Dr. Teller Says Science Climate Sad, Dangerous

Father of H-Bomb Has Dour Report to Give on U.S. Preparedness

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Senate begins its heralded space-age investigation today with the "father of the H-bomb" prepared to give a discouraging report on America's relative scientific strength.

Dr. Edward Teller, who is credited with making the hydrogen bomb possible, is to be the leadoff witness in the Senate preparedness subcommittee's probe aimed at pushing the U.S. up to and head of Russia in missile-satellite progress.

Dr. Teller declared on the eve of the hearing that the U.S. may be ten years behind Russia in developing space-age scientists and termed this "a very sad and very dangerous situation . . . it is as if we have lost a major battle as important as Pearl Harbor."

He said young Russians dream of becoming scientists the way American girls dream of becoming movie stars and added that there must be "a change in the climate of opinion in the U.S." toward scientists.

The California scientist observed that "you can't have a football team without football fans."

HARD TO STAY NEUTRAL

Meanwhile, Army Secretary Wilber Brucker said it would be "very difficult" to keep the investigation on a non-partisan basis, as was promised by Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson, who heads the subcommittee. Brucker added, however, that "the intention is correct, and I think they are going to try to do it."

Rep. F. Edward Hebert (D-La) questioned the wisdom of having public hearings, but Brucker said

Longfellow Building Ravaged

Vandals Fire School

Vandals raged through the Longfellow School, 31 N. Astor St., Sunday shortly after noon and set fire to several rooms, smashed windows and destroyed property.

Firemen found five rooms ablaze and two hall waste paper receptacles on fire. They estimated damages at $1,500 to the building and $1,000 to contents. The fires took 70 minutes to bring under control.

An emergency maintenance crew was hastily assembled by school officials last night and by this morning all classrooms were back in use except one.

The vandals entered the school by prying the lock on a window. They set fire to several large paper mache figures in the auditorium which were made for a school program.

They ranged into five classrooms smashing dolls, igniting paper and throwing pop bottles through windows.

Pencils seemed to particularly to have aroused their anger, for they broke dozens of them. They also scrawled remarks on blackboards and teachers' desk blotters.

Adeline Hook, principal, said that the school was fortunate in that the vandals did not enter the office where records are kept or the library where they could have done more serious damage. They also stayed out of the gymnasium and kitchen.

A store room containing 125 cartons of Girl Scout candy was also overlooked.

Most of the fires were on the first floor, although one room was ignited on the second floor and another was damaged by smoke from below.

The emergency repair crew replaced windows last night until dark and cleaned up the debris in time for school this morning. In one room, however, the electrical wiring was damaged by the fire and repairs are still being made.

Police say the damage work was obviously by juveniles and are opening an investigation today. Several suspects have already been questioned.

300 Motorists Stranded by Fall Up to 14 Inches

Laredo Sees Damage to Tomato Crop; Winter Vegetables Nipped

DALLAS (AP) — A snow called the heaviest in 30 years struck deep into western and southern Texas over the weekend, stalling traffic, spreading beneficial moisture and giving the kids a thrill.

A record 14 inches of snow paralyzed Concho Texas County in lower west central Texas yesterday. An estimated 300 motorists were stranded, jamming cafes and the two hotels in Eden, Tex.

Laredo on the Mexican border had its first snow in a dozen years.

The tomato crop around Laredo was ruined and the chill weather nipped at winter vegetables in the lush lower Rio Grande Valley area at the southern tip of Texas, but it was too early to assess damage.

Constable A. C. Paris of Eden said 200 vehicles were marooned between Eden and San Angelo. No loss of life was reported nor were any motorists hospitalized.

Paris said all highways were reopened and all the stranded motorists on their way by noon yesterday.

Eden Weather Bureau observer G. H. Stiser said it was the most snow he had seen in 30 years on the job there.

Paris said he thought sheep may have suffered but said there would be no loss to grain crops in the area. The snow melted rapidly as temperatures rose to the low 50s.

Precipitation in the South occurred in association with a weak low in northern Florida. Heavy rainfall hit some areas.

Rain, drizzle and fog extended from Arkansas and Louisiana eastward through the Carolinas and Florida.

Hail and sleet pelted parts of Alabama. Hail stones the size of golf balls were reported at Cullman, in north central Alabama.

UF Campaign in Last Stretch

Pins Hopes of Victory on Final All-Out Drive by Every Volunteer

Pontiac Area United Fund leaders today pinned their hopes on an all-out, eleventh hour effort to put the 1957 drive over the top by the time the three-week campaign officially ends at noon tomorrow.

Without a successful, last minute surge in contributions, this year's drive seemed destined to fall about $30,000 short of its $612,000 goal, campaign chairman Dr. Dana P. Whitmer said today.

Tomorrow's luncheon to hear final reports and awards has "dim hopes" of becoming a victory luncheon unless the unexpected happens during the final 24 hours of the campaign, Whitmer said.

The luncheon will be at Elks Temple with Harry Wismer, radio and television sports commentator, as guest speaker.

NEED TREMENDOUS EFFORT

"Only a tremendous effort by the UF's 4,500 volunteer workers will turn the trick now," said Whitmer. He urged volunteers to report all remaining contributions to campaign headquarters immediately.

As the drive entered its final day, the giant Industrial Division stood at 80 per cent of its $404,273 goal with more than 90 per cent of the area's industrial employes contacted by the UF, said George Watson, division chairman.

The Commercial Division was about $50,000 short of its $164,280 quota, said its chairman, Carroll Osmun. The Georgraphic Division needed about $4,000 to reach its $21,548 quota, according to Mrs. Ralph T. Norvell, co-chairman.

Emphasizing that the UF goal was carefully calculated to raise the minimum amount of money needed to support the 55 UF agencies next year, Dr. Whitmer indicated there is a possibility the drive will be extended if the goal is not met by tomorrow.

"Time extensions have been used successfully in previous years when the drive failed to reach goal at deadline," he pointed out.

Nixon Warns U. S. of Greater Cold War

WASHINGTON (INS) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon has bluntly warned it would be "foolhardy" to ignore a new Communist cold war offensive in the scramble to keep pace with Russia militarily.

The vice president, who spoke in Philadelphia and Washington yesterday, declared the Kremlin is "launching right now a massive non-military offensive aimed at the overthrow of all free governments."

He said the Red offensive was mapped at the Moscow meeting last week of Communist leaders from 64 nations and was outlined in the "Khrushchev Manifesto" issued by Soviet party boss Nikita S. Khrus party boss Nikita S. Khrushchev late last week.

Nixon told the National Council of Catholic Youth at Philadelphia's Convention Hall that the manifesto "lays down a blunt challenge the free world cannot and will not ignore.'

"It would be foolhardy," he said, "for us to brush it aside on the ground that it contains the usual lies and distortions which have characterized such statements in the past."

Earlier, the vice president was the principal speaker at dedication ceremonies opening a $1,600,000 building serving as national headquarters for B'nai B'rith, Jewish service organization.

He warned of the new Kremlin campaign against the free world "in the economic, psychological and subversive fields.'

TO BE EXPECTED

2 County Men Die in Traffic

Waterford Man Killed While Crossing Dixie Highway Near Home

Two Oakland County residents were among the five Michigan weekend fatalities.

Melvin Reddick, 53, of 4274 Dixie Highway, Waterford Township, was killed 9 p.m. Saturday when he crossed Dixie near his home.

He was struck by a car driven by Ralph Mass, 23, of Capac. Mass told Pontiac Post State troopers that he did not see Reddick who was wearing dark clothes.

Walter Lee Viers, 25, of 1128 Birchwood, Troy, was killed in a two-car collision at Dequindre and 16 Mile roads, Sterling Township, at 6:55 p.m. Saturday.

Viers was driving west on 16 Mile road and collided with the auto of Andrew J. Rosnick Sr., 28, of Detroit, going north on Dequindre.

Rosnick was taken to Van Dyke Memorial Hospital with a fractured right shoulder.

Unlucky Streak May Snap With $1,200 Pot-O-Gold

If someone told you that you could have $1,200 for just a few minutes of your time, would you say no? Well, it's possible to win that much with Pot-O-Gold.

The puzzle that appears on page 18 is worth that amount for some lucky wnner. And a few minutes is all it takes to arrive at a solution and send us your entry. Don't hold back because you "never win anything." Your chances are just as good as the next person's.

However, don't forget to read the rules carefully. Your chances are nil if you mail your entry in an envelop instead of on a postcard, or if you miss the deadline, or if you write in the words instead of the numbers. Follow these few hints and you're well on your way to bulging wallet.

Painter Rivera Dies in Mexico

Detroit Institute of Arts Contains Artist's Most Controversial Murals

MEXICO CITY (AP)— Diego Rivera, whose violent paints and defiant politics made him a charging bull in the world of art, died of a heart attack early today in his studio at suburban San Angel. He was 70.

Until phlebitis paralyzed his right hand and arm several weeks ago, he was working on three paintings with the zest which characterized his work for half a century.

Only members of his family and his physician were present when he died. He is survived by his fourth wife, Ama Hurtado, and two daughters, Ruth and Guadalupe.

Rivera's most controversial murals are in the Detroit Institue of Art. They show Detroit's mass production industries. Protests centered around River's association with the communist party.

Rivera had been in and out of the Communist party since 1922. He returned only last year from Russia and proclaimed that Soviet medicine had cured him of cancer.

From his earliest days Rivera expressed defiance in his controversial paintings. At times he wore a pistol while he worked in public.

One of the last major controversies which he stirred was in 1950, when he completed a painting which the Mexican government had commissioned for an exhibition in Europe.

Government officials were appalled when they learned that the painting showed U.S. soldiers committing atrocities in Korea. The work was withdrawn from the art show.

Rivera had become popular with Americans in the 1930s. He did murals for the California School of Fine Arts and the San Francisco Stock Exchange and the Rockefellers approved his plans for paintings for the new Rockefeller Center in New York.

Cook Indian Meal at Chief Pontiac Council Site

Area Boy Scouts Tour Historic Island

Early local history was done in reverse Saturday on Apple Island in Orchard Lake. The idea was conceived by Boy Scout Troop B-26 of Bloomfield Hills, under the direction of Scoutmaster J. D. McMillan.

The members of the troop were ferried to the island in motor boats, where they were greeted by Joe Haas, Oakland County historian and member of The Pontiac Press staff.

An Indian meal was prepared over a campfire on the 35-acre island. Following the dinner, badges and awards were presented and the Scouts toured the now uninhabited island.

The setting is one steeped in local Indian history, as Apple Island was the council setting when Chief Pontiac met with his Indian braves and it was there that his conspiracy of 1763 was plotted.

To Leave 20-Year-Old Building on Perry This Week

Police Rejoice Over Move to New Quarters

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Twenty years ago the City of Pontiac gave its policemen a Christmas present.

It didn't have a big red ribbon around it. Nor was it some of that "green stuff." At the time it was a most welcomed gift. But today the police are about ready to give it right back to the city — and gladly.

The present: the police headquarters building at 8 N. Perry St.

Today, as 129 officers and personnel prepare to move to their new Public Safety Building home Nov. 30, they look back at working in the Perry street edifice with an attitude of "good riddance."

"I always wondered how those sardines felt," expressed Lt. Donny E. Ashley. "Now I know."

Back on a cold Dec. 24, 1937 a force of 65 men crossed Pike street and moved lock-stock-and-barrel into their new home on Perry. City officials told Police Chief George J. Schlamp "this is the force's Christmas present."

Then it was received much as a gift, since the guardians of the peace had been cramped in their old headquarters at 10 S. Mill St., where the Municipal Court is now.

"We've outgrown this place," said Capt. Oliver H. Lemeaux. "We've worked around leaks, the plumbing is ancient, the plaster is chipped, the floors creak . . . and you ask am I glad to move."

'We have waited for that building a long, long time," Lemeaux said as he looked back on the day he was hired as a patrolman on July 1, 1925.

Now it is moving time again. A week hence the force will pick up their belongings, say one last adieu to what one called "the Perry Prison," and move into modern offices in the $900,000 Public Safety Building.

This modern Thanksgiving gift won't only be enjoyed by police, but also by Municipal Court, Violations Bureau and police garage employes. They too will take up residence in the second civic center project.

And they're not restraining the pleasure of leaving their present offices.

"I sat there under a crack in the ceiling for five years waiting for it to fall," exclaimed Leo F. McDonald, Municipal Court clerk.

Six clerks sitting back-to-back, elbow-to-elbow were enough to show they were ready to move, as were the presence of four constables jammed in an 8 by 11 cubbyhole.

The clerk's office and two court rooms showed visibily the wear and tear of 19 years of court traffic. This was the court's first home.

Across Mill street there stands (at last report) an aged building that is on its last brick and timber. This is the sagging police garage, built back sometime around 1912. One look shows its vintage.

"How this place has stood up

Fire Hits Paper in Wyandotte

News Herald Burned but Will Publish This Week Anyway

WYANDOTTE (AP) — A roaring fire raced through the two-story Wyandotte News-Herald building yesterday and at its height threatened an entire business block in this down-river community.

The fire, which Fire Chief Floyd Scharf said apparently started in the weekly newspaper's mechanical section, was detected by two employes working in the building.

It raged out of control for five hours.

Mrs. Mahel Pollock, an auditor, and Farmer Sehll Jr., an advertising messenger, said they first smelled smoke and then saw the fire. They fled the building and reported the blaze.

Publisher William E. Kreger, former Wyandotte mayor who bought the paper last September, set the physical inventory loss at $250,000 and said $110,000 of it was insured.

The owner of the building, Charles A. Brethen, estimated the building loss at from $75,000 to $100,000 and said it was insured.

The paper, which will observe its 80th publication anniversary in January, will be published from a Detroit printing plant, Kreger said. It and a sister weekly, the South Gate Independent, have a combined circulation of 26,800 on Monday and Thursday each week.

Besides the newspaper plant, the fire destroyed the second floor offices of two doctors, a hospital insurance company, a barber shop and offices of a real estate firm and a lawyer.

Firemen reported they could not get into the building during the blaze and confined efforts mainly to keep it from spreading.

RUBY, S. C. (AP)—A milk tank truck sheared the top from a sedan yesterday and killed six members of one family. The dead: Robert Hasel Miles, 31, of Heath Springs; his wife, Christine Pierce Miles, 25; Miles' sister, Betty Jean Miles, 16; Miles' mother, Mrs. Mary Miles, 50, of Jefferson; and the two Miles children, Judy 3 and Jewel, 1. Joe Lee Mills, 17, driver of the truck, was seriously injured. The wreck occurred at the crest of a hill on a paved rural road about 50 miles south east of Charlotte, N. C.

Know the Weather

By E. H. SIMS

Do two full moons ever occur in a single month?

Yes, because the complete cycle of the moon is just under the 30-day average length of a month, the full moon comes at a different time each month—but not necessarily on a different day.

For example, full moon fell on both November 7th and December 7th this year. It drops back, gradually, a day at a time most months, occasionally two, always coming a little earlier in the month ahead than it came during the present month.

February is the only exception to this rule and the full moon will come later in March than in February, because of the shortness of February. Next year two full moons will occur in July, on the 1st and 30th. Christmas, next year, will have a full moon—which occurs but twice in the average lifetime.

Rivera Paintings Remain in Detroit Despite Shouting

DETROIT (AP) — Diego Rivera came to Detroit in the early 1930s, wearing sandals and no socks, to paint murals in the Art Institute's garden court.

When he left more than a year later it was in a swirl of controversy over his paintings, which depict auto assembly lines.

His work was Godless, said some. His paintings were grotesque cartoons, said others. They were an attack on the industrial system that built Detroit, said some.

The official statement from the Art Institute expressed satisfaction.

For a time curtains shrouded the paintings. They were withdrawn after several weeks and visitors viewed them with interest, but with none of the heat of their first days.

The fight broke out again in 1952 when Councilman Eugene I. Van Antwerp contended the paintings were a vehicle for Communist propaganda.

Again the paintings outlived the shouting. They still are on display.

Seek to Predict Fall of Sputnik I Rocket

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. scientists prepared today to feed new sighting data into an electronic brain in an effort to predict more accurately when Sputnik I's rocket carrier will fall.

Predictions during the weekend that the rocket's fall was imminent were not borne out. One British astronomer who had made such a prediction revised it to say the rocket is expected to last for several days.

Estimates are the rocket, now traveling closer to the earth than Sputnik I, has covered more than 20 million miles.

The rocket carried the world's first earth satellite into orbit on Oct. 4. A second Soviet satellite was fired aloft Nov. 3 with a dog as a passenger.

Considerable excitement was generated Friday night when British Prof. A. C. Lovell announced the rocket's end might be only a short time away.

Lovell is director of the Jodrell Bank station, which boasts the world's largest radio telescope, which has been tracking the space travelers.

However, the Jodrell Bank radio telescope located the carrier again Saturday night. It was then that Lovell changed his earlier prediction.

Police Glad to Move to New Headquarters

is the question of the century," exclaimed Mark Fetter, police mechanic of 12 years. "I thought it was going to collapse many times. Just six years ago they had to put in a steel beam when part of the roof caved in."

Fetter and Buck Throndset, a mechanic of 10 years for the city, patiently eye their new garage in the basement of the Public Safety Building.

"I don't think the old place has long to go," said Throndset. "I understand the city is going to tear it down before it dies of natural causes."

This was confirmed by City Manager Walter K. Willman. He added that the police station might be used for storage purposes.

Although he hesitated to admit it, Willman didn't deny that if the station was razed, its ancient next door neighbor, Fire Station No. 1, might collapse with it.

Out of this edifice, and into the new structure on Pike between Hill and Parke streets, will come Fire Chief John F. Schroeder and his administrative staff.

Despite the fact that they have a new front on their building, Police Violations Bureau personnel will leave their present Waldron Hotel home at 40 E. Pike St., and move up the hill also.

That has been their home since April of 1953 when they moved from a small office in the Perry police station where the identification bureau is today.

The space where the Violations Bureau is has already been rented, while the Waldron space occupied by the court is still looking for a new tenant.

Beck Jr. to Appeal Larceny Conviction

SEATTLE (AP) — Conviction of Dave Beck Jr., 37-year-old son of Teamsters Union President Dave Beck Sr., on two counts of grand larceny will be appealed and motions for a new trial will be filed, defense counsel Charles S. Burdell said today.

The young Beck was found guilty by a Superior Court jury of keeping for his own use $4,650 obtained from the sale of two Teamsters Union automobiles.

Beck is at liberty on $3,000 bond. His sentence could run up to as high as 15 years.

Neither Beck nor his father would comment on the verdict, on Saturday night.

The senior Beck is scheduled to go on trial in King County Superior Court Dec. 2 on a grand larceny count of keeping $1,900 from the sale of a union-owned automobile.

Burdell said he will move to postpone that trial in view of the result of the trial of Beck Jr. on grounds that the senior Beck could not receive a fair trial at this time.

Sees Storm Clouds Swirling

Graham Hits Godless U. S.

DETROIT (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham says God may have chosen Russia to destroy the United States as he let godless Babylon destroy his chosen people in Judea nearly 3,000 years ago.

Addressing an audience of about 4,300 at a Detroit Methodist church, Graham said the Soviet Union's space satellites are evidence that the "storm clouds of the judgment of God are gathering."

The evangelist said the people in this country are "greater sinners than the Russians. "We have greater light but we have wilfully rejected God," he declared.

Graham added that "history is repeating itself. The prophet Jeremiah warned the people of Judea to repent but they were too busy with their money-making and their pleasures."

He told newsmen after the sermon that he was convinced the United States should have a strong military defense. He pointed out, however, that we must "undergird our military might with spiritual strength or we will be destroyed by moral termites from within."

Still 3 Chances to Catch Glimpse of Sputnik Rocket

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Michigan sky watchers probably will get their final chance to see the rocket of historic Sputnik I during the week.

That is the prediction of University of Michigan Astronomer William Liller. He points out that the rocket is expected to fall to earth in mid-December.

The rocket will pass over Michigan next week and should be visible to the naked eye through Wednesday, said Liller. The rocket should appear as a high-flying airplane. It will be a single light moving slowly across the heavens from north to south for about a minute.

Liller gave this time table:

Monday approximately 5:58 p.m. appearing low in the northeast.

Tuesday, approximately 6:24 p.m. halfway up in the sky in the northeast.

'Father of H-Bomb' First Before Probers

he thought it would do good to lay the facts out before the public.

Members of the subcommittee said their over-riding objective was to smash bottlenecks that could threaten "national survival" in the Space Age. They said that if the investigation does nothing more than find out where the bottlenecks are, identify them and smash them, it will have served an immense purpose.

Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N.H.), said that the probe is concerned with "national survival" rather than merely the U.S.-Soviet race in missiles and satellites.

LISTS TESTIFIERS

Sen. Johnson said the group later will hear secret testimony from Allen W. Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence Agency; Secretary of Defense McElroy; Undersecretary Donald Quarles; and William Holaday, who heads the department's missile programs.

Two subcommittee members, Senators Bridges (R-N.H.) and Stennis (D-Miss) said in interviews they hope the hearings will clear up what they call a division of authority between Holaday and Dr. James R. Killian, whom President Eisenhower has named as a special assistant to coordinate scientific development.

Both Bridges and Stennis called for designation of a single authority to handle the job.

"We have got to have a top missile man with authority to make this program work at top speed," Bridges said.

Moroccan Monarch Flying to Washington

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Morocco's King Mohammed V flies here today to start a 19-day state tour that includes two long talks with President Eisenhower and a first-hand look at the U. S. heartland.

During the next three days, the Moroccan King and an entourage of 17 persons including his ranking Cabinet members will discuss with American officials a series of matters including U. S. military and economic aid, U. S. bases in Morocco and France's bitter dispute with Algeria.

U. S. officials would like to see France take up an offer by Tunisia and Morocco to mediate the Franco-Algerian rebel fight. But there is no intention here at the moment to pressure, or even advise, the French government along this line.

Picking Graves to Be Opened

Officials in Wisconsin Must Find Out if Gein Is Telling Truth

PLAINFIELD, Wis. (AP)—Township officials today pondered the problem of which graves to excavate to test the story of Edward Gein, who admits killing two women and plundering the graves of nine others.

No date has been set for the exhumations.

Dist. Atty. Earl Kileen of Waushara County said Plainfield Township officials were working on the selection of two graves from the list of eight provided by Gein.

The 51-year-old bachelor is in the Central State Hospital for the Criminally Insane at Waupun.

He will undergo 30 days of mental observation to determine whether he is competent to stand trial for first-degree murder. He is charged in the death of Mrs. Bernice Worden, 58-year-old widow whose mutilated body was found hanging in a shed at Gein's secluded farm Nov. 16.

The frail-looking, 140-pound handyman admits he killed and mutilated Mrs. Worden and Mrs. Mary Hogan, a Portage County tavernkeeper who disappeared Dec. 9, 1954.

Mrs. Worden's body and the heads of 10 other women were found in Gein's two-story frame house. One head has been identified tentatively by Portage County Sheriff Herbert Wanserski as that of Mrs. Hogan.

Gein insists he stole the other nine heads from the Plainfield Cemetery and the Spiritland Cemetery, located in the town of Almond in Portage County.

Commission Will Conduct Final Hearing on Zoning

BIRMINGHAM — City commissioners tonight will conduct the last of the informal hearings on the proposed zoning ordinance. The discussion will cover miscellaneous provisions mainly concerned with administrative problems.

Commissioners also will hear a report of the city's legal representative on the requested ordinance to prohibit real estate sales operations on Sundays. The report warns commissioners that there is always a possibility that the legality of such an ordinance can be questioned.

James L. Howlett, the legal adviser, said, "It is our opinion that the ordinance requested by the Birmingham Real Estate Board could be enacted.

"It should be adopted only with the understanding that there are legal questions which could be raised by persons opposed to it, and with the understanding that there are great practical difficulties in enforcing regulations of the real estate business."

Plans for this city's traditional Thanksgiving services have been completed, with First Presbyterian selected as the host church. The special sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Dr. Robert A. Macoskep, assistant pastor of First Baptist Church.

His topic for the 10 a.m. service will be "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow."

Dr. Macoskey, celebrating his second Thanksgiving in Birmingham, spent two years in Europe studying at the University of Edinburgh and Germany's University of Tubingen. He preached in many churches in the British Isles and Germany during his stay abroad.

Assisting in the service will be the Rev. Dr. W. Glen Harris of the host church, the Rev. Robert Searls, Birmingham Council of Churches president, and the Chancel Choir of the host church under the direction of Mildred G. Ritter, AAGO.

Birmingham Council of Churches announces the receipt of $2,182.70 during the UNICEF drive conducted by young church people here at Halloween.

Oakland County PEO cooperative is meeting Dec. 2 at the Birmingham Community House for a 10:30 a.m. business session and brunch.

All members unaffiliated with local chapters are invited. Reservations must be made by Friday with Mrs. S. E. Arthur, 26489 Meadowood Court, EL 6-4136. Royal Oak AD Chapter will be the hostess group.

Tom Patterson, inaugurator of a famous Shakespearean festival will be the speaker tonight for friends of the Baldwin Public Library. The 8:15 program in the library auditorium will be on the subject "An Innocent in the Theater."

'Pal' Parents Puzzling

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Advice to parents: Don't try to be pals to your children, Dr. Ralph R. Greenson, a Beverly Hills psychoanalyst, says the children of "pal" parents become confused in their relationships. He told a regional meeting of the American Psychiatric Assn., "There is no substitute for father and mother."

Flint Drive Hits Quota

FLINT (AP) — Officials of the Genesee County Red Feather charity drive said yesterday that this year's campaign reached its $1,680,595 quota. Leaders extended the drive by 10 days Nov. 13 when the quota was $74,000 short.

Machine May Serve Full Meal

Vending Industry Makes Big Plans

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The fast stepping vending industry has big plans on the drawing boards.

Engineers are working on a single machine which will serve a full meal, bringing the food from freezing storage temperature to eating temperature in less than a minute. They say this one — to serve hot food on a plastic tray along with cold salads and desserts — may be two or three years away. Cooking speed is the chief unlicked problem.

Also in the pilot state, is a machine that can take a $1 bill and make change rejecting counterfeits. And the Vendo Co. of Kansas City is trying to develop one that can distinguish between $1, $2 and $5 denominations.

Industry spokesmen say vending sales have risen about two billion dollars this year from 30 million dollars in 1925. Today there are an estimated three million machines in use, tended by 5,500 operators.

Vending machines in factories, the enthusiasts say, will make the lunch box and plant cafeteria obsolete. The National Automatic Merchandising Assn. says one out of every five manufacturing plants are using them today.

An automated cafeteria of the North Electric Co. in Galion, Ohio, uses 10 vending machines to serve 33 selections of food and beverages, available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Menus are planned a week in advance. They offer choices of three hot and cold sandwiches, three hot main courses, three hot soups, three chilled salads, three ice creams, five pastries, five pies, six cold drinks and three hot.

An apartment house in Minneapolis has machines where tenants can buy milk, bread, eggs, meat, vegetables and butter without going to the store.

The Grand Union store in East Patterson, N.J., on the other hand, has a pilot operation of outdoor vending. Eleven machines offer 58 items to belated or hurried customers.

A man with a hangover in San Antonio can put a dime in the slot and get a whiff of oxygen. A Chicago hotel lets you put a quarter in a slot and start an undulating motion in the mattress which gently rocks you to sleep.

Colorado Fugitive Still at Large

GOLDEN, Colo. - 8 discouraged officers said today they've had no trace since Friday noon of Albert Kostal, 37, accused slayer who escaped from the Jefferson County jail Thursday night.

Kostal and Arthur Watson, 30, brandished a dummy gun made of soap to bull their way out of jail in this suburban town 13 miles west of Denver. They were charged with murder in the shooting of a merchant policeman at Wheat Ridge, Colo., last Dec. 9.

Watson was recaptured a few hours later in South Denver, where their stolen car crashed.

Ex-Turncoat Turns to God

Dickenson, Free After 3½-Year Term, Plans to Become Preacher

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Edward S. Dickenson, the turncoat soldier who hopes to become a minister now that he has paid the penalty for going over to the Communists in Korea, told a church congregation last night the antidote for communism is closer relations with God.

He spoke briefly to about 50 members of the Free Will Baptist Church at Raytown, Mo., on the southeast edge of Kansas City.

Dickenson was released from the Army disciplinary barracks at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., Saturday after serving 3½ years for collaborating with the enemy and informing on fellow prisoners of war in Korea.

After the church service he left for St. Louis to visit a sister, Mrs. Paul Bryant. He plans a stop at Knoxville, Tenn., to see a brother, Charles, and hopes to be in Crackers Neck, Va., Wednesday for a Thanksgiving reunion with his parents and as many of his 12 brothers and sisters as can get home.

Dickenson plans to open a furniture repair shop at Nashville, Tenn., and study for the ministry at Free Will Baptist College at Nashville. He learned furniture repairing in prison.

The Rev. Lester Jones, pastor of the congregation at Raytown, said Dickenson did not talk about his experience as a prisoner in Korea or about his life in Communist China after he refused to be repatriated.

He told the audience about Communist recruitment and brainwashing techniques.

After the armistice in Korea, 21 Americans elected to stay with the Communists when they were released from North Korean prison camps. Dickenson was the first to change his mind and come home.

Mother Goose Parade Jolted as Horse Bolts

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—A horse ran away at the annual Mother Goose parade in suburban El Cajon yesterday and injured a dozen or more persons.

Ten were treated at hospitals. Others were bruised or cut. Five of the hospital patients were children.

Gov. and Mrs. Goodwin J. Knight were in the reviewing stand when the runaway raced past.

It had bolted from a riding stable, frightened by the noise of the parade. It brushed spectators, lining the streets by thousands, and at one intersection ran through a crowd.

Women and children were knocked down as they attempted to escape the pounding hooves.

Martha Stewart, Son Reported Feeling Fine

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Actress and singer Martha Stewart and her newborn son, David Shelley III, are reported doing well in Santa Monica Hospital.

The 6-pound, 10-ounce baby was born Saturday. Miss Stewart and her husband, recording official Dave Shelley, also have a 16-month-old daughter, Colleen.

Miss Stewart said that after she returns home from the hospital she will prepare for a return to television acting and to her singing career.

First toll road in the U. S. is believed to have been one constructed in the state of Virginia in 1786.

2-Pronged Accident Involves State Cattle

SARNIA, Ont. (AP)— Two truckloads of livestock, returning to Michigan from the Royal Winter Fair, were involved in a double-Highway 7 about seven miles east of Sarnia.

A stake truck driven by George Clayton Baker, 18, of Ada, Mich., left the pavement and rolled over in a ditch. The truck was carrying a prize herd of eight cattle valued at $3,000. Two bulls suffered damage to their horns. The driver was uninjured.

A second accident occurred when the same truck was being hooked to a wrecker. A westbound stake truck loaded with six prize-winning horses driven by Alfred Palmer, 70, of Chesaning, Mich., struck Murray Lewis, the tow truck operator, on the arm, spinning him to the pavement.

Palmer, who said he was unaware that he had sturck the man, did not stop, was apprehended at the Bluewater International Bridge and charged with careless driving. Injuries to Lewis were reported as not serious.

Gola's 20 Points Lead Warrior Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tom Gola's idea of saving up his leave time in the Army is paying off for both himself and the Philadelphia Warriors.

Gola turned in a sparkling performance in leading the Warriors to a 105-98 victory over the Minneapolis Lakers in Sunday's only National Basketball Assn. game.

The former LaSalle College All-America, playing on time accumulated because he didn't use any leave time in the Army, scored 20 points, had 14 rebounds and seven assists while waiting for his December discharge.

Spartans Pressed by Kansas State

MSU May Fumble Rating

EAST LANSING (AP)—Spartan football followers were wondering today if Michigan State has fumbled away its hold on the slippery title of top college team in the nation.

MSU finished with a successful 8-1 season Saturday by beating Kansas State 27-9.

But Michigan State had to fire in three fast touchdowns in the last 10 minutes after trailing 9-7 going into the final quarter.

The Spartans backs found the football as hard to hold as a greased pig. They fumbled from the opening kickoff right through to the next-to-the-last play and made 13 hobbles in all, losing the ball six times.

Auburn, voted No. 2 last week, finished an unbeaten, untied season by taking Florida State 29-7. Ohio State, in third, polished off Michigan 31-14 to earn even more glamur after winning the Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl bid.

All this will be figured in the voting when the sports writers pick the national champions this week.

The 13 fumbles represented a new record for Michigan State, topping an even dozen against Kansas State last year.

"Some people seem disappointed because we didn't win by more than three touchdowns," commented coach Duffy Daugherty. "We made a lot of mistakes but it takes a great team to overcome those mistakes and go on to win. They still are No. 1 in my book."

Michigan State's only sustained march in the first half was an 80-yard touchdown drive directed by Mike Panitch, quarterbacking the second team.

Passes by Panitch, complete for 22 games to Art Johnson and for 14 yards to Tony Kolodziej, were key plays in the advance. Bob Bercich scored from the one.

One of the many MSU fumbles gave Kansas State possession on the Spartan 16 and Keith Wilson scored from the five. Don Zadnick accounted for the other three K-State points by kicking the extra point and trapping Walt Kowalczyk behind his goal for a safety.

Michigan State saved itself from real trouble in the scoreless third quarter by two last-ditch goal line stands. One Kansas State drive was stopped on the one-yard line and a second just inches short of a touchdown.

Kansas State was tiring by the final period and the Spartans finally began to live up their No. 1 billing with lightning scoring thrusts.

Kowalczyk scored the first touchdown from the three, Johnson broke loose from the 28 for the second and Blanche Martin made the third from seven yards out with just 58 seconds remaining.

While waiting for a decision on the ratings, squad members will do some voting of their own tonight. The most valuable player and 1958 team captains will be announced at the annual team banquet.

BUCKEYE STOPPED — Ball carrier Bob White (33) of Ohio State was stopped on this play but not until after a gain of several yards. White did not lose a yard as he led Ohio State to a convincing 31-14 victory over Michigan Saturday at Ann Arbor.

Buckeyes Show Power in Win Over Michigan

Ohio State's Decisive 31-14 Victory Proves Big 10 Title Claim

ANN HARBOR — It was an old slambanger in typical Ohio State and Michigan fashion.

The blocking was crisp and the tackling hard.

Supporters of the victorious Buckeyes went for the goalposts before the game ended and Michigan adherents poured onto the field to stop them. Salvos of punches were thrown in the milling mob at both ends of the gridiron. But Michigan stopped the Buckeyes from pulling the steel goalposts from their concrete moorings.

Ohio State had won a decisive 31-14 triumph. The Big Ten champions proved their right to their third title in four years.

"We deserve to be national champions," coach Woody Hayes said proudly. "We're the best team in the nation."

Choruses of "yea Woody" swepted the Ohio dressing room as Hayes spoke. A year ago, the passageways of cavernous Ohio Stadium echoed with cries of "goodbye Woody." That time Michigan had won, 19-0.

For the Wolverines, it ended a lackluster season. They finished in sixth place in the conference, their first time in the second division since 1936 when Harry Kipke was coach. They always were in the top bracket during the coaching regimes of Fritz Crisler and until this season, of Bennie Oosterbaan.

Oosterbaan, concluding his 10th season, refused to say whether Michigan State or Ohio State was better.

The Spartans, who were No. 1 in last week's rankings, overwhelmed the Wolverines earlier in the season as easily as did the Buckeyes.

"Michigan State was great and so was Ohio," Oosterbaan said. "I can't recall seeing a better team from either school while I've been coach.

"As for who would win if they played, I can't say. They play different styles."

Michigan's players were a bit more outspoken. Almost to a man, they felt the Spartans would win by a shade.

What glory there was against the Buckeyes belonged exclusively to Jimmy Pace, who made his last game one of the best of his star-studded career.

Pace scored Michigan's first quarter touchdown that gave the Wolverines a short-lived 7-0 lead. The tally cinched the Big Ten scoring championship for Pace, snapping a tie with Ohio's Clark. Clark was injured and didn't play against Michigan.

The fleet Michigan left halfback became the first Wolverine since Harry Allis in 1948 to lead the Conference scoring parade. Pace tallied 54 points against league rivals and 60 for the entire season.

Ewbank Pulled 'Flea Flicker'

Colts Won on Old Play

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Colts are riding alone at the head of the Westerners in the National Football League today with the help of a "flea flicker."

What's that? It's a football play. But don't feel left out if you've never heard of it.

Coach Webb Ewbank went back in his memory about 30 years to find it.

"I was staying up nights last week trying to think up something new," he recalled yesterday after the hipper-dipper play aided the Colts in beating the San Francisco 49ers 27-21 and break a three-way tie for first place as Detroit lost to the Chicago Bears.

"I was taking a bath when I suddenly remembered a play we used when I was coaching high school. It was a play designed by the great Coach Bob Zuppke at Illinois. It was called the flea flicker."

Ewbank started coaching at Van Wert High School in Ohio in 1928, so no wonder the play was a surprise to the 50,073 pro fans yesterday and to the 49ers.

It went this way: Quarterback John Unitas took the ball from center and handed off to halfback Cotton Davidson who ran to his right as though to either pass or run. Instead, he lateraled across the field back to Unitas who passed it 32 yards ahead to the other halfback, Lenny Moore. That put the ball on the 49er 11, from where L. G. Dupre went over the goal to tie the score 14-14 at the half.

With only three more games to play, neither Coach Ewbank nor Frankie Albert of the 49ers was willing to make any predictions.

"This is a tough business," said Ewbank. "You can have a good team, play interesting games and still lose."

"I'd hate to call a winner at this point," Albert said.

Settle Southwest Title Thursday

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Texas A&M and Texas have been battling on the gridiron for 63 years but the sixty-fourth game coming up Thursday is the most important of all in the ancient series.

The Southwest Conference championship and two bowl games are bound up in this bitter rivalry that will be renewed Thanksgiving Day for the benefit of 42,000 fans—all that can get into Kyle Field—and a big segment of the television audience of the country.

If Texas should beat A&M it might win the conference championship. At the least it probably would get the Sugar Bowl bid. If A&M wins it can either tie for or grab the conference title and would be a certainty for the Sugar Bowl. If either Texas or A&M wins the championship, it will be host team in the Cotton Bowl.

STRIKES AND SPARES

By Joe Wilman

Another question which usually comes up in my bowling classes is, "Where should I keep my left arm during my approach and delivery?"

Try as I may, I still have trouble convincing bowlers that the left arm can be anywhere you want balanced. Balance is the only function of the left arm while you're making your approach or delivering the ball. Other than that, it's an unimportant detail.

Don't be conscious of it at all. It will automatically move into the best position to help you keep your balance. Today we show it extended out to the left as the bowler completes his third step. Its position will vary for individual bowlers. It will also vary throughout the approach and delivery.

The left arm will tend to drop back when you bring your right arm forward to release the ball. Likewise, when your right arm is bringing the ball back in the backswing, your left arm will probably move forward a bit.

Titans Out of Bowl Bid

DETROIT (AP) — Almost everybody said all Detroit had to do to get a bid against Drake in the Sun Bowl Jan. 1 was beat Dayton Saturday.

Gamblers, who made Detroit a six point favorite, forgot to tell Dayton Detroit was bowl-bound and the Flyers beat the Titans, 20-10, in a strong comeback.

Detroit's loss may have cost it the bowl trip, and ended a three-game winning streak. But it left coach Wally Fromhart's squad with a 6-3 record — their best in four years. Dayton now is 6-3-1.

Dayton's Claude Chaney rushed 166 yards in 15 carries, including runs of 58 and 43 yards.

With Dayton trailing by three points, the Flyers advanced 61 yards and Chaney scored on Don Zimmerman's pass from the 16 for the decisive TD.

Dayton scored first, following a pass interception returned to the Detroit 29. Chaney plunged from the two.

Two Detroit pass plays brought about a deadlock when Lou Faoro passed to Al Korpak for the score. Then Joe Pascuzzi kicked a field goal from the 15 to put the Titans on top, 10-7, following a Dayton fumble on the Flyer 27.

Careful Cooking Keeps Crisp Broccoli Bright

The abundance of broccoli is one of the happiest happenings of the autumn season. This handsome green vegetable — a cultivated and aristocratic member of the capable cabbage family — is a most generously protective food, nutritionwise.

An average helping of broccoli contains 75 per cent of the daily adult requirement of ascorbic acid and 50 per cent of the daily requirements of vitamin A, as well as helpful minerals — all this and heaven to taste! Moreover, broccoli is at peak availability at the time of year when green vegetables are welcome additions to the menu.

Choose broccoli when leaves are fresh, crisp and green; when the stalks (tenderly edible when properly cooked) are firm and not too thick; when tiny flower buds are tight and the heads compact. Heads should be rich, dark green, or green with a shadow of purplish bloom.

The high flavor and bright color of broccoli are best preserved by a minimum of cooking. If overcooked, the vegetable develops a stronger flavor and brown [illegible] due to the action of acids and heat.

TO PREPARE BROCCOLI

Wash broccoli and trim off bits of stem end, but do not remove the stem. (The whole stalk is edible.) Make lengthwise gashes in the stems, almost to the flowerettes, if they are more than ½-inch in diameter.

UPRIGHT METHOD:

Tie in a bunch; stand upright in the bottom part of a double boiler, containing about 1-inch boiling water and ½ teaspoon salt. Bring to boiling point and cook 5 minutes. Cover with the inverted top of double boiler and cook 10 to 15 minutes or only until crisp-tender.

SAUCEPAN METHOD:

Prepare broccoli as in above directions. Place loose in a saucepan with 1-inch boiling water and ½ teaspoon salt. Cook with cover off the first 5 minutes and then cook covered 10 to 15 minutes or only until crisp-tender.

Or if desired, leave cover on during the entire cooking period, but lift the lid 3 to 4 times to permit the gases to escape. Cook only until crisp-tender, 15 to 20 minutes.

Wash broccoli and trim. Split large stalks in half or in quarters lengthwise. Place in a saucepan with 1-inch boiling beef or chicken broth and ½ teaspoon salt. Bring to boiling point without cover and cook 5 minutes. Cover and boil 15 minutes or until just crisp-tender.

Drain, if necessary. Add butter or margarine. Cover and let it melt. Sprinkle with black pepper. Serve hot with wedges of fresh lemon or lime. Yield: 6 servings.

Substantially a Fruit Medley

A salad that needs no last minute preparation is a blessing to the cook, especially during the hustle and bustle of preparing holiday dinners.

Cranberry Apricot mold has the quality of being ready to turn out on lettuce leaves just before dinner is "lifted." In other words, it really doesn't require salad dressing, for cottage cheese is folded into the fruit mixture helping to create a substantial salad.

Ground raw cranberries, canned apricots and pecans lend flavor and crunchiness to the mixture.

Serve a Delicate Dessert

The French word for "chestnut" is "marron", and Parfait Marron is made with ice cream and marrons in syrup which are sold in jars by almost all grocery specialty shops. You'll want to cut the whole marrons into smaller pieces.

Then, for a tasteful topping, make up a small bowlful of coffee whipped cream. With plenty of ice cream in the refrigerator, you are ready to assemble an unusual and luscious dessert creation, quite fitting and proper for the Thanksgiving feast.

For an added note of grandeur, you will enjoy serving after-dinner coffee in your daintiest demitasse cups. The black, fragrant coffee lends a final note of graciousness to this traditional family dinner. And it is also the perfect flavor accompaniment to these sweet, delectable parfaits.

Parfaits Marrons

1 jar marrons in syrup
1 quart vanilla ice cream
1 cup heavy cream
2 teaspoons instant coffee
1 tablespoon sugar

Remove whole marrons from syrup and chop into small pieces, returning to syrup. Spoon alternate layers of vanilla ice cream and marrons in syrup into deep dessert glasses. Top with coffee whipped cream, made by whipping heavy cream until it forms soft peaks, then gradually beating in mixture of instant coffee and sugar. Serves 5 or 6.

Crunchy Cups Hold Chicken

A well - flavored creamed dish such as Chicken a la King or Shrimp Wiggle served in crunchy nut-lined toast cups is easy to make, as well as light and attractive. For real time-saving try frozen Chicken a la King and use the pecans that come in handy one-cup size cans. The pecans are vacuum-packed for really fresh flavor and the lids are re-sealable, too. Here is the recipe for Royal Toast Cups, to fill with Chicken a la King.

PLANTATION WAFFLES — A treat for the family is breakfast in bed with tender Louisiana Yam Waffles, link sausages, fresh grapefruit and milk.

Lazy or Active Breakfast Better With Yam Waffles

If you're wondering when breakfast in bed would be most appropriate in your family, what about the morning after your daughter's first big dance, or her first weekend home from college? What about the time your son brings home a straight "A" report card, or makes the winning touchdown in a crucial game?

Then there's dad's promotion, or the time he makes a hole-in-one . . . and mother takes first prize at the garden show or chairmans a successful club function. These are only a few of the many ways a breakfast tray can be best used to give extra meaning to an important occasion. And it's even more fun if you make it a surprise.

It's little things, like a breakfast tray on special occasions that can bring a family closer together. So why not try it at your home . . . it doesn't have to be fancy, the bread board covered with a cloth will do fine . . . and serve any of these delicious yam waffle recipes.

Plantation Waffles

2¼ cup sifted all-purpose flour
1½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
1¼ cups mashed cooked yams
1 cup buttermilk
1 egg, beaten
3 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

Sift flour, baking powder, salt, cinnamon and nutmeg together. Combine remaining ingredients; blend. Add sifted ingredients; mix well. Bake on hot waffle iron. Makes about four waffles.

Yam Nut Waffles

1¼ cup mashed cooked yams
1 egg, beaten
3 tablespoons melted shortening
1 cup milk
1 cup pancake mix
¼ cup chopped pecans

Combine yams, egg, shortening and milk; blend. Add remaining ingredients; mix well. Bake on hot waffles.

Serve Old Food in New Style

"The same old food in the same old way" need not apply to anything on your table.

Both familiar canned beef stew and canned tomatoes are pleasantly different in these two mouthwatering recipes, and together they make a tempting main course for anytime.

Tomatoes Au Jus

1 tablespoon butter, or margarine
2 tablespoons chopped onion
2 tablespoons minced parsley
1 can (16 oz.) tomatoes
Salt, pepper

Cook butter until lightly browned. Add onion, parsley and liquid drained from tomatoes; cook down to about ½ cup. Add tomatoes, and heat. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Three to four servings.

Curried Stew 'n' Noodles

1 cup cooked noodles
1 teaspoon curry powder
1 can (1 lb.) beef stew
1 cup grated American cheese

Arrange drained noodles in bottom of baking dish. Mix curry with beef stew and spoon over noodles. Sprinkle with cheese, and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) about 25 minutes. Six servings.

quently until cheese melts. Serve hot over croquettes.

Place soup, milk and cheese in saucepan; cook over very low heat or in double boiler, stirring fre-

New Chip Dip Using Turkey Can Be Broiled

Homemakers always are looking for ways to use leftovers from big holiday feasts, especially the remnants of the "big bird" — the turkey.

Leftover chunks of turkey make an ideal base for a potato chip dip — "Turkey Tang-O Dip for Chips."

8 ounces Old York Cheese
¾ cup minced cooked turkey
¼ teaspoon Worstershire sauce

Whip cheese until creamy. Add minced turkey and seasonings. Pile on potato chips. Place under broiler flame until cheese starts to melt. Serve at once.

OR

Place cold Tang-O mixture in serving bowl. A small amount of mayonnaise may be added when the dip is served cold.

Nuclear Research Center Going Up Near London

LONDON (INS)—Britain, determined to keep her world lead in the development of atomic power, began construction today of a mammoth $560 million nuclear research center.

The new center at Winfrith Heath in Dorset County, west of London, will be bigger and better than the one at Harwell, Britain's first. It will be the largest such installation in Europe.

Winfrith Heath will be devoted entirely to the development of new types of atomic reactor furnaces, freeing Harwell for purely basic research.

More than a half-dozen experimental reactors will be built at the new center in the first few years after its completion in an effort to find more efficient and economical reactors for atomic energy electric power plants.

One of the first experimental reactors, for which a contract already has been awarded, will be capable of operating at a temperature of about 1,400 degrees Fahrenheit. The commercial atomic power stations now being built in Britain are designed to run at temperatures of about 700 degrees Fahrenheit.

This new reactor, which will cost some $5,600,000, also will be far less bulky than the type now in operation at the Calder Hall atomic power plant which began producing electricity earlier this year.

TO POWER SHIPS

Other experimental reactor furnaces to be built at Winfrith Heath include two prototype units for use in the propulsion of surface ships and possibly another unit for propulsion of submarines. There is also likely to be another experimental reactor for power production which burns uranium in liquid state.

The plan is for Winfrith Heath to show what types of reactors are worth further development. Then the atomic energy authority would build full-scale prototype reactors to test them as operational units.

Alternatively private industry could be asked to carry out the further development work on reactors which Winfrith Heath has demonstrated are likely to work well.

It is understood, however, that the work on harnessing thermonuclear energy — the energy released by an H-bomb—now being carried forward at Harwell will remain at that station.

Fine Chicago Lawman Who Helped Hodge

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—William Lydon, suspended Chicago policeman, was convicted late Saturday night of conspiring with imprisoned State Auditor Orville Hodge to defraud the state and was fined $2,000.

J. H. Weiner, Lydon's attorney, said he probably will ask for a new trial.

The 49-year-old ex-policeman was accused of obtaining false bids on statehouse remodeling projects in a conspiracy to defraud the state of $88,787 in fake warrants. Others named as conspirators in the indictment were Hodge; his assistant, Edward Epping; and Edward Hintz, former Chicago banker.

Hodge, Epping and Hintz pleaded guilty and have been in prison for more than a year.

Negotiators to Meet on Chrysler Strike

DETROIT (AP) — Negotiators were scheduled to resume efforts today (10 a.m.) to settle a seven-day-old strike at the Chrysler Corp.'s Plymouth engine plant.

Company and United Auto Workers Local 51 representatives met for four hours yesterday. Neither side commented on the discussion.

The plant's 2,000 UAW members left their jobs last Monday in a dispute over production standards. The union charged a company speed-up.

Chrysler spokesmen, who said the strike stemmed from the discharge of a worker for refusing to do work assigned him, violated the contract with the firm. The strike has been sanctioned by the UAW's international executive board.

The company said the strike eventually may result in idling 20,000 more employes in assembly plants at Detroit, Indiana, Delaware and California.

Liberian Tanker Launched in Japan

KOBE, Japan (AP)—A 38,750-ton Liberian tanker was launched here today by Japan's Kawasaki Dockyard Co.

The tanker, ordered by the Ocean Oil Associates, Inc., of New York, is expected to be completed by Jan. 31.

The ship is equipped with a 16,500-horsepower turbine. It cost an estimated $5,925,972 to build.

Belmoral Action on Tap Tonight

Waterford Board Will Decide on Subdivision Plat Petition

Definite action regarding the approval of the Belmoral Subdivision plat in Waterford Township is expected when the township board meets tonight.

The real estate development involving 102 lots is located at Hatchery and Crescent Lake roads. The owners have asked the board to consider approving only 31 lots. This would eliminate the central water system installation which the board has recommended.

The rural zoning changes recommended at a special board meeting last week will be reviewed and sent to the township zoning board for additional recommendations. The zoning board will then set a hearing date and the township board will take final action.

The names of individuals will be considered to replace four members of the township zoning board whose four-year terms expire December 1.

The members whose terms expire are : Henry Melberg, Herbert VanWelt, Harry Bartrum and Harley Stephens.

Death Notices

MORLEY J. NEWMAN

ORION TOWNSHIP — Service for Morley J. Newman, 61, of 2509 Waldon Rd., will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday from Allen's Funeral Home. The Rev. Aldred Eddy of Oxford will officiate. Masonic graveside service will be conducted by the Orion Lodge No. 46, F and AM. Burial will be in the Perry Mount Park Cemetery, Pontiac.

Besides the Masonic Lodge, he was a member of the Elks, BPOE 810 of Pontiac. He was born, raised and died on a farm that had been in the family since 1837. He leaves his wife; a sister, Mrs. Frank Cobb, and a brother, Gleason, both of Pontiac.

WALTER L. VIERS

TROY — Service for Walter L. Viers, 25, of 1128 Birchwood St., who was fatally injured in an auto accident Saturday morning, will be held Tuesday at 11 a.m. in the Grundy Funeral Home, Grundy, Va. Burial will be in the Family Cemetery. Local arrangements were by Price Funeral Home, Troy.

He is survived by his wife, Arlene; two children, Randy Lee and Bradley, both at home; his parents in Virginia; three brothers, Charlie Clyde of Troy and two in Haysi, Va.; three sisters in Haysi, Va., and two in Madison Heights, Mrs. Olive Rose and Mrs. Maggie Singleton. Another sister, Mrs. Elsie Compton of Detroit, also survives.

Man Hurt in Blast Is Slightly Improved

H. K. Johnson, injured in the explosion at Pontiac Varnish Co., Nov. 18, is reported today slightly improved at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, but his condition is still critical.

Johnson, 44, of 97 Prall, received third degree burns in the milling department explosion and fire, which took the lives of two fellow workers.

Waterford Home Gutted by Flames From Chair

Fire spread throughout the $5,000 five-room frame home of Lee Hall, 3130 Deland St., Waterford Township, last night causing at least $1,500 damage, according to township firemen.

They said the blaze was started in a living room chair, possibly from the careless smoking of a cigarette. No one was in the house at the time of the fire.

Hunting Accident Kills Ionia County Farmer

IONA (AP) — Cleo Sease, 50, of Rural Lake Odessa, suffered a fatal bullet wound yesterday when his gun discharged accidentally while he hunted on his farm in Ionia County.

Searse's death brought to five the number of persons who have died in gunshot accidents since the start of the 16-day deer season Nov. 15.

Police Seek 4 Bandits in Theft From Driver

Bandits who stopped a moving car and robbed the driver are being sought by Pontiac police today.

Edward S. Yukawa, of W. Long Lake Road, Bloomfield Township, told police he was driving east on South Blvd. near Highland, when four men jumped in front of his car. When he stopped, the men made him get out of his car at knife point and robbed him of $8, he said.

Yukawa said he saw a chance to break away and ran up the road with the four men pursuing him. At Franklin road and Fildew avenue, he ran to a private house and called the police.
