United Fund Is Reported at 63 Per Cent of Goal

The Pontiac Area United Fund drive has collected $358,026 since beginning last Tuesday, 63 per cent of the $562,175 sought.

Campaign Manager Robert M. Critchfield made the announcement today before 250 volunteer workers from Pontiac and Waterford Township attending a report luncheon at Stevens Hall, Pike and Williams streets.

Recent UF contributions audited at headquarters in the Hotel Pontiac include Stewart-Glenn Co., firm and employes, $803; Pontiac State Bank employes, $511; Drayton Plains branch of the Pontiac State Bank, $150.

H. Wayne Gabert, firm and employes, contributed $355; Federal Department Store, $500; Oakland County CIO Council, $100 and Outdoor Parking Co. employes and firm, $700.

P. T. Standard Parts contributed $100; Hagler's Radio Shop, $85; Warren Alloy employes, $173 and A&W Root Beer, $65.

"Early reports look encouraging," Critchfield said yesterday, "although somewhat slow in coming in. If workers will bring to headquarters what they have so far, instead of waiting until all calls are complete, we can judge our progress better."

Ask Court Rule of Stanley Mack

Action Follows Slaying of Younger Brother in TV Argument

LAPEER — Undersheriff William J. Porter will file a petition recommending that Stanley A. Mack, 7-year-old son of Mrs. Florence Harp of Lum, be committed to the jurisdiction of the Probate Court of Lapeer County as a juvenile delinquent.

This action follows the death of Lawrence Mack, 6-year-old brother of Stanley, on Monday afternoon.

Stanley loaded a .22 rifle and shot his brother following an altercation over the switching of channels on the television set. The rifle belonged to the boy's stepfather, Robert Harp, employed by Pontiac Motor Division.

A conference Tuesday by Sheriff Gregory Clark; County Prosecutor George D. Lutz and Mrs. Bernice Tunison, county juvenile agent, resulted in the decision to place Stanley under the jurisdiction of the Probate Court.

Mrs. Tunison has been appointed to investigate and keep Stanley under surveilance indefinitely.

Man, We're Fatties

DETROIT (AP)—Overweight Michigan residents are carrying around an excess of 36,288,000 pounds. So says Mrs. Tillie Lewis, a nutrition expert whose survey indicated that 1,944,000 of Michigan's 7,200,000 residents are overweight.

Michigan Legislators Tour Ohio Turnpike

Favor State Toll Road After Trip

"If we can be shown construction of a toll road in Michigan is feasible, we're not going to have any one man stand in its way."

This statement was made last night at the Commodore Perry Hotel in Toledo by Rep. Emil A. Peltz (R-Rogers City), chairman of the Michigan House's Roads and Bridges Committee.

Peltz spoke after he and his committee plus some members of the Senate Highways Committee were conducted on a tour of the new 241-mile Ohio toll road by the Michigan Turnpike Authority (MTA).

The "one man" referred to in his statement was taken as meaning Michigan Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler who has remained steadfast in his resolve to build a north-south freeway in the state paralleling the proposed Rockwood-Saginaw toll-road route.

If Ziegler does not back down, observers feel the threat of a parallel freeway taking potential traffic from the toll road would make it impossible to sell toll-road bonds.

"After seeing this Ohio turnpike," said Peltz, "I wish we could have one in Michigan. If legislation is necessary to make it feasible, I will support it."

Four of the five other Michigan legislators who took the tour spoke in favor of a toll road for the state, while one said he would not commit himself until he had gathered more facts.

The group had entered the Ohio Turnpike at Maumee, Ohio, and been conducted east along it to Elyria, Ohio, by members of the J. E. Greiner Co., consulting engineers for both the Ohio and Michigan turnpike authorities.

Elyria Mayor J. Grant Keys described the controversy which raged in his city of 35,000 when it was learned the Ohio toll road was routed in its vicinity.

"A hysterical reaction broke out," he stated, "which I feel resulted mainly from individual selfishness.

"It was rumored that the route would bisect Elyria, when actually it barely nipped our northeast corner.

"It was said our most exclusive residential area would be ruined and residents there made a loud noise because they had the financial means of offering protest. They organized protest meetings, but their group dissolved as the facts came to light.

"People seemed only concerned with the disadvantages. They didn't care where the route was moved, only so that the change would benefit them.

"Hundreds of armchair engineers suggested just where the pike should go, disregarding the fact it had been laid out by skilled engineers to do the least damage and give the most benefit."

The turnpike has not proved to be a "Chinese Wall," as many feared, he stated. "All crossroads were either under or overpassed. There was no isolation of school districts.

Residential building was not forced away from the road. We

Catholic Priest, Red China Captive, Reveals Horror of Communist Prison

MUSKEGON (AP)—". . . Do not worry; I am fast becoming my old self—a human being."

Rev. Harold W. Rigney, released Sept. 16 after four years and two months as a prisoner of the Chinese Reds, sent those words in a recent letter to reassure his sister, Mrs. Thomas Haggerty of Muskegon.

Father Rigney, former Dean of the Roman Catholic Fu Jen University in Peiping, wrote from Hong Kong:

"I am at long last free from four years and two months of hell!!!! May the good God eternally bless you for all you did for me."

His letter, describing the captivity, said:

PUT IN CHAINS

"In my first 50 days of imprisonment in 1951, I was allowed only two nights sleep. I was getting delirious, seeing animals all around the wretched, rat-infested cell and the court room. In this condition I was condemned to death and, in chains that cut deep into my flesh, I walked out to the execution grounds to be shot."

He wrote that, on another occasion in court, he was so exhausted he could not keep awake and "confessed" he had led a plot to murder Mao Tse Tung. The Red judge ordered execution by firing squad but postponed the sentence.

Father Rigney also wrote of being forced to admit, falsely, under torture that he was an FBI agent and endured added acts of brutality because of this.

ALMOST LOST MIND

"In January, 1954, I began to lose my mind and it was only by strenuous effort and prayer that I could hold myself from the tortures of the cellmates and the cruel Communist brutes, and keep from going stark mad as others did."

Father Rigney, formerly of Chicago, thanked all those who helped him gain freedom. Many Western Michigan residents had answered Mrs. Haggerty's plea and joined a letter-writing campaign urging the State Department to intervene in obtaining his release.

GAINED 25 POUNDS

The priest told of a wonderful welcome given him at the Hong Kong border by British officials and British and U. S. Red Cross.

"I felt like kissing the ground of Hong Kong . . . I will never forget the kindness of these good people."

Father Rigney wrote he has gained 25 pounds since his release.

He intends to confer with his Hong Kong superiors about the plight of Fu Jen University then fly to Rome to present the major problems to church officials. If his Rome visit is postponed, he will fly immediately to the United States to visit with his relatives.

Dulles Holds Little Hope of Talks Ending Unrest

WASHINGTON (INS)—John Foster Dulles meets the Russians in Geneva next week without any real hope of an early end to the cold war.

If the Secretary of State had held any hope earlier it would have been killed by the new Russian campaign to dominate the Middle East by peddling arms for influence. That is real cold war.

That campaign tended to confirm Western suspicions that all the Russians wanted from the "Geneva spirit" of conciliation generated by the summit conference last July was a stalemate in Europe and a free hand everywhere else.

The best brains in Washington believe that what will come out of the Geneva meeting of the foreign ministers of Britain, France, Russia and the U. S. starting Oct. 27 is this:

1. A bare minimum of progress toward reunification of Germany and toward a European security system and disarmament—just enough progress to warrant another foreign ministers meeting later.

2. Some progress toward breaking through the Iron Curtain with trade and cultural contacts. Both East and West have their reasons for and against this broadening of contacts. The West seems willing to take a calculated risk and relax restrictions on trade and travel.

Cloudy, Cool Again Is Area Prediction

The U. S. Weather Bureau predicts little change in weather or temperatures tomorrow. The skies will be cloudy today and continue through the night and tomorrow. The forecast for today is a high of 60 and a low tonight of 40-44.

Tomorrow may be a little warmer with a high of 60-64. A year ago today was fair with a high of 50 degrees.

The lowest thermometer reading before 8 a.m. this morning in downtown Pontiac was 45 and registered 48 at 11 a.m.

Three Chicago Teenagers Found Brutally Murdered

CHICAGO (INS)—A stunned Chicago wanted the answer to these two questions today—who killed three model teen-age boys and why?

The triple murder set in motion the greatest search for the slayer in the history of the city.

There are few clues for police to sift through in the search for the killer of three Chicago boys.

Police today admitted they have little evidence of how the youths were brought to Robinson's Woods, a forest preserve on the edge of Chicago. Their bodies were discovered in a ditch.

A black, oily substance was found on the feet of the boys, Robert Peterson, 14; John Schuessler, 13, and his brother, Anton, 11.

That led police to the theory they were slain elsewhere and then taken to the preserve district parking lot.

The body of one of the boys had abrasions on the back and elbows.

Police say this suggested the body had been dragged.

It also had impressions on the back, indicating it had lain on a corrugated surface, such as an auto floor mat, after being stripped.

A search for the boys' clothing uncovered two pairs of shorts, a blue shirt, a piece of white cheesecloth, a rope

Models Go on Display in Showrooms Friday

4 and 2-Door Catalinas Available in All Three Series for Coming Year

By ROBERT B. TARR
Pontiac Press Managing Editor

Pontiac's 1956 cars go on public display Friday.

New models in a dazzling array of new colors and color-combinations have been rolling off the assembly lines here since Oct. 3. The '56 Pontiacs will appear in a wider range than ever before, with 15 models in three series.

For the first time there will be six Catalinas: Two and four-door hardtop models in the Star Chief, 870 and 860 series. Other major developments for the 1956 Pontiacs include:

Completely new hydramatic transmission;
Larger and more powerful V-8 engines.

The new cars will be shown here at the Pontiac Retail Store, Mt. Clemens and Mill streets, beginning Friday. Display rooms will remain open until 10 p.m. Saturday.

After a record year in which 552,000 of the 1955 models were produced, Pontiac Division of GM has set its minimum goal at 700,000 for the coming year. This will be 9 per cent of the total estimated industry production for the coming model year.

The new automatic transmission, introduced for the first time, employs a controlled fluid coupling.

According to R. M. Critchfield, general manager of Pontiac Division, "it represents the most important improvement in automatic transmissions since hydramatics were introduced."

The new transmission design includes a parking position on the control lever. This makes it possible to park on an incline and stop and start the motor there without difficulty.

Foremost among the mechanical improvements in the 1956 Pontiacs are the new V-8 engines with 227 horsepower in the Star Chief series and 205 in the 870 and 860 series. The greater horsepower comes from the increased displacement, higher compression ratios up to 8.9:1, and improved carburetion.

Pontiac offers three body series in 1956. Longer by 2.4 inches overall, the 15 new body styles have a longer, lower looking silhouette.

Most luxurious of the three series, the Star Chief line consists of the custom Catalina two and four-door "hardtops," four-door sedan, and convertible, on a 124-inch wheelbase

Sylvan Council Ponders Petition

Signers Are Seeking Zone Change Allowing New Lumberyard

Sylvan Lake's City Council will meet tonight to determine whether or not to put a petition-originated zoning ordinance on the ballot.

The council will weigh on initiatory petition filed by approximately 23 signers requesting an amendment of the city's zoning ordinance to permit construction of a lumberyard on Orchard Lake road.

John L. Estes, city attorney, said today he believed that it is illegal for a zoning ordinance to be amended by initiatory procedure.

He said the three Oakland County circuit judges recently ruled that Oak Park could not amend its zoning laws by that method.

The council also faces the question of whether it has the authority to determine the legality of the procedure and whether it could refuse to act, Estes said.

The thorny problem stems from a rejection by the council last month of a request to rezone a five-acre L-shaped section of land running from Orchard Lake avenue to the Grand Trunk Western Railroad and then to Inverness.

Rezoning was sought so a lumber company could build a yard on the site, which is presently zoned for retail business only. Samuel G. Warwick, owner of the land, sparked the circulation of petitions.

According to the city charter, within 30 days of receiving initiatory petitions the council must enact the proposal or present it to the electors.

Live Blockade Wins Light on Telegraph

TAYLOR TOWNSHIP — (INS) Work was scheduled to begin today on a traffic light at the intersection of Telegraph and Wick roads in Taylor Township.

* * *

Quick action on the light, long-sought by township residents, was prompted yesterday by a demonstration of 200 women who blockaded the crossing and then risked their lives to direct traffic.

The women were aroused to the demonstration by the traffic death Monday of a popular Taylor Center High School teacher.

Mrs. Bernice McDowell, 29, an expectant mother, was killed when her auto struck a truck at the intersection. She was trying to make a left turn near the intersection while en route to school.

* * *

However, Wayne County Road Commission officials have pointed out that the light itself will not prevent left-turn accidents of the kind that resulted in the teacher's death. They said left turns would be prohibited when the light was installed since they feel that is the best way to prevent such accidents.

U.S. Struggling to Win U.N. Seat for Philippines

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States pressed to rally wavering support today for the Philippines in renewed balloting for a disuted U.N. Security Council seat. But diplomats felt there was almost no chance of beating Yugoslavia, now backed by both Britain and Russia.

* * *

With the United States staking its prestige on a Philippine victory, the Asian country's veteran delegate, Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, voted he would stay in the fight until the end.

* * *

U.N. circles felt Romulo's chances faded after Britain passed word she was openly supporting Yugoslavia. A British spokesman denied reports his delegation was openly campaigning for Belgrade, but everal diplomats said they had been approached.

Probe of Noise to Be Conducted

City Manager Willman to Investigate Reports on Baldwin Rubber

City Manager Walter K. Willman last night was assigned to investigate reports of air pollution and excessive noise stemming from the Baldwin Rubber Co. plant on South boulevard.

The action was taken by the City Commission after a South boulevard resident complained that fine black dust and excessive noise from escaping steam were coming from the rubber plant.

Willman was also asked to look into reports of fly ash emitting from the Pontiac Motor Division after Commissioner John A. Dugan (District 5) said "the problem is getting to a point where something has to be done."

The manager said he understood the auto company already has under way an extensive program to eliminate the dust-like ash.

He added that Pontiac Motor has engineers studying the problem of toxic waste removal from the plant. The plant was identified as the accidental source recently of chrome compound which polluted the Clinton River and Utica's water supply.

State Employes Vote for Social Security

LANSING (AP) — State employes have voted overwhelmingly in favor of combining their own pension plans with Federal Social Security.

Donald M. O'Hara, executive secretary of the Employes' Retirement System, said 18,053 of 19,333 who have voted so far have accepted the plan.

"That is more than 90 per cent of the 23,000 who are eligible to vote," O'Hara said. More returns on the balloting, conducted last week, are still due.

Approval of only 12,500 employes was needed to put the program in effect, O'Hara said.

Under the plan, employes will pay three per cent of their salaries to the state pension fund and two per cent for federal social security.

Resulting benefits will be 100 per cent higher in the upper wage brackets and 25 or 30 per cent higher in the lower pay scales, O'Hara said.

He'll Stay Right There

CHELSEA, Vt. (AP)—Henry Jelbert, 49, of Chicopee, Mass., won't have to go far to serve the 30 days to which he was sentenced yesterday in Municipal Court on a charge of intoxication. He will serve time in Orange County Jail, where he is employed as a cook.

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, president of the Houston Post and former secretary of health, education and welfare, will be presented an award by the State Fair of Texas as the Woman of the Year today.

Parents of Murdered Boys Appalled by Brutal Deaths

CHICAGO (INS) — High-sounding theories brought no consolation to the families of the three boys found slain yesterday. They, and all Chicago, wanted to know why the boys were singled out for a cruel death.

* * *

The three youths were described as "good boys" by their parents, friends, teachers and minister. Their school principal also said they were "model" examples of fine youths.

In a well-kept, light-yellow brick bungalow on Chicago's northwest side, Mrs. Anton Schuessler, 37, sat on a couch and mumbled:

"My life . . . my arms . . . my legs . . . now gone."

Over and over again she repeated these words. Once she started up from the couch and shouted:

"I want my boys! I want my . . ."

Her husband, who had viewed the bodies of his two sons at the county morgue, fell to his knees before his wife and cried:

"Mother, Mother. Our boys . . ."

At the nearby Malcolm Peterson home, another mother and another father were in a similar state of shock.

"Why," he asked neighbors who came to comfort him, "Why does it take a crisis to alarm the community? Why?"

Peterson's cousin, Bert Peterson, asked the same question.

* * *

"Every year this happens to the child of some family. It seems they have to be killed. When on earth are they going to stop this?"

Bloomfield Club to Present Show on Native Africa

The Bloomfield Hills Camera Club will sponsor an exhibit of color slides dealing with the customs and mores of the African natives by Isadore Berger, Detroit attorney and traveler, at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Cranbrook Institute of Science.

Berger will give an account of his 30,000 miles of traveling with the presentation of the color slides and will also introduce a tape recording of the tribal war dances and other sounds of the African world.

Departing from America in December, 1954, Berger arrived in Cairo, Egypt in January and then proceeded to make his journey southward along the Nile River, over the mountains of eastern Africa, through the jungles of the Belgian Congo, and finally arriving at Cape Town in South Africa in February of 1955. For transportation, Berger traveled by plane, boat and train.

Some of the highlights on the trip included the sights of Victoria Falls, Mt. Kilmanjaro, tribal war dances by the various African tribes, the Sudan and the visits into the famous diamond and gold mines of the Kimberley mine fields.

Governor Orders Guard Cut at Perfect Circle

NEW CASTLE, Ind. (AP)—The National Guard had orders from Gov. Craig today to cut by half the force patrolling Perfect Circle Corp. strike areas, and Craig had a personal pledge of no violence from President Walter Reuther of the CIO United Auto Workers.

The Guard force will be cut to about 300 Thursday, but martial law will remain in effect throughout Henry County and in Hagerstown east of New Castle in Wayne County.

The no-violence pledge came from Reuther in a 700-word telegram in which he told Craig he thought the Governor had doublecrossed the union in the Perfect Circle dispute.

Pontiac Deaths

Elmer Cyrenus Beecher

Elmer Cyrenus Beecher was taken from the Pursley Funeral Home to the Gerber Funeral Home, Wakeman, Ohio this morning where service will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday. Burial will be in Berlinville, Ohio.

He died Tuesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Arthur Lambert of 1550 Petrolia St.

Howard Jackson Jr.

The funeral for Howard Jackson Jr., four-year-old son of Howard and Junita Jackson of 334 Howard McNeill St. will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday in the Trinity Baptist Church. The Rev. Richard H. Dixon Jr. will officiate with burial in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Howard was born in Pontiac July 5, 1951. He died Sunday after a brief illness.

Besides his mother and father, he is survived by a brother, Paul and two sisters, Cathrine and Joyce, all at home.

Friends may call at the Carruthers Funeral Home after 7 this evening.

Lawrence J. Mack

Service will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday from the Voorhees-Siple Chapel for Lawrence J. Mack of 5744 Lum St., Lum. Dr. Tom Malone of the Emmanuel Baptist Church will officiate with burial in Perry Mt. Park Cemetery.

Besides his mother and stepfather Robert and Florence Carpell Harp, he is survived by several brothers and sisters and two grandmothers, Mrs. Amy Harp of Pontiac and Mrs. Ann Borrell of Chicago. He died suddenly at his home Monday. Lawrence was born in Chicago June 18, 1949. He had lived a short time in Pontiac.

Oxygen Chaser Helps Drinkers Sober Up Fast

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—If you're the tipsy type that usually has one drink too many at the tavern, now you can literally breathe easier.

Hy Koppelman, president of a soft-drink firm here, has invented what he calls an "air-o-meter." You drop a quarter in the machine, put an attached mask over your nose and mouth, and inhale pure oxygen for five minutes.

That, said Koppelman, should bring you out of pink elephant land.

"Of course," he adds, "sometimes it'll take two quarters to do it."

Koppelman said his machine also can be used to "bring relief from asthma, hay fever, migraine headaches and especially the tiredness that drivers get after much riding."

The device is on display at the 36th annual convention of the Ohio State Restaurant Assn.

Barber Shop Entered; Thieves Steal Tools

Thieves who broke into Milton's Barber Shop, 320 Wessen St., last night made off with equipment valued at $32, Pontiac police said today.

They apparently entered through a window on the east side of the building.

Faure Victor in Africa Vote

French Premier Wins Month's Respite From Parliamentary Attack

PARIS (AP)—Twice victor in National Assembly votes on his North African policies, Premier Edgar Faure appeared able today to look forward to a month's respite from parliamentary attack.

He won his latest victory last night with a 308-254 vote of confidence from the Assembly on his plans for restoring order and promoting political reforms in Algeria. The 54-vote margin surprised even his most optimistic supporters.

Nine days earlier he had carried off an even more surprising 477-140 endorsement of his Moroccan policies.

* * *

Each time, he came back from what looked like certain defeat. Each time he benefited from special circumstances, but his own nimble parliamentary footwork also contributed to his successes.

With the two voting hurdles behind him, Faure now should be able to concentrate on applying the reform programs for Morocco and Algeria which the Assembly approved.

* * *

In voting confidence in the government, the Assembly approved the same resolution it had turned down last Friday on a procedural vote.

Faure's troubles were far from over, however. A big segment of his support has slipped away from him and his enemies are waiting only for an opportune moment to give him the ax. He got a number of votes yesterday from deputies who announced they opposed his policies but hesitated to plunge into another government crisis now.

Ike Meets Dulles Today to Discuss Geneva Strategy

DENVER (AP)—President Eisenhower, getting around a bit in a wheel chair now, meets with Secretary of State Dulles today for discussion of what the chief executive has termed "the acid test" of Soviet sincerity.

* * *

Dulles flew in from Washington last night for another hospital conference with Eisenhower on United States preparations for the Big Four foreign ministers parley opening in Geneva Oct. 27.

This is the secretary's second meeting with the recuperating President in the last nine days on that subject and other foreign policy matters.

* * *

Yesterday, for the first time, the President was lifted from his bed into a wheel chair and taken to an open terrace for 30 minutes of sun and fresh air.

That's What He Says Is the Real Reason

TOKYO (AP)—Dr. Miho Daigo of the Central Meteorological Observatory set up his sensitive recording instruments in Tokyo theaters and found:

"Tear jerker" sequences boosted the humidity as much as 10 per cent—"tears probably contribute a bit" but moist sighs the most.

Climax scenes at all-girl revues (the ones promoters call sizzling) raised theater temperatures as much as 2 degrees.

"My associates and I are making these tests solely to determine health factors involved in theater going," said the scientist in a stern refusal to make public his show ratings.

Strange Epitaph Placed Upon Educator's Grave

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Ross Vardon, long-time principal of the Greenwood School, Wakefield, who died last Sept. 29, ordered that the headstone on his grave be marked:

"No School Today
"Teacher Gone Home."

The order was contained in Vardon's will, filed for probate yesterday.

Oxford Man, 2 Riders Hurt in 2-Car Crash

Henry W. Weckle, 20, of Oxford was treated and released from Pontiac General Hospital yesterday after a two-car collision with Albert Schwoof, 55, of Oxford. Weckle said Schwoof turned in front of him on Lakeville Road at Hosner Road.

With Weckle were his brother and sister, Terry and Mable, both 16, also treated and released.

Three Boys Found Murdered in Chicago

12 inches long, a piece of pink cloth, a yellow shirt, a blue hat bearing the inscription "Young Judea," a piece of white hand toweling and a wire about a yard long.

A cast was made of tire marks found in the parking lot, near where the bodies were found. An old mattress and a rubber car mat also were found nearby.

STRANGLED

But police said that none of these objects could be connected immediately with the crime. They were being examined at the police laboratory.

Coroner Walter E. McCarron who will start the inquest today, said fingernail marks on the necks of the Schuessler brothers indicated they had been strangled by hand. He said the Peterson boy evidently had been choked with a necktie or something similar.

The Peterson boy had been beaten violently about the head, indicating he had put up a futile struggle against his slayer. His scalp was marked by 14 cuts and two penetrating skull fractures, possibly inflicted by a revolver or tire iron.

MOST BRUTAL CRIME

Veteran police officials described the triple murder as possibly the most brutal in the annals of crime history.

They cringed at the sight of the three bodies huddled together in a ditch bordering a parking lot in Robinson's Woods, a forest preserve district.

It was in this forest scene of autumn color and beauty that a salesman made his grisly find when he stopped to eat lunch.

The discovery tragically ended a hunt for the boys that had started Sunday night, hours after they had gone to see a movie in downtown Chicago. They last had been seen at two bowling alleys.

SEX CRIME?

An autopsy revealed that none of the victims had been molested sexually.

However, Dr. Harry R. Hoffman, an associate of the Cook County Behavior Clinic, said:

"The person who could commit such an act as this is one to whom the act itself is a gratification of the sex urge."

The psychiatrist stamped the triple slayings as the work of a person who had a previous record of sex offenses.

He pointed out that all three youths had strikingly handsome features.

SLAYER NOT SANE

A difference of opinion was advanced by Dr. Thomas Kennedy, associate professor of psychology at Lovola University. He said the superficial evidence now available does not pinpoint the slayings as a sex crime.

His theory is that someone possibly lacking personality integration or a system of values perpetrated the crime. He believes that the slayer was not necessarily satisfying a sexual impulse.

Sheriff Joseph Lohman said he thought the crime was the work of an older group of boys. He believes it was highly improbable for one person to have held the three youths captive, as it appears that they were, murdered them and then transported their bodies to the forest preserve ditch where they were found 36 to 40 hours later.

* * *

Lohanman said a teenage gang may have manhandled the youths. "Then," he continued, "something may have gone wrong to frighten the youthful gangsters and they killed all three to make sure they would not give evidence against them."

Archbishop Invites Meg, Family to Dinner Tonight

LONDON (AP)—Princess Margaret dines tonight with the Archbishop of Canterbury, leading foe in the Church of England of any plans she may have to mary divorced airman Peter Townsend.

The 25-year-old princess, her sister Queen Elizabeth II and other members of the royal family headed the guest list for Lambeth Palace, the archbishop's venerable brick residence across the Thames from the Houses of Parliament.

Also invited were all the church bishops who along with the royal family were to attend the predinner dedication of the palace chapel, damaged in the war and now repaired.

Townsend was not on the list.

The foremost thought with all present was certain to be the romance between Margaret and the 40-year-old RAF group captain, a fighter pilot hero in the Battle of Britain and father of two sons.

With the mounting furore in press and public over whether the princess would flout laws of the church by marrying a divorced man, all the dinner guests likely would observe discreet silence on the embarrassing subject. But this did not preclude entirely private talks among the principals, either before or after the dinner, on the topic of prime interest for most Britons.

The 68-year-old archbishop, Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, is primate of all England. Both he and the Queen —who is constitutional head of the church—are pledged to protect its regulations and traditions, including its ban on the remarriage of divorced persons whose ex-spouses are still alive.

An earlier Archbishop of Canterbury, the late Cosmo Lang, was credited with a major role in forcing the present Duke of Windsor to abdicate the British throne in 1936 when he insisted on marrying the twice-divorced American, Wallis Warfield Simpson.

Guard Officials Stressing Need for New Armory

Two National Guard officers told the City Commission last night that the city may lose its two guard units if a new armory is not built within two or three years.

Lt. James R. Crawford, of the 107th Ordnance Co., told the commissioners that under the government's new reserve act, draftees will be assigned to reserve or National Guard units.

Effect of the new program will be felt in two years, he said. "We will have to send the men to Flint or Detroit," he added.

Lt. Jon Garau, of the same unit, said Pontiac is "definitely on the list for a new armory." A 1958 target date for completion has been set, he added.

"We have a one-company armory with two companies," he said. "Many men run down to Detroit after seeing our armory."

The officers said the cost of the land and building is shared on a 75-25 per cent basis by the federal, state and city governments, under current regulations.

The U.S. and state pay 75 per cent and the city 25 per cent, they said. A $350,000 building on a 10-acre site is contemplated, they stated.

City Manager Walter K. Willman said three factors were involved: site, the city's contribution and sale of the old armory at Water and Mill streets.

He was instructed to confer with top guard officials on the matter.

The city has been eying the armory site as part of a civic center development.

After the meeting, Lt. Crawford said he had been told by high-ranking officers that the Pontiac unitis would be disbanded if they could not handle the area manpower.

The Day in Birmingham

Operating Budget Given Approval at Board Meet

BIRMINGHAM — An operating budget totalling $3,088,030.88 for the 1955-56 school year, was given final approval at last night's Board of Education meeting, showing an increase over last year of upwards of $693,000.

The added sum partly reflects operation of two new schools this year, Pembroke and Beverly, and the over 40 new teachers to staff these buildings.

Superintendent of schools Dwight B. Ireland, said the two factors used which provide the extra funds are valuations for new properties added to the roll and increased enrollment.

Board members also awarded mechanical and electrical contracts to low bidders for the six classroom addition at Pembroke. Mechanical work will be done by the Conrad Co. for $31,500, while Jones Electric Shop Inc., received the electrical job for $8,976. The general construction contract was awarded last week to Palmer-Smith Co., with a low base bid of $148,691.

"It was the biggest Sunday and Monday morning in the history of the sale!" was the happy pronouncement made yesterday by Mrs. N. J. Rakas, general chairman of the 28th annual AAUW Book Sale currently under way in the Detroit Edison Co. building.

As proof, Mrs. E. J. Conway, business manager, came forth with these statistics: 27 organizations represented at the Sunday preview carted away 1,690 books, 238 magazines and 112 records, all paid for by the perennial "Anonymous Donor."

Receipts for the first two days totaled $1,554.96, $251 more than the same period last year. Proceeds are added to the group's fellowship fund. The sale will continue from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. through Thursday, with hours of 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday and 8 a.m. to its conclusion at noon Saturday.

Although tickets are limited, Mrs. Donald Kogge and Mrs. Paul Lenahan have announced they still have some for the Newcomers Club informal dance to be held Friday at Birmingham Country Club. The cochairmen said dancing will begin at 9:30 p.m.

Pierce School PTA members say it will be hard to decide which fun to have first at the annual PTA fair opening to the public at 4 p.m. Friday. But the star attraction, they say, will be comic Soupy Sales, of TV fame.

His performances are scheduled for 6, 6:45, 7:30 and 8:15 p.m., with tickets to be available at the auditorium door. Buffet-style dinners will be served at 5, 6, and 7 p.m. with a snack bar in constant operation.

There will also be an "auto-circle" ride, fish pond and a cherry tree whose fruit when picked, will reveal a surprise. A feature of this year's White Elephant booth will be items contributed by local merchants.

Mrs. Harry Mudge Jr., mother vice president, is fair chairman. Among those assisting are Russell Haeger, president, and Mike Quinn, father vice president.

Holding its 58th installation of officers at 8 p.m. tonight at the Masonic Temple, South Woodward avenue will be OES, Ch. 22. Mrs. Selma Brown, Past Grand Matron, will lead the installing officers who are:

Mrs. Elma Kidd, mistress of ceremonies; Mrs. Ann Main, installing marshal; and Mrs. Elsie Baynes, installing chaplain. All three are Past Matrons. Others are Mrs. Marion Doench, Installing Grand Organist and Rose Marie Toormina, Installing Grand Soloist.

* * *

Taking office for the ensuing year will be: Mrs. Bessie York, Worthy Matron; James Roark, Worthy Patron; Mrs. Elsie Eckerson, Associate Matron; Harold Latham, Associate Patron; Mrs. Viola Minks, secretary; and Blanche Brooks, treasurer.

Others will include: Mrs. Mildred Matthews, conductress; Mrs. Ann Forman, associate conductress; Mrs. Margaret Busby, chaplain; Mrs. Maude Masterson, marshal; Mrs. Bessie Ferguson, organist; Mrs. Marjorie Sura, Adah; Mrs. Ruth Bender, Ruth; Mrs. Pyrie Bowden, Esther; and Mrs. Lillian Green, Martha.

Still others are: Mrs. Donna Davies, Electra; Mrs. Gladys McVean, warder; Leon Miller, sentinel; and Mrs. Phyllis Martz, assisting marshal. Flagbearers will be: Harold Latham, American; Mrs. Martz, Christian; and Mrs. Dorcas Little, OES.

Mrs. Little is the candle of love and her degree includes: Mrs. Violet Breedlove, Adah; Mrs. Bessie Rhue, Ruth; Mrs. Mabel Michinnick, Esther; Mrs. Evelyn Green, Martha; and Mrs. Evelyn Latham, Electra.

Mrs. Marianna Hill

Memorial service for Mrs. Marianna Hill, 74, Madison, Wis., civic and church leader in both Detroit and Birmingham, will be held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in St. James Church.

Mrs. Hill was the widow of Perry Hill, Detroit Twist Drill Co. executive.

Prior to her move to Wisconsin, Mrs. Hill made her home at 262 W. Brown.

Mrs. Hill was a charter member of Women's City Club and an officer of its board. In 1937 she was appointed to the Governor's Commission on State Government Reorganization. Active in many civic affairs and a communicant of St. James Church, Mrs. Hill also served on the governing board of Kingswood School for Girls.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Vernon Carstensen of Madison, Wis. and Mrs. Gilman Ostrander of Dublin, O.; a son, Perry C. of Milwaukee; a sister, two brothers and seven grandchildren.

Instead of flowers, friends are asked to contribute to Williams House, a home for friendless girls which she helped establish in 1921, 548 E. Grand blvd. in Mrs. Hill's name.

Illegally Killed Deer Brings 2 Jail Terms

Arden Rice, 17, of Rockwood and James Peterson, also 17, of Wyandotte, yesterday were found in possession of an illegally killed deer by Oakland County Sheriff's deputies, who said the youths admitted having killed the deer with a .22 calibre rifle and then stuck an arrow into the carcass.

Peterson, who was charged with unlawful possession of venison yesterday before Holly Township Justice Aubrey Butler, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to $35 fine, $10 costs or 25 days in jail. The fine was not paid.

Rice, who also appeared before Justice Butler, was charged with having a loaded shotgun in his car. Pleading guilty, he was sentenced to $20 fine and $8 costs or 20 days in jail. The fine was not paid.

It's How You Translate Meaning That Matters

BALTIMORE (AP)—Driver Francis Hartlove brought his No. 6 bus to a quick stop the other day after a female passenger cried:

"Wait! Hold everything until I get my clothes off!"

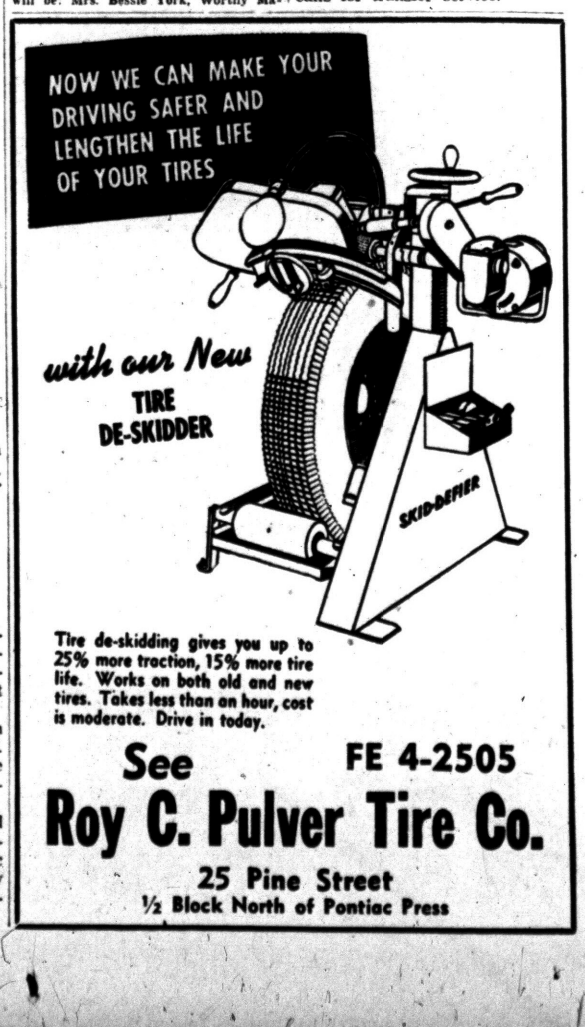

Hartlove spun around in his seat. The woman, fully clothed, finally managed to get her bundle of laundry through the rear door and off the vehicle.

Wrong Number Victims Seek $15,000 Damages

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A $15,000 "wrong number" damage suit was filed here against Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

W. D. Adams and wife claimed in their petition that their home telephone was incorrectly listed as the night number of a transfer company.

They alleged they have been awakened constantly at night by calls for transfer service.

Legislators Inspect New Ohio Turnpike

have just approved three new high-type subdivisions immediately adjacent to the pike. Such housing is highly desirable because residents can be sure there will be no encroachment on them from the direction of the turnpike.

"The opposition group here circulated petitions to get a court restraining order, but could not get the necessary 1,100 signatures.

"There will be dust, noise and some damage by heavy equipment to local roads while the pike is being constructed, but these are more than overruled by long-range benefits.

"Since the road's completion, I have not received one complaint. I feel it heralds a new era of industrial and business expansion and is one of the greatest things that ever happened to our city."

Following the mayor's remarks, Consulting Engineer for the MTA Murray D. VanWagoner, of Birmingham, said, "Many people in Michigan feel they will be hurt by the toll road when they actually will not. I wish they could have heard your speech."

The Greiner engineers pointed out that Michigan's turnpike, if built, would be similar to the Ohio highway which has four travel lanes each 12 feet wide with a 56-foot center division.

The touring group of legislators and newsmen were impressed with the road's safety features. They include a "V" shaped depression in the divider strip cutting down chances of a runaway vehicle crossing over to cause a headon collision.

The inside shoulders are 8 feet wide and the outside, 10 feet. They are blacktopped to assure a firm base even in muddy weather.

MTA Chairman George N. Higgins, of Ferndale, said he had arranged the tour to give the legislators a first-hand view of turnpike benefits "which Michigan could have also, within 39 months."

Five Pontiac Women Injured in Collision

Five Pontiac residents were reported in "fair" condition today in Ionia County Memorial Hospital after a three-car collision Monday on U. S. 16 near Ionia.

Vera Bruff, 60, of 103 Henderson St. was driving a car which also contained Lena Diskner, 65, of 243 Chamberlain St.; Ann Fyfe, 62, of 22 Lexington Pl.; Martha Hudson, 63, of 19 Matthews St.; and Kate Warner, 65, of Drayton Plains.

Police said the drivers of the other two cars were 73-year-old Leon Harrington of Grand Rapids and Charles Bowers, 58, of Muskegon.

1956 Pontiac Models on Display Friday and the Safari Station Wagon on 122-inch wheelbase.

In Pontiac's middle-priced 870 series with 122-inch wheelbase are the Catalina two and four-door "hardtops," a four-door sedan, a two-door two-seat station wagon and four-door three-seat station wagon.

Comprising the low priced 860 series are the Catalina coupes and sedans, two and four-door sedans, two-door two-seat station wagons and four-door three-seat station wagons.

Newly designed for increased cargo space, the Pontiac two-seat station wagons have a folding seat with the back-rest and the cushion folding into the floor. In the three-seat wagons, both the back seat and the center seat fold into the floor with a split seat arrangement on the middle seat so that one-third or two-thirds of the seat can remain in place for passengers.

Front-end styling is similar on all three series. A wrap-around bumper of chrome-plated steel protects the entire front end of the car.

There is a choice of 57 new colors in two-toning or solid colors in the new cars, and interiors utilize new fabrics and leather in a wide range of colors.

A new radio automatically selects the strongest stations and a rear seat sound system employing two speakers also is available.

Optional equipment is a new dual exhaust system. Chrome twin exhaust deflectors appear as an integral part of the rear bumpers.

In addition to the strato-flight transmission for the Star Chief series, Pontiac offers an improved hydramatic transmission for the 870 and 860 series and a new synchro-mesh transmission.

A notable improvement in the ride and handling characteristics of the 1956 Pontiacs comes from a new steering knuckle and support assembly. The press fitted king pin bushing reduces friction and improves lubricating qualities of the front suspension.

Completely new power steering, power brakes and electric window lifts are available as optional equipment.

Front mounted air conditioning, the system entirely located under the hood which was pioneered by Pontiac in 1954, will be continued with a number of new features. The new unit will give greater cooling, easier operation, more compactness and simplified installation. The unit's control panel is located above the radio controls.

The new Pontiacs have more than 130 safety features in the design and engineering specifications. While many are not apparent to the eye, prominent on the new models are safety side-reflectors located on rear fenders.

Group Hopes to Reduce Rehabilitation Time Lag

LANSING (AP)—A special committee expressed hope to Gov. Williams today that it could reduce the time required to restore the earning capacity of injured industrial workers.

The committee said it hoped to reduce to less than two months the time between the injury and the referral of an injured employe to a rehabilitation service.

Nationally, committee members said, the time between injury and rehabilitation has averaged seven years.

Youth Is Charged With Killing Mother

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—A youth apparently recovering from injuries suffered, police said, when he threw himself under a truck has been formally charged with murdering his mother.

The complaint was issued against John P. Hawley, 19. He is accused of killing Mrs. Iris Hawley, 45, with a hammer in her fashionable home early Sunday.

* * *

Police said that after the killing, young Hawley drove the family automobile to Cajon Pass near San Bernardino and attempted to end his life. He suffered critical injuries when run over by the truck.

Hospital authorities say it will be a week or 10 days before the youth can be transferred to the prison ward of the Los Angeles County Hospital. He underwent eight hours of surgery Monday.

* * *

Detective Leonard Alter of San Bernardino, who said the Hawley youth has a history as a mental patient, reported the youth told him, "I did it. I killed my mother."

Pasadena Detective Richard L. Jamison said Hawley told him of an argument with this mother Sunday after they had taken his father William Hawley to the airport for a flight to San Francisco.

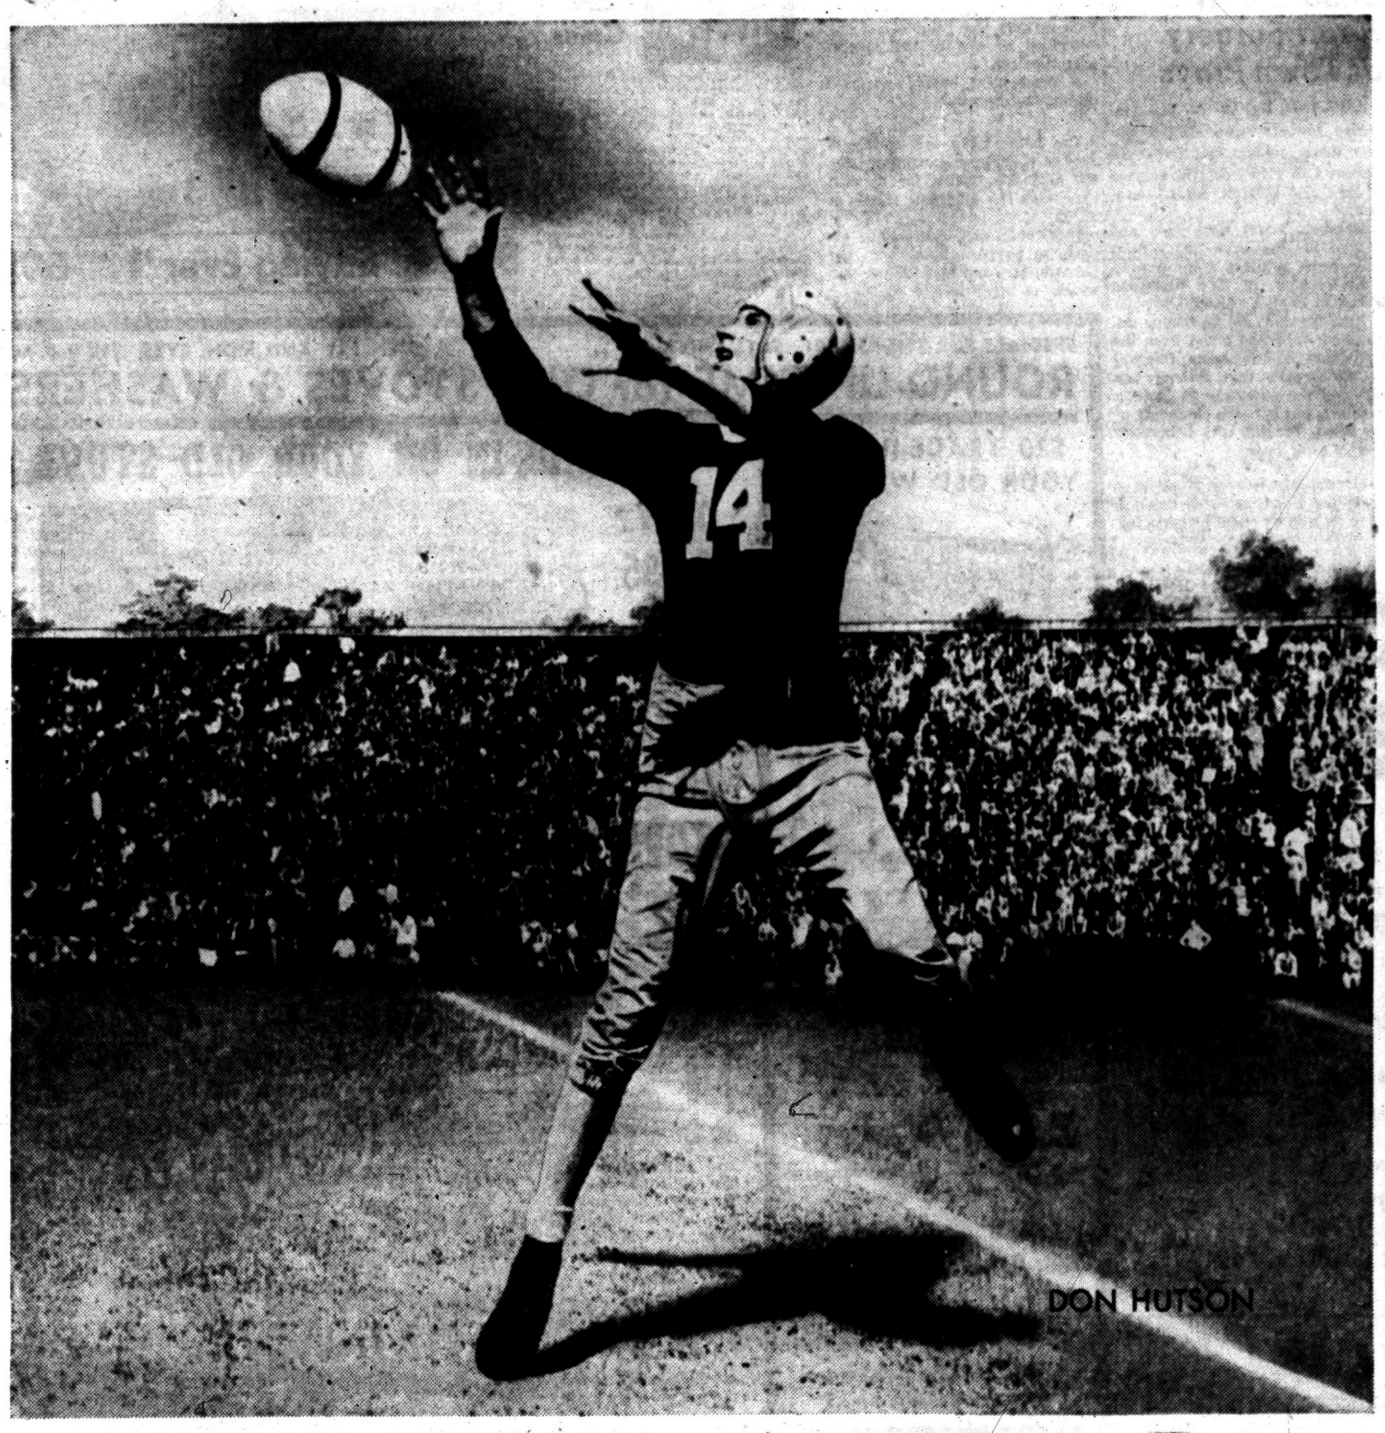

Legal Right to Suspend Driver's License Upheld

LANSING (AP)—Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh held today that the municipal judge of Traverse City has power to suspend a motorist's driving privileges as a condition of probation.

The opinion conceded that only the secretary of state may officially suspend or revoke a driver's license but it added that municipal and justice courts may order a motorist who violates traffic laws to stay off the highways and to leave his license with the court for a stated period as an evidence of obedience.

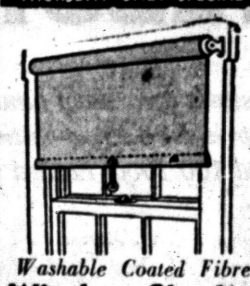

Study Yacht Wreckage

GRAND HAVEN (AP) — U.S. Coast Guard officials are shifting 30 pieces of yacht wreckage to Chicago to continue investigation of the missing yacht, Tyree, and its industrialist owner Phillip Atwood. The wreckage was recovered last week along 150 miles of Lake Michigan shore. Atwood and the yacht disappeared Sept. 12 on a voyage from Chicago.

Byrnes Usurped Too Much Power - Truman

WASHINGTON (INS) — Former President Harry S. Truman disclosed today he scolded Secretary of State James F. Byrnes in 1945 because "he came to think that his judgment was better than the President's."

* * *

He told of lecturing Byrnes verbally and by letter for his behavior in failing to report adequately to him on the December 1945 Foreign Ministers Conference in Moscow.

Truman described his cabinet troubles with Byrnes, Secretary of Commerce Henry A. Wallace and Interior Secretary Harold L. Ickes, who is now dead.

His recollections were reported in the final installment of the first volume of his memoirs, published by Life magazine.

FIRED WALLACE

The former President said that when he fired Wallace, the cabinet officer "was so nice about it I almost backed out." He asked for Wallace's resignation because he felt the secretary's criticism of foreign policy was "hitting at the President."

Truman wrote that he still thinks Ickes was "mistaken" in Senate testimony against Edwin W. Pauley, California oilman whom the President had nominated to be Under-Secretary of the Navy. His nomination stymied by Ickes' testimony, Pauley finally asked that the appointment be withdrawn.

When Truman defended Pauley, Ickes resigned in what the retired President now terms a "not courteous" letter. Ickes offered to remain in his job an extra six weeks, but Truman made the resignation effective the next day.

* * *

In his latest article, the Missouri Democrat said that despite the great events of his first four months in office, he did not feel he was really President in his "own right" until Sept. 6, 1945. That was the date he submitted his 21-point "Fair Deal" domestic program to Congress.

BYRNES USURPED POWER

He recommended that when the vice-president becomes President, the office be filled by election. He said he thought presidential electors would "probably do a better job of it" than the House of Representatives.

Truman wrote that Byrnes had been given "unprecedented freedom of action" as war mobilizer by President Roosevelt and thought he could have a "completely free hand" as Secretary of State.

He said Byrnes failed to keep him posted on developments at the Moscow conference and announced its results without previously informing the President. Byrnes, he added, asked the White House to arrange a broadcast so he could report to the country.

When the State Department released its communique on the Moscow meeting the night of Dec. 27, 1945, Truman was in Missouri.

* * *

He said: "I did not like what I read. There was not a word about Iran or any other place where the Soviets were on the march. We had gained only an empty promise of further talks."

BYRNES DRESSED DOWN

Truman met in Washington the next day with the late Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg (R-Mich), and Under-Secretary of State Dean Acheson and drafted a news release to clear up atomic aspects of the Moscow agreement which he said were troubling senators.

Truman related that when Byrnes returned the next day he was ordered to report "post-haste" to the Presidential yacht, anchored at Quantico, Va. There the President took him into his stateroom, closed the door and told him he "did not like" his handling of the conference.

The retired executive recalled: "I told him that as President, I intended to know what progress we were making and what we were doing in foreign negotiations. I said that it was shocking that a communique should be issued in Washington announcing a foreign policy development of major importance that I had never heard of. I said I would not tolerate a repetition of such conduct."

* * *

Byrnes, he wrote, "sought to put the blame mostly on his subordinates" but admitted he should have "attended to it personally."

Truman concluded that his Secretary of State had "taken it upon himself to move the foreign policy of the United States in a direction to which I could not, and would not, agree."

TIRED OF SOVIETS

The Chief Executive wrote Byrnes a longhand letter and read it to the cabinet officer on Jan. 5, own attitude toward the Russians and his view on Byrnes' behavior.

"I'm tired of babying the Soviets," the letter asserted.

Truman said Byrnes "accepted my decision" and did not ask to be relieved. Later the Secretary suggested his health would not permit him to continue. Throughout 1946, the ex-President said, it was "understood between him and me that he would quit whenever I could designate his successor."

Truman sent word to Gen. George C. Marshall, then in China, via Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, asking if Marshall would take the job when Byrnes left. Eisenhower reported Marshall's answer was "yes" and he was appointed as soon as his Far East mission ended.

* * *

The then President was aboard the heavy cruiser Augusta, coming home from Potsdam, when word was flashed that Hiroshima had been destroyed by the first atomic bomb. Nine days later, Japan surrendered. Truman recalled that he "reached for the telephone and called Mrs. Roosevelt."

He said: "I told her that in this hour of triumph I wished that it had been President Roosevelt, and not I, who had given the message to our people."

SHE'S ALL DOLLED UP—Three-year-old Wendy Ellen Hewitt of Nutley, N. J., seems lost in this sea of dolls in New York City. The dolls are part of some 45,000 entries by teen-agers in a national doll-making contest. They were made from a basic kit containing a white sock and a plastic doll face, and all will be distributed as Christmas gifts to needy children in rural America and overseas.

Child Survives Heart Surgery as Town Prays

ASHLAND, Ky. (INS)—All day yesterday prayers were offered and now there is hope that 7-year-old Sharon Lou Edwards will survive a long and difficult heart operation.

Members and friends knelt and prayed for the little girl with a rare heart ailment from 6 a.m. until 7 p.m. at the Westwood Christian Baptist Church.

Then the Rev. Hollie Conley announced word had come from the University of Minnesota Hospital in Minneapolis that Sharon Lou survived the operation to close a four-inch gap between chambers of her heart. The gap was discovered shortly after birth.

* * *

Doctors, who worked 22 minutes inside the heart, reported the girl doing as well as could be expected but cautioned 48 hours would be needed to determine success of their surgery. The heart defect was described as one of the largest ever repaired.

A mechanical heart was used during the operation.

The home folks are raising a fund to help pay the estimated $4,000 to $5,000 needed for medical expenses. The fund now stands at $1,800.

If all goes well, Sharon Lou expects to be back home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Edwards, in three or four weeks.

Driving School's Value as Safety Aid Proved

One of the encouraging aspects of the traffic problem is that so many people in organizations are devoting so much effort to its solution.

There is a reminder of this in a statement by Miami's Chief of Police Walter E. Headley, who has just been elected president of the International Association of Police Chiefs. Headley not only believes driving schools to be an efficient weapon against violations but can produce evidence in support of that theory.

★ ★ ★

In Miami all violators not only pay fines but attend three night sessions of driving school. The school is operated by the police department and police officers act as instructors. Headley says violators go to school feeling abused and with chips on their shoulders. But when they are "graduated" they are enthusiastic in praise of it.

★ ★ ★

Much more important, the effectiveness of this instruction is reflected in the reassuring fact that only two per cent of Miami's traffic law violators are repeaters.

The idea of a driving school operated by a police department isn't new. Detroit has a similar school. But the results obtained in Miami certainly should heighten public appreciation of driving schools which already have halved the accident rate among their young graduates.

Pontiac Must Redistrict or Buy Voting Machines

Automation is a key word in modern living and now is the time for the City of Pontiac to join the parade and get mechanized.

With a new state law which requires Pontiac to re-align more than half its 44 election precincts or buy voting machines, now is the time to act.

Paper voting precincts are old fashioned and outmoded.

Let's vote in the modern method by machine.

★ ★ ★

Since a change must be made and money will have to be spent, let's modernize and not go back to the old system of paper balloting.

Voting by machine is fast, accurate and dependable.

This results from new election law provisions limiting the size of precincts in which paper ballots can be used, to 800 voters. Mechanized precincts, however, can have up to 1,400. At present 20 of Pontiac's 25 oversize precincts have from 100 to 327 more than the new top limit where paper ballots are used.

★ ★ ★

City Clerk Ada R. Evans who has made a special study of the new provisions, points out that no time limit is contained in the amendment. But, she added, the law stipulates that the State will intervene if the local government fails to act.

The Press long has advocated use of voting machines for two reasons—in the interest of fast election returns and to reduce the cost of elections.

★ ★ ★

There is no doubt about either the need or value of mechanized voting. With machines accurate results are available when the polls close and fewer election clerks can complete work within two hours after the last vote has been cast.

These changes in the law certainly give the City ample justification for starting mechanization of precincts.

"Woman Has Baby While Climbing Mountain."—Headline. Well, maybe so, but no doubt it slowed her down some.

Ike's Economic Chairman Finds Economy Sound

There was a reassuring tone in an address delivered before the New York State Chamber of Commerce.

The speaker was Dr. Arthur F. Burns, chairman of the Council Economic Advisers to the President. He pointed out that "although we have not escaped the excesses of prosperity during the past year, we have succeeded in keeping them in check."

★ ★ ★

Dr. Burns is both well qualified and well situated to interpret the operations of our national economy. It is worth noting, therefore, that he believes the widespread tendency toward increasingly liberal credit terms has largely run its course.

Not only have price levels remained steady but our economic machine has continued its healthy long term growth. As a result, he said, total production of goods and services now is running at an annual rate of $390 billions.

Dr. Burns believes the country is on the threshold of a $400 billion economy. In that he sees a challenge to go beyond such a total output.

★ ★ ★

A note of caution sounded by the speaker should not be ignored, however. He pointed out that an economy like ours never is far from either a threat of inflation or recession. But on the whole he finds it in balance.

If economic conditions continue favorable and if there is no decrease in the rate of population growth, the $400 billion economy may be here before we know it.

David Lawrence Says:

Soviet Union Practices Segregation in Schools Throughout Central Asia

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—For months the Soviet radio has been conducting a propaganda campaign against the United States on the ground that there is segregation of schools in the South as between Negroes and whites.

Now comes evidence of Russian hypocrisy. They themselves practice segregation, though little has been known about it.

Robert F. Kennedy, who has just finished a tour of a "colored section" of the Soviet republics in company with Justice William O. Douglas of the Supreme Court of the United States makes the disclosure about segregation in a copyrighted interview in "U. S. News & World Report.":

Kennedy, who is a son of Joseph P. Kennedy, former ambassador to Great Britain, took leave of absence from his post as counsel for the Senate subcommittee on permanent investigations, paid his own expenses, and made a first-hand study of conditions in the central Asian region of the Soviet Union.

Few people realize that this region of five Soviet republics has a population of about 20,000,000 persons and covers a bigger area than India before its partition and is larger than all of western Europe. The people are for the most part of Turkish and Iranian stock with a strong Mongolian strain.

SEPARATE SCHOOLS

Kennedy was asked: "How do they (the Russian soldiers) understand the language?"

"A. I don't think they have any problem with that—in performing their duties they probably don't have much contact with the local people. In addition, more and more people now understand Russian. This is so despite the fact that the Russians maintain one set of schools for their children and one set of schools for the children of the local people. It is a segregated school system.

* * *

"Q. Why is that?

"A. The explanation the officials gave us is that people like their own schools.

"Q. It isn't a racial question?

"A. I believe that is a reasonable assumption. In every city that we visited in central Asia the schools were segregated — the Russian school children in one school, the local children in another.

"Q. Is there a difference in color between the Russians and the natives?

"A. Oh, yes, they are completely different.

"Q. I mean in color.

"A. Oh, yes. The Russians are European, white. The natives are Mongolian—a dark race."

REDS HOSTILE

Kennedy says he found the people friendly but that Communist party leaders were inclined to be hostile. He adds that their so-called labor unions are dictated to by the Russian government and that the whole Russian system is a form of slavery, since everybody must work for the state.

* * *

The interview then went on.

"Q. It seems to me everything you have said would be anathema to any real 'liberal'—

"A. That is what I can't understand either . . .

"Q. Did they make a great many concessions to you over there?

"A. Some concessions, at least over the old policies—the fact that we are allowed to travel in central Asia at all, and, in addition, I think they showed us things and allowed us to do things they wouldn't have permitted a year ago, but I don't think it adds up to a great deal.

"Since they have changed their policy nobody has gained but them. The fact that Justice Douglas, five senators and Bob Kennedy were able to go to Russia—what is that for America to get out of it? . . . Why don't they announce they are going to withdraw support from Communist organizations in India, Burma or Malaya, or even Italy, or France or this country? Why don't they actually come through and withdraw support and stop supplying money to their forces within the countries that are trying to overthrow the local governments?"

URGES WITHDRAWAL

Kennedy suggested, too, that the Russians should withdraw their troops from Poland and eastern Europe, allow the unification of Germany, and give back independence to the people of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania. He went on:

"Let's have something like that. Or let's allow complete arms inspection. I think they should make some definite contribution other than tipping their hat and smiling . . .

"I am hopeful, like everybody in the world, that what happened at the Geneva conference and what will happen at the meetings of the foreign ministers will mean peace for us all. However, on the basis of what I saw and learned in Russia, I am very distrustful that we will get anything other than smiles.

* * *

"We are dealing with a government to whom God, the family or the individual means nothing and whose practice it has been in the past to make promises and treaties to serve their purposes and to break them when it has been to their advantage. It can only be suicidal for us during this period on the basis of smiles to strengthen Russia and weaken ourselves."

U. S. Beginning to Grasp Worth of Senior Citizens

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

They're trying to slip it to us gently, tactfully, and whether we like it or not, the "senior citizen" is with us to stay.

Old folks, thank heaven, that is real old folks who admit it and take the joys and the tribulations of living as they come, are with us in increasing numbers. We eliminate from this discussion those poodle-toting, bleached, horrific female frights found in resorts and night-clubs, and also the boutonniered, toupeed, corsetted males commonly observed escorting blank-faced "glamour girls."

Those who grow older instead of simply getting old are the Senior Citizens to whom we refer. And it is they who stand ready to contribute more to our culture than they or we realize. America is only beginning to see the vast bounty we have in our old folks.

Within the ancient culture of China we find the elder member of the household granted a respected and revered place in the family community, from which he or she offers solicited advice and wisdom, in which he or she is lovingly cared for. In our own new culture, we have had the tendency to toss our old folks off into institutions, where their offspring needn't suffer the pangs of watching their misery. Which sounds the more humane?

'GROWING' STRESSED

In columns to come we'll discuss the joys and tribulations involved in growing old. Don't forget that word "growing." If you stopped growing when you finished school, this won't help you or your children. Unless you'd like to start again?

* * *

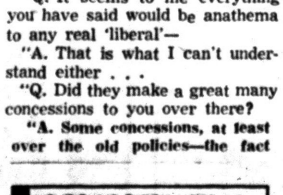

And don't go away frustrated for we'll discuss even sex and age. That ought to bring you back long enough to hear about the rest of it, what you can do, what your children can do, and what their children can do, too.

If you've completed your first forty years, you're qualified to join the Senior Citizens. So get out your notebook and prepare to learn and grow.

If you are just marking time, as it were, between 39 and 41, or uncertain whether you have reached your peak or passed it, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask in writing (a clipping will not suffice) for the pamphet Young Folks and Old Folks. It may make your peak a mesa.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich

Voice of the People

Calls Pontiac 'Backward,' Not Beautiful in Any Way

Letters may be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Being a daily reader of the Pontiac Press, I see where the public is constantly finding fault with this somewhat 'backward city.' Can't say that I blame them a bit, though.

There are so many civic improvements which are absolutely necessary that are often discussed, but very little is ever accomplished. Probably nothing will ever be done about the civic auditorium everyone was once so enthusiastic about, the same with comfort stations in the business area, a skating arena or scattered youth centers.

It sure leads a person to wondering why Pontiac lacks such public conveniences. Approximately 85,000 people reside in the city limits, yet only about 10 per cent are willing to contribute to any worthwhile project.

Think hard, citizens. Haven't you on occasions passed through a town of equal population that put Pontiac to shame? Entering town from South Saginaw Street, you see nothing but run-down beer gardens on your left with vagrants loitering in the doorways.

There's nothing beautiful about Pontiac. Why, we don't even have a centralized park to boast about. Who's fault is it? Should we blame ourselves or the City Commission which we, as registered voters, elected?

I suppose the blame can't be pin-pointed, but it'll be dooms day before anything comes to be. There, I said it and I'm glad. Just wanted to get my two cents worth in, critics.

Class Warfare Must Go if America Is to Progress

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

If the United States is to achieve its optimum promise, then it is desirable for analysts to act as social interpreters and accurately reveal the true nature of segments of the population, such as business management, to other components, such as workingmen.

* * *

This approach is in the tradition of Henry C. Carey, head of the Philadelphia School of Economics, who advocated the "harmony of the interests."

This is in direct antithesis to the divisive philosophy of Karl Marx, who promoted internal class warfare. With the prospective coming together under one roof of some 15 million union members on Dec. 5 through the AFL-CIO merger, such responsibility of word and act becomes increasingly desirable.

In his formulation of objectives of the consolidation, Walter P. Reuther, head of the CIO, in a statement before the CIO executive board meeting earlier this year, commendably spoke of a desire to obviate corruption and racketeering in the house of labor. He said:

* * *

"We have laid down in this document (the proposed constitution) the constitutional declaration that we are determined to keep the united labor movement free of corruption and racketeering, free of Communist penetration, and we provide appropriate internal machinery to implement these principles. The agreement is very specific."

This is all to the good.

DOUBLE STANDARD?

"Now, I have not been around as long as some of our old friends here today, but I have been around long enough to know that keeping the labor movement clean is not an easy job. We live in a society in which the acquisition of material wealth and personal gain is considered the measurement of success.

"In a society with an acquisitive philosophy it is perfectly understandable how a labor movement can become corrupted, and it becomes corrupted when you apply within the labor movement the standards of personal conduct that are accepted as perfectly proper in the business community.

"When a businessman makes a fast million dollars, he is looked to as a real sharp, successful businessman. But when a labor leader makes a fast buck, he is corrupt . . ."

Reuther, in a subsequent interview with this writer, remarked that he is in favor of free enterprise. But frankly, if our free-choice economic society is to endure, then it is irresponsible for a leader to cast aspersions on the moral foundations of the system.

* * *

After occupying a ringside seat on the American economic scene for 3½ decades, I would like to audit the implied libel, and to testify that business progress, by and large, rests on personal integrity, not on cutting corners or proceeding unethically.

Crookedness, fraud, stealing, selling out the principal for a personal bribe and chicanery are not deemed proper in that segment of our society known as business.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Extra Rooms Bring Extra Income, Happiness When Used to House Aged

Myrna raised an interesting question. Discuss it in church groups as well as school courses on economics. For Myrna's idea would save us taxpayers money and retard the insidious trend toward socialistic regimentation of our citizens in their old age.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case P-369: Myrna O., aged 42, is an efficient registered nurse in Phoenix, Arizona.

"Dr. Crane, my husband had a stroke a couple of months ago, so I stay home to look after him," she began.

"But a few months ago I remember one of your Case Records in our Phoenix Republic, which dealt with the loneliness of ambulatory old folks.

"You mentioned an elderly lady in Chicago who wanted to get out of a Nursing Home but was kept there against her will.

"Well, it seems to me that there are plenty of fine homes where an extra room could easily be rented to such persons.

"For example, my husband needs companionship and other people to talk to.

* * *

"And I need a little financial assistance. So I could easily take care of another person on a straight 'board-and-room' basis.

"We have a nice modern home here in Phoenix with an extra bedroom that is unused.

"Since I must cook meals and stay home anyway to look after my husband, I could easily cook for an extra person, who would have her own room and be entirely independent to come and go as she wished.

"It might be an elderly couple, or a nice old gentleman or dear old lady. And it would not bother us for them to prattle about the days gone by.

"We belong to church and have a Christian home. Several churches are near us, so they could enjoy their life here and at a moderate price.

* * *

"Meanwhile, that extra income would be a great boon to me, too, so we'd both be happier and better off."

PRIVATE VS. SOCIALISTIC

It would be far more efficient for American taxpayers if we could save ourselves the outlay of cash to build huge public institutions for the aged and, instead, let them use the vacant bedrooms in the thousands of private homes like Myrna's.

* * *

In every small town there are dozens of widows occupying a full house alone. They often have but a meager income.

Yet they may have one, two or even three extra bedrooms now unoccupied. In these villages of 500 to 1,500 population, there are usually several churches handy.

So if elderly people could contract for board and room, and thus live in these idle rooms already available, that would render a triple boon.

First, it would free us taxpayers of the cost of erecting big brick buildings to house the same elderly folks.

Second, it would enable those elderly folks to be free to walk around the village, go to the post office each morning for mail, and attend the church of their choice as independent Americans.

Third, it would put money into the pockets of widows and householders like Myrna, who need some way of increasing their limited cash income.

"Dr. Crane, how can I do a little work at home to bring in $50 more per month?" many widows write to me.

* * *

"I have a small pension, but I can hardly heat my house and furnish my table on that amount, so I wish I could address envelopes or do some other work in my own home."

When people are old and bedfast, then that is a different matter, but as long as they can hobble around under their own power, it is also better for their morale that they be free citizens instead of inmates of institutions. Don't you readers agree?

"Take It From Me, there's nothing like it in Detroit"

SAYS BELLHOP CARL DAVIS

"If you haven't stopped at The Sheraton-Cadillac in the past couple of years, you'd never recognize the hotel today. Everything — And I mean everything — has been redesigned and redecorated. From top to bottom — the marquees, the lobby, the rooms and suites — all new. There's a large screen television and a radio in every room, at no charge to the guest. Over five hundred rooms and suites have been air conditioned. Our guests are very happy.

"Come see the new Sheraton-Cadillac for yourself. You'll agree with me . . . there's nothing like it in Detroit."

Hal Boyle Says:

Needed: Gadget to Announce Good Shows

NEW YORK (AP) — There are several gadgets on the market today that will enable a listener to tune out a television commercial.

But they do little to help the veteran video viewer in his real predicament. Your hardened TV fan no longer rants against commercials as he did in those faroff pioneer days when Hopalong Cassidy first rode into our living rooms on a 12-inch screen.

* * *

The TV addicts have developed a protective mechanism similar to that acquired by husbands married to talkative wives. The moment a really boring commercial begins to flash on the screen they turn off their ears, a glaze creeps into their eyes, and they sink into the same restful torpor they would if they were listening to a long-winded after dinner speaker.

In some homes commercials are even stoutly defended by parents because of their hypnotic power to quiet children.

* * *

"Since my kids became interested in listening to rhyming commercials, they don't ask me to read and explain Mother Goose to them — and that's a real benefit," said one father. "You know many of those Mother Goose verses are a lot of nonsense.

"I couldn't understand some of them when I was a kid, and they make even less sense to me now. So how can I explain them?"

* * *

Another father said his 4-year-old son had learned to carry a tune by joining in singing TV commercials. But he made one mistake. He let the boy stay up after bedtime one evening listening to some later programs which have commercials carrying different messages.

Three days later when the minister called at the home he heard the little tyke galloping around the living room cheerfully bellowing:

"Zilch's is the beer for me, boys, Zilch's is the beer for me."

Despite such occasional embarrassing mishaps, a gadget to tune out commercials isn't the TV industry's major needed invention.

* * *

What is needed is a gadget that will pay no attention to commercials but instead seek out a flash on good programs.

Television has mushroomed faster than any other form of free entertainment ever offered the public, not excepting bundling and trial marriage.

It is still afflicted by many forms of bilge, including too many cash-and-carry quiz shows to which the contestants come poor as church mice and leave rich enough to endow a cathedral (although none has done that with his winnings as yet).

* * *

But anyone who still brags, "I never look at television — it's a complete waste of time," only shows ignorance. He is like a man who refuses to have electric lights in his home because he has heard electric lights are also used to illuminate shooting galleries or gambling dens.

The truth is that television is growing up faster than many of its viewers. It has an increasing wealth of worthwhile things to watch.

* * *

Just this week Jose Ferrer and a fine cast put on a memorable performance of "Cyrano de Bergerac," a romantic French drama that has broken every love-sick college boy's heart for half a century. It was good theater, it was well-advertised, and millions saw it. But others are still complaining, "I didn't know it was going to be put on."

Just last month there was a surprise "sleeper" drama, "A Wind From the South," a splendidly done Irish play by James Costigan starring Julie Harris. It was as good as anything seen on Broadway in an average season. But millions who would have enjoyed it missed it because they either didn't know it was being put on or had no way of knowing in advance it was top quality.

* * *

A program-scanner gadget would end such disappointment. It would filter out the trash and when it found something really good light up, ring a bell or cry out: "Don't miss this!"

That's the kind of gadget serious TV viewers say they need most today.

Mamie Sees Styles in Big Denver Store

DENVER (AP)—Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower was a picture of happiness as she attended a fall fashion show yesterday. It was her first public appearance since the President's heart attack Sept. 24.

* * *

"We have something to smile about," she told reporters and cameramen as she left Fitzsimons Army Hospital en route to the style show at the hospital officers' wives club. And that tone prevailed throughout the afternoon.

The First Lady smiled and applauded enthusiastically each showing at the fashion review presented by the Daniels and Fisher department store of Denver.

* * *

Mrs. Eisenhower wore a black silk faille dressmaker suit with a very full skirt. Her hat was a small rounded Sally Victor model in pink beaver with two small rosebuds pinned on the right side. Her wrist length fabric gloves matched the pink color of the hat.

Electronic Device Records Tank's Action on Screens

ANN ARBOR (AP)—An Army tank, moving at full speed, climbs an obstacle and crashes down the other side. But it all really happened in the imagination of an electronic brain.

Scientists and engineers at the University of Michigan have produced an analog computer which reproduces the tank in action picture form.

They feed the facts about the tank to the electronic brain and then in its "imagination" the brain "sees" how the tank works. The picture comes out on what looks like an ordinary television screen.

Actually, the screen is an oscillograph, very similar to a television tube, which converts electrical impulses into pictures. The computer digests the facts about the tank and shoots its idea to the oscillograph.

* * *

On the screen, the staff members see the tank take form. A long rectangular bar represents the body of the tank and the six circles below are wheels.

NOT MUCH

It's not much of a tank, but its pretty good for an electronic brain. Now the tank opens up. The wheels jump and jar over the rough ground as shown on the screen.

Finally it hits the obstacle, its front wheels go up, the rectangular bar pitches back. Finally it crashes down on the other side of the screen.

Engineers and scientists of the university Engineering Research Institute Laboratories at Willow Run say that motion pictures can be taken of the whole procedure.

These and other methods of watching the tank in action are helping engineers study the action of tank suspension systems for the Detroit Arsenal.

Irvin J. Sattinger, staff member, explains that the moving pictures are not as precise as some methods of recording the tank suspensions but they do permit an integrated picture of the entire motion that other methods miss.

PIN-WORMS MAY BE A FAMILY AFFAIR

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms... ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do ...and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge... the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

LOST 52 POUNDS In Flint It Is Rennel

"I would like to recommend Rennel to the folks who need it because I think it is O. K." writes Maude Williams, 226 E. Lakeview, Flint, Mich. "I was getting so fat my heart was being crowded and I could hardly get around. With just a few bottles of Rennel Concentrate I lost 52 pounds. Now I breathe a lot easier and am not so clumsy getting around. My weight has gone from 282 to 230 which is not bad. Not only have I lost weight but Rennel has brought regularity back to me for which I praise it highly. I will keep on taking Rennel and consider it a privilege to write about a fine product."

Solid reasons for using Rennel with lots of food for thought. Make Rennel work for you. If not pleased with the very first bottle return it to the manufacturer for your money back.

Argument Over Nothing —The Hole in a Doughnut

DETROIT (AP)—Apple cider and doughnuts go hand in hand with Halloween parties and October socials at the church.

* * *

Fall gatherings such as these also furnish ideal debating ground for an argument that goes back to the mid-point of the last century, and perhaps even beyond. It is, to wit:

Who invented the hole in the doughnut, and why?

New Englanders, who claim they consume half the 10 billion doughnuts eaten in this country every year, contend they solved the mystery long ago. And they have raised a plaque on the home of the inventor.

His name was Hanson Gregory, a native of Rockport, Me.

The Pilgrims, it is said, learned how to make doughnuts—without holes—from a Dutch cook on the Mayflower. But it remained for Gregory to poke the hole in the first modern doughnut, about 100 years ago.

ONE STORY

One story of how it came to be has Gregory watching his mother remove fried cakes from boiling fat. He was sampling the results and found that the cakes were not cooking in the center. He proved his point by poking out the doughy part with one sharp thrust of his finger — and so the holeless doughnut was born.

Others say Gregory used a fork instead of his finger, and still others insist it was during his days as a helmsman on a ship that the great moment occurred.

Gregory, it is reported, was eating fried cakes during his watch at the wheel when the time came that he had to use both hands to keep the ship steady. Being a resourceful man, he stuck a fried cake on a spoke of the wheel—and there was the hole!

ANOTHER STORY

Years ago, however, the National Dunkers Assn. rejected the stories of how Gregory invented the doughnut hole. Some say the Indians pierced a fried cake with an arrow just as it was dropped into a kettle.

And no one has explained how a tribe of American Indians, at least as old as the Pueblos, made fried cakes, with holes, which have been found in petrified form.

Nevertheless, Prof. E. B. Reynard of the Colorado museum of history says Americans learned doughnut making from Europeans, not from the Indians.

* * *

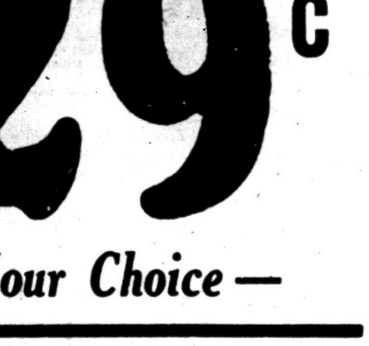

All of which, say the doughnut eaters, proves very little, and what, they ask, reaching for another doughnut, is all the fuss about.

Doughnuts taste like doughnuts, with or without holes anyway.

Word that he has been certified as a mental hospital administrator has just been received by Dr. Ivan A. LaCore, medical superintendent of Pontiac State Hospital.

Certification was granted by the American Psychiatric Association Committee on Certification in recognition of the leadership Pontiac State Hospital has maintained in the field of psychiatric medicine, and its continued high state and national reputation under his direction.

Only two other medical superintendents in the state share this honor with Dr. LeCore. In May, 1955 Dr. LaCore, because of outstanding attainment in his profession was elected a fellow in the American Psychiatric Association, the highest honor the association can award.

Dystrophy Victim Gets Belated Gift From Eisenhower

CHICAGO (AP) — An 11-year-old boy, afflicted with muscular dystrophy and confined to a wheel chair, has received a belated birthday gift — an autographed picture of President Eisenhower.

The photograph was enclosed in a letter written by Mrs. Eisenhower to Lance Arellano, who had written the President and sent him six plastic soldiers. He also expressed wishes for the President's speedy recovery and that he have a happy birthday. Lance noted in a postscript that his own birthday, Oct. 7, was a week before the President's.

* * *

"How very thoughtful of you to send the President some of your toy soldiers," Mrs. Eisenhower wrote Lance. "He asked me to tell you that he sincerely appreciated such a gift and your good wishes."

Mrs. Eisenhower added the President's photograph "comes to you with the good wishes of the President and myself and hope that you will be much better soon."

Battleship Wisconsin Stranded in Gotham

NEW YORK (AP)—The huge battleship Wisconsin was stranded on a reef in New York harbor for nearly an hour yesterday. A strong tide pushed her aground while she was being towed to the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

* * *

A fleet of 16 tugs pulled the 45,000-ton vessel off the mud bank at the mouth of the East River, some 500 feet off the tip of Manhattan.

The Navy said the ship, which is 885 feet long, apparently suffered no harm. A spokesman said the Wisconsin was under control of a civilian pilot and being towed by civilian tugs when the grounding occurred.

* * *

The ship, her own engines idle, was being towed from Bayonne, N.J., to Brooklyn for a general overhaul.

It was the Wisconsin's second grounding in New York harbor. On Aug. 23, 1951, she went aground on mud flats in the Hudson River.

Third of Series on State's Accident Problem

Driver Improvement Plan Will Reduce Traffic Toll

(This is the third in a series of articles on the Michigan traffic safety question before the Legislature, written by E. C. Hayhow, editor of the Hillsdale Daily News and formerly an official in state and Detroit safety organizations and distributed by the Associated Press.)

By E. C. HAYHOW

Michigan lawmakers will consider many proposals for cutting traffic accidents when the Legislature meets in special session Nov. 1.

* * *

Perhaps the most significant will be a three-point program dealing with the vital subject of driver licensing designed to keep unfit drivers off our streets and highways.

Two parts of the program, those having to do with proper maintenance of a central file on all Michigan motorists and what is known as "driver improvement," should gain quick approval. Both of these phases of the licensing program are in operation today but suffer from inadequate personnel and equipment. They need only sufficient appropriations by the Legislature to make them effective.

The driver improvement program provides a check point for drivers already licensed, its objective being to correct a driver's faults before he involves himself or innocent persons in a tragic accident.

MONEY WELL SPENT

If a driver's record indicates he is becoming a hazard on the highway, he is sent a warning letter or called in for an interview to determine his weaknesses and how these weaknesses can . . . if possible . . . be corrected. If circumstances warrant, his license may be suspended or revoked.

It makes sense that no matter how perfect the actual driver license examination, some unfit persons will always obtain licenses to drive. The improvement program will either correct these drivers or take them off the road so they cannot imperil the lives of others. Funds appropriated to make possible the successful operation of this program certainly would be money well spent.

The central file was established to keep an accurate record of the violations and accidents of all Michigan drivers. This obviously is the nerve center of any driver improvement program. Unless these records are kept up to date, the state cannot act promptly in dealing with poor drivers.

The Secretary of State's office estimates it now receives and records reports on only slightly more than one-third of all the motor violations committed throughout the state. The other two-thirds are not being entered on the records of drivers who may some day cause fatal accidents due to lack of personnel. Sufficient funds should be appropriated to operate this vital system on an effective basis.

Establishing a state-wide system whereby driver license examinations would be given by trained civil service employes rather than by local police and sheriffs is the controversial issue in connection with driver licensing. Under the proposal, the present function of issuing licenses would be taken away from local enforcement officers and put under a division of the Secretary of State.

Michigan is the only state in the country which still maintains split responsibility in driver licensing. Primarily because of this, Michigan's driver licensing program was ranked 30th among the states in the National Safety Council's 1954 appraisal.

While city police officials generally have approved the proposal, sheriff's have fought it bitterly. Yet no one can effectively deny that the present system has been responsible for many unfit drivers receiving licenses.

Numerous cases have been documented of persons being licensed who could not see, who were so illiterate they were unable to read the word "stop," or were afflicted with physical disabilities which made them dangerous companions on the highway.

Impartial safety authorities, indifferent to the political implications of this proposal, say a change is necessary if Michigan hopes to achieve any substantial success in reducing the highway toll. Many of them insist this is the most vital part of any traffic safety program.

Opposition to a change, they say, stems from a reluctance to give up the fees local police and sheriffs now receive for issuing license.

That makes it a matter of dollars versus human beings. If the opposition to a change has no stronger basis, it deserves little attention.

During the years I have been associated with the traffic safety program, I have seen sufficient evidence to convince me that a change is imperative.

In my opinion, Michigan would be well served if all local enforcement agencies were relieved of authority to issue driver licenses and this responsibility centered in a state department with the examinations given by trained civil service personnel immune to local political pressures and friendships.

Adoption of this proposal would have the further advantage of freeing many local officers, now tied up on licensing, for other police work, including traffic law enforcement.

"I suffered for weeks from muscle soreness..."

And then I tried Ben-Gay", writes Mrs. Henry Super of San Francisco, Cal.: "With one application and the aid of my heating pad, the pain and soreness were relieved. After the second application, I awoke the next morning with not a sign of pain or soreness. I feel I can't praise Ben-Gay enough. I'll keep it handy always."

Countless people, like Mrs. Super, rely on Ben-Gay for fast relief from muscle aches and pains — and for good reason! Ben-Gay is different from any other pain-relieving product. It contains up to two and one half times more of two famous pain-relieving agents than any of five other widely offered rub-ins! When you rub in Ben-Gay, two things happen. First, extra blood is brought coursing up through the affected area. Second, a pain-deadening action starts instantly to bring warm, soothing relief.

When sore, aching muscles trouble you, use Ben-Gay for sure, trustworthy relief. Rub in Ben-Gay ... rub pain away!

Police End Probe of Army Officer Murder-Suicide

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Law enforcement officers today marked "closed" the case of a former Army first lieutenant who ended his illicit romance with a major's wife by killing the girl and then taking his own life.

George D. Bryson Jr., 32, shot Sylvia Dahl Hess, 22, twice and then ended his life with a bullet in the brain at a busy intersection yesterday, according to Sgt. Floyd Alsbury of the sheriff's office.

Peace Justice Hugh Duval ordered an autopsy on both bodies but he said it "was obviously a case of murder and suicide."

Alsbury said Bryson went AWOL from his Army unit in Germany two years ago and took Sylvia, who had married an ordnance major while on a tourist visa to Germany four months earlier, on a wild ride through the Black Forest in a stolen jeep.

He was caught, court-martialed and dismissed from the service, but brought Sylvia to Miami and lived with her until about a month ago, Alsbury said.

Bryson left a note, addressed to police, in which he said he was ending "what was once a beautiful romance."

* * *

"I'm not sorry for what I'm going to do," he wrote. "There's just no other way out."

Sylvia was still married to the Army major in Germany, Alsbury said, and Bryson left a wife and two children, now believed to be in Bethlehem, Pa.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

HORSES! HORSES! HORSES!

The Arabian Horse. 3.

The Arabian is one of the oldest breeds and from it have developed a great many of the world's finest horses.

Slender and graceful, the Arabians are very fleet of foot, intelligent and useful.

Arabs living in Northern Africa ride the horses great distances across their desert country. There is a wonderful understanding and affection between horse and rider.

The Arab pets his horse tenderly. When a colt is born, the mother and baby are taken into the family tent for a time and given the best of care.

Arabs mounted on these horses are bold and daring riders. They can gallop along at full speed, rise in the stirrups and shoot at passing game, or swoop low to the ground and catch up a rose without checking their speed.

Arabian horses are given fine saddles, rich saddle blankets, tasseled bridles and reins to make them look even more beautiful.

Here is an Arab boy, Ibn Il Abou, on his Arabian stallion, Aba Ben Yusuf. Paste the picture on cereal box cardboard and color with crayons. Use the brightest colors you have for the horse's trappings.

Cut it out along the heavy outlines, fold back the end panels along the dotted lines and the horse will stand.

"Rank & File Committee for the Re-election of Roosevelt, 307 Francis Building—$13.91."

The advertisement yesterday didn't say which Roosevelt or which re-election.

Texan Sends Margaret 'Get-Married' Chapeau

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Dallas hat designer - manufacturer Richard Englander has sent a "get-married" hat to Princess Margaret of England.

* * *

"It's something blue for her to wear," said Englander yesterday, adding that the hat was fashioned after Texas' state flower, the bluebonnet.

The creation is a pearl-trimmed, blue satin shell in the shape of a heart, symbolic of romance, said the designer. The size is adjustable.

Actress Alice Joyce Leaves Large Estate

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An estate of more than $175,000 was left by former actress Alice Joyce, who died Oct. 9.

* * *

Her will filed for probate yesterday left the estate to her two daughters, Mrs. Alice Moore de Tolly, 40, of Dover, Del., and Mrs. Margaret Harris, 34, of Clark Fork, Ida.

Fears Russian Trap

WASHINGTON (INS) — Sen. John L. Sparkman (D-Ala), just returned from a trip to Russia and other Communist countries, cautions against the U.S. lowering its guard just because "the sun of Geneva shines upon us." He warned that any budget-balancing defense cuts may be "falling for an alluring bait in a Soviet trap."

Hopes to Shed 68,000 Civilians

Wilson Believes That Normal Turnover Will Cut Defense Payroll

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department hopes normal turnover among its civilian workers will help it meet a goal to shave 68,000 civilians from its payroll without resorting to layoffs.

Secretary Charles E. Wilson told a news conference yesterday that he counts on a cut in the civilian work force to play the major part in a drive to save half a billion dollars and hold defense spending within 34½ billions this year.

* * *

The expected reductions in the civilian payroll were outlined in a new memorandum providing "guidelines" for efficiency.

Wilson emphasized that no big-scale layoffs of civilian employes is planned.

The secretary said most of the reduction would result from "attrition"—the normal turnover caused by workers reaching mandatory retirement age, resigning, leaving because of ill health or dying. By the simple procedure of not replacing these, the present civilian employe payroll of about 1,154,000 could be cut.

* * *

The 68,000 reduction between now and next June 30 was estimated from percentage figures in Wilson's memorandum. This proposed, as a "target" goal, that the number of workers be reduced 2 per cent by next Dec. 31, another 2 per cent by March 31 and still another 2 per cent by June 30, the end of the fiscal year.

The average pay for a civilian employe is estimated at $4,372.

Wilson made it plain the economy drive will not result in new reductions of military personnel.

* * *

To a question, Wilson said he expected the Army would be able to retain 18 or 19 of its present 20 divisions despite a cut in Army funds for the current year. When Congress earlier this year approved reducing Army manpower, there were plans to trim Army unit strength to 17 divisions.

Farmers in the United States use more than 60 per cent of the world's tractors.

Change of Venue Given in Sheriff Shooting Case

BEATTYVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Sheriff Hampton Palmer's popularity and influence would make it impossible to obtain a fair-minded jury to try him on a murder charge, the state claimed yesterday.

* * *

So Lee Circuit Judge S. H. Rice ordered the trial of Palmer and two of his former deputies, John Combs and Winifred Dunaway, transferred to Owsley Circuit Court.

They were charged with killing 53-year-old George Reece June 11 in an exchange of gunfire during a raid at a moonshine still.

Scientists report that 25 per cent of the growth response in pigs is inherited and other 75 per cent depends on feeding from the prenatal state to marketing.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

New Pills Are Effective Over Longer Periods

NEW YORK — An extended-action medical pill has been developed that produces its effect evenly throughout the night or day and eliminates such dosaging as "one every 4 hours."

The tablet consists of two parts: the outer shell, which dissolves immediately and contains one dose effective for 3 or 4 hours, and the inner core, equal to two ordinary-type tablets, which takes hours to dissolve.

Housing Trend Veering to Single Family Units

CHICAGO — During the past five years the trend has been toward single-family homes, the United States Savings and Loan League points out.

One-family structures made up 1,078,000 private houses started during 1954, or nearly 90 per cent, a big gain over 1949 when 75 per cent of total construction was for single-family units and almost 20 per cent for multifamily dwellings.

First Days on New Job Exciting for Gas Pumper

CAMDEN, S. C. (AP) — John Rhoadus experienced plenty of excitement in a new job at a service station.

He had been at work only two nights when two armed bandits held him up and robbed the place of $52.25. The next night, a motorist ordered his tank filled up with gas but drove off without paying.

Railway passenger cars average 72 feet in length.

$6 Stogies Cost Plenty

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Police didn't believe James B. Grimes, 35, when he told them he couldn't find a clerk to pay for the $6.50 box of cigars he took out of a drug store. They said Grimes had only $3 in his pocket.

Pontiac City Affairs

Property Bought by City for Future Civic Center

Acquisition of another piece of property across from the new City Hall was approved by the City Commission last night.

The commission approved purchase of small frame house on Parke street, two doors south of Pike, for $7,500.

City Manager Walter K. Willman said the price was "fantastic" for the building, but pointed out the city was buying the land, which runs back to the Clinton River. The house will be razed or moved.

The city is purchasing property on the block bounded by Pike, Mill, Water and Parke streets as it becomes available for a proposed civic center development.

In other business, the commission approved transfer of ownership of a package beer and wine license at 1019 Joslyn Ave.

Also approved was a $39,000 contract for sewer construction to Chris Nelson & Son, Inc., of Royal Oak.

The commission nod also went to an agreement for paving streets in the new Herrington Hills Subdivision on the east side.

The twice-postponed matter of reissuing a license to the M & S Parts Co. was referred to the next informal meeting.

Sent to the Plan Commission were two letters from a building firm concerning the proposed Pontiac Knolls Subdivision in the northeast section of the city.

A public hearing was set for next Tuesday on a special assessment roll for a water main in Pearsall street from Bagley to Wrenn.

The following special assessment rolls were confirmed:

Water main in Third avenue from Laurel to lot 214, Highwood Subdivision.
Water main in Second avenue from Ivy to Laurel.
Water main in Laurel avenue from Second to Third.
Curb, gutter and drainage in Blaine avenue from Oakland to Montcalm.
Combined sewer on Richard avenue from trunk sewer to alley south of Walton.
Combined sewer on Rutgers avenue from University to the railroad.
Combined sewer on south side Columbia avenue from trunk sewer east of Carlisle to Stanley.

Nobody Knows What Time It Is in Portland

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Time marches on, as the saying goes. But lately it's been weaving like a drunken sailor.

* * *

"In-and-out, back-and-forth, crazy and inconsistent, that's what the time situation is," says Robert H. Kane, "and something's got to be done about it."

What Kane is referring to is the long-standing feud between cities on daylight time and cities on standard time. Their refusal to give in and be compatible is costing us millions of annual headaches and dollars.

"The radio-TV networks alone say they lose about $2,000,000 a year because of this inconsistency," says Kane, president and founder of the National Time Research Institute, Inc., "and railroads, airlines and stock exchanges are also hit hard through the summer months. Not to mention," he adds sadly, "the average guy who wants to go someplace like Portland, Ore.

"Why, he's got to call Portland to get the straight dope on what time he's going to arrive—and that city changes its mind on time so often I'll bet there are even some Portlanders who don't know what time it is!"

JUST AGGRAVATED

Kane is not bitter, understand. He's just aggravated that the otherwise clever, technically advanced United States has muddled along so inconveniently — clock-wise — for more than 30 years. Daylight time (which is simply setting the clocks ahead to give one more hour of daylight in the summer) was introduced in World War I as "war time."

* * *

"And since then," he says, "the country has never been able to make up its mind whether it wants it or not. As a result, we have about a 50-50 breakdown of standard vs. daylight areas. Some states like Ohio—man, it's crazy there!—are all split up within themselves, with about half the cities on daylight and half on standard."

* * *

Kane, who is a public relations director for a construction company, took up his time studies in 1950 after he missed a news conference which he, himself had set up in Boston. "How was I to know that staid old Boston would have been modern enough to go daylight?" he remembers.

He was an hour late to his own party, and the reporters were furious. Kane was hysterical. He checked up and discovered that no federal agency was keeping track of times around the country, so he took it on as a hobby. It has now turned into a life's work.

HE'D SURRENDER

"I'm a daylight man myself," he admits, "but I'd sooner see the entire country settle for standard time than be undecided and inconsistent as it is." The chief opponents to daylight time, he says, are these:

* * *

1) Theater owners, whose business would be hurt by the extra daylight hour; 2) farmers, whose fathers had the notion that cows don't produce as much milk on daylight time, and 3) a small percentage of mothers the country over, who say they can't get the kiddies to bed while the sun's up.

Kane thinks he can overcome these objections. He is setting up a committee of experts to investigate the inconsistencies, the cost of same, the individual needs and wants of industries and private citizens, and make a report on the findings.

He is pretty certain the report will come out heavily weighted in favor of daylight time and then, report in hand, he will approach civic groups—city by city, state by state.

"Eventually," he hopes, "and perhaps within five or six years, I foresee our working up to the federal level. Oh, joyous day!"

Then everybody—excluding lovers, of course—will know what time it is in Portland.

Seeks to Borrow Competent Hangman

TONGA ISLAND—It had been so long since a man was hanged in Tonga, the Kingdom of Queen Salote, that quite a problem arose when two young men recently were sentenced to death for the murder of another man.

Murder is so uncommon that the kingdom suddenly had to start looking for a hangman. The last execution was in 1927, when a young man was hanged for murdering a girl.

At last reports, in Nukualofa, the Tongan Government was looking into the possibility of appointing a hangman but meanwhile had inquired about the feasibility of bringing in Fiji's hangman from Suva by plane.

Russia Controls Traffic Between Berlin, West

LONDON (AP)—Russia, which granted Communist East Germany sovereignty Sept. 29, will continue to control "for the present" military traffic between West Germany and West Berlin.

A note to this effect, broadcast by the Moscow radio, has been sent to the Western Big Three. It replied to a U.S.-British-French note of Oct. 3 warning Russia it would still be held responsible for keeping isolated Berlin free and open to the West.

2.5 Million See Museum

NEW YORK (INS)—The Metropolitan Museum of Art hit an all-time attendance record last year when 2,541,749 visitors entered the museum. A trustees report said this figure topped the previous record by nearly 90,000.

'56 Chevrolet sets new Pikes Peak record in top-secret test!

Not long ago a hush-hush, camouflaged '56 Chevrolet scorched the nerve-breaking road up Colorado's Pikes Peak for a new record—the first time that old King of the Mountains has seen a new official stock car record in years! And what a road! Nearly 12½ miles of loose dirt with 170 chilling turns and no guardrail between you and the great outdoors! The NASCAR* people did the official timing, supervision and certification. The first and only time a new model ever proved itself such a great road car before its introduction! And everybody knows that safety on the road begins with top performance. With cars that can zip, stop, corner and run. That kind of performance makes driving safer—and more fun. So don't do a thing about a new car until you see the car that beat the King of the Mountains!

Mrs. H. B. Harbage (center), president of United Church Women, goes over final arrangements for World Community and United Nations Day to be held Tuesday at the First Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Fred L. Haushalter of Scott Lake road (standing) displays the poster on which children are praying "Give Us This Day Our Daily Bread." Mrs. George Garver of Edgefield road is seated (right). The women had just finished mending clothing which will be sent to refugee centers abroad through the Food and Agricultural Organization of the United Nations.

Milking in one of the barns at Wabeek Farms on West Long Lake road is Don Morley, who assists in managing the farms. The 63 registered Golden Guernseys produce 150 gallons of milk daily. Milk is collected from farms throughout the United States, processed and sent in powdered form to refugee centers abroad. The United Nations distributes the food and clothing through the Food and Agricultural Organization.

Their Aim: to Increase World Food

City Group Plans Community Day on Tuesday

World Community Day will be observed Tuesday by the United Church Women at the First Presbyterian Church.

* * *

Registration will begin at 10:30 a.m. with Mrs. Fred Haushalter serving as chairman. Luncheon will be served at noon.

The petition, "Give Us This Day Our Daily Bread," has been chosen the theme for the day.

For many years, the church has been trying to answer that prayer, but the need was so great that the program never reached far enough. Nor, when our government joined to help, was it possible to meet all the overwhelming problems of want in the world. The solution seemed to be for nations to act together.

* * *

In 1943, 44 nations agreed to work for freedom from want, and the United Nations' Food and Agriculture Organization was born.

HOW FAO WORKS

The FAO works like this. In Africa, James Smyth, a Scotsman, is standing by a fishpond in Liberia. A fresh-water biologist, he has spent years in the tropics, working on increasing the protein diet of people by raising more fresh-water fish. He has been digging ponds all over the interior of Liberia.

* * *

He has had help from the United Nations, mission stations and industry. They are all in on the experiment. They not only have more fish but more understanding among the people.

It is the same in animal husbandry. A Liberian girl who is working with others for better chickens, pigs, goats and cattle had training at Tuskegee Institute and is back helping her government.

Agriculturists work with the FAO getting rice to grow on dry land. They are also producing bananas, cocoa, coffee, citrus fruits, peanuts, cassava and beans, all because they have "know-how."

* * *

Nationwide offerings will be gathered. Everyone can share. One of the most urgent calls is for clothes for men and boys.

* * *

American farm families have been given the opportunity of helping the needy in other lands by collecting farm surplus products, such as wheat, flour, beans, powdered milk, cotton, rice, corn, corn seed, rolled oats, cheese, butter, lard and dried fruit.

Contributions will be accepted from anyone wishing to share.

The "Parcels for Peace" packages and sacks of grain will be sent from here to Nappanee, Ind., to be loaded for shipping on the freight train.

Mrs. Lyndon Salathiel is chairman of arrangements.

Seated on the grain drill at the Fred Shultz farm near Lake Orion were (left to right) Mr. Shultz, John Trocke and William Kimball, both of the Oakland County Agricultural Extension Department. The men were applying fertilizer prior to planting. American farmers send grain, dried beans and peas to refugee centers abroad for distribution. United Church Women work with Farm Bureaus and agricultural agents in sending "Parcels for Peace."

HOW MUCH TIME?

A beauty schedule is only good if it is effective and it is only effective if it is simple enough for the busy American woman to do in a jiffy.

These days it isn't a matter of not being able to find the necessary information, the problem lies in finding the time to apply on-hand information.

An hour a day is often more than the modern woman can devote to her personal appearance.

It is important that the program be kept simple. It is much better to follow a simple program faithfully than an elaborate one haphazardly. It is daily care that brings gratifying results.

The next few weeks we will try to give you the simple ways to follow the "musts".

Parents Must Use Love or Fear

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Only last weekend, Bryan was warned that if he didn't leave the paints in the garage alone, he'd be spanked.

* * *

This afternoon, he ignored the warning. Desiring white paint, he climbed up on a box to select it from the cans on the garage shelf. With the can in his hand, he was preparing to clamber down when his mother called him. It startled him. He dropped the can, and the paint splashed out over the garage floor.

Bryan was not spanked.

His mother's hand impressed no pain upon his body. What she did was cry, "Look at that mess! Weren't you told to leave those paints alone? Go on—get out of here before I hit you . . ."

So we see that her love made no effort to impress reason on his mind, either. Faced with her son's heedless action, Bryan's mother put controls upon it neither through his fear of pain nor his reason's appreciation of it.

* * *

SHE'S UNDECIDED

Why does his mother limit her control of him to complaint?

I think the answer is a simple one. Bryan's mother has just not decided whether she's for controlling children by love—or by fear of pain.

* * *

Oh, yes, she'll threaten to spank him. But she'll never do it. She can't. For spanking has been sold to Bryan's mother as "uneducated" and low—an "old-fashioned" punishment that rates its user as an unsophisticated yokel.

The sad thing is, she can't control him by love, either.

Though Bryan's mother kids herself that she believes in control by love, she really thinks it's impractical.

And I think her point of view is quite general.

In a wonderful little book called "Behavior and Misbehavior," James L. Hymes Jr. addresses these words to teachers: The heart of the problem of discipline is that some children are getting too little control. They are not getting enough real fear—it takes real fear—nor enough real love.

"You must control one way or the other. You must be one thing or the other. You must stand for something—or you leave children too much on their own."

* * *

Parents, too, have to stand for something. If we don't really believe in control by love, then let's control by fear. The important thing is not what we decide, but the decision.

For until we move on decision, there's no possible way of learning it's been the wrong one. We can't turn from it to the right one.

Mothers Gather at Boys' Club

The Mothers Club of the Boys Club met Tuesday evening at the Boys Club. Five new members accepted were Mrs. Patricia Van Emmerik, Mrs. Charles E. Lewis, Mrs. Roscoe Zimmer, Mrs. William Wood and Mrs. John Neaves.

* * *

Plans were discussed for the Fall Carnival to be held Nov. 18 at the club, and for the Christmas party Dec. 6. Dolls brought by the members for the carnival were on display.

Mrs. Janet Odell, home editor of the Pontiac Press, was the speaker of the evening. Her topic was "Are You Getting Your Money's Worth Out of Your Food Dollar?"

* * *

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Cecil Elsholz and Mrs. Floyd Halpin.

Fall Clothing Sale Scheduled by Kirk

Kirk in the Hills fall sale of clothing sponsored by the Women's Association will be held Friday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Lakeshore House on the church grounds.

Toys, household items and jewelry will also be sold. Mrs. Bertie Tweedale is chairman of the project. Proceeds will be used for kitchen equipment for the new church building.

* * *

Mrs. Schulke is an experienced teacher and writer, as well as a lecturer on flower arrangement.

She has taught classes at the Cleveland Garden Center for a number of years and is an accredited flower show judge and teacher for state flower show schools. Mrs. Schulke will speak particularly about table arrangements.

As chairman of the day, Mrs. Raymond Smith will give a brief history of the club and honor the past presidents.

* * *

Mrs. H. G. Wood is chairman of the tea committee and will be assisted by Mrs. C. C. Adams, Mrs. Robert Chissus, Mrs. Earl Triplett and Mrs. Norman Berry.

Oakland Park WSCS Attends Indian Program

An Indian exhibit, worship center and program were attended by 35 members and guests of Oakland Park Methodist Church WSCS at the October meeting.

Mrs. Elton Behnke, missionary secretary, was program chairman and Mrs. Sidney Barber presented the Indian version of the 23rd Psalm and a prayer.

Mrs. Emerson Brown explained the use of the Women's Division's money and informed the group that this year financial aid would go to Dulac, La., and the Odanoh Indian work at Washburn, Wis.

Others participating in the program were Kathleen Hertel, Mrs. William Childers, Mrs. James George and Mrs. Basil Meidlein.

* * *

Mrs. Irl Williams, president, announced the observance of the week of prayer and self-denial, starting Oct. 26 from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. at the church.

World Community Day will be Tuesday at 10 a.m. at First Presbyterian Church. Plans were made for a family-style turkey dinner Nov. 3.

Doris Reed Wed in Birmingham

BIRMINGHAM — Mrs. Harriett Burton Reed announces the marriage of her daughter, Doris, to James A. McKenna, son of Mrs. W. K. McKenna of Detroit and the late Mr. McKenna, Oct. 13.

The Rev. R. D. Dewey read the service in the Birmingham Congregational Church, and Mrs. Reed gave a bridal supper in her home on Harmon avenue.

The newlyweds are on their wedding trip to Nassau for a fortnight. On their return they will live in Allen Park.

Married Saturday in Farmington were JoAnn Butrick and Donald Allen Crook. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Butrick of Birmingham, and the B. L. Crooks of Farmington are his parents.

MR. and MRS. DONALD A. CROOK

JoAnn Butrick Is Wed in Imported Italian Silk

Wearing a gown of imported Italian silk, JoAnn Butrick became the bride of Donald Allen Crook Saturday at the First Methodist Church of Farmington. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Butrick of Birmingham and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B.L. Crook of Farmington.

* * *

The scoop neckline of the gown was sprinkled with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. The bodice was fitted with a dropped waistline which accented the bouffant skirt. A finger tip veil of nylon tulle fell from her tiara headpiece of sequined lace.

She wore a single strand of pearls and tiny seed pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. Her bridal bouquet was of white chrysanthemums and ivy.

Peggy Ann Altemus of Farmington was maid of honor wearing a white silk faille dress fashioned with an empire bodice of horizontal French pleats and a full skirt. Her headpiece was of white tulle and baby bronze chrysanthemums.

Kay Yates, Dona Crook and Mrs. Andrew Young, all of Detroit, were the other bridal attendants. Their gowns and headpieces were identical to the maid of honor.

Paul A. Steinke of Detroit was best man. Seating the guests were Wayne Kroepel, Walter McKenzie and Andrew Young, all of Detroit.

For the reception held in the evening Mrs. Butrick received the guests wearing a mink shaded taffeta dress with beige accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore a dress of gray satin with red accessories.

When the couple left for a honeymoon trip to the Bahamas and Florida, the new Mrs. Crook was wearing a red velvet dress with black accessories.

Jeanne M. Rogers Wed in Tennessee Ceremony

A floor-length gown of ivory satin was worn by Jeanne Mary Rogers when she became the bride of Richard Maurice French in Oak Ridge, Tenn., Saturday.

* * *

Her full skirt extended into a cathedral-length train. The sweetheart neckline was fashioned with a wide lace yoke insert and her long sleeves ended in points at the wrists.

A crown of lace embroidered with pearls held her illusion veil, and she carried a white prayerbook.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dixon Rogers of Oliver street, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Morris Chester French of Charleston, Ark., and the late Mr. French.

* * *

Mrs. W. P. Rockey of Drayton Plains was matron of honor. Dorothy Rogers of Nashville, Tenn., and Marian Fox of Oak Ridge were bridesmaids. The attendants wore ballerina-length dresses of pale pink velveteen with sweetheart necklines and full sirts. Their flowers were red roses with pink velvet streamers.

ATTENDS BROTHER

Warren G. French of Lexington, Ky., was his brother's best man. Seating the guests were George A. Rogers, Robert W. McWhorter of Chattanooga, Tenn., and James W. Hodges and Norman Parish of Oak Ridge.

* * *

Two hundred and fifty guests attended from Pontiac, Oxford and Lincoln Park. Guests also attended from Nashville and Chattanooga, Tenn.

MRS. RICHARD M. FRENCH

Mrs. Rogers wore dusty rose lace over taffeta with pink accessories and Mrs. French wore a light blue pleated nylon dress with navy accessories.

For their honeymoon trip to Bermuda, the new Mrs. French wore a navy blue suit with light blue accessories. The newlyweds will reside in Oak Ridge on their return.

* * *

The bride is a graduate of the University of Michigan, and Mr. French is a graduate of the University of Arkansas.

Guild 10 Gathers With Mrs. Swett

Mrs. Harry Swett opened her home on Motorway drive to members of Guild 10, All Saints Episcopal church, for a cooperative dinner Tuesday evening. Violet McCoy and Mrs. Glenn Stephens assisted the hostess.

Jessie Brewer, Christian education chairman, reported on the Anglican tradition. In the business meeting plans were completed to hostess the Sunday coffee hour at the church and for the guild's booth at the bazaar being held in December.

The next meeting of the guild will be held Nov. 15 at Stevens Hall.

Panel Talk Heard by Hawthorne PTA

Cecil Cox was moderator of a panel consisting of James Hunt, Paul Allison, Jo Seeley, Mrs. Alton Madden and Mrs. William Aitkens at the October PTA meeting of Hawthorne School.

The panel, which discussed the responsibility of parents in sending their children to school, spoke of the necessity of daily attendance, stressing the fact that oftentimes pertinent information may be mentioned in the classroom only once and absent children miss this valuable instruction.

Hostesses were Mrs. Peter Mihay and Mrs. Louis Norbert. Mrs. Ronald Carr and Mrs. Carl Vallad presided at the tea table.

Travel Program Given Tuesday for Pillar Club

Members and guests of Pillar Club enjoyed a travel program given by Mrs. Dexter Craig and her sister, Jeanette Hubbard of Birmingham, at the Tuesday evening meeting held at the home of Mrs. J. L. Van Wagoner on Andersonville road.

Colored slides taken during a European trip last spring were shown and described with interesting sidelights on several countries.

* * *

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Harold Northon, Mrs. Arno Hulet, Mrs. C. T. Forsman and Mrs. Hedrick.

Mrs. George Wasserberger will open her Illinois avenue home to the group in November.

The new torso lengths call for a warning to the short-waisted. Moral: Be sure it's for you, not just for fashion.

Speaker Says U.N. Holds Key to Peace in Atom Age

Sisterhood Addressed by Educator

By ARNOLD S. HIRSCH

When someone asks Mrs. Philip Gentile why the members of the United Nations don't get along better than they do—perhaps like one big family—she answers with a twinkle, "They do!"

* * *

Mrs. Gentile then hastens to add, "It's better to be shouting than shooting."

Speaking before the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Jacob Tuesday, Mrs. Gentile, a noted adult educator and lecturer who has just returned from a year's study of the United Nations, said:

"The United Nations is no Utopia."

But she added her belief that the U.N. holds the key to peace in this atomic age.

* * *

And beyond the hope of peace, she said, it carries the ideal of a far-increased standard of life for the backward areas of the world.

MRS. PHILIP GENTILE

AREA OF UNREST

The area of the globe where social upheaval is in full swing, Mrs. Gentile said, is the crescent of Arab-Moslem nations.

* * *

"Those people, who once considered their way of life inevitable, now consider it intolerable," she declared.

She lauded UNESCO, the U.N.'s educational, scientific and cultural branch, for its job in helping to raise the living standards in many retarded areas.

Mrs. Gentile, whose year of U.N. study was sponsored by the Ford Foundation's Fund for Adult Education, took the sisterhood members on an imaginary tour of U.N. headquarters in New York City.

And she told them if they ever visit it themselves to go on a sunny day—or at least a day when the sun is shining just before 8 a.m.

SEE THE FLAGS

"The flags don't go up if the sun isn't shining at 7:45," she said. "And it's important to see those 60 flags representing the member nations."

* * *

They denote two things, she said. The first is that these nations have adopted the U.N. as part of their foreign policy. The second is that having accepted the U.N., the U.N. has accepted them.

In addition to the 60 members, 21 other nations have passed the first stage. They still have to pass the second.

Mrs. Gentile's talk was arranged to coincide with U.N. Week, which begins Sunday.

Mrs. Gentile, the wife of a Methodist minister, is employed by the University of Michigan and the Detroit Board of Education.

* * *

She was introduced by Mrs. Herman B. Stenbuck of the sisterhood.

Malkim School Completes Plans for Friday Fair

Plans are completed for the Malkim School Fair being held at the school Friday from 5:30 until 9 p.m.

Mrs. Howard McConnell is general chairman of the affair assisted by Mrs. Ronald Bailey who will be in charge of the kitchen cupboard; Carson Cascadden, hayrides; Mrs. F.J. Dennis, general store; Mrs. Edward Dewey, games, and Mrs. Joseph Watson, spook house.

The usual fair atmosphere will be created by the candied apples, fish pond, baked goods, movies, and fortune-telling booth.

A men's style show is being arranged by Eugene Hoisington, Howard McConnell, Mike Zusack, George Jones, Allison May, Stephen Turner and Carl Vedane.

A family-style dinner is being served beginning at 5:30 p.m. The PTA has extended an invitation to the public to attend.

JOYCE LOREEN CRAGER

Mrs. Dorothy Crager of Euclid avenue announces the engagement of her daughter, Joyce Loreen, to Fred Maurice Madsen. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Madsen of Tacoma court. The couple plans an April wedding.

Frontier Nursing Service Is Explained by Speaker

Oakland County District Nurses learned of the origin and the purpose of Frontier Nursing Service when the association met Tuesday evening at Pontiac General Hospital.

Nola Blair, anesthetist at Pontiac General Hospital who trained under Mrs. Mary Breckenridge, founder of the service, accompanied her talk with movies.

She told the group that Frontier Nursing Service is a national philanthropy, founded and incorporated in 1925, which conducts demonstrations for remotely rural children and families among 10,000 people in a 700 square mile area of the Kentucky mountains.

It supports a well-equipped hospital with 25 beds and 12 bassinets at Hyden, Ky., where children are given free care, and where men and women are received, regardless of what they can pay, for illness and surgery.

* * *

Frontier Nursing Service offers its field of work for observation and study to physicians, nurses, nurse-midwives and social worker, who wish to learn its techniques for use in other rural areas.

During the past four years people have come from England, Austria, Finland, France, Sweden, Ceylon, China, Canada and many other countries to learn of their work.

The Michigan State Nursing Association State Convention is being held in Grand Rapids Oct. 23-26. Representing the local association at this meeting will be Mary Wenzl, president, and Mary Nellanback, treasurer.

* * *

The president announced that the next meeting will be held at Pontiac General Hospital on Nov. 15. Helen Gabrielson, executive secretary of the Michigan State Nursing Association, will be present to address the group.

Hostesses Disagree on 2 Guests

One Doesn't Want to Invite Friends of the Other

By EMILY POST

"A friend and I gave a large party together a year ago. Many of our obligations were to the same people so we thought we would give one large party together to repay these obligations. It worked out very well.

"We would like to give another party this year but a problem has arisen on which I need your help. There are two women on the other hostess' list whom she would like to invite to this party.

"These women are very snobbish and, as a matter of fact, cut me on two occasions. I not only do not want their company but do not want them to think I am bidding for their friendship by inviting them to a party.

"The party is to be held at my house this time and, under the circumstances, I think these two names should be taken off the guest list and my friend should invite them at another time.

"She refuses to do this and says that they are her guests and not mine and they will be under no obligation to me. Nevertheless, I think she should consider my feelings in the matter and not invite them.

"Should they be included; could my name be eliminated from the invitation sent to them? Please let me hear from you."

Answer: Under the extreme circumstances that you describe I am astonished that your cohostess insists that they be invited. I think your suggestion of eliminating your name from their invitations would be possible.

"Dear Mrs. Post: A friend tells me that you said it was better not to look for the hostess to say 'goodby' at a large party and to say 'thank you' for having invited you. To me this sounds very rude and I can't believe that you have made any such statement. I would appreciate hearing from you on this matter."

Answer: I said that if you are leaving a large, general party very early, it is better to slip away quietly than to call attention to your departure. But I did not say that you should fail to say goodnight under ordinary circumstances.

NEW YORK (INS) — A wall clock should be able to do two things at once—give the time and add to the decor.

* * *

For example, there's an electric clock with a ceramic look that can be decorative both when hung singly and when put between two pieces of ceramic tile.

If you've a white wall, a dark charcoal clock might be striking, while if you want to pick up an accent color from other room furnishings, you might find what you want among soft spice, meadow green or coral sand colors.

If combining a round wall clock with tile, try geometric contrast by using square tile, particularly those with rough-surfaced texture interest.

If you want a unified field of wall decor, use a round clock with round, pretty plates or circle framed pictures with a cameo look.

MR. and MRS. EUGENE R. MORRIS

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene R. Morris were married Saturday evening. She is the former Shirley Ann Duddles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Duddles of Gregory road. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Morris of West Brooklyn avenue.

Shirley Duddles Married

Shirley Ann Duddles and Eugene R. Morris were married Saturday evening at a candlelight ceremony in Gingellville Baptist Church. The Rev. William Miles performed the service in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Duddles of Gregory road, and Eugene is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Morris of West Brooklyn avenue.

A gown of lace and tulle over slipper satin was worn by the bride. The bouffant tulle skirt fell from a fitted lace bodice. She carried a bouquet of white roses and pompons.

Marsha Wolff, the bride's only attendant, wore a powder blue waltz-length gown of satin and lace. Her flowers were bronze roses and pompons.

* * *

Roger Duddles was best man, and seating the guests were James Duddles, Robert Pickett and John Xenos.

For the reception held in the church parlors Mrs. Duddles wore a teal blue sheath dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Morris wore a dress of shell pink with black accessories. Her corsage was of white roses and pompons.

Surprise Child With Delicious, Easy Train Cake

BEAUMONT, Tex. (INS)—Construct a "train cake" the next time your youngster has a birthday—it takes only a little time and imagination and your efforts will be appreciated with wide-eyed joy.

* * *

Mrs. Christine Simons, of Beaumont, Tex., made one for a neighbor child this way.

She used a jelly roll for the engine and pound cakes for the four cars. The first car behind the engine was cut to resemble a coal tender and the last car fashioned with a little roof to resemble a caboose.

Wheels were made of marshmallows and gum drops and the driving rods on the engine were licorice sticks.

The bell on the engine was made of a candy kiss, and the engineer's cab (part of the pound cake cut from the coal tender) frosted and held on with toothpicks.

The coal in the tender was chocolate chips. The smokestack of the engine was a candle about a half-inch in diameter.

Glass ovenware is now available in a modern speckled pattern of pink or yellow, as well as in the popular clear glass. The new pattern gives a glamorous touch from kitchen to table.

Girl Left Out as Crowd Adopts Newcomer

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I'm 15—and until a few weeks ago I had friends by the millions. Then this new girl moved in. I thought she was very nice, so I introduced her to all my friends.

"We took her into our group of close friends so she'd feel quickly at home. Then two other girls joined our crowd. They immediately became best friends with the new girl and left me out of many things.

"To call for each other they had to pass my house, but they didn't call for me. After a while this new girl and her best friend turned all the girls and boys against me. (Some say they're jealous because I used to be fat and have lost 30 pounds and look great.)

"I didn't mind so much being left out, but they talk about me behind my back and I can't defend myself.

"The new girl has the run of things and everyone follows her. I can't see myself just one of a herd; I have a mind of my own.

"I don't mind going along part way, but I like to spend my time over the weekends with my family, and during the week the crowd considers me an outsider. Please help me, I'm very confused."

Answer: It always hurts to feel that you've been used and then tossed aside when your usefulness is ended. It sounds very much as though this new girl found in your very friendly welcome a stepping stone to getting started.

You found her first, took her by the hand, introduced her to everybody—and now she's on her way.

She may appreciate the helping hand you gave her, though she's not showing it. Perhaps she finds some of your other friends more congenial, so she's caught on with them. You thought she was nice, so they do, too. So she's getting intimately acquainted around as fast as she can.

She's likely to keep on the move, too. Meeting new friends, dropping others. Throwing her weight around as long as she feels she can get away with it.

But don't forget this: You were there before she was. You are an old hand, though you've a most-attractive new shape. No new girl can come along and upset old tried-and-true relationships permanently.

She's having her fling—a new influence. But it may not last long in your crowd.

So don't take it too seriously. Try to pick up with your old close friends, one after the other. And branch out to make some new friends for yourself.

You've a mind of your own, so use it to launch new friendships and keep yourself busy after school during the week.

Keep your head high and don't mind the talk. It may veer to someone else before long. Then the crowd's eyes may open and see the new girl as the disrupting influence she is.

"Heigh-ho Come to the Fair" is the tune being played as (left to right) Tommy Waugh of East Walton boulevard, Gail Kirby of Northfield avenue, Mrs. John Kish of Scott Lake road, teacher, Joey Watson of East Walton boulevard and Kathleen Hoisington of Northfield avenue ride the bandwagon to the Malkim School Fair to be held Friday from 5:30 until 9 p.m. One of the features of the fair is a family-style dinner to be served by the mothers.

Versatile Styles Do Double Duty

Fashion is not always what it seems, as is proved by designer Jerry Parnis, who turns out the kind of clean-lined clothes that career girls love—and can afford.

In her fall collection, Miss Parnis has a series of dress suits, which are one-piece dresses which look like suits, and coat dresses, that look like coats.

These are done in a variety of handsome tweeds, worsteds and knits, in the dark tones of brown and gray that are so important for fall daytime wear, as well as in dressier fabrics for late day wear.

The dress suit appears to be a two-piece suit, but the skirt is attached to the jacket, which is shown in hip length, three-quarter length or tunic style. The silhouette is slim, with the new longer look through the midriff.

Also featured in the collection are a group of dark crepe dresses to arrive in the stores soon, with the little brown dress stealing the show from the perennial blacks.

Jerry uses many satin trims, usually in the form of a small tailored collar and tie, on her daytime wool dresses, likes velvet for dress-up wear.

A series of silk taffeta and satin cocktail and informal evening dresses are done in sugar mint colors such as lime, orange and cinnamon red.

Her Table-Topper dresses for the cafe society set concentrate interest above the waist, as in a black taffeta dress with a lace top, and a dress of topaz taffeta with matching Chantilly lace bodice.

The number of U.S. women employed as household servants declined from 2 million in 1940 to 1½ million in 1950.

Sale to Have Do-It-Yourself Theme

BLOOMFIELD HILLS—A new angle, the popular do-it-yourself trend, is being stressed for the Christ Church Cranbrook Fall Sale Oct. 27 in the church house.

This ever-growing event, sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary, is a means of furthering social service work done by the church and has gained fame as one of the largest sales in Michigan.

The French Room will have more good clothes than ever, and to the conveniences of a nursery, coffee and doughnut table, and checkroom has been added a snack room for lunch time.

Mrs. David Walker Lee and Mrs. Parbury Schmidt are co-chairman of the sale and have various chairmen of committees assisting them.

Among these are Mrs. Vernon J. Meyers, Mrs. Frederick G. Weed, Mrs. C. R. Weir, Mrs. Russel Robbins, Mrs. Robert W. Budd, Mrs. Theodore Yntema, Mrs. Frank Graham and Mrs. Ormond Wessels.

Mrs. John Graham, Mrs. Carl Nepper, Mrs. David Burton, Mrs. Milton F. Coulson Jr., Mrs. Myron E. Snyder, Mrs. Edward Bennett, Mrs. Richard Teel, Mrs. Richard Darragh and Mrs. John McCurry are also assisting.

Others are Mrs. Lynn Hershey, Mrs. Robert Barrett, Mrs. Richard Wagner, Mrs. Henry W. Woolfenden, Mrs. W. A. McNamee, Mrs. Vernon C. Genn, Mrs. Thomas H. Adams, Mrs. Harold Holmes, Mrs. Benjamin Brewster and Mrs. Clinton S. Hall.

Betty June Bayne became the bride of Charles Frederick Oberg Oct. 8 at Lakeside Methodist Church, Muskegon. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Bayne of Muskegon, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fabian S. Oberg of South Marshall

MR. and MRS. CHARLES F. OBERG

Charles F. Oberg Claims Bride in Muskegon Rite

Lakeside Methodist Church of Muskegon was the setting for the 3 o'clock ceremony uniting in marriage Betty June Bayne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Bayne of Muskegon, and Charles Frederick Oberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fabian S. Oberg of South Marshall street.

* * *

The Rev. F. J. Fitch read the service on Oct. 8 in the presence of 150 guests.

A gown of ivory French Chantilly lace over satin, which she fashioned herself, was worn by the bride. A pannier peplum of lace accented the gown, and the very full skirt fell into a chapel-length train.

Her fingertip veil was secured by a seed pearl crown and she carried a white orchid on her white Bible.

* * *

Mrs. Joyce I. Ludlow, sister of the bride, was matron of honor wearing a mint green crystallette gown. Mrs. Audrey J. Goodman was the bride's other attendant. Her gown was fashioned identically to the honor attendant's in a bronze color.

Both attendants carried cascade arrangements of bronze chrysanthemums and pompons.

TWO FLOWER GIRLS

Ruth Elaine Ludlow and Lola May Ludlow, nieces of the bride, were dressed alike in gowns of gold-colored crystallette for their duties as flower girls.

* * *

Robert F. Goodman of Detroit served as best man and Dale E. Bayne, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church parlors.

Following a honeymoon trip in southern Michigan, the bridegroom returned to Cheyenne, Wyo., where he is serving in the U.S. Air Force.

* * *

The bride is a graduate of Wayne University in occupational therapy.

Modern Shoe Heels Become Even Slimmer

Shoe heels, even the medium ones, have gotten slimmer and slimmer. The Louis heel that used to have a base about the size of a thread spool now has a base as big as a thimble.

* * *

This refining and feminizing of the working gal's shoe is nice. It means that a comfortable heel can be slim enough for evening wear.

But there are drawbacks and they ought to be kept in mind if you're going to invest in new shoes.

The very slim-based heel is hard to balance on if your work means standing up all day. A heel with a larger base can give you a little more support and prevent 5 o'clock crumples.

If your work means a lot of walking around on scratchy pavements, the very slim-based heel is almost a pure liability.

However excellent the leather used to reheel these slivery jobs, it rubs right off in a couple of days of walking.

Run-over heels or lopsided heels are unpardonable; so a slim heel may mean that your shoes have to go to the repairman once a week.

This is not too costly, but it keeps the shoes out of circulation for a large percentage of the time.

If your job is sitting (with some walking) around an office, do get the slim medium heel.

* * *

But if you must walk or stand, search for a more "old-fashioned" medium heel with a somewhat flared base. It is practical and not ugly at all.

Perfume Adds Extra Dimension to Loveliness

In addition to wearing perfume as an accessory to fashion, wear it, too, as a vital part of good grooming; as a moral booster; and most important of all, as your own extra dimension of beauty.

No need to feel that you must be gowned in your most glamorous clothes in order to use fragrance. On the contrary, scent, like lipstick, is just as "correct" and pleasing to those around you when worn first thing in the morning as it is during the after-five hours, for it starts you or your day feeling and looking feminine and well-groomed.

IF you need height—

Skirt length has dropped for dressy situations. It balances the tube skirt and harmonizes with rich fabrics for ladylike look.

Chanel started the ankle-length dress last season. Today every house showed ankle-length dinner dresses. A long look lengthens the short figure but the tall figure too can wear ankle-length.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Ellis were married Saturday evening. She is the former Janis Sue Harmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Harmon of Kemp street. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ellis of Hickory Nut street.

MR. and MRS. RICHARD L. ELLIS

Janis Harmon Becomes Bride in Evening Service

Honeymooning in northern Michigan are the new Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Ellis who were married Saturday evening in Oakland Park Methodist Church.

* * *

The bride is the former Janis Sue Harmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Harmon of Kemp street. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ellis of Hickory Nut street are parents of the bridegroom.

A ballerina-length crystal silk gown with a fitted lace bodice was worn by the bride. A crown of seed pearls secured her veil. A single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, was her only jewelry.

White chrysanthemums centered by a white orchid in a cascade arrangement were carried by the bride.

Doris Harmon, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a ballerina-length gown of peacock crystallette with a matching velvet headpiece. She carried a cascade bouquet of bronze and gold chrysanthemums.

ATTEND BRIDEGROOM

John Ellis of Ann Arbor was best man, and seating the guests were Ray Traver and Robert McCallum

For the reception held in the church parlors, Mrs. Harmon wore a Dior blue lace dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Ellis was gowned in a turquoise dress with matching accessories. Their corsages were of pink roses.

The new Mrs. Ellis chose a navy blue knit suit and the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet for her costume when the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in northern Michigan.

On their return they will reside in Drayton Plains.

Hears Wildflower Lecture

Members of the Pontiac Woman's Club heard R. D. Burroughs, educational superintendent and representative of the State Conservation Department, speak on the work of his department recently when the club met at Waldenwoods, near Hartland.

* * *

The speaker illustrated his talk with slides of Michigan wildflowers which he had photographed himself, in and around Waldenwoods and Haven Hill.

He told the group that rich flora exists in Michigan and that there are many flowers found here that are not found in other areas of the nation.

He also told how wildflowers are becoming scarce because of the spreading population, but that very rare ones may still be found in undisturbed habitat.

The group learned how the wildflower protection law affords a measure of protection, especially where plants are removed in large quantities.

Mrs. Forrest E. Brown was chairman of the Monday affair assisted by Mrs. Daniel O'Dea, Mrs. Turris McCully, Mrs. Clarence Myers, Mrs. H. F. Simmons, Mrs. Elmer O. McLean, Mrs. Glenn Behler, Mrs. Nettie Hymers, Mrs. Albert Simpson and Mrs. Fred Waterson.

Alice Webber Wed to Richard H. Guy

Alice Joyce Webber and Richard Hollingsworth Guy were married Oct. 14 at First Presbyterian Church in the presence of their immediate families.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Webber of Kimball court are the parents of the bride, and the bridegroom's parents are the Ernest L. Guys of Brookdale lane. After a short wedding trip, the newlyweds will reside on Cass-Elizabeth Lake road.

Mrs. Little Hostess to February Group

Members of the February Group of the First Presbyterian Church met at the home of Mrs. J. J. Little on Franklin road Monday. Mrs. H. O. Whitfield assisted the hostess for the dessert luncheon.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Roy Fosbender, and Mrs. Bradley Scott gave the missionary study report on "Christian Women in Her Household."

Plans were completed for a benefit luncheon to be held at the church on Thursday.

St. Joseph Alumnae Plan Card Party

Plans for the annual card party were completed when members of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Alumnae met in the cafeteria of the hospital on Monday.

The party will be held on Dec. 1 in St. Benedict Hall. Entertainment will be provided by a local dance studio.

"Let's Keep It Simple" was the topic discussed by Edythe McCulloch when she spoke to members, following the business meeting.

Don't Concentrate on 'Dream' Job

By ANNE HEYWOOD

A bright young career girl wrote me a most amusing letter recently, which began like this:

* * *

"When I was in my teens, I had a beau who kept telling me he'd phone and then didn't. I used to sit by the telephone for hours, waiting for it to ring.

"And I thought that that was the most awful experience in the world—waiting for a beau to call you up.

"But now, I'm job-changing and I know there's another experience just as horrible—and that is when the employer who has the job that you're dying for tells you he'll telephone and let you know if you're the one.

"He'll promise to call early in the week, but the whole week goes by and he doesn't call!

* * *

"What can you do for this type of telephone trouble?"

IN ONE BASKET

In any job-changing campaign—as in social life!—it doesn't pay to have all your eggs in one basket. To want one thing, desperately, is usually to get so tense about it that you lose it.

Try to send out enough job-hunting letters and get enough interviews so that you uncover three or four dream jobs. Then no one is too important and you relax.

Don't rest at all until you have actually signed up for a job. Instead of sitting by the telephone, go out and dig up some more prospects.

If you're so busy that you've forgotten all about the "dream" job, chances are it will drop in your lap.

And don't discuss your prospects with anyone—friend, mother, husband. Keep it firmly to yourself until the job is in the bag.

TOO MUCH SUSPENSE

Many times, you could handle the waiting and the suspense alone, but it becomes heightened if friends are always asking, "Heard from the Blank Company yet?" Then it stirs up in you again and you get tense and impatient.

* * *

When you have no interviews and find yourself eyeing the phone wistfully, get busy.

Go to the library and read up in the field of your interest. Or take the time to get your wardrobe all spruced up, so that you're ready at the drop of a hat. Or take a long walk, for the good of your skin and figure.

But never, under any circumstances, sit glued to the chair waiting for the telephone to ring. It can demoralize you for days!

Toque Wearing in Vogue

NEW YORK (INS) — The most stylish new hat of the season is a hat which only one woman in the world dared wear for 30 years.

It's the toque—the hat that the late dowager Queen Mary of England favored so much that she wore it constantly.

According to the dictionary, a toque (it's pronounced with a long o) is a little brimless hat. According to 1955 fashion, it's a big brimless hat that sits square on the head.

The French designers revived it first in frou-frou versions of tulle and feathers which looked like over-size powder puffs on the head. Now it's being made in almost any material for day and evening wear. It is, in fact, that "bulky" hat you've been hearing about.

Women who have spent ten years getting used to pint-sized pillboxes may be afraid of wearing toques. But stores report that women who try on toques in comparison with smaller hats generally take the toque. The secret is that the bulkier hat makes the face seem smaller.

The main point to remember when trying on a toque is to see yourself in a full-size mirror. A bulkier, higher hat should be in proportion to the body or it can make a woman look like the stalk to a mushroom cap. Toques come in various heights to suit all figures.

Dandelion greens often are fed to silkworms when mulberry leaves are scarce.

Fruit Glaze for Ham Easy to Do

Mrs. Barner Uses Can of Orange Juice for Basting Meat

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Baked ham is probably the favorite meat for buffet suppers and large dinners. If you buy the precooked hams, you need only heat them 15 minutes to the pound before serving. Mrs. L. C. Barner found a simple way of glazing one of these hams just recently.

Mrs. Barner is a pleasant person to be with because of her merry disposition. She loves to sing and is a member of her church choir and of Tuesday Musicale Chorus. Other church groups to which she belongs also receive her services.

ORANGE GLAZE FOR HAM

By Mrs. L. C. Barner

When you put the ham in the oven, pour over it 1 cup of canned orange juice. Every 15-20 minutes during the baking time baste the ham with this juice. Add more juice when necessary. Mrs. Barner thinks she used about 2 cups of juice on a 12-14 pound ham. She says the ham was nicely glazed by the time it was heated through.

Initiation Conducted by Stabafa Tuesday

New members of Stabafa were welcomed into the club and presented with club pins at the formal initiation held Tuesday evening in the home of Terri Fortino.

Sharon Holland, former club member, was voted junior sponsor. Miss Holland presided at the pink and white decorated tea table.

Articles of clothing were donated by members for the ingathering of the Needlework Guild, and plans for the coming year were discussed in the business meeting presided over by Lynne Benter, president.

The next meeting will be at the home of Sharon Gale on Navajo drive.

Stoles Are 'Stand-Ins'

Tunics look new if buttoned tightly in a double-breasted effect. Stoles become "stand-ins" for jackets or even coats if they are trimmed with buttons and pockets.

Even the cardigan you already own can have a new stylish life by means of shiny leather or fancy jeweled buttons.

Fashion Demands Scarf Be Chic Yet Functional

When fashions are limberlined and pared-down, accessories grow in imagination.

The wearers should, too, taking advantage of supple clothes and handsome high points to bring out the best in a face and figure.

Seldom have styles so demanded the cooperation of that most maleable of accessories, the scarf. Take a peek at what's most popular on the clothing racks and see if it's not true.

The skinny look is everywhere. Whether it's the echo of the Paris look or our own favorite dark suit classic, it's being worn by every figure that can bear it. The dash of a scarf is wonderful here. On a dark suit, two brilliant 19-inch squares add color and line sparkle. One goes on high; gilet-style, the other floats over the shoulder to soften the dark splinter of suit.

BARENESS POPULAR

Bareness comes into popularity for evening. Properly managed, a cut-out neck is flattering both to the full bosom and the slender one.

This look takes a scarf with delight. For those who consider their necks and shoulders assets, a scarf provides a frame. For those who feel they have modest bosoms, a scarf is an artful touch.

A low square neck gets a handsome compliment from an oblong ribbon scarf. A Jacquard pattern adds a texture note. It goes high in back to cover bare shoulders and is draped low in front, as a satin cuff, to fill in the square with a look that's after-five but never too uncovered.

The sweater look is perennial, but never such a hardy blossom as this fall. It's a soft, smooth, typically young American look.

To change the look of a favorite sweater from one wearing to another, a scarf is perfection. It can be tucked in, looped through a cardigan or worn, sailor-style, on the slip-over.

SWEATER CONTRASTS

As a contrast to the monochromatic sweater, glowing paisley colors and the traditional pattern are perfect.

Each top look this fall has its scarf, plus imagination and experimentation. Tie the knot between the clothes and the accessories in a manner that is perfectly individual.

CAROL LOUISE HARROUN

Mr. and Mrs. F. Earl Harroun of Kenilworth avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol Louise, to Jackie Dale Payne son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Payne of Fuller street. No date has been set for the wedding.

Nice Fragrance Adds Glamor to Girl's Walk

How nice to smell nice!

Swishing up a delicious fragrance on entering a room can be even more becoming at times than smelling sweet to those who are near you

It adds a real aura of glamor to gals who like to make a dramatic entrance.

The idea of swishing it up while walking was discovered by Lilly Dache, who, in addition to her millinery duties, is president of a well-known perfume concern.

Miss Dache suggests doing it the following way: just before going out, spray legs, feet and hemline with a fragrance from a push-button bottle.

She points out that this locale for perfume is often neglected, yet these are the parts that move about, stirring up the air and spreading the fragrance about.

In addition to charming those about one, this trick of traveling in a cloud of scent adds to one the feeling of being surrounded by a very personal air of delight.

Anyone who knows the dressed-up feeling of wearing brand-new lingerie, even though no one sees it, will know this feeling of self-assurance from moving in a cloud.

The fragrance Miss Dache suggests is one of her own, one that's halfway between a perfume and a cologne, combining economy and staying power.

All four scents come in plastic bottles with pressurized valves at the top.

Bonnie Woodard Becomes Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodard of Ascot road announce the Sept. 24 marriage of their daughter, Bonnie Elaine, to Airman 2.C. Ronald Eugene Traylor, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Traylor of Clarkston.

Mr. and Mrs. Traylor were witnesses for the ceremony performed in Angola, Ind. The new Mrs. Traylor will reside in Clarkston until she joins her husband who is stationed in Albany, Ga., with the U. S. Air Force.

Combine Separates

There are overblouses and tuck-in blouses, middies, jerkins, weskits, torso sweaters, bolero sweaters, dress-up sweaters and dress-down sweaters.

Today it is possible to put together a complete wardrobe of separate tops and skirts, ranging from school-and-office outfits to formal costumes.

O-Jib-Wa Bitters Made It Possible To Eat Any Food Without Indigestion

"I AM ANOTHER SATISFIED CUSTOMER OF O-JIB-WA BITTERS, AND AM GLAD TO TELL EVERYONE HOW THIS AMAZING MEDICINE HELPED ME. FRIED FOODS, CAKE, JAM OR ANY KIND OF SWEETS USED TO UPSET MY STOMACH, CAUSING GAS AND INDIGESTION. MY CHEST WOULD TIGHTEN UP AND I HAD TO TAKE SODA TO RELIEVE THE GAS. ALL I NEEDED WAS A STRAWBERRY JAM SANDWICH TO BE IN MISERY WITH A GOOD CASE OF INDIGESTION. I SUFFERED THIS WAY FOR ABOUT A YEAR, UNTIL A FRIEND OF MINE FROM BAD AXE RECOMMENDED O-JIB-WA BITTERS. I BOUGHT A BOTTLE, AND JUST THREE WEEKS LATER, I WAS COMPLETELY BETTER. THAT WAS THREE YEARS AGO, AND I HAVEN'T HAD AN ATTACK SINCE. PERSONALLY, I THINK THAT O-JIB-WA BITTERS IS THE VERY BEST STOMACH MEDICINE EVER MADE." AVAILABLE AT ALL DRUG STORES.

Jewels Worth $125,000 Stolen

2 Gunmen Force Way Into Home of Wealthy Omaha Widow

OMAHA (AP)— "They really cleaned me out," said Mrs. Margaret Kellogg today, motioning to a big bedroom safe from which two masked gunmen had taken $125,000 in jewels and $20,000 in cash.

The robbers smashed their way into the big brick home on Omaha's fashionable West Side last night while Mrs. Kellogg, 58-year-old banker's widow, and three women friends watched television upstairs.

* * *

The women said the gunmen were nervous and confused, but when they spied Mrs. Kellogg, who had come to the head of the stairs, one shouted, "She's the one we want," and dashed up.

Mrs. Kellogg retreated to her bedroom but the bandit slammed his shoulder through the door panel, jammed a pistol in Mrs. Kellogg's back and ordered her to open the big, old-fashioned safe.

The two men laid a bedspread on the floor and tossed the jewels and money into it. The jewelry included a diamond dog collar for one of Mrs. Kellogg's three pet chihuahuas.

During the confusion, one of the women, Miss Gladys Rohrs, slipped out, alerted neighbors and called police. A neighbor fired at the fleeing pair with a target pistol and police arrived shortly afterward, but the gunmen escaped safely in a waiting car driven by a third man.

3 Whooping Cranes Sighted in Refuge

AUSTWELL, Tex. (AP) — Three whooping cranes, vanguard of an expected flock, were sighted on Aransas National Wildlife Refuge yesterday by refuge manager Julian Howard.

Howard said he saw the birds, two adults and a youngster, from a refuge patrol boat just before noon. He said the young whooper was hatched last June near Great Slave Lake in northwestern Canada.

* * *

Last fall, he said, 21 adults that had flown north in the spring came back with no young. The cranes are America's tallest waterfowl and scarcest species.

Canadian wild life officials spotted six young on the nesting range this summer.

Plans Year in Sierras Living by Gun and Knife

RENO, Nev. (AP)—A 21-year-old former railroad worker says he plans to spend a year in the Sierras with nothing but his gun, a knife and a sleeping bag to help him survive.

Terming himself an "amateur scientist", Fred Smith said he wants to show a man can brave the elements in the high mountain country and return to civilization well and intact.

He said he will walk to Truckee, 35 miles to the west, then head into the area north of Donner Pass. He said he would establish a lean-to headquarters and forage for food within a 25-mile radius.

Secret Process for Whisky Seen Against Scot Law

ABERDEEN, Scotland — Locked in the vaults of a bank here is a secret formula that perhaps could revolutionize Scotch whisky making and earn millions.

It would enable the maturing of whisky in 8½ hours instead of three years, according to Tom Scott Sutherland, who developed it with the aid of two chemists. But he does not know what to do with it.

Sutherland has had his whisky, only a fortnight old, tasted by experts who identified it as three years old. But unless he can get the law changed he can do nothing with it.

Blind Now Tour River

LONDON (INS)—A whole new world for London's blind has been opened up by the inauguration of "sound-seeing" tours on the River Thames. The "voice" of London's famous river—ships' whistles, fog horns, the chugging of tugs, the clank of cranes—is giving new pleasure to hundreds who cannot actually see is picturesque reaches.

Arab-Jew Peace Seen Over Dam

River Development Plan Would Irrigate Areas in Middle East

WASHINGTON (AP) — American officials are talking hopefully again about winning Arab approval of a river development plan conceived as a means of reversing Arab-Israeli tensions.

"Prospects are very good," special envoy Eric Johnston said last night as he reported to Secretary of State Dulles on the status of the Jordan River development plan.

This attitude contrasts strongly with the gloomy picture painted in Washington last week. The assessment then was that the 120-million-dollar irrigation-dam proposal was on the verge of collapse after the Arab states, led by Lebanon and Syria, voted at Cairo to delay it for further study.

"The Arab states asked for more time and that seemed like a reasonable request," Johnston said. "After all, both Lebanon and Syria have governments which are less than two weeks old."

Johnston said he expects to hear from the Arab states "very shortly" and has "been assured" by them that last week's postponement was "not a death sentence in disguise."

Johnston made his statements to newsmen at Washingtons National Airport after returning from his fourth trip to Cairo

Newsmen Flunk Trucking Tests

Champion Drivers Give Exhibition at National Convention Site

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18 (AP) — Many motorists appear convinced that (A) any simpleton can drive a truck and (B) truck drivers are snarling savages, dedicated to scaring the rest of us off the highways.

Well, members of the American Truck Associations are in town today for the 22nd annual convention and they are working hard trying to knock down both impressions.

To answer problem (A), they invited a group of newspaper men to a parking lot, plopped them into the cabs of fancy new trucks, and let them try out as drivers.

The results of this test were inconclusive.

TERRIBLE JOCKEYS

True, the reporters proved to be terrible jockeys.

One daring Robin Hood of our typewriter set tried a test used on champion drivers. He attempted to herd his truck so that the big wheels passed through two rows of rubber balls without disturbing any on either side.

A truck driver is unhappy if, on two trips through the lane, he knocks off one. Our hero, with unerring inaccuracy, knocked them all off.

Still, does that necessarily disprove the theory that any simpleton can drive a truck?

As one newsman said, "my wife asked me, 'why are you trying to learn how to drive a truck in one afternoon, when, after 20 years, you still can't drive the family car?'"

MORE GENTLEMANLY

On (B), the experiment seemed on firmer ground. For the state champions fetched in for the so-called National Roadeo appeared far more gentlemanly than, say, a trucker who insists on staying a foot behind your rear bumper as he roars through tunnels on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Harry Eads of Detroit is Michigan's champion at driving with two big trailers hitched on behind. His truck-trailer is so big it's barred in most states, so national competition in this class has been dropped, but he got a free trip here anyway.

"You know," he said, "most people don't realize it, but a truck driver has a lot of valuable equipment, and he's got all that valuable merchandise, and he has to take care of it and get it over the road without hurting anybody. That's a lot of responsibility, and I always have tried hard to live up to it."

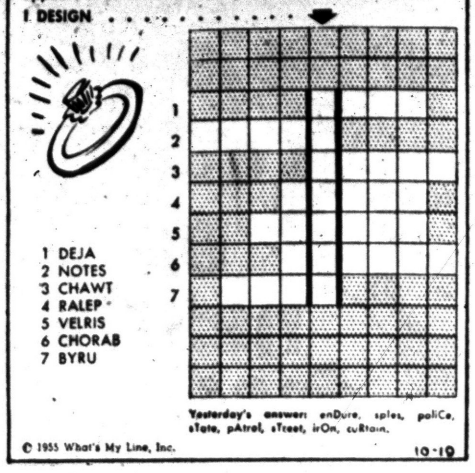

Magazine to Be Mailed

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Post Office Department has approved mail distribution of the January issue of Confidential magazine. A Federal Court ruled a week ago that the department could have the prior look at the magazine which contains alleged expose articles about well-known personalities. The matter was taken to court after federal lawyers said they had received many complaints about contents of the publication, against which libel suits are pending.

Chronic Nepotism Stunts Growth of Good Business

NEW YORK (AP)—Many a businessman has looked forward to the day when he could add "& son" to the firm's name. And many a corporation executive has looked around in his organization for a job with sufficient prestige for his son-in-law.

* * *

Is that as good for the business as it is for the relative?

This very human practice of placing relatives in responsible jobs with first regard for their kinship rather than for their merit or qualification goes by the name of nepotism. It's been around a long time, in politics and business, and the name originated in church practicies of an earlier day.

RAMPANT NEPOTISM

In a family-owned business it's the family's own affair how nepotism works out. The "& son" can be a family indulgence. Quite often the son does a good job, sometimes better than Dad did.

In a publicly owned corporation, nepotism is the concern of the many stockholders as well as others in the management.

* * *

Curious as to how much nepotism there is in business in this country, the American Institute of Management, a nonprofit foundation, studied the directorates and executives rosters of 23,000 companies. It found nepotism in about 12,000.

STUNTS MANY FIRMS

Stressing that many such corporations are excellently managed, the institute nevertheless points out that "chronic nepotism has caused the failure of many enterprises and companies, stunted the growth of many others, delayed and hampered still others."

Trouble can arise within the corporation, the institute holds, because the choice of relatives for top positions more or leass defeats any program of executive development. Also it breeds jealousy. Other executives see little chance for advancement. Sometimes it leads to struggles for control.

There is the steep federal and state inheritance tax. This often keeps the chief owner of a large company from passing control to his children, or leaving them as much of an estate in other forms as he would like.

So he tries to see that they inherit top positions, even if the tax collector gets most of the proceeds of the stock holdings.

Seeks Red Spy Ring

WASHINGTON (INS) — Senate Internal Security Chairman James O. Eastland (D-Miss), says his investigators are trying to unmask the operations of a new secret Red spy ring in the U.S. appearing on a network broadcast, he declined to spell out details but confirmed his belief that hidden Communist espionage cells are still operating in the country.

Chile Diplomat Dies in Capital Hospital

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dr. Carlos Davila, secretary general of the Organization of American States, died early today.

* * *

The 68-year-old Chilean statesman-writer had been seriously ill since last June when he underwent an operation for a kidney ailment. A heart attack last Sunday hastened his death.

The operation disclosed that Dr. Davila suffered from cancer. But he refused to give up and did much of his work almost to the end of his colorful career.

The OAS is an organization of the 21 American republics.

An OAS representative said the body will be flown to Chile for burial.

* * *

Dr. Davila served briefly in 1932 as provisional president of Chile, and from 1927 to 1931 was Chilean ambassador to the United States. He had lived in this country most of the time since 1933, serving as correspondent for a number of leading South American newspapers. He had been active also in United Nations affairs.

Cool Turtle Advertises

JERSEYVILLE, Ill. (AP) — Fred Herold, assistant cashier of the State Bank, reports the unusual behavior of a "mud turtle." The voiceless terrapin has been living in the alley at the rear of the bank building where the "water tower" of the bank's cooling system is stationed. During hot weather it's the coolest spot in town, and the turtle is advertising it no end.

If the average reader took a step for each movement of the eyes made in an eight-hour day of reading, he'd walk 33 miles, according to the Better Vision Institute.

Snakes Choose Firemen

BUTTE, Mont. (AP) — A forest fire fighting crew was forced to suspend operations by rattlesnakes slithering through the darkness to escape hot rock nests near Divide, Mont. The snakes were so thick it was just too dangerous to go on fighting the 2½ acre Deer Lodge National Forest fire, reported Ranger Merle Hofferber.

North Carolina State College experts estimate it would cost 42 cents today to buy almost any other foods that would give the same nourishment as a quart of milk.

Slats Aid Eire Railway

DUBLIN, Eire — Traveling on broad wooden slats, tractors have helped lay 35 miles of narrow gauge railway track across large peat bogs near Boora, Eire. Laying track on the peat-bearing area was a major engineering feat for tractors had to travel on ground too soft for a man to walk over. Eire hopes to develop 1,000,000 tons a year of milled peat there.

Pays Himself $11.50 Fine

TEMPLE, Tex. (AP) — Justice A. E. Son Warren paid himself an $11.50 fine for driving on the wrong side of the highway. He said his mind was on a fishing trip and figured motorists who blew their horns and waved as they passed "were just friendly folks" — so he waved back at them.

Walled Lake Asks $750,000

Planning New Construction

Board Also Sells Bonds Amounting to $275,000 at Meeting

WALLED LAKE—The Board of Education here proposed a $750,000 bond issue for school construction at a special meeting Monday night.

The program planned would cost $850,000 over the next three years and would require a $750,000 bond issue to supplement $100,000 already on hand. This program would provide classrooms and facilities for an increase of 1,000 pupils in the elementary schools.

Past experience, plus enrollment projections, indicates to officials that an increase of 1,000 elementary pupils by 1958 is a comservative estimate.

If the program is approved by Walled Lake School district citizens, the bonds would be sold at intervals during the three year period. This would permit the Board of Education to finance the construction as needs develop.

The balance of the $825,000 bond issue, voted Nov. 29, 1954, amounting to $275,000 was sold at this meeting. Low bidder was Braun, Bosworth and Co. at an average interest rate of 3.2684 per cent. The proceeds of this sale will be used to complete present construction payments.

Abandoned Cemetery Is Concern of Southfield

By NANCE BELLEFLEUR
Press Correspondent

SOUTHFIELD—For the past 18 months, Southfield officials have been trying to find out who really owns an abandoned cemetery situated at Eight Mile and Shiawassee Roads.

* * *

Known as "Bodin Cemetery" and believed originally to have contained 22 graves of early Southfield and Detroit families, of which only six tombstones remain, it is a scene of desolation and neglect.

Tangled underbrush and weeds cover the overturned tombstones, and rusty tin cans dot the little graveyard.

One tombstone, barely legible, carries the inscription "Baby Son of John M. and Lottie C. Bodin, Oct. 4, 1886." Another is inscribed "Charles C. Rogers."

Supervisor Eugene Swem said recently that he fears Southfield's rapid development will over-run the property and lead to desecration of the graves.

As far as Southfield officials can make out, the cemetery was a private plot owned by early farmers in the region.

Swem said that "Because the cemetery was exempted when title to the rest of the land was transferred, it is almost impossible to trace ownership of the cemetery.

The township is unable to take action to vacate the cemetery and have the bodies removed to a more suitable resting place, said Swem, because it does not own the property.

Officials are now debating taking the matter to court to have the title cleared.

* * *

It would then be up to Southfield authorities to remove the bodies to another resting place.

Dinner Marks Golden Wedding at Imlay City

IMLAY CITY—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kempf celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary and Mrs. Kempf's birthday, Sunday, with a dinner at the Homestead Restaurant.

The couple's children and their families were present, including nine grandchildren.

Mr. Kempf has been in the shoe business here for more than fifty years.

4-H Club Holds Annual Show

Crop Exhibits, Awards Featured at Wednesday Luncheon

The Oakland County 4-H Club held it's annual Club Crop Show at the Waldron Hotel yesterday afternoon under the sponsorship of the Pontiac Kiwanis Club.

Crop exhibits and presentations of awards featured the luncheon given by the Kiwanians.

In the potato crop awards, Roger Voorheis, of White Lake, won first place and the $10 accompanying it; Robert Middleton, of Lake Orion, placed second and received $7.50; and Calvin Voorheis, of White Lake, won third place and $5.00.

Middleton was chosen to represent Oakland county at the grand finals in Chicago next February, since both of the Voorheis brothers had previously made the trip and thus became ineligible.

In the fruit class, Robert Middleton, Lake Orion, placed first in both the apples and pear division.

The corn crop class had nine 'A' award winners. They were Walter Cudnohsky, of Lake Orion; Larry Middleton, Lake Orion; Glenn Marble, White Lake; Jane Booth, Rochester; Eddie Keiser, Milford; Stuart Hutchins, Rochester; Edward Vanderhoof, White Lake; R. D. Perry, Oxford and Earle Perry, of Clarkston.

In the grain class, the oats award winners were Stanley Owens, Holly; Dick Scramlin, Holly; Larry Scramlin, Holly; and Stuart Hutchins, Rochester. The wheat awards went to Raymond Glynn, White Lake; Dick Scramlin and Larry Scramlin, both of Holly; and Jim Ogden, Holly.

After awards and presentations were made, the club members attended a local movie.

TOASTMASTERS' NEW PRESIDENT

Waterford Toastmasters Hold Banquet

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — At an annual banquet held in the Community Activities Building Tuesday evening, the Waterford Toastmasters Club installed its newly elected slate of officers.

Retiring President George A. Luenberger presented the gavel to Ed Chandler of 4431 Parnell St., Clarkston, who will take over the reins for the next 12 months.

President Chandler introduced his team for 1956: Jerry Mejeur is education vice president; Jerry White is administrative vice president; Del Wright, secretary; Lewis Long, treasurer, and Howard Fougner is sergeant-at-arms.

Lowell Stuckman of 1095 James K. Blvd. gave a talk on "Consider the Husband," a plea to the wives present. Elmer Lepp spoke on "Middleground or Battleground."

Celebrating the thirty-first birthday of the first Toastmasters Club in Santa Ana, Calif., it was noted that there are now over 2,000 such clubs throughout the world. Pontiac, having both a Pontiac Y Toastmasters club and a Pontiac Toastmistress club, assisted the formation of the new Waterford Club just one year ago this month.

With an active membership of 21 and a constitutional limit of 30 members, the Waterford Toastmasters Club meets each Thursday evening inviting men who are interested in character development through speech development to contact President Ed Chandler, ORlando 3-4492.

Reception Held for Newlyweds to Live in Dryden

DRYDEN—More than 100 relatives and friends attended the recent wedding reception for Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McMullen at Forest Hill.

Mrs. McMullen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clement of Ann Arbor and Daniel is the son of Mrs. Leota Chisholm of Dryden. The pair were married Oct. 8 in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. McMullen will make their home in Dryden.

Council Will Check Holly Water Service

HOLLY—On account of a substantial decrease in the revenue received by the village water department, the council is making a check on the service, and an increase in the rate may be necessary.

The decrease has accumulated over a period of increased pumpage, and an effort is being made to discover the leaks.

Start Scout Training

FOUR TOWNS — A Cub Scout training course starts at 7:30 tonight in Stringham School. Anyone interested should take advantage of the course.

Finance Commission Okays Borrowing

LANSING—Public borrowings approved today by the State Municipal Finance Commission included the following school districts.

Oakland County: Royal Oak and Troy Townships School District No. 11 fractional, $30,000 capital improvement tax notes to buy sites.

Extension Club Names New Officers at Meet

LEONARD—Two Towns Extension Club has elected the following new officers:

Mrs. John Jarrett will lead the group; assistant leader, Mrs. Harold Rowley; chairman, Mrs. Melvin Thorman; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. John Sutherby and publicity, Mrs. Herman Weigold Sr.

The next meeting is set for Nov. 8 with the "Christmas Workshop" discussion planned.

MR. AND MRS. H AROLD J. HOUSE

House-McGoughey Rite Performed at Waterford

ORTONVILLE—The Waterford Community Church was the scene of the Saturday marriage of Joan McGoughey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus McGoughey, 335 Ball St., and Harold J. House, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. House, 1818 M-15, Ortonville.

* * *

A floor-length gown of imported lace and pleated tulle over satin was chosen by the bride for her wedding. The fitted bodice had a V neckline edged in iridescent sequins. The fingertip veil of lace was held in place by a pearl and sequin cap. Joan carried white roses and baby mums on a white Bible.

Sister of the groom, Mrs. Delores Heathman, of Pontiac, served as matron of honor. Jeanett Ferdon and Judy House were bridesmaids while Sandra House was flower girl. James Heathman of Pontiac was best man and William Engle and Edward Sornig seated the 250 guests.

After a reception in the VFW Hall in Drayton Plains, the new Mr. and Mrs. House left for a wedding trip to South Carolina. On their return they will reside at 7120 Andersonville Rd., Clarkston.

Optimist Club to Meet

SOUTHFIELD — The Southfield Optimist Club will meet at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at Fruitridge Inn, 13 Mile Road at Southfield Road. Harold Schone, Oak Park City Manager will be guest speaker. His topic will be "My Job as a City Manager."

The Belgian Congo is larger than the part of the United States lying east of the Mississippi River.

Will Study Mental Health

MACOMB—The Macomb County Citizens' Committee for Pontiac State Hospital will hold its first meeting at 8:00 p.m. Thursday at the Civic Center, 65 East Broadway, Mt. Clemens. Dr. George H. Reye, staff psychiatrist at the Pontiac State Hospital and State Representative George Steeh will be the key speakers.

The Citizens' Committee originated because many Macomb County friends and relatives of present and former patients at Pontiac State Hospital wanted to associate in an effort to learn all they could about mental illness. By learning they could then educate their own communities in a better understanding of the problems confronting the mentally ill. The group will also promote fund raising projects to provide recreational and associated facilities which will be of benefit and aid in the recovery of patients at the Pontiac State Hospital.

Pontiac State Hospital has a patient population of 3300 and services a ten-county area which includes Macomb County. The average Macomb County population at the hospital is around 300 patients. The original citizens interested in forming this committee were aware that no such organization was in existence in any of the ten counties sending patients to the Pontiac State Hospital. They felt it their duty and responsibility to pioneer such a dedicated effort whose purpose would be removing stigmas, prejudices, and misconceptions associated with mental illness.

By such an association it was believed that they could do things for the hospital patients and also educate their communities to be more understanding and accepting of the patient who has recovered and is ready to once again become a contributing member of his community.

The Citizens' Committee recognizes mental illness as a disease which can be treated, just as tuberculosis, cancer and other such diseases.

The temporary officers of the group are: Ray Callens, chairman, Mrs. Vernon Kerwin, secretary, and Lawrence Steeh, treasurer. Other members of the organizing committee are Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kandt, Mrs. Alfred Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Martell and Mrs. Mary Garman, Ted A. Panaretos, psychiatric case work supervisor at Pontiac State Hospital, will act as consultant to the group.

* * *

The Macomb County Citizens' Committee for Pontiac State Hospital extends an invitation to all persons interested in mental health to attend the meetings. Mrs. Vernon Kerwin, secretary to the group, can be reached by card or letter at P. O. Box 266, Mt. Clemens, Michigan.

Mrs. Wilson Pinch Hits for Suffering Helpmate

"Thousands of women could add years to their lives—simply by telling the truth about their ages."—Martha Scott.

By MRS. EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—My husband, Oil is just plain daffy about saving time. HIS time, I mean. Yours he doesn't mind wasting.

Some years ago he installed an 8-day week in himself.

★ ★ ★ ★

Hard? Not for my Oil. By being 10 minutes late for all appointments, by getting out of bed the instant he woke up instead of wallowing around in the covers for 10 or 12 seconds, by shaving while showering, and not cutting his head off, either, he saved 24 hours a week. That gave him an 8th day every week which he named "Earlsday."

TIME RAN OUT

Anyway, one day last week, I said, "Your dentist said you'd better drop around while you still have some teeth left."

He sort of sniffed superiorly that he was too busy and that it would be a waste of time right then. However, he was going to budget some time for the dentist, who is a lady, the next couple weeks or so.

"According to my time-saving program, it'd be highly inefficient of me to go till two weeks from Thursday," he said.

By a strange coincidence, he had a toothache the next night.

"Better go," I told him.

"I told you I haven't time now," he snapped. "I've got to finish a project I'm working on. I've budgeted two hours for this tooth week after next."

Well, what a pleasant weekend we didn't have!

Saturday night his tooth was killing him, Sunday he was dead with it, Sunday night he'd practically been buried with it—and, what was worse, during this whole weekend there hadn't been a lick of production. The roar of the typewriters had ceased and time was a-wasting.

The tooth hurt so bad that he had to take a strong sedative.

"It doesn't help," he screamed.

"That was enough for a horse," the dentist said on the phone, "but so all right, take another one."

He did—and after that he slept two days. When he regained what he calls his consciousness, his face was so swollen he couldn't have the tooth pulled for another day. He just tossed around in bed like a cha cha dancer, getting over the sedative. Figuring that he has an eight-day speed-up week, he must've lost two years in those four days.

Well, the tooth's finally out, and there's talk of a nine-day week being put in temporarily to make up for the lost 10 years. The moral is time, tide and teeth wait for no man and, as Slugger says, "That's the tooth, the whole tooth and nothing but the tooth."

SUSI PETERS

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Herb Shriner invited us submarine-ridin' . . . Dorothy Kirsten phoned from San Francisco to deny our horrid story that she's planning surgery. Says she's blooming, and has a big season ahead.

Susi Peters was named queen of the Screen Publicists Guild ball at the Pierre . . . Tallulah Bankhead, selling her Conn. home, said it'll boost real estate values, "because the place'll be much quieter." . . . Corinne Calvet said she'll make another film in Spain before the baby arrives . . . Joe DiMaggio flies to Puerto Rico this week to write a piece on winter baseball.

Bedridden Joe E. Lewis got up out of a warm gin game to greet Author Joey Adams' new book "Strictly for Laughs" at Danny's Hideaway. Silenced by laryngitis two nights, Joe's back at the Copa.

The Dean Martins' splitup recalls his line at a party he attended without Jerry. Dean said jokingly, "I'm here to end the vicious rumor that Jerry and I are getting along fine."

★ ★ ★ ★

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: "Mothers-in-law," claims Woody Allen, a bachelor, "are like seeds—you don't need them, but they come with the tomato."

A guest in a B'way restaurant told the waiter he'd made one setting too many at the table. "Leave it," sighed the waiter—"may be I'll sit down with you." That's earl, brother.

Cancer Volunteers Attend Conference

A group of Pontiac people have just returned from attending a volunteer leadership training conference of the American Cancer Society held at East Lansing.

Mrs. Ted Koella Jr., Mrs. H. Edwin Scott, Mr. Philip Francis and Mrs. Russell Wainscott, all of Pontiac, heard the three-day series of lectures.

Also present for the course were Mrs. Ray Kingsbury of Drayton Plains, Mrs. Milo McLintock of Birmingham, Mrs. F. J. Pierson of Milford, Mrs. Willard Dickerson, Rochester, and Mrs. Water Lentz of Holly.

Miss Barbara Amundson, the Oakland County co-ordinator, whose office is in Pontiac, was with the group for the training course.

The Michigan Division and the Southeastern Michigan Division held the conference in cooperation with the Michigan Cancer Coordinating Committee at Michigan State University.

Max Baer in Movies

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Former heavyweight boxing champion Max Baer has been signed by Columbia Pictures to portray a champ who ends the rise of a young giant. The picture is "The Harder They Fall," a Columbia spokesman said, and the role is reminiscent of the title fight in which Baer knocked out huge Primo Carnera to win the heavyweight championship in 1934.

About a billion of the world's people do not have enough food to avoid chronic hunger, says the Population Reference Bureau.

Hollywood Headlines:

Grable Will Be Starred in 6 Independent Pictures

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Betty Grable was surprised when I told her that I knew about the setup she has with United Artists for six independent pictures.

"Did you get the story from them?" she insisted.

"Now Betty, you know better than to ask," I said. "Let's just say I have the story. What do you plan to do?"

"I have no story yet," she said, "but I am asking that two of the six not be musicals. I would like to make a straight dramatic picture—not heavily dramatic, but perhaps with one or two songs.

"In 'I Wake Up Screaming,' I only had an incidental song. The same was true in 'The Yank in the RAF' which I made with Tyrone Power. They both made money, too."

DESERVED PRAISE

I was glad that the Los Angeles judge gave Edward G. Robinson a compliment when it was revealed how much Eddie has contributed to his former daughter-in-law's support. He certainly deserves some words of praise.

Eddie has just signed a new contract to do "Nightmare," and producer Bill Thomas tells me this is the first Thomas picture since the death of his partner Bill Pine.

It's authored by Cornel Woolrich, who wrote "Rear Window," and it's a suspense story plus all the wonderful music in Bourbon street in New Orleans.

It will be filmed in New Orleans with several name bands, and, of course, you can't be in New Orleans without getting in on the hottest jazz in the world.

If this keeps up Mike Todd will have a star to every 5 feet of footage. He's just signed Marlene Dietrich, Frank Sinatra, Red Skelton and George Raft for only one sequence of "Around the World in 80 Days."

Spartans' Planutis Is Named Back of Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fullback Gerry Planutis of Michigan State, who plunged for the winning touchdown against Notre Dame last Saturday, was selected as The Associated Press Back of the Week today by a narrow margin over Navy's George Welsh whose forward passes crushed Penn State.

* * *

It was a contest between two lads from the anthracite region of eastern Pennsylvania with Hazleton's Planutis topping Coaldale's Welsh.

A national television audience saw Planutis overpower the Notre Dame line with savage line bucks as the Spartans moved to their winning TD in the third period. It was fitting for him to buck over the vital points because it wiped out the bitter memory of 1954 when he failed to convert twice and the Irish took a 20-19 victory.

Not only did Planutis go over for the winning touchdown, but he set the stage for MSU's final TD in the Spartans' 21-7 triumph by recovering an Irish fumble on the Notre Dame 16 in the last quarter and he converted all three points. After the game he was awarded the ball by his teammates for his tremendous work.

Where Planutis stayed on the ground, Welsh took to the air as he sparked Navy to a 34-14 triumph over Penn State. The 22-year-old Midshipman set the Nittany Lions crazy with his flips. Altogether he completed 15 of 20 passes for 285 yards, a Naval Academy record.

Coach Rip Engle of Penn State termed Welsh the most accomplished passer in college football today.

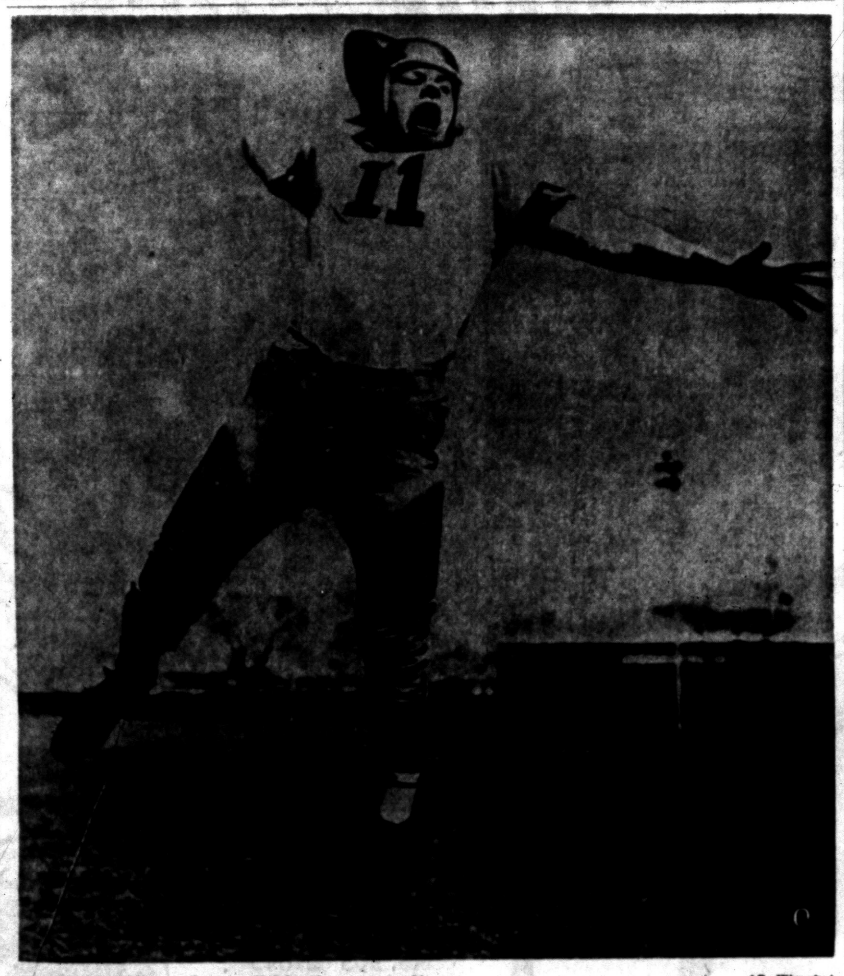

Planutis and Welsh were not the only backs to be nominated by sportswriters and broadcasters in the AP poll.

Fullback Joe Childress of Auburn was praised for his work in Auburn's 14-12 upset of Georgia Tech.

Quarterback Sonny Jurgensen of Duke, who tallied the winning TD against Ohio State, was praised, too, as was Don Watson, who scored twice in Texas A&M's 19-16 upset over Texas Christian.

* * *

Others nominated included Tommy McDonald of Oklahoma; John Roach of SMU; Frank Sarno of Washington State; John (Drums) Majors of Tennessee and Jon Arnett of USC.

AERIAL ARTIST — George Welsh, Navy's poised passer, is the nation's major college leader in yardage gained as a result of his spectacular aerial display Saturday against Penn State. He completed 15 of 20 passes for 285 yards and two touchdowns. His four-game passing total is 635 yards, but he has a minus one total for rushing.

Atlantic Coast Loop Eyes Bids for Terps, Duke

See Added Receipts if Both Continue on Undefeated Path

BALTIMORE (AP) — There's a sneaky feeling around today that if Maryland and Duke continue undefeated through the season both will be made available for bowls and the "idea" will come from other members of their Atlantic Coast Conference.

* * *

Otherwise, the other six members will have to vote for either Maryland or Duke to go to the Orange Bowl against the Big Seven champion and the reverberations could rock the new foundations of the conference.

* * *

Aside from averting choosing up sides with the loser no doubt being offended, some of the other members are reported to be interested in having two bowl representatives from a financial viewpoint. All members share in the receipts which from two bowls would run at least $25,000, enough to get a couple of them out of debt.

* * *

One of them had such an idea last year when the conference had to choose between Maryland and Duke. But the records then were not considered justifiable for such action. Each of the teams lost twice and were tied once with Duke being chosen.

According to the talk, undefeated records would make it defensible to let both go. Then, the conversation goes, the Orange Bowl would be allowed to pick which one because the conference has a contract to supply a member to the Miami show. The other team would be available to bids from the Sugar or Cotton Bowls.

* * *

Such action would require a change in policy adopted when the conference was formed in 1953. This is that one team should be selected for one of the bowls approved by the National Collegiate Athletic Assn.

* * *

However, the only basis on which the selection is made is the general one of "most representative." Requirements that each member play at least six others do not become effective until 1957. In the meantime, Maryland at least, claims there is no champion.

MSU Confident of Big 10 Win

Spartans Feel Illini Will Be Next Victim at Homecoming Game

EAST LANSING (AP) — "Illinois next" is the simple reminder on the blackboard at the Michigan State football field.

The team attitude is that Illinois will be the next victim—not just the next opponent.

* * *

The game in Macklin Stadium Saturday, is a sellout, its the annual homecoming and it's the start of a brand new rivalry.

There's a tradition that any team must suffer the following Saturday after playing Notre Dame because of the physical beating the players take and the emotional letdown.

MSU coach Duffy Daugherty doesn't go along with that this week.

* * *

"We won didn't we?" said Daugherty. "Now that they know how good it feels to win a big one, I think they want another."

Not that Daugherty is underating Illinois in the least.

* * *

He pointed out that Illinois currently is 2nd in the nation in total offense.

Brooklyn College Abandons Football

NEW YORK (INS) — Brooklyn, home of baseball's beloved world champion "Bums," buried football today.

Failing to win a game since beating CCNY five years ago, Brooklyn College decided to throw in the sponge yesterday and left Columbia and Wagner with the only two college grid teams in this city of over eight million.

The school's athletic council announced it was forced to quit the 1955 grid scene because of a series of injuries that all but decimated the pitifully thin squad.

St. James	3	1	St. Rita	1	3
St. Clement	3	1	*St. Frederick	0	3
St. Michael	2	2	*RO St. Mary	0	3

*Played tie game.

Last Week's Results—OL St. Mary 27, St. Clement 13; St. Michael 32, RO St. Mary 6; St. Rita 19, S. Frederick 7; St. James 21, St. Benedict 18.

Orchard Lake St. Mary's convincing 27-13 victory in last Sunday's showdown battle against St. Clement of Center Line should pave the way for the 1st Suburban Catholic League football championship in the school's history.

Unless one of St. Mary's three remaining league opponents assumes the role of a spoiler and upends the Eaglets, which seems unlikely, an undisputed title is in sight.

Rev. John Rakoczy's undefeated Eaglets have loop games left with Royal Oak St. Mary, St. Frederick, and Highland Park St. Benedict. The Royal Oak club and the Rams have yet to win a decision, and share the cellar. Only Bens seems to stand a remote chance of pulling an upset.

St. Mary continued to be a high-scoring machine Sunday against a vaunted St. Clement defense. Eaglets have tallied at least four touchdowns in every game. Against St. Rita of Hazel Park they scored five.

In addition to their offensive power Eaglets have revealed a stout defense when occasion demanded. Clements became the 1st foe to cross their goal line twice in a single contest. St. Michael was whitewashed.

Eaglets' veteran backfield of Ted Kopacki, Gerry Leszczynski, Paul Franckowiak, and Len Mallat has overshadowed the work of the line. But impressive performances by tackle Tom Gardocki, and ends Pete Madelans and Stan Majewski, among others, cannot be overlooked.

Now apparently over its toughest hurdle, St. Mary resumes its quest of the crown Saturday afternoon at Orchard Lake against St. Mary of Royal Oak.

St. Michael's Shamrocks, tied for 3rd place after last Friday's 32-6 rout of Royal Oak's Irish, face a rugged assignment Sunday afternoon in Wisner Stadium when they tangle with St. James. The Ferndale aggregation moved into a 2nd-place deadlock on a 21-18 verdict over St. Benedict.

Bob Mineweaser's injury-riddled Mikes broke a two-game losing streak by their win over the Irish. Until their 2nd-period touchdown against St. Mary, Shamrocks had struggled through nine scoreless quarters. A four-TD explosion in the last period really made up for lost time.

Still trying for victory, Gene Wright's St. Frederick Rams tackle a rebounding St. Clement crew Sunday afternoon at Center Line. Loss to St. Rita extended Rams' winless string to 21 and hopes for snapping the skein Sunday are slim.

Rams' hopes will be riding with halfback Dick Doyon, who has scored eight touchdowns this season.

St. Benedict invades Hazel Park to meet St. Rita in Sunday's remaining Suburban loop contest.

Eastern 11 Downs Wever, 27-0, in Junior Hi Loop

Eastern's Indians hung up their 2nd scalp of the season in three tries Tuesday afternoon at Wisner Stadium, defeating inexperienced Wever, 27-0, in a Pontiac Junior High League football game. It was Wever's 1st start this fall.

Indians wasted no time yesterday. After Walter Johnson recovered a Wever fumble on the opening kickoff, Bill Hayward raced 30 yards for a touchdown on the 1st play from scrimmage. Mike McClusky plunged for the extra point.

Later in the 1st quarter Eastern hit paydirt again. John Dew rammed through the center of the line and rambled 70 yards for the tally. A pass, Hayward to Johnson, added the point.

Winners were then held in check for two periods before striking twice in the 4th quarter. Guard Ken Vipperman picked off a Wever fumble and ran 70 yards for the 3rd TD. Gene Gidcumb passed to Gary Christensen for the conversion.

* * *

McClusky, Indian halfback, scored the final touchdown on an 8-yard sweep. McClusky had scored two plays earlier on a 65-yard aerial but clipping canceled the play.

* * *

Washington's Braves will put their 16-game victory skein on the block today when they face Jefferson on the Wisner turf at 4 p.m.

Gatski to Play 100th Pro Game for Browns

CLEVELAND (AP)—Frank Gatski, 240-pound center for the Cleveland Browns, goes after his 100th pro football game without relief next Sunday against the Green Bay Packers.

The 33-year-old West Virginian, with the Browns since they were organized in 1946, says he has no thought of retiring for a long time to come.

The Dodgers held a 12½ game lead in the National loop last July 4, but it was not a record. Back in 1912 the New York Giants had a 14½ game lead on July 4 over the second place Pittsburgh Pirates.

Clarkston	3	1	W. Bloomfield	1	2
Holly	2	1	Milford	0	4
Northville	1	1

Last Week's Results
Clarenceville 13, Clarkston 6; Holly 13, Milford 7; West Bloomfield 13, Brighton 6; Center Line 59, Northville 13 (non-league).

The Holly Broncos will have an opportunity Friday night to throw a monkey-wrench into Carenceville's hopes for its 1st Wayne-Oakland League football title.

Head Coach Nick Ianni's Trojans hold 1st place in W-O standings as the result of their important victory last Friday over the defending champs from Clarkston. They have marched and passed to 80 points while allowing the opposition only 13 in their five straight wins. Three have been loop wins.

If Clarenceville gets past Holly Friday, its path to the crown will be blocked by only Brighton and the West Bloomfield Lakers. Last season, Holly fell to the Trojans, 25-0.

Broncos face a much tougher card of remaining contests with Northville, Clarkston and Oakland B's Lake Orion. Holly head mentor, Reese Protz, and company have compiled a 2-1 league mark, chalking up 75 counters against 63 for the opponents.

In a 2nd conference match, Ed Hintz's Clarkston Wolves hope to make up for their only loop loss, to Clarenceville, last week. They face 4th place Northville on home grounds. Hintz looks to his stalwart backfield combination of George Lang, David Swayne and Clyde Kizer to bring a much-needed win if the team is to hang onto the title.

Northville has dropped four games this year but only one has counted in the standings, the 21-7 defeat by the Trojans. They were trounced last week by Center Line, 59-13.

In the only other W-O game, Brighton travels to Milford. Cellar-dwelling Milford seeks its 1st win after dropping four loop tilts.

Ameche Grabs Top NFL Spot for Rushing

Ex-Collegian Still as Powerful as in Amateur Days

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Alan Ameche is making a runaway of the ground gaining competition in the National Football League.

The former Wisconsin star, number one draft choice of the Baltimore Colts, has gained 476 yards on 77 attempts for an average of 6.3. Howard Ferguson of Green Bay, is a distant 2nd with 331 yards gained on 67 carries for a 4.9 average.

Ameche, who starred in the Big Ten as a line cruncher, has lost none of his drive and power as a pro. He picked up 72 yards last Sunday against the Chicago Bears in a losing cause. Pittsburgh's Fran Rogel with 282 yards on 73 attempts and a 3.0 average ranks 3rd among the ball carriers.

In the passing department, "old" Otto Graham of the Browns still shows the way. The NFL's 2nd 1955 issue of the weekly statistics, shows Graham with 35 completions of 57 passes for 531 yards, three touchdowns and a 9.32 average.

Amateur Tennis Ranks Thinned as Hart Quits

Doris Becomes Pro Teacher at Hotel in Miami Beach

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The ranks of United States amateur tennis were further thinned today with the announcement that Doris Hart, the nation's No. 1 woman player, had turned professional.

Miss Hart, an active amateur for 20 years and winner of all the world's major women's tennis titles, will become a teaching pro at the Flamingo Hotel here.

* * *

Just a week ago Tony Trabert, the men's amateur champion, turned professional at Los Angeles.

Miss Hart, who was considered sickly almost from birth, took up the game at Henderson Park in Miami at the age of 10, after an operation.

A hard-driving, fast-serving and net-forcing game carried her to the top.

Notre Dame's Team Known World Over

SOUTH BEND — Notre Dame gives you a fresh slant on why its football games are sold out early.

Ticket manager Bob Cahill received a note early in August from a man in Florence, Italy.

"I'd like tickets," he wrote. "I read in the Rome Daily American that your general sale had opened."

Bobcats Get Protection

LANSING—This month, for the 1st time in Michigan's history bobcats will receive protection from hunters and trappers.

The recent Michigan legislature closed the lower peninsula to bobcat hunting and trapping except for a Dec. 15-Mar. 15 hunting period. The law took effect Oct. 15.

Kramer to Miss Minnesota Game

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan's Ron Kramer, whose battle to be an All-America end was interrupted with a pair of fractured ribs, "definitely will not play against Minnesota Saturday."

Coach Bennie Oosterbaan pointed out that Kramer has been working for two days now in a sweat suit for about a half hour at a clip.

"But he's just geting a little air," Oosterbaan said. "He's not ready yet and won't be for a while."

Jayhawk on Ball at Wrong Time

FORT WORTH—Jim Cooper ran up to kick off for Texas Christian—and set in motion a chain of events which left officials dizzy.

He missed the ball completely and an alert Kansas player raced up, grabbed the ball off the tee and headed for the goal line.

After a long consultation, officials ruled the ball never had been put in play and the Horned Frogs were penalized five yards for delay of the game.

Frustrated Coaches Find Change Isn't the Answer

NEW YORK (AP)—The names of the coaches may be different, but there's a familiar story at the 37 colleges who have new football coaches this autumn. It's one of frustration.

Most of the new coaches have tasted better success in the past, but this year has been one of many problems which has caused more grey hairs and ulcers.

Five of the new faces are really having their troubles. Their teams haven't pierced the victory column once. Tony Cavallo, a former high school mentor who took over the reigns at New Mexico A&M, leads the pack with an 0-5 record.

The other four have identical 0-4 marks. J. B. (Ears) Whitworth of Alabama, Clif Speegle of Oklahoma A&M, Bob Blackman of Dartmouth and Lou Saban of Northwestern find themselves in the cellar of their respective conferences.

Whitworth moved from Oklahoma A&M to his alma mater in the Southeastern Conference. Speegle, who replaced Whitworth at the Missouri Valley Conference school, held down an assistant coaching job with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Pro League last year.

Blackman, 36-year-old mastermind of Denver's Skyline Conference champions last year, switched over to the Ivy League.

Saban, who moved up from an assistant's position under Bob Voits, has tasted his defeats at the hands of the strong Big 10, little Miami of Ohio and Tulane.

Sanguine Outlook!

British 'Bloody Minded' Over Ryder Cup Test

NEW YORK (AP) — The British Ryder Cup team hasn't beaten the United States since 1933, but does that discourage the Britishers?

No, no, a thousand times no.

"In fact," said Dai Rees today, "the boys are bloody minded. They've got their backs up against the wall and will play all the better for it."

Rees is a bubbling little Welshman, who serves as captain of the British team. At 42, he also is the senior member of the team in points of service, having been a member since 1937.

"Yes, sir," he repeated, "they're bloody-minded."

Bloody-minded or no, the Britishers are going to have their hands full in the matches at the Thunderbird Country Club in Palm Springs, Calif., on Nov. 5-6. The American entry is composed of Captain Chick Harbert, Lloyd Mangrum, Jerry Barber, Tommy Bolt, Jackie Burke, Doug Ford, Marty Furgol, Ted Kroll, Chandler Harper, Cary Middlecoff and Sam Snead.

That's a mighty imposing array, but it doesn't bother Rees.

Unidentified Archer Kills Young Bull Elk

LANSING — An unidentified archer killed a two-year-old bull elk near Vanderbilt the first day of the archery deer season.

Conservation Department field sources say Michigan's elk herd is up to about 600 animals at present and spread over a sizable range.

Hunters, especially in the Vanderbilt-Gaylord area, are urged to be sure their targets are deer, not elk.

Colts' Brass Pessimistic Despite Team's 3-1 Mark

BALTIMORE (AP) — Owners and coaches of the Baltimore Colts have no delusions of grandeur about their team's 3-1 record in the National Football League.

"Three swallows don't make a summer and three victories don't make a champion," is the way Carrol Rosenbloom, principal owner of the Colts, put it last night.

"I still give ourselves five years," he added. "Nothing has changed. No one will take any profits out of the Colts until we have a champion."

Rosenbloom indicated he didn't think that would be this year.

Coach Weeb Ewbank shared his boss' lack of self-satisfaction.

"We're still building," Ewbank said. "There are still loopholes we have to fill as recent injuries have proved."

He said he had been planning since last year to get off to a fast start this season and had concentrated his training on beating Chicago in the first game.

Subsequent victories over Detroit and Green Bay were more or less surprises to him, Ewbank said.

Then came last Sunday's 38-10 loss to Chicago in a rematch.

Next Sunday, the Colts play host to the Washington Redskins in an intercity rivalry that's always been rugged.

Checker Club Plans 1st Session Monday

Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department's Chess and Checker Club will meet Monday, Oct. 24, at 7 p.m., and every Monday night thereafter, at the Adah Shelly Branch Library, Perry and Glenwood streets.

Chess and checker boards and pieces will be provided. Instruction in chess and checkers will be furnished upon sufficient interest. There is no charge for membership and anyone is welcome to attend.

Further information can be obtained by calling the Department of Parks and Recreation, FEderal 3-7131.

Pontiac Team Big Favorite for SVC Title

Annual Test Set at Flint, Thursday; AH Top-Rated Threat

With little serious opposition in sight, Pontiac's high school cross-country team today was ready for the annual Saginaw Valley meet at Flint. The two-mile event will be run over the hilly Swartz Creek Golf Club Thursday at 4 p.m. Flint Northern is the host school.

Chiefs' all-winning harriers have set up a remarkable winning record, that started back in 1948. Up to now PHS teams have won 37 straight dual tests. This year's team has won five in a row. And, if they win tomorrow that will be the 4th straight SVC title.

Strongest opposition is expected to come from the Arthur Hill runners, headed by Don Brown and Dick Fisher, who have run 1-2 all season in 'Jack duals. Hillites are also unbeaten this season.

Abe Huerta is Saginaw's big hope, and Dick Rendell paces the Flint Northern crew.

Flint Central has Larry Tilley, always a high finisher this year. Bay City has no real threat.

PHS hopes ride with Perry Williams, ace miler, and state half-mile titlist Bill Douglas. These lads have tied for 1st in every meet of the year, but Thursday's meet will be an all-out affair, with each trying to beat the other.

A similar duel is in sight for Rod Treais and Gene Cretal, close together in near-top finishes. Pete Cox is also expected to get into the top 10.

Memorial Fund Set for Agganis

Red Sox Head Yawkey Donates $25,000 for Foundation Start

BOSTON (AP)—A $250,000 goal was set today for a Harry Agganis Memorial Foundation to honor the Boston Red Sox first baseman who died at the age of 25 last June.

Establishment of the foundation and a gift of $25,000 from Red Sox President Thomas A. Yawkey was announced yesterday.

Specific use of funds contributed to the foundation was not made known, but the fund was "to carry out charitable ideals."

Mrs. Georgia Agganis, widowed mother of the Lynn Classical High School and Boston University athletic star thanked fund leaders "for what you are doing for my boy."

Rabbit, Squirrel Paws Wanted for Lab Study

LANSING — Southern Michigan rabbit and squirrel hunters are being asked to mail forepaws of their game to the Conservation Department for laboratory study.

About 2600 hunters who were successful last year will receive special envelopes for mailing the forepaws. Conservation clubs and others are asked to participate and can get details of the program from the Rose Lake wildlife station at East Lansing.

Spot Bull Moose

LANSING — A bull moose was seen recently near the mouth of the Tahquamenon River in Luce County.

Shortly after, a smaller bull and a cow moose were seen six miles south of the 1st observation.

Conservation officer Earl Kaiser of Paradise said the moose were reported by fishermen.

Michigan and Maryland, Nation's Top Teams, Demonstrate Importance of Powerful Defense

By the Associated Press

Defense is king in college football this year—that's why Michigan and Maryland are setting the mid-October pace.

* * *

The Wolverines and the Terrapins top the nation's grid giants by making their breaks while on defense and capitalizing on them. You can't prove their strength by their yardage totals.

In its last three games, Michigan has scored only one of eight touchdowns on a long drive. Four of the scores were set up by fumble recoveries, one by an intercepted pass and another by a blocked kick. The six usually were within 25 yards of the enemy goal.

Today's grid hopes are most safely entrusted to those who are trained primarily in harrassing enemy runners and passers until they make mistakes—with the help of jarring tackles.

* * *

Michigan has forced four opponents to fumble 19 times and has recovered 11. The Wolves have intercepted 8 passes and allowed only 12 completions of 46 aerials launched against them. They have yielded two touchdowns.

A harrowing 13-12 opener with Missouri convinced Maryland of the need for adjustments. With revamped defenses the Terps won a 7-0 decision over UCLA Sept. 24.

The key play was when Maryland center Bob Pellegrini slammed into UCLA's Doug Peters who was about to dive over the goal line, separated him from the ball and recovered on the Terps 3. Maryland then held Bruins' ground game to a minus 21 yards. Maryland's five-game rushing defense average is 39.8 yards—best in the country.

Of Maryland's 14 touchdowns, 6 were launched by intercepted passes, 1 by a blocked punt and 1 by a bad pass from center which put the Terps in an advantageous position.

* * *

Unbeaten Oklahoma, ranked third in the current AP poll, traveled only 34 and 7 yards for two touchdowns in its important 20-0 victory over Texas because of pass thievery.

Look at Navy's 21-0 victory over a fine Pitt team. The Middies held Pitt to 59 rushing yards, and gave the quarterback time to try only one pass which was intercepted.

Defense has reached a level of constant shifts, roving linebackers and detailed breakdowns on moves of opponents.

Smith - Carter in Title Go

CINCINNATI (AP)—Wallace (Bud) Smith, a young fellow who has yet to cash in financially on the fact he is lightweight boxing champion of the world, makes his first defense of the crown tonight against Jimmy Carter, a three-time holder of the title.

* * *

Smith, a Cincinnatian, won the championship from Carter, a New Yorker, in a bout in Boston last June 29.

* * *

The two sharp-punching Negroes will go 15 rounds or less in the Cincinnati Garden. The bout at 9 p.m. (EST) will be televised nationally (ABC) but with the area within a 75-mile radius of Cincinnati blacked out.

The most prevalent guesses were that there would be a crowd of 9,000 or so on hand for a direct view of the scrap. Promoter Sam Becker still was hopeful, however, that he would be able to sell all or most of the garden's 15,000 seats.

* * *

Carter generally was being rated a slight betting favorite to become the first four-time champion in the division in history. He already is the first three-timer.

The finances of the fight were as strange as Carter's up-and-down record.

Promoter Becker had quite a hassle with the International Boxing Club before he got the fight and he says he will not receive any of the television money. He says it all goes to the fighters and the IBC.

Smith hasn't had a fight since he won the championship so he hasn't had a pay day as title holder and, even though he is the champ, his guarantee from Becker of $9,000 is exactly the same as that given Carter. They also are supposed to share equally in the television money.

* * *

Then there is the question of who, if anyone, will get a manager's share of Smith's purse. His current managers of record —Carmine Graziano and Tony Ferrente —have been under investigation in Pennsylvania because of their associations.

* * *

As a result Smith signed the present fight contract on his own and George Murphy, secretary of the Cincinnati Boxing Commission, said the check for Smith's share of the purse would be made out to the fighter alone.

Scouts Give Ray Ulcers

Eliot Worries About State but Win Would Make Illini Title Contender

CHICAGO (AP)—The mere thought of meeting Michigan State Saturday is worrying Illinois Coach Ray Eliot but a victory would hoist the Illini into the Big 10 title picture.

Eliot, speaking to the Chicago Football Writers via telephone hookup, said: "We're all getting ulcers listening to our scouts."

* * *

Reports relayed to Eliot, of course, carried the tale of Michigan State's 21-7 victory over Notre Dame which lifted the Spartans among the nation's Top 10.

Eliot said he only hopes Illinois can put up a good game at East Lansing but added: "Our boys think they can take 'em."

Michigan State and Illinois have identical 3-1 records and are 1-1 in the Big 10. The similarity is not unusual. Two years ago they tied for the conference title.

Last year the two were picked co-favorites to repeat but both finished in the second division. Michigan State, however, is favored Saturday mainly off its convincing victories over Stanford and Notre Dame.

The usually pessimistic Eliot admitted he has been "pleasantly surprised" over Illinois' showing this year.

"I didn't think they could do this well but the boys have a lot of spirit and have worked hard," he said.

* * *

Duffy Daugherty, Michigan State coach, was still bubbling over the Notre Dame triumph but took time out to express concern over Illinois.

"I'm hoping the boys don't let down because we're going to run into a good Illinois team. We certainly aren't looking past Illinois and we'll have to be at our best," said Daugherty.

"We might have to play without Clarence Peaks. He's one of the best backs in the country and I wouldn't trade him for anyone in the conference. He runs, passes, kicks and is great on defense," Daugherty added.

Lewis Predicts Pay-As-You-Go TV to Aid Fund

Attorney Says Pension Plan Would Gain Nine Million From Series

NEW YORK (AP)—A staggering total of $9,000,000 for four games could accrue to the major league Players' Pension Fund as a result of pay-as-you-go World Series television, Attorney J. Norman Lewis revealed today.

* * *

Lewis, who handles the players' interests in their dealings with the owners, added that most of the people in the entertainment business expect the federal government to approve pay-as-you-go TV eventually. Lewis has numerous close connections with show business.

"If this type of television goes into effect—and it may be the ultimate answer to all TV—we think a revenue of $5,000,000 a game could be realized," said Lewis.

"Here is how we figure:

"Right now there are about 40 million TV sets in the country. By 1957, the year the new series TV contract goes into effect, there should be about 50 million.

* * *

"If 10 million of these were turned on at a cost of 50 cents per set, that would be $5,000,000 per game. If the series went past four games, it would go past $20,000,000.

"But on the basis of $20,000,000, about 25 per cent would have to be paid to the networks. That would leave $15,000,000 for baseball, and under the terms of the pension agreement, the players would get 60 per cent, or $9,000,000, and the club owners central fund 40 per cent, or $6,000,000."

* * *

Commissioner Ford Frick, who is empowered to negotiate the new contract, and the club owners are opposed to pay-as-you-go TV and as far as Lewis is concerned, that's all right with him.

"Whatever method they decide on is fine with the players," he said. "We were just thinking in terms of the future in discussing the pay-as-you-go TV."

* * *

Frick already has had preliminary conferences concerning the new contract, which will have to be signed by spring. The current contract is for about $1,000,000, meaning the pension fund gets about $600,000 out of each series whether it's four games or seven.

Kiner Becomes Boss of Coast

Retired Slugger Signs as General Manager of San Diego Padres

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Former National League slugger Ralph Kiner—his home run hitting days over—now must connect at the gate in his new job as general manager of the San Diego Pacific Coast League club.

Kiner, 32, yesterday signed a one-year contract as front-office boss of the Coast League Padres at a reported salary of $25,000.

He promptly hired his old Pittsburgh teammate, Bob Elliott, 39, to be field manager of the club, for the second year. Elliott piloted the Padres to second place in the standings in 1955.

Kiner, former National League home run king, finished his playing days with the Cleveland Indians this year. He was released by the Indians to take the San Diego offer from the club's new owners, the Westgate - California Tuna Packing Co.

Chiefs Try Again, Friday, for SVC Win

Wolfpack Hits Top Position in Prep Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Powerful Bay City Central today replaced Ann Arbor as the No. 1 team in the Associated Press Class A high school football poll.

Coach Elmer Engel's Wolfpack took the top spot with its smashing 32-7 victory over Saginaw Saturday night, after Ann Arbor had narrowly squeezed past Battle Creek, 19-18, Friday night.

Here's the list:

	Pts.
Bay City Central (1B) (5-0)	257
Ann Arbor (8) (5-0)	250
G. Rapids Cath. Cent. (1) (4-0-1)	206
East Detroit (5-0)	139
Battle Creek (3-2)	115
Saginaw (4-1)	102
Benton Harbor (4-1)	86
Jackson (4-1)	70
Birmingham (5-0)	40
Flint Central (4-1)	39

Second ten: Saginaw Arthur Hill, Wyandotte, Grosse Pointe and Muskegon, Lincoln Park, Royal Oak, Kalamazoo, Niles, Muskegon, Lansing Eastern and Flint Northern.

Turpin Quits Boxing After KO by Wallace

LONDON (INS) — Former world middleweight champion Randy Turpin of England quit the ring last night after he was knocked out in the 4th round by Gordon Wallace of Ontario, Canada.

George Middleton, manager of the British Empire light-heavyweight titleholder, announced in the dresisng room after the bruising London fight: "Randy will take no more punches for me."

Barr Finally Starts to Boom as M's Big Gun

'Terrible Terry' Sets Pace for Wolverines' Last Three Wins

ANN ARBOR (AP) — As the big gun in the single wing of top-rated, unbeaten Michigan, "Terrible" Terry Barr has finally begun to boom.

Barr is the Michigan left halfback—the bread-and-butter post in the single wing—and he's built small for the job he's doing.

He scored three of Michigan's touchdowns in their latest victories over Army and Northwestern and he set up two others, besides playing a hard-bitten defensive game.

"I think I'm beginning to get the hang of it now," Barr says.

An almost-thin 172 pounds on a six-foot frame, Barr is built for speed. But coach Bennie Oosterbaan says, "He's one of the most determined boys I've ever coached."

Hampered by injury in Michigan's 1st two games, Barr, a 20-year-old junior, came into his own against Army two weeks ago.

He made 23 yards on the ground, a 3rd of Michigan's rushing total, and he caught two passes for 62 yards, almost two-thirds of Michigan's passing yardage. He scored one touchdown bucking the line and returned a punt 82 yards through grasping Army players for another.

His pointing finger aimed at the spots where Army backs tried to crack the Michigan line—and Barr's lightly built frame played everything from linebacker to safety.

Navy's Welsh Heads List of Nation's Top Passers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

George Welsh's spectacular aerial display against Penn State has vaulted the Navy's poised passer from 14th to first place among the nation's major college football yardage gainers.

Despite the damp weather, the 164-pound Middie quarterback completed 15 of 20 passes for 285 yards and 2 touchdowns, and added 3 yards on the ground for a 288-yard total, top individual feat of the year, and the second best passing show in five years.

* * *

In 1950, John Ford of Hardin-Simmons completed 20 of 25 heaves for 293 yards against Arizona State. That was the only other time in five years any major college passer completed 75 per cent of 20 or more attempts for that kind of yardage.

* * *

With his total of 634 yards rushing and passing (minus 1 rushing, 635 passing), Welsh became the fourth different player to head the offense lists in as many weeks. The other pace-setters were Joe Clements, Texas, Claude Benham, Columbia, and Art Luppino, Arizona.

Luppino, second in total offense with 606 yards, maintained his grip in rushing with the same number of yards. A new pass leader was unveiled, however, in Dartmouth's Bill Beagle.

Willie's Taps Chasing Drives Mean Sure Outs

NEW YORK—The Dodgers were talking about Willie Mays.

"Any time he taps the mitt once no matter where the ball is, he'll get it," somebody said.

* * *

Don Newcombe looks up. "Man that's what I told him at the All-Star Game. Remember the catch he made on the ball Ted Williams hit off me? The one he jumped a mile for at the fenc. Well, when he came back to dugout, I said to him, 'Man, why didn't you tap that mitt? I didn't see you do it and I thought it was a goner. Willie, you got to keep tappin' that mitt or your pitchers'll get heart trouble.'"

Race Driver DePalma in Critical Condition

SOUTH PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Ralph DePalma, 72, who earned 1½ million dollars during his 27 years as an auto race driver, remained in near critical condition today following head surgery.

The veteran racer tired of hospital life last night, however, and took a cab home, unknown to his wife or doctor. DePalma also has pneumonia and other complications.

Seals Purchase Offer Near End

Greenberg About Set to Pay $100,000 for PCL Frisco Team

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The deal by Hank Greenberg, general manager of the Cleveland Indians, to buy the San Francisco Seals baseball club appeared in the bag today.

"We have reached a verbal agreement on the sale," said Greenberg last night after conferring with Damon Miller, president of the Little Corp., controlling the Seals franchise in the Pacific Coast League.

Miller, who struggled with slumping attendance and growing debts all last season, broke into a big grin.

"I've gone over all the books, but there are still people and things I want to know before coming to a definite decision," Greenberg said. If all turns out as expected, Greenberg said he would make a press conference announcement today.

The offer made to Greenberg, Miller said, would be a $100,000 deal. "Hank would have to assume a $50,000 bank note, pay off $30,000 still owed the Pacific Coast League and purchase 100 per cent of the common stock, which is worth $20,000," Miller said.

Oppose 'Jacks in 3rd Valley Tilt of Season

Hills 11 Victor Over Flint Central in Only League Encounter

By H. GUY MOATS

Pontiac High gridders will shoot for their 1st 1955 Saginaw Valley Conference victory, Friday on the home lot. Chiefs have played two loop contests, and have lost both, the 1st to Bay City Central's front-running Wolves, and last weekend to Flint Central.

Friday's opponents, Saginaw Arthur Hill, has won its only start, over the Flint Indians, who dumped PHS 26-7.

Coach Ed Graybiel, who has seen the 'Jacks in action, tags the upstaters as a "very tough team."

"We've got to be up for the Hills," says Graybiel, "We'll have to be tremendously above our level of last week, if we expect to do anything. 'Jacks' loss last week doesn't picture the true worth of the club.

"They've got a good team, a good passing attack. And they have a fine tackle in Thelvius Winiecke, a fast 200 pounder. Floyd Wright, one of a half dozen returning lettermen, is the best in the backfield."

Chiefs have worked hard this week, preparing for the visit of the 'Jacks. An easier time was on the slate for today.

News that Dick Kors expects to be ready Friday was good news. Kors was hurt in the Central game, as was Martin Smith, another tackle, Don Hardy, center, probably will be ready too. He suffered a head blow at Flint and spent one night in Hurley Hospital.

Bob Casteel, erstwhile quarterback, who did such a good job at left half against the Indians is getting some extra work. His passing and that of Art Poe at quarter, were very good, but pass reception was far below par. This angle is receiving some additional work also.

Other Valley games of the weekend send Northern's Vikings to Bay City, with Wolves favored to continue their jaunt to the SVC title; Saginaw in a non-league game at Muskegon and Alpena at Flint Central in another out-of-league encounter.

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

HOLD THAT LINE—It may feel a bit awkward at first, but extending your left arm as you stride to the foul line is the key to sound footwork. Without it you'll be forced to veer to the right by the weight of the swinging ball. All top bowlers extend the arm, more or less, depending on the length of the swing.

The sketch (third step in four-step footwork) shows how perfectly the stretched arm compensates for the ball weight; how it creates fine balance. Extend the arm as soon as the ball drops downward into the backswing at the end of the push-away. If need be, swing the free arm away from the body, force it out, but extend it. I suggest you develop it in practice, sliding to the line without a ball. After 20 of 30 trial slides it should begin to click, and shortly, then, it'll be as natural as picking up a knife or fork. You'll feel sure-footed, relaxed. But, more important, you'll be releasing the ball consistently on either your target spot, or on the board you pick over which roll the ball.

Ty Cobb of the Tigers hit safely in 40 straight games in the 1911 season.

'Derby' and Ringneck Season Open on Thursday

Oakland County Hunters Shoot for $50 Prize

Heaviest Entry Will Win U.S. Bond for the Lucky Nimrod

Along with Thursday's pheasant season opening in Michigan is the start of the annual Pontiac Press "Big Pheasant Derby."

This award will go to the heaviest entry during the regular pheasant season, made by a full-time Oakland County resident. The bird may be taken anywhere in the state where such hunting is legal. Winner will receive a $50 U. S. Savings bond.

All entries must be brought to the Pontiac Press Sports Department for photographing and weighing. Weight only will be considered.

Hunters are reminded that while the season opens Thursday morning, it does NOT OPEN UNTIL 10 A. M. EST.

By JACK PATTERSON

The other night some friends insisted—and offered to back up their position with folding stuff—that 1955 game laws had been changed to permit a half hour before sunrise opening on pheasants tomorrow. Now, while we customarily carry quite a variety of gear in our dinner clothes, we didn't happen to have a copy of the game laws with us and these fellows wouldn't take our word for it. Therefore, for their benefit, and for the benefit of anyone else who doesn't read fine print too accurately, we'll offer the following quote from the game law digest: "On Oct. 20, in Zones 2 and 3, unlawful to hunt before 10 a.m. EST."

PATERSON

This has been a good breeding season for pheasants, and birds are plentiful in good pheasant areas. Good areas for the birds rather closely parallel the best farming lands, hence the big populations in the fertile Thumb area.

Biggest concentration of birds, as well as hunters, will be found in Huron, Sanilac, Tuscola, Bay and Saginaw Counties.

* * *

Almost as many birds and fewer hunters will be found in Gratiot, Montcalm, Isabella and Shiawassee Counties. In recent years Arenac and Iosco Counties have seen an appreciable increase in birds.

* * *

Our own Oakland County has some first rate pheasant territories, but is largely made up of sandy soil and can't qualify, county-wide as a first rate pheasant area. Lapeer County, because of its predominately more fertile soil, rates much better for ringneck range.

Most serious hunters have long since lined up shooting territories for opening day. While this is a commendable habit it has become, in many cases, a meaningless gesture the last few years.

There is a very large number of hunters, always on the increase, and mostly from south of Oakland County, who pay no attention to signs of any sort, who will not "ask the farmer first" or show any of the common decency expected of the sportsman.

* * *

It should be remembered that any hunter who is on lands not his own is a guest of the owner only if he has permission from the owner to be there. Otherwise he is a trespasser.

Permission to hunt on another's lands does not carry with it a license to cut fences, trample seed clover and otherwise behave like a yoot.

Far too many hunters overlook this. We can think of few likelier ways to hasten the end of public hunting than to continue to abuse the hospitality of the long-suffering land-owner.

While pheasant hunting will obscure most other field sports, smart duck hunters will hit for the Bay and some excellent duck shooting. Fair weather or foul, this is the time when the big flights funnel into this area. Given a bit of breeze to stir the birds a bit, duck hunting for the next week just can't help being splendid.

Duck Flights Begin to Move

Diving Wildfowl Now Reported Along Huron and Saginaw Shores

LANSING—Flights of ducks are coming into Michigan.

Several popular points report birds have either landed or are on the way.

In the southeast corner of the state, at Pointe Mouillee, some flight birds are in. Hunters took 1912 birds from the Mouillee marshes the first week of the season.

In the Swan Creek area, hunters had taken only 21 geese through the first week of the season, but this picture was expected to change soon; flights from the north generally flood into the area in the middle and late part of October.

Solunar Table

Schedule of solunar periods, as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. They will help to fix times for fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these coming weeks.

Major periods begin at the times shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours thereafter. Minor periods are of somewhat shorter duration.

Urge State Hunters to Return Game Tags

LANSING — Hunters are urged to return metal bands found on deer, bear, woodcock, grouse, waterfowl and other game to conservation agencies.

Waterfowl bands should be returned to the Fish and Wildlife Service in Washington. Most other bands can be mailed to the Conservation Department in Lansing.

These agencies need to know where and when the game was killed, and the name and address of the hunter.

In the case of waterfowl, the Fish and Wildlife Service sends a report to the hunter, telling where and when the bird was banded.

Cub outfielder Lloyd Merriman was a jet fighter ace in the Korean war.

The Aberdeen club of the Northern League executed two triple plays in five days but lost in both games.

Mickey Mantle was the first player in 1955 to hit home runs in every park in the American League.

Bluebird II Under Repair at Air Base

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The Bluebird II, the sleek, jet hydroplane which sank last Sunday after an ill-fated speed attempt by England's Don Campbell, today was moved to Nellis Air Force Base.

Campbell promptly accepted an offer by Brig. Gen. James G. Roberts, base commander, to use repair facilities at the nearby air base. The 34-year-old Britisher said he expects the Bluebird II to be ready for another try on his own water record of 202.34 miles an hour within two weeks.

Mr. Chief Captures Jackson Feature Pace

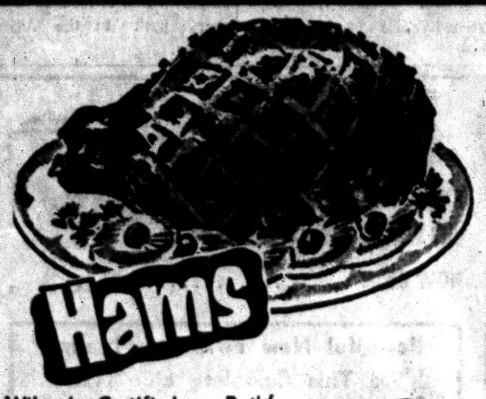

JACKSON (AP) — Mr. Chief, with George Kile at the reins, captured the feature pace at Jackson Raceway last night, covering the course in 2:10 4/5. He paid $5.80 straight. Rudy Brooke was 2nd and David Merry 3rd.

An Appropriate Winner

One of the race winners at Gulfstream park in the 1945 season—and on Christmas Day at that—was a horse appropriately named Santa Claus.

No. 17 in a series of RARE CREATURES:

THE PETRIFIED WARY

so rooted in caution he can't move a muscle

The WARY is a manufacturer who thinks the advertising field is strewn with booby traps.

He gets buck fever swatting a fly — and wouldn't crawl out on a limb two inches from the ground.

The WARY plays it so safe he's left stranded on base while the competition runs away with the game.

Fortunately the WARY is a rare creature.

Most manufacturers realize that business is highly competitive and that half-way efforts will get them precisely that far.

They believe in backing their products with strong, sound advertising.

They believe, for example, in saturating a market to gain dominance; in testing markets to obtain answers to sales potentials.

Naturally they use newspapers — because newspapers blanket any market with maximum impact, creating mass action at the retail level.

Smart manufacturers start — and keep — their national advertising at the local level — in newspapers!

All business is local...and so are all newspapers!

Thieves Rob Store of $300 in Central Michigan

EUREKA, Mich. (AP)—Two gunmen held up Miller's General Store in this Central Michigan town last night, fleeing with about $300.

Police said Elson Miller, the store owner, told them one man covered him with a gun while the other took about $213 from the till and $87 from two customers. The pair fled in a car.

Boom Brother Milton

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Milton Eisenhower club has been formed here to build up support for the President's brother as a candidate for the GOP presidential nomination. Dr. Harold M. Dudley, executive secretary of the Greater Washington Industrial Council and one of the club's organizers, said it was formed without the knowledge of the President or his brother.

Corn, Soy Dip in Dull Trading

CHICAGO (AP)—A slight price dip occurred in corn and soybeans in another dull trading session on the Board of Trade today. Both cereals were easy from the start. Other grains opened steady and then tilted lower.

In corn the decline was simply a continuation of yesterday's slump, largely based on the pronounced weakness in cash corn. But the soybean slump was a reversal of yesterday's movement. There was some pickup in cash bean receipts and hedging pressure.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅛ to 1 cent lower, December $2.00½; corn ⅜ to ¾ lower, December $1.26⅝; oats ⅛ to ¼ lower, December 62½; rye ¼ lower to ¼ higher, December $1.07½; soybeans 1½ to 2¾ lower, November $2.35, and lard 15 to 25 cents a hundred pounds lower, October $11.87.

Presents Kent Budget

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A record Kent County budget, calling for expenditures in 1956 of $2,934,100, was presented Monday to the Board of Supervisors. Controller Leonard V. Andrus said much of the $326,000 increase over the 1955 figure results from a higher salary budget and general increased costs of operation.

Poultry

DETROIT POULTRY

DETROIT, Oct. 18 (AP)—Prices paid per pound f. o. b. Detroit for No. 1 quality live poultry up to 10 a.m.

Heavy hens 25-27; light type 16-17; heavy broilers or fryers (2½-3½ pounds) whites 25-26; Gray Crosses 25-26; Barred Rocks 26-27; capunettes (5-5½ lbs) 30-32; ducklings 30; heavy ducks 25; turkeys heavy young hens 35-38; young toms 28-30.

Market about steady on hens. Offering of good quality, medium sized colored hens are short. Bulk of hen receipts are big and rough and more than ample. Fryers steady. Supplies ample to a lag in fair demand. Capunettes are clearing readily as the price and sizes are attractive and in good demand. Turkeys irregular. Demand rather light. Supplies ample. There is resistance to higher asking prices on hens.

CHICAGO POULTRY

CHICAGO, Oct. 18 (AP)—Live poultry steady: receipts in coops 858 yesterday 1,186 coops, 182,506 lb.; f. o. b. paying prices unchanged; heavy hens 22.5-25.5; light hens 17.5-19; broilers or fryers 23-25; old roosters 13.5-14.5; capunettes under 4½ lb. 27-28, over 4½ lb. 29-30.

DETROIT EGGS

DETROIT, Oct. 18 (AP)—Eggs, f. o. b. Detroit, cases included, federal-state grades:

Whites—Grade A jumbo 61½-63, weighted average 62½, large 54-56½, wtd. avg. 55; medium 40-42, wtd. avg. 41; small 28-33, wtd. avg. 31; grade B large 51; peewees 30.

Browns—Grade A, large 55-55½, wtd. avg. 55; medium 41-42, wtd. avg. 41½; small 33.

Commercially graded: Whites—Grade A, large 52-54½; medium 39-41.

Browns—Grade A, large 50-52; medium 38-40; small 30.

Market unsettled on large and smalls with supplies moderate on large and light on smalls, but ample to a fair demand. Mediums are weak as heavy receipts are excessive to a fairly active demand.

Dividends Help Boost Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market swung ahead today with good earnings and dividend reports helping to boost the advance along.

Prices were up around 2 points at the best in significant areas while losses usually were fractional.

All major divisions had a hand in the rise, although minus signs crept into the aircrafts and airlines.

Johns-Manville was up between 1 and 2 points after reporting third quarter earnings equal to $2.25 a share as against $1.47 a year ago.

Bohn Aluminum was up nearly 2 points after directors declared a dividend of 50 cents as against 35 cents paid in previous quarters.

General Motors opened on 2,200 shares up ¾ at 133¾. United Aircraft opened off a point at 57 on 2,500 shares.

To Build 350 Homes

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Great Lakes Homes, Inc., a Battle Creek builders' group, plans to start soon on development of nearly 350 homes in suburban Walker Township. Spokesmen said first construction, to start this week, will provide a corporation office. Full-scale building is scheduled to begin next spring.

PLYMOUTH FOUR-DOOR HARDTOP—Belvedere four-door hardtop is an entirely new model introduced by Plymouth in its 1956 line of cars. Aerodynamic styling, push button driving and powerful new Hy-Fire engine are among outstanding features. Safety door latches and other safety items are standard equipment. The cars will be on display Friday and will be shown in Pontiac at Braid Motor Sales, 70 S. Cass Ave., and Riemenschneider Bros., 232 S. Saginaw St.

Business Tax Offered No State Challengers

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan's once-controversial business activities tax has been in effect for more than two years without a single law suit challenging it in the courts.

Clarence W. Lock, deputy commissioner of the Michigan Department of Revenue, gave this report on the stop-gap legislation today at the National Tax Associations' 48th annual conference on taxation.

Lock noted that the law came as a compromise between the Legislature and Gov. Williams, who was advocating a corporation, not income tax.

"Consequently, as the byproduct of a bitter political quarrel, many segments of business opposed or were antagonistic toward the tax," He said. He credited the state's "selling" job with winning acceptance for the tax.

"Instead of the Michigan courts being glutted with litigation as predicted, up to the present time, not one single suit has been started attacking this legislation," Lock said.

Quack Dentists Pose Oral Cancer Threat

SAN FRANCISCO (INS) — The head of the world's largest dental organization warns that "bootleg dentistry" poses a grave threat to the health of the American people —especially in cases of undetected mouth cancer.

The warning was sounded by Dr. Daniel F. Lynch of Washington, D. C., at the 96th annual convention of the American Dental Association of which he is president.

Addressing 416 delegates elected by the association's 84,000 members, Dr. Lynch denounced the illegal practice of dentistry by some dental laboratory technicians, and told of its frequently tragic results.

"The one blatant example, of course, is in the area of mouth cancer," he declared.

"Here, detection is one of dentistry's prime responsibilities and only one of the conditions that can arise when there is ignorance of pathological factors."

1956 Plymouth Has New Engine

Safety Features, More Hardtops Presented in Cars Ready Friday

The 1956 Plymouth to be introduced Friday will have an entirely new engine, re-styled rear end, push-button transmission and built-in safety features.

It will be offered in four separate lines and 15 models. Newly-added to the line are a four-door hardtop in the Belvedere series and a two-door hardtop in the Savoy series.

The new engine is a more powerful V-8 with a 277 cubic inch displacement and an 8 to 1 compression ratio. It is available in 200, 187 and 180 horsepower models. Powerflow 6 engines are offered in 131 and 125 horsepower models.

Push-button automatic transmission is to the left of the steering post. New safety door latches to keep doors closed even under severe impact lead the new models' safety features. Safety belts are available for both front and rear seats.

The Suburban series is now a separate line of cars and comes in three types. They are available in two-door, four-door, two-seat, three-seat, V-8 and six cylinder models.

A hi-fidelity phonograph is available as optional equipment.

Plymouth Price Hike Averages 5 Per Cent

DETROIT (AP) — An average increase of approximately 5 per cent on 1956 model Plymouth cars was announced today by Plymouth President John P. Mansfield.

The 1956 models will go on display Friday.

Factory retail prices, which do not include distribution, excise and handling charges or state and local taxes, will be:

Plaza series—4 door sedan, $1,726; club sedan, $1,686; 3 passenger coupe, $1,594.

Savoy series—4 door, $1,818; club sedan, $1,778; sport coupe hardtop, $1,915.

Belvedere series—4 door sedan, $1,896; 4 door hardtop sedan, $2,056; club sedan, $1,856; sport coupe hardtop, $1,993; convertible coupe, $2,238.

Prices on Plymouth's separate line of suburban station wagons will range from $1,977 to $2,244.

These prices are for 6-cylinder engines, except for the Belvedere convertible on which the V-8 engine is standard. On all other cars, the V-8 is optional at an added cost of $96.

Ford May Produce Tractors in South

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Henry Ford II, president of the Ford Motor Co., says "consideration is being given to starting tractor production in Louisville."

Ford, who came here yesterday for formal dedication of a new Ford assembly plant, said that "on the flight down we talked about moving some of our upholstery operations to Louisville."

Ford told reporters his company's sales "are not as high as we'd like them to be." Present tractor production, he said, is centered at Dearborn and upholstery production is centered at Highland Park.

Robert S. McNamara, vice president and general manager of the firm's Ford Division, was asked by newsmen about expansion in the South.

"Over the years ahead," he said, "production will increase as the market in the South expands."

Truck Strike Causes Layoff at Chrysler

DETROIT (AP) — Four thousand workers in two Chrysler plants were sent home yesterday after a strike by 12 truck drivers at the Budd Co., a Chrysler supplier, resulted in a shortage of car doors.

Night shifts, however, worked as usual.

A Chrysler spokesman said the driver strike at Budd apparently was settled quickly. They were disputing over rates paid drivers of trucks with semitrailers and pickup trucks, he said.

Historians Note: Texas Fair Total Is Six Boys Shy

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—If any historians of expositions are reading this, correct your figures from 323,224 to 323,230.

The State Fair of Texas Saturday said it broke a world one-day exposition attendance record with 323,224.

* * *

Today it was putting a letter from Miss Patsy Towner, Mount Pleasant, Tex., into its records.

Miss Towner said the fair should increase its official figure by six because she saw that number of boys avoid the turnstiles — and avoid paying admission—by climbing the fence.

Surviving besides his parents are a sister, Sandra; two brothers, Clarence and Jerry Lee, all at home; his grandparents, Mrs. Charles Neddo of Maple City, and Mrs. Irene Christian and Frank Truit, both of Pontiac.

Executive Fears Labor Shortage

Says Automation Trend Will Create More Jobs for Working Forces

WASHINGTON (AP)—The head of a leading electrical firm said today the nation's major problem in the machine age ahead is more likely to be a labor shortage than mass unemployment.

* * *

Don G. Mitchell, chairman and president of Sylvania Electric Products, Inc., said he does not share fears that automation, or the growing use of labor-saving machinery, will result in fewer jobs. Instead, he said, it will create more employment.

"But I am concerned," he said in testimony prepared for the Senate-House committee studying automation trends, "about the strong probability of a labor shortage in the years ahead unless the rate of mechanization is increased."

* * *

Mitchell said government data show industry employed 44 million workers in 1947 and 50 million in 1954. Yet, he said, if production techniques had not progressed in the interval, 58 million workers would have been required to handle the 1954 output.

"The American population," he said, "simply could not have furnished that work force. Without increased mechanization, without labor-saving devices and over-all greater production efficiency, the public's need would simply not have been met."

Mitchell cited a business magazine's prediction that if the present rate of automation continues, all available workers by 1947 will be needed working full time to meet production demands and a shorter work week will be out of the question.

* * *

CIO President Walter Reuther predicted in testimony yesterday that the nation will have a 32-hour four-day work week by 1965.

Mitchell said the rate of mechanization must be boosted "if we are to realize our ambitions of a steadily rising standard of living and a shorter work week."

Plaque Will Mark Site of 1st Agriculture School

EAST LANSING (AP)—The first of several historical markers to be erected throughout the state will be installed at Michigan State University Thursday by the State Historical Commission.

The marker will be placed on Beaumont Tower to designate the site of College Hall, first building in the United States erected for the teaching of scientific agiculture.

Dedication speaker will be Dr. Lewis G. Vander Velde, president of the State Historical Commission.

Weird Experimental Roof Slopes in All Directions

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A roof here is hyperbolic paraboloid, but it's in pretty good shape anyway.

* * *

Actually it's an architectural experiment, but most people will probably say: "Golly, what happened to that roof?"

The reason is that it slopes in every direction at once, and University of Michigan researchers believe that it might come into popular use for homes and schools.

If you look up "hyperbolic paraboloid" in the dictionary, you'll find it's "A quadric with real generators which touches the plane at infinity."

You can tuck that away in your space helmet. It's really like a big cardboard rectangle, propped up with different length sticks.

Suppose you wanted to make a model roof in this shape. Here's how you'd do it. Take a flexible cardboard, like laundries use to fold up a man's white shirt.

PROP CORNERS

Lay it lengthwise in front of you and prop up the two front corners with pencils of equal length. Take another pencil of the same length and prop up the middle of the back edge.

Now take three pencils about an inch and a half shorter. Put one of these in the middle of the front edge and pull the cardboard down to the top of the pencil. Do the same to the two corners of the back edge.

Looks badly warped, doesn't it? But that's hyperbolic paraboloid, and the architects say that it's very strong.

* * *

The model they've built at the university is quarter inch reinforced concrete, as strong as a flat slab of concrete four inches thick.

ISN'T FIRST

Of course this isn't the first roof like this to be built but the expense of forming the complex shape has made it impractical in this country.

University architects are interested in developing a mold that can prefabricate the concrete roofs and lower the cost per unit. If they can do it, they say they can make the roofs cheaper than conventional ones.

They have dozens of strain gauges on their model and have a 750-gallon tank on top which

LaRosa Career Keeps Growing

Arthur's Public Ouster Has Been Big Boon to Young Crooner

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS) — Today is the second anniversary of a moment famous in the history of modern American trivia, an event that proved more fascinating than global conniptions far beyond the call of front pages, a nifty, noisy throwback to the era of wonderful nonsense:

* * *

It will be just two years ago since that historical speech a few minutes before 11:30 a. m., when Arthur Godfrey fired the crooner heard 'round the world — Julius LaRosa.

It was an amazing incident, loaded with popular newsiness, perhaps with some important mass psychosis or neurosis involved, certainly a new insight into the galvanic impact of television personalities upon the public.

It was a tiny enough incident; the story started simply, out of sheer bad judgment on the part of Arthur Godfrey — instead of firing his junior crooner (Frank Parker being the indeed very senior earbender of the Godfrey gang) in privacy, Godfrey's inclination toward the sensational led him to hurl Julius publicly right out of CBS-TV onto the nation's front pages.

* * *

The 24-year-old lad staggered out into the cold cruel world in the most public firing since the one on Ft. Sumter, before some 7,000,000 radio-TV witnesses.

ALL NOT SERENE

The impact of the story had a day's lag in landing. Jim Kilgallen of International News Service got the tip on the story and reported it; the ramifications followed—the seemingly unimportant but strangely fascinating information that all was not serene and family-like among the Godfrey gang.

The first post-Godfrey year earned $360,000 for Julius. The fiscal La Rosa year finishing at 11:30 a. m. today adds another $480,000 to his financial memory book.

He had been guaranteed $150,000 a year by Tom Rockwell, head of General Artists Corp., who led in similarly solvent fashion into the higher brackets such singing citizens as Bing Crosby, Perry Como, Jo Stafford, Peggy Lee, Frankie Laine.

At this precise instant Julius is somewhere in Italy, escorting his mother on her first return to her native Palermo; last year Julius sent his young (47) dad on the same nostalgic tour.

* * *

He must be back in time to be guest star Nov. 5 on the Perry Como show—at $5,000—then shuffle off to Las Vegas, where he will be paid $12,500 for each of four weeks at El Rancho Vegas, or $50,000 for the engagement, starting off his new fiscal year with a lovely bang at the bank.

HE'S IN THE MONEY

Julius now owns a fine home in Westchester, an apartment on Sutton place, has considerable cash in working oil properties, good stocks, real estate, a program of careful investment attended by his lawyer-manager, Frank Barone.

* * *

His life is full, he is living a life of more careful luxury than most young show biz favorites, and generally makes a noise like a solid citizen.

His finest hour came when he was hired for a summer TV show, a half hour every Saturday night, his fine high salary paid by Chesterfield—his old boss' old sponsor. Nice ironic happy ending.

Baseball Expert Misses Big One on TV Quiz Show

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball whiz Patrick (Paddy) Keough of St. Louis struck out last night on the $32,000 question.

* * *

He was given a $5,000 Cadillac as a consolation prize on the CBS television and radio giveaway show The $64,000 Question.

Keough, a 62-year-old businessman, is the first loser at a prize level above $8,000 in the 20 weeks the show has been on the air.

He was asked what baseball player holds the record batting average for three different major league teams, the names of the teams and the player's record average with each.

Keough identified Rogers Hornsby as the player and the St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cubs and Boston Braves as the teams.

He got .424 as Hornsby's record average with the Cards, and .389 with the Braves. Stumped on the Cubs average, he said it was .387—.383—or .389. The correct figure was .380.

Two other contestants made the grade on the $16,000 question.

Don E. Self Jr., 24-year-old physicist from El Paso, Tex., who is working on Long Island, did it in his mythology category.

* * *

The Rev. Alvin B. Kershaw, rector of the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Oxford, Ohio, made the grade in his jazz category.

Self and the Rev. Mr. Kershaw will announce on the program next Tuesday night whether they will try then for the $32,000 question.

Margaret Truman Has Own TV Show

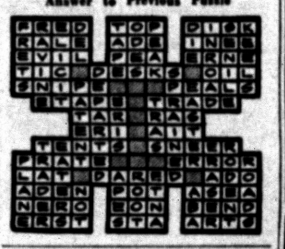

NEW YORK (AP)—Margaret Truman, often a guest performer on radio and television, will have the first regular program of her own starting next month.

* * *

The National Broadcasting Co. announced yesterday the daughter of the former President will be hostess on a new daytime program called Weekday. It is scheduled to start Nov. 7 and will run Monday through Friday.

Aimed at women listeners, the program will offer entertainment, household tips, family problem discussions and world events.

Bob Considine Says:

So Who's Causing This Violent Weather?

NEW YORK — The passing show . . .

Okay, if it isn't the A-bomb that's causing floods, hurricanes and typhoons all over the world, what is it?

If Truman were in office, he could be blamed.

The Western world gained its first real knowledge of hurricanes from Christopher Columbus, whose ships wallowed through one in 1493. It paid little attention for centuries.

As recently as 1900 the warnings of Jesuits stationed at the Observatorio of Belem, in Havana, were totally ignored by U. S. areas in the path of a tremendous blow.

SNEEZE STATISTICS

Americans will catch half a billion colds this year, says the St. Louis cold-pill firm that makes a pill per cold. It says some astonishing things about colds:

Nobody ever died of one . . . it is not a disease . . . they cost Americans $5,000,000,000 a year in lost wages, lost production and medical expenses . . .

Over 90 per cent of the population picks up a cold a year . . . during the fall, winter and spring "cold waves" 15,000,000 people a day catch . . . People who live near the oceans have fewer colds than Midwesterners, and city slickers get them less often than country folks . . .

Many more women than men catch colds, and the best way not to have a cold is to be between the ages of 20 and 29.

Oh, yes, don't worry about kissing a person with a cold. You're a 10-to-1 shot not to catch it. But it is contagious enough at that to be transmited by a handshake, or it can originate from fear, excitement, shock, anger, sudden noise and looking at a picture of Marilyn Monroe.

BIG TAX BITE

If you think the war's over, go to a nightclub and get slapped with that 20 per cent tax bite. It came in about the time of World War I as a "war tax." Whatever it's name now is, it's still one-fifth more added to your bill.

Convair's F102, a delta-wing interceptor just joining the Air Force, broke through the sound barrier without a quiver while climbing to 35,000 in its second test. With the after-burner cooking, its Pratt and Whitney J57 engine develops the incredible strength of 16,000 horses.

One of the fondest books ever written to a machine is historian Philip Van Doren Stern's "Tin Lizzie, the Story of the Fabulous Model T Ford," which Simon and Schuster has just published.

It's for car buffs, tinkerers and an entire new generation which, to Stern's delight, is returning to the T for kicks.

Old Hennery sold more than 15,000,000 Model T's before he was forced to give them up. There wasn't a country in the world that didn't have one running under sometimes violent conditions.

The Model T in all probability is the most famous single piece of machinery ever made. Dealers fought for them with frenzy.

The company's archives have yielded Stern much lore, including this plea of many years ago from a Brooklyn firm to Ford himself:

"Send twenty-five (25) Model T tops, with cars attached."

A recent study indicate that errors made by typists increase from an average of 11 per hour to more than 95 per hour when the temperature rises from 78 to 96 degrees.

Kefauver Will Enter Ring If He Has Money–Support

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) apparently needs only the promise of some substantial financial and organization support to nudge him into the race for the 1956 Democratic presidential nomination.

* * *

Kefauver, who won some primaries but not the nomination in 1952, told a news conference Monday he will make up his mind whether to become an active candidate next year before the filing deadline for early presidential primaries.

FUNDS ARE LOW

He left the impression he hasn't in sight the estimated minimum of $200,000 he said would be needed to finance an active race. He said he has little information on what his friends are doing in an organization way.

Sen. Douglas (D-Ill), who stuck with Kefauver to the end in his unsuccessful convention fight for the nomination in 1952, said in an interview Kefauver won't get his support next year. He said he is backing Adlai E. Stevenson, the 1952 nominee, who is expected to announce next month that he is available again.

Kefauver had praise for Stevenson and another potential rival for the nomination, Gov. Averell Harriman of New York.

DEMS MISTAKEN

He listed both as "forward-looking Democratic leaders." But he left the impression he regards himself just as capable of attaining what he said should be his party's campaign aim—returning the executive branch to "liberal Democratic leadership."

He said those Democrats are "mistaken" who believe they will have a comparatively easy time electing a president if President Eisenhower doesn't run.

* * *

But Sen. Kerr (D-Okla) couldn't agree. He said he thinks the Democratic nominee "could beat any other Republican." He added that the chance Eisenhower will "permit himself to be forced into the race is such a remote possibility that speculation on the outcome would be premature and inappropriate."

* * *

GOP Chairman Leonard Hall said in Philadelphia Monday that Eisenhower may wait until just before the August convention to announced his plans.
