Did June Seem Wet to You? Wasn't Really---Ask Farmers

It may have seemed like it rained almost every other day during June, but it wasn't as bad as all that — it just seemed that way because we've had so little rain in the previous months.

Six-month totals for 1958 and 1957 show the past six months well below 1957 rainfall totals.

Those welcomed drops last month totaled 2.69 inches compared to 2.62 inches in the 1957 June.

Yet, we had exactly twice as many days of rain (36) last year from January to June, as we did this year (18) and . . . the rainfall was more than twice the amount at this time last year.

The figures to date for 1957 was 10.71 inches of precipitation compared with 4.64 inches this year.

June this year was quite a bit cooler than the last one. The average high in 1958 was 74.03 degrees compared to 78.10 in 1957 and the average low of these two months also indicates a cooler spell. 53.46 degrees in June, 1958 and 58.89 in 1957.

The amount and frequency of rain was negligible to farmers and gardeners but, the sportsmen with racquet, club or tow rope in hand had pretty good weather to test their athletic skills.

Yesterday, the last day of the month, was the warmest when the thermometer scooted up to 90 degrees. The 1957 high in June was 94 degrees.

That four lettered word, R-A-I-N and the insufficient amount of it this year still seems to provide a topic of conversation for Pontiac residents. The hope is this month the drops will be seen more frequently, in the nights and early mornings to help the farmers and gardeners but not during the days and evenings to prevent summer fun.

Hospital Ends Case Against Sullenberger

By PETE LOCHBILER

After clashing with two of Pontiac General Hospital's top physicians, Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger last night began his defense against charges by the medical staff that he disrupted efficient administration of the hospital.

With testimony by Dr. John J. Marra, chief of staff, and Dr. Harold A. Furlong, former chief of staff and head of the obstetrics department, the staff completed its case to prevent the ousted surgeon from practicing at the hospital again.

Angry exchanges between the three doctors marked the third session before the board of trustees, who are hearing Dr. Sullenberger's appeal of his Nov. 13 suspension.

Dr. Marra described the importance of accreditation to a hospital and noted that Pontiac General had been put on one year probation by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals in Sept., 1957, about 13 months after Dr. Sullenberger returned to its staff.

He called accreditation "the badge of approval," and said that "chaos might be the best word to describe what would happen to the hospital if accreditation were lost."

He said that without accreditation, Pontiac General would not be able to attract top flight doctors, nurses, interns and key personnel.

"There would be a terrible deficiency in providing good medical care," said the chief of staff.

Cross-examining Dr. Marra, Dr. Sullenberger said to him:

"If you say that I'm responsible

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Althea Gibson of New York defeated Britain's Shirley Bloomer today 6-3, 6-8, 6-2 and became the only American survivor in the singles semifinals of the Wimbledon tennis championships.

Barry Mackay of Dayton, Ohio, the last remaining U.S player in the men's division, went down before Australia's lefthanded Mervyn Rose in straights sets 6-2, 6-4, 6-4.

Disputes Having Title on Ballot

Kuhn Goes to Court in Attempt to Erase Lodge's Designation

Senatorial candidate Richard D. Kuhn went to State Supreme Court yesterday in an attempt to stop incumbent Sen. L. Harvey Lodge from having "State Senator" printed by his name on the Aug. 5 primary ballot.

Through his attorney William H. Wilmot, of Pontiac, Kuhn asked the court for a writ of mandamus asking the court to declare the act allowing the incumbent designation as unconstitutional.

The Legislature last year said any state senator or representative could request use of his legislative position on the ballot.

Republican Kuhn, 28, of 205 Gateway Dr., Waterford Township, said the law gives an unfair advantage to his incumbent opponent—also a Republican.

Wilmot said the high court probably would decide by July 8 whether the five defendants named should be ordered to show cause why the designation should not be prohibited. Defendants named were Sec. of State James M. Hare, Robert M. Montgomery, state elections director, and members of the Oakland County Elections Board, Judge Arthur E. Moore, Charles A. Sparks, and Florence J. Allen.

Sen. Lodge, 55, of 6610 Longworth St., Drayton Plains, said he had requested using his title because it was approved by the Legislature. "It sets you up there as a sitting duck and can go either against the incumbent or for him dependent on whether people like what he has done," Sen. Lodge said.

He, along with Oakland County Reps. Lloyd L. Anderson, of Waterford Township, and Walton T. McMahon, of Hazel Park, have requested the designation. West Bloomfield Township Rep. Farrell E. Roberts has not.

★ ★ ★

The Supreme Court must make a fast ruling on Kuhn's request as all primary ballots must be in the hands of county clerks by July 14.

Change in Sight for Flag's Blue Field

A STAR IS BORN — When Alaska becomes the 49th state of the Union, after a vote in the territory accepting the action of Congress in admitting Alaska, this is the way Old Glory probably will look. Former Alaskan governor, Ernest Gruening, points to the 49th star on this flag at Alaskan Statehood headquarters in Washington.

Territory's OK, Ike's Signature to Seal Victory

Bonfires, Golden Rivers Signal End of 42-Year Fight for Admission

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Alaska emerged onto the threshold of statehood today to a sunburst of predictions it will open a vast new frontier for expansion of America's population and wealth.

Delirious statehood supporters, their 42-year fight nearly over, could hardly believe it when the senate passed the statehood bill last night by an overwhelming 64-20 vote.

Unprecedented celebrations broke out in Alaska where a river was dyed gold, bonfires roared skyward and a beauty queen astride a fire ladder pinned a 49th star on a 40-by-60-foot American flag.

Administration sources said President Eisenhower is certain to sign the bill, a major triumph for one of the top items on his legislative agenda.

The House previously passed the bill and the Senate vote sent it to the White House.

The territory still must approve statehood in a referendum this fall. But this was labeled a "sure thing" by statehood backers. A proclamation by the President after the referendum will formally complete the statehood process—probably in December.

Proposals are already pouring in for designs for the new flag which will have 49 stars. A commission appointed either by the President or Congress probably will be set up to choose the design. The new flag would go into official use July 4, 1959.

Alaska's prospective statehood was seen as vastly enhancing Hawaii's chances of entering the Union as the 50th state, although probably not before next year at the earliest.

Rep. Leo W. O'Brien (D-NY), a leading backer of the Alaskan bill, said he was certain the Senate Interior Committee of which he is a member will approve a Hawaiian statehood bill a week from tomorrow.

But he expressed doubt of the wisdom of seeking House action before next year. There were murmurings of Senate action also this year but the best guess was that Hawaii would have to wait at least until 1959.

Alaska, more than twice the size of Texas, would be by far the nation's biggest state — in fact its 586,400 square miles equal one-fifth the size of the continental United States. In population however it would be the smallest state. Its 215,000

Cuban Rebels Hold 45 Americans

4 More Yanks Kidnaped

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—A rebel raiding party kidnaped four more Americans in eastern Cuba today.

Two U.S. diplomats sought the release of 41 other Americans and 3 Canadians seized since Thursday.

The four were abducted by rebels from a United Fruit Co. sugar plantation at Guaro, near Preston, on the northeast coast of Oriente province.

★ ★ ★

Company officials said the rebels entered sleeping quarters of the combination sugar mill and agricultural experiment station about midnight.

The four men apparently were selected at random.

They were A. F. Smith of New Hampshire, the agricultural superintendent; J. F. Stephens of Oklahoma, assistant superintendent; and two district superintendents, H. F. Sparks of Indiana, and a man named Ford whose home state was not learned.

Three Michigan men, two of them from Grand Rapids and one from Dearborn, are among the 41 Americans now held captive by the rebels.

They include a nickel company executive and two U.S. Navy men. They are;

Jay Poll, 40, of Grand Rapids, assistant manager of the Nickel Processing Corp., in Nicaro, Cuba. He was kidnaped yesterday with his boss, Sherman White, 52, company vice president.

Merritt H. Stuck, son of Royd D. Stuck, of Grand Rapids, a seaman at Guantanamo Naval Base, Cuba.

Robert A. Asfour, son of Mrs. Helen Asfour, Dearborn, an aviation structural mechanic third class at Guantanamo.

Hospital Delays on Wage Cuts

Blames Labor Minority for Holding Up Action Against Rising Deficit

Pontiac General Hospital today held off making wholesale wage reductions during the next six months and blamed a labor union minority for the delay.

The Board of Trustees' executive committee said it would temporarily refrain from further action to affect the cuts, ranging from 5 to 20 per cent of all salaries.

The union, Local 100 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes, AFL-CIO, was a wage contract with the hospital. It represents 263 of the hospital's 566 full-time employes, the hospital said.

However, the executive committee said that only 87 of the local's members were preesnt at a meeting at which i. was decided to oppose the pay cuts.

"This action by a minority of the union has caused a delay in the proposed salary adjustments," the hospital committee said.

A committee spokesman said that there were no plans "at this time" to force the cuts on non-union employes only. "That would be unfair," he said.

The proposed wage reductions are part of a plan to reduce expenses in the face of a mounting deficit, the hospital said. The executive committee yesterday estimated the deficit through June amounted to $82,000, while through May it was only $57,000.

In another step, the hospital closed down 25 beds yesterday at its annex in Oakland County Contagious Hospital and laid off 14 non-professional employes there. The rest of the annex operation is to be closed by Sept. 1.

However, the hospital continued to insist that wages were its main target for economy.

Open Quiz on Adams Right, Probers Agree

WASHINGTON (AP)—House investigators of the Sherman Adams case examined their consciences today and unanimously agreed they acted properly in hearing Adams' principal accuser, Boston financier John Fox, in public session.

Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark) gave this report after a closed session.

Most of the meeting, Harris told reporters, was devoted to future plans starting with the questioning tomorrow of Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine.

Fox, a business enemy of Goldfine, has pictured Goldfine as getting special treatment from federal agencies through his friendship with Adams, President Eisenhower's top aide.

Fox wound up his testimony yesterday with threats he would file libel suits against Adams and a lot of other people who called him a liar. Then he went to Pittsburgh where he loosed a new shot today at Goldfine.

This was a prediction in a statement that Goldfine will refuse tomorrow to produce books and records subpoenaed by the Harris committee.

Before Fox testified, Goldfine's attorneys urged that the committee hear him in a closed session. They said they expected Fox

Leaves Child, 3, to Suffer Heat

City Housewife Faces Cruelty Charge After Daughter Locked in Car

A Pontiac housewife today faced a charge of child cruelty after her three-year-old daughter spent more than three hours in yesterday's heat, locked in a foreign sports car while her mother shopped.

To be arraigned this afternoon before West Bloomfield Township Justice Elmer C. Dieterle was Mrs. Jack L. Voss, 24, of 500 Kuhn St.

Her daughter, Jan, "could have baked to death" as yesterday's 90-degree heat beat down on the child trapped in a German-made Isetta car, according to Bloomfield Township Police Chief Norman Dehnke.

Chief Dehnke said Mrs. Voss told him that she was punishing her daughter for chasing after her while she shopped at the Miracle Mile Shopping Center on Telegraph road.

★ ★ ★

The tiny car, which opens from the front and has a sliding canvas top, was locked tight except for two side window vents left open by the mother.

Clerks from the dime store in front of which the car was parked at about 2:10, attempted to cool the child by passing ater and wet towels through the vents.

Mrs. Voss, wife of a Center Line plastics company foreman, returned to the car at 5:25 to open the door. Police had been unsuccessful in attempts to unlock the only door by reaching through the vents.

Dehnke said the child had been left with only panties on.

The child was suffering from a heat rash when released. She did not require hospitalization.

Michigan Votes 'Yes'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Michigan Senators Potter, Republican, and McNamara, Democrat, both voted with the majority in last night's Senate approval of Alaska statehood.

85 Today, About 93 Tomorrow

OK to Keep Your Tie Off

Ties and coats were shed yesterday as the mercury soared to a blistering high of 90 degrees, making it the hottest day of the year so far.

But if you thought yesterday was hot—there's more to come. The U.S. Weather Bureau predicts mostly fair and continued warm tonight and tomorrow. The low tonight will be about 70 and the high tomorrow about 93.

Thursday's outlook is partly cloudy with scattered showers and thunderstorms and little temperature change.

Odds and Ends About Alaska

Extra! Extra! Cry the Newsboys

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — "We're In," proclaimed the Anchorage Times banner headline yesterday when Alaska was admited to statehood. It was set in type seven inches high—the largest ever used by the newspaper.

A full-color picture of the American flag adorned the front page of the Fairbanks News Miner special edition, which was flown by special plane to Washington. Every congressman will receive a copy from publisher C. W. Snedden.

The news broke after many Alaskan papers had already put out their regular edition and they swiftly published extras.

Radio stations periodically interrupted their regular broadcasts to bring Alaskans the long-waited news.

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — They sometimes called Alaska's attorney general "Doubter Williams" because he was so pessimistic about the territory's chances for statehood.

In fact, J. Gerald Williams was so positive Congress wouldn't clear Alaska statehood this session he offered to push a peanut 120 miles with his nose if it did—from Alaska's Tok Junction to Big Delta.

The Senate sent the statehood bill to the President yesterday, as Williams visited friends in Boise. His reaction? Unfettered joy, of course. But he added:

"Maybe I'd better get my nose in shape."

SARATOGA, Calif. (AP) — A strange flag—eight gold stars arrayed on a blue field to depict the Big Dipper and the North Star—fluttered proudly from the pole in front of 18650 Sobey Rd. here yesterday.

Breathlessly, Mrs. Michael Stepovich, wife of Alaska's 39-year-old governor, ran up the Alaska territorial flag when she heard the news of Alaska's impending statehood.

She is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Vuka Stepovich.

"When Mike took office a little over a year ago he said at his inauguration he hoped he would be the last appointed governor of Alaska," she said.

Mortars, Jets Pound Rebels

Advance of Insurgents on Beirut Turned Back by Heavy Firepower

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Jet fighters and mortars pounded rebels today in hills overlooking Beirut. The rebel advance toward the capital seemed to have been turned back by heavy firepower.

Mountain tribesmen who pushed into the hills five miles from Beirut International Airport were hit hardest around the village of Ainab.

★ ★ ★

The rebels, armed only with small arms, were brought under a steady barrage as the government swung up artillery, mortars, armored cars and jets.

The rebels were slowly pushed back in some areas.

The airport, which has not been closed during the fighting, seemed to be out of danger for the present. It is the only one in Lebanon from which the jet fighters can operate.

★ ★ ★

It was the second consecutive day of fighting in the area 10 miles southeast of Beirut. Irregular reinforcements moved up to the hills in overloaded taxicabs and trucks, singing political songs and waving their weapons.

★ ★ ★

The rebel attack yesterday was made by Druze tribesmen of Socialist Kamal Jumblatt who reached hill positions within five miles of the airport. The government forces dislodged them from a series of strategic spots, but the rebels hung on to some of the villages they occupied in the initial push. Shooting continued through the night.

★ ★ ★

It was the closest Jumblatt's mountain rebels had come to Beirut, but it was not considered a push on the capital. For one thing, Jumblatt's forces were using small arms and did not have sufficient equipment to challenge the government forces.

Also, the former premier, Saeb Salam, is the rebel leader in Beirut, where his forces dominate the Basta Moslem quarter.

★ ★ ★

Some observers thought Jumblatt might be getting ready to form the rebel government he has been urging and wanted to extend his territory as much as possible before doing so.

Possible Tornado Forecast Today in Upper Peninsula

By Associated Press

Severe thunderstorms and a possible tornado were forecast today for the Upper Peninsula, which was swept last night by heavy rain and high wind.

★ ★ ★

The weather bureau in Detroit said the severe weather warning applied in a 60-mile wide area along a line from Duluth, Minn., to 30 miles south of Marquette.

More rain fell in northern Midwest areas today in the wake of yesterday's storms but fairly pleasant weather prevailed in most other parts of the country.

★ ★ ★

Thunderstorms pounded the northern Plains and the upper Mississippi Valley yesterday and during the night. Strong winds, heavy rain and hail swept sections of the Dakotas, Nebraska, Minnesota and western Wisconsin.

Hail stones the size of golf balls pelted Lemmon, S.D. Winds were clocked at 50 m.p.h. Duluth, Minn., was doused with 2 inches of rain.

★ ★ ★

Strong winds also whipped areas in the central and southern Plains and the middle Mississippi Valley. Thundershowers hit western Texas and southern New Mexico and in parts of southern Florida.

City Hospital Concludes Case Against Doctor

Dr. Marra replied, "I made no such statement."

Dr. Sullenberger then called attention to the fact that branch of the accreditation commission, the Conference Committee on Graduate Training in Surgery, had placed Pontiac General's surgery department on three-year probation in March, 1957.

"This was about six months after I returned to the hospital, but the survey upon which the probation was based was made just after I returned, I believe," said Dr. Sullenberger.

He indicated that the probation had nothing to do with him.

Dr. Sullenberger, who is acting as his own counsel, then produced a letter of recommendation that Dr. Marra admitted he had written for him in Feb., 1955.

It said that the surgeon was "well-liked" by the interns and resident physicians; that they were "grateful for the knowledge that he was able to impart to them;" and that Dr. Sullenberger had "great respect from his patients."

Dr. Marra said flatly, "I wouldn't write the same letter today.

"I would say now that the men have found it difficult to get along with you; that you have disregarded all rules and regulations; that you have shown poor deportment; and that the hospital has suffered because of you."

Dr. Furlong, who has practiced at the hospital more than 20 years, then took the stand and said, "It is not right for a man to create a furor in the operating room when he's responsible to keep it running smoothly."

He and Dr. Sullenberger began a heated exchange about a man-to-man conversation they had in a hospital broom closet the day Dr. Sullenberger returned to the hospital.

"I was talking to you then for your own good," said the veteran physician.

"How many times have you talked to me since then?" asked Dr. Sullenberger.

"None, thank goodness," snapped Dr. Furlong.

At one point in the cross-examination Dr. Furlong said to the younger surgeon, "I'm under oath, but you're not."

The main point of Dr. Furlong's testimony was that hospital operating room schedules were disrupted because Dr. Sullenberger allegedly failed to show up for operations or to cancel them in advance.

Under cross-examination, he admitted that according to hospital rules and regulations, operating rooms are held open for tardy surgeons for a period of 15 minutes.

"You can't make the broad statement that cancelling operations is bad for patients," said Dr. Sullenberger. "There are many reasons for delays — some of them make the patients happy, some of them make them unhappy."

Earlier, Dr. Henry L. Jenkins, said that there was "tension in the operating room" with Dr. Sullenberger.

"At first you certainly did help me," said Dr. Jenkins, the chief resident physician, to Dr. Sullenberger. "But in the waning months, you contributed very little.

"I entered the operating room with you only as a duty and without complete relaxation."

He said that Dr. Sullenberger "was very difficult to satisfy in some instances on some days, and easy to get along with on other days."

The resident physican added that he had never heard Dr. Sullenberger use "extreme profanity."

The doctors were the last of 15 witnesses who were called in behalf of the staff by its attorney, Glenn C. Gillespie.

The main charges are that Dr. Sullenberger's conduct was "detrimental to the efficient operation of the hospital," in that he abused hospital personnel, threatened his fellow workers, disrupted operating room schedules and broke other rules and regulations.

Dr. Sullenberger opened his defense by calling his former Attorney, David C. Pence, and a friend, Raymond Rapaport.

Pence said that Dr. Sullenberger had been promised by former hospital director Carl I. Flath that he would not be suspended without a hearing.

Dr. Sullenberger said that one of his main points was that he was temporarily suspended without having a hearing first.

Rapaport said that in June, 1955, Dr. Marra had spoken to him favorably of Dr. Sullenberger's professional abilities.

Dr. Marra had earlier denied making such a statement.

Another of Dr. Sullenberger's witnesses was at the hearing but declined to testify. He is Cecil J. Harrison, of 269 Seward St. who is suing Dr. Sullenberger and the hospital for $100,000 as a result of a stomach operation performed on him last summer.

Harrison claims Dr. Sullenberger negligently left a sponge inside his body, which had to be removed latter.

Although the incident is listed in the staff's 14 charges, Dr. Sullenberger followed the advice of Gillespie and did not go into details about the operation.

He questioned, though, why the staff had included the charge, if it was opposed to airing it fully.

Gillespie replied that it showed that the hospital and doctor had been named in a law suit.

The next session was postponed from Wednesday until next Monday. Willis M. Brewer, board chairman, said that several board members had previous commitments Wednesday night.

Dr. Sullenberger said he had "only a few" witnesses left to call. At the conclusion of the hearings, the full board will decide whether to reinstate the surgeon or permanently suspend him.

Dr. Sullenberger asked for the hearing after his suit for reinstatement and $250,000 damages was dismissed from Circuit Court on grounds he had not first appealed to the board.

Adams Probe Head Calls Closed Confab

would defame not only Goldfine but others.

CALLS IT INCREDIBLE

And Adams has called it incredible that a congressional committee would permit a witness to give the sort of testimony that Fox delivered.

There has been other criticism of the committee for not invoking a rule calling for secret sessions when public testimony is expected to defame anyone.

It was in the light of this that the committee talked things over today.

"The committee was again in unanimous agreement that it could have done nothing less than what it did in holding a public session," Harris said.

Harris said there was no specific discussion of a contention by Rep. Thomas B. Curtis (R-Mo) that the committee had violated House rules.

Curtis made that contention in a House speech yesterday.

Curtis demanded creation of a special three-man committee to decide whether the rule had been violated, but he was ruled out of order.

It was learned that records subpoenaed from a Washington hotel confirm that both Goldfine and John Fox, principal accuser of Adams and Goldfine, were registered there on the 1955 day of a conversation about which Fox testified. Fox quoted Goldfine as saying Adams was going to help Goldfine out with the Federal Trade Commission.

But the records do not prove whether the statement was made. Both Adams and Goldfine have denied it outside the hearing room.

In Pittsburgh where he was to appear in U.S. District Court today on a private business matter, Fox issued a statement saying:

"I predict that Bernard Goldfine, when he appears as a witness before the House subcommittee. . .will refuse to produce the books and records which have been subpoenaed by the committee. It is obvious that the answers to many questions which have been so squarely placed before the nation can be found in Mr. Goldfine's records and those of his company."

The subcommittee finally dismissed Fox amid an uproar after three days of testimony. Fox named Adams, Goldfine and publisher Robert B. Choate of the Boston Herald and Traveler as linked in forces destroying Fox's former newspaper, the Boston Post. Denials flew heatedly from those named.

A lawyer for Choate, William J. Dempsey, jumped up from a spectator's seat at hearing's end and got into a shouting argument with Harris. Harris banged his gavel and called a policeman.

Fox, meanwhile, announced plans to file million-dollar libel suits against Adams, Choate, the Herald-Traveler Corp., Goldfine lawyers Roger Robb and Samuel Sears separately and another one against the two lawyers jointly.

And, with Dempsey's yell that "we propose to prove Mr. Fox is a liar, a welsher and a cheat" still ringing in his ears, Fox named Dempsey to his million dollar list too.

"All the individuals and the newspapers made thoroughly scurrilous remarks about me in writing," Fox added.

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty said Adams would have no comment. "How silly can this whole thing get?" Hagerty asked.

Gene Sarazen British Open Qualifier at 141

ST. ANNE'S-ON-SEA, England (AP) — Gene Sarazen, 56-year-old American golfer from Germantown, N.Y., who won the British Open Golf championship in 1932, duplicated a 35-year-old round at the Royal Lytham and St. Anne's Golf Club today and made sure he would qualify for this year's championship.

Sarazen shot 33-35—68 at Lytham for a 36-hole aggregate of 141, which easily qualified him for the tournament proper starting tomorrow. Sarazen also had a 68 here in 1923. He was the U.S. Open champion at the time.

Stranahan had to take a two-stroke penalty at the sixth hole, where he played the wrong ball. He also played in the rough throughout the round.

Mud Traps Man Fleeing Police on West Side

Jackson Prison parolee John Rhodes Jr., 29, of 66 Gillespie St., was captured by area police Monday after being trapped in knee-deep mud following a breaking and entering of a Keego Harbor gas station.

A Keego Harbor patrolman saw Rhodes fleeing the scene of the breakin on foot. Rhodes went to a nearby home and asked if he could call a cab, saying his car had broken down.

En route to Pontiac the cab was stopped by Bloomfield Police Sgt. Newton Tubbs. Rhodes leaped from the rear seat, grappled with Tubbs and fled amidst a volley of shots fired by Tubbs.

The bullets didn't stop Rhodes but the mud did. He ran into a swamp near Golf Drive and Telegraph Rd. where Bloomfield Township and Pontiac Police officers found him. He had lost his shoes and was stuck fast in the mucky ground.

Rhodes, who had recently served a burglary term, is being held at the Oakland County Jail for investigation of breaking and entering in the nighttime.

The Heat'll Git Ya . . .

TOKYO (UPI) — Justice Minister Kiichi Aichi took to his heels today when Mitsue Anekawa, a 33-year-old vagrant, entered his office, unwrapped a package and released a five-foot snake. Police said Anekawa might have been affected by the "intense heat."

Nab Ex-Golfer in Wild Chase

More Than 12 Police Cars Chase Speeder; 2 Officers Injured

A former professional golfer, Art Pomy, of East Detroit, led more than a dozen police cars on a wild 25-mile chase from Royal Oak to Pontiac on Woodward Ave. early today.

Pomy's car was finally slowed by a police bullet which hit the right front tire. But the speeding car didn't come to a stop before striking a Pontiac police car and injuring two officers.

Pomy, 46, of 16160 Toepfer St., told police, "I don't know why I did it." He was held for investigation of reckless driving, said officers.

The chase began at Catalpa Dr. and Woodward Ave. when two Berkley patrol cars noticed Pomy's car speeding northward on Woodward.

The two Berkley patrol cars were joined by five from Royal Oak, three from Birmingham, and two each from Ferndale, Bloomfield Township and Pontiac.

The chase went north on Woodward to South Blvd. and then turned southward back to Berkley at speeds of 120 miles an hour, said police. Some 50 shots were fired at Pomy's car, four of them plus a shotgun blast striking the vehicle.

The injured patrolmen, William L. Hargraves and Leroy E. Hartman, were treated for lacerations of the hands and arms at Pontiac General Hospital and released. Also involved in the chase were Pontiac policemen Dallas J. Flesher and James L. Batchelor.

Consumers Profits Go Up One Million

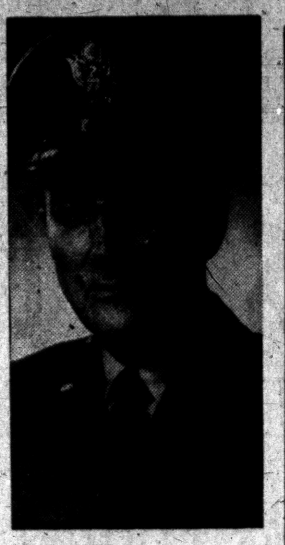

JACKSON (UPI) — Consumers Power Co. reported today net income of the utility of the 12 months ended May 31, after preferred dividends, was $28,833,367 compared with $27,845,211 for the previous 12 months.

Earnings were $3.28 per share on shares outstanding compared with $3.17 on shares outstanding on May 31, 1957. But on the average number of common shares outstanding, per share earnings for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1957, were four cents higher than per share earnings for the 12 months ended last May 31.

At the same time, Consumers Power announced all officers of the Michigan Gas Storage Co., a consumers subsidiary, were re-elected yesterday. Dan Karn is president of the subsidiary with Robert P. Briggs and John B. Simpson vice presidents.

4 More Americans Kidnaped in Cuba

before moving to Cuba five years ago. Relatives in Grand Rapids said they were told Poll and his family are believed unharmed.

No violence was reported during today's raid by a party of undetermined size. Guaro is about 40 miles west of Moa, where 12 engineers were seized Thursday night in the first kidnaping.

There was no word on the diplomats' progress in dealing with Fidel Castro's forces.

The rebel high command reportedly was considering whether to give up the servicemen and civilians seized in a series of raids in eastern Cuba beginning last Thursday night.

The decision was awaited by two U. S. consuls trying to deal with separate groups of rebels. U.S. Embassy sources in Havana indicated there might be some report today.

Park Wollam, consul at Santiago, in rebel-ridden Oriente province, was in contact with forces of Castro's brother Raul northeast of Santiago. Wollam was seeking release of 10 American and two Canadian engineers kidnaped Thursday from a mining development at Moa. The rebels have been quoted as saying these 12 were being well cared for and would be released soon.

Senate Vote Admits Alaska to Statehood

persons fall well below Nevada, now lowest with 256,000.

It would also plunk a state right on Russia's doorstep. Alaska's little Diomede Island is only 2.4 miles from Big Diomede owned by Russia, from whom the United States bought Alaska for $7,200,000 90 years ago.

Alaska will get two U.S. senators and one representative — bringing the Senate total to 98 and the House figure to 436. Alaska now has one non-voting delegate to Congress.

When the final vote was announced last night after five days of debate, cheers and a burst of applause rose from the Senate galleries where about 200 persons, many from Alaska, had come to witness the historic event.

Alaska's governor Mike Stepovich shouted "Thank God!" and declared:

"I believe we'll show the United States of America that we will be one of the greatest states in the Union within the next 50 years."

It marks the first time the United States has added to itself since Arizona became a state on Feb. 14, 1912.

With statehood Alaskans will be able to elect their own governor for the first time in history.

On the final vote, 33 Republicans and 31 Democrats endorsed statehood. Opposed were 7 Republicans and 13 Democrats, most of them southerners.

The assessments of what Alaskan statehood would mean for the nation as a whole ranged the full gamut from resource development to a re-birth of patriotism to an enhancement of international prestige.

Former Alaskan Gov. Ernest Gruening said statehood for the territory will "rejuvenate the pioneer spirit that made this country great."

The Day in Birmingham

Six Assessment Roles Approved by Commission

BIRMINGHAM—Six assessment district rolls, including five for street surfacing projects, and the water contract between the city and the Birmingham Country Club were approved by the city commissioners at their meeting last night.

The street projects include Pine, Willow Lane, Midland, Lakepark and Lakeside drives. The sixth project is for improvement of the Valley View Lane sewer.

John Brennan, country club manager, will be notified today of the 60 days extension of fire department service for the club, which is outside the city limits, pending a study of the value of the club's buildings.

The city charged the club $540 last year for fire protection, but City Manager L. R. Gare said a thorough study should be made and discussed with commissioners before future fees are determined. The formula used in the past, he said, was based on an estimation of the assessment of the club's buildings and multiplied by a factor of $2.30 per each $1,000 valuation of the buildings.

This is the rate of operating cost of the department.

Following the lead of the Board of Education, commissioners voted to remove the $1,500 contingent fund from the appropriation for operating the skating rink at Eton Park. The school board deduction was made in an effort to level its operating expenses to meet the reduction in county tax allocations monies.

Mrs. Hazel Lawler retired yesterday as secretary of the Birmingham Branch of the Federal Savings & Loan Association.

For the past several years, she had been manager of the association's Berkley office besides being secretary.

Walter Moreland, Birmingham branch manager, said the company is losing one of its most loyal, dependable and best informed employes.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Lawler, who lives at the Adams Court Apartments in Birmingham, was honored by co-workers last week at a dinner at Devon Gables. Planning to make her home in Birmingham during summer and in Florida in the winter, she was presented with a gift of luggage.

Miss Christine D. Backus

Service for Miss Christine D. Backus, 69, of 1220 E. Maple Ave., Birmingham, will be held at 8 this evening at Bell Chapel of William R. Hamilton Co. Private burial service will take place tomorrow at Woodlawn Cemetery in Detroit.

Miss Backus died Sunday at William Beaumont Hospital after a brief illness.

For the past 35 years she had been employed in the order department of Richmond and Backus Co. in Detroit.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Adele Fiske and a brother, Ralph H., both of Birmingham.

U.S. Refuses to Pay Ransom, Says Dulles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles asserted today the United States refuses to pay political blackmail for the release of Americans held captive in East Germany and Cuban rebel territory.

★ ★ ★

The government hopes to obtain release by other means, he told a news conference.

More than 40 American citizens have been kidnaped by Cuban rebels. Dulles said the rebels' purpose is to produce U. S. intervention but this country will not intervene.

'Past Peaks to Appear as Mole Hills'

Says Nation Heading for Biggest Boom

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Frederick H. Mueller, assistant secretary of commerce, said today the United States is heading toward a boom so big that the postwar economic peaks will appear as mole hills.

★ ★ ★

In an address prepared for the Milwaukee Rotary Club, Mueller said the Commerce Department projections, involving no guesswork and making full allowance for error, clearly show the ultimate direction of the economy.

"Under these conditions," he said, "I feel absolutely free in saying to you that this nation is headed towards the greatest period of economic activity the world has ever seen.

"Forthcoming is a period where demand for goods, services, and supplies will be so great that the peaks of business and industrial expansion we have seen in 1955, 1956 and 1957 will appear as mole hills," he said.

He didn't venture a prediction on when this boom might develop.

But he spoke in optimistic terms of present economic conditions and assailed "retailers of nonsense" who, he said, "did their level best to talk us into an economic tailspin."

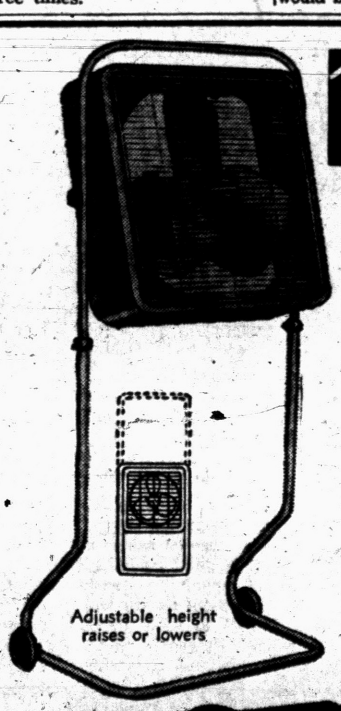

He said it is amazing "what a heavy psychological impact can be generated by a pack of self-styled 'experts' running around and shouting depression every time an economic indicator failed to hit the record level of August 1957."

Sales Tax Down $10.5 Million

State Financial Picture Darkening

LANSING (AP)— Michigan's dark financial picture grew even darker today as various state agencies reported on tax collections for the fiscal year which ended yesterday.

Heading the list was an estimated 10½-million-dollar dropoff in sales tax revenue.

Clarence W. Lock, deputy revenue commissioner, said collections would total about $298,500,000, compared with 309 million in 1956-57.

"Practically all the decline is the result of lagging sales in the automobile and building supply industries," he said.

Gov. Williams' budgetmakers a year and a half ago forecast sales tax collections for 1957-58 would soar to a record 348 million dollars. When automobile sales fell and a recession set in, the figure dropped to about 312 million.

The legislature based its 1957-58 budget on anticipated returns totaling 322 million.

Production slowdowns in manufacturing industries largely were responsible for a decline in business activities tax returns from $64,300,000 in 1956-57 to slightly less than 61 million this year, Lock said.

Use taxes edged down from $20,260,000 to $20,200,000.

Intangible tax collections at the same time mounted to a little over 24 million dollars, a new record, compared with $23,690,000 in the previous fiscal year.

Taxes from cigarette sales went up from $27,232,000 to $43,400,000, because of a two-cent increase in the three-cent cigarette tax which became effective last July 1.

"Without the increase, our returns would have shown a small decrease," Lock said.

Lawrence Gubow, corporations and securities commissioner, said corporation franchise fees should go up about 1½ million dollars over 1956-57 collections totaling $47,069,000.

Year-end figures aren't yet available on the state's profits from its liquor sales monopoly, but thanks to a new four per cent excise tax, returns will almost certainly show an increase.

Figures for the 11-month period which ended May 31 came to $47,091,737, compared with $45,382,889. More than six million dollars of the latest total, however, was the result of the excise tax which went into effect a year ago.

★ ★ ★

State Controller James W. Miller estimated the state entered the new fiscal year with debts totaling at least 20 million dollars. The total likely will run higher when 1957-58 books are closed later this summer, he said.

July Temperatures to Vary Across U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The weather bureau says its 30-day outlook for July calls for temperatures to average above seasonal normals in the southern half of the country from the Rockies to the Atlantic.

The bureau adds::

"Below normal temperatures are anticipated in the Plateau Region and also in states along the northern border from the Great Lakes to the Pacific. In areas not specified temperatures should average not far from normal.

"Rainfall is expected to exceed normal in the Upper Mississippi Valley, Northern Plains, and Pacific Northwest. Near normal amounts are predicted over New England, the Great Lakes region, the Central Plains, and the Gulf and South Atlantic Coasts. In the remainder of the nation subnormal rainfall is in prospect."

Falls Through Skylight, Gets Bump on Head

DETROIT (AP) — Repairman Walter Maguire crashed through a skylight in Detroit's Federal Building yesterday, fell 18 feet before bouncing off a filing cabinet and crashing to the floor but suffered only a bump on the head.

Serve Ice Cream Often in Summer

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Do you remember when dessert time had to wait while you ran to the corner drugstore for ice cream? When an ice cream cone was an eagerly anticipated treat? When you ate homemade strawberry ice cream at the church social?

★ ★ ★

Now, many families (ours included) keep a constant supply of ice cream on hand. We always have several kinds in the freezer. Ice cream is the perfect answer for dessert and for a snack. We let the Nine-Year-Old eat it anytime; it's such a pleasant way of getting extra milk in his diet.

With Independence Day coming up this week and a three-day holiday at hand, we think you may like some suggestions for serving this favorite American food.

How about a parfait with strawberries? Mix one cup of drained sliced strawberries with two tablespoons of orange juice and ¼ teaspoon grated orange rind. Spoon into tall glasses alternately with vanilla ice cream.

One quart of ice cream makes at least 4 parfaits.

An interesting sauce for ice cream is this one: Toss one cup shredded coconut with ¼ cup brown sugar and one tablespoon melted butter. Brown in oven. Cool. Watch it in the oven so that it doesn't burn.

Tall cooling drinks are always welcome on hot days. This one calls for lemon-lime beverage.

Snowy 'Mallow

1 cup miniature marshmallows
½ cup pineapple juice
2 tablespoons honey
½ cup heavy cream
1 28-oz. bottle lemon-lime beverage

Combine marshmallows, pineapple juice and honey in top of double boiler. Cook until marshmallows are melted, stirring occasionally. Cool; add cream. Divide among 4 tall glasses. Fill each glass with ice cold lemon-lime beverage. Stir gently to mix.

Your children will probably think you have lost your mind and will hope you never recover it if you serve them ice cream for breakfast. No less an organization than the U.S. Department of Agriculture suggests this for a summertime treat.

Choose one of the sugar-coated cereals, stir it into slightly softened vanilla ice cream. Top this with sliced bananas, strawberries or blueberries. Or top a dish of cereal with a scoop of ice cream and put the fruit on top.

★ ★ ★

Ice cream sandwiches may be made ahead of time and kept in the freezer. These are appropriate for a party. The guests will be surprised to have their dessert labeled with their names.

Ice Cream Sandwiches

1 (1 oz.) square semi-sweet chocolate
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 (8-oz.) jar marshmallow cream
¼ teaspoon vanilla
4 cups honey-flavored rice cereal
1 pint vanilla ice cream
½ cup heavy cream, whipped

Grease a 12" x 7-½" baking dish. Place chocolate and butter in a saucepan and heat over boiling water until chocolate is melted. Stir in marshmallow and vanilla and mix well. Lightly grease a large bowl and put cereal into bowl.

Pour the marshmallow mixture over the cereal and stir until all cereal is coated with the mixture. Press mixture over bottom of prepared pan. Chill until firm.

Cut the mixture in half lengthwise and then into six sections. This will make 12 pieces. Using one piece for the bottom, and one for the top, place a piece of ice cream between the pieces.

Write name of a guest on each ice cream sandwich. Makes six servings.

Skillet Beef Dish Prepared Fast

When spring cleaning, gardening and outdoor recreation take over, it's sometimes had to squeeze in the time for preparing that mid-day meal. That's when a fix-in-a-flash lunch comes to the rescue. Here's Chipped Beef Skillet Lunch. Everything cooks in one pan, and all the ingredients are the handy shelf-ready kind.

★ ★ ★

Chipped Beef Skillet Lunch

2 tablespoons shortening
¼ cup finely chopped onion
1½ cups condensed tomato soup (10½-ounce can)
2½ cups warm water
Dash cayenne pepper
4 ounces elbow macaroni
½ cup diced American cheese
4 ounces chipped beef, cut in pieces

Melt shortening in large, heavy skillet. Add onion and cook over low heat 3 to 5 minutes. Stir in soup, water and pepper, mixing until smooth. Bring to boiling, then add macaroni. Cover and allow mixture to simmer about 15 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add cheese and stir until cheese is melted. Then add chipped beef to skillet and heat just until beef is heated thoroughly. Makes 4 servings.

A pound of noodles will make about nine cups after cooking.

Gentle Burglar Robs Housewife —Gets Caught

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — He was a burglar and he had a pistol —but he had a gentle disposition.

Mrs. Troy Ritter found him in her home yesterday when she returned from an errand. She screamed.

The intruder, alarmed, hastened to assure Mrs. Ritter he meant her no harm. To prove it, he took all the shells from his gun and handed them to her.

He wasn't violent — but he still had his purpose in mind. He asked Mrs. Ritter for money. She gave him $3.

When he left, the woman telephoned police. Officers picked up Leon W. Guy, 30, of Circle Pine, Minn., who admitted he was the burglar.

Parents Save 4 Children, Baby Dies in Flash Fire

BAY CITY (UPI) — A flash fire killed 18-month-old Peter Michael Social today as flames held back rescue efforts of his parents who led four other children to safety.

The mother, Norma, said she was awakened by smoke at 5 a.m. She roused her husband, Edward, and they hurried outside with Linda, 6; Donna, 5; Jackie, 3, and Terry, 2.

The father suffered burns on the arm, chest and shoulders trying to go back for Peter.

Intense heat prevented firemen from five companies from entering until the one-story frame house had been leveled by flames.

Mrs. Eocial said she believed the fire started in the kitchen.

Fear Parents to Put Tot Up for Adoption

2 Sisters Flee With Baby Brother

SUN VALLEY, Calif. (AP)—"We are taking Baby Mike away. We won't let you give him away."

Two teenage girls left this note with their parents Sunday and disappeared, taking with them the 20-month-old brother they thought their parents no longer wanted.

Yesterday a patrolman found Sandra Hill, 16, and her sister Genevieve, 13, asleep under a tree in a Burbank park, about five miles from their home. In their arms was Mike.

The officer recognized them from their mother's missing persons report. At Burbank police station Sandra explained to a policewoman: "We had to leave and take Baby Mike with us. Mama and Daddy were going to adopt him out."

★ ★ ★

Police went to the Hills' home in Sun Valley and found out why the parents had talked of putting the baby up for adoption.

"I can't see any other answer," said Lyle Hill, 44, a carpenter. "I can't get a job.

"Counting Mikey, we have eight kids—and we live in a house that was made for no more than two people."

Rent on the one-bedroom home is due again Thursday. The current week's rent was paid by the Bureau of Public Assistance. But the bureau says it can't give the Hills relief payments because Mrs. Hill and the children only recently arrived in the area from Toledo, Ohio.

"I had to split the family up back there and farm out the kids," Mrs. Hill said. "We didn't want to do that again, and we thought we'd let just the baby go."

The three grimy, weary children went home in a police car. The girls said they had spent the night in an all-night movie and trudged through the hills, taking turns carrying their brother.

★ ★ ★

"I don't care now," Mrs. Hill declared. "We'll keep him." She told a juvenile officer: "We could make out all right if my husband and I had jobs. We're willing to work."

But Hill has other strikes against him. He is on parole from San Quentin Prison, where he served time for the theft of an outboard motor. And he has been in ill health lately.

He shook his head sadly. "It can't be done," he said. "The boy has got to go."

County Boundaries Up to Legislature

LANSING (UPI) — It's up to the legislature to determine the true boundary line between Wayne and Macomb Counties, Attorney General Paul L. Adams held today.

Adams, in response to a request by Auditor General Frank Szymanski, said the decision was "a legislative matter and not one to be determined by the application of legal principles or statutes."

Szymanski made the request at the urging of property owners along the boundary line.

The first boundary between the counties was proclaimed in 1816 by Joseph Fletcher, a U.S. surveyor. In 1918, George Dingman, Wayne County surveyor, and Walter J. Lehner, Macomb County surveyor, established a base line several hundred feet south of the Fletcher line. The Dingman-Lehner base line has been recognized since 1934 by the counties and other governmental units as the official boundary line.

Tonto Must Pay $625 to Woman Who Sues

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jay Silverheels, Tonto in the Lone Ranger TV series, must pay $625 to a woman who sued him for $25,000 after an auto accident.

Mrs. Eileen Kerr said she was a passenger in a car crowded off the roa dby Silverheels' car in October 1955.

Silverheels denied negligence. The judgment was returned against him by Superior Court.

Boy, 8, Hangs Himself Playing Cowboy in Yard

NEW YORK (AP)—Because of the danger of street traffic, 8-year-old Frederick Meyers' mother had told him to play in the back yard of their Brooklyn home.

Playing cowboy, he stood on a bushel basket, tied a clothesline to the framework of a swing and put a noose around his neck.

The basket caved in and the boy dropped.

A police squad applied artificial respiration for an hour but could not revive him.

British Plan Studied in Cyprus Settlement

While expressing dissatisfaction with the latest British offer of settlement in Cyprus, both Greece and Turkey are taking time to think it over.

Athens wants self-determination for the island's population which is four-fifths Greek. Turkey is holding out for partition to protect not only herself but the Turkish minority on Cyprus, 40 miles off her coast and 400 miles from Greece itself. Either of these solutions would most certainly bring on a war between the two countries, weaken NATO and threaten the British base on the island.

★ ★ ★

Britain's offer calls for sharing of sovereignty by the Greek, Turkish and British governments for seven years. It proposes an elected legislature and a governor's council composed of four Greek Cypriots, two Turkish Cypriots and one representative from Turkey and Greece.

★ ★ ★

Both Greek and Turkish Cypriots would conduct local affairs and the British would be responsible for defense and internal security. Security provisions would be relaxed and exiled Cypriots, presumably including Archbishop MAKARIOS, the island's religious and political leader, would be allowed to return.

★ ★ ★

No agreement could possibly satisfy everyone concerned. But it is to be hoped that reason will prevail and a compromise may be reached in settling this long drawn out conflict caused by extreme Greek Nationalists on an island which never belonged to Greece although 400,000 of its 500,000 population now are Greek.

Lebanon Rebels Bar United Nations Team

The fact that United Nations observers in pro-West Lebanon were barred from the Syrian border by the rebel leader would lead to the belief that help is coming from that direction to feed the fires of rebellion in Lebanon.

It would seem to confirm Lebanese reports that substantial outside help in the form of troops, arms and over-all direction is being supplied by Soviet-armed Syria. Rebels are in control of many parts of the country.

★ ★ ★

The Beirut government hasn't taken all out action against the rebels hoping the threat would disappear. Even if the U.N. could stop further help from Syria and Egypt, NASSER sympathizers inside Lebanon might be strong enough to overthrow the government, order the U.N. out and bring in whatever forces would be needed to consolidate their hold on the country.

If Lebanon should be absorbed by the United Arab Republic as a result of its campaign of subversion, inflation and propaganda, all other Arab nations in the Middle East would be in danger and Western influence would all but end.

★ ★ ★

This is why Secretary DULLES said in a news conference, referring to the EISENHOWER Doctrine for the Middle East, that the U.S. has "a mandate to do something if we think our peace and vital interests are endangered from any quarter." In other words, the United States unfortunately cannot at this point rule out the possibility of action outside the United Nations.

Federal Aviation Bill Now Before Senate

By endorsing the creation of a single independent Federal Aviation Authority President EISENHOWER has supported the main proposals of a bill introduced by Sen. MONRONEY.

★ ★ ★

Hearings on the measure, however, reveal that it does not give sufficient recognition to the role of the military. The bill calls for an administrator appointed by the President and a special military adviser appointed by the Secretary of Defense. President EISENHOWER had suggested giving the military an equal voice in setting up regulations and enforcing them.

★ ★ ★

This seems to be the wiser course and recognizes the role military aviation plays in peacetime and, more importantly, in emergencies or war. At present the military has 18,500 persons in air traffic control and navigation posts while the Civil Aeronautics Administration (CAA) has 17,500 in such assignments. Some of the service personnel handle civilian traffic under arrangements with the CAA.

★ ★ ★

The need for integrated authority over our airways has been tragically demonstrated many times. Legislation should be enacted promptly.

"Boy! Imagine Winning the Sweeps or Meeting Goldfine!"

David Lawrence Asks:

Agencies Don't Have to Kow-Tow

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court of the United States has just reaffirmed a principle of constitutional law that has a direct bearing on some aspects of the controversy over the Sherman Adams case. The principle is also related to the recent furor over influences exerted by members of Congress on the Federal Communications Commission, which awards licenses for television and radio.

LAWRENCE

It has been erroneously assumed in the last few weeks in some quarters that the White House exercises some sort of control over the tenure of members of the independent agencies, such as the Federal Trade Commission or the Securities and Exchange Commission. It has been charged by critics that a telephone call from the executive offices merely inquiring about a pending matter could cause a commissioner to tremble because he might be summarily removed.

★ ★ ★

But the Supreme Court on Monday of this week, in a unanimous opinion, says that, where Congress by law does not specify a cause for removal, the members of quasi-judicial commissions cannot be dismissed by the President and that they do not, therefore, hold office subject to his will.

Justice Frankfurter, who wrote the 9-to-0 opinion, went somewhat further than did the Supreme Court 23 years ago when it ruled that members of the independent commissions could be removed only for the causes specified by Congress.

Justice Frankfurter's opinion of this week says that the members of these commissions cannot be removed by the President during their term of office even when Congress fails to specify any causes for removal.

A president's power of removal had never in the history of the United States been the subject of any exhaustive study by the Supreme Court until Oct. 25, 1926, when it was held that the chief executive could remove a postmaster at will. From this, it was inferred thereafter that he could remove all other officials of the federal agencies as well.

Chief Justice Taft, who had himself been President, handed down the decision in the famous Myers case. He ruled, in effect, that a president has an inherent constitutional power of removal of all officials even when they have "duties of a quasi-judicial character." This was supposed to flow from the President's power to see that "the laws be faithfully executed."

Then came the historic decision of May 27, 1935, when by 9 to 0 the Supreme Court justices overruled President Franklin D. Roosevelt's dismissal of William E. Humphrey, a member of the Federal Trade Commission whose term had not then expired. Roosevelt said that Humphrey was all right except that his mind "did not go along" with the President's and he wanted a man of his own selection.

HEIRS SUED

By the time the case was decided Humphrey had died, but his heirs had sued in the Court of Claims for back salary and this was awarded in the 1935 decision. The Supreme Court insisted that the Myers opinion of 1926 applied only to "all purely executive officers" and did not apply to members of quasi-judicial commissions like the Federal Trade Commission.

The court expressly disapproved of the concept in the Myers case concerning a president's inherent constitutional power of removal.

The case before the court this week concerned Myron Wiener, a member of the War Claims Commission who was removed on Dec. 10, 1953, by President Eisenhower. Congress had not specified by law any grounds for removal of the commissioner but did say the commission was to "adjudicate according to law," and that the commission was to be "entirely free from the control or coercive influence, direct or indirect," of either the executive or Congress.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Don't Become Dodderer for Lack of Exercise

The exercises as described and illustrated in booklet The Last Brady Symphony (35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope) constitute a fair daily ration for persons who have not yet passed their peak.

DR. BRADY

I'd rather evade the issue or tell a lie about it than say anything which may make anybody unhappy. But I hope this will make a good many readers happy: No calisthenic, gymnastic or formal setting-up exercises can do one more good than two to six miles of oxygen on the hoof every day. Walking, that is—brisk walking, not lolling, sauntering or window-shopping.

Students, clerical workers, professional workers, stenographers, executives, teachers, salespeople, actors, musicians, tailors, checkers, bookkeepers and the like err grievously when at the end of the day they RIDE home and flop down, "wore to a frazzle," to rest. A much better rest, more refreshing, more restorative, would be a two or three mile walk.

The sedentary person who has a stupid notion that white collar occupations use up "nerve energy" ought to review elementary physiology and learn that half of a peanut will supply all the energy required for two hours of brain work.

Doddering, I believe, begins earlier in persons of sedentary habit, later in persons who get a reasonable amount of general exercise every day; earlier in persons who ride to and from office or store, later in those who walk to work as a matter of habit; earlier in women who have servants, later in women who do their own housework.

A subtle early sign of doddering is slow reaction time. For instance, application of the brake one or two tenths of a second, as measured by stop watch, slower than is necessary for safe driving.

But please don't quote me as authority — not to the dodderer, anyway. Nothing annoys a dodderer more than the suggestion or hint that he or she is not so chipper.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

"For some time have been going to a specialist twice a year for fluoroscope and electrocardiogram. He asks a few questions, hands me a report of the fluoroscope and electrocardiogram which is meaningless to me, and charges me $25 What good can this do a person? (R. R.)

Answer—It does seem expensive entertainment, but a lot of Yankee Wiseacres just love it. The more Rube Goldberg fitments the trick specialist flashes on the customers, the more impressed they are. Why not consult a reputable physician in your neighborhood next time you want medical or health advice?

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

'Modern Woman's Clothes Go Against God's Laws'

"The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment, for all that do so are abomination unto the Lord thy God." Deuteronomy 22:5. I do not find in the Bible that God has ever set aside this rule of moral conduct.

★ ★ ★

God must behold with extreme disfavor and disgust the numerous abominations and prevalent immodesty among women and girls who wear shorts, slacks, jeans, overalls, dungarees, riding habits, even those who profess to love God and claim to obey his precepts. This along with wearing short skirts, sleeveless and low-necked dresses.

★ ★ ★

We're told these articles of mannish garb are designed and made for women and girls. However, the New Testament says abstain from all appearance of evil. Why don't ministers preach on these and kindred Scriptures? Are these demands of Scriptural admonitions dead, obsolete documents or are they in force now? They are very necessary for proper Christian deportment.

Attorney States Position in Case

Since my action in bringing suit against the City of Pontiac et. al, in behalf of four police officers has been made a topic of editorial inquiry, I feel constrained to supply the answers to the questions raised.

First of all, the suit in question is not a suit against the City Commission, but against the City of Pontiac, Mr. Willman and Chief Straley.

★ ★ ★

Secondly, I was elected a City Commissioner for the purpose of making policy and legislative decisions. City Commissioners, by charter, have nothing whatever to do with administrative matters and are prohibited from interfering with the administrative operation of the City through any personal directive.

Administrative officials and employes, all under the City Manager, have sole responsibility for administration of the various departments of the City, and those officials are required to act fairly, impartially, and in strict accord with the terms of the law, so far as it relates to their several responsibilities.

★ ★ ★

So far as I am concerned when City officials fail to comply with the law, when I, as an attorney, am engaged by the injured party, I will have absolutely no reluctance about bringing suit against the City and any other wrongdoers; and I certainly do not feel this position in any way compromises my bath as a Commissioner, or the duty or loyalty I owe this City.

★ ★ ★

I know of no reason why a lawyer who incidentally happens to be a City Commissioner should refrain from the exercise of his profession, where his duty dictates its exercise, and I might say I have no intention whatever, because I have been elected to the City Commission, of betraying what I conceive to be right under the Constitution and laws of this state, in order that the City of Pontiac, or any official thereof, may persist in clear cut, patent wrongdoing to the detriment of any citizen who seeks my legal aid.

Milton R. Henry

(Editor's Note: The following is Ethics Opinion 132, dated Nov. 11, 1949, by the Ethics Committee of the State Bar of Michigan:

"A lawyer who is a City Commissioner and a member of a five-man City Council which is the City's legislative body for the enactment, amendment and repeal of City ordinances, who is assigned to have general supervision of a separate department of the City under the commission form of government, who participates in the fixing of the budgets for all City departments and who participates in the appointment of the City Attorney, is not ethically disqualified from appearing in civil matters in which the City is not a party nor directly interested and in criminal matters arising under state law before the municipal judges, who are themselves elected by the voters and over whose salary the Council has no control during their term of office, but such lawyer may not with propriety appear in civil actions in which the City is a party or directly interested, nor in ordinance violation cases.)

'Get Facts First; Then Decide'

The letter by College Graduate stated it's almost impossible to flunk out of education in college. I'd like to know where this man got the impression that it's such a snap to earn a teacher's certificate.

★ ★ ★

The person who earns a degree in education takes the same courses as a Liberal Arts graduate with the exception of from 20 to 30 credit hours in education. Of these comparatively few, at least eight are spent student teaching. Prospective doctors and lawyers who must spend their first three or four years in Liberal Arts receive no better training and on the average don't elect any harder courses.

★ ★ ★

When College Graduate implied it's a breeze to get an education degree he was making like a parrot. Try getting the facts first hand once in a while and you'll change your mind about teacher training.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Learn to Write Application Letter

Charley's problem confronts everybody at one time or another. And the ability to solve this problem can make a big difference in your economic future. Many men with college diplomas still are rank amateurs when it comes to writing a simple letter of application for a job. So scarpbook this case and send for the booklet below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE Y-350: Charley R., aged 23, is looking for a job.

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane, I have seen some good positions advertised in our newspaper," Charley began.

"And I'd like to write a letter of application. But I don't know what to say or how to go about it.

"I had 2 years of college, but our English courses didn't deal with such practical matters.

"Can you give me some pointers right away?"

HOW TO APPLY

A letter of application is supposed to obtain an interview for you, and not necessarily the job.

So don't overload your letter with excessive detail. Stick to main points.

And type the letter, if possible, unless the advertisement expressly demands that you employ handwriting.

Stay within the limits of a single page, single-spaced on the typewriter. And leave fairly wide margins so your missive will be neat and businesslike.

Try to get the name of the employer or the personnel manager and thus open your letter with a specific salutation, such as "Dear Mr. Hall," instead of the bague "Dear Sir" or "Gentlemen."

If you can't obtain the actual name, then it is O. K. to start "Dear Sir."

★ ★ ★

In your opening paragraph, mention that you are looking for a position that offers you an opportunity for growth and advancement so you are listing the qualifications that follow.

Then make a few capitalized headings, such as BUSINESS EXPERIENCE, TECHNICAL TRAINING, PERSONAL DATA and REFERENCES.

BUSINESS EXPERIENCE

If you have been employed by two or three firms, list the major one first and give your years with that firm.

Don't stick to a chronological order, but begin with your last employer, if it is more important.

Place your less important jobs in the middle of your list, for the beginning and the end are the "key" spots in a tabulation.

Second, offer your TECHNICAL TRAINING, such as Business College or Engineering School, or Correspondence courses, etc.

Mention the fact you have a high school diploma, if that is the case, and the number of years of additional schooling you have received.

★ ★ ★

Third, list a few relevant items under PERSONAL DATA, such as your age, health, marital status, organizations to which you belong, and the amount of life insurance you carry.

The latter is a valuable index of your stability and credit, as well as health, for thoughtless folks and those in poor health usually do not carry much insurance.

NAMES WITH HANDLES

Then list 3 references with "handles" on their names. And by "handles" I refer to titles which endorse your references even before they are contacted.

For example, "Reverend," "President," "Advertising Manager," "Superintendent," "Professor"—these handles show that your references must be prominent people whose judgment is probably sound.

And be sure you ask permission in advance before you cite a reference. It is also a courteous gesture to inform your references of the nature of the jobs for which you are applying so they will not be "in the dark."

★ ★ ★

For further specific advice, send for my "Vocational Guidance" booklet, enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit), for it contains a specimen letter of application that pulls a heavy response.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Hal Boyle Tells:

How to Lick Summer Vacation Problem

NEW YORK (AP) — Curbstone comments of a Pavement Plato:

Are you puzzled over what to do on your vacation?

Many men are. They know that if they go tothe mountains they will have to help the children pick wild flowers to paste in their memory books. They know that if they go to the seashore, they will have to help the children collect seashells.

And they know if they stay home their wife will keep them busy 16 hours a day doing odd jobs around the house, such as repairingt he vacuum cleaner, hanging wallpaper or picking green worms off the tomato plants—chores any strong, able - bodied woman ought to attend to herself.

If you're in this plight, here's an idea. Why not use your vacation to reform and improve yourself?

Most men start their self-reform campaigns on New Year's Day. This is a bad time. A man's resistance is so low inwinter that he barely has the strength to continue his vices—let alone summon up the extra strength required to abandon them.

★ ★ ★

There is another factor. Vacation is the only time when a man can reform while lying down. Any other period of the year he will be standing up or moving about. Reform under this added stress and strain is almost impossible.

Still another advantage to giving up bad habits while on vacation is that there is no sudden wrench about it. You are in no hurry and can improve yourself slowly and leisurely.

Let us suppose you have gone to the seashore and want to cut down on your smoking and drinking.

You stretch out on the sand and put a pack of cigarettes and a pitcher of martinis before you. You say, "I'm not going to take a smoke or a drink for one full minute." Each day you add another minute of waiting before you indulge yourself. at the end of a two-week vacation you will be able to go a full 14 minutes.

This may not seem like a major achievement, but look at it this way: If you continue this reform program on every vacation for 40 years you will wind up being able to go 9 hours and 20 minutes without giving way to thirst or the desire for a pep-up puff. It's the little triumphs that add up in life.

Suppose you've yearned all your life to play a musical instrument.

I heard of one man who mastered the zither on vacation. After 25 years he took his zither to the office Christmas party, and surprised everyone by playing "The Moonlight Sonata" in a way that left even the boss in tears.

One final virtue of this system. Nothing wearies one sinner more than seeing another in the throes of repentance. Your friends will be grateful—whether you succeed or fail—that you spared them the boredom of watching your one-man reform wave.

If you must be finer fellow, learn how out of town.

Second Brother Dies From Burns

DETROIT (AP) — The second of two young brothers burned in an automobile fire died last night.

Bill Johnson, 3, was burned Sunday while playing in the family car. His brother, Jerry, 5, died of burns Monday.

The boys were the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Johnson of Hihat, Ky. The Johnsons were visiting relatives at Detroit when the accident occurred.

Police said the boys apparently set the car ablaze as they played with matches and ignited newspapers on the auto seat.

Referred Cases From Morgue

Wayne County Worker Denies Any Kickback From Attorney

DETROIT (AP) — A suspended Wayne County Morgue clerk admitted in a formal statement that he referred cases from the morgue to an attorney friend.

However, George I. Adams denied receiving any kickbacks from the attorney, Louis Weschler. He said last night he did receive $75 a week for a year's work in 1952 managing a bar which was part of an estate Weschler handled.

★ ★ ★

Adams has been a central figure in a prosecutor's investigation of employe activities at the morgue, started a month ago after complaints by Dr. Edward S. Zawadski, medical examiner.

Adams was suspended a week ago when he refused to make a statement or take a lie detector test on charges of receiving kickbacks.

Adams said he stopped making referrals about a year ago on the advice of Stanley J. Mirus, administrative assistant at the morgue. He said Mirus told him the Civil Service Commission had complained about outside jobs for county employes.

Mirus himself has been under fire for alleged irregularities.

Ex-Convict Returned to Prison for Car Theft

A 20-year-old Pontiac Township ex-convict was returned to prison yesterday for the theft of a car.

Thomas W. Tucker, of 1597 Collier Dr., who served one year in 1956 for burglary, received a 1 to 5 year sentence from Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams. Tucker pleaded guilty June 9.

Welk Buys Race Horse

POMONA, Calif. (AP) — TV's Lawrence Welk waltzed his way into race horse ownership with a $24,000 purchase at a sale of California breeding stock from Mrs. M. E. Lunn's Llangollen Farm. Welk's purchase of the mare Woo-Me-Now is his first fling at racing.

'Custodians of a Great Trust'

Alaskans Assume Their Rightful Role

(E.L. (Bob) Bartlett, Alaska's non-voting delegate to Congress since 1944, has been one of the leaders in the territory's long fight for statehood. In the following dispatch written for UPI, Bartlett says that with statehood Alaskans will regard themselves as the "custodians of a great trust.")

By E.L. (BOB) BARTLETT
Written For UPI

We Alaskans, jubilant and prayerful, assume our proud and rightful role in the American family. We pause on the threshold of great responsibility and great opportunity. We regard ourselves as custodians of a great trust: The untapped mineral wealth of Alaska, the marvelous natural resources and scenic beauty — all these must be used and preserved for the benefit and security of future generations of Americans.

The year 1958 marks the first time when the American citizens of Alaska will have an opportunity to cast votes for governor, secretary of state, United States senators, and a congressman. Heretofore, the governor of Alaska has been an appointee of the President of the United States, and the only elected spokesman of Alaska in the Congress has been the non-voting delegate.

To our countrymen for whom voting rights are matters of habit, the real meaning to Alaskans of self-government and a voice in national affairs may be difficult to appreciate. Ours has been a hard-won struggle, but from it we have learned an invaluable lesson we would share with all our countrymen: Liberty can not be taken for granted, and is worthy of any sacrifice.

The Congress, in approving statehood, knew that the admission of Alaska will stimulate the development of Alaska and benefit thereby the entire nation.

Members of Congress arrived at the realization that federal control in Washington of problems that are local by nature has been an injustice, to the controllers as well as to the controlled. For the Congress, busy with questions vital to America's survival, supervision over the government of Alaska has involved a burden; for Alaskans, federal control has meant sluggish and cumbersome reactions to local problems, in spite of the fact that members of Congress have been Alaska as they are to all parts of the nation. The administrative problems of federal control are the products of the machinery, not the men, of government.

Now, with real home rule, Alaskans can express in effective state legislation first-hand knowledge of the great land's problems and possibilities.

We believe that a state government will promote conservation of resources, industrialization and economic growth, and the effectiveness of public services for which government is responsible. Moreover, with statehood, much of our lands will be freed for development and setlement. We expect to enjoy the same rapid population growth that statehood has always brought to new states.

Approval of statehood legislation by Congress was motivated, too, by the feeling of members that statehood will strengthen our great union. The world will note that America's advocacy of freedom has the unmistakable ring of sincerity as the people of America move to add a worthy partner to the union of states.

Mankind will draw an inevitable comparison between a form of government which seeks by force to grab powers into the hands of a few, and the American government, which yields willingly to local areas those responsibilities that are proper subjects of local concern. Ours is a country that extends the blessings of democracy, even while other nations seek to curtail them.

★ ★ ★

All through Alaska, the bells and the sirens will ring in joy; the churches will fill with grateful Americans hailing a new era. May all our countrymen rejoice with us at our nation's vigor, its youth, its prosperity, and at the golden age still to come, advanced now by a "new birth of freedom."

You Can't Collect Debt From Casino in Court

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP) — No, you can't go to a Nevada court to collect a gambling debt from a casino.

The Nevada Supreme Court long has held gambling house operations can't use the courts to collect their debts from players.

Yesterday, it held—for the first time—that a player likewise cannot go to court when he feels the house improperly failed to pay him his winnings.

The ruling came in a Las Vegas case involving a customers' claim for $12,500 from a $3.50 keno ticket.

Senate Facing Filibuster Fight

Foes of Talkathons to Raise Issue When Alaska Becomes State

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate appears headed for new controversy over its filibuster rule when Alaska becomes a state.

But if civil rights advocates still are unable to change the rule, they seem unlikely to gain any ground by the addition of two more senators to bring the membership roll to 98.

Although Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga) and some others denied they opposed Alaska statehood on those grounds, much of the Southern opposition to the bill was based on the belief that Alaska would send two civil rights advocates to the Senate.

Under the existing rule, the kind of talk marathon with which Southern opponents usually greet efforts to bring up civil rights legislation can be halted only by the affirmative votes of two thirds of the senators "duly chosen and sworn."

★ ★ ★

Because 98 isn't divisible by three in round numbers and a senator's vote can't be sliced in fractions, parliamentarians who have been studying the issue are inclined now to hold that 66 senators would have to vote "yes" to end a filibuster after Alaska's two members are seated.

If the existing rule stands, civil rights advocates would have to enlist the 64 votes now required—plus either the two from Alaska or from some other state—to halt a continuing debate.

But the mere fact of the mathematical difficulty might give them an opening to challenge the rule under circumstances they regard as more favorable than now exist.

Under the present rule there can be no limitation on debate on the issue of changing the rules. The filibuster rule just doesn't apply if attempts are made to alter it or any other rule of the Senate.

★ ★ ★

However, civil rights proponents might try to circle this barrier by a point of order that the two-thirds requirement is impractical if there are 98 senators. A majority of those voting then could determine the issue.

Nixon Introduced as U.S. President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nixon yesterday came to the rescue of a flustered chairman, Mrs. Rollwage Collier, who began to introduce him as "president" of the United States and then hastily corrected herself.

★ ★ ★

Nixon told the audience amid laughter at a luncheon in honor of Spyros P. Skouras, president of 20th Century-Fox Film Corp.: "It's appropriate to refer to the vice president as president because he is president of the Senate."

★ ★ ★

He followed up with a story about U. S. Treasurer Ivy Baker Priest, a guest at the luncheon. He said she had once introduced Mrs. Nixon as "the next wife of the vice president."

Jeep Replacing Horse on Farm

It Can Plow, Dig Holes, Grind Corn, Herd Cattle and Terrace Land

WASHINGTON—As Dobbins and mules amble slowly out to pasture, many of their stalls are being taken over by that noble mount—the jeep.

In less than two decades the number of horses and mules on American farms has declined from about 14,500,000 to 3,600,000. And the Army mule has faded away.

★ ★ ★

The jeep, which has been steadily multiplying, didn't even exist two decades ago. Then World War II came, and suddenly deserts, jungles, and mountains were bouncing with the new breed of mechanical mule. In peacetime it has been seen as far afield as Lhasa, Tibet, but adapts easily to life on the farm.

Jeep fanciers say it can plow, terrace land, dig post holes, grind corn, help herd cattle on ranches, take the family to town for shopping—and do just about anything but mind the baby.

There are reports that roadless vehicles are making inroads in the land of the camel, the National Geographic Society observes. This is a remarkable change - about, skeptics declare, for they can't be milked. Nor can they be eaten or turned into tents when retired.

★ ★ ★

But the jeep species has taken firm root abroad. Spanking-new vehicles manufactured under the trade name Jeep roll from plants in Argentina, Brazil, Turkey, Holland, France, Japan, and Canada.

Britain has its Land - Rover. Germans produce the Unimog. Italy came up with La Campagnola (Open Country). A French car maker has developed a bantam type intended to replace the peasant's cart and horse.

The family of do-anything, go-anywhere vehicles is growing in the United States, too. By the end of 1957 about 1,300,000 Jeeps — military and civilian—had been produced in several models.

Faces Showdown With Settlers

Gen. De Gaulle Returns for 2nd Visit to Algeria

ALGIERS (AP) — Premier de Gaulle returned to Algeria today for his second visit in less than a month, facing the possibility of a showdown with French settlers who are angered because he has not pushed the policies they want.

★ ★ ★

A meeting with the leading critics of his government was postponed, however, as De Gaulle saved Algiers for the last stop on his tour. He landed at Telergma, 30 miles west of Constantine in eastern Algeria.

He is to fly to Oran, in west Algeria, and then visit the French Foreign Legion headquarters before coming on to Algiers.

★ ★ ★

At almost the same time his airliner was landing at Telergma, a nationalist terrorist threw a grenade in downtown Algiers. A dozen persons were wounded.

Once more in his wartime uniform, De Gaulle was met at the airport by a host of military officers. At their head was Gen. Raoul Salan, the military commander in chief in Algeria who also has been running the government since the colonists' May 13 ouster of the Paris-appointed civilian regime.

De Gaulle took a small military plane for a hedgehopping tour of posts along the Tunisian border, across which comes much of the equipment used by the Moslem rebels righting for independence from France.

It is in east Algeria that the heaviest fighting with rebel units has taken place throughout the four-year-old nationalist rebellion. The rebels have kept up the pace of the rebellion despite De Gaulle's peace overtures.

★ ★ ★

De Gaulle came last, on June 4, as a conquering hero cheered wildly by the settlers and soldiers whose defiance of the Paris government had recalled him to power.

Then disenchantment set in.

The military-civilian Public Safety Committees formed after the May 13 insurrection complained de Gaulle had failed to wipe out the influence of the center and left-wing parties who have ruled postwar France.

Although the general proclaimed that "Algeria is French," he showed no sign of being caught up in the settlers' movement to integrate Algeria as a province of metropolitan France. That would submerge the nine million Algerian Moslems among the 43 million Frenchmen on both sides of the Mediterranean.

De Gaulle, who claims he had no part in the conspiracy that resulted in the May 13 rebellion, has acted as though he owes Algeria's right-wing settlers no political debts. None of them has been rewarded with a key post in his Cabinet. He has told the Public Safety committees thy have no governmental role in Algeria.

As the date of the Premier's second trip approached, the committees suppressed their grumbling. But the war veteran groups who took major roles in the May defiance of Paris sounded their discontent loud and clear.

★ ★ ★

They asserted their "revolution must be fully achieved — it must grow from a regional to a national movement or else it will remain dangerously incomplete."

The implication was that another May 13 could be organized, this time against De Gaulle, if the Premier does not clean house in Paris and tie Algeria closer to metropolitan France.

There was no indication, however, that the general had any intention of knuckling under to the Algerian French. Instead, he was bringing with him to Algiers former Premier Guy Mollet, now a deputy premier in his Cabinet and a Socialist politician particularly hated by the Algerian right-wingers.

The last time Mollet visited Algeria two years ago he got a barrage of tomatoes and manure from French veterans who feared he was going to give Algeria to the Moslem rebels.

★ ★ ★

De Gaulle's tour this time was described officially as a military inspection, taking him deep into areas where the Moslem rebels have been particularly active. He returns to Paris Thursday.

Talks Launched on Nuclear Ban

East Meeting West on How to Assure Against Further Tests

GENEVA (AP) — East-West technical talks on how to guard against violations of a ban on atomic weapon tests open today with the week-old threat of a Soviet boycott apparently cleared away.

★ ★ ★

Preparations for the conference had been overshadowed by fear that the Soviets would back out because the United States refused to agree in advance that a ban on tests was the goal of the meeting.

★ ★ ★

The United States contended that the conference must be devoted only to the technical, scientific questions of insuring compliance with a test ban. The Americans said any agreement to ban tests must be worked out in political talks later.

★ ★ ★

The Soviet delegation finally stated yesterday it fully intended to take part in the talks. The outlook for the conference became even brighter after a meeting between U. S. chief delegate James B. Fisk and Yevgeni K. Fedorov, head of the Soviet group.

Both delegation leaders predicted success for the talks, which they said would stay on the technical level. This indicated that the conference might avoid the stumbling block of political problems.

Here We Go Again!

FORT BLISS, Tex. (UPI) — Army Secretary Wilbur M. Brucker disclosed today that the Army has received a "tentative green light" on a specific plan for shooting a rocket to the moon.

Car Insurance Bids on Agenda

Commission Hoping to Have More Than One Offer to Consider

City Commissioners tonight will again consider bids for insurance on city-owned vehicles. They hope to have more than one bid on hand, a situation that developed a week ago.

The city attorney will propose some changes in the weed-cutting ordinance. He said they are to bring the local law into line with recent changes in the state law.

Two hearings are scheduled. One is on assessment rolls prepared for installation of sewer stubs on 17 vacant lots along the Perry street widening project. The other is on assessment rolls for the repaving of Telegraph road from W. Huron street to James K. boulevard, a State Highway Department project to get under way later this summer.

Assessment rolls are up for confirmation on four neighborhood paving projects.

Property owners have prepared a petition to add a sanitary sewer on Lounsbury avenue from Stanley towards Blaine to the 1958 improvement program.

Other action includes preparation for a public hearing on vacating two alleys parallel to East boulevard in the South Park subdivision for use by Detroit Edison Co. for more overhead lines.

Squabbling Over 9 GIs

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States demanded again today that Russia release nine American soldiers held by East Germany. But the Russians insisted negotiations must be made through the Communist German Democratic Republic.

Dulles Will Visit Brazil in August

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles plans to visit Brazil early in August notwithstanding threats of mass anti-United States demonstrations, officials said yesterday.

They said the state department will formally announce the visit later this week. Dulles was expected to leave here Aug. 4 and spend two or three days in the Brazilian capital.

State department officials gave little importance to reports from Rio de Janeiro that labor unions and university students were preparing a 24-hour general strike to coincide with Dulles' arrival.

With Hard Work—Abby

Waitress Earns Her Tip

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: Some time ago you had a letter in your column stating the pros and cons of 'tipping' waitresses.

ABBY

You seemed to think waitresses should be tipped generously because their pay was inadequate. This should be the problem of the management, not the public.

"Furthermore, I happen to know that many waitresses choose that kind of work, NOT because they need the money, but because they want to meet the public and, believe me, I am putting it delicately." — ONE WHO KNOWS

DEAR ONE: Women who simply want to "meet the public" can either walk the streets or hang out in saloons, but a woman who is willing to stand on her feet eight hours a day, carrying heavy trays and smile at hungry (and oftentimes rude) people is entitled to as big a tip as the diner can afford.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: Now that summer is here I am faced with the same old problem. I am quite thin and I don't look bad in clothes but when I wear a bathing suit I look like a skeleton. My doctor has given me iron, vitamins and tonics but I can't put on an ounce. Everywhere you see diets for girls who are too fat (they don't know how lucky they are) but nowhere is there any help for us girls who are too thin. I am 28, love to swim, but am ready to give up" — TOO THIN.

DEAR TOO: Stick with your doctor in the hope that he'll come up with something effective. In the meantime, go to your friendly neighborhood beachwear dealer. Find yourself a suit that features built-in self-confidence and covers everything.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: How stupid can a guy be? Just picked up your column and found out a serviceman can get his high school diploma while he is serving time in the U.S. ARMED FORCES. I am one of those characters who quit school in my junior year and have regretted it ever since. Believe you me, I am talking to the C.O. on this Post and am going to make up for lost time. Thanks, Pal."—C. P. G.: USAF

DEAR C. P. G.: The Armed Forces realize that a man needs an education in order to advance. It's yours for the asking. Good luck!

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: In 1953 I married a widow with a living husband. I realized that I had made a mistake but am not the kind to back out of a bargain so I tried to make the best of it. I am 74 years old and don't expect to live forever anyway.

"This woman is 56 and has children all over the United States and she visits them all. She has lived with me a total of 55 days since our marriage. I am opposed to divorce but do you think it is too late to get an annulment?" — MARRIED AND LONESOME

DEAR MARRIED: Your "wife" has not given you the companionship you married for. See your lawyer about legal separations and annulments — you've earned your eligibility.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: I have a problem that makes me so scared I could die. I've never kissed a boy before on my front porch because the porch light is always on and everyone can see us. I know I will have to kiss this boy on our next date and I want to, but it scares me to think that everyone will be watching us. Should I tell him if he plans on kissing me goodnight to kiss me in the car?" — SCARED

DEAR SCARED: Invite him to step inside the door to say goodnight. If the problem presents itself then—meet it!

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of The Pontiac Press. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

NEW DETREX PROCESS

This is no ordinary dry cleaning process . . . it's the remarkable Detrex Two-Bath Process which restores color brilliance and softness to the fabric just like new again.

Basically soils on all garments fall into two types — those that can be removed by conventional dry cleaning agents and those removable only by soap.

Yet soap until now could only be applied in solution with water . . . disastrous for wool and other fine fabrics.

So after many years of developement, Detrex Corporation has arrived at a means of using a detergent in the dry cleaning process solution which protects the fabrics. Thus, in one cleaning process they have achieved the cleaning action of both soap and solvent. We guarantee you have never seen dry cleaning like it. Yet it is gentle to protect even the most delicate of materials

FAST SERVICE, TOO! Because of the remarkable cleaning action of our new equipment, we are able to process garments in fewer steps. Assume It Was a Mistake

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: The daughter of a neighbor of ours was married recently. Several out-of-town relatives attended the wedding. As their house is quite small, I offered to put some of the guests up at my house. A cousin and her husband stayed in our spare room.

"When they left, I discovered some of my things were missing. I was shocked as the couple who stayed with us seemed like such well-bred people. I can hardly believe that they would do such a thing and can only think that these things got mixed up in some way with theirs and were taken by mistake. Is there anything I can possibly do about this Answer: Write to them and ask if by any chance a blue slip, or a hair brush, or whatever is missing, was packed by mistake with their things.

"Dear Mrs. Post: At my parents' golden-wedding anniversary dinner being given for them by all the children, how are they seated at the table and who is seated in the places nearest to them?"

Answer: Your mother is seated at your father's right. It is a rule to seat their original wedding attendants next to them if any are present. Otherwise, seat the eldest children — especially if they are not living in the same house — next to them. Or if all the children are living at home and are seated with them at every meal, every day, give these honor places to their best friends.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When a strange man steps aside, to let me enter an elevator, or a bus, before him, is it proper to say "thank you" or is this courtesy taken for granted? A friend of mine insists that this is overdoing politeness."

Answer: "Thank you" briefly said is never overdoing politeness.

Keep Your Legs Attractive Looking

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

This is the time of year when our underpinnings are REALLY in evidence. If they are to be an asset rather than a handicap, we must give them some special attention.

Hairs on the legs are unattractive even when covered by sheer hose. They are even more so on the bare leg. It is amazing how many women still tolerate these or are careless about them every once in a while.

You can shave them without fear that this will make them grow in thicker. The hairs will be stubby when they grow back, but even if you have to remove these twice aweek, the increased attractiveness is worth the time you spend.

You can have these permanently removed by electrolysis if you wish to spend the time and money.

Very white legs look pasty and homely in the summertime. However, some women do not respond well to sunshine, or do not have the time to develop a lovely tan. If this is your problem and you wish to go without hose in hot weather, use one of the suntan leg make-ups on the market.

Many women worry about the little broken capillaries in the thighs. These are unsightly. You can cover them up with a waterproof make-up. If you want the name of this product, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it to me in care of this paper.

These also can be removed by a skin specialist who is especially trained in this art. If you have only a few you might like to have this done.

Rough heels are ugly. If you have not yet given them the treat of nightly massage with a good cream or lotion, do so. You will be amazed at the difference in just 10 days of this. Remember to massage this into the cuticle about the toes also. This is often very rough.

It is also a fine idea to use your barefoot, carefree summer days as an opportunity for some arch exercises. When you think of it, walk on the outsides of your feet (roll outward). Also grip the grass with the toes when you take a step. If you are on the beach, you can pick up shells or pebbles with your toes.

Nuptials Spoken Saturday

Barbara Ann Aikens and Michael A. Basile were married Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham. Dr. W. Glenn Harris officiated at the candlelight ceremony.

Parents of the couple are the Mr. and Mrs. Berton Allen Aikens Jr. of Birmingham and the Angelo Basiles of Northampton, Mass.

IN ORGANDY GOWN

The bride wore a gown of white silk organdy with louvres from the square neckline gathered over the hips and falling into a chapel train. Imported Swiss appliques accented the neckline and skirt. Her silk illusion veil was secured by a crown of lilies of the valley and she carried a bouquet of matching flowers.

Maid of honor was Patricia Henderson of Aurora, Ont. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ronald Drahiem of Hillsdale and Mrs. William Surridge of Ypsilanti. They wore full-length dresses of white organdy over blue taffeta with scoop necklines, pleated skirts and wide sashes. Their hats were halos of pink sweetheart roses and they carried cascades of pink sweetheart roses and delphiniums.

Flower girls, both nieces of the bride, were Kimberly Ann Aikens and Nancy Russ Aikens. They wore white dresses of white embroidered organdy over pale blue and wore wreaths of tiny roses in their hair.

ASSIST BRIDEGROOM

Best man was David Howel of Northampton, Mass. The bride's brothers, Allen Aikens, Robert Aikens and William Aikens all of Birmingham were ushers.

To receive guests at the reception held at Orchard Lake Country Club, Mrs. Aikens wore a pale blue taffeta sheath with a corsage of red sweetheart roses pinned to her purse. Mrs. Basile wore a sea green peau-de-soie dress with a yellow rose corsage.

Before leaving for a honeymoon to northern Michigan, the bride changed to a black and white silk dress. The couple will live in Frederick, Md.

Newlyweds Feted

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Warden of Motorway drive honored their newlywed son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Warden at a tea Sunday. The couple was married Tuesday evening at Bethany Baptist Church. She is the former Deanna Koenig of Crescent Lake road.

New Way to Prepare Liver Is by Scalloping

The ingenuity of local cooks is most refreshing. Even when reduced incomes makes menu planning a greater problem, people like Mrs. Harold Boone take it in their stride and come up with unusual recipes.

By Mrs. Harold Boone

1½ to 2 pounds pork liver or a beef heart
Corn meal
Whole wheat flour
½ to ¾ cup onions
Chili powder
Salt and pepper
½ cup cornmeal
Milk
1 can mushroom soup

If liver is used, wash and dry it. If heart is used, cook it until almost tender. Dip serving-size pieces of meat into a mixture of equal amounts of cornmeal and whole wheat flour.

Place in a greased baking dish. Brown onions and spread over top of meat. Sprinkle with chili powder and salt and pepper to taste. Cover with the half cup of cornmeal.

Pour in milk to the depth of ½ inch. Add can of mushroom soup. Bake in a 300-degree oven 1-1½ hours, or until meat is tender. A crust will form on top and the bottom will be juicy. Serves eight.

Again Handles Racial Issue

U.S. Court of Appeals Has Already Ruled on Little Rock Issue

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Sensitive racial segregation issues are not new to the 8th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, which once again has the Little Rock case before it.

★ ★ ★

The U. S. Supreme Court reminded attorneys for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People of that yesterday. It refused to bypass the Circuit Court and act directly on an order delaying integration at Little Rock Central High School for 2½ years.

The appellate court has dealt with the case three times before and the Supreme Court said it was sure it was aware speed was needed to permit arrangements for the fall term.

★ ★ ★

What is the makeup of this court which will decide for the present, at least, whether seven Negro students can return to the Little Rock high school after a year of troop-enforced integration?

The chief justice, who will name three of the seven members to hear the appeal, is Archibald K. Gardner, who at 90 is the nation's oldest active federal judge.

★ ★ ★

Gardner, quiet by nature, has declined to say whom he will name or when or where they will sit to hear the plea to stay the order of U. S. Dist. Judge Harry J. Lemley of Hope, Ark., suspending integration at Little Rock.

Two months ago, the Circuit Court dealt Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas a blow by upholding an injunction which had barred his use of National Guardsmen to stop the integration, started by the enrollment of nine Negroes at the school.

Big Flag's Owners Facing Problem

DETROIT (AP) — Owners of the world's largest flag figure they have almost two years to worry about adding a 49th star for Alaska, and by that time the problem may have doubled.

★ ★ ★

The flag, 235 feet by 104 feet, is owned by the J. L. Hudson Co. department store. It is displayed only on Flag Day, June 14, and only when Flag Day falls on a weekday. Its next scheduled appearance is June 14, 1960.

Spokesmen say the 5½-foot stars for the flag cost about $2,000 to have installed.

★ ★ ★

The problem is figuring out an arrangement for Alaska's star, and for a 50th star for Hawaii, should statehood also be granted to that territory.

Updated Building Inspection in Farmington Really Works!

By MARY CELINSKE
Farmington Correspondent

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — New home owners no longer find it necessary to take up residence in Farmington Township without occupancy permits, according to Supervisor Frank J. Stephenson. The township now has a building inspection department "as modern and efficient as any in a metropolitan area," he said in announcing success in the streamlining of the department.

"Today when a new home receives its final inspection, its occupancy permit is in the mail within 48 hours," Stephenson said. He explained that present inspection methods follow an orderly sequence.

As soon as the department has been notified that a house is ready for rough inspection, the process is begun. Not more than 24 hours are allowed to elapse between building, wiring, heating and plumbing inspections. Final inspections follow the same sequence.

Stephenson added that department files are kept up-to-date, even to the time of day the inspection is made.

In cases of complaints and violations, all inspectors and clerks have been instructed to contact the builder immediately. New residents are welcomed to the township and invited to notify the department if a violation appears with the warranty period.

A year ago, the supervisor termed the department a "mess." At that time, many new home owners, forced out of their former homes, had taken up residence because they could not wait for long-overdue occupancy permits, Stephenson said.

Complaints were loud in the township that the building department was holding up construction because "inspectors never got around to inspecting," according to Stephenson.

There was a backlog of 250 occupancy permits to be issued, he said, when he started concentrating township office personnel in the building department. And some complaints from the Michigan Securities Commission, as well from private citizens, had been awaiting attention for as long as two years, he said.

★ ★ ★

Today, the supervisor points with pride to a streamlined, efficient, self-supporting department that still operates with seven persons—the same number as before.

Apartment Construction at Milford Gets Go-Ahead

MILFORD — Land developer R. J. Kaines of Detroit was granted permission to contruct two four-unit apartments at the corner of Pleasure and East Commerce streets by the Milford Village Council last night.

The action overruled objections by residents living in this area at a meeting held last Monday night.

Kaines, developer of the Kensington Hills subdivision on North Milford road, said he plans to build his apartments on one level and will provide for off-street parking.

Several residents appeared at the meeting, protesting the removal of the 5-block long boulevard on East Liberty street. The group, headed by Frank Bird of 408 E. Liberty St., told the council that if the 40-year-old center strip is removed, the street might become a speedway. He suggested "no parking" signs be posted. The council tabled the matter for further study.

In other business, the council authorized Clerk Mrs. Beatrice P. Helberg to make a final payment of $2,983 to the Chicago Iron and Steel Construction Co. for the construction of the new water tank on the south side of Milford.

Virgil Colgrove was awarded a bid to cut, trim and haul away trees in the village. He will be paid $8 an hour.

A permit to hold the Street Fair July 18 and 19 was approved. The request was submitted by the Milford Chamber of Commerce. Merchants will display their wares in front of their business establishments during the two-day festivities.

Board members also approved the closing of Main street from 9 p.m. to midnight July 19 for street dancing.

Fire Dept. Ready to Fete July 4

Fireworks to Top Off Day-Long Celebration at Clarkston

CLARKSTON — A parade, games, demonstration by the Independence Fire Department, topped off by a fireworks display, will highlight the day-long Fourth of July celebration in Clarkston.

Festivities will get under way with the parade, which will form at 10 a.m. at the Community Center Building on Main street. It will proceed down Main street to Church street, and then on to the Clarkston High School.

Field events are planned for the youngsters, and ball-throwing and egg-carrying contests for the women. For the men, there will be a tug of war.

At 1:30 p.m., two teams of Independence Township Little Leaguers will meet for a baseball game.

★ ★ ★

The firemen's demonstration will begin at 6:30 p.m. at the Mill Pond on Washington street. All equipment of the Fire Dept. will be displayed, including the new rescue truck purchased recently with donations from township residents.

The fireworks display is scheduled for 9 p.m. In the event of rain, it will be held Saturday at the same time.

Review Audit in Waterford

Township Board Sees Receipts for $383,072, Balance of $93,567

Most of last night's regular Waterford Township board meeting was devoted to reviewing the annual audit made and presented by by CPA Eugene Clarke of Pontiac.

Clarke reported total receipts for the 1957-58 fiscal year to be $383,072. Expenditures were $364,979. This left a balance of $18,093, which, with the opening balance of $75,474, leaves a total balance of $93,567 in the treasury.

Further action saw the board approve eight "no parking" signs to be erected on both sides of a bridge on Mann road near Clintonville road. The cost to the township for this installation will be $60.

Clerk James E. Seeterlin was authorized to complete the plat of Highland Estates No. 4 Subdivision subject to the developer's payment of $890 for inspection fees.

★ ★ ★

Township Engineer Howard Keift presented a report pertaining to the Pleasant Lake Subdivision on Elizabeth Lake road near Williams Lake road which is up for board approval.

Keift told the board that there would have to be some changes made in the water supply system and pumping station to meet township specifications, before final approval is given.

There were five fireworks display permits issued to different organizations for July 4th celebrations.

Elfrida Battles to Another Tie With Educator

NEW YORK (UPI) — Television quiz queen Elfrida Von Nardroff battled to a tie last night with a New York educator, thus neither increasing nor decreasing her record $253,500 jackpot.

The pretty, 32-year-old Brooklynite, who quit her job as a personnel executive to devote full-time to the quiz show, "Twenty-one," will return next week to continue her match with Robert Leicester, an assistant school superintendent. At that time, Miss Von Nardroff could conceivably either add or lose $63,000.

Last night, Miss Von Nardroff and Leicester correctly answered questions on the Civil War and the theater and identified poets by several quotations read to them.

Should Miss Von Nardoff step down from the show now, more than $200,000 of her prize money would be deducted for federal and state taxes.

Circuit Judge James E. Spier voided the election yesterday and ordered a new vote to be taken within 90 days. The election had been contested by Alexander A. Rymar, defeated for the school board.

The voting machine registered 52 more ballots than there were voters. A check showed Rymar lost to Russell H. Kaiser by 10 votes.

Rockefeller Eyes Governorship

Seeks GOP Nomination to Oppose Harriman in New York

NEW YORK (UPI) — Multimillionaire Nelson Rockefeller announced late yesterday that he would seek the Republican nomination for governor of New York in a move which, if successful, would pit him this fall against multimillionaire Gov. Averell Harriman, a Democrat.

Leonard M. Hall, former Republican national chairman and a powerful votegetter, already has announced his candidacy for the GOP nomination.

Rockefeller, 49, is a political novice, although he has held high appointive posts in the Roosevelt, Truman and Eisenhower administrations. Harriman had a similar background when he won his first term four years ago.

Rockefeller said he would campaign on a platform calling for a reversal of the decline in the state's economic growth, improvement of the educational system, measures to cope with juvenile delinquency and organized crime, and better roads.

He said he decided to enter the race because of "my deep conviction that a new approach to government must be taken in New York State."

Sentences Member of Burglary Ring

The first of five members of a burglary ring, that operated in Pontiac and Waterford Township, was sentenced Monday to three years probation and assessed $100 court costs for his part in the crimes.

James A. Hudson, 21, of 252 Prospect St., heard the sentence passed by Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams. Hudson pleaded guilty June 16 to a charge of larceny by conversion.

Three other members of the gang, which police say were responsible for nine burglaries, are scheduled to be sentenced tomorrow by Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

A fourth, Melvin Foust, 21, of 22 Cadillac Ave., stood mute June 16 to a charge of larceny by conversion. No trial date has been set.

Says Rock 'n' Roll Music Befits Nervous Time

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Rock 'n' roll is a nervous sort of music—for a nervous time.

So says John M. Ray, president of the Music Teachers Assn. of California.

"It's barbaric, and musically a disgrace, but the times are nervous, and rock 'n' roll is one way for young people to work off their tensions and exuberances," Ray told the association's convention here.

MRS. R. BARRIE FELL

Canadians Keep Close Watch on Their Sea Lion

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Canadians seem to be keeping an eye on their escaped sea lion until its scheduled return to Storybook Gardens Zoo in London, Ont., next Sunday.

A number of Canadian auto license plates were seen in the Toledo Zoo parking lot yesterday. Several men in Canadian military uniforms were seen about the grounds.

★ ★ ★

And Joseph Bisonette, zoo business manager, said more Canadian money than usual passed over refreshment counters.

Attendance was between 5,000 and 6,000 above normal for a Monday in June. An exact count was not obtained because yesterday was an admission-free day.

The sea lion, for the second day in a row, ate three square meals yesterday. He was off to another good day today, polishing off a pound of smelt, a pound of squid and two pounds of herring for breakfast.

His daily consumption now is 11 pounds of seafood.

The sea lion refused to eat the first day after his capture in a boathouse on Sandusky Bay last Friday.

Brought to the Toledo Zoo, the mammal has been drawing large crowds, particularly at feeding time.

House Explosion Kills Detroit Man in Livonia

DETROIT (AP)— Hagger Davis, 54, of Detroit, was killed last night in a fire-explosion at his brother's house in suburban Livonia.

Livonia police said the brother, William Davis, 45, was at work at the time of the blast and Hagger Davis was in the house alone.

They said the cause of the blast was not immediately determined. They said they were presuming Davis died of burns.

The blast and fire badly damaged the house but did not destroy it.

Fire Loses Increase in Michigan—218 Die

LANSING (AP) — Fire losses both in lives and property damage are on the increase in Michigan, the State Police fire marshal division reported.

Deaths last year totaled 218, compared with 204 in 1956, the report said. The death toll included 120 adults and 90 children — but no firemen.

Property loss amounted to $41,205,038, a $5,855,000 increase over the previous year.

There were 59,830 fires reported, 520 more than in 1956.

DADE CITY, Fla. (AP)—A. J. Hayward Jr., 37-year-old armless judge of Pasco County, has announced as a Democratic candidate for Congress. He seeks the seat now held by Rep. William C. Cramer, Republican from St. Petersburg.

The judge, born without arms, was cited in 1952 by the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults for achieving success despite a handicap.

Climax Building of Waterway

Blast Creates Big Lake as Part of Seaway Development

MASSENA, N. Y. (AP)—A Thunderous blast today loosed 200 billion gallons of water and climaxed construction of the massive St. Lawrence Seaway and power projects.

While thousands of dignitaries, tourists and residents watched from either side of the river, 30 tons of dynamite were detonated to shatter the walls of a cofferdam and create a huge lake as part of the billion-dollar development.

Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, and Premier Leslie Forst of Ontario province were among those on hand.

The seaway and power development soon will provide ocean ships an inland route as far into America's middle as Duluth, Minn.; and provide industry-building power to Ontario, New York and Vermont.

★ ★ ★

When work is completed next year, the 360-mile seaway will be the third great man-made waterway, the others being the Suez and Panama canals. It necessitated the greatest mass movement of people in Canada's history—6,500.

The seaway will not be ready until next year for ocean-going vessels.

By then, it will be 27 feet deep and open to deep-draft ships. Ore carriers, grain freighters and general cargo ships will have access to an area where 65 per cent of the United States' export trade originates.

★ ★ ★

The two projects, estimated to cost a billion dollars, consist of seven new locks, new channels and three new dams.

The power project costs were shared equally by New York State and Ontario. For the navigation facilities, Canada spent twice that of the United States.

Attending theArmy's Operation Ammo show of Army weapons are the nation's top military leaders, NATO representatives and heads of this country's main missile building companies.

★ ★ ★

None of the rockets are new. But today's show included the first public showing of the Nike Hercules—the stepped-up antiaircraft missile.

The Nike Hercules, soon to supplement the Nike Ajax installations around major cities, can wipe out a fleet of enemy bombers or missiles with its hydrogen warhead. The Nike Ajax can get only one.

★ ★ ★

Lt. Gen. C. E. Hart, commanding general of the Army Air Defense Command and one of 75 general officers on hand, disclosed the imminent placing of the beefed-up weapon in an interview, he declined to fix a specific date. He said that use of the new weapon in Europe would be "strictly up to the NATO nations involved."

The Hercules will be added to every Nike battery to give the Army a Sunday punch for use in any saturation attacks.

Cherries Spell July 4 on Cake

Here's a cake that's really worthy of a hundred-and-eighty-second birthday — decorated with cherries and dated July 4.

The creamy and delicious frosting is made with sweetened condensed milk and confectioners' sugar, uncooked but creamy smooth, ready to spread in luscious and decorative swirls over the cake as soon as it's done. It's specially good on spice or devil's food cake, and either of these can be whipped up from a mix.

Besides being easy to make and delicious, this frosting doesn't dry out and it never runs. It's ready to decorate as soon as it's spread. Edge the cake with strips of cherry, used also to make the July 4 date on top. If you use maraschino cherries be sure to dry them thoroughly on a paper towel after cutting them.

Lemon Butter Frosting

4 tablespoons butter
⅔ cup (½ 15-oz. can) sweetened condensed milk
1½ teaspoons grated lemon rind
2½ cups sifted confectioners' sugar
1 to 2 tablespoons lemon juice

Cream butter. Gradually stir in ¼ cup sweetened condensed milk. Add lemon rind, mixing well. Add sugar gradually, alternating with remaining sweetened condensed milk, beating until smooth. Add 1 to 2 tablespoons lemon juice and beat well. Spread on cooled cake.

Gen. Trujillo's Eye Alights on Brigitte Bardot

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The roving eye of Gen. Raphael Trujillo Jr. has lighted on Brigitte Bardot.

This reporter recently chatted with the French actress on a French movie set. A photographer, upon whose lap she was sitting at the time, disclosed that Trujillo had just phoned from America asking him to take all the pictures he could of her.

★ ★ ★

Today a spokesman for the Dominican general confirmed that Trujillo had made such an order.

"But at the moment," he said, "the general is only interested in Miss Bardot artistically. What other interests can one have from 5,000 miles away?

The spokesman declined comment on whether the handsome son of the Dominican Republic strongman may shift interest from actress Kim Novak to Brigitte.

★ ★ ★

Trujillo, on a local television show, publicly expressed his love for Miss Novak. But that was some months ago. She, in New York, is a long way off too.

Miss Bardot said this of the 23-year-old father of six—"He looks very pretty."

★ ★ ★

And would she accept a gift of, say, a big diamond?

"Mais oui," she answered. "If it is a true one."

Tulsa Family Keeps Railway Line Going

TULSA, Okla. (UPI)—The Tulsa-Sapulpa Union Railway, a 13-mile interurban trolley line between Tulsa and suburban Sapulpa, runs on "Robbins power."

Of the road's 10 train and track workers, five are the Robbins brothers.

J. Earnest, a small, wiry man of 66, is a head trainman. Ben, 43, is a crew member. Houston, 51, and Bill, 58, work as needed as extra train hands, and George, 55, is a full-time section worker keeping the track in good shape.

Earnest has been jockeying trolley cars and electric locomotives since 1913. The line hauls only freight now — mostly silica sand, limestone, soda ash and other raw materials to and from the Liberty Glass Co. in Sapulpa. In fact, the line is owned by the George F. Collins family, which owns Liberty.

Maple Blended Syrup Ideal With Ice Cream

With dairy products "best buys" during the Summer months, wise homemakers will take advantage of these healthful foods, not only to help the budget, but also to provide delicious desserts for their families.

Here then is an interesting group of recipes featuring "ice cream ideas." Each basic recipe permits many variations. For example, the Snowballs may be made of any flavor ice cream — the coconut flakes may be used "snowy" as they come from the can, or they may be tinted, sauteed in a bit of butter, or toasted to a golden brown.

The Apricot Wine Syrup may be served on dessert pancakes or waffles — with or without a scoop of ice cream.

Prettiest of all is the Ice Cream Pie which can be made with any flavor, or combination of flavors of ice cream placed in a coconut shell in layers, or in overlapping "petals" easily made as the ice cream is spooned from its container.

Special tip: make this delectable pie days ahead and freeze it!

Coconut Snowballs

1 pint vanilla ice cream
½ cup tender-thin flaked coconut

Scoop ice cream into balls. Roll balls in coconut. Place in freezing tray of refrigerator for about 1 hour. Serve plain or with sauce. Makes 3 or 4 servings.

★ ★ ★

Apricot Wine Syrup

1 cup maple-blended syrup
¾ cup diced drained canned apricots
½ teaspoon grated lemon rind
¼ cup sherry

Place syrup in a small saucepan, and bring to a boil. Add apricots and lemon rind. Cool. Add sherry. Serve on ice cream. Makes about 2 cups syrup.

Maple Ice Cream Pie

Fill Quick Coconut Crust with vanilla ice cream, using 1 pints ice cream for an 8-inch crust and 1 quart for 9-inch crust. Serve at once. Pour maple-blended syrup over the cut pieces. Garnish with maple leaf candy.

Quick Coconut Crust

2 tablespoons soft butter
1½ cups (about) tender-thin flaked coconut

Combine butter and coconut. Press evenly into lightly buttered 8- or 9-inch pie pan. Bake in slow oven (300 degrees F) 15 to 20 minutes, or until golden brown. Cool.

Pear Upside Down Cake

Mix a recipe of your favorite upside-down cake. Sprinkle bottom of pan with brown sugar. Arrange canned pear halves on top of brown sugar and place pecan halves between pears. Pour cake batter over all and bake as directed. Before serving, fill each pear cavity with maraschino cherries or dates stuffed with cream cheese.

Meat Loaf Stars for the Fourth

Highlight your Fourth of July holiday table—be it indoors or out—with this Star Spangled Meat Loaf that's decorative as well as delicious. Subtly spiced, this loaf has a special flavor that is sparked by the addition of corn flakes, which also serves to extend the ground beef.

When the loaf is baked, decorate the top to represent a flag, using strips of pimiento and cooked macaroni for the stripes, and bits of macaroni for the stars.

Star Spangled Meat Loaf

1½ pounds ground raw beef
3 cups corn flakes
1 egg, beaten
1 (10½-ounce) can condensed tomato soup
1 cup milk
¼ cup chopped onions
2 teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons flour

Combine all ingredients except flour. Pack lightly into greased 9½x4¼-inch loaf pan. Sprinkle loaf with flour. Bake uncovered in moderately hot oven (400 degrees) for about 1 hour or until done.

Turn out onto heated platter. Decorate to represent flag, using strips of pimiento and cooked macaroni, with bits of macaroni for the stars. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

Put unsweetened chocolate to be melted in a custard cup, then place the cup in a strainer over a teakettle of boiling water — lid removed from the kettle, of course.

Bob Considine Says:

Fuchs Beat Reds on Satellite—in Prison

By BOB CONSIDINE

LONDON — A murderer named Brian Hume, who ingeniously but unsuccessfully tried to dispose of his victim's body by dropping it from a plane flying over the North Sea, emerged from Wakefield Jail not long ago.

He had been given a fairly light sentence because he proved to the court's satisfaction that two other men were involved in the slaying.

Hume promptly announced upon leaving prison that he was the sole murderer and sold his memoirs to a London paper, knowing that he could not be tried again.

He brought something else out of prison with him: Sketches and notes indicating that a fellow prisoner at Wakefield had drawn up the specifications of an earth satellite some years before the Russians launched Sputnik I.

The prisoner was Klaus Fuchs, the major atomic spy whose own term will end this fall. British and American minds are at work on how to keep the brilliant traitor from disappearing behind the Iron Curtain with what they fear is a treasure trove of theories and calculations amassed during his more than eight years of prison life.

In their anxiety to keep Fuchs in the West, several British and American atomic research outfits have offered him attractive posts —though the man would have been duly electrocuted along with the Rosenbergs had he been an American citizen. Fuchs' citizenship is now German, a retroactive status he attained when the British took away his citizenship papers in 1951.

If Hume's documents are valid, and there is no reason to believe they are not, they might indicate that Fuchs is at least partly responsible for the startling Soviet progress in space exploration. Some alumni of the Manhattan Engineering District project declare that the information Fuchs leaked during and after the war enabled Russia to produce the atomic bomb perhaps 10 years sooner than anticipated.

What is not as well known is the fact that long before even the U.S. had its first atomic bomb, Fuchs was rated among the world's top three theoreticians on the feasibility of the hydrogen bomb. Presumably, those studies also were sent along to the Russians, via messenger Harry Gold in the U.S. and the couriers with whom Fuchs did business in London for four years after V-J Day.

Julius Rosenberg once boasted to his gullible brother-in-law, Sgt. David Greenglass, who by harrowing chance was assigned by the Army to work in the very shop at Los Alamos which produced the complex "lens" (trigger) of the A-bomb, that he was in possession of a spy's report on "a space station." Very little was brought out on this in the subsequent trial of Rosenberg and his wife, Ethel.

But inasmuch as they were relaying information taken from Fuchs, there is reason to believe that the spy forwarded views and drawings which later took substance in a stunning scientific and propaganda achievement by the Soviet Union.

Fuchs was once considered for the Nobel Prize in physics and conceivably could be again. Hence the interest in securing the services of a man the free world once declared one of the ultimate architects of treachery.

If Fuchs accepts a job in Britain or the U.S. after his release, it is probable that a 'round-the-clock complement of undercover men would be assigned to watch him. Several atomic research groups, notably British, feel that the fruit of his genius would be worth the trouble and expense and the appalling mortification of catering to a man whose contributions to Russia's present menace are incalculable.

★ ★ ★

Paradoxically, Russia unquestionably would put the same tail on Fuchs if he is taken into the select circle of Soviet scientists his stature warrants.

Fuchs' "controlled schizophrenia," as he described it in his amazing confession, permitted him to commit appalling treason in perfectly good conscience. It could again, on either side of the Curtain.

Million More U.S. Wives Going to Work Each Year

WASHINGTON — A government survey indicates that the nation's working wives are increasing in number. The report shows they gained at the rate of 1,000,000 a year for the past five years, increasing from 7,500,000 to 13,000,000. In 1940 only 5,000,000 were working.

Frenzied Celebration Greets News

Alaska Goes Wild as Statehood Assured by Approval in U.S. Senate

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — Alaskans caught their breath today after tossing the wildest celebration since gold rush days, and looked ahead to a problem-packed future as the nation's biggest state.

★ ★ ★

They poured it on last night, with whistles, sirens, horns, bells and fireworks as they cheered news of the Senate's passage of the statehood bill. Street dances followed parades. In Sitka, one-drinks were on the house.

BIG TASK AHEAD

There seemed to be no possibility that either President Eisenhower or Alaskans would reject statehood now that Congress has approved it. But before Alaska's star is added to the flag, a monumental task faces the territory in preparing for actual admission to the Union.

Celebrants who have fought and dreamed of statehood for the vast territory set aside thoughts of the difficult period ahead and toasted victory.

RIVER RUNS GOLD

At Fairbanks, the Chena River turned gold. Wildly happy residents poured dye into the stream near where one of Alaska's big gold strikes lured pioneers and gold strikes lured pioneers and sourdoughs at the turn of the century.

At Skagway, the gateway to the big klondike gold strike of 1898, housewives paraded in the streets wearing embroidered badges that proclaimed:

★ ★ ★

"Bigger than Texas, better than California. Alaska — God's country."

At Anchorage, a huge bonfire blazed long through the overnight twilight in the Land of the Midnight Sun.

In every city of the territory, and in its scattered villages and towns, the celebration went on.

★ ★ ★

Not everywhere, however, was the merry making as loud or spontaneous as it was at Anchorage and Fairbanks, centers for years of the statehood movement.

At Juneau, the capital and seat of conservative opposition to statehood, hundreds celebrated and cheered as a replica of the Liberty Bell was struck 49 times and as scores danced in the street under bursting fireworks and aerial displays. But a few residents grumbled and some protested that hardships and higher taxes were in store.

CALL TO UNITE

Eve n among long-time opponents of statehood, however, there was a general feeling that the past should be forgottenand that Alaskans should unite in the job ahead.

The historic entry of a new state into the Union—the first since that of Arizona and New Mexico in 1912—will come only after months of frenzied political activity.

★ ★ ★

The statehood bill, which President Eisenhower is expected to certify as enacted by Thursday, requires that Alaska Gov. Mike Stepovich fix the dates of the first state primary and general elections. His proclamation must come before Aug. 1.

Before that date, Stepovich is expected to have to call the Territorial Legislature into special session to appropriate funds for the elections and to set up the election machinery.

VOTERS MUST ACCEPT

The voters must accept statehood on three propositions included inthe bill approved by Congress.

★ ★ ★

The three-way test includes a referendum on whether immediate statehood should be granted, whether Alaskans accept the state boundaries outlined in the bill, and whether they approve the national defense land withdrawal rights granted to the President by the bill.

The vote is expected to come during the primary, probably in August. Rejection of any one of the three propositions would cancel the prospect of statehood.

★ ★ ★

If approved, Alaskans then would have to elect new state officials at a general election, probably in November. Offices to be filled would include a governor, a secretary, two United States senators, a representative, 40 members of the State House of Representatives and 20 members of the new State Senate.

★ ★ ★

The unlikely possibility that statehood might be rejected adds a further complication to the Alaska political picture—because a territorial election already is scheduled for Oct. 15.

Goodwill Industries Asks for Discards

Goodwill Industries urges Pontiac area residents to make an effort to fill Goodwill bags so handicapped workers will have summer work.

Because many contributors are on vacations or away during the summer, these bags remain unfilled. Without these discards Goodwill workers are left without means of income.

Tigers Get 7-6 Gift From A's

AP Wirephoto

THEFT — Billy Martin, Tiger infielder, steals home in the second inning against the Kansas City Athletics yesterday as Ozzie Virgil steps back from the batters box. Catcher Frank House takes the throw from pitcher Jack Urban but umpire Nestor Chylak ruled Martin safe.

2 Wild Throws on Same Play Decide 'Game'

Hoeft Scores 9th Win in Comedy of Errors; Lary Hurls Tonight

DETROIT (AP) — It was the hottest day of the year in Detroit, yet there was something Christmasy about yesterday's baseball game at Briggs Stadium.

The Kansas City Athletics made an outright gift of the Tigers' 7-6 triumph that pulled the Detroit club up once again to the .500 mark.

Now, the Tigers did their level-best to give it to the Athletics, contributing one error, a hit batsman and two "gopher balls." But only one of the A's runs was unearned. Four of the seven Tiger scores were earned.

All this wasn't easy. After four innings of fumbling and stumbling around, the two clubs found themselves in a 4-4 deadlock. Even at that point the contest had all the earmarks of a complete flop.

At the outset, the Athletics scored one run. Ex-Tiger Bill Tuttle singled and Roger Maris sent him to third with another single. Preston Ward hit a fly to center and Tuttle scored after the catch. But Maris, thinking there were already two men out, dashed wildly to third base — and was an easy double play victim.

Apparently not satisfied with this early show of inefficiency, the Athletics donated one run in the Tiger first. Frank Bolling doubled and Ozzie Virgil broke a string of 20 hitless at-bats with a double to center for one run.

First baseman Harry Simpson let Gail Harris' grounder get through his legs and Virgil scored.

Not to be outfumbled, the Tigers gave Kansas City a run in the second. With two out and two on, shortstop Billy Martin fumbled pitcher Jack Urban's bouncer and Hector Lopez scored from third base. Martin got that run back when he singled and eventually stole home in the Detroit half of the inning.

Three singles around a hit batsman produced two runs that gave Kansas City a 4-3 lead in the fourth. The Tigers tied it in their half on three singles.

Then, for a refreshing change of pace, Simpson made it 5-4 with a sixth inning home run off Herb Moford. In the ninth, Bob Cerv made it 6-4 with his 20th home run, off Bill Hoeft.

In a spirit of true showmanship, the teams saved the best until last. In the Tiger ninth, singles by Red Wilson, Bolling and Virgil loaded the bases with one out and dictated the removal of Tom Gorman, who had pitched effectively since relieving starter Urban in the sixth.

Murry Dickson, the third Kansas City pitcher, did the job that is expected of any sound relief pitcher. He got Harvey Kuenn to hit a sharp grounder to third base.

Third baseman Ward fielded the ball cleanly and threw toward second base for what should have been the front half of a double play. The ball sailed into right field and two runners scored.

Maris, paying back the Tigers at least in part for the home run damage he has done in Briggs Stadium, promptly rifled an errant peg over the third base bag. The winning run scored on the second error on a single play.

UNHAPPY — Tiger manager Bill Norman and Billy Martin are an unhappy pair here and they let umpire Bill McKinley know they did not like the call after Martin was tagged out in a rundown in the 4th inning yesterday. Detroit won, 7-6, on Kansas City errors in the last inning.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

The Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department is presently boasting one of the largest junior and adult baseball programs in its history.

There are 62 teams, nearly a 50 per cent increase over last season, in the junior classification plus eight adult teams for players over 18.

The Class A baseball federation league is one of the most competitive circuits in the state, and the cost of the entire junior baseball program is less than the total outlay for one Little League.

These facts are offered by the Recreation Department in "rebuttal" for what was termed as 'inference" that the city was not doing enough for junior leaguers in this column recently in giving support to Little League baseball.

We did not attempt to ridicule any program which is made available to the youngsters. Our argument is that there aren't enough boys participating in baseball in the city, whether it be city league, Pee Wee Leagues, "Y" Leagues, or Boys' Club Leagues.

With 62 teams at 15 boys a team the total in city league junior play would be 930 boys. Other independent groups would add another 600 boys 9 to 18.

The total of nearly 1,600 is hardly adequate for a city of 80,000, and it is especially inadequate in as much as many included in this total are from outside city limits.

We do not dispute that the opportunity is offered for junior teams to enter the city leagues. And the increase in teams is encouraging.

The point we attempt to emphasize is the need for more youngsters to play baseball regardless of the league. This can be done only when leaders in each section of the city join forces with the leagues in their area by allowing more opportunities for boys with additional teams.

When the total of 1,600 is doubled, we can then say the majority of our boys are playing baseball and the proportion of boys to the overall population would be considered adequate.

DITTOS FROM THE PRESS BOX

Archie Johnson, long time outstanding Pontiac area bowler, has given up active bowling as result of a recent attack and is now planning to give private instructions and to participate in clinics.

★ ★ ★

This is for the information of a consistent letter writer who insists that The Press sports department is to blame for not presenting baseball box scores in a manner he sees proper.

The Major League boxes carried in this newspaper confirm to Associated Press style. The AP offers the runs-batted in column in its box score whereas some papers do not. For this additional column, which readers have proven they like, the alignment of the columns in respect to their denotation (AB,R,H,RBI) is impossible. There is only so much type which will fit into a single line within a column space.

Mackay, Gibson Seek Wimbledon Semis Today

United Press International

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI)—Barry Mackay, sole U.S. survivor in men's singles, and three American women bid for semi-final berths in the Wimbledon Tennis Championships today but the only favorite among them was defending women's queen Althea Gibson.

Miss Gibson, who is top-seeded in defense of her title, faced a dangerous rival in fifth-seeded Shirley Bloomer, ace of Britain's victorious Wightman Cup team, but was a solid choice to win.

Mackay proved his right to his No. 8 seeding in men's play by advancing steadily through the early rounds but now found himself an underdog against third-seeded Mervyn Rose, the Australian southpaw who is his doubles partner in this tournament.

In women's singles, unseeded Mimi Arnold of Redwood City, Calif., was up against sixth-seeded Suzi Kormoczi of Hungary, and 40-year-old Margaret Osborne Du Pont of Wilmington, Del., who on the 1947 championship here but no longer plays on the regular tennis circuit, faced British Wightman cupper Angela Mortimer.

After Mackay and Rose settle their battle in men's singles, which was slated as today's opening match on the historic center court, they were to join up for third-round men's doubles match on a side court against the Brazilian team of Ronald Barnes and Carlos Fernandes.

Also listed for action in men's doubles was the second-seeded Gardnar Mulloy of Denver, Colo., and Budge Patty of Los Angeles and Paris in a third-rounder against India's Davis Cup team of Ramanathan Krishnan and Naresh Kumar.

And a feature match in women's doubles today sent the top-seeded team of Miss Gibson and Maria Bueno of Brazil against blonde beauty Karol Fageros of Miami, Fla., and tourney veteran Dorothy Knode of Forest Hills, N. Y.

4-Run Inning Wins for Grill

Griff's Grill tallied four runs in the first inning and went on to defeat Our Jets, 6-4, in Class A City League baseball action Monday at Wisner Field.

Singles by Jerry Vallad, Russ and Toney Lothery and George Funck plus a couple of errors handed the Grill team four runs before the Jets ever had a turn at bat.

The Jets fought back and narrowed the deficit to 5-4 after five innings, but Griff's gave pitcher Terry Hoy one insurance run in the 6th inning and he blanked his foes from there to the finish.

Richard Cloonan started on the mound for the Jets, but departed in favor of Jim Coperonie after pitching to seven men in the four-run 1st stanza as the Grill nine batted around. John Bonser finished on the hill for the losers.

Griff's collected 11 hits, three each by Vallad and Toney Lothery and two by Russ Lothery. Hoy hurled the route for the Grill and allowed eight safeties. Cloonan was charged with the defeat.

Struck by Ball, Waterford Boy Has Concussion

Paul Harding, 16, son of well-known area golfer Glenn, is reported in "good" condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital with a brain concussion which resulted from his being hit by a batted ball in a baseball game Sunday at Birmingham.

A member of the Waterford Jr. Legion team, Paul was injured while standing in the on-deck circle waiting to bat next. A lined foul struck him on the left ear.

He was rushed to Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak following the incident for X-rays before being transferred to Pontiac.

Homers Mark Action in Latin-American Loop

Home runs played important parts in two of the three baseball games on the weekly schedule of the Latin-American circuit.

A four-bagger by Port Huron's Winfield won a 10-9 decision for the Lake Huron Braves over Pontiac's Aztecans. The tilt was a see-saw affair up to that point. Al Hayward homered for Aztecans.

Four circuit blows were hit (two by each club) in Flint Pirates' 11-4 win over Capac. Taylor and Bartly for Flint and Whitkopf and Wells for Capac hit the homers.

Pontiac Los Mayas won a 11-4 contest over Mt. Clemens.

Dramatics Mark 2 Wins in Avon Church Circuit

Two of the four contests in the Avondale Church Softball loop, played Monday night, were marked by dramatics. Two others were more or less routine games.

When fielder Palmer for United Presbyterians deflected a high fly and a teammate ran behind him to catch the ball, the out stopped a rally for Parkdale M.E. that could have changed the result. Two were out and bases loaded when Grusnick hit the long one. UP won, 10-5.

Avon Baptists, still without a win, nearly nipped Pontiac RLDS, but finally bowed 13-11, when Bill Tebeau's double in the 6th scored Henry Knight for the winning run, along with an insurance tally. Fast-improving Avon also got six runs in the 6th, but didn't have enough.

Lake Orion RLDS defeated Nike 12-4, with Earl Koonce for winners and Chuck Chase for Nike hitting homers. Elmwood Methodists edged Stone Baptists 5-4 after setting up a 5-2 lead in the 5th.

Leads Yanks in British Open Qualifying

Injured Stranahan Fires 68

ST. ANNE'S-ON-THE-SEA, England (UPI) — Frank Stranahan's astounding 68 despite the pain of a pulled back muscle gave an underdog group of 10 Americans new hope today as they battled for survival in the second and last qualifying round of the British Open golf championship.

Stranahan chalked up his three-under-par 36-32 card yesterday over the water-logged Royal Lytham course shortly after getting novocaine injections to kill his back pain. Even he admitted the results were "amazing."

The qualifying field of 340 was to be cut to the low 100 scorers after today's 18-hole second round. Qualifying scores then will be discarded when the survivors open the championship flight competition tomorrow.

Yesterday half the field competed on the Royal Lytham course and the other half on the nearby Fairhaven course, where par is one stroke more. Today the two sections switch courses for the second qualifying round.

The three lowest scores of the first round all were posted at Royal Lytham. Peter Thomson of Australia, three-time champion here, smashed the course record with an eight-under-par 31-32—63. British Ryder Cupper Bernard Hunt had 32-34—66 and British Amateur champion Joe Carr of Ireland had 34-33—67.

The best score on Fairhaven was a 68 by Belgian pro Flory Van Donck.

Second best first-round score by an American was an even par 33-38—71 at Royal Lytham by tall Fred Brown of Los Angeles and Clarke Hardwicke, a handsome former movie bit player from Los Angeles, had a 40-37—77 on the same course.

Gene Sarazen, the 56-year-old 1932 British Open champion from Germantown, N.Y., had a 73 at Fairhaven.

★ ★ ★

Green Medalist at Birmingham

Pete Green, 17-year-old Birmingham High School golf whiz, walked off with medal honors Monday in the Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce junior golf tournament at Birmingham Country Club.

Green fired a par 71 over Birmingham's 36-35—71 layout to finish five strokes ahead of his nearest rivals. Pete birdied three holes going out for a 35, then bogied the 15th on the back nine to come home with 36.

Gary Mouw, a golfing teammate of Green's at Birmingham; Bud Badger, Bloomfield Hills ace, and Tommy Grace of Lathrup Village deadlocked for the runnerup position at 76 and had to hold a playoff to decide 2nd place.

Grace won the playoff on the 1st extra hole with a birdie four. He needed a drive, a No. 3 wood shot and two putts on the 510-yard par five 1st hole.

Mike Jackson, who carded a 79, joins Green, Grace, Mouw and Badger as Birmingham's five representatives to the state Jaycee golf tournament July 6-8 at Ann Arbor.

Emergency Exhibition

Elks No. 810 will meet Shaw's Jewelers Wednesday night at Beaudette Park at 7 o'clock in a City Softball League exhibition game. The Jewelers agreed to play the Elks when the latter's scheduled foe, Cavern Bar, dropped out of the city loop. Shaw's and the Elks will precede Wednesday's 8:30 game between Birmingham and Stadium Inn.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: A Persistent Grip Problem.

DIAGNOSIS: Try Slight Adjustments.

Treatment: Today I'd like to offer a little golf gimmick that's helped me a lot over the years. It may be a little hard to explain, but bear with me.

We've already gone over the essentials of the right grip—two knuckles visible on the left hand and one on the right, V's of thumb and forefinger forming a line pointing to right eye, and so on. These things must be followed, but also the grip must FEEL RIGHT to you.

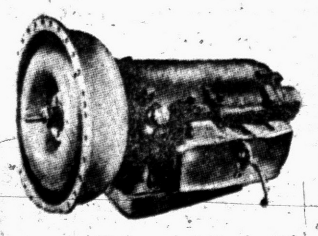

7-1

Looking for this right feel is the first thing I do before hitting my first shot of the day. I keep gripping and regripping the club — sort of kneading it, you might say—until it feels right in my hands.

Then I take a full practice swing. Now, without changing the grip at all, I bring my hands back to the address position and check to see if the grip has slipped or changed in any way during the swing. If the grip is the same, I can be confident that I have set my grip right for the day.

Try this gimmick. Getting your grip set right is mighty important.

Spahn Gets 10th Win; Cards Also Victors

United Press International

Nothing's sure in baseball, unless maybe it's Warren Spahn pitching against the Cincinnati Redlegs.

Since entering the National League back in 1942, the canny Milwaukee southpaw has beaten his Cincinnati "cousins" 48 times while losing only 15 games to them.

Don't go snapping your fingers at those 48 victories, either. Even if you're not impressed, such fine pitchers as Johnny Podres, Sam Jones, Ronnie Kline and Larry Jackson are.

They've all been in the league awhile and not one of them can top that total of 48 wins — including all their victories against every club in the circuit.

★ ★ ★

Milwaukee manager Fred Haney saved Spahn purposely for the Redlegs last night and he sure knew what he was doing. The 37-year-old lefty held Cincinnati to six hits in a 9-2 triumph that marked his 10th victory of the year.

Spahn, apparently headed for a 20-game season for the ninth time in his career, did not get his 10th victory last year until July 16, but still wound up with a 21-11 record.

The Braves achieved last night's triumph at the expense of Bob Purkey and retained their 2½ game lead. Milwaukee collected 12 hits, chasing Purkey with a four-run rally in the fourth inning and piling up five more runs against Tom Acker in the fifth. Del Crandall drove in three runs with a single and a double and Spahn also collected two hits to raise his batting average to .400.

The combination of Stan Musial and Lindy McDaniel paced the St. Louis Cardinals to a 4-2 decision over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Musial drove in two runs with his 13th homer and a double while McDaniel limited the Dodgers to seven hits in gaining his fifth win. Musial's two extra base hits moved him within two of Lou Gehrig's total of 1,190, which ranks second best in the Majors. Babe Ruth is the leader with 1,356 extra bases. John Roseboro homered for the Dodgers. The loss was charged to starter Bob Giallombardo.

Only two games were scheduled in the American League where Cleveland defeated Chicago, 5-3, and Detroit topped Kansas City, 7-6.

Reliever Hoyt Wilhelm had to throttle an eighth-inning rally by the White Sox to preserve Cal McLish's fourth victory. The Indians jumped in front with two runs in the second on Minnie Minoso's 12th homer, a hit batsman and Billy Moran's double and they added two more off loser Dick Donovan in the fifth on a walk and three sigles. Jim Ladis homered for Chicago.

Trout Program Attacked

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP) — The State Conservation Department's trout planting program in Michigan streams drew sharp criticism from the Michigan United Conservation Clubs (MUCC) yesterday.

The MUCC adopted a resolution at its annual convention which called for a team of experts to study the $700,000-a-year program after which the program would either be revised or eliminated, depending on the survey.

Supporters of the resolution said present trout plantings produce fish that are easily caught and harm natural trout food supply.

★ ★ ★

Fred Westerman, chief of the conservation department's fishery division, attended yesterday's business meeting. He said in an interview the resolution attacking trout plantings probably would have little effect since the plantings are a policy matter determined by the conservation department director.

Adams now has five Wings under contract, the others being Norm Ullman, Forbes Kennedy and Red Kelly.

The $7,500 Devil Diver Handicap will be the main attraction on a holiday weekend of racing July 4-5 at the Detroit Race Course.

Mr. Fantastic, a record breaker at the DRC this year, will top the field for the Devil Diver, a six-furlong race scheduled for July 4. Also slated for the Independence Day card is the Wolverine Handicap, a $4,000 race at the distance of one mile.

Saturday, July 5, the $5,000 Granville Handicap will be the featured event with the $3,500 Mars Handicap supporting the big race.

Nine-race cards will be offered both days, with post time 2 p.m. on both the 4th and on Saturday.

Dozen Errors Help PBI's 11-4 Victory

Pontiac Business Institute and Kuhlman Electric made five hits apiece Monday in a Class B City League baseball game at Jaycee Park. But Kuhlman's committed 12 errors and PBI won the contest hands down, 11-4.

PBI scored three runs in the 2nd inning to take a 5-2 lead and the advantage was never lost. Leroy Nicholas slammed a two-run homer for the winners in the 1st stanza and pitcher Clyde Conner of Kuhlman's duplicated the feat in the 3rd. Greg Meadows was the winning hurler.

Drug 3-2 Victor in Extra Frames at Drayton Park

A base on balls to Tony Hiller and Jim Green's triple in the bottom of the 8th brought Drayton Drug B a 3-2 extra-inning victory over Hubert Wall's Service Monday night in Waterford National League softball action at Drayton Plains.

Jim Preston hurled the distance for the winners and yielded five hits. Glenn Sheffield, who came to the mound in the 2nd stanza for Wall's, was charged with the loss.

Merlin Jones and Dave Springer each rapped three safeties and Francis Holman picked up two safe blows to pace Sno-Bol's 15-hit attack for a 6-3 triumph over Drayton Drug A in the American League nightcap. Glenn (Wimpy) Johnson pitched the route for Sno-Bol and permitted five hits.

Elizabeth Lake Estates scored four runs in the top of the 7th for a 10-7 conquest of Lakeland Hardware in Little League activity and Nu-Brite Plating routed Lakeland Pharmacy, 11-1, in Junior League play.

Hitters Have Big Day in City Loops

It was hitter's day in the city's junior baseball leagues yesterday even though a few pitchers managed to turn in strong showings.

Bill Powell slammed three hits to support a five-inning 16-0 no-hitter by Ron Walters of Clarkston over Frank's Market and Bob Robaja had a perfect day as Pontiac Boys' Club walloped Rosebud 12-1 in Class F morning play. Waterford downed Auburn Boys' Club 9-1 in an F evening tilt.

Mike Cottone belted a two-run homer and a single to lead Birmingham to an 8-1 conquest of Pontiac Boys' Club, Don Nicholie outscored Lake Orion 19-7 and Edison Merchants forfeited to Lytell Colgrove after the latter scored 16 runs in the first frame.

The Nicholie gang lambasted three Orion chuckers for 20 hits. Joe Tinson was the winning pitcher and batted in six runs with a triple and two singles. Lytell Colgrove sent 20 men to the plate with Chuck Kirken's three-run home run the big blow.

★ ★ ★

Most of the Midget games were high-scoring affairs. Gingellville nipped the Aces 10-9, Pontiac Boys' Club blanked the Big Eagles 19-0, Baldwin whipped Perry Park 12-5 in the American League. Sylvan drubbed the Yankees 14-6 and Tel Huron blasted the Metro Jets 21-1 in International play.

Two triples by Jim Hudson featured the Gingellville attack.

Tinkis flipped a two-hitter for the Boys' Club. Three of the runs tallied on Bill Crawford's bases loaded triple. Bill Wallis had a similar blow for Baldwin.

Things were just the opposite in the Widget League where four close games were played.

The Little Tigers came up with three in the 5th to edge the Little Braves 6-5, the Cowboys downed the Giants 7-4, Preston Bros. was another team that pulled out a late victory besting Willis 8-7 and Ned's Drillers combined four hits and three errors to trip LeBaron 8-4.

Pontiac's Gene Bone and partner Asher Tilchin defend their Michigan Pro-Am golf championship today in the annual 36-hole tournament being held this year at Lakepointe.

Gene is assistant pro at Tam O'Shanter while Tilchin, his amateur teammate, is a Tam member.

In yesterday's pro-am and pro-pro 18-hole preliminary over the Lakepointe layout, Chick Harbert of Meadowbrook shot a four-under-par 66 for the day's best round.

Herbert and partner Tony Skover combined for a best-ball of 64, which was equalled by Tom Sullivan-Tom Dreper, Tommy Cosmos-Tim Baldwin and Bill Markham-Bob Hendricks. In the pro-pro division, Harbert came through again as he and Alex Sinclair teamed for a best-ball of 63.

Bone and Tilchin tuned up for today's title defense with a 67 Monday.

Sally, 21-year-old MSU co-ed, fired a one-under-par 76 to take the first round lead in the annual tournament which rontinues today and Wednesday. Mrs. Harold Marquardt shot 77 yesterday for 2nd place and Mrs. Richard Marsh carded 78 to gain 3rd spot.

Miss Wright on LPGA Team Twice

By BILL CORNWELL

It may seem confusing to say that Mickey Wright, the newly-crowned U.S.G.A. Women's Open golf champion, has been named to the same all-star team twice in the last three weeks.

There's a catch to it, however. This is the way it happened.

The winner of the annual Ladies Professional Golfers Association tournament automatically gains a berth on the LPGA honor squad. The same recognition is given to the winner of the National Open.

Long-driving Mickey won both titles this year so she was twice automatically named to the 1958 LPGA all-star team. Simple, isn't it?

★ ★ ★

Just a little better than three weeks ago the 23-year-old blonde took the LPGA crown at Pittsburgh's Churchill Valley Country Club by six strokes. Last Saturday she annexed the U. S. Open title at neighboring Forest Lake Country Club by five shots.

Currently teammates with Mickey on the honor team are popular Patty Berg, who won the Western Open tourney for the 7th time 10 days ago at Erie, Pa., and Beverly Hanson, the 1958 Titleholders champion.

This is the inaugural year for the all-star squad, which will be composed of eight members. Five openings remain to be filled on the present roster and they will be chosen on the basis of their standing in scoring averages.

★ ★ ★

The honor team, which is to be selected annually by LPGA officials, corresponds to the men's Ryder Cup team and will be available for exhibition matches.

SHORT PUTTS

Mickey Wright, who ran away with the Women's Open championship after a record-breaking 72-hole effort of 290, hopes to be wearing contact lenses in her eyes when she returns to the tournament trail.

"I sincerely hope that the tourney at Forest Lake was my last one with regular eye-glasses," Mickey said. She's in Detroit now, getting the right fit for the hidden lenses.

★ ★ ★

Attendance was poor at Forest Lake last weekend for a tourney of such high caliber. Fewer than a thousand persons turned out Thursday, about 1,500 showed up Friday and approximately 2,000 came Saturday. Maybe those admission prices, especially that final day $4.40 were too steep.

★ ★ ★

Fred Corcoran takes over as business manager of the LPGA on July 7 for a one-year term. His headquarters will be at the Savoy Hilton Hotel in New York City. Corcoran said that Eileen Stulb of Augusta, Ga., is being sought as a public relations representative for the LPGA.

★ ★ ★

Members of the LPGA have approved a 32-week tournament schedule. The men's PGA has a 45-week slate.

McLaughlin-Looney Silver Lake Victors

Mrs. Maurice McLaughlin and Elbert Looney formed the winning team with a net of 38 on husband's day in the women's Silver Lake Golf League Sunday.

Mrs. James Dando and Bill Fleischauer were runnersup with 11 net. The "booby" prize went to Mrs. Wayne Harrison and Jim Dando, who had a net of 49. Twenty-two couples took part.

Junior Legion Teams Play Tomorrow, 4th

Three games are on tap in the Jr. Legion Baseball League while one other has been changed to Friday to make it a Holiday tussle.

Berkley will be at Southfield, Milford at Waterford and Royal Oak at Birmingham in 6 p.m. contests tomorrow. The Rochester at Clawson game was shifted to Friday.

Another Holiday game will have Milford at Southfield in a replay of a 1-1 tie which occurred opening day.

No date has been set for the finishing of a Southfield-Clawson contest which Southfield originally won 8-1 June 22. A protest concerning a balk call in the 5th inning has been upheld by loop officials. The game will be continued from that point with Southfield leading 1-0.

Burgess Wins Mound Duel

Elmo (Smokey) Burgess of the Pontiac Police and Wilbur Wright brilliant pitching duel last night of the Moose locked horns in a the City Softball League's four- at North Side Park to highlight game program.

★ ★ ★

Burgess won the battle, thanks to back-to-back doubles by John Bridgewater and Bob Emery in the 3rd inning which gave the Police team a 1-0 victory. Burgess allowed only three hits in his shutout performance while Wright hurled a nifty six-hitter.

The Pontiac Post Office handed O'Neil Realty a 10-3 trouncing behind the five-hit hurling of Art Weiss in the other game at North Side. The Mailmen made only six hits, but rival O'Neil moundsmen obligingly walked 15 batters.

On the Beaudette diamond, Perc McConner pitched a five-inning two-hit shutout as Shaw's Jewelers thumped Blue Star Drive-In, 10-0. Play was halted by the 10-run rule. The Jewelers scored eight runs in the 1st inning as 11 men batted.

★ ★ ★

Bob Thatcher clouted a two-run homer for the VFW and the CIO's Bill York blasted a three-run homer as the VFW collected 11 hits for a 9-3 triumph in the opener at Beaudette.

Dees May Enter NIB

He Sails to Visit Tito

Nasser Cooling Off Toward Russia?

By CHARLES M. McCANN
UPI Foregn News Analyst

Relations between Soviet Russian leaders and President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic seem to be entering a cooling-off period.

Nasser sailed Saturday for a visit to President Tito of Yugoslavia.

Russia's relations with Tito, at the same time, are near the breaking point.

Dispatches from Cairo say that Nasser hopes to make his visit to Tito without antagonizing Russia.

How that can happen, it is difficult to see. It is more likely that the Russians will regard Nasser's visit as a diplomatic slap—which it seems to be.

A brief Belgrade dispatch June 13 quoted an official spokesman as saying that Nasser would make the visit.

At that time, the Russian and Chinese Communist regimes were bitterly attacking Tito as a renegade, and the announcement caused some surprise.

Russian-Yugoslav relations became even worse when it was announced on June 17 that Hungarian revolt leaders Imre Nagy and Pal Maleter had been executed. Nagy had been arrested after the Russians induced him to leave the Yugoslav Embassy in Budapest, promising him safe conduct. Later Tito had been promised that Nagy would not be tried. The Russian treachery naturally outraged him.

★ ★ ★

Because of the increased bitterness between Tito and the Kremlin, it seemed possible that Nasser's visit might be called off.

But it was officially disclosed in Cairo on June 23 that Nasser would go through with his plan.

Cairo dispatches say that Nasser will try to draw Tito toward the "neutralist" bloc. This, Cairo argues, would be preferable from the Soviet viewpoint than a move by Tito toward closer relations with the Allies.

Any such hope seems overoptimistic. Since Tito broke with the late Josef Stalin in 1948, he has shown a determination to follow his own course and not to tie himself to any bloc.

If any "selling" is done as the result of Nasser's visit, Tito is likely to do it.

It is pretty certain also that his visit to Russia in May was a most limited success. Nasser did not seem to be much impressed by what he saw and heard.

Tito is sure to point out to Nasser, emphatically, that Soviet Russia is a dangerous and treacherous friend. He is sure to remind Nasser that Russia cancelled a $275 million credit to Yugoslavia when his current dispute with the Kremlin started.

One angle of the situation is that Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India, Nasser's fellow "neutralist," has condemned the Russian attack on Tito as an interference in Yugoslavia's internal affairs. He also has criticized the execution of Nagy.

★ ★ ★

In all, it is likely that Soviet leaders will be watching developments anxiously for the 10 days to two weeks, starting Wednesday, during which Nasser will be Tito's guest.

Dublin Elects Woman Mayor

City Council Chooses Her on Fourth Ballot Over Robert Briscoe

DUBLIN (AP) — Dublin today had a woman mayor for the second time.

Slight, graying Catherine Byrne, a Scotish-born widow in her late 50s, was elected by the City Council last night. She defeated Robert Briscoe, who two years ago became the first Jewish lord mayor of the predominantly Irish Catholic and whose tours of the United States have made him perhaps the best-known Dubliner to Americans.

Mrs. Byrne took over for a one-year term from Lord Mayor James Carroll, 52, a contractor who defeated Briscoe last year.

"This is the biggest shock I have ever had in all my life," said Mrs. Byrne after she beat Briscoe 23-17 on the fourth ballot. He was the nominee of Prime Minister Eamon de Valera's Fianna Fail party. She represented the chief opposition, the Fine Gael.

As mayor, Mrs. Byrne's duties will be largely ceremonial but she will be paid 2,500 pounds—$7,000—for the year. The government is run by a city manager under the direction of the 45-member Council.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Byrne, a Catholic, was born in Edinburgh but has spent most of her life in Dublin. She was a tacher for many years and was active in city affairs with her husband, a councilman. At his death nine years ago, she was elected to fill his place and has held it ever since. She has two daughters, Claire, 27, who lives with her; and Moira, 23, who works in London.

★ ★ ★

Dublin's other woman mayor was another widow, Kathleen Clarke. The Birtiutedx resec iheh Clarke. The British executed her husband, Tom Carlke, for his part in the Sinn Fein uprising in Dublin in 1916.

The Passion Play, next to be seen in 1960, has been performed in the small village of Oberammergau, Germany, once every 10 years for 300 years.

More Schools to Get Reactors for Research

NEW YORK—Only about a dozen United States colleges and universities have research reactors, used for training operating personnel and testing materials.

This number is expected to rise, however, as a result of the Atomic Energy Commission's announced policy of lending financial assistance. Production of these research reactors is moving toward a $50,000,000-a-year market.

Get Out the Cookies, Art Linkletter's On!

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Art Linkletter makes me nervous. He is so acutely amiable. I am slouching on a couch and he twinkles onto the screen; suddenly it is like Uncle Charlie dropping in—get out the cookies, dig up the pads and pencils, smile, smile, fun and games.

His 20-year-old son, Jack Linkletter, who begins a show called "Haggis Baggis" on NBC tonight, explains it all.

"Dad has a ball, with everything he does.

"He has five of us kids—I'm the oldest—and I've been playing parlor games since I could talk. Remember the game 'Guggenheim'? That's what 'Haggis Baggis' is taken from, except it's much quicker in our version, and more exciting, and you win things like cabin cruisers and all-electronic kitchens if you win."

Big Jack paused for breath. He's very amiable too. And tall and blonde, with a long, gaunt, likeable face. He said he's been working with his dad toward this big network break for nearly 10 years. "I hung around dad everywhere he went. When I was real small, he used to listen for me to say funny things. He asked me to imagine I was a big-game hunter in Africa and then he interviewed me about my adventures, recording them on tape."

Such interviews — inspired by Jack and perpetuated by other small children—helped make Art Linkletter the big personality he is today.

Meantime, Jack hung around Art in radio and TV studios. By the time he was 15, he was reading radio commercials. A year later, he had his own radio show in Hollywood. He only gave it up to come to New York for big-time TV.

★ ★ ★

I mentioned to Jack that the whole Linkletter family seems to have boundless energy.

"Oh, sure," he said. "Get it from Dad. He has a strict schedule. Has to for all the things he does. Do you know that beside his six shows, and all his benefits, he's on the board of directors for five or six corporations—and attends all their meetings?

"Well, he makes out a schedule for every day. Down to the minute. It includes a 45-minute sleep period in mid-afternoon. He lies down and like that, he's out. I follow the same sort of schedule. Every minute accounted for." Young Linkletter pulled out a small notebook, and grinned.

"It's such a tight schedule I didn't even think to allow time for my wife to be a procrastinator —you know women, always 15 minutes late."

★ ★ ★

His bride of eight months, he explained, is a former high school teacher. Respectful of the schedule, she no longer procrastinates. What's more, she too goes to sleep "just like that."

★ ★ ★

The Linkletters are impeccably adjusted. For a number of deep-seated psychological reasons, it still makes me nervous.

Would Get Funds to Hire Attendants

Wants Paralyzed Vets Freed From Hospitals

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP) — A paralyzed war veteran is fighting to free quadraplegics from veterans hospitals—and save the government millions of dollars in the process.

Under Ted Anderson's plan each veteran paralyzed in four limbs would receive $200 a month to hire an attendant to take care of him in a home outside the hospital.

★ ★ ★

"That would be a saving of about $460 a month," Anderson said as he prepared to leave for Washington, where a bill embodying his proposal is due to be acted on in Congress shortly.

There are about 1,000 quadraplegics in the country, he estimated.

"We're expensive patients," said the 38-year-old former infantry officer who was shot in the neck by a Nazi sniper while leading a patrol across the Rhine. "It costs the government about $660 a month to keep us in VA hospitals."

More important to Anderson than saving money, however, is the prospect of freeing the paralyzed men from hospital life.

"After you've been in a hospital for years you'd do almost anything to leave," se said. Anderson, a graduate of the University of California, is now living in his own home with his 12-year-old daughter and a housekeeper. He and his wife are divorced.

Trip to Vatican Brings Out Kindness in Earl

By EARL WILSON

ROME — I got into a cab and rode out to the Vatican in the rain.

Everywhere, there were umbrellas. The priests, and nuns, and pilgrims piling out of the buses, carrying black, sober ones. There were a few big umbrellas over the carriage horses. Their drivers were dozing inside the carriages waiting for sightseers who'd hardly want a carriage on a rainy day.

The drowsy rain added something new to my favorite view of St. Peter's — which is up the wide, sweeping, fairly new street called Via del Conciliazone . . . anything finished as late as 1950 being new in ancient Rome.

I went inside the Basilica and sat on one of the bare benches.

I'm a Methodist, yet this seemed a proper place to silently ask forgiveness for my many transgressions. But a columnist sins more than a burglar and as I began trying to remember all of them, I lost count as an insomniac loses count of his sheep.

So I went out into the rain again, feeling not cleansed but cleaner, thanking God I'd made another visit.

★ ★ ★

"Now I must do a good deed and write a kindly piece about somebody," I told myself.

Here's Lex Barker, the movie Tarzan and he tells me he'll do anything possible to help his ex-wife Lana Turner "because I still think the world of her."

"I'm tired of hearing Lana called a terrible mother," he said. "She's done the best she could, working as she did.

"I don't see who else should have custody of her daughter," Lex said further. "We were very happy until she lost the baby she was going to have — and then everything changed. But I'd still help her in any way I could."

So there it is! Mission accomplished! See how sweet I have become? It'll just be like Johnny Stompanato's family, though, not to appreciate my huge heart.

NEW YORK — Metal whiskers, not gremlins, caused many of the mysterious electrical failures in World War II radio communications, recent research shows. Whiskers, found on tin, cadmium, and zinc, will short a low-power electrical circuit. The whiskers are thinner than two microns and grow at the rate of three eighths of an inch a year.

Deranged Man Kills Two Police

Detectives Shot While Laying Siege to House in Rhode Island

PAWTUCKET, R. I. (AP) — A former mental patient shot and killed two police detectives who stormed his house last night when he refused for several hours to surrender peacefully.

Police riddled the house with machine-gun and small arms fire and blasted tear gas through windows after Lt. Thomas H. Truesdale, 58, and Detective Emil Newberg, 56, were slain.

★ ★ ★

When no further gunfire sounded from the house, police entered and found Robert Genereux, 35, cowering in a bedroom closet.

Truesdale and Newberg were among four officers who first entered the house in an attempt to disarm Genereux.

He met them with blasts from his .38-caliber pistol.

Both officers died a short while later in a hospital.

★ ★ ★

The siege began when neighbors of Genereux in a tenement section complained that he was firing shots into an unoccupied flat adjoining the house he shared with his mother.

Genereux refused to come out of the house on orders of police. Knowing he was armed, the first officers on the scene sent for reinforcements.

For seven hours, Genereux held siege in the house—until the fatal shooting and his surrender.

★ ★ ★

During the afternoon, Genereux's mother persuaded her son to give up a shotgun, a rifle and two revolvers.

She left the house and turned those over to police. She told the officers her son refused to give up a third pistol.

Officers surrounded the house and then four of them assaulted. Two were felled. The other two were forced to retreat.

★ ★ ★

Police said they would seek to hold Genereux until tomorrow before bringing charges against him.

Officials of the Veterans Administration hospital at Brockton, Mass., said Genereux voluntarily submitted to treatment there and was released last year.

Last fall he was recommitted through court action, but failed to return.

Teenagers Try to Outdo One Another – Pat Wayne

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Are today's juveniles any more delinquent than previous generations? Pat Wayne doesn't think so.

Pat is the husky, handsome, 18-year-old son of John Wayne, and a teen-age idol in his own right. No hothouse Hollywood kid is he. Pat has been reared in a normal Los Angeles neighborhood by his mother, long divorced from the actor.

Commenting on his contemporaries, Pat opined: "If a kid is left to himself, he'd never get in trouble. It's only when you get with a bunch of other fellows that you start smoking and cutting up. Then each one tries to outdo the other, and sometimes there is real trouble.

"But I don't think this generation is any different from other ones. We all do some crazy things. Like sneaking into theaters."

★ ★ ★

This struck a responsive chord. As a lad, I sneaked into the same movie houses. Even got caught once.

"I only got caught once," Pat remarked. "That was when we sneaked into the Pan-Pacific to see the Harlem Globetrotters play basketball. One of our buddies got caught, so we all gave ourselves up. The police took us away, but then they let us go."

★ ★ ★

Pat added that such experiences have made him more conservative. He realizes that the fact he is John Wayne's son could provide headlines from even a minor brush with the law.

He recalled that he took up smoking and fast cars in his earlier years, even raced a car to 95 m.p.h. on a desert road. Now the thought of it scares him. He drives a fairly sedate station wagon and smokes an occasional cigar.

★ ★ ★

Pat was asked if he thought rock 'n' roll contributed to delinquency.

"Some of it is pretty wild," he commented. "I can see how listening to such music might fan the flames and help send a bunch of kids into trouble. But I don't think rock 'n' roll is the cause. Some kids are going to get into trouble anyway."

★ ★ ★

Pat himself admires some rock 'n' roll ("I like to listen to Elvis Presley, not watch him"), and he's going to contribute to the craze. He made a film for the "Mr. Adams and Eve" TV show to plug his latest movie, "The Young Land." On the show he plays a pop singer. The question arose: Why not become one?

So he cut four records, one of which he'll sing on the TV show next week.

"I'm going to finish college," he said.

Menace Threatens Next Year's Crop Now

Borrow Money to Battle Grasshoppers

KIT CARSON, Colo. (AP) — Determined farmers are hurling borrowed funds — money they hope to repay from future crops — into the battle against grasshoppers.

The discouraging prospect is that unless the ravenous pest is destroyed within three weeks, the blight next year could be worse. Already it has developed into the greatest hopper plague in eastern Colorado since 1940. A five-year drought in the area was broken last year.

"When a man's got land of his own, he doesn't leave," says Emanuel Grauberger, with a tone of despair.

Grauberger, a leathery barley farmer, bought 318 acres northeast of Lamar just three weeks ago. Today it is shorn clean by millions of tiny grasshoppers that almost hid the barren ground itself.

With a tractor, Grauberger is trying to beat the insects to death, a hopeless task.

Overhead, hordes of hoppers with newly sprouted wings dart from crop to crop. They have infested an estimated 1½ million acres in 28 counties. They are expected to lay next year's eggs within three weeks.

★ ★ ★

Nearly a million acres are under critical attack in three southeastern counties — Kiowa, Prowers and Cheyenne. In others the danger is considered much less because much spraying has been done.

Newsmen, taken on a 700-mile tour by state agriculture officials saw the rangeland turned brown, lush alfalfa and other green crops stripped, more than 15 per cent of the multimillion-dollar wheat crop already gone.

The cost of spraying rangeland is being shared equally by farmers, state and federal governments. There is no federal aid for cropland.

It was in Kit Carson County that Colorado's Democratic governor, Steve McNichols decided to push aid for the stricken farmers. He called the Democratic-controlled Colorado Legislature into special session. It set up the state disaster program and set aside 1½ million dollars for spraying.

★ ★ ★

Some of McNichols' political foes contend that the farmers were warned repeatedly of the coming hoppers and that delay in state help is partly responsible for the emergency.

Animals Carry Tiny Lanterns

Most Torchbearers Live in Sea's Depths; Some Plants Luminous

WASHINGTON — Nature, for mysterious reasons, has equipped a host of animals and plants with their own tiny lanterns.

There are the fireflies that scatter living sparks about gardens and damp meadows on warm summer nights. Strange fish carry torches on their bellies and sides. There are bacteria that shine on decaying meat, and a species of umbrella-shaped fungus that turns itself into a reasonable facsimile of a small night lamp.

★ ★ ★

Some 40 orders of animals and two groups of plants—bacteria and fungi — have luminous members, the National Geographic Society says.

Most torch-bearers live in the sea. They range in size from squid to one-celled organisms that sparkle like millions of minute flashlights about the hulls of moving ships. Luminous creatures swarm in such profusion at times that the sea's murky depths resemble a night sky on the Fourth of July.

This phenomenon of self-lighting is called bioluminescence. It occurs through the interaction of a chemical known as luciferin and the enzyme luciferase. The light is the most economical possible because it doesn't cost the creature any loss of heat.

★ ★ ★

But it does leave a lot of unanswered questions in scientists' minds. Are the lights lures? Protection? Signals of recognition for a species? Invitations to romance?

Possibly each creature has its own private, instinctive reason.

The sea's commonest living lantern doesn't mate, for instance. It simply divides. This is the one-celled protozoan, "Noctiluca miliaris," that sparkles in the wake of ships and in waves breaking on shore. It is largely responsible for the so-called phosphorescence of the sea.

The famed New Zealand glowworm uses its light to attract food. This larva of a small fly attaches itself to the roof of a damp cavern, weaves a web, and suspends from it a thread beaded with sticky mucus. Its blinking light lures midges. They get tangled in the glowworm's fishing line and are eaten at leisure.

Not Only Motorist Has Parking Woes

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — The American motorist has one problem in common with all the ships at sea, according to one shipping executive — not enough parking space.

A. C. Cooke Jr., vice president for traffic of the Lykes Brothers Steamship Company, said the ship captain has it rougher than the motorist.

"Few drivers have ever sweated out 10 to 15 days waiting for a parking space to open up," he commented.

Cooke said the ship berthing problem is common throughout the world. He said two of the approaches to the problem being considered are expansion of port facilities and improved systems of handling cargoes.

Old 'Apartment House' National Monument

TUCSON, Ariz. — The nation's oldest "apartment house" stands 68 miles north of Tucson. The four-story, 40-foot-high house, more than 800 years old, was built by the Hohokam Indians—"the people who have gone."

The house, now a national monument known as the Casa Grande Ruins, is believed to have been used as a lookout point.

Champion Writer of Tickets Tags Illinois Governor

CHICAGO (AP) — Two parking tickets were hung on Gov. William G. Stratton's limousine last night by Chicago's champion ticket writer, Jack Muller.

★ ★ ★

Muller, a detective assigned to a North Side station, was off duty when he spotted the governor's auto parked, he said, in a zone marked "No parking at any time" in front of the La Salle Hotel.

"I knew whose auto it was," Muller said, "and returned to hang a ticket as soon as I found a legitimate parking spot for my own auto."

★ ★ ★

Leonard Wertz, a state police lieutenant and Stratton's chauffeur, said he had left the car while running an errand in the La Salle Hotel, where Stratton was staying.

Muller, 35, and a policeman since 1946, said he ticketed the governor's car for violating state regulations against parking in violation of a sign, and for parking within 20 feet of a crosswalk.

Grain Futures Prices Weaken

CHICAGO (AP) — All grain futures prices came under moderate to heavy selling in early Board of Trade transactions today and prices weakened.

Wheat was the hardest hit with setbacks running to a cent a bushel or more within the first few minutes as hedge selling increased from the outpouring of newly-harvested grain.

Other losses generally were within fractions of a cent.

Near the end of the first hour wheat was ⅝ to 1⅝ cents a bushel lower, July $1.85⅛; corn unchanged to ⅝ lower, July $1.33⅛; oats unchanged to ⅜ lower, July 63¼; rye unchanged to ¾ lower, July $1.25½; soybeans ¼ to ¾ lower, July $2.22⅝; lard 10 cents a hundred lbs. higher to 12 cents lower, July $12.17.

Claim Discrimination in Factory Layoffs

LANSING (AP) — Claims of racial and religious discrimination in factory layoffs have jumped sharply in the last six months, the Fair Employment Practices Commission was told yesterday.

John G. Feild, FEPC executive director, reported the number of complaints alleging discrimination in layoffs or discharges had risen from 20 per cent of the total case-load in the last two years to 46 per cent in the first six months of 1958.

"They're the expected result of the present business slump," he said. "In several cases employes were laid off without regard to union contracts or individual qualifications."

The commission announced yesterday it would sponsor an all-day confeernce on fair employment practices and civil rights for the 11 municipal agencies in the state dealing with such problems. Community agencies invited to participate are from Ann Arbor, Ecorse, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Hamtramck, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Pontiac, Port Huron, River Rouge and Ypsilanti.

Business Notes

Ernie G. Rose, president of R & C Motor Sales, in Walled Lake, has won a five-day trip for two to Montreal and the Alpine Inn in the Laurentian Mountains of Quebec, in an American Motors corporation sales contest.

Douglas L. Hale, of 1247 Dufrain Ave., a sales promotion supervisor for the International Milling Company, has returned from a three-day sales management meeting of sales supervisors at the company's headquarters in Minneapolis, Minn., held June 26-28.

Wyler filed suit yesterday seeking $408,356 from producer Sam Goldwyn and asking for an accounting of the profits of the picture, of which he is supposed to get 20 per cent.

Goldwyn, apprised of the action, said Wyler already had received $1,400,000.

Police said they were unable to determine who was driving the car pending further questioning of Goin and Keown.

Trading Brisk on Stock Mart

NEW YORK (AP)— The stock market turned mixed early today after an active and slightly higher opening. Trading was brisk.

Leading stocks showed mainly fractional changes.

Standard Oil of California was off fractionally in fairly active dealings. Other oils were narrowly mixed.

Profit taking was evident as the market stood at the crest of a four-day advance which brought industrials close to their 1958 highs.

Steels showed scant change following the first decline in the steel production in eight weeks.

Some lower-priced stocks continued to attract attention. Penn-Texas and Servel leaned to the upside.

International Nickel and Southern Railway were ahead about a point each. Smaller gains were made by Goodyear, Zenith, American Telephone, Du Pont, Royal Dutch and U.S. Gypsum.

Small losses were taken by Chrysler, International Telephone, Dow Chemical, Union Carbide and Sinclair.

Opening blocks included: Servel up ⅛ at 9⅛ on 7,000 shares; Penn-Texas up ⅛ at 6¾ on 5,000; Transamerica up ⅛ at 43 on 5,300; and Armour up ⅛ at 16¾ on 6,400.

Hot Dogs—by 10 Billion

CHICAGO (UPI) — National hot dog month opened today and its sponsors were ready with statistics to show how popular the tasty sausage has become. The sponsors said last year Americans ate 10 billion hot dogs. And if those hot dogs had been laid end to end instead of eaten, they would stretch 800,000 miles, or around the earth about 30 times.

Practically every product or service sold on any day of the year will be purchased by a newspaper reader, because more than four out of five people (12 years of age and older) read a newspaper on an average day.

Golf Club Boots Member, So He Buys 'Em Out

LONDON (UPI) — Ever get mad at some organization and wish you could buy it and fire all those people? It happened to builder Pat Pateman, 42.

Pateman was refused membership in a local golf club so he promptly bought the club's 120-acre links, clubhouse and all.

Three years ago Pateman applied to renew his membership in the Longcliffe Golf Club near Loughborough. But his application did not receive the necessary support from two-thirds of the committee.

"I took a poor view of that," Pateman said today. "Now the shoe is on the other foot."

★ ★ ★

Pateman, who bought the club for an undisclosed sum yesterday, said that "if I do not approve of two-thirds of the committee now I can do something about it.

"I am under no obligation to renew the lease."

He added, "perhaps this will teach the committee a lesson."

Declines to Rule on Little Rock

High Tribunal Leaves Issue to Appeal Court, Adjourns Until Oct. 6

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ended its current session yesterday by declining to bypass a U.S. circuit court and rule directly on an order suspending for 2½ years desegregation in Little Rock schools.

Negro groups had asked the court to hold a special term and give a quick ruling. They asked the high tribunal to upset an order by U.S. District Judge Harry J. Lemley stalling integration for 30 months.

★ ★ ★

The Supreme Court said it had no doubt that the Court of Appeals in St. Louis will recognize the importance of the time element involved and will act in ample time for arrangements to be made for the next school year.

Among other actions, the court:

Threw out a contempt finding and $100,000 fine levied against the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People by an Alabama judge.

Ruled President Eisenhower lacked authority to dismiss Myron Wiener as a member of the old War Claims Commission.

★ ★ ★

Upheld firing of a veteran Philadelphia teacher who refused to answer a question about Communist Party associations.

Barred enforcement of a California law requiring non-Communist oaths to obtain tax exemptions.

Denied New York gambler Frank Costello a review of his 1954 income tax evasion conviction.

★ ★ ★

Refused to review an arrangement under which Girard College of Philadelphia has continued as a school for white orphans only.

The court recessed until Oct. 6.

Alaska, Michigan, Unshaken Over 49th State

ALASKA, Mich. (AP) — This unincorporated village of 100 persons lazed along today with no celebration planned for approved statehood of its booming namesake.

William H. Fitzsimmons, deputy Kent County clerk and a 26-year resident of the village, described it the site of "two churches, a general store and some houses."

★ ★ ★

The village is governed through Caledonia Township. Most residents work in Grand Rapids 17 miles to the north.

Records show it was platted in 1866 by William H. Brown and named Brownsville. It was renamed in 1867, apparently coinciding with the purchase of the Alaskan territory.

★ ★ ★

Once boasting several mills, a furniture factory, a carriage factory and a string of retail stores, it was wiped out by fire in 1897.

Now an unhurried residential center, it is stirred only by weekend motorists on scenic tours along the Thornapple River.

High School in Flint May Cost $4 Million

FLINT (UPI) — Construction bids for Flint's third public high school indicate the school may cost almost four million dollars.

Base bids opened yesterday by the board of education business committee set the price at $3,720,894. At least $180,000 in kitchen facilities and a pool was not included.

The proposed school will be located in southwest Flint and will accommodate a maximum of 1,800 new pupils.

Will Celebrate Quietly

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President and Mrs. Eisenhower observed the 42nd anniversary of their wedding quietly today with any celebration strictly private.

Makes Final Report at Press Conference

Strauss Retires as Chairman of AEC

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Lewis L. Strauss violated his favorite rule, "Please leave quietly."

He did it, however, with a minimum of noise and no name-calling.

READS STATEMENT

He read a 10-page statement summing up his five frequently stormy years, ended last night, as chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC).

Once he referred in passing to "some critics." But he left them as anonymous as faces in a crowd.

Strauss said his statement was an unclassified (non-secret) version of a classified (secret) report he made to President Eisenhower last week.

PASSES IT ON

Someone had suggested he pass it on to the public. That was why he was violating his "leave quietly" rule and holding "my last press conference."

After reading his statement, a record of five "years of growth," the 62-year-old Strauss quietly invited questions.

Few men have been as hotly embroiled in political controversy as Strauss. But he rejected all opportunities to give his political foes a final pasting.

★ ★ ★

Someone mentioned Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM). Anderson, former chairman of the congressional Atomic Energy Commission, can't stand Strauss. Strauss can't stand Anderson.

But Strauss held his fire. He said "personalities have no place" at an occasion like yesterday's.

What about Dixon-Yates, the private power proposal which generated so much heat that President Eisenhower finally cancelled it?

★ ★ ★

The AEC was to have financed Dixon-Yates to produce power offsetting that drained by commission plants from the Tennessee Valley Authority. Looking back, did Strauss consider Dixon-Yates a mistake?

The room was hot, but the tanned Strauss in his pale gray suit looked cool. He said Dixon-Yates had not made him happy. But a mistake? "No."

How about Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, father of the wartime A-bomb from whom the AEC, under Strauss' chairmanship, withdrew security clearance in 1954? What were his thoughts now about what was done to Oppenheimer?

"They have not changed. . . ."

LIKES WATCHDOGS

The House-Senate atomic "watchdog committee" has always breathed scorchingly on Strauss' neck. Does he think the "watchdog committee" is a good device? For the first time Strauss' voice inched up a notch.

"Yes, sir, it's a good device," he said.

Political opposition?

It's "annoying but healthful."

Strauss steadfastly refused to answer questions about why he was leaving the AES despite the President's request that he stay on. Well, was he sorry to leave?

"Oh yes, I have to leave my friends. . . . On the other hand, I think it is wise, and one gets some satisfaction out of doing what he thinks is wise."

★ ★ ★

Strauss will continue to be the President's No. 1 adviser on atoms-for-peace. If his work in this role is satisfactory to all concerned, he'll continue in it as long as the President wants him.

"If not," Strauss said, "I'll go back to farming."

Single-Handed Rescue

Saves 3 From Drowning

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Sheriff's men of Grand Traverse County today credited a Detroiter with the single-handed rescue of two Green Bay, Wis., girls and their father on Grand Traverse Bay.

The one-man rescue effort took place yesterday on the Lake Michigan waters reportedly within the space of a few minutes.

Saved were Marilyn Ann Paape, 19; her sister, Rose Ann, 17, and the girls' father, George Paape.

James Dinan, 32, vacationing Detroiter, was the man who saved them after all three had gone into water beyond their depth, deputies said.

★ ★ ★

One of the girls, Marilyn, waded out beyond her depth at Baker's Acres, a resort five miles east of here, and Rose Ann, following in an attempt to aid her sister, also sank beneath the surface.

The father then waded out and also went under. All had waded into a hole where the water was 10 feet deep.

Deputies said Dinan dashed from a nearby cabin and entered the water, saving both girls. The father meanwhile reached shallow water but was exhausted and Dinan also brought him in.

★ ★ ★

The rescue was performed with others of the Green Bay family, including the mother and a son, John, 12, as onlookers. The family has been here on a vacation.

The father and the two girls were taken to Munson hospital here suffering shock and exhaustion.

Fisher Body Factory in Flint Says 24 Autos Damaged

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors Corp. reported today unidentified saboteurs damaged 24 car bodies at its Fisher Body No. 2 plant in Flint, Mich.

The company said it was the first sabotage in any of its Michigan plants during operations without labor contracts with the United Auto Workers Union.

★ ★ ★

In the past four weeks, General Motors said, 73 car bodies have been damaged in plants at Kansas City; 106 in Euclid, Ohio; and 9 in Baltimore, Md.

A dispute over work standards shut down two Chrysler plants in Detroit for the third straight day, idling 2,700 men.

Chrysler also reported sabotage. The company said 56 car bodies have been damaged in the past two weeks.

Ford described its operations as normal.

The UAW held bargaining sessions on new contracts today with all three companies. The talks now appear certain of going beyond the mid-July mark at least without any prospect of a settlement.

A five-day-old dispute today again shut down the Plymouth body and assembly plants here, idling 2,700 first shift workers.

Some 1,500 workers at the Mack avenue body plant were sent home at the beginning of the shift at 6:30 a.m. when workers in the trim department refused to perform a job they said had been speeded up.

At 6:48 a.m., 1,200 workers at the Plymouth assembly plant on Lynch road were sent home because of a lack of bodies.

Sponsors Like Pantomime Quiz

Despite Past Success, Program Has Been Dropped in Fall

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — Mike Stokey's "Pantomime Quiz," a television summer bridesmaid for 11 years is back again.

★ ★ ★

So attractive is the show this year that it will be surprising if it fails to grab a rich sponsor to shepherd it through next fall and winter.

When you see this show on ABC-TV Tuesdays, 9:30 p.m., (EDT), you'll recognize the old parlor game of charades played by two teams of witty experts.

The regulars, abetted by two guests each week, are Stubby Kaye, Dorothy Hart, Tom Poston, Carol Burnett, Milt Kamen and Howard Morris.

"I like the show," Kaye was saying the other day, "because I like to play charades. Now there are two ways to play charades.

"You can play it easy or you can play it hard. The easy way is to have a lot of signals. We try to do it the imaginative way, which is the hard way — and more fun for everybody."

After making some extraordinary scores in the first few weeks of play, the regulars have begun to run into trouble.

"It's that clock that begins to get you," Kaye said.

Does the critical and popular acclaim which has greeted "Pantomime Quiz" this year lead Stokey to believe his program may be extended beyond the 22 weeks of its present contract?

★ ★ ★

"I've become something of a philosopher on that subject," he said.

"Every spring for 11 years people have acclaimed 'Pantomime Quiz' and we remain popular through the summer. Come fall, I go back to California and I'm told, 'Don't make any commitments because you'll surely be going network in a couple of weeks.'

"The next thing I know it's spring again — and 'Pantomime Quiz' is back as a summer replacement."

★ ★ ★

Stokey does feel that he's assembled just about his ablest players this year.

France 4th in Autos

PARIS — France's automobile-manufacturing industry employs about 140,000 people and in 1956 grossed $1,560,000,000. France ranks fourth among the world's auto-making nations, with almost twice Canada's or Russia's production. The United States is first, Germany second, and Great Britain third.

Yacht's Skipper Bent on Entering Eniwetok Area

HONOLULU (AP)—The yacht Phoenix approached the off-limits U. S. H-bomb test area in the Pacific today under Navy surveillance after its skipper declared his intention to enter the danger zone.

★ ★ ★

"I regard any interference on the high seas as an act of piracy. They will have to sink me to take me," said Earle L. Reynolds, a former professor of anthropology at Antioch College, Ohio.

"We're not going to let anyone commit suicide on the high seas," a Navy spokesman responded, but declined to say what action would be taken.

The Phoenix, carrying skipper-owner Reynolds, 48; his wife; son and daughter; and a Japanese crewman, Niichi Mikami, left Honolulu June 11 with Hiroshima its announced destination. All five are outspoken opponents of nuclear tests.

The 50-foot yacht was less than 100 miles from the prohibited Eniwetok test area yesterday when the Coast Guard cutter Planetree hailed it and asked Reynolds' sailing intentions.

The Navy quoted the skipper as saying he intended to enter the off-limits zone and realized he was endangering his crew and yacht.

Labor Control Bill Opposed by Hoffa

WASHINGTON (AP) — Teamsters union president James R. Hoffa said yesterday his union strongly opposes a broad labor control bill passed by the Senate and now before the House.

Hoffa said the legislation, largely drawn because of Senate Rackets Committee disclosures about Hoffa and the teamsters, would interfere with union members running unions as they desire.

The bill bars criminals from holding union office, a state of affairs found in the Rackets Committee hearings to exist on a widescale basis in the teamsters. Hoffa said the teamsters constitution does not bar convicted criminals from holding union office. He added:

"I my opinion member of our organization should continue to have the right to elect officials in accordance with their desires."

Hoffa held a news conference after the open session of a three-day teamsters executive board meeting. He said the teamsters never have had a bigger treasury or membership. He said it has some 41 million dollars in assets and over 1½ million members.

Margaret Wilson, an 18-year-old girl who opposed King James VII of Scotland for his religious persecutions in 1685, was executed by being tied to a stake in a rising tide until the waters drowned her.

Skyrocket Falls Into Kansas City Outdoor Theater

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — A skyrocket trailing orange sparks crashed into Kansas City's outdoor Starlight Theater last night. None of the 3,560 patrons was hurt.

The skyrocket hit an empty seat.

Richard H. Berger, head of the theater's production staff, said the rocket was a nonexplosive firework, and caused no damage.

"It sure looped in there," said W. Wayne Barnes, holder of the box where the rocket landed. "We weren't shaken up much but a girl behind us began shouting to an usher than the place was on fire. She thought a real catastrophe had occurred."

Patrons didn't become excited, Berger said. On stage, the performers didn't drop a line of "Rosalinda," which opened a week's run at the 7,000-seat theater last night.

Police said the skyrocket apparently was fired from a slope behind the theater in Swope Park.

Leftists, Residents of Blighted Areas Fight Cleanup

Clearance of Slums in Calcutta Stalled

CALCUTTA (UPI) — A state program to clean up Calcutta, "the city of palaces and slums," is meeting with tough opposition from slum-dwellers and their leftist political leaders as "impractical and politically unacceptable."

Several thousand slum-dwellers staging civil disobedience and courting arrests, have succeeded in securing indefinite postponement of a bill introduced in the West Bengal legislative assembly March 4.

★ ★ ★

It seeks to remove the slums with funds supplied by the government of India under the second five-year plan and to rehabilitate the dwellers through a housing board to be set up by the government of West Bengal.

According to the 1951 census, the number of slums in Calcutta —excluding the Tollygunge locality, which has subsequently been included in the city municipal area — is 3,615.

They occupy an area of about three of the total 28.34 square miles of the city. Within this "congested, unsanitary and squalid area," there are 21,556 huts divided into 155,624 rooms, accommodating 617,374 people, of whom 18 per cent are East Pakistan refugees.

Thus according to the 1951 census, approximately one fourth of Calcutta's millions live in slums, locally known as "bustee," occupying less than one-ninth of its living space.

Most families live in single rooms, many have no water supply, and one latrine is shared by as many as 45.

The new bill plans to eject the slum-dwellers by demolishing the slums and provide them within a short time with better alternative accommodation in multi-storied buildings.

Objections to the bill are varied. The slum-dwellers feel that, once ejected, they will not be able to secure alternative accommodation because they feel the new groups of people in the good books of the government will be housed in the new structure. Even if some accommodation is offered to a small section, the new rents will be out of their reach, they believe.

They want the government to undertake improvement of the existing slums by loans and advances to be made to the present inhabitants.

The political objection to the bill by the leftist parties is based on two considerations.

They maintain that the heavy compensation proposed for the slum land-owners need not be paid, as the owners have already made a lot of money by exploiting the this year's three All-America Rose increased in popularity. Two of residents for over a century.

Secondly, they think such payments of compensation will push up the cost of acquiring slums and building substitute structures on them to "fantastic" costs the government cannot afford.

Gives Chest X Rays Utmost Importance

CHICAGO (UPI) — An X-ray specialist warns that it is more important than ever for Americans to shake off their "undue" fear of routine chest X-rays.

Dr. Theodore Nehren told an audience in Chicago that recent "radiation hysteria" is endangering the lives of millions of people.

He dramatized his point by showing slides of X-rays taken of 100 persons "walking down the streets" of Salt Lake City. The findings included heart disease, cancer, silicosis, esophageal and diaphragm disorders and rib tumors.

Nehren said that "the danger is far greater in not X-raying these chests with carefully controlled X-ray equipment than from the slight radiation exposure incurred."

You can move mountains!

Wherever you live, blight is a danger to your personal and economic security. Slums breed silently, strike swiftly, reach out faster and further than you think.

That's why so many people have banded together to fight blight. They've won many a victory, helped move many a mountain.

In Chicago, one woman organized fifty Block Clubs to prevent neighborhood decay. In Norristown, Pa., the real estate board got 500 substandard housing units improved, 50 hopeless slum units destroyed. In Dayton, Ohio, high school students analyze neighborhood problems, publish a neighborhood newsletter to keep residents alert to blight.

Group action is the answer to your community problems. Keep up your home, join a local community-improvement group. Write for information to:
