Beauty Queen, New York Hood Killed in Auto

Wife of Comedian Allan Drake Shot With Capone, Costello Pal

NEW YORK (AP) — Underworld kingpin Anthony (Little Augie Pisano) Carfano, 62, and a married beauty queen were shot to death Friday night in a flashy black Cadillac in a quietly substantial Queens neighborhood.

Carfano, the pudgy Prohibition era henchman of Al Capone and long-time buddy of Frank Costello, and Janice Drake, 32, who was married to comedian Allan Drake, were shot from the rear of the gangster's swanky car.

In 1944, as Janice Hansen, she was chosen Miss New Jersey.

The auto, apparently moving at the time, veered onto a curb in the Jackson Heights section of Queens about a half mile from LaGuardia Field

Neighbors told police they saw two men flee from the car after they heard shots. No weapon was found. Carfano was shot twice in the back of the head and once in his left cheek.

Mrs. Drake, the mother of a 13-year-old boy, Michael, was shot in the back of the neck and in the right temple.

Carfano, short and pot-bellied, wore a dark blue silk suit. His pockets were stuffed with money. Mrs. Drake, who was linked with another murder seven years ago, wore a smart blue cocktail dress and a mink stole.

Police said there were reports the two had been seen earlier at a hotel near LaGuardia.

Police said two weapons were used — .32 and .38 caliber revolvers. Carfano's trousers pockets bulged with $1,500 in 50-and 100-dollar bills and $433 in smaller bills. He was identified from his auto license.

Mrs. Drake, who lived at 63-60 102nd St., Forest Hills, Queens, was identified from labels in her clothes. In 1952, she was questioned in connection with the slaying of playboy dress manufacturer Nat Nelson.

She was released after she told police she had dated Nelson the night before his death.

Her husband, who had been appearing at the Lotus Club in Washington with singer Tony Martin, was notified of Mrs. Drake's death and was en route to New York.

Carfano, who lived in a palatial mansion in Long Beach, on Long Island, was a familiar name in underworld investigations for the past 35 years.

During Prohibition, he was a kingpin in bottlegging operations in Brooklyn and a top lieutenant of Capone. When his operations were raided, however, Little Augie was the man who wasn't there. Usually, he was in Florida.

In 1933, he was tried and acquitted in connection with the slaying of Det. Sgt. James Knight during an attempted theft in Union City, N.J.

After Costello was wounded in the lobby of his Manhattan hotel by a gunshot, Little Augie was questioned and released.

FOLLOW THE LEADER—That's the game President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier seem to be playing as they board the helicopter for the President's Camp David, Md., retreat (left) and when they enter Aspen Lodge at the camp (right). Actually, their task was far from playful. The two leaders are conferring this weekend in an attempt to resolve differences between their nations. Other world problems were to be discussed.

Dark Clouds Hang Low Over Mountain Retreat

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev today began a problem-by-problem debate of critical cold war issues.

The second round of their historic discussions began in Eisenhower's hideaway on a mountaintop surrounded by low-hanging clouds.

Meeting in Eisenhower's lodge, Aspen, at Camp David in Maryland's Catoctin Mountains, the two leaders could see only a few yards through the picture window of their conference room.

The critical East - West dispute over the future of West Berlin as well as the broader problem of divided Germany had a high priority on the agenda of the day's session.

Eisenhower and Khrushchev, who began their talks early Friday night after a helicopter flight from Washington to Camp David, met for the first time this morning at the breakfast table and immediately "began their informal conversations."

★ ★ ★

Vice President Richard M. Nixon arrived by automobile at Camp David to join in the talks.

This start on the day's work—with the world watching for the results to be announced Sunday—was reported to newsmen at the Gettysburg press center by Mrs. Anne Wheaton of the White House press office.

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Eisenhower and Khrushchev started their work today with the kind of breakfast mother's tell their children "sticks to the backbone." The menu included: Orange juice, tomato juice, honeydew melon, hominy grits, oatmeal, hot cakes, minute steaks, pork sausage, bacon, eggs, toast and coffee.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty and Asst. Secretary of State Andrew H. Burney arranged a full report on the morning session around midday.

TALK FOR HOUR

The Khrushchev - Eisenhower breakfast talk reportedly lasted an hour or less in the living room of Aspen Lodge.

★ ★ ★

Eisenhower and Khrushchev will come to grips at their conference with cold war problems that have kept the world in turmoil and periodically threatened nuclear disaster for more than a decade.

Agreement on a solution for any one of these bitterly disputed issues, ranging from Berlin to Laos, was ruled out in the course of the brief two-man summit conference. Both men are looking for some new approach to further East-West negotiations.

Find 10 Airmen in Foggy Sea

Save Navy Personnel Afloat in Pacific With Clockwork Operation

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Ten wet and weary Navy airmen were plucked unharmed from the tossing Pacific Ocean early today, nearly 12 hours after they had ditched their twin-engined patrol plane.

A massive rescue operation went like clockwork, despite foul weather, darkness, fog and the fliers' position—110 miles off the mouth of the Columbia River.

The ten, crammed into a pair of well-outfitted rubber liferafts, were pulled to safety aboard the Coast Guard cutter Yocona from Astoria, Ore.

The freighter Olympic Pioneer had reached the sscene only moments before and stood by as the men were hauled from the sea at 12:50 a.m., PST.

Hoving above were four Navy and Coast Guard planes, their through a heavy overcast onto the drama enfolding below.

The cutter radioed Coast Guard headquarters here that the airmen, three officers and seven enlisted men, were in good condition but suffering from exposure and exhaustion.

None was injured in the ditching or during the tricky transfer from the liferafts to the cutter.

Rescue operations moved into full speed as soon as the P5M patrol plane radioed an SOS that one of its two engines was afire. The craft, a Marlin, was on a routine coastal patrol from Whidbey Island, Wash., Naval Air station.

Angered McDonald Breaks Off Talks

Steel Unionists Quit New York

NEW YORK (AP) — The steel industry's top negotiator in the 74-day-old strike says he's ready to resume talks here Monday. But Steelworkers President David J. McDonald says he's through talking in New York.

★ ★ ★

Chief Federal Mediator Joseph F. Finnegan plans to meet during the weekend in Washington with Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell to review the stalemate. Finnegan indicated the talks might be shifted from New York when they resume, but he didn't say where.

McDonald broke off the negotiations here Friday, calling the sessions a "farcical filibuster." He said he would resume only when management offers something "worthy of consideration by self-respecting steel workers."

Chief industry negotiator R. Conrad Cooper said: "We hope that the union will reconsider its position and join with us then in a renewed effort to break the deadlock. This (New York has been our agreed seat of negotiations. We plan to be here. We want to bargain and we want to reach an agreement."

Asked if the union would resume talks if the government requests it, McDonald said: "We have never resisted a call of our government. But we see no sense in coming back to New York City. The seat of the government is in Washington. The seat of the steel industry is in Pittsburgh."

MIGHT SPEED IKE EDICT

The breakoff might speed any decision by President Eisenhower to invoke the Taft-Hartley Act. Under an emergency provision of the law, the President could obtain an injunction that would require the striking steel workers to return to their jobs for 80 days for fact-finding and cooling off.

No Break Expected in Cross Co. Talks

FRASER (UPI)—Union negotiators and officials of the Cross Manufacturing Co. today appeared more at odds than ever in the 53-day old, violence marked strike.

"The collective bargaining positions appear irreconcilerble at this time," said Allan D. Chisholm, chairman of the State Mediation Board, after a meeting with the two sides yesterday.

No further meetings were scheduled and the point of contention is still recognition of United Auto Workers Local 155 as bargaining agent for Cross employes, Chisholm said.

The company said it is still awaiting a ruling by the United States Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati on whether an election naming Local 155 as legal bargaining agent should be set aside.

Gloomy Clouds to Dump Rain Tonight, Sunday

Mostly cloudy with occasional showers and somewhat warmer is the Pontiac area outlook for tonight and tomorrow, the weatherman says.

★ ★ ★

Tonight's low will hit near 60 and Sunday's high will reach a warm 77.

Increasing cloudiness and a chance of showers is the prediction for all of Michigan tonight and tomorrow.

Partly cloudy with little change in temperature and a chance of showers in eastern Michigan is the Monday forecast.

At 10 a.m., winds were southerly at 10 miles an hour. Lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 64 degrees. The mercury had climbed to 72 at 2 p.m.

Notes Reveal Murder, Suicide in Detroit Deaths

DETROIT (AP)—A 72-year-old man was found shot dead in Detroit's exclusive Palmer Park section today. A note he left led police to the body of a slain woman in suburban Grosse Pointe Park.

Police Detective Paul Montgomery said the deaths appeared murder and suicide, the climax to a suitor's rejection. Dead are J. Danna Tomlinson and Catherine Wassall, 55, who also had been shot.

Tomlinson was found dead in his apartment by a neighbor, under whose door a note had been slipped asking that Tomlinson's son and daughter be notified.

Police found three notes, Montgomery said, one dated last June indicated he intended to kill both himself and the woman, an undated one said "I killed Catherine," and a third was a will of a sort.

Checking on Catherine's identity, police learned she lived in Grosse Pointe Park. The suburb's police found her dead.

★ ★ ★

Montgomery said one of the notes told of Tomlinson's hopes of marrying the woman and of her rejection. He said police also learned Tomlinson was despondent because of ill health.

Marie Myers called police after finding a note had been pushed under her door, asking that Tomlinson's son and daughter be notified. It also bid her goodbye. She lived in the adjoining apartment.

Grosse Pointe Park police did not learn immediately whether Catherine Wassall is presently married, but said she had been and that she had two college-age children.

Prime Minister of Ceylon Dies

Assasin's Bullets Fatal to Asian Neutralist Just Before U. S. Visit

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP) — Prime Minister Solomon Bandaranaike 60, died today from an assassin's bullets — apparent victim of the struggle between Eastern and Western ways which swept him into power 3½ years ago.

★ ★ ★

The frail champion of Asian neutralism succumbed almost on the eve of a visit to the United States, which only a few months ago he termed Asia's best friend.

Wijayananda Dahanayake, 57, a politician from Bandaranaike's cabinet, was sworn in as the new prime minister.

Dahanayake in the past has ranged the political spectrum from revolutionary red to conservative blue.

★ ★ ★

British - educated Bandaranaike failed to survive a five-hour operation to remove three bullets which pierced his liver, spleen and arm.

On his deathbed, the mild-mannered Prime Minister forgave his accused assassin — a professed Buddhist medical monk, who whipped out a revolver and fired as Bandaranaike bowed in reverence to him.

The monk and another man clad in saffron monk's robes had called at the Prime Minister's private bungalow in a luxurious Colombo residential area Friday morning.

★ ★ ★

The gunman reportedly was angered by the Prime Minister's refusal to go all the way in shedding Western ways in favor of ancient Eastern medica techniques known as "Ayurveda."

Griffin and Ford Guests at Dinner

Congressmen to Attend 'Welcome Home' Affair for Broomfield

Crowding into the political spotlight at a "welcome home" dinner Monday night for Oakland County Congressman William S. Broomfield will be two more big names in Michigan Republican circles.

★ ★ ★

One is former Pontiac resident, Congressman Robert P. Griffin. He catapulted into history when he co-sponsored the successful Landrum-Griffin labor reform bill, one of the biggest achievements of the 86th Congress.

The Traverse City Republican since has been mentioned as a possible contender for Democratic Sen. Patrick V. McNamara's seat.

Helping him celebrate Broomfield's return home with local Republicans will be fellow Congressman Gerald R. Ford Jr. of Grand Rapids, who last year was eyed as an opponent of Gov. Williams.

★ ★ ★

County Republicans, numbering possibly 600 are expected to jam Northwood Inn for what is being billed as a preliminary to the kick-off of GOP politicking in the county for 1960.

Kentucky Sen. Thruston B. Morton, national committee chairman, is expected to set off the real fireworks for the coming presidential year at an Oct. 22 luncheon at the same restaurant.

TWO ARE YOUNG

Broomfield, 37, and Griffin, 35, are two of the youngest members in the Halls of Congress.

Ford, 46, who has tabooed talk of becoming governor, in some circles has been considered as vice presidential timber.

Broomfield will be welcomed home by his constituents after one of the most hectic and longest terms of Congress. It began Jan. 7. He'll tell what lawmakers did and failed to do.

2-Year-Old Was After Tigers

Find Missing 'Hunter'

Pontiac Press Photo

HUNTING PARTNERS—"That's OK, Brownie, we'll get those wabbits an' tigers 'nex' time," says 2½-year-old Bobby Bell to his dog, Brownie. The pair went on a little "hunt" yesterday in Oxford Township and saw some pretty big game (says Bobby). They also became the hunted, as sheriff's deputies and neighbors combed a 1½-mile area for more than an hour.

By DICK SAUNDERS

Hunters beware! There are wild bears and tigers slinking through the woods of Oakland County. That is, according to a young Oxford Township hunter.

★ ★ ★

Two-year-old Robert Bell went hunting near his home yesterday morning. He got more that he had counted on.

Oakland County sheriff's deputies went hunting for the hunter. They, too, got more than they expected.

It all began when lunch time arrived but Robert didn't. His mother, Mrs. Larry M. Bell of 1980 Baldwin Rd., called the sheriff's department. Four carloads of uniformed deputies and plain-clothes detectives rushed to the scene.

★ ★ ★

An estimated 25 neighbors gathered to aid in the search. One of the tot's close companions, Brownie, was missing too.

Brownie is a Springer Spaniel who accompanies Robert's dad on fall hunting trips. Brownie and Robert are about the same age.

The searchers grew tense and frightened when Robert's little red wagon was found near a swampy area about a half-mile from his home.

Neighbors and deputies fanned out in a vast human net to begin combing the swampland. Calls of "Bobby" met with no response.

The searchers moved slowly, carefully over wet and dry ground for more than 30 minutes.

Finally, Deputy Francis P. Earp emerged from a field of high grass with the lad. Brownie trotted along behind.

"I lost," said the hunter. When asked where he had been he pointed toward the field and said, "Over there hunning." His "gun" consisted of a three-foot stick, just as long as he was tall.

"Robert should make a fine hunter someday, considering the 'ones that got away' on this trip," said Det. Charles T. Whitlock.

LA Dodgers Try Cinderella Act; PCH Victorious

The Los Angeles Dodgers try to complete major league baseball's greatest rags to riches story in 34 years today when they go against the Chicago Cubs in an effort to clinch the national League pennant.

Now leading by one game after Friday's 5-4 victory over the Cubs and the defending champion Milwaukee Braves 6-3 loss to the Philadelphia Phillies, the Dodgers will clinch the flag today if they beat the Cubs and the Braves lose again.

Pontiac's two Class A high school football teams went 50-50 last night on the road. Pontiac Central overcame a 7-0 halftime deficit for a 20-7 victory over Wyandotte while Northern lost a heartbreaking last-minute contest to Hazel Park, 14-12. See sports pages for details.

Death Toll Mounts in Japanese Typhoon

TOKYO (UPI) — Typhoon Vera packing 138 mph winds hit the heavily populated mid-section of Japan tonight and first reports indicated casualties and damages would be heavy.

At least 13 persons were dead, 69 injured and there were 47 missing. But communications were knocked out over a wide area and these figures were believed to be only a fragment of the total.

Detroit Newspapers Reappear Tonight

DETROIT (UPI) — Publication of the three major Detroit newspapers resumed today with Sunday editions expected to hit the streets hours behind the normal schedule.

Spokesmen for the News, Times and Free Press said officials of the International Typographical Union were calling in printers, pressmen and other Mechanical Department employes on overtime to prepare the Sunday paper.

Delays in serving a temporary injunction from federal Judge Theodore Levin prevented workers from being called back to the newspapers in time for today's editions.

Judge Levin called a show-cause hearing for next Wednesday in the jurisdictional dispute involving two mailer's unions that has shut down the papers since Thursday.

Often Irks U.S. Hosts

Nikita Nasty Guest

By JACK V. FOX

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (UPI)—Now that the tumult and shouting has died away and Nikita Sergeivich Khrushchev has taken to the hills with President Eisenhower, let us examine the question:

What kind of a man is he?

★ ★ ★

Those of us who have had the, uh, privilege of rocking in his wake for the past 11 days now know more about Nikita Khrushchev the individual than about 99 per cent of his countrymen.

Well, in the first place, he has been on many occasions a very trying guest. If he has told Americans once, he has told us a hundred times that things are far better in Russia.

His conduct has been reminduful of a guest who eats heartily of fine food, then turns to his host nd says:

"That was a good meal. But if you would come to my house, we would give you a far better one. And on finer china."

COULDN'T RESIST

Even when a little boy at the meat packing plant in Des Moines gave him a piece of sausage turned out at his dad's place, Khrushchev couldn't resist another comparison.

"We put the first rocket on the moon but you make better sausages," he told the boy.

That Khrushchev has a brilliant mind, that he has read widely and not only of Marxism, that he has courage and enormous drive are unquestioned. He is the master supreme of the ad lib.

★ ★ ★

"Trading fast talk with Khrushchev is like a nightclub heckler trying to take on Milton Berle at repartee," said actor Charlton Heston after watching the Russian in action.

Some people more expert on the Russian personality mark down Khrushchev's boasting and crudeness as the shell built around the "inferiority complex" of a peasant now in the company of queens and presidents.

Perhaps so. But whatever the explanation, it is irritating. He seems to have the compulsion always to have the last word. No wisecrack is cracked but that he has not attempted to top it—and usually successfully so.

TERRIFIC CROWD APPEAL

He has terrific crowd appeal and, while he hams it up, he is fascinating as an actor. His wit is genuinely funny. Yet there is an aura of menace about him which makes him somehow exciting.

Is he sincere? That is THE question.

He has a quick and hot temper and he doesn't hide it. As one Washington writer said, Eisenhower's temper is marked only by a flush of red on his cheeks but Khrushchev rides his temper like a Cossack on his favorite mount.

His gentle and pleasant wife is obviously very fond of her husband—and very, very proud of him. In the Iowa corn fields she stayed right at his heels.

★ ★ ★

Her escorts would call her attention to something interesting and she would say: "Yes, yes, but what is HE seeing now."

They appear to be an old-fashioned couple with affectionate and well-raised children.

Milford Estate Aids U. of M.

Noble Widow's Will Provides $33,000 for Student Loan Fund

Regents of the University of Michigan yesterday accepted a contribution of $33,000 from the estate of the late Della M. Noble, widow of a wealthy Milford attorney.

The money will be used for a student loan fund.

Her husband, an 1896 graduate of the University of Michigan Law School, practiced in Milford more than 45 years and was one of the community's leading citizens. He died in 1949.

Among larger contributions the Board of Regents accepted in Ann Arbor yesterday were $38,000 from the Floyd Fletcher Wooton estate in Oakland County for research on paralysies and mental disorders and $31,000 from the W. K. Kellogg Foundation of Battle Creek for a hospital administration development fund.

★ ★ ★

Creation of a vice presidency for administration of more than 700 research projects was also approved.

The board also okayed a new six year course leading to a doctor's degree in pharmacy.

Ralph A. Sawyer, dean of the university's School of Graduate Studies, was named to fill the new vice presidency.

Ike, Nikita Conferring on Cold War Issues

cord on measures for greater U.S.-Soviet cooperation in several fields of peaceful enterprise, including atomic energy for power prodution.

Such accords, if actually worked out in the mountain hideaway, could prove to be the first steps toward truce in the cold war. Yet American officials, deeply suspicious of Khrushchev's true aims, refrained from any optimistic forecasts.

The tumult and shouting of Khrushchev's American tour was temporarily suspended about 6 o'clock Friday night when the Soviet Premier stepped across the threshold of Aspen Lodge and into the quiet of its oak paneled living room.

He will reappear on the public stage Sunday afternoon, following conclusion of the Camp Davis talks.

He is scheduled to hold an hour-long Washington news conference and make a subsequent hour-long television speech prior to his departure for Moscow Sunday night.

While her husband discusses world issues with President Eisenhower at Camp David, Md., Nina Khrushchev today plans to visit an experimental dry cleaning plant in suburban Silver Spring, Md.

Also on the schedule is luncheon with Mrs. Cyrus Eaton, wife of the wealthy Cleveland industrialist.

Black Clouds Threaten U. S. With More Rain

Showers which splashed much of the nation ended early today. But the black cloud threat of more rain hung over wide areas from Texas north to the Great Lakes and east into New York.

Rain drenched the Mississippi Valley, the Plains and the Pacific Northwest Friday night. Malden, Mo., measured 1.61 inches and Little Rock, Ark., 1.23 inches.

Snow fell in the Rocky Mountains at Fraser, Colo.

The Weather Bureau said thundershowers were forming over a wide belt extending from the eastern half of Texas through Alabama into the Great Lakes region and eastward to Pennsylvania and New York.

A warming trend was noted early today in the Great Lakes area while cooler air swept into New England.

Fair to partly cloudy skies prevailed over the Southwest and Far West.

Contributing equipment are Pontiac Motor, Fisher Body and GMC Truck and Coach Divisions of General Motors, Consumers Power Co., Detroit Edison Co., Michigan Bell Telephone Co., Pontiac Varnish Co., Baldwin Rubber Co., Ford Motor Tractor and Implements Division of Birmingham, and the M C Manufacturing Co. of Lake Orion.

The parade is sponsored by the Fire Safety Committee of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce.

Putting together the industrial fire equipment display has been a sub-committee on industrial fire safety headed by Ross Luxom, fire chief of Pontiac Motor Division.

★ ★ ★

An amusing spectacle will be members of the Waterford Fire Dept. bringing back memories of the old-time bucket brigades as they strut down the street wearing handle-bar mustaches.

Leading the parade will be a Marine Corps color guard and the official parade car in which will sit James B. Foreman parade marshal and field day committee chairman.

Other attractions will be the Jackie Rae Ravenettes, a horse-mounted posse from the Oakland County Sheriff's Dept., a Navy float, an Army Nike display, and the Land-O-Lakes Star Chiefs (drum corps).

The field day program will begin at 2 p.m. at the General Motors Athletic Field, at Opdyke road and South boulevard. Besides fire safety demonstrations, there will be ladder raising and hose contests between the departments.

Climaxing the program will be the traditional water battle between last year's defending champions from Waterford and the challengers from the Avondale Fire Dept.

Sherwin Birnkrant, chairman of the Fire Prevention Committee, said, "The event will undobtedly be the biggest activity ever of its kind, either here or in any other city of comparable size in the country."

He said planning has gone on ever since last year's successful program ended.

Fire departments participating are from Pontiac, Clarkston, Bloomfield, Waterford, Rochester, Brooklands, Union Lake, Avondale, Pontiac Township, White Lake, Troy, Walled Lake, Commerce, West Bloomfield, Franklin, Columbiaville, Oxford Lake Orion, Addison and Birmingham.

Viaduct Shears '60 Ford

A haulaway trailer-truck carrying a load of shiny, new 1960 Ford cars from the Ford plant in Dearborn to the Cy Owens lot in Pontiac tried to clear the Orchard Lake avenue viaduct early this morning.

The truck, driven by John Jekel, 49, of Saginaw, didn't make it.

The top of the first car on the truck was sheared off.

"A fine looking convertible," commented Pontiac Patrolman Lon Peters of the Police Department.

"I wish it were," Jekel said, dispiritedly.

★ ★ ★

A second car was also slightly damaged from debris.

Jekel told police it was the first time he tried to negotiate the viaduct.

And, he vowed, it was the last.

Tension Scare Stirring in U. N.

Fear Drive for Debate on Tibet Will Stiffen East-West Relations

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —A drive for a full-scale debate on Tibet stirred concern in the United Nations today that East-West tensions will be tightened up again.

Diplomats also feared the move will dredge up the whole question of Red China's represeptation in the United Nations. The Assembly voted only a few days ago to shelve the Red China issue for another year.

Ireland and Malaya disclosed Friday that they plan to call for a resolution charging Red China with killing freedom in Tibet and demanding "respect for fundamental human rights" for the Tibetans.

One delegate predicted that as soon as the request to put the Tibetan issue on the agenda hits the 21-nation Steering Committee, demands will arise that Red China be invited here to give her side of the case.

The United States and other Western nations presumably would oppose any move to invite Peiping as they have done when the Korean question was debated here.

The move to bring in Tibet came after an appeal for United Nations help from the Dalai Lama, self-exiled ruler of the Himalayan nation.

Design Balance, Economy Keynotes of 1960 Olds

Balance of design and greater economy are the keynotes of the new Oldsmobile line for 1960, according to Jack F. Wolfram, general manager of Olds and a vice president of General Motors.

Wolfram stated that the 1960 Oldsmobile features a redesigned Rocket engine in the "88" series for use with lower cost regular grade gasoline.

"This engine," said Wolfram, "will give our customers an improvement of 15 per cent in miles per dollar — maintaining excellent performance."

In all series there are new rear axle ratios and many other engineering advancements. Two three-seat Fiestas have been added to Oldsmobile's station wagon line.

★ ★ ★

"From the trim curved grille to the clean-sweep of the rear deck, the 1960 Oldsmobile is the finest automobile we have ever built," Wolfram said.

"The balanced design of the car is new from every view — front, side and rear. We believe the new Oldsmobile has the styling our customers want, the full-family spaciousness they need and the luxurious interiors they asked," he said.

Bright chrome plated bars in groups of three give the 1960 Oldsmobile curved grille a wide, stable look even though the car itself is no wider than the 1959 models.

★ ★ ★

Headlights are placed horizontally with the outboard pair set slightly behind the inboard pair. The parking lights are recessed in the wrap-around section of the bumper where they can be easily seen from front or side.

The lower and slightly rounded styling of the new front end aids maneuverability of the 1960 Oldsmobile, Wolfram said, especially in tight parking situations.

A new, slimmer automatic transmission permits reduction of the drive line tunnel in the front compartment by 20 per cent, allowing more foot and leg room.

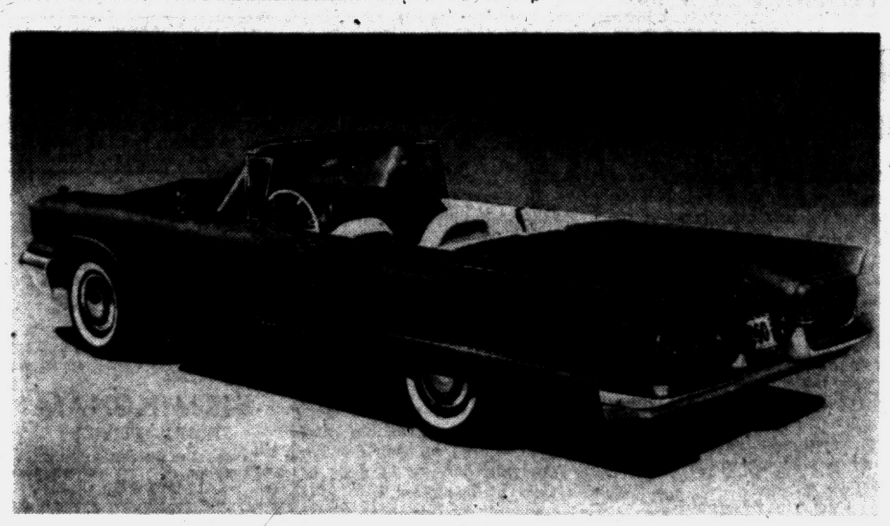
The 1960 Oldsmobile has been further improved by changing the front seat angle for more comfortable seating and revising the seat springs for improved back support and better cushion softness. Rear entrance room has been bettered by increasing the door opening angle. This means that the door swings open 5 inches more.

Oldsmobile offers four distinctive body styles in its Fiesta station wagon series for 1960 with two of the models featuring a full-size, rear-facing third seat.

Two-seat and three-seat models will be available in both the Dynamic "88" and the Super "88" series.

NEW OLDS FOR '60 — This Oldsmobile "98" Holiday SceniCoupe features a low, level hood treatment which affords maximum visibility through the panoramic windshield. Parking lights are recessed in the wrap-around bumper. In the "98" Holiday SportSedan shown below, the rear deck slopes downward to carry out the smooth design and provide maximum rear visibility.



NEW THUNDERBIRD — For the first time in its history, the convertible Thunderbird (above) will have a completely automatic top in the 1960 models. The new T-Bird will be shown by Ford dealers Oct. 8. In the hardtop model, an optional sliding sun roof will be offered. The completely restyled grille is shown in the lower picture. At the rear, each of two pods contain a new arrangement of three taillights.

1960 Thunderbird Offers New Soft Top, Sun Roof

Announcing details of the 1960 Thunderbird, Ford officials said it will offer a completely automatic soft top convertible and an optional sliding sun roof with the hardtop model, while retaining the profile that has made it distinctive.

In addition to these two major changes, distinctive front and rear changes have been made.

Sales of the four-passenger Thunderbird — introduced just a year and a half ago — totaled about 100,000. The 1960 model will go on display in the showrooms of Ford dealers across the nation on October 8. Prices have not yet been announced.

For those who prefer the Thunderbird's hardtop styling, yet enjoy the open air feeling, a new sliding roof panel will be an optional feature with the two-door hardtop model. In winter or summer, the sun roof will provide improved air circulation for Thunderbird occupants.

With the 1960 model, the Thunderbird convertible introduces added convenience with a completely automatic top that is stowed beneath the flat rear deck. Without infringing on the rear seat passenger space, the Thunderbird soft top folds into the trunk compartment, requiring no snap-on "boot" and showing no trace of the folded top.

The new front-end treatment features a redesigned grille that speaks of modernity and functional elegance. Inside the massive, one-piece bumper, one horizontal and three vertical ribs accent the heavy aluminum screen that spans the front of the car for better cooling.

At the rear, each of the two pods contain a new arrangement of three taillights. The two outboard lights on each side serve as taillights and brake lights, while the inboard lights house the back-up lights.

Among the other external appointments, the Thunderbird emblem has been restyled; front fender ornaments have been streamlined, and the rear fenders are ornamented with vertical strips.

Standard engine for the Thunderbird is the 352 cubic inch, 300-horsepower V-8 with four-barrel carburetor. As an optional power plant, the Thunderbird is available with the 430 cubic inch, 350-horsepower V-8. Either engine can be matched with Ford's automatic transmission. The standard three-speed manual transmission also is available, and with the standard V-8 engine, overdrive is optional.

In the past, wheat, cotton, soybeans, tobacco, and other farm raw materials made up the bulk of Europe's American buying.

Speaking at the opening of the International Cologne Food Fair, Benson said "Europe's interest in frozen chickens, turkeys, fruits, and other ready-to-cook foods is growing fast."

Red Writer Doesn't Like Pasternak

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviets admire Shakespeare more than any other foreign author but his translator—Boris Pasternak—is a "hermit crab," a Soviet novelist says.

★ ★ ★

Mikhail S. Sholokhov, the novelist, offered this view of literary life in the Soviet Union at a meeting Friday with several American writers and editors.

He had no words of praise for Russia's Pasternak, the author of "Doctor Zhivago," a novel acclaimed in the West but banned in the Soviet Union. Pasternak, widely known also for his poems and translations from Shakespeare, refused the Nobel Prize in literature last year after its award evoked bitter denunciations from Communist officials.

★ ★ ★

"I have been writing for 26 years," Sholokhov said, "and I never met Pasternak."

He said that Pasternak stayed away completely from Russia's literary circle. "And this is Pasternak's loss, not ours," Sholokhov said.

Reflections

THINGS WORTH WHILE

J. L. VOORHEES

The things we value most are acquired by labor, denial, over a long period of time. A youth who works his way through College values his education and makes the most of it. The young man who begins at the lower rung, masters each step as he slowly climbs to the top, knows where he has been and the effort it has taken, is less likely to chuck it for a change.

M. E. SIPLE

A young man and his bride buy a home; through denial and hard work improve it; their furnishings are sketchy but little by little they acquire a new carpet, stove, refrigerator. These acquisitions are treasured.

The things we acquire by fighting for them, making a choice between two things, are possessions we value highest. The fish who fought hardest is prized, the award that took unstinted effort is esteemed, friendship that has endured is treasured as a jewel; worthwhile things are worth extreme effort; they are the cardinal things we cherish.

Snob Appeal Cars to Return?

Chrysler Official Says Compact Models to Be Teamed With the Lavish

DETROIT (UPI) — The money the American motorists save by buying the auto industry's new economy cars will be spent in buying a second car which offers "snob appeal."

This return to prestige car-buying is predicted by C. E. Briggs, a Chrysler Corp. vice president who heads the corporation's luxury car division, Chrysler Imperial.

"I believe the introduction of the new economy cars by the big manufacturers will concentrate auto buyers at two widely separated poles," Briggs said. "Most of the sales will be in the low-priced and economy car market but many of those buying the lower priced cars will turn increasingly to the fine car market for their other car."

Eventually this will mean that the quality of the big car in a family will once again be used as a measure of the family's wealth, Briggs said, and could lead to a resurgence of the race to "keep up with the Joneses" in car buying.

But Briggs said he did not feel a search for prestige would be the main reason for increased fine car buying.

"With more money to spend, the pleasure-loving American motorist is naturally going to seek more luxury in his family car," Briggs said.

"The new economy cars will not be family cars, but cars used mainly by one specific member of the family for some specialized driving chore."

Briggs said he felt the motorist of the future would not be interested in any car which attempted to compromise between luxury and economy.

Marilyn Out-Glitters Most Famous Stars

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — It was a night to remember—or to forget—depending on where you sat.

WILSON

Marilyn Monroe — and escort Montgomery Clift — excited an hysteria at a Broadway opening unequalled since that memorable eve when Ex-Pvt. George Jorgenson showed up wearing not only the name Christine but an evening gown and girdle.

I sat far enough away not to be trampled. These first-nighters had been bravoing French singer Yves Montand's one-man show 'til they saw the bare shoulders and bare back of Miss Monroe.

Some of them babbling French, they surged past such celebrated audience-stealers as Ingrid Bergman, Marlene Dietrich, Lauren Bacall and Paulette Goddard to pounce on gorgeous Marilyn.

I insinuated myself into the madness.

"Oh," breathily exclaimed Marilyn, "I was just telling Monty that in the first interview I ever gave anybody in New York, I told you the one movie star I wanted to meet some day was Monty Clift . . ."

(Arthur Miller was home at his money machine finishing a script.)

As they were elbowing away afterward, after the sexy-singing Montand had been drooled over and his wife Simone Signoret had been cheered, Marilyn said to blabbermouth here, "Montand is so wonderful—he sings with his body."

MARILYN

★ ★ ★

"He's the Marilyn Monroe of the boys," I said—which sally was lost in the crowd. (That's what's become of Sally.)

Marilyn had demonstrated quite clearly just who The Champ is. Nevertheless, there was that one couple detouring around the mob encircling her who saw only the bare shoulders and blonde hair.

"Who is that?" asked the man. "I think," replied the woman, "it must be Jayne Mansfield."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Bob Crosby, observing his 21st wedding anniversary at Sardi's, said, "I couldn't be with my wife tonight so I sent her a Distinguished Service Cross" . . . Lilo agreed to sub for her friend Genevieve (who busted a leg) in "Can-Can" at the Westbury Music Fair for two weeks, to keep the cast working. She hasn't done the show in four years.

Joe Louis re Rocky Marciano's comeback efforts: "I don't think he's serious." "As for Johansson: "He don't know how to finish a fight."

Frank Sinatra's mother was telling Joe E. Lewis how she phoned Frank in L.A. one day from her home in Weehawken. A girl answered. She didn't believe it was Mother Sinatra and hung up. Mother S. not only phoned right back—she spoke pretty sharply to the girl. Mother S. then heard the girl say: "Frank, there's some woman on the phone who called me a creep. She says she's your mother. Shall I hang up on her?" Frank answered: "I'll take it. That's my mother."

★ ★ ★

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A reader figured that Onassis must be the only millionaire in the world with a Callas on his hands.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Someone described a H'wood actor: "He's be a big star if the public liked him as much as he does." . . . That's earl, brother.

Guard and Reserve Will Not Be Cut

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower has scrapped plans to save 26 million dollars this fiscal year by cutting a total of 70,000 men from Army National Guard and Reserve units.

The Budget Bureau said, however, the 25,000-man cut already made in Marine Corps strength will stand.

The Administration will not spend an extra 33 million dollars Congress provided this year to restore Marine Corps strength to the 200,000 level of more than a year ago.

The Army National Guard will be maintained at 400,000 men and the Army Reserve at 300,000 men this fiscal year instead of 360,000 and 270,000 respectively.

Season Coming for Plastic Bags to Be Dangerous

CHICAGO (UPI) — The plastic bag menace and autumn go hand in hand, an American Medical Assn. publication warned yesterday.

According to the magazine (Today's Health) when fall clothes are taken out of storage, the plastic cleaning bags covering them are brought out of the closet and put within easy reach of children.

Scores of children have died this year when the plastic bags were pulled over their heads or came into contact with their faces.

Asked to Write Job Act for State Legislature

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams has asked Prof. William Haber, University of Michigan economist, to prepare a draft of a proposed full employment act for presentation to the 1960 legislature.

Haber is co-author of a recently completed study on the state's long range economic prospects, the so-called Upjohn Report.

One of its recommendations was for an "economic growth act" patterned after the federal full employment act of 1946. Williams promptly endorsed the idea when it was made public two weeks ago.

Governor Poll Puts Nixon 1st; Dems Wide Open

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP) — Western governors generally pick Vice President Richard M. Nixon as a strong favorite in their states for the Republican presidential nomination.

Their replies in an Associated Press survey sized up the Democratic race as wide open. None gave top billing to any single contender.

★ ★ ★

All five Democrats and four Republicans attending the Western Governors' Conference took part in the survey between sessions on highway safety and prison problems.

★ ★ ★

The conference covers 13 states, including Alaska, Hawaii, Oregon and Wyoming, which aren't represented. Together the 13 states can muster about a fifth of the total votes at the presidential nominating conventions.

Paint Poisoning Affects 35 Boston Children

BOSTON (AP) — A Boston city hospital doctor says 35 Boston children in the past six months suffered lead poisoning from eating old layers of paint.

Dr. Sydney S. Gellis, director of pediatrics, said last night that of the 35 children, all under 5 years of age, one died, three suffered some brain damage and six others are still hospitalized.

He said almost all came from old tenement homes.

Dr. Gellis said that almost all of the victims were just beginning to walk.

★ ★ ★

"They get to a window sill or wall and begin to pick off these pieces of old paint and swallow them."

★ ★ ★

He said lead poisoning affects the brain of children and is cumulative. A child who has been hospitalized with it and then goes back and eats paint a second time is that much worse off.

Dr. Gellis explained that paint used 20 to 30 years ago in homes contained a great deal of lead as a binder for pigment. Nowadays, other substances are used for inside paint.

He said the number of cases of lead poisoning this year is about average for the past several years.

U. S. Reds Back Ike's Peace Effort

NEW YORK (AP) — Eugene Dennis, national secretary of the American Communist party, says the party is behind President Eisenhower in all measures to solve world tensions.

★ ★ ★

Dennis spoke Friday night at a rally in Carnegie Hall marking the 40th anniversary of the American Communist party.

He said the visit of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and the forthcoming trip to the Soviet Union by the President are "historic exchanges" which "signify a thaw in the cold war."

Dennis said, however, that many powerful American groups "do not want the cold war to thaw." He named the Pentagon, opponents of U.N. membership for Red China, and those who support nuclear tests.

The rally was attended by about 1,800 persons.

2 Dem Governors Like Colorado's McNichols

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (UPI) — Two Democratic governors at the Western Governors Conference today gave qualified support to Colorado Gov. Steve McNichols as a possible 1960 vice presidential candidate.

Party leaders in McNichols' home state have started a drive to put the 46-year-old governor in the number two spot on the Democratic ticket.

"McNichols would make a wonderful candidate," California Gov. Edmund G. Brown said. Last week Brown mentioned McNichols along with Sen. Clair Engle of California and Sen. Henry Jackson of Washington as good vice presidential candidate material.

New Evidence May Mean Death for Carole Tregoff

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The prosecution will ask the death penalty for Carole Tregoff because of new evidence in the slaying of her lover's wife.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Fred Whichello said the evidence indicates the 22-year-old divorcee plotted with Dr. Bernard Finch to have his wife killed. Barbara Finch, 33, was shot to death outside her West Covina home July 18. Whichello maintains that Dr. Finch, 41, shot his wife after the attempt to hire a killer failed.

The prosecutor told newsmen that a Minneapolis Convict, Jack Cody, told this story.

Dr. Finch and Miss Tregoff tried to hire him in Las Vegas, Nev., to kill Mrs. Finch. He told Dr. Finch that he had completed the job, and Miss Tregoff gave him $1,180. Dr. Finch learned his wife was still alive and demanded that Cody return to Los Angeles and go through with the job. Cody said he was drunk when he got on the plane, and after reaching Los Angeles he immediately headed for Milwaukee.

Whichello said Cody told him he had no intention at any time of killing Mrs. Finch.

Cody is serving a one year sentence in Minneapolis on a bad check conviction.

The alleged plot came to light when a Las Vegas College student, Donald Sanford Williams, told police that Miss Tregoff asked him to introduce her to "two rough guys who can take care of somebody." Williams said he introduced her to Richard Keachie and Cody. Keachie, in jail in Las Vegas on a morals charge, corroborated the story.

Gold Star Mothers to Be Honor Guests

The Oakland County Chapter of Gold Star Mothers will be honored guests at the 10:30 morning service in the First Congregational Church.

The Rev. Malcolm K. Burton will preach on "He Giveth Power."

The Chancel Choir will sing "A Morning Prayer" by Protheroe and "The Cherubim Song" by Bortnianisky. Charles A. Wilson, minister of music, has chosen "Savior of My Heart" by Brahms and "Romance" by Bonnet for his organ numbers.

LANSING (AP)—Larry Graham, 15, of Perrinton, who refused Salk polio vaccine shots because of religious beliefs, died Friday of infantile paralysis in a Lansing hospital.

Dr. Edward Zyzlewski, Fulton township health officer, said the youth was among those who declined the shots because of religious beliefs when the Salk vaccine was offered in the area.

Rocky Visiting 'Just for Fun'

But New Hampshire Tour Tinged With Political Implications

HANOVER, N.H. (AP) — New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller arrived in this politically strategic state today for a whirlwind visit that touched off fresh speculation he would run for the Republican nomination for president.

★ ★ ★

There was widespread belief he was here to sound out opinion on his chances next March in the New Hampshire presidential primary, which will be the first in the nation next year.

If he entered, he would clash with Vice President Richard Nixon, now the leading contender for the party nomination to succeed President Eisenhower.

Rockefeller has laughed off suggestions his trip was political. He has insisted he planned it only to visit with his Dartmouth College classmates all watch a football game here.

★ ★ ★

But his schedule also included:

1. A news conference at a Concord hotel across the street from newly opened headquarters of a "Draft Rockefeller for President" movement.

2. A meeting with New Hampshire Gov. Wesley Powell, regarded as a Nixon supporter.

3. A dinner meeting with 40 prominent residents of New Hampshire who launched the draft - Rockefeller movement and want him to enter the state's primary.

The governor also planned to attend the Dartmouth-Holy Cross football game and meet with fellow members of his college class of 1930.

'Double Agent' Planning to Be Cuban Citizen

HAVANA (UPI)—Maj. William Morgan, a former resident of Toledo, Ohio, who jeopardized his U.S. citizenship by joining Cuba's rebels, has stated he intends to become a Cuban citizen.

In a radio interview Thursday, Morgan was asked about reports that the State Department might revoke his citizenship because of his service in a foreign army.

"This matter has little importance," he said. "At this moment, I am preparing to renounce my U.S. citizenship in order to accept Cuban citizenship.

"As you know, I am married to a Cuban girl and we have a daughter born here."

Morgan made headlines recently as a "double agent" who helped to smash an alleged attemp to invade Cuba. While posing as a foe of Premier Fidel Castro, he kept Castro advised of the invaders' plans.

Under Communism 10 Years Thursday

'Standing' China Near Birthday

By RONALD P. KRISS

TOKYO (UPI) — A decade ago, Mao Tse-tung, chief architect of the Chinese Communist revolution, declared triumphantly:

"The Chinese people, one quarter of the human race, have now stood up."

His words were confident and defiant, despite the fact that his nation lay in ruins after 22 straight years of war and civil strife.

Next Thursday Communist China celebrates its 10th birthday, more confident, more defiant and more dangerous than ever.

In Peiping's enormous tienanmen ("square of heavenly peace") hundreds of thousands of spectators will look to a raised platform set amid gaudy pennants and banners where the men who made the revolution will be standing.

MEN IN SPOTLIGHT

Here are some of the men who are almost certain to be in the spotlight on Oct. 1:

—Mao Tse-tung, 65, chairman of the Communist Party, guiding spirit of the revolution and himself a living myth. The moon-faced son of a Hunan farmer, Mao retired as president of the government last April, he remains unchallenged as the top man in China.

—Liu Shao-chi, 54, or 61, Mao's dour first lieutenant, the new president of the government and a bit of a mystery man, whose age is not even known for certain. This tough, Moscow-trained administrator now stands as Mao's heir-apparent.

—Chou En-lai, 61, the nimble Premier, a suave, handsome man who somehow has managed to land on his feet through three decades of shifts and purges and even now may be working his way out from under a cloud.

These are the men who swept one-fourth of mankind into the Communist camp.

They are the first generation of Chinese communism, the men who began plotting back in the 1920s in Shanghai and Paris and are still around today, holding the reins.

A decade ago they were gaunt from years of retreat and defeat, of guerrilla warfare and the austere life of the caves of Yenan where they fled from Shanghai in the "long march" of the 1920s. They were probably also a bit amazed at their sudden success.

In the decade since then, the mainland has taken enormous strides; how enormous is difficult to say, however, for the Reds are notorious for padding production figures.

PRODUCTION CLAIMS

The Communists claim that grain production soared 103 per cent between 1949 and 1958 to 250,000,000 tons; that steel output jumped 75-fold to 8,000,000 tons; that coal production rose 30-fold to 270,000,000 tons. The gross national product is supposed to reach $110 billion this year, triple Japan's.

The Chinese have registered another great production increase, but this one isn't advertised as enthusiastically as the others. Since 1949 China's women have produced 100,000,000 babies. There are 650,000,000 Chinese today, and by 1980 there may be one billion.

This staggering population is one of the regime's great burdens.

The Communists claim they will overtake Britain in the output of major industrial products by 1969, but even if they do, per capita output still would be only one-thirteenth of Britain's.

BIRTHDAY PARTY NEAR — No, the party won't be for any of these three men, but for their country, Red China. The nation will observe its 10th birthday under Communist rule Thursday. Guiding it through this period have been (from left): Liu Shao-chi, new president; party chief Mao Tse-tung; and Premier Chou-lai.

Congress to Work on Ike's Vetoed Law

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower is going to let Congress have its way on the only law which it ever has enacted over his veto.

The budget bureau has given the green light to begin construction of 67 water development projects in 31 states for which Congress provided funds by overriding Eisenhower's veto of the $1,185,309,093 public works money bill.

The President, who has objected that it ultimately would cost $800,000,000 to complete the projects, could have frozen the $50,000,000 provided by Congress to begin construction.

Gospel Meetings at Sylvan Lake Church to Start

The annual fall series of Gospel meetings will begin tomorrow at the Sylvan Lake Church of Christ, Orchard Lake and Middle Belt roads, with regular services at 9:45 and 10:45 a.m. and again at 6 p.m.

Meetings will continue through Oct. 4 with services each week night at 7:30 and at 10 a.m. daily Tuesday through Saturday.

Guest speaker for the series will be Jack Hawkins of Newark, Ohio.

Marvin W. Hastings, local minister, says Mr. Hawkins served at the Pontiac Church of Christ for several years. He currently is engaged in evangelistic work in Ohio and other northern states.

Minister From Chicago to Speak to Unitarians

Dr. Von Ogden Vogt, minister emeritus of the First Unitarian Church of Chicago, will speak to the Pontiac and Birmingham congregations of Unitarian Church, Wooodward and Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills at 10:30 a.m. Sunday. His subject will be "The Dignity of Man."

Missionaries Slated to Speak

Costumes, Carvings and Articles From Burma to Be on Display

Speaking at Crescent Hills Baptist Church at 10 a.m. Sunday will be Dr. Anna B. Grey and Mary Thomas, former missionaries to Burma.

★ ★ ★

Both women have served under the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society in the Christian Hospital at Moulmein, Burma.

Ten members of the congregation dressed in Burmese costumes will represent natives who were helped by missionary work. Carvings and other articles of native workmanship will be on display.

Promotion and Rally Day will be observed in the Sunday School at 11 a.m.

★ ★ ★

White Bibles will be awarded five girls who had faithful attendance for one year in both church and Sunday School. Superintendent Norman Schmuck will award the certificates of promotion.

Soviets Can Hear Mr. K Live Sunday

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviets can tune in on a three-hour broadcast Sunday featuring their premier, Nikita Khrushchev.

★ ★ ★

At 4 p.m. (EDT) the Voice of America will broadcast "live" the Premier's hour-long Washington news conference.

Between 5 and 6 p.m. the Voice will have a program of news and features about Khrushchev's American visit.

At 7 p.m. Khrushchev comes on "live" again, with his nationwide speech on U.S. television.

★ ★ ★

The special program will be on a dozen frequencies beamed to the Soviet Union. Soviet jamming transmitters have been letting Khrushchev speeches through to the Soviet Union during his visit.

FIRE PREVENTION IS A CONTINUING RESPONSIBILITY OF EVERYONE!

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK OCT. 4-10 1959

But Here Is a WARNING on FIRE PREVENTION SCHEMES

From time to time, fire extinguishers have been offered to the public which have proved to be useless and even dangerous. Extinguishers should be purchased only from firms of known reliability.

Salesmen for home fire alarm systems have sometimes gained entrance into home by posing as "OFFICIAL INSPECTORS," or by alleging that they wish to make "FIRE PREVENTION TALKS." Once they have secured entrance to the home, they frequently use "SCARE TACTICS" and "HORROR PICTURES," in an effort to frighten the home owner into making an immediate purchase of the equipment being offered by the salesman.

If Nikita's Visit Induces Peace, Should We Excuse Everything?

Many people have asked what I think of NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV's visit to this country.

There's a jack pot question that I can't answer with a simple "da" or "nyet." It calls for a more detailed treatment because of various repercussions and conflicting currents.

★ ★ ★

Khrushchev is the sainted pooh-bah of a governmental philosophy that we do not accept and which we believe is destructive to the individual and the state. However, that in itself would never bar the nation's head man from visiting this country. Rather, we should be glad to exchange ideas.

In the case of this particular Premier, he comes with hands that are stained with the blood of God fearing peoples from an assortment of nations. Some place his butcheries at an astounding figure and some at a lesser. But I don't believe anyone—anywhere—would try to absolve this executioner from all the horrible crimes held against him.

The truth persists.

We can't forget it.

★ ★ ★

Hence, from that angle, the homage and welcome that we extend is a cruel and treacherous mockery of those who lie in shallow graves and who have been the victims. My heart goes out to them in sympathy far ahead of my hand to KHRUSHCHEV in welcome.

★ ★ ★

I recognize that the President of the United States approves of his visit. He hopes to bring about better relationships in the future between these two great nations. If Eisenhower can overlook the symbol of mass murder that is stamped all over Khrushchev, perhaps we should, too. Perhaps we should seize the occasion to try and build for world peace. You can overlook almost anything for that. Here is the great objective of all mankind and if we have to swallow our righteous indignation to work towards everlasting global peace, then the top killer of the universe may become relatively unimportant. He emerges from the blood of his victims and is overshadowed by the light of a greater glory ahead.

That's where it stands.

★ ★ ★

NIKITA hasn't forced his way across our border.

Our State Department acts as his host and his sponsor. The President of the United States is a very hard headed, practical individual. He isn't a "gone theorist" who lives in the clouds and chases rainbows.

He says, "Let's have him."

And it's his responsibility.

★ ★ ★

Personally, if I had lunch with this big shot killer my conscience would leave me choking on the food and in shame.

★ ★ ★

But he's here.

The Pontiac PRESS brings you detailed and factual accounts of his visit. He's a world figure. We have reported objectively what he does and what he says. That's why you buy and pay for this newspaper. In our editorial columns we reserve the right to say what we please and our opinion of the world's champion butcher is very, very low.

★ ★ ★

By the way, have you talked this over with any of the boys and girls from East Germany, Poland, Hungary, Latvia, Estonia, Lithuania etc.?

Maybe they're "prejudiced." It could be.

They're the victims of his bloody purges.

They're the unfortunate peoples whose families were executed by this "distinguished" visitor. It's a bit harder to be objective when a father and two brothers lie in nameless, unmarked graves.

But peace is the overall glory at the end of the rainbow.

Can we stomach the guy?

What do YOU think?

And in Conclusion . . . .

Jottings from the well thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

The largest circulation of any newspaper belongs to The New York Daily News. The Chicago Tribune is the second and the New York Mirror is third. The largest volume of advertising in 1958 went to The Los Angeles Times, with the Miami Herald and The Milwaukee Journal following . . . . . In 50 years of racing at Indianapolis, 50 men have lost their lives on the treacherous brick track . . . . . Clothiers on the West Coast are uneasy over Japanese suits which sell far below the U.S. price because of the wage scale in Japan . . . . . Surprisingly, jets are beginning to get a lot of air freight business.

★ ★ ★

After centuries of speculation and discussion, scientists now agree that this earth is about 2.6 billion years old . . . . . A group of home owners in Shirley, Long Island, is considering the erection of a synagogue. Of course, they'll call it "Shirley Temple. . . . . Long life on TV is rare. The costs floor the advertisers and the public always demands new faces. The oldest shows in order are these: Cavalcade of Sports, Ed Sullivan, Godfrey, Jack Benny, Groucho Marx and What's My Line? . . . . . Here are the auto taxes in Cuba: up to $2,300, it's $7; then up to $2,600 it's $150; then up to $3,000 it's $500; and when you pass $3,000, the tax is $5,000.

★ ★ ★

In November a six week Pacific Ocean cruise is planned strictly for bridge players . . . . . In 1917, Russia's industrial output was one-eighth of ours. Last year KHRUSHCHEV says it was one-half ours. (Our own boys believe one-third would be nearer, and even that's a great advance). "But," says KRUSHY, "it won't be long until we move alongside when we'll wave to you—and move rapidly out in front." (It doesn't read that way in my book) . . . . . A wealthy Texan told his chauffeur to make a "U" turn. "It's against the law," said the c. "O.K.," spat the Texan, "stop the first Cadillac going the other way and buy it."

HAROLD A. FITZGERALD

---

IT is doubly deplorable that January hung up such a bad record for floods, blizzards and other disagreeable weather, as February invariably manages to exceed January in dishing out tough weather.

---

THERE are problems concerning inner space, too, in addition to the primary problem of finding parking space. For example, there is never enough space in the front of the bus or in the rear of the church.

---

THE reason many a person who sallies forth to clean up the world doesn't first sweep around his own door is that the accumulated pile of debris is too large and heavy to sweep.

---

IT MAY take all kinds of people to make a world, as the saying goes, but many of them mess it up considerably in the making.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

We often think of artists as being moody, egotistical, head-strong geniuses too wrapped up in themselves to ever think of anyone or anything but their work.

But Fra Angelico, the great Renaissance master, was an artist of such consummate humility that he knelt while painting his "Madonna" and wept while he worked on his "Crucifixion."

This simple man of God, who gave up a career as a painter of miniatures to enter a Dominican monastery, never lifted his brush without praying for inspiration. The scene of the life of Christ he painted on the walls of the Monastery of San Marco in Florence are responsible for that building today being regarded as one of the great art treasures of the world.

Said art critic John Ruskin of this good monk's life work: "He bequeathed to the world the most radiant consummation of the pure ideal of Christianity."

Days of All Faiths

Jews Celebrate Dawn of Creation

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

Saturday, October 3 is the first day of the month of Tishri, when 5720 years ago, the voice of God broke the brooding silence that hung in the endless void, and the mighty pageant of Creation began.

★ ★ ★

This is the belief of the Jews, and Rosh Hashonah, is their commemoration of the earth's first moments. It is also the beginning of their solemn High Holidays, a ten-day period ending with Yom Kippur. The ten days between Rosh Hashonah and Yom Kippur are called Days of Awe. The two days, Rosh Hashonah and Yom Kippur, are the holiest of the year in Jewish life.

To outsiders it may be confusing that this Jewish festival should be regarded as the beginning of the year. The Bible passage (Leviticus, chapter 23, verses 24 and 25) in which the observance first appears does not call it the "head o' the year" at all.

★ ★ ★

Rather it stipulates that it is the beginning of the seventh month of Nisan, which comes in the Spring, at the time of the equinox. How, then, can New Year's Day fall on the first of the seventh month?

Anyone who stops to think about it will quickly be aware that it is no problem. We all have two or more New Years every year within the rhythm of whatever culture or immediate local situation we live in.

★ ★ ★

The Christian has no trouble accommodating himself to the idea that the first Sunday in Advent (around November 30) is the beginning of the Church year. The politician and the businessman are quite accustomed to fiscal years that may begin at any time without regard to the calendar year. And certainly every family feels that the year begins when summer vacations are over and everyone buckles down again to work or study.

★ ★ ★

So it is in this case. The Jews simply have two New Years — and, from the spiritual standpoint, this is the one that counts. This is the day when all life began; this is the day when each man's life begins anew — let the almanacs and mathematical calculations say what they will.

GOD JUDGES

Judaism is a religion that emphasizes moral goodness. A basic premise and original contribution of Jewish thought is the insistence that ethical virtue is pleasing to God and is rewarded, while evildoing is punished.

It is only natural, therefore, that as a man faces a new year he should believe that his conduct over the past year will determine God's attitude toward him during the months to come. So, these High Holidays — and the preparation for them — are a time of penitence and hope. Each man repents the errors and frailties of the past year and hopes to do better in the new one.

All through the preceding month (Elul) penitential prayers have been said daily, with increasing depth and intensity since last Sunday. Lately New Year's cards and greetings have been sent to relatives and friends. Tonight, after services, this greeting will be exchanged: "May you be inscribed and sealed for a good year."

People With Colds Persist in Complaining, Spraying

Why do people with what they call "colds" persist in coming to call and tell how bad they feel, as they sit there spraying the atmosphere with whatever they've got . . .? (Mrs. L. M.)

DR. BRADY

Ans. — Primarily, I think, because doctors encourage them to believe their respiratory infections are "just colds." And partly because they are ignorant — they do not read the fine print, only the headlines.

★ ★ ★

Correspondents please take note. I am fed up with clippings, citations, and statements attributed to more or less eminent authorities, that go like this:

"Excessive doses of single B vitamins can lead to (assorted ill consequences)."

Who suggests or recommends excessive doses of vitamins? The near-scientist or trick specialist who utters such hokum might just as well warn people the sun can quit shining.

Following the advice in your Allergy pamphlet I have found wonderful relief from what I had supposed were constantly recurring "colds." I'm sure a great many persons similarly affected would get as much benefit . . . (Mrs. J. D.)

Ans. — Thank you, Ma'am. Anyone who provides stamped, self-addressed envelope may have a copy of the pamphlet Relief For Allergy.

I just love to eat raw potatoes. Mother thinks they are harmful. Please tell us which is right. (B. A. P.)

Ans. — If you like 'em raw that's the best way to eat 'em.

I play golf. I was nervous (stage fright) in competition. I sent for your pamphlet titled Stage Fright And Examination Jitters. Followed instructions and found I remained calm even when I needed a good shot out of the rough or when making a crucial putt. I just want to say thank you. (P. J., Jr.)

Ans. — Thank you. The pamphlet is available free to anyone who provides stamped, self-addressed envelope. If the prophylactic does no good, at least it can do no harm.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Churches Must Alter Selling Plan

Joseph Edge is typical of the farsighted leaders of all our major church groups. They are valiantly trying to raise our American church membership from its present 61 per cent to more nearly the 100 per cent goal. But this involves changing from the department store to the life insurance plan of "selling," as shown below.

By GEORGE W. CRANE

Case C - 454: Joseph H. Edge, of the Board of Evangelism of the Methodist Church, recently invited me to conduct a clinic and offer the concluding message at a special meeting in Miami, Beach.

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane," he began, "we are bringing together a large body of laymen who comprise our National Lay Committee on Evangelism.

"We want you to offer specific advice on how they can help inspire our church to more effectively improve the course of civilization in our time."

Well, I relish this type of speaking assignment, for I am convinced that churches, schools and newspapers, radio and TV, will determine whether we go upward or downward in the next half century.

Atom bombs are not the hope nor the real protection of morality.

They exert a momentary influence. They explode with a vast "Poof", and then send forth millions of destructive particles, like shrapnel fragments to maim mankind.

But a personality like Christ, which makes a young Negro tired of being pushed around and being treated like a second rate citizen. This pride may emerge in an aggressive form and you get crime and violence.

You ask why white people should help Negroes? The answer is money. You pay for every Negro family on ADC, welfare or in prison or other institution. As long as persons like you preach perpetuation of a racial difference there'll be racial problems. Lack of understanding is the basis for most of them. Negroes act like everyone else when treated right. I'm available to any really interested citizen who wants to better race relations.

I believe in the Golden Rule and that people can live together if they'll just put forth the effort.

No, they return in an orderly arrangement prescribed by architects and engineers to form schools and hospitals, church and YMCA or CYO halls.

CHURCH SALESMANSHIP

Church folks should thus realize that as Positive personality, like Christ, continues in ever widening circles of constructive power, to make this neutral planet resemble heaven.

★ ★ ★

Church congregations should thus be local sales groups for going forth during the week to "sell" the new type of ethics that has made more beneficial changes on this earth than any or all rival religions.

"By their fruits ye shall know them," Jesus said, so try to imagine the desolate place this world would be without churches and schools, hospitals and YMCA or CYO halls, Salvation Army, Red Cross, Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, etc.

To "evangelize" this modern generation, means we first need to re-sell ourselves on the positive merits in Christianity.

Then we must do more "prospecting", after the fashion of life insurance salesmen.

They don't stand behind a counter, waiting for clients. Instead, they try to ferret out potential customers. Then they call on these prospects.

Churches have too long imitated department stores in expecting "buyers" to come to them.

Instead, we need to imitate the insurance companies and go out into the highways or byways to ring doorbells and do personal calling, as St. Paul did.

STODGY CHURCHES

As churches grow older, they tend to become stodgy and get out of contact with the folks at the grass roots. They may even prefer to conserve financial assets instead of spending to save new souls.

A vital church is overflowing with children in Sunday School. It also has its building lighted up 7 nights per week, serving as a rallying point for constructive social activities with a moral flavor.

"But you can't fill a church until you fill the pulpit," is still a truism so we need orators in the pulpits who can keep 10-year-olds interested, as well as parents and grandparents.

★ ★ ★

Cut out the sleepy monologuing, with parroting of trite moral platitudes. Preachers need to attend life insurance sales meetings to pick up the latest ideas on personal selling, for that's what churches often lack.

Frank DuFrain Suggests a Plan for Rearmament

Whether stated by President Eisenhower or Premier Khrushchev, the warning that something should be done to slow down the rearmament race should make sense to all of us. Most people agree on this, but the rub comes when any detailed plan is proposed.

★ ★ ★

Why not suggest the great powers agree to a cut in their defense spending of one-third the first year, one-third of the remainder the next year and so on? Under this plan each country could spend its money for such defense items as it pleased. With a decreasing expenditure each year, the probability of starting a war would be lessened and disarmament might eventually become a reality.

★ ★ ★

A committee from well-established auditing firms in neutral countries could be appointed to check the books for evidence that all signatories to the plan were living up to the agreement.

★ ★ ★

In our country the savings could well be used to reduce our national debt, or if the economy needed it, a portion of the savings could be invested in better housing, flood control, reforestation, educational institutions or in any manner that would contribute to the long-term prosperity and well-being of our country.

Several Discuss Racial Problems

In case Wild Bill didn't know it, my earlier letter meant for everyone to get along. If you'd rather stay by yourself, you have the privilege.

Mrs. Gerald Evans
548 Emerson

To Ex-Southerner. It's a pity a person can live with so many old-fogy beliefs in this day and age. All crimes should be published to protect the innocent of all races. Negro crimes are published and read about even more than other minority races. Many crimes by Negroes don't make front page and all other races have their share of unpublished crimes. I don't read on page one of Southern white males abusing Negro girls, but I know a lot of it happens.

★ ★ ★

As for Negroes depending on white people, that's something of the past. Negroes are more advanced than ever before because more and more are on their own, fighting for their own civil rights, and for the majority of the people. Granted, some Negroes don't want to integrate, but all races have a few who want to follow old hand-me-down traditions.

We all should pray for protection of our children, because I wouldn't want my child thrown in a river or molested, such as the case in Florida.

Yvonne Cayton

Wild Bill's letter was erroneous, unfair, unobjective and displayed narrow character. The Press reports crime as a social problem, not a racial one. Negroes who commit crimes in the South aren't dignified by having press notices. They're just thrown in jail. This applies to many who don't commit crimes. At the same time, a Negro who's wronged by a Southern white usually finds it advisable to forget it.

★ ★ ★

You speak of lack of Negro pride. It is pride which causes the Negro so much trouble. When he attempts to assert himself or speak against injustices, trouble usually starts. It's pride

'Why Are They Given Passes?

Dr. Heustis says 1,400 quit the State Hospital without approval in the past 18 months and that many of these patients are a danger to themselves as well as to others.

If they're so dangerous, why does the State Hospital staff grant passes for them to leave the hospital for a visit. A person cannot leave on their own unless they run away.

Would Organize Every Worker

Hoffa, on TV, Claims He'll Fire Teamsters on Payroll Illegally

ATLANTA (UPI) — James R. Hoffa Thursday said the goal of the Teamsters Union is to organize every American worker who does not carry a union card.

Hoffa told a television panel he would like to have policemen and firemen in the Teamsters Union. But he feels they should not have the right to strike.

In an interview prior to the TV panel, Hoffa explained why he thinks the Teamsters Union should go after members in non-related fields. He said the Teamsters Union is "flexible."

Hoffa again said he would remove the four Teamsters illegally on the payroll according to the new labor reform law. He would not name them.

Hoffa said he is aware of the tremendous responsibility he has as leader of a union that could tie up the nation's transportation. But he said "there are enough laws on the books to cover any illegal actions by the unions."

The return of the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA) into the Teamsters Union, Hoffa said.

Hoffa also made these points:

An investigation of his own leadership by his Union rank and file membership would be welcome at any time.

Only if we can come back as an autonomous body with full constitutional rights" would he like the Teamsters back in the AFL-CIO.

Hoffa said he will urge labor to follow him in his fight to personally campaign against Sen. John Kennedy (D-Mass) as a presidential candidate.

LANSING (UPI) — Three lawmakers have been named to a house committee to study airports servicing commercial passenger airlines.

Named to the committee by House Speaker Don R. Pears (R-Buchanan) were Reps. Edward A. Burgman (R-Grand Rapids), Einar E. Erlandsen (D-Escanaba) and Andrew W. Cobb (R-Elsie).

Indiana Juggles Its Clock Times

Fast? Slow? Confusion Reigns, Not so Much as in Past Years

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — Parts of Indiana prepared to switch from "fast" to "slow" time Sunday, creating a new wave of autumn clock confusion.

But the switchover will be less confusing than in past years because many cities in the state's eastern half voted to follow the lead of the majority in that section and stay on "fast" time the year around.

Sizable cities, carrying their entire counties with them, moved into the "fast" time zone, apparently to stay, probably both because of problems created last winter when an hour separated many neighboring cities and because of the progress made during the last year by organized advocates of a movement to have the Interstate Commerce Commission move the Eastern-Central time zone boundry westward from its present location on the Indiana-Ohio state line.

The new location would be about halfway toward the Illinois-Indiana line.

Almost the entire eastern half of Indiana will remain on "fast" time this winter, virtually ending years of confusion during which the line of demarcation looked like brush strokes in a surrealist painting.

In the past two years, newspaper publishers spent more than $150,000,000 to modernize their plants and equipment.

Swainson, Only 34, to Be Our Governor for Month

LANSING (UPI)—Michigan will have a 34-year-old acting governor for the next four weeks.

Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson is getting his first big chance to try out a job he may be running for within a year.

"A man can't deny the throught hasn't crossed his mind," Swainson said when he was asked yesterday if he intended to seek the Democratic nomination if Williams doesn't run again.

It was yesterday that Ex-Sergeant Swainson took over top command from Gov. G. Mennen Williams, who left for a trip to Europe.

It was only five years ago that Swainson, fresh out of law school, entered politics. He was elected in 1954 to the Senate from the 18th district, which encompasses part of Detroit, Plymouth and surrounding Wayne County subruban areas.

He was re-elected in 1956, got his first big break by being named Senate minority leader. He got the attention of party leaders with his debates against Republicans in the GOP-dominated Senate

Swainson got his next big break last spring when the then lieutenant governor, Philip Hart, decided to run for the U.S. Senate. Swainson got the nod from party leaders and walked away with a primary victory.

Swainson, the freshman on Williams' adminstrative team, has been seen frequently around the state but heard little.

As presiding officer in the Senate Swainson has had to please both parties.

Swainson is on the firing line now.

He may be in position of having to order out additional state troopers if violence erupts at the Cross strike in Fraser. Williams said he instructed Swainson to act "In the event there is further serious disturbance there."

If the supreme court throws out the new case (sales) tax increase, Swainson's job as acting governor will be complicated. He said he has discussed the possibility with Williams.

Swainson will continue to be paid only his $8,500 salary while doing for a month a jog that pays $22,500 a year.

But Swainson isn't complaining about the hours or pay.

U. S. Steel President Said Satisfactory

HYANNIS, Mass. (AP) — Walter F. Munford, 59, president of U.S. Steel Corp., who suffered a 3-inch knife wound in the abdomen Wednesday and a stroke Thursday, was reported in satisfactory condition today.

Cape Cod Hospital used only the one word and did not elaborate. Previously Munford was reported making progress toward recovery.

The knife wound apparently was an accident, Dist. Atty. Edmund Dinis said. An investigation indicated Munford fell on a kitchen knife while putting away kitchen utensils in his summer home at Chatham, Dinis said.

Tax Hassle Could Cost U. of M. a Building

ANN ARBOR (UPI)—A University of Michigan vice president has said an unfavorable decision by the supreme court on the use (sales) tax could cost the university its proposed institute of science and technology.

Wilbur K. Pierpont, in charge of business and finance, said the fact that the high court won't have a decision until mid-October has caused a delay in plans for the institute.

Widow Content in Her New 'House on Wheels'

"After my husband died and I sold our old home, each of my four children said, 'Mom, come live with us.'" writes 76-year-old Mrs. L. "I tried it with each of my two daughters.

"Jane has three children. I simply couldn't stand the confusion.

"Ellen and Ralph live out in the country. Both of them work. I couldn't stand the lonely days.

"For years, I'd wanted to take a vacation in a trailer. One Sunday, I suggested that Ellen and Ralph drive me past a trailer park.

QUICK DECISION

"That very afternoon, I picked my future home, a 45-foot salmon and white trailer set in a wooded area, along with 10 other mobile homes. It was within easy walking distance of a main highway, with good bus service to the big city, 16 miles away.

"I call the trailer 'my little doll house,' and I wouldn't trade it for any other home I can think of. It has all the conveniences of an apartment and all the atmosphere of a house."

What does it cost to live in a trailer?

"I paid $5,000 for my new home," says Mrs. L. "It came completely furnished. Floor covering is inlaid linoleum; walls are plywood.

"I have a fully equipped kitchen, with double sink, big refrigerator, four-burner stove and loads of cupboard space; two bedrooms, a living room, and a trim little pink tile bath.

"I pay a dollar a day for parking here. We've had plenty of zero days this winter. Fuel oil for heating during a cold winter month comes to about $20.

"In six months I've spent $5 on bottled gas for my stove."

FAMILIAR TOUCHES

Into her furnished trailer Mrs. L. moved enough old, familiar furniture to make herself feel really at home.

"The walnut dresser belonged to my great-grandmother," she says. "My father made the footstools, and I did the needlepoint covers.

"The davenport is my own. And the end tables were in our old house."

Most of all, Mrs. L. loves her independence.

"The children and grandchildren come to see me often," she says. "But I'm on my own."

PATRICIA NOE

Patricia Noe, daughter of the Dewey R. Noes of Waterford Township, graduated recently from McAuley School of Practical Nursing. She plans to practice in Sumter, S. C.

Dear Abby Advises:

Tell Your Mother You Lied, Honey

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Last week I wrote a long letter to my girlfriend and asked my mother to mail it for me. I know my mother read it because she's been asking me about a lot of things I mentioned in the letter. The things I wrote in the letter were not true. I know it was wrong to make up things, but my girlfriend writes about the places she goes and the good times she is having, and I wanted her to think I was doing those things, too.

ABBY

Now I'm afraid my mother will never believe a word I say. How can I heal my guilty conscience and get my mother to trust me again? I am 15.

TROUBLED

DEAR TROUBLED: Everyone makes mistakes. This is a part of learning and growing up. Tell your mother you realize how wrong you were in lying to your girlfriend, and that from now on you will stick to the truth. Your mother will have even greater confidence in you. For it takes a truly good and honest person to confess a wrong and resolve to do better.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: What do you do with a husband who is so stubborn he walks away when you try to tell him something for his own good?

He has a bad back but he won't go to a doctor. He takes his pillow and sleeps on the floor. He claims he doesn't get a wink of sleep unless he is on the floor.

I am through fighting with him. I have even taken my pillow and tried to sleep on the floor with him, but he sends me back to bed. Don't you think he should see a doctor? He is only 31 and our marriage is nothing already.

LONESOME WIFE

DEAR LONESOME: Of course he should see a doctor! Possibly all that stands between you and a good marriage is a firmer mattress, a bed board or a few treatments. Don't get off your husband's back until he has tried to find out what's wrong with it!

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My sister and I were invited to a dinner party. My sister is one of those people who always has to have a cigarette in her hand, so she burned a hole in the hostess' tablecloth.

She apologized all over the place. The hostess took it good-naturedly, saying, "It was a very old cloth."

★ ★ ★

I took it to mean it was a "valuable old" cloth, and my sister said the hostess meant it was just "worn-out old cloth."

On the way home my sister and I had some words about it. I said she should have offered to replace it. she said it wasn't necessary. Who was right?

OLDER SISTER

DEAR SISTER: You were. Your sister should have offered to replace the cloth. A little note of apology or flowers the following morning would have been a nice gesture, also.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO COLEEN: Too much Irish coffee can be grounds for divorce. Try it with sugar and cream.

What's your problem? For a personal reply write to ABBY, care of this paper. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Pasternak-Dahl Rites Held at St. Benedict

MRS. R. S. PASTERNAK

White gladioli and greens banked the altar of St. Benedict Church for the wedding this morning of Darlene Rae Dahl and Raymond Stanley Pasternak.

The Rev. Robert Wygowski officiated at the ceremony before 250 guests.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Dahl of Elizabeth Lake road and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pasternak of Troy.

The bride's white silk organza gown featured a scalloped Sabrina neckline, a Chantilly lace bodice and long sleeves. The floor length skirt formed a chapel train and a crown of lace accented with seed pearls and sequins held her silk illusion veil. She carried a crescent bouquet of white roses, chrysanthemums and ivy.

Maryann Smith of Pontiac was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Cynthia Dahl, the bride's sister; Martha Pulleyblank and Arline Szialadzienski of St. Clair.

ALL IN PINK

All wore identical coral pink lace dresses with matching chiffon cummerbunds and chiffon picture hats. Their cascade bouquets were of coral and white carnations.

Claudia Allen, flower girl, wore a white embroidered nylon floor length dress with a coral pink cummerbund. Her headpiece was white and coral carnations and she carried a basket of coral and white petals.

★ ★ ★

Best man was Donald DeLater of Rochester. Ushers were Joseph Novak of Livonia, Charles Timmereck of Rochester, Jerry Nelson, and Amund Dahl, the bride's brother. Patrick Walsh was ring bearer.

LUNCHEON AT VFW

A buffet luncheon was held at VFW Hall for the wedding party and immediate relatives. This evening a reception for some 300 guests will also be held there.

The newlyweds will live in Rochester following a honeymoon through Canada, Niagara Falls and New York state.

The bride attended Pontiac Business Institute and the bridegroom attended Chrysler Corporation Institute of Technology.

Mrs. Dahl wore a green satin sheath dress with matching accessories and a brown satin leave hat. Her corsage was of yellow orchids.

Mrs. Pasternak wore a royal blue sheath dress with a matching hat and accessories and a pink orchid corsage.

Movie Stars Can't Read All Letters

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: Do you approve of girls writing fan letters to movie starts? I occasionally write to a favorite movie star and my mother thinks it is in bad taste."

---

Answer: A very short note of intelligent appreciation of a part well played is a delight to every actor as well as actress. Unhappily, however, the usual letters sent by young girls to actors are very silly, in which case the answer is definitely, "No!"

Perhaps the best deterrent I can offer is to remind these girls that those actors who are really very popular cannot possibly open more than a fraction of the letters themselves, but they must be opened by one of many secretaries. The young girl writing will have her letter read first by someone else, who hands it to the star only when worth his attention.

---

"Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me how a register should be signed in a funeral home?"

---

Answer: Write your name Mary Blank if that is the way the family knows you. But if Mary Blank would only be confusing to them, whereas Mrs. John Blank would identify you, then write the latter. A name signed in a register is not the same as signing a message, in which case it would be improper to prefix Mrs. to your name.

Classify Your Skin Type

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Did you know that your skin is almost as individual as your fingerprints? Of course this is an exaggeration, but we should decide what type complexion we have and treat it accordingly. What is good for one skin may be actually bad for another.

★ ★ ★

The following is a simple classification — normal, dry, oily, combination or allergic.

If your skin is dry, use a creamy cleanser rather than soap and water, a lotion or a cleansing cream. Remove with tissues and then with a warm damp cloth. Avoid astringents. It is a good idea to further protect your complexion by using one of the moisturizing lotions or a softening make-up base, one with a little oil in it.

If your skin is oily, soap and water are the best cleansing agents for you. Use an astringent after each cleansing. Whenever possible you should wash your face several times a day. If you are not at home at noon you will find the little cleansing pads helpful. You can keep these in your desk along with make-up to apply after you use the pads.

Most women who have oily skins find that a make-up base is essential if their make-up is to last for hours. There are bases planned especially for the oily skin.

By the combination skin I mean a skin which is generally dry but has oily areas such as those about the nose and chin. This skin requires a combination treatment. Care for the dry portions as indicated for dry skin and the oily parts as suggested for oily skin.

If your skin is very sensitive or seems irritated by cosmetics, if you are subject to many skin rashes, you may be allergic to some things. If you suspect this, you might try the cosmetics which are planned especially for this condition. There are several good lines. If this does not clear up your troubles, see a skin specialist.

"COMMON RELIGIOUS TEACHINGS NOT ENDORSED BY THE BIBLE"

Last week in an article on BAPTISM FOR THE REMISSION I presented to you the first of two arguments endeavoring to point out the truth of the proposition that BAPTISM IS SAID TO BE FOR THE REMISSION OF SINS. In this article I want to present to you the second argument from Acts 2:38 and we would appreciate your candid consideration of the two articles.

Our argument this week is a grammatical one. "Only a little clear thinking will reveal that "for" in the passage (Acts 2:38) could not mean "because of" since there is only one preposition "for" in the passage. Suppose we use "for" with repentance, leaving out baptism, and what do we have? "Repent for the remission of sins." Does the "for" mean "because of" repentance when we leave out baptism? If so, one repents because he is already saved, not in order to be saved. Are you ready to contend that repentance is "because of" salvation? I think not. Then if "repent for" the remission of sins means, "repent unto" the remission of sins, why does not "baptised for" remission of sins also mean "baptised in order to remission of sins" since there is only one "for" in the passage? (Estes)

Allow me to present one other argument from the pen of Peter. In 1 Peter 3:21, Peter again informs us of the ESSENTIALITY OF BAPTISM AS IT PERTAINS TO SALVATION. The text says that baptism does not save us . . . "baptism doth also now save us." I submit, friends, that any explanation which makes Peter say that baptism does not save us is not an explanation, but a contradiction. I. One cannot be baptised and stay out of the water—and it is baptism that is here said to save us. II. Previous to baptism the salvation mentioned in this text does not exist, since it is baptism that "now saves us." III. Subsequent to baptism, the salvation promised does exist—for baptism "doth now also save us." IV. Without baptism, therefore, the salvation mentioned by Peter cannot exist, since the passage makes it depend upon baptism. So stripped of the sophistry of men, who "do always resist the Holy Spirit" and "never cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord," 1 Peter 3:21 stands in proof of the place of baptism in the gospel plan, and as a perpetual rebuke to men who continuously prate and prattle that baptism is non-essential. Friends, I am confident that these elementary truths are not hidden from the many informed ministers of this city, yet they DELIBERATELY REFRAIN FROM ADMITTING IT, PREACHING IT, AND PRACTICING IT. SHOULD WE ALLOW SUCH MINISTERS TO TEACH US? Friends, these texts teach that BAPTISM IS ESSENTIAL TO SALVATION. If you have not believed it, would you believe it? If you have not obeyed it, would you obey it? If you have not taught it, WOULD YOU teach it? For these truths are substantiated by the word of God. Believeth thou this?

U.S. May Get a Coffee Break; 5-Cent Cup Due?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The five-cent cup of coffee may not be a thing of the past after all. Government researchers say a synthetic coffee costing much less than the real stuff could be only months away.

The prediction was contained in a report prepared for the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

★ ★ ★

The report said scientists are close to discovering the compounds responsible for the characteristic coffee flavor and soon should be able to make an imitation "with or without synthetic or natural caffeine."

They said soluble coffee, added to a roast made from wheat or barley, could then be produced at low cost without using coffee beans at all.

★ ★ ★

Furthermore, they claimed it probably would taste as good as the better blends and grades from Guatemala, Colombia or Yemen.

Comedy Scripts on TV Fall Flat; Radio Better

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—When will the comedians be coming back to television? Maybe never.

THOMAS

I came to this conclusion while watching a couple of the new comedy entries this week. We may have to face the fact that TV is not a medium in which comedy can thrive and survive.

Take "The Dennis O'Keefe Show," which made its debut Tuesday. O'Keefe is one of the movies' better handlers of funny stuff; he can double-take with the best of them. But his talents weren't enough to save the insane script.

★ ★ ★

There could be humor in having a sophisticated man act like a teen-ager to disenchant a swooning young girl. At least it was funny when Cary Grant did it in "The Bachelor and the Bobby-soxer." But the situation had such obviousness on "The Dennis O'Keefe Show" that the guffawing laugh track sounded more idiotic than usual.

Then came "Fibber McGee and Molly," with the laugh track more restrained and the comedy gentler. Bob Sweeney is right as Fibber, but Kathy Lewis seems to miss the comic nuances as Molly.

Maybe the producers felt TV comedy characters have to be straighter, more like the folks next door. Maybe they're right. But this underlines why radio was a perfect medium for comedy and TV isn't.

Back in those dear, dead days of bigtime radio, we could imagine Fibber's closet, Jack Benny's vault and Fred Allen's alley. Those things were funnier to us than if we could see them. Charlie McCarthy was not just a dummy, he was a mischievous boy who said outrageously funny things.

When TV came in, the networks signed up every comedian in sight, thinking that comedy would remain as supreme as it had in radio.

But one by one the comedy shows died, until only Red Skelton remains.

There will always be a degree of comedy on TV and some of it will be funny. But ah, those days of radio.

'Not Good' to Group Children by Ability

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Teachers and parents should not be stampeded into grouping school children by ability, the dean of the University of Michigan's school of education said Friday.

Dean Willard C. Olson told a meeting of the Michigan curriculum workshop that recent studies have failed to prove this practice produces better results.

Research, he said, has shown no significant difference in college success for students who were grouped in high school.

The dean pointed out, however, that ability grouping has good results for mentally retarded persons, or the blind and deaf, because of its curative value.

U.S. retailers' sales during the first six months of 1959 soared to a new all-time high of $103,200,000,000—8.8 per cent more than in the same period in 1958. The daily newspapers is by far the most popular advertising medium of retailers because daily newspapers reach practically every person in every market.

A Baby Kisser Par Excellence

Ceylon Chief Colorful

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP) — Ceylon's new prime minister, Wijayananda Dahanayake, is a political lone wolf with a flair for the dramatic.

He once pulled a rickshaw to rush a pregnant woman to a hospital. Columnists call him a "baby kisser par excellence." He's a bachelor.

★ ★ ★

The 57-year-old Dahanayake's politics are unpredictable. During World War II he was jailed by the British as a security threat.

As education minister in the Bandaranaike cabinet he developed a warm feeling toward the United States, friends say, in appreciation for mily and flour sent Ceylon to feed school chileren.

Dahanayake is a fercent nationalist.

As a young teacher he got into trouble with school authorities for agitation against British rule. He hoisted black flags and other symbols to protest royal visits to Ceylon.

★ ★ ★

His career has spanned the revolutionary and the conservative.

At one time he joined the Trotskyite Bolshevist - Leninist party but quit in 1947. The stern doctrinaire party did not fit his personality or talents.

Brooks, fighting back into band life despite partial paralylsis, now lives here.

Hollywood novelist and screen writer Edward Lasko was in Sanford today and told newsmen a movie based on Brooks' career is "in the works."

Brooks, divorced two years ago from Ina Ray Hutton of All-Girl Orchestra fame, has in recent months been leading a small band here trying to take the first step back up the musical ladder.

Pontiac Central 11 Rallies for Victory

2nd Half Surge Nets 20-7 Win at Wyandotte

Jones, Howze, Dextrom Lead Chiefs' Comeback Conquest of Dottes

By BILL CORNWELL

When Pontiac Central's hustling football players remember that a game consists of four quarters instead of two, they could become this city's best gridiron representatives in many years.

The spirited Chiefs played only one half of top-notch football last night at Wyandotte, but they chose the 2nd half to do it and churned out the yardage like pros for a 20-7 comeback victory over Wyandotte Roosevelt.

After being pushed around almost at will during the first 24 minutes by the burly Bears, the Chiefs completely dominated the play in the 3rd and 4th quarters to win going away.

★ ★ ★

Wyandotte's defense apparently was designed to stop the brother combination of Dick and Joe McCauley and in this strategy the Dottes succeeded. The McCauleys were well bottled up throughout the contest.

But the Dottes forgot to plan a defense for Isaac Jones and Allen Howze, who played the key roles in Central's triumph, and before the game was ended, Ken Dextrom also grabbed a share of the spotlight.

Behind at the half by a 7-0 count, the Chiefs squared matters in the 3rd quarter on a lightning touchdown gallop by Jones and pulled away in the 4th period as Joe McCauley and Dextrom wended their way across the goal line.

Jones was nothing short of brilliant for the Chiefs yesterday. Isaac is built low to the ground — he's 5-7 and scales a chunky 162 pounds — but the senior halfback did a terrific job of churning his legs over the ground for big chunks of yardage.

Quick and elusive with a good change of pace and an ability to pick his holes well, Jones accounted for an amazing total of 158 of Central's 247 rushing yards. He also caught a pass for 10 more yards in addition to scoring the first TD.

The Dottes struck quickly. They forced the Chiefs to punt following the opening kickoff, then proceeded to drive 54 yards in nine plays for a touchdown after the game was six minutes old. Halfback Dick Winn, the workhorse of the attack, knifed five yards over Pontiac's right side for the TD. Gary Kupchick converted from placement and it was 7-0.

Central threatened seriously in the 2nd period when the Chiefs pushed their way to the Dotte two yard line, but a 15-yard holding penalty threw them back to the 17 and they lost the ball on downs on the Dotte 13.

The Chiefs really started to move in the 3rd stanza. They took possession on a punt on their own 36 and five plays later Jones broke off the right side of the Dotte line and streaked 47 yards for a TD. Dextrom placekicked the tying point.

On the first play of the final quarter, Wyandotte halfback Tom Gulyas fumbled and Howze recovered for the Chiefs on the Dotte 37. They hit pay dirt in eight plays with Joe McCauley plowing over from one yard out. Dextrom again booted the bonus point.

Another Wyandotte punt ignited the Chiefs again. They pushed 69 yards in six plays with Dextrom, normally a defensive stalwart, becoming a star on offense by rambling the final 26 yards for the TD. Dextrom's kick was wide to the left and no good.

PNH Loses Last-Minute Heartbreaker

Mistakes Costly in 14-12 Loss at Hazel Park

Huskies Dominate Play but Extra Points Are Margin of Difference

Into each life some rain must fall, so the song goes, and some heartbreaking showers fell on Pontiac Northern's football team last night at Hazel Park.

★ ★ ★

The Huskies completely dominated the action and had all the best of the statistics, but when the battle was over, the Northerners were on the short end of a 14-12 score.

Hazel Park, handed a 33-20 lacing by a good Fitzgerald squad in last week's season opener, scored dramatically with only a minute of game time remaining to pull a victory out of the fire and disappoint a fighting Northern outfit.

★ ★ ★

The Parkers actually came from behind twice. Northern scored first then the Parkers bounced back for a 7-6 lead at the half. The Huskies moved in front again, 12-7, with a touchdown in the 4th period, only to see the Parkers storm back in a wild finish to snatch a last-minute decision.

An idea of Northern's overall superiority can be gleaned from a few statistics.

The Huskies made 15 first downs to Hazel Park's nine and piled up 220 yards rushing to the enemy's meager 49. Only in the air did the Parkers have an edge, 109 to 30, and it was the aerial arm that eventually spelled doom for Northern.

★ ★ ★

With 2½ minutes left in the contest, Hazel Park took the ball on downs on the Parker 30. On the 2nd play the Parkers clicked for a 40-yard gain through the air in a hotly-disputed call as Northern coach Ed Heikinen argued that the ball hit the ground before being nabbed by the receiver.

"It was the worst call by an official I've ever seen as a high school football coach," Heikkinen said.

The argument was to no avail, of course, and the long aerial gainer got the Parkers out of the hole and sent them on their way to the winning TD. Two more passes were completed to put the ball on the Northern two yard line from where Jim Zieder bulled over with a minute to go. Zieder also ran for the extra point.

★ ★ ★

Northern marched 50 yards for its first TD with fullback George Graves accounting for the six-pointer on a three-yard plunge. A bad pass from center ruined the try for the bonus point as Jerry Mineweaser's hurried kick was wide and no good.

Bob Hocking fumbled a punt to set up Hazel Park's 1st TD. Hocking's bobble was picked up and lugged to the Huskie five where the ball carrier was caught from behind by Steve Thompson. Two plays later Dick Gollinski slashed over from two yards out and he also ran for the extra marker to give the Parkers a 7-6 halftime lead.

A 45-yard run by Bruce Norton set up Northern's 2nd touchdown. Norton dashed to the Parker five before being halted and a penalty moved the ball half the distance to the goal line. Hocking scored from one yard away, but another bad hike from center messed up the try for point.

★ ★ ★

Graves, Hocking and Jan Lawrence played standout ball for the Huskies and their forward wall was outcharging the Parkers from start to finish. A small handful of costly mistakes proved their undoing.

PNH-HAZEL PARK SUMMARY

FALCONS' NEST — The Rochester bench of an upset was shortlived. Farmington, also was prettly happy after taking a 13-0 lead over nicknamed the Falcons, rallied in the second Farmington last night, but the Falcons' hope half and won a 20-13 decision over Rochester.

Pontiac Press Photo

BOOTLEG FOR TD — Quarterback John Cadieux of Rochester went around end in the first quarter on a 5-yard bootlog to score the first touchdown against Farmington. Rochester led 7-0 after the first period and 13-0 later in the second quarter. The first Rochester touchdown was setup by a pass interception.

Avon in Tie, Orion Bows

Troy put an early dent in Avondale's plans for repeating as Oakland B champions by scoring in the 4th quarter to gain a 13-13 tie in the feature of a full league slate last night.

Lake Orion controlled the ball all the way but Madison turned the breaks into an 18-6 victory while high - powered Fitzgerald was rambling past Clawson, 26-6, in the other contests.

Avondale actually just missed pulling its game out of the fire in the finish similar to several the Yellowjackets were in on a year ago.

The 1958 winners drove to the Troy 15 in the closing minutes. A penalty moved the ball back to the 30 but two passes placed the pigskin at two. Time ran out before another play could be started.

★ ★ ★

Bud Peel and Dick Smith were the Avon TD producers. Peel's three yard smash climaxed a 60-yard drive and his PAT on a run put the Jackets ahead 7-6 in the 2nd quarter. Smith scored from the 20 on a roll-out to make it 13-6 at haftime.

Troy drove 99 yards for its big 4th quarter TD. Jim DePauw went the final 14. Rick McKinnon, whose short plunge had accounted for the previous six-pointer, booted the crucial extra point.

Lake Orion gained 205 net yards to Madison's 48 in bowing. A 75-yard kickoff return, fumble recovery at the two and pass interception made it easy for the Eagles.

Tim Alban got the Dragons in the scoring column in the final quarter bolting into the end zone from the one. A 40-yard aerial from Roger Williams to Carlos Williams set it up.

To add to losing coach Frank Kownacki's miseries, his charges had touchdowns nullified by a penalty and a ruling that a pass was caught outside the end zone. Another threat halted when the ball was fumbled on the goald line.

Gary Wilkie was the big man in Fitzgerald's 2nd straight impressive showing. He ran 47, 24 and 20 yards for six-pointers and added extra points after two of them.

A Jerry Eno-to-Gary Ahlfeld pass play covering 70 yards saved Clawson from a shutout. Fitzgerald piled up 382 net yards to 134 for CHS.

Rochester Starts Right but Fails at End, 20-13

Underdog Rochester had thoughts of upsetting highly favored Farmington yesterday and started on the right road to accomplish the desire.

However, Farmington held the Falcons scoreless in the second half and went on to beat Rochester 20-13.

★ ★ ★

In the first period John Cadieux went around end on a bootleg five yards and Reggie Dixon added the point to give Rochester a 7-0 lead.

The Falcons added another to make it 13-0 as Dan Lickert, 175 pound junior fullback, raced 64 yards off tackle.

★ ★ ★

Farmington drew blood with only 30 seconds left in the half when Harvey Chapman went the final three yards of a sustained drive. He also added the point to make it 13-7.

A penalty break was the crucial point in the third quarter. Rochester made a first down on its 35 but a penalty pushed the Falcons back five yards for a third down situation.

This time the first down try failed and Rochester was forced to punt. Ron Rader took the kick and went 70 yards for the touchdown. It was 13-13 as Chapman missed the PAT.

★ ★ ★

In the fourth quarter John Anderson intercepted Cadieux pass on the 30. He raced to the one. A penalty put the ball on the five but Chapman went the five yards and added the point to clinch the game.

Rochester did not threaten in the final quarter.

Waterford Downs Lapeer

Skippers Score Early to Gain 18-6 Triumph

Touchdowns by Kaines, Bryce and Hoke End Losing Streak

Marching to three quick touchdowns in the 1st half, the victory-hungry Waterford Skippers coasted the rest of the way to gain an 18-6 triumph at Lapeer last night.

★ ★ ★

The losers avoided a 2nd straight shutout when Don LeDuc plunged over from the three in the final quarter.

★ ★ ★

Waterford's win snapped a seven-game losing streak extending back to early last season and also avenged a walloping by the Trojans in 1958.

The Skippers completely dominated the 1st half scoring each touchdown after a sustained march almost entirely on the ground.

★ ★ ★

Bill Bryce went over from the two for the initial six-pointer in the opening quarter. Speedy Mike Kaines and Jim Hoke both tallied in the 2nd. Kaines scampered 13 yards to paydirt. Hoke crashed over from the two.

The victors bogged down somewhat on offense the rest of the way but had more than enough to cruise along.

★ ★ ★

Waterford coach Dave Freeman was pleased with his team's ground-gaining which totaled 207 of the 212 net yards gained. "We moved the ball well, especially in the 1st half," he said. Freeman said his charges showed considerable improvement over the showing against Pontiac Central a week ago.

★ ★ ★

The game served as a good "warmup" as the Skippers will be holding their annual skirmish with rival Walled Lake next Friday opening another Inter-Lakes season. It will be Waterford's 1st home game of the new season.

Romeo 18-12 Loser After Good Rally

Romeo football fans had a good reason to sing the blues today after the way their team went down to defeat Friday night.

Behind 12-0 at halftime after some costly fumbles, the Bulldogs fought back to tie on six-pointers by Ted Thiel and Ron Schmidt only to have a Lake Shore boy take a kickoff back 93 yards for a touchdown to clinch a 18-12 win.

Thiel's TD was on a 29-yard run following a pass interception by Schmidt in the 3rd quarter. Schmidt plunged over from the one in the final. His 34-yard pass to Howie Grimes featured the march to paydirt.

But the deciding kickoff return followed seconds later.

South Lyon Blows Lead in 14-13 Setback

Boston U. Upset, 18-14

Miami Beats Tulane

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Miami's Hurricanes, bouncing back after a disastrous season, launched their 1959 campaign Friday night by easily overrunning Tulane 26-7 as Fran Curci's sharp passing and hard running by a trio of backs highlighted the victory.

Betsy Rawls shot a 5-under-par 73 in the 2nd round of the Opie Turner Women's Open Friday but failed by a stroke to catch Bonnie Randolph, the 1st day leader. Miss Randolph had a 76 for a 36-hole total of 147.

Favored Colts Tough to Beat on Home Field

Five Rookies Figure in Detroit Rebuilding Plans for '59

BALTIMORE — The Detroit Lions have a man-sized job tomorrow. Trying to beat the Baltimore Colts on their own home grounds is something very few teams in the National Football League are able to do.

When the favored Colts take the field the fans in this Baltimore Stadium never let up their hooting and hollering until the final whistle blows and even when the home team is way ahead, every two yard gain gets the roar like that of an 80 yard run.

In six seasons since Baltimore re-entered the NFL, the Colts have won five openers and lost only one, all at home. Three of these have been at the expense of the Chicago Bears, two over the Lions and the lone defeat was 48-0 at the hands of the Rams in 1954.

The Lions move into the season with three straight pre-season victories under their belts, and an overall 4-2-1 record in exhibition games.

The Colts meanwhile rushed off to four straight triumphs before dropping their last two to the Eagles, 35-13 and the Cardinals, 31-17.

Five rookies are included on the Lions' 36-man roster and four are key men in rebuilding plans.

Fullback Nick Pietrosante, guards Bob Grottkau and Mike Rabold, defensive back Jim Steffen will see the front line action. Defensive tackle Ben Paolucci of Wayne State is a reserve lineman.

★ ★ ★

The game will be televised back to Detroit.

In other NFL games, the Cleveland Browns and the Steelers tangle in Pittsburgh tonight in a televised game. Also tonight, the New York Giants visit the Los Angeles Rams.

Other Sunday games are Chicago Bears at Green Bay, Washington at the Cardinals and the Eagles at San Francisco.

Clarkston Also Wins W-O Opener

Lakers, Northville Romp

West Bloomfield and Northville wasted little time living up to preseason predictions they would again be the two top teams in the Wayne-Oakland League.

Both won in easy fashion last night as loop play gt rolling with a full schedule.

The Lakers, beaten only by the Mustangs last year, romped over Clarenceville 34-12 while Northville was belting Holly into submission, 27-0.

Clarkston won its first for Tom Taylor beating Milford 19-6 while Brighton tripped Bloomfield Hills by the same score after an all-even initial half.

★ ★ ★

Despite the lopsided score, West Bloomfield trailed for a short time. Bud Freels, who garnered all the visitors' points, had opened the scoring with a 24-yard dash to paydirt before Jack Newton tallied from the 16. Denis Alix booted his 1st of four extra points to gain the lead for keeps.

Tom Moran's 19-yard run, an Alix pass to Scott Giroux covering 44, and two 4th quarter TDs by Wayne Ross from in close completed the scoring. Alix has now toed 7 of 8 point tries with his only failure a blocked attempt.

Holly held Northville to a 6-0 halftime lead but could total only 62 yards on offense in dropping its 2nd straight outing.

★ ★ ★

NHS pulled away in the last two quarters. Gary Morgan had two of the four touchdowns with Larry Nitzel and Tom Darling adding singles. Northville is seeking a 4th straight championship.

Bob Porritt's 40-yard pass completion to his favorite target, Dick Caverly, broke up a tight battle and paved the way for Clarkston to even its record at 1-1.

The Wolves led 7-6 when the duo clicked for their 3rd TD in two games. A 9-yard scamper to paydirt by Mel Joseph in the 4th put the verdict on ice.

★ ★ ★

Clarkston's strong running game, featuring 141 yards by Ron Morgan and 75 for Joseph in a 304 total, caught Milford off guard. Morgan chalked up the 1st seven points.

Jerry Reis intercepted a pass and returned 65 yards for the Redskin TD. Gene Schuett ran well in defeat against a line which drew high praise from Taylor.

Bloomfield stayed with Brighton for two quarters but the great size difference started to tell after the intermission.

Biff Jones had given the Barons a 6-6 tie in the 2nd. Scott Martin broke away to go 20 in the 3rd and Bob Loveland rushed over from the five for Brighton in the last half. Martin's pass to Doug Verellen followed by a lateral to Randy Marx was good for the 1st Bulldog score.

★ ★ ★

The Barons, weakened for the 2nd straight week by the absence of key backs with injuries, were hurt by a lost fumble plus an interception. Brighton's big line had little trouble opening up holes in the closing stages.

The Vikings piled up 26 first downs rushing in gaining 415 yards on the ground and added another 60 yards passing with two first downs.

Christian went over from the five in the first quarter and that was all Walled Lake could muster for two quarters, 6-0.

★ ★ ★

After an 84-yard march, Mike Hinkley went from the one. Neil Salo then intercepted, two plays later Christian scampered 40 yards.

★ ★ ★

Miteff blamed what he called a "green" referee for his first loss after three solid victories. He had been rated seventh among the heavies by the National Boxing Assn.

Chiefs 79th in U. S. Survey

PCH Track Teams Get High National Rating

A national survey of the status of leading prep track squads from among the 11,500 (or more) members of the National High School Federation, has placed Pontiac Central's athletes 79th. Chiefs' rating was a 644.538 evaluation of its all-time performances in the 15 standard events.

"We're delighted with the rating," says Coach Dean Wilson. "A West Coast school was No. 1 and practically all the schools rated ahead of PCH were from the Pacific Coast." The Pontiac figure is exceptionally high under these circumstances, Wilson commented.

In 1957, Chiefs were 137th, but last year made the greatest gains for schools east of the Mississippi, advancing 58 places from 27th to 11th. Incidentally, PCH was 3rd last year in the entire country, for the greatest improvement. Flint Northern was 10th.

★ ★ ★

PCH led all Michigan schools, Birmingham was rated 3rd, with Flint Northern 2nd.

Among schools in the U.S., Chiefs were 20th for those with 1,500-1,999 enrollments and they were the only state team listed in most categories.

Extra Points Enable Utica to Win, 14-13

A pair of extra point conversions by veteran Jim Rooney proved the difference as Utica evened its season's record at 1-1 by nipping South Lake 14-13 last night.

Rooney ran for both the PATs, the 1st after his own touchdown in the opening quarter.

Utica took a 7-6 lead into the final period. Doug Ebert broke loose for a 60-yard gallop on a reverse to set up what proved to be Rooney's clincher.

South Lake scored on the final play of the game. The losers' earlier TD was the result of a pass interception, an 85-yard runback by John Aska. Utica halted a threat on its 15 with an interception in the 3rd quarter.

OCSC Shooters Split With Vickers' Crew

Firing an actual 954 and a handicap total of 1015 compared to its opponents' 899 and 1025, Oakland County Sportsmen's Club riflemen split with Detroit Vickers in last night's match.

★ ★ ★

Milt LaPort's 192 was high gun. Other OCSC scores were: Kjell Danielson and Elvis Henry at 191 and Cash Bond and Bob Waggoner at 190. Vickers' top actual was Chuck Wyman at 190, and he also was top handicap shooter with 209. OCSC's handicap scores were Waggoner 222, LaPorte and Henry 206, Danielson 201 and Bond 200.

Almont Over Dryden, 22-0

Almont again looks like the team to beat in the Southern Thumb League. The Raiders spanked Dryden, 22-0, last night while Armada was beating Capac, 20-6; Memphis over New Haven, 6-0 and Anchor Bay over Brown City 25-6.

A first quarter safety and a 21-yard pass from Don Eschenberg to Dick Howe gave Almont an 8-0 lead.

In the 3rd period, Howe went 33 yards with an interception, Jack Senyk went 55 for the other tally. Neil Pittenger converted twice.

Armada's Jim Porte went 79 yards for 7-0 halftime lead, and Terry Wills went 10 and three yards in the third quarter. Wills also added 2 points.

Capac score was pass from Doug Carroll to Pat Owens 30 yards.

Anchor Bay led 13-6 at halftime.

Shamrocks, OLSM at Home, Rams Away

SCL Opens Title Battle, Full Scale

Battle for the 1959 Suburban Catholic League gridiron title begins, full scale, Sunday afternoon.

Two of the four contests are scheduled for the Pontiac area, with St. Michael driving for its first victory. Shamrocks tangle with a reputedly strong Royal Oak St. James eleven, at 2:30 p.m. in Wisner Memorial Stadium. Orchard Lake St. Mary entertains an unpredictable St. Clement club, also seeking a first win.

The Shamrocks are one of three co-champions for the SCL, and are favored despite some new injuries, to start their loop campaign with a win. Eaglets also are given the edge.

Only winner of season openers for the Pontiac parochial schools, St. Frederick should win over a good St. Rita club, at Hazel Park HS field. Rams are also co-champions, along with Shamrocks and St. Benedicts.

"New injuries will hurt us a lot," Shamrock coach Jim Niebauer said today. "But we have a little sunshine, too, in the return of Bill Flanigan." Flanigan is a fast, hard-driving fullback, who missed the opener.

Out for the season is Denny Wiegandt, defensive end, with a head injury; George Drake, starting end, on crutches from a foot injury; big Gary (Gus) Sonnenberg, torn knee ligament. Replacements will be Paul Harding at end; Ken Biron at guard; Pat O'Shea, halfback alternate, is also out of action.

Coach Tom Kennedy of the Rams warns his players the Ritas can be dangerous. "They are a breakaway club," Kennedy points out." With several fast backs, they are liable to go all the way any time. I believe we'll match them up front and in the air. It may be a real tough one."

Kennedy today was still "looking for the big spark to really set them going." He said he would start the same eleven that opened in last week's 30-7 win over St. Alphonsus.

While Eaglets' opponents, St. Clement, are greatly improved this fall, most of their squad has not much experience.

Rev. John Rakoczy, Eaglet coach, didn't plan any changes in his starters from last week.

Matmen Return Sept. 30

Big-time professional wrestling returns to Pontiac next Wednesday night at the Pontiac Armory on Water street after an absence of nearly a year and a half.

Promoters Jack Bull, Ralph LaPari and Rick Stone are promoting the all-star mat show at the local armory next Wednesday and every Wednesday evening thereafter. Starting time each night will be 8:30 p.m.

Headlining the card will be a double main event featuring the nation's top television wrestling stars.

In one of the main events, Ricki "The Crusher" Cortez, who boasts proudly that he is the most hated man in wrestling, will battle rugged Dominic Brave, rated the No. 1 challenger for the world's heavyweight mat crown.

★ ★ ★

The second half of the program pits the teenagers' idol, popular Bill Bromo, against the Sheik of Araby, who will have Princess Salina in his corner to attend to the mystic rites the Sheik observes before each match.

Other matches at the city armory on opening night feature Ali Bey, "The Terrible Turk," against Louie Papineau, ace French-Canadian wrestler, and Dino Bravo against Dante Pella.

Beach Scores Four as Chippewas Win

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — Halfback Walt Beach of Pontiac raced down the sidelines for touchdowns of 79, 45 and 66 yards and Jerry O'Neil scored on runs of 60 and 87 yards in leading Central Michigan to a 41-21 victory over Drake last night.

Beach also caught a 21-yard touchdown pass. The victory gave Central a 2-1 mark. Drake has lost both of its games.

The Bulldogs uncorked a flurry of passes in an attempt to keep pace with the speedy Chippewas but the explosive bursts of Central's halfbacks were more than Drake could handle.

Dodgers Take NL Lead as Braves Lose to Phils, 6-3

Hodges' Homer in 11th Beats Chicago Cubs

Reliefer Jack Meyer of Phillies Muffles Milwaukee

CHICAGO (AP) — Gil Hodges' 11th-inning home run carried Los Angeles to a 5-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs Friday and boomed the Dodgers into a one-game lead over Milwaukee in the National League race.

The Braves were plunked out of first-place tie in a 6-3 defeat by last-place Philadelphia in a night game.

Each has two games to play. A sweep in the final pair with the Cubs would give Los Angeles the flag no matter what the Braves do. The Dodgers need win but one if the Braves lose one.

The Dodgers, collecting three RBIs by Hodges, who doubled home a pair for a 4-2 edge in the sixth, three times blew leads before the slugging first baseman put it away.

Jack Meyer did a sensational relief job, allowing only four hits in his 5 2-3 innings. He was in only one real tight jam. That came after he walked pinch hitter Enos Slaughter to load the bases in the fourth.

★ ★ ★

It wasn't a defeat to take with a smile. And the Braves were burning mad at themselves.

"We had our chances — a lot of chances," said Manager Fred Haney in a gloomy clubhouse after the Braves absorbed their beating.

Haney talked softly, but his words almost echoed as his charges sat in stunning silence, quietly berrating themselves.

★ ★ ★

Everyone was thinking the same thing and wondering. Did the loss cost Milwaukee a third straight National League pennant? The Braves now are one full game behind first-place Los Angeles with two games left.

"We just have to go out and win and hope the Cubs help us," Haney said. "We still have to win ours. But now we have to hope the Cubs take at least one game from the Dodgers."

The little skipper defended starting pitcher Lew Burdette, who gave up all six Philadelphia runs before being lifted with one out in the third.

The Dodgers came whooping and hollering into their dressing room.

"And he struck him out," shouted Duke Snider who had been in the dressing room and was listening to the game on the radio. Snider was referring to relief pitcher Larry Sherry who fanned pinch batter Dale Long to end the game with the tying run on second after Gil Hodges had put the Dodgers ahead with a homer in the top half of the inning.

"Now who's sitting in the best seat?" screamed utility infielder Don Zimmer. "I'll bet those prices in Las Vega sjust changed."

The morning line in Las Vegas made Milwaukee a solid favorite to win the pennant with each team having three games left to play.

Oak Park 25-12 Victor Over Lutheran West

Oak Park had too many good backs for Lutheran West to cope with when they clashed yesterday.

Steve Wolf scored twice on runs of 42 and 80 yards to feature a 25-12 win for the Parkers. Bob Rosenberg and Stan Dortman added other TDs.

Tigers Win, 6-5; Indians Take Two

DETROIT (AP) — A ninth-inning boner by first baseman Norm Cash gave the Detroit Tigers a 6-5 verdict over the Chicago White Sox Friday.

Cash, who had replaced Earl Torgeson a moment before, held onto the ball while Al Kaline slid home with the winning run. The Tigers rallied for three runs in the bottom half of the inning after the White Sox took a 5-3 lead with two runs in their half.

Torgeson made a wide throw to second base on an attempted force play and his error loaded the bases with one out. Lou Berberet sent a bouncer to second base and Billy Goodman forced the runner at home.

Catcher John Romano's throw to first was too late to get Berberet, but Kaline scored as Cash held the ball.

Don Mossi pitched a six-hitter for the victory, his 17th against nine losses. Al Smith hit a two-run homer off him in the second when the Sox scored three times. The Tigers scored three runs off Billy Pierce in the first two innings, two of them coming on Al Kaline's 27th home run.

★ ★ ★

The Cleveland Indians swept a doubleheader from Kansas City 8-2 and 8-7 Friday night, winning the nightcap on Elmer Valo's two-out, two-run pinch single in the ninth inning.

The night cap victory went to reliever Jim Grant, who worked the final inning. Cal McLish, who started for the Indians in quest of his 20th victory, was pounded for six runs on eight hits in the first three innings.

Outfielder Rocky Colavito contributed his 42nd home run of the season to the second game victory, getting it in the second inning off Bud Daley. Bob Grim, who relieved Daley in the sixth, was the loser.

★ ★ ★

The New York Yankees salvaged third place—their lowest American League standing since 1948—with a four-run sixth inning Friday night for a 5-2 victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

The rally by the ex-champs, edging Detroit for third, broke up a pitching duel between winning southpaw Whitey Ford (16-10) and right-hander Jerry Walker (11-10).

Ford, finishing with an eight-hitter, retired the first 10 men in order and had a two-hit shutout until the sixth, when the Orioles tied it 1-all on Jerry Adair's triple and a single by Brooks Robinson.

★ ★ ★

Boston jumped on seven Washington pitchers for 13 hits and a 10-4 victory Friday night, moving the Red Sox into sole possession of fifth place and dropping Baltimore into sixth.

The Red Sox bunched their scoring into two big innings, five in the fourth and three in the sixth. All the sixth inning runs came in when Senator center fielder Bob Allison dropped a bases-loaded fly ball.

Pete Runnels lashed a two-run double off the Red Sox' bullpen for the big hit in Boston's fourth inning explosion that wiped out a 4-1 Washington lead.

Millers AA Champions

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Minneapolis won its second straight American Assn. playoff title last night with a 4-2 victory over Fort Worth in the seventh and deciding game of the best-of-7 series.

The Millers thus qualified to play Havana of the International League in the Junior World Series which opens at Minneapolis Sunday.

A hard, driving rain washed out Friday night's National League game between the still-hopeful San Francisco Giants and the St. Louis Cardinals. They'll play a twi-night doubleheader Saturday.

Rooms Have a Young Point of View

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Children rule the roost today. Playrooms and bedrooms for the younger generation are the subjects of this week's Home Section. It all started with the beautiful color pictures you see on this page. They show some model playrooms with youngsters posing in them. Our black and white pictures show actual rooms in the Pontiac area with children who really live in them.

The family room in the upper right hand corner shows what can be done when you convert a basement space or decorate a new room addition. Walls are covered with both perforated and plain hardboard. Cupboards are birch plywood.

The ceiling is acoustical tile; this is especially welcome in a room where noise is unrestrained. That folding door is in striped material that hides a sink and food preparation area at the far end of the room.

Handsome redwood walls of economical plywood complement the rest of the gay decor in the playroom below. A portion of the plywood floor covered with vinyl tile may be removed. Children will have fun arranging the sections into tables, bridges or benches.

Storage for toys is at a level they can reach. Pole lighting in this area gives young artists plenty of illumination.

That white area that looks like the sail on a boat is the chimney for the indoor barbecue. This is a room where adults can have fun too (after they cover that hole in the floor!)

For our local childrens' rooms. The activities rooms in the Vincent Klimowicz home on Erie drive is a wonderful 17 by 25 feet. Originally, this ground level area was only 15 by 10. Big Bear Construction Company did the heavy work of roughing in; then Mr. Klimowicz took over.

Philippine mahogany, finished in a buttercup shade to lighten it, was used for wall paneling. Acoustical tile went on the ceiling; vinyl tile in beige with brown specks went on the floor.

ONCE A CLOSET

The storage wall in the background — once a closet — is a marvel of efficiency. It provides built-in desks for grade schoolers, Michael and Daniel. Each boy has his own set of drawers and cupboards. Their mother says they definitely keep their belongings picked up nowadays with all this storage space.

Pots of ivy, gay mugs and model planes add a bright note to the book shelves. More ivy graces other parts of the room.

There's a hanging lamp to light both the yellow leather chair Daniel sits in and the brown and beige tweed sofa next to it. Celine, on the far left chose to pose in a cocoa chair, one that matches the sectional sofa elsewhere in the room.

The Klimowicz' have been Pontiac residents for about five years. In addition to the three children in the picture they have a 17-year-old daughter, Joanne. Their remodeling job was done last spring.

A wallpaper mural of a circus is pasted on the wall of young Raymond Campbell's bedroom. Raymond, a kindergarten student this year, is the son of the Greg Campbells who live on Little Trail road in Walled Lake.

Fortunately, says Mrs. Campbell, the walls were white to start with and the mural colors show up well. The primary colors, so dear to children, were used on the furniture. Blue and red decorates the sunny yellow bed and dresser. The little radio is blue.

Out in Drayton Woods the George Jones family has three children. Steven, the only boy, is eight; Pamela is six, Jill, who looks like a golden hair, blue-eyed doll is two.

The girls share a bedroom which their mother has made as feminine as possible. Walls are a soft pink. There are pink chenille spreads over deep purple dust ruffles on the beds. The chintz curtains have a butterfly and flower design in pasted shades.

All over the room there are dolls. We tried to get Jill to Retail sales of room air conditioners are expected to total between 1,600,000 and 1,750,000 units this year—an 18 to 30 per cent increase over 1958. Air conditioner manufacturers invested 7 per cent more advertising in daily newspapers in the first six months of this year than in 1958.

Invisible Water Leaks Can Cost You Money

When a pipe in the house is leaking, it usually shows up somewhere. But occasionally there is what plumbers call an "invisible" leak. If your water bills seem too high, but you can't find any leak, you can check on whether such a leak is occurring.

Turn off all the water faucets and valves in the house and outdoors, then watch the dial on your water meter. If the "one cubic foot" or "ten gallon" indicator is moving, some water is being wasted somewhere.

Model Playrooms Cater to Children

pose with her big sister and her doll cart, but she was camera shy. Pam's doll had a brand new outfit for the occasion. Pam herself had new red shoes.

Each girl has a blond chest of drawers. They share the large double closet. Their mother painted a pair of fairy tale pictures for their walls.

Steven has a more masculine looking room with sturdy maple furniture. What caught our eye was the plywood panel on one wall that Steve uses to hold some of his treasures. His collection of horses is placed up high so that baby Jill can't get at them. His gun is at the bottom where it is easy to grab for a game of cowboys and Indians.

Oakland county families have definite places in their homes for the children. They're attractive places too.

Here's the Answer

QUESTION: We expect to have a house built to specifications. Because of a sad experience with termites some years ago, we want to be sure we do not have such trouble again. The advice we have received is that termites can be prevented from attacking the house if shields made of sheet copper are installed. Is this information correct?

ANSWER: Yes, termite shields made of sheet copper are an effective barrier against termites. The idea, of course, is to block the entry of the termites into the woodwork of the house.

Since there are different types of termites that have different characteristics, it is well to discuss with your builder the kind of shield best suited for your purpose. Good builders keep up with the latest developments in the termite-protection field.

QUESTION: I have purchased an old dark upright piano which is in excellent condition. However, I would like to refinish it to match the rest of my furniture, which is Early American. I want to get a maple color on the piano. Can you tell me how to go about it.

ANSWER: You have assigned yourself an ambitious project, especially if you have not done any wood refinishing in the past. It will be necessary to remove the old finish with a chemical remover and then stain it to the desired shade. After that, a sealer must be applied over the stain, followed by at least two coast of clear varnish.

Be certain the stain is thoroughly dry before putting on the sealer—and the sealer thoroughly dry before applying the varnish. Generally, it is better to learn something about wood refinishing on a smaller object than an upright piano.

Better not start it unless you are certain you will go through with it, because the piano will look a lot worse partly refinished than it does now.

Hardboard Top Gives New Life to Card Table

A piece of plastic-surfaced hardboard in an attractive color or pattern will give an old card table "new life." The new surface, which is highly resistant to heat and other hard wear, is an inexpensive way to renovate a table.

The old top and all loose particles should be removed before the top is attached with adhesive. Paint or stain the edges to give the table a neat appearance.

Gals Do More Painting, Get Pastel Brushes

AP Newsfeatures

The hand that rocks the cradle is getting a good grip on the paint brush.

And the manufacturers have become aware of it. They are placing greater stress on styling and color in new paint brush lines. Bright yellow, blue and pink brush handles—even colored brush filaments—are being introduced to capture the eye of homemaker painters.

Ten years ago, women accounted for no more than five cents out of every paint brush dollar. Much of that represented purchases made at the requests of their husbands. Today, approximately 35 cents of every dollar spent on the purchase of paint brushes comes from women.

Furthermore, according to a survey by the Paint Brush Division of the American Brush Manufacturers Assn., nearly all of that 35 cents is being spent by the women who actually do the painting. The survey was made in paint, hardware and department stores and other retail establishments where painting supplies are sold.

What else was found out about women as wielders of paint brushes around the house? Well, this is the part that the men should skip. It was learned that women make better-than-average painters because they are more concerned with the final appearance than most men.

They spend more time selecting the right color and thinking about the end results. Thus, when they are ready to paint, they do the work more carefully.

And, according to the survey, women are rarely sloppy painters for the very simple reason that they realize they have to clean up later.

What do the women paint? Chairs most frequently. Kitchen tables and cabinets are next, followed by juvenile furniture and toys. Very often, a woman's first paint job is an emergency project, such as painting a badly scratched surface.

Several reasons are given for the rapid increase in painting by women. Labor-saving home appliances, convenience foods, etc., give them more time for home maintenance and improvement. Tight family budgets prompt do-it-yourself painting jobs.

And new quick-dry paints and other industry advances make painting easier and encourage women to try their hands at it.

Fix Ceilings Inexpensively

Cracked bedroom ceilings, which detract from a room's appearance and present a costly redecorating project, are a thorny problem for many families.

One of the easiest ways to eliminate this problem is to install predecorated hardboard blocks, which have a permanent and washable plastic finish.

The 16-inch-square blocks can be installed right over cracked or chipped ceilings, once the loose material has been removed. The blocks have tongue-and-groove edges and special metal clips that simplify installation, which can be completed with ordinary carpenter's tools. A strong wallboard adhesive is used to secure the blocks to the ceiling.

Plastic-surfaced hardboard blocks are available at lumber dealers in 10 pastel colors.

In addition to the paneling's decorative qualities, homemakers have found the blocks easy-to-clean. Housecleaning time can be cut to the minimum because the blocks can be damp-wiped clean in minutes.

Their smooth plastic surface resists moisture and other causes of deterioration. Painting or refinishing is never necessary, so the installation becomes an investment in economy and energy saving.

Store Fabric Covers Only After Cleaning

Wash canvas chair seats and mattress covers used on outdoor furniture before putting them away for the winter. Soil left in the fabric will weaken fibers.

Put the covers in the washing machine with three to five tablespoons of sal soda concentrate, depending on the amount of soil. Add a little detergent — less than you would use for a regular washing.

Beautify Bath With Marble Type Paneling

Most budget-minded families wouldn't even consider using marble in their new or remodeled bathroom because of its prohibitive cost, but many home owners are installing practical marble-patterned hardboard paneling to achieve a distinctive decor.

A plastic-surfaced hardboard, the paneling is available at lumber dealers in six authentic marble reproductions. The marble-patterned paneling can be used on all the walls, as a wainscot, in the tub area, or as an accent wall.

A Modern Man with Modern Methods

Yes—your fuel oil dealer is a modern man with modern methods . . . And modern ideas too. He has to be—since he is ultimately responsible for the heating comfort of 16 million homes in the United States.

Whether he has one truck—or fifty—he has one objective . . . your comfort and convenience, and he does his job expertly and efficiently.

Enterprise and competitive growth have keynoted the rapid expansion of the oilheat industry. The modern, clean delivery trucks, which service your home are a far cry from the horse-drawn sleds which supplied fuel to oilheated homes in 1916—and that was only 43 years ago.

Since 1936 oilheated homes have had the distinct advantage of always having an adequate supply of fuel on hand despite extreme variances in heating season temperature. This is the result of the degree-day system, developed by a fuel oil dealer right here in Michigan.

Many improvements in equipment and service have been the direct result of the ingenuity of fuel oil dealers all over America . . .

1959 marks the centennial of the oil industry and oilheating celebrates its own story of progress right along with it.

Today 16-million American homes are oilheated and are serviced by more than 11,000 individual large and small fuel oil distributors utilizing modern equipment that keeps pace with the times.

Automatic refill service and the efficiency, economy and safety of fuel oil makes it the most beneficial method of home heating now and in decades to come.

Three's Enough

When you are planning to decorate or paint a room, keep your color selection down to three say the experts. Choose your large area colors first, walls and ceilings. Your wall colors can contrast with a different floor color, either paint or rug. The third color can be used for accents in furniture covers, cushions, lamps and other objects.

Light, Ventilation Musts for Shop

Farmers and home craftsmen should consider lighting and ventilation when arranging workshops, for they are important to the placement of power tools and workbench. Less important factors to check include humidity, noise blocks, storage space, accessibility, and heat.

Good artificial light is a prerequisite to the good shop because work often is done at night. There should be several electrical outlets spotted conveniently along the wall above the bench to provide handy connections for a variety of portable electric tools, including drills, saws, sander, and bench grinder.

Go Over Fireplace Well Before Starting Fire

While many people swelter in the heat belt, cool winds in many sections of the country will encourage homeowners to light the first indoor fire of the season this month.

But a word of caution: make sure fireplaces are in good working order before putting a match to the paper and kindling wood.

That's the advice of John W. Bruce, home specialist for Allied Chemical's Barrett Division, a leading manufacturer of building materials. Bruce, who recommends that a day or two each month be spent on home inspection and minor repairs, places fireplace inspection high on the fall check-list for home handymen.

"The romantic vision of a homeowner seated comfortably in his fireplace may be blurred somewhat by the problem of a fire that won't start; one that keeps going out or burns unevenly or one that blows soot into the room," the Barrett specialist points out.

Bruce advises lowering a weighted burlap bag down the chimney to dislodge soot from the flue; removing soot from base of chimney; checking the damper to see if it is working properly; cleaning wind shelf and ashpit. He also advises a careful check for loose bricks especially firebricks. These should be cemented back into place with masonry cement.

To insure a good fire, Bruce suggests buying firewood early and letting the wood "season" for a few days before using it.

Other things to check in September, according to Bruce, are roof and dormer ridges for loose shingles and flashing, metal railings for rust and siding for possible repainting. September is also a good time to replace filters in warm-air furnaces and repack radiator valves.

With the fall entertaining season ahead, a good September home improvement project would be to finish a basement or attic into a modern recreation room. Much of the work can be done by the homeowner, according to Bruce. Materials like wallboard, fiberboard planks and ceiling tiles, for instance, are available prepainted and ready for installation with hammer or stapler.

Use Free Plans to Improve Home During Winter

The time for building worthwhile home improvements is during the months when evenings are long. Select ones of interest from the following list of free plans, available by writing a postal to the Home Service Bureau, Suite 2037, 111 W. Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill.

All utilize Masonite hardboards, which home craftsmen consider ideal because of their low cost, easy workability and durability.

Storage Divider, AE-295. Includes guest wardrobe and desk unit.

Beauty Center, AE-338. Can be used also as cocktail table.

Corner Table with storage unit, AP-8.

Cloud-Shaped Coffee Table, AE-345.

Christmas Patterns, AE-318.

Panelok Storage System, AE-347. Puts storage on walls.

Workbench and Tool Rack, AE-312.

Model Train Table, AE-328.

Peg-Board in Garage Background for Tools

Garden tools hung on the forward wall studs of a garage can be attractive against a peg-board setting. Put nailing strips lengthwise inside adjoining 2 x 4's and cut the peg-board to fit so it's recessed.

Attach the perforated hardboard with screws to the nailing strips and then prime and paint it white. Implements hung on metal fixtures will look attractive against the light background.

SIMPLICITY KEYNOTES this set of chairs and matching extension table. Pattern 224 shows every step in making sturdy frames of solid stock for chairs in two sizes and gives simple upholstery directions. The arm chair makes a good occasional chair anywhere in the house. Pattern 225 gives complete directions for making the extension table. These patterns are 35c each.

Consider Safety in Building Stairs

Next to falling in love one of life's greatest hazards is falling in the home.

Single-level homes with slip-proof ceramic tile floors minimize the possibility of falls. If changes in level cannot be avoided, then make them conspicuous — stairs should have at least three risers, for example. If small changes of level are unavoidable, they should be negotiated by an inclined ramp instead of a step.

Stairways connecting the main floor of a home with basement or second story should incline gradually, with risers of uniform height and treads of uniform width. Most safety engineers recommend that the height of risers and width of treads add up to between 17 and 18 inches.

An obvious but sometime overlooked safety requirement for stairs is handrails on both sides. This goes for short stairways as well as long ones. Three feet, four inches between rails is considered minimum clearance for furniture handling.

SHORT FLIGHTS

Short flights with landings at frequent intervals are considered safer than long, unbroken stairways. Straight flights with more than 16 risers are condemned by safety experts.

Another hazard is offered by open risers and excessive width in spacing balusters. Small children are especially vulnerable to slipping between open risers and wedging between spindles of poorly spaced balusters.

It's practically impossible to have too much lighting for stairways. Outdoor steps require indoor switches. Three-way switches are safest for top and bottom landings of all stairways.

Painting Is Rewarding When Rules Followed

Doing your own painting is a very rewarding and satisfying experience. You'll find it fun, and you'll save money, too. After you have decided what it is you want to do, collect all the required and recommended tools and materials. You will avoid a lot of hunting around or unnecessary trips back to the store for a certain brush or piece of sandpaper. Be sure to move or cover your furniture and floors carefully—cleaning up after can put a damper on the fun of doing your own painting.

★ ★ ★

If you have never used a paint roller, now is the time to try one. You will find that paint goes on like a breeze. Rollers are easy to clean, and come in a variety of sizes, shapes, and sleeve naps, depending on the type of effect you wish to create. Extra long-handled rollers make it possible to reach ceilings and upper wall areas with the greatest of ease. You will need a brush for certain areas such as tight corners and places your roller cannot reach.

Always start with the ceiling first. If it is to be a different color than the walls, and requires a second coat, do this before you begin the walls and woodwork. It's also a good idea to let it dry overnight before starting on the other room surfaces.

Before you begin any painting, be sure to check all the surfaces for cracks. These cracks should be filled with spackling. Follow the directions on the can so that your surface will be perfectly smooth and level once the spackling has dried. Use patching plaster for larger cracks. To insure that the plaster does not fall out, often it is necessary to undercut the crack, making it narrow at the surface and wider inside.

ACROSS WIDTH

Always work across the width of the ceiling rather than the length. This enables you to begin a second lap before the first has dried completely. Never try to paint a strip more than two feet wide.

When you begin on your walls, start at the upper left hand corner of a wall and work downward, painting a two-foot wide strip at a time.

★ ★ ★

After the walls are completed, paint the woodwork. Then, stand back and enjoy the satisfaction and pleasure you have gained from bringing new beauty and a new look to your home.

Waterways Commission Director Says:

EDUCATE All New Boat Pilots

LANSING (AP)—A state offical who believes most boating accidents and drownings stem from ignorance wants Michigan to tackle water safety much the same way it did highway traffic safety.

Keith Wilson, director of the State Waterways Commission, says systematic education is the key.

So despite a turndown by the Legislature this year, Wilson is going back again with a request to set up a water safety division in his agency for 1960-61. He will have Gov. Williams' support.

"Most of the facilities are there. From $30,000 to $50,000 a year would do the job," he says.

"We're going to keep after it and after it until we get it."

* * *

His determination was spurred by Tuesday's boating tragedy in the Upper Peninsula that claimed 12 lives.

LIKE NOTHING ELSE

"Operating a boat is like no other experience. With an estimated 500,000 boat owners and their numbers increasing about 10 per cent a year, there are more and more people who just aren't trained in the fundamentals," he said.

In a car, you've got the brakes in an emergency. In a powered boat, the only thing you've got is to throw the engine into reverse. It's not the same.

"You'd be surprised the number of people that don't know that in any boat powered by a single screw this means swinging to port."

Wilson said the crux of his plan is to hire a water safety director, assisted by a secretary, who would be a teacher. His main job would be to set up courses and lectures that then would be reproduced and distributed mainly through the public education system to high schools, colleges and units offering adult education courses.

Currently, he said, this sort of training is limited chiefly to power boat squadrons and the coast guard auxiliary.

"Their classes are surprisingly well attended," he said. "But they don't cover the inland waters.

Wilson foresees the proposed division working through existing local traffic safety councils, too. He said the national safety council is getting into the water safety field.

As for non-boating accidents, he wants the commission empowered to post dangerous swimming places, gravel pits and lakes with abrupt drop-offs, as it now can prescribe location of beacons and buoys.

"These places should be marked with signs like "Water so feet deep, very cold," he said.

Another step, Wilson said, would be to work out with boat and motor manufacturers a set of standards that would be displayed on tags permanently attached to the equipment.

"For instance, a boat would carry a tag: 'Under normal conditions, this boat can safely carry four people with a 30 horsepower motor.' This isn't the final answer, but it would help," he said.

"In the last analysis, the ability and the sense of the operator comes first. You can drive a certain boat with a 40 horsepower motor on a straight course without danger, but start swerving around and it's a different thing."

Wilson said the commission now can prescribe standards for boat liveries because they rent to the public.

450 White Students Shun Integration

FRONT ROYAL, Va. (AP)—By county school bus and private car an estimated 450 white students came to segregated classes Thursday as the private Warren County Educational Foundation began its second year of operation.

Students, in grades 9 through 12 gathered on the lawn of a restaurant that is to be their school to hear Principle Glen Sunderlin say:

"This is the only time this year I am going to use the word integration or segregation. We are here through free choice."

Sunderlin urged the students to avoid any friction with the public high school students, who number 430—20 of them Negroes.

Atom Fly Killer Now Invented

Nikita Should Be Told Sterilized Male Insects Mean Extinction

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Americans, Mr. Khrushchev, already have invented that atomic fly killer you mentioned.

They invented it about five years ago and have killed billions of flies with it.

* * *

The Soviet Premier got a laugh while visiting a Pittsburgh steel plant yesterday by remarking drolly that the Russians were "trying to invent a machine to kill flies with atomic energy."

Using the power of the atom for such a purpose, Khrushchev and his audience seemed to think, would be as funny as employing a pile driver to crack filberts.

The American fly killer, perfected by the agriculture department, uses gamma rays from cobalt made radioactive in an atomic reactor.

Several years ago, department scientists used this device to rid the West Indian island of Curacao of a costly cattle scourge known as the screwworm fly.

* * *

Now they have screwworm flies headed for extinction in Florida and are thinking of declaring nuclear war against a host of other insect pests.

First the scientists rear millions of male screwworm flies in captivity. Then they sterilize them with gamma radiation. Finally, they release the male flies at the rate of 100 to 800 per square mile.

Nature does the rest. A female who mates with a sterile male cannot reproduce. Since she mates only once, the ultimate result of the sterilization program is extinction of the pest.

UP Counties Organize, Plan Advertising Fund

ESCANABA (AP) — The Upper Michigan Tourist Assn. was organized here Thursday by representatives of 15 Upper Peninsula counties.

It replaces the travel and resort department of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau which was dissolved last June.

The new agency will launch an organizationf program to collect $80,000 for a first year advertising campaign to start in February, and $33,000 for other activities.

Federal Road $$ for Michigan Cut

'Disheartening' 29 Pct. Slash Is Reported by Surprised Mackie

LANSING (AP) — Federal money funneled to Michigan for interstate expressway system construction will be cut about 29 per cent for the current fiscal year, State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie has reported.

★ ★ ★

Mackie said the department had planned to spend $96,200,000 in federal matching funds for the interstate program during the year. The state now will get only about 70 millions, he said.

Mackie made the report after his return from Washington, D.C., to confer with Ellis Armstrong, commissioner of the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads.

He termed the slash "both disheartening and surprising."

"The cutback will come despite the one cent federal gas tax increase," he said.

★ ★ ★

"They claim the increase is still not sufficient to make our full allocation available."

Mackie said this would mean the department would have to review the proposed interstate expressway construction schedule delay some of the projects it had been hoped would be placed under construction within the next eight months.

Catalogs for Origami Marked 'Do Not Fold'

BALTIMORE (AP) — Origami is the ancient Japanese art of folding paper into complicated birds and other forms.

When a New York museum sent out catalogs for its international exhibit of Origami, each was plainly marked: "Do Not Fold."

Ford Would Price Falcon Below Rivals

DETROIT (UPI)—Ford Division of Ford Motor Co., hopes to price its new Falcon below the cost of any other six-passenger American-made car, James O. Wright, Ford general manager said Friday.

Wright said final clearance on the Falcon price had not been obtained from the operating board of the company, but Ford Division officials had asked for a price which would be below the announced minimum price of $1,810 for the Chevrolet Corvair and lower than Studebaker-Packard's announced intention to price its Lark below $1,800.

Wright was careful, however, to exclude the Rambler American, which he called a five-passenger car, from those which he expected the Falcon to beat in price.

Haffa Sues Sponsors, TV for $10,000,000

CHICAGO (UPI) — Millionaire industrialist Titus Haffa yesterday sued a television network and eight sponsors for libel. He asks $10,000,000.

The suit stems from a headline in a Playhouse 90 dramatization of Chicago's 1929 Valentine Day's massacre, which read "Titus Haffa gets two years."

Haffa's attorney charged that the appearance of the headline on the Columbia Broadcasting System TV network wrongfully defamed their client and unnecessarily exposed him to public embarrassment. According to the charges the headline appeared Dec. 11 and again July 9.

Just look at all the features. Fiberglass mineral tank (only Lindsay has it) that's guaranteed for life against rust or corrosion. Solid brass valve, parts and fittings; no iron or steel to rust out. Timed backwash. Timed regeneration. Automatic controls return softener to service. Automatic by-pass keeps salt out of house lines and gives you water during backwash and regeneration. Yes, the Lindsay Golden Nugget gives you a lifetime of soft water convenience. Best of all, because of its simple but rugged design and mass production, the Golden Nugget sells at a price competitive with ordinary softeners. It's the lowest-priced fiberglass softener in the Lindsay line. You get both top quality and low price.
