Pike Group Ordered Off Ford Land

DETROIT (AP) — Tempers flared yesterday when a Michigan Turnpike Authority party, including former Gov. Murray D. Van Wagoner, was ordered off Ford Motor Co. property in Dearborn.

A Ford spokesman said later the order was unauthorized.

* * *

Former State Sen. George N. Higgins, now chairman of the authority, angrily challenged the order of Irving J. Im Oberstag, chairman of the Dearborn City Planning Commission.

In a move to erase opposition to the proposed Rockwood to Saginaw turnpike route, Higgins was leading a group on an inspection tour.

With Higgins were Van Wagoner, consulting engineer for the authority, and two Democratic state legislators from Dearborn, Sen. Patrick J. Doyle and Rep. Lucille McCullough.

LIVES NEAR ROUTE

Im Oberstag, whose wife is a Ford, has an estate in Dearborn across the Rouge River from the Fairlane estate of the late Henry Ford. The proposed 113-mile toll road would cross this property about 425 feet east of Im Oberstag's home.

Im Oberstag's order to get off caught Higgins by surprise. The Ford Motor Co. never has officially taken a stand in the turnpike controversy, which had been fought in the courts as well as in the legislature.

Higgins got in touch by telephone with Allen W. Merrell, assistant to the president at Ford.

"He (Merrell) told me that Ford knew nothing of such an order and said we were welcome to visit the property at any time," Higgins said.

Before leaving the property, Higgins got in a few sharp words. He told Im Oberstag:

* * *

"We have tried to cooperate with everyone. But if that's the way the company feels, then we will push this thing (the turnpike) through without consulting them.

FORD ROLE CITED

"After all, Ford Motor Co. has a vital stake in this turnpike. The cars they have built and put on the highways have helped to cause the need for a turnpike."

"This is sure a weird one," said Van Wagoner.

Sen. Doyle said later, "I think Im Oberstag was bluffing. I am positive that the Ford Motor Co. would not issue such an order."

Doyle and Mrs. McCullough had been invited by Higgins to tour the proposed route through Dearborn. Both have been opposed to the toll road.

In his campaign to eliminate opposition to the project, Higgins said, "My idea is to gain the consent of the affected legislators first and then to approach the individual communities."

* * *

Neither Mrs. McCullough nor Doyle appeared to have officially mellowed on their turnpike views following the tour. But Doyle commented, "I believe the authority is in good hands now."

Seek Injunction to Halt Walkout at Eastern Ports

Waterfront Commission Acts as Harbor Strike Spreads to Baltimore

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York-New Jersey Waterfront Commission moved today for an injunction to halt a longshoremen's walkout that has crippled the port of New York.

This is the agency set up by the legislatures of the two states two years ago to clean house on New York harbor piers, long the scene of strife and racketeering.

The walkout is aimed at the commission and commission policies, and not at employers.

The commission's action came as the tie-up, costing an estimated million dollars a day in New York, spread to Baltimore and threatened to hit Philadelphia and Boston.

It was the second court action intended to get the men back to work. They walked out yesterday.

* * *

The New York Shipping Assn., employer group, obtained a restraining order in State Supreme Court yesterday.

WALKOUT CONTINUES

William V. Bradley, president of the International Longshoremen's Assn., Independent, said today he had not yet received a copy of the restraining order — and the walkout went on.

Bradley told a cheering group of dockworkers today he would not recommend a resumption of work until Govs. Averell Harriman of New York and Robert Meyner of New Jersey met with the union.

In Trenton, Meyner responded: "The chief executive of New Jersey doesn't knuckle under to any group, especially when it is in contravention of a statute which was passed almost unanimously by both houses of the Legislature."

Meyner was referring to the statute creating the waterfront commission.

* * *

He told a news conference the proper person for the dockers to see was Joseph Weintraub, the commission's New Jersey member. Meyner said he had "no inclination" to intervene in the dispute unless advised by Weintraub to do so.

Summer Vacation Ends

Pontiac Press Photo

BACK TO SCHOOL — Vacation's over, but the eager-faced students entering Pontiac Senior High School for the first day's classes this morning looked as though they didn't mind a bit. Principal Francis W. Staley said he expected enrollment to exceed last year's figure by about 200. Up to last night, more than 2,300 book cards had been issued at the school and a total enrollment of more than 2,400 is anticipated. Some 100 students who are new to the city have registered, and about 60 who had quit school decided to return, the principal said.

Pontiac's Public, Parochial Schools Open Fall Terms

Sunny skies and brisk, clear weather heralded the first day of school as Pontiac's 32 public and parochial schools this morning opened classes for the fall semester.

Some 19,000 students were enrolled last year, and indications were that this figure would be substantially increased.

Added to the public school system this fall is the new Lake street elementary school with 10 classrooms, and a 7-room addition to Whitfield School. Capacity of the two buildings will be about 660, officials said.

Under construction is a new junior high school on North Perry street, expected to accommodate at least 662 pupils. When completed, Wever Junior High students will be moved to this building, leaving Wever School to take care of an overload of pupils at Owen and Hawthorne Schools.

Another school under construction is the Linda Vista elementary on East boulevard, which will include 17 classrooms.

An innovation at Linda Vista will be an orthopedic suite to take care of 40 handicapped children. The suite, first to be built under Oakland County's new, special education program, will include two classrooms and one double-sized therapy room.

Physical therapy, occupational therapy and speech therapy will be among services provided there for the city's handicapped children.

All schools in the Pontiac district are operating on full-day schedules with one exception. Emerson School is on half-days, and the Emerson building is being used in the afternoons by pupils from the Linda Vista area until the new school is constructed. Completion is expected by mid-year, officials said.

Developer Asks Temporary Halt in Controversy

Decision on Proposal Was Expected Tuesday After Long Delay

A request that Pontiac annex a 145-acre shopping center site in Bloomfield Township, thus making city sewage and water facilities available, will be "temporarily withdrawn," the project's developer said today.

Detroit realtor Bernard Edelman said he has asked that the proposal—fought by downtown businessmen—not be considered at next Tuesday's City Commission meeting. A decision had been expected at that time.

He would not indicate whether the word "temporary" meant the request would be resubmitted at a later date.

Edelman first appeared before the City Commission on Aug. 2, requesting that Pontiac annex the site.

Two weeks later, the Commission gave tentative approval to the move, following a report from the City Plan Commission recommending annexation.

At that time, final approval hinged on several provisos in the planning board's report. Included were questions of sewage, draining and water facilities, and for widening Franklin Road and annexation of other nearby property to straighten the city limits.

DECISION POSTPONED

Decision on the proposal was expected on Aug. 23, but was postponed at the request of a group of local merchants. City Manager Walter K. Williman presented a report at the Aug. 23 meeting on the technical aspects of the proposed annexation.

Petitions, sponsored by the Downtown Merchants Committee, were circulated on Aug. 25, asking the Commissioners to delay action. Circulars warning that the proposed center "will draw much of its trade from areas already being served by existing business" were mailed to merchants and property owners in Pontiac.

MIXED REACTIONS

Cloudy and Warmer Weather Expected

Today's fair skies will cloud tomorrow, accompanying a slight rise in temperatures.

The mercury is expected to rise to a high of 74-78 Friday, following a predicted peak of 70-74 today. Yesterday's high was only 66 — 10 degrees short of the expected maximum — while the reading at 2 p.m. today in downtown Pontiac was 68 degrees.

The thermometer registered a chilly 47 here during the night, rising to only 52 by 8 a.m.

The stern old Chancellor stepped from his gleaming Super Constellation to begin crucial conferences on the future of Soviet-West German relations which could influence the entire course of world history.

Briefly addressing the Moscow reporters, Adenauer said:

Dismissal Refused on Milk Litigation

DETROIT—Circuit Judge Carl M. Weideman Wednesday refused to dismiss a suit against the Michigan Milk Producers Association.

The suit was filed last April by Harold H. Fritz, president of the Romeo local, and seeks to force a revision of the MMPA bylaws. Fritz and his group contend that Howard Simmons, secretary-manager, has too much power in running the groups' affairs.

Fritz has called a meeting for Monday evening, Sept. 12, at 8:15 in the Romeo High School for all members of the association to hear reports on the pending suit.

Orange Label Shrinks

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — Those "color added" markings you see on Florida oranges will be a little smaller this season. The Florida Citrus Commission voted yesterday to reduce the size of the lettering from 5-32 of an inch to 3-32.

Test Automobile Crashes Illustrate Safety Trends

DETROIT (AP)—Your safety in an automobile will depend more and more in the future upon law enforcement, driver education and advanced engineering.

Safety specialists, crash injury authorities, attorneys, physicians and insurance executives were so informed by leading experts on safe driving at the closing session today of the Ford-sponsored National Safety Forum.

They had been told at the opening session yesterday that a major problem in reducing traffic injuries and deaths is provision of means to keep the passenger within the protection shell of the car body.

Today they were given a dramatic demonstration of what happens to cars and passengers in a broadside collision of vehicles provided by the Ford Motor Co.

Two crashes were staged. Ford safety engineers, who have been doing it for several years, towed one car into another broadside; another was crashed head-on into a stationary barrier.

There were "passengers" in the crash cars. They were dummies built of steel and plastic. As nearly as possible they simulate the weight, joint structure and conformation of the human body.

CRASH FILMED

Equipment concealed in the head and abdomen of each dummy transmits electronic messages to an instrument car at each crash-test scene. High speed cameras provide a picture of the movements of the dummies within the cars at the instant of collision. Each dummy wears a white union suit so it will show up better for photographic purposes.

* * *

Each dummy has a piece of aluminum foil on its forehead and a similar piece is placed on the windshield and each instrument panel. If the dummy's head touches the windshield or instrument panel an electrical circuit records the time and points of contact automatically.

* * *

However, most of the major car makers are offering, or will offer belts, crash padding and improved door locks. Ford has announced these features, along with a safety steering wheel and rear view mirrors with safety backing to reduce shattering, will be available in its 1956 model cars.

MSU, Oakland to Study Farms

Will Survey the Effects of Urbanization Upon Agriculture

Michigan State University officials yesterday tentatively agreed to join with Oakland County in a pioneering study of rapid industrial, commercial and residential development effects on farming areas in the county.

A local delegation proposed the study at a meeting in East Lansing. Included were Chairman of the Supervisors' Farm Committee Howard J. Reid, County Agricultural Agent Lyle B. Abel, County Plan Commission Director George N. Skrubb, County Planner Noland R. Heiden and Commission member Roger Oberg.

They met with MSU Vice President Derwood B. Varner, Agricultural School Dean Thomas K. Cowden and other faculty members.

FORMULA WORKED OUT

A formula for conducting the survey was worked out.

Another meeting with the university will be scheduled before a final decision on launching the project will be made.

"Nothing definite has been decided as yet," Skrubb explained today. "It first must be determined whether $6,000 can be obtained to finance the survey."

The plan commission and Farm Committee plan to ask the Super-

Flames Trap Fire Fighter

Ten Others Injured as 3 New Blazes Erupt on West Coast

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Ten fire fighters were burned in California and one was reported missing in Oregon as flames ate through hundreds of thousands of acres of Pacific Coast timber and brushlands today.

Three new timber fires burst out of control in northern California and another roared four miles ahead in Oregon yesterday.

The one missing worker was a member of a four-man crew that had to abandon two tractors as flames nearly trapped them. Three reached safety but one was still unreported. His name was not learned.

He was trapped in a flareup of the Round Butte fire in southern Oregon, which burned over an estimated 2,300 acres.

Foreman David Robb and nine Mexican national volunteers were painfully burned fighting a fire pushing dangerously close to Santa Barbara, Calif. Decreasing winds and the prospects of cooler weather lifted hopes of controlling the blaze.

Tourists Pour $160 Million Into Michigan

LANSING (AP)—A record number of tourists spent a record 160 million dollars visiting the "Water Wonderland" this year, the State Tourist Council reported today.

Robert J. Furlong, executive secretary, said this year's resort business is some 15 per cent better than 1954's and tops the record 1953 season.

At the same time, Furlong released a report which shows business in some northern Michigan counties increased more than 300 per cent during the height of the tourist season.

A survey conducted by an independent research organization now ranks Michigan's tourist industry fourth in the nation—behind New York, Florida and California, in that order.

This survey, Furlong said, showed that nearly 6 per cent of the nation's tourists in 1954 visited Michigan.

Wilson Cow Crowned

DETROIT (AP)—Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson watched proudly from the sidelines at the Michigan State Fair yesterday as his prize cow Windrow Helene was crowned grand champion female of the Ayrshire breed. "Helene's a good one," Wilson said of the handsome, 4-year-old animal, which he owns jointly with his son Edward E. at Windrow Farm

Impounding Habitual Violators' Cars Urged

A member of the Pontiac City Plan Commission who has wide experience in promoting highway safety today advocated impounding chronic violators' autos as a step to reduce Michigan's mounting accident toll.

William F. Kalwitz said, "Safe driving is about 75 per cent good judgment and common sense plus 25 per cent skill in handling an automobile.

"In other words, starting, stopping, steering and other mechanical abilities are secondary to common sense . . . punishment for violation of traffic regulations must be constantly administered to force judgment on the poor drivers."

Education, too, is important, he stated, but in his opinion, Kalwitz said, "we have not made enough progress on the penalty side of the picture."

Teenagers have been responsible for a great loss of lives on highways recently, he asserted, often in "fatal crashes caused by a total deficiency of common sense . . .

'FORCED JUDGMENT'

"We must find a way of forcing judgment upon all perennial traffic-law violators, particularly youthful drivers, but other than confining them in jail."

Jail sentences, he declared, often do more harm than good by throwing youngsters in with "hardened criminals."

Traffic violations which do not involve fatalities should be punishable by impounding the auto for "days, weeks or even months. This would apply to the car responsible for the accident whether or not it was driven by the owner."

To institute such a program would require legislation at the state level. Justices and municipal court judges now lack the power to impound cars.

Kalwitz urged Oakland County state legislators to study the proposal and consider introducing it when they reconvene in Lansing.

The law, he stressed, should be designed to apply only to persons with a long record of infractions. "A person who accidentally ran a red light would not face loss of his car."

HIT ILLEGAL DRIVERS

The plan, he stated, would make it almost physically impossible for persons who have had their licenses revoked following a number of violations to drive.

Only about half the persons who lose their licenses stop driving, according to the Secretary of State's Office.

"But they'll be forced to stay off the road," Kalwitz emphasized, "if they have no car to drive."

The impounding plan was tried by a Flint circuit judge on temporary duty in Detroit a few years ago "and got results over night.

"It is a certainty parents would see that youngsters drove carefully or not at all if the youth had been the cause of having the family car impounded for a couple of weeks or possibly a month.

"There are very few true accidents. Injuries and deaths on the highways are in the great majority caused by negligent driving."

Two Beauties Lead in Contest

Hawaii, Alabama Girls Given Honors in Race for Miss America

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) — A tall beauty from the tropics and a Southern belle with a silver voice held early leads today in the scramble for the Miss America 1956 crown.

* * *

Miss Hawaii, 22-year-old hula dancer Barbara Mamo Vieira of Honolulu, took the top honors in the first preliminary swim suit competition last night.

Miss Alabama, Patricia Byrd Huddleston of Clanton, won out over 15 other lovelies in the talent competition with a rendition of the aria "Pace, Pace Mio Dio" from Verdi's opera "La Forza del Destino."

* * *

Barbara in a skin-tight swim suit got the nod from the judges. She stands 5 feet 8, weighs 130 and measures 36-24-36 at the bust, waist and hips.

A soprano who has studied voice for six years, Patricia awoke yesterday with a touch of laryngitis. "I was definitely singing under a handicap," she said after the contest. But the audience and the judges apparently didn't think so as she was named the winner.

Another portion of the 49 Miss America entries took part in an evening gown competition, but these results are kept secret to build suspense.

* * *

The preliminaries in each of the three divisions continue tonight and tomorrow night, with the girls rotating in different categories.

By Saturday night, 10 semifinalists will have been selected, and then the field narrows down to five, from whom Miss America will be picked.

Nixon Makes Prophecy: Ike and More Highways

FLINT, Mich. (AP) — Automobile-minded Flint has a pledge from Vice President Nixon that he'll try to do something about more highways — with more cars as a result.

Nixon, a speaker last night at Flint's Centennial celebration, concentrated the better part of a 13-minute talk on the future of U. S. roads.

He linked Flint, the great car producing city, directly with this.

* * *

After acting as honorary grand marshal of a parade viewed by a police-estimated 200,000 spectators, Nixon spoke in the triangular-shaped park in front of the Durant Hotel.

* * *

Postmaster General Summerfield of Flint introduced Nixon.

Nixon said: "As you think of the industrial future of Flint, it is very significant that the President of the United States submitted the greatest highway program ever heard of in this country — 100 billion dollars in ten years.

"More cars mean a bigger and better Flint and Michigan."

* * *

Nixon's talk, delivered extemporaneously, followed an earlier press conference in which he reiterated confidence that President Eisenhower would seek a second term.

MSU Aid Is Offered in Area Farm Study

visors' Ways and Means Committee that funds for the project be included in the two groups' 1956 budgets.

Some $3,000 would be needed to pay a university community services specialist who would do field work and coordinate the survey. The other $3,000 would finance materials and secretarial help.

The MSU Continuing Education Department, which has the school's entire resources at its disposal, would process material supplied by its own worker plus the plan commission and agricultural agent.

TWO-YEAR PROJECT

Results would be compiled in booklet form. It would take about two years to complete. The university has never conducted such a study before and results are seen as being helpful to areas all over the country.

Skrubb, with aid from Abel and Reid, has compiled a report outlining why the survey is deemed vital.

"The overspill of urban dwellers onto the countryside is creating many perplexing conditions for the farmer who finds himself in the path of new subdivision development," the report states.

"Where local taxes are increased to pay for new schools, roads, water, and local sewage systems, the farmer's . . . profits from sale of produce are quickly consumed.

"The drying up of net income caused partly by added service costs and the lure of higher land prices, places the future of suburban agriculture in jeopardy."

High values placed on farm land suitable for subdivision development "often submerge the realization that land area is also needed to be reserved for school sites, highways, recreation grounds and for commercial and industrial enterprises."

HELPFUL DATA

The study would be designed to provide data helpful to farmers, developers, land planners and agricultural agents on five major subjects:

1. Rapidity of population growth, its direction, types of people involved—all of which relate to the expected amount and type of change in land uses.

2. Aid assessing officers in setting land values in expanding areas.

3. Explore new taxing methods which might encourage farming to continue on lands particularly fertile and best suited for such use.

4. Aid in setting up more intelligent zoning and land-use practices.

5. Provide information to farmers helping them in deciding whether their land should be retained or sold.

Pontiac Motor Notes August Sales Mark

Retail sales of 1955 Pontiacs totaled 44,741 units during the month of August, R. M. Critchfield, Pontiac general manager, announced today.

Running 165 per cent above sales a year ago, and an all time record for August, this most recent sales report from Pontiac dealers throughout the country, indicates that the market for new Pontiacs remains strong.

Used car sales by Pontiac dealers — also a good indication of car market strength, totaled 70,837 units, or 132 per cent of used car sales a year ago.

Gas Explosion Injures 1 Man

50 Autos Damaged in Wall of Fire; Worker Hurt in Detroit Blast

DETROIT (AP)—A gas explosion, followed by a wall of fire 100 feet in the air, blew up or burned at least 50 cars and injured one man yesterday.

* * *

The explosion tore up pavement and scattered debris throughout the area on Livernois avenue on the city's northwest side. The fiery gas shot into a used car lot where 35 cars were burned.

Motorists on the busy street, lined with used car lots, halted their cars and dashed to shelter.

Several cars in traffic as well as others parked along the street were damaged.

A spokesman for the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. said the explosion occurred as the company was testing a huge gas main for winter service.

The injured man, Stuart Ginsberg of Detroit, suffered serious burns.

Matt Raukar, 33, part owner of a gas station at the scene of the blast, gave this eye witness account:

* * *

"One of the gas company men was blown about 20 feet out into Livernois and out of one shoe. The flames were shooting up in the air and they ignited a lot of cars. People began running out of a nearby bank and everyone was trying to get away from the flames."

There was no immediate estimate of damage.

Turks Pledge Effort to Stave Off Rioting

PARIS (AP)—Turkey assured the North Atlantic Treaty Organization today that all possible measures are being taken to prevent recurrence of anti-Greek rioting.

This came as reports from Athens said Greece was canceling participation in NATO maneuvers as a result of anti-Greek violence which erupted in the Turkish cities of Istanbul and Izmir Tuesday night.

* * *

With relations between the two NATO nations at their lowest point in years because of differences over Cyprus, NATO Secretary Lord Ismay summoned the NATO Council into special session.

Delegates representing the 15 nations in the Western defense organization met for almost two hours behind closed doors.

No communique was issued, but persons who attended said Mehmet Ali Tiney, Turkey's permanent representative on the Council, informed fellow members his country was taking all measures to prevent any new violence.

Kay Baum, Inc. Expands Store

Firm Enlarging Floor Space 4 Times Present Capacity by Mar. 1

BIRMINGHAM — Face-lifting operations already under way on the Leonard Building on West Maple Ave., will result in a new Kay Baum, Inc. store four times its present floorspace capacity, by March 1.

The firm announced plans today for the move to the building west of Pierce St. on the north side of Maple, which will give the women's apparel shop 15,000 square feet of space on the lower, main and upper levels.

Offices and employe and customer lounges will occupy the second floor of the building leased from Edward E. Rothman, with retail floor space on the other two levels.

A feature of the expanded facilities will be a "Cashmere Room," where only cashmere items will be sold. "We have one of the largest cashmere selections in the area," said Jack Kershenbaum, secretary-treasurer, "and believe our new room will be the only one of its kind in the country."

ARCHITECT NAMED

Architect for the remodeling project is Elliott Robinson of Birmingham. Drama lighting will be used on the exterior and interior of a recessed window in the store front and the exterior will be painted in bright colors.

Interiors will be done by Amos Parrish Co., of New York. Chissus Construction Co., in Birmingham is the contractor.

Court examination of David P. Dawson, former Lake Orion auto dealer charged with embezzlement, has been postponed until Oct 20.

Dawson, 31, is accused of embezzling $28,862 from the Univeral CIT Credit Corp. here between Oct. 27, 1954 and May 18 of this year.

The credit firm claims Dawson sold 17 vehicles without turning any funds back to them as required by contract.

He will appear before Orion Township Justice Helmar G. Stanaback.

The Day in Birmingham

Use 3 Determining Factors for Parking Assessments

BIRMINGHAM — The three factors used to determine assessments for Municipal Parking Lot No. 1 and subsequently for assessing future parking areas, were based on benefits each business property will receive as a result of: area of the parcel, distance factor and merchandising factor.

This was contained in a report released yesterday by City Assessor Elmer Haack, with reference to next Monday's hearing to confirm the assessment roll. The spread on the assessment district totals $130,000, of which the Municipal Building property share is $7,048.97 and the private property ante is $122,951.03.

"By merchandising factor we mean measurement of ability to do business at any particular location," he explained, "This is proportionate to land value," he said, and results in a basic assessment formula of: Benefit equals area, times distance factor, times merchandising factor.

"However, some properties have more frontage for their size than others and some properties are used at present for businesses requiring more parking than others," said Haack.

"Therefore, for the sake of greater equity, we have spread the $130,000 accordingly: . . . "

FIGURES SHOW

Haack's figures show 45 per cent or $85,500 to properties on a land area basis and on a land frontage basis, with the following formulas: Benefit equals land area (or frontage, as the case may be), times distance factor, times merchandising factor.

The remaining 10 per cent or $13,000, to properties on the basis of present use of the building, produced this formula: Benefit equals building area, times distance factor, times merchandising factor, times building use factor.

Mrs. David Waldon, 1011 Chapin St., and Mrs. Leo Warner, 999 Chapin St., have settled their differences amicably over Mrs. Waldon's complaint that seven chickens kept by the Warners constituted a nuisance.

Justice John J. Gafill had postponed the case one week and dismissed it yesterday upon learning that the Warners had moved the chicken coop to another portion of their yard, to the Waldons satisfaction.

Troy Couple Dies in Ohio Collision

Three persons, including a Troy Township couple, were killed late yesterday when their car rammed a truck broadside near Tiffin, Ohio.

Highway patrolmen identified the victims as Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hasson, of 1755 Larchwood, Troy Township; and Mrs. Maggie Monk, of South Park, Ky.

The crash occurred at the intersection of U. S. 224 and Ohio 587 in the northwest section of the state.

The truck driver suffered shock but was not injured.

Neighbors told Troy Police Chief David Gratopp that the Hassons left Troy early yesterday morning to return Mrs. Monk to her home. She is Mrs. Hasson's mother.

The neighbors stated that Hasson, 67, who moved to this area from the south about a year ago, was employed at a Pontiac factory.

Reports Car Damaged

Mrs. William Roe of Rochester told Pontiac Police yesterday that while she was driving north on North Perry Et. a youth about 17 or 18 years old threw an iron pipe at her car causing minor damages.

She told officers the youth then got into his car and fled from the scene.

Elderly Leopard Dies in Battle With Five Lions

CHICAGO (AP)—An oldish black male leopard, apparently defending his mate, lit into five young male lions yesterday but was killed quicky in the uneven match.

A vicious swipe from the paw of one of the 300-pound lions broke the back of the 175-pound leopard, Snowball. The other lions mauled him savagely.

None of the lions suffered a scratch.

The battle occurred at Brookfield Zoo when an attendant mistakenly put the lions into a cage already occupied by the two leopards.

Witnesses said Snowball watched still and intent, when the lions stalked into his cage. With a twitch of his tail, he leaped at them.

His mate remained on her ledge during the fight and was uninjured.

Navy Clears, Fires 'Risk'

Civilian Employe Loses Job, Keeps Rating as Reserve Lieutenant

NEW YORK (AP)—The Navy reportedly has cleared a psychologist as a reserve officer but has discharged him as a civilian Navy employe — acting on the same evidence involving alleged Communist leanings in the man's immediate family.

The case was disclosed yesterday by an attorney for Joseph Gaberman, 42, who co-authored some of the Navy's basic manuals on flight training.

The attorney, Montague Casper, said Gaberman was suspended from his $7,000-a-year job as civilian psychologist March 6, 1952. A three-man civilian loyalty board found he was a security risk but did not question his loyalty. An appeal failed.

On Sept. 5, 1952, Casper said, the Navy suggested an honorable discharge for Gaberman from his commission as a reserve lieutenant. The attorney said the discharge was offered "with no indication of the nature of the underlying circumstances" if Gaberman resigned.

Gaberman refused to resign, and appeared before a three-officer hearing board in Brooklyn in March 1953. Giving testimony, Casper said, were members of the civilian loyalty board.

The military board ruled Gaberman could remain "an officer on inactive duty in the ready reserve," Casper said.

But Gaberman's civilian status as a security risk remained.

Among charges against Gaberman were that his father once was a Communist, and that both his father and mother had been members of the International Workers Order, listed by the attorney general as a subversive organization.

Gaberman has denied he ever was a Communist or a Communist sympathizer.

Davy Crockett Fad Gives Impetus to Rifle Training

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Davy Crockett fad not only has brought joy and fiscal excitement to the makers of coonskin caps. It even has been a rifle shot in the arm for Uncle Sam.

• • •

One little-known activity of this sprawling government is its program for teaching civilians, and especially youngsters, how to shoot.

It has been going on more or less quietly—that is, if you overlook the noise of a few rifle shots—since it was set up by Congress in 1903. And then, here came Davy Crockett, king of the wild frontier!

"Our business is mushrooming," said Lt. Col. Ellis Lea, an assistant to the Army's director of Civilian Marksmanship. "I'd have to say Davy Crockett has been a big help."

Lea has been pleased to note that even around the nation's capital, scarcely ever confused with frontierland any more, youngsters who apparently are anxious to rush off and save the Alamo have been clamoring to learn how to shoot.

Nationally the story is the same, with 55,000 youngsters of from 12 to 19 years of age in the learners' clubs in 1951, and 70,000 banging away now.

Under the government program, each club must be affiliated with the National Rifle Assn., must have at least 10 youngsters who wish to learn, and must have a responsible adult ready to act as instructor.

The help given each club varies according to its need. But, in general, it can be said if all conditions are met, each youngster will be supplied with enough government ammunition to learn the fundamentals of shooting.

But this nation once prided itself on its sharpshooters. What has happened?

Lea thinks the growth of our population has made poor shooting almost inevitable. "Give a kid a big enough space to practice with a rifle now," Lea said, "and he's likely to bring down a cow."

During a hitch at Ft. Ord, Calif., Lea was in charge of teaching recruits how to shoot. He figures that not one in six had the slightest idea of what it was all about.

"We had to scratch gravel, I tell you," he said.

• • •

Lea regrets that the emphasis on bombs and newfangled weapons has caused many persons to conclude that old-fashioned sharpshooting isn't so important any more.

"The fellow who knows how to handle a rifle will handle the new weapons better, too," he said. "And I don't want to disparage the Air Force, but after they move on, somebody else has to move in. The foot soldier is as important as ever."

One bright spot in the gunnery picture: Lea thinks that for all his bragging, Crockett couldn't compare with the shooters of today. With their improved guns, Lea said, they would lick Crockett and his favorite rifle every time.

Stir in a 'Stir'

STATESVILLE, N.C. (AP)—There was more than the usual "stir" in the city jail here the other night. Police placed a "woman" wearing a black dress in a cell block with nearly 50 male prisoners. They said Quince Shoemaker of nearby New Hope was wearing the dress when arrested on a public drunkenness charge.

The Grocery Bag

Stores Offer Wide Range of Meat at Bargain Prices

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nation's food stores are offering a tempting range of meat specials for the coming weekend. Look around a bit and you're almost sure to find the meat you want at sale prices somewhere in your neighborhood.

• • •

There will be featured prices on prime ribs of beef, round roast, chuck roast, loins of pork and legs of lamb. Here and there, prices will be cut on fryers, pork butts, sirloin steaks and veal shoulder roast.

Meat buyers for the big chains complain that most wholesale prices have gone up, but the U.S. Department of Agriculture expresses the view that pork is a good buy. It predicts that pork prices will go down during this month and that for the rest of the year will most likely hold to lower levels than a year ago.

As evidence that pork is a good buy, the USDA notes that on Aug. 20, pork loins of 8 to 10 pounds were wholesaling in New York at $46.90 per hundred pounds. A year earlier, the price was $56.80.

Egg prices will be down 2 to 5 cents a dozen in some areas this weekend. Elsewhere, they'll be unchanged from a week ago. Butter price tags haven't been altered.

VEGETABLES

Potatoes, onions, eggplant and yellow squash are listed by produce specialists as outstanding buys this week. "Good buys" include beans, cabbage, carrots, corn, cucumbers, cauliflower, Iceberg lettuce and peppers.

• • •

Celery is considered moderately priced.

Peaches are rated a good buy. Better quality peaches are up a bit from a week ago, however.

Pears offer a good value. They're mostly Bartletts. Plums and prunes are lower. Canteloupes and honeydews are attractively priced. Grapes also are worth consideration. They're coming to market from nearby areas and prices are reasonable.

It's Said Fawsh, by Gosh – Just Like Earl Is Oil

By EARL WILSON

THE GOOD WILSON TOUR . . .

NEW YORK—Actress Nina Foch and I each have name trouble. Hers should be pronounced "Fawsh" though many people say "Fosh," as in gauche, or "Foach" as in coach.

"I don't really mind, though," she said, "until they call me Nigh-na."

For Nina is pronounced Neena. I told her how "Earl" is pronounced "Oil" all over N. Y. and of a Brooklyn reporter who once phoned in a story to me about an "earl explosion," of the "blazing earl" in the streets, and of the terrific loss in "crude earl."

Finishing the story, he said, "G'bye, Oil," and hung up.

Miss Foch—who just finished finding Moses in the bullrushes in "The Ten Commandments" in Hollywood, and who'll do the Loretta Young TV show Sept. 11 because Miss Young's ill—told me that she and I should take a few lessons "in mispronunciation."

"G'bye, Nigh-na," I said.

"G'bye, Oil," said she.

Jackie Gleason signed Dick Haymes and Jane Russell for the kickoff of the Gleason-produced "Stage Show" TV program. Gleason'll also appear, introducing the Dorsey Brothers. Haymes will get a bundle and Miss Russell of course already has a bundle. Each will sing.

ENGLISH TALE: "Tell me," said an oculist to a man taking an eye examination, "what do you see now?" The patient squinted hard and said, "The figure 18." The oculist groaned. "You're worse than I thought. That's a photograph of Audrey Hepburn and Gina Lollobrigida."

The Peripatetic Bob Hope phoned Jesse Block from Los Angeles, and Jess, calling back, found Bob was playing golf near L. Y., reasoned Block—and from the Essex House, phoned the Hampshire House and inquired. Yes, Hope was there—right next door.

Motorists, Watch Out, Schools Have Opened!

Schools have started.

Look out for the youngsters.

They won't look out for you.

★ ★ ★

"It is shocking to realize," says Miss Carol Lane, a noted safety authority, "that the biggest single killer of children 1 to 14 in the country is motor vehicle accidents." With more children going back to school this fall than ever before and more bicycles and cars on the road, the greatest safety precautions must be taken while driving.

★ ★ ★

This is especially true in school zones, near playgrounds and in residential areas.

Bicycle riders are supposed to observe the same rules as those that prevail for motorists. But remember, children will be children. Adult drivers must assume the responsibility. Regard every child, whether on a bicycle or walking, as a danger sign to slow down.

Being a little more careful and tolerant in our driving habits may save the life of one of our future citizens. Many of the children will be attending school for the first time. In the company of other school chums, exuberance and recklessness go hand in hand.

That well meaning advice given by their parents about being careful and cautious when crossing the street can easily be forgotten. In a moment of excitement and unawareness, a child darting into the path of a speeding car can cost a life.

Let's save our future citizens. Be aware when you are in a school area and watch out for that unthinking child. It could be your own. It could be a very dear friend.

★ ★ ★

One thought-free, careless moment on the part of you, the driver, can cause endless sorrow. Remember, a crippled or killed child can't be replaced.

Slow down!

Watch out for the "kids"!

State Home at Lapeer Fire Trap for Inmates

Sen. Broomfield and Rep. Hughes, members of a joint Senate-House committee, have visited the State Home and Training School at Lapeer.

What they saw there while investigating the State's program for care of the mentally deficient doesn't make pretty reading.

For example, the two lawmakers learned that the 60 year old institution was built to house 3,175 patients. Today it is caring for 4,200 and there is a waiting list of 925. Even more serious, seven of the institution's 42 buildings have been condemned, some of them as long as 10 years ago.

According to Dr. Adolph T. Rehn, medical superintendent, all 50 babies housed in one of the condemned buildings would die if fire broke out. The same would be the fate of some 35 older patients who are unable to walk. They are housed in another of the condemned buildings classed as firetraps.

After their inspection Broomfield and Hughes expressed the opinion that Dr. Rehn is doing an excellent job. What they saw was an institution which is being kept scrupulously clean but is hopelessly inadequate and out of date.

Not even the prospect of two new 400 bed nurseries alters a disturbing fact. Every day that overcrowding of this institution is permitted to continue, the State is risking the danger of a fire tragedy costing many lives.

Sen. Broomfield wasn't overstating the case when he said the Legislature should provide additional staff and bring the institution up-to date. These Legislators also are right in their conclusion that another institution for care of the feeble minded should be built in the Detroit Metropolitan area.

This entire situation is a blot on Michigan's fair name. The Legislature should lose no time in correcting it.

Our Moscow Embassy

The reaction of Republican Rep. Patrick J. Hillings to the condition of the United States embassy in Moscow is quite understandable.

The Californian came away with the feeling that the huge and impressive three year old structure looked more "like a pigpen" than an embassy of the free world's leading nation. Among other things he reported embassy walls cracked, paint peeling and elevators out of order.

Hillings made no effort to place blame for this bad state of repair. On the contrary he went out of his way to pay tribute to the embassy staff which he called "the best I have ever seen." Our State Department, however, says the fault lies with the Russian janitor service.

That would seem to make it all the more important to remedy a situation out of which the Russians could make propaganda to the detriment of our national prestige.

Full Steam Ahead

David Lawrence Says:

Truman Agrees With Conservatives in Stand Against Reduction of Taxes

WASHINGTON — It isn't often that former President Harry Truman, once leader of the Democratic Party and perhaps its real leader today, is on the same side of the argument as conservatives like Representative Daniel Reed of New York, ranking Republican member of the House Ways and Means Committee, and Sen. Byrd of Virginia, Democrat, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee. For Truman's latest declaration that there should be no tax reduction, even if the budget is balanced next year, is exactly what Reed said several days before on his return from Europe.

Actually, Secretary of the Treasury George Humphrey hasn't said positively that the Republican Administration would recommend tax reduction but, when he told of the prospective balance in the budget, he mentioned that tax reduction would be "possible." That's a far different thing from saying the administration is yet ready to recommend it.

Truman also said the time to retire the national debt is when the country is prosperous. This is an implicit admission, of course, that under the Republican regime prosperity has actually been achieved, which is somehow in contradiction of the many prophesies of gloom made by the Democrats in Congress all through 1954. In fact, they ignored the Truman philosophy in March 1955 when they tried to put through Congress a plan to cut everybody's taxes by $20 because they said it would increase the purchasing power of the lower income groups.

DEM CHANGE SEEN

Now, if the economists who write the speeches for the Democratic leaders are no longer going to insist that the country is suffering a terrible unemployment crisis or is in a "recession," then the obvious tack for them to take is that taxes should not be reduced. This has been the position of the Democrats right along when they were in power.

* * *

In the next session of Congress, therefore, the Democrats, logically should be against any tax reduction whatsoever and should be opposing any Republican efforts supposedly to unbalance the budget by tax revision. It will be interesting to see how many Democrats favor tax reduction at the next session. A split in the party is certain.

Sen. Byrd will have no difficulty being consistent on this matter because he was the first to speak out when Secretary Humphrey mentioned the possibility of tax reduction. The Virginia senator said:

"I agree with Secretary Humphrey that the budget can be balanced in this fiscal year. I am not so certain, however, that both a tax reduction and a balanced budget can be accomplished. It would be foolhardy to balance the budget and then unbalance it by a premature reduction in taxes.

"I strongly favor tax reduction made possible by retrenchment in spending. I have predicted for some time that the revenue would exceed the treasury's estimates, but we should not rely upon this revenue coming from the present business boom, as this may fall off. The sound balancing of the budget must come about by reducing expenditures."

DEBT PUSHED ASIDE

It is significant of the spending mood of our times that hardly anybody says anything about accumulating a surplus to pay off the national debt. The country doesn't need tax reduction now, though it is always in need of tax revision to correct inequities. But even this corrective process has to be delayed if the budget is thereby unbalanced.

* * *

Every American is taught that it is thrifty to save money to pay off debts. But, somehow or other, few people seem concerned when the national government doesn't do a thing to pay off the money it has borrowed. After the close of World War II, the Democrats were in power seven years continuously, and yet they never attempted even to plan for debt retirement. After the close of World War I, the Republican Party was in power and during its first nine years cut the national debt almost 40 per cent.

Someday, if the American people ever think through the dangers of keeping a $280 billion debt without any provision for retirement, they will begin to wonder about the value of their paper money—whether it is worth what it claims to be on its face. For, if the national debt remains where it is or goes higher and there is no intention to retire it, the public will not have the same confidence in the value of the dollar that it has had before.

It may not seem to the politicians to be sound politics to apply the lessons of sound economics, but the risks to persons of fixed incomes and to millions of others when an inflationary spiral ensues are so great that in the long run more votes may be mobilized by doing the sound rather than the unsound thing. Only political demagoguery keeps the people from knowing the truth about the way their national finances should be handled.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Students Can Improve College Grades With the Development of Good Memory

Do you have trouble remembering names and faces? Or textbook facts? Then study my answer to Janet and you can perk up your memory surprisingly. Every normal person can have a startling memory if he uses the proper technique.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case P-334: Janet B., aged 18. Is the college freshman mentioned yesterday whose grades were dropping.

* * *

"Dr. Crane, why is college so much harder than high school?"

"And can you give me a recipe for absorbing what I read? Maybe I need a course in memory improvement."

In addition to the duller teaching and greater disinterest of the average college professors in their students, another factor makes college work more difficult.

* * *

The competition is keener. For the dullards in high school seldom go on to college!

NO SUPERIORITY

Thus, all college students have a high IQ so they no longer enjoy the superiority in intelligence which they often possessed over many of their grammar and high school classmates.

* * *

College is "big league" stuff. You stand out as a sandlot player but when you join the New York Yankees, you must be tops.

And so it is in college. Many students with high IQ can coast through a small high school because many of their classmates haven't an equal IQ.

So the brilliant pupils get by with a minimum of study and homework. But in college, they are all high in IQ, so if a student with poor study habits slips a few days behind schedule, he may never be able to catch up.

* * *

Then he wonders what is wrong, failing to realize he has moved from his little sandlot diamond into Yankee Stadium.

HOW TO STUDY

You will obtain much more from your studying, however, if your motivation is high.

But motivation depends on how closely the material seems to fit into your immediate interests.

* * *

A lot of college stuff is so remotely related to the current desires of the students that they have almost no interest in the courses.

They must enroll in them because the courses are required for graduation.

Suppose a student considers it a waste of time to be spending five hours per week in a foreign language class when he knows he will never speak or read that foreign tongue after graduation and when he hasn't the slightest interest in even visiting such a foreign country.

* * *

Obviously, his motivation is based on threats from the rear, instead of the enticement of the course itself.

IMPROVED MEMORY

The secret of a good memory is based on clearcut exposure to the new facts at the outset, plus repetition.

* * *

So make a running true-false quiz over your daily textbook assignments. Every time you find a law or date or other factual item, phrase it in a true-false statement.

Place a "T" or an "F" in front of it, and in parentheses list the place where you found it, as (P. 39).

If you own your textbooks, underline the important items in red or blue pencil, even before you lift them out for true-false statements.

Next morning en route to class, cover the answers and re-read your true-false statements. You thus review an entire chapter in five minutes by this true-false device.

* * *

Send for my booklet "How to Improve your Memory."

It is good for business executives, as well as students in high school and college.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

'Man Will Conquer Gravity and Find Perpetual Motion'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature

It is my firm opinion that man not only will conquer gravity but also will find the secret of perpetual motion. Does not the Good Book say seek and you will find?

All matter is composed of a circle and a straight line, but the mind encompasses all. It is my theory that evolution of mind is man and evolution of matter is the universe.

Mexicans Will Create Atom Group

MEXICO CITY (INS)—President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines said last night Mexico has reached the highest economic level in its history. He added the nation has nearly doubled its dollar reserves in the past year.

He pledged to continue to strengthen Mexico's friendly relations with the U. S. and other American nations and to give special attention to improving relations with European countries.

Ruiz Cortines presented a picture of moderate optimism about the Central American country in his annual state of the union address to the Mexican Congress.

But he stressed the necessity for continued "hard and creative" work to extend the economic improvements to "many social classes" who have not benefitted.

Ruiz Cortines said the country's dollar reserves now total $360 million, an increase of $169 million in the past year.

MEXICAN POLICY

He outlined the policy of his administration, the president pledged "strengthening the national unity —preserving without restriction the freedom of speech, creeds, press, criticism of the government and the spiritual and economic liberties as well as the individual and social liberties."

The Mexican chief executive said "a climate of general tranquility" exists in the nation.

Ruiz Cortines listed increased exports of oil, cotton, coffee and minerals and a greatly expanded tourist trade as important factors in the improved economic situation.

He noted the existance of known reserves of uranium, thorium and other minerals which are a source of nuclear energy in Mexico. He also announced he will ask the Congress to create an atomic energy commission.

Ralph T. Keeling Advises Turning to God for Help

Each day, if a man thinks good thoughts, he is working in harmony with Divine Law and good follows. If anyone that is confronted with trouble and cares would turn to God and ask that he be shown the right way, God will help him. On the other hand, he cannot expect God to answer selfish and greedy prayers.

We can have peace of mind and happiness that all the money in the world cannot buy. You need not take my word for it. Try it yourself and happiness awaits you.

$1,000 Price Tag Placed on Every Efficient Tooth

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

In a survey, sort of a sampling, of the condition of the teeth of people in all parts of the country, urban, rural and metropolitan it was found (Public Health Reports) that of each 1,000 persons, 447 had fillings, 286 had lost teeth, 18 had bridges, 17 had crowns, 12 had plates and. . .

* * *

Shame, shame on you poor geeks who squander your money on brushes and glorified soap!

One hundred and five thought enough of their teeth to keep 'em in good working condition. In other words, 105 out of each thousand Yankee Wiseacres reached by the survey visited the dentist once a year for prophylaxis.

The other 895 just brush their teeth like mad, with whatever magic germ-killer the pretty boys and girls in the magazines and television advise, for, after all, didn't the dentists themselves teach or imply, only a few years ago, that "a clean tooth never decays"?

THE KEY WORD

Prophylaxis.

Every dentist knows what it means, but unfortunately a good many dentists permit their patients to regard it as an extraordinary cleaning, comparable with spring housecleaning in the halcyon days when we had to hang the carpets (huh, I mean the carpet, the rag carpet) on the line in the yard and beat the bejabers out of it.

* * *

To be sure, a good dentist generally scales, cleans and polishes, or directs his technician to do so, when he or she has finished the important part of prophylaxis — the inspection of teeth and gums and whatever treatment this inspection shows the patient requires.

Health, good digestion, good looks, vite, functional efficiency, longevity—or in a word, good nutrition—begins in the mouth where an important part of digestion occurs, the insalivation of food and digestion of cooked starch by ptyalin, an enzyme in the saliva, if the food is properly masticated.

This is physiology and hence dull and uninteresting to the cocktail-barbiturate-aspirin set.

* * *

It is not by chance that the first little lesson in the 23-volumette pocket cyclopedia of health, compiled by the quack who conducts this column, to give you the gist of his teachings in a form convenient to carry in pocketbook and study at any time you happen to be caught without something interesting to read ($5), is Save Your Teeth, for which send 25 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope.

AND HE QUOTES:

In this booklet about teeth, gums, pyorrhea and mouth hygiene I say, at p. 5:

"For every tooth lost and not immediately replaced by a functionally efficient denture, deduct from one to two years from your life expectancy. In other words the value of a tooth is what you'd give for another year of good health."

In this column several times I have said every functionally efficient tooth, your own or your dentist's, is worth at least $1,000.

I cited here recently a court's estimation of compensation for the loss of teeth at a base rate of $1,000 per tooth.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Record for Concrete?

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—Herman Ellis, member of the Mackinac Bridge Authority, believes a world record for pouring concrete was established when 6,250 cubic yards was poured in a 24-hour period in construction of a 100-million-dollar bridge being built between Michigan's two peninsulas.

First Soo Built in 1797

First canal connecting Lakes Superior and Huron was built by a fur company in 1797. It was a nine-foot lock, only large enough for canoes.

Takes Long Way

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Conrad Dube, 26, a French Canadian, pedaled his bicycle to Richmond from Quebec via California and Florida. Dube was a polio victim when he was 2 and didn't walk until he was 10. He figured he had covered 24,000 miles on the bike when he arrived here.

Switches Are Tiny

LOS ANGELES — Precision snap-action switches used in electronic equipment on modern military aircraft are so small that 258 of them weigh only a pound.

Coon Tails Rise

DETROIT (AP)—The Michigan raccoon hasn't had it so rough since the raccoon coat fad of the 1920s. The Davy Crockett hat craze is to blame. Raccoon tails used to sell roughly at 5 cents wholesale. The Davy Crockett hat clamor sent them up to as much as 50 cents apiece.

A Hidden Value

KIRBYVILLE (AP) — Miss Helen Jonas came to a family reunion here wearing a petticoat her mother had purchased in Orange, Tex., 46 years ago for 50 cents.

Nickname Files Bulge

JACKSON (AP)—Southern Michigan Prison officials say their huge nickname file is a surprisingly good tracer. They say few inmates manage to avoid one.

As a result, the files have such colorful names as Horsecollar, Hogjaw, Judhead, Bad-Eye and Juicehead.

Canadian Navy Reveals Panic

False Submarine Report Revealed Poor Defenses at Quebec City

QUEBEC (AP) — The Royal Canadian Navy sat back this month and decided it could chuckle in public about one of the weirdest naval episodes of the second world war.

• • •

But no one smiled at Quebec Naval Headquarters when a message arrived there at 6:25 p. m., Oct. 15, 1939, saying two German submarines were proceeding up the St. Lawrence and were about 90 miles east of here.

A hurriedly-called council of war decided the probable target of the sneak assault was the liner Empress of Britain, then being defensively armed for use as a troopship.

The Navy's officer in command at Quebec telephoned a transport department signal service agent at Cape Salmon who had sent out the cryptic news. He confirmed his report, adding he was doubly sure because he remembers seeing U-boats during the first world war.

CALL THE ARMY

The Army was notified and in turn cancelled leaves, alerted all units in the districts and sent out men to roundup soldiers in pubs or pool rooms.

An appeal was made to the transport department for two ships in which heavy guns could be mounted. An 18-pounder field gun was found at an army camp and was hoisted onto the fo'c'sle of the tender and secured by spiked and baulks of timber. Some 20 infantrymen boarded her.

The two cutters patrolled the channel. The defense station shore-battery there saw what it thought was a very light — signal for enemy in sight — and opened fire.

• • •

Each cutter crew thought the other was under attack and moved to close at full speed. A near-tragedy was averted when an officer on one decided to challenge the second cutter with a light before raking her decks with machine-gun fire, thinking she was a submarine. The boat promptly identified herself.

Panic subsided, the patrol continued. By dawn the whole incident appeared to be a false alarm but arrangements were made with the RCAF to patrol the area. The report: No submarines.

Coleen Gray Demands More Money for Child

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Actress Coleen Gray has filed a petition demanding increased child support payments from her divorced husband, writer Rodney J. Amateau.

She asked for a court order requiring him to pay $250 monthly, plus costs of enrolling the child in a private school. She contended that under a 1949 divorce settlement she agreed to accept too little for support of their daughter, Susan, 9.

Jap POW's Wife Wed

TOKYO (AP) — A Japanese woman, remarried and the mother of two children by her new husband, learned yesterday that her first husband is alive. Mrs. Teruko Tanbo, 29, of Sapporo, said she was shocked and confused. She found the name of her first husband, Tamio Ishigaki, in a list of 1,365 prisoners given Japan yesterday by Russia. She said she married Ryu Tanbo, a policeman, in March, 1952, after hearing Ishigaki had died in prison. She and Tanbo refused to say what they will do.

Two-Bike Boy

ALBUQUERQUE (AP) — Donny Potter, 15, had heard of two-car families. Sounded like a good idea. He got another bike—sort of beaten up, but it's run. His good one he used to ride to school. The other was to use on his paper route. "I just didn't want to bang up my good bike," he explained.

Businessmen, private fliers, farmers, and other aircraft users logged 8,772,000 hours of flying in 1942—more than twice the 3,200,000 hours flown by the scheduled airlines of the United States.

English Foreign in Pennsylvania

Dutch 'Make Speakin' Strange Yet Appealing Mangled German

WASHINGTON — "Ain't, Poppa, when the little red house makes by, the train is all?"

Thus a small farm boy, so the story goes in Pennsylvania Dutch country, characterized the caboose as he saw a freight train rumble past.

• • •

To an estimated half-million Americans who speak or understand Pennsylvania Dutch, such mangled English offshoots are both funny and a bit sad. After more than 200 years as a living language in this country, their unique native dialect is passing into disuse, the National Geographic Society says. A generation hence, it will be "about all."

In eastern Pennsylvania's Great Valley, between the Delaware and Susquehanna Rivers, lies the land of the Plain People—Mennonites, Amish, and Dunkards—who brought their Palatinate tongue to William Penn's religious haven in the early 1700s.

They held fast to ancestral customs, costume, and speech, these Pennsylvania Germans (Deutsch, or "Dutch," as the Scotch-Irish and English called them). Though English words crept in—"Gutbei," a bearded farmer might say as a neighbor drove his "boghie" off down the "tornpeik"—the basic language remained archaic German down to the 20th century.

• • •

Even now, perhaps half the people of Lehigh, Berks, and Lebanon Counties speak Pennsylvania Dutch. Most of them also speak English. Their church services are in High German. Newspapers carry Pennsylvania Dutch columns.

At least three colleges—Pennsylvania State University, Franklin and Marshall, and Muhlenberg—today offer courses in Pennsylvania Dutch. A literature is growing in the language, although it is chiefly a spoken tongue.

H. L. Mencken, studying the American language, points to many Dutch words that have entered usage in English—hex, spook, and others—as well as the hash made of familiar American names in Dutch version: "Nei Tschaertschi" for New Jersey, and "Lenggescher" for Lancaster, Pa.

Certainly everyday English as spoken deep in Pennsylvania Dutch country shows weird and wonderful flavor. Many classics are known far and wide, such as "Did you bell? Sure I belled, but it didn't make!". This leads to a sign hung by the door, "Bell don't make.

FUN IN THE BACKYARD—3
The Drinking Giraffe

Today let's play with our toy giraffe. All the children like the giraffe with his long, thin legs and stretching neck.

When the giraffe wants a drink of water he spreads his front legs and dips his long neck until it reaches the ground.

Here's how we make our giraffe. Color him yellow and brown. Paste down the picture on thin cardboard. Cut out the parts carefully along the dark lines.

Attach the head to the body at the top hole with a brass fastener or bent pin. Then put on the legs at the side holes in the same way.

Fold back the ends on the dotted lines. The giraffe can raise and lower his head and will stand up but since he is so tall he may have to lean on something to balance him.

British Tailors Get Green Light in Color Trend

LONDON (AP)—London tailors, who regard themselves as the world's best, are being advised to emphasize color in their new designs for men.

The tip comes from the tailors' trade magazine Tailor and Cutter, which said color is on the way in, and that while conservative designers may shudder, they cannot stop it. That's what men want.

• • •

The Edwardian look, on which smart British tailoring thrived for a number of years, is on the way out, Tailor and Cutter said.

• • •

"The top end of fashion now proclaims its individuality by tighter clothes, shorter jackets and more orthodox styling," the magazine said. "Neatness and simplicity becomes the keynote and instead of relying on detail, the trend now has a chance to switch to color for effect. We can definitely expect men to start turning toward lighter colors for suitings."

Generally Rosy Picture Is Seen for Employment

A generally rosy employment picture clouded only by impending temporary loss of work due to model changeovers in auto plants was outlined today by James H. Dudley, manager of the Michigan Employment Security Commission's Pontiac office.

Reviewing the labor situation from mid-July through mid-August, Dudley reported that non-farm employment stood at 80,600, only 200 below the July level.

"The stability during the past month points up the large scale gains achieved during the past year," Dudley said.

"Current employment is 6,200 above that of a year ago, unemployment is down by 3,700 and the labor force has grown by 2,400."

He warned that model changeovers, now scheduled for late September, will cause "some dislocations in manufacturing employment" through mid-October. He said more than 10,000 workers will be involved for short periods.

Other employment not directly connected with the changeovers will remain steady in this period, he said.

Dudley stated demand for workers kept up well during August with most openings arising in non-manufacturing work. Plant hirings were mainly for replacements.

Unemployment at mid-August was estimated at 2,700—down by 200 from July and 3,700 less than a year ago, he reported. The unemployed currently make up 3.1 per cent of the total labor force, compared with 3.3 per cent in July and 7.6 per cent in August, 1954.

His office issued 2,166 unemployment compensation checks during August, compared with 1,900 in July and 2,516 in June.

Dudley attributed the increase over July to model change layoffs in plants outside the Pontiac area in which Pontiac residents work.

There were 810 persons on the jobless rolls at the end of last week.

Baby Drowns in Canal

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — Ross Reid, 18 months old, drowned Tuesday in a canal across the road from his home after toddling off. The mother, Mrs. Alice Reid, said she had left the boy for only 10 minutes.

Father of 6 Missing

OWOSSO (AP) — Police are searching for Clifford G. Case, 42, Laingsburg father of six children who has been missing since Aug. 16. Relatives delayed reporting Case's absence because they assumed he had gone away on a vacation.

If all the magnesium in the sea were spread over all the earth's land surface, the layer of magnesium would be six feet thick, says the National Geographic Society.

Visits Torture Chamber for Beauty's Sake

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

CHICAGO (INS)—With the imminence of autumn, everybody is sending friendly advice through the mails—advice on how to save face by spending money.

* * *

For instance, in one delivery yesterday, I was urged to revitalize my sun-scorched skin, reupholster my shabby furniture, change my sloppy housecleaning habits, and look smarter in dresses from nine different shops. It was also recommended that I pay my quarterly income tax—but of course, there'd be no money left for that.

Since all these kindly, if firm, suggestions would leave me quite broke, I decided to look into the one "free offer" in the bunch. It came from a man named Milton Samuels in Chicago who would be happy, he said, to tell me how to be healthy, glowing and beautiful this fall. All that would be required is a trip to his "torture chamber."

"Women through the ages have suffered for beauty," he P.S.'d poetically. "Why not you?"

* * *

The chamber in question is an uncomfortable little room, sealed off from the world of gracious living, in the factory of Lady Esther, the cosmetics people. Samuels is the young (38) president of the outfit who blushes amiably at the wonder of being in the ladies' sprucing business.

HE'S IN POWDER

"I used to be in the Navy," he says. "Now I'm in face powder."

In spite of the fact that he's a kindly man, he introduced the torture chamber—into which I have been inserted, and from which, rescued — as the only sensible means of testing potential cosmetics on various types of skins.

* * *

"You look dry to me," he said, "but who knows." With which I was invited into the chamber, brushed with an oily power, and left to smoulder as the mercury within soared to seasonal Sahara temperature.

"Yep, dry," said Samuels.

To determine how my skin would behave in hormone creams should I be vacationing in the Antarctic in January, I was given the sub-zero test.

When the torture chamber wind blowers were ordered turned to 100 m.p.h. velocity, I protested, "but I doubt if I'll ever be caught in a tornado . . ." "Remember the hurricanes!" shouted Samuels, from behind the closed door.

* * *

There are also bright sunlight, snow, rain and sleet conditions under which one can test one's ability to hold a gloss on one's nose. And torture-test "regulars" frequently have dust and dirt blown in their faces, to see if a powder base can withstand a brisk wind on a dirt road.

ONLY MUD OMITTED

"About the only thing we don't do in the chamber," said Samuels, "is throw mud at the girls. After all, how many girls get mud thrown in their faces—after they reach the age of cosmetics, anyway?"

After being thoroughly tested, I was advised to use an oily foundation, an oily powder, and oily cream at night; rub down vigorously after baths; and eat proteins. Then I should be able to stroll, beautiful and unblemished, through life.

Also, I presume, through flood and windstorm, o'er desert and ice-cap.

Radio Networks Vary in Replies to GOP

NEW YORK (AP)—Three major broadcasting networks have issued differing replies to a Republican request for equal time to answer former President Harry S. Truman's Labor Day speech.

* * *

CBS radio and television turned down the request yesterday. Sig Mickelson, vice president, said CBS believes it has kept a balance between Republican and Democratic speakers over an extended period and, in addition, is already committed to carry a speech by Vice President Nixon Oct. 19.

* * *

The American Broadcasting Co. replied that it would be pleased to grant the request for equal time and suggested Nixon as the Republican spokesman.

The National Broadcasting Co. said it had the request "under consideration."

Gentleman All the Way

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—Young Pheasant, an Indian from Tahlequah, Okla., was standing at a bar holding $60 in his hand. A woman patron grabbed the money and took refuge in the women's washroom. Police apprehended the woman and returned the money to Pheasant who did not prosecute.

What a Combination

The Windham County Hotel and Jail at Newfane, Vt., serves meals to paying guests at one end of the century-old building and to prisoners at the other. Food for both classes of customers is prepared in the same kitchen. One prisoner, his sentence completed, brought his bride back to the hotel for their honeymoon, says the National Geographic Society.

Pages Get $247

WASHINGTON — Capitol page boys, aged 14 to 18, who run errands for members of Congress, are paid $246.95 a month. They attend classes that start at 6:30 a.m. and last 3 hours and 9 minutes.

Ice Fields Dwindling

Glaciers on Washington State's Olympic Peninsula, like others in temperate lands throughout the world, are dwindling, says the National Geographic Society.

In the 15 years between 1938 and 1953, Blue Glacier just northeast of Mt. Olympus has shortened by more than 800 feet, and since 1919 by nearly three-quarters of a mile. Many ice fields disappeared but more than 50, covering 25 to 30 square miles, persist.

Brazil Has 270 Airports

Brazil has booster the number of her airports from 140 to 270 in the last five years, says the National Geographic Society.

Many new settlements are being built around the frontier fields.

Ice Worm Puzzling

Biologists are largely mystified by the lowly ice worm, says the National Geographic Society. These wriggling true worms lie dark and threadlike on the ice and snows of the Olympic Peninsula of Washington State, each about a quarter-inch long. Still unanswered are these questions: Where do they come from? What do they eat? How do they function at such low temperatures? Why do they choose such a weird environment?

Aristocrats Hide Hands

Tibetan aristocrats wear elongated silk sleeves hiding their fingers to show that their hands are not their livelihood, says the National Geographic Society.

Harvard Huge School

Harvard University libraries contain nearly 6,000,000 volumes, the largest stock of any university in the United States and perhaps the world. Harvard also has more than 10,000 students, some 3,000 teachers and fellows (among them six Nobel Prize winners), a $350,000,000 endowment and 170 buildings.

If you took one step for each movement of your eyes during eight hours of reading, you would walk 33 miles.

DOOMED STEAMER — The SS Ramona, with about 100,000 miles to her credit, faces permanent docking at her berth in Grand Rapids' Reed Lake. The State Waterways Commission has ordered the big pleasure cruiser drydocked for inspection. "That would cost thousands of dollars," operator Charles Poisson estimates, "and business just isn't there anymore." The vessel was built in 1923.

State Order Dooms Pleasure Cruiser to Permanent Drydock in Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS (UP) — The SS Ramona, a venerable 435-passenger excursion boat with about 100,000 miles in her past, can be purchased for the price of a luxury-class family auto.

* * *

The State Waterways Commission last Monday ordered a halt to the Ramona's cruises on Reeds Lake. Her operator, Charles B. Poisson, and his father, John, say the commission insists the ship be drydocked for inspection.

"That would cost thousands of dollars," Poisson estimates, "and the business just isn't here anymore."

The order scuttles an era in which two generations "courted" and danced on the Ramona's decks while the vessel smoothly glided around her Reeds Lake course.

Countless children knew her as the first "big boat" they ever boarded.

The Ramona is 110 feet long, has a 26-foot beam and weighs 100 tons. "She still has 30 years in her," says Poisson. "It was built as sound as the ark and all it needs is an overhaul."

LONG HISTORY

The elder Poisson first operated a pleasure steamer on the lake in 1882. First was the Florence. The Sport followed in 1888, the Major Watson in 1891, the Hazel A. in 1896 and the Ramona—built right at the dock by a Grand Haven shipbuilder—in 1923.

Ramona crews have rescued 60 persons from drowning. The vessel, never has run down smaller craft on busy Reeds Lake, never had a fire or any other marine emergency.

* * *

"We banged the dock a little hard a couple of times, but that's all," Charles Poisson reports.

He said the Poissons are leaving the pleasure steamship business for "a combination of reasons," among them is the razing of Ramona Park, the noted lakeside amusement park which is giving way to a proposed shopping center.

The Poissons believe a number of lakes would provide a good "home" for the Ramona. They note, however, that moving her might prove an expensive measure.

Charles would like to sail her to Florida.

* * *

"If you could move the Ramona to Eastmanville and put it on the Grand River, it could go anywhere under its own power," he says. "It would be simple to steam down the Mississippi and into the Gulf."

"I wanted to save one more life on this lake," John Poisson said. "But the state said to stop, so we stopped."

Record Income Reached in July

Commerce Department States Annual Rate Runs to 304.5 Billion

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Commerce Department said today the public had a record income in July, running at an annual rate of 304½ billion dollars.

Two other reports from the government, showing booming employment and construction, underscored the note of prosperity struck by the personal income report.

The sharp income rise amounted to an annual rate of three billion dollars income during July. However, much of it was attributable to a pay raise for federal civilian employes; a large part of the increase was due to lump-sum retroactive pay received by the federal employes when their new pay scale became effective in July.

But private industry payrolls were also higher in July, the Commerce Department said, although farm income was lower.

The previous personal income high was at an annual rate of just over 301½ billion dollars, established in June of this year. Person income has been rising steadily since March of 1954, when it stood at an annual rate of 286¼ billion dollars.

During the first seven months of this year, personal income averaged an annual rate of 298 billion dollars. That was 12 billions higher than in the corresponding portion of 1954.

California Egg Record

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UP)—Farm poultry flocks in California produced 4,577 million eggs in 1954, a new record. The output was 160 per cent greater than in 1940. The state ranks second in egg production, being surpassed only by Iowa.

MSU Expects Record Enrollment—16,500

EAST LANSING (UP) — Michigan State University expects to set a new enrollment figure this fall when an estimated 16,500 students register for classes.

The predicted enrollment is 1,000 greater than the 1954 fall enrollment and tops the previous high of 16,253 students in 1949.

Orientation and registration begin Sept. 19 and continue through Sept. 23. Classes start Sept. 26.

Not Hard to Spot

RICHMOND, Va. (UP) — When one of the newer city vehicles was stolen police expressed confidence the culprit couldn't conceal it very long. It wasn't missing long. The snow white ambulance, complete with siren and red blinker warning light was found abandoned a few hours later in northern Virginia.

The average American buys 8½ pencils a year.

Zoologist Will Study Disease in Japan

ANN ARBOR (UP) — A University of Michigan zoologist leaves for Japan Sunday to study parasitic diseases for the armed forces.

He is Henry Van Der Schalie, associate professor, who began his study of the often fatal blood ailment Schistosomiasis in Egypt where it is responsible for one out of every four deaths and strikes one of every five persons.

He explains that a snail carried the parasite, a flat worm, which brings hte disease. The snails abound in Egyptian waters used for everything from irrigation to washing clothes.

He will continue to combat the disease, working with the Army in Japan. He says, "It is basically a sanitation problem complicated by poverty and poor education."

Hold GI in Child Slaying

NAHA, Okinawa (AP) — The U.S. Army today was reported holding a sergeant in connection with the rape-slaying of 6-year-old Yumiko Nagayama, whose body was found near Kadena Air Force Base. A blood-stained towel, trousers, undergarments and buttons found in the sergeant's car were sent to Japan for laboratory analysis.

Award Rochester School Contract

ROCHESTER — The Schurrer Construction Co., Pontiac, was awarded the general contract for $687,694 for construction of the the new high school to be built here.

The Board of Education, at its Tuesday night meeting, accepted other low bids totaling $991,911.15, including the general contract.

Mechanical contract was awarded to Eames and Brown of Pontiac, for $175,600. The electrical contract was awarded to Jones, Sherman Inc. of Detroit, in the amount of $100,356.

Ray D. Baker, Inc., Detroit, was granted the contract for storm and sanitary sewer and water lines in the amount of $38,987.15. The total amount of the contracts amounted to an average square foot cost of $13.40. This is much below the average for high school construction in the area.

In order to come within the available funds, it was necessary for the Board to eliminate one wing of the building. This wing would have housed the Vocal and Instrumental Music Departments and a regular classroom. It will be necessary to add these in the next building project.

Also omitted was considerable site development — parking lots, driveways, sidewalks, etc., and a greenhouse which had been planned for the Biology and Agriculture Department.

Including the site purchase, grading, architectural fees, and construction costs, the total cost of the High School project will amount to $1,115,938.00. The entire project has been planned so that it is readily expandable.

Members of the Board directed Supt. Baldwin and Principal Harlan Johnson to prepare a description of how the curriculum would be affected by the lack of music and physical education facilities. Trustee Henry Purdy urged the establishment of a permanent curriculum committee to study the needs and to make recommendations.

The Board of Education has now completed the projects approved by the citizens in the 1954 election. It is expected that the construction of the high school will be completed before Sept. 1, 1956.

Police Hunting Escaped Deviate

Authorities Ask Aid in Capture of Dangerous Sexual Psychopath

LANSING (AP) — The Michigan State Police asked the aid of all citizens today in a hunt for a "dangerous sexual psychopath" who escaped Friday from the Ionia State Hospital for the criminally insane.

Capt. Edward C. Johnston, head of the State Police Detective Bureau, said the man is Arthur James Robertoy, 24.

Expressing fear that Robertoy may repeat serious crimes against women if he is not caught, Johnston said "If this man is sighted, report to the nearest police at once."

Johnston said Robertoy was sentenced July 9, 1953, for assault with intent to rape in Macomb County and that earlier he had confessed and then recanted the slaying of Dorothy Kelm at St. Joseph Nov. 3, 1950. Miss Kelm was tied with a rope and drowned near her home.

Johnston said Robertoy has made sexual attacks on other women after tying them with a rope and slashing off their clothes with a knife. He was confined to the Pontiac State Hopital from January to July 30, 1951, for such attacks.

Robertoy was described as five feet 10 inches tall, weighing 185 pounds, with brown eyes, black hair, a circular scar on lower right forearm and a scar behind the lower left ear.

Former Internal Revenue Employe Claims Dismissal Was 'Politics'

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

WASHINGTON—A former chief of the Internal Revenue Service Inspection Office has charged he was fired for refusing to "whitewash" a political appointee. Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey promptly struck back with a denial.

• • •

The charge was made by Edgar E. Hoppe, now a Dallas, Tex. attorney, who was dismissed from his government job Oct. 7, 1953, after nearly 25 years with the Internal Revenue agency.

Hoppe, who is suing the government for some $36,000 in back pay, asserted through his Washington lawyer, John P. Witsil, that he was "banished" because he "refused to whitewash a critical, adverse report on a new political appointee."

The appointee involved was identified by Witsil only as a man who "assumed one of the highest ranking positions of the Internal Revenue Service—the agency charged with collecting billions of tax dollars annually." Witsil added: "He's still there."

OPEN HEARINGS?

Senate Civil Service Chairman Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) announced, meanwhile, that his group will make a "thorough investigation of this and similar cases" and said "open hearings . . . may be necessary."

Johnston reported the Hoppe case "has been under study" by the committee staff and Hoppe has "been personally interviewed" by investigators.

Humphrey declared in a statement that Hoppe was fired because it became evident in the early days of the Eisenhower Administration that he "did not measure up" to requirements of "real competence, good judgment and fine ability."

The cabinet member added that another factor in the dismissal was Hoppe's "belligerent attitude and disrespect for his superiors."

Humphrey called the Hoppe ouster "one of those unfortunate cases where a man with long service was advanced to a position of importance that proved to be beyond his capacity and ability."

APPEAL FAILED

Hoppe unsuccessfully appealed to Internal Revenue Commissioner T. Coleman Andrews and the Civil Service Commission for reinstatement in his $14,800-a-year job.

When the appeals failed, he brought suit in the U. S. Court of Claims, alleging that the IRS failed to conform to the law in firing him without 90-days notice.

Witsil said the name of the man Hoppe assertedly refused to "whitewash" would be brought out when the ex-inspection chief takes the witness stand in the Court of Claims suit.

DELAYS CAN DELAY

However, the Justice Department has 60 days to answer the suit, which was filed Aug. 19, and other possible delays could prevent the case from going to trial until sometime next year.

Witsil said Hoppe entered the Revenue Service during the administration of former President Herbert Hoover but won promotion under Democratic regimes and was the victim of "politics" when the Republicans returned to power.

The summer White House in Denver said there would be no comment from the Eisenhower headquarters.

Hoppe said Andrews strongly urged him to resign "for the good of the service," and finally fired him Oct. 7, 1953, when he refused to quit.

Hoppe's lawyer said in a statement of his own:

"On seeing the shambles into which our merit system of Civil Service is disintegrating, I am convinced that there is no truer picture of political hatchet men at work . . . than in the case of Hoppe.

• • •

"Why was Hoppe dismissed? For doing his sworn duty. He refused to whitewash a critical, adverse report on a new political appointee. . .

• • •

"I feel that the integrity, prestige and judicial wisdom of the United States Court of Appeals will be more than adequate to cope with this shallow conspiracy of political patronage and that the court will vindicate this man."

• • •

Hoppe's suit was filed Aug. 19 and the Justice Department was given 60 days to file an answer. Witsil said the basic law involved is the 1912 Lloyd-LaFollette Act, which forbids summary dismissal of Civil Service employes.

GOP Prodding Ike to Say He'll Run in '56

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican State Chairman Samuel L. Bodine of New Jersey spearheaded today a drive aimed at forcing an early announcement by President Eisenhower whether he will run again in 1956.

• • •

Bodine said in an interview he will ask GOP state chairmen attending a campaign school here to organize formally and sign a petition asking the President to seek a second term. The New Jersey chairman predicted all would sign.

The 48 GOP state chairmen, attending a national committee school here on campaign tactics, will fly to Denver, Colo., at the conclusion of their classes for a Saturday morning breakfast with the President.

• • •

Murray Snyder, assistant White House press secretary, said in Denver the President will have no announcement at that time on his future plans.

Al Cast, Indiana state chairman, said it was implicit in all the discussions of campaign strategy that Eisenhower would be a candidate.

"Nobody has a second choice if he doesn't run," Cast declared.

Operating on the premise that Eisenhower will seek a second term, the Republican leaders drew a political bead on the South. They predicted that a 1956 ticket headed by Eisenhower would equal or better the GOP's 1954 achievement of carrying four Dixie states.

National Chairman Leonard W. Hall said in advance of the second day's sessions of the campaign school he believes his party will make new inroads into the South in congressional contests, as well as the presidential race.

• • •

"I have never seen so much enthusiasm among the Republicans in the South," Hall said, "the Republican organizations in Florida, Texas and North Carolina are going concerns."

Eisenhower carried Florida, Texas, Tennessee and Virginia in 1952.

GOP state chairmen from three of those states said in separate interviews they hope for a repeat performance next year. Chairman Floyd S. Landreth of Virginia said it is "too early to tell" how that state will vote, but he believes Eisenhower support is "firmer than it was four years ago."

• • •

In addition, State Chairman John T. Diederich predicted that if the economic situation remains good "definitely, we will carry Kentucky."

Vice President Nixon scheduled two appearances before the group today.

Don Pierson, Iowa Republican chairman, said in a statement last night he has found that all of his colleagues agreed without exception that Eisenhower will be a candidate for re-election next year "and he will lead the Republican ticket to one of its greatest victories."

• • •

The President himself has indicated strongly several times that he will wait until perhaps spring of 1956 to announce his plans.

Eisenhower has to work with Congress one more session before the nominating conventions next summer. If he were to announce now, either for or against a second term, it would jeopardize his chances of getting his legislative program through, his aides feel. They look at it this way:

A bid for a second term this far in advance would open the way for opposition contentions that every move had a political aspect calculated to win re-election.

Industrial Materials' Demand Skyrockets

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—America is getting back to work this week, after an unusually busy summer, with a number of production records likely to topple.

• • •

The American Iron & Steel Institute says the mills are set to turn out the biggest tonnage of any week since June. Steel demand is so high that some mills are opening their books now to orders for 1956 deliveries.

Demand for copper is so high that heavy users have asked President Eisenhower to release 100,000 tons from the nation's strategic stockpile. This plea came from the Copper and Brass Warehouse Assn., the Copper and Brass Research Assn., and the Wire and Cable section of the National Electrical Manufacturers Assn. They say that unless the metal is released many brass mills will have to close.

DEMAND SOARS

Demands for zinc by the steel and auto industries is so high the producers have raised prices three times this year. The latest price is 13 cents a pound.

All this activity in the heavy industries is a boon to the railroads. The Assn. of American Railroads estimates net income of 126 Class I roads in the first seven months this year totaled 490 million dollars, against only 283 million for those months last year.

• • •

And the goods that the factories have been turning out and the railroads, trucks and barges have been selling. Merchants report consumer buying still high. Back-to-school business has helped raise department store sales above those of last year and merchants predict that this year's Christmas trade will set new records.

Auto dealers report car sales unusually high for this time of year.

But the chief soft spot in the economy is growing a little softer right now. That is farm cash income. Prospects are for further weakening of prices of farm products as the big movement of field crops and livestock to market rises toward its peak. Near record crops are moving in on top of huge government-held surpluses.

• • •

Weakness in farm commodity prices offsets the rise in industrial material prices in the consumer's budget. And America enters the fall season with the cost of living still holding fairly level.

GIs Getting 'Brainwashed'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Communist-type brainwashing is being deliberately dosed out to American fighting men to help brace them against mistreatment at the hands of a ruthless enemy.

• • •

Blindfolding . . . forced marches, barefoot . . . questioning for long hours, with little rest or water and no sleep . . .

These are some of the "rather rough brainwashing procedures" servicemen are being put through, Pentagon officials said yesterday. They said all branches of the armed forces have such training courses to prepare for a possible grim life as a prisoner of war. The men are trained also in means of avoiding capture.

Under the military code, a revised version of which was proclaimed by President Eisenhower Aug. 18, the serviceman is told to avoid capture if at all possible. And if he does fall prisoner, he is to avoid "to the utmost of my ability" telling the enemy more than the historic requirement of name, rank and serial number.

E AND E

Defense Department sources told of the "E and E" — escape and evasion — training of some servicemen yesterday after Newsweek magazine published a stark account of such a course at Stead Air Force Base outside Reno, Nev.

The Newsweek article, by its reporter Peter Wyden, told of trainees forced to spend hours in a dark hole, up to their shoulders in water, or in a "sweat box" where a man could neither stand, sit or lie down.

• • •

Trainees were served uncooked spinach and raw spaghetti and given frightening but harmless electric shocks, Wyden wrote, and they got rough verbal treatment:

"A major who let slip that he had only an eighth-grade education, and a lieutenant whose members card in Alcoholics Anonymous laid him open to ridicule about his weakness for alcohol, were hammered until they talked just to end their humiliation.

LIEUTENANT CRACKS

"A bachelor lieutenant, badgered until he became convinced he could not find a girl because his face had been deformed in a childhood accident, finally broke up in tears."

The Air Force declined comment on Wyden's account but said that if it is accurate some changes may be made at Stead. It summoned the base commander, Col. Burton E. McKenzie, to Washington to check on the story. Newsweek said it was accurate and had been cleared by the Pentagon.

• • •

Wyden wrote that "some 29,000 men have safely withstood the 17-day course" at Stead and that none of the trainees have formally complained of their tough treatment.

McKenzie, himself a prisoner in Germany in World War II, was quoted as saying the trainees "take it because they realize it's as important to them as life insurance."

In like vein, the Navy said recognition of the value of "E and E" training is growing — especially for its aviators, the men most likely to need skill in escape and evasion.

NAVY COOPERATES

The Navy told of training exercises conducted periodically at Camp Mackall, N.C., in cooperation with Army troops from Ft. Bragg, N.C.

It said Navy and Marine airmen are first trained in map reading, firemaking, catching and cooking game, camouflage, and the like.

• • •

Then, in teams of two, the men are put out into "enemy territory." The "enemy" tries to capture them, and if successful then goes to work on them in a manner calculated to stiffen their resistance to possible Red "brainwashing."

The Navy "captives" might be forced to march barefooted, or be blindfolded and questioned with little rest or water and no sleep for as long as 12 hours. They might have to do pushups or other hard physical exercise.

The Marines put volunteer air reservists through this type of training last month at Camp Pendleton, Calif., and the Army is giving its airborne troops such specialized courses at Ft. Bragg.

• • •

The Air Force declined to give details of its training, saying it did not want any potential enemy to know the indoctrination being given.

Speeding Youth Loses in Race With Patrolman

A 19-year-old Waterford Township youth lost more than a race when he unsuccessfully attempted to escape a speeding ticket in the City of Sylvan Lake Monday night.

Loren Lyle Smith, 19, of 1797 Manse St., was stopped by Sylvan Patrolman Melvin Glover at 11:40 p.m. for driving 60 m.p.h. in a 35-mile zone near Orchard Lake and Middlebelt Rds.

When Glover approached Smith's car, the youth sped away. The patrolmen gave chase and apprehended Smith on Crystal Lake Drive after a wild, 6-mile race at speeds up to 90 miles an hour. Glover said Smith ran six stop signs and one traffic light during the chase.

Appearing before Sylvan Justice J. J. Leavy the following day, Smith paid an $80 fine and $20 costs and was sentenced to Oakland County Jail for 10 days for reckless driving. In addition, he paid a $10 fine and $10 costs for illegal possession of alcohol by a minor. He pleaded guilty to both charges.

Report Total of Jobless Workers About Half of Last Year's Count

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported today the number of the nation's long-term jobless workers is only about half what it was a year ago.

* * *

A joint report of the Commerce and Labor departments showed that employment reached a new record of 65,488,000 in August, nearly a half-million above July and 3,211,000 over August, 1954.

Unemployment declined 234,000 to 2,237,000, a million less than a year ago. Secretary of Labor Mitchell had announced these bare employment and unemployment totals for August last weekend. The more complete data released today showed that unemployment among workers idle 15 weeks or longer has dropped by an "especially large" amount during the past year. The figure this August is 450,000 compared with 850,000 for the same month last year.

* * *

The joint report said the nation's civilian labor force in August was 67,725,000 or 260,000 above July and 2,203,000 above August 1954. Sizeable employment gains were reported in food and tobacco processing, apparel, textiles, furniture manufacturing, and radio and television plants.

Auto industry employment dropped 50,000 as the model change over period began.

* * *

Employment in trade, finance, service, and state and local governments were at record levels for the month.

Troopers said chloride, being spread on the shoulder, apparently caused the skid.

Israel has about a million acres under cultivation, of which 250,000 acres are irrigated.

A cap, made from the bride's mother's wedding veil, secured her fingertip veil of net. She carried a white orchid, yellow roses and humboldi mounted on a white Bible.

Sally Wiseman of South Lyon served as maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. George Kuntz of Shelby, the bridegroom's sister, and Nancy Vogelsang of New Hudson.

Attending as best man was Robert W. McCrory. Ushers were Jerry Lee, Paul Lawrie, Dave Robert and George Schultz.

Gas Refund Parley Starts

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Power Commission (FPC) heard arguments today in a dispute involving refunds to natural gas users in six Midwest states, including Michigan.

At issue is how much the Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co. should be required to pay back of overcharges collected from 48 utilities from Feb. 20, 1952, to April 30, 1954.

The question arose when the FPC on April 15, 1954, allowed Panhandle a $12,778,864 annual rate increase. During the previous 25 months Panhandle had been selling gas at rates based on a $21,400,000 annual hike.

Most of the utilities had passed on the higher wholesale rates to their retail customers, subject to the same kind of refunds Panhandle will have to pay to the utilities.

RULING AWAITED

Exactly how much the consumer refunds will be can't be figured by the state regulatory commissions until the FPC rules on how much the utilities are entitled to from Panhandle.

Search Is Continued for Depot Bandits

Pontiac Police were continuing their search today for the pair of shotgun brandishing bandits who attempted an early morning robbery of the Grand Trunk Railroad office yesterday.

The pair held two employes of the office as prisoners, waiting for the arrival of the ticket agent who held the key to the safe which contained about $1,000 and a small amount of travelers checks.

The pair fled when one of the employes told them they would have to answer the phone and no answer would alert railway officials that something was wrong.

No new leads had been uncovered this morning according to Inspector Clark M. Wheaton.

THEY'RE DUE SOMETHING FROM UNION — Pasadena, Calif., police department criminologist Don Harding checks one of four safes burned open in Pasadena's Labor Temple by thieves with a thwarted sense of humor. They escaped with some $500, incinerated another $500 worth of cash and checks with their torches, and left a "This Job Is Non-Union" sign in front of the wrecked safes. Union members will be glad to put in a little free overtime going over the thieves, if they catch them.

DANIEL BOONE

By Russ Winterbotham and Ralph Lane

Dan'l Boone continued to explore Kentucky, where only two Indian settlements had been built.

John Finley, one of Boone's army buddies of the 1758 French and Indian campaign, believed a colony could be built here.

Needless that Virginia claimed Kentucky, Judge Henderson, of Salisbury, N.C., financed Boone, Finley and four others to find a site for the "14th colony."

Mexico City Cleans Up in Wake of Flash Flood

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The flood was over today for Mexico City and the Gulf Coast port of Tampico.

Resifents of a four-square-mile area of northwest Mexico City began cleaning up their flooded homes. Waters dumped by more than 10 inches of rain receded.

Portable pumps helped drain the houses and health units disinfected buildings.

The 15-foot crest of the Panuco River passed Tampico last night.

American Men Taller

WASHINGTON (AP) — American men now average one to two inches taller than those in George Washington's day, anthropologist T. Dale Stewart of the Smithsonian Institution said today. One theory, he said, credits it to such things as "better food and better living conditions."

May Quiz Youth in Girl's Death

Student of Pharmacy Lives in Home Where Heiress Succumbed

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dist. Atty. Samuel Dash said that the 20-year-old son of the couple in whose home Mrs. Doris Silver Ostreicher died may be produced for questioning today.

Capt. David H. Roberts of the homicide squad was told that Allen Schwartz, a student of pharmacy, might be made available in the presence of William A. Gray, noted lawyer, who has been engaged to represent the youth and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Schwartz.

* * *

Capt. Roberts yesterday ordered two detectives to bring in young Schwartz "as part of the investigation" of the Aug. 24 death of Mrs. Ostreicher, food store heiress and bride of two months. An inquest last Friday established that Mrs. Ostreicher died from a criminal abortion, only a few days before her 23rd birthday.

Dash disclosed also that Morris Wolf, counsel for the girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman R. Silver, has offered to permit the district attorney and an assistant to visit the mother at her suburban Melrose Park home to determine whether she is able to undergo questioning.

* * *

Wolf said that, in company with Dr. Abraham Ornsteen, well-known neuropsychiatrist, he called at the Silver home last night, but was unable to speak to her because she was "incoherent."

Wolf said he made the offer, however, so that the district attorney might be able to judge for himself Mrs. Silver's physical and emotional condition. She has been reported in a state of shock, requiring constant medical care, since her daughter died.

* * *

Meanwhile, detectives called off their search for young Schwartz, Temple University sophomore and part-time drugstore clerk. Capt. Roberts, in directing that he be found, emphasized that "he is not a suspect—we want to question him to see if we can learn anything from him."

The district attorney's office has described Mrs. Silver as a key witness. It was brought out at the inquest that mother and daughter were together at the Schwartz home on the night of Aug. 24 when Mrs. Ostreicher died.

32 Americans Use Improper Passports

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials are tracking as best they can the movement behind the Iron Curtain of 32 young Americans traveling without proper passports.

Some of the 32 may have already come back home to return to college. Six were reported in Moscow this week as expenses-paid guests of the Soviet government. Nine or 10 others were said to be visiting in Red China.

* * *

They went to Europe originally to attend the Warsaw Youth Festival in Red Poland last month.

The Justice Department is being alerted for possible legal action against the 32, according to the authorities concerned with the case. The possibilities are:

1. If the travelers used their passports without proper validation to travel behind the Iron Curtain, they are liable to prosecution under a law which provides a maximum penalty of $2,000 fine, five years in prison or both.

2. Some of them, if their records can be checked, may be cited as Communists or fellow travelers and therefore ineligible for passports under the passport regulation. Their passports could then be canceled. But even then they would have to be located and personally served with notice of the action before it could become effective.

Old Films Revitalized by Hollywood Laboratory

Hollywood may become as treasties of a small film laboratory in Hollywood maybecome as treasured to present-day movie-goers as was the first model-T to modern hot-rod enthusiasts.

Primrose Productions, under the direction of Kemp Niver, has taken on the intricate job of rephotographing the earliest paper-film prints of early day flickers and producing them on celluloid for modern cameras.

* * *

The old time movies are on rolls of paper, like so many adding machine tapes, and have been resting—and deteriorating — in the vaults of the Library of Congress in Washington, D. C., ever since they were first filed there for purposes of copyright.

The only legal way to copyright a movie until 1912 was to file a print of it on paper.

Staff members at the laboratory have been working on the project for more than two years and have duplicated 70,000 feet of film, involving 334 titles. But the job has really just started as they have nearly 2,000,000 feet to go before they are finished.

Niver devised his method after various laboratories and technicians had tried to reproduce the paper images with conventional film printing equipment and found it impractical.

PATCHES FILM

His original method involves soaking the paper rolls in a chemical bath and water and then carefully unrolling them a few inches at a time. In the case of early celluloid negatives from whatever sources, the film must first be painstakingly patched with clear plastic before any copy can be made.

Already recreated by the meticulous technicians is what is believed the first movie ever copyrighted in this country. It is a tiny piece of film titled "The Sneeze," for the action it depicted.

The movie dates back to 1889 and was copyrighted three years later. It consists of exactly 45 frames and had an original running time of one second. But since being put through the rejuvenation process, it now lasts a full 15 seconds and is much "more impressive," Niver says.

OTHER OLDIES

Other nearly forgotten masterpieces turned up by the laboratory include the uncut version of Thomas Edison's "The Great Train Robbery" of 1904, the 1898 production of Jules Verne's "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea" and a full-scale Passion Play movie filmed in New York in 1897.

One problem Niver faces, however, is convincing viewers that the films are the actual originals.

For in developing his process, he has invented a device which reproduces the ancient films too perfectly.

Even the time-honored "flicker" is gone.

Break Arms Together

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A pair of young brothers walked into a hospital together and walked out with new casts on their forearms.

Ronald Satterfield, 7, said he broke his right arm when he ran into a tree. His brother Kenneth, 9, fell off his bicycle, fracturing his left arm.

Wealth From Water

Water wells in the dry Canary Islands off northwest Africa often bring wealth to their owners, says the National Geographic Society. The islands' banana cultivation requires much moisture. Unirrigated land sells for as little as $10 an acre. With sufficient water for bananas, that same acre may sell for $10,000.

Japan's birth rate dropped from 34 per thousand in 1934 to 20 per thousand per year today.

Car Production Goal 8 Million

Industry Will Press Toward Total Following Shutdown

Auto makers will press production to a year's output of 8 million units following shut-down for model changeover, according to Ward's Automotive Reports, industry trade paper.

"By year's end, over 8 million cars will have poured out of U.S. automobile plants, half-a-million more than the highest predictions made early in 1955," the paper says.

"Despite the heavy changeover cutbacks encountered in August and shaping up for September, the industry expects to hit the 2 million mark during the fourth quarter for the best year-end three months in history."

Ford Motor Co. is expected to unleash a final-quarter surge in October, aiming for the best two monthly yields of the year during October and November, Ward's says.

Chrysler will be at strong levels as well as American Motors and Packard.

"General Motors, though coming in for a sharp changeover dip in October, plans to rebound briskly in November and December with programs pegged above all but three of the first 10 months of the year," the journal states.

By last week, the industry had produced its 5,586,800th car of 1955, a total higher than production in any complete year in automotive history except 1950 and 1953, Ward's reports.

History Repeats Itself

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurrying home to celebrate his 14th wedding, Harry Gaber got a ticket for speeding. Gaber told the policeman it was his first ticket in 13 years, the other one having been given him when he was hustling to celebrate his first wedding anniversary.

"And a funny thing," Gaber said, looking at his summons. "The officer who stopped me then was named Campbell, too."

"Yes," said Patrolman C. E. Campbell Jr., "that was my father."

Local Chapters Can Push Flood Funds to Goal

The $10,000,000 American Red Cross drive to feed, clothe and house victims of the recent Eastern States flood disaster will go "over the top" — providing some 3,700 local chapters across the nation come through with their pledged quotas. That was the announcement yesterday from national headquarters of the Red Cross.

Oakland County's quota in the drive is $13,320. Of this, only 5,076 has been collected so far.

"That means approximately $1,000 a day must be collected to meet our quota by the Sept. 15 deadline," the Rev. William C. Hamm, campaign chairman for the local chapter, said.

He urged that donations be sent immediately to the Red Cross chapter house, 118 Franklin Blvd.

"We need everybody's help, and there is only a week left to complete our collections," Hamm pointed out. "It will be a year, at least, before the Red Cross is able to move out of the stricken area."

Bob Considine Says:

Bishop Leaves China Only to Return Again

NEW YORK (INS)—Sidelgiances at news-makers . . .

Bishop Walsh, the Maryknoll missionary who has just been told he may leave Red China, will not be among those who emerge with cries of relief and joy.

Associates of the bishop at Maryknoll headquarters near Ossining, N. Y., said today that recent letters from him indicated willing acceptance of his belief that he was destined to be killed there in the service of his church.

Walsh has served in China since 1918, when he became one of the first members of the Maryknoll order. There was a 10-year stretch when he returned to this country to be superior general, but he was eager to return to his often thankless work in China. When the Reds arrested his priests he demanded that they arrest him also.

• • •

"Whatever they've done was on my orders," he cried. But they wouldn't touch him.

In the U. S. Senate, Herbert O'Conor, former governor of Maryland whose attorney general had been Bishop Walsh's brother, spoke out in behalf of the bishop and all men of God being foully used. Bishop Walsh was never arrested.

He leaves only to return.

FORGIVES FOES

Corp. Jacob Deshazer, captured by the Japanese after participating in the Doolittle raid, and the victim of vile tortures while in prison, has returned to Japan as a Protestant missionary.

Nehru has comparatively few friends in the U. S. because of his seeming leaning toward the Red side of East-West arguments. But a story from Radio Free Europe, a determined anti-Communist outfit, would indicate that Nehru can offend Communists just as readily.

Seems the pandit was told upon arrival in Prague that he would lay a wreath on the tomb of Gottwald, the first Communist president of Czechoslovakia.

"I did not know Gottwald," Nehru told the reception committee, "so I will not visit his tomb." Which worried the Red stooges but not nearly as much as when he continue, "I would like instead to see the tomb of President Masaryk."

• • •

Women from surrounding apartment houses were put to work cleaning the neglected park where the tomb of the George Washington of the country rests.

Nehru placed a wreath thereon, with no publicity tolerated. Then he further distressed the Czech Communists by asking to see the window from which Masaryk's son, Jan, fell to his death in 1948 at the time of the Communist coup.

"Fell," says Radio Free Europe, "is not the word that describes the death of the man who at the birth of U. N. at San Francisco a few years before had sworn that Czechoslovakia would always be free.

"He was pushed out the window by your enemies," Radio Free Europe repeatedly tells the people of Czechoslovakia.

TOMB PUZZLER

Did a piece sometime back to the effect that my wife and I have now visited three tombs of Christopher Columbus. Haven't heard from the custodians of the tombs at Seville and Havana but there's a long note from Harry C. Klemfuss, director of the Dominican Republic Information Center.

Last Columbus tomb we visited was at Ciudad Trujillo. Seems that after the funeral ceremonies at Valladolid (Spain), the admiral's remains were transferred to the Carthusian monastery in Seville, where the bones of his son Diego were also laid.

Exhumed in 1542, the bodies of both were taken to Hispaniola and interred in the cathedral at San Domingo (now Ciudad Trujillo.)

Prof. Samuel Eliot Morison, whose two-volume Pulitzer Prize winning "Admiral of the Ocean Sea" goes into this thoroughly, agrees.

P. S.—If you don't want to be half safe in this delicate matter, go see for yourself—at the Dominican Republic's International Fair of Free Nations, beginning Dec. 20, a nice time of year down that way, as Columbus, one of the older inhabitants, must agree.

Korean Bonus Given to All Eligible Vets

LANSING (AP) — An Attorney General's opinion holds that a Korean war veteran need not have entered military service from Michigan to be entitled to a Michigan bonus.

The opinion said that a veteran was entitled to the bonus if he was a resident of Michigan for six months prior to entering the service and that the place of his enlistment did not matter.

The opinion also held that a reenlistment is considered as a new enlistment and that any veteran who had been a resident of Michigan for the six months preceding his new enlistment was entitled to the bonus.

Symphony Starts Practice

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — The Northwestern Michigan Symphony Orchestra, Dr. Pedro Paz conducting, begins rehearsals Sept. 11 for its fourth consecutive concert season. Symphony society officials expect at least 40 of the orchestra regulars will return for the new season.

Eyes used for sight-saving operations must be removed within three hours after the donor's death and the operation usually must be performed within 24 hours.

Huk Bandit War Rages in South Philippines

MANILA (AP)—The Philippine government has fought a small war for a year and victory still is not in sight.

The war is against the Moro bandits of Kamlon, who rules on the southern island of Jolo. The army reports 229 bandits killed, 81 wounded, 117 captured and 78 surrendered in the first year. The army lost 52 killed and 84 wounded.

Takes Health Job

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Harold E. Samuelson, 32, currently public health educator at Mansfield, Ohio, has been named to a similar post in Grand Rapids. He succeeds Morris Barrett, who recently was named director of the city's new Alcoholics Rehabilitation Center.

About 200 of each 100,000 U.S. babies born in 1900 will live to see the year 2000, statistics indicate.

Measured by Cameras

NORFOLD, Va. (AP) — The Navy is using cameras to determine the depth of water. Commander John A. Goodman told the Optimist Club this type of aerial reconnaisance has been successful with water as deep as 40 fathoms.

Depths are figured from the frequency of the waves and the density of the negatives.

New Car Colors Cause Taxi Rider Confusion

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Those bright new colors on 1955 automobiles are pretty, but at least one Philadelphia woman thinks they're also confusing.

She wanted a taxicab, hailed a brightly-painted car at an intersection and began tugging at the rear door handle.

"Please, lady," said the driver. "This is my car, my own private car. It's not a cab."

Car Numbers Rise

AKRON, O., (INS) — The average number of passenger cars in use this year has been estimated at 45,400,000 by the B. F. Goodrich Company. This is more than 2,000,000 over last year's average, the company says. A total of 51,000,000 automobiles is expected to be registered in the nation by the end of this year, compared to 48,087,000 in 1954.

Skunk Aids Man

Though often denounced for destroying birds, the skunk aids man by eating vast hordes of cutworms, potato beetles, white grubs, and other crop ravagers, says the National Geographic Society.

Food Problem Seen

OMAHA, (INS) — Statistics indicate that by 1975 American farmers will have to feed an additional 40 million citizens from a gradually diminishing area of crop land. Through modern techniques, the farmers hope to keep up with increasing demand by raising more food per acre.

League Urges Road Session

Municipal Group Backs Ike's Road Program as Convention Opens

MACKINAC ISLAND (AP)—Directors of the Michigan Municipal League urged today a special session of Congress to act on President Eisenhower's 100-billion-dollar highway program.

The directors met on Mackinac Island last night on the eve of the opening of the league's annual convention.

• • •

The 12-man board agreed to place before the convention tomorrow a resolution calling for a special session of Congress.

The directors described America's highway problems as "critical and aid:

"The Michigan Municipal League urges that Congress support the objectives of the President's program for improving the nation's highways.

"On the national system of interstate highways we believe that the federal share of participation should be substantially increased."

The board endorsed bond financing to pay for new highways. It recommended that the federal government pool the money it collects in gasoline and vehicle taxes and use it exclusively for building new roads. It suggested that cities should be given a greater voice in plans for projects involving federal highway funds.

NEW TAX SOUGHT

In other action, the board recommended that members of the league support legislation to give cities and villages power to levy income taxes.

• • •

Attending the convention are 1,000 city officials from throughout Michigan.

Scheduled to arrive today are Gov. G. Mennen Williams and Mayor Albert E. Cobo of Detroit.

Working Wife Often Loses Charm

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Elsie de Wolfe had a lifetime rule of conduct, which was: "Never complain, never explain." It is said that this approach contributed a great deal to her tremendous charm.

* * *

I think of it often, when I meet career wives who seem to lose their personal charm the minute they go back to business.

You know the type. They run the house, they hold down a job and they make sure that everybody knows it!

SERVE GOOD MEALS

If you go to their homes for dinner, they serve a perfectly good meal, but they keep explaining that "If I were home all day, you would have had something fancier. But I haven't the energy or time."

Meantime, the poor husband squirms while the wife tells in detail how rugged it is, holding down two jobs.

Another uncharming habit is one that a husband I know describes:

"When Mary went back to her job, I told her I thought we should share in the housework. After all, I have a sense of justice and want to do my share.

* * *

"But she doesn't let me. Instead, she tries to work just as hard in the house as she did before she went back to work. She makes a fuss if I help, wears a martyred look and is always exhausted and cranky.

SPOILS HOME LIFE

"Our home life is nothing like what it ought to be."

A third pitfall for the working wife is talking shop.

Too often, she gets all wound up during the day. At dinner, all she wants to talk about is what her boss said, what happened to the new account, how splendidly she's getting along.

Men talking shop is bad enough, but somehow the woman who does it seems even more uncharming.

If you are one of the millions of women who are working outside the home, do remember to avoid these three bad and charm-wrecking habits:

Don't apologize for your homemaking. Do the best you can and don't yack about it.

* * *

Let your husband and children pitch in and help. It'll do them a world of good and keep you from becoming an overworked, tense, nervous wreck.

Leave the office work when you leave the office—and never, never talk shop.

Barbara Ann Bee Weds

The bride, Barbara Ann Bee, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Bee of Stirling avenue, and he is the son of Bartolo Aguayo of Franklin road.

The bride's floor-length gown featured a bodice of Chantilly lace over satin. Lace inserts accented the voluminous tulle skirt. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried her grandmother's satin-bound Bible with white orchids surrounded by white carnations on streamers.

Wilma Adkins, as maid of honor, wore a street-length gown of rose faille with a full skirt falling from the princess-style bodice. Her bouquet was a white satin fan with blue carnations.

Barbara's other attendants, Joan Bee, Janet Deem, Beverly Deem, Mrs. Daniel Donnelly, Margaret Bennett and Barbara DeConinck of Waterford, wore blue gowns identical to the maid of honor's. They carried white satin fans with pink carnations.

GOWNED IN WHITE

Marie Glasgow of Flint wore a white embroidered nylon frock for her duties as flower girl and carried a blue basket filled with pink flower petals. Russell Glasgow of Flint serve as ringbearer.

* * *

Vince Aguayo served as his brother's best man assisted by Tom Robb, Daniel Donnelly, Mike Donnelly, Jim Johnson, Paul Ochoa afid Mike Thayer of Clarkston who seated the guests.

Mrs. Bee wore a blue faille and velvet dress with black accessories to greet the guests at the reception held in the church parlors immediately after the service.

Her Accent Is Greeted by Snickers

She Says Tomah-to but Neighbors Use Tomayto

By EMILY POST

"I say aither and tomah-to. I have no objection to others saying eether and tomayto if they choose. But I've lately moved into a new community where my ways of pronouncing seem to cause snickering and side glances, and I'm afraid my new neighbors think me affected.

"You have always said when in Rome do as the Romans do, but I find it very awkward to say eether and tomayto. Must I change my pronunciation to conform to the ways of the community or may I continue saying what I have been used to saying and hope that they will in time get used to it?"

Answer: As this is a case of choice of pronunciation because of locality, you should say what you always have said. If you were mispronouncing, that would be another story.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am a girl 13 years of age. I often go around the house whistling one of the hit tunes of the day. My father objects to my doing this on the grounds that it is not ladylike. Will you please give me your opinion?"

Answer: When you are at home there is no reason on earth why you can't whistle. There is nothing unladylike in a skillful, light whistle. A loud whistle going over and over the same tune is something else again and can become very annoying to the listeners.

"Dear Mrs. Post: If a fruit or shrimp cocktail is the first course at dinner, is it put down directly on the service plate or must it first be put on a small plate?"

Answer: A plate holding fruit or fish cocktail in a stemmed glass is placed on the service plate.

Research Debunks Cut-Flower Ideas

Research has disproved the idea that flowers cut in early morning will last longer reports a group of home economists.

Virginia Polytechnic Institute experts explain more nutrients are retained in flowers cut in the late afternoon.

Nutrients are necessary for long life of a cut stem. These nutrients are used up rapidly at night when plants make their fastest growth.

After cutting plunge the flowers into warm water until they freshen up, then into cold water until you are ready to arrange them.

Be careful about using strong alkaline soaps or very hot water to wash china as this may cause gold bands or gilt decorations to deteriorate and gradually disappear.

DARLINE STRONG

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Strong of South Ardmore avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Darline, to Maurice O'Donnell. He is the son of Mrs. Agnes O'Donnell of Denver, Colo. She is a graduate of Hurley Hospital School of Nursing, Flint. He attended Regis College, Denver.

Border Prints Aid Sewer

Inexpensive border prints come to the rescue of the home sewer who wants to freshen up the guest room or liven up a child's room.

* * *

Fabric furnishings are apt to wilt the quickest in an active child's domain and low-cost replacements hold a special appeal for me.

Border prints, which come in an astonishing range of patterns from cowboys to rosebuds, eliminate the need for hemming and give as finished a look to the flounce of a bedspread as they do to apron or skirts.

A young homemaking friend of mine spent 12 hours in time and about $10 in cash to make a fresh, pretty bedspread, pillow cases, curtins and dressing-table skirt for her tiny daughter's room.

* * *

She has an automatic zig-zag attachment for her sewing machine, which she used to fancy up the simply flounced articles with rick-rack braid.

LEARN USE

A teacher at her local sewing center showed her how to make the best use of her attachments to save time. If you have new attachments, her advice is to take the time to learn to use them properly.

* * *

To make the pretty bedspread measure around the bed and double the results to allow for a full flounce. Cutting lenghtwise along the unbordered side, trim off strips to make the top of the spread. Piece together the panels, allowing six extra inches for tuck-in at the top.

Trim the selvages, pin raw edges and stitch strips together. Press seams open. Using a zig-zag attachment set for 12 stitches to the inch, stitch the rick-rack to reinforce the stitching lines.

Mark the center of the panel and the center of the flounce.

Use the ruffler to gather the flounce one-fourth inch in from edge. Line up the center markings and pin flounce to panel, right sides together. Baste, then stitch. If you border the joining seam with rick-rack, it's a good idea to use the zig-zag attachment again for extra secure seams.

Matching pillow cases made from the border print will probably need a hem. Allow about five extra inches around the pillow for ease and make case about eight inches longer than the pillow.

Plaids Now Teamed With Broadcloths

For living the life of McTavish, quilted plaid pedal pushers are teamed with a dark broadcloth shirt to make a lounge or study outfit.

For day and dates, a princess jumper in quilted plaid can be converted to after-five wear when worn without its own blouse.

Scotch plaids are among the season's smartest raincoats. A new version of the trench coat in jade green broadcloth buttons high at the neck for weather protection, and has a Black Watch plaid lining.

A raincoat that shows its plaid is made in bright colored water-repellent broadcloth with a middy-type collar in plaid. The lining is also plaid. There's a matching umbrella and hat.

Gloves will keep their shape while drying if a round clothes pin is inserted, head first, into each finger. Of course, the gloves should be rinsed and wrung out first.

Planning Can Cut Steps in Kitchens

Kitchen planning is not as complicated as you might think. It's important, however, because good planning can eliminate countless steps and waste motion.

The Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association says every kitchen should have three work centers: around the sink, range and refrigerator, with working surfaces attached. Each of these "centers" should have adequate base and wall cabinets, selected to fit the center.

Remove veils and fragile trimmings from hats before storing them for the season. Pack these frail pieces carefully and their freshness will pep up your hats next season.

Wolverine State Boasts Roaring Mink Business

LANSING—The Wolverine state, where wolverines are to be found only in zoos, is doing a bang-up business in mink.

* * *

As the years go by, the chances are increasing that your new mink stole is a product of Michigan.

Some 250 ranches, scattered from the Ohio border to the Lake Superior shore, are turning out about 186,000 pelts each year.

By giving up their skins for the sake of feminine fashion, the little animals brought some 2½ million dollars into the state's coffers last year—and made Michigan the fourth largest mink producing state in the Union.

What accounts for the upturn in mink production, and the apparently limitless consumer demand which made the United States a market for three million pelts last year?

A possible answer is the change in the type of market, explains Lawrence Wakefield of Traverse City, a long-time mink breeder and secretary of the Michigan Fur Breeders Assn.

Twenty years ago, 75 per cent of the fur was used in coats, with the rest going into capes, stoles, chokers and other small garments.

Now the situation is just reversed, Wakefield says. Three-quarters of the fur goes into small garments and only one-quarter into coats.

"That means the housewife, the stenographer—just about anybody can afford a mink garment of some sort," he says.

Mink, all descendants of the standard dark mink, are now available in several different mutations—with prices to match.

Most expensive is the sapphire (blue-gray).

A Hint for Washing Blond Shag Rugs

Hot water and an automatic washer and clothes dryer make owning "blonde" shag rugs a real pleasure. First, shake or vacuum rugs, then wash — two small rugs or one large one makes a washer load.

For real cleanliness and for preserving colors, use instant bead-bluing with a soap or syndet in the wash water. When it's time to dry rugs, you can be sure that the tumbling action of a dryer will make the rugs light and fluffy.

She Plays 'Hard to Get' at the Wrong Time

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

A boy's indifference is a galling problem to all the girls who like him. One will call him conceited and stuck up—and loudly denounce him to all who will listen to her.

Another will start a wild-goose chase, writing him love notes, calling him on the phone, expecting her attention to thaw him out. Then there's the girl who decides she'll play it cagey—she'll play hard to get and be a challenge to him.

* * *

All of these girls are tossing around for a logical excuse for the existence of an affection (their own) that isn't reciprocated (by his).

They're hunting for a way of calling themselves to his attention. In the face of his colossal indifference it's tough going. As this girl is finding out.

"Dear Miss Woodward: He used to like me for a while—but I'm afraid those days are gone. 'Cause he's acting as though he likes a good friend of mine. At least he talks to her a lot and hangs around her wherever we go.

"He doesn't pay any attention to me nowadays. So I've decided to play 'hard to get.' Don't you think that's the best thing for me to do?"

Answer: I can imagine how you're playing that game. When he's around, you probably adopt an air of supreme indifference. You turn your head away with a haughty look. You turn your back on him at every opportunity.

You go out of your way to avoid talking to him. You cross the street so you won't have to say "hello."

Your idea of playing "hard to get" is to give him the complete cold shoulder. That is to show him that you aren't falling all over him. That is to prove that nothing he does interests you at all. And that he'd have to stand on his head in order to get any response out of you.

But the game is only worth playing when someone's trying to "get" you. When the boy is showing some interest, putting on a show of trying to catch you.

* * *

Then it might make sense to let him see that you aren't easily caught. It's supposed to make him redouble his efforts.

But in your story, the boy isn't even chasing you. And your cold shoulder tactics are just convincing him (if he even notices) that you've a rather disagreeable streak in your disposition.

You're certainly not trying to make a good impression on him. Which is the only way I know of to make him stop taking an interest in another girl, and start perking up over you.

Hot Topping Substitutes for Frosting

Mrs. Metzler Puts Dates Inside Cake Also on the Top

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

September is the beginning of the club year. The matter of refreshments is always an important one with any hostess. You'll like this Date Cake which is one you may make the day before the meeting.

Mrs. Paul Metzler of Birmingham considers this one of her choice recipes. She is a creative cook who likes to add her own touch to a recipe.

Two young children make her days busy ones. She enjoys gardening. Another hobby is photography. Among her clubs are an alumnae group of Pi Phi and AAUW.

DATE CAKE
By Mrs. Paul D. Metzler

½ cup butter or shortening
1 cup sugar
1 egg
2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1½ cup dates, chopped fine
1¼ cups water
1½ teaspoons soda

Cream shortening and sugar, add egg and vanilla and cream well. Sift and add dry ingredients. Mix dates and water and let come to a boil. Remove from stove and add soda to this mixture (be sure to use a large pan). Add at once to cake mixture and mix well. Bake in a greased pan, 40-50 minutes in a 375-degree oven. Cover with the following Topping and serve in squares.

Topping

1 cup cut dates
¾ cup water
¾ cup sugar
1 cup nuts in large pieces

Cook dates, water and sugar slowly until thick. Remove from fire and add nuts. Pour over cake at once. This keeps very well.

New Fall Fashions Show Gay Pastels

NEW YORK (NEA) — High fashion in coats for the sub-teen is here.

* * *

There's the A-line, news in the fur fabrics, luxury linings, both bright colors and pastels for fall and winter.

The subteen coat is narrowed down this fall, is much slimmer than it ever has been.

Belts placed low or side tabs or width at the side of the coat are devices frequently used to gain the wanted A look.

Fur-like fabrics, of dynel and orlon, provide deep pile, come in fur shades. Fleeces come in both neutral and vivid shades and tweeds look better than ever in unusual color blends.

* * *

Chinchilla comes in plaids now and shows off well in the Black Watch. Alpaca is back again in both full-length and the shorter versions.

GERALDINE WORTHMAN

The Rev. and Mrs. Mathew Worthman of Bluffton, Ind., announce the engagement of their daughter, Geraldine L. of East Iroquois road, to Robert C. Irwin, son of the John K. Irwins of West Huron street. He is a graduate of Michigan State University where he is affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity.

Jackets, Hems Take Spotlight This Autumn

Jackets and hemlines are in the fashion news spotlight for fall.

Jackets may be any length, from brief curved boleros snugged in just beneath the bustline to tunic lengths a few inches above the hemline.

In her fall collection, Adele Simpson shows six separate jacket silhouettes in suits and costumes: the bolero, the fitted hipbone length jacket, the short boxy jacket, the little overcoat at fingertip length, the tunic, reaching to mid-thigh, and the ⅞ length slim tubular coat. All are worn over slim skirts or sheath dresses.

Although the standard daytime skirt length for fall is very slightly shorter than current styles, averaging about 13 inches from the floor, variations make news in the fall fashion lineup.

Pauline Trigere shows a new intermission length for dinner and theater wear, about three inches above the ankle, in slim sheath costumes.

The smart lines of Fall coats include A-line, fitted, clutch wrap, columnar and classic boy styles. Suits stress tunics and three-piece coordinated costumes. To accent those chic designs, wear a modern, spicy or woody-mossy-leafy scent.

IF short, slender—

Newest rainwear follows the narrow shape which suits your tiny figure better than the bulky coat of last year.

In fall rainwear the newest coats are slim. Newest fabrics are worsted jersey and velveteen. One of the favored new fall colors is moss green. Jersey and velveteen helmets accompany these raincoats.

Don't use old newspapers as mats for dropped pieces of ironing. Freshly-ironed fabrics pick up ink much too easily.

Segregation in Park Hit by Texas Court Ruling

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—Negroes have a constitutional right to free use of city parks here, Federal Judge Lamar Cecil ruled yesterday.

* * *

The Beaumont Enterprise said it was believed to be the first decision in the U.S. 5th Circuit striking down segregation of races in the field of public recreation.

Judge Cecil ruled in behalf of six Beaumont Negroes who contended they were denied use of Central and Tyrrell parks solely because of their race and color.

Philly Reviews Historic Hall

Two-Year Study Shows Original Furnishings in Independence Hall

WASHINGTON—A two-year raking of records promises soon to restore the Assembly Room of Philadelphia's Independence Hall as it was when John Hancock and co-patriots met in it at the Nation's birth.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs is financing the refurnishing of the Hall's first floor. But prospects of finding the original furniture are dim; most pieces disappeared during British occupation of the city. As research progresses, replicas made with old hand woodworking methods as well as genuine antiques will be placed in the Hall, the National Geographic Society says.

* * *

Records have been revealing. The six large windows probably had Venetian blinds. There were perhaps 40 Windsor chairs—chairs with spindle backs and turned raking legs. Candles lighted evening sessions; tables served the Speaker and Clerk. Some experts think a handbell may have substituted for a gavel.

The Penn family coat of arms was quite likely among the few room adornments, sharing space with colors of the 7th British Fusiliers captured at Chambly, Canada, in 1775.

A silver inkstand made in 1752 by Philip Syng, Jr., noted Philadelphia silversmith, is believed authentic and to have been used by the signers of the Declaration of Independence. Priceless now, it was first acquired for 1.25 16s.

Only scant attention was paid the building as a national treasure until Lafayette's visit to Philadelphia in 1824. People then referred to the Assembly Room as the "Hall of Independence."

The name "Independence Hall" came into official usage in 1852, embracing the entire building. Its historic importance was fully recognized. Edward Everett, who shared the platform with Lincoln at Gettysburg, once said of the building, "Let the rain of heaven distill gently on its roof and the storms of winter beat softly on its door."

Present plans for the first floor mesh with a long-range restoration of the adjoining area of the city.

SMALL-FRY SKIN DIVER — Ready to launch a career as a skin diver, Todd Ratliff, 2, is weighed down with the proper but (for him) king size equipment at side of a pool in Hollywood, Fla. It's Canning and Freezing Time

Primitive woman must have tried to preserve food against lean days ahead. We know her methods are no longer used, but the "squirrel" instinct in all of us women still is dominant. We want to prepare for winter.

For most of us canning and freezing are not a matter of life-and-death necessity. We can eat the same foods in winter as we do in summer, thanks to the commercial food preservers.

There is however, a certain quality in home preserved food not found in store-bought products. Unless we have huge gardens and fruit trees, it is not always an economical measure.

Mrs. Ivan Wilcox who lives in Donelson Park freezes and cans garden produce all summer long. She and her husband are avid gardeners. The day after their return from their European trip last May they planted peas.

Since then, the Wilcoxes—he helps too—have frozen those peas, string beans, asparagus, corn and a couple of bushels of limas. Rhubarb, strawberries, cherries, and raspberries have been frozen for weeks. Now it's time for peaches and pears. These last two Mrs. Wilcox cans as well as freezes. Soon she will do applesauce.

We are sure Mrs. Wilcox is not the only woman who does quantities of home preserving. She happens to be one we know well. This brief article is a salute to the many women who spend hour after hour in the kitchen, assuring their family of good eating, come cold weather. For all of them we publish a couple of recipes, one for freezing, one for canning.

Pontiac Press Photos

To Freeze Italian Prunes

Select fully ripe fruit when sugar content is high. Wash, sort, halve and pit. Pack in syrup to which ascorbic acid has been added or in dry sugar. A 40 per cent syrup is recommended—1 part sugar to 1½ parts water. Add ⅛ teaspoon ascorbic acid to each cup of cold syrup. Syrup may be prepared in advance but ascorbic acid should be added just before using, and with a minimum of stirring.

For pies a dry sugar pack is usually preferred with ½ cup sugar to 3 or 4 cups prepared fruit. the prepared and sugared fruit is allowed to stand and is turned gently several times until sugar is dissolved and syrup forms and coats all fruit pieces. Then package and freeze. More sugar can be added with thickening agent when pie is prepared for baking.

Italian prunes will be in good supply until mid-September but available into October, so be sure to schedule home freezing time while fruit is at its best.

TO CAN PEARS

All kinds of pears—make a light syrup. Wash fruit and cut into halves or quarters. Core and pare. Drop pears into salt-vinegar water (2 tablespoons salt, 2 tablespoons vinegar to 1 gallon water). Rinse and cook pears 5 to 8 minutes in syrup. Pack hot into hot glass jars. Process 20 to 25 minutes in boiling water bath. Or 10 minutes at 5 lb. in your pressure canner.

Cinnamon Pears—add 2 sticks cinnamon and a few drops red food color to each quart of syrup.

Orange Pears—Cook peel of ¼ orange with each quart of syrup.

Mint Pears—Add oil of peppermint and green food color, a drop at a time, until syrup is flavored and colored as desired. Cook pears in syrup 10 minutes before packing for processing.

Pineapple Pears—Use pineapple juice instead of water for making syrup.

Pear Preserves

2 quarts pears (sliced)
2 cups water or juice
4½ cups sugar
6 slices lemon

Pare fruit (if hard, cook until tender in water). Make syrup of liquid and sugar, add fruit to partly cooled syrup and bring gently to boil. Add lemon if desired. Boil rapidly until clear and tender, cool rapidly. Stand in syrup to plump. Pack fruit into hot glass jars and add reheated syrup to within ½ inch of top of jar. Seal immediately.

Add Parsley to Spread

Your family and friends like garlic bread with spaghetti and tomato sauce or a creamed chicken casserole? Then try this variation on an old theme: Mix lots of minced parsley with the butter and crushed garlic used for the bread, before heating as usual.

The average pencil can draw a line 35 miles long.

Grape-Mallow Wins Applause

New in flavor is Grape Mallow, a good dessert especially for the young fry. Its tapioca pudding made with new canned grape drink (wonderful too with grape juice).

Flecks of marshmallow peek through the pudding and each serving goes high-hat with one big puffy marshmallow. Easy to fix, easy to eat, it's a welcome addition to your dessert list.

Grape-Mallow Pudding

2 cups canned concentrated grape drink, diluted*
3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
1 tablespoons lemon juice
Dash of salt
1 package (¼ pound) marshmallows

Combine grape drink, tapioca, lemon juice and salt in small saucepan; bring to rolling boil, stirring constantly. Remove from heat; cool slightly.

Cut up marshmallows, reserving four; fold into grape mixture; chill. Serve topped with reserved marshmallows. Makes four servings.

(*Canned grape drink comes concentrated in 6-ounce cans; dilute according to label directions. Or use 2 cups grape juice.)

Use Plain Tin Cans

Use plain tin cans for canning meats and poultry. While enameled cans prevent some foods from discoloring, the enamel may peel off and discolor the meat when brought in contact with fat.

Gingerbread Mix Sparks Back-to-School Cupcakes

New trick for lunchboxes going to school! First make your own gingerbread mix. Then when it's convenient, bake a batch of cupcakes from it.

Put the cooled cupcakes in your freezer. The morning you pack a couple of the good little treats into your youngster's lunchbox, take them out of the freezer. They'll be thawed and fresh-tasting by noon.

* * *

The youngsters we used as willing taste-testers of these cupcakes were all approving. Good molasses flavor, spicing just right, fine texture — small fry took note of and appreciated these qualities.

Here's the recipe for the mix and directions for using it.

Molasses Gingerbread Mix

8 cups sifted flour
2 tablespoons baking powder
2½ teaspoons baking soda
4 teaspoons salt
2 cups sugar
3 tablespoons ginger
3 tablespoons cinnamon
1 teaspoon cloves
1½ cups hydrogenated shortening

Sift flour, baking powder, baking soda, salt, sugar, ginger, cinnamon, and cloves together twice. Cut in shortening with two knives or pastry blender until no more fat particles can be seen.

Place in tightly covered container; store in a cool place. Makes about 15 cups of mix; use as directed in Back-to-School Cupcakes.

Back-to-School Cupcakes

1 egg
¼ cup old-fashioned molasses
¼ cup boiling water
3 cups molasses gingerbread mix (see recipe)

Beat egg until thick and lemon-colored with rotary egg beater; beat in molasses, then boiling water. Add to the 3 cups of molasses gingerbread mix and beat just until smooth.

Place paper baking cups in muffin pans; fill each cup about two-thirds full. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean.

If muffin pans whose cups each measure about 2¼ inches across top are used, the batter will make 12 to 14 cupcakes; these should be baked 25 to 30 minutes.

Cool in baking cups on rack. If paper baking cups are not used, grease bottoms and sides of muffin cups well with shortening; allow cupcakes to stand about 10 minutes before loosening with small spatula or knife and removing to cooling rack.

If desired, frost with confectioners' sugar frosting or force small amount of frosting through cake decorator to write name on each cupcake.

Cupcakes may be covered and placed in freezer; thaw 1 to 1½ hours before serving.

Eohippus, an early ancestor of the horse 45 million years ago was about the size of a large tomcat.

Lime Dessert Is Light, Fluffy

Lime, a fresh flavor, adds the perfect touch at this time of year to a light fluffy dessert like this Lime Delight. The cake-like top of the dessert is a perfect texture contrast to the smooth lime custard of the bottom.

Most recipes for this type of dessert call for lemon juice, and the flavor of fresh lime is a refreshing change. Margarine used in the recipe adds rich smoothness and makes the Lime Delight easy to unmold or serve from the casserole in which it's baked.

Served cold it's a perfect dessert for warm, fall weather. Served warm it adds the right note in a cold weather menu.

Lime Delight

2 tablespoons margarine
½ cup sugar
2 tablespoons flour
¼ teaspoon salt
2 egg yolks, well beaten
½ cup lime juice
½ teaspoon grated lime rind
1 cup milk
2 egg whites
¼ cup sugar

Let margarine soften in bowl. Mix one-half cup sugar, flour and salt together, then add gradually to margarine, creaming until smooth. Add beaten egg yolks and blend. Stir in lime juice and rind.

Add milk gradually, blending well. Beat egg whites until they hold a stiff peak. Beat in one-fourth cup sugar gradually and fold into first mixture.

Pour into greased 1-quart casserole. Set in pan of hot water and bake in moderate over 350 degrees 50 to 55 minutes. Serve either warm or cold. Makes six servings.

Tomato Aspic Blends Nicely With Seafood

This aspic has a fresh taste that goes well with seafood.

Summer Tomato Aspic

1 lbs. 2 ozs. (1 pint and 2 fluid ounces) tomato juice
1 quick-dissolving cube chicken bouillon
1 envelope gelatin
1-3 cup finely diced celery
½ cup finely diced cucumber
2 tablespoons finely diced green pepper
2 scallions with about 3 inches of green tops (finely diced)

Put tomato juice in a saucepan; crumble in bouillon cube. Sprinkle gelatin over tomato juice.

Stir over low heat until gelatin dissolves; stir out any lumps of gelatin with back of spoon against sides of pan.

Turn into shallow container and chill until the consistency of egg white—gelatin will begin to set.

Fold in celery, cucumber, green pepper and scallions. Turn into individual molds; there will be enough for five one-half size molds. Chill until firm.

Unmold by running small sharp knife around edges of aspic; dip molds quickly into hot water; invert on plate and turn out.

Serve on salad greens with seafood salad — shrimp, lobster or crabmeat with mayonnaise.

Walnuts Add Savor to Tuna Sandwiches

Crisp walnuts, with browned-in-butter flavor, give distinction to this sandwich filling.

Special Tuna Sandwiches

1 can (7 ounces) tuna
½ cup finely diced celery
2 whole canned pimientos (drained and diced)
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
½ cup coarsely broken walnut meats
½ to ¾ teaspoon salt
Pepper
½ cup mayonnaise or mayonnaise-type salad dressing
2 teaspoons cider vinegar
Bread
Butter or margarine
Salad greens

Turn tuna, including oil in can, into a mixing bowl; flake. Mix tuna, celery and pimientoes.

Melt 1 tablespoon butter in a small skillet over low heat; add walnuts; stir often until walnuts are browned.

Add walnuts (and butter in skillet) to tuna mixture with salt, pepper to taste, mayonnaise and vinegar; mix lightly but well with a fork. Makes about 2 cups.

Use filling at once (so walnuts will be crisp) with buttered bread and salad greens for sandwiches.

Quick Sauces Lend Variety to Fish Sticks

Next time you serve frozen fish sticks, try them with one of these easy sauces. Each will add a zestful flavor to this popular, quick way to serve fish.

What's more, all of the sauces are easier than easy to prepare—try all three for interesting variety and intriguing flavor. Every one's a quick and simple way to serve fish sticks.

Easy Sauces For Frozen Fish Sticks

Combine one-half can tomato soup and 2 teaspoons horseradish. Heat and pour over fish sticks.

• • •

Combine one-third cup chili sauce and one-fourth cup mayonnaise and heat. Serve over fish sticks.

• • •

Mix together one-half cup mayonnaise, 2 tablespoons mustard, 2 tablespoons finely chopped onion and one-fourth cup chopped stuffed olives. Serve with fish sticks as you would a regular tartar sauce. Amount: About three-fourths cup.

DOING-UP" PEARS—Bartlett pears are in season and ready for canning and freezing. Now is the time to capture some of summer's goodness to cheer you when winter winds blow hard. Pears for canning or freezing should be yellow but firm and juicy.

Now's Best Time to Can and Freeze Delicious, Crisp, Juicy Bartlett Pears

Bartlett pears are on the market in better than usual supply this year. Early September is traditionally pear canning time for homemakers. Quality of fruit is excellent. It's a cinch to process enough pears to last through all the winter months.

• • •

Use Bartlett pears generously during the weeks they're available. Crisp juicy pears in the refrigerator will answer many needs. To tuck in the lunchbox or picnic basket, for quick and easy salads and desserts, and for between meal refreshments, a chilled Bartlett pear is the perfect answer.

Today's homemaker cans and freezes fruit with ease and efficiency, scheduling just the amount of work she can do easily during the morning hours.

It's easier to spread canning and freezing activities over several days than to be worn out from an all day long working schedule. Sort pears and can or freeze as they ripen. Bartlett pears for canning and freezing should be yellow but firm and juicy.

TO CAN BARLETT PEARS

To can Bartlett pears, wash core, peel and halve pears. Pack pear halves into clean hot jars and cover with boiling syrup—1 part sugar to 2 or 3 parts water.

Pour syrup to within one-half inch of top of pint jars and one inch from top of quart jars. Insert clean knife to remove air pockets. Wipe top of jars with clean damp cloth. Adjust lids and place in boiling water bath.

Start counting time after water returns to boil and process 20 to 25 minutes for both pints and quarts. Have water boiling at least an inch over tops of jars.

TO FREEZE BARTLETT PEARS

Select eating ripe Bartlett pears. Make plenty of syrup in advance using 1 part sugar to 1½ parts water.

Part of the syrup is used boiling hot to dip pear slices into and part of it cooled and ascorbic acid added to pour over cooled pear slices in preparation for storage in freezer.

Dip pear slices into boiling syrup for one to two minutes, then chill on trays in the refrigerator. When chilled, pack into freezer containers and cover with cold 40 per cent syrup to which ascorbic acid has been added, using one-fourth teaspoon to each cup of cold syrup.

Place crumpled cellophane on top of pears to hold slices under syrup. Seal and freeze.

Lend Company Flourish to Everyday Applesauce

You may decide to present this party-type pie at an afternoon tea party. Or as the dessert for a festive luncheon.

• • •

Or for some evening occasion when you want to put your best step forward for special guests. For this is a pie to impress, to garner compliments for good looks and even more so, for deliciousness. And you need never tell that it's so easy to make.

It's easy because three modern ready-to-use foods are combined to achieve spectacular results . . . chocolate wafers, sweetened condensed milk and ready-prepared applesauce . . . all found regularly in any grocery store.

The wafers form the scalloped shell. The filling is a soft gelatin-fluff of canned applesauce, light and smooth, with the refreshing flavor of apple perked with lemon and orange.

• • •

Now to make it! Simply follow the directions and it'll turn out perfectly.

And for the first time, how about serving it (with a flourish) to those most important people of all — the members of the family? When you do, you can expect calls for repeat performances.

Applesauce Bavarian Pie

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
2 cups canned applesauce
1 (15-ounce) can sweetened condensed milk
½ cup lemon juice
½ cup orange juice
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
2 egg yolks
1 package chocolate wafers (2¼-inch diameter)
½ cup heavy cream

Soften gelatin in water. Heat applesauce; add gelatin. Stir until dissolved. Cool. Combine condensed milk, lemon juice, orange juice, orange rind and egg yolks; stir until mixture thickens. Add applesauce; mix well.

Line bottom and sides of 9-inch pie plate with chocolate wafers, standing wafers around edge. Cover with one-half applesauce mixture. Add layer of cookies, cover with remaining applesauce mixture.

Place an overlapping circle of cookies on top. Chill. Just before serving; whip cream stiff, use as garnish. Yields eight servings.

Don't Prepare Same Old Salad; Experiment a Bit

Don't serve the same old salad all the time! Here are some combinations that eaters usually like:

• • •

1. Strips of cooked smoked tongue and cheddar cheese with shredded green cabbage and diced pimiento. Toss with French dressing.

2. Watercress sprigs, thin slices of cucumber and crumbled crisply cooked bacon. Toss with French dressing.

3. Diced cooked potatoes and diced cooked chicken with cooked green peas or snap beans. Marinate with French dressing, then add mayonnaise, and serve on salad greens.

• • •

4. Thin celery crescents with seafood — cooked shrimp, crab meat or lobster — and butter-toasted walnuts.

The celery, seafood and walnuts may be mixed with well-seasoned mayonnaise and served on any leafy green.

Bake Peach Kuchen for Morning Treat

Take advantage of fresh peach season to make this delicious breakfast treat.

Fresh Peach Kuchen

1 cup sifted flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup enriched yellow cornmeal
¼ cup sugar
¼ cup shortening
1 egg (slightly beaten)
1 tablespoon milk
2 cups sliced peeled fresh peaches
½ cup sugar
1 egg yolk (beaten)
½ cup milk
¼ teaspoon cinnamon

Sift together the flour, baking powder, salt, cornmeal and one-fourth cup sugar; cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs.

Stir slightly beaten egg and 1 tablespoon milk together. Mix all at once into dry ingredients.

Pat mixture into baking pan (7 by 11 inches). Arrange peaches in two rows over dough. Sprinkle peaches with ½ cup sugar.

Bake in hot (400 degrees) oven 15 minutes. Mix beaten egg yolk with one-fourth cup milk and cinnamon; pour over peaches.

Continue baking 5 to 10 minutes longer, or until custard is firm. Cut in pan and serve warm.

Fix Veal Birds With Parsley Atop the Range

This well-flavored veal dish is made on top of the range.

Parsley Veal Birds

1½ pounds veal cutlet
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 cup lightly packed soft bread crumbs
¼ cup lightly packed minced parsley
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
¼ cup flour
1 cup tomato juice
Sugar
Ground allspice

Have veal sliced into six to eight pieces and pounded very thin. Melt 2 tablespoons of the butter in an 8-inch skillet; mix in bread crumbs, then parsley, one-fourth teaspoon salt and one-fourth teaspoon pepper.

Put a spoonful of the stuffing in the center of each piece of veal; roll up meat and fasten rolls with toothpicks.

Mix flour with remaining one-fourth teaspoon salt and one-fourth teaspoon pepper; roll veal birds in seasoned flour.

Melt remaining 3 tablespoons butter in a 10-inch skillet; brown veal birds on all sides.

Add one-half cup tomato juice, dash of sugar and allspice; cover and simmer 30 to 40 minutes; add remaining tomato juice as needed.

Tailor Party Menus to Please the Dieters

"Be conscious of your diet-conscious guests when you plan a party menu," is pretty good advice for today's hostess.

For instance, substitute the whipped white of an egg for whipped cream to dress up a dessert.

Use low-calorie cherries instead of maraschino cherries.

Make your sauces—if you must use them—with skimmed milk. Even ice creams can be made with skim milk and sucaryl instead of sugar and if served with fruit sauces, such as apricots, peaches or cherries, made with low-calorie canned fruits they'll be a delicious dessert.

Wharf Recipes Are Compiled

Whether you've ever visited San Francisco or not, you've no doubt heard of the famous Fisherman's Wharf and all the delicious eating that goes on there.

* * *

Morrison Wood, food lecturer and writer, was so fascinated with the excellent fish restaurants in this colorful part of San Francisco that he persuaded the chefs to give him their recipes for a Fisherman's Wharf Cookbook, just published by Brown & Nourse, San Carlos, California, $3.50.

Since he describes Crab Cakes Italienne, served at Fisherman's Grotto No. 9, as "particularly delectable," the National Fisheries Institute is distributing the recipe, which Mr. Wood has developed for your kitchen and mine.

Crab Cakes Italienne

1 pound fresh crabmeat
1 teaspoon garlic, minced
1 cup grated Parmesan cheese
1 teaspoon chopped parsley
2 whole eggs
Salt
Pepper
3 tablespoons olive oil

Mix together the crabmeat, the Parmesan cheese, the parsley and the minced garlic. Mix in two lightly beaten eggs and form the resulting mixture into cakes. Season with salt and pepper to taste.

Heat olive oil in a skillet, and when hot add the molded cakes and fry on both sides until golden brown. Serve very hot, and prepare to smack your lips!

Fill French Pancakes With Tuna a la King

Fill paper-thin French pancakes with tuna a la king for a company lunch. Put the filled pancakes in a shallow glass baking dish and top with a little more of the creamed fish and a generous sprinkling of grated Parmesan cheese.

Place in a moderate or hot oven until bubbly and brown the top a bit under the broiler.

A tossed green salad with French dressing and crusty rolls make a perfect accompaniment for this dish.

MARINER'S WHEEL — You can tempt even the most reluctant appetites if you serve Mariner's Wheel Coffee Cake for breakfast. Grated lemon rind and cinnamon give this warm bread a deliciously different flavor. The little applesauce "boats" have sails of fresh apples.

Tempt Morning Appetites With Spicy Coffee Cake

Grated lemon rind and cinnamon combine to give Mariner's Wheel Coffee Cake a perky flavor certain to please morning appetites. When the cake has baked to golden perfection, allow it to cool, then frost with confectioners' sugar icing. Sprinkle with chopped nuts for crunchy contrast.

* * *

Youngsters will be delighted to see the breakfast table set with Mariner's Wheel Coffee Cake and applesauce "boats." To make applesauce "boats," cut sail-shaped slices of fresh apple and place one in each dish of chilled applesauce. Serve glasses of rich milk, too.

Every good cook prides herself on ability to make light, tender yeast breads, even though she hasn't time to make them often. The matchless yeasty flavor of oven-warm yeast coffee cake spells sheer elegance on any menu.

The man in your family will be justly proud when you serve Mariner's Wheel Coffee Cake for a winter's morning meal.

* * *

Modern bakeries and food stores feature a wide variety of tempting coffee cakes and rolls. You're certain to find a bread just right for your family's breakfast, when you haven't time to bake your own. Just make sure all bakery foods are enriched for the extra nutritional value of B vitamins and iron at no extra cost.

Mariner's Wheel Coffee Cake

1 package yeast, compressed or dry
¼ cup water (lukewarm for compressed yeast, warm for dry)
½ cup milk
¼ cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons shortening
1 egg
½ teaspoon grated lemon rind
2½ cups sifted enriched flour (about)
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
½ cup sugar
1½ teaspoons cinnamon
Confectioners' sugar icing

Soften yeast in water. Scald milk. Add sugar, salt and shortening. Cool to lukewarm. Add 1 cup flour. Mix well. Add egg, lemon rind and softened yeast. Mix until smooth. Add remaining flour to make a soft dough. Knead until smooth and satiny. Place in lightly greased bowl. Cover and let rise in warm place until doubled (about 1½ hours).

Punch down. Let rest 10 minutes. Roll out into rectangle about 10x12 inches. Brush top surface with melted butter or margarine and sprinkle with cinnamon sugar. With rolling pin make depression lengthwise through center of rectangle.

Fold edges of dough toward center, meeting at this depression. Flatten slightly. Brush again with melted butter or margarine and sprinkle with cinnamon sugar. Fold in half lengthwise forming a long narrow strip.

Shape into a ring with sealed edge out on greased baking sheet, sealing ends. With scissors or sharp knife cut through ring almost to center, in slices one-half inch thick. Twist each strip several times. Brush with melted butter or margarine.

Let rise until doubled (about 45 minutes). Bake in moderately hot oven (350 degrees) 25 to 30 minutes. When cool, frost with confectioners' sugar icing and sprinkle with chopped nuts, if desired. Makes one Mariner's Wheel Coffee Cake.

Any chicken or turkey left over is wonderful creamed and served over waffles that have been sprinkled with finely chopped nuts.

Sturdy Tin Can Is Boon in Food Freezing

The versatility of the tin can is an important factor in its marked success in the home freezing of food.

* * *

Homemakers know the importance of using the proper package or container for frozen storage of foods. This container must be capable of protecting the rich flavor against the ravages of low temperature storage, and yet be inexpensive and strong. The best containers will guard the natural flavor for as long as they remain sealed.

Most deadly foe of frozen foods is "freezer burn." When any food is packaged in a container that is not moisture-proof, and stored in the frosty climate of the home freezer, (about five degrees above zero) that food will tend to dry out.

Loss of moisture through the walls of the container is the usual reason. The longer food is stored, the greater chances of freezer burn.

Leading food authorities including the Department of agriculture, have tested a wide variety of containers for frozen foods. As a result of these continuing studies, certain standards have been established for the ideal container:

1. Non-fragile, rigid enough to prevent crushing.
2. Moisture-proof, liquid tight in all positions, (upside down, sideways, etc.)
3. Air-tight to prevent freezer burn (previously explained as the drying out of food; process caused by extremely low temperatures).
4. Easy to handle; takes up minimum storage space.
5. Reasonable in cost; capable of re-use. (tin cans may be sterilized and re-used three times thus reducing the cost per can to a fraction of a cent.

CONSIDER SAVINGS

Savings are normally a major consideration to people who own home freezers. The opportunity to purchase fresh fruits and vegetables for freezing in bulk at peak season ensures your family of best quality food all year as well as substantial money saving.

Unless the proper container is used for food, much of the savings you gain by owning a freezer will disappear because of freezer burn, breakage or any of the other things that can happen to inadequate containers.

On the other hand, say experts, if the best possible containers are used, there will be definite savings in food protection and the amount of electricity needed to operate the freezer.

Tin, long known as an excellent conductor of cold, affords you quicker freezing—which results in better food flavor at eating time. Also costs will be lower as the freezer will not have to work as hard on a fast freeze.

Another factor that can push up the electric bill is the formation of frost on the inside of the freezer. Again, the machine must work harder and longer.

Main causes of frost formation, it is pointed out, are (1) moisture which has evaporated from the package of food, and (2) entrance of moisture from the room each time the freezer door is opened. If foods are placed in containers that seal in all moisture, one cause of frost formation is effectively stopped.

* * *

It is necessary to periodically defrost your freezer when the frost becomes too heavy on the inside. Frozen foods must then be taken out of the box and subjected to warmer temperatures which impair the appearance and quality of food. Obviously, the less you defrost the better foods you'll have.

Another freezing feature of tin cans which makes them the choice of wise homemakers is the rounded shape which permits easy handling. Although the cans may be packed tightly together, cold air can still circulate around each container.

By immersing the can of frozen food in warm water, you may enjoy the added convenience of defrosting without opening the can. This results in more appetising foods since it eliminates "browning" of foods from exposure to air while defrosting.

Economy - minded homemakers who want the least amount of bother in freezing coupled with the most modern type of container will continue to be served by the many features of the versatile tin can.

Leftover Pastry Trick

Here's a smart and thrifty trick, that's mighty delicious, too say freezer home economists. Roll leftover pastry dough with sharp or blue cheese, cut into straws or rounds, or roll and cut as wafers. Bake and store in the freezer, and use for salad or soup accompaniment

Calico Patties Ready in Jiffy

Take a cue from your country cousins for hearty fall meals. Canned corned beef hash made into handsome patties is a tried and true favorite.

Canned whole kernel corn is combined with the hash. The patties are baked in the oven for easy preparation.

These Calico Patties will solve your main dish problem many times when a quick meal is needed. Be sure to keep the few simple ingredients on hand.

Calico Patties

1 can (15 ounce) corned beef hash
1 can (8 ounce) whole kernel corn
1 egg
½ cup dry bread crumbs
½ teaspoon dry mustard

Break up corned beef hash, mix with drained corn, lightly beaten egg, crumbs and mustard.

Shape into eight generous patties, place in greased baking dish. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes. Serve with Chuck Wagon Sauce.

Chuck Wagon Sauce

½ cup chili sauce
½ cup pickle relish
½ teaspoon dry mustard

Combine all ingredients. Serve on top of Calico Patties.

CALICO PATTIES — Add a can of whole kernel corn to one of corned beef hash, make into patties and bake. Serve with a spicy sauce of chili sauce, pickle relish and dry mustard. Good fare for cool evenings.

Sour Cream Stars in Salad Dressing

Here's a delightfully different dressing using commercial sour cream as one of its main ingredients.

Bell-Ringer Salad Dressing

½ cup dairy sour cream
½ cup tomato catsup
2 tablespoons lemon juice
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper

Blend ingredients well with rotary beater. This dressing is ideal with tossed green salads such as combination of shredded lettuce, shredded spinach, parsley, onion and hard-cooked egg. Makes approximately 1 cup dressing.

Wins the Vote of School-Agers

Turn your kids loose in the kitchen and what will they eat? Just watch. They head for the shelf where you keep soup.

And if your youngsters are like most, they reach for one of these—golden chicken noodle, rosy tomato, or hearty vegetable soup.

It's a statistical fact that the junior set goes for this soup trio. In a new survey of more than 1,500 school-agers, they gave "highest grades" to these soups.

As you could guess, other favorite foods are hamburgers, orange juice, frankfurters, and spaghetti. This is true of both boys and girls, from sweet 6 to fair 14. The kids studied represent all parts of the country . . . Washington, Florida, Texas, Missouri, New York, etc.

With such popularity, soup belongs at many school lunches this fall. Heat up this bubbling, warming main dish. Spread some dandy sandwiches.

And you'll be ready with a smile when the gang comes rushing in at noon. Happy thought — the same fine fixings will carry well in a lunchbox.

Garnish Fruit Salad With Cheese Balls

To vary your fresh fruit salad a bit, garnish with cream cheese balls that have been rolled in chopped nutmeats, or, for a pleasant new flavor, mix melon balls with fresh mint before combining with the rest of the fruits.

If you plan to serve your melon fruit salad as a first course, add a dash of sparkling gingerale to each melon half just before serving.

Fish and chicken salads served with melon are delightful luncheon menu suggestions. Try with a cantaloupe or honeydew melon for a cool, delectable taste treat. To perk up your molded fruit salads add a little preserved ginger to your melon balls . . . delicious!

For a special party, try this elegant salad: Peel melon; cut off slice at one end and remove seeds and juice from cavity. Fill cavity with slightly thickened gelatin mixture, into which you've folded a variety of fresh fruits and nutmeats.

Replace melon slice and frost entire melon with cream cheese. Chill. When ready to serve, slice melon crosswise into 1-inch slices.

For Tastier Apple Pie

That apple pie will taste better than ever if you add chopped nuts and raisins to the filling. Use a quarter cup of coarsely broken nutmeats, and the same measurement of raisins, for a 9-inch pie.

The next time you are stewing fruit, add a bit of whole ginger to the liquid. It ives a delectable flavor.

Try These New Recipes for September Fruits

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Earlier this summer we talked about making jelly and jam all the year around. We mentioned a number of these preserves that could and should be made at this particular season.

If jelly is what you want from grapes or elderberries, you can cook up the fruit, extract the juice and can it for future use in your favorite jelly recipe. There are, however, some fruits that must be made into jam or jelly right now.

Do you sigh over those days in the far-distant past when you had Quince Honey for your breakfast toast? Sigh no more, my lady, here's your recipe. Perhaps you'll even find some one who will give you the quinces.

Quince Honey

8 cups chopped quince
4 cups sugar
2 tablespoons lemon juice

Wash and pare quinces. Discard core and all gritty part. Chop fine and measure. Add sugar, lemon juice, 4 cups of water to quince. Boil almost to jellying point. Pour boiling hot into hot glass jars and seal immediately.

How about some old-fashioned conserves? Conserves are jams, often combining several fruits and containing nuts and raisins. Try this recipe for a plum conserve.

Prune Plum Conserve

3 pounds blue prune plums
1 pound seeded raisins
3 oranges, thinly sliced
Juice of 2 lemons
6 cups sugar
1 cup pecan meats

Wash and stem plums; remove pits; cut into small pieces. Mix with sugar, raisins, unpeeled oranges and lemon juice. Bring slowly to a boil. Simmer over low heat, stirring frequently, until fruit is clear and syrup is thick as honey. It will thicken more as it cools. Add nut meats. Turn into hot sterilized glasses. Seal.

Peach and Ginger Jam sounds like a wonderful spread for hot baking powder biscuits. It's an unusual combination that's bound to win applause from all who taste it.

Peach and Ginger Jam

3 and one-half cups prepared fruit
½ cup sliced candied ginger
4½ cups sugar
1 2½-ounce box powdered fruit pectin

First, prepare the fruit. Peel and pit about 3 pounds soft, ripe peaches. Chop very fine or grind. Measure 3½ cups into a large saucepan. Slice fine about ¼ pound candied ginger. Measure ½ cup into saucepan.

Then make the jam. Measure sugar and set aside. Add powdered fruit pectin to fruit in saucepan and mix well.

Place over high heat and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once stir in sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Skim off foam with metal spoon.

Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly to prevent floating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover jam at once with ⅛ inch hot paraffin. Makes 8 medium glasses.

You've made grape jelly and probably grape jam. Here's a new suggestion for spicing a grape mixture that resembles a jam. We think you'll like serving this with meats.

Spiced Grapes

10 cups grapes
8 cups sugar
½ teaspoon ground allspice
2 teaspoons ground cinnamon
½ teaspoon ground cloves
1 cup vinegar

Wash, drain and stem grapes. Measure. Press to separate pulp from skins, but save skins. Cook grapes until soft. Press through sieve to remove seeds. Mix skins, pulp, sugar, spices and vinegar, then boil almost to jellying point. Pour boiling hot into hot glass jar and seal at once.

This month while you're making jam or jelly try something new for a change. Who knows, it might turn out to be your family's favorite spread for toast or waffles.

Rich Muffins Help Brighten Company Meal

Rich little muffins help make a guest meal good.

Currant Pecan Muffins

2 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
6 tablespoons sugar
¼ cup butter or margarine
2 eggs
¾ cup milk
½ cup broken pecans
½ cup currants (rinsed in hot water and drained)

Sift together the flour, baking powder, salt and sugar into a large mixing bowl. Cut in butter with pastry blender until particles are very small.

Beat eggs until thick and ivory-colored; beat in milk enough to combine. Fold egg mixture, pecans and currants into flour mixture; use as few strokes as possible just until dry ingredients are moistened.

Fill greased muffin pans two-thirds full; bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven about 25 minutes for good-sized muffins, or until cake tester inserted in center of a muffin comes out clean.

If muffin pan cups are one-third-cup size, recipe will make 14 muffins; if muffin cups are about one-half-cup size, recipe will make 12 muffins.

Brown 'n' Serve Rolls Become Buttery Tidbits

Vary those brown-and-serve rolls. Make them into crisp and buttery tidbits to serve with chilled tomato juice. Cut them into crosswise slices that are about half an inch thick.

Spread both sides of the slices with butter or margarine; arrange them on a sheet of aluminum foil and sprinkle top sides with sesame seeds or grated cheese. Toast in a hot oven for about 10 minutes or until golden-brown and crisp.

Fill Pancakes With Pineapple

There are inexpensive dress-up tricks that can add interest to your meals. Even old standbys like pancakes get new appeal when rolled up French-style around a filling of golden pineapple.

This recipe is a version of French Crepes Suzettes. Very thin pancakes are fried—one at a time—in a small skillet and then spread with the pineapple mixture and rolled.

The filled cakes may be placed on a heat-proof platter and kept warm in a slow oven until ready to serve.

Pineapple Dessert Pancakes

1 cup sifted flour
¼ teaspoon salt
2 eggs
¾ cup milk
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
1 tablespoons cornstarch
¼ cup sugar
2 cups crushed pineapple
2 tablespoons lemon juice

Sift flour, measure, and sift into mixing bowl with salt. Beat eggs and stir in milk. Add to flour and beat until smooth. Stir in melted butter or margarine.

Heat a 7-inch frying pan and pour in 1 or 2 tablespoons batter, tilt pan so that batter spreads evenly over pan. Brown on both sides. As cakes are cooked, stack them on a plate and cover with an inverted pan to keep them warm.

Mix cornstarch, salt and sugar in a saucepan. Stir in crushed pineapple and lemon juice. Bring mixture to a boil and boil one minute. Cool slightly.

Spread pineapple mixture on pancakes and roll. Sprinkle lightly with powdered sugar. The filled cakes may also be kept warm in a slow oven (250 degrees) until ready to serve.

Makes 16 small cakes, serves four.

Use Chicken Giblets in Sandwich Spread

Here's one of the best ways we know to use chicken giblets.

Chicken Giblet Sandwiches

4 slices bacon
3 chicken livers
Cooked gizzards, hearts and necks from 3 chickens after having been used for stocks
½ cup finely diced celery
¼ teaspoon salt
Pepper
½ teaspoon onion powder
½ cup mayonnaise

Fry bacon until crisp; drain. Pour off all but about one tablespoon of bacon fat; cook chicken livers in it. (Or livers may be cooked in one tablespoon of butter or margarine.)

Cut gristle away from gizzards and strip neck meat from bones. Put livers, gizzards, hearts and necks through fine knife of food chopper.

Add crumbled bacon, celery, salt, pepper to taste, onion powder mayonnaise. Makes 1¼ to 1½ cups.

Use as a spread with salad greens for sandwiches.

Sandwich Combines Tongue and Slaw

If tongue is a favorite meat at your house, use the leftovers for these sandwiches.

Tongue and Slaw Sandwiches

For each sandwich —
¼ cup finely shredded green cabbage (firmly packed)
1 teaspoon cider vinegar
1 teaspoon chili sauce
1 tablespoon mayonnaise or mayonnaise-type salad dressing
Salt and pepper
Sliced cooked smoked tongue
Sliced bread
Butter or margarine

Mix together the shredded cabbage, vinegar, chili sauce, mayonnaise and salt and pepper to taste. Make a sandwich of the slaw, tongue and buttered bread.

Use Mix and Prunes for Upside-Down Cake

Fresh Prune Upside-Down Cake is a quick and easy dessert, especially if a cake mix is used.

Put one-third cup melted butter, two-thirds cup granulated or brown sugar, and enough fresh Italian prune halves to cover the bottom of an 8-inch square pan or heavy skillet of similar size. Top with one-half of cake mix batter. (Bake the remaining batter as cupcakes or as a layer to use as desired.)

Bake according to directions on package. Turn out, while hot, onto large plate. Serve warm with cream, hard sauce, or cream cheese mixed with a bit of cream and whipped to a fluff.

The tangy unusual flavor of the fresh prunes combines well with yellow, white or spice prepared cake mix. To make a delicious breakfast bread, use your favorite coffee cake batter instead of the cake mix.

Here's a sauce that's wonderful to put on ham, steak or tongue as a seasoning. Melt one-half can jellied cranberry sauce over hot water; mix in one-fourth cup prepared mustard.

Bread Veal Chops for Crisp Goodness

Simple dishes taste wonderful when they are well prepared. Try this classic way with veal chops!

Crisp Breaded Veal Chops

4 loin veal chops (about 1¼ pounds)
⅓ cup finely crushed cracker crumbs
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 egg
1 tablespoon milk
3 to 4 tablespoons butter or margarine

Choose fine-quality veal chops so they will be tender-cooked without braising. Cut away any excess fat.

Mix cracker crumbs with salt and pepper. Beat egg and milk enough to combine yolk and white. Dip a chop in egg, then in seasoned crumbs; continue to prepare remaining chops same way.

Melt 2 tablespoons of the butter in a large skillet (10 or 12 inches) until very hot; add chops and brown slowly.

Add as much of remaining butter as necessary to brown other side of chops. Cook slowly until tender and done through. Makes four servings.

Cheese Nestles in Center of Quick, Tasty Ham Logs

What could be a quicker hot meat than these tasty ham croquettes—"Ham Logs"! Your family will love the surprise center of tasty sharp cheese.

With the quick sauce ideas included with the recipe, you can change the personality of this main dish each time you serve it.

Cheese Surprise — Ham Logs

2 tablespoons finely chopped or grated onion
½ cup uncooked white rice
1½ cups water
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon black pepper
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 egg
1½ cups ground cooked ham
6 cheese strips, 2 inches long, ⅛ inch thick, ½ inch wide
1 egg
¼ cup fine dry cracker crumbs
Sauce of your choice

Put the onion, rice, water, salt and pepper in a 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat as low as possible. Cover with a lid and leave over this low heat 14 minutes. Remove saucepan from heat but leave lid on 10 minutes.

While rice is cooking, put crackers through meat grinder or food chopper. Then grind ham. Stir the mustard, Worcestershire sauce, one of the eggs and the ham into the cooked rice. Cover and chill.

Divide mixture into six portions using one-half cup of mixture for each portion. Shape each portion around a cheese strip to make log-shaped croquettes.

Beat the other egg. Roll each "log" first in the egg then in the cracker crumbs. Fry in deep hot fat (380 degrees) until crisp and brown on all sides.

Serve with a sauce made from one or a combination of canned soups. Try mixing 1 can of tomato sauce, 1 can cream of pea soup and 1 cup of water. Or add 1 cup water to 1 can of condensed vegetable soup.

Mushroom sauce made with slightly diluted condensed cream of mushroom soup is especially good. Heat the sauce until hot.

Tuck Desserts Into Lunchboxes

Did you ever see rows and rows of lunchboxes lined up and leering at you in your sleep? All empty, of course. And you, poor soul, desperately trying to fill them.

* * *

School days are just around the corner, but in many homes the lunchbox has no relation to school bells. It's something to be filled five days a week most weeks of the year.

* * *

There's nothing like a fruit-filled dessert treat to surprise the folks who must carry a lunch. Make these recipes with any strained or junior fruits on the shelf.

Apricot Turnovers

Roll pastry as for piecrust and cut into 3-inch squares. Moisten two sides of each square with cold water. In the center of each place 1 teaspoon strained apricots with farina.

Fold one-half of square over the other to form triangle. Press edges together firmly. Flute with fork, if desired.

Bake in hot oven (425) 15 minutes, or until nicely browned. Dust with powdered sugar.

* * *

Apricot Apple Filled Grahams

1 cup junior apricot-applesauce
½ cup sugar
24 graham crackers

Combine apricot-applesauce and sugar. Cook over low heat until thick, stirring frequently. Cool.

Spread on 12 graham crackers. Top with remaining crackers.

Vary the Biscuits for a Lamb Dinner

Here's a way with ham and biscuits that your family will find both appealing and tasty. A vegetable sauce can be served atop these Ham Tuck-Aways.

Ham Tuck-Aways

Drop biscuit batter:

1 cup sifted enriched flour
1½ teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons shortening
⅓ cup milk

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut or rub in shortening until mixture is crumbly. Add milk to make a drop batter. Spread ⅓ of batter into 4 greased 3-inch muffin cups. Spread ham mixture evenly on biscuit batter. Spread remaining biscuit batter over ham. Bake in moderate 400 oven about 25 minutes.

Ham mixture:

½ pound ground smoked ham
1 egg
½ cup cooked tomatoes (drained)
2 tablespoons chopped onion
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
½ teaspoon dry mustard

Combine all ingredients, mixing well. Spread evenly on drop biscuit batter. Makes 4 servings.

HIGHLAND POT ROAST — Apricots for garnishing the pot roast are something new. They lend a tangy air to the meat and provide color as do the carrots. Catsup is the liquid used for basting. Try this now while pot roast is on the low price list.

Catsup Cookery Brings Greater Flavor to Meals

The many ways in which American women use tomato products—especially tomato catsup—was illustrated by the many and varied entries in a recent "Cook with Catsup" contest.

Not only was the spicy, rich condiment used as a foundation for meat, fish and poultry sauces; salad dressing and sandwich fillings; but it was also used in dessert puddings, cakes, cookies.

Recipes called for generous amounts of catsup, too—1 cup, 1 bottle, sometimes 2.

Here is a prizewinning recipe for an unusual pot roast.

Highland Pot Roast

2 pounds rump beef, in 1 piece
2 tablespoons shortening
8 small potatoes, peeled
Salt and pepper
16 dried apricots, washed
2 stalks celery, cut in 2-inch pieces
4 carrots, quartered
1 cup tomato catsup

Heat oven to 325 degrees (slow). Brown beef in shortening in small roaster. Place potatoes around meat. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Cover and surround meat with apricots, celery and carrots.

Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Pour catsup over all. Cover. Baste occasionally.

Bake two hours or until meat and vegetables are tender. Makes eight servings.

Lamb Chops Baked With Vegetable Sauce

When your oven is on, you might like to try a shoulder lamb chop dish that is baked. First brown the chops in a little fat in a skillet. Then put them in a baking dish and surround with canned tomatoes, diced onion, thin strips of carrot. Season with salt, pepper and basil. If you like, you may also add some very thinly sliced rounds of lemon.

Cover and bake in a moderate oven for about an hour or until the chops are tender. If the sauce has too much fat, remove some of it; if it is thinner than you like, cook it down in a small saucepan on top of the range.

Use Instant Coffee for Smooth Sundae

Smoothies for sundaes to make at home are sauces spiced with coffee. Instant coffee adds excellent coffee flavor in an instant. In many recipes, you can add the dry powder, right from the jar, to the other dry ingredients.

Or you can stir it into liquids, adding coffee flavor instantly.

* * *

Make a wonderful Coffee Sundae with a sauce that is as easy as stirring 2 tablespoons of instant coffee into 1 cup of sweetened condensed milk.

Too easy to be true? You try, you'll see. It makes an excellent sauce with a texture like melted caramel. Coffee flavor seems built right into the smoothness of this sauce.

Ginger Coffee Sauce over vanilla or coffee ice cream is something you won't want to miss. Combine 1 tablespoon instant coffee with 1 teaspoon water. Then add three-quarters cup honey, and 1 to 2 teaspoons chopped candied ginger.

* * *

This sauce has a mellow glow, like the patina on Grandmama's antique maple. How can they think up things this good? It's an art.

Nursery Rhyme Sandwiches Are Sassy and Satisfying

One of the sassiest sandwich ideas of the season has been filched from the lollipop set . . . Nursery Rhyme Sandwiches!

Crammed with fillings that should make your tongue twitch. . . and named for such beloved characters as "Humpty Dumpty", "Chicken Little" and "Henny Penny" . . . the sandwiches and sandwich puffs are as eye-catching as they are tasty.

Humpty Dumpty Sandwiches

3 chilled hard cooked eggs coarsely chopped
½ cup finely diced celery
½ teaspoon prepared mustard
1 tablespoon roasted sesame seeds
6 stuffed olives
24 slices of enriched white bread
¾ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
⅛ teaspoon paprika
12 thin radish slices
3 tablespoons softened butter or margarine

Combine chopped egg, celery, salt and pepper in mixing bowl. Blend together mustard, mayonnaise and paprika. Pour mayonnaise mix in with egg mix and toss lightly with fork to blend. Stir in sesame seeds.

Cut an egg-shaped oval from a piece of cardboard — making an oval about 3½ inches long and 2¼ inches wide at the widest point. With scissors, using cardboard as guide, cut an oval of bread from each slice. Spread one side of bread ovals with softened butter. Then spread 12 ovals with egg mixture.

Top these with 12 remaining ovals, and garnish with sliced olives to resemble eyes — slices of radish cut in half to resemble Humpty Dumpty mouth. Makes 12 sandwiches.

Note:—To roast sesame seeds, bake seeds in 350 oven eight minutes.

Henny Penny Sandwiches

½ cup diced, cooked chicken
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon black pepper
2 teaspoons minced onion
2 teaspoons parsley flakes
½ cup mayonnaise
¾ cup well crushed potato chips
16 slices enriched white bread
2 tablespoons softened butter or margarine

In a mixing bowl combine chicken, salt, pepper, onion, parsley flakes and mayonnaise. Just before serving sandwiches, stir in the potato chips.

Spread one side of bread slices with softened butter. Spread eight slices of buttered bread with chicken mixture and top sandwich-style with remaining bread.

Trim crusts to form large square Henny Penny Sandwiches. Makes eight.

Chicken Little Puffs

½ package (1 cup) prepared pie crust mix
¼ cup water
2 eggs
1 cup finely minced or ground chicken
¾ cup finely diced red skinned apples
1 teaspoon lemon juice
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon black pepper
¼ cup finely chopped walnut meats
1 teaspoon grated onion
¼ cup mayonnaise

Pre-heat oven to 400 degrees (moderately hot). Stir pie crust mix with a fork and measure out one cup. Bring water to boil in medium-size saucepan and pour measured pie crust mix into boiling water. Stir rapidly until mix forms a firm ball around spoon.

Remove at once from heat. Add eggs, one at a time, beating after each addition until mixture is smooth and thick. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto an ungreased baking sheet.

Bake at 400 degrees for 25 minutes or until golden brown. Remove puffs from baking sheet and cool on a cake rack. Slice off top of each and fill with chicken-apple mixture below. Replace top of puff. Makes about 30 Chicken Little Sandwich Puffs.

Combine chicken and remaining ingredients in a mixing bowl. Toss lightly to blend. Use to fill puff shells.

Try Poppyseed Toast

Cut slices of French bread on the slant and spread one side of each slice generously with butter; sprinkle the butter with poppyseeds. Toast in a very hot oven after you have placed the bread, poppyseed side up, on a cookie sheet.

A GOOD BREAKFAST — The J. Thomas Peterson family of Andersonville road lets us see what is considered a good breakfast at their house. Father has gone to the office, but Mrs. Peterson sees that Stephen who enters kindergarten this fall gets his scrambled eggs. Nine-year-old Deborah pours orange juice for her seven-year-old brother, John. There's buttered toast and milk for everyone.

Use Corn Chips in Tomato Stuffing

Here's an easy to prepare dish that combines good eating with economy.

Corn Chip Stuffed Tomatoes

1 medium onion, sliced fine
¼ cup diced celery
2 tablespoons fat
1 pound ground beef
1 teaspoon salt
1 can tomato sauce
1 cup crushed corn chips
6 fresh tomato cups

Brown onion and celery in hot fat; add ground beef and salt and stir well. Cover and cook mixture 10 minutes. Add tomato sauce and cook until meat is done.

Add corn chips and mix thoroughly. Fill tomato cups with mixture and bake in 350-degree oven for 25 minutes. Serves eight. (Use tomato pulp, removed to make cups, in tossed green salad.)

'Let Them Eat Cake' — It's Good for Kiddies

Marie Antoinette caused great consternation in her day when she said "Let them eat cake." But nutritionally speaking, the former empress of France had much in her favor.

Baker's sponge cake, for instance, makes a fine after-school snack for youngsters and practically no work for Mother. The children love the sweet cake flavor and Mother knows that the baker has made it with plenty of eggs to boost the vitamin A content as well as many other vitamins and minerals.

A frothy milk drink is a good energy - giving accompaniment. Combine 2 tablespoons instant chocolate pudding with 1 cup milk in a shaker. Shake vigorously. Pour into a glass and top with chocolate sprinkles.

Cheese and Ham Fondue Rounds Out Buffet Menu

Vary the hamburger meal. You can, and still have it quick and easy for summer eating.

Give the meat patties fillings of cheese, olives, onions, nuts. Wrap them in bacon. Serve them with a sauce. There are so many ways to show off hamburgers' good points.

Want to cook the hamburgers in the backyard? Put them in a skillet over the outdoor fire; as soon as they are browned, dump in an 8-ounce can of meatless tomato sauce—the kind that is designed for spaghetti.

Add a small onion cut into rings and a quarter of a cup of pickle slices. Finish cooking the hamburgers in the savory sauce, then ladle onto buns toasted over the grill.

For a porch buffet, wrap the hamburgers round with bacon. Serve between rolls with pickles, green olives, a big salad.

Have a casserole ready to round out the meal, one made with Swiss cheese, bread, deviled ham, white sauce, eggs and parsley. Here's the recipe:

Swiss Cheese and Ham Fondue

2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
1½ cups milk
1 cup grated processed Swiss cheese
2 eggs (separated)
3 slices enriched bread
½ cup deviled ham
2 tablespoons minced parsley

Melt butter over low heat in a medium-sized saucepan. Blend in flour and salt. Add milk all at once and cook and stir constantly until thickened and bubbly.

Stir in cheese until it melts. Beat egg yolks slightly; gradually stir in sauce.

Spread one side of each bread slice with deviled ham; cut slices into one-half-inch cubes. Add bread cubes and parsley to sauce.

Beat egg whites until stiff; fold into cheese mixture. Pour into a 1-quart casserole. Place casserole in a pan of hot water and bake in a slow (325 degrees) oven one hour.

Serve at once. Makes six servings.

Ham and Potato Pie

Mix diced leftover boiled potatoes with diced ham. Arrange in a pie plate, pour a little cream over and top with grated cheese. Heat under the broiler until hot through and the top is bubbly and lightly browned.

P STANDS FOR PRUNES — In the Primer of Better Breakfasts, P stands for Prunes, fresh Italian prunes from Idaho. Try them out of hand for pleasant munching, out of dish for delightful breakfasting, out of oven piping hot in Dutch Fresh Prune Cake.

Small Family Can Make Good Use of Large Turkey

If you're looking for something excitingly different in foods, try turkey. There are many sizes and kinds: Big turkeys, medium-size turkeys and small fryer-roasters . . . all plentiful and at bargain prices.

* * *

Perhaps you wonder about the large or medium-size turkeys. They're better buys than the smaller ones, but you are concerned about how your small family would use a whole, big turkey. Here's a way:

Select a large turkey. After it is thawed (if frozen), get your meat cutter to cut up and disjoint it, or cut it up yourself. If you have no way of freezing the parts for future use, plan on cooking them the new, easy way, saving some parts for immediate and special use.

Turkey Fillets for Frying

From the boneless breasts and thighs, slice as many fillets as you want to fry at one time. These pieces may be fried in the same way small, disjointed turkey fryers or chicken fryers are cooked.

Or perhaps you'd want to dip the fillets in a mixture of egg beaten with 1 tablespoon water, then in crumbs, then again in egg and crumbs. Brown in hot fat five to eight minutes on each side. No water, no cover, medium heat.

Then cover and steam for 20 to 30 minutes, or until tender. Drain on absorbent paper. Serve with cream gravy and cranberries.

Remainder of Uncooked Pieces

Roll remainder of boneless breasts and boneless thighs (seasoned) in individual roast rolls, with skin side out. Tie with string or secure with skewers.

Place these roast rolls along with drumsticks and wingsticks (main meaty section) in a small, shallow roasting pan. Pack tightly together, and place in a 340 degree oven.

Brown one side and turn. Add a small amount of water (about one-fourth inch in the bottom of the pan) and roast for 2 to 2½ hours, depending on the size of the bird, until done.

In the meantime, place the remainder of the turkey—the meat-covered bones and flat wings—in a kettle for simmering. Season to taste with salt, pepper and other seasonings. Cook for about 1½ hours or until the meat can be readily pulled from the bone.

Strip the bones of their meat and pack the meat into cartons for freezing. This meat may be stored in your home freezer or refrigerator freezing compartment for months if properly sealed against air. The meat is excellent for meat pies, salads and sandwich fillers.

* * *

Going back to the parts that were roasted—wrap seperately in freezer-type paper and freeze for future use. This meat is convenient for sandwich slices, cold plates or for warming up in a hurry.

Turkey meat is delicious for breakfast, luncheon or dinner, so there'll be no problem of using the meat. Here's an idea for breakfast:

Turkey With Waffles

2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1½ cups milk, or ¾ cup milk and ¾ cup turkey broth
2 cups turkey
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper

Melt butter, blend in flour. Gradually add milk, stirring constantly until thick. Add turkey, salt and pepper. Serve between waffles.

Stuffed Pear Salad Is Luscious Treat

Take advantage of the fresh fruits in season with this luscious fruit salad.

Stuffed Pear Salad

Cut the meat of one ripe, flavorful cantaloupe into melon ball shapes; combine with green seedless grapes. Add juice of two limes and fill the cavities of unpeeled chilled Bartlett pear halves.

Serve on crisp leaves of Iceberg lettuce. If a dressing is desired, serve commercially soured cream. Serves four to six.

Roast Tiny Wieners, Serve With Cheese Dip

Snacktime for the crowd: Heat tiny frankfurters in simmering (not boiling) water or spit-roast them on your electric rotisserie or on the backyard grill. Serve with a dip of cream cheese whipped with a little milk or light cream and seasoned with lemon juice and lots of grated onion and freshly ground black pepper. Unusual and good!

If commercially prepared sour cream is available in your neighborhood, you may substitute it for the whipped cream cheese.

'Deviling' Gives Fried Chicken Unusual Flavor

You'll have fine flavor if you steam-fry chicken this way.

Deviled Fried Chicken

1 frying chicken (about 2¾ pounds ready-to-cook weight)
¼ cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon paprika
½ teaspoon dry mustard
¼ teaspoon garlic powder
¼ teaspoon onion powder
⅓ cup butter or margarine

Have chicken cut in eight pieces; save neck, giblets and liver for use another time. Wash and clean; drain but do not dry.

Mix flour, salt, pepper, paprika, mustard, garlic and onion powders together well. Coat chicken pieces with flour mixture.

Melt butter in skillet (about 10-inch size). Add chicken and slowly brown well on both sides. Add a few tablespoons of water to pan and cover tightly.

Cook over low heat until tender—30 minutes or so. Remove chicken to serving platter.

Add 2 to 4 tablespoons water to skillet and stir over low heat to get up all browned flecks in pan; bring to a boil, add a few drops of liquid gravy seasoning or coloring if desired and pour over chicken. Makes four servings.

Start the Day Pleasantly With Dutch Prune Cake

Fresh Italian prunes are here—for all too brief a stay to be sure, so enjoy them while you may during September. These "purple plums," as they are sometimes called, are coming in from Idaho—large, firm, dusky beauties that appeal to eye and appetite alike.

* * *

They go through the day with the greatest of ease! For breakfast, serve them thinly sliced with cream and a sprinkle of powdered sugar or drizzle on a bit of honey. Or try our unusual quick bread—Dutch Fresh Prune Cake; a meat treat like Fresh Prunes in Bacon Jackets to go with the scrambled eggs.

Fresh Italian prunes are the easiest of all fruits to prepare. They're easy to wash clean, and quick to seed. Just cut in half lengthwise, give a twist, and lift out the seed with the tip of a paring knife. No peeling is necessary.

They don't discolor, and none of the juice is lost in handling. Since they're extra-sweet, they require less sugar in cooking, canning, freezing.

But here's our way to start your day—with better breakfasting!

DUTCH FRESH PRUNE CAKE

6 to 12 or more fresh Italian prunes, pitted and quartered
2 cups biscuit mix
½ teaspoon mace
1 egg, beaten
⅓ cup granulated sugar
1 cup milk
3 tablespoons melted butter

Topping

¼ cup granulated sugar
3 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
2 to 3 tablespoons butter

Prepare topping by mixing together the dry ingredients and working in butter until crumbly by using a broad-tined fork.

Batter

Beat egg until thick and lemon-colored, gradually beating in the sugar. Add milk and melted butter. Stir in biscuit mix and mace. When mixed (do not beat), put in 8x8x2-inch buttered baking dish.

On top of batter in dish, arrange prune quarters in four rows or in desired design. The amount of prunes used will depend upon design. Sprinkle with topping. Bake in 400 degree (moderately hot) oven for about 30 minutes.

Serve hot, cut in squares, with plenty of butter. Makes nine or more hearty servings. Serve with orange or pineapple juice, broiled link sausage, favorite beverage.

Note: This is also good as dessert, served with a hot lemon sauce, or with cream—plain or whipped. Always serve hot.

PRUNES IN BACON JACKETS

Cut fresh Italian prunes in half, remove pits. Place a small piece of Cheddar cheese between halves. Wrap a strip of bacon around each stuffed prune, skewer on with a toothpick or small skewer.

Place in a 400 degree (moderately hot) oven to bake along with breakfast muffins or coffee cake or arrange on rack of broiler pan and cook low under broiler heat until bacon is crisp and cheese is melted.

These serve as a good breakfast meat or as a tasty garnish for dishes such as noodle ring, vegetable souffles, rice casseroles. Serve piping hot.

Use Up Strained Fruit

Only a tablespoon of strained fruit left? Cream with cottage or cream cheese, season with salt, spread on wholewheat or rye bread. Same idea for baby fruit and peanut butter.

Patio Salad Bowl Wins Male Cheers

This salad is sure to please the men.

Patio Salad Bowl

½ cup salad oil
¼ cup catsup
¼ cup wine vinegar
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
2 whole cloves
1 small onion (grated)
1 head lettuce
½ cup blue cheese (firmly packed)
2 slices bacon (crisply cooked)

Mix salad oil, catsup, vinegar, salt, Worcestershire sauce, cloves, and onion in a saucepan. Heat together to blend flavors; remove cloves. Chill.

Tear lettuce into bite-sized pieces in a large salad bowl. Crumble blue cheese and bacon over lettuce.

Toss salad with enough dressing to moisten and flavor.

Assorted Melon Balls Fill Watermelon Shell

Scoop out the flesh from a half watermelon, leaving the shell. Scallop the edges. Fill the shell with assorted melon balls—cantaloupe, watermelon, Persian, cranshaw and casaba.

When ready to serve, pour dry gingerale or a dry wine over the melon balls and top with ice cream if desired. It can be served as a special breakfast or dessert treat.

Insurance Sales to GIs Attacked

Servicemen Being Bilked by Unscrupulous Agents in Overseas Bases

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House subcommittee has said Thursday the Defense Department has fallen down on its responsibility to protect servicemen from the operations of unscrupulous insurance salesmen.

• • •

It called upon the department to revise immediately some of its regulations governing the sale of insurance to GIs both at home and overseas, saying that unless action is taken it will propose corrective legislation when Congress meets again.

The group, an Armed Services subcommittee headed by Rep. Hebert (D-La), has been investigating what its report termed "laxity, abuses and misconduct of agents and companies" selling insurance to servicemen.

It has been particularly critical of the operations by some smaller companies in the European theater.

PASS THE BUCK

Noting that present regulations require the commanding officer of an installation overseas to license companies and agents operating within his command, the subcommittee said this requires him to be "a local insurance commissioner, with none of the facilities to do that job." It continued:

"To place such a duty upon a military field commander is, we think, an abdication of responsibility by the Department of Defense. It follows too literally "Rule 4—pass the buck and always downward' . . ."

The 11-man group recommended unanimously that the Secretary of Defense "accept promptly" an offer by the Assn. of Insurance Commissioners to provide the department with a five-man advisory board which would review the qualifications of companies seeking to operate at overseas bases. This board would then provide "a certified list upon which an overseas commander can rely," the subcommittee said.

It recommended also that no agent be licensed to sell insurance to servicemen overseas unless he has had a year's satisfactory service in this country, as judged by his company and the insurance authorities of his state.

• • •

The subcommittee said also that insurance companies should be held more fully responsible for the actions of their salesmen, declaring that some have been "too successful in divorcing themselves from misconduct of their agents."

Not Fashionable to Slam Commies in England Now

LONDON (AP)—It's out of fashion in Britain these days to talk about the cold war or say unpleasant things about the Russians.

• • •

Phrases like "Soviet threat" now rarely pop up in conversation, in political speeches or in the newspapers. The "Geneva spirit" apparently has taken such a firm hold on the country that officials are worried. They don't want the country to let its guard down.

American officials have noted a similar optimism in other West European countries.

Some American officials think it would be a good idea to toughen up public opinion here for the rugged bargaining ahead with Moscow on issues like German unification and disarmament.

President Eisenhower's speech in Philadelphia Aug. 24 was generally interpreted here as an effort to roll back some of the U.S. optimism that came surging out of the Geneva conference. The President called on the Russians to prove good will by righting the "wrongs" of a divided Germany, the captive satellites and "subversion organized on a worldwide scale."

No British leader has lately made so strong a speech.

British officials and some newspapers in welcoming better relations with the Russians cautioned the country against dropping its guard. Prime Minister Eden said peace can never be secure with a divided Germany.

But these notes of warning were drowned out in the great chorus of hallelujahs praising the new look in Soviet policy.

There is a demand for a cut in the period of national military service from two years to 18 months. And the Labor party plans to press for a cut in conscription.

If 1935 mortality rates for childbearing still prevailed, about 24,000 U.S. mothers would die each year in childbirth compared to about 2,000 who actually die.

Jurist John Marshall to Be Honored Officially by Americans in September

By ARTHUR EDSON

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6 (AP)—This is the month, officially proclaimed by Congress and President Eisenhower, for all Americans to honor John Marshall, soldier, diplomat and, for 34 history-making years, the nation's chief justice.

* * *

For Sept. 24 is the 200th anniversary of his death. And the U.S. John Marshall Bicentennial Commission has been whooping it up for patriotic programs and kind words about their hero.

All of which would have been a surprise to Marshall, never popular in his own time. And down in Monticello, the bones of old Tom Jefferson, Marshall's chief opponent, and a most unforgiving one, must stir angrily in his grave.

Still, even Jefferson would have to admit the mark Marshall made on this country never could be erased.

In 1801, when Marshall went on the bench, the Supreme Court was in a bad way. The first chief justice, John Jay, was convinced it never would amount to much. The judicial structure had fatal flaws, Jay said.

By the time Marshall wound up his long career, everyone conceded the court was here to stay as the final umpire on whether any law, state or national, is constitutional.

"Marshall found a constitution on paper, and he made it power," James Garfield said. "He found a skeleton and he clothed it with flesh and blood."

The flesh and blood Marshall appears to have been somewhat different than the usual grave descriptions of chief justices. A native Virginian, he was a lively member of the Barbecue Club of Richmond. There he distinguished himself as a mimic and the club's quoits pitching champion.

Today the time any lawyer has to argue a case before the Supreme Court is severely limited. It was different in Marshall's day.

* * *

Once the great spellbindering lawyer William Pinckney was arguing a case before the court when some ladies dropped by to hear him. To please the ladies, the court graciously permitted Pinckney to repeat the oration he had delivered the previous day.

Some great men appeared before Marshall's court. John Quincy Adams, Daniel Webster, Roger Taney, Henry Clay and a couple of songwriters, Francis Scott Key and Joseph Hopkinson, who wrote "Star Spangled Banner" and "Hail Columbia," respectively.

There also was Luther Martin, who dressed negligently and drank diligently and was forever broke. Yet so brilliant was he considered that his fellow lawyers chipped in with $5 a year apiece to make sure he didn't starve.

* * *

Martin was one of the defense lawyers for Aaron Burr, the former vice president charged with conspiracy to overthrow the government.

In those days, Supreme Court justices went on the circuit and held court in other cities.

Marshall presided at the Burr trial, and when he ruled the government didn't have enough evidence for conviction, irate citizens burned Marshall in effigy.

"A crafty chief judge," grumbled Jefferson, who always suspected the worst in any political foe. And again: "His twistifications . . . show how dexterously he can reconcile law to his personal biases."

Through it all, Marshall resolutely stood his ground.

A final note: Before Marshall became one of the greatest chief justices, he argued only one case all the way to the Supreme Court. He lost it.

Polio in Midwest Down 7 Per Cent

CHICAGO (AP)—Polio cases in 10 Midwestern states during the first two thirds of this year were 7 per cent fewer than in 1954, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis reports.

States included in the survey, running through the week of Aug. 21-27, were Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, North Dakota, South Dakota and Nebraska.

The high incidence of the disease in Wisconsin, the foundation said, kept the Midwestern decline lower than the national decline, which was 17 per cent. Wisconsin had 924 of the 3,427 cases reported by the 10 states, a fourfold increase over 1954.

India exports about $25,200,000 worth of raw skins, mostly of goats and sheep, annually.

Medical 'Palmistry' Shows Heart Defects in Infants

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
(Associated Press Science Reporter)

EAST LANSING (AP)—A strange kind of "palmistry" often gives a tipoff whether a child has been born with a heart defect, Dr. Irene Uchida of Toronto reported today.

• • •

This has no connection with ordinary palmistry—not accepted scientifically—of reading so-called lifelines or lines denoting chances for happiness or wealth.

It is a scientific finding of peculiar patterns in the palms of persons known to have congenital heart defects. It follows earlier discovery that certain patterns on the fingers, palms and soles often indicate the mental defect known as Mongoloid imbecilism.

Dr. Uchida of the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, told the American Institute of Biological Sciences of finding the peculiar palm pattern significantly more often among 150 heart-defect patients than among a group of persons chosen at random.

• • •

The patterns might be useful in making earlier diagnosis of certain heart defects, many of which now are correctable by new surgical techniques.

PATTERNS PREDICT

Some years ago, Dr. Harold Cummins of Tulane University found peculiar skin patterns in up to 90 per cent of Mongoloid children. This mental deficiency is often difficult to diagnose early. The skin markings can aid earlier diagnosis permitting earlier beginning of special care.

• • •

Dr. Uchida finds evidence that some pre-natal upset is likely responsible for these skin patterns, the heart defects and Mongolism.

OTHER REPORTS

Other reports to the institute:

Heredity appears to play a role in stomach cancer. It occurs more often in relatives of stomach cancer than in the general population—Dr. Charles M. Woolf, University of Utah.

• • •

Some fish engage in love talk. Sea robins, for example, apparently make communicative sounds during the breeding season. Man-made imitations of their sounds under water bring a flurry of answering calls from the fish. When the imitation sound is broadcast at higher frequencies, you can make the fish shut up—Prof. James M. Moulton, Bowdoin College biologist.

Billions of Jellyfish

In summer the Chesapeake Bay contains billions of jellyfish, some poisonous, some harmless, say the National Geographic Society. Most are so diaphanous and frail as to be barely distinguishable, and a swimmer may glide among their packed bodies without being aware of them.

Coming is a new product, dried potato flakes which are converted to fluffy mashed potatoes by adding hot water and milk. The method has succeeded in a pilot-plant process—Miles J. Churchill's Kin Deny Disorderly Drunk Charge

LONDON (AP)—John Churchill, 46-year-old artist nephew of Sir Winston Churchill, and his wife Kathlyn denied in court today that they were drunk and disorderly last night in a little street called Adam and Eve Mews.

They pleaded innocent to a charge of "behaving in a disorderly manner whilst drunk."

Churchill, who is also Prime Minister Eden's brother-in-law, was in court only two minutes with his wife. The action was continued to Sept. 29 to let them arrange for a lawyer. They were released on nominal bail.

* * *

The artist and his wife, also a painter, were picked up outsid their home in the quaint alley in London's Kensington district.

Churchill told reporters there had been "a bit of bother outside our house and the police were called."

Mrs. Hildegard Winkler said she had robbed for revenge.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A B25 medium bomber collided with a jet fighter and crashed while attempting a landing at McCarran field yesterday. Three men, including a civilian photographer, were killed.

Mam. William Davie Jr., of nearby Nelis Air Force Base, a student pilot, parachuted safely from his F86 Sabre Jet.

* * *

Killed in the crash of the bomber were:

Sgt. Thomas E. Anderson of Las Vegas.

Civilian David Lees, 35, well-known photographer of this desert gambling resort.

Detroit Blonde Reigning Over Michigan Fair

DETROIT (AP) — A streamlined, 18-year-old Detroit receptionist last night was crowned Miss Michigan State Fair of 1955.

Lorri Kawiak, a blue-eyed blonde won the title sought by 41 in local beauty contests from all over the state.

The judges had a rough time reaching a decision in the music shell at the fairgrounds, but Lt. Gov. Phillip A. Hart broke a tie by drawing a slip of paper on which was Miss Kawiak's name.

Miss Kawiak, who raises dogs and plays the piano as hobbies, was also named Miss International Boxing Glove at a convention of the National Boxing Association.

Hollywood Headlines

Another Sinatra – Nancy – Launches Acting Career

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Another Sinatra has entered the acting business. This time it's Nancy, former wife of famous Frankie.

Nancy, who is pretty and petite with dark brown-reddish hair, is playing the role of a Red Cross worker in the Pacific War in Paramount's "The Proud and Profane." It's her first fling at acting and she's having herself a ball.

* * *

She was running the hat check concession in a longshot scene of a recreation hall while Deborah Kerr did her acting in the foreground. After the scene was filmed, Nancy came over to chat.

"No lines today," she reported. "But I had some yesterday. And the day before. No, I haven't seen the rushes. Nobody asks to see them."

* * *

But producer William Perlberg reported that she was doing excellently.

"The gal is a real comer," said Perlberg, a longtime friend. "She has a way of throwing away lines that is sensational."

Nancy was happy to hear such praise.

* * *

"I've never done any acting before," she reported. "I never even wanted to be an actress when I was a girl. As soon as I got out of school, I went to work in an office. I never did any other kind of work. I got married and started having children; there wasn't time for anything else.

"Now the kids are growing up—Nancy is 15, Frankie is 11 and Christina 7. I thought I might try acting. I had been around it so long. I knew this story and had read the script. Bill Perlberg and George Seaton, the director, are old friends, so I asked if I could do a part in it. They agreed."

* * *

How do the kids feel about her acting venture?

"They're very excited about it," she reported. "The picture happened at a very good time—when they were out of school and going to camp and so forth.

"As to the future, I'll have to wait and see how the picture turns out. At any rate, I won't be able to do much; raising three children is a career in itself."

* * *

What does Frank Sr. think of her acting career?

"I don't know," Nancy remarked. "But I couldn't have gone on the long location in the Virgin Islands if he hadn't been here, to take care of the children."

Gotham Police Shoot Gunman

Ex-Con Uses Hostages as Shields in Theater District Cab Battle

NEW YORK (AP)—A defiant ex-convict, who held four persons as hostages in a taxicab and challenged police to "come and get me," was shot to death by a policeman in view of after-theater crowds just west of Rockefeller Center last night.

* * *

The gunman, who had a withered left leg, held off police for 10 minutes before he was killed.

He was identified through fingerprints as Peter Hatzis, 35, of Brooklyn, on parole for armed robbery and possessor of a long criminal record.

Hatzis had pulled a $741 holdup in a restaurant on 6th avenue, and several employes and patrons followed him out with a great hue and cry.

Several policemen and an armed U. S. customs agent closed in on the figitive in a 1½-block chase in which several shots were exchanged.

Hatzis jumped into a cab, jammed in traffic in front of a hotel with two women and one male passenger.

The police held fire for fear of hitting the taxicab passengers or driver. The cowering women in the cab shouted "Don't don't" as the bandit taunted police to "Come and get me." He fired one shot from the cab.

* * *

After 10 minutes, one of the policemen saw his chance. He fired one shot through an open cab window, killing Hatzis.

One of the bullets fired during the chase grazed a leg of a 21-year-old man passing by. One bullet ripped through the skirt of an 18-year-old girl he was escorting.

Sticks in Clothes Chute

DETROIT (AP) — Eight-year-old Albert James Crafton tried sliding down the clothes chute last night at the Crafton family's two-story home. He got stuck. His mother called police. They tugged and pulled. Then they poured baby oil on him. That didn't work either. But they finally freed little Albert by tearing out part of the wall.

First gas pipeline in the United States was completed in 1872 and extended about five and one-half miles from Newton Well to Titusville, Pa.

Actress Learns Oil Is Slick Way to Make Living

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Easier than making pictures is making money in oil says blonde movie actress Terry Moore.

Miss Moore, in Oklahoma for a look at oil and gas properties, journeyed to several fields.

"I went out and we turned them on just to see if they were really pumping," reported Terry.

"It's the first time I ever looked at an oil well and said it was mine. Part mine, anyhow. It is wonderful. Easier than making pictures."

* * *

She was accompanied on her inspection trip by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dobson of Oklahoma City who treated her to another anticipated pleasure, watermelon.

"We spent the day looking at oil wells and eating watermelon," said Terry. She explained that the Dobsons, with whom she toured Honolulu last month, had bragged about Oklahoma melons and gave her a chance to sample a few on her visit here.

Episcopal Delegates Forging Program

HONOLULU —Delegates to the 58th General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church today settled down to two-a-day sessions in forging the church program for the next three years.

For three days the bishops and the House of Deputies, along with the Women's Auxiliary, met in joint session for speeches that emphasized the need of an expanded missionary program at home and abroad. Then each group met separately.

* * *

Beginning today the governing bodies, the bishops and House of Deputies, will meet twice daily instead of once.

Two controversial issues met temporary defeat yesterday — one in the House of Deputies and the other before the bishops. Convention sources said, however, both issues would come up again.

* * *

The deputies turned down a proposal from the Massachusetts diocese which would give women a vote in the convention. The more than 500 auxiliary delegates now have no vote.

The bishops turned down a proposal to establish a bishop for the armed services.

Paul Muni Loses Left Eye, Found Possible Cancer

NEW YORK (AP)—Paul Muni, one of the top actors of Broadway and Hollywood, has come through an operation for the removal of his left eye satisfactorily and is said to have taken the loss in good spirit.

• • •

Muni, who had complained of pain and failing eyesight, gave up his leading role in the Broadway hit "Inherit the Wind" last week. His performance in the show had earned him Variety's nomination as best actor of the year.

The 59-year-old actor's eye was removed at Mt. Sinai Hospital yesterday after it was found to be affected by a tumor—a growth which might be cancerous. His right eye was reported normal, with the sight unimpaired by the operation.

• • •

It was explained that 48 hours were required to determine whether the tumor was cancerous.

Muni ended six years of retirement to play in "Inherit the Wind" and reportedly hopes to return to the show after he recovers from the operation.

The show was closed Sept. 2 to give his replacement, Melvyn Douglas, a chance for rehearsal. It is scheduled to reopen Sept. 17.

There are 3,000 islands under the jurisdiction of Indonesia.

Learning—the Hard Way

EUREKA, Mont. (AP)—High water poses a special problem for Roger Knott, 9. The third grader lives about 25 miles south of Eureka on the east bank of the Kootenai River. He must cross the river in a rowboat each morning to catch a school bus.

Just an Oversight

MT. AIRY, N. C. (AP)—The Rev. Edgar H. Nease, pastor of Sales Methodist Church near Mt. Airy, holds three college degrees—all without benefit of his 1923 high school diploma. Informed of the oversight, Bessemer High School authorities resolved to award him the diploma—some 32 years late.

Straits Bridge--Harbinger of Wealth or Poverty?

MACKINAW CITY (AP)—Fifteen months ago the twins of the Straits—St. Ignace and Mackinaw City — celebrated for three days the start of the Mackinac Bridge construction.

Today those communities are asking serious questions about what the bridge will mean—or do—to them.

* * *

Will the bridge, a green and ivory giant with a five-mile stride, crush the two towns which lie at its feet?

Or will it bring new life to the two communities, which are the oldest in Michigan?

What about the countless travelers who stop and spend money along the waterfront while waiting for ferry boats? Will they speed over them as they move from peninsula to peninsula?

What of workers who man the state car ferries? Will there be other jobs for them when the bridge replaces boats in November, 1957.

* * *

Will the crowds watching the bridge 'a-building return when it is finished? Or will they do their gazing from 150 feet above the water, where the bridge stretches between the peninsulas?

TEMPORARY PROSPERITY

The $100 million bridge, taking spectacular form above the four-mile Straits channel, has brought at least a temporary boom of prosperity.

More than 1,000 extra workers and uncounted thousands of tourists have come for a look at the greatest bridge project in the world.

They line the beaches on both sides of the Straits, where the view is free. The more curious and freer spenders get a close-up by speedboat for $1 or by air for $2 or $3.

Increased travel has been reflected in the sale of Straits Bridge souvenirs. Restaurants are crowded and Mackinaw City's motels and cabins are filled several nights a week.

Yet, businessmen here keep wondering: What happens two years from this fall?

IDEA MAN

Neil Downing, Mackinaw City village council president, says:

"I've heard people say the bridge will be the beginning of the end for Mackinaw City, but others say it will mean more business than ever before.

"We know people have come here largely because they had to. The bridge will make it inconvenient for them to stop here. So we will have to give them a new reason. We will have to have something to offer them."

Downing listed the following planned attractions:

1. Dock facilities for pleasure craft and boats up to 4,000 tons.

2. A wide beach area, "one of the most beautiful in the Great Lakes, but it needs developing."

3. Village and state parks which also need development. Included is Fort Michilimackinac, with a reproduction of the historic fort.

4. Boat rides for persons who formerly came only for this.

5. Ready power, water and transportation for light manufacturing.

At St. Ignace John La Haie, president of the Chamber of Commerce, was even more optimistic.

OTHER IDEAS

"Most of the bridge traffic will pass through the business district of St. Ignace," he predicted.

La Haie listed the following as reasons people will want to stop in St. Ignace:

1. Historic Marquette Park, with a new museum.

2. Reproduction of Indian villages.

3. Harbor facilities for small and large boats.

4. Swimming, fishing and pleasure boat rides.

Leaders of both communities pointed out that Mackinac island ferries will continue to bring people to waterfront towns in summer.

TOWNS JOIN

Said Mackinaw City President Downing: "It's the first time St. Ignace and Mackinaw City ever pulled together on anything. They've never before become acquainted."

Joseph Sullivan, Mackinaw publicity and planning committeeman, said:

"We're concentrating on attracting a few small industries to make up the employment gap when the ferries close. It will be the biggest job for the new chamber of commerce."

According to La Haie, St. Ignace's chamber will start plugging for new industries as soon as a power cable is completed across the Straits.

CONTRACTORS HELP

Bridge builders will leave St. Ignace and Mackinaw City better harbor and dock facilities than they had before.

Contractors will leave behind new docks and breakwaters in both ports. In addition, they are donating sheet piling used in forming bridge piers to strengthen the city docks.

Both communities plan to start boating clubs, with facilities for handling pleasure boats of tourists.

But it is the tourists who come by automobile that concern the two towns most. Traffic across the Straits, now running close to a million cars a year, is expected to double by 1958, the first full year of the bridge's operation.

* * *

"We can't get those people to stop here by talking," said Downing. "It depends on what we do in the next couple of years."

They want no ghosts in their future.

Population Triples

Chittagong, the principal port of East Pakistan, is a bustling city of 260,000 people, says the National Geographic Society. It has trebled its population since 1941. In 1946-47 the port shipped only 5,566 tons of jute. In the fiscal year 1950-51 it handled 370,000 tons.

There are about 7,500 public library systems in the United States but 30 per cent of them have incomes of less than $1,000 a year.

Fight for Libby Ends at Meeting

9 Directors Re-elected as Independents Fail to Make Appearance

PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — A bitter proxy fight for control of Libby, McNeill & Libby collapsed at the big food firm's annual stockholders meeting yesterday.

With several court rulings against them, an independent stockholders' group did not appear.

• • •

Each of the nine received the votes of 2,134,161 shares—roughly two-thirds of the outstanding common stock, which is held by more than 30,000 owners. Fewer than 30 shareholders were present.

The only reference to the proxy fight came in a report from President Charles S. Bridges, who said it had been "a great strain" on the management to run the business and at the same time, "present an invasion of the rights of the majority stockholders."

Bridges reported that business in the first quarter of Libbys' fiscal year justified the "optimistic outlook" of his annual report for the year that ended May 28.

FAIREY DELTA 2 IN FLIGHT — Britain's Fairey Delta 2, shown in flight, will be publicly demonstrated at Farnborough Air Show in England Sept. 5-11. The craft can exceed speed of sound in level flight over a range of altitudes. It is powered by a Rolls Royce Avon turbojet, and fitted with Fairey powered flying controls. Outstanding feature is the "droop snoot" in which entire needle nose, including the cockpit, can be lowered by the pilot to improve the forward view for take-off and landing.

1 Out of 4 Americans in School or College

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Office of Education estimates that nearly one out of every four Americans will be in school or college this year.

The office says its estimate of 39,772,000 students enrolled this term represents an increase of 1,685,500 over last year.

With the national population as of June 1 estimated at 165,023,000, the school and college enrollment would come to about 24.1 per cent of the total.

Commissioner of Education Samuel M. Brownell noted a shortage of 141,300 qualified teachers to handle the record enrollment.

Salt Lake City Sizzles

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—The temperature topped 90 for the 11th straight day in Salt Lake City yesterday, a new record for this time of year. The Weather Bureau said partly cloudy skies and possible showers may bring cooler weather today to some parts of the inter-mountain area, but not Salt Lake City, whose heat is slated to hit 94 degrees today.

Cabaret, Geisha Girls Protest New Government Tax

TOKYO (AP) — Three thousand cabaret girls and geishas paraded to a downtown meeting hall today to protest a new government tax collection system which goes into effect Nov. 1.

The new law requires the girls to turn in receipts showing their profits from an evening's work. It is bound to cut sharply into their income. They have been able to avert a high tax by declaring small incomes. Now, they'll have to make their declarations and daily receipts jibe.

Wound Up in Work

FARMVILLE, N. C. (AP)—Clock-winding is a long chore for Paul Vaughn and his 15-year-old son, Jimmy. Their hobby is rebuilding old timepieces and it takes more than an hour and a half to wind up the 60 clocks they have put in working order.

The average American uses 143 match books a year.

Malayan Government Offers Amnesty to Reds

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya (AP)—Malaya's newly elected government moved today to end the seven-year war with the Communist guerrillas by offering an amnesty to all Reds who come out of their jungle hideouts and lay down hteir arms.

The move followed through on a campaign promise made by the Chinese-Indian-Malay Alliance government which took office last month after a smash victory in the peninsula's first parliamentary election.

Enthusiastic Girl Kicks Self Right Out of Race

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Paula Walterbach, 12, was practicing for a slipper-kicking contest at the police picnic. She accidentally kicked her loose-fitting slipper up on top of a house. Police called firemen.

The Fire Department sent out a hook and ladder truck. Its crew retrieved the shoe—but not soon enough for Paula. By that time, the slipper-kicking contest was over.

Huks Crushed by Magsaysay

President of Philippines Intends to Keep Rebel Forces Down

MANILA — President Ramon Magsaysay as defense secretary crushed the Communist Huks. As President he is determined to keep them crushed with a program of land reform.

• • •

The Huks, feeding on centuries of peasant unrest, had created chaos until the energetic Magsaysay broke them in 1953.

In the field against the Huks, and again as a presidential candidate 20 months ago, Magsaysay met and talked with farmers. He listened to their complaints and from them evolved a program.

• • •

The program: Reduce large landholdings; resettle tenants on public lands; reduce rents, and provide security of tenure; reform the property tax system; provide production credit for small farmers; facilitate the registration of land titles.

Briefly, here is what he has accomplished in 20 months:

• • •

1. Got through congress an Agricultural Tenancy Act, drafted with the help of U. S. aid advisers, reducing rents and improving tenure security.

2. Expropriated several landed estates. Under the land reform act of 1955 land may be purchased or expropriated for resale to tenants.

3. More than 3,000 tenants resettled on public land the last fiscal year with houses, farm implements and work water buffalos: Tenants repay under an easy credit plan.

• • •

4. Extended credit on reasonable terms to 140,000 small farmers who once were forced to pay interest rates as high as 400 per cent.

5. Will create a court of agrarian relations under a 1955 law designed to improve landlord-tenant relations. It is restricted to tenancy disputes and is believed to be the first kind in the world.

6. Facilitated land registration. Some 50,000 land patents were registered last year compared with 3,000 in 1952.

The problem of property tax reform remains to be attacked, but it obviously is next on the Magsaysay agenda.

As one U. S. land tenure specialist put it:

"No Asian country has a more comprehensive or better balanced program of land reform than the Philippines.

"At the rate they're going, the Filipinos should solve their land tenure problems within five years."

Seize China Opium

SINGAPORE (AP) — Customs officers seized 250 pounds of opium from Communist China last night aboard a junk in Singapore harbor. The drug, valued at more than $40,000, was the first seized here from Red China in years. Most opium picked up in Singapore comes from Iran.

3 Dead, 5 Injured in Train Derailment

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP)—Three men are dead and five injured after the second Ohio train derailment in three days.

• • •

A westbound Baltimore & Ohio express piled into a pickup truck at a crossing just east of here last night, killing three men in the truck and derailing 13 of the 15 train coaches.

• • •

Three postal clerks and two crew members from the train were hospitalized after the crash.

The state highway patrol identified the dead as David Raynor, Wellston; and Lowell Speakman and Pete Baker of Ray, near Wellston.

The train carried no passengers, and was en route from Parkersburg, W. Va., to Cincinnati.

UCLA Selected to Lead Nation's 1955 Grid Pack

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

UCLA, the team the experts decided was only second best last fall, is the pre-season pick for the 1955 National Championship of college football.

* * *

But the Uclans, defending champions of the Pacific Coast Conference, barely gained the most-likely-to-succeed billing in a three-way voting scrap with Oklahoma and Michigan in The Associated Press' annual pre-season balloting.

* * *

Sportswriters and broadcasters of the nation gave Coach Red Sanders' Bruins a mere 53-point margin over the Sooners of Oklahoma and Coach Bud Wilkinson. UCLA, gathering 10 points for a first place' ballot, 9 for second, 8 for third, etc., totaled 1,054. Oklahoma wound up with 1,001.

* * *

But Michigan, generally picked to succeed last year's national champion, Ohio State, as the ruler of the Big Ten, passed both UCLA and Oklahoma in first place votes. The Wolverines were accorded the No. 1 spot on 34 of 135 ballots cast. UCLA had 33, Oklahoma 32.

Michigan, however, totaled only 870 points in the combined tally and settled for third place in the pre-season rankings.

Next came Ohio State, Maryland, Notre Dame, Army, Navy, Miami (Fla.) and Georgia Tech.

* * *

In the final poll of the 1954 season, Ohio State collected a whopping 204 first place ballots, getting the nod on exactly half of the votes cast in the largest ballot in the poll's history. Then the Buckeyes went on to thrash Southern California in the Rose Bowl while UCLA, banned from the New Year's Day classic by a rule forbidding appearances in consecutive years, had to be content with the runner-up slot.

This time, Ohio State coaxed only nine first place votes.

Rice, Iowa, Southern Cal, Wisconsin, Mississippi, Southern Methodist, Auburn, Duke, West Virginia and Purdue fill out the Top 20 list, in that order, in the pre-season rating.

* * *

The final '54 ballot listed Ohio State, UCLA, Oklahoma, Notre Dame, Navy, Mississippi, Army, Maryland, Wisconsin and Arkansas.

The first ten teams with points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis (first-place votes in parentheses):

1.	UCLA (33)	1,054
2.	Oklahoma (32)	1,001
3.	Michigan (34)	870
4.	Ohio State (9)	636
5.	Maryland (6)	595
6.	Notre Dame (2)	529
7.	Army	333
8.	Navy (1)	279
9.	Miami, Fla. (5)	227
10.	Georgia Tech (1)	219

THE SECOND TEN

11.	Rice	270
12.	Iowa (4)	234
13.	Southern California (2)	152
14.	Wisconsin	150
15.	Mississippi	128
16.	Southern Methodist	93
17.	Auburn	64
18.	Duke (1)	48
19.	West Virginia (1)	46
20.	Purdue (1)	37

'M' RATED TOP IN BIG 10

CHICAGO (INS) — Michigan's Wolverines are tabbed as the team most likely to win top Midwestern honors in a "dog-fight" battle for the Big Ten championship involving at least four other conference squads.

The issue also embraces last year's unbeaten Rose Bowl and Big Ten titlists, Ohio State, Purdue, Wisconsin and Iowa.

* * *

Michigan's coach Bennie Oosterbaan has 25 lettermen back from last year's tough combination, including his veteran backfield of Lou Baldacci, Tony Branoff, Jim Maddock and Terry Barr. The Wolverine line is bolstered by one of the nation's great ends in Ron Kramer.

Ohio State ranked 1st in the nation last year but has lost six regulars. Absentees this season include such standouts as quarterback Dave Leggett, Bobby Watkins, Hubert Bobo, and always valuable point-kicker Tad Weed.

Coach Decries Choice of UCLA as Top Eleven

Red Sanders Laughs as His Team Picked to Lead Nation

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Coach Red Sanders listened and laughed a little in serious thought as he learned that his UCLA football team had been picked as the No. 1 prospect for the 1955 season.

"That's the most emphatic joke I have ever heard," said Sanders Wednesday.

The UCLA pilot, whose team would up second to Ohio State in the final Associated Press ratings last winter, added:

"I don't see how they can feel that way."

Sanders recalled that last year he predicted that UCLA would have the best team it ever presented on the college gridiron. The 1954 outfit was undefeated all season.

AF Academy Taking to Grid for First Time

Michigan Youths Play Key Roles on Team as 77 Begin Workouts

DENVER (AP)—The Air Force Academy football team is a reality today, pumped full of life by 77 husky cadets who suited up yesterday for the first drill.

And on the first day the Cadets started building a tradition of their own. They don't "start," "begin," or "open" practice, like most football teams do. They "blasted off."

As Col. Robert V. Whitlow, head coach and director of athletics, explained: "Were going to develop our own Air Force lingo."

Opposing players won't be tackled. "We'll shoot 'em down," Whitlow said. The "take off" position for the Air Force players is when they are lined up ready to start a play. Football teams refer to "charging" when they start a play. But the Air Cadets "blast off," like jet planes taking off.

Helping Whitlow develop the team for an eight-game schedule this fall against regional college freshmen teams is Lawrence T. Buck Shaw, former coach of the San Francisco 49ers football team. Shaw carries the title of "civilian consultant."

He'll teach the Cadets the 49er brand of ball, T-formation plays with flankers and spreads. "We'll probably throw the ball a lot," Whitlow said.

The Cadets have been playing touch football in recreation periods since they reported to the Academy July 11. That has given the coaching staff a line on some of the players who may develop into outstanding performers.

Emphasizing that a lot needs to be proven, Whitlow suggested these cadets are likely to play key roles in the academy football plans:

Backs — Quarterbacks Gerald Finneran of Larchmont, N.Y., and Eddie Rosane, Pasco, Wash.; halfbacks Steve Galios, Napa, Calif., Clayton (Mickey) Gouyd, Cypress, Calif., and Leon Molinelli, Pocatello, Idaho; fullback Larry Thomson, Billines, Mont.

Ends — Tom Jazwiak, Detroit, Mich., and Dave Phillips, Burbank, Calif.

Linemen—Tackles Gregory Boyington Jr., of Burbank, Calif., son of a World War II ace and Medal of Honor winner, Roland Bernhard, Hackensack, N.J., John Gulledge, Sallisaw, Okla., Jack Bryan, Felt, Okla., and Eugene Vosika, Bellevue, Neb.; guards Brock Strom, Ironwood, Mich., Jay Mitchell, Artesia, N.M., and George Evankovich, Dearborn, Mich.; center Robert Delligatti, Albright, W.Va.

Will Axe Fall?

Future of Cards Pilot Subject of Later Talk

ST. LOUIS—The fate of Harry (The Hat) Walker as manager of the disappointing St. Louis Cardinals won't be determined until the club's organizational meeting next month, General Manager Dick Meyer indicated Wednesday.

* * *

"In a season such as this has been," Meyer said, "you conceivably might do a lot of things now in haste that aren't well considered. We're not about to let that happen."

* * *

Meyer said "there has been too much talk already" and declared it's best let it go until the end of the season and make the decisions then.

* * *

The Cardinals were reated as possible a darkhorse pennant threat at the start of the season. Now they are struggling to avoid last place and Meyer conceded that some thought already had been given to the question of a manager for the 1956 club.

* * *

Meyer indicated the future of former manager Eddie Stanky with the club, if any, also will come up at next month's meeting. Stanky's contract at a reported $40,000 a year, runs through 1956.

* * *

Meyer said he had heard nothing from Stanky since shortly after he was replaced by Walker May 28.

* * *

"Three things have to be done," Meyer said, "and maybe we could find one player to do two of them, be a field general—and that's no discredit to anyone we have now—and rip the ball against these left-handers who have plagued us. Relief pitching is the third."

'Great Pitcher?' Not Me, Shrugs Yankee's Ford

Season Without Rut Is Aim of Hurler With Two Recent 1-Hitters

NEW YORK (AP) — Edward (Whitey) Ford has hurled two one-hit games for the New York Yankees in six days and is headed for a 20-game winning season but he refuses to let anybody even suggest he is a great pitcher.

* * *

"I won't consider myself a great pitcher until I have a season without a rut," said the 26-year-old southpaw after he had beater the Kansas City Athletics 2-1 Wednesday with Jim Finigan's double the only hit. Last Friday he checked the Washington Senators also on one hit, a single by Carlos Paula.

* * *

Whitey, a 5-10, 175-pound native of New York, considers the Phillies' Robin Roberts great.

* * *

"He's in there year after year winning 20 or more games," said Whitey. "That's what it takes to be a great pitcher. Take myself this year. I started out okay but they went into perfodic slumps. That is not a sign of greatness."

* * *

But for those ruts he talked about, Ford might well be in the 20-game class himself. As it is he has won 17, good enough to tie Boston's Frank Sullivan for the lead in the American League. He has dropped six. Ford's best year was in 1953 when, after returning from the service he posted an 18-6 record. Last year he was 16-8.

* * *

Ford, the mainstay of the Yankee hurling staff, started off at a fast gait this year and by June 1 had won seven while losing only one. But it was not until June 22 that he was able to get his eighth victory. The next two came without much delay but then he got into another rut and did not turn in his 11th triumph until July 24.

* * *

After he had retired the A's in order in the ninth Wednesday, Ford stalked off the mound and slammed his glove hard up against the dugout wall. It was delayed emotional outburst against a 3-2 pitch he fired at Finigan with two out in the seventh.

"I pitched him outside and he tomahawked it," said Ford of the pitch which halted a no-hitter. "I pitched him inside three times after getting two strikes on him and then I came in on the outside corner. It's a good thing it jumped into the stands or it could have cost me the game."

But, Whitey said later, "I'm not particularly concerned about a no-hitter. Of course, if it comes along that's fine. All I was thinking about out there was winning the game.

Conrad Hoping to Add Amateur to British Win

'Little Slam' Elusive, Patton, Harvey Ward Rated Golfers to Beat

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Joe Conrad, the quiet-spoken Air Force lieutenant with the loud-talking golf clubs, has his heart set on adding the U.S. Amateur championship to the British Amateur crown he won last spring.

Conrad, one of 200 golfers who'll compete in the National Amateur tournament opening here Monday, thinks he has only "an outside chance" of scoring the coveted "Little Slam," but says:

"I'm going all out for this one, that's for sure."

* * *

The little Texan, one of the favorites in the week-long tournament over the par-70 James River course of the Country Club of Virginia, rates Walker Cup stars Billy Joe Patton and Harvie Ward as perhaps the top challengers for the national title.

But, too, he figures there's a good chance the college ranks may produce the 1955 champ, as they did last year when Arnold Palmer, fresh out of Wake Forest, came home the winner.

* * *

The fellow who wins over the 6,713-yard James River layout won't necessarily be a long hitter, Conrad feels, though some holes stretch a long way from tee to green.

Conrad was one of about a score of entrants in the 1955 National Amateur who got in practice licks over the course yesterday, hours after it was made available for the first time since toughening-up work began months ago.

Rookie fullback Ray Novak of the Detroit Lions played baseball with Lincoln, Neb., of the Western League before deciding to concentrate on football.

Snead Favored for Top Money as Round Begins

Golf Cavalcade Offers $50,000 in Prizes Over 72-Hole Test

SCOTCH PLAINS, N.J. (AP)—Sam Snead held his usual favorite's role today as the $50,000 Cavalcade of Golf Tournament began its 72-hole run at the Shackamaxon Country Club.

* * *

Approximately 160 players were in the running with $10,000 waiting for the winner. The runner-up gets $5,000, third place $3,000.

* * *

Snead, heading a list that includes practically all of the "name" pros, shot a promising "68 or 69" in a practice round over the course yesterday, but doubted that the 6,730-yard course would present an easy par 70. He figured a 277 or 278 would take it.

* * *

The tournament has 18 holes scheduled each day through Sunday.

* * *

National Open champion Jack Fleck is among Snead's challengers. So are PGA champion Doug Ford, Cary Middlecoff, Art Wall, Gene Littler, Ed Furgol, Ed Oliver, Jackie Burke and George Bayer.

* * *

The pros got the feel of the course yesterday in a pro-celebrity event in which the rolling, well trapped course belied its easy appearance. Most of the pros had a great deal of trouble with the fairway grass, which was a little long.

Crown Winners at Orchard Lake

Winners in five events were crowned over the Labor Day weekend at the annual Orchard Lake Country Club tennis championships.

Jerry Florez defeated Bill Wilkinson, 2-6, 6-4, 7-1, to capture the men's single title; then combined with his father, Gen Florez, to win the men's doubles crown over Doug Holmes and Wilkinson, 3-6, 6-3, 6-2.

* * *

Mary Slater, a 14-year-old net star, downed Jean Florez, 6-0, 6-1, to win the women's single championship. Mary then joined forces with Ann Holmes to take the women's doubles, 6-2, 6-2, over Jean Florez and Sara Jane Trythall.

* * *

Mixed doubles title was won by the team of Jerry Florez and Sara Jane Trythall as they victimized Jean and Gen Florez 6-2, 6-2.

U.S. Ryder Cup Golfers Chosen

Harbert on PGA Squad Meeting British Team at Palm Springs

CHICAGO (AP)—The U.S. 10-man Ryder Cup golf team has been chosen and will meet an invading British squad Nov. 5 and 6 at Palm Springs, Calif.

* * *

Making up the U.S. team named by the PGA Wednesday are Chick Harbert, Doug Ford, Cary Middlecoff, Tommy Bolt, Ted Kroll, Jerry Barber, Sam Snead, Jack Burke Jr., Marty Furgol and Chandler Harper.

* * *

Harbert and Ford were automatic selections because of their 1954 and 1955 victories, respectively, in the National PGA tourney.

* * *

Lloyd Mangrum, absent from the tournament circuit this season with a chese injury, was named honorary captain.

* * *

The U.S. won 6½-5½ in the last Ryder Cup matches, in Wentworth, England, two years ago.

Basilio Edges Turner in Bout at Syracuse

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Welterweight champion Carmen Basilio and his managers were thinking twice today about challenging Carl (Bobo) Olson for his middleweight title. Gil Turner gave them cause to pause Wednesday night.

Basilio narrowly edged out a unanimous decision over the young Philadelphia Negro in their 10-round, non-title fight in the War Memorial Auditorium here. Turner figured his surprising showing had earned him another chance at Carmen, this one for the title.

$150,000 Option on Buffalo Club Given by Tigers

DETROIT — An option to purchase the Detroit Tiger's farm club at Buffalo has been given to a Buffalo group headed by two baseball enthusiasts, for $150,000.

Tiger president Walter O. (Spike) Briggs said that the option was granted to raise $150,000 for the purchase of the franchise, and some players now belonging to the Detroit organization.

Heading the Buffalo group are John Stigmeier and Harry Bisgeier. The club has been under Detroit ownership for the past four years.

* * *

Further farm club cutbacks seem in the future. Buffalo manager John McHale has said efforts are being made to sell the Tiger's club at Jamestown, N.Y. to a home town group also.

HEAP HAPPY — Early Wynn (center), Cleveland Indians pitcher, notched his 200th major league victory last night as the Indians retained their half-game lead in the hot American League pennant race. Cleveland defeated Baltimore 6-0. With Wynn in the dressing room are Bob Lemon (left) and Jim Hegan.

Forest Hills Play Continues

Ham Richardson, Texan 'Tut' Bartzan Aiming to Upset Rosewall, Vic Seixas

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (INS)—A revenge-seeking U.S. Davis Cupper and a little dark horse Texan with stars in his eyes and upset on his mind swing for the clouds today in the quarter finals of the National Tennis Championships.

Third-seeded Ham Richardson Rhodes scholar from Baton Rouge, La., takes on Australian whiz kid Ken Rosewall tourney co-favorite. And 7th-ranked Bernard "Tut" Bartzen of San Angelo, Tex., tries to saddle defending champion Vic Seixas in the round of eight.

* * *

Rosewall, 20-year-old Aussie boy wonder, ripped through Richardson in the Davis Cup challenge round and figures to beat him again in the "return go." But the 22-year-old Richardson is confident he can turn the tables on his pint-sized foe this time.

Seixas, fighting Father Time at 32 and thus far silencing the critics with sound, spirited and effective tennis, gets a tough assignment in southpaw Bartzen, 1954 clay court king.

Seixas is favored, but in jetting through Hal Burrows of Charlottesville, Va., 6-0, 6-1, 6-2 yesterday, Bartzen showed he will be a formidable foe for the handsome Philadelphian.

Play at Forest Hills today will consists of four matches, two quarter finals in the upper halves of the draw in both the men's and women's singles.

The action yesterday, both exciting and dramatic, saw top-seeded Tony Trabert and Australia's Lew Hoad power their way into the quarters.

But the fellows with the muscular game had to take a back seat to a couple of upsets.

Little Herbie Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., soft-slammed his way to a 6-4, 6-2, 6-2 win over Australia's Rex Hartwig, 4th-ranked foreigner and 3rd man on the Aussie cup team.

Eighth-seeded Flam's triumph over last year's runnerup was even overhsadowed by what occurred in a women's 3rd rounder.

In one of the major upsets, tiny Belmar Gunderson of Ft. Meade, Md., celebrated her 21st birthday with a 6-4, 6-3 victory over Wimbledone queen Louise Brough.

Stan Hack Signs Year's Contract as Cub Manager

CHICAGO (AP)—Stan Hack, who has been with the Chicago Cub organization since 1932, has been signed for another year to manage the club.

* * *

Hack, concluded his playing career in 1947 and then went into the Cub farm system to gain managerial experience. He succeeded Phil Cavarretta as pilot in March of 1954. Last season his Cubs finished seventh with a 64-90 record. Currently, they are in sixth place with 67-75.

* * *

Terms of Hack's 1956 contract were not revealed, but it was indicated he received a raise and his salary was around $25,000.

Comiskey Thinks White Sox Road Trip Improves Chance

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chuck Comiskey said today the fact that the Chicago White Sox will play most of their remaining games on the road may help their chances of taking the American League pennant.

* * *

Generally, a baseball team is regarded as being at a disadvantage when playing away from home.

* * *

"Actually," said the Chicago vice president, "we've been playing better ball away from home than in our own ball park."

The White Sox will have to continue to do just that if they hope to win the flag. Of their 17 remaining games, 12 are away from Comiskey Park.

The Cleveland Indians are in pretty much the same boat, they play 13 of their last 16 games abroad. But the New York Yankees are at home for 10 of their final 17 while only three of Boston's remaining 18 games are to be played away from Fenway Park.

* * *

Manager Marty Marion of the White Sox conceded this gives the Red Sox a bit of an edge. "It'll help them," he said.

But Marion, too, said he isn't disturbed about his team's remaining schedule.

* * *

"The fans have been pulling for us wherever we go," he said. "I guess we're the sentimental favorites because we haven't won for so long."

It was in 1919 that the White Sox last won an American League pennant.

They edged the Washington Senators 4-3 last night to stay in the middle of the pennant race, 1½ games off the pace.

Planning $50 Million Track Modernization

NEW YORK (AP)—The last obstacle in the path of the plan to modernize the horse racing plants in New York State apparently has been removed with stockholders of the Brooklyn Jockey Club approving the sale of 31,800 shares they own in the Queens County Jockey Club, which operates Aqueduct.

The rehabilitation set-up calls for the complete rebuilding of either Aqueduct or Belmont Park, dismantling of Jamaica and improvements at Saratoga. It is estimated the entire operation will cost $50,000,000.

RUSHING THINGS — Michigan State's equipment manager, Ken Earley, didn't think he was rushing seasons as he polished up the Spartan's grid equipment. Instead, Earley was in a hurry to have the togs ready for the opening of fall practice.

Dodgers Could Break Early Pennant Win Record by Victory Over Second Place Milwaukee Braves

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The supercharged Brooklyn Dodgers can clinch the National League pennant today on the earliest date in the 79-year history of the senior circuit.

A victory over the second place Milwaukee Braves would raise the flag over the Dodgers' Ebbets Field and fracture a record of their own making.

Two years ago, in Milwaukee, ironically enough, the Dodgers made the 1953 flag a mathematical certainty on Sept. 12 for a new loop standard. The earliest pennant-clinching date in the majors is Sept. 4, set in 1941 by the New York Yankees.

But whether they win here or in Chicago on the next stop of their western swing or even later, the Dodgers can't dispel the air of expectancy that hovers overhead.

Manager Walter (Smokey) Alston, often closed-mouth and seemingly aloff, smiled at the antics of some of his players in the dressing room after last night's 3-1 victory over the Braves.

Over the loud sounds of a juke box, Alston said the Dodgers' showing was a team job all the way, with special emphasis on four factors:

The great return to form of Don Newcombe and Roy Campanella, the relief pitching of Ed Roebuck and Clem Labine and the success of rookie pitchers Don Bessent and Roger Craig.

"Newk's pitching and Campy's hitting after their poor years in 1954 can't be overlooked. And neither can Roebuck's relief work in the first half of the season and Labine's all year especially in the last half," Alston said.

"Bessent and Craig came along at just the right time for us," he added. "With four sore-arm pitchers, (Carl) Erskine, (Johnny) Perdes, (Carl) Spooner and (Billy) Loes out at one time, the kids picked us up when we needed it the most. A few losses at that point in the race might have meant a big difference."

The youngsters were purchased on July 15, Craig from Montreal, Bessent from St. Paul. Each won three games in a row before losing.

Many of the Dodgers are pulling for Cleveland to win the American League race because they figure the gate would be bigger at the Indians' immense Municipal Stadium.

State's Football Physician Happy About Lack of Work

EAST LANSING (AP)—Dr. James Feurig is encouraged because he's been slow in picking up recruits for his own pet football team this season.

Dr. Feurig, team physician at Michigan State, ticked off his candidates at the mid-week point.

"We haven't had too many injuries and none of them are real bad ones so far," he said. "They're all the normal sprains and bruises and the kind that should respond to treatment."

A pair of 1st stringers are temporarily sidelined but should be back to duty soon. Right half Walt Kowalczyk has a shoulder sprain and guard Carl Nystrom, team captain, has a twisted elbow.

The others injured include end Joel Jones with a pulled muscle in the groin and fullback Marcus Cisco, end Harold Dukes and quarterback Bob Popp with ankle and foot sprains. All four are sophomores.

Dr. Feurig and the coaches think the relative lack of injuries so far this season can be attributed to good conditioning, a slow start on the scrimmage sessions and the new policy of holding the heaviest workouts in the morning when the players are likely to be in the best shape of the day.

Wednesday, the 1st and 2nd teams had the bulk of their contact work in the morning with no acrimmage at all in the afternoon.

Billy Kaae, the little sophomor left half from Honolulu ran at left half in the morning—the 1st time he's tried the rough stuff since a knee operation last winter.

Kaae, a 163-pound skatback, was running well and his knee held up through the session.

Baldacci Is First Michigan Casualty

ANN ARBOR (AP)—First casualty of Michigan's fall football practice was a minor one—but it struck at a critical position.

Fullback Lou Baldacci nursed a sore foot much of yesterday but he was expected back as good as ever today. Someone had stepped on the back of his heel in scrimmage, but it was more painful than it was serious.

Coach Bennie Oosterbaan said he preferred to take it easy on Baldacci and kept him out of the contact work although the six-foot-one, 190-pound wouldn't keep still.

He trotted around behind the other players anxious to get back in.

Ex-Chicago Waitress Takes Cub to Court

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A former Chicago waitress, Miss Betty Elma Brown, 21, has sued the Chicago Cubs' second baseman, Gene Baker, for support of a child born out of wedlock.

The suit was filed in Los Angeles yesterday for transfer to Illinois for prosecution under a reciprocal act passed by California and Illinois.

No Comment From Benny About Loss to Buckeyes

ANN ARBOR — Coach Bennie Oosterbaan of the Michigan football team was asked by a sportswriter at practice recently if he thought the Wolverines could have won the Ohio State game which the Buckeyes took, 21-7 at Columbus last season.

Oosterbaan's answer: "Postmortems are not part of my religion."

Air Force Tournament Has 3 Games on Tap

EGLIN AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (AP)—Three games are to be played today in the Air Force Southeastern Conference's Third District baseball tournament, with two of the teams due to be eliminated.

Miami International Airport goes against Albrook AFB, Panama Canal Zone, and Pinecastle AFB, Fla., plays Patrick AFB, Fla., in the losers' bracket. The losers will be out of the double elimination meet.

In the winners' bracket, Eglin is pitted against Moody AFB, Ga.

Contrary to Tradition

ANN ARBOR — Michigan, traditional single-wing football team, used about 65 per cent "T" as against 35 per cent single-wing in 1954, Coach Bennie Oosterbaan estimated.

Memorial Regatta on Sunday

First annual "Maddock Memorial" inter-lakes speedboat regatta has been arranged for Sunday afternoon on the waters of Sylvan Lake. The event is sponsored by the Oakland County Boat Club.

The regatta is in memory of one of the veteran OCBC speedboat enthusiasts who lost his life during the running of the last Silver Cup races on the Detroit River.

Floyd Maddock was killed when his fast entry conked out during a heat and another racer shot on top of it, crushing the Pontiac driver.

Sunday's event will draw its entries from Cass Lake, Lake Orion, Union Lake and Sylvan Lake drivers. The regatta is for inboard runabout pleasure craft, and entries probably will range from 75 to 250 horsepower, and in many sizes.

A class will be set up for every size classification, according to regatta chairman Lou Ashbeck.

Oakland County Boat Club expects to have at least seven or eight boats in the competitions. These will include Art Hickson's high-speed Chris-Craft "Cobra".

Cass Lake will send over more than a half dozen craft. Three are now listed from Lake Orion, and Union Lake is expected to enter several others.

Winners in all classes will receive awards following the final competition.

Public is invited and there is plenty of parking space.

Sunday's inter-lake regatta will be one of the last big power-boat events of the season.

Indiana Fair Racing Enters 4th Day With Hoosier Futurity Trot

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Adioscot, co-holder of the season record for 2-year-old pacers until Greentree Adios cracked it yesterday, was among probable starters today in the Hoosier Futurity pace.

The Hoosier Futurity trot shared feature billing in the fourth day of the Indiana State Fair Grand Circuit meeting. The program also included 23 class paces and trots.

• • •

Greentree Adios, owned by Joseph Masiello, of Westbury, N.Y., set the 2-year-old pacing record at 2:00 4-5 in the first heat of the $26,578 Fox Stakes but Bachelor Hanover copped the second heat and the race-off at 2:02 2-5 and 2:03.

• • •

Buckeye, which had shared the season's mark at 2:01 1-5 with Adioscot, got a fourth and a second in the heats.

• • •

Bill Haughton, who reined Bachelor Hanover to unexpected victory for owner Mrs. Hazel Rubin of Charlton, N.Y., now has won over $525,000 this year for an American harness record.

Buchan Appears Sure Victor in Sailing Test

DETROIT (AP) — Young Bill Buchan Jr. is almost a sure bet to take the Mallory Cup sailing series championship home to Seattle.

The 20-year-old University of Washington sailor went far ahead of the field by winning the 3rd of yesterday's three races on rough lake St. Clair.

That gave him a point total of 34¾, regarded as almost insurmountable. Gene Walet of New Orleans, defending champion, is second with 29¼.

Fishery Workers Knock Out Trout, Clip Fins Easy

BALTIMORE (AP)—Maryland fishery workers have an efficient system of clipping the fins of trout to mark them before placing them in streams. They slip 'em a mickey.

With long-handled nets, the workers dip the fish from holding pools and into water containing special chemicals. The knocked-out fish are then fin-clipped and replaced in the pools where they revive in two minutes.

Trout are marked before being placed in streams so they can be identified by state fishery officials from "carry-over" fish.

Red Sox Drop Bengals 7-4, Check Spoiler Role

Open Two Day Boston Series With Setback

Detroiters Get 5 Hits Off Sullivan, Kinder as House Raps Out Homer

BOSTON (AP) — On immediately present form, the Detroit Tigers may have to give up that "spoiler" chore assigned them by stubborn admirers.

The Tigers, after being routed from any American League pennant chance a few weeks ago, were figured as potential hope-breakers for other aspirants.

But on their showing with the Boston Red Sox in yesterday's two-game series opener here, they can't qualify.

Detroit, going down 7-4 before Boston's two-man five-hit pitching, wasn't even in the game until the 9th as the Red Sox clung to their own title dream.

It was only because Frank House hit his 15th home run with one man on that the Tigers looked even mildly good.

House hit the homer, his 7th in three weeks, off starter Frank Sullivan with none out. That was only the 5th hit of the game for Detroit. The Red Sox led 7-2 at the time.

When Sullivan then walked Fred Hatfield, the Red Sox rushed in their old smoothie Ellis Kinder. It ended quickly. Reno Bertoia hit into a double play and Bubba Phillips popped out.

Boston, collecting 12 hits off four Tiger twirlers, was off to a 6-0 lead in the 1st three innings. -Jim Bunning, Tiger starter, gave up five runs on five hits and three walks in two innings.

Paul Foytack, Leo Cristante and Joe Coleman followed but it was much too late.

Meanwhile the Tigers went hitless off Sullivan until the 4th inning. It was Sullivan's 17th win against 12 defeats. Bunning was charged with the loss, his 5th against two victories.

In today's game the Tigers chose Al Aber (6-3) and the Red Sox Willard Nixon (12-8) for the pitching.

Wife Sues Ty Cobb

Wire services today report a divorce action against former Tiger great Ty Cobb has been filed in Reno, Nevada, by Mrs. Frances F. Cobb, charging "extreme cruelty, entirely mental in nature." Earlier this year Mrs. Cobb filed a similar suit, but withdrew it after a reconciliation.

Four players have hit homers with the bases loaded in a World Series game. They are Earl Smith of the Indians (1920), Tony Lazzeri of the Yanks (1936), Gil McDougald of the Yanks (1951) and Mickey Mantle of the Yanks (1953).

Pressure on Yanks, Chisox

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It looks like New York and Chicago, caught in a vise between Cleveland and Boston, are feeling most of the pressure in that tight American League race while the first place Indians and the robust Red Sox are playing 'em free and loose.

Cleveland, making a half-game lead look big, rumbled past Baltimore 6-0 last night as Early Wynn gained his 200th major league victory and gave the Tribe seven triumphs in the last nine games. The Bostons, too, had a ball, blasting Detroit 7-4 for their sixth straight success.

The Yankees and White Sox got home safe to hold the pace, but they had a much tougher time of it. Whitey Ford spun his second one-hitter in six days, yet the second place Yanks had to scrap to beat Kansas City 2-1. And Chicago, 1½ games behind Cleveland and the same margin ahead of fourth place Boston, had a scare before edging Washington 4-3.

* * *

In the National League, meanwhile, Brooklyn whipped Milwaukee 3-1, giving the Dodgers no worse than a tie for the flag. One more victory by the Brooks, or another Milwaukee defeat, puts the pennant in Brooklyn.

Wynn, a 35-year-old righthander who led the league with 23 victories a year ago, marked up a 16-9 record for the season with a five-hitter. He walked three and had runners on base most of the time, but the Tribe backed him with four doubleplays and Larry Doby's two homers that drove in four runs. Only teammate Bob Feller tops Wynn in victories among active major league pitchers.

Ford, who one-hit Washington last Friday, gave one of his six walks ahead of Jim Finigan's two-out, ground-rule double in the seventh and after intentionally filling the bases, uncorked a wild pitch that left him in a 1-1 tie. The Yanks finally pulled it out when Arnie Portocarrero who no-hit New York until the fifth, walked home the winning run in the ninth.

* * *

Washington, trailing all the way, pushed over a run in the ninth on a walk and two singles off Jack Harshman, who had allowed just three hits until then. Millard Howell relieved and was tagged for a pinch-single by Clint Courtney that drove in another run, but Jim Busby's perfect peg from center knocked off the potential tying run at third. Then Busby gathered in Eddie Yost's fly for the final out.

* * *

The Dodgers needed just five hits to put the Braves on the ropes. They scored their runs in the third off Lew Burdette on two singles, a walk, an error and Carl Furillo's double. Billy Loes spaced six hits for his 10th victory as the Brooks, who can clinch the flag at Milwaukee today, won their seventh straight.

ORNERY YOUNGSTER — This young osprey gave the Conservation Department photographer fair warning and stood his ground on a nest of sticks built by his parents atop a swamp stump. Ospreys are by nature wary. Hard to find and few in number the big birds are not often seen outside of museums. This unusual closeup shows the distinctive black and white coloration, sharp beak and piercing eyes of the species.

State Prediction:

Peak Pheasant Cycle Means Good Hunting

LANSING (AP) — Michigan pheasant hunters should have excellent shooting during the Oct. 1-Nov. 10 season, the State Conservation Department predicted today.

Department game experts said pheasant production is "excellent." If weather is favorable, they said, hunters will kill an estimated 1,250,000 birds.

This prediction was based on the annual pre-season census of game conducted by mail carriers.

Ralph Blouch, department game specialist, said the reports of 872 rural carriers show the pheasant population is up from last year and is at the peak of a 10-year cycle.

Production in Lower Peninsula areas followed the pattern of previous years closely, the department said.

The survey showed the thumb had the greatest number of birds, the Ottawa County area was 2nd, the central counties ranked 3rd and the Southeastern and Southwestern counties last.

Four counties on the fringe of the best pheasant area—Mecosta, Newago, Oceana and Gladwin—all showed some decline from 1954 in pheasant population.

Some 20 farmers who cooperated in the survey said they saw more pheasants this year than last, the department reported.

Many players "throw the clubhead from the top." That is, they start the downswing with a premature uncocking of the wrists which absolutely kills the shot. There's nothing left in the swing by the time the clubhead gets to the ball.

You must delay that wrist action until the hands get to about the level illustrated. Then you must pour those hands into the shot with plenty of determination. Some players, go to the other extreme of never uncocking their wrists, which is just as bad as doing it too soon.

When slicing, try to get that whip-lash action in more at the bottom of your stroke. Maybe you slice because your hands are ahead of the clubhead at impact. This means that you draw the club face across the ball from heel to toe, imparting a right spin which produces a slice at the end of the ball's flight.

Put your hands into your shots—but do it at the right moment in the downswing!

Orioles Fighting Down to Wire in Pennant Race

But Shutout by Indians Keeps Cleveland on Top by Half-Game Margin

BALTIMORE (AP)—When it comes to playing patsy for the leaders, the Baltimore Orioles aren't playing any favorites in the American League pennant race.

Although nobody can be accused of rolling over and playing dead for Early Wynn, one of the two active pitchers to post 200 victories, the Birds gave up their 18th game in 21 starts to the league-leading Cleveland Indians last night by a 6-0 score.

* * *

It was Wynn's fourth victory and third shutout over the Birds this season. He has six shutouts for the year. And it enabled Cleveland to maintain its half-game lead over the Yanks in the torrid four-team chase.

Today, Cleveland Manager Al Lopez will send Art Houtteman against Irv Palica as he tries to equal the New York Yankee's record of 19 wins in 22 starts with the Birds. The Yanks and Orioles have completed their competition and today's game will be the last between the Indians and Orioles.

* * *

Wynn joined teammate Bob Feller as the only two active players in the majors to notch 200 or more victories.

In winning last night, Wynn faced only 31 Orioles and allowed only one past first base. That was Dave Pope who blasted a pinch-hit triple to start the sixth but died on base as the next three Birds popped up to infielders.

UM Looms as Power to Dethrone OSU

By JERRY LISKA

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Ron Kramer, heralded as the best end in the country, fine running power and an array of 24 lettermen may enable Michigan to dethrone Ohio State as Big Ten football champion this season.

Even coach Bennie Oosterbaan concedes that if the Wolverines can develop a good passer to hit Kramer and another 220-pound wing star, Tom Maentz, Michigan will have a "good team."

That puts quarterback Jim Maddock, a 1954 signal-calling "find," pretty much on the spot. Michigan's mixture of T formation and single wing calls for running halfbacks to pass, but the aerial burden will fall on Maddock, 190-pound junior from Chicago.

Maddock completed 16 of 35 passes last season when he 1st won his spurs with a touchdown pass to Kramer in a 14-13 victory over Iowa. That Maddock-to-Kramer combination ostensibly is the key to Michigan's 1st Big Ten Crown since 1950.

The early pickers have wasted little time naming Kramer, considered the peer of Oosterbaan as an all-time Michigan end great, a cinch All-American and the Wolverines as strong heirs apparent to Ohio State's title.

Oosterbaan takes the favorite's role nonchalantly while, at the same time, conceding Michigan "has as good a chance as any team in the league."

"I don't pay much attention to what's in the newspapers and magazines," said Bennie, starting his eighth season as head coach.

"I hope the kids don't either," he added wryly. "an overwhelming desire for victory is needed. We got hot last year and it was mainly because the morale and spirit is high. Morale is something you don't put on like an overcoat.

"How far we can go this season depends on tangible factors, which appear favorable, but far more important, on intangible factors, namely morale.

"We really won't know how good we are until after we get a game or two under our belts."

Although Oosterbaan minimizes the importance of a home field advantage, the Wolverines will play seven of their nine 1955 games at Ann Arbor, including the 1st four — against Missouri, Michigan State, Army and Northwestern.

Wolverine coaches, right down the line, speak of the tremendously agile and aggressive Kramer in only superlative terms.

The tackle spots are Michigan's only questionable positions. Dave Owen, 216-pound soph, and senior Bill Kolesar, 221, may be starters, but Bennie will pick the 1st two "good fighters" he can find.

Guard play should be excellent with Capt. Ed Meads (of Oxford) and Dick Hill as the No. 1 pair of talented quartet. Center is well fortified with veteran Jim Bates (of Farmington) backed by Jerry Goebel and Soph Bill MacPhee.

Seasoned "handyman" Lou Baldacci is the anchor man in what may be one of the Big Ten's finest backfields. Baldacci is No. 1 fullback and also can spell Maddock at quarterback.

Tony Branoff, at wingback, is another "bread-and-butter" back, while Terry Barr gets 1st call at tailback. At this position, however, two real speedsters await the call — Tom Hendircks and soph Jim Pace.

Generally speaking, though, Michigan will rise or fall with Kramer.

Longest and Shortest

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Fred Clark served longest as a Pittsburgh Pirate manager—16 years. Honus Wagner had the shortest term. He chucked the job after four days.

ANN ARBOR — Michigan's largest home football attendance was in 1949 when 563,363 fans watched the Wolverines in six home contests.

Pitches 19 Runless Innings for Naught

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Nelson King, 27-year-old rookie pitcher, got off to a flying start this spring. He pitched 19 scoreless innings before the oppoition earned a run against his offerings. Despite his fine pitching he hadn't won a game.

Wins Flag First Year

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Donie Bush was the only Pittsburgh manager ever to win a National League pennant in his first year. That was in 1927.

Halfback Favors Radio

ANN ARBOR — Tom Hendricks, Michigan left halfback candidate and track letterman plans on a radio career following graduation next spring — as a newscaster.

WEDNESDAY'S STARS

PITCHING—Whitey Ford, Yankees, hurled his second one-hitter in six days, beating Kansas City 2-1.

Blind Linksmen Tee Off Today

International Tourney for Sightless Players Opens at Windsor

WINDSOR, Ont. (INS) — The International Blind Golfers tournament begins today at Windsor, Ont., Golf and Country Club with 15 of the best blind linksmen in the U.S., Canada and Great Britain competing for individual and team championships.

The three-day tourney is under the direction of the Royal Canadian Golf Association.

The sightless golfers will play under the same official tournament rules as other players but are allowed a "coach" who explains the hole and "lines up" each shot to be played.

The U.S. team is headed by Charley Boswell, of Birmingham, Ala., the U.S. individual champion. The Canadian group is led by Charley Tooth, of Hamilton, Ont.

A two-ball pro-blind golf match will be held today with leading pros from the Detroit area teaming with the blind golfers.

Blood Discovery Pinpoints Father in Paternity Tests

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

EAST LANSING (AP)—Paternity tests can be made much more accurate through discovery of an entirely new kind of blood type, two Canadian scientists reported today.

* * *

They find your blood has a "protein type," in addition to the usual A, B, AB or O type of blood. Your A-B-O blood type is governed by the kind of red blood cells you have inherited.

The scientists find you also inherit one of three types of particular proteins, never before detected, which float in the serum or liquid part of your blood.

Your protein type apparently is not connected with your red cell or A-B-O type.

Thus if both your parents had A type red cells you are also an A type. But if your parents' protein types differed, you inherited a different kind of protein type than they had although all three of you have A type blood.

FOLLOWS LAW

Inheritance of the protein type seems to follow exactly the same laws of genetics as does inheritance of red cell types, said Dr. Norma Ford Walker, geneticist, and Dr. Oliver Smithies, biochemist, of the University of Toronto.

Paternity tests are based on analyzing the red cell blood types of a man and woman and then seeing whether the child could be their offspring.

* * *

These tests can only disprove that one individual man could not be the father of a child by one individual woman. They cannot prove he is not the father if the child happens to have a blood type which could have resulted from the union of a different man and a woman with those same blood types.

What the protein type tests can do is to refine the question further. If the child's protein type could not have resulted from the combination of the man and woman's protein types, it would be evidence that he was not the indicated father.

Ousted Husband Turns to Arson for Revenge

INDIANAPOLIS (INS) — Cecil Gross, 30, faces arson charges as an aftermath to a quarrel with his wife, Joy, 21.

After a verbal battle, the wife said she ordered him to move out of the house. He allegedly replied:

"All right, I'll get out, but you can't have the furniture. I'll burn it before I'll let you have it."

Firemen who fought the blaze estimated the damage to the furniture and the rented house ran to $2,000.

Uncover Spy Ring in German Ministry

KARLSRUHE, Germany (UP)—The cracking of a full-fledged spy ring in the West German Foreign Ministry was disclosed today just as Chancellor Konrad Adenauer took off for Moscow.

here confirmed the arrests of

The federal prosecutor's office "several oficials" suspected of working for Soviet and East German intelligence services.

Unofficial reports said they were suspected of providing forged passports for Red agents to infiltrate West Germany.

The names of those arrested and the exact number were not disclosed.

The world has 90,000 to 100,000 more human beings each 24 hours.

Copies Public's Viewing Habits

Sticks to One Channel All Evening, Relaxes, and Enjoys Shows

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (UP)—One problem in writing a television column is that you're seldom relaxed when looking at the set. You're always hunting for something significant.

Eventually you begin to think the rest of the country looks at television the same way: carefully scouting programs in advance, organizing time to make sure they see this and that and the other, switching from channel to channel.

But most people don't watch television in this manner. Networks, agencies and experts of all kinds agree that the normal habit is to turn on the set and let her run. Thus the times before and after popular programs are valuable commercial spots.

My choice was CBS—The Ed Sullivan Show. On NBC was the Colgate Variety Hour. On ABC was a movie, something called "Devil Bat's Daughter." I don't like variety shows. But I like 'em better than movies titled "Devil Bat's Daughter." The point was that I just wanted to see if TV could entertain me.

So I turned on the Ed Sullivan Show because in the past I'd found it more entertaining than the Variety Hour. While I don't like variety shows, I like Ed Sullivan personally. His diction is so bad and he moves so awkwardly that he reminds me of myself in public.

The Sullivan show held and entertained me. The action of the "Ice Capades" at Atlantic City was good. There was music and amusement. Quite suddenly it was 9 p.m. Tune to another channel? No, sir. I was being entertained. Why should I get out of my chair?

On came G. E. Theater with Joseph Cotten starring in "High Green Wall." This was an adaptation by Charles Jackson of Evelyn Waugh's "The Man Who Liked Dickens." It was superb because Jackson stuck faithfully to the Waugh story and didn't hoke up a happy ending.

Half an hour later came Stage 7 with a slickly done item called "Where You Loved Me," starring Macdonald Carey as a clown whose wife left him. And then came Appointment with Adventure, which presented a neat drama about some zany happenings on an island. Finally came What's My Line? with the old panel shepherded by John Daly.

It was three hours since we turned on the set. I was relaxed. I had been entertained. Television had performed a great service.

It must be fun to be a normal television viewer.

Oldster Intends to Put Up Fight for Bronx Farm

NEW YORK (UP)—Peter Fusco, 78, is going to fight to keep his one-acre farm — including four cows, chickens and goats — in New York City.

The Health Department says it is against the law to keep cattle within the city limits. Also, a builder wants Fusco's Bronx property as part of a 480-family housing project.

The Health Department brought Fusco, whose sight is failing, into Magistrate's Court yesterday. Magistrate Francis X. O'Brien gave him until Sept. 26 to get rid of his cattle.

Fusco says he will disobey the court order, claiming that real estate interests are behind the prosecution.

Peron Has Big 'Oil' Headache

Proposed Pact Between Argentina, United States Causes Opposition

BUENOS AIRES (UP) — President Juan Peron's decision that he can't go it alone in the oil business has backfired into one of his biggest headaches.

* * *

A proposed contract between Argentina and a U.S. oil company is drawing fire from mmebers of the President's own Peronista party. Opponents hint the company is front for the United States.

The agreement is bogged down in the Peron-dominated Congress, and the deadline for approval is Sept. 30.

* * *

The contract would let Compania California Argentina de Petroleo, subsidiary of Standard Oil of California, explore and drill for oil in Argentina under strict regulations.

Argentina has a tough oil problem. Its government company is not producing nearly enough to serve the nation. To expand the government monopoly would take millions of precious dollar reserves. The alternative: Let a foreign company come in.

* * *

The proposed contract gives Compania California the right to build airports, roads, marine loading docks, communications and other necessary facilities. The company's concession is situated in Argentina's southernmost tip— a chill, windswept rugged stretch of Patagonia.

The company must sell all oil to the government, and the government gets half the profits. Only when there is an excess can the company sell elsewhere than to Argentina.

But the biggest argument in favor of the agreement appears the one Peron himself underlined — How else can Argentina get enough oil?

No Retirement for Him

HAYES STORE, Va. (UP) — Retire? Most folks look forward to retirement but not the Rev. Edgar C. Burnz, 75, rector of Abingdon Episcopal Church.

He tried it once for five months, but that was seven years ago. He asked the bishop to put him back to work and says he will never try it again. He was an employe of the New York State Prison Department prior to his ordination in 1920 and decided to go into the ministry while teaching printing to prisoners in Sing Sing.
