'No Thanks' to $10,000

House Defeats Own Salary Hike

Surprise Move Attributed to Election Jitters

1.7 Million Employes of Government Also Lose Salary Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a sudden seizure of election year jitters, the House has said "no thanks" to a $10,000-a-year pay raise.

Its surprising decision yesterday that at $22,500 Congress members are paid enough killed a bill that would have boosted the salaries of 1.7 million government workers. The average mailman and government secretary stood to gain $450 annually.

Theoretically, the Senate can revive the pay boost drive later this session, and to make it more palatable, at more modest proportions. But veteran observers consider this unlikely.

The higher salary structure had the strong support of the House Democratic leadership and the Johnson Administration.

★ ★ ★

It was scaled to boost those in the top levels 22.5 per cent and those on the lower rungs 3 per cent on the theory that the government can retain top people

Final Witness Leaves Stand in Ruby Trial

Jury Ready for Case in 22nd Day; Verdict Will Be Televised

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—The last witness testified today in Jack Ruby's murder trial, clearing the way for closing legal procedures after which the historic case will go to the jury.

Testimony ended at 9:57 a.m. Judge Joe B. Brown then retired to his chambers, presumably to prepare his charge to the jury.

The judge announced today reading of the verdict in the Jack Ruby murder trial would be telecast live on a nationwide basis.

Judge Brown said CBS would handle the telecast on a "pool basis"—meaning that the telecast will be available to other networks as well.

This afternoon, opposing lawyers were to make their final summations of the 22-day-old case. When the arguments and charge have been finished, the jury begins deliberating Ruby's fate.

See Story, Page C-6

CRITICAL QUESTION

The critical question before the eight men and four women on the jury is: Was Ruby legally sane when he killed Lee Harvey Oswald Nov. 24?

Or was he blacked out by what the defense says was an attack of psychomotor epilepsy, so that he did not know right from wrong when he shot down the man suspected of assassinating President John F. Kennedy?

The last witness—No. 66 in the long trial—was Dr. Frederic Gibbs of Chicago, a leading authority on psychomotor epilepsy.

★ ★ ★

He was asked by Asst. Dist. Atty. William Alexander whether, on the basis of his reading of electroencephalograms taken in tests of Ruby, he has any ohinion as to whether Ruby knew the difference between right and wrong when he killed Oswald.

"I have no opinion," Gibbs replied.

In Alabama

U.S. Sues to Integrate Schools

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government asked a federal court today to require Alabama to take positive steps to eliminate its racially segregated school system.

In a brief filed in a suit pending in Federal District Court in Montgomery, Ala., the Justice Department in effect called for statewide desegregation of public schools. It was the first time the department had taken so broad a stand in a court action.

The brief stated the government's views in reply to six specific questions asked by the court. The pending suit is against the Macon County School Board, urging that it be prohibited from blocking integregation of the county's three high schools.

The department contended that state officials led by Gov. George C. Wallace repeatedly had demonstrated their power over local school boards in enforcing segregation.

By the same token, the department said, the court should order Wallace and the state board of education "to take affirmative steps to eliminate the dual school system, based on race, which now exists in Alabama.

Such an order, the government said "should be based not only upon the assumption and usurpation of authority by these officials but also upon the legal authority that they presently possess under Alabama law."

The government also asked the court to declare unconstitutional state financial aid for students attending racially segregated schools throughout Alabama.

Tattoos Ruled Taboo for British Soldieress

LONDON (AP)—In British Army parlance, a tattoo is a military exhibition.

More commonly, a tattoo is a skin adornment, and of these Pvt. Rusty Field, 20, of the Women's Royal Army Corps, has no fewer than 62.

Red-haired Rusty's tattoos march in close order from her shoulders to her dimpled knees.

She received a firm warning from her commanding officer today that her tattoos are taboo as tattoos—as well as at all other occasions when she is in uniform.

★ ★ ★

Rusty said when she was a 17-year-old recruit, one of the other girls dared her to have a butterfly inked into her chest.

"I liked the first tattoo and went on to have more and more of them," she said.

Rusty's pelt from the waist up is a tangle of snakes, panthers, demons, butterflies and flowers. Below the waist is a herd of varicolored lizards and winged gargoyles and a flying dragon in vivid green.

"I realize," said Rusty, "that if I ever marry, it will have to be a man who likes tattoos."

★ ★ ★

Lt. Marilyn Masson, Rusty's C. O., said the tattoo-happy WRAC has been warned that when in uniform she positively must not disclose a single skin picture.

"Pvt. Field," commented Lt. Masson, "is a very nice and intelligent girl, but she is something of a character."

Jets Battling Arrow-Firing Peru Indians

LIMA, Peru (UPI) — Thousands of fierce Coquima tribe Indians using poison-tipped arrows have trapped a 20-man government patrol in the jungle wilds of Peru's frontier with Brazil, the government disclosed belatedly today.

Officials said U. S.-made B26 bombers and Sabrejet fighters were flying over the Andes to bomb and strafe the Indian positions to relieve the beleaguered patrol.

It said reinforcements were en route to the siege scene by land and river.

★ ★ ★

Delayed press dispatches from the area estimated the dead in both forces since the patrol was cut off March 11 at between 11 and 33 persons.

PATROL DEATHS

At least one patrol member was killed and two others wounded.

The siege force was estimated to total some 8,000 men, most of them primitive arrow-firing tribesmen.

'Schools' Racial Policy Best Available'

By L. GARY THORNE

Racial integration in Pontiac schools represents "the best available practice," the school board said last night in an unexpected public statement.

★ ★ ★

School Board President William H. Anderson read a two-page statement that detailed school board policies on pupil placement, employment and assignment of teachers and educational programs.

"For many years, all pupils, regardless of race, have attended the schools serving the area in which they live," he said.

"Interest in the complex problem of public school racial integration across the nation has caused local citizens to raise inquiries concerned with the situation in Pontiac . . . ," he added.

★ ★ ★

Anderson said that the statement was prompted by charges last fall of "de facto segregation" in some local schools.

(De facto segregation is segregated practices that result from circumstances not caused by any official policies or plan, such as housing.)

WORK ON STATEMENT

He said work on the statement had begun prior to announcement of a "freedom demonstration" on March 24 protesting alleged school segregation.

A march from the board of education offices at 40 Patterson to the steps of city hall is being planned by the county chapter of the NAACP.

The school board president said news of the march came while the statement was being prepared, but that charges of "de facto segregation" and recent meetings with a group of clergy and private citizens were behind the policy statement.

He said members of the citizens group, who did not represent the views of any one organization, advanced the general idea that local schools were maintained on a "separate, but equal" basis.

He said such charges that predominantly Negro schools were being shorted on supplies and programs were advanced by this group.

"The purpose of the meetings was to iron out or dispel the notion we weren't being quite fair with Negro pupils," Anderson explained.

The number of schools enrolling both white and Negro pupils has increased as residential patterns have changed and this will continue, according to the board president.

Anderson said the school board had received suggestions that special measures be taken to achieve a more even distri-

Turks, Greece Threatening

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Archbishop Makarios, president of Cyprus, declared tonight Turkish intervention on Cyprus would mean war.

The bearded president of the strife-torn island emerged from a five-hour conference with leaders of the Greek government and made his statement before a news conference.

His declaration came after the Turkish government had handed Cyprus an ultimatum, with a copy to Greece, that Turkey would intervene on Cyprus unless fighting stops immediately.

Greece promptly told Turkey that any Turkish intervention on the Eastern Mediterranean island will bring "an immediate Greek reaction."

Thus the two allies in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization moved closer to showdown in a communal conflict that has placed severe strains on Western unity.

★ ★ ★

Intermittently since Greek and Turkish Cypriots began shooting at each other last Christmas the Turkish Navy has maneuvered off Cyprus.

Now there were reports soldiers and marines had been taken aboard.

About 20,000 students demonstrated in Ankara, the Turkish capital, marching past the Greek Embassy and shouting "army go to Cyprus."

At Morphou in northwest Cyprus 21,000 high school students staged an anti-U.S.-British demonstration, burning an effigy of President Johnson wearing a Turkish fez.

★ ★ ★

The Greek Cypriots accuse the British and Americans of showing partiality to Turkish Cypriots, who are the minority people on this island.

BRITAIN URGINGS

In London, the British government disclosed it had urged Turkey to act with great restraint.

In Nicosia, Greek Cypriot Cabinet ministers met in extraordinary session with acting President Glafcos Clerides to consider the Turkish note and frame a reply.

The Cyprus government radio said the cabinet is expected to reject the note as unacceptable and may ask an urgent meeting of the U.N. Security Council.

★ ★ ★

The Cypriot radio added that Foreign Minister Spyros Kyprianou, in Athens with President Makarios for yesterday's funeral of King Paul, may fly to New York to see U.N. Secretary-General U Thant.

NOTE DELIVERED

Turkey's note, carrying the implied warning of a Turkish invasion of Cyprus, was delivered to the Greek Cypriot government in Nicosia by the Turkish Embassy.

It had been handed last night to the U.S. British and Greek ambassadors in Ankara.

Meeting of Study Unit Set in Bloomfield Twp.

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—The Citizens Committee for Local Government, now 18 members strong, will hold its initial meeting Tuesday night.

Objective of the group is to study the potential of the rapidly growing township and to evaluate various forms of government which might be appropriate for it.

Formation of the committee began in January when the Township Board approved the appointment of 15 members picked by Supervisor Homer Case. Three others have since been added.

Chairman and vice chairman are to be announced at the organizational meeting Tuesday. Appointees will convene at 8 p.m. at the township hall.

★ ★ ★

No timetable has yet been set for the group's study, which will include surveys of present services and those anticipated for future development.

FORMS OF GOVERNMENT

The group will compare forms of government to determine the best basis for efficient operation of the unit, which has seen its population jump to an estimated 27,500.

Among the citizens committee members are Murray D. Van Wagoner, Tony Guyer, Milo Cross, Richard H. McGraw, Charles Wiggins, John King, Ed M. Hill, Chad Ritchie and Edward N. Cole.

Others are George Cousins, Joseph Hainline, Robert Hackett, Mrs. Robert Sinclair, Mrs. John Rumsey, Mrs. Robert Sheldon, Mrs. Robert Knight, John Denman and Robert Flint.

Hatch, 3405 Bradway, heads one of seven regions in the service area of the proposed Detroit facility.

He now is enlisting eastern Oakland County residents to serve as community leaders in the drive scheduled to begin late in April.

A color film of the Canadian Rockies will be featured tonight and tomorrow night in the travel film series at the Birmingham Community House.

2 Were Nominees for Commission

4 Miss Primary Expense File Deadline

Four candidates in the March 2 city primary—two of whom won nomination—had not filed campaign expense statements as of the deadline yesterday, according to city and county officials.

★ ★ ★

In addition, two who did file spent more than the maximum amount allowed for campaign expenses in the state election laws.

Expense statements from George Grba, Jack F. Prasil, Floyd P. Miles and Curtis L. Webb have not yet been received by City Clerk Olga Barkeley or County Election Clerk Mabel Child.

Webb, however, called Mrs. Child early today to inform her that his statement was in the mail, she said.

★ ★ ★

Webb, 30, of 294 Judson was nominated along with Mayor Robert A. Landry, the incumbent, to represent District 7 in the April 20 general election.

NOMINATED

Miles, 55, of 160 W. Columbia, was nominated along with Leslie H. Hudson in District 4.

Grba was an unsuccessful candidate for the nomination in District 4 and Prasil in District 6.

All other 24 candidates filed expense statements before the deadline. State law requires the statements to be submitted to the election clerk with 10 days after a primary.

Candidates who filed statements showing expenses in excess of the legal limit were the District 1 incumbent, Samuel J. Whiters and Wesley J. Wood, who won nomination in District 6.

Whiters, who was unsuccessful in his bid for nomination, filed a statement showing expenses of $454.26, or $129.26 over the limit set by state law, according to Mrs. Child.

Two statements were filed on behalf of Wood. They totaled $368.20 — about $43.20 over the legal limit.

"I don't think anything will be done about these," Mrs. Child noted. "The difference is not exhorbitant and normally, the law is enforced only where there is a great excess over the legal limit."

★ ★ ★

Expense limits are figured two ways in the statute.

ALLOWED TO SPEND

Candidates are allowed to spend $40 for every 1,000 votes cast for governor in their district in the last presidential election, or one-fourth of the annual salary for the elective post being sought.

There were 3,667 votes cast in District 1 for governor in the 1960 election. This formula would set the expense limit at $146.68 for a District 1 candidate.

A quarter of the annual salary for a city commissioner is $325. Since this is the higher figure, the campaign expense limit in District 1 would be $325. Mrs. Child explained.

In Wood's case, the same would hold true, since his limit under the $40 per 1,000 votes formula would be only $135.40.

The law now requires county officials to notify candidates who haven't filed statements that they must do so.

Anyone who doesn't comply within 10 days after receiving the notice, will be subject to prosecution. Maximum penalties are up to a $1,000 fine or two years in prison, or both.

3 in Bloomfield Eying Write-In Opposed to Recent Ordinance Approval

The possibility of a write-in campaign for the April 6 election is being discussed in Bloomfield Hills.

★ ★ ★

The move is one of several being considered by three men opposed to recent City Commission approval of a new zoning ordinance which includes provision for three-story multiple residences.

Legal and political actions which could be taken were discussed by the group last night at its second meeting.

Studying the situation are E. R. Davies, 1670 Hammond; J. P. Moses, 490 E. Long Lake; and Harold L. Weckler, 1780 Hammond.

★ ★ ★

Moses said today the group had ruled out the idea of attempting to initiate a recall.

SEEK REELECTION

Commissioners John Blanchard and James A. Beresford, two of the four who voted in favor of the new ordinance, are seeking reelection.

The term of the sole dissenter, Henry L. Woolfenden, also is expiring.

He announced his decision not to run earlier this month, commenting that it appeared all issues would be settled with adoption of the ordinance.

★ ★ ★

Those who filed nominating petitions in the commission race are Robert A. Fry, 1255 Trowbridge, and Edward A. Schirmer 456 Lone Pine Court.

Conviction could result in 20 years imprisonment and $10,000 fine.

U.S. House Defeats Salary Increase Bill only by making their pay competitive with private industry.

ELECTION FAVOR

However, this is an election year, and while the voter may favor a $450 raise for his postman he may look askance at a $10,000 boost for his congressman.

Besides, the administration has filled the air with talk of economy.

Still, Democratic and Republican leaders were certain that if the House members did not have to go on record the $545 million bill would be passed.

★ ★ ★

And, as the day wore on, provisions calling for increases for different groups of government workers were approved on lopsided nonrecord votes.

ROLL CALL VOTE

But when the critical vote on over-all passage was imminent, a long-time economy champion, Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, demanded a roll call.

This would force every House member to go on record on a pay boost for himself and would tell the voter how his congressman voted.

'McNamara, Khanh OK'd N. Viet War'

SAIGON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and Vietnamese strongman Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh are believed to have agreed in principle on a plan to conduct guerrilla and sabotage activities in Communist North Viet Nam, qualified sources said today.

★ ★ ★

Informants said the American defense chief discussed in detail with Khanh several contingency plans for extending the war into the north and finally agreed in principle on the possibility of carrying out clandestine sabotage and guerrilla action there.

McNamara left Saigon yesterday after a five-day inspection of the progress of South Viet Nam's U.S.-supported war against Communist rebels from North Viet Nam.

Sources said today McNamara and Khanh agreed that there would be some American involvement in the North Viet Nam campaign, but they were unable to say how much or in what capacity.

★ ★ ★

The agreement, according to informants, is believed to be subject to review by President Johnson.

INCLUDE REVIVAL

It was reported that anti-Communist activities in the north would at least include a revival of previous sabotage and guerrilla operations, subject to Johnson's approval.

★ ★ ★

These have been attempted in the past by South Vietnamese special forces teams parachuted into Communist territory or trained as frogmen and smuggled in along the coast.

Site to Reopen as Parking Lot

The old courthouse site in downtown Pontiac is scheduled to reopen as a parking lot April 1.

County auditors said they expect to know by then how much to charge customers.

They agreed that the county should anticipate a "reasonable profit" from the lot.

The auditors currently are studying operational costs, including the hiring of an attendant, in order to determine how much to charge.

The property is up for sale, and has been ever since the courts were moved to the County Service Center in 1961 and the old courthouse subsequently razed.

The county had the site appraised at $400,000 two years ago.

'Racial Policy Best Available'

bution of Negro and white pupils at individual schools.

NO WAY

He saw no way for this to be accomplished.

"The board finds no obligation or authorization in the law or in court decisions which would support this proposal," he said.

Anderson said he welcomed studies on the problem of pupil placement practices in line with "the best educational interests of all children," but said present policies represent "the best available practice."

TEACHER PLACEMENT

On the employment and assignment of teachers, the board statement said:

"The teaching staff in five schools is predominately Negro because Negro teachers were placed in (such) schools . . . in the years following 1948."

Since 1955, however, new Negro teachers have been placed throughout the system.

"The Board of Education believes it to be desirable to continue to strive for an equitable distribution of Negro and white teachers in all schools," Anderson said. "This is not easily achieved."

EXCHANGE PLAN

Prior to the 6-0 vote which approved the public statement, board members instructed school administrators to work out details of a voluntary exchange plan between Negro and white teachers.

Victor P. Sutt, a board member, said he had heard some teachers were discussing such a plan. He emphasized it would be a voluntary program.

The school board statement left the door open to any future studies that might help solve the issue of classroom integration.

"The Board of Education will examine and study all proposals brought forth in the interest of school improvement, and will, where deemed necessary, appoint advisory committees of citizens with whom to consult in their study of current issues. . ."

★ ★ ★

Among the various plans suggested has been permissive busing, used in Detroit and New York City.

EVEN OUT BALANCE

Under this plan, pupils would be transported to schools outside their districts to even out the distribution of Negro and white enrollments between the schools.

Board members said that a more representative citizens committee should be appointed that "has some appreciation for the historical background of these problems."

"I get tired of being compared to Detroit," Anderson said. "There is all the difference in the world between Detroit and Pontiac."

★ ★ ★

Monroe M. Osmun, veteran board member, said:

★ ★ ★

"This board resents being pressured. It is very important that a committee be appointed of citizens that have seen this school system grow and can give us good guidance."

"Some of these people haven't been around this community very long, but still they wanted us to jump through certain hoops," commented Glenn H. Griffin, another board member.

Rev. Jack H. C. Clark, a member of the racially mixed citizens group, said that they hoped for a "conference type experience" without publicity.

Other members of the group included Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Billings, 236 Gage; Dr. Rigoberto M. Rocky, Barry in California

Politicos Pan for Votes in Golden State

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater joins Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller today in prospecting for political gold in California. Both have staked out the same claim — the city of Fresno.

The two rivals for the Republican presidential nomination, trying to round up support for California's June 2 primary which Goldwater calls "the big one," have speeches and public appearances lined up in the central California city.

With New Hampshire behind them, the New York governor and the Arizona senator also have the job of selling themselves to the state's party leaders.

Each has private ocnferences scheduled today with the chairmen of the various county GOP central committees.

★ ★ ★

Tomorrow, Rockefeller and Goldwater will address the California Republican Assembly Convention, a volunteer organization.

THIRD SPEAKER

Another speaker there will be Harold Stassen, former Minnesota governor who has also entered the GOP presidential race.

There were rumbles of irritation in the Rockefeller camp that Texas Republican leaders were trying to set up a Goldwater victory — at the governor's expense — in the Lone Star State's May 2 presidential preference contest.

Rockefeller asked yesterday that his name be kept off the ballot, saying his schedule would not give him time to campaign there.

★ ★ ★

But state GOP Chairman Peter O'Donnell Jr. said the Texas committee had decided that the names of all announced candidates would be on the ballot.

POLITICAL MANEUVER

The Rockefeller forces were said to be concerned that it was an attempt to maneuver the governor into a position where Goldwater could hand him a sharp beating.

Four other possible GOP contenders — but not announced candidates — also asked their names be kept off the Texas ballot: Richard M. Nixon, Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania, Gov. George Romney of Michigan and Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, who won the New Hampshire Primary on a heavy write-in vote.

★ ★ ★

On the other side of the political fence, the Wisconsin organizers of a drive to secure the Democratic vice presidential nomination for Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy have rejected his request through Justice Department that the campaign be discontinued.

"This thing is in high gear," said the organization's president Percy Silver, in Milwaukee.

"Of course, if we heard from him personally we might have to bow to his requests — but I don't know," Silver added.

Blame Dog for Death

STILLWATER, Minn. (AP) — Her pet dog was blamed yesterday for the strangulation death of Victoria Aronson, 6.

The girl, with a scarf about her neck, was playing with her Labrador.

Investigators said the dog playfully grabbed the end of the scarf between his teeth and dragged the girl about 70 feet through snow.

The child was strangled by the scarf.

West Has No-Shoot Policy

Reds Often Intrude on NATO Air Space

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department says there have been "numerous" incidents in which Communist bloc planes have intruded into NATO territory, but spokesmen can recall no occasion when U.S. interceptors fired on them.

This is different from the Soviet technique. Twice this year Russian fighters have shot down U.S. Air Force planes which flew into East Germany.

West Germany has protested at least some of the sweeps into that country's territory by Soviet bloc aircraft.

This, it is explained in diplomatic circles, is standard policy. The country whose borders have been crossed, not the North Atlantic Treaty Organization or the United States, lodges the protest.

NO PROTESTS

So far as is known here, NATO itself has not filed protests although NATO apparently could go in with diplomatic support for the protest of a member nation.

Beyond the Pentagon's comment that there have been numerous instances in which Soviet bloc planes have flown over NATO territory, Washington officials declined to say precisely how many such incidents have occurred.

★ ★ ★

Nor would they discuss why U.S. interceptors, unlike Soviet fighters, have not attempted to shoot down intruding aircraft.

There were some obvious reasons for the reticence, including those of military secrecy and national policy.

IN POSITION

It may be assumed that interceptors have been in position in at least some of the cases to open fire on the Red planes.

While shooting down a Communist intruder plane would be no different than the technique used by the Soviets, the Soviet reaction and the impact on the cold war condition might be different.

Experts here also suggest other factors which might enter into the no-shoot policy so far.

Some of the incidents might be an accidental straying off course by Soviet aircraft.

DELIBERATE INTRUSION

On the other hand, it is considered entirely possible that some penetrations are made deliberately to test NATO's detection and interception capabilities.

Then there is always the outside chance the Communist plane might be flown by a defector who intends to seek asylum in the West.

★ ★ ★

Perhaps one of the reasons why intrusions of the West's territories by Soviet reconnaissance aircraft have been comparatively limited in effort is that the Soviets are directing their intelligence gathering effort against a relatively open society.

★ ★ ★

Russia, a tightly closed and controlled society, is able to maintain a far greater degree of secrecy about all aspects of her affairs.

May Try 3 Airmen as Spies

BERLIN (UPI) — Communist newsmen speculated today that three U. S. Air Force officers whose plane was shot down by the Soviets over East Germany Tuesday may be tried as spies.

One of the Communists, mingling with Western newsmen at a news conference in East Berlin, said: "What do you do with spies? You try them, of course."

The remark followed Soviet charges that the Air Force RB66 reconnaissance bomber was on a "military reconnaissance" mission over East Germany and did not stray across the border accidentally as the United States says it did.

★ ★ ★

The Communist newsmen said it would be "natural" for the Soviets to allow Communist East Germany to try the Americans.

MAJOR STEP

If such a trial takes place, it could be a major step in East Germany's long efforts to win Western recognition. Such a trial would involve U. S.-East German contacts.

The United States now deals only with the Soviets on East German affairs.

That has been its procedure in trying to locate the crewmen. Protests and requests for information have been directed to the Russians, not the East Germans.

★ ★ ★

The effort to secure the return of the crewmen continued today, but a U. S. Embassy official in Bonn said "there are no new developments."

The United States yesterday demanded the return of the three officers "without delay." But it was getting no cooperation from the Soviets.

Tax Tips

(EDITOR'S NOTE — The following income tax information is furnished by the Internal Revenue Service as a public service.)

Q: My wife died in December 1962. Am I still entitled to the joint tax rates on my 1963 return? Also, am I entitled to a personal exemption for my deceased wife?

A: You may qualify for the "Surviving Spouse" tax rates if you meet certain conditions. These rates are the same rates as used for a joint return. There are five requirements necessary. Your spouse must have died in either of the two years preceding 1963. Also, you must have been entitled to file a joint return with her in the year of death. You must not have remarried and you must have a child or stepchild who qualifies as a dependent. And, you must furnish over half of the cost of maintaining your home which is the principal abode of the dependent child or stepchild. You are not entitled to a personal exemption deduction for your deceased spouse after the year of death.

For the answer to YOUR question call your local Internal Revenue Service Office.

Jackie to Mail Acknowledgments on St. Patrick's Day

WASHINGTON (AP) — About 900,000 cards and letters from Mrs. John F. Kennedy to thank those who sent messages of sympathy following the assassination of her husband will be mailed next Tuesday—St. Patrick's Day.

The notes, an aide of Mrs. Kennedy said, have been sent to principal post offices in preparation for the mass mailing.

The letters will go to persons in virtually every nation of the world.

* * *

Mrs. Kennedy, in a televised message of thanks on Jan. 14, said with reference to the letters she had received:

"The warmth of these tributes is something I will never forget . . . it is my greatest wish that all of these letters be acknowledged."

TO ANSWER ALL

Her office said that virtually all of the messages of sympathy received prior to her television appearance will be answered as a result of the March 17 mailing.

* * *

Aides of the President's widow said this could not have been accomplished without the help of thousands of volunteers in the Washington, Boston and New York areas.

* * *

"Unfortunately," a statement issued by her office said, "it is no longer possible to continue this volunteer operation and regretfully," Mrs. Kennedy asked that it be announced that she will not be able to answer the current mail, which is still coming in at the rate of about 1,000 letters a day."

President Kennedy was slain Nov. 22, while traveling in a motorcade through downtown Dallas. Mrs. Kennedy sat next to him as he was struck down by the assassin's bullets.

NO EXPLANATION

Mrs. Kennedy's office gave no explanation for the decision to mail all of the replies on St. Patrick's Day. The late President's ancestors, however, came to this country from Ireland and St. Patrick is the Emerald Isle's Patron Saint.

The statement issued by her office said all of the letters Mrs. Kennedy received had been a source of comfort and that "she has been deeply touched by this spontaneous outpouring of affection for the late President."

* * *

"She very much hopes," the statement said, "that everyone will understand her inability to continue to answer the mail."

Senate Against Longer Session

LANSING (AP) — The Senate appeared to be standing firm today against House pressure to stretch the current legislative session an extra month and include a two-week recess.

Senate Majority Leader Stanley Thayer, R-Ann Arbor, said a Republican caucus Thursday produced "general agreement the existing schedule should be kept."

Thayer, however, named a committee to negotiate with House Republicans on a recess giving appropriation committees more time to consider 1964-65 budget bills.

Thayer said the committee will have no authority to make any commitments on a recess or postponing deadlines without consulting the Senate GOP caucus.

MORE JUSTIFICATION

Lt. Gov. T. John Lesinski, who presides over the Senate, said he also opposes the proposal "unless there is more justification than they (the House) have given so far."

House Republicans, led by Speaker Allison Green, R-Kingston, are pressing for Senate consent for a plan to recess for two weeks after March 28.

Senate GOP leaders said they might be willing to go along with a recess of a few days, provided it didn't mean lengthening the session which is now slated to end April 24.

Gov. George W. Romney said Thursday he believes a recess ought to be "somewhere between" the House and Senate proposals.

NO BACK TRACK

Green indicated he isn't willing to backtrack from the original House demand.

"We have over 900 bills, three times as many as the Senate, and just because they've been able to process theirs doesn't mean we have," he said.

Gov. Romney 'Swears' to His No-Run Pledge

Those cynics who've voiced doubt of the sincerity of Gov. ROMNEY's denial of presidential aspirations may now eat their words. They might serve as the main ingredient of a tasty fricassee of humble pie.

The role of chef for the culinary offering was assumed by the Governor when he signed the much-publicized Oregon primary election disavowal of designs on the White House.

For those who came in late, most anyone's name can appear on the ballots of the 16 states which hold presidential primaries — with or without consent of the candidate. If the voluntary or involuntary candidate objects to being so designated, he can merely ignore the recognition or ask to be scratched from the race.

But Oregon alone is a stickler for the letter as well as the spirit in such matters, and the only way a candidate's name once entered for its primary can be erased is for the owner of the name to sign an affidavit that "I am not now and do not intend to become a candidate for President or Vice President in the November election."

★ ★ ★

This ROMNEY did, and thereby burned his presidential bridges behind him; although an authority has declared that the Oregon affidavit deals only with a "candidate" and does not preclude a "draft."

★ ★ ★

The next order of business, gentlemen, are clear and incontestable political definitions of (a) Candidate and (b) Draft.

Red, Nationalist China to Stage Showdown?

CONFUCIUS in his grave is likely emulating a pinwheel over the muddle and division into which his China has fallen—with political and philosophical ramifications encircling the globe.

★ ★ ★

Today, two Chinas — as dissimilar as day and night — are opposing each other for exclusive world recognition. The area of the conflict is the United Nations, where a decision could well be reached late this year.

Were it not fraught with so much international menace, the confrontation has many comic opera aspects.

The prize at stake is the U. N. seat now held by Nationalist China, represented by the 14,000 square mile Formosa, 100 miles off the coast of mainland China. It was to this island stronghold with its 12 million population that Generalissimo CHANG KAI-SHEK retreated 14 years ago and set himself up in business. His standing army is 600,000 men.

★ ★ ★

Opposing him is Mao Tse-tung, backed by China's vast area — more than 200 times the extent of Formosa. Red China has a population of 700 million and a 2.6 million army.

But since possession is said to be nine points of the law, tiny Nationalist China has that going for her in the showdown over the United Nations seat.

★ ★ ★

Not only was the Republic of China one of the 50 original signatories of the United Nations Charter (present membership: 113) in 1945 but won one of the five permanent seats (with veto power) on the 11-member Security Council.

Since two official Chinas is one more than any world can take, and neither shows signs of recognizing the other, events are moving toward a climax.

★ ★ ★

Up until a few years ago the United States had virtually unanimous support in keeping the U. N. door closed to Communist China. Mao didn't have a Chinaman's chance of getting in.

But now with the conglomeration of new members that have attained United Nations membership, most with pretty unpredictable political orientation, compounded by the effect of DE GAULLE'S recent love feast with the Chinese Reds, anything can happen in the struggle to see which China rides the dragon.

Issues Not Key in Lodge Victory

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — New Hampshire voters must have been more concerned about personality than issues when they gave Henry Cabot Lodge victory in their Republican presidential primary this week.

MARLOW

The voters didn't have much to go on in picking Lodge except their memory of a tall, pleasant, good-looking, rather noncontroversial New Englander who has held highly important jobs under both parties.

As ambassador to South Viet Nam he didn't campaign, said he wasn't a candidate, didn't get closer to New Hampshire than Saigon, and didn't have his name on the ballot. The voters conveniently wrote it in for him.

This was a rejection of the three Republicans who talked most about current problems: Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Nixon, who says he isn't a candidate but certainly sounds like one, stayed out of New Hampshire. Goldwater and Rockefeller, acknowledged candidates, talked their way around the state for weeks.

★ ★ ★

Goldwater and Rockefeller didn't attempt thorough discussions of anything. This may have hurt. They approached events in sudden bursts, and pretty hackneyed ones, too, except for some hair-raisers by the Arizonan.

FOR EXAMPLE

For example: on making Social Security voluntary and sending Marines into Cuba to turn on Fidel Castro's water.

It can hardly be claimed the voters of New Hampshire or anywhere else remember much, if anything, about Lodge's views on anything except that, like most people in this country, he is against communism.

The last time he was heard from at any length was in the 1960 presidential race when he was Nixon's vice presidential running mate. Lyndon B. Johnson was his opposite number on the Democratic side.

★ ★ ★

The most that can be said for the Lodge and Johnson speeches in 1960 was that they sounded like warmed-over Nixon and John F. Kennedy. Neither man distinguished himself with views, oratory and panaceas.

ANCIENT U.S. TRADITION

This, of course, is in the ancient American political tradition that vice presidential candidates are only echoes.

Before that Lodge made a name for himself, but non-political, and built up the image of himself on television as U.S. ambassador to the United Nations from 1953 until 1960.

That was after Kennedy beat him for his Senate seat in 1952. So for almost 14 years, with the exception of 1960, Lodge has been out of the main stream of American politics. In that time he held no elective office.

★ ★ ★

At this moment probably most Americans, including the New Hampshireites, don't know where he stands or stood on anything, except that he was a Republican and helped persuade Dwight D. Eisenhower to run for president.

What most probably don't know at all is that as a senator, Lodge was an internationalist and, on a number of issues in those days, was more on the liberal than on the conservative side.

New Hampshire Landmark

David Lawrence Says:

GOP Campaign Missed Boat

WASHINGTON—Maybe it was Lyndon Johnson who won the primary—for both parties — in New Hampshire.

For whether Republicans like it or not, their various candidates who did go out on the stump and express themselves failed to make a case against the Johnson administration.

LAWRENCE

As for the man who got the biggest number of votes — Henry Cabot Lodge — he didn't say a word against the incumbent regime in Washington or participate in the campaign at all.

The weakness in the Republican strategy was all too clearly apparent in the New Hampshire primary.

The mission of a party out of power is to tell the people what's wrong with the party in power.

★ ★ ★

But there is something more deep-rooted in the New Hampshire verdict.

FUNDAMENTAL FACT

It is the fundamental fact that in a national campaign people are often not as much interested in personalities as they are in issues.

Many speeches made by the candidates who did campaign in New Hampshire were wide of the mark.

They didn't concentrate on the basic faults of the Democratic administration, nor did they analyze its policies in relation to the future impact of those policies on the citizens.

★ ★ ★

None of the Republican campaigners, including those who made speeches for Ambassador Lodge, hammered home effectively the defects in the Democratic administration in relation to the welfare of the citizen, particularly his economic future.

It takes a good deal of sharp argument and definition to arouse the voters and to make them feel that they ought, by their votes, to register a protest.

Little of this was evident in the New Hampshire campaign.

All the speeches of the candidates put together added up merely to a competition with each other and a hodgepodge of criticisms which did not focus on any particular issue or on subjects which the average voter could take to heart.

★ ★ ★

The New Hampshire primary is a conspicuous example of how difficult it is in America for a disunited political party to give to the voters an image of responsibility.

The party leaders are in Washington, and most of them in Congress are fighting day by day on important pieces of legislation, but there is no attempt to organize a party position or anything that even resembles a platform until convention time actually comes.

Since the Republican vote was split into several different groups, and no candidate got anywhere near a majority, it reflects the lack of agreement and the discord within the Republican party itself.

★ ★ ★

Under such circumstances, the party in power always benefits, and that's why LYNDON JOHNSON probably got more passive assent in the election last Tuesday than appeared in the votes he received on the Democratic ballot.

Matches Wits With Press

Minister of Information Spokesman for De Gaulle

By JOSEPH E. DYNAN

PARIS (AP)—The chief spokesman for President Charles de Gaulle is well-groomed, quick-thinking man of 38 who enjoys matching wits with newsmen.

As minister of information, Alain Peyrefitte moves into the spotlight after each weekly Cabinet session.

After de Gaulle's ministers finish their meeting, Peyrefitte goes to the press room of the Interior Ministry and reads the communique, usually a perfunctory statement listing the ministers who spoke.

Then he answers questions from 30 to 40 newsmen crowded into the chamber.

★ ★ ★

He discloses some of what went on during the session and often resorts to background statements.

DISCREET REPLIES

Peyrefitte's replies are discreet and aimed at creating an image that will reflect to best advantage the policies of the de Gaulle regime.

Before his encounter with newsmen, Peyrefitte spends half an hour or more closeted with de Gaulle deciding how much to disclose.

Part of the minister's job is to anticipate newsmen's questions and point them out to the austere president.

★ ★ ★

Usually de Gaulle lays down the line Peyrefitte should take and decides how far he can go.

MINISTER'S JOB

Sometimes he shrugs and indicates that this is Peyrefitte's job.

When Peyrefitte takes on the newsmen, he is keenly aware that his formidable boss will watch television that night or scan the newspapers the following morning to see how the minister acquitted himself.

The information chief puts in a long day, starting with a run through the morning papers and a sampling of the early news broadcasts.

★ ★ ★

This is followed by working luncheons with newspaper publishers, a daily meeting with Premier Georges Pompidou, sessions with other government officials, policy conferences on the state-owned radio-television network, and some work on letters from former constituents.

TRIAL BALLOON

Occasionally he takes on a trial balloon assignment from de Gaulle.

Such was his speech to the Foreign Press Association last year when he complained that the Americans had belatedly entered both world wars.

This controversial statement was made on specific instructions from de Gaulle.

★ ★ ★

As information minister, Peyrefitte is chief spokesman for the government and normal boss of the French Radio-Television — RTF — setup, which maintains a staff of several thousand.

Voice of the People:

Protests Congress' Plan to Give Selves Pay Hike

Our overworked and underpaid congressmen sought a pay raise of $10,000 a year though they admit this will not be enough. They are not thinking only of themselves, but all top government officials will share in the raise.

★ ★ ★

If they have such a tough time living on $22,500 plus all the extras they should change their way of life. I'll admit it's darn hard to make a living under the laws they've passed.

★ ★ ★

I hope The Press publishes the "for" voters so their successors can enjoy a better standard of living.

Ex-Baldwin Employes Thankful for Jobs

General Motors Corporation deserves a lot of praise for the way it gave jobs to former employes of Baldwin Rubber Co. Even those over 60 were hired by GMTC if they passed the examinations. I'm over 60 and thankful for the jobs so soon without making us feel it was a favor.

In behalf of the many employes of the former Baldwin Rubber Co., I want to thank the wonderful people who have been so gracious in finding employment for former employes of Baldwin Rubber Co. These employes can show their appreciation by giving their "all" to their new employers. The Press cannot praise these employers enough.

'Laws Can't Always Protect the Public'

"Concerned Citizen" says lawmakers must devise a method to stop fraudulent practices. We do have laws to protect the public but they don't always work. Used cars are sold that don't have good brakes or have headlights that won't stay on because of rust which has been covered up so the customers won't see it. Some have windshield wipers that won't work because the wiper motor is worn out. Floorboards are often covered with cardboard and a mat put over them so the holes will be covered.

Thanks to The Press for telling us of some of the crooks that prey on the people of this city.

384 E. Boulevard South — Rev. Paul R. Simmons

'Christians Must Convert Nonbelievers'

I agree with B. Rosenthal that atheists should be respected in their beliefs, but as Christians we are to convince the world of nonbelievers that life without God is no life at all. Christ wants us to shine wherever we go and let those who don't believe know that Christianity is not a myth.

I am for prayer in schools and those who don't want to participate don't have to.

Concerned About Voter Apathy in Holly

From a population of 3,000 only 157 Holly voters had enough interest to vote. With the exception of the office of trustee, only one candidate could be found for each office represented on the ballot. If this apathy in our local affairs is a reflection of the nation as a whole, it's high time something was done.

We all have ideas which would better the community. Rather than grumble among friends, let's attend local council meetings and present our ideas and constructive complaints so our governing body will know our thoughts.

Leader of 4-H Club Voices Support

I was shocked at Mrs. Caverly's letter about the 4-H Club. I've been a leader for 20 years and find it to be a clean-cut club for boys, girls and adults.

There have been times when I've felt like throwing in the towel, but it was mostly because of the parents. I've also had words with members, leaders and agents, but when I thought it out I could see both sides. Maybe if Mrs. Caverly will think it out she will feel differently. If it weren't for the swell leaders giving their time we would not have 4-H Clubs.

Equal Rights

The Chicago Sun-Times

The civil rights bill is now in the Senate, having passed the House. A considerable debate is expected. In some quarters the expectation is that the debate — or filibuster, if you will — could run until late in April or early in May.

The atmosphere of this filibuster cannot possibly be improved nor can the opportunity for equitable resolution and passage of this controversial civil rights measure be tempered by episodes such as the recent actions in the area of civil rights.

The trouble in Princess Anne, Md., where state police, using snarling police dogs, clubs and fireboses fought a pitched battle in the streets with Negro students is one such example.

★ ★ ★

It is equally deplorable, in principle, for civil rights groups to threaten a continual round of harassment of Chicago's public school system to emphasize and underline points already made.

We think this is wrong.

The privilege of equal rights is a solemn one. It belongs, according to the Constitution of the United States, to everyone. This has not been followed in the past. It is in the process of being followed now. The country is in a period of great and significant change.

Easily forgotten in the heat of this change is the simple fact that the privilege of equal rights carries with it the burden of responsibility.

It is time that both sides in this time of change accept the responsibility that equality demands.

Most Disconcerting

The Deep River (Conn.) New Era

Nothing is more disconcerting than to listen to an "expert" who doesn't know that you are a more highly informed expert.

Arms and Men

The New York Post

One of the first requests Vietnamese Premier Khanh presented to Defense Secretary McNamara on his arrival in Saigon was for arms to replace the 8,000 modern American and French weapons lost to the Communists in the last year.

The nature of his plea dramatizes our misgivings about American policy in Vietnam. The U.S. has approached it as a primarily military problem: how do we mobilize enough firepower to defeat Communist military forces supplied and infiltrated from North Vietnam?

But the key problem in South Vietnam is winning the support of its populace for the struggle against the Communists.

There is little point in giving the Vietnamese people more weapons if their hearts are not in the struggle. They will surrender or sell our material to the Communists.

★ ★ ★

The real question is whether there is a program for winning the real allegiance of the Vietnamese people.

If there isn't, we had better confront the facts, unpleasant as they may be. The evidence to date is hardly reassuring; it is tragically reminiscent of the China debacle.

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

Cholesterol Aided in Hardening Arteries

What causes hardening of the arteries and especially the deposits in the coronary arteries that are associated with so many heart attacks?

BRANDSTADT

Browsing through the maze of medical literature on this subject is like reading a whodunit. In this case, however, we cannot rule out the butler — or the butter.

For over 10 years we have been hot on the trail of cholesterol. I still think he's guilty but it is beginning to look as though he has some accomplices in crime.

★ ★ ★

The foremost of these is a group of products which, like cholesterol, is derived from your body fats. These are the triglycerides and they, along with cholesterol, do what the detectives would call an inside job.

WEAK SPOT

But first there must be a weak spot in the artery due to overstretching or an inherited defect. If this localized weakness is great enough, little plaques will form in the arterial wall regardless of the amount of fat derived chemicals in the blood.

The greater the amount of plaque-forming substances in the blood, the greater the likelihood of arterial hardening.

Tri-glycerides in normal concentration remain in solution in the blood, but when the concentration exceeds the saturation point they combine with cholesterol (a normal and essential constituent) and form the insoluble particles of which the plaques are made.

Even with this knowledge we cannot say definitely that restricting the fat in your diet will insure you against arteriosclerosis.

FAT RESTRICTION

Persons who were subjected to severe fat restriction but who used sugars and starches to supply the calories formerly supplied by fats were found to have an even higher triglyceride concentration in their blood than when they were allowed a more liberal amount of fat.

another accomplice is lack of exercise. Persons who walk several miles a day or otherwise use their muscles in their work have lower concentrations of cholesterol and triglycerides than their more sedentary neighbors.

★ ★ ★

Because cholesterol is manufactured in the body tissues, the amount of it in your diet is not the important consideration.

★ ★ ★

HIGH CONCENTRATION

What is important is how much you yourself manufacture. A high concentration of cholesterol and triglyceride in your blood does not always spell an early heart attack, but there can be no doubt that it increases the risk.

Science Quiz

By BOB BROWN

PROBLEM: Which Falls First?

NEEDED: A yardstick or meter stick, a coin such as a quarter or half dollar.

DO THIS: Place the stick against the wall so that it will not slip.

Place the coin on the end, as in the upper drawing, and when the stick is released the coin will not fall as rapidly as the stick.

Place the coin back one-third the length of the stick, and both coin and stick will fall together.

★

HERE'S WHY: The stick is not falling as freely as is the coin. The stick is rotating about an axis at the wall. The velocity of the end of the stick is greater than the falling coin.

The velocity of a point on the stick one-third the length of the stick from the end moves at the same velocity as a falling body.

A collection of these scientific puzzles is in book form under the name "Science Circus." It is in bookstores and libraries.

Pleads Guilty to Receiving Stolen Goods

A Pontiac man pleaded guilty yesterday in Municipal Court to receiving stolen goods from two teen-agers and was ordered to pay $100 court costs and placed on six months probation.

John A. Green, 48, of 1244 Mt. Clemens was charged yesterday with buying 16 cartons of cigarettes, stolen from the A & P Supermarket, 1185 N. Perry. He appeared before Municipal Court Judge Cecil McCallum.

The offense is a misdemeanor since the value of the cigarettes was under $100.

★ ★ ★

The two youths, John T. Williams, 17, of 804 Palmer, an employe at the store; and David L. Dove, 18, of 1191 Mt. Clemens have been charged with larceny from a building.

$200 BOND

They were released on $200 bond each, pending arraignment in Circuit Court Monday.

★ ★ ★

Police said the pair has admitted taking between 300-500 cartons of cigarettes.

★ ★ ★

They were arrested Tuesday after Williams had placed 66 cartons in a trash box and put it outside to be picked up by Dove, police said.

Boy, 15, Kills Mother; Had Sudden Urge

CADILLAC (AP) — A 15-year-old boy is quoted by police as saying he shot and killed his mother Thursday because "I felt the urge."

Held for Probate Court authorities is John Thomas Legg, adopted child of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Legg of Cadillac.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Legg, 55, was shot in the head with a 22-caliber bolt action rifle in the kitchen of her home in a resort area on Lake Mitchell.

Wexford County Prosecutor Burton Hines said the youth reported arriving home early from school "because kids had been throwing snow at me."

'COLD ALL OVER'

Hines quoted John as saying he sat across the table from his mother and suddenly felt "cold all over...then I felt the urge to kill my mother."

State police said John telephoned that he shot his mother. He said he called in hopes of saving her life, troopers said.

★ ★ ★

John's father, a Consumers Power Co. technician, was not at home at the time.

LONDON (AP)—The House of Commons sent its unanimous congratulations Thursday to Queen Elizabeth II on the birth of her fourth child.

LOSES LEG — Bing's older brother, Everett Crosby, 63, draws a smile from his nurse, Lorraine Mikita, in New York's Sinai Hospital yesterday. The fact that he had his second leg amputated just below the knee on January 2 doesn't dampen the spirits of the business manager of the actor-crooner and his many enterprises. Both legs were removed, the first last June, because of poor circulation complicated by diabetes.

'Oliver's New Twist'

One Snake Okay, but . . .

LESLIE (Mich.) — Perhaps a man can live with one snake in his home — but when the snake turns out to be a mother and starts having baby snakes, that is the time to holler for help.

That was the feeling of Wendell Sager, Leslie farmer, who discovered that a snake living in a crawl space under his home had fostered little snakes.

"My children found one of the little snakes in the house," he said. "They put it in a fruit jar and grew quite fond of it. They called it 'Oliver Twist'."

Then the little snake escaped from the fruit jar, and Sager is afraid it might grow up to reproduce more snakes.

His snake family, Sager said, apparently is of the harmless milk snake variety. But Sager called an expert from Michigan State University to capture and take away his snakes.

Two Instructors Bridge Gap Between Academics, Civic Action

By L. GARY THORNE

The gap between academic discussion and civic action has been bridged by a pair of instructors from Henry Ford Community College in Dearborn.

The noteworthy leap from the classroom to the courtroom carries implications not only for Oakland County, but the entire state.

Donald A. Calkins and Karl J. Jacobs, residents of suburban Dearborn and political science teachers at the junior college there, have asked for an injunction against holding 1964 elections of Michigan's 19 congressmen, based on district boundaries set in 1963.

Action on their request was deferred until March 23 in a preliminary hearing before a three-judge federal panel.

★ ★ ★

The federal judges agreed 2-to-1 that a "prima facie" case exists that the state's congressional districting law of 1963 is unconstitutional.

IN THE MIDDLE

Thus, the two instructors find that they have placed themselves in the middle of the continuing controversy over apportionment.

How did this come to pass?

Jacobs relates a simple enough explanation. Both he and his associate share an interest in representation and districting.

★ ★ ★

During a social evening with Calkins, the two hatched their idea to practice what they taught daily to their college students.

LOCAL INTEREST

However, Calkins in the past has demonstrated a keen interest in Dearborn politics. Five years ago he was unsuccessful in a bid to unseat the city's long-term mayor, Orville L. Hubbard.

A mild notoriety has resulted from the current court action.

Friends and colleagues express a "gee whiz, I didn't know you could do this" attitude. However, both teachers modestly deny any special attention.

★ ★ ★

If their request for an injunction were granted, an at-large election this fall of congressmen is the only legal alternative, according to Jacobs.

BIG QUESTION

Would this cause chaos, as charged by some state officials and politicians?

Jacobs fends off the question with a question:

"The word is an emotional one. What is meant by 'chaos'? I'm not sure what the word means."

★ ★ ★

Meantime, Calkins replies that at-large elections have been held in a number of states without chaos.

BETTER PREPARATION

"People would just have to be better prepared," he added and know more about the broad field of candidates."

Calkins did admit that one party might win all the congressional seats.

The two instructors disagreed on which party might benefit the most from further redistricting. Calkins, who claimed no knowledge of Oakland County politics, thought the Democrats would fare better.

★ ★ ★

However, Jacobs more cautiously believed the suburban Republicans would benefit. He specified areas like Oakland County.

Both men appeared relatively unconcerned about which party would benefit most. Jacobs emphasized that the suit was a nonpartisan endeavor, indicating the "1 man, one vote" principle was more important than politics.

And where did the suit originate? Who is paying the bills?

Calkins attempted a similar court action two years ago, the same three-judge panel denied his injunction, but served notice on the legislature to redistrict. This resulted in last year's apportionment measure.

★ ★ ★

The suit was revived last fall with attorney Theodore Sachs, who is also counsel for Michigan AFL-CIO President Gus Scholle, replacing the 40-year-old Calkins, who passed the bar in 1960, in court.

FINANCIAL AID

The new plaintiffs also received financial aid from the American Civil Liberties Union.

Although the teachers set out to "practice what they preach," the junior college instructors have learned along the way. Jacobs summed it up for the pair:

★ ★ ★

"We often think large blocs, such as labor, business, etc, control public policy, but this shows it isn't always true. I've gained a greater and deeper appreciation of the power that an individual has in our democratic system to make his voice heard."

Area Youths Released in Vandalism

Two Rochester youths who police said have admitted entering Rochester High School last weekend and causing damage were released yesterday to appear in a Court of No Record March 19.

They are Charles Kelley, 20, of 346 Third, and Larry Benham, 19, of 243 Helen.

The Court of No Record, conducted in the prosecutor's office, allows young first offenders to make amends without acquiring a criminal record.

The pair told police they entered the school at 1:30 a.m. March 8 through an unlocked window.

They broke several glass dividers to enter classrooms and took $76 in petty cash, according to the sheriff's department.

German Destroyer Set; 1st Since World War II

BONN, Germany (AP) — The first destroyer built in West Germany since World War II goes into service March 23, the Defense Ministry announced Thursday. It is the 3,400-ton Hamburg, with a crew of 280.

The Hamburg is armed with modern artillery and antisubmarine weapons. It has a speed of 35 knots and will operate mainly in the North Sea.

Press Correspondent Heads PNH Society

By SUSAN KILLEN

Pontiac Northern High School's chapter of Quill and Scroll held an election of officers last week. This group, an honorary society for high school journalists, will be led through the remainder of the year by Susan Killen as president.

Maria Lliades is secretary-treasurer. The organization is planning its annual initiation of new members in April.

New members will be chosen for their outstanding contributions to the Polaris (news paper) and the Avalanche (yearbook).

Quill and Scroll advisers are faculty members Kenneth Ferguson and Anne Sheppard.

To be selected for membership in this organization, the student must maintain a "B" average, be recommended by his adviser, and be accepted by the national secretary of Quill and Scroll.

SPECIAL PICTORIAL

As a project for this spring, the group is planning to publish a special spring pictorial, which will include photographs not included in the 1963-64 yearbook.

There will be pictures from the senior trip, junior and senior proms, Northern Players' spring production, the Catalina water show, spring athletics and baccalaureate.

The pictorial will be financed by local advertisers who will be contacted by a special advertising group from the Quill and Scroll organization.

★ ★ ★

It will be printed in the Northern print shop and sold during the last week of school.

PNH YEARBOOK

Today the last copy and pictures for this year's Avalanche, the PNH yearbook, went to the publisher.

This marked the end of another year's work for the yearbook staff and the beginning of another one as the group must begin to formulate ideas for next year's edition.

Under the direction of Elaine Hertel, senior, as editor in chief, the book was compiled from many photography and copy organized by the staff. Yearbook adviser is faculty member Kenneth Ferguson.

The yearbook staff will be taking orders for their publication during the month of April, and any PNH student who does not have a student union card is able to purchase the book at this time.

The yearbook is the largest in Northern's history, and unusual divider pages will be utilized in the various sections. The Avalanche will be distributed to PNH students early in June.

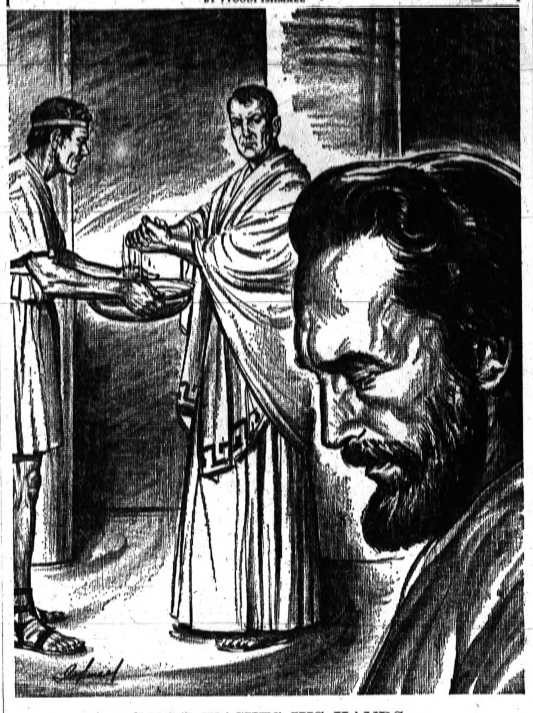
The Lenten Story

BY WOODI ISHMAEL



PILOT WASHES HIS HANDS

On certain festival days, Pontius Pilot, the governor of Judea, released to the crowd whichever prisoner they wished.

Certain of Christ's innocence, he offered them a choice between Him and Barabbas, a notorious criminal. But to his astonishment, the crowd chose Barabbas.

"What then am I to do with Jesus who is called Christ," he asked.

And the crowd cried out, "Crucify Him, crucify Him."

Afraid that a riot was about to break out, Pilot gave in, but first took water and washed his hands in the sight of the crowd, saying:

"I am innocent of the blood of this person: see ye to it." (Matthew XXVII:24)

Pilot's attempt to wash his hands of official responsibility in the matter has stood evermore as a gesture of futility.

Husband Claims Jealousy Proves Fatal to Wife

CALUMET CITY, Ill. (AP)—A woman trapped in a submerged automobile drowned Thursday and her husband said she had swerved the car into the water in a jealous rage.

Ralph Wittenhagan, 40, told police that moments before their car crashed through a barricade and slid into a Cook County forest preserve lake, he had thrown his wife, Mady, 30, from the front to the rear seat of the car.

* * *

"Then she reached up and past my neck," Wittenhagan told police Chief Casimir E. Linkiewicz, "and grabbed the wheel of the car. The car swerved to the left, and crashed through the guard rail and into the lake."

Wittenhagan managed to escape through the driver's side of the car, but his wife was trapped inside.

Wittenhagan, a steel company foreman, told police his wife had accused him of running around with other women, and they had quarreled.

"The Best Way To Build A Business Is To Give The Best Service

Fourteen years in this business convinced me of that. And that's exactly what we're doing here at Village Rambler on all makes of cars, new or used. You can buy a car from any dealer. You can buy a Rambler from a lot of them. But good service on your present car is something else. It's not easy to find these days. Now, the Rambler is probably the most service-free car on the road today. That gives us a head start. Then when people find they can get better service here, it's 2 to 1 that they'll come back here to buy their next cars. That's good for them, and good for us. So, next time your car needs service, drive in and get the very best."

Sincerely yours,

Bill Farrah

See How Many Ways A Rambler Saves You Money

First, there's the question of mileage. And Rambler's unmatched record in the Pure Oil Performance Trials and the Mobilgas Economy Run, year after year, answers that. Then, there's trade-in value and what rust can do to that. Ramblers are Deep-Dip Rust-proofed right up to the roof line. And the exhaust system is ceramic coated to save you money. So drop in and see how much more a Rambler leaves you to spend on other things.

15,000 Whites Protest NY Schools Integration Plan

NEW YORK (AP) — About 15,000 white parents, protesting plans to transfer pupils from neighborhood schools, braved swirling snow Thursday in a 2½-mile march from the Board of Education headquarters in Brooklyn to City Hall in Manhattan.

More than 70 per cent of the marchers were women, and only a few Negroes took part.

Spokesmen for the demonstrators made it clear they do not oppose integration but they do object to involuntary busing of their children from neighborhood schools.

Said Herald H. Dallek, president of the Brooklyn Joint Council for Better Education:

BETTER USE

"Instead of spending money to pair schools and pay transportation costs, the money can be better spent improving educational services for all children.

"They (the parents) are here to demonstrate their deep resentment and unalterable opposition to the destruction of the neighborhood school concept."

The board is scheduled to announce on March 25 adoption of the so-called Princeton Plan — which would pair predominantly white with predominantly Negro or Puerto Rican schools and exchange pupils by bus to eliminate segregation stemming from housing patterns.

The board's plan also has been attacked by civil rights groups, which contend it does not go far enough or fast enough toward ending de facto segregation.

The civil rights groups last Feb. 3 staged a massive, one-day school boycott.

The board, in its initial plan, will match 40 elementary schools and 20 junior high schools to attain a better racial balance in the school system.

Police said Thursday's march was one of the most orderly demonstrations on record.

The protest march began with thousands converging on the Board of Education building from Brooklyn, the Bronx, Queens, and Manhattan boroughs.

School Supt. Calvin E. Gross and School Board President James B. Donovan met with protest leaders in Brooklyn. When demonstration leaders asked Gross for a referendum on the board's integration plan, he replied:

"I doubt that the board would want to set a precedent of holding a public referendum every time a burning issue was presented."

"While we take note of sentiments of citizens, our board responds to logic, not to pressure," Donovan said.

The marchers then trekked across Brooklyn Bridge to City Hall Plaza.

NY PICKETS — White adults carry signs and umbrellas as they march in snowfall outside New York City Board of Education building in Brooklyn yesterday, picketing against school integration by shifting students to new schools with a new transportation plan. About 15,000 people took part.

Folk Song Marathon

SANTA MARIA, Calif. (AP)—Students from Alan Hancock College, Cal Poly State College at San Luis Obispo and the University of California at Santa Barbara vow to keep a hootenanny going for 120 hours to raise $10,000 for Sisters Hospital in Santa Maria.

And, they say, if they raise the money before the 120 hours is up, they'll extend the singing to 240 hours in celebration.

Rooftop Pools for Apartments

NEW YORK (UPI)—Apartment builders are getting up in the air about swimming pools. That is to say they're putting the pools up in the air.

Only three years ago, the nation's first steel rooftop pool was built atop Gracie Tower, a 22-story posh cooperative on Manhattan's fashionable East Side. It started a trend, according to Gustav H. Koven, president of a pool-building firm which bears his name.

Numerous rooftop pool installations are built or planned in this city as well as Washington, Chicago, St. Louis, New Orleans, Palm Beach, Milwaukee, San Francisco, Los Angeles and elsewhere.

Downtown builders, cramped for ground level space, have followed the example of Alfred L. Kaskel, builder of Gracie Tower, who found a light steel pool was quite feasible

Negro Vote Gains in Dixie

(EDITOR'S NOTE — An AP survey last November showed Negro voting power edging upward in the South. With important state and national elections coming up, here is another look at the voter drive.)

By DON McKEE

ATLANTA (AP)—Civil rights organizations are making slow, steady headway in a voter drive that might push Negro registration in the South to 2 million before the November election.

An Associated Press survey shows there are about 1.75 million Negro voters in 11 Southern states where white voters number 12.8 million.

★ ★ ★

White registration continues to increase just about enough to offset Negro gains.

The ratio of white to Negro voters remains at about 88-12 in the states surveyed — Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia.

NO RECORDS

Where no official records were available, estimates were made by state officials, party leaders and civil rights spokesmen.

Main targets of the Negro registration drive are seats in the U.S. House and Senate and the Presidential election.

★ ★ ★

"You are liable to spoil that lineup of Southern senators," Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, told NAACP delegates to a regional meeting in Macon, Ga.

In Virginia, the drive is aiming at the 4th Congressional District where attorney S.W. Tucker, a Negro, is in the running.

POTENTIAL STRENGTH

Dr. Martin Luther King estimates potential Negro voting strength at 5.5 million in the South—where Negroes comprise 22 per cent of the population.

In Texas, Democrats, Republicans and Latin - American organizations joined with Negroes in a pay-your-poll-tax campaign. Negro leaders estimated that 40,000 to 90,000 Negroes have been registered since 1960.

A record 77,714 Negroes have qualified to vote in Arkansas by paying poll taxes. A further sizable increase is expected if a proposed law to open a period of free registration is enacted.

Negroes gained in numbers but lost in proportionate voting power in Louisiana. An official report in February showed Negro voters increase from 153,655 to 163,133 since October.

WHITES UP

But white registration went up too, and this dropped the Negro voter percentage of 13.7 to 13.6.

Florida gained 85,000 voters during a 12-month period and 21,000 were Negroes. Georgia's Negro registration has been moving at a fairly fast rate — from 160,000 in 1958 to more than 200,000 now.

"It is conceivable that the Negro voters will increase to 250,000 by November," said Travis Stewart, executive director of the George Democratic Party. If that happens, Georgia Negroes would have about 17 per cent of the vote instead of 14 per cent.

New Explorer Post Set at Bethany Baptist

A new boy scout explorer post at Bethany Baptist Church became official this week with presentation of a charter by Clinton Valley Council Commissioner Donald Grudt.

Accepting the charter for Post 7 was Andrew Pepper, 2365 Pontiac Drive, representing the sponsoring church. Harold Wagg, 70 Ogemaw, will be the unit leader.

The first university sponsored center for radiophysics and space research was established at Cornell University in 1959. Now the school offers a graduate program of study in aerospace engineering.

Warren Commission Is About Halfway Finished With Probe

(EDITOR'S NOTE — The Warren Commission investigating the assassination of President John F. Kennedy has been at work for three and a half months. This story reviews the investigation so far and looks to its future.)

By MARTHA COLE

WASHINGTON (AP) — After three and a half months, a presidential commission appears to be halfway through its quest for all that can be learned about the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

It has assembled hundreds of exhibits, including the rifle from which police say the fatal shots were fired and the windshield of the limousine in which Kennedy was riding in downtown Dallas when death came last Nov. 22.

★ ★ ★

It has talked to 17 witnesses, including the widow, mother, and brother of Lee Harvey Oswald, 24, the ex-Marine charged with Kennedy's death. Oswald was shot to death in the Dallas jail two days after the President's assassination.

★ ★ ★

Will the commission call in those who were riding with the President when the shots rang out? They include his young widow, who held her wounded husband in her arms; Gov. John Connally of Texas, who was wounded, too; and Mrs. Connally.

Lyndon B. Johnson, then vice president, and his wife were riding in a limousine, the second car behind the President's.

Depositions or affidavits could be taken from those close to Kennedy. But commission members have declined to say what they will do.

★ ★ ★

The commission, created by President Johnson five days after Kennedy's death, has no deadline on its report. It was charged to find the truth as far as possible on the assassination and also the fatal shooting of Oswald. Jack Ruby, charged with Oswald's death, is now on trial in Dallas.

Chief Justice Earl Warren, commission chairman, has said the timing of the report will be governed only by "whether we have ascertained all that can be learned."

ABOUT HALF WAY

One member estimated the commission was a little less than halfway through in gathering information; another, a little more than halfway.

After the evidence will come the careful process of writing the report. Some speculate it might come a year after the assassination; others say this summer.

★ ★ ★

To this, Warren said, "we are concerned with developing the facts as we best can. When we are satisfied that we have done so, we will report."

The commission has the unreleased five-volume report of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The report is understood to indicate that Oswald was the hidden rifleman who killed Kennedy and to dismiss, by omission, any theory that he had help or accomplices.

TEDIOUS DETAIL

One member has described recent days of testimony as tedious in detail.

The commission has photographs and charts and maps drawn to scale on which it pinpoints exact locations as witnesses testify.

It obviously is trying to get everything into the record.

"For the future," one member said.

VARIOUS METHODS

Its methods vary with the witnesses. For some, it lets them just sit and talk as long as they wish — as they did with Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, mother of Lee Harvey Oswald.

★ ★ ★

Taking testimony from Mark Lane, New York attorney who says he represents the interests of Oswald, the commission interrupted Lane only occasionally. Then it asked if what Lane said was his opinion, something he had read in the newspaper or something on which he had witnesses or an affidavit.

★ ★ ★

The hearing with Lane was thrown open to the public at Lane's request. All other meetings have been behind closed doors.

The commission has about 20 or 25 lawyers and secretaries on its staff, headed by J. Lee Rankin, a former Solicitor General of the United States.

FIRST MEETING

Its first meeting was last Dec. 5. The first witness was Mrs. Marina Oswald, 22, the girl whom Oswald married in Russia. She appeared for four days beginning Feb. 3.

Commission members with Warren are: Sens. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., and John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky.; Reps. Hale Boggs, D-La., and Gerald Ford, R-Mich.; Allen Dulles, former head of the Central Intelligence Agency; and John J. McCloy, New York banker.

When Johnson created it, the White House said he was instructing the commission "to satisfy itself that the truth is known as far as it can be discovered and to report its findings and conclusions to him, to the American people and to the world."

After JFK Death

Army: Marksmanship Hurt

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army believes the assassination of President Kennedy has created an American revulsion to guns and that this attitude is hurting its civilian marksmanship program.

The Army offers no statistics to back up its belief, but, in a general way, it has testified to Congress that public sentiment is turning away from the gun.

★ ★ ★

The testimony was given last Jan. 29 and released today by the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Defense.

Col. John K. Lee Jr., executive officer of the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, told the subcommittee:

"I think that this terrible tragedy did have a tremendous impact upon marksmanship in the United States, and in this way: it focused the attention of all American citizens on the weapon that was used in the commission of that crime. There is a feeling of revulsion against the instrument which caused a tragedy of this sort."

The National Board is in charge of the Army's program of encouraging civilian marksmanship in the United States. In 1963, its instructors trained 384,950 Americans in rifle shooting. The Army is asking Congress to appropriate $484,000 for the Board for the next fiscal year.

Col. Lee told the subcommittee that the Army operates the board because "the man with the gun, the citizen properly trained in the use of firearms, has been the foundation of our military strength throughout the history of our nation."

Junior Editors Quiz on OSTRICHES

QUESTION: Does an ostrich really bury his head in the ground when alarmed?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: No, this is just a fable. One of the reasons for this false notion is that this largest of birds has a very bulky body, but only a thin, scrawny neck bare of feathers.

From a distance, you see the body, but the thin neck may be hardly visible and you might think the head was underground.

The ostrich is a magnificent runner, stretching out its long legs with an enormous stride. Streaking off like this, the bird can outrun a man or a horse.

But the poor old ostrich is not very smart and can't seem to get over the silly notion that it should run in a circle.

The result is that a group of horsemen, coming from different directions, can easily surround the bird and kill it with arrows, spears or guns.

There used to be great flocks of ostriches in Africa and Asia. They got along well enough until there was a demand for the soft, elegant looking ostrich plumes.

Now they are scarce in their native countries. However, ostrich farms have been successful in South Africa, Algeria and Argentina as well as in the United States.

FOR YOU TO DO: If something goes wrong, don't go running in circles like an ostrich!

Friday the 13th

Religiously Unlucky

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — The popular belief that Friday the 13th is an unlucky day has a great deal of religious significance, according to a University of Michigan professor.

But Wilbert J. McKeachie, professor and chairman of the U. of M. Psychology Department, said, "It's the unsure person who refuses to blame himself but attributes his misfortune to that unlucky day on the calendar . . . or the black cat that crossed his path first thing in the morning."

Another reason superstitutions die hard is that our memories and perceptions are highly selective, McKeachie said. "We tend to remember those things which confirm our beliefs and disregard what does not bear them out.

"So if something unpleasant happens to us on Friday the 13th, we are not surprised to find our convictions justified."

The professor explained the religious significance of Friday the 13th by breaking it down in two spheres.

THE CRUCIFIXION

"According to the teaching of the astrologers of the Middle Ages, Friday was unlucky because of the crucifixion of Christ on that day.

"As to the number 13," he continued, "according to some, 13 is an unlucky number and according to others it is lucky, so you can take your choice.

"The superstitions dislike of being one of 13 at dinner is derived from the last supper of Christ with his Twelve Disciples."

"So," McKeachie said, "when Friday falls on the 13th day of the month, it's a case of insult added to injury."

$500 Tax Payment Stolen From Home

A purse containing $500 to pay income taxes was stolen from a Pontiac home Wednesday night.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Edward Klukos, 51, of 11 N. Tasmania told police the thief apparently entered the house by an unlocked rear door while she was watching television.

It's believed the theft occurred between 9:45 and 10 p.m.

Mrs. Klukos said she had the money in her purse for "safekeeping" until it could be deposited and a check made out for the Internal Revenue Service.

This was necessary, she said, because the cash was not accepted earlier.

Beatle's Bop Blasted by Fellow Britons

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Beatles apparently are wearing a little thin with some fellow Britons.

Up, Down; Flowers Go Either Way

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: Is it right to wear flowers with the stems up? I think flowers should always be worn the way they grow—stems down.

We arrange bouquets stems down, admire a flower holding it stem down, so why, when flowers are arranged in a corsage, stand them on their heads?

★ ★ ★

A: Flowers are generally worn with the stems pointing down, but there is no fast rule about this and they may be worn whichever way the wearer happens to think they look best.

Q: I have just been made pastor of a small church. I have been told that it is customary for the pastor to greet his parishioners with a handshake after services.

It has always been my understanding that it is not correct for a man to extend his hand to a woman unless she extends hers first.

I would like to know if this rule applies to a pastor?

★ ★ ★

A: As pastor of the church, you extend your hand spontaneously to the members of your congregation.

Jonathan Logan designs a dress that could get a diploma just for looking pretty. The nearly bare bodice fashionably attenuated above a gently controlled skirt in a daisy fresh cotton pique frosted with a generous helping of clumy lace. Available locally for about $18.

Tell of Adoption

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Chandler (Kay Kirkby) of Detroit announce the adoption of Mark Steven, born Feb. 16. Grandparents are the Albert Chandlers of North East Boulevard and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kirkby, Silver Sands Drive.

Two Members Given Degree at Gathering

The second degree was given pledges Mrs. Harold Bigelow and Mrs. Ruthmary Wilds at the Thursday meeting of Iota Eta Chapter of Pi Omicron national sorority.

Mrs. Paul L. Hoskins opened her Lincoln Avenue home for the meeting and Mrs. Buhl Burt assisted the hostess.

★ ★ ★

Chapter representatives to the Sunday state board meeting in Flint are Mrs. E. Verne McCall, Mrs. George Brinkman, Mrs. Wilds and Mrs. Stig Danielson.

The group has made a donation to the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc. to cover transportation cost to the center for children who could not normally afford it.

About Unwanted Baby

See Adoption Agency

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

I am 16 years old and five months pregnant. The father of my baby is marrying me pretty soon, but neither of us wants the baby.

We can't afford it and, besides, I don't want to stay married to this boy the rest of my life. (Just long enough to have the baby.)

ABBY

I am wondering if one of your readers wants a baby. If they pay my hospital bill, they can have mine.

MADE A MISTAKE

★ ★ ★

DEAR MADE: Get in touch with your Family Service Agency, or a reputable adoption agency.

They conduct a thorough investigation of all applicants who wish to adopt babies in order to assure the babies of good homes. You've already made one mistake.

★ ★ ★

I urge you not to make another by handing over your baby as you would a puppy or a kitten to anyone who has a few dollars.

DEAR ABBY: I am 14 and I hate school. How do I get kicked out?

SICK OF SCHOOL

★ ★ ★

DEAR SICK: School haters need advice on how to stay in, not on how to get kicked out. Stay with it. You'll recover.

DEAR ABBY: Why do all the little sawed-off runts ask tall women for dates? I am a woman who is 5' 8", and it seems that all the runty men want to date me.

I have gone out with men half a head shorter than myself because I didn't know how to turn them down without hurting their feelings.

Don't they realize a woman feels ridiculous walking down the street with a man who is shorter than herself? Please put this in your column, Abby, so those little squirts will pick on someone their own size.

LIKES 'EM TALL

★ ★ ★

DEAR LIKES: It may surprise you to learn that not all women share your point of view.

★ ★ ★

A short man who asks a tall woman for a date is paying her a great compliment.

He assumes that she has the intelligence to measure a man for what he is—not for how much of him there appears to be.

CONFIDENTIAL TO J. R.: A man who is pulling his own weight seldom has any left over to throw around.

Get it off your chest. For a personal, unpublished reply, write to ABBY, care of The Pontiac Press. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

★ ★ ★

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to ABBY, care of The Pontiac Press, for Abby's new booklet, "HOW TO WRITE LETTERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS."

Returning Home

Mrs. Mary Wagner of Oriole Road has returned from a three-weeks' stay in Miami. She visited her brother and sister-in-law, the Charles L. Davenports, former Pontiac residents, also the Alton P. Maddens of West Square Lake Road, who are wintering in Florida.

Lessons on Great Operas Given by Local University

A six-week non-credit course, including the study of all seven operas to be performed during the Detroit season, is offered by the division of continuing education at Oakland University.

★ ★ ★

Discussion, led by Dr. Laszlo Hetenyi of OU, will center around historical and performance features of the operas.

The "Operas of the Metropolitan" lessons begin April 14 at 7:30 p.m.

The sixth session of the class will be attendance as a group at the May 26 performance of "Lucia," featuring Joan Sutherland.

Tuition of $20 includes the opera ticket, tuition without the ticket is $15.

More information is available at the division of continuing education of Oakland University.

Lecture Scheduled

Women in Government

"Woman's Role in Shaping Government" is the subject of the fourth lecture of the Junior Living Series to be given at 10:30 a.m. next Friday at the Village Woman's Club.

Mrs. Harriett Phillips will tell how women can become more active and effective in government through the medium of the political party.

Beginning with the precinct and progressing to the national level, she will unravel the complexities of the political framework.

POLITICAL SCIENCE MAJOR

Mrs. Phillips attended both the University of Michigan and Wayne State University, majoring in political science.

★ ★ ★

Along with being listed in "Who's Who in American Women", she is a member of the League of Women Voters, NAACP, Citizens for Michigan, Berkley Council for Better Schools, Urban League, American Civil Liberties Union, Cancer Society and a member of the board of Oakland Child Guidance.

★ ★ ★

At present she is a member of the Oakland Citizen's Study Committee on home rule and a consultant for the governor's commission on status of women.

★ ★ ★

She has been a member of the Democratic national convention, chairman of John B. Swainson's campaign, delegate to many Oakland County and Michigan Democratic conventions and a city commission candidate.

★ ★ ★

This lecture is open to the public without charge.

'Home Rule' Discussed at Meeting

Daniel T. Murphy Jr., chairman of the Oakland County Board of Auditors, gave the pros and cons of home rule at the Tuesday dinner meeting of the Land-O-Oak Chapter of the American Business Women's Association.

★ ★ ★

Murphy discussed county administration and government and the role of Oakland County at the gathering in the Kingsley Inn.

★ ★ ★

At the business meeting following, the newly installed president, Mrs. John Tomlips, took over the gavel and Mrs. Emil Du Roska, secretary for Ford Motor Co., tractor division, gave a talk on secretarial work.

★ ★ ★

The chapter will hold its "Hand of Friendship" tea this Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Mayfair Room at the Waldron Hotel. Ten members are planning to attend the district meeting in Kalamazoo, May 22-24.

★ ★ ★

Guest for the meeting was Sharon Carpenter.

The C. Martin Wolvertons of Edmore Street announce the engagement of their daughter Mary Beth to Evert Allan Cleveland, son of Grover Cleveland of Ortonville and Mrs. Lawrence Johnson of Flint. The bride-elect, who attended Michigan State University, is planning a fall wedding.

Talk Diet to Fashionettes

Elizabeth Ross, a dietician formerly with Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital, spoke to members of the Fashionette club at their Tuesday evening meeting in the Adah Shelly library.

★ ★ ★

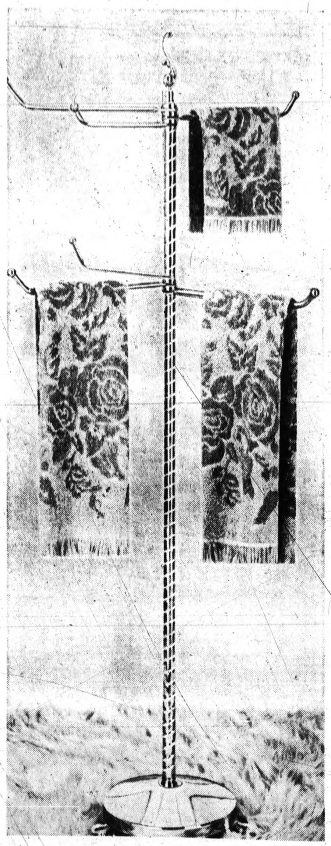
Miss Ross stressed repeatedly throughout her talk that correct diet with correct calorie count should give the dieter weight loss.

★ ★ ★

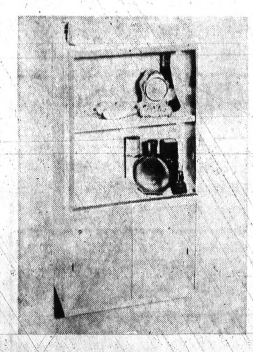
Crash diets, exercise and drugs will bring the same results. But even with these the dieter must in the end resort to correct diet and correct calorie count to maintain her loss.

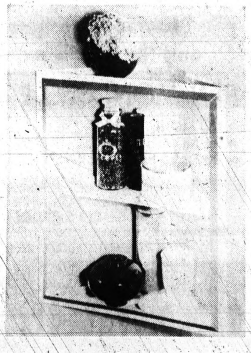
★ ★ ★

Mrs. Robert Hoffman, vice president of the group, introduced Miss Ross.

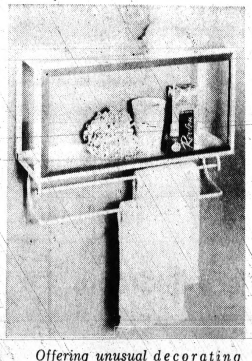


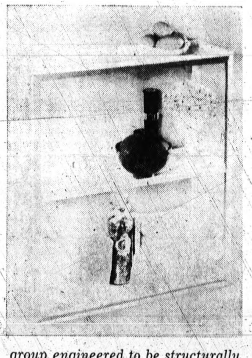
Towel Tree—Introducing a new elegance in towel care, this Towel Tree offers the first truly stylish and compact way of displaying guest and family towels. It can double as a dryer for lingerie. With six swivel arms permitting various arrangements, the whole unit fits snugly into a corner of the smallest bath. Forty-five inches tall, it comes in brass or a chrome swirl pattern. Available in bath shops or wherever housewares are sold.





Colored wall units for the bathroom can be bought to match your towels. A new line of cabinets available in bath shops or wherever housewares are sold will hold all the items that need to be stored and add a decorative note as well. At the left is a three-shelf unit with sliding doors below. A corner shelf is shown at the right.





Offering unusual decorating possibilities are these Color Duet cabinets for the bathroom. A double shelf with towel bar (left) can fit into a small space. The triple shelf unit at the right is one of a modular group engineered to be structurally interchanged, stacked or coupled together. Colors coordinate with those of major bath towel manufacturers.

The engagement is announced of Margaret Ann Brewer, daughter of Mrs. Elbertine Brewer of Flemings Lake Road to Henry J. Wiltfang Jr., son of the Henry J. Wiltfangs of Midland Street, Waterford Township.

Money Mistrust Mars Second Marriage

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

Dear Miss Feeley:

We would appreciate your help in deciding what would be a fair money arrangement in a second marriage.

MARY FEELEY

We are 46 and 48 years of age, each with one son—19 and 16. My fiance has invested $7,000 in a house and furniture, with a $12,000 debt still to be paid. And $2,500 for his son's education, which also will have to be added. His income is $8,000.

Both he and his son golf and bowl each week in season, and when the season is right, do both in the same week — which is a big expense.

I have $7,100 in cash, $6,500 in stocks and bonds, $3,000 interest in my mother's house which is worth $16,500 and which I will inherit. My son has just started his second year in college.

My fiancee suggested pooling our funds, which I don't care to do as I feel I have more than he has. I still have my son to support and eddcate, though my fiance will contribute $10 a week to his support.

MORE SECURE

I feel more secure if I have something to fall back on in case of trouble. I thought in a year when the marriage has somewhat proven itself, I would put an amount into the house. At present the house would be in his name, and we would have a joint account on his earnings.

I am giving up a $5,600 a year 19-year-old job — which is okay. I love the man — except I can't figure out how to be fair to him and myself, too. He knows only I have more money than he. I haven't told him how much. There seems to have been money problems between him and his ex.

What is your opinion?
Mrs. H.J.T., Dearborn, Mich.

* * *

Dear Mrs. T.:

My opinion is that you're thinking of a business deal, rather than a marriage. You sound resentful already about the money your fiance spends on golf and bowling with his son.

You're wary about telling him how much money you actually have. You're influenced in your thinking by the fact that he and his "ex" had money differences.

Do you really believe, Mrs. T., that this attitude could possibly be the basis for a happy union? Or that your son would be able to accept this man in the role of father, knowing as he inevitably would, that you yourself have reservations about his sincerity.

* * *

As for allowing your marriage a year to "prove" itself—where did you get that whimsical marriage a success for the rest of your life.

FINANCIAL SECURITY

However, since financial security seems uppermost in your mind, think twice about giving up that steady job. Is it possible to hang on to it after marriage? Of course, you can tap the savings and stocks for the completion of your son's education, since they have never been mentioned.

If you prefer to handle your own finances confidently and separately, you'd better start out filing a separate income tax return. On a joint return your husband would automatically have to know your business affairs.

Sheer Dress, Deeper Hem

When making dresses, from a sheer material, sew in a wide hem, at least three inches. The skirt will hang better and the hem will hide the lower edge of the slip which would show through one thickness of cloth.

Blue Bronze Believed Better

The delicate green or blue coloring which bronze pieces acquire over the years is regarded as highly desirable.

* * *

To preserve this finish, avoid polish. For cleanliness, wash only with warm soap or detergent suds, using a soft cloth or brush.

Cook Experiments With Clam Chowder

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

It has been only a few years that many grocery stores carried canned clams. But now that you can get them easily, why not try clam chowder for a Lenten dinner?

Mrs. Walter Frederiksen and her husband, both amateur photographers, tasted a clam chowder out west. On their return Mrs. Frederiksen experimented until she achieved a similar dish.

Church work, fancy work and five grandchildren keep our cook of the day busy.

EASY CLAM CHOWDER
By Mrs. W. Frederiksen

5 medium potatoes, diced
1 medium onion, diced
1 quart water
1 cup condensed cream of mushroom soup
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 can (10 oz.) minced clams

Cook onions and potatoes in water until tender. Add other ingredients with clams added at the last. Add salt to taste, but be wary of too much.

Heat thoroughly, but do not boil. Makes 4 servings.

What's everyone's favorite color? Scientists say blue. Next in order of preference are red, green, yellow and orange. So if you're decorating a "please everyone" room try blue. Keep in mind, too, when buying any color for draperies, slipcovers and bedspreads that the vat dyed materials will be the most resistant to sunfading and colors will stay true through normal family wash and drycleaning.

Tests Valueless If Not Corrected

By SUSAN LIGHT

DEAR MRS. LIGHT: My son, a junior in high school, will get his report card this week. During the six-week grading period, he has taken 10 tests in various subjects and has had only two returned. Some of those not returned were given over three weeks ago. In more than one case, he took a second test without knowing what he had missed on the first one.

Do I have a legitimate complaint? — Interested Father.

ANSWER. Yes. A teacher may be excused for not grading papers when swamped by other duties, but a delay of three weeks, except under unusual circumstances, is carrying things too far. Giving a second test covering material left unchecked on the previous one is inexcusable.

Mention the matter to the principal, expressing your concern about this unfortunate practice, but without involving any particular teacher. He will undoubtedly bring it to the attention of the entire faculty with appropriate suggestions that they mend their ways if the shoe fits.

DEAR MRS. LIGHT: My fourth grader is a whiz in arithmetic, but he would rather use his own methods of solving problems than the methods his teacher requires. Even though his answers are correct, he often gets a low grade because of not following the approved steps. Is this fair? — Wondering.

ANSWER: Yes and no. But be glad your child is ingenious.

Perhaps his teacher lacks imagination. More likely, she is trying to teach him to conform first and perform later. It may be necessary to learn the approved methods as a foundation for future problem-solving.

Encourage him to follow his teacher's methods exactly at school, but to show you at home other ways the problems may be solved.

Suds Brushes

If the "little" brushes you use for powder, eye make-up, and other cosmetics have built up an oily residue or "goo," soak them briefly in a small bowl of cleaning fluid. Follow up by washing them promptly in plenty or hot soap or detergent suds and rinses.

Soda on Shoes Restores White

Once the youngest member of the family learns to walk and run, keeping those cute white shoes clean becomes a real chore. Often it comes to the point where even several coats of white polish will scarcely mask the scuffed black toes.

Then, what the shoes really need is a gentle scouring. Ordinary household soda applied on a slightly dampened cellulose sponge will do the trick nicely.

You will even be surprised at how much white leather you uncover under the black marks.

Mirror Makes Job More Easy

To avoid a twisted neck while washing underneath wall cabinets, place a large mirror flat on the kitchen counter so the reflection shows up food splatters and grimy spots which need to be sudsed off.

This trick also aids cleanliness when washing the undersides of lower shelves.

Pontiac School Affairs

No Decision on Duty-Free Lunch for Teachers

Duty-free lunch periods for elementary teachers were among the unmet school needs reviewed last night by the Pontiac school board.

The board went through a lengthy list of staff study items that are not included in the recently approved 1964-65 preliminary operating budget.

Although the 23-item list was presented for study only, pending a report on the final income figures, the board approved the purchase of three additional buses at an estimated cost of $19,675.

A proposal that elementary teachers be relieved of lunchroom supervision and afterlunch playground duty was presented to the school board for the third straight year.

★ ★ ★

School administrators estimated it would cost about $40,000 to give all grade school teachers duty-free lunch periods.

THREE OR LESS

Supt. Dana P. Whitmer reported that in 14 schools teachers have three or less lunchroom duty days per month, and in 17 schools teachers have the same number of playground duty days per month.

He added that in a majority of schools, teachers have six or less duty days per month, while in five schools, teachers eat with their pupils and have a lunch duty each day.

A spokesman for teachers said the duty-free lunch period would help morale.

★ ★ ★

A suggestion to hire lay people to supervise lunchrooms and playgrounds was mentioned as a solution reached by the Avondale School District.

★ ★ ★

Board members generally favored the proposal, but no final decision was made.

Replacement of two 48-passenger buses, now at the seven-year limitation for state reimbursement of some of their costs, with two 60-passenger vehicles was okayed by the board.

Cost for the two buses was put at $11,600.

In addition, the school board approved purchase of an additional 30-passenger bus to transport physically handicapped and emotionally disturbed children.

★ ★ ★

Administrators explained that the bus for the handicapped pupils will be needed to transport 90 new students in 1964-65.

Other staff studies reviewed by the board included new textbooks, equipment and maintenance requirements.

The largest single item called for replacement of a boiler and construction of a separate boiler room at Wever Elementary School.

Total cost of this project was estimated at $50,000.

Whitmer placed the costs of the entire staff study package at $275,000. He said that a priority list would be established before final income figures are available around June 1.

★ ★ ★

In other business, the school board approved the sale of 15 acres of school district land near Bethune Elementary School.

URBAN RENEWAL

The property was bought by Charles L. Langs, city urban renewal developer.

Langs, who plans to construct permanent multiple housing on the site, will pay $25,000 for the land.

The property is west of Lake Street and south of the school. About three acres of the 15 comprise a portion of the actual school site, while the rest is vacant.

The sale is subject to Langs being able to secure rezoning of the property and FHA approval for his housing project.

8,797 Voters Lopped Off City Lists in '63

Last year was an off-year for elections, and the city lost 8,797 registered voters, according to figures compiled by City Clerk Olga Barkeley.

★ ★ ★

There were only 12,195 votes cast by Pontiac residents in 1963, compared to 42,572 the year before.

Last year there was only one election. That was the vote on Michigan's new state constitution April 1.

The preceding year there were four elections—two primaries and two general elections. City commissioners were elected in the spring, and state offices filled in the fall.

★ ★ ★

Although 1964 isn't off to a good start in the voter registration end of things, it may well be the biggest election year in a long time for Pontiac.

FASTER PACE

Chances are this year's total vote will easily top the last presidential election year. With more than 12,000 votes cast in a special election Jan. 13, the city is already going faster than '60.

It is also interesting to note that while the number of registered voters dwindled from 38,601 in 1962 to 29,804 last year (and remains at that level now), the people are doing more voting now.

In the 1962 city commission general election there were 10,316 votes cast in Pontiac's seven districts.

In the March 2 commission primary, with only six districts voting (some 26,000 eligible voters), there were 10,572 votes cast this year.

★ ★ ★

While observers feel a voting public makes for a healthy government, they are still concerned about the drastic drop in registered voters.

TWO YEAR PERIOD

The main reason for the drop seems to be the new constitutional provision which makes it necessary to vote at least once every two years to remain a registered voter.

That law went into effect Jan. 1. Previously, a citizen had to vote once in four years to remain eligible.

Mrs. Barkeley mailed notices and renewal forms last November to 9,532 Pontiac residents who hadn't voted in two years.

★ ★ ★

Of these, 3,007 were returned and reinstated, but 6,525 never came back and were canceled. In addition last year there were 451 transfers processed, 381 registrations canceled due to death or moving from the city and 273 new registrations issued.

VOTER TALLY

Last year's 29,804 registered voter tally is well below the last off-year total (1961) when there were some 37,500.

It leaves the city with 11,787 fewer eligible voters on the books now, than were registered in the last presidential election year.

The next chance Pontiac residents will get to vote is April 20, when city commissioners are chosen.

Anyone who isn't among the current voting force has until March 23 at 8 p.m. to register for that trip to the polls.

Lung Diseases Put on Display

Victims Back Case Against Cigarettes

LANSING (AP) — Five victims of lung disease stood before a public hearing on health Thursday as human exhibits in the case against cigarette smoking.

The five told the House Committee on Public Health they had smoked one to two packages of cigarettes a day for 30 to 50 years.

Then, they told of their ailments: Three had lungs removed because of cancer and the others suffered disabling emphysema, a collapse of the lung or stretching of air sacs in the lung.

Their names were not reported.

THOSE INCLUDED

The victims included a housewife, age 39; a branch bank manager, 51; a United Fund worker, 60; a plasterer, 62, and a painter and decorator, 65.

The subject of the hearing was a set of antismoking bills. One would ban the purchase or use of tobacco by anyone younger than 17. The other would provide for licensing all tobacco retailers at fees of $15 which also would apply to cigarette vending machines.

Rep. Edson Root, R-Bangor, chairman of the committee, is chief sponsor of both measures.

Dr. George Moore, director of Roswell Park Memorial Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., argued that more people are killed by cigarettes than by cars.

THE FINDINGS

Cigarette smoking is "addictive, habituating disease," he said, and research has shown "tobacco is cancer-producing, whether it is burned or unburned."

Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, said the problem is important enough to warrant action by his department—but that he needs the prestige and force of legislative backing.

The state's present laws "are mockery and will continue to be as long as any kid can walk up to a machine and buy cigarettes."

Hoffa Has 10 Days to File Appeal

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) —Teamsters President James R. Hoffa, saying, "I will appeal," left Chattanooga Thursday after being sentenced to eight years in prison and fined $10,000 for jury-tampering.

U.S. District Judge Frank Wilson, who presided at the seven-week trial, sentenced the stocky labor leader for being "convicted of seeking to corrupt the administration of justice."

* * *

Three other men convicted with Hoffa drew prison terms of three years each, and defense lawyer Jacques Schiffer of New York City was sentenced to 60 days and fined $1,000 for criminal contempt of court.

Defense lawyers have 10 days in which to seek appeals to the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati.

ANOTHER TRIAL

Hoffa faces a federal trial in Chicago April 27 on charges of misusing union pension funds.

Hoffa was sentenced to four years on each of two counts. The maximum under the law was 5 years and $5,000 for each count.

All the defendants, and Schiffer, are free on bond pending appeal.

Mrs. Katherine Claus, public health nutritionist and Mrs. Dorris Donaldson, public health nurse, will teach the series of classes.

* * *

Persons attending the classes must have written approval of their physician.

Topics to be taught include introduction to diabetes, proper diet and insulin technique.

Tenure for Teachers Passes Legislature

LANSIN G(AP) —Mandatory statewide teacher tenure — meaning greater job security for some 50,000 Michigan public school teachers — was on its way to becoming law today.

On a 61-41 vote, the House Thursday approved legislation initiated by the 6,700-member Michigan Education Association with 325,000 petition signatures and passed earlier by the Senate, 20-11.

Tenure will provide that no teacher can be fired without cause after a two-year probationary period. It will go into effect 90 days after the legislature adjourns.

It will replace a 1937 law under which 30,000 teachers in 59 of Michigan's 1,500 school districts, most in populated urban areas have tenure on a local-option basis.

RIGHT OF APPEAL

Tenure gives dismissed teachers the right of appeal to the State Tenure Commission and thence to the courts.

The MEA proposal drew support both from lawmakers who favored statewide tenure and others who opposed it but preferred that it be enacted by the legislature rather than risk putting to a referendum Nov. 3.

Enactment by referendum would have made it harder for the legislature to amend the law in future years.

As the proposal passed the House, some legislators were talking of postponing its effective date and of amending or repealing it in 1965.

SEES DISADVANTAGE

Rep. George Montgomery, D-Detroit, a school teacher, said statewide mandatory tenure may work to the disadvantage of smaller districts.

He suggested that by postponing the final adjournment date of the legislature, now set for May 29, until sometime in June, the effective date of tenure could be pushed past Labor Day, and beyond the beginning of school in the fall.

★ ★ ★

The effect of this, he told the House in a floor speech, would be to delay its becoming effective until 1965.

"Some school boards might need this extra year to sort over their teachers," Montgomery said.

"I therefore support a late final adjournment to postpone the 90 days until after Labor Day."

Lawmakers discussed amendments for 1965 which would limit to some extent the tenure law.

One such change would be to restrict it to schools with less than 12 grades or less than 10 teachers, a provision which would exclude many rural schools.

Another idea—in use in Ohio—would be to require teachers to obtain their permanent teaching certificates before becoming eligible.

MAINTAIN POWER

Rep. Milton Knabusch, R-Monroe, said the latter idea convinced him to vote for the proposal instead of against it because by passing it, the legislature would maintain the power to amend by a simple majority.

Rep. Henry Hogan, R-Birmingham, said he believes chances for amending the law next year are remote.

★ ★ ★

"If the teachers can push it through the legislature they can keep it from being amended," he said. "They are one of the most persistent lobbying groups around here."

The tenure plan passed the House despite last-ditch opposition.

SOME ABSTAIN

Rep. Paul Chandler, R-Livonia, failed in a series of parliamentary moves to prevent a vote and abstained from voting, along with Rep. John Sobieski, D-Detroit.

One Democrat and 40 Republicans opposed while 48 Democrats and 13 Republicans voted in favor.

TWO-YEAR TOSS-UP — After tying with Homer Hight in Monday's election in Oxford, John C. Flumerfelt (right) pulled a two-year council term out of the hat. Hight was awarded a one-year post. The pair tallied 159 votes each in Monday's election, tying for second place and making it necessary to draw lots. In Oxford, the first and second place vote-getters won two-year terms on the council, while the third place candidate, Hight, got a one-year slot. Village Clerk Mrs. Patricia Tyrrell was left holding the hat.

S. Lyon Ballot Has 3rd Entry

8.5-Mill School Levy to Confront Voters

SOUTH LYON—The board of education last night put a third request for money on the April 11 ballot here.

South Lyon Community School District trustees will ask voters to increase to 8.5 mills the levy for operation of the schools. The current 7-mill levy expires this year.

The question joins on the ballot the high school issue which will be making its third appearance in a year, with variations.

Completing the trio is a proposed $600,000 bond issue for construction of additions. Vote on this was called for by 266 petitioners in February.

Essential differences in the forthcoming high school proposition and the one defeated two months ago are the amount of money requested and the number of students to be accommodated.

CAPACITY OF 800

The $1.6 million high school which voters will consider April 11 would house 800 students. The question is basically like the one turned down by the electorate last June by a 592-396 vote.

Supporters believe, however, it is basically different from the January question in which $1.3 million was sought for a 650-student building. That one was defeated by a 783-541 vote.

The 4-3 board of education vote which placed the question on the ballot is identical to the one on the January election.

Favoring it are Harry Colestock, J. W. Erwin, William Markham and Donald Riddering. Opponents are Mrs. Rita Chenoweth, Alfred Ueker and President Wilford Heidt.

"We're just as far apart as we ever were," Heidt commented this morning.

NEWS OF THE AREA

Court Order Sought in Shelby Twp. Rift

SHELBY TOWNSHIP — Sand, gravel, noise and electricity don't mix well here.

However, they are being brought together as crucial ingredients of a Macomb County Circuit Court suit filed by Arlington Transit Mix Plant against Shelby Township and its electrical inspector.

Arlington and Robert Halliwell, owners of Arlington Transit Mix at 46992 Van Dyke, are charging that Donald Sparks is refusing to inspect his own work. The company wants to force the check by a writ of mandamus.

★ ★ ★

A second phase of the suit contends that the township should issue the firm the necessary permit allowing it to begin operation of its new plant.

'CAN'T GET PERMIT'

"We're operating the old plant now," Arlington Halliwell said today. "We're all set to turn the juice on in the new plant but can't get a permit."

In the company's complaint, officials say they hired Sparks as a private contractor to do the electrical work on their new facility. They contend the work was done with full knowledge of Township Supervisor Lorin E. Evans.

Prior to completion of the job, according to the formal charges a group of residents living near the plant gave the township board "highly emotional and often irrational arguments in objecting to proposed operation of the facilities. . ."

★ ★ ★

It was after that meeting, according to Halliwell, that the township refused to allow an electrical inspection and permit.

CLAIM VIOLATION

Township officials claim installation of the new equipment is a violation of the zoning code, and it should not be allowed to be put in use.

On the other side of the fence, company officials argue that the plant has been there since 1938 and under nonconforming use provisions alterations or improvements can be made for the public health, safety and welfare.

New facilities satisfy these provisions, according to Halliwell.

★ ★ ★

The company and neighboring residents have been at loggerheads for more than a year.

BROUGHT TO HEAD

The problem was brought to a head when Arlington Halliwell was arrested after a formal complaint was filed protesting his plant's operations.

Halliwell, who pleaded no contest last month, was charged with creating noise and dust at the plant.

The owner claims the new structure will eliminate 98 per cent of the problem if he can only get permission to start operating it.

TAKES OVER — Former Romeo Police Chief Edgar Welsch took over his new duties as village president last night. He and three new council members were successful sticker candidates in the February primary — all of whom were elected in the general election Monday. The council's first official act was to restore the clerk's salary, reduced in January to $15 per meeting, to the previous level of $4,250 a year.

Church to Hold Banquet to Spur Building Plans

UNION LAKE — Mandon Lake Community Church will launch a "new program of progress" in its educational building plans with a fellowship banquet Monday.

★ ★ ★

The 6:30 p. m. event will be held in the church parlor. Music will be provided by the Olsen Ensemble.

A program for children under 12 will include a pizza party, "Gospel magic" performed by Murial Linton and a talk by the world's smallest preacher.

★ ★ ★

Kenneth Thibo is general chairman of the banquet. Those assisting him include Mrs. Ed LeGault, prospect, and Mrs. Jay Stafford and Mrs. Gil Salkeld, arrangements.

Despite Opposition

Troy Adopts Civil Service Code

TROY—The City Commission last night presented, discussed and adopted a civil service ordinance despite a large delegation opposed to the city's plan.

The city's move was made following a public hearing at Troy High School, attended by about 100 residents. It passed the ordinance by a 6-1 vote, with Commissioner Clifford Sutermeister Jr. dissenting.

Although the meeting was staged to explain the city-backed civil service code, much time was spent discussing a special state law which provides civil service for police and firemen if the voters in a community accept it.

★ ★ ★

The ordinance adopted last night will become effective in 10 days, or upon publication.

STILL SCHEDULED

The state act still is scheduled to be voted on in the April 6 election. It was placed on the ballot after more than 1,000 residents signed petitions ordering a vote.

Civil Service status for city employes has been a controversial topic since last July, when former Police Chief David E. Gratopp was fired.

Although the city's ordinance was adopted and will be instituted, should the state act receive voter endorsement both programs could be put into effect.

★ ★ ★

A study committee set up to analyze all civil service plans strongly supported civil service in general and recommended against the state act.

POWERFUL BOARD

The city plan establishes much power in a five-member Civil Service Board, which is set up by the commission. Many of the audience members at last night's hearing objected to the board, arguing that the city at large should have a voice in determining who sits on the judging body.

Under terms of the ordinance adopted last night city employes have job protection and a right to a hearing and explanation of reasons, should they be fired.

Job classification definitions and procedures for hiring and dismissal are also included in the plan.

The citizens committee which recommended the city plan opposed the act for several reasons.

LAW UNDESIRABLE

Committee members contend adoption of the state law is undesirable because it is state law, changable only by state legislation — it covers only police and firemen — and it is "ambiguous and difficult to interpret."

The citizens study group also pointed out that the state act limits local administration's ability to select and promote qualified personnel, limits employment to persons who have lived in Troy for at least one year, and calls for promotions to be based solely upon results of examinations.

Style Show at Avondale High School

The adult and student groups of American Field Service at Avondale High School are sponsoring a showing of spring and summer fashions Tuesday at the school.

Models, both students and professionals, will be displaying current styles at the event.

Proceeds will be used to raise funds for the Avondale student exchange program.

General chairman for the show is Mrs. Dan Vander Broek, 2540 Devondale, Avon Township. The Avondale student group is in charge of stage arrangements.

★ ★ ★

Tickets are being sold throughout the school district and will also be available at the door.

Birmingham-Troy Post Plans Dinner, Dance

TROY — Charles Edwards Post No. 14 of Birmingham and Troy will celebrate its birthday with a dinner at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow to be followed by dancing at 9 p.m.

A unique style show also will be a feature of the event, which will also honor past presidents and commanders.

No Water, No School

AVON TOWNSHIP — The 718 pupils at Meadowbrook Elementary School had an unexpected holiday today.

Room mothers were kept busy last night informing parents that because of no water, classes would not be held.

Principal Charles Schoch said the pump on the water supply system was out of order, but that repairs were being made so that the school could reopen Monday.

Easter Cantata at 2 Churches

ORION TOWNSHIP — The combined choirs of two area churches will present their Easter cantata, "The Crucifixion," at one church this Sunday and at the other March 22.

The congregation of Paint Creek Community Methodist Church, Collins Road, Goodison, will see the cantata this Sunday evening.

It will be presented again March 22 at Howarth Methodist Church, Silverbell and Bald Mountain roads here.

The time of the programs, which are open to the public, is 7:30 p. m. both Sundays.

Philip Johnson of Paint Creek Church is directing the vocalists. Jane Collins plays the organ accompaniment.

To Hear Talk on Malaysia

AVON TOWNSHIP—Lee Seng Lee, an exchange student from Malaysia, will take members and guests of the Stiles School PTA on a verbal tour of his homeland at Thursday's 8 p. m. meeting.

Lee will be answering questions, as well as describing his native customs, schools and country as he strums a guitar.

Auto Stocks Among '63's Most Active

NEW YORK (AP) — Chrysler and other auto companies dominated the top of the list of most active stocks on the New York Stock Exchange in 1963, the exchange reported today.

* * *

Chrysler was the most active, with 23 million of its shares changing hands during the year. American Motors was third with 11.6 million, Ford Motor Co. was fifth with 10.3 million, General Motors was sixth with 10.27 million and Studebaker was seventh with 8.9 million shares.

In 1962, only one auto firm was among the top seven. That was General Motors, which was second.

INFLUENCED SALES

Two 7 - million - car years, with prospects of a third, influenced sale of auto stocks in 1963.

Other leaders in 1963 included Sperry Rand, second with 17.3 million shares, U.S. Steel, fourth with 10.3 million; Brunswick Corp., eighth with 8.5 million; Sunray DX Oil Co., ninth with 8.4 million; and American Photocopy, 10th with 8.3 million.

Pineapple is the most popular of the canned fruits in the U.S. today but canned peaches rate second by only a slight difference.

Both Sides of Dallas Trial

Outline of Case For and Against Ruby

By The Associated Press

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Following are the main contentions of both sides in the trial of Jack Ruby on charges of murdering Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President Kennedy.)

Following are the main contentions of both sides in the trial of Jack Ruby on charges of murdering Lee Harvey Oswald accused assassin of President Kennedy.

THE PROSECUTION

Specific issue of temporary insanity:

Dr. Robert Stubblefield Dallas psychiatrist: "He would know the difference between right and wrong and know the consequences of his act."

* * *

Dr. John T. Holbrook, Dallas psychiatrist: "I felt he did know the difference between right and wrong and did know the nature and consequences of his act at that time."

Premeditation issue:

Police Sgt. P. T. Dean of Ruby shortly after Ruby's arrest: "He said something to the effect that he thought about this two nights prior when he had seen Lee Harvey Oswald (at the police station)."

ASKED ABOUT OSWALD

Ira Walker WBAP-TV technician: Testified that Ruby twice came to his sound truck after 10:30 a.m. the day Oswald died and asked, "Have they brought him down yet?" (Oswald was shot at 11:21 a.m.).

* * *

Officer D. R. Archer quoting Ruby: "I intended to shoot him three times but you-all (police) moved in so fast I couldn't get the other two away."

* * *

Police Sgt. D. V. Harkness and Wes Wise, station KRLD-TV newsman: Both testified they saw Ruby outside the Dallas County Jail a day before the Oswald shooting when it was rumored that Oswald was to be taken from the city jail.

Psychomotor epilepsy (organic brain damage) issue:

Dr. Sheff Olinger, Dallas neurologist, asked if brain wave tests on Ruby indicate organic brain damage: "Not in my opinion . . . there was a rather nonspecific test and did not positively indicate any clinic disease."

NO EPILEPSY

Dr. Holbrook: "In my opinion, this man does not have psychomotor epilepsy."

Dr. Earl Walker, Baltimore neurologist: "There was no indication from these tracings (brain wave test records) that this individual had psychomotor epilepsy at this time."

Motive:

Officer T. D. McMillon, quoting Capt. Glen King, who in turn was quoting Ruby: "Somebody had to do it. Somebody had to take care of it. You guys couldn't do it."

* * *

Sgt. Dean, quoting Ruby: "I just want the world to know that Jews have guts."

Dr. Walter Bromberg, New York psychiatrist: "I'd say he thought of himself as a martyr . . . he wanted to rescue the Jewish people from the charge that they don't have guts . . . thinks he's the savior of his race, a messiah."

THE DEFENSE

Specific issue of temporary insanity:

Dr. Manfred Guttmacher, Baltimore psychiatrist: "I don't think he was capable of distinguishing between right and wrong or knew the nature and quality of his act."

DID NOT KNOW

Dr. Walter Bromberg, New York psychiatrist: "It is my opinion that Jack Ruby did not know the difference between right and wrong or the nature or consequences of his act."

Premeditation issue:

Police statement (introduced by defense) quoting Ruby: "I couldn't have planned this thing. I couldn't have timed it so perfect. I just got there as Oswald happened to be coming out."

* * *

Dr. Manfred Guttmacher, Baltimore psychiatrist: "He (Ruby) told me the shooting was due to a sudden, momentary impulse and that killing Oswald had not occurred to him previously . . . all his defenses crumbled and his hostile, aggressive feelings came to the fore and focused on this one individual with the homicide resulting."

Dr. Martin Towler, Galveston psychiatrist: Ruby was subject to blackout seizures during which he "would perform as an automaton."

SENT TELEGRAM

Western Union employes testified Ruby sent a telegram at 11:17 a.m. from the telegraph office a block away from the jail basement, while Oswald was shot at 11:21 a.m., indicating he went directly from the telegraph office to the basement without advance planning.

Psychomotor epilepsy (organic brain damage) issue:

Dr. Towler: "It is my opinion that the subject suffered a seizure disorder, a type of disorder that most often falls under a psychomotor variant (of epilepsy."

* * *

Dr. Roy Schafer, Yale psychologist: "I was certain some kind of brain damage was present. I have come to the conclusion that he did have organic brain damage and most likely the specific nature of it was psychomotor epilepsy."

Motive:

The defense contends that Ruby had no motive. It claims that he became depressed and emotional because of the assassination of President Kennedy—a mental state occuring in Ruby at various periods for years. It contends the sight of Oswald triggered a blackout because of his claimed psychomotor epilepsy. Because he was in a blackout, he could not have acted with a motive.

Stassen Is Optimistic About California Race

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Harold E. Stassen, who plans to make California's Republican presidential primary a three-man contest, says he's optimistic about his chances for the GOP nomination.

* * *

Stassen, 56, a former governor of Minnesota, told a news conference yesterday that his supporters are completing the paperwork to put him in the June 2 California primary.

Cassidorus, a sixth century Roman scholar, was among the first to introduce the cultivation of learning into the common life of a monastery. Under his direction, monks copied ancient manuscripts.

Films Most Important to Kazan

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

NEW YORK — Elia Kazan's office is a paneled cave a few steps off and four flights up from Times Square.

THOMAS

You get the feeling that his roots are deep in the asphalt of Broadway. Indeed he has dedicated much of his future to the fortunes of Lincoln Center, a revolutionary attempt to establish a true repertory theater amid the commercialism of the New York stage.

Yet he has insisted that his activities for Lincoln Center must not preclude his making of films.

"That is one of the things I made sure," he said. "Films are the most important thing in my life, especially now that I have started making movies about my family. If the stage interfered, I would give up the stage."

FIRST FEATURE

The reason for his resolution is the film trilogy he has undertaken. The first feature, "America America," tells of his uncle's struggles to emigrate from Turkey to the United States. The second will show his uncle 10 years later and the third at the end of his life.

Kazan was disturbed but not discouraged because business of "America America" has not been exceptional despite generally excellent reviews and four Academy nominations. It was named for best picture, best direction, writing by Kazan and art direction.

★ ★ ★

"I'm disappointed, and certainly Warner Brothers is," he said. "They have given it the best of treatment, but maybe it just isn't a picture for general release. Maybe, like some other of my pictures, it should get art-house treatment.

"The title 'America America' seems to be a problem. It doesn't seem to convey anything to the public. I understand it will be changed abroad; in England they would think it was an American propaganda picture."

NEXT TWO FILMS

Kazan said he would go ahead with the writing of the next two films regardless of the first one's reception. He hasn't changed his plan — "though Warners may have second thoughts."

The director plans a rest before he embarks on any more work. He has directed two plays for Lincoln Center this season—the controversial "After the Fall" by Arthur Miller and S. N. Behrman's "But for Whom Charlie," which opened Thursday night. During this time he suffered the death of his wife.

He has a high regard for "After the Fall," which some have criticized as being too close to Miller's life with Marilyn Monroe.

★ ★ ★

"I think it is fine and I believe it will get better, as Arthur continues to work with it," said Kazan. "Certainly it has caused a great deal of comment. Together with 'The Deputy,' it has brought the theater back into the life of the city—which is what we were after."

U.S. to Airlift Troops to Iran

Airborne Unit Set for Middle East Exercise

WASHINGTON (AP) — A brigade of U.S. Army paratroopers is expected to fly to Iran next month in a new long-range demonstration of American ability to reinforce an ally living in Russia's shadow.

Informed sources said today Air Force transports will carry the Army soldiers roughly 6,000 miles to a linkup with Iranian troops. They will maneuver together for a few days.

Iran is one of this country's more vulnerable allies, and there were indications the drill is intended as much for diplomatic as for military reasons.

It was understood the brigade will be drawn from the 101st Airborne Division based at Ft. Campbell, Ky., and will carry along its heavy equipment.

SAME EXERCISE

Going to Iran as part of the same exercise will be a composite strike force of Air Force jet fighters, reconnaissance planes and other craft, sources said.

Discussions reportedly have been under way with nations over which the airlift will travel on its way to the Middle East.

This will be the third big airlift of U.S. troops overseas since last fall.

The first was the movement of the entire 16,000-man 2nd Armored Division from Ft. Hood, Tex., to West Germany, a distance of about 5,600 miles.

The second airlift was the 5,000 mile flight last January of an infantry brigade of the 25th "Tropic Lightning" Division from Hawaii to Okinawa.

Seaholm Ousted on Eligibility Rule

By FLETCH SPEARS

Birmingham Seaholm was knocked from the state high school basketball tournament late yesterday by an eligibility ruling handed down by a five-man committee of the Representative Council of Michigan's High School Athletic Association (MHSAA).

★ ★ ★

The committee, headed by Charles E. Forsythe, state director of athletics, was hastily assembled at Seaholm Wednesday afternoon after state officials were notified that a member of the Maples' basketball team had participated in a 'pick-up' game Feb. 23.

The group emerged from the two-hour session with the announcement that Seaholm would drop from the tournament and forfeit the Wednesday night 77-57 win over Redford St. Mary.

The Maples were slated to play Detroit Northern tonight at Ferndale for the regional title. Instead, the St. Mary five will oppose Northern.

Involved in the eligibility ruling is Jeff Meyer, the Maples' 6-5 senior center.

PRACTICE SESSION

According to Seaholm officials, Meyer participated in a practice session with players from a church league at St. Paul Catholic Church in Royal Oak Feb. 23.

"Meyer confirmed it," Seaholm principal Ross A. Wagner said. "He said he did not know he was violating a rule. He didn't think he was doing anything wrong."

Wagner described the incident as a 'pick-up' game. It wasn't a scheduled practice, Wagner said.

Seaholm officials were notified of the 'pick-up' game early Wednesday by a person they declined to name.

They immediately informed the MHSAA and the committee meeting followed.

Present at the session were Forsythe, Henry Geisler of Morenci, president of MHSAA, Jim Stout and Ralph Owens of Detroit and Ernest Buckholtz of Mount Clemens. All are members of the Representative Council.

Redford St. Mary was notified of the committee's decision prior to the game Wednesday evening but agreed to play it as scheduled.

Meyer did not participate in the contest.

★ ★ ★

The action against Seaholm was based on a 1946 state eligibility rule that prohibits a varsity athlete from participating in any practices or games other than those scheduled by his coach.

"And that means pick-up or anything else," Wagner said. "It's spelled out clearly in the rule."

Seaholm officials made the committee's ruling public last night.

The sudden announcement brought to a close a promising tournament tour for the Maples.

★ ★ ★

They finished the season in a tie with Ferndale for the Eastern Michigan League title and compiled a 12-3 season record.

The squad waltzed through district tournament competition on its own floor last week and the road ahead looked rosy.

Chiefs Play Mt. Clemens on Saturday

Regional Cage Title at Stake; Farmington Ousted, 77-60

By DON VOGEL

Pontiac Central will have to cool off some hot Bathers from Mt. Clemens if they are to remain Oakland County's last hope in the state basketball tournament.

The teams clash tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in Clarkston for the regional Class A crown.

★ ★ ★

Mt. Clemens tied for fourth place in the Eastern Michigan League, but the Bathers included strong Seaholm among one of their victims. They are in the throes of a hot shooting streak.

Farmington felt the heat last night as the Bathers canned five of their first six field goal attempts on the way to a 77-60 win before 1,100 fans at Clarkston.

★ ★ ★

The Bathers finished with a torrid 27 of 49 mark for 55 per cent. They shot about the same percentage while ripping Troy to win the Rochester district final.

Alan Hairston, one of the top guards in the state, canned 10 of his first 12 tries from the floor and went on to score 26 points against Farmington.

Hairston displayed a deadly outside jump shot. He has been consistent with it all season. The 5-11 senior is also noted for his ability to drive for the basket although he didn't have to against the Falcons.

PIVOT SHOT

Bill Ford, a 210-pound, 6-3 junior center, displayed a good pivot shot and turned in 19 points. John Lauri, although only 6 feet tall, can jump as high as Ford and is a strong rebounder.

★ ★ ★

The Bathers pressed both Troy and Farmington with good results but coach Herb Koepke said after the game he was worried about the PCH guards.

"We may have trouble with our pressing defense against them," he said.

Pontiac Central coach Fred Zittel is looking for his team to play its "first good game in three weeks."

"We've looked very sharp in practice," said the coach, "but we can't seem to reach the same form in a game. One of these nights it's going to happen. I hope it starts soon."

★ ★ ★

Farmington succeeded in penetrating the Mt. Clemens man-to-man defense, but faulty ball handling and some poor shooting hurt the Falcons in a comeback after they fell behind 24-10.

Neil Warriner, 6-8 center, paced the Falcons with 18 points. Bob Lorenz added 16.

Farmington's zone defense couldn't stop Hairston and when the Falcons moved out to harass the lithe guard, they left Ford open in the key.

Loss of EML Title Also Faces Maples

The eligibility bombshell that exploded Birmingham Seaholm's dream of a state Class A basketball title may also strip the Maples of their share of the Eastern Michigan League crown.

★ ★ ★

The Maples played the final loop game with center Jeff Meyer in uniform. Meyer was ruled ineligible yesterday by the Michigan High School Athletic Association (MHSAA).

Seaholm romped by East Detroit in the final game, 61-45, Feb. 28 to tie Ferndale for the EML championship.

★ ★ ★

"Because of Meyer's presence, it knocks us out of the tie," Frank Whitney, athletic director at Birmingham Public Schools, said today.

"We would forfeit. That's the rule. There's nothing to do but forfeit."

No formal ruling on such action had been made, but Whitney said it would be his recommendation to forfeit the East Detroit game, thus giving Ferndale the EML title.

★ ★ ★

Meyer, 17, a National Honor Society scholar, admitted taking part in a church practice game Feb. 23.

RULE STATED

MHSAA director Charles E. Forsythe said that Meyer's participation in the practice session violated a MHSAA rule which states:

★ ★ ★

"A student, who, after participating in any athletic competition not sponsored by his school in the same sport during the same season, shall be ineligible for the remainder of that season in that sport."

Forsythe said Meyer is ineligible for all future athletic competition at the school.

He also said that the ruling would take away Seaholm's district title which the squad won last week.

Rockets Aim at No. 1 Quintet

GP St. Paul Next for New Haven

The pollsters who select the top 10 basketball quintets in the state received a vote of confidence at Birmingham Seaholm last night.

Grosse Pointe St. Paul, the No. 1 ranked Class C squad in the AP poll, squeezed by Detroit St. Charles (No. 3) in a regional semifinal clash, 53-51.

★ ★ ★

The win earned the classy Grosse Pointe five a Saturday night date in the finals against New Haven, a 56-49 winner over Detroit St. Cecilia in the nightcap.

In a Class B contest at Pontiac Northern, Fraser edged Marysville, 67-64, and will move into the final game against Fenton tomorrow at 8 p.m.

St. Paul (19-2) played like the No. 1 team in the state during the opening half in building a comfortable 38-22 lead.

But St. Charles stormed back in the closing half and almost upset the pollsters.

★ ★ ★

The Dragons, losing their first contest in 19 outings, took the final shot with two seconds remaining but the ball bounced harmlessly off the backboard.

SLOW DOWN

The winners, backed by the scoring of Bob Martin (26) and Jim Bigham (16), tried to slow the game down in the second half and the strategy almost backfired.

St. Charles came up with 11 points in a row at the start of the third quarter to narrow the deficit to 38-33, but couldn't over take the GP unit.

Eugene Clark and Tony Gay shared scoring honors for the losers with 14 markers each.

New Haven again lived up to its billing as a second-half team.

The Rockets came from behind Tuesday to down Capac in the regional opener, and they traveled the same route in disposing of St. Cecilia last night.

★ ★ ★

The Rockets (19-2) trailed throughout the opening half but knotted the score at 34-34 with 2:45 remaining in the third period.

They took the lead for the first time, 36-34, on two free throws by forward Dwight Lee 46 seconds later and stayed on top.

Lee was the big man in the Rocket attack with 20 points, followed by the Belt brothers Larry (18) and Jack (10).

Jake Malicke led the losers with 21 points.

Fraser tossed in 19 points in the fourth quarter to nudge Marysville from the tournament trail.

The two squads were tied at the end of three periods, 48-48.

★ ★ ★

Dan Wojcik led a balanced Fraser attack with 23 points.

'M' Skaters Defeat Tech in Tourney

By The Associated Press

Michigan and Denver took the upper hand in the Western Collegiate Hockey Association playoffs Thursday night.

Wilfred Martin's second goal of the game gave the Wolverines a 4-3 victory over Michigan Tech at Ann Arbor. Denver whipped North Dakota 6-2 at Denver, Colo.

Michigan is host to Tech again tonight and North Dakota gets another crack at Denver. In case of a split in the playoffs, the winner is decided on total goals for the two games.

★ ★ ★

If favorites Michigan and Denver win, the two clubs will meet in Saturday night's finals either in Colorado or Ann Arbor. The playoffs determine the WCHA's two entrants in the NCAA tournament at Denver beginning March 19.

Sophomores Barry MacDonald and Mel Wakabayishi scored the other goals in Michigan's victory over Tech.

LA's Howard May Retire

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Big Frank Howard, the Los Angeles Dodgers' "strong boy" generally regarded as the mightiest hitter in baseball, is considering quitting the game at the age of 27 because of "personal problems."

The 6-foot-7, 245-pound Howard indicated in a letter to Los Angeles General Manager Buzzie Bavasi that he was through with baseball. However, Howard said at his Green Bay home Thursday he might stay in the game if his problems can be adjusted.

Howard plans to go the the Dodgers' training camp at Vero Beach, Fla. and confer with Bavasi as soon as he cleared up personal business. Bavasi said later he wants to meet with Howard and his wife, presumably at Green Bay.

NO MONEY PROBLEMS

Howard and Bavasi emphasized that money has nothing to do with the situation which is similar to that of Jackie Jensen, the Boston Red Sox outfielder who quit after the 1959 season, returned briefly in 1961 and then retired permanently. Jensen said he wanted to spend more time with his family, but he also feared air travel.

"This is a personal matter which I am not free to discuss," Howard told The Associated Press. "I can't imagine how my letter to Mr. Bavasi leaked out."

★ ★ ★

Howard, who received $22,000 from the Dodgers last season while collecting the fifth and final installment on a $108,000 bonus given him after his graduation from Ohio State, would go to Vero Beach to see Bavasi "as soon as I have taken care of some legalities here."

"He has been good enough to counsel me in the past and I hope that he will do so again," he said. "I do not even know myself what I will do. There is a possibility I might quit baseball, but there's a chance I might not."

Jay Departs With Troubles

By The Associated Press

Personal problems today caused Cincinnati pitcher to leave camp.

Joey Jay, a major pitching flop last season, took his troubles home with him Thursday.

When Jay left the Reds' Tampa, Fla., camp he said he was going home to Cincinnati and planned to return later this weekend.

Manager Fred Hutchinson termed the departure unauthorized and indicated the trip would compound Jay's problems financially.

Involved in the 6-foot-4 right-hander's difficulties apparently are a lease which expires on his home April 1 and his interests in an oil well business in Spencer, W. Va.

Injured Swim Champ Looks to Olympics

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Australian swimming champion Dawn Fraser said from her hospital bed Friday that she expects to be "100 per cent fit" for the Tokyo Summer Olympics in October.

Miss Fraser, who chipped a neckbone in an auto accident March 8, expects to leave St. George District Hospital this weekend and resume light training in three or four weeks.

In a joint statement with her coach and adviser, Harry Gallagher, she said that after leaving the hospital and fulfilling commitments in Sydney, she will take a vacation to recuperate, then return to swimming.

Gallagher said he would plan her conditioning program to correct any irregularities in her stroke caused by her injuries.

Miss Fraser's mother, who was killed in Sunday's crash, was buried Thursday.

Cornell Poloists Win

NEW YORK (AP) — Cornell, the defending champion, will play Yale Saturday for the Intercollegiate Polo championship following the Big Red's 13-7 victory against Virginia.

Cornell, which has won the title seven of the last nine years, won Thursday's contest after erupting for four goals in the second period.

IN STATE MEET — Pontiac Northern won't be looking for any swim titles in the state meet which starts today at Ann Arbor but the Huskies will hope for a few points from breaststroker Carl Cascaddan (bottom) and diver Alex Hiller. Team favorite is Birmingham Seaholm. The prelims start tonight and the finals are slated for Saturday night.

Sexton Advances in Class A

St. Stephen Victim of 'D' Champion

By The Associated Press

Port Huron St. Stephen's dream of winning a state high school basketball title in its last season of competition was shattered Thursday night when defending Class D titlist Britton-Macon scored a 74-70 victory for the regional championship at Ferndale.

★ ★ ★

The game was the only one played which decided a regional champion.

Lansing Sexton, No. 1 rated team in the final Associated Press poll showed its class with a 79-49 triumph over Dearborn Fordson in Class A.

Grosse Pointe St. Paul, top-rated in Class C edged third-ranked Detroit St. Charles 53-51, and Merrill upset ninth-ranked Mount Pleasant Sacred Heart 53-39 in another Class C tilt. Coldwater St. Charles surprised fifth-rated Bloomingdale 75-71 and third-ranked Negaunee St. Paul bested seventh-ranked Carney 81-53 in Class D.

The state's Class A schools had their busiest night of the week so far with eight games on the schedule.

Third-ranked Flint Central eliminated Mount Pleasant 70-41; fourth-rated Benton Harbor beat Holland Christian 82-69 and sixth-ranked Albion tripped Battle Creek Central 74-60 in some of the big games.

Fraser edged Marysville 67-64, Milan trimmed Wyandotte Mount Carmel 76-66 and Tecumseh beat Hillsdale 62-56 in the only three Class B games played.

At Ferndale Thursday, St. Stephen held a 17-15 first quarter lead only to see Britton-Macon go ahead 40-33 at the half. The defending champions were never headed after that. Phil Benedict paced four Britton-Macon players in double figures with 21 points.

Lansing Sexton used a full court press throughout the game and forced Dearborn Fordson into numerous mistakes. Sexton also controlled the backboards and led all the way.

Tony Ashman netted 27 to spark the Benton Harbor victory. The winners hit 12 of 17 free throws in a last quarter rally that carried them from a 61-55 deficit with five minutes remaining.

Coldwater St. Charles trailed for three periods before catching fire in the final eight minutes in its upset of Bloomingdale.

Steve Rymal of Adrian took scoring honors for the night as he hit for 37 points in a 60-47 victory over Livonia Bentley in a Class A game. Dave Grof had 34 points as Barryton edged Onekama 83-80 in Class D.

St. Clair Shores Lake Shore takes on Warren at East Detroit in Class A and Leland meets Suttons Bay at Traverse City in Class D in tonight's regional championship games.

The Class B title was won by Paul's Barber Shop, 12-11, over Stringham, Class C went to Houghton with a 12-4 triumph over Grayson, and a last second basket by Kirk Passmore won the "D" title for Waterford Center 15-13, against the Bombers.

Maple Tankers Seek Second State Crown

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Unbeaten in 42 straight dual meets and untouched in any swim competition for two years, Birmingham Seaholm's powerful swimming team will be a solid choice to successfully defend its state championship tonight and tomorrow in the University of Michigan pool at Ann Arbor.

The Maples, who ran up a fantastic record of 98 total points last year by scoring in all 11 events, will have two individual champions defending their titles in three events.

One of the 1963 champions however, Pete Adams was a double winner in the 200 freestyle and 400 freestyle, but he was a member of the Pershing High school swim team last year.

He transferred to Seaholm during the past school year and during the past swim season he bettered both state marks in the two events, doing the 200 in 1:50.6 and the 400 in 4:00.0.

The other defending individual champion will be diver Ken Heft who has been unbeaten in competition since last year.

Tom Coupe, freestyle sprinter, will also be a strong choice in the short events, and Seaholm's relay teams will be among the top contenders.

LOCAL COMPETITION

The strongest competition in the state meet is expected to come from Eastern Michigan League rival Royal Oak Kimball.

The Knights have strength in the distance events, individual medley and backstroke.

Doug Webster, who hit 4:00.3 in the 400 this year, is expected to be Adams' closest challenger, however the husky Maple has defeated Webster three times this season.

Kimball finished 6th with 25½ points last year, but the Knights will have swimmers competing in every event this year to offer Seaholm a challenge.

Detroit Thurston with Ken Wiebeck and Pat Duthie doesn't have the depth to win a team title, but Wiebeck is considered a shoo-in to add a double victory to his individual laurels.

STATE MARKS

He set a state record of 49.3 in the 100 freestyle last year and recently in the North Suburban Swim League meet he matched that mark. His other win last year was in the 50 freestyle in 22.1.

Arthur Hill of the Saginaw Valley will have a strong freestyle relay team and short distance freestyler, Dave Gibson who is expected to give Wiebeck a strong challenge.

To butterfly artist in the state is Saginaw's Bob Hand with Seaholm's Dennis Rozema figuring in the top scoring.

Pontiac Central has four swimmers who have qualified for the state meet: Jim Howard and Ed Chase in the 50 freestyle, Dale Quinn in diving and a freestyle relay team.

Northern is hoping to pick up a few points with Carl Cascaddan and Alex Hiller, while Rochester's "one man" team Hugh Wilder has qualified in the backstroke event.

★ ★ ★

The 400 and diving prelims will take place tonight and the other prelims are scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

All final events will take place Saturday night.

City Cagers Decide Class B, D Crowns

The city recreation basketball Class B and D titles were decided last night at Pontiac Central with second half rallies playing an important role in both contests.

Class D champion New Hope Baptist made its comeback in the third quarter and defeated Victor Paint, 63-57.

The losers were up, 33-26, at halftime; but New Hope took the lead in the third quarter and pulled away in the final period. Desi Brown led the victory with 21 points.

White Lake Pharmacy rallied in the fourth quarter of the Class B title game, and the Bachelor's Club just managed to hold on for an 80-78 success.

The Bachelors held a 65-49 lead after three sessions; but Chuck Schroeder led White Lake on a desperation comeback.

The Milford basketball coach, who led all scorers with 40 points, hit 12 tallies in the last quarter before fouling out. Teammate Cecil Darnell had eight of his 10 in the rally, also.

The winners were paced by Willie Ratliff's 24 markers, and had three others in twin figures for a balanced effort.

Same Story Unfolding in Ladies' Cage Finals

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP)—It's getting to be a habit—Nashville, Tenn., vs. Wayland College of Texas.

The two teams will meet tonight for the sixth consecutive time in the finals of the Women's National AAU Basketball Tournament. Nashville won the championship the last two years.

In Thursday's semifinals, Nashville defeated Topeka, Kan. 63-49 and Wayland beat Iowa Wesleyan 72-44.

Pan Am's Champ in Semifinal Test

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Pan American's defending champs have the other NAIA semifinalists out-sized in the frontline because of 6-foot-9, 240-pound Lucious Jackson, but the Broncos from Edinburg, Tex., are no cinch to repeat.

Carson-Newman of Tennessee, a sharp ball-control team with a 21-game winning streak, is Pan American's semifinal opponent tonight in the second game.

★ ★ ★

Emporia State of Kansas, which secred an early season 13-point victory at Pan American, faces Rockhurst of Kansas City in the other semifinal at 8 p.m., Emporia State won both regular season games from Rockhurst.

Jackson, a fast and agile giant, is a 24-point scorer and grabs 19 rebounds a game. Coach Sam Williams has two big men to help him, with Mitchell Edwards, 6-5 and 228, and Jim McGurk, 6-4 and 210.

NAMED COACH — Frank McGuire, former college and professional coach, yesterday was named head basketball coach at the University of South Carolina. McGuire formerly coached the Philadelphia Warriors in the National Basketball Association before that team moved to San Francisco.

Red Wings Gunning for 3rd Place Finish

DETROIT (AP) — Gordie Howe and Norm Ullman are doing their best to land the Detroit Red Wings in third place in the National Hockey League standings.

The Red Wings again pulled within two points of elusive Toronto with a 2-1 victory over Boston Thursday night on goals by Ullman and Howe.

★ ★ ★

Toronto, which has played one less game than Detroit, is one up in the win column.

A third place finish is worth about $500 per player. This is twice as much as each player on the fourth place team can expect to receive.

The Bruins, who helped Detroit clinch the last Stanley Cup playoff berth by beating New York Wednesday, opened the scoring Thursday. Gary Dornhoefer deflected Tom Johnson's shot into the Red Wings' net in the first period.

20TH GOAL

Ullman knotted the score four minutes later when he beat Boston goalie Ed Johnston from close in for his 20th marker of the season. It marked this seventh consecutive year that Ullman had reached 20 goals.

Howe scored the winning goal with the second period only 23 seconds old and Boston's Forbes Kennedy in the penalty box.

★ ★ ★

The goal, Howe's 24th of the season, was the 94th winning tally in his 18-year NHL career. It was the 11th straight game in which Howe hit the scoring column. He also assisted on Ullman's goal.

Johnston sparkled in the Boston nets, keeping the game close. He had 15 saves in the final period and 34 for the game. Detroit goalie Terry Sawchuk turned aside 19 shots.

STYLIST — Former Red Wing 'bad boy' Howie Young caused quite a stir in the Los Angeles Blades' Coliseum this week when he showed up for the game with Vancouver in a Beatle wig. When the referee made him take it off it caused even a greater roar from the fans as Young revealed his new Mohawk haircut which he said cost him $5 at a barbershop.

Unknown Early Leaders in St. Pete Tournament

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—The St. Petersburg Open lived up to its reputation through the first round as the golf tournament of the long-shots, the young and unknown.

A youngster from the plains of Eastern Carolina and a West Virginian who plays little tournament golf led the field into the second round today.

★ ★ ★

Bob Harrison, the North Carolinian who plays out of Palm Desert, Calif., and Mike Krak, the ex-West Virginia University golf great who is a club pro at Oceanside, N.Y., shot five-under-par 67s Thursday.

National Open champion Julius Boros shot a two-under-par 70, three strokes behind.

PUTTING TROUBLE

Jack Nicklaus, the defending Masters and PGA champion and this year's leading money winner, had putting troubles that left him four strokes behind at 71.

Mason Rudolph, winner of this year's New Orleans Open and the third leading money winner, had an even par opening round.

★ ★ ★

The field was to be cut at the end of today's round, and it appeared that a golfer who didn't at least match par for the first two rounds wouldn't be around for the last two.

Rocky Rejects $50,000 Offer by KC's Finley

CHICAGO (UPI) — Rocky Colavito has rejected a $50,000 contract from the Kansas City Athletics because it does not contain a clause paying him $25,000 if he is sold or traded during the season, owner Charles O. Finley said today.

★ ★ ★

"If he continues this position," Finley said, "as far as I'm concerned, he can hold out the balance of the season."

Finley also revealed that the Athletics' other "holdout," pitcher Moe Drabowsky, signed his contract Thursday and was to be in training camp at Bradenton, Fla., today.

The Athletics have boosted their initial contract offer to Colavito $2,500 to reach the $50,000 figure, Finley said, still below the $54,000 he was paid by Detroit last season.

Suds and Putts New Theory for Golfers

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — About 20 golfers at Doral Country Club swigged beer before playing to test a theory that a beer before golf can improve putting skill.

The club said 45 per cent of the men and women in the testing improved their putting scores by at least 10 per cent after a drink of beer. Forty per cent showed no change and 15 per cent did worse.

The experiment was conducted by club president Howard Kaskel, a ranking New York amateur golfer, and Frank Strafaci of Miami, club tournament director and leading amateur.

TOO EARLY

Some players invited to take part in the tests refused on grounds they couldn't stand a brew so early in the day. Others said they didn't hold with using a stimulant to improve their score.

"They don't permit horses to be doped before a race," said one.

During the test the participating golfers each downed a beer and teed up dry on alternate days.

Briton Retains Lead

KUALA LUMPUR (AP)—Britain's Brian Huggett turned in a three-under-par 71 Friday and retained the lead after the second round in the Malayan Open Golf Championship with a score of 138.

A Smooth-Swinging Tiger

Freehan Tops Golfers

LAKELAND, Fla. (UPI) — Golf took the spotlight Thursday at the Tigers' training camp.

The team took a break from baseball to play in the annual Detroit Tigers' Golf Tournament.

Catcher Bill Freehan shot a one-under-par 73 at the Cleveland Heights Golf Course to take honors in the tournament.

Former Tiger manager Bob Scheffing, who made his first visit to the camp this season, won the press - radio division with an 83 while Scheffing's successor, Charlie Dressen, shot a 93.

Freehan, who the Tigers hope can be their regular backstop this season, missed a hole in one by inches.

Pitcher Ed Rakow and shortstop Dick McAuliffe finished in a tie for second place with 81's.

Scheffing visited camps around Phoenix, where he scouted the teams. The former Bengal mentor will be doing the broadcasting of the Tiger games this season with Ernie Harwell.

ASKED QUESTIONS

Scheffing, despite being deposed, showed a keen interest in the team. He quizzed Dressen about the pitching staff and asked about how the infield battle for third base was shaping up.

Three players, Don Wert, Jake Wood and Bubba Phillips have all been named as contenders with Wert holding the edge over the other two.

Scheffing was impressed by Jack Hamilton's pitching and noted the player could "throw hard."

Scheffing also said Don Demeter, the Tigers' centerfielder, was spoken of highly in the Phoenix area training camps.

★ ★ ★

"Everybody out there is touting Don Demeter," Scheffing said. "They all told me he's a terrific ball player."

In NCAA Cage Tournament

Michigan 5 Meets Loyola

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — In what may be the key game of the whole NCAA basketball tournament, defending champion Chicago Loyola and second-ranked Michigan face off in a four-team Mideast Regional round tonight.

★ ★ ★

The evening's opening clash at the University of Minnesota's Williams Arena sends highly favored Kentucky, fourth-ranked champion of the Southeastern Conference, against Ohio University, champion of the Mid-American Conference.

★ ★ ★

"The winner of our game tonight with Michigan could go all the way," declared Coach George Ireland of Loyola's Ramblers. Loyola started its NCAA defense with a 101-91 defeat of Murray State of Kentucky at Evanston, Ill., Tuesday night.

Coach Dave Strack of co-champion Michigan of the Big Ten, owning a 20-4 record asserted: "We fear nobody in this tourney."

Ireland was just as confident of a Loyola club which was ranked eighth in the final Associated Press poll but discovered a sorely needed "fifth man" in the waning weeks of the regular season.

"We're as good as anybody in this tournament," said Ireland, whose Ramblers now stand 21-5. "Michigan may bomb us tonight but I doubt it."

Kentucky, a really pedigreed NCAA contender, is favored to overpower Ohio University's Bobcats, who barely edged Louisville 71-69 in their Mideast first-rounder at Evanston.

Service Cage Wins for Navy, Marines

DENVER (AP)—The Marines and Air Force gained first-round victories Thursday in the annual Inter-Service Basketball Tournament.

The Marines beat Navy 92-82, and Air Force defeated Army 71-66 in overtime.

Navy led 46-34 at halftime in the opening game, but the Marine team came back to take a 64-60 lead with about 12 minutes left. Dick Markowitz scored 25 points for the Marines, Don Snyder 23 for Navy.

Art Wall Top Winner on Caribbean Circuit

NEW YORK (AP)—Art Wall Jr. of Pocono Manor, Pa. has picked up a trophy and a bonus of $1,300 as best golfer on this year's Caribbean pro circuit.

Wall was named the winner Thursday on the basis of 113 points for three victories and a third-place finish in the four tournaments on the tour. George Knudson of Toronto, last year's winner, was second with 88 points. He received $1,100.

Final Qualifying in PBA

16 Finalists After 10 Spots

Two Pontiac Bowlers Among Leaders

The final qualifying day for the North American PBA Open will take place all day Saturday at 300 Bowl out of which 16 amateur bowlers will gain berths for head to head competition to be held Sunday.

Only two Pontiac bowlers are currently among the top 16 scorers for the 10 spots in the PBA Open. Jerry Perna and Larry Crake are the lone contenders from Pontiac.

Sunday, the 16 top scorers will bowl at 10:00 a.m. and at 3:00 p.m. in PBA system of scoring, after which the top 10 will join the 150 touring pros when the $31,400 tournament starts at 300 Bowl, March 24.

Currently, William Paladino of Detroit has a four-game total of 920, followed by Don Wright of Ubly, Mich., with 891 and Dick Preston with 867.

PRO AM QUALIFYING

Qualifying for the pro-am event of the tournament will go on from 2:00 p.m. and continue throughout the day Sunday at 300 bowl. Any handicap bowler is eligible to bowl in this event and to date bowlers from throughout Michigan, including women, with averages as low as 130 have qualified.

★ ★ ★

There is a 100 per cent handicap. The entry fee is $7.00 and each handicap bowler who qualifies will teamup with a member of the PBA on Tuesday March 24th for a special $5,000 purse and $1,000 first prize.

Other area establishments will also conduct qualifying Sunday. Huron Bowl, Airway Lanes, Howe's Lanes, North Hill Lanes and Auburn Lanes are planning Sunday squads. Times are listed at the establishments.

The Grand Rapids area leads the outstate qualifying locations. Twenty - one qualifiers have come out of Miracle Lanes in Grand Rapids to date.

The final pro-am qualifying will be held next weekend, Saturday and Sunday March 21-22.

Tickets for the PBA tournament are on sale at all local bowling establishments. The demand is heavy for the pro-am event at which the capacity will be limited.

Because of the number of outstate qualifying sites, each establishment has asked for an allotment of tickets. The remaining tickets will be sold at the door. Ticket price for all sessions including the Friday semi-finals and Saturday TV finals is $1.00.

A total of 76 perfect games have been scored by WIBC members, Ohio and California women lead the way, each with eight 300 games Californians have scored all eight of theirs since the 1957-58 season.

Travel Loop Moves Into Home Stretch

The Pontiac Traveling Classic League moved into the home stretch of the league race with very little change in the standings after last weekend's action.

Only three more Sunday matches remain on the regular schedule before the playoff matches begin. This weekend the league will visit Airway Lanes for competition at noon.

League leading 300 Bowl and runner-up Airway Lanes garnered wins last weekend, while the three teams fighting for final playoff berths all suffered defeats.

Joe Foster (648 and six) and Monroe Moore (622 and seven) had 13 of the points "300" posted in beating Sylvan Lanes, 16-13.

Airway was led by Jim Kirkpatrick (603) and Ed Gibbs (602) in decisioning Montcalm Bowling Centre, 12-9. Third place Huron Bowl took the day off.

Four men were over 600 as Primrose Lanes bombed Wonderland, 21-4, Ivan Craycroft had 254—628, Walt Honchell 626, Dave Martens 609 and Chuck Messer 603.

Howe's Lanes topped Cooley Lanes, 8-6, and West Side Lanes beat Fairground Bowling 13-9. The winners were paced by Bob Sutton (625 and five) and Carl Hartman (246 for five).

PWBA Meet Resumes in Team Events

More than 200 women and 80 teams will be shooting at the leaders as the Pontiac Woman's Bowling Association's 31st annual tournament resumes this weekend at North Hill Lanes.

Rochester's Tienken Road establishment kicked off the tournament last week and Utica's Poljan, Inc. team took the early lead with 2947.

That was one pin better than the Drewry's team of Auburn Heights.

Pontiac women led in all other events. Etta Feltes had 1874 for the handicap all-events lead and was one pin behind leader Dorothy Barnowsky's 648 in the singles.

Evelyn Davidson is the pace setter in two events, holding the actual all-events top spot with 1594, and teaming with Barbara Wall for the doubles lead at 1254.

The first squad in Saturday's team event begins at 3:30 p.m. Sunday's singles and doubles competition has a 10 a.m. beginning.

Bourdase Tops PBA Qualifiers

Moore Drops to 40th at New Jersey Meet

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP)— Sixteen men advanced into the semifinals of the $31,000 New Jersey Open Bowling Tournament Thursday night and Ted Bourdase of Fresno, Calif., led the way with a total pinfall of 5,123.

★ ★ ★

They will go into match play Friday and reduce the field to the four who will participate in Saturday's finals.

Bourdase shot 1,287 in his six games Thursday night to lead the roster, but Carmen Salvino of Chicago had the night's high series of 1,333 and the high game of 269.

Johnny Meyer of Lake Ronkonkoma, N.Y., who had taken the lead in 12 games Wednesday dropped to 24th — and out of contention — when he could score only 1,030 pins in the afternoon series.

Monroe Moore of Pontiac had six-game blocks of 1136 and 1193 Thursday to drop from 12th to 40th place.

Another local bowler, Al Pietz wound up 147th with 4361. Moore's total was 4795.

The latter earlier had rolled a 234 and he finished with a 714 series. But Samardzija took the honors there with 257 added to his 298 for 754.

Both had typical comments after losing their bids for 300 under mounting pressure.

Mike commented that the ball felt "heavier" the 12th time while Larry said his final approach seemed "uphill."

COMBINATION

Baseball and bowling compete directly during the summer for participants, but the two will combine forces next month at Thunderbird Lanes in Troy.

The Troy Baseball Boosters are sponsoring a bowling tournament April 18-19 and several weekends thereafter to raise money for the various diamond teams sponsored by the group.

The handicap tournament is open to men (70 per cent) and women (80 per cent) for singles and team competition.

Entry fee is $4 and one-fourth of that will go into the prize fund. The deadline for entries is April 10.

This is the boosters first attempt with their endeavor and, if successful, it could become a very popular money raising project for quite a few groups.

SPARE PINS

Pontiac's Elks Lodge will send its delegation to the 44th Elks National Bowling tournament this weekend at Cincinnati.

There will be 32 teams representing the local lodge tomorrow and Sunday.

They could use a little of the luck of the Irish, perhaps. At least, it would appear that is what George Bone had going for him last week in the St. Patrick's League at Wonderland Lanes. Bone converted the 7-10 split.

There was some fancy bowling Saturday night in Howe's Lanes Moonlite Doubles. Dave Sherman rolled 218-215—638 and Bob Meyer 225 in compiling 1374 handicap pins to win the Pot-of-Gold.

ABC Meet Leaders Same

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Despite a few impressive scores Thursday, the leaders in all nine divisions of the American Bowling Congress Tournament emerged unscathed from the 20th day of the $330,262 event.

★ ★ ★

The biggest threat came in the regular doubles, where Bob Brose and Don Biely of Janesville, Wis., combined for a 1,263 series to take third place. They were still far off the torrid 1,343 pace set on March 1 by Pat and Tony Russo, a pair of flower-growing brothers from Paramus, N. J.

Parker Howard of Santa Rosa, Calif., fired a 652 series to take fourth place in the classic singles, but he was 16 pins short of overtaking George Fleischhacker of Phoenix, Ariz., who has commanded the professional singles since March 1.

NO CLOWNING

The Sonoma Clowns of Sonoma, Calif., rolled a 2,735 series to tie for fifth place with the U. S. Coast Guard Air Station of San Francisco. State Market of Hanford, Calif., leader of the 850-and-under division since Saturday, rode out another night with its 2,857 total.

Ex-49er Leads Gridiron Golfers in Tournament

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP)— Former San Francisco 49er football star Gordon Soltau was slightly embarrassed Thursday when he finished the first day of play in the Professional Football golf Tournament with a two-under-par 69.

★ ★ ★

Soltau is the tournament's director and he also is a nine handicapper.

The two-day tournament ends today at the Palo Alto Hills Country Club.

Win 8th Title in Row

Celtics Tops in East

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP) — Boston clinched its eighth straight Eastern Division title in the National Basketball Association Thursday night by walloping Detroit 140-120.

★ ★ ★

The Pistons fell behind early 26-7 and never came closer than 20 points.

Meanwhile, Cincinnati practically assured itself of second place in the East by defeating Philadelphia 128-111, and San Francisco boosted its Western Division lead to two games over idle St. Louis by hammering Baltimore 125-102.

★ ★ ★

Reserve center Clyde Lovellette paced a balanced Celtic attack with 23 points.

Take Vacation Together

4-Quarter System Boon to Family Living

DR. NASON

Dear Dr. Nason: Unless I misinterpret your views, you favor the four-quarter system which would allow use of schools the year 'round. I must disagree.

It seems that, as is so often done in curriculum and school program planning, you here are overlooking the family aspect. For example, we have three boys, ages 6, 10 and 12. In the summertime we join the millions of other families who travel or rent a cottage or otherwise enjoy a family vacation together.

Let us not as a nation get too obsessed with "catching up with the Russians" or "efficiency" and in the meantime undermine the precious family ties.

B.D., Rockville, Md.

★ ★ ★

Answer: Although school buildings, under the quarter system, would be used year 'round, students would be expected to take a quarter off for work or vacation. How often would depend on the student's health, opportunity for work or travel.

In fact, under the quarter scheme the whole country's family vacations no longer need be crowded into a couple of hot summer months.

Both schools and industry would benefit through spreading vacations throughout the year.

Dear Dr. Nason: I am an 18-year-old girl, a freshman in junior college. My parents ask me once a week what my goal in life is. I get angry every time — not at them, but at myself because I don't know the answer.

Tests show I am capable of studying for any occupation except those concerning manuel dexterity. I also took a "Strong Interest" test which says my greatest interests lay in the occupations of housewife, stenographer or office worker. I think the test is wrong, for I don't want to be any of the three.

I want to finish college but it would be silly to do so if all I did was wash dishes or filed papers. Please help me!

Nancy, Sacramento, Calif.

★ ★ ★

Answer: There are many openings for young college women in such fields as mathematics, science and secretarial work.

Choose a goal appropriate for a college graduate and start working toward it. You can change your mind as you learn more about it. The important thing is to have a goal.

You will succeed better in high school and college if you are working toward a specific goal.

Ski Patrolman, 30, Dies in Snowslide

JACKSON, Wyo. (AP)—Dick Pittman, a ski patrolman who saved a man buried by a snowslide last January, was killed by an avalanche Thursday.

Pittman, 30, was hurled 1,000 feet down Snow King Mountain and buried 10 minutes before his body was recovered.

Another ski patrolman, Frank Ewing, 30, was tied to Pittman by rope but the force of the slide broke the rope when Ewing became entangled in a tree. Ewing escaped injury.

The regular club duplicate was over and as usual the professor had won. The student was checking over the scores and noted that the professor was minus 650 on a hand on which everyone else was minus either 690 or 1,430.

JACOBY

The student got hold of the professor and said, "Usually you have something to do with your top scores. This time it seems that you had the good fortune to be defending against a player who had never learned how to finesse."

The professor replied, "You are quite correct in noting that South refused to try a trump finesse, but strangely enough I can take credit for his failure to do so and for my top score."

Do you know how the professor gave South the problem that resulted in South banging the ace of spades instead of finessing?

The professor had won the first trick with the ace of diamonds and after looking around for new worlds to conquer saw that there was no hope at all. With normal play, South would surely gather in the rest of the tricks.

After that thought, the professor led the seven of hearts right into dummy's good suit.

Now put yourself in South's position. Wouldn't it look as if the professor had led a singleton heart? South thought so anyway. So he decided to lay down the ace of spades and make sure of his contract.

MILL VALLEY, Calif. (AP) — Fireman Fred Foss of Tamalpais Valley tried to rescue a white angora cat the hard way.

The cat fell 30 feet. Niether was injured.

New High Ground

Coppers Push Mart Upward

NEW YORK (AP) — Strength in coppers helped an irregularly higher stock market further into new high ground early Friday afternoon. Trading was active.

★ ★ ★

Coppers, spurred by price boost news, advanced fractions to 1 or 2 points.

Gains of a point or so also appeared among aerospace issues, chemicals, photographic and office equipment issues.

IBM PEAK

IBM touched another yearly peak and held about a 4-point gain after going higher at the start.

Coppers advanced from the start on news of strength in copper futures and of raised prices by two major African producers. They increased their gains after American Smelting & Refining raised the price of copper by 1 cent to 32 cents a pound, the first change in the U.S. price since mid-May 1961.

Coppers also advanced on the London Stock Market.

★ ★ ★

Big three motors eased. Several other groups were mixed.

Prices were mixed in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange. General Plywood, which did not trade Thursday due to an imbalance of orders, opened late on a block of 36,800 shares at 5⅛, a decline of 1⅞ from Wednesday. Syntex gained a fraction. Creole Petroleum advanced more than a point.

EXCEEDED POINT

Losses exceeding a point were taken by Pyle National and Voght Manufacturing. Arkansas Louisiana Gas rose nearly a point. Fractional gainers included Campbell, Chibougamau, British Petroleum and Seaboard World Airlines. Down fractionally were New Park Mining, Associated Oil & Gas and Dynalectron.

★ ★ ★

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. Government bonds were unchanged.

Claims Forgery on Tax Returns

Accountant Affidavit in Baker Case Record

WASHINGTON (AP) — At a stormy meeting of the Senate Rules Committee today, Republicans placed in evidence a sworn charge from an accountant that his signature had been forged on Bobby Baker's federal income tax returns.

The accountant, Milton L. Hauft of Kensington, Md., said in an affidavit that he discovered this when he was called to the Internal Revenue Service for questioning about tax returns he had prepared for Baker.

★ ★ ★

Republicans submitted the affidavit in demanding that the committee go forward with its investigation of Baker's outside business dealings while he was secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority.

Baker, a onetime Senate page who built up a fortune he has valued at more than $2 million, resigned under fire last Oct. 7 from his $19,600-a-year Senate post.

NEAR END

Prior to the start of today's closed committee meeting, the Democratic majority indicated they were ready to end the investigation on the ground that testimony of any more witnesses would only be repetitious.

But, just before the session began, Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., gave newsmen a copy of Hauft's affidavit. He said it showed that new evidence still was coming in, and that the investigation should be continued.

★ ★ ★

Scott left the committee session briefly to report in angry tones that the committee had refused to accept the affidavit in evidence, but later Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., got it into the record.

Futures Continue Firming Trend

CHICAGO (AP) — A firmer trend continued in the grain futures market today with some contracts of wheat and soybeans up a cent or more a bushel during early activity on the Board of Trade.

Brokers said the support appeared to be largely further short covering as tenders on commitments in the pits again were small.

★ ★ ★

Wheat was ⅝ to 1⅛ cents a bushel higher near the end of the first hour, March $1.99; soybeans 1 cent higher to ⅝ lower, March $2.67¾; corn ● to ½ higher, March $1.10½; oats ⅛ lower to ¼ higher, March 64¾ cents; rye unchanged to ¾ higher, March $1.30¼.

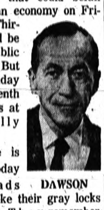
In Sturdy Economy

Public Confidence Up

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — About the worst thing that could befall the American economy on Friday the Thirteenth would be a loss of public confidence. But on this Friday the Thirteenth confidence is at an unusually high point.



DAWSON

Confidence is so high today that it leads some to shake their gray locks in wariness. They remember that confidence often hits a peak just when the economy is ready to turn down from causes the public hasn't noted.

★ ★ ★

Why are businessmen as well as the general public so free right now in expressing confidence? And what could undermine this state of euphoria?

Take the obvious causes of contentment first.

STEADY PROCESSION

The stock market averages have been setting a steady procession of new peaks. True, rising stock prices are a result of confidence. But they also can double as a cause, because most people, even those who don't own any shares, feel better when the market is going up. They reason that those in the know must be sure of better days ahead.

★ ★ ★

Closer at home are personal incomes. The total keeps on rising from many causes—larger wage scales, overtime work, increased dividends, higher returns from savings. And now disposable personal incomes are going up due to the cut in federal income tax rates.

Employment totals have been rising, too. This is small comfort to the more than 4 million officially estimated as unemployed. But those who do have jobs feel confident of ability to meet next month's payments on their various forms of debt.

COLD WAR

The cold war bothers people less right now. There are many trouble spots, and still more potential ones, but compared to some past years the picture today is less frightening.

What could upset all this?

At home, the big uncertainties just now center on the effects of the tax cut. Confidence is a fine thing. A boom-and-bust psychology isn't. And this will be watched closely. If consumers went on a spree, spent too much, went too far into debt, the results could be disastrous. So would any overexpansion by industry.

★ ★ ★

For all the unlikeliness right now, inflation could then become a problem again. And so could the loss of the dollar's prestige abroad. A cut in the purchasing power of the dollar would more than eat up any benefits from a tax cut.

The first battleground, if such a boom showed signs of breaking forth, would be in the field of monetary control. Those who want easy money as the best way to feed a growing economy would fight it out with those who want dear money as the best safeguard against an overheated boom leading to a bust.

★ ★ ★

There are several reasons why many think this Friday the Thirteenth sees no immediate dangers of such a showdown.

Business expansion plans, although being beefed up as confidence grows, are still in line with the current realities. Most business executives have shown caution throughout the three years of the business upswing.

Inventories are in trim shape, on the whole. Overextended stocks have often triggered, and certainly made worse, business downturns in the past.

★ ★ ★

The public hasn't been overconfident either. It has bought freely, but not excessively. Its reaction to extra take-home pay due to the tax cut is yet to be revealed. But there's more than a good chance that the consumer, and the businessman, and even the stock trader, won't get too cocky.

Pleads Guilty to Bomb Plot, Negro Threat

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—William Sterling Rosecrans Jr. pleaded guilty today to federal charges filed in the bombing of a Negro child's home.

★ ★ ★

Rosecrans entered his plea at his arraignment before U.S. District Judge Bryan Simpson. Arraignment was scheduled later for four Ku Klux Klan officials arrested by the FBI in Jacksonville last night. A fifth man was arrested in Smyrna, Tenn.

Rosecrans and the other five men were accused of intimidating and threatening the 6-year-old Negro boy by plotting the Feb. 16 bombing.

Held under $10,000 bonds each were Barton H. Griffin, 35; Jacky Don Harden, 25; Willie Eugene Wilson, 39; and Donald Eugene Spegal, 31, all of Jacksonville; and Robert Pittman Gentry, 28, of Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "I would like to invest $5,000 each in two tax-exempt bonds. Please suggest high grade issues and tell what they will yield and when they will mature. I am only in the 26 per cent income bracket but would still like to have some money in tax-exempts. Must these bonds be held to maturity? Also please suggest one good insurance stock." M.B.

A) I believe you should be commended for wanting a moderate position in high grade tax-exempts—the safest security you can buy with the exception of Governments. These bonds do not have to be held to maturity but can be sold readily at prevailing market prices.

I suggest San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District 3.40's due 6/15/92, selling to yield 3.35 per cent. Also I like City of Springfield, Mass., Housing Authority 3⅜'s due 1997, also offered on a 3.35 per cent basis.

For a single life insurance stock purchase I suggest Connecticut General Life—a very strong company.

Q) "I have been a widow for ten years. I was left with a new home; also 100 shares American Viscose; 100 Macy; 100 New York Central R.R.; 100 Radio Corp.; and 600 U.S. Freight. I turned in my Viscose and got Monsanto Chemical and some cash which I don't need. I wish to invest in Long Island Lighting and American Telephone. Will you please give me your opinion on my holdings and the stocks I propose to buy?" M.R.

I like all your stocks and your prospective purchases. But it does seem to me that you are too heavily represented in U.S. Freight. Although this is an excellent company, $32,000 seems too much for you to have in any given situation.

I believe I would hold 200 shares and diversify by switching the balance into Corn Products; Texaco; and Sears, Roebuck.

Mr. Spear cannot answer all mail personally but will answer all questions possible in his column.

Flood Damage Continues to Mount

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The Ohio River, bloated by rain and cresting at some of the highest points in years, moved swiftly westward today and left several states with damage already estimated at more than $50 million. It killed nine persons.

The Red Cross estimated 110,000 persons were affected. Many thousands of them driven from their homes. The flood picture was one of wading evacuations, and dog-tired flood workers and refugees. Injuries were few.

★ ★ ★

Flood crests were due today at Cincinnati and Louisville, where a final steel gate in the floodwall clanked into place Thursday afternoon. The wall was prepared to stand a 48-foot crest, or 1.6 feet higher than the predicted crest.

★ ★ ★

There appeared hope the worst was over. Downstream—to the west—water began edging toward riverfront buildings at Owensboro, Ky., but only a few families were expected to be routed. A floodwall protects Paducah, near where the Ohio joins the Mississippi River.

4,000 HOMELESS

Across from Louisville, in Indiana, damage already was estimated at $1 million at Jeffersonville and Aurora. At least 4,000 were made homeless in Indiana.

There was no official estimate of Kentucky evacuees but residents of 30 counties were affected. Southwest of Louisville, officials said about 95 per cent of one huge subdivision fled by Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

Other states affected were Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Army Engineers gave preliminary estimates of $40.5 million damage along the Ohio from Cincinnati to Paducah—a highway distance of about 350 miles—and more than $9 million from four other Kentucky rivers.

FLOOD DEATHS

Of the deaths blamed on high water, seven were in Ohio and one each in Kentucky and Indiana.

Upstream the big cleanup work started—from pumping basements to repairing whole downtown sections.

★ ★ ★

Swollen tributaries of the Ohio and even little creeks contributed to the misery and damage. A typical scene was that at a Louisville golf course where a normal trickle of water jumped its banks and ripped out a sturdy metal fence.

More than 3,000 homes and buildings were damaged at Wheeling, West Va., as the river leveled off at 47 feet, 10 feet above flood stage. An estimated 15,000 to 18,000 persons were displaced in the region.

★ ★ ★

Western Pennsylvania struggled with mud and debris after waters receded. The river crested at 31.6 feet at Pittsburgh, where flood stage is 25 feet.

Hundreds remained in shelter areas in Ohio. The crest figure at Cincinnati was figured to be 66.5 feet, 14½ feet above flood stage.

REST OF NATION

The remainder of the nation had generally mild temperatures with some snow and rain.

★ ★ ★

Snow and freezing temperatures accompanied a cold front across the Rocky Mountain states. Rain spread through California, and most of the Pacific Northwest.

The midwest had some snow Thursday, but mostly clear skies and pleasant temperatures prevailed. Snow fell over parts of New England.

★ ★ ★

The South had balmy temperatures and clear skies.

County Budget Requests Start Off at Record Pace

Oakland County's budget for next year has been launched on a record-setting course.

The county's Social Welfare Department and tuberculosis sanatorium submitted combined budget requests yesterday for $5.5 million in 1965.

The figure doesn't include salary requests from the welfare department, which last year totaled $1,089,798.

★ ★ ★

The department is expected to seek slightly more for salaries in 1965.

PREVIOUS REQUESTS

Comparable budget requests from the welfare department and sanatorium at this time last year totaled $5.2 million.

They actually received $4.6 million plus the $1 million for welfare salaries.

The departmental budgets for next year are likely to be pared down similarly between now and the time the county's total budget is finally determined in May or June.

★ ★ ★

By then, the county should know how much tax money it is going to receive this year to operate with in 1965. The final budget must be set accordingly.

PROJECTED NEEDS

Budget requests at this time represent what departmental heads feel they will need to carry out programs next year.

The budget requests don't reflect actual anticipated net costs to the county.

Some departments, including welfare and the sanatorium, earn some receipts, which in most instances go into the county's general fund.

In 1963, welfare receipts came to $2.4 million and the sanatorium's were $557,617.

COST COVERAGE

County expenditures for welfare cover 70 per cent of the actual costs to administer the program. The other 30 per cent is paid by the state.

The departmental requests currently are being reviewed by the County Board of Auditors for submission to the ways and means and salaries committees of the County Board of Supervisors next week.

The ways and means committee will submit a recommended total budget for the board of supervisors' approval sometime in April.

This budget then will be brought before the County Tax Allocation Board for consideration.

★ ★ ★

The allocation board decides how much of a 15-mill annual tax levy for the county, schools and townships will go to each. Last year the county received 5.25 mills toward financing the current budget of $15.5 million.

Then the 1965 budget will have to be reworked to fit into the amount of tax money and revenues that can be expected this year.

Last year, the county recommended a $17 million budget. This had to be pared down to $15.5 million after allocations were set and the amount of taxes to be received from the 15 mills, or $15 per $1,000 of equalized property valuations, was determined.

Space Shot Ruined as Rocket Fails

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Rocket failure ruined an effort today to boost a scientific probe 23,000 miles into space to study the earth's magnetic field.

A four-stage Blue Scout rocket blasted off right on schedule at 6:40 a.m. with the gold-plated payload in its nose. But 30 minutes later the Air Force reported the fourth stage of the booster failed to ignite.

★

A statement said the payload separated from the fourth stage "and some usable data was received."

Preliminary estimates indicated the 33-pound package reached an altitude of several hundred miles before plunging back to a fiery re-entry destruction above the Atlantic.

ONLY PART

The data received was only a bare fraction of that sought on the probe's intended 10-hour trip into space. It was to have reached the 23,000-mile high point after five hours, then was to have looped over for a five-hour return trip which would have ended with atmospheric burnup.

★ ★ ★

Total flight time was about 30 minutes, with the payload re-entering 300 miles south of Ascension Island about 5,000 miles southeast of Cape Kennedy.

★ ★ ★

The payload carried a rubidium vapor magnetometer to make an extensive study of the magnetic field and how it is affected by solar winds — great clouds of radiation which burst from the sun and race through space.

Whatever You Call It, It's Money

WASHINGTON — Kyats or zlotys, kips or hwans, they still add up to money.

Some 130 nations issue their own currency, calling the basic units everything from drachmas to dollars, pounds to piasters. And naming currency can be a problem.

New Zealanders, who propose to change from the pound-sterling system to decimal currency in 1967, are now debating a name for their new monetary unit.

★ ★ ★

Many favor Maori words like kiwi and tui (local birds), kumera (a native sweet potato), and rata (a native flower). Staunch nationalists advocate more obvious New Zealand names such as zeal, zed, and zealandia. Accountants favor the dollar. Some suggest zeallar.

USE DECIMALS

Outside of the British Commonwealth of Nations, most coin-issuing countries use the decimal monetary system, the National Geographic Society says.

Britain, Australia, and New Zealand are the only major countries using pound-sterling. But Australia, like New Zealand, will replace her pounds and shillings with dollars and cents in 1966.

Commonwealth countries such as India, Pakistan, and Ceylon have switched to a decimalized rupee, Canada and Singapore to the decimal dollar.

Bids Okayed for Improving City Airport

The Michigan Department of Aeronautics yesterday approved low bids totaling $18,414 for improvements at Pontiac Municipal Airport this summer.

★ ★ ★

Five bids were received on a contract for a seal coat on the east-west runway and taxiway and the ramp in front of the terminal building.

The lowest qualified bid was $16,382 submitted by Ward Van Nuck Contracting Co., of Mount Clemens. The five bids ranged up to $19,360.

For a contract to paint markings on the runway, taxiway and turn-offs, Rike Painting Co., of Ohio, was the lowest of two bidders at $2,032.

★ ★ ★

Funds for the work were actually allocated as part of the airport's 1962 improvement program but the work was held up by federal red tape regarding minimum wage rates.

The contracts must now be approved by the City Commission before they are formally awarded by the aeronautics department.

★ ★ ★

Bids are to be opened on 1964 improvement program contracts in July, after the seal coat and paint projects are completed.

Former Romney Aide to Attend FBI School

LANSING (AP)—State police trooper Raymond Cook, a former aide to Gov. George W. Romney, has been assigned to attend the FBI academy at Washington, D.C., state police report. The assignment is considered a high honor since only 75 police officers throughout the country are selected to attend the three-month training course.

In Walled Lake

Filing Deadline Monday

WALLED LAKE—Candidates who want their names to appear on the April 6 ballot here have until 5 p.m. Monday to file their nominating petitions at the city office.

Five vacancies are to be filled in the election which will see Walled Lake voters elect their first mayor. Also before them will be a charter amendment which would provide a municipal court in the city.

Besides electing a mayor for a two-year term, voters will select three councilmen. The two highest vote getters will receive two-year terms and the third a one-year term.

A charter amendment accepted last spring required direct election of the mayor by the people rather than city councilmen.

★ ★ ★

The four whose terms are expiring are Wendel G. Kellogg Jr., William C. Staman, Marshall E. Taylor and Donald M. Post.

★ ★ ★

Also on the ballot will be a four-year justice of the peace term. Gene Schnelz is the incumbent.

DIMITRI LaZAROFF

He was also designated "Portrait Man of the Year" and received best of show awards for direct color and portrait of women entries. His wife, Florence, received a plaque for outstanding print achievement.

The Professional Photographers of America service award went to Birmingham photographer Mrs. Gertrude Arnold of Arnold Studios, 211 Birmingham Theatre Bldg.

Drive Persists in Wisconsin for Kennedy

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—The Wisconsin organizers of a drive to obtain the Democratic vice-presidential nomination for Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy have rejected his request that the campaign be discontinued.

★ ★ ★

The group's secretary, Spiros W. Kallas, an investment firm executive, said Thursday, "We are not going to discontinue our efforts to have him drafted for the nomination at the Democratic National Convention."

★ ★ ★

Organization president Percy Silver, who heads an insurance agency, noted that the Kennedy request was in a statement issued by the Justice Department.

"Of course, if we heard from him personally we might have to bow to his requests—but I don't know," Silver said.

★ ★ ★

The Justice Department statement was similar to one made public prior to the New Hampshire primary, where Kennedy received about 24,000 write-in votes as a vice presidential choice.

Expert Hunter Bags Big One: Own Wallet

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — The hunter's determination finally won out for Dorsey Prescott, who has hunted bear in Alaska, and other game throughout the United States.

He made his most serious hunt when he discovered his wallet was missing after a day of hunting near Punta Gorda.

Rainy weather did not stop his hunt on Sunday, Monday or Tuesday. On Wednesday he tried one last time.

"We circled a flooded area, came upon a trail I recognized, found a spot where we had stopped the jeep — and there, 10 feet away, was my wallet with money and important papers intact," he said.

More than two million parking meters now line U. S. streets.

★ ★ ★

Police said Miss Weight's car had stalled in the middle of the street when Childress' auto, heading east on West Kennett, struck it.

★ ★ ★

Childress said his vision was obstructed by a hill in the road and he saw the other car too late to avoid the accident.

Noise Is Greater in Johannesburg Than New York

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—A noise-level survey rates Johannesburg a full six units above New York, which inspired Cole Porter to write of "the roaring traffic's boom."

Prof. Guerino Renzo Bozzoli, chief of the electrical engineering department at Johannesburg's Witwatersrand University, says:

"American cars are low-revving and give out a deep rumble which is not terribly upsetting.

"Here we use a great many high-revving British and European cars which scream at you."

Coin Clearing House

HOUSTON, Texas (UPI)—A group of men who want to make Houston the world's coin collection capital are expanding a coin trading exchange they say links the commercial coin dealers of the hemisphere.

They are officials of the American Numismatics Exchange. The Exchange is a clearing house for coin trading information that speaks to more than 100 coin dealers on this continent through six teletype circuits.

Thomas D. Watson, exchange president, says the system saves the average coin dealer hundreds of dollars previously spent on telephone calls and travel to dealers to put his coins on the market.

Watson estimated the United States alone has from 10 million to 11 million coin collectors.

"There is a tremendous interest in numismatics," Watson said. "A number of major firms and wealthy families are investing in rare coins because that is a stable investment with steady appreciation in value."

Education Needed

Preparing for Marriage

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE S-411: Laura T., aged 29, is a beautiful housewife.

"Dr. Crane," she moaned, "my husband and I don't get along at all.

"So I am planning to divorce him. But I hesitate because nobody in my family has ever been divorced.

DR. CRANE

"Yet we fight all the time and get on each other's nerves.

"Why has our marriage reached this point of disaster, for we are both college graduates?"

COLLEGE DIVORCES

Alas, college educations don't offer much specific insurance against unhappy marriages.

And that is a serious indictment of higher education, for a college person should be better prepared for happy marriage than an eighth grade graduate.

So what's wrong?

★ ★ ★

Well, college math and foreign languages and history courses and even science classes seldom ofer anything tangible by which to safeguard marriage.

IGNORANT OF SET

Instead, college graduates receive a generalized knowledge about many cultural topics, but are often as ignorant of the sexual side of marriage as the eighth graders.

For example, a similar generalized knowledge doesn't make you a skilled pianist, either.

★ ★ ★

Instead, you must study the specific techniques for striking the proper black and white keys at the piano or driving and putting the golf ball, if you wish to excel thereat.

MORE INSURANCE

That's why this educational column in your daily newspaper offers more actual insurance against divorce, than your entire four years on a college campus!

And I'm not exaggerating nor trying to appear egotistical. I'm stating a simple fact.

For in this column I let you readers peer over my shoulder at 313 actual cases each year, most of which deal with marriage, child problems and similar "human relations" dilemmas that sabotage happiness.

★ ★ ★

For example, did you ever obtain the medico-psychological facts in four years of college that are included in the terse sex book mentioned below?

HUSBAND COMPLEX

Did you ever hear of the Ponce de Leon complex in climacteric husbands in any other place than this column?

Or the needless worry of millions of women over the menopause?

Neither in high school nor college have you studied such basic facts as "How to Prevent Impotence," yet that is one of the classical problems of almost all married couples after the age of 45.

Medical, dental and other professional schools teach their students specific strategy for handling actual cases in everyday life.

GENERAL CULTURE

Liberal arts colleges simply give generalized cultural training without reference to actual cases or practical domestic and factory problems.

Send for the booklet, "Sex Problems in Marriage," enclosing a long, stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents and see how this newspaper insures your marriage far more than a diploma from college.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, enclosing a long, stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Airline Crash Takes 5 Lives

Montana Snowstorm Is Fatal for Aircraft

MILES CITY, Mont. (AP) — A Frontier Airlines plane crashed in a snowstorm and burned in a deep ravine near the Miles City airport Thursday night, killing both passengers and all three crew members.

Kenneth Huber, pilot of the two-engine DC3, radioed the Miles City airport at 8:40 p.m., reporting he would make an instrument landing in 10 minutes on a flight from Billings to Sidney, Mont.

★ ★ ★

A wing of the plane apparently struck a hillside. The smouldering fuselage, containing the five bodies was found an hour later in the 150-foot-deep ravine leading to the Yellowstone River.

The airport at Miles City, an eastern Montana town of 13,000, is situated on a plateau overlooking the river. The plane crashed two miles southwest of the airport and four miles west of Miles City.

DEAD IDENTIFIED

The airline identified the dead as Huber, about 45, passengers H. Swenson of Sidney, Mont., and Gayle Bussinger about 25, Frontier's station agent at Miles City along with copilot Daniel H. Gough, about 25, and stewardess Dorothy Reig, about 20, both of Billings, Mont.

Bussinger was returning from a trip to Billings taken on his day off. His wife was waiting at the airport.

In Denver a frontier spokesman called the crash the airline's first in 18 years.

UAW Strike Idles 5,000 at Flint Plant

FLINT (AP) — Nearly 5,000 General Motors car plant workers were idle today in a United Auto Workers strike over production rates at a Chevrolet factory.

Approximately 2,200 Local 659 members walked out at a Chevrolet assembly plant Thursday. Later, Fisher Body Plant No. 2, a supplier, was closed, idling another 2,500 men.

A negotiation meeting was scheduled today between the company and the union.

Burt Lawley, local vice president, said the local served strike notice earlier over lack of progress in trying to solve work rates grievances.

PENALTIES INVOLVED

Lawley said penalties against 35 workers ranging from reprimands to firings were involved. He said the penalties were for failures to keep up with assigned production quotas.

Local 659 accused the company of speedups on both truck and passenger car assembly lines.

Northville Woman, 25, Injured in Car Mishap

A Northville woman whose car went out of control and hit a tree yesterday noon in Farmington Township, is in satisfactory condition at St. Mary's Hospital, Livonia.

U.S., Panama Near Start of Zone Talks

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The United States and Panama were reported very near an agreement today to restore diplomatic relations and open talks on the Panama Canal and other issues.

Announcement of the agreement could come today. However, diplomats said the understanding still could bog down at the last moment.

The agreement would call for restoring diplomatic relations, which Panama broke last January, followed in 30 days by talks on U.S. Panama issues.

★ ★ ★

These talks informed sources said, would be conducted by U.S. and Panamanian emissaries empowered to "discuss and negotiate" issues.

FORMER COLLAPSE

A dispute over these two words — "discuss" and "negotiate" — caused collapse of efforts that nearly resulted in an agreement between the two countries Jan. 15.

At that time, Panama wanted to "negotiate" but the United States was willing only to "discuss" the 1903 Canal Zone treaty.

Mediators of the Organization of American States (OAS) were still working last night on the detailed language of the latest proposed agreement.

★ ★ ★

Riots broke out along the border between Panama and the U.S.-controlled Canal Zone Jan. 9 over the issue of whether the Panamanian flag could fly at a high school in the Canal Zone.

ORDERED OUT

Panama later ordered U.S. Embassy personnel out of the country.

A five-member OAS team was appointed last month to investigate and mediate the dispute.

The mediation team consisted of representatives from Mexico, Brazil, Costa Rica, Paraguay and Uruguay.

Diplomatic sources said last night the United States and Panama had narrowed their differences to a point where an agreement could be expected within 24 hours.

★ ★ ★

They said an announcement would be made simultaneously by the White House and the Panamanian presidential palace.

Rights Bill Is Halfway in Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate appeared to be about at the halfway point today in the first stage of its fight over the far-reaching civil rights bill.

The issue now before the Senate is whether to take the measure up for debate. Southern senators have been blocking a vote on this motion with a continuing flow of oratory.

But a member of the Dixie bloc, Sen. A. Willis Robertson, D-Va., said publicly for the first time last night that they would permit a vote on the motion next week.

★ ★ ★

"We are not going to delay this unduly," he said.

VOTE PREDICTED

This fitted in with predictions made privately by senators on both sides that a vote is likely by next Tuesday or Wednesday. The debate began Monday.

Once the motion is adopted, the Senate will settle down to a longer battle over the provisions of the bill.

It is aimed at eliminating racial discrimination in voting, in places of public accommodation, in schools, in employment and in federal aid programs.

★ ★ ★

Senate leader Mike Mansfield said that beginning next week he plans for the Senate to meet each day an hour ahead of its normal noon hour and to stay in session later at night.

SATURDAY SESSIONS

He also said that, except for Easter weekend, he intends to have Saturday Senate sessions until the civil rights measure is disposed of.

Brandon Man Hurt in Crash

Marvin Flansburg, 22, of 3054 Baldwin, Brandon Township, is in satisfactory condition at Pontiac General Hospital after suffering a dislocated hip when his car hit a tree at 3:34 a.m. today.

★ ★ ★

Flansburg told sheriff's deputies he was driving east on Seymour Lake Road in Brandon Township when his car hit a slippery spot and went out of control.

★ ★ ★

The car was rounding a curve near Dartmouth when the accident occurred.

State Man Designed New U.S. Super Jet

ANN ARBOR (AP) — An Ishpeming man, Clarence Elm (Kelly) Johnson, designed the recently revealed A-11 high-altitude airplane that flies at 2,000 miles an hour. Johnson, who also designed the U2, received a bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan in 1932 and a master's degree in 1933. He also attended Flint Junior College.

Untangles Red Tape

Actress Makes Moscow Hit

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Ruta Lee, familiar with Hollywood procedure, went to the front office to get something done—the front office in Moscow's Kremlin.

The actress, after a vain eight-year effort to obtain a Soviet exit visa to bring her 84-year-old grandmother to the United States, got word the other day that her grandmother was dying.

She tried all the regular methods of getting her parents and herself behind the Iron Curtain, but was told it would take months before anything could be done.

She broke through the iron curtain of red tape Wednesday night by placing a person-to-person call to the Kremlin to Nikita Khrushchev.

She didn't get Khrushchev, but she did talk for some $200 worth to a gentleman who identified himself as the Soviet Premier's interpreter.

ASK CONGRESSMAN

"He spoke English like a Harvard professor," the actress said. "And, like all foreigners think things are done in the United States, he suggested that I contact my Congressman.

"I told him I had already done that, and just became more persuasive. The more persuasive I became, the more sympathetic he became.

"Finally, he told me I should contact the Soviet Embassy in Washington—something which I'd already done before."

★ ★ ★

Nevertheless, she called the Soviet Embassy again yesterday.

KNEW OF PROBLEM

"I talked with a very courteous official who seemed to know a good deal about my problem. He allowed as how it might be possible to get the visa okayed in a matter of hours, instead of almost a month."

Result:

Tomorrow, with practically no red tape showing, Ruta and her Lithuanian-born parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kilmonis, will fly to London.

On Monday they are booked on a flight to Moscow, where the same day they will fly from Moscow to Vilnyus, the capital of Lithuania.

Vilnyus is only 200 miles from Daugu, the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Ludvisa Kamandulis.

Rights Leaders Hit Malcolm X

Views on Violence Considered 'Suicidal'

NEW YORK (UPI) — National civil rights leaders were shocked almost to disbelief today by the advice of militant Negro leader Malcolm X that Negroes should form "rifle clubs."

Most said they agreed that the breakaway leader of the Black Muslim movement could endanger civil rights progress and domestic peace with his prediction yesterday of "more violence on the racial scene" and his urging that Negroes begin to "fight back in self-defense."

"I can't believe he's serious," said James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE).

He said that to unlease such violence could be "ultimately suicidal."

★ ★ ★

Malcolm yesterday opened formally his announced campaign to organize a politically oriented black-nationalist movement.

MORE VIOLENCE

"There will be more violence than ever this year," he said at a news conference.

"White people will be shocked when they discover that the passive little Negro they had known turns out to be a roaring lion. The whites had better understand this while there is still time," he said.

One white man, Chicago Urban League President Robert Long, called Malcolm's remarks "horrible" and classed them as "extreme provocation."

★ ★ ★

The Chicago civil rights leader was in New York for a conference today among leaders of several national civil rights groups.

SHOWS DANGERS

"It seems to me that in this the Muslim leader is really showing his colors and the dangers inherent in the Muslim movement," Long said.

He said all civil rights leaders were "hopeful there won't be a reaction of this sort."

★ ★ ★

The national office of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) announced that "as of the moment there is no official comment" on Malcolm's remarks.

Those of the Fair Sex Like Men Wearing Specs

WILSON

NEW YORK — All over the country, men who have been a little shy about wearing glasses are coming out into the open with them . . . due to the popularity of President Johnson's glasses . . . Bill Holden, Frank Sinatra and Dean Martin are often seen in glasses . . . And we don't think this is the time to recall Joe E. Lewis' line ("I don't need glasses, I drink right out of the bottle") so we won't.

The fact is that women of mature years prefer men who wear glasses . . . They think if they have defective vision they're less likely to notice their wrinkles and double chins . . . They also feel spectacled men are smarted . . . To put it in the Dorothy Parker manner:

House Defeats Pay Boost

Authority Says Ruby Has Rare Epilepsy

DALLAS (AP) — Dr. Frederick A. Gibbs, Chicago authority on epilepsy, testified today in Jack Ruby's murder trial that Ruby has "a very rare type of Epilepsy."

Gibbs told the jury that he came to Dallas at his own request to testify in the trial of Ruby for the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald, accused presidential assassin.

Gibbs replied to a question by chief defense counsel Melvin Belli when asked what the specialist found in Ruby's electroencephalograms:

"I detected that he has a particular, very rare type of epilepsy which does not manifest itself in seizures but in other ways."

A number of psychiatric and medical witnesses who have testified for the prosecution said they flatly disagree with Gibbs' interpretations of Ruby's encephalograms (brain wave tests).

Gibbs was the 66th witness in the trial, nearing the end of its fourth week. The state rested its case late yesterday and Judge Joe E. Brown had expected that would end the testimony.

GAIN DELAY

However, defense lawyers, after a battle, won permission from Judge Brown to delay the end of testimony until today so Gibbs could reach Dallas and testify.

There was no indication in the morning session as to whether the jurors would be able to begin deliberating today.

Still ahead at that point were the judge's charge to the jury and the summation of the prosecution and defense.

High in the 50s Expected in Area During Weekend

Springlike temperatures will touch the Pontiac area during the weekend with highs around 50, and lows near 35.

Precipitation for the next five days will total one-quarter to one-half inch in showers tomorrow and again about Tuesday.

Morning winds southeasterly at 5 miles per hour will increase to 15 to 30 late this afternoon and tonight and become southwest to west tomorrow.

Twenty-six was the low recording in the downtown area preceding 8 a.m. The thermometer reading at 1 p.m. was 35.

3 Die, 2 Hurt in Foggy Crash

4 Cars Hit Remains of Head-On Collision

Four more cars collided into the remains of the initial crash.

★ ★ ★

Romeo state police said the accident happened shortly before 7 a.m. at Van Dyke and 30 Mile. Freeman and Fenrich were traveling in opposite directions on Van Dyke when their cars collided.

Millsap was a passenger in Freeman's car, along with Robert Newsome, 18, of 11051 W. 33 Mile, Romeo. Newsome is reported in "very critical" condition in Community Hospital near Almont.

The youth suffered chest and leg injuries and possible brain damage.

Ex-Employes of Florida Line

2 Held on Rail Blast Charge

FORT PIERCE, Fla. (AP)—Two alleged pickets in the violence-racked Florida East Coast Railway strike were arrested last night by FBI agents and charged with trying to blow up a train.

Five FEC trains have been dynamited during the 13-month strike.

John Wesley Davis, 28, a brawny Fort Pierce area native once dubbed "the barefoot picket," and Joseph Leo Vedder, 32, of Miami were jailed in lieu of $75,000 bond each after a brief appearance before a U.S. commissioner.

Conviction could result in 20 years imprisonment and $10,000 fine.

★ ★ ★

The FBI, in an announcement in Washington by Director J. Edgar Hoover, described both men as former employes of the railroad and allegedly active as pickets during the strike.

Davis and Vedder were accused of placing 15 sticks of dynamite, wired to explode on passage of a train, on the southbound track on the South Relief Canal trestle of the FEC. The same trestle was blown up several months ago and repaired.

The FBI said Vedder had a loaded .38 caliber pistol when he and Davis were arrested in Fort Pierce. The arrests, a few minutes apart, were made about 10:30 p.m. after Davis alighted from a car Vedder drove.

Davis, a former trainman, won his nickname by walking the picket line barefoot.

★ ★ ★

Acquaintances said the black-haired, ruddy-faced, 200-pound six footer often goes around lightly clad.

CLAD IN SHORTS

He was injured in a traffic accident several weeks ago clad only in shorts.

Davis was fined $250 in Municipal Court early during the strike for assaulting a railroad worker.

After that the FEC obtained a Circuit Court order enjoining Davis from bothering its employes.

★ ★ ★

But six months ago, officers said they saw him scuffle with two railroad signal repairmen and Circuit Court Judge Wallace Sample found Davis in contempt of the injunction. Sentence was deferred.

★ ★ ★

Two of the train-wrecking blasts were touched off last month a few miles from Palatka where President Johnson was making a speech on a Florida tour.

Tattoos Ruled Taboo for British Soldieress

LONDON (AP)—In British Army parlance, a tattoo is a military exhibition.

More commonly, a tattoo is a skin adornment, and of these Pvt. Rusty Field, 20, of the Women's Royal Army Corps, has no fewer than 62.

Red-haired Rusty's tattoos march in close order from her shoulders to her dimpled knees.

She received a firm warning from her commanding officer today that her tattoos are taboo as tattoos—as well as at all other occasions when she is in uniform.

★ ★ ★

Rusty said when she was a 17-year-old recruit, one of the other girls dared her to have a butterfly inked into her chest.

"I liked the first tattoo and went on to have more and more of them," she said.

Rusty's pelt from the waist up is a tangle of snakes, panthers, demons, butterflies and flowers. Below the waist is a herd of varicolored lizards and winged gargoyles and a flying dragon in vivid green.

"I realize," said Rusty, "that if I ever marry, it will have to be a man who likes tattoos."

★ ★ ★

Lt. Marilyn Masson, Rusty's C. O., said the tattoo-happy WRAC has ben warned that when in uniform she positively must not disclose a single skin picture.

"Pvt. Field," commented Lt. Masson, "is a very nice and intelligent girl, but she is something of a character."

Surprise Move Attributed to Election Jitters

1.7 Million Employes of Government Also Lose Salary Increase

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a sudden seizure of election year jitters, the House has said "no thanks" to a $10,000-a-year pay raise.

Its surprising decision yesterday that at $22,500 Congress members are paid enough killed a bill that would have boosted the salaries of 1.7 million government workers. The average mailman and government secretary stood to gain $450 annually.

Theoretically, the Senate can revive the pay boost drive later this session, and to make it more palatable, at more modest proportions. But veteran observers consider this unlikely.

The higher salary structure had the strong support of the House Democratic leadership and the Johnson Administration.

★ ★ ★

It was scaled to boost those in the top levels 22.5 per cent and those on the lower rungs 3 per cent on the theory that the government can retain top people only by making their pay competitive with private industry.

ELECTION FAVOR

However, this is an election year, and while the voter may favor a $450 raise for his post-

5 Klansmen Charged With Bombing Plot

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Five officials of the Ku Klux Klan have been arrested on federal charges that they intimidated and threatened a 6-year-old Negro boy by plotting the Feb. 16 bombing of his home.

FBI agents arrested four leaders of the white supremacy movement in Jacksonville last night. The fifth was arrested at Smyrna, Tenn.

Held under $10,000 bonds each were Barton H. Griffin, 35; Jacky Don Harden, 25; Willie Eugene Wilson, 39; and Donald Eugene Spegal, 31, all of Jacksonville; and Robert Pittman Gentry, 28, of Murfreesboro, Tenn.

The FBI said the five conspired with William Sterling Rosecrans Jr., 30, to dynamite the Jacksonville home of Iona Godfrey and her son Donald.

★ ★ ★

The FBI said Rosecrans did the bombing. No one was injured, but the house was damaged. Rosecrans is being held in lieu of $25,000 bond.

'Schools' Racial Policy Best Available'

By L. GARY THORNE

Racial integration in Pontiac schools represents "the best available practice," the school board said last night in an unexpected public statement.

★ ★ ★

School Board President William H. Anderson read a two-page statement that detailed school board policies on pupil placement, employment and assignment of teachers and educational programs.

"For many years, all pupils, regardless of race, have attended the schools serving the area in which they live," he said.

"Interest in the complex problem of public school racial integration across the nation has caused local citizens to raise inquiries concerned with the situation in Pontiac . . . ," he added.

★ ★ ★

Anderson said that the statement was prompted by charges last fall of "de facto segregation" in some local schools.

(De facto segregation is segregated practices that result from circumstances not caused by any official policies or plan, such as housing.)

WORK ON STATEMENT

He said work on the statement had begun prior to announcement of a "freedom demonstration" on March 24 protesting alleged school segregation.

A march from the board of education offices at 40 Patterson to the steps of city hall is being planned by the county chapter of the NAACP.

The school board president said news of the march came while the statement was being prepared, but that charges of "de facto segregation" and recent meetings with a group of clergy and private citizens were behind the police statement.

★ ★ ★

He said members of the citizens group, who did not represent the views of any one organization, advanced the general idea that local schools were maintained on a "separate, but equal" basis.

He said such charges that predominantly Negro schools were being shorted on supplies and programs were advanced by this group.

"The purpose of the meetings was to iron out or dispel the notion we weren't being quite fair with Negro pupils," Anderson explained.

The number of schools enrolling both white and Negro pupils has increased as residential patterns have changed and this will continue, according to the board president.

★ ★ ★

Anderson said the school board had received suggestions that special measures be taken to achieve a more even distri-

MAKE OVER PAGES

Mike Samardzija, Jr. and Larry Crake are two of the best young bowlers in the Pontiac area; and if their present development is any indication, they will contribute much to the sport, locally.

Both are members of the Pontiac Window Cleaning team in the Friday Huron Bowl Classic and are a big reason the squad is in the running for first place.

Last week the team won eight points and climbed closer to first place by bowling an 1166 team game and 3328 team series.

Crake and the junior Samardzija were prime factors in the night's success. Both came within two pins of their first sanctioned 300.

A 5-7 leave on ball number 12 cost Mike his perfect game. Larry was victimized by the 6-10 two games later.

The latter earlier had rolled a 234 and he finished with a 714 series. But Samardzija took the honors there with 257 added to his 298 for 754.

Both had typical comments after losing their bids for 300 under mounting pressure.

Mike commented that the ball felt "heavier" the 12th time while Larry said his final approach seemed "uphill."

COMBINATION

Baseball and bowling compete directly during the summer for participants, but the two will combine forces next month at Thunderbird Lanes in Troy.

The Troy Baseball Boosters are sponsoring a bowling tournament April 18-19 and several weekends thereafter to raise money for the various diamond teams sponsored by the group.

The handicap tournament is open to men (70 per cent) and women (80 per cent) for singles and team competition.

Entry fee is $4 and one-fourth of that will go into the prize fund. The deadline for entries is April 10.

This is the boosters first attempt with their endeavor and, if successful, it could become a very popular money raising project for quite a few groups.

SPARE PINS

Pontiac's Elks Lodge will send its delegation to the 44th Elks National Bowling tournament this weekend at Cincinnati.

There will be 32 teams representing the local lodge tomorrow and Sunday.

★ ★ ★

They could use a little of the luck of the Irish, perhaps. At least, it would appear that is what George Bone had going for him last week in the St. Patrick's League at Wonderland Lanes. Bone converted the 7-10 split.

There was some fancy bowling Saturday night in Howe's Lanes Moonlite Doubles. Dave Sherman rolled 218-215—638 and Bob Meyer 225 in compiling 1374 handicap pins to win the Pot-of-Gold.

Bourdase Tops PBA Qualifiers

Moore Drops to 40th at New Jersey Meet

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP)— Sixteen men advanced into the semifinals of the $31,000 New Jersey Open Bowling Tournament Thursday night and Ted Bourdase of Fresno, Calif., led the way with a total pinfall of 5,123.

★ ★ ★

They will go into match play Friday and reduce the field to the four who will participate in Saturday's finals.

Bourdase shot 1,287 in his six games Thursday night to lead the roster, but Carmen Salvino of Chicago had the night's high series of 1,333 and the high game of 269.

Johnny Meyer of Lake Ronkonkoma, N.Y., who had taken the lead in 12 games Wednesday dropped to 24th — and out of contention — when he could score only 1,030 pins in the afternoon series.

Monroe Moore of Pontiac had six-game blocks of 1136 and 1193 Thursday to drop from 12th to 40th place.

Another local bowler, Al Pietz wound up 147th with 4361. Moore's total was 4795.

Final Qualifying in PBA

16 Finalists After 10 Spots

Two Pontiac Bowlers Among Leaders

The final qualifying day for the North American PBA Open will take place all day Saturday at 300 Bowl out of which 16 amateur bowlers will gain berths for head to head competition to be held Sunday.

Only two Pontiac bowlers are currently among the top 16 scorers for the 10 spots in the PBA Open. Jerry Perna and Larry Crake are the lone contenders from Pontiac.

Sunday, the 16 top scorers will bowl at 10:00 a.m. and at 3:00 p.m. in PBA system of scoring, after which the top 10 will join the 150 touring pros when the $31,400 tournament starts at 300 Bowl, March 24.

Currently, William Paladino of Detroit has a four-game total of 920, followed by Don Wright of Ubly, Mich., with 891 and Dick Preston with 867.

PRO AM QUALIFYING

Qualifying for the pro-am event of the tournament will go on from 2:00 p.m. and continue throughout the day Sunday at 300 bowl. Any handicap bowler is eligible to bowl in this event and to date bowlers from throughout Michigan, including women, with averages as low as 130 have qualified.

★ ★ ★

There is a 100 per cent handicap. The entry fee is $7.00 and each handicap bowler who qualifies will teamup with a member of the PBA on Tuesday March 24th for a special $5,000 purse and $1,000 first prize.

Other area establishments will also conduct qualifying Sunday. Huron Bowl, Airway Lanes, Howe's Lanes, North Hill Lanes and Auburn Lanes are planning Sunday squads. Times are listed at the establishments.

The Grand Rapids area leads the outstate qualifying locations. Twenty - one qualifiers have come out of Miracle Lanes in Grand Rapids to date.

The final pro-am qualifying will be held next weekend, Saturday and Sunday March 21-22.

Tickets for the PBA tournament are on sale at all local bowling establishments. The demand is heavy for the pro-am event at which the capacity will be limited.

Because of the number of outstate qualifying sites, each establishment has asked for an allotment of tickets. The remaining tickets will be sold at the door. Ticket price for all sessions including the Friday semi-finals and Saturday TV finals is $1.00.

A total of 76 perfect games have been scored by WIBC members. Ohio and California women lead the way, each with eight 300 games Californians have scored all eight of theirs since the 1957-58 season.

Travel Loop Moves Into Home Stretch

The Pontiac Traveling Classic League moved into the home stretch of the league race with very little change in the standings after last weekend's action.

Only three more Sundays remain on the regular schedule before the playoff matches begin. This weekend the league will visit Airway Lanes for competition at noon.

League leading 300 Bowl and runner-up Airway Lanes garnered wins last weekend, while the three teams fighting for final playoff berths all suffered defeats.

Joe Foster (648 and six) and Monroe Moore (622 and seven) had 13 of the points "300" posted in beating Sylvan Lanes, 16-13.

Airway was led by Jim Kirkpatrick (603) and Ed Gibbs (602) in decisioning Montcalm Bowling Centre, 12-9. Third place Huron Bowl took the day off.

Four men were over 600 as Primrose Lanes bombed Wonderland, 21-4. Ivan Craycroft had 254—628, Walt Honchell 626, Dave Martens 609 and Chuck Messer 603.

Howe's Lanes topped Cooley Lanes, 8-6, and West Side Lanes beat Fairground Bowling 13-9. The winners were paced by Bob Sutton (625 and five) and Carl Hartman (246 for five).

PWBA Meet Resumes in Team Events

More than 200 women and 80 teams will be shooting at the leaders as the Pontiac Woman's Bowling Association's 31st annual tournament resumes this weekend at North Hill Lanes.

Rochester's Tienken Road establishment kicked off the tournament last week and Utica's Poljan, Inc. team took the early lead with 2947.

That was one pin better than the Drewry's team of Auburn Heights.

Pontiac women led in all other events. Etta Feltes had 1874 for the handicap all-events lead and was one pin behind leader Dorothy Barnowsky's 648 in the singles.

Evelyn Davidson is the pace setter in two events, holding the actual all-events top spot with 1594, and teaming with Barbara Wall for the doubles lead at 1254.

The first squad in Saturday's team event begins at 3:30 p.m. Sunday's singles and doubles competition has a 10 a.m. beginning.

ABC Meet Leaders Same

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Despite a few impressive scores Thursday, the leaders in all nine divisions of the American Bowling Congress Tournament emerged unscathed from the 20th day of the $330,262 event.

★ ★ ★

The biggest threat came in the regular doubles, where Bob Brose and Don Biely of Janesville, Wis., combined for a 1,263 series to take third place. They were still far off the torrid 1,343 pace set on March 1 by Pat and Tony Russo, a pair of flower-growing brothers from Paramus, N. J.

Parker Howard of Santa Rosa, Calif., fired a 652 series to take fourth place in the classic singles, but he was 16 pins short of overtaking George Fleischhacker of Phoenix, Ariz., who has commanded the professional singles since March 1.

NO CLOWNING

The Sonoma Clowns of Sonoma, Calif., rolled a 2,735 series to tie for fifth place with the U. S. Coast Guard Air Station of San Francisco. State Market of Hanford, Calif., leader of the 850-and-under division since Saturday, rode out another night with its 2,857 total.

Ex-49er Leads Gridiron Golfers in Tournament

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP)— Former San Francisco 49er football star Gordon Soltau was slightly embarrassed Thursday when he finished the first day of play in the Professional Football golf Tournament with a two-under-par 69.

★ ★ ★

Soltau is the tournament's director and he also is a nine handicapper.

The two-day tournament ends today at the Palo Alto Hills Country Club.

WARM-UP FOR MARCH MEET: Professional Bowlers Association member Andy Rogoznica of 5919 South Rockwell, Chicago, and North American Van Lines Driver Johnny Johnston heft a bowling ball in anticipation of North American PBA Open scheduled for the 300 Bowl, Pontiac, Michigan, March 24-28. North American Van Lines is sponsor of the event.

Celtics Tops in East

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP) — Boston clinched its eighth straight Eastern Division title in the National Basketball Association Thursday night by walloping Detroit 140-120.

★ ★ ★

The Pistons fell behind early 26-7 and never came closer than 20 points.

Meanwhile, Cincinnati practically assured itself of second place in the East by defeating Philadelphia 128-111, and San Francisco boosted its Western Division lead to two games over idle St. Louis by hammering Baltimore 125-102.

★ ★ ★

Reserve center Clyde Lovellette paced a balanced Celtic attack with 23 points.

Dr. Sheppard Denied Parole

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — The Pardon and Parole Commission today rejected Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard's bid for freedom and said it would not consider his case until he was eligible for parole this fall.

The action was a surprise as many principals in Sheppard's conviction of second-degree murder for the bludgeon slaying in 1954 of his wife had recommended he be released from prison.

The rejection of his appeal for reconsideration by the commission came as he pressed for his release under a habeas corpus action in U.S. District Court.

The commission's decision still left Sheppard's request up to Gov. James A. Rhodes, who could act against the parole commission recommendation and grant executive clemency or immediate parole.

TRIAL CONDITION

Should the federal court agree to hear the habeas corpus action, the state would have to prove that Sheppard's constitutional rights were not violated in his trial as he claims.

Sheppard was convicted of second-degree murder for the fatal beating in their home of his wife, Marilyn, in the Cleveland suburb of Bay Village on July 4, 1954.

He has maintained his innocence since his arrest and has filed various appeals in state and federal courts.

Viet Report by McNamara

Will Tell Johnson Victory Is Possible

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara returned from South Viet Nam today to give President Johnson a firsthand report on how the war is going against Communist guerrillas there.

* * *

McNamara told reporters at Andrews Air Force Base that during his swing through the war-torn country "I did not meet a single responsible official who doesn't believe that if a proper effort is made" victory can be obtained.

He added, though, that "the path to victory may be hard" and said "there is no magic formula for winning an anti-guerrilla war."

TWO PURPOSES

The defense chief, with Gen. Maxwell E. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, standing at his side, said the President had sent them to South Viet Nam for two purposes:

1. To appraise the political, economic and military situation.

2. To determine what "additional actions if any" the United States should take in the struggle against Communist-dominated Viet Cong.

He said he and Taylor were prepared to give the President their recommendations. However he declined to indicate in advance of his meeting with President Johnson what the recommendations would be.

The Secretary reportedly concluded during his five-day visit —his fourth to the embattled Southeast Asian country—that the massive U.S. aid may have to be stepped up if the war is to be won.

STAY IN SOUTH

But dispatches from Saigon also said McNamara has vetoed suggestions that the battle be expanded into North Viet Nam.

Johnson sent McNamara and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, to South Viet Nam last week to make a new assessment of the battle against the Viet Cong. They were joined there by John A. McCone, director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Before boarding his homeward-bound plane yesterday in Saigon, McNamara told cheering Vietnamese that their new premier, Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, has a sound strategy for defeating the Reds and "we are confident these plans point the way to victory."

At the same time the Secretary warned that he had found the situation "very serious" and he promised the U.S. government will provide whatever additional aid is necessary.

Aides said McNamara was convinced that only by increased American assistance and greater Vietnamese effort can the Communist tide be stemmed in Southeast Asia.

Reds: Admit Order; We'll Free Fliers

BERLIN (AP)—The Soviet Union will release three captured Air Force officers if the U.S. government admits it ordered them to fly over East Germany, an informed source reported today.

The three officers parachuted from an RB66 reconnaissance plane shot down by a Soviet fighter over East Germany Tuesday.

The informant said if the United States does not issue a public admission that they were ordered to fly over Communist territory, the three will be tried on espionage charges. (See stories, page A-4.)

In Sturdy Economy

Public Confidence Up

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — About the worst thing that could befall the American economy on Friday the Thirteenth would be a loss of public confidence. But on this Friday the Thirteenth confidence is at an unusually high point.

DAWSON

Confidence is so high today that it leads some to shake their gray locks in wariness. They remember that confidence often hits a peak just when the economy is ready to turn down from causes the public hasn't noted.

* * *

Why are businessmen as well as the general public so free right now in expressing confidence? And what could undermine this state of euphoria?

Take the obvious causes of contentment first.

STEADY PROCESSION

The stock market averages have been setting a steady procession of new peaks. True, rising stock prices are a result of confidence. But they also can double as a cause, because most people, even those who don't own any shares, feel better when the market is going up. They reason that those in the know must be sure of better days ahead.

* * *

Closer at home are personal incomes. The total keeps on rising from many causes—larger wage scales, overtime work, increased dividends, higher returns from savings. And now disposable personal incomes are going up due to the cut in federal income tax rates.

Employment totals have been rising, too. This is small comfort to the more than 4 million officially estimated as unemployed. But those who do have jobs feel confident of ability to meet next month's payments on their various forms of debt.

COLD WAR

The cold war bothers people less right now. There are many trouble spots, and still more potential ones, but compared to some past years the picture today is less frightening.

What could upset all this?

At home, the big uncertainties just now center on the effects of the tax cut. Confidence is a fine thing. A boom-and-bust psychology isn't. And this will be watched closely. If consumers went on a spree, spent too much, went too far into debt, the results could be disastrous. So would any overexpansion by industry.

* * *

For all the unlikeliness right now, inflation could then become a problem again. And so could the loss of the dollar's prestige abroad. A cut in the purchasing power of the dollar would more than eat up any benefits from a tax cut.

The first battleground, if such a boom showed signs of breaking forth, would be in the field of monetary control. Those who want easy money as the best way to feed a growing economy would fight it out with those who want dear money as the best safeguard against an overheated boom leading to a bust.

* * *

There are several reasons why many think this Friday the Thirteenth sees no immediate dangers of such a showdown.

Business expansion plans, although being beefed up as confidence grows, are still in line with the current realities. Most business executives have shown caution throughout the three years of the business upswing.

Inventories are in trim shape, on the whole. Overextended stocks have often triggered, and certainly made worse, business downturns in the past.

* * *

The public hasn't been overconfident either. It has bought freely, but not excessively. Its reaction to extra take-home pay due to the tax cut is yet to be revealed. But there's more than a good chance that the consumer, and the businessman, and even the stock trader, won't get too cocky.

Italians Help English Bells to Ring Again

LAMBERHURST, England (AP) — The bells of the leaning church tower of this Kentish village, silenced for 11 years, may soon ring again — thanks to Italian engineers.

Giovanni Luchesi of Pisa is to supervise the strengthening of Lamberhurst's 14th Century bell tower.

The tower has been leaning at several degrees since 1950. The last time the bells were rung, in 1952, they caused solid stone blocks in the tower to crack because of their angle and the strain imposed.

* * *

The building technique, developed by an Italian firm, consists of boring holes through the base of the tower walls into the sandstone below.

That way, the tower can be strengthened while still keeping its tilt, like its more famous counterpart in Pisa.

Then the bells can ring again.

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "I would like to invest $5,000 each in two tax-exempt bonds. Please suggest high grade issues and tell what they will yield and when they will mature. I am only in the 26 per cent income bracket but would still like to have some money in tax-exempts. Must these bonds be held to maturity? Also please suggest one good insurance stock." M.B.

A) I believe you should be commended for wanting a moderate position in high grade tax-exempts—the safest security you can buy with the exception of Governments. These bonds do not have to be held to maturity but can be sold readily at prevailing market prices.

I suggest San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District 3.40's due 6/15/92, selling to yield 3.35 per cent. Also I like City of Springfield, Mass., Housing Authority 3⅜'s due 1997, also offered on a 3.35 per cent basis.

For a single life insurance stock purchase I suggest Connecticut General Life — a very strong company.

Q) "I have been a widow for ten years. I was left with a new home; also 100 shares American Viscose; 100 Macy; 100 New York Central R.R.; 100 Radio Corp.; and 600 U.S. Freight. I turned in my Viscose and got Monsanto Chemical and some cash which I don't need. I wish to invest in Long Island Lighting and American Telephone. Will you please give me your opinion on my holdings and the stocks I propose to buy?" M.R.

I like all your stocks and your prospective purchases. But it does seem to me that you are too heavily represented in U.S. Freight. Although this is an excellent company, $32,000 seems too much for you to have in any given situation.

I believe I would hold 200 shares and diversify by switching the balance into Corn Products; Texaco; and Sears, Roebuck.

Mr. Spear cannot answer all mail personally but will answer all questions possible in his column.
