WRECKED DRAWBRIDGE — This is the wrecked drawbridge across the Trenton Channel of the Detroit River near Grosse Ile after it was rammed yesterday by the ore freighter John T. Hutchinson. The freighter missed the opening of the bridge and toppled one section of the structure and three vehicles into the channel close to the river's mouth at Lake Erie. No injuries were reported.

'Barleycorn's Boot Wets White House'

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Women's Christian Temperance Union (WCTU) has popped its cork about President Johnson's plan to install a wine cellar in the White House.

And to serve beer to teenagers. For shame!

Mrs. Fred T. Tooze, president of the ladies of abstinence, scolded President Johnson personally on both counts last night at the opening session of the WCTU's 91st convention.

"John Barleycorn's boot is in the White House door," she said, "and the President of the United States is helping to keep it there."

The President's plan "to put a wine cellar in the White House and the White House innovation of serving beer to teen-agers are to be condemned," she told the lady delegates.

In a mixture of nostalgic fervor and plans for a big centennial in 1974, the WCTU ladies celebrated the 91st year of their war on "King Alcohol." The group's name to the contrary, it does not advocate temperance but total abstinence.

Freighter Goes Astray, Hits Grosse Ile Bridge

RIVERVIEW (AP)—"When he was about 300 feet away, it seemed to me he was off course," said bridge tender Vincent Armbruster. "He kept coming like hell, so I yelled.

"There were people on the boat who were watching, too. They knew something was wrong."

Minutes after Armbruster yelled, the 620-foot Great Lakes freighter John T. Hutchinson smashed into the Grosse Ile toll bridge yesterday, knocking a bridge span, two cars and a truck into the Detroit River.

Police said all occupants of the cars on the bridge span saw the ship approaching at a wrong angle and ran to safety. No injuries were reported.

The 52-year-old bridge linked Grosse Ile with Riverview, a downriver suburb of Detroit. The bridge spanned about 1,200 feet of the river.

Armbruster, 57, of Grosse Ile, said the ship was going four or five miles an hour coming north up the channel after unloading a cargo of iron ore pellets at the nearby McLouth Steel Corp. plant.

Viet Hearings in Detroit Erupt

Witnesses, Spectators Shout and Hurl Insults

Oakland County Rep. William S. Broomfield, R-Royal Oak, and Rep. Charles Diggs, D-Detroit, held an unofficial hearing on Viet Nam in Detroit yesterday and found themselves in the midst of a verbal donnybrook.

★ ★ ★

Shouts of "Fascists" and "stinking traitors" echoed through the halls as attackers and defenders of President Johnson's Southeast Asia policies appeared before the Michigan congressmen.

Some participants and spectators hurled insults at each other in the process.

Donald Lebsinger, chairman of Breakthrough, a conservative organization, charged the list of speakers was "loaded with leftists and liberals" who opposed inolvement in the Viet Nam war.

★ ★ ★

Two professors, Robert Howes of Oakland University and Max Mark of Wayne State, agreed that if free elections were held in South Viet Nam, a slate favoring the Communists would win.

WITH CONG

"If we genuinely want a peaceful settlement in Viet Nam we would have to negotiate with the Viet Cong," Mark said.

"We would have to accept the unification of Viet Nam on the basis of a plebiscite which, frankly, would amount to a unification under Ho Chi Minh."

"But we could save the most important interest of the U.S.—namely, the neutralization of Viet Nam," Mark added.

Texan Charged in Girls' Deaths

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—A muscular 22-year-old University of Texas student was charged with murder last night in the slaying of two young women whose nearly nude bodies were found July 30 in a weed field.

James C. Cross Jr., handsome son of a Fort Worth chain store advertising executive, was charged in the death of Susan Rigsby and Shirley Ann Stark, both 21, beautiful, brunette and from Dallas.

State Police Director Homer Garrison told a news conference that Cross voluntarily signed a statement. Cross then was taken to the Travis County Jail where he was held without bond.

★ ★ ★

Dist. Atty. Tom Blackwell said the case would go to the grand jury "as soon as possible." He said he "absolutely" would seek the death penalty.

CLIMAXED PROBE

Filing of the charges against Cross climaxed a day-and-night investigation that started out as a missing persons search.

The young women last were seen alive July 18. Their decomposed bodies were found in a vacant lot on the north edge of Austin 12 days later.

They had come to Austin to enroll Miss Rigsby in summer classes at the University. Miss Stark left the university in June.

★ ★ ★

SEVERAL DATES

In a statement to Austin police early in the investigation, Cross said he had dated Miss Stark several times and had talked to her over the telephone July 18.

Garrison quoted Cross' statement as saying the women were slain in Austin in midafternoon of July 18.

The police director refused, however, to divulge the alleged motive or the place where the statement said — if it did — the women were killed. He said the statement ''cated no one other than Cross.

★ ★ ★

He declined to give more information from the statement because he said, officers are not sure how a new Texas code of criminal procedure governs release of information to news media.

CAME ALONE

Officers said Cross came to headquarters alone to make the statement.

Garrison said, "we are pretty proud of the investigation. As far as we're concerned, the case is clear."

He said Cross waived legal

Freak Auto Fatality in Commerce

A Commerce Township man was killed in a freak auto accident this morning on a vacant lot behind his home.

Dead is Thurman C. Riley, 52, of 167 Oriole.

Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies said Riley was killed when he was run over by a car driven by his daughter, Mrs. Diane Riley Estes, 28, of 1581/2 Edison.

According to Deputy Robert MacFarlane, Riley and his daughter returned to the Oriole residence shortly after 1.

The car was parked in a vacant lot behind the Riley home and Mrs. Estes began to put the top up on the convertible.

GOING INSIDE

She told MacFarlane that her father said he was going inside the house.

The deputy said that after Mrs. Estes backed out of the lot to return to Pontiac, she noticed her brakes were not working.

She said she drove around the block, and then returned the car to the vacant lot, according to MacFarlane.

★ ★ ★

15 MINUTES LATER

Riley's body was found about 15 minutes later when his wife arrived home.

MacFarlane said the brake line was broken when the woman ran over the body. He said this caused the subsequent brake failure.

The sheriff's deputies have listed the death as a traffic fatality, but indicated the accident was still under investigation.

Mrs. Estes was scheduled to make a statement to an Oakland County assistant Prosecutor today. This procedure is followed in all fatal accidents.

LBJ Calls Drought Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson is summoning governors, mayors and Congress members from New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania to a special White House conference next Wednesday on water shortage.

He acted after being informed that those populous states "will face a water impasse in early September" because of a continuous drought.

Johnson decided to hold the conference after receiving from Secretary of Interior Stewart L. Udall a report which said "common prudence requires" that all water-users in the Delaware River Basin "act on the assumption that this unprecedented drought will persist for at least one more year."

Udall said, "It is now clear that it will take a hurricane or a series of sod-soaking rains to sharply increase stream runoff" in the upper Delaware watershed in the weeks ahead.

He said such developments could not be considered likely.

★ ★ ★

Johnson is inviting to the conference Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey and William Scranton of Pennsylvania as well as Mayors Robert F. Wagner of New York City, James Tait of Philadelphia, Hugh Addonizio of Newark, N.J., Alfred Pierce of Camden, N.J., and Thomas Whalen of Jersey City.

Press Secretary Bill D. Moyers said the two senators from each of the three states as well as the dean of the House delegation from each also would be invited.

Test Missile Off Target

WHITE SANDS MISSILE RANGE, N.M. (AP) — Two Athena missiles were fired from Utah toward White Sands during the night, but one of them overshot the target area and landed 18 miles southeast of Fabens, Tex., military spokesmen said.

A spokesman said there were no reports of damage or injury as a result of the overshoot. He said the errant missile apparently landed "way out in the boondocks" and Army recovery teams were en route to the scene.

U.S. Warned in Statement by News Agency

Reds Repeat Pledge of All-Out Support, Aid, Including Troops

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China declared it would definitely intervene in the Viet Nam conflict, as it has repeatedly pledged to the Vietnamese people, if the United States continues its military buildup there.

"We warn the U.S. aggressors once more: we Chinese people mean what we say," the Chinese Communists asserted.

"We, the 650 million Chinese people, have repeatedly pledged to the Vietnamese people our all-out support and assistance, up to and including the sending, according to their need, of our men to fight shoulder to shoulder with them to drive out the U. S. aggressors."

The warning was contained in a Communist Chinese government statement distributed internationally by the New China News Agency in a broadcast monitored here.

It also ruled out any peace offer by President Johnson and said "the facts have proved once again that Johnson's talk about peace negotiations is fraudulent, what he really means is expansion of the war."

IN RESPONSE

The Peking statement was in response to President Johnson's July 28 statement in which he said he is adding 50,000 U.S. troops in Viet Nam.

Peking then reiterated the four-point Communist proposal as the only solution for the Viet Nam issue. These four points include withdrawal of all U. S. forces from South Viet Nam.

In South Viet Nam, Communist guerrillas set up a steady barrage of mortar attacks early today against government outposts in a Mekong Delta region south of the capitol, a U.S. military spokesman said.

Ol' Sol Uncorks a Blazer

Ol' Sol poured out his blistering beams on the Pontiac area yesterday until he finally pulled the mercury up to a sweltering 95 degrees, matching the highest temperature for the year to date. It also hit 95 on July 24.

The weatherman said high temperatures will climb into the 80s over the weekend. Tonight's low is expected to drop into the 60s.

Occasional showers and thundershowers forecast for tonight will bring cooler temperatures tomorrow, the high near 77 to 83.

The mercury dipped to 70 at 5 a.m. today, then rose to 72 at 2 p.m.

JOSEPH A. WARREN

By L. GARY THORNE

Projecting an image as the efficient, all-purpose administrator, Warren appears to have won nothing but widespread support for his programs and personality.

Clean-cut and neat in conservative blue suit, Warren has secured a good grip on the sometimes troubled chair of city manager.

The City Commission that brought the veteran city administrator from his post in Jackson gave his first-year effort a public vote of confidence at Tuesday's commission meeting.

The soft-voiced Warren has initiated changes at City Hall.

BUDGET FACETS

He has changed the city's budget procedure. Commissioners have repeatedly commented that they now have a better understanding of city finances.

At the weekly commission meetings, Warren has presented capsule reviews of various aspects of city finances. His reports have removed some of the mystery behind municipal operations.

Warren has also launched a concentrated campaign against substandard housing, setting up regular weekly meetings with his staff in an effort to remove or improve housing eyesores.

★ ★ ★

The city manager's efforts in this area have received added impetus by the insistence of federal urban renewal officials that Pontiac have a systematic program of housing code enforcement.

REORGANIZATION

Warren also reorganized portions of the water and finance departments, transferring water bill collection duties from the finance department to the water department.

One of the manager's most vital concerns has been the redevelopment of the downtown area. Warren said that this effort has claimed more of his time in the past year than any other single matter.

Mackinac Tax Powwow Looking Less Significant

By DICK BARNES
Associated Press Writer

LANSING—The coming Mackinac Island tax reform meeting of legislators and Gov. George Romney is looking less and less influential on what financial course the state will take.

Senate Majority Leader Raymond Dzendzel says a bonding program is winning increasing support as the solution to predicted fiscal trouble.

House Speaker Joseph Kowalski has snubbed the Thursday and Friday meeting with the declaration, "It is doubtful that anything of value will be produced."

* * *

Romney and about two dozen legislators designated earlier in the year by party caucuses will try to reach agreement on a program to raise the $200 million they say is needed in the next two years to keep Michigan from going into the red.

They'll be working from six tax plans presented in late July — all but one of them embodying an income tax.

Dzendzel told the Associated Press, however, that still-burgeoning sales tax receipts and other guideposts of the economy indicate trouble may not come as soon as Romney predicts.

* * *

"We're still waiting for the final figures on the 1964-65 fiscal year," said Dzendzel. "The surplus could hit $130 or even $150 million. Each month's revenues are beyond what Romney predicted."

SPRING REVISION

The governor's spring surplus revision was up to $122-127 million from a January forecast of $105 million.

Romney says that spending in excess of revenues will eat up the surplus by July 1, 1967, hence: "We need fiscal reform now."

Dzendzel said he'll try to attend the Mackinac Island meeting to "get all the information I can." But he indicated that a major topic Senate Democrats will discuss at the September legislative session is the possibility of switching from pay-as-you-go to bonding for state construction.

* * *

"This would free $40 or $45 million a year for operations," Dzendzel said.

PUT OFF

"That could put an income tax off for 10 years or even longer."

Bonding would mean building state facilities the same way most persons build their house — with borrowed money repaid over a long term.

The Detroit Democrat said some senators are worried that making an income tax a prime base of state operations would be disastrous in a recession, when incomes would be down but state social costs up.

"The whole thing myst be studied carefully," he said.

OPPOSED BONDING

Romney has opposed the bonding requests of state universities on grounds that wupport for fiscal reform would be lost.

Richard H. Udlock, a Fort Worth neighbor of Cross, described the youth as friendly and said he considered him "nothing but No. 1." He said Cross planned to become an English teacher.

Rights Affair Involves Congressman's Son

WEST POINT, Miss (AP) — Clay County, Miss., officials dropped manslaughter charges today against Mike Reuss, son of Rep. Henry Reuss, D-Wis., which stemmed from the death of a highway patrolman here yesterday.

REUSS

Dist. Atty. Harvey Buck said an investigation into the death of B. Cowart, 53, of Starkville resulted in dropping the charges.

Cowart fell dead of a heart attack while searching Reuss, 18, who had been arrested with 44 other civil rights workers in a demonstration.

"I didn't know anything about a man being dead until they told me in jail," said Reuss, whose father is Rep. Henry S. Reuss, D-Wis.

* * *

Young Reuss has been in Mississippi since June as a volunteer civil rights worker. He will be a sophomore at Stanford University next month.

* * *

He told Sheriff Joe Strickland that an officer plucked a button with a civil rights slogan from his shirt "and I said I'll take the other one off and did."

* * *

The incident occurred under a blazing sun Friday as Cowart, a special investigator for the patrol, and other officers were arresting 45 civil rights demonstrators for blocking the sidewalks.

* * *

Rep. Reuss and other members of his family were reported vacationing somewhere in England. The congressman's home is in Milwaukee.

Plane Crash Leaves 8 Dead in California

LAKEWOOD, Calif. (AP) —A light plane, groping through heavy fog, crashed into a cemetery today, spewing bodies and plane parts into a suburban housing tract.

All eight aboard — members of two families — were killed, sheriff's deputies said. No one on the ground appeared to be hurt, they added.

* * *

"If the pilot had gone a little further he sure would have taken out another dozen people at least," said a sheriff's deputy.

LIKE EXPLOSION

"It was like an explosion," said John Hagedorn who lives a few yards away, "I looked out the back window and there was fire all over the back yard. I saw plane parts all over the yard — and two bodies."

Another body landed in the dining room window of Hagedorn's neighbor, Joseph Rhoades. A plane engine plowed through another neighbor's garage.

* * *

"The power went out," said Mrs. Rhoades, "and it was half an hour before I noticed the dining room curtain all bunched up. Then I saw blood on the dining room floor. I realized it was a man's body, hanging halfway over the windowsill."

ON VACATION

* * *

The plane was registered to James C. Thomas III of Pasadena, Calif., owner of the Hollywood Knickerbocker Hotel. His business associates said Thomas was believed to be in Chicago.

PLANE IMPACT

The plane impacted about 50 yards from the housing tract, deputies said. But debris was scattered to 100 yards.

One body was slammed into a cinder block fence. Another, that of a teen-age girl, was entombed in the wreckage of the cockpit.

the attacks. There were no reports of casualties in others.

In another development, a government unit was reported to have uncovered a major Viet Cong medical facility in a jungle area 35 miles southwest of Saigon. Vietnamese troops who discovered the center Friday 10 miles north of Tan Hiep reported they found fresh food there.

* * *

The unit also uncovered a Viet Cong ammunition factory and a supply depot. The bodies of 25 dead Viet Cong also were said to have been discovered. The spokesman said they apparently had been killed by air strikes.

South Viet Nam's military government said today former strongman Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh is under investigation in connection with missing funds and has been ousted from his post as roving ambassador.

It said he was being "called back for investigation of the money confiscated" after the collapse of the Ngo Dinh Diem regime in November 1963.

In Washington, Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Michigan says he is surprised at some interpretations of his mention of the possibility of a congressional declaration of war in Viet Nam.

The GOP House leader said he was merely expressing concern, not advocating such a step.

Lawmen Converge on W. Bloomfield Site

Police received a call reporting a riot at 11:40 and issued a general alarm. Law enforcers from 10 stations in the area responded as 14 cars rushed to the scene.

The juveniles were turned over to juvenile authorities. The other six pleaded innocent in West Bloomfield Township Justice Court today and were released on $300 bond each to await trial Aug. 12.

The riot was dispersed within a half-hour, police report, but officers remained at the scene until 3 a.m. checking the area.

There were no serious injuries reported and no gunfire, according to police.

Bloomfield Hills to Start 2nd Gifted Child Class

* * *

The board of education recently approved plans for the expansion and administrators now are busy selecting two teachers for the program.

"We're doing this to reduce the number of pupils slightly, but primarily to reduce the range," according to Schools Supt. Eugene Johnson.

For the last three years, 12 youngsters in kindergarten through 6th grade have been participating in the classes at Booth Elementary School.

* * *

When the program starts this fall, the pupils will be divided into two groups, one for kindergarten through third grade and the other for fourth through sixth grade.

WIDE RANGE

"This will resolve certain problems the teachers face in attempting to treat individually such a wide range of youngsters," Johnson said.

The program is geared to giving special attention to each student so that he or she can develop individual interests and aptitudes and advance at their own rate.

William schrot, the district's first teacher of gifted children, was followed by Shirley Friedly, who will return to regular classrooms this fall after two years in the special program.

Johnson noted that, by working with children on an individual basis, Schrot and Miss Friedly developed ideas which could be applied to the regular classrooms.

The superintendent said that each of the classes, which probably will meet at Vaughn Elementary School, will have 10 to 12 children in it.

Each participant is chosen on the basis of teacher and principal recommendations and is enrolled with the permission of the parents.

On the firing line for 13 years as Jackson city manager, Warren said that many of Pontiac's current problems — downtown development, installation of water and sewers in unserviced areas, and storm drain installations—were problems he faced in his former post.

STORM DRAINS

He spoke of storm drains. "We used to cringe every time we had a good rain," Warren said of his days in Jackson.

Pontiac is confronted by the same conditions now. The rains bring a flood of complaints to City Hall.

"Actually," he explains, "that's a long time for a city manager. You get in a rut with the same group of people, problems and geography.

"You need a new, fresh start," he added.

Pontiac was the new, fresh start—a new, bigger challenge —for Joe Warren.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Everett Sloane, often the heavy in dramas but also a skillful comedy player, is dead at 55.

LEFT NOTES

Police said Sloane was depressed about failing eyesight and left two notes, one to his wife and one to his business manager. The contents were not disclosed.

The actor disappeared from his Sunset Boulevard house several days ago, police said, and a missing persons report was filed Thursday.

Born in New York, Sloane attended the University of Pennsylvania and worked on Wall Street. He later joined Orson Welles' Mercury Theater in the 1930s.

He was in radio shows such as "Crime Doctor" and "The Goldbergs," before coming to Hollywood to make his motion picture debut with Welles in "Citizen Kane."

2 Listed Serious After I-75 Crash in Pontiac Twp.

Two persons are in serious condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital following an auto accident early today on I-75 near Joslyn in Pontiac Township.

George Beauchamp, 39, of 427 Kuhn and Mrs. Mary Wegman, 28, of 6145 Waterfront, Waterford Township, were both injured in the crash.

State Police at the Pontiac post said Beauchamp had stopped on the northbound shoulder of the road to adjust a rope which fastened a boat to the roof of his car.

As Beauchamp stood in front of his car a vehicle driven by Phillip Stromberg, 40, of 5041 Clarkston, Independence Township, smashed into the rear of the parked car, State Police said.

* * *

Beauchamp was knocked over the car, troopers said.

Mrs. Wegman was a passenger in the Stromberg car.

* * *

Beauchamp's wife, Nancy, 39, his two daughters, Margot, 13, and Nanett, 9, and Stromberg were all treated at the hospital and released.

2 Vessels Towed to Port

Yacht Lost in Lake Michigan Squall

TWO RIVERS, Wis. (AP) — Coast Guard ships and planes searched the broad expanse of Lake Michigan today for a missing yacht after a stormy night in which two other crippled vessels were towed to port.

A Chicago insurance executive and his wife spent seven hours adrift in their cabin cruiser, lost and out of gas, before a Coast Guard ship cut through five-foot waves to reach them.

"I kept telling my wife it was getting calm, but it was mainly to calm myself," said Sanford H. Lederer, 43.

Still missing after an overnight search was another cabin cruiser, the Kenmar, from which Mayday calls were heard by other ships shortly before sunset Friday as a summer squall churned the lake.

The Coast Guard here said the 28-foot yacht left Port Washington, Wis., bound north earlier in the day. There was no indication of its ownership or how many persons were aboard.

The 40-foot yacht, Adebel, formerly named the Kenmar, was found moored at Sturgeon Bay, Wis., but its owner said he didn't broadcast the mayday.

A small tug, Barnacle Bill, was towed eleven miles by the Coast Guard to port at Kenosha, Wis., after its engine failed during the storm. A sailboat, O'Brien, had to be escorted to safety at Racine, Wis.

* * *

Lederer and his wife said they were on a weekend trip to Michigan in their 29-foot yacht, Jonah, when they discovered the compass was not working correctly and they were lost. Fifteen miles later, Lederer said, they ran out of gas.

"Every moment was uneasy," Lederer said as he recalled floundering helplessly until the Coast Guard reached the yacht 25 miles off Racine shortly before midnight.

* * *

"If anyone wants to buy a boat cheap, I'm willing," said Mrs. Lederer when they finally reached Racine under tow at 3:30 a.m.

But Lederer, sipping coffee five minutes after landing, told the Associated Press he and his wife would continue their trip today.

"You know when you get thrown off a horse, you have to go right back on," he said.

Police said the death appeared to be natural.

* * *

Reflections

J. L. VOORHEES

PARTNERSHIP

Two of our friends are celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary. That marriage began with two people building the most beautiful monument to partnership on this earth.

Watch two trapeze performers. One flies through the air, is caught by his partner and swings to safety; implicit faith in each other is paramount. That is partnership. Partnership in marriage is based on the widest concept of faith. Each one has faith in the motives of the other one. That union has all the elements of the trapeze artists—implicit faith.

I watched two men as a steel beam was added to a structure; implicit confidence was evidenced. A symphony orchestra is a partnership; each musician adds to the harmony of the whole. An automobile driver is a partner to every other auto driver on the road; one cheat creates havoc.

Lloyds of London will insure against anything—except successful marriage partnership. And yet that partnership is based on the fundamental law of the universe—"Do unto others as you would be done by."

Remount Your Old Diamonds

...Good Reasons Why...

1. Diamonds are meant to be seen and not hidden away in your vault or jewel box because they are mounted in an unfashionable manner.
2. Diamonds in old settings can become loose and easily lost.
3. Diamonds look wonderful on every woman but not in old, out-dated settings.

May we have the pleasure of showing you how your heirloom diamonds can be remounted into modern, safe settings that will allow your diamonds to display all their natural beauty. Sketches and estimates submitted without obligation.

Optional Observance of Law Hit by Judge

A hearty round of applause is due U. S. District Judge FRANK M. JOHNSON JR., an EISENHOWER appointee, on his common-sense ruling against the "moral right" of an individual to decide what laws he might or might not observe.

The chief exponent of this anti-social concept of civil obligation is the REV. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. who in his civil rights crusade and related demonstrations proclaimed that a citizen did not have to obey an "unjust" law.

But the same sentiment has been expressed by many white clergymen and "liberals" who think that a law which is morally unjust in the minds of the citizens can be disobeyed or disregarded.

Never have we heard such anarchistic, disruptive philosophy from sources whose calling and objectives are supported by law and order.

Judge JOHNSON made his ruling in connection with the case of 167 demonstrators arrested last March in Montgomery, Ala., stressing that "civil disobedience" under the guise of civil rights must be prosecuted.

"The philosophy that a person may, if his cause is labeled 'civil rights' or 'states rights,' determine for himself what laws and court decisions are morally right or wrong and either obey or refuse to obey them according to his own determination is a philosophy that is foreign to our 'rule of law' theory of government," the judge expounded.

★ ★ ★

LBJ Job Appointments Fit Workers to Tasks

Heading the list, of course, was the appointment of Supreme Court Justice ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG to be U.S. Ambassador to U.N., succeeding the late ADLAI STEVENSON.

An important shift in the President's staff was the replacement of press secretary GEORGE REEDY by WILLIAM D. MOYERS, a close associate of JOHNSON'S. While well-intentioned, REEDY was considered lacking in over-all capacity for the job, a deficiency that the gifted MOYERS should readily remedy.

The appointment of Maj. Hugh Robinson as a presidential military aide is the first such assignment to go to a Negro. Robinson holds a master of science degree from Massachusetts Institute of Technology and has been serving in an important Pentagon position.

Another Negro was recognized when WILLIAM B. BRYANT, former assistant U. S. attorney general, was named for a Federal judgeship — the second one of that race ever appointed to the Federal judiciary.

Declaring his inclination to appoint qualified Negroes to important posts whenever possible, LBJ named two more to high government offices — HUGH M. SMITH, sociology professor from Northwestern University, to be ambassador to Syria and THURGOOD MARSHALL, former member of the Second Circuit Court of Appeals, to the office of Solicitor General.

Two other major appointments installed Dr. HAROLD BROWN, a brilliant 37-year-old physicist — the type of professional much liked by Defense Secretary MCNAMARA—as the new Secretary of the Air Force; and the replacement of retiring Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare ANTHONY CELEBREZZE by JOHN W. GARDNER.

GARDNER, the fourth Cabinet member to be appointed by President JOHNSON, is a recognized authority in the educational field and has for 10 years served as president of the Carnegie Corp. — a foundation active in the areas of social advancement and educational progress.

Wrapping up the long list of excellent appointments—the designation of the distinguished legal light, 55-year-old ABE FORTAS, to fill the vacancy on the U.S. Supreme Court resulting from former Justice GOLDBERG'S move to his United Nations post.

If there is any common denominator in the various appointments, it is an emphasis on men who bring to their jobs fine educational backgrounds, professionalism and experience.

This emphasis has been particularly true in foreign service appointments, since 45 of the President's 62 ambassadorial assignments were career Foreign Service officers.

★ ★ ★

It has much current significance, since at no time in the history of the Country has the conduct of international relations called for more diplomatic skill and sensitivity.

Few Succeed in Curbing Court

AP News Analyst
By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — He made a good try — and he said he'll try again — but the attempt of Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois to undo what the Supreme Court did on reapportionment got nowhere, which is not unusual.

MARLOW

Dissatisfied people in and out of Congress have been trying to curb the court, rebuke it, or change its decisions throughout its 175-year history, and never more than in recent years.

Those attempts must have run into the thousands. Very few succeeded. And most of the changes or reversals in the court's decisions have been made by the court itself.

Nevertheless state governors, legislatures, members of Congress, associations, groups and individuals with placards and petitions have demanded change.

Dirksen, leader of the Senate Republicans, had a lot of company from politicians —although, as it turned out, not enough— in his protest against the court's memorable 1964 decision.

Following its one-man, one-vote doctrine, the court said members of both houses of a state legislature must be elected on a basis of equal representation for the people making up a state population.

This meant fewer politicians from the rural districts, with their dwindling populations, would sit in state legislatures because the old apportionment plans had become unreal and unfair as more people moved to the cities.

Dirksen tried to get the Senate to approve a proposed constitutional amendment which could cut the court decision in half by letting each state decide how members of at least one house in a legislature should be elected.

The Senate turned him down Wednesday.

The POWER of FAITH By WOODI ISHMAEL

Their strong belief in service to God and mankind appears in every phase of their active lives. Even in their programs they include religion. When Roy first proposed it his managers objected, but he won out. Their hymns have been an inspiration to all who have heard them.

The joys and sorrows of raising an international family, their own and adopted, have added vigor to their faith. Their love for children has resulted in well over 2,000 hospital visits and thousands of long distance calls.

The royalties from the six books Dale has written are turned over to charities, mostly for children. In 1964 Dale received the "Woman of the World" award from International Orphans Inc. and "Church Woman of the Year" from Religious Heritage of America. Roy has been named Honorary Knight for life and Dale, Lady of Camelot, by Roundtable International for their "distinguished service to humanity . . ." The "King of the Cowboys" and his "Queen of the West" have done much to proclaim the kingdom of God.

Days of All Faiths:

Story of St. Alexander Is Novel

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

St. Alexander the Charcoal-Burner must have been a good man or he wouldn't be a saint, but there is nothing much of interest on record about the man himself. But the way he got to be a bishop is novel and charming.

★ ★ ★

It seems that in the middle of the 3rd century the community of Comana in Pontus (a country in Asia Minor on the Black Sea) found itself large and important enough to have a bishop of its own. Since Comana was not a diocese it had no machinery for an election, and really not much knowledge about how to hold an election.

So a neighboring bishop, known now as St. Gregory the Wonderworker, went to Comana to see that things were done properly and in order.

The clergy and people of Comana presented to Gregory a list of candidates, but Gregory turned every one of them down. In the course of going through the list, he had come to the name of one man who was obviously nominated only because of his wealth and social position.

★ ★ ★

Gregory took a little time out to make a brief speech about how the Apostles — of whom bishops are the successors — had been men of low birth, little learning, and no property.

★ ★ ★

Some joker — there is at least one in every crowd — called out, "All right. If that's what you want, let's get Alexander the Charcoal-Burner." The sarcasm backfired when Gregory said that might not be such a bad idea, and asked to have Alexander brought before him.

BECOMES CHRIST-LIKE

When the bewildered Alexander showed up, grimy and ragged, Gregory questioned him and found that there were a few things about him the local folks did not know. It turned out that he was a man of good breeding who had sold his possessions, given the proceeds to the poor, and taken up his humble trade in order that he might literally follow Christ.

St. Gregory proposed Alexander for bishop, the people ratified the nomination, and the charcoal-burner was consecrated.

There is little information about his term of office, but he seems to have been a good bishop and teacher. He was finally martyred, about the year 275, by being burned to death.

SAMARITAN HISTORY

Jesus talked about Samaritans rather a lot, and in His parable of The Good Samaritan He made the word an eternal synonym for kindness, helpfulness, and sympathetic concern.

★ ★ ★

One reason Jesus used a Samaritan as the hero of this story is that He thereby irritated His Jewish audience and greatly sharpened His point. For the Jews hated the Samaritans and looked down upon them as half-Jews, deserters, and heretics. "The Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans," said the woman at the well (John 4:9), and that is the way it had been for six centuries.

★ ★ ★

It all began when the whole Israelite nation was carried off into what history calls the Babylonian Captivity. This happened in 586 B.C., and for 70 years the only Jews left in the homeland were a few around the city of Samaria, who had been kept there by their Assyrian conquerors to till the soil.

A lot can happen in 70 years and what happened there was forever beyond repair. The Assyrians brought in some outsiders to help colonize and work the land, and the Samaritan Jews intermarried with them. Seventy years encompass more than two complete generations. By the time the pure-blooded Jews returned from captivity the heritage of the Samaritans was permanently contaminated. They had become half-breed Jews.

And so it still was in the time of Jesus. The Lord Himself accepted this segregated situation. He told the Samaritan woman, "Salvation is of the Jews." (John 4:9) He said to His Apostles, "Into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not." (Matthew 10:6) He called the Samaritan leper "this stranger." (Luke 17:16)

★ ★ ★

Pontiac's Chief of Police Supports Press Editorial

HANGER

May I express my praise as well as my unreserved official and personal endorsement of your outstanding editorial "Crime Growth So Alarming LBJ Orders Investigation" which was published in your fine newspaper Monday. The bold, factual, and striking manner in which you presented your views relative to current crime conditions could only create a constructive impact on your many readers.

In my humble opinion, the principal role for the recovery of law and order rests with persons of strength, courage and intelligence who have your ability of delivering decisive field support.

'Will Nation Soon Be Under Dictatorship?'

I disapprove of the proposed act of legal confiscation inherent in Bill H.A. 8282 Employment Security Amendment of 1965 that would in effect subsidize unemployment. It is time the American people realize that we are being duped and swiftly federalized.

I thoroughly read the newspapers and can only formulate what I see and read. If we don't arouse the people and awake those we have entrusted with the power to represent us in Washington, I fear for this nation. We as a "Great Nation" — not the Great Society—will soon become a nation under dictatorship.

I pray that Representative Broomfield will do all in his power to act upon any bills and government job appointment which in his conscience point to total disaster.

Wonders Where Old Values Have Gone

I don't suppose the three young hoodlums who stole our pet dog out of our car last Saturday night might have lost a moment of sleep, but we have lost several night's sleep wondering at his fate. The dog had never been allowed out of our yard and is completely helpless in traffic.

★ ★ ★

We are sick at our loss, but are mostly concerned because this could happen hundreds of times with little chance of the thieves being caught. Cowards like these can't be allowed to go on to more and worse crimes, but their numbers seem to be growing.

★ ★ ★

Where have the old values gone—the respect of rights of person or property, the reverence for life?

Views on Sending Delinquents to Viet Nam

The letter in The Voice of the People suggesting all juvenile delinquents be put in the Army and dispatched immediately to Viet Nam makes a lot of sense. I love to think what would happen to some of those beatniks when an old line Army sergeant took them in hand. We'd soon have some real men where half-baked simpletons existed before.

AAAA, Washington's Latest Club

By WASHINGTON STAFF

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The newest alphabetical outfit in Washington is the AAAA.

This isn't to be confused with AA, which is short for Alcoholics Anonymous, or AAA, the American Automobile Association.

AAAA was organized last week at a dinner party attended by a small group including figures close to the White House in the Kennedy and Johnson years.

It is a vehicle for protest over what was termed the "peephole history writing" of former Kennedy aide and Harvard professor Arthur B. Schlesinger Jr.

Schlesinger's revelations of the Kennedy years, serialized recently in Life, are the talk of the Washington eating and drinking circuit and most of the talk is calculated to make Schlesinger's ears incandescent.

He is being criticized for "bad taste" in reporting that President Kennedy planned to fire Secretary of State Rusk. One hostess last week snorted that the Harvard historian's gossipy tidbits were better suited to publication in Confidential magazine than Life.

AAAA stands for "Ain't Arthur Absolutely Awful."

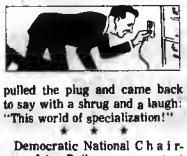
Once just as Nelson Rockefeller of New York was about to be questioned, a conference official stepped to the microphone and asked:

"Is there an electrician in the house?"

Rocky, realizing the man wanted the lights turned off, slipped behind a wooden screen,



pulled the plug and came back to say with a shrug and a laugh: "This world of specialization!"

★ ★ ★

Democratic National Chairman John Bailey — present at the conference — recounted a visit the late John F. Kennedy paid him in Connecticut long before the latter's 1960 presidential nomination.

Bailey met Kennedy at an airport and carried his bag to a waiting car. On the way Kennedy asked.

"John, how long have you been in politics now?"

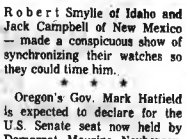
Bailey replied: "I guess about 22 years."

Kennedy smiled and said:

"Twenty-two years in politics and you're still carrying the candidate's bag."

★ ★ ★

When Vice President Hubert Humphrey, a notorious long talker, stood up to address the conference, two governors —



Robert Smylie of Idaho and Jack Campbell of New Mexico — made a conspicuous show of synchronizing their watches so they could time him.

★ ★ ★

Oregon's Gov. Mark Hatfield is expected to declare for the U.S. Senate seat now held by Democrat Maurine Neuberger. A newsman, impatient for 1966, asked Hatfield at a press session:

"Governor, when are you going to announce your plans and what are they?"

No Dating Isn't Sacrifice to Happily Engaged Girl

DEAR ABBY: I am 18 and engaged to a wonderful guy (I'll call "Buddy"), who is 20, in the Army and is stationed overseas.

ABBY

He's been there since last December and if he's lucky he will be home (on leave) for Christmas, but he has to go back until June 1966.

I'm sure I'm really in love with Buddy, but here's my problem. All my girlfriends are dating and having fun and I am getting tired of sitting home. Is there anything wrong with having a friendly date?

Everyone knows I am engaged and all I want is to go out and have a good time with the other kids.

Lots of my friends think I accepted this engagement ring too soon, but I don't. My mother doesn't understand. She says as long as I am wearing Buddy's engagement ring I am not going on any kind of date with anyone else.

I don't want to send the ring back, but this is like being in jail and I'm tired of being —

"CAGED"

DEAR "CAGED": A girl who is "really in love" doesn't feel as though she's "in jail" because she isn't dating.

I think you took the ring too soon. But now that you have it, keep the promise you made when "Buddy" put it on your finger. Stay home.

When your fiance returns, if you still feel that to give up dating is too great a sacrifice, return the ring.

DEAR ABBY: We are parents of a 16-year-old daughter who is beautiful, bright and sought-after, and could have the pick of any young man in town.

But she has chosen as her "steady" a disreputable 19-year-old vagrant who sleeps in his car and sponges off his friends. He has even been picked up and questioned regarding burglaries.

Our daughter honestly believes that the "love of a good woman" can bring out the best in him.

We are at our wits' end with her. How can we cope with her?

BEAUTY'S PARENTS

DEAR PARENTS: While your daughter's intentions may be admirable, she lacks mature judgment and experience. That's what parents are for.

The 19-year-old character you describe is apt to bring out the worst in your daughter before she can bring out the best in him.

It's your duty as responsible parents to nip that romance in the bud.

CONFIDENTIAL TO L. IN PORTOLA VALLEY: Parents who say their children never gave them one minute's worry will lie about other things.

* * *

After dinner Panchito and his orchestra will play for dancing from 9:30 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Both June and January graduates have been sent invitations. Committee members still are seeking some persons with no forwarding addresses.

Committee members also have invited students who did not graduate with the group, but attended throughout most of the school years with the class.

Mark Fisher, cochairman, and Mrs. Williams will offer a welcome at the reunion.

Reservations may be made by contacting any member of the committee which includes Mrs. Charles Hall, Mrs. James Thompson, Mrs. Lloyd Huntley, Fred Giddings, Mrs. Hilman Fortney, Mrs. William Weaver and Mrs. Douglas Green.

"Oh yes, I remember her." Mrs. Wallace R. Williams, Voorheis Road, recognizes a former classmate's name, at a committee meeting for Pontiac Central High School's 1940 class reunion, Aug. 21 at Holiday Inn. Helping to make name tags are Mrs. Charles L. Hall, Edgefield Street, and Mark R. Fisher, Birmingham.

MRS. EDWARD C. MATTHEWS JR.

Wed today in the First Congregational Church, Mansfield, Ohio, were Saundra Lynne Peirce, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Peirce of Mansfield, and Edward Curtis Matthews Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Curtis Matthews of Bloomfield Hills.

Georgian Bay Trip Follows Vows Today

Edward Curtis Matthews Jr. claimed Saundra Lynne Peirce as his bride, today in the First Congregational Church, Mansfield, Ohio.

Her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Peirce of Mansfield, were hosts at the wedding breakfast in the Westbrook Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Curtis Matthews of Bloomfield Hills are parents of the bridegroom.

The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Joseph Lunghamer, was honor matron at the morning rite performed by Rev. Clifford C. Schutjer, assisted by the bride's grandfather, Rev. Robert W. Peirce.

E. Curtis Matthews was the best man for his son. The usher list included the bridegroom's brother Robert, Ens. Thomas Lee, San Diego, Calif.; Neil Mosher, Joseph Lunghamer, Richard Boyer, Tullus Rogers, Robert Maxwell and Jeff Newcomb.

After a northern honeymoon and a sailing trip to Georgian Bay, the couple will live in Chicago. She will attend the Goodman Memorial Theatre and he will be a graduate student at the University of Chicago.

Sunday Shower

Cemery Papineau of Sylvan Lake will be hostess at a bridal shower and tea on Sunday, honoring Jacqueline Louise Snideman of Detroit and Sylvan Lake.

Miss Snideman will exchange vows with Richard W. Long, son of the Joseph R. Longs of Middle Belt Road, Aug. 14, in St. Gerard Catholic Church, Detroit.

Among some 35 guests will be mothers of the pair and Mrs. Basil McKnight, Sylvan Lake, great-aunt of the bride-elect.

Mrs. Charles Hosts Group

Mrs. John P. Charles of Kirkway Drive opened her home recently to the Countryside Improvement Association for a luncheon-meeting.

Assisting her were Mrs. W. H. Bretzlaff, Mrs. F. S. Callender and Dr. Caryl Kulgavage.

The group enjoyed hearing of the Korean experiences and impressions of Mrs. Howard Canfield of Birmingham whose husband was there on business.

* * *

The next meeting will be a garden luncheon and flower-arranging demonstration by Mrs. Oliver Dunstan at the home of Mrs. W. Harold Knisley on Erie Drive.

Cohostesses will be Mrs. W. A. Alfs, Mrs. A. R. Booth, Augusta Meiser, Mrs. Russell Meyer, and Mrs. H. L. Welch.

$10,000 Offer to Kill Banker'

Wife, Lover Accused by Drifter at Hearing

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A young drifter testified that the wife of a multimillionaire Texas banker and her nephew offered him $10,000 to kill the banker so they could continue a love affair.

* * *

Edward Diehl, 28, a carnival worker and ex-convict from California, said Friday the offer was made in 1962 — two years before Jacques Mossler, 69, stabbed 39 times and hit on the head with a blunt instrument, died in his Miami apartment.

* * *

Candace Mossler, 46, the banker's blonde wife, and Melvin Lane Powers, 23, have been indicted for first-degree murder and are fighting for release on bond before their November trial.

Diehl told a hearing that the kill-for-pay offer was made while he was working on Mossler's ranch near Galveston, Tex. He said he turned it down because "I have stole and cheated, but I ain't gonna kill nobody."

LIVING TOGETHER

At the time, he said, Mrs. Mossler and Powers were living together in a trailer on the ranch.

Diehl's testimony and his credibility came under strong attack by Percy Foreman, Houston lawyer directing Powers' defense.

* * *

"Wouldn't Jacques Mossler come to the ranch on Friday nights, and didn't you arrange sex orgies for him with several men and one woman?" Foreman asked. "And didn't you argue with him over extra pay for these orgies?"

Diehl replied, "No sir."

FAST ARREST

Powers was arrested in Houston three days after Mossler was killed June 30, 1964. Sgt. Charles Maddox testified that he questioned Powers then at the Texas Rangers headquarters, and he quoted Powers as asking:

"What led you to me so fast?"

* * *

The detective said he outlined some of the evidence and Powers raised his head and told him, "You've got it all. You don't need any more."

The detective said Powers continued: "What do you want me to do, implicate somebody else? Well, I am not going to tell you anything else."

PRISON TERMS

Diehl, who told the court he had served prison sentences for forgery in Oklahoma and for theft in California, and had been arrested other times for vagrancy and drunkenness, said Powers first offered him $5,000 to kill Mossler.

* * *

When he refused, he said, Powers and Mrs. Mossler raised the price to $10,000, promising to pay one-half down and the rest "when the estate is settled."

* * *

"Mel said he and Mrs. Mossler were living together and her old man didn't like it," Diehl said.

Home Copy of Family Colonial

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

When the E. S. Wellocks of Kirkway Drive, Bloomfield Township set about to recreate a traditional southern-plantation colonial, their goal was more than successfully accomplished.

The plantation setting has been so duplicated that if you listen closely, you can almost hear the clip-clop of trotting horses and the creak of carriage wheels.

The entrance hall is papered in a French print, a copy of the first wallpaper brought to the new world for Mount Vernon.

* * *

PASTEL ORIENTALS

Pastel orientals are used on the three steps which lead to the formal living room, in front of the sofa and the fireplace. Their muted colors enhance the Wedgwood blue of the living room's walls and carpeting.

A pair of George III silver wine coolers and Dresden figurines in pink are found on the pre-Civil War chest-desk on the picture window wall.

* * *

Flanking the wine and ivory striped sofa are drop-leaf mahogany end tables centered by lamps of brass and cranberry glass on marble bases.

"You should have seen those lamps when I found them," said Mrs. Wellock.

"The brass looked like iron and the glass was coal black on the inside from burning oil."

* * *

Near the pillar and claw-walnut drawer table is a gold cut-velvet chair with hand-carved walnut accents and a matching otteman.

SPECIAL FINANCE PLAN Consolidate All Present Bills Through Our 20 Yr. Mortgage Plan

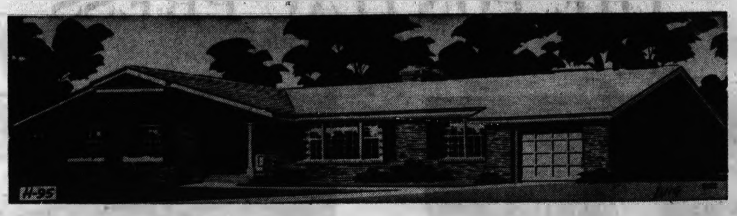
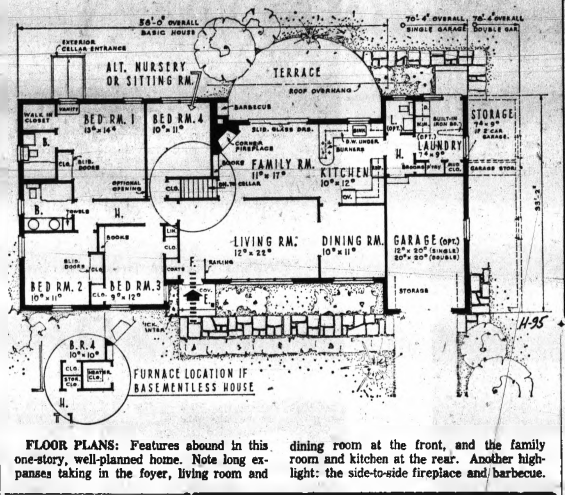
2256 Dixie Highway FE 2-1211



SUBSTANTIAL ONE-STORY: Simple but sturdy lines of this four-bedroom house give promise of practical floor plan on the inside—a promise fulfilled by excellent placement of features and flexibility of the design.



FLOOR PLANS: Features abound in this one-story, well-planned home. Note long expanses taking in the foyer, living room and dining room at the front, and the family room and kitchen at the rear. Another highlight: the side-to-side fireplace and barbecue.

H-95 Statistics

Design H-95 has a living room, dining room, family room, kitchen, laundry area, four bedrooms, two baths, a lavatory, a covered porch, a rear terrace and either a one- or two-car garage. The habitable area is 1697 square feet, not including the garage and terrace. Overall dimensions are 70'4" by 33'2", adding 8' if a two-car garage is built. While the plans call for a basement, they also show an alternate furnace location on the floor level if no basement is desired.

One Story Design Affords Full Value

Each year, architects and builders are faced with a mounting demand for more bedrooms, more bathrooms, additional storage space and such things as family rooms and laundry areas.

Meeting this demand poses continuous problems, because incorporating them into house designs means an increase in the cost of labor and materials.

The problems are especially difficult when those looking for additional living space are insistent that all the rooms be on a single floor.

There is no easy solution, perhaps no solution at all, since it is basic that a larger home, with extra features, will cost more money.

However, architect Herman H. York has come up with a one-story house which satisfies many such demands yet is within the economic framework of the average middle-income family.

FAIR-SIZED LOT

It calls for a fair-sized lot, with over-all dimensions of 70'4" by 33'2", including a one-car garage — but the living area has been held to 1700 square feet.

By minimizing the number of breaks in roof intersections, using simple construction details and locating bathrooms next to each other, architect York has been able to reduce costs.

This has been done with no sacrifice in the practicality of the floor plan.

* * *

The fourth bedroom can be used as a nursery, with a location for a connecting door from the owners' bedroom.

Such a door can serve to make a two-bedroom suite of the rear area or a library or lounging room of the extra bedroom.

* * *

CORNER STAIRWAY

The stairway in the corner of the family room is omitted, a small change is made in the adjacent bedroom and a space is assigned to the furnace at first-floor level.

Further examination of Design H-95 reveals many other features, among them a covered front entrance; a twin lavatory in the hall bath; a dressing area and walk-in closet for the owner; a corner fireplace in the family room; an outdoor barbecue with a flue in the main chimney; nine feet of sliding glass doors in the family room; a pantry, mud closet and broom closet in the laundry area; and broom closet in laundry rea; and direct access from the garage to the service area of the house.

There are many parts of the country where home owners demand exterior walls of brick or stone.

* * *

This house is shown in brick, but would not be less attractive if stone were used.

If a combination is wanted, the architect suggests that the stone be limited to the center section, the wall of the living room and dining room.

The reason is somewhat technical, but designers have discovered that is usually is better to change a wall material on an inside rather than an outside corner.

For those who might wish a two-car rather than a one-car garage, the plan shows how this can be done. It will add 8' to the length of the house, but will provide, in addition to space for an extra car, a sizable storage area.

* * *

Substantial is probably the word which best describes this house, designed with a commonsense approach to give full value.

Many of today's bathtubs include a built-in seat for convenient foot or sponge-bathing.

Try Cleaning Tips on Bath Fixtures

Here are some handy cleaning tips to help keep your plumbing fixtures sparkling like new: Apply soap and water with a sponge or cloth, then rinse with clear water and polish with a dry cloth.

* * *

If you must use a cleanser for more stubborn stains, be sure to select one that is not gritty or harsh, and never use a knife or razor blade to remove a spot. Clean spilled medicines, hair rinses and drain solvents immediately to avoid staining.

* * *

If a faucet leaks, fix it as soon as possible, since constant dripping by some types of water can cause fixture discoloration.

* * *

In general, frequent rinsing and common-sense care will preserve fixture finishes indefinitely.

Spend 65 Million for Paint

Do-It-Yourselfers Busy

Approximately 1.5 million U.S. "do-it-yourselfers" will spend almost 65 million dollars on paint for the outside of their homes this summer, according to a residential paint authority.

Jay Willner, coatings specialist for Mobil Finishes Company, says, "Before the first frost forces homeowners to put away their brushes and rollers, they will have used 15 million gallons of paint, costing about $65,000,000 on residential exteriors."

Although only about 15 per cent of all exterior painting is done by the homeowner himself, as compared to about 55 per cent of interior work, this proportion is expected to grow considerably, says Willner.

"House painting has become an important warm-weather activity in which, often, the entire family participates," he adds.

* * *

One of the chief reasons that outside painting is becoming a owner project is the increasing reliability of such easy-to-use paints as the new latex emulsions, the efficiency of the paint roller and wider availability of spray equipment. Cleanup after using a latex paint requires only soap and warm water.

LEAD FREE PAINT

However, the most popular of all outside paints, even with the amateur, is still the type based in some manner on linseed and soya bean oils. This lead-free paint adheres to chalked surfaces better, is blister resistant, and is uniquely durable.

"In most families," says Willner, "the choice of exterior paint colors is made jointly by husband and wife. This is in contrast to the selection of interior paints, which is usually dictated by the woman of the house."

Willner cites a recent study as indicating that homeowners have separate attitudes toward exterior and interior paints.

* * *

Results of the survey indicate that four top requirements for outdoor paint are that it be: durable, blister- and chalk-resistant, easy to apply and fast-drying, in that order. Homeowners expect indoor paint to be primarily easy to apply, long-lasting, easy to clean and fast-drying.

* * *

The survey also indicated that homeowners prefer to buy their paints from specialized paint stores where they can discuss their specific needs and get informed advice on their how-to-do-it problems.

New, Modern Dishwasher Saves Time

"By the time I scrape, prerinse and stack the dishes in an automatic dishwasher, I could do the whole thing by hand." Right?

Wrong. Granted, there was a time when automatic dishwashers demanded more preparation of dishes prior to washing, but even that's been eliminated now.

A recent survey showed that this modern kitchen servant saves the homemaker an average of one to two hours every day. And it does far more than just save time. The following advantages are reported:

- Hygienically clean dishes washed in super-heated (140-180 degree) water for maxiumu health protection.
- Larger-than-ever capacity to handle all utensils and a complete dinner service for as many as 12 or 14 persons.
- Cabinets that roll out for easy and safe loading of even the most delicate China and glassware.
- Multicycle action that washes away every type of food soil — From film on glasses to drippings baked on broiler racks.

* * *

One of the features about automatic dishwashers that especially appeals to homemakers is the fact that when the dishes are removed, the tub itself is completely and hygienically clean. All traces of food particles, even of the detergents are gone.

Plumbing contractors sell dishwashers and are glad to handle the complete installation job. They can provide time-payment financing, if desired.

Push a Button for Fresh Air in Your Home

At the merest touch of a button, the bathroom purifier electronically removes odor-causing impurities and bacteria from bathroom air, while at the same time purifying the air, with a patented gold ion tube.

* * *

This tiny ultraviolet tube, invented by a physics professor from Yale, releases a stream of negative ions into the air, which attack impurities and odors and convert them into fresh air.

This phenomenon is based on the scientific principles that (1) all impurities are attracted to positive ions in the air, and (2) negative ions destroy the positive.

Just screw it onto the wall, or stand it on a shelf or vanity top. By Puritron, the purifier plugs into any outlet and operates for about one cent a day.

* * *

Dramatic Accent Adds Personality

The personality of an entire room can be given a dramatic touch simply by adding an attractive accent to one of the walls. A highly practical accent is wall shelving, which can be used to hold books as well as decorative accessories.

* * *

Just attach standards to the wall at intervals of two or three feet, depending on the weight the shelves are to support.

Brackets fit into the slots in the standards to hold the wood shelving securely in place and may be raised or lowered if shelf height requirements should ever change.

* * *

Installing the shelves on a narrow wall will make that dimension of the room seem longer, and full floor-to-ceiling shelves add to the drama.

Every day, 50 million Americans shop in air conditioned retail stores; 35 million eat meals every day in air conditioned restaurants and over 6 million work in air conditioned offices.

Quarry Tile Tops for Entryways

It might be all right for the world to "beat a path to your door" as the old saying goes, but it's not much fun when that path is delivered inside your door" as the old saying goes, but it's not much fun when that path is delivered inside your door in the form of muddy boots and shoes. It's enough to make a lady long for a path that will stay put.

* * *

Of all the materials that are recommended these days for private walks and home entryways, perhaps the most attractive and practical is quarry tile, which now comes in various shades of red, gray and sand.

Reed Basket Carried Baby Moses Ashore

One of the earliest recorded uses of asphalt was to waterproof the reed basket that floated the baby Moses through the bulrushes.

Today, it is the principal ingredient of asphalt shingles.

If your house needs reroofing this year, consider the possibility of applying the new asphalt shingles directly over the old.

Land Contour Important to Lot Layout

When you're looking for a home, remember that the best-designed subdivisions are those that follow the land, and where the layout is determined by the land's contours.

Streets in a well-designed subdivision are fitted to the topography as closely as possible, often running along natural drainage courses and ridges. This results in the pleasing variety of a curvilinear street pattern, and keeps grading to a minimum.

Planning the street system and dividing the land into lots are actually part of the same process, according to the land planning section of a massive Construction Lending Guide prepared by the United States Savings and Loan League.

The Guide is aimed at helping savings associations judge the value of the homes on which they advance mortgage funds. However, knowledge of the Guide's land planning principles can also be put to good use by homeseeking families who wish to judge the subdivision in which the homes they are viewing are located.

This is important because, as the League notes, a home's long-term value depends as much on the subdivision or neighborhood as on the home's design and construction.

LAND CONTOURS

In addition to following the land contours as much as possible, principal streets in a well-designed subdivision should enable traffic to flow from the site's entrance to each group of homes, but should not create a traffic hazard by offering a short-cut through the subdivision.

Good design also calls for curved and loop streets, cul-de-sac, and sharp differences between minor streets, feeder streets and major thoroughfares. Streets of single-family homes should have a minimum pavement width of 26 feet; of multi-family dwellings, 32 feet, and feeder streets, 36 feet.

The League said alleys are no longer considered necessary or desirable in single-family developments, but if provided they should be paved and at least 20 feet wide. Each single and semi-detached dwelling should have a private garage or parking space with a private driveway.

There's no single standard for laying out lots, the League adds, but certain basic principles apply to all subdivisions.

There should be good natural surface drainage to a public sewer or natural water course, with lots drained to the street where possible. Width of the lots should be adequate for the type and size of the house, including sideyards for light, air, access and privacy.

Lot shapes should be generally regular, with no acute angles or breaks in the property line. The side yard on at least one side of the house should be big enough for a driveway in which one or two cars may be parked.

* * *

Local regulations establish the minimum lot size, but the League noted that from a practical standpoint, the average two-story house in the North should have a lot of at least 60 by 120 feet. In the South, with a warmer climate and more stress on outdoor living, a 70-foot width is best.

"Generally speaking," the League declared, "a 50-foot lot width can be considered as minimum in the North, with a 60-foot lot the minimum standard in the South. Lots for ranch-type houses should be at least 60 feet wide, and preferably 70 feet."

The prime way to design variety into the average subdivision of moderate-cost homes is to increase or decrease the building setback, and to vary the side yards. But the League cautioned that it's rarely advisable to vary setbacks of adjacent houses on small lots by more than 10 or 15 feet, nor should side yards seven or eight feet.

Finally, a subdivision's water system and sanitary sewers should be hooked to a public system, or designed to do so in the future. And good planning today calls for power lines to be brought in on easements at the rear of lots, with service lines carried underground, giving the area a highly desirable feeling of uncluttered openness.

* * *

Your choice of a home, of course, will depend on the qualities of the dwellings in the subdivision. But again — to get the most for your housing dollar, take this tip from our biggest mortgage lenders, the nation's savings and loan associations:

* * *

"The stake in home mortgages," the U.S. League concludes, "is as great in the neighborhood as it is in the specific property. It's not going too far to say that the long-term security of the loan rests primarily on the quality of the subdivision as a whole."

Country Styling in Bedrooms Has Warmth

Begin with walls paneled in flat grain western hemlock, installing the boards horizontally and finishing them clear.

Next choose a hooked rug or braid rug, waxing exposed wood flooring till it glows.

Then dig through attic treasure troves for one or two good antique dressers or commodes, restoring them for modern day use.

If you should be lucky enough to discover a patchwork quilt, use it as a throw on the bed and let your color scheme for rug and curtains revolve around the main colors of the quilt.

Prime All Metals Before Painting

If a water-thinned paint is used on masonry, stains may develop when in contact with metals.

* * *

Thus, iron, copper or other metallic objects imbedded in the masonry surface or adjacent to it, should be primed with a good anti-corrosive primer before painting.

* * *

Extend Pool Season Fun With Heater

With the enjoyment of backyard swimming pools at its summer peak, many foresighted families are planning to extend the season of fun by installing pool heaters.

As evidence of the trend, it cites a survey by Hoffman Publications showing that 31.8 per cent of the 56,000 "permanent type" residential pools built in 1964 were equipped with heaters. It notes that, while statistics are unavailable, many above-ground pools also used heaters.

Even in northern climates families with heated pools can stay in the swim for six months of the year, or double the season for pools without heaters. This 100 per cent increase in use can be achieved with about a 15 per cent increase in total pool investment, the Institute estimates.

The Institute's calculations are based on statements by the American Gas Association (AGA) that for the average 20-by-40-foot pool a heater can be installed for about $600 to $700. Depending on the region and length of season, AGA says operating costs will average from $100 to $200.

* * *

The pool owner has many options which affect heating cost. For example, if he heats his pool to 80 degrees, instead of the 78 degrees recommended by the American Red Cross as healthful and safe, he can expect to spend 20 per cent more for heating fuel.

COST REDUCED

Pool heating costs can be reduced by providing shelter from the prevailing wind in the form of a fence, plantings, or structure, such as a bathhouse or the residence itself.

Pool covers, available in light-weight plastic, can reduce surface heat loss 25 to 30 per cent.

Use of a time clock for temperature control eliminates waste through forgetfulness.

Generally, the time clock is set to turn the heater on 2 or 3 hours before swimming time in fall and spring, and off about an hour before the last swimmer usually leaves the pool.

For families who want to swim on weekends only during cooler months, the AGA recommends spot heating with an ample-sized heater as the most economical method.

Model Home Visitor Often Buyer in Year

These authorities also say that buyers are becoming more selective in their purchases.

Buyers today want homes with built-in quality features such as fully-tiled bathrooms and kitchens.

They know that ceramic tile never needs to be painted or polished, that its first cost is its final cost. They also know that real tile is impervious to burns, scratches and stains.

* * *

Other features most often demanded by discerning home buyers are quality plumbing, lath-and-wet-plaster walls and hardwood kitchen cabinets.

Most homeowners know that money invested in quality materials will result in a higher resale price at a later date.

Aluminum Foil Foils Paint Mess

Have you ever used paint from its original container and then found when you were putting it away that you had gotten paint all over your hands from the drips on the can? Try this idea the next time you paint.

Wrap some aluminum foil around the can and set it on top of a paper plate or old pie tin. The aluminum foil and plate will catch the runs. Then, all you have to do is remove both and you will have a clean container to put away.

Architect Is Detail Expert

The sight of a new homeunder construction usually strikes a warm note in the hearts of passers-by "Another dream home taking shape."

Unfortunately, many a dream home can turn into a nightmare before it is finished, and too often the final product isn't exactly what its owner had in mind.

An infinite amount of detail goes into a new home; details the average homebuyer probably has never had to take into consideration before. Long before the groundbreaking gets under way, the prospective owner should consult with an architect.

It's the architect's job to design the house and to assure that quality materials are used in construction.

* * *

An architect is an expert on details. After a floorplan is developed, the owner should be sure he understands just what the blueprint means in terms of what he is going to be living in. The architect will welcome the questions and suggestions.

Even minor revisions after construction has begun can be both expensive and disappointing. It's much better to start right, plan right, and use quality materials to get the most for your building dollar.

A home water-softening unit puts an end to familiar annoyances such as soap curd in the wash, rings in the bathtub and film on dishes, glasses and silverware.

Widows Now Eligible at 60

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the 13th in a 14-part series on the new health care and Social Security bill by John Troan, special writer for Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

By JOHN TROAN

Congress has now made it possible for widows to draw monthly Social Security benefits as early as age 60.

Effective Sept. 1, 1965, a woman no longer need wait until she is 62 to collect such checks. However, the size of the check is reduced if she applies for her widow's benefit before 62.

Normally, the widow of a worker who was insured under Social Security is entitled to 82½ per cent of her husband's primary benefit—what he would have received if he had lived to retire at age 65.

But she can get that much only if she waits until she is 62 to apply. If she chooses to start collecting at age 61, she gets only 77 per cent; at age 60, only 71½ per cent.

Actually, a widow may draw Social Security benefits even before she is 60 — provided she has an unmarried child under 18 or one who was disabled before age 18.

In such event, the widow gets 75 per cent of her deceased husband's primary benefit.

But unless she has a disabled child in her care this payment — which amounts to a mother's rather than a widow's benefit — stops when her youngest child reaches 18. And she then can't resume collecting Social Security checks until she herself becomes 60 (and isn't married at the time).

There's also a difference in the eligibility rules.

* * *

A widow with a disabled child or one under 18 may collect survivors' benefits if the worker was either "currently" or "fully" insured under Social Security. But if she has no such children she can collect benefits only if he was "fully" insured.

UP TO 10 YEARS

To be fully insured, a person must work under Social Security for periods ranging up to 10 years — depending on his year of birth. To be currently insured, he must work only 1½ of the three years preceding death.

Whether the worker was fully or currently insured, each of his surviving children is entitled to 75 per cent of his primary benefit. This pertains to any child under 18; any child under 22 who is still a full-time student; and any child of any age who is incapable of self-support due to physical or mental disability incurred before age 18.

The "student benefit" is new, and it is retroactive to Jan. 1, 1965. But unless she is at least 60, the widowed mother of such a student cannot collect an extra benefit for herself — as she can if she has a disabled child or a youngster under 18.

* * *

In any event, there is a limit on how much one family can draw each month.

BENEFIT RANGE

This now ranges from $66 to $309.20, depending on the deceased worker's average earnings under Social Security. The ceiling will go up to $368 in 1967.

When a worker dies, his parents also may collect survivors' benefits.

To qualify, a parent must be at least 62 and must have received at least half of his financial support from the worker. Also, the worker must have been fully insured at time of death.

* * *

The monthly payment to one dependent parent equals 82½ per cent of the worker's primary benefit.

TWO DEPENDENT PARENTS

If there are two dependent parents, each gets 75 per cent.

Sometimes a widower qualifies.

To do so, he must be at least 62 and must have depended on his wife for at least half of his financial support. Also, she must have been both fully and currently insured under Social Security. The payment to a dependent widower is 82½ per cent of the wife's primary benefit.

* * *

Also available when a worker dies is a lump-sum death benefit. It is equal to three times the worker's primary monthly benefit, up to a maximum of $255.

This is paid to the widow or widower, provided the spouse was living with the worker at time of death or paid the burial expenses. Otherwise, the lump-sum benefit goes to the person who paid for the funeral.

(NEXT — Who is taxed how much for Social Security benefits.)

WIDOW'S CASH BENEFITS

This table shows how much a worker's widow may draw in monthly survivors' benefits, depending on her husband's average yearly earnings under Social Security.

The examples are for (1) a widow aged 62 who has no disabled children or youngsters under 18, and (2) a widow under 60 who has one such child. The family maximum is also indicated.

ANNUAL YEARLY EARNINGS	AGE 62 (NO CHILD)	UNDER 60 (ONE CHILD)	FAMILY MAXIMUM
$804 or less	$ 44.00	$ 66.00	$ 66.00
$1,200	52.20	94.80	94.80
$1,800	64.60	117.40	120.00
$2,400	74.20	135.00	161.60
$3,000	83.90	152.60	202.40
$3,600	92.80	168.60	240.00
$4,200	102.50	186.40	280.80
$4,800	112.20	204.00	309.20

*—Not possible until 1967, and then only in rare cases.

Dedication a Smash

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — A jug of moonshine was smashed against a building Friday to dedicate the new district headquarters of the Florida Beverage Department which polices the sales of liquor.

Credit Manager for Your Home

Is your family a SLAVE to credit? Do bills . . . bills . . . bills keep you from enjoying life — from the pleasure your pay check should hold for you?

Learn to be the MASTER of credit! It can be a marvelous servant for you, if you manage it properly. You can live better, have more money to spend and more to save if you control your credit.

- Set aside a portion of your salary (say 10%) in savings. Do this before you even think about what you are going to do with the rest of the money.
- Decide how much you really need for living costs. Then use that amount of money for current expenses only.
- Pay off all your present bills before you incur new ones. Call the credit managers at the stores where you have delinquent accounts and set up a schedule. Then stick to it.
- Before you accept any new obligations be sure you can answer each of the following questions with a "YES"

Do I need it?
Can I afford it?
Have I shopped around?
Am I buying it from a reliable firm?
Did I think about it overnight before deciding?

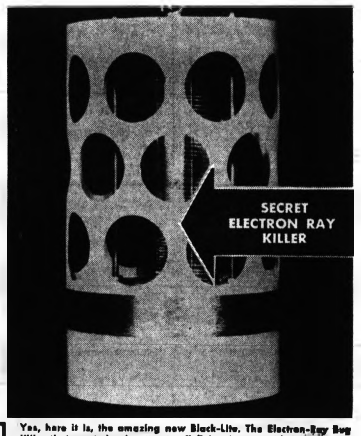
Mosquitoes . . . Flies . . . Gnats, Etc., Disappear for Good Thanks to Miracle Electron-Ray Bug Killer

SPECIAL BULLETIN
by U.S. Dept. of Agriculture
Proves Amazing New Invention Developed by U-E, Tested by U.S. Gov't. A Must For Every Home, Store, Restaurant and Hospital!

SAFE! EFFECTIVE! COMPLETELY HARMLESS TO PEOPLE, CHILDREN, PETS
• No Chemicals • No Odor • No Spraying

Just Switch On This Amazing New Black-Light Electron-Ray Bug Killer . . . It Clears Your Entire Home and Garden of Annoying Summer Insects . . . IN MINUTES!

Irresistible Black-Light Developed by General Electric Draws Insects Like a Magnet . . . High Frequency Electron Ray Kills Them Instantly—It's As Simple As That!



Yes, here it is, the amazing new Black-Lite. The Electron-Ray Bug Killer that mysteriously attracts all flying insects with its Magnetic Invisible Ray and kills them instantly . . . Keeps an area up to 30,000 Sq. Ft. completely clear of mosquitoes, flies, gnats, moths and all flying insects.

How many times have you sprayed and sprayed until you were half-choked by evil-smelling clouds of insecticides you shot into the air . . . only to end up 15 or 20 minutes later slapping, cursing and cussing where hordes of pesty flies and mosquitoes fled, science has just come up with an answer that will absolutely shock you.

Most of today's common insects have actually grown immune to the so-called "insecticides" sprays on the market today. They actually eat it like candy without so much as getting dizzy . . . let alone being killed.

And if that news isn't disheartening enough . . . now comes advance reports from the U. S. Dept of Agriculture that this year because of heavy spring rains and excessive heat we're in for one of the worst insect-years of the century.

New Discovery by General Electric Means No More Flies . . . No More Mosquitoes . . . No More Insect Problem Whatsoever.

But just in time to meet this devastating bug blitz comes news of an incredible new insect killer recently authorized for home use . . . and already obtainable by you the consumer. If you think any other method of killing insects even approached being effective, you ought to see this sensational new invention go to work!

In test after test in Universities, Hospitals, Restaurants, and at the New York World's Fair (as described above) . . . this new amazing invention is claiming up to 11½ times more flies than any other product . . . and toughest mosquito 7 to 8 times faster.

When DDT failed to stop a threatening pestilence in a Southern New Jersey township, a mish-mash of this remarkable electronic bug-killer cleaned out whole infested areas overnight.

In test homes throughout the nation just one of these amazing Electron-Ray units was enough to clear up to ¾ of an acre of all flying insects in less than 12 hours time. And not only were the insects destroyed . . . but eggs, maggots and larvae borne by these insects (which no spray or chemical could possibly destroy) were snuffed out in a flash.

Most remarkable of all . . . unlike sprays and chemicals which are messy to use and often dangerous to pets and children . . . this incredible new Black-Light Insect Killer is so safe it is even used in maternity wards of many leading hospitals. You simply switch it on — the Black-Light draws insects like a magnet. Its special high-frequency electron rays kill them in a flash!

JUST AS EFFECTIVE OUTDOORS AS INDOORS—NO FLYING INSECT CAN COME WITHIN ¾ OF AN ACRE AND SURVIVE!

Unlike sprays and chemicals that lose their effectiveness when applied out-of-doors . . . this Black-Light Insect-Killer works with instant killing power indoors or outdoors. Because its super-powerful Black-Lite rays have an effective range of 30,000 square feet, no insect can possibly break through this supersize barrier and live. Just think what this means:

TESTED AND NOW USED BY U.S. GOV'T, LEADING UNIVERSITIES, HUNDREDS OF AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH STATIONS

It means that now you can enjoy insect-free living all summer long while you sleep . . . sit out on your porch or patio on hot muggy evenings, without once shooing away a single fly . . . enjoy backyard barbecues that would normally draw insects by the score. It means that no longer will you or your children awake in the morning covered with ugly bites. . . . No longer will you be a prisoner in your home because you dread the thought of being bait-chewed to death outside on your patio or lawn. . . . No longer will you waste time, effort and good money on sticky sprays and evil-smelling chemicals that do more harm to you than they do to the insects.

LET US SEND YOU THIS AMAZING INVENTION ON A FREE-TRIAL BASIS TO RID YOUR HOME OR STORE OF FLIES, MOSQUITOES, GNATS, HORNETS, WASPS, ETC.

Hospitals and overseas military installations have first call on the new Black-Lite Electron-Ray insect-killer, so supplies are necessarily limited. However, a limited number of units have been set aside for consumer use this year. Once they're gone we will not be able to fulfill any more until 1966. So to make sure you don't miss out on this one-time FREE TRIAL INTRODUCTORY OFFER . . . here is what to do:

IT WORKS AS WE SAY OR IT COSTS YOU NOTHING

If you would like to see how the Black-Lite Electron-Ray makes it impossible for any fly, mosquito, etc. to live and survive in your home or store . . . on your patio . . . or for that matter anywhere on your property, simply send in the special no-risk free-trial coupon enclosed with this offering. When your Black-Lite Electron-Ray arrives . . . simply place it anywhere inside or outside your home and set it at "ON." Here is what must happen . . . or it costs you nothing.

1. Within 20 minutes you must see no living pesty, biting insect at all.
2. For the rest of the summer . . . any fly, mosquito, etc., that comes anywhere near your property will be drawn to the Black-Lite irresistibly AND INSTANTLY DESTROYED.
3. Not only will you rid yourself of the insect problem inside your home . . . but outside as well. NO MATTER HOW THE TEMPERATURE. NO MATTER HOW HUMID OR MUGGY IT GETS.
4. And because there are no chemicals it is completely harmless, completely odorless and it can't stain curtains, clothes, or upholstery.

Yes, it must do everything we claim it will or you have tried it entirely at our risk . . . and it does not cost you a single penny.

JUST LOOK WHO'S TESTED THIS NEW MIRACLE INVENTION

- U.S. Gov't (Dept. of Agriculture and Entomology)
- Over 75 leading universities
- 47 different state governments
- Over 200 of America's leading farms

LABORATORY PROOF OF KILLING POWER

ACT NOW WHILE SUPPLIES ARE STILL AVAILABLE . . .

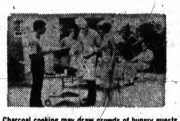
Because advance newspaper and magazine press-coverage of the Black-Lite Electron-Ray has caused such a stir . . . because demand is so overwhelming . . . and because we expect this sensational free-trial offer to cause a complete sellout . . . we are forced to send out the Black-Lite Electron-Ray on a first come first served basis. Also because of problems demand this can offer no more than 2 units to a customer (one is enough if you have a ¾ acre plot or less). The only bulk orders we will accept are those from hospitals or large public institutions. In order to avoid disappointment . . . to make sure you enjoy the first really insect-free summer of your life rush the no-risk coupon TODAY.

IDEAL FOR: • Gardens and Patios • Homes and Pools • Motels and Hotels • Restaurants • Barns • Drive-Ins • Shopping Centers • Service Stations • Hospitals and other large public buildings

Special note: Due to overwhelming demand no more than 2 units per person on all consumer orders (one unit is effective enough for most homes, unless your property stretches out more than ¾ of an acre and you want every last inch insect free).

Bulk orders accepted for business, farm and institutional buildings . . . but on these orders hospitals have first priority.

Swim and sun all summer long and completely forget about bothersome insects. A single Black-Lite unit keeps your entire home and property insect-free.



Charcoal cooking may draw crowds of hungry guests . . . but never a single uninvited fly, thanks to amazing Black-Lite Electron-Ray.

Rush Will Play for Lions Tonight

Thunderstorms Start Browns to 24-16 Win Over Stars

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

CHICAGO—Despite the heavy thunderstorms just a few minutes before the opening kickoff, the football season officially got under way last night before 68,000 dripping fans in Soldier's Field where NFL champion Cleveland Browns defeated the College All-Stars, 24-16.

Tonight, professional football will be featured on the local scene when the Detroit Lions tangle in the annual Blue-White intra-squad game at Wisner Stadium.

★ ★ ★

Tonight, coach Harry Gilmer plans on starting Rush at defensive tackle and also playing him at defensive end.

Rush, at 272 pounds, took part in several key tackles of Cleveland runners yesterday. However, did not appear to have the speed in rushing Browns' quarterback Frank Ryan.

★ ★ ★

The All-Stars managed to defend the Cleveland running at times, and capably held Ryan to only nine completions in 24 attempts.

★ ★ ★

The All-Stars, however, did not have a runner to compare with Jimmy Brown who scored the first touchdown on a seven-yard run midway in the first quarter after Ryan had completed a couple key passes Gary Collins and Ernie Green.

★ ★ ★

Roger Staubach of Navy, who got the starting nod for the Stars at quarterback, also was an early casualty. He suffered a shoulder injury and was replaced by California's Craig Morton with three minutes left in the half.

Yale's Chuck Merceln booted a 36-yard field goal and the All-Stars trailed, 7-3, but right after Staubach's injury Jim Caleb raced in to block Frank Lambert's punt.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Groza then booted a 30-yard field goal to make it read 17-3 at halftime.

Morton started the third quarter but could not get the Collegians moving. With four minutes to play in the period, Notre Dame's John Huarte finally entered the game and the Stars started shining in the cloudy damp evening.

★ ★ ★

Huarte completed seven of seven passes for 72 yards, moving the Collegians to an 80-yard touchdown in 10 plays.

★ ★ ★

Mercein scored from the five on a short flip from Huarte and the score read 24-9 as Mercein's kick was blocked.

★ ★ ★

The Browns scored their last TD early in the third quarter when Ryan passed 10 yards to Gary Collins in the end zone and Groza converted.

★ ★ ★

After eight minutes of the fourth period, Huarte passed 40 yards to Lance Rentzel of Oklahoma and another 20-yarder to Jack Snow, his Notre Dame teammate.

This extended Huarte's passing streak to nine for nine and 132 yards despite the slick pigskin. He topped the drive by flipping five yards to Rentzel for the TD.

Huarte received the vote of the writers for the Most Valuable Player award although Dick Butkus, defensive star from Illinois had the award locked up until Huarte's great showing.

Cash's Single in 7th Inning Beats Yankees

Pena Gains Triumph in 5-4 Tilt; Lolich Called by Guard

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers discovered a new formula for making headway in the American League pennant race Friday night—let someone else beat the teams in front of them while they take care of the Yankees.

The Tigers blew a three-run lead but bounced back just in time to edge the Yankees, 5-4, and gained a game on both Baltimore and Cleveland.

★ ★ ★

"You can't make up too much ground by playing .500 ball," Manager Charlie Dressen said afterward. "Maybe—just maybe—we can gain by beating some of the other clubs and hope those teams ahead of us knock each other out."

It took a single in the seventh inning by Norm Cash to decide the game and give the Tigers their eighth triumph in 13 games with the Yankees this year.

LOLICH DEPARTS

Mickey Lolich, who was due to report today to start 15 days of active duty with the Michigan Air National Guard, was the starter but continued a trend that has bothered the Tigers all year — he wasn't around at the finish.

The Yankees routed Lolich in the seventh when they scored three runs to tie the score at 4-4.

Three straight singles sent Lolich to the showers and brought on Orlando Pena. A wild pitch and infield out brought in the final Yankee runs and the Tigers came up to bat as a heavy rain started to fall.

Don Wert walked to open the inning, went to second on Jerry Lumpe's sacrifice and scored on Cash's single as the rain stopped.

DRESSEN WORRIED

"I just don't know what we can do about Lolich," Dressen lamented. "He was able to come down and pitch last year, but it's all up to his commanding officer. And I understand this one doesn't like baseball."

For the record, Lolich has made 25 starts and has but three complete games. He was aiming for his 12th triumph.

After the wild pitch, Pena had little trouble with the Yankees, getting Bobby Richardson to hit into a game-ending double play. He gave up just two singles in posting his third straight win since joining the Tigers.

NAMED MVP — Quarterback John Huarte of Notre, a towel across one shoulder and his uniform soaked from the rain, was named the Most Valuable Player for the College All-Stars in last night's game against the Cleveland Browns.

Lions' Coach to Cut Squad

Several new faces will be missing from the Detroit Lions' training camp tomorrow because of what coach Harry Gilmer will see during tonight's intra-squad game at Wisner Stadium.

Gilmer said before pre-season practices started that he would like to add six or seven new players to the team for the coming National Football League season.

Tonight's game-type scrimmage between the Blue and White teams will get under way at 8. The gates and ticket offices will open at 6:30.

The contest will mark the start of the annual duel between Earl Morrall and Milt Plum to be the team's No. 1 quarterback.

Morrall, the former Michigan State star, will direct the Whites and Plum, who played his college ball at Penn State, will be with the Blues.

AFTER JOB

Tom Nowatske, the Lions' No. 1 draft choice, also will start his bid to unseat Nick Pietrosante as the regular fullback.

★ ★ ★

The 6-foot-3, 240-pound Nowatzke looked pretty slow to Gilmer and his aides when they saw him in an all-star game a month ago.

But Gilmer has worked him in live scrimmages the last two days, and that impression is fading.

"Yes, I was concerned about his lack of quickness," Gilmer said Friday. "But I see now that he does have some quickness about him. I like that.

"He's going to look better in scrimmages, the rough stuff, than in the light drills. He likes to block," the coach said.

The coaching staff's major concern is finding a strong running back, shoring up defensive end and rebuilding the defensive secondary.

Pontiac's Jerry Rush will start on defense tonight. He will play either tackle or defensive end. Rush played in the All-Star game at Chicago last night.

RECEPTION COMMITTEE — Pat Donnelly of the All-Stars finds the ground coming up in a hurry after catching a pass from John Huarte in the third quarter. Stopping the former Navy halfback is Cleveland's Mike Howell.

Walt Beach to Watch Wisner Stadium Game

CHICAGO — Walter Beach, defensive halfback of the Cleveland Browns who played an important role in defeating the All-Stars 24-16 last night, said he would be in Pontiac today to watch the Detroit Lions' intra-squad game at Wisner.

"I've been feeling real good and we've had a real good camp," said Beach. "I'm anxious to get the season started."

★ ★ ★

Beach drove back with his family after the game from Chicago and said he would leave Sunday for the Browns' camp in Hiram, Ohio.

Jerry Rush, the Lions' No. 2 choice, also said he was driving to Pontiac after last night's game and would report to Cranbrook early this afternoon.

Rush is aware that coach Harry Gilmer is somewhat concerned over the fact that he will be in camp nearly 20 pounds heavier than he is supposed to.

Gilmer wants Rush to play the defensive end post at between 250 and 255 pounds. His All-Star weight was 272.

All-Star coach Otto Graham proceeded after the game to explain his reasons for not getting John Huarte into the game earlier.

"We had to go on the basis of our training camp results and there was no question in our minds that Roger Staubach should start."

Graham admitted that after Staubach it was a tossup between California's Craig Morton and Huarte, and Morton "simply got the first chance."

Michigan's Bob Timberlake, who had some minor camp injuries did not play.

"Luring the first half our guys played the same way they practiced for three weeks," said Graham, "and I told them at halftime how terrible they looked. There was no pep, no fight and I really chewed them out."

★ ★ ★

Graham said the heavy rain during the game hurt the All-Stars more than the Browns because "they are more experienced and it helped their ground with a runner like Brown. We had no Brown."

Cleveland quarterback Frank Ryan called it an unbelievably "poor performance on my part, but the Stars deserve some credit as they did a good job."

United States Track Gals Steal Thunder From Men

They collect more press clippings and draw more autograph hunters than the men. They even run in the same stadiums on the same afternoons.

Any Warsaw fan will tell you that the biggest single event of the Polish-American dual meet this weekend is the women's 100 meter, with three co-holders of the 11.1-second world's record entered.

Back home, the girls have to pay their way into the major, all-male competitions and many a red-blooded fan wouldn't be caught dead at a women's track meet.

But leaders of the U.S. women's squad hope their sport is about to come into its own in the United States.

"More and more girls are asking for track and field. It's growing fast," said Dr. Nell Jackson of Normal, Ill., team manager.

"Femininity is all in the mind," said Dr. Jackson, who, like a number of the American track girls, is petite, graceful and, well, feminine.

Jack Griffin of Frederick, Md., U.S. women's team head coach, acknowledged that femininity may be the reason that graceful events like running, hurdling, jumping and the javelin tend to draw more girls than the discus and the shot.

NOT HARMFUL

Griffin said track and field is no more harmful for women than tennis and swimming which have long been accepted.

Who makes better coaches for girls, men or women?

Dr. Jackson felt that girls often "pay more attention to a man's instructions."

Piston Center Has Sept. 6 Date in Court

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Pistons basketball star Reggie Harding, charged with assault and battery in punching a policeman, was free on $500 bond today.

Harding stood mute to the charge at his arraignment Friday before Recorder's Court Judge Vincent Brennan. A hearing was set for Sept. 8.

Harding had averaged 11 points plus 11 rebounds per game for the Pistons.

There was speculation that Harding, who has had previous brushes with the law, may be severely disciplined.

Zoilo Needed Just One Look

Twins' Star Still on Binge

By The Associated Press

The binge, however, is now in its fourth year, and the Minnesota shortstop shows no signs of getting off it.

While on his spree Friday night, Versalles clouted a three-run homer, climaxing a six-run explosion in the sixth inning that carried the Twins to a 9-3 victory over Boston and to a 6½-game lead in the American League, biggest bulge the leaders have had all year.

Versalles has been something of an oddity for Minnesota this season. The Twins have been accustomed to fighting for the pennant without some of their starters because of injury and illness — pitchers Camile Pascual and Dave Boswell plus slugger Harmon Killebrew currently are disabled.

MISSED ONE

But Versalles has played in all but one of the team's 109 games, trailing only Tony Oliva in durability.

The Cuban's playing frequency wasn't always as high. It wasn't, that is, until Orlando Martinez came along. It happened at the start of the 1962 season, Manager Sam Mele explained.

"Things weren't going too well for Versalles," Mele recalled. "I guess he wasn't hitting. Anyway he looked crippled, complained about his back and said that he didn't think he would be ready for the opener that was only two days away.

"So I contacted our owner and told him to get me a shortstop. He called up Orlando Martinez from the minors. In a day, Martinez showed up. Eight o'clock in the morning of opening day I received a call from Versalles. He told me he was feeling fine and would play. Apparently he had seen Martinez come in."

Versalles was so ready to play he played in 160 games that year, and for the past three seasons he missed only eight of the Twins' 487 games.

14 HOMERS

Right now the 24-year-old hustler is headed for his best slugging season, having hit 14 homers and driven in 55 runs. His best previous highs are 20 and 67.

Elsewhere in the AL Friday, Kansas City whipped Baltimore 9-4, Chicago stopped Cleveland 11-5, and Los Angeles knocked off Washington 6-1.

Versalles, homer came after rain had delayed the game for 95 minutes. Just before the storm, Bob Allison snapped a 2-2 tie with a two-run homer. The blows gave Jim Merritt his first major league triumph.

Young Star Paces Golf

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — At the age of 14, Lloyd Liebler of Portsmouth, Va., is the youngest player in the United States Golf Association's junior tournament. He's also the hottest — and could be the youngest champion as well.

"I know I can come from behind," the young Virginian said Friday after continuing his spectacular play and advancing to the semifinals.

Liebler whipped Ike Gingrich of Atlanta, Ga., 3 and 1, and Bob Stuart of Mamaroneck, N.Y., 4 and 3 in the third round.

'I'M GOING HOME' — Arnold Palmer turns his back in obvious distress as he misses a 20-foot putt during yesterday's second round of the Whitemarsh Open at Philadelphia yesterday. He took a 43 on the second nine. Although Palmer barely survived the 36-hole cut, he packed his bag and went home.

Arnie Decided to Head Home

WHITEMARSH, Pa. (AP) — Dick Sikes led the $125,000 Philadelphia Golf Classic into the third round today with Jack Nicklaus breathing down his neck, but the big news was Arnold Palmer.

After Nicklaus charged through the second round with six birdies and an eagle for a seven-under-par 65 and a 36-hole total of 136, one stroke behind Sikes' 135, Palmer stirred the crowd with the announcement he was packing his clubs and going home to Latrobe, Pa.

★ ★ ★

"I don't remember ever doing what I did on the golf course today," Palmer said. "I just lost my concentration . . . and everything."

The 35-year-old Palmer shot a 34-43-77 for a 36-hole total of 146, which would have made him anchorman among the 70 qualifiers if he chose to continue in the 72-hold competition through Sunday.

NO WARNING

Palmer's collapse came without warning. In fact, there were flashes of the old Palmer in his first round 69, and the two-under-par 34 he shot on the front nine Friday.

"For 27 holes, I played as well as I have in a long time," he said.

Cheers echoed from the course, where his army of followers were screaming for a patented Palmer charge to the front. But on the 10th hole, his game collapsed after he drove into the woods and then hit a tree with his second shot. The crowd watched stunned as the famed golfer took six bogeys and a double bogey on the next seven holes. He finally ended the tailspin with a birdie on No. 17, and a par on the 18th.

Immediately after the round, Palmer took advantage of a pre-tournament agreement that he could withdraw if he was not in contention or felt physically unable to continue.

Palmer, who has won every major championship golf has to offer but the PGA, said he was physically and mentally tired.

"The way I played on the back nine proves it," said the man who has won 43 tournaments since he became a pro in 1954.

He said he was going home to Latrobe, Pa., to rest for next week's PGA championship at his home Laurel Country Club course at Ligonier, near Pittsburgh.

Ex-Tiger Tops Pirates, 5-0 for Phillies

Cincinnati Beats LA, 5-4, in 11 Innings; Giants Nip Redbirds

By The Associated Press

The way Gene Mauch was talking you'd think Jim Bunning was his own personal invention. Like sliced bread. Or, the pop-open can.

"It has to be one of the best pitching performances I've seen," the Phillies' manager said after Bunning's five-hit, 4-0 conquest of Pittsburgh Friday night.

★ ★ ★

"Beautiful," said Mauch, who may have been a bit biased since it snapped a five-game Buccaneers' winning string and marked Philadelphia's third straight victory.

"That man can pitch and he's going to keep on doing it for some time and for several reasons. He's got a great arm and a great delivery."

FANNED 12

The 6-foot-3 right-hander struck out 12 and walked none in marking up his fourth shutout of the season and reducing his earned run average to 2.66.

Jim Coker's pinch-hit single in the 11th drove in the winner for Cincinnati in the Reds' 5-4 decision over the leading Los Angeles Dodgers, San Francisco edged St. Louis 3-2, Milwaukee whipped Houston 8-4 and the Chicago Cubs edged New York's Mets 4-3 in the other National League games, all at night.

Bunning, a former Detroit Tiger, called his 13th victory of the season "one of my best games. It was hot and I like to pitch in hot weather. I feel better, throw harder."

He was throwing hard enough to lose eight pounds and keep the Pirates in hand all the way. Johnny Callison's 25th homer, Tony Gonzalez' three singles and Cookie Rojas' two-run double provided the hitting support.

Cincinnati's first four runs came on homers by Don Pavletich, Pete Rose, Deron Johnson and Tommy Harper. The Dodgers tied it twice, the last time in the eighth when Wes Parker walked, advanced on a wild pitch and scored on John Roseboro's single, prolonging it until Coker delivered his winning single in the 11th.

POOR THROW

Hal Lanier doubled in two runs and scored the third on a bad throw in leading the Giants past St. Louis. His fourth-inning drive came with two out and drove in Willie Mays and Willie McCovey. The relay throw trying to get McCovey at the plate bounced away from the catcher and Lanier slid home with the winning run.

Gene Oliver drove in four runs with a homer and a double, Hank Aaron had three singles and Mack Jones lashed his 20th homer in Milwaukee's free-swinging triumph over the Astros.

Ted Abernathy's 59th relief performance of the season preserved Chicago's victory and Larry Jackson's lifetime 13-0 record against the Mets. He came on after Gary Kolb's three run homer pulled the Mets to within one in the bottom of the ninth.

Business Institute Wins, 20-0

Collision Nine Wrecked by PBI

Pontiac Business Institute last night concluded the regular schedule of the city recreation department's Class A Baseball League with the biggest run explosion in several seasons.

PBI punched out 13 hits off four M. G. Collision moundsmen to post a 20-0 win as Dave Moilanen hurled a three-hitter, under the lights at Jaycee Park.

Manager Paul Johnson's forces need only three hits—including two doubles by leadoff batter Rick Pankey—to tally seven first-inning markers.

Leading 9-0 after five frames, the PBI revamped lineup then erupted in the sixth for the largest single inning in recent seasons — 11 runs on seven singles, two walks and five errors.

BIG WEAPON

Pankey had three hits as the only member of the winners with more than one. The pint-sized shortstop-center fielder drove in four runs and scored twice. His doubles were the only extra-base-hits in the barrage.

Moilanen whiffed nine batters, including five straight at one stretch. During that time, he also retired 11 in a row, while stranding seven runners in the six-inning game.

PBI thus finished with a 12-5 record, the best mark prior to the playoffs which are scheduled to begin tomorrow. M. G. Collision again had the worst record in the circuit, 3-14.

The R. T. Clippers (11-6) will meet PBI at 8 p.m. tomorrow, Tuesday and Thursday (if necessary) in a best-of-three semi-final series.

Huron-Airway (11-5), the defending city champion, has a similar series with Cranbrook (11-5) at 8 p.m. Monday, Wednesday and Fri. (if necessary). The championship finals will begin at 7:30 p.m. Sunday Aug. 15.

Richardson's Survives 1-0 Softball Squeaker

The final round pairings in the Waterford Township Men's Softball League were determined last night for the Class B and C divisions at the Drayton Plains diamond.

Richardson's Dairy eliminated Day's Sanitary Service, 1-0, and will play Lakeland Pharmacy Monday night in the "B" finals at 8:30.

Dixie Bar ousted Huron Bowl, 13-13, in a "C" tilt Friday night and will meet Bob and Larry's Bar Tuesday. The 7 p.m. Monday game will be a "D" clash between Howe's Lanes and Hawkins's Chevrolet.

Richardson's stayed alive on Jerry Thomas' stout pitching and a second-inning run scored by the hurler on Stan Larkin's two-out safety.

Thomas stopped Day's on five hits and five strikeouts. The losers had the tying run retired at the plate in the fifth inning and left it on second base in the seventh.

★ ★ ★

Dixie Bar rapped 15 hits against Huron Bowl and was aided by five errors and four free passes. Pat May, Ted Wharry and Don Weichert each had three hits for the winners.

Weichert, the winning pitcher, had two doubles and a three-run homer.

Soap Box Vehicles Start Down Ramp

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Today was the big day for 252 Soap Box Derby contestants from 103 U.S. cities and five foreign countries as they raced their homemade cars in the 28th annual All-American Soap Box Derby.

Part of the pre-race festivities included the Oil Can Trophy race in which television star Fess Parker, singer Frankie Avalon and actor Glenn Ford raced down the 775 4-foot Coasting Hill at Derby Downs.

Mrs. J. C. Helferich, Jr. of Farmington led the first flight with 283; Mesdames David Ingraham of Farmington and Joseph Grum of Bloomfield Hills paced the second flight with 294s; and Alice Haner of Detroit had 156 to top the third flight competitors.

LPGA Meet Has Aussie in 3rd Spot

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Australia's Margie Masters, the lone lady golf pro on the continent down under, continued to press the leaders in the Milwaukee Jaycee Open Friday.

Miss Masters shot a 74 to go with her opening one-under par 71 for a third-place 145 at the halfway mark in the 72-hole tournament.

Veteran Marlene Bauer Hagge of Pensacola, Fla., was leading with 71-71—142. A comparative newcomer to the tour, Clifford Ann Creed of Alexandria, La., was second with a 70-73—143.

Behind Miss Masters were Jo Ann Prentice of Pensacola, Fla., and pretty Judy Torleumke of North Key Largo, Fla., with 147s.

NEVER WON

Margie, who began playing golf 18 years ago, has never won a pro tournament but has never been far from the top. In the 20 tournaments she's entered this season she finished in the top ten each time.

"There are many different things about the game in America compared to overseas," she said, "but I think I have the hang of how its done here. We'll know by the end of the tournament."

Defending Champ Reaches 3rd Round

ADRIAN (AP) — Defending champion Detroit Edison was the favorite to retain its American Legion state baseball championship as teams moved into the third round of play today.

Edison drew a bye after winning two games Friday. Meanwhile, four other teams with at least 1 loss each were scheduled to meet today in the double elimination tournament. St. Joseph met Bay City and St. Clair took on Escanaba.

Sam Lamerato's four hits in five trips led Detroit to a 5-4 victory over Bay City Friday afternoon. Edison had dumped St. Joseph 3-1 in a morning game. In the nightcap, Edison scored three runs on pitcher Rick Konick's double, an error, Chuck Schmidt's single and Bob Sobditch's base hit.

Bay City beat St. Clair 4-3 in 12 innings in a morning game when pitcher Dale Dunham singled with two out in the 12th and scored on Jack Campbell's double.

Champion Is Ousted From UP Golf Play

Johnson, who whipped Tom Jenson of Iron Mountain in a morning preliminary round, fought all the way before losing 1-up to Bill Peterson of Ontonagon.

Americas Cup Team Trails Two Opponents

WINNIPEG, Man. (AP) — The United States is in danger of being beaten for the first time ever in the biennial Americas Cup international amateur golf matches against Canada and Mexico.

The Americans, who have won all seven of the previous Americas Cup matches, were in last place starting today's final round of sixsomes and singles at the St. Charles Country Club.

Canada led with 9½ points. Mexico had nine and the U.S. 8½.

Veteran Bill Campbell, the U.S. amateur champ from Huntington, W. Va. led the Americans with two victories in the singles after he and Downing Gray of Pensacola, Fla., had teamed for two points in the sixsomes.

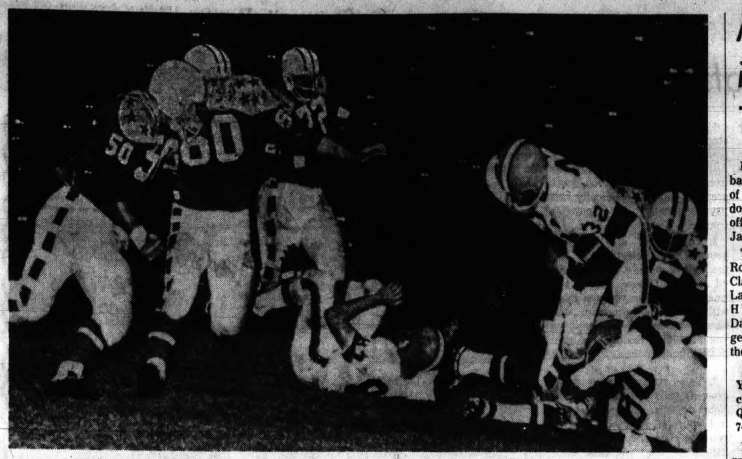
OLD COLLEGE TRY — Fred Whitfield, Cleveland's first baseman, causes chaos in the box seats at Chicago's Comiskey Park yesterday as he reaches for a pop foul in the first inning. The ball can be seen falling behind the boy in the checked short at right. The Indians had trouble reaching some other balls hit by the White Sox who posted a 11-5 decision.



BROWNS' FIRST DOWN — Jimmy Brown (32) of the Cleveland Browns picks up a first down on second quarter rush last night at Chicago's Soldier's Field against the College All-Stars. Verlon Biggs of Jackson State is making the tackle while teammates Dick Butkus (50) of Illinois, Don Croftcheck (60) of Indiana, and Jerry Rush (72) of Michigan State (and Pontiac Central High School) come up to make sure Brown is stopped. Rush will be playing tonight at Wisner Stadium in the Detroit Lions' intra-squad game.

How to Protect Yourself – 12

Start Your Counterattack on Crime Now

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the final installment in the series, "How to Protect Yourself on the Streets and in Your Home.")

By GENE ACCAS and JOHN R. ECKSTEIN

Today in the United States, we live surrounded by crime. The FBI reported crimes of violence in cities up 15 per cent in the first six months of 1964 compared to 1963. Suburban crime is growing even faster!

Just think!

● A major crime is committed every 3 minutes, day and night, 365 days a year in New York City.

● There were 962 reported rapes in Los Angeles.

● Nearly 10,000 aggravated assaults took place in Chicago.

In Los Angeles, for the same seven categories, the count is an incredible 600 crimes per day!

What is happening? Is this country reverting to a jungle? Is crime breeding faster than the law can deal with it? Are individual, "law abiding" citizens contributing to the decay?

The answer to these questions is a qualified "yes!"

OWN MAKING

The sad truth is that we live in jungles of our own making, and, that most citizens are the potential prey of vicious hoodlums, sex criminals, and other undesirables. But why should you care, it can't happen to you.

It can. It does. Every day. To people just like you. And if it did — if you were the victim of a holdup man, a mugger, or something worse, what would you do? What would your neighbors do? What would witnesses and by-standers do?

Probably nothing! Indifference, apathy, "it doesn't concern me . . . I don't want to get involved," have become national moral epidemics. People don't care!

* * *

We have become soft, complacent; we have lost the self-sufficiency and self-reliance of our pioneer and frontier heritage. And, too, we have looked the other way when someone "bent" the law a little. Which of us hasn't "gotten away with" a traffic violation; "padded" a tax return; witnessed a crime and done nothing about it?

COUNTERATTACK

Today, right now, you can begin a counterattack on crime. All that is required is to face up to yourself, and your duty as a citizen. All that is required is that you be a citizen of this country with all the rights and obligations that includes.

By supporting the law — in its many forms — you counterattack crime. By helping a fellow citizen, whenever he may be in trouble, you join forces with millions of other lawful citizens and fight back!

By reducing your own chances of being a victim of a crime, you reduce crime. Follow the simple common-sense precautions, rules and tips of HOW to PROTECT YOURSELF. Stay away from trouble and keep trouble away from you.

* * *

Learn to be alert, prepared and cautious. In your everyday life, uphold the law. If you see or hear of a crime, do what you can to help the police halt the act, or bring the criminal to justice.

START TODAY

Start today to become more self-sufficient. Start today to be aware of the potential dangers that exist and learn how to cope with them. Start today to learn how to protect yourself if it should ever come to that.

This book is not intended to frighten, nor to preach. It has been written to tell the stark truth, and to rally individuals to the critical task of defending their own safety and rights as Americans.

Four major points emerge from this book — they bear repetition:

1. You must learn to be constantly alert, wary, and cautious. You don't have to be fearful; you don't have to withdraw from the world. But you must prepare yourself physically and psychologically for possible trouble.

2. You must also prepare yourself by selecting a few methods of defense that are suited to you. Choose one or two weapons and always have them with you when you are out. Choose one or two weapons that you can have readily available in your home.

* * *

3. Your self-confidence will grow as your self-efficiency does. Your decision, to learn to protect yourself, is a vital one. If you are ever under attack, this fact alone, that you have been preparing yourself for your own self-protection, will strengthen your resolve and determination.

And if you counterattack, remember — the criminal doesn't expect this. He expects you to be a mouse, to offer no resistance, to do whatever he tells you.

If you scream and, if necessary, fight back, chances are your assailant may be frightened away.

4. You are your brother's keeper . . .

● If you see or hear that someone else is in trouble or under attack, do not ignore it. Scream! Use a police whistle! Call for help, or run and get help.

● Be involved. Too many people today feel, "That isn't my business — I don't want to get into it." That fact is one of the greatest advantages the criminals have. They know that very few people will help another person in trouble.

● If law-abiding, peace-loving people helped one another, their efforts could overcome those of the tiny minority of hoodlums and thugs.

* * *

Sinatra's Yacht Off for Boston

Ashore, rumors and unanswered questions outnumbered the sea gulls.

Reports have persisted for several days that Sinatra and Miss Farrow, the schoolgirl in television's "Peyton Place," planned to leave the yacht to be married on James Cagney's estate on the southern tip of the island.

But one of Sinatra's friends, actress Rosalind Russell, left the 168-foot luxury vessel Friday and declared "they are not getting married here. Not on this voyage, there is no suggestion of it."

Miss Russell's statement began speculation that Sinatra is seeking a location for a new movie on the trip.

The trip to Boston was predicted after the yacht captain telephoned the Squantum Marina in Boston harbor to ask about docking facilities.

* * *

He was reported pleased by news that a 400-foot dock, necessary for privacy, is open. The Southern Breeze is expected to arrive tonight.

Sinatra's been ashore on the Vineyard only once — for a shore dinner at the Harborside Inn and much hand-holding with Miss Farrow, the daughter of actress Maureen O'Sullivan. Blonde Miss Farrow has been ashore several times on shopping excursions, and both she and Sinatra have posed for photographers on board the yacht. Neither denied the marriage reports.

Broker's Death Hits Investors

579 Claims Entered Against Bankrupt Firm

★ ★ ★

Michael Dobich, 38, a brilliant, "lone wolf" brokerage operator, was a wheeler-dealer with a flare for luxury and a love for flying his own helicopter.

He died in the crash of a helicopter, leaving his business empire, Dobich Securities Corp., in wreckage as well.

Although his own helicopter was being repaired last July 10, Dobich could not resist the temptation to arrive at an Indianapolis party in a whirlybird and highlight the guests' evening with a trip aloft.

★ ★ ★

Dobich's rented helicopter faltered in flight and plunged into a field, killing him and injuring his young secretary. Three days later, his firm filed for bankruptcy.

579 FILE CLAIMS

Dobich's firm handled more than $6 million in stocks in the Midwestern United Life Insurance Co., Fort Wayne, Ind., with 579 persons filing claims from 137 Indiana cities and towns totaling $2,878,881.

The claims ranged from great amounts — nine persons having purchased more than $25,000 in stock — to amounts in the low hundreds.

The hardest hit, perhaps, will be the stockbroker's widow. Sources said Dobich's corporation had purchased $435,000 in life insurance with his wife named as beneficiary.

★ ★ ★

Attorney Donald Buttrey, named receiver in bankruptcy for the corporation, has moved in court to stop payment of the premiums to the widow.

Buttrey said in the course of his investigation into the firm's records, he has found little which would bring investors more than a few pennies on the dollar for money spent on the stock.

Five Rezoning Requests Go Before Board

Waterford Township Board will consider five rezoning requests Monday night in addition to receiving monthly reports for July from the police, fire and water departments.

★ ★ ★

All five rezoning requests are first notices. Public hearings and final decisions will come at forthcoming meetings.

The Township Planning Commission and Oakland County Coordinating Zoning Committee have already recommended approval or denial on each request.

Three of the requests were made in hopes of eventually constructing new apartment dwellings on M59 near Hospital, in Dixie Trail Subdivision on Rossiter near Oakland and at Airport at Hatchery.

★ ★ ★

The other requests are to rezone a parcel in the proposed Woodhull Lake Subdivision and 14 lots in the Cass-Highland Subdivision on Elizabeth Lake Road near Tilden to single family residential.

Hundreds Turn Out for Demonstrations Protesting U.S. Policy in Viet Nam

★ ★ ★

In Washington Friday about 600 persons attended a four-hour rally in a park across from the White House to mark the beginning of what was called a four-day assembly of unrepresented people. A smaller number staged a sit-in at a White House gate. Scores of police were on guard against outbreaks.

★ ★ ★

In Bloomington, Ind., more than 100 Indiana University students and a few professors paraded downtown with such signs as "Stop the slaughter of Vietnamese people."

A 100-member delegation of the assembly sought unsuccessfully to present a "declaration of conscience" to President Johnson. When he refused to receive it personally, about 60 pickets staged a sit-in at an entrance to the White House grounds.

★ ★ ★

The sit-in party sought to continue its vigil through the night, but by midnight it had dwindled to a band of about a dozen sharing one water jug and a few packs of cigarettes.

At least as many police ringed the young men and women slumped on the sidewalk.

NOT ALLOWED BACK

The police strategy: Cut the pickets off from food, water or bedding.

There were two arrests, both involving the same young man. One he tried to throw a water bag. Later, police said, he tried to rejoin the group.

FIGHTING DENOUNCED

Earlier, speakers at the rally here denounced fighting in Viet Nam, called for admission of Red China to the United Nations and noted that the day marked the 20th anniversary of the dropping of an atomic bomb on Hiroshima, Japan.

Folk singer Joan Baez and other musicians performed between speeches as the demonstrators, many wearing blue jeans and sandals, milled about.

The assembly began to break up at the end of a long, hot afternoon, and Miss Baez said: "I don't think the President gives much of a damn."

Some pickets distributed pamphlets asking contributions for the "Committee To Aid the National Liberation Front of South Viet Nam." The liberation front is the Communist Viet Cong group.

A. J. Muste, 81, national chairman of the Committee for Non-Violent Action, told newsmen there might be some Communists in the crowd but he doubted it. He said the group was not controlled by Communists, but represented such social movement organizations as the Catholic Worker, Student Peace Union and War Resisters League.

By JACOBY & SON

North and South were two experts playing in a catch-as-catch-can rubber bridge game.

They were experts, but they were also old - fashioned experts who did not believe in the Gerber four club convention.

JACOBY

However, when expert South opened one no-trump, expert North decided that he had a perfect hand to bid four clubs pert North decided that he had a perfect hand to bid four clubs to ask for aces. He felt sure that his partner would read his bid as Gerber whereupon expert North would be able to sign off at four spades or bid six or seven as the occasion warranted.

Sure enough, South read the four club bid and responded four spades to show three aces. Of course, in the Gerber convention four diamonds shows no aces; four hearts one; and four spades two; but old-fashioned expert South could not really be expected to know this.

Fortunately for North and South's peace of mind expert North was equally unfamiliar with Gerber. In Blackwood he knew that spades showed three aces. It ought to be the same in Gerber. South read his partner for three aces. He could count to thirteen tricks and bid seven no-trump.

Like most of this week's articles on misunderstandings there is a serious side to this article. It should serve as a warning to players who may intend to use the Gerber convention that they make sure they know how many aces their responses show.

Q—The bidding has been:

What do you do?

A—Bid two spades provided you are sure that partner won't play you for a very big hand. If you fear that contingency bid one spade only.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Fear Dogged His Trail

Safe Now for Mailman

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — A postman who said "nuts" to the old axiom that the mail must go through was back on his rounds today at the end of a two-week suspension of delivery service brought on by mean-looking, growling dogs.

Wary postal officials toured the area of Martha Place and declared the street apparently was no longer inhabitated by capricious canines bent on a nip or two at the postman.

Officials had canceled delivery service on the street when the postman claimed his safety was endangered by the unfriendly dogs.

Residents immediately complained about the hardship of having to go to the nearest post office, about three or four miles away, for their mail.

★ ★ ★

"Once or twice a lady from down the street brought my mail to me," said one woman. "My baby is sick a lot and I can't get out often."

Mrs. Bonnie Pitcher had offered to provide the mailman with a mothers' escort. "If the postman is scared," she said, "we'll go down to the end of the street and bring him around."

★ ★ ★

A spokesman for Postmaster Claude Bakewell reported the area looked safe now. "There were no dogs in evidence while our authorities were on the block, so we decided to resume deliveries."

Store Offers Some Help to Picketing Group

CANTON, Miss. (UPI) — A group of 25 white and Negro pickets paraded for three hours Frideay in front of a store to protest alleged job discrimination.

★ ★ ★

The store took notice of the demonstration. An official placed a sign in the display window: "For tired feet, four cans of foot powder, one dollar."

CONTINUE ADVANCE — The Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced for the second straight week, closing yesterday at 328.6, up from 326.3 a week ago. The commodity index moved higher for the second week, closing at 173.5 from 172.6 a week ago. The index is at the highest point since May 28, 1958.

Market Posts Gain Despite Nervousness

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market eked out another gain this week, its second straight, despite some nervousness over the international situation and the rising price of gold in Britain.

The daily gains on average were at times barely worth recording but by week's end there was no doubt whatsoever that stocks were rising on balance in the past five trading days.

GAINERS HOLD EDGE

A few component stocks could have accounted for that much gain in either average, even if the over-all market had been falling. As things happen, however, gainers outnumbered losers by 899 to 455 among the 1,531 issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

The flood of improved second-quarter earnings and, in many cases, raised dividends, helped give courage to investors.

An exception to the parade of higher dividends was afforded by General Motors which disappointed the street by declaring only the usual 75-cent payout. Some Wall Streeters had looked for a stock split or a special, fatter dividends payment.

The result was that GM advanced before the dividend news but declined afterward. It came back in favor and ended with a net gain for the week of 1⅜ at 98⅞.

The five most active issues this week on the New York Stock Exchange were:

Selling Wave Hits Soybean Corn Prices

CHICAGO (AP) — Corn and soybeans absorbed a good deal of selling pressure in the grain futures market this week as crop prospects were reported considerably improved following fairly heavy rainfall in areas believed to have been on the verge of drought.

In numerous spot checks and in the government's weekly reports, both corn and soybeans were described as making excellent progress in many localities despite unusually cool weather.

Declines in soybeans ran to more than 6 cents a bushel while corn lost more than 2 at the extreme. Wheat, oats and rye finished substantial gains.

The support for wheat was credited largely to continued speculative demand and it was the third consecutive week of advances. During that period the September delivery climbed from $1.44 to $1.50½ a bushel.

SPECULATIVE BUYING

Brokers said a fairly brisk export business coupled with an unusually slow movement of the 1965 crop to market had induced the speculative buying. Some market analysts said it had been years since producers had sold such scant amounts of the grain at harvest time.

★ ★ ★

A private crop report at the end of the week estimated soybean production will reach 858 million bushels, a record by about 158 million. The corn yield is estimated at 4,017 million bushels. Dealers say the soybean supply will be far in excess of requirements but that all the corn probably will be needed.

Two Road Mishaps Kill 11 in Oklahoma

PURCELL, Okla. (AP) — Seven persons — three women and four young girls — were killed Friday night in a two-car head-on collision on a rainswept highway in central Oklahoma.

A few hours later, two boys and two girls were killed when a Santa Fe Railroad freight train hit their car in Oklahoma City

Butcher Hogs Steady to Higher on Small Supply

CHICAGO (AP)—The butcher hog market showed little day-to-day change this week and closed steady to 25 cents a hundredweight higher for a supply only slightly above last week's small run.

The week's top went to $25.35 on Wednesday. It compared with $25.25 last week and $17.75 a year ago. The average cost of all butcher grades was estimated at $24.60, up 21 cents from the previous week. A year ago it was $16.89.

The supply of cattle increased about 12 per cent this week and became a weakening factor in the trade most of the period. However, slaughter steers close steady to mostly 25 cents higher after a rather broad advance in Friday's trade.

Most Bonds Show Decline

International Events Are Factor in Drop

The key development was a report by the British Treasury showing a $114 million decline in that nation's reserves during July. The report pushed the price of gold to a four-year high Friday at $35.19⅜ a troy ounce on the London Exchange.

Because of the close alliance of the pound and the dollar in international finance, the British money problems were reflected in lower prices of U.S. government securities.

Indirectly, the developments also affected corporate bond prices.

SPECULATION

Other international developments affecting prices included speculation that the improvement in the U.S. balance of payments situation is temporary and continuing concern over the Viet Nam war.

Of the 40 Treasury bond issues, 39 declined in price, some as much as 8-32nds. One issue advanced slightly in price.

★ ★ ★

Prices of high quality corporate bonds declined about 8-32nds to 16-32nds during the week. Yields edged up slightly.

On the New York Stock Exchange volume totaled a par value of $50.98 million.

Of 497 issues traded, 208 advanced in price, 168 declined and 121 were unchanged.

Prices of municipal bonds were mixed. The average yield for quality issues remained about the same at 3.25 per cent. That is below the year's high average yield of 3.3 per cent, but well above the 3.04 per cent of the winter months.

Two Area Men Form Company

A new "space age" company has been formed by two area men.

Only, in this case, the "space" is storage space which can be saved through the use of microfilming company records.

John P. Laucks of 457 Bay, is president of the newly-formed Advanced Microfilm Co. at 13751 W. Eleven Mile, Oak Park.

He is a former sales manager and general manager of Ford automobile agencies.

★ ★ ★

Richard Lurie, 1079 Forest, Bloomfield Township, a partner, is secretary-treasurer of the new company which provides microfilming services rather than the sale of microfilming equipment. Lurie is a former Ford dealer.

CODED REEL

"With microfilming, a coded reel of film is dropped into a 'reader'," Laucks said.

"After viewing, a full-size facsimile copy is made by merely pushing a button."

"Microfilm copies are accepted by all local, state and federal government agencies and by the courts as legal documents," Laucks said.

"When it is realized that a single 100-foot reel of microfilm will record 8,500 documents of letterhead size or 29,000 check-sized documents, the immense potential savings are obvious," Laucks concluded.

Ghanaian to LBJ

Note Value Minimized

WASHINGTON (AP) — There was no direct message from the North Vietnamese to President Johnson in a letter delivered by Foreign Minister Alex Quaison-Sackey of Ghana, diplomatic sources said today.

The letter, from Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah, contained nothing to brighten the prospects for peace negotiations, it was understood. Quaison-Sackey would not talk to newsmen about its contents.

* * *

The message, delivered at the White House Friday, had aroused considerable advance speculation because, only a day earlier, Nkrumah had received a communication from President Ho Chi Minh of North Viet Nam, with whom he is friendly.

Quaison-Sackey, who is also president of the U.N. General Assembly, met with Johnson and, the White House later indicated, received assurances the United States has no present plans to bomb Hanoi, capital of North Viet Nam. U.S. officials have repeatedly said as much.

VOICES CONCERN

Presidential Press Secretary Bill D. Moyers said Quaison-Sackey reported Hanoi had expressed concern about a visit from Nkrumah because of possible bombings. Moyers said Johnson had told the envoy, "That concern was unnecessary because there is no U.S. military action against Hanoi . . . 'not a bomb has fallen there'."

* * *

But when asked whether this meant there is no plan to bomb the city in the foreseeable future, Moyers said, "I would not read into the statement anything beyond what is obvious."

He said Johnson also had told Quaison-Sackey "that the quickest way to peace is for aggression from the north to cease." There was no discussion of peace negotiations, Moyers said. He told newsmen the details of the correspondence between Johnson and Nkrumah will be made public after Johnson replies to the communication he received.

PEACE ENVOY

Nkrumah is one of the four Commonwealth peace envoys picked last month by the London Conference of Commonwealth Nations to explore the possibilities of peace in Viet Nam. Hanoi immediately said it would not welcome a visit by the four. The Communists received, however, Kwesi Armah, Nkrumah's special envoy, who brought back to Accra a special message from Ho Chi Minh.

Nkrumah apparently indicated in his letter to Johnson he would go to Hanoi himself. In addition to being a member of the Commonwealth team, he was one of the 17 heads of state and prime ministers of nonaligned nations who signed an appeal last March in Belgrade for peace talks on Viet Nam. The appeal was swiftly rejected by the Hanoi regime.

Before his call at the White House, Quaison-Sackey had lunch with Secretary of State Dean Rusk. He will return to Accra Monday.

Bridge Group Backs Charge

Findings Carry No Sanctions in Scandal

CHICAGO (AP) — The American Contract Bridge League said Friday that the World Bridge Federation has supported cheating charges made against two noted British players.

An ACBL spokesman said the federation's executive committee ruled that Terence Reese and Boris Schapiro had "illegally" conveyed signals during the world bridge championships in Buenos Aires, Argentina, last spring.

The spokesman said the federation ruling was made at a hearing May 23, shortly after the incident purportedly took place. He said that the federation surpressed its finding from public dissemination and passed jurisdiction in the matter to the British Bridge League.

The spokesman said the federation's findings carry no sanctions, but that the British league will hold hearings on the charges in September and that it could discipline Reese and Schapiro. Both men have denied the charges.

BROUGHT CHARGES

After the allegations were made, the captain of the British team withdrew Reese and Schapiro from competition and conceded two matches.

The spokesman for the American league said league directors disclosed the findings "because Reese and Schapiro have been acting and talking in public in England as if they were innocent and the American players were the guilty ones."

In London, informed sources said an independent inquiry has opened into the charges upon request of the British league. Sir John Foster, a Conservative member of parliament and prominent lawyer, is the investigator in the private inquiry. Both players, legally represented, have testified, the sources said.

Detroit Police 'Down' Copter —Wrong One

DETROIT (AP)— A Canadian helicopter reporting traffic conditions for a Windsor, Ont., radio station was forced to land by Detroit police Friday in an international incident that everybody later agreed was a mistake.

The station, CKLW, said the chopper was grounded at gunpoint. Police denied drawing their guns.

Newscaster Terry Pickford of CKLW said it happened like this:

Police got a complaint from Herbert Dewey, who was fishing in the Detroit River, that a helicopter had buzzed within five feet of his parked car before landing to let out a passenger.

When officers arrived, the Gordon Airways chopper rented by CKLW was hovering nearby. Assuming it was the offending craft, they held up a sign telling the pilot to land.

The copter hovered about four feet off the ground while CKLW's Ron Lindsay dropped a note explaining their craft was Canadian and didn't have clearance to land on U.S. soil.

Then officers drew their guns and forced the helicopter to land, Pickford said.

Officers said Dewey then told them they had the wrong chopper. Police then released the craft.

Three Hurt Battling Big Fire Near Albion

DEVEREAUX (AP) — Fire destroyed the storage and sales facilities of Devereaux Furniture Co., north of Albion Friday.

Three fire fighters were injured in battling the blaze for 45 minutes before it was brought under control. None of the men was injured seriously, said Jerry Sandusky, chief of the Sheraton Township Fire Department.

The government has perfected an "ear" that listens in on atmospheric sounds too low for humans to hear. It can hear tornadoes hundreds of miles away, earthquakes around the earth.

SILENT WORLD—In hopes that someday these hard-of-hearing children can leave their silent world and enjoy music, five rock 'n' roll bands like "Bobby and the Quintels" (above) will enterain at a benefit 11 a.m.-7 p.m. tomorrow at the John F. Apartment Fire Damage $2,500; Cause Unknown

Pontiac firemen were called to 293 Osmun early today to extinguish a blaze in a two-family apartment.

The fire broke out in a closet in the one-story building, firemen said, damage was confined to a small area.

Damage to the building and contents was estimated at $2,500 by fire officials. Cause of the 4:41 a.m. blaze is still undetermined.

King Is Silent on Course in Greek Political Crisis

ATHENS, (AP) — King Constantine concluded his consultations with political leaders today, but gave no indication of what course he intends to follow to resolve Greece's 23-day political crisis.

The 25-year-old monarch is expected to make known his decision at a meeting Saturday evening with ex-premier George Papandreou, the man he ousted in a dispute over leadership of the army.

★ ★ ★

Papandreou, 77, has demanded that he be recalled to the premiership or that general elections be held, but many politicians speculated that the King would follow a third course — appoint a compromise premier from Papandreou's Center Union party.

EXPRESSES CONFIDENCE

Papandreou, head of the majority Center Union party, has expressed confidence that he will return to power either by royal mandate or popular vote.

The king has been consulting political leaders since Thursday, when the palace-backed government of Premier George Athanasiadis Novas lost a confidence vote in parliament.

Relations between the king and Papandreou have improved, and Stephanos Stephanopoulos, Papandreou's deputy premier before the crisis, felt "encouraged and optimistic" after seeing the king.

Elias Tsirimokos, interior minister in the former Papandreou cabinet, also saw Constantine Friday night and said later the king was "deeply convinced that the Center Union must form the government."

STUDENTS DEMONSTRATE

While the king met with leaders in the palace Friday night, 2,000 students demonstrated for Papandreou at Athens University. The demonstration proceeded peacefully.

It was organized by the National Students Union, the same organization that called the July 21 rally which turned into a riot. One student was killed and more than 100 hurt.

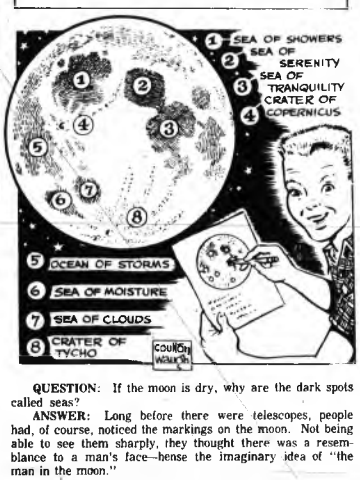
★ ★ ★

Athanasiadis Novas, also a member of the Center Union party, remains premier despite the parliamentary defeat until the king decides his next move.

Because Constantine appointed the now-rejected Athanasiadis Novas, many politicians feel it would be easier for the king to call new elections than to recall Papandreou, the man he fired.

Under the constitution, elections may be called within 45 days after a government is rejected by parliament on a vote of no confidence.

Junior Editors Quiz on THE MOON



QUESTION: If the moon is dry, why are the dark spots called seas?

ANSWER: Long before there were telescopes, people had, of course, noticed the markings on the moon. Not being able to see them sharply, they thought there was a resemblance to a man's face—hense the imaginary idea of "the man in the moon."

Later, after telescopes had been invented in 1608 A.D., the dark areas were thought to be seas, because water generally looks dark.

Such names as the Sea of Showers, Sea of Moisture and so on, seem quaint to us today, since our powerful telescopes show us that the so-called "seas" are flat plains of some darker ground material.

Exactly what the moon's surface is like we do not know as yet—but astronauts will probably be able to tell us all about it before too long, when they actually land.

Many of these features have been given names in honor of famous astronomers, like the crater Copernicus, named after the 16th century astronomer who first realized that the earth revolved around the sun, and Tycho, named for another great astronomer, Tycho Brahe, of long ago.

FOR YOU TO DO: As George is doing in our picture, make a copy of our artist's moon drawing (or paste his drawing on a card) and carry this outside when the moon is full. With binoculars, you'll be able to locate the general position of the seas and be better prepared to understand newspaper accounts of coming events.

Believes Other Planets May Be Beyond Pluto

MOSCOW (AP) — A leading Soviet astronomer said today the boundaries of the solar system are much farther out than is usually believed and undiscovered planets may exist beyond Pluto.

Gleb Chebotarev, head of the Theoretical Astronomy Institute here, told Tass news agency that, according to his figures, the diameter of the solar system measures 43 million miles.

This, he added, means that its boundaries are six thousand times farther out than Pluto, the most remote of all discovered planets.

★ ★ ★

"The existing instruments have given the astronomers a chance to study only an insignificant part of the hugh solar system," Chebotarev said. "It is necessary to seek now, yet unknown planets."

Drive Against Drink Ends Up in the Clink

ALPENA (AP — Robert Alexander's door-to-door preaching campaign against consumption of alcohol came to an end Thursday night at the door of Earl Chase, authorities said.

CHICAGO (AP) — New Social Security law amendments will extend monthly payments to 42,000 additional Michigan residents in 1966 and boost total payments in Michigan by $158 million, a federal official said Friday.

Melville H. Hosch, regional director of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, said total Social Security payments in Michigan would reach $966 million in 1966 and $1.1 billion in 1967.

Star TV Songman Voices Plea for Show Biz Decency

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Pat Boone allows that he is a lone voice howling out against changing sex codes . . . that one day recently he heard himself yelling back at a TV show which seemed to be approving school love affairs.

WILSON

"Why, you idots!" he was screaming at a woman psychiatrist and an opera star on the Mike Douglas program from Cleveland.

"Shirley"—Pat's wife—"was fixing her hair," he said. "She said to me, 'will you shut up? They can't hear you!"

But Pat, the onetime Tennessee and Texas ministerial student who still hankers for the pulpit, says he's right. He was cheered — and startled — recently when a Vatican paper, without notice, applauded him, a member of the Church of Christ, for being "a gentleman."

"It gave me a renewed incentive for my campaign to try to get some clean wholesome things on TV and in the movies," Pat remarked when I saw him in his hotel suite. He was lighting one of four pipes that were visible, and in the background was the soft singing of the Righteous Brothers on a record player.

He was interrupted by a phone call from a friend telling him about forthcoming church services.

"I might see you at that 10 o'clock service, I probably will . . ." Pat said, and he hung up.

★ ★ ★

"I went to see, 'What's New Pussycat?" Pat chuckles. "Woody Allen was a writer on my TV show . . . one of his first jobs. You couldn't help but laugh and scream, but why couldn't that creativity be used toward something clean?

THE WEEKEND WINDUP . . .

Eddie Fisher turned down 3 different formats for his own TV show—and signed instead to do Sullivan and Dean Martin's show . . . The Supremes, now at the Copa, may have roles in the Beatles' next picture; they're the moptops' favorite singers (and from Detroit yet!).

N.Y. Street Scene: A rough-looking teen-age boy on a motorcycle—wearing curlers! . . . The Beach Set that caught Patty Duke in her bikini'll tell you she's not long for kiddie roles . . . Caesars Palace, a new Vegas hotel, will have a time capsule that'll feature a print of "Cleopatra."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Parents these days are either worried about their kids dropping out or their relations dropping in.—Sid Allen.

EARL'S PEARLS: Contrary to popular belief (said a Pen & Pencil diner), a tight bathing suit on a girl doesn't stop her circulation — it helps it.

Poll Tax Challenge Will Launch Justice Dept. Enforcement of New Voting Rights Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Department of Justice presses the button today to start enforcement of the new law against obstacles to Negro voting.

The department is going into court at Jackson, Miss., to challenge that state's poll tax. Federal voting registration machinery will be set up next week in still-undesignated areas in the South, and additional poll tax suits will be filed.

★ ★ ★

Atty. Gen. Nicholas DeB. Katzenbach had no prediction of how many new Negro voters the law would bring to the polls.

"As the President said, this act and its enforcement open the gates," he told a reporter. "Walking through them is up to individual Negroes throughout the South.

NOW POSSIBLE

"But we would hope, in any event, that it is now possible for a good many thousand Negro citizens to be registered by the end of the year."

★ ★ ★

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., civil rights leader, has said workers expect to help some 900,000 Southern Negroes register by the end of the month. He hailed the new law Friday as one that "will go a long way toward removing all the obstacles to the right to vote."

★ ★ ★

President Johnson had some advice for Negroes when he went to the Capitol Friday to sign the bill amid historic ceremony.

"You must register," Johnson said. "You must vote. And you must learn so your choice advances your interest and the interest of the nation."

★ ★ ★

By publication in the Federal Register today, the Justice Department brings about specific application of the ban on voter qualification tests in areas where less than half the adult population balloted in last November's election. The tests are banned in Alabama, Louisiana, Georgia, Mississippi, South Carolina, Virginia, Alaska, part of North Carolina and scattered counties elsewhere.

Charged With Murder

Texan Held in Coed Killings

Bodies Found on July 30 in Austin Field

Complaint Against Student, 22, Says He Strangled Both Girls

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—A muscular 22-year-old University of Texas student was charged with murder last night in the slaying of two young women whose nearly nude bodies were found July 30 in a weed field.

James C. Cross Jr., handsome son of a Forth Worth chain store advertising executive, was charged in the death of Susan Rigsby and Shirley Ann Stark, both 21, beautiful, brunette and from Dallas.

State Police Director Homer Garrison told a news conference that Cross voluntarily signed a statement. Cross then was taken to the Travis County Jail where he was held without bond.

★ ★ ★

Dist. Atty. Tom Blackwell said the case would go to the grand jury "as soon as possible." He said he "absolutely" would seek the death penalty.

CLIMAXED PROBE

Filing of the charges against Cross climaxed a day-and-night investigation that started out as a missing persons search.

The young women last were seen alive July 18. Their decomposed bodies were found in a vacant lot on the north edge of Austin 12 days later.

They had come to Austin to enroll Miss Rigsby in summer classes at the University. Miss Stark left the university in June.

★ ★ ★

Garrison declined to say whether the statement mentioned any sexual assault on the women.

SEVERAL DATES

In a statement to Austin police early in the investigation, Cross said he had dated Miss Stark several times and had talked to her over the telephone July 18.

Garrison quoted Cross' statement as saying the women were slain in Austin in midafternoon of July 18.

The police director refused, however, to divulge the alleged motive or the place where the statement said — if it did —

WRECKED DRAWBRIDGE — This is the wrecked drawbridge across the Trenton Channel of the Detroit River near Grosse Ile after it was rammed yesterday by the ore freighter John T. Hutchinson. The freighter missed the opening of the bridge and toppled one section of the structure and three vehicles into the channel close to the river's mouth at Lake Erie. No injuries were reported.

Tax Talks Face Dim Prospects

By DICK BARNES
Associated Press Writer

LANSING — The coming Mackinac Island tax reform meeting of legislators and Gov. George Romney is looking less and less influential on what financial course the state will take.

House Speaker Joseph Kowalski has snubbed the Thursday and Friday meeting with the declaration, "It is doubtful that anything of value will be produced."

Romney and about two dozen legislators designated earlier in the year by party caucuses will try to reach agreement on a program to raise the $200 million they say is needed in the next two years to keep Michigan from going into the red.

They'll be working from six tax plans presented in late July — all but one of them embodying an income tax.

Dzendzel told the Associated Press, however, that still-burgeoning sales tax receipts and other guideposts of the economy indicate trouble may not come as soon as Romney predicts.

★ ★ ★

"We're still waiting for the final figures on the 1964-65 fiscal year," said Dzendzel. "The surplus could hit $130 or even $150 million. Each month's revenues are beyond what Romney predicted."

SPRING REVISION

The governor's spring surplus revision was up to $122-127 million from a January forecast of $105 million.

Romney says that spending in excess of revenues will eat up the surplus by July 1, 1967, hence: "We need fiscal reform now."

Dzendzel said he'll try to attend the Mackinac Island meeting to "get all the information I can." But he indicated that a major topic Senate Democrats will discuss at the September legislative session is the possibility of switching from pay-as-you-go to bonding for state construction.

"This would free $40 or $45 million a year for operations," Dzendzel said.

PUT OFF

"That could put an income tax off for 10 years or even longer."

Bonding would mean building state facilities the same way most persons build their house — with borrowed money repaid over a long term.

The Detroit Democrat said some senators are worried that making an income tax a prime base of state operations would be disastrous in a recession, when incomes would be down but state social costs up.

'Barleycorn's Boot Wets White House'

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Women's Christian Temperance Union (WCTU) has popped its cork about President Johnson's plan to install a wine cellar in the White House.

And to serve beer to teenagers. For shame!

Mrs. Fred T. Tooze, president of the ladies of abstinence, scolded President Johnson personally on both counts last night at the opening session of the WCTU's 91st convention.

"John Barleycorn's boot is in the White House door," she said, "and the President of the United States is helping to keep it there."

The President's plan "to put a wine cellar in the White House and the White House innovation of serving beer to teen-agers are to be condemned," she told the lady delegates.

In a mixture of nostalgic fervor and plans for a big centennial in 1974, the WCTU ladies celebrated the 91st year of their war on "King Alcohol." The group's name to the contrary, it does not advocate temperance but total abstinence.

Freighter Goes Astray, Hits Grosse Ile Bridge

RIVERVIEW (AP)—"When he was about 300 feet away, it seemed to me he was off course," said bridge tender Vincent Armbruster. "He kept coming like hell, so I yelled.

"There were people on the boat who were watching, too. They knew something was wrong."

Minutes after Armbruster yelled, the 620-foot Great Lakes freighter John T. Hutchinson smashed into the Grosse Ile toll bridge yesterday, knocking a bridge span, two cars and a truck into the Detroit River.

Police said all occupants of the cars on the bridge span saw the ship approaching at a wrong angle and ran to safety. No injuries were reported.

The 52-year-old bridge linked Grosse Ile with Riverview, a downriver suburb of Detroit. The bridge spanned about 1,200 feet of the river.

Armbruster, 57, of Grosse Ile, said the ship was going four or five miles an hour coming north up the channel after unloading a cargo of iron ore pellets at the nearby McLouth Steel Corp. plant.

Viet Hearings in Detroit Erupt

Witnesses, Spectators Shout and Hurl Insults

Oakland County Rep. William S. Broomfield, R-Royal Oak, and Rep. Charles Diggs, D-Detroit, held an unofficial hearing on Viet Nam in Detroit yesterday and found themselves in the midst of a verbal donnybrook.

Shouts of "Fascists" and "stinking traitors" echoed through the halls as attackers and defenders of President Johnson's Southeast Asia policies appeared before the Michigan congressmen.

Donald Lebsinger, chairman of Breakthrough, a conservative organization, charged the list of speakers was "loaded with leftists and liberals" who opposed inolvement in the Viet Nam war.

★ ★ ★

Two professors, Robert Howes of Oakland University and Max Mark of Wayne State, agreed that if free elections were held in South Viet Nam, a slate favoring the Communists would win.

WITH CONG

"If we genuinely want a peaceful settlement in Viet Nam we would have to negotiate with the Viet Cong," Mark said.

"We would have to accept the unification of Viet Nam on the basis of a plebiscite which, frankly, would amount to a unification under Ho Chi Minh."

★ ★ ★

"But we could save the most important interest of the U.S.—namely, the neutralization of Viet Nam," Mark added.

Freak Auto Fatality in Commerce

A Commerce Township man was killed in a freak auto accident this morning on a vacant lot behind his home.

Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies said Riley was killed when he was run over by a car driven by his daughter, Mrs. Diane Riley Estes, 25, of 156½ Edison.

According to Deputy Robert MacFarlane, Riley and his daughter returned to the Oriole residenc shortly after 1.

GOING INSIDE

She told MacFarlane that her father said he was going inside the house.

The deputy said that after Mrs. Estes backed out of the lot to return to Pontiac, she noticed her brakes were not working.

She said she drove around the block, and then returned the car to the vacant lot, according to MacFarlane.

★ ★ ★

She returned to Pontiac in a car driven by her husband.

15 MINUTES LATER

Riley's body was found about 15 minutes later when his wife arrived home.

MacFarlane said the brake line was broken when the woman ran over the body. He said this caused the subsequent brake failure.

The sheriff's deputies have listed the death as a traffic fatality, but indicated the accident was still under investigation.

West Bloomfield

Ten Held in Area Melee

Police received the call reporting a riot at 11:40 and issued a general alarm. Law enforcers from 10 stations in the area responded as 14 cars rushed to the scene.

Described by Police Chief Melvin Will as a riot by two opposing factions, more than 50 persons, many believed to be armed with guns and knives, were fighting when police arrived.

Those held at the Oakland County Jail are Commerce Township residents Raymond Staniecki, 18, of 6143 Borowy; Alvin Black, 17, of 5983 Pickbourne; Charles Schultz, 17, of 8792 Buffalo; Joseph Kostansek, 23, of 1785 W. Maple; and Robert Kopka, 20, of 5630 Arenic; and Howard Langstaff, 20, of 2783 Potter, Wixom.

★ ★ ★

The juveniles were turned over to juvenile authorities.

FLOCK TO SCENE

State police, the sheriff's department, and Walled Lake, Wixom, Keego Harbor, Wolverine Lake, Sylvan Lake, Orchard Lake, and Farmington police departments assisted township police.

Youths from 14 to 23 years of age were involved in the riot, according to Chief Will.

The riot was dispersed within a half-hour, police report, but officers remained at the scene until 3 a.m. checking the area.

There were no serious injuries reported and no gunfire, according to police.

Employe Hospitalized in Gas Station Blaze

KALAMAZOO (AP) — An explosion and fire possibly linked to an auxiliary motor pump caused extensive damage Friday to a large gasoline storage tank at a Kalamazoo refinery and hospitalized an employe with severe burns.

'BRIGHT' IDEA — It didn't take too long in yesterday's 95-degree heat for 14-year-old Nancy Lund to remember that old expression about the sun, an egg and the sidewalk. So Nancy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Taylor of 54 Mohawk, and some of her friends got an egg and magnifying glasses and set up a driveway "kitchen." The result: a one-hour egg . . . sunny side up.

Mercury Hits 95

Ol' Sol Uncorks a Blazer

Ol' Sol poured out his blistering beams on the Pontiac area yesterday until he finally pulled the mercury up to a sweltering 95 degrees, matching the highest temperature for the year to date. It also hit 95 on July 24.

The weatherman said high temperatures will climb into the 80s over the weekend. Tonight's low is expected to drop into the 60s.

Occasional showers and thundershowers forecast for tonight will bring cooler temperatures tomorrow, the high near 77 to 83.

The mercury dipped to 70 at 5 a.m. today, then rose to 82 at 1 p.m.

1st Year Wins Praise for Warren

By L. GARY THORNE

JOSEPH A. WARREN

Joseph A. Warren completes his first year's tenure this week as Pontiac City Manager.

Projecting an image as the efficient, all-purpose administrator, Warren appears to have won nothing but widespread support for his programs and personality.

Clean-cut and neat in conservative blue suit, Warren has secured a good grip on the sometimes troubled chair of city manager.

The City Commission that brought the veteran city administrator from his post in Jackson gave his first-year effort a public vote of confidence at Tuesday's commission meeting.

The soft-voiced Warren has initiated changes at City Hall.

BUDGET FACETS

He has changed the city's budget procedure. Commissioners have repeatedly commented that they now have a better understanding of city finances.

At the weekly commission meetings, Warren has presented capsule reviews of various aspects of city finances. His reports have removed some of the mystery behind municipal operations.

Warren has also launched a concentrated campaign against substandard housing, setting up regular weekly meetings with his staff in an effort to remove or improve housing eyesores.

★ ★ ★

The city manager's efforts in this area have received added impetus by the insistence of federal urban renewal officials that Pontiac have a systematic program of housing code enforcement.

REORGANIZATION

Warren also reorganized portions of the water and finance departments, transferring water bill collection duties from the finance department to the water department.

One of the manager's most vital concerns has been the redevelopment of the downtown area. Warren said that this effort has claimed more of his time in the past year than any other single matter.

S. Viet Outposts Shelled by Communist Mortars

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Communist guerrillas set up a steady barrage of mortar attacks early today against government outposts in a Mekong Delta region south of the capitol, a U.S. military spokesman said.

The Viet Cong shelled the Vietnamese positions, ranging from 100 miles to 125 miles southwest of Saigon, with 60mm and 81mm mortar rounds, an officer reported.

Vietnamese casualties were reported as "light" in some of the attacks. There were no reports of casualties in others.

In another development, a government unit was reported to have uncovered a major Viet Cong medical facility in a jungle area 35 miles southwest of Saigon. Vietnamese troops who discovered the center Friday 10 miles north of Tan Hiep reported they found fresh food there.

The unit also uncovered a Viet Cong ammunition factory and a supply depot. The bodies of 25 dead Viet Cong also were said to have been discovered. The spokesman said they apparently had been killed by air strikes.

The medical facility reportedly consisted of 14 wards, each capable of holding from 10 to 20 patients. Five tons of medicine equipment and supplies were found.

The Viet Cong's call for help from Hanoi has raised speculation about the motives behind it.

* * *

Some viewed the appeal, broadcast today by Hanoi Radio, as an indication that the Communists are feeling the manpower pinch. U. S. officials claim the guerrillas have suffered heavy losses recently.

Another theory was that the statement was a prelude to some new action by Hanoi or a move to strengthen its bargaining position should there be a new approach to negotiations.

South Viet Nam's military government said today former strongman Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh is under investigation in connection with missing funds and has been ousted from his post as roving ambassador.

It said he was being "called back for investigation of the money confiscated" after the collapse of the Ngo Dinh Diem regime in November 1963.

FORD SURPRISED

In Washington, Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Michigan says he is surprised at some interpretations of his mention of the possibility of a congressional declaration of war in Viet Nam.

The GOP House leader said he was merely expressing concern, not advocating such a step.

Ford, in a statement recorded last Wednesday for television station KNXT-TV, Los Angeles, said that "under the circumstances of our commitment in Viet Nam and unless President Johnson has mitigating circumstances that should control, the honest thing would be for Congress to back up the President's decision by a declaration of emergency or war."

the women were killed. He said the statement implicated no one other than Cross.

* * *

He declined to give more information from the statement because he said, officers are not sure how a new Texas code of criminal procedure governs release of information to news media.

CAME ALONE

Officers said Cross came to headquarters alone to make the statement.

Garrison said, "we are pretty proud of the investigation. As far as we're concerned, the case is clear."

He said Cross waived legal counsel before giving the statement but was advised of his rights by Justice of the Peace Frank McBee, in whose court the charges were filed.

The black-haired Cross was a sophomore in arts and sciences. He served three years in the Army, including service in Japan.

NATIONAL WEATHER — Showers are predicted tonight over portions of the Pacific Northwest and an area from the mid-Mississippi Valley eastward into the Ohio and Tennessee valley areas and parts of the mid and northern Atlantic states. It will be cooler over the upper plains and the Great Lakes with readings in the Ohio valley and Gulf Coast.

CRASH SITE — A coroner's deputy checks the identification of one of eight persons killed when a light plane crashed shortly after takeoff from Long Beach, Calif., airport near here this morning. The plane hit in a cemetery. Two bodies were found in the wreckage. The others were thrown out near houses about 20 yards from the wreckage.

'Didn't Shove Dead Officer'

Congressman's Son Held in Mississippi

WEST POINT, Miss. (AP) — The son of a Wisconsin congressman, charged with manslaughter after a state highway patrolman dropped dead in this northeast Mississippi town, says he didn't shove the officer.

REUSS

Dist. Atty. Harvey Buck said trooper B. Cowart, 53, was attempting to frisk 18-year-old Mike Reuss when the youth turned around, grabbed Cowart and shoved him away.

"I didn't know anything about a man being dead until they told me in jail," said Reuss, whose father is Rep. Henry S. Reuss, D-Wis.

* * *

Young Reuss has been in Mississippi since June as a volunteer civil rights worker. He will be a sophomore at Stanford University next month.

He told Sheriff Joe Strickland that an officer plucked a button with a civil rights slogan from his shirt "and I said I'll take the other one off and did."

The incident occurred under a blazing sun Friday as Cowart, a special investigator for the patrol, and other officers were arresting 45 civil rights demonstrators for blocking the sidewalks.

Buck said he filed manslaughter charges after being informed Reuss had pushed Cowart.

"I haven't had time to make a complete investigation," Buck said.

A doctor said Cowart died of an apparent heart attack.

Rep. Reuss and other members of his family were reported vacationing somewhere in England. The congressman's home is in Milwaukee.

Mike Reuss said he spent 10 days in a Jackson jail during June after his arrest for picketing the state capitol during a special legislative session called to ease the state's voter registration laws. Demonstrators jailed at Jackson were ordered released by a federal judge.

14 Steren Trial Jurors Go Home for the Weekend

MANISTEE (AP) — The 14 jurors in the Steren Assembly Club gambling case, now home for the weekend, are expected to start deliberations Monday on a verdict for the 20 accused men.

The trial took an unexpected turn Friday when defense attorney Carlton Roeser said he would not call any witnesses.

* * *

Oakland County Circuit Judge Frederick Ziem refused a request by Assistant County Prosecutor James F. Finn to lock up the jury for the weekend. Ziem told the jurors not to discuss the case with anybody, "even members of your immediate family."

The trial started July 22. It included only six days of testimony.

Plane Crash Leaves 8 Dead in California

LAKEWOOD, Calif. (AP) —A light plane, groping through heavy fog, crashed into a cemetery today, spewing bodies and plane parts into a suburban housing tract.

All eight aboard — members of two families — were killed, sheriff's deputies said. No one on the ground appeared to be hurt, they added.

* * *

"If the pilot had gone a little further he sure would have taken out another dozen people at least," said a sheriff's deputy.

LIKE EXPLOSION

"It was like an explosion," said John Hagedorn who lives a few yards away. "I looked out the back window and there was fire all over the back yard. I saw plane parts all over the yard — and two bodies."

Another body landed in the dining room window of Hagedorn's neighbor, Joseph Rhoades. A plane engine plowed through another neighbor's garage.

* * *

"The power went out," said Mrs. Rhoades, "and it was half an hour before I noticed the dining room curtain all bunched up. Then I saw blood on the dining room floor. I realized it was a man's body, hanging halfway over the windowsill."

ON VACATION

The plane was registered to James C. Thomas III of Pasadena, Calif., owner of the Hollywood Knickerbocker Hotel. His business associates said Thomas was believed to be in Chicago.

PLANE IMPACT

The plane impacted about 50 yards from the housing tract, deputies said. But debris was scattered to 100 yards.

One body was slammed into a cinder block fence. Another, that of a teen-age girl, was entombed in the wreckage of the cockpit.

Area Pilot Cheats Death Second Time

A man who had cheated death once during the past 15 months escaped with minor injuries yesterday when the small, experimental plane he was piloting plummeted into a swamp northeast of Pontiac Northern High School.

Robert D. Ruger, 42, of 483 Rochdale, Avon Township, was released from Pontiac General Hospital yesterday after facial cuts were treated.

Ruger told Pontiac police he had landed on the north side of a playground near the high school to retrieve an expensive topcoat which had fallen from the airplane.

Upon takeoff, his craft was caught in a downwind, and Ruger was unable to gain altitude.

* * *

He was apparently trying to dodge high-tension wires when the plane plunged into the tree-laden swamp, according to police.

SWAMP MEETING

Ruger was met on the edge of the swamp by Gale Ellis, 19, of 757 Second, who said he had heard the plane's motor quit, start up again, and then quit prior to the crash.

* * *

In May of 1964, the car Ruger was driving on I-75 in Pontiac Township was picked up by a tornado.

Ruger, who said it was the first time he had flown a car, was only scratched in that incident.

Yacht Missing After Squall

Coast Guard Starts Lake Michigan Hunt

TWO RIVERS, Wis. (AP) — Coast Guard ships and planes searched the broad expanse of Lake Michigan today for a missing yacht after a stormy night in which two other crippled vessels were towed to port.

A Chicago insurance executive and his wife spent seven hours adrift in their cabin cruiser, lost and out of gas, before a Coast Guard ship cut through five-foot waves to reach them.

"I kept telling my wife it was getting calm, but it was mainly to calm myself," said Sanford H. Lederer, 43.

Still missing after an overnight search was another cabin cruiser, the Kenmar, from which Mayday calls were heard by other ships shortly before sunset Friday as a summer squall churned the lake.

BOUND NORTH

The Coast Guard here said the 28-foot yacht left Port Washington, Wis., bound north earlier in the day. There was no indication of its ownership or how many persons were aboard.

The 40-foot yacht, Adebel, formerly named the Kenmar, was found moored at Sturgeon Bay, Wis., but its owner said he didn't broadcast the mayday.

A small tug, Barnacle Bill, was towed eleven miles by the Coast Guard to port at Kenosha, Wis., after its engine failed during the storm. A sailboat, O'Brien, had to be escorted to safety at Racine, Wis.

* * *

Lederer and his wife said they were on a weekend trip to Michigan in their 29-foot yacht, Jonah, when they discovered the compass was not working correctly and they were lost. Fifteen miles later, Lederer said, they ran out of gas.

"Every moment was uneasy," Lederer said as he recalled floundering helplessly until the Coast Guard reached the yacht 25 miles off Racine shortly before midnight.

"If anyone wants to buy a boat cheap, I'm willing," said Mrs. Lederer when they finally reached Racine under tow at 3:30 a.m.

But Lederer, sipping coffee five minutes after landing, told the Associated Press he and his wife would continue their trip today.

A Little Larceny? Tell Eliot Ness

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The 45-year-old son of Al Capone, ganglord of a bootleg and vice empire, was arrested Friday and charged with stealing two bottles of aspirin and a transistor radio battery — all worth $3.50.

Albert (Sonny) Capone was caught while pushing a cart loaded with groceries down a supermarket aisle. He was charged with petty larceny.

"Everyone has a little larceny in them," police quoted Capone as saying.

Witnesses Ready to Talk?

Hearings on Klan to Begin in October

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Committee on Un-American Activities apparently has found witnesses — possibly dissident Klansmen — willing to tell inside secrets about Ku Klux Klan operations.

Chairman Edwin E. Willis, D-La., wouldn't say so, but he did announce Tuesday that public hearings, delayed by a lengthy search for "friendly witnesses," would definitely begin in October.

* * *

When Willis disclosed March 30 that his committee had voted to carry out a formal investigation of the Klan, as requested by President Johnson, he expressed hope hearings could begin in "a couple of months."

But when his investigators fanned out through the South, they reportedly ran into more difficulties than they had expected.

Willis wants to use the same hearings technique with the Klan his committee employes in probing Communist activities — confronting recalcitrant witnesses with former insiders' testimony.

But, sources said, investigators had trouble locating persons willing and able to reveal details of Klan operations at a public hearing.

* * *

Dissident Klansmen and others with knowledge about Klan affairs were described as having been frightened by threats of physical, economic or social reprisal.

"They're scared to death, and we don't have the facilities for protecting witnesses like the FBI does," one source said.

WON'T TELL

Also, Klan officials said they would not break their oaths of secrecy by divulging inside workings of the invisible empire.

Robert Shelton of Tuscaloosa, Ala., imperial wizard of United Klans of America, Inc., the biggest of the Klans, was one of those quoted as refusing to cooperate with the probe.

* * *

Willis said the public hearings would start "no later than the 20th" of October.

He said subpoenas have been authorized, that "a large number of persons" have been and are being questioned by investigators and some prospective witnesses have already been heard in closed sessions.

* * *

Willis did not reveal how many subpoenas have been authorized or for whom. But other sources said at least 160 have been issued, many for Klan leaders.

Bloomfield Hills to Start 2nd Gifted Child Class

The board of education recently approved plans for the expansion and administrators now are busy selecting two teachers for the program.

* * *

When the program starts this fall, the pupils will be divided into two groups, one for kindergarten through third grade and the other for fourth through sixth grade.

WIDE RANGE

"This will resolve certain problems the teachers face in attempting to treat individually such a wide range of youngsters," Johnson said.

The program is geared to giving special attention to each student so that he or she can develop individual interests and aptitudes and advance at their own rate.

* * *

William schrot, the district's first teacher of gifted children, was followed by Shirley Friedly, who will return to regular classrooms this fall after two years in the special program.

DEVELOP IDEAS

Johnson noted that, by working with children on an individual basis, Schrot and Miss Friedly developed ideas which could be applied to the regular classrooms.

The superintendent said that each of the classes, which probably will meet at Vaughn Elementary School, will have 10 to 12 children in it.

Each participant is chosen on the basis of teacher and principal recommendations and is enrolled with the permission of the parents.

"Actually," he explains, "that's a long time for a city manager. You get in a rut with the same group of people, problems and geography.

FRESH START

"You need a new, fresh start," he added.

City Manager's First Year Brings Praise

* * *

On the firing line for 13 years as Jackson city manager, Warren said that many of Pontiac's current problems — downtown development, installation of water and sewers in unserviced areas, and storm drain installations—were problems he faced in his former post.

STORM DRAINS

He spoke of storm drains. "We used to cringe every time we had a good rain," Warren said of his days in Jackson.

Pontiac is confronted by the same conditions now. The rains bring a flood of complaints to City Hall.

2 Listed Serious After I-75 Crash in Pontiac Twp.

Two persons are in serious condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital following an auto accident early today on I-75 near Joslyn in Pontiac Township.

State Police at the Pontiac post said Beauchamp had stopped on the northbound shoulder of the road to adjust a rope which fastened a boat to the roof of his car.

* * *

Beauchamp was knocked over the car, troopers said.

Mrs. Wegman was a passenger in the Stromberg car.

Pill Overdose Fatal to Actor

Reportedly Depressed Over Failing Eyesight

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Everett Sloane, often the heavy in dramas but also a skillful comedy player, is dead at 55.

* * *

LEFT NOTES

Police said Sloane was depressed about failing eyesight and left two notes, one to his wife and one to his business manager. The contents were not disclosed.

The actor disappeared from his Sunset Boulevard house several days ago, police said, and a missing persons report was filed Thursday.

* * *

Born in New York, Sloane attended the University of Pennsylvania and worked on Wall Street. He later joined Orson Welles' Mercury Theater in the 1930s.

ON RADIO SHOWS

He was in radio shows such as "Crime Doctor" and "The Goldbergs," before coming to Hollywood to make his motion picture debut with Welles in "Citizen Kane."

The 5-foot-4 actor with wavy, gray hair later became active in television dramas and played regularly on "Studio One."

* * *

Reflections

PARTNERSHIP

Two of our friends are celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary. That marriage began with two people building the most beautiful monument to partnership on this earth.

Watch two trapese performers. One flies through the air, is caught by his partner and swings to safety; implicit faith in each other is paramount. That is parntership. Partnership in marriage is based on the widest concept of faith. Each one has faith in the motives of the other one. That union has all the elements of the trapese artists—implicit faith.

I watched two men as a steel beam was added to a structure; implicit confidence was evidenced. A symphony orchestra is a partnership; each musician adds to the harmony of the whole. An automobile driver is a partner to every other auto driver on the road; one cheat creates havoc.

Lloyds of London will insure against anything—except successful marriage partnership. And yet that partnership is based on the fundamental law of the universe—"Do unto others as you would be done by."

Optional Observance of Law Hit by Judge

A hearty round of applause is due U. S. District Judge FRANK M. JOHNSON JR., an EISENHOWER appointee, on his common-sense ruling against the "moral right" of an individual to decide what laws he might or might not observe.

The chief exponent of this anti-social concept of civil obligation is the Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. who in his civil rights crusade and related demonstrations proclaimed that a citizen did not have to obey an "unjust" law.

But the same sentiment has been expressed by many white clergymen and "liberals" who think that a law which is morally unjust in the minds of the citizens can be disobeyed or disregarded.

Never have we heard such anarchistic, disruptive philosophy from sources whose calling and objectives are supported by law and order.

Judge JOHNSON made his ruling in connection with the case of 167 demonstrators arrested last March in Montgomery, Ala., stressing that "civil disobedience" under the guise of civil rights must be prosecuted.

"The philosophy that a person may, if his cause is labeled 'civil rights' or 'states rights,' determine for himself what laws and court decisions are morally right or wrong and either obey or refuse to obey them according to his own determination is a philosophy that is foreign to our 'rule of law' theory of government," the judge expounded.

★ ★ ★

LBJ Job Appointments Fit Workers to Tasks

Heading the list, of course, was the appointment of Supreme Court Justice ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG to be U.S. Ambassador to U.N., succeeding the late ADLAI STEVENSON.

An important shift in the President's staff was the replacement of press secretary GEORGE REEDY by WILLIAM D. MOYERS, a close associate of JOHNSON'S. While well-intentioned, REEDY was considered lacking in over-all capacity for the job, a deficiency that the gifted MOYERS should readily remedy.

The appointment of Maj. Hugh Robinson as a presidential military aide is the first such assignment to go to a Negro. Robinson holds a master of science degree from Massachusetts Institute of Technology and has been serving in an important Pentagon position.

Another Negro was recognized when WILLIAM B. BRYANT, former assistant U. S. attorney general, was named for a Federal judgeship — the second one of that race ever appointed to the Federal judiciary.

Declaring his inclination to appoint qualified Negroes to important posts whenever possible, LBJ named two more to high government offices — HUGH M. SMITH, sociology professor from Northwestern University, to be ambassador to Syria and THURGOOD MARSHALL, former member of the Second Circuit Court of Appeals, to the office of Solicitor General.

Two other major appointments installed Dr. HAROLD BROWN, a brilliant 37-year-old physicist — the type of professional much liked by Defense Secretary MCNAMARA—as the new Secretary of the Air Force; and the replacement of retiring Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare ANTHONY CELEBREZZE by JOHN W. GARDNER.

GARDNER, the fourth Cabinet member to be appointed by President JOHNSON, is a recognized authority in the educational field and has for 10 years served as president of the Carnegie Corp. — a foundation active in the areas of social advancement and educational progress.

Wrapping up the long list of excellent appointments—the designation of the distinguished legal light, 55-year-old ABE FORTAS, to fill the vacancy on the U.S. Supreme Court resulting from former Justice GOLDBERG'S move to his United Nations post.

If there is any common denominator in the various appointments, it is an emphasis on men who bring to their jobs fine educational backgrounds, professionalism and experience.

This emphasis has been particularly true in foreign service appointments, since 45 of the President's 62 ambassadorial assignments were career Foreign Service officers.

It has much current significance, since at no time in the history of the Country has the conduct of international relations called for more diplomatic skill and sensitivity.

Few Succeed in Curbing Court

AP News Analyst
By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — He made a good try — and he said he'll try again — but the attempt of Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois to undo what the Supreme Court did on reapportionment got nowhere, which is not unusual.

MARLOW

Dissatisfied people in and out of Congress have been trying to curb the court, rebuke it, or change its decisions throughout its 175-year history, and never more than in recent years.

Those attempts must have run into the thousands. Very few succeeded. And most of the changes or reversals in the court's decisions have been made by the court itself.

Dirksen, leader of the Senate Republicans, had a lot of company from politicians —although, as it turned out, not enough— in his protest against the court's memorable 1964 decision.

Following its one-man, one-vote doctrine, the court said members of both houses of a state legislature must be elected on a basis of equal representation for the people making up a state population.

This meant fewer politicians from the rural districts, with their dwindling populations, would sit in state legislatures because the old apportionment plans had become unreal and unfair as more people moved to the cities.

Dirksen tried to get the Senate to approve a proposed constitutional amendment which could cut the court decision in half by letting each state decide how members of at least one house in a legislature should be elected.

The Senate turned him down Wednesday.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

Their strong belief in service to God and mankind appears in every phase of their active lives. Even in their programs they include religion. When Roy first proposed it his managers objected, but he won out. Their hymns have been an inspiration to all who have heard them.

The joys and sorrows of raising an international family, their own and adopted, have added vigor to their faith. Their love for children has resulted in well over 2,000 hospital visits and thousands of long distance calls.

The royalties from the six books Dale has written are turned over to charities, mostly for children. In 1964 Dale received the "Woman of the World" award from International Orphans Inc. and "Church Woman of the Year" from Religious Heritage of America. Roy has been named Honorary Knight for life and Dale, Lady of Camelot, by Roundtable International for their "distinguished service to humanity . . ." The "King of the Cowboys" and his "Queen of the West" have done much to proclaim the kingdom of God.

Days of All Faiths:

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

St. Alexander the Charcoal-Burner must have been a good man or he wouldn't be a saint, but there is nothing much of interest on record about the man himself. But the way he got to be a bishop is novel and charming.

★ ★ ★

It seems that in the middle of the 3rd century the community of Comana in Pontus (a country in Asia Minor on the Black Sea) found itself large and important enough to have a bishop of its own. Since Comana was not a diocese it had no machinery for an election, and really not much knowledge about how to hold an election.

So a neighboring bishop, known now as St. Gregory the Wonderworker, went to Comana to see that things were done properly and in order.

The clergy and people of Comana presented to Gregory a list of candidates, but Gregory turned every one of them down. In the course of going through the list, he had come to the name of one man who was obviously nominated only because of his wealth and social position.

Gregory took a little time out to make a brief speech about how the Apostles — of whom bishops are the successors — had been men of low birth, little learning, and no property.

★ ★ ★

Some joker — there is at least one in every crowd — called out, "All right. If that's what you want, let's get Alexander the Charcoal-Burner." The sarcasm backfired when Gregory said that might not be such a bad idea, and asked to have Alexander brought before him.

BECOMES CHRIST-LIKE

When the bewildered Alexander showed up, grimy and ragged, Gregory questioned him and found that there were a few things about him the local folks did not know. It turned out that he was a man of good breeding who had sold his possessions, given the proceeds to the poor, and taken up his humble trade in order that he might literally follow Christ.

St. Gregory proposed Alexander for bishop, the people ratified the nomination, and the charcoal-burner was consecrated.

There is little information about his term of office, but he seems to have been a good bishop and teacher. He was finally martyred, about the year 275, by being burned to death.

SAMARITAN HISTORY

Jesus talked about Samaritans rather a lot, and in His parable of The Good Samaritan He made the word an eternal synonym for kindness, helpfulness, and sympathetic concern.

★ ★ ★

One reason Jesus used a Samaritan as the hero of this story is that He thereby irritated His Jewish audience and greatly sharpened His point. For the Jews hated the Samaritans and looked down upon them as half-Jews, deserters, and heretics. "The Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans," said the woman at the well (John 4:9), and that is the way it had been for six centuries.

★ ★ ★

It all began when the whole Israelite nation was carried off into what history calls the Babylonian Captivity. This happened in 586 B.C., and for 70 years the only Jews left in the homeland were a few around the city of Samaria, who had been kept there by their Assyrian conquerors to till the soil.

A lot can happen in 70 years and what happened there was forever beyond repair. The Assyrians brought in some outsiders to help colonize and work the land, and the Samaritan Jews intermarried with them. Seventy years encompass more than two complete generations. By the time the pure-blooded Jews returned from captivity the heritage of the Samaritans was permanently contaminated.

They had become half-breed Jews.

And so it still was in the time of Jesus. The Lord Himself accepted this segregated situation. He told the Samaritan woman, "Salvation is of the Jews." (John 4:9) He said to His Apostles, "Into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not." (Matthew 10:6) He called the Samaritan leper "this stranger." (Luke 17:16)

★ ★ ★

But He sometimes found it effective as a teaching device to shake His Jewish listeners up by making a Samaritan the most appealing character in one of His stories.

In my humble opinion, the principal role for the recovery of law and order rests with persons of strength, courage and intelligence who have your ability of delivering decisive field support.

WILLIAM K. HANGER
CHIEF OF POLICE

'Will Nation Soon Be Under Dictatorship?'

I disapprove of the proposed act of legal confiscation inherent in Bill H.A. 8282 Employment Security Amendment of 1965 that would in effect subsidize unemployment. It is time the American people realize that we are being duped and swiftly federalized.

I thoroughly read the newspapers and can only formulate what I see and read. If we don't arouse the people and awake those we have entrusted with the power to represent us in Washington, I fear for this nation. We as a "Great Nation" — not the Great Society—will soon become a nation under dictatorship.

I pray that Representative Broomfield will do all in his power to act upon any bills and government job appointment which in his conscience point to total disaster.

Wonders Where Old Values Have Gone

I don't suppose the three young hoodlums who stole our pet dog out of our car last Saturday night might have lost a moment of sleep, but we have lost several night's sleep wondering at his fate. The dog had never been allowed out of our yard and is completely helpless in traffic.

★ ★ ★

We are sick at our loss, but are mostly concerned because this could happen hundreds of times with little chance of the thieves being caught. Cowards like these can't be allowed to go on to more and worse crimes, but their numbers seem to be growing.

★ ★ ★

Where have the old values gone—the respect of rights of person or property, the reverence for life?

Views on Sending Delinquents to Viet Nam

The letter in The Voice of the People suggesting all juvenile delinquents be put in the Army and dispatched immediately to Viet Nam makes a lot of sense. I love to think what would happen to some of those beatniks when an old line Army sergeant took them in hand. We'd soon have some real men where half-baked simpletons existed before.

AAAA, Washington's Latest Club

By WASHINGTON STAFF

This isn't to be confused with AA, which is short for Alcoholics Anonymous, or AAA, the American Auto mobile Association.

AAAA was organized last week at a dinner party attended by a small group including figures close to the White House in the Kennedy and Johnson years.

It is a vehicle for protest over what was termed the "peephole history writing" of former Kennedy aide and Harvard professor Arthur B. Schlesinger Jr.

Schlesinger's revelations of the Kennedy years, serialized recently in Life, are the talk of the Washington eating and drinking circuit and most of the talk is calculated to make Schlesinger's ears incandescent.

He is being criticized for "bad taste" in reporting that President Kennedy planned to fire Secretary of State Rusk. One hostess last week snorted that the Harvard historian's gossipy tidbits were better suited to publication in Confidential magazine than Life.

★ ★ ★

Once just as Nelson Rockefeller of New York was about to be questioned, a conference official stepped to the microphone and asked:

"Is there an electrician in the house?"

Rocky, realizing the man wanted the lights turned off, slipped behind a wooden screen,

★ ★ ★

Democratic National Chairman John Bailey — present at the conference — recounted a visit the late John F. Kennedy paid him in Connecticut long before the latter's 1960 presidential nomination.

Bailey met Kennedy at an airport and carried his bag to a waiting car. On the way Kennedy asked.

"John, how long have you been in politics now?"

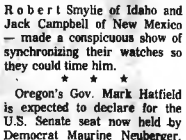
Bailey replied: "I guess about 22 years."

Kennedy smiled and said:

"Twenty-two years in politics and you're still carrying the candidate's bag."

★ ★ ★

When Vice President Hubert Humphrey, a notorious long talker, stood up to address the conference, two governors —



Robert Smylie of Idaho and Jack Campbell of New Mexico — made a conspicuous show of synchronizing their watches so they could time him.

Oregon's Gov. Mark Hatfield is expected to declare for the U.S. Senate seat now held by Democrat Maurine Neuberger. A newsman, impatient for 1966, asked Hatfield at a press session:

"Governor, when are you going to announce your plans and what are they?"

This technique may cost less and provide greater insulation and protection.

Land Contour Important to Lot Layout

When you're looking for a home, remember that the best-designed subdivisions are those that follow the land, and where the layout is determined by the land's contours.

Streets in a well-designed subdivision are fitted to the topography as closely as possible, often running along natural drainage courses and ridges. This results in the pleasing variety of a curvilinear street pattern, and keeps grading to a minimum.

Planning the street system and dividing the land into lots are actually part of the same process, according to the land planning section of a massive Construction Lending Guide prepared by the United States Savings and Loan League.

The Guide is aimed at helping savings associations judge the value of the homes on which they advance mortgage funds. However, knowledge of the Guide's land planning principles can also be put to good use by homeseeking families who wish to judge the subdivision in which the homes they are viewing are located.

This is important because, as the League notes, a home's long-term value depends as much on the subdivision or neighborhood as on the home's design and construction.

LAND CONTOURS

In addition to following the land contours as much as possible, principal streets in a well-designed subdivision should enable traffic to flow from the site's entrance to each group of homes, but should not create a traffic hazard by offering a short-cut through the subdivision.

Good design also calls for curved and loop streets, cul-de-sac, and sharp differences between minor streets, feeder streets and major thoroughfares. Streets of single-family homes should have a minimum pavement width of 26 feet; of multi-family dwellings, 32 feet, and feeder streets, 36 feet.

The League said alleys are no longer considered necessary or desirable in single-family developments, but if provided they should be paved and at least 20 feet wide. Each single and semi-detached dwelling should have a private garage or parking space with a private driveway.

There's no single standard for laying out lots, the League adds, but certain basic principles apply to all subdivisions.

There should be good natural surface drainage to a public sewer or natural water course, with lots drained to the street where possible. Width of the lots should be adequate for the type and size of the house, including side-yards for light, air, access and privacy.

Lot shapes should be generally regular, with no acute angles or breaks in the property line. The side yard on at least one side of the house should be big enough for a driveway in which one or two cars may be parked.

* * *

Local regulations establish the minimum lot size, but the League noted that from a practical standpoint, the average two-story house in the North should have a lot of at least 60 by 120 feet. In the South, with a warmer climate and more stress on outdoor living, a 70-foot width is best.

"Generally speaking," the League declared, "a 50-foot lot width can be considered as minimum in the North, with a 60-foot lot the minimum standard in the South. Lots for ranch-type houses should be at least 60 feet wide, and preferably 70 feet."

The prime way to design variety into the average subdivision of moderate-cost homes is to increase or decrease the building setback, and to vary the side yards. But the League cautioned that it's rarely advisable to vary setbacks of adjacent houses on small lots by more than 10 or 15 feet, nor should side yards seven or eight feet.

Finally, a subdivision's water system and sanitary sewers should be hooked to a public system, or designed to do so in the future. And good planning today calls for power lines to be brought in on easements at the rear of lots, with service lines carried underground, giving the area a highly desirable feeling of uncluttered openness.

* * *

Your choice of a home, of course, will depend on the qualities of the dwellings in the subdivision. But again — to get the most for your housing dollar, take this tip from our biggest mortgage lenders, the nation's savings and loan associations:

* * *

"The stake in home mortgages," the U.S. League concludes, "is as great in the neighborhood as it is in the specific property. It's not going too far to say that the long-term security of the loan rests primarily on the quality of the subdivision as a whole."

Country Styling in Bedrooms Has Warmth

Begin with walls paneled in flat grain western hemlock, installing the boards horizontally and finishing them clear.

Next choose a hooked rug or braid rug, waxing exposed wood flooring till it glows.

Then dig through attic treasure troves for one or two good antique dressers or commodes, restoring them for modern day use.

If you should be lucky enough to discover a patchwork quilt, use it as a throw on the bed and let your color scheme for rug and curtains revolve around the main colors of the quilt.

Prime All Metals Before Painting

If a water-thinned paint is used on masonry, stains may develop when in contact with metals.

* * *

Thus, iron, copper or other metallic objects imbedded in the masonry surface or adjacent to it, should be primed with a good anti-corrosive primer before painting.

* * *

Look for nails and other metallic objects.

Extend Pool Season Fun With Heater

With the enjoyment of backyard swimming pools at its summer peak, many foresighted families are planning to extend the season of fun by installing pool heaters.

As evidence of the trend, it cites a survey by Hoffman Publications showing that 31.8 per cent of the 56,000 "permanent type" residential pools built in 1964 were equipped with heaters. It notes that, while statistics are unavailable, many above-ground pools also used heaters.

Even in northern climates families with heated pools can stay in the swim for six months of the year, or double the season for pools without heaters. This 100 per cent increase in use can be achieved with about a 15 per cent increase in total pool investment, the Institute estimates.

The Institute's calculations are based on statements by the American Gas Association (AGA) that for the average 20-by-40-foot pool a heater can be installed for about $600 to $700. Depending on the region and length of season, AGA says operating costs will average from $100 to $200.

* * *

The pool owner has many options which affect heating cost. For example, if he heats his pool to 80 degrees, instead of the 78 degrees recommended by the American Red Cross as healthful and safe, he can expect to spend 20 per cent more for heating fuel.

COST REDUCED

Pool heating costs can be reduced by providing shelter from the prevailing wind in the form of a fence, plantings, or structure, such as a bathhouse or the residence itself.

Pool covers, available in light-weight plastic, can reduce surface heat loss 25 to 30 per cent.

Use of a time clock for temperature control eliminates waste through forgetfulness.

Generally, the time clock is set to turn the heater on 2 or 3 hours before swimming time in fall and spring, and off about an hour before the last swimmer usually leaves the pool.

For families who want to swim on weekends only during cooler months, the AGA recommends spot heating with an ample-sized heater as the most economical method.

Model Home Visitor Often Buyer in Year

These authorities also say that buyers are becoming more selective in their purchases.

Buyers today want homes with built-in quality features such as fully-tiled bathrooms and kitchens.

They know that ceramic tile never needs to be painted or polished, that its first cost is its final cost. They also know that real tile is impervious to burns, scratches and stains.

* * *

Other features most often demanded by discerning home buyers are quality plumbing, lath-and-wet-plaster walls and hardwood kitchen cabinets.

Most homeowners know that money invested in quality materials will result in a higher resale price at a later date.

Aluminum Foil Foils Paint Mess

Have you ever used paint from its original container and then found when you were putting it away that you had gotten paint all over your hands from the drips on the can? Try this idea the next time you paint.

Wrap some aluminum foil around the can and set it on top of a paper plate or old pie tin. The aluminum foil and plate will catch the runs. Then, all you have to do is remove both and you will have a clean container to put away.

Architect Is Detail Expert

The sight of a new homeunder construction usually strikes a warm note in the hearts of passers-by "Another dream home taking shape."

Unfortunately, many a dream home can turn into a nightmare before it is finished, and too often the final product isn't exactly what its owner had in mind.

An infinite amount of detail goes into a new home; details the average homebuyer probably has never had to take into consideration before. Long before the groundbreaking gets under way, the prospective owner should consult with an architect.

It's the architect's job to design the house and to assure that quality materials are used in construction.

* * *

An architect is an expert on details. After a floorplan is developed, the owner should be sure he understands just what the blueprint means in terms of what he is going to be living in. The architect will welcome the questions and suggestions.

Even minor revisions after construction has begun can be both expensive and disappointing. It's much better to start right, plan right, and use quality materials to get the most for your building dollar.

A home water-softening unit puts an end to familiar annoyances such as soap curd in the wash, rings in the bathtub and film on dishes, glasses and silverware.

More Teams in Junior Title Games

Two pitchers had one-hitters: Roger Holland of the Moose Class F American finalists beat Lakeland AC, 6-3, and Auburn Heights Boys' Club's Mike Davis put his team in the Widget American finals by stopping the Optimist, 2-0.

The Class E American Yankees were put into the championship round by Victor Quince's four-hit, 11-strikeout 7-2 win over Bloomfield Hills.

In the big Widget National game, the Yellow Jackets moved within one victory of the playoff title by toppling AHBC, 9-2, behind Larry Dura's four-hitter.

* * *

Among the top hitting efforts yesterday were Larry Thompson's two homers as the Le-Baron Giants eliminated Bart's Drugs, 13-10, in Widget play, and Steve Gracey's game-winning two-run homer in the Class F Yankees' 3-2 ouster of AHBC.

WATERFORD PLAY

In Waterford Township's junior recreation action, the Boys' Club won its playoff tilt from the 16-and-Under Optimist team, 5-3, on two last-inning runs.

10-and-Under League champion Lakeland Hardware took a surprise 13-10 beating from FOP No. 132.

* * *

Two games in the city's Class D playoffs tonight at Jaycee Park will have Rochester meeting Franklin at 5:30 with the loser dropping out, and Bloomfield Hills playing Auburn Heights Boys' Club at 7:30 for a berth in the finals.

How to Protect Yourself – 12

Start Your Counterattack on Crime Now

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the final installment in the series, "How to Protect Yourself on the Streets and in Your Home.")

By GENE ACCAS and JOHN H. ECKSTEIN

Today in the United States, we live surrounded by crime. The FBI reported crimes of violence in cities up 15 per cent in the first six months of 1964 compared to 1963. Suburban crime is growing even faster!

Just think!

● A major crime is committed every 3 minutes, day and night, 365 days a year in New York City.

● There were 962 reported rapes in Los Angeles.

● Nearly 10,000 aggravated assaults took place in Chicago.

Pittsburgh had almost seventy major crimes per day, ranging from murder to auto theft.

In Los Angeles, for the same seven categories, the count is an incredible 600 crimes per day!

What is happening? Is this country reverting to a jungle? Is crime breeding faster than the law can deal with it? Are individual, "law abiding" citizens contributing to the decay?

The answer to these questions is a qualified "yes!"

OWN MAKING

The sad truth is that we live in jungles of our own making, and that most citizens are the potential prey of vicious hoodlums, sex criminals, and other undesirables. But why should you care, it can't happen to you.

It can. It does. Every day. To people just like you. And if it did — if you were the victim of a holdup man, a mugger, or something worse, what would you do? What would your neighbors do? What would witnesses and bystanders do?

Probably nothing! Indifference, apathy, "it doesn't concern me . . . I don't want to get involved," have become national moral epidemics. People don't care!

* * *

We have become soft, complacent; we have lost the self-sufficiency and self-reliance of our pioneer and frontier heritage. And, too, we have looked the other way when someone "bent" the law a little. Which of us hasn't "gotten away with" a traffic violation; "padded" a tax return; witnessed a crime and done nothing about it?

COUNTERATTACK

Today, right now, you can begin a counterattack on crime. All that is required is to face up to yourself, and your duty as a citizen. All that is required is that you be a citizen of this country with all the rights and obligations that includes.

By supporting the law — in its many forms — you counterattack crime. By helping a fellow citizen, whenever he may be in trouble, you join forces with millions of other lawful citizens and fight back!

By reducing your own chances of being a victim of a crime, you reduce crime. Follow the simple common-sense precautions, rules and tips of HOW to PROTECT YOURSELF. Stay away from trouble and keep trouble away from you.

* * *

Learn to be alert, prepared and cautious. In your everyday life, uphold the law. If you see or hear of a crime, do what you can to help the police halt the act, or bring the criminal to justice.

START TODAY

Start today to become more self-sufficient. Start today to be aware of the potential dangers that exist and learn how to cope with them. Start today to learn how to protect yourself if it should ever come to that.

This book is not intended to frighten, nor to preach. It has been written to tell the stark truth, and to rally individuals to the critical task of defending their own safety and rights as Americans.

Four major points emerge from this book — they bear repetition:

1. You must learn to be constantly alert, wary, and cautious. You don't have to be fearful; you don't have to withdraw from the world. But you must prepare yourself physically and psychologically for possible trouble.

2. You must also prepare yourself by selecting a few methods of defense that are suited to you. Choose one or two weapons and always have them with you when you are out. Choose one or two weapons that you can have readily available in your home.

* * *

3. Your self-confidence will grow as your self-reliance does. Your decision, to learn to protect yourself, is a vital one. If you are ever under attack, this fact alone, that you have been preparing yourself for your own self-protection, will strengthen your resolve and determination.

And if you counterattack, remember — the criminal doesn't expect this. He expects you to be a mouse, to offer no resistance, to do whatever he tells you.

If you scream and, if necessary, fight back, chances are your assailant may be frightened away.

4. You are your brother's keeper . . .

● If you see or hear that someone else is in trouble or under attack, do not ignore it. Scream! Use a police whistle! Call for help, or run and get help.

● Be involved. Too many people today feel, "That isn't my business — I don't want to get into it." That fact is one of the greatest advantages the criminals have. They know that very few people will help another person in trouble.

● If law-abiding, peace-loving people helped one another, their efforts could overcome those of the tiny minority of hoodlums and thugs.

* * *

Sinatra's Yacht Off for Boston

Ashore, rumors and unanswered questions outnumbered the sea gulls.

Reports have persisted for several days that Sinatra and Miss Farrow, the schoolgirl in television's "Peyton Place," planned to leave the yacht to be married on James Cagney's estate on the southern tip of the island.

Miss Russell's statement began speculation that Sinatra is seeking a location for a new movie on the trip.

The trip to Boston was predicted after the yacht captain telephoned the Squantum Marina in Boston harbor to ask about docking facilities.

* * *

He was reported pleased by news that a 400-foot dock, necessary for privacy, is open. The Southern Breeze is expected to arrive tonight.

Sinatra's been ashore on the Vineyard only once — for a shore dinner at the Harborside Inn and much hand-holding with Miss Farrow, the daughter of actress Maureen O'Sullivan. Blonde Miss Farrow has been ashore several times on shopping excursions, and both she and Sinatra have posed for photographers on board the yacht. Neither denied the marriage reports.

Broker's Death Hits Investors

579 Claims Entered Against Bankrupt Firm

★ ★ ★

Michael Dobich, 38, a brilliant, "lone wolf" brokerage operator, was a wheeler-dealer with a flare for luxury and a love for flying his own helicopter.

He died in the crash of a helicopter, leaving his business empire, Dobich Securities Corp., in wreckage as well.

Although his own helicopter was being repaired last July 10, Dobich could not resist the temptation to arrive at an Indianapolis party in a whirlybird and highlight the guests' evening with a trip aloft.

★ ★ ★

Dobich's rented helicopter faltered in flight and plunged into a field, killing him and injuring his young secretary. Three days later, his firm filed for bankruptcy.

579 FILE CLAIMS

Dobich's firm handled more than $6 million in stocks in the Midwestern United Life Insurance Co., Fort Wayne, Ind., with 579 persons filing claims from 137 Indiana cities and towns totaling $2,878,881.

The claims ranged from great amounts — nine persons having purchased more than $25,000 in stock — to amounts in the low hundreds.

The hardest hit, perhaps, will be the stockbroker's widow. Sources said Dobich's corporation had purchased $435,000 in life insurance with his wife named as beneficiary.

★ ★ ★

Attorney Donald Buttrey, named receiver in bankruptcy for the corporation, has moved in court to stop payment of the premiums to the widow.

Buttrey said in the course of his investigation into the firm's records, he has found little which would bring investors more than a few pennies on the dollar for money spent on the stock.

★ ★ ★

In Washington Friday about 600 persons attended a four-hour rally in a park across from the White House to mark the beginning of what was called a four-day assembly of unrepresented people. A smaller number staged a sit-in at a White House gate. Scores of police were on guard against outbreaks.

★ ★ ★

In Bloomington, Ind., more than 100 Indiana University students and a few professors paraded downtown with such signs as "Stop the slaughter of Vietnamese people."

A 100-member delegation of the assembly sought unsuccessfully to present a "declaration of conscience" to President Johnson. When he refused to receive it personally, about 60 pickets staged a sit-in at an entrance to the White House grounds.

★ ★ ★

The sit-in party sought to continue its vigil through the night, but by midnight it had dwindled to a band of about a dozen sharing one water jug and a few packs of cigarettes.

At least as many police ringed the young men and women slumped on the sidewalk.

NOT ALLOWED BACK

The police strategy: Cut the pickets off from food, water or bedding.

There were two arrests, both involving the same young man. One he tried to throw a water bag. Later, police said, he tried to rejoin the group.

FIGHTING DENOUNCED

Earlier, speakers at the rally here denounced fighting in Viet Nam, called for admission of Red China to the United Nations and noted that the day marked the 20th anniversary of the dropping of an atomic bomb on Hiroshima, Japan.

Folk singer Joan Baez and other musicians performed between speeches as the demonstrators, many wearing blue jeans and sandals, milled about.

The assembly began to break up at the end of a long, hot afternoon, and Miss Baez said: "I don't think the President gives much of a damn."

Some pickets distributed pamphlets asking contributions for the "Committee To Aid the National Liberation Front of South Viet Nam." The liberation front is the Communist Viet Cong group.

A. J. Muste, 81, national chairman of the Committee for Non-Violent Action, told newsmen there might be some Communists in the crowd but he doubted it. He said the group was not controlled by Communists, but represented such social movement organizations as the Catholic Worker, Student Peace Union and War Resisters League.

Five Rezoning Requests Go Before Board

Waterford Township Board will consider five rezoning requests Monday night in addition to receiving monthly reports for July from the police, fire and water departments.

★ ★ ★

All five rezoning requests are first notices. Public hearings and final decisions will come at forthcoming meetings.

The Township Planning Commission and Oakland County Coordinating Zoning Committee have already recommended approval or denial on each request.

Three of the requests were made in hopes of eventually constructing new apartment dwellings on M59 near Hospital, in Dixie Trail Subdivision on Rossiter near Oakland and at Airport at Hatchery.

★ ★ ★

The other requests are to rezone a parcel in the proposed Woodhull Lake Subdivision and 14 lots in the Cass-Highland Subdivision on Elizabeth Lake Road near Tilden to single family residential.

By JACOBY & SON

JACOBY

They were experts, but they were also old - fashioned experts who did not believe in the Gerber four club convention.

However, when expert South opened one no-trump, expert North decided that he had a perfect hand to bid four clubs pert North decided that he had a perfect hand to bid four clubs to ask for aces. He felt sure that his partner would read his bid as Gerber whereupon expert North would be able to sign off at four spades or bid six or seven as the occasion warranted.

Sure enough, South read the four club bid and responded four spades to show three aces. Of course, in the Gerber convention four diamonds shows no aces; four hearts one; and four spades two; but old-fashioned expert South could not really be expected to know this.

Fortunately for North and South's peace of mind expert North was equally unfamiliar with Gerber. In Blackwood he knew that spades showed three aces. It ought to be the same in Gerber. South read his partner for three aces. He could count to thirteen tricks and bid seven no-trump.

* * *

Like most of this week's articles on misunderstandings there is a serious side to this article. It should serve as a warning to players who may intend to use the Gerber convention that they make sure they know how many aces their responses show.

♥♣ CARD Sense ♦♠

West	North	East	South
1 ♣	Pass	Pass	?

You, South, hold:

♠ A Q 8 7 6 5 ♥ K 3 ♦ Q 8 6 ♣ 3 2

What do you do?

A—Bid two spades provided you are sure that partner won't play you for a very big hand. If you fear that contingency bid one spade only.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Fear Dogged His Trail

Safe Now for Mailman

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — A postman who said "nuts" to the old axiom that the mail must go through was back on his rounds today at the end of a two-week suspension of delivery service brought on by mean-looking, growling dogs.

Wary postal officials toured the area of Martha Place and declared the street apparently was no longer inhabitated by capricious canines bent on a nip or two at the postman.

Residents immediately complained about the hardship of having to go to the nearest post office, about three or four miles away, for their mail.

* * *

Mrs. Bonnie Pitcher had offered to provide the mailman with a mothers' escort. "If the postman is scared," she said, "we'll go down to the end of the street and bring him around."

* * *

A spokesman for Postmaster Claude Bakewell reported the area looked safe now. "There were no dogs in evidence while our authorities were on the block, so we decided to resume deliveries."

Store Offers Some Help to Picketing Group

CANTON, Miss. (UPI) — A group of 25 white and Negro pickets paraded for three hours Frideay in front of a store to protest alleged job discrimination.

* * *
