Legislators Eye Budget and Hike in Jobless Pay

Bingo Also Bounces Up as Harrelson Produces New Bill in House

LANSING (AP) — The Michigan Legislature has buried three of its hot potatoes, but today is still trying to handle two remaining major issues—increased unemployment compensation and a suddenly unbalanced budget.

At the same time, an old issue—bingo—came back to trouble lawmakers tired of controversies in an election year.

Although a Senate committee earlier killed a bingo proposition, Rep. Leann Harrelson (D-Pontiac) produced a new one in the House.

His proposal, sent to committee, would allow municipalities to vote on legalizing charity bingo, lotto or lotteries conducted by religious, benevolent, fraternal, civic and service organizations.

All that was left of the McCune bill to censor beer and wine advertising on television was Sen. George N. Higgins' proposal for a study committee.

The McCune bill was killed in the Senate Judiciary Committee and Higgins, a Ferndale Republican, promptly trotted out a proposal for a seven-man committee to consider the advisability of censoring television and radio advertising. This was sent to committee.

The House State Affairs Committee killed two Senate-approved bills which were proving hot to handle — the Fair Employment Practices (FEPC) bill and stiffer controls over lobbyists.

All bills not out of committee today are dead, except budget and tax measures.

The legislative appropriation committees thought they saw a little light in their attempt to hold a balanced budget against the Civil Service Commission decision to raise state employee pay six to 10 million dollars a year.

Rebuffed by Gov. Williams, the committees called in Civil Service Director Arthur G. Raach and secured a promise that he would try to produce a breakdown of the pay raise by departments.

Cloudy With Rain Is Weather Outlook

Cloudy skies will precede rain in the Pontiac area tonight and Thursday, according to the U. S. Weather Bureau.

A low of from 35 to 38 degrees tonight is expected to rise to a high of from 43 to 46 tomorrow. Tuesday the temperature ranged from a low of 34 to a high of 46 degrees in the city.

At 8 a. m. today the reading was 36, but by 1 p. m. in downtown Pontiac the mercury registered 46 degrees.

Reveal Wedding Plans

ON PALM SUNDAY—Actress Susan Ball and her fiancé, actor Dick Long, announce that they plan to be married on Palm Sunday, April 11, in Santa Barbara, Calif. Earlier wedding plans were delayed when Miss Ball underwent surgery for removal of her right leg. The plucky actress says she is determined to walk down the aisle at her wedding.

Called Poor Security Risk

Sergeant Aulisio of Pontiac Handed Discharge Today

S. Sgt. William J. Aulisio, 34, of Pontiac, was discharged this morning from the U. S. Air Force as a poor security risk.

The Pontiac Press also learned from officials at Hensley Field, Texas, that the airman and his family left immediately for California where Mrs. Aulisio's mother lives.

It is not known yet whether the sergeant plans to appear before a House Un-American Activities subcommittee hearing in Michigan this spring.

Sgt. Aulisio was invited today to appear before the subcommittee by Rep. Kit Clardy (R-Mich.).

The Air Force said yesterday that it didn't question Sgt. Aulisio's loyalty, but would discharge him on grounds that he was a poor security risk.

An official statement charged the sergeant with associating with Communists. It also accused his parents and brother of Communist leanings.

The airman's mother, Mrs. Michael Aulisio, 59, of 715 Second Ave., yesterday flatly denied that any member of her family had been a Communist.

His brother, Quincy, 42, a Flint factory worker, joined his mother in the denial.

Mrs. Aulisio and Quincy said Sgt. Aulisio's signature on a Communist party petition was a forgery. The Air Force accused Sgt. Aulisio of signing the petition in 1946.

"I defy anyone to prove that's his signature," said Mrs. Aulisio. "I know he didn't sign it."

Quincy said that he, and his mother and father signed the petition "but we didn't know it was a Communist petition."

"How his (Sgt. Aulisio's) name came up, I don't know," said Quincy.

But on the whole, the man and woman on the street concurred that the original issues have been blown by the wayside since new charges and countercharges have been made by both McCarthy and the Army.

Commenting on McCarthy's investigating tactics, L. E. Gullett, 36, of 301 Dick Ave., an accountant, said, "His method is just smear everybody and someone will break down sooner or later and admit he's a Communist. I'd like to see some of the proof that McCarthy claims to have."

A Pontiac waitress, Mrs. Harold Tain of 322 S. East Blvd., said the Wisconsin senator has carried the probe to a point of confusion. "He's stirring up a mess by forcing the communism issue in this

Radioactive Ash Showers Navy Tanker at Test

None of 92-Man Crew Hurt Seriously From Bikini H-Blast

PEARL HARBOR (UP)—Disclosure that heavy radioactive "fallouts" from the Bikini hydrogen explosion had contaminated a U. S. Navy ship highlighted today a series of developments from the monstrous March 1 blast.

"Hot" ashes spewed up from the testing ground showered down on the Navy tanker Patapsco at an undisclosed point in the Pacific Ocean. None of the six officers and 86 men aboard was injured seriously.

Authorities on Guam reported that 28 American Air Force Weather observers on Rongerik Island, some 150 miles east of the blast area, had been hospitalized on Kwajalein and found unharmed.

Reports from Guam also said that 236 native inhabitants of Ujae Island, 160 miles south of Bikini, had been evacuated following a fallout and will not return until heavy rains wash away the radioactive particles.

The Patapsco put into Pearl Harbor for recontamination on orders of the Navy and the officers and crew received thorough physical examinations.

A Navy spokesman emphasized that none of the men was exposed to "sufficient radiation to be in any way harmful."

Two or three crewmen of the Patapsco registered a temporary slight abnormal count of white corpuscles, but the deficiency was overcome overnight and the men returned to duty without any reactions, the Navy said.

Sources on Guam said the fallouts on Rongerik and Ujae Islands were caused by the unexpected magnitude of the blast and the failure of usually strong trade winds to carry radioactive particles beyond inhabited areas.

Natives were removed from Ujae as a precautionary measure and will be returned as soon as nature finishes its job of decontaminating the tiny atoll with rain and wind, officials said.

The Navy's blackout on the position of the Patapsco made it impossible to compare its plight with that of the Japanese fishing vessel Fukuryu Maru which reported it was about 80 miles away from Bikini when the rain of hot ashes fell upon its deck.

All 23 crewmen aboard the Fukuryu Maru showed external burns and the two most seriously injured were hospitalized.

Uniform Too Attractive, Women's Army Finds

NOTTINGHAM, England (UP)—Maj. Gen. E.H.W. Cobb says the snappy new green uniform of the British Women's Royal Army Corps is causing the girls to leave the armed forces.

"The girls look so attractive," explained Cobb, who is recruiting director for the War Office, "that their marriage rate has risen sharply."

13 Killed, 35 Hurt in Riot at Pakistan Paper Mill

DACCA, East Pakistan (UP)—Pakistan authorities announced today that 13 persons were killed and 35 injured in rioting Monday at a paper mill at Chandroghona.

The announcement said the rioting started with an argument between the plant's operations manager and one of his subordinates.

French Pound New Red Route

Airmen Attempting to Cut Off Food Supply of Starving Commies

HANOI, Indochina (UP)—French pilots struck today at a supply train of 130,000 coolies and hundreds of trucks crawling south from the Chinese border with tons of ammunition and food for starving Communist besiegers of Dien Bien Phu.

The pilots, flying U.S.-built planes, said Red Vietnamese engineers using unlimited coolie labor had hacked a new 100-mile shortcut road straight to rebel positions in Dien Bien Phu.

Bright sunny weather permitted the airmen to comb and strafe the traffic on the road which eliminates a total of 300 miles of twisting trails and paths over the Thai Mountains.

It was on this new and busy jungle thoroughfare that the French fliers killed 1,200 Vietnamese troops over the weekend.

The French were flying around the clock in an all-out attempt to prevent the bulk of supplies from reaching the hungry forces of crafty Communist Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap.

French spokesmen reported Tuesday that Vo's food shortage was so critical that Communist infantrymen engaged in combat with French Union patrols sometimes turned away and hunted for scraps of food in the trenches.

It was believed Vo might be forced to call off his costly siege of the northwest Viet Nam bastion if his supply line was cut off or curtailed.

Off-street, lighted parking facilities at the center will accommodate about 500 cars, according to Edwin Gage, president of Tel-Huron Shopping Centre, Inc.

Unique is the depressed parking lot, four and one-half feet below the buildings, which allows passers-by to see the store fronts.

Gage said some of the merchants will not be able to complete their store's interiors by the opening date, while others are already open for business.

"The center was designed by Paul Mottet of Birmingham to be functional and at the same time give the attractiveness in keeping with the class of merchants leasing outlets," said Gage.

The single-story glass aluminum and brick building covers 50,000 square feet, and is located on a site that covers over five acres. Parking alone is allotted 130,000 square feet.

Restocking and deliveries will be made in the rear via a 20-foot alley running the length of the stores, so that service trucks will find in his pocket contained only "Doodling."

Ferndale OKs Road Division

Signs Agreement With Michigan for Project at Woodward, 8-Mile

DETROIT (UP)—City officials in suburban Ferndale today announced the signing of an agreement with the State Highway Department for construction of a $3,000,000 tri-level road separation.

Mayor Bruce G. Garbutt said work on the separation, located at Woodward Ave. and Eight Mile Rd., would start around July 1.

Ferndale and state officials have been negotiating for the separation for almost two years. Garbutt said the last obstacle, a provision for a bypass for traffic on a nearby side street, was settled a few weeks ago.

Under the agreement, Ferndale will pay one-sixteenth of the project's cost and Detroit one-quarter. The balance will be met by state and federal governments.

More than 100,000 cars cross the intersection daily.

Dutch Welcome U.S. Squadron

American Airmen Will Be Stationed There in Spite of Red Protests

THE HAGUE, THE NETHERLANDS (UP)—Defense Minister Cornelis Staf told Parliament today American airmen will be based in this country whether Russia likes it or not.

Staf told the Senate an American squadron will be located at the Dutch air force base at Soesterberg, in central Holland nine miles from Utrecht. The United States unit will be under the overall command of The Netherlands Air Force, he said.

"We welcome the American squadron as a valuable reinforcement of the Dutch air force and as the execution of a plan to integrate NATO air defense," Staf said.

His statement rejected a formal protest by Russia last Saturday over reported plans to establish U. S. air bases in Holland.

Senate Takes Up Tax Bill; More Excise Cuts Sought

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate takes up today a bill to slash excise taxes by almost a billion dollars yearly, with the administration facing a fight to prevent further cuts in revenue.

Both Sen. Millikin (R-Colo.), floor manager for the measure, and Majority Leader Knowland (R-Calif.) predicted the bill would go through without any substantial change.

But, unlike the House, the Senate considers tax legislation under procedure that permits amendments to be offered freely.

Thus industries which would get no tax relief in the excise measure as presented to the House by its Ways and Means Committee will have their first new opportunity to seek cuts in the Senate.

The Senate leadership hopes to get final action on the bill by Friday. The measure then will have to go to conference with the House to iron out differences. The sales tax changes would

Declares Solon Shouldn't Judge His Own Case

Backs GOP Objections to Senator Having an Active Part in Probe

WASHINGTON (INS)—President Eisenhower declared today that in America if a man is a party to a dispute he does not sit in judgment on his own case.

The chief executive made this statement when asked if he agreed with the Republican leadership that Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) should not participate in his Senate investigating subcommittee's inquiry into his dispute with the Army, except as a witness.

Eisenhower stressed, however, that he was stating a general principle and has no feelings nor knows anything about the particular case mentioned.

He added that he does not believe any leadership can escape the responsibility for carrying on the tradition and practice which he cited.

The President said that the principle applied whether a person is a dispute.

The question was the first asked at a packed news conference. Attendance was swelled by a White House spokesman's advance indication that Eisenhower was prepared to speak out on the issue.

The President refused to be drawn out further, telling another questioner he was not going to compromise the case by stating details which he knew nothing about.

He gave this reply when asked to comment on McCarthy's insistence on the right to cross-examine committee witnesses in the Army hearing.

The Wisconsin Republican has surrendered the subcommittee chairmanship and his right to vote during the investigation.

He parried another question on an executive order issued by former President Truman in 1948 which denies loyalty and security to congressional committees except at the direction of the White House.

McCarthy has charged that the order hampers the operations of his investigating group.

Eisenhower asked his news secretary, James C. Hagerly, to look up the facts on what information was now being made available to congressional committees, saying that he himself was uncertain.

But he declared firmly that the FBI files are inviolate and are going to remain so as long as he is President.

Eisenhower refused a request for direct quotation of his key remarks on the principle involved when a man is a party to a dispute.

Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall has said it would be "very sound" to deduce that the administration supports his belief that McCarthy should not take an active role in the inquiry.

Senate GOP Leader William F. Knowland (Calif.) and Senate Republican policy chief Homer Ferguson (Calif.) were also present.

Planning Board Approves Ordinance for Rezoning of Property for Parking Lots.

From Our Birmingham Bureau
BIRMINGHAM—Planning Board members last night gave final approval to a zoning ordinance which would allow rezoning of certain residential property to a parking district classification.

In recommending City Commission consideration of the ordinance, the board will also ask adoption of a parking lot licensing ordinance.

The new parking district ordinance would permit residential areas that are or are across the street from a business or parking district to be used as parking districts.

Since the proposed ordinance does not prohibit a parking fee, the board made a general recommendation for adoption of a fee schedule as an amendment to the building code.

City Planning Director Robert Boatman will arrange to meet with the Bloomfield Township Zoning Board for a discussion of the 600-

ROLAND W. REESE

Postmaster to Bring Experience to Job

BIRMINGHAM — Roland W. Reese, 51, whose impending appointment as Birmingham postmaster was announced in Washington yesterday by Rep. George A. Dondero (R-Royal Oak), brings the experience of a local businessman to the postal position.

A resident here for the past 25 years, he has been active both in local business and civic organizations. Born in Battle Creek, he graduated from high school in Greenville, Michigan and studied physical education and business administration at Western Michigan College.

After playing professional baseball in southern leagues and living in Florida, he came to Birmingham to work for two large grocery chains. Reese later owned and managed his own market, before becoming sales and service manager of a local automobile dealership.

He has served on the Board of Education, the City Recreation Board, and supervised Birmingham's annual Halloween party for some years. He lives with his wife, Naomi, and children, Rolinda, 12, and Frederick, 11, and has two other sons, Roland, 23, and Jack, 26.

Reese was revealed as the next postmaster by Rep. Dondero, who said that a second appeal of dismissal lodged by present Postmaster Bernard E. Fowler has been rejected by the Civil Service Commission.

Fowler has yet to be notified of the rejection, he said today. He was fired last Oct. 12, for "unsatisfactory conditions" and an appeal to the regional Civil Service Commission was rejected last week.

Pontiac Deaths

Theophilus H. Frantz
Word has been received here of the death of Theophilus H. Frantz, 85, former Pontiac resident, in St. Petersburg, Fla., Monday.

Born Sept. 13, 1859 in Indiana, she was the daughter of Ruben and Clementine Coin and the widow of Mr. Thatcher who died in 1895.

She came to Pontiac 16 years ago to live with her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Powell, who survives.

Also surviving are 5 grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren and 2 great-great-grandchildren, and a brother Oliver Coin of Frankfort, Ind.

Mrs. Thatcher died Tuesday morning.

Haymes Appeals His Deportation

Crooner Plans to Take Case to Supreme Court if Necessary

NEW YORK (INS) — Lawyers for crooner Dick Haymes began today a long legal fight against an immigration service order that the Argentine-born husband of film queen Rita Hayworth be deported.

Bartley Crum, attorney for Haymes, quoted the distraught singer as declaring: "We'll carry this thing to the Supreme Court, if necessary."

Crum said that such a process would require "at least three years" and that the appeal of the order, calling for Haymes to be deported within ten days, was filed yesterday shortly after the directive was issued.

Rita, who heard the news with her husband in their Manhattan hotel suite, declared: "There is something rotten about all this, and I'd certainly like to get to the bottom of it."

She wanted to assure the world, however, (according to Crum) that she will stick by Dick even if he eventually does have to return to his native Argentina.

The crooner, who used to sing for big money but lately has sung the blues for lack of it, was ordered deported because:

1) He visited Hawaii as an alien, and 2) he was late in filing a statement of residence in 1953.

These, said the attorney, are slim charges and they will be contested by Haymes' legal counsel through a hearing and appeals all the way up to the Supreme Court.

"All this," he said, "should take three or four years."

Pontiac GI Handed Discharge Today

got on that petition is a mystery to me," said Quincy.

Sgt. Aulizio's discharge climaxed a two-year investigation and a special Air Force hearing.

Although officials at the airbase said he was discharged this morning, his mother said she had not yet heard from her son today.

Mrs. Aulizio said she didn't know where her son's mother-in-law lived in California.

Officials at the Texas airfield said records showed that Sgt. Aulizio and his wife, Lucille, and their two sons, Michael, 7, and Quincy, 5, were on their way to California.

In inviting Sgt. Aulizio to appear before the subcommittee, Rep. Clardy said that if the sergeant is innocent, he can clear himself at the Detroit hearings this spring.

"If he is an active Communist," Clardy continued, "we want to find out how he was discharged from the Air Force without penalty. Our investigators are going into the case now."

Sgt. Aulizio was honorably discharged from the Air Force in 1945, then re-enlisted a year later. Meanwhile, Rep. George A. Dondero (R-Royal Oak) said he would investigate the case, after learning yesterday of Sgt. Aulizio's impending discharge from Rep. Thaddeus M. Machrowicz (D-Hamtramck).

Sgt. Aulizio appealed first to Machrowicz who intervened in a similar case recently.

Before moving to Pontiac, the Aulizios lived in Flint.

While a student at Walker Elementary School, Whittier Junior High and Flint Central, Sgt. Aulizio was given "good to excellent" ratings in citizenship, according to school officials.

Firemen Inspect 165 Dwellings

Record 117 Violations as City Acts to Enforce 2-Exit Requirement

Pontiac Fire Marshal Charles E. Metz, conducting a city-wide investigation of multiple dwellings, said slightly over 165 inspections have been completed by himself and assistant, E. J. Knolen, since last November.

Metz, who said that inspection of at least 1,000 multiple dwellings will be made, explained that 11 of the establishments have been found to be in violation of state law.

The dwellings, he said, were without two separate exits.

Also making inspections of substandard dwellings in cooperation with the Pontiac Health and Building departments, Metz noted that five of six deaths which occurred in Pontiac fires in 1953 took place in substandard dwellings.

Metz added that a 30-day grace period is given violators to comply with the law before prosecution is started.

Waterford Girl, 13, Hit by Rifle Bullet

A 13-year-old Waterford Township girl was hit by a .22 caliber rifle bullet which bounced off her clothing as she and another girl walked along a country road near her home yesterday.

Rose Marie Plautz, of 2214 Lamont St., told Township Patrolman Frank Randolph that she was walking on Island Park drive near Eagle street with Gloria Bellant, 11, of 3959 Olmstead, when they heard whining noises.

The Plautz girl said she felt a sudden sharp pain above her knee and later at the scene with Randolph, found the spent bullet which had bruised her but had not cut her blue jeans.

Police Chief Frank Van Atta said today that the person firing the rifle was not located but police believe the shots came from the southwest side of Eagle Lake.

Senate Takes Up Bill to Slash Taxes household appliances including refrigerators, stoves, freezers, ironers, dryers, dish washers and toasters; and cut the tax on television and radio sets and phonographs from 10 to 5 per cent.

These proposals would boost the tax reductions in the bill by about $30 million dollars.

As passed by the House, the bill cut about 25 excises by $12 million dollars. The Senate Finance Committee, which Millikin heads, eliminated a few of the House cuts but added others of its own so that the total revenue loss would be $58 million a year.

The bill would also extend for a year beyond April 1 a series of major excise increases voted in 1951 after the Korean War began. Items affected include autos, trucks, cigarettes, liquor, wine, beer and gasoline.

Douglas argues that his amendments would give a needed shot in the arm to consumer purchases in the current business downturn. He says the cuts he proposes should reduce prices of autos by $50 and of major appliances by about $25.

Carthy's method as radical, saying, "He has gone beyond the limit in his search for Communism."

A housewife, Mrs. Henry McKnight of 41 Cherry Ct., said the controversy is emphasizing a lot of facts known in the past. "But the argument," she believes, "may cause a split in the Republican party."

One housewife who said she and her husband "don't see eye to eye on the matter" did not wish her name mentioned.

She said: "It's all just a good way to spend the taxpayer's money. McCarthy is all right, but not his chief counsel, Roy M. Cohn. Once they dig up facts they never really do anything about it anyway. There's good and bad on both sides, and maybe McCarthy is a publicity seeker."

Mrs. Floyd Salow, a clerk, of 468 Harper St., said she does not think the controversy has a harmful effect on the nation.

"At least the public is becoming more conscious of subversives in the United States," she said.

A laidoff factory worker, Norman Fournier, 23, of 96 Parkhurst St., said McCarthy is fearless in his stand against communism.

"He's doing what everyone else is afraid to do hitting at the top brass. You can't possibly do it any other way," he said, "that's the only way to get it out into the open."

Paul Gorman, 59, of 144 N. Genesee Ave., a filling station owner, claims that McCarthy may be overstepping his job a bit, "but if he has proof of definite Communists in the Army, why hide it? Everything subversive should be brought out in the open, especially in the military. If he has proof, I'm for the man."

Postal Carrier C. E. Irwin, 58, of 3037 Margaret St., Auburn Heights, believes that "the fifth Amendment should be amended so real Commies can't hide behind it."

He said, "McCarthy may be making a lot of hullabaloo, but why hide dirt. I don't see how Major Peress was promoted, then discharged from the Army. It looks bad for somebody."

Grand Larceny, Burglary Snafu Elopement Day

NEW HARTFORD, N. Y. (AP)—Lloyd T. Dukett, 18, of Rome, N. Y., told police that when he left home yesterday with his 15-year-old sweetheart they figured they'd soon be man and wife. But, police said, the planned elopement didn't pan out, because: Dukett and the girl drove through this village at about 80 miles an hour in a stolen car bearing stolen registration plates, struck two other automobiles on Route 5 and rammed a branch of office of the Oneida National Bank. State police said Dukett would be charged with grand larceny and burglary. The girl, officers said, was held temporarily in the Oneida County detention home.

Percival Lowell, astronomer, in 1905, predicted the discovery of Pluto, which was not actually discovered until 25 years later.

Hal Boyle Says:

Gals Don't Endorse Pay for Wives, but Hubbies Do

NEW YORK (AP)—Should housewives be paid a salary for their services in the home? This problem has popped up periodically on the American scene ever since women won equal rights—and went right on from there.

"A wife gets tired of working for her groceries and an occasional crumb of praise," writes an "indignant lady" in a letter to the editor. "Her husband gets cash wages; why shouldn't he pay his wife a salary, too?"

Such letters always start a torrent of argument in the public prints. But you know what I suspect about those letters? I suspect they aren't written by "indignant ladies" at all. I suspect most of them are written by nasty old husbands.

The reason for my suspicion is simple. I made an informal poll on this topic. No wife I talked to really wanted to be paid a salary for performing her household chores. But, surprisingly, many husbands thought it a great idea.

The women who opposed a weekly "wife wage" can be divided into two classes, and their views summarized as follows:

1. High-minded—"no amount of mere money could compensate a wife for the labor, love, and tender care she lavishes upon her family. The debt her husband owes her is spiritual, not financial."

2. High-handed—"why should I let that oaf I am tied to dribble out a few paltry bucks a week, just when I have finally got him trained to bring his whole pay check home in his mouth, like a sensible husband ought to?"

The wives in the first group were mostly brides; those in the second group were veterans. For some reason wives, as they forget their honeymoon, begin to remember money. No one can say this is true of all women, of course, for who ever could get to know all women?

"I think it would give a man back some of the authority he has lost in the home," said one man. "I know the guy who pays me my salary is my boss. Neither of us is in any doubt about that. Well, if my wife took a straight living wage from me, wouldn't she have to admit that I was the boss in the house? Believe me, I'd make her earn every penny, and—his eyes lit up in dreamy joy—"I'd make her say 'thank you' on payday, too."

Several thrifty husbands figured they could save money (and have more to spend on themselves) by paying their wives a fixed wage.

"Wives complain a woman's work is never done," remarked one fellow, "but it's only because they never get around to doing it. My wife claims she works 80 hours a week, but I bet that if I made her keep a time card and punch a time clock, it would show she doesn't really hit the ball more than 10 hours a week."

"The other 70 hours she spends napping on the couch, running up the telephone bill, playing gin rummy with her friends, or giving me free advice."

"I'm perfectly willing to pay her a dollar an hour for the 10 hours a week she's actually on the job—and throw in her bed and board for nothing. What could be fairer than that?"

"Nothing," shouted another husband, and the others chimed in: "She's a lucky girl." "She couldn't do that well in China."

"You're spoiling her. Next thing you know she'd want double pay

BUICK the beautiful buy

NEVER before its introduction by Buick did you see a windshield like this on a standard-production automobile.

It comes from the experimental "dream cars" you may have seen pictured from time to time—but it's on every 1954 Buick today.

As you can see, this broadly arching sweep of glass adds bright new beauty and a definite look of tomorrow to the glamorous new Buick.

Even more, this stunning new windshield treatment gives you 19% more visibility—because it pulls back the corners, lets you see as a pilot sees.

But there's a lot more than "dream car" windshields to the new-day 1954 Buicks. For these are really new cars—with new bodies, new interiors, new ride features, new handling ease—and, above all, new record-high V8 horsepower.

Come in and look them over—sit in, sample and price one of these breathtaking new glamor Buicks. It's the only way to know what beautiful buys they are in every way.

Depositors Find Fears Justified

Audit Reveals $75,000 Deficit in Tiny Alabama Money Exchange

CLIO, Ala. (P)—The fear which began gnawing at citizens here three weeks ago when banker Royall Reynolds disappeared became an awful truth yesterday—an audit showed a $75,000 deficit at the Merchants Exchange.

An official who helped audit books of the little unchartered money exchange declined use of his name but said the check revealed at least that much money is missing.

He added, however, that the $75,000 figure does not include personal property which Reynolds has promised to throw in to help make up any deficit.

Reynolds, who was president of the defunct exchange, said he would dispose of his home, car and government bonds in an effort to pay off depositors. There was no estimate of the value of his personal holdings.

Reynolds, released from jail temporarily to help with the audit, was put back in his cell after the check was completed. He is charged in three warrants with embezzling funds of the exchange while president.

Depositors have filed unofficial claims for about $167,000, but less than $87,000 of exchange money is available.

Petty Jealousies Have No Place in Civilized World

By LAURA Z. HOBSON
 International News Service

"I got it and you want it" is a sentence never spoken out loud by anyone, but there's plenty of evidence to show that people secretly feel it.

Winter vacations, for instance, down in Florida have a much better time if the news from home tells of ice and snow.

The reverse is true in the summer. If they're trying eggs on the sidewalk at home the seashore cottage becomes twice as enjoyable.

These two examples, however, are more innocent than some equally prevalent ones which aren't admitted so openly.

How about the pleasure that bubbles up in the heart of a man with a new convertible, as he sweeps past a jalopy and notes the envious glances of its occupants?

Or the girl who shows her new engagement ring around the office—with a special glee when she gets to the old maids in the place?

If you hinted that they got a bang out of other folks' envy, they'd deny it. They think "it's only natural" to enjoy showing their possessions to friends, and it is.

It's only when the pleasure gets mixed up with feelings of triumph that we're so "natural" we belong in the jungle.

To grow really civilized in mind and spirit means to rid ourselves of the hidden claws and fangs of spite.

But that's not easy to do. Perhaps that explains why many of us go through life ready to pounce on other people's pride.

"I got it and you want it," doesn't apply only to material possessions. Success and power are even more dangerous where the mean little acids of triumph can be generated.

Beating out a rival for a promotion can and should give a legitimate pride—or it can fill you with petty joy over the other fellow's failure.

Unless we're careful, any triumph can start a chain reaction based on the explosive acids of a superiority complex. And a chain reaction has no more respect for the Joneses than for anybody else.

Perching on a powder keg is neither relaxed nor peaceful, so let's all remember that even the Joneses aren't always sitting quite as pretty as they look.

2 Typed Words End Deaf Man's Free Life

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (P)—Harold L. Hunter, convicted last month of arson, appeared in Common Pleas Court yesterday for sentencing.

Two words were typed on a sheet of paper and held up before the totally deaf defendant. They read: "Life imprisonment."

The life sentence was mandatory. The 42-year-old man had been convicted previously three times, in 1931, 1933 and 1938.

Pats Baby on Head; Robs Mother of $139

DETROIT (P)—A young mother who manages a service station was robbed of $139 last night by a bandit who first patted one of her two children on the head.

Mrs. Nancy Clark told police that she was holding her 6-month-old daughter, Elaine, in her arms when a man walked into the station. She said the man patted the baby on the head and then announced it was a stickup.

Mrs. Clark quoted the man as saying, "You have a nice little baby. I don't want to have to hurt her, but I am desperate."

She said the man fled with the day's receipts while her other child, Walter, 6, played in the station unaware of the robbery.

Mrs. Clark's husband, Harvey, 33, an unemployed truck driver, was shopping at the time.

Artists, Writers to Do Big Show

Famous Names Listed for 25th Anniversary of General Foods

NEW YORK — An array of show business "greats," including Mary Martin, Ezio Pinza, Tony Martin, Rosemary Clooney, Jack Benny, Groucho Marx, Ed Sullivan, Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, Patricia Morison, John Raitt, Jan Clayton and Gordon MacRae, will dazzle the nation's TV audience in a special 90-minute cavalcade of numbers from the six Broadway hit musicals of Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II on March 28.

Titled "The General Foods 25th Anniversary Show," this television extravaganza will be seen over two major networks from 8 to 9:30 p. m. EST.

Li informal press statement, Rodgers and Hammerstein, who will produce the show, expressed satisfaction that the enormous number of televiewers will be able to see for the first time portions of their musical hits as they originally were produced on the New York stage.

"Excerpts from our shows often have been seen on TV," said Rodgers, "but they never were presented under our direct supervision. I am happy that we will have the chance to do some highlights from our six shows on television in our own way."

Hammerstein hailed TV as a splendid means of bringing the musical theater to millions of Americans in their own homes.

"Such shows of ours as Oklahoma! and South Pacific," he said, "have been seen by literally millions of theatergoers in this country and in other parts of the world in the 11 years of our collaboration."

"But even these large numbers will seem small compared to the total of persons who will witness this program in the space of an hour and a half."

The General Foods 25th Anniversary Show will be comprised of the most memorable excerpts from Oklahoma!, Carousel, Allegro, South Pacific, The King and I and Me and Juliet.

ANNIVERSARY HEADLINERS—Part of an all star cast which will spark the "General Foods 25th Anniversary Show" is Ezio Pinza (left) and Gordon MacRae. The extravaganza, which will last for an hour and a half on March 28, boasts an outstanding roster of luminaries performing in a medley of Rogers and Hammerstein shows.

When London-Bound:

Bone Up on King's English and Watch for Erks, Fools

WASHINGTON — With the tourist season hard upon us, it's time for those who are going abroad to get out their phrase books and try for a smattering of whatever foreign language they're likely to require. For Americans, that includes the English language. The King's English, that is, not the English we all speak.

You doubt English is a foreign tongue? All right, then, what does "prang" mean? Use "housey-housey" in a sentence. Tell us what an "erk" is and own up—no cribbing, now—whether you'd like some "Tottenham pudding" for dinner.

These are English words, honest, though most of them are slang. You can find them—and a lot more you may need if you're London-bound—in a recently published book, "A Dictionary of New Words in English," by Paul C. Berg (Crowell, $2.95).

Berg, an Englishman, got together some thousands of the words which have come into common use since the 1930s. This shows how the world has changed in 20 years. Back in those innocent days "atom bomb" wasn't even in the dictionary.

Ex-Officer Also Held as AF in Japan Exposes $200,000 Swindle

TOKYO — An Air Force Major entrusted with destroying worn-out military currency and a former officer have been arrested for allegedly pocketing some $200,000 destined for the furnace, the Air Force announced tonight.

Maj. Thomas Pate of Los Angeles, under house arrest here, has helped recover most of the money, Far East Air Forces said. No

The FBI in Washington identified the second man as Lowell A. Logan, 24, of Springfield, Ohio. Now a student at the University of Iowa, Logan was arrested Saturday at Iowa City. He pleaded innocent yesterday to a charge of embezzling $20,000 in federal funds. Pate has been finance officer at Tachikawa air base 20 miles southwest of Tokyo.

The Air Force said he admitted swapping script of small denomination for bigger currency, and then falsifying records to show that the bigger certificates had been destroyed.

The role allegedly played by Logan was not announced.

When arrested, the major was carrying $66,000 in U. S. currency. Military personnel in Japan are required to use only military script while on duty in Japan.

Black Panther Story Only Publicity Tale

LOS ANGELES (U)—The man who reported a black panther missing from his animal show has been charged with making a false report.

The black panther scare had hundreds of residents in the Los Angeles area in a dither week before last. The beast supposedly escaped from his cage shortly after Wayne Roberts' show started for Phoenix, Ariz.

"The whole story was a hoax," Police Chief William H. Parker said yesterday. "We were pretty certain of that from the first, but it has taken a lot of checking to substantiate it."

Scores of frightened citizens reported they had seen the black panther.

Chief Parker says Roberts concocted the whole story and kept it going so he could get a job as publicity man with a carnival.

Couple Adopts Six as Matter-of-Fact

MINSTER, Ohio (U)—When Ben Martin and his wife brought six youngsters home to live with them in this western Ohio town of 1,500 persons, Martin didn't think it would cause much excitement.

Even now that word of the multiple adoption has been in newspapers throughout the country, the 37-year-old tool and dye maker can't understand why people are so interested.

"We didn't have any children of our own and couldn't have any," he explained, "so we adopted them."

He referred to Elizabeth, 5; Bernard, 4; Brenda Lou, 2; David, 6; Diana, 9, and John, 8, whom he and his wife adopted last Saturday in Mercer County. The children's mother is dead, he said, but noted the court wouldn't let him say any more about their background.

Boy, 10, Is Ringleader of Gang in 9 Burglaries

OKLAHOMA CITY (U)—A 10-year-old boy, wearing two toy guns and a sheriff's badge, was joined by police in his game of cops and robbers yesterday. But found they were playing for keeps.

Officers C. W. Pierce and C. B. Mead said the lad confessed being the ringleader on nine burglaries reported over the weekend. Two playmates were implicated, one 10, the other 8. They, too, confessed, police said.

The burglaries netted $28 in cash, a quantity of candy and cookies, and several toys, including the two guns and sheriff's badge.

LOST 34 POUNDS
Dearborn Lady Likes Renel

"My physician advised me to lose weight because I was suffering severe attacks which foreboded an operation. My weight had to be reduced before an operation could be performed," writes Mrs. Alvin Miller, 6461 Barrie St., E. Dearborn, Mich.

"Renel Concentrate was agreed upon as the reducing aid. I started to take Renel about five months ago and weighed 172 lbs. Now I weigh 138 lbs. and am delighted to have lost that much up to now. Not only have I lost 34 lbs. but I have never had another attack. My physician is also pleased since he did not really want to operate for various reasons. I do not want to be without Renel Concentrate in my home at any time. I feel certain that it will do for others what it has done for me."

Correct weight and regularity are so important to good health. If not pleased with the very first bottle return it to the manufacturer for your money back. Price $1.49. Insist on and be sure to get genuine Renel.
