Anxiety Lessens as Ike Conquers Slight Setback

President Feels Rested and Refreshed Upon Awakening Today

DENVER (AP)—Anxiety over President Eisenhower's illness eased considerably this morning as physicians reported his condition "showed no changes to indicate complications."

The bulletin said the chief executive's condition "remains satisfactory."

The official report from Fitzsimons Army Hospital at 9:40 a.m. served to lift tension created when the doctors announced last night that Eisenhower was "a little tired" and not feeling "as well as usual."

That bulletin last evening was the first which failed to say that the chief executive was progressing satisfactorily "without complications."

The doctors have said repeatedly that any complications were most likely to develop during the first two weeks after the heart attack Eisenhower suffered a week ago last Saturday.

The change in the 64-year-old President's condition last night came on the ninth day of the crucial first two weeks.

This morning's medical bulletin, about 2 hours 40 minutes later than usual to permit thorough examination of the President after he awakened late, said this:

"The President slept soundly from 8:45 p.m. to 7:10 a.m., with the exception of a half hour from 4:25 a.m. to 4:55 a.m.

"At that time a medical examination showed his temperature, pulse and blood pressure to be normal.

"When he awoke this morning the President felt rested and refreshed.

"His morning examination showed no changes to indicate complications and his condition remains satisfactory.

"His temperature, pulse and blood pressure continue normal.

"His cardiogram continues to show slow, progressive evolution.

"The President had a breakfast consisting of a slice of cantaloupe, an egg, two strips of beef bacon, a slice of whole wheat toast and a glass of skimmed milk.

"Mrs. Eisenhower visited with the President during breakfast time."

Downtown today's low before 8 a.m. was 45 degrees. The thermometer registered 68 at 2 p.m.

Rita Hayworth Arrives in France En Route to Aly

CHERBOURG (AP) — Film star Rita Hayworth returned to France today, bringing her 5-year-old daughter Yasmin to visit the child's father, Prince Aly Khan.

The titian-haired actress also brought along her 10-year-old daughter Rebecca, Rita's daughter by a previous marriage to Orson Welles.

She was wearing a simple grey tweed suit and a black pullover sweater trimmed with grey to match the suit. Her hair, now in its natural red-brown hue, was almost shoulder length.

She appeared fretful and somewhat tired during a news conference on the liner Queen Elizabeth.

Rita lifted her hands nervously but smiled for photographers. She declined to answer questions as to her feelings toward her present husband, singer Dick Haymes, saying it was a private matter. She was wearing his gold wedding ring.

She brought Yasmin to Europe to see Aly Khan under the terms of their divorce settlement, which entitles the father to have custody of the child a certain number of weeks each year. She said she would turn Yasmin over to Aly Khan in Paris, probably tomorrow.

Water Samples Sent to Lansing

Dead Fish Complaint From Galloway Lake Brings Investigations

Samples of water from Galloway Lake, where hundreds of dead fish are reported, have been sent to Lansing for pollution tests, Warren Kendall, field representative for the Michigan Conservation Department, said today.

Residents complained to police and the Oakland County Health Department Friday that dead and dying fish were floating on the water's surface, tangled in weeds and washed on shores of the lake. The lake is located partly in Pontiac and partly in Pontiac Township.

Russell H. Coltson, director of Oakland County Sanitation Department, said he personally would inspect the lake today, and take samples of the water.

"I'm making a trip to Lansing tomorrow, and I'll take the samples with me so that both the county and the state conservation department can get fast action on the test results of the tests probably will not be known for four or five days, Coltson said.

Kendall said he had inspected the lake this morning, and had found no outward signs of what might be polluting the water.

"There were many dead fish, but I saw no fish in the process of dying this morning," Kendall said.

"It's evident something is polluting the water, but a check of the shoreline revealed no sewage being piped in.

France Cancels Visit to Moscow After U.N. Vote

Soviet Sides With West That Assembly Discuss Algerian Troubles

PARIS (AP) — The French Foreign Office announced today the proposed visit of Premier Edgar Faure and Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay to Moscow has been postponed. The announcement was made after Pinay had received the charge d'affaires of the Soviet Embassy to give him the news.

The Foreign Ministry said the French government thought it preferable to put off the visit to a later date.

The explanation was that the government considers, in view of recent events in the United Nations and the reaction of French opinion, the atmosphere is not favorable now for a trip of this type.

The trip had been scheduled for Oct. 14-16.

Russia voted with the majority last Friday in the U. N. General Assembly to debate troubles in Algeria. France insists Algeria is an integral part of France and Assembly debate about it would be a violation of the U. N. Charter provision barring interference in the internal affairs of any member state.

As a result of the 28-27 vote, the French government withdrew its delegation to the Assembly, and also its permanent delegation, but kept one foot in the U. N. door.

The Cabinet last night announced withdrawal of its U.N. delegation and an end to participation in all activities of the international organization except those of the Security Council, its Disarmament Commission and subcommittee and its Military Staff Committee.

The bitter decisions were taken as bloody fighting broke out anew in Morocco, the most restless of France's North African territories. Armed guerrilla bands attacked at least five French outposts in a new development of the nationalist campaign against French rule.

These developments promised serious trouble for Premier Faure when the National Assembly comes back tomorrow from its parliamentary vacation. Many deputies are breathing fire over government policies aimed at soothing North African nationalist while others think the government has moved too slowly.

Land Purchased for 600 Homes

Prudential Investment Buys 264 Acres for $18 Million Project

The Prudential Investment Co. of Detroit has announced the $1.5 million purchase of 264 acres in Bloomfield Township for a $18,000,000 development of homes.

To be named Westchester Village, the rolling site is located off Lahser Road, between Maple and Lincoln. Approximately 600 three and four-bedroom homes on large lots will be built over a three year period, company spokesmen stated.

Leslie R. Schmier, secretary of Prudential, disclosed the Sale, from Sullivan Smith, Inc. and Fred C. Garling Construction Co.

Schmier stated, "The large scale building program we have planned for the coming year expresses our confidence in the continuing of the present high level of production, which demonstrates the strength of our expanding economy."

Prices of the homes will be in the $25,000 to $30,000 range. Built-in stoves and ovens will be included, along with full basements, and an activity-family room with a fireplace for indoor barbecue cooking.

Variety of design will lend individuality to the community, as it is planned. Permits for two models have been secured from Bloomfield township, and completion is scheduled for November.

Soldier-Publisher Adler Dies in New York at 62

NEW YORK (AP)—Maj. Gen. Julius Ochs Adler, 62, general manager and first vice president of the New York Times and publisher-president of the Chattanooga Tenn., Times, died today in New York Hospital of cancer of the pancreas. He had been in the hospital since Aug. 5.

Adler first underwent surgery for a kidney ailment during World War II. He was operated on for cancer four months ago, and returned to his journalistic duties for about two months.

He retired as commanding general of the 77th Infantry Division at the end of 1954. He had reached the mandatory retirement age of 62 on Dec. 3.

Adler was born in Chattanooga, Tenn. He joined the Times in 1914, became vice president and treasurer in 1919 and general manager in 1935. In that year he also became president and publisher of the Chattanooga Times.

Adler was on military leave from his newspaper duties from 1940 until late 1944, when he came home from New Guinea for hospitalization.

In 1953 President Eisenhower, who had once referred to him as "a soldier's soldier," named him chairman of the National Security Training Commission. The panel recommended a program for training 18-year-olds concurrently with the drafting of older youths for active duty.

Stocks Fall Sharply for Third Session

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market declined sharply today in heavy trading for the third straight session.

General Motors was down $4.50 at $138, Bethlehem Steel $5.75 at $148.50, Standard Oil (NJ) $3.50 at $130, U. S. Steel $1.87 at 55.87 and Du Pont $3 at 216.

The day began slowly with prices down $1 to $3 in quiet early trading. Before the opening, a medical bulletin from President Eisenhower's sickbed had stirred new anxiety over his condition. But the early selling slackened as another bulletin from Denver reported the President had slept soundly.

Telephone Strike Lasts 1.5 Hours

Union Wins Pay Raise but Loses Short Work Week Demands

DETROIT (AP)—The CIO Communications Workers of America struck the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. at 6 a.m. today but settled an hour and a half later.

The union won wage increases ranging from $2.50 to $5 a week but lost out in its demand for a 35-hour work week instead of the present 40.

Michigan Bell's supervisory workers took over the switchboards when the strike began. But normalcy returned to the company's statewide network of operations at 7:30 a.m. when the CWA called off its picket lines and sent its 16,000 Michigan members back to their jobs.

In Pontiac, about 15 pickets showed up at 6 a.m. at the main building of the Bell Telephone Co. Picketing was peaceful and orderly. Supervisory employes manned long distance switchboards, and there was no disruption of service, said Edward J. ovak, Pontiac district manager.

Service representatives in Pontiac will be among approximately 500 top-rated employes in the state whose positions will be upgraded to a higher classification. In addition to the regular wage increase, they will receive 50 cents to $2 more per week because of the reclassification.

CWA leaders said the settlement was "a little better" than one reached with the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. Sept. 15. They said they narrowed differential in top minimum pay between big cities and small towns by $1 a week and won upgrading for some employes.

* * *

The CWA said the new contract, to run one year, is an improvement over an offer made by the company shortly before the brief strike began.

Hundreds Hope for Daily Work

Employ Handicapped Week Lays Stress on Securing Jobs

Two hundred persons in Pontiac and northern Oakland County are hoping employers will take heed of the label put on the next seven days: "Employ the Handicapped Week."

James H. Dudley, manager of the Pontiac office of the Michigan Employment Security Commission, reports there is that number of persons with some sort of a disability who are able and willing to do a job.

Most of the 200 have applications on file with the MESC office and many have received aptitude tests, counseling and advisement in choosing work best suited for them, he said.

About one person in 10 and one veteran in 12 has a physical handicap or condition which requires that they be selectively placed, Dudley said.

"Employ the Handicapped Week" has been proclaimed in Pontiac by Mayor William W. Donaldson, as it has across the nation.

In 1945, Congress enacted a law which set aside the first full week in October each year as National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, in recognition of the successful effort such disabled persons made in producing the material which was to win World War II.

Congress recognized that if the handicapped could meet the stringent production demands, work schedules and tolerance ratings in effect during war time, they could also meet them in peace time.

So employers in peace as well as in war were called upon to continue using the handicapped worker.

"This American conviction that every individual is entitled to an employment opportunity equal to his ability has become the standard with most employers," Dudley said.

"The advocation of the principle to all job applicants—disabled or not — should be considered upon their ability to do a job is not only sound personnel practice but is a part of the enlightened human relations programs found in many industries," he said.

State GOP Told to Stick With Ike

Feikens Predicts Party Fall if President's Plans Are Not Upheld

ANN ARBOR (AP) — State Republican Chairman John Feikens says "unless Eisenhower policies and standards are upheld, the Republican Party is sunk."

* * *

Feikens expressed this opinion in discussing campaign strategy before a group of 11 "Young Turk" Republicans from the Michigan Legislature who exchanged views on issues for the special session of the Legislature called by Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams for Nov. 1.

The Young Turks met Saturday night and listened to strategy talks for the 1956 campaign by Feikens; John B. Martin, former auditor general, and Donald S. Leonard, defeated GOP nominee for governor in 1954.

The group also discussed problems of mental health, traffic safety, driver licensing examinations, toll roads vs. freeways as well as general campaign strategy.

AGREEMENT DIFFICULT

In a discussion of possible Republican candidates for governor, the only name mentioned was that of Dr. John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State University. Dr. Hannah had been previously mentioned by the group.

On the mental health problem, Rep. Richard C. Van Dusen of Birmingham declared "The Governor should give us some type of recommended solution on which to act. But the administration—and it is an administrative problem—doesn't have a program. If eight state agencies can't agree on a solution, how can they expect 144 legislators to agree?"

East Morocco Tribe Retreats

11 Europeans Are Killed in Fighting Following Sultan's Departure

RABAT, French Morocco (AP)—Berber tribesmen were reported in retreat in the Atlas Mountains today after a series of weekend guerrilla attacks in eastern Morocco and along the Spanish Moroccan frontier.

French authorities said 11 Europeans, including three women and two children, were slain in a ferocious attack at Immouzer des Marmouchas, 65 miles southeast of Fez.

Several hundred Berbers in the band of 2,000 were reported killed before the tribesmen began their retreat in the face of French tanks, planes and troops. The tribesmen were friendly to the Sultan who left his throne Saturday.

Four other outposts defended by Moroccans in French uniform were attacked Saturday night and Sunday and two were temporarily given up by the French.

Officials said the post at Tizi Ouzli, a former fort of Abd el Krim in the 1925 Rift war, was still under attack, and another, Bou Zined, was on fire late last night. Both are along the Spanish Moroccan frontier. Bou Zined is within the Spanish zone and is reached from the French zone only by an international road.

The outbreaks came on the heels of Sultan Mohammed Ben Moulay Arafa's departure from his palace in Rabat to a villa in the international zone of Tangier.

Israel to 'Close Gap' if Egypt Gets Arms

JERUSALEM (INS)—Israel announced today it will take every possible step to "close the gap" if Egypt goes through with plans to obtain substantial arms supplied from behind the Iron Curtain.

The decision was announced after a special cabinet meeting at which Premier Moshe Sharett reported on diplomatic moves in Western and Communist capitals to block the sale of arms to Egypt.

The Czechoslovak government said it would go ahead with plans to supply arms to Egypt despite pressure being brought on the Egyptians to cancel the orders.

Earlier, UN truce supervisor Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns announced that Egypt and Israel have completed the withdrawal of their troops from the demilitarized El Auja Zone.

Auto Increase Choking Roads

Vehicles Multiplying as Building of Highways Lags Behind

Why are highways in the Oakland-Macomb-Wayne County area so congested?

While road construction has lagged, total vehicles using highways have increased rapidly, according to figures supplied by Oakland Plan Commission Highway Engineer Robert A. Larson.

Total vehicle registrations in Oakland climbed from 97,849 in 1946 to 220,826 last year—a 226 per cent jump.

Passenger cars increased from 88,836 to 199,059; commercial vehicles from 7,106 to 19,140 and farm vehicles from 1,907 to 2,127.

The average increase per year during the 8-year span was 13,778.

Total registrations in Macomb increased from 43,194 to 101,325—a hike of 234 per cent.

Wayne's increase was not as great. It had 1,010,835 last year, compared with 570,003 in 1946—a jump of 178 per cent.

Vehicles registered in other counties which travel metropolitan-area roads add to the above figures in computing total road usage, Larson pointed out.

If vehicles registered in Oakland travel an average 10,000 miles per year, said Larson, road use is increasing by 140,000 travel-miles yearly.

"If registrations continue to increase as they have, we can expect 150,000 more miles traveled in Oakland this year than last," he said.

The trend to suburban development in the three-county area is shown by the fact total farm vehicles have been decreasing in Oakland and Macomb since 1951 and in Wayne since 1949, the engineer stated.

Peron Flies to Paraguay to Take Residence in Exile

ASUNCION, Paraguay (AP)—Juan D. Peron, the toppled Argentine dictator, took up residence in exile here today behind a guard of police and Tommy gunners.

The weary onetime strongman was flown here yesterday in a Paraguayan amphibian plane 13 days after he had taken refuge aboard a Paraguayan gunboat in the river Plate off Buenos Aires. His departure had been delayed while Argentine and Paraguayan officials straightened out the technicalities of his asylum.

* * *

The new Argentine government of Provisional President Eduardo Lonardi obviously hoped Peron would not tarry long in Paraguay, just across the Parana and Paraguay rivers from Argentine territory. A communique from Lonardi's regime said it was "confident" Paraguay would prevent Peron from "being an obstacle to friendly relations" between the two countries.

There have been suggestions that he might go ultimately to Spain or Switzerland.

The former President was greeted as he emerged from the plane by a jeering insult from another Argentine exile.

* * *

He paid no heed. Looking somewhat wan, he saluted to the right and left and smiled at the few officials who greeted him at Campo Grande military airport. He entered a black Lincoln automobile for the nine-mile ride into the city. A few townspeople were gathered along the route to watch the procession, but there were no cheers.

In Buenos Aires, the press and the government were still busily uncovering angles of Peron's secret love life and financial affairs.

The newspaper La Razon quoted Nelida Haydee Rivas, 16-year-old high school girl who has been linked to the dictator's love life, as saying he liked to call himself "The Man."

* * *

She said Peron, who will celebrate his 60th birthday Oct. 8, was a generous lover who gave her some of the jewelry of his wife Eva, who died of cancer in 1952. Police said they had found jewelry and cash worth $46,000 in Nelida's apartment.

Royalty to Visit Soviet

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—A court announcement said today Shah Reza Pahlevi and Queen Soraya will visit Russia next June and July, "in order to strengthen Iran-Soviet friendly relations," the announcement said.

Newspaper Hints at Decision in Meg's Love Life

LONDON (INS) — The London Daily Sketch speculated today that a vital decision may have been reached on the reputed romance of Princess Margaret and RAF Group Capt. Peter Townsend.

The newspaper said the pretty princess went to church yesterday morning with an unusually stern expression on her face. This was shortly after she had a talk with Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden inside Balmoral Castle.

The Sketch said hundreds of persons who waited to see her at the church believed that a "vital decision had just been made" in regard to the rumored romance.

Inside the royal car, the usually vivacious princess sat with her head bowed during most of the journey. She looked up and smiled uncertainly at the sympathetic crowd only when she arrived at the church gates.

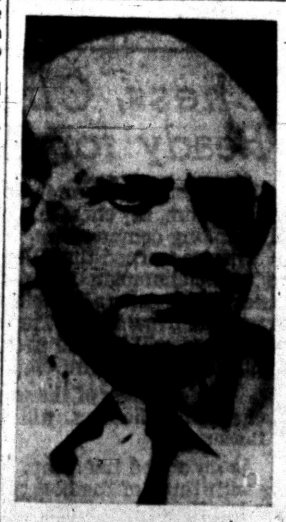

Eden conferred with Queen Elizabeth for several hours Saturday.

Meanwhile, Townsend took part in a gentlemen's horse race in the Italian village of Merano.

The captain's mount placed last in a field of 12.

Leslie Hudson Hits Study Cost

Committee Action on Mentally Retarded Plan Draws Criticism

An expert study of Michigan's needs to provide an adequate program for care of mentally retarded can be had at no expense to the state, Pontiac's State Rep. Leslie H. Hudson (D) said today.

Hudson explained an interim audit and appropriations committee of the State Legislature has recommended spending "not over $15,000" to hire an outside firm to make the survey.

The lawmaker said he introduced a resolution last week at a meeting of an interim committee on mental health, of which he is a member, that the Citizens Research Council of Michigan be asked to make the study.

"The research council, with offices in Detroit and Lansing, has informed me it would do the work with no charge to the state," said Hudson.

"I see no reason to pay for a study when a reliable group has offered to do it for nothing," he added.

The mental health committee took no action on his resolution, Hudson added.

Housing Gadgets Highlight Exhibit of Home Builders

WASHINGTON (AP) — With pomp and ceremony, the National Assn. of Home Builders arranged the unveiling today of the National Housing Center a display building with many an eye-catching gadget for the modern home owner.

* * *

Vice President Nixon headed an array of American and foreign dignitaries slated to attend the formal opening of the 2½-million-dollar structure in downtown Washington.

After Nixon's dedication address, there was to be a literal "unveiling" when a huge royal blue curtain, two stories high and covering the glass front of the building, would be drawn aside.

Among the exhibits:

A garage door that opens from a gadget on an automobile dashboard.

A central vacuum cleaner built into the floor joist, with an attachment to extend to all parts of the home.

A candy firm in Toulouse, France, wants to export to the United States bonbons under the trade name of Cailloux du Gave de Lourdes (pebbles from Lourdes mountain-torrent).

Educators Back in Schoolrooms

104 Attend Sessions at Higgins Lake Site on Learning Problems

One hundred and four educators attending the fifth annual Pontiac Educators' Conference have returned to their classrooms, challenged to do what they can to provide an environment for effective learning in their classrooms.

The conference held Friday through Sunday at Higgins Lake Conservation Camp brought together teachers, principals, administrators and resource people for the purpose of understanding classroom needs.

Agreeing that learning is largely an environmental process, these educators met in individual study groups. Key people who had been chosen to aid them in understanding the child and in understanding one another headed these groups.

Resource personnel pointed out the importance of educators' acquainting themselves with the emotional problems of children. Also pointed out was the fact that the child is a complex, complicated involved organism, no part of which functions alone.

Emotions, physical status, attitudes, intellect, personal relationships all enter into every learning situation, speaker Dr. Guy H. Hill of Michigan State University told those attending the conference.

Importance of student-teacher principal relationships was stressed, with educators recognizing they must understand one another and work together closely to bring about a good environment for the child.

General chairman of the conference was Philip Wargelin, principal of Lincoln Junior High School.

Nationalist Party Leads on Ballot, Guaranteed of Commie Support

By LARRY ALLEN

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—The vote in Indonesia's first general election piled up on the border line of communism today as the Nationalist "Proletarian Front" party increased its commanding lead over its major opponent.

Mohammed Natsir, general chairman of the Moslem Masjumi party, in effect conceded defeat. He told newsmen: "We no longer can expect to get a working majority in the new Parliament."

* * *

With more than a third of the estimated 34 million votes counted, unofficial results gave the nationalists 3,988,954, Masjumi 2,710,951, Communists 2,069,616, and Moslem Orthodox Radicals 1,660,314. The rest were scattered among the other 186 parties on the newspaper-size ballot.

Although the Nationalists were far short of a majority in the popular vote, they could count on the support of the Communists, whose backing kept Nationalist leader Ali Sastroamidjojo's Cabinet in power for the past two years.

* * *

The Reds had high hopes of top Cabinet posts should Sastroamidjojo again take the helm. Previously the Communists had said they would form a coalition government if they were victorious.

The Nationalist organ Suluh Indonesia headlined: "Proletariat Winning Java." The key central island will elect 168 members of the 260-seat Parliament. The final outcome will not be known for weeks as voting continues by stages in the 3,000 islands of the archipelago.

Bandleader Injured in Tour Bus Crash

ALBUQUERQUE (AP) — Hospital authorities and physicians say 21 persons hospitalized after a bus carrying Lionel Hampton's dance band crashed Saturday are recovering.

* * *

One of the members of the nationally known band said a front tire on the special bus blew out, and the big vehicle plunged off a bank 22 miles south of Socorro.

* * *

Hampton was among the injured. He was placed in a Truth or Consequences, N.M., hospital, where the attending physician said he had a broken ankle, but was "out of shock and doing well."

Fight After Accident Is Fatal to Detroiter

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A Detroit salesman beaten by another motorist in an argument growing out of a traffic accident on the near north side died Sunday.

Found unconscious in the hotel room Saturday, he was rushed to a hospital, where he died.

Police sent out a pick up order for the other motorist.

India has halved its tea duty.

Michigan Milk Producers Sign 1,000 to Date in Court Fight

Hope for Oct. 20 Ruling on Order

Dairymen Circulating Petitions in State; Seek 10,000 Signatures

ROMEO—Over 1,000 names already appear on petitions being circulated by members of the Michigan Milk Producers Assn. in their effort to repeal certain by-laws and oust their present board of directors.

The dairymen seek the right to vote individually at their annual meeting. Current policy provides for representation of local MMPA groups at meetings by elected delegates only.

Spearheaded by the Romeo local headed by Harold Fritz, the dairymen began their campaign for higher prices for their milk last December. They first asked for a grand jury investigation of the Detroit Milk Marketing program.

In March they continued their fight for "more democratic rule" by asking for a special meeting to review the by-laws of the association. MMPA directors denied the request.

The protesting members are now requesting a ruling on the statute which allows ten per cent of the MMPA members to sign petitions seeking amendments to the association bylaws thereby enabling them to vie with directors in effecting changes at the annual meeting in Lansing Nov. 3. Other statutes applicable to corporations will also be interpreted by the court.

DISMISSAL REFUSED

Wayne Court Circuit Judge Carl M. Weideman recently refused to dismiss a suit against the rebelling milk local filed by Fritz in April.

The Romeo dairymen's attorney Edward A. Jacob, said today he did not expect the board of directors to honor the ten per cent statute and hoped for a ruling by Oct. 20. This is the date set by the protesting milk producers for the end of their circulation of petitions throughout the state. It is their hope to have 10,000 signatures out of the total 17,000 membership on that date.

In any case, Jacob added, two boards of directors may be elected at the annual meeting; one from the delegates as recognized by the MMPA and one from the membership at large as sought by the rebelling locals.

After a ruling on their lawsuit, if necessary taken to the Supreme Court, one board will take office.

THE LAND OF DOWN UNDER—1
Where the Oldest Is the Newest

Two of our Junior Editors have just received a gift package from a friend in Australia — a toy kangaroo, a boomerang, some coral and a map. Now, because Australia is so far away they may never actually get there, they are planning a pretend journey to it.

Australia is called the "land down under," they discover, because it is down beneath the equator, on the other side of the world. Almost as large as the United States (see map), it is the smallest continent, the only one surrounded entirely by water, and the oldest of all. Also it is the newest because it was the most recently discovered by white men. It was settled first in 1788.

Separated for ages from any other land, it developed or preserved its own very peculiar animals and plants — many of them unlike anything else in the world today.

To start an Australian collection, color this picture and mount it on heavy paper or light cardboard.

British Field Marshal to 'Maintain' Cyprus

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Field Marshal Sir John Harding flew into Nicosia under a security screen today to take control of this troubled British crown colony.

Nicosia residents ignored the arrival of the new governor, who says his first task will be to restore order to the east Mediterranean island and "then maintain it."

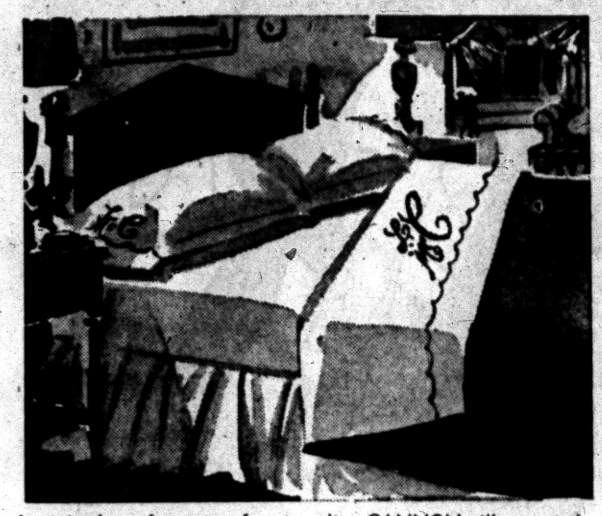

Harding said before leaving London he hoped to meet soon with Archbishop Makarios, the Greek Orthodox prelate who is also a leader of the Cypriot campaign for union with Greece. Britain has offered the 500,000 islanders more self-government but has said self-determination will not be granted for some time. The Cypriots have been fighting back with bombings, riots and other violence.

Sole survivor of a family almost wiped out a quarter century ago when a stack of chaff collapsed on them, a goose in Paarl, South Africa, has celebrated her 26th birthday, on the farm of Jan Rossouw. Her legs are crooked from age but she still swims in the farm dam.

Farm Price Foolishness Expensive to Taxpayers

In recent weeks a lot of loose talk has been heard about the EISENHOWER Administration's failure to do anything for the Nation's farmers.

This, of course, is directly contrary to the facts. Recent statistics show that during fiscal 1955 the Commodity Credit Corporation has lost $799,061,464 in trying to bolster the prices of the so-called basic crops. That huge sum is almost as large as the Government's losses on all its farm price support operations over the previous 18 years.

These payments were made in accordance with the old price support law guaranteeing farmers rigid 90 per cent of parity for these commodities. Under the flexible support program which became effective this year, these losses presumably will be smaller.

But there appears to be no justification for believing they won't continue as long as Government loans above current market prices are available and large surpluses are produced.

What all taxpayers, including farmers, should realize is that this outpouring of Federal money hasn't solved the farm price problem. The evidence seems to be that the policy of paying farmers more for their crops than they could get in the open market works to their disadvantage. It encourages price depressing overproduction.

These figures for fiscal 1955 strongly emphasize the unworkability of the rigid 90 per cent of parity program. Those who are advocating a return to that system are guilty of political and economic irresponsibility.

Surrender of Porkkala Just More Red Hokum

It is important for us in the United States to keep Russia's surrender of the Finns' military base at Porkkala in proper perspective.

Announcement that the 50-year lease is being terminated after only 11 years isn't just what it seems. Actually, it is carefully planned propaganda pressure on us to give up our bases in Europe and Africa. In fact Marshal ZHUKOV already has commented that other countries, notably the United States, would do well to follow Russia's example.

The truth is that Russia isn't giving up anything. It doesn't need Porkkala. It has naval and air bases all along the south shore of the Gulf of Finland, including that at Tallin, opposite Porkkala.

Moreover, the latter base in Finnish hands poses no threat to Russia. Under the treaty of Paris, Finland's military forces are limited to 42,000. Tiny Finland is completely dominated by its giant next door neighbor.

Some other vital facts also will help us avoid misinterpreting the lease termination. Russia hasn't given up one bit of the 10 per cent of Finnish territory acquired in the war settlements of 1940 and 1944. The U.S.S.R. still holds Petsamo, once Finland's only port on the Barents Sea. It also holds Viipuri and the farming areas of Karelia and Lake Ladoga.

In other words, surrender of the lease has cost Russia nothing, benefited Finland little and is no more than propaganda material for the Kremlin.

SPANKING a child may not make him do better, but it makes the parent feel better.

Russia's $25,000 Gesture

In some quarters Russia's $25,000 donation to the New England flood relief fund is being overenthusiastically applauded.

The money was needed and hence is welcome and the Kremlin deserves appropriate thanks. Yet, to keep the Russian donation in proper perspective, it seems wise to look back over our own Government's gifts to unfortunate peoples.

Since World War II this aid to victims of war, famine and disaster in all parts of the world has totaled billions. Millions more have been contributed by private American organizations.

A total of $2.3 billion was given to United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation (UNRRA) by the United States. Much of this money was spent inside Russia. To combat famine in East Germany in 1953, President Eisenhower sent in $15,000,000 worth of foodstuffs.

Another example of American generosity came after last year's Danube floods. In addition to $10,000,000 worth of food, $200,000 in cash was sent to cover the cost of medical supplies. These gifts benefited Russia's satellites — Hungary, Czechoslovakia and East Germany.

Welcome though the Russian contribution is, let's not forget that the Kremlin wouldn't overlook its propaganda value. We also should remember that larger donations were made by many American communities and corporations.

Ever Feel You're Being Followed?

David Lawrence Says:

France's Withdrawal From U. N. Gives Pinay a Chance to Force Soviet Hand

WASHINGTON — At last the "cold war" has reached a climax in which the Western nations can once more take the initiative. The withdrawal of France from the current sessions of the United Nations assembly in New York marks the emergence of the West from the anesthetic of fancied security administered last July by the Russians at Geneva.

* * *

For now the mask has been torn away and the Communists have been revealed as the organizers inside the United Nations of an anti-Western bloc of Asian and Arab nations growing out of the Bandung conference. The vote of 28 to 27 in the United Nations Assembly to throw open to discussion what France considers an internal problem—the disaffection in her colony in Algeria—means that by a majority vote of nations many of which are under totalitarian rule or control, the United States, Great Britian and France have been defeated and made to appear as opposed only to the discussion of the question instead of its implications as a precedent.

But on the very same day Moscow was proclaiming her right to sell arms to Egypt and was declaring that any effort to thwart the sale is an interference with the internal affairs of Egypt, Such hypocrisy emphasizes the double standard practiced by the Soviets in trying to get the Algerian issue aired in the United Nations. Antoine Pinay, foreign minister of France, wisely withdrew his delegation. What's more, this correspondent is informed that M. Pinay doesn't intend to go to Moscow this month as planned and neither does Premier Edgar Faure.

The French delegation will go to Geneva for the Big Four foreign ministers' conference but this is in conformity with the desire to present a united front along with Great Britain and the United States as against Soviet Russia.

FRANCE IS RIGHT

France is 100 per cent right in her attitude in pulling out of the U. N. sessions. For the U. N. must never be used by a bloc of nations as an instrument of controversy that can provoke a war. M. Pinay has a wonderful opportunity to turn the tables on the Russians. He might agree, indeed, to the principle of discussion of Algeria or any other problem of that kind in North Africa if it can be demonstrated that the peace of the world is threatened there, which, of course, is not true.

But at the same time the French foreign minister might insist that if the principle of discussing internal affairs is applied, it should be first considered with respect to those nations which have already won their independence and proved themselves capable of self-government but which have lost their liberties and their sovereignty due to usurpation of control by Moscow and by the International Communist Party.

Certainly there is little use talking about granting freedom to small colonies in North Africa if, when they get their independence, as in the case of Egypt, they immediately fall prey to the Communist influence in the world and thus increase rather than diminish tension. This has just happened between Egypt and Israel. As long as Communist totalitarianism exists, the world hasn't been made safe for any democracy.

If the United Nations moreover is to remain true to the principles of its charter it must make sure that all countries which are members are free from threats of agression. Inevitably Soviet Russia as an aggressor comes up for trial herself. Her record in instigating the Korean War and then in brazenly sending arms and supplies to the Chinese Communists so they could intervene against the United Nations in that war is well known.

The world would have an opportunity to discuss all these subjects if the French government chose now to accept the principle of discussion on condition that priority is given to the many instances of frustration by Moscow of Nationalist aspirations in the countries behind the Iron Curtain.

Certainly if Soviet Russia were willing to open up to examination by a United Nations commission all the denials of justice and the enforced slavery of individuals in Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, Poland, Romania, Hungary, Bulgaria and Czechoslovakia there night be something accomplished to rid the world of the worst kind of colonialism that prevails today.

By insisting that they will discuss North Africa after the safety of the peoples in the satellite countries of Eastern Europe is assured, the French can strike a real blow for human freedom in the propaganda battles of the "cold war."

* * *

The hoped-for "relaxation of tension" in the world, therefore, has been torpedoed by the Moscow government. Hence the opportunities are opened up for the West to place the blame squarely on the Communist intriguers and infiltrators and thus show the oppressed people that the West not only has not forgotten them but is alert to the true meaning and purpose behind the Soviet pretense of the so-called doctrine of "peaceful coexistence."

Brady Surprised to Find He Really Likes Tomatoes

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

My antipathy for mashed potato developed when I was a little boy—at Thanksgiving dinner at Grandma's I announced that I wanted just turkey and nothing else. I was served some mashed potato with the assurance I'd get some turkey when I finished eating the potato.

I got even by spurning mashed potato thereafter. For years I primly turned my glass upside down when urged to have a snifter of mashed potato—you drink it, don't you?—and all the time I took secret pleasure thinking that I could take it or let it alone, but I never drank a drop of the stuff, just to show 'em.

For years I had an antipathy for tomato or tomato juice, fresh or canned. When I was a boy in Canandaigua we grew tomatoes in the garden, and some people picked and ate 'em right off the vine. The tomatoes were not far from that small structure—but I can't remember whether I thought of that.

I just didn't like tomatoes. Certainly a citizen has a right to like or dislike anything he chooses or to take or let alone. I carried on with the quirk until my daughter, editor, ghost writer, biographer, suggested that tomato might taste different than it did when I was a boy. She persuaded me to take just a sip of tomato juice. I tried it and and it was good. I've enjoyed tomato and tomato juice ever since.

COMBINATIONS

Fish and chips, bread and butter, cookies and milk, pork and beans, meat and potato, ham and eggs, crackers and cheese, liver and bacon, corned beef and cabbage, macaroni and cheese, spareribs and sauerkraut are food combinations that appeal to most appetities.

From tests of volunteers physiologists concluded that the taste of meat induces secretion of a gastric juice especially suited for the digestion of meat. This juice is similar to the juice secreted in response to the taste of bread, but quite different from that secred in response to the taste of milk.

The scientists inferred that this explains why bread and milk or bread and meat are palatable, while milk and meat, or milk and fish, do not go well together.

* * *

A motherly waitress was loath to serve ice cream for dessert after lobster. On the other hand a railroad man ordered meat, potato, coffee and toast or bread and butter, coleslaw and pudding or pie, all served at once, mixed everything thoroughly and ate the potpourri with evident relish, while other patrons of the lunch counter averted their eyes or fled the premises. The man declared it was all going into the stomach so why fuss about the order in which one disposed of the items?

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Voice of the People

'Ice Rink Would Benefit Nearby Town Residents'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

After reading the several letters on a proposed artificial ice rink for Pontiac, I became very interested, as I am a skating enthusiast myself. I think that an artificial ice rink would provide recreational enjoyment for both the young and the old.

Although I live in a town well surrounded by lakes and ponds, weather conditions do not always permit lots of skating. However, if there were an artificial rink near by, where I could skate regardless of the weather, I am sure that would become a great part of my recreation.

I am confident that an artificial ice rink in Pontiac would be used not only by persons in Pontiac, but by persons in the many nearby towns also. The rink would be appreciated by all.

Investors Should Realize That All Stocks Fluctuate

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

The rebirth of the American concept of opportunity, as contrasted with the depression-bred overemphasis of economic "security," is a healthy trend.

* * *

It puts this generation in better harmony with reality.

For life, including business and investment, is far from a riskless adventure.

This self-evident truth was dramatically revealed when in a single session, following announcement of President Eisenhower's coronary thrombosis, the Dow Jones average price of industrial stocks tumbled 31.89 points, or 6.54 per cent, the biggest decline since October 1929.

* * *

To those who still lived in the world of illusion and regarded the mere opinions of tipsters, forecasters in regular services and brokers as an infallible guide to the future, it may have come as a surprise to discover that the stock market itself was utterly unprepared for the news about Ike.

MANY FACTORS

Rarely does it become feasible to interpret market movements in terms of one development. Ordinarily there are a complex of factors, hopes and expectations motivating buyers and sellers.

* * *

But there were earlier isolated episodes to make clear that the future is unknowable even to the stock market.

Thus three decades ago at high noon, traders waited with bated breath for the Supreme Court to hand down a decision as to the taxability for personal income tax purposes of corporate stock dividends.

The ticker announced that the court had held such stock dividends to be taxable, and the market took a nose dive of 15 points.

NOT A MACHINE

This incident clearly demonstrated that the stock market is no mere perfect machine for recording reality, but responds to purchases and sales by human beings irrespective of whether action is based on truth or error.

* * *

The long term investor, who buys outright, should be psychologically prepared for life's vicissitudes.

If long-term investment is his objective and if he has chosen his portfolio wisely, he should not expect prices perpetually to move upward on a one-way street.

The great long-term corporate successes, which did fantastically well for their patient owners, also were subjected to intermediate price breaks.

* * *

Managing directors of corporations, recalling that shares were sold to employes at high prices in the late 1920s, shied away from selling shares to a new generation of employes, even during depression when stocks were demonstrably undervalued in terms of assets and earning power.

Even though stock averages have risen for more than two years, it is not sensible to ignore the benefit in terms of constructive industrial relations that come from giving workers an opportunity to own part of the tools through acquisition of stock.

* * *

Some companies, including General Electric, Du Pont and Sun Oil, diminish the speculative risk inherent in stock ownership by employes by contributing part of the cost.

Dad Insists That 17-Year-Old Daughter Wait Until Graduation Before Dating

Dads, get wise to the facts of life. This is 1955. Alma is 17 and wants to date a nice boy, but her father refuses. He is thus killing much of her happiness in her senior year of high school by his arbitrary decision. Rate yourselves on the tests for successful parents described below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case P-355: Alma D., aged 17, is a high school senior.

"Dr. Crane, I am a regular church goer and I try to live a Christian life," she began.

"And I have wonderful parents, except for one thing. My Daddy doesn't allow me to have dates.

"He thinks I'm too young and says I can't go with boys till I am out of high school.

* * *

"But that spoils much of my fun, for in our senior year we have parties and dances where it is neeessary to go in couples.

"Dr. Crane, I have met a wonderful boy. He is 20 and I like him a lot. But I have been seeing him on the sly for I know my Daddy will raise a row if he knows about it.

"He took me to church last week, but Daddy had to work so he didn't know about it. Next Sunday this boy wants to escort me to church again, so how can I break the news to Daddy?"

DADS, WAKE UP

Many fathers can't realize that children grow up so quickly. They may also cherish old-fashioned notions about etiquette and teenage social life.

Nowadays boys and girls start going to school affairs by the time they enter high school, and certainly by their junior year, it is normal for them to be dating at school or church parties.

If a girl is unattended by an escort, she is deprived of much of the fun of her last year in high school, so a father should be grateful when a respectable young fellow asks to escort his daughter.

Alma's dad is thus in error. It is O.K. to forbid dates with nitwit youth who drink and obviously indicate their juvenility by trying to be hot rod drivers and show-offs.

* * *

But when well adjusted young fellows ask for a date, and when they are known to the girl's family and of good moral standing, it is a sign of parental abnormality to forbid dates to girls like Alma.

Some fathers rationalize by claiming that they are sincerely concerned about protecting their daughters from mishap.

But this is often a camouflage for an abnormal emotional attachment which the father has for his daughter.

He is jealous of the younger fellows who seek her companionship, but tries to cover up that fact by his excessive concern for her welfare.

Many mothers, especially widows, likewise grow jealous when their sons start dating one girl regularly.

These mothers may be as sweet as pie as long as their sons go with many girls. But when a boy starts centering his affection on one, then they try to break up the romance, even though the son is a mature adult and old enough to be thinking of marriage.

TEST FOR FATHERS

If you fathers aren't sure how to carry off your duties adequately, then send for the "Tests for Successful Parents," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (this is a non-profit service), and rate yourselves.

Let your children rate you, too. Maybe you are sincere in your efforts to do right by your children but just out of step with modern social customs.

So rate yourselves and find out. Some girls want to date steadily and at too early an age. Others pick reckless, immoral boy friends, so parents may legitimately have a sound argument.

But if they are respectable young people, attending legitimate social events, then try to stay in step with the age in which you live by giving reasonable dating privileges to high schoolers.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Refrigerator Features Food on Open Shelves

ST. LOUIS — A St. Louis refrigerator manufacturer has developed a refrigerated open shelf for use in food markets and is testing it throughout the country.

The shelf, entirely open in front, is desinged to keep fresh meats, vegetables, and dairy products.

It is not for use in storing frozen foods, although the company hopes to develop such a shelf, too.

Mississippi Trial Witness Found

Chicago Defender Says It Has Located Missing Till Case Testifier

CHICAGO (AP)—A man reported to be a potential witness who never appeared at the Mississippi trial of two white men acquitted of murdering a Chicago Negro boy is said to be in the care of a Negro newspaper.

Enoch Waters, executive director of the Chicago Defender, said yesterday Leroy (Too Tight) Collins had been brought to Chicago by a reporter for the Tri-State Defender of Memphis, Tenn.

Waters said the reporter located Collins in Mississippi. Collins, a Negro, disappeared before the trial of Roy Bryant, 24, and his half-brother J. W. Milam.

Milan and Bryant were acquitted of murdering 14-year-old Emmett Louis Till. They are awaiting trial on charges of kidnaping the boy.

Collins is being interviewed by attorneys, Waters said, but he did not identify the attorneys or say where Collins is staying in Chicago. He said he will notify newsmen if Collins decides to make a statement.

The editor said another Negro man described as a missing potential witness, Henry Lee Loggin, is now in Glendora, Miss.

Meanwhile, two witnesses who did not appear at the trial were in Chicago hospitals for treatment of nervous exhaustion.

Mrs. Mamie Bradley, 33, the slain boy's mother, was in Provident Hospital, where her condition was described as "fair." She was admitted Saturday night, a few hours after addressing a National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People rally in Detroit.

The other witness, Willie Reed, 18, is in Michael Reese Hospital.

Device Reads, Records 7,200 Checks an Hour

NEW YORK — A New York business-machine company reports development of an electronic device that will "read" the serial numbers on 7,200 travelers checks an hour and automatically reproduce them on punch cards.

The machine consists of scanning and punching devices connected by cables.

It is said to do the work of 10 skilled card-punch operators and to reduce the "traditional error factor of one per cent to considerably less than a tenth of one per cent."

Wichita Floods Drive 600 From Homes

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—More than 600 persons were evacuated from their homes in the north section of Wichita yesterday after a thunderstorm flooded the area with seven inches of rain.

Swollen waters of the Arkansas River also flooded farm lands north of the city and covered some state roads.

High winds hampered rescue operations but no deaths or injuries were reported.

Other sections in southeastern Kansas also received heavy rains. Coffeyville received more than 4½ inches and Independence 4.31.

Nixon Confers With Ike's Aide

Informal White House Talks on Routine Topics to Continue

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Nixon arranged to stop off at the White House today for what he termed a routine conference with President Eisenhower's chief legislative aide.

* * *

The informal talk with Maj. Gen. Wilton B. Persons (ret) was arranged before last night's announcement in Denver that Eisenhower "did not feel as well as usual."

"It is going to be my practice to go by the White House to go over routine matters," Nixon told newsmen.

Earlier, the vice president declared that during the first week of Eisenhower's enforced absence "things have gone smoothly and government business has been carried on without delays or interruptions."

Nixon hit this "government as usual" note, much as he had a week ago, in talking with reporters after he and his family attended church services yesterday.

* * *

"I can say without qualification," he added, "that every official of the government with whom I have been in contact has had only one goal in mind, and that is to see that the government ran in a way just as close as possible to the way we think the President would have wanted it to run under such circumstances."

In a separate statement, the vice president announced that the National Equal Economic Opportunity Conference scheduled for Oct. 25 will proceed as planned despite Eisenhower's illness.

Closer Yugoslav, U.S. Relations Expected

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Robert Murphy, deputy U. S. undersecretary of state, left Belgrade today after a week of talks which Yugoslav circles believe launched closer American - Yugoslav cooperation in economic, military and political affairs.

Murphy saw top Yugoslav leaders during his stay, including President Tito. A joint communique said, "Differences of opinion have been settled and a clearer understanding of objectives has been reached."

At a news conference Saturday Murphy said a satisfactory formula had been found to settle a dispute over American inspection of arms delivered to this country under the mutual aid program.

Eisenhower Asks Support of United Charity Appeals

NEW YORK (AP)—President Eisenhower has asked Americans to support the united charity campaigns to be conducted in communities throughout the nation in the next two months.

* * *

In a recorded and filmed message broadcast last night over all major radio and television networks, the President called these united drives "the biggest single voluntary cause in our nation."

The President's appeal was recorded and filmed before his heart attack.

* * *

He said the various agencies that join together to make one charity appeal in their communities deserve a "united response."

"So when the volunteer campaigner knocks at our doors and at our hearts," he continued, "I urge that we all unite to give him a neighborly welcome."

Russia, searching more chemicals to grow more food, has discovered natural potassium salts in the Ural region, covering nearly 1,000 square miles, Moscow reports.

Federal Employment August Increase, 482

WASHINGTON (AP)—The federal government added a net of 482 employes during August for the seventh consecutive monthly increase in its civilian employment, Sen. Byrd (D-Va) announced today.

Byrd is chairman of the Joint Committee on Reduction of non-essential Federal Expenditures, which keeps a continuing check on federal payrolls.

The increase, all of which was laid to new civilian hiring by the armed services, raised over-all civilian employment to 2,385,077 persons.

Grand Rapids Resident Found Dead in His Car

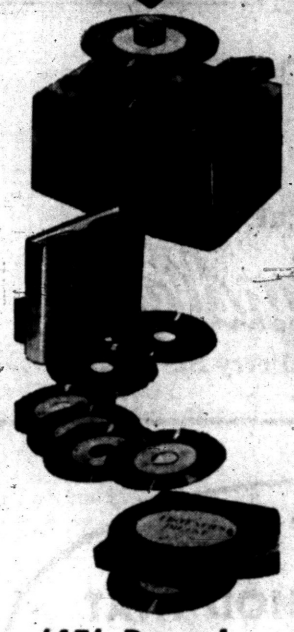

PARCHMENT, Mich. (AP)—Selby Miller, president of the Miller Equipment Co., a Grand Rapids heavy road equipment firm, was found dead in his car yesterday near Parchment in Kalamazoo County.

Miller, 72, was reported missing Friday by his family after he failed to return home from a visit with his son, Donald, in Kalamazoo. Chief Deputy Glenn K. Hammel of Kalamazoo County said Miller's death was ruled the result of a heart attack.

Probe Brooklyn Museum Thefts

Gotham Police Puzzled by 'Clueless' Robbery of Rare Statuettes

NEW YORK (AP)—Police searched today for clues leading to the nimble-finger thief or thieves who took eight tiny but priceless statuettes from the Brooklyn Museum.

* * *

The case was a museum director's nightmare. The little silver figures had been loaned from eight other collections for a special exhibit called "Sculpture in Silver From Islands of Time."

Although police were not notified of the theft until yesterday, Museum Director Edgar C. Schenck said it had been discovered nearly 24 hours earlier. The delay was to give museum officials time to tell the lending institutions, he explained.

CASES NOT DAMAGED

The theft occurred while the museum was open. A guard was stationed in the hall outside the second-floor exhibit room. He did not have the exhibit of statuettes in view all the time, but checked them periodically.

The missing figures were among 30 on display and were enclosed in four separate cases. The cases were not damaged. Police figured a thief could have gotten into them, however, by removing two screws from a glass panel in each case.

* * *

If this was what the thief did, he was careful to replace all the screws.

The stolen figures could have been carried out of the building easily in a coat pocket or woman's handbag. The largest missing item was only 4¾ inches tall and the smallest was 1½ inches high.

* * *

The exhibit had been assembled by the American Federation of Arts, and all the items were insured by the lending museums, Schenck said. He declined to set a value on the missing pieces, simply saying they were very rare and "irreplaceable."

To Exhibit Police Dogs

DETROIT (AP)—Mrs. Marguerite Johnson, public safety director in Dearborn, has taken two German shepherd dogs, attached to the suburb's police department, to the International Police Chief's Conference in Philadelphia today. The dogs will be exhibited for the chiefs' examination.

The 347 tanneries of West Germany are now employing 28,900 workers, Bonn reports.

Senate Puts Off Public Hearing on Faith Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) A Senate subcommittee's scheduled hearing today on religious freedom has been postponed indefinitely, partly because of disagreement over the wisdom of such a public hearing.

A spokesman for the Constitutional Rights subcommittee said the backstage controversy figured in the postponement decision, which Chairman Hennings (D-Mo) announced Friday. At the time, Hennings said the delay would give added time for analyzing replies to 10,000 questionnaires which had been sent out.

* * *

The spokesman said no single religious faith was involved. He said Protestants, Catholics and Jews have taken both sides on the question of holding the hearings.

Some persons have contended hearings might unnecessarily open up sores between religious faiths, he said, while others have contended they would clarify and promote understanding of religious issues that have caused controversy in the past.

7 Football Fans Die in Arkansas Wreck

EUDORA, Ark. (AP) — Seven persons are dead of injuries received when their auto rammed headon into a bus returning a football team to Little Rock, Ark.

Seven occupants of the bus were injured. Eugene Reed, the driver, and Charles Sanders, a football player, were in serious condition at University Hospital in Little Rock. Both are students at Philander Smith College.

Eudora Police Chief W. H. Mathis said the auto swerved into the path of the bus on U.S. Highway 65 just north of here.

The team was returning from a Saturday night game with Dillard University at New Orleans.

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Floods in the wake of three disastrous hurricanes besieged much of eastern Mexico today. Pleas for relief taxed the capacity of the government.

* * *

Damage to the Mexico City-Laredo highway apparently was more serious than first reported. The main tourist route may be closed for some time.

Tamazunchale, a favorite tourist stopover usually pronounced Thomas-and-Charlie, was reported completely inundated by the raging Moctezuma River. The big steel bridge there was said to have been washed out. A messenger walked the 70 miles to Ciudad Valles with a note from the mayor saying the city of 25,000 was under water and running short of food.

Ciudad Valles and nearby Tamuin, a tourist resort, also were under water and officials asked for helicopter aid. Thousands were homeless.

Four more persons were drowned near Martinez de la Torre, bringing Mexico's death toll from Hurricane Janet to 290. More than 1,000 were injured and some 100,000 homeless.

Relief and rescue work continued at top speed in the two hardest hit areas around the Gulf port of Tampico and on the Yucatan Peninsula.

* * *

U.S. helicopters from the aircraft carrier Saipan, anchored outside Tampico, were in almost constant operation to transfer food, medical supplies and doctors from the carrier. Ten U.S. Air Force transports shuttled from Texas bases with food and clothing. Other U.S. aid ships were expected.

New Charter Vote Set

Now! Turn Your Waste Gas Into SUPER POWER!

IT'S TRUE! Now you can get the breath-taking acceleration . . . jack-rabbit starts . . . blazing new power that you've dreamed about for years—simply by harnessing the raw, unburnt gasoline that your engine is wasting today!

You can get performance from your present car that will make your friends gasp with astonishment—and you can save $25, $50, even $75 a year on gas bills alone doing it!

Yes! You, yourself can fit this amazing GASOLINE ATOMIZER on to your car in as little as 20 easy minutes! And it is guaranteed to pay you back your full purchase price, in gas savings alone, in the first 3 to 4 short months that you use it. Here's why!

By RICHARD JOHNS

Mr. Car Owner! How would you like to have the driving thrill of your life next weekend?

Picture this yourself! Next weekend you go down to your car—the same tired car that you've been driving for years. You've made only one simple change to that car, so easy that your 16-year-old son could do it! But now, when you turn on the ignition, a modern miracle of engineering science comes to life under your hood!

From the very first moment, you'll see and feel the difference in that engine. That engine will hum with new, throbbing power. When you release the emergency brake, your car will glide out of its parking space . . . roll down the street with your foot hardly touching the pedal. Every 30 or 40 seconds, you'll give that car an extra shot of gas . . . feeling it spurt ahead . . . testing the new power that's singing underneath your foot!

We ask you to pull up to another car at the stop light, of approximately the same year and make as your own! Wait until the light changes from red to green. Let the other car start first. Wait till the other car gets half way across the street. And then slam your foot down on the gas pedal!

Before that other car has even crossed the street, you will have caught up with him. For one brief second, you and that other car will race fender to fender. And then you will flash away from him . . . you will leave him a full block behind . . . you will look in your rear view mirror and see the startled look of amazement in the other driver's eyes!

TEST THIS NEW POWER A HUNDRED DIFFERENT WAYS!

But this is just the beginning! Test this equipment for one full month—entirely at our risk! Test it on the highway! Use it to flash away from other cars . . . spurt up the steepest hills . . . actually pass other cars in 2, 4, 6 and even 8 seconds LESS than you could have done formerly!

Test this equipment in long-range driving! See the enormous gas savings it gives you at high speeds! Prove to yourself that at 50 . . . 60 . . . even 70 miles an hour, your foot is still half-way up on the pedal—you still have all the reserve power you need to get out of any emergency on the highway!

Yes, and test this equipment in stop-and-go city driving! Prove to yourself that it gives you the instant acceleration you need to get out in front of the crowd . . . with far less gas than you're using today! Prove to yourself that it can actually save you $25 to $50 to $75 on your gas bills every single year . . . that it actually pays back its full cost, in gas savings alone, during the first three or four months—or your full money back!

WE GUARANTEE YOUR GAS SAVINGS!

Clip this guarantee section out of this page. It authorizes you to try this amazing new MINI-SUPERCHARGER for a full four months ENTIRELY AT OUR RISK! At the end of that time, this device must save you—on gas alone—EVERY SINGLE CENT OF THE MONEY THAT YOU PAID FOR IT—OR YOUR FULL MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED! This offer is good for a full four months! It is probably the most amazing offer in car history! You have nothing to lose! ACT TODAY!

Eugene Stevens, Pres.

HOW DOES THIS PRODUCT GIVE YOU SUCH TREMENDOUS NEW POWER?

And you get all this performance—and more—from a small, polished machine of bronze and aluminum that you can hold in your hand! Here's why:

Gasoline in its liquid form is not explosive. If you accidentally drop a lighted match into a bucket full of gasoline, the chances are 10 to 1 that that gasoline will actually put out that match. But simply mix that same bucket full of gas with the proper amount of air, and you will have enough explosive power to drive a ten ton truck!

The main purpose of this machine is to SUPER-MIX . . . SUPER-VAPORIZE . . . SUPER-ATOMIZE your gas in exactly that way! To squeeze the hidden power out of that gas! To mix that gas with much greater volumes of air! To make that gas more explosive in the engine of your car!

No wonder men have paid up to $600 for Superchargers! What we are offering you on this page is a MINI-SUPERCHARGER—easier to install—less expensive! But still the only power product you can buy with all these tremendous advantages:

1. You can install it yourself, in just 30 minutes, even if you never picked up a tool before in your life! No $10, $15 or $20 mechanic's bills! No drilling, or grinding of any kind! You never even touch the inside of your engine!

2. It never needs further adjustments, for the full lifetime of your car! Nothing to go out of order or break down on the highway.

3. It takes up no room in your car . . . makes no "souped-up" noise! No shifting around of engine parts. No "hot rod" noises to cause embarrassment!

YES! THIS AMAZING "MINI-SUPERCHARGER" BOOSTS THE POWER OF YOUR ENGINE AS MUCH AS 25%! Gives you the gas economy you've dreamed about for years! Here's why. This Power Booster works on exactly the same principle as superchargers selling for as high as $600. Its whirlwind propeller (A) breaks up the raw, unburnt gas that your engine is wasting today . . . gives you up to 25% more engine-driving power from every drop! Its emergency breather valve (B) forces huge quantities of fresh air into your engine . . . forces that engine to breath deeper . . . push harder . . . pile up more mileage from every gallon you buy! It gives you A TREMENDOUS NEW BURST OF MONEY-SAVING POWER, just when you need it most—when you flash away from traffic . . . shoot up steep hills . . . pick up speed on the open highway! No wonder dozens of leading car magazines call this the "money-saving discovery of the year." Test this amazing gas-saver yourself — without risking a penny! THE THRILLING FACTS ARE ON THIS PAGE!

Here's Proof!

SCIENTIFIC TESTS SHOW AMAZING NEW HORSEPOWER, STARTLING GAS SAVINGS!

Installation of the item was exceptionally easy — less than 25 minutes. Immediate results show a definite increase of 11 horsepower on the Dynamometer — and the increase in mileage was easily up to 5 miles more per gallon.

—Sincerely, VINCENT LOMBARDI, Service Manager of one of the country's largest new-car organizations.

SO EASY TO INSTALL THAT EVEN YOUR 16-YEAR-OLD SON CAN DO IT!

HERE'S ALL YOU DO!

Step 1. Open your hood. Locate Air Cleaner and Carburetor Unit that sits smack on top of your engine. Simply take an ordinary wrench and loosen the two or three bolts that hold carburetor to the engine!

Step 2. Lift up the carburetor. Put MINI-SUPERCHARGER unit in place. What could be easier?

Step 3. Replace carburetor. Now turn on your engine! And then get in and take the most thrilling drive of your life!

TRY IT ENTIRELY AT OUR RISK

This MINI-SUPERCHARGER (U.S. Patent No. 2,409,937) sells for only $11.95 for most cars and only $14.95 if your car has a special four-barrel carburetor. This is your total cost—there is no installation fee! And, most important of all, we guarantee that you will save this full purchase in gas bills alone—in the first 3 to 4 months that you own this device.

You have nothing to lose! Try this equipment entirely at our risk. It must give you a whole new world of driving pleasure and economy or your full money back! Act today!

WONDERFUL FOR OLDER CARS TOO!

"I can hardly believe my eyes. I tried this out on the family's second car, an older 1949 Plymouth with 54,000 miles on it. We used to call this car the gutless wonder. Now I would venture to say that it has 15 more horses, so we will be glad to discontinue that name."
— R. B. Ames, San Pedro, Calif.

FAR BETTER MILEAGE FROM A FEW EASY MINUTES' WORK.

"I must tell you about the wonderful results your supercharger has given my 1954 Ford V-8. On a recent trip to Canada I averaged an easy 22 miles a gallon both going and coming, and the new power I get is really thrilling."
— Mrs. Jeanette Ellenbogan, Bronx, N. Y.

"I have a 1951 Chrysler Windsor. Before installing your Mini-Supercharger I got approximately 15 miles per gallon. Since installing this supercharger I get as much as 20 miles per gallon."
— A. E. Masterson, Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Received two superchargers for my Buick and Chevrolet. Am well pleased with them. It made a difference on the Buick Roadmaster from 14 to 20 miles a gallon. Would not take fifty dollars for them."
— O. J. Bryant, Yellowstone Park, Wyo.

Gaza Girls Earn Their Own Way

By DAVID HINNAWI
(For Hal Boyle)

CAIRO (AP) — Wives are getting scarcer every day in the Gaza strip.

Living there are 250,000 refugees who fled Palestine homes at the outbreak of hostilities between Arabs and Jews in 1948. They are on U. N. dole in camps in the Egyptian held part of Palestine.

As soon as the maturing refugee girls receive their school diplomas they are off to seek jobs in distant Arab countries where demands for teachers, nurses and secretaries are great.

Inflation of dowries has resulted from the shortage of elegible maidens. Bachelors have complained of the fabulous sums demanded as dowry. An average figure reached recently is equivalent to $3,000.

* * *

This desire of the refugee teenagers to support themselves is revolutionary in this part of the world. In the rest of the Arab countries the sons often remain dependent on their parents until they are well in their 20s. The girls after their schooling remain home until they are married.

But apparently the last thing this generation of educated refugee girls want to do is to marry a fellow and live in povety.

Almost all the refugee girls of age attend schools financed by the United Nations. Passing in examinations is in many cases 100 per cent.

As soon as the girls receive their diplomas they apply for jobs in Kuwait, Iraq, Libya or Saudi Arabia.

Demand for educated people and the heat which discourages people from working in these underdeveloped but oil-rich countries keep wages high.

Salk Polio Vaccine Praised by Scheele

DETROIT (AP)—Surgeon General Leonard A. Scheele said today preliminary reports indicate the Salk antipolio vaccine has reduced the incidence of paralytic polio among vaccinated children by 50 per cent or more.

* * *

"It is difficult not to be very optimistic about the value of the vaccine as used this year," Scheele said.

In a talk prepared for the Economic Club of Detroit, Scheele said the vaccine's apparent curb on paralytic polio is all the more notable because many of the youngsters studied had received only one shot instead of the recommended three.

* * *

"It is reasonable to expect even greater protection when the full course of immunization is completed," he said.

Indoor Sportsmen Flock to New York for Series

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—The World's Series madness has come upon us and while I'm no baseball specialist, I surely do write about sports—"indoor sports."

★ ★ ★ ★

And so as "Indoor Sports Editor," I assure you that thousands of indoor sportsmen are making our town inordinately gay these nights. The celebrities swirling about the night beat and having a ball at baseball time don't necessarily discuss baseball . . . or even mention it.

RUSSELL LEE

"South Pacific" author James Michener, out last week with Rita Hayworth, was at Sardi's one night with pretty Audrey Meadows.

"What about you and Rita?" I asked him ever so subtly.

"Oh, we were talking about Islam," he replied.

"Is what?" I asked. He winced, justifiably perhaps, at the worst attempt at punning he's heard in years.

★ ★ ★ ★

Good old Jack Oakie, a Dodger fan, was there too, from Hollywood.

I'd like to tell you that Jack is much thinner.

I'd like to, but I'm too honest.

"We stopped in Cleveland by mistake for the series. We had understood from some of the Cleveland sports writers that Cleveland had the pennant cinched," joked Jack.

I forgot to tell you about the indoorest indoor sport of all—the selection of a pretty blonde gal, Russell Lee, 26, of Richmond, Va., to live for two weeks in a window . . . the 14th Street show window of The Fair on Union Square. She's been watching the Series from a TV set in the window.

JOAN COLLINS

Maybe it all sounds pretty weird, but occasionally there was a quieter note, as, for instance, when Rocky Marciano, discussing boxing, said his mother always lights two candles the night he fights.

One she lights for his opponent.

"So I won't hurt him," Rocky said.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

The 64G Question will hypo the show—if it ever becomes necessary—by bringing quizees from abroad . . . Paul Muni, though recovering nicely, has no plan just yet for returning to the stage . . . Jackie Gleason blew 3Gs betting on Archie Moore.

Judy Garland says she may be ready for another CBS-TV spectacular—in six months.

Leo Durocher (now an NBC exec) ducked a scheduled guest appearance on "I've Got a Secret" (on CBS) . . . "Girl in the Red Velvet Swing," with Joan Collins, is the Roxy's next feature.

He'll Walk Next Time

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP)—No doubt Frank Snow will be more careful the next time he thumbs a ride. Snow, a short-term prisoner, escaped from a Halifax county prison camp road gang. A short time later he flagged down a car. The motorist happened to be a deputy sheriff, who gave him a ride back to camp.

Boston Seeks Killer of Shoeshine Boy

BOSTON (INS)—The pleas of an anguished father and mother today spurred police in the hunt for the slayer of William McGrath, 12-year-old shoeshine boy, knifed to death in an alley in the theatrical district.

* * *

Homicide division detectives were engaged in a roundup of known sex deviates and hoodlums in the hunt for the slayer of Billy, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. McGrath of Cambridge.

Twelve suspects have been questioned and released. Police issued a call for the apprehension of a 26-year-old Micmac Indian, who went berserk near the scene of the slaying, but later was released from city hospital where he had been brought by police for treatment. He was believed en route back to his home on an Eastport, Maine, reservation.

Billy's body was found yesterday morning. His clothing had been disarranged and he had been stabbed twice, in the stomach and heart.

Benny's Daughter May Divorce Spouse

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Comedian Jack Benny's 20-year-old adopted daughter Joan and New York stockbroker Seth Baker, 27 — wed in a lavish ceremony here 18 months ago — have separated, a spokesman for Benny said last night.

He said the cause was "incompatibility." Asked whether a divorce was contemplated, he replied, "I don't know."

The spokesman said the couple came here with their 2½-month-old son Michael for a visit with Benny and his wife Mary Livingstone over the Labor Day holiday. Baker returned alone to New York two or three weeks ago, he added.

Rinse, Rinse Off Soap for Beautiful Skin

Take care of your skin. Harsh methods, hot water, and rough scrubbing are hard on the skin. Use warm water, mild soap, and a soft cloth. Most women don't rinse half enough.

Rinse, rinse, and rinse again. Leave no soap at all; it's a fine exhilarating cleanser, but once its job is done, remove it completely. Then to cleanse, defend and smooth a dry skin, there's no better friend than cream.

Begin to use it the minute you see a glassy shine, flaking, or any roughness or coarsening that indicates a lack of oil.

200 Attend Bigelow-Brockman Nuptials

The Rev. Otto G. Schultz of Grace Lutheran Church performed the wedding ceremony uniting Sally Ann Brockman and J. L. Bigelow in marriage. The service was performed Saturday evening in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brockman of Drayton Plains, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Bigelow of Birchcrest drive.

The bridal gown of Chantilly lace over satin featured a fitted bodice with long sleeves pointed at the wrist and a stand up collar forming a sweetheart neckline. Sequins and seed pearls were embroidered around the neckline. Her accordion pleated lace skirt fell floor length.

Her headpiece, a Chantilly lace pill box incrested with sequins and seed pearls, secured a finger tip veil of illusion. Small pearl earrings were her only jewelry and she carried an imported French handmade lace handkerchief. The bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white fugi chrysanthemums centered with a white orchid and with streamers of white baby chrysanthemums and lovers knots.

* * *

Yvonne Mitchell of Drayton Plains served as maid of honor wearing a waltz-length gown of coral crystal silk over taffeta fashioned with a cowl neckline, short sleeves, and a waist line of accordion pleated tucking forming an empire effect.

The cowl neckline fell into a low V in the back and a wide full bow formed a bustle effect. Her headpiece matched her bouquet of baby chrysanthemums tinted old gold.

BRIDESMAIDS LISTED

Mary Lou Falkner of Drayton Plains and Noreen Bigelow were bridesmaids. Their dresses were fashioned after the maid of honor's gown in a peacock color. Their headpieces also matched their bouquets of rust colored chrysanthemums and yellow fugi chrysanthemums.

Cindy McConnaughey, niece of the bride, was dressed in a white nylon frock with tiers of ruffled lace and short puffed sleeves, for her duties as flower girl. Roddy Roy, the bride's nephew, was ring bearer.

Richard Diener served as best man assisted by George Reynolds of Drayton Plains and Jim Crothers who seated the guests. Kenneth Ish sang the bridal recital.

For the reception held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony, Mrs. Brockman received the guests wearing an ivory brocade silk faille dress with avocado accessories. Her corsage was of happiness red roses. Mrs. Bigelow wore a slate gray lace over pink satin dress with gray and pink accessories. She wore a corsage of pink Briarcliff roses.

For a honeymoon in northern Michigan, the bride changed to a powder blue tweed suit with navy blue accessories and ice blue jewelry. On their return the newlyweds will reside in Drayton Plains.

Sally Ann Brockman became the bride of J. L. Bigelow Saturday evening. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brockman of Drayton Plains, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Bigelow of Birchcrest drive.

Old Hobby Becomes New Career

By ANNE HEYWOOD

My grandmother used to say that no experience is ever wasted. The longer I live the more I know she is right.

* * *

I remembered this the other day, when I met a charming woman named Mary G.

May is a young mother, with two daughters, aged 11 and 13. She has a sucessful home business which brings in nice pin money — and it is based on a course she took over 15 years ago.

"When I was 20," she told me, "I studied jewelry-making, in a special course which our adult education center gave.

* * *

"I was living at home at the time, and had an office job which bored me. I got a big kick out of the jewelry course and made pretty things for myself, my friends and family. I was pretty good at it, too.

THING OF THE PAST

"But after I had married and was busy with housework and the care of two tiny daughters, jewelry-making became a thing of the past. In fact, I had just about forgotten it entirely.

* * *

"Then one day just before her 10th birthday, my daughter, Evie, asked for a bracelet with her birthstone, which is turquoise.".

"I shopped everywhere, but our city didn't have any really attractive children's jewelry, unless you could spend a fortune. Most of the stuff was tinny, if it was the right size, or else was too big entirely for a little girl's wrist.

"I was about to give up and then I thought, why not make it myself?

* * *

"It was funny," she continued "because as soon as I got the equipment and materials — which cost less, incidentally, than buying one bracelet would have cost — I remembered so much more than I thought I would. . . . . .

"The technique all came back to me and the bracelet I made was lovely. It was dainty and sweet and Evie loved it.

REASONABLE FEE

"Next thing, of course, my other girl wanted a ring. Then other mothers began asking me to make things for their daughters.

* * *

"I charged a reasonable rate, enough to cover the materials and about a dollar an hour for my time.

"I now do a nice business—nothing spectacular, but it keeps me busy for about three hours a day and nets me a nice monthly figure.

"Yes, nothing you ever learned is entirely wasted!"

(Copywright, 1955)

Spray Atomizer With New Scent Put on Market

A lovely light fragrance has just arrived from France in a new spray atomizer. This eau de toilette appeals to women who like a sparkling scent that's very crisp.

* * *

The atomizer, which contains three ounces of the fragrance, is curved to fit the hand in a modified Gibson Girl shape. A fine spray comes out of the top when a red button on the cap is pressed.

Over this goes a transparent plastic cap that prevents the button from being pressed accidently in transit.

* * *

When carefully packed, this atomizer could make it possible for devotees of the particular scent to use it while traveling or have it for added squirts during the day.

You can make a quick, easy cake frosting by using one can of fruit puree with two cups of powdered sugar added. This makes enough to cover a two-layer cake.

Leather Gloves Now Washable

Leather gloves in all colors, which can be tossed into the washing machine, are the big news of the year in gloveland.

* * *

The gloves come in nine colors and a number of styles, and will be available in stores throughout the country as soon as the manufacturers can turn them out in sufficient quantity — probably in early fall.

Although washable leather gloves have been on the market for years, they usually required great care in washing—and gloves in colors such as red, navy and the pastels usually had to be dry-cleaned.

Now, after years of research, tanners have developed a process which makes leather in high colors as washable as dungarees.

After being put through the washing machine, with a regular washday detergent, they come out as soft and bright as new, requiring no special care.

This also means that men's leather gloves can be washed in the future—a great boon to the housewife who frets when she sees the males in her family wearing their best gloves for such chores as changing a tire or tinkering with the car.

BETTY RYAN

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Ryan of North Johnson avenue are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Betty, to Robert C. Gifford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gifford of Lexington place. They will be married Oct. 22 at St. Michael Church.

Casual clothes can be worn for day or evening, and to prove the point is this dress in imported rayon kashina with matching boucle stripe by De De Johnson. The novelty collar, the striped vestee effect and striped sleeves with self-contour belt make this a truly stunning dress with timeless quality. Hat is by Rex.

Teenager Wants a Room? Construct Attic Enclosure

NEW YORK (INS)—If the young miss in your home is screaming her lady-like lungs out for a room of her own, you might try fixing over the attic for her.

* * *

Even if it's an under-the-eaves room with a slanting roof, it can be decorated to delight her. Such a slant-roof was shown at a recent New York model room display.

A combination of pink and provincial is a dainty and delicate motif for the young lady. This room, instead of using a piece of furniture for the feature attraction, left the focus of attention on the wallpaper.

It was pale pink, and covered with pretty pink butterflies—not just the walls, but the ceiling as well. Baseboards and other exposed surfaces were tinged with pink to complete the effect.

The rug was rose colored, and in addition to the pink bed extra seats were supplied by pink velvet-covered ottomans.

In one corner stood a small provincial table and chair for a vanity. The wall behind this was painted pink instead of papered.

The general effect was one of added space, and the low-scaled furniture kept the ceiling from appearing too low.

The same general idea could be used for a boy's room, using perhaps a self-patterned pale blue paper and an airy, open and modern desk in place of the vanity.

Proper Picture Frames Insure Decor Harmony

NEW YORK (INS) — If you're going to decorate your walls with pictures or prints, be sure to frame them properly.

For best results in showing a print, use a mat in a suitable color—pink, green, blue or some pastel shade is often attractive.

The moldings on print frames should be delicate and narrow. This would also apply to frames on watercolors and etchings as well.

It is strongly advised that all prints be covered with glass to protect them.

An oil painting is painted either on canvas or artists' board. Moldings for such paintings should be wide to give them depth and strength, and glass is neither necessary nor decoratively advisable.

The use of yellow-enameled bulbs in the lighting fixtures on the porch can reduce the attraction for insects of the light.

Sanders Home Is Opened to Artists' Group

Twenty members of the Pontiac Society of Artists met at the E. Guy Sanders home in Bloomfield Hills Friday evening.

Plans were made to visit the studio of artist John Coppin in October.

Congratulations were received by five members of the group who exhibited their work in a recent U. of M. amateur art exhibition. Those entering were Mrs. Donald Arnold, Mrs. Jerome Fink, Arthur Hayes, Peter Zampol, and John Allshouse.

Mrs. W. H. Lakkari, who submitted two pieces of sculpture to the recent Kirk-in-the-Hills Art exhibit, also received congratulations.

Tea towels will stay snowy, party white if boiled in a porcelain enamel pan into which a few lemon peels have been dropped.

Girl Asks About Going to Wedding

Fiance Insists That She Should Attend Rite With Him

By EMILY POST

"A cousin of my fiance is to be married shortly. I know the cousin and his bride-to-be well, having met them on several occasions. However, I did not receive an invitation to the wedding.

"My fiance insists that I go with him to the wedding, but I do not think it would be proper. He says that my presence will be taken for granted. Will you please advise me as to the proper thing to do under the circumstances?"

Answer: The proper thing is for your fiance to take it for granted they intended to invite you and tell his family that you have not received your invitation. They will then certainly invite you.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My son is not engaged but he sees a good deal of one particular young woman who lives in the town where he is now working. She has been home with him to spend two weekends and both times has written me very nice letters afterward.

"I would like to write a letter to her, and wondered how I should sign my name to this letter and what to call my husband when I refer to him or send his best regards to her."

Answer: You sign your letter Mary Jane Smith and you refer to your husband as "John's father."

"Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me if it is proper for a woman to go to a funeral home, hatless, when going to pay her respects to members of the deceased's family. A friend and I have been having an argument about this and we would like you to settle it for us."

Answer: It is more correct to wear a hat.

You Don't Need Love for Enjoyable Dates

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I liked him ever since last summer a year ago and finally got to go with him. But before we'd gone together very long he dropped me for another girl.

"I still like him, but his brother has taken a liking to me. I only like the brother as a friend. Should I break up with him before he gets hurt or should I keep going with him in hope that I'll fall?"

Answer: Isn't it enough that you should go out with him because you like him so-so? You don't have to fall desperately in love with him in order to enjoy dating him.

Don't even bother hoping that you'll fall for him, like him as a friend. That's enough for now, and have fun.

"Dear Miss Woodward: After two months of liking him, everything was fine until he took my bracelet. Since that time he has acted strange. Whenever I asked him to do something, he turned me down.

"Last week, through a friend, I found out that he wasn't wearing my bracelet. He told her he wanted to give it back. And he did.

"He said he didn't think he was old enough to like one girl seriously. We're both 15. Is that too young?"

Answer: He thinks he's too young. So that's it. He doesn't want to get too seriously involved with any one girl at this particular stage of his growing up.

He thought it would be fun to have your bracelet and to wear it. But he found out differently. So what can you do, but accept his decision, and take your romance with him lightly?

He's made it clear that it's not a heavy deal to him. So what smart girl in her right mind would try to contradict him—even in her own private heart?

"Dear Miss Woodward: After going together for a year, we decided to go steady. He was 19 and I was 17, and we thought we knew what we wanted.

"Our dates became much too serious and, finding we weren't getting along too well, we talked it over very carefully and decided not to go steady any longer, but to continue to see each other and to date others so we could know our own minds and be free to do as we chose.

"We had quite a few dates after that and then I had to refuse a date. Since then I haven't heard from him, and I'm worried. Should I call him to find out if I've offended him?"

Answer: No, don't call him. You've called a truce, remember? You have established between you a sort of "vacation" whereby you will each have a chance to find out how you think.

He's in the process of thinking "no"—and he has a right to the privilege. Leave him to it.

Maybe he'll get around to calling you again, and maybe not. He's free to do as he chooses. But so are you.

Are you still, despite your agreement, keeping all your eggs in one basket? That's hardly taking your deal lightly, which you should.

Cereal Adds Crunchiness to Quick Loaf

Mrs. Gratton Keeps This Bread on Hand Most of the Time

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Quick breads make good lunch box sandwiches; quick breads are fine to serve with salad or as afternoon tea sandwiches. Mrs. Howard Gratton of Maceday Lake shares her favorite recipe for this type of bread, Grapenut Bread.

Both Mrs. Gratton and her husband sing in their church choir. The entire family is interested in bowling. At home, Mrs. Gratton's hobbies include baking and crocheting, as well as needlepoint.

GRAPENUT BREAD
By Mrs. Howard Gratton

Soak ten minutes:
½ cup grapenuts
1¼ cups sour milk
1 teaspoon soda

Add:
¾ cup sugar
2 tablespoons melted butter
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups sifted flour

Pour into a greased loaf pan and bake at 375 degrees for 45 minutes to 1 hour. This bread will slice more easily if kept for 24 hours. Makes 1 loaf.

Mrs. Dunn Hostess at Bridal Shower

Mrs. Robert Dunn was hostess to a miscellaneous bridal shower for Pauline Brutus at the Dunn home on Seminole avenue Thursday evening. Mrs. Lowell Ellsworth and Mrs. Dilyard Doolin served as co-hostesses.

Guests were Mrs. Elmer Doolin, Shirely Dunn, Marlene Doolin, Mrs. Carl Doolin, Mrs. Paul Brutus, Mrs. Morris Doolin and Mrs. Stanley Dudek. Others invited were Mrs. James Vallad, Mrs. Thomas Hillsey and Mrs. Vance Powers.

Make a habit of emptying and washing ash trays each night before you go to bed.

Adolescent Beauty Woes Lead to Mature Charm

A young lady who has occasion to hear many women talk about themselves remarks that most happy, successful women have one thing in common when they talk about their hard road up.

"Most of these women start off by saying they had very unhappy childhoods. They say that they were very ugly when they were young.

"Of course, I don't want to say anything, but they're still no one's Grace Kelly."

The point that this young lady has missed is that while the physical features of her friends have changed little, their inner aspects have changed considerably.

Perhaps the nose is still too big or the ears still stick out, but the women have gained confidence and the ability to dress and make up well. They feel beautiful.

This young woman aside, most persons who met the women concerned would feel they were in the presence of attractive women, if not raving beauties.

This is the old law of compensation operating. As the very fresh bloom of youth disappears, teenagers may be assured that they will learn to make the most of their good qualities and feel more confident about their appearance.

A girl who goes through agonies with unmanageable hair in adolescence will find that she receives many compliments on her hair as she grows older. Gals who can't diet during the teens find the ability to do so as they grow older.

And they will say, with perfect confidence, "I was considered funny-looking when I was young."

'Third Person' Orders Irk Child

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

In Charles Dickens' "David Copperfield," theres a rather weaselish minor character named Mr. Spenlow.

* * *

He was David's boss. The weaselish thing about him was his avoidance of the pronoun "I." If you asked him for a salary raise, he never said, "No. I don't want to give it to you," lest your resentful reactions make him feel uncomfortable.

So he'd perfected a device for advoiding them. He'd tell you that his partner—a certain inaccessible Mr. Jorkins—didn't want to give you your salary raise. By hiding behind the authority of this Third Person, Mr. Spenlow fondly imagined himself to be amintaining his reputation with you as a kindly, generous man.

He didn't.

There's a certain mild resemblance to Mr. Spenlow in parents who speak of themselves in the Third Person. I mean by this, the mother who gets obedience by saying, "Mother wants you to tidy your room now"—the father who says, "Father thinks you better stay home tonight."

DEPEND ON LABELS

As Mr. Spenlow hid behind the inaccessible authority of Mr. Jorkins, these parents hide behind the not-to-be-questioned authority of their parental labels, hoping to get what they want with a minimum of protest and resistance.

* * *

Small children don't mind it. But around the ages of 8 and 9, it begins to make them fidget. By adolescence, it can provoke the same rebellion that references to Mr. Jorkins provoked in young David Copperfield.

It's a form of "pulling rank" on the young. It removes us from person-to-person contact with the child, leaving in our place our commissioned rank as their commanders.

I got away with it twice. Then I was told by my irritated offspring, "Why do you have to remind me that you're my mother if you want me to come home in an hour? Why don't you just say what you want, for goodness' sake?"

* * *

Overprotective parents are especially prone to this habit of falling back on parental labels. Like Mr. Spenlow, they want to be loved. So they avoid the "I" that identifies them with opposition to Jimmy's wish to delay bedtime.

As though they were off in Honolulu, they say, "Mother wants you to go to bed now, dear." As Mr. Spenlow used the authority of Mr. Jorkins to do his dirty work for him, so these parents who fear children's resentment make their parental titles do the dirty work for them.

So if your child protests this Third Person business, rejoice. He is a self-respecting child who wants relationship with you, not with the brass you wear as his social authority.

He wants your "I" for his "You" —the base polarity of all human relationship.

Dr. Curtis Tells Details of Job in School System

"Cooperative relationship and working with teachers and administrators with their day by day problems is 99.44 per cent of the job of coordinator of secondary education" stated Dr. Russell Curtis when he spoke to the Senior High School PTA recently.

In explaining more fully his work as coordinator he mentioned that he would serve as a resource person for principals and teachers in educational planning and in the solution of educational problems.

He also stated that conferences would be held with individual teachers or groups of teachers and that he would visit and observe teachers for the purpose of helping to improve the educational program. He will serve in an advisory capacity to principals and other staff personnel.

The next meeting of the organization will be held at the Pontiac Senior High School on Nov. 24.

If You're Tall, Watch Clothes Proportion Line

To gals who scarcely make five feet, the problems of tall women are nonexistent.

* * *

The tall women are convinced that if they could only shave off a half dozen inches, their beauty problems would be over.

It's all in the point of view: looking down at your problems or looking up at them.

Actuallly the number of tall persons in the country is on the increase.

Once, only 8 per cent of the population was over five feet eight inches. Now, more than 12 per cent is.

Good proportion is essential. A tall woman can wear almost anything that is in proportion.

Narrow skirts are very handsome, particularly so if the vertical line is broken with peg-top pleats, big slash pockets or other graceful horizontal lines.

As to hats, a woman of any height should wear what's becoming to her face, hair style and neck. Tall women can wear big hats if they find them becoming, but they ought to have deep crowns.

* * *

Cloches, with their downward lines, and big hats with droopy brims are naturals for tall women.

Dresses and suits that fit properly at the waistline and skirts that are long enough are the other important considerations for tall ones.

Grease spots often can be removed from rugs and carpets by rubbing them with a clean cloth dipped in hot water and ammonia.

Adele Simpson shows this long, lithe town dress of blue and brown plaid wool. A bias cuff circling the hipline gives an overblouse look to the gently molded bodice. A scarf of dark amber satin outlines the V-shaped neckline with its rounded collar.

Correct Attitude Helps Women Accept Aging

No one can bring the turn of the years to a halt. It must follow that the woman who is 45 years old this year will be 46 next year.

Attitude is the all-important matter in age. It is silly for a grown woman to play sister to her daughter, but there's no reason why she must play grandmother to her.

Attitude reflects itself in the physical look of the body. Take the matter of neckline, something that concerns mature women a great deal, to judge by this department's letters. Many women worry about creams and neckbands, about sessions in Turkish baths and slapping exercises. These can help in many cases, but the most vital ingredient is attitude.

* * *

Have you seen women who felt defeated by life? Their necks almost disappear and their chins tuck in defensively. The result is a short, wrinkled neck.

Many women who have had an uphill struggle of it for many years still walk around with their chins stuck out in a "turtle neck," throwing their entire posture out of line and losing the gracious carriage a grown woman should have.

But take a look at a friend who is interested in life, who enjoys the pleasant things and rolls with the punch. Her neck is flexible and erect. She turns to look at you without having her chin nudge her chest. While her neck may have wrinkled skin, it's not conspicuous or ugly. It's part of her age.

Try the feeling of walking out to meet your affairs with something that approximates confidence and good will. Your neck's aging skin won't bother you half as much as before.

Delegates Return From Convention

Mrs. Floyd Opperman of Williams Lake road and Mrs. Louis Murthum of Judson street have returned from a 3-day convention of the Ladies National League held in Flint.

Mrs. Opperman was installed in the national office of assistant marshal in Flint Friday.

Abe Schrader's imported French brocade is designed for after dark enchantment. The neckline is scooped wide both in front and back, and a full skirt gives this dress dancing enchantment.

Brush, Comb Set Perfect for Special Fur Luxury

Any woman with a fur coat knows it deserves to be pampered —considering what it does for its owner. But a famous fur designer has really come up with something special for pelt-petting: a private brush-and-comb set specially treated for fur.

* * *

The brush, shaped like a miniature hairbrush with a gilt-metal back, has a slot in the top for the narrow strong-toothed comb. Together they fit into a little drawstring bag of satin to hang on a hook in your fur closet.

The brush has bristles developed to work perfectly on and add gleam to the thick hairs of a fur coat, from raccoon to silky sable. "Though it may seem like a gag, it's a necessary and practical idea," the designer said.

"Most women have learned to shake their furs well after wearing them, but very few realize that brushing and combing fur hair is almost as important as brushing your own hair. It cleans and 'polishes' the fur, keeps it fresh and free of mats."

You can make a tasty party snack by putting together pecan halves with a filling of cream cheese.

"Smart gal, my Susie!"

A lot of wives complain about housework, but not my Susie. She uses her head instead of her muscles. For example, some women spend a whole day just scrubbing and waxing wood floors. My Susie cleans and waxes them in one easy operation with Bruce Cleaning Wax. It takes only half the time and a lot less work. Yet our beautiful wood floors are the envy of her friends. My hat's off to Susie and her Bruce Cleaning Wax for making a tough job so easy. And I can't help but feel proud of both of them.

P.S. For lighter waxing on linoleum and wood, Susie uses Bruce Floor Cleaner.

Test Diagnoses Child Killer

'Salty Tears Disease' Shows Up in Saliva of Children, Medics Find

CHICAGO (AP)—Development of a simple saliva test for easier detection of a usually fatal and "oftentimes misdiagnosed" children's ailment called "the disease of salty tears" was reported today.

A team of University of Maryland researchers said the new test consists simply of placing a wad of cotton in a child's mouth, collecting saliva and testing it for its salt content.

* * *

Dr. Samuel P. Bessman and two colleagues told about it at a scientific exhibit at the opening today of the 24th annual meeting of the American Academy of Pediatrics.

The disease, technically known as "fibrocystic disease," can cause a plugging of certain pathways in the pancreas or lungs. It gets its nickname, "salty tear disease," from the fact that it usually causes malfunctioning of the sweat, salivary and tear-producing glands, resulting in an abnormal amount of salt in those secretions.

Digestive processes are disturbed, resulting in weakened bodies and bloated abdomens. When the lungs are affected, children are barrel-chested and subject to frequent respiratory ailments.

The ailment also is a common cause of heat prostration in children due to disturbance of the sweat glands. Death usually occurs by age 12.

Dr. Bessman told a reporter that the disease has been estimated to occur in from 1 in 500 to 1 in 1,000 births, but that it may be up to five times more prevalent than is commonly believed.

Danes Arrest Spy

COPENHAGEN, (AP)—The Danish government has arrested a Danish defense worker on charges of espionage for an unspecified foreign power. It was the first such case in Denmark since World War II. The announcement did not name the employe.

Bob Considine Says:

Free Newspapers Are Friends of People

(Editor's Note: This is National Newspaper Week—Oct. 1-8—and here a famed columnist and reporter illustrates the theme of this year's observance: "Your Newspaper—Fights for Your Right to Know.")

NEW YORK (INS) — This is Newspaper Week and as good a time as any to dust off a few truths about our business.

* * *

The newspaper you are reading is your friend. It has fought your battles and those of your forebears from the day it was born. You may not know one person employed by it. You may actively disagree with some of its editorial policies. You may abhor some of its writers.

But it remains your friend.

It is engaged in a daily fight for your right to know what's happening in the world in which you live. In its news columns and its features it brings you a daily report on the world, the nation, the state, the farm, the city, the immediate neighborhood.

It helps you to police the police, judge the judges, lay down the law to lawmakers.

* * *

It takes you by remote control to public assemblies and debates of all nature, to provide for you information essential to sound decisions.

It denies any "right" of the executive, judicial and legislative branches of government, and all their subdivisions, to thwart your access to knowledge of what is being done for or against you, how your money is being spent for you, how goes your freedom.

YEARLY REMINDER

Once a year it gets around to remind you (and itself) formally that if freedom of the press succumbs, all other freedoms must wither.

* * *

Now, freedom of the press hasn't got a blessed thing to do with protecting mischievous publishers, editors and writers by giving them a constitutional immunity—where they do not rate it. Freedom of the press, on the other hand, is inextricably bound to freedom of the individual.

The American press is its citizens' meeting hall, public square, forum in which to present their reasoned (or unreasoned) thoughts, the searching light that bares corruption and pollution wherever it exists, the banner bearer of crusades large and small.

Your paper operates on a pretty simple premise: That except in areas where the national security is involved you have a constitutional right to know what's going on. If you don't know, you can't function as a free citizen.

* * *

Yet this position is challenged on all sides today and probably will be challenged through eternity by public officials who try to deny you knowledge of how they are conducting your business.

American historian Carl Becker once said, "We need, from time to time, to take a look at the things that go without saying to see if they are still going." Freedom of the press ranks high among the things that go without saying. Hence this inventory.

KILLED BY DICTATORS

In our time, Hitler, Mussolini, Peron and the Communists killed freedom of the press in the places they controlled. The three dictators were in time disposed of by assorted means. The Reds still imprison or kill those who won't think as they think and say so in public.

But there are a lot of other places in the world where the paper you're now reading might run into trouble from time to time.

* * *

The American Newspaper Publishers Association lists some recent excesses:

In Chile a bomb wrecked the office of a newspaper that criticized the administration in power. In Cuba an opposition newspaper was shut up by the government and two of its editors arrested. The Greek government ordered a paper to stop publishing articles "causing public unrest."

Nehru's government informed Indian reporters they'd be prosecuted for articles reflecting on the activities of government officials. Spain has stern censorship.

* * *

In South Korea it's against the law for a newspaper to "disturb peoples' minds," and an editor has just been arrested in Taegu for saying that the government inspired the demonstrations against the U. N. armistice team.

Colombia censors all its papers before publication. A turkish publisher was sent to jail for an "insulting" article about the government. An opposition newspaper in Pakistan was refused a supply of newsprint, which is like cutting off a man's food.

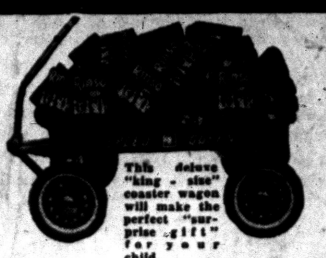

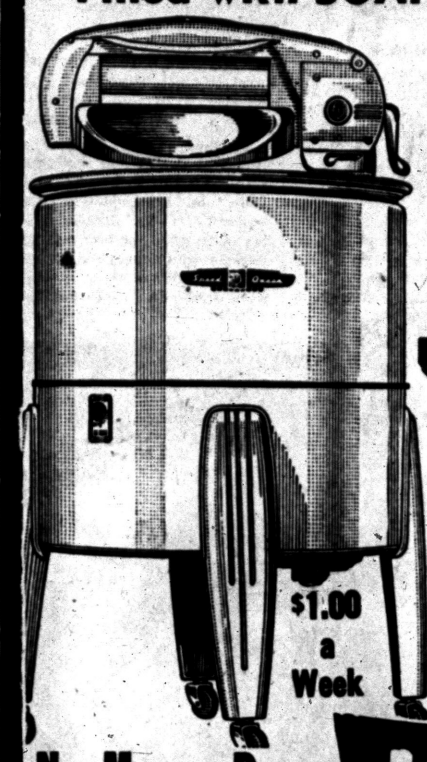

By comparison the U. S. press is gloriously free. But is it as free as the men who fathered our freedoms decreed it must be? It is not. Tomorrow I'll try to show you why.

Venezuela has retained some newly-adopted tenant law.

Ingrid Will Make Movie in Paris Minus Rossellini

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — At long last, Ingrid Bergman is going to make a picture that does not include Rossellini. She has put her name to a contract to co-star with Mel Ferrer in "Madame de Bonnemain," a Jean Renoir independent film.

It will be directed by Renoir and will go before the cameras next month in Paris.

I had no idea that "War and Peace," in which Mel is currently appearing with Audrey Hepburn, was so near completion, but the same letter contains the information that it will be premiered in June.

"Madame de Bonnemain" will be made in both English and French, languages which Ingrid and Mel speak.

MACRAE CONSIDERED

Out at Warners there's talk that Gordon Mac Rae has been approached to star in "Pajama Game" when it goes before the cameras next March or April.

And—now listen to this—what is being planned at Warners is a reteaming of Gordon and Doris Day. When Doris left Warners it was with a very friendly feeling and she said then that if Jack Warner ever had a property that she liked she'd return.

She's hotter than ever right now, and so is Gordon, who has "Oklahoma!" and "Carousel," two of the biggest of the year.

WEDDING DATE SET

Chatter in Hollywood: New Year's Eve is the date set by Patti Page and Charles O'Curran for their marriage.

Charles, who was married to Betty Hutton, was very upset at the breakup of their marriage because he was devoted to Betty's two children. But in the past few months he's all over his heartbreak and he's been very happy with Patti who's a very talented, charming girl.

He's been a great help to her in her career and their many friends are glad they found happiness.

Snaps: Hundreds of good wishes go out to Richard Rodgers, of Rodgers and Hammerstein, who recently underwent surgery, with the hope that he'll soon feel well.

Nedra Clark Broccoli is flying from England to New York around Christmas because she wants her expected baby to be born on U.S. soil.

COZY—Mrs. Lorna Hodgson gets a real bear hug, but she's not afraid. For the Alaskan bear is stuffed, mounted and a gift to Yale University's Peabody museum. Mrs. Hodgson, executive secretary of the museum, shows the comparative size of the eight-foot, 10-inch bear, which, when alive, weighed an estimated 1000 pounds. It was killed on Unimak Island in the Aleutians and sent to the museum in New Haven, Conn.

Landmark Reactivated

BANGOR (AP) — A Bangor landmark, the century-old waterwheel at the Ackley & Wood lumber mill, soon is scheduled to resume its work of producing power for industry. Roy E. Wright of Lawrence has announced plans to produce walk-in freezers at the old mill and says his firm will use the waterwheel for power.

British Physicians Having Trouble Counting Fingers

LONDON (AP)—It's time the medical profession decides whether man has 10 or 8 fingers and 2 thumbs. Another reckons 10 fingers. In the British Medical Journal and Lancet, Dr. Robert Forbes writes:

"There is confusion everywhere. Textbooks disagree. Anatomists generally refer to the thumb, index finger, middle finger, ring finger and little finger, but surgeons often number them 1 to 5 from the thumb.

"To number the fingers 1, 2 or 3, etc., and to record that finger 3 needs amputation is to set the stage for a serious surgical mishap."

Dr. Forbes is secretary of the Medical Defense Union, an organization that represents doctors in legal actions. He says suits have arisen because surgeons mistakingly amputated the wrong finger due to the different systems of counting.

Caddy Badly Hurt

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) Carl Whalen, 14, used a hammer and nail to pry open a strange-looking object he found yesterday in a building at a golf course where he works. An explosion sent him to the hospital with cuts about the chest and abdomen and possible loss of three fingers and the sight of one eye, officials said. The object turned out to be a dynamite cap.

Romanian Premier Again Takes Control

LONDON (AP)—Gheorghe Gheorghiu-Dej, Romania's Red premier, has stepped back into direct control of his country's Communist party. The Bucharest radio announced that the Central Committee of the party had made him first secretary again.

Gheorghiu-Dej relinquished the post April 20, 1954, adopting Moscow's pattern of sharing power with a collective leadership. He said at the time that "hero worship must be completely wiped out."

Gheorghe Apostol, who was made secretary then, has been demoted to the chairmanship of the Central Council of Trade Unions.

Actress Liz Taylor Rushed to Hospital

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress Elizabeth Taylor was taken to the UCLA Medical Center by her husband, actor Michael Wilding, last night after being stricken at their West Los Angeles home by severe stomach pains.

Wilding said he drove her to the hospital on advice of their doctor, who expressed doubt, he said, that she had appendicitis.

Last week Miss Taylor had the flu. A month ago she was on crutches with sciatica from a pinched nerve in the spine.

Tests were planned today to determine the nature of her latest illness.

Woodchucks Defended Against CD Operations

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Note to woodchucks: relax, Richmond's "Operation Ground Hog," a civil defense test set for Oct. 23, is not aimed at you.

You woodchucks can't talk, but H. T. Angell, president of the Ground Hog Club of Roanoke, Va., has been doing some talking for you. He wrote State Civil Defense Coordinator J. H. Wyse asking that no ground hog suffer indignities or disregard of his civil and natural liberties during the test. The official replied that "we will not scare a single ground hog or trespass against one."

Wants Road Taxes Upped

DETROIT (AP) — Rep. Ayers (R-Ohio) said he will offer a highway bill in the next session of Congress calling for construction financed by a combination of user taxes and bonds. He said the taxes would include higher levies on auto tires and tubes. He spoke at the convention of the National Automobile Transporters Assn.

Nibble, Neighbors, and Peel Off Poundage

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Hearing, reading and talking about reducing diets make me nervous.

When I'm nervous, I nibble.

* * *

This revolting cycle is, I'm told, quite common. Women everywhere are up to their hips in it. If you're a nibbler, you've got to investigate diets. If you investigate diets, you get a giddy urge to nibble.

There is a solution to all this, I learned happily today.

It is called "scientific nibbling," and no less an expert than Dr. Frederick J. Stare — chairman of the Department of Nutrition at Harvard — recommends it for the 30 million Americans who are heavier than they should be.

The competent, understanding doctor says that small between meal snacks are good because they "keep hunger from building up by keeping effective blood sugar gradients throughout the day."

* * *

I digested that encouraging news — along with a Cheese Danish — and read on:

"A sweet (sugar containing food or beverage) taken shortly before a meal tends to depress the appetite," reports Dr. Stare. "This makes it easier for the reducing patient to eat less of everything and continue with a normal, balanced diet, eating the right foods in proper, smaller quantities."

DON'T WORRY ABOUT IT

I telephoned Muriel and said not to worry about that vanilla soda she absorbed on Tuesday, and read on:

"Ordinarily, when a person suddenly realizes he is overweight, he or she has a strong urge to take a frenzied step to reduce by cutting out certain foods. This is a serious mistake."

Harvard research (which as you know is rawther thorough) indicates that overweight is never caused by any one food, however fattening in type. It is rather a net result of months and years of eating too much of everything.

Outside of Harvard, they refer to this as omni-hogging.

Therefore, all you have to do to lose weight, says Dr. Stare, is eat what you always eat—a big and varied menu of goodies—but eat them in considerably smaller portions.

* * *

And to help you eat less of your variety of small portions, you nibble scientifically on sweets on the side. This will accomplish three great benefits.

DEPRESS APPETITE

It will impress your friends. It will distress your know-it-all advisers. And most important, it will depress and compress your appetite.

* * *

You may well wonder why an institution like Harvard, with all those budding lawyers and ivy leaves to nurture, wastes its research time on the eating habits of America's gourmets and gourmands.

In recent years, the mortality rate among overweight men has increased by 79 per cent; for women, 61 per cent.

The health hazard in obesity has become so great, in fact, that in England a University of Oxford professor has proposed that the government impose a tax on its overweight subjects.

* * *

Nibble, neighbors. Now!

Grandma Returns to School Classes to Learn Spanish

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Grandma Reynolds, who plays grandmother roles in the movies, is back in school at the age of 93.

* * *

The white-haired actress attends high school evening classes twice a week to learn Spanish.

"We should all learn languages so we can know the people of other countries," she explained.

Her films have included "Going My Way," "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn" and "Since You Went Away."

* * *

Her teacher Mrs. Beryl McManus says Mrs. Adeline Reynolds is as "alert as my best pupils."

Colored Clergyman Leads White Church

OLD MYSTIC, Conn. (AP)—A young Negro minister has taken over as pastor of an all-white church here.

The Rev. Simon P. Montgomery, 33, of Norwich became the new pastor of the Old Mystic Methodist Church yesterday without formal installation ceremonies.

The all-white congregation of about 300 voted unanimously last week to accept the Rev. Mr. Montgomery as their pastor. He will reside at the parsonage on weekends but on weekdays he'll stay in Norwich where he is a member of the faculty at the regional technical school.

Ostreicher Case Jurors Selected

Chosen Panel Will Hear Arguments in Abortion Death of Philly Heiress

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Selection of the October grand jury—which will hear witnesses in the abortion death of Mrs. Boris Jean Ostreicher—begins today.

* * *

Meanwhile, the district attorney's office made final preparations for seeking the indictment of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Schwartz in connection with death of the young food stores heiress.

The jury selection may be carried over until Tuesday since it frequently is difficult to obtain a complete panel of jurors in a single day.

When the panel is completed, the district attorney's office will summon more than a dozen witnesses who will appear to support the charges of abortion, perjury and conspiracy aired at a hearing for the Schwartzes Sept. 19.

Aso under preparation is evidence which will be used in an attempt to indict the dead girl's mother Mrs. Gertrude Silver, who is under treatment in Philadelphia Psychiatric Hospital.

* * *

Mrs. Ostreicher, 22-year-old daughter of Herman Silver, a vice president of Food Fair Stores, Inc., a large East Coast supermarket chain, died in the Schwartz apartment Aug. 24.

A $500,000 contract has been let Reports from the Forest Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, show that the timber harvest amounted to 70 million dollars for the year which ended June 30.

Rain Drenches Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Heavy rains which pushed the North Canadian River two feet above flood stage forced the evacuation of more than 75 persons from lowlands in the southern part of Oklahoma City last night. The rains swept over central, western and northern Oklahoma. Creek waters spilled over their banks and four state roads were closed.

Amazing Gray Mare

LONDON (AP) — Horse breeder Fred Unwin says his old gray mare Stephanie has given birth to a jet black filly at the unheard-of age of 30. "It's as though a human being had a baby when 120 years old," Unwin told a reporter. "But I bought Stephanie as a yearling myself in 1926 so there can be no doubt of her age.

Yanks' Backs to Wall After Dodgers Win 3rd Series Game

NEW YORK (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers' long-sought goal—their first world baseball championship—appeared within sight today.

Having bounced back from the brink of elimination with three successive victories over the New York Yankees to take a 3-2 World Series lead, the jubilant National Leaguers went out today to apply the crusher on their arch tormentors. Yesterday's 5-3 triumph over New York gave the Dodgers' the lead for the first time in the series.

* * *

The teams returned to the wide-open spaces of Yankee Stadium, where the Dodgers dropped the first two games. In the compact and friendly confines of Ebbets Field, they captured the next three. From Manager Walter Alston down, the Brooks believe they can win at least one in the stadium. If not today, then tomorrow for sure.

* * *

"Either Don Newcombe or Karl Spooner will be my pitcher," Alston said. "I can't make up my mind. But if there is a seventh game, Johnny Podres will pitch Tuesday."

Manager Casey Stengel of the Yankees had no doubt about his pitchers.

"Whitey Ford today and Tommy Byrne tomorrow,' he stated flatly. "I'm not predicting anything except that it will go seven."

Newcombe himself may make up Alston's mind for him. The Dodgers' 20-game winner, who lost the first game, complained that the stiffness in his arm hadn't left him.

"It's still sore," he said yesterday. "I didn't even bother to throw today because of the pain. I don't know whether or not I'll be able to pitch."

* * *

Spooner, who worked three fine innings in relief in the second game, said he was ready to go despite toiling the last two days in the bullpen.

The largest crowd of the series, some 65,000, is expected to watch the sixth game, starting at 12 p.m., EST. The forecast was "fair and continued cool," with the temperature in the high 60's.

Although the Yankees were a 6-5 favorite to win today's game, the odds-makers, for the first time, made the Dodgers the choice to win the series—a standout 13 to 5.

* * *

Never before were the Dodgers' prospects so bright, although once before, back in 1952, Brooklyn led after five games only to drop the next two games and the series to the Yankees. But as Alston said when reminded of the '52 debacle: "This is a different year and a different Dodger team." He could also have added . . . "and a different Yankee team."

* * *

Injuries to outfielders Mickey Mantle and Hank Bauer have stripped the Yankees of much of their attack and the Yankee bullpen has been of less service than anybody anticipated. Right now the Dodgers' staff looks stronger than Stengel's. The Brooks not only have the pitching but they've proven they have the power and the sure-handed defense that goes with making a championship club.

* * *

Never before had a Brooklyn team won three in a row over the American Leaguers. Never, in seven chances over 40 years, have the Dodgers won a world championship. Never has a team lost the first two games and come back to take the title inside seven games. The first has been done. One more victory would accomplish the other two.

* * *

Yesterday's victory was by far the sweetest for Alston. He gambled and won with a surprise starter in Roger Craig, a 24-year-old righthander who, only a year ago, was pitching in the Class B Piedmont League. The bony 6-4 righthander, who pitched only 91 major league innings since his promotion from Montreal in midseason, upheld the judgment of Alston with a creditable performance. The kid didn't last, but he yielded only four hits and two runs before he was yanked in the seventh.

* * *

Alston excused him after he had walked Elston Howard following a home run by pinch-hitter Bob Cerv that cut the Dodgers' lead to 3-2. Clem Labine, Saturday's winner, then stalked in from the bullpen for his fourth appearance in the series and threw a double play ball to Irv Noren.

Labine, pride of Woonsocket, R. I., pitched almost perfect ball from then on, except for a home run by Yogi Berra and a single by Eddie Robinson in the eighth. In the ninth, he retired pinch-hitters Andy Carey and Tommy Byrne and Howard on five pitches, all strikes.

* * *

Once again, it was the home run ball that ruined the Yankees. Bob Grim, the Yankee starter and loser, had good stuff but it looked especially good to Duke Snider and Sandy Amoros. Snider whacked two out of the park and Amoros contributed a two-run blast that got the Dodgers off and running in the second inning.

* * *

Snider's homers, his third and fourth of the series, were especially irksome to Stengel.

Then, apparently feeling he was belaboring his hurlers a bit heavily, Casey added: "I blame myself for the way Snider has been hitting. We can't be pitching him right."

Stengel admitted he was stunned at losing three games in Ebbets Field.

* * *

Snider's two blasts, each with the bases empty, would have been homers in Yankee Stadium, too. His second unloosed a set of records for series slugging. It was his fourth in the present series, the second time he accomplished the feat. Only Babe Ruth, in 1926 and Lou Gehrig, in 1928, accomplished the feat. Duke also has nine in four series, tops among National Leaguers. Only Ruth, with 15 and Gehrig, with 10, hit more. The Dodgers now have nine homers in the series, one short of the record set by the 1952 Yankees.

Just to prove their versatility, they executed three double plays yesterday for a total of 10. That, too, tied a series record.

Snider Blasts Records

NEW YORK (AP)—In late August, when the Brooklyn Dodgers were coasting on their long lead, center fielder Duke Snider fell into a woeful batting slump which drew boos and catcalls—and an occasional beer can—from the Ebbets Field stands.

"Dodger fans are the worst in baseball," the hot-headed Snider snapped bitterly. "They don't deserve a pennant."

* * *

The next day, a chastened Snider amended his outburst to say, "Well, some don't," and then today, with Brooklyn needing just one victory for its first world championship because of his own spectacular exploits, he commented:

* * *

"I'm not interested in personal records. My one big thrill will come the moment we clinch the World Series, and that will be soon."

"Do Brooklyn fans deserve a world championship?" someone teased.

Snider deliberated a moment and replied coldly: "The players do."

Once the problem child of the Dodgers because of his trigger temper and over-zealousness, the 29-year-old powerhouse from Los Angeles is providing the momentum which may end the Dodgers' series of failures in this dramatic post-season showdown.

* * *

Two mighty home runs yesterday in Brooklyn's 5-3 victory at Ebbets Field gave him a total of four homers for the present series, tieing the record held by Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and himself.

His total of nine home runs in world series play place him third in the all-time list of great sluggers who have come to the plate in the classic through the years. Babe Ruth hit 15, Lou Gehrig hit 10. When Snider hit his ninth in the fifth inning yesterday, he surpassed another great Yankee, Joe DiMaggio, who had eight.

* * *

"DiMaggio has always been my inspiration," the big, rugged Snider acknowledged in the dressing room afterwards. "I don't know Joe well. I've only chatted with him a few times. But I think he's the greatest."

Casey Stengel, Yankee manager, refused to make comparisons but after Snider's great hitting and fielding exhibitions of the last two games, he said tersely:

"That fellow was the only one who hurt us. He's the turning point."

Reese Lauds Snider's Work, Says Pressure Is on Yanks

By PEE WEE REESE
(Special to Pontiac Press)

EBBETS FIELD—That was the good one—the big one and it was the toughest yet with the tension high at the start and getting worse all the way. Every time you looked around, the count was three-and-two, and we never got far enough ahead to be entirely out of danger.

But Roger Craig pitched good ball and remember it was his 1st series game. Walt Alston can take another bow for him. And then Clem held them as he has done all season.

Maybe you think you have seen enthusiasm, but you should have been in the clubhouse after the game. Everybody congratulating everybody else and all looking forward to today.

From the yelling you couldn't be sure whether the heroes were Roger and Clem or Duke, but in my book this is Duke's series. At bat or out there in center you'll never see better. And those two homers were real.

We are all betting he sets a new record today. But it was Sandy Amoros and his big one that started things rolling and then everybody kept them going.

Fortunately those two errors did no harm, and then three DPs never hurt any, but those three and two counts are murder. When it's that way, the pitcher can't do much to fool the batter. He must come in with the next one without making it too good; then look out for the long ball.

Everybody knows it and there's a tendency to tighten up. But we're all proud of how young Roger handled himself when the going was worst. In the second he walked the 1st two men and then got the next three. That's nerve.

They just told me we have hit for a total of 85 bases against 66 for the Yankees. That's about how I thought we'd do and—well the psychological load is on the Yankees now.

I have a feeling that today I'll get that other prayer answered.

St. Fred Blows Lead to Oak 11, Settles for Tie

4th-Period Touchdown Gives St. Mary 19-19 Deadlock With Rams

St. Frederick nearly won its 1st game in 19 attempts Saturday night at Wisner Stadium, but a touchdown by Royal Oak St. Mary in the fading moments of the 4th quarter forced the Rams to settle for a 19-19 tie, their 3rd deadlock during the winless string and the 2nd this season.

With the luckless Rams holding a 19-13 advantage late in the game, the visitors from Royal Oak mustered a drive for the tying touchdown. Right halfback Phil Brezinski went over for his 2nd TD of the contest, although he fumbled in the end zone with teammate John Robinson smothering the oval.

Dick Doyon, the Rams' standout end, paced his mates by personally scoring all three touchdowns. He added one extra point from placement.

Brezinski, outstanding performer for Royal Oak tallied his 1st TD on a 6-yard plunge. Paul Smuts scored St. Mary's other touchdown on a dazzling 75-yard return of a Ram punt. Brezinski ran for the extra marker.

Lions Get Ex-Ram for High '56 Choice

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Rams have announced the trade of end Bob Long of UCLA to the Detroit Lions for a "high draft choice" next year.

Long, All-Pacific Coast Conference end at UCLA in 1954, was regarded highly as a defensive end by the Rams but the club had to get down to a 33-man squad limit after yesterday's game in the National Football League.

THINGS ON HIS MIND — Casey Stengel, whose Yankees have lost three straight World Series games to the Dodgers, stares at the field and paces the dugout in the top of the eighth yesterday at Ebbets Field. Yankees trailed throughout game as Dodgers took key contest 5-3 and can wrap up the championship today.

Frustrated Gridders

Steelers, Victims of Most Fantastic Finishes in NFL Play, Lose to Rams

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Pittsburgh Steelers must be the most frustrated team in professional football today, and the Los Angeles Rams, if not the luckiest, should be the most thankful.

The Rams pulled one of their more fantastic finishes yesterday to defeat the Steelers, 27-26. They did it with a 33-yard field goal by big Les Richter just as the game ended before a roaring, delirious crowd of 45,816.

Three times the Rams had given the game away to the Steelers. A 17-10 halftime lead had long since vanished.

* * *

Pittsburgh's quarterback Jim Finks put the Steelers in the game, opening the third period with a 74-yard drive, 52 of them through the air on Finks' arm. This was an earned touchdown.

From there on the Rams alternated brilliance with generosity, presenting the Steelers with three touchdowns on a pair of fumbles and a wretched pass from center on a crucial fourth-down punt attempt.

Quarterback Norman Van Brocklin was the victim of the faulty pass from center, which enabled Pittsburgh to take over on the Ram 11 and score in four, hard-fought plays.

* * *

Alternate quarterback Billy Wade soon after was hit, fumbled and there the Steelers were, on the Ram 12. They scored and went in front, 19-17.

The Rams fired right back, however, traveling 66 yards in six plays, capped by a beautifully executed pass pay for 17 yards, Van Brocklin to Tommy Fears, and a 24-19 lead.

It was short-lived. Halfback Corky Taylor fumbled and the Steelers' Richie McCabe grabbed up the ball and scooted 50 yards. Pittsburgh 26, Rams 24. Five minutes left to play.

* * *

With 2 minutes to go, Pittsburgh had the ball. Then they had to punt. A score was 70 yards from sight.

Van Brockin passed for 3 to Ronnie Waller, missed with another to Fears and then hit Bob Boyd downfield. The Steelers' McCabe was called for applying a knee to Boyd and the Rams were on the Steeler 26. There was time for one play. Richter made it.

A Young 92

Speedy Recovery for Connie After Mishap

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Baseball's beloved Connie Mack, in "remarkably good condition" at 92, is reported headed for a swift recovery today after suffering a fractured hip at his home over the weekend.

The veteran manager, who led his Philadelphia Athletics to five world series championships, fractured his right hip while getting out of bed from his afternoon nap Saturday.

* * *

His physician, Dr. Ilarion L. Gopadze, expressed satisfaction with the old gentleman's condition yesterday and, barring complications, forecast a "speedy recovery" adding that Mack, who will be 93 Dec. 23, was in "remarkably good physical condition."

* * *

He will remain in Presbyterian Hospital for a few weeks, at least, Dr. Gopadze said, adding that he had spent a restful night and was "cheerful and not complaining of much pain."

Mack, born Cornelius McGillicuddy, was active as player, owner, coach and manager for 71 years and was the only manager the Athletics ever had until he turned over the reins to one of his "boys," Jimmy Dykes, in 1951.

* * *

Since last year when the Mack family sold its interests in the American League club and the franchise was moved to Kansas City, his only connection with the game is the title of honorary board chairman of the Western club.

Since his retirement, Mack has divided his time between Florida—during the spring training season—and Philadelphia, where he has made his home with a daughter, Mrs. Rita Breedlove.

Druze Candidate for Top Assistant

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — Johnny Druze would be a strong candidate for the title—the most successful assistant football coach.

Druze was end coach and chief scout for Boston College in 1939-40. The former end and captain of Fordham's Seven Blocks of Granite team of 1937 handled similar duties at Notre Dame in 1941, and after four years in the Navy during World War II, resumed the assignment in '46. This gives him 12 years of coaching, and in that period the teams he was associated with won 100 games, lost only 11 and tied 6.

All-American ends developed by Druze include Boston College's Gene Goodreault and Bob Dove, Jack Zilly, Bill Wightkin, Jim Martin, Don Penza, Jim Mutscheller, Dan Shannon and Leon Hart of Notre Dame.

Pontiac Hunter Bags 1st Goose of New Season

Elmer Stockwell, who resides at 239 W. Longfellow in Pontiac, reported the 1st wild goose bagged by an area hunter.

Stockwell, accompanied by Wayne Beutler, also of Pontiac, got his bird about 6:40 a.m. Saturday at Judah Lake in Orion Township.

Goose weighed 11 pounds and had a wingspan of five feet, six inches. Stockwell used a 20-gauge shot gun.

Homers May Be Secondary in Deciding Series

Look for Relief Work and Double Plays as Turning Point

NEW YORK (AP)—Despite the rash of home runs, it could well be that the 1955 World Series of baseball will turn on defensive measures—relief pitching and double plays.

Although Duke Snider hit two homers, and Sandy Amoros one, it was Clem Labine's fourth series appearance in relief that saved the day for Brooklyn in Ebbets Field yesterday and gave the Dodgers a 5-3 victory over the New York Yankees in the pivotal fifth game.

The Dodgers, as a result, lead in the series 3 games to 2.

* * *

Roger Craig, a 6-foot 4-inch, 24-year-old Durham, N.C., rookie, tamed the Yankees for six innings despite the fact he had only 91 innings of major league experience back of him—the least of any starting pitcher in series annals. But when pinch-hitter Bob Cerv blasted a homer to start the seventh and Elston Howard walked, Labine came to his aid.

* * *

Double plays were a big factor in this and the Dodgers' two previous victories. The Dodgers now have 10 in this series, equalling the record set by the Yankees in 1952 in six games, and the Washington Senators in 1924 in seven. Labine forced Irv Noren to ground to Gil Hodges for a double play that cut down Howard in the seventh. In the eighth, after Yogi Berra had homered, and Ed Robinson singled, Labine got Billy Martin to hit a double-play ball.

Labine has now pitched 9 1-3 innings in this series, giving up 6 hits and 3 runs, and has an earned run average of only 3.00. He won the Saturday game.

* * *

Labine stopped the Yankees by forcing the side to hit grounders in the ninth, Andy Carey bouncing to Robinson, and Tom Byrne and Elston Howard to Junior Gilliam. Carey and Byrne were pinch hitters.

Craig allowed only four hits in the six innings he pitched, and showed remarkable poise for a youngster in his first series start.

Navy's Mascot, Billy, Victim of 'Goatnaper'

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Police have been alerted to look for a kidnapper's getaway car that may be heading for Pittsburgh as fast as its Model A Ford engine can take it.

* * *

The kidnap victim inside is Billy XIV, the Naval Academy's goat mascot.

The suspected kidnappers are any two undergraduates at the University of Pittsburgh, which plays the Middies in football next Saturday.

* * *

Comdr. Arthur Esch, Naval Academy public information officer, said it was believed children saw two young men take the goat from his pen about 4 p.m. yesterday.

The kidnapping of a Navy goat is not a rare occurrence, Esch said somewhat wearily last night, "I haven't any idea how many times Billy has been kidnapped."

Sidelights on World Series

NEW YORK (AP)—Brooklyn catcher Roy Campanella shook his head sadly today and allowed as how he wished the World Series had ended in Ebbets Field.

"The Yankee Stadium is a tough place to hit in," he said, "especially when you're not used to it. The shadows make it awful hard to see the ball. In Ebbets Field it's different. I know the place."

The figures bear Campy out. He couldn't buy a hit in the 1st two games in the stadium, but when he got to Ebbets Field he found the range. But then so did Duke Snider, Gil Hodges and Co. That's why the Brooks have a 3-2 lead after the three games in Flatbush.

Yank Manager Casey Stengel pointed to the fact that this is the most injury-riddled team he ever has led into a series. Two-thirds of his regular outfield, Mickey Mantle and Hank Bauer, is in bad shape, the other one-third, Irv Noren, is going on a bad leg.

But what about his pitching?

He has a problem there, too, and he admitted as much when he refused to take Bob Grim out of yesterday's 5-3 loss even when the Brooklyn tavern owner's son was taking a pasting.

"I didn't want to come in with all those guys from the bullpen like I did the other day," said Stengel. "In fact, if we had tied it, I would have sent Tommy Byrne in and worry about tomorrow's game when I came to it."

PGA to Add Contest to Schedule Despite Financial Loss

HUNTINGTON, N. Y. (AP) —The Long Island Rotary Open Golf Tournament, won by lightly regarded Max Evans of Utica, Mich., will be a fixture on future PGA schedules although the four-day competition ending yesterday operated at a slight financial loss.

* * *

Officials of the sponsoring organizations said the tournament probably would be held at a more accessible location in the future.

The Huntington Crescent Club course, over which the 36-year-old Evans turned in a 273 for 72 holes, is located some 30 miles from the center of New York City, Ray O'Brien, PGA supervisor, also assured the Rotarians of a better break in dates next year.

* * *

Evans shot a three-under par 67 on the final day and finished three strokes in front of Tommy Bolt of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Don Fairfield of Casey, Ill. First place was worth $2,400, Bolt and Fairfield each won $1,600. Tommy had a 67 and Don a 70 for their last rounds.

Katlin Climaxes Season With Win at M59 Speedway

Mickey Katlin, veteran driver from Howell, climaxed a successful year of racing Sunday at Pontiac Speedway by winning the 100-lap feature in the season championship races for hardtops and old models.

Katlin's winning time was 33:49.95. Chuck Partello was runner-up and Johnny Wallace took 3rd.

George Schooley won the 50-lap semi, chased across the finish line by Marvin Main and George Rhyndress.

Old model championship was claimed by B. Allen, with H. Larsen finishing 2nd and B. Metzger 3rd. Rusty Kelly won the pursuit.

Cranbrook Teams Split Series Over Weekend

Cranbrook Cranes split a weekend doubleheader Saturday against Lake Forest Academy of Chicago when the Crane eleven won 13-0 while the soccer team fell to the visitors, 1-0.

Cranes dominated the football contest all the way as Dave Cooper marched 27 yards in the 3rd period for TD number one, and plunged over from the 8 in the final period to lead the Cranes to their 1st win against one loss.

A penalty kick by Tom Moore in the 2nd period gave Lake Forest a win and handed Cranes their 1st soccer loss of the season.

Touchdowns — Branoff, Maddock (Mich.); Planutis (MSU). Conversions—Kramer (2), Planutis. Attendance: 97,239.

By H. GUY MOATS

ANN ARBOR — With only two opportunities within the Spartans' scoring zone, University of Michigan Wolverines Saturday afternoon converted two breaks into touchdowns. The last one proved the decisive counter in a 14-7 victory in the annual gridiron battle between the state's two big universities.

Michigan's captain, guard Ed Meads of Oxford, who put up one of the best defensive performances of the afternoon, grabbed an MSU blocked punt on the State 21. In five plays the Wolverines had rammed across the final, and winning tally. Tackle John Morrow blocked the kick, to give Meads his chance for recovery. Jim Maddock went over from the one.

Earlier, in the 1st period, Wolverines had cashed another break to take the lead at halftime, 7-0.

Spartans' young team, far better than many observers had expected, squared the count in the 3rd period. Jerry Planutis bulled across from a few inches out and tossed the ball into the air in jubilation, after making the TD. The tally was set up following a wobbly punt by Ron Kramer, that went only 20 yards, and out of bounds on the Michigan 39. Planutis punched the UM line for three straight 1st downs, to the 5. From there quarterback Earl Morall failed to get across on several "sneaks," but Planutis took a handoff and dived over. He also kicked the extra point.

Michigan's 1st tally followed Tony Branoff's interception of MSU's 1st aerial try. Tony lugged the ball 38 yards to State's 20, and Lou Baldacci and Branoff barged rest of the way in a half dozen plays. Tony cashed the touchdown.

Four times the Spartans were in scoring position. Twice they were turned back virtually on the Wolverine doorstep. Near the close of the 2nd period Norm Masters recovered a Michigan fumble on the MSU 40. State drove to the four, but Morall couldn't find a receiver for his pass. He delayed the subsequent run a little too long, and was slammed on the three yard stripe.

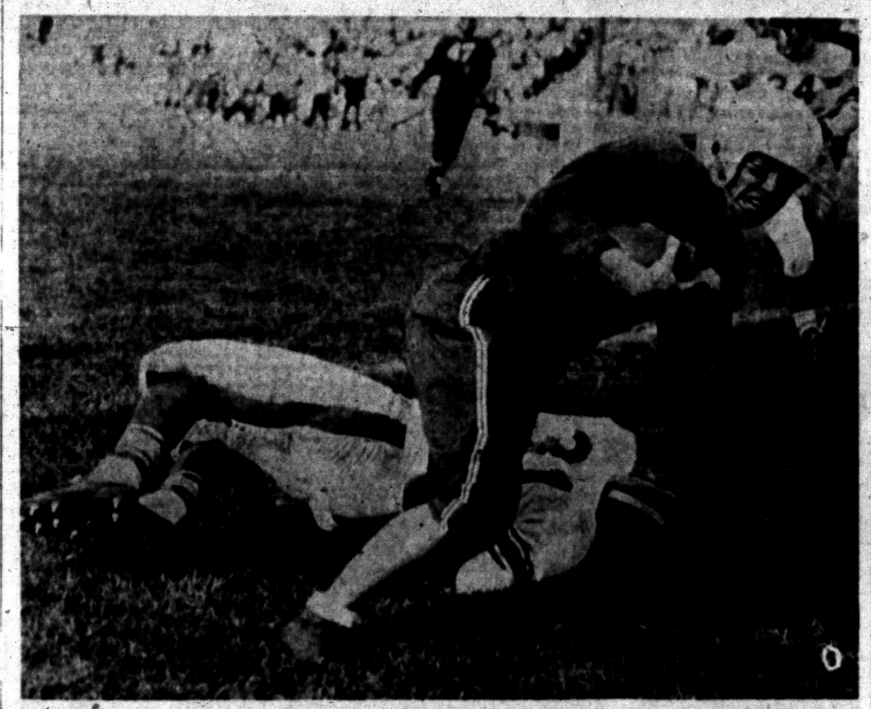

Late in the 1st period State went to the UM 3-yard stripe, after Embry Robinson recovered a Michigan fumble on the 22. A hot stand by the Michigan defense stopped the Spartans on the three.

After Kramer's great performance against Missouri in the 'M' opener, fans expected the Wolverines to fire a lot of aerials to the big All-America candidate. But only one pass went Kramer's way, and the big fellow was literally smothered most of the afternoon.

Spartans actually outplayed the Ann Arbor crew, and statistics prove that statement. MSU made twice as many 1st downs, 14; gained 177 net yards rushing (with Planutis and speedy Clarence Peaks doing most of it) to 136 for Michigan; and completed 3 of 7 passes to UM's 1 in 2.

While Meads did a fine job up front, the outstanding lineman was big Pat Burke of MSU. The brawny fellow, with No. 71 on his shirt figured in most of the defensive plays that kept Wolverine runners bottled up much of the afternoon.

More than 97,000 fans witnessed the game, the 35th win for 'M' in the venerable series. It was the 8th straight sellout in the string. And the tilt was Michigan's 1st Big 10 encounter for the season.

TOUCHDOWN — A 1st period touchdown (above) for St. Mary's Eaglets was caught by the Press camera in Sunday's game at Wisner Stadium. The determined lad with the ball is Eaglet fullback Gerry Lesczynski. On the ground after a futile attempt to stop the flying Eaglet, is St. Michael's quarterback, Danny Dropps. Eaglets won 25-0.

Hall Standout as Wings Down All-Stars, 3-1

Reibel and Howe Share Scoring for Detroit; Shutout Spoiled

DETROIT (AP) — Rookie goalie Glenn Hall held the All-Stars scoreless until the final finutes while Dutch Reibel and Gordie Howe triggered the Detroit Red Wings to a 3-1 victory last night in the annual National Hockey League All-Star game at Olympia stadium.

Montreal's Doug Harvey spoiled Hall's shutout bid by drilling in a low 65-footer at 16:38 of the final period. It would have been the 1st shutout in the nine-year history of the all-star game.

Hall made 30 saves—26 of them in the last two periods after Howe and Reibel had pushed the Wings to a 2-0 lead.

Howe got his 4th goal in eight All-Star games when he deflected Reibel's pass-out from close range 57 seconds after the start of the 2nd quarter while the Stars were shorthanded with Toronto's Jim Morrison in the penalty box.

Less than five minutes later Reibel finished off Ted Lindsay's perfect relay with a blazing 10-footer past goalie Harry Lumley of Toronto.

Harvey's tally at 16:38 of the 3rd period climaxed a defensive push by the All-Stars, cream of the five other NHL teams.

Reibel backhanded a 75-footer into the center of the empty net at 19:33.

Eaglet Backs Lead St. Mary to Easy 25-0 Win Over Crippled Shamrocks in SCL Grid Battle

By BILL CORNWELL

Powered by veteran, hard-running backs, Orchard Lake St. Mary's football team rolled to a surprisingly easy 25-0 victory over St. Michael Sunday afternoon at Wisner Stadium. the win maintained an unblemished record for the Eaglets and handed Mikes their 1st setback of the season.

Paced by fullback Gerry Leszczynski, who gained 146 yards in 14 attempts for a 10.4 yard average per carry, Rev. John Rakoczy's smooth-functioning Eaglets riddled Shamrock defense with a pulverizing ground attack to rack up a vital triumph in the Suburban Catholic League.

Eaglets crossed the goal line in every period. Their 1st touchdown came near the end of the 1st quarter when Leszczynski crashed over from the six-yard line to climax a drive of 32 yards.

St. Mary's 2nd-quarter score was set up by an intercepted aerial, Eaglets taking over on their own 18. St. Mary marched 82 yards for a touchdown with Leszczynski rambling the final 25 yards around right end.

Eaglets recovered a Mike fumble on the latter's 41 midway in the 3rd period and drove 41 yards for the touchdown. Halfback Len-Mallat rammed over from the five and Pete Madelans placekicked the extra point, giving Eaglets a 19-0 advantage.

Eaglets scored their last touchdown early in the 4th on the most sensational play of the game. Quarterback Ted Kopacki dashed 68 yards around right end on a "keeper" play for the TD.

St. Michael, handicapped by the absence of regular signal-caller Bob Mineweaser, could not sustain any scoring drives against a rugged Eaglet defense. Deepest penetration by Shamrocks occurred near the end of the game when they advanced to the Eaglet four-yard line before losing the ball on downs.

Big Ten Scorers Tied for Second

Despite Only 2 Points Against MSU, Kramer Still Tops List

CHICAGO (AP) — Sophomore fullback Ray Nitschke of Illinois and junior end Dave Howard of Wisconsin both scored three touchdowns Saturday to move into a 2nd place tie in the Big Ten scoring race.

Nitschke and Howard tied Ohio State's Howard Cassady—each having 18 points.

Michigan's Ron Kramer, however, upped his lead to 25 points by cashing in on a pair of extra points.

Moving into 5th place was Michigan State's Gerry Planutis who scored all of his team's seven points and ran his total to 15.

Four others were tied for 6th place with 12 points apiece.

Prof Says TV Aids Gridders in Class

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Dr. H. Burr Roney, assistant professor of biology at the University of Houston, say televised educational subjects get many a football player over the classroom hurdle.

Dr. Roney said last year he presented his subject matter in the classroom, then repeated it over the school's TV station. Houston football coaches insisted squad members attend both.

As a result, Dr. Roney said "more football players passed the course than ever before."

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

ANGLING FOR SPARES—Each spare has a scoring value of 10 points, so it pays well to practice spare shooting. Most topflighters give a lot of time to converting single pin, clusters, or split leaves. As sketch shows, spare bowling actually works off of three prime angles—the No. 5, straightaway; the No. 7, at the extreme left side of the alley, calling for a right-to-left cross-alley shot, and the No. 10, at the right, in which you start as far left as possible.

It is important in all spare shooting that you face the target pin or pins. Turn your feet to the spare angle. Being set to go into stride, relax completely, and concentrate on smooth footwork and ball swing all the way to a full, reaching follow-through. The tendency is to throw the ball, after a rush to the foul line. Don't do it. Take it easy. Swing is the thing.

Indians' Shortstop Helped by Draft Rule

CLEVELAND (AP)—George Strickland, who has been the Cleveland Indians regular short stop the last three seasons, owes his chance in the majors to the draft rule. The former Boston Red Sox farm hand was drafted by the Pirates from Birmingham, Ala., after the 1949 season. After the 1952 season closed Cleveland obtaind him in a trade with Pittsburgh.

Fullback Big Surprise

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP)—Ova Stapleton, 173-pound junior fullback, is the surprise of the Wyoming football team. A third stringer last season he now is a regular, especially since he picked up 132 yards on 19 carries on the Pokes opening game against Kansas State. Ova is the brother of Clayton Stapleton, Wyoming line coach last year.

Shoemaker Wins Races in All Parts of USA

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Shoemaker does most of his winning on race horses in California but New Yorkers have learned to respect the brilliant jockey. In his 1955 New York debut he won with his first mount, Rare Vintage, at Aqueduct. Records also show that Willie scored with his first two New York mounts in 1954 when he won both ends of the daily double at Jamaica.

Army, UM Tilt Highlights Top Grid Card

By the Associated Press

There'll likely be some changes in the positions of the nation's top 10 college football teams this week but it's almost a lead-pipe cinch that two of the honored group will clash head-on at Ann Arbor Saturday when the unbeaten forces of Army and Michigan come to grips.

* * *

It'll be the only game bringing together members of the Top 10 on the basis of last week's ratings. And there was nothing in last Saturday's results, except for the 6-0 beating handed eighth-ranked Ohio State by Stanford, that indicated there will be any great shifting.

The Buckeyes, however, could well drop several notches because of their defeat by the unheralded Indians. The game still was the talk of the gridiron world today as most of the nation's major teams prepared to settle down to races in their respective conferences.

* * *

Michigan, ranked second back of Maryland, just managed to squeeze past Michigan State, 14-7, after romping over Missouri in its opening encounter. But the Wolverines figure to give the backfield-weakened Cadets the test that Penn State failed to furnish. Army, an easy opening-game winner over Furman and then ranked sixth, breezed past the Nittany Lions 35-6.

Ohio State was the only member of the Top 13 that tasted defeat last Saturday.

The Buckeyes had beaten Nebraska 28-20 in their opener while the Indians had dropped a 10-0 decision to Oregon State the previous Saturday. On that basis, the Big Ten boys figured to romp home behind the running of All-America Howard (Hopalong) Cassady.

* * *

But the Chuck Taylor-coached Indians held Hopalong to a paltry 37 yards rushing and made a touchdown, scored at the end of a 72-yard drive the first time they gained possession of the ball, stand up all the way.

"We had our ends watching him (Cassady) on those quarterback plays, said Taylor. "We allowed the quarterback to make a few yards inside rather than pitch out to Cassady. We gambled and won."

Maryland's No. 1 Terrapins hurdled Baylor 20-6 with Frank Tamburello's pin-point passing a big factor in the victory.

Ga. Tech., No. 3 and probably the class of the South, breezed past Southern Methodist 20-7 while Notre Dame blanked Indiana 19-0 with quarterback Paul Hornung running 33 yards for one touchdown and pitching 7 to sophomore end Dick Prendergast for another. The Irish ranked fourth.

* * *

Oklahoma, No. 5 made it 21 straight victories by turning back Pitt 26-14. UCLA, No. 7, beaten the previous week by Maryland, took it out on Washington State 55-0. Southern California, No. 9, downed Texas 19-7 Friday night and Texas Christian, No. 10, made a strong bid for Southwest Conference honors with a 26-0 decision over Arkansas' defending Razorbacks.

Besides Stanford's triumph over Ohio State, the only other game that resembled an upset was Clemson's 26-7 walloping of Georgia. Not since 1914 had the Tigers beaten the Bulldogs.

Lions Deep in NFL Cellar After Colts' Romp, 28-13

DETROIT (AP) — A pair of ignominious "firsts" today marred the six-season record of Buddy Parker as coach of the Detroit Lions.

For the 1st time since the soft spoken Texan took over the reins the Lions are in last place in the National Football League standings. Also for the 1st time, Detroit has dropped two games in a row.

The rejuvenated Baltimore Colts, paced by a pair of brilliant rookies—quarterback Buck Shaw and fullback Allen (the Horse) Ameche, initiated the unwanted "firsts."

The Colts, who have been classified around the league as a "little offense, lotta defense" team, stunned the limping Lions Saturday night, 28-13. It was the Lions' 2nd successive loss and the 1st time in six games that Baltimore had whipped the defending western division champs.

Coupled with the Lions' loss last Sunday to the Packers at Green Bay, the Baltimore loss tumbled injury-riddled Detroit to the bottom of the division heap.

Shaw, the Colts' bonus selection from Oregon, passed for a pair of touchdowns and Ameche, the top draft choice from Wisconsin, churned for two more.

Quarterback Bobby Layne tried to cope with the rampaging Colts. And he did it—for the 1st half.

Dorne Dibble made a circus catch of a 44-yard Layne TD toss in the 1st period and he caught another from 2 yards out in the waining seconds of the half.

Gives 3 Reasons Why Fish Nibble

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (AP)—Chumming, competition and agitation are three of the major reasons why fish bite, says Dr. James R. Westman of Rutgers University who began research on the subject 16 years ago.

Competition means the presence of a large number of fish. humming is the giving of a nonhooked handout to the fish. (It makes the fish careless). Agitation is caused by currents, air jets, propeller blades or lure action.

Dr. Westman says the ordinary fisherman should be able to hook an extraordinary amount of fish if these three factors are working. He says he did it many times in experiments in over-sized laboratory tanks as well as in farm ponds, lakes and the ocean.

Tommy's Drag No Good; Settles for Porgy

COLD SPRING HARBOR, N. Y. (AP)—Tommy Holmes, manager of the Fort Worth Cats in the Texas League, knows how it feels to hook into a striped bass. On his first experience a striper, believed to be in the 9-pound class, took his line and made the spinning reel sing when the drag wasn't tight enough. After tightening the drag, Holmes got the fish under control but the striper tossed off the hook 30 feet from the boat. He did pull in a small porgy.

Tech's Coach Pulls No Punches—Just Teeth

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Dr. Eddie Baker, coach of Carnegie Tech's unbeaten 1954 football team, is the envy of many coaches because he has no worry about winning or subsidizing players.

Tech, which in former years took on such gridiron giants as Notre Dame, decided a few years ago to quit the "big time" and play schools in its own class. Baker is a dentist who coaches on a part time basis.

Hopes to Keep Pace

EAST LANSING — If Duffy Daugherty has a .500 record at Michigan State this fall, he'll be keeping pace with second-year records of seven other Spartan football coaches.

Jet Plane Pilot Lost in Reservoir Crash

YUMA, Ariz. (AP)—Rescue teams probed the muddy waters of a reservoir today for the body of a B57 demonstration pilot who swooped to his death as more than 1,000 picnickers at an Air Force barbecue gasped in horror.

* * *

John Birt, 28, was demonstrating the plane just above the treetops yesterday when one of his two jet engines failed and the craft skidded into the 20-foot-deep Yuma Air Base reservoir.

He worked for the Martin Aircraft Co. of Baltimore, manufacturers of the craft. He was the only one aboard.

* * *

Colombia is boosting pesticide imports, Bogota reports.

The bonds are to be a part of a total issue of $825,000 voted for the purpose of defraying the cost of erecting and furnishing additions to the Walled Lake High School building and the Commerce, Glengary, Twin Beach, and Walled Lake Elementary School buildings, remodelling a portion of the Wixom Elementary School building, installing a heating plant in the Junior High School building, and erecting and furnishing a new elementary school building and acquiring a site therefor, or in lieu thereof, erecting and furnishing additions to existing elementary school buildings, all in said school district, and will be the general obligations of the school district which is authorized and required by law to levy upon all the taxable property therein such ad valorem taxes as may be necessary to pay said bonds and the interest thereon, subject to such limitations upon the said taxing power as may result from the provisions of Section 21 of Article X of the Michigan Constitution and the Michigan Property Tax Limitation Act.

The electors of said school district at an election held on November 29, 1954, increased the tax limitation by 6 mills for the years 1955 to 1974, both inclusive, for the payment of principal and interest on said total issue of $825,000 and the establishment of a reserve therefor.

For the purpose of awarding the bonds, the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from November 1, 1955 to their respective maturities and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the school district. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the bonds or at a price less than their par value, will be considered.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $5,500 drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of the school district must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid be accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest shall be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids will be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Berry, Stevens & Moorman, attorneys, Detroit, Michigan, approving the legality of the bonds. The cost of said legal opinion and the printing of the bonds will be paid by the school district. Bonds will be delivered at Detroit, Michigan.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Bonds."

Stocks Tumble 1 to 3 Points

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market ran into a flurry of selling today and fell sharply in the early afternoon.

Prices were hammered down 1 to 3 points in many instances, and some losses went on out to around 6 points at the worst.

The market started out with only moderate activity. Within a short time, prices steadied around their lows and in some cases negotiated some recovery from their worst.

However, near the start of the third hour there was a gradual pickup in the selling speed until finally the ticker was forced to lag behind in reporting actual transactions. Prices were the most badly depressed when selling was the most intense.

Heaviest losses were in steels, motors, oils and railroads, and they also were the most active of the major divisions.

Lower stocks included Southern Railway, Amerada Petroleum, Anaconda Co., International Nickel, International Paper, Bethlehem Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Montgomery Ward, and Douglas Aircraft.

Sales Depress Grain Futures

CHICAGO (AP)—Fairly heavy receipts of cash grain depressed grain futures on the Board of Trade today. The receipts created some hedging pressure in futures pits.

Heavy rains in some sections of the Southwest also brought selling into the pits, particularly in July wheat. It was down more than a cent at one time.

Weakness in soybean meal and oil early had a depressing influence on soybeans, despite the fact more harvest-delaying rains were predicted for parts of Illinois.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅜ to 1⅜ lower, December $2.04⅛; corn ⅞ to 1¼ lower, December $1.31⅝; oats ¼ to ½ lower, December 63¼; rye ½ lower to ¼ higher, December $1.10¼; soybeans 2 to 3 cents lower, November $2.41, and lard 15 to 20 cents a hundred pounds lower, October $10.42.

Gas Station Managers Apologize When Needed

NEW YORK—Here's something new in dealer-customer relations.

Some service-station managers are noting license numbers of patrons who drive away without being waited on when there's too much of a wait. Then the dealer sends the motorist a letter of apology.

Plane Crash Kills Pleasant Ridge Man

DETROIT (INS) — A prominent Detroit attorney was killed late yesterday when his recently-purchased plane crashed in flames at McKinley Airport in Macomb County.

The victim was Max L. Veech, 46, Pleasant Ridge City commissioner and a former justice of the peace. A passenger, Harry Halboth, 51, Detroit, was dragged from the wreckage, severely burned.

Veech was at the controls when his four-seater, single engine Stinson suddenly went into a dive, plowed into the field nose first and burst into flames.

Veech had been practicing landinge for about 45 minutes when the tragedy occurred. Halboth is a veteran of more than 30 years of flying.

Earl R. Hovis, 33, St. Clair Shores, an automobile salesman, said he and his wife, Edith, had just landed their plane and had taxied into a hangar when they saw the plane crash.

Hovis, a World War II pilot, managed to unfasten Halboth's safety belt and pull him out, but he was unable to reach Veech because of the flames and extreme heat.

The dead attorney lived at 33 Cambridge, Pleasant Ridge. He was a graduate from the University of Michigan in 1932 and had resided in Pleasant Ridge since 1938.

By EMILY BELSER

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Jimmy Durante ought to be a fabulously wealthy man, but he isn't.

* * *

In his 40 years of show business, the lovable Schnozzola has earned well over $10,000,000, but much of it has wound up in someone else's pocket—pals, charities, Uncle Sam.

Someone once said if all the stumblebums who owe Durante money would pay off, the comedian would be a billionaire.

Jimmy is the last to kick.

"I don't care nuttin' for money," he explained. "Sure, I like to think I'm earnin' a buck once in a while. But mostly I just wanna put on a good show."

He's been putting on smash-bang performances for NBC-TV for the past five years. But he still hankers after the nightclubs, the stage and the honkey-tonks.

"The only time I like TV," he grinned, "is when I've finished with the show!"

JUMBLED HOME

Jimmy's house—a modest jumbled-up bungalow in Beverly Hills—always looks like a TV rehearsal hall.

Day and night it's running over with producers, directors, gag writers and cronies. Usually, they congregate in the Durante dining room where they harangue and toss ideas back and forth until dawn.

This suits Jimmy fine because he suffers from insomnia and never hits the hay until 4 a.m.

"I guess I never got over de days when I was bangin' a piano all night," he admitted.

* * *

The days he referred to began at Coney Island back in 1910, when James Francis Durante was only 17. His first job was in a bistro called Diamond Tony's and he earned exactly $25 per week.

Four years later he met his sidekick Eddie Jackson, and in 1924, when Lou Clayton waltzed into a club, the famed act of Clayton, Jackson and Durante was born.

NAME CAME LAST

Characteristically, Jimmy's name came last and although he has been lionized, idolized, adored, hit the jackpot as a movie star and a radio and TV "poisonality," the little comedian with the big nose still thinks of himself as "just part of de act!"

* * *

So far as Jimmy is concerned, "de act" has never been the same since his beloved Lou Clayton died of cancer in 1950. Lou was one of Broadway's top soft shoe dancers and he helped make the team of Clayton, Jackson and Durante one of the bang-up nightery acts of the roaring 20s.

The boys played every noteworthy dive in New York and in 1928 crashed the Broadway stage in "Ziegfeld's Show Girl."

Then came the depression and the team decided to disband for a while. In 1930 Jimmy snagged a role in the Cole Porter musical, "The New Yorkers." Then he came to Hollywood under contract to MGM.

But he didn't come alone. He hired Clayton as his business manager and Jackson followed several months later, leaving a cafe business behind him in Akron, Ohio.

ALWAYS WITH EDDIE

Durante needs the top-hatted, struttin' Jackson like he needs a hole in the head, but the nose would never think of "going on" without Eddie.

The famed piano-buster lived through one of the most glamorous eras in show business—"the good old days." But he wouldn't live them over again even for a new schnozzola. Nor does he sigh over the past.

"These are the best years today," he said, "people talk about the old days on Broadway, but I wouldn't want 'em back. There were too many sluggin's, murders and gang wars to suit me!"

Not that Jimmy likes it too peaceful. At 62 he's working almost as hard as he did at 30. How does he do it?

"I take vitamin C," he explained. "Nuttin' like it!"

Wives Best Pin-Ups, Britishers Are Told

LONDON, Eng. — Young married servicemen now being sent overseas by Britain are given a booklet suggesting, among other things, that a husband's best "pin-up" is his wife.

Entitled "Over the Seas and Far Away," the booklet warns the men against "over-luscious pin-up girls" who leave just enough to the imagination.

They are advised, instead, to look up the snapshot they took on their honeymoon and put it up where they can see it.

The book suggests that couples about to be separated should make a solemn pact never to listen to gossip by word or letter about each other from any other source.
