Wounded Rafael Trujillo Shot It Out With Killers

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (U)—Dominican dictator Rafael Trujillo, though wounded, managed to draw his revolver and shot it out with a band of assassins before being killed Tuesday night, an official statement said today.

The Dominican armed forces, which are investigating the murder of the 63-year-old strongman, gave this story:

A group that had planned the assassination three months ago attacked as Trujillo and his personal driver, Capt. Zaccarias de la Cruz, were motoring from Ciudad Trujillo to the dictator's estate in his home town of San Cristobal.

The driver and Trujillo were wounded by the first burst of gunfire. Trujillo ordered the car stopped, drew his revolver and returned the fire.

The driver used one of the two machine guns usually carried in the car. The driver said Trujillo had no time to use his machine gun.

Trujillo fell out of the car and the attackers beat him, seriously cutting his face and injuring his left arm. Trujillo was killed and his body taken to a nearby car and put in the trunk. The body was found there later.

ATTACKER HURT

One of the attackers was seriously wounded and another was presumed injured. The exact number of attackers was not known. The armed forces said one of the conspirators against Trujillo was a former brigadier general, Juan Torres Diaz.

The Dominican Republic was reported by its government to be absolutely tranquil despite the assassination.

Dr. Luis R. Mercado, Dominican consul general in New York, said he received the information in a cablegram from the Dominican secretary of state.

"The country is in absolute tranquility," the message said, "and the executive powers decide a nine-day period of national mourning."

It said Trujillo "died the victim of a criminal attack perpetrated by a group of assassins."

Mercado said Trujillo was not an official of the government and that the civil government continues in power.

5-Day Forecast Has Mercury Hovering in 70s

Temperatures in the 70s is the forecast for Pontiac for the next five days with the low tonight a warm 60 degrees.

The weatherman said showers will end tonight, and Friday will be partly cloudy and mild. Rain may be expected again about Sunday or Monday.

South to southwest morning winds at 3 miles per hour will shift to northwesterly tonight and Friday at 10 to 20 miles.

Fifty-six was the lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The mercury had climbed to 70 at 2 p.m.

Rusk Sees No Chaos After Trujillo's Death

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

WASHINGTON — Secretary of State Dean Rusk set out today on his delayed trip to join President Kennedy in Europe, signaling a belief that the assassination of Dominican Republic dictator Rafael L. Trujillo will not result in the immediate turmoil officials had feared.

A short time later, the United States publicly called on the people of the Dominican Republic to establish a Democratic regime.

In the wake of Trujillo's assassination, this government—through the State Department—said in a special statement:

"It is our earnest hope that now the people of the Dominican Republic will be able to establish those conditions which will make it possible for that country to again take its proper place within the inter-American system."

The statement was read by department press officer Lincoln White who said he meant a regime in which "the government would serve the people rather than the other way around."

White said he expected U. S. Consul-General Henry Dearborn to meet with Dominican government officials to discuss protection of Americans and possibly also to (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Deadline Is Nearing for Essay Entries

Midnight Saturday is the deadline for entries in The Pontiac Press $475 Centennial essay contest.

Pontiac area junior and senior high school pupils, ages 13 through 18, must have their typewritten compositions submitted by then in order to be eligible for either the $100 U.S. Savings Bond for first place, the $75 bond for second place, the $50 bond for third place or the ten $25 bonds for the runners-up.

The Centennial-year subject is "Pontiac... The Challenge of Its Future."

Winners will be announced on Youth Day, June 22, during the Greater Pontiac Centennial. An entry blank appears on Page 2 of today's Pontiac Press.

Freedom There Now in Peril, President Says

Stresses U. S. Ties to Atlantic Community

PARIS (U)—President Kennedy urged members of the North Atlantic alliance today to concern themselves "with the whole southern half of the globe, where we and our freedoms are now in peril."

The President, addressing a special session of the NATO Council, cautioned there should be no less attention to the protection of the North Atlantic area.

He has just come to agreement with France's President De Gaulle on a tough Western posture to the Communists on the issue of West Berlin.

But the President, advising a broadened NATO outlook, added that "the other side of the table," referring to the Communist bloc, has been making advances in the southern half of the globe, including Asia, Latin America and Africa.

At the same time, the President reassured Europe that U.S. commitments with regard to this continent now are more strong than ever. He said U.S. security "is inevitably tied with the security of Western Europe."

WANTS PROGRESS

"We want to see this association (NATO) become more intimate and stronger," Kennedy said, "and I speak to you as a representative of a country which is totally involved in your destiny."

The President said Americans believe "this interdependence will continue to grow."

Kennedy, who meets Premier Khrushchev in Vienna Saturday and Sunday against the background of his strong statements here on U.S. intentions, pointed out to the NATO Council that nations lying on the underdeveloped regions also want to maintain their own sovereignty and independence. He added:

"This serves us and it serves our own ambitions, too. This is true of Africa. It is true of Latin America and it is true of Asia."

The two presidents started their second day of talks agreed the West must stand firm on Berlin, but they divided on France's demand for an equal voice with Britain and the United States in direction of Allied policy.

Latest From Truman

NEW YORK (U)—Former President Harry S. Truman said today he is against sending any American force into the Dominican Republic.

JACKIE'S NEW FRONTIER: Jacqueline Kennedy unveiled this startling new hairdo at a Paris reception Wednesday. A leading French hairdresser had provided a wigpiece. Jackie wore a striking gown, and the speculation is that she will spring another sartorial surprise tonight. She is shown with her husband, an unidentified guest and President and Mrs. Charles de Gaulle.

Outshines Her Husband

Jackie-She Eez ze Most

PARIS (UPI)—Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy repaid the warm welcome she has received in Paris by selecting a French gown to wear to a reception at the palace of Versailles tonight.

From Our News Wires
PARIS — Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy did nothing more than look pretty at a city hall reception for President Kennedy today.

But so thoroughly has she won the heart of Paris that she received more attention than he did. There is a French phrase for the effect Mrs. Kennedy has had on Parisians — "Le Coup de Foudre." It means love at first sight.

The city has taken the beautiful wife of the American President to its heart. Everywhere she goes, she sees her face blazoned on the front pages of nearly all newspapers and magazines.

And one of her friends said she is "wonderfully happy" at the warmth of the reception.

SHE'S A DARTING

There was no doubt after the drive from the Kennedy apartments in the Quai d'Orsay to the hotel de ville — the Paris city hall — that the U.S. First Lady has become the darling of the boulevards.

The reception by the municipal council at the hotel de ville was in honor of the President. But she stole the show.

Many famous Americans have received the traditional official welcome of the city of Paris, but there was a difference today in that no one could remember a time when the wife of the celebrity received more attention than he did.

A leading French hairdresser gave Mrs. Kennedy what he called a "Gothic madonna" look Wednesday night, clipping more than an inch from her locks and pinning a tamboresque-shaped wigpiece and a dazzling diamond on the back of her head.

AND ANOTHER

For tonight's state dinner in the fabulous Hall of Mirrors at the Palace of Versailles, the hairdresser, Alexandre, said he would style the U.S. First Lady's coiffure in keeping with the scene, a style of the period of Louis XIV.

Mrs. Kennedy's jewels have knocked the props from under one of the most popular "Jackie" legends in France.

That legend is the one which has her a simple girl with simple tastes and hardly more jewelry to her name than a string of pearls, engagement ring and a modest clip or two.

Such reports were published before the visit began.

The French may have been pardoned, astonished, therefore, when she made her first evening appearance in a dazzle of diamonds — a sparkling bracelet on the arm, long chain earrings, and the diamond rose atop the head.

Says K Will Lay Off Reich Until at Least November

PARIS (UPI) — President Kennedy's key advisers have told him there is no evidence that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev plans to make any new move against Berlin or Germany before November at the earliest.

This was disclosed today by high U.S. officials who expressed concern at a rash of stories from Paris speculating on possible new Allied moves to meet a renewed Berlin crisis.

They said these stories were highly speculative and had given an erroneous impression of the atmosphere in which Kennedy and French President Charles de Gaulle were discussing European and other affairs.

The U.S. and French presidents have reached general agreement in principle that Berlin must be defended by all means available, but there has been no discussion in detail and probably will not be.

High U.S. and French officials said the General de Gaulle-Kennedy agreement on Berlin and Germany is considered adequate to make it plain to Khrushchev at this weekend's Vienna meeting that there is no disagreement between them.

Slide Kills 15 in Paris Suburb

Buildings Crushed, 30 Hurt as Rain-Soaked
Earth Collapses

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES
PARIS—An earth slide subsided homes and shops in a Paris suburb today, killing at least 15 persons and injuring 30.

Police, firemen and others dug in the wreckage for others feared buried in the debris.

A half-mile of rain-soaked earth collapsed under the suburb of Clamart, crushing buildings and causing death and injury. Children were feared to be among the victims.

The disaster struck at coffee-break time at midmorning, when the earth gave way without warning in the modest residential suburb of 50,000 persons west of Paris.

SUCKED INTO FATH

Police said a three-story apartment building, a small ceramics factory and at least 25 houses—mostly cottages—collapsed.

Gashes ripped through the asphalt streets and cement sidewalks.

"The buildings and houses were literally sucked into the earth—and people along with them," one rescue official said.

As the dust of the ruined buildings was settling to the street, several explosions shook the area again.

The blasts were caused by gas escaping from the mains and ignited by sparks from short-circuited electric lines, police said.

Old-Fashioned Wear to Be Spotted Friday

It's old-fashioned dress day again in downtown Pontiac tomorrow, with everyone encouraged to appear in Centennial outfits.

Tomorrow and next Friday will be the last two "dress-up" prelude to the Greater Pontiac Centennial celebration: June 17-24. When it's dress-up day every day.

News Flashes

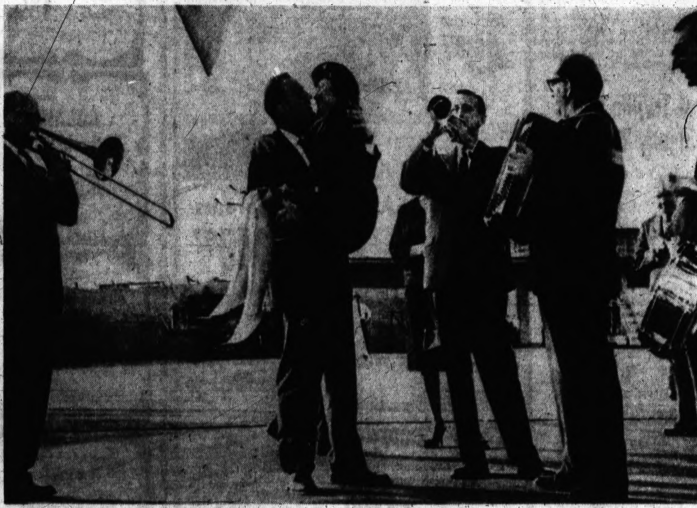

The Pontiac Public School's All-City Elementary Music Festival, originally scheduled for tonight in Wisner Stadium, has been postponed because of bad weather. It will be held, weather permitting, in the stadium at 7:30 Friday night.

DETROIT (UPI) — The Detroit Weather Bureau issued a second storm statement at 1:15 p.m. It said: "At 1 p.m. radar showed a line of thunderstorms from Saginaw Bay to west of Flint to near Jackson, moving east northeast at about 30 miles per hour. Some thunderstorm activity can be expected in the Detroit area about 2:30 p.m. to 3 p.m. with briefly strong surface winds."

North City to Appeal Desegregation Order

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP) — The New Rochelle Board of Education plans to appeal at once from a federal judge's order for an immediate start on measures to desegregate the predominantly Negro Lincoln Elementary School.

The board will go to the United States Court of Appeals in New York City in an effort to upset Judge Irving R. Kaufman's final decree.

Merryle Stanley Ruker, the president of the board, said Wednesday night that Kaufman's decree will be appealed.

Ruker said compliance with the order would cause "chaos" in the school system.

Fine Korean Turbcoat in Fatal Auto Crash

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Claude Batchelor, former soldier imprisoned as a turncoat after the Korean conflict, was fined $500 in County Court Wednesday on a charge of negligent collision.

Batchelor, formerly of Kermit, Tex., entered a nolo contendere, neither guilty nor innocent — to the charge filed after a traffic accident Nov. 4 in which Simona Barrera of San Antonio died.

A court martial sentenced Batchelor to life imprisonment on a collaboration charge in 1954. The sentence subsequently was reduced to seven years and Batchelor was paroled after serving five.

Six thousand pounds of steam were used in drying each ton of newspaper.

Driver Is Sentenced

Paul G. Garcia, 32, of 109 Merimac St., pleaded guilty to drunk driving this week before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum; was fined $100 and sentenced to five days in the Oakland County Jail or 22 days in jail if the fine is not paid.

The greatest death toll from fire in American history occurred Oct. 8, 1871, in the area of Peashog, Wis. Spreading over 1,280,000 acres of forest land, flames wiped out 17 towns and took at least 1,152 lives.

Says U.S. Won't Yield to Reds

Johnson Assures Grads
JFK Doesn't Intend to Back Down

RICHMOND, Ky. (AP) — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson said today that President Kennedy will warn Soviet Premier Khrushchev the United States "has no intention of yielding to diplomatic blackmail."

Johnson, in an address prepared for commencement exercises at East Kentucky College, said Kennedy will make clear at Vienna that "no greater blunder can be made by any leader than to discount the strength of the free."

Kennedy and Khrushchev will get together in the Austrian capital this weekend for two days of discussions.

Johnson, in an address delivered at commencement, exercises at Paris and London, which he said are "to strengthen the citadels of democracy."

"In these negotiations it will be President Kennedy's task and opportunity to show the whole world once again that the United States seeks to avoid the cooperative aspect of nuclear war, but it has no intention of yielding to diplomatic blackmail; and he will again testify that America's patience in negotiation for peace is as great as its power in battle," Johnson declared.

"We all pray that at least a brave beginning in the search for peace may come from the President's labors in Europe."

Holiday Schedule to Cut Week's Auto Production

DETROIT — Holiday work schedules — three days at most plants — will cut domestic auto production to 84,532 passenger cars this week, Automotive News said today.

This compares with 116,243 in Memorial Day week of last year when most plants worked four days and with 185,279 cars last week. Last week's total was the second best of 1961.

Truck production was estimated at 15,799 compared with 21,697 last week and 22,228 last year.

Canadian output was expected to run 2,690 cars and 1,830 trucks this week against 6,231 cars and 1,232 trucks last week and 8,608 cars and 1,927 trucks last year.

Seeking 2nd Chance for Milk-Price Bill

DETROIT — A dairy workers union is trying to get the milk price bill up for action again when the legislature reconvenes June 8.

United Dairy Workers Local 31 said today it is pushing a drive to get 200 signatures in a statewide petition drive as a demand on the legislature to revive the bill.

The bill, a regulatory measure, died in the recent session at Lansing. The House once passed it and then rejected it in a switch of Democratic votes.

George McLean, secretary-treasurer of Local 31, said that preliminary to critics the proposed legislation is not a price-fixing bill as such.

John L. O'Berry Dies While Working on Car

A Pontiac man died in the garage of his home last night after being overcome by carbon monoxide fumes while repairing his car. The body of John L. O'Berry, 51, of 20 Sheridan St., was discovered by relatives at 7:45 p.m.

Dr. John D. Monroe, Oaksholt Cussey corner, ruled that the death was accidental.

He was a retired employee of E. G. Clark Fuel & Heating Co. and a member of the Salvation Army.

Surviving are his wife Delbertine; two daughters, Doris and Jo Ann, both of Pontiac; seven sons, Harry of Detroit, Marvin with the U.S. Navy, Jack, Larry, Guy, Walter and Harold, all of Pontiac; 14 grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Ayle Brammer of Detroit.

Service will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday at the Voorhees-Spivey Chapel with burial in Lakeside Cemetery, Holly.

Fined $10 for Stealing Cigarettes and Film

A Pontiac woman who admitted stealing cigarettes and film from the Foodtown Market, 1200 Baldwin Ave., Saturday was ordered to pay a $10 fine or serve one day in jail, and placed on 90 days probation by Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Lynn E. Shelton, 22, of 104 Euclid Ave., pleaded guilty yesterday to a simple larceny charge.

Spelling Bee Contestant Receives Best Wishes

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (UPI)—The Syracuse Herald-Journal sent a telegram of congratulations Wednesday to Anne Coffey, 13, of Syracuse, who is competing in the national spelling-bee at Washington.

The wire read: Dear Ann: God Luk in the spelling bee. The telegram was signed by "the Herald-Journal staff."

Political Rebel New LA MayorSamuel Yorty Defeats Poulson in Hard-Fought Campaign

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Samuel W. Yorty, a former Democratic congressman opposed by most of the leaders in his own party, is the new mayor of America's third largest city.

He won the nonpartisan post by upsetting Republican incumbent Norris Poulson, backed by Democratic leaders furious at Yorty for supporting Republican Richard M. Nixon in the 1960 presidential race. Nixon did not take part in the campaign.

Unofficial final returns from all of the city's 4,712 precincts indicated Yorty defeated Poulson by 273,701 to 257,073.

Only about 47 per cent of the city's 1,238,070 registration voted Wednesday. The light turnout was attributed partly to light rain in the morning.

YORTY AT PINACLE

For Yorty, 51, it was a thrilling climax to a buzz-saw campaign and a 25-year political career studded with ups and downs. For Poulson, 66, defeat apparently marked the end of his political career — eight years as mayor, four terms as a congressman and two as a state legislator.

Throughout the campaign Poulson denied reports he had throat cancer, contending he had to limit public appearances because of laryngitis. Poulson, backed by Los Angeles' four metropolitan newspapers, claimed Yorty was running with underworld support — and Yorty retaliated with a $2.2 million slander suit. Yorty claimed Poulson was a "bumbling figurehead" for a downtown political machine.

Hunt Rebel Leaders of Venezuelan Band

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—President Romulo Betancourt's government today hunted fugitive leaders of a rebel band it said planned an uprising backed by an old enemy—slain Dominican Dictator Rafael Leonidas Trujillo.

Venezuelan authorities said 21 plotters and arms were seized Wednesday in dawn raids but some of the leaders got away and may still try a "violent act of desperation."

The government said the revolutionaries were armed by Trujillo, who Betancourt charged tried to have him assassinated in June 1960. The Venezuelan leader escaped but was badly wounded.

Trujillo was assassinated Tuesday night just outside his capital city of Ciudad Trujillo.

Foreigners Met by Pretty Girls on U.S. Arrival

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges thinks foreigners deserve a warmer welcome—from pretty girls—when they visit the United States.

Discussing ways to promote travel here by foreign tourists, Hodges held a news conference Wednesday. "It wouldn't hurt to have a few pretty girls around that speak two or three languages that make people feel at home instead of having some guy who looks at you pretty tough and says, 'Let's see inside your bag!'"

A spokesman for the Immigration and Naturalization Service commended Hodges' suggestion. It's such a good idea, the spokesman said, that 50 attractive young ladies were hired by the service two years ago to do just as Hodges suggested.

The girls, called port receptionists, are assigned to major international airports. All speak at least two languages and generally must meet the same beauty standards as airline hostesses.

None of the girls has been assigned to greet visitors arriving by ship. However, the service said it has been studying this possibility for some time. One hurdle would be getting the girls aboard ship before it docks—they aren't too agile on rope ladders.

Lassiter Case Cost to State in 6 Figures

DETROIT (AP) — What has Marvin Lassiter's murder cost the state of Michigan?

Nobody knows yet for sure, but it likely will run into six figures — if it hasn't already — before the 1960 slaying of the Royal Oak auto dealer is marked "closed."

The state's out of pocket expenses since the trial of Gordon Watson and Nella Lassiter started almost seven weeks ago at ready tape $30,000.

That includes the $3 a day pay of jurors, plus $5 a day rent for each at a downtown hotel, and their food, figured at $5 each a day.

Witness fees at $5 a day, plus mileage to and from Detroit are sizable. The state called 30 witnesses and most have drawn three days pay, some as much as nine days pay. Some drew mileage to and from as far away as Chattanooga, Tenn.

Circuit Judge Joseph G. Rashid has spent almost seven weeks of his $25,000-a-year time presiding over more than $5,000 worth. Two assistant prosecutors and at least three state policemen, one a captain, have been tied up on the state's side of the counsel table alone.

KILLED IN 1959

Lassiter was killed April 4, 1959, and a corps of state police were tied up at the time running down leads in his slaying.

Before the murder and conspiracy trial of Mrs. Lassiter and Watson opened back in April, there was an extended trial of three men who interrupted that first-degree trial to plead guilty to second-degree murder.

They were sentenced to life imprisonment and the state does not have their board bill at Southern Michigan Prison.

In pleading guilty the three admitted killers implicated Mrs. Lassiter and Watson in a plot against her husband's life. There was extended police investigation days-long examination in a suburban Inland Justice Court.

From there the case was bounced to the State Supreme Court at least twice before it finally reached trial in April.

The case has been costly for the defense, too. Gordon Watson told a reporter that if he got immediately approximately $17,000 a court has ruled due him from his partnership with Lassiter. "I would be in the hole right now."

What the monetary cost has been to Lassiter's widow isn't known, but Watson estimated it had been more than his. For instance, her defense attorney is Joseph Louisell, probably the highest priced criminal lawyer in Michigan.

Porter to Be Arraigned on Local Check Charge

A Pontiac furniture store porter who has admitted to Pontiac police that he stole and cashed a company check for $154.35 will be arraigned in Circuit Court Monday on an uttering and publishing charge.

Milton D. Moss Sr., 25, of 419 Howard McNeil St., told officers he took the check out of a desk at WKC, Inc., where he worked as a porter and used a check-writing machine in the store to fill in the amount.

Moss said he later cashed the check at a Pontiac gas station to cover debts.

He waived examination this Monday before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum who set bond at $1,000.

About 117 young people from the United States and 125 foreign youths will take part in the 1961 International Farm Youth Exchange program.

School Districts With Wealth Are Asked to Spend

SAGINAW (AP) — A statewide income tax is inevitable unless wealthier school districts pay for a bigger share of their education programs, the chairman of the State Senate Taxation Committee said Wednesday.

To do so, however, they need something more than a local property tax to pay the cost, said Sen. Clyde H. Geerlings, R-Holland.

Geerlings, in a talk delivered to a Saginaw service club, put in a plug for a payroll tax, to be levied only with voter approval at the local level. He tried without success to win legislative approval of the proposal this year.

Floriculturists say crabgrass is not likely to be a problem in bluegrass in the grass is cut two inches high or higher and given moderate fertilization.

Five-Story Sonar Put on Vessel for Antisub Work

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The biggest sound detection device ever floated has been mounted on a ship in the Navy's drive to build a long-range antisubmarine warning network.

The device is five stories high, weighs hundreds of tons and uses enough electricity for a town of 50,000 persons.

It consists of a powerful underwater sound transmitter with sensitive receivers for recording sound echoes.

The Defense Department, in announcing the project Thursday gave no figures on its range. But such devices are expected to extend the range of submarine detection by hundreds of miles.

Medical Technologists to Join Detroit Effort

Medical technologists of Oakland County will participate in Detroit's Medical Technological Week.

Mayor Miriam of Detroit will proclaim June 12 through 20 as Detroit Medical Technology Week to focus attention on the role played by the technologist. Medical technologists aid in the diagnosis of a patient's condition by testing body tissues and fluids.

Many of Oakland's medical technologists who work in Detroit-area hospitals and are members of the Detroit Society of Medical Technologists will attend the closing banquet at Larco's Inn, Six Mile and Livernois roads, Tuesday, June 12.

East of the Andean Mountains of Peru, some 75 to 125 inches of rain falls each year on the heavily forested slopes and tropical lowlands. Yet, the area is only sparsely settled.

Sewage Plant Pacts Signed

Expansion Cost Totals
$2,507,260; Next Step to Be Bond Issue

Construction contracts totaling $2,507,260 have been signed by Mayor Philip E. Rowston for expansion of the sewage treatment plant.

City Commissioners approved the contracts last night on the basis of low bids recommended by Jones, Henry, & Williams, engineering consultants from Toledo.

A breakdown includes general construction, Mosher Construction, Inc., of Fremont, Ohio—$1,998,378; installation of a new incinerator, Nicholson Engineering and Research Corp. of Indianapolis, Ind.—$322,416; and installation of a 66-inch concrete pipe, Ray D. Baker Co., Inc. of Southfield—$254,224.

Expansion includes new facilities on the Auburn Avenue-Opdyke Road site, modernization at the existing plant on East Boulevard and a pipeline connecting the two operations.

The pipeline will carry sludge to the new site for disposal in the incinerator.

The city now has to arrange for financing through sale of a 30-year general obligation bond issue. The Municipal Finance Commission still has to approve this move and it must be determined, finally, how much money is needed.

Apparently the cost will be $200,000 to $300,000 less than the $3.53 million originally anticipated. The new facilities are to be in operation in two years.

The Office of Vital Statistics expects about 3,000 poliomyelitis cases in the United States in 1961—less than any previous year. In the four years before the Salk vaccine was discovered, polio cases averaged nearly 39,000 a year.

She's a newlywed, says John Pump. If she still takes off her wedding ring before doing the remembering when you could tell by the dishes . . . A gas station outside Las Vegas carries a huge placard: was worn out.—Earl Wilson.

The last continental glacier, which only began to recede 30,000 years ago, compressed and lowered the earth's crust as much as 800 feet in the Great Lakes region.

Atlantic July 1

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force said today that its Distant Early Warning (DEW) line radar network will begin operating over the Atlantic July 1 with the opening of four new sites in Greenland.

With the operation of the four Greenland sites, nine others — three major and six smaller installations in the Canadian Arctic and the Labrador-Newfoundland region — will be closed down.

DEW line is designed for protection against manned aircraft. It does not work against ballistic missiles. Detection of ballistic missiles is the function of the Buffalo Mobile Early Warning System (BMEWS) which consists of two stations — one in Alaska and one in Greenland.

DEW line, which consists of dozens of installations, now extends from Western Alaska across the northern rim of Canada and out to Greenland.

The formal announcement said DEW line will be improved by extension "across the North Atlantic."

Spokesmen were unable to explain immediately whether this indicated the new Greenland stations have greater range than the mainland stations which have a practical working range of a few hundred miles.

School Board Will Open Bids on $100,000 Loan

A special meeting of the Waterford Township Board of Education has been called for 7:30 tonight to open bids for the borrowing of $100,000 for operating purposes.

The loan will be made to the school board in anticipation of 1961-62 state aid, according to Supt. William A. Shuck.

No will also present recommendations relative to the teaching personnel of two new elementary schools, now under construction, and due to open in September. New teacher contracts for next year will also be considered.

The board will consider a request by Our Lady of the Lakes High School for permission to use the football field. The request was made by church pastor, Rev. Fredrick Delaney.

Another request from the Veterans of Foreign Wars to use the football field for a wrestling match will also be presented.

A special meeting of the school board has been set for 7:30 p. m. June 12 to canvass the June 12 school board election ballots. The next regular meeting will be held June 15.

Come and See Youth Homes

There's always talk about problem children. What becomes of these boys and girls who, for one reason or another, just can't make the grade at home, in school or in a community, when they come under the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court?

For three hours Sunday Oakland County people and other interested citizens will get a first-hand look behind the scenes of three child-care facilities — the Children's Center and cottages at 2050 N. Telegraph Road, and the Youth Home, 7350 Cooley Lake Road, Waterford Township.

William O. Moulton Jr., director of the institutions, said this is the first year that the public has been invited to an open house at all the homes to see how the 260 boys and girls study, work, sleep and eat.

It will be from 1 to 4 p.m. "It is my opinion that citizens of Oakland County can be justifiably proud of the facilities they maintain for children, and I urge everyone to take advantage of the opportunity to see the program in action," said James W. Hunt, Juvenile Court director.

SNEAK PREVIEW

These photographs, taken by Art Miller of The Pontiac Press, give you a sneak preview of what you will see Sunday. They were taken at the center, the cottages and the Youth Home, most recent addition to the facilities.

Tours will be conducted through the buildings by the supervisory staff explaining the use of the facilities and programming.

The center houses about 90 boys and 60 girls and is the receiving unit for the neglected, dependent and delinquent children whose removal from their homes is necessary for their own and the community's well-being, Moulton explained.

The cottages, adjacent to the center, provide a home-like surrounding for 40 of the younger-neglected and dependent children—facilities separate from delinquent children.

The Youth Home furnishes boarding and educational care for 70 teen-agers. It is designed to help the teenage youth in a well-balanced rehabilitation training program.

The youths living here have been transferred from the center after they have demonstrated their ability to function in less restrictive quarters," Moulton said.

Night Guard Scares Burglar

William Goodwin Hits at Intruder Who Runs From Clubhouse

The agility of a 60-year-old night watchman proved too much for a burglar, reportedly armed, who tried to break into the clubhouse at the Highland Hills Golf and Country Club in Highland Township early this morning.

The watchman, William Goodwin of 2480 Ridge Road in the township, told sheriff's deputies he was alone listening to music on the radio when he noticed a shadow move across a window in the clubhouse.

Goodwin braced for action when a window was smashed in the door. As the watchman grabbed a golf club, he said the burglar stuck a shotgun through the broken window and ordered, "Old man, stay where you are."

Instead, Goodwin said he swung the club to strike at the intruder's wrist. The would-be bandit beat a hasty retreat from the grounds.

Goodwin described him as about 20 years old, approximately 5 foot 9 and of slight build. He was wearing light-colored pants, a suede jacket and a paper bag hood over his face, Goodwin said. The area is well-lit at night.

Deputies found footprints outside the door. They were investigating the incident further today.

Plan Auditions for Local Talent in Country Music

Auditions will be held this Saturday from 11 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. at the Pontiac Metropolitan Club for local talent to appear with stars of The Grand Ole Opry from Nashville, Tenn.

The show will appear at Pontiac Central High School for three performances June 18, sponsored by the Metropolitan Club.

Freed was Samuel Jones, 61, of 183 Ontario St. His wife Willie Mae, 40, would not press charges, police said. She is in St. Joseph Mercy Hos-

Rebellion Prober Slain

ALGIERS 10 — Police Commissioner Roger Gevory, who headed the inquiry into the abortive general's insurrection, was found in his home today with his skull fractured in. Police said it appeared Gevory was clubbed to death in bed. An investigation was started.

Urban Options Pass $1 Million

Renewal Acquisitions to Total More Than 100 Soon, Willman Says

Urban renewal acquisitions have passed the $1 million mark, City Manager Walter K. Willman reported.

The number of acquisitions will pass 100 soon, he added.

So far in the program the city has optioned 94 properties for a total of $1,018,386, Willman reported.

Willman said the land utilization and marketability study for the second (down town) urban renewal project is nearing completion and will be ready soon for submission to the City Commission.

He said the Real Estate Research Corp. of Chicago, which is doing the study, has a field representative in town this week gathering final information.

To Be Arraigned in Shotgun Blast at Door of Home

Accused of firing two blasts from a 16-gauge shotgun through the rear door of his estranged wife's home, a Pontiac man will be arraigned in Circuit Court Monday on a felonious assault charge.

James O. Rush, 34, of 227 Chamberlain St., waived examination yesterday before Municipal Judge Cecil McCullum. Bond was set at $100.

Rush, a Fisher Body plant employee, admitted going to the home of his wife Kathlyn, 27, of 40 Taylor St., Tuesday night and firing the shotgun, according to police.

He said he had been drinking. The couple has been separated three months.

Mrs. Rush said the shots were fired through the door after she had gone into the kitchen to answer knocking at the door.

Rush told police he did not know his wife was in the kitchen when he fired the shots.

When the Library of Congress opened in 1897 it had 964 books.

Motel and Restaurant Has Hawaiian Decor

Torch-lighting ceremonies erupting volcanoes, luminous caves, tropical ferns and trees are synonymous with the South Sea Islands.

They're also an integral part of Oakland County's newest restaurant and motel — The Hawaiian Gardens — a Shingri-La showplace in Holly Township.

Built by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barlow, Holly residents and world travelers, the restaurant and 74-unit motel is located on Grange Hall Road, 3 miles west of U.S. 16, 1/2 mile between Pontiac and Flint.

Barlow, who is president of Bar's Product Supply, Inc., and inventor of Bar's Leak, a stop-gap product for cooling system, and his wife Jane have traveled to Hawaii and New Zealand four times and have brought back ideas that have been incorporated into their new business venture.

A $700,000 PROJECT

The $700,000 project, built on 33 acres which includes a lake—Lake Oahu — has been under construction for a year and was designed by James Livingston of Ann Arbor. The interior of both the restaurant and motel were decorated by Mrs. Barlow.

The restaurant, which for the most part serves American cuisine, seats 150 and encloses a garden of tall tropical palms and ferns. There are no artificial flowers in the building.

To keep a constant supply of green palms and flowers, the Barlows have built a greenhouse adjacent to the restaurant, where visitors can purchase all types of tropical plants.

Hawaiian dresses and island statuary also are sold in the restaurant lobby.

At dusk each day a runner with a lighted torch sets blazes along the far side of Lake Oahu. Every hour on the hour in the cocktail lounge a simulated volcano erupts with multi-colored lights.

The bar itself is patterned after the Greenworn Grotto in Watnong Cave in New Zealand, where millions of luminous insects light up the ceiling. Suspended tiny luminous balls give the lounge the same effect of the glowworms.

1,600 Drivers Strike Against Meat Firms

CHICAGO (U) — Some 1,600 Chicago meat truck drivers went on strike today against three major meat companies — Swift, Armour and Wilson — and about 30 other smaller packers and processors.

An official of Local 710, Meat and Highway Drivers and Helpers Union said the main objective of the strike is to prevent major packers from shipping meat loads. Chances on trucks manned by union help or by persons not under the terms of the Union's Chicago-area contract.

The strike threatened to cut off virtually all supplies of fresh and processed meats to butcher shops, restaurants, hotels and other retailers. However, a Union spokesman said, immediate effects were not expected as packers had brought in heavy supplies during the last week or so.

GREETING FOR NIKITA — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, on a leisurely journey toward his weekend rendezvous with President Kennedy in Vienna, receives a traditional gift of bread and salt from a peasant woman in Cerna, Czechoslovakia, Wednesday. Disarmament, Germany to Top K Discussion List

VIENNA (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev at his meeting this week with President Kennedy is expected to put disarmament, the German peace treaty, the Berlin question and abolition of colonialism at the top of his discussion list.

This was indicated Wednesday night by Antonin Novotny, Czechoslovakia's president and Communist party chief, as he welcomed Khrushchev to his arrival at Bratislava, just across the border from Austria.

Novotny said many "dangerous open questions" will make the Khrushchev-Kennedy meeting a difficult one.

"Among the problems," he continued, "are disarmament, the conclusion of a peace treaty with Germany, including a solution of the West Berlin question, and a definite liquidation of colonialism."

EASE TENSIONS

Khrushchev in reply said he did not want to "make any prior judgment on the result of the meeting but we will strive for a relaxation of world tensions and to secure peace."

"Our delegation will intercede for not only what the people of the socialist countries want, but what the people of the entire world want, namely peace," the Soviet premier said.

Khrushchev is due in Vienna Friday. There had been speculation he would hold a Communist bloc summit meeting in Czechoslovakia before his meeting with Kennedy. But reports from Prague said such a get-together might be held after the Vienna conference, not before.

While it was generally expected that the Soviet premier would bear down hard on his long-standing demand that the allied garrisons withdraw from West Berlin, authoritative Austrian sources reported Khrushchev had indicated otherwise to Ljilvelyn Thompson, the U.S. ambassador in Moscow.

'UNDERSTANDS'

The Austrian sources said that Thompson, in one of his recent talks with Khrushchev, had told the premier that Kennedy was not ready so early in his administration to discuss such a critical issue as Berlin. Khrushchev

Says Red Moon Photos Considered Composites

WASHINGTON (AP)—A top U.S. space official says "every-one" who has looked at Soviet Russia's photographs of the back side of the moon believes they are composites of many pictures.

"No one is quite sure as to how much touching up has been done," said Dr. Hugh L. Dryden, deputy director of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

He testified May 13 before a House Appropriations subcommittee. His remarks, released on Wednesday, were to illustrate the difficulty of getting scientific information from the Soviet Union.

Miami Police Guard Dominican Consulate

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Two policemen stood guard at the Dominican Republic's consulate here after Consul General Miguel Herrera told of telephoned threats on his life.

Herrera said Wednesday night the calls came from Spanish-speaking persons and began soon after broadcasts of Generalissimo Rafael L. Trujillo's assassination. After reports of mob violence at the New York consulate, Herrera said another threat was received that "your office is next on the list."

There were no demonstrations at the consulate.

Holds Talk to 3 Minutes for Commencement

PADUCAH, Ky. (AP)—"Commencement speeches ought to be abolished," said Gov. Bert Combs Wednesday night while speaking at the Paducah Junior College commencement.

The governor discarded his prepared text and held his talk to three minutes to show he meant it.

Child Drowns by Falling Into Bucket of Water

JACKSON, Tenn. (AP)—A one-year-old boy drowned when he fell head first into a 5-gallon bucket of water.

One Mile to Cost Million Dollars

U.S. Highway Network Tagged at That Price by Congress

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A million dollars a mile... that is the price tag Congress is considering for the 41,000-mile interstate highway network.

The Senate Public Works Committee Wednesday approved a House-passed bill that would bring to $41 billion the authorization for spending on the federal highway system, first enacted by Congress in 1956.

The new legislation would like the authorization by $11.5 billion to keep construction on schedule. The $41-billion total would include the 10 per cent matching share put up by the states.

Just as the House had done, the Senate committee refused to extend the program of bonus payments to states which agree to limit billboards along the interstate routes. President Kennedy had recommended that the payments be doubled. They are due to expire June 30.

The Public Works Committee also approved a program designed to guard against pollution of the nation's rivers and streams.

The cut-down version of an administration proposal called for $440 million in grants over five years to states and communities to build waste treatment facilities.

3 Michigan Firms Get Defense Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—Defense contracts totaling $4,510,555 were awarded three Michigan firms to day.

The Detroit Ordnance District awarded a $1,700,014 contract to Bendix Corp.'s System Division in Ann Arbor for high altitude airborne measurement programs.

The Muller Brass Co. of Port Huron was awarded a $1,249,839 contract by the U.S. Army Chemical Procurement District, New York. The contract covers $7,898 warheads for 115mm rockets.

The Grand Machinery Co. of Detroit received a $1,471,182 contract for $78,686 rocket motor bodies and the same number of rocket motor assemblies.

The contract awards were announced through Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich.

$2-Million Shop Center Given Push by Officials

City commissioners got the proposed $2-million Glenwood Avenue shopping center going last night by introducing a required zoning change.

But there was some talk that there might be opposition to the center after a meeting with downtown leaders Monday.

A hearing on the zoning change was set for June 20, when final passage is scheduled.

Developers are asking for rezoning from residential to commercial of the eastern half of the 13-acre site, which is mostly a land fill. The western half already is commercial.

Before last night's meeting, the Downtown Redevelopment Group had issued invitations to the commission to a 5 p.m. meeting Monday at the Waldron Hotel to discuss downtown redevelopment.

Commissioner John A. Dugan, who represents the Glenwood area, sponsored the rezoning but acknowledged that "I've been contacted by several downtown businessmen who, of course, are very disturbed about the shopping center."

But Dugan said he favored the center and wouldn't oppose it "just to protect downtown."

This stand echoed the one taken by the planning commission last week when rezoning was recommended, although the city's planning staff had warned that a shopping center just one mile northeast of Huron and Saginaw Streets would hurt the central business district.

It was Commissioner William H. Taylor Jr. who wanted to delay introduction of the rezoning until after Monday's meeting.

"BOTH SIDES" He said he wanted to hear "both sides" of the story before voting.

Of the other commissioners who voiced attitudes on the subject, Commissioners Robert A. Landry and Milton R. Henry both favored the shopping center.

Landry said the city made a mistake several years ago in bowing to downtown merchants' demands to keep Miracle Mile Shopping Center from annexing to the city.

"We've sold a barrel of fish," he commented.

Henry said the Glenwood center should be considered on its own merits "and nothing the downtown merchants do should influence our decision."

Taylor said his main concern was "haste," pointing out that a number of other building projects given speedy rezoning in the past have still to get off the ground. He referred particularly to the proposed medical buildings on

"NEED FOR SPEED"

Former Mayor John B. Ridge, a real estate salesman representing the Detroit developers, said there was still a need for speed in order to maintain commitments for 200,000 square feet of retail space, which he said would be under construction "within 20 days" after the zoning action.

Located just off Perry street on the east side of Glenwood, between Grandview and Gage streets, the shopping center would occupy the biggest available site in Pontiac with both water and sewer service. It would be the first big shopping center on Pontiac's east side.

So, the board will call an intermission at 8:30, rush over to Winner Stadium, and then resume their meeting after the show.

Top item on tonight's agenda will be setting the 1961-62 school tax rate. Wage proposals for operations and maintenance workers will also be decided.

The board will hear preliminary proposals for school construction programs in 1961-62 and 1962-63. Reports are scheduled on the library services and science program in Pontiac schools.

The 1961 summer school program will also be outlined.

Board Meeting in Two Acts

Will Interrupt Regular Session to Appear in Music Festival

The Pontiac Board of Education will hold its regular meeting in 1961 tonight, due to the all-city elementary music festival at Winner Stadium.

The meeting and the festival are slated to begin at 7:30. Board members and administrators are scheduled to appear in the show's finale.

Pontiac police were questioning a 26-year-old man about a knife Tuesday night in which 44-year-old Henry Garth, 688 Franklin Road, was seriously wounded.

Garth was in poor condition to day at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. He was slightly improved from yesterday, doctors said.

Held by police for investigation of felonious assault is Willie J. Harris, 178 Franklin Road.

Harris admitted the stabbing at Garth's home, but said he acted in self defense while trying to leave after a quarrel, according to

Watson, 45, admitted he lied when he talked about Roy C. (Buck) Hicks, one of three Chattanooga, Tenn., men serving life in Southern Michigan Prison for the actual slaying.

On March 23, 1960, Watson told police he suspected Hicks of being behind the murder and threatening phone calls to him.

On the stand Wednesday he said he had no basis for any suspicion of Hicks in the April 6, 1960, murder.

Reds' Latest Purge Is of Cars

BERLIN (AP) — Communist East Berlin's police have started a purge of ancient automobiles which have become a highway hazard.

It is difficult and expensive to get new cars in East Germany. So rattling jalopies built 25 or more years ago are a common sight in East Berlin.

Owners of these candidates for the scrap heap are nervous somewhere far off the spare parts to keep them going.

According to reports reaching the West, the police decided to take stern action because too many of the old crooks were causing accidents.

An analysis of road accident figures in East Berlin for the first quarter of this year showed 12 per cent of the serious accidents were due to mechanical faults. Brakes failures, sudden snapping of axles and blowouts in worn tires were the main causes.

In 15 crashes, cars built between 1934 and 1936 literally fell apart. In 65 cases police ordered immediate confiscation of the vehicles because they were unsafe.

OWNERS PLEAD

Three taxis dating from before 1932 were put off the road. They had been kept going by use of modern parts but the chassis of each was dangerously weakened by rust and corrosion.

The plea of their owners to be allowed to keep them until they received new cars was rejected.

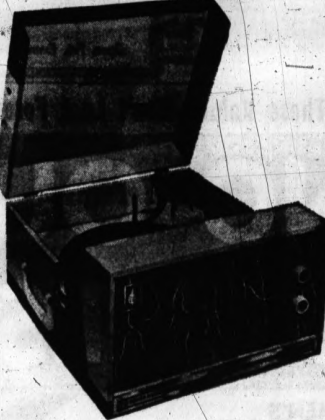

The official news agency ADN reported the case of a car whose front axle suddenly collapsed. A front wheel bound away, killed a scooter rider and injured three other persons.

Safety is not the only consideration behind the drive. Police want to get the jalopies off the streets because they make a bad impression on foreign visitors brought to East Berlin to admire the successes of communism.

In West Berlin dozens of used car lots have plenty of good cars for sale cheap. But it is forbidden for the East Berliners to buy in the West without official permission from Communist authorities, ordinarily hard to come by.

Norge to Close Down at Muskegon July 31

MUSKEGON (AP) — Borg-Warner Corp. is closing its Norge Division at Muskegon Heights after eight more weeks of production.

The July 31 date announced Wednesday came as long-awaited grim news to the plant's 1,500 employees who face a decision on whether to move with Norge to Fort Smith, Ark., or join more than 5,000 jobs in the greater Muskegon area.

Norge plans to move this year were made known earlier. Harold R. Sharpe, director of industrial and public relations, said the firm plans "to interview every man and woman it employs here to get a firm determination of their interest in moving."

Engineers Need Bomb to Get Rid of Stinkers

BONNERS FERRY, Idaho (AP) — The army corps of engineers radio operator at flood headquarters in Bonners Ferry could hardly believe his ears Wednesday. A message from the Dike District 6 distinctly said: "Send bomb for stinkers."

It seems that the sector engineer, Roy P. Erickson, and his crew had run into a family of stinkers living in the dirt dike which protects rich farmland from the swollen Kootenai River. The animals were interfering with movement of equipment and sandbagging so a gas bomb was needed to chase the little stinkers out of their holes.

Pontiac City Affairs

One-Year Transit Pact Is Approved

City commissioners last night approved a one-year pact with Pontiac Transit Corp.

The agreement was okayed after Neil B. Tilson, company manager, handed in a letter to City Hall that presented a picture of the company's two favorable.

In March and April the company was down to less than 600 patrons a month, compared with 75,000 or so a month to make the end of last year.

The leasing agreement is virtually the same as the one that got the company started here last June after the city was without buses for more than six months.

One difference in the lease notes that Pontiac Transit is now using new GMC Truck & Coach Division buses.

Under the agreement, the city leases the equipment to the company to operate, thus saving several thousand dollars a year in state gas and weight taxes.

CONTRACT RENEWED

The annual contract was also renewed with the Michigan State Board of Alcoholism for the Alcoholism Information Center in City Hall. Agents at the center conduct an interview and referral service. This year's contract price of the African $4,865 is about $200 higher than last year's.

Kalamazoo Company to Build in Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (U) — The Upjohn Co., drug manufacturer with main offices in Kalamazoo, Mich., will locate its Philadelphia regional sales office and distribution warehouse in King of Prussia Park, suburban upper Merion Township.

A building of 30,000 square feet will be put up on a four-acre site next to the national headquarters of the American Baptist Convention, now under construction. This will replace Upjohn's present facilities in Center City.

Firemen to Be Guests of Pastor's Association

The Pontiac Fire Department will present a program to the Pontiac Pastor's Association at 10 a.m. Friday in the First Presbyterian Church. George Backlund will show a film and talk on "Understanding - Public Safety From the Fire Prevention Point of View."

A luncheon will be served by the June Group, of the church's Women's Association. Rev. Paul T. Hart is program chairman, and Rev. Galen E. Hershey is the host pastor.

Newborn Daughter Makes Her Radio Debut

MANCHESTER, Conn. (AP) — Ham radio operator Richard Dibble's newborn daughter was "on the air" before she was brought home from the hospital.

Dibble juggled a portable transmitter rig to the hospital to broadcast the news of his new daughter. At the request of a fellow ham, he put the baby on for a brief statement.

Health Policies Set Record

132 Million Americans Insured in Some Way During 1960

NEW YORK (UPI) — A record 132 million Americans were protected by some form of health insurance at the end of 1960, the Health Insurance Institute reported.

In a review of the past year, the institute estimated the number of persons having hospital insurance had increased by four million to 133 million as of Dec. 31, 1960.

Some 120 million had surgical insurance, an increase of three million over the 1959 year-end count.

REGULAR COVERAGE

Regular medical insurance, which helps pay for the cost of doctor calls, protected 86 million persons at the end of 1960; 25 million had major medical insurance, and 43 million had loss-of-income insurance.

The 1960 figure showed 83 million with regular medical insurance, some 22 million with major medical insurance, and 43 million with loss-of-income insurance.

The institute said that 73 per cent of the U.S. population had some form of health insurance by the end of 1960.

An interim report on health insurance issued last month by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) had estimated that "at least, two-thirds of the people now living in the United States have some kind of protection."

The HEW estimate was derived from an interview survey of approximately 19,000 householders during the period July-December 1960.

The institute's figures were based on an actual count of persons covered by policies and contracts issued by insurance companies and other insuring organizations, including Blue Cross-Blue Shield. Allowance was made for duplication of coverage.

The benefit payments of $5.6 billion in 1960 represented an increase of about 9 per cent over the $5.175 billion paid out in 1959, the institute said.

Everyone Still 'Mad' Over School Cash

LANDING ON — Michigan's hotly debated $10.5 million higher education budget for 1961-62 becomes law within the next six days — but the argument lingers on.

Gov. Swenson must either sign the bill or let it become law without his signature by next Tuesday.

Although dissatisfied with the allocation, the governor indicated he would not veto the measure because, theoretically, this could shut off all funds for higher education at the end of the month.

Administrators at most of the nine state-supported colleges and universities also are unhappy with the Republican-controlled legislature's budget.

They have ordered cutbacks in programs and a freeze on enrollments as their answer to what they consider inadequate appropriations.

'MAD' AT EDUCATORS

In turn, many lawmakers are mad at the school officials and are considering setting up a committee to determine how the taxpayers' money is spent.

The college administrators estimate that as many as 5,000 qualified students may be turned down because of the adoption of rigid economy measures.

But adoption of the hold-the-line policy on enrollments has angered legislators.

"They've organized a headline-seeking smear job on the legislature," said Sen. Charles E. Feenstra, R-Grand Rapids. "They're cutting medical school enrollments while continuing three-credit-hour courses in fly-casting, bait-casting, boating and bowling."

Rep. Arnold Engstrom, R-Traverse City, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, said any institution denying admission to qualified Michigan students will be required to justify its action.

"They'll be asked to open up their books in full so the public can be given a detailed look at all operations and find out how every dollar is being spent," he added.

Such requests have met resistance in the past. The schools contend they are constitutional bodies exempt from legislative control.

Most of the colleges were allocated more money for the coming year than they are getting currently. But all felt their budgets should have been raised to much higher totals.

Phone Demonstration Comes Back in French

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — A telephone company official was demonstrating direct long distance dialing to a civic club group.

First, John Ryan dialed the San Francisco Humane Shelter. Wrong number. Three more dialings, three more wrong numbers.

Finally, on a call to the Montreat Weather Bureau, Ryan got connections. But the woman giving the forecast spoke in French.

Trujillo's Death Solves Nothing for U.S.

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — This country's problem with the Dominican Republic is just beginning. The assassination of Dictator Rafael Leonidas Trujillo did not solve anything.

The 60-year-old Trujillo, after 31 years of tyranny, had outlived his particular time.

The middle class had risen against him. Exiles had invaded him. The Catholic Church had denounced him. And all Latin-American nations had broken relations with him.

He survived as long as he did on sheer meanness at a time when social revolutions were sweeping not only Latin America but the world. What outlived him was this:

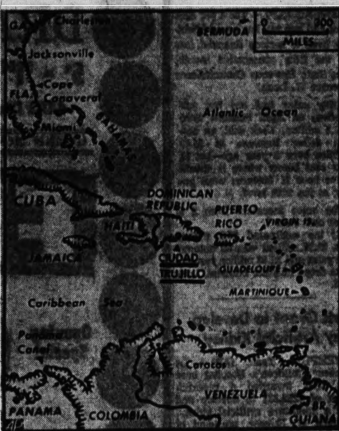

While all around him the masses of Latin America were demanding greater gratification of their desire for a better life, and a better part in it, he kept his so-called republic frozen in the old ways.

Fidel Castro in Cuba is no less a dictator, with the same contempt for democratic processes. But, unlike Trujillo, he looks extremely modern with his promise of a richer life and a sense of belonging for the Cuban masses.

The United States misunderstood this and learned to its dismay, through the disaster of the April invasion, that many Cubans promised better living support Castro without apparent concern whether he's left or right.

It's an old lesson being relearned painfully around the world: Democracy to people who never really had it means nothing. What they want is to live longer better.

Trujillo had some glimmering of the true nature of this wave

of discontent which is sweeping over the dispossessed of Latin America. Like Castro, he pacified the peasants by parceling out land to them. They were docile.

Yet, the farmers scratched out a bare existence. The slum dwellers were ragged.

He paroled out little else. He lived in the past. In the end his berserk tyranny — mass arrests, persecutions, executions, repression — was too excessive, became his undoing as it may become Castro's.

But he, his family and his friends got rich and fat off the republic. It's unlikely Trujillo's fat cats will yield control to some other outside, reform force without a struggle. So there may be bloody days.

If they triumph and set up another tyranny without broad reforms, it will be only a matter of time before they too are smashed. The sweep toward a lean government is willing to go to keep communism out of the hemisphere.

The real struggle eventually in the Dominican Republic will be between communism and this country. Meaning: The influence this country can bring to bear through economic aid and support for a reform government.

At this point it's impossible to say on which side the odds lie. It depends on how far the American government is willing to go to keep communism out of the hemisphere.

The Kennedy administration insists it will not intervene in another nation's affairs—which must sound to the Communists like nice neutrality — but did just the opposite in backing the Cuban invasion.

The area in and around the Dominican Republic is getting ripe for explosion. Sharing the same island with it is Haiti, where living conditions and ignorance are appalling.

And right across a narrow strip of water, called the Windward Passage, is the Cuba of Castro who back in 1961 took part in an invasion against Trujillo. The Dominican dictator demolished it.

But Castro now is in better position to keep communism out of the hemisphere.

no matter how you look at it, this is going to be rough.

than he was in 1949 when he was simply a discontented nobody. If he is truly communist's assigned instrument in the Caribbean, he will move against the Haiti-Dominican island.

no matter how you look at it, this is going to be rough.

Their approval would permit a July 2 start on operations of the Flint firm, according to Michigan Bakeries president Harold C. Overholt.

In a true luxury compact... BUCKET SEATS ARE JUST THE BEGINNING!

THE BUCKET SEATS in Futura—individually contoured and thickly foam-padded—were created by the men who designed the Thunderbird's fabulous interior. No luxury compact ever got off to a better start than this!

A HANDY CONSOLE is another Futura feature. Positioned right at your finger tips between the front seats... for convenient storage of gloves, maps, sunglasses, etc. (Only Futura in its price class offers you this!)

ROOM FOR 3 IN THE BACK SEAT of the Futura (as in every Falcon)... and what room! Futura gives its passengers the luxury of thick wall-to-wall carpeting, the comfort of thick foam padding in the spacious rear seat... surrounds them with rich appointments, glowing colors and gleaming trim.

A VACATION-SIZE TRUNK, TOO, with room for all your luggage. Because of this, you don't have to choose between carrying passengers or luggage in the back seat (as you do in some other luxury compacts!).

FALCON SIX ECONOMY is yours, too, in the Futura... the kind of economy that was proved when a Falcon with standard shift got 32.6 mpg under the cross-country test conditions of the 1961 Mobilgas Economy Run. Drivers of all cars in the Run were experts, but Falcon topped them all with the best gas mileage ever recorded by a "6" or "8" in the Run's 25-year history!

MSU Expert Thinks Ambitious Program at Fault in China

EAST LANSING—The famine in China may be caused by the two-ambitious program of the Chinese Communists, says a Michigan State University expert. This is how Dr. George Borgstrom, an authority on world food problems, analyzes the news of famine in the country with the largest population in the world.

By sitting and studying reports coming out of China, the MSU professor of food science deduced that the Chinese, in developing land in the northwest part of their country, could have upset the whole natural agricultural balance of China.

Borgstrom said "millions of Chinese have been moved to West and Northwest China, Tibet and Sinkiang, on land which has been pasture for thousands of years. It is likely," he said, "that the Chinese used this manpower to build dams and plow pastures. If they did, evaporation and moisture demands of new crops could have resulted in loss of water downstream."

As evidence, Borgstrom noted a report that the Hoangho River, which originates in West China, has dried up completely for the first time in memory.

Weekend Road Toll Worst for Holiday

CHICAGO (AP)—The nation's highway accidents claimed 462 lives over the long Memorial Day weekend, the worst traffic toll for a Memorial holiday period in the nation's history.

Only one other warm weather holiday topped the number of traffic fatalities reported this four-day Memorial observance. In the four-day Fourth of July celebration of 1950, 491 persons died in highway accidents.

During the 102-hour weekend, there were 683 violent accident deaths. Boating accidents killed 40 persons, drownings 63 and miscellaneous accidents claimed another 118 lives.

Zionism Means 'Wanting to Live Over in Israel'

NEW YORK (AP)—Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion says Zionism means nothing less than a desire to immigrate to Zion, or Israel.

The white-haired Israeli leader used the Hebrew word "Aliyah" in explaining his concept of Zionism to a group of Zionist leaders here Wednesday. "Aliyah" — or "going up" — is the term traditionally used to denote settlement in Israel.

Ben-Gurion, 74, has clashed with American Zionist leaders in recent months over his insistence that only a person who plans to go to Israel as an immigrant can rightfully call himself a Zionist.

He reiterated his stand in a speech to a joint session of the American Zionist Council and the Jewish Agency for Israel. His audience included Dr. Nahum Goldmann, president of the World Zionist organization and an outspoken opponent of Ben-Gurion's views on Zionism.

Extra Cent Sales Tax Big Help to Michigan

LANSING (AP)—The 4 per cent sales and use tax has saved Michigan from a serious financial loss for the fifth consecutive month, says State Revenue Commissioner Clarence W. Lock.

May sales and use tax collections on April business were $26.5 million. Lock said, an actual dollar increase of $5.69 million over a year ago—but 11 per cent below where it should have been if business were going at the 1960 level.

The taxes increased from 3 to 4 per cent Jan. 1. Of the estimated $3.3 million loss, $1.37 million was on automobile sales and $1.93 million resulted from drops in other business, Lock said.

Salads That Please

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Salads... salads... salads... there is no end to the variety you can enjoy, especially now that the season for all kinds of fresh greens has arrived.

Salad can start a meal. The Italians serve Antipasto. The Scandinavians have their smorgasbords and their "cold tables." If you serve raw vegetables with a dip, you can count that as a salad course.

Nothing beats the traditional green salad. It goes well with any meal. One or more greens are washed, dried and crisped before being blended with the simplest oil and vinegar dressing. Whatever else you add is strictly according to your personal taste.

The salad pictured here is a main course salad, best to serve at lunch or for a light supper.

With avocado, the combination of flavors should be most interesting.

"Accordian" Salad

4 tomatoes
1 hard-boiled egg, sliced
1 avocado, sliced
1 1/2 cups mayonnaise
Salt and pepper
Blend dressing
Mix all

Cut tomatoes in four sliced sections, being careful not to cut completely through slice to make an "accordian." Spread face of slices generously with deviled ham. Between each slice insert avocado or egg slice. Serve on a bed of lettuce with a sharp French dressing. Garnish with ripe olives.

Serves 4
Fish and fresh vegetables make the following salad a hearty one. It could well be the main course for a Friday night party.

Smorgasbord Salade Nicole
1 pound fresh peas, shelled
1/2 pound fresh green beans, tipped and sliced diagonally
1 large head Boston lettuce or other salad greens
1 can (13 ounces) solid white meat

tuna, drained
1 can (13 ounces each) anchovy fillets
2 dark and 2 light Swedish crisp bread slices, broken in small chunks
1/2 cup olive or salad oil
2 garlic cloves, halved
1 medium purple onion, thinly sliced
1 cucumber, sliced
1 tomato, cut in wedges
2 hard-boiled eggs, peeled and quartered
1/2 cup ripe olives
2 tablespoons dry mustard
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon pepper
Swedish crisp bread for nibbling

Cook peas and green beans separately until each is just tender. Still crisp; drain and cool. Arrange lettuce on large platter. Place tuna, still in shape of can, in center of platter; surround with anchovy fillets. Heat oil with garlic cloves. Remove 3 tablespoons garlic-flavored oil and toss with crunchy Swedish crisp bread croutons. Arrange croutons, vegetables and egg wedges separately, in colorful groups. Garnish with ripe olives.

Shake together remaining garlic-flavored oil, vinegar, mustard, salt and pepper and place on table in a cruet. Add dressing to salad and toss just before serving. Or, let diners help themselves, as at a Swedish smorgasbord buffet, and add dressing to individual portions, 4 to 6 servings.

When fruit is the main ingredient, the salad can well be the dessert course. Hawaiian Delight has the marks of an old favorite served with a difference. Pineapple shells make attractive serving dishes. This salad can be made any way ahead of time.

ACCORDIAN SALAD — This unusual sliced tomato salad is laced with spicy deviled ham and egg or avocado slices. It's a filling salad that is ideal for luncheon or for a light supper. "Handles" are black olives. Use tasty crisp Butter lettuce under the tomato.

Hawaiian Delight

1 fresh pineapple
1 cup miniature marshmallows
1 cup sour cream
1 cup fresh strawberries, washed and sliced

Prepare pineapple by cutting (including top or crown) in quarters lengthwise. Cut out hard core. Cut the inside pineapple flesh from the rind of each quarter, leaving the rind shells. Cut the flesh in small cubes. Store pineapple rings for later use.

Combine marshmallows, sour cream, strawberries and 1 cup of the pineapple chunks. Allow to stand in the refrigerator several hours in chill. Before serving, place in pineapple shells and garnish with whole strawberries. Makes four servings.

Note: If fresh pineapple is not available, use drained canned pineapple chunks. Serve as salad over crisp lettuce.

Pretzel-Burgers Good on Grill

To celebrate this Pretzelzennia year, the 100th anniversary of pretzel making in the United States (although popular in the old world for over 13 centuries), they're invited them to an outdoor barbecue. Like any good guest, they add to the fun of the party.

Pretzel-Burgers

1 1/2 pounds ground beef
2 cups freshly ground pepper
1 cup coarsely crumbled pretzels (about 18 thin, twisted pretzels)
2 eggs, beaten
1 tablespoon instant minced onion flakes
1 cup milk, tomato juice or soup stock
2 cups ketchup
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup white onion
8 thin twisted pretzels
1/2 cup ketchup
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup white onion

Combine first seven ingredients; mix lightly and shape into 6 patties. Grill over glowing coals, allowing 4 to 5 minutes to each side. Turn once with long-handled tongs or pancake turner.

If desired, brush burgers with barbecue sauce at the start of grilling and after turning the meat. Top each burger with a thin onion slice and a pretzel before serving on hot, toasted and buttered bun half.

To keep the meat moist and juicy-tender, you may moisten both sides of pretzel-burgers with a few drops of cold water just before grilling. Pretzel-burgers may be mixed ahead of cooking and kept refrigerated, well-wrapped in heavy-duty aluminum foil.

Garlic and Cheese Toasted in Bread

Variation on the popular and quick-to-fix garlic bread.

Italian Loaf

1/2 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
1 loaf (about 12 inches long) crusty bread that is French or Italian type

Cream butter; mix in grated cheese and garlic salt. (This amount of the salt gives lusty flavor; use less for a fainter seasoning.) Cut loaf in 1-inch slices, but not all the way through to bottom crust. Spread cuts with cheese mixture. Wrap in foil. Heat in hot (450 degrees) oven about 15 minutes. Serve at once.

Keep All Rooms the Same in Formality

The battle of modern vs. traditional is ancient history. Contemporary settings combine the best of the past with the best of the present. Modern furniture now has curves. Traditional patterns have been simplified. Antiques enhance sleek backgrounds.

There is only one rule for combining. Follow the same degree of formality throughout.

Thus an informal modern room might have a "handicraft" feeling keyed with a shaggy or tweed carpet, or one of the many new ones with the hand-tooled look.

Colonial plates belong, or primitive objects from any place in the world as long as they have the spirit of "early beginnings." This room can be for the family or for sophisticated country entertaining.

In more formal rooms, refinement of detail and the feel of richness and intricate workmanship go together. Set the theme of the room with a carpet, luxurious in pattern or texture. There are designs that belong with every style from B.C. to 1961 A.D., formal or informal.

Beat Pound Cake Mixture Long Time

Georgia Pound Cake

2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup finely granulated sugar
1/2 cup vanilla
1/2 teaspoon mace
2 eggs

Sift together flour and salt. Cream butter, sugar, vanilla and mace. With electric mixer beat in thoroughly 1/2 of the eggs, one at a time. Add the flour; stir until smooth. Add remaining egg; beat until smooth.

Turn into buttered angelfood cake pan (9 by 3 inches); bake in slow (325 degrees) oven 1 hour or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean; do not preheat oven. Allow pan to stand on wire rack 10 minutes; turn out; turn right side up; cool. Store in tightly covered container.

Caramel Chip Brownies Make Snacktime Better

Safety experts recommended the coffee break to drivers on long journeys to counteract the effect of hours at the wheel. Instant Sanka coffee, long a favorite with people who enjoy plenty of good coffee, will refresh and relax you and leave you ready to tackle the remaining miles safely. This decaffeinated coffee, which now boasts a new blend of superior coffee beans from the world's finest coffee plantations, makes a drink that is rich, full-flavored and wonderfully satisfying. Carry it with you in a vacuum bottle, along with a couple of brownies for your sweet tooth, ready to enjoy whenever fatigue catches up with you.

Caramel Chip Brownies

1 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon double-acting

1/2 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
1 egg, slightly beaten
2 cups (8 ounce package) caramel chips

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, soda, and salt and sift again. Add nuts and mix well.

Set aside. Melt butter in saucepan, remove from heat. Add sugar and mix well. Cool slightly. Add egg and vanilla and blend. Then add flour mixture, a small amount at a time, mixing well after each addition. Mix chips in and spread in greased 8x8x2-inch pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F) 20 to 25 minutes. Cool in pan, then cut.

CARAMEL CHIP BROWNIES — Stop for a coffee break along the road while you're on a long trip. If you have made these light-colored brownies before leaving home, you'll have a snack to go with coffee from a thermos—or a cool summer drink of fruit juice.

Fudge Mix Goes Into Cake, Sauce

A spring shower or trousseau tea for a summertime bride calls for a special menu... something simple to prepare, pretty to serve to your feminine friends and occupants to eat. You'll be the hostess who is "showered with compliments" when your shower or tea menu includes this Brownie Fudge-Nut Cake.

The basic ingredient for this nutty, chocolate cake is a chocolate Quick Fudge Mix. It couldn't be easier! Bake your cake in a ring mold, and you have a lovely shape, plus a hollow center to mound with scoops of creamy smooth homemade ice cream. Or, if you want to be extra fancy, serve every guest her own miniature cake. Just bake the cake in individual ring molds instead of one large mold.

A spring shower calls for a frivolous dessert... that's why scoops of strawberry, chocolate and vanilla ice cream (rolled in tinted coconut to be extra pretty) are mounded into the center of the cake.

Homemade ice cream, just like grandmother used to make, is easy to prepare using a Freezing Mix. Top off your dessert with hot fudge sauce. Use half the Quick Fudge Mix package for the cake and the other half for the fudge sauce.

Brownie Fudge-Nut Cake
 1/2 cup flour, sifted
 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
 Dash of salt
 1/2 cup instant Chocolate Quick Fudge Mix
 1/2 cup shortening
 1/2 cup water
 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
 1/2 cup instant, chopped
 Sift together flour, baking powder and salt in a small mixing

BROWNIE FUDGE CAKE — You'll be "showered with compliments" when you serve this Brownie Fudge-Nut Cake for a bridal shower. Mound scoops of coconut dipped ice cream balls in the center of the cake and invite the guests to top their dessert with hot fudge sauce. Piping hot cups of tea complete the shower menu.

Keep All Fruit in Same Color bowl. Add remaining ingredients and mix well on medium speed for 1 minute. Spread in a greased 1 quart ring mold. Bake 25-30 minutes in a 350 degree oven or bake in a greased 8" square pan and bake 20-25 minutes.

When using the ring mold—cool cake slightly and invert on a cake plate. Just prior to serving, fill the whole in the center with scoops of ice cream made using Freezing Mix.

Note: Individual ring molds may be used instead of the 1 quart size. Bake the individual molds 10-12 minutes. Place a scoop of ice cream in the center of each mold.

Hot Fudge Sauce
 Prepare 1/2 package Chocolate Quick Fudge Mix according to fudge sauce directions on package.

A thin film of asphalt spread on seeded ground has been found to retain moisture without interfering with new shoots.

Cottage Cheese an Ingredient in Cookies

Far from being just another bland, low calorie cheese, cottage cheese can be a wonderfully handy cooking ingredient when you want to augment the nourishment of a dish.

Fudge Nut Cookies
 1/2 cup butter
 1/2 cup sugar
 1 cup cottage cheese, stirred
 2 eggs

1 teaspoon vanilla
 1/2 cup sifted flour
 1 teaspoon baking powder
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup chopped nuts
 Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in cottage cheese. Beat in eggs and vanilla. Gradually add sifted dry ingredients. Stir in nuts.
 Chill dough for several hours. Form into balls about 1 1/2 inch in diameter. Roll in sifted confectioners' sugar, chopped nuts or granulated sugar. Bake on lightly greased cookie sheet at 350 degrees for 15 minutes. Makes 5 dozen.

Fried Egg Sandwich Has Sardine Base

These sandwiches are different!
Sardine and Egg Sandwiches
 1 egg
 1/2 cup (2%) condensed milk
 2 tablespoons mayonnaise
 2 tablespoons (or more) pickle relish
 4 eggs
 Butter
 4 slices bread
 Drain sardines; mash with mayonnaise and pickle relish. Fry eggs

In better until firm, turning. Spread 4 slices of the bread with the sardine mixture; top with eggs; butter remaining bread and add. Cut into quarters; serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

Cows Keep Busy
 Production of milk would satisfy a king-sized thirst. Five billion fifty-one million pounds of milk was Michigan's production last year. Milk checks totaled $185 million in 1959. We were seventh in milk production in 1959. The Michigan Department of Agriculture enforces the state's dairy laws among which is the nation's first milk pasteurization law. More than half of the production goes into bottled milk. The rest into other dairy products.

CANNED HAM — Serving a canned ham that is completely cooked for a party makes sense. You still have to heat it; follow the directions on the label. Then dress it up with a fruit topping made of bananas, orange juice and pineapple. The result will delight everyone.

Fruit Mix Glazes Canned Ham

A canned ham can easily be turned into something spectacular by the use of glazes or toppings. One in particular which you might enjoy using is called Baked Canned Ham with Fruit-Trio Topping.

The Fruit-Trio Topping is spread over the top of the ham after the meat has almost completed its reheating period.

The basis for this topping is 1 ripe banana. Mash the banana with a fork... then drain one 8½-ounce can of crushed pineapple and add the pineapple to the mashed banana. Stir in 2 tablespoons of defrosted orange juice concentrate and 1 tablespoon of flour.

Mix these ingredients thoroughly and spread over the top of the warmed canned ham. Heat the ham with whole cloves and return the meat to the oven for an additional 15 to 20 minutes for the glaze to set. This recipe yields about 1 cup of topping. This same topping can be used on an elegant ham slice, too.

Remember, when serving this glorious canned ham for a buffet setting it is easy to keep the rest of the accompaniments simple.

A vegetable casserole, a molded salad, hot rolls and a make-ahead dessert would adequately complete the menu.

Farmers Mean Money to State

Michigan Week will be celebrated many ways. Cities will stress Michigan's great industrial contribution. Resort areas will remind everyone of Michigan's natural resources and the pleasure and income these bring. Since only ten per cent of Michigan's labor force is employed directly on farms, many may not realize Michigan's agricultural contribution states the Marketing Information Agent, Mrs. Josephine Lawyer.

Actually about one-fourth of the total labor force in Michigan is employed in one way or another in agriculturally related industries. About three out of five of all farmers work part time off their farms, and a good share of the farmer's income is spent in Michigan.

Operating expenses of Michigan farms is more than $370 million each year. The production of farm raw materials is basic to many other businesses in the state. Nearly 173,000 farms are highly dependent on farming. These farms employ over 820,000 people, have an investment of $7.3 billion and sales of nearly $10 billion each year.

Those who know Michigan food commodities can readily state that Michigan ranks first in the nation in production of red tart cherries, field beans, cucumbers for pickles and tomatoes for fresh market. Dairy products make the largest contribution of 25 per cent to total farm cash receipts. Cattle and calves, hogs and other livestock total 21½ per cent of the farm cash receipts, while poultry and eggs contribute 6.5 per cent.

Celebrating Michigan Week? Include your praise for Michigan Agriculture.

Plenty of Meat Buys to Fit Plans for Outdoor Grill

This week's shopping list will include foods to officially welcome the outdoor season and to celebrate Michigan Week.

If you want a Michigan grown food, check fresh asparagus available the Marketing Information Agent, Mrs. Josephine Lawyer. We expect the peak of supply from the southwestern counties this week.

Whether you intend to spend a little or a lot, there are meats to fit your plans. Check all kinds of poultry including fryers, turkey, stewers and roasters. Many beef cuts are in the spotlight again, so you may wish to check ground beef, beef steaks and roasts. All styles and kinds of ham and spareribs and pork cuts emphasized.

Retailers report that higher quality grain fed beef is lower in price than it has been at this time for the past three years. What does this mean to you? This tells you this is a good time to buy tender steaks for summer use. Prices will rise for the higher quality tender steaks as weather becomes warmer and more people want quick easy-to-grill steaks.

If you plan to cook fryers on the grill, look for birds weighing 2 to 2½ pounds each and split them in half. Cooking on the rotisserie? Then a turkey or roasting chicken may be the best choice. A stewer or large turkey will give the most poultry meat for your money; if your plans include cold salad or sandwiches.

If deviled eggs are a picnic favorite, you will find the large size eggs an economical choice at 50 cents or less per dozen. The yolks will be more nearly centered if you choose Grade A quality.

We know that Americans like ice cream. Consumption has increased from 17 pounds per person in 1950 to 18.4 pounds per person in 1960. You may wish to take advantage of special ice cream offers for easy desserts this week. For added flavor and eye appeal, fresh strawberries are available at about the same to slightly higher prices than a week ago.

Remember? Potatoes exposed

Michigan Beans Good on Hot Day

There comes a time when the weather and your taste calls for a cool meal. When that time comes, give a thought to beans in a salad. Almost any kind of cooked dry beans can be combined with salad vegetables, but one of the happiest combinations is Navy beans with celery and green onions.

Navy Bean Salad
Boil a package of Navy beans for 1½ hours with 1 tablespoon of salt until beans are mushy. Cut up 2 stalks of Pascal celery, 6 green onions, 6 strips of crisply fried bacon. Add salt and pepper, 4 tablespoons of vinegar, ½ cup French dressing and 1 tablespoon stippy mustard dressing. Mix thoroughly and serve on leaf of lettuce.

For the chilly days, when the family wants and needs something hot, try SPANISH NAVY BEANS. Navy beans combined with chopped ham and sausage, with green pepper and garlic to lend the "Spanish" effect.

Soak and simmer 2 cups Navy beans until tender. Salt to taste. Fry 1 cup chopped smoked ham and ½ pound sausage meat; add to beans. Drain off most of fat. Mince a green pepper with ½ clove of garlic; fry lightly and add to beans. Bring to a boil and simmer 20 minutes. Serve six.

Plan Gourmet Meal With Economy Touch

Dinner For Four

Vegetable—Brussels Amaranth
Salad—Green Salad
Dessert—Cheese and Chip Strawberry
Beverage of choice

Kidney-Mushroom Chip Casserole

2 large beef kidneys
Salt to taste
1 large mushroom sliced
1/2 cup olive oil sliced (sliced)
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons milk
1/2 cup margarine
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup onion
1/2 cup potato chips
1/2 cup onion

Butter a casserole. Put half the potato chips in the bottom. Press down well.

Prepare beef kidneys which have been cut in small pieces. Pour boiling water over them. Let stand for 30 minutes. Throw water away. Now cover kidneys with milk and let them soak ½ hour. Reserve milk.

Now slice the kidneys, and sauté in margarine. Add flour, mushrooms and olives. Stir until smooth. Add wine and a little milk to make a smooth sauce. Pour onto potato chips in casserole. Cover with remaining chips. Press down well. Cover with onion. Dot with butter. Bake 30 minutes at 350 degrees. Garnish with parsley.

Cheese and Chip Strawberry Hearts

3 ounces package cream cheese
1 cup milk
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup potato chips crushed very fine
1/2 cup strawberry jam

Best cream cheese with cottage cheese, orange rind and cream. Mix until perfectly smooth. Shape into 4 hearts with cookie cutter and press each into finely crushed potato chips. Serve with one spoon of strawberry jam on each heart.

Dinner For Six

Entrée—French Chicken Fricassee
Vegetable—Cauliflower
Salad—Cold Salad with Marinated Dressing
Beverage of choice

French Chicken Fricassee

1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup flour
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup onion
1/2 cup potato chips
1/2 cup onion

Stuffing:
1 cup finely crushed potato chips
2 cups finely ground beef
1/2 cup onion
1/2 cup potato chips
1/2 cup onion

When done, remove to platter—breast up. Surround with vegetables and keep warm while you thicken sauce with cornstarch, crushed potato chips and parsley. Cook chicken well with sauce.

Serve balance of sauce separately in bowl.

Raspberry Chip Tart
1 large cup crushed potato chips
1/2 pound margarine melted
2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 cup raspberry jam

Mix well and press into tin. Let stand while you prepare following filling.

1/2 cup fresh raspberries (thawed)
1/2 cup cottage cheese
1/2 cup evaporated milk
2 tablespoons cornstarch

Beat cottage cheese with egg and evaporated milk. Spoon it into tart and put in 350 degree oven for 30 minutes while you prepare sauce.

Separate juice from thawed raspberries. To raspberry juice add cornstarch and cook over low heat, stirring constantly. Cook until thick and clear.

Remove tarts from oven. Spread raspberries on cheese. Cover with sauce and return to oven for 10 minutes. Turn off heat and let tart cool in oven an hour or more. Chill well before serving.

Our Is Good

Among the 50 states Michigan in 1960 stood sixth in ice cream production with manufacture of about 33.5 million gallons. There is a sack of Michigan potatoes that quality is better than formerly. This is due to cooperation of all branches of the industry to improve the product. It is paying off, fruit or nut ice cream are made too, because more Michigan produce is insisting on Michigan potatoes.

Michigan Potatoes Better in Quality Today

Michigan has slipped in potato production. So has most every other potato state, too, because of slenderizing fads, etc. We were ninth in the U. S. last year with a 7,572,000 hundredweight crop. Much-grown potatoes are sought by the ship trade and for potato chips of which Michigan is the No. 1 producer. Grown on lighter soils Michigan potatoes are preferred table stock.

Notice when you buy the next sack of Michigan potatoes that quality is better than formerly. This is due to cooperation of all branches of the industry to improve the product. It is paying off, fruit or nut ice cream are made too, because more Michigan produce is insisting on Michigan potatoes.

Voters to Hear School Hopefuls

6 Candidates for Board in Avondale to Join in Public Forum

Voters in the Avondale School District will have an opportunity to see and hear the six men running for board of education positions at a meeting of candidates meeting June 1 at the high school.

The forum is being sponsored by the Avondale Area Parent-Teacher Association Council as a public service for the district electorate, according to Council President Mrs. George Dill.

Seeking election to the 3 four-year vacancies on the board are David W. Hackett, Herman C. Douglas, James E. Feilberg, Raymond R. Cramer, former School Supt. Raymond M. Baker and incumbent board member Robert C. Slipperley.

They will give their qualifications and air their views on school problems and the two issues to be voted upon in the June 12 election.

A pre and post discussion of teacher tenure will be offered Tuesday this June, a 6.5-mil operational tax levy request also will be decided by the school district electors.

School Supt. Leroy R. Watt will explain the millage proposal at the meeting which is slated to begin at 9 p.m.

Chorale to Present Program on Sunday

AVON TOWNSHIP — The Chorale of University Presbyterian Church will close its musical season with a program Sunday at 8 p.m.

To be sung is Franz Liszt's setting of Psalm 13, an interesting wedding of colorful Hungarian music and the words of Israel's "Sweet Singer" Psalmist David.

Featured soloists will be Mrs. Harold Sherman, soprano, and Mrs. Paul Elison, cello. The church is at 1265 Adams Road.

County Women to Head 'Fund' in Townships

Two area women have been named the 1961 Troch Drive's regional cochairmen for all Northern and Western Oakland County townships.

They are Mrs. Clifford Cook of 444 South Ridge Road, South Lyon, and Mrs. Werner Hoy of 11291 Bigelow Road, Davisburg.

Their appointments were announced by Mrs. Clyde C. Bennett Jr., of 800 Stillfield Road, Birmingham, community campaigns chairman for Oakland County.

Mrs. Cook will direct all residential solicitations for Farmington, Lyon, Novi and Commerce townships. Volunteers in Milford, White Lake, Highland, Rose, Springfield, Addison, Grovesend and Holly townships will be led by Mrs. Hoy.

Oxford School Loan Receives State Approval

OXFORD — The Oxford Area Community School District has been given approval by the State Department of Public Instruction to borrow $40,000 against anticipated state aid.

School Supt. R. A. Ambrose said today the money loaned will be used for school operation until Sept. 1. It will be repaid when the district receives its state aid for 1961-62, he said.

The invocation and benediction will be given by Rev. Paul L. Amatuta, pastor of Armada Methodist Church.

2 Area Seniors Get Blue Cross Scholarships

Two area high school seniors are among the 10 winners of 1960 Blue Cross nursing scholarships of $300 each, a Michigan Blue Cross-Blue Shield spokesman announced.

They are Jane Moultrup, 17, of 6388 Snawapple Drive, Clarkston, and Elizabeth Pierson, 18, of 3710 Hedley Road, Melanora.

The 10 topped a field of more than 600 contestants and were picked from a narrowed field of 15 finalists.

The 11th annual competition, open to all high school seniors and graduates in Michigan, was conducted by the Blue Cross and the winners chosen by the scholarship committee of the Michigan League for Nursing.

The league is a statewide recruiting and education agency for the nursing profession.

Committee members said that winners were chosen on the basis of initial and final applications, scholastic grades and reports from their high school principals. Financial need also was a contributing factor in the final judging.

Lone Cedar Farm Again Wins Award

UNION LAKE — A fourth Gold Star Hard award has been given to Mrs. Myrtle E. Hess, Lone Cedar Farm, on her herd of registered Jerseys.

Over the past four years this herd of 18 cows has had an average of 8,502 pounds of milk containing 878 pounds of butterfat for each cow.

All tests were checked by Michigan State University and the American Jersey Cattle Club.

The Gold Star recognition is presented by the cattle club for unusually high production over a four-year period.

Centennial Bridal Fashion Show Ushers in June

Lois Simpson of Oak Park appeared in the centennial fashion showing of bridal wear Wednesday evening in a wedding gown of the early 20s. Miss Simpson's all-satin gown had the distinguished chapel-length skirt of the era.

BY MARJORIE EICHER
Women's Editor, The Pontiac Press

June, the month of brides, was heralded Wednesday evening with a Centennial fashion showing of bridal attire at Pontiac, Northern High School.

Sponsored by the Alicia Bridal Salon in tribute to Pontiac's Centennial, the show featured authentic gowns dating from the Civil War, the early 1900s, through the roaring 20s to the orbital 60s.

Clad in a black faille gown ornately decorated with black jet beads, Mrs. William McRath was narrator for the first half of the show.

Produced by Harvey Place, the production featured many changes of scene and background music, including tunes from the Broadway production "Camelot" which is exerting strong influence on the American fashion scene.

Among vintage gowns to appear in mock-daguerretype style in an ornate picture frame was a cream-colored silk-faille gown modeled by Lynn Anderson.

STYLISH WAIST

of the period. Lynn's waist measures 10 inches—tiny in our vitamin-stuffed young people but above average in the Scarlett O'Hara era. A circular floor train and bodice trimmed in Battenburg lace completed the gown.

Another eye-catcher was Yvonne Moder's three-piece ensemble of China silk. Lined in green taffeta, the gown was typical of those seen in weddings at the turn of the century. The skirt had a draped front drawn to reveal knife-edge pleating of silk and lace.

The entire underside of the train was of pleated lace. The blouse had three-quarter length sleeves and the cape was of exquisitely fagotted silk with pale green velvet ribbons.

HILARIOUS PARODY

A gown of the early 20s worn by Lois Simpson was chapel length with v-neck and gathered lace trim. Its scalloped semi-torso waist was the forerunner of many lines currently seen in fashion.

Narrating the second half of the show which featured present-day styles modeled by centennial queen contestants was Mrs. Frank Anderson. An intermission act by Margaret Beattie was a hilarious parody, an old-fashioned strip tease.

wedding gown of the Civil War era. The showings were among highlights of the bridal fashion show at Pontiac Northern High School.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law, who is 40 and a divorcee, has written that she is going to send me her 14-year-old, boy-crazy daughter so we can "straighten her out." She says the girl is so wild she can't handle her.

Abby, my husband and I have been married only eight months. I am 19 and he is 20, and I don't think this is fair to us.

My husband feels sorry for his mother, and so do I, but I don't know the first thing about how to straighten out a 14-year-old, boy-crazy girl.

Is there any way we can refuse to take this girl into our home without getting his mother mad at us forever?

NO NAME PLEASE

DEAR NO: Yes! Your husband should write his mother that you are not qualified to

"straighten out" a 14-year-old problem girl. Suggest that she seek professional help from her local guidance clinic.

DEAR ABBY: I have been dating a girl off and on for about a year. She has everything, and I do mean everything, but she is very much "on guard" at all times. I go to kiss her goodnight and she gives me her cheek.

When we see a movie, I consider myself lucky to just hold her hand. We aren't kids. I am 22 and she is 20. I believe in girls keeping high standards, but can't get to first base with her. Any suggestions?

BATTING ZERO

DEAR BATTING: This girl is smart. She isn't letting you get to "first base" because she doesn't want to have trouble getting home.

DEAR ABBY: I am now in my senior year of high school. My godmother has been ill and financially embarrassed for many years.

I haven't heard from her in a long time. I don't know how long. My mother says I should not send my godmother an invitation to my graduation because she couldn't possibly attend, and it would look like a request for a gift.

I just want her to know that her godchild is graduating. Would it be all right to send an invitation and explain that a gift is unnecessary?

SENIOR

DEAR SENIOR: Since you haven't heard from your godmother in many years, don't break the long silence with an invitation you know she can't accept. After graduation, write her a letter and tell her you've graduated.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MUSIC LOVER: Promise him an arpeggio.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "GOT IT BAD": There is nothing more hopeless than a single woman who "has it bad" for a married man who never had it so good.

Church Unit Picks Officers

Officers for the Ladies Philanthropic Society of St. George Greek Orthodox Church were elected Wednesday evening in the church hall.

Mrs. Demetrios Pappas, president; Mrs. John Tenjeras, vice president; Mrs. Nicholas Papadopoulos, secretary; Mrs. Louis Rontos, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Sam Kentros, treasurer.

Council members are Mrs. George Mitchell, Mrs. Nicholas Astin, Mrs. Abraham Ryerson, Mrs. William Gregory, Mrs. Chris Rendzperis, Mrs. Ethim Gabriel and Mrs. Philip N. Christi.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Gabriel, Mrs. Constantine Garyet and Mrs. Gregory. A summer picnic is planned.

Country Club Plans Dance

The annual spring formal dinner dance at Forest Lake Country Club Saturday will be preceded by a reception and cocktail party honoring outgoing president Fred De Rango of Bloomfield Hills.

Mr. De Rango, who is a charter member, has been an officer and member of the board of directors since the club's organization in 1954. Replacing him as president will be Ralph Hunt, president of Forest Lake last year.

The Henry F. Sokols of Birmingham are party chairmen. Assisting them are the W. Owen Klines of Linden Road and the John H. Bennetts of Southfield.

Downbeat Artists Planning Memorial

Jazz musicians who performed at last year's Birmingham Arts Festival will return to the 1961 festival to pay tribute to one of their number who died last winter.

The top-flight artists of Downbeat are calling their concert at 8:40 p.m. June 23, "The Lem Winchester Memorial Night."

It will be the first of two evenings of concerts titled "Jazz in Suburbia." They will be staged in the gothic dome to be erected in Shain Park for nightly dramatic, musical and other Arts Festival week events.

Jazz concert cochairmen Dr. Richard R. Galpin and Robert Maxwell announced plans for the 1961 concert today. Dr. Galpin predicted it would be "an even more memorable and exciting experience than last year's concert."

Winchester was still a patrolman on a Wilmington, Del., police force when he got special leave to appear in the Birmingham Arts Festival last June.

RESIGNED OLD JOB

The enthusiastic reception of Winchester's outstanding performance on the vibes (electronic vibraphone) encouraged him to become a full-time professional musician. Soon after his Birmingham appearance, he resigned his post as a patrolman.

He was a young man playing his way to a jazz-world summit, touring with his own combo, when he was killed in a tragic accident early this year.

Dr. Galpin said he expected Winchester's widow to attend the memorial night. He said many of last year's top artists are making a special effort to repay and pay tribute to their former associate.

The returnees will include blind pianist Bess Bommer and her trio, vibes artist Jack Brookshire, drummer J. C. Heard, Nick Fore, Dick Rydon, Sandy Mosse and Joe Kennedy.

Maxwell, well-known radio and television personality who is a Birmingham resident, will be master of ceremonies at the Friday night memorial concert.

LINES UP ROSTER

Jazz concert producer Dave Usher is lining up a roster of talent new to the Birmingham scene for the Saturday night performances.

Already contracted for are trumpeters Clark Terry and Joe Newman, tenor sax artists Oliver Nelson and Frank Morelli, guitarist Les Spann and vocalist Joe Carroll.

Jimmy Wilkins will be on hand with his 16-piece band, runner-up in the American Federation of Musicians' nationwide "Best-Dynes" Band Contest" held last year in Cobo Hall.

One of the all-time jazz drummers, J. C. Heard, will preside over the Saturday night concert.

Heard once drummed for such bandleaders as Cab Calloway. He toured the world with Norman Grant's jazz spectacular, "Jazz at the Philharmonic." He recorded with most of the important artists of the 1940s and early '50s—Dizzy Gillespie, Charlie Parker, Red Norvo and Billie Holiday.

Dr. Galpin, a jazz-loving pediatrician who lives at 337 Henley, Birmingham, was chairman of last year's concert which generated tremendous enthusiasm and an overflow crowd.

Other members of his committee are Mrs. H. J. Chalk, Dave Heard, Mrs. F. M. Sheridan, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hartuff and Mrs. Anne Taylor.

Dean Coffin is general chairman of activities in the gothic dome. Tickets to all events in the dome are available at Grinnell's downtown and in Birmingham, and at the Arts Festival headquarters in the Harlan Building at Shain Park, Birmingham.

Mrs. William A. McNamee of Birmingham (left), president of the Episcopal Churchwomen of Christ Church Cranbrook, joins Mrs. Frank A. Klingensmith of Birmingham, a founder of the group, and Mrs. Charles MacMahon

Jr. of Bloomfield Hills (right), president-elect, to outline the program for Tuesday's annual outdoor luncheon. This year special attention will be devoted to celebrating the organization's founding in 1926.

Annual Church Luncheon Is Set

The annual outdoor luncheon of the Episcopal Churchwomen of Christ Church Cranbrook will be observed at 12:15 p.m. Tuesday on the lawn of the church. A celebration of Holy Communion at 10 a.m. will begin the day.

At the morning business session in the Guild Hall new officers will be installed, and the program theme for the coming year will be announced, along with highlights of the planned Tuesday programs.

Special attention this year will be devoted to the celebration of the founding of the group 35 years ago. Honored members of the original group attending the luncheon will be Mrs. James A. Beresford of Bloomfield Hills, Mrs. Frank L. Klingensmith of Birmingham and Mrs. J. W. Boehr of California.

Mrs. Frank Bromley, Mrs. L. D. Halstead, Mrs. W. T. Harbour, Mrs. Thomas Farmer and Mrs. Edward G. Fowler are other founders who still reside in this area.

In 1926, 23 women, observing the growth and influence of the church, organized the Christ Church Woman's Auxiliary and agreed thereafter to work as churchwomen in five areas of service: the parish, its community, diocese, nation and world.

In order to be more closely associated with the diocese, members voted at the annual meeting on June 2, 1959 to change the name from the Woman's Auxiliary to the Episcopal Churchwomen, Christ Church Cranbrook.

Today the organization has grown to a membership of over 600 women. The group participates in diocesan affairs, supporting projects of the diocese and the general work of the church. Members are committed to a program of study and education.

Alpha Sigs Meet on Shawnee Lane for Breakfast

Twenty members and guests of Alpha Sigma Nu Sorority met for a May breakfast at the home of Mrs. Lillian Morts on Shawnee Lane, Schoolhouse Lake.

Mrs. W. T. Huntley led the group in the recitation of the 23rd Psalm which was followed by an interpretation of the Psalm as related by an Iberian shepherd.

Guests at the Sunday affair were Mrs. Huber Lear of Detroit, Mrs. O. J. Young of Lake Orion, Mrs. and Mrs. William Christie, Russell Evans, H. W. Dickman and Leonard McKinley.

Mrs. Morts was assisted by Jessie Stevens, Mrs. Park Smith and Mrs. Fred Elliott.

Teachers Start Honor Society

An Oakland County chapter recently was initiated by Alpha Delta Kappa, international honorary society for women teachers, at the Fort Shelby Hotel, Detroit.

Alpha Lambda, the new chapter, was sponsored by Mr. Chapter of Hazel Park. Officers elected were Mrs. Bonnie Norman, president; Mrs. Mildred Downey, vice president; Mrs. Marguerite Phelps, corresponding secretary; Frances Pulley, recording secretary; Mrs. Helen Harding, treasurer; Mrs. Bertha Reed, Melba; Mrs. Catherine Galloway, chaplain; and Mrs. Mildred Williams, sergeant at arms.

Also initiated were Mrs. Alice Zimmerman and Mrs. Frances Gaylor.

Margerie Long, state pledge chairman, organized the chapter.

Planning Dinner

A family-style chicken and fish dinner is being planned by the women of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

The affair will be from 5 to 7:30 p.m. Friday in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall on Walton Boulevard in Drayton Plains.

Here Are Some Rules

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
Summer brings problems for the underweight woman and girl as well as for those who are overweight. Lack of curves can be as troublesome as pads of fat. Why not try to gain a few pounds this summer and build figure contour with exercise?

The relaxation of sun bathing and more time spent outdoors, are aids to gaining.

Swimming is a wonderful curve builder and also is relaxing, so often the underweight woman is tense. She may also have little interest in food.

If you wish to add pounds, try to plan your life so that hurry and complexity are held to a minimum. Get plenty of sleep and take short rest periods during the day whenever possible.

Be sure that your diet is vitamin-rich and is well-balanced. A rest period just before eating is most advantageous.

EXERCISE WILL HELP

The following exercises will help you build curves. Stand erect. Raise your right arm, shoulder height, as you bend your head to the right, touching your head to your shoulder. Lower arm to side and return head to erect position. Continue.

For increasing the bust measurement, stand or sit in front of a mirror. Bend both elbows up in front of you. Grasp the lower left arm with the right hand and the lower right arm with the left hand. Push the elbows toward one another and resist with the hands. Relax. Continue. If you do this correctly, you will see the chest muscles move.

If you would like to have my Nine-Day Gaining Diet, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 41. Address Josephine Lowman in high on your right toe. Lower right care of The Pontiac Press.

73 NORTH SAGINAW STREET

SEW SIMPLE

By Eunice Farmer

Dear Mrs. Farmer:

"I am making a sheath dress that has grosgrain ribbon trim to outline the armholes, neckline, and extend down the center front of the pattern, from neck to hem. The pattern calls for 1/4" wide grosgrain."

"I am having trouble getting the ribbon to ease-in and shape to the neckline and armholes. The ribbon is to be top-stitched along both edges."

Mrs. F.S.

Dear Mrs. F.S.:

Since the grosgrain ribbon is rather firm, and woven on the straight grain, it is almost impossible to do a neat job of using it on a curved area. You may wish to change the neckline to a high, square neckline—also the armholes to a square. This would be equally attractive, and you can miter the corners and really achieve a professional look to your trim.

To use this ribbon around a curve, I would suggest several things that will help you. First, put a row of machine stitching on one edge of the ribbon. Next, pin outer edges of ribbon so that it lays smoothly on your garment. Now pull the bobbin thread from the stitching around the inner edge of ribbon. This should be eased until it fits smoothly on your garment. This is usually top-stitched by machine. After it has been stitched, press carefully and you will find most of the ease will disappear and it will lay fairly smooth.

Another suggestion is to take small darts at the inner curve, tapering to nothing at the outer edge. The more NARROW your ribbon, the easier it is to ease onto a curved area.

Dear Eunice:

"I found some jersey material with some foam rubber on the back of it. I was going to make a coat, but had to give it up because it stuck to my sewing machine and I couldn't stitch it. I am sure you will know what I did wrong."

Mrs. G.H.

Dear Mrs. G.H.:

After getting your letter, I tried stitching some samples on this same kind of fabric. I think I can guess some of your difficulties.

First, don't have your machine stitch too small. If it is, it will cut through the foam rubber and also prevent the fabric from feeding through the machine correctly. Next, be sure the presser foot is not too close to the feed plate of the machine. There is a screw on top of your machine which can be adjusted to the different thicknesses of fabric you will be working with.

I feel that as soon as you have solved your problems on this fabric, you will enjoy working with it.

Dear Eunice:

"My daughter is making a blouse for her 4-H Club work. The blouse fits beautifully, except it is too full in the bust for a little girl of 12. Can you help us change it so it wouldn't stick out in front, but will fit smoothly?"

Mrs. D.W.

Dear Mrs. D.W.:

The darts will have to be made smaller for your daughter. The larger a person is in the bust, the deeper the darts must be for a perfect fit.

The underarm darts and the darts below the bust should be made only half as deep as they were originally. This should give the garment a nice fit for her figure.

The $4-million Crown of the Andes was displayed by the Elton MacDonalds of Windmill Pointe at the affair.

Founded by the former Mrs. James Vernon and operated by the Sisters of Divine Charity, the home has continued to provide a haven for aged men and women.

Several of Briarbank's charter members, Mrs. John B. Hammond, Mrs. Ralph Polk, Mrs. James Q. Goudie, Mrs. George Baldwin, Mrs. Everett Fisher, Mrs. John J. Ellwood and Mrs. Theodore MacManus, are still active.

Mrs. Charles Kleinsmith, president, has extended an open invitation to the tea and open house to community residents interested in the work of Briarbank at the home.

'Sanforized-Plus' Standard Is High

(UPD)—Fabrics labeled "sanforized-plus" must live up to certain standards of performance.

The most important of these is that they remain smooth after washing. They also must meet rigid test requirements for crease-resistance, shrinking and tear strength.

Physician Revives Baby Dead at Birth
LONDON (AP)—A baby boy, born dead, has been brought back to life by heart massage at London's Westminster Hospital.
The baby was born early Monday morning. There were no signs of life.
Slapping, oxygen and stimulants failed to get it breathing.
A surgeon made a small incision in its chest. His fingers probed gently under the baby's rib cage and found its tiny heart. The surgeon began massaging.
Fifteen minutes after its birth, the baby's heart fluttered. The baby began to breathe.
A hospital spokesman said it may be some weeks yet before it is known whether the operation was a complete success.

FAMILY AFFAIR — Working together to make a success of the Colonial House Restaurant on Milford Road just west of M59 in Highland, the members of the Olenzek family are having fun. They're enjoying country living and learning a trade and the art of "togetherness."
Paul (in front) cooks, and Marc (holding the tray) is an expert dish washer, while Lynda (also holding tray) and her mom serve the customers. David (at the piano) dishes out sweet music while their father, Edward, cooks delectable dinners.

Olenzek Restaurant Is Family Style

What's Cooking? 'Togetherness'

By REBA HEINTZELMAN
Twenty jubilant Redkins piled out of a school bus onto the lawn of the Colonial House Restaurant in Highland last week and swooped down upon three cases of ice-cold pop. They had just won the regional championship.
Polish-born, soft-spoken Edward Olenzek was treating his boys before driving them back to Milford High School. The baseball victory resulted in joyous pushing and wrestling—symbolic of winning teams.
However, that's not the story. The bus driver is.
Driving a bus for the Huron Valley School System is only a small part of Olenzek's active life.
He, his wife Betty and their four children own and operate the big 17-room Colonial House on North Milford Road, and the family's reputation for Colonial hospitality blended with Polish congeniality has spread throughout Oakland County.
It all began six years ago when Olenzek purchased the mansion just west of M59—"to get his kids away from cramped city living." At that time, he began driving to and from his grocery store business in Detroit, and it wasn't long before the long time-wasting daily trips began to take their toll in energy.
THEIR KIND OF FOOD
One night Olenzek called his family together for consultation, and they all decided to turn their home into a colonial-type restaurant—serving the kind of food they liked to eat.
They had no experience in cooking or in the problems of the restaurant business.
Despite this, the family agreed to take a chance. The downstairs walls were torn out, the kitchen enlarged and conveniently equipped. Then the seven upstairs rooms were remodeled for family living.
Pine paneling, indoor floor-to-ceiling shutters and Colonial lights were installed, giving the two dining rooms a charming, quiet atmosphere. Early American wallpaper and fluffy white ruffled curtains added warmth to the rooms, and every Olenzek pitched in to do his part in the remodeling.
Today, when customers pull up to the pillared porch, 16-year-old Paul helps them out of their cars, which he parks on the three-acre site. After that he dashes into the kitchen to fry up golden-brown chicken, fish that does not taste "fishy," or steak cooked just right.
In the meantime, Mrs. Olenzek and her 14-year-old daughter Lynda set up the tables and serve the guests food prepared

Goldwyn Wins $300,000 in Suit

Judge Awards Verdict in Monopoly Fight With Film Distributors

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Samuel Goldwyn won a $300,000 verdict in his suit charging that the monopoly power of film distributors forced him to accept their terms for exhibiting rights to seven Goldwyn productions.
Federal Judge George B. Harris Wednesday awarded Goldwyn $100,000 damages, trebled under the Clayton Anti-Trust Act.
Goldwyn originally asked $5,750,000 in his suit against 20th Century-Fox Film Corp., National Theaters, Inc., Fox West Coast Theaters, Inc., and Fox West Coast Agency Corp. The claim later was reduced to $1,750,000.
STATUED IN 97.
The trial started in 1957 before the late Federal Judge Edward P. Murphy. Judge Harris took over the case following Judge Murphy's death.
Judge Harris said the evidence showed that Goldwyn "had no alternative but that of dealing with the defendants largely on their own terms." He cited testimony that Goldwyn had lost $62,000 on his sale of exhibiting rights to "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty."
The other Goldwyn films in the case were "The Best Years of Our Lives," "The Bishop's Wife," "The Enchantment," "Roseanna McCoy," "My Foolish Heart," and "A Son Is Born."

Professor Succumbs

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP)—Dr. Robert Eckles Swain, 86, emeritus professor of chemistry at Stanford University, died Wednesday, apparently of a heart attack.

RECEIVED AWARD

A senior due to graduate next month, David recently received a gold key award for his architectural drawings at a high school exhibition. He plans to enter Wayne State University in September to major in architecture.
Paul has learned to cook almost anything, according to his mother, and 11-year-old Mark "washes dishes constantly."

There never seems to be any discord in the "hard-working family operation, an everything goes into a "kitty." Whenever anyone needs cash—there it is.

Lynda makes her own clothes and belongs to Joe's Daughters. Paul is on the high school track team, and Mrs. Olenzek is a Sunday school teacher at the Highland Congregational Church. The two older boys have earned four-year perfect church school awards.

If ever a family has found the meaning of the word "togetherness," it is the happy Olenzeks, all striving to help each other and at the same time, serving "non-commercialized" food the way THEY like it. Needless to say, the public response has been tremendous.

Behan's in Again After Rumpus in Restaurant

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Irish playwright Brendan Behan is in an isolation cell at police headquarters, accused of disturbing the peace.
Officers picked up Behan, 38, at McGee's Pizza Restaurant in Hollywood Wednesday after manager Jerry Brentari refused to serve him a beer. Brentari told police he arrested the playwright after he started swearing and acting disorderly in the restaurant.
Patrolman Charles Brewer said Behan swung at him but missed, while officers were trying to take a photograph at headquarters.
Said Brewer: "He acted like a character out of one of his plays."

Women Arrested in Liquor Raid Are Sentenced

Two women arrested by Pontiac police vice squad officers Sunday in a raid on an alleged illegal liquor place at 205 Hughes Ave. were sentenced in Municipal Court today following trials.

Municipal Judge Cecil McCullum found Betty Hall, 39, of the Hughes Avenue address, guilty of maintaining and operating an illegal liquor place. She was ordered to pay a $35 fine or serve five days in the Oakland County Jail.

Shert Johnson, 22, of 221 Franklin Road, was found guilty of harboring and ordered to pay a $30 fine or go to jail for three days.

A man arrested in another raid on an alleged illegal liquor place at 535 Nebraska Ave. last Sunday changed his plea to guilty of harboring. McCullum ordered Lon

J. Boyett, 42, of 169 E. Pike St., to pay a $10 fine or spend a day in jail.

Trial of three others arrested in the Nebraska Avenue raid was postponed today to June 8.

They are Will H. Robertson, 40, and Mary Robertson, 51, both of that address and accused of maintaining and operating an illegal liquor place, and Hayward Beasley, 37, of 746 Tilden St., charged with soliciting an act of prostitution.

Roa Fingers Kennedy in Murder of Trujillo

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa blames the United States for the assassination of Dominican dictator Rafael Trujillo, the newspaper La Prensa said today.

The newspaper said one of its reporters was present when Roa learned in a telephone conversation of the assassination and that he snapped: "It was Kennedy."

Tax Extension Gets 1st Okay

Bill Now Goes to House for Fast Action to Halt Expiration July 1

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Ways and Means Committee today approved extension for one year of $3.6 billion worth of existing taxes on passenger tickets, telephone service, alcohol, tobacco and other goods.

The extension bill now goes to the House, where it is assured quick handling. The taxes expire or drop in rate unless Congress completes action by July 1.

The Treasury had said it is essential to continue the present rates of these excise taxes, which for the most part were increased during the Korean War and have been continued year to year since then. The present 52 per cent corporate income tax also is included.

The committee voted 23-3 in closed session to continue the taxes. A stiff party-line fight was reported on the 10 percent passenger transportation tax, which is opposed most strenuously by airlines. Without congressional action, it would drop to 5 percent. A move to repeal the tax outright was defeated in the committee, reportedly by a straight vote of 15 Democrats against 10 Republicans.

Photographers for Centennial Are Selected

The Pontiac Professional Photographers Association has been selected by the Greater Pontiac Centennial Commission as the official photographers of the June 17-24 celebration.

The association includes Ralph Robinson, president; Jerry Wood, Dimin Lazaroff and Clyde Hasdick.

Centennial headquarters explained that the organization will take all the official commercial photographs of the Centennial events.

During the Centennial period, association members plan to snap pictures of costumed people downtown, displaying them soon after in a centrally located spot.

The association will also photograph the rehearsals for the Centennial Spectacle, "The Pontiac Story."

Headquarters also explained that news media photographers would be authorized to snap photographs of all phases of the Centennial.

Amateur photographers with admission tickets, headquarters said, will be allowed to take pictures during the Warner Stadium Spectacle. A special area will be provided for this. Amateurs will not be allowed in the playing area during the performances.

2 Boys to Get Hearing on Derailment of Train

DETROIT (AP)—Two 12-year-old boys, accused of causing the $80,000 derailment of a Grand Trunk Western Railroad freight train, will be given a hearing in Juvenile Court Friday.

The train was derailed May 9 at the Ford Expressway-Twelfth St. crossing.

Police said the boys broke open a switch and smashed the only warning light. Two Diesel units and four freight cars were derailed and about 100 yards of track torn up.

Up for Con-Con in First District

Lewis R. Miller Is 9th Candidate to Enter Race From This Area

Lewis R. Miller, a sales representative for a steel company and a resident of Waterford Township, has entered the wide-open race for the Republican nomination July 25 for Oakland County's 1st District constitutional convention seat.

He is the ninth to announce.

"It is our duty"

"Whether we are for or against constitutional convention is no longer an issue," said the 43-year-old former combat Marine Corps captain. "The con-con is a fact now. It is our duty at this time to adhere to the principles of the Republican Party and keep government in the hands of the people."

"This is where government begins, and this is where government should remain," he said.

Miller, who makes his home at 4650 Cass-Elizabeth Lake Road with his wife and two children, joined the Acme Steel Co. in 1934 as assistant manager of the fabricated materials division and came to Michigan in 1937 to become district sales representative for the state.

In 1942 Miller earned a degree in economics from the University of Chicago. As a student at the university, Miller began his work in the steel industry as a trainee at Inland Steel Co. in East Chicago, Ind., a firm he served as labor relations supervisor after completing 3½ years with the Marines.

The candidate, finance chairman last year for the Waterford Township GOP Club, later worked for the Borg Warner Corp. in Chicago.

You'd Never Know the Republicans Lost the Election

By RUTH MONTGOMERY
WASHINGTON — If a Martian spaceship dropped into Republican National Headquarters and uttered the time-honored phrase, "Take me to your leader," he would probably be staggered to learn that the GOP lost the election.

From the looks of headquarters, you get the eerie feeling that a lot of Republicans don't know it, either. The party seems livelier and cockier than at any time in recent decades.

The victorious Democratic party has an unpaid debt of "32 million plus," while the Republicans owe only a fourth as much.

pyramiding dollars toward the million-dollar mark, and former Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield is chairing a Republican dinner tonight that is expected to raise $600,000 for next year's congressional campaign.

Ex-prexy Ike Eisenhower will be the only speaker at the $100-a-plate dinner, and Sen. Barry Goldwater will be the only presidential prospect to take a bow.

The undisputed leader of the Republican conservative wing will rate an introduction by way of his chairmanship of the Senate Republican Campaign Committee.

Nixon, who was invited, chose to address a hastily organized Republican dinner in California instead, and potential rival Nelson Rockefeller had a previous speaking engagement in his own state of New York.

Former Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson, who used to boast of putting his foot in his mouth at press conferences, has taken a $1,000 "family table" at the dinner for his children and grandchildren.

Chairman Thruston Morton and Asst. Chairman Clare Williams report that in their travels to rallies around the country, they have "never seen such crowds, nor such enthusiasm."

Some of the men warned Mrs. Williams that she was "crazy" to call a women's conference this spring, so soon after a party defeat, but she issued the call anyway, and 1,500 women paid their own expenses to Washington for the annual spring training course in winning votes.

Their newest project is pyramid building. Committee headquarters mailed out 1,000 one dollar bills — old ones that still bore the signature of Reappointed U.S. Treasury Secretary David C. Brewster — and told the women to multiply them in any way they saw fit.

The money is now pouring in, and the ingenuity of some of the willing tilters makes reading the mail a hilarious task. One woman sent $3.00 she made selling praying mantises that hatched from a cocoon in the yard.

BUSY LITTLE LADY
A small-town Kansas lady sent $11.50 gleaned from selling felt sunflowers, birthday cakes, bread and rolls, apple pies, and from "shortening three skirts, making one pair of pajamas, giving one shampoo and set, one picture, one manicure and ten facials."

An Indianapolis woman sold "flywaters for slapping the new frontier," at $3 apiece. Others peddled everything from watermelon pickles to cigars, and as Alaska Republicans made $90 selling chances on when the ice would break in the river.

They brought out this spring. Called "Are You a Shadow, Voter?" it warns women how to protect themselves at the polls, so that their votes cannot be stolen or discarded.

Now in its sixth printing, it has been endorsed by the Republican Fair Campaign Practices Committee, and Democrats are buying it, too.

Ike Eisenhower recently called a Cabinet meeting at Gettysburg, just as if he'd won the election, and has served notice that he will continue to do so "as often as is necessary."

One thing can be said for the GOP elephant: he isn't taking the new frontier lying down.

English has been adopted as the second language of Indonesia.

Shoe Box Full of Gems Lost by Stock Broker
NEW YORK (AP)—Stock broker Elisha Walker Jr. left an old shoe box in the limousine that took him from the railroad station in Long Island City to his Manhattan office Wednesday morning. When he discovered the loss, Walker called the limousine service, his insurance company and police.

Nine hours later police located the limousine in Queens and recovered the shoe box.

The box contained $129,635 worth of jewels which Walker was bringing to the city to have appraised.

Montreal Vet Signs Three-Year Contract as Player-Coach

NEW YORK (AP)—Doug Harvey, the new coach of New York's National Hockey League team, said today he plans to install himself as a means toward moving the Rangers close to the top of the league circuit.

"I've got the same power play as the Canadiens and try to concentrate more on checking the way they have been doing," explained the veteran defenseman who Wednesday signed a three-year player-coach contract for an estimated $27,000 annually.

"After the Canadiens have secured many, many goals that have had a manpower advantage," he continued. "They pass the puck to the man closest to the goal instead of to the players on the blue line as the Rangers have been doing."

Harvey, 36, and a 14-year veteran of NHL competition, had expected to play the full 70-game schedule with the Rangers. He is a six-time winner of the Norris Memorial Trophy for league's outstanding defenseman and a nine-time all-star. All of his playing experience has been with the Canadiens, who won four straight Stanley Cup titles before they were stopped by the Chicago Black Hawks last season.

Tigers' Quality a Question Mark Following Loss

Bengals Fail to Hit in Clutch, Drop 6-4 Decision to A's

DETROIT (AP)—Paul Richards, the astute manager of the Baltimore Orioles, was one of the first of the nonbelievers to challenge the quality of the Detroit Tigers.

Others may follow suit now that the Tigers have lost five of their last seven games.

The Tigers, losing 6-4 last night to the Kansas City Athletics, have lost ground in their battles against teams they are supposed to beat with considerable regularity. Their recent miseries have been caused by the lower teams and have come at a time when the Tigers could have opened up a commanding lead in the American League pennant race.

NO CLUTCH HITS
The Tigers failed to cash in on some dandy scoring opportunities in their second straight loss to the Athletics. Joe Nunnally, who pitched for the Cincinnati Reds, teamed up with his battery-mate Joe Pignatano to trim the Tigers' lead to two games.

The veteran southpaw spaced five hits in 7 1/2 innings to pick up his third triumph in four decisions. Pignatano was almost a one-man wrecking crew. His season's third home run came with a man on base in the second inning and his single drove in the A's third run in the fourth.

The Tigers got Frank Lary back into the game on a solo home run by Chico Fernandez and a two-run homer by the slumping Steve Harvey. Lary could not keep the Tigers in the game.

LARY DEBUTS
He was bound to second and scored on Dick Howser's double to left center. Lary departed after walking Al Pilarek. Hank Aguirre got pinch hitter Hank Bauer on a pop fly but yielded no production to install single to Bob-Byrd and Norm Siebern.

A two-out flurry in the ninth against reliever Bill Kunkel gave the Tigers one run. Jake Wood's triple and Billy Brainer's double drove the run in before Kunkel was working for the third time in two days—retired Al Kaline on a line drive to right field, Pilarek, who was the veteran outfielder of Kaline's slaking hour to snuff out Detroit's last hope of victory.

Manager Bob Scheffing, who sent Phil Regan (5-1) out against ex-Detroit Ray Herbert (3-4) in the man closest to the goal instead of to the players on the blue line as the Rangers have been doing.

"Up to now we've been getting the important hits when we needed them," he said. "We've had the same opportunities but we're just not making the most of them. It's a temporary thing, though, and we'll work our way out of this little spot."

'500' Purse Sets Record

Gift by Owner Hikes Foyt Share to $117,975

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Young A. J. Foyt picked up an extra $6,750 today—a personal gift from owner Tony Hulman of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway that rounded out the total purse for Tuesday's 500-mile race at an even $400,000.

The total purse was a record, and so was Foyt's winner's share, which he took home as $117,975 when Hulman announced his gift at the victory dinner Wednesday night.

The prize list originally had stood at $32,250, but an Indianapolis firm added $500 after double winners were named for "rookie of the year" honors.

The first place winners topped by $7,375 the money won last year by Jim Rathmann. The total purse was $30,850 more than the $39,150 paid out in 1950. Foyt, handsome 26-year-old resident of Houston, Tex., shared the big prize with his car owners, Bob Bowes, Indianapolis manufacturer, and George Bignotti, Burtinburg, and George Bignotti, Burtinburg, and George Bignotti, Burtinburg.

Ruttman Paced State Drivers at '500' Race
The smallest payoff among the winners was $100,000 for Eddie Sachs of Center Valley, Pa., who won $100,000 last year, took $5,270 for 30th place.

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)— Troy Ruttman of Dearborn, Mich., won the top Michigan money in the golden anniversary 500-mile auto race at Indianapolis on Memorial Day.

Ruttman won $6,750. Dick Rathmann, driving one of two Robbless Specials, owned by Jim Rathmann, won $5,000 prize money. The other Robbless Special, driven by Eddie Johnson, captured $4,750. Paul Goldsmith, Jr., of Dearborn, Mich., won $5,510.

Rathmann and Goldsmith finished 13th and 14th, respectively. Johnson and Ruttman were 15th and 16th. Prize money includes payment for laps lost as well as finishing positions.

Keg Champs Tourney Today at New York

NEW YORK (UPI)—Twelve of the nation's top bowlers, led by defending champion Billy Coleman, will match strikes and spares today in the $5,000 Tournament of Champions at Madison Square Garden.

Other entries in the men's division are Bill Tucker, Therman Gibson and Stan Marchut, plus a local bowler to be selected following morning elimination.

The women's field includes defending champion Marion Ladev, Lavern Carter, Phyllis Nataro, Ann Noga and Shirley Gams.

Pipp Succeeded Gehrig

(FIRST IN A SERIES)
By The Associated Press
Some say baseball history has been written to Wally Pipp. Too often he is remembered as the man who replaced Lou Gehrig.

And lost in the strange shuffle of memories is the fact that Wally Pipp played nearly 14 years as a Major League first baseman, and that he was a truly outstanding major league performer.

It was on the first of June in 1923 that Pipp took the "kid" to go out and play first base. Lou Gehrig, still 18 days short of his 22nd birthday, went out and played first base.

And he played it for 2,130 consecutive games. Pipp, who had been the Yankee first baseman since 1915, moved to Cincinnati the next season and three years later closed out a major league career. Pipp's lifetime batting average was .281 and his best season was in 1922 when he batted .329.

Louis for Action Against Boxing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Joe Louis, former heavyweight champion, told senators today it is high time for federal action to drive racketeers out of professional boxing.

He said the sport "has become a racket."

Louis' views were in a letter made public by the Senate Anti-Trust and Monopoly Subcommittee, which planned to call him to the witness stand this morning.

Louis has been in trouble with the government over income tax payment. The subcommittee left unclear whether this would figure in the hearings.

Louis was billed as an expert witness in this second day of hearings on a bill by Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., to place professional boxing under tough federal policing.

The bill would create in the Justice Department the post of federal boxing commissioner. The official would be armed with broad licensing and other powers to fight underworld influence.

The bill grows out of subcommittee investigations in which witnesses alleged mobsters had been virtually monopolistic control over boxing.

Kefauver, subcommittee chairman, indicated Wednesday a continuing interest in the troubles of boxing. The No. 1 ranked challenger for the heavyweight crown now held by Floyd Patterson.

Kefauver had expressed fear that control of the title would revert to the underworld "if Liston ever won it while managed by Pepi Barone, whom some witnesses had pictured as a front underworld figure."

Liston later announced he had terminated his contract with Barone, paying the manager $75,000, and has hired George Katz as his new pilot.

Harry Falk, a member of the California State Athletic Commission, spoke critically in hearings Wednesday about Barone and the $75,000 payment. Kefauver suggested that Kline, a member of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission, and has hired George Katz as his new pilot.

Michigan will play the first game today, the two clubs will play a second game for the championship. Western Michigan, the Mid-American Conference champion, needs to win only one of the two games.

Joe Merullo singled home the winning run in the ninth inning for the Big Ten champions yesterday. Bill Freehan, who drove in the first Wolverine run in the sixth.

Reject $1.2 Million for Carry Back

NEW YORK (AP)—Win or lose in Saturday's $125,000 add-on Belmont Stakes, Carry Back is not for sale at any price—no, not even for $1.2 million.

Jack Price, breeder and trainer of the horse which races in the name of his wife, Katherine, made that emphatic today after revealing he had rejected a syndicate offer of $1.2 million for the 3-year-old colt.

He can pick up another $102,400 Saturday by winning the 1 1/4-mile of the Belmont. Victory also would give him the distinction of being the ninth horse in history to be presented by former President Eisenhower.

The odds were 3 to 5 today that Carry Back will accomplish the feat with the same type of come-from-behind finish that he showed in the Kentucky Derby and patented in the Preakness.

Suggs, Wright Continue Tour Battle Today

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—Veternary Louise Suggs and long-hitting Mickey Wright carried their duel for top honors in the ladies' pro golfing ranks into the Women's Western Tournament today.

Joined by about 80 other top pro and amateur golfers, the two ladies shot the first of two qualifying rounds today at this swank, tricky 6,741-yard Belle Meade Country Club course.

The tournament opens the summer tour for the women on the play-for-prize circuit. So far this spring, Suggs and Wright have won nine of the year's first eleven Ladies' PGA tournaments.

Relief Pitching Helps Cincinnati

Reds Hold Share of 1st Place

By The Associated Press

What has put Cincinnati on top for the first time since dropping the Dodgers a full game behind in the three-way scramble for the lead?

Pittsburgh shook off a slump with a 5-1 victory over Milwaukee and Warren Spahn, and the Chicago Cubs defeated Philadelphia 2-1.

The Reds blew three leads at Los Angeles before Henry and Brouman moved in. A two-out single by Jerry Lynch brought home the winning run in the ninth, after home runs by Gene Freese, who hit two, and Gordie Coleman had cracked 2-2, 3-3 and 5-5 ties in the eighth.

Freese's second homer, a two-run shot off losing reliever Dick Farrell (4-4), made it 7-5 in the eighth. But Jay (6-3) then gave up a two-out home run by John Rostero in the bottom of the eighth. The Dodgers next sent up left-handed swinger Duke Snider, but when Henry loomed in, they followed the book and replaced Snider with right-handed hitter Frank Howard. It made no difference to Henry. He fanned Howard.

In the ninth, Henry gave up a single and two walks that loaded the bases with none out. That's when Brouman hustled in. A run scored as he got Tommy Davis, who had driven in three of the Dodgers runs, to hit into a double play. But with the tying run on third, Ron Fairly lined to Coleman, who made a leaping stab for the final out.

The Giants, coming from behind with two unearned runs in the sixth for a 2-2 tie, won it with two out in the ninth when Joe Amalfitano beat out a dribbler down the third base line with the bases loaded.

Yanks Regain Third on Belts by Mantle-Maris

Two Thumpers Have Hit 10 Homers, 20 RBI's in Last Ten Games

By The Associated Press

It's still "Dial M-Mantle and Maris-for Murder" with the New York Yankees.

Those two thumpers, one-two in the American League home run and Most Valuable Player lists as New York ran off with the flag last year, have come alive again, powering the Yankees along for seven victories in their last 10 games. And with the front-running Detroit Tigers suddenly gone cold, the Mick and Roger couldn't have picked a better time to get hot.

Between them, Mantle and Maris have hammered 10 home runs and have driven in 20 runs in those 10 games. Maris has had only nine hits in 32 at-bats at the 10 games, but six of them have been homers. Mantle, 9-for-25 while dogged by injury in the same span, has hit four home runs—good for seven RBI's—in the last three games.

They were at it again as the Yankees regained third place, 3 1/2 games behind Detroit, with a 1-0 victory at Boston Wednesday night. Maris drove in three runs, one with a homer. And Mantle put it away, capping a five-run fourth inning and taking the AL lead with his 14th home run.

Fifth-place Kansas City spilled Detroit 6-4, handing the Tigers their fifth defeat in seven games and shaving their lead to two games over rain-died Cleveland. The Chicago White Sox dropped Baltimore to fourth place, beating the Orioles 9-4, but stayed put in the cellar as the Los Angeles Angels, after losing 13 in a row on the road, won 5-3 in 12 innings at Washington.

Maris, who edged Mantle for the 1960 MVP award by three points after hitting 38 home runs to Mantle's AL-leading 40, broke a 1-1 tie with his 12th home run in the third inning off loser Billy Muffett (0-5). He then drove in two runs in the fourth, ahead of Mantle's winning shot.

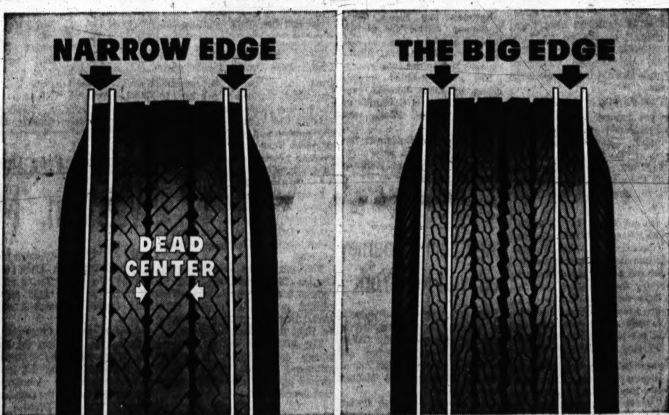

Rookie Roland Sheldon won his first in the majors, although he gave up a homer by Frank Malone, who drove three runs for the Red Sox, and needed late relief by Luis Arroyo and Danny McDevitt. McDevitt nailed it with one pitch, getting to Vic Wertz to hit into a game-ending double play with the tying run on third.

Al Smith's one-on-one homer triggered a three-run third inning that wrapped up the White Sox' first victory over the Orioles in seven tries. Jim Landis also homered for the Sox, who had managed just one run in their last 24 innings while losing nine of 10. Frank Baumann (2-4) was the winner with his first complete game of the year. Chuck Estrada (2-4) was the loser, giving up five runs on four hits and four walks in 2-23 innings. Both clubs had 10 hits.

The Angels, whose only other road victory was a 7-2 decision at Baltimore in the season opener, finally got past the Senators on a walk and Ken Aspromonte's tie-breaking double in a two-run 12th. The Nats had tied it 3-3 with an unearned run in the eighth after blowing a 2-0 lead. Ted Dowsfield (1-1) was the winner and Marty Kutyna (3-1) the loser, both in relief.

B.F. Goodrich has the BIG EDGE in tires today!
More safe miles for your tire dollar

Other tires have narrow edges, as this diagram shows. Following tradition, the rubber is concentrated in the center rib. But in today's driving, that's a "dead center," where tire action and tire wear are least. Look at your own tires, and you'll see the first signs of wear are on the outside edges.

BFG Silvertown has a radical new tread design—with up to twice as much rubber as other major-brand, first-line tires in the outside edges of the tread. That's where, B.F. Goodrich scientists discovered, today's tires work most, wear most. It's The Big Edge—and it means a big edge in safety and mileage for you!

Camera beneath amazing "glass highway" shows you close-up shot of tire in action. A highway paved with glass! B.F. Goodrich built one to study tire action and wear under actual driving conditions! Thousands of pictures shot from beneath the highway show it's the outside edges of the tire that work most, wear most. (See above photo of turning tire. Note the severe distortion on outside edge, little action in center rib.) That's why B.F. Goodrich put more rubber in the outside edges—The Big Edge—to bring you measurably more mileage than ever before!

SEE FOR YOURSELF WHY YOUR TIRE DOLLAR GOES FARTHER AT B.F. GOODRICH DEALERS!

Ask your B.F. Goodrich dealer to show you the revealing action photos filmed through the BFG glass highway. Find out how improved power and suspension systems in today's cars, and faster speeds on today's superhighways, now cause tires to wear fastest on the outside edges. Compare the BFG Silvertown Big Edge tread with any other tire at the same price. You'll see with your own eyes why the Silvertown gives you more safe miles for your hard-earned tire dollar. Don't buy any tire until you see the Big Edge demonstration at your B.F. Goodrich dealer's.

24-MONTH ROAD-HAZARD GUARANTEE.

Because of the high quality of workmanship and materials, new B.F. Goodrich passenger-car tires are guaranteed against blowouts, cuts, breaks caused by road hazards encountered in normal driving. If a tire is so damaged beyond repair, you get full allowance for remaining tread against the purchase of a replacement—at current retail list price. Your B.F. Goodrich dealer has complete details.

Ortega Awaits 1st Title Shot Saturday

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Welterweight challenger Gaspar Ortega of Mexico in eight years of boxing has never had a chance at a title but he gets the big shot Saturday night.

He meets world champion Emilio Griffith of New York in a 15-round nationally televised match at the Olympic Auditorium. And speaking through an interpreter, the 25-year-old Tijuana veteran said with great solemnity:

"This is my big opportunity. I will give all I have to win the championship, for my country. And I promise my supporters they will not be ashamed if I lose."

Ortega, slender, an immaculate dresser and virtually unmarked after 82 ring encounters, holds several distinctions. This will make his 38th appearance on national TV, which must make him a rival for old John Wayne movies.

No less than 13 of his matches have been decided by split decision—and he has won only two of the disputed verdicts. On the domestic side, he surpasses the 25-year-old champion in the number of family dependents. Ortega swears he supports a wife and four children, plus seven brothers, three sisters and his father and mother.

Counting Gaspar, that totals 18. Griffith maintains only 10—his widowed mother, four brothers, four sisters and himself. But Emilio is unmarried and only 22.

All indications point to a red-hot action fight, a duplicate of the 10-round war the pair staged in New York in February, 1960.

Says Gaspar's attire trainer, Freddie Brown of New York:

"This will be another war. I'll promise that. Ortega will be in there all the way, just as he was before."

The 1960 result was a split decision, and Ortega lost it. Two officials gave it to Griffith by a wide margin and oddly enough, the vote for Gaspar was equally as wide.

"It was a very close fight," Ortega recalled today. "I thought it could have gone either way. No, at no time did Griffith hurt me."

Griffith knocked out Benny (Kid) Beach in 13 rounds April 1 in Miami Beach to win the title. Ortega outpointed Paret in 10 rounds, here, non-title, last Feb. 25.

Canada Cup Duel Starts; One-Legged Ace Entered

DORADO BEACH, Puerto Rico (AP)—A one-legged golfer is under the same handicap as the proverbial one-armed paperhanger, as Ireland's Norman Drew will demonstrate if the ninth annual Canada Cup matches opening at lush Dorado Beach course today.

Sam Sneed, perennial member of the U.S. team, could be the individual favorite after shooting a 6-under-par 66 in his final practice round. The U.S. duo is the defender in the team competition, with Sneed this time paired with veteran Jimmy Demaret, filling in for U.S. Open champion Arnold Palmer.

The teams for South Africa, and U.S. and Canada were altered last week by a PGA ruling that kept Palmer, Masters champion Gary Player of South Africa, and Canada's Stan Leonard, two-time winner of the individual title, on the sidelines.

As a result, Drew and his Irish partner, Christy O'Connor, rate among the favorites despite the throbbing in Drew's left foot. The sore foot isn't a serious injury but it is annoying and keeps the young British Ryder Cupper from making a full pivot on a tee shot.

The Irish are paired with Mexico in today's opening round. That pits them against Roberto de Vicenzo, one of Latin America's best pros, and Juan Antonio Ezeiza, the first amateur ever to play in this links show. Also well regarded is the Australian pair of Peter Thomson, four-time British Open champ, and Kel Nagle, 1960 British Open king, the best Palmer by a stroke. They won the Canada Cup in 1954 and 1959.

Australia is paired with Canada, the U.S. with Japan and South Africa (with Harold Henning substituting for Player) with the Wales pair of Dai Rees and Dave Thomson in other key pairings on opening day at the par 36-52-72 layout that wanders 7,115 yards through tropical jungle.

In the tournament, in which 18 holes will be played each day through Sunday, the aggregate strokes of the two players of each team are added and the country with the lowest total wins the cup. Flory Van Donck of Belgium is the defending champion in the individual competition, based on medal scoring for 72 holes, but he doesn't rate himself a title threat this time. He says he hasn't played himself into shape as yet.

Danny Thomas Eyes Baseball

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Is Danny Thomas, the singer-comedian, a prospective owner of the Chicago White Sox?

Public statements on the question differ.

Thomas announced Wednesday night that he and a group of associates had acquired an option to buy controlling interest in the American League club from Bill Veeck.

But Veeck, in Chicago, said he had no knowledge of any option. A denial was issued also by A. C. Allyn Jr., a director-stockholder of the Sox who said flatly, "No option was signed."

"I should know if one had been signed and so should Veeck," Allyn added.

Thomas, advised of these reactions to his announcement, indicated strongly that he wasn't kidding.

"It was supposed to be confidential," he said, "I was told by my associates in Chicago that the option was signed, but I have not seen it."

Memphis Open Begins

MEMPHIS (AP)—Despite rip-roaring practice rounds, the $30,000 Memphis Open golf tournament kicked off today with predictions that an 8-under-par 72 for the 72-hole haul will win it. This hardly seemed possible. But gas pressure was expected to make par over the 6,423-yard, 143-38-37 Colonial Country Club course a little tougher for the 95 pros entered.

Gardner Dickinson, the little better from Tequesta, Fla., made it look easy Wednesday with a 7-under-par 31:32-63 that won the $300 low pro pot in the tournament's pro-am.

His round, tying the course competitive record, included eight birdies. There was one bogie, the result of a wedge that overshot the green on the par-4 seventh hole.

Dickinson's low score, combined with that of three amateur partners, also made up a best-ball tally of 56, which was good for $180 second place money in that category. The winning pro-am team was headed by Jerry Pittman of Tulsa. He picked up $240 on a four-man aggregate of 55.

Bednarik to Return

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Chuck Bednarik, whose two-way play highlighted the Philadelphia Eagles' drive to last year's National Football League championship, signed Wednesday for his 13th year of pro play.

Seven County Entries in 1000 Isle Marathon

Seven Oakland County boat racers are among 13 Michigan entries who will compete in the 7th annual 1000 Islands International Outboard Marathon, June 11th at Alexandria Bay, New York.

Heading the list of entries is Royal Oak's Gene Hawthorne, dental student with 11 years of experience who has won every marathon in the country at least once.

Another veteran is Bob Moore of Royal Oak who has won the 1000 Islands marathon twice. He is a mechanic.

Gale Cummings of Berkley, an auto mechanic who has placed first or second in every marathon he has entered, will have an entry in the DU class.

Ward Rathbun and Leonard Oesch of Pontiac will both be entered in the AU class. This is Oesch's first entry in the race. He has competed in various local races and some in Canada.

Rathbun finished 5th in the 1000 Islands last year.

Among the other state entries are Bob Jacobson of Flint in the DU class, who has been one or two in this class in the last four years.

Al Myers of Berkley, who took first in the 1960 CU class, is entered again, along with John Martensen of Detroit in CU. Dave Chochrill II of Port Huron, a pharmacy student, is in the AU class, and others in the DU class spots.

From the Skipper

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS

Memorial Day should be called "racing day." The May holiday is traditionally becoming one of the biggest racing days in the country on land and on water. There were plenty of races in the area over the past Memorial holiday weekend, but it was a bad weekend for many of the sailboats.

The Pontiac Yacht Club had a rough time of it. Sunday's races were hampered because the winds were too strong. Tuesday's races were called off and all the members enjoyed a pot luck dinner because there wasn't enough wind, and finally the Wednesday opening of Nile Owl series was called off because of the rain.

WATKINS LAKE SAILORS RACE

The 36 miles per hour winds on Sunday and the lack of wind on Tuesday didn't keep the Watkins Lake skippers from racing.

Chuck Morris and Karl Krutz had their boats capsize as Fred Brede, Ben Weber and Fred Poole took the top three places in that order on Sunday and Tuesday both.

In the thistle race, Norm Ledwin and Harm Gillen finished 1-2 on Memorial Day.

Several of the WLYC are planning to compete in the Michigan Warmup series snipe invitational races to be held at Wolf Lake near Jackson, June 17-18.

TWO MAN SHOW AT HOLLY

The big powerboat races over the holiday took place at Holly's Bush Lake where the Quincy, Illinois drivers put on quite a show of racing.

Jim Scheuch and Fred Gaebl, two are Quincy drivers, finished either first or second in every event except the Class C runabouts. They won the A, B, C, D and F hydro races and the A, B runabouts with their five boats and 10 engines.

Another pair from St. Louis, John Dorch and John Woods were the closest competitors. Local entries were all eliminated either by mechanical troubles or they finished way down the list. Walt Schrieber of Lake Orion took 6th place in the B runabout for the best local finisher.

Harry McCaughn's engine blew up during the race and Chuck Cartwright, broke down before the race started.

NOTES TO THE SKIPPER

Ken Peterson, commodore out at the Oakland County Boat Club on Sylvan Lake, has to take a bath Sunday. It will be the day for the annual launching breakfast and the morning for the commodore to be tossed into the drink. Richard and Glenda Davis, members of the Edgewater Beach Boat Club and second place finishers in the state tournament mixed double event last year, are the proud parents of a daughter, their first. Tony Mitchell, Pontiac's 1958 state water ski jumping champion, will take the fatal step down the aisle soon. The Thomas Die and Stamping Co., on East Walton Blvd. are the manufacturers of the automatic Ski Eye, a new tow bar which signals a light warning on the panel the instant a skier lets go.

52nd Boat Show Set for Jan. 13-21, 1962

NEW YORK — The 52nd National Motor Boat Show will be held here January 13 to 21, it was announced today by Joseph E. Choate, show manager and secretary of the National Association of Engine and Boat Manufacturers that sponsors the annual exposition.

The show will be held in the New York Coliseum, and will cover more than 18,000 square feet of exhibit area on five floors of the building.

The recent National Motor Boat Show contained 4th boats, inboard and outboard engines, and marine accessories of all types, with a total estimated worth of 2.5 million.

Chris Craft Expands

Chris-Craft President, Harry H. Coll today announced plans to expand their facilities in Pompano Beach, with the addition of a new research office and display center to be located on the western shore of Santa Barbara Lake and Federal Highway. Construction will begin immediately.

Manufacturing sites are located in Algonac, Cadillac and Holland, Michigan, Salisbury, Maryland, Chattanooga, Tennessee, Hayward, California and Pompano Beach, Florida.

Accident Data Listed

Michigan First in Boats

The statistical data concerning boats numbered are official Coast Guard figures. These figures extend to all numbered boats, but the requirements as to numbering is not uniform with all states.

Michigan ranks first in the number of boats numbered, but California is first in accidents, fatalities, injuries and damage.

Here is a list of the top ten states in numbered boats and their accident statistics for 1960.

State	Boats Numbered	Accidents	Fatals	Injuries	Damage
Michigan	21,000	250	25	120	$1,000,000
California	228,000	800	40	200	$10,000,000

SIMPLE AND FANCY FREE — Plain sails and simple hulls suffice for the working boats competing in the Bahamas' carefree Out Island Regatta, viewed by visiting yachtsmen with better equipment, but less skill. Water is splashed on sails to improve their set.

Few Rules, Much Skill in Native Sail Race

By WM. TAYLOR McKEOWN

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

GEORGE TOWN, Bahamas (NEA)—The only event of its kind, the Out Island Regatta brings together from the watery corners of the tropical Bahamas the sailboats that carry fish and freight between island ports the rest of the year.

Happy workboat sailors become serious yachtsmen for three days. Native sloops carry only racing crews instead of coxswain and crew, fish, coconuts and banana stales, crates of supplies and lumber.

This race was founded by retired American yachtsman Lincolin Wigg. Eight years ago he decided the speedy, sturdy sailboats and the men who sailed them hundreds of miles every year over rough waters and a sun-baked desert an event of their own.

Time shows little signs of spoiling these classic craft. Their lines have been developed through the years. They are still constructed according to no plans but only according to the shape which the eye of the builder recognizes as true and right. Curved ribs are selected from naturally bent timbers and carefully shaped by hand.

Visiting boatmen quickly note the good speed and sea abilities of these unsophisticated craft. Small sloops are never slowed but always sculled with one long oar.

Larger are the Nassau dinghy boats, with single masts and boom.

Oxford Boat Firm Gets Membership in NAEBM

NEW YORK—Four boat builders and four marine equipment manufacturers were among the eight companies elected to membership in the National Association of Engine and Boat Manufacturers at a recent meeting of the board of directors, here, Joseph E. Choate, secretary, announced.

Active membership in the organization, open only to manufacturers of boats or marine equipment, was voted to the following: Appleby Manufacturing Co., Lebanon, Mo., aluminum outboard boats; Ray Industries, Inc., Oxford, Mich., fiberglass (Sea Ray) outboard boats; Royalty Sports Manufacturing Co., Inc., Utica, N. Y., Royalte sailboats, and dinghies, and Sport-Craft, Inc., Perry, Fla., fiberglass outboard and inboard boats.

Place your outboard cruises to obtain the best miles per gallon of fuel, the Mercury outboard company suggests. And prevent trouble and inconvenience by carrying an extra fuel tank, to be used only when necessary.

footed sails that bag down below the boom and sometimes into the water. Biggest—20 to 30 feet and up—are the inter-island workboats. These are usually sloop rigged, although a large Bahamian schooner is sometimes seen in silhouette against the sky.

Rocks may be substituted for fish ballast during the races, but there is no way to plug the holes that have been drilled through the hull of the central cargo hold, a fish well always filled with water, running in and out up to the depth at which the boat normally floats.

The crew for the race may be most of the male population of a small village on Mangrove, Man of War or Deadman's Cay. This living ballast—sometimes 10 to 20 on a 30-foot boat—scramble across to the new windward rail as a sloop comes about.

Occasionally, a small sailor is seen climbing a mast during the middle of a race. Another busily splashes water on a sail to improve its set.

Boats must not strike buoys marking out the course. Both craft must tack if a collision is likely. That's all the rules.

After 70 miles of bumpy Gulf Stream is crossed from Florida to West End, Bimini or Cat Cay, you cruise on through the clear green waters of the Bahamas to Nassau, and down to Exuma Keys to George Town.

Each year more yachtsmen plan their boating vacation so they can join with native sailors in making the Out Island Regatta a high point of southern sailing in the spring.

Summer Slack May Not Come

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Many who were kind to business, and June should be, too. After that comes the problem of the usual summer let-down, specifically, whether it will be severe enough this year to halt the recovery trend.

Vacations mean closed mills and factories in many industries. More troublesome, labor and management in the auto industry will be squared away, trying for a new contract and hoping to avoid a crippling strike. But many now think the recovery trend is building up enough momentum to carry business through with less of a slowdown than usual.

The steel industry, for example, normally shows a sizable drop in output during July and August, with vacations getting much of the blame. But steel demand is continuing to improve. And many steel executives now think these new orders will give them enough to work on so that the summer will see a leveling off instead of the usual letdown.

MORE JOBS

The better-steel demand has been responsible for a run of 11 straight weeks of increasing output prior to the Memorial Day holiday.

This helped give May better employment statistics. Unemployment apparently shrank a bit further, as it did in April.

The construction industry also helped. Spending for new buildings rose in May to $4.8 billion, up 11 per cent from April and 3 per cent better than May 1960.

Public construction did the trick, as private building outlays so far this year have trailed 1960 by 3 per cent. Home building in particular has been disappointing, builders say, in spite of official efforts to make more mortgage money available and at lower interest rates.

OUTDOOR WORK, TOO
Other outdoor jobs have been opening up. Many businessmen are counting on the slowly rising tide of personal incomes to give all recreational outdoor activities a nice boost in spending this summer.

The business recovery is reported to have been more pronounced in several other regions than in the East. This is a trend that economists have spotted in previous recoveries from postwar recessions.

Much of the recovery noted so far has been in manufacturing. And part of that has been in the statistics that include inventories. Last year and early in 1961 made also have helped ease the end to cutbacks and in some cases the return to building up of stocks is making the picture brighter now.

In retailing the statistics have followed closely on the whims of the weather. Where the spring was late in coming, merchants have been complaining.

The service industries have mostly gone along their usual way, varying only with the seasons and registering, in general, year-to-year increases.

Slowly rising wage scales, some due to contracts signed in previous years, have helped to offset the stubborn core of the total of employment, public and private, which has helped ease the impact of unemployment on the economy as a whole.

So a better-than-expected spring may be followed by a less-lagged summer than once thought likely.

Two Face Arrangement in Theft of ADC Check

Accused of stealing a $125 Aid-to-Dependent-Children check from a 19-year-old Pontiac girl in February, two Pontiac men will be arraigned Monday on charges of larceny from a building.

Both George V. Lloyd, 21, of 563 S. Paddock St., and Franklin J. Land, 21, of 110 Racine St., waived preliminary hearing Monday before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

They were released pending their arrangement.

Hospital Ship From U.S. Ends Stay in Indonesia

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—The American hospital ship Hoag sailed for Hong Kong and South Vietnam Wednesday after seven months in Indonesia, treating patients and training Indonesian doctors and nurses.

In a farewell ceremony, Health Minister Sartono presented the ship to the crew as a symbol of friendship between Indonesia and the United States.

Sartono described the Hoag's privately financed mission as "the first of its kind in history." He expressed high appreciation for the services, "spirit and toughness" of the American doctors and nurses.

3,500-Mile Trip Is Made Minus Plates, License

WOONSOCKET, R.I. (AP)—James V. Donathan, 26, of San Francisco, says he drove his car 3,500 miles to Rhode Island via Mexico City without a license or registration plates.

Donathan was arrested Tuesday by a state trooper in North Smithfield, R.I.

In District Court today, Donathan pleaded guilty to charges of operating without a license and operating an unregistered car.

He was fined $20 and court costs of $3.50 on each of the two charges.

Donathan said he made the trip without once being stopped—although his car had no plates.

Under the great Caliph Mamun (833-833), the Arabs began investigations that formed the basis for modern astronomy.

Court Told of Jewish Death March

JERUSALEM, Israel (AP) — The streets were black with them. Adolf Eichmann's final roundup of the Jews of Hungary turned the road from Budapest to the Austrian border into a highway of death, an eyewitness testified today.

Attorney Arle Breslauer said that he worked with the Swedes and the Swiss to save the Jews from the Gestapo chieftain's last big pogrom in November 1944 but was unable to balk the Germans and the Hungarian fascists who collaborated with them enthusiastically.

“The Israeli prosecution, nearing the end of the case against Eichmann as the high priest of the Jewish slaughter, developed the death march story first with documents showing Eichmann in Hitler's list.”

The evidence showed that Hitler ordered the Hungarian regent, Adm. Nicholas Horthy, deposed for defection, seized complete power, installed a new Hungarian regime and sent Eichmann back from Berlin to complete “the final solution of the Jewish problem”—extermination.

SHEDDED LIKE CATTLE

Total mobilization of the remaining Jews in Budapest—about 200,000—ensued, Breslauer said.

He added that Jews in labor service with the “regular German army” got far better treatment than those exposed to the Hungarians.

“You see, I am back again. My arms are long and my arms can reach the Jews of Budapest as well. This time they will be driven out on foot.”

Breslauer said he saw the roundup of the vanguard of 50,000.

“They were very old, they were young, children, pregnant women,” the witness said. “The order had been for people who could work. The Hungarians took everybody. The government of Austria for Austria was determined on the extermination of the Jews.”

The Jews were marched 137 miles over seven or eight days to the Austrian frontier where they were turned over to Dieter Wisliceny, Eichmann's deputy in that area.

“Thousands died,” Breslauer said. “The weak were shot.”

Asked by Eichmann's counsel, Dr. Robert Servatius, who did the shooting, the witness said simply: “The Hungarians.”

Will Cut Back Ionia Transfers

Tight Budget Forces Reduction in Move of Psychotic Prisoners

LANSING (UPI) — The transfer of psychotics from Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson to the Ionia State Hospital for the criminally insane will be cut back from plans because of the tight budget approved for mental health by the 1961 legislature.

“We have already transferred 25 men from the prison and present plans call for the transfer of 25 more but beyond that we just don't know what we can do,” said Mental Health Director Charles Wagg.

Original plans called for the shift of patients from Ionia to other state institutions to make room for 300 prison inmates considered dangerous or untractable at Jackson.

The department sought $80.6 million from the state for the 1961-62 fiscal year. The legislature approved a budget of $75 million.

CAN'T GO FAR

“We're still working on our budget to see what and where we will have to cut,” Wagg said. “But the 50 transfers is all we can finance right now, and it is quite obvious we cannot go as far as we had expected.”

Facilities for mentally retarded children was another area almost sure to be hit by cutbacks, Wagg said.

He said some 330 retarded children presently housed at the Farmington State Home under a lease held by the state would be moved to a new building at Plymouth and the Farmington facility let go.

The new building at Plymouth was originally designated to relieve the waiting list of mentally retarded children, which was at the 1,300 mark.

Owosso-Argus Press Loses Managing Editor

OWOSSO (U.S.) — J. Evans Campbell, 65, who started his newspaper career in 1919 with the Owosso-Argus Press, retired today from the newspaper's post of general manager and managing editor.

He will continue with the paper as president and editor.

A native of Owosso, Campbell took over management of the Southeastern Michigan newspaper when his father, the former publisher, died in 1922.

Campbell's brother, George W. Campbell, becomes executive vice president and general manager.

But JFK Still Hits a 3-Nation Strategy Board

De Gaulle is Expected to Achieve His Goals Without New Body

PARIS (UPI) — High American officials said today President Kennedy has taken steps to give France greater equality with the United States and Britain in global strategy decisions. The new trination concept goes beyond the range of the 15-nation NATO alliance.

The American president, however, was not prepared to grant President Charles de Gaulle's request for a three-power super strategy board consisting of the United States, Britain and France.

U. S. officials said that what De Gaulle probably would get is the substance of his request without the formation of a new organizational setup.

Kennedy and De Gaulle held their first private conversation this morning and it was understood that the problems arising from the emerging new nations of Africa were discussed. France has a vital stake in Africa because of the Algerian crisis.

HAD BEEN ANTICIPATED
Kennedy's advisers had anticipated that De Gaulle would ask for a stronger voice for France in world affairs. They have been working on the problem for several days.

What Kennedy has offered, U. S. officials said, was a pledge to consult closely before taking major action anywhere on matters involving the East-West struggle.

time when the wife of the celebrity received more attention than he did.

A leading French hairdresser gave Mrs. Kennedy what he called a "Gothic madonna" look Wednesday night, clipping more than an inch from her locks and pinning a tambourine-shaped wigpiece and a dazzling diamond on the back of her head.

AND ANOTHER

For tonight's state dinner in the fabulous Hall of Mirrors at the Palace of Versailles, the hairdresser, Alexandre, said he would style the U. S. First Lady's coiffure in keeping with the scene, a style of the period of Louis XIV.

Mrs. Kennedy's jewels have "knocked the props from under one of the most popular 'Jackie' legends in France.

That legend is the one which has her a simple girl with simple tastes and hardly more jewelry to her name than a string of pearls, engagement ring and a modest clip or two.

Such reports were published before the visit began.

The French may have been paradoxically astonished, therefore, when she made her first evening appearance in a dazzle of diamonds — a sparkling bracelet on the arm, long chain earrings, and the diamond rose atop the head.

Deadline Is Nearing for Essay Entries

Midnight Saturday is the deadline for entries in The Pontiac Press' $475 Centennial essay contest.

Pontiac area junior and senior high school pupils, ages 13 through 18, must have their typewritten compositions submitted by then in order to be eligible for either the $100 U.S. Savings Bond for first place, the $75 bond for second place, the $25 bond for third place or the ten $25 bonds for the runners-up.

The Centennial-year subject is "Pontiac... The Challenge of Its Future." Winners will be announced on Youth Day, June 22, during the Greater Pontiac Centennial.

An entry blank appears on Page 2 of today's Pontiac Press.

Trujillo's Assassination Brought Forecasts in Washington of a Power Struggle in the Dominican Republic and a Demand for Intervention by U.S. Marines

Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., said two brigades of marines should be sent to the Caribbean nation to prevent a Communist takeover following the death of Trujillo, Dominican strongman for 30 years.

Smathers, chairman of the Senate subcommittee on Latin American Trade, said the marines were needed "to preserve order, to forestall a Castro-engineered coup in that country, and to guarantee free elections."

READY TO MOVE
The senator said subversive forces under Raul Castro, brother of the Cuban premier, were ready to move into the Dominican Republic and capitalize on the situation there.

Scant information on Tuesday's assassination seeping out of the tightly censored Caribbean land so far suggests the new rulers, for the time being, are carry-overs from the right-wing Trujillo nest.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk put off his trip to Paris for the Kennedy-De Gaulle talks to take charge personally of U.S. strategy at a Dominican moment of change which could have heavy impact on the future.

President Kennedy and Rusk, in telephone contact between Paris and Washington, were said to be agreed that the Dominican situation was of such top priority that Rusk could do more by setting the U.S. course as the situation clears than by speeding off to the summit talks.

Informed sources said both the President and the secretary of state had the recent Cuban invasion fiasco very much in mind and were determined to avoid any mistake on the neighboring Caribbean island. They feel the outcome will affect the whole of U.S.-Latin American affairs.

Power Battle Awaited After Trujillo Slaying

Great Funeral Planned as Successors of Dead Dictator Keep Control

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, D.R. (UPI) — Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo went down fighting with a pistol in his hand when assassins ambushed and machine-gunned his limousine Tuesday night, the government announced today.

SAN JUAN, P.R. (UP) — Strongman Rafael Leonidas Trujillo's political heirs appeared today to be still in control of the Dominican Republic after the assassination of the dictator. But a power struggle was generally expected.

The dictator's hand-picked government proclaimed "the continuity" of his policies and declared nine days of mourning for the generalissimo who ruled the eastern half of the island of Hispaniola with a tyrannical hand for 31 years.

The Dominican radio said today the greatest funeral the nation has ever seen is being prepared for Trujillo.

The broadcast gave no details of the assassination or the identity of the killers. The program was devoted instead to reading telegrams sent the dictator's widow and exiling Trujillo.

Lt. Gen. Rafael Leonidas Trujillo Jr., the Dictator's playboy elder son and, some believe, his father's choice to succeed him, rushed from Paris by special plane.

ANNOUNCES DEATH

A communique announcing the assassination was signed by President Joaquin Balaguer, whom Trujillo installed as a figurehead president last August when the dictator's brother Hector resigned.

The communique extolled the generalissimo, who was 60, and said he had been the victim of a slight, more than 19 hours before the assassination was announced. But it gave no details of the killing and no clue to the identity of the assassins.

North City to Appeal Desegregation Order

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP) — The New Rochelle Board of Education plans to appeal at once from a federal judge's order for an immediate start on measures to desegregate the predominantly Negro Lincoln Elementary School.

The board will go to the United States Court of Appeals in New York City in an effort to upset Judge Irving R. Kaufman's decree.

Merryle Stanley Ruker, the president of the board, said Wednesday night that Kaufman's decree will be appealed.

Ruker said compliance with the order would cause "chaos" in the school system.

Fine Korean Turncoat in Fatal Auto Crash

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Claude Batchelor, former soldier imprisoned as a turncoat after the Korean conflict, was fined $500 in County Court Wednesday on a charge of negligent collision.

Batchelor, formerly of Kermit, Tex., entered a nolo contendere, neither guilty nor innocent — to the charge filed after a traffic accident Nov. 4 in which Simona Barrera of San Antonio died.

A court martial sentenced Batchelor to life imprisonment on a collaboration charge in 1954. The sentence subsequently was reduced to seven years and Batchelor was paroled after serving five.

Teacher to Fight His Suspension

Dropped After Hitting Board at PTA Meeting; 'Spoke as Parent'

DEXTER — A 36-year-old high school civics teacher has vowed to fight his suspension on grounds that it violated his civil rights.

Richard Waring, father of four, was suspended by the school board eight days after he publicly criticized the board at a PTA meeting.

Waring claimed the suspension violated his guarantee of freedom of speech. He said his criticisms of the board were made as a parent of three children in the school system and not as a teacher.

Robert Hodge, Detroit staff representative of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), said his organization is contemplating taking Waring's case to court.

At the PTA meeting, Waring made general criticisms of the school board and specifically charged that it ignored Superintendent Wayne Webb's recommendations for appointment of school principals.

A board spokesman said Waring's criticisms were untrue, unjustified and irresponsible.

"It had the effect of undermining the entire Dexter system," he said.

The board suspended Waring, who taught civics, economics and history, for the remainder of the current term and next term, for which he was already under contract.

X Ray Can Find Bomb in Luggage

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A unique X-ray machine has been developed that can make a bomb in a suitcase as visible as a goldfish in a bowl.

Airliner bombings have killed nearly 200 persons in the past 10 years, including foreign sabotage cases, and millions of dollars have been lost because of crank phone calls that terrorize airports, pilots and passengers.

The Westinghouse X-ray division in Baltimore has looked at the problem this way: A bomb on the overnight suitcase is a real plane in a suitcase. How can you check this bag quickly and thoroughly?

Westinghouse engineer Walter Hampte has demonstrated an X-ray machine he thinks can do the job.

In a laboratory cubicle, Hampte switched on a screen the size of early television sets. On the other side of the screen, separated by inches of protective lead glass, a suitcase moved by remote control just as X-ray tube.

As the X-ray beam passed through the suitcase, everything in the ray's path could be seen clearly on the screen. At first, small springs and bits of metal that formed the bag's clasp.

AN ELECTRIC EYE

New objects came into view as Hampte used the controls to move the bag across the screen. An electric razor — its tiny motor, screws and wiring were crystalized by the fluorescent rays.

Then — an oval outline of a battered alarm clock, with every movement down in the easy motion of the fly wheel plainly visible.

From the back of the clock, a frayed wire was connected to a battery. Another wire from the battery was hooked to a bundle that looked like several sticks of dynamite. A bomb was revealed.

If the Federal Aviation Agency and the nation's airlines think this is the answer to the bomb problem, Westinghouse will refine and improve it. It's only practical drawback is that X-rays will fog photographic film.

"We'll have a larger screen—about 30 by 14 inches," said Hampte. "And we'll have a conveyor belt system to move the baggage along rapidly."

Hampte said an eagle-eyed inspector would be able to check a bag thoroughly in 6 seconds. An average load for a jetliner, 150 bags, could be processed in 15 minutes.

Each machine would cost about $30,000. It is estimated that one bomb hoax costs an airline $10,000.

Airport police cannot now open a suitcase without a warrant or the owner's permission. Even if they had such authority, the time and money spent rummaging through every passenger's bag would make a customs type inspection impossible.

With the X-ray, a trained inspector could pick out a suspicious object in a suitcase and pull it off the conveyor belt for further inspection.

"Passengers would be protected against bombers," Hampte said. "Bomb hunters would be a thing of the past. And our machine isn't theory, we know it works."

For three years after Cuba drove off Spanish rule in 1898, the island was ruled by the U.S. War Department.

King of Status Symbols, the Convertible, Still Tops

By BEN FLEGER

AP Automotive Writer
DETROIT — The young man about town and the big man on campus regarded the convertible as a status symbol long before status symbols were called status symbols.

The glories of top-down driving and parking long have been played up in song and story.

Scientists maintain the automobile has lost much of its status value to other material things such as boats and swimming pools, but the convertible continues slowly and surely to increase in popularity.

More than two million convertibles were bought in the 10 years prior to 1961.

Each year the percentage of total auto production devoted to the soft top models has moved fractionally upward. It was a bare 3 per cent in 1955, was up to 4.7 per cent last year.

Peak volume of 283,388 convertibles was reached in the 1960 model year.

This won't be equalled in 1961 since over-all production is considerably lower. But the percentage may well be matched or surpassed.

RAMBLER ENTRY
American Motors introduced a Rambler American convertible for the 1961 model year, leaving only the compact cars of Ford, General Motors and Chrysler without soft tops.

Also new this year is the industry's only four-door convertible—from Lincoln Continental.

Reports on 1962 models indicate Buick, Oldsmobile, Pontiac and possibly Chevrolet will offer convertibles to their compact cars this coming year.

Ford has talked convertible ever since introducing the Falcon and Comet. But reliable information is that no convertibles should be expected in either of these lines until the 1963 model year.

When U.S. manufacturers turned to smaller cars they shied away from the soft tops for several reasons.

One was they were primarily interested in body styles which would sell in the biggest volume. Another was their doubt the public would be interested since convertibles have been synonymous with luxury and the compacts were to be economy cars.

WATCH EXPERIMENTS
Success of the bucket seat luxury models of the compact cars such as the Corvair Monza has caused some second thoughts as to demand. And the big three have watched closely the experiments of Studebaker-Packard and American Motors in the convertible line.

Studebaker was the first to take the soft top plunge in the compact field with its 1960 Lark. Rambler became No. 2. S-P built 8,571 convertibles last year and is slightly over 1,000 so far this year. Rambler just topped the 2,000 mark.

First in the industry in soft tops is Chevrolet, just as it is first in overall sales. General Motors built about two-thirds of all the convertibles (against about 47 per cent of the total cars) and Chevrolet instead of metal on the top of let accounts for some 40 per cent of the GM output. Ford builds between 20 and 25 per cent with Chrysler and the two independents picking up the rest. One significant trend last year was in price. Almost 33 per cent of all convertibles sold carried factory list prices of $2,700 or less. In 1959 only slightly more than 15 per cent were in this price range.

The American, which uses plastic instead of metal on the top of the doors so that it doesn't burn price ($2,369). The four-door Comet, your arm when you stick it out (thermal at $3,715 is the most expensive), carries the lowest list price.

Come and See Youth Homes

There's always talk about problem children. What becomes of these boys and girls who, for one reason or another, just can't make the grade at home, in school or in a community, when they come under the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court?

For three hours Sunday Oakland County people and other interested citizens will get a first-hand look behind the scenes of three child-care facilities — the Children's Center and cottages at 2050 N. Telegraph Road, and the Youth Home, 7350 Cooley Lake Road, Waterford Township.

William O. Moulton Jr., director of the institutions, said this is the first year that the public has been invited to an open house at all the homes to see how the 260 boys and girls study, work, sleep and eat.

It will be from 1 to 4 p.m. "It is my opinion that citizens of Oakland County can be justifiably proud of the facilities they maintain for children, and I urge everyone to take advantage of the opportunity to see the program in action," said James W. Hunt, Juvenile Court director.

SNEAK PREVIEW

These photographs, taken by Art Miller of The Pontiac Press, give you a sneak preview of what you will see Sunday. They were taken at the center, the cottages and the Youth Home, most recent addition to the facilities.

Tours will be conducted through the buildings by the supervisory staff explaining the use of the facilities and programming.

The center houses about 90 boys and 60 girls and is the receiving unit for the neglected, dependent and delinquent children whose removal from their homes is necessary for their own and the community's well-being, Moulton explained.

The cottages, adjacent to the center, provide a home-like surrounding for 40 of the younger neglected and dependent children—facilities separate from delinquent children.

The Youth Home furnishes boarding and educational care for 70 teen-agers. It is designed to help the teenage youth in a well-balanced rehabilitation training program.

Night Guard Scares Burglar

William Goodwin Hits at Intruder Who Runs From Clubhouse

The agility of a 60-year-old night watchman proved too much for a burglar, reportedly armed, who tried to break into the clubhouse at the Highland Hills Golf and Country Club in Highland Township early this morning.

The watchman, William Goodwin of 3489 Ridge Road in the township, told sheriff's deputies he was alone listening to music on the radio when he noticed a shadow move across a window in the clubhouse.

Goodwin braced for action when a window was smashed in the door. As the watchman grabbed a golf club, he said the burglar stuck a shotgun through the broken window and ordered, "Old man, stay where you are."

Instead, Goodwin said he swung the club to strike at the intruder's wrist. The would-be bandit beat a hasty retreat from the grounds.

Goodwin described him as about 20 years old, approximately 5 foot 9 and of slight build. He was wearing light-colored pants, a suede jacket and a paper bag hood over his face, Goodwin said. The area is well-lit at night.

Deputies found footprints outside the door. They were investigating the incident further today.

Plan Auditions for Local Talent in Country Music

Auditions will be held this Saturday from 11 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. at the Pontiac Metropolitan Club for local talent to appear with stars of The Grand Ole Opry from Nashville, Tenn.

The show will appear at Pontiac Central High School for three performances June 10, sponsored by the Metropolitan Club.

Club member Richard Reske is in charge of arranging auditions for local persons talented in the country and Western music field. Among the headliners slated to appear here are Ferlin Husky and Kitty Wells. Complete information on auditions can be obtained by contacting Reske at the club, 37 W. Yale St., or Bill Martin at WPON.

U.S. Work Force Has Trouble Adjusting to New Kinds of Jobs

By WARD CANNEL.
NEW YORK (NEA) — What kind of job do you have? Well, don't count on it.
According to reliable U.S. management findings, more than 600 new kinds of jobs appear on the American scene each year—many of them replacing old jobs and skills. A few real life examples:
Spanish I went into orbit three years ago. In the space race today, the U.S. Department of Labor estimates, our missile workers number nearly a half million.
RCA, a major brand name, reports that four out of every five of its products have been invented or commercially developed since the end of World War II.
Add items like automation, computers, frozen foods, nuclear power, miniaturization, shuttle-less looms — all kinds of things calling for job specifications and a translation of old skills.
But how are men being fitted into this rapidly changing employment picture?
Poorly, say a growing number of job guidance counselors, management consultants and — curiously — aptitude testers themselves.
Intelligence and aptitude testing take the biggest criticism.
At Columbia University for example, a study covering 12 years and 17,000 aptitude tests reveals that predictions and evaluations of individuals based on test scores were not nearly as good as guesses based on personal observation and interviews.
Several testers report they can raise IQs by teaching subjects how to take tests, or by offering understandable rewards like free movie tickets.
Most testers agree that standard tests don't work well on any but middle-middle class subjects, and even then, not on people who don't like tests.
Nevertheless, critics say, the trend is toward more testing in job placement. It's easier for the placement officer than making a decision.
Next on the criticism list is the job application form. The problem: a concentration on employment history rather than on personal achievement.
If you've never put a satellite into orbit before, the argument goes, how can you weed out those who have never launched a satellite? Aren't you really more interested in other things: what they think of as being satisfying about a job, what kind of pattern their achievements take, etc.?

Hiring by job history alone, according to an employment guide called "How to Make a Habit of Success," leads to mis-use of manpower.
Studies reveal that the output gap between the most productive man and the least productive in a department differs by as much as 300 per cent.
Also in for its share of contempt is today's industry-wide recruitment policies from colleges and universities.
"One of the nation's (and the world's) biggest and best-known companies has just been advised by its high-priced management consultants to abandon its campus recruiting methods of going after the best men."
"Forget about the top 10 per cent in the class," the advice went. "They want challenge and you want to stock-pile them. Instead, pick the number of men you want at random from the rest of the top half of the class. All you're after is competence and mediocrity."

Rooming-House Fire Fatal to 2 Flint Men

FLINT (AP) — Two men died and another man was injured today in a fire that swept a large rooming house near downtown Flint. Sixteen other roomers escaped injury. Most of them were retired people.
Killed were Albert Washer, 64, and Wesley Evans, 73.
Herbert Dunlap, 58, was treated at Hurley Hospital for first- and second-degree burns on the face and hands. Firemen said he had fled the flaming building and gone to an all-night movie. He was taken to a hospital after he returned to the burned-out rooming house.

Airman Killed in Crash

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — Lee E. Martin, 22, an Airman attached to the 46th F-104 Maintenance Squadron, Selfridge Air Force Base, was killed Wednesday when his car skidded into a tree near Mount Clemens.
India and China are the world's largest producers of peanuts. Another major grower is Nigeria, where peanut soup and flour serve as staples.

New West Berlin Equipment Allows Plane-a-Minute Landings

BERLIN (UPI) — Newly installed equipment at the Allied Air Traffic Control Center now allows a plane per minute to land at one of West Berlin's three airfields.
The center's chief controller, Capt. Alan Bundy of Ontario, Calif., described the expansion of the control center as "considerable."
At the high point of the blockade in West Berlin every one-and-a-half minutes.
Bundy told newsmen that today West Berlin airports handle an average of only about 120 planes a day, roughly 50 per cent of which are civilian airplanes.
Bundy said the purpose of the Air Traffic Control Center, was to guide the planes that last 60 to 80 miles to their flight to Berlin within the three 20-mile-wide air corridors granted by Four-Power agreement.
The remaining 60 or more miles over Communist East German territory are controlled by Hanover, over the northern and central route, and by Frankfurt and an intermediate radar station over the southern route.
Almost a dozen men work in the center keeping track of the speed, altitude and location of each plane. Three giant radar screens show the men the planes' positions.
Bundy said "the pressure is so great that sometimes a man has to be relieved for emotional reasons."
The chief controller explained that the operation has its faults in that the southern corridor extends over a Soviet airfield from which jets sometimes take off across the corridor without warning.
"We know nothing of their traffic," he said, "but they know all of ours."
The Russian jets, Bundy said, could be spotted on the radar screens, but not always in time to warn approaching aircraft.
"There have been no collisions, but some close misses," he added.

The airlines which constitute the bulk of the traffic are Pan American, British European Airways, Air France, and the Polish airlines, Aeroflot, which sends about six flights a week to the West.

This Isn't the Way to Treat a Friend

TRINIDAD, Colo. (AP) — A crew-cut youngster walked into Trinidad's Community Hall and promptly was pushed into the kitchen.
An hour later, the Holy Trinity High School Football Mother's benefit dinner was over.
When the boy took off his dish-washing apron, one of the mothers thanked him and asked:
"What position on the team do you play?"
"I don't," the youngster answered. "I just came up here looking for a friend."

Trujillo's Death Solves Nothing for U.S.

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — This country's problem with the Dominican Republic is just beginning. The assassination of Dictator Rafael Leonidas Trujillo did not solve anything.

The 63-year-old Trujillo, after 31 years of tyranny, had outlived his particular time. The middle class had risen against him. Exiles had invaded him. The Catholic Church had denounced him. And all Latin-American nations had broken relations with him.

He survived as long as he did on sheer muscle at a time when social revolutions were sweeping not only Latin America but the world. What outlived him was this:

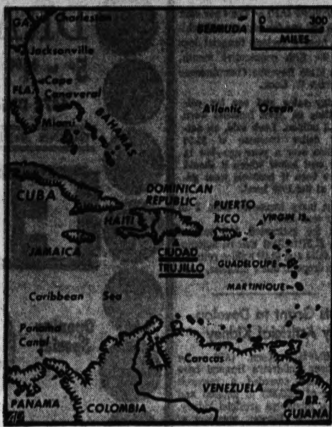

While all around him the masses of Latin America were demanding greater gratification of their desire for a better life, and a better part in it, he kept his so-called republic frozen in the old ways.

Fidel Castro in Cuba is no less a dictator, with the same contempt for democratic processes. But, unlike Trujillo, he looks extremely modern with his promises of a richer life and a sense of belonging for the Cuban masses.

The United States misunderstood this and learned to its dismay, through the disaster of the April invasion, that many Cubans promised better living, support Castro without apparent concern whether he's left or right.

It's an old lesson being relearned: Democracy to people who never really had it means nothing. What they want is to live longer better.

Trujillo had some glimmering of the true nature of this wave

of discontent which is sweeping over the dispossessed of Latin America. Like Castro, he pacified the peasants by parceling out land to them. They were docile.

Yet, the farmers scratched on a bare existence. The slum dwellers were ragged.

He paroled out little else. He lived in the past. In the end his berserk tyranny — mass arrests, persecutions, executions, repression — was too excessive, became smashed. The sweep toward a richer life for Latin Americans is too strong for standstill reaction.

The real struggle eventually in the Dominican Republic will be between communism and this country. Members: The influence this country can bring to bear through economic aid and support for a reform government.

At this point it's impossible to say on which side the odds lie. It depends on how far the American government is willing to go to keep communism out of the hemisphere.

The Kennedy administration insists it will not intervene in another nation's affairs—which must sound to the Communists like nice neutrality — but did just the opposite in backing the Cuban invasion.

The area in and around the Dominican Republic is getting ripe for explosion. Sharing the same island with it is Haiti, where living conditions and ignorance are appalling.

And right across a narrow strip of water, called the Windward Passage, is the Cuba of Castro who back in 1959 took part in an invasion against Trujillo. The Dominican dictator demolished it.

But Castro now is in better position for invasion and subversion

no matter how you look at it. This is going to be rough.

Marriage Was Going to Dogs—Too Many Cats

CHICAGO (AP) — Robert Wilson, 43, and his wife, June, 38, at the suggestion of a judge, are going to try living together for a couple of weeks without Mrs. Wilson's two dozen cats.

Superior Court Judge Harry Herbenstein asked the couple Wednesday to effect a reconciliation now that Mrs. Wilson had the 24 cats removed from their home in suburban Palos Heights.

Wilson had sued for divorce, charging cruelty. He said it cost him $30 a month to feed the cats; he was allergic to cats and his wife beat him three times after they quarreled about the felines.

Mrs. Wilson's attorney told the judge she started raising cats because of a lack of affection from her husband.

The judge, who enjoined her from keeping the cats in their house, said he could understand the procurement of one cat as an affection substitute. "But," he added, "24 is carrying the need for affection too far."

BAK — Two bloodhounds, headed for police work in Italy, drag their feet as they approach the ramp of a jet airliner in Kansas City Wednesday. Stewards Nancy White, Bates Rouge, La., and Fred Crandall, Kingman, Kan., the trainer, urge the dogs to board.

Hardy Baking Will Sell to Michigan Bakeries

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Michigan Bakeries, Inc., with principal offices at Grand Rapids, today announced signing an agreement to purchase the Hardy Baking Co. of Flint.

Final details wait approval of Michigan Bakeries preferred stockholders at a June 15 meeting at Detroit.

Their approval would permit a July 2 start on operations of the Flint firm, according to Michigan Bakeries president Harold C. Overholt.

BUCKET SEATS ARE JUST THE BEGINNING!

THE BUCKET SEATS in Futura—individually contoured and thickly foam-padded—were created by the men who designed the Thunderbird's fabulous interior. No luxury compact ever got off to a better start than this!

A HANDY CONSOLE is another Futura feature. Positioned right at your finger tips between the front seats...for convenient storage of gloves, maps, sunglasses, etc. (Only Futura in its price class offers you this!)

ROOM FOR 3 IN THE BACK SEAT of the Futura (as in every Falcon)...and what room! Futura gives its passengers the luxury of thick wall-to-wall carpeting, the comfort of thick foam padding in the spacious rear seat...surrounds them with rich appointments, glowing colors and gleaming trim.

A VACATION-SIZE TRUNK, TOO, with room for all your luggage. Because of this, you don't have to choose between carrying passengers or luggage in the back seat (as you do in some other luxury compact!)

FALCON SIX ECONOMY is yours, too, in the Futura...the kind of economy that was proved when a Falcon with standard shift got 32.6 mpg under the cross-country test conditions of the 1961 Mobilgas Economy Run. Drivers of all cars in the Run were experts, but Falcon topped them all with the best gas mileage ever recorded by a "6" or "8" in the Run's 26-year history!

P. S. The new Falcon Futura—America's lowest-priced luxury compact—is at your Ford Dealer's now. Shouldn't you be there too?

EVEN THOUGH THE OTHER LUXURY COMPACTS DON'T OFFER NEARLY AS MUCH AS FUTURA THERE MUST BE SOMETHING TO ALL THEIR CLAIMS MUST THERE?

Plan Gourmet Meal With Economy Touch

Continental chefs spend hours creating and experimenting to suit critical palates. Here are some discriminating dishes fit for gourmets within the reach of everyone's pocketbook.

Dinner For Four

Entrée—Kidney-Mushroom Chip Casserole
Vegetables—Broccoli Amanides
Sauté—Green Beans
Dessert—Cheese and Chip Strawberry Hearts
Beverage of choice.

Kidney-Mushroom Chip Casserole

2 large beef kidneys
Salt to cover
4 large mushrooms sliced
4 large ripe olives pitted (sliced)
1 medium onion sliced thin
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons margarine
1 tablespoon butter
1 cup red wine
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
1-7 ounce package potato chips

Butter a casserole. Put half the potato chips in the bottom. Press down well.

Prepare beef kidneys which have been cut in small pieces. Pour boiling water over them. Let stand for 20 minutes. Throw water away. Now cover kidneys with milk and let them soak 1/2 hour. Reserve milk.

Now slice the kidneys, and sauté in margarine. Add flour, mushrooms, sliced olives. Stir until smooth. Add wine and a little milk to make a smooth sauce. Pour onto potato chips in casserole. Cover with remaining chips. Press down well. Cover with onion. Dot with butter. Bake 30 minutes at 350 degrees. Garnish with parsley.

Cheese and Chip Strawberry Hearts

8 ounce package cream cheese
1 cup cottage cheese
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
1 tablespoon cream
1/4 cup potato chips crushed very fine
4 teaspoons strawberry jam

Dinner For Six

Entrée—French Chicken Fricassee
Vegetables—Cauliflower Carrots
Sauté—Coke Steak with Mustard Dressing
French bread
Dessert—Crisp Raspberry Chip Tart
Beverage of choice

French Chicken Fricassee

With Chip Stuffing

1 1/2-pound fowl
2 or 3 new white turnips
2 large onions
3 stalks celery with leaves
1 tablespoon margarine
1/2 cup finely crushed potato chips
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
1 quart water
Carrots

With Chip Stuffing

1 cup finely crushed potato chips
2 strips bacon fried crisp and chopped
2 mushrooms, sliced thin
Chicken liver minced
1 egg beaten with 2 tablespoons water
1 teaspoon grated onion rind
1 small clove garlic crushed

Mix stuffing ingredients well and fill bird. Sew up neatly.

In a large pot over a low flame melt margarine. Roll fowl in melted margarine. Turn breast down in pot. Surround with all vegetables cut up. Pour over all 1 quart water and cover. Simmer gently for 2 1/2 hours.

When done, remove to platter—breast up. Surround with vegetables and keep warm while you thicken sauce with cornstarch, crushed potato chips and parsley. Coat chicken well with sauce.

Serve balance of sauce separately in bowl.

Raspberry Chip Tart

1 large cup crushed potato chips
1/2 pound margarine melted
2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon

Mix well and press into tin. Let stand while you prepare following filling.

1 box frozen raspberries (thawed)
1 cup cottage cheese
1 cup evaporated milk
2 tablespoons cornstarch

Beat cottage cheese with egg and evaporated milk. Spoon it into tarts and put in 350 degree oven for 30 minutes while you prepare sauce.

Separate juice from thawed raspberries. To raspberry juice add cornstarch and cook over low heat, stirring constantly.

Cook until thick and clear.

Remove tarts from oven. Spread raspberries on cheese. Cover with sauce and return to oven for 10 minutes. Turn off heat and let tart cool in oven an hour or more. Chill well before serving.

Ours is Good

Among the 50 states Michigan in 1960 stood sixth in ice cream production with manufacture of about 35.5 million gallons. There is a reason. Michigan's strict dairy laws, particularly as they forbid artificial flavors and require actual fruit and nuts in cases where fruit or nut ice cream are made, assure the ice cream consumer a superior product for his money.

Michigan has slipped in potato production. So has most every other potato state, too, because of slenderizing fads, etc. We were ninth in the U. S. last year with a 7,572,000 hundredweight crop. Much-grown potatoes are sought by the soup trade and for potato chips of which Michigan is the No. 1 producer. Grown on lighter soils Michigan potatoes are preferred table stock.

Notice when you buy the next sack of Michigan potatoes that quality is better than formerly. This is due to cooperation of all branches of the industry to improve the product. It is paying off, too, because more Michigan people are insisting on Michigan potatoes.

CANNED HAM — Serving a canned ham that is completely cooked for a party makes sense. You still have to heat it; follow the directions on the label. Then dress it up with a fruit topping made of bananas, orange juice and pineapple. The result will delight everyone.

Fruit Mix Glazes Canned Ham

A canned ham can easily be turned into something spectacular by the use of glazes or toppings. One in particular which you might enjoy using is called Baked Canned Ham with Fruit Trio Topping.

The Fruit Trio Topping is spread over the top of the ham after the meat has almost completed its reheating period.

The basis for this topping is 1 ripe banana. Mash the banana with a fork . . . then drain one 8-ounce can of crushed pineapple and add the pineapple to the mashed banana. Stir in 2 tablespoons of defrosted orange juice concentrate and 1 tablespoon of flour.

Mix these ingredients thoroughly and spread over the top of the warmed canned ham. Stud the ham with whole cloves and return the meat to the oven for an additional 15 to 20 minutes for the glaze to set. This recipe yields about 1 cup of topping. This same topping can be used on an elegant ham slice, too.

Remember, when serving this glorious canned ham for a buffet setting it is easy to keep the rest of the accompaniments simple.

A vegetable casserole, a molded salad, hot rolls and a make-ahead dessert would adequately complete the menu.

Farmers Mean Money to State

Michigan Week will be celebrated many ways. Cities will stress Michigan's great industrial contribution. Resort areas will remind everyone of Michigan's natural resources and the pleasure and income these bring. Since only ten per cent of Michigan's labor force is employed directly on farms, many may not realize Michigan's agricultural contribution states the Marketing Information Agent, Mrs. Josephine Lawyer. Actually about one-fourth of the total labor force in Michigan is employed in one way or another in agriculturally related industries. About three out of five of all farmers work part time off their farms, and a good share of the farmer's income is spent in Michigan.

Operating expenses of Michigan farms is more than $370 million each year. The production of farm raw materials is basic to many other businesses in the state. Nearly 173,000 firms are highly dependent on farming. These firms employ over 630,000 people, have an investment of $7.5 billion and sales of nearly $10 million each year.

Those who know Michigan food commodities can proudly state that Michigan ranks first in the nation in production of red tart cherries, field beans, cucumbers for pickling and tomatoes for fresh market. Dairy products make the largest contribution of 28 per cent to total farm cash receipts. Cattle and calves, hogs and other livestock total 21.5 per cent of the farm cash receipts, while poultry and eggs contribute 6.5 per cent.

Plenty of Meat Buys to Fit Plans for Outdoor Grill

This week's shopping list will include foods to officially welcome the outdoor season and to celebrate Michigan Week. If you want a Michigan grown food, check fresh asparagus advises the Marketing Information Agent, Mrs. Josephine Lawyer. We expect the peak of supply from the southwestern counties this week.

Whether you intend to spend a little or a lot, there are meats to fit your plans. Check all kinds of poultry including fryers, turkey, steers and roasters. Many beef cuts are in the spotlight again, so you may wish to check ground beef, beef steaks and roasts. All styles and kinds of ham and spare ribs and pork cuts emphasized.

Retailers report that higher quality grain fed beef is lower in price than it has been at this time for the past three years. What does this mean to you? This tells you this is a good time to buy tender steaks for summer use. Prices will rise for the higher quality tender steaks as weather becomes warmer and more people want quick easy-to-grill steaks.

If you plan to cook fryers on the grill, look for birds weighing 2 to 2 1/2 pounds each and split them in half. Cooking on the rotisserie? Then a turkey or roasting chicken may be the best choice. A stewer or large turkey will give the most poultry meat for your money. If your plans include cold salad or sandwiches.

If deviled eggs are a picnic favorite, you will find the large size eggs an economical choice at 50 cents or less per dozen. The yolks will be more neatly centered if you choose Grade A quality.

We know that Americans like ice cream. Consumption has increased from 17 pounds per person in 1959 to 18.4 pounds per person in 1960. You may wish to take advantage of special ice cream offers for easy desserts this week. For added flavor and eye appeal, fresh strawberries are available at about the same to slightly higher prices than a week ago.

For the first time in a long time, the lettuce supply has fallen behind the amount we normally use. You will pay more for the better quality lettuce this week.

Market reports show slightly larger supplies of fresh product than a week ago. There are good supplies of cabbage, onions, potatoes and corn. Slightly lower retail prices are anticipated for Florida corn. Supplies of California long white potatoes are increasing.

Remember? Potatoes exposed

Michigan Beans Good on Hot Day

There comes a time when the weather and your taste calls for a cool meal. When that time comes, give a thought to beans in a salad. Almost any kind of cooked dry beans can be combined with salad vegetables, but one of the happiest combinations is Navy beans with celery and green onions.

Navy Bean Salad

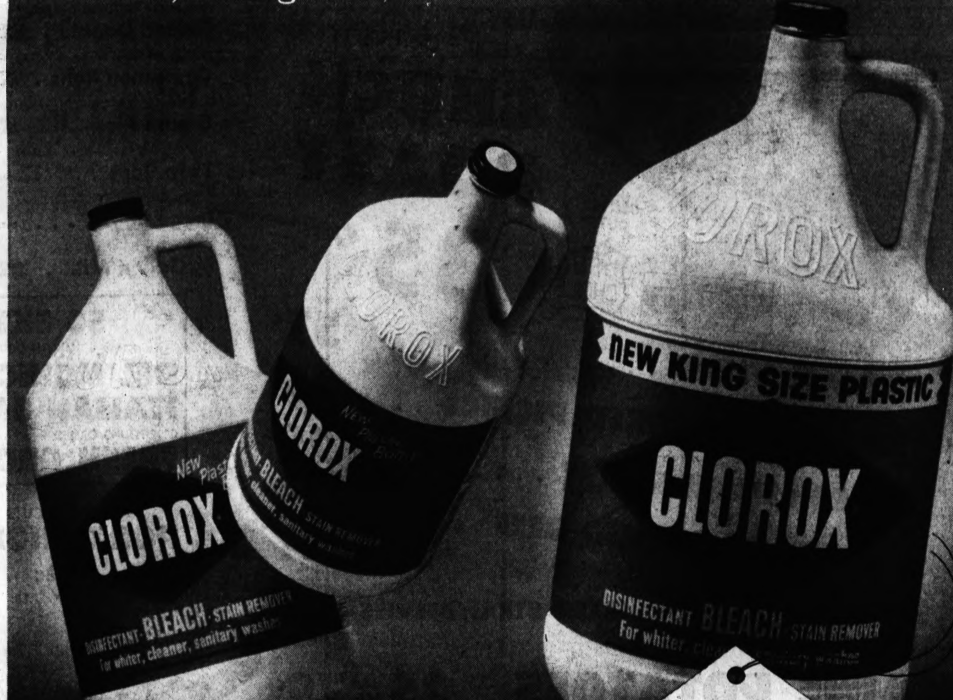

Boil a package of Navy beans for 1 1/2 hours with 1 tablespoon of salt until beans are mushy. Cut up 2 stalks of Pascal celery, 6 green onions, 6 strips of crisply fried bacon. Add salt and pepper, 4 tablespoons of vinegar, 1/2 cup French dressing and 1 tablespoon nippy mustard dressing. Mix thoroughly and serve on leaf of lettuce.

For the chilly days, when the family wants and needs something hot, try SPANISH NAVY BEANS, Navy beans combined with chopped ham and sausage, with green pepper and garlic to lend the "Spanish" effect. Soak and simmer 2 cups Navy beans until tender. Salt to taste. Fry 1 cup chopped smoked ham and 1/2 pound sausage meat; add to beans. Drain off most of fat. Mince a green pepper with 1/2 clove of garlic; fry lightly and add to beans. Bring to a boil and simmer 20 minutes. Serves six.

THE PONTIAC PRESS, THURSDAY, JUNE 1, 1961

Lois Simpson of Oak Park appeared in the centennial fashion showing of bridal wear Wednesday evening in a wedding gown of the early 20s. Miss Simpson's all-satin gown had the distinguished chapel-length skirt of the era.

BY MARJORIE EICHER
Women's Editor, The Pontiac Press

June, the month of brides, was heralded Wednesday evening with a Centennial fashion showing of bridal attire at Pontiac Northern High School.

Sponsored by the Alica Bridal Salon in tribute to Pontiac's Centennial, the show featured authentic gowns dating from the Civil War, the early 1900's, through the roaring 20's to the orbital 60's.

Clad in a black faille gown ornately decorated with black jet beads, Mrs. William McRath was narrator for the first half of the show.

Produced by Harvey Place, the production featured many changes of scene and background music, including tunes from the Broadway production "Camelot" which is exerting strong influence on the American fashion scene.

Among vintage gowns to appear in mock-daguerretype style in an ornate picture frame was a cream-colored silk faille gown modeled by Lynn Anderson.

STYLISH WAIST

of the period. (Lynn's waist measures 19 inches—tiny in our vitamin stuffed young people but above average in the Scarlett O'Hara era.) A circular floor train and bodice trimmed in Battenburg lace completed the gown.

Another eye-catcher was Yvonne Moder's three-piece ensemble of China silk. Lined in green taffeta, the gown was typical of those seen in weddings at the turn of the century. The skirt had a draped front drawn to reveal knife-edge pleating of silk and lace.

The entire underside of the train was of pleated lace. The blouse had three-quarter length sleeves and the cape was of exquisitely fagoted silk with pale green velvet ribbons.

HILARIOUS PARODY

A gown of the early 20's worn by Lois Simpson was chapel length with v-neck and gathered lace trim. Its scalloped semi-torso waist was the forerunner of many lines currently seen in fashion.

Narrating the second half of the show which featured present-day styles modeled by centennial queen contestants was Mrs. Frank Anderson. An intermission act by Margaret Beatty was a hilarious parody, an old-fashioned strip tease.

wedding gown of the Civil War era. The showings were among highlights of the bridal fashion show at Pontiac Northern High School.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law, who is 40 and a divorcee, has written that she is going to send us her 14-year-old, boy-crazy daughter so we can "straighten her out." She says the girl is so wild she can't handle her.

Abby, my husband and I have been married only eight months. I am 19 and he is 20, and I don't think this is fair to us.

My husband feels sorry for his mother, and so do I, but I don't know the first thing about how to straighten out a 14-year-old, boy-crazy girl.

Is there any way we can refuse to take this girl into our home without getting his mother mad at us forever?

NO NAME PLEASE

DEAR NO: Yes! Your husband should write his mother that you are not qualified to

"straighten out" a 14-year-old problem girl. Suggest that she seek professional help from her local guidance clinic.

DEAR ABBY: I have been dating a girl off and on for about a year. She has everything, but she is very much "on guard" at all times. I go to kiss her goodnight and she gives me her cheek.

When we see a movie, I consider myself lucky to just hold her hand. We aren't kids. I am 22 and she is 20. I believe in girls keeping high standards, but can't get to first base with her. Any suggestions?

BATTING ZERO

DEAR BATTING: This girl is smart. She isn't letting you get to "first base" because she doesn't want to have trouble getting home.

DEAR ABBY: I am now in my senior year of high school. My godmother has been ill and financially embarrassed for many years.

I haven't heard from her in 1 don't know how long. My mother says I should not send my godmother an invitation to my graduation because she couldn't possibly attend, and it would look like a request for a gift. I neither expect nor want a gift.

I just want her to know that her godchild is graduating. Would it be all right to send an invitation and explain that a gift is unnecessary?

SENIOR

DEAR SENIOR: Since you haven't heard from your godmother in many years, don't break the long silence with an invitation you know she can't accept. After graduation, write her a letter and tell her you've graduated.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MUSIC LOVER: Promise him anything—but give him an arpeggio.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "GOT IT BAD": There is nothing more hopeless than a single woman who "has it bad" for a married man who never had it so good.

Church Unit Picks Officers

Officers for the Ladies Philopothos Society of St. George Greek Orthodox Church were elected Wednesday evening in the church hall.

Mrs. Demetrios Papanicola is president; Mrs. John Tenjeras, vice president; Mrs. Nicholas Papatheodore, secretary; Mrs. Louis Rontos, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Sam Kentros, treasurer.

Council members are Mrs. George Mitchell, Mrs. Nicholas Astin, Mrs. Abraham Ryerson, Mrs. William Gregory, Mrs. Chris Rensdaperis, Mrs. Ethim Gabriel and Mrs. Philip N. Christi.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Gabriel, Mrs. Constantine Gargel and Mrs. Gregory. A summer picnic is planned.

Country Club Plans Dance

The annual spring formal dinner dance at Forest Lake Country Club Saturday will be preceded by a reception and cocktail party honoring out-going president Fred De Rango of Bloomfield Hills.

Mr. De Rango, who is a charter member, has been an officer and member of the board of directors since the club's organization in 1954. Replacing him as president will be Ralph Hunt, president of Forest Lake last year.

The Henry F. Sokols of Birmingham are party chairmen. Assisting them are the W. Owen Kilnes of Linden Road and the John H. Bennetts of Southfield.

Downbeat Artists Planning Memorial

Jazz musicians who performed at last year's Birmingham Arts Festival will return to the 1961 festival to pay tribute to one of their number who died last winter.

The top-flight artists of Downbeatdom are calling their concert at 8:40 p.m. June 23, "The Lem Winchester Memorial Night."

It will be the first of two evenings of concerts titled "Jazz in Suburbia." They will be staged in the grandiose dome to be erected in Shain Park for nightly dramatic, musical and other Arts Festival week events.

Jazz concert cochairmen Dr. Richard R. Galpin and Robert Maxwell announced plans for the 1961 concert today. Dr. Galpin predicted it would be "an even more memorable and exciting experience than last year's concert."

Winchester was still a patrolman on a Wilmington, Del., police force when he got special leave to appear in the Birmingham Arts Festival last June.

REIGNED OLD JOB

The enthusiastic reception of Winchester's outstanding performance on the vibes (electronic vibraslap) encouraged him to become a full-time professional musician. Soon after his Birmingham appearance, he resigned his post as a patrolman.

He was a young man playing his way to a jazz-world summit, touring with his own combo, when he was killed in a tragic accident early this year.

Dr. Galpin said he expected Winchester's widow to attend the memorial night. He said many of last year's top artists are making a special effort to return and pay tribute to their former associate.

The returnees will include blind pianist Bessie Coleman and her trio, vibes artist Jack Brockenshire, drummer J. C. Heard, Nick Fiore, Dick Reardon, Sandy Mosse and Joe Kennedy.

LINES UP ROSTER

Jazz concert producer Dave Usher is lining up a roster of talent new to the Birmingham scene for the Saturday night performance.

Already contracted for are trumpeters Clark Terry and Joe Newman, tenor sax artists Oliver Nelson and Frank Morelli, guitarist Les Spann and vocalist Joe Carroll.

Jimmy Wilkins will be on hand with his 16-piece band, runner-up in the American Federation of Musicians' nationwide "Best Dance Band Contest" held last year in Cobo Hall.

One of the all-time jazz drummers, J. C. Heard, will preside over the Saturday night concert.

He had once drummed for such top bandleaders as Cab Calloway. He toured the world with Norman Granz's jazz spectacular, "Jazz at the Philharmonic." He recorded with most of the important artists of the 1940s and early '50s—Dizzy Gillespie, Charlie Parker, Red Norvo and Billie Holiday.

Dr. Galpin, a jazz-loving pediatrician who lives at 937 Henley, Birmingham, was a chairman of last year's concert which generated tremendous enthusiasm and an overflow crowd.

Other members of his committee are Mrs. H. J. Chalk, Dave Heard, Mrs. F. M. Sheridan, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hartstuf and Mrs. Anne Taylor.

Dean Coffin is general chairman of activities in the geodesic dome.

Tickets to all events in the dome are available at Grinnell's downtown and in Birmingham, and at the Arts Festival headquarters in the Harlan Building at Shain Park, Birmingham.

Mrs. William A. McNamee of Birmingham (left), president of the Episcopal Churchwomen of Christ Church Cranbrook, joins Mrs. Frank A. Klingensmith of Birmingham, a founder of the group, and Mrs. Charles MacMahon

Jr. of Bloomfield Hills (right), president-elect, to outline the program for Tuesday's annual outdoor luncheon. This year special attention will be devoted to celebrating the organization's founding in 1926.

Annual Church Luncheon Is Set

The annual outdoor luncheon of the Episcopal Churchwomen of Christ Church Cranbrook will be observed at 12:15 p.m. Tuesday on the lawn of the church. A celebration of Holy Communion at 10 a.m. will begin the day.

At the morning business session in the Guild Hall new officers will be installed, and the program theme for the coming year will be announced, along with highlights of the planned Tuesday programs.

Special attention this year will be devoted to the celebration of the founding of the group 35 years ago. Honored members of the original group attending the luncheon will be Mrs. James A. Beresford of Bloomfield Hills, Mrs. Frank L. Klingensmith of Birmingham and Mrs. J. W. Boehr of California.

Mrs. Frank Bromley, Mrs. L. D. Halstead, Mrs. W. T. Barbour, Mrs. Thomas Farmer and Mrs. Edward G. Fowler are other founders who still reside in this area.

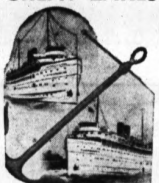

In 1926, 23 women, observing the growth and influence of the church, organized the Christ Church Woman's Auxiliary and agreed thereafter to work as churchwomen in five areas of service: the parish, its community, diocese, nation and world.

In order to be more closely associated with the diocese, members voted at the annual meeting on June 2, 1959 to change the name from the Woman's Auxiliary to the Episcopal Churchwomen, Christ Church Cranbrook. Today the organization has grown to a membership of over 600 women. The group participates in diocesan affairs, supporting projects of the diocese and the general work of the church. Members are committed to a program of study and education.

Headmistress Will Be Feted

Miss Jessie Winter, retiring headmistress at Brookside School, Cranbrook, will be feted by the school's staff at 7 this evening in the Forest Lake Country Club.

Highlighting the evening will be the presentation to Miss Winter of an inscribed silver box made at the Cranbrook Academy of Art by silversmith Richard Thomas, an instructor at the academy.

Miss Winter has been with the school since it was begun.

Mrs. W. T. Huntley led the group in the recitation of the 23rd Psalm which was followed by an interpretation of the Psalm as related by an Iberian shepherd.

Guests at the Sunday affair were Mrs. Huber Lear of Detroit, Mrs. O. J. Young of Lake Orion, Mr. and Mrs. William Christie, Russell Evans, H. W. Diekmann and Leonard McKinley.

Mrs. Worts was assisted by Jessie Stevens, Mrs. Park Smith and Mrs. Fred Elliott.

Teachers Start
Honor Society

An Oakland County chapter recently was initiated by Alpha Delta Kappa, international honorary society for women teachers, at the Fort Shelby Hotel, Detroit.

Alpha Lambda, the new chapter, was sponsored by Mu Chapter of Hazel Park. Officers elected were: Mrs. Bonnie Norrman, president; Mrs. Mildred Downey, vice president; Mrs. Marguerite Phelps, corresponding secretary; Frances Puley, recording secretary; Mrs. Helen Harding, treasurer; Mrs. Bertha Best, historian; Mrs. Catherine Galloway, chaplain; and Mrs. Mildred Williams, sergeant at arms.

Also initiated were Mrs. Alice Zimmerman and Mrs. Frances Gaylore.

Marjorie Long, state pledge chairman, organized the chapter.

Planning Dinner

A family-style chicken and fish dinner is being planned by the women of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

The affair will be from 5 to 7:30 p.m. Friday in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall on Walton Boulevard in Drayton Plains.

Air conditioning is used in machine shops to prevent temperature changes that cause precision parts to expand or contract.

LONDON (AP)—A baby boy, born dead, has been brought back to life by heart massage at London's Westminster Hospital. The baby was born early Monday morning. There were no signs of life.
 Slapping, oxygen and stimulants failed to get it breathing.
 A surgeon made a small incision in its chest. His fingers probed gently under the baby's rib cage and found its tiny heart. The surgeon began massaging.
 Fifteen minutes after its birth, the baby's heart fluttered. The baby began to breathe.
 A hospital spokesman said it may be some weeks yet before it is known whether the operation was a complete success.

FAMILY AFFAIR — Working together to make a success of the Colonial House Restaurant on Milford Road just west of M59 in Highland, the members of the Olezsek family are having fun. They're enjoying country living and learning a trade and the art of "togetherness."

Olezsek Restaurant Is Family Style
 By RERA HEINTZELMAN
 Twenty jubilant baseball-playing Redskins piled out of a school bus onto the lawn of the Colonial House Restaurant in Highland last week and swooped down upon three cases of ice-cold pop. They had just won the regional championship.
 Polish-born, soft-spoken Edward Olezsek was treating his boys before driving them back to Milford High School. The baseball victory resulted in joyous pushing and wrestling—symbolic of winning teams.
 However, that's not the story. The bus driver is.
 Driving a bus for the Huron Valley School System is only a small part of Olezsek's active life.
 He, his wife Betty and their four children own and operate the big 37-room Colonial House on Milford Road, and the family's reputation for Colonial hospitality blended with Polish congeniality has spread throughout Oakland County.
 It all began six years ago when Olezsek purchased the mansion just west of M59—"to get his kids away from cramped city living." At that time, he began driving to and from his grocery store business in Detroit, and it wasn't long before the long time-wasting daily trips began to take their toll in energy.
THEIR KIND OF FOOD
 One night Olezsek called his family together for consultation, and they all decided to turn their home into a colonial-type restaurant—serving the kind of food THEY liked to eat.
 They had no experience in cooking or in the problems of the restaurant business.
 Despite this, the family agreed to take a chance. The downstairs walls were torn out, the kitchen enlarged and conveniently equipped. Then the seven upstairs rooms were remodeled for family living.
 Pine paneling, indoor floor-to-ceiling shutters and Colonial lights were installed, giving the two dining rooms a charming, quiet atmosphere. Early American wallpaper and fluffy white ruffled curtains added warmth to the rooms, and every Olezsek pitched in to do his part in the remodeling.
 Today, when customers pull up to the pillared porch, 16-year-old Paul helps them out of their cars, which he parks on the three-acre site. After that he dashes into the kitchen to fry up golden-brown chicken, fish that does not taste "fishy," or steak cooked just right.
 In the meantime, Mrs. Olezsek and her 11-year-old daughter Lynda set up the tables and serve the guests food prepared

Behan's in Again After Rumpus in Restaurant
 HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Irish playwright Brendan Behan is in an isolation cell at police headquarters, accused of disturbing the peace.

Officers picked up Behan, 38, at McGee's Plaza Restaurant in Hollywood Wednesday after manager Jerry Brentari refused to serve him a beer. Brentari told police he arrested the playwright after he started swearing and acting disorderly in the restaurant.
 Patrolman Charles Brewer said Behan swung at him but missed, while officers were trying to take a photograph at headquarters.
 Said Brewer: "He acted like a character out of one of his plays."
Former Slave Buried
 ANSONVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Matthew McLendon, born a slave 106 years ago, was buried here Wednesday. The Negro had recalled that he was "about big enough to plow" when the Union Army came through Anson County.

Goldwyn Wins $300,000 in Suit
Judge Awards Verdict in Monopoly Fight With Film Distributors
 SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Samuel Goldwyn won a $300,000 verdict in his suit charging that the monopoly power of film distributors forced him to accept their terms for exhibiting rights to seven Goldwyn productions.
 Federal Judge George B. Harris Wednesday awarded Goldwyn $100,000 damages, trebled under the Clayton Anti-Trust Act.
 Goldwyn originally asked $675,000 in his suit against 20th Century-Fox Film Corp., National Theaters, Inc., Fox West Coast Theaters, Inc., and Fox West Coast Agency Corp. The claim later was reduced to $175,000.
STATED IN '57
 The trial started in 1957 before the late Federal Judge Edward P. Murphy. Judge Harris took over the case following Judge Murphy's death.
 Judge Harris said the evidence showed that Goldwyn "had no alternative but that of dealing with the defendants largely on their own terms." He cited testimony that Goldwyn had lost $62,000 on his sale of exhibiting rights to "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty."
 The other Goldwyn films in the case were "The Best Years of Our Lives," "The Bishop's Wife," "Enchantment," "Roseanna McCoy," "My Foolish Heart," and "A Son Is Born."

Professor Succumbs
 PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) — Dr. Robert Eckles Swain, 86, emeritus professor of chemistry at Stanford University, died Wednesday, apparently of a heart attack.
RECEIVED AWARD
 A senior due to graduate next month, David recently received a gold key award for his architectural drawings at a high school exhibition. He plans to enter Wayne State University in September to major in architecture.
 Paul has learned to cook almost anything, according to his mother, and 11-year-old Mark "washes dishes constantly."
 There never seems to be any discord in the hard-working family operation, as everything goes into a "kitty." Whenever anyone needs cash—there it is.
 Lynda makes her own clothes and belongs to Job's Daughters. Paul is on the high school track team, and Mrs. Olezsek is a Sunday school teacher at the Highland Congregational Church. The two older boys have earned four-year perfect church school awards.

If ever a family has found the meaning of the word "togetherness," it is the happy Olezseks, all striving to help each other and at the same time, serving "non-commercialized" food the way THEY like it. Needless to say, the public response has been tremendous.

Ortega Awaits 1st Title Shot Saturday

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Welterweight challenger Gaspar Ortega of Mexico in eight years of boxing has never had a chance at a title but he gets the big shot Saturday night.

He meets world champion
Emile Griffith of New York in a 15-round nationally televised match at the Olympic Auditorium.
And speaking through an interpreter, the 35-year-old Tijuana veteran said with great solemnity:

"It is my big opportunity.
I will give all I have to win the championship for my country.
And I promise my supporters they will not be ashamed if I lose."

Ortega, slender, an immaculate dresser and virtually unmarked after 82 ring encounters, holds several distinctions.

This will make his 30th appearance on national TV, which install him a rival for old John Wayne movies.

No less than 13 of his matches have been decided by split decisions—and he has won only two of the disputed verdicts.

On the domestic side, he surpassed the 25-year-old champion in the number of family dependents. Ortega swears he supports a wife and four children, plus seven brothers, three sisters and his father and mother.

Counting Gaspar, that totals 18.
Griffith maintains only 10—his widowed mother, four brothers, four sisters and himself. But Emile is unmarried and only 22.

All indications point to a red-hot action fight, a duplicate of the 10-round war the pair staged in New York in February, 1960.

Says Gaspar's astute trainer,
Freddie Brown of New York:
"This will be another war. I'll promise that. Ortega will be in there all the way, just as he was before."

The 1960 result was a split decision, and Ortega lost it. Two officials gave it to Griffith by a wide margin and oddly enough, the vote for Gaspar was equally as wide.

"It was a very close fight," Ortega recalled today. "I thought it could have gone either way.
No, at no time did Griffith hurt me."

Griffith knocked out Benny (Kid) Pareit in 13 rounds April 1 in Miami Beach to win the title in Ortega outpointed Pareit in 10 rounds, non-title, last Feb.

Canada Cup Duel Starts;
One-Legged Ace Entered

DORADO BEACH, Puerto Rico (AP)—A one-legged golfer is under the same handicap as the provincial one-armed paperhanger, as Ireland's Norman Drew may demonstrate in the ninth annual Canada Cup matches opening at lush Dorado Beach course today.

Sam Snead, perennial member of the U.S. team, could be the individual favorite after shooting a 6-under-par 66 in his final practice round. The U.S. duo is the defender in the team competition, with Snead this time paired with veteran Jimmy Demaret, filling in for U.S. Open champion Arnold Palmer.

The teams for South Africa, and U.S. and Canada were altered last week by a PGA ruling that kept Palmer, Masters champion Gary Player of South Africa and Canada's Stan Leonard, two-time winner of the individual title, on the sidelines.

As a result, Drew and his Irish partner, Christy O'Connor, rate among the favorites despite the throbbing in Drew's left foot. The sore foot isn't a serious injury but it is annoying and keeps the British Ryder Cupper from making a full pivot on a tee shot.

The Irish are paired with Mexico in today's opening round. That pits them against Roberto de Vi-cenzio, one of Latin America's best pros, and Juan Antonio Estrada, the first amateur ever to play in this linka show. Also well regarded is the Australian pair of Peter Thomson, four-time British Open champ, and Kel Nagle, 1960

British Open king, the best Palmer by a stroke). They won the Canada Cup in 1954 and 1959.

Australia is paired with South Africa (with Harold Henning subbing for Player) with the Wales pair of Dai Rees and Dave Thomson in other key pairings on opening day at the par 36-38-72 layout that wanders 7,115-yards through tropical jungle.

In the tournament, in which 18 holes will be played each day through Sunday, the aggregate strokes of the two players of each team are added and the country with the lowest total wins the cup. Flory Van Donck of Belgium is the defending champion in the individual competition, based on medal scoring for 72 holes, but he doesn't rate himself title threat this time. He says he hasn't played himself into shape as yet.

Danny Thomas
Eyes Baseball

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Is
Danny Thomas, the singer-comedian, a prospective owner of the Chicago White Sox?

Public statements on the question differ.
Thomas announced Wednesday night that he and a group of associates had acquired an option to buy controlling interest in the American League club from Bill Veeck.

But Veeck, in Chicago, said he had no knowledge of any option.
A denial was issued also by A. C.
Allyn Jr., a director-stockholder of the Sox who said flatly, "No option was signed."

"I should know if one had been signed and so should Veeck," Allyn added.

Thomas, advised of these reactions to his announcement, indicated strongly that he wasn't kidding.
"It was supposed to be confidential," he said. "I was told by my associates in Chicago that the option was signed, but I have not seen it."

Memphis Open Begins

MEMPHIS (AP)—Despite the roaring practice rounds, the 000 Memphis Open golf tournament kicked off today with 11 conditions that an 8-under-par 27 for the 72-hole haul will win it.

This hardly seemed possible.
But cash pressure was expected to make par over the 6,423-yard, 3436-70 Colonial Country Club course a little tougher for the 85 pros entered.

Gardner Dickinson, the little bitter from Tequesta, Fla., made it look easy Wednesday with a 7-under-par 31-32-63 that won the $300 low pro pot in the tournament's pro-am.

His round, tying the course competitive record; included eight birdies. There was one bogie, the result of a wedge that overshot the green on the par-4 seventh hole.

Dickinson's low score, combined with that of three amateur partners, also made up a best-ball party of 56, which was good for $180 money in that category. The winning amateur team, led by as he picked up $300 on a tournament aggregate of 55.

ISLAND QUEEN — The pride of Kent Lake in Kensington Park is the Island Queen which gives park patrons cruises around the lake. The boat, now in use six years, accommodates 50 people for each cruise. There is a slight fee for taking the cruise.

GOOD COMPETITION — John McMullen of Flint zooms around the course in the Island speedboat races Tuesday at Bush Lake. None of the local drivers could compete against the strong Quincy, Ill. crew.

SWEEPS THE HONORS — World's champion Jim Schoch of Quincy, Ill., swept most of the honors in the Holly races. He and his fellow drivers from Quincy won every event except one.

Seven County Entries in 1000 Isle Marathon

Seven Oakland County boats are among 13 Michigan entries who will compete in the 7th annual 1000 Islands International Outboard Marathon, June 11th at Alexandria Bay, New York. The Thousand Island Bridge is the starting point for the race. Heading the list of entries is Royal Oak's Gene Hawthorne, dental student with 11 years of experience who has won every marathon in the country at least once.

Another veteran is Bob Moore of Royal Oak who has won the 1000 Islands marathon twice. He is a mechanic.

Gale Cummings of Berkley, an auto mechanic who has placed first or second in every marathon he has entered, will have an entry in the DU class.

Ward Rathbun and Leonard Brown of Pontiac will both be entered in the AU class. This is Rathbun's first entry in the race. He has competed in various local races and some in Canada.

Rathbun finished 5th in the 1000 Islands last year.

Among the other state entries are Bob Jacobson of Flint in the DU class, who has been one or two in this class in the last four years.

At Myers of Berkley, who took first in the 1960 CU class, is entered again, along with John Martensen of Detroit in CU.

Dave Chochrill II of Port Huron, a pharmacy student, is in the AU class, one of the favorite class, and others in the DU class.

Accident Data Listed

Michigan First in Boats

The statistical data concerning boats numbered are official Coast Guard figures. These figures extend to all numbered boats, but the requirements as to numbering is not uniform with all states.

Michigan ranks first in the number of boats numbered, but California is first in accidents, fatalities, injuries and damage.

Here is a list of the top ten states in numbered boats and their accident statistics for 1960.

From the Skipper

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS

Memorial Day should be called "racing day."

The May holiday is traditionally becoming one of the biggest racing days in the country on land and on water.

There were plenty of races in the area over the past Memorial holiday weekend, but it was a bad weekend for many of the sailboats.

The Pontiac Yacht Club had a rough time of it. Sunday's races were hampered because the winds were too strong. Tuesday's races were called off and all the members enjoyed a pot luck dinner because there wasn't enough wind, and finally the Wednesday opening of Nile Owl series was called off because of the rain.

WATKINS LAKE SAILORS RACE

The 38 miles per hour winds on Sunday and the lack of wind on Tuesday didn't keep the Watkins Lake skippers from racing.

Chuck Morris and Karl Krits had their boats capsized as Fred Brede, Ben Weber and Fred Poole took the top three places in that order on Sunday and Tuesday both.

In the thistle race, Norm Ledwin and Harm Gillen finished 1-2 on Memorial Day.

Several of the WLVC are planning to compete in the Michigan Warmup series snipe invitational races to be held at Wolf Lake near Jackson, June 17-18.

TWO MAN SHOW AT HOLLY

The big powerboat races over the holiday took place at Holly's Bush Lake where the Quincy, Illinois drivers put on quite a show of racing.

Jim Schoch and Fred Gaebl, two ace Quincy drivers, finished either first or second in every event except the Class C runabouts. They won the A, B, C, D and F hydro races and the A, B runabouts with their five boats and 10 engines.

Another pair from St. Louis, John Dortch and John Woods were the closest competitors.

Local entries were all eliminated either by mechanical troubles or they finished way down the list. Walt Schrieber of Lake Orion took 6th place in the B runabout for the best local finisher.

NOTES TO THE SKIPPER

Ken Peterson, commodore out at the Oakland County Boat Club on Sylvan Lake, has to take a bath Sunday. It will be the day for the annual launching breakfast and the morning for the commodore to be tossed into the drink.

Richard and Glenda Dorris, members of the Edgewater Beach Ski Club and second place finishers in the state tournament mixed double event last year, are the proud parents of a daughter, their first.

Tony Mitchell, Pontiac's 1958 state water ski jumping champion, will take the fatal step down the aisle soon.

The Thomas Die and Stamping Co., on East Walton Blvd. are the manufacturers of the automatic Ski Eye, a new tow bar which signals a light warning on the panel the instant a skier lets go.

52nd Boat Show Set for Jan. 13-21, 1962

NEW YORK — The 52nd National Motor Boat Show will be held here January 13 to 21, it was announced today by Joseph E. Choate, show manager and secretary of the National Association of Engine and Boat Manufacturers that sponsors the annual exposition.

The show will be held in the New York Coliseum, and will cover more than 150,000 square feet of exhibit area on five floors of the building.

The recent National Motor Boat Show contained 64 boats, inboard and outboard engines, and marine accessories of all types, with a total estimated worth of 2.5 million.

A surprising number of outboarders who trail their boats tend to neglect one of the most important parts of their rigs — the automobile.

Trailers, particularly when heavily loaded, make additional demands suggest a number of points to have your service man check when he gives your car its spring tune-up.

While your brakes might be adequate to stop an unloaded car, and their linings good enough to withstand a summer of trailering? Additionally, the parking brake should be 100 per cent effective, for a heavy trailer on a steep launching ramp exerts a strong pull.

Your car engine may tend to heat up under load, and if your cooling system is not in tip-top shape, you may find yourself pulling to the roadside with a boiling radiator on the way home some summer evening. Have your cooling system properly cleaned and if rust or lime is present, have it pressure-flushed.

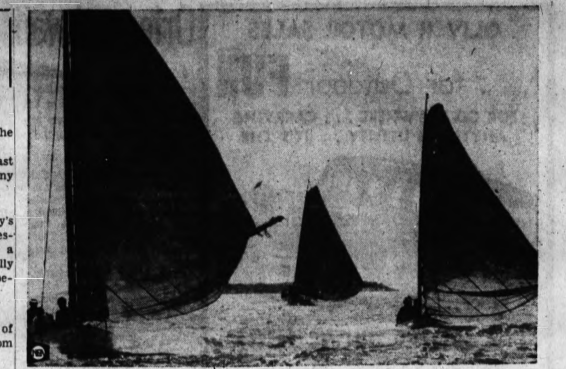

Remember Auto in Trailering During Summer

Oxford Boat Firm Gets Membership in NAEBM

NEW YORK—Four boat builders and four marine equipment manufacturers were among the eight companies elected to membership in the National Association of Engine and Boat Manufacturers at a recent meeting of the board of directors, here, Joseph E. Choate, secretary, announced.

Active membership in the organization, open only to manufacturers of boats or marine engines, was voted to the following: Appleby Manufacturing Co., Lebanon, Mo., aluminum outboard boats; Ray Industries, Inc., Oxford, Mich., fiberglass (Sea Ray) outboard boats; Royal Sports Manufacturing Co., Inc., Utica, N. Y., Royal-ite sailboats and dinghies, and Sport-Craft, Inc., Perry, Fla., marine plywood outboard and inboard boats.

Pace your outboard cruises to obtain the best miles per gallons of fuel, the Mercury outboard company suggests. And prevent trouble and inconvenience by carrying an extra fuel tank, to be used only when necessary.

Few Rules, Much Skill in Native Sail Race

Boats that bag down below the boom and sometimes into the water. Biggest—20 to 30 feet and up—are the inter-island workboats. These too, are usually sloop rigged, although a large Bahamian schooner is sometimes seen in silhouette easing by.

Rocks may be substituted for fish ballast during the races, but there is no way to plug the holes that have been drilled through the hull of the central cargo hold, a fish will always filled with water running in and out up to the depth at which the boat normally floats.

The crew for the race may be most of the male population of a small village on Mangrove, Man of War or Deadman's Cay. This living ballast—sometimes 10 to 20 on a 30-foot boat—scrambles across to the new windward rail as a sloop comes about.

Occasionally a small sailor is seen climbing a mast during the middle of a race. Another busily splashes water on a sail to improve its set.

Boats must not strike boys marking out the course. Both craft must tack if a collision is likely. That's all the rules.

After 70 miles of bumpy Gulf Stream is crossed from Florida to West End, Bimini or Cat Cay, you cruise on through the clear green waters of the Bahamas to Nassau, and down to Exuma Keys.

Grain Future Prices Move Only Fractions

CHICAGO (U-P) — A thin trade merely nudged the grain futures market in early dealings today and prices generally moved only small fractions away from previous closes.

The July and September soybean contracts were under moderate pressure, however, and passed about a cent during the first several minutes on selling—described as mainly profit-taking.

Brokers said the advance of about five cents in the July delivery in Wednesday's late trade attracted the selling, but the rise meant a fairly good acceptance.

Police Question Pontiac Man in Tuesday Stabbing

Pontiac police were questioning a 26-year-old man about a knifing Tuesday night in which 44-year-old Henry Garth, 688 Franklin Road, was seriously wounded.

Garth was in poor condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. He was slightly improved from yesterday, doctors said.

Held by police for investigation of felonious assault in Willie J. Harris, 178 Franklin Road.

Harris admitted the stabbing at Garth's home, but said he acted in self defense while trying to leave after a quarrel, according to police.

Small Losses Rule exchange

NEW YORK (U-P) — The stock market drifted off in moderately active trading early today.

Fractional losses were recorded among most pivotal issues. A minority of stocks posted unimportant gains.

The market continued Wednesday's trend, lacking any pronounced sense of direction.

The assassination of Dominican dictator Rafael Trujillo was another distracting element.

Most of the aircraft—missile stocks were steady. Steels were unchanged to slightly lower.

Copper shares firmed following their retreat of Wednesday on news of a cut in copper scrap prices. Anaconda was unchanged at 82 1/2 and Kennecott rose 1/2 to 83 1/2.

Eastman Kodak fell 1/4 to 107 1/2. American Telephone was off 1/2 at 121 1/2. De Post erased an opening gain of 1/4 and traded unchanged at 200 1/2.

Fractional losses included Air Reduction, Union Carbide, Liggett & Myers, Raytheon and Caterpillar. Up fractionally were General Dynamics, Allied Chemical, Chesapeake & Ohio and International Telephone.

American Stock Exchange prices were irregular. Massey Iron Mines was down 1/2 to 10 1/2.
