Oakland University student wins national award

Oakland University student and Port Huron resident Kara N. Herber, an Industrial Health and Safety major, was recently awarded a Liberty Mutual scholarship from the American Society of Safety Engineers.

Herber is a senior who will graduate in 2001 with a Bachelor of Science degree from Oakland University's School of Health Sciences. She currently holds two internship positions in the Palace of Auburn Hills Health and Safety Department and at EnviroAir Consultants as an industrial hygienist.

The American Society of Safety Engineers was founded in 1911 and is the world's oldest and largest professional safety society. Its 33,000 members manage, supervise and consult on safety, health and environmental issues in industry, insurance, government and education.

Oakland University is a comprehensive state-supported institution of higher education located in Oakland County, Michigan. The university has 109 bachelor's degree programs and 63 graduate degree and certificate programs. Dedicated to preparing learners for the 21st century workplace and society, Oakland University is organized into the College of Arts and Sciences and the Schools of Business Administration, Education and Human Services, Engineering and Computer Science, Health Sciences, and Nursing; and the Honors College.
