oil, vinegar, salt and sugar; add onions; cover and marinate in refrigerator for a few hours.

At serving time turn remains into salad bowl; place orange slices over green; turn onion rings and their marinade over oranges and greens. Toss well, adding salt and freshly ground pepper to taste. Makes six servings.

Runs Won't Matter

Make sure that any meat you put in your freezer is wrapped properly, otherwise it will dry out quickly. The top wide part of a discarded nylon stocking can be used to cover an irregular-shaped piece of meat, then the whole thing should be wrapped in moisture-proof vapor-proof freezer paper or foil.

There's an Art to Making Tossed Salad

Remember way back when salad was looked upon as a kind of easy food? Now most American men not only demand salad as part of the meal but may take over the making of the greens themselves. The blending of the salad dressing has turned into a regular ritual with some amateur chefs, who jealously guard the secret of their recipe.

If you want to astound your family and guests with a special new salad dressing, try this trick: Buy a very fine Spanish olive oil and a very fine wine vinegar and for seasoning, use nothing else but salt and pepper. We predict those who taste this simplest of all salad dressings will beg for the recipe — it's that good.

The olive oil is added first; this makes the leaves glossy and helps them to absorb the seasoning. The classic proportion is three parts olive oil to one part vinegar. It's a mistake to use too much dressing; three tablespoons of oil is enough for 4 to 6 cups of salad greens.

After you have tossed in the oil, sprinkle salt from a shaker over the greens (unless you prefer to measure the salt, in which case measure it right into the speeded of olive oil). Then grind out black pepper and finally add the vinegar. Give the mixture a few deft tosses for good measure, and you're finished.

If you like a faint whiff of garlic in your salad, your own fresh garlic salt by crushing a firm, green garlic clove and covering it with as much salt as it will absorb. Place this in a tightly-covered jar in your refrigerator and use a pinch of the aromatic salt for salad (and other culinary enterprises) as needed.

Another trick is to rub a piece of crusty bread or roll with a fresh-cut garlic clove, then toss the bread with salad greens. (The garlic is thrown away, it has done its duty.)

The avocado turns ordinary salads into party food whether added chopped up in dice or cut in thin slices or served as halves on salad greens. For the latter, it's best to marinate the pared avocado halves in no olive oil dressing, both for flavor and to prevent the exotic fruit from turning brown; use the same basic dressing of oil, vinegar, salt and pepper for the marinade.

Raw fresh mushrooms have become increasingly popular as a salad ingredient. When very fresh and firm these may be added just as they are to the salad bowl, but usually they are tastier if marinated first — again in the basic dressing, but with added paprika and a pinch or two of an herb such as oregano or basil.

Get Acquainted With Scallops

It seems strange that a thing can be so well advertised and still have so few people know how it tastes. That's the story of scallops, one of the most delicious bits of eating to come out of the sea.

The advertising is done by one of the large oil companies, which times the shell of the scallop as its emblem. The scallop we eat is the muscle inside the shell. The shells come in pairs and the muscle makes the shells open and close, and move through the water.

Scallops come to our attention at this particular time because the Department of Agriculture says that supplies of scallops are unusually large, with sea-going boats bringing more scallops to shore every week. The result is that the Department of Agriculture, for the first time, classifies scallops as a Plentiful Food.

You may prepare scallops in many different ways: fry them, broil them, sauté them, and so on. But if you want your first try at scallops to be truly memorable, serve SCALLOPED SCALLOPS.

Thaw a 1 pound package of frozen scallops, wash and drain. Mix 2 cups of coarse cracker crumbs and 2 cup of soft bread crumbs with ¼ cup melted butter and a half teaspoon of salt. Place alternate layers of scallops and crumbs in a greased baking dish. Pour 1 cup of light cream over top. Bake in moderate oven for 25 minutes.

Chicken a la king, made in sumptuous classic style, should have its sauce prepared from cream thickened with egg yolks. Along with the chicken — white meat only, please — there should be sliced mushrooms, green peppers and pimientos.

The light, golden olive oil, bland in flavor, is preferred by most Americans, but some whose forebears came from Mediterranean countries may like a heavier, stronger-flavored olive oil better. If the first olive oil you try does not appeal to you, try others for flavor.

Do some experimenting with vinegars, too. Wine vinegars vary as much as olive oil, depending to a great extent on the wine the vinegar is made from. You may like an herb-flavored vinegar, such as tarragon; or make your own herb vinegar by placing a sprig of fresh dill or fresh tarragon in the bottle.

The important thing is to use the best of these basic ingredients and your dressing is certain to be a success, whatever seasoning you add.

Tomato Bouillon Is Excellent Beginning

Good enough for company! Tomato Bouillon

2 cans (each 1½ ounces) chicken broth
2 cups tomato juice
1 teaspoon onion juice
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon garlic powder

Heat broth, tomato juice, onion juice, salt and pepper to taste in a saucepan. When you are reheating a family-size steamed pudding, count on the pudding needing about an hour and garlic powder. Serve in bouillon before it is piping hot.

Note: For Paprika Crackers to serve with the Tomato Bouillon, spread round butter crackers lightly with soft butter; sprinkle lightly with paprika. Brown under broiler; watch so as not to scorch. Browning will take no more than ½ to 1 minute.

Super Beet Relish Is Sour Creamed

Want to serve a slightly "different" menu? Try this Beet Relish.

1 can (1 pound) small whole beets
1 cup sour cream or substitute
1 teaspoon sugar
2 tablespoons fresh bottled horseradish (retained in a small sieve)

Drain beets, slice thin and cut into thin strips. Mix sour cream for substitute with sugar, salt, and horseradish. Fold in beets. Cover and chill until serving time. Makes six servings.

Note: For sour-cream substitute put 3 ounces cream-style cottage cheese (small or large curd), one-third cup milk and 1 tablespoon lemon juice (fresh or bottled) into an electric blender; blend until smooth, scraping down once with motor turned off.

To make brownies extra luscious, melt sweet chocolate and spread over the top, then sprinkle with nuts.

Bacon Dressing Used on Slaw

Whether you say it uns, eins, un, or one, it all means the same in any language. Plan a dinner de-luxe for the "number one" interest in your life—your family—to be eaten on the patio on the first warm evening. The meal must be a hearty one for the evening air makes appetites ravenous.

Now, what would go well with this hot salad? For a real treat, serve barbecued spareribs nestled in cheesy macaroni. Use ready-to-serve canned macaroni or your favorite recipe if you prefer. For the barbecue sauce make a zesty one using canned tomato puree and tomatoes seasoned to your liking with zippy horseradish.

Hot Vegetable Slaw
1 small head cabbage
1 cup fresh spinach leaves
1 slice bacon
1/2 teaspoon celery seed
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
1/2 teaspoon seasoned salt
1/2 teaspoon brown sugar
1/2 cup vinegar
1 egg (1 lb.) dried carrots

Shred cabbage as for cole slaw (there should be about 6 cups). Cut spinach into shreds. Set both aside. Cook bacon, cut into pieces, in a large skillet until crisp; remove bacon. Add seasonings, brown sugar and vinegar to bacon fat; mix well and heat. Add cabbage; heat, stirring 2 or 3 minutes. Add spinach and drained carrots.

Serve Bananas for Any Occasion

By JANET ODELL
 Pontiac Press Home Editor
 "Bananas—30 cents a pound. That's good news. This is an in-between season for fruits. The citrus fruits are not so good as they were during the winter. Home grown fruits have not hit the market yet. But bananas we have with us."

Regardless of what Chiquita Bananas says, no one can tell you how ripe you want your bananas. In our own family, we are divided between those who want the fruit tinged with green and others who want it almost black.

Baked Bananas
 Peel slightly green-tipped or all-yellow bananas. Place them in a buttered baking dish and brush them with melted butter or margarine. Salt lightly. Bake in 375-degree oven for 15 to 18 minutes or until tender (when they can be easily pierced with a fork). Serve as a vegetable.

Experts who know their fruit disagree with Chiquita in another respect. They say to put the bananas in the refrigerator as soon as they are as ripe as you want them.

Stuffed Banana Salad
1 large or 4 small bananas
1/2 cup peanut butter
1/2 cup chopped raisins
1/2 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup chopped salted peanuts
 Peel and split bananas lengthwise. Fill sandwich fashion with peanut butter and raisins which have been mixed together. Roll in mayonnaise that has been thinned with lemon juice. Then roll in chopped salted peanuts.

Banana Meat Loaf
 Serve a half or whole banana on lettuce. Garnish with a red cherry or strawberry.

Banana Muffins
1 cup all-bran
1 cup milk
1 cup mashed ripe banana
1/2 cup sifted flour
1/2 cup soft shortening
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup baking powder
1/2 cup water
 Combine bran, milk, mashed bananas in mixing bowl. Add egg and shortening; beat well. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt, sugar. Add to first mixture, stirring only enough to dampen all flour. Do not beat or overmix. Fill greased muffin pans two-thirds full.

Banana Bread
 Bake in 400-degree oven 30 minutes or until cake tester, inserted in center, comes out clean and dry. Makes 12 medium muffins.

BANANA GARNISH — An unusual way to serve bananas is to slice them and ring the slices around the top of a stack of pancakes. Add half a teaspoon each of cloves and allspice to your pancake batter. Cut the stack into wedges to serve. Pass the maple syrup.

Club Re-Elects
Mrs. Paschke

Mrs. Richard Paschke was re-elected president of the Soroptmist Club of Pontiac when members met Monday at Hotel Walden. An installation dinner will be held in June.

Reports on the recent 53rd conference of the Midwestern region of Soroptmist Clubs in Cleveland were given by Mrs. Harold James and Mrs. Paschke.

Theme of the conference was "Growth and You." The national conference will be in Detroit July 3-8. Mrs. Arnold Hillerman will be a hostess and Mrs. Frances Coons a delegate. "Soroptmist in Orbit" will be the theme.

The accent is on femininity in leather accessories. Flower and leaf designs are embroidered on grained leather or embossed in smooth leather. Precious gems and metals add an elegant touch.

Two Questions Stump Them

Teen-Agers Surprise With News Knowledge

By EUGENE GILBERT

Ask a teen-ager about current events and chances are he'll know the answer. We wonder how many adults could do as well.

We found out in a newspaper readership survey that, with only two exceptions, most of our young people were "very much in the know on what's going on in the world."

Groups who think teen-agers keep up only on the latest in movie stars or rock 'n' roll might try this test.

One item of interest: In a recent survey, we did on teen-age newspaper readers, girls said they were more faithful readers than boys with 89 per cent—against 74 per cent of the boys—reading the paper every day.

But when we tested our young people on just how much they absorbed from their newspapers, boys generally were far ahead of the girls.

We polled 1,083 young people on a variety of recent news events and found that most of them had the correct answers except for two major weak spots:

One of these was: What democracy survived a threat to its survival this winter? This, of course, referred to France and the Algerian crisis.

Among the girls, only one out of 10 responded correctly and 56 per cent—against 28 per cent of the boys—admitted they did not know. Forty-eight per cent of the boys against only 10 per cent of the girls, had the right answer.

BOYS KNOW ABOUT BLAST

Many of the young people thought the crisis referred to in dia. Tom Border, 16, of Hartford, Conn., explained the threat a "Communist troop infiltration" of the girls had that answer. Sixteen per cent of the girls were wrong, with many of them naming Hawaii.

We had a tricky question on big money senators are allowed in the largest and smallest states. Ninety per cent of the boys knew that two senators are allowed in the smallest state.

But only 18 per cent of the girls knew the number was the same for all states.

Our conclusion: girls had better concentrate a little more when they do their newspaper reading!

After repeating wedding vows to Dr. Arnold Runkel, Saturday afternoon in First Methodist Church, Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. F. James Sturgess left on a honeymoon through Ohio, Illinois and northern Michigan.

Hosts at the church reception were Mr. and Mrs. Milard W. Giles of Breaker drive, Drayton Plains, parents of the bride, the former Joanne Lee Giles.

The bride gown of silk organza and Chantilly lace featured bow detailing at the neckline.

Lucky 13 Club Notes Member's Birthday

The Lucky 13 Birthday Club noted the birthday of Mrs. Earl Brooks when members met Monday with Mrs. Marion Chandler of Westbrook avenue.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Chandler, Mrs. Lewis Lingle, Mrs. Anderson Bee and Mrs. Roy Deem.

Mrs. Evee Sapak will be hostess at the June meeting.

Luxury Bath

(NEA) — A small handful of bath salts and a few drops of bath oil can turn your night-bath into sheer luxury. These nerves will relax as you soak in the scented water, and the oil will make your skin silky smooth.

What, Gals! No Blondes?

DENVER (UPI)—If you like the color of your locks, you're in the minority.

A survey conducted for a hair coloring institute showed that 65 per cent of the nation's women, ranging from 16 to the 60s, would change their hair color if they had a choice. Surprisingly, most women did not dream of being blondes. They voted for a medium shade that would lend itself to auburn highlights, blonde flecks or reddish tones.

Mind Posture

(NEA) — Your body as well as your face, has a profile. So stand erect, sit tall in your chair and walk with your shoulders back, hunchy in if you want to look your attractive best at all times.

Self-Complacency May Be Harmful

(NEA) — A feeling of complacency is one of the greatest enemies of beauty. For the woman who is completely pleased with herself is not a woman with an open mind.

So is she ready for a suggestion that the hair do of the last ten years might be better. Nor that her skin tones are no longer those of youth and that therefore she should try new shades of makeup. Nor that blue, once a becoming color, is no longer becoming and should give way to several other colors, all far more flattering.

The sad part of all of this is that the smug woman is seldom challenged. Most people recognize complacency immediately and hesitate to touch it.

Cavalier, noble grand; Mrs. Irving Quackenbush, senior vice grand; and Mrs. Richard Brownell, card party chairman. Tickets are available at the door.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. French Are Honeymooning in UP

William Dean French and his bride the former Sandra Lee Anable, left for a honeymoon in the Upper Peninsula following their marriage Saturday in the Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Edmund Watkins read the candid matrimonial.

Thomas O'Brien came from the University of Michigan to sing "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Orville Anable of First avenue were hosts at an open house following their daughter's church reception. The bridegroom's parents Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hall French of Euclid avenue received with them.

Ballerina-length dresses of orchid nylon sheer for honor maid Sandra Bodford of West Allis, Wis., and bridesmaids Sharon Arnold and Carol Campbell featured bell sleeves and skirts of unpressed pearly.

The attendants carried baskets of pink majorette daisies and marguerites, and wore matching caps of soft petals.

Venice lace trimmed the scoop neckline of the bridal gowns of crystal tulle. Puffed panels of the fabric were set into the skirt which swept into a chapel train.

The fingertip veil was secured by a tiny pillow centered with a drop pearl. A cascade of white roses and stephanotis surrounded a white orchid.

Donald Cole was best man. Compensating the usher corps were James Giegler and Bruce McClellan, with bride's brother Wayne and Robert Grant junior ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Anable chose a sheath of bone silk linen with lace bodice. Mrs. French appeared in a cocoa lace sheath over tulle. Both mothers wore yellow cymbidium orchids.

Hosiery Sparkles.

(NEA) — Pink, champagne, bronze and gold are shades in seamless stockings which are being featured for party going. These sandalfoot styles to wear with the evening sandals are made from top to toe of the new sparkling nylon.

Honor matron Mrs. Edward Proch of Marion, Ind., and bridesmaids Marion Boston of Waterford and Mrs. Edward Jacques were dresses of seagreen silk organza over tulle. They carried baskets of daisies.

The bride's sister Debrah appeared in a flower-girl's frock of white silk organza over seagreen tulle.

S.K.S.N. David A. Sturgess, USSN, came from Bermuda to be his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Sturgess of Birmingham. Ushering were Earl Laing of Detroit and Jack Bell and Donald Hite, both of Birmingham.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Giles chose beige lace over tulle with accessories in various shades of green. Mrs. Sturgess wore a dusty rose organza sheath dress. Both mothers wore violet corsages.

50 N. SAGINAW

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
Into the mink at the White House Youth Conference's final session the official assigned the speech of inspiration cried:
"Go forth then DETERMINED to give help!"
At the press table I shuddered.
The thought of the 7,000 delegates set loose upon the already tormented body of this nation all determined to give if help appealed me. It still does.
Because a person who is "determined" to give you help is one who is utterly incapable of any interest whatever in your wish to take his help. He is the zealot—the thorn in the flesh of the world.

It is this arrogant disbelief in our wish to take help that makes so many of our welfare programs ineffective and wasteful.
It is what forces groups to keep publishing child training pamphlets for people who don't read them; to offer parent education lectures to people who don't attend them; to infiltrate juvenile gangs with "salvation" hidden up their sleeves while the kids laugh at them.
(I am not speaking of the devoled, person-to-person workers in the field of welfare but of these bosses, the Big Shows, the inflexible career-minded policy-makers.)

As you cannot feed a man who does not know that he is hungry, you cannot help people suffering from despair in his thousand forms until they have been made aware of their suffering. If you don't know this, you have not felt your own despair.
The kids explosive with protest and their humiliated mothers and fathers will sense your distance from them and quite properly turn from you as a stranger to protest and humiliation, wanting no part of your pride-based superior, "determined" charity.

There was lots of Scripture quoted at the Youth Conference. I can quote it too. "And—and ye shall receive," said Jesus and so placed the responsibility of receiving upon the meek.
Loving without arrogance, He knew that the condition of receiving is humility—that grace that enables us to reveal ourselves to each other as we are: lonely, frightened, doubtful, ashamed. Wise in the ways of giving, He knew that to use help, we had first to know that we need it.
More than all else in this nation, we need welfare programs based on the giving policy of non-arrogant, undetermined Jesus.

Must First Cure Water Fear

Want to Learn to Swim?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
Maybe you do not live close to an old nostalgic swimming hole, but I bet that if you live near a bay or a river, a pond or a pool, you will go swimming when the temperature soars, and perhaps before then.
If you do not cool yourself off in this way and join the family in this wonderful exercise and fun, I bet it is because you are ashamed of your figure or do not know how to swim. We have an answer for both problems.

Today, let's consider the problem of not knowing how to swim.

It is simply amazing how conquering a small fear such as a fear of water can give a woman self-confidence and make her feel youthful.

JUST ONE STEP
I have seen this happen over and over again. Just one little step toward enlarging one's outlook and interests can do wonderful things.

Why not start right now to banish your fear of water, of having your head under water? This is the first important step in learning to swim.

Do this now, before the swimming season gets into full swing. Fill the basin in your bathroom with water. Take a deep breath, and hold it. Close your eyes and mouth and put your face under water in the basin.

When you feel that you must raise your head for a breath of fresh air, throw the air in your lungs out through your nose as you lift your head.

After practicing this for a while, until you no longer have a fear of having your head under water, throw the air out when your face is still submerged.

These two steps will be rewarding. Remember that swimming is one of the sports you can take down the years with you and one which folks of all ages can enjoy together. It is also figure molding and health building.

If you would like to have my leaflet "Learn to Swim" send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 22 to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Tomorrow "Flacking Superlunary Hair Will Not Stop Its Growth."

No Dark Polish!

Answers Aren't Honest

Truth Would Hurt if Only It Were Told

By RUTH MILLETT

It's a good thing we rarely get an honest answer when we make such statements as:

"I hope I'm not boring you but it's so nice to find someone who is sympathetic."

The honest answer usually would be:

"You are boring me. As a matter of fact I've been trying for the last half hour to figure out how to get away."

"I know it's none of my business but I think you are making a big mistake . . ."

The honest retort likely would be:

"No, it isn't any of your business and if I had wanted your advice I would have asked for it."

"You sound sleepy: I hope my telephone call didn't wake you."

Most people would love to say: "You did wake me and I don't know why you thought you wouldn't at this time of night."

"I really should be going . . ."

"You should and why don't you?" would probably be a more honest reaction than the one usually shown the guest who stays and keeps saying he ought to be leaving.

"I hate to put you to so much trouble" or "I hate to take up so much of your time when I know you're busy."

"Then why do it?" would be the honest rejoinder to these remarks, but the gracious answer generally is: "It's no trouble at all."

"OR, NO, NOT AT ALL!"

"You don't mind if I kibitz, do you?"

Most bridge players trying to make a contract, doubled and redoubled, would probably like to and probably should answer with one word:

"Yes."

"If you don't mind my asking, how much did you have to pay for that?"

What the person who stalls around or says he doesn't know exactly would like to reply to that question is:

"Yes, I do mind."

Wait Till You Flip Your Lid, Says Abby

Don't Toss a Coin for Husband

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am in love with two boys and don't know which one to marry.

First there's Andy. He's sort of blond and sells insurance. Mamma likes him, which helps a lot.

He's very reliable and seems anxious to get married.

Then there's Tony. He's dark and sort of gives me the creeps.

(But they're awfully nice creeps, if you know what I mean.)

I don't know which one I like best. In the daytime I like Andy, but I believe I like Tony better at night. Which one do you think would make the best husband for me?

ANDY OR TONY?

DEAR "ANDY OR TONY?": Don't marry either one, if it's a tossup. Date others and make comparisons. When "The One" comes along, you'll flip your lid — not a coin.

DEAR ABBY: The woman who signed herself "HELENE" and said she wanted to divorce her husband because he might go blind at any moment was blind herself. Blind people can live happy, normal lives.

I am 13, Abby, but I know what I am talking about because my father is blind. He has never seen my mother, my sister or me. He went to college after he lost his sight and then he went to law school. I don't mean to boast, but I think he is the most wonderful father and lawyer in the whole world. Sincerely yours,

CYNTHIA JEANNE RAMSEY

DEAR ABBY: My daughter

Millie, who is 16, has been running around with a fellow who is 24. Now I find she's pregnant. He says he can't marry her because he can't support himself much less a wife. Can we force him to marry her?

I suppose I should tell you that when Millie was 15 she went out with an older man who got her drunk and got her in trouble. We were unable to get any help from the police in finding him because Millie wasn't sure of his name.

Should we try to force this second fellow to marry her? I can't raise another one of her mistakes.

MILLIE'S MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: You can't force a man to marry anyone. But he does have obligations toward the support of the child. Furthermore, a man who must be dragged by the neck to the altar would make anything but a desirable husband. How about Millie's moral behavior, Mother? Ask your clergyman or Family Service Assn. for help in getting your daughter back on the right track. She needs guidance, strength and supervision.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "ON THE SPOT": Your husband is right. Return the gift. And tell your foreman that a pink silk nightgown is not an appropriate gift for the occasion under the circumstances.

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of this paper. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's pamphlet, "What Teen-Agers Want To Know," send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope in care of this paper.

Vote on Annual Meetings Postponed in Avon Twp.

AVON TOWNSHIP — The Avon Township Board has decided to postpone a public vote on abolishing the annual township meeting from the earlier suggested date of Aug. 2 to the primary election next February.

It was the Board's feeling last night that there would be much more interest in a question concerning township government at that time than during the annual election campaign.

Civic Unit to Launch Membership Drive at Congregational Church

ROCHESTER — A rally to campaign captains and workers Monday at 7 p. m. in the First Congregational Church will launch the current membership drive of the Rochester Civic Music Assn.

The main speaker will be the Rev. Robert H. Jacobson, a representative of the New York Civic Music Assn. also is expected to address the group.

A special feature of the program will be the appearance of the Rochester High School Folk Singers. Dessert and coffee will be served.

Robert Harris, membership drive chairman, announces that membership will be open to Rochester area residents for one week beginning Monday.

No tickets are available for single concerts and season membership may be purchased only during the one-week campaign, said Harris.

Frank Irish, association president, announces that the Virginia Symphony Orchestra has been engaged to appear in Rochester for a concert next May.

Directed by William Haaker, the Virginia Symphony is composed of 24 musicians and gives concerts throughout the Virginias, in New Jersey, New England and also in Michigan.

Acquires New Park Site North of Rochester

The Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority announced yesterday that it has acquired a new public park site about six miles northeast of Rochester.

Tentatively, the park is to be known as the Story Creek Metropolitan Park Development. Development of the park will not be completed for several years.

Another Jacobsen Venture in Lake Orion

Garden Town Opens Friday

LAKE ORION — Grand opening of Jacobsen's new Garden Town here will be attended Friday, Saturday and Sunday by the fragrance and sight of several thousand flowers and plants of different varieties.

The modern new garden supply center at 545 S. Broadway St. is the latest venture of the Jacobsen family since it first opened its huge greenhouse here in 1920.

Three years later, the family expanded its florist outlet to include its present store on Saginaw street in Pontiac.

COLORFUL WATER

Different colored lights will illuminate the tumbling water during the evening hours.

In addition to the thousands of cut and potted flowers and plants, evergreens and shade and fruit trees of every type that flourish locally will be on display.

Another highlight is a patio shop featuring group settings of both modern and traditional garden furniture.

BEAMS SPAN CEILING

Lending to the spaciousness of the building's interior are huge redwood beams spanning the ceiling.

All the tools, including power tools, seeds, plant foods and fertilizers for successful gardening are offered.

Shoppers also will be able to consult college-graduated experts for free landscaping ideas.

Ample parking space is provided. The business is operated by Harold Jacobsen and his sons Bruce and Harold Jr.

FESTIVAL TIME — Blowing up balloons and stringing streamers are part of the preparations for the May Festival to be held from 5 to 9 p. m. Saturday at Stiles School on Livernois road, Avon Township. Mrs. George F. Dill, left, holds the box of balloons for Patricia Dellow, 8, and Jerry Nolan, 9, while Mrs. Paul W. Kivart straightens out the streamers. The two women are cochairmen of the PTA-sponsored event.

Riverboat Docks at Avondale High This Saturday

Avondale High School will present a Mississippi riverboat show for parents, teachers and high school students present their money-making project, "The Cotton Pickin' Revere" at 8 p. m. Saturday.

In keeping with the theme, a chorus singing "Here Comes the Showboat" and "Happy Days are Here Again" will set the stage for the evening's entertainment.

Also included will be a barber shop quartet, "The Knights of Hope," a string trio, a Dixieland band, an all male chorus line, a pantomime and several dance numbers.

Earl Wilkin and Floyd Cobb, members of the Avondale Board of Education, will be cast as Capt'n Bill and Honeycuckoo.

The revue is being directed by Mrs. Bonnie Norman and John Thibault.

Before Touring South America 70 to Sing at Walled Lake

WALLED LAKE — The 70-voice Michigan Choral will give its first pre-tour concert before leaving for South America in July at the Walled Lake Senior High School Sunday at 3 p. m.

The chorale will present some 20 songs, including classical, folk songs, spirituals, musical comedy selections and psalms.

The trip to South America is being made at the request of the State Department. The Michigan Choral is part of the Michigan Council of Churches "Youth For Understanding Teen-Age Exchange Program."

Director of the group is Lester McCoy, conductor of the University of Michigan Choral Union. The assistant conductor is Melvin Larmier, vocal director of Pontiac Northern High School.

The young singers represent 32 Southern Michigan high schools with a number of them from Oakland County.

Six Walled Lake students are represented from this area. They are: Lynne Ashby, Dede Duckwitz, Dan Jackson, Jim Menden, Jackie Merritt and Terry Wilk.

From Waterford Township come Carol Saul and from Rochester, James Parker.

Oxford has three representatives in the group. They are: Gertie Collier, David Sikowski and Lois Stoddard.

Members of the chorale have rehearsed two and a half hours each Saturday since November in preparation for their tour that will end Aug. 15.

In order to converse with their host in Bogota, Lima, Sao Paulo, Rio de Janeiro, Buenos Aires and Santiago, the group went to Am Arbor once a week for 10 weeks to study Spanish.

Tickets for the Walled Lake Concert are available at the door. Proceeds from the concert will be used to provide uniforms for the choral members.

Concert Monday in Area Church

OXFORD — The Oxford Music Club will present Robert and Donald Button in a concert of piano, violin, organ and vocal music Monday at 8 p. m. at the Methodist Church here.

Both the young performers are graduates of the University of Michigan School of Music and members of the Flint and Pontiac symphony orchestras.

Robert Button, violinist and vocalist, has taught public school music for eight years. In 1958 he played with the nationally known North Carolina Symphony Orchestra and previously had played with the Fort Wayne, Ind., Symphony.

Supplementing his university training, he has had vocal training with Harriet Ingersoll of Detroit. His violin training has been under the direction of Anthony Whitmore, Gilbert Ross and Emily Manton Adams.

Donald Button received his early piano instruction from his mother, Mrs. Bernice Button, who still teaches young students in Orionville.

After graduating from the U. of M. school of music, he toured Europe and the British Isles with the Seventh Army Symphony Orchestra.

While in Germany he studied the organ under Fritz Popp at Stuttgart and has had further training under such noted teachers as Dr. Francis York and Marilyn Mason.

No admission will be charged.

5th School Precinct Created in Rochester

ROCHESTER — Creation of a new voting precinct was okayed by the Rochester Board of Education last night.

The Board designated the Avon Township Library as the new polling place.

A fifth precinct was deemed necessary because a number of people had to wait in line at the Avon Township Hall in Monday's election.

It will serve electors living between Dutton road and Walpole boulevard, west of Rochester road, splitting Precinct 11.

The Board also studied the architect's plans for two elementary school additions and for the new Howard L. McGregor Elementary School.

According to School Supt. Donald C. Baldwin, Board members will meet with the McGregor School Citizens' Committee Wednesday to discuss the preliminary plans with them before moving ahead.

City Holds Line on New Budget

Almost a Third of Levy Goes Toward Payment for Interceptor Sewer

KEEGO HARBOR — The 1960-61 fiscal year budget has been kept in line with the current budget by City officials here by continuing the present tax rate of 17 mills.

The total budget, not including the road department expenses, for the year beginning July 1 has been set by councilmen at $59,400. This is only several dollars higher than the present budget, explained City Clerk Irene Van Horn.

Of the 17 mills charged against each $1,000 of assessed valuation, only 13 mills is used for the operation of the city.

The 5 remaining mills goes toward payment of the Farmington Interceptor sewer that will serve the community, and is never touched by the city of operations. It is placed in an escrow fund to be used only for the sewer payment.

The 5-mill levy has been in effect three years and has been used for engineering studies and surveys of the area to be served by the sewer.

The only change in the new budget is in comparison with the current budget are salary increases for the police department and the city clerk.

An additional $1,000 was added to the four-man police department salaries, bringing the total salaries to $20,000. The city clerk's salary was raised $300.

The increased salaries are the first for the police department and clerk, and the city incorporated five years ago, according to City Clerk Van Horn.

The city expects only a $1,000 increase this year from the sales tax revenue. This would give the city an additional $10,000. Other revenue, besides property tax, which includes liquor license fees, delinquent taxes, court fines, licenses and permits, trailer park fees and police fines, will bring in an anticipated total of $45,400.

ROAD FUND EXTRA

The budget does not include the $18,000 road fund. Revenues for that department are received from the state.

Not included in the 13-mill levy for operating are charges against residents for rubbish collections and street lighting.

Residents are charged $13 a year for rubbish collections and $4 a year for street lighting.

Appropriated in the new budget is $5,000 for fire protection from West Bloomfield Township.

The township has failed to renew the yearly contract with the city for fire protection until a study can be made of similar communities receiving fire protection.

Officials of the township feel that the contract calling for a payment of $3,200 a year, plus $75 a call after five fire runs may be too low.

Lead Avondale Graduates

Joyce Munro has been named valedictorian of the June graduating class at Avondale High School with a scholastic point average of 87. Roscoe V. Crowell, high school principal, announced today.

Salutatorian is Elton Hopper, who has a point average of 87.7.

Joyce is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Munro of 2165 Jessie St., Auburn Heights.

Among her extra-curricular activities, she is president of the Future Teachers Club, secretary of the National Honor Society and a member of the American Field Service organization.

Civil Defense Test Set at Imlay City High

IMLAY CITY — Plans are being completed by acting Civil Defense Director Harold Holdeman to conduct a civil defense drill in Imlay City at 1 p. m. Tuesday at the local high school.

At that time the school will have a "dry run" in order to acquaint school officials, police, fire and medical personnel in the area with their duties in the event of a real disaster.

The "consequences" will be removed from the school and taken to the Community Hospital near Imlay for "treatment."

The plan we are preparing will be used as a base plan in the event of any kind of disaster in the Imlay City area," said Holdeman.

The success of any disaster plan depends on the volunteer help of many private citizens," he emphasized.

The test is to be similar to the one conducted in Rome last November.

Church Will Stay in Business World Despite Cutback: Mormon President

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (UPI)—The Mormon Church has no intention of liquidating the vast business empire it has built up in the course of the past century, President David O. McKay disclosed in an interview.

Snowy-haired, 80-year-old President McKay made the statement with the apparent desire of quelling rumors that have circulated since the church announced on April 22 that it was withdrawing from the commercial banking business in 1975.

It sold to private interests, for a reported 10 million dollars, its controlling block of stock in Zion's First National Bank, founded under Brigham Young's auspices in 1875.

There was immediate speculation that the church would divest itself of other commercial properties which it owns wholly or in part. These include the Utah-Idaho Sugar Co.; The Desert News Publishing Co.; broadcasting station KSL; an insurance company; a big department store, two hotels, a motel, an office building and other real estate in Salt Lake City; a 200,000-acre cattle ranch in Florida; a coal mine; a clothing factory; and scores of farms.

MUCH FOR WELFARE
President McKay pointed out that the church operates many of its enterprises—for example, the farms, clothing factory and coal mine—primarily to produce goods for the far-flung Mormon welfare program. Nearly 80,000 unemployed, aged or otherwise indigent persons received food, fuel and clothing last year under this program.

He said other business enterprises, which operate competitively and at a profit, are a by-product of Mormon history. When the Mormon pioneers, trooped west after 1847 to found their "new Zion" in a desolate wilderness that no one else wanted, the church was the only agency which had the capital and the leadership to provide necessary services such as banking and insurance.

It built hotels "because we needed places for visitors to stay," President McKay explained. It started a department store because no one else had done so—and Mormon families needed a place to shop. It pioneered the sugar beet industry in the west because a new, exportable crop was needed to stabilize the agricultural economy.

How much the church earns annually from its highly diversified business holdings has never been disclosed. But its expenditures for religious and welfare purposes are reported. They total about 55 million dollars a year.

Officials say that most of this money comes, not from business profits, but from the tithe of church members. Each of the church's 1,700,000 members is expected to give one-tenth of his income to the church.

President McKay said there has been "some sentiment" among Mormons in favor of the church's divesting itself of all business properties.

UNFAIR COMPETITION
"There are people who say it is unfair for the church, supported as it is by tithes, to compete with its own members and others in private business," he said.

He indicated that he personally has a distaste for church involvement in any highly competitive commercial activity, and that this was a major factor in the decision to get out of commercial banking.

"But I see no reason why we should pull out of the sugar business which, after all, the church started," he said. "Nor do I see any likelihood of our withdrawing from businesses which the church started to provide necessary public services, and which are still providing those services."

Dog Chaser Has Trouble but Not With Pooches
WEST HARTFORD, Conn. (U)—Dog Warden William E. Knowles promises a get-tough policy toward poaching dogs during summer months. He says he probably made his point when he told a State Senate finance group his office needed $1,000 for quick repairs.

He said the termite-weakened floor caved in under his secretary's chair.

Pros Hanson, Ziske, Watrous and Bone at Pontiac Country Club

Press to Sponsor Public Golf Clinic May 31

By BILL CORNWELL

The Pontiac Press and Pontiac Country Club are joining forces to bring a high-caliber professional instruction clinic to this city.

For the nominal cost of 50 cents—with the proceeds going to charity—men and women golfers in this area can see the game demonstrated by four outstanding professionals on the last day of May at PCC.

Beverly Hanson and Joyce Ziske, two of the nation's most talented touring women pros, will be on hand to provide the golfing appeal for the feminine shotmakers throughout the area.

Hanson and Ziske are coming here in conjunction with their appearance in the women's Wolverine Open tournament June 2-5 at Hillcrest near Mt. Clemens.

The man's outlook on the game will be furnished by two standout local pros, veteran Al Watrous of Oakland Hills and Pontiac's own Gene Bone, the young swinger from Warwick Hills.

Brief facts on the Press-sponsored clinic include:

Date—Tuesday, May 31.

Time—4:30 p.m.

Place—Pontiac Country Club.

Location—Elizabeth Lake Road.

Admission—50 cents.

Hanson, Ziske, Watrous and Bone will open the program with an 18-hole exhibition match, then conduct a one-hour clinic at the conclusion of the round.

The public is invited to watch the exhibition over Pontiac Country Club's par 37-37-74 layout and enjoy the instructional session afterwards.

Through the cooperation of Frank Byron, pro-owner at POC, the Press is able to offer this opportunity for city and county golfers to watch these talented players in action and perhaps pick up a few helpful hints for their respective games.

It is an especially golden opportunity for area women players who see the lady pros at work only occasionally in the Oakland County vicinity.

Hanson and Ziske are two of the steady performers on the ladies' circuit. Watrous is a journey-hardened performer who has won 34 events in a 40-year career while Bone currently rates among the top competing pros in Michigan.

Ziske, called "Cheesy" by her four-mates because of her Wisconsin origin, was one of the country's best amateurs and a member of the 1954 U. S. Curtis Cup team before turning pro in 1955. She is a long hitter and always a tournament threat.

Hanson is consistently among the top 10 on the circuit in money winnings and must be regarded as one of the best lady pros in the business. A Curtis Cup team member in 1950, "Bey" became a pro in 1951 and four years later won her most prized possession, the LPGA tourney. She also hits 'em long.

Watrous has spent the last 30 years of his illustrious career at Oakland Hills. The 51-year-old Watrous has won the Michigan PGA nine times, the State Open six times, the State Seniors three times, the National Seniors three times and the Canadian Open twice. In 1937 he won the International Seniors event.

Bone's competitive experience is limited, particularly when compared to that of Watrous, but the Pontiac Central High School graduate has made the tour four different years and his play in state events always has been respectable. Now 28, Bone is starting his 2nd season at Warwick Hills following a four-year apprenticeship at Tam O'Shanter.

Hanson, Ziske, Watrous and Bone—that's the lineup of experts for The Pontiac Press clinic May 31 at Pontiac Country Club. You learn something about this game known as golf for only 50 cents and charity is the worthy winner.

Golembiewski Blasts Nagy

Detroit Wins Masters

TOLDO, Ohio (AP) — Billy Ray Nelson, 10-year history of the Masters, has his first major title — the American Bowling Congress Masters championship.

The slim youngster, who left Grand Rapids, Mich., four years ago for bigtime bowling in Detroit, lost this same crown a year ago in the last game.

Golembiewski, 20, was ahead after three games in the crucial match with Ray Bluth of St. Louis last year. He stumbled to 175 in the last line, while Bluth rolled 213, winning the title by an 827-817 margin.

Billy ran second in the most grueling match contest of all last December, when dead-end Don Carter of St. Louis smashed the word's invitational championship away from him in the final round. But Billy was at his sharpshooting best Wednesday night, when he met brawny old-pro Steve Nagy for the 1950 Masters trophy.

The new champ finished 171, 208-474 against 175 for the 47-year-old captain of the St. Louis Philadelpia team. The Ohio team knocked down 2515 pins, leader in Division 1, Council Bluffs, Iowa, with more opponents in the finals than 2553.

One Run Enough for Tigers Nowadays

Bengals Again Edge Senators by 1-0 Margin

This Time It's Kaline Who Homers With Lary Hurling the Shutout

WASHINGTON (AP) — One run is as good as a dozen. If you get the pitching to go with it.

With the absolute minimum, the Detroit Tigers won another game last night and moved above the Washington Senators into sixth place in the American League.

The Tigers, now 7-18, moved ahead of Washington, now 8-12. They are only four games back of league-leading Chicago.

In two nights Detroit has won two ball games from Washington on just two runs, both of which came on home run clouts. Last night's homer came in the 11th inning and was socked by Al Kaline's first hit in 15 times at bat.

Coupled with Frank Lary's five hit pitching, Kaline's clout was good for another 1-0 victory.

The night before, Rocky Colavito belted a homer in the top of the sixth, and that, coupled with Don Mossi's three-hit pitching, snapped a 10-game losing streak that had plagued Detroit since a 4-0 American League start.

Both Kaline and Colavito delivered with two men out. Mossi and Lary put back another Detroit homer, Colavito's last previous home run came on April 23.

Kaline's base-circler was his third this far, and was the only extra base hit off Pedro Ramos, who otherwise matched Lary's performance. Colavito, far off his 42-homer pace of 1959, now has four.

Lary pitched seven, walked only one and was in trouble only in the sixth, when Ramos singled and took third on Billy Gardner's single with only one out. He ended that uprising quickly, however, getting Don Dobek to hit into a double play.

But the Tigers, until Kaline's blast, had sent only two men as far as second base. Ramos fanned, but he walked five as he went down to his fourth straight defeat.

Lary boosted his win-loss record to an even 2-2.

Eddie Yost got two of Detroit's five hits. Other than Kaline's homer, the others were contributed by Norm Cash and Charlie Maxwell.

The Tigers end their long road trip today against the Senators. Jim Bunning attempts to stretch Detroit's modest winning streak to three and pick up his first triumph after two defeats.

Jim Kaat, a rookie outpaw from Holland, Mich., was named to oppose the Tigers for the first time in his career. Kaat has a 3-0 record, the victory coming over the New York Yankees.

Final Standings: American League. Detroit 7, Washington 8, Chicago 12, Baltimore 10, Kansas City 9, Cleveland 8, St. Louis 7, Milwaukee 6, Philadelphia 5, Cincinnati 4, New York 3, Boston 2, Los Angeles 1, San Francisco 0.

HAPPINESS BOYS — Al Kaline (right), Detroit center fielder, whose homer in the top of the 11th inning beat Washington last night, 1-0, wipes the head of pitcher Frank Lary (left) in the dressing room after the victory. It was the second straight night in which the Tigers beat the Senators by a 1-0 score. The night before Rocky Colavito did the trick with a ninth inning homer. Kaline has been hitless in 14 straight times at bat, until he connected in the overtime game.

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — The wanted to go back to college to get a master's degree so he could take a teaching or administrative post.

This was not a sudden decision, Crisler said. "He had been thinking of it for some time. He told me he didn't want to be a coach all his life because he couldn't afford to."

Teams coached by Perigo in his eight years at Michigan won 78 games and lost 96. The Wolverines won only four games while dropping 19 against all competition last season and finished last in the Big Ten with a 1-12 conference record.

Perigo joined Michigan in 1952 after developing three highly-successful teams at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo. During his three seasons at Western Michigan, Perigo's teams won 42 and lost 28.

Under his tutelage, Western Michigan teams tied for the title of the Mid-American Conference once and finished as runner-up once.

But the tie for second in the 1950-51 season was the best he could do at Michigan. The only other time he had a winning record at Michigan was in 1956-57 when his teams won 13 and lost nine.

Perigo was born in Lebanon, Ind., where he was an outstanding athlete. He played his high school basketball at Delphi, Ind., before attending Western Michigan where he won three letters and established a reputation as one of the Bronco's finest centers.

After graduation with a B. S. degree in physical education in 1951, he spent two years at Marquette, Ind., high school before moving to Benton Harbor, Mich., as a successor to Bill Orwig, former Wolverine staff member and athletic director at Nebraska.

Michigan Amateur May Become Medal Tournament

Match Play Is Under Fire

DETROIT (U)—The old argument about match play vs. medal play has cropped up again in state amateur golf championship circles.

Charles Kendrick, chairman of the championship committee, said today that contestants in recent state amateur tournament will be polled soon to determine sentiment on the matter.

The Michigan Amateur event has been a match play tournament since its inception in the early 1950s. Players favoring medal play have gained strength in recent years.

State amateur players will be able to tell the committee which of three types of tournaments they favor. One is match play, another is medal play and the third choice is a combination of the two. Under the third plan, competitors would engage in a 72-hole medal play tournament to determine the 15 qualifiers for match play. The tournament would be of the same five-day duration.

The tournament committee will use the poll as a guide for determining how future tournaments will be run.

The 1960 state amateur, which will be staged July 6-7-8-9-10 at Port Huron, will be match play.

Kendrick said he expects a field of more than 300 to attempt to qualify. After 36 holes of medal play, the 63 low scorers will be given head-to-head play along with defending champion Melvin (Bud) Stevens of Detroit.

Qualifying rounds will be played at Port Huron Golf Club and the Black River Country Club. All matches will be played at Black River.

The 1959 event was held at Port Huron and the field of 283 was the smallest in several years.

"We can easily accommodate 350 entries," said Kendrick, who pointed out that the entry fee will remain the same at $15, with June 27 the closing date for entries.

Kendrick predicted that the amateur event soon will have

World Marks on Line

FRESNO, Calif. (AP)—A quarter century ago, Jesse Owens broad jumped 26 feet 1 1/2 inches to establish a record that has withstood all assaults to become the oldest world mark on the books.

Now a veteran Dutch jumper, Henk Visser challenges the mark, having already gone 26-2 this season.

A sure member of the Netherlands Olympic team for the Games in Rome this summer, Visser attends the University of California at Santa Barbara and competes Saturday at the West Coast Relays here.

The broad jump is only one of several world marks threatened in this 34th running of the relays in Ratcliffe Stadium.

Three of "big four" of shot putting — Bill Nieder, Dallas Long and Dave Davis—will be aiming at 66 feet with Nieder already having a toss of 65-7 ready for record recognition.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. GARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: "Fairway wood shots ruin

DIAGNOSIS: Poor judgment plus overwinging.

TREATMENT: Some golfers seem to feel that they must go all out for maximum distance on a fairway wood shot, regardless of any consideration of strategy. For one thing, they tend to take the No. 2 wood whenever maximum distance is required, even though the ball is in a close lie. For another thing, they tend to swing with every ounce of strength, even when reaching the green is an utter impossibility.

When the green is 300 yards or so distant, as the illustration is meant to show, five or 10 extra yards on the shot will make practically no difference.

The thought in mind should be to get the ball in position so that it gets on the green with the next shot after the fairway wood shot.

With this in mind, choose the No. 3 or 4 wood if the lie is at all close. Use the No. 2 only when the ball is setting up nicely in the grass. The proper choice of clubs here is important.

Further, there's no need to try to kill the ball in this situation. Concentrate on hitting the ball solidly. In general, caution should be the watchword whenever you're in a fairway wood situation of this kind. Think ahead to the next shot.

Jones 'Man of the Moment' in Senior Circuit

By The Associated Press
Ed Mathews hit two homers and drove in five runs for Milwaukee, and Elroy Face, the Pittsburgh reliever who couldn't lose, finally won. But the man of the moment in the National League is Sam Jones, the guy with a toothpick and an arm.

Simmons, Lawrence Cut as NL Teams Slim Down

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies have given Curt Simmons his outright release, marking the end of an era for the tough-talking southpaw who broke into the majors in 1947 as an 18-year-old bonus baby.

Simmons, who was signed for $5,000 out of Whitehall High School in his hometown of Egypt, Pa., had been unimpressive the few times he worked this year. He pitched four innings in four games, two of which he started, and gave up a total of 13 hits and 8 runs for an 18.00 earned run average.

In announcing his release to meet the Wednesday night, 5:15 p.m. National League limit, General Manager John Quinn said "it was no snap decision."

Quinn said it was decided to give the 31-year-old Simmons an opportunity to make a deal for himself. Last Saturday Simmons had asked to be traded rather than warn the bench with the Phillies who are rebuilding. The Phils also sent young left-handed pitcher Chris Short to Buffalo of the International League.

"I hate to use clichés, but that's baseball," said Simmons when told of his release.

Simmons' release leaves Robin Roberts as the only member of the Phillies pennant winning Whiz Kids of 1950, Curt's best year when he posted a 17-8 record before entering military service in late July and missing the World Series.

Simmons, who won 115 games in his 13 years with the Phils, had been beset by arm trouble last year and missed most of the season. It was another one of the tough breaks which seemed to plague him throughout his career.

After an operation for removal of bone chips from his throwing arm April 10, 1959, Simmons was sent to Williamsport of the Class A Eastern League where he posted a 4-1 record in a rehabilitation effort. He had no record either day as the first place Giants won their fifth in a row. The toothpick-chewing right-hander bested the Philadelphia Phillies 1-0 with a two-hitter and got the run home when he walked with the bases loaded in the second inning.

The Pirates retained second place, 1½ games behind, by defeating Los Angeles 6-3 with shutouts in the eighth and three shutout innings of one-hit relief by Face. Third place Milwaukee topped the St. Louis Cardinals 12-3 with Wes Covington and Del Crandall joining Mathews in the homer hammering. Cincinnati's game at Chicago was called off because of cold weather. The Cubs' sixth consecutive postponement.

Jones, 34, put away his fourth victory in six decisions with his fourth low-hit game, all at Comiskey Park. He struck out 11 in his first shutout, and walked only three for the fourth two-hitter of his career. Second over the Phils only a fifth-inning double by Harry Anderson and a sixth-inning single by Roddey Tony Curry.

The Giants, putting together their longest streak since winning six in 1958, managed only five hits, four off loser Jim Owens (2-3), who worked seven frames. A leadoff walk to Willie McCovey and two-out singles by Hobie Landrih and Ed Bresnold (each of whom had two hits) loaded the bases before Owens walked Jones on a 3-1 pitch.

The Pirates got all their runs with two out in the first, eighth and ninth. They scored in the first on Gene Baker's single, his first hit since he was given up for lost after a 1959 injury. But then they were blanked on three hits until the eighth when Hal Smith's tying, two-run single chased loser

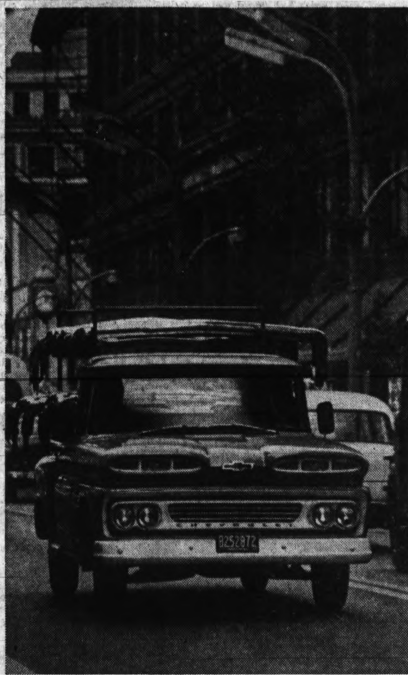

Brandt's Homer for Oriole Win

BALTIMORE (AP)—Jackie Brandt's two-run, tenth-inning homer Wednesday night gave the Baltimore Orioles a 5-3 come-from-behind victory over Kansas City. Brandt hit the home run, his first, into the left field bleachers, scoring Walt Dropo who had singled. It was his third hit and capped a Baltimore comeback that saw the Orioles score two runs in the bottom of the ninth to tie the score 3-3 and knock out their old nemesis, lefty Bud Dalrymple.

Marty Kutyna, who put out the fire for the A's in the ninth, suffered the loss, his first against one victory. Milt Pappas pitched the ninth and earned his second victory in four decisions.

Nasrullah Sets Track Record

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Fleet Nasrullah, rated one of the top sprinters in the nation, sent the Hollywood Park racing season off to a record-breaking start and put in a bid today for "horse of the meeting" honors. The Kentucky 5-year-old, for whom E. B. Johnston paid $130,000 last year, broke the track record for six furlongs in winning the $20,000 added Premiere Handicap Wednesday.

The engine is Chevy's famous Thriftmaster 6!

Chevy hums through Chicago traffic to the tune of 21 miles to the gallon!

Working for Bumper and Auto of Illinois, Inc., ten 1960 Chevrolet pickups battle Chicago traffic day after day. Each truck averages about 2,000 miles a month in this wearing stop-and-start delivery service. Mr. Harry Hallett, General Manager of S & H Truck Leasing, who leases the trucks to the bumper firm, reports: "We provide full maintenance on the trucks—gas, oil and everything else—so it pays us to know just where we stand on costs. And our records show that the '60 Chevies are giving us as much as 21 miles per gallon... with an average of better than 17 miles per gallon. Mister, these are our kind of trucks!"

Truck owners have good things to say about all Chevy engines. And when they're not talking about Chevrolet performance and economy, they're telling you how great that new Torosion-Spring Ride is. How it soaks up road shock and vibration. Protects fragile loads. Lets you run at faster, safe speeds to get more work done in a day. Drive a torosion-spring Chevy soon. We'll rest our case on that one ride.

Fitzgerald Oakland B Track Champ

Posting three firsts and scoring points in every event, Fitzgerald romped to the Oakland B track championship last night.

Dual track triumphs by Orchard Lake St. Mary and the Pontiac Central Jayvees were also recorded on a cold, rainy Thursday.

Trey was a surprising runner-up at Fitzgerald with 34 points, Clavson totaled 23, Lake Orion 25, Madison 24, Avondale 13 and Oak Park 7.

Balance paid off handsomely for the Spartans as Leroy Hill of Madison tallied 17 points, Rocky Brown son, Troy, 10 and Bob McCaffery of Clawson 94. Brown set the only meet record with a 15.9 time in the high hurdles.

Dash men Phil Morgan and Bob Radinski sparked Fitzgerald, which had shared the crown last spring with Clawson.

Lake Orion won both relay events. Lake Orion broke in its new track in good style by winning eight of 12 events featuring 11% points by speedy Glen Haas winning by 64% to 44% over Detroit Service. The Eagles are now 4-1.

The young PCH Chiefs belted Birmingham Groves, 64%-35% slammng the high jump and winning seven events in all.

Bloomfield Hills romped past Holly in track 80 3/5 to 29 2/5. Roger Hall took the pole vault for the lone Bronco first. Howard Schumacher and Rick Clark were double winners, while Biff Jones had a first and two seconds to make it easy for the Barons. Bloomfield Hills is 5-1 in regular meets.

In golf, St. Frederick edged Royal Oak St. Mary 187-192 at North Hills. Mike Reed led 43, Pat and Mike Seery 47 each and Jim Schuchers 50 in Round 7's victory.

Montreal Alouettes Losing 2 Key Players

CHICAGO (AP)—The Big Ten, with cries of "slander" and "damned lie" has angrily denied a magazine's charge that conference football stars are paid for their efforts.

The magazine (Sports Illustrated), in a story by Jack Olsen, claimed some footballers are kept happy with payoffs ranging to $500 a week. The schools were not named.

The publication discussed recruiting practices and the NCAA's drastic action last month against Indiana University. The Hoosiers were placed on probation for four years for allegedly violating NCAA rules in recruiting six prospective football players.

Unidentified recruiters were quoted from other schools as saying "Indiana had to get caught because it didn't use any class" and its recruiters used "no finesse."

Indiana's head football coach, Phil Dickens, declined to comment until he read the article but when he was read The Associated Press account of the magazine article, he said: "I'd like to know where they got their information. Nothing like that happens on our campus."

Olsen charged that "high pressure recruiting always has been the norm in the Big Ten." The writer added:

"It was Forest. Evashkevski's talent to build Iowa into a football power with an extensive recruiting program which never (well, hardly ever) crossed the work," and sometimes they stay in bed."

Biggie Munn, athletic director at Michigan State, said Sports Illustrated's story "sounds pretty far-fetched." He added:

"I have been around the Big Ten on and off since 1928 and I've never heard of it. I don't think it is the truth. I know it's never been done at Michigan State."

In a statement released in Chicago Big Ten Commissioner Tud Wilson said:

"Sports Illustrated's statements regarding 'extralegal' aid to Big Ten athletes are a slander upon every conference university. If this magazine has any pretense for decency and fair play it will name names and present concrete facts or it will withdraw its statements. I have no desire to athletics, but I will not stand, either for decent and honorable people and institutions to be scandalously attacked for simple sensationalism."

Ohio State's Woody Hayes was emphatic about the magazine's charges. He said: "That's a damned lie. It doesn't even deserve the dignity of an answer."

Duffy Daugherty, football coach at Michigan State said: "To me this is preposterous, I don't believe there is a school in the conference where they would permit this to go on."

BALTIMORE (AP)—An operation on the thumb of Baltimore Orioles catcher Gus Triandos was pronounced successful Wednesday.

The two hours of surgery at Union Memorial Hospital was to relieve pressure on a nerve in Triandos' right thumb.

The Orioles put Triandos on the disabled list for 30 days Sunday because of continuing trouble with the thumb. He was hit by a foul tip last August.

TRAILER ADVENTURES—Trailing offers wonderful possibilities for a family. Gear can be carried in the boat. When the family goes boating the whole family can care for the boat while it rests on its trailer at home. When trailering it's a good idea to check the tie-downs periodically.

Trailers Pave Way for New Adventures

The boat trailer emancipated the tied-down boatman and made him a traveling man. It freed him of the captive confines of the body of water on which his craft was floated and paved the way for new experiences by making it possible to explore waterways that had been only a myth to him before.

Almost 10 times as many boat trailers were sold in 1959 than in the opening year of that decade. The increasing popularity of the trailer paralleled the rapid increase in pleasure boating.

"There are many advantages in having a trailer for your outboard boat besides being able to do your boating when and where your fancy dictates and as far from your main base of operations as you have time and money to go," according to Everett R. Morris, author of the Boating Foundation Booklet, "Outboard Boating Skills."

"Not the least of these is the advantage of being able to keep the boat at home. You are then not worrying about whether it is being properly looked after, whether it is being used without your permission, whether it has gone ashore, or been run down."

When the boat is in your backyard or garage between trips, you can lower maintenance costs because it is convenient for you to do the work yourself. Storage shed rent and wharfage fees no longer concern you.

From the purely economic standpoint, a trailer can pay for much of its cost from a dollar and cents standpoint. And this is not taking into account all the fun and convenience involved.

Getting down to trailer-bugging basics, the prime requisite is that the trailer, boat and motor be matched. It is obvious that you wouldn't expect to carry a big cabin cruiser on a trailer designed for a 14-hp runabout.

Get the trailer that fits your boat, one which is long enough to support the hull and ride in proper balance, and one whose cradle is shaped and padded to hold and brace your boat in the right places so its hull cannot sag while it is on the trailer. Be sure it offers enough support at the transom to take the added weight of the motor.

A good, strong trailer hitch is a must, with the safest kind being that which clamps to the frame of your car. It is also sound practice, and the law in many states, to attach a safety chain from the trailer to the frame of the car. In mounting your boat on the trailer, the center of gravity of the boat, with motor attached and loaded with normal gear, should be slightly forward of center so that some weight rests on the hitch. This prevents bobbing of trailer and boat while on the road.

You will need a tallight for your boat while driving at night.

SAILOR BEWARE!

Two Insurance Agencies Re-Study Rate Increases

Two insurance rating agencies have agreed to re-study recent rate increases on outboard boat liability insurance as a result of a conference with the Outboard Boating Club of America.

OBC representatives met in New York recently with the National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters and the Mutual Insurance Rating Bureau to urge an easing of the rates. The bureaus establish the rates their member companies can charge. Increases on boats of more than 20 horsepower went into effect in most states last December.

OBC contended that increased horsepower was not an important factor in boating accidents and that there was no valid reason for linking the increases on this factor.

Both boards agreed that the rate boosts were based on fragmentary statistics and that there is yet no conclusive proof that the accident rate has increased at all. A spokesman for one of the boards pointed out, however, that any rate increase is subject to change pending an evaluation of loss experience. Other points of agreement were:

—The rating bureaus would study factors other than horsepower as a basis for adjustments in the insurance rate.

—The bureaus will examine and evaluate the statistical evidence presented by OBC in support of its claims.

—Interested groups will be notified by the bureaus and meetings held before any further changes in the rate are made.

Until the increases went into effect, outboard boat insurance was covered under the terms of "barn owners" or "comprehensive liability" policies. Under the new system, boat owners must either have a special endorsement attached to their old policies or take out separate boating liability policies.

The new rate increases range from $10 to $40, depending upon horsepower.

The insurance commissions of all but nine states have allowed the increases to go into effect. OBC will continue to urge individual insurance companies to charge rates lower than those presently recommended by the two bureaus.

Boat Crew Claims Detroit 'Freeze'

CHIELAN, Wash. (AP)—Anp Orting, crew chief of Samuel Du Pont speedboat "Nitrogen," charged that "Detroit is trying to freeze the western races" out of the competition for the International Harnsworth Trophy.

Du Pont, of Wilmington, Del., was the only Eastern owner to enter a boat in Apple Cup Race on Lake Chelan.

Interviewed with Orting, Du Pont said "we want to make all the races this year, but they're making it tough on us. We're hoping to land one of the berths in the Harnsworth eliminations and from this standpoint we'd be a lot better off staying in the east."

Ten boats, all but one from the state of Washington, entered the Apple Cup event last Sunday.

It was won by Bill Muncey who drove Miss Thriftway. The 45-mile race opened the 1960 season for 11 midget hydroplanes. Thriftway unofficially averaged 101.448 miles per hour.

Du Pont's Nitrogen qualified at 107.163 miles per hour.

Orting predicted the west races will be much faster, making it more difficult for a boat to qualify for the Harnsworth program than for those racing east of the Mississippi.

Miss Supertest of London, Ont., took the Harnsworth Trophy last year in a match with Maverick, leading U.S. Hydro. To select a challenger, boats will be awarded points for winning sanctioned races and the leaders will compete in elimination races at Detroit in mid-August.

"If we race in the west we'll be competing against the top Hydros in the nation," Orting said. "The average speed of the boats could be about 110 miles per hour. But they'll probably average about 70 with some of the chumps they'll have entered in the Detroit races. You can earn more points back East, so why travel West?"

He said a race is scheduled for St. Clair, Mich., July 17, a week before the Diamond Cup race on Lake Opechee, Minn. The Harnsworth eliminations are

Michigan, skippered by Otto Scherer of Grand Rapids, scored 139 points to win the regatta.

The University of Detroit, a pre-regatta favorite, made a strong finish from the first day's 5th place to take runnerup position just ahead of Notre Dame.

The Titans, with Arno Neumann and Wendell Sherry, scored 138 points to 147 for Notre Dame.

The Irish lost points when they fouled Wayne State's boat and were disqualified in the final race.

In 4th place was Wayne with 143 points, Ohio State 123, Michigan State 177 1/2, Xavier 111, Ohio Wesleyan 107, Toronto 101, Fordham 82 and Worcester 30.

Hammaraskjold's 'Quiet Diplomacy' at Fault

U.N. Fading From Public Notice

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

Dag Hammaraskjold recently gave recognition to the fact that the United Nations is receding from the public eye.

The secretary-general, whose press relations have never been the best, indirectly because of his reluctance to part with a smidgen of news voluntarily, made the recognition at a news conference.

And he placed the blame for it — "in part," he said — on the press.

He was asked if he didn't think that his pot brand of "quiet diplomacy" had been too successful, and thus had forced the United Nations out of public consciousness as a news story.

"I think you are right," he replied, "that the lack of public interest—and the gentlemen and ladies of the press have some responsibility to carry in this context—in what happens in the United Nations is in part back of the

Tornadoes Talk, Give Warnings

New Methods, Such as Radar, Will Help Tell Their Approach

WASHINGTON—Tornadoes may speak a strange and ominous language that will give weather stations warning of their approach.

Close up, a full-blown tornado's sounds are overwhelming. The National Geographic Society says. The violent winds shriek like hundreds of jet airplanes or thunder like thousands of railroad cars all roaring overhead at once. The din is developed by winds racing at 40, perhaps even 60 miles per hour.

Current speculation has it that tornadoes probably are also accompanied by low frequency sounds inaudible to human ears. These sounds might conceivably be detected by sensitive instruments as an advance warning.

To test the "tornado-talk" theory, the Weather Bureau plans soon to send instrument-laden rescue planes over the tornado alleys of Kansas and Oklahoma. At the same time, Navy rockets will be used to try to photograph the tops of storm fronts containing tornadic activity.

Meteorologists watching radar screens can now identify the type of storm from which tornadoes are born. Some actual tornadoes may be spotted from a distance by means of radar.

Little by little, scientists are unraveling the mysteries surrounding the tornado. They now know that certain conditions appear to be indispensable for a tornado's formation: Moist, warm air at low levels and cool, dry air at higher levels; a southerly wind at the surface and a strong wind blowing over it from a different direction.

The final ingredient is some lifting mechanism, such as a cold front or a storm line, to push up the warm air.

Suddenly, from the midst of a thundercloud, a funnel-shaped cloud issues out with a twisting elephant's trunk of swirling air that winds across the ground, sucking up matter in its path. As it picks up material, the twister may turn black, brown, or even white, if there is snow.

The tornado meanders across the country, usually at 25 to 40 miles per hour. Generally, it spends its force quickly. The average tornado travels only 15 miles. But within its area, it wreaks fantastic destruction.

Buildings literally explode. Chickens are stripped of their feathers. Straws are driven into fence posts. Water is sucked from wells.

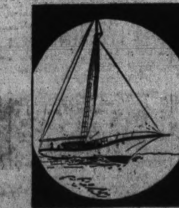

Not the least of the terror is the tornado's electrical display. Fervid lightning—vividly colored with yellow, green, blue, and purple—often dances against the dull glow of continuous lightning.

phenomenon that we observe, of a certain tendency to look for solutions outside the United Nations or at least organs very loosely connected with the United Nations."

Hammaraskjold said he indulged personally in "very public diplomacy" with a statement on April 28 to the 10-power disarmament conference at Geneva. Few papers in Europe or the United States published it, he noted.

The "public diplomacy" was a carefully phrased lecture to the 10 powers that if they were thinking of setting up an international peace force to patrol the world in the event of disarmament, the U.N. charter already provided for one.

It was an appeal to the big powers, who have shown their want little part of the United Nations in the disarmament question, not to continue to by-pass the organization. But it was couched in such obscure diplomatic language that it took an expert to explain it.

And, as has happened with several of Hammaraskjold's major pronouncements, it was delivered away from U.N. headquarters in New York, where a highly trained corps of special correspondents is stationed for the purpose, among other things, of translating diplomatic gobbledegook into everyday language.

Hammaraskjold must accept a major share of the blame for the eclipse of the United Nations as a news story.

Nobody can challenge the fact that his "quiet diplomacy" of unpublished man-to-man talks has worked in many instances—the Suez Canal case not being one of them.

But his failure to provide even the most elementary of basic news ment of international cooperation to achieve the de facto successes, even if they are unknown to the public, than to endanger a de facto success because of too great a willingness to "sell the United Nations."

Hammaraskjold is off today for talks in London with South African officials on that country's racial segregation policy. Chances are this will yield no more headlines than many of the silent Swede's former "quiet diplomatic" missions.

"The avoidance of publicity is in the interest of the success of the operation," Hammaraskjold said. "I think it is more essential in the long run for the sound development of the organization."

Soapy Praises Kennedy's Win

Says It Will Impress Michigan Delegates but He Doesn't Endorse

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams called Sen. Kennedy's victory in West Virginia "very impressive" and said it "impresses" members of Michigan's uncommitted 51-vote delegation to the party's national convention.

He added he has no present intention of personally endorsing Kennedy or any other candidate, avowed or potential.

"I prefer to concentrate, as I have been doing, on shaping a liberal platform for our presidential campaign," said the state's liberal leader in his party's liberal wing.

Williams said Kennedy, on the strength of Tuesday's victory "now is the front runner among those potential candidates who can attract support of the liberals in the Democratic Party."

"Sen. Humphrey waged a hard campaign," he said. "I am sure all Democrats wish him outstanding success in his Senate race because he is one of the great liberal senators of our times."

PLANS TO PHONE

Williams said he planned to telephone his personal congratulations to Kennedy and appropriate sentiments to Humphrey.

The Michigan delegation is pledged on a favorite son basis to Williams — on the first ballot — and will be released by its members.

The governor refused to elaborate on Tuesday's victory "because the 'deeply impressed' in describing the impact of Kennedy's win on the state's delegates to the Los Angeles convention in July."

Political observers have speculated since Kennedy won in Wisconsin that Michigan would lean toward him, assuming there was no too-tubing in West Virginia.

Williams again made clear his preference of other candidates over Sen. Johnson of Texas, who he said he doubted could carry Michigan for the Democratic Party in November.

Any other of the prominently mentioned possibilities "could be said," he said, specifically including Kennedy, Adlai Stevenson and Sen. Symington of Missouri.

He said he could campaign for Johnson if the Texas senator won the nomination. He said he now credited Johnson with the second largest bloc of delegate votes behind Kennedy.

There will be a cut in expenditures for the men's softball league and the difference will be made up by an increase in players' fees.

Recreation Board members unanimously agreed that eliminating the assistant director's position was only temporary, and that some method probably would be worked out during the year to re-establish it.

Chairman of the Board Irwin Greer concluded with, "There is no doubt that an assistant director is needed to promote more recreational activities for township residents, and we sincerely hope to rectify the situation by next year."

Delay Balloon Satellite

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The United States again today postponed an attempt to launch an immense balloon communications satellite into orbit about the earth.

Technical problems with the carrier rocket blocked the effort.

Tricker, 24 Dick St., will take over the job July 1. He is a past president of the Pontiac Civic Club.

Tricker announced he has appointed Lloyd S. Smith, 3012 Lotus Dr., Waterford Township, as district secretary-treasurer. Smith is a Pontiac accountant.

Asks State Delay on Equalization Rise

LANSING (AP) — An Upper Peninsula legislator last night called on the State Board of Equalization to wait a year before taking action on a proposed 13.6 per cent increase in state equalized property valuations.

The proposal by the State Tax Commission threatens many school districts with sharp cutbacks in state school aid, said Sen. Philip Rahol (D-Iron Mountain) in a resolution.

The recommended increase came too late for the lawmakers to enact legislation restoring the potential losses, Rahol said.

Hamburgers Warm Up for Return of Marlene

HAMBURG — The B.W. and I were standing on the darkened stage at the Hamburg Opera House half an hour after midnight, waiting for Marlene Dietrich, who had taken seven bows and seven curtain calls, and then told the audience good night.

Suddenly Marlene ran clikety clack past us across the stage, wearing only her beautiful legs and a three-quarter-length blond-mink jacket. A Hollywood chap with her company loomed up. "Amazing," he said. "The crowds won't leave the auditorium until she takes another bow."

Later, fully dressed, Marlene blissfully discussed her "wonderful" successes in her fatherland. "And Hamburg was a success," she thought, "Did you notice the Israeli melody I sang?"

She had inserted it so subtly that we hadn't. But there were some here in this city famous for its war-time crematorium chambers who did, and who did not murmur a protest.

Marlene's shimmering, shaking, singing style and the very deep bows she took in her skin-colored net gown made many an old and young Hamburger wish she'd stay on.

But with accompanist Burt Bacharach, dancer Dale Babcock and a great troupe of English precision dancers, she is sweeping on to Denmark, back to Germany, Holland, eventually to Moscow, Israel, Japan — and oh, yes, Las Vegas.

"Was that long for piece you were white fox?" I asked. Marlene smiled. "No, that's the swan's feather cape was afraid they might ruin with rotten eggs, remember?"

2 City Pattern Makers Win National Contests

Two Pontiac pattern makers have won contests sponsored by the American Foundrymen's Society.

Adam J. Kravetz, 51 Virginia St., took first place in national and district contests for wood pattern. James Arnold, 694 Emerson St., won first place in the district contest for metal patterns. Both are apprentices.

They are employees of the Progress Pattern and Manufacturing Co., 2385 Telegraph Rd., Southfield. Kravetz tied for first place in the national contest in 1957, won in 1958 and was second last year. Arnold has been first in the district contest for three years.

"This looks more like it," said C. L. Johnson of Lockheed Aircraft when shown a reproduction of the Soviet picture showing wreckage on display.

"This definitely is not the same wreckage shown in the Russian picture released by the Russians," he said. "That was of a heavy airplane, this is a lightweight one, like the U2."

Johnson has called the first picture made public by the Soviets a fake. He planned to examine the newest photograph closely.

Deputy Involved in 4-Car Crash

Commerce Resident Fails to Yield Right of Way to Cruiser

An Oakland County sheriff's deputy and three other persons were injured yesterday afternoon in a four-car collision on Commerce road and Maple street in Commerce Township.

Deputy Robert W. LaLonde was driving east on Commerce road to answer an emergency call when his car collided with one driven by Eleanor E. Kubiak, 31, of 3121 Mandrake St., Commerce Township.

Mrs. Kubiak, driving in the opposite direction, tried to make a turn off Commerce road. Despite the cruiser's siren and blinker, she said, she thought there was enough time to complete her turn.

She and two passengers in her car, along with LaLonde, were treated for minor injuries at Pontiac General Hospital and released. She was indicted for failing to yield to the cruiser. Two other cars which had stopped on Commerce road were damaged. Their occupants were not injured.

No CAB Explanation for Crash Fatal to 63

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (UPI) — The first phase of a government hearing into the cause of a North-west Orient Airlines plane that crashed and killed 63 persons, Civil Aeronautics Board Chairman William Gilliland said Wednesday.

Gilliland said, however, that investigators had made "very good progress" in two days of hearings here, but the crash of the Northwest plane near Tell City, Ind., on St. Patrick's Day.

The Lockheed Aircraft Co., manufacturer of the plane, is expected to tell in Burbank, Calif., today whether a 24th million-dollar test program would reveal anything is wrong with the giant project planes.

The test program was ordered by the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) after the fatal crash in Indiana and an earlier crash in Texas.

Small Truckers Fight Freight Rate Hike

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's small shipping concerns protested they would bear an unfair portion of a proposed freight rate increase.

The protests were registered Wednesday at the Public Service Commission when it was holding a hearing for opponents of the hike. A PSC spokesman said a decision is expected by June 1.

Dale Edwards of the Michigan Traffic Co., of Detroit, urged PSC to determine whether the rate on large volume shipments are carrying a "fair share" of total revenue before deciding on any increase in rates applying primarily to small shippers.

Also speaking against the rate hike were Richard Miller, secretary-manager of the Laminated Glass Co. of Detroit, and Donald S. Burnham, supervisor of tariff legislation for the Ford Motor Co.

The Michigan Interstate Motor Traffic Bureau, representing 50 per cent of the state's common carriers, filed for the increase in March.

At a series of hearings last month the truckers said they needed more money to offset rising labor and operating costs.
