

Await Bond OK on Sylvan Water

Expect State Approval in 10 Days on Project Costing $250,000

Further action on a new $250,000 municipal water system for the city of Sylvan Lake today awaited state approval of the sale of bonds to finance the program.

City Manager Ernest L. Ethier said approval by the Municipal Finance Commission of the sale of $250,000 worth of general obligation bonds and $100,000 in special assessment bonds is expected within 10 days.

Following state sanction, the city will advertise for bids, Ethier said. Construction of the 7 1/2 miles of water lines is expected to be completed within 90 days of the date of contract.

Estimated daily water consumption is expected to average 450,000 gallons, Ethier said. This figure is based on an average of 300 gallons per day each for the city's 1,500 residents.

Although the one municipal well already dug for the system indicates it can supply more than 1,000,000 gallons per day, state law requires two wells. Drillers are slated to begin test work on a second well this week.

Last week, the City Council confirmed the special assessment roll for the system, Ethier said. No objections were raised at the public hearing.

Sylvan Lake residents now obtain their water from their own private wells. The city water system was given voter approval last June.

to shore when it subsided. No one was seriously hurt despite exposure to the below-freezing weather.

To the north, a third of Washington's cherry blossoms were killed, but warmer weather was promised and officials said the famous cherry blossom festival would go off on schedule — with cherry blossoms — barring further damage.

In New York state, large sections were isolated by one of the worst blizzards in recent years. The New York state thruway from Fultonville to Buffalo — 240 miles — was closed. Snow depths ranged up to 15 inches at Syracuse.

This morning, the freezing line had moved up to the northern portion of the Gulf states and a warming trend was forecast. Marked temperature rises were reported in the great plains. Moderately strong westerly winds in the North Atlantic states and snow and blowing snow in the eastern great lakes area — remnants of the storm — marked the eastern weather picture. Widespread rain was reported in the west.

Cap Provides Check on Who Rules Roost

PORTLAND, Me. (UP) — Don Butler, president of a sporting goods company, says he can tell whether a boy buying a baseball cap is under paternal or maternal influence.

"If he does it from front to back," says Butler, "the paternal influence is predominant. If he puts it on back to front, the mother rules the roost."

Butler says to check his theory "watch how a woman puts on a bonnet."

Berkley Infant Killed

FREMONT, O. (UP) — Victoria Millar, 11 months, was killed shortly after midnight today in a one-car automobile accident on Route 53, north of here.

The Ohio highway patrol said three other members of the Millar family, who lives at 2666 Kipling in Berkley were in the car at the time.

They were identified as Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Millar, parents of the child who was killed, and Betty Millar, 19.

Ten-Room House Rented for $400 a Year — in 1855

WASHINGTON (UP) — A century ago in the nation's capital housing wasn't much of a problem. There was plenty of ground where a man could put up side boards and a roof, and if he couldn't afford that he could rent a place cheap.

An advertisement in one of the papers 100 years ago this week mentioned a "very reasonable home for rent." It was on Missouri Avenue between 3rd and 4 1/2 streets. There were "10 or 12 rooms." There were two parlors on the first floor, a dining room

Pontiac Deaths

John M. Burnell

Funeral service for John M. Burnell, 57, of 3830 Otto will be Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. from Voorhees-Siple Chapel. The Rev. Paul R. Havens of First Methodist Church will officiate, with burial following in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

The son of G. W. and Mary Smith Burnell, he was born in Farmandville, Pa., and married Maude Fitzgerald on April 1, 1948.

Last employed by Pontiac Motor Division, he came here from Houtdale, Pa., ten years ago.

Surviving besides his widow are two sons, John M. and James George Burnell, and three daughters, Lynn Leeks, all of Pontiac, Mrs. Orval Sowers of Lake Orion and Mrs. Daniel Pifer of Clarkston.

Also surviving are three brothers, Thomas, Allen and Norman, all of Pontiac, a sister, Mrs. Archie Reid of Lake Orion, and nine grandchildren.

Mrs. Fred B. Giddings

Mrs. Fred B. (Elizabeth) Giddings (92), formerly of Pontiac, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Merz of Battle Creek, after a four-year illness.

Born in Waterford, she was the daughter of John and Frances Windham Stewart. A lifetime resident until 20 years ago, she attended Waterford and Pontiac Schools and belonged to the First Presbyterian Church. After moving to Battle Creek, she became a member of the First Presbyterian Church there. She belonged to the Auxiliary of General Hospital when it was first organized and known as City Hospital.

Surviving besides her daughter are two sisters, Frances Hitchcock and Mrs. Harriet Buchner, both of Pontiac, and two grandchildren, John Merz and Mrs. Ruth Michal of Pontiac.

Funeral service will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. from Farmer-Snyder Funeral Home, the Rev. William H. Marbach of First Presbyterian Church officiating. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Eugene J. Moquin

Eugene J. Moquin, 67, of 61 Seneca St., died Saturday in Dearborn V.A. Hospital after an eight-month illness.

Born in Bristol, Conn., he was the son of Jules and Marie Dube Moquin and married Frances Erard in Pontiac Feb. 23, 1928. He attended schools in Bristol before coming to Pontiac from there 27 years ago.

Last employee as a tool grinder at National Tool Salvage Co. of Detroit, he belonged to St. Michael Church and the V.F.W. of Pontiac.

Surviving besides his widow are two sisters, Mrs. George St. Lawrence and Mrs. Ernest Giguere, both of Terryville, Conn., and a brother, Edward of New Haven, Conn.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Brace-Smith Funeral Home.

Mrs. Gus Zollner

Mrs. Gus (Julia Nettie) Zollner, 79, of 233 S. Edith St., died yesterday at the home of her niece of 160 S. Francis St. after a two-year illness.

Born in Macomb County, she was the daughter of John and Mary Hotelling Clemons. A member of the Christian Temple, she came here from Drayton Plains 16 years ago.

Surviving besides her niece, Mrs. Harlan Guider, are two sisters, Mrs. Martha Terwilliger of Drayton Plains, Mrs. Minnie Wager of Pontiac, and a brother, Fred Clemons of Birmingham.

Funeral service will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. from Pursley Funeral Home, the Rev. W. H. Collyer of Rochester officiating. Burial will follow in Union Corners Cemetery.

Four Persons Hurt in Headon Collision

Four persons were injured, none seriously, Saturday in a headon collision on U. S. 10, three miles north of M15, State Police of the Pontiac Post said.

The injured, all treated for cuts and bruises at Pontiac General Hospital, were Miss Joyce Davis, 17, of Detroit; her sister, Eleanor, 7, and a brother, Richard, 12, of another sister, Rosemary, 5, was unhurt. Driver of the other car, William Osborn, 59, of Byron, was treated for bruises.

Miss Davis told Troopers she was passing a truck when her station wagon skidded out of control on ice, crossing the 4-lane highway into the path of Osborn's auto.

Homeland Short of Persian Cats

Iran Notes Scarcity of Its Famous, Beautiful Native Felines

WASHINGTON—The Persian cat, silken-haired sophisticate of many an American living room, is becoming something of a rarity in its Iranian homeland.

"Allah protect us," lamented a leading Iranian newspaper recently, noting the outside demand for Persian kittens. "We may even have to import cats."

The Persian cat, always a bit high-bred but just as fond of a place by the fire as any household pet, has helped spread the name of Persia—modern Iran—around the world, says the National Geographic Society. As has the Persian rug, the Persian cat has come to stand for the self-comforts of luxury living.

Some of the best examples of the Persian type inhabit the rugged regions of Kurdistan in northwest Iran or the wilds of Afghanistan.

Yet nobody knows whence came the first Persian—or when. Unlike the common domestic breeds whose lines are traced back to the sacred cats of ancient Egypt, their origin is lost in the shadows of time.

Naturalists theorize that the Persians may be descendants of the Pallas wildcat that still lives in the cold, barren mountains and steppes of central Asia.

As admiring owners of Persians know, these lovely characters are apt to be more temperamental than their garden-variety relatives.

Leading more sheltered lives, Persians also are less likely to get their names and exploits in the papers for professional mousing, pole-climbing, lengthy falls, or encounters with high voltage wires.

The Persians—white, blue, red, black, cream, silver or tabby—come into their own at exclusive cat shows where alley-cat entries are few and far between.

Their graceful movements, their quiet-eyed contemplation of the world awaken a feeling of admiration. More than almost any other animal, they seem made to be caressed.

Salvaged Freighter Now Back in Business

WASHINGTON, N. Y. (UP)—An old freighter recently stopped at the St. Regis Paper Co., on the St. Lawrence River—its first run since it was sunk seven years ago with a loss of 12 lives near Iroquois, Ont.

The vessel, once known as the Milverton, and now called the Clary Foran, at first was written off as a total loss after being rammed and sunk in the St. Lawrence. But later she was raised and refitted over a two-year period.

They're Good, but Rare

Melting Snow to Aggravate Muddy Roads

Melting snow from last week-end's storm is expected to aggravate the condition of back roads which have been "worse this month than in the past five or six years," according to Oakland County Road Commissioner Lee O. Brooks.

Frost accumulated in the ground to a depth of about 40 inches this winter, Brooks explained. Melted snow is held in the surface of roads causing mud until the entire frost blanket is gone, he added.

"Thus the roads don't drain completely until the frost dissolves," said the commissioner.

Conditions have been particularly bad in the county's south end where the land is flatter and water tends to "sit."

"Many times this month the roads have been so bad we haven't been able to get our heavy equipment in to do any work."

About 100 pieces of equipment are available to do grading work. "If the weather remains good and the roads settle, we should be able to get them in fair shape in about a week," Brooks stated.

Mrs. Colin B. Batchelor ORCHARD LAKE—Service for Mrs. Colin B. (Jemima D.) Batchelor, 53, of 3706 Lakeview Blvd., will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday from C. J. Godhardt Funeral Home, Keego Harbor, with burial in Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens. Mrs. Batchelor, the wife of a Keego Harbor supermarket owner, died Saturday.

Surviving are her husband; one son, Colin Jr. of Twin Beach; three daughters, Mrs. Mary Winters of Rochester, Mrs. Isabelle Howell, Mrs. Jean Golding, both of Keego Harbor; her father, Samuel Jamison, and four brothers and sisters, all of Scotland.

Pullet Pals With Pup

CONNEERSVILLE, Ind. (UP)—Some time ago, Bob Murray's coon hound killed some of his chickens. The dog has been kept chained to his doghouse since. The other day a pullet decided she would rather live in the doghouse with the hound than in the chicken house. The two get along fine, Murray says.

The Day in Birmingham

City Will Consider Ways to Cut Traffic Congestion

BIRMINGHAM — An 11-point traffic improvement program for U.S. 30 is included in the agenda for tonight's City Commission meeting.

In the same vein, traffic congestion on Maple avenue will be taken up, with the possibility that parking will be prohibited on the south side of the street from Bates to Hunter.

It will be recommended that Willis street between Bates and Woodward be widened by 10 feet, adding right of way on the north side of the street.

Up for consideration will be a possible $500 appropriation to add to the $1,000 recently appropriated for signs for the new fire stations. Suggested wording for two dedication plaques will also be presented.

In other action, lawmakers will discuss the policy concerning off-street parking and will award contracts for building removal on the site of Municipal Parking Lot No. 1.

A talk that ties in with an Altrusa Club survey being conducted on facilities available in the community for older citizens, is slated for the club's meeting at 8 to 9 o'clock at the Community House. Invitations have been extended to area service clubs and residents to hear Dr. Norma Donahue, of the University of Michigan, speak on "Housing for Older People." She is considered a national authority on gerontology.

To be installed as new officers of the Y's Men's Club at a "Ladies' Night" meeting tonight, are Ernest J. Robinson, president; Roland Erickson, vice president; Albert C. Madson, secretary; and David R. Hubbs, treasurer. The club recently presented a sound projector to the YMCA.

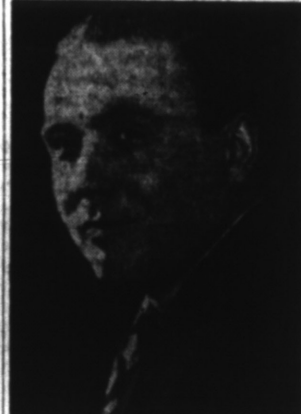

Two honors will come to Milton F. Mallender II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton F. Mallender, 430 Aspen, when outstanding seniors at the University of Michigan Law School are feted at a banquet tomorrow.

Mallender will receive the Order of the Coif, awarded the top 10 per cent of graduating seniors. He will also be named assistant editor of the Michigan Law Review. The editorial board is elected by the faculty on the basis of grades and ability.

Mrs. Frank R. Michelson Service for Mrs. Frank R. (Hannah H.) Michelson, 47, of 537 Pleasant will be at 1 p.m. Wednesday at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., with burial in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

'Lakeland's Paradise' Is Slogan Chosen for Waterford

Kate Whitfield Wins Contest

Receives $25 Award; Township Road Signs to Display Slogan

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Winner of the contest to select a suitable slogan for Waterford Township is Mrs. Kate Whitfield, 6781 Williams Lake Road.

The winning slogan is "Waterford Township: Lakeland's Paradise."

It was chosen at a meeting Saturday at the Waterford Township Hall from 113 entries, and was the unanimous choice of the judges.

The township has 30 odd lakes, the largest number of any of the 25 townships in Oakland County. Most of these lakes are surrounded by homes. The judges felt that such a slogan would recognize the importance of this quite outstanding feature of the township's attractions.

The slogan will be painted on large signs to be erected on every highway entering the township. It also will be used on stationery and other printed matter put out by the township and its residents.

For her winning slogan Mrs. Whitfield receives a prize of $25, contributed by members of the Waterford Township Board, each of whom donated $5.

She is a member of a prominent Waterford Township family, and for many years has been a prominent booster for the area. She has had an intimate connection with many of the things that have contributed to its progress.

The judges in the contest were: Percy King, life-long resident of the township; James C. Covert, first Superintendent of the Waterford Township schools; and Joe Haas, Pontiac Press staff member.

Candidates Speak at Rochester Dinner

AVON TOWNSHIP — Two guest speakers sparked a dinner sponsored by the Avon Township Democratic Committee on Saturday night in Rochester.

They were the Hon. Stephen J. Roth, Genesee County circuit judge and a candidate for the State Supreme Court; and John M. Veale, Democratic candidate for the State Board of Education. Toastmaster was George Edwards, Wayne County circuit judge.

Ferndale Tot Out to Prove Spring Is Here

FERNDALE — Despite winter's big comeback, a little Ferndale four-year-old still believes in spring, and this weekend she set out to prove it.

Donning two right shoes and buttoning only as much of her dress as she could reach, little Connie Topping got up from a nap and gaily set out from her home at 1725 W. Saratoga St., minus coat, hat or overalls.

The sub-freezing weather didn't bother her a bit, but her cool costume attracted the notice of four teenagers who took her to the Oak Park Police Station. There a patrolman bundled her up in his coat and started out in a scout car to find her parents.

En route, the pair saw a man running along the street anxiously looking right and left, and Connie pointed him out as "my Daddy." She was returned home, apparently none the worse for her out-of-season adventure.

Rochester Church Unit Changes Meeting Date

ROCHESTER — Women's Auxiliary of St. Philip's Episcopal Church will hold its monthly meeting at 10 a.m. tomorrow, instead of on April 5.

To prove it, he will model children's clothing at a spring style show sponsored by Zeta Zeta Omega Sorority, to be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Drayton Plains School. Modeling women's clothing will be his mother, Mrs. Lynn Wyckoff (right) and Mrs. Milton McAnally (left) of Drayton Plains.

Gala Evening Is Planned at Drayton Wednesday

DRAYTON PLAINS — Members of the Zeta Zeta Omega Sorority are planning a gala evening when they stage their Spring Style Show and Card Party at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Drayton Plains School.

Funds derived from the affair, which will be held in the school auditorium, will be used to finance a student project at Waterford High School, Mrs. Harry Nicholson, president of the sorority, said.

Fashions in the show will be from Celine's in Drayton Plains, and sorority members will assist with the modeling.

Fashions exhibited will include children's clothes, both boys' and girls'; young girls' clothing, women's styles, and beachwear.

This is the first such venture of the sorority, and members are

Planners Pass Zoning Changes

Avon Area Board Asks Amendment to Create Car Parking Space

ROCHESTER — Requests for two zoning changes have been approved at a special meeting of the Avon - Oakland - Rochester Area Planning Commission.

First was a change in zoning the corner of Livernois and Auburn Roads for additional parking area for automobiles at a proposed shopping center at that location. This is known as the Ferdinand Kersting property of 92 acres.

The Planning Commission recommended to the Avon Township Zoning Board that the zoning be changed to business for an area of 100,000 square feet under the proposed business building. Since the Avon Township Zoning Ordinance does not now provide for an automobile parking district, the Planning Board recommended that the ordinance be amended to create an automobile parking district, and the remainder of the land (including the frontage on Auburn Road and Livernois Road) requested under the proposed zoning change, be zoned for automobile parking use.

David S. Geer, consultant, said that it has been anticipated that the Master Plan would call for a shopping center somewhere along Auburn Road in Avon Township and that the Livernois location is an acceptable one for a shopping center development.

Max Hartwig, realtor, made a request for a zoning change from agriculture to commercial for a parcel of land, 588 foot along the north side of Tenken Road. The parcel is 255 feet in depth, and located 275 feet from the west corner of Tenken and Rochester Roads. He stated the land was for the erection of a motel.

The Planning Commission voted to recommend to the Avon Zoning Board the rezoning of the site. It was stipulated that the property be rezoned strictly for a motel only.

A need for additional office space in the Village Hall on east Fourth street has necessitated a remodeling job of two rooms on the first floor.

The rooms are adjacent to Village Manager Robert Stone's office and were formerly used for repairing water meters. When completed this week the rooms will be used as a blue-print and map room and a conference room for the various village council committees and the planning commission.

County Deaths

MISS. Anna Stegman
TROY TOWNSHIP—Rosary will be said for Miss Anna Stegman, 62, at 8:30 tonight at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., Birmingham, with funeral service at 10 a.m. tomorrow at Sacred Heart Church, Auburn Heights. Burial will be in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Detroit.

Miss Stegman died Saturday at 6821 Ansley Lane, where, she made her home with her nephew, Paul DeRoche. She is survived by several other nieces and nephews.

Civil Defense Film Scheduled at Romeo

ROMEO—Local Civil Defense director Maurice Foltz and Mrs. James Burke will show a film on the work done by volunteer emergency units at a public meeting of the VFW Auxiliary, to be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Veterans Hall.

Sgt. Donald Rimas and Don Stiles of the Grand Rapids Filter Center will be on hand to address the group.

All interested in civil defense are urged to attend the meeting.

Book Review Slated

ROMEO — Mrs. Bruce Taft will entertain members of the Romeo Book Club at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday. Her co-hostess will be Mrs. Merton Rowley. There will be a review of the book, "Stay On, Stranger," given by Mrs. William Sutherland.

FRANCES M. HADDEN
Frances M. Hadden and John Cloutier have set April 16 as their wedding date. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hadden of Rochester. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cloutier Sr. of Detroit.

Southfield High PTSA to Meet

Evergreen Interceptor to Be Explained; Play, Exhibit Scheduled

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP — A full schedule for tomorrow's 8 p.m. Southfield High School PTSA meeting, will include an explanation of the Evergreen Interceptor sewer question by Township Clerk Fannie Adams. The issue will appear on the April 4 ballot.

A half hour Art Club exhibit and demonstration will be included, with Barbara Wesley narrating student demonstrations in stenciling, soap carving, car designs, block printing, clay modeling, sculpture, design and paper mache, plus ink, chalk, charcoal and water color drawings.

Following this a one-act melodrama, "The Farmer's Daughter, or Sally and the Villain," will be presented by the Dramatics Club.

The play will be directed by Norman Fehlberg, and Roy Shumaker will portray the villain. Last, the nominations committee will present a slate of officers.

Ask Bids on Addition to Edgewood School

CLARENCEVILLE — Final approval to proceed with advertising for bids on the Edgewood School addition was received from Housing and Home Finance Corp. and the local school board has approved a resolution to advertise for bids.

A date of April 21 for the opening of the bids on the addition has been set.

The structure will include four classrooms, a health room, office, storeroom, and changes in the lavatory facilities.

Construction is expected to start the latter part of April.

Milford Residents Urged to Give Blood This Week

MILFORD—Many more donors are needed to meet the requirements of the Huron Valley Blood Bank and the Red Cross blood program, according to recruitment chairman, Mrs. A. F. Eckert.

The Bloodmobile will be at the Milford Methodist Church, Wednesday from 2 to 5 p.m. and Thursday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. under the sponsorship of the Milford Monday Literary Club.

"Because there is no 'shooting war' going on," Mrs. Eckert said, "people are reluctant to give blood. But statistics show that of the 8,563 pints collected in Oakland County last year, 5,815 pints were used locally."

Since its establishment in 1952, the Huron Valley Blood Bank has released more than 400 pints to local residents and members of their families. This would amount to $10,000 if each individual had to pay the hospital price of $25 per pint. Mrs. Frank Torrence, local Red Cross Coordinator, said.

The blood used by residents here took care of many accident victims, polio, measles, hemophilia,

Plan Barn Tour for Farmers in Thomas Area

THOMAS — Oakland County Agricultural Agent Lyle Abel will conduct a barn tour for all farmers in the area on Wednesday, assisted by Donald Murray, dairy planning extension leader. The latest dairy equipment and methods will be seen.

The group will meet at 10 a.m. at the Pine Roads Farm on Snell road, where the milking parlor will be inspected.

From there the touring farmers will go to the Hubbell Dairy Farm on Rock Valley road, Lapeer County, for inspection of the bulk cooler and silo unloader. Those on the tour will bring their own lunch, to be eaten at the Hubbell Farm. The Lapeer County Press Farm will be the last stop made by the group.

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Members of the Fashion Your Figure Club will see two color movies, "Losing in Win," and "Proof of the Pudding," at their regular meeting, at 7 p.m. Wednesday in Waterford High School.

Mrs. Charles Cole, Oakland County health nurse, will give a talk on the dangers of being overweight.

Meeting at Farmington to Speed School Building

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — A special meeting of construction contractors, architects and school board members has been scheduled for April 4, to speed construction of new school buildings, insuring completion of the four units for the fall opening of school.

The current project includes three new elementary schools and the addition to the high school of a gym-auditorium.

Topic at Troy Is Incorporation

Barnard, Gray to Talk at High School PTA Meeting Tonight

TROY TOWNSHIP — Background on planning that has gone into the zoning and the building up of a balanced tax base for the township, as relates to Troy's desire to incorporate, will be discussed by Supervisor Norman Barnard at the Troy High School PTA meeting at 8 tonight.

Incorporation is sought to prevent the annexation of 76 acres of industrial property at the southern border of Troy. The Vickers Corp., of Detroit is seeking to construct a $2,000,000 plant at the southwest corner of Maple and Crooks road and wants the property annexed to Royal Oak.

Ernest W. Gray, chairman of the Citizens' Committee on Incorporation, will report on plans underway by the group to promote the incorporation.

An adult education exhibit will include a style show by the millinery class, with refreshments served by the cooking class.

Service on Wheels Good News Throughout Home

By ELIZABETH HILLIER
No one ever knows until she owns one just how useful a serving cart is. This kind, really a drop-leaf table on wheels, easily takes on a dozen pleasant chores for one family who owns it.

It serves refreshments in the living room and is the extra server with the coffee and dessert at the hostess' elbow in the dining room.

It earns its keep just by saving trips with dishes between the kitchen and dining room. Mother enjoys pushing it to a window for her quiet second cup of morning coffee.

Sometimes it's a sewing table, or a hobby worktable or a writing table pulled up to a favorite chair. It serves breakfast on the porch on a bright spring morning, or dinner for two before the fire on a winter night when the children are abed. The teenagers love it for trundling snacks all over the house, and anyone who's ailing can eat from it when one leaf is pulled over the bed. The younger children also use it this way for games and toys. The table sketched is cherry with damage-resistant plastic top and shelf surfaces, a new design by William L. Beard.

Frankness Best Policy in Problem

Don't Hesitate to Tell Him You Don't Want His Company

By EMILY POST

The following question comes from a young woman who asks: "What can I say to a man who persists in asking me to go out with him? I don't want to be rude, but I have no intention of going anywhere with him — ever. I would be very grateful for your help in this matter."

Answer: He must be a very determined young man and since your constant polite refusals have not discouraged him any, I'm afraid there is nothing else to do but to resort to such frankness as having to say, "Please don't ask me any more because I am sorry I really do not care to go out with you."

Dear Mrs. Post: I've been told that on our twin bedspreads my initials should be used. But I think it would seem more suitable to have the one on my husband's bed marked with his initials. What is proper?

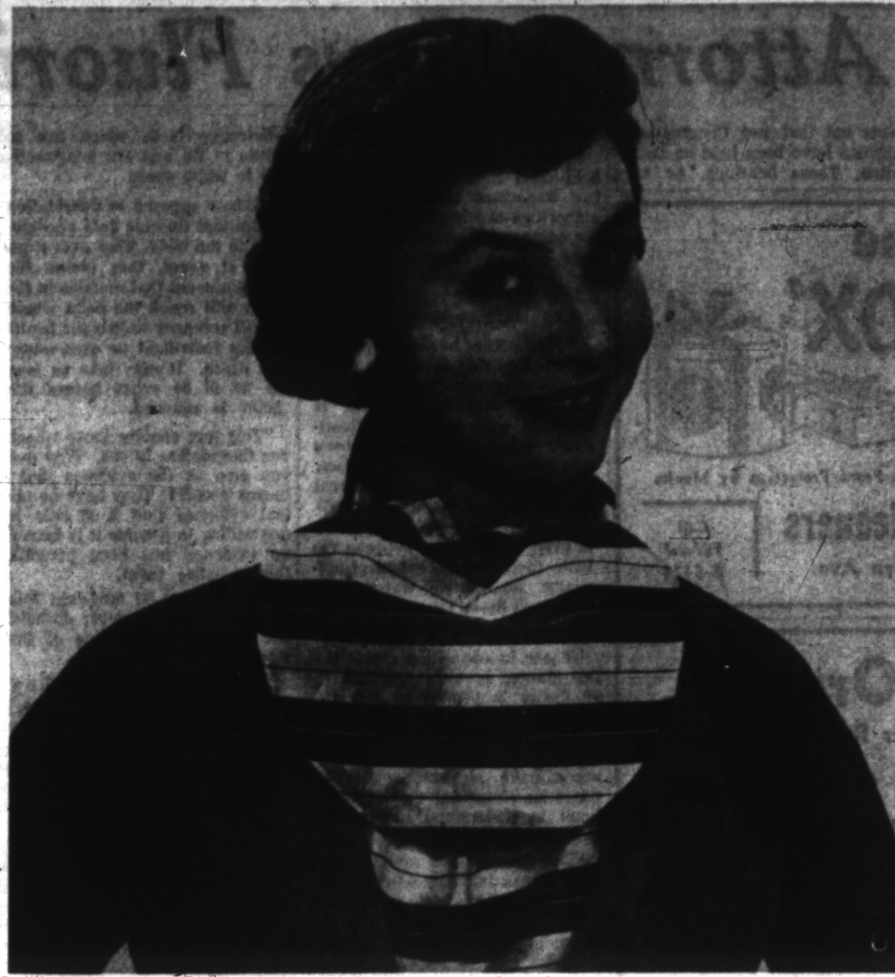

Answer: Correctly, house linen is always marked with the wife's initials.

Dear Mrs. Post: When dining with a friend in a restaurant that has booths, should I sit facing her or do I take my place beside her? Which is proper manners?

Answer: If the table is very narrow, you sit across from her. If the table is wide and set for four people, you sit beside her.

Dear Mrs. Post: Would it be possible to send our regrets to a wedding (which is to be at home) on the card enclosed with the wedding gift? For example, on my card to the bride write: "So sorry we can't come to the wedding. But will be with you in thought." I would not then write a separate acknowledgement.

Answer: Your suggestion is entirely correct.

Seeing stripes? And never with more dash necklines, it is worn ascot-fashion and than in this bold striped taffeta paddle scarf, looped at the throat to show off its rounded The perfect fill-in for spring's wide open paddle shape.

You Can Earn Money in Your Home Through Radio, Television Advertising

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Because so many young mothers insist stubbornly that they must do typing at home, and that there is nothing else they can possibly do, we have undertaken a study to see if there is any possible way to make money at it.

Straight typing, without shorthand, without editorial experience or languages or technical specialties, is almost always a losing proposition.

But for the girl who has excellent shorthand as well as neat and fast typing, here is one more suggestion:

Occasionally it is possible to get work through an advertising agency which handles radio and television commercials. They frequently pay, on a piecework basis, for transcriptions of commercials. Here's how it works: You listen to the radio or television program, and take down, verbatim, the commercial.

In most sections of the country, a one minute commercial brings about a dollar. If you are very good, and can get a good many, you have a home activity which will pay. Such jobs are scarce, but they do exist and can be dug up by the persistent woman.

First step is to get to your public library and consult the Advertising Agency Red book, which lists all the advertising agencies in the country.

Then check for the names of those in your own city, and get the name of the radio/TV director. Call on him, tell him what you want, and offer to take a shorthand test.

If you are really good, and can convince him of your dependability, he is apt to put you on the list to get work of that kind.

If any of you have worked out a way to capitalize on your typing and shorthand, without leaving home, let me know and I will pass the word on to other women.

There are two kinds of men—those who kiss and tell and those who kiss and exaggerate.

Don't Doubt When He's So Good

Talk Insignificant if Actions Speak Eloquently

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD
"Dear Miss Woodward: We've been going out steadily ever since we met two months ago. His sister introduced us."

I like him very much and he told his family that he likes me too. When he's with me he certainly acts that way. He's very sweet to me. But he never tells me he likes me.

I told his sister that and she said it's because he's shy. So what should I do? Should I tell him that I like him first? Or should I just keep quiet and wait? I'm going out of my mind!"

Answer: Haven't you proof enough? He dates you steadily which is a sign that he likes you a lot. He told his family that he liked you. He shows you in lots of little ways that he thinks you're tops.

Can't you believe all that? Must you actually hear those little words in order to believe what you already know to be true?

Lots of boys (and not just the shy ones) hesitate to talk too personally and intimately even with the girls they like best. They're afraid to put their innermost feelings on record.

Shy about it, maybe. But prudent too. They don't want to open up topics of conversation that can get out of hand. So they quietly say nothing. They are sweet and do nice things, instead.

So why not play his game? Go right on being sweet to him, show your appreciation and your approval. Skirt around those three little words yourself. You'll both have just as much fun without saying them.

"Dear Miss Woodward: I'm worried about a girl in my class. She and a girl friend drive around at night and pick up boys who are walking around."

They're respectable girls and I don't think they should do this. My boy friend and I have a particular interest in them. How can we let them know they shouldn't do this without making them mad at us?"

If you speak to the girls about it they may take it as scolding criticism and remind you that what they do is none of your business. You might have better luck in changing their activities if you spoke to them about your particular interest in them. Let the good word get around that you like them. Then follow it up with dates.

Keep those girls occupied if you want to keep them out of mischief. Take them out, spend casual evenings in their homes, join up with other couples for informal parties.

If you can persuade them to go steady with you, their loyalty to the deal may keep them from wandering. You will have set up a constructive channel for their energies—a routine that would be fun for you too.

Take Things Easy

If you packed the family's summer clothes away unstarched and unironed, save yourself a week of solid drudgery by unpacking that box and ironing a few at a time or even the whole batch at once, before it gets hot.

Tre Life of Christ—19

Jesus Went to Cross in Obedience

By BISHOP FULTON J. SHEEN
[We all need Christ—in a world which tries to interpret man in terms of sex, in a world of certain men who believe with Lenin that one must resort to violence and duplicity in order to conquer the world; in a world that believes personality should be manipulated, our whole life geared to flattery and influencing people for the sake of utility and popularity. The lesson of the Beatitudes is that they are not dead. They are hard facts and realities, inseparable from the heart. To strive not to be like other men, but to be perfect as God is perfect—that is the only new thing in the world, states Bishop Sheen, but so few are the people willing to try it.]

Over thirty times during His Life, Jesus Christ spoke of a must about His sufferings and death. Those who quarrel and bicker about who put Him to death are very much off center. Our Lord was under no outer compulsion; He was not a victim of circumstances beyond His control; He was not a devotee of the world's highest values, like a soldier dying on a battlefield; He was not a martyr for a great cause; nor a moral teacher whom the mediocre slew because they could not stand the moral lashings of His purity. He went to death not because of the plotting of evil men, nor because He was a victim of circumstances quite beyond His control, nor because of the power of the Roman Empire.

True, indeed, the stage was set by evil men, but Our Lord always presents Himself as One Who took charge of the plot. He went to death in obedience to His Father with Whom He is one in nature. "The Father and I are one."

Buddha came into this world to live, so did Socrates, so did Confucius, so did Moses and the Prophets. However, there was One person Who came into the world to die, and that was the Eternal Galilean, Jesus Christ.

The Cross came at the end of His Life, from a time point of view, but it was hovering over the crib from an intentional point of view.

There is a maxim in philosophy: "What is first in intention is last in execution." A young man decides to become a doctor. But the intention is perhaps twelve years or more before he receives his M. D. In like manner, the Cross was first in intention in the earthly life of Christ, but the last in execution. Our lives are lived forward; His life was lived backward. The Cross was the reason for the crib and His teaching, not His crib and His teachings the reason for His Cross.

Nothing is more beautiful in His character, than the way He prepared His Apostles for that unpalatable lesson of seeming defeat as the condition of victory. How slow they were to understand the story of why He must suffer, but with what infinite patience He instructed them. He took two steps in unfolding the mystery of His death and why it was necessary:
1—An occasional reference to the need of sacrifice, until they were convinced by the prophecies and miracles that He was the Son of God. Though He knew from the beginning that His Father so loved the world that He sent Him into it to redeem men from their sins, nevertheless, He could not tell this to His Apostles without arousing their prejudice or destroying their feeble faith. Instead of saying that He would sacrifice Himself, He began by telling them that they should sacrifice themselves.

For example, when He was seen in the company of publicans, some of the "nice people" lifted their eyebrows, but He explained to His disciples: "I came not to save the just, but the sinners." To heal men of sin is a greater manifestation of Power than to exterminate sinners by punishment. He did not tell them at that moment, how this was to be accomplished, but only that such was His purpose.

Next, he warned them that as a result of their companionship with Him, they too would have to suffer. "The servant is not above the Master." He even tells them they are to consider themselves "blessed" when "men shall hate you . . . and cast out your name as evil." This was a strange forecast to give disciples.

namely because they followed Him they would have misuses thrown at them. Before Him and since many have preached that if you are good, you will be prosperous; Jesus tells them that if they are good, they will be persecuted: "You shall be hated by all men for My Name's sake."

Being reasonable men, He hoped they would draw inferences from such warnings as: "Fear ye not them that kill the body, and are not able to kill the soul." Why should He Who had the power to raise the dead, and lift up limbs long palsied with disease and death now tell them not to fear those who would torture their bodies? Would His body be tortured? Was He bidding them to do something from which He would exempt Himself by His power? They knew the soul was worth more than the body, but why speak of their bodies being killed? Would they die as martyrs?

The conclusion was inevitable; He was bidding them to a life of sacrifice because He would be sacrificed. He did not yet say that He would offer Himself for the sinners of the world; rather, He said because His sacrifice was a Divine "must" laid upon Him by love, they must be prepared for the same maltreatment, because they were His servants.

Despite His patience in educating His followers, they did not grasp the lesson. The disproportion be-

Wings Bide Time Aim for 4th in Row Over Leafs

TORONTO (U) — It was Hap Day, a man familiar to playoff comebackers who said "we'll win the series."

And it was the Detroit Red Wings who a few hours later made Hap's prediction look mighty shaky when they slapped a 2-1 defeat on the Toronto Maple Leafs in the 3rd game of their best-of-seven Stanley cup semi-finals Saturday night.

The Detroiters, who won the National Hockey League championship with a great stretch drive, took a 3-0 grasp on the series with some masterful displays of power and checking. They need only a victory in the 4th game here to meet either the Boston Bruins or the Montreal Canadiens in the final.

Day, Leaf general manager who has the knack of instilling comeback fire, wasn't saying much after the game. Nobody could blame him. Few, if any, of the 12,521 fans who witnessed the engagement would give the Leafs much of a chance to produce an almost miraculous four-game winning streak now.

As they did in Detroit in the 2nd game last Thursday, the Wings moved into a 2-1 lead in the 1st period and made it stand up all the way. Only occasionally were they threatened in the wind-up session. Goaltender Terry Sawchuk was there to stop them.

Ted Lindsay, who made it a point to goad any Leaf who came his way, scored the 1st Detroit goal and assisted on the other. Dutch Reibel, center on the big line of Gordie Howe and Lindsay, set the 2nd Wing goal. Howe assisted on both.

Leftwinger Sid Smith, who counted 33 goals during the regular 70-game schedule, made No. 3 for the playoffs by beating Sawchuk at 7:29 of the opening period to deadlock the engagement 1-1.

That was it for Leafs. They made a determined effort but a goal that was disallowed late in the 1st period took a lot of steam out of them.

The disputed goal came at 17:37, with the Wings ahead 2-1. Rightwinger Ron Stewart, speeding dead-on for the Detroit cage, either kicked or carried the puck into the nets when he fell in front of Sawchuk.

Referee Red Storey ruled that he kicked the puck, passed by center Rudy Migay, behind Sawchuk on the disputed goal.

chuk. Stewart argued strenuously but Storey stuck by his decision.

The Leafs, who dropped the 1st game 7-4 and the 2nd 2-1 in Detroit, played their best hockey of the series for the 1st two periods. They hit the Wings with stiff bodychecks and checked them closely. But the defending Stanley Cup champs kept coming back for more.

Detroit general manager Jack Adams said it was "the big one to win." In the dressing room after the game, he commented:

"It's a nice spot to be in. They have to make it four straight now."

Day didn't go along with Storey's

"It bounced off Stewart's skate as he slid near the nets. The rule book says a player must deliberately kick a puck into the nets for it to be disallowed."

Leaf coach King Clancy, shaken by the defeat, agreed with Hap. "That may have been the turning point, although we missed some good chances later in the game."

Bucks in Tank Sweep

OXFORD, Ohio (U) — Swimming rivals of Ohio State's renowned NCAA champions had some solace today in knowing Buckeyes Ford Konno and Yoshi Oyakawa paddled their last collegiate race Saturday night.

In fact, Coach Mike Peppe, who now owns nine NCAA titles, says Buckeye prospects next year are "very poor."

But Michigan and Yale, last weekend's deadlocked runners-up and bitter perennial Buckeye foes, probably won't believe that until they see it.

fore that race he was going to beat him. I was afraid he was, too. But Ford stood up under real pressure all the way by Wardrop to whip him again."

Konno (1,500-meter and 440-yard) and Oyakawa (100 and 200-yard backstroke) were the meet's only double winners and Oyakawa became the first swimmer in NCAA history ever to win the same event (200-yard backstroke) four straight years.

Detroit Club Faces Big Job to Square Grapefruit Mark

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (U) — The Detroit Tigers will have to win their last three games to end the Florida part of their exhibition season with a .500 mark.

Yesterday's 3-2 loss to the Washington Senators left them with a 6-9 spring record.

After today's game with the Kansas City Athletics, only a Lakeland meeting with the New York Yankees and a game Wednesday with the Boston Red Sox at Sarasota remain.

Detroit breaks camp and heads north Friday.

The Senators edged the Tigers yesterday on Ernie Gravetz's single with one out in the 9th.

Maury McDermott opened the bottom half of the inning with a single off loser Ray Herbert and moved to 2nd on Eddie Yost's sacrifice. The 5-foot-4 Gravetz brought McDermott in with a hard drive over 2nd.

The Senators scored twice in the 4th off Bob Miller who started for Detroit. Pete Runnels singled. Roy Sievers tripled to right and Bruce Edwards scored Sievers on a single.

The Tigers tied the score against Camilo Pascual in the 5th with two out when Jim Deling walked and Harvey Kuenn, Fred Hatfield and Ferris Fain singled.

It was Herbert's 1st loss in three appearances this spring. He was nipped for 6 of the Senators 10 hits in the 4 innings he worked.

Detroit collected all of its five hits off Pascual in the 1st five innings. Third baseman Ray Boone, trouble lately with a sore arm, accounted for two of the Tiger hits. Bill Frosts, Frank Lary and Paul Foytack were named to pitch for Detroit against the A's.

Greeks, Methodists 'Y' Cage Champs

Championships were decided Saturday in two YMCA basketball leagues as Greek Orthodox and Central Methodist teams won junior and senior high school cage division titles.

The Greeks downed Eastern Junior Hi-Y, 24-11, as Mike Varon dumped in 12 points. Larry Colbert had 5 to lead Eastern.

In the high school loop, the Methodists were forced into overtime to trip Hi-Y Titans, 46-43. The teams played to a 41-41 tie in regulation, but Central Methodist grabbed a 5-2 advantage in the extra period.

Ronald Sandage was the top scorer with 17 points. Trophies will be presented to players on the championship teams following tonight's intramural League title game.

ITHACA, N.Y., March 28 (U) — The country's best amateur matmen square off in the National AAU Wrestling Championships at Amityville, N. H., Thursday with the Oklahoma Aggies' tough Cowpokes favored to retain their title.

The defending champions earned their favorite's role with an impressive second straight NCAA team victory over the weekend. The Aggies accumulated 40 points, nine more than runner-up Penn State. Pitt was third with 28 and Oklahoma's Sooners fourth with 26.

Ohio State captured eight of the 14 events in the three-night competition at Miami University's pool, turning in what Peppe described the most "spirited" performance in Buckeye history.

"This was not the strongest team I've ever coached," said Peppe, 57, who has directed the Buckeyes for 25 years. "But I never had a team with such competitive spirit."

"You take Konno in the 440-yard freestyle," said Mike. "Jack Wardrop (of Michigan) told him be-with a close-checking, hard-hitting game. Referee Frank Udvari called seven 1st period penalties—five against the Bruins—but Boston kept Montreal from scoring in the 1st session while bagging enough goals to win. Hal Laycoe also scored for Boston. Ken Modell and Jackie LeClair got the Montreal goals.

Race Is Close as Archers Near Season Finale

Only two weeks remain of the Pontiac Archery Club's indoor league season and team number 5 holds a narrow 3-point lead over team number one. Members of the league-leading team include Harold Hedges, Hanna Hedges, LeRoy Addison and Paul and Doris Baldwin. The top two teams are matched in the final night of the season.

In last week's action, Wendie Harvey shot 266 of a possible 280 for the highest score ever recorded on the Pontiac range in regular competition.

On Easter Sunday, April 10, a sunrise service will be held at 7 a.m. at the archer's outdoor range in the Pontiac Lake Recreation Area. This will be followed by a 28-target shoot. Regular outdoor season gets underway April 17.

That was all Boston needed to cut Montreal's edge to 2-1 in the series.

They resume in Boston Tuesday night while Detroit's defending champion Red Wings will be out to score a 4-0 series sweep over the Maple Leafs in Toronto.

Coach Milt Schmidt's Boston Bruins dropped the 1st two games to the Canadiens in Montreal 2-0 and 3-1.

Last night, however, Boston opened up right in the 1st period

Pontiac Bowler Fourth in Elks State Tourney

Don Menzel of Pontiac finished 4th in the singles division of the state Elks 35th annual bowling tournament at Battle Creek, which concluded over the weekend. Menzel had 632-54—686 to place 4th behind Mark Weitzke, Owosso, 706.

In the team handicap event, Stephenson Club of Ferndale was 5th with 2980. The leader was Tarry House of Grand Rapids, 3054.

Kalamazoo Dreyer's was the actual team leader with 2837. Singles leader was Ed Haines of Detroit (672) and the doubles victors were Larry Howe and Oscar Sorenson of Ann Arbor (1267).

Next year's tournament will be held in Saginaw.

Bucks Option Garber

FT. MYERS, Fla. (U) — The Pittsburgh Pirates have optioned pitcher Bob Garber to Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League.

Garber, a righthander, had a 19-8 record last year with Denver of the Class A Western League which now is in the American Assn.

Musical Tops for Runs

CHICAGO—Stan Musial leads active major leaguers in career runs scored with a total of 1,396. Ted Williams was next in line with 1,285 total.

Cage Great Gola May Try His Luck With Baseball

NEW YORK (U) — Tom Gola, a three-time All-America in basketball who never played college baseball, admitted today that he was interested in taking a crack at the national pastime with the Philadelphia Phillies.

"I'm not sure yet," Gola said. "The Phillies just said they'd like to look me over."

The Kansas City Athletics, New York Yankees and Cincinnati Reds also are reportedly in the market for Tom's baseball services.

"I never had a chance to play in college," the LaSalle senior said. "The basketball season always ran too late. I played in high school and on the sandlots. I played first base and the outfield."

The Phillies are interested in Gola because of his potential as a drawing card and a long-distance slugger. Gola stands 6-7 and scales about 215. Gola is interested in the Phillies for obvious reasons. He could make a whole lot more money swinging a bat than shooting a basketball. The Philadelphia Warriors of the NBA hold draft rights to him.

Sunday Gola finished playing three basketball games in 24 hours. After playing in the East-West Game Saturday night he came back with the College All-Stars to play the Harlem Globetrotters in a doubleheader at Madison Square Garden that kicked off their annual tour and marked Gola's pro debut.

The handsome Philadelphia junior scored six points in the afternoon game and 18 at night. The Trotters won both ends, 67-63 and 72-70.

The Syracuse Nationals and the Fort Wayne Pistons — the Eastern and Western Division winners — today were planning their strategy for the first game in the National Basketball Assn's best-of-7 finals beginning in Syracuse on Thursday.

Syracuse gained the finals by eliminating the Boston Celtics 110-94 for the Eastern title, while the Pistons downed the Minneapolis Lakers 105-96 Sunday.

Wes Posts 4:04.2 Santee Is Voted Finest Performer at Chicago

CHICAGO (U) — Wes Santee, the great Kansas miler who came within six-tenths of a second of the world indoor record, today was named the outstanding athlete of the Chicago Daily News Relays.

Santee ran a brilliant 4:04.2 Saturday night to set a new Bankers Mile record. The old record of 4:04.6 was established by Gil Dodds in 1944.

Twenty four hours earlier, he had run a 4:04.6 mile at Cleveland. Santee set a world indoor mile record of 4:03.5 earlier this year but Gunnar Nielsen of Denmark lowered it a week later by two-tenths of a second.

Second in the voting by sports writers and radio and television announcers covering the meet was Mal Whitfield. The two-time Olympic champion won his fifth straight Relays 600 Whitfield was last year's award winner.

Tied for third in the voting were pole vaulters Don Laz and Rev. Robert Richards. The former University of Illinois stars both cleared 15 feet but missed at 15-3.

Among others receiving votes was Harrison Dillard, 31, Olympic champion.

Dillard tied his own world indoor mark of 0:07.1 in the 60-yard high hurdles. It was Dillard's ninth straight Relays triumph in the hurdles.

Spurrier Sets Sights on Title in '56 Olympics

Californian Clips 1.1 Seconds Off Half-Mile Record in 1:47.5

BERKELEY, Calif. (U) — Lon Spurrier, who clipped 1.1 seconds from the world 1/2-mile record Saturday, now hopes the Air Force will give him a chance at the 1956 Olympic Games title.

"And I know they will," said Brutus Hamilton, Olympic coach at the 1952 Helsinki games and mentor of the lean and rangy Spurrier at the University of California.

A 2nd Lt. through ROTC training at California, Spurrier will report to Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio April 29. He expects a study and training grind there, but hopes there will be running and conditioning opportunity in time to make next year's Olympic squad.

Hamilton said Spurrier was "full of run on an ideal day" when he ran his 1:47.5 half mile Saturday in the California-Olympic Club Santa Clara Youth Center meet. Mal Whitfield and Gunnar Nielsen shared the old 1:48.6 record.

Tracy Headed for Canadian Pro Football

Ex - Maple All - Stater Quits Tennessee for Scholastic Reasons

Tom Tracy, former all-state football star from Birmingham High School, apparently is headed for Canadian professional football.

Tracy, a 3-sport star, with the Maple and one of the finest gridironers ever developed in this area, has run into scholastic trouble at the University of Tennessee and has withdrawn from school.

Playing fullback in the Vols' single-wing attack, Tracy won a berth on the Southeastern Conference all-star team last season. Offensively, he carried the ball 116 times for 794 yards, a 6.7 average.

He would have been a ranking All-America candidate in pre-season ratings next fall. In announcing his decision to quit school, Tracy stated that he had received several offers from Canadian pro grid teams and very likely would play in Canada next fall.

More Cubans on Hand, Dressen Predicts First-Division Finish for Senators

ORLANDO, Fla. (U) — Kneedeep in a new wave of Cuban imports, Manager Chuck Dressen glibly predicts a first division finish for his Washington Senators.

"I don't know whose place we'll take but we're going to push somebody out," he said. "The old man (Owner Clark Griffith) told me when I took over we needed

Minnesota Team Fires 3,015 Total for Top Opening Performance

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (U) Teams which today open the first full week of bowling in the 52nd annual tournament of the American Bowling Congress had a record-breaking target.

Howard's Clothes of St. Paul, Minn., ran up a 3,815 Saturday night, the highest opening night score in the history of the meet. The previous record was 2,984 by Wisconsin Bridges of Milwaukee, set last year at Seattle.

Riding in second place in the 72-day pin classic in Allen County Memorial Coliseum are the Brunswick Mineralites of Cincinnati with 2,941.

A 5-7, 200-pound liquor store owner, also from St. Paul, leads the singles division, Ted Bies, a veteran of 35 years in the bowling game, put together games of 234, 248 and 194 for a 673 total, his highest series in ABC competition. Ralph Moorman and William Berding of Cincinnati hold the doubles lead with a 1,260 count. Moorman had a 663 series and Berding 597.

Brundage Plans Check on Aussie Olympic Work

CHICAGO (U) — Avery Brundage, head of the International Olympic games committee, will leave for Melbourne, Australia, this week despite assurances that preparations for the 1956 games will be completed on schedule.

Brundage said he has heard conflicting reports from Australia that labor troubles have delayed work on the stadium and other facilities for the games.

Brundage said he wants to make a routine check of the situation before the international committee meets in Paris June 14-17.

Nashua, Derby Winner, Heads for the North

MIAMI, Fla. (INS) — Nashua, winner of two $100,000 purses in Florida this winter, leaves Hialeah Park today in a private express car on a crack train appropriately named "The Champion" for an invasion of the north.

The Belair stud's prize three-year-old, winner of the Florida Derby at Gulfstream Saturday and the Flamingo Stakes at Hialeah in February, probably will make his next start in the Wood Memorial at Jamaica on April 23.

Willie Mays won the National League batting title for 1954 and became only the third Giant ever to attain it.

Michigan Ski Expert Suffers Broken Leg

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (U) — Skiing stars can get hurt just like novices.

Stein Eriksen, the Norwegian Olympic ace and now instructor at Boyne Mountain, Michigan, suffered a broken leg here yesterday. He had come to Sun Valley to watch the Hartman Cup races during the weekend. The accident occurred on Baldy Mountain.

Indiana Girl Titlist

CHICAGO (U) — Brenda Borton of the Indianapolis A.C. tonight won the National AAU Junior women's 250-yard breaststroke title at Chicago Town Club.

Miss Borton's winning time was 3:49.7.

Eleanor Duhoosh of Chicago finished second and Alice Ogle of St. Louis was third.

Crane's Lose Again

Cranbrook's touring baseball team dropped a 3-0 decision to Greensboro, N. C., High School Saturday despite 5-hit pitching by Pete Bedford and Steve Hayes. Dave Cooper continued his fine hitting for the Cranes. He collected three of Cranbrook's 5 safeties.

Turning Over of Flag to Sports Organization Is 1st Official Act for 1959 Pan-Am Games in Ohio

MEXICO CITY (U) — The first official ceremony for the third Pan-American Games in Cleveland in 1959 was started today.

As the second Pan-American Games' organizing committee was winding up its final reports of the March 12-26 events, the Pan-American sports organization took over official custody of the games flag.

The banner, with white background and five concentric rings of color similar to the linked rings on the Olympic flag, will be escorted from Mexico City to Cleveland for the 1959 games. The presentation and raising of the flag will formally open the events in the Ohio city.

The water sports contestants and coaches also got their next 4-year program under way with the election of officers of the Amateur Swimming Union of America for 1955-56. Javier Ojeda Jr., president of the Mexican Swimming Federation, was chosen president.

Leo T. Johnson of Champaign, Ill., was named secretary-treasurer and R. Max Ritter of Jenkintown, Pa., was made a director.

The United States wound up with the largest number of gold, silver and bronze medals, 138. Argentina was second with 88, and Mexico third with 51. Chile got 25 medals, Cuba 34, Brazil 17, Venezuela 15, Canada 10, Uruguay 9, Colombia 6, Puerto Rico 5, Dutch West Indies 3, Jamaica 3, Panama 2, Guatemala, Dominican Republic and Trinidad each one.

Titans Win Pin Test

DETROIT (UP) — The University of Detroit reigned as champion of the Wayne University Invitational Bowling Tournament today.

Titans bowled over Wayne and the University of Michigan with a total of 2,670 pins. Wayne was 2nd with 2,623 and the Wolverines 3rd with 2,622.

Canners Donate Samples in A-Radiation Research

WASHINGTON (INS)—U. S. processors are kicking in enough canned food to supply 100 families of four for a year in an attempt to find out whether it will be safe to eat after an atomic explosion. The experiment will be carried out with the official blessing of half a dozen government agencies during the Atomic Energy Commission's current series of tests at the Nevada Proving Grounds.

About 25,000 samples of 60 different canned food items, some in glass and some in tin, have been selected on the basis of the processed foods consumers buy in largest volume.

This is the equivalent of 1,200 cases, and a National Canners Association spokesman estimated that average consumption is about three cases per person per year. A total of 153 canning firms are splitting the tab for the test material and the cost of transporting it to Nevada.

The Civil Defense Administration, which is vitally interested in the experiment, has recommended that U. S. families keep a three-day emergency supply of food on hand in event of an enemy attack.

Tentative plans call for the tests to be carried out on or about April 26, with exposures of the canned food to be made at various distances from the blast. An extensive program of post-explosion testing of the samples will be carried out.

Among other things, the Canners Association said the federal food and drug administration will use some of the exposed food in animal feeding tests to be conducted in FDA laboratories.

A spokesman reported that food and drug scientists actually will set up three separate tests. As he outlined it, the first of these will be a 90-day feeding program using monkeys.

To determine whether there are longer-range effects, FDA will feed other batches of the canned goods to rats over a six-month period. Finally, there will be six months of testing with dogs.

Citing potential value of the experiments, the industry pointed out that after World War II bombing raids, European cities

Evidence Sat Upon at Assault Hearing

OMAHA (UP)—During a recent court trial of several men on assault and battery charges, numerous references were made by the prosecuting attorney to a chair one of the defendants allegedly threw at one of the plaintiffs during a scuffle.

In summing up his case, the defense attorney demanded to know why the chair hadn't been introduced as evidence, since it had such important bearing on the case.

The prosecuting attorney then pointed to one of the defendants and remarked:

"One of your clients has been sitting on the chair all through the trial. I didn't want to disturb him."

We All Need 50 Years to Learn How to Live

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Everyone should live to be 150 years old.

"It takes the first 50 years to learn how to live," Dr. Walter Stark, a dentist, told a pre-retirement institute yesterday. "The next 50 years should be used for production, and in the next 50 years a human being sought to be entitled to do the things he wants to do, aside from the commercial side of production."

Some Crooks Stupid, Police Captain Thinks

MONTREAL (UP)—Detective Captain Cecil Rowe thinks some criminals are stupid.

One lawbreaker, whose name was withheld pending his appearance in court, stole the overcoat and wallet of an office manager. The wallet contained two choice tickets to a National Hockey League playoff game.

The thief used the tickets to take his girl friend to the game. Police arrested him there.
