Red Slowdown May Doom POW Explanations

Bohlen to Stress Sincerity

Envoy Ordered to Tell Kremlin Ike's Intentions

To Impress on Soviet That U. S. Is Serious About Peace Atom

WASHINGTON (U P)—The State Department has instructed A m b a s s a d o r Charles E. Bohlen to tell Russian leaders that President Eisenhower's atoms-for-peace plan is a "dead serious" effort to avoid the holocaust of atomic war, it was disclosed today.

Diplomatic sources said Bohlen will stress, in face-to-face talks with Kremlin officials, that Eisenhower's U. N. speech Tuesday was not a propaganda move but was a "completely sincere" invitation to Russia to cooperate in saving civilization from destruction by H-bombs and A-bombs.

White House and State department officials are hopeful that Bohlen's personal message will persuade Soviet leaders at least to explore the Eisenhower plan in secret diplomatic talks at the U. N. headquarters in New York.

Authorities said the United States is prepared to give the most careful consideration to any "constructive" counter-proposals which Russia may offer in such negotiations.

Eisenhower proposed that the United States, Russia, Britain and Canada — the world's four atomic powers — each contribute a portion of its uranium stockpile to a new international agency which would develop peacetime uses of atomic energy for the benefit of all the world.

He suggested that successful cooperation in this undertaking might inspire enough mutual confidence for the big powers to go on to international control of atomic weapons.

A Moscow radio commentator denounced the plan soon after Eisenhower outlined it before the U. N. General Assembly. But officials here refused to accept this off-hand propaganda tirade as Russia's real answer.

There were greatly encouraged today by a dispatch from Moscow, passed through Russian censorship, which said that "Soviet circles received President Eisenhower's atomic pool speech with deep interest and consider that it requires careful study."

Armed With Water Guns, 2 Are Picked Up in Theft

LIBERAL, Kan. (AP)—Two 11-year old boys heavily armed with water pistols were picked up by Police Chief Ralph Smith and Highway Patrolman Tom Pivonka for questioning about the theft of $20 from the purse of a Liberal resident.

The youngsters finally admitted spending part of the money to buy water pistols for 20 of their friends, the officers said.

Canine Pal Pulls Tot From River Channel

'THANKS A MILLION'—Three-year-old Terry Jagars and his cocker spaniel, "Bunny," have a heart to heart talk at home in Long Beach, Calif., after police found them, dripping wet on the banks of the Los Angeles River Flood Control channel. "Bunny helped me out of the water," was all the boy could say. Police theorized the tot must have fallen into the deep water and the dog jumped in and dragged him to the bank. Terry's mother had reported the boy missing shortly before.

Weather Turning Normal After Freakish November

Unlike November, this month is behaving itself.

Last month was a freak in two respects: it was too hot and too dry.

November's seven-day "heat wave" broke two daily heat records, and its rainfall measured only slightly more than an inch.

It was much cooler and rainier in November, 1952. In that month precipitation reached nearly three inches, but the mercury bobbed past the 60-degree mark on only five days.

The thermometer climbed past 60 degrees 10 times last month, including the seven consecutive days of 60-plus temperatures Nov. 14-21. The heat records toppled on Nov. 16-17.

The average temperature last month was 43 degrees. A low of 21 degrees on Nov. 28 and a high of 70 on Nov. 17 were recorded. Last month's low was eight degrees higher than the coldest day in November, 1952.

The first 10 days of December indicate this month will be more normal from a statistical standpoint.

Although not as wet as last year, the Pontiac area did get over half an inch of snow and rainfall in the 10-day period. Temperatures also were more seasonable.

It may be too early to determine the weather pattern for December, but the best guess is that it will be more n o r m a l than rebellious November.

Rain or Snow Forecast

The U. S. Weather Bureau forecasts rain or snow and a high of from 44 to 48 degrees Saturday. A low of 33 is expected tonight. The mercury rose from 30 degrees at 8 a.m. today to 44 at 2 p.m. in downtown Pontiac. Yesterday's temperatures ranged from 28 to 40 degrees.

State May Get U. S. Air School

Gov. Williams Reports Talbott to Inspect Ft. Custer Site

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan said today he was "very much encouraged" by the reaction of Air Force Secretary Harold E. Talbott to his recommendation that the proposed Air Force Academy be located at Ft. Custer near Battle Creek, Mich.

The governor told a reporter after his conference with Talbott that "the secretary's ideas of what the air force should have coincided closely with what we have to offer." The governor was accompanied by Rudolph Habermann, secretary of the Battle Creek Chamber of Commerce.

Habermann said "I feel the secretary was very favorably impressed."

Talbott promised to visit the site personally.

Refuses to Talk in Senate Probe

Mrs. Louise Sarant, Wife of Spy Suspect, Invokes 5th Amendment

WASHINGTON (AP)—A petite brunette whose former husband was described by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) as a fugitive espionage agent refused to say today whether she herself has ever engaged in spying.

Mrs. Louise Sarant, now residing in Ithaca, N.Y., was called before the Senate Investigations Subcommittee in its search for evidence of espionage at the Army's Ft. Monmouth, N.J., Signal Corps Laboratories.

The trim bespectacled witness invoked her constitutional protection against possible self-incrimination when questioned about Communist activities and espionage. She also refused to answer similar questions about her former husband.

Francis P. Carr, the subcommittee staff director told reporters after the hearing that Mrs. Sarant's husband, Al Sarant, worked at Ft. Monmouth in 1941 and 1942 and was dismissed.

Earlier Joseph H. Percoff, now a New York lawyer, swore that he never engaged in espionage while working at Ft. Monmouth, but he refused to say whether he ever passed secret government documents to Communist spies.

McCarthy, the only member of the subcommittee at the hearing, said he would recommend contempt action against Percoff, contending the witness could not refuse to answer such questions after stating he never had engaged in espionage.

After Percoff and Mrs. Sarant were dismissed, McCarthy said other witnesses would be heard in closed session and public hearing would be resumed in New York City next Monday.

Atoms-for-Peace Slogan Is Suggested

LONDON (AP)—Britain's Minister of Works gave the atoms-for-peace movement a slogan last night—"plutonium into plowshares."

Minister David Eccles told the House of Commons the vital cores could be pulled out of Britain's atom bomb and used to produce power for peaceful industrial purposes if peace were assured.

"We could beat our plutonium into plowshares," he declared.

His statement came during debate on the government's plan for atomic energy program control.

Former U. S. Tax Official Appears for Prison Tem

ST. LOUIS (AP)—James P. Finnegan, close friend of former President Harry S. Truman, surrendered today to begin serving a two-year prison term for official misconduct as an internal revenue collector here.

He walked into the federal building with his attorneys to surrender to his lifelong friend U.S. Deputy Marshal Les Davison. They left immediately for the Terre Haute, Ind., prison.

The 52-year-old Finnegan was genial but serious as he posed for pictures and talked to newsmen.

Finnegan has been at liberty on bond since he was convicted by a jury last year of accepting $8,000 in fees from two firms who had government matters pending at the time.

Legislature Urged to Plug Hole in Psychopath Law

LANSING (AP) — The Legislature today was urged by law enforcement agencies to plug a loophole in the new criminal sexual psychopath law through which an accused murderer can escape trial.

The recommendation was made by the joint law enforcement committee of circuit judges, prosecuting attorneys, chiefs of police, sheriffs, the attorney general and the commissioner of State Police, meeting at State Police headquarters.

The loophole came to light when Donald V. O'Brian, accused of murdering a woman in Oakland County, was committed for treatment as a sexual psycopath to Ionia State Hospital.

Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem recommended that the loophole be plugged in a letter to Oakland County lawmakers recently.

Under present law he can be paroled or released from the hospital if he is cured and can not now be tried for the murder.

The committee wants the 1954 legislature to amend the law so that in such cases, anyone released from the hospital would then be required to stand trial.

The committee also asked the reintroduction of four bills which passed the House and died in the Senate in the 1953 session. These would:

Authorize prosecuting attorneys to administer oaths in the taking of voluntary statements and give the attorney general the power of subpoena.

Require defense attorneys to file in advance the addresses as well as the names of alibi witnesses.

Permit probate judges to waive jurisdiction over minors under 17 charged with misdemeanor traffic violations in serious cases.

Increase penalties for offenses indictable under the common law.

Shoulders to Be Charged With Rules Violations

Ex-St. Louis Policeman Under Fire in Handling of Carl Hall's Arrest

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The St. Louis Police Board plans to file formal charges accusing former Lt. Louis Shoulders and Patrolman Elmer Dolan of violating regulations in their handling of the arrest of Carl Austin Hall.

Hall, the kidnap-killer of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease, is awaiting execution in the Missouri penitentiary Dec. 18.

I. A. Long, board president, said yesterday Dolan has been suspended pending hearings for him and Shoulders. Shoulders resigned from the force but the board has not officially accepted the resignation.

The Police Board president said the charges will be filed under police regulations. He said the hearings, which will be scheduled later, would not be criminal proceedings.

Long declined to reveal the nature of the charges except that they would deal with the officers' actions in handling the kidnaping case here.

A police officer found guilty of violating regulations can be punished in various ways, ranging from a discharge to a rebuke.

Shoulders, in commenting on the development, said he had not been a policeman since Oct. 24. Reminded that his resignation had not been acted upon, he said:

"They stopped my pay and that's enough for me."

Dolan's only comment was:

"I don't know what it's all about."

The board's action came during a long inquiry into the missing $30,720, more than half the ransom paid to Hall and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady by Robert C. Greenlease Sr. of Kansas City.

Hall, in his confession and in an interview with St. Louis Police Chief Jeremiah O'Connell, has said he had most of the ransom money in two suitcases in his hotel room when arrested by the two officers Oct. 6.

The suitcases, checked later at a district police station, contained less than half the ransom. Hall claims the officers left the suitcases in the room when they took him to the station. Shoulders and Dolan have said they took the suitcases to the station at the same time Hall was taken there.

Reward Pending in Rape-Slaying

Early Meeting to Decide Allocation of $5,000 for O'Brian's Capture

Pontiac City Manager Walter K. Willman today said he would call a meeting "as soon as possible" to decide allocation of the $5,000 reward posted Sept. 1 for aid in apprehending the slayer of Mrs. Hallie Perkins.

The meeting probably will be held after he returns next Wednesday from a trip to Washington D. C., Willman stated.

City Attorney William A. Ewart, Police Chief Herbert W. Straley and Willman form a committee selected by Pontiac City Commission to award the money.

Rape-slayer Donald V. O'Brian was caught Sept. 9 as he attempted to attack a Pontiac housewife. Her screams attracted James Brown, 18, of 37 Vinewood Ave., who tackled O'Brian, and Jack Seebald, 48, of 27 Oriole Rd., who helped hold him until police arrived.

O'Brian, 27, was declared a criminal sexual psychopath Nov. 30 and will be turned over to the Michigan State Hospital Commission for commitment to a mental institution.

Atom Peace Work Started

Top Nuclear Scientists Plan June Meeting at Ann Arbor

DETROIT (AP) — Some of the world's top nuclear research scientists will compare notes at an "International Atomic Energy Congress" in Michigan next summer.

The meeting, called with approval of the State Department, will be a five-day exchange-of-information affair at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. It will be held June 20-25. It is to consider peacetime industrial uses of atomic energy.

It may be history's first conference of its kind.

As co-sponsors, the university and the American Institute of Chemical Engineers announced the meeting jointly here yesterday.

This was two days after President Eisenhower's plea to the nations of the world to set up an international atomic energy research pool.

However, the proximity of the two was just coincidental. The "congress" had already b e e n months in planning, sponsors said.

Dr. George Granger Brown, dean of the university's engineering school, said he expected Eisenhower's speech to "give impetus" to the meeting.

Nations of the free world have been invited to send representatives. Ten so far have accepted the invitation.

Conspicuous by their absence from the list of the invited were Soviet Russia and its satellites behind the Iron Curtain.

Plans for the congress were announced at a press conference. Dr. Brown and his associates were questioned with respect to the exclusion of Russia.

(The Soviet has yet to comment officially on the President's proposal.)

"We were contemplating inviting people from Russia but that would have to be cleared through the State Department," Dr. Brown said.

Dondero to Attend Seaway Conference

Rep. George A. Dondero (R-Royal Oak) promised to renew his fight for constructing the St. Lawrence Waterway before leaving today for a top-level Washington conference on the proposed inland sea route.

The congressman, who heads the powerful House Public Works Committee, said he hopes President Eisenhower will "come out with a strong statement on the seaway" after next Wednesday's meeting.

Industrialists, including Henry Ford II, are expected to meet with the President to discuss the seaway proposal.

Dondero will meet again with Eisenhower Friday to discuss plans for the next session of Congress. The lawmaker presumably will again urge U.S. participation with Canada in the seaway project.

Commie Delays Could Prevent Talks With GIs

Allied Interviews Halted After Koreans Insist on Running Show

PANMUNJOM (AP) — Allied efforts to woo home war prisoners who stayed with the Communists—including 22 Americans and one Briton—were threatened today by Red slowdown tactics which forced suspension of interviews with South Korean POWs.

Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, Indian chairman of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission, said 30 ROK prisoners would be called up for interviews tomorrow. But there was no indication whether the sessions would be held.

Thimayya suspended the Allied explanation program Friday after 25 of 30 prisoners insisted on making their own explanations to Allied interviewing officers.

He said that if the POWS refuse to accept NNRC conditions for the interviews "I'm afraid the explanations will come to an end."

After a hurried meeting of the NNRC Thimayya announced that 30 more South Koreans would appear Saturday. He did not say whether there was any sign of a change in Communist tactics.

The Indian general also announced that a Red request to interview 250 anti-Red Koreans Saturday was turned down because the prisoners refuse to leave their compound. Some of these prisoners were interviewed earlier and the rest have refused to budge.

Special U.S. Envoy Arthur H. Dean said he may fly to Washington before Christmas and leave the stalled talks on arrangements for a Korean peace conference in the hands of his chief aide.

If Dean leaves, Allied negotiations probably will be taken over by Kenneth T. Young, the State Department's director of Northeast Asian affairs and Dean's No. 1 adviser.

The State Department announced in Washington Thursday that Dean has been authorized to return home. It said the spokesman for 17 nations which fought in Korea has not been ordered home but may return for consultations.

The diplomats made no progress Friday toward removing the big roadblock to a peace conference—Communist insistence that Russia attend as a non-voting neutral

Music Fades, but Not the Image

Face That Comes for Visit Stays on Cold TV Screen

BLUE POINT, N. Y. (AP)—Early in the century it was "the face on the barroom floor." But that was a fable.

The face on their television screen, the Travers family says, is not a fable, and they wish it would go away. It doesn't, though, even when the TV set is turned off. Here's their story:

The three pre-school-age Travers' children first saw the face—a woman with a fixed stare. The youngsters lined up in front of the screen for a favorite morning program. They got the show, but 6-year-old Caroline ran to her mother, crying:

"We can't see it. A face is in the way."

Mrs. Jerry Travers indulgently investigated. One look and she turned pale. There was the face, staring out of the 17-inch screen even as the telecast went on.

The children got scared. They started to whimper. Mrs. Travers, a little nervous herself, turned off the set. The face remained. She then placed the screen side of the set to the wall.

When her husband, an aircraft company employe, returned home from work, they swung the set around. The face was still there.

Radio and TV experts were consulted. One expert said, "It can't happen."

Network officials, given a description of the woman, could not identify her.

Ray Clurman, chief engineer at the Telechrone color television laboratory in nearby Amityville, had an explanation.

The face was probably an image from a previous program, Clurman said, and became engraved on the picture tube as a result of faulty equipment.

To erase the face, Clurman said, would require a new tube and a complete overhaul.

The Travers, took another look at the screen yesterday. The face was still there. They turned the screen-side back to the wall.

Most Birmingham Stores Will Stay Open Evenings Starting Tonight, Monday

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM—The majority of Birmingham stores will begin their evening Christmas shopping hours either tonight or Monday, Chamber of Commerce Secretary Charles Mortensen announced today.

"A few have already started, and some types of shops won't be open during the evenings at all, but the bulk of the stores will soon extend their schedules to accommodate holiday shoppers," he stated.

Manager of the local secretary of state's office, Mortensen added that the sale of 1954 license plates is 100 per cent higher than at this time last year, with more than 1,000 tags already purchased.

He added that 40 per cent of residents are failing to remember that they must bring their car titles when they buy the new plates.

Additional Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills news on pages 8, 20 and 23.

"Commercial vehicles owners should also bring last year's weight slip," Mortensen said.

Mrs. St. Bernard Succumbs at Age 92

Mrs. Edward J. (Matilda Louise) St. Bernard, 92, one of Pontiac's older residents, died at her home at 5:15 p.m. Thursday. Mrs. St. Bernard, who lived at 138 Lincoln Ave., had been ill eight months.

Born April 8, 1861 in Sweden, she was the daughter of Swen and Christine Erickson Swenson. She was married at St. Clair Oct. 17, 1885 and came to Pontiac from there 42 years ago.

Mrs. St. Bernard was the oldest member of All Saints Episcopal Church in years, but not in years of membership. She was a member of Guild Four.

Surviving are three daughters, Miss Ida and Miss Elizabeth at home and Mrs. Ernest (Tillie) Martin of Birmingham; a sister, Mrs. Anna Vick of Kinbrae, Minn.; two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The body will be at the Kirkby Funeral Home until noon Saturday when it will be taken to All Saints Episcopal Church for service at 1 p.m. The Rev. C. George Widdifield, her pastor, will officiate, and burial will follow in Hillside Cemetery at St. Clair.

The family request that in lieu of flowers, all memorials be made to All Saints Episcopal Church.

Robin Kirchner

Funeral for Robin Kirchner, infant son of Erwin and Patricia Hocevar Kirchner of 59 Whitfield St. was held today in the Sparks-Griffin Chapel. Burial was in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

The baby was born Wednesday and died Thursday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Besides his parents he is survived by his twin brothers, Gregory and Jeffrey.

Mrs. Daniel Zumbrunnen

After a long illness, Mrs. Daniel (Sophie Louise) Zumbrunnen, 48, of 44 W. Walton Blvd. died at her home at 6:30 p.m. Thursday.

Born in Iowa Sept. 20, 1905, she was the daughter of John and Minnie Schmidt. She came to Pontiac 25 years ago and was married April 10, 1924.

Besides her husband and father, who resides at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, she is survived by four daughters and a son, Mrs. John Swindell and Mrs. Thomas Coburn of Pontiac, Lena, Carol Ann and Richard Zumbrunnen at home.

Also surviving are three sisters and three brothers, Mrs. Eloise Wilcox, Mrs. Bernice Green and Gary Schmidt of Monticello, Iowa; Mrs. Joan Griffith of Novi; Lavern Schmidt of Cedar Rapids; and Lawrence of Seattle, Wash.; and four grandchildren.

Funeral will be Saturday at 2 p.m. from the Sparks-Griffin Chapel. The Rev. Paul R. Havens of First Methodist Church will officiate and burial will be in Walled Lake Cemetery.

Square in New York Has First Yule Tree

NEW YORK (AP)—Union Square, long a forum for soap box orators, has its first Christmas tree.

The square has resounded to countless debates by radicals and anyone else with an urge to stand up and sound off over the years.

Jan Mitchell, restaurateur, said a patriotic service in the Square earlier this year was "the first step in a long-range program to rededicate Union Square to God and America."

"This tree represents the second step," Mitchell said.

CLARENCE E. OTTER

Hills Resident Head of Automobile Club

Clarence E. Otter, of Bloomfield Hills, last night was elected president of the Automobile Club of Michigan at a meeting of the club's Board of Directors at Detroit.

A Bloomfield Hills city commissioner since 1932, he won national recognition during World War II for developing an ambulance service for the Office of Civilian Defense which was later adopted throughout the United States.

Otter, president of the William R. Hamilton Co., succeeds Edward J. Weeks.

Renamed directors for three-year terms were three area men: John A. Brown and Frank J. Howlett of Birmingham, and Roy M. Hood of Beverly Hills.

Queen Radios First Christmas Greeting

ABOARD THE LINER GOTHIC IN THE PACIFIC (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II radioed her first Christmas greeting of the year across the sunny Pacific today to the British cruiser Sheffield.

"You have come a long way with smartness which has been a pleasure to see. Please convey my thanks to all on board. Goodby and a happy Christmas," she said.

The Sheffield had accompanied the Gothic from Jamaica. The New Zealand cruiser Black Prince now has taken over the escort duty.

French Leave Thai Capital

Commander Calls City 'Mousetrap'; Establish Center to the South

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—The French announced today they have pulled their troops out of Vietminh-threatened Lai Chau, capital of the Thai tribal country in northwest Indochina, without firing a shot.

Announcement of the evacuation three days ago came after repeated French assertions Lai Chau would be staunchly defended against the Communist-led rebels.

Brig. Gen. Rene Cogny, commander of French forces in north Indochina, proclaimed Dien Bien Phu, 180 miles west of Hanoi and 50 miles south of Lai Chau, as the "new capital" of the Thai country. French paratroopers seized Dien Bien Phu from the Vietminh in a daring drop Nov. 21.

Some 3,500 civilian residents of Lai Chau already had been evacuated to Hanoi and Dien Bien Phu in anticipation of an attack by the crack Vietminh Division 316, which had been reported marching on Lai Chau.

* * *

The Reds were expected to lose no time in entering the abandoned Thai capital. The French conceded its fall would give the rebels a "prestige success."

Cogny said, however, the military evacuation of Lai Chau had been approved by Deo Van Long, president of the confederation of the 300,000 Thai peoples.

The French commander termed Lai Chau a "mousetrap." It is wedged between high mountains at the junction of three rivers flowing from Communist China.

Dien Bien Phu, on the other hand, consists of a series of villages on a broad plain and has an airstrip through which the French have been building up their forces.

In announcing the withdrawal, Cogny said: "It is our intention to defend the Thai country."

Strong Vietminh units, meanwhile, were reported about 15 miles northeast of Dien Bien Phu. The French said they were continuing to pour in troops and war material there by air from Hanoi.

TO OPPOSE BURKE?—George H. Bender, (R), above, Congressman from Ohio's 23rd District, is expected to announce his candidacy for the U.S. Senate. Bender would oppose the Lausche-appointed Sen. Thomas A. Burke, in the contest to elect a successor to the Senate seat of the late Robert Taft. Taft's elected term still has two years to run.

Hails Ike's Atom Speech

CANBERRA, Australia (AP)—Foreign Minister Richard Casey said today the Australian government welcomes President Eisenhower's international atomic pool proposal as "a new and hopeful approach to the solution of atomic problems."

Red Stall May End PW Explanations

rather than as a full participant. They agreed to meet again Saturday.

* * *

The snarl in the Allied explanation program definitely has delayed the start of interviews with the 22 Americans and one British prisoner.

Allied officials said the Red slowdown appears to be aimed at tying up the explanation program before the non-Koreans are called.

The U. N. Command had planned to complete interviews with 328 South Koreans early next week, then ask for the others.

* * *

All 255 Koreans interviewed chose to stay with the Reds.

The first five prisoners interviewed Friday made the same decision. But the other 25 refused to hear the explanations unless they were allowed to explain back.

Ralph Manuel to Head Real Estate Board

BIRMINGHAM — Ralph Manuel of Watt, Manuel, and Snyder, Inc., was elected president of the Birmingham Real Estate Board at a directors' meeting this week.

Other new officers are Muriel Lane of Max Broock, Inc., vice president; Robert W. Etter of George E. Markley, Inc., secretary, and Dorothy Webster of Snyder, Kinney and Bennett, Inc., treasurer.

Refugee Poles to Name New Exile Parliament

LONDON (AP)—Poland's refugees from communism are getting ready to name a new parliament in exile.

Roman Odzierzynski, premier of the Free Polish government in London, submitted the resignation of his five-man cabinet yesterday to the president of the Polish republic in exile, August Zaleski. A new exile parliament will be elected by delegates of Polish groups now living in the West.

Yard Pools Popular

AKRON, Ohio (INS)—A lot of Hollywood glamour is going into many backyards next year— the swimming pool is no longer a millionaire's plaything. Robert W. Nickels, B. F. Goodrich industrial division sales manager, estimates that 1954 sales of "backyard swimming pools" will reach an all-time high of $75,000,000.

PHS Debaters Tie for 1st in Tourney

The Pontiac High School debate squad tied for first place with Arthur Hill High School, at the Saginaw Valley Conference debat tournament held December 10, at Flint Northern High School. Pontiac was represented by six teams who won eight out of twleve debates.

The Pontiac High debaters who participated were selected from the local squad which boasts a membership of approximately 47 students.

The speakers were Janet Allen, Russel Holland, Duncan McVean, Valerie Durnen, Walter Hodge, Jerry Richards, Richard Clark, Jim Jolly, Gail McLaren, Tom Metzdorf, Lynda Shroeder, Bob Everson, and Willie Edwards.

Faculty members who accompanied the team included Arthur Selden, Guy Bevington, Walter Smith, debate coach, and Miss Claire Kleinschmidt who also judged in the contest.

Detroit Man Faces Breakin Charge

A Detroit man who last spring waived examination on an attempted breaking and entering charge was examined yesterday on the same charge.

Franklin Taylor, 29, of 104 Watson, Detroit, was bound over to appear in Oakland County Circuit court Dec. 18, by Waterford Township Justice Willis D. Lefurgy. A bond of $2,500 was not furnished.

Taylor had made one appearance in circuit court last spring before he decided to ask for an examination on the charge of attempting to break into Gallagher's Drug store at 7617 Highland Rd., Waterford Township, according to Oakland County Sheriff's detectives Delos Anderson and Leo Hazen.

Two men, since convicted of the May 12 breakin, were found guilty and fined $300 costs and put on probation. They implicated Taylor who was arrested May 26.

Breakin Nets Thieves $65 at Walled Lake

Marley's Coffee Cup at 528 Pontiac Trail, Walled Lake, was broken into early today by thieves who took $65, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

John Marley, the owner, said that $25 from a cash register and money from a cigarette dispenser and a juke box were missing, according to Detectives Elmer McQuern and Leo Hazen. Entrance was made by a rear window.

Charge Officer Bribed Soldier

Flier Placed on Bond, Accused of Paying GI to Speed Discharge

DETROIT (AP) — A World War II flier was free under $5,000 bond today on a charge of bribing an enlisted man to help speed his discharge after he was recalled to service in August, 1951.

Leonard W. Jarosz, a contractor in Bloomfield Hills, stood mute to the charge when arraigned yesterday before Federal Judge Arthur F. Lederle.

Jarosz was indicted Dec. 1 by a federal grand jury in Danville, Ill. He was accused of bribing M-Sgt. Luther Bradley at Scott Air Force Base, Ill., to change medical records in order to facilitate Jarosz' release from the Air Force.

Sgt. Bradley, recently convicted of accepting bribes from several other officers, now is serving a prison sentence.

Jarosz said he knew nothing of the charge. He was recalled to duty by the Air Force in August, 1951, and received a medical discharge four days later, he said.

In World War II he served more than three years as an instructor, bombardier, navigator and radar operator at various stations in the United States. He was a lieutenant when he was discharged.

When intelligence tests came into use, it was found that about two per cent of the general population never reach adult mental level.

Eisenhower's Plan

If applause and widespread approbation are accurate guides, President Eisenhower's atomic pool speech was the most momentous pronouncement of his Administration.

At U. N. where the Assembly listened intently for 29 minutes to this proposed new approach to the atomic problem, not a critical comment was heard, although Russia has since started her customary international sneer. Sir Gladwyn Jebb, the British delegate called it "a noble and moving statement." Assembly President Madame Pandit saw in it "the seeds of great opportunity for the world."

In Canada and Europe as well as in Congressional circles here, comment almost without exception was favorable. The only sour notes came from Russia's Vishinsky, who first applauded the speech, and a top radio propagandist in Moscow.

After warning of the disaster atomic war would bring and of our own capacity for devastating retaliation if attacked, the President outlined his plan. Briefly he would have the atomic powers, including Russia, begin private negotiations.

★ ★ ★

The object would be agreement on contributions of fissionable materials to an international atomic pool under U. N. aegis. Purposes of the plan would be to promote the peaceful uses of atomic energy, diminish the destructive power of the world's atomic stockpiles and open a new approach to the whole problem of peace.

As the President pointed out his plan has one great virtue. It can be undertaken without the "irritations and mutual suspicions incident to any attempt to set up a completely acceptable system of worldwide inspection and control."

It will be remembered that it was the Russians' adamant refusal to accept the inspection feature of the Baruch Plan which led to the still unbroken atomic control stalemate.

Not the least important feature of the President's address was the length to which he went to assure Russia of U. S. peaceful intentions. In one of his most noteworthy passages, the President said:

"My country wants to be constructive, not destructive. It wants agreements, not wars among Nations. It wants itself to live in freedom and in the confidence that the people of every other Nation enjoy equally the right of choosing their own way of life."

The master stroke in this address is its effect of putting Russia on the spot. It is authoritative notice to the whole world that if there is no progress toward agreement on control of atomic weapons, the fault will be the Kremlin's alone. They have already accused us of "threatening war," and of other "crimes." Apparently a Russian official can never become anything but a Russian official.

Our President has made a great impression on the bulk of humanity.

Well Earned Citizenship

A Boston court room was the scene the other day of an unusual and happy occurrence.

Principals were the judge and 17 GIs before him not for any law violations but to be rewarded with American citizenship.

All were taking advantage of the law under which aliens can become naturalized after one year's residence provided they have served at least three months in our armed forces.

Among the new soldier-citizens were a Yugoslav, an Estonian, a Czechoslovakian, a Russian and a Soviet German. Four of the men were veterans of the Korean War. One, a Pole, had an unusual record.

Five years ago he jumped ship in New York harbor. His escapade touched off an epidemic of desertions which cost Red dominated Poland some 60 seamen.

By volunteering for military service these men have proved both their eagerness to live in America and qualities which made them welcome as new citizens.

Fine Work, Goodfellows!

One of our Yuletide pleasures is noting with satisfaction the results of the Goodfellows annual newspaper sale.

Each year policemen, firemen and postal workers, members of the Metropolitan Club, take up stations at busy street intersections. There they sell copies of the Pontiac Press for as high prices as the customers care to pay, with the sole idea of making Christmas a lot happier for many persons.

Last Saturday more than 40 members of the club sold a record total of 8,000 papers. While receipts didn't equal those of 1952, they did exceed $2,800 and still are coming in.

This means that the club not only will have funds for a fine Christmas party for children, but for the holiday food baskets it plans to distribute.

★ ★ ★

We are proud to be able to co-operate by supplying the papers for this traditional sale and to say once again, "Fine Work, Goodfellows."

Seventeen is par for the number of things a woman puts and leaves on the bed during the day.

Honeymoon: What ends when she's taken off a pedestal and put on a budget.

Photographs looking west from the present Webster School on West Huron St. about 1920 and owned by show no buildings on the present site of Indian Village. The land at that time was owned by the State of Michigan, and 60 acres of it were sold for $2,900 an acre. The Michigan State Fair had been held in that vicinity earlier in the century. Street car tracks ran out West Huron St. and turned south in the present vicinity of Telegraph Road, which was not built until several years later.

A reminder of the log jams in the Clinton River in Pontiac's early days, when they were floated down to the saw mills here, can be found today at the Pine St. bridge over Pontiac Creek. Debris thrown into the creek is clogging it when caught at the bridge, just as did the logs at the bridges in pioneer times.

A national survey just completed by a leading merchandising publication shows that in recent years the sale of necessities has shown a bigger boost in the immediate pre-Christmas season than that of luxury articles. R. W. Fisher Believes Religious Floats Something Few Cities Can Boast About

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

Congratulations are in order to the Retail Merchants Division of the Chamber of Commerce on its splendid Christmas parade. Certainly, the people of Pontiac were privileged to see something that very few cities in the United States can boast of; namely, the depiction of the religious aspect of Christmas.

The floats were all very professional in appearance and denoted a lot of time spent in planning and work. Also, the Santa Claus float was the most unique and original we have ever seen. All in all, it was a wonderful example of civic cooperation.

R. W. Fisher
112 Cherokee Road

May I congratulate everyone who made the recent Christmas parade possible.

I was glad to see Christ brought back into the Christmas spirit and portrayed in such a lovely manner. The means by which it was done, encouraging community spirit by the different church groups participating, is most commendable.

The clowns, rubber toys and Santa to touch the hearts of the children and add a bit of humor were pleasant. And of course, the bands were tops!

Keep up the good work.

Says That Law Condemns Innocent, Excuses Guilty

Your editorial of Dec. 7 on the Goodrich Law was o.k. as far as it went, but the law of the oracle has been as ardent in condemning the innocent as it has been in excusing the guilty.

You have to add falsified examinations plus atrocities under the cloak of benevolence to what you have written on O'Brien to have a more complete picture of the law.

Mrs. R. Hall Says Many Work for U. S. Defense

Do you know how many workers are needed to build one jet engine? Multiply by 7,500 and you will see how many jobs will be lost in jet engine production alone. How many workers are needed to build and service one Air Force plane? Multiply by 1,000—that is the number cut from Air Force production schedules. How many needed for one Navy combat plane? Multiply by 700.

Add to your total 100,000 civilian workers severed from the defense department, also 70,000 uniformed men eliminated from the Navy and Marines. These reductions would leave many unemployed People who are dependent on the payrolls in their community.

Are we in favor of sacrificing our country to save money? No! We want a strong America. We want to keep our fire department and police force, as well as every branch of the armed forces and we are willing to pay for it . . . if we have a job.

There is one expense we can mark out . . . a crystal ball . . . who needs one to see what is going to happen if these drastic reductions are allowed to be carried out.

Reds Seem Stupefied and React Slowly to President's World Atom-Pooling Plan

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the strangest problems of modern times confronts the Russians.

If they show interest in President Eisenhower's offer—for the United States, Russia and other nations to pool atomic materials for peace—they might slow down Western Europe's military preparations.

That's exactly what they've been trying to do for a long time by one propaganda device after another, knowing the West Europeans would rather not arm if they could be sure Moscow wants peace.

While never intending to see it through, the Russians could show interest in Eisenhower's idea and then stall as long as it suited their purpose.

* * *

Instead, the Moscow radio, before the Kremlin had time for serious reflection on the American offer, began denouncing it, charging Eisenhower's proposal was not peaceful at all but a threat of war.

And Russia's delegate to the United Nations, Andrei Vishinsky, quickly threw cold water on the idea too.

The White House refused to accept these reactions as final unless the Soviet government officially says they are. It hasn't said so yet.

* * *

Nevertheless, the radio - Vishinsky reactions carried a sense of shock, not so much because the Russians seemed to be rejecting the idea but because they seemed to be rejecting it so quickly.

* * *

It was as if they had disclosed a fatal sickness: an inability to think fast in a new situation, adjust themselves to it, or turn it to their own use.

They sounded like mechanical men trained so long along one line of thought that they had to depend, not on the mind, but on a simple reflex action, "No."

The Russians were not prepared for Eisenhower's proposal. Their preliminary "no" looked like a tactical blunder.

Moscow for years has spent enormous time and energy in trying to get Western Europe into the Russian camp.

Between the end of the war in 1945 and launching of the Marshall Plan in 1948, Russia tried to take over Western Europe by means of local Communist parties working from within.

Those local Communists made astonishing gains in West European elections because their native countries were broke, confused and drifting. If the drift had continued, they might have taken over peacefully.

* * *

The United States recognized the danger and set in motion the Marshall Plan of economic aid to get Western Europe back on its feet. In a Europe beginning to prosper, the local Communists lost ground.

* * *

Russia would have no part of the plan. It began a long propaganda campaign against it. The United States and Western Europe, having tied their fortunes together economically, then did so militarily.

They set up the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, in which they promised to come to one another's assistance if any of them was attacked. Russia propagandized against NATO and is still doing so.

In addition to economic aid, the United States contributed military aid. Next came the idea for EDC —European Defense Community —a single army of West Europeans. Russia propagandized against that.

NATO is far from perfect, and EDC isn't even in existence yet. Russia might delay both by showing interest in Eisenhower's atom plan. But the suddenness of the proposal seems to have stupefied the Russians.

Live Wire in Pulpit Can Electrify Congregation

As a boy, I sat in an audience that murmured angrily against Rev. Honeywell. But his dramatic lesson stopped their murmuring instantly and made them feel sheepish. We need more use of our clergy. It takes a live wire in the pulpit to electrify an audience.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case J-365: Rev. Ira E. Honeywell, aged about 45, conducted a week's series of revival meetings in the town of Covington, Indiana, when I was a boy of 8.

My mother attended all the meetings faithfully and I went along with her. Although almost half a century has elapsed, I vividly recall one of Rev. Honeywell's sermons.

That evening he held aloft, one at a time, 10 beautiful hand painted China dinner plates.

He explained their great cost, which to me in those days sounded like a small fortune per plate.

Then, after he had the audience admiring those beautiful dishes, he took a small hammer from the podium and struck it sharply against one of the plates.

"Crash;" went the dozen fragments as they fell to the floor.

"Oooh!" exclaimed the crowd with an inhalation of breath.

Methodically the clergyman picked out a second beautiful plate and shattered it with the hammer.

But by the time he broke the third plate, there was a disapproving murmer from the throng down in front. They objected to such wanton destruction.

"What are you disturbed about?" Rev. Honeywell abruptly challenged them. "Why do you murmur against this breaking of a few plates?

"For some of you have broken some of the 10 Commandments right here in Covington this very day or else have seen others do so but not one of you went 'Oooh' or did you murmur in disapproval of such breaking of God's divine laws."

Then he proceeded with his stimulating sermon. Much of the latter I have forgotten, or at least haven't remembered in connection with Rev. Honeywell's name.

Indeed, I can link very few specific ideas or deeds with any clergyman throughout my lifetime, though I have always attended church regularly, having missed only three times in the past 30 years.

It is only dramatic episodes or magic tricks that clergy used to point up a moral, which have stood out in my mind.

It takes a live wire in the pulpit to electrify a congregation!

Every young clergyman should take a short course in magic and sleight-of-hand so that he can dramatize his children's sermons more vividly.

Old style theologians may think this is a picayune recommendation, but I've seen clergymen, as well as physicians and dentists, zoom to the front in their professions by being able to motivate children successfully.

And these leaders have often employed magic to influence the youngsters. In fact, the promise of another dramatic illustration next Sunday will make the children urge their sleepy parents the next Sabbath morning so they can get to church on time.

Good clergymen must be able to bring out crowds and keep them inspired and interested. If they can't do that, they aren't following in Christ's footsteps, for Jesus brought out crowds.

He also used stage materials to illustrate his sermons and employed numerous stories to clarify his abstract ethical points.

If you clergymen want Christ's formula for public speaking, send for my bulletin "Public Platform Strategy," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus a dime.

Baering Down

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

This writer was the first to suggest that hiding behind the Fifth Amendment was ambushing a fish in aspic.

If the answer tends to incriminate you then you are as guilty as a cat in a bird cage.

Now congress intends to do a little thumb twiddling with boxing gloves on. But why go to all the trouble of amending an amendment? When we already have a cowcatcher on the old woodburner?

In May, 1810, congress proposed an amendement that any citizen accepting any title, honor or pension, from a foreign power, or offfice or emolument therefrom, unless okayed by congress, shall automatically cease to be a citizen.

Said amending plaster met the approval of Maryland, Kentucky, Ohio, Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Vermont, Tennessee, Georgia, North Carolina, Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

For some reason it was rejected by Rhode Island, New York, South Carolina and Connecticut. By the via, Connecticut, Georgia and Massachusetts never did ratify the Bill of Rights with other legislatures when the first congress proposed it in September, 1789.

But it became a law anyway under the maxim that three-fourths of the legislatures are sufficient unto the evil thereof.

The 1810 amendment was defeated at a time when four negatives could pull the plug. Is there any reason why it shouldn't be put up again?

'One for the Road' Should Be Coffee; Really the Sign of Good Host, Says Brady

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

In the Christmas-New Year holiday period last year 962 persons were killed in automobile accidents.

Alcohol was a contributing cause if not the main cause of a great many such accidents.

However, everybody, except perhaps families or dependents of innocent victims, strives to cover up for the guilty driver by declaring that he or she had taken only one or two drinks.

If you don't know it I'll tell you before we go any further that one of my numerous peeves is alcohol. In view of my attitude you may readily take a few drinks and brush my teachings or arguments aside.

The driver whose perception, judgment and reaction time are dulled or slowed by one of more drinks of alcoholic liquor (no one can deny that one dose of alcohol has such effects in every instance) is pampered and justified in his or her criminal negligence by the popular assumption that there is a dividing line between responsible sobriety and intoxication.

Thus the culprit, if apprehended, can generally get witnesses to testify that he or she may have had a drink or two but was not drunk.

And plenty of expert witnesses, for a fee, are prepared to testify that the amount of alcohol the defendant admits he or she had taken would not make him or her incapable of driving.

All right, now, let's forget (a) that you enjoy your glass and even feel it is good for you and (b) that I am a rabid teetotaler.

This is a free country—for that matter I'll buy you a drink if you have the courtesy not to comment or resent the fact that I do not choose to drink anything myself.

The scientific investigations of Drs. Strongin and Winsor of Cornell University have proved that coffee has considerable sobering effect, and the sobering effect is enhanced if the coffee is taken with plenty of sugar.

These effects of coffee have been commonly recognized for a long time.

A good host or hostess feels a sense of responsibility for the safety of guests at a party where alcoholic drinks are served, especially for the safety of guests on their way home from the party, and for this reason should make the final drink coffee.

Even tavern operators in Virginia, Maryland and District of Columbia have decided to exercise a decent responsibility for the safety of their customers during the Dec. 24-Jan. 1 period this year, thus:

1. Serve coffee to departing customers as "one for the road."

2. If the customer insists on an alcoholic drink as "one for the road," the price in the tavern will be the driver's car keys which he can redeem next day when he is in condition to drive safely.

If the tavern keepers follow through on this they will put to shame a good many hosts and hostesses who just don't care about anybody's welfare or happiness but their own.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed.

City Forester Faces Task

Educated Public Needed to Fight Dutch Elm Killer

By JEANNE LUDTKE

Of Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — Educating the public on control of Dutch elm disease, the tree killer which destroyed 26 of Birmingham's elms this summer, is one of the biggest tasks facing City Forester William Lebold.

Of the 26 struck down by fungus-spreading beetles which bore into elm bark and feed on cut and decaying elm wood, 22 were located east of Adams road. Only one case, the city's first, was found last year.

"The sooner people gain knowledge of what steps can be taken to save Birmingham's 15,000 to 16,000 elm trees, the sooner we can expect more help from them," Lebold stated. "Our trees are not only useful as shade trees," he said, "but add tremendously to property values."

Since there is no known cure for the disease, under state law affected trees must be removed within ten days after discovery. Elms within a quartermile radius of the dying trees are then much more susceptible to the disease, and spraying twice during the spring and summer season is the best preventive measure that can be taken, Lebold said.

"Another preventive step is making sure that all cut or dying elm wood is burned, rather than left in a heap in the back yard," Lebold said. "This is a serious problem, facing not only Birmingham but the entire area. We can't just talk about it anymore—people must put forth a little money and effort if we're going to have good control."

Recently, at a joint meeting of foresters held to discuss Dutch elm, a panel of experts pointed out that the best way to combat the disease will be through joint action taken by communities.

Working with Michigan State College, the bureau of plant quarantine and inspection under the State Department of Agriculture has laboratories there for testing samples suspected of carrying the disease. Trained personnel also make inspection tours to aid in identifying the infected trees. These facilities are available to all.

But Lebold said the bureau has limited funds and personnel and the panel urged that communities and individuals get in touch with their state representatives, in turn urging them to work on earmarking more funds for the Department of Agriculture to expand its work with the disease.

MILFORD, Conn. (UP) Perhaps it was only a coincidence but the vote by which the Milford board of education allowed a school teacher time off to get married was six to four. The board is composed of six women and four men.

Enrollment 70, School Has 52-Piece Band

CHICAGO (UP)—A big band from the smallest school ever represented is taking the most attention at the Midwest National Band Clinic this week.

It is the 52-piece high school band from Cresbard, S. D., a town of 218 population. The school has an average enrollment of 70 students.

The director, William E. Klitz, told how the tiny town, 40 miles southwest of Aberdeen, built up the band.

"It was the community spirit which made it possible," he said.

"When we started our music program eight years ago, all we had was a bass drum with a broken head. Today we have an inventory of $18,000 in music, equipment and instruments.

"This is our first out-of-state trip. We were invited to the Rose Bowl two years ago but couldn't go because we couldn't raise the $15,000 it would have cost.

"Then last year we were invited to appear at this clinic. We figured it would cost us about $6,000 to make the trip. That looked possible then. We are in the spring wheat area out there and the crop looked wonderful.

* * *

"But a week before harvest the rains came. We had rain for three weeks. Everything was flooded. After the rain ended black stem rust broke out. The crop was a failure. We were ready to kiss our trip goodby.

"And yet by Oct. 1 our chool program for the new term was set up and we decided to try to raise that $6,000. That is where the community came to our rescue.

"No tax money was used. But the Faulk Flying Club sponsored a benefit, the parents chipped in despite the crop failure and there were even a few donations from outside the community to make up the $6,000."

It is estimated there are 78 million motor vehicles in use throughout the world.

Discussion Held on Equal Rights

Waterford BPW Club to Give Crib, Mattress to Kenny Center

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—A panel discussion on the equal rights amendment highlighted the meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club at the CAI Building this week.

Hostesses for the meeting were the international relations and legislation committees.

At the business meeting, the club voted to donate a crib and foam rubber mattress to the Sister Kenny Polio Treatment Center at Farmington.

The group also voted to cancel the Program Night scheduled for Dec. 22.

It was announced that the Waterford and Keego Harbor clubs will entertain District One at the CAI Building Jan. 17.

Berkley Man Held After Traffic Crash

BERKLEY — Being held police prisoner in Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital, Detroit, is Arthur M. Cardoni, 39, of 1959 Cass who was involved in a traffic crash in Detroit yesterday.

Police said Cardoni's truck, traveling at high speed, struck a car driven by Mrs. Mary Jane Firth, 57, of Detroit. She is in critical condition in the same hospital.

Her car rolled over four times after being hit.

After striking the rear of Mrs. Firth's car, police said, Cardoni's vehicle hurdled a curb into a park, turned around, crossed a residential street and finally stopped against the porch of a home.

They estimated his speed at the time of the collision as 45 mph.

Mount Bethel Group Holds Yule Dinner

HOLLY—Mount Bethel Extension Group Tuesday held its Christmas dinner at the home of Mrs. Harold Larson.

The members gave their gifts to veterans a the Herman Kiefer Hsopital in Detroit and to the Harry Irwin family of Waterford.

A Christmas workship lesson was also given at the meeting.

Leaders were Mrs. William Scramlin and Mrs. Lawrence Duncan.

Russet Mite a Major Threat

Insect Pest Sows Havoc Among Tomato Crops

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An insect pest which has worked its way across the United States in the past few years has become a major threat to tomato production, the Entomological Society of America was told yesterday.

This bug, the tomato russet mite, is a tough one because it can hide almost anywhere. It cannot be seen with the unaided eye. It can go without food for four days. It can live on several other plants between tomato crops. Its favorite over-wintering abodes are Jimson weeds, nightshade and petunia plants.

The russet mite has wiped out entire crops of some growers, said Dr. L. D. Anderson, of the University of California. Losses frequently have run 50 per cent or more, he added.

Ordinarily the bug does not attack the tomato fruit. It cuts into the tomato leaf or stem to get to the sap, which is its food. The cuts cause the plant tissue to crack and turn brown. The leaves fall off and the plant dies prematurely.

First found in California in 1940, the pest has spread with amazing rapidity. In 1952, Dr. Anderson reported, it turned up in 18 states from Nevada to Massachusetts and from Michigan to Georgia. It probably has obtained a foothold in other states also but has not yet been reported, he said.

Growers in the more northerly states have one advantage over the new pest which the warmer regions do not have. The bug cannot survive freezing temperatures. A single spraying or dusting in the northern areas will dispose of the pest for an entire season.

However, it can return from the warmer southern areas the following season with blitz speed, Dr. Anderson said.

David Belisle Post Signs 3 New Members

DRAYTON PLAINS — Three new members were signed by the David Belisle American Legion Post No. 1102 Auxiliary at a meeting Tuesday.

The three are Mrs. Bertha Evans, Mrs. Betty Pearsall and Mrs. Carry VanMarter.

Final plans for the donation of gifts to the township Goodfellows wer completed at the session.

On Dec. 19, the post and auxiliary will hold their Christmas party at the hall on Walton boulevard.

Each member will bring a 50-cent gift to exchange and parents will bring presents for their own children.

A program will follow the dinner and exchange. Further information is available by calling OR 3-0167.

Oxford Club Plans Annual Charity Ball

OXFORD—Plans are underway here for the Oxford Junior Womens Club annual charity ball.

The ball, which provides funds for contribution to several area charities and organizations, is scheduled for Dec. 26 at Oxford High School gym.

Among groups aided by the club are area convalescent homes, the cancer fund, tuberculosis funds, Red Cross blood program, and Camp Oakland.

Manito District Scouts to Hold Court of Honor

HOLLY—Boy Scouts representing several troops in the Manto district of the Clinton Valley Council will hold a court of honor Monday evening at 7:30 in the new elementary school here.

Claude McKinnon, district commissioner will be in charge. Between 25 and 30 scouts will receive awards.

The meeting is open to the general public. Several demonstrations of scout work will be made.

Farmington to Buy a New Fire Engine

FARMINGTON — The city has okayed a contract for the purchase of a new fire truck, and delivery is expected in about seven months, James Tennant, city manager, has announced.

The $14,000 contract was signed with Peter Pirsch and Sons, a Wisconsin firm. Delivery will be made through a local GMC dealer.

Funds for the purchase will come out of the contingent fund in the present budget along with a $12,000 surplus held over from the '52-53 budget.

HAPPINESS IS HERE—It really is, when you give this imported Italian calfskin bag with swagger double handle and top zipper. Saddle stitching outlines the frame and handle.

Pupils Give Yule Program for PTA

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A Christmas program, staged by grade school pupils, last night highlighted a Green School PTA meeting here.

Taking part in the program were second, third, fourth and fifth grade students. Fourth and fifth graders also displayed a transportation exhibit.

Also highlighting the affair, which about 100 persons attended, was community singing under the direction of Alex Clark.

Mrs. Mogens Klopp and her committee served refreshments and Mrs. Bert White was decorations chairman.

Novi to Honor Firemen With 25-Year Plaques

NOVI TOWNSHIP — Two members and one former member of the Novi Fire Department will receive 25-year plaques when members celebrate the organizations silver anniversary tomorrow night.

To be honored are Walter Tuck, recently retired chief, L. J. Putnam, and Erwin Martin. Tuck was the department's first chief of the 13-man volunteer group.

According to Glen Salow, new chief, the affair, which will feature dancing and refreshments, will begin at 9. The public is invited.

Christmas Concert Set for Monday at Holly High

HOLLY — A Christmas concert will be given Monday evening at eight o'clock by the vocal music department of Holly Area high school in the auditorium.

It will be under the direction of Mrs. Paul Davis, and will feature Christmas carols and other selections. The general public is invited.

Townships Plan Weekend Drives

West Bloomfield and Waterford Volunteers to Hawk Papers Saturday

Amateur newsies in more than a dozen area communities will take to street corners this weekend, hawking Goodfellow editions to make certain there will be "No family without a Christmas."

With that Goodfellow motto in mind, volunteers in Farmington, Clarencefille and Novi will lead off the sales today. An $1,800 quota has been set for the three-area combined drive.

Beginning at 6 a. m. tomorrow, firemen, Rotary, Exchange and Lions Club members along with other volunteer salesmen will man Waterford Township intersections to sell the special editions. Twenty-five to 30 men are expected to take part.

The $450 made via sales last year by Lions Club Goodfellows in Lake Orion is expected to be topped tomorrow, with the recruiting of additional salesmen this year.

The goodwill papers will be sold at five intersections in West Bloomfield Township tomorrow. Assisting township firemen will be other fire fighters from the Westacres and Walnut Lake stations.

Members of the Keego Harbor Chamber of Commerce, Township Board members, Kiwanians and Township, Orchard Lake Village and Sylvan City policemen, are also set for duty.

Volunteer firemen from Union Lake will conduct their sale in the Cooley-Union Lake shopping area tomorrow.

Other charity editions will be on sale tomorrow in Clarkston and Commerce Township. Clarkston Rotarians will head the drive in that area, while 30 volunteers are due to participate in the Commerce activities.

Lions Club Goodfellows in Oxford will also be hustling papers tomorrow.

Needy families in all these communities and in others where Goodfellow sales were held last week will be delivered baskets loaded with groceries and toys for the Christmas holiday.

Extension Group Has Christmas Party

DRAYTON PLAINS — Friendly Neighbors Extension Group met for a Christmas party and cooperative luncheon at the home of Mrs. Frank W. Kuhn.

After a short business meeting the group voted to donate $10 to the muscular distrophy fund drive and mapped plans to fill a gift food basket for a needy family.

A Christmas musical program, featuring boys and girls from the high school, ended the meeting.

The club's January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. D. E. Chelin on Edgevale drive, Drayton Woods.

Blitz Gave Him First Reputation

Used 'This Is . . . London' and Carries Phrase Into Present Day Programs

NEW YORK—Edward R. Murrow, born at Greensboro, N. C., April 25, 1908, is a "mixture of English, Scotch, Irish and German."

Youngest of three boys. Oldest, Dewey, is a Spokane contractor. Other, Lacey, is an Air Force brigadier general.

Father was a Greensboro farmer. "My father," Murrow says, "does not go so far as to say that there's something dishonest about a man making a living merely by talking. But he does think there's something doubtful about it."

Attended Blanchard grade school from 1914 to 1922, and Edison, Wash. High School from 1922 tto 1926.

Went to Washington State College at Pullman, Wash., where he was graduated Phi Beta Kappa in 1930 with B.A. degree (majors: history and speech).

Met Janet Huntington Brewster in 1932 on a train bound for New Orleans, where a National Student Federation meeting was scheduled. She was representing Mount Holyoke, her alma mater. They were married Oct. 27, 1934, in the bride's home town, Middletown, Conn. Son, Charles Casey, was born Nov. 6, 1945, in London.

Became European director for CBS in 1937. "The most important decision of my life," he says, "happened in New Orleans in 1937.

"I was down there as Director of Talks for CBS, attending the annual meeting of the National Education Associatiton when I received a call from a Columbia executive asking me if I wanted to go to Europe. That New Orleans decision gave me an opportunity to be in a front row seat for some of the greatest news events in history."

Phrase "This . . . is" evolved as a Murrow trademark during the blitz with his famous "This Is London" broadcasts (published as a book in summer of 1941).

Ida Lou Anderson, his speech teacher at Washington State, listened regularly, suggested greater emphasis placed on word "This." Since then there have been "This is the news" (introduction to the CBS Radio program), and "This I Believe" (the CBS Radio program and best-selling book).

Personal

Height, 6'1". Weight: 175. Eyes, hair: Brown.

Hobbies are golf and shooting. Holds clubs lefthanded. Doesn't like swimming.

Son Casey appeared on radio show several times at Christmas season, but not since he began school.

Calls wife Janet "Kuchen" (German for "cook").

Plays a good game of darts, learned in London.

Has photo of Carl Sandburg on office wall, inscribed: "To Ed Murrow, reporter, historian, inquirer, actor, ponderer, seeker."

Fast man at the wheel, Elmer Davis said in London: "I had heard of the horrors of war, but I didn't know they included Ed Murrow's driving."

Dislikes overheated rooms.

Likes tall tales, poker.

Clubs: Saville, London and Century, N. Y.

On his profession: "I try to be a reporter. A commentator is a kind of oracle, and I am never so sure I'm right."

EDWARD R. MURROW SPEAKING—The versatile gentleman of television and radio, Edward R. Murrow, has often been called one of the greatest newscasters of our time. Through television's magic, Murrow his brought varied programs into the home, such as "See It Now" on video and "This I Believe" on radio.

Designer Claims Style Setters Let Small Fry Down

NEW YORK (UP) — Now it's a fashion designer instead of educators and social workers worrying about neglect of children. Helen Lee, mother of three, says clothing manufacturers have been letting the small fry down for years.

Only recently, she says, have the fashion people made any effort to dress small girls in something other than ruffles and pastels.

The designer, a native of Knoxville, Tenn., has been making children's clothes for 25 years. For her pioneering in production of more sophisticated apparel, she was one of three winners of this year's American Fashion Critics Award.

"I believe fimly in a dress a girl can put on, button up, and forget about," she said. "I loathe clothes which aren't utilitarian. But for years mothers have washed and ironed pinks, blues, yellows and whites. Plus ruffles and tucks. I don't know where they ever found the time or energy."

More practical, she believes, are charcoal grays, and black.

"I spice the dark colors up with the bright reds, oranges and such," she said. "But little girls love black."

The designer, affiliated with a concern (Youngland) which does an $8,000,000 annual business in girls' dresses, prefers to design for the three to seven age group.

"By the time they're 10 or 12," she said, "their shape has changed . . . they've lost everything and gained nothing."

Although there is no definite proof of its age, there is a turtle on St. Helena Island which inhabitants of the island say is 178 years old.

U. S. May Move Far East GHQ

Shifting From Tokyo to Okinawa Would Help Japanese Relations

TOKYO (UP)—The United States may move its Far East military headquarters from Tokyo to Okinawa, it has been learned from reliable sources.

The matter has been discussed and now is receiving serious consideration.

There are several reasons for making the move, but one very important factor is to improve U. S.-Japanese relations.

U. S. Ambassador John Allison is diplomatically quiet on the point, but some lesser State Department officials make no secret of their desire to see the transfer take place as soon as possible.

With the Korean armistice signed and with Japan no longer serving as the big staging base for a hot war, many persons argue there is no need for keeping the United Nations Command here. There have been rumors that it would move to Korea.

With Japan again a sovereign nation and with the Korean War stopped, many persons say there is no real reason for the U. S. Far East Command to remain here. American-held and strongly fortified Okinawa is most frequently named as the most logical place for it.

Because of the unavoidable friction between foreign troops and the Japanese, State Department officials would like to see American troops in Japan limited to those serving here as security forces.

They are here by treaty with Japan—here at Japan's request to protect this island nation until Japanese security forces can handle the job alone.

Considered as a whole, relations between American troops and the Japanese people have been good. Most of the trouble has resulted from the behavior of troops from Korea here for short leaves.

And there is another point. Many Japanese dislike the idea of their nation being used as a base of operation by foreign troops engaged in duties elsewhere.

"The basic idea," one State Department official said, "is to eliminate as many American military establishments here as we can and keep only those which have a mission to accomplish in the direct interest of Japan."

Since the end of World War II, the United States has spent millions of dollars building up Okinawa. Construction work of all types still is being pushed.

Once Okinawa was so terrible that nobody wanted to serve there. Today conditions are greatly improved. American dollars have practically remade the island.

The earth contans about 197 million square miles.

Shortened Skirts Bring Business to Hairdressers?

EDINBURGH (INS) — The too-thin, too-fat and too-bandy legs exposed by the new shorter skirts are expected to bring more business to Britain's hairdressers.

The head of the Incorporated Guild of Hairdressers, A. H. Turner, told the Guild's annunal conference that there was no remedy for imperfect legs except concealment but hairdressers could convince customers that the eye could be distracted by a beautiful hair style.

"Take your cue from the trend of fashion in clothes," declared Turner, "and realize what the lady who follows fashion in skirt-length and regrettably reveals her not-too-lovely lower limbs may gladly wish to avail herself of a distracting hair-style."

Turner contended that legs have been unfashionable for some years.

"However," he added, "we will probably be seeing more of them in the near future, and there will be thin, fat, and bandy legs as well as those which have been known to stop traffic."

The hairdresser's task was defined by Turner as persuading women to have more beautiful hair styles to distract the male eye "from those limbs which short skirts will reveal as too fat or too thin."

Hairdressers, claimed Turner, sold beauty to a greater degree than any other trade. Hairdressing offered, he said, the greatest aid to feminine charm and helped out where nature had been absent-minded or niggardly in her gifts.

British women already spend nearly 40 million dollars a year in hairdressing establishments. What concerns hairdressers, however, is that this sum is divided among 13,500 establishments for an average sales figure of under $3,000.

Church Group Will Try Golden Rule Experiment

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—At the suggestion of the Rev. William Hainsworth at least 40 members of his church will begin Jan. 1 a 30-day attempt to live literally by the Golden Rule. They will be asked to testify on their experiences at the end of the 30 days.

He's Bothered by Taxes but Adds More Trouble

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—Police found Willie Jones, 42, hiding in a stairwell of a store. When they asked why he'd broken in, he told them: "I'm in trouble with the government because of income tax and I was trying to get some money to pay it off."

Honest Taxpayer Gives $5 to County Treasurer

McPHERSON, Kan. (AP)—A woman walked into the office of County Treasurer V. E. Swain and placed a $5 bill on the counter.

"The assessors missed me," she explained, "and the $5 is my share of the county taxes."

The conscientious taxpayer refused to give her name.

To keep his records straight, Swain made out a $5 assessment on "Mrs. John Doe" and put the money in the county's general fund.

Stolen Papers Located in Woods Near Jackson

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—A briefcase containing confidential material on jet aircraft and rockets, reported stolen from the automobile of Donald D. Cross, was recovered yesterday in a wooded area west of Jackson. The contents were intact.

Cross is Jackson area representative for Curtiss-Wright Aircraft Co. of Paterson, N. J.

Current Speeds Ships Well Off Jersey Coast

ITHACA, N. Y. (UP) — Ships traveling south along the New Jersey coast can make better time if they keep well off-shore, Cornell research scientists have found.

They said a series of eddies close to the coast from Long Island south keeps southbound ships in the area frequently running against the current. Father out, they said, the vessels can run with the prevailing southwesterly coastal current.

Wife on Shopping Orgy, Hubby on Drinking Orgy

DETROIT (AP)—John Vlaikov, 64, charged with drunken driving, testified that he went on a spree after his 70-year-old wife Theresa went on a shopping binge and bought 35 hats and 40 dresses.

Traffic Judge John D. Watts sentenced him to 30 days.

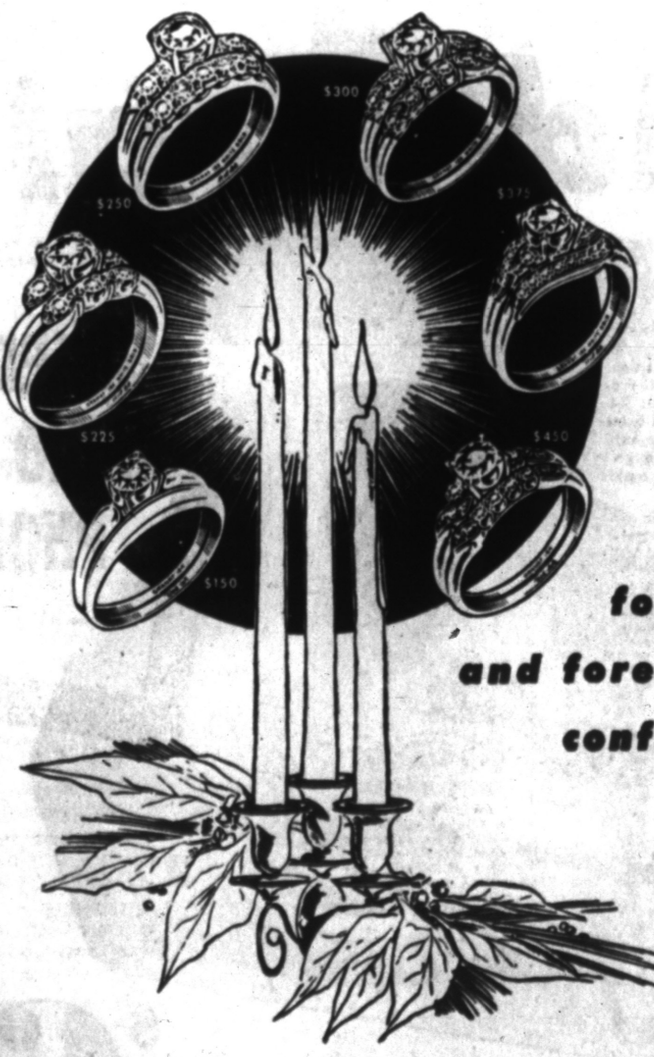

Mrs. Vlaikov accompanied her husband to court — wearing a babushka.

Mom Deserving of Appreciation

Family Advised to Treat Her Like Glamour Girl Instead of Drudge

NEW YORK (UP) — The best Christmas gift the family can give Mom is to start treating her like a glamour girl instead of a drudge, says one consumer service consultant.

Mrs. Clara Snyder, a peppery little woman who's been dealing with homemakers and their problems for 20 years, explained that the work of the housewife is just as full of glamour as that of any other job.

"And, preparing three meals a day calls for as much creativeness as if she were painting a picture," Mrs. Snyder continued.

"If a woman considers housework dull, it isn't her fault. Everyone from the husband and kids to the nation's manufacturers is to blame.

"Home-making is an art, but the whole pitch used by manufacturers and advertisers is, 'take the drudgery out of housework.'

"By the time a woman hears herself called a drudge at every turn, she begins to believe the propaganda."

Mrs. Snyder, consumer service consultant, fairly beams with her own love of housework.

"There's nothing lovelier than fresh green vegetables," she said. "And did you ever see anything glisten like cake batter?"

Mrs. Snyder would start the glamourizing by changing the attitude of husbands and children.

"Let Mom turn out a tasty meal and it's gobbled up without a single compliment from the family," she said. "But let the breakfast toast be burned, and boy, do you hear the gripes!

"Mom should be appreciated first of all by her family."

The home economist also sounded off against some of the nutritionists and their effect on homemaking.

"Some of us so-called experts just confuse the cook," she said. "Take dieting. One day the woman is told if she wants to lose weight she should eat any food she wants — but less of it. Next day she's advised to go on a low fat, high protein diet. And the next day, something else."

Not that Mrs. Snyder is opposed to science dabbling in food.

"The nutrition field is an ever expanding one, and rightfully so," she continued. "But I lose patience with those who try to make us conform to a rigid pattern of eating."

Hint New Action on Jordan Issue

Report Big 3 Will Urge U. N. Ask Israel to Halt Disputed River Project

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The Western Big Three were reported readying a call for the U.N. Security Council today to ask Israel to hold off work on her disputed Jordan River project until she settles the issue with her Arab neighbors.

The 11-nation council was to resume debate today on Syria's charge that Israel is threatening peace in the Middle East by plans to shift some seven miles of the Jordan River to a canal largely in Israeli territory which would power an Israeli hydroelectric plant.

• • •

A source close to the Western Powers said the reported resolution would give force to the request by the U. N. truce supervisor, Danish Maj. Gen. Vahn Bennike, that Israel stop work in the project until both parties to the Israeli-Syrian armistice agreement reach some settlement.

• • •

This source said Britain, France and the United States had worked out a formula designed to bring the touchy issue to solution with as little friction as possible. He said it softened Arab demands that the Israeli project be frozen indefinitely and at the same time sought more flexibility from Israel, which has agreed only to stop work while the council considers the Syrian complaint.

Unloved Giraffe Dies in Frisco of Broken Heart

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Muggins, the unloved giraffe of the San Francisco Zoo, died yesterday at the age of 16—victim of a broken heart.

Muggins came to the zoo in 1937 as a gangling infant, a gift of the late publisher William Randolph Hearst. He grew to a towering 16 feet and 450 pounds.

But he never found love. When he made tentative advances to Zoobelle, her mate Raffe chased him off.

Muggins seemed to brood on silent walks around his enclosure.

Three years ago, Raffe died. Muggins perked up. But the widow not only scorned him, she chased him off.

Yesterday, he was found dead.

An autopsy confirmed the broken heart diagnosis.

Muggins' heart had been pierced by a piece of wire he apparently swallowed.

Puerto Rico's annual imports are valued at about 400 million dollars and exports at about 250 million dollars.

Claims U. S. Needs Better Salesmen

NEW YORK (INS)—One of the nation's top sales executives claims that the stage is set for a great "selling" era, but there is a tremendous shortage of competent sales people to capitalize on it.

A. vander Zee, vice president in charge of sales for the Chrysler Corp., says America needs 60,000 more salesmen.

In a recent magazine article, Vander Zee notes that young people today think of the "noisy supersalesman" as the ideal, and he emphasizes that "nothing could be further from the truth."

It is not aptitude, but attitude, Vander Zee says, together with "more interest in a chance to grow and develop than in mere security."

Diamonds Important if You Wear Specs

GENEVA, N. Y. (UP) — Diamonds are a girl's best friend, if she wears glasses. A man's, too, for that matter. Small diamond wheels, worth up to $250, are used by the optical industry to grind eyewear lenses to a greater accuracy than ever possible before.

They are so scarce, they have to be ordered four years in advance. A government order limits manufacturers to a 60-day supply.

Pontiac Area Employment Picks Up, Holding Steady

Pontiac area employment increased 300 in the 30 days preceding Nov. 15, according to Luther C. Olson, manager of the Michigan Employment Security Commission office here.

Local motor vehicle plants added 500 workers, while metal plants and the machinery industry each cut 100 employes. Non-manufacturing employment held steady.

Model changeovers in automaking plants idled 10,000 workers after mid-November, but by Dec. 1 they were recalled to their jobs.

Completion of model changes increased demand for unskilled and semi-skilled workers and job openings are now expanding, Olson said. A strong demand for skilled metal trades journeymen continues.

Retail stores are hiring temporary sales clerks for the holiday selling season, according to Olson, while qualified office workers, particularly stenographers and bookkeepers, also are needed.

Labor force estimates show unemployment at 3.9 per cent of the total 85,700 workers in the area comprising all of Oakland County north of 14 Mile road, said Olson.

The labor force includes farm labor, the self-employed, wage and salary workers.

The largest category of workers includes 71,900 wage and salary employes. Workers engaged in manufacturing industries total 43,700, with 32,300 of these in the auto and auto parts making field. Employes in non-manufacturing industries total 28,200.

Olson's monthly forecast indicates an expansion of 800 in manufacturing employment by mid-January. Most of the increase will occur in motor vehicle plants now beginning production of 1954 models, he said.

Olson foresees normal seasonal changes in non-manufacturing fields during the next two months.

Retail trade outlets will add several hundred employes for the holiday rush, he said, which construction companies will reduce employment.

Labor supply estimates at mid-November show unemployment at 3,300.

In November, unemployment insurance payments by the Pontiac office totaled $139,720, compared with $114,955 in October and $104,564 in September.

Pusan Mayor Resigns

PUSAN, Korea (AP)—Son Yung Soo resigned today as mayor of Pusan to demonstrate his "serious regret" for a fire which destroyed one sixth of this port city Nov. 27.

The City Council will name a mayor Wednesday, and Son was expected to get the job again.

Blast Follows Wedding

WATERBURY, Conn. (UP) — Richard McCaul began married life with a bang. Opening the door to his new home after the wedding ceremony, he was greeted by an explosion of accumulated gas touched off by his cigarette. His hands and arms were burned and the house was badly damaged.

1,500 Dem Leaders Meet in Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Some 1,500 top-drawer Democratic party leaders arrive today for a round of dinners and conferences designed to step up party enthusiasm for the 1954 congressional elections and to bite another chunk off the party's financial deficit.

Party leaders hope to raise at least $100,000 to apply to the debt incurred during the 1952 presidential campaign.

The conference will end Saturday night with a major address at a $100-a-plate dinner by Adlai Stevenson, party presidential candidate, over a nationwide radio and television hookup. Stevenson is scheduled to arrive late today and to hold a press conference soon afterwards.

The conference is composed primarily of party leaders from the 11 Eastern Seaboard states and the District of Columbia, with problems in these states expected to get a thorough airing behind closed doors.

Pravda Blasts Ike With Foreign Press

MOSCOW (AP) — The Communist party newspaper Pravda today published derogatory foreign press comment on President Eisenhowers' atomic speech before the United Nations. Pravda itself still had no definite comment.

The comments from abroad labeled the speech propaganda and demanded that the United States agree to the Soviet plan of atomic control which calls for nations to outlaw atomic warfare first, and then set up controls.

Pravda yesterday published an 800-word summary of Eisenhower's speech which proposed that atomic powers pool fissionable materials and know-how under the aegis of the United Nations for peaceful development.

The newspaper devoted much space today to the Big Three Bermuda conference. It said the conference proved a flop which "only exposed the deep differences existing between the United States, Britain and France."

Ike and Aides Preparing '54 Legislative Program

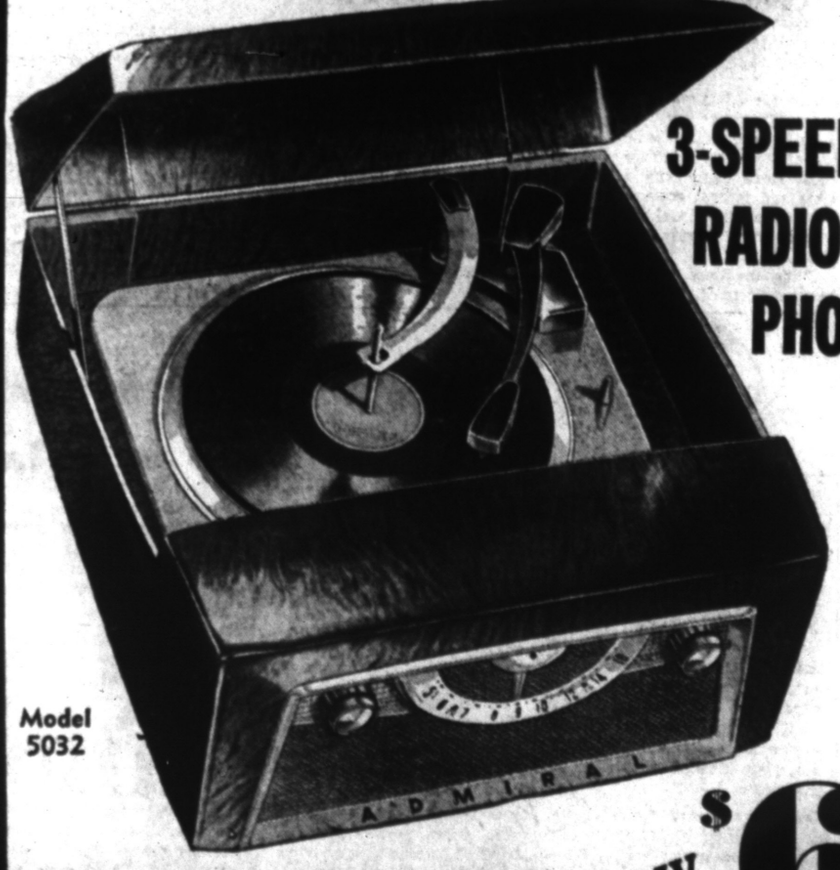

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and his top aides are stepping up work on the 1954 legislative program he will outline to Congress in his State of the Union message early next month.

The Cabinet, which held an extraordinary session on the program Wednesday, goes over it again with Eisenhower today and takes it up a third time at a special session next Tuesday.

THE PONTIAC PRESS

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1953 PONTIAC, MICHIGAN THIRTEEN

(1) "A VISIT FROM ST. NICHOLAS" has delighted children of all ages for over 130 years. But it was not even dreamed of by Clement Clarke Moore, Episcopal divinity student, as he labored over his weighty "Compendium of the Hebrew Language" at the dawn of the 19th Century. The Christmas classic came into being one sparkling winter night at Christmastime, 1822.

Moore, then professor of biblical learning at New York General Theological Seminary, was driving his present-laden sleigh homeward. Jingling sleigh bells set him in a rhyming mood, and memory of a jolly, rotund Dutch neighbor provided the inspiration for the description of Santa Claus.

(2) DASHING TO HIS DESK upon arrival home, Dr. Moore began to write, "'Twas the night before Christmas . . ." First children to enjoy the magic verses were his two elder daughters, Margaret, 7, and Charity, 6, as he read the inspired poem to his family, gathered around the hearth. For the first time, the tiny sleigh and eight miniature reindeer landed on a rooftop in the enchanted world of childhood.

Present at the reading was a Miss Harriet Butler, daughter of the Episcopal rector of St. Paul Church, Troy, N. Y. She copied the verses and sent them, anonymously, to the editor of the Troy Sentinel.

(3) THE POEM first appeared in print on Dec. 23, 1823. Dr. Moore is said to have been annoyed at this publication, claiming the verse a frivolous bit of work. In 1837, "A Visit From St. Nicholas" first appeared over his name.

Dr. Moore included it in a volume of his lighter verse published in 1844. Reprinted each Christmas for over 100 years, the magic words have been translated into many languages and bring the wonder of Christmas to blind children through the Braille editions.

(4) FOR 35 YEARS, children who attend the Chapel of the Intercession, 155th St. and Broadway, New York, have paid tribute to the beloved author of childhood's Christmas classic. On Christmas Eve they gather in the chapel to hear the ever-new story of the Nativity. After prayers, "A Visit From St. Nicholas" is read, and traffic on Broadway is halted as the lantern-bearing congregation proceeds to nearby Trinity Church Cemetery to place a wreath on Clement Clarke Moore's grave.

Judge Decides Not to Be Soft

Is Sometimes Tempted but 'Doesn't Believe in Punishing Innocent'

By BILLY ROSE

At a dinner party the other night, I sat next to a municipal court judge who has a reputation for "throwing the book" at the petty criminals who come up before him.

BILLY ROSE

"Isn't your judgment sometimes swayed by the circumstances which lead a man to commit a crime?" I said.

"Almost never," said Hizzonner. "I don't believe in punishing innocent people."

"Who said anything about punishing the innocent?"

"You did," said the judge. "You see, if I don't punish a thief because of the circumstances which prompted him to steal, I'd be indirectly punishing all the people who put up with the same circumstances but who resisted the temptation to steal."

"I never thought of it that way," I said.

As the judge told it, the culprit—let's call him Harry Smith—walked into a toy shop on the east side recently and asked to see a teddy bear which was on display in the window. It was one of those three-foot jobs, with real fur, which growl when you poke them in the middle. It was priced at $29.50.

"I'll take it," said Smith to the salesman, "but I can only give you a dollar on account. I'll try to pay the balance next week."

"I'm sorry," said the salesman. "We only sell for cash."

Smith turned as if to go, then suddenly grabbed the bear, ran out of the store with it, and lost himself in the crowd.

Well, it wasn't hard to track down a man with a three-foot bear in his arms, and an hour later a policeman arrested him in the tenement house in which he lived.

Smith was coming down the stairs with the bear when the pinch was made, and tearfully claimed it was all a mistake—he was on his way back to the shop to return it. The patrolman, of course, had no choice but to take him in and book him.

When the case came up in court the following day, the charge was petty larceny—the law, it seems, makes no distinction between a man who steals $29.50 in cash and one who steals a $29.50 toy.

Smith said he was out of work and down to his last dollar, his 4-year-old daughter was seriously ill, and she kept talking about a teddy bear she had seen in the shop window.

The distracted father, figuring it might help his kid get well, had decided to get her the toy, one way or another.

When Smith had finished his story, the proprietor of the toy shop, dabbing at his eyes with a hanky, stepped forward and said he would like to withdraw the complaint. . . .

"I was, of course, tempted to forget the whole thing," said the judge. "Nevertheless, in fairness to fathers who don't go around stealing teddy bears, I had to do something. So I put Smith on probation for six months.

"This decision, if anything, made Smith look more unhappy.

" 'Your honor,' he told me, 'you might as well lock me up. I never seem to do anything right'.

"When I asked him what he meant, he said he hadn't been fooling when he told the policeman he was on his way back to the shop with the bear.

"What had happened was this: When he handed the three-foot bear to his daughter, its size almost frightened her to death. She thought it was a real animal, and began to cry hysterically.

"Her crying only stopped when her dad promised to take the bear right back where it came from.

"Smith had good reason to feel disgusted with himself," Hizzonner concluded. "The toy his child had seen in the window—the one she really wanted—was a tiny bear with a red ribbon around its neck. There was no reason for the father to steal it. Its price was the amount he had in his pocket—one dollar."

Unveil Portrait of Dr. Wagley

Special Ceremony Pays Tribute to Late State Hospital Head

An oil portrait of the late Dr. Perry V. Wagley, superintendent of Pontiac State Hospital for 18 years, was unveiled in a special ceremony Thursday night.

Some 150 hospital employes, representatives of other state institutions, relatives and friends turned out for the program in the hospital auditorium.

The Rev. C. George Widdifield, rector of All Saints Episcopal Church, gave the invocation.

Speakers, who told of Dr. Wagley's work in and out of the hospital, included Frank J. DuFrain, superintendent of Pontiac Public Schools, for Pontiac Kiwanis Club; Dr. Harold A. Furlong, Oakland County Medical Society; and Dr. O. R. Yoder, Ypsilanti State Hospital superintendent.

Dr. Harry E. August, chairman of Michigan Mental Health Commission, said Dr. Wagley "was one of the best, if not the best, superintendents Michigan had, a really outstanding superintendent."

M. E. Hudnell, president of Pontiac State Hospital Employes Club, unveiled the portrait. The painting, done by Gunnar George and paid for by donations from hospital employes, will hang in the main lobby.

They Told Everybody —Except Themselves

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb. (UP) — A crew of state highway maintenance men who were painting new stripes down the middle of the highway went to a great deal of trouble to protect the wet paint.

They handed out printed forms, explaining the reason for traffic delay. Small red flags were placed every 50 feet along the center stripe. Flags, flashers and signs were displayed by other workmen guiding traffic.

The Plattsmouth Journal reported later that the only vehicles that messed up the paint were two State Highway Department trucks.

Cooperation Stressed

City Commissioners Tell Highlights of Conference

Six Pontiac city commissioners, who attended last week's American Municipal Association Conference in New Orleans, said the emphasis placed on federal, state and local relations highlighted the affair.

The commissioners were impressed by a meeting with a congressional committee in intergovernmental relations, stressing need for adjustment in relations between the various governmental units.

Commissioner Paul A. Kern said, "I have attended five of these conventions and have noticed a definite trend in the talk away from the New Deal philosophy and federal intervention in city business. I noticed this particularly in talks where public housing was discussed."

The mayor of St. Paul, Minn., a city which has had a large public housing program, gave reasons why he was no longer in favor of such development, Kern said.

According to Kern, the St. Paul mayor said public housing often is supported by groups interested only in attracting votes.

Further, Kern related, the speaker felt such developments were hard to manage because of political implications involved with each tenant.

An example, Kern said, is a family whose income has risen above the accepted limit in a low-cost housing development. Because of the political consequences involved, everyone is afraid to press eviction, he said.

Commissioners Harold W. Dudley and Ronald C. Hallenbeck said they were impressed by need for more cooperation between cities and other units in certain fields.

"A great many projects are of more than just city concern, such as civil defense," said Dudley. "If Pontiac is in a critical zone and contains essential industries, then it's to the advantage of the whole country to protect it."

Hallenbeck said, "we're having to carry the civil defense load almost alone, with little help from state and federal government. It's hard to convince local citizens they should spend money, when other units don't."

Citing the need for cooperation between units of government, Dudley said, "while many disagreements arise between city, state and local federal government, still a spirit of cooperation prevails and good comes from sharing of ideas between mayors, councilmen and federal legislators."

Commissioner J. H. Patrick Glynn said he was impressed by the discussion of the need for review of policies determining allocation of federal funds.

"The shift in population from rural areas to the city has placed a great burden on municipalities in providing facilities needed to accommodate these people.

"It was pointed out that cities have had to provide the extra housing, road construction and recreation facilities with little federal aid, while many rural areas get money for less needed projects.

"I'd like to see direct federal allocations to cities to help them complete needed projects, said Glynn.

Commissioner Benjamin M. Gates said he was particularly interested in studying the railroad grade separation program being carried on by New Orleans.

"That city is perfecting a system of grade separations allowing traffic to move without becoming tangled with railroad operations," Gates said. "I think something of that nature will have to be developed in Pontiac in the future."

Gates concurred with sentiments expressed by the other commissioners, saying, "The interchange of ideas at the conference was very stimulating and I want to thank Pontiac citizens for making the trip possible."

Mayor Arthur J. Law felt too hasty changes in laws governing the division of powers between units might result in serious mistakes.

"The trend in the talk wasn't a complete acceptance of a move away from control from the national capital, but more in favor of a clearer definition of each unit's responsibilities," Law said.

"But all agreed that because of the growth in industries, highways and other related fields, the federal government must exercise a great responsibility."

Commissioner Dr. Roy V. Cooley was unable to attend the conference.

Many Problems Faced by Israel

Capt. Donald W. Vollett Describes New Nation as He Saw It

Progress in Israel, attended by many unsolved problems, was described here today by Air Force Capt. Donald W. Vollett of 1274 Brambles Dr., Cass Lake.

VOLLETT

Vollett was assistant air-attache with the American Embassy in Tel Aviv for 14 months through October of this year. He arrived in Pontiac Monday night.

"Israel has a tremendous building program, but quite a few people still live in tents and small shacks.

"American Point Four aid, $26,000,000 so far this fiscal year, is administered by American directors for road, railroad and housing construction, among other things."

A great deal of unemployment exists, said Capt. Vollett, and the number of persons leaving the country has exceeded the number of immigrants recently.

"Tension between the Arabs and Israel will be a factor for some time," the captain said. Some 700,000 to 900,000 Arabs who formerly lived in Israel are camped along the border marked only by an occasional pile of white stones, stated Capt. Vollett.

"Conflicts don't arise between armies, but between individuals," he explained. "There's nothing to stop persons from wandering across the border and naturally friction results."

Vollett said there were few Communists in Israel and very little Communist activity.

While stationed in Israel, Capt. Vollett escorted the chief of staff of the Israel Defense Force on a trip to the United States.

Vollett will report next week to Washington, D.C., where he is now attached to the Intelligence Division of the Military Air Transport Headquarters.

Victim Count Drops Sharply

239 Stricken in Year Compared to '52 Tally of 336 Persons

Oakland County came away from this year's battle with polio, with fewer scars than in 1952.

Dr. John D. Monroe, director of Oakland County Health Department, announced polio has claimed seven lives—one in Pontiac—since last Jan. 1.

Last year polio killed 20 county people.

The disease has stricken 239 men, women and children in Oakland County so far this year, leaving 86 with paralysis — but that total is well under 1952's tally of 336 victims, 95 of them paralyzed.

Pontiac, as a unit, also fared better at the hands of polio this year.

Thirty-seven city folks were stricken, 11 of them were left with paralysis, and one died. In 1952, Pontiac had 50 cases of polio, with 12 victims paralyzed and 5 dead.

Dr. Monroe said the County Health Department helped distribute gamma globulin this year to head off the paralytic effects of polio.

"We had only a limited supply of this blood derivative, though," he said. "We had to limit it to pregnant women and to children and young people under 30 years old who lived in households where we found a case of polio."

This year the county department has worked with the U.S. Public Health Service and the School of Public Health in Ann Arbor to find out how many members of a polio victim's household catch the polio virus—although their cases may be so light as to miss being diagnosed, ordinarily.

Special Mass Will Observe Founder's Day

Sisters of Mercy, who operate St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, will observe their order's origin with a special Founders' Day Mass Saturday.

The sisters also operate Mercy hospitals in Battle Creek, Ann Arbor, Detroit, Bay City, Cadillac, Manistee, Jackson, Grand Rapids and Lansing.

Their schools, colleges, institutions and other hospitals are scattered throughout several nations.

The order was founded in the 18th century by Katherine McAuley.

Born in Dublin Sept. 29, 1787, Miss McAuley was adopted as a child by a wealthy couple named Callahan after her parents died. The Callahans left her the entire family fortune.

Katherine McAuley worked among the needy in her own neighborhood as a girl, helping heal the sick and educate the children.

She later organized a group of 12 women who formed the first initiate of the Sisters of Mercy, sponsoring a "day school" for children, visiting prisons, hospitals and orphanages, and providing a home for the homeless.

The order thrived and expanded to most of the nations of the world. It numbers hundreds of thousands of women among its members today.

Author Says Youngsters Can Get Discipline Outside of Classrooms

John Chamberlain, former literary editor of the New York Times and author of "Farewell to Reform" and "The American Stakes," tells how sports can provide the discipline lacking in today's progressive education.

So Maurice Zolotow, the writer on Broadway topics who frequently contributes to this column, is worried about the impact of modern sugar-coated methods of education on his 8-year-old son, Stephen.

It's quite understandable that he should be afraid the present-day system of making everything easy in school will have a bad effect on the boy's character. Everything is so painless these days.

CHAMBERLAIN

Well, I used to worry about the same thing in connection with my two daughters, Elizabeth, 15, and Margaret 13. But no more. For there are ways of imparting ideas of discipline, of rigorous cause-and-effect procedure, without undertaking the Herculean preliminary task of overturning prevalent ideas of "progressive" education.

If discipline cannot be found in the classroom, there are plenty of extra-curricular disciplines lying around for the taking.

I first discovered this when my girls decided they wanted to be skaters. Getting out the old hockey skates—I hadn't used them in 15 years—I dutifully accompanied the kids on several trips to a rink in Washington, D. C. After they had rented skates for a couple of sessions, the girls insisted on blades of their own.

And they wanted figure skates, not the straight blades of my own fast receding youth.

At the beginning I thought this insistence on figure—or "fancy"—skates a matter of mere feminine aberration. Little did I realize the amount of exacting and sustained discipline the girls were to find in those curved figure blades.

It was only after getting a pair of figure blades for myself, and attempting to learn a few of the 72 possible combinations of edges and turns, that I came to understand that figure skating is a discipline that demands an accurate knowledge of the sciences of physics, physiology and geometry.

A curved blade in contact with ice cannot be controlled without a sound idea of the laws that govern plumb-lines and pendulums (the physics of balance), physiology (the integrated movement of muscles all over the body), and every sort of turn and variation that can be made along a generally circular path (geometry).

The kids have been at the exacting business of figure for some seven years now. They have also gone in for the related discipline of ballet (another rigorous thing), and for tennis (less rigorous, but still fairly demanding if you want to put a ball where it should go in the way it should go).

And, since they live in the country, they have become fair-to-middling horseback riders.

(It's a further contribution to discipline to carry water and hay at stated intervals each day to a couple of fractious animals.)

And so what? So Mr. Zolotow and his friends might ask.

So this: the habit of application, of watching and following instructors, of timing steps and jumps to music, of meeting the crises of tests and competitions, has carried over into book-learning and the acquisition of mental and moral disciplines.

Concentration on sequences of controlled movements in physical space is like any other sort of concentration; the knowledge of physical law contributes to the understanding of all law.

I wouldn't have believed it if I hadn't seen it happen. My girls will never be Sonja Henies on ice, or Markova on the dance stage, or Maureen Connollys on the tennis court. They haven't time for it, or the inclination to specialize.

But they have become better students of Latin and algebra and geometry than they would have been if they had relied only on grade-school teachers using modern make-it-easy methods. Discipline it turns out, is a cross-educative matter.

It would be better, of course, if some of the disciplinary strictness of a good skating instructor or classical dance teacher could be imparted in seventh grade arithmetic or "social studies." But, as Mr. Zolotow says, parents cannot wait these days on the schools; it takes a generation to change a prevailing philosophy of education. The best we can do at any given moment is to tackle specific problems in ways that are available.

I think I've found one way of solving Mr. Zolotow's problem, and I hope he can pass it along to his son Stephen. The boy doesn't have to dance or skate; he could achieve the same end if he were to take up rifle shooting (and go on to learn about ballistics), or become a radio ham (and absorb something of electronics).

Then it wouldn't matter very much whether his school teachers are "progressive" ninnies or stern believers in the 19th century virtues of "keeping school." He'd be learning how to control and direct his own movements and energies — and education would take care of itself.

Demands Court Hearing on Narcotics Charge

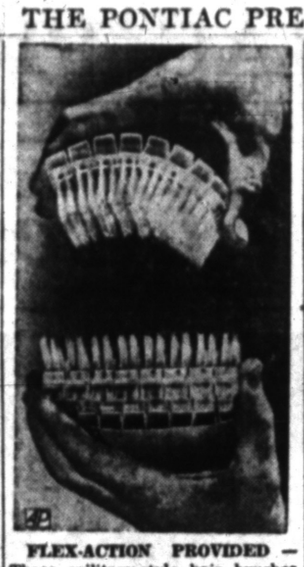

Floyd Hudson, 30, of 931 Alger St., Detroit, demanded examination on a possession of narcotics charge yesterday in Pontiac Municipal Court.

Judge Maurice E. Finnegan ordered Hudson held in Oakland County Jail when he failed to post a $1,000 bond, pending the examination Dec. 16. Pontiac Police said they found two capsules of heroin in Hudson's car.

Refuse Mother Korean Permit

Defense Brass Policy Doesn't Allow Relatives to See Red-GI Sons

TOKYO (AP)—The mother of an American war prisoner who stayed with the Communists learned today that she cannot visit Korea in an effort to persuade her son to return home.

Mrs. Portia Howe of Alden, Minn., arrived by plane and conferred privately with Gen. John E. Hull. The supreme Allied commander announced that he had been "obliged to refuse permission" to Mrs. Howe to visit Korea.

* * *

Mrs. Howe's son by a previous marriage, Pfc. Richard F. Tenneson, is among 22 Americans who did not return home last summer.

* * *

"I have the deepest sympathy for Mrs. Howe and the utmost respect for her desire to effect the return of her son to his own country" Gen. Hull said in a statement. "But in view of previously announced U. S. Department of Defense policy in relation of the prisoner of war question, I am not authorized to permit her entry into Korea to see her son."

Hull said the Defense Department policy announced Sept. 30 opposes the idea of relatives talking with the balky prisoners.

Mrs. Howe walked smiling from the plane and told reporters:

"All I want is to present my son with a picture of America that he grew up in and his religious training. I am here with a conviction that what I want to do is right. I am here with a faith in God and a knowledge that millions are praying for me."

Just before she left Washington for Tokyo, she said she is convinced her son is a "victim of brainwashing and needs help."

Flag Pole Ball Reveals Note on 1918 Politics

WEISER, Idaho (AP)—City employes decided yesterday to check on the oft-repeated story that there was a message inside the big aluminum ball atop the Weiser flag pole.

The pole was knocked down and broken in half by a truck about two months ago.

Employes who cracked the 18-inch ball open found a copy of the local newspaper, the Weiser Signal-American, dated 1918.

The late John Smith, the tinsmith who made the ball, had placed the newspaper there along with a pungent handwritten comment on the local politics of his time.

"Frank Harris has left the Democratic party and the party has now gone to hell."

Governor to Seek $361,000 for TB

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams plans to ask the 1954 legislature for $361,000 to conduct what he called "the most intensive effort ever made in Michigan to eradicate tuberculosis."

to premit the courts to commit to sanatoriusm tubercular persons who are a public health hazard and who refuse treatment.

Calling TB "Our most expsnsive public health problem," Williams said the disease costs Michigan $19,000,000 a year for treatment.

"This disease," he said, "will never be eradicated by merely treating those who have been so badly infected that they are already seriously sick. It can be stamped out only by preventing new cases. This means catching TB in its early stages, and isolating and curing the victims before they get a chance to spread the infection to others."

SANTA and the FLYING PUP

By LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

"Take him away! Take him away!" she sobbed.

SYNOPSIS: While Santa tries to figure out how he can help the Dreamlins rescue their queen from the Gremlins, Willie the pup takes a look around Santa Land. He sees Santa's reindeer practicing their flying and decides he will be a "flying pup."

Chapter Eight

HENRIETTA'S SEARCH

While Willie enjoyed himself in Santa Land Henrietta searched the city for her lost puppy.

At the very moment that Willie decided to become a flying pup, Henrietta put an advertisement in the newspaper. It said, "Lost: Brown and white puppy named Willie." And it gave Henrietta's address. But although the ad ran for three days no one ever found Willie.

Henrietta herself walked the streets and searched the alleys calling for Willie. When she wasn't hunting for her dog she sat on the steps of the little house where she lived and just waited.

"Someday he'll come home," she told herself. "Someday he'll come back to me. I know it."

Each night Henrietta woke up screaming, "Willie! Willie!" For it was a nightmare she had that Willie was run over or sick or hungry somewhere. And after she was really awake she would lie there for a long while and think about Willie.

Meanwhile, the family was heartbroken to see the little girl so grieved. The father blamed himself. Finally, he said, "I will buy her a new dog. A real fine pedigreed dog — the best that money can buy. Such a dog will make Henrietta forget all about Willie."

"But where will you get the money?" asked the mother.

The father was a wood chopper and he said, "I will chop more wood and earn more money."

The uncles and aunts worked in a cigar factory rolling cigars out of tobacco leaves. Now they said, "We will help you. We will roll more cigars and make more money to help buy a grand expensive champion of a dog."

The grandpapa was a seller of shoelaces and hairpins. He went from door to door selling these things for pennies. He said: "From now on I shall go to twice as many houses and make twice as much money so that I, too, can help to buy this wonderful animal."

The father and grandpapa and uncles and aunts already worked all the day long but now they worked at night, too. Very, very late, when they had come home at last, they would count the extra pennies they had earned.

While Henrietta slept they sat about the kitchen table and whispered about their plans. Then, when Henrietta woke up screaming, "Willie! Willie!" the old folks smiled and thought: "Just wait until she gets sight of a real champion dog. She won't be calling for Willie anymore."

Finally the day came when they had enough money and the father went to the finest pet store in the town and asked to see their finest dog. The clerk showed him a grand aristocrat of a dog sitting like a king in the store window. He was big and sleek and noble and cost $100.

The father had only $20. But he said, "I've got to have this dog. I'll pay you what I have and pay the rest a little each week.

"Besides that I will clean up your store every Sunday for nothing. The clerk said all right: but that way he would have to pay $110 instead of $100 for the dog. The father promised to do that.

Then he led the lordly dignified dog home. They were all waiting eagerly in the kitchen for him except Henrietta who was out searching for Willie as usual.

"What a royal looking animal!" exclaimed the family.

And indeed the dog was. He stared at them all proudly and there was never a quiver of his tail to show if he liked them.

"The child is coming!" whispered the father.

They heard Henrietta's slow steps crossing the porch. The door opened and the little girl came in. She stared in astonishment at the kingly dog who stood before her.

Suddenly Henrietta burst into tears. She turned and ran from the room. The father went after her.

"He's yours, child!" pleaded the father. "We bought him for you — the finest dog in town."

Henrietta threw herself in the father's arms. "Take him away! Take him away!" she sobbed. "This is Willie's house," wept Henrietta. "No one can ever take Willie's place!"

Judge Takes Daughter's License to Save Money

LINCOLN, Calif. (UP) When the daughter of Judge Edward Grey appeared in his court charged with a traffic violation, the judge sentenced her to $25 or a suspended license for 60 days.

"I'll pay the fine," the girl said.

"Hey, that'll come out of my pocket," the judge said.

So he lifted her license for 60 days.

Pike Hooked Twice, Only Caught Once

HARTLAND, Wis. (UP)—Here is a fish story that Robert Mehling swears is true.

Mehling was fishing with a cane pole and a night crawler on his hook with no luck. He switched to his casting rod and artificial lure and forgot about the cane pole.

A swirl of water showed a "big one" following the lure but instead of striking it disappeared. Suddenly, the cane pole bent double. Mehling seized it and the pole broke and half went underwater.

Mehling went back to the casting rod and seconds later the cane pole appeared on the surface under swift tow. The fish struck the lure and when Mehling finally landed a six-pound northern pike it was hooked on both the lure and the cane pole hook.

Children's Yule Party Planned for Saturday

A Christmas party for local youngsters, featuring a series of cartoons, a movie and free bags of candy, will be held Saturday at 9:30 a. m. in the state theater.

All boys and girls are invited to enjoy the program sponsored by the Pontiac Metropolitan Club.

Part of the proceeds of last Saturday's Goodfellow newspaper sale will be used to finance the party, according to John G. Morse, program chairman.

"There's plenty of space at the theater," said Morse, "and we plan to put on an entertaining show for youngsters who attend."

Court Collects $25 Fine From Dead Speeder

MILWAUKEE (UP) — Milwaukee Traffic Court collected a $25 speeding fine from a dead man. He was released on $25 bail. His speeding case was called next day. When he did not appear, the court ordered his bond forfeit as a fine as is customary.

The man was killed in a head-on collision.

Men and women entering the Army during the past year received an initial clothing issue costing $172.91 and $202.83, respectively. Each issue consisted of 31 different items.

FUTURE EDISON—The young inventor may be inspired by this book, "Our American Inventors," which includes colorful stamps to be pasted appropriately in text.

U. S. Envoy Hosts Akihito

TOKYO (UP)—Crown Prince Akihito was guest of honor last night at a dinner given by U. S. Ambassador John M. Allison at the American Embassy.

Weather Bureau Behind the Times

WASHINGTON (UP)—A special advisory committee says penny-pinching has the U. S. Weather Bureau operating on standards 20 to 40 years behind the times.

The special eight-man committee, appointed last July, reported yesterday to Secretary of Commerce Weeks that, not counting military facilities, the United States spends 18 cents per person a year on weather services.

Russia, it said, spends 47 cents.

The committee recommended more funds, decentralization of operation, more research, stepped up replacement of retiring officials with younger trained personnel, and stronger forecasting and climate research programs.

Simple, Durable Toys Favorites

Parents Are Advised to Select Children's Gifts With Special Care

NEW YORK (UP) — You Santas will save yourselves money and the children Christmas morning dissappointment by shopping carefully for toys.

Parents often fall victim to the fascination and confusion of the toy counter, and purchase the "cutest," most expensive, and frequently the most useless toys in existence.

The Toy Guidance Council, an educational organization, the president, of a block firm in Chicago, offer these suggestions for toy purchasers.

A toy should be durable. Toys that splinter and break can be harmful to a child, since fragments easily can end up in fingers, eyes or throats.

A toy should be simple. The more parts a toy has, the harder it is to operate, and the easier it is to put out of order. Buy toys whose parts are replaceable.

Buy a balanced selection, making sure you provide toys for both indoor and outdoor play. Get some to aid the child's mental development, such as puzzles, peg boards, and craft toys. Provide others which will encourage group play, such as games, athletic equipment, and tea sets.

Select toys also for versatility. A wagon, for instance, can be used dozens of ways; a jack-in-the-box provides only one diversion.

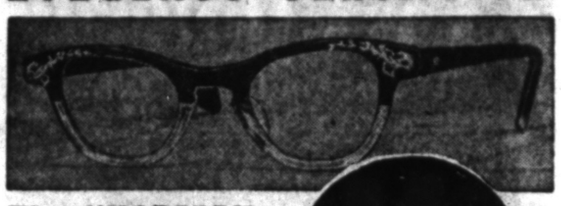

Shop early, so you'll have a larger selection to choose from, and also prevent the last minute crush.

Select toys to fit the age of the child. A toy too simple, or too advanced, will be tossed aside.

The first submarine that actually sank another vessel was the Confederate Hunley built during the Civil War. The Union frigate Housatonic, on blockade station in Clarkston Harbor, was the victim.

Hospital to Hold Capping Ritual

43 Practical Nurses to Be Honored Sunday at St. Joseph

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital's McAuley School of Practical Nursing will honor 43 new practical nurses in its first capping ceremony Sunday afternoon.

The Rev. John Rozak, school ethics instructor, will speak at the ceremony at 3 p.m. in the hospital nurses' home auditorium.

The Rev. Thomas Currier, hospital chaplain, will give the invocation, with instructor Kathleen Lynch presenting the class.

Siter Mary William, hospital director, will present caps, and instructor Grace Wagner will give out prayerbooks from the school. McAuley School Glee Club, directed by Dominic Kline, will sing several selections.

The class will go into a three-day retreat, conducted by the Rev. George Johnson of Detroit, tonight to prepare for Sunday's ceremonies.

The school of practical nursing, opened in September, plans to admit new students in February. Women interested may contact the nurses' home for interviews.

Training includes classes in body structure and functions, personal and community health, spiritual care of patients, homemaking, nursing and actual nursing practice on the hospital's wards.

Husbands, Here's Advice on Milady's Perfume Gift

So many men have asked us how to go about selecting Christmas gifts of perfume that we felt it was high time we devoted a whole piece to this important project.

For a gift that makes a woman feel cherished, as perfume does, a man wants literally to be on the right scent.

Of course, if there's a way of finding out for sure which fragrance she prefers above all others, fine. For instance, if you find that there's one scent she's devoted to, you might ask her its name with Christmas in mind. She'll be delighted to tell you.

Since this is not an Advice to the Lovelorn column, one thing we would not advocate is phoning her best friend about it. This might lead to complications for which we do not care to be responsible! It would be safer to ask one of your lady's relatives.

Let's say that you're the dynamic type who would prefer to be on your own in selecting a gift of fragrance that you feel is expressive of her special quality. You'll want to go to the nearest perfume counter. Don't feel that this requires any great courage. You'll find you're in the company of many other men.

For the fact of the matter is that, though you may be loath to admit it, men like buying perfume. In fact, many men — he-men — have told us they enjoy the experience very much indeed.

Now you've arrived at the perfume counter, and at first it may seem a little bewildering because there are so many different scents to choose from, and all so attractively packaged, too.

But pretty soon the lady in charge will approach you, and she's going to prove to be a friend in need. Because she knows just how to help you. She knows that behind your idea of giving perfume is the hope that every time the recipient wears it, she will think of you.

The first thing to do is tell the girl behind the counter a little about the person this gift of perfume is intended for. "Five feet two, eyes of blue" is a good start, but how about telling a little about her personality as well?

Is she vivacious? Is she shy? Or is she, like most women a little of each? Or is she the tweedy type who'd prefer a woodsy scent? Or do you want a perfume of such character that it will fit into any mood and go with any costume?

Tell all this to the girl. Because with the information you give her, she can take over and let you have a few whiffs that will help you make your decision.

As for the whiffing procedure, she may spray a fragrance into the air with an atomizer. Or she may let you smell it via a blotter or piece of cotton. What she won't want you to do is smell it directly from the bottle, because you don't get the true fragrance that way.

Well, take a good whiff and make this test:

Does the scent evoke the woman you're buying the gift for? Does it seem like her? Perhaps it's spicy and she's not that type. Then tell the girl so, and she'll have you try another scent that's dry, perhaps, or flowery, or has fruity overtones.

An important hint here. Between testing different scents, be sure to "blow out" through your nostrils. Then take a few deep breaths before smelling the next perfume. This helps clear the nostrils and freshen the olfactory nerves.

You take another whiff. No, that's not quite it. Let's have just one more. "Eureka! That's my girl," you say. And you know you've hit the bull's eye. So you tell your counter-counsellor to wrap it up and you're all set to give the lady in your life the thing she's sure to want most for Christmas — perfume!

Gold Star Honors Mothers of War I

Gold Star Mothers Chapter Nine honored mothers of World War I Tuesday evening with a dinner at the American Legion Home on Auburn avenue.

Plans were made to send Christmas greetings to each veteran in Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium and Pontiac State Hospital.

The next meeting was announced as a Christmas party Wednesday evening, Mrs. H. C. Height of Whittemore street will be hostess.

Daughters Plan Monday Party

Monday evening is the date set for Daughters of Isabella Christmas party at Knights of Columbus Hall.

After the business meeting, Santa Claus will appear and St. Frederick Choral Girls Club will sing Christmas carols. Gifts will be exchanged. A consecration to the Blessed Mother will take place.

Chairmen for the event, which will begin at 8 o'clock, are Mrs. Thomas Corey and Mrs. Omer DeConinck, refreshments; Mrs. John Denihan and Mrs. William Donahue, decorations and Mrs. Robert Coad, Mrs. Leslie Davidson and Mrs. Susan Carry, entertainment.

For Footwarming Treat, Electric Socks Suggested

Or How About Mink-Lined Gloves and Elasticized Shorts With Girdle Look?

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY

NEW YORK (UP) — The Christmas givers who believe the best gift is the one that is highly original are having a happy season.

They can buy electric socks instead of just plain argyles, for instance. The people who make the electric socks describe them as "wired for warmth" and suggest they are ideal for (here it comes again) the man who has everything. Twenty dollars gets you the wired socks, a zippered battery case and two batteries.

There's another new idea in socks, considerably cheaper but also cooler. This is for the man whose foot size escapes you when you get to the sock counter. They are one-size socks that look too small for junior off the foot but stretch big enough for a size 13 foot. No rubber, just a new type of ribbed nylon.

The perfume that women can't buy is still doing well because of the novel approach to business that Julien Chaqueneau had when he started selling perfume several years ago. A man gets credit for originality by buying the perfume because it is sold in men's stores and only to men.

"It's a profitable business," said Chaqueneau, a former banker who switched to perfume when he read a business report saying 68 per cent of all perfume was bought by men. "Men like to buy it because they think it's a little different."

Men and women share in the surprises this year—with a woman handing over something like mink-lined gloves to her husband who may have bought her the latest thing in elasticized shorts.

The gloves are a little high-priced, but pretty elegant with capeskin on the outside and mink on the inside. The elasticized shorts, on the other hand, are modestly-priced shockers.

These were dreamed up by a well known foundation garment company on the theory that some girls like to wear a girdle under their shorts. The company designers went to work to design a girdle that looked like shorts.

The result is a two-way stretch pair of shorts, black pinstripes on a white background with red piping and regular cuffs on the elasticized legs. The shorts look like a girdle, feel like a girdle and cling like a girdle.

Most stores now set up separate gift departments loaded with whimsical ideas, many of them imported, to give the independent thinker a chance to do his Christmas shopping.

These are the counters where you find hand-decorated scissors from Italy, curious dinner bells and magnetic note pads with secret compartments for stamps.

Yule Card Tips Given for Teens

Young People Told How to Cope With Grownup Custom

The Christmas season is a time when many teenagers emerge from their cocoons into their first grownup social activities. One of the social "firsts" that faces teens at Yuletide is the Christmas card custom.

Teens sending cards for the first time this year might appreciate some advice from an expert on what kind of greetings to send and how to send them. Here are some Christmas card suggestions:

Select cards that reflect your taste and personality—and your age. Don't choose elaborate, formal cards more suitable for older people.

Signing your name is preferable to having it printed or engraved. Cards to relatives and close friends may be signed with your first name only. Others should bear your full name.

If you're best known by a nickname, sign that name. It will be in keeping with the friendly spirit of Christmas. Example: Betty (instead of Elizabeth) Butler.

To add a festive Yule note, sign your name with a colored ink, preferably Christmas green or red.

To be sure your cards arrive on time, mail them two weeks before Christmas. To be sure they reach the proper destination, address them carefully. If your handwriting isn't legible, print the addresses.

Use a messproof pen. Because washable ink may smear if exposed to rain or snow, permanent ink is preferable.

Christmas cards should be sent by first-class mail with a return address on the face of the envelope. First-class envelopes must be sealed and require a 3-cent stamp. Undelivered first-class mail will be returned to the sender.

BEVERLY JUNE BROEGMAN

Announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Beverly June, to Dale Francis Newport are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Broegman of Birmingham. Dale is the son of Mrs. Marie Shaw of Bloomfield Hills and Harold Newport of Boston, Mass. The wedding date has been set for Jan. 16.

Keep Spirit With Plants

You can keep the spirit of Christmas for many months after the holiday has passed if your gifts are the ones that grow. Gift plants for special friends will remind them of your thoughtfulness for a long time.

There are many different ways to dress up your gifts of house plants for the Christmas holidays. For example, African violets are always a big favorite at Christmas time. You can make the African violets even more beautiful by planting them in a hanging pot. A hanging pot will make them easier to take care of and at the same time show beauty from all sides.

Use Wet Paper as Masking Tape

You can mask windows when you paint them by using two-inch strips of newspaper dipped for a few seconds in water.

When the strips are damp, they'll stick to glass and you can paint the frames without smearing. After you have finished, just strip the newspaper off and you will have clean windows.

PTAs Use Christmas as Theme

Holiday Gatherings Held This Week at Several Schools

The forthcoming holidays served as the theme for several PTA meetings this week.

McCarroll

A Christmas party in song and story under the direction of Rosamund Haeberle highlighted the Sarah McCarroll meeting Thursday.

The story was narrated by Nancy Robinson, and Karen Hayden presented a solo. Following a short business session, a social hour was held. Mrs. Bernice McKillop and Mrs. Coy Anderson presided at the tea table.

Wisner

Christmas songs were presented by the kindergarten pupils of Wisner School under the direction of Mrs. Martha Robertson as they entertained at the Thursday meeting of Wisner PTA.

Mrs. Gordon Paull's sixth grade room presented a program of Christmas carols under the direction of Evelyn Pratt.

A program of film strips and recordings was presented by Mrs. Scott Bonham, and Mrs. William J. Thomas led community singing accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Gardner.

J. Cecil Cox, assistant superintendent of schools, was a special guest. He extended greetings to the group.

Mrs. Claude Cook was named magazine chairman to take the place of Mrs. John Sitz who resigned.

Mrs. James Fox and Mrs. Irving Cocking, homeroom representatives, planned the social hour assisted by Mrs. Roy Wood's and Mrs. Gardner's homeroom mothers, Mrs. Lawrence LaBair, Mrs. Randall Hulse and Mrs. Harold Swackhammer. Mrs. Frank Waring and Mrs. Marie Dunn were in charge of the refreshment table.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Lester Wilbur, Mrs. Leland Roach, Mrs. George Tompkins, Mrs. Claude Cook, Mrs. Ack Bridger, Mrs. William Gaddes and Mrs. Wilbur Hinsberger. They are the mothers of Mrs. Owen Wright's, Joyce Kimball's and Flaura Owen's homerooms.

Willis

A cooperative luncheon was held Thursday by the executive board and the homeroom mothers of Willis PTA. Mrs. David Sherman was chairman for the affair. She was assisted by Mrs. Bernard Giroux.

At the business meeting it was announced that the fifth and sixth grades will present a program for the Jan. 17 PTA meeting.

Longfellow

The Christmas spirit prevailed as Longfellow School homeroom mothers made tree ornaments for Pontiac State Hospital at a Christmas party Wednesday afternoon. Greeting cards were contributed to add to the ones the children are making, with Mrs. William Ruhl in charge of delivery.

Mrs. Cecil Diehl directed group singing of carols with Mrs. Ike Thurman as accompanist. Gifts were exchanged by playing musical chairs.

A miniature village square, complete with church, choir boys and snowmen, was the central attraction on the refreshment table. It was arranged by Mrs. Chris Cates and Mrs. Arthur Oxley.

Holiday sandwiches and cookies were made and served by the executive board. Mrs. Harold Wesley and Mrs. Carl Colando presided at the tea table. The teaching staff was invited to join the festivities after school hours.

There will be no regular PTA meeting this month, it was announced, but a special Christmas program by the children of the lower grades will be presented Dec. 18.

Make Sure Snow Spray Is Washable

If you buy a snow preparation to spray on the branches of your Christmas tree, make sure it's one you can wash off the floor, walls, or windows.

The area surrounding the tree is bound to come for a share of the feathery stuff, so unless it comes clean with soap and water it's apt to do some damage.

Missionary Feted

Mrs. Ione Reed McMillan was honored Tuesday evening with a shower given by Loyal Philathea Class of First Baptist Church. Mrs. McMillan is home on furlough from the Belgian Congo, where she is a missionary.

Poise Essential; Should Get Early Development

Poise is essential to beauty. And the time to begin its development is right now, teenagers.

Don't wait until the time when you can no longer get away with them to attempt to discard childish mannerisms. By then, they will be rooted in your personality. Furthermore, they make you less attractive than you could be now.

Loud laughing, jostling of each other and other attention-getting antics contrast sharply with your efforts to develop an adult flair for clothes and cosmetics. It is a case of one thing laughing at the other.

You will notice that it is the quiet, assured, graceful movements of women that characterize them as charming. The really lovely ladies in public, whether in the theater or politics, do not make crash landings. But, as you well know, those lovely, quiet ladies get plenty of attention—the flattering kind.

The bell that signals the end of the day's classes is too often taken as a signal to release pent-up energy. One frequently sees students emerge shouting, giggling, pushing.

All Saints Guild 11 Has Yuletide Party

Mrs. Ralph Allen and Mrs. Raymond Fixel were hostesses when Guild 11 of All Saints Episcopal Church held a Christmas party Thursday evening in the Rose Kneale Room of Stevens Hall. The January meeting will be held in the Ottawa drive home of Mrs. Maxwell Shadley.

Colonial Kitchen Gadgets Will Be Shown at Forum

WILLIAMSBURG, Va.—An exhibition of 18th Century kitchen gadgets, designed to save wear and tear on the women of colonial households, will be a new feature of the 1954 Williamsburg Antiques Forum, sixth annual series of meetings here on decoration and design.

Scheduled for two five-day sessions beginning Jan. 25 and Feb. 1, the Antiques Forum includes illustrated talks by experts, group discussions and special entertainments as well as a study of the architecture and antique furnishings of this restored 18th Century city.

The kitchen gadgets will be shown and demonstrated in the kitchen of the Raleigh Tavern, a new Colonial Williamsburg exhibit, and will be discussed during a special forum program on "The Colonial Kitchen."

For example, there is the "automatic" apple parer which looks like a miniature spinning wheel. The apple, attached to an iron prong, is revolved by turning the wheel with one hand while the peel is cut off by a knife clutched firmly in the other.

A wooden block keeps the peelings away from the wheel. For the colonial housewife, the parer had the additional labor-saving feature of being scaled for use by a small child.

Some of the original 18th Century gadgets which forum participants will see haven't changed much over the years. The metal wheel used to put a fancy edge on pie crusts is just like today's pie crimper.

The nutcracker and lime-and-lemon squeezer are simply wooden versions of today's devices except that the antique nutcracker has hollowed bars to catch nutmeats. The meat grinder on the Raleigh kitchen wall is a wood-and-iron edition of the type now sold in housewares departments.

One of the gadgets to be shown during the forum has come into favor again today—with a few refinements—as the latest thing in cooking equipment. This is a small, portable oven, complete with a roasting spit, a handle for turning the spit and a reflector to heat the device when it was set in front of the fire.

Modern gourmets still look with favor on another exhibit, an 18th Century toddy stick, an iron rod which was plunged, red hot, into rum and other appropriate drinks.

The 18th Century gadget display during the Antiques Forum will even include an "automatic" toaster, revolving iron frames which pivot on an iron stand to brown both sides of a slice of bread.

The Williamsburg Antiques Forum, co-sponsored by Colonial Williamsburg and "Antiques" magazine, is regularly attended by antique collectors and enthusiasts from all parts of the country.

Coming Events

Canadian Legion Post 23 and Auxiliary will meet this evening at 8 p.m. in the American Legion Home, Auburn avenue.

Pontiac Branch of Women's National Farm and Garden Club will meet with Mrs. C. T. Ekelund, 149 Ottawa Dr., Monday at 2 p.m. to hear the Rev. George Garver. Gifts for the Red Cross are to be brought by members.

Teachers Exchange Has Party

Mrs. Earl Wilson Hostess at Yuletide Affair Thursday

Mrs. Earl Wilson of Squirrel road, Birmingham, entertained members of the Teachers Exchange Club at the annual Christmas party Thursday evening.

Mrs. Morris Smith and Mrs. Ralph Gardner assisted as cohostesses. The Wilson home was decorated in the Christmas motif with sparkling frosted branches, evergreens and candles.

Following the business meeting which was conducted by the president, Mrs. Elmer Thorpe, a Christmas program, "The First Christmas," was presented by club members.

Mrs. Jesse Medlen was chairman and narrator, and Mrs. Drell Butler was guest soloist.

Group singing of Christmas carols was led by Elizabeth Halsey, and Mrs. Gardner accompanied at the organ.

One of the yearly projects of the club is the presentation of Christmas gifts to children at the State Home and Training School in Lapeer.

Plans were made for the Jan. 14 meeting of the club to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Borsvold on Dellwood avenue. Slides of Alaska will be shown by Mr. and Mrs. Gardner.

Warm Water for Woolens

To keep wool sweaters soft and fluffy, be sure to use only lukewarm water—never hot.

Rely on warm soapsuds and warm rinse water—both as near the same temperature as possible because extreme changes in temperatures make woolens shrink.

Rough handling tends to mat and wear the yarn, so handle woolens as gently as you can; use a cupping motion while you support the knitwear with your hands during both sudsing and rinsing.

This prevents the weight of the water from causing sagging and stretching.

Where spots are stubborn, run well-soaped fingers gently over the area but don't scrub or twist.

Squeeze the suds through again and again, using several fresh changes of soapy wash water rather than harsh rubbing.

Yule Party Held at Grogg Home

Mrs. Harold Grogg opened her home on Rosewood drive Thursday evening to members of West Side Home Demonstration Group for their annual Christmas party.

Mrs. Glen Arthur had charge of the program, which included singing Christmas carols. Dinner was served to the group. The next meeting will have Mrs. Charles Hudson as hostess in her home on Liberty street.

Another fashion first for Mollie Parnis is the luncheon dress to be worn instead of a suit. This slim and elegant black silk satin dress has a white poult de soie Peter Pan collar and bow. The button front opening and straight skirt has two patch pockets.

Penelope Group to Give Baskets to Needy People

Christmas baskets for the needy will replace the annual gift exchange of Daughters of Penelope, it was announced recently. A meeting at the home of Mrs. Aleck Capsal on Ottawa drive Wednesday will be the beginning of the Christmas project.

New members of the Order of Ahepa and Daughters of Penelope will be initiated Sunday at the Hellenic Hall on Mariva avenue. A banquet will follow.

Plans for the yearly project are under way, and the annual Cabaret Dance has been scheduled for Jan. 23 at the Hellenic Hall. Last week members of the group went to Jackson to institute a new chapter, and new members in Dearborn were also initiated by the group.

Light Misting Aids

Your begonias will last several weeks if you give them a light misting with water every day during the season. If your begonias are of the everblooming variety, feed them regularly and move the plants to larger pots whenever it is needed.

Mrs. Caswell President

Pioneer Unit Has Election

Mrs. Guy Caswell is the new president of Pioneer Missionary Society of Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church.

She was elected Thursday when the group met with Mrs. Richard Kelley of Putnam avenue.

Others elected include Mrs. Park Wagg, first vice president; Mrs. Howard Hall, second vice president; Mrs. Ernol Lloyd, recording secretary; Mrs. Ralph Osborne, treasurer; Mrs. Edward Schultz, thanks offering secretary; Mrs. Marion Brown, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Peter Mime, temperance and reform secretary; Mrs. Kelley, literature secretary, and Mrs. Lloyd, efficiency secretary.

The "Inward Look" was the subject of devotions led by Mrs. Nelson Rich, and prayers for home missions were offered by Mrs. Ralph Osborne, Mrs. William MacGillivroy, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Kelley.

Letters of thanks were read from the mission schools in Kentucky.

Needy to Be Aided by Dirt Gardeners

Christmas dinner, toys and clothing will be supplied by members of Dirt Gardeners Club to several needy families, it was announced when the group met Tuesday with Mrs. Vivian Tubbs of Tubbs road.

In charge of selecting the families are Mrs. Glen H. Arthur and Mrs. Joseph J. Taunt.

It was announced that a representative from the Department of Conservation Education, Michigan State College, will speak to the group Feb. 9, and a Christmas greens workshop was scheduled for Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harlan B. Owen of Lincoln Heights.

A Christmas party followed the meeting, with Mrs. Owens leading the singing of carols.

White Shrine Holds Dedication of Altar

A new altar was dedicated Wednesday evening when Pontiac White Shrine met at Hotel Roosevelt.

The altar was a gift to the Shrine from Mr. and Mrs. William Downes. Mrs. Lloyd Wait announced the date of the next ceremonial as Dec. 30.

Mrs. John Yungk had charge of the cooperative dinner, assisted by Mrs. Meta McIlroy. Sixty members attended, and a Christmas party with gift exchange followed the meeting.

BISHOP-BRACKEN

Younger Generation Shouldn't Place Spry and Capable Elders on the Shelf

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Sometimes we put people on the shelf too soon — and by treating them like oldsters, make them old before their time.

This was brought home to me recently by a letter from a reader who is 67 years old, a peppy woman who lives with her daughter and son-in-law.

"They both have jobs," she told me, "and it was understood that I would keep house for them, because there isn't much money.

"But now they have hired a cleaning woman to 'help' me, and I don't need the help. I love running the house and doing the cleaning and cooking.

"But they insist that I mustn't 'strain' myself. Strain myself, indeed! I'm much more apt to die of dry rot!

"Isn't there any way we can convince young people that you don't fall apart on your 65th birthday?"

In her particular case, it wasn't too difficult. She enlisted the help of a wise family doctor, who talked to the young people and told them that "Mommy" needed work and responsibility and a feeling of being needed, far more than she needed help and rest.

But too often the older person doesn't protest enough, feels that perhaps it is inevitable, and thus gets pushed into a kind of dry rot.

Women particularly, judging from my mail, find this happening. Many times they are widows, with grown children, and they have no business experience.

So they live with the kids, with the understanding that they will keep house or babysit. But then, little by little, they become victims of enforced idleness. And the tragedy is that many times they could have lived useful and busy lives up into their 80s.

Will It Wash?

Boys being the rough and tumble artists they are, every single garment Junior wears ought to be safe in soapsuds.

Here's a festive idea! It's an old-fashioned kissing hoop which originated in Merrie Olde England. To have one of your own, simply wrap two embroidery hoops in red satin, fix one inside the other at a right angle and tie a cluster of mistletoe in the center. Top with a red ribbon and hang it in a busy doorway.

Girls Sometimes Permit Wishful Thinking to Cloud the Realities of Situation

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

When you slip in the last piece of a jigsaw puzzle, it's sort of silly not to accept the picture as finished, isn't it? When you make all the elements of a math problem behave properly, it's ridiculous not to accept the answer as correct.

Yet some of you, given all the facts in a personal equation, refuse to accept the situation as it is. You mix a lot of wishful thinking into the plot, you let your imaginations run riot, you plan devious ways and means to make it seem what it isn't.

Being philosophically resigned to the situation seems too dull? There ought to be something you can do to alter its complexion?

Well, if a girl with a problem like Judy's would put together its various pieces, she'd come closer to understanding the score. Here's what's bothering Judy.

"Dear Miss Woodward: I've been dating a fellow who is very popular in school. He's an officer in one of the fraternities, while I'm not in a sorority, so you can see what that does.

"He has all the club dances to go to and since I'm not in a sorority, he doesn't ask me, I don't mind so much because I date other fellows once in a while and he's always dating other girls.

"I had a date with him not too long ago, and we both enjoyed it, I know. But since that night he hasn't been speaking much — just 'hi.' If I talk to him in school everyone wants to know about us and I can't tell them.

"I absolutely don't know what to say. I can't keep my mind on my school work. I'm now trying to make him jealous by having a boy walk me through the halls and take me to different things, so I can be seen with him everywhere.

"I can't think this is why he's acting as he is. Maybe he has something on his mind. Can you help me?"

It might help to line up the facts as you've given them, then perhaps the answer will be obvious to you. First of all, he's a very popular boy, a big shot, with lots of parties to go to.

It's his habit to date a variety of girls — you're just one on his list. He's not giving any one girl a chance to think he belongs to her. He dates a girl, forgets her for a while, then dates her again.

So much for him. You like him, you want to date him all the time, you want to be the only girl he dates. You're in a swivet because he's in one of these periods of forgetting about you.

The score? Nobody needs to know anything about you two. You just date occasionally and that needs no explaining.

He never was jealous of your other dates before — so why should he care about this boy you're seen with? He might even think you like him, so he stays away from you so he won't be a nuisance.

Treat him gaily and friendly-like — just as you do other nice boys you like — if you want to stay on the list of girls he dates even occasionally.

IF height diminisher—

The afternoon coat is in. The lines are slim and wrapped. Pouffed, gathered band introduces hemline interest and breaks the too-long line.

Miss H. D. — Deliberately designed to cut height when the tall girl chooses the slender, straight silhouette, is the coat with a pouffed and gathered band at the hemline. This cuts leg length and definitely is for the tall girl.

Wire Screening Keeps Articles Out of Register

If you have small children and floor registers it's worth the effort to place wire insect screening under the registers to prevent the little moppetts from dropping bits of this and that down into the hot air ducts.

The heating coils on kerosene and oil hot water heaters should be cleaned from time to time.

If they become coated with soot, the soot acts as an insulation and prevents a lot of the heat generated by the burner from ever doing much good.

* * *

If you are ever worried about pipes freezing during an intense cold spell, remember that if the water is flowing it isn't so likely to freeze. Just open a faucet slightly and pray that it gets warm soon.

* * *

Before applying paper to walls that have been coated with enamel or varnish be sure to apply a coat of size. If you don't, there is not much chance of the paper holding very well or for very long.

* * *

You can make a good window cleaning compound by mixing powdered whiting with alcohol to form a paste.

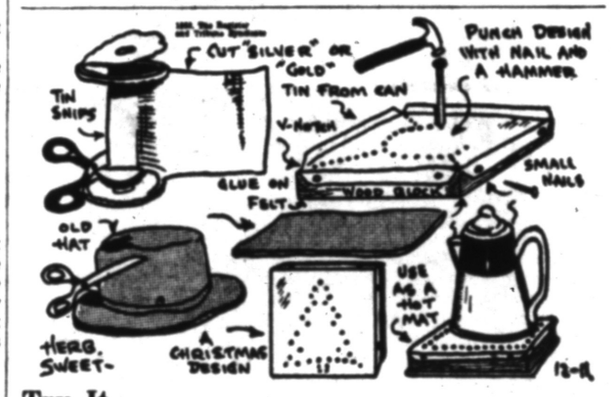

Apply this to the glass and let it dry, then wipe it off with a clean cloth.

Be Patient With Dogs

Impatience is a chief fault of dog trainers. You won't achieve success in training by scolding, beating or lecturing your dog at great lengths. It confuses him, makes him unfit for training. You needn't break his spirit to train him.

Many a man who worked his way through college is back where he started — working his son's way through.

Try It

Make Mat for Hot Dishes

How about a suggestion for something which can be made for Mother for a Christmas gift? Lucia Gehrke of Mayville, Wis., sends in this idea for a hot plate mat. It seems that Mothers never have enough of these, and this would be one which Mother would like best, for you made it yourself!

You will need a scrap of wood which should be cut into a square. Sand this well. The size will depend on the width of the tin can which you want to use. After the contents have been used from a tin can, put on a pair of heavy gloves and with tin snips cut the top and bottom from the cans.

It is best to use cans which have been opened with a non-sharp-edge opener. Some cans have "gold" metal inside, and you may want to use this side out.

Fit this tin to the square block of wood. Then, still wearing your gloves, file away the sharp edges. Fit again and notch the corners. Drive a small nail in through the tin to hold it to the block. Use at least two to a side.

Draw a design on the tin, then hammer the design into the tin with a hammer and a sharp nail. Glue a piece of felt from an old hat to the back, and wrap for Mother's Christmas.

Yule Films Entertain Zonta Club

Two Christmas movies entertained Pontiac Zonta Club Thursday evening at Kingsley Inn when the group held its annual Christmas party.

Walter Barnett showed the movies, "The Story of the Nativity" and "'Twas the Night Before Christmas."

Six new members were welcomed into the club, Lorraine Owen, Lois Ellis, Mary DeBow, Grace Oleson, Jean Craig and Ola Ewles, Morea Tinney conducted the ceremony.

Hostess for the occasion was Mrs. Fotis Takis, assisted by Lauretta Paul. Among the guests were Agnes Webster and Hazel Welch from Highland Park, Mrs. H. W. Kirk of Dearborn, Mrs. M. A. Lockman, Mrs. C. W. Hayner and Betsy Clark.

The meeting closed with a gift exchange.

November Unit Installs Officers

Officers were installed in a candlelight service Wednesday evening when the November Group of First Presbyterian Church met with Mrs. Robert Mehlberg on Dover road.

Mrs. Arthur Minster is chairman, with Mrs. Donald Humphries as vice chairman. Mrs. Keen Haddad was installed as secretary and Mrs. Robert Pritchett as treasurer.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Edward Auchard, Mrs. James Gilmer and Mrs. Edward Rightmire. Mrs. Humphries was cohostess for the occasion and Mrs. Roger Gunn read "the Christmas Story".

Watch Presented

Mrs. Clara Disbrow was presented with a watch in appreciation of 25 years continuous service when employes of Pearce Floral Co. held their annual Christmas party and gift exchange Thursday.

Here is a sure-fire dance dress in a rich shade of turkey red. It's cut in one smooth, flaring line, with shoestring straps that are chains of rhinestones.

Puella Novem Club Observes Yuletide

Mrs. George McCormick was elected treasurer of Puella Novem Club Wednesday evening.

Mrs. John Marun of Woodland avenue was hostess to the group for the Christmas party, which included a cooperative dinner and revelation of secret pals.

Mrs. John McCormick of Berwick boulevard will be hostess for the Jan. 6 meeting.

Skating Scheduled

The annual Christmas skating party of the Northern Oakland County Girl Scout Council will be held Dec. 28 in the Rolladium. Each girl is making an article to hang on a Christmas tree for next year's project.

To Enact 'A Present for Santa' Saturday Afternoon

Small Sons, Daughters of Village Players Will Be in Spotlight

By RUTH SAUNDERS

BIRMINGHAM — Small sons and daughters of members of the Village Players will hold the center of the stage Saturday afternoon when a play, "A Present for Santa," will be presented. Louise and Shirley Hersey wrote the play and Mrs. J. Reed Alexander will direct.

In the children's cast will be Karl, Penny and Pam Pierce, Susie Tabor, Richard and Lynn Cloonan, Jimmy Penrose, Ross Richardson, Dana Vass, Lynn Ivers, Joan Deer and Deke and Chris James.

In the evening the players will hold their traditional Christmas party with a play, refreshments and individual entertainers.

* * *

Mrs. Rawson Vaile and Mrs. Benjamin Micou will entertain at a dessert luncheon and shower Dec. 23 for bride-elect Carol Grylls of Grosse Pointe.

Miss Grylls will be married Dec. 30 to Edward S. Reid III, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Reid Jr. of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. Upper of Ann Arbor, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom-elect, will also entertain for the couple, and Mr. and Mrs. Reid are planning to give the rehearsal dinner Dec. 29 at the Detroit Club.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Guething and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore H. Guething, will entertain at a cocktail party and buffet supper Saturday evening at the Ted Guething home on Lake Park drive.

Legion Unit Plans Party for Children

Auxiliary Will Give Christmas Fete on December 19

Plans for the annual children's Christmas party on Dec. 19 are being made by Cook-Nelson Unit 20, American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Russell E. Grubbs has been named chairman of the event.

Getting under way at 2 p.m. in the Auburn avenue post home, movies will be shown. Later gifts will be distributed by Santa Claus and refreshments will be served.

Assisting with arrangements are Mrs. Leo Mineweaser, Mrs. Roger Dean, Mrs. L. Gladys Williams, Mrs. Fred Bohlman, Mrs. Eldon Showen and Mrs. William Thomas.

On Dec. 21 members of the Cook-Nelson Boy Scout Troop will be entertained at a Christmas party. Gifts will be exchanged by the boys. Cooperating with Mrs. Grubbs on arrangements is Medford Pittman, scoutmaster.

The second monthly meeting of the auxiliary has been canceled in order to hold the Boy Scout party.

Mrs. George Ault, 18th District president, was honored guest at the group's meeting this week. She spoke on the 1954 district program.

Plans for a Christmas party and the membership drive were the main topics of discussion when the Fashion Your Figure Club met Thursday evening at Pontiac High School.

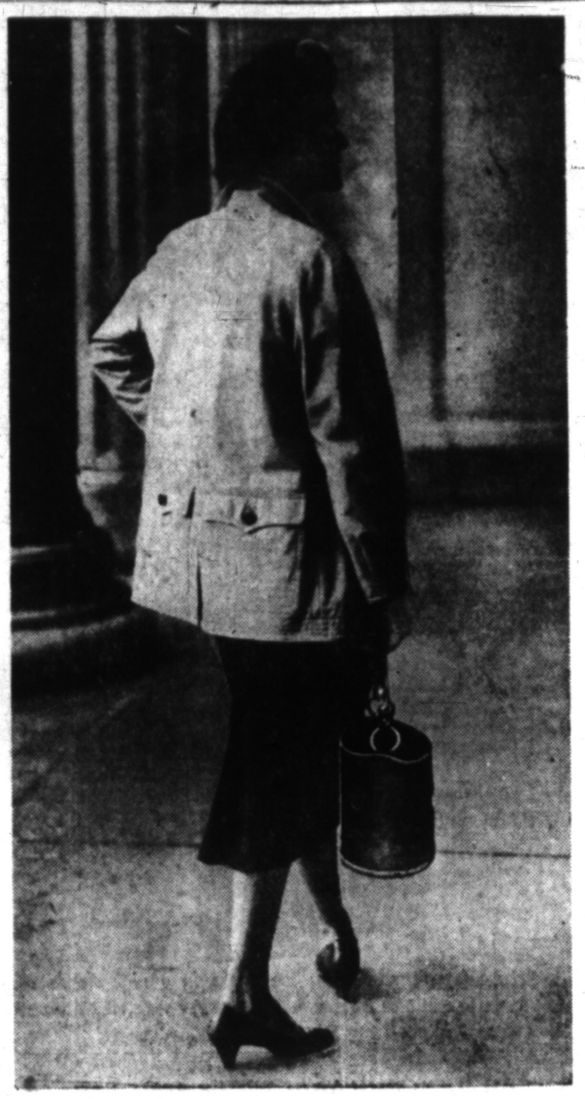

Mrs. George R. Cunningham was appointed chairman of the membership drive, with Mrs. Robert A. Fisher assisting.

Honors for the weekly club "Oscar" were shared by Mrs. Ramon Zollner and Mrs. Elvan Smith. Mrs. Jesse Hunter was given the "pig."

Rule for Roses

Any time the ground isn't frozen is a good time to plant your new roses. Be sure to make the hole in the ground large enough so that the roots can spread naturally.

Place the roots on a cone of soil with the knob of the graft about an inch below the soil surface. Then cover the roots with topsoil and settle them with water. Jostling the plant a little bit will help eliminate the air pockets around the roots.

This beige goatskin jacket has two big pockets for back interest. The collar and sleeves are crisped with Pellon interfacing.

Yule Decoration Is Demonstrated

Mrs. Harold James demonstrated ways to decorate homes and tables for the Christmas season when Newcomers Club met recently with Mrs. William Emerson of West Iroquois Road.

Cohostesses for the occasion were Mrs. S. K. Miller, Mrs. John Ball, Mrs. Grant MacDonald, Mrs. Clifford Wilcox and Mrs. Peter Dunn.

Mrs. Peter Peterson was a guest at the meeting. Corsages were presented to members and guests, and Christmas carols and a gift exchange highlighted the meeting.

Members contributed to aid a needy family.

Families Attend Dinner

Family fellowship was the theme of the evening when the Women's Society of Bethany Baptist Church entertained the church families at a Christmas dinner party Wednesday.

Devotions were given by the Rev. Rufus Traver. His topic followed a Christmas theme and music was furnished by the Pontiac High School Senior Ensemble. Carol Hobart directed the group and accompanied the singers on the piano.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. Earl Eddy who introduced Mr. and Mrs. John Linabury. The Linaburys showed colored slides of their recent Mediterranean cruise with special emphasis on the pictures of the Holy Land. Mrs. Linabury displayed many souvenir articles which she brought back from her travels.

The committee working with Mrs. John Sheehan, chairman, consisted of Mrs. Hardy Fair, Mrs. Lee Bourne, Mrs. Walter Willson, Mrs. I. M. Lewis, Mrs. Maynard Johnson and Mrs. A. P. Webb.

The younger children were entertained with music and pictures in the church parlors by Mrs. Johnson and Forrest E. Brown.

Laundramat Art Gallery

BERKELEY, Calif. (INS) — Cleanliness is next to Godliness, but a Berkeley man also makes it an artistic pleasure.

Louis B. Scott runs a self-service automatic laundry that has the descriptive name of Launderay and Art Gallery.

Scott, several years ago, tired of the bleak, hospital white of his automatic laundry and invited a few artist friends to hang up their wares.

They responded with oils, watercolors, ceramics and sculpture to display above the whirling machines.

The housewives liked the idea and many of them became so fond of a picture that they purchased it for their own home.

Scott thinks there is nothing unusual about mixing water colors with blueing and said:

"I don't push the sales. I have the machines because I've got to make a living. And on the walls, I have a lovely atmosphere."

Mary Margaret McBride Says:

Isles, Paradise Confused Due to Childhood Fantasy

My favorite hymn was always "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," but when I was little I often wondered just what an isle was.

One time on the way home from Sunday school, I asked a big girl and she explained that the Beautiful Isle of Somewhere is heaven—surrounded on all sides by water, with gold-paved streets, pearly gates, people riding on clouds—and eating ice cream, the latter a neat afterthought encouraged, no doubt, by my enthralled listening.

MISS McBRIDE

My preacher grandfather straightened me out later on both heaven and islands, but by that time the whole thing was well mixed up in my mind and I continued to think of islands as paradises.

I still have a very special feeling about them and whenever I daydream of the perfect life I set myself up on an island, one that is all mine, with weather benign the year round and plenty of food for the plucking without planting or cultivation.

Because you can do anything you want to with a dream, my balmy paradise also contains such rudimentary fixtures as running hot and cold water, gas and electricity.

Since I'd rather feared that most island paradises were confined to the South Seas, a little remote even for a daydream, I picked up with great anticipation a book Robert Froman has written describing in practical terms a million or more islands which are for sale or rent in and around the North American continent. Obviously Robert Froman is an island-fancier like me, yet I must say he has dented, if not fractured, my dream.

We're loaded with islands, he says, from northern Canada on the Atlantic all around the country up to Alaska on the other side. But very few sound as if they'd be any good at all for me on a year-round basis.

Thus the northern islands, though dreamy in summer, are strictly for the gulls in winter. The southern ones are fine in winter, but mosquito-ridden and sultry in summer.

Just about the only group that sounded attractive to me for the year round is composed of South Carolina's coastal islands, many of which were once plantations but more recently were used for such strange purposes as a nudist colony and a rendezvous point for rum-runners, and now are practically abandoned.

One near Charleston is equipped with deer, wild cattle, sheep and pigs, miles of sandy beach, fresh-water ponds for a water supply and oysters, clams, crabs and sea turtles right on the front doorstep. Right now, however, it's a wilderness, and I'm not as handy with an ax as I used to be.

However, all is not lost. I have two scouts who know all about islands working on my problem: Leicester Hemingway, writing brother of the famous Ernest, and a young Englishman, Patrick Eliam, who sailed across the Atlantic in a small sailing boat.

Meanwhile, I'll just have to do with the island I currently inhabit: Manhattan, but, alas, no paradise.

Armenian Nut Cookies Are Unusual

Mrs. Haroutunian Dips Filled Treats in Lemon Glaze

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

A most unusual filled cookie comes from Mrs. Louis Haroutunian. Armenian nut cookies are flavored with orange, filled with nuts and dipped in a lemon-sugar syrup to glaze them.

Mrs. Haroutunian enjoys homemaking and devotes most of her time to her family. She is a member of the Ladies Day Out group of the YWCA; likes to sew and read; crochets and gardens in her spare time.

ARMENIAN NUT COOKIES
By Mrs. Louis Haroutunian

1 pound butter or margarine, melted
1 cup milk
¾ cup orange juice
1 cup sugar
1½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon baking soda
8 cups sifted flour (may need a little more)

Combine milk, orange juice and sugar. Add melted butter and sifted dry ingredients. Knead dough until you can shape it into small oval balls; you may need more flour for this.

Hollow out each cookie ball, fill with nut mixture. Reshape into ovals. Bake in 350-degree oven until golden brown.

Nut Filling

1 pound chopped walnuts
1 teaspoon cinnamon

After cookies have been removed from the oven, dip the hot cookies into the following syrup which has been allowed to cool. Let dipped cookies cool on cake racks. Makes 50 cookies.

Syrup

2 cups sugar
1 cup water
Juice of ½ lemon

Boil until syrupy and let cool.

Faith at Christmas

One of the most important meanings of Christmas is the sureness of faith and the hope and comfort for those nourished in it and the peace it brings. 5

Life Cleaner in Treated Air

The family in an air-conditioned home leads a cleaner life because air-borne dirt is sealed out at the windows.

Even plants are healthier because their leaves are free to breathe without a coating of dust.

But even after weathermaking equipment is installed in your home, you'll still need to cope with dirt that rubs off of the people and things that come through the doors.

You'll still need to wash slip-covers and curtains, woodwork and furniture occasionally.

The best time to make sure they're sudsable is when you're buying them.

Wire for Decoration

An attractive Christmas decoration can be made from a ball of fine chicken wire, says the December issue of Better Homes & Gardens Magazine, by filling the inside of the ball with green paper grass or evergreen tips. For the base, cut a hole in a square wooden box just the size of a dowel.

'Sacrifices' for Children Compared to Heathens' Offerings to Stone Gods

By MURIAL LAWRENCE

A girl has begun to make a career as a radio vocalist. Now she wants to resign it to marry a man from a small town remote from radio studios. Her mother is "heartbroken."

"For years my life has just been a struggle to educate this girl for a voice career," she writes. "I have nothing personal against the boy. It's the waste of the years of sacrifice I resent. . . ."

Once, years ago, we worshiped stone gods instead of living children. We brought them offerings. Only the best was good enough for them—the heaviest corn, the fattest goat. Instead of enjoying this food ourselves, we sacrificed it to the gods.

In exchange, we expected the gods to produce rain, victories in war, baby sons and health. When they didn't come through, I expect we got mad at them, too. We probably thought with resentment, "What a waste of my corn and my goat. . ."

We were heathen idolaters.

If someone can tell me the difference between sacrifice to a god for the production of rain and sacrifice to a daughter for the production of a vocal career, I'd be glad to know what it is.

For all I can see is the old heathen dream of return on the investment of raising the corn and the goat.

It's time we woke up from the dream. If we can't develop a child's skill for the sake of his own joy in it, perhaps we should leave it undeveloped.

For just as the stone god could not guarantee us rain tomorrow for the goat we sacrificed today, the child cannot guarantee us returns in success, money and applause for the sacrifices we make today.

So if his joy in his developing skill is not enough for us, we ought to know it now. And call a halt on the sacrifices.

The fact is, we shouldn't sacrifice anything to anyone if the sacrifice doesn't give us personal satisfaction.

It's too hard on the people for whom we make the sacrifices.

Dr. Erick Fromm is better on this subject than anyone else I know. Because it is so important, I want to quote from his book, "Man for Himself," in which he writes:

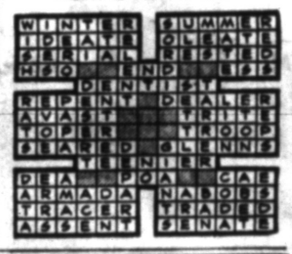

"The unselfish mother believes that by her unselfishness her children will experience what it means to be loved and to love.

"The effect of her unselfishness does not at all correspond to her expectations.

"The children do not show the happiness of persons who are convinced that they are loved; they are anxious, tense, afraid of the mother's disapproval and anxious to live up to her expectations.

"Nothing is more conducive to giving a child love, joy and happiness than being loved by a mother who loves herself."

New York Island Yields Up Bones of Past Dwellers

UNION SPRINGS, N. Y. (UP)—A Lake Cayuga island that was a favorite burial ground 5,000 years ago has yielded 159 skeletons of its pre-historic inhabitants.

Limestone in rocky Frontenac Island preserved some of the oldest human bones ever found in the eastern United States.

William Ritchie, New York state geologist, who directed excavations this past summer, says the island was so popular for burial that graves were stacked on each other by civilizations existing thousands of years apart.

Dr. Ritchie believes the oldest bones are of the narrow-skulled Lamokans, who lived 5,000 years ago. The date will be tested by measuring the decomposition of radioactive carbon from the charcoal remains of ancient fires.

The island, about one acre in size, was abandoned when the nomadic natives turned to agriculture 1,000 years before the white man ate his first corn in North America.

The graves displayed a variety of burial customs. Dogs were buried alongside humans, a child was lowered in the ground with a stone ball clutched in his hand, bones were collected and buried in bundles, and the skull of a woman was buried with a child.

Ancient Rome built a road system that stretched from northern Scotland to the Euphrates River in Asia minor. Parts of it are still in use.

University's Problem a Veritable Stinker

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Formal protests were made against location of a new slaughter house on property to the windward of the University of Houston. The city health department ordered inspectors to investigate the odors. They found manholes of the sewer system rather than the stockyard to be the chief source.

The chemical engineering division of the university is conducting experiments with a chemical added to natural gas to give it an odor. A little bit of it goes a long way.

City Health Director Dr. Fred K. Laurentz said: "Apparently some of this chemical got into the sewer line. The gas flowed uphill and out manholes. It was this smell, we think, that caused the complaints."

Average life of a butterfly is five weeks. Some live 10 weeks, some only a few days, and many are unable to eat during their short life span.

Ring Found in Sewer Proves to Be Valuable

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UP) — Eight years ago city employe James McLendon gave his wife a ring he found while cleaning out the city sewage system.

His wife, Victoria, wore it until the band broke recently. When she took it to a jeweler for repairs he looked at the ring and called the police. The diamond and platinum ornament was worth at least $1,000 he said.

Detective Lieut. R. A. Strickland checked Mrs. McLendon's story and told her to keep the ring.

"Looks like her old man finally hit the jackpot," he said.

Census taking in ancient times often was followed by conscription or high taxes and the process often was bitterly resisted.

Bombs Away!

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UP)—Police Officer H. B. McMahan, Sr., got a call from a woman wanting to borrow a gas bomb from headquarters. She wanted it, she explained, to "get all these bugs out of my house."

Ex-Soviet Clerk May Talk Soon

Report Gouzenko Ready to Testify; Interview May Be in Canada

NEW YORK (AP)—Robert Morris, counsel for the U. S. Senate internal security subcommittee, says former Russian code clerk Igor Gouzenko may tell the committee what he knows about Russian spying in this country "tomorrow or next week."

Gouzenko exposed a huge Soviet espionage ring in Canada in 1945 after walking out of the Russian Embassy in Ottawa with many secret documents.

Last night, Morris said he understood from newsmen who talked with Gouzenko somewhere in Ontario, Canada, that he was ready to testify "tomorrow or next week." The interview may be in Canada.

Morris said he talked by telephone late last night with Sen. Jenner (R - Ind), subcommittee head. Morris said Jenner told him he planned to get in touch with the State Department today to work out a date to see Gouzenko.

Under stipulations by the Canadian government, the date and meeting place will be kept secret for security reasons.

"We've scheduled no hearings of the subcommittee for this coming week," said Morris. "We're just standig by, ready to go."

* * *

Meanwhile, in Washington, Sen. McCarran (D-Nev), top - ranking Democrat on the international security subcommittee, said he thinks there still are spy rings in the government which Gouzenko can help track down.

Canadian authorities have said that all information already provided by Gouzenko has been made available to U. S. officials.

In an interview, McCarran said: "I regard Gouzenko as highly important to the internal security of the United States and Canada."

Gouzenko was questioned in late 1949 by representatives of a Senate immigration subcommittee headed by McCarran. It was investigating Communist activity among aliens and recent immigrants.

The record of the interview never has been published. McCarran said there were deletions he regards as "material" made by the State Department then.

O. J. Dekom, one of the immigration subcommitee staff members who questioned Gouzenko, said in a recent interview that he considered deletions in the transcript unimportant.

Movie Heroine Follows Through in Real Life

URUAPAN, Mexico (AP)—Hollywood film star Susan Hayward risked possible serious injury yesterday to save a young Indian boy from sliding over a 20-foot ledge during a heavy rain.

Miss Hayward sprained an ankle during the rescue.

The company was filming scenes on the edge of Mexico's extinct volcano Paracutin for "The Garden of Evil" when a 7-year-old Indian boy slipped and fell about five feet from the lava ledge. Miss Hayward, standing nearby, jumped to grab him, and saved him from falling another 15 feet.

Ban Cuts Revenues

OWOSSO (AP) — Directors of the Shiawassee County Free Fair reported Friday that Attorney General Frank G. Millard's ban on bingo and other gambling games cut a deep notch in revenues, but that the fair still made a slight profit. To reduce expenses next year the directors discussed eliminating a contest for queen.

Eskimos Face Famine North of Arctic Circle

YELLOWKNIFE, N.W.T. (AP)—Maurauding wolves and failure of the fall caribou hunt reportedly threaten famine for Eskimos in the area around Canada's arctic coast settlement of Coppermine.

The tale of disaster was told by a young Eskimo who trekked into Coppermine, on the shores of Coronation Bay, north of the Arctic Circle. He said his people were heading toward the settlement, seeking food to see them through the winter.

First Lady Does Season's Shopping by Mail, Phone

WASHINGTON (UP) — Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower is doing nearly all of her Christmas shopping by mail and telephone this year.

Life in the White House makes that mandatory. The duties of a first lady leave little time for personal shopping in town.

"Shop early" has little meaning for Mamie Eisenhower. She keeps Christmas in mind the year around.

Almost any month she is likely to see some trinket advertised in a magazine or newspaper and say, "Oh, 'X' would like that." And off goes an order for the gift for the holiday hoard.

A doting grandmother, Mrs Eisenhower enjoys most making the selections of presents for David, Anne, and Susan, children of John and Barbara Eisenhower. She has very definite ideas on what may please their young fancies, and takes considerable time to pick out exactly the right gift.

The Eisenhowers aren't saying yet what their Christmas plans will be. But you can count on one thing: The President and First Lady will somehow spend the day with the John Eisenhower family and with her mother, Mrs. John S. Doud. The Eisenhowers are a close-knit clan and like to spend their holidays together.

Wherever they are at Christmas, the whole family will turn in early on Christmas Eve so the holiday can be a long one. Then they will be up bright and early to open all the gifts together. There will be a huge tree and Christmas stockings for the little ones. During the day there will be telephone calls to other relatives and friends.

Intimates of Mrs. Eisenhower say she never forgets anyone at Christmas time. Besides family, she buys for close friends, servants, and even her hairdresser.

"She gives presents to everybody!" one friend reported.

Mrs. Eisenhower makes a great to-do over gift wrappings, too. The choice of gay papers, ribbons, and cards is made with care. In other years, she has enjoyed wrapping the gifts herself. But this year there won't be time for that. Members of the household staff will be called in to help.

But family gifts will all have the Mamie touch. She is reserving for herself the pleasure of tying the bright bows on the Eisenhower presents.

Ditmar from Franklin to Motor, $3,471.60.
Hazel from Telegraph to Peggy, $3,689.40.
Hughes from Bagley to Franklin, $7,951.35.
Josephine from Voorheis to James K, $9,301.45.
Luther from Motor to Franklin, $3,486.45.
Nebraska from Woodward to Earlmoor, $3,397.35.
Ruth from Susan to Telegraph, $7,946.40.
Susan from Voorheis to Ruth, $716.10.
Algonquin from Seminole to E. Iroquois, $745.70.
Erie from Wenonah to Menominee, $1,786.95.
Oneida from Algonquin to Menominee, $2,517.90.
Ontario from Wenonah to Menominee, $990.
Ditmar from Franklin to Highland, $3,450.50.

Officers Are Named by League of Blind

Herbert Martin of 34 S. Shirley Ave. was elected president of the Pontiac League for the Blind Wednesday night at a meeting at 575 Going St.

Martin succeeds James McClain of 465 S. Marshall St. Other 1954 officers included Mrs. Doris McCormick of 91 Adelaide St., vice president; Ray MacDonald of 703 Cedarlawn Dr., secretary; and Hazel Fuller of 37 W. End St., treasurer.

Says Motorists Will Pay Tolls

U. S. Official Believes Third of Highways Can Be Turnpikes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Possibly a third of the nation's interstate highways can be built to turnpike quality in rural areas within 10 years through self-liquidating toll projects, a Commerce Department official estimated today.

Charles L. Dearing, deputy under secretary of commerce, said the success of existing toll roads indicates the motorist "will pay a premium price for the modern high-type highway if it is provided when and where he wants it."

* * *

Dearing voiced these views in an address prepared for the National Conference on Highway Financing sponsored by the United States Chamber of Commerce, in its second and final day here.

The chamber provided this survey of the rapid progress of toll road construction: now operating, 809 miles in 10 states; under construction, 1,083 miles in 7 states; authorized or ready for start of construction, 3,146 miles in 18 states; proposed and under study, 2,423 in 10 states.

Dearing said traffic experts and engineers generally underestimated the willingness of highway users to patronize toll roads at the seemingly high cost of toll charges. A toll of 1½ cents a mile corresponds to a gasoline tax of about 22 cents a gallon.

Nevertheless, toll roads can be expected to handle about 50 per cent of the traffic on the interstate system through rural areas a decade hence, Dearing suggested.

He said the maximum usefulness of toll roads can be attained only if they can pay for themselves and can be financed through sale of bonds to private investors. In such cases, he noted, state highway funds from the gasoline tax and other revenues can be devoted to streets and roads not suitable for toll road development.

St. Fred Senior Girls Will Visit Marygrove

Senior girls of St. Frederick High School will "take to the road" Sunday to attend the "Settle Your Future Day" at Marygrove College, Detroit.

Activities will begin with Mass at 10 a.m., and then a tour of the campus is slated to start the proceedings. A special program will be staged by the college students for the visiting girls.

Cast of Twelve Will Take Part

Matinee Performance Given Today for Grade School Youngsters

St. Michael High School will present their annual Christmas play "A Lantern Lights the Way" on Sunday and Monday at the high school.

A matinee program was presented today at the school for the benefit of grade school youngsters.

The action of the play takes place in a stable a few miles from the town of Bethlehem.

Taking part are Honor Duross and Mary Carole Trudell who will portray Ruth on alternate evenings. Her brother Johnny will be played by Fred West and Marie will be Marlene Cook.

Others in the production are Bob McInnis and Terry Walsh as the shepherds, Carl McKinnon, Mike Lauinger and Edward Sutherland as the kings, and Charles Schwartz will enact the role of the Angel Gabriel.

The Blessed Virgin will be performed by Catherine Schneider, and Ronnie Mead will play St. Joseph.

Chicken Pox Up in County, City

Mumps Cases Are Also Higher Than Recorded Last Week

Oakland County's chicken pox and mumps rates leaped to 65 and 60 new cases, respectively last week.

Weekly reports from Oakland County Health Department, released by Dr. John D. Monroe, director, listed only 13 cases of chicken pox and 16 of mumps the week before last. The county department covers the whole county except for Pontiac.

Measles, scarlet fever and whooping cough listings were also up from the previous week's totals. Two cases of rabies, the first in some time, were also listed on the report, which follows in full:

	Past Week	Week Ending Nov. 28, '53	Dec. 6, '52
Chicken pox	65	13	114
Measles	81	69	15
Pneumonia (all forms)	0	2	1
Poliomyelitis	2	2	1
Scarlet fever	11	5	17
Tuberculosis (all forms)	3	5	3
Whooping cough	8	4	8
Mumps	60	16	22
Rubella	2	5	7
Diarrhea	2	2	2
Rabies (in animals)	3	0	4

Pontiac's chicken pox and mumps cases were higher last week, according to the report from Pontiac City Health Department.

The city listings, also released by Dr. Monore, showed nine chicken pox victims last week, compared with three the previous week. Mumps cases totaled seven, as against three the week before.

No cases of measles were listed for the fifth straight week on the city report, which reads as follows:

	Past Week	Week Ending Nov. 28, '53	Dec. 6, '52
Chicken pox	0	3	6
Gonorrhea	7	7	14
Measles	0	0	6
Mumps	7	3	0
Pneumonia	1	1	2
Rubella	0	0	1
Scarlet fever	1	1	0
Syphilis	2	3	3
Whooping cough	8	8	0

CHRISTMAS PLAY—One of the brightest spots in the holiday season will be the annual Christmas play staged by St. Michael High School Sunday and Monday. "A Lantern Lights the Way" is the title of the production which will feature Patricia Ann Kinney (left) of 178 Chamberlain St., Catherine Schneider of 686 Lounsbury St., and John McCormick of 1019 Berwick Blvd. A matinee performance was presented today for grade school students.

33 to Be Initiated by Playcrafters at Yuletide Party

Thirty-three Pontiac High School students will be initiated in the Playcrafters Club Wednesday at the club's annual Christmas party, according to Patricia Mann, Playcrafter president.

Membership in the organization will be opened to the following students for their work on the recent Children's Theater production of "Cinderella."

Gail Barber, Shirley Dunn, Carol Young, Joan Wagley, Barbara Calhoun, Ann Coombe, Pauline Logsdon, Mary Sarros and Virginia Sherman.

Workers who will be rewarded with membership include Martha Rogers, Mike Lenman, Carol Feneley, Jack Trarop, Jack Larson, Ed Spoggs, Dick Ramsdell and Chris Sheldon.

Others in the list are Judy Learned, Marcia Thomas, Larhoz Jantes, Marilyn Glennie, Carol Opland, Madeline Van Matre and Barbara Schwalm.

Completing the group are Glenda Pratt, Jean Mac Afee, Beverly Carie, Alice Kabodian, Donna Moore, Barbara Welch, Mary Keavy, Helen Rendziperis, Deanna Bradley and Charlotte Stark.

Recreation Group Makes Party Plans

Finishing touches were put on Christmas party plans this week as the Pontiac High School Girl's Recreation Association planned its yearly holiday celebration.

GRA members who joined the organization earlier this year have every reason to shiver and shake. They are scheduled to receive the "treatment" which is given to all novitiates during initiation.

The Dolphin Club, under the direction of Miss Jean Hutchinson, completed plans for its annual informal gathering.

Spanish Club Plans Christmas Program

The Spanish Declamation Club of Pontiac High School has completed plans for its Christmas program.

The tape-recorded show will be presented to all the Spanish classes Dec. 22.

Bill Bryant will be master of ceremonies. Judy Dickenstein and Karen Barling will perform in "Escamillo."

James Stephens will sing a solo and Jean Hilton, Connie Davies, Sally Sebastian and Carol Hobart will sing several selections including "Cascabel" (Jingle Bells). Marilyn Hardy and Carol will serve as accompanists.

Concluding the festive program will be a Christmas play with Charles Hunt, James Spring, Gary Montgomery and Walter Hodge taking part.

Monday Is Date for Latin Paper

PHS Epistolae Scholae to Celebrate 30th Year With This Issue

Talk of togas, chariots and the days of old Rome came into prominence at Pontiac High as anticipation preceded the arrival of the Epistolae Scholae, scheduled to "hit" the halls Monday.

The Latin newspaper, published under the direction of Miss Iama C. Hook, will celebrate its 30th anniversary with this issue.

The first issue was published in 1925 and garnered $25. Since 1943, the intake from the paper has been $2,347, which has all been turned over to charitable organizations.

This year's editor of Epistolae Scholae is Marilee Minesinger. In charge of news and distributions at the junior high schools are Frances Jordan, Lincoln; Bruce Serwin, Washington, and Robert Tiltman, Eastern.

Responsible for the designing and cutting of the cover are Frances Jordan and Nami Maloney.

Publicity is being handled by Karen Berling and typists include Ann Coombe, Geraldine Bennett, Betty Causbie, Bill Bonner, Sandra Andrews and Pat Ronan. Concluding the list are Nicky Folsom and Karen Barling.

Other students who contributed to the paper are Geraldine Bennett, Helen Rendizperis, Ed Kantzer, Bob Keavy, Tony Grimaldi and Marnie Silk.

Latin learners who did their part are Ann Combe and Bob Tiltman. Mr. John Youngpeter also collaborated on the publication.

634 Violations Per Hour

PORTLAND, Ind. (UP) — In six hours, high school students noted 3,805 driving violations in this city of 7,000. The most common faults were failure to signal and to stop at intersections.

Parochial Students Have Day Off; PHS Plans Yule

A free day enjoyed by parochial students and Christmas party plans at PHS stole the spotlight at the city high schools this week.

St. Frederick students returned to the old grind Wednesday following a free day granted Dec. 8.

St. Michaelites trooped back to the alma mater with renewed enthusiasm after enjoying a brief vacation for the Feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

At Pontiac High, chiefs, squaws and papooses were filled with the holiday spirit. Clubs fell into the Christmas swing of things and completed plans for their Yule parties which are slated to spark this gay, festive season.

ST. FREDERICK

Mary Drake, St. Frederick correspondent, had a full slate of pre-Christmas activities to track down this week.

MARY

Rehearsals got under way for the annual Christmas program entitled "Message of the Star." This production will include both dramatic and choral entertainment.

Stiff competition did not phase Jean McHugh and her junior basketball players. They won intramural playoffs Tuesday, making them the only unbeaten team in the series. Joan Mazza is team coach.

PONTIAC HIGH

Correspondent Vicky Mieu stopped just long enough between party plans, initiations and prom activities to jot a few notes on school doings.

VICKY

The old brick teepee took on its holiday air as students plunged into one of the busiest periods of the year.

On Wednesday, freshmen, seniors and relatives viewed the solemn and inspiring National Honor Assembly.

Groans and grins were apparent in PHS corridors Monday as report cards were handed out to excited students.

The Camera and Photography Club met for a confab recently and viewed two press cameras used to demonstrate the operation and care of such equipment. Members also took pictures with a third camera. Sponsors of the group are Arthur Tyrell and Ben Meninga.

ST. MICHAEL HIGH

Wheels whirled as St. Michael Catholic Youth Organization members enjoyed a night of roller skating recently at the Pontiac Rolladium.

MARGARET

St. Michael halls were devoid of clatter and chatter, writes school scribe Margaret Martin, as students enjoyed a free day on Tuesday.

The forthcoming week promises to be even busier than the last (if that's possible) with Christmas plans going into high gear.

The St. Michael Glee Club will present its holiday caroling Dec. 15 in Pontiac State Bank.

Old 'Rawhide' Is Still Rugged Gent at Age 87

TENAFLY, N. J. (AP) — His neighbors call Samuel Jackson Kelly "Rawhide," and though the name was acquired in his youth it still is appropriate. Kelly is 87 and earns his living splitting firewood.

Some of his friends suggested he have a sign painted to advertise his business, "but I told them that wood is sign enough," Kelly smiled, pointing to stacks of logs piled higher than his silver-thatched head.

Canada, Brazil and Sweden consume more than a ton of fuel wood per capita in a year.

Nebraska Home of Weatherman Doubling as Lab

OMAHA (INS)—Omaha meteorologist Ed Stapowich is building a home on the city's western outskirts which will serve as a laboratory for contractors faced with the problem of weather extremes.

* * *

The Stapowich home, already dubbed "Weathering Heights," will feature eaves three feet wide to protect interior furnishings against damage from sudden rainstorms. The eaves also will serve as "shade trees," according to the weatherman.

* * *

Part of the windows will be Thermopanes, to obtain the maximum benefits of winter sunshine.

Others will be of the casement type, opening at angles to catch Nebraska's prevailing southerly winds and divert them into the rooms.

The kitchen, living room and master bedroom will be arranged around the edge of the overall floor plan so that each has an exposure on three sides.

Louvres located at the bottom of the house will permit cool air near the ground to be drawn inside with the aid of an attic fan during the hot summer months.

Explains Radar to Speeder Who Pays Fine

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Robert Waln pleaded innocent to speeding on the radar-controlled express highway "because I want to learn how a machine could pick out my car and record its speed."

So a patrolman took the witness stand in City Court yesterday and explained how a radar beam recorded on a graph the speed of Waln's car and how the license number was radioed to a waiting officer ahead.

"But," said Waln, "there was a car right behind me which was going even faster and passed me."

"That's all right," the policeman replied. "We got him too."

"I'm convinced," Waln said. "Judge, I change my plea to guilty." He was fined $15 and costs.

Many historians believe that in the Bronze Age the average length of human life was less than 20 years.

GREETINGS FOR THE BLIND—This Christmas card can be "seen" by sightless people. One hand reads the Braille greeting, the other feels the picture.

Blind Persons Can 'See' Newest Christmas Cards

BOSTON—Ever think of sending a greeting card to a blind person? How would he read it?

What design could carry to him the spirit of Christmas?

For a long time, a Boston greeting card maker felt that the blind were the forgotten people on those days when cards are exchanged. So the firm tried to do something about it.

After what seemed like an endless succession of obstacles, it has prepared cards for the blind—Christmas cards first, with others to follow. The firm will make no profit from them.

Here were some of the problems: What design? How to make a design a blind person could "see"? How to prepare the verse? How could the sender sign his card?

Designers undertook to teach themselves to think and act as the sightless do.

The design? It had to be simple. And yet their efforts at an embossed, raised design were at first a failure. The blind, accustomed to reading patterns of dots, failed to make any sense out of what felt like a series of irregularly shaped dots.

Experiment finally brought forth a raised design of textile fibers: a Christmas bell, a Christmas tree, candles. These the blind could feel and understand. And to help, the verse always refers to the "picture."

The verse or message has been applied in a form of Braille shorthand (raised dots) which the sightless can read with astonishing speed by running over the dots with their fingertips.

How, at last, to personalize the card? How to enable the sender to sign a name the blind recipient could read?

On the reverse of the card were prepared simple instructions. By following them and a Braille chart the sender can emboss his own name in Braille characters.

The publishers think they have found a way to bring the blind and the seeing closer together, and to the seeing a better understanding of the plight of the blind.

And they think the chart on each card might help a friend to bring an understanding of Braille to some blind person who does not know this way of reading—and thus brighten and broaden his life.

Steals 'Taste' of Deer but Was It Worth It?

CHICAGO (AP)—Otis R. Wagner, 23, appeared in Municipal Court yesterday on charges he stole 150 pounds of a 190-pound deer from the back porch of Charles Phillips, 48.

"I wondered what venison steak tasted like," Wagner told Judge Oscar S. Caplan.

Phillips said the deer cost him $400 and he believes Wagner should pay $300.

"If all he wanted was a taste," Phillips told the judge, "I would gladly have given him a steak. Even given him two. But he didn't have to be a hog."

The case was continued until Dec. 30.

2-Car Crash Involves 3 Off-Duty Policemen

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—All three occupants of two cars which collided at an intersection here were off-duty policemen. The cop driving the first car said he'd been directed by an officer at the intersection to make a left turn—into the path of the second cop's car. Nobody got a ticket.

Don't Change Tire Too Near Traffic

No person would be foolhardy enough to stand within two feet of a railroad track as a streamliner roars by.

But some motorists take far greater risks when they change a tire on the shoulder of a high speed highway with cars whizzing by at 60 miles an hour.

The stage is set for disaster—especially at night when a motorist can't see the emergency repair situation until he is almost upon it.

All it takes to produce an accident is for the tire changer to slip back a foot or two or for the oncoming motorist to move over a little due to a puff of crosswind, a car coming toward him, a car passing him or headlight glare.

Couple Confused, Take Eye Test but Want License

MANGUM, Okla (AP)—Blaine Stephen, drivers license examiner for the state, greeted the young couple who walked into his office at the courthouse.

"Is this where you get a license?" the man asked.

"Certainly. Who will be first?" Stephen replied.

"We thought we'd get the license together," said the girl.

Stephen told the girl to sit down for an eye test.

After the examination, the girl commented: "This is funny. We've already taken a blood test. I didn't know you had to have an eye test."

Stephen suddenly got the idea. He hurriedly directed the confused pair to the marriage license bureau upstairs.

Cleary Says Popularity Survey Is Inconclusive

LANSING (AP)—A poll of Republican leaders' governorship choices which showed Secretary of State Owen J. Cleary a low second was described by Cleary today as "inconclusive."

The poll, conducted by Genese County Republicans, showed that 2,100 "leaders" favored State Treasurer D. Hale Brake for governor by 42 per cent, Cleary by 22 per cent and Donald S. Leonard, Detroit police commissioner by 19 per cent.

Santa's Dolls Now Dress Better Than Many People

This Christmas it will be a toss-up whether dolls or people have the smartest hairdos and the most fashionable wardrobes.

In addition to being almost human in nearly every respect (except income tax deductions and a circulatory system), the new crop of talented dolls will amaze little girls and their parents by their appearance and the versatility of their accessorized wardrobes.

Some dolls stroll casually when held by the arm, some are endowed with "miracle yarn" hair, rooted to the scalp to withstand the most strenuous brushing and shampooing.

Special atention has been given to correct moulding and styling of dolls which represent every age group from the crib to the teens.

Newborn babies, year-old babies, toddlers, kindergartners, school-age youngsters, teen-agers, glamour girls, and brides—all are featured with varied wardrobes and accessories that follow the very latest real-life fashions for each age group.

Real fur coats, a wardrobe of shoes and hats and costume jewelry for every occasion are featured for dolls that portray the older age groups.

Besides being able to walk, sit, drink, and talk, the talented dolls in Santa's new toy pack will provide extra play value by challenging the creative abilities of young doll-mothers in various ways.

One doll that Santa has for under the Christmas tree comes with a completely stocked cosmetic kit. This doll's plastic skin is specially prepared to receive frequent ministrations of make-up.

A new doll bathing beauty comes equipped with an inflated water ring, a stylish bandanna to protect her hair, bathing sandals, Hollywood-style dark glasses and a variety of smart beach attire.

New in specialty doll fashion is a line of brother-and-sister dolls who have rain coats and hats of plastic, for rainy-day nursery wear.

A new thrill in baby dolls is a life-size vinyl baby who sucks her thumb.

And there's a shoulder-strap bag with a transparent window designed to make traveling easy for its doll baby occupant, when "mama" goes visiting.

All the essential baby-care items are stashed away in pockets in the lining.

The boys don't have to be left out of the dol world. For them there are puppet and marionette sets that work either over their hands or on strings. Most kits have a cast of characters and script for presenting plays.

DANCY for young ladies—These are rag dolls big enough to be companions. Clothing is typical of high fashion in new doll trends.

HANDY doll gift—Boys or girls like a puppet set. Usual set contains a cast of characters and show business script.

Hospital Patients Put Beer to Test to Assist Science

MILWAUKEE (UP) — Patients with certain heart and kidney diseases at county general hospital are drinking beer in a project to determine whether it is harmful or helpful.

The research project is testing the old theory that beer is harmful to heart and kidney patients. The Brewery Industries Research Foundation gave a cash grant for the work and Marquette University medical school is directing it.

Physicians often have warned patients suffering from certain heart and kidney conditions to give up beer because it was thought to contain a lot of sodium that would be bad for the patients.

Beer for the research is being furnished by the brewery foundation in unlabeled containers. The researchers also are checking into the sodium content of beer.

If they find the brew is low in sodium, beer might be a good addition to the diet of persons who have to restrict their use of table salt, which contains a large amount of sodium. The reasoning is that beer would pep up the tasteless, salt-free diets.

Standing Room Only in Schools

NEA Survey Reveals Five Billion Needed for New Buildings

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Education Assn. said today the nation's public schools, their first grades jammed with the "war babies" of 1947, must have 150,000 more teachers and five billion dollars worth of new buildings.

The estimate was given in the association' annual look at school enrollments and teacher supply.

Public school enrollment in the 1953-54 school year is close to 29 million, an increase of nearly 1¼ million over last year, said the national professional organization of educators.

It added in a news release based on its survey:

* * *

"The standing room situation, which began plaguing the nation's schools in 1947, will become worse with the new year . . .

"The increase has come largely from young pupils who are entering already crowded classrooms for the first time."

NEA Research Director Frank W Hubbard cited three reasons why he said school crowding would not be cured this year:

1. Colleges are not training teachers fast enough, although at a quicker rate.

2. Even with 38,000 more teachers on the job and spending of a half billion dollars more for education, about 632,000 youngsters must continue double-session or other makeshift arrangements.

3. An estimated 71,589 persons will be teaching this year without full certification, an increase of 2,000 "emergency teachers."

* * *

Hubbard said the problem of housing schoolchildren, while felt for a long time in grade schools, is now beginning to pinch the high schools.

Even with five billion dollars more for new buildings, as the association recommended, he said additional funds would be needed to fix up and replace old buildings, as well as to build for the future.

As to salaries, the association reported public school instructional staff members (teachers, principals and supervisors) average $3,725 a year. This salary, it adds, "will buy only as many groceries, pay as much rent and provide as much clothing as $1,934 did in 1935-39."

Six Are Convicted in Cigarette Case

DETROIT (UP)—Six persons accused of operating a mult-million-dollar cigarette smuggling ring were found guilty Thursday of conspiracy to violate the Michigan cigarette tax law.

Convicted by a Recorder's Court jury were Sam Frontiera, 41, Grosse Pointe Farms; Ernest Brown, 44, St. Clair Shores, and Anthony Palazzela, 32, Peter Monteleone, 35, Clarence Huey, 55, and Dominic Asta, 39, all of Detroit.

Huey and Asta were convicted on only one count. The other four were convicted on two counts. All face maximum sentences of five years in prison and $5,000 fines.

Cocker Aids Boy, 3, Out of River Channel

LONG BEACH, Calif. (UP)—Three-year-old Terry Jagars and Bunny, his cocker spaniel, were dripping wet and shivering when police found them on the bank of the Los Angeles River flood control channel yesterday.

"Bunny helped me out of the water," Terry told officers. Police said Terry must have fallen in and the small dog somehow must have rescued him.

Funeral for Official

SEBEWAING (UP) — Funeral service for Herman A. Rempter, 58, village treasurer for the past 17 years, were held Friday. He died Tuesday at his home.

$ALTY TEARS—Tears of joy threaten to fall as Mrs. Della M. McKeon, 68, looks at an inheritance check for $479,730 which was presented to her in St. Louis by a Pittsburgh lawyer. A faded 50-year-old photograph established her claim to a share in the estate of her aunt, Mrs. Sara Weller, the widow of a wealthy Pittsburgh attorney and oil man. Mrs. McKeon, a former stenographer, said "the money won't change my life."

Only a Hateful Christmas Dud Will Buy Same Gift for All in Wholesale Batch

There are two basic schools of gift-picking-out. There is, first, the easy way. There is, second, the right way.

The easy way is to go buy a whole mess of stuff, all the same, and give one to everybody. For instance, you might buy two dozen cans of snuff, two dozen bottles of cologne, and two dozen boxes of assinterest in balloons.

Then you'd give every man on your list a can of snuff, every woman a bottle of cologne and every child a box of assorted balloons.

That is nice and simple, but suppose Uncle Pertwee, for example, hates snuff, and Cousin Clotilda doesn't use smellum water, and little Buster hasn't got the vaguest interest in ballons.

You haven't spread the joy that you should. You've been a Christmas dud.

No, there is only one way to pick gifts. Do it scientifically. Start with the basic element, the list.

This is not as simple as it sounds. You must, obviously, put down the names of everyone you want to give a present to: (Note: Don't ever say to yourself, "I owe so-and-so a gift." That's not the right attitude.)

So you start, on the left side of the page, with a list of names. For example, you might have Uncle Pertwee, Cousin Clotilda and little Buster. In the next column, put their address. This is so you'll have a reminder of when you should mail the gift, in case they live out of town.

And then — here's where science enters—put down something about each person. Perhaps a hobby, or a personal peculiarity, or a violent dislike.

The key to good, successful, appreciated gift-giving is selecting something personal. You know you like gifts that are obviously chosen for you; so does everyone else.

Take Uncle Pertwee. (No don't really take him, he's the rich uncle.) He likes knitting, cooking and collecting old, stained hat bands.

If you give him a power saw, he'll take you out of his will so fast you'd think he had a jet-powered codicil.

Give him something he'll use. An old, stained hat band would be nice. (Wrap it with a sprig of holly.)

Or something for his hobbies—a new knitting needle, or perhaps a nice new pressure cooker.

Cousin Clotilda is a sweet old gal. She's very handy around the house. The power saw would be right up her antimacassar. Or a set of matched chisels.

But she's not just a putterer. She also likes golf and watching the rassling matches on TV. Perhaps a new tee or a subscription to a TV magazine?

Little Buster, bless his six-year-old hide, is a typical boy. But no boy is really typical. Buster, for instance, has his likes and dislikes — he isn't an electric train fancier, but he has begun to collect stamps, and he also likes animals, like snakes and frogs.

He'd love some stamps. And for his hobby, don't get him a snake, but he'd get a big kick out of a specimen box or butterfly net.

Just in case you don't know enough about one of your victims —er, gift recipients — there are some tried and true gifts. For men, a tie — but steady now, pick a nice, conservative job unless you know for sure he goes for wild ones.

Or jewelry like a tie clasp; or smoking stuff, if you know what he smokes; or a good book, if he can read; or a scarf, unless he lives in Florida.

For a "her," the best bet is powerful scent, just a mild one.

Or a compact; women can always use a new compact. Or a good book, if she can read. Or some jewelry, a necklace, for instance, or earrings, if she has ears.

But try and get a gift that is personal. That's the secret.

Three Bills Are Filed by Saginaw Legislator

LANSING (AP) — The first three bills for introduction in the 1954 legislature were on public file today—a month in advance of the session.

All were filed by Sen. Don Gilbert (R-Saginaw).

No. 3 bill will be Gilbert's widely advertised bill to stiffen controls over legislaive lobbyists. No. 1 is an amendment to the state inheritance tax and No. 2 is a repetition of the proposed new state fair board which was buried in the legislature last year.

Pay Hikes Approved

FLINT (AP) — Raises for Genesee County employes — ranging from $1 to $271 — have been approved by the board of supervisors. Similar pay increases are to be recommended to the board at its Dec. 17 meeting.

Hospital May Close

EATON RAPIDS (AP) — State Fire Marshal Arnold Renner has ordered the 83-year-old Stimson Hospital to close within 30 days unless a number of fire prevention steps are taken.

APPRENTICE PLUMBER—Maybe he'll learn to fix the kitchen sink, with his new plumber's kit containing 35 tools and assorted pipe lengths and fittings.

92 Per Cent Rise in Auto Plate Sales

LANSING (AP)—Sales of auto license plates in Michigan are running 92 per cent ahead of last year.

Secretary of State Owen J. Clary beamed at the early rush for the plates, declaring that if it continues there will be little of the usual last minute crsh.

More than 93,000 plates have been sold to date.

Clearly attributed the heavy early sale to the attractiveness of the new blue and yellow color scheme, the tourist appeal in the new "Water Wonderland" slogan, pressure by dealers, buying plates as Christmas gifts and civic-mindedness of some groups.

Service Saturday

JACKSON (AP) — Funeral service will be held Saturday at 11 a. m. for Miss Bertha Root, 87. She was the daughter of Jackson County pioneers and her father, John M. Root, was once president of the Peoples National Bank.

CHRISTMAS GIFT TO GROW—Fine china is always nicer with the years. And you can always add more pieces. This Athenia design comprises a green laurel leaf pattern on modern coupe shape rimmed in gold.

Dies After Funeral

BATTLE CREEK (AP)—Lawrence Royer, 77, of Hastings, was fatally injured last night as his car hit a tree on a rural road 2½ miles east of Battle Creek while he was en route home from a brother funeral.

'Hams' Will Get Special 1954 License Plates

LANSING (AP)—If you see a Michigan car license with a strange combination of numbers it will be the car of a "Ham."

"Ham" is slang for amateur radio operator.

The Department of State announced it was ready to mail special license plates to about 1,600 of Michigan's 2,500 licensed amateur operators who have applied for car license plates bearing the same license number as their radio stations.

This was authorized by the 1953 legislature. They cost the operators $2.00 extra, but plates are provided for both the front and rear of cars.

Pedestrian Killed

HART (AP) — Albert E. Grant, 83, of Pentwater, died Thursday in Oceana Hospital here of injuries suffered when he was struck by a car while walking on a street in Pentwater.

BEAUTIFUL NEW CONTOUR—This beverage set is in silver—console sticks, coffee pot, sugar bowl and cream pitcher.

Deaths Last Night

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Graham T. Schofield, 67, publisher of the Bridgeton N. J. Evening News for the last 26 years. Born in Philadelphia.

BUFFALO, N. Y.—Adam E. Cornelius, 71, a founder of the American Steamship Co., of which he was chairman of the board and treasurer. Born in Buffalo.

MOSCOW—Maj. Gen. D. F. Dremin, 57, a much-decorated "Hero of the Soviet Union." Died at Tashkent.

Scheme Fails; Wife in Jail, Husband Also

DETROIT (AP)—William Jones, 24, came back to town to see how his wife was doing on a charge of taking $685 from her employer's till and attempting to make it look like a burglary.

He found out Polly wasn't doing too well and landed in jail himself. Detective John McGruddy said Jones admitted he schemed the thing for his wife so they could drive home to Newport, Tenn., for Christmas in a used car they planned to buy.

McGruddy said Mrs. Jones pleaded guilty to embezzlement after arrest Saturday. Jones, he said, fled town then. The husband was nabbed as he inquired of his wife in a court lobby.

Discover Cache of Arms Near Cuban Naval Base

HAVANA (AP) — Authorities have revealed the discovery of a cache of arms on a beach about two miles from the Mariel naval base, 19 miles from Havana.

Col. Manuel Ugalde Carrillo, chief of military intelligence, said the cache contained 100 American-make rifles—M1s and M2s, a portable radio and a large amount of ammunition.

No arrests have been made, Ugalde said.

Ex-Nazi SS General Released From Prison

AACHEN, Germany (AP)—A German jury has ordered the release of the former Nazi SS general who was convicted of ordering the wartime assassination of Franz Oppenhoff, American-appointed mayor of Aachen.

Ex-Gen. Gutenberger's four-year prison term was reduced by the jury to 2½ years—less than he already has been in prison—in a second trial and he was ordered freed immediately.

So shallow is the sea between Japan and Korea that a comparatively slight upheaval of the bottom would enable an army to walk across dryshod.

Expert Defines Love as Work

But Few People Study Subject, so Many Are Awkward in Affection

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—University of Oklahoma undergraduates are being told "Love is nice work, if you can get it," indicating that the experts have finally caught up with the smoochers.

But this particular expert, Ned Linegar of Dallas, Tex., has a new twist. "Love," he says, is work—all work and no play."

* * *

Linegar, a family man, readily admits, however, "Love is a wonderful thing," but goes on to explain:

"It takes practice to learn how to express affection and yet look how few of us really devote any time to studying or practicing it. No wonder so many folks are awkward when it comes to expressing acts of love."

The lecturer, one of several speakers brought here for campus religious week activities, goes on to say: "Despite our excellent school systems, which teach us everything fro malgebra to zoology, how much of that time is given over to this subject?"

* * *

Linegar answers his own question: "Very little, if any time at all."

He also pooh-poohs the old saying: There's only one right mate for each and every one of us. If that were true, he argues, marriage as an institution would be wrecked.

"To find the right person in life," says Linegar, "you've got to go out, meet folks and get acquainted for you've got to grow into this thing called love and that's done through companionship with members of the opposite sex. And to go out and find the right one, you've first got to become the right person yourself."

* * *

And how does one know his or her reaction is the real thing?

"You can't miss it. It radiates energy. That accounts for the shining light so often seen in the eyes of young lovers. Love is real, as well as earnest, when it stands the tests of time, separation, companionship and when it also represents the growth of the individuals concerned."

There's a Pipe Designed to Fit Face of Every Man

There's the right pipe for that man's Christmas stocking. So why not describe your man to Santa and get a pipe that fits the face.

Tall and then men prefer straight pipes. Heavier, stocky men go for curved stems. Young men take to novelty designs. Elderly men like pipes with generous bowls — a leisurely smoke that lasts. Desk workers, architects, engineerx, like a flat bottom pipe that will stand up when they set it down—they are used to using more matches than tobacco.

Although comparatively few pipes are smoked by women, pipe experts say women buy more pipes than men.

Morris Levinson (president of Kaywoodie) estimates that 70 per cent of all pipes purchased during the big Christmas shopping season are selected by women.

Levinson's tips to women who want to please pipe smokers are:

1. Look for a pipe he doesn't have. Every pipe smoker enjoys a good change.

2. Don't select an itty-bitty pipe for a big man, or a large over-powering pipe for a streamlined guy.

3. Purchase your pipe at a reliable store. Don't fall for pipes marked down from $15 to $1. You may be buying "firewood."

Because pipe smokers usually detest any other kind of a smoke and insist on carrying a pipe even when in formal dress, Levinson's firm has designed pipes that won't bulge the pocket. Thin and flat and white and black these pipes look right with black ties or white.

Oversize bowls are considered once-in-a-while smokes. Levinson is convinced that a man can enjoy a big bowl pipe while reading, viewing the TV or watching outdoor sports.

But he contends that big bowls are too bulky to carry around all day.

For this Christmas a sure fire hit is a combination pipe and alligator slippers gift. These should have special appeal to women who want to keep their husbands home by the fireside.

A 14-inch cube of gold would weigh a ton.

Witness' Testimony Costs Oldster $10

SALEM, Ore. (UP)—A 61-year-old Salem man, pleading his own case on a drunk charge, called as a character witness a woman who was complainant against him on another charge.

The woman, a widow, had filed a trespassing charge, claiming he had broken her screen door. He was convicted on that charge and placed on probation.

Then he went on trial for the drunk charge, and called the widow as a character witness. She testified she had seen him enter a tavern the day of his arrest. Fine, $10.

Hal Boyle Says:

Old-Styled Dining Room Adds Much to Family Life

NEW YORK (AP) — As our life grows more crowded, we lose, one by one, some of the things that give it deepest meaning.

The price of lack of space in New York City is the tragedy of the one-room apartment. It affords a cage-like existence for thousands of couples who cook, live, eat, sleep, entertain, fight—and sometimes die—in a single room.

* * *

A dining alcove here in the paradise of the modern cliff dweller is usually described by the rental agents as "cozy." Well, Tom Thumb and his wife might find it cozy. But all a person of average size gets from a dining alcove is a haunting sense of claustrophobia and jail cramp.

* * *

How can you ever have a real home without a dining room? After nearly 17 years in this concrete jungle, where your success is largely measured by the number of bathrooms you can afford, the thing I miss most is a plain, old-fashioned dining room.

Some of the pleasantest memories of my life go back to the dining room in the big old frame house of my youth in Kansas City, a house so durable it finally even wore out the mortage on it.

* * *

The dining room was more than just a place to eat. It was a wonderful place to play on rainy days. It was the family forum, where we talked out our problems around the table at dinner, known in those days as supper. It was also the family courtroom, where Dad dispensed justice as well as biling beef to his five children.

* * *

"What do you think that child did today?" Mama would ask.

"What child?" Dad would reply placidly.

"John, Neil, Edward, Dolores, Harold," said Mama. She always made a roll call of the children when vexed, but everybody knew that the last one she named was the one she meant. And no matter what my crime was, I could look around the table and see an interested expression in the faces of Dad and my sister and brothers that said:

"Well, well, let's see if Harold can talk his way out of this one."

* * *

Usually the punishment was no more than a stern rebuke, forgotten by the time the boiling beef was gone. We all knew Dad didn't like to spank a child on a full stomach. Dad knew it, too.

* * *

How I wish I could go back to that dining room now with a magic recording machine able to pick up the vanished echoes that bounced off its walls through so many years—the shouted accusations, the indignant denials, the bragging, the occasional weeping, the praise—all the stormy history in sound of a happy family around a dining table.

Once a playmate of mine, a poor little rich boy who lived all alone in a big apartment with his father and mother, sat in our living room waiting for me to finish supper. He listened in amazement to the torrent of laughter, quarreling, shouts, chuckles, and happy debate with which our family waded through the meal.

* * *

"Gee, I never heard so much noise," he said later, and added wistfully:

"We don't have fun like that in our house."

* * *

People need room to laugh in. Maybe it is possible to have as much fun eating in an alcove as in the spacious dining rooms that brightened the old homes and now are going out of fashion. But somehow I doubt it. Nothing is added, and something is missing.

Portable Blaze Is Handy for Town's Firefighters

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — Larry Emery couldn't wait for the firemen.

Told that his car was on fire, he sprinted to a nearby parking lot, started his car and drove it two blocks to the fire station.

Firemen put out the front seat blaze with a portable extinguisher.

GIVE Sunbeam

THE BEST ELECTRIC APPLIANCES MADE

...and you give the finest!

WHENEVER a Sunbeam appliance goes into a home, it isn't long before others follow. That's because each Sunbeam appliance gives that extra measure of satisfaction that creates sincere enthusiasm and confidence. Whether it's a Sunbeam Mixmaster, Coffeemaster, Cooker & Deep Fryer, Toaster, Iron, Waffle Baker, or a Sunbeam Shavemaster, one Sunbeam appliance will always recommend another. We know that you will find this to be true just as it has been true in 20 million American homes that are now enjoying Sunbeam appliances. Give Sunbeam and you give the finest.

America's most popular food mixer. There's only ONE MIXMASTER—it's made by SUNBEAM. Give the famous standard-size Sunbeam Mixmaster for ALL the time and labor-saving advantages of an electric food mixer. If it's a junior-size Mixmaster—the Sunbeam is the best junior mixer made.

SUNBEAM TOASTER has exclusive Radiant Control that "adjusts itself" automatically to every kind of bread, frozen or fresh, rye or white, thick or thin. Bread lowers itself automatically—no levers to push. Toast raises itself silently without springs—no popping or banging. Automatic Beyond Belief!

Every woman wants the SUNBEAM STEAM OR DRY IRON that gives 70% more steam because of gravity feed and gives continuous steam for nearly two hours without additional weight to push around. Or, the light-weight SUNBEAM IRONMASTER for dry ironing, that gets hot in 30 seconds.

Only SUNBEAM SHAVEMASTER has the big smooth single head and Powerful 16-bar armature "Real" Motor that shaves CLOSER and FASTER than any method, wet or dry. Because of superior engineering and workmanship it has a 5 YEAR FREE SERVICE GUARANTEE and a 10 DAY HOME TRIAL offer.

Ask people who use the SUNBEAM COFFEEMASTER and they'll tell you it has given them that wonderful assurance of the same delicious coffee every time—all automatically. No guess work. You can't miss. And for rich, lovely, long-lasting beauty that women cherish, the Sunbeam has no equal.

The SUNBEAM WAFFLE BAKER makes 4 good-sized waffles at one time—automatically. You get perfect, even, all-over baking that makes Sunbeam waffles so delicious. Also makes four toasted sandwiches with the new aluminum sandwich grids that can be placed right over the waffle grids.

Preferred by women everywhere because the SUNBEAM COOKER & DEEP FRYER does more things better. It's a cooker, deep-fryer, chafing dish, casserole, steamer, bun warmer, and it blanches vegetables for home freezing—ALL IN ONE. Has deep circular well, shaped like a cooking saucepan.

Princess Margaret Goes Out With New Escort

LONDON (AP)—Princess Margaret and her handsome widowed aunt, the Duchess of Kent, went out last night for a play and dinner.

The Queen's younger sister was with Mark Bonham Carter, a young London socialite. The duchess was escorted by her private secretary, Philip Hay.

They saw the play "Witness for the Prosecution" at the Winter Garden and then had a meal at a smart West End restaurant.

It was Bonham Carter's third date with Margaret in as many nights.

Sen. Potter Confers With Eisenhower

WASHINGTON (UP)—Sen. Charles E. Potter said today that President Eisenhower showed "a great interest" in reports of atrocities committed by the Communists against American prisoners in Korea.

Potter, whose Senate subcommittee recently completed hearings on the atrocities subject, conferred with Mr. Eisenhower for 90 minutes Thursday.

The Michigan Republican said the President did not comment on the resolution that will urge the United Nations to name a commission to investigate atrocities.

Potter also said he and Mr. Eisenhower discussed Canadian-U.S. relations but did not elaborate.

Poles Will Name Exile Parliament

LONDON, (AP)—Poland's refugees from communism are getting ready to name a new parliament in exile.

As a preparatory step, Roman Odzierzynski, Premier of the free Polish government in London, submitted the resignation of his five-man Cabinet yesterday to the President of the Polish republic in exile, August Zaleski. The Cabinet will continue functioning, however, until a new Polish National Council—the exile parliament—can be elected by delegates of Polish groups now living in the West.

The council claims to represent a million such non-Communist Poles.

State's Oldest Daily Plant Will Be Razed

ST. JAMES, Beaver Island (UP) — Michigan's oldest newspaper plant will be torn down soon, its owner said today.

Francis E. Left said the 103-year-old building, which was home of the first daily newspaper north of Grand Rapids, would be razed during the winter.

The plant, known as the "Old Mormon Printing House," was built in 1850 by Mormons who lived on the island at the time under legendary King Strang. A weekly newspaper, the Northern Islander, was published in the plant for several years and became a daily newspaper on April 1, 1856.

Publication of the daily was suspended two months later following the assassination of Strang.

Quiz on Loyalty Goes to 15,000

NEW YORK (AP)—A loyalty check of 100,000 city employes has been launched by this city's Civil Service Commission.

The commission sent out questionnaires yesterday to 15,000 employes in 18 of 45 municipal departments. The 18 have been classified as security agencies by the State Civil Service Commission. Another 85,000 employes will also receive questionnaires.

The AFL municipal employes union, which represents the workers, announced it would seek a court order barring the questionnaires. The union said it was opposed to communism but objected to "the kind of questions asked."

Oldster Builds Lake

Construction Worker Takes Fatal Plunge

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A construction worker plunged to his death yesterday while posing before a giant Santa Claus.

Roy V. Davis, 46, toppled from a crane cable 35 feet to a sidewalk shortly after photographers snapped his picture hanging in front of the giant advertising mannequin at an automobile agency here.

Davis had helped to build the 50-foot-high figure of steel rods and asbestos mache. When newspaper photographers and television cameramen gathered to take pictures of the completed job he suggested a picture of him dangling before Santa's face on a slim cable would make a good Christmas card.

Police said Davis had been bothered with a heart ailment for four years and may have suffered an attack.

Dynamite Left Parked by Stove for 10 Years

NAMPA, Idaho (AP)—A lady called up City Hall yesterday to ask for advice about a package left in her home 10 years ago by a guest who once worked in a Colorado mine.

City Engineer Clark Murphy hurried over and found 100 dynamite caps—on a shelf near the kitchen stove.

One Child Alive After Beatings

Father Used Crowbar to 'Save Five Children From the Devil'

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Only one of five small children whose father beat them with a crowbar "to save them from the tortures and 'torments of the devil" was still alive today.

Ohio Valley Hospital doctors and nurses watched anxiously today over 5-year-old Doran Holt, hoping an hour-long operation yesterday would save his life.

Last night his 4-year-old sister Susan died—more than 24 hours after her father, Frank Holt, 34, an unemployed miner, had killed her little brothers—Tracy, 1, Sidney, 2, and Sanford, 6.

* * *

Holt sat in his hail cell singing hymns, occasionally waving his arms to their rhythm, while doctors operated on Doran. He said his slaughter of the youngsters was because "God told me to kill them to save them from the tortures and torments of the devil." He said he did it to "open the gates of heaven" for them.

Hospital Supt. Harold Springer said the operation on Doran showed "some brain damage" and a "terrific amount" of damage to the skull. His condition is critical. Little Susan was too badly injured to undergo a similar emergency operation.

The father, who deputies said struck the children in the heads with a 30-inch crowbar then stomped on them, will be sent to Lima State Hospital for a mental examination if Common Pleas Court grants a request by Prosecutor Bernard T. McCann.

NATION'S TOP STARS—Gary Cooper and actress Ava Gardner were named this week as the nation's top favorite movie stars. Cooper was chosen for his part in such movies as "High Noon" and "Blowing Wild." He has been among the 12 top actors for a dozen years, since the poll began 17 years ago. Miss Gardner was named to third place, following Bing Crosby, who placed second.

Ready Proposal on Housing Aids

6-Point Plan to Include Liberalized Mortgages on New, Old Homes

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Presidential advisory committee is polishing up today a major recommendation to continue basic government housing aids aimed at encouraging a million new homes a year.

The 23-man committee headed by Albert M. Cole, federal housing administrator, worked 2½ months to get its recommendations into shape.

Government, industry and labor sources said the recommendations would cover these major points:

* * *

1. Federally subsidized public housing for low-income groups must be continued.

2. Mortgages should be liberalized, both for low and higher priced homes. Maximum mortgage insurable by the government should be raised from the present $16,000 to $20,000 and, in lower price brackets, they should run up to 40 instead of 30 years, to lower payments.

3. The Federal National Mortgage Assn. should gradually be liquidated and replaced by a central mortgage reserve bank operated with private funds in cooperation with the Home Loan Bank board. Considerable opposition to this recommendation was reported in the advisory committee, particularly among builder - members favoring continued buying of mortgages by a government agency.

4. Existing programs for modernization of old housing should be expanded, reportedly from the present three to possibly 10 years, and doubling the $2,500 maximum amount the government can insure.

5. Government - insured mortgages for the purchases of old houses should be liberalized. The mortage on a new house costing $7,000 can be insured up to 95 per cent. If the house is old, the insurance now can't exceed 80 per cent of the mortgage.

6. The interest rate on Federal Housing Authority and Veterans Administrtion home financing should follow a formula pegged to variations in the yield of long-term government bonds.

Jack Webb Denies Marriage Reports

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Jack Webb, star, director and owner of television's Dragnet, denies reports he will marry actress Dorothy Towne, and adds, "I'm not marrying anybody. I'm married to my work."

Reports emanating from New York City had Webb, 33, marrying the 24-year-old blonde actress as soon as his divorce from actress Julie London, 28, becomes final. They divorced Nov. 25 but the decree is not final for a year under California law.

Miss London, who got a $500,000 settlement and custody of their two daughters, testified Webb told her it would be impossible for him to continue his work and marriage too.

Webb, who has dated Miss Towne several times, said yesterday he has been taking other girls out too. They met when she had a role in one of his TV shows.

At Palm Springs, Miss London commented, "I don't care what he does. I'm just not interested."

Danny Thomas Has Hit Show, Family Life Too

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Mrs. Danny Thomas had a prayer. It was to have her husband stay at home now and then.

The trouble was his line of work. He describes himself as a saloon entertainer. Financially this was no trouble. Danny could earn as much as $15,000 playing some of the plushier saloons. But money isn't everything, Mrs. Thomas reasoned.

"We don't need all that money," she would tell her husband. "Why don't you get a job in a shirt factory. At least the children and I would get a chance to see you every night and on the weekends."

* * *

"But honey, the money," he'd protest.

"I'd rather have you at home," she would reply.

This went on for years. Danny would be home a few months. The rest of the year he'd be touring the country making night club audiences laugh and cry and applaud.

* * *

Three times he almost got out. First was in radio. He was named the promising new comedian of the year in 1945. He looked forward to a happy home life. Suddenly he was dropped by the sponsor. Back to the clubs.

Then came movies. MGM signed him at a fabulous salary, then put him, a comedian, into two dull character roles. He was offered $150,000 to stay under contract, but he refused. Nor did his film career get off the ground after his hit with Betty Grable and Dan Dailey in "Call Me Mister." Again the niteries.

Danny then tried TV. But the new medium gobbled up the material he had spent years collecting and left him doing things he wasn't suited for. He left TV with the comment "It stinks."

* * *

He was on what he calls his "third retreat to the saloons" when the revitalized ABC network came to him with a deal. He was to sign for two whole years without options, even if a sponsor couldn't be found. Danny signed.

When the creative minds assembled to work out a format, he addressed them; "Gentlemen, the fate of my family is in your hands. If this show fails, I will never do TV again. That means I will spend the rest of my life touring the country most of the year and spending a few scattered weeks with my wife and kids."

* * *

The producer, Louis Edelman, snapped his fingers. "That's it!" he exclaimed. "That's the format!"

And that's how the Danny Thomas show, Make Room for Daddy, was born.

* * *

The show is now catching on nicely. After a naturally slow start—TV audiences take months to build—the show is now drawing an estimated 40 million viewers every Tuesday night. Danny's biggest thrill came last week when he won the Sylvania Award for the best comedy series on TV.

But his great satisfaction is in being able to come home every night to his family, which includes Margaret, 16, Theresa, 11, and Tony, 5.

"My prayers have been answered," says Mrs. Thomas.

Isle Royale Closing Up for the Winter Months

HOUGHTON (UP)—The arrival of the Ranger II at its berth here today signaled the closing of Isle Royale National Park for the winter.

Navigation to the isle of wilderness, located 50 miles off the Keweenaw Peninsula in Lake Superior, will be reopened when the Ranoer II returns next April.

The island normally is devoid of human life during the winter months.

Lecture on A-H Bomb Illustrated by Blast

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Dr. Richard P. Smith was telling his class on the atom and hydrogen bombs what the weapons will do.

Just as he was emphasizing the tremendous explosive power of the two bombs, a window-shattering blast rocked the lecture room.

The explosion, it was learned later, resulted from a freshman student's experiment in a chemistry laboratory upstairs.

Legal Families' Return Sought

Polygamists Will Seek Permission to Get First Wives Back in Arizona

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—The lonely men of Short Creek will ask the state to permit their legal families to return to their isolated community, astride the Arizona-Utah border, where America's last polygamy movement once flourished.

Aaron Kinney, their attorney, said he will lay the plea before the Arizona attorney general's office "immediately."

* * *

The Short Creek cases stem from a giant police raid July 26. Virtually every resident of Short Creek was seized. Cases against 62 women and seven men were dismissed. The other 26 men pleaded guilty to a charge of conspiracy to commit open and notorious cohabitation.

* * *

Kinney, who has handled the polygamists defense from the time of their arrest until the 26 men were given suspended sentences Monday, feels it is wrong to keep the husbands, their legally marrie first wives, and their estimated 100 offspring apart.

Juvenile authorities have forbidden any of the wives, both legal and polygamous, to return to Short Creek on penalty of losing their children.

VA Reports 600,000 Vets in Training This Fall

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Veterans Administration reported today that nearly 600,000 veterans wer enrolled in colleges and schools under its training programs this fall.

Included were a record 217,000 veterans taking training under the Korean GI Bill, 346,000 World War II veterans under the original G bill and 26,000 disabled veterans.

The previous record for Koreans GI trainees was 131,000 veterans in April 1953.

Gophers, Tulane Bid for National Recognition

By BEN PELEGAR

NEW YORK (AP)—Minnesota and Tulane, better known as football powers, clamored for national basketball attention today with three-game winning streaks and victories over the fourth and fifth-ranking teams in the country.

* * *

The Gophers from Minneapolis edged Oklahoma A&M, No. 4, 57-56 last night for the Aggies' first defeat, and Tulane tripped Kansas, voted No. 5 on the strength of being last season's NCAA runner-up, 69-65.

Both of the losers were playing away from home and it was the opening game of the winter for Phog Allen's Jayhawks.

* * *

The University of Louisville was charged with 42 fouls and lost a rough-and-tumble contest to Siena at Albany, N. Y., 78-71, its first defeat of the season.

Minnesota caught up with the Oklahomans after trailing by six points at the half. Buzz Bennett moved from his usual guard spot into the pivot in the second half to spark the Gophers' comeback. He scored 20 points.

At New Orleans Bobby Delpit, a 5-9 midget among the giants, and Hal Cervini ignited a fourth-quarter rally that carried Tulane to victory.

North Carolina State scored the first collegiate victory in four years over the Phillips 66 Oilers in a 67-65 double overtime thriller at Raleigh, N. C. Vic Molodet scored 15 for the college boys.

Dick Boushka, St. Louis University's brightest star since the days of Ed Macauley, broke his own school scoring record with 38 points as the Billikens whipped Alabama 82-68.

* * *

De Paul of Chicago ran its winning streak to five by swamping Manchester College of Indiana 82-59. Boston College won its fourth in a row, 62-47, over Stonehill.

* * *

Temple, beaten only by Kentucky, outclassed Lehigh 60-48.

Notre Dame used its full 13-man squad in a 72-45 romp over the University of Detroit. The University of Oregon waltzed over Portland 92-73.

PHS Teams in Action Today

By BILL MARTIN

Pontiac High School athletic teams are in action today on two fronts.

Coach Art Van Ryzin's cagers open their Saginaw Valley Conference season at Flint Northern, while Des Boyce's swimmers entertain Mt. Clemens here.

The SVC curtain - raiser at Flint should give Pontiac fans a fair indication of their Chiefs' chances in what is expected to be a hectic title chase this season.

Vikings brushed aside Port Huron 60-40, in their only start to date. Coach Carl Stelter has uncovered a lanky sophomore center who appears to be the answer to the Viking mentor's most perplexing pre-season problem—the task of finding a replacement for the graduated Joe Roberson, last years league scoring champion.

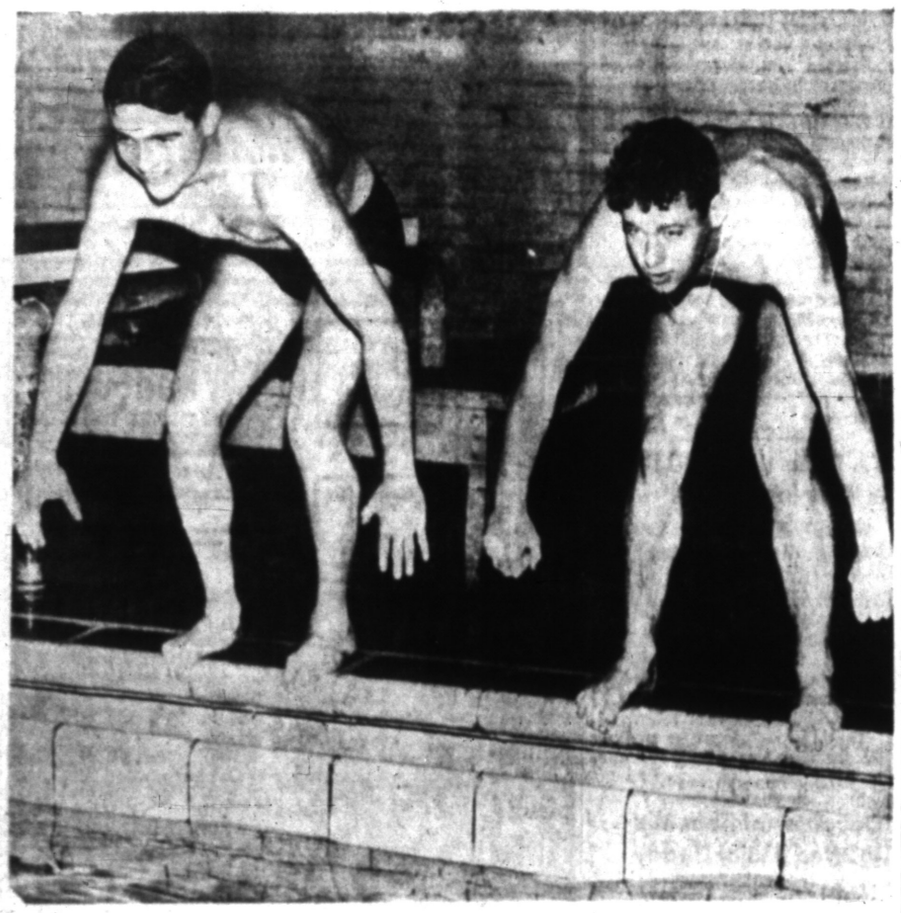

The 10th-grade pivotman is 6-foot 4-inch Clarence Elliott. He started his varsity prep career with a bang, collecting 15 points to share game scoring honors with veteran guard Charles Teaberry.

Northern, co-champion last year with Arthur Hill, is big, fast and experienced.

Two former teammates will become "friendly enemies" in this afternoon's swimming meet here. Pontiac Coach Robert (Des) Boyce and Mt. Clemens mentor Charles Nemeth once played together on the Michigan State Normal College football team while students at the Ypsilanti school.

Nemeth has 10 lettermen back from his 1952-53 team that won seven of 10 dual meets. Top performers are Capt. Thad Ketchum and Stuart Williams, both sprinters.

Meet was scheduled to start at 4 p.m.

TOP SPRINTERS—Leading free stylists on the Pontiac High School swimming team that opened its season against Mt. Clemens here this afternoon are Jim Schellenberg (left) and Bob Lamson. Schellenberg, whose specialties are the 40 and 100 yard events, is after his 3rd varsity letter this winter. Lamson was an outstanding 200-yard and individual medley man as a sophomore last year.

Brooks Propose to Spend Seven Million on Park

BROOKLYN (AP)—Within the next five years, Brooklyn baseball fans may have a new place to cheer their idols, the Dodgers.

* * *

President Walter O'Malley of the Brooks announced yesterday that the club is negotiating for a new stadium since enlarging the capacity of 32,000-seat Ebbets Field would be impossible.

* * *

He said the proposed new stadium would seat about 52,000 persons and would cost some $7,200,000. Three sites have been picked for consideration.

"We hope to make enough progress within the next six months to know one way or another whether the Dodgers will have a new park," O'Malley said.

Red Wings Hit Both by Thief and Bostonians

Detroit Players Taken for $1,000, Bruins Win 6-3 Decision

BOSTON (UP) — The Detroit Red Wings were out $1,000 and an un-estimated amount of prestige today as a result of their recent eastern swing.

The Wings, who bowed to the Bruins 6-3 Thursday night, reported when they arrived here that a sneak thief relieved 13 players of some $1,000 while they were battling the Rangers to a 3-3 tie the night before.

A team spokesman said the thief apparently entered Det. t's dressing room at Madison Square Garden and went through the players' clothes.

Detroit looked like anything but the defending National Hockey League titlist as Boston came from behind three times before pulling away in the final period. Ed Sandford helped the Bruins snap their two-game losing streak b, contributing a three-goal hat trick.

It was strictly a see-saw affair during the first two periods. Gordie Howe scored his 13th goal of the year to give Detroit a 1-0 lea at 9:10. Sandford beat Terry Sawchuk to tie it up at 10:13.

Red Kelly put the Wings ahead 2-1 at 17:57 but Johnny Pierson again knocked the count with only two seconds left in the period.

In the mid..e frame, Glen Skov put the Wings in front again at the 25-second mark. Bruin Capt. Milt Schmidt got the 217th goal of his career at 10:18 to make it 3-all.

While Ted Lindsay was serving a five-minute major penalty for fighting, Hal Laycoe beat Sawchuk at 7:07 of the 3rd period and Sandford added two more goals for good measure.

He slapped a loose puck past Sawchuck at 14.21 and fired home Pierson's rebound at 18:53 to run his season point total to 25.

It was the 1st time this season that Sawchuk had six goals scored against him in a single game. Loss dropped Detroit four points behind league-leading Montreal.

Leahy Eyes Opponents on ND's 1954 Schedule

By FRANK LEAHY

Although we are very happy to have the 1953 season behind us and definitely plan to take a good rest before giving any real serious thought to our plans for 1954, there is no harm in taking a peek at what we will have to prepare for one year hence.

We open at home on Sept. 24 and host Eddie Price's fine team representing the University of Texas. Following the Texas game we entertain Purdue University. Purdue didn't give us as much trouble as usual this fall, but their forte seems to be knocking off highly rated teams.

The next week we go on the road to meet Pittsburgh. Here is a team which plays one of America's toughest schedules and has yet to be embarrased.

On Oct. 16 we host the Big-10 Champions from Michigan State in a renewal of what I believe to be one of the Midwest's finest rivalries. I don't mind mentioning the fact that although we did not play them this past fall they are the only team in America to have beaten us three years in a row — 1950, 1951 and 1952. No more incentive will be needed.

Again we hit the road and meet Navy in Baltimore and the following week Penn in Philadelphia although we will fly back immediately after each game. North Carolina comes to our home on Nov. 13. Of all the teams we played this fall I felt North Carolina had as fine a potential as any. On Nov. 20, we play Iowa. No comment necessary.

Season closes opposite to the way it ended this fall. On Nov. 27th we play Southern California here and on Dec. 4 we visit Southern Methodist in Dallas.

'Retired' Ace Helps Redskins Win Victories

Coach - Player Dudley Pulling Team Out of Holes With Kicking

WASHINGTON (AP) — Washington Redskins have come up with this neat device: At a crucial moment, Coach Bill Dudley sends in player Bill Dudley, who kicks a field goal to put the 'Skins ahead.

It has happened that way in the Redskins' last three National Football League games, which went like this:

1. A Dudley field goal gave Washington a 27-24 victory over the New York Giants three weeks ago.

2. With Pittsburgh leading, 9-7, two weeks ago, Dudley inserted himself in the lineup and kicked a field goal which sparked the Redskins to a 17-9 triumph.

3. With the score 0-0 and four minutes to play last Sunday, Dudley sent himself into the game and kicked the winning field goal. For good measure, the Redskins added a touchdown to win 10-0.

All this was done by a fellow who quit football two years ago.

Dick McCann and Ed Kiely, publicity men for the Redskins and Pittsburgh Steelers, respectively, found at a luncheon get-together a few days ago that there was one thing about football they certainly could agree on:

Bill Dudley is one of — if not THE — greatest competitors in football history.

"Whenever we sit around and talk about players at our Pittsburgh bull sessions," Kiely said, "somehow we always seem to talk more about Dudley than anyone else."

"There's a good reason," McCann said. "Who's better?"

College Grid Crowds Show Slight Increase

Drawing Power of Top Teams Keep Attendance From Slumping

NEW YORK (AP)—Major college football attendance for 1953 was unchanged from a year ago—but only because the big powers drew large crowds—an Associated Press survey showed today.

* * *

The figures covered the home games of all major conference teams and large independents. The over-all attendance was up, but the increase was so small that it was negligible.

* * *

The significant aspect of the survey was that teams like Notre Dame, Southern California, Maryland and Minnesota kept the attendance at major games on an even keel.

Southern California's total jumped from 242,466 in 1952 to 412,772 this year. In five home games, Notre Dame drew 286,406 and Minnesota played before an average crowd of 59,540, one of the highest in the country.

The newly formed Atlantic Coast Conference, led by Maryland and Duke, pulled in 648,749 spectators at 31 games. The Southern Conference attendance, however, dropped 14 per cent. This would lead to the conclusion that the formation of the AAC brought fresh interest to the area.

* * *

The over-all increase figured out to 0.004 per cent.

The total attendance at 514 games came to about 12½ million. At an estimated $2.50 per ticket, this brought in more than 30 million dollars without even considering the small college games.

The Big Ten averaged 50,284 per game, although it showed a drop of 1.17 per cent. The Pacific Coast, Big Seven, Ivy League and Skyline conferences were up while the Southwest, Missouri Valley, Southeastern and Border conferences showed slight declines.

Injuries Fatal to Jeff Cravath

Condolences Pour In to Family of Former USC Football Coach

EL CENTRO, Calif. (AP) — Messages of condolence by the hundreds reached this little Imperial Valley town today as funeral arrangements were awaited for Newell (Jeff) Cravath, former football coach at the University of Southern California.

They came from officials of USC, the school where he starred as a player and whose teams he guided as a coach for nine years; from his coaching rival at Notre Dame, Frank Leahy; from Michigan's Fritz Crisler, who handed Jeff the Trojans' worst defeat in the Rose Bowl, and from many others famed in college sports.

CRAVATH

Cravath, who spent most of his life against a background of excitement and the roar of big time football crowds, met death at a lonely highway intersection in this flat desert country.

Critically injured in a traffic crash two days ago, he died in a hospital at the border town of Calexico yesterday shortly before noon.

In seclusion at the Cravath home not far away were the widow, Margaret, and the Cravath daughters, Mrs. Donald McGregor Jr. of Glendale, Calif., and Mrs. Bruce Goshorn of Palo Alto, Calif.

It's Time Out!

Lofty Scoring Marks 'B' Play

Boys' Club, Oliver 5's Top 60-Point Mark in Taking 2nd Wins

Boys' Club and Oliver Buick each surpassed the 60-point mark Thursday night as they won their 2nd straight starts in City Basketball League Class B play.

Boys' Club pulled away from a 35-15 halftime lead to dispose of Stadium Inn, 61-34. Jim Honchell sparked the winners with 16 points. Koyle ad 12 for Stadium Inn.

John Shanks collected 20 points and controlled both boards as Oliver trampled Elks 723, 67-36. Outscoring the Elks in every period Oliver held a 40-22 advantage by the end of the 3rd quarter.

Old MSC Grads Got Most Bowl Tickets

EAST LANSING (AP)—A breakdown of Rose Bowl football ticket sales at Michigan State college showed that most of them went to old grads.

Alumni applied for 9,500 of the approximate 12,500 tickets allotted to Michigan State. Students and faculty members accounted for another 2,000 and 1,000 were saved by the college for persons and firms it is obligated to.

The MSC ticket office announcing no tickets were left for sale to the general public said about 2,000 applications for tickets could have to be returned.

The ticket situation at that right, if not tighter, is expected the ticket office reports.

Owen's Resignation May Fire Giants Against Lions

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit Lions today were faced with the possibility of meeting a fired-up New York Giants team Sunday when they try to clinch a spot in the National Football League title game.

Steve Owen, head coach of the Giants for the last 23 years, announced Thursday that he would retire after Sunday's game.

This comes at a crucial time for the Lions, who need a victory or a tie to nail down the Western Division championship. They can expect the Giants to be tougher than ever, since they'll be playing their last game for Owen.

Coach Buddy Parker of the Lions realizes Owen's retirement came at a poor time for his club.

"His retirement may help the Giants play better," Parker said. "After all, Owen was a well-liked coach.

"But we've still got to win." Lions will leave for New York by train Friday night. Parker will go into the final game with the knowledge that at least the season has been a success for the Lions in one way.

Parker now knows he made the right choice of players at the last draft meeting. As a matter of fact, he fared better than any other coach in the league.

Of Parker's first eight picks, six made the team. The other two draft choices had been traded to other teams so naturally couldn't make the team.

UCLA Opens Drills for Rose Bowl Game

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Rose Bowl bound UCLA Bruins have opened their 16-day training for the New Year's Day Rose Bowl football game with the Michigan State Spartans.

Coach Red Sanders yesterday sent the squad through light drills the same type of workout scheduled for today.

Although fullback Bob Davenport and tackle Chuck Doud both were missing from practice because of knee injuries, Sanders said he believed they will be ready for the Spartans.

Trucks Honored for Baseball's Top 'Comeback'

CHICAGO (AP) — Virgil (Fire) Trucks, 34-year-old Chicago White Sox pitcher who compiled a 20-10 record for 1953, will be presented the "comeback of the year" award by the Chicago Baseball Writers' Association.

The award will be made at the writers' 14th annual diamond dinner Jan. 17.

Trucks had a 5-4 record when he was traded by the St. Louis Browns to the Sox on June 14. A year ago he lost 19 games and won only 5 with the Detroit Tigers.

County Union Court League Opens Action

Newly-formed Oakland County UAW-CIO Basketball League opened play Thursday night at Eastern Junior High. UAW 653 No. 1 and Local 594 No. 2 won easy victories in opening games.

Bill Smith piled up 21 points to lead 653-1 to a 53-30 triumph over 594-1. John Bridgewater hit an identical total to spark 594-2 to its 56-32 victory over 653-2.

Bell Likes Righties

CINCINNATI (AP)—Gus Bell, left-hand swinging outfielder for the Redlegs, batted exactly .300 during the 1953 season. But most of his blows came against right-hand pitching. Against righties he hit .325 and smacked 25 homers. Against lefties he batted only .252 with five homers.

Wilson Reports on MSC Today

Probation May Not Be Lifted Until Year Is Up in February

CHICAGO (AP) — Commissioner K. L. (Tug) Wilson was prepared to make his long-waited report today on the status of Michigan State's probation to facultymen at the annual Big Ten winter meeting.

There remained considerable speculation that even if Wilson does recommend lifting the probation there may not be immediate action. The probationary year does not expire until February.

Study of aid to athletes and recruiting took up yesterday's session with no announcement forthcoming.

Athletic directors placed an immediate limitation on basketball scouting to one man and to two games of any Big Ten opponent. There has been no restriction on basketball scouting.

Directors and football coaches also discussed trading football game films as a substitute for part of the present scouting system.

Directors tabled until their spring meeting at Purdue, May 28-29, the recommendation of football coaches to revise the method of selecting a Rose Bowl entry in case of a co-championship.

Wall Paces Touring Pros in Miami Open Tourney

By BEN FUNK

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Art Wall Jr. led the pack today as the touring golf professionals teed off for the second round of the $10,000 Miami Open Tournament—seeking their last payday of the 1953 campaign.

* * *

Wall, slender, 30-year-old pro out of Pocono Manor, Pa., who hit the tournament trail for the first time last year, fashioned a 5-under-par 65 with a red-hot putter yesterday to grab the first-round lead over a field of 160.

* * *

He finished his initial round over the Miami Springs municipal course a stroke ahead of Al Brosch, the veteran redhead from Garden City, N. Y., and two strokes better than another time-tested campaigner, Ed Furgol of St. Louis.

If Wall's luck should hold out through the 72-hold grind, he would collect his second big prize since he entered the tournament ranks. He won the Fort Wayne Open last August in a playoff with Cary Middlecoff.

* * *

Eleven players, including Lew Worsham, Oakmont, Pa., and Doug Ford, Yonkers, N. Y.—the No. 1 and No. 2 money winners of the year—were jammed up in a fourth-place tie with 68s.

Twenty-four players broke par. Notable along those who didn't was Sam Snead, who has won the Miami Open five times. He had a par 70.

Fight 2-Platoon Idea

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Pacific Coast Conference, with its nine member schools giving wholehearted approval, will fight any move to bring back two-platoon football.

Faculty representatives yesterday so instructed delegates to the National Collegiate Athletic Association sessions next month in Cincinnati.

Drops Relay Carnival

SOUTH ORANGE, N. J. (AP) — Seton Hall relay carnival, an anual spring feature for many years, has been discontinued because of a lack of public interest.

Hopes Major Loops Will Limit Broadcasts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo) said today he still hopes the major leagues will act on his plan to restrict their baseball game broadcasts in minor league territory.

The idea behind the plan is that major league radio-TV broadcasts keep people at home to the detriment of attendance at minor league gams.

Majors, meeting in New York this week, shunted the proposal, which originated at minor league meetings in Atlanta last week, to name a radio-TV committee for further study. Johnson said he understands it might be considered again in February.

Boucher Wants to Quit Coaching NY Rangers

NEW YORK (AP) — New York Rangers of the National Hockey League hung out the "help wanted" shingle today.

Manager-coach Frank Boucher said he found it physically impossible to handle both jobs adequately and intends to give up his coaching duties. He has been doubling up since the Rangers released Bill Cook before the start of the season.

Gets Deer With Ax

CARROT RIVER, Sask. (AP) — Farmer Adolphe Johnson bagged his quota of two deer with an ax. He saw the deer with their horns locked in a death struggle, and returned with the first weapon he could find to dispatch the deer.

Hammer Wins on TKO; Pontiac Boxer Loses

DETROIT (AP) —Detroit heavyweight Ken Hammer spotted Noel "Bull" Reid, of London, 40 pounds and then proceeded to paste his beefy opponent all over the ring to win a fifth round TKO at Motor City Arena last night.

Hammer, at 190, had his opponent in trouble in the second round and floored the 230-pounder twice in the fifth round.

Bob Brooks, 142, Detroit, scored a first-round TKO over Fred Corr, 143, Pontiac, in a preliminary.

Michigan Tech Six Ties Tough Portage Lakers

HOUGHTON (AP) — You'd have thought Michigan Tech's young yockey players were the "old pros" as they battled to a 3-3 tie with Portage Lake, perennial champions of the Northern Michigan League, last night.

It took two goals in the last 5 minutes and 1 seconds to gain an even break for Portage Lake against the 1953-54 Huskies, only four of whom ever had played collegiate hockey before.

The game dedicated Michigan Tech's new $105,600 ice stadium floor and drew 1,766 fans.

Rams are solid favorites to hand the Packers their ninth setback of the regular season and do it before some 25,000 witnesses and a national television audience.

Cleveland's Winning Streak in Tough Pro League Is Tribute to Great Ability of Coach Paul Brown

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK—There is probably no tougher competition than pro football. Star coaches, plus the pick of the college players, the speed, power, best passing, and brilliant end play, all call for a tremendous effort to win most games.

* * *

Considering all this, Paul Brown's record in this collision of mastodons is one of the greatest contributions to sport's record book. He was a great coach at Massillon High School and later on at Ohio State.

* * *

He has been an even greater coach in the pro division where he started winning when the league was first organized. He kept on winning. He had an almost secure position in the championship group.

* * *

Year after year he is either on top or close to it. But his record this season in winning 11 straight games is phenomenal. To win 11 straight in this league is something beyond the ordinary.

* * *

Most of his fellow coaches were pretty sure this season his winning road would come to the end. It was time for Cleveland to slump. Brown had so many men that he had used for years that a let-down seemed inevitable.

However, he had others—some of them not so well known—who reported and immediately turned into stars.

What accounts for Brown's ability as a coach?

* * *

1. Brown is a great organizer. He has everything set and in complete order before he moves.

2. He is a fine judge of football character—of physical ability, the mental angle and desire to play.

3. He is keen on condition.

4. His first objective was a star pair of pass-catching ends and two fine passers.

* * *

Along this line he got Otto Graham, one of the best passers football ever knew. He paid a tried-and-proven passer named George Ratterman to sit on the bench in reserve. Ratterman, former Notre Dame star, proved he was still great in the recent Giants game.

Brown is a rather quiet, dignified citizen who in no way makes an attempt to be what is known as a good mixer. His record in football is not only phenomenal this season but one of the greatest in sport over the years.

Pension Accord Appears Near in Hot Argument

Hopman Warns U. S. Cuppers to Be at Best

Says Play of Seixas, Trabert at Forest Hills Not Good Enough

By WILL GRIMSLEY

MELBOURNE (AP) — Harry Hopman warns that the Americans will have to play better than they did at Forest Hills to win back the Davis Cup from the Australians.

* * *

This bold statement by the nonplaying captain of the home forces is tantamount to a prediction of an Australian victory.

It was at Forest Hills that Vic Seixas and Tony Trabert gave the Aussies' 19-year-old whiz kids Lewis Hoad and Ken Rosewall a thorough semifinal trouncing and raised American hopes that this certainly must be Uncle Sam's Davis Cup year.

* * *

"I saw those championships," he said, "and I am confident that the play of Hoad and Rosewall in the past month would have given Australia that United States singles title."

Hopman, who combines journalism with his tennis duties, sounded his surprising note of confidence in his daily column in the Melbourne Herald.

* * *

The little sandy-haired net professor went on to say that the Americans must find something close to their best by Dec. 17 when they play the Belgians in the interzone finals at Brisbane.

"That applies to Seixas in particular," Hopman added.

* * *

The United States plays Belgium Dec. 17-19, the winner challenging Australia for the Davis Cup. Both the European and American squads are busy with Brisbane workouts and Captain Bill Talbert reports the Americans are reaching top form.

* * *

Hopman expressed concern, however, that his Australia boys may have reached their peak too early.

CASE—Veering Footwork.

Angling to the Right — Bowling begins with a straight-away form pattern: Erect stance, shoulders squared to the foul line, eyes on the pins; thumb pointed straight at head pin throughout swing, which starts with push-away of ball, with four step footwork. That's standard.

Things, however, soon change. Variations set in. Some take three steps; some five. Some even angle widely from the extreme left of alley to right—like stars Ed Kawolics, Ed (Sarge) Easter, Fred Thoma and Stan Slomenski. But fundamentally they all do one thing: Finish at an identical spot at the foul line with each strike (first ball) delivery.

Kawolics, shown in the sketch, comes in at a very wide angle. Does it because he found in practice it was the natural way to get ball lift for hook spin. It also kept his ball to the right of the head pin—mostly in the 1-3 strike spot.

This style isn't recommended, but it might be what you need, or what fits you best. No harm in trying it!

Strandell, Raymond, Nelley Win Annual Deer Contest

By H. GUY MOATS

Three of the finest entries in several years today were named winners of the 1953 Pontiac Press sports department 3-way deer contest.

These entries were filed by veteran Oakland County hunters — contest was restricted to full-time residents of the county — and in the head and rack divisions it was a difficult task to determine the winners. An unusually large number of entries were received in both classifications.

Each division winner will receive a $100 U. S. Savings Bond within a few days.

Here are the 1953 deer-hunting "champions" for Oakland County:

Biggest deer—A 219 pound (dressed) buck, taken by Cleve Raymond of Lake Orion.

Best head (includes rack) —Arnold Strandell of 3123 Auburn avenue, Pontiac, had a beautiful 8-point, 166-pounder, well-balanced as to both head and rack.

Best rack—Durwood Nelley, 41 North Midland, Pontiac, won with a big, almost perfectly balanced set of antlers on his 10-pointer.

Raymond's winning buck was downed near Rudyard in the Upper Peninsula, and was a typical top-of Michigan deer, rugged and powerfully built. Raymond lives at 314 North Shore Drive, Lake Orion.

Strendell's fine entry was taken near Cadillac. The rack measured 19 inches across the beam. Points were balanced so well that fractions of an inch marked the only difference in the rack. The head itself was beautifully proportioned.

Rack on Nelley's buck was one of the most perfect ever listed in this contest. It was not unusually big. However, there was only one minor fault, a quarter-inch difference in a single point from its opposite number. It was an outstanding entry.

CONTEST WINNERS — Here's the Pontiac Press 1953 3-pronged deer contest winners. They are led by Cleve Raymond's 12-point, 219 pounder, winner of the big deer division (top right). At left is the best head division winner, Arnold Strandell's 8-point, beautifully balanced rack and head, and right is the fine rack of horns entered by Durwood Nelley, a big 10-pointer. Raymond is a Lake Orion man. Others are Pontiac residents. All will receive $100 U. S. Savings Bonds.

Spartans' Jim Neal Set for Senior Bowl

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — The North bolstered its line today for the Jan. 9 Senior Bowl football game by signing a center from Michigan State and a center and tackle from Iowa.

New additions are Jerry Hilgenberg, second string All-America center, and tackle Don Chelf, both of Iowa, and Jim Neal, 6 feet 4 inch center from Michigan State's Rose Bowl team.

The North also signed Bill Stits, UCLA back, while the South added two Oklahoma linemen, J. D. Roberts, All-America guard, and Roger Nelson, tackle.

MOVING UPSTAIRS—Steve Owen (center), veteran coach of the New York Giants, stands with his wife, Miriam, and Francis (Hap) Moran, long-time friend, after a television appearance in New York. Owen announced his retirement as Giants' coach, a position he held for 26 years. He will move to a new job as head of an expanded scouting system for the NFL franchise.

O'Malley Denies He's Trying to Kill the Idea

Brooks' Head Claims Only Proposal Is to Improve Benefits

NEW YORK (AP)—After three days of bitter accusations major league baseball players and owners seemed close to agreement today on the pension question.

President Walter O'Malley of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who sponsored a resolution to consider the advisability of ending the pension plan, denied he was trying to kill the idea.

* * *

Instead, he said, the purpose of his resolution was to improve th benefits to the players.

He admitted the wording of the resolution was "perhaps misleading and certainly unfortunate," but explained that it would be necessary to terminate the old plan if a new and better one was to be put into effect.

* * *

O'Malley said the players had every right to seek an increase in benefits, but he added that this could not be done under the terms of the present contract. He said increases in benfiets could be attained after the current contract expired and a new one was negotiated.

* * *

"But we cannot commit ourselves now for what we believe will take place in the future," O'Malley explained.

O'Malley still insisted that Ralph Kiner and Allie Reynolds, the player representatives, agreed to his resolution last Sept. 29 at the Council.

* * *

"The only one opposed to my resolution was Commissioner Ford Frick," O'Malley continued. "He thought it would endanger the pension plan and he did not want to agree to anything that might jeopardize the players' benefits. Kiner, Reynolds and Lewis (J. Norman Lewis their attorney) were in full agreement, however, and signified this in a voice vote."

O'Malley also denied the contention by Lewis and former Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler that all the television and radio money from the World Series and All-Star Game belongs to the players.

"Chandler and Lewis know that is not so and the players should know it too," he said.

Manitoba's Winter Fishing Big Business

WINNIPEG (AP) — The Manitoba winter fishing season is a multi-million dollar business.

The winter fishing season engages thousands of commercial fishermen, dealers and handlers. But they don't begin until the ice forms solidly on Lake Manitoba. Pickerel is the biggest catch with whitefish next.

In addition to pickerel and whitefish, the anglers get bass, bullhead, carp, catfish, goldeye, perch, pike and tullibee.

About 90 per cent of the catch goes to the United States.

Paul Giel Tops Again

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Paul Giel, the versatile tailback for the Golden Gophers of Minnesota, proved to be the Big Ten's top all-around offensive star for the second time in three years. He set a one-game mark of 53 individual plays (35 rushes and 18 passes) and a season's record of 163 rushes. The latter record displaced Alan Ameche's mark set in 1951.

Michigan State is a member of the seven-team Western Intercollegiate Hockey League.

Bud Smith Given 2-1 Edge in TV Fight With Zulueta

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Wallace (Bud) Smith of Cincinnati is a 2-1 favorite to beat Cuba's Orlando Zulueta tonight in an important battle between the two top lightweight contenders.

* * *

The winner of the Madison Square Garden 10-rounder may earn a shot at Jimmy Carter's lightweight title.

Starting time is 10 p.m., EST, for the coast to coast broadcast (ABC) and telecast (NBC).

* * *

Although they're even for three previous meetings—a draw and a win apiece—Smith has been established as the big favorite because of a current string of five knockouts and a change in the weight contracts for the fight.

The two first agreed to meet at the class limit of 135 pounds but Smith's manager had the contract changed to 140 pounds, give or take a pound. The 24-year-old Smitty fights better and hits harder at around 138 pounds.

* * *

In his last five fights, Smith, a power puncher with either hand, put away Johnny Williams, Carl King and Billy Hazel. His record is 26-8-5 with 15 kayos.

Zulueta, 25, has a 5-1-1 record for the year and 46-18-9 over-all.

Munn Tells Spartans to Have Fun on Coast

Rams, Eaglets in SCL Games

Freds Play at Highland Park St. Benedict; OL Meets St. Rita

St. Frederick's Rams, looking for their 1st victory of the season after two starts, travel to Highland Park tonight to meet St. Benedict in a Suburban Catholic League game.

It will be the 1st conference game of the year for the Ravens, who beat St. Gregory 36-30 and St. Francis de Sales 61-23 in non-league contests.

Orchard Lake St. Mary, which opened defense of its 1952-53 SCL crown with a convincing 65-35 trouncing of St. Michael, goes to St. Rita in the night's only other loop game.

Rockets Beat Milwaukee

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Bob Turner, defenseman turned wingman, slammed in a pair of goals to help Grand Rapids to a 5-2 victory over Milwaukee in an International Hockey League game last night.

It was the second victory for the Rockets in as many nights. And Doug Coxon, Grand Rapids goalie, had an easy time of it turning back a mere 13 shots.

PREPARE FOR ROSE BOWL—Gloves were in order as these Michigan State footballers worked out Thursday for the 1st time in preparation for the Rose Bowl game. Temperature was in the low 30's with a light fall of snow, something the Spartans need not expect in Pasadena. From the left are center Jim Neal, guard Henry Bullough, tackle Larry Fowler and end Ellis Duckett.

But All Will Be Serious in Rose Bowl Game

MSC Holds First Drill in Macklin Stadium; 44 Named for Trip

By ROBERT E. VOGES

EAST LANSING (AP) — "I want you to have a good time on the west coast," coach Biggie Munn told his Michigan State football team as the squad assembled yesterday for the first practice prior to the New Year's Rose Bowl game.

"We've been working pretty hard and have been pretty serious about this football business all season," Munn said. "I want you to have a lot of fun in California."

"But of course," he added, "I want you to be deadly serious the day of that game with UCLA."

Maybe it was an omen—because Munn is mildly superstitious about some little things — but he scheduled his first practice in MSC's Macklin Stadium.

Spartans haven't lost a game there since they were upset by Maryland back in 1950.

Right up to the last minute, the squad had been scheduled to work out indoors in Jenison Fieldhouse, already crowded by the basketball floor.

"The weather turned out to be O. K. after all," Munn said, "so I figured I would grab the chance to take them outdoors."

First practice was a light one, devoted mainly to limbering up, signal drills and group work by the backs, linesmen and ends. Munn said he was thinking seriously of cancelling a practice scheduled for Saturday because so many of his players will be tied up by term examinations.

He said he planned at least three full scale scrimmages before the UCLA game — one here and two in Pasadena. Squad leaves for Pasadena Wednesday.

After the practice, Munn laid down the law as to behavior on the coast, making it plain that the "fun" would have its limits.

The last time Michigan State was in California, on a layover in 1949 between games with Oregon State and Arizona, two players had to be bounced from the squad for devoting an entire night to night life.

As a surprise move, Munn listed the 44 players to make the Rose Bowl trip on the first day of the workouts. Unless there are injuries, the 44 named will make up the MSC traveling squad.

Chisox Waive Three Players Out of AL to Get Willard Marshall From Redlegs

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP)—Rebuffed in his own American League Trading marts, General Manager Frank Lane of the Chicago White Sox has tapped the National League for veteran outfielder Willard Marshall.

* * *

To get the 32-year-old southpaw swinger from the Cincinnati Redlegs, Lane yielded three players —Saul Rogovin, a 30-year-old right-handed pitcher, and infielders Rocco Krsnich and Connie Ryan.

All four players had to be waived on in their own league before the trade.

* * *

Marshall, a teammate of Sox Manager Paul Richards at Atlanta in 1940 and 1941, has led a fairly successful nomadic life in the majors.

He was bought by the New York Giants in 1942 before entering the service for three years. He returned to the Giants in 1947 and reached his slugging peak by slamming 36 homers, driving in 107 runs and bating .291 that season.

He was traded to the Boston Braves in 1950 and in 1952 was sold to Cincinnati. Last season in 122 games he hit 17 homers, 14 doubles and 6 triples while batting .266 and driving in 62 runs.

Lane has been on the prowl for a front-line third baseman without avail. Marshall may add enough outfield strength to permit the shifting of Minnie Minoso from left field to third, in case Cass Michaels proves inadequate.

Rogovin's departure leaves Richards with one less problem. After compiling 12-8 in 1951—leading the Rogovin collapsed.

Krsnich, 25, was always weak at the plate but compensated with his glove.

Milwaukee Will Yield Hurler if Trade Is Right

Braves Seek Thomson, but Won't Part With Warren Spahn

By CHRIS EDMONDS

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Milwaukee Braves are willing to split the best pitching staff in the National League, but only if they can strengthen themselves.

"Were still in the market for bench strength," said general manager John Quinn, back from the major league meeting in New York, "but we won't give up any of our pitchers for nothing.

"Our pitching, I think anyone will agree, was pretty good last summer. We'll listen to reason on trades, but some of the talk I heard in New York was fantastic."

Quinn said he and other top Braves brass conferred three times with New York Giant executives, presumably concerning the prospects of obtaining Bobby Thomson, hard-hitting outfielder.

"About all they'd talk about was Warren Spahn," Quinn said, "and that's out of the question. Spahn is the league's best pitcher and we intend to keep him."

The veteran lefthander led both leagues in earned run average last summer, posting a 2.10 figure, lowest in seven years. He won 23 games and lost seven as the Braves surprised the baseball world by finishing 2nd to the champion Brooklyn Dodgers.

Braves are in obvious need of an outfielder who can hit, preferably a right-handed batter to follow Eddie Mathews in the clean-up spot of the batting order. Sid Gordon, veteran outfielder who slumped so badly he was benched in the final month last season, apparently is out of the picture.

Night's Spotlight on 5 Home Tilts for Area Quints

Skipper, Van Dyke in I-L Loop Opening Play in Waterford Gym

By JACK SAYLOR

Waterford, Keego Harbor, Avondale, Troy and Holly all open their home basketball season tonight, with all but Troy playing league rivals.

After a pair of losses in non-conference play, Waterford bumps into Van Dyke in the opening Inter-Lakes action.

Sam Minard's Keego quintet hosts Clarenceville and Holly meets Milford in Wayne-Oakland game. Both Keego and Holly won opening games on the road, Presidents beating Madison, 62-50, and Holly romping over Hartland, 72-37.

Milford has won its 1st two games.

Avondale entertains the always-tough Roseville Wildcats in the 1st action of the season for both teams. Troy, which was impressive in its opening 68-47 win over Lake Orion, tests Birmingham as the Maples' campaign opens.

Twenty-one of 29 games tonight are league contests.

The schedule:

Pontiac at Flint Northern; Van Dyke at Waterford; Berkley at Walled Lake; Southfield at Farmington; Romeo at Rochester; Flushing at Lapeer; Oxford at Lake Orion; Clarenceville at Keego Harbor; Milford at Holly; Brighton at Northville; Roseville at Avondale; Birmingham at Troy; Madison at Fitzgerald; Hazel Park at Ferndale; Midland at Port Huron; Mt. Clemens at Hamtramck; Millington at Ortonville; Imlay City at North Branch; St. Clement at Warren; Fraser at Eastland; South Lake at Harper-Woods; Memphis at Almont; Armada at Dryden; New Haven at Capace; Cranbrook at Flint Tech; Grosse Pointe at Royal Oak; Redford St. Mary at Shrine; OL St. Mary at St. Rita; St. Fred's at St. Benedict.

Fines for Poor Play Rescinded by Card Boss

Stydahar Studies Game Movies, Returns Money to Players

CHICAGO (AP) — Fines totaling $3,300—$100 against each player—were rescinded today by coach Joe Stydahar after witholding that amount from his Chicago Cardinals for their poor showing against the Pittsburgh Steelers last Sunday.

"We felt that perhaps one or several players did not play up to their ability," Stydahar said. "However, this coundn't be ascertained until after careful study of game movies. So we withheld $100 from each player until this was accomplished."

Stydahar, whose team lost 21-17 to the Steelers after leading 10-0 in the 3rd period, continued:

After careful study of the films we decided we couldn't fine players who played well, and we certainly couldn't fine those who didn't play. So we decided to rescind all fines."

Cards have not won a National Football League game this season, having a record of 10 losses and one tie. They end their season against the Chicago Bears Sunday, league in earned run average with 2.78—and posting 14-9 in 1952.

Richard's 'Hat Trick' Leads Canadiens to 5-3 Victory

By The Associated Press

Maurice (The Rocket) Richard of the Montreal Canadiens was back in his accustomed spot as the National Hockey League's leading goal-getter today.

Richard plunked home three goals last night to lead his Montreal Canadiens to a 5-3 victory over the last place Chicago Black Hawks. Triumph combined with the 6-3 pasting the Detroit Red Wings took from the Boston Bruins, gave the Canadiens a four-point 1st place lead.

Richard was aided and abetted by Dick Gamble and Floyd Curry who also sent the disc home for the Canadiens, while Bill Gadsby, Pete Conacher and Doc Couture all scored for the losers.

A total of 17 penalties were handed out by referee Jack Mehlenbacher in the 1st two periods.

Ed Sandford of the Bruins matched Richard's goal-production for the night by blasting the puck past Detroit goalie Terry Sawchuk three times.

The New York Rangers and the Toronto Maple Leafs were not scheduled.

Saddler in New York; in Excellent Shape

NEW YORK (AP)—Pfc. Sandy Saddler, the world featherweight champion, who hasn't had a match in more than two years, said today he felt as good as ever, was in excellent shape and figured he could resume fighting six or eight weeks after he is discharged. He will be eligible next April.

Saddler arrived here yesterday from Wurzburg, Germany, where he is a boxing instructor.

Junior Cage Program Starts at Waterford

Waterford Township's junior basketball program gets underway Saturday morning in the WTHS gymnasium. Boys in grades 6-9 will receive instruction from 9 to 10:30 a. m., 10 - 12 grade boys will play from 10:30 until noon.

Byron Merritt andJohn Hackett of the high school faculty will direct the program.

No Disciplinary Action Planned

Campbell Wants Report on Rough Leaf-Canuck Game First

MONTREAL (AP) — President Clarence Campbell of the National Hockey League said today he will take no action in connection with last night's penalty-ridden Toronto-Montreal game in Toronto until he receives a full report.

He said it is unlikely anything will develop before tomorrow. Referee Frank Udvari, who handled the game, is on his way to Montreal.

A record 41 penalties were handed out as the Leafs blanked league-leading Canadiens 3-0 in what some observers say was the roughest game in history.

Game ended with only four players from each team on the ice after referee Frank Udvari had cleared both benches in a mass misconduct penalty for fighting.

Ron Stewart of Toronto and Bud McPherson of Montreal touched off the explosion when they began trading punches.

Detroit Eyeing Fat Bonus for Victory

DETROIT (UP) — Christmas is still two weeks away, but the Detroit Lions can give themselves a fat present of about $2,000 apiece by stopping or tying the New York Giants Sunday at the Polo Grounds.

That's how much the Detroit players will reap by qualifying to meet the Cleveland Browns for the National Football League's championship. A subsequent victory over the Browns would hike the bonus by about $500.

Last season, each member of the Lions pocketed $2,274 for winning the championship. Losing Browns picked up checks for $1,712.

Minnesota Prep Grid Ace Seeking Entrance to MSC

MUSKEGON (AP)—One of Minnesota's hottest prep stars in recent years, who dropped from sight this fall, is working and going to school in Muskegon trying to get sufficient credits to enroll in Michigan State.

He is 20-year-old Dick Blakley, a six-foot-two-inch Negro who runs the 100 yard dash in 10 seconds despite his 195 pounds and who for two straight years won all-city honors in St. Paul in football and basketball.

Blakley is a student mornings at Muskegon Community College. He works afternoons and evenings to support himself. He came to Muskegon in October after failing to furnish enough credits to enroll in Michigan State when he visited the East Lansing campus.

In St. Paul where he attended John Marshall high school Blakley is considered one of the outstanding Minnesota high school stars in several years.

Last sesaon as a halfback he scored 14 touchdowns, 12 of them from 30 yards out. He also is a passer. As a member of the North squad in the North-South All-Star high school game he scored one touchdown and passed for another.

In addition to football and basketball honors Blakley was St. Paul's high school champion in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

Pro Cage Series Set for Local TV Showing

First in a series of televised professional basketball games will be carried locally by WWJ-TV (channel four) Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

Saturday's game brings together the Baltimore Bullets and the Boston Celtics from Boston Garden. Bullets are coached by former Long Island University mentor Clair Bee and their leading player is veteran pro Max Zaslofsky, recently acquired in a trade.

Boston is lead by the brilliant Bob Cousy, former Holy Cross All-America and Easy Ed Macauley, 6-8 ex-St. Louis star.

Coach of Many Trades

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Marshall Hughes handles four jobs at the University of Texas. Now in his fifth year at the institution, Hughes is the assistant varsity basketball coach, freshman basketball coach and is a scout for the varsity football and basketball teams. He is a graduate of North Texas State College.

The 1954 world championship amateur figure skating events will be held a Oslo, Norway, Feb. 14-20.

U. S. Action Ups Grain Prices

CHICAGO (UP) — A government report disclosing heavy impoundings of 1953 crop grains under the loan program sent grain prices higher on the board of trade today.

Soybeans and wheat led the upturn. However, the bread cereal did not hold its best gains, backing down rather quickly after initial transactions. Dealings proceeded at a slower pace than in the previous session.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was unchanged to ½ cent higher, December $2.05⅛, corn unchanged to ¼ higher, December $1.55, oats unchanged to ½ lower, December 78⅛, soybeans unchanged to 2 cents higher, January $3.06½ and lard 13 cents lower to 7 cents a hundred pounds higher, December $17.40.

Mother Leaves Office for Daughter's Sake

ESPERANCE, N. Y. (UP) — Voters narrowly missed the chance of having to choose between a mother and her daughter for the office of town clerk.

Mrs. Alice Markle, town clerk for the past eight years, declined the Democratic nomination for reelection because her daughter, Mrs. Esther Brown, was running for the office on the Republican ticket.

Mrs. Markle said she felt competition between mother and daughter is not justified in politics, "So, I stepped aside."

Ford Has Biggest Month in November Since 1925

Ford dealers racked up their largest November sales since 1925 last month, selling 103,399 new passenger cars.

They also sold more new trucks than any previous November by 4,000 units, according to L. W. Smead, Ford Division general manager. He said truck sales were 27,672.

Stock Market Decline Modest

NEW YORK (AP)—The Stock Market declined today on moderate volume.

A few stocks displayed losses of between 1 and 2 points, but the vast majority of issues were up or down small fractions. The large number of leading issues holding unchanged gave an air of stability to the list.

Business proceeded at a rate right around yesterday's 1,420,000 shares traded in a declining market.

Railroads were depressed along with coppers, motors, aircrafts and radio-televisions. Distillers were higher. The remainder of the market was steady or narrowly mixed.

Tobacco stocks were mixed after a higher start. They were up all around yesterday following the severe drop of Wednesday in the midst of a renewed discussion of cigarette smoking and lung cancer.

Calls for Spiritual Rebirth

General Marshall Outlines Basis for Enduring Peace

OSLO, Norway (AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall called today for a spiritual rebirth to establish anew good faith among men as a prime necessity for enduring world peace.

Such a regeneration, the 1953 Nobel Peace Prize winner declared in a lecture at Oslo University Festival Hall, should bring good will, faith and understanding among nations.

* * *

The 72-year-old American soldier-statesman, honored for his sponsorship of America's 17-billion-dollar Marshall Plan aid to postwar Europe, received his prize yesterday in the same hall. Tonight's lecture was required by the will of Alfred Nobel, Swedish inventor of dynamite, who left the money for the awards.

Marshall offered these suggestions for furthering the cause of peace, warning that they held nothing of glittering or early promise:

1. "A careful study of all factors" which have caused wars in the past and a striving "to determine the great fundamentals which must govern a peaceful progression toward a constantly higher level of civilization."

* * *

2. Study and understanding by peoples everywhere of the differences between national groups. He suggested that principles of cooperation based on these factors might contribute to a better understanding among all nations.

3. Solving the economic problem of the "millions who live under subnormal conditions and who have now come to a realization that they may aspire to a fair share of the God-given rights of human beings."

"But perhaps the most important factor will be a spiritual regeneration to develop good will, faith and understanding among nations," he declared.

* * *

"And with all these," he said, "there must be wisdom and the will to act on that wisdom."

Although he completed drafting his speech before coming to Oslo, Marshall in effect replied to Communist hecklers who interrupted yesterday's presentation ceremony. He acknowledged that the award of the peace prize to a soldier had caused "considerable comment" but reminded his listeners, "I know a great deal of the horrors and tragedies of war."

Marshall pointed out that as chairman of the American Battle Monuments Commission, which supervises American military cemeteries overseas, "the cost of war in human lives is constantly spread before me."

* * *

"I am deeply moved to find some means or method of avoiding another calamity or war," he continued. "Almost daily I hear from the wives of mothers or families of the fallen. The tragedy of the aftermath is almost constantly before me."

Admitting that peace at present depends "in very large measure on military power," the U. S. World War II chief of staff declared, however, "The maintenance of large armies for an indefinite period is not a practical or promising basis for policy."

Christianity is the dominant faith among about 780 million people.

Dorothy Lamour Is Key Witness

Testifies Kay Williams Found Semi-Conscious With Gash on Head

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP)—Actress Dorothy Lamour testified that Kay Williams appeared to be semiconscious and had a bleeding gash on her forehead as she lay on her bed last Aug. 20.

That's the day Miss Williams says she was beaten into unconsciousness by her former husband, sugar heir Adolph Spreckels II, who is on trial on assault charges.

Miss Lamour testified yesterday she and her husband, oil executive William R. Howard III, took the blonde Miss Williams from her apartment to a hospital, where she remained for 10 days.

Miss Lamour, her husband and mother, Mrs. Carmen Castleberry, all testified that Miss Williams was not intoxicated the night before the alleged beating, which Miss Williams claimed occurred at Spreckels' Balboa Island home.

However, Mrs. Anna Warner, relief nurse for the two children of Miss Williams and her former husband, testified Miss Williams was intoxicated.

Mrs. Warner said she didn't hear Miss Williams scream the night of the supposed assault. But Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Boyle, who occupied a summer home next to the Spreckels' residence, said they heard a woman scream in the Spreckels home during the night of Aug. 20.

British Seek Man to Run Atomic Power Station

LONDON (AP)—The British Ministry of Supply advertised today for a scientist to run this nation's first atomic power station, at Sellafield in Cuberland county at an annual salary of 2,000 pounds ($5,600).

The successful applicant will be required to take an 18-month course of instruction.

Submarines have been invented which were propelled by oars, treadles, hand-operated screws, clockwork, springs, steam stored in tubes, chemical engines, compressed air, stored gases and electric motors.

Hawaii Finds Big Titanium Deposit on Molokai Island

HONOLULU (UP)—Hawaii's first important mineral discovery, a rich deposit of titanium, has been "re-discovered" on the island of Molokai.

The ore, essential in the manufacture of tool steels and lightweight airplane metals, assayed as high as 30 per cent, according to Dr. G. Donald Sherman, University of Hawaii geologist.

Titanium has been found in several sections of Hawaii but never in sufficient quantities to be exploited.

The Molokai find is by far the richest yet discovered in the territory. Large deposits have been located on the Island of Kauai, but they are of such low grade that it was found unprofitable to develop them. On Oahu, practically within sight of Honolulu, a high-grade titanium ore was found atop the Koolau Mountains, but it is so inaccessible that plans to mine it were abandoned.

The latest "discovery" is situated in open country on the nearby island of Molokai, fifth largest in the Hawaiian group.

Dr. Sherman and other mineralogists knew of the titanium deposit on Molokai since it was noted in an earlier survey, but little attention had been given the ore body as it was believed to be only a shallow deposit of low-grade titanium.

Dr. Sherman made another and more extensive inspection of the area recently and found that the two-square mile deposit carried 30 per cent ore in deeper quantities than had been suspected.

The area is easily accessible, and four American companies already have requested samples of the ore and details of the find.

Dr. Sherman said it is impossible to forcast the potential wealth of the discovery until more exhaustive studies of the area are completed.

State Unemployed Hit 1953 Peak of 125,000

DETROIT (AP)—Michigan unemployed hit a 1953 peak of approximately 125,000 in mid-November, according to the Michigan Employment Security Commission.

The MESC said the total was approximately 80,000 above that of mid-June. It attributed 60,000 of the latest layoffs to the automotive industry.

Churchill Finds President and Dulles Plenty Tough

By PHIL NEWSOM
United Press Foreign News Editor

President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles proved themselves tough bargainers, and Prime Minister Winston Churchill and Premier Joseph Laniel went away disappointed.

Which seems to just about sum up the Bermuda conference.

Laniel did not get his guarantee that United States and British troops would remain forever in Europe.

Churchill was unable to change the President's mind either about a meeting with Russia on the highest level or United States refusal to recognize Red China.

The official 1,000-word summary issued at the close of the conference was remarkable for how little it said, and, in any event, was overshadowed by the President's return to the United States and his surprise proposal before the United Nations for peaceful development of the atom.

But there was one paragraph deep down in the communique worth special note. It said:

"We cannot accept as justified or permanent the present division of Europe. Our hope is that in due course peaceful means will be found to enable the countries of Eastern Europe again to play their part as free nations in a free Europe."

Taken in the light of the Big Three agreement to hold a four-power foreign ministers' conference with Russia in Berlin—the one solid achievement of the Bermuda conference—it holds special significance.

It is reassurance to the enslaved people behind the Iron Curtain that their hopes for the future will not be bargained away by the Western Allies when they sit down with Russia in an attempt to write peace treaties for Germany and Austria.

It was a warning, too, to Russia that whatever her demands, human rights will not be sacrificed.

The last time a four-power meeting of foreign ministers was attempted was in 1951.

On that occasion, deputies of the foreign ministers met in March in Paris to work out an agenda.

In midsummer and more than 70 meetings later, the deputies adjourned in hopeless disagreement and the foreign ministers' conference never was held.

Chief stumbling block then was Russian insistence that the West's greatest defense instrument—the Atlantic Pact—should be placed on the agenda for debate.

The Allies replied that the subject was not open for debate, that the right of every nation to defend itself was inalienable and would not go on the bargain counter.

This week the Big Three reaffirmed that "the North Atlantic Treaty is and will remain the foundation of our common policy."

That, too, was a warning to Russia, softened only by Western reassurance that its mounting military strength never will be used for aggression.

Of course, the Bermuda meeting had its sidelights.

Chief source of speculation was Laniel's sudden illness, and the suspicion that, despite the attendance of doctors, it was more political than real. Laniel is in line for the French presidency and there was good reason for him to duck the touchy issues of Russia and the European defense plan.

Finland is about one and a half times the size of Great Britain.

Georgian Woman Delivers Letters in Bouncing Jeep

DIAMOND, Ga. (INS)—A young woman named Versel Jones climbs behind the wheel of a jeep every day and goes bounding off over rutted and rocky roads—for her job as a mail carrier on one of the roughest routes in the Rural Free Delivery system.

Mrs. Jones, wife of a local farmer and mother of an eight-year-old son, is rounding out five years of service for the post office.

Her route, which extends over 48 miles of mountainous road, is all up, down and around. Even in fair weather the going is rough, but she says she enjoys her work and has found "new bounce" in the job.

Mrs. Jones has made her appointed rounds in rain and snow, through deep mud and over ice.

To the folks of Diamond and others along her 60-mailbox route, she is more than just "the mailman." Having what is known as a Star route, she is allowed to deliver groceries and transport "people and things," as well as mail.

FRESHMAN TESTIFIES—Ruth Steinberg, a Boston University freshman from Newton Center, Mass., appears before the Subversive Activities Control Board in Washington. She testified that as a member of the Labor Youth League she took part in many activities inspired by the Communist Party. Miss Steinberg said she joined the league in May, 1949, and reported to the FBI in 1951. The Justice Department is seeking to have the league declared a Communist front.

Girl's Screams Halt Would-Be Attacker

An 18-year-old Independence Township girl was molested yesterday by a man who halted her car on Baldwin Road, 13 miles south of Clarkston-Orion road, and forced his way into her car, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

The girl said she stopped her car when the auto behind her flashed its lights as if it were a police car, according to Deputies Theodore Kentros and Homer Kelly. The girl's screams drove the would-be attacker away.

"HOUSE OF EVERGREENS"—Such is the name of the work shop of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph I. Hughes at their home at 444 Marian Ave. It was here that over one-half mile of the Christmas festooning over the street in Pontiac's downtown business section was made. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes gather the evergreens from Michigan points and the work is assembled at their home. The picture shows Mrs. Hughes with one of their wreaths.

Fire Leaves Boy, Mother Homeless

A frame garage home at 179 Rapid St., condemened as a substandard dwelling, burned down early today, leaving a mother and her 19-year-old son homeless.

Pontiac Fire Marshal Charles E. Metz estimated total loss at $1,400.

Firemen quoted Harry Reynolds as saying he was awakened by smoke and then aroused his mother Mrs. Lena Dosey. Metz said sparks from a heating stove caused the blaze.

The structure was condemned by Metz and the Pontiac Health and Building Departments Monday as a health and fire hazard.

Southfield Farmer Killed in Tractor Accident

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP — A 52-year-old farmer was killed on his farm here yesterday when his tractor overturned, pinning him underneath.

Dead on arrival at Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital, Detroit, was Joseph Stoia, of 21322 10-Mile Rd.

Rehearsals Nearly Over for 'Messiah' at Hartland

MILFORD TOWNSHIP — Rehearsals are nearly complete for the annual presentation of Handel's "Messiah" at Hartland.

The presentation, which will feature vocalists from several sections of Michigan, has been scheduled for Sunday at 8 p.m. at Hartland Music Hall.

According to Russell C. Nelson, director, the 85-voice chorus and soloists have been rehearsing for the past nine weeks for the 21st annual presentation.

Soloists include, Miss Ruth Orr, soprano; Miss Jeanne Cook, alto; Donald Toms, tenor; and David C. Murray, bass. All are experienced vocalists with experience in similar presentations.

Nelson said there are no reserved seats available this year and no charge. A free-will offering will be asked to defray expenses, however, he said.

Holly C. of C. Names Three New Directors

HOLLY—Emery C. Gudith, Donald R. Winglemire and R. Paul Elliot have been chosen directors of the Holly Chamber of Commerce for three year terms.

The annual election of officers will take place at the next meeting.

Roosevelt High Seniors Hold Dance Tomorrow

KEEGO HARBOR — Roosevelt High School senior class will sponsor a night club-style dance to recorded music in the gymnasium Saturday from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

James Deacon is dance chairman, which will be under the supervision of Mrs. Jean Waters.

Davisburg Man Hurt as Car Crashes Tree

Davisburg man was injured early today when he lost control of his car on Ormond road and struck a tree, according to Michigan State Troopers of the Pontiac Post.

Lawrence Stover, 23, of 8275 White Lake Rd., was treated at Pontiac General Hospital for face and hand cuts suffered in the crash.

Mint at Denver Run by Woman

Female Superintendent Second of Sex to Hold Such a Job

DENVER (INS) — Mrs. Alma K. Schneider makes an awful lot of money — literally. She's superintendent of the United States Mint at Denver.

Mrs. Schneider was appointed by President Eisenhower to this post soon after his inauguration, the second woman to hold such a job. She took the appointment with "no intention of being just a figure-head."

To prove it she's even learning how to handle a gun, though she's always been afraid of them.

This tall blonde, who has devoted many years to Republican politics doing everything from ringing doorbells to serving as a national committeewoman from Colorado, has one of the few well-paying government jobs open to women. Her salary is $10,800 per year.

The three U. S. hard money factories at Denver, Philadelphia and San Francisco, had always been under male supervision until Mrs. Gladys Morelock took over the Denver job in the summer of 1952.

Mrs. Schneider is continuing the new-founded tradition, feeling it a triumph for her sex as she claims "women have not yet gained equality with men in politics."

Mrs. Schneider is getting used to the iron bars on her windows, the granite walls and the uniformed guards with tommy guns, but still is amazed at the efficiency of the Mint, with its scales so delicate that they register the difference between two identical pieces of paper, one of which has a pencil mark on it.

Troy Play Is Tomorrow

TROY TOWNSHIP — Women of this community will present a play, "Mrs. Bascomb Keeps Christmas" at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow at fire hall 2. Proceeds will go toward the recreation project for 1954.

Imlay City Girl Engaged

IMLAY CITY—Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Zavitz announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Louise, to William R. Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Shaw.

Water pressure of about 65 pounds to the square inch is near the limit of human endurance.

Keego Harbor All Lighted Up With Yule Tree

KEEGO HARBOR — The community is rapidly taking on a Christmas holiday appearance with the installation of strings of lighted greenery and the erection of the community Christmas tree this week.

The local Business and Professional Women's club is responsible for the decorations over Orchard Lake Rd. and the Chamber of Commerce for the tree. West Bloomfield firemen were installers.

The Business women are also sponsoring a contest to decide the best decorated display window in the area.

PTA Discusses Carnival in Andersonville

ANDERSONVILLE — Spring carnival plans was the main item of discussion when Andersonville School PTA members met this week at the home of Mrs. Abe Kooiman of Davisburg.

Committee members named were Mrs. Syd Maynard, booth chairman; Mrs. George Willits, refreshments; Mrs. Marge Bruckman, ticket sales; Mrs. Ellie McGregor, lighting, and Mrs. Nora McIntyre, coordination.

THE PONTIAC GENERAL HOSPITAL will entertain bids for the installation of exhaust systems in the Operating Rooms and Emergency Rooms of the hospital. Contractors experienced in this type of work wishing to bid, contact Mr. Ralph Hose at the hospital.

Keep It Under Your Hat
The owner has just cut the price on this lovely brick home by $3,000. We have advertised this property so long it hurts, & we have finally convinced the owner that his price was too high, but we never dreamed he would cut the price so much! He says, if we can't sell it now we couldn't sell a sleigh ball to Santa Claus. We think confidentially, that he is Santa Claus, offering a 1½ story brick, 2 bedroom home with an upstairs large enough for 4 room apartment for only $16,500; but it's his house & if he only wants $4,500 down that's his business. Call us at OL 1-0111 and we will show it to you, if you promise not to give our secret away
