Glenn Is Candidate for U.S. Senate Seat

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr., today stepped out of the space program and into the political arena.

The 42-year-old Ohio-born Marine colonel, first American to orbit the earth, announced he'll be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the U. S. Senate.

★ ★ ★

He'll oppose Stephen M. Young, the 74-year-old incumbent, in Ohio's primary election next May 5.

Glenn's announcement of his candidacy, coupled with a remark that he had passed up business ventures, which would have made him a millionaire, to get into the perils of politics, didn't appear to cause much concern among his opponents.

Young said he was in the race to stay, and that "I know I'll be nominated."

★ ★ ★

Fellow Democrat Charles A. Vanik, representative from Ohio, said in Washington he was endorsing Young and that "the high office of United States Senator from the State of Ohio would not be made a hero's pawn."

SEEKING SEAT

Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio, who is seeking the same Senate seat, said Glenn's entry would not alter his plans.

★ ★ ★

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, who will oppose Taft for the GOP senatorial nomination, said today after receiving Glenn's petitions that "Glenn has a perfect right to be a candidate—but unless Young bows out of the picture, I think Young will be the Democratic nominee."

★ ★ ★

In making his announcement of candidacy, Glenn also said he was retiring from the Marine Corps after 22 years of service.

Firemen Ask Shorter Hours

Circulate Petitions on 56-Hour Workweek

A shorter workweek is being sought by the Pontiac Fire Department.

Petitions are now being circulated by fire fighters to place a proposal on the April ballot that would reduce their current 63-hour workweek to 56 hours.

The hours worked by firemen each week are computed on a yearly average.

★ ★ ★

Less than 1,000 signatures of registered voters are required to ask for the revision in the city ordinance, according to Gerald Fritz, secretary of the Pontiac Fire Fighters Association, Local 376.

SEEK 3,000

Fritz said that Association members are hoping to obtain 3,000 signatures before the petitions are returned Feb. 15.

"The 56-hour week should have been in effect years ago," Fritz said.

In 1950 the workweek of Pontiac firemen was lowered from 72½ hours to the present 63.

★ ★ ★

Besides Pontiac, Dearborn is the only other city in the metropolitan area that now works a 63 hour week, Fritz said.

COMMISSION REFUSAL

Fritz said it was necessary to circulate the petitions because the city commission during budget hearings had refused to consider the shorter work week or place it on the ballot.

City Manager Robert A. Carter said that refusal of commissioners and administrators to consider the proposal was strictly a matter of economics.

"We are now levying the highest tax rate allowed under the charter. We have already made substantial cuts in services to balance the 1964 budget," Carter explained.

★ ★ ★

He added that the city was under a financial strain just trying to hire recruits to fill current openings in the fire department and staff a new station due to open this year.

PROPOSAL'S COST

Approval of the proposal could cost about 30 cents for each $1,000 of assessed valuation if a maximum of 15 additional men were hired to handle the extra work load, according to Fritz.

"But again, it might not cost a thing," said Fritz. "If the

Jets, Warships in Area During Antisub Drill

Navy Says Incident Happened Early This Month Near Japan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet jet bombers and Soviet warships boldly snooped close to the U.S. carrier Hornet and six destroyers during antisubmarine drills in the Sea of Japan early this month, it was learned today.

The Soviets were spotted by radar and kept under surveillance by Navy planes and ships.

There were no hostile acts or demonstrations and no contact between the Americans and the Soviets.

The Navy disclosed that several twin jet Soviet Badger bombers flew over the carrier task group in two flights—under the escort of U. S. Navy jet fighters which intercepted them some distance away.

★ ★ ★

A Soviet destroyer took up position about a mile from the 32,000-ton Hornet and stayed with the carrier and her destroyer screen for almost two days.

TOO MUCH SMOKE

In his report, the skipper of the Hornet complimented the Soviet seamanship but complained that the Red destroyer belched too much smoke.

A Soviet missile-firing submarine loitered on the surface within eight miles of the American task group, which included the Hornet and the destroyers Keys, Walke, Larson, Carpenter, Renshow and Radford.

A Soviet trawler equipped for surveillance stood within 11 miles of the U. S. carrier force.

This all happened in international waters, the Navy said.

It did not give specifics on the location, but the incident reportedly occurred between the Japanese island of Hokkaido and the Asian mainland.

NEAR RED AIRBASE

This would put the scene within a few hundred miles of the Soviet port of Vladivostok and well within range of Soviet airfields in Siberia.

Zanzibar Frees 2 U.S. Envoys

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department received word today that U. S. Consul Frederick P. Picard III, seized at gunpoint yesterday in Zanzibar, has been released and has reached Dar es Salaam, Tanganyika.

Donald K. Petterson, third secretary at the U. S. Embassy on the island, was released from house arrest, the department reported, but remained voluntarily on Zanzibar.

★ ★ ★

He is expected to resume contacts with the new Zanzibar government which ousted the regime that look over when Zanzibar gained independence.

The four American newsmen restricted by Zanzibar officials to their hotel are also expected to be released, but there was no word this had actually been accomplished.

Picard, who has been acting charge d'affaires in Zanzibar, was flown to Dar es Salaam in a plane provided by the Tanganyika government.

★ ★ ★

Picard had been seized in the lounge of a Zanzibar hotel in the midst of an argument with hot-tempered Zanzibar President Abeid Karume.

CRITICIZES NEWSMEN

The discussion arose when Karume stormed in to denounce the American newsmen for stories he said they had attempted to file on the uprising in the tiny country.

Picard tried to defend the four and Karume responded with an angry complaint against the fact the United States so far has withheld recognition from his government.

He shouted angrily at Picard that any remaining relations with the United States were now severed.

★ ★ ★

While in Dar es Salaam, Karume apparently read dispatches filed by foreign newsmen from Zanzibar.

NO TIME TO FILE

But none of the four Americans had had time to file any reports since their arrival by native boat.

"Why do you not recognize us?" Karume shouted at Picard. Then he hammered his fist into the palm of his hand and yelled: "You have interfered with our government."

The four American newsmen are John Nugent of Newsweek, William Smith of Time, Robert Conley of the New York Times and Peter Rand of the New York Harold Tribune.

★ ★ ★

Bob Kennedy Undecided

Vice President Bid Is Still Uncertain

TOKYO (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said today he has not decided whether he would accept the vice presidential nomination if it were offered.

★ ★ ★

Replying to a newsman, he said that he had considered his future for six weeks following the death of his brother, the late President John F. Kennedy, and had "decided basically that I didn't decide."

★ ★ ★

"At the moment, I plan to be the attorney general," he said.

Asked whether he had urged astronaut John Glenn to run for the U.S. Senate in Ohio, Kennedy said he had had "a number of conversations with John Glenn over his future." He declined to comment further.

Pressed to say whether he believed Glenn would be a good senator, Kennedy replied with a smile that Glenn would do an excellent job in whatever field he chose.

Indonesian President Sukarno, after meeting with Kennedy today, reaffirmed his intention of seeking a peaceful solution to the Malaysian crisis.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy's press secretary, Edwin Guthman, said after the 90-minute talk that the attorney general and Sukarno agreed the Malaysian dispute "should be solved by consultation."

Snow Flurries Are Possible

Cloudy and a little colder with a chance of snow flurries is the forecast for the Pontiac area tomorrow. The high is expected to be near 30.

The low is expected to reach 24 tonight.

Twenty-three was the lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a. m. today. By 2 p.m., the mercury registered 28.

U. S. Formally Notified

France to Recognize Peking

WASHINGTON (AP)—France has formally notified the United States that it intends to recognize Red China, authoritative sources said today .

The notification came through normal diplomatic channels.

The issue was discussed by Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Herve Alphand, the French ambassador, when the latter called on Rusk earlier this month.

★ ★ ★

There has been no formal reply to the French notification so far, but Rusk and his top aides in talks with Alphand made it clear the United States takes an extremely dim view of France's intended action.

UNDER CONSIDERATION

French President Charles de Gaulle has had the move under consideration for several months, and the United States has made strenuous efforts throughout that time to persuade him not to go through with it.

Nevertheless, the recent word from France has been that the question was no longer whether Red China would be recognized, but when.

France would be the fifth North Atlantic Treaty Organization country to recognize the Peking regime. The others are Britain, Denmark, the Netherlands and Norway.

★ ★ ★

Officials in Washington are reluctant to talk about the French notification and, in general, about France's intention, saying the official announcement should come from Paris.

RESIGNED TO MOVE

They acknowledge, however, that the Johnson administration is resigned to the fact that it cannot stop de Gaulle from establishing contacts with Peking.

Officials in private talks take the view that de Gaulle's action represents a heavy blow to Western unity and, indirectly, to the Atlantic Alliance.

Speculating about de Gaulle's reasons, some specialists of Asian diplomacy hinted that Paris did not conceal its ambitions to play again some role in Southeast Asia, where it once was the colonial power.

★ ★ ★

The French leader obviously believes that to play such a role he needs normal contacts with the Red Chinese, the strongest power in Asia.

COMMENTS MADE

Last week, when Edgar Faure, a former important political figure in France, publicly advocated recognition of the Red Chinese, the State Department made some comments.

French recognition of Red China, press officer Richard I. Phillips told a press conference, "would not be a service to us or to the other free nations."

Settle Dispute Over Highway

Businessmen, State Agree on M59 Work

Highland Road businessmen and the State Highway Department today settled their dispute over closing a stretch of the road (M59) for widening.

Circuit Court Judge Arthur E. Moore promptly lifted a temporary restraining order that had delayed the closing.

Today's agreement provides that through traffic will be detoured from the 3.4-mile section between Elizabeth Lake and Airport roads by detour signs and "local traffic only" signs at Telegraph and Airport roads.

Barricades will be erected only on both sides of the Clinton River bridge west of Crescent Lake Road. They are expected to go up early next week.

CAN CROSS

Motorists will be able to cross the river on Tubbs Road north of M59.

This detour, which is to be made known by prominently displayed signs, was approved by the county road commission.

Closing of the road to through traffic had been scheduled for Jan. 3.

But 11 businessmen sued for an injunction against closing the road to through traffic until arrangements could be worked out to protect them against business losses they feared would be disastrous.

They claimed that the announced detour via Telegraph Road, Dixie Highway and Williams Lake Road would discourage more traffic than necessary.

32 Petitions Are Out for Spring Election

Interest in the spring City Commission election appears to be high, according to reports from the city clerk's office.

There are 32 nominating petitions in circulation currently, and one candidate has already filed.

To be eligible for the office of city commissioner, a person must be 30 years old, a citizen of the United States, a resident of Pontiac for five consecutive years and of the district which he represents for at least the last two years.

Aside from that, all that's needed is some paper work and some votes.

Anyone wishing to run for the commission must fill out a form indicating he or she passes the above qualifications and desires to be a candidate.

★ ★ ★

Petitions must be signed by a minimum of 25 "but not more than 50" registered voters in the candidates district, according to the City Charter.

DEADLINE

The form and petition are then submitted to the City Clerk. Deadline for accepting nominating petitions for the March 2 primary is Feb. 11.

Primaries are necessary only in districts where there are more than two candidates.

To date, only two incumbent commissioners have indicated they will run for reelection.

★ ★ ★

Following Monday's special election, Mayor Robert A. Landry (District 7) and Milton R. Henry (District 1) said they planned to run again.

ALREADY FILED

Norman L. Wittkop, of 1025 Argyle, filed a nominating petition last month to run for the District 2 commission seat.

Usually, nominating petitions don't start coming in until the last week of January.

"One person came in and asked for 20 nominating petitions," said City Clerk Olga Barkeley.

There were 10 petitions forwarded to the Community Relations Bureau for the use of incumbent commissioners.

Cooking School Tickets Are All Distributed

Tickets for The Pontiac Press Cooking School, Jan. 28-31, have all been given out.

Seating capacity of Pontiac Central High School auditorium limits the number of tickets that can be issued.

Individuals without tickets will be seated just before the program start, depending on the number of vacant seats.

New Cigarette Peril?

BOSTON (AP)—Two Harvard scientists have posted another warning to cigarette smokers—a possible danger from a radioactive element.

Standing beneath a "no smoking" sign in a classroom at the school of public health, Drs. Edward P. Radford and Vilma R. Hunt, both nonsmokers, said yesterday they discovered a radioactive element in cigarette smoke which they believe may be a cause of lung cancer.

The element, polonium, is carried into the bronchial tubes and lungs by cigarette smoke, they said.

★ ★ ★

Their findings were submitted to Dr. Luther L. Terry, U. S. surgeon general, and were included in a report issued last week by his committee on health and smoking.

HEALTH HAZARD

The committee said cigarette smoking is a major health hazard.

The work of Radford and Mrs. Hunt on polonium was described in the report as an area needing further research.

Radford agreed.

★ ★ ★

"We cannot say at this time that we have proven that radioactivity is a cause of lung cancer," he said.

RADIOISOTOPES

Their report was described as the first to suggest that radioisotopes in tobacco could be involved in producing lung cancer.

The next step, Radford said, will be to determine if polonium, inhaled in smoke by cigarette smokers, does cause cancer.

Radford said he doubted that filters would effectively separate polonium from cigarette smoke. It would be more practical to grow tobacco with little or no polonium, he said.

★ ★ ★

The element is present in all green plants. But the body is so constructed that there is little danger when a plant is eaten, Radford said.

Radford said he and Mrs. Hunt found significantly greater concentrations of polonium in bones and teeth of smokers than in nonsmokers.

In addition, they found evidence that "the polonium content of the soft tissues of the body may be significantly elevated in smokers."

Peace Feelers Fail in Panama

PANAMA (AP) — New peace feelers intended to restore U. S.-Panama talks on the Panama Canal appeared to have stalled today, heightening the crisis over the strategic waterway.

Manuel Trucco, chairman of the U. S.-Panamanian committee established under the Organization of American States (OAS) made plans to return to Washington sometime today.

Trucco had been meeting separately during the past 24 hours with President Roberto Chiari and the chief U. S. negotiator, Edwin M. Martin.

★ ★ ★

After a short meeting between Trucco and Martin at noon, a high U. S. source said the situation "doesn't look good."

CONFERS WITH OAS

Trucco merely confirmed that he was leaving for Washington to confer with members of the OAS, but declined to comment further.

He had conferred yesterday with Foreign Minister Galileo Solis.

Earlier high sources in U. S. and Panamanian official quarters said there was slight hope that some formula might be found to get the two governments together again.

Reports from Washington said U.S. diplomatic troubleshooters were working behind the scenes in the U.S. capital and in Panama.

Chiari made no move to carry out his threat to call his embassy staff home from Washington and demand the departure of U.S. diplomats from Panama.

This would complete the rupture of diplomatic relations he broke last Friday during the violence along the Canal Zone in which 19 Panamanians and four U.S. soldiers were killed.

Official Panamanian sources had said Chiari would complete the break unless the United States agreed to negotiate a new treaty to replace the 1903 pact giving it perpetual control of the Canal Zone.

NOT UNDER PRESSURE

In Washington, the White House reaffirmed U.S. willingness to discuss all issues with Panama. But Secretary of State Dean Rusk told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee the United States would not do so "under pressure or threat of violence."

Rusk told newsmen his government feels the situation "can be resolved in the absence of violence through negotiations and discussions between the two governments."

A seven-party alliance opposing Chiari's Liberal party in the May 10 presidential election injected the canal dispute into the campaign by accusing the president of backing down from his original firm stand for U.S. concessions.

The alliance, backing the presidential candidacy of Juan de Arco Galindo, demanded a U.S. commitment to negotiate a new canal treaty.

Viet Reds Kill 5 GIs, Wound 3

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Five U.S. servicemen were killed and three wounded in combat helicopter operations over the Communist - infested Mekong River delta today.

The heaviest toll was in a turbine - powered UH1A that apparently exploded in an operation 90 miles southwest of Saigon. Four were killed and three wounded.

The other American killed was a gunner of an H21 troop-carrying helicopter. He was hit by a Communist bullet in another operation. He was a private first class.

★ ★ ★

The deaths brought to 99 the number of American servicemen killed in combat in South Viet Nam since late 1961. U.S. service deaths from all causes now total 173.

ANOTHER CASUALTY

U.S. authorities also reported an American enlisted man was wounded in the chest yesterday at the mountain town of Ban Me Thuot when he accidentally fired his weapon in his quarters. His condition reportedly was not serious.

Saigon authorities announced that a company of Vietnamese troops was heavily hit in a jungle ambush 20 miles northeast of this city by a strong Viet Cong force Wednesday.

Government losses included six dead, 31 wounded and 39 missing.

Zoning Issue Not Clear-Cut

By PAT McCARTY

BLOOMFIELD HILLS—It's a question of aesthetics, the courts and the expectations of Bloomfield Hills property owners.

This combination tends to make the city's proposed zoning ordinance less than a clear-cut issue.

At its public hearing Wednesday night, the revised code met an evenly divided audience, but not vehemently so. The question-and-answer period was about an hour and a half long, with some parley between opposing factions on the City Commission.

A straw vote of the 125-odd residents attending gave little strategical strength to either side. It was not evident that any minds were changed.

★ ★ ★

With a final decision expected during or before the commission's next regular meeting Feb. 11, the five men are unanimous in their support of all sections but two.

3-2 SPLIT

There is a 3-2 split concerning desirable attributes of multiple-residence zones.

If the commission does not change its collective mind, Bloomfield Hills' new zoning ordinance will provide that multiple-residence property can have 4.5 families per acre rather than the present three.

The code also will allow construction of three-story town houses under certain circumstances, whereas the units are now limited to two stories for all practical purposes.

★ ★ ★

Favoring the changes are Commissioners Louis J. Colombo Jr., David W. Lee and James A. Beresford. Mayor Lyman J. Craig and Commissioner Henry L. Woolfenden would not alter the restrictions.

ONE ARGUMENT

One of the arguments used by the majority is that the three-story units could be more imaginatively designed than those presently being constructed. Making elevators more feasible, they would discourage the building of walkups.

With the approval of the board of appeals, a potential developer would still have to comply with a 150-foot-setback restriction and have at least a five-acre site.

The proposal would lead to the development of a more campus-like community, they say.

The commissioners agree that Bloomfield Hills residents, 70 per cent of whom own their own homes enjoy the luxury of a "rural atmosphere."

HOW MANY?

But the question is one of how many people can be allowed to enjoy the spaciousness before it ceases to exist. The courts, they fear, may have something to say about that.

Bloomfield Hills could get by with restricting the number of families allowed per acre to three when the city didn't have a sewage system. But the health reasons are no longer there.

City Attorney W. B. Hartman thinks the present restriction is "indefensible" in court.

"I do not predict we can defend 4.5 with any greater success," he said. "But we can make it more palatable to property owners. We can get the property developed. It's a step in the right direction."

DIFFERENT FORM

Neighboring Birmingham states its restriction in a different form, but in one of its multiple - residence zones, it allows up to 36 bedrooms per acre.

In one of its single residence zones, it allows nine families per acre — twice as much as that proposed for multiple residences in Bloomfield Hills.

Using still another method, Bloomfield Township limits the number of units per acre to 29, a one-bedroom apartment being considered three units, a two-bedroom apartment four and so on.

However, its side-lot, setback and parking requirements could cut almost in half the 9.8 figure arrived at through the above calculation.

Proponents of the 4.5 figure admit that even that might not be upheld in litigation.

WORTH A TRY

But they think it's worth a try, considering as an alternative the high-rise apartments suggested by planning consultants Vilican - Leman and Associates, and a density figure which commissioners wouldn't even mention Wednesday night.

News Analysis

For Local Governments

Canvass Boards a Must

Only one of Oakland County's 93 local governments has notified his office of having complied with state law requiring appointment of a new kind of election canvassing board, according to County Clerk-Register David R. Calhoun.

★ ★ ★

Calhoun yesterday issued an "emphatic reminder" that the governing boards of all the county's 22 cities, 24 townships, 17 villages and 30 school districts must set up the new canvassing boards "as soon as possible."

"Some municipalities will be having elections soon," Calhoun said. "They will have to have these set up."

★ ★ ★

Calhoun said the one report of having appointed the canvassers came from a school district.

ALL REQUIRED

The new law, passed last month to implement part of the new State Constitution, requires every municipality to appoint two Democrats and two Republicans to a canvassing board. The law took immediate effect.

Canvassers are to be named from among applicants who file affidavits on forms provided for that purpose.

Unlike the old law, the new one prohibits local officials and members of their immediate families from serving as canvassers.

★ ★ ★

Another difference is that canvassing boards previously had only three members.

The law makes the same new requirements of counties. Calhoun said the county already has appointed its four new canvassers.

★ ★ ★

Vote Canvass Illegal? Won't Affect Election

The vote in Monday's special election in Pontiac was officially canvassed by the City Commission last night, but the canvass may have been illegal.

While no one is sure the canvass was legal, city officials agree it was most practical.

The problem revolves around a new state law which specifies that municipalities must appoint boards to canvass votes.

★ ★ ★

The new law went into effect Dec. 27.

CAN'T CANVASS

Technically, it would mean the City Commission can't canvass votes, as it did last night.

City Clerk Olga Barkeley, however, looked at the practical side of it. "Our office was not notified of the new law until election day," she said.

"We would have to make up applications, then accept them and the commission would have to select members of the board from the applications.

★ ★ ★

"This would normally be done before the election. After extensive discussion with county officials Monday, we decided it would be impossible to comply with the new law for this election."

COMING ELECTIONS

A board will be selected for coming elections, she said.

The lone certainty of last night's canvass was that Monday's charter amendment passed 8,861 to 3,375. The vote is final and official.

Vote Officers New Terms at First Federal

All officers and directors of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland were reelected at the 29th annual meeting of shareholders

Named to three-year-terms of the board were Mahlon A. Benson Jr., Conrad N. Church and B. C. Cummings.

Officers are: James Clarkson, president; James M. Rahl, vice president and secretary; Robert C. Peck Jr. and Warren D. Newton, vice presidents, and E. W. Johnston, treasurer.

LBJ 'Dry Up' Edict Ignored in Capital

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson has failed woefully as a circuit breaker — that is, as a buster of the capital's famed cocktail circuit.

★ ★ ★

It is 17 days now since he issued an edict that struck terror into freeloaders.

He said he expected officials to stay away from the cocktail circuit because 1964 was going to be a busy year.

Some people feared this would doom a Washington institution because what is a cocktail party without officialdom?

But what are the results to date?

Nothing preceptible.

Bottled goods are rolling into Washington in customary quantities, by the carload.

In other words, the momentarily dismayed capital of the world has regained its aplomb.

Johnson's directive was issued through a high - level spokesman at Johnson City, Tex.

★ ★ ★

It came out, by coincidence one day after Johnson had made the rounds of four New Year's Eve cocktail parties — pardon us, receptions — at Austin, Tex.

SIPPIN' WATER?

It is not of record, of course whether the President sipped water or what.

As for the capital, nobody in the know expects any change in habits.

A reporter who phoned caterers and hotels noted a remarkable reluctance to be quoted by name.

SAME AS USUAL

Some individuals were discovered who didn't mind being quoted:

• Johnny, a parakeet owned by a liquor dealer. He is a wise bird if he hasn't drunk too much gin—no fooling, he does indulge in the stuff.

Before he had his usual portion last night he was asked for a pronouncement on the Johnson order.

★ ★ ★

As interpreted by his master, Sidney Moses, the reply was "I foresee business as usual."

★ ★ ★

• Rep. John J. Rooney, D-N.Y., who down through the years has waged a hot fight to slash the booze allowance of U.S. diplomats overseas:

SOUNDS GOOD

"The President's order sounds like a good one.

★ ★ ★

"Don't misunderstand me, though. I'm no foe of cocktials. I'm a martini drinker myself.

★ ★ ★

"But if you and Rooney go into a bar, one of us should pick up the tab, not palm it off on the taxpayer."

Pontiac General's Budget at $6.9 Million for 1964

The Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees last night approved a record $6,910,608 operating budget for 1964.

This is $596,358 above the 1963 budget.

Harold B. Euler, administrator, said the higher budget wouldn't require an increase in room rates.

★ ★ ★

MORE EMPLOYES

This allows for about 36 more employes and includes a 1½ per cent pay hike across-the-board, exclusive of supervisory personnel.

Also included is $14,300 for the final phase of a three-year program designed to make step increases uniform in all classifications of the hospital pay plan.

The budget is based largely on an estimated average occupancy estimate for budget purposes in recent years.

★ ★ ★

Last year's budget was based on an estimate of 92.5 per cent occupancy. The 1962 budget estimate was 91 per cent.

WAS HIGHER

Occupancy was considerably higher than estimated in both years. Hospital capacity was 381 beds.

The hospital will have a 387-bed complement in 1964 due to alterations last fall which made space for six additional beds.

"If we equal or exceed 96.5 per cent occupancy this year, our budget will balance," explained Harold S. Goldberg, board chairman.

★ ★ ★

An average occupancy of 96.5 per cent is expected to produce $6,754,138 in net receipts for patient care.

OTHER INCOME

Operating income from other miscellaneous sources is estimated to be $156,470.

Euler explained that "while the increase in our occupancy estimate may seem sharp, it is based on sound experience.

"Actual occupancy has averaged about 4 per cent above budget estimates for the last few years and we see no indications of a letup."

★ ★ ★

The actual average occupancy was 96.37 per cent last year, 3.87 per cent over the estimate. It was 4.5 per cent over in 1962.

The hospital budget must now be okayed by the City Commission before it is officially adopted. No further action is required by trustees.

Firemen Ask Shorter Hours

men are not provided, it will just mean that we will have an additional work load."

The proposed workweek would amount to 15 additional days off a year for firemen.

★ ★

"The department would remain a two platoon system, each working 24 hours on and 24 hours off," said Fritz.

TOTAL COST

Cost of the shorter week is estimated to be about $57,000. The proposed 1964 budget does contain a contingency of roughly $80,000.

★ ★ ★

Carter, however, pointed out that "we may need this contingency. Some departments have been cut back so drastically that they may not be able to make it through the year on their budget allocation."

★ ★ ★

The fire department budget allocation is about $56,000 higher this year than in 1963, mainly because of the new northside station.

Woman in Hong Kong Burns Herself to Death

HONG KONG (AP)—A 28-year-old Chinese woman died of burns early today, and neighbors told police she had poured kerosene over herself and set herself afire.

★ ★ ★

No reason was given. It was the first such reported incident in Hong Kong's police annals.

NATIONAL WEATHER — Clear to partly cloudy skies will dominate the greater part of the nation tonight with the exception of cloudy skies over the northern and central Rockies, accompanied by snow showers. Warmer temperatures are expected over the central and southern Plateau and the upper and middle Mississippi Valley. Colder temperatures are expected for the northern Plains and parts of the eastern Gulf Coast.

Police Start Magazine Probe

LANSING (AP) — Under orders from Acting Gov. T. John Lesinski, state police today began checking 47 state-owned newsstands to determine if their magazines are too sexy.

★ ★ ★

The sale of allegedly risque "girlie" magazines in a stand at the State Capitol angered Lesinski Thursday and led to his demand for an investigation.

★ ★ ★

Detectives from numerous posts were assigned to the job. Supt. Howard Silver said the task of thumbing through the magazines across the state might take several days.

★ ★ ★

The detectives, Lesinski said, would not be asking as "censors" but only reporting on what kind of magazines are being sold at the newsstands located in state, federal and city and county buildings.

WANT TO KNOW

"If in the opinion of these police officers the materials are not fit to be sold in public buildings, we want to know it," said the lieutenant governor.

"From what I have seen, some of this stuff is clearly not fit," said Lesinski, who became acting governor when Gov. George Romney left for a two-day trip to Utah.

★ ★ ★

"If selling this kind of thing is a widespread practice, we hope to discourage it."

The newsstands are owned by the state and leased yearly to blind persons through the state department of social welfare.

PHONE CONVERSATION

Lesinski said he learned, in a telephone conversation Thursday with social welfare director Bernard Houston, that the state has "enough supervisory power" to have objectionable materials removed from the stands.

Houston also told Lesinski that a directive was sent out recently to all newsstand operators to keep objectionable magazines and other materials from being sold.

Worst of all, Lesinski said, is the fact that the magazines are being sold at a newsstand in the basement of the state capitol, where hundreds of visitors pass daily.

★ ★ ★

Lesinski said he had stopped by the newsstand to purchase something else and noticed the magazines, and demanded of the stand operator why they were being sold.

DIDN'T KNOW HIM

"I didn't even know who he was," said Robert Haight, 35, who has been running the stand the last few days in place of his ailing sister, Mary Lou, the regular concessionnaire.

★ ★ ★

"I told him I didn't know anything about the magazines and he'd have to see the people who put them out."

★ ★ ★

Lesinski, apparently angry, told Haight:

"I may not be able to stop people from publishing this stuff, but I assure you there'll be trouble if they are sold here as long as I'm lieutenant governor."

Haight said he removed the magazines.

"I didn't want any trouble," he said.

"My sister has taken that stuff off the stand before and I know she always does if she knows it's there. But being blind, she can't tell what the magazines are."

★ ★ ★

Lesinski said he thought the blind concessionnaires were not at fault.

★ ★ ★

"It looks to me like they're being used as tools," he said.

★ ★ ★

Following his encounter with Haight, Lesinski dispatched his administrative aide, Ronald Zierbicki, and secretary, Barbara Fowler, to two other state office buildings to check the newsstands.

BEING SOLD

Both reported back that the material that might be considered objectionable is being sold. sold.

General Strike Hits Brazil

REO De JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Army troops guarded major public utility installations today after a general strike — including unprecedented walkouts by federal employes — continued to spread in Brazil.

★ ★ ★

Troops were rushed to the poverty - stricken northeast region yesterday after 12 persons were killed in a gun battle when laborers tried to take over a mill.

★ ★ ★

Troops guarded gas, light and power, telephone and streetcar companies in Rio. Gas service was suspended for the city of 3.5 million and most of the city also was without electricity.

★ ★ ★

Longshoremen and workers in several other major fields have been on strike for weeks.

NAVY WORKERS

Civilian employes of the Navy Ministry walked out, and workers in the government telegraph agency also struck.

★ ★ ★

In most cases, the strikers are demanding pay hikes to counter Brazil's chaotic economic crisis. President Joao Goulart has said the nation is on the brink of bankruptcy.

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

Be Thankful for the Fruits of Research

Medicine has come a long way since founding of this country. Despite hardships and a high death rate, the first settlers found much to be thankful for.

BRANDSTADT

Here are some of the things I think we, in turn, should be truly thankful for:

We have almost complete freedom from such scourges of the past as smallpox, typhus, typhoid, bubonic plague (the black death), lockjaw, diphtheria, rabies, scarlet fever and malaria.

These have been virtually eliminated through the application of sanitary practices and immunizing vaccines or toxoids.

Let us be thankful, too, for antibiotics and the many other antimicrobial drugs.

Let us be thankful for insulin, cortisone, estrogens and all the other hormones that have done so much to relieve suffering.

Let us be thankful that your doctor is living in an age when new methods of diagnosis and new operative techniques are helping him in many ways to help you.

But let us not forget that new drugs and other discoveries are not the whole of medicine.

Let us be especially thankful for the family physician who takes time to listen to your cares and worries and who has the patience to get to know you.

Let us be thankful for the family doctor who is not only your physician, but also your friend.

Q — I am a 47-year-old housewife. I have to get up three or four times every night to urinate.

My doctor tested my urine and found no sugar. What can I do?

A — Yours is a common complaint. Although I know it is a source of annoyance, you won't die of it.

Bladder infection can probably be ruled out, because it would more likely cause you to get up 10 or 12 times a night.

Drinking large quantities of tea, coffee or beer can be a cause.

But many persons would rather get up at night than go to bed thirsty.

HARDENED ARTERIES

As we grow older there is a gradual hardening of the arteries and this is often associated with an increase in urination at night.

★ ★ ★

Furthermore, in many persons, nervous tension during waking hours is a factor.

★ ★ ★

This tension restricts the flow of blood to the kidneys then, when you go to sleep, the blood vessels relax and the kidneys make up for lost time.

Q — What causes Bell's palsy and what can be done to prevent it from recurring?

★ ★ ★

A — Bell's palsy or one-sided facial paralysis may be caused by exposure to cold, injury, infection, or tumors.

The cause is often hard to determine.

It usually clears up spontaneously after several weeks or months and recurrence is rare.

In some persons, however, the facial nerve is killed and the condition is permanent.

The men were in excellent condition. They were cut off Wednesday morning by falling rock when a pit prop snapped.

Venezuela Police Arrest Red Leaders

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Police claimed today they have broken up the pro-Castro Army of National Liberation (FALN) in the Northeastern province of Anzoategui by capturing two leaders.

★ ★ ★

Police said other FALN leaders in the area have been identified and will be arrested soon.

★ ★ ★

Arrested yesterday were Eduardo Chacon, known as Commander Paul, and J. A. Padron, who has been accused of blowing up oil pipelines in the state.

Domestic migrant families have 350,000 to 450,000 children, about 225,000 of whom migrate with their parents. More than half of these children are retarded educationally from one to four years.

POLITICS AND FUN — More than 100 turned out for Troy's appreciation banquet last night, honoring members of the city's boards and commissions. Here City Commissioners Robert Bargert (left) and James Carey exchange congratulations on the success of the affair, which featured introduction of all board members and a movie on proper city planning. The terms of both commissioners expire this year.

Vote Set for Dublin School

June 8 Date in White Lake

Taxpayers to Decide on Operational Levy

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Dublin School District taxpayers will vote on an operational millage levy June 8, although the size of the request has not yet been determined.

They probably will be asked to renew an 8-mill issue due to expire this year, according to Schools Supt. Nelson G. O'Shaughnessy.

The one-school district's budget is being reviewed in preparation for a board decision on the amount, he said.

★ ★ ★

Total operational millage for the district is now 14 mills, including the eight which will expire.

STILL PAYING

Property owners are paying another 3.29 mills for a 1956 bond issue which financed construction of a new school unit.

Board of education members are considering purchase of another school site, in preparation for predicted population growth in the area.

Available property is being sought by a committee of trustees and staff members.

★ ★ ★

The board will attempt to borrow $40,000 in anticipation of state aid.

PARTIAL PAYMENT

The money would be used as partial payment of tuition to the Walled Lake School System. Tuition tab this year will be $60,232.

Currently there are 804 students enrolled in kindergarten through eighth grade at Dublin School.

★ ★ ★

The district's 258 secondary school students are being educated within the Walled Lake system.

She'll Reign Over Festival

Rhubarb Queen Will Be Selected

UTICA — One week from tomorrow, judges will pick the 1964 Michigan Hothouse Rhubarb Queen, the girl they think can most ably reign over the ninth annual festival next month.

The queen pageant will take place in the auditorium of Utica High School, starting at 8 p.m.

After she is chosen, the new titleholder will begin preparation for the Feb. 29 festival, where she will preside over activities in the St. Lawrence Knights of Columbus Hall.

★ ★ ★

The pageant and festival are sponsored by the Michigan Hothouse Rhubarb Growers Association, the Utica Rotary Club and the Macomb County Cooperative Extension Service.

EVENT CHAIRMEN

Cochairmen this year are Arthur Lambert, president of the growers association, and Ralph Cuyler, of the Rotary Club.

Entrants will be rated on personality, talent and appearance.

Contest judges will include Col. Mervin S. Waters, director of supply at the U.S. Army Mobility Command, and Garfield Williams, assistant personnel director for Chevrolet Engineering Division.

★ ★ ★

Others contributing to the final decision will be T. R. Kirkum, manager of industrial relations at Ford Motor Co.'s Sterling Plant, and Mrs. Minerva Sweitzer, secretary to the plant manager at the Chrysler Corp. Missile Division.

EMCEE FOR AFFAIR

Emcee will be Joy Wills, area radio personality, who also handled the introductions last year.

When one of the 16 candidates acquires a position of royalty, she will also have some new duties.

Radio and television appearances are scheduled for her, to help publicize the rhubarb festival.

★ ★ ★

On the day of the festival, the new queen will share the spotlight with the Rhubarb King, area grower to be chosen then on the basis of the quality of his crop during the past year.

OTHER EVENTS

Other events of the day traditionally include tours of area hothouse rhubarb houses, auction of prize rhubarb and cooking demonstrations, again featuring rhubarb.

Prizes also will be given for best rhubarb recipes and rhubarb dishes.

★ ★ ★

The Michigan Hothouse Rhubarb Growers Association is made up of more than 200 area producers. Their product is marketed throughout the region.

New Therapy Center to Open Tomorrow

ORION TOWNSHIP — The new physical therapy center on Lapeer Road will open its doors to the public starting at 6 p.m. tomorrow.

Called the Orion Medical Physical Therapy & Rehabilitation Center, the facility is located at 785 N. Lapeer, north of Lake Orion.

Treatment will be available for patients of all area physicians, according to Theodore Breakie, resident physical therapist.

★ ★ ★

Breakie said tomorrow's open house will last until 9 p.m. The public is also invited to view the facilities Sunday, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

THERAPY EQUIPMENT

Included in the equipment for therapy are walking and exercise bars, a steam bath, paraffin treatment tub and three treatment areas.

Two exercise bicycles, a theraphy table and massages are also available at the center.

Therapy will be given to stroke patients, as well as victimes of cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis and paralysis.

★ ★ ★

Breakie pointed out that only those with prescriptions will be served. However, he said prescriptions could be obtained for sore muscles and other minor ailments.

SMOKING CLINIC

Starting Jan. 26, a five-day smoking clinic will be offered for those desiring to break the smoking habit. More information about the program can be obtained at the clinic.

Utica to Vote on Saturday

UTICA — Polling places throughout the Utica Community School District will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. tomorrow, when a $7.5-million bond issue and 4-mill tax levy will be decided.

All property owners in the district who registered prior to Dec. 19 are eligible to vote on both proposals. Registered nonproperty owners can vote on the millage issue.

Tomorrow's balloting will end an intensive campaign waged by the district's Citizen's Advisory Committee to pass the two issues.

★ ★ ★

The four mills would be used for operational costs, and the bond issue, if approved, would pay for school expansion including 70 new elementary classrooms and a new high school.

Governor Heads Committee on Manpower Development

LANSING (AP) — A 13-man committee, headed by Gov. George Romney, will oversee state and private efforts in vocational training and manpower development.

Romney announced creation of the committee Thursday, and said he will serve as chairman. The committee replaces the six-man Michigan State Manpower Development Committee formed in 1962.

He said it will encourage "closer working relationships" between various state agencies involved in manpower development and job training.

The new committee also will attempt to coordinate efforts of local committees which advise the state and federal government on spending of funds for training and development programs.

GIVE OPPORTUNITY

"Those who form the hard core of our unemployment and welfare problems must be given every opportunity to acquire job skills," said the governor, adding:

"This committee will give us the means to weld private, local state and federal programs into a coordinated attack on this vital social program."

Others on the committee include:

★ ★ ★

Dr. Lynn Bartlett, superintendent of public instruction; Bernard Conboy, executive director of economic expansion; UAW Vice President Douglas Fraser; Welfare Director Bernard Houston; Damon Keith, co-chairman of the civil rights commission.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Charles Killingsworth, professor of labor and industrial relations at Michigan State University; Malcom Lovell, chairman of the state labor mediation board; Anson Lovellette, chairman of the Michigan Welfare League.

OTHER MEMBERS

Sam Rabinovitz, executive secretary of the Michigan Youth Commission; Noel P. Ralston, assistant dean of agriculture at MSU and director of MSU cooperation extension service; Thomas Roumell, director of the Michigan Employment Security Commission, and Robert Winger, assistant superintendent of public instruction for vocational education.

Group Wants Education, Highway Posts Elective

LANSING (AP) —An official group of lawmakers working toward changing Michigan's new constitution today asked for draft amendments to keep the top highway and education jobs elective.

After conferring with Highway Commissioner John Mackie yesterday, the group headed by Reps. Gail Handy, R - Eau Claire, and E. D. O'Brien, D-Detroit decided to put the Legislative Service Bureau to work on the new proposals.

The posts held by Mackie and Dr. Lynn Bartlett, superintendent of public instuction, will be filled by appointment when their terms run out, under terms of the constitution.

But the 24-lawmaker group which took shape late last year wants to have the jobs reinstated as elective April 28 in a statewide election.

ALL ARTICLES

The group hopes to see all 12 articles of the new basic law changed.

The group earlier announced it had under consideration amendment proposals to:

- Keep legislative districts unchanged until 1965 authorizing the reapportionment commission to extend its deadline.
- Reinstate spring elections for township officers, and maintain the two-year terms for county officers until 1966.
- Eliminate all reference to income taxation, a move which could open the door to a graduated tax, prohibited in the new constitution.

TROY — All residents of the city have been invited to enroll in a civil defense first aid course beginning at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at Baker Junior High School.

★ ★ ★

Two hours of instruction will be offered each Wednesday, for eight weeks. A Red Cross first aid certificate will be awarded those completing the course.

Civil defense volunteer firemen and members of the police department are especially urged to take the course, which is sponsored by the city.

Pancakes in Davisburg

DAVISBURG—The local Jaycees will stage a 5:30-7:30 p.m. pancake supper tomorrow at the Davisburg Town Hall.

2 Elected by Cattle Association

Two beef cattle producers feeding a total of 750 head annually have been elected officers of the Michigan Cattle Feeders Association for 1964.

Serving as president is Matt Englar of Mount Pleasant. Englar, who is also president of the Isabella County Livestock Producers Council, feeds 500 feeder cattle annually.

The new vice president is Loren Spink of Mason, who is also serving as president of the Ingham County Beef Producers Association.

★ ★ ★

Spink, who feeds 250 head of cattle each year, is the association representative to the Michigan Livestock Council.

★ ★ ★

Retiring as president of the organization is William K. Brown of Tecumseh in Lenawee county. The retiring vice president is F. Warner Law of Freeland in Saginaw county.

Cemetery Association Has New Officers

New officers of the Oakland Area Cemetery Association will be headed this year by President Jack Parker, manager of Lakeview Cemetery, Clarkston.

★ ★ ★

Other cemetery managers recently installed in their posts are vice president Bernice Arcand, Mount Hope Cemetery, Pontiac, and secretary-treasurer Carl Anthony, Grandlawn Cemetery, Detroit.

Series Set in Rochester on Mission

ROCHESTER — This Sunday will mark the first of three during which the work of St. Paul's Methodist Church's missionaries in India will be explained.

Dr. Bruce Kresge, chairman of St. Paul's commission on missions, will present Sunday's program. Dr. Kresge will describe the duties of Mr and Mrs. George Somers, St. Paul's missionaries in Pakur, India.

The Somers have sent pictures and a description of their trip into India, which Dr. Kresge will use in his presentation, beginning at 6:30 p.m. in the church parlors.

On the following Sunday, Edwin Conners, missions commission member, will continue the topic. The series will be brought to a close a week later when Dr. John Tennant a Methodist minister in the Michigan conference is guest speaker.

OFFER TALK

Dr. and Mrs. Tennant visited the Somers in India and will offer a talk on his experiences with the missionaries.

During the three-week series, classes will be provided for grade schools students and the nursery and activity rooms will be open for preschool children.

Nursery Dads to Paint School Furniture, Toys

ORCHARD LAKE — Fathers of children attending Lakeland Nursery are going to get together Monday and Tuesday nights to paint and repair toys and furniture for the school.

The workshop for the cooperative nursery will be held each night at 8 in the basement of the John E. Quirk home at 4993 Elm Gate.

Candidates in Troy Must File by Monday

TROY — Candidates for the two three-year terms on the City Commission here have until 4 p.m. Monday to file petitions.

Commissioner Robert Bargert has said he is not going to run for re-election, while Commissioner James Carey, whose term also expires, is expected to file petitions today.

Clarkston Area Banquet

Jaycees Choose Speaker

CLARKSTON — Daniel T. Murphy, chairman of the Oakland County Board of Auditors, will speak at Wednesday's second annual Clarkston Area Junior Chamber of Commerce Bosses' Night Banquet.

Keith Hallman will be toastmaster for the 7:30 p.m. program at the Community Activities Inc. building in Waterford Township.

Highlight of the evening will be the selection of the Young Man of the Year and Boss of the Year award winners.

★ ★ ★

Bob Jones is chairman of the committee judging the young man competition. Other committee members are Bob Wertman, Glen Ellerthorpe, Rev. Alexander Stewart and Hallman.

CONTEST JUDGES

Judging the bosses contest will be a committee comprised of chairman Duane West and Lew Wint and Roger Olney.

Representatives of both the village and township government will be guests of the Jaycees at the banquet.

Pontiac Citizenry Must Act to Gain Sound Leadership

Pontiac voters and the Junior Chamber of Commerce cooperated well to amend the way we elect city commissioners, but all this work could prove worthless.

★ ★ ★

The deadline for filing petitions to get on the primary ballot is Feb. 11. Without well-qualified candidates in each district, the great voter turnout and the hard-hitting Jaycee campaign were wasted time. Only three weeks remain for some important decisions to be made. Those who are dissatisfied with the existing City Commission must face this reality:

There is more to city government than complaining about it.

★ ★ ★

Finally, the time to do something about our present City Commission majority is at hand.

It takes candidates who are willing to serve the public by lending municipal government their talents and personal convictions.

It's not a simple job.

Pontiac is in a difficult time and its problems are many and complex. They're time-consuming. Commissioners catch a lot of complaints and very few compliments.

★ ★ ★

Yet the need for sound leadership has never been greater. Pontiac has stumbled through two years of civic upheaval with Commissioners Robert Landry, Loy Ledford, Dick Kirby, Milton Henry, and Winford Bottom at the helm. If the dissatisfaction which rose to a high pitch in the firing of City Manager Robert A. Stierer and interference with the police department still exists, now is the time to do something about it.

★ ★ ★

Remember, even with the charter change recently approved, commission candidates are still nominated only in individual districts.

Good government begins with sound, qualified candidates, and these must be introduced in the primary election.

State Provisions Clash With Rail Board Edict

The variety of "full crew" laws that 16 states have on their books further complicates the railroad management - labor hassle over featherbedding, now back in the courts after two brotherhoods refused to accept the findings of a Federal arbitration board.

Seven others have empowered their public utility commissions to fix crew standards, and the commissions in three have done so. Michigan is one of the three.

Thus, were agreement reached on the national board's ruling that the railroads may eliminate up to 90 per cent of the 40,000 firemen (called unnecessary by the railroads) employed on diesel locomotives, the state regulations, unless nullified, would seriously hamper national implementation of the decision.

★ ★ ★

Currently, New York's "full crew" laws are being eyed critically by GOV. NELSON ROCKEFELLER. Enacted in 1913, efforts toward their repeal have been regularly made. In 1961 ROCKEFELLER made a token appeal for "adjustment" (not repeal) of the statutes, but dropped it in the face of opposition by the railroad brotherhoods.

Now, however, the Governor is prepared to fight for outright repeal of the laws. In his annual message to the legislature, Jan. 8, he argued that the national changes resulting from the government-imposed arbitration could not be introduced in New York State unless the "full crew" laws are immediately removed from the statute books.

★ ★ ★

Since the rail transportation system of the U. S. is undeniably a continentwide utility, we think the other states whose railroad regulations would dilute agreements reached on a national level might well fall in with the move under way in the Empire State.

Baker Situation Harasses Senate

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON — The U. S. Senate called the world's most exclusive club, is still very choosy, as the Bobby Baker case and other events show.

MARLOW

Congress has taken various steps to prevent conflict of interest among employes of the executive branch of government. Conflict of interest can be described as mixing a government job with personal gain.

Congress has not only passed a law against conflict of interest among executive branch employes, but subsequently tightened and broadened it.

★ ★ ★

Congressional committees require men appointed by the president to his Cabinet to get rid of stock they hold in companies dealing with the government.

DOESN'T APPLY

None of this applies to members of Congress or employes of Congress.

Various liberal senators have proposed legislation — which Congress has consistently ignored — for Congress to establish a code of ethics for itself and its employes on conflict of interest.

There were more such demands, also ignored, when the Robert G. Baker case broke, although not through disclosure in Congress.

★ ★ ★

Baker, who had been secretary of the Democratic majority in the Senate for years, quit his job Oct. 7 when, as it became clear, he had wide-ranging financial interests and deals while working for the Senate.

INVESTIGATION

The Senate finally authorized its Rules Committee to investigate to see whether Baker's outside activities had conflicted with his official duties.

It went further:

It authorized the investigation into the financial or business interests or activities of any officer or employe of the Senate, if the Baker investigation made that necessary.

The Senate stopped there. It didn't authorize the committee to investigate any senator who might have been involved with Baker.

★ ★ ★

A number of liberal senators had previously demanded that members of the Senate itself be required to list publicly their assets and income. This was neatly ignored.

Nevertheless, Sen. B. Everett Jordan, North Carolina Democrat and chairman of the Rules Committee's investigation of Baker, said two months ago that any leads uncovered would be followed up regardless of who was involved.

★ ★ ★

This week, a witness said Sen. George Smathers, Florida Democrat, was in with Baker in a land deal in Florida.

Would Smathers now be called to testify before Jordan's committee? Jordan said: "We don't need him—we're not investigating senators."

This raises a question: Is the Senate interested in a thorough investigation of the Baker case?

You Can't Say There Isn't A Difference

David Lawrence Says:

Much Involved in Canal Dispute

WASHINGTON—It may seem easy to conclude that the dispute between the United States and the Republic of Panama is merely a case of excessive emotionalism about flying national flags — but the controversy goes deeper.

LAWRENCE

The basic cause is a feeling of discouragement among Panamanians who see no economic future for themselves except as it is related to potential income from the use of the Canal.

The people of Panama originally leased their territory for an interoceanic Canal. The United States built the waterway and has been collecting tolls from the ships of all nations.

But Panama gets less than $2 million a year rent. It used to be only $250,000.

Surely in the 50 years since the Canal has been operating, it would seem that the United States could afford to increase considerably more its annual payment, especially in these days of foreign aid to many countries which do not furnish any facility to the United States as useful as the Panama Canal has been, including its military value in World War I and World War II.

There are economic improvements which can be made after proper negotiation. But since there's an election campaign going on inside Panama, it is customary for national sensitiveness to be expressed in the political arena.

ONLY U.S. FLAG

For many years, only the American flag was flown inside the Canal Zone — which is leased permanently to the United States.

Then the demand was made that the Panamanian flag should also be flown, and in January 1963, it was agreed that the Panamanian flag would fly side by side wherever the U.S. flag was flown by civilian authorities in the Zone.

In the first week of this year, the U.S. flag was hauled down from a number of sites, which had not been designated for the joint flying of the two flags. For some strange reason, no explanation of this order — that no flag be flown—was made to the Zone residents. The whole squabble was mishandled.

★ ★ ★

It was inevitable that there would be disturbances about the flying of the flags. What was surprising, however, was the action of the Panamanian president in ordering diplomatic relations severed.

AN OPPORTUNITY

This gave an opportunity to the Castro agents, Communists and other disturbers of the peace to capitalize on the disorders and bring about an international furor.

Skillful handling by diplomats could have averted the whole mix-up and could have produced a statement from which both countries could derive some satisfaction.

It is obvious that what is involved is not merely relations with Panama but the impact as well on other Central and South American countries, particularly since there is always a tendency in Latin countries to raise the cry of "Yankee imperialism."

★ ★ ★

The Panama Canal itself is slowly growing obsolete. It cannot take care of bigger-sized ships. Another canal may have to be built across Nicaragua, perhaps within the next six years.

So Panama would do well to watch its step and exercise self-control.

If ever there was an international controversy that called for patience and self-restraint as well as generous impulses on both sides, it is the dispute that has arisen between Panama and the United States.

Bob Considine Says:

New York, New York, It's a Wonderful Town

NEW YORK — "This is a great town," the cab driver said as we slid into a curb concealed beneath one of the worst snow storms ever seen outside of Labrador.

CONSIDINE

"You can say that again," we agreed heartily, after getting off the floor, which resembled the bottom of a dinosaur cage that had not been attended to since the death of the curator in 1912.

"I married an upstate New York girl," he said, skidding out of the path of a bus and missing it by inches. "I said to myself, 'This is for me. Nice quiet life in upstate New York.' In two years I was back in town, to keep from going nuts."

"What happened in upstate New York," I asked.

"Snowed all the time," he said as we shot through a red light. The storm had clobbered his windshield wipers and we were flying on instruments. Or would have been if the hack had instruments.

WE MEANT IT

The remarkable aspect of this matchless exchange is that we meant it. New York is a great town to live in. I'd just hate to visit here.

New York takes its greatness in stride. As Athens and Rome must have in ancient times. It never raises its voice to proclaim that greatness. It just assumes everybody knows.

Formal efforts to plug it arouse only embarrassment, as in the case of some preposterous promotion called New York is a Summer Festival. Who needs a festival in a town where it's always New Year's Eve?

Snobbery has nothing to do with the love New Yorkers have for New York. The feeling is simply one of acceptance. Nobody willingly packs up and leaves for keeps. Where is there to go?

One night at Shor's joint Tom Coleman was sawing away at a thick sirloin and extolling the kind of steaks he eats in Madison, Wisconsin.

The famed Republican leader said, as he chawed away contentedly, "This is a good piece of meat, Toots. But in Madison, Wisconsin, we have steaks that are better than any steaks you ever saw here.

"Drop a butter knife on one of our steaks and you slice right through. When you eat a steak in Madison, Wisconsin, you go to bed that night content that you've eaten the greatest steak in the world."

★ ★ ★

Toots was puzzled.

"But when you wake up in the morning you're still in Madison, Wisconsin," he said.

Voice of the People:

Former Pontiac Resident Sends Praise From West

Inasmuch as I moved from Pontiac eleven years ago it had been a long time since I had read The Pontiac Press. My father, Carl Bushfield, is having it mailed to him while he spends the winter here and he passes the copies along to me.

★ ★ ★

I had forgotten what an excellent paper you produce! It is no wonder you have received so many awards. The detailed coverage of local, national and world events is superb. Keep up the good work.

Joshua Tree, Calif. — Rev. Donald C. Bushfield

'Should Be Proud of City Firefighters'

Pontiac citizens should be proud of the best understaffed fire department in Michigan. Proud of all the men who saved 40 people from almost certain death at the Parkside Apartment fire, and proud of the two men riding on the big ladder truck—the truck that is supposed to carry a crew of ten. Did this stop those two from pushing themselves to near exhaustion while saving an estimated 15 lives? No, because they knew their comrades were equally understaffed, and they are professional firefighters.

★ ★ ★

Some of these men had been on duty since 11 p.m., Saturday, Jan. 11, when they were called to fight a fire at the American Forging and Socket building. These are the same men Commissioner Taylor suggested be used to sprinkle the ice skating ponds. How many lives could have been lost had some of those men and their equipment been busy sprinkling skating ponds? Are you proud of these men whom you claim are "sitting around most of the time"? I have never been prouder to proclaim that I am a professional firefighter and a member of the Pontiac Fire Department.

★ ★ ★

As professional firefighters we deserve to be paid and treated like others who excel in their profession. We ask nothing that is not within reason or morally sound. Ask yourself if you had been on that fateful third floor, wouldn't you have wanted the best?

Ray L. Underwood
Firefighter, Station No. 3

Writers Voice Faith in Commissioner

I was shocked to hear Mr. Henry say that an affirmative vote for the amendment was a vote against him because of his race. I have not always agreed with Mr. Henry, but I have admired his support of his own district and his honesty in campaigning. I feel he understands his district's needs better than I. He is far too intelligent to believe that the serious citizen would be influenced by a man's race, nationality or religion. There are other members of the commission that I would consistently oppose because they have served neither the best interests of their own district nor of Pontiac. The vote indicates that many other people agree.

Conscientious Voter

I thank District 1 for the vote of unity. Unity has been something that we are not supposed to have but this has been disproved. Mr. Henry didn't make the election a racial issue; this was done for him. The Press clearly indicated in its editorial who was to be gotten rid of.

★ ★ ★

The garbage collection complaint registered by the woman on Ardmore Street prompted me to write. Mr. Henry does not have anything going into his pocket as the result of garbage not being collected. Knowing him as I do, I can say he is a generous person and due to this, God has blessed him, and it isn't necessary for him to stoop to this. I admire him for standing on his own convictions and because he is Milton R. Henry.

Limit Limousines

The Portland Oregonian

In line with his pledge to whittle federal spending, President Johnson has decreed that lesser cabinet functionaries and ordinary Pentagon generals and admirals henceforth shall ride in medium-priced sedans rather than elegant limousines.

Presently there are 131 of these big, black cars rolling around Washington, bearing prestige-conscious brass and bureaucrats on their missions. The number is to be cut to a mere 20.

Of course, in a federal budget counted in the dozens of billions, the saving of a few hundred thousand dollars on automobiles will have little more real effect than a teaspoonful of sand on the Sahara.

★ ★ ★

But the psychological impact should be good, both on government officials and the taxpayers they are hired to serve. The public may have a little more confidence in the integrity of its federal government if it sees fewer civil servants traveling about like maharajahs in chauffeured Cadillacs.

And perhaps government employes may have a better understanding of the needs and wishes of the taxpayers, most of whom also are required by the limitations of their personal budgets to ride in austere conveyances.

Castro's Visit

The Edinburgh Scotsman

Fidel Castro, the beatnik of the Eastern bloc, signifies a kind of self-conscious posing as a cane field revolutionary among the stiff-collared Russians. But behind the ostentatiously casual visit, Castro in fact cuts security risks to the minimum by surprising even his own people.

★ ★ ★

Suspicious Americans might wish to connect the visit with Panama. Panama, however, amply explains itself; and if Castro had elaborate plans to exploit the situation, he would not leave home now. The two Communists will of course discuss Panama, but as part of a much larger question — the question of Cuba's role in Latin America, for Cuba is the Communist bridgehead, and whether the campaign follows Russian or Chinese lines will depend simply on who pulls most weight with Cuba.

More Than Sport

The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin

The big game hunting season in Pennsylvania is far more than sport. In many sections it is an economic factor of prime importance.

★ ★ ★

During the open season on deer it is estimated that in Tioga and Potter counties 30,000 hunters were quartered in camps, motels, and hotels. Within a 10-mile space across two mountains, 150 cars of hunters were counted one day parked by the roadside.

Time was when these areas were compelled to depend on a mild influx of visitors for a short time each year. But that has changed. Fishermen pour in during April, campers and short time tourists flock into the region during the summer, and thousands take their vacations in the wilds during the bear and deer seasons.

★ ★ ★

Then there is winter skiing. Remote areas are no longer so remote, or so dependent on what they may be able to scrape from the soil or woods. Visitors — tourists, fishermen, hunters, skiers, vacationists— are now a major economic enterprise.

Booming Economy Hardly Puts Dent in County Relief Costs

By DICK HANSON

A continued rise in the economy last year failed to provide any substantial reduction in Oakland County's welfare relief costs from the previous year.

A minimal decrease of $74,000 was revealed today by county auditors as they prepared to close the books on 1963.

Last year, the county spent slightly over $1.57 million on general relief. The cost in 1962 was $1,644,413. The drop was less than 5 per cent.

★ ★ ★

This occurred despite the fact that the number of families totally dependent on relief decreased by nearly half over a 23-month period.

CASE LOAD DROP

This case load was 1,624 in January 1962, compared with 828 in November 1963.

But the number of families or persons receiving supplemental relief increased steadily over the same 23-month period, from a monthly average of 964 cases in 1962 to 1,116 last year.

The average monthly number of totally dependent cases last year was 1,002. In 1962 the average was 1,226 such cases.

★ ★ ★

The growing number of supplemental relief cases includes those families whose income doesn't meet basic needs and old-age cases. Many of the latter are in nursing homes.

And the county can expect to get more and more old age care cases, according to Welfare Director George Williams.

People are living longer but they usually aren't able to support themselves any longer, he noted.

Larger payments for the other cases also resulted from increased medical and utilities costs as well as a general rise in the cost of living, Williams said.

★ ★ ★

In utilites alone, he noted that water and sewage rates in Pontiac about tripled last year.

UTILITY BILLS

"Utility bills are among the first we pick up in supplementing low-income families," he said, "and of course we must pay these costs for total dependency cases."

The food allotments for total dependency cases have remained unchanged since 1958 despite inflation, Williams added, although they have been supplemented since by surplus foods from the federal government.

However, the amount of surplus foods available to the county has dropped, and families received less in 1963.

The value of surplus food distributed to relief cases in the county last year dropped $132,350 from 1962, said the director, estimating last year's value at $1.3 million.

SURPLUS FOOD

If the surplus food continues to decrease, the county probably will have to pay more to feed relief families in years ahead.

Also, nursing homes are clamoring for higher rates, pointing to higher operating costs, said Williams. He noted that these rates have remained the same for the past 14 years.

The county now pays about $273,000 annually for some 450 nursing home patients, according to Williams. He said it would cost the county an additional $170,000 to meet nursing home demands.

★ ★ ★

He said he doesn't expect the nursing homes will get such a large increase, but indications are that they will have to receive more than they are getting now from the county.

GENERAL RELIEF

Last year the county spent slightly more than $1.57 million on general relief, where $1.9 million had been budgeted.

Of the difference, $175,000 was used to make up a budget deficiency for welfare hospitalization costs (separate from general relief costs).

The remainder was applied to meet the overall county budget where it fell short in other areas, the auditors said.

★ ★ ★

They ennumerated the major areas and shortages as: Circuit Court costs, $42,000; building operations, $44,000; telephone exchange costs, $21,000; and overestimated receipts, $27,000.

Flair for Luxury

Edsel Can't Resist Cars

DETROIT (AP) — A 16-year-old Detroiter with a flair for luxury won't be rolling in his favorite car — a Cadillac — on his next ride.

He was convicted last October of stealing a Cadillac.

Released after two months in the Detroit House of Correction, he was arrested on a charge of taking another Cadillac.

★ ★ ★

He appeared in court yesterday, where he was released on $300 bond and had his probation continued .

ANOTHER CAR

Across the street from the court stood a Cadillac. The youth was arrested a short time later driving the car — in Detroit's Cadillac Square, police said.

★ ★ ★

The youth is now going to pay on a court-imposed installment plan — 18 months to five years in prison.

His name: Edsel V. Heslip.

Exeter Treasurer Found Innocent

MONROE (AP) — A circuit court jury has acquitted Charles B. Liedel, suspended Exeter Township treasurer, of a charge of embezzling $3,649 in township funds.

A jury of nine women and three men deliberated five hours Thursday before acquitting Leidel, who has held the post since 1947.

Liedel, 45, was charged with taking the money between Dec. 1, 1962 and April 29, 1963, after a state audit uncovered a $27,941 shortage.

Deaths in Pontiac Area

CLARENCE L. NICHOLS

Clarence L. Nichols, 54, of Tucson, Ariz., a former Pontiac resident, died early this morning after an illness of several months.

His body is at the Arizona Funeral Home in Tucson.

Mr. Nichols, a former employe of Pontiac Motor Division, leaves his wife, Bulah; three sisters, Mrs. Matilda Waters of Pontiac, Mrs. Zelba Smithling of Lake Orion and Mrs. Vonna Griswold of North Branch.

Also surviving are two brothers, Henry and Leslie, both of Pontiac.

MRS. ROLAND A. HAMMER

WALLED LAKE—Service for Mrs. Roland (Lois M.) Hammer, 59, of 1132 Lakeview will be 1 p.m. Monday at the Shepherd of the Lakes Evangelical Lutheran Church. Burial will follow in Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens, Novi.

Mrs. Hammer died yesterday after an illness of six months.

Her body will be at the Richardson-Bird Funeral Home after 1 p.m. tomorrow.

Mrs. Hammer was a member of Rebekah Lodge No. 482, Novi; the Lady Lake Dwellers Club; Walled Lake Civic Club and the Minneapolis Joppa Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

Surviving besides her husband are three daughters, Mrs. Raymond Gingras of Temperance, Mrs. Jere Carlson of Walled Lake and Mrs. Richard Pews of Utica; a son, Thomas of Walled Lake; a brother; and seven grandchildren.

MABLE PALMER

MILFORD—Service for former resident Miss Mable Palmer of Lansing will be 2:30 p.m. Sunday at the Richardson-Bird Funeral Home. Burial will follow in Oak Grove Cemetery.

Miss Palmer, a retired school teacher, died yesterday after an illness of several years.

Surviving are a sister and two brothers.

Dem Urges Bipartisan Program

Oakland County Democratic Deputy Chairman James M. McNeely last night proposed a bipartisan attack on the problem of fully informing voters on political issues and candidates.

Speaking before some 150 Oakland County members of the Michigan Education Association in Southfield, McNeely called upon Republicans here to "to join with us now to discuss . . . methods . . . of increasing participation of the electorate in the political process."

A former teacher in the Farmington school system, McNeely offered two suggestions, both requiring the cooperation of professional associations, service clubs, veterans organizations, church social clubs, PTA's and other voluntary associations.

One proposal was speaking appearances by opposing candidates from each party. The other was mailings to organigation and club members of statements by Democratic and Republican candidates.

"These organizations generally frown on programs of a partisan political nature," McNeely said.

BOTH SIDES

"However, it has been my experience that most of these groups welcome opportunities where both sides of a political issue can be presented."

Lake Orion Woman Is Injured in Crash

Rita Duncan, 21, of 349 Beach, Lake Orion, is in satisfactory condition at Pontiac General Hospital with injuries suffered when her car went off the road in Orion Township yesterday.

Miss Duncan told sheriff's deputies that her car hit an icy spot on Baldwin south of Clarkston Road, causing her to lose control of the car.

The accident occurred at 10 a.m. as the car was rounding a curve on Baldwin.

Clark Station Robbed Again

An armed bandit wearing a blue handkerchief as a mask robbed the Clark Oil service station, 420 S. Saginaw, of approximately $33 at 2:55 a.m. today.

The station has been robbed 10 times in the last year.

Francis McCracken, the station attendant, told police that the bandit appeared outside the station window, pointed a gun at him and motioned for McCracken to step outside.

★ ★ ★

"Give me all that you got," McCracken quoted the man with the gun as saying.

After handing over the money, McCracken said, the bandit fled on foot through back yards of houses on Saginaw.

Sets Taken in Burglary

Several radios and television sets valued at $830.95 were reported stolen early today in a break-in at the Walton TV Shop, 515 E. Walton.

The break-in was discovered at 1:44 a. m. by police patroling the area.

Entry was gained by breaking the glass in the front door. Exit was made through the rear door.

Soviets Jail Hooligans of the Airwaves

MOSCOW (AP)—Five Soviet youths have been sent to prison for going on the air with an illegal radio station which broadcast animal noises and obscene words, the newspaper Sovetskaya Rossiya reported today.

★ ★ ★

It said the "radio hooligans" operated in Ivanovo, 150 miles northeast of Moscow.

OBSCENE SHOUTS

"As soon as the night started," the paper said, "impossible sounds filled the air waves—cats meowing, horses neighing, obscene shouts and obscene words." The youths got sentences ranging up to four years.

See Mammal for 1st Time in 125 Years

WALVIS BAY, South West Africa (AP) — A mammal not seen by man for 125 years has been found in high sand dunes near a new Namib Desert research station at Gobabeb, 70 miles out in the desert from here.

Two golden moles (eremitalpa granti namibensis) were found after a violent sandstorm had subsided.

A nocturnal animal, found only in the shifting sands of the Namib Desert, this mammal rarely ventures above the sand.

★ ★ ★

It is about two inches long. Its eyes and ears are completely degenerated, showing no openings through the skin.

NO VEGETARIAN

Unlike the ordinary rodent mole, the golden mole is not a vegetarian but lives off insects and small reptiles found in the sand.

★ ★ ★

One of the two rare specimens was injured while it was being dug out of the sand and died later.

★ ★ ★

Proprietor Pays for Broken Toe

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP)—For suffering a broken toe in a cafe, Mrs. Grace M. Welcome won an award of $1,250 from a jury.

The jury threw in $45 additional for medical expenses.

Mrs. Welcome testified she was an innocent by-sitter when two men in another booth became embroiled in an argument.

★ ★ ★

During a scuffle, while one of the quarrelsome patrons was being ejected, she said, she was knocked down and one toe broken.

★ ★ ★

This Operator Knows Flowers

LOUISVILLE (AP) — Returning home from Cumberland Falls, Mrs. John D. Stengel noticed a spectacular display of big red flowers, like poppies, in a farmer's yard.

Mrs. Stengel, president of a local garden club, decided to find out what they were.

Her call had to go through Lexington but there was a delay in completing the connection.

While waiting she mentioned the nature of the call to the operator who volunteered this information:

"Forget it. The flowers are artificial."

WINCHESTER, Ky. (AP) — Don't mention combination locks around Letcher Norton.

The principal at George Rogers High School sorted out the combinations to 1,238 students lockers, placed the proper combination on notes inside each locker and left the doors open.

When the pupils arrived at school, they walked too close to the lockers. The doors slammed shut.

Out came Norton with a master list and opened all the lockers once more.

Auto, Train Collide; Man in Hospital

A motorist whose car was struck by a Grand Trunk Railroad engine yesterday in West Bloomfield Township is in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital with chest injuries.

Derek Delacourt, 18, of 4966 Lockhart, West Bloomfield Township, was driving west on Airline over the tracks when his car and the westbound engine collided at 9:15 a.m.

William Bradley, 68, of 67 Ellwood, the engine driver, told sheriff's deputies that the motorist made no attempt to stop.

★ ★ ★

Bradley said the engine lights and red flasher were on and that he also blew the horn. Bradley said the engine's speed was 30 miles per hour.

Delacourt was unable to make a statement to sheriff's deputies at the scene due to injuries.

Walled Lake Man Is Injured in Crash

Donald Pelkey, 37, of 555 Walled Lake Court, Walled Lake, is in satisfactory condition at Pontiac General Hospital with injuries suffered when his car hit a tree last night in Farmington Township.

House Sets Changes on Official Seal

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House of Representatives is about to remove the Star of David from its official seal and take cognizance of the statehood of Alaska and Hawaii.

A resolution passed without opposition last Dec. 18 called for an outlay of about $700 to cut the die for a new Great Seal and procure a new mechanical gadget to impress the seal on official House papers and documents.

The old seal, the House Administration Committee pointed out, has been in continuous use since 1912, when it was cut after the admission of Arizona as the 48th state. Around its edge are 48 stars—one for each state—and all are of the six-pointed variety known as the Star of David. The resolution that provided for the old seal said the stars should have six points.

50 STARS

The new seal will have 50 stars, the two extra ones being for Alaska and Hawaii. While the resolution didn't say how many points the stars shall have, they will have five points.

There will be another change.

The old seal bore a view of the Capitol as it looked in 1830 when it was far from finished.

The new view will show the Capitol as it now looks, with its extended east front. It also will show the statue of Freedom which tops the Capitol dome but wasn't there in 1830.

Party to Bid Farewell to Bob Stierer

Friends and associates of former City Manager Robert A. Stierer will get an opportunity to bid him farewell at a party being held in his honor Jan. 25.

The event will be at the Pontiac City Club from 4 to 6 p.m. Tickets are now on sale for $10 each at the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce office in the Riker Building.

The price will include a gift for Stierer and his family.

★ ★ ★

Stierer took over duties as city manager of Troy, N.Y., Jan. 1. His family plans to move there at the end of the month.

Welfare Policy Becomes Hot Campaign Issue

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP)—The conflict between Sen. Barry Goldwater and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller over public welfare policy was more sharply defined today.

★ ★ ★

Rockefeller said repeatedly during a campaign tour in New Hampshire Thursday that racial discrimination in education and employment was a major cause of welfare cases.

The New York governor said the Arizona senator was "a Southern leader" who did not understand that.

Rockefeller and Goldwater are opponents for the Republican presidential nomination and are competing in the New Hampshire presidential primary, the first in the nation, to be held March 10.

WELFARE PROBE

Wednesday night, Goldwater called for a government investigation of whether "the attitude or the action" of relief recipients was a reason for their dependence on the taxpayers. He said there always would be a poverty class and "the mere fact of having little money" should not entitle anyone to be maintained permanently by the government.

★ ★ ★

Rockefeller moved across southern New Hampshire in a 12-hour tour in which he:

Engaged in a spirited, impromptu debate with Jon Pate, 22, a sophomore at Keene State College, who argued that Rockefeller believed in advancing the welfare state. Rockefeller countered there was "a difference between socialism and human concern," but Pate quipped that "you are a Robin Hood in a grey flannel suit."

Pumped thousands of hands, signed hundreds of autographs and ran briefly alongside a moving school bus to grasp the hands of some riders.

Autographed with a smile but no comment a copy of Goldwater's book, "Conscience of a Conservative," which was proffered by Maryel Chabot, 17. She explained later that she had acted for a friend and "I didn't know what I was doing."

Denied he had distorted Goldwater's positions on major issues, as charged by the senator, and said Goldwater "doesn't remember what he has said."

★ ★ ★

Opened a campaign headquarters in Manchester, then returned to New York City.

The governor's most detailed explanation of his views came in his 20-minute discussion with Pate at a crowded reception in a Keene restaurant.

QUESTIONS ROCKY

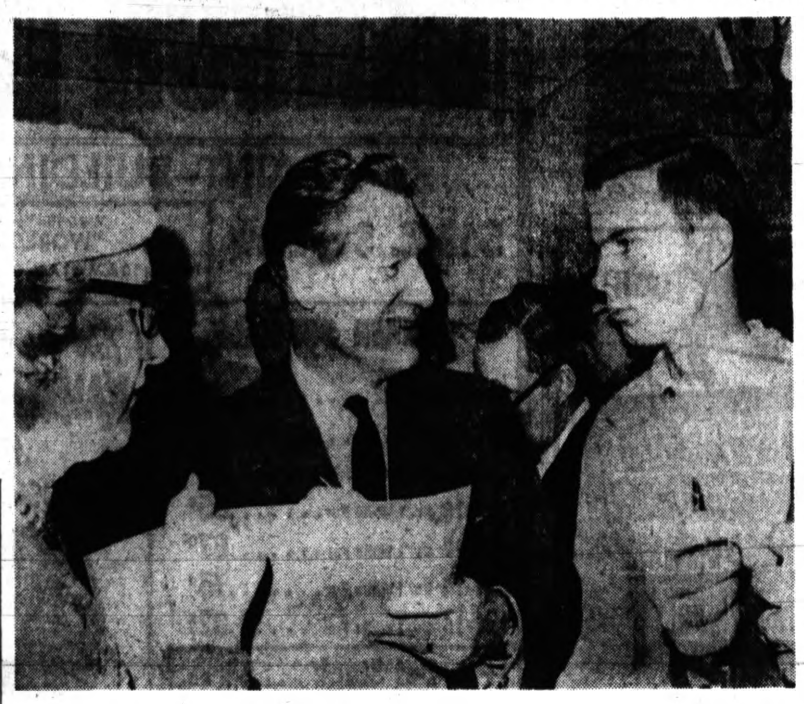

Pate greeted Rockefeller with the question: "Do you believe in the welfare state?".

Rockefeller said he believed in the free enterprise system and individual initiative but also saw it as a duty of government to "put a floor under those unfortunate individuals who have not been able to become self-supporting" because of illness, unemployment or other unavoidable circumstances.

★ ★ ★

"You get cheats and freeloaders in all aspects of life, whether it's in business or the law or in the professions or on relief rolls," Rockefeller said.

But, he said, "the vast majority of Americans want to be self-respecting, self-supporting individuals who can do what is required for themselves and their families."

One Hazard for Another

Stop Smoking? Creates New Dangers

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Everywhere you go these days you hear people talking about quitting smoking. Which probably does them a lot of good.

As long as their breath is outbound, they can't very well inhale.

I believe the record will show, however, that the ratio of people who talk about quitting to those who actually do quit is roughly 49,280,-521 to 13½. The ½ is y'r h'mbl' c'rr'sp'nd'nt.

I quit smoking about 18 months ago, but technically I do not represent a complete abstainer because I have not entirely given up tobacco.

Instead of smoking tobacco I now bite it. There is a reason for this.

EATING MORE

People who stop smoking almost invariably find themselves eating a lot more. And the papers these days are filled with warnings about the dangers of over-eating.

In effect, then, they are only trading one suspected health hazard for another. In order to realize any gain from the transaction, they must also find a way to lose weight.

The most effective method of keeping one's weight down is exercise. Which brings up the danger of over-exertion.

FEW CIGARS

I try to avoid these secondary risks by carrying around a few cigars in my pocket.

At such times as I might ordinarily reach for a sweet, or start doing knee bends, which are the usual substitutes for smoking, I bite the end off of a cigar.

Since I became a tobacco biter, I have lost several pounds. Also several friends. You would be surprised at how intolerant some people are.

★ ★ ★

For smokers who would like to kick the habit but are unable to adjust to tobacco biting, I would recommend a method discovered by Bob Cross, a local orchestra leader.

TUBA LESSONS

At the age of 11, Cross began taking tuba lessons. One day, while his mother was out of the house, he tried to practice on the tuba and smoke a cigar at the same time.

The idea was to see if he could fill the tuba with smoke. After he recovered, he never smoked again.

I can't guarantee that the Cross method will always work, however. Some people who try it might swear off the tuba instead.

★ ★ ★

Or they might continue to do both. The music wouldn't be much, but dig that crazy filter!

Citizens Committee Probes School Tax Problem

By L. GARY THORNE

How much school tax, for how long?

That was the question probed Wednesday night by a special citizens committee for the Pontiac School District.

Nearly all 15 members attending the meeting of the Pontiac School Study Committee agreed an additional millage will be necessary.

★ ★ ★

But how much and for how long remains unresolved.

HOW LONG?

The controversial question is: Should it be levied over 5 years, or 10 years, or some compromise period in between?

School officials explained two millage plans—a 5-year and a 10-year—at the citizens' meeting.

The committee favored a 5-year millage over the longer term proposal, although some members were willing to compromise at six years.

★ ★ ★

The time period, perhaps more than the amount, could decide whether the millage will pass next June.

THE DIFFERENCE

Chairman James Howlett explained the difference between the two plans.

In light of the new state constitution, he said the length of time of expected tax levy will be a significant factor.

Howlett said that a millage plan spread over 5 years could only be voted on by property owners.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, a shorter term—5 years or under—would be subject to a vote of all of the electorate in the school district.

BETTER CHANCE

The citizens committee chairman said the millage might stand a better chance with just a vote of property owners.

Other committee members disagreed, but no one seemed to be able to evaluate what group of voters it would be best to have pass on the millage.

The amount of the millage was a different topic entirely. Practically all of the 15 members in attendance favored an additional 5-year tax levy of about 2.91 mills.

★ ★ ★

Supt. Dana P. Whitmer pointed out that this levy would be in addition to the 8.75 mills due to expire. The latter amount would have to be renewed.

EASIER TO SELL

Citizens committee members thought the 5-year millage would be easier to sell to the voters. They also thought there were too many variables in the 10-year projections.

Even with a 5-year millage, however, school officials estimated they will need more in the second half of the next decade.

Computed on a 10-year basis, educators feel they need the 8.75 mills renewed and an average annual additional voted levy of 4.89 mills.

★ ★ ★

The citizens group thought this would be tougher to sell local voters. Only property owners would be voting if this plan reached the ballot.

TEN-YEAR STUDY

The tax projections of Pontiac school administrators topped a 10-year study of local schools.

School officials feel the additional millage is needed because projected expenditure needs will rise over income.

Per-pupil expenditures will jump from $516 in 1965-66 to an estimated $685 by 1974-75, they said.

Meantime, per-pupil income will only rise from $489 to $533 in the same time period.

A DIFFERENCE

Thus, there is a difference of $26.93 in 1965-66 and $152 in 1974-75 between expenditures and income, they reason.

Since the group reached no conclusions, the citizens committee will meet again next week. Eventually, a written report will be submitted to the school board.

By the time Henry Ford died in 1947, he had sold 30 million automobiles. He also had bought out his early stockholders. The mammoth enterprise remained completely family business until 1955.

Detroit Motel Is Planned on Station Site

DETROIT (AP) —A $4.5 million, 22-story motor hotel and parking structure will be built in downtown Detroit, a real estate developer announced Thursday.

Construction will start on the hotel, which will occupy the site of the former Greyhound Bus Terminal, in the fall of 1965, said developer M. E. Arden.

When the building is completed, Arden said, Service Parking Grounds will be offered a lease on the lower six floors for parking up to 420 cars. A national motel and hotel chain will operate the 16 stories of the building which will contain 400 rooms, a restaurant, cocktail lounge, swimming pool, and penthouse, he said. He declined to name the hotel firm.

Science Quiz

By BOB BROWN

PROBLEM: Echo and Reverberation.

NEEDED: A room with hard walls, and a mountain peak or solid single outside wall.

NOTE THIS: Call "Hello!" in a room surrounded by hard walls. A gymnasium with plaster or brick walls will do, or an empty room or hall with hard walls. The word will be heard re-echoing many times. This is reverberation.

Call "Hello!" toward a distant rocky mountain or a distant single outside brick or concrete wall, and the echo may be heard only one time. This is a simple echo.

* * *

HERE'S WHY: Sound consists of waves, which in air may reflect from a hard surface as light from a mirror or a ball from the floor.

In the room the reflected sound (echo) may be heard several times if there is almost nothing in the room to absorb the sound.

The reason a series of reverberations will not be heard in an ordinary room is that draperies, rugs, chairs, etc., rapidly absorb the sound energy.

The new collection of these Bob Brown experiments will be out this month, and on sale at bookstores. It is called "Science Circus No. 2." See it!

Cuban Workers in Trouble if Equipment Bad

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Cuban government warned sugar harvest workers that those who fail to keep tools and machinery in good condition deserve severe punishment, Havana radio said Thursday night.

Anti-Castro elements have threatened sabotage of the crop and harvesting equipment.

Carlos Rafael Rodriguez, Agriculture minister, said hauling cane to the mills was being hampered by bad roads "but we will take care of that."

Cuba is harvesting an estimated 3 million tons of sugar cane, a short crop of the commodity which is the island's economic mainstay.

Eight OU Students Attend Convention

Eight engineering students represented Oakland University this week at the National Society of Automotive Engineers' annual exposition convention in Detroit.

The students, including Ronald Toles, 3295 Watkins Lake Road, Waterford Township, and Phillip Williams, 805 Emerson, designed and entered an electron beam welder for display at the convention.

The welder is unique in that it can weld aluminum foil to steel.

* * *

The eight-month project cost $500. The students raised another $400 to add to the OU funds.

Other students involved in the project were William Schwark of Rochester, Lewis Claffey of Clawson, Paul Stack Jr. of Davisburg, Jerry Hagaman and Thomas Vos, both of Romeo, and Daryl Keezer of Chelsea.

De Gaulle to Tell French Policy on Red China

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle will talk on the subject of recognizing Communist China at a news conference Jan. 31 informed sources reported Thursday.

* * *

The sources said De Gaulle will make only "broad allusions" to the possibility of France recognizing the Peking government, a subject which has aroused considerable rumor and speculation the past few months.

* * *

He does not want to "precipitate things," one source said.

He will also talk about European unity, internal French policies and institutions.

In 1742 the Marquis of Bacqueville of France attached paddle shaped wings to his legs and arms and tried to fly across the Seine. He fell into a washerwoman's barge, broke both legs, and gave up flying.

Disarmament Conference to Resume Amid Optimism

GENEVA (UPI) — The 17-nation disarmament conference resumes here next Tuesday in an atmosphere of guarded optimism that progress can be made — at least on fringe measures.

Western negotiators are hoping the Russians will return to the bargaining table in the spirit of give-and-take that produced the Moscow partial nuclear test-ban treaty last August.

The conference was recessed four months ago while the disarmanent debates were conducted at the United Nations in New York.

★ ★ ★

FIND ACCORD

It merely called on the conference to resume negotiations with emphasis on finding more areas where agreement is possible pending ultimate accord on complete disarmament.

The most likely areas for possible agreement include measures to reduce the risk of surprise attack and to prevent the spread of nuclear weapons.

Disarmament delegations here have been talking about pushing hard for minor tension-reducing agreements that could serve as stepping stones to larger accomplishments.

★ ★ ★

President Johnson said on Jan. 10 the United States had been encouraged by developments of the recent past and was returning to Geneva prepared to seek "new opportunities in this nation's search for agreement on sound and significant arms limitation and reduction measures."

OTHER AGREEMENTS

Besides the Moscow Treaty which bans nuclear tests in the atmosphere, in outer space and under water, recent developments include the "hot line" communications link between Moscow and Washington to decrease the risk of war by accident, and the Oct. 17 U.N. resolution to ban weapons of mass destruction from outer space.

Britain said this week some good may come of the resumed conference if the Moscow Treaty means the Russians are willing to discuss disarmanment problems, including verification, realistically.

A foreign office statement warned, however, that general disarmament could remain an "elusive ideal" so long as East and West are in conflict over major political issues like Berlin.

★ ★ ★

France will continue to boycott the negotiations as it has since they opened under U.N. auspices in March, 1962.

TOO MANY POWERS

French President Charles de Gaulle believes that such a big committee can only produce a propaganda circus and that only the four nuclear powers—France, Britain, United States and Russia — can create genuine disarmament.

As in the past, underground nuclear testing is the crucial issue, with verification the key to a solution.

The West says at least seven annual on-site inspections are necessary to make an underground ban foolproof, but the Russians will permit no more than three on Soviet soil.

There are differenees on other technical details also.

OTHER QUESTIONS

Other collateral questions to be discussed include:

● A system of observation posts in the NATO and the communist Warsaw Pact nations to guard against surprise conventional attacks.

Moscow has linked this with a reduction of troops on both sides of the Iron Curtain, which the West opposes on Soviet conditions.

● Nonproliferation of nuclear weapons. Russia first wants the West to scrap plans for a multilateral nuclear force, Washington's proposed key to the NATO defense system.

★ ★ ★

● Nuclear free zones. The west is agreeable to such zones in Africa and Latin America, but opposes one for Central Europe, as proposed by Moscow, on the ground it would give the Russians an advantage from their nearby national frontier.

● Nonaggression treaty between NATO and the Warsaw Pact. The West is wary of any move that might imply recognition of East Germany, a member of the Warsaw Pact.

● Reduction of U.S. and Soviet military budgets. Washington is said to favor talks on this issue, but the Soviet attitude is not known.

★ ★ ★

● Elimination of outdated military equipment. Washington favors this but Moscow has yet to express its opinion.

The West is represented at the negotiations by the United States, Britain, Canada and Italy.

The Communist members are Russia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria and Romania.

★ ★ ★

The neutral participants are Brazil, Burma, Ethiopia, India, Mexico, Nigeria, Sweden and the United Arab Republic.

Ethiopia Claims Attack by Armed Somali Bandits

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (AP) —A foreign ministry spokesman claimed Thursday that 11 armed bandits from Somalia attacked an Ethiopian police convoy Saturday near Mersin Kelkelo, killing 15 policemen.

★ ★ ★

An Ethiopian Army patrol pursued the bandits, killing 43 and wounding 30 and setting fire to a bandits' lorry carrying supplies, he said.

★ ★ ★

The spokesman also charged that Somali planes violated Ethiopian air space on Jan. 13. The two nations are locked in a border dispute.

TWO ADDITIONS — New this year at Pontiac Northern High School are Myra Pangilinan of 2102 Walnut, exchange student from the Philippines, and Avalanche, new Northern mascot. Today was the last day of AFS Week, as Northern students helped Myra celebrate her birthday.

Philippine Customs Observed

PNH Honors Exchange Student

By SUSAN KILLEN

This week has been designated as American Field Service (AFS) Week at Pontiac Northern High School.

Various activities will be presented during this period to aid the AFS and to celebrate the birthday of Northern's foreign exchange student, Myra Pangilinan.

Myra is from the Philippines.

★ ★ ★

Wednesday was Myra's birthday, so most of the special activities took place on that day. During the noon hour, the cafeteria served her favorite lunch.

SPECIAL CLOTHING

This day was also designated as a time for special clothing to be worn by the students.

All were requested to wear summer clothing, as the temperature in Myra's homeland rarely sinks lower than 60 degrees.

During this day, students followed some of the Philippine customs, standing when the teacher entered and eating with a spoon and fork at meal time.

Special guests at Northern for this event included Lee Seng Lee of Malaya, who attends Avondale High School, Telse Knudsen of Denmark and Christian Krarup of Chile, both students at Pontiac Central High School.

Also present were Germay Jedla of Ethiopia, a Rochester High School student and Peta Coppen of Rhodesia, who attends West Bloomfield High School.

These special visitors were guests of PNH during the fifth and sixth hours.

The AFS story was presented during the sixth period Wednesday.

Students with special AFS-week tags were allowed to view this picture.

A tea was held in Myra's honor after school Wednesday. The AFS club and its sponsor, David Kives, had charge of arrangements for the tea and all other activities.

Former foreign exchange mothers were invited to be present at this tea, along with Myra's American mother, Mrs. Clarence Huemiller.

★ ★ ★

The language department clubs and classes presented Myra with birthday cards in various languages.

Northern has a new mascot, Avalanche.

She is a Siberian husky who was given to PNH as a Christmas present.

Avalanche was presented to the school as the permanent mascot by the school yearbook staff.

★ ★ ★

Members had read an article in the school newspaper, the Polaris, concerning the lack of a mascot and decided to solve the problem by purchasing a dog.

★ ★ ★

Editor-in-chief Elaine Hertel searched until she was able to find a dog suitable for the school's needs.

Avalanche seemed to fit the bill.

★ ★ ★

Next a home was needed. Eldon Johnson, Northern's athletic director, volunteered to keep the dog.

Avalanche is now nine weeks old and has attended one wrestling meet. She will be available to attend all home athletic events.

Theme for this year's water show, to be presented by the Catalinas, the girls' synchronized swimming team, has been announced.

On May 7, 8, and 9, the natatorium will be filled with the colors of a circus. Clowns, acrobats, magicians, liberty horses, and wild animals will add to the circus flavor.

★ ★ ★

The team is now going through a series of tryouts to decide which member of the squad fits each routine. Under the direction of Madeline McConnell, the girls will begin to fit the show together in time for opening night under the big top.

4 Twin Sets at St. Michael

Seniors Get Ready for Picture Taking

By MICHAEL OMANS

St. Michael High School is proud of the fact that it has four sets of twins attending school here. This is quite unusual for a school of this size, which has only 280 high school students.

The twins include seniors Mary and Marge Heck; freshmen Barbara and Bernard Buller, Cheryl and Margeret Lamphere, and Janice and Loretta Zimmerman.

Seniors were busily preparing to get their pictures taken this week at St. Michael High School. Sittings were scheduled for Thursday.

★ ★ ★

Sister Michaeleen S.S.J. visited St. Michael for vocational talks to be given to the high school girls. Sister talked about the advantages and disadvantages of becoming a nun.

SOMETHING NEW

Lawrence PicKell, St. Michael's instructor, is engaged in teaching something new to his second year drafting class.

This new program is being taught for the first time and is a study of the fundamentals of architectural drawing.

Girls of the future teachers club are helping grade school teachers with their classes. This gives the girls an idea of what teaching is like.

SEEING DOUBLE — St. Michael High School students may often feel as though they are seeing double. There are four sets of twins in the high school. From left are Cheryl and Margaret Lamphere of 614 East Tennyson, Margie and Mary Heck of 338 North Perry, Barbara and Bernard Buller of 190 Riviera, and Janice and Loretta Zimmerman of 445 North Johnson.

WTHS Senior Girl Awarded $100 Bond

By MARY BARNINGHAM

Waterford Township High School senior Leanne Poffenberger recently received a $100 bond from the Pontiac Elks No. 810.

The award was made on basis of leadership, scholarship and personal recommendations. Applicants were required to have a 3.5 grade average and to be active in school and community activities.

Leanne will be honored at an Elks Club dinner Thursday.

★ ★ ★

Casting for "Lost Horizon," the next production of the dramatics club, has been completed.

THE PLAYERS

Myra will be played by Barbara Odette, Elizabeth by Sherry Zannoth, Wyland by James Walsh and Rutherford by Kenneth Banes.

Donald Bruce is cast in the role of Chang, David Ramsey is Conway, Charles Wilson is Mallinson, Jean Priestley is Miss Brinklow and Edward Pontney is Barnard.

The cast also includes Mary Burrell as Lo Tsen, Leanne Poffenberger as Helen, Thomas Talaba as High Llama, Susan Enfield as Tashi, Gwen Coppinger as Ai-ling, and William Warner as the Tibetan.

★ ★ ★

"Lost Horizon," under direction of Anne Hobart, WTHS speech teacher, and Helen Carrick, assistant director, will be presented March 6 and 7.

EXAM BREAK

Welcome relief to exam-weary students will be the Golddiggers Pick, junior class Sadie Hawkins dance rescheduled for Wednesday.

The dance, originally scheduled in November, was postponed due to the President's death.

Tickets purchased in November may be used, but new guest cards must be obtained.

★ ★ ★

Sandra Malone is general chairman of the dance, which will be held from 8 to 11 p. m. in the WTHS gym.

Faculty sponsors for the event are Patricia Steffes and William Green.

Bandsmen Compete at Milford

By BOB GORSLINE

The Milford High School band hosted tryouts for the Wayne Oakland County League band Tuesday. Fifteen students from each of the eight league schools competed for chairs in the organization.

Among those attending from Milford were Kathleen Kalcec and Michelle Daniels, both of whom took first chairs in the tenor and baritone sax sections, respectively.

★ ★ ★

Others were Karen Bourns and Laura Goodell, flute; Marilyn Glancy and Laurie Fry, clarinet; Patricia Buck, bass clarinet; Louisa Edwards, French horn; Patricia Anderson, bassoon; Donald Phillips and Michael Wixom, cornet; Larry Kostecke, trombone; Thomas Ritchie, baritone; and William Dunham and Richard Lodge, percussion.

CLASS PARTY

The junior class is preparing for its first class party of the year, titled "Everything Nice."

The affair, to be held at the high school Wednesday, from 8 to 11 p.m., is open only to juniors and their dates.

Play at PCH Is Postponed

Redecorating Stalls 'Land of the Dragon'

By DIANE OLSEN

Performances of Pontiac Central High School's children's play, "Land of the Dragon" have been postponed until February, when redecorating of the auditorium will be complete.

Tryouts for the spring play have begun, under the direction of Stuart Packard of the dramatics department. This year's musical will be "Brigadoon," a Broadway hit of the 50's.

Other activities beginning at Central are preparations for a dance sponsored by the Student council, to be held Feb. 15 in the boys' gym.

The student council is also making efforts to obtain new uniforms for the band members.

Next week at Pontiac Central will be a busy one. Monday completes formal classes, with exams on Tuesday and Wednesday. School will resume Friday for a half-day.

Under the direction of Jacqueline Reene, a number of Central students spend one hour a day working as bookstore asstants.

Among those helping are Edith Shorter, Judy Reene, Deborah Beaty, Penny Preston, Kristine Knaus, Alvin Anderson, Dorothy Wellons, Darlene Martin, Julie Giglio, Jo Ann O'Berry, Judy Kettonen and Nancy Crick.

Oxford Gets Test Scores

By SHIRLEY EVANS

Participating seniors and juniors at Oxford High School recently were given scores from the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Tests.

The tests were taken to establish abilities of students in the careers which they will choose.

The tests were also an example of those which are taken upon entrance to college.

★ ★ ★

Counselors Larry Ferrigan and Robert Dye directed the examinations.

An interesting issue was brought up in the last meeting of the student council concerning the senior prom and the junior-senior banquet.

Suggestions were made that the two events be combined for the same evening in order to share expenses.

Upper classmen can voice their opinions on the matter. Later, a vote will be taken.

Members of the school newspaper, the Roar, have decided upon a rotating editorship. This is to give interested and eligible students a chance to gain experience in the position.

Students at OLLHS Review for Exams

By LYNNE SPRINGER

Students at Our Lady of the Lakes High School have been busy reviewing for next weeks semester exams. One-hour tests will be given Monday through Thursday. There will be a semester break Friday.

Members of the ski club made their monthly trip to Alpine Valley Ski Lodge Tuesday night.

The freshman class sponsored a candied apple sale Wednesday. This was the initial fund raising event for the freshmen.

A bake sale was held by the junior class to raise money for the junior-senior banquet at the end of the year.

Tonight, Our Lady of the Lakes will play St. Mary's of Royal Oak in the high school gym.

The girls basketball team is under way and will play an away game Sunday against St. Rita's.

Cadet Club on Teaching at Brandon

By CARMEN SUE MILLER

Getting under way at Brandon High School is the organization of a cadet teachers club. The actual cadet teaching will begin at the beginning of the second semester.

Students in grades 10 through 12 with a C or above average are eligible for membership.

Each cadet teacher is allowed to choose a class of his choice.

SPONSOR, PRESIDENT

Sponsor of the club is counselor Mrs. Lucille Frick and president is senior Theresa Ball. They are working with all interested teachers and placing each cadet teacher.

March 13 and 14, eight Brandon students, along with their sponsor, Robert Harvey, history instructor, will be attending the Mock United Nations Assembly at Hillsdale College.

Brandon High School is representing Italy.

★ ★ ★

Preparation for the weekend has begun, with chairman Carmen Sue Miller, senior, giving out committee assignments and organizing some facts about the country.

Annual Donkey Cage Tilt Matches Kettering, Pierce

By JOY McREYNOLDS

Once again, the Waterford Kettering High School gym will become an arena of thrills, spills and laughter, as the WKHS faculty meets the faculty of Pierce Junior High School in the third annual donkey basketball game.

In regard to last year's upset by the Pierce players, James Larkin, unofficial captain of the WKHS squad, has assured students they will witness a reversal this year.

The event, slated for tomorow night at 8 p. m., is open to the public.

★ ★ ★

Varsity club, sponsor of the game, has requested that spectators planning to attend arrive early. Many people were turned away at the door last year.

PEP ASSEMBLY

In preparation for tonight's game with the Romeo Bulldogs, the pep club staged a pregame pep assembly this afternoon.

★ ★ ★

Pep club members participating in a skit anticipating the results of tonight's game were Cynthia Dalton, Martha Den-Herder, Carol Jo Howland, Jeri Robinson, and Gladys Maxim, representing the WKHS team.

★ ★ ★

Representing the Bulldogs' line-up were Connie Condon, Connie Everett, Susan Walton, Susan Welsh and Patricia Gracey. Coaching respective teams were Robert Dustman and Kenneth Forbes, with Donald Douglas as master of ceremonies.

ANNUAL PLAY

"Hansel and Gretel" was the play chosen for presentation by the play production class Wednesday and Thursday.

An annual event, the play was presented in the WKHS gym and was open to all elementary school children.

Included in the cast were Charles Haviland, Hansel; Ruthann Eakle, Gretel; Jeanne McGinley, the witch; Nancy Doimer, Trudy the Cat; Roberta Heacock, the good fairy; Mike Carson, Earnest; and Diane Jarvis, Katrina.

Senior James Nicholie was chosen to represent Waterford Kettering at the Michigan School Conference on Citizenship, Wednesday, Thursday and today.

2 Bloomfield Hills Seniors Will Go to D.C., New York

By TERI SEIBERT

Two Bloomfield Hills High School seniors, Patricia Parrott and Mary Pearson, will travel to Washington, D.C., and New York for one week, beginning Jan. 21 with the United Nations Seminar.

The Methodist churches throughout the United States sponsor this program.

The group will spend three days in the nation's capital learning the fundamentals and functions of the government. In New York, the students will visit the United Nations.

★ ★ ★

One hundred high school students from Michigan will participate in the program. Each was selected on the basis of several interviews and a written essay.

BHHS will bid farewell to Johann "Bastel" Kilian, exchange student from West Berlin, Germany, at a party sponsored by the foreign relations club Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

Johann will leave for New York City next Friday to live with the William McGaughleys, who recently moved to that city. Johann had completed his high school studies in Germany before attending BHHS this fall.

RETURNED TO SWEDEN

Florence Landheim, exchange student from Stockholm, Sweden, returned home in December. Florence, who graduated from high school before coming to the United States, stayed with her aunt and uncle, Dr. and Mrs. D. L. Zorn of Bloomfield Hills.

★ ★ ★

Neither student was affiliated with an exchange program when they arrived this fall to study in this country.

Walled Lake Holds Musical Auditions

By SUE GERVAIS

For the past two weeks, Walled Lake High School's vocal music department, under direction of Alexander Zerban, has been holding auditions for the spring musical "Guys and Dolls."

Students must perform in each of three categories, singing, dancing and reading.

Auditions finished this afternoon, and names of students receiving parts will be announced soon.

The senior class executive board, under direction of Howard Chenoweth, head faculty sponsor of the class, recently distributed prom questionnaires in senior homerooms.

Students were asked to choose between a dance and a dinner dance, decide between Detroit and a nearby location, and to name a particular place and the band desired.

St. Frederick Sets Excursion

Greenfield Village Is Cultural Trip Site

By KATHY CARRY

Greenfield Village was the sight chosen for the second quarter cultural excursion of the St. Frederick High School honors club.

Close to 30 honor students spent a day touring the museum and the village. Plans will begin soon for other trips to be made in the second semester.

The student body was recently fortunate enough to spend the afternoon watching the movie "War and Peace," based on the novel by Russian master Leo Tolstoy.

★ ★ ★

The movie proved an asset to students in senior English classes who are at present reading that particular novel.

Tonight, the Rams will meet Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows in Farmington. A bus has been scheduled to transport students to and from the game.

Oxford vs. Orion

Faculty Game Set

By NANCY GREENHILL

Tomorrow, the faculty of Oxford High School will be seeking revenge for its terrible basketball beating of 10-2 of a few years ago by the Lake Orion High School faculty.

The event will take place at 6:30 p.m. at the Lake Orion High School.

There will be no advance sale of tickets. The spectacle will be preceded by a game between the Oxford and Orion freshmen teams.

The Orion faculty will be coached by James Egner with Hal Carlin and Don Woodbeck acting as officials.

ORION PLAYERS

Lake Orion's players from the high school will include George Elias, Don Griffith, Jim Van Knocker, Dale Jessie, Norm Terrall, Marvin MacIntosh, Frank Kownacki, and Charles Baiton.

The Oxford faculty's "shoot n' run" team is made up of Jim Stouffer, Lee Noftz, Larry Ferrigan, Carroll Wilson, Ted Treymiller, Gary Stuart, Harold Titus, Jay Allen and Walt Braum.

Mr. Egner, assistant principal at Lake Orion, says, "It is the greatest entertainment spectacle of the year," and urges everyone to attend.

Nixon Urges No Retreat in Panama Crisis

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon calling for "significant reappraisal and new direction" in some areas of U.S. foreign policy, says the United States must not retreat from its responsibilities in the Panama Canal Zone.

Nixon, in two speeches and a news conference, also said that under certain circumstances he would endorse a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination before the convention next July.

"My noncandidacy is a fact," he said.

★ ★ ★

Nixon made the foreign policy speech—one of a series he plans to deliver—at a banquet Thursday night honoring printing week and the anniversary of Benjamin Franklin's birthday. He also visited briefly with about 200 Republican women at another dinner.

"The United States' control over the zone and canal are not subject to negotiations," Nixon said. "If the United States retreats it will raise serious doubts about its bases around the world."

REDS WAITING

He said the Panama trouble "is more than an incident involving students."

"There is no question -that Communists in Panama were waiting for an issue," he said. "The fact that they were organized shows the problems we face in Latin America in dealing with the virus of communism and Castroism.

★ ★ ★

"We must set up a program, the ultimate objective being to bring (Premier Fidel) Castro (of Cuba) down."

He told newsmen he does not propose another naval blockade of Cuba because "the economy of Cuba has deteriorated and economic pressure could be decisive" with the help of U.S. allies.

NEW CANAL

Nixon advocated construction of a new canal through Mexico or Nicaragua. He noted that the present canal would be prime war target and also that some naval vessels are too large to pass through it.

On politics, Nixon said:

"If one of the four candidates, or five, in my opinion shows clear superiority, and I believe an endorsement would be helpful in getting him the nomination and would give him a better chance of winning in November, I would endorse."

He didn't specify the candidates.

NO PRIMARY PLANS

Nixon said he has no plans to allow his name on any primary ballot.

"I think when you have candidates such as Gov. (Nelson A.) Rockefeller (of New York) and Sen. (Barry) Goldwater (of Arizona) who are hardworking and who have the financial support, it is difficult to visualize the nomination going to someone who is not seeking it."

★ ★ ★

He said he agrees with statements that the Republican party needs new faces and that Gov. George Romney of Michigan and Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania fit this category.

In his speech, Nixon said the United States' sometimes strained relations with French President Charles de Gaulle "should be attacked frontally."

NO SETTLEMENT

"I cannot see Europe's problems being settled satisfactorily with De Gaulle out of the picture," he said.

Nixon also noted that Soviet Premier Khrushchev doesn't seem difficult in light of the limited nuclear test ban treaty and wheat trade pacts, but he said the Soviet leader has not changed his goal to conquer the world. Nixon said he believes in negotiating and reaching accord with Khrushchev "only when your interests are served."

AP Photofax

VOICES OPINION — Former Vice President Richard Nixon seems to be parrying something in this sequence of pictures. However, it's not the GOP candidacy. He was merely making a "nonpolitical" speech last night to the 1964 Printing Week "Best of the Year" banquet in Philadelphia, Pa.

Smuggling Exposed in Philippines

MANILA, Philippines (AP)—More than 2,500 wristwatches were smuggled into the Philippines from Hong Kong on board a U.S. Air Force plane, the Manila Times reported today.

The U.S. Embassy said the report was "essentially correct."

The watches were found in an Air Force C47 which landed at the U.S. Clark Air Force Base north of Manila Dec. 22, the Times said. They were impounded by U.S. and Philippine authorities.

The plane had brought 10 officers of the U.S. joint military advisory group to Clark from Hong Kong. The officers denied ownership of the watches, the newspaper said.

★ ★ ★

An embassy spokesman said U.S. and Philippine authorities are cooperating but no arrests have been made.

LONG SUSPECTED

The Times said smuggling had long been suspected at Clark. However, the embassy spokesman said the case was considered rare.

★ ★ ★

Clark is headquarters of the 13th Air Force.

Ypsilanti City Planner

YPSILANTI (AP) — Carl Schmult Jr., 28, will assume duties Feb. 17 as Ypsilanti city planner at an annual salary of $8,500. Schmult, who formerly was senior planning assistant at Minneapolis, Minn., succeeds Oris R. McGuire, who resigned to take a position in Florida.

Pakistan Hit by New Riots

30 More Killed in Moslem-Hindu Rift

DACCA, East Pakistan (AP) — Communal violence, which began in East Pakistan last week and spread to neighboring Calcutta in India, has returned to East Pakistan.

Unofficial sources say at least 30 persons have been killed since Tuesday in Dacca and nearby areas. A number were Moslems slain by police who opened fire on mobs attacking Hindus and looting and burning their property.

About three-fourths of Dacca, a city of a million, and Narayanganj have been under curfew for three days. Most newspapers have appealed for restraint and called the Moslem rioters hooligans.

MOSLEM AID

Numbers of Moslems have gone to the aid of the Hindu community. Moslem agitators have threatened and attacked some of the samaritans.

East Pakistan's population of 55 million includes about 10 million Hindus.

The communal riots started in Khulna, East Pakistan, after a Moslem relic reputed to be a hair from the beard of the prophet Mohammed, was reported stolen in Kashmir. Twenty-nine Hindus were reported killed.

★ ★ ★

Refugees' stories of the Khulna violence set off anti-Moslem riots in Calcutta in which 163 persons — most of them Moslems — were killed.

In Smoking Report Wake

Sales Continue Up for Pipes, Cigars

By DARDEN CHAMBLISS

NEW YORK (AP) — Many worried cigarette smokers, male and female, are turning to cigars and pipes, hoping they can learn to take nicotine in possibly safer forms.

Representatives of both the pipe and cigar industries report increased business since the U.S. Surgeon General's report on smoking Saturday.

★ ★ ★

The report stressed the hazard in inhalation; most cigar and pipe smokers don't inhale.

Industry spokesmen had doubts about how permanent any switch might be, but reports of spurts, temporary or not, were widespread.

★ ★ ★

Walter E. Harris Jr., president of Alfred Dunhill, Ltd., of London, said sales of pipes, cigars and pipe tobacco had gone up 60 per cent since the government report.

A spokesman for Kaywoodie Pipes, Inc., said there has been a flood of telegrams and phone calls with speed-up request on pipe orders.

Nat Sherman, who runs a cigar store in New York, said "I have ever seen such a surge in business in 34 years."

The stock market reflected the new vogue, with shares of cigar companies rising sharply. Thursday, General Cigar advanced $3.37, Consolidated Cigar $3.25 and D.W.G. Cigar $1.37.

Many companies stood ready to take full advantage of any big switch.

NEWCOMERS TO HABIT

Angelo Merlini, vice president of Wally Frank, Ltd., a large pipe and tobacco company, said he has seen a steep rise in mild Dutch tobaccos. This could reflect newcomers to the pipe habit.

The recent rush has also attracted an unusual number of women customers.

"You'll see women crowded around our counters where you'd ordinarily see only men," said Dunhill's Harris.

Most sources said they doubt if the pipe-smoking or cigar-smoking female will become a fixture.

ENOUGH GAIN

Also, many of today's new men customers probably will return to cigarettes, trade sources said. But they think there could be enough net gain to be significant for the industry.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

300 Kick Habit for 5 Days

NEW YORK (AP)—About 300 persons declared Thursday night they have stopped smoking—at least for five days.

They were among 1,000 persons who had enrolled for a five-day course at Hunter College on how to stop smoking.

Those who said they haven't had a cigarette, cigar or pipe since Sunday night reported they have become either gum chewers or nibblers of chocolates, apples, peanuts or cough drops.

Another 200 said they had managed to cut down smoking.

The program is sponsored by the National Health Foundation, an arm of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church, which has conducted similar clinics in other cities.

At Doctors' Meeting

Smoking Message Is Felt

By L. GARY THORNE

Although the Oakland County Medical Society has not yet taken a stand on cigarettes and smoking, the message may be getting through.

Earlier this week, 11 members of the society's board of directors met and for over 2½ hours they abstained from smoking cigarettes.

Among the 11 in attendance, three doctors had quit some time ago, two never smoked, two quit recently, two just switched from cigarettes to pipes, one still uses cigars, and another displayed a package of cigarettes.

★ ★ ★

However, only the pipes soiled the ashtrays at all during the board meeting, although the lone cigar smoker lit up afterwards.

AMAZING

"It's amazing that no one smoked cigarettes," commented one abstainer — a recent convert.

He suggested it was ironic that a package of smokes should remain prominent, but untouched, throughout the meeting.

The society has abstained (from taking a stand, that is) on the smoking controversy. Not so, however, Dr. Murray B. Levin, 35 S. Johnson.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Levin, who admitted to puffing now and then in the past, has uncovered new evidence to support abstention.

COMPLICATIONS

First, he said that the heavy smoker runs into complications with bad colds. For example, Dr. Levin explained that the cold, including an irritating cough, will last from three-six weeks.

The average nonsmoker gets rid of a cold in five days to a week, he added.

Dr. Levin pointed to still a second ill effect from smoking.

★ ★ ★

While lung cancer has received the vast majority of the publicity, the Pontiac doctor points out that it has been his experience that emphysema is more common than lung cancer.

HUNDRED TO ONE

"I would estimate that for every case of lung cancer, I get a hundred cases of emphysema."

What is emphysema?

Dr. Levin described it as a type of asthma, characterized by wheezing and coughing. Emphysema occurs in older age groups, but the first signs are noticeable usually in the late 40s.

The symptoms begin with a shortness of breath and coughing and continue until the patient has to be hospitalized, he said.

★ ★ ★

Hospitalization, mostly, comes in the late 50s or 60s, the doctor added. If the patient would stop smoking with the first signs, he probably would recover, but they rarely do.

CLASSIC EXAMPLE

The classic example of this ailment, Dr. Levin said, is the worker who is walking across the parking lot after work with a group of his fellow workers. Suddenly, he can't keep up.

The patient gets short of breath and is exhausted by the slightest exertion. Emphysema victims can be quite miserable, according to Dr. Levin.

He said he has seen patients that could hardly walk across a hospital room, and yet "they'll walk with a cigarette in their hand."

★ ★ ★

Emphysema is similar to chronic bronchitis and sometimes the terms are used interchangeable, but this is not technically correct, he pointed out, because bronchitis has nothing to do with smoking.

★ ★ ★

Victims of emphysema don't die of their disease like lung cancer victims, Dr. Levin said, but they sure are miserable.

Kelley Clears Mackinac Unit

No Criminal Intent in Fund Irregularities

LANSING (AP) — Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley has cleared the Mackinac Island State Park Commission of any criminal intent in irregularities uncovered in an audit of its funds.

In a report to Gov. George Romney Thursday, Kelley also said he found no evidence of malfeasance or misfeasance.

An auditor general's report had showed that the state paid utility bills for summer homes on the island — adding up to $1,740 for commissioner James Dunnigan and $229 for commissioner W. F. Doyle.

★ ★ ★

The audit also disclosed that commissioners received free carriage rides and used state-owned cottages as summer vacation spots for themselves and friends.

Kelley said certain commissioners had waived their right for travel and other expenses in return for payment of transportation and utility bills. He added that the practice ceased some time ago.

The agreement was based on an obvious misconception of the law and does not appear to represent any criminal intent, Kelley said.

★ ★ ★

He added that reimbursement to the state appears to be an administrative rather than a legal question. It would appear difficult — if not impossible — to determine whether expenses paid by the commissioners would balance against benefits received, he said.

Stanford U. Exceeds Million-Dollar Goal

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Stanford University announced Thursday it has exceeded its $100-million goal in its fund-raising campaign.

President Wallace Sterling said he believes the $109,235,101 is the largest single capital fund campaign ever conducted by a university.

Scientists Act as Consultants

New Company Has Nothing but Brains

NEW YORK (AP) — Quadri-Science, Inc., is a company without a plant, machines or salesmen. It makes nothing. Few people know it exists.

The company's assets consist mainly of some of the best brains in the world.

What does it do?

★ ★ ★

"It thinks," says Dr. Polykarp Kusch, a Nobel Prize-winner in physics, Columbia University professor and Quadri-Science president.

In return for its thoughts, Quadri-Science becomes a part owner of its clients.

THINKERS

Thinking along with Kusch are Dr. Harold C. Urey (Nobel Prize in chemistry), Dr. Joshua Lederberg (Nobel Prize in medicine), Dr. James A. Van Allen (discoverer of the radation belts that surround the earth), Dr. Samuel K. Allison, Dr. Ralph E. Lapp, Dr. Huntington Harris and Charles Tyroler II, its executive vice president.

★ ★ ★

So far three companies, all small and in the scientific field, have a connection with Qaudri-Science. In return for stock in the companies, Quadri-Science makes available the talents and prestige of its scientists.

The arrangement is new even for an age when many scientists are capitalizing on their brains as consultants, heads of research organizations or as presidents of companies. Quadri-Science represents an attempt by basic research scientists to try their hand in the business world while devoting their major efforts to research and professorships.

LESS RESTRICTIVE

For years, industry has paid fees to professors to think about a specific problem. With Quadri-Science, the relationship is closer and less restrictive.

"Instead of thinking for a company for a few days or weeks, these scientists—in the words of one of them—could be thinking about for the company 365 days a year," said Tyroler in a telephone interview.

★ ★ ★

"I should make one thing clear here," Tyroler said. "We are not hired by these companies. We are under no obligation. But the company knows we are thinking for it and looking out for its interests."

Quadri-Science believes its scientists can spot the directions in which science and technology are heading. Then they can guide a company on possible new products.

INSPECT FIRMS

Taylor said Quadri-Science looked into 60 companies before choosing the three with which it is allied. Mostly, the scientists look for small, scientific companies they think have potential and acompetent research staff.

Quadri-Science was formed by its members in 1961. It occupies two floors of an office building in Washington, where its regular meetings are held.

Urey, chairman of the board, is a University of California chemistry professor. Lederberg is at the Stanford University medical school. Van Allen is a professor at the University of Iowa.

Allison is at the University of Chicago. Lapp and Harris, a member of a Chicago banking family, are in Washington. So is Tyroler, who in 1956 ran the late Sen. Estes Kefauver's vice presidential campaign.

Deer Liked What It Saw

MOSCOW (UPI) — Wild life met city life in the central Soviet city of Omsk. Wild life lost.

The Soviet news agency Tass told today how a young deer, frightened by a group of skiers near Omsk, ran into the town.

Suddenly she stopped, fascinated by her reflection in a grocery window. Then the deer leaped forward and landed in a clutter of broken glass, canned goods, sausages and olive oil.

★ ★ ★

Police caught the deer, patched up its cuts and set it loose again in the forest.

Walkout Idles 250 in Warren

WARREN (AP) — Some 250 workers were idled when 61 United Auto Workers union members walked out over the firing of a fellow worker Thursday.

Members of Local 155 walked out, charging the Mardigian Corp., a tool and die manufacturer, with unfair labor practices.

At issue was the firing of John Rochester, 36. Plant Manager Jack Lawrence said Rochester was fired because of repeated minor violations of company rules: walking off the job without permission, excessive use of telephones, repeated tardiness and absenteeism. Lawrence said Rochester also had falsified his original job application.

CHARGES DENIED

The union denied the charges, adding that his application should have been discarded once Rochester passed his 90-day probationary period. The union demanded reinstatement of Rochester with back pay to Dec. 20, the day he was discharged—along with removal of the incident from his employment record.

Flint Workers Back on Job in Buick Plant

FLINT (AP) — Some 15,000 General Motors Corp. workers were back on the job today in the Buick Division's largest plant.

Some 11,000 returned Thursday after members of United Auto Workers Local 599 ratified a strike settlement by an almost unanimous show of hands. The vote ended an eight-day walkout which also idled 4,000 Flint-area Fisher Body Division workers and 200 more at an AC spark-plug plant.

Company officials said plans call for full operation on Saturday,with the exception of the final assembly line.

Nearly 2,000 union members voted on the final agreement which was reached Wednesday. The dispute was over production standards.

University Gets Grants

DETROIT (AP)—The Wayne State University board of governors Thursday accepted gifts and grants totaling $160,800. The grants include five from the U.S. Public Health Service totaling $88,923 for medical research.

Century Ago Morris Invented Reclining Chair

By MADELEINE DOEREN

British architect - designer William Morris who had perhaps never heard of rock 'n roll, invented the first mechanical chair just a century ago.

Modern comfort chairs, however, bear little resemblance to their progenitor, designed with back adjustable to various angles.

The Morris chair even inspired a popular song in the Roaring 20's and became the granddaddy of today's recliner chairs.

★ ★ ★

Improvements in design and engineering make the new models easier to position and more amenable to the decor in today's homes.

Mechanisms have been simplified and in some cases, eliminated. Back pressure by the occupant controls independent action of the chair's back, seat and footrest. Positions hold at upright, semi-reclinging or full reclining until extra pressure is applied.

★ ★ ★

One lounger can be positioned electrically. A few models have dispensed with the chair's front apron which ordinarily pops up as a footstool, once the back is lowered.

VIBRATES

Contoured to the human form, one chair possesses the vibrator factor and adds the element of heat. This gives more relaxing ease to those with tired and aching muscles.

There are matched Mr. and Mrs. recliners, with one in more feminine proportions. These appear in early American, Colonial, Danish, Italian provincial, contemporary and traditional styles.

★ ★ ★

Charlton, an old-line producer of comfort chairs has a streamlined recliner in Danish design for six - footers. Back pressure adjusts to three stops.

★ ★ ★

Its frame is walnut finish on birch; cushioning is all foam. Cover is expanded vinyl in bright tones.

★ ★ ★

Recently introduced is Charlton's "Redondo" all-molded plywood frame in oiled walnut finish and metal base. The chair tilts back, swivels and rocks.

SCANDINAVIAN STYLE

John Van Koert has designed a sling chair in the Scandinavian style for a new furniture group manufactured by Richardson Nemschoff.

★ ★ ★

Massive scale is minimized by slim lines and lightweight materials in the chair's construction. Vinyl sling is suspended on a walnut frame. Added seating comfort comes with cushions filled with Eastman Kodel polyester fiberfill.

This new material is non-allergenic, moth-and-mildew resistant and insures springy comfort even after years of use.

★ ★ ★

The La-Z-Boy Chair Company offers a broad selection of comfort chairs. Reclina-rockers include the Mr. and Mrs. sizes in modified early American styling.

Colonial designs with separate foot-rest action offer different pillow-back styling in both modern and early American. Chairs have either upholstered panel sides or open, wooden-front arm designs.

The rocking chair, used for therapeutic value by our late vigorous young President is said to have a sedative effect for all age groups. It has done so much to orient the thought of troubled men and women throughout the years.

A Hoosier physician in a recent issue of the Indiana State Medical Association Journal states that rocking has a sound physoligical basis, with tonic effect on the heart and blood vessel system.

★ ★ ★

From the rocker production lines of old - time makers, come some old favorites and some modern designs: Boston rockers, Duxbury, Priscilla, Windsor and the newer Danish styles.

Scandinavian-inspired chair by John Van Koert, American designer, features vinyl sling suspended on a walnut frame with Kodel polyester fiber-filled cushions. May be ordered locally.

Women's

A thinking man's corner in either home or office needs this Barcolounger as part of the cure for daily pressures. Foam rubber cushioning and lean-back mechanism make relaxation easy. Contours are scaled to amply fit six-footers. The bronze and olive green striped cover is masculine.

Select New Officers at Gathering

St. Maria Women's Club of the St. George Roumanian Church elected officers Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Parker is incoming president; Mrs. Thomas Scorobetz, vice president; Mrs. John Phillips, secretary; Mrs. Joseph Botan Jr., treasurer; Mrs. Julius Baba, auditor.

Committee chairmen are Mrs. John Dura and Mrs. Dimitrie Toth.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Pauline Baba, Mrs. Mary Johnson, Mrs. Toma Poponea, Mrs. Leo Popa and Mrs. Toth, all of whom celebrate January birthdays.

★ ★ ★

The women's club will serve a banquet, Feb. 2, at one o'clock in the church hall, following the special service and blessing of new vestments.

A Full-Grown Baby

Hubby Scared of Dentist

DEAR ABBY: In plain words, how does a woman get a full-grown baby (her husband) to a dentist?

I would hate to tell you how long I have been fighting this problem without success.

STUMPED

★ ★ ★

DEAR STUMPED: Your husband (like thousands of other "full-grown" babies) is terrified of the dentist's chair, but he's ashamed to admit it.

ABBY

You could make an appointment for "yourself" for a general checkup. Tell your husband you want him to go along and hold your hand for moral support.

Once there, you could ask your dentist if he had a few moments to look at your husband's teeth.

In this way the anticipation, which is 99 per cent of all "suffering" endured in connection with dentistry, is reduced.

You'll need the cooperation of your dentist, of course, but it's worth a try.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have been married four years and have a year-old son.

We go to a dance every Saturday night. It usually winds up in an argument after the dance, because I happen to have mentioned that we are married, or I make some remark about the baby.

RUINS CHANCES

He claims it ruins his chances to dance with some of the women because they don't want to make me jealous.

After last Saturday night, he said a couple of girls refused to dance with him when they found out he was married.

I am thinking seriously of letting him go alone in the future. Would it be wise?

CONFUSED

★ ★ ★

DEAR CONFUSED: No. It would be otherwise. A married man who poses as a bachelor usually wishes he were one, or is acting like one.

New Officers of Audubon Club Lead Meeting

Newly elected officers conducted a round table discussion at the Wednesday evening meeting of the Pontiac Audubon Club held at All Saints Episcopal Church.

★ ★ ★

Floyd Radabaugh is the new president; Elmer Thorpe, vice president; Mrs. John Ziarnik, secretary; and Mrs. Norma Anderson, treasurer.

★ ★ ★

The discussion preceded slides and movies of the Florida Christmas bird census shown by Mr. Thorpe. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frick.

Thirty Up Club Has Dance Tonight

The 30 Up club, for single people and married couples over 30, will meet tonight at 8 p.m. at the YMCA for an evening of dancing, recreation and refreshments.

★ ★ ★

The Johnney Lambert orchestra from Detroit will be featured, along with organ music. The club is open to the public.

This new contemporary chair, comfortably plotted for reading "who-dunnits," TV watching or rest, features a chaise position as well as full reclining comfort and a disappearing leg rest. Available locally.

YWCA Announces New Set of Classes

Part-time instructors and nursery teachers at the Pontiac YWCA will attend a pre-term dessert luncheoon Monday, at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. John Streit, young adult chairman, will discuss winter - term activities and Mrs. Bruce Hubbard will confer with her nursery staff. The expected influx of tiny tots will tax the Y's limited nursery facilities.

★ ★ ★

Some 550 women and girls who have learned to swim in the Y's classes in the past six years will attend a reunion splash party, Wednesday, in the Oakland University pool.

Luncheon in the cafeteria will follow the 10 o'clock swim and a tour of the campus is scheduled for the afternoon.

BOARD MEETING

Dessert and coffee will precede the monthly board of directors' meeting Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Y.

Classes in bowling, also knitting for beginners and those more skilled, will be resumed at the Y this winter.

Other changes include compressing the "Hair Do's and Dont's" into five sessions and expanding china painting to three hours at each session.

★ ★ ★

An American Red Cross first-aid class will be taught without cost, the only requirement being a Y membershop.

MANY COURSES

Bridge, Spanish, furniture refinishing, sewing, cake decorating and children's art, are listed on the new folder.

Silversmithing, taught for several years by Miss Amy Krueger, has already started. This will be her final term of teaching in Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

The Golden Age groups will have a joint meeting at noon on Jan. 28. Dessert and beverages will be served preceding a games program conducted by Mrs. Streit and Mrs. J. L. Bennett.

POST 20's

The recently-organized Post 20s Club for unattached men and women over 30 years of age has expanded its schedule according to Mrs. Jane Stagg, Y program director.

Plans for a co-ed international club are still tentative.

★ ★ ★

The Pontiac YWCA's renowned pilot project, the Pontiac State Hospital Y Group, has resumed its weekly recreational program.

How Can I Limit My Guest List?

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: Three weeks before my wedding I was in an automobile accident. I was rushed to a hospital and remained there for several weeks. The wedding was called off.

Now that I am well, we are making plans to be married the end of February. I would like to cut down on the wedding list, but my mother thinks hard feelings will result if all those who received invitations before are not invited a second time.

What is the proper thing to to do?

★ ★ ★

A: If you invite some friends who were on your original list and exclude others, it will almost surely result in hurt feelings.

But if you limit guests to the members of your families and close relatives, your friends will understand that your accident has radically changed your plans, and not feel slighted.

Q: Will you please tell me what a girl can and should do when she receives a present from a boy if the present is either too personal or too expensive?

★ ★ ★

A: She should return it to him, saying, that while she appreciates his kindness in giving her such a lovely gift, she really cannot accept it.

If she has a mother, she can say that her mother will not permit her to accept such a handsome, or personal, gift from a boy.

Q: Who is supposed to give the clergyman the offering for baptizing a baby? Some say this is the obligation of the godfather. Is this true?

★ ★ ★

A: No. The donation to the clergyman is given by the baby's father.

How and when to introduce people seems to trouble many. The Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "Introductions," gives helpful information on this subject.

To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to The Emily Post Institute, in care of The Pontiac Press.

The Emily Post Institute cannot answer personal mail, but all questions of general interest are answered in this column.

Club Moves Meeting Site

Members of the Waterford Book Review group are asked to note the change of meeting place for Monday. Mrs. Eugene Cleland will open her home on Rural Drive for the 1 P.M. session.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Tull Lasswell will review 'Memories, Dreams and Reflections" by Jung.

Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Henry Mehlberg.

Any woman interested in hearing this report is welcome to attend the meeting.

Flower Film Seen by Beta Chapter

Mrs. Oliver Dunstan presented a film on flower arrangements at the Thursday meeting of Beta Chapter of Beta Theta Phi sorority.

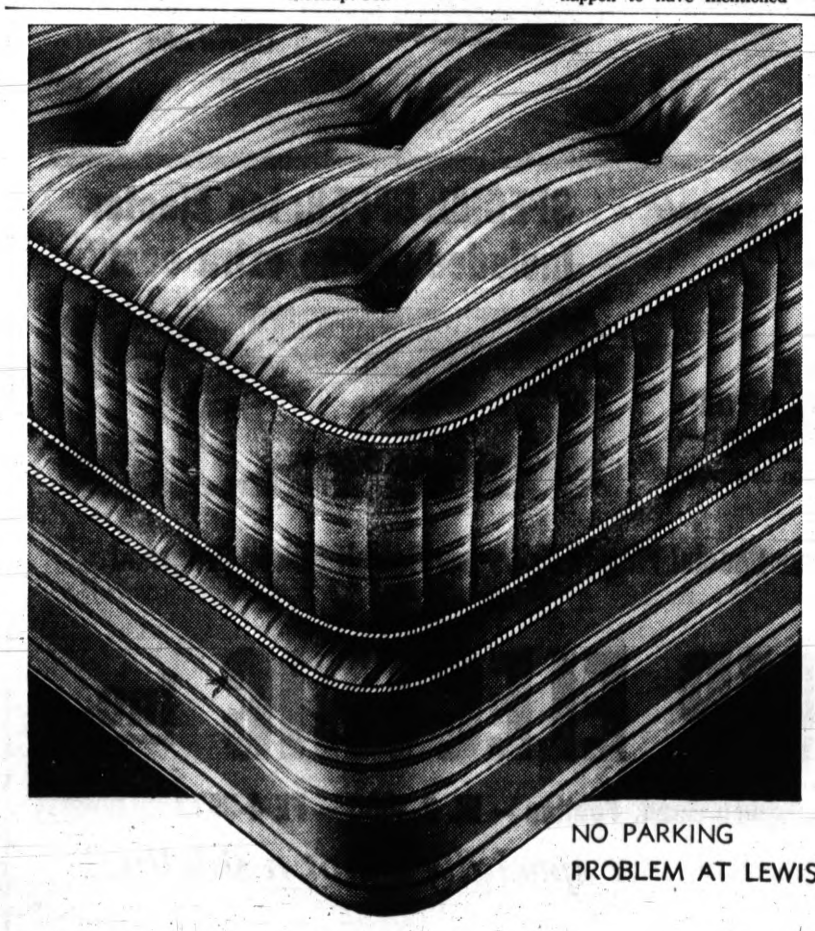

Mrs. Robert Kingsbury opened her North Lake Drive home for the meeting and Mrs. Don Kaiser served as cohostess.

Group Marks Fifteen Years

A birthday dinner at Greenfield's Restaurant, then a meeting in a member's home marked the 15th anniversary of Past High Priestess Club, Pontiac Shrine No. 22 Wednesday.

Mrs. David Gilpin opened her Neome Drive home for the special meeting during which Catherine McCrindle gave the history of the club.

Mrs. Harold Radcliffe, worthy high priestess of Pontiac White Shrine, was a guest at the meeting.

Two Members Report to Club

A report on leader training lessons will be given at the Thursday meeting of the Davis Extension Study Group.

★ ★ ★

The lessons, held in the Pontiac Mall Community Room and dealing with household and woolens repairs, will be described by Mrs. Herb Leh and Mrs. Dave Morin.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Morin will open her Norton Street home for the meeting.

September vows are planned by Kathleen Joy Henretty, daughter of the Lyle K. Henrettys of Third Avenue and Alan Willard Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wells of Mary Sue Street. She is a graduate of Borgess School of Nursing, Kalamazoo.

KATHLEEN JOY HENRETTY

Lebanon has just gotten its first woman member of Parliament. She is the 26-year-old daughter of an Arab industrialist who held the seat himself until his death recently.

Garden Club Has Annual Luncheon

Some 25 members of the Better Home and Garden Club attended the annual cooperative luncheon Thursday in Adah Shelly Library.

Mrs. Joseph Phillips, vice president conducted the meeting and Mrs. Harry Armstrong was chairman of the members' hobby display. Mrs. W. M. Sovey and Mrs. Fred Tucker assisted.

★ ★ ★

Displaying their hobbies were Mrs. John Cowe, Mrs. W. E. Campbell, Mrs. Sovey and Mrs. Tucker.

Pictures and jewelry made of marbles were displayed by a guest, Mrs. Walter E. De Nio.

★ ★ ★

The committee for the day, assisting Mrs. A. D. Stimer, chairman, included Mrs. William Livingston, Mrs. Harry Place, Mrs. George Alexander and Mrs. Louis B. Livingston.

Other guests were Mrs. Harry Sibley and Mrs. John Frericks.

Window Shades Now Decorative

NEW YORK (UPI) — John Elmo, designer, has gone to town updating white window shades for those die-hards who love them.

In a new display for the Window Shade Manufacturers Association at the National Design Center, he shows how white shades can be made into important decorating factors if chosen with an eye to establishing or accenting the mood of the decor.

Better Laundry Bag's Been Built

White nylon mesh is the latest "wash-n-dry" laundry bag for such garments as delicate dresses, blouses, lingerie, curtains, and hosiery. The bag has a full length rustproof zipper closure.

Duchess of Windsor Pattern

The real strength behind the Duchess of Windsor's stature as a fashion leader is her unerring eye for the line that does the most good for the most women, and her faultless taste in editing the news to get the best out of it.

★ ★ ★

This three piece costume is an ideal example of this special talent; note that the blouse has buttons, the jacket none; note the soft roll of the low cut neckline on the blouse; and particularly note how she has designed the blouse sleeve with shaped darts to mould it into a cap that covers just the right amount of upper arm.

The slim, separate skirt has tiny gathers that start at the sides and continue around to the back to give a perfect hang. The jacket is designed to be reversible if you wish and this fact leads to all sorts of possibilities.

Navy will be back this spring, so consider a lightweight wool with pique or linen for blouse and lining.

A silk print lining the blouse with linen, wool or a heavily textured surface fabric would be extra smart.

Raw silk in two weights is another notable combination, as is suiting jersey with a shantung or crepe lining and blouse. To select your correct size use Spadea's exclusive ready-to-wear size chart.

Sizes	Bust	Waist	Hisp	*Length Inches

Size 12 requires 3½ yards of 36" fabric with nap for Jacket and Skirt. Blouse and lining contrast require 2⅝ yards of 42" fabric with nap. To order Duchess of Windsor Pattern No. 45, state size, send $2.00.

Free plastic envelope sent with each pattern order. Pattern Books No. 20, No. 21, No. 22, No. 23, No. 24, No. 25 and revised Duchess of Windsor are available for 50c each or any 3 for $1.25 OR all 7 for $3.00. Add 10c postage for each book.

Second Attempt for One Fourth

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Of the 1,523,000 marriages in the United States in 1960, about 78 per cent were first marriages and 22 per cent remarriages, the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare reports.

About three out of four remarriages involved a divorced bride or a divorced groom; one out of four involved a widow; one out of four involved a widow or widower.

Soak Out Sponges

Soak cellulose sponges, dish cloths and towels in a baking soda solution to remove sour odors.

Shades Snap Into Picture

There's nothing neutral about the lovely tawny beiges, delicate parchment tones and soft oyster whites that are to be found in the newest window shade cloths.

A perfect complement to the glowing, sunlit palette of colors so highly favored in decorating circles, they replace the murky ecrus and dowdy tans of the past. They are available in a wide range of textures, from smooth surfaced translucent room-darkening cloths to nubby, linen-y weaves.

As an added bonus — all of these new shades sport vinyl-impregnated finishes for easy upkeep.

Now Sans-Scratch

Because baking soda when used dry has scratchless abrasive action it's an ideal cleanser for removing bug and road tar from the car's windshield and chrome.

Mrs. Nelson Rockefeller

Close-Up of Candidate's Wife

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

ALBANY, N. Y. — Margaretta Rockefeller came down the wide, carpeted stairs of the governor's mansion walking like a small girl wishing to hop and skip but restrained by Sunday-best manners.

She moved quickly, in her chic low-heeled pumps, into the red-carpeted reception room where about 30 prominent New York women had gathered at her invitation.

She began shaking hands and greeting old friends immediately. Before the afternoon was over, she was to offer to pack sandwiches for guests returning to New York City by train.

★ ★ ★

The woman whose husband wants to be the next president wore a slimcut wool dress in a dark taupe, a gold pin on her left shoulder, a double strand of pearls, and a narrow gold wedding band on her left hand.

The dress blended with her coloring — brown eyes, tawny skin, blonde-brown hair worn in a casual page boy.

Someone tried to organize a reception line in the adjacent drawing room with its oyster white decor and crystal chandeliers, a Rockefeller gift to the mansion.

ADVISORY GROUP

The occasion was a tea that Rockefeller and his wife of a little more than a year gave the New York state Woman's Council, a non-partisan group of women leaders in business and the professions who act as advisors to the department of commerce.

The tea to which this reporter also was invited concluded a two-day conference of the council.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Rockefeller, 37, is the former Margaretta Fitler, mother of four children by her first marriage to Dr. James Slater Murphy of the Rockefeller Institute.

Rockefeller and his first wife, Mary Clark Rockefeller, who divorced him after 31 years of marriage, had five children — one of whom, Michael, died in 1961 on a trip to New Guinea to collect native art.

INFANTICIPATING

Now, the governor and "Happy," as the second Mrs. Rockefeller is known, are expecting a child in June — in time for him to go to the Republican National Convention as a newly proud father.

The Woman's Council took note of the coming event with a surprise gift for Mrs. Rockefeller — a silver baby cup to be inscribed "with full details later," as the council told her.

Mrs. Rockefeller gasped in surprise, then colored. She told the women, "Thank you very much."

★ ★ ★

In a few minutes, Rockefeller arrived. The governor, one of two Republicans to announce formally for the presidential nomination, praised the council for its work in furthering job opportunities for women.

"Now," said Rockefeller, and he grabbed his wife's hand, "let's all go have some tea. Or maybe what we need this afternoon is a drink."

It had been zero weather in this city blanketed by more than a foot of snow.

★ ★ ★

The governor circulated a bit more and then quietly disappeared to his office as Mrs. Rockefeller mingled with guests in the formal dining room.

NEW NURSERY?

Would she now add a nursery to the mansion? "I don't know that we'll call it that," she laughed, "but there'll be a room."

★ ★ ★

Would she campaign with Rockefeller? "I hope to do as much as I can," she said.

And whether she would withdraw from official functions as time for the birth neared, "depends" on how she feels physically, she said. "Right now I feel fine, just wonderful."

The Donald Wilkinsons of Walled Lake announce the engagement of their daughter Margaret Elizabeth to Gary D. Graves, son of the Charles Hermans of Reymont Drive.

Green Thumb for Window Sill

Green thumb decorting is back in vogue! Ditto window treatments that provide simple, clean lined backdrops for lush window-sill plantings.

★ ★ ★

Decorative window shades offer the perfect solution. They create handsome window treatments and let in adequate sunlight for the plants' cultivation.

★ ★ ★

Available in varying degrees of translucency, you can choose one to admit just the right amount of light necessary to keep your sill garden green.

A public installation of officers of Pontiac Bethel 5, International Order of Job's Daughters, is scheduled for 7:30 p.m., Saturday, in the Masonic Temple on East Lawrence Street. Edna Isenberg, daughter of the Harry C. Isenbergs of Henderson Street, will be installed as honored queen of Bethel 5.

American Citizens Are Beefeaters

U. S. citizens eat 30 billion pounds of meat annually, more than is eaten in any other country in the world, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

★ ★ ★

Each year, Americans consume 29 per cent of the world supply of all types of meat, including 33 per cent of the beef and veal, 28 per cent of the pork and 11 per cent of the lamb, mutton, and goat.

Buy Olympic Towel

The firm which has been selected to design and produce towels for the U.S. Olympic Teams for 1964 has been given permission to produce a facsimile version for household use.

The terry towel is in red, white and blue strips with the Olympic insignia of lighted torch and laurel wreath printed at both ends. Also lettered on are: "Tokyo 1964 . . . Innsbruck 1964."

Two for Staples

Small households spend more per person than large households on meat, poultry, fish, eggs, fruits and vegetables, a U.S. Department of Agriculture survey showed.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

This week I am using my Question Box to answer questions from those women who are following my Eight Week Beauty Improvement Plan which has been running in your newspaper

Q. "When directions for an exercise say, 'Lie on the floor on your back,' can the exercise be done just as well on a bed?"

A. No. The pull on the muscles is different, and also, some of the exercises require the firmness of the floor to be most effective.

★ ★ ★

Q. "Does it make any difference when I do the exercises?"

A. No. Do them when it suits you best. The only exception is it's better to wait a few hours after eating.

QUESTIONS

Q. "How should I divide my calories when I am reducing?"

★ ★ ★

A. The most successful reducers divide theirs into three meals a day. However, they save the largest meal for the time when they are accustomed to eating most.

★ ★ ★

Also, many of them save a glass of milk or a piece of fruit or some such item for between meals. When a woman skips a meal, she usually more than makes up for it at the next one because she is so hungry.

Q. "I am going to stay with your routine and my goal is a loss of 20 pounds. I can afford to take steam baths. Would this help me reach my goal?"

A. No. The loss from a steam bath is a water loss and is temporary. It does not reflect a loss of fat.

★ ★

Q. "Should I wear a girdle when I take my exercises?"

A. No.

NO CALORIES

Q. "Shall I cut down on my liquid intake? In other words, is water fattening?"

A. Water has no calories.

Q. "Shall I cut down on salt, and why?"

A. Reducers are told to cut down on salt because if affects water retention in the tissues. Another reason is that highly seasoned foods stimulate the appetite.

★ ★

Q. "How long will it take before I will see a difference in my figure?"

A. Some women lose faster than others. However, you will probably notice some difference in about 10 days. After two weeks, you will have really encouraging improvement.

COMPLETE KIT

If you have missed my Eight-Week Beauty Improvement Plan (to see how much you can improve your appearance in eight week's time) and want my BIP kit which has complete directions and my BIP wall charts, send 25 cents (plus 15 cents for handling and postage) with your printed name and address to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

America: Nation of Organ Grinders

CHICAGO (UPI) — Americans are on an organ grinding kick, says the American Music Conference.

Of all the major musical instruments played by amateur musicians today, the organ recently has exhibited the most dynamic rate of increase in unit sales.

During the past decade, annual sales of console organs for home use have risen from 16,000 to 132,000 — an increase of approximately 725 per cent.

Light for Learning

The minimum amount of light considered adequate for study is that received from a 75-watt bulb at a distance of about six feet, vision authorities suggest.

Two for Money

A U. S. Department of Agriculture survey indicated that a two-person household spends 24 per cent of its food dollars on meals away from home.

Higher Rates for Parcel Post

ICC Approves Raise in Costs of Mailing

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Parcel post rates are going up.

The Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) yesterday approved rate increases expected to cost the public about $75.4 million a year. The increases average 13.1 per cent but vary according to the mailing distance.

It is now up to the Post Office Department, which is required by law to get ICC approval before raising the parcel post rates, to set the date that the new rates go into effect.

★ ★ ★

In its action yesterday, the ICC also approved increases and changes in mailing rates for catalogues. This is expected to bring an additional $2.3 million in annual revenue to the Post Office.

ANNUAL DEFICIT

Even with the higher rates, the Post Office Department is expected to run an annual deficit of about $68.7 million in handling the parcel post and catalogue mail.

Former Postmaster General J. Edward Day sked the ICC two years ago for permission to increase parcel post rates and to revise the maximum limits on size and weights of parcels.

The ICC took about a year to decide that it lacked the power to authorize any revision of the size and weight limits.

On July 17, the Post Office came back with the rate proposal approved yesterday.

★ ★ ★

It provides for increases ranging from 21 per cent on a two-pound package shipped locally to no increase for a 70-pound pacakge for local delivery.

LAST INCREASE

The last increase in parcel post rates was approved by the ICC in 1959. The new increases were opposed by the Parcel Post Association, the Mail Order Association, the National Council on Business Mail and the American Retail Federation.

Army, Air Guardmen to Use State Facilities

LANSING (AP) — Army and Air aNtional Guardmen from Wisconsin, Indiana, Ohio and Missouri will use Michigan guard training facilities this summer. The guard headquarters estimated some 30,000 Army guardmen will train at Camp Grayling and about 4,000 air guardmen will train at the Phelps Collins Air National Guard Base at Alpena.

Terrified Theft Victim Scares Thief With Call

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP) — George Kenneth, 56, a Camden luncheonette owner, calmly picked up the telephone and asked the operator to call police last night.

★ ★ ★

A robber, pistol in hand, was so unnerved he fled. Kenneth said he was terrified but "there wasn't anything else I could think to do."

AL Owners Order Finley to Stay Put

NEW YORK (AP)—Charles O. Finley has been ordered by the American League to remain in Kansas City but the embattled owner of the Athletics baseball club vowed today to continue his fight to move the club despite a threat of expulsion.

The American League, by a vote of 9 to 1 Thursday night, turned down Finley's request to move the club to Louisville and, by the same vote, ordered him to sign a lease in Kansas City by Feb. 1 or forfeit the franchise.

★ ★ ★

"No one can and no one will take my ball club away from me," the fiery Finley roared defiantly. "I am not accepting the league's decision without a fight.

"I don't think they have the right to force me to stay in a city where I have been continuously losing money. I will go to court to find out if the American League legally has the power to restrain me from moving my ball club to Louisville or any other place."

STALKED OUT

In an informal press conference conducted minutes after he had stalked out of the nine-hour-long league meetings, Finley declared he intended to get an injunction, if possible, enabling him to go to Louisville. The embattled baseball executive had signed a contract, subject to league approval, to play in Louisville in 1964 and 1965.

Finley conducted the conference while perched on the top of a bureau in the suite of Kentucky Gov. Edward T. Breathitt, who headed a Louisville delegation supporting Finley.

★ ★ ★

"If it is legally possible to get an injunction whereby I can go to Louisville, you can rest assured I will do that," he said. "If I can't, I will go back to Kansas City and sign a lease for only as long as I have to—no more than one year."

★ ★ ★

Later in the conference, he amended this defiant attitude.

"The more I think of it, the more I believe I may sign a longer term lease with Kansas City," he said. "What difference if the lease is for one year or five or even ten if it's subject to the court's decision? If the court rules in my favor, I can get out. If it rules against me, I'll stay stuck in Kansas City and like it."

UNPRECEDENTED

The announcement of the American League's drastic and unprecedented action was made by President Joe Cronin. After telling of the league's action ordering Finley to sign a lease in Kansas City by Feb. 1, Cronin read the resolution, which said in part:

"x x x Failing to that, a special meeting of the members of the league shall be called by the president as soon as convenient thereafter to consider and act upon the termination of the membership and-or expulsion from membership of Charles O. Finley and Co., Inc."

★ ★ ★

Cronin did not explain just how the league would expel Finley nor did he say whether the league would operate the club, seek another buyer or play out the 1964 schedule with nine teams.

However, Thomas Keane, Finley's attorney, said he had read Section Four of the league constitution and it was his impression that the league could dispose of Finley as an "undesireable" if he did not meet the league requirements.

PROFITS VS. LOSS

Finley said he had been advised by Cronin that the league could take the club away from him and operate it until a buyer would be obtained. In the meantime the league would give Finley whatever profits might be made or would charge Finley with whatever losses might accrue.

Upon completion of the sale, the money would, of course, belong to Finley.

Finley's acknowledgment that he would operate the Athletics in Kansas City, however reluctantly, pending court action, seemed to preclude any possibility of such extreme measures.

"I don't think they are bluffing," said Finley, "and they know I am not bluffing. They are a pretty rough bunch of boys but I've been with rougher boys. So they don't faze me one bit.

★ ★ ★

"They gave me a pretty good jolt today but I've only begun to fight. I'll never back down. They voted me down. That's their privilege. But I think they're wrong and that's my privilege. I'm going to court to find out. If I lose, I'll have no alternative but to go back to Kansas City."

Finley said he had no idea whether the league's action would worsen his position in future negotiations with the City Council of Kansas City. A member of the City Council said, however, the committee would not seek to take advantage but instead would lean over backward to offer Finley an equitable lease arrangement. He did not say what the offer would be.

★ ★ ★

Negotiations up to now have been a series of complex wrangles concerning the new lease. The old one expired last Dec. 31.

Bruins' Rookie Clips Wings, 5-1

Crozier's Scoreless Ways End

BOSTON, Mass. (AP)—Rookie Detroit Red Wing goalie Roger Crozier saw his scoreless string of 154 minutes, 22 seconds against the Boston Bruins abruptly shattered Thursday night by another rookie, Boston's Gary Dornhoefer.

The 20-year-old Dornhoefer scored his first two National Hockey League goals in sparking the Bruins to a 5-1 victory over Detroit.

Dornhoefer's first goal, at 14:20 of the second period, gave Boston a 1-0 lead, and ended the Crozier magic. Crozier had posted two shutouts over the Bruins earlier this season.

MARGIN CUT

Doug Mohns' tally put Boston ahead, 2-0, at the end of the middle stanza, but Detroit's Norm Ullman scored 30 seconds into the third period to cut the margin to 2-1.

Dornhoefer's second goal clinched it for Boston, and additional markers gy teammates Orland Kurtenbach and Teddy Green provided the Bruins with their first two-game winning streak since last February.

In the only other NHL game Thursday, Montreal moved to within one point of first place with a 1-0 victory over the pace-setting Chicago Black Hawks. Bernie Geoffrion's 12th goal of the season proved all the Canadiens needed as Charlie Hodge posted his second shutout.

Woe Awaits Rated

By The Associated Press

This is a crucial weekend in college basketball for UCLA, Michigan, Kentucky and Cincinnati, four of the teams in The Associated Press Top Ten.

★ ★ ★

How they fare will determine in large measure whether the Uclans, Wolverines, Wildcats and Bearcats will ride high, wide and handsome for the rest of the season or face virtual elimination from any chance of getting into the post-season NCAA championship tourney.

This is the situation:

Unbeaten UCLA, No. 1 in the AP poll, opens a two-game series tonight against Stanford, the Bruins' closest competitor in the Big Six. A UCLA sweep will give the Bruins a commanding lead. Two defeats will drop them out of first.

Once-beaten Michigan, third ranked plays host to Ohio State on Saturday in a vital Big Ten game. The Buckeyes were rated co-favorites with Michigan in pre-season forecasts, and still are in the running for the Big Ten crown.

MUST GAME

Kentucky, No. 4, zoomed to the top of the heap in December with 10 straight victories, Now the wildcats MUST beat Tennessee Saturday or practically give up hope of winning the Southeastern Conference. The Vols top the SEC at 3-0 and while Kentucky has a 12-2 record, both defeats were in SEC competition to put the Wildcats against the wall.

Cincinnati, No. 8, beaten by Bradley Wednesday, similarly must defeat Drake Saturday or see its hopes of again winning the Missouri Valley Conference diminish almost to the vanishing point.

★ ★ ★

There wasn't much doing Thursday night as the lull for mid-year exams continued. None of Top Ten teams saw action.

In the few major games played Wyoming beat Arizona State 87-82, New Mexico downed Arizona 57-50, Florida State edged Memphis State 91-90 and Virginia Tech defeated William and Mary 73-66.

★ ★ ★

In an off-court development it was diclosed that Vic Rouse, star of the second-ranked Chicago Loyola Ramblers, suffered an injury to his left shoulder during practice Wednesday and might be lost for the remainder of the campaign.

Ex-Spartan Helps Beat Pistons

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—A three-point play by former Michigan State ace Johnny Green cut short a promising Detroit Pistons rally and gave the New York Knicks a 124-116 National Basketball Association victory Thursday night.

The Cincinnati Royals, hosting the NBA doubleheader, held the Los Angeles Lakers' Jerry West to eight points and got 29 points from rookie Jerry Lucas to knock off the western division leaders 108-95.

Bailey Howell, Dave DeBusschere and Jackie Moreland had brought the Pistons back from a 114-104 deficit to within two points, 115-113, with three minutes remaining. Green's field goal and foul throw followed to put the game out of reach.

PACED KNICKS

Green's 26 points paced the Knicks, but Howell's 33 topped both teams. Don Ohl added 28 for Detroit, and DeBusschere, slowly rounding back into form after an injury, scored 19.

Slight Edge to West in AFL All-Star Game

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The West merits an edge over the East in the annual American Football League All-Star game Sunday off its greater speed and explosive attack.

Such was the opinion Thursday of two coaches in the AFL, Jack Faulkner of Denver and Hank Stram of Kansas City, after watching the two squads drill earlier in the day.

★ ★ ★

The two might be prejudiced since they coach in the Western Division. But, as Faulkner put it, "just on personnel, the West seems to have the better material. I would be hard to beat Tobin Rote or Cotton Davidson, their quarterbacks."

FAST BACKS

Stram said West Coach Sid Gillman of San Diego also has such explosive runners at Keith Lincoln and Lance Alworth from his own club and Clem Daniels of the Oakland Raiders.

Daniels, along with Art Powell, the Oakland end, figured prominently in the Raiders' astonishing come-from-behind triumph over San Diego late in the season. Powell is also on the West squad.

★ ★ ★

But Stram and Faulkner would not fault the East's quarterbacks, Jack Kemp of the Buffalo Bills and Babe Parilli of the Boston Patriots. And they said Charlie Hennigan of the Houston Oilers and Cookie Gilchrist of Buffalo are more than capable ball carriers.

★ ★ ★

Few could agree on how the scoring would go in a league which produced some wild scoring during the regular season. Last year the West won in conservative fashion, 21-14. But the year before it was the West, 47-27.

The All-Star game offers a repeat coaching duel between Gillman and Boston's Mike Holovak. Gillman won the last decision when the Chargers beat the Patriots 51-10 in the AFL title game Jan. 5.

Altitude Tests for Track Stars

LOS ANGELES (AP) — High jumpers and pole vaulters had to pass some unusually demanding altitude tests to get into Saturday night's fifth annual Los Angeles Invitational Indoor Track and Field meet.

If a high jumper never had cleared seven feet, he wasn't invited. If a pole vaulter never had cleared 16 feet, he was likewise ignored.

Hayes Jones of Pontiac, an indoor record holder, is entered in the 60-yard high hurdles.

Huskies, Chiefs Win Mat League Bouts

Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern pinned opponents in league wrestling action Thursday.

The Chiefs pinned a 51-3 defeat on Flint Southwestern in a Saginaw Valley opener, and Northern trimmed Waterford, 36-5, in a Tri-County match.

In other bouts, Lake Orion downed L'Anse Creuse, 36-11, Hazel Park moved past Fitzgerald, 27-15, and Berkley defeated Walled Lake, 24-14.

The Huskies will play host to a quadrangular match Saturday. Entered in the competition are Ypsilanti (second in state last year), Hazel Park and Pontiac Central.

The first round of matches will get under way at 2 p.m., with the finals following at 7:30 p.m. The bouts will be held in Northern's gymnasium.

Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows ran its record to 4-2 by knocking off Whitmore Lake.

Anita Netters Keep Winning

Thirteen of the teams in the Pontiac Table Tennis League are probably looking forward to the end of the season.

The 13 have been looking for signs of fatigue in the leader, Anita Lettering, but the No. 1 team refuses to fold.

Anita ran its record to 60-18 Thursday evening with a 5-1 decision over Buettner Cleaners to maintain its eight-point lead in the race.

Second place Dorris & Son Realty kept pace with a 5-1 triumph over Club 99.

In other matches, Pine Knob trimmed A & W, 4-2, Francis Fuel downed Kennerly's Service, 4-2, Pepsi Cola took a 4-2 decision from Country Kitchen, Clarks fell to Frostop, 4-2, and Crocker Candy battled Harvey's Colonial House to a 3-3 tie.

Ex-NFL Player Dies in Kentucky Hospital

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Lloyd McDermott, 38, who played football with the Philadelphia Eagles, Detroit Lions and the old Chicago Cardinals, died Thursday in a Covington hospital.

McDermott, a Kentucky tackle in the late 1940s, entered the hospital two weeks ago for treatment of a heart condition.

He was a coach and teacher at Covington Holmes High school.

Zilka, O'Neill Post Victories at Waterford

Doug Walters stood at the free throw line and on the threshold of becoming a possible game saving hero for Bill's Towing in the Waterford recreation basketball league last night.

Time had run out and Zilka Heating led, 60-59. Walters missed the free throw and Zilka increased its Class B first place record to 4-2. Walters, who made three straight free throws in the closing minute to tighten the count, was high scorer with 30 points.

Chuck Kirken hit 22 for the winners.

O'Neill Realty blew a 16-point halftime lead and then downed Frushour-Struble Realty, 66-62, in overtime to stay a game behind Zilka's.

Dennis Horrigan scored the go-ahead basket for the winners after a 60-60 regulation deadlock. Dave Struble hit 21 to pace O'Neill over a team sponsored by his father. Dick Bobson scored 16 and John Collins 15 for the losers.

Four Games Played in City Rec Action

Four games were played in the Pontiac city recreation basketball league last night and the biggest rout of the night was West Bloomfield Heating's 96-46 win over 300 Lounge.

★ ★ ★

Former U. of D. cager Larry Hughes hit 28 and ex-Western ace Bob Bolton dropped in 26. Paul Grammer added 18.

Southwestern Community defeated White Lake Pharmacy, 69-48; Messiah Baptist defeated Pontiac Police, 63-48 and Beckers won over Town and Country, 51-43.

Foreign Golfers Hold Lead in Bing Open

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—An international cast is threatening to shoot a dent into United States golf presige in the ing States golf prestige in the Bing Crosby's $60,000 National Pro-Amateur Championship.

Foreigners held three of the first four places as the 72-hole tournament entered its second round today. Other invaders were in contention and an Irishman was running second in the pro-am phase of the competition.

Meanwhile, America's biggest names struggled.

Lanky Canadian Al Balding held the top spot with his 32-34—66, British Ryder Cupper Geoffrey Hunt squeezed in at 67 with Bobby Nichols of the United States. British Open champion Bob Charles of New Zealand was another stroke behind at 68.

The ten-man traffic jam at 69 included Australian Bruce Devlin. The Irishman running second in pro-am play was Christy O'Connor, who teamed with Bob Goldwater, the Senator's brother, for a 61, three strokes behind leaders Mike Fetchick and Charlie Seaver.

Hunt and Egbert Sherwood, along with Puerto Rico's Juan Rodriguez and partner Bob Cardinal, were at 62 in this near-equivalent to a United Nations golf championship.

And where were the biggest names in United States golf?

Arnold Palmer, all-time money winning champion, was back at 72—needing improvement to win more than $100 here.

Jack Nicklaus, the PGA champion, Masters titlist and only man besides Palmer to win $100,000 in one year, was buried in the 75 bracket — potentially below Saturday night's cut.

U.S. Open champ Julius Boros was somewhat better off at 71, but Paul Harney and Art Wall, winners on the young 1964 tour, each carried a 76 into the second round.

The field of 174 pros, each with an amateur partner, made the second stops today on the three-course rotation among Cypress Point, Pebble Beach and Monterey Peninsula. Three-round qualifiers will play Sunday at Pebble Beach before national television.

Barnum, Gajda Win

State Golfers Survive

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Burly John Barnum of Grand Rapids, Mich. carded the best round Thursday in the PGA National Match Play golf tournament here.

★ ★ ★

Barnum and Bob Gajda, of Bloomfield Hills, were the only Michigan players who survived the first round match play. Eliminated were Jim Barfield, of Grand Rapids, Jerry Cooper, of Petoskey, and Reggie Myles Jr., of East Lansing.

Barnum won the first five holes of his match with Joseph Malia, of Sharon, Mass., on a birdie and four pars. He was 6-up at the turn and was a stroke under par when the match ended at 6 and 5.

★ ★ ★

Gajda defeated E. T. Lockie, of Davenport, Iowa, 4 and 3, on the 6,600-yard, par 36-36—72 PGA course.

Billy Capps, of Beckley, W. Va., ousted Myles, 2 and 1; Barfield lost to Tom Malone, of Pompano Beach, Fla., 2 and 1, and Cooper dropped a 1-up decision to Peter Burke of Cold Spring Harbor, N.Y.

Romeo Next Foe for Kettering 5

Kettering will be looking for its seventh win in a row when Romeo moves onto the Captains' court tonight for a Tri-County League scrap.

And a ding-dong bout is on tap in the Southern Thumb League with New Haven and Capac, both 5-0 in league play, battling for the top spot.

LEAD LEAGUE

The Captains (6-0) lead the loop with a 2-0 mark. Romeo (3-3) and Lapeer (4-3) are deadlocked for second with 1-1 records.

Romeo will bring along one of the top scorers in the area in guard Carl Kemp, who is averaging 18.6 points a game.

Tim Quinn, a 6-1 junior, is the tallest member on the Bulldog squad. He had his biggest night of the season last week against L'Anse Creuse, pouring in 33 points from his center post.

GOOD SPEED

Kettering lacks height, but its speed makes up for this shortcoming.

Guards Rick Pankey and Earl Hook give the Captains a solid 1-2 scoring combination. Probable starters at the forward slots will be Jim Nyberg and Bill Graham, with Bob Bogert taking the center post.

The other game on the Tri-County schedule will find Oxford at Lapeer. L'Anse Creuse is idle.

Oxford (2-3) could jump into second place with a win over Lapeer if Romeo comes out on the losing end.

SCORERS MEET

The first - place battle at New Haven will also feature the two top scorers in the area — the Rockets' Dwight Lee (26.3) and Capac's John Scheuer (23.5).

New Haven is undefeated in six starts. Capac is 5-1, the loss coming in a five-overtime defeat at the hands of Imlay City.

Other games on the Thumb slate have Almont at Brown City, Memphis at Dryden and Armada at Anchor Bay.

Drivers Setting Speed Records in Qualifying

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP)—Judging from the qualifying times, Sunday's Riverside 500-mile stock car race should be a scorcher.

With only one day of qualifying behind them, drivers already have broken the track record twice, with Freddy Lorenzen's 102.434 miles per hour earning him the pole position in the 44-car field.

Lorenzen, of Elmhurst, Ill., did the job in a 1964 Ford with five minutes remaining before the deadline for Thursday's runs.

PNH Plays Waterford Five

Pontiac Northern, its fast-break offense on a treadmill the last three games, and Waterford, a basketball team trying to get on the winning side, square off tonight on the PNH court.

City fans will have a chance to take their pick of games to see because Pontiac Central's high rated forces are entertaining Bay City Handy.

After rolling past four straight opponents, Northern has lost three straight.

The Huskies lost a well-played contest to PCH, dropped a decision because of poor shooting at Farmington, and fouled themselves out of contention at Detroit Catholic Central.

Northern must win tonight or forfeit its tie for first place in the Inter-Lakes League.

VIKINGS FAVORED

Walled Lake is expected to hold its share at home against Berkley, but Southfield and Farmington will duel with the losers dropping to second.

Waterford has failed to win in its last six starts after downing West Bloomfield.

The Skippers have gained experience with each game and can be expected to spoil some team's bid for the championship before the season ends.

Inconsistent ball - handling and a weakness on defense have been Waterford's big problems.

Pontiac Central is expected to make Handy its seventh victim in eight games in a Saginaw Valley encounter.

★ ★ ★

The visitors will carry a 1-4 over-all mark into the PCH gym Handy's strength lies in a strong zone defense and height under the backboards.

The zone, however, will be of little use if Central's Mel DeWalt continues to hit from the outside and either Bill Morgan or Al Keel can connect with long toms.

Breathing Tougher in Oakland-A Play

Leaders in the Wayne-Oakland and Oakland A leagues should have a little breathing room in tonight's action as the basketball season approaches the halfway mark.

An improving Northville quintet (4-2) will invade Clarkston to try and end the W-O leaders' seven - game (7-0) winning streak.

Elsewhere on the W-O slate, West Bloomfield travels to Brighton, Clarenceville entertains Bloomfield Hills and Milford is at Holly.

Fitzgerald's Spartans, heading the O-A loop with a 5-0 mark, play host to Avondale (1-5).

Avondale has dropped two close decisions in league play in compiling a 1-4 loop record.

Despite the record, coach Dick Bye said, "The kids still have the desire."

The Yellow Jackets have received sharp individual performances from Lynne Thorpe, Roger Ratliff and Dennis Acker. Thorpe is ninth on the Oakland County scoring list with an average of 20 points a game.

Other games on the O-A schedule have Clawson at Troy, Lake Orion at Rochester and Madison at Warren Cousino.

MUST WIN

The game with Clarenceville is a 'must' for Hills' Barons.

They trail Clarkston by a full game (5-1), and another loss would dampen their hopes of repeating as conference champion. The Barons lost to Clarkston earlier this month, and they have a return engagement set for February 14.

Lake Orion's Dragons (3-2), with a victory over winless Rochester, could move into a tie for second place in the O-A if Clawson (3-2) stops Troy (4-1).

In the South Central loop, Millington (1-5) plays host to Deckerville (2-6) and league-leading Imlay City (6-2) journeys to North Branch.

St. Fred Needs Victory to Gain 2nd Place Tie

St. Frederick travels to Farmington tonight to meet Our Lady of Sorrows in a Northwest Parochial League basketball tilt, needing a victory to move into a tie for second place in the loop with idle St. Michael.

Other league games have Orchard Lake St. Mary at Detroit St. Agatha and Royal Oak St. Mary at Waterford Our Lady of Lakes.

SECOND MEETING

The Rams (5-3) trimmed the Sorrows quintet in an earlier meeting, 86-67, but the Lancers should be stronger on their home court.

Lowry Holland and Mike Dean have been the big guns in the Rams' arsenal. Holland is averaging 21.5 points a game and Dean owns a mark of 14.5

Dean was nursing a sprained wrist and sat out while the Rams were losing to St. Michael. He is expected to return to the lineup tonight.

UP AND DOWN

St. Mary's Eaglets have been on a win-one-lose-one streak in recording a 4-3 mark and they won their last outing.

★ ★ ★

That would mean a loss coming up, but with Frank Rompel and John Stolnicki handling the scoring chores, the Eaglets are favored to hand St. Agatha (1-6) its seventh defeat.

RO St. Mary has been untouchable in rolling past eight league foes (8-1) and should have little trouble with the Lakers (1-8).

Don Wells, averaging 19.2 points a game, combines with Rod Bannister to give the Irish good shooting balance from the outside.

Brother Rice (6-1) entertains Detroit Catholic Central, and the Warriors must win to stay atop the Central Division of the Detroit Catholic League.

Elsewhere on the parochial scene, Emmanuel Christian (2-5) will meet Lansing Boys Vocational School, Ferndale St. James entertains St. Cecilia, Holy Redeemer visits Royal Oak Shrine and Grosse Pointe invades Royal Oak Dondero.

Area Coaches' Views Vary on New Cage Rule

By FLETCHER SPEARS

Team scores are soaring, player averages are climbing and the fans are getting home just a little later this season because of a new addition to the high school basketball playing rules.

★ ★ ★

The new rule, in brief, calls calls for the timekeeper to halt the clock after each violation. A second part calls for the referee to handle the ball after each backcourt violation.

The cage season is nearing the halfway mark and the reaction of coaches in the Pontiac area to the new rule is on the favorable side.

The rule was adopted by the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations, of which Michigan is a member, at its meeting last spring and put into practice at the start of this season.

With the clock stopped after each violation, teams are now playing a full 32 minutes of basketball.

Under the old rule, the clock continued to run while the ball was out of bounds, much to the dismay of coaches whose teams were trailing in a close contest.

The team ahead could toss the ball into the stands and waste valuable seconds before putting the ball into play again.

★ ★ ★

By getting more playing time, several of the state's high school squads have racked up more than 100 points a game.

"We're getting 10 to 20 more shots a game," Dom Mautti, Clarkston coach said, "and our scores are up about 10 points a game."

Most of the coaches agree that the rule has hampered a fast-breaking team, in that it gives the opposing unit a few seconds to set up a defense.

Over-all, local mentors favor retaining the new addition. Summing up the effects of the rule, coach Bob Bolton of of Walled Lake said, "It's giving you more basketball for your money."

★ ★ ★

Following are the individual comments of area coaches concerning the new rule.

Fred Zittle, Pontiac Central—"Now you are playing eight-minute quarters; before you were not playing eight minutes. From a standpoint of being fair to both ball clubs, this is the best rule."

Bob Taylor, Waterford Township—"I'm not in favor of it. We're playing about one period longer than before. But one advantage of it is the free substitution (when clock is stopped)."

NO WASTE

Ralph Vanzo, Rochester—"It has lengthened the game about 20 minutes or better. No waste of time now."

Hal Henderson, Bloomfield Hills — "Certainly increases length of game . . . tendency to slow up the game. It's no longer advantageous for a team ahead to take time to get the ball into play."

Hugh Davisson, Cranbrook — "It hasn't made much difference. It has slowed down the fast break. From a personal viewpoint, I would prefer that the referee not touch the ball."

Bob Bolton, Walled Lake — "It gives you a ball game where a 15-point lead doesn't mean a thing. You have more playing time and can't waste time with the ball out of bounds."

Father John Rakoczy, Orchard Lake St. Mary — "I personally like the rule. You have to have a better bench; must be in good physical shape because they are playing more."

Jim Neibauer, St. Michael — "I like the rule . . . gives us more playing time. Now you need a bigger lead and a much better bench."

★ ★ ★

Jack Quiggle, Farmington — "I think it's an advantage for big teams . . . disadvantage for small teams. It's slowed down the game but not the action."

Dick Bye, Avondale — "Personally, I think the rule is good. You have more playing time . . . would seem you would need more bench strength and better. Advantage for the teams behind."

Art Paddy, West Bloomfield — "I don't like the ball handling in backcourt. It helps a pressing team. If the ball isn't handled, the team could toss it in and go rapidly."

Dick Hall, Pontiac Northern — "It's a handicap to our club. With our fast break, we want to get it (the ball) out in a hurry before the defense is set. The rule was legislated in to halt the fast break."

George Elias, Lake Orion — "Hinders our kids . . . we run a lot, like to get the ball and run. It has helped the defense more than it has us."

GOOD RULE

Joe Duby, Kettering — "We're not a fast-breaking team so it has helped us. Bigger clubs can't run on us. The game is longer; there is more strategy at the end. It's a pretty good rule."

Chuck Schroeder, Milford — "Actually, I think it is slowing the game, gives the defense a chance to set. Referees have better control of game, makes for a better game."

Walt Braun, Oxford — "At first, I thought it was terrible, but the more I see it in play the more I like it. I do think a ball team like us, a thin one, we would be in trouble from fouls. Helps in a close game."

Bob Mineweaser, Waterford Our Lady of Lakes — "All right by me. In tight ballgames, the scorer isn't in doubt about when to stop the clock. When the whistle blows, he stops it."

Lew Parry, Birmigham Seaholm — "It has definitely hurt the fast-break teams. Hurt our team. When you are behind, it helps. It cuts down on stall tactics."

Wayne State Quits League

DETROIT (AP)—Wayne State University Thursday announced its withdrawal from the Presidents' Athletic Conference.

The announcement, made in the form of a progress report, was presented by President Clarence Hilberry at a Board of Governors meeting. Dr. Hilberry said a more formal announcement would be made at a later date.

★ ★ ★

Acting on a recommendation from the University's Athletic Advisory Committee, the board expressed unanimous approval of the withdrawal.

The recommendation stated in part that "the nature of the student bodies, particularly as they relate to athletics, have made it obvious that Wayne State University cannot expect to find real comparability and natural compatibility to total athletic relationships within the Presidents' Athletic Conference.

Liston Has Birthday Gift for Cassius

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Friday is Cassius Clay's 22nd birthday and heavyweight champion Sonny Liston is not letting it go unnoticed.

Although Clay is training in Miami Beach, the site of their Feb. 25 title match, Liston is throwing a party for Clay in Las Vegas.

There will be a birthday cake nd all the trimmings.

Liston, meanwhile, has sent a birthday message to Clay.

It read:

"Dear Cassius:

"It's good you are having your birthday early. I'll get you for my birthday later. I have a gift for you but I'll wait until Feb. 25 and give it to you personally. Don't celebrate too hard so you'll be there when I give it to you."

Asked what the present is, Sonny said, "it's a surprise for Cassius."

And regarding the birthday cake, the champion quipped, "I'm going to blow out the No. 1 candle for him."

MARATHON

Marathon Quality Heating Oil gives you top comfort and economy all season long—backed by on the job service!

Oakland Fuel & Paint Co.
436 Orchard Lake Ave. FE 5-6159

By JERE CRAIG

If this weekend is any indication of the local bowling tempo for the next two months—and it is—then tournament fans should have their fill by spring.

At least three now-developing or soon-to-be bowling tournaments are worthy of note this weekend. The list includes the Pontiac Elks Ladies National Invitational Bowling Tournament, the North American Open and March of Dimes tournament.

The seventh annual Ladies National Invitation sponsored by Elks Lodge No. 810 at its Orchard Lake Ave. Temple will begin tomorrow afternoon.

Four states — Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan — are represented by more than 160 entries this year. Team events will be Saturdays — singles and doubles Sundays.

RETURNEES

Most of last year's champions will be entered. Jerry Wooliever Studio has its team reentered; singles titlist Chrystal Clark returns; actual All Events winner Thelma Beck and handicap All Events champion Alice Godfrey are entered.

Mary Oshust, one half of last year's double champions, will be competing again but not with the same partner. She is teaming with Evelyn Shoener. Both are local bowlers as is Mrs. Godfrey and Jerry Wooliever's team.

A luncheon and appropriate ceremonies are planned to start this year's competition which is under the supervision of Don Long and Virginia Ross.

A press party and little Professional Bowlers' Association Open tournament among members of the communications media is scheduled Sunday afternoon at 300 Bowl.

One week's qualifying has already been staged for this year's Pro-Am preceding the PBA North American Open in March.

Walt (Dutch) Zumbrunnen was the only qualifier at "300" last Sunday posting a 666 total with his 100 per cent handicap.

DIMES BOWLING

The annual March of Dimes also began last Sunday at numerous county establishments. State wide in scope, the tournament qualifying will end Jan. 25th.

At a drawing Monday, Orchard Lanes proprietor Don Spalla drew the honor of having the finals Feb. 2nd for the Oakland County portion.

Also this week, Spalla announced the appointment of Bobby Kwicien was bowling professional at Orchard. Kwiecien will instruct Monday-Thursday and some on Saturday.

Another announcement from 300 Bowl this week revealed Dick Puertas and Don Stone have joined the staff there. Puertas is the night manager while Stone has charge of the "Quickie Lounge."

A bowling oddity recently cropped up at Lakewood Lanes. The Nick's Fine Food team in consecutive week's action for the Waterford Eagles No. 2887 Lodge league had 2887 series totals.

SPAREMASTER

Les McKinney is the newest Sparemaster in the weekly 300 Bowl contest. He won $50 in gift certificates and a bowling shirt.

This week's 12:45 p.m. contestants will be Virginia Wert, Betty Moore, Jean Boga and Russell Wideman.

★ ★ ★

League scores from "300" include 233—635 by William Velzy in the Pontiac Motor Inter-Office League Wednesday, and 246—612 by Gary LaClair in the Tuesday House League.

Tuesday's 200 Junior House loop reported a 209 for Mike Katchka; while the GMTC American League had a 149 triplicate by Fred Tobias.

The 225 and 241 by Clint Watkins and Ted Salkeld, respectively, led the American Legion Mixed Bowling League Sunday. Lake Oakland Heights circuit posted a 222 for Harold Jones. Joe Fisher hit 223 in the Night Owls Mixed Doubles.

The 300 Bowlerettes were paced by Donna Verhey's 202—539 Tuesday, and Mabel Field had 212 in the Wednesday Nite Ladies Classic.

★ ★ ★

Dan Cook and Karl Leonard were best in the Ins & Outers League with 208s Saturday.

5 Local Sites Ready

Pro-Am Qualifying Still On

Entries for qualifying for the pro-am event of the 1964 North American PBA Open to be held at 300 Bowl continue this weekend at various sites around Pontiac.

Qualifying will be held Sunday at 300 Bowl, Auburn Lanes, Collier's Lanes, Howe's Lanes and North Hill Lanes and registrations will be accepted until 8:00 p. m. tonight.

Ten per cent of the house qualifiers each week will bowl in the pro-am event March 24th, teamed with one of the 118 pros who will participate in the PBA Open.

Entry fee is $7.00 and first prize in the pro-am is $1,000. There is a minimum of 10 bowlers per squad and bowlers will roll three games at 100 per cent handicap.

Information can be obtained by calling the respective alleys for squad times Sunday.

3020 Series Best Score

A 279, a 745 and three team series of 3020 or better featured action in the Huron Bowl Classic last week.

Karl VanDeMoortell produced the 279, Mike Samardzija, Jr. had the 745 including games of 267 and 257, while Pontiac Window Cleaning led the team series with 3078.

★ ★ ★

Westside Mobil had a 3024 and Calbi Music bowled 3020. The latter also had high team game of 1128 as there were 14 team games of 1000 or more.

Jay Lovett produced the night's second 700, a 718 on games of 258-250-210. There were 18 other series of 600 or better.

269 Game Tops List in West Side Classic

Larry Crake's 269 topped a list of 52 games in the 200 category Monday night at West Side Lanes in the Classic League.

★ ★ ★

Crake's 647 also headed the series list. Les Rothbarth bowled 234—636, and Vince Spencer and Howard Menzies both had 256s.

The 300 Bowl team pushed its lead to nine games, and Sport Center Trophy replaced Colonial Lounge in second place.

Hennessey Leads All-Stars

DALLAS (AP)—Tom Hennessey became the proud father of a baby boy Thursday night and also scored best in the opening day of qualifying at the All-Star Bowling Tournament.

While the rugged Irishman was compiling a four game series of 926 in the $100,000 world series of ten pins, his wife was delivering an 8 pound 8 ounch son 642 miles away in a St. Louis hospital.

SINGLES CHAMP

Hennessey, current American Bowling Congress Classic singles and all-events champion, soared to the head of the 288 man field with games of 247, 218, 237 and 224.

★ ★ ★

His total was just two pins more than the series compiled on the previous squad by Daniel Boone, a relatively unknown bowler from Houston.

Carmen Salvino, 1961 Pontiac PBA open champ of Chicago, was third after the first of five preliminary sessions with 920.

The only former champion in the top ten was Bill Lillard. The handsome Dallas stylist who won the event in 1956 was tied for 10th place with Don Johnson of Kokomo, Ind., with 874.

Defending champion Dick Weber of St. Louis turned in a workman like 836. The spindly powerhouse is shooting for his third straight title, a feat which eluded the game's top bowlers in 23 years of All-Star history.

Don Carter, four time All-Star titlist from St. Louis, mustered a tepid 755 series and lay far back in the field.

Janie Lesczynski, a hard-throwing blonde from Milwaukee, powered her way to the top of the 144 member women's field with a first-day record of 663. Her 242-200-221 skein bettered the previous mark of 651 set by Jessie Miller of Buffalo last year. Harriet Kraft of Canby, Ore., took second place by tying Miss Miller's newly-broken record.

Detroiter in Finals of Golf Tournament

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—Dewey Bwoen of Atlanta, whose green game eliminated the defending champion, met George Haggarty of Detroit today in the semifinals of the Belleair Seniors Golf Tournament.

Bowen, 64-year-old retired sportswear dealer, defeated Clyde Haynie of Belleair 4 and 3 Thursday with short irons and putts.

John Mercer, a retired optometrist from Fitchburg, Mass. who now lives in Sarasota, played Richrd C. Owen of Dunedin in the other semi-final. Mercer defeated the medalist, L. W. Ramsey of New Castle, Ind., 3 and 2. Owen defeated James T. Kirkpatrick of Manchester, Conn., 3 and 1.

Scores Lower in Travelling Keg Classic

With few exceptions, the scores were down in the Pontiac Traveling Classic League last week; and there was little change in the standings.

The host 300 Bowl team held onto first place with an 11-6 win over Wonderland Lanes which fell from third to fourth. Runner-up Airway Lanes also won, 10-6, over Howe's Lanes.

Other results found Montcalm Bowling Centre advancing to third place by virtue of an 11-6 decision against Fairgrounds Bowl, Primrose Lanes topped Sylvan Lanes, 12-6, and Huron Bowl beat Cooley Lanes, 13-4.

Monroe Moore's 217—621, Walt Honchell's 230—612, Don Martell's 222-607 and A. C. Smith's 246—607 were the leading totals for the day's efforts.

The 11-team league race moves to Wonderland Lanes Sunday for action beginning at 1 p.m.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington Redskins announced today the signing of Bob Caldwell, Georgia Tech center-line backer who was a 1962 draft choice.

Baseball's Dizzy, Paul Enter Carpet Business

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—The Dean brothers, Dizzy and Paul, are together again but this time in a different business.

Dizzy announced Thursday that "me'n Paul" would work together at the Dean Poladian Carpet Co. in Phoenix. Dizzy recently purchased the firm.

Rams Sign Tackle

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League have signed Rowland Benson, a 225-pound tackle from Miami of Florida.

Benson was the Rams' first pick in the fifth round of the NFL draft a year ago.

Feuding Report Hits Boston Celtics Camp

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Herald reported today a major rift on the Boston Celtics, quoting club President Walter Brown as saying "Tommy Heinsohn is the number one heel in my long association with sports."

★ ★ ★

Heinsohn has been a major factor in Boston's five straight National Basketball Association championships and six world titles in the last seven years.

★ ★ ★

In a last edition story by Joe Looney, the Herald quoted Brown as saying: "I understand Heinsohn is coming in to see me. He's likely to find me unavailable.

"No, I wouldn't trade him but if I had a team in Honolulu I'd ship him there."

LEADING SCORER

Heinsohn, the former Holy Cross star who broke in with the Celtics the same 1956-57 season which saw Bill Russell arrive, has been the team's leading scorer several times. Currently he is president of the NBA Players Association.

Brown is irked that he didn't know in advance about the group's moves the day of All-Star game last Tuesday. The players, led by Heinsohn, called a meeting with league President Walter Kennedy in the dressing room just before the game and delayed the start of the contest 15 minutes. The major point of contention was a pension fund for which the group has fought in recent years.

★ ★ ★

The Herald said Brown had felt the delay was caused by an injury or faulty equipment and was most concerned about the paying customers.

Reached by Hugh Wheelwright of the Traveler, Heinsohn told that writer:

"I'm naturally upset.

"I hope to sit down with Mr. Brown and settle matters.

"I was only acting as an elected officer, not as a disgruntled Celtic."

Looney recalled in his story that a month ago Brown told a basketball writer's luncheon:

"I've always said that as Tom Heinsohn goes, so go the Celtics. Whenever we win a big game and the situation is properly analyzed, it turns out that Heinsohn's play was a big factor."

BOWLING

That new patch Ruth Reene is wearing so proudly on her bowling uniform is the Women's International Bowling Congress 100-plus award.

Mrs. Reene earned hers for a 221 game recently in the Auburn Lanes Thursday Trios League. She carries a 120 average.

A new candidate for the award cropped up this week at Sylvan Lanes where 128-average Patricia Hannum fired a 235 game in the Sylvan Manor Civic League Mixed Doubles Sunday.

The real noise maker at Sylvan this week, however, was 20-year-old Bill Webster who pounded out a four-game series of 932 actual — a 233 average.

He did it in the Senior House League Tuesday aided by 253-230-257 games. The latter boosted his three-man team to a 731 game.

HIGHEST

The four-game total was the highest in the league's five-year history.

Collier Lanes reports Don Gage's 258—619 bowling led Mr. C's team to an eight-point upset of the West Side Mobil squad, knocking it from the league lead.

★ ★ ★

Maguires Auto Service and Carlings moved into first place while Bill Sweeney had 256—638 for Lake Orion Appliance.

Jim Aleccia found the Fairgrounds Bowl to his liking for 265-235—693 in the Tuesday Morning League and 212-212—637 in the General Motors Proving Ground League.

Effie Kowal had 208—546 and Ina Downs 210—566 in the Wednesday Ladies House league.

★ ★ ★

The Dixie All Star League at Howe's Lanes had a 245—659 performance by Chris Nicholas and a 245—635 by Ken Elmquist.

The Ladies Doubles Classic had a high 202 game by Ruby Carmean and Ione Samuel hit 576. Hal DeLongchamp's 214—579 topped the men's Doubles League.

The Tuesday Waterford Merchants League posted a 256—669 duo for Art Latimer. Thursday Morning bowling saw Bob Garrett roll 256—643 scores.

Elaine Westerby became triplicate bowler with three 131s in the Ortonville Women's League last week. The Waterford Men's League reported a 231 for Howard Casey.

In Howe's Clarkston Men's League, Jim Napierski rolled a 275 game. A 136 triplicate was registered by Hans Scherb in the Friday Night House League.

The Senior Classic saw Ferrell Heating stretch its lead to two points, and Larry Meyers led the action with 233—631. Howe's Foursomes League had a 227 by Ted Tossey and a 638 by Don Hickman.

Clear Road Seen for Part of Romney Traffic Plan

LANSING (AP) — There appeared to be a clear, dry road ahead today for some proposals in Gov. George Romney's special legislative message on traffic safety.

★ ★ ★

In the same hour it was delivered Thursday, strongly worded bills were introduced by members of both parties along lines similar to Romney's proposals.

These would make safety inspections of vehicles mandatory and would assume that anyone who drives a car by that act gives his implied consent to alcohol tests of his blood, breath or urine.

CAUTION SIGN

The attorney general's office, however, held up a "caution" sign in front of the proposal to use highway funds for a freeway patrol assisting stranded motorists, and Highway Commissioner John Mackie cried "Stop."

Romney asked that $1.3 million be appropriated from motor vehicle taxes to finance a freeway patrol of 130 troopers who would also assist stranded motorists.

★ ★ ★

"We certainly would hope that when and if bills are introduced on this, we are asked to render an opinion because there are serious legal questions to be considered," said a spokesman for Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley.

Mackie, who was stopped by an opinion from Kelley from instituting a freeway service patrol manned by highway department personnel, said he had expected a "raid" on highway funds.

MORE POLICE

He described it as an attempt to use road-building money to instead "buy more state police," and predicted that if it is passed, subsequent legislatures will take more and more of the highway money.

The new bill on chemical tests would allow anyone to refuse to submit to an alcohol content test, but this would lead to automatic revocation of his operators or chauffeur's license. It is sponsored by Sen. Milton Zaagman, R-Grand Rapids.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Charles Youngblood, D-Detroit, introduced two versions of a bill calling for mandatory safety inspections of all vehicles at the expense of motorists.

Youngblood filed his bills before the content of the special message was known. He is also sponsoring legislation to raise the standards of police officers in counties, townships, villages and cities throughout Michigan.

CAALLED ATTENTION

Romney's message called attention to the fact that "the only local governmental units in Michigan with full-time training programs are Detroit and Grand Rapids."

Romney asked legislation to provide a police training program in nine regions under a $100,000 special appropriation to Michigan State University.

★ ★ ★

"The message seems to give the governor's office's support to both the mandatory inspection bills and the police standards bill," Youngblood said.

Secretary of State James Hare said he was well satisfied with the governor's safety message. He said he thought it closely followed many of the recommendations made in an emergency report filed by the State Safety Commission, of which he is chairman.

UP SERVICE

"For years now," Hare said, "traffic safety has been treated much like the weather—a great deal of lip service was paid but few persons seemed to be willing to do anything about it."

Hare said he thought this was an excellent start, but cautioned that the results of the program, if adopted, would not begin to become apparent before the end of 1964.

Hare added that he was a little disappointed that the governor did not recommend an immediate motor vehicle inspection program.

Another Democrat, House Minority Leader Rep. Joseph Kowalski of Detroit, was less enthused.

He termed the message "a hodgepodge of glib-sounding phrases with very little specific program and the means to follow through."

Kowalski said very few traffic accidents occur in areas patrolled by state police. Local police should be given more money for training, he said.

Alcoholic Ordered to Avoid Woman

MONTPELIER, Vt. (AP) — The former Vermont Democratic state chairman who publicly state chairman who publicly called himself an alcoholic is under a court order to stay away from a bar woman.

Judge Dale W. Brooks granted a temporary injunction against 46-year-old John M. Spencer and ordered a hearing Jan. 27.

The injunction was asked by Edward Isabelle, who contended Spencer's friendship with Isabelle's wife, Elizabeth, "is detrimental to the welfare and well being" of the two Isabelle children.

A divorce suit involving the Isabelles is pending.

The United States bought Alaska from Russia for more than $7 million. The treaty approving the action was signed March 30, 1867.

Mackie Honored for State Highway Progress

LANSING (AP) — Highway Commissioner John Mackie was praised Thursday for having "enabled Michigan to set an example for the nation" in roadbuilding.

Accolades for the highway commissioner came from all directions as some 2,450 persons—apparently an all-time record for such an event — turned out for a $10-a-plate testimonial dinner.

★ ★ ★

In the process, Mackie was given a new Buick station wagon. More than 1,000 miles of freeways have been built since he took office in 1957.

Said Thomas Reid, director of civic and governmental affairs for the Ford Motor Company, in one tribute:

SYNONYMOUS WORD

"The word 'freeway' doesn't exist in the 1957 edition of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. But today, thanks to John Mackie, it's synonymous with growth and development."

★ ★ ★

The main speaker, undersecretary of commerce Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., said Mackie's work "has not gone unnoticed" in Washington.

It is being used as a model, Roosevelt said, for the first stage of a five-year plan for economic development of the Appalachian region, an area which Roosevelt has dealt with as chairman of a presidential commission.

"What Mackie has done in Michigan is exactly what we are proposing for Appalachia," said Roosevelt. "It is recognized that highways are the way to open up communications."

He said a similar commission, which may be set up to deal with economic problems of Michigan's Upper Peninsula, plus Wisconsin and Minnesota, would find Michigan's road system a starting point.

Highway programs in the other two states have been carried out to nowhere near the degree that Michigan's has, Roosevelt said.

★ ★ ★

Plans for a presidential Commission to deal with the north country's economic problems—at the request of governors, senators and congressmen from the three states—were interrupted by the assassination of President Kennedy.

Roosevelt said he understood that the plan has been put in motion again.

ANOTHER CHANCE

Billed as nonpartisan, the Mackie testimonial nevertheless provided another opportunity—the second in two days, in fact—for Michigan Democrats to talk politics and look each other over.

At the speaker's table were three former Democratic governors, G. Mennen Williams, John Swainson and Murray D. Van Wagoner, plus members of the all-Democratic administrative board, and U.S. Rep. Neil Staebler, the party's only announced candidate for the 1964 gubernatorial nomination.

Most of these officials were also present at a Detroit testimonial dinner Wednesday for Aud. Gen. Billie Farnum.

Most clapboards are made from white pine, although cedar, cypress and spruce are sometimes used to make the board.

Temple to Sponsor Next Bloodmobile

Congregation B'nai Israel, 143 Oneida, will sponsor the next Red Cross bloodmobile unit to come to Pontiac.

The general public can contribute blood at the temple next Wednesday from 3-9 p.m.

Blood contributed can be assigned either to the temple's blood bank or to blood bank of the donor's choice.

Boys Learn Kitchen Arts

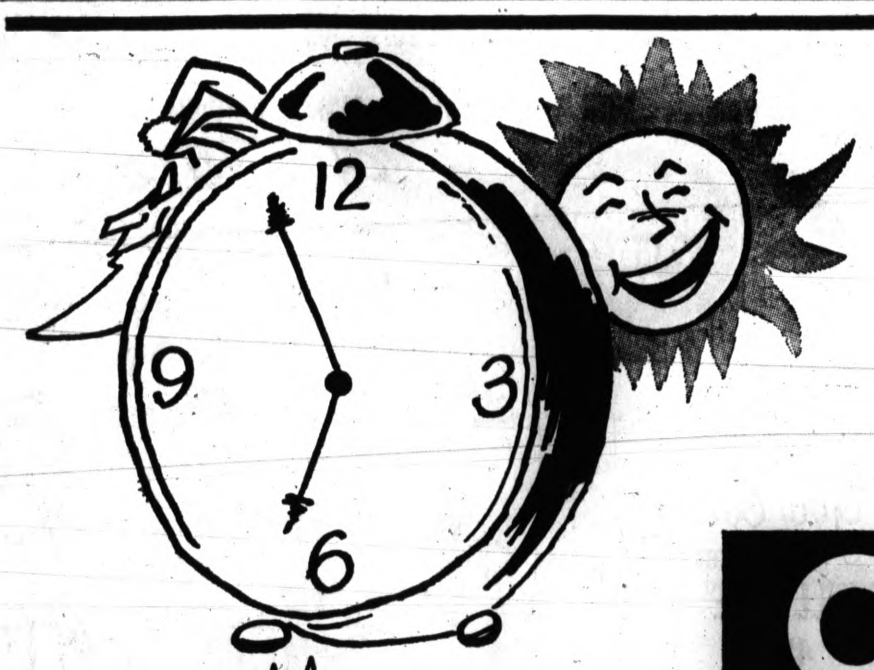

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — It's not "What's cooking?" but rather "Who's cooking?" that excites the interest of students at David Hale Fanning High School for Girls.

★ ★ ★

Seventeen boys are now studying food trades at the formerly all-girl school.

5 State Senators Ask Boost in Teacher Pension

LANSING (AP) — Retired teachers who served at least 30 years would get a $600 boost in their pension to $1,800 a year under a proposal by five state senators.

★ ★ ★

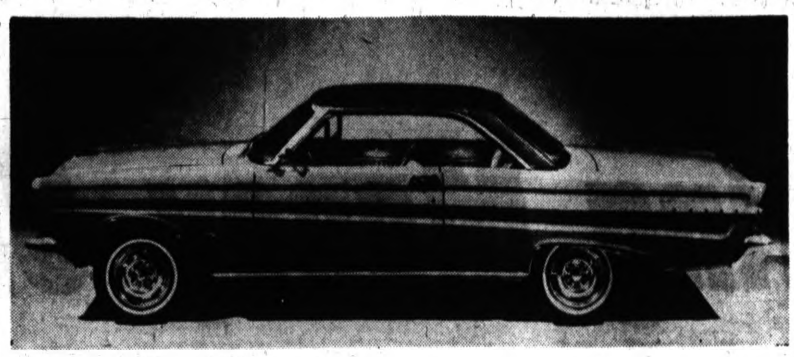

A retired teacher who worked between 10 and 30 years would be paid increased benefits under a sliding scale based on years of service. No pension would be less than $60 for each year of service, however, a rate that is $20 higher than the present minimum.

Sens. Kent Lundgren, R-Menominee, Gerry Brown, R-Schoolcraft, Harold Hughes, R-Clare, William Leppien, R-Saginaw and Charles McManiman, D-Houghton, sponsored the bill.

Missile Shot Tests Warhead Performance

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) —A Minuteman missile Thursday night completed a 5,000-mile flight designed primarily to check warhead performance.

Bail Lower in Death of Millionaire

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. (AP) — A judge who released Manola Gallardo on $5,000 bail said the murder charge against her in the knife slaying of millionaire yachtsman William A. Bartholomae is not as serious as charged.

Municipal Court Judge William Christensen granted half the $10,000 recommended by the district attorney's office yesterday.

He said he based his opinion on statements by both the prosecution and defense.

Miss Gallardo, 32, was placed in the custody of her sister's husband, Charles Bartholomae, who posted bail.

HEARING CONTINUED

Her preliminary hearing was continued to Feb. 13.

Miss Gallardo told detectives she struggled with the 70-year-old victim after she found him standing over her sister, Carmen, who had fainted, and concluded he had harmed her.

Miss Gallardo, who came here three months ago from Spain to help her sister with her new baby, does not speak English.

Charles Bartholomae, his wife, Carmen, 25, and Monola were staying at the brother's home at the time of the stabbing.

LBJ Eyes Gumbo— and Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has invited Sen. Allen Ellender to cook up some Louisiana gumbo at the White House.

The invitation came Thursday after Johnson pushed a button to lay the keel of the first highly automated ship at a New Orleans shipyard.

After his brief speech, Johnson began a discussion of farm problems and foreign aid with Ellender, Louisiana Democrat, who is chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, and a frequent critic of foreign aid.

★ ★ ★

Then reporters heard Johnson ask, "When are you going to cook me some of that gumbo I like?"

Ellender, a bachelor, said he would cook for the President anytime and anywhere Johnson desired.

"There's no better place than the White House," said Johnson. "Let's do it soon. We'll invite some other members of Congress and we can have a good long talk about foreign aid."

Ellender said the dish Johnson referred to was a creole gumbo —a kind of seafood soup—with shrimp, oysters and crabmeat.

The fertilized eggs of grunion develop in the sand, and when the waters of the next tide again submerge the beach, the newly hatched grunion swim out to sea.

New Vehicle Warranty

Buick Motor Division of General Motors Corporation warrants each new Opel Kadett motor vehicle and chassis including all equipment and accessories thereon (except tires), supplied by Buick Motor Division and delivered to the original retail purchaser by an authorized Opel Kadett Dealer, to be free from defects in material and workmanship under normal use and service; Buick Motor Division's obligation under this warranty being limited to repairing or replacing at its option any part or parts thereof which shall, within twenty-four (24) months after delivery of such vehicle or chassis to the original retail purchaser or before such vehicle or chassis has been driven twenty-four thousand (24,000) miles, whichever event shall first occur, be returned to an authorized Opel Kadett Dealer at such Dealer's place of business and which examination shall disclose to Buick Motor Division's satisfaction to have been thus defective. The repair or replacement of defective parts under this warranty will be made by such Dealer without charge for parts, and if made at such Dealer's place of business, without charge for labor.

The provisions of this warranty shall not apply to any Opel Kadett motor vehicle or chassis which has been subject to misuse, negligence or accident, or which shall have been repaired or altered outside of an authorized Opel Kadett dealership in any way so as, in the judgment of Buick Motor Division, to affect adversely its performance and reliability, nor to normal maintenance services (such as engine tune up, fuel system cleaning and wheel, brake and clutch adjustments) and the replacement of service items (such as spark plugs, ignition points, filters and brake and clutch lining) made in connection with such services, nor to normal deterioration of soft trim and appearance items due to wear and exposure.

This warranty is expressly in lieu of any other warranties, expressed or implied, including any implied warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, and of any other obligations or liability on the part of Buick Motor Division, and Buick Motor Division neither assumes nor authorizes any other person to assume for it any other liability in connection with such motor vehicle or chassis.

FAMED PYRAMID — The Great Wallendas perform their famed pyramid just before their tragic fall in Detroit in January 1962. Two of the men were killed in the fall and one permanently crippled. The girl on top, Jana Schepp, was caught by Karl Wallenda.

Great Wallendas Return to Detroit Tragedy Scene

DETROIT (AP)—The Great Wallendas, who stand in a pyramid on a circus high wire, return next Friday to the scene where the pyramid collapsed two years ago and two men died.

But it won't be their first performance at the State Fair Coliseum since their disaster of Jan. 30, 1962. Two members of the troupe were back on the wire at the next night's show.

★ ★ ★

Three men fell from the 35-foot-high wire two years ago as the Wallendas stood with four men on the wire, two on poles supported by the bottom men, and a girl in a chair balanced atop a pole supported by the middle men. Some 6,000 spectators watched in horror.

Dieter Schepp, 23, making his first public appearance in the act, cried out, "I can't hold on any longer," and the pyramid collapsed.

TWO MEN DIED

Schepp and Richard Faughnan, 29, were killed. Mario Wallenda, 24, now is paralyzed from the waist down as a result of the fall.

★ ★ ★

The girl, Christina Schepp, then 17, sister of Dieter, was caught by the head of the troupe, Karl Wallenda, who hung by his legs from the wire.

Karl's brother, Herman, also caught the wire and Herman's son, Gunther, managed to retain his balance standing on the wire.

★ ★ ★

Herman, then 60, and Gunther, then 34, were back performing on the wire the next night. Karl, who suffered pelvic injuries, returned to the act a few days later.

MUST GO ON

"We can't lose our nerve," said the 56-year-old Karl. "We must go on...This is the first time anything like this has happened in 38 years with the act."

★ ★ ★

Christina, however, quit the circus and went into theater work in Germany.

About a year later, the Wallendas performed in Michigan again—at Lansing—but the pyramid wasn't in their act.

★ ★ ★

Then, in April of 1963, death struck the Wallendas again. Henritta Grotofent, 42, a member of the troupe, fell to her death from a 50-foot-high pole on which she had been balancing.

PASSED OUT

Fellow performers believed she passed out atop the pole, since she didn't scream.

Karl, Herman and Gunther Wallenda were performing at Portland, Maine, that night.

The Wallendas didn't try their exclusive pyramid act again until last November, and immediately had a brush with death.

As the troupe members moved into position, the wire snapped. Six persons were hurt, although none was injured seriously.

WOULD HAVE DIED

The wire was only 12 feet above the ground. "If we had been high at least two would have been killed," said Karl.

The first public performance of the pyramid after that came last Nov. 20 at Fort Worth, Tex., with one major change—a safety net. There had been no net in Detroit.

★ ★ ★

There will be a net here next Friday, however. In the wake of the Wallenda tragedy here in 1962, the Michigan Legislature made the use of a net mandatory.

'Daddy-o, Your Jive Is Buggin' Me'

Teens Tire of Worn-Out Parental Cliches

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Parental remarks that teen - agers get tired of hearing:

"Aren't you ever going to grow up?"

BOYLE

"I don't know why he acts like that. It couldn't be his adenoids. We had those taken out years ago."

"When I was your age, young man, I walked four miles to school every day—and carried my little brother on my back when he got tired."

"No, you can't have the car tonight — nor tomorrow night, nor the night after tomorrow night."

★ ★ ★

"If that's mascara, Sue, wipe it off this very minute. Who are you trying to look like—Theda Bara?"

★ ★ ★

"Henry, if you worried more about your geometry and less about your acne, you'd have a better chance of getting into some college."

ONLY MOTHER

"Oh, don't bother to get to your feet just because I come into the room, Henry. After all, I'm only your mother."

"Certainly you can buy a jalopy if you want one. All you have to do is go out and earn the money."

★ ★ ★

"For heaven's sake, son, don't you have any other ambition in life than to go around looking like a beachcomber?"

"I don't know what gets into young people today. You can't tell them a thing. They know it all."

CAN'T DO BOTH

"Don't tell me you can do your home work and watch television at the same time. I know it can't be done."

"I didn't touch your razor. It was Henry. He thinks he's old enough to shave. Isn't that a scream?"

★ ★ ★

"Young lady, you're not going out with any idiot who sits outside in a car and honks the horn like a crazy person. Tell him to come up and ring the doorbell like a human being."

"Sit down, son. Your mother—uh—thinks its time I told you a few facts—uh — about life. Now, to begin with—uh—"

"Don't do like I do. Do like I tell you!"

"Turn off that phonograph. Can't we ever have a little peace and quiet around here?"

"The thing I don't understand about teen-agers is what on earth they see in each other."

"No, indeed I'm not going to pay for any judo lessons for him. If he wants to learn judo, let him join the Marines."

Junior Editors Quiz on LAUGHTER

QUESTION: Why Do We Laugh?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Experts say that laughter and smiles are the expression of happy or pleasurable feelings. Such experts sort out our feelings or emotions into two main groups.

There is the group of feelings of anger, fear hate. When we feel such emotions, bodily processes are speeded up; the heart beats faster, sending more blood into the veins, giving extra energy to use if we have to take some extreme action.

The other, more pleasant group is the one containing joy, happiness, love. Laughter is said to be connected with this group.

If we are very happy, the bodily processes speed up, too, but there is usually not much physical activity to be accomplished. The result is that we instinctively "work off" this extra energy by working our facial muscles with smiles or laughter or perhaps waving our arms and jumping around as the happy young folks are doing in our picture.

The sound of laughter is caused by the vibration of the chest from the abdomen.

Funny things also make us laugh. Jokes generally show familiar things in unexpected, ridiculous new situations. The same idea makes the clown funny (small picture).

But just why a thing like this should start a person's diaphragm vibrating is not exactly known.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: "What's the matter, son?" "Officer, did you see a lady without a boy who looks like me?" What are you supposed to do about this joke? Nothing—just let the old diaphragm vibrate.

Reds Ambush Viet Patrol

Recent Attack Heavy; Another Yank Killed

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Communist guerrillas smashed a South Vietnamese company in an ambush 20 miles northeast of Saigon Wednesday, the government disclosed today.

Government losses included six dead, 31 wounded and 39 missing.

A U.S. Army sergeant was killed by Communist groundfire today while aboard a helicopter on a combat operation 10 miles west of Can Tho, capital of the Mekong Delta.

★ ★ ★

The death brought to 95 the number of American servicemen killed in combat in South Viet Nam since 1961. U.S. service deaths from all causes total 169.

SERGEANT GUNNER

The sergeant, whose name was not announced, was a gunner aboard an H21 troop-carrying helicopter. The helicopter reportedly continued its flight.

There was no word that any U.S. military advisers were involved in the ambush Wednesday.

The attack by about 500 guerrillas was the heaviest in several weeks. The South Vietnamese company was ambushed as it entered a forest three miles from the town of Tan Uyen, at the edge of Communist-controlled territory.

★ ★ ★

The government said the company put up stiff resistance for several hours before it was overrun.

COMMAND ENDING

The government announced today it is dissolving the special command for the city of Saigon and suburban Gia Dinh Province.

Under the new arrangement, the province will be returned to direct control of the 3rd Army Corps, while the capital will be under the national military high command.

The move appeared another attempt by the military chief of state, Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh, to prevent forces in and around Saigon benig available for any rival.

The first general revision of the United States copyright laws since 1909 is being undertaken by the Federal register of copyrights.

He Commutes in Hurry; Flies Plane to Work

CHICAGO (AP) — Capt. Louis Meredith, supervisor of flying at O'Hare International Airport, lives 32 miles from work, but he gets there in 15 minutes.

Leaving his home at Orland Park, Ill., he climbs aboard his Cessna 180, rolls the ship around the garage parking area onto a grassy 1,000-foot runway, takes off downhill and lands at O'Hare a quarter of an hour later.

Hit Records Often Mailed In

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — Next month a royalty check for more than $100,000 will be heading in the direction of James Gilmer, 23, an Amarillo, Tex., singer who managed to boom in today's boom - or - bust record business.

THOMAS

Gilmer, backed by a lively combo called The Fireballs, rocked out a number called "Sugar Shack" that slugged the teen-age market for 1,200,000 discs, an amazing total in the single-record field.

The record came, oddly enough, from Clovis, N.M. It had been submitted to Dot Records by a music entrepreneur, Norman Petty. And that's how the business bounces nowadays.

★ ★ ★

Dot headman Randy Wood explained the new era in the oft-times mixed-up record industry:

"A large percentage of single records in the lists today are demonstration records that have been submitted to companies after they have been made. We receive anywhere from 25 to 50 of them a week at Dot, and I make it a point to listen to all of them. Once in a while a 'Sugar Shack' comes along.

ORIGINAL QUALITY

"These records are made by combos all over the country and might have been recorded in kitchens or bathrooms, often on home recorders. The quality doesn't matter; we never rerecord the ones we pick. It's that original quality we're looking for."

★ ★ ★

Among the Dot hits that came from demonstration records: Jim Lowe's "Green Door," which sold 1,300,000; Robin Luke's "Suzie Darling," 750,000; Dodie Stevens' "Pink Shoelaces"; and Lonnie Donnegan's epic "Does Your Chewing Gum Lose Its Flavor on The Bedpost Overnight?", a half-million seller.

★ ★ ★

Obviously it pays a record firm to open its mail. It might contain the next No. 1 hit.

★ ★ ★

"The system works out fine for both sides," explained Wood. "We have less overhead in producing records. And the people who make the record have less taken out of their profits. Of the $100,000 earned by 'Sugar Shack,' I doubt if more than $1,000 would be deducted for expenses."

Dot and other big companies have moved increasingly into the more stable album field. When Wood first moved Dot to Hollywood from Memphis, he listed 20 albums. Today he has a thousand. Album sales represent about 80 per cent of income.

Reds Return Body of S. Korean Pilot

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP) — Communist North Korea today returned the body of a South Korean Air Force captain whose F86D Sabrejet fighter was shot down by Red gunfire north of this truce village last Tuesday.

The body of Capt. Park No-suh, 30, was turned over to a representative of the U. N. Command along with some of his belongings.

The U. N. Command said Park flew into Communist territory because of a navigational error caused by faulty radio equipment.

Grain Future Prices in Weaker Trend

CHICAGO (AP) — Grain futures prices resumed their slightly weaker trend in very quiet early transactions today on the Board of Trade.

Wheat and soybeans declined major fractions in spots during the first several minutes, but other commodities posted only minor changes with activity almost at a standstill.

Near the end of the first hour wheat was ½ to ¾ cent a bushel lower, March $2.22½; soybeans ½ higher to ½ lower, January $2.76½; corn ⅛ to ⅜ lower, March $1.20⅝; oats unchanged to ⅜ lower, March 72 cents; rye unchanged to ¼ lower, March $1.53½.

But Trading Active

Mart Shows General Caution

NEW YORK (AP) — Aluminums, cigar issues and a scattering of blue chips gained in a mixed stock market early this afternoon. Trading was active.

Airlines, steels and most cigarette manufacturers were lower. Building material issues rose.

An air of general caution prevailed, ascribed to the coming weekend, the situations in Panama and Zanzibar and the relatively high level of the market itself. Some analysts looked for a correction despite the buoyant business news.

The market was mixed from the start and continued that way.

ALUMINUMS RESPOND

The aluminums continued to respond to price increases. The cigar stocks resumed their uptrend of this week based on the relatively mild treatment given them in the Government report on smoking.

★ ★ ★

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .1 at 290.3 with industrials up .3, rails up .2 and utilities unchanged.

★ ★ ★

Consolidated Cigar made another new high as it advanced more than a point. D. W. G. Cigar gained nearly a point. General Cigar edged higher.

Among the cigarette issues, Lorillard sank more than a point while R. J. Reynolds lost nearly a point and American Tobacco dropped another fraction.

AMERICAN EXCHANGE

Prices on the American Stock Exchange moved irregularly higher in moderately active trading. Rayette was up more than 2. Gains exceeding a point were made by Occidental Petroleum, Pyle National, Barnes Engineering and Fischer & Porter. Syntex and Philips Electronics remained untraded due to an accumulation of orders which could not be matched. Insurance Co. of North America fell about 2 and Berkey Photo was down about a point.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. Government bonds edged higher.

'Paragraph a Day' Can Help Reader

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed.D.

Dear Dr. Nason: Please advise us as to the best procedure to improve a child's "paragraph meaning" phase of reading.

Our boy is in the seventh grade. Recent achievement tests registered a reading level of seventh grade but the paragraph meaning fell behind 1½ grades and vocabulary ½ grade.

Our son is bored with remedial reading class. Are there other corrective measures I could take to help him?

Mrs. J.S., Sacramento, Calif.

★ ★ ★

Answer: With the combination of vocabulary and paragraph meaning to be improved I suggest the following procedure:

Have your son read a selected paragraph from a newspaper or textbook, studying it carefully so he can recite the meaning either to you, or to himself when he's finished. If he is puzzled by too many words, the meaning of the paragraph may not be clear until after a second reading.

Have him read the paragraph again, trying to understand it without concentrating on the words, one at a time.

Practicing and thoroughly mastering one paragraph a day in this fashion soon will bring results.

Dear Dr. Nason: We are having a difficult time with our ten-year-old son. His grades get worse each year.

This quarter, his marks run from B through D, with "shows need for improvement" noted in all areas of social development.

Left to his own resources, he does almost nothing. He lacks incentive and assumes no responsibility for doing his work.

I have to sit with him in order to get him to work. All he wants to do is watch television and play.

How can I encourage him to take an interest in doing his homework and school work well and not just skimming through it?

Mrs. S.M.E., Levittown, N.Y.

Answer: This may be largely a matter of discipline. Parents who have disconnected television sets, locked up automobiles and demanded attention to first things, have had spectacular success.

Ten-year-olds are too young to make their own decisions as to whether work or play comes first.

Dear Dr. Nason: My son, 13 and in the eighth grade, reads very haltingly and stops even at small words. His school counselor says he has a very good I.Q.

We have had him tutored in reading and he has taken a speed-reading course, but still reads slowly. He knows all the words.

How can I speed up his reading?

Mrs. R.R, Peoria, Ill.

★ ★ ★

At this age there is little, if anything, you can do to speed up your son's reading. He will have to do it himself.

If he is interested in speeding up, have him try this: Read an article of one or two paragraphs several times. He must practice recognizing immediately the meaning of each word without saying, or pretending to hear the word, as he sees it.

He may need to read the material 10 times to cut his reading time sufficiently.

He should keep practicing, using different material each day, and struggle to speed up, until his reading speed is adequate.

If, after a period of time, he shows little progress, consult a reading specialist.

(You can write Prof. Nason in care of The Pontiac Press: he will answer questions of widest interest in his column.)

"But partner! I held 100 honors," mumbled South.

"Honors are more dangerous to bridge players than auto accidents," said North.

JACOBY

Honors really had killed North and South this time. Or perhaps it was the fact that South, in common with many bridge players, wanted to play the hand himself.

A little consideration would have told him that his six spades would take six tricks at no-trump as well as at spades.

Of course, East and West had come up with a super defense against the four spade contract. It seems that West had opened the deuce of hearts!

It is a pretty good rule to avoid underleading aces against suit contracts, but this time West decided that he had a lot to gain and very little to lose.

The lead really gave South a problem. He finally played the three from dummy. East won the trick with his ten and returned to a club whereupon West underled his ace of hearts a second time.

South could have made the rest of the tricks had he played dummy's king, but South was looking at only two hands. He played the jack and East's queen and West's ace plus the ace of clubs gave the defense their necessary four tricks.

All very beautiful, but had North been allowed to play three no-trump there would have been no way to beat him.

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Saturday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Permit romantic side to come forth. Realize that even details can be bathed in an aura of excitement. Making others happy can assure your own well-being.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): Soft sell accomplishes much. Don't press too hard. Display sense of humor. Those in authority will be impressed. Fine for writing, traveling, pursuing creative efforts.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): Get practical affairs in order. Check budget. Money matters due to require attention. Remember resolutions. But don't attempt to find substitute for quality.

CANCER (June 22 to July 21): Stress IDEALISTIC approach. Best guide is "inner voice." Be true to basic convictions. Good for writing, communications. Protect your public "image."

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): Subtle influences surround you. There is something afoot. Don't jump to conclusions — take passive attitude. Wait, observe. You may receive surprising offer!

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): Permit INTELLECT to rule emotions. Avoid public disputes. Check tendency to become easily irritated. You can gain through unselfish attitude. Highlight MATURITY.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Take initiative. Display greater independence. Your natural charm can win the day — and evening. Don't be afraid to express original ideas. You will benefit as result.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Fine lunar aspect points to love, creative expression. Check necessary details early. Excellent for entertaining, attending social function. Day of GOOD CHEER.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Settle family differences in amiable manner. Share interests, hobbies. Find new basis for constructive relationship. Key is expansion, EXPRESSION OF IDEAS.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Resist tendency to scatter forces. Finish one task before embarking upon another. Fine for visiting relatives. Get minor matters taken care of — big ones take care of themselves.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Be aware of numerous POSSIBILITIES. Survey situation. Fortunate for speculation if you are perceptive. Family member's suggestion should be heeded. It can prove profitable!

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Idea offered by friend may contain much of value. Your cycle high — but you require COOPERATION. This may not be easy to obtain. Emphasize: charm and determination.

Plans Gone for Old Wing of Facility

County officials have a new problem today. Plans for the old wing of the Medical Care Facility have disappeared sometime since it was constructed in 1925.

The absence was discovered when the County Supervisors' buildings and grounds committee asked for the plans to study possible renovations in the old wing.

County auditors went to their files and came back empty-handed. Since then, they said, they have looked in every conceivable place—but no luck.

★ ★ ★

The fact that the plans are missing was reported to the ways and means committee when its members asked Harry M. Denyes Jr. for an estimate of how much it would cost to redesign the interior of the old wing for office space.

EXCEPTION NOW

He said the $2,800 appropriated for architectural fees would have covered the job, except for the missing plans.

Denyes said engineers will have to survey the building now before he can make any new estimate.

Goldwater Called Choice to Win Nebraska Primary

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater has decided to hoist his colors in Nebraska's presidential primary and a Republican colleague said today it should be a walkaway—perhaps a one-man race.

"Goldwater is the overwhelming choice of most Nebraskans" said Sen. Roman L. Hruska, speaking of his home state. "He is philosophically in tune with our people."

Hruska added he knows of no other candidates planning to enter the Nebraska preference test. "That's real Goldwater country," he said.

Goldwater prepared to head south today for appearances in Kinston and Fayetteville, N.C. But he kept his campaign aimed northward, on New Hampshire's first presidential primary.

His office announced a packed three-day campaign stint there beginning next Tuesday.

It will take Goldwater into some 20 communities, big and small, for speeches, strolls down main streets, talks to school pupils, handshaking in factories, and visits to general stores.

★ ★ ★

Goldwater plans to fly to New Hampshire at noon Tuesday. He will campaign into Thursday night.

Hruska and Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., both had urged Goldwater to enter that state's May 12 primary.

OTHER DATES

Goldwater's press secretary, Tony Smith, said Thursday the senator had decided to add it to his list. His other primary dates: New Hampshire, March 10, Illinois April 14, Oregon May 15 and California June 2.

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, only other avowed candidate for the GOP nomination, has entered the New Hampshire, Oregon and California primaries.

Smith said there has been no decision about a Goldwater campaign in Nebraska. "It would depend on the situation elsewhere" he said.

Nebraska will have 16 votes at the Republican National Convention next July, but they will not be committed by the primary.

Utah Gives Romney His 'Top Greeting'

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP)—Gov. Romney of Michigan arrived in Utah Thursday night to what he described as "the greatest welcome I've received anywhere."

★ ★ ★

Romney, often mentioned as a possible contender for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination, was greeted at the Salt Lake Municipal Airport by a sign-carrying crowd of about 200, which included many of his Utah relatives.

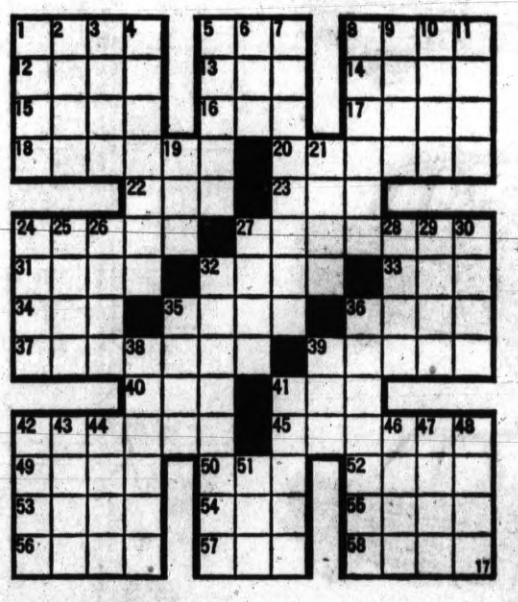

One sign read: "Welcome, Utah's native son."

The Michigan governor and Mrs. Romney left the airport for their hotel with Gov. George D. Clyde of Utah. The couple will be honored tonight at a $50-a-plate GOP fund-raising dinner. Romney will address students at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah, this afternoon.

Noted Doctor Dies

COLLECTION TIME — Two movie starlets who turned 21 were able yesterday to collect U.S. Savings Bonds put away for them under terms of their contracts. Stefanie Powers (left) holds $3,400 worth and Linda Evans has $2,800. The girls turned 21 last November and picked up the bonds at the Los Angeles courthouse.

Says Former Area Writer

'TV Should Interest Masses'

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK — "Network television is a mass medium and only justifies its existence when it interests the mass of people. It should not be expected to substitute for the roles of parent, teacher, psychiatrist, social worker, or even philanthropist."

That is the opinion of the well-known art critic and writer, Aline Saarinen, a former Bloomfield Hills resident, whose professional involvement with nework broadcasting goes back only a year.

Widow of the famous architect Eero Saarinen, she is a member of NBC's "Today Show," editorializing — often sharply—on art, contemporary design, architecture and allied subjects.

★ ★ ★

"There was a period when I, along with many critics of the medium, thought that if a program attracted only 1 or 2 million people—and was worthwhile, that it was justified," she continued. "I feel rather strongly now that if most people are looking at some one else's program and not at yours, it is the fault of the broadcaster."

RATHER DIRECTLY

She was addressing herself rather directly to the frequent suggestion that broadcasters should consult with leaders to find the best ways of serving a community's needs and desires.

"That would be fine if anybody really knew community tastes," she continued. "The fact is that all people like what they know. And it is also certain that most community leaders only know what the public ought to like."

BAD BALLET

Mrs. Saarinen deplored that in many areas, including Washington, television "gets good points if it puts on a ballet, even if it is bad ballet like that Stravinsky thing last year."

★ ★ ★

"Whereas it gets no points at all when it puts on a good 'Defenders' episode that comes to grips with truth, or a good 'Bonanza' that makes fine entertainment. We're still stuck, in many quarters with an attitude that a nonsponsored and sustaining problem is good, while one that is sponsored is undoubtedly popular, and therefore less good."

★ ★ ★

Television's real function, she insists, is "to mirror society—it can't be too far ahead of or behind the public:

"The only way to improve television is for the broadcasters to trust their own convictions and move ahead one step at a time, carrying public interest along with them."

SPECIAL PROGRAM

NBC, with Mrs. Saarinen as guide, will be attempting one of those steps forward Sunday night with a special program, "The Art of Collecting," which will permit living room audiences to see the contents of five widely varying private collections, ranging from that of New York's wealthy governor, Nelson A. Rockefeller, to paintings purchased over the years by an airline pilot and his wife.

Great White Way's Real After New York Blizzard

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—"Jingle Bells, Jingle Bells" . . . Ooops! . . . Right weather but wrong date . . . Actually, this "semi-blizzard" (what was 'semi' about it?) that you read about came on Russian New Year's Eve. Serge Obelensky and those other white Russians sure did get themselves a white New Year's . . . I mushed around in the snowdrifts on Broadway, freezing and shivering and getting my feet wet . . . "not one of my shrewder moves," as George Gobel says . . . Egyptian movie star Omar Sharif sat in Gallagher's talking about the beautiful weather in California—and Egypt. "I hate this," he said. "Are the Rex Harrisons still in there?" I asked outside 21. "They'd better be—I'm their chauffeur," a chap says. Inside Rex is drinking a midnight ale talking to Rachel Roberts about his next movie for Darryl Zanuck, "The Agony and the Ecstasy," in which he plays a Pope.

Says Training Ups Unskilled

High School Vocation Classes Criticized

EAST LANSING (AP)—High school vocational programs are creating future unskilled labor pools, says the assistant dean of Michigan State University's Education School.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Wilbur Brookover of MSU told a state advisory group to the U.S. Civil Rights Commission Wednesday that training acquired by a student in the ninth through eleventh grade becomes obsolete by the time he graduates.

★ ★ ★

He urged that more general education courses be taught to all students to provide basic knowledge of science, mathematics and language.

★ ★ ★

Reporting to the committee which is studying job training and placement for minority youths, Brookover said "by and large, there is a conscious discrimination between the so-called disadvantaged and advantaged groups when they start school.

GETS GREATER

"That disadvantage gets greater as they go through school, in many cases," he added.

★ ★ ★

"Because disadvantaged are assumed to have low academic ability, we are in danger of creating a new and equally vicious kind of segregated school system."

★ ★ ★

He said children from disadvantaged homes often are assumed to be incapable of learning.

"We must start with the assumption they can learn," he urged the committee, "rather than the assumption they can't learn."

★ ★ ★

Brookover also criticized intelligence tests as unfair, and called for tests based on a child's background to determine accurately the child's capacity to learn.

Massachusetts Group to Study Car Safety

BOSTON (AP) — Gov. Endicott Peabody will lead a delegation of legislators to Detroit later this month to inspect safety devices on new cars at several auto factories.

The Senate adopted an order Thursday authorizing the trip by the committee on highways and motor vehicles.

Nehru's Daughter Emerges as Political Possibility

By HENRY S. BRADSHER

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru's illness increases the importance of the woman at his side, Mrs. Indira Gandhi.

As Nehru's only child and closest companion, the 46-year-old widow has long supervised the living habits of the 74-year-old widower in an effort to protect his health.

Since a new sickness struck Nehru 10 days ago, she has sought to increase her effectiveness as his buffer against the world. Nehru must be spared the kind of excitement that the pressing problems of India often create for him.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Gandhi warns the few top officials who see Nehru not to tell him of some things. When the Calcutta religious violence began last week, she kept it from him at first and later tried to get Home Minister Gulzarilal Nanda to keep discussion of the subject brief.

TAKE OVER

Nanda and Finance Minister T. T. Krishnamachari have taken over Nehru's routine duties as a temporary arrangement.

Doctors have ordered Nehru to rest for a month or more and they reportedly do not expect to be able to allow him to resume his hard-driving schedule of the past.

This situation has created the possibility of a deputy prime minister as well as renewed talk of who will be the next prime minister. Here too, Mrs. Gandhi is important.

★ ★ ★

She has always said she has no political ambitions. Retirement to social work in some small town would be more to her liking, Mrs. Gandhi insists.

POSSIBLE SUCCESSOR

Nonetheless, she is much discussed as a possible successor to her father. Some Indian political observers dismiss the idea as impossible. Others are not so sure.

Solely because she is her father's daughter, Mrs. Gandhi has been prominent in Indian politics since 1955. She then became a member of the working committee that runs the mammoth Congress party, Nehru's political machine that dominates the Indian scene.

In 1959 and early 1960 Mrs. Gandhi was president of the party. At a party meeting last week in Bhubaneswar, she was reelected to the working committee with the highest number of votes.

★ ★ ★

Nehru, whose health has been declining for almost two years because of what is believed to be prostate trouble, with a related kidney ailment, was stricken in Bhubaneswar.

Mrs. Gandhi moved in. The prime minister's illness had one silver lining, Mrs. Gandhi told party delegates: Nehru was now forced to listen to her and to his doctors' advice.

She and the doctors had been seeking unsuccessfully to slow Nehru down earlier. Since his latest illness began Nehru has been resting.

The man who never seemed to have enough time to handle all the official matters that he wanted personally to control now sits in the sun reading novels.

★ ★ ★

His attitude toward his daughter's future role is unknown.

Some stories have circulated that he definitely wants to keep the prime minister's job in the family. Other accounts say Nehru remained silent when a party leader asked a few days ago about Mrs. Gandhi as a possibility to relieve him of some of the work.

One widely mentioned idea is for her to take over Nehru's additional job as foreign minister since she has traveled widely representing India abroad.

She takes after her mother, a typical example of shyly retiring Indian womanhood, who died three decades ago, rather than having her father's extroverted personality.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Gandhi's husband was Firoze Gandhi. An independent-minded politician, he was no kin to Mohandas K. Gandhi, the leader of the Indian freedom movement and the moving spirit behind Nehru's idealism.

SONS STUDY

One of Mrs. Gandhi's sons, Rajiv, 19, is studying mechanical engineering at Cambridge. The other one, Sanjaya, 17, is here awaiting the results of his secondary school final exams.

With the outlook of a social worker rather than a politician, Mrs. Gandhi says she lacks any fixed political ideology.

But, she adds: "I am anti-Communist."

★ ★ ★

Cases of her seeming influence on Nehru in the past substantiate this.

Fishermen Reveal Whale of a Story

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Two brothers fishing for salmon snagged a big whale.

Frank and Joseph Balestreri had cast many lines from their 35-foot trawler off San Francisco when the mammal surfaced beside them.

Tangled in the lines, the whale snapped them and one cut Frank's cheek.

"That mad whale got away with a lot of hooks in him," Joseph said.

Zanzibar Frees 2 U.S. Envoys

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department received word today that U. S. Consul Frederick P. Picard III, seized at gunpoint yesterday in Zanzibar, has been released and has reached Dar es Salaam, Tanganyika.

Donald K. Petterson, third secretary at the U. S. Embassy on the island, was released from house arrest, the department reported, but remained voluntarily on Zanzibar.

He is expected to resume contacts with the new Zanzibar government which ousted the regime that look over when Zanzibar gained independence.

The four American newsmen restricted by Zanzibar officials to their hotel are also expected to be released, but there was no word this had actually been accomplished.

Picard, who has been acting charge d'affaires in Zanzibar, was flown to Dar es Salaam in a plane provided by the Tanganyika government.

★ ★ ★

Picard had been seized in the lounge of a Zanzibar hotel in the midst of an argument with hot-tempered Zanzibar President Abeid Karume.

CRITICIZES NEWSMEN

The discussion arose when Karume stormed in to denounce the American newsmen for stories he said they had attempted to file on the uprising in the tiny country.

Picard tried to defend the four and Karume responded with an angry complaint against the fact the United States so far has withheld recognition from his government.

He shouted angrily at Picard that any remaining relations with the United States were now severed.

★ ★ ★

While in Dar es Salaam, Karume apparently read dispatches filed by foreign newsmen from Zanzibar.

NO TIME TO FILE

But none of the four Americans had had time to file any reports since their arrival by native boat.

"Why do you not recognize us?" Karume shouted at Picard. Then he hammered his fist into the palm of his hand and yelled: "You have interfered with our government."

The four American newsmen are John Nugent of Newsweek, William Smith of Time, Robert Conley of the New York Times and Peter Rand of the New York Harold Tribune.

★ ★ ★

5 Yanks Die in Viet Nam

Explosion Kills 4; Reds Shoot Gunner

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Five U.S. servicemen were killed and three wounded in combat helicopter operations over the Communist - infested Mekong River delta today.

The heaviest toll was in a turbine - powered UH1A that apparently exploded in an operation 90 miles southwest of Saigon. Four were killed and three wounded .

The other American killed was a gunner of an H21 troop-carrying helicopter. He was hit by a Communist bullet in another operation. He was a private first class.

The deaths brought to 99 the number of American servicemen killed in combat in South Viet Nam since late 1961. U.S. service deaths from all causes now total 173.

Earlier Story, Page C-11

ANOTHER CASUALTY

U.S. authorities also reported an American enlisted man was wounded in the chest Thursday at the mountain town of Ban Me Thuot when he accidentally fired his weapon in his quarters. His condition reportedly was not serious.

★ ★ ★

Saigon authorities announced that a company of Vietnamese troops was heavily hit in a jungle ambush 20 miles northeast of this city by a strong Viet Cong force Wednesday.

Government losses included six dead, 31 wounded and 39 missing.

Russian Craft Trailed Ships, Navy Discloses

Jet Bombers Flew Over Carrier Hornet; No Incidents Occur

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet jet bombers and Soviet warships boldly snooped close to the U.S. carrier Hornet and six destroyers during antisubmarine drills in the Sea of Japan early this month, it was learned today.

The Soviets were spotted by radar and kept under surveillance by Navy planes and ships.

There were no hostile acts or demonstrations and no contact between the Americans and the Soviets.

The Navy disclosed that several twin jet Soviet Badger bombers flew over the carrier task group in two flights—under the escort of U. S. Navy jet fighters which intercepted them some distance away.

★ ★ ★

A Soviet destroyer took up position about a mile from the 32,000-ton Hornet and stayed with the carrier and her destroyer screen for almost two days.

TOO MUCH SMOKE

In his report, the skipper of the Hornet complimented the Soviet seamanship but complained that the Red destroyer belched too much smoke.

A Soviet missile-firing submarine loitered on the surface within eight miles of the American task group, which included the Hornet and the destroyers Keys, Walke, Larson, Carpenter, Renshow and Radford.

A Soviet trawler equipped for surveillance stood within 11 miles of the U. S. carrier force.

★ ★ ★

This all happened in international waters, the Navy said.

It did not give specifics on the location, but the incident reportedly occurred between the Japanese island of Hokkaido and the Asian mainland.

NEAR RED AIRBASE

This would put the scene within a few hundred miles of the Soviet port of Vladivostok and well within range of Soviet airfields in Siberia.

The last reported overflight of a U.S. carrier by Soviet planes occurred last June 4.

At that time six Badgers—10-year-old bombers which fly at subsonic speed—sought out the giant carrier Ranger in the far Pacific some 330 miles east of Japan.

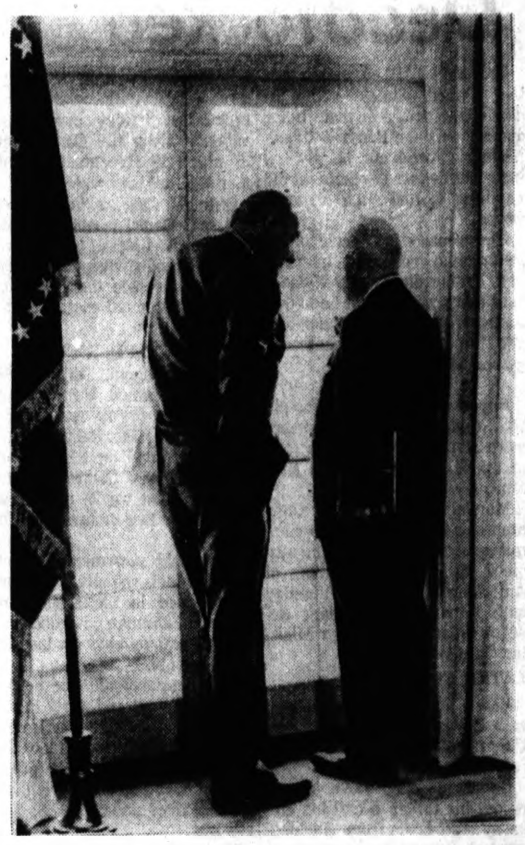

★ ★ ★

On that occasion, too, the oncoming Soviet planes were detected by radar. They were intercepted by the Rangers jets.

SHOW WEAKNESS

There has been speculation that the Soviet overflights were

Radioactive Element

New Smoking Danger Cited

BOSTON (AP)—Two Harvard scientists have posted another warning to cigarette smokers—a possible danger from a radioactive element.

Standing beneath a "no smoking" sign in a classroom at the school of public health, Drs. Edward P. Radford and Vilma R.Hunt, both nonsmokers, said yesterday they discovered a radioactive element in cigarette smoke which they believe may be a cause of lung cancer.

The element, polonium, is carried into the bronchial tubes and lungs by cigarette smoke, they said.

★ ★ ★

Their findings were submitted to Dr. Luther L. Terry, U. S. surgeon general, and were included in a report issued last week by his committee on health and smoking.

HEALTH HAZARD

The committee said cigarette smoking is a major health hazard.

The work of Radford and Mrs. Hunt on polonium was described in the report as an area needing further research.

Radford agreed.

★ ★ ★

"We cannot say at this time that we have proven that radioactivity is a cause of lung cancer," he said.

RADIOISOTOPES

Their report was described as the first to suggest that radioisotopes in tobacco could be involved in producing lung cancer.

The next step, Radford said, will be to determine if polonium, inhaled in smoke by cigarette smokers, does cause cancer.

Radford said he doubted that filters would effectively separate polonium from cigarette smoke. It would be more practical to grow tobacco with little or no polonium, he said.

★ ★ ★

The element is present in all green plants. But the body is so constructed that there is little danger when a plant is eaten, Radford said.

MORE IN SMOKERS

Radford said he and Mrs. Hunt found significantly greater concentrations of polonium in bones and teeth of smokers than in nonsmokers.

In addition, they found evidence that "the polonium content of the soft tissues of the body may be significantly elevated in smokers."

Firemen Ask Shorter Hours

Circulate Petitions on 56-Hour Workweek

A shorter workweek is being sought by the Pontiac Fire Department.

Petitions are now being circulated by fire fighters to place a proposal on the April ballot that would reduce their current 63-hour workweek to 56 hours.

The hours worked by firemen each week are computed on a yearly average.

★ ★ ★

Less than 1,000 signatures of registered voters are required to ask for the revision in the city ordinance, according to Gerald Fritz, secretary of the Pontiac Fire Fighters Association, Local 376.

SEEK 3,000

Fritz said that Association members are hoping to obtain 3,000 signatures before the petitions are returned Feb. 15.

"The 56-hour week should have been in effect years ago, Fritz said.

In 1950 the workweek of Pontiac firemen was lowered from 72½ hours to the present 63.

★ ★

Besides Pontiac, Dearborn is the only other city in the metropolitan area that now works at 63 hour week, Fritz said.

COMMISSION REFUSAL

Fritz said it was necessary to circulate the petitions because the city commission during budget hearings had refused to consider the shorter work week or place it on the ballot.

City Manager Robert A. Carter said that refusal of commissioners and administrators to consider the proposal was strictly a matter of economics.

"We are now levying the highest tax rate allowed under the charter. We have already made substantial cuts in services to balance the 1964 budget," Carter explained.

★ ★ ★

He added that the city was

32 Petitions Are Out for Spring Election

Interest in the spring City Commission election appears to be high, according to reports from the city clerk's office.

There are 32 nominating petitions in circulation currently, and one candidate has already filed.

To be eligible for the office of city commissioner, a person must be 30 years old, a citizen of the United States, a resident of Pontiac for five consecutive years and of the district which he represents for at least the last two years.

Aside from that, all that's needed is some paper work and some votes.

Anyone wishing to run for the commission must fill out a form indicating he or she passes the above qualifications and desires to be a candidate.

★ ★ ★

Petitions must be signed by a minimum of 25 "but not more than 50" registered voters in the candidates district, according to the City Charter.

DEADLINE

The form and petition are then submitted to the City Clerk. Deadline for accepting nominating petitions for the March 2 primary is Feb. 11.

Primaries are necessary only in districts where there are more than two candidates.

To date, only two incumbent commissioners have indicated they will run for reelection.

★ ★ ★

Following Monday's special election, Mayor Robert A. Landry (District 7) and Milton R. Henry (District 1) said they planned to run again.

ALREADY FILED

Norman L. Wittkop, of 1025 Argyle, filed a nominating petition last month to run for the District 2 commission seat.

Pontiff Calls Meeting First Step to Unity

VATICAN CITY (AP)— Pope Paul VI today exhorted all Roman Catholics to pray for Christian unity. He said his Holy Land meeting with the spiritual leader of world orthodoxy, was a first step toward a united church.

The 66 - year - old Roman Catholic ruler addressed an apostolic letter of exhortation to all his bishops, urging them to call for unity prayers.

His exhortation was made on the eve of Unity Week, an eight-day period of prayer jointly sponsored by Roman Catholics, Protestants, Orthodox and Anglicans.

Christians throughout the world are expected to participate in the Octave, as the period is called. It is an annual observance that takes on special meaning this year because of Pope Paul's historic Holy Land meeting with Orthodox Patriarch Athenagoras of Constantinople (Istanbul), the spiritual leader of the world Orthodox church.

Bob Kennedy Undecided on Vice Presidential Bid

TOKYO (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said today he has not decided whether he would accept the vice presidential nomination if it were offered.

Replying to a newsman, he said that he had considered his future for six weeks following the death of his brother, the late President John F. Kennedy, and had "decided basically that I didn't decide."

"At the moment, I plan to be the attorney general," he said.

Asked whether he had urged astronaut John Glenn to run for the U.S. Senate in Ohio, Kennedy said he had had "a number of conversations with John Glenn over his future." He declined to comment further.

Pressed to say whether he believed Glenn would be a good senator, Kennedy replied with a smile that Glenn would do an excellent job in whatever field he chose.

NO POLITICS

Kennedy emphasized that his trip to South Korea is not of a political nature nor concerned with any U.S.-Korean problems.

Korea President Chung Hee Park attended the funeral of the late president, and the attorney general will convey to him, as he has to Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda and Foreign Minister Masoyoski Ohira of Japan, his thanks for doing so.

Indonesian President Sukarno after meeting with Kennedy today, reaffirmed his intention of seeking a peaceful solution to the Malaysian crisis.

★ ★

Kennedy's press secretary Edwin Guthman, said after the 90-minute talk that the attorney general and Sukarno agreed the Malaysian dispute "should be solved by consultation."

Astronaut Enters Ohio Race for Senate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI)—Astronaut John H. Glenn today announced he is a Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate with a pledge to support President Johnson's policies if he is elected.

The smiling astronaut said his choice of the Democratic party was "a natural one," becuase of family ties but "careful consideration of the current positions leads me to the choice of the Democratic party.

"I believe President Johnson has presented a program for our nation which a majority of Americans will support. In the Senate, I would hope to be able to help him reach the objectives of that program."

Glenn's announcement at a news conference tossed the Ohio Democratic party into turmoil, because the party at its convention in the same hotel ballroom next Monday was all set to endorse incumbent Democratic Sen. Stephen Young for a second term.

JOHN H. GLENN

WINNER

The winner of the Democratic primary in May will probably meet Republican Rep. Robert Taft Jr., whose name is as famous in politics as Glenn's is in the space program.

Glenn said his decision was made after several weeks of careful study of the possible future courses but after this consideration, he decided to run for the Senate because it was "an area in which I have had a lifelong interest."

A Little Colder Tomorrow With Low Near 24

Cloudy and a little colder with a chance of snow flurries is the forecast for the Pontiac area tomorrow. The high is expected to be near 30.

The low is expected to reach 24 tonight.

For the next five days, temperatures will average about 4 degrees above the normal high of 33 and normal low of 21. Colder weather will move in about Tuesday.

Twenty-three was the lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a. m. today. By 1 p. m., the mercury registered 30.

U.S. Panama Deadlocked

PANAMA (AP)—Panama and the United States remained deadlocked today in their bitter dispute over the Panama Canal. Neither government budged an inch, but neither government did anything to make the situation worse.

High sources in American and Panamaian official quarters last Friday during the violence said there was a slight hope that some formula would be found to get the two governments to gether again.

★ ★ ★

Reports from Washington said U.S. diplomatic troubleshooters were working behind the scenes in the U.S. capital and in Panama.

Manuel Trucco of Chile, chairman of a U.S.-Panamanian committee established under the auspices of the Organization of American States, met Thursday with Panamaian President Roberto Chiari and Foreign Minister Galileo Solis.

LATER EFFORT

Later Trucco reportedly met with Edwin M. Martin, the chief U.S. negotiator, in the effort to resolve the crisis.

Chiari made no move to carry out his threat to call his embassy staff home from Washington and demand the departure of U.S. diplomats from Panama.

This would complete the rupture of diplomatic relations he broke last Friday during the violence along the Canal Zone in which 19 Panamanians and four U.S. soldiers were killed.

Official Panamaian sources had said Chiari would complete the break unless the United States agreed to negotiate a new treaty to replace the 1903 pact giving it perpetual control of the Canal Zone.

NOT UNDER PRESSURE

In Washington, the White House reaffirmed U.S. willingness to discuss all issues with Panama. But Secretary of State Dean Rusk told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee the United States would not do so "under pressure or threat of violence."

Rusk told newsmen his government feels the situation "can be resolved in the absence of violence through negotiations and discussions between the two governments."

A seven-party alliance opposing Chiari's Liberal party in the May 10 presidential election injected the canal dispute into the campaign by accusing the president of backing down from his original firm stand for U.S. concessions.

The alliance, backing the presidential candidacy of Juan de Arco Galindo, demanded a U.S. commitment to negotiate a new canal treaty.

2 Arrested in Detroit Snipings

From Our News Wires

DETROIT (AP) — Police held two Detroit brothers today for investigation of a series of snipings in which five persons were hit by pellets from a compressed air gun.

Officers said they found a 22-caliber pellet pistol under the seat of a truck driven by the brothers, Paul Fortin, 21, and David, 20. Police stopped the pair in the truck Thursday night and held them for investigation of felonious assault and carrying a concealed weapon.

★ ★ ★

A pellet taken from the clothing of one of the five men struck Thursday night was of 177-caliber, a detective said. No ammunition was found in the Fortins' truck, police said.

Two of the five men were treated at hospitals for neck wounds. Each of the victims reported hearing a sound like a firecracker exploding as he felt the pellet hit.

Lewis W. Bryant, 14, was treated at Receiving Hospital for a pellet wound on the right side of his neck. He was hit while standing on a traffic island.

Later, Alfred Soderman, 49, reported that a pellet passed through a sleeve of his jacket while he was walking on West Grand Boulevard.

Henderson Williams, 19, was struck on the left side of the neck while standing on a street corner.

★ ★ ★

Russell Cooper, 62, a retired Detroit policeman, was hit in the arm by a pellet that penetrated his jacket but did not break the skin.

And Kermit Munley, 50, was hit under the left arm while walking on West Vernor.

LBJ 'Dry Up' Edict Ignored in Capital

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson has failed woefully as a circuit breaker — that is, as a buster of the capital's famed cocktail circuit.

It is 17 days now since he issued an edict that struck terror into freeloaders.

He said he expected officials to stay away from the cocktail circuit because 1964 was going to be a busy year.

Some people feared this would doom a Washington institution because what is a cocktail party without officaldom?

But what are the results to date?

★ ★ ★

Nothing preceptible.

Bottled goods are rolling into Washington in customary quantities, by the carload.

CHEERY OUTLOOK

Posh caterers and hotel managers are cheery about the outlook.

In other words, the momentarily dismayed capital of the world has regained its aplomb.

Johnson's directive was issued through a high - level spokesman at Johnson City, Tex.

★ ★ ★

It came out, by coincidence one day after Johnson had made the rounds of four New Year's Eve cocktail parties — pardon us, receptions — at Austin, Tex.

SIPPIN' WATER?

It is not of record, of course whether the President sipped water or what.

As for the capital, nobody in the know expects any change in habits.

A reporter who phoned caterers and hotels noted a remarkable reluctance to be be quoted by name.

★ ★ ★

A winsome manageress of public relations at a big hotel, when asked yesterday whether the cocktail business was suffering, replied: "Oh, heavens no, but don't quote me." As a matter of fact, I think the President has been misinterpreted. I don't think he meant his aides to abstain altogether but just to be up to snuff when he needs them."

SAME AS USUAL

Some individuals were discovered who didn't mind being quoted:

● Johnny, a parakeet owned by a liquor dealer. He is a wise bird if he hasen't drunk too much gin—no fooling, he does indulge in the stuff.

Before he had his usual portion last night he was asked for a pronouncement on the Johnson order.

★ ★ ★

As interpreted by his master, Sidney Moses, the reply was "I foresee business as usual."

Pontiac General's Budget at $6.9 Million for 1964

The Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees last night approved a record $6,910,608 operating budget for 1964.

This is $596,358 above the 1963 budget.

Harold B. Euler, administrator, said the higher budget wouldn't require an increase in room rates.

★ ★ ★

The largest single budget increase is for salaries and wages of employes. The 1964 budget calls for $4,309,733 to be allocated for wages, $724,467 above last year's figure.

MORE EMPLOYES

This allows for about 36 more employes and includes a 1½ per cent pay hike across-the-board, exclusive of supervisory personnel.

Also included is $14,300 for the final phase of a three-year program designed to make step increases uniform in all classifications of the hospital pay plan.

The budget is based largely on an estimated average occupancy estimate for budget purposes in recent years.

★ ★ ★

Last year's budget was based on an estimate of 92.5 per cent occupancy. The 1962 budget estimate was 91 per cent.

WAS HIGHER

Occupancy was considerably higher than estimated in both years. Hospital capacity was 381 beds.

The hospital will have a 387-bed complement in 1964 due to alterations last fall which made space for six additional beds.

"If we equal or exceed 96.5 per cent occupancy this year, our budget will balance," explained Harold S. Goldberg, board chairman.

★ ★ ★

An average occupancy of 96.5 per cent is expected to produce $6,754,138 in net receipts for patient care.

OTHER INCOME

Operating income from other miscellaneous sources is estimated to be $156,470.

Euler explained that "while the increase in our occupancy estimate may seem sharp, it is based on sound experience.

"Actual occupancy has averaged about 4 per cent above budget estimates for the last few years and we see no indications of a letup."

★ ★ ★

The actual average occupancy was 96.37 per cent last year, 3.87 per cent over the estimate. It was 4.5 per cent over in 1962.

The hospital budget must now be okayed by the City Commission before it is officially adopted. No further action is required by trustees.

Firemen Ask Shorter Hours

under a financial strain just trying to hire recruits to fill current openings in the fire department and staff a new station due to open this year.

PROPOSAL'S COST

Approval of the proposal could cost about 30 cents for each $1,000 of assessed valuation if a maximum of 15 additional men were hired to handle the extra work load, according to Fritz.

"But again, it might not cost a thing," said Fritz. "If the men are not provided, it will just mean that we will have an additional work load."

The proposed workweek would amount to 15 additional days off a year for firemen.

★ ★

"The department would remain a two platoon system, each working 24 hours on and 24 hours off," said Fritz.

TOTAL COST

Cost of the shorter week is estimated to be about $57,000. The proposed 1964 budget does contain a contingency of roughly $80,000.

★ ★ ★

Carter, however, pointed out that "we may need this contingcy. Some departments have been cut back so drastically that they may not be able to make it through the year on their budget allocation."

★ ★ ★

The fire department budget allocation is about $56,000 higher this year than in 1963, mainly because of the new northside station.

Zoning Issue Not Clear-Cut

By PAT McCARTY

BLOOMFIELD HILLS—It's a question of aesthetics, the courts and the expectations of Bloomfield Hills property owners.

This combination tends to make the city's proposed zoning ordinance less than a clear-cut issue.

At its public hearing Wednesday night, the revised code met an evenly divided audience, but not vehemently so. The question-and-answer period was about an hour and a half long, with some parley between opposing factions on the City Commission.

★ ★ ★

A straw vote of the 125-odd residents attending gave little strategical strength to either side. It was not evident that any minds were changed.

★ ★ ★

With a final decision expected during or before the commission's next regular meeting Feb. 11, the five men are unanimous in their support of all sections but two.

3-2 SPLIT

There is a 3-2 split concerning desirable attributes of multiple-residence zones.

If the commission does not change its collective mind, Bloomfield Hills' new zoning ordinance will provide that multiple-residence property can have 4.5 families per acre rather than the present three.

The code also will allow construction of three-story town houses under certain circumstances, whereas the units are now limited to two stories for all practical purposes.

★ ★ ★

Favoring the changes are Commissioners Louis J. Colombo Jr., David W. Lee and James A. Beresford. Mayor Lyman J. Craig and Commissioner Henry L. Woolfenden would not alter the restrictions.

ONE ARGUMENT

One of the arguments used by the majority is that the three-story units could be more imaginatively designed than those presently being constructed. Making elevators more feasible, they would discourage the building of walkups.

With the approval of the board of appeals, a potential developer would still have to comply with a 150-foot-setback restriction and have at least a five-acre site.

The proposal would lead to the development of a more campus-like community, they say.

★ ★ ★

The commissioners agree that Bloomfield Hills residents, 70 per cent of whom own their own home, enjoy the luxury a "rural atmosphere."

HOW MANY?

But the question is one of how many people can be allowed to enjoy the spaciousness before it ceases to exist. The courts, they fear, may have something to say about that.

Bloomfield Hills could get by with restricting the number by families allowed per acre to three when the city didn't have a sewage system. But the health reasons are no longer there.

City Attorney W. B. Hartman thinks the present restriction is "indefensible" in court.

"I do not predict we can defend 4.5 with any greater success," he said. "But we can make it more palatable to property owners. We can get the property developed. It's a step in the right direction."

DIFFERENT FORM

Neighboring Birmingham states its restriction in a different form, but in one of its multiple - residence zones, it allows up to 36 bedrooms per acre.

★ ★ ★

In one of its single residence zones, it allows nine families per acre — twice as much as that proposed for multiple residences in Bloomfield Hills.

Using still another method, Bloomfield Township limits the number of units per acre to 29, a one-bedroom apartment being considered three units, a two-bedroom apartment four and so on.

★ ★ ★

However, its side-lot, setback and parking requirements could cut almost in half the 9.8 figure arrived at through the above calculation.

Proponents of the 4.5 figure admit that even that might not be upheld in litigation.

WORTH A TRY

But they think it's worth a try, considering as an alternative the high-rise apartments suggested by planning consultants Vilican - Leman and Associates, and a density figure which commissioners wouldn't even mention Wednesday night.

For Local Governments

Canvass Boards a Must

Only one of Oakland County's 93 local governments has notified his office of having complied with state law requiring appointment of a new kind of election canvassing board, according to County Clerk-Register David R. Calhoun.

★ ★ ★

Calhoun yesterday issued an "emphatic reminder" that the governing boards of all the county's 22 cities, 24 townships, 17 villages and 30 school districts must set up the new canvassing boards "as soon as possible."

"Some municipalities will be having elections soon," Calhoun said. "They will have to have these set up."

★ ★ ★

Calhoun said the one report of having appointed the canvassers came from a school district.

ALL REQUIRED

The new law, passed last month to implement part of the new State Constitution, requires every municipality to appoint two Democrats and two Republicans to a canvassing board. The law took immediate effect.

Canvassers are to be named from among applicants who file affidavits on forms provided for that purpose.

Unlike the old law, the new one prohibits local officials and members of their immediate families from serving as canvassers.

Another difference is that canvassing boards previously had only three members.

The law makes the same new requirements of counties. Calhoun said the county already has appointed its four new canvassers.

★ ★ ★

Vote Canvass Illegal? Won't Affect Election

The vote in Monday's special election in Pontiac was officially canvassed by the City Commission last night, but the canvass may have been illegal.

While no one is sure the canvass was legal, city officials agree it was most practical.

The problem revolves around a new state law which specifies that municipalities must appoint boards to canvass votes.

★ ★ ★

The new law went into effect Dec. 27.

CAN'T CANVASS

Technically, it would mean the City Commission can't canvass votes, as it did last night.

City Clerk Olga Barkeley, however, looked at the practical side of it. "Our office was not notified of the new law until election day," she said.

"We would have to make up applications, then accept them and the commission would have to select members of the board from the applications.

★ ★ ★

"This would normally be done before the election. After extensive discussion with county officials Monday, we decided it would be impossible to comply with the new law for this election."

COMING ELECTIONS

A board will be selected for coming elections, she said.

The lone certainty of last night's canvass was that Monday's charter amendment pased 8,861 to 3,375. The vote is final and official.

Magazines Too Sexy?

Police Eye State Newsstands

LANSING (AP) — Under orders from Acting Gov. T. John Lesinski, state police were to check some 47 state-owned newsstands today to determine if their magazines are too sexy.

★ ★ ★

The sale of allegedly risque "girlie" magazines in a stand at the state capitol touched off Lesinski's wrath Thursday and led to his demand for an investigation.

He said state troopers would not be acting as "censors," but only reporting on what kind of magazines are being sold at the newsstands, which are located in state, federal and city and county buildings across the state.

WANT TO KNOW

"If in the opinion of these police officers the materials are not fit to be sold in public buildings, we want to know it," said the lieutenant governor.

'From what I have seen, some of this stuff is clearly not fit," said Lesinski, who became acting governor when Gov. George Romney left for a two-day trip to Utah.

★ ★ ★

"If selling this kind of thing is a widespread practice, we hope to discourage it."

The newsstands are owned by the state and leased yearly to blind persons through the state department of social welfare.

PHONE CONVERSATION

Lesinski said he learned, in a telephone conversation Thursday with social welfare director Bernard Houston, that the state has "enough supervisory power" to have objectionable materials removed from the stands.

Houston also told Lesinski that a directive was sent out recently to all newstand operators to keep objectionable magazines and other materials from being sold.

★ ★ ★

Worst of all, Lesinski said, is the fact that the magazines are being sold at a newsstand in the basement of the state capitol, where hundreds of visitors pass daily.

Lesinski said he had stopped by the newsstand to purchase something else and noticed the magazines, and demanded of the stand operator why they were being sold.

DIDN'T KNOW HIM

"I didn't even know who he was," said Robert Haight, 35, who has been running the stand the last few days in place of his ailing sister, Mary Lou, the regular concessionnaire.

"I told him I didn't know anything about the magazines and he'd have to see the people who put them out."

★ ★ ★

Lesinski, apparently angry, told Haight:

"I may not be able to stop people from publishing this stuff, but I assure you there'll be trouble if they are sold here as long as I'm lieutenant governor."

Haight said he removed the magazines.

"I didn't want any trouble," he said.

"My sister has taken that stuff off the stand before and I know she always does if she knows it's there. But being blind, she can't tell what the magazines are."

★ ★ ★

Lesinski said he thought the blind concessionnaires were not at fault.

"It looks to me like they're being used as tools," he said.

Following his encounter with Haight, Lesinski dispatched his administrative aide, Ronald Zierbicki, and secretary, Barbara Fowler, to two other state office buildings to check the newsstands.

BEING SOLD

Both reported back that the material that might be considered objectionable is being sold.

Some Up, Some Down

Mart Slow in Jumbled Pattern

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market continued to show a jumbled pattern in heavy trading early today.

Key stocks showed gains and losses of from fractions to about a point.

Ordinary pre-weekend caution was increased by the touchy situations in Panama and Zanzibar, brokers said.

The cigar manufacturing stocks continued to improve. Consolidated Cigar made a new high again, rising about 2. General Cigar, after easing at the start, pushed ahead fractionally.

ALUMINUM UP

Aluminums continued to respond to price increases. Alcoa added a full point. Reynolds Metals and Aluminium Ltd. rose nearly a point each.

Cigarette issues continued depressed. American Tobacco and Lorillard eased. Reynolds lost a sizable fraction.

★ ★ ★

Thursday the Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose .4 to 290.2

Prices on the American Stock Exchange were generally higher. Most gains were fractional. Higher were Barnes Engineering, Rayette, Occidental Petroleum and Falcon Seaboard drilling. Trading in Syntex and Philips Electronics was held up because of an accumulation of orders.
