Stevens Denies He'll Quit if Ike Won't Back Him

Naguib of Egypt Forced to Resign

Council Fears Dictator Trend, Names Colonel

From Syria, Rumors Are Saying Shishekly Sits on Shaky Seat

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) —One of the Middle East's "strong-men" — Gen. Mohamed Naguib of Egypt—was squeezed out today and another — President Gen. Adib Shishekly of Syria—was on a shaky seat.

Egypt's ruling Revolutionary Council dropped Naguib as President and Premier of the young republic on charges that he was trying to pull Egypt "back to absolute dictatorship."

To replace him as premier, the council named hard-boiled Lt. Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser, the driving force behind the army coup that ousted former King Farouk.

In Syria, radio Aleppo said a large section of the Syrian army had revolted against Shishekly.

An earlier Aleppo broadcast, heard in London, claimed—without confirmation—Shishekly had been overthrown. Broadcasts from Damascus, the Syrian capital, made no mention of any kind of trouble.

The Aleppo broadcast said troops from Aleppo and the northern districts of Syria had seized Aleppo, largest city in the country, and declared open rebellion under the leadership of Col. Mustafa Hammoud.

Calling Shishekly "tyrant, oppressor and slave of the imperialists," the broadcast said Hammoud had given the president an ultimatum to resign by tonight and leave the country within 24 hours.

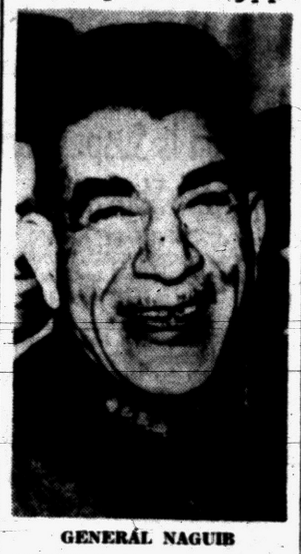

The Egyptian chief's ouster was announced following a heated session of the 11 young army officers making up the council that has ruled Egypt since the ouster of Farouk.

A council communique declared Naguib was suffering from "a psychological crisis" and reported unanimous acceptance of a resignation it said he had submitted Monday.

Although the council picked Nasser, who had served as Naguib's deputy premier, to take

Death Sentence Given to Woman Mau Mau

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP)—The first death sentence for an African woman in the anti-Mau Mau campaign was ordered today by an emergency court here.

The woman, Wangui, a Kikuyu, was sentenced to die after being convicted of having seven rounds of ammunition. They were found buried under her house in a Nairobi African section.

U.S. Closes 3 Polish Centers

Orders Poland to Shut Consulates at Detroit, Chicago and New York

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States today told Communist Poland to close its consulates at New York, Chicago, and Detroit.

Secretary of State Dulles sent a note to the Polish ambassador, Jozef Winiewicz, saying the consular establishments "serve no useful purpose in the conduct or relations between the United States and Poland at the present time."

There have been complaints from Michigan congressmen and others that the Detroit consulate was a center of Communist propaganda. A State Department spokesman said the Michigan congressmen have been informed of the move, but declined to say whether the close-down was at their request.

Dulles' note asked Poland to close down the three consulates, leaving only the embassy in Washington, and "withdraw the personnel of those offices within a reasonable period."

Ziegler Ousts State Highway Property Buyer

Ronald Kennedy Fired for 'Irregularities'; 2nd Employe Suspended

LANSING (AP) — State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler today fired a second employe in the right-of-way division in Grand Rauids and relieved the Lansing chief of the division from his duties.

Attorney General Frank G. Millard, at the same time, threatened to take over the prosecution in western Michigan land deals unless Prosecutor Robert A. Cavanaugh, of Muskegon County, acted today.

Ziegler fired Ronald V. Kennedy, right-of-way buyer in the Grand Rapids District Office, "Because there is reason to believe that some of his duties involved irregularities in the conduct of his work," the statement said.

Ziegler relieved James Kane, director of the division whose offices are in Lansing, pending further investigation by the attorney general and "reorganization of the duties."

Ziegler placed George M. Foster, his chief deputy, in charge of the right-of-way division, effective immediately.

Kennedy, 43, joined the department in 1935 and after a series of assignments was sent to the Grand Rapids District Office as a land buyer in 1948.

Meanwhile, Cavanaugh said he "would not recommend any warrants today" in the prosecution of western Michigan land deals.

He said the state had furnished evidence involving two persons, but he believed "many more individuals may be involved" in the purchases of right-of-ways for state highways.

Millard threatened to take over prosecution unless Cavanaugh acted today.

Cavanaugh denied Millard's statement that the prosecutor had agreed to ask for Muskegon County warrants within 24 hours last Monday.

"I recall no such promise or indication on my part that I intended to act within 24 hours," Cavanaugh said.

Cavanaugh said he was continuing his investigation and had not ruled out the possibility of a grand jury investigation.

Quick Approval Seen for Warren

Committee OK Is 12-3; Knowland May Modify Seniority System

WASHINGTON—A 12-3 committee vote yesterday cleared the way for speedy Senate confirmation of Earl Warren as chief justice of the United States.

Sen. Knowland said he planned to take President Eisenhower's nomination of Warren up in the Senate tomorrow.

"I believe the Senate will give the chief justice an overwhelming vote of confidence" he said.

Meanwhile Knowland, Senate GOP leader, announced that he is launching a move to modify the seniority system as it applies to Senate committee chairmen —a step aimed at unseating Judiciary Chairman William Langer (R-ND).

Knowland did not mention Langer or his activity in handling Chief Justice Earl Warren's nomination. But he told newsmen: "You can draw your own conclusions."

His proposal would apply to the chairmanship of the Government Operations Committee, now held by Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis), as well as to Langer's committee, or any other.

Earl's Barber shop moved to corner of Oakland and Johnson.

Automobile Bootleggers Face Loss of Franchises

DETROIT (AP) — Henry Ford II, president of the Ford Motor Co., and Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors Corp., have warned their dealers throughout the nation against the practice of automobile "bootlegging."

Both Ford and Curtice broadly hinted Wednesday in letters to their new car dealers that if the practice continues to grow some dealers stand a good chance of losing their franchise.

Bootlegging is the wholesaling by franchised dealers of new cars to used car retailers who sell them at less than list price.

Protests filed by franchised dealers to the manufacturers have asked for a halt to bootlegging.

Charles C. Freed, NADA president, and Frederick J. Bell, executive vice president, have been in Detroit conferring with top auto executives on proposals for stopping the practice.

Ford, in his letter to Ford and Lincoln - Mercury dealers, made five elements about bootlegging which he said hurt the dealer himself:

1. Losing direct contact with the ultimate user of the car.
2. Losing the opportunity to service the new car owner and build him into a long-time buyer.
3. Running the risk of having his product appear as "distress merchandise."
4. Undermining the basic principles of new car distribution.
5. Making it less likely for the customer to receive full benefit

Habel Trial Here Nears Wind-up as City Makes Condemnation Plea

City Attorney William A. Ewart argued the city's condemnation suit of property at 11-49 Parke St. before an Oakland County Circuit Court jury of 10 women and two men this morning as the three weeks proceedings near a climax.

Ewart maintained that the disputed property is necessary for the good of the city and should be turned into an off-street metered parking lot.

A mistrial motion by Ewart on the grounds of irregularities by defense attorney William J. Beer was denied by Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick. Ewart claimed irregularities on the submission of questionable papers to the jury.

Dulles Assures U.S. It Gained Much at Berlin

Says Geneva Meeting Chance to Bring Red China Before World

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles has assured the nation it lost nothir.g at Berlin and gained much—including a chance to bring Red China "before the bar of world opinion."

Dulles, who returned five days ago from the month-long Big Four talks, told a nationwide radio-television audience last night:

"You may ask whether it was worthwhile to go to Berlin . . . My answer is 'yes' and I have no doubt about that."

He said two results "will profoundly influence the future" and described them as:

1. Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov was forced by the U.S., French and British delegates "to show Russia's hand" —a hand which Dulles said hung on to all it had, including East Germany and East Austria, and grabbed for more.

2. Molotov gave in, at the last hour in a "concession . . . not to be ignored," and signed a declaration spelling out U. S. refusal to recognize Red China.

It was this point—America's long-withheld diplomatic recognition of Communist China—which Dulles hit time and again. His half-hour speech, besides domestic radio-TV coverage, was beamed also in 33 languages to both sides of the Iron Curtain.

To those voicing fear that a meeting with Red China will imply U.S. diplomatic recognition, he said:

"That fear is without any basis whatsoever. Those throughout the world who suggest that the prospective Geneva conference implies recognition are giving the Communists a success which they could not win at Berlin."

"The Communist regime will not come to Geneva to be honored, but

BOLTS DOWN PLATE—With the deadline for new license plates approaching, Mrs. Ward J. Rathbun, 593 Raskob Ave., makes sure her car will be properly licensed. Cars must display 1954 license plates after midnight Sunday.

Sales Ahead of Last Year

17,000 Still Need Plates as License Deadline Nears

With only two more days to buy 1954 auto license plates before the old ones become invalid, some 17,000 car owners in Pontiac and vicinity are still without them.

LeRoy F. Kellogg, assistant manager of the Pontiac branch of the secretary of state's office, said Wednesday that about 38,000 out of an estimated 55,000 motorists in this area have obtained new plates.

Deadline for use of old plates is midnight Sunday, but license plate offices will not be open Sunday.

In an effort to supply latecomers with tags before the deadline, Kellogg said the office would remain open nights tomorrow and Saturday.

Employes will work each night until all applications have been filled, Kellogg said.

The office can process about 300 applications an hour or about 2,500 a day, according to Kellogg.

As is the case each year, Kellogg reported, some owners have applied for tags without car titles. In order to speed up processing, Kellogg warned that no plates can be issued without titles.

Sales this year are about 6,000 ahead of last year, Kellogg stated.

Bulletin

NEW YORK (INS)— The Federal Reserve Bank of New York reported today that 5,800 blank checks of the Treasurer of the United States have been stolen. The checks had serial numbers from 101 through 5,900.

They were "Navy Department Issue" and were signed by T. E. Brew, an ensign in the Navy before they were stolen.

Seven Are Held in 16 Robberies

Officers Seek Others After Loot Is Found Hidden in Shack

Police are hunting today for more members of a teen-aged gang linked to 16 Oakland County burglaries during the past 30 days.

Frank Van Atta, Waterford Township police chief, said seven youths seized Tuesday implicated other teenagers in the robbery spree.

Three of the youths were charged today with breaking and entering in the nighttime, while the other four are being held for investigation. Three of the four are under Oakland County Juvenile Court jurisdiction.

The trio was charged with the nighttime burglary of the Pontiac Country Club, Waterford Township.

The three are Harry A. Brown Jr., 17, of 6960 Beaufort, Walled Lake; Bernard F. Roach, 17, of 5656 W.

Also being held in Oakland County Jail is Edwin G. Van Horn, 17, of 3082, Norcott, Keego Harbor. He has been implicated in the theft of a quantity of potato chips from a grocery store.

The three juveniles, two 16 and the other 15, were turned over to their parents pending future police action.

"There were some others implicated," said Van Atta. "The three juveniles won't be taken to court until we see if there were more involved."

West Bloomfield Township Police Chief William Van Meter Jr. said the youths were rounded up after two of them returned to a cache of stolen goods hidden in a shack at 15-Mile and Orchard Lake Rds.

Army Secretary Rumored Irate Over Settlement

Irked by Impression That McCarthy Won in Secret Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens was reported today to be steaming with anger over interpretations of his agreement with Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) as a "capitulation." His office and the White House acknowledged they had had telephone exchanges on the matter.

Stevens denied, however, a report that he was asking a public expression of support from President Eisenhower and was prepared to resign if he didn't get it.

This report came from a source close to the secretary.

When an Associated Press dispatch to this effect was shown to Stevens he authorized an aide to deny it "categorically."

The source of the original report could not be reached immediately.

He is in a position to know what has gone on behind the scenes.

Stevens was closeted with a group of top advisers when the AP dispatch was sent in to him.

John F. Kane, a civilian aide, came out and told reporters he was authorized to deny "categorically" that the report was correct.

The original report was to the effect that Stevens had informed White House officials he would insist on one of the two following courses of action:

1. A statement from the President that Eisenhower agrees with Stevens that he did not "capitulate" during yesterday's secret sessions with McCarthy on the question of calling Army officers for testimony in McCarthy's inquiry into what he calls the Army's "coddling of Communists."

2. Agreement from the President that Stevens can say in a statement that Eisenhower is in full agreement with the secretary's position.

Stevens was reported to be angry and indignant over some phases of his go-round with McCarthy.

Further, he was said to be troubled over possible effect on Army morale.

The secretary went to his office early and launched into a series of conferences with top advisers.

One high Army officer told a reporter: "I would not be surprised at anything that happens."

Sources close to the secretary said it was Stevens' understanding that agreement was reached in his conference yesterday with Republican members of McCarthy's subcommittee that Army officers testifying in the future would be accorded respect.

He was said to be agry that the memorandum of agreement, read

50 Workers Felled by Chlorine Fumes

MUSKEGON (AP)—Approximately 50 construction workers were felled by chlorine gas fumes today that swirled suddenly into the basement of the Central Paper Co. Mill from a ruptured pipeline.

At least 20 were admitted to hospitals for treatment and three were reported in serious condition. One of the most seriously affected was identified as Ray Franklin, 57, a Muskegon electrician.

Some 30 others were treated in hospital emergency wards or by private physicians. Most of the injured were believed to be Muskegon workers.

THIRD OF ITS KIND—A unique feature of the new First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham, where services will be held for the first time March 7, is the Children's Chapel. The pews, reading desk, organ and all other equipment are scaled down to size for the first through sixth grade children who will use the chapel. So far as is known, there are only two other such chapels in this country, one in Washington, D. C., and another in Cincinnati, Ohio. The Rev. Robert W. Gibson Jr., minister to youth, is shown placing candlesticks on a miniature table.

No Penalty Tax Due March 1st

Sylvan Lake Will Place Unpaid Assessments in County Office

Sylvan Lake July and December 1953 taxes, special assessment billings and sewer service charges remaining unpaid will be certified to the Oakland County treasurer's office for collection after Feb. 28, according to City Manager Ernest Ethier.

Penalty charges are added by the county, said Ethier. Because Feb. 28 is a Sunday, any payments made at city hall or postmarked by midnight March 1 will be accepted by the city treasurer, he added.

Any veteran eligible for exemption of 1954 taxes must file his claim by March 8, Ethier said, with blanks obtainable at the city treasurer's office or from City Assessor Ted Koella, 1845 Woodland Ave.

The Sylvan Lake Board of Review will meet March 2 and 3 to review assessment rolls and discuss assessment matters with property owners. Either announced.

The board will meet from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. It will examine and approve the assessment roll on March 8, Ethier said.

B. D. Charles, Edwin L. Williams and Harold James make up the board, with City Assessor Ted Koella as secretary.

of his warranty and additional services.

Curtice appealed to the dealers to "cooperate with General Motors in preserving the most valued franchise in the industry." At the same time he advised them GM will continue to review their performance in carrying out their obligations under the selling agreements with General Motors.

Curtice described car bootlegging as "a malignancy which, if it is not stopped, will eat away the very vitals of your business and ours."

Some dealers, encountering competition from used car dealers with new cars to sell, have complained of overproduction and maldistribution of new cars. These, Curtice wrote, were not factors in the situation.

"In fact," he said, "1954 models of General Motors cars were in the 'bootleg' market before there was sufficient production to supply our dealers with the necessary stock for display and sales purposes.

"Even now some models in short supply because of limited production are being 'bootlegged.'

"Under these circumstances, there can be only one reason for this practice—the selfish desire on the part of some dealers for a quick nominal profit at the expense of the customer, the public, the dealer organization, and the manufacturer."

Old Church Is Site for Sunday Meeting

BIRMINGHAM — The worship site on N. Woodward which has served Birmingham's Presbyterian families for 90 years, and with its present building for 36 years, will find its walls bulging for the last time this Sunday.

A membership of about 2,200 will move into the new First Presbyterian Church on W. Maple at Chesterfield on March 7, Dr. W. Glen Harris, minister, announced from the pulpit last Sunday.

Moving into the large L-shaped $1,100,000 church of contemporary Georgian design will bring another change. Instead of two services there will be three: At 8:30, 9:45 and 11:15 a.m.

The new sanctuary will have a seating capacity of almost 700. There will also be a small chapel and offices in the remainder of this uncompleted wing.

Devoted primarily to an enlarged religious education unit, the other wing contains a children's chapel.

The old First Presbyterian Church has been purchased by the Congregational Church formed here a year ago, and the first morning services will be held there March 7.

Committee of 9 Eyes Facilities for Teenagers

BIRMINGHAM — In an effort to curb youthful rowdiness and misbehavior, chairman of the Birmingham - Bloomfield - Franklin Council on Community Services, has named a nine-member committee to study the adequacy of teenage recreational facilities.

The council has been asked by a group of civic leaders to undertake the problem after the closing of a teenagers meeting place in the Community House due to youthful misbehavior.

The committee Kass appointed, composed of persons active in community affairs, includes Mrs. Carlton Isley as chairman and Mrs. William H. Jackson, Mrs. T. Hollister Mabley, Mrs. Harvey B. Greene, Estella Martin, Paul N. Averill, Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley, Paul D. Carter and Carl F. Ingraham.

City Attorney Cites Need for Parking Site

traffic expert, disagreed with property-owner Jack Habel's testimony that the land was too far from downtown Pontiac for an effective parking site.

Gunderson said the walking time from the proposed parking area to downtown Pontiac is from four to five minutes and that the site would serve effectively for short-term parking for downtown shoppers.

City Planning Commission Secretary Henry Smith testified that the walking distance of 1,500 feet from the lot to downtown stores could be reduced to 801 feet by providing a walkway through the adjoining city-county market building.

Frank Lyndall, Sears Roebuck Co. manager, said he has walked from the proposed parking lot to the city's business area and considers the spot ideal for a city-owned parking lot.

Both Lyndall and Gunderson said the property, owned by Jack Habel Chevrolet Co., is greatly needed for downtown shoppers parking.

Habel testified yesterday that three members of the Pontiac Retail Merchants Assn. urged him to sell the land to the city, and said it would be condemned if he refused to do so.

He said he purchased the property on Aug. 3 for $60,000 and the city approved condemnation proceedings on Aug. 11.

The city had been bargaining for the property before the sale to Habel but the owners were under no legal obligation to sell.

Another Coffee Brand Joins Price Advance

NEW YORK (AP) — Standard Brands today joined the parade in the latest round of price increases by coffee roasters. The company advanced the price of its Chase & Sanborn brand five cents a pound.

The increase brings the wholesale price of Chase and Sanborn coffee up to $1.06 a pound. With the usual retail mark-up of about 10 per cent, the cost to consumers is expected to be about $1.16 in most stores.

Car Overturns, Driver Killed

Father of Four Pinned Beneath Wrecked Auto North of Pontiac

A 31-year-old Clarkston factory worker was killed Wednesday night when his car went out of control, struck a tree and overturned on Baldwin road about three miles north of Pontiac.

John Forkum, of 5040 Harvard St., the father of four children, was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital.

Oakland County sheriff's deputies said they found Forkum, a GMC Truck and Coach Division assembler, pinned beneath the wreckage of his car about 130 feet from the road.

The deputies said he apparently lost control of his car while traveling north near Calgary road.

Forkum, who has been employed at GMTC for five years, is survived by his widow, Iris, and four children, Sharon, 10, Susan, 5, Stephanie, 3, and John, 2.

He also is survived by nine brothers and sisters in Dexter, Mo. Funeral arrangements are pending at Farmer-Snover Funeral Home.

British diplomatic sources said it was too early to speculate on what effect the change-over might have on British-Egyptian negotiations over the Suez Canal, a sore point in relations between the two countries.

"There is no reason to suppose, however, that the new Premier . . . is any more or less anti-British than Gen. Naguib," one source commented.

In the Middle East the official action appeared generally to be one of wait-and-see. But in Israel, the afternoon newspaper Maariv commented:

"The only thing the West and we—Israel—must know is that the new strongman in Egypt will display more extreme radicalism than his predecessor."

There was no comment from any source on the reported Syrian uprising. The absence of news dispatches could be accounted for by Syrian government censorship.

An Aleppo broadcast heard in Baghdad, Iraq, described Col. Hammoud as military commander of the Syrian army garrison in Aleppo. It said the rebels had promised the nation a return to constitutional government and have appealed to their "brothers in arms" to support the revolt.

* * *

The Aleppo broadcast, as monitored in London, said that rebel forces had seized the north, east and western regions of the country south of Turkey. It did not identify the rebels.

Damascus is in the far southwest of Syria, near the Lebanese border. Aleppo is in the northwest, south of the Turkish border.

Baby Is Found Dead in Farmington Home

A six-month-old Farmington Township girl died yesterday of suffocation in a garage home which she shared with her parents, a twin sister and four other brothers and sisters.

Sharon Fecteau, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Fecteau of 23294 Canfield, was found dead by her father, an unemployed factory worker.

Dr. Earl W. Spohn, deputy Oakland County coroner, pronounced the child dead at 11:30 a.m. Dr. Spohn said the baby's death was caused by accidental suffocation.

According to Deputy Harry Maur, the child slipped from the open end of a laundry basket which served as her crib and lodged between the crib and the wall.

Secretary Stevens Denies He'll Resign

by Sen. Mundt (R-SD) after the session, omitted any reference to this and to feel it left him in an untenable position.

The memo said it had been agreed that (A) the subcommittee should be given the names of all those involved in the honorable discharge of an officer McCarthy calls all "Fifth Amendement Communist," and (B) these officers shall be available for questioning.

This was widely interpreted as a capitulation by Stevens since earlier he had directed two officers disregard subpoenas from McCarthy.

Sources at the Capitol said it was argued to Stevens in the closed door session with the subcommittee members that he had put himself in the position of defying Congress.

Further, it was argued that irreparable damage might be done to the Republican party and to the Eisenhower administration if Stevens and McCarthy had a hammer-and-tongs session before a nationwide TV audience.

Stevens was scheduled to appear before the committee today and major TV networks had arranged telecasts. This session was called off when the agreement was reached.

Pentagon reporters were given to understand that senior Army officers had been urging Stevens to put his side of the case on the record, primarily to bolster morale in the Army.

These officers told Stevens that the rank and file of the Army knew only what they had read in the newspapers or heard over the radio and that the line taken by virtually all publications was that Stevens had yielded to McCarthy.

At the White House presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty said in response to questions that Stevens had telephoned him at home last night to discuss the newspaper stories.

Asked about reports that Stevens might resign, Hagerty said:

"There is no resignation here—of course not."

Hagerty repeated three or four times what he said yesterday—that the President had no advance knowledge of the Stevens-McCarthy agreement.

The following information, described as Stevens' view of the secret Capitol meeting, was disclosd by an informed source:

1. Stevens did not know the memo of understanding would specifically emphasize that two Army officers, whom Stevens ordered not to testify, would be made available to McCarthy.

This source said Stevens had not read the memo before it was given to newsmen.

2. McCarthy and Sens. Mundt, Dirksen (R-Ill) and Potter (R-Mich) reportedly urged Stevens to enter into the agreement in order to prevent a major split in the Republican party.

3. The four senators and Stevens had agreed no details of yesterday's meeting beyond those contained in the memorandum of understanding would be disclosed.

Stevens, though described as surprised at the actual language of the memorandum, reportedly decided to keep his own silence on details of the meeting despite his feeling that the statement did not give an accurate picture.

Nevertheless, in view of the situation, the Army Secretary was reported to be considering the advisability of holding a news conference to publicize his understanding of the results of the conference.

Three Await Court in Velez Stabbing

Two brothers and an AWOL Air Force private, accused in the Jan. 10 fatal stabbing of Raul Velez, 19, of 294 W. Wilson Ave., were bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court Wednesday following an examination before Pontiac Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

The trio, Roberto, 21, and Olivero Ortega, 16, of 381 Irwin St., and Pvt. George Theobald, 19, of 562 Arthur St., were returned to Oakland County Jail to await the March 8 arraignment. They failed to post bonds of $1,000 each.

The original charge of second degree murder was reduced against Theobald and Olivero Ortega to manslaughter. Judge Finnegan also altered the charge against Roberto to felonicus assault.

Some 20 persons offered testimony during the three-week examination.

The younger Ortega told authorities he stabbed Velez in the left shoulder when his brother, Roberto, called for help. Roberto said a fight started between him and Velez at Nevada St. and Franklin Rd. The trio was returning from a wedding reception.

Girl, 9, Hospitalized With Head, Leg Injuries

A 9-year-old Pontiac girl is reported in good condition at Pontiac General Hospital today with head and leg injuries after she was struck by a car yesterday at Columbia and Baldwin Aves.

Witnesses said Irene Reed of 86 E. Fairmont Ave. darted between northbound vehicles on Baldwin and was struck by a car driven by Mrs. Winifred L. Hassenzahl, 38, of 384 Alberta St. The driver told Pontiac Police she was making a left turn from Columbia and was unable to stop. She was not held.

Pontiac Deaths

Miles A. Hoenstine

Funeral for Miles A. Hoenstine, 44, of 736 Glinnan Ave., Detroit, will be Saturday at 11 a.m. from the Fred Wood Funeral Home, 8450 Plymouth Rd. near Grand River avenue, Detroit. The Rev. Charles D. Race of Central Christian Church here will officiate and burial will be in Oakland Hills Memorial Cemetery.

Mr. Hoenstine is survived by four brothers, Fred, William and Champ of Pontiac and John of St. Clair Shores.

He died Wednesday in Herman Kiefer Hospital in Detroit.

Elta Fay Tick

Funeral for Elta Fay Tick, 52, of 559 Lenox Ave. will be held Saturday at 3 p.m. from the Huntoon Funeral Home. Dr. H. H. Savage, of the First Baptist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Perry Mount Park Cemetery.

Mr. Tick died of a heart attack Thursday morning.

Bratton Is Suspended for Poor Showing

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission today suspended welterweight Johnny Bratton and held up his purse of $4,770 for an "unsatisfactory showing" in his losing decision to Johnny Saxton last night in a nationally televised bout at the Philadelphia Arena.

Bratton, appearing before two of the state's three commissioners, argued that "I fought the best way I could and it isn't my fault that the crowd wasn't pleased."

The commissioners, George Jones of Williamsport, and John Holahan of Pittsburgh, reserved final decision until March 10 when commission chairman Frank Weiner returns from a vacation.

Flint AFL Fight Likely to Widen

Growing Jurisdictional Dispute May Spread to Detroit

FLINT (AP) — A bitter jurisdictional fight between two AFL unions over the removal of government machinery from factories today threatened to spread to Detroit.

Representatives of two Detroit companies will meet with officials of the AFL Detroit Building and Trades Council tomorrow to seek a solution to the jurisdictional dispute between the AFL Teamsters Union and the Flint Building Trades Council.

One of the companies, the Commercial Corp. of Detroit, touched off the dispute when it hired teamsters to remove government machinery from the Flint Buick plant.

The Building Trades Council contended the work should have been done by carpenters and threw up pickets at the plant. The picketing has created a tense situation which has threatened to erupt into mass violence.

Attorneys for the trades council were scheduled to appear in Genesee County Circuit Court today to show cause why its members should not be restrained from maintaining the picket lines.

Circuit Judges Stephen Roth, Paul V. Gadola and Philip Elliot will hear the restraining suit filed by Commercial Contracting Co.

Spokesmen for the teamsters said the union probably would order its members back to work if the restraining order is granted.

In Detroit, representatives of the Dearborn Machinery Movers Co. will meet Friday with union officials in a similar dispute involving the transfer of government machinery from the Packard jet engine plant at Utica and the Ford Motor Co. Livonia tank plant.

Ring Went Around in Complete Circle

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP)—A Texas soldier found a gold ring beside two dead Red soldiers on a Korean hilltop last year. It was a Texas A. & M. 1945 class ring engraved with the name of "J. N. Parks."

The soldier, Otto Yelton of Galveston, was an Aggie himself so he kept the ring to return to Parks' family. He assumed Parks was dead.

Back in Texas, Yelton gave the ring to an Aggie student, Bill Robinson of Galena Park, Tex. Robinson traced Parks, who lives at Corpus Christi, through school records.

Then he learned that Parks never had been in Kora. The ring was stolen from his car while he was fishing near San Antonio Sept. 3, 1952.

A million dollars worth of gold at $35 an ounce weighs slightly less than a ton.

Man Injured in Cave-In Still Listed as Critical

Floyd R. Rhue, 25, of 95 E. Huron St., injured Tuesday in a sewer ditch cave-in, is still listed in critical conditon at Pontiac General Hospital.

A co-worker, John Merriweather, 33, of 397 Highland Ave., is reported in good condition. The men were buried by loose dirt while laying pipe in front of 121 Brooklyn Ave.

The Swiss watch industry employs upwards of 50,000 persons.

Revolution May Put End to Trousers

LONDON (INS)—Comes the revolution, men may have to stop wearing pants.

The Communist Daily Worker printed without comment a letter from a correspondent who suggested that trousers should be ranked close to yachts and mansions as symbods of capitalist domination.

The letter reads as follows:

"Throughout the capitalistic world today you will see working men aping the bourgeoise by wearing trousers — those symbols of the inequality of women.

Not only evening dress, but trousers too will disappear under Socialism. I am already designing a tasteful blanket suitable for both sexes. It is irreproachable in having no shape at all."

The Bell system's television network facilities were available to 114 television stations located in 71 cities during the operating year of 1953.

Jury Decides Teeth Aren't Worth $50,000

MONROE (AP) — A circuit court jury has decided nine-year-old Diane Edmondson's two front teeth are worth nothing. She contended they are worth $25,000 apiece.

Wanda's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Edmondson, of Monroe, sued William Davis, Rockwood, for $50,000 damages they said were caused when Davis' car struck Wanda, knocking out two teeth. The jury said the Edmondsons were entitled to no recompense.

Davis, before Judge Neal Fitzgerald, said his car merely brushed the child and that her lunch box flew up, knocking out her teeth.

Head of Sanders Stores Dies in Detroit Home

DETROIT (INS)—Funeral arrangements were being completed today for 80-year-old John Miller, president of the Detroit confectionery chain of Ferd Sanders.

Miller, head of the candy and baking firm since 1930, died in his Detroit home yesterday.

Funeral and burial service will be private.

Truck Rules Lifted

LANSING (AP)—The State Highway Department today modified truck weight restrictions, effective at noon, to permit normal loads on concrete-based state trunklines south of and including a line from Mt. Clemens via M 59 to Howell, U.S. 16 to Grand Rapids and M 21 to Holland.

Fire Hose of Dacron Being Manufactured

NEW YORK (AP)—Hose made with dacron is coming to the aid of firemen.

Fire hose utilizing the synthetic fiber has the dual advantage of being tough and light in weight.

Another feature of the flexible new hose is that it resists mildew and mold. This is important because hose in industrial plants, hotels and other buildings often may be folded for years, before called into action to meet an emergency.

In the hose, the dacron forms a reinforcing material for the cotton wrap.

A lighter hose, such as that provided by the fibre, is a boon to firemen who have to heft it on and off the trucks.

Chief's Gun Can't Claim Single Human Victim

IDA GROVE, Iowa (AP)—Some day when M. A. Jensen, 63, retires as chief of police of Ida Grove, he hopes to be able to say he never had to fire a shot in carrying out his police duties.

Jensen has found it unnecessary to use his gun on anybody during his 17 years on the town's two-man police force.

"Oh, I've had to shoot a mad dog or two," he explains, "but I never did use the gun on a human."

Virginia's Poll Tax

Lawmakers of the Old Dominion are face to face with the problem of what to do about a perennial issue — proposed repeal of its poll tax.

The State is one of five still maintaining this restriction on voting. The others are Texas, Mississippi, Arkansas and Alabama. The tax has been abandoned by Louisiana, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

Now before the Legislature is the question of whether to uphold a committee report rejecting repeal. As written into the State constitution the $1.50 annual tax could be repealed only with the approval of two successive legislatures and a referendum of poll tax paying voters.

The issue got as far as a referendum back in 1949. But the proposal was tied up with such narrow new restrictions on the franchise that anti-poll taxers themselves helped to defeat it.

In Washington the House voted several times in recent years for a Federal ban on the poll tax voting requirement. Each time the proposed ban died in the Senate by filibuster or threat of it.

The tax may survive a few years more. But for a long time the trend has been away from it in the enlightened South. This makes it reasonable to believe that sooner or later not only Virginia but all four other States will abandon this undemocratic voting requirement.

U. N.'s War on Disease

A report by its Children's Fund for 1953 reveals that last year the United Nations made historic progress in its war on disease.

Most notable accomplishment of the year was that which enabled U. N. to report malaria on the way out in Asia. Altogether more than 16,000,000 persons were given protection against this mosquito-borne, debilitating disease.

Worth noting also is the fact that 35 per cent more persons were reached in Asia by the antimalaria campaign than project directors had hoped. During the same period another 9,000,000 children were vaccinated against tuberculosis and 1,500,000 were treated for yaws.

The cost of fighting disease in 18 countries consumed half the Asian allotment of the Children's Fund. Another 45 per cent was used to establish rural health centers and the rest to improve child nutrition.

★ ★ ★

Other work which helped to make the world a better place for humankind included child care programs in Austria, Greece, Italy, Portugal and Yugoslavia.

Mediterranean and Latin-American countries were aided in projects to increase milk supplies and improve maternal and child care. In 15 African countries campaigns were waged against childhood diseases.

This evidence that science is gaining in its war on human ills is heartening in these days of international tension.

Preview of Spring

Brief though it was, Pontiac's preview of Spring was glorious.

In fact the weather hereabouts for the past few days has been so salubrious that U. S. weather experts have figured it somewhere between that of Asheville, N. C. and Spartanburg, S. C.

Reducing it to figures the average official temperature in this area for the past eight days was 43.25 degrees. At Asheville it was 39.8 and at Spartanburg 44.8.

Speaking meteorologically, we Pontiac folk were living for a brief time somewhere near the spot where the Governor of North Carolina made that famous remark to the Governor of South Carolina. Tuesday evening's snowfall, of course, moved us right back into southeastern Michigan.

But who cares? Winter is two-thirds gone and in a little more than three weeks astronomical Spring is due. Once the calendar passes March 21, that shy and beautiful maid, Spring herself, can't be far behind.

"THE main cause of cancer of the lungs is the breathing of polluted city air," says a physician. It wouldn't be advisable for those who live in cities to stop breathing entirely, but it might be well for them to cut down on it.

A century old map of Oakland County that outlines every farm, with the owner's name printed upon it, will be a substantial addition to the local historical records. It was recently found by in remodeling an old home in Addison Township. It covers over 50 square feet, and the thousands of names spotted directly on the lands of all of the 25 townships show a painstaking job. This is true, not only in the preparation of the copy, but also in the printing work in the days when each little piece of type was set by hand.

Around its edges are pictures of many of the prominent buildings of 100 years ago, those in Pontiac including the old courthouse, Hodges hotel, old churches, Gazette office, flour mills, Paddack mills, Emmons, Putnam, McConnell and Bacon places of business, Morris block, and the homes of the Wisner, Loomis, Kelsey and Myteck families.

A letter from an old Pontiac resident,

"What Do You Think of Doctor Peress?"

Dr. Robert Baker and Dr. Robert Lyons Both Recall Cases of Rabies in Humans

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

In the Press on Feb. 22 a reader asked a question about human rabies. Yes, I have seen and attended a case of rabies in a young man. I never wish to see again such a tragic illness and death. A retelling of that experience would serve no good purpose now.

But let not the public be asleep to the terrible threat of this disease in human beings that exists with us always.

Only by vaccination of dogs and of the bitten person can we avoid the horrors of a death by rabies. With rabies on the increase in dogs do not be lulled by the unscientific opinion of a Dr. Brady.

Robert H. Baker, M.D.
1129 Fairfax
Birmingham

In reply to the letter signed "Daily Reader" I wish to state that I have seen a case of rabies in a nine year old child, proven by post mortem examination and viral study.

It is possible that in 200 years there will be doubters in the medical profession who will question the previous existence of smallpox because they do not see it. Their disbelief will make them ignorant rather than authoritative.

The Public Health Department of Pontiac and Lady Luck are responsible for the fact that you have never seen a case of rabies. That there could be human beings who become more emotionally disturbed over a sick dog than a dead child is almost beyond my comprehension.

Rabies vaccination of dogs can do the same for that disease as smallpox vaccination has done in preventing smallpox.

Stevens, M'Carthy Avoid for Time Being Splitting GOP Into Factional Groups

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — No matter who won the skirmish between Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) and the Eisenhower administration's secretary of the Army, Robert T. Stevens, the Republicans as a party were bound to lose if the fighting became a public, televised clash.

The Republicans had campaigned in 1952 on a promise to get Communists out of the government. And McCarthy was demanding information on why it took the Army, under Stevens, more than a year to get rid of a major who had refused to answer questions about membership in subversive organizations.

* * *

A wide-open fight between McCarthy and Stevens on this point, in an election year, might have split the party into McCarthy Republicans and Eisenhower Republicans. The showdown was avoided.

* * *

Stevens, who had ordered his generals to stand back while he handled the senator personally in a public hearing scheduled for today, agreed to give McCarthy what he wanted after talking with the senator two hours yesterday behind closed doors in the Capitol. McCarthy then called off today's hearing.

Afterwards, Stevens was represented as surprised that the outcome was considered a defeat for him. But the general impression was that he yielded and, in so doing, created a bit of a mystery.

Did he decide on his own to back down? He seemed determined up to a minute before he saw McCarthy yesterday, to go through with the showdown today, for when a reporter questioned him, he said: "I have no comment on anything. Tomorrow I'll have plenty of comment."

* * *

Or did President Eisenhower, who returned to Washington just shortly before the face-to-face Stevens-McCarthy meeting, tell his Army secretary not to force an open break with the senator? Or did Vice President Nixon arrange it? He was close by while Stevens talked with McCarthy.

* * *

The White House said the President did not set up the meeting. Sen. Mundt (R-SD) said the idea for the session was his—not Eisenhower's or Nixon's.

Stevens said later he is not a man who surrenders. No matter what name is placed on his action, the fact is he gave McCarthy just what McCarthy wanted:

McCarty wanted the names of the Army people who handled the case of Maj. Irving Peress, a New York dentist, who received an honorable discharge this month after refusing, 14 months before, to answer questions about membership in subversive organizations.

* * *

2. McCarthy wanted to question two generals who had had some part, even though remote, in handling Peress' case. Stevens had told the generals not to appear before McCarthy because, he said, the senator was "abusive."

* * *

Stevens, after his session with McCarthy, not only agreed to give the names of all those connected with the Peress case but let McCarthy call them for questioning. And he said McCarthy could question the generals too. Stevens said he's "confident" now officers will not be "abused."

Before it can be established whether this was a surrender or a truce, this question must be answered: Will McCarthy pursue this investigation and call the witnesses or will he let the Army make its own investigation and, perhaps, give the public a report?

* * *

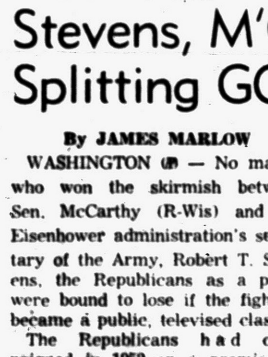

It's possible the Eisenhower administration, which has had several bouts with McCarthy in the past year, may have decided to have it out with him [illegible] in this case and then suddenly changed its mind for strategic reasons.

Several months ago, in discussing foreign affairs, Secretary of State Dulles said that, if war came, the Eisenhower administration would choose its own battleground. In this dispute with McCarthy the Army had no choice of battleground, McCarthy chose it.

These are the facts as given by the Pentagon itself: Peress was commissioned a captain in October 1952 and a few days later refused to answer the questions on subversive organizations. Nevertheless, two months later he was called to active duty. In October 1953 he was made a major. On Dec. 30, 1953, Stevens said, the Army decided to let him out because of an investigation it had made of him. On Jan. 18, 1954, the Army told him he must leave by April. On Jan. 30 McCarthy called him for questioning. The dentist refused, citing the Fifth Amendment, to answer questions. Two days later he asked for and got an honorable discharge.

McCarthy wants to know why it took the Army so long to make up its mind about Peress. Stevens already has acknowledged there were soft spots in the Army's handling of a case like this.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Fears, Cravings Cannot 'Mark' an Unborn Baby

Charlotte is worried because of an old superstition that still is rather common in America. She fears she will "mark" her unborn baby. So pass this Case Record along to all young wives, for it will help relieve their minds.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case K-334: Charlotte H., aged 24, is married and expecting a baby.

"But I am nervous and afraid," she said. For my mother-in-law recently came to visit us from Kentucky.

"And when we were bringing her home from the bus station, our car got hit by a truck.

"It wasn't a serious accident, but my mother-in-law says I'll probably 'mark' my baby because of the fright I suffered.

"She says anything like that accident or even an unsatisfied food hunger of the mother, may cause her baby to have a bad birthmark of some sort.

"Is that true, Dr. Crane? I now worry all the time about it."

No, that is not true. So you expectant mothers can free yourself at once of that widespread superstition.

Your unborn baby is connected to the wall of your womb by the umbilical cord. It is several feet long. It contains blood vessels but no nerves.

So your ideas and fears cannot be carried from your mind across to the developing brain of your baby.

The only way you can disturb the baby before births is like that in which you can harm him after birth while he is nursing at your breast, namely, by your diet.

If you smoke cigarettes while pregnant, obviously the harmful poisons of the tobacco will percolate through your system and get into your baby's blood stream.

But that is likewise true after the baby is born and nursing at your breast.

If you swallow any other poison, it can also get into your baby's blood system and affect the infant's health as well as his proper development.

However, the baby's blood does not flow in its mother's veins nor does her blood flow into her baby.

Each has its own separate blood supply. The baby's heart also beats about twice as fast as the mother's.

But her blood flows so close to the baby's blood vessels that liquid food and oxygen will seep across into its blood system.

But her red corpuscles are too big to do so; hence her red and white blood corpuscles stay in her own veins and vice versa.

Certain immune bodies, however, which develop in her blood after she has had scarlet fever or other contagious diseases, may filter across into her baby's blood vessels.

For these anti-bodies are so tiny they can go through the walls of her blood vessels, though her red corpuscles cannot.

These immune bodies may thus give her baby resistance to disease, at least for several months after birth.

But within the first 6 months it is wise to vaccinate a baby against whooping cough, smallpox and diptheria.

A mother's fears or great longing for out-of-season fruits, such as strawberries, watermelon, etc. cannot produce a mind-to-mind transference to her unborn baby, for no nerves connect mother and baby.

So she cannot "mark" it as with strawberry blotches on the skin. True enough, some babies are born with birthmarks.

But they are due to simple defects in human manufacturing much as an occasional auto will come off the assembly line with a defect.

If you expectant mothers eat a varied menu and avoid poisons like tobacco, your child will receive the best start you can give it.

Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 3 cent stamped, addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

Hear that White and Hiss and the bureaubrats held up aid to our side of China for four scheming years. Now they tell us.

By the bureaubrats we mean those strange people who infiltrated the state department like well-dressed smog.

This oriental assistance was officially voted to Chek by Congress. And at no time did anybody brand it by the burning epithet of nepotism.

So once again we were bilked by economical Mongolian industry.

We know that the watch dog of the treasury is a mole under Fort Knox. We know that an order in the army can disappear like your blue chips in table stakes. We know that some admirals don't open directives until they have been two years at sea. But you would think there was somebody under the dome who used his own once in a semester.

After Congress voted the donated loot wasn't there a custodian to see the right guy tipped his hat to it?

If the cabbage and dressing had reached Nationalist China there might have been no Korea.

Think that over. The impact of the thought is like kissing a fast freight head-on.

It means the bureaubrats have added murder to their many accomplishments. This is a dreadful thought but true as Greenwich time.

Dr. Brady Wishes (Again) That Patients With Bad Hearts Would Take Vitamin B

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

From the prodigious quantity of propaganda material mailed to the newspapers from medical societies it seems increasingly evident that racketeers, who constitute one third of the entire medical population, are now nearly as avid for personal publicity as the professional politicians who live on it.

In my mind this explained the open letter published in an eastern paper by a trick heart specialist who was afraid my teachings about digitalis might encourage some poor souls to try going without their daily dose of digitalis, which, the man said, is all that keeps the heart going in some cases of heart trouble.

Bear in mind, please, that the man who published that letter in his home town paper is well [illegible] for your specialist.

And I am an obscure, bumbling one-horse, et cetra. On this basis it might be laughable to compare my view or opinion with that of such a doctor. Well, then, I'll give my view anyway.

That heart specialist's open letter, wickedly implying that some persons must have a daily dose of digitalis to remain alive, probably made many victims of "bad heart" phobia.

Such victims are too severely injured to respond to my feeble rescue efforts, but I'll keep on trying, in the hope of enabling others to escape the same fate.

I have said here many times that I believed the very best, in fact the only real heart tonic we have is an optimal ration of vitamin B complex.

I say now that if you are in the habit of taking digitalis daily you had better take it in or with B complex and in the course of a [illegible] discontinue the digitalis altogether.

Then continue the B complex for many months or a year or more, as I explain in detail in Little Lesson No. 2, the booklet C V D (about heart and artery troubles) for which send 25 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Please understand clearly that vitamin B complex is not medicine at all. It is just food which you should get in your everyday diet but probably don't because your diet is too refined.

The heart specialist's notion that digitalis keeps the heart beating is as absurd as the statement I quoted here recently from a modern authoritative textbook, to wit:

"Therapeutically, it" (digitalis) "enables the damaged heart to do more work with the same expenditure of energy."

Maybe my education was neglected—I had only a year of physics in high school.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Stalling Charged on Bricker Bill

Democrats Hampering Eisenhower's Program, Knowland Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) angrily accused Democrats of using "slowdown" tactics against President Eisenhower's program after they forced an abrupt Senate adjournment last night, 48-45.

Knowland, the GOP floor leader, told reporters, "It is apparent to me that there has been a filibuster going on to prevent action on this constitutional amendment." He referred to the proposal, offered originally by Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) and since modified in major respects, to limit treaty powers. The Senate has been debating it most of the time since Jan. 20.

Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas quickly wanted to know if Knowland believes "the Bricker amendment is a part of the Eisenhower program."

* * *

"If so," Johnson asked newsmen, "where does he get his information?"

The White House has fought the Bricker proposal strenuously.

Knowland charged the Democrats with wanting to take over control of the Senate, and he told newsmen:

"Unless we can proceed here with the public's business, the Eisenhower program is going to be jeopardized. If the responsibility is going to be shifted to the Democrats and we can't get a program through, then the public should know where the responsibility lies in the future."

* * *

Johnson replied that the Democrats were not seeking to take over when they forced the Senate to halt debate on the Bricker amendment over Knowland's objections.

He also declared that "if there is a slowdown, it's a Republican slowdown." He said an analysis of the Congressional Record shows Senate Democrats have done 37 per cent of the talking since the 1954 session began.

The Democratic leader also took a personal crack at his opposite number, saying, "It ill behooves anyone who has occupied the floor as much as Knowland (on the Bricker amendment to talk about anyone stalling."

Johnson said the Democrats were ready for a quick showdown on the treaty power question. Asked if they would oppose a night session tonight, he said he wanted to see what was accomplished during the afternoon.

Alert Operator Leads Police to Two Burglars

SANFORD, N. C. (AP) — A telephone off the hook led to the arrest of two men in a burglary at the Lee County High School. Miss Frances Fore, a telephone operator, saw a signal and plugged in. Nothing happened, so she listened. She heard someone say:

"There's nothing in this drawer. Let's open the other one."

It was 5 a. m. She called police who arrested the two men at the school.

Italy's Mr. XY Finds Identity After 9 Years

MODENA, Italy (AP)—In 1945 police found a forlorn elderly man sitting on a park bench. He didn't know who he was or where he came from.

In a hospital for nine years he was known as Signor X Y.

Now a man named X Y was enough of an oddity to be news when his designation turned up on the census rolls, so his picture was circulated in the Associated Press newsphoto service to Italian newspapers.

Yesterday 29-year-old Mario Mercuri dashed into the hospital waving a Rome newspaper with the picture and shouted:

"He's my uncle. His name is Giuseppe Rizzi. Where is he?"

Signor X Y was brought out and his dull eyes lit up suddenly. He rushed into his nephew's arms. A doctor said the shock of the meeting started him back on the road to remembering.

Mercuri said the German army in 1944 put his uncle to work and a tree fell on him. He was sent to a hospital and vanished—until he turned up recently as Signor X Y.

Fire Truck Flips, Four Men Injured

MUSKEGON (AP)—Three Muskegon firemen and a truck driver were injured when a pickup truck ran into the back of a fire truck hurrying to the scene of a small brush fire Wednesday. Two of the men were injured seriously.

The fire engine was overturned by the impact.

Seriously injured were Leroy Link of Muskegon, the truck driver, and Leo F. Czekuc, a 32-year-old fireman. Both suffered head injuries and shock.

Carl D. Sampson, 55, and Oakey Haken, 40, the other two firemen, were less seriously hurt.

All four were taken to Hackley Hospital.

Tests May Soon Include Men in Supersonic Sled

HOLLOMAN AIR DEVELOPMENT CENTER, N. M. (AP)—An Air Force volunteer soon may ride a rocket sled faster than the speed of sound, with danger only an "outside chance."

Air Research and Development Command scientists are painstakingly testing and retesting new equipment, using dummies instead of humans to make it safe for man to break the sound barrier on the ground.

Faster than any groundling ever has traveled will be the 750 miles an hour—plus—some volunteer will speed.

* * *

"The scientists are doing as much research as humanly possible," said the public information officer, Maj. Orley B. Caudill. "Any danger the volunteers may face would be an outside chance."

The project, under the direction of Lt. Col. John P. Stapp, aero medical scientist, is a stab at developing equipment to enable air crews to survive bailouts from planes traveling faster than sound.

Air Force volunteers will be strapped in a chair in the rocket sled. As the sled travels along the 3,500-foot track, the man will be rotated head over heels 180 times per minute—exposed to the same air-blast forces a pilot ejected suddenly from a supersonic plane would experience.

The rocket sled, propelled by 12 4,500 - pound - thrust rockets, will have five seconds to reach the speed of sound and come to a complete halt.

In the relatively dense air encountered 4,092 feet above sea level (the elevation here), the results, the Air Force said, "actually simulate a bailout from an open seat at 40,000 feet at a speed of 1,800 miles per hour."

* * *

Scientists say they believe a human with no protective equipment has very little chance of surviving such a bailout. The conditions encountered will be reproduced accurately in new equipment made by Northrop Aircraft, Inc., Hawthorne, Calif.

Scientists must determine thresholds of reasoning, consciousness and memory of the crew members of a plane who someday may have to make such a bailout.

Two sleds—a test vehicle and a propulsion vehicle—make up part of the groundling's equipment. The vehicle is designed to withstand forces up to 100 Gs—one "G" being the normal pull of gravity.

Methodist Men to Meet

The Men's Club of the Oakland Park Methodist Church will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight at 7:30. The meeting will be held in the basement of the church. Men of the community are invited.

Honest Forger Enjoys Work

Girl Who Works Near Prison Copies Names for Pen Company

FORT MADISON, Ia. (UP) — Maxine Shagsta is a "forger" without fear of the law although she works in the shadow of the Iowa penitentiary.

It is her job to reproduce signatures on the gold bands of pens and pencils and desk set plaques for a pen company (Sheaffer). She annually copies thousands of names on writing instruments so accurately that it takes a really trained eye to discern the difference between original and copy.

Maxine, who hails from Stockport, Ia., explained that copying signatures on a flat plate is relatively simple for an experienced engraver. But putting a signature on the curved surface of a gold band around a pen is not. It requires a steady hand, a good eye and lots of experience and training.

How did Maxine become an "honest forger?"

"My fiance was studying horology (watch repairing) at Bradley University in Peoria, Ill., under the GI bill, so I decided to enroll, too, to be able to discuss his work intelligently with him," she explained. "I also studied engraving there."

After finishing their courses, they were married and then moved to Ft. Madison where Maxine got her present job. She says her work seldom gets tedious despite the concentration required.

"No matter how many signatures you do, there's always something new and challenging about the next one," she explains.

During an average work day Maxine turns out about 25 signatures.

"Each signature on a band requires about 20 minutes, more or less, depending on the length of the name and the peculiarity of the handwriting," she said. "Some of the more difficult and time-consuming signatures are those of foreign princes and dignitaries. They seem to use more curlicues and flourishes than Americans do."

Road Hog Gets Punched by Irate Driver in Flint

FLINT, Mich. (UP)—Walter J. Hurley went to police yesterday to report, "I just punched a road hog."

Then he explained:

Another car forced him off the road. He pursued it to a stop signal. He got out, opened the other car's door and punched the driver.

He said he wanted to get the incident on record just in case the other driver made a complaint.

NEW LOOK FOR PLANES—Shown above is the XV-1 convertiplane developed by the McDonnell Aircraft Corp., in St. Louis. The plane was designed to combine take-off and landing distances and vertical climb of helicopers with the high forward speeds of conventional planes. Developed for the Army and Navy, it is expected to make its first flight within a few months following the completion of ground and wind tunnel tests.

3 Airmen Die in Crash of Indian Airlines DC3

NEW DELHI, India (UP)—An Indian Airlines Douglas DC3 crashed today during tests to determine the cause of a previous crash. The crew of three, all Indians, were killed.

The co-pilot, I. R. Malhotra, was the brother of the Indian government's inspector of accidents, Y.R. Malhotra, who was directing the tests. He is also investigating a crash at Nagpur in December, in which 14 people were killed.

Donate 1,842 Pints

AUBURN, Ala. (UP)—Students at Alabama Polytechnic Institute donated 1,842 pints of blood in two days, described here as a national college record.

Estimated coal reserves of Canada total 55 carloads for every person in the country.

Simple Idea Pays Off

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (UP)—The simplest suggestion often brings big dividends. Clarence W. Houghtaling, a 30-year-veteran of the Eastman Kodak Co., recommended that finished photographic paper samples be transported by pneumatic tube rather than by messenger. The new method insures speedy inspection and reporting. For the suggestion, Houghtaling received $1,500.

Jail Man in Death of His Third Wife

PORTLAND, Ore. (UP)—A white-haired, mild-appearing man, whose first two wives died violently in Chicago in the early 1920s, was accused late last night of killing his third wife here.

George F. Sack, who was committed to a mental hospital seven years after being accused of shooting his second wife to death, was charged here with asphyxiating Goldie Goodrich Sack, 56, last week.

For six days medical experts had sought to determine the cause of death of the woman, whose body was found in a vacant lot across town from the apartment house which Sack owned and where the couple lived.

The medical experts reported just before midnight that the cause was "asphyxiation in a manner as yet unknown." Police at once took out a warrant charging Sack with first-degree murder.

He had been free on $10,000 bond, after being booked as a material witness because a resident of the area near the vacant lot reported he had seen Sack's automobile parked beside the lot the night Mrs. Sack disappeared.

Except for the west coast, the United States stands on stable land, seldom affected by earthquakes.

Beef and Eggs Are Good Buys

Poultry Also at Top of List Now; 1st Valencia Oranges Arrive

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Beef, eggs and poultry top the list of best buys in many of the nation's food stores this week.

Chicken prices are down all over the country and there's a chance they may go lower still. The poultry and egg national board says a record number of broiler-fryers will come to market this week—some 2½ to 3 million more than in the same week last year—and the small, plump chickens should be in abundant supply for several weeks to come.

Some stores are featuring popular cuts of beef—top sirloin, rib roast, bottom round and chuck. Prices are off a few cents a pound in some cities, up a shade in others, but still well below the level of a year ago.

Top grade large white eggs are down as much as 5 cents a dozen in some cities.

Potatoes, onions, cabbages, pascal celery and iceberg lettuce are among the best produce buys, with bunched carrots, escarole, endive, sweet potatoes, turnips and topped beets a close second.

The season's first Valencia oranges from Florida arrived at big city markets this week.

Coffee prices moved higher again at the wholesale level this week, and still no end in sight.

Prisoner Goes From Poverty to Wealth in Jiffy

PHOENIK, Ariz. (AP) — Jimmy Seeds, an Indian, was bumming "drags" off cigarettes from fellow inmates in the city jail. He had been locked up on a drunk charge.

The desk sergeant, delivering what little mail there was, gave Seeds a letter addressed to him.

Out fell a check from the government for $4,016. It was for oil lease royalties from a company that has been drilling on his reservation in Montana.

He bailed himself out in a jiffy but not before he purchased some tobacco for his erstwhile tank partners.

Gallant Blackguard

CINCINNATI (AP)—Thomas Kane, 52, told police a man held him up at knife point last night and took $26.23. Then the bandit handed him 25 cents and told him to take a bus home.

FOR BETTER FITTING—An inventor in Paris has created this "magnetic silhouettor" so manufacturers can make clothes that fit like one's shadow. The customer steps into the fitting device, and in a short time, the tailor has the measurements that permit him to make garments without extra try-ons or alterations.

Defiant Bull Livens Kids' Lunch Hour

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — In the best Western tradition, a runaway bull stood his ground, snorting at officers and schoolchildren as police fired 14 rounds of ammunition into its body with revolvers, shotguns and rifles.

The bull broke through a wire fence at the Cornett Packing Co. during the noon hour and about 50 youngsters deserted their school ground to watch the big show.

Pistol shots only got the animal more angry as he tried to get away. Finally, one officer roped him and while he was held a shotgun blast through the brain finished him off.

GOP Follows Truman's Farm Plan, Benson Says

NEW YORK (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson says the Republican farm program "is largely what the 80th and 81st Congresses enacted into law in 1948 and 1949."

At a dinner in his honor last night, given by food industries and farm organizations, he said:

"What we recommend as regards variable price supports is what the Department of Agriculture itself proposed in 1947.

"It is what the former occupant of the White House (Harry S. Truman) strongly urged in the spring of 1948."

Gets Best Grade on Civil Service Test; Rejects Job

CHICAGO (AP)—Oswald K. Sagen, 47, made a rare perfect grade of 100 in a civil service test for a $10,390-a-year job, but he says he probably will reject the job.

Commission officials said they believed it was the first perfect grade ever made in a test for a city job.

Sagen was one of 10 applicants who took the test for the post of chief statistician in the City Health Department. He explained he was happy in his present position, chief of the Bureau of Statistics for the Illinois Health Department in Springfield, which pays $9,420 a year. He said he took the test in event an unexpected development made his present position less desirable.

Indian General Saluted by Far East Command

TOKYO (AP)—Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya of India, chairman of the recently dissolved Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission, was given an honor salute today by the Far East Command.

As the reviewing party stepped out at the headquarters parade ground, Thimayya was flanked by Gen. John E. Hull, U. N. Far East commander; Gen. Otto Weyland; and Rear Adm. Chester C. Smith.

Speed of passenger trains in the U. S. the first seven months of 1953 was 2 per cent higher than in 1952.

Approval of Vietnam Government Seen as Only Hope for Victory in Indochina

By OLEN CLEMENTS and MAX CLOS

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—Every night church bells beckon the faithful in misty old Hanoi. Heavy guns rumble on the city's outskirts. The devout go to worship. The others — French, German, Arab, Moroccan and Vietnamese soldiers and civilians—flock to the cafes, the tea houses, the taxi dancehalls.

The Indochina war is in its eighth year and the people in Hanoi are used to it. This city is a center of the French Union forces, including French colonial soldiers, the heavily German Foreign Legion and Vietnamese troops that can call this land their own. They are at war with forces which are led by a Communist but backed by many non-Communists. These forces are known as the Vietminh. Some civilians say there are so many Vietminh sympathizers in Hanoi that Moscow-trained Ho Chi Minh would never attack the city —he would endanger too many of his friends.

The civil population is more or less indifferent.

The indifference to the war has created a grotesque riddle for all of Southeast Asia—Indochina, Malaya, Burma, Thailand and Indonesia. The indifference and weariness of the war extend to many places in Viet Nam, and the associated kingdoms of Laos and Cambodia.

Many now believe a military victory by either side is an impossibility unless far more troops and supplies are poured into the fight. They hope the Big Five conference in Geneva in April and the conference of prime ministers in Southern Asia in Ceylon in May will help to solve the riddle.

Gen. Henri Navarre, commander in chief of French Union forces, says:

"We have here a politico-military war. It is only when the Vietnamese government will have won the approval of the population that a victory will be possible."

Since 1949 chief of state Bao Dai has been trying to set up a national front without success. Probably almost half of the 12 million Vietnamese living in the zone controlled by Bao Dai's government are directly aiding the Vietminh or indirectly supporting them out of sympathy for Ho Chi Minh. But only a fraction of the population is really Communist. Most are just anti-French. Many are anti-Communist.

The nationalists, who for five years have been refusing to support Bao Dai effectively, give two reasons:

1. Bao Dai has not obtained independence for Viet Nam. The ex-Emperor signed a 1949 treaty with France which gave his country semi-independence within the framework of the French Union, but France retained actual political control.

2. The nationalists are critical of the system of personal power established by Bao Dai and of the corruption of his regime. The 40-year-old ex-Emperor holds all the executive and legislative powers.

The new gvoernment formed in January by Prince Buu Loc persuaded Bao Dai to announce a program seeking to give satisfaction to the nationalists' aspirations. Buu Loc has promised general elections for a national assembly "within as short a time as possible." He also has demanded total independence from France to be guaranteed by the United Nations and has denounced the 1949 treaty. The new Premier and members of his Cabinet are to go to France at the end of this month to negotiate a "treaty of association to establish a union between two partners equal in rights and duties."

If Buu Loc is too adamant in the Paris conference, the French may demand an immediate end of the war. Foreseeing such apossibility, Buu Loc has given assurance that Viet Nam will not nationalize any French properties and will give France important economic privileges.

Vietnamese leaders believe that within two or three years it will be possible to create a united nationalist front capable of effectively opposing the Vietminh. They question whether any peace or armistice ought to be accepted earlier.

GOP Official Quits to Return to Michigan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Stanley R. Pratt, president of radio station WSOO in Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. has resigned as assistant to Leonard Hall, Republican National Committee chairman, to return to his business.

Committee officials said yesterday that Pratt had given them notice earlier that he wanted to go back to Michigan. He is also owner of the Northern Network, a regional radio chain in northern Michigan.

Pratt will leave his job March 1. He has headed the committee's patonage staff since the Eisenhower administration took over.

Active in several Michigan Republican campaigns, Pratt had been with the national committee since a short time after the national convention in 1952. He is a native of Los Angeles and a Stanford graduate.

HOLDS QUIZ—Rep. Walter Judd, of Minnesota, chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee, is currently holding sessions concerning the critical situation in French Indo-China. According to reports, Representative Judd says the Reds have no chance of ultimate victory in Indo-China.

Says Williams Distorting Facts

GOP Chairman Insists Ideas on Jobless Pay Not Due to Governor

LANSING (AP) — David W. Kendall, Republican national committeeman, accused Gov. Williams today of misrepresentation and distortion in attacks on Republican unemployment compensation ideas.

Charging the governor with trying to make idle benefits a political issue, Kendall said Williams "has made the fantastic claim that Pres. Eisenhower adopted his program."

"Nothing could be further from the truth," Kendall said. "Pres. Eisenhower has said that weekly benefits should be raised 'so that the payments to the great majority of beneficiaries may equal at least half their regular earnings'.

"This idea of basing unemployment compensation on 50 per cent of earnings was first proposed in Michigan by former state Sen. Elwood Bonine of Vandalia, several years ago, and it was expanded upon by Sen. Edward Hutchinson of Fennville, last summer. Both are Republicans.

"The governor knows that and yet he deliberately misrepresents and distorts in an effort to grab glory and credit. He is trying to climb, as he has in the past, on other men's ideas."

Kendall said "the governor makes much of a letter sent him by Secretary of Labor Mitchell which he said 'endorsed my views'.

"It did no such thing — it was a routine letter sent to every governor in the United States outlining the President's views. The sheer magnitude of the governor's distortion is distressing.

"Honest men with honest motives believing firmly in the President's point of view will write a good unemployment compensation law for Michigan labor. We cannot and will not make men's bread and butter a political issue."

County Supervisors to Reconsider Special Census

VOTING PRECINCTS—With the primary election slated for Monday, a Pontiac voting precinct map is shown to aid voters going to the polls. Since the last election, boundary changes have been made in precincts 1, 2, 4, 5, 8, 15, 16, 19, 30, 31, 32, and 35, increasing the number of precincts from 35 to 44. Voters affected by the change have been notified by card. On the map, precinct numbers are shown in small black numbers 1 to 44, not to be confused with large numbers 1 to 7, which are city election districts. Precinct numbers and voting booth locations are:

Chairman Calls March 8 Meet

Some Townships Fear Loss of Tax Money to Faster Growing Areas

Chairman Floyd Andrews will call Oakland County Board of Supervisors together March 8 to reconsider its action calling for a special county census.

The meeting, asked for by some 40 supervisors, will start at 9:30 a. m. in the County Office Building, 1 Lafayette St.

The move to halt the special census came when supervisors from some cities and towns, which haven't grown as fast as others, realized their communities will lose thousands of dollars a year if state tax rebates to the county are split according to new population figures.

Michigan returns some $3,000,000 in sales, gas and weight, intangibles and other tax money to this county annually.

The board, at its last regular meeting Jan. 18, approved a special census without a single "no" vote. Harold K. Schone, Oak Park supervisor, asked for the census, pointing out that his community's population was almost three times what it was in 1950.

Communities who knew their slower growth would leave them on the losing end — and that includes Pontiac — then moved to stall the census. Petitions asking the board meet again to reconsider its action were circulated by Pontiac Supervisor R. C. Cummings of Pontiac, Orph C. Holmes of Ferndale, and others.

Schone said today that Clawson, Hazel Park, Huntington Woods, Oak Park, Royal Oak, and Bloomfield and Southfield township officials got together and agreed to pay the whole cost of $62,350.

He added that a $17,000 deposit will be needed to bring census takers into the county.

Schone said Oak Park has appropriated $6,883.30; Southfield $3,342.20; Clawson, $960.50; Royal Oak, $2,534.70 and Hazel Park, $518.50 towards the deposit. Bloomfield Township and Huntington Woods had not acted on the matter yesterday, he said.

Cartoonist in Hospital Clowns but for Profit

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Most patients enter a hospital surgery room with anxiety, even with fear.

Not so, Wallace R. Stark. He wore a grin, clowned with the nurses and prepared for post-surgery cartoon drawing — for profit.

An artist, he drew nearly 200 cartoons, all depicting in light vein the daily routine in a hospital.

The sketches were so well liked that they were published in book form under the title, "Don't Bust Your Stitches."

Pretty Traffic Hazards Confirmed by Police

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP)—What traffic officers have suspected as a cause of automobile accidents was confirmed here by a 14-year-old boy. The youth, unidentified, took his mother's car without her permission, then smashed the auto into a parked car, police said.

The boy's reason for the crackup —he took his eyes off the road "to look at two good looking girls."

HER BOARDERS WON'T BE LATE—Mrs. Minnie Boers, a white-haired little woman with a knack for home cooking, prepares a meal in the jail in Kalamazoo. She has a weekly average of 50 "boarders" to whom she serves three meals a day. And, she does it on a budget of 33 cents per day per man.

Kalamazoo Jail 'Boarders' Fed on 33 Cents Per Day

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Mrs. Minnie Boers has found a way to feed her 50 "boarders" quite well on a budget averaging about 33 cents each day per man.

Part of her success lies in the kitchen which is decorated in porcelain, stainless steel—and bullet-proof glass.

She's the cook at Kalamazoo County Jail.

Mrs. Boers says she just fills up the "boys" with one simple but hefty serving a day and takes it easy on the morning and evening meals.

Sunday's breakfast of oatmeal, bread, butter and coffee is nearly typical of weekly breakfasts. But the noon meal consists of mashed potatoes, beef or pork, a vegetable and bread.

Sunday evening brings four slices of bread and a pint of milk.

The noon meals during the week vary.

Monday brings soup, bread, meat and a vegetable. Tuesday features macaroni and cheese. Wednesday finds soup and boiled ham. Thursday dinners have goulash, potatoes and corn. Friday's dish is sauerkraut and frankfurters, potatoes and bread. Saturday, "boarders" get chili, bread and potatoes.

Evening meals vary from tea, fruit and bread to sandwiches and tea.

Mrs. Boers is assisted at the serving table by Mrs. Otto Bruder, wife of the sheriff and matron of the jail. But the table is separated from the dining room by a wall and two tiny, bullet-proof windows through which the food is passed.

Jail trusties help the women with serving and a close count is kept on the utensils that are used. Every spoon and bowl that goes in to the prisoners must come out after the meal is finished.

Coffee is a scarce item. It is ladled out sparingly and isn't available for leisurely "second cups."

There's no record that any prisoner has prolonged his stay just to feast on Mrs. Boers' cooking, but Sheriff Bruder reports that many one-time "guests" thank her for the meals.

"I never stopped to think about it," he says, "but maybe Mrs. Boers' cooking is the reason some of our boys come back for another visit."

Bride of Former Pontiac Worker Is Mother at 13

FRANKLIN, N. C. (AP)—A young mountain girl, a bride at 13, was a mother today—less than a week before her 14th birthday.

"I'm happy about it all," said tiny Mrs. Judy Ann Buckner. The young mother, who weighs only about 60 pounds, gave birth to a five-pound daughter, Barbara Ann.

The mother, the former Judy Ann Russell, lives in the Buck Creek section, a remote mountain community near Highlands, N. C.

She was married last March 12 to Kenneth Buckner, 27-year-old navy veteran who worked until recently as a laborer in a Pontiac, (Mich.) automobile plant.

The two were married in Walhalla, S. C., only nine days after Judy's 13th birthday. She'll be 14 next Wednesday.

Jebb Leaves Post as Delegate to U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (INS)—Britain's Gladwyn Jebb bowed out of his U.N. post today with a warning that free world security lies anchored in Anglo-American unity against communism.

Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. seconded him in declaring that "only the Communists are helped by dramatizing differences of opinion" between the U.S. and Britain.

Jebb, who took formal leave of the Security Council with a few brief words, is sailing for London March 5 to assume his new post as British ambassador to France after nearly four years at the U.N. His successor is veteran British diplomat Sir Pierson Dixon, for many years a close associate of Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill.

CHIMP IN THE CHIPS—Peggy, the smiling chimpanzee, reminds you that it isn't smart to "monkey around" until the March 15 deadline to do your 1953 income tax return. Equipped with official forms, instruction sheet, adding machine and headache remedy, the movie star's performer is ready to make hers out. Peggy's screen rolls as "Bonzo" and "Tamba" have put her in the upper income bracket among animal players so she has plenty of figuring to do.

A Business . . . or a Public Service

Seven Dems, 1 Republican Vote Against House Proposal to Boost Postal Rates

WASHINGTON (AP)—Seven Democrats and one Republican dissented today from a House committee's formal endorsement of a 240 million dollar postal rate boost, calling it an "unconscionable burden . . contrary to the public interest."

The minority report from the 25-member Post Office Committee denounced the Eisenhower administration's bill for higher mail rates as an added "tax" and a "radical departure from the concept of public service which is the keystone of our postal establishment."

* * *

The committee majority, on the other hand, urged adoption of the rate bill and said there is need of additional revenues to offset the chronic deficits in post office operations.

* * *

The majority contended that although the cost of mailing out-of-town letters would go up from 3 to 4 cents, mail users would still be getting a bargain at the higher figure.

They also defended the proposal to raise air mail from 6 to 7 cents, declaring it is justified because of preferential and speedy handling given this class of mail.

* * *

The committee majority said that unlike business, the post office still is not charging all it could.

* * *

The bill, likely to touch off a bitter fight when it comes before the House soon, would hike first class and air mail revenues by about 174 million dollars a year, publishers' second class mail by 15 million a year, third class mail by 50 million a year, transient second class and controlled circulation publications by $965,000.

The minority report was signed by Rep. Gross of Iowa, Republican; and Reps. Moss (Calif), James C. Davis (Ga), Rhodes (Pa) Jarman (Okla), Dowdy (Tex), Alexander (NC) and Tuck (Va), all Democrats.

They took particular exception to the proposal to increase first class mail when it is already paying its own way, and declared:

"This is an unconscionable burden, in the nature of a tax, which should not be approved."

* * *

The minority also declared that Congress must decide whether the post office is to be a business or a public service.

* * *

"Each time that Congress has established a new rate for mail which is not to pay its full cost, it has clearly shown that the reason is public service," the minority report said, and continued:

"To the extent that the postal establishment is a public service its costs should be charged to the public treasury, not to any particular class of mail just to satisfy an administrative desire to present financial results in a more favorable light."

Of the first class increase recommended by the majority, the minority said:

"By increasing first class non-local rates to 4 cents, this legislation will set us back more than a century. Not since 1851 have we had a general rate on regular first class letters in excess of 3 cents.

Spring Fashions Headline New Wool Fabrics

No longer does spring mean that your wools must be put away for a season. Fashion has turned wool into the trans-season costume. For spring 1954, wool emerges lighter and airier than ever, thanks to new weaves and new design innovations.

The fashion significance of wools for spring is highlighted by the number of wool fashions shown.

Wool leads with lighter-than-ever weaves, subtle textures woven in, beautiful color mixtures, and important blends that give exciting new surfaces to wool.

The important silhouettes this year make wool a natural—the close-to-the-body lines of the empire and princess silhouettes, the new released skirt fulness, the new emphasis on shaped curves and on straightness, which is the epitome of simplicity. All are best achieved in wool because of its wonderful draping qualities and the many faces it can assume.

Tweeds will also play an important part in the spring picture.

Rev. Auchard Talks to WCTU

The Rev. Edward Auchard was guest speaker when members of the Pontiac WCTU met Tuesday for a cooperative luncheon at the home of Mrs. William Kreklow of O'Riley street.

Using the theme "Parables of American Life," the speaker stated that there are two sides of American life, the good and the bad.

We share our good Christian culture with the world but we also share our liquor, tobacco and bad movies, he said "It is a challenge to the church and the WCTU to educate man so he can tell the good from evil." Mr. Auchard concluded.

Mrs. Auchard gave the opening prayer and Mrs. Floyd Locke presented some facts on the life of Francis Willard. The next meeting is scheduled for March 31 in the Cottage street home of Mrs. William Bluth.

Mrs. D. R. Wilson (left) of Oneida road received an orchid from Mrs. Oscar H. Lundbeck of Chippewa road Wednesday evening at a program in her honor. The affair was held at First Congregational Church.

Church Pays Tribute

Mrs. D. R. Wilson Feted

Approximately 200 friends gathered at First Congregational Church Wednesday evening to pay tribute to Mrs. D. R. Wilson in recognition of her long service to the church and community.

The Rev. Malcolm Burton told of her years of service to the church and described Mrs. Wilson as "unselfish. and .unstinting" in her efforts.

Glenn H. Griffin, a member of the board of trustees, pointed out that Mrs. Wilson not only has been faithful to her church, but she also has been a loyal and devoted friend to the community.

Also paying tribute to Mrs. Wilson were Mrs. Dan Kinney, past president of the Women's Fellowship which sponsored the program, and Mrs. Oscar Lundbeck who served as general chairman.

Mrs. Lundbeck, who is president of the fellowship, presented Mrs. Wilson with an orchid corsage. Mrs. Wilson's granddaughter, Mrs. William Ramage, also was presented with a rose corsage by Mrs. Lundbeck.

Charles Wilson accompanied vocalist Mrs. Carl Leonard Jr. in two selections and also played a number written in honor of Mrs. Wilson and her late husband.

Cochairmen of the kitchen committee were Mrs. Earl Treadwell and Mrs. William Knudsen, with Mrs. Ross Tenny heading the dining room committee. The Colonial Group was in charge of the dinner.

Mrs. Fred Voelker and Mrs. P. J. Vieriech arranged the decorations, which were done in green and white. Mrs. Dora Dawson and Mrs. Ray S. Falk received the guests.

Special guests included Mr. and Mrs. Glenn C. Fries, Lucette Baker and Vida Scarlotti.

Three Initiated by White Shrine on Wednesday

Mrs. Joseph Hudson, Mrs. Frederick Furr and Gertrude Nethercott were initiated into the order when Pontiac White Shrine held a ceremonial Wednesday evening in Roosevelt Temple on State avenue.

Guests included Mrs. Arthur Reek, worthy high priestess of Flint Shrine 66; Mrs. Lawrence Larson, noble prophetess of Flint, and Mrs. Davy Gilpin, supreme deputy of District 6.

Guest officers Robert Inskip, Gustave Trabert and Howard Beatty, all of Ann Arbor White Shrine 54, exemplified the work of the three wise men.

Pontiac past worthy high priests and past watchmen of the shepherds were escorted to the east and introduced. Mrs. Floyd Nelsey, past worthy high priestess, was vocalist for the evening.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Chris Jorgenson, a cooperative dinner was served.

It was announced that Mrs. Lloyd Walt, worthy high priestess, and Mrs. Gilpin will be guests at the 34th anniversary celebration of White Shrine to be held Friday in Sarnia, Ontario.

The Pontiac White Shrine drill team will sponsor a card party and style show to be held March 31.

Husband's Belittling of Wife's Hobbies Reveals His Fear of Retirement

She Should Encourage, Guide Him

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"My husband is always belittling my achievements, and making fun of my hobies," a woman writes me, "and I don't know what to do.

"The children are grown and I have a little time to myself, and I'd always planned to take up painting and piano.

"Well, I no sooner began than my husband started to make fun of me. I keep the house just as well as ever and cook just as much. It's just the time left free by my children that I use.

"But he gives me no peace. After dinner, I still do the dishes, but then I like to practice the piano while he reads his business magazines. He never talks—hasn't for years—just buries his head in the business papers.

"But now, when I start at the piano, he complains that it brings on those headaches of his.

"And when I show him my paintings, he doubles up laughing. I know they aren't the best in the world, but I'm working hard at it and this whole business is about breaking my heart.

"Of course, he is so successful and loves his own job so much—but in three years he'll be retired and around the house all the time, and I'll never have a chance to do the things I've always wanted to do."

First of all, there is one thing this wife must bear in mind:

The man who works incessantly and brings work home, who has recurring headaches, and who belittles the accomplishments of others, is almost always the man who does not like his own work, no matter how much he may assure you that he does.

In fact, an important sign about anyone who really loves his own work is a great tolerance and appreciation for the work of others.

Second, instead of battling with her husband over what looks like his cruelty, his wife should face the fact that it is probably his own unhappiness which he is taking out on her.

Since he will be retiring before very long, she might try to get him to attend some of the courses on preparation for retirement.

These frequently include advice on hobbies, vocational tests to show some possible fields, and talks by people who have retired successfully and are engaged in interesting activities.

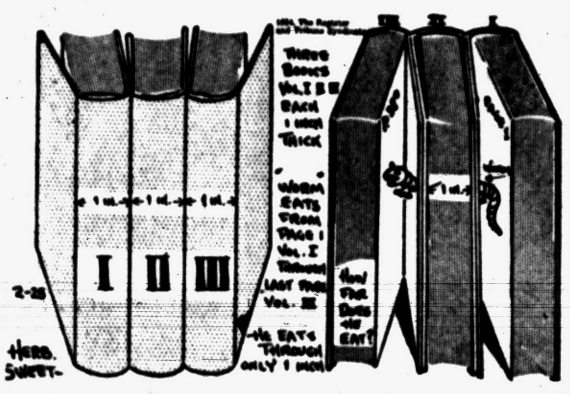

This husband may be worried about what he will do when retirement comes.

He may have depended too much on his job all these years, and used it as an escape. Now he may be secretly terrified of what retirement will bring.

If she can get him interested in planning now, he may find interests at which he could begin to work in the evenings.

Then, when his own pattern is happier, he will have more tolerance and appreciation for his wife's hobbies.

Try It

Solve Bookworm Puzzle

Here is another Try It for you to clip out and add to your collection of puzzles. You will be surprised how interesting your school friends will think you are when you have a supply of games, tricks and puzzles on hand.

Almost everyone likes to use his "thinking cap," so here is a very simple puzzle which can even be illustrated to show how to arrive at the answer.

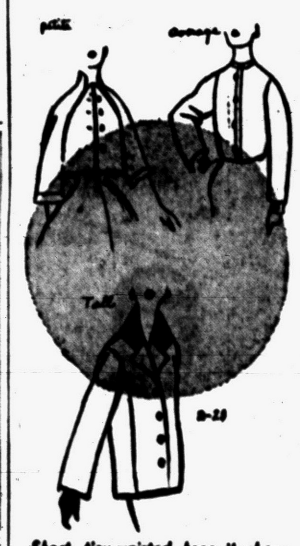

First, ask your friends the question, then after they give you several answers, illustrate how the correct answer comes about.

In the left side of the picture I have shown three books standing side by side. Without looking for any clues, see if you can tell how far in inches a little worm will eat if he starts at page one of book one and eats through to the last page of book three. Think about it for awhile.

Here is the solution. The three books are each 1-inch thick, as shown in the picture. They are numbered one, two and three going form left to right. Pull out book one, the first page is next to book two. Pull out book three. The last page is next to book two.

Therefore, the little worm only eats through book two which is one inch thick—so he eats 1 inch. Try it on Mother and Dad!

IF short cropped coat—

Short, tiny-waisted, keep it above waist; loose back waist length to flatter hip area and straight boxy for the tall and big gal.

Miss C. C.—There's a whole family of short coats, from above the waist to waist-length intended to combat the sweater invasion in wrap fashions, to cropped boxy ones. Let your height and size determine which flatters you.

Pair Owes First Duty to Hostess

Unexpected Guests Should Be Told of Prior Obligation

By EMILY POST

A situation often encountered is described in the following letter; "My husband and I were invited to spend last Saturday evening with some freinds. Just before we left home, other friends of ours, who live in the suburbs, came to pay us a visit.

"Not wanting to see them drive back immediately, I asked them if they would like to come with us to visit the Joneses whom they knew, but only slightly. After I assured them they would be welcome, they accepted and came along with us.

"Now I may be imagining it, but it seems to me that our hostess acted rather cool all evening and I am wondering if it could be because of our having brought these other friends along. Was I wrong, and if so, what should I have done under the circumstances?"

Answer: Unless you had every reason to believe that the Joneses would be glad to see the Browns, and furthermore that their presence would not be disrupting to the evening, you should have told your unexpected visitors of your engagement and hoped that they would come another evening.

In this situation, your first duty was to the hostess whose invitation you had accepted and not to your unexpected visitors.

Dear Mrs. Post: When a husband and wife invite guests to a public dining place where no previous arrangement has been made for dinner, what is the proper procedure for ordering?

I mean, should each person give his (or her) order direct to the waiter, or should the husband ask each guest's preference and order for everyone?

Answer: If it is a table d'hote restaurant, each one orders his (or her) own dinner. In an a la carte restaurant the host orders for everyone.

Dear Mrs. Post In this present day, it is proper for a man to carry a cane?

Answer: While very unusual in this present day, it is entirely correct for a man to carry a cane if he chooses to do so.

Parent's Having Babies Earlier

Parents in this country are getting younger, according to studies made by the national Office of Vital Statistics.

Since 1917, the beginning of World War I, the average of fathers of babies has dropped from 31 to 29 years and the age of the mothers from 27 to 26.

The youth of mothers and fathers is particularly striking in the case of first babies. Half the mothers in America are under 22 when their first baby is born and thirty percent of them are under 20.

The fathers of these babies, on the average, are a few years older than the mothers but the difference in age between husbands and wives is not so great today as it was a generation ago.

Americans spend about $1,700 million yearly for television sets.

Sand Wood Very Well, Then Finish

It Must Be Really Smooth to Prevent Rough Spots

By HUBBARD COBB

A slow carrier pigeon has brought us word that some of our readers are not having the sort of results in wood finishing that they would like to expect.

The chief complaint seems to be that after sanding the wood smooth and applying the finish, the finish dries out very much on the rough side. This condition can be due to one of three or four major omissions.

The first, of course, is not getting the wood really smooth. A wood surface can feel smooth to the hand and still be very much on the rough side. It is best to finish your sanding with a No. 0000 sandpaper.

If you wish to play very safe, dampen the surface and when it is dry, sand again. If this routine is repeated several times you'll end up with a surface about as smooth as glass.

If you are working with woods having an open grain you've got to fill up the pores in the wood with a filler before applying the finish. If you don't, the finish will flow into the wood pores and produce a rough surface.

When several coats of finish are applied, you should sand each coat down lightly after it is completely hard. If you fail to do this, little high spots in the first coat will be exaggerated by the second coat and so forth.

Many rough surfaces are due to nothing more than dust and dirt either on the wood or in the air.

Before applying a finish be sure that the work has been dusted clean and don't try to apply a really good finish in the same room where you do woodworking. Chances are that there is enough sawdust floating around to ruin the best applied finish.

Parents Won't Let Girl, 16, Stay Home Alone at Night; Sister Must Be There

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I'm 16 and my parents won't let me stay home alone at night. When they go out, they insist that my older sister and her dates stay home with me.

"They're very nice about it and don't seem to mind, but it makes me feel like a baby! Some of my friends go out to babysit—but somebody has to babysit with me.

"My family says our house is too big for me to be left alone in. I think it's ridiculous—what do you think?"

What's so fascinating about being alone in that big house? What do you want to do that you can't do when your sister is there with you?

If you've ever been completely alone in an emergency, you'd know what your family is thinking about. They think you'd be happier and more comfortable with somebody else around.

Your family isn't afraid that you'll play with matches or forget to turn off the burners. They know you're quite capable of using the phone and that you know where to reach them and how to call the fire department or the police. They know you're 16 and quite a responsible citizen.

They just don't want you to be uncomfortable. They don't want you scared, worried—or lonely.

Now, if strict privacy is what you want—you can always go to your room and shut the door, can't you? And leave your sister to her own devices?

"Dear Miss Woodward: I'm only 13 but my mother thinks I'm too young for just about everything. I admit I get sassy and lose my temper, but I cool down afterwards. (I usually pay for it afterwards, too.)

"My sister is 15 and she can do just about everything she wants to. But she doesn't like to date, which is the cause of my troubles.

"When she was my age, she went to parties and had fun. Mom told me I'd have to wait. Now that I'm 13 I have to wait some more.

"What's wrong in going to a party or dance at school? I earn my own money to go — I can take care of myself.

"It's my sister! If she doesn't go, she doesn't think I should go. She acts so 'big'!

"I'm tired of waiting until I'm older — I will not wait any longer. Please tell me what I should do."

If you're really right in thinking your sister has more infuence with your mother than you have—tackle your sister. Persuade her to go somewhere with you, to do something that won't make her conscious of you as a restless younger sister.

Talk school doings up big to her and try to get her enthusiastic about going on her own account. If she starts having a bit more fun herself, she may not be so eager to put the kibosh on yours.

With her for you, instead of against you, you can present a united front to your mother. And maybe she'll weaken!

Bride-Elect to Be Wed on April 13

Nuptial Attendants Are Announced by Nancy Holmes

By RUTH SAUNDERS

BIRMINGHAM — Nancy Holmes has chosen April 3 as the date of her marriage to William C. Sproull Jr. The ceremony will be read in Christ Church Cranbrook, and Mrs. William John Holmes will come from Lima, Ohio, to be her sister-in-law's matron of honor.

Mr. Sproull's sister, Mrs. Michael Quinn, and Mrs. John B. Thomas of Altadena, Calif., will be her bridesmaids. A reception will be held at Orchard Lake Country Club.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Milton F. Coulson of Berwyn road left this week to spend a week or 10 days in Naples, Fla. They then will go over to Lauderdale-by-the-Sea where they will spend most of the month of March at the Villa Serena.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Lerchen have taken their four children to Pompano Beach, Fla., for a vacation.

Laura Lou Raymond and Mary Ann Rainey entertained at an evening dessert party last Friday for bride-elect Doris Mae Whitcroft who is being married Friday afternoon to Donald Rogers.

Mrs. Robert Saffel and her sister, Judy Olson, have also been hostesses at a party for Doris, and Tuesday evening Mrs. James McCall and Katherine Dasher entertained for her.

Mary Elizabeth Smith gave the spinster dinner for Doris Wednesday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Smith of Franklin.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Richardson of Southfield Avenue will entertain at dinner Saturday evening for members of the board of directors of the Village Players and their husbands and wives.

The dinner will precede the closed performance at the playhouse of two one-act plays. Mary Hammond is directing a mystery play, "Sorry, Wrong Number," in which Mrs. A. L. Genung will have the leading part. The first act of "George Washington Slept Here" will furnish the comedy for the evening.

* * *

Charles B. Stiffler of Poppleton Avenue and his daughter, Mrs. Bruce Craig of Toledo, left this week for a fortnight at Fort Lauderdale. Mrs. Craig will return home in two weeks when Mrs. Stiffler will go down to join her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. George Coleman Booth left early this week to motor to Florida. They will return about March 20.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Miller left by motor Saturday morning for Florida.

Of interest in Birmingham is the recently announced engagement of Beverly Joy Partridge to Peter Chatfield Ball. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Ball of Orchard Ridge road. Both young people are graduates of the University of Michigan.

Miss Partridge is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert J. Partridge of Canenovia, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Pew have left for a stay at Captiva Island, off the west coast of Florida.

There they joined Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Collins and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dodds who have been there for a fortnight.

Still more Florida-bound travelers are Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. B. Moynahan of Tooting lane who will leave March 10 for Vero Beach.

Dr. Marbach Speaks

YW Has Annual Meeting

Dr. William H. Marbach chose the topic "For a Second Century, Fortify Freedom With Faith and Fellowship" when he spoke at the ninth annual meeting of the Pontiac YWCA held Tuesday evening in the Franklin boulevard YWCA.

The speaker, who was introduced by Martha Varney, a member of the Pontiac Y-Teens, was instrumental in organizing the Pontiac association.

The annual meeting committee, with Mrs. A. H. Meyer as chairman, chose the faith and fellowship theme of the worldwide YWCA centennial as the overall theme for the evening.

Mrs. Allan H. Monroe led the devotions using the Centennial prayer written for the YWCA by Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick. Vocal duets were sung by Mrs. Richard Kimball and Don Facer, accompanied by Dorothea Meyer.

The president, Mrs. Fred Haushalter, presented her report in the manner of mixing a cake to be used for the 100th birthday celebration in 1955. She was assisted by representatives of various departments or committees who placed the ingredients in the cake according to the recipe.

Mrs. Myron Buck represented the board of directors, Mrs. Orville Moll, membership; Henrietta Diaz, young adults; Mrs. William Crisp, YW-Wives; Martha Varney, Y-Teens; Mrs. Flora Alexander, Golden Age; Mrs. W. S. Dawe, public affairs; Mrs. Meyer, religious emphasis; Mrs. J. L. VanWagoner, world fellowship; Jeanette Kidneigh, Saturday Fun, and Eileen E. Muir, staff.

Ruth Dennis gave the report of the tellers. Members elected to serve three-year terms on the board were Mrs. Myron L. Buck, Mrs. Michael Costello, Mrs. W. S. Dawe, Ora Hallenbeck, Lucy Hayden, Mrs. William Isaacson, Mrs. H. M. Learned, and Joyce McQuaid.

Elected to the nominating committee were Mrs. Ross Tenny, Mrs. Van Wagoner, Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mrs. E. G. Clark and Mrs. Eugene Wellman.

The YWCA, a Red Feather service of the Pontiac Area United Fund, served 1,363 individuals through its regular activities last year. Outside groups using the building had an attendance of 3,964.

Catholic Women Entertains 200 at Benefit Bridge

Fifty tables were in play when the League of Catholic Women sponsored a card party Wednesday evening at the league building.

Mrs. Floyd Zielenski was general chairman with Mrs. Joseph Spadafore handling prizes. Mrs. Dan Call and Mrs. Thomas Gaffney were responsible for cards and tallies, and Mrs. Arthur Crawford had charge of tickets.

Chairman of refreshments was Mrs. Frank Zwicker assisted by Mrs. Delmo Chapdelaine and Margaret O'Connor.

Proceeds will be used for a new project of the league.

Omega Mu Sigma Plans March Party

Members of Omega Mu Sigma sorority made plans for a theater and dinner party to be held in March when they met Wednesday evening in the Lewis street home of Mrs. Leo Halfpenny.

A discussion on charity projects was also held. Mrs. Raymond Thompson assisted the hostess.

Quick-Dry Blankets

Blankets can be dried in a dryer in 15-25 minutes, and there is actually less shrinkage when a blanket in laundered in an automatic washer and dryer than when it is washed by hand and hung on the line to dry.

'Mudroom' Needs Easy-to-Clean Floor

Add another word to the lexicon of homeowners: "mudroom." At the front of the house it's called the entrance hall. At the rear, it's the mudroom because it's the place where children come in all muddy from play, along with the rather damp family dog!

Whether it's front, back, or side entrance, wherever people bring the weather indoors with them, the floors should be surfaced in material that's easy to keep clean and waterproof.

Video Kind to Actresses Past Thirty

Top Stars Such as Lucy, Eve Arden Are Over 40

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY

NEW YORK (UP)—A woman is as young as she looks in the acting profession.

The face is more important than the figure (age figure, that is) even in television, where harsh lighting in the early days caused many famous past-30 actresses to boycott the cameras.

Now 40-year-old actresses are playing ingenue parts on television, serials star veterans of the movie screens, and even the lucrative commercials on television employ "mature" actresses to sell products to housewives.

With the arrival of color television, the outlook should be even rosier. Lighting on black-and-white television is far more flattering than it used to be, especially on filmed shows, but color television promises even more. It gives a youthful, rosy glow to complexions.

This is in sharp contrast to age problems women face in other fields, including secretarial jobs, where past-35 applicants often are turned down without an interview.

"We don't look at a woman's age when we're casting," said Martin Begley, casting director of NBC television. "We look at her."

"Youth is a quality .. you can have that quality for years," said Margaret Hayes, one of the busiest television actresses, who freely admits she is "past 30."

To prove their point, most television performers cite the top weekly serials, starring such screen veterans as Eve Arden, Lucille Ball, Loretta Young and Ann Sothern. All play youthful roles, and all are past 40.

Lesser-known actresses get a chance at television commercials, where they can make a comfortable $150 for one live commercial.

"The years from 25 to 35 are best for commercials dealing with home products," said Natalie Morrow, casting director for a big advertising agency. "There is not much call for very young girls for these jobs."

Miss Morrow, who started in the agency as a secretary, is just 25.

"Our age range for commercials dealing with home products is 22 to 40," said the casting director of another agency. "We prefer women past 30 because they are more believable."

There are still plenty of jobs for young performers too, and the majority of girls filling out applications for their first TV jobs are from 17 to 20.

But these young applicants can count on a 20-year career as "youthful" actresses, if they follow the footsteps of some of today's stars.

"Television actresses find no shortage of young and glamorous parts when they pass 30," said Nina Foch, actress who has passed 30. "It is absurd to put an age limit on attractiveness."

Scarves Save Suits

Scarves are highly useful accessories. In addition to being decorative, they'll keep necklines of your suits and dresses clean much longer and will help prevent neckline wear and tear.

Accidents are often caused by people who think they own the streets even though they don't own the car they are driving.

For play on winter vacations now and for further wear this summer, we show here separates designed in California by Stephanie Koret. Linen-like fabric that's actually a blend of rayon and silk appears (left) in wide strap camisole and soft skirt worn with triangle stole. Sleeveless shirt and classic jacket are paired with slim skirt.

Newer, lightweight and crease-resistant denim is used for shorts and tapered pants (center). Striped shirt is a cotton knit, easy to launder. Precision-tailored shorts (right) are worn with intarsia-striped basque knit. Play-suit is one-piece with contrasting piping and, like the shorts, is in denim. These denim separates and knit tops can be mixed to extend a wardrobe.

'Pick' Stitches

A nut pick is a handy addition to the sewing basket. The blunt end is ideal for turning belts, while the sharp end can be used to pull out corners after the belt is turned. The pick also is handy for removing basting stitches.

Chromium is found in nature only in compounds.

Woman Past 40 Needs to Work at Rhythmic Pace

Today, the only thing that should hint that a woman has passed 40 is a certain charm everyone knows only the years can grant. The older woman can now use her fashion sense and cosmetic artistry to maintain a fresh, attractive appearance indefinitely.

One other thing is essential, and that is common sense — common sense to realize that she cannot keep her grip on the fountain of youth by trying to match the pace of an 18-year-old.

If you are a housewife whose children have arrived at the age of self-sufficiency, you probably feel that now is the time to get back into the swing of things.

You are right. But set yourself a rhythm that will not put a strain on you.

Instead of building a schedule of helter-skelter social activities, get started on that reading you've always wanted to do. And take up a creative hobby. Offer a few hours of your time each week to some worthy organization. These activities will help you to keep both your mind and body young.

Don't forget the importance of short rests during the day and of sticking to a regular bedtime.

Mary Margaret McBride Says:

How About Setting Aside Time for Worry and Hate?

A chronic worrier who used to make my life miserable with her plaints tells me that she's nearly cured herself of the worry habit by saving up until 8 at night everything that bothers her during the day. Then she concentrates from "8 until exhaustion" on all her troubles.

MISS McBRIDE

"I can't quite believe it but the device actually works," she marvels. "I read about it in a book and was sure that it wouldn't do anything for me. However, I was sick of my constant misery and thought any change would be for the better. So I began carefully deferring gripes, anxieties, terrors.

"I save a lot of time, of course, and get a good deal more work done during the day. Then, when my worrying period comes and I sit down to inspect my terrible wounds at leisure, I usually find they are mostly minor scratches and I am so tired that I just go calmly off to sleep."

Another woman I know who lived for two years in France evolved a similar plan for getting rid of the antagonisms that were building within her. She loves Paris and the French, but she used to get into rages because of certain incidents, some silly, some important.

Among her beefs were: The French telephone system; three-hour lunches; the determined individualists who don't care what they do to other people; that attitude of cultural superiority towards Americans; the crazy way French men drive automobiles, and finally, the fleas that bite in the subway.

"After the first year of near-apoplexy, I set aside a 'I hate the French day' every week, and held everything until then," she told me. "The idea began to seem funny and I giggled about it to myself.

"It was too good a joke to keep and I explained to a few choice French friends what I was doing. They enjoyed the idea almost as much as I was beginning to, and when I couldn't think of subjects to beef about, they suggested some. We all got gripes off our chests and ended by laughing heartily."

It sounds wonderful and I intend to try it as soon as I am strong enough to shove my troubles aside until an appointed time. It occurs to me to wonder, though, how any one could effectively put aside the annoyance of a flea bite for four or five days!

BREAKS 15-YEAR SILENCE — Photographer Felix August Inslerman, of New York, breaks a 15-year silence to tell Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's Senate Permanent Investigating Subcommittee, meeting in Albany, N. Y., that he was the agent known as "Felix" who microfilmed the "pumpkin papers" (government papers) which Whittaker Chambers charged were passed to him by Alger Hiss. Inslerman testified that he was taught photography and the international code in Moscow in 1930, and that he was the photographer for the Soviet spy ring which operated in the U. S. in the 1930s.

Western World Awaiting Italian Vote for Scelba (?)

By PHIL NEWSOM
United Press Foreign News Editor

A day or so from now democracy gets what could be a "yes" or "no" vote in Italy.

The stakes will be high when the 232 Italian senators rise in their somber marble chamber to decide after a week of slanderous name-calling whether they have confidence in the government of premier-designate Mario Scelba.

For Scelba, a balding man noted for his tough anti-communism, represents what may be the last chance for the four center parties in Italian politics to get together to form a government.

If Scelba wins in the senate and later in the 590-seat chamber of deputies, then Italy will be pledged to a government patterned along the same lines as the former De Gasperi government which led Italy into the NATO Western defensive alliance and was a firm advocate of the European Defense Community.

Needless to say, the United States and its Western partners would like to see Scelba win.

The alternative for Italy, almost certainly would be a swing either to the political right or left with disadvantages in both for the Western Allies.

A move to the left probably would see the inclusion of left-wing Socialists in the government, possibly paving the way for later Communist participation.

The left-wing Socialists and the Communists already have a working arrangement in the Italian parliament.

A move to the right would mean the monarchists would be invited into the government.

Middle of the road leaders such as Alcide De Gasperi and Scelba fear such a drift would set off serious labor trouble, widespread strikes and riots.

The Reds certainly would not cooperate with the United States or NATO. The monarchists never have fully committed themselves.

At the moment, Scelba is confident of victory.

He and his supporters expect him to win by 10 votes in the senate and by a margin of 16 in the chamber of deputies.

But the margin is so small there is considerable doubt about how long he can stay.

Scelba is a 52-year-old Sicilian lawyer who, like De Gasperi, is one of the founders of the Christian Democratic party. As a five-time minister of the interior, he organized the riot police who crushed the threat of a Red plot to seize the government in 1948. The Reds hate him, and the feeling is returned with interest.

He is a tireless worker but a colorless speaker. He says: "All my work leaves me little time to cultivate friendships."

His government represents a compromise with the right-wing Socialists, based on promises to institute social and economic reforms aimed at bettering the lot of the working man in a country of vastly contrasting riches.

The hitch is that no one yet has figured out how to pay for them.

Warner Awaits Trial in Slaying of Wife

Donald G. Warner, 29, of 2645 Emmons, Avon Township, stood mute when arraigned before Oakland County Circuit Judge R. Russel Holland Tuesday on a charge of first degree murder of his wife Jan. 13.

He was returned to Oakland County Jail after a plea of not guilty was entered for him by the court.

Warner is accused of shooting his 21-year-old wife while she slept in their home and then shooting himself in the head after driving around in the family car.

Highway Groups Back Bond Plan

Higgins' Tax Committee to Hold Further Study on Issue

LANSING (UP)—Sen. George N. Higgins (R-Ferndale), chairman of the Senate Taxation Committee, said today his committee planned further study of a proposed $500,000,000 bond issue to finance a vast state highway construction program.

Higgins indicated the taxation group will not act on the proposal for at least a week.

State, county, and city highway officials were joined by representatives of highway user organizations Wednesday at a public hearing to back the bond issue plan.

Higgins said his committee is chiefly concerned with whether state gasoline taxes would have to be increased to retire the half-billion dollar bond issue.

Sen. Joseph P. Cloon (R-Wakefield), sponsor of the bond plan, said the debt could be retired more quickly by an increase in gasoline taxes, but pointed out that a return of a larger share of federal levies on motorists would offset financing charges.

John Jacoby, chairman of the Michigan Good Roads Federation which led the 1951 fight for a 1½-cent gas tax increase, said plans already are underway to re-survey state highway needs and promised that preliminary plans for use of the bond fund of new construction could be prepared before the November elections.

If approved by a two-thirds vote of the Legislature, the bond plan would be submitted to voters next fall.

Legislature Is Asked to Try Golden Rule

LANSING (UP)—The originator of a "one month test of faith" which attracted national attention asked the Michigan Legislature yesterday to join the experiment.

The Rev. William Hainsworth, minister of the Mayflower Congregational Church, led some 60 of his congregation in living the month of January strictly by the Golden Rule.

In an invited appearance before the Michigan House of Representatives he asked the lawmakers to try living by the rule, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

And he asked them to persuade other legislatures to take the same course.

"The laws of men have brought us to the brink of disaster," he said. "It is about time we tried the laws of God."

The House ordered his remarks printed in the Journal but took no other immediate action on his suggestion.

The name caribou comes from the Indian names "Maccarib," "maccaribo" or "caribo." It is a close cousin to the reindeer.

Rockwood Youths Get 2-15 Years in Prison

MONROE (UP) — Three Rockwood youths, Donald Robinson, 19; his brother, John Earl, 17, and Bernard Shydlowski, 18, must spend the next two to 15 years in Southern Michigan Prison.

The trio pleaded guilty and were sentenced Tuesday for robbing 11 business establishments in a nine-day crime wave. Donald fainted when he heard the verdict and it took police two hours to revive him.

Employes Bill Off to Congress

Pay Raises and Other Benefits Now Awaiting Lawmakers' Votes

WASHINGTON (UP) — President Eisenhower's recommendations for pay raises and other benefits for government employes go to Congress today.

There is something in the program for most of the government's 2,350,000 civilian employes, provided Congress enacts it.

Among the presidentially approved proposals Philip Young, chairman of the Civil Service Commission, takes to the Senate, Post Office and Civil Service Committee are:

* * *

1. Reclassification of the half million post office jobs with pay adjustments totaling 80 million dollars a year.

2. Numerous changes in the scales for the approximately one million civil service classified workers. These are designed to eliminate what the administration terms inequities and would cost about 150 million dollars, largely for pay raises in the middle and top brackets.

3. Unemployment insurance coverage for federal employes and coordination of their retirement system with the social security system.

4. Voluntary programs of group life insurance and of hospital and medical coverage, to which the government would contribute. These are estimated to cost the government, respectively, 25 million and 50 million dollars a year.

5. Many detailed revisions in personnel regulations, some of which would provide more high-paid jobs and more longevity and overtime pay. Provision for appointing officials to select from the top five persons on civil service lists of eligibles. The choice now is usually limited to the top three.

Eisenhower said in an accompanying statement the government needs a program "combining the best practices of progressive private employers with special demands of public service."

Kidney Slow-Down May Bring Restless Nights

When kidney function slows down, many folks complain of nagging backache, headaches, dizziness and loss of pep and energy. Don't suffer restless nights with these discomforts if reduced kidney function is getting you down—due to such common causes as stress and strain, over-exertion or exposure to cold. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today.

Problem: Sell House First, Then Buy, or Vice Versa

By SAUL PETT
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP)—I have a problem which is as perplexing and much more annoying than the question of which came first, the chicken or the egg.

This problem, of course, is one many people have had to deal with and, I suppose, many survived it. But I'll bet all of them were just as uneasy as I am since it defies logic, challenges faith and would split the orthicon tubes of the latest IBM electronic calculator.

* * *

It's simply this. I want to sell my house. I want to buy another house. Which do I first?

* * *

I want to sell my house for as much as the traffic will bear (a healthy, normal American trait) and at the same time buy a good, solid, charming, comfortable house for as little as I can get away with (another healthy, normal American trait), and in the whole transaction, I want to sell and buy without having to add any cash or let's say, not much cash (still another H.N.A.T.).

There's nothing wrong with our house. It's relatively new, well-built and attractive. But we need more space and my wife thinks she would prefer another town she has in mind. We're willing to take an older house for more space but not for more cash, or let's say, not much more cash, you understand, please do, it's important.

* * *

But how do I know how much we can afford on the next house until we know how much we're going to get for our house? This, of course, has always been a perplexing problem. It's especially thorny now when the real estate market is a little wobbly.

* * *

"Above all, don't put yourself in the position of where you have to sell," an experienced friend tells me. "You'll take a licking."

"Above all, don't put yourself in the position of where you have to buy," another experienced friend tells me. "You'll pay through the nose for the next one."

The alternative to the first position (having to sell) is maintaining two houses at the same time and paying mortgages, taxes, insurance, etc., on both. The alternative to the second position (having to buy) is putting your furniture in storage, living in a hotel long enough to find an apartment you can occupy temporarily while looking for the house you can afford, and meanwhile the bills are piling up, the kids are being scarred for life by all the dislocation and pretty soon you can no longer afford the house you thought you could afford in the first place, if you could have found it.

So, what do I do? Do I set up a two-way radio station in my house and then go racing off with a walkie-talkie and the minute I see something good flash the word back to my wife who, in the meantime, has been coyly holding a prospect back home without telling him our price?

Or, maybe the best thing to do is this: I'll find a house that looks like one I can afford. Then I'll find a prospect who looks like he can afford my house. Then I'll persuade him to buy the house I saw and we'll stay just where we are, and one more complaint out of you kids and I'll tell you about when I was a boy and we slept nine to a room, not counting the cats.

Day Workers Strike at Nash-Kelvinator

DETROIT (INS)—Two thousand day shift workers at Nash-Kelvinator in Detroit walked out on strike today over alleged failure of negotiations in a dispute over work standards.

An estimated 200 pickets, members of the Mechanics Educational Society of America (Ind), blocked the plant's main entrance on Plymouth road.

A company spokesman said the negotiations were in progress for six weeks and charged the union with failure to notify the firm of the strike vote.

A union spokesman said the walkout was voted by the unions' executive board at a special meeting last night.

The strike earlier was scheduled for a minute past midnight this morning.

Marilyn Has Pneumonia From Exposure in Korea

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Mink-clad and ill, Marilyn Monroe arrived last night from a tour of Japan and Korea and went straight to bed.

She posed briefly for photographers, then told newsmen, "I'm ill and just want to go to bed."

At Honolulu, where she and husband Joe DiMaggio stopped on their flight home, doctors said she had bronchial pneumonia, apparently contracted while entertaining troops in frigid Korea clad only in her famous snug-fitting purple gown.

Marriage License Clerk Takes Out Own Permit

DETROIT (INS)—Widowed Mrs. Helen White, marriage license clerk in the county building, disclosed today she soon will become a bride, herself.

She estimated she has processed at least 200,000 marriage licenses in her 15 years as clerk.

Mrs. White is engaged to marry Arnold F. Zeleznik, a Grosse Pointe Park attorney and a widower.

Hubbard to Run for Millard Job

Seeks GOP Nomination as Attorney General in Move to Unseat Foe

DETROIT (AP) — Orville L. Hubbard, suburban Dearborn's stormy mayor, has thrown his hat in the ring for the Republican nomination for state attorney general.

Hubbard announced that he intends to joust with Attorney General Frank G. Millard, also a Republican, following the windup of the mayor's ouster hearing in Detroit yesterday.

The mayor charged:

"Millard has stuck his nose into Dearborn's affairs and come up with nothing but the scent of roots. The attorney general should stop worrying about Dearborn and do some housecleaning in his own home town."

Millard hails from Flint.

Hubbard said he would press his nomination in Grand Rapids next August when the Republicans hold their state convention.

The ouster hearing against Hubbard began last Jan. 4 and lasted for 17 actual days in court. The hearing, conducted by Probate Judge Wallace Waalkes Jr. of Grand Rapids, was brought to a close after 45 minutes of Hubbard testimony yesterday.

Now, the entire testimony—all 800,000 words of it—will be turned over to Millard for possible action.

During the brief closing testimony, Dearborn employes and businessmen backed Hubbard in charges that the mayor had ordered city material, equipment and labor to pave private parking lots in the city.

A petition to toss the Dearborn mayor out of office was submitted by Circuit Judge Miles N. Culehan following his one-man grand jury investigation of the city's affairs last year.

After Millard looks over the hearing report, he will turn it over to Gov. Williams for a final decision.

Bob Considine Says

No Need to Look Abroad for Breathtaking Places

SAN FRANCISCO (INS) — My wife looked out one of the great picture windows that are the eyes of the incredible cliff-side home of Geraldine and Stewart Hopps on Belvedere Island. She beckoned across the bay.

"If we saw that in some smelly foreign country where the water was bad and the inn-keeper kept a stiletto in our ribs we'd both be oh'ing and ah'ing and writing home to say we had found paradise," she said.

So true. Take it from a couple who have traveled more than Mr. and Mrs. Fuller of the name, there are breath-taking things to see in this country.

There are travelers who have neglected its wonders and gone off in eternal quest of something not nearly as splendid, when found. They kid themselves that what they find abroad is "smarter," whatever that means, or less expensive, or more to be admired, or simply more beautiful to behold. They have contributed fortunes to tourism, and this is not a piece suggesting that they hereby desist.

It is just a reminder that this land has surprises fit to raise the brows of jaded souls who wouldn't be caught dead outside of Portofino, Majorca, Capri, Cap d'Antibes, Hana Maui and Grossinger's.

We've been coming to San Francisco since we were boy and girl. It is the freshest, cleanest, most cultured city in this country.

We've been getting another view of San Francisco these past few days, thanks to the aforementioned Hopps.

The great porches high on the hill lead one to the railing and then it is something like being suspended in air by some great abdication of the law of gravity.

A big chunk of the Pacific fleet steamed under Golden Gate Bridge the day we arrived, and it made an observer feel proud and secure. It was an easier security to understand than the might Air Force jets that have been taking penmanship lessons against the perfect blue underflooring of heaven since our arrival.

It is dusk as I finish this piece. The hills that distantly rim us have blackened and bedecked themselves with jewels. The bridges bloom into twinkling necklaces. The city itself recedes enticingly like a graceful, jewel-laden arm involved in a pleasant gesture.

Richardson Bay, below us, turns a dozen colors in 12 minutes, its wedged squadrons of ducks at rest, its indolent gulls and pelicans immobilized, a waterfall whispers. A eucalyptus, here and mature when no living person was, lifts the corsage of its pinnacle against a sky that will soon be its own color.

I wish I could live here.

Group Will Protest Junking Oldest Ship

BALTIMORE (AP)—In an attempt to save the Navy's oldest ship, the Constellation, from the scrap pile, a group of Marylanders representing 27 civic and patriotic and civic organizations plan a march on Washington, D. C., Monday.

A special House subcommittee is considering a bill which provides for the restoration and maintenance of the U.S.S. Constitution and the scrapping of the Constellation and three other ships.

The Marylanders hope to persuade the subcommittee to report the bill unfavorably. The Constellation, now rotting in Boston Harbor, was built and launched in Baltimore in 1797

Address Includes Complete Dossier

CARBONDALE, Ill. (UP) — Postal officials could find all the information they needed on the outside of a package recently received by Dr. D. W. Morris, president of Southern Illinois University.

It was addressed to Morris as "president of Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Illinois, U. S. A., America" from "Dr. Sj. Arabinda Prasad Bhandari, the second son of late Sj. Rahhal chandra Bhandari of the village of Ramnagar, P. O. Maturapur, Dt. 24, Parganas, West Bengal, India."

In addition, the wrapping said the package contained "English publication (translation) of Nabadwip Mahanir Vani Math entitled 'Sri Sri Nityagopal' by the president of the math."

"Math" means abbey and the book is the life history of an Indian occultist.

Screams Cost Nothing, Boy Tells Store Owner

GRAND PRAIRIE, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. Dewey Miller questioned the young man throwing a tantrum in her husband's drugstore here.

"My mama won't buy me a cap pistol," he screamed.

"Well, now," said Mrs. Miller, "when you throw one of these fits does your mother always buy whatever you want?"

"No," replied the boy. "Sometimes she does. Sometimes she doesn't

"But it isn't any trouble to scream."

Research Looks for New Ways to Apply 3D

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State University researchers are looking for new uses for t he 3D pictures. At present the major application of 3D to science is in photogrammetry—mapping or surveying with the aid of photographs.

Dr. Bertil P. Hallert, Swedish scientist and associate in OSU's mapping and charting research laboratory, says a 3D aerial photograph can be used to prepare a detailed map.

The Pennsylvania Turnpike was surveyed in 145 days, compared with an estimated 2 years using ground measurements.

The method was used by Hitler and later by Allies in World War II. Dr. Hallert estimates there were 80,000 aerial cameras in use by the end of the war.

Dr. Hallert is trying to interest OSU medical researchers in 3D X-ray as a diagnostic tool. Other fields in which Hallert has noted successful application of 3D include astronomy, microscopy, engineering, anthropology, geology, psychology, heredity, forestry, agriculture, meteorology, oceanography botany and archeology.

Fast Talk Bluffs Bandit, So Clerk Keeps Cash

BALTIMORE (AP) — Alma Buzby, a fast-talking dry cleaning store clerk, successfully bluffed a bandit out of a holdup here yesterday.

At first she tried to convince the bandit it was all a joke. After that failed, she told him there was a man in a back room of the store.

There wasn't any man and there wasn't any back room, but the bluff worked. The holdup man backed out of the door and fled.

Problem: Sell House First, Then Buy, or Vice Versa

By SAUL PETT
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP)—I have a problem which is as perplexing and much more annoying than the question of which came first, the chicken or the egg.

This problem, of course, is one many people have had to deal with and, I suppose, many survived it. But I'll bet all of them were just as uneasy as I am since it defies logic, challenges faith and would split the orthicon tubes of the latest IBM electronic calculator.

* * *

It's simply this. I want to sell my house. I want to buy another house. Which do I first?

* * *

I want to sell my house for as much as the traffic will bear (a healthy, normal American trait) and at the same time buy a good, solid, charming, comfortable house for as little as I can get away with (another healthy, normal American trait), and in the whole transaction, I want to sell and buy without having to add any cash, or let's say, not much cash (still another H.N.A.T.).

There's nothing wrong with our house. It's relatively new, well-built and attractive. But we need more space and my wife thinks she would prefer another town she has in mind. We're willing to take an older house for more space but not for more cash, or let's say, not much more cash, you understand, please do, it's important.

* * *

But how do I know how much we can afford on the next house until we know how much we're going to get for our house? This, of course, has always been a perplexing problem. It's especially thorny now when the real estate market is a little wobbly.

* * *

"Above all, don't put yourself in the position of where you have to sell," an experienced friend tells me. "You'll take a licking."

"Above all, don't put yourself in the position of where you have to buy," another experienced friend tells me. "You'll pay through the nose for the next one."

The alternative to the first position (having to sell) is maintaining two houses at the same time and paying mortgages, taxes, insurance, etc., on both. The alternative to the second position (having to buy) is putting your furniture in storage, living in a hotel long enough to find an apartment you can occupy temporarily while looking for the house you can afford, and meanwhile the bills are piling up, the kids are being scarred for life by all the dislocation and pretty soon you can no longer afford the house you thought you could afford in the first place, if you could have found it.

So, what do I do? Do I set up a two-way radio station in my house and then go racing off with a walkie-talkie and the minute I see something good flash the word back to my wife who, in the meantime, has been coyly holding a prospect back home without telling him our price?

Or, maybe the best thing to do is this: I'll find a house that looks like one I can afford. Then I'll find a prospect who looks like he can afford my house. Then I'll persuade him to buy the house I saw and we'll stay just where we are, and one more complaint out of you kids and I'll tell you about when I was a boy and we slept nine to a room, not counting the cats.

Research Expands

SHREWSBURY, Mass. (UP) — Started nine years ago in an abandoned barn at Clark University in nearby Worcester, the non-profit Worcester Foundation for Experimental Biology now has its own permanent research laboratories here, with a staff of 110.

A vigilant, diving fisher-bird, the loon, has a cry which sounds like insane laughter.

Day Workers Strike at Nash-Kelvinator

DETROIT (INS)—Two thousand day shift workers at Nash-Kelvinator in Detroit walked out on strike today over alleged failure of negotiations in a dispute over work standards.

An estimated 200 pickets, members of the Mechanics Educational Society of America (Ind), blocked the plant's main entrance on Plymouth road.

A company spokesman said the negotiations were in progress for six weeks and charged the union with failure to notify the firm of the strike vote.

A union spokesman said the walkout was voted by the unions' executive board at a special meeting last night.

The strike earlier was scheduled for a minute past midnight this morning.

Marilyn Has Pneumonia From Exposure in Korea

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Mink-clad and ill, Marilyn Monroe arrived last night from a tour of Japan and Korea and went straight to bed.

She posed briefly for photographers, then told newsmen, "I'm ill and just want to go to bed."

At Honolulu, where she and husband Joe DiMaggio stopped on their flight home, doctors said she had bronchial pneumonia, apparently contracted while entertaining troops in frigid Korea clad only in her famous snug-fitting purple gown.

Marriage License Clerk Takes Out Own Permit

DETROIT (INS)—Widowed Mrs. Helen White, marriage license clerk in the county building, disclosed today she soon will become a bride, herself.

She estimated she has processed at least 200,000 marriage licenses in her 15 years as clerk.

Mrs. White is engaged to marry Arnold F. Zeleznik, a Grosse Pointe Park attorney and a widower.

Hubbard to Run for Millard Job

Seeks GOP Nomination as Attorney General in Move to Unseat Foe

DETROIT (AP) — Orville L. Hubbard, suburban Dearborn's stormy mayor, has thrown his hat in the ring for the Republican nomination for state attorney general.

Hubbard announced that he intends to joust with Attorney General Frank G. Millard, also a Republican, following the windup of the mayor's ouster hearing in Detroit yesterday.

The mayor charged:

"Millard has stuck his nose into Dearborn's affairs and come up with nothing but the scent of roses. The attorney general should stop worrying about Dearborn and do some housecleaning in his own home town."

Millard hails from Flint.

Hubbard said he would press his nomination in Grand Rapids next August when the Republicans hold their state convention.

The ouster hearing against Hubbard began last Jan. 4 and lasted for 17 actual days in court. The hearing, conducted by Probate Judge Wallace Waalkes Jr. of Grand Rapids, was brought to a close after 45 minutes of Hubbard testimony yesterday.

Now, the entire testimony—all 500,000 words of it—will be turned over to Millard for possible action.

During the brief closing testimony, Dearborn employes and businessmen backed Hubbard in charges that the mayor had ordered city material, equipment and labor to pave private parking lots in the city.

A petition to toss the Dearborn mayor out of office was submitted by Circuit Judge Miles N. Culehan following his one-man grand jury investigation of the city's affairs last year.

After Millard looks over the hearing report, he will turn it over to Gov. Williams for a final decision.

Bob Considine Says

No Need to Look Abroad for Breathtaking Places

SAN FRANCISCO (INS) — My wife looked out one of the great picture windows that are the eyes of the incredible cliff-side home of Geraldine and Stewart Hopps on Belvedere Island. She beckoned across the bay.

"If we saw that in some smelly foreign country where the water was bad and the inn-keeper kept a stiletto in our ribs we'd both be oh'ing and ah'ing and writing home to say we had found paradise," she said.

So true. Take it from a couple who have traveled more than Mr. and Mrs. Fuller of the name, there are breath-taking things to see in this country.

There are travelers who have neglected its wonders and gone off in eternal quest of something not nearly as splendid, when found. They kid themselves that what they find abroad is "smarter," whatever that means, or less expensive, or more to be admired, or simply more beautiful to behold. They have contributed fortunes to tourism, and this is not a piece suggesting that they hereby desist.

It is just a reminder that this land has surprises fit to raise the brows of jaded souls who wouldn't be caught dead outside of Portofino, Majorca, Capri, Cap d'Antibes, Hana Maui and Grossinger's.

We've been coming to San Francisco since we were boy and girl. It is the freshest, cleanest, most cultured city in this country.

We've been getting another view of San Francisco these past few days, thanks to the aforementioned Hopps.

The great porches high on the hill lead one to the railing and then it is something like being suspended in air by some great abdication of the law of gravity.

A big chunk of the Pacific fleet steamed under Golden Gate Bridge the day we arrived, and it made an observer feel proud and secure. It was an easier security to understand than the might Air Force jets that have been taking penmanship lessons against the perfect blue underflooring of heaven since our arrival.

It is dusk as I finish this piece. The hills that distantly rim us have blackened and bedecked themselves with jewels. The bridges bloom into twinkling necklaces. The city itself recedes enticingly like a graceful, jewel-laden arm involved in a pleasant gesture.

Richardson Bay, below us, turns a dozen colors in 12 minutes, its wedged squadrons of ducks at rest, its indolent gulls and pelicans immobilized, a waterfall whispers. A eucalyptus, here and mature when no living person was, lifts the corsage of its pinnacle against a sky that will soon be its own color.

I wish I could live here.

Group Will Protest Junking Oldest Ship

BALTIMORE (AP)—In an attempt to save the Navy's oldest ship, the Constellation, from the scrap pile, a group of Marylanders representing 27 civic and patriotic and civic organizations plan a march on Washington, D. C., Monday.

A special House subcommittee is considering a bill which provides for the restoration and maintenance of the U.S.S. Constitution and the scrapping of the Constellation and three other ships.

The Marylanders hope to persuade the subcommittee to report the bill unfavorably. The Constellation, now rotting in Boston Harbor, was built and launched in Baltimore in 1797

Coffee Is Door Prize

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Mrs. Johnston Murray, wife of the Oklahoma governor, has announced the grand prize for the 50,000th visitor to the mansion expected Thursday at the regular open house will be—a pound of coffee.

Address Includes Complete Dossier

It was addressed to Morris as "president of Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Illinois, U. S. A., America" from "Dr. Sj. Arabinda Prasad Bhandari, the second son of late Sj. Rahhal chandra Bhandari of the village of Ramnagar, P. O. Maturapur, Dt. 24, Parganas, West Bengal, India."

In addition, the wrapping said the package contained "English publication (translation) of Nabadwip Mahanir Van Math entitled 'Sri Sri Nityagopal' by the president of the math."

"Math" means abbey and the book is the life history of an Indian occultist.

Evaporation from the surface of the Great Lakes is said to vary from about 20 to 30 inches per year.

Avon Fire Assn. Chief Elected

Members Also Take Action on New Fire Station

AVON TOWNSHIP — Monroe Frederick has been elected president of the newly organized Avon Fire Association, it was announced today.

The association, holding its second meeting since its organization, also elected Erwin Sheldon as vice president, Herman Lamb as secretary and Harold Miller, treasurer.

Further action was also taken on securing a fire station for the new volunteer fire department which will serve the southwest portion of the township.

Henry Goden was named chairman of a building committee composed of D. M. Yarnold, Euclid Montville and Hubert McCann. The committee was directed to draw up plans for the fire hall and bids for materials to be submitted at a meeting March 21.

The new fire hall will be an addition to the west side and the front of the present Community Center building. Tentative date for breaking ground has been set for April 1, according to Frederick.

Labor used in constructing the fire hall, Frederick added, will be donated by men of the community.

A group of 40 volunteer firemen will be selected from 50 charter members of the association. The firemen will be instructed in the operation of a new fire truck by six men who have trained with a Detroit fire equipment firm.

Meetings of the community club have been changed from the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month to the first and third Mondays at 8 p.m. Next meeting will be March 1.

DISCOVER HIDEAWAY — West Bloomfield Township Police Chief William Van Meter Jr. enters the abandoned shack at 15-Mile and Orchard Lake Rds. where a teenaged gang had goods from 16 area robberies cached. Included in the stolen property were golf clubs, guns, clothing, auto radios and 13 cases of potato chips. Four members of the band are in custody. The other three—all juveniles—were released to their parents pending further action.

Electors Back Tax Proposal

4 to 1 Margin Greater Than Support in Vote in December

ROCHESTER — By a more than four to one vote, electors of the Rochester Community School District again confirmed their Dec. 15 decision that they wanted new schools at yesterday's special school election.

The revote, called because an error had occurred in the pre-election notice in December, brought a total of 1,370 voters to the polls.

Supporting the tax limitation of $9.75 per thousand assessed valuation as equalized were 1,072 votes. The "no" ballots numbered 271.

By precincts, number one cast 151 "yes" and 40 "no;" number two precinct, 748 "yes" and 197 "no;" precinct number three, 173 "yes" and 34 "no."

Only one proposition of the bond issue had to be voted upon again.

December's vote brought about two to one votes in favor with 1,833 voting, 1,281 endorsing the issue and 552 in opposition.

The Rochester Community Board of Education met following the closing of the polls and announced that plans are completed for the elementary aditions to Hamlin and Goodison schools.

Contractors will submit their bids by 8 p.m. on March 15.

Leonard Harding, president of the board, said that the bonds will be put up for sale on March 23 to be sold on a bid basis with the agency charging the lowest rate of interest to receive the business.

Harding stated that plans for the North Hill Elementary school will be started immediately and preliminary planning for the new high school will be initiated by a committee in the near future.

H. E. Beyster Associates of Detroit have been retained as architects and engineers for the building program.

Invitations Are Sent Out for 'Midwinter Special'

ROCHESTER — Invitations have been sent to members of the Rochester Woman's Club for the group's annual "Midwinter Special," scheduled for noon tomorrow in the Avon Park Pavilion.

A surprise program will follow a luncheon.

Ministers Take No Bingo Stand

Rochester Clergy Sign Petition to Ban Playing of Charity Games

By HAZEL A. TRUMBLE

ROCHESTER — An anti-bingo declaration was signed this week by all Rochester ministers opposing a recently introduced bill to legalize the game in Michigan.

The bill will be opposed from the pulpit by the Revs. E. John Yuells, Kenneth W. Burgess, Donald Olsen, Edgar A. Lucas, Walter C. Gerken, Roy E. Wilson, Frank Racine and Clarence Sanborn.

The ministerial group is following the stand taken by the Michigan Council of Churches.

"We believe," said Rev. Yuells, spokesman for the Rochester churchmen, "that the Council's eight-point statement helps to clear up much of the cloudy thinking and easy rationalization which is behind those who are in favor of easing the anti-gambling laws."

Emphasizing that a compromise on the gambling law would "weaken morally because it promotes the something for nothing philosophy," their statement says that community institutions should never resort to any method for their support which would undermine the morality of the nation.

"Charitable work," they say, "should be supported through the exercise of the religious principle of stewardship."

Legalizing of charitable gambling, the group said, would soon obscure the line between commercial and charitable gambling interests.

Furthermore the group stated that "religious and charitable institutions should desire no special privilege in the use of questionable practices forbidden to society in general."

The Rochester ministers said they would urge their congregations to let their legislative representatives know how constituents feel about the proposal.

Applications Due for Absentee Ballots

Voters wishing to use absentee ballots in Pontiac's primary election Monday must request applications by mail or pick up applications at the city clerk's office.

City Clerk Ada R. Evans said that when the applications are returned the ballots will be mailed to persons requesting them.

Marked ballots must be mailed back to the clerk's office and in time for the last pick-up before the polls close Monday in order to be valid said Mrs. Evans.

Persons who are ill or who intend to leave the city are examples of absentee ballot users, Mrs. Evans added.

Norton-Freeland Rite Performed Before 175 Guests

SASHABAW PLAINS — One hundred and seventy five guests attended the double ring wedding ceremony which united Lillian Norton and Forrest H. Freeland Saturday, Feb. 6, in New Hope Bible Church.

Lillian is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Norton of Sashabaw Plains. Forrest's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Orvil C. Freeland of Opdyke road, Pontiac.

The bride wore a floor length gown of nylon lace over white satin. Her fingertip veil fell from a lace cap studded with seed pearls and lilies of the valley. She also wore a double strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried white bosebuds on a white Bible.

Serving as her attendant was Mrs. Ruth Collins of Flint, wearing a coral lace and net gown and carrying white snapdragons and blue irises.

Verne Witherspoon of Waterford served as best man. Wendall Cowdrey of Waterford and Ross Vaughn of Pontiac were ushers.

Printing Error Forces Bond Issue Revote

Clarkston Must Return to Polls

Tax Limitation Portion of February 2 Ballot Up Again March 4

CLARKSTON — Omission of the word "not" on the Feb. 2 Clarkston Community School District bond issue is calling everyone back to the polls on March 4.

Although the issue was approved by a more than a four to one vote, discovery of an error in the printing on the ballots necessitates the new election in order to legalize the sale of the bonds.

Only the tax limitation portion of the ballot requires the revote. The associate proposal is valid and with the approval of the part covering the tax limitation the entire bond issue will be intact.

The intent of the issue is not changed. It covers the same $600,000 proposal which will build a high school addition and additions to three elementary schools.

According to the Board of Education, the printing error was made as follows:

"If in any year it shall be necessary to levy all of such increase for the above purpose," should have read, "If in any year it shall NOT be necessary to levy all of such increase for the above purpose."

Polls for the election will be open at the Clarkston Elementary School from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m. on March 4.

DR. H. E. NUTT

Chicago Dean to Be Festival Conductor

ORTONVILLE — Dr. H. E. Nutt, dean of the faculty of Vander-Cook College of Music, Chicago, will be guest conductor at the festival of bands in the Ortonville High School auditorium Saturday evening.

George Cavender, assistant conductor of bands at the University of Michigan, will be one of the instructors in the band clinic slated for the afternoon.

The festival is being sponsored jointly by the Goodrich, Imlay City and Ortonville bands.

The concert, slated for 8 p. m. will consist of selections by each of the participating bands and several numbers by the combined bands under the direction of Dr. Nutt.

Officials Seek Dog Poisoners

Voice Concern That Waterford Youngsters May Find Tainted Food

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—Oakland County officials are continuing their hunt for the person or persons who fed rat poison to a three-year-old collie belonging to Paul E. Moros of 2937 Edgefield Dr.

"We don't believe that the poisoning was deliberate," Albert Sandell, county humane officer, said yesterday. "We think someone is putting out poisoned food for rats and we are worried that children might get poisoned, too."

The collie became sick and died within 24 hours, Sandell said. He also reported that another dog in the Donelson Park area had been poisoned, but recovered.

Sandell was called into the case Tuesday by Lloyd Anderson, township supervisor, who expressed fear that a youngster "might find a poisoned piece of bread or other substance and take it in his mouth."

Anderson continued: "We want to warn the people of the area of the serious consequences if a child should get hold of some of the poisoned material."

The humane society has offered a $25 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the poisoner of the Moros dog.

Moros' father, Lee, has posted an additional $25 reward.

NEW CHEVROLET TRUCKS FOR '54

Completely new—the most powerful, finest performing, best-looking Advance-Design trucks ever built! And you can have new automatic transmission* on ½-, ¾- and 1-ton models!

New 1954 Chevrolet trucks offer you the last word in no-shift truck driving ease. You can make door-to-door deliveries . . . drive in heavy traffic or on the open highway without shifting gears or operating a clutch. Fact is, there is no clutch.

A new truck Hydra-Matic transmission* does the work for you—smoothly, silently, economically. You can keep your hands on the wheel and your eyes on the road. As a result, you drive more relaxed, more easily, more safely.

This proved automatic transmission is available not only on ½- and ¾-ton Chevrolet trucks, but on 1-ton models, too!

Plan to stop in soon and see all the other big new benefits you get in the new Chevrolet trucks.

They're packed with brand-new advantages you need—

NEW ENGINE POWER. You get more power—and the right power for your job, plus new operating economy with three advanced valve-in-head engines. Bigger, brawnier "Thriftmaster 235" engine. Rugged, durable "Loadmaster 235" engine. Mighty all-new "Jobmaster 261" engine.*

NEW COMFORTMASTER CAB. The big new one-piece curved windshield provides greater visibility. The new instrument panel is easier to read and the controls easier to reach. New Ride Control Seat* offers extra comfort for drivers. Seat cushion and back move as a unit to eliminate back-rubbing.

NEW, BIGGER LOAD SPACE. New pickup bodies have deeper sides . . . new stake bodies are wider and longer to give you extra load space. In addition, they're set lower to the ground for easier loading and unloading.

NEW CHASSIS RUGGEDNESS. Extra strength and stamina! Heavier axle shafts on 2-ton models . . . newly designed clutches and stronger, more rigid frames on all models.

NEW ADVANCE-DESIGN STYLING. The new front-end design is more massive and sturdy in appearance with new grille and hood emblem. New parking lights are positioned to indicate the full width of the truck.

Optional at extra cost. Ride Control Seat is available on all cab models, "Jobmaster 261" engine on 2-ton models. Rear corner windows on standard cab optional at extra cost.*

Planes Are Best to Carry Gold

Found Safer and Faster; Haul Bigger Loads, Take Less Guarding

WASHINGTON — An old globe trotter—gold — has become air minded.

Since World War II the airplane more and more has taken the Midas metal for mysterious wanderings from country to country.

It still rides trains and ships, but planes have proved safe and much faster. The risk of loss is frequently less.

Gold is a strange traveler, often changing owners without moving at all.

But when it changes location, it does so with a ceremony befitting the glittering monarch of metals, the National Geographic Society says. Whether on plane or train or ship, it is a pampered passenger and always commands a royal retinue of guards.

In this country the great point of departure for the monetary metal is New York City's Federal Reserve Bank.

When a shipment is to be flown abroad the gold is first crated deep inside the bank's vaults. The brick-sized, 400-ounce ingots are each wrapped in Manila paper and buried in sawdust.

Guards stand by while carpenters piece together the wooden boxes which prevent chipping and denting of the soft yellow metal.

In an armored car the gold is whisked away to planeside. At the United States Government price of $35 an ounce, a ton is valued at approximately $1,100,000. A four-motored, chartered plane can carry a top load of six to seven tons.

One special advantage of air transport is that fewer guards are needed than on ship or train. Planes can more often go the whole way to the gold's destination.

Today the world is experiencing a strange kind of "gold rush." The metal is rushing through Uncle Sam's fingers in large quantities.

In 1953 the government, with well over $20,000,000,000 on hand, sold more than $1,140,000,000 worth abroad and didn't buy a penny's worth. Great Britain was the big purchaser—nearly half a billion dollars.

Paradoxically, little gold actually moved out of this country. Great Britain, for instance, has large stocks in New York. A purchase by Britain thus merely means a shift from a U. S. to a British account.

One recent trend has been the sale of Russian gold in Europe. This has resulted in a sharp price slump in the free market.

Nobody outside the Iron Curtain really knows how much gold Russia owns or what it plans to do with it.

In the last decade science has acquired the touch of Midas and has achieved the gold of the alchemists—transmuting other metals into gold. Experts say the money markets have nothing to worry about on this score.

The Atomic Energy Commission agrees that psysicists have changed mercury into gold but on too small and costly a scale to affect the gold supply.

Police Search for Nude Last Seen in Man's Arms

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Police are looking for an amber-hued nude named Karla, last seen departing a Market street building in the hands of a man.

Thomas Leighton, who had been exhibiting his oil paintings at the Art League School, said he valued the 4x5-foot canvas at $2,000.

Cabbie Envoys Honored

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—Hotel manager Paul P. Morris is throwing a supper party tonight for Grand Rapids' 75 taxicab drivers in recognition of their status as "the city's No. 1 greeters."

Sauce Adds Zest to Lenten Fish

Perch Takes On Piquant Flavor

Spread Tangy Liquid Over Fillets; Broil; Wait for Compliments

Broil perch fillets in a zesty mustard sauce for a lively note in your Lenten meal. The piquant sauce spiked with worcestershire sauce, lemon juice and black pepper is spread over the fillets before they're slipped under the broiler. As a result the mustard yellow is touched ever so lightly with delicate golden brown.

Tiny whole beets and crispy french fried potatoes are good suggestions as to what to serve with these deviled fish fillets.

Deviled Perch Fillets

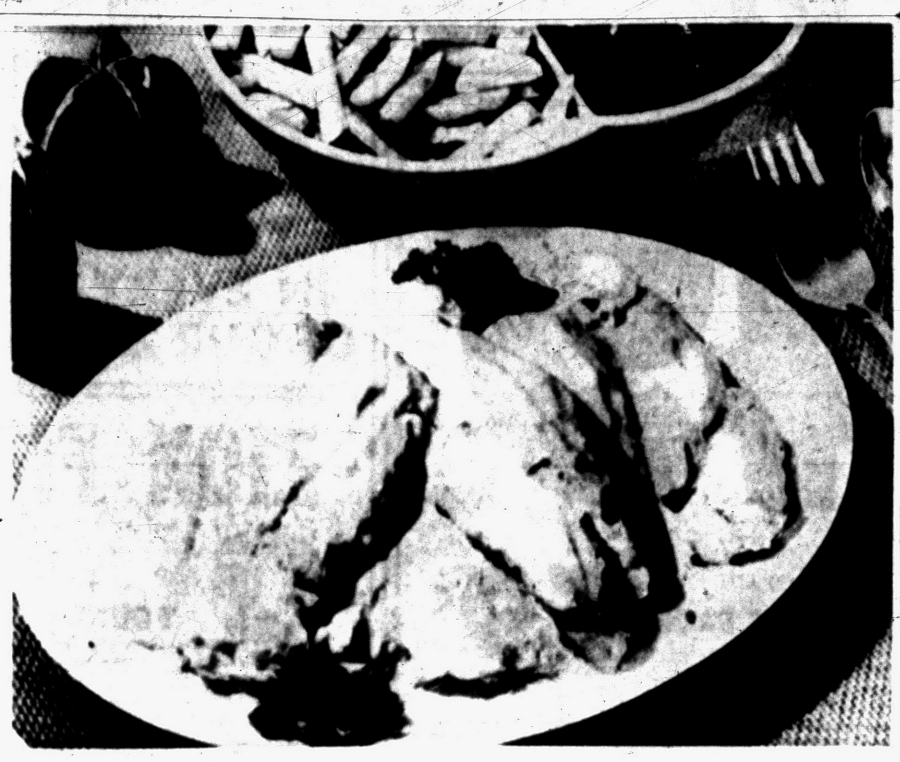

1 pound package frozen perch fillets
⅔ cup evaporated milk (1 small can)
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
2 tablespoons prepared mustard or catsup
½ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon lemon juice or vinegar
Few grains black pepper

Thaw perch fillets according to package directions. Mix milk, worcestershire sauce, mustard, lemon juice, salt and pepper thoroughly. Let stand several minutes.

Fit fillets, skin side down, in bottom of a buttered 9-inch pie pan. Since fillets vary in thickness, overlap tail ends so that fish are more nearly of uniform thickness. Cover with sauce.

Broil 2 inches from source of heat, until fish can be flaked easily with a fork, from 15 to 18 minutes. It is not necessary to turn fillets while broiling. Baste with sauce if fish becomes dry.

Lift carefully to heated serving plate and spoon remaining sauce over fish. Makes 4 servings.

DEVILED PERCH FILLETS—This good combination of perch fillets broiled in mustard sauce is one of the many ways you can vary your meatless Lenten meals. With Lent only a few days away you will be wanting to plan more meals around fish.

If your main baking problem is bottom crust browning, try using a dull finish aluminum or glass pie plate.

Catering to Baby's Taste Is $180 Million Business

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

We haven't talked about babies for a long time, that is, not in print. Let's take a look at the food they eat and discuss the tremendous industry this baby food business has become.

We have gone through the formula, spinach-throwing, Zwieback-chewing stage with two small fry of our own, so we feel we have at least a speaking acquaintance with the subject.

There is a difference of eight years between the Teenager and the Five-Year-Old. In that interval there was a big change in baby foods.

For instance, our oldest had only one or two kinds of strained cereal, while the youngest could have a different one every day of the week. Since his infancy dozens of new products have appeared on the baby-food shelves.

Among the more recent ones are teething crackers, strained egg yolk, strained tuna and strained orange juice.

Forty years ago a baby had little more than milk and cereal for the first year of life. Any vegetables fed to him after that had to be cooked and laboriously strained by mama.

Orange or tomato juice and raw fruits such as bananas just weren't given to babies.

Now children less than a month old are started on solid food. Only a few months later their diet includes meat, fruit, vegetables and desserts.

In the last ten years sale of foods prepared specifically for children has mounted to the astounding sum of 180 million dollars per year. Today's toddler consumes nearly fifty-three pounds of special baby food in one year.

World War II gave a tremendous boost to canned baby food. Working mothers had less time to prepare strained food and families had more money to spend.

As more canned baby foods were demanded and produced, costs of production went down so that now the commercially prepared foods are within the reach of nearly everyone.

The only company whose sole business is baby food started in the late 1920's when the owner's grandchildren needed strained food. News about this new product spread and within fifteen years the company discontinued packing food for adults and concentrated entirely on baby food.

Other companies followed their lead, and today mothers have a choice of several brands. Nationally known meat packing houses joined forces with the original baby food producers and brought out a line of strained and chopped meats.

Nowhere in the canning industry is more care taken than along the assembly line of canned baby foods. Close inspection is run continuously on every step of the process. This care is extended even to the growing of the fruits and vegetables.

Baby food is big business. American mothers can rest secure in the knowledge that the best foods of their kind are packed with the greatest care, so that the most important customer in the world —baby—can be well fed.

Blend Lima Beans, Carrots and Celery

Here's a different vegetable combination that's delightful.

Lima Bean Medley

1 package frozen baby lima beans
1 cup celery crescents
1 cup diced carrots
1½ cups boiling water
Salt
Pepper
1 tablespoon butter or margarine

Put lima beans in saucepan and allow to stand at room temperature to partly defrost. Meanwhile cut celery and carrots about size of beans; add to beans with boiling water and a little salt; cook rapidly until beans are tender — about 15 or 20 minutes.

Drain; add more salt if necessary, pepper, and butter. Makes six servings.

Spiced Pecans Good Nibblers

Strictly for munchers and nibblers — and who isn't one? — are these tidbit masterpieces. Perfect to serve when friends come calling.

Bring a trayful of them on with your favorite beverage and your winter party will be off to a good start.

Pecans figure in tidbit foods — all sweet and spiced. This year we have the largest pecan crop on record, ready to be used in wonderful things to eat.

Nearly all the pecans sold in the shell are of the improved or cultivated varieties — this means that their shells are thin and easy to crack, the meats are large and they're not hard to take out of the shell.

If you don't feel like cracking pecans you can, of course, buy the nuts already shelled.

Spiced Pecans
Spiced Pecans

2 tablespoons butter or margarine
½ cup sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
Dash of cloves
Dash of nutmeg
1 cup pecan halves

In heavy skillet, melt butter. Add sugar, cinnamon, cloves and nutmeg; stir well.

Add pecans and cook over low heat, stirring constantly until sugar is melted — about eight minutes. Turn out on buttered flat pan to cool, separating pecans.

DANISH DESSERT—Brighten your meals—serve Danish dessert with cream or custard sauce. Make it with fruit or fruit juice for variety. You'll find many ways to pep up your menus throughout 1954 with this delicious dessert.

Prepared Danish Dessert Will Brighten Mealtimes

Why not try a new dessert — patterned from an old and popular Danish recipe — tangy currant-raspberry flavored Danish dessert. You simply add water to the prepared Danish dessert mix and boil for one minute.

Chilled Danish dessert is usually served as a pudding with cream or custard sauce. Add fruits if you like, or use fruit juices for part of the liquid when you make Danish dessert.

You'll find many ways to pep up your menus throughout 1954 with this delicious dessert.

Danish Dessert

2 cups water
1 package Danish dessert
Light cream or custard sauce

Stir Danish dessert into water in saucepan. Bring to a full boil; boil for one minute, stirring constantly. Pour into serving bowl. Sprinkle lightly with sugar while warm to keep surface moist. Let cool. Then chill in refrigerator three to four hours. Serve with light cream or custard sauce.

For variety serve fruited Danish dessert. Add fruit to prepared pudding or prepare with fruit juice instead of water.

Danish Apple Dessert

1½ cups apple juice
½ cup water
1 package Danish dessert
Light cream

Stir Danish dessert into apple juice and water in saucepan. Bring to a full boil; boil for one minute, stirring constantly. Pour into serving bowl. Sprinkle lightly with sugar while warm to keep surface moist. Let cool. Then chill in refrigerator thre to four hours. Serve with light cream.

Danish Dessert with Fruit

2 cups water
1 package Danish dessert
1 cup well-drained fruit*
Light cream

Stir Danish dessert into water in saucepan. Bring to a full boil; boil for one minute, stirring constantly. Stir in fruit and pour dessert into serving bowl. Sprinkle lightly with sugar while warm to keep surface moist. Let cool. Then chill in refrigerator three to four hours. Serve with light cream.

*Fresh, canned or frozen fruits or berries may be used. Drain well before adding to Danish dessert.

Lyonnaise Noodles Add Variety to Meat

Here's a meat accompaniment that's easy to prepare and flavored just right.

Lyonnaise Noodles

1 tablespoon salt
3 quarts boiling water
8 ounces medium egg noodles (about 4 cups)
¼ cup butter or margarine
¼ cup finely chopped onion
1½ teaspoons paprika
2 tablespoons chopped chives.

Add salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add noodles so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander.

Meanwhile melt butter over low heat; add onion and cook until soft. Mix in paprika well. Toss with cooked noodles; sprinkle with chives. Makes 6 servings.

Lower Heat to Simmer

When you find the word "simmer" in a recipe, remember that it means to cook in liquid just below the boiling point. If you watch the food that is simmering, you'll see that bubbles form slowly and break below the surface of the liquid. Always use low heat when simmering food.

Sugar 'n' Spice Please Menfolk

It'll be love at first bite when the man in your life tastes this baked spice pudding. And no wonder! This pudding is made of sugar and spice and other things men call nice.

But don't just take our word. Set this baked spice pudding before your king and listen to the compliments that signify a royal welcome. And while you're about it, give yourself a little pat on the back for having packed delicious taste, good nutrition and thrift all in the same easy-to-make dish.

It's a feat made easy because you've used whole wheat cereal, which is thrifty in itself and provides health-important whole-grain nutrients.

BAKED SPICE PUDDING—This baked spice pudding is a real man-pleaser. It takes two spices, cinnamon and cloves, combines them with whole wheat cereal, brown sugar, raisins and nuts; together they make a flavorful dessert, thrifty and nutritious.

Baked Spice Pudding

- 1½ cups water
- ¾ teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- ½ teaspoon ground cloves
- ½ cup uncooked instant or regular whole wheat cereal
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup milk
- ½ cup brown sugar, firmly packed
- ½ cup seedless raisins
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- ¼ cup chopped nuts (can omit)

Heat oven to moderate (350). Grease six-cup baking dish. Bring water and salt to boil in six-cup saucepan. Mix spices with instant or regular whole wheat cereal. Stir into boiling, salted water so slowly boiling does not stop.

Add butter and cook three minutes, stirring now and then. Remove from heat. Beat eggs slightly and stir in milk. Add to cereal with rest of ingredients. Mix well.

Pour into greased dish. Set in pan of hot water. Bake on rack slightly below center one hour, or until knife inserted near outer edge comes out clean. Serve warm or cold with milk, cream or lemon sauce. Makes eight average servings.

Marinate Vegetables in Tangy Dressing

Cook some extra vegetables when you are preparing lunch or dinner. Refrigerate them and the next day mix them together and marinate them with a tangy French dressing. Serve on crisp salad greens for a delicious accompaniment to meat, fish or poultry.

You'll find diced carrots, green peas, snap beans and small green lima beans are delectable served this way. Top the salad with a spoonful of mayonnaise, just before serving, if you like.

Ice Cream in Tart Shell With Pineapple Bits!

Here's a perfect dessert for one of your spring parties: Fill baked tart shells with a scoop of ice cream, then spoon crushed pineapple or tidbits over it. Or fill shells with a cream filling made with packaged vanilla pudding. Cool and garnish with drained pineapple and whipped cream.

Another idea is to fill tart shells with drained pineapple and top with a fluff of cream cheese whipped smooth with a little milk.

Quick Lunch Dish

Season cheese sauce with mustard, paprika and Worcestershire sauce and serve over sliced hard-cooked eggs and buttered toast for a savory luncheon dish.

Stuffing for Chicken Has Old-Time Flavor

Buttery bread crumbs and onion give this roast-chicken stuffing old-fashioned flavor.

Old-time Onion Stuffing

- 1 medium-size onion
- ⅓ cup butter or margarine
- 4 cups tiny cubes soft bread
- ¾ teaspoon salt, pepper
- 1 tablespoon water

Peel onion; dice fine; there should be from 1/3 to ½ cup. Melt butter in skillet over low heat; add onion and cook, stirring often, until almost softened but not brown.

Add bread, salt and pepper (to taste) to skillet; stir with fork over very low heat until bread is completely mixed with fat. Mix in water. Use as stuffing for 4-pound (dressed weight) chicken that is to be roasted.

Wax Metal Fixtures

Paste wax may be applied to metal fixtures a few times a year to help keep them rust-free.

Souffle Is Delicious for Lunch or Supper

You'll like the flavor and texture of this souffle-type lunch or supper dish.

Tomato Cheese Souffle

- ¾ cup tomato juice
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon quick-cooking rice cereal
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- ¼ cup grated American cheese
- 3 eggs separated

Place tomato juice and salt in saucepan and heat to scalding. Sprinkle in quick-cooking rice cereal, stirring constantly until thickened. Cover and simmer over low heat for 3 minutes.

Remove from heat and stir in butter and grated cheese. Beat egg yolks until lemon colored and gradually pour in the rice mixture, stirring constantly. Allow to cool. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry and cut and fold into rice mixture.

Pour into buttered 1-quart deep baking dish. Bake in 325 oven until puffed high and a rich golden brown, about 35 to 40 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Salmon Macaroni Dinner

1 cup elbow macaroni
6 cups boiling water
2 teaspoons salt
1 can cream of celery soup
½ cup Pet Evaporated Milk
¼ cup finely cut pimiento
1 cup grated American cheese
1-lb. can salmon

Cook macaroni until tender in boiling water and salt. Drain, but do not rinse. Mix in 2-quart bowl the soup, milk and pimiento. Add ⅓ cup cheese. Stir in macaroni. Drain salmon and break into pieces with fork. Add to macaroni mixture. Pour into 1½-quart greased baking dish. Sprinkle remaining ⅓ cup cheese around edge of dish. Bake on center rack of 350 oven (moderate) about 25 minutes, or until bubbly hot. Makes 4 servings.

Drop or Bar Cookies Are Easier to Pack

When you are sending cookies to your boy or girl at college, choose the bar type of cookie, or the big soft drop variety.

These two kinds are good travelers if you wrap them individually and cushion your layers with plenty of plastic straw. Be sure to choose a sturdy cardboard box in which to pack the cookies.

Honeyed Pears Sweeten Meal

Winter pears grace the grocer's shelves now and are economical to buy. Spruce them up with a little honey, a dash of lemon juice and you have a dessert that will give that good feeling at the end of the meal.

Part of a dessert's appeal is the way it is served. The picture above offers a suggestion for serving. Or use your own imagination and serve the pears right in the shallow casserole you baked them in.

When you bake fruit with honey, the delicate flavor of honey permeates the fruit. Sweeten fruit with honey just once and you'll find yourself reaching for the honey container often.

Honey Baked Pears

8 pear halves
¼ cup lemon juice
⅓ cup honey
2 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon cinnamon

Arrange pears in shallow buttered baking dish. Pour over the lemon juice and honey. Sprinkle with cinnamon and dot with butter. Bake in moderate oven at 350. Serve hot with cream as dessert.

Check Up on Proteins

Many authorities today believe that half or more of the daily protein intake of a normal adult should be complete protein from such foods as meat, poultry, fish, eggs, milk, and cheese. For children and teenagers, the recommended proportion is two-thirds to three-fourths. The balance may be supplied by supplementary proteins in cereals and vegetables.

HONEY-BAKED PEARS—Honey-baked pears will satisfy that urge for something sweet to close the meal. They are appetizing, decorative and sweet. They are good tasting, too. Serve extra honey on the table for those who like their pears sweeter.

Pre-Packaged Food Trend Puts 1,600 Firms to Work

ST. LOUIS (INS)—One of women's traditional prerogatives is rapidly disappearing.

Increased acceptance by housewives of pre-packaged fruits and vegetables is bringing closer the day when a woman will no longer be able to pick over the tomatoes, "sample" the grapes or strip off the outer leaves of a lettuce during a shopping trip.

And strangely, according to members of the Produce Prepacking Association, the nation's homemakers don't seem to mind.

Robert A. Cooper, secretary of the Association, explained that the women are pleased, instead, because they see the newest development in the food industry making their lives easier.

"Use of the pre-packaged produce saves the housewife time, brings her items with a new freshness, convenience and economy," he maintains.

Using spinach as an example, because it has been most acceptable to shoppers, Cooper said that a pre-packaged unit of the vegetable comes already washed, screened for spoiled or unripe leaves and with all waste cut away.

The cost, he said, of spinach and all pre-packaged produce is largely the same as fresh fruits and vegetables because lower freight charges, less spoilage and reduced labor costs cover the packaging expense.

"A housewife who fixes her dinner with pre-packaged vegetables, potatoes and a fruit dessert can save anywhere from 15 to 30 minutes over the woman who uses other types of fresh produce," he added.

Cooper notes the growth of the industry from less than a dozen pre-packing firms before World War II to more than 1,600 today.

Grocers, according to Cooper, are happy to see the expansion of the trend because the prepackaged items have a shelf-life of about 11 days, compared with five and one-half days for bulk produce.

The store owners also feel they will save most of the previous loss from "sampling" and picking.

They have found that the average women buying a lettuce picks up six heads, squeezing them or removing the outer leaf—before making her final choice. Many of those picked over become unsaleable.

Cooper says the preference for pre-packaged items has grown so that over 90 per cent of fresh cranberries are now sold that way and more than half of our spinach, tomatoes, mushrooms, kale and brussels sprouts are sold in packages.

Cheese Biscuits Complement Meal

These cheese biscuits have fine flavor.

Cheese Biscuits

2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
6 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 cup grated American cheese
2-3 cup milk

Mix and sift flour, baking powder, salt. Cut in butter until it is in tiny particles. Stir in cheese. Add milk all at once.

Mix quickly until ingredients are just moistened.

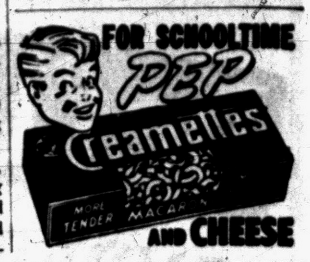

Knead a few seconds on lightly floured board. Roll or pat ½-inch thick. Cut with floured biscuit cutter; place on cookie sheet. Brush with milk.

Bake in 450 oven 12 to 15 minutes or until golden brown. Makes 20 small biscuits.

U.S. Offers Free Booklet on Ways to Cook Rabbit

As an aid to homemakers who may never have tried to cook rabbit, home economists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture have prepared a new booklet on rabbit cookery.

Single copies of the booklet, "Ways to Cook Rabbit," giving general cooking directions and about 20 recipes may be obtained free from the Office of Information, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

PORK CHOP ROAST—This unusual roast is made with pork chops on long skewers. In between each chop is a rich delicious nut stuffing.

Nuts are excellent sources of protein. By using them to supplement the meat, fewer chops per person are needed.

Use Filbert Bits to Glorify Chops

You'll really enjoy this porkchop recipe from Seattle. Both Washington and Oregon grow filbert nuts, delicious kernels of protein, fat, vitamins and minerals with a rich flavor.

To glorify your roast loin of pork, first cut into chops. Then stuff with a filbert stuffing and skewer the chops together before baking.

It is easy to serve and with a protein-rich filbert stuffing, it will economically stretch the budget when entertaining a large group.

Pork-Chop Roast with Filberts

6 pork loin chops
1 cup filberts, coarsely chopped
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
⅓ cup chopped onion
½ cup chopped celery
4 cups toasted bread cubes
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ to 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning
1 cup bouillon or consomme

Melt butter in small frying pan. Add onion and celery and saute until tender. Combine remaining stuffing ingredients. Add onions and celery and mix lightly.

Place pork chops on long skewers with about 1 cup stuffing pressed between each one.

Place in baking pan. Bake uncovered about 1½ hours at 325 degrees. Garnish with sprigs of parsley. Serves 6.

New England Dinner Especially Good Now

A hearty New England boiled dinner is "seasonal" in midwinter especially when the corned beef is boiled by itself so that the accompanying vegetables retain their own distinctive flavor.

Add two bay leaves, two cloves of garlic and a large onion to the water in which the corned beef is cooked. There'll be less shrinkage if it's cooked for a longer period over a low gas flame, instead of attempting to expedite the operation by boiling it violently.

Buttered cabbage, steamed whole carrots and boiled potatoes garnished with parsley butter—each cooked by itself—are suggested to round out the main course.

Don't be in a hurry to clean your toaster right after using it! Make sure it's cool and disconnected.

Peppers Pep Up Meals, Provide Extra Vitamins

AUBURN, Ala. (INS) — Pep up meals with vitamin-rich green peppers, says Dorothy Overbey, consumer education specialist at Alabama Polytechnic Institute in Auburn.

"One medium-sized green pepper," she reminded housewives, "furnishes more than the daily requirements of Vitamin C and it also provides small amounts of riboflavin, thiamine, and niacin, as well as some calcium, iron and phosphorus."

Look for bright, shiny peppers that are firm, mature and well-shaped, she added, pointing out that they add flavor to salads, sandwich fillings and relishes.

Bite-Size Cereals Make Appetizing Croutons

Here's a new kind of crouton: Melt a little butter or margarine in a heavy skillet over low heat; add some bite-size shredded rice or wheat biscuits and a sprinkling of salt.

Stir the tiny biscuits over low heat for several minutes to toast and coat with butter. Sprinkle over bowls of tomato or split pea soup for something good!

The rich, tangy flavor turns everyday foods into nutritious "Oriental" treats! Adds appetizing zest to Chop Suey, Chow Mein, meats, fish, chicken, gravies, baked beans, etc.

Sausage Bakes in Spicy Sauce

A quickly made barbecue sauce perks up the flavor and appearance of highly economical sausage meat in this recipe. No long cooking time is necessary as with similar recipes. The loaves, too, are a simpl combination of sausage and corn flakes, seasoned moderately with onions and salt.

With the sauce poured over the loaves while baking, the result is a rich, spicy, tasty entree that's very inexpensive. One pound of sausage makes 6 servings.

Individual Barbecued Sausage Loaves

4 cups corn flakes
1 pound bulk pork sausage
¾ cup milk
2 tablespoons minced onions
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup catsup
2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
2 drops Tabasco sauce
½ cup chopped onions

Crush corn flakes slightly; combine with sausage, milk, onions, egg and salt; mix well. Shape into 6 individual loaves. Place in greased shallow pan.

Combine catsup, Worcestershire sauce, tabasco sauce and onions in small saucepan and heat to boiling point. Pour over loaves. Bake in 350 oven about 50 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Cream Cheese Spread Enlivens Gingerbread

Here's a way to dress up that gingerbread you've made from a handy package.

Soften a small package of cream cheese and gradually add enough light cream or homogenized milk to make it fluffy; now mix in some chopped maraschino cherries, sliced dates and nutmeats. Put a generous spoonful of this delicious topping on each square of warm gingerbread as you serve it.

Dental Scientists Working on Protection of Enamel

Dental scientists may have struck pay dirt in their efforts to reduce dental decay. If so, the average American can hope to have his sweets, yet have fewer decayed, missing and filled teeth than at present. But it is yet to be proved.

To lessen the degree of decay, dental scientists have studied the use of "chemical barricades"—the newly talked of anti-enzymes.

Anti - enzyme protection is based on the widely held theory that decay is caused by acids attacking the enamel of teeth; acids that are produced by the action of bacteria on foods containing high levels of sugar, foods that many people enjoy.

The little demons that cause the fermentation use enzymes as their tools to change sugar rapidly into enamel destroying acids. Those foods recognized as carbohydrate foods because they contain starch, such as enriched bread or cereals, have not been a dental threat.

The enzymes break down these products so slowly that saliva can neutralize any acids formed in the process.

This theory is seen in action in countries such as Italy where 70 per cent of the calories are obtained from bread, spaghetti and macaroni. An Italian 60-year old person can be expected to have as good teeth as a 13-year old American child.

If any part of the cycle—from sugar to acid—can be interrupted, dental decay can be slowed to a walk. Research has turned to chemicals which may toss the proverbial monkey wrench into the mouth bacterial machine.

These chemicals inactivate the enzymes which are necessary for acid production. From tests with thousands of subjects, two materials with tongue twisting names —sodium lauroyl sarcosinate and sodium dehydroacetate, hold the most promise.

Because these tongue twisters are absorbed by the film which covers the teeth their protection lasts for several hours.

It is hoped that evidence from clinical tests on tooth pastes containing the anti-enzymes will demonstrate that these "chemical barricades" are as effective in prevention of dental decay as the theory now indicates.

Winter Eggs Used to Be Scarce as Hen's Teeth

Angel food cake is in season now — as are other dishes calling for generous amounts of eggs. Homemakers of 20 years ago were careful how they used eggs in the winter time.

But thanks to the "modern" hen who lays more and more eggs each week during the winter, today's homemakers needn't exercise economy in the use of eggs during this season.

Dunk Cookies in Creamy Dip

Getting people up from the dining table and into the living room is often a problem when you entertain. Why not try serving dessert, as well as coffee, in the living room itself? Cream-and-Coffee Dip is just perfect for this purpose — quick to serve, easy on the eye and fun to eat.

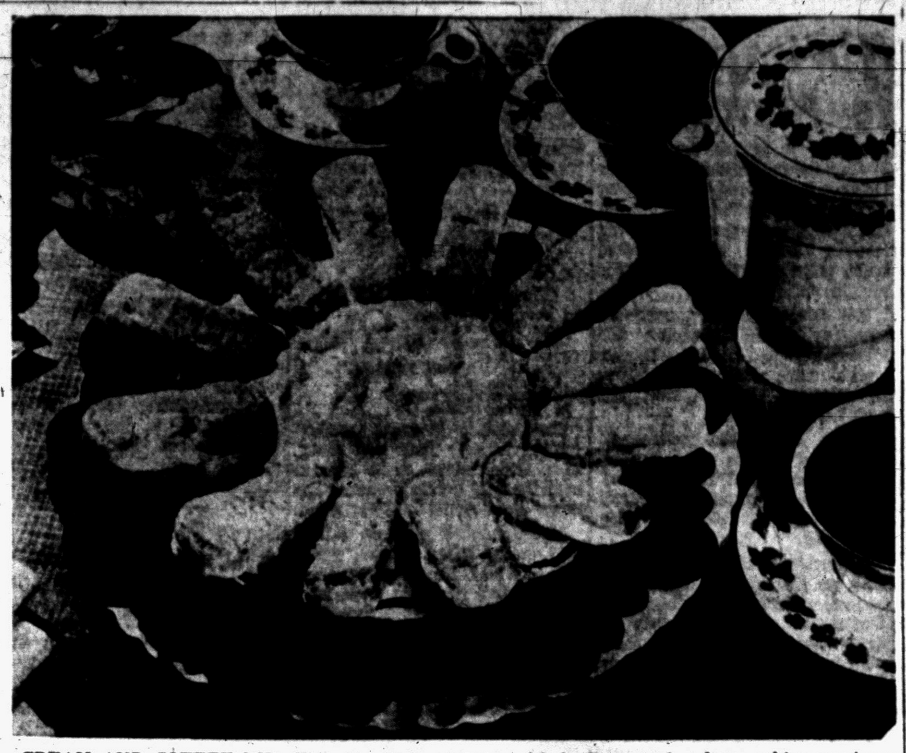

You won't need dessert plates or silver — just napkins! The lady-fingers and cookies are dunked and devoured, accompanied by plenty of freshly fragrant coffee.

Besides helping the transition from room to room, this original and delicious dessert will provoke plenty of conversation — and compliments.

Cream-and-Coffee-Dip

2 tablespoons strong, cold coffee
1 cup chilled whipping cream
1 teaspoon rum flavoring
6 tablespoons very fine granulated sugar

Add coffee to cream; beat until fluffy. Add flavoring. Add sugar gradually, continuing to beat until stiff. Serve with lady-fingers, gingersnaps and chocolate snaps. Makes six servings.

CREAM AND COFFEE DIP—This dessert is a real conversation piece. It's a delightful dessert for informal entertaining. Everyone picks up his choice of lady fingers, chocolate cookies or ginger snaps and dunks them in the creamy dip.

Molasses Bread Good in Winter

Any day is a fine day to treat your family to a special home-made bread. Molasses Bread is a nice homey bread, one that goes well with winter meals such as casseroles.

Slice it thin, spread with butter and serve with afternoon tea.

Molasses Bread

2½ cups sifted enriched flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 egg
¼ cup sugar
⅓ cup molasses
¼ cup melted shortening
1 teaspoon shredded lemon rind
¾ cup buttermilk or sour cream
1 cup raisins (if desired)

Sift together flour, baking powder, soda, salt and cinnamon. Beat egg until light. Add sugar, molasses, shortening and lemon rind. Beat well. Add flour mixture to egg mixture alternately with buttermilk or sour milk.

Fold in raisins. Pour into greased loaf pan 4½x8½ inches. Bake in 350 oven 60 to 75 minutes. Makes 1 loaf.

Cake Glaze Enhanced by Toasted Coconut

Tired of the same old cake frostings? Try this new one for a taste treat:

Combine 6 tablespoons melted butter, 2-3 cup brown sugar, 1 cup shredded coconut and ½ teaspoon vanilla. Spread over your baked cake while still in pan. Brown slowly about 5 inches from broiler gas flame until coconut is delicately toasted.

Vegetable Sauce Piquant Topping on Baked Fillets

Halibut fillets are good eating any way they are fixed. Try this recipe for baking them with a creamy vegetable sauce. Serve with boiled potatoes and pineapple cole slaw.

Baked Fish Fillets

1½ to 2 pounds halibut fillets
2 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1½ cups milk

Brush fish fillets on all sides with melted butter; sprinkle with salt and pepper. Place in baking dish and cover with milk. Bake uncovered in 350 oven for 30 minutes or until fish flakes easily with a fork. Drain off liquid, measure 1½ cups and use for sauce. Serve fish with vegetable sauce. Garnish with lemon wedges or parsley. Serves 4 to 6.

Vegetable Sauce

3 tablespoons butter
¼ cup finely minced onion
¼ cup finely diced celery, or
1 teaspoon celery seed
3 tablespoons flour
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1½ cups milk

Melt butter, add onion and celery, cook until tender or about 5 minutes over low heat, stir occasionally but do not brown. Blend in flour and seasonings. Gradually add milk while stirring; cook until smooth and thick, stirring constantly. Serve hot with fish. Makes 1½ cups sauce.

Thermometer Helps

Use a yeast or dairy thermometer when you are baking bread so that you can test the temperature of the scalded milk and other ingredients, and take the temperature of the rising dough.

Pretty Dish for Brunch

Here's something pretty and good to eat for Sunday brunch. Line individual baking dishes with thin slices of broiled ham; fill with creamed chicken and heat in the oven.

For a golden-brown top, put the dishes under the broiler for a minute. Garnish with sprigs of parsley.

Candy No Trick to Make When Recipe Is Foolproof

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Candy making is not one of our specialties. But we had a half hour of fun recently when we made candy as a demonstration for some charming senior citizens, the Golden Age group of the YWCA.

MRS. ODELL

We chose three quick candy recipes, ones that looked foolproof. They were. We made Fruit-filled Coconut Fudge with a box of fudge mix. Then we mixed a batch of Vitamin-Filled Fudge Creams. Finally we dipped marshmallows in melted caramels and rolled them in chopped roasted almonds.

The fudge mix that comes in boxes is good, though not exactly the fudge we remember mother making years ago. But it's good, it's quick, it's easy to make.

The kind we used is made by a company that manufactures a well-known dessert. It is a fudge that can be used to make delicious pie fillings. When you make up a batch, all you do is to replace the water that has been taken out.

Follow the simple directions on the package, then vary your candy in one of the ways suggested below. We added chopped raisins to the vanilla coconut mix.

Chocolate-Mallow Rolls

Make chocolate fudge as directed on the package. Before pouring, stir in 1 teaspoon rum extract. When cool, work 6 quartered marshmallows and 2 tablespoons chopped candied cherries into fudge. Do this with your hands (well greased so fudge doesn't stick).

When cherries and marshmallows are well distributed, shape fudge into a roll. Wrap in wax paper. Chill. Cut in slices ½ to 1-inch thick.

Stuffed Dates

Make penuche fudge. Do not pour; instead, remove from heat and cool fudge slightly. Fill pitted dates with a teaspoonful of penuche. Enough for 40-50 dates.

The second candy, the one full of vitamins, was Vitamin Fudge Creams. Made with cream cheese and nearly a cup of wheat germ, this is a nutritious sweet to make for children. In fact, they could easily make this candy themselves.

Vitamin Fudge Creams

1 package cream cheese (3 ounces)
½ cup powdered sugar
2 tablespoons cocoa
Salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
¾ cup wheat germ
¼ cup chopped nuts (optional)

Mash the cream cheese with a fork. When soft, mix in the sugar, cocoa and wheat germ. Add salt and vanilla and nuts, if desired. Knead with the hands until the candy is well mixed and smooth. Drop by spoonfuls on waxed paper. Chill.

For the third quick confection we melted a pound of plain caramels with four tablespoons of hot water (be sure to do this in a double boiler). Keeping the sauce over hot water, we dipped marshmallows in it, then rolled them in chopped almonds. This candy needs also to be chilled for a time.

The next time the children don't know what to do on a rainy day, let them make some quick candy. If you ask guests in on the spur of the moment, make up some of these sweets.

Maybe we can find enough different recipes for quick and easy candies to earn a reputation for good candy making. We'll pass our finds on to you.

Use soap or a mild detergent on your kitchen range when you are cleaning it. They're easier on the range's finish than is an abrasive-type cleaning powder.

TURKEY TARTS—Crispy corn-meal shells filled with turkey a la king is a delicious dish that's fit for the finest party. Garnish each tart with a pastry turkey. Serve with relishes, buttered broccoli and fruit for dessert.

Orange, Onion Rings Make Tasty Salad

Give your family a change in their salad diet and try this delightful combination.

Orange and Onion Ring Salad

¼ cup salad oil
¼ cup evaporated milk
2 tablespoons cider vinegar
1 small clove garlic (peeled and slightly crushed)
½ teaspoon salt
1-16 teaspoon pepper
Lettuce or romaine
Membrane-free round orange slices (about ¼ inch thick)
Thin onion rings (soaked in cold water for about 1 hour and drained)

Put oil, evaporated milk, vinegar, garlic, salt and pepper into jar that holds at least half a pint. Cover tightly and shake vigorously for about a minute. Chill. (Makes about 2-3 cup dressing). At serving time arrange lettuce on salad plates; top with orange and onion. Remove garlic from dressing, shake vigorously for about a minute, and spoon over salads in desired proportions.

Shrimp-Ham Jambalaya Is Mardi Gras Specialty

Each year at this time there's a very special celebration in New Orleans, one of the most colorful cities of the nation. It's Mardi Gras time — a season of all-out festivity during which masked balls, private parties and parades are the order of the day.

The festival extends over the eight-day period preceding Ash Wednesday and ends with the world-famous celebration on Mardi Gras, or Fat Tuesday, which this year falls on March 2.

Long after the excitement, crowds of tourists will return to their homes with memories of the colorful pageantry, warm hospitality and, above all, the fine food.

Distinctive Louisiana specialties, such as Shrimp and Ham Jambalaya, reflect the Spanish and French influence of the early settlers. Even though you may not plan to have a Mardi Gras party, it's a festive dish that's ideal for entertaining any time. Because it's hearty, only a big salad is needed.

Shrimp and Ham Jambalaya

2 pounds shrimp
1 slice precooked smoked ham (½-inch thick), cubed
2 tablespoons olive oil
2 small white onions, chopped
1 green pepper, chopped
1 clove garlic, minced
1 bay leaf, crushed
1½ cups uncooked rice
2 cups water
1 No. 2½ can whole tomatoes
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon black pepper
½ teaspoon paprika

Cook shrimp in court bouillon (recipe below). Shell and clean. In a large skillet, saute ham in ham fat until lightly browned. Remove from skillet and set aside.

Measure olive oil into skillet. Add onion, green pepper, garlic and bay leaf. Cook until onion is tender. Add rice and cook, stirring constantly, until browned.

Add water, tomatoes and seasonings; mix well. Cover and cook, stirring occasionally, until rice is tender, about 30 minutes. If mixture becomes too dry, add water.

When rice is cooked, add shrimp and ham. Continue to cook until shrimp are heated, about 10 minutes. (If desired, transfer to a casserole and heat over a candlelit warming stand or in 425 oven until shrimp are heated.)

Serve immediately with a tossed green salad and French bread. Makes 6-8 servings.

Court Bouillon

2 quarts water
1 tablespoon mixed pickling spices
1 teaspoon salt
½ stalk celery (optional)

Combine all ingredients in large saucepan. Bring water to boil. Add shrimp as indicated above. Return to boil, then reduce heat. Simmer 5 minutes. Drain shrimp. Cool quickly.

Beef-Oatmeal Loaf Fits Family of Four

This small beef loaf is fine for a family of four.

Oatmeal Loaf

1 egg
½ cup milk
½ cup quick-cooking rolled oats
¾ teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
½ teaspoon prepared mustard
1 tablespoon chili sauce
1 tablespoon finely grated onion (pulp and juice)
1 pound ground beef chuck

Beat egg and milk together enough to combine; add rolled oats and allow to stand about 10 minutes. Mix in salt, pepper, mustard, chili sauce, onion and beef. Press into small loaf pan (about 7 by 4 inches); run spatula around edges and turn out on shallow baking pan or ovenproof platter. Bake in moderate (350F) oven 50 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Add a little lemon juice to buttered crumbs when you are using them as a topping for vegetables such as snap beans, frozen or canned asparagus, or cauliflower.

Serve With Snacks

PINEAPPLE CHEESE DIP: An easily prepared dip to serve with pretzels or potato chips is this combination: Add ½ cup well-drained crushed pineapple to 3 ounces of cream cheese. Blend well.

Turkey a la King in Shells Is Good Enough for Party

Turkey a la king served in crisp corn-meal shells is a dish to base a party on.

The dainty shells of corn-meal pastry look professional yet are truly easy to duplicate.

Form the corn-meal pastry over the backs of muffin cups or custard cups. The tarts can be baked the day before and reheated for a few minutes before serving with the hot filling.

Turkey Tarts

Corn-Meal Tart Shells

1½ cups sifted enriched flour
¾ cup enriched corn meal
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon caraway seed (optional)
½ cup shortening
⅓ cup water

Sift together flour, corn meal, salt and baking powder. Add caraway seed if desired. Cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs.

Add water a little at a time, until dough will just hold together. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead gently a few seconds.

Roll dough out to form a rectangle 9x18 inches. Cut into six 4½-inch squares.

Shape squares over bottom of muffin or custard cups. Prick entire surface of each with a fork. Cut the leftover strip of dough into 6 little turkeys with a floured turkey cutter. Use whole cloves for eyes. Place turkeys on a cookie sheet. Bake tarts and turkeys in 450 oven. The turkeys will be baked in 9 to 10 minutes, the tarts in 12 to 15.

Turkey a la King

¾ cup sliced mushrooms
¼ cup chopped green pepper
¼ cup butter
¼ cup flour
¼ teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
2 cups milk
2½ to 3 cups cut-up cooked turkey
¼ cup chopped pimiento

Brown mushrooms and green pepper in butter in a frying pan. Add flour and seasonings, blending well. Add milk slowly, mixing until well combined.

Cook over low heat until the mixture is thickened. Stir in turkey and pimiento. Continue cooking for several minutes.

Fill shells with hot turkey a la king mixture and decorate each with a pastry turkey perched on the top.

Makes 6 tarts.

Blend ¼ cup soft butter with ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon paprika, 1 teaspoon finely chopped onion and 1 teaspoon minced parsley. Spread or dot on steaks.

Use Ice Cream as Real Food, Not for Parties

Below are given some interesting facts about the uses of milk. Check yourself as you read them to see whether you are getting your full quota of milk and milk products.

As a group, women consume less milk than men. Older women use less than younger women. Check your own milk drinking habits. You need milk at all ages, so that you get sufficient calcium each day.

Cottage cheese is an excellent food to have on hand during Lent. For fast days, cottage cheese can form the basis of many delicious salads and sandwiches. Its high quality protein will contribute much to meatless meals.

Ice cream is a real food. Consider it as part of every day meals, not just as a party food. The simple lunch at school, or near the office is more nutritious if ice cream is added.

To get more milk into the family diet, use liberal amounts of milk on morning cereal. Serve cream soups and vegetables, rice pudding, custards, and escalloped dishes often.

More Children to Be Cared For

Disturbed Youngsters Will Be Treated at U-M Pending New Hospital

ANN ARBOR — As part of its expansion program in the field of hospitalizing emotionally disturbed children, the University of Michigan Hospital has announced that alternations of present facilities now permit more young patients to be treated.

Dr. Albert C. Kerlikowske, hospital director, also says that plans for the new psychiatric unit have been submitted to contractors for bidding this month. Construction is expected to begin in late spring.

The new $2,000,000 psychiatric unit containing 75 beds will be built with funds allocated by the State Legislature. There will be three 16-bed divisions for seriously disturbed children and a 27-bed division for convalescents.

Meanwhile, the present hospital facilities in the Children's Service of the Neuropsychiatric Institute (NPI) are being enlarged.

"The mounting tension in the adolescent group makes it imperative that we push through our expansion program to its completion as speedily as possible," Dr. Kerlikowske declared.

Enlargement of existing hospital quarters is being made possible by the relinquishment of approximately 2,500 square feet from the main hospital building.

Upon completion of the new psychiatric unit of the Children's Hospital, expected two years from the breaking of the ground, the existing hospital facilities then will be available for the care of adolescents.

At that time the hospital's program for emotionally disturbed youngsters will have reached its first mark: a new psychiatric unit for children and a separate residential unit for older emotionally disturbed adolescents.

Little Wiggle Brings Offers, Movie Contract

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — It's strange what a little wiggle can do.

It was just such a thing that started Lana Turner and Marilyn Monroe on the road to stardom. Now the same thing is happening to a luscious blonde charmer who calls herself Sheree North.

The doll appeared on Bing Crosby's first TV show and played an Irma-like role with Bing and Jack Benny. Toward the end of the show she flung off her skirt and went through a dance routine that sizzled the cables. Also the sponsor and some irate TV viewers

"The dance was criticized as a burlesque routine," she recalls. "It wasn't.

* * *

"Actually, the routine was not as bad as some people made it out to be. It's just that it seemed wild after the easy pace of the show. People are used to a leisurely pace from Bing. When a girl throws off her skirt and does a fast dance number after he has been on, it's something of a shock.

"I realized this, and that's why I picked the most conservative choreographer I knew. The trouble was that I didn't have time to learn the routine. I had been laid up for two months with a broken arch. I had only a couple of hours to rehearse the dance. Then they shot it mostly from the waist up. When you have a girl jitterbugging to the 'One o'Clock Jump,' it's bound to look a bit sensational."

That's putting it mildly. But while the protests poured in, so did the offers. The biggest was the possibility of filling out Monroe's "Pink Tights." She was given the most extensive test in recent years —in CinemaScope yet. Two days ago 20th Century-Fox signed her to a contract.

"I was really lucky," she remarked "With both 'Pink Tights' and 'The Egyptian' postponed, people had nothing to do on the lot. I was given the top director, cameraman and everything."

She gets another lucky break this Sunday. She'll star in the NBC Comedy Hour version of "Anything Goes," along with Ethel Merman, Frank Sinatra and Bert Lahr. The show is getting the red-carpet treatment with Leland Hayward doing his first producing job in TV since his sensational Ford anniversary show.

"I don't know whether I'm going to dance on the show," said Sheree. "I'm almost afraid to. I don't want to offend the mothers and fathers of America."

INTELLIGENCE CHANGES WITH COLOR—Hollywood's Corinne Calvet has become a blonde because she thinks she and husband John Bromfield "had started to look alike—people thought we were brother and sister." Now, says Corinne, "I have to learn how to be a little dumb. As a brunette I was intelligent, but as a blonde, men expect you to be otherwise."

Call Psychiatrist in Marine Case

Probers Seek Opinion on Colonel's Condition When He 'Confessed'

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Marine court of inquiry had a military psychiatrist on call today for an opinion on the mental state of Col. Frank H. Schwable when he signed a false germ warfare "confession."

There has been testimony that Schwable suffered mental torture, long solitary confinement and brutal mistreatment as a prisoner of the Communists in Korea.

* * *

Marine, Army and Air Force officers and enlisted men already have testified Schwable appeared unstable about the time he signed the concocted "confession," some seven months after he was captured.

Some witnesses have said they were convinced the 45-year-old flier's mind cracked under incessant grilling and punishment. Only one of Schwable's fellow passengers on a long truck ride from one prisoner of war camp to another has said Schwable appeared relatively normal at that time.

Court attorneys said expert testimony would be sought from Lt. Col. Vincent J. Cassone, a psychiatrist who examined Schwable following his repatriation. Cassone will be one of the last witnesses called before the four-member tribunal gives Schwable a chance to present his defense.

* * *

The court is holding hearings to decide whether a court-martial or other action should be recommended against Schwable.

His lawyer, Col. Paul Sherman, said he hopes to call Maj. Gen. William S. Dean to the stand next Thursday. Dean was the highest ranking United Nations officer captured by the Reds. He has said he once attempted suicide out of fear he might give away military secrets to Communist interrogators.

The final witness at yesterday's session, Marine Capt. Ammanuel R. Amann of St. Louis, said everybody who knew Schwable was convinced he would not have signed the germ warfare statement unless he had been brought "to the absolute end of his capacity to resist."

Name Pittsburgh Official Adrian College President

ADRIAN (AP) — Clarence C. Klein, administrator of the Pittsburgh Housing Authority, resigned today to accept the presidency of Adrian College.

He becomes Adrian College's fourteenth president Sept. 1.

Klein for the last nine years has been the executive head of the Pittsburgh authority, which owns and operates some 7,000 dwelling units. It is considered one of the best managed public housing projects in the United States.

Man Demands Examination

Suspect in $6,200 Theft at Fox and Hound Inn Unable to Post Bond

A Flint man accused of taking part in the $6,200 Fox and Hounds Inn holdup last November demanded examination Wednesday when arraigned before Bloomfield Hills Judge Alva J. Richardson.

The man, Johnny Graham, 37, was unable to post a $25,000 bond and was returned to the County Jail to await examination next Wednesday.

Graham was arrested Saturday by Pontiac police when they stopped a car in which he was riding and which had a stolen license plate.

Police said the car's registration indicated it was the same one used in the Bloomfield Hills holdup.

The driver of the car, Nathanial Moore, 29, of 356 Howard McNeill St., held for investigation of auto theft at the time, was released Tuesday.

Another suspect, James T. Suttles, 30, of 1685 Kendall, is in the County Jail awaiting trial for the robbery. A third suspect, Charles E. Clark, of Gary, Ind., was arrested there last week following a $50 holdup. A fourth man believed to have taken part in the crime is being sought.

Pompeii was destroyed by an earthquake in 63 A. D., rebuilt, and finally buried by a volcanic eruption in 79 A. D.

London Papers Greet Graham on Front Pages

LONDON (INS)—London newspapers today followed the example set by Britons in giving a rousing reception to Evangelist Billy Graham, some putting the story on page on with headlines and photos.

The London Daily Mail discussed Graham's arrival editorially, comparing the evangelist with Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy to the detriment of both.

The paper said of Graham's three-month London crusade, that it "is one of those American activities which are not welcome here."

The Daily Sketch printed a signed article by Graham in which he said:

"God sent me to Britain."

The evangelist added:

"There was something thrilling and frightening about beginning an all-out campaign in the largest city in the world. Never before have I been so humbled by a project."

Of his reception by 1,000 hymn-singing Londoners at Waterloo Station Thursday Graham said:

"Even Hollywood didn't put on a show like that."

For three months Graham will preach every night except Sunday at London's Harringay Arena, which seats 11,000 persons.

Four door sedans, which accounted for 42 per cent of all passenger car sales in 1940, have climbed in popularity to the point where they now account for 54 per cent, replacing the two-door sedan as the most popular body style.

A-Bills to Take Several Months

Congress to Take Time Studying the Release of Atomic Data

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY) said today it will be "quite some time"—probably over two months—before Congress can act on President Eisenhower's proposal to give this nation's allies more atomic defense information.

Cole, chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, said the group now is closely studying proposed legislation forwarded by the administration.

* * *

The President requested, in a special Feb. 17 message, authority to exchange with America's allies "such tactical information as is essential to the development of defense plans and to the training of personnel for atomic warfare."

Cole said in an interview the committee would introduce a bill after it decides on a version it considers satisfactory.

He added the committee measure might not be ready until mid-April.

* * *

The committee is following the same procedure, he said, on the President's second main proposal, to permit private industry to operate nuclear facilities and deal in fissionable material as a means of encouraging the development of private power from atomic energy.

Committee members generally have expressed support for the President's program, but nearly all of them have stressed the complexity of legislation needed to carry it out.

The problem in releasing more atomic information to Allied nations, they say, is to make sure no loopholes are opened for espionage.

Both County and City Report More Mumps and Chicken Pox

Oakland County folks came down with more cases of measles, mumps, chicken pox and scarlet fever last week than the week before.

A weekly report from the County Health Department, released by Dr. John D. Monroe, director, lists 170 new cases of measles last week, compared with 110 in the previous week.

Last week's chicken pox cases totaled 95, as against 63 the week before; mumps, 98, compared with 71 the week before, and scarlet fever cases, 16, compared with 12 the previous week.

The report, which covers all the county except Pontiac, follows:

	Past Week	Week Ending Feb. 13, '54	Feb. 21, '53
Chicken pox	95	63	205
Measles	170	110	32
Pneumonia (all forms)	1	0	1

Rubella	6	5	42
Hepatitis	2	1	1
Diarrhea	5	4	5
Meningococci meningitis	1	0	1
Meningitis (type uspec)	1	0	1

Pontiac City Health Department reported the city suffered from more mumps and chicken pox last week, too.

The city report, also released by Dr. Monroe, shows 11 new cases of chicken pox, compared with 7 the week before. Mumps cases totaled 16 last week, almost double the preceding week's 9 cases.

The city report reads as follows:

	Past Week	Week Ending Feb. 13, '54	Feb. 21, '53
Chicken pox	11	7	19
Gonorrhea	7	9	5
Measles	4	2	53

Delsing May Shift to Right Field, Tuttle to Center

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — The Detroit Tigers apparently are dead serious about their "rebuild-with-youth" program.

The Tigers are in desperate need of added pitching strength but Tuesday they refused to bid for Vic Raschi, 34-year-old Yankee ace who was peddled to the St. Louis Cardinals in a stunning move.

Then, yesterday, manager Fred Hutchinson indicated that Bill Tuttle, 24-year-old rookie from Buffalo, would be given every opportunity to win a berth in the outfield.

Hutchinson had said during the winter that Steve Souchock, veteran utility player, probably would be one of the Tigers' regular outfielders during the 1954 season. His statement didn't sit too well with the Tiger front office, which is looking ahead two, three and even four years.

So Souchock, who is 34, very likely will continue in his role as fill-in outfielder — first baseman and pinch hitter — a job which he does very well, by the way.

But getting back to Tuttle, Hutchinson said that he may shift Jim Delsing to right field and play Tuttle in centerfield.

"We definitely need an outfielder with his speed and throwing ability," Hutchinson said. "I already am considering putting him in centerfield and moving Delsing over to right, with Bob Nieman in left."

If this happened, it would leave Don Lund without a regular job. Lund played left and right fields last year but his average slipped to .257. Tigers probably feel Tuttle could match that figure.

Tuttle batted .276 for Buffalo last season, hitting 11 home runs, nine triples and 24 doubles. This indicates that he can hit a long ball on occasion.

Meanwhile, Hutchinson announced that for the 2nd straight year evening "skull" sessions would be held. These are the meetings when the players gather to talk over the "inside" tactics of the game.

Tigers worked under grey, windy skies Tuesday. The list of unsigned players remained at seven. Nothing was heard from pitchers Ralph Branca, Steve Gromek, Teddy Gray, Ned Garver; catcher Matt Batts and infielders Buddy Hicks and Johnny Pesky.

Rookie Is Key to Rebuilding Tiger Outfield

Young Lefty Clinches Job With Nats; Allie Sees 2-Way Work

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Detroit Tigers, who for years boasted some of the American League's finest outfield trios, today were making plans to reassemble another outfield—with a 24-year-old rookie the key man.

The center of the new setup planned by Manager Freddie Hutchinson is Bill Tuttle, a speedy flychaser from Elmwood, Ill.

He batted only .276 with Buffalo last season, but he hit 11 homers, drove in 75 runs and was regarded as one of the best defensive outfielders in the minor leagues.

* * *

"If Tuttle can prove to us he can hit the kind of pitching we'll face in spring training," Hutchinson said, "we'll make room for him. We sure could use his speed and defensive skills."

Lefty Bill Ross, another first-year man, has clinched a job with the Washington Senators.

Ross, who pitched for the Ft. Ord, Calif., Army base in 1953, has so impressed Bucky Harris that he was one of seven men listed by the veteran skipper as mound regulars.

"Ross is a cinch to stick," Harris declared. "He's come up with a curve ball to go with his fast one and he's matured a lot since we last saw him."

The youngster had a brief tryout with the Senators two years ago before he was called into the service.

* * *

The other pitchers assured of jobs, Harris said, were Bob Porterfield, Connie Marrero, Johnny Schmitz, Maury McDermott, Frank Shea and Chuck Stobbs.

* * *

Elsewhere in the spring training camps, pitchers Mike Blyzka and Riney Duren came up with minor injuries as the Baltimore Orioles went through their third workout . . . Harry Agganis, seeking the regular first base job, was outstanding in a Boston Red Sox batting drill . . . Allie Reynolds reported to the New York Yankees' camp and expressed his willingness to work at both starting and relief roles again this year.

Marciano Will Defend Against Ezzard in June

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Ezzard Charles will make a second try to shatter the ancient boxing legend that "they don't come back" when he Rocky Marciano in a 15-round title fight at Yankee Stadium June 17.

* * *

No former heavyweight ruler ever has been able to regain the crown and some of the best of them have tried, including Charles. Gentleman Jim Corbett was the only ex-champ to get two chances and he was flattened both times by burly Jim Jeffries.

"Then I guess it's up to Ezzard to break the record," said Tom Tannas, co-manager of the 32-year-old Cincinnati Negro, after the match was closed yesterday at the International Boxing Club.

* * *

"We're happy now that Ezzard was passed up by Marciano last September and that Roland LaStarza got the match instead," said Tannas. "Ezzard is much better now than he was last September.

"He didn't have confidence then. Those two knockouts over Coley Wallace and Bob Satterfield have boosted his confidence."

Marciano will collect 40 per cent of all receipts while Charles will receive 20 per cent under the terms arranged by President Jim Norris of the IBC, Tannas and Al Weill, manager of Marciano.

"It should gross about $500,000 or $600,000 at the gate," said Norris.

Norris said it has not been decided yet whether to show the fight on home television or to beam it to theaters but it looks like parlor fans are going to be out of luck.

Santee Shoots for Mile Mark on Indoor Boards

Kansan Wants to Add Record to Dirt Track Effort at MSC

By SKIPPER PATRICK

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Wes Santee is going after the world's indoor board mile record of 4 minutes 5.3 seconds in the Big Seven conference track meet here Saturday night.

Santee still insists he's capable of the dream 4-minute mile but the University of Kansas senior says he'll be happy with just beating the record set by Gil Dodds in New York Jan. 31, 1948.

A record on the boards in the meet would give the 6-foot 1-inch Santee a monopoly on the indoor miles. He took care of the dirt track indoor record in 4:04.9 at East Lansing, Mich., last week.

Although Santee and his coach, Bill Easton, would welcome the much talked about 4-minute mile Saturday both agree conditions will have to be better than the 12-lap offering and crowded track in Municipal Auditorium. The Michigan State stretch at East Lansing was 8 laps.

A record mile on the boards would be quite an accomplishment, too, considering Dodds had to make only 11 laps for his 4:05.3 record. In history of officially recognized mile runs, there have been only 14 run under 4 minutes 5 seconds, both indoor and outdoor.

Glenn Cunningham, also of Kansas university, ran a paced mile of 4:04.4 on the 6⅓ lap board track at Dartmouth university back in the 1930s. That one has never been recognized as a record.

In three seasons at Kansas, Santee has been clocked under 4:10, either officially or unofficially, 17 times. Some of his faster times have been as anchor man in either the 4-mile relay or distance medley relay.

Recognized world record on any surface was set by Gunder Haegg of Sweden at 4:01.4 in 1945.

Santee's 1st job in pacing Kansas to a 3rd straight Big Seven indoor title will be a new conference record in the 880-yard preliminaries Friday night. He set the half mile mark of 1:52.5 last year, in the trials.

Conference mile record of 4:08.3 went to Santee last winter without a challenge.

Lions Quintet Meets Shack Team; Jewelers Face U-D Frosh

Starting lineups were announced today for the Pontiac Parks & Recreation Department's benefit cage doubleheader Friday night in the Pontiac High School gymnasium.

Taking the floor for the Detroit Lions will be Bud Erickson (Lions' publicist) and Bob Carey (Rams' gridder) at forwards, Dorne Dibble at center, and Charlie Ane and Sonny Gandee at guards.

Also expected to see considerable action for the Lions are Lou Creekmur and Chicago Cardinal center Jack Simmons.

Opposing the Lions will be Chuck's Shack, with starters Tom Spencer and Bill York at forwards, Russ Hester at center, and Frank "Red" Wilson and Bob Thatcher at guards.

First game will match University of Detroit freshmen — forwards Chuck Pokorny of Lake Orion and Bill Ebben, center Phil Grimby and guards Jimmy Daily and Jack Stanton. Shaw's Jewelry coach Pat Glynn has not yet named his starters to face the Titan frosh.

'MSC Day' at Indiana

EAST LANSING (UP)—It will be Michigan State Day at Indiana University Saturday as three Spartan teams—track, swimming and wrestling — journey to Bloomington, Ind., for final dual meets before Big Ten conference competition gets under way.

Kentucky, Dukes, Seattle Eye Record Cage Streaks

NEW YORK (AP) — Post-season tournaments stand between Kentucky, Duquesne and Seattle and new major-college winning streak records, even if they complete their regular schedules unscathed, NCAA Service Bureau figures showed today.

Two important marks are involved. One is 27 straight victories, the best one-season performance, established last year by Seton Hall. The other is most victories in an undefeated season, a 24-0 record posted by Long Island University in 1936. Incidentally, that LIU mark was considered 26-0 until this year's "readjustment" to conform with the NCAA ruling that includes records made only against four-year degree - granting institutions.

Duquesne, which is also the No. 1 major team in defense, has a 22-0 record with four regular - season games left, including visits to Cincinnati Friday and to Dayton Saturday.

Kentucky, No. 2 in offense behind Frank Selvy-led Furman, also is 22-0 with two games to go, at Auburn Saturday and at Alabama Monday.

Seattle is 24-1, with 24 straight after an opening loss to Wichita, and winds up its regular schedule Friday and Saturday against Portland.

City 'B' Cage Crown Will Be Decided Tonight

Pontiac Merchants Keep Alive Hopes for Share of Title

Pontiac Merchants kept alive hopes for a share of the regular-season championship in the Class B division of the City Basketball League last night by trampling Stadium Inn, 54-27, in their final contest.

Victory left the Merchants with a 7-3 mark for the season. Title will be decided tonight, when Boys' Club (7-2) meets Elks Lodge No. 723 (6-3) in the division's windup.

Boys' Club can win the title outright by beating the Elks. An Elk victory would produce a 3-way tie. Game is scheduled for 7 p.m. at Pontiac High school. Second game of the night matches General Motors and Chuck's Shack in Class A finale at 8:30 p.m.

Junior Elks No. 723 clinched at least a tie for Class D honors by winning their 12th victory in 14 starts, 42-31, over Police Department. Lakesiders edged Hi-Knights, 37-34, in another "D" game.

Exhibition play Wednesday saw Elks scrape past Walled Lake Merchants, 57-53.

Holman Cleared by Trial Board

Unbecoming Conduct, Neglect of Duty Charge Dismissed

NEW YORK (AP) — Nat Holman, suspended basketball coach at City College of New York, whose team won the 1950 NCAA and NIT championships, was exonerated today by a trial committee of charges of conduct unbecoming a teacher, constituting neglect of duty.

The charges grew out of the college basketball scandals which broke in 1951 and involved seven players of the 1950 CCNY championship team in the "fixing" of games.

Holman, 56, who with his assistant Harry (Bobby) Sand, 36, has been suspended since Nov. 18, 1952, was cleared by a majority report of the three-man Board of Higher Education trial committee, which recommended dismissal of all charges.

The trial committee, however, unanimously found Sand guilty on two counts of conduct unbecoming a teacher.

Mark-Ye-Well Out of Big Coast Race

ARCADIA, Calif. (UP) — In a stunning move that cost future book bettors thousands of dollars, Calumet Farm's Mark-Ye-Well today officially was out of the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap Saturday with a leg injury.

The declaring of the famed Calumet star and Porterhouse making his 1st start as a three-year old a winning one were but two of many worthy developments at Santa Anita Wednesday.

Porterhouse, two-year-old champion of 1953, scored his 1st win of 1953 by three lengths, racing the six furlongs in 1:09 1-5, within a 5th of a second of the frequently-equalled track record.

Chiefs End Dual Season With Win Over Plymouth

Pontiac High's swimming team ended its dual meet schedule Wednesday afternoon at Plymouth, defeating the host team, 43-41. Chiefs took five of nine individual 1st places.

Sophomore Bob Keavy paced the victory with victories in both the 100-yard breast stroke and individual medley. Other 1sts were taken by Bob Lamson in the 200-yard free style, Tom Cross in the back stroke and the medley relay team, composed of Cross, Lamon and Bill McLarty.

Jim Shellenburg missed an opportunity for another 1st place when he was disqualified in the 50-yard free style.

Pontiac goes to Flint next Wednesday for the annual Saginaw Valley Conference relays, and will enter the state meet at Ann Arbor on March 12-13.

Summary:

50-yard free style—Wallis (Pl) 1st; Wright (Pl) 2nd; Mumbru (Po) 3rd. Time 26.5 seconds.

100-yard breast stroke—Keavy (Po) 1st; Scott (Po) 2nd; Dacost (Pl) 3rd. Time 1 minute 10.8 seconds.

Podoley Tries, but Chip Star Can't Win Alone

MT. PLEASANT (AP) — Central Michigan's Jim Podoley, running and jumping with a pulled muscle, tried almost single-handed to stop a Michigan Normal IIAC track meet win last night. He wasn't successful.

Normal defeated Central 46-48, despite Podoley's three 1sts, one of them a field house record, and a 2nd.

Normal piled up seven 1st places and broke three field house records itself. Central had five 1sts.

Podoley's win in the 65-yard low and high hurdles and the broad jump where his 22-feet 11¾ inches was a new record.

Bevo's Injury Found to Be Pulled Tendon

RIO GRANDE, O. (INS) — Clarence (Bevo) Francis does not expect a "pulled" foot tendon to make a dent in the scoring record he is piling up with the Rio Grande College cage team.

The tall, lanky point-maker had to be helped off the floor Tuesday night when an already injured and taped left foot was kicked in a scramble under the basket in a game at Ashland College.

Hospital X-rays showed he suffered only a sprained tendon.

Snow Fails to Stop Mat Fans

More than 300 fans braved Wednesday night's snow to watch the weekly wrestling show at the Pontiac Armory.

Chris Averoff of Greece was awarded the deciding fall over Stan Holeck of Canada at 45 minutes 19 seconds of the main event when the latter was disqualified.

Tuffy McCrae and Otto Bowman defeated Major Tom Thumb and Tito Infante in 43 minutes four seconds of the midget tag team match. Opening bout saw Irish Sampson pin Danny Ferazza in 18 minutes nine seconds.

107 Top Ski Jumpers in National Contest

IRON MOUNTAIN (AP)—One hundred and seven daredevils, including 38 Class A stars, are in the lineup for America's greatest distance jumping ski shows of the 1954 season at Pine Mountain Saturday and Sunday.

Three national champions and the North American champion will join in the mass assault aimed at the 1st 300-foot leap east of the rockies. World's highest artificial ski scaffold is groomed to perfection and officials predict the 5-year-old 297-foot hill record will be shattered.

Golfers From 6 Nations Tee Off in Mexican Open Today

MEXICO CITY (AP) — About 125 golfers from six countries on four continents tee off today in the four-day 10th annual Mexican Open golf tournament.

United States, Argentina, Canada, Australia, Mexico and Spain are represented in the $12,200 tourney being played on the 6,679-yard par-72 Club Mexico course, toughest in the nation.

North American stars comprise most of the 74 foreigners entered, but the sentimental favorite again is Argentina's Roberto De Vicenzo who came from behind last year to win with a blistering 21-under-par 267.

But even De Vicenzo is willing to admit such sensational golf probably will not be played on the rugged Club Mexico course.

Last year's low scorers were shot on nearby Chapultepec course, easy even for most amateurs.

Wind and Rain Causes Confusion in Orlando Links Test

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Matches in the weather-plagued 1st round of the International mixed two-ball golf tournament were carried over to be finished today before the regular 2nd round could start.

Heavy wind and rain hampered yesterday's card and in the confusion of interrupted play one team was disqualified, another conceded and the two late matches were put over.

Grace DeMoss Smith of Miami and Burl Bolesta of Tampa, who won medal honors Tuesday, played their opening match ahead of the worst weather and were three under par in beating Betty Bush of Detroit and Sam Drake of Hammond, Ind., 4 and 2.

Bonnie Randolph of Columbus, Ohio, and Chick Harbert of Detroit were disqualified for leaving the course when rain interrupted their match. This gave a victory to Marilynn Smith of Wichita, Kan., and Lou Barbaro of Deal, N. J.

East Lansing Coach Joins Edwards' Staff

RALEIGH, N. C. (UP) — Pat Peppler, head football coach at East Lansing, Mich., High school, has accepted an appointment as assistant football coach under coach Earle Edwards at North Carolina State College, Dr. H. A. Fisher, chairman of the athletic council reports.

Mel Had Voodoo Sign

BOSTON (AP)—Mel Parnell, pitching ace of the Red Sox, had the voodoo sign on the Yankees and Tigers in 1953. The southpaw [illegible] defeated the New Yorkers and Detroiters five times each without a loss.

Sven Davidson Faces Possible Elimination

MIAMI, Fla. (UP) — Handsome Sven Davidson of Sweden, newly-crowned U. S. indoor tennis champion, faced possible elimination in the 2nd round of the outdoor Miami Invitation tennis tournament today as he resumed his match against dark-horse Jerry Slobin of Miami.

Davidson lost the opening set to Slobin, 6-8, won the 2nd, 6-4, and was all even at 3-3 in the 3rd and deciding set when darkness interrupted.

9 Grid Tilts for MSN

YPSILANTI (AP) — Michigan Normal's football team will play a nine-game schedule this fall, meeting the same nine opponents as in 1953.

Hurons will open with three non-conference games against Hope College, Hillsdale and Wayne university. Then they'll plunge into the IIA schedule, topped by the annual finale against Central Michigan.

Freshman Coach Named

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Frank Johnson, 24-year-old letter-winning guard on the 1950 Notre Dame team, has been named freshman football coach by Ed (Moose) Krause, Irish athletic director.

Only one more appointment, that of a "B" team coach, remains to complete the staff of head coach Terry Brennan.

Johnston was assistant freshman coach under Brennan last season.

Chicagoan's Purse Withheld

Saxton Again Involved in Controversy As He Outpoints Listless Bratton

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Johnny Saxton is rapidly becoming known as boxing's "Mr. Controversy."

The 23-year-old New York welterweight won a unanimous 10-round verdict over Johnny Bratton at the arena here last night in a nationally-televised bout, but Bratton's purse was withheld because of a lack-lustre performance.

The Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission ordered a hearing at 9:30 a.m. (EST) today for Bratton, his manager and his handlers. Commissioner George Jones said the action was prompted by his observations from ringside and the obvious distress of the crowd over Bratton's performance.

This marked the 6th time in two years that a Saxton fight provoked an aftermath of argument or some unusual circumstances.

First, there was Jan. 25, 1952, when he was awarded a TKO victory over Livio Minelli in New York. Referee Ruby Goldstein stopped the fight in the 7th round and called it "no match."

Then in March, 1952, Saxton earned a TKO in the 6th round over Lester Felton who was disqualified for holding. Felton's purse was held up although he later received the money.

In March, 1953, Saxton gained a draw with Wallace (Bud) Smith after being floored twice at Miami. That verdict was delayed 10 minutes and almost resulted in a man-made hurricane by the wrath of the fans who believed Smith won.

Last June, he lost a split decision to Philadelphia's Gil Turner, and the fans almost desecrated the Shibe Park ring with chairs, bottles, etc. They thought Johnny won.

And in Dec. 1953, Saxton suffered his only other defeat to Del Flanagan. That decision too was contested.

But last night Saxton certainly tried to make a fight with the 26-year-old Bratton, a veteran of 10 years in the professional ring. But Bratton obviously wasn't interested. The Chicago fighter held, clinched, back pedalled and made no effort to counterpunch.

The two judges and the referee, as well as the Associated Press carded identical scores, nine rounds for Saxton and one for Bratton—the 3rd. Bratton did all of his fighting in the 3rd.

Bratton went back into his shell in the 4th round and never came out of it as he suffered his 22nd defeat against 59 wins and three draws. Saxton won his 44th. He has lost twice and drew once.

Eaglet Reserves Win SCL's Junior Honors

Coming from behind in the second period to square the count at 21-all in last night's Suburban Catholic League's reserve title game, Orchard Lake St. Mary's juniors went on to defeat St. Florian of Detroit 42-39.

Dick Kapolka's basket midway in the third period sent the junior Eaglets ahead and they were never again headed. Kapolka hit for 10 points, as did teammate Ted Kopacki. Top man, however, was Eaglets' Vince Pernicki, with 12. Ed Shall paced Florian with 11.

The victory was the 15th straight for the Orchard Lakers. They end their year against St. Michael's reserves Friday at Orchard Lake.

California Has Great Passing Prospect in Freshman Ronnie Knox, Irish's Guglielmi Will Bid for Honors

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK—"You know," Red Sanders, UCLA's star coach was saying, "it's funny what a difference one man can make to a football team. Look what Bobby Garrett meant to Stanford.

* * *

His amazing passing made the Indians one of West Coast's grid powers last season. "In view of that, I was just thinking," Red continued, "what Ronnie Knox will mean to California next fall."

"How good is Ronnie Knox?" I asked.

* * *

"Ronnie Knox is just about the best passer I ever saw," Red said. "He's the type of player you'd give about half a team for. He's only a freshman now, so you have to do some guessing as to his actual ability.

"But I don't think he has a chance to go wrong. He's big enough at 6-2, and he can hit you in either eye at 30 paces. He's the kind that a coach dreams about."

Which reminds me that a number of Midwestern experts have picked Ralph Guglielmi of Notre Dame as the passing leader for 1954.

"Guglielmi will be the top man of the coming season," a reporter told me. "He was a good passer two years ago and he's been better each fall. I look to see him have his best year this coming season."

This looks as if the big passing battle of the year will be between Knox and Guglielmi. California is favored to take up her Rose Bowl duties at the next roll call, especially if Knox comes up to billing.

* * *

Losing Johnny Lattner and Neil Worden, Notre Dame will need a top passer. While on the subject, Paul Brown's Cleveland Browns just about lead the all-time mark in passing strength. With Otto Graham, George Ratterman and Garrett, they have three of the best passers in football.

* * *

It will be interesting to see what Maryland will do next fall. Unless Jim Tatum can locate a 1st-class passer, he may run into trouble. He had one in 1952 and 1953, but so far he hasn't shown one for 1954.

Bruins Stay Ahead for Playoff Berth

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fourth-place Boston Bruins are leading the New York Rangers by three points today and no one is breathing easier than their coach, Lynn Patrick.

Bruins, skating to a four-goal advantage after 30 minutes, held on to defeat the Rangers 5-3 last night in a hotly-contested National Hockey League game at Madison Square Garden. Boston has 59 points and New York 56 in the battle for the last Stanley Cup playoff spot.

Preps Eye Tourneys as Loop Play Ends

By JACK SAYLOR

Spies will be out in force Friday night as the regularly-scheduled portion of the prep basketball season comes to a close for all but a half-dozen Oakland County area teams.

This will be the last chance for coaches to get scouting reports on other teams assigned to the same districts for the start of state tournament play next week. In several cases, 1st night tourney foes are already known.

In Walled Lake's Class B tourney, Holly and Northville play the opener, Friday, March 5, with the host school and Milford clashing in the nightcap. Finals are Saturday night, March 6.

In the power-packed Class B field at Troy, victor of the 1st night game between Troy and Warren could well continue on to the district crown. Warren's Orioles have a 14-1 record. Only loss was to Utica, which also plays in the Troy tourney.

Troy's record is 12-3, with all three setbacks to Class A schools.

Bentley and Farmington, two top teams in Class B at Livonia, meet Thursday. Bentley whipped the Falcons, 53-42, just last Tuesday and rates a solid favorite.

The only teams that have games scheduled after Friday night are five Class A quintets which skip district play (Pontiac, Birmingham, Hazel Park, Mt. Clemens and Royal Oak) and Cranbrook, which doesn't compete in the MHSAA tourney.

Rochester and Troy, already crowned champions in their league along with many teams counted out of title contention, play tonight just for practice. Farmington, Warren and Northville seek undisputed championships in other circuits.

Here's the picture for leagues in which ties still are possible:

INTER-LAKES — Farmington (7-2) favored over Van Dyke, but Southfield (6-3) can tie by linking a win over Walled Lake with a Farmington upset.

WAYNE-OAKLAND — Northville (9-2) must beat Keego Harbor or share the crown with the winner of the Clarkston-Milford game. Latter two have 8-3 league marks.

BI-COUNTY — Warren (10-1) favored over Lakeview, but a loss would give a share to Utica (10-2), whose season is completed.

Heading Friday's schedule are the Milford-Clarkston, Northville-Keego and Southfield - Walled Lake contests. Clarkston, working on a 9-game winning streak. Keego and Walled Lake are the home teams.

In other games, Lake Orion is at Rochester, Imlay City at Oxford, Avondale at Troy, Waterford at Berkley and East Detroit at Birmingham.

FRIDAY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

ORLANDO, Fla. — Washington Senators start two-a-day workouts today with star 1st baseman Mickey Vernon still a salary holdout. It is understood its most recent salary offer to Vernon reached $25,000. Last year Vernon got $19,000.

Alex Grammas, Cards' rookie shortstop who injured his throwing arm shoulder in a practice game last week, said he "might be able to throw a little tomorrow."

Outfielder Enos Slaughter, Cards' "Mr. Dependable," wrote Stanky, he probably will be in camp Sunday.

TAMPA, Fla. — Virgil Trucks, who will be 38 in April, sees no reason why he should not be close or better than a 20-game winner for the White Sox this season. "I'm a year older, but I don't feel it," said the veteran right hand hurler who had a 20-10 mark in 1953.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Manager Eddie Stanky received some encouraging reports from a long-time Cardinal star and a $100,000 rookie yesterday.

Yanks Convert Their 1st Negro Into a Catcher

Howard Is Realistic About His Chances to Stick With Bombers

By JOE REICHLER

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Elston Howard, 1st Negro ever to wear a New York Yankee uniform, is realistic about his chances to win a berth on baseball's world champions. He knows the odds are against him.

"I would like to stick," the 25-year-old St. Louisian said today, 'but I have no illusions about my stage of development. After all I've had only two years in organized baseball.

"If I am sent back, I will take it the right way, with a promise to come back a better player. In the meantime, I am fighting to stick."

An added handicap for Howard has been manager Casey Stengel's decision to convert him into a catcher. Howard, who caught some in high school, has played the outfield ever since he made his professional bow in 1948. At Kansas City last year, he was used behind the plate for a half dozen games when the regular receivers were laid up by injury.

Howard, who celebrated his birthday Tuesday, batted .286, hit 10 home runs and drove in 70 runs with the Blues last season. He was hitting .319 until a September slump cut deep into his batting average. He is big (6-2, 195) fast, can throw hard and accurate and has impressed observers with his fine batting stroke. In the outfield, however, he leaves something to be desired. His biggest fault is failure to get the jump on the ball.

How does he feel about the conversion?

"I like the outfield better," Howard said. 'But I'll do anything they want me to do as long as I play baseball. Naturally, I'd rather stay in the majors, but I realize what a tough job it is to make this kind of club. Also, I know I've lots to learn about catching and I can probably get more of it in the minor leagues."

Howard has been put under the capable wing of coach Bill Dickey who is credited with teaching Yogi Berra the art of catching. Dickey spends from 30 minutes to an hour with Howard every day.

Yosho Shirai, world's flyweight champion, never boxed as an amateur. He was born in Tokyo, Japan, in 1923.

Forest Lake Club's Sale Transaction Is Completed

Forest Lake Country Club officially became a private club this week with the announcement the transactions had been completed between the Col. Edwin S. George Foundation and the 61-member purchasing group.

New owners had held an option to buy the property on or before this weekend. Sale price for the club was listed at $250,000.

Group plans to spend an additional $175,000 in improvements on the buildings, golf course and pool. Work on the buildings is scheduled to get under way within 60 days. Officials are now awaiting word from Robert Trent Jones, noted golf architect, to set a date to discuss course remodeling.

Robert Gajda, former assistant pro at Oakland Hills, has been named head pro at the club.

NEW CLUB PRO—One of the district's best known, and liked young golf pros has just signed as top pro for the county's newest private club.

Bob Gajda (above) has accepted the post at the Forest Lake Country Club. Bob was aide for 5 years to Al Watrous at Oakland Hills, and spent 2 years at Red Run. He has played on many big tourneys and was in the money at the LA and Miami Opens this winter; was 2nd in both state PGA and Open in 1953. This winter he has played in Columbia SC, Open; Bing Crosby's Pro-Am; San Diego Open and Phoenix Open. He is 37 years old.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — Manager Casey Stengel hasn't heard the last about Vic Raschi's sale to the Cardinals. The Yankee skipper was told that the pitcher had pared his poundage down to 200, a loss of some 20 pounds. As usual Casey wasn't at a loss for words. "Well it means we gotta dig and work harder to come up with a replacement."

VERO BEACH, Fla. — Gil Hodges, who often makes things hot for National League pitchers, was a victim of sunburn today and may miss some of the upcoming Brooklyn Dodger workouts.

Ray Robinson retired as undefeated world middleweight champion Dec. 18, 1952.

Monotonous Bowler

WAYNE, N. J. (AP) — Bod Barker believes bowling can get monotonous at times. He set a record recently of seven straight games with the same score—158. The previous record of six in a row was made by Clayton Shaw of Manitowac, Wis. in 1938. His score each time was 149.

What's in a Name

MIAMI (AP) — Saragossa is the name of a young colt now at Hialeah. The horse's monicker was selected by Mrs. Dodge Sloane, mistress of Brookmeade Stable. The sire, Goya, was named for the famed Spanish painter who studied in the town of Saragossa.

The New York Yankees were the "walkingest" team in the American League in 1953. They led the loop in bases on balls with 656.

PHS Once More Tries 'Giant Killer' Role

Yankees Won 1953 Flag Via Doubleheader Route

CHICAGO (AP)—American League statistics show that the champion New York Yankees helped themselves to the 1953 flag via the doubleheader route. The Bronx Bombers won 25 games and lost only nine in twin bill competition.

They copped both games nine times and only once did they drop both games. The Washington Senators were the only ones to do the trick. The Yanks split seven doubleheaders.

Beagles Surpass Cockers as 'Top Dog' in U.S., Their Versatility Is Cited

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—As nothing sets a man up quite like having his judgment of dogs confirmed officially, it is not surprising to learn that a great deal of quiet self-congratulation has been going on lately in the beagle set.

* * *

If by any chance you missed an item of such moment, the American Kennel Club announced that it now had registered more of the long-eared little hounds than any other breed. The exact figures were: 1—beagles 45,398; 2—cocker spaniels 43,561. As the cockers had been the champs ever since 1936, and the beagles had been running second since 1940, this was something like the Dodgers beating the Yankees in a World Series.

The reason the beagles have taken over the top spot, we gather, is that they come closer to being an all-around dog than any of the others, including cockers. That, at least, is what their puffed-up owners say. They say that if you want a hunting dog, all right, he can tree you a 'possum and make wonderful music in the process. If, on the other hand, you merely wish him to sit around an apartment and be agreeable, he is happy doing that too.

* * *

Another thing about the beagle, we learn, is that he is of a placid disposition and loves children, or at least pretends to. He can stand a mauling and will never bite a child, even one that obviously needs biting. This has contributed importantly to his rise to the canine White House.

Still another thing in the beagle's favor is that he is neither an especially heavy or finicky eater.

Returning Vets Play Key Roles for Major Nines

Newcombe, Palica Can Aid Dodgers; Nichols Will Help Braves

By PAT ROBINSON

NEW YORK (INS) — Baseball commissioner Ford Frick has insised for severl years that when baseball got past the bottle neck case by the Army and Navy, the game would improve.

By that he meant that the time would come when the boys yanked into the armed services would be offset by the boys returning from same.

Frick says this is the year and it would appear that he may be correct.

Spring training camps have opened with some 700 or 800 established veterans, hopeful rookies and veterans assaying a come-back all trying for a spot in the major league sun.

About 100 of these will be men from the armed services whose baseball careers were cut short two or more years ago.

Some of the returnees were stars before Uncle Sam put the arm on them. The question now is: Can they pick up where they left off?

We have no doubt most of them will be just as good, perhaps better than they ever were. Dodge Don Newcombe got in a lot of pitching while in service and when we saw him on a furlough during the World Series he appeared ready to pitch.

Another who might surprise the opposition is Erv Palica.

It is generally agreed that the Braves will have tremendous pitching strength with the addition of Chet Nichols.

Alumni Urged to 'Sell' Dartmouth to Athletes

BOSTON (AP)—A plea to the alumni to "sell" Dartmouth to promising athletes who are scholars has been made by Robert A. (Red) Rolfe, who becomes Dartmouth's director of athletics July 1.

Rolfe, once New York Yankee 3rd baseman and former manager of the Detroit Tigers, told the Dartmouth Alumni Association of Boston last night:

"Dartmouth has the coaching ability to lead the Ivy League in all sports. If you members will pin-point athletic talent, we'll do the rest."

When Doug Bentley joined his brother Max on the New York Rangers against Boston Jan. 20, it marked the first time they had played on the same National Hockey League team since Nov. 20, 1947.

By BILL MARTIN

Pontiac High's basketball team is again cast in the increasingly-familiar role of "giant-killer" Friday night, when the Chiefs go to Bay City Central for a Saginaw Valley Conference game.

Coach Art Van Ryzin's young squad last week knocked both Ferndale and Saginaw from berths in the United Press' top five rankings.

Bay City jumped to 7th place in today's UP ratings on the basis of a 7-game winning streak that included a 63-60 upset of Flint Northern. Wolves started slowly, dropping four of their 1st six starts. They bowed to Pontiac, 49-44, in 1st-round Valley action.

Wolves boast the top scorer in the conference in 6-foot 6-inch Gary Giffen, who has averaged 20 points in nine games. Giffen hit 19 points in Bay City's 69-64 conquest of Saginaw Tuesday, but lost game honors to teammate Pete Carras, who collected 21.

Van Ryzin will stick with his usual starting five, with John James and Walter King at forwards, Dick Blacklaw at center, and Walter Poe and Bob Johnston at guards.

James is currently setting the scoring pace for Pontiac with 118 points in 13 games, while Poe is close behind with 114.

Friday's contest will be the Chiefs' next-to-final game of the regular season. They wind up their 15-game slated March 5 at Saginaw Arthur Hill and move into MHSAA regional tournament play at Birmingham the following week.

Cardinals Plan Trek to Coast in Spring

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Cardinals, who annually do their spring training in St. Petersburg, Fla., will take a cross-country trek this year. The Redbirds will play their first five exhibition games in Florida, then hop to California where they will meet the Chicago Cubs in two contests at Los Angeles, and one at Fresno. Both squads will play a game at Mesa, Ariz.

Following this series, the Cards return to St. Petersburg to resume their Florida schedule.

Brotherly Athletes

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Dick Hoke, freshman wrestler at Michigan State, has three brothers on the Spartan campus. Brother Bob is a 157-pound Big Ten wrestling champion. Dave, a sophomore, is a member of the track team. Montee was on the varsity wrestling squad two seasons ago.

SKI TUMBLE—Getting an assist back on her skis (above) is Barbara Heflin of Pontiac, student at Central Michigan College, Mt. Pleasant. Helping the Pontiac junior to her feet is Chuck McGregor, Mt. Pleasant freshman. Both are members of the college ski club, an active organization boasting 53 members. The scene is near the college.

2-Sport Star

Artificial Leg Is No Handicap to Athlete

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Sixteen-year old Floyd Yates uses an artifical leg, but it isn't keeping him from particpating in sports.

* * *

Last autumn, Yates played football as a guard for the Wilson School and now is getting ready for the baseball season.

Floyd lost his leg at the knee when he was six.

His father stored his 12-gauge shotgun in a high spot where he thought none of his six children could reach it. But one day, Floyd got the weapon. His brother Charles took it away from him. But in attempting to put it back the gun discharged and struck Floyd in the leg. Bood poisoning necessitated amputation.

Floyd started particpating in sports in the third grade and has played ever since.

Football is his favorite game and he didn't feel much of a handicap playing.

* * *

Floyd's father died in 1952 and he helps support the family by working 16 hours a week as a cafe dish washer.

The courageous young athlete feels that sports have done much to aid his rehabilitation.

"I found out I could get out cheerfully."

Suspended Ring Officials Cleared

Judges Who Voted for Aragon Over Davey Are Reinstated

LOS ANGELES (AP)—State athletic commission and Mushy Callahan and Joe Stone are palsy-walsy once more.

Three members of the commission, chairman Tony Entenza, Norman Houston and Everett Sanders, announced the suspension of referee Callahan and judge Stone Feb. 18, right after the referee and judge had voted for Art Aragon over Chuck Davey in a 10-round bout at Olympic Auditorium.

The crowd, obviously displeased, booed for 10 minutes and the commissioner made it plain in statements to newsmen that they held with the other judge, Charley Randolph, who voted for the Michigan State boxer, Davey.

* * *

After a hearing yesterday in which the commissioners heard reports from Callahan, Randolph and Stone on how they scored the fight, they announced that the two officials were being reinstated as of Feb. 18, which had the effect of nullifying the suspensions and clearing the records of the men.

Mild Weather Favorable to Game and Fish

LANSING (AP) — Early upturn in temperatures this year has been very favorable to Michigan's game and fish, conservation department specialists said today.

Melting of snow and ice on most lakes has eliminated the danger of winter killing of fish for the season, fisheries workers reported.

Winter kills most frequently strike in late February or early March after the sun has been shut out of the shallower lakes for several months.

This time is also the hardest on deer normally. Restricted for months to yards of deep snows, the deer begin to starve to death about now.

This year, however, deer have been able to range away from the yards early with melting of much of the snow. There have been some reports of starvations, particularly in the Mio area, but no great starvation problem is foreseen.

Parkers, Sexton Still Run 1-2 in 'A' Ratings

Rochester Listed Sixth in Class B; UP Quint Leads in 'D'

By LLOYD NORTHARD

DETROIT (UP) — Rapid River, once-beaten pride of the Upper Peninsula, held the Class D lead today in the weekly United Press high school basketball ratings.

Highland Park, Holland Christian and Lansing St. Mary retained top spots in the higher classes.

Rapid River's rise to 1st place was made possible by a Wayne St. Mary upset of Detroit All Saints in the Detroit Parochial League's 3rd division title game.

It was the 1st league loss suffered by All Saints in almost four years and left the Class D ranks without a single unbeaten team.

Now, only five teams that compete in the state tournament still boast perfect records — Highland Park and Lansing Sexton in Class A, Flint Tech in Class B and East Jackson and Grayling in Class C.

Highland Park and Lansing Sexton remained one-two in Class A but there was a wholesale shuffle for berths below them.

Muskegon Heights and Flint Northern both moved up one notch, to 3rd and 4th, respectively, as Saginaw tumbled from 3rd to 9th. Traverse City jumped from 8th to 5th and Grosse Pointe climbed from 10th to 6th. Bay City Central took over 7th and Grand Rapids South moved into the 8th position as Kalamazoo tumbled from 7th to 10th.

There were no changes in Class B with Holland Christian, River Rouge, Flint Tech, Battle Creek Lakeview, Mt. Pleasant, Rochester, Coopersville, Buchanan, Ludington and River Rouge Lourdes again rated in that order.

Wichita Trips Aggies, Clouds NIT Status

By RIP WATSON

NEW YORK (AP)—National Invitation Tournament officials had a king-sized headache today, and it was all due to a successful 30-foot shot thrown up with two seconds to play.

The desperation heave by Paul Scheer gave Wichita a 67-66 victory over Oklahoma A&M, threw the Missouri Valley Conference race into a snarl and beclouded Wichita's status as an NIT entry. The Wheatshockers said when they accepted the NIT bid that they would be obliged to enter the National Collegiate Basketball Championships if they should win the Missouri Valley race.

The "if" clause didn't look very important at the time since Oklahoma A&M was comfortably ahead in the race. But look at the situation now: Wichita has completed its Valley season with an 8-2 mark, while the Aggies are 7-1 and play Tulsa March 2 and St. Louis March 6.

If the Aggies win both, they'll go to the NCAA Championships and Wichita will come to the NIT. But a tie would force a one-game playoff, which could not very well be played before March 8 at the earliest.

The NIT headache comes from the timing involved. The tournament starts its first round March 6. The latest Wichita could play its first game would be March 9, even if it gets a first round bye.

Then, too, it's possible, though highly improbable, that Oklahoma A&M might lose both its last two games, which would send Wichita to the NCAA. The NIT could invite Oklahoma A&M, but the Aggies haven't played here in some time and they might not want to make the trip if they wind up behind Wichita.

The NIT added a minor note of confusion itself by inviting a second St. Francis team. This time it's the Loretto, Pa., with an 18-4 record. St. Francis, The Brooklyn school of the same name was invited earlier this week. That gives the NIT eight of its 12 teams —provided Wichita doesn't tie Oklahoma A&M.

The NCAA also picked two "at large" teams yesterday, Loyola of New Orleans and Santa Clara.

* * *

Loyola will play sixth-ranked Notre Dame in a preliminary round double-header at Fort Wayne Ind., March 9. Toledo of the Mid-American Conference will play a still-to-be-selected "at large" team in the other game. Santa Clara will meet the Border Conference champion, at a site and on a date to be determined. That will be either Texas Tech or West Texas State, who meet in the deciding game March 2.

* * *

Holy Cross, ranked seventh nationally, was the only other high-ranking team in action last night. The Crusaders scored impressively over Dartmouth 76-60 and need only beat Connecticut Saturday night to wrap up an NCAA bid as the best New England Conference team. The loser of that game, incidentally, is a good possibility for an NIT offer.

Spartans Hope to Upset Iowa

MSC Cagers Winless Since Beating NW 5 Feb. 1

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State's fading basketball squad gets a comeback shot Saturday night against the Iowa Hawkeyes, Big Ten wreckers.

Spartans of MSC, who have not won since a Feb. 1 victory over Northwestern, go up against Iowa, who shot up in the conference standings with an 18-point victory over Indiana Monday night.

Michigan State will stake its hopes on the scoring abilities of forwards Julius McCoy and Al Ferrari. McCoy scored 17 points against Northwestern Monday to break the single season individual mark of the school by 11 points. Ferrari held the previous record of 351 points.

Iowa has been capitalizing on a strong bench, reinforced by eager sophomores. Center Bill Logan and forward Bill Schoof have been alternating at hitting the scoring hoop.

Wells Talks Contract

WASHINGTON (UP) — Halfback Billy Wells, whose running helped Michigan State overpower UCLA in the Rose Bowl last New Year's Day, was scheduled to talk contract today with the Washington Redskins. Wells was the National Football League club's 5th draft choice.

Gulfstream Derby Award Is Increased

The $100,000 guarantee to the winner of the 1954 Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park is nearly as much as was distributed during the entire first meeting of 20 days at the seaside track in 1944.

Hits 23 Homers

Ted Kluszewski of the Redlegs hit 23 homers at Crosley Field in 1953. This is the most ever hit there in a single season by a National League batter.

Luis Firpo was the first Argentinian ever to fight for the world's heavyweight championship.

NCAA Tournament Starts With Twin Bill at Buffalo

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association's rugged 24-team basketball tournament starts in Buffalo, N. Y., March 8.

NCAA tournament committee, through its chairman, A. C. (Dutch) Lonborg of Kansas university, said today the Buffalo auditorium would be the site of a 1st round doubleheader matching Navy and the New England Conference tiflist, and Fordham and LaSalle, Middle Atlantic Coast winner.

Next day 1st round play is scheduled at Fort Wayne, Ind., and Raleigh, N. C., in the Eastern bracket and Peoria, Ill., and Corvallis, Ore., in the Western bracket.

At Fort Wayne, Notre Dame's 6th ranking Irish will take on Loyola of New Orleans, a 1st-timer in the NCAA playoffs and Toledo will play a yet-to-be-named at large team.

At Raleigh the New Atlantic Coast Conference champion and the Southern Conference winner will meet.

Still Wrestles at 70

LONDON (AP)—Bill Wilson celebrated his 70th birthday by trying out a few new wrestling holds on his pals at a London sports club.

"And I hope to be still wrestling when I'm 80," he said. "I owe a lot to the sport."

Wilson was crippled with arthritis 20 years ago and could not bend his knees. His doctors ordered him to take up wrestling. Wilson did and soon was completely cured.

Eastern Jumper Tops in Ishpeming Ski Meet

ISHPEMING (AP)—Some 36 skiers soared gracefully off "Suicide Hill" but none sailed so far or so well as Roy Sherwood of Salisbury, Conn.

Sherwood's 2nd leap of 244 feet was the longest of the day and, paired with an earlier leap of 236 feet, gave him top honors in the National Ski Assn. tournament the first of the week.

Three visiting Russians were on hand to watch the meet, which had been rescheduled from Sunday when high winds caused a postponement.

Sex Criminal Bill Is OK'd

State Senate Approves Bar to Petitions Putting Offenders in Hospitals

Michigan's Senate Wednesday approved a bill to keep sex offenders' families from filing petitions asking the offenders be sent to mental hospitals.

The bill went to the State House of Representatives, where a similar bill, introduced by Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) is still hanging fire in the judiciary committee.

But Broomfield said he doubted if either bill would be passed, as many legislators favor repealing the entire Michigan Criminal Sexual Psychopathic act—rather than making "piecemeal changes" in it.

Broomfield's bill, drafted by Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem and former Judge Glenn C. Gillespie, applies only to murderers. It would keep all murderers from being sent to state mental hospitals under the state's criminal sex psycopath law.

The Senate bill would let the prosecuting attorney, with permission from the attorney general, ask that a sex slayer or other sex offender be hospitalized; but ban the offender or his family from so asking.

The House bill grew out of the Donald V. O'Brian case here. O'Brian, who admitted slaying Mrs. Hallie Perkins, was committed to a mental hospital on his family's petition before he could be brought to trial. He can never be tried, now, even if released.

Cyclist Blinded by Snow Hits Car, Suffers Bruises

Alex W. Dillashaw, 14, of 168 Judson St., was treated at Pontiac General Hospital Wednesday for bruises suffered when his bicycle crashed into an auto backing out of a driveway on Auburn avenue near Ardmore avenue.

The youth told Pontiac Police he was blinded momentarily by snow and ran into the auto driven by Samuel K. Lemon, 24, of 240 N. Homer St., Lansing.

Your Candidates for City Bench

4 Municipal Judge Candidates to Be Nominated in Monday Primary

In private law practice for 13 years, Mitchell L. Bacow, 38, resides at 34 Cherokee Rd. He received his law degree from Wayne University.

Bacow is a veteran of World War II and a member of the Oakland County Bar Assn. He is an officer in the active reserve of the judge advocate general's office, Department of the Army.

He is active in Boy Scout work and is married, with two children.

MAURICE E. FINNEGAN

A lifelong Pontiac resident, Maurice E. Finnegan, 48, lives at 373 N. Johnson Ave. He has served as municipal judge since 1941, except for two years in the Army during World War II.

Finnegan has sersved as Oakland County Circuit Court clerk and deputy probate register. He is a member of the Oakland County Bar Assn. and the Michigan State Bar. He obtained his law degree from the University of Detroit.

He is also a member of the Knights of Columbus, Elks, American Legion, Amvets, Metropolitan Club (honorary) and Oakland County Historical and Pioneer Society. He is married, with four children.

G. EDSON HALLOCK

A Pontiac resident since 1910, G. Edson Hallock, 53, lives at 30 Cadillac Ave. He is a graduate of the Detroit College of Law.

Hallock has served as deputy Oakland County Clerk, assistant prosecuting attorney, as a member of a commission on claims acting in a semi-judicial capacity, in a property damage suit and as a referee on claims in estates in probate court.

Before beginning private law practice here in 1929 Hallock was a factory worker. He is a member of the Michigan State Bar, Oakland County Bar Assn., Elks, Eagles, Moose and Oakland County Sportsmen's Club. He is married.

ODIN H. JOHNSON

A Pontiac resident since 1922, Odin H. Johnson, 49, lives at 486 W. Iroquois Rd. He was recently appointed to serve out the term of the late Judge Charles P. Webster.

Johnson ran for state senator in 1940 and 1946, and was nominated for Congress in 1942. A Pontiac attorney for 22 years, he was educated at the University of Michigan, Wayne University and Detroit College of Law.

He is a member of the Oakland County Bar Assn., the American Judicature Society, the Michigan State Bar and Knights of Pythias. He is married, with two children.

CECIL McCALLUM

An attorney here since 1937, Cecil McCallum, 52, lives at 72 Dwight Ave. He has been a Pontiac resident since 1910.

McCallum attended Pontiac public schools, then the University of Michigan and obtained his law degree from Detroit College of Law. For eight years up to 1944 he was employed as an electrician in the maintenance department of GMC Truck & Coach Division.

He is a former exalted ruler of the local Elks, was president of the PTA at Washington Junior High School and is active in Boy Scout work. He is married, with two children.

Five candidates appear on the primary ballot in Monday's city election for nomination for municipal court judge. As two are to be elected in April, four will be nominated at the primary. Candidates, running on the nonpartisan ballot, come before electors in all districts of the city. Each elector may vote for two candidates out of the five on this ballot.

Farouk Hopes That Naguib Saves Skin

CANNES, France (AP)—"I hope poor Naguib can save his skin."

Ex-King Farouk's secretary, Andre Chardonnens, said today that was Farouk's comment when informed that the Egyptian President who deposed him had resigned.

Chardonnens said Farouk expressed no surprise and recalled that he predicted at the time of his own downfall in July, 1952, that Naguib would be in power for two years at the most before being overthrown.

Farouk has little respect for Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser, leader of the military council which forced Naguib out, Chardonnens said, adding:

"He knows he is just an adventurer."

Farouk, who is vacationing here and spent last night in his usual round of night clubs and casinos, also commented, Chardonnens told reporters:

"They say things have to get worse before they can get better. Egypt now is having the worst; let's hope the best is coming soon."

Ann Arbor Navy Airman Missing in Plane Crash

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Navy Lt. David B. Holcombe, 28, of Ann Arbor has been reported missing by the Navy following a plane crash off Korea Jan. 22.

Lt. Holcombe is attached to a nightfighter squadron aboard the carrier USS Essex.

The Navy said a plane search failed to turn up any trace of the missing airman.

Gamma Globulin Will Be Available for Polio Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two officials of the Office of Defense Mobilization (ODM) said today gamma globulin will be available for use against polio this summer despite a somewhat inconclusive report on its effectiveness last summer.

Stressing that their statement does not imply criticism of that report, the officials said ODM, which administered distribution of the material last summer under a rationing system, had not yet determined what role it will play this year.

Dr. A. B. Price and Joseph E. Brown of ODM's health resources staff said in a joint interview:

"ODM is prepared to continue administering the distribution of gamma globulin for polio this summer, provided a satisfactory plan is agreed upon among officials of the ODM, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and the Association of State and Territorial Health Officers who are planning to discuss the subject early in March.

"But even if, for any reason, ODM should decide there is no longer a need for it to administer the program, there would be no reason . . . why gamma globulin could not be distributed by the Foundation and the Red Cross and used by doctors as they see fit."

Dr. Price and Brown made the comments in reply to questions as to what effect, if any, a recent report by a committee of polio experts who evaluated gamma globulin's use last summer would have on future plans of the government.

The committee of polio experts —appointed by the U. S. Public Health Service — reported on Monday "beneficial effects were not demonstrated" from the material as used last summer.

They said this was true in studies of the blood derivative's use in mass inoculations of children in epidemic areas and in the inoculation of family contacts of people stricken with polio. But the committee said there was not enough information to permit a conclusion as to whether GG had an effect when used in mass inoculations.

Five Couples Remarry on 51st Anniversary

MIDDLEBORO, Mass. (AP) — Five Middleboro couples were rewed recently in the Central Congregational Church although everyone knew the original marital knots had been well tied.

The couples reaffirmed their marriage vows in a special ceremony. Each had been married 51 years or more.

Ailing Pope Shows Slight Improvement

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Ailing Pope Pius "slept fairly well" during the night and his general condition early today showed a slight improvement, the Vatican press office announced.

Other Vatican sources earlier had described the Pope's general condition as still stationary. Severe attacks of hiccuping had kept him from sleeping and severely weakened him during the first weeks of his month-long illness.

The pontiff, who will be 78 next Tuesday, is believed to be suffering from gastritis but his inability to retain the barium solution necessary for X-ray exmination has prevented a complete diagnosis. He is on a semiliquid diet and is able to leave his bed for only brief periods.

The U. S. monthly milk production is around eight million pounds.

Crop-Killing Dust Chokes Farms, Bringing Drought

By HARMON KALLMAN
Denver Post Staff Writer

DENVER (AP)—Drought seldom is dramatic. Ordinarily it spreads like a silent cancer. But in southeastern Colorado today it is a tangible, fearsome force.

You feel the grit between your teeth, between your fingers, in your eyes, even though it may not be blowing. You begin to itch all over with it as you watch mile after mile of fences buried in blown dust and sand, telegraph poles and farm equipment banked high with the powdery stuff that kills rich farmland.

The farther south and east you go, the fewer furrows you can discern in what was plowed wheatland a short week ago.

* * *

You can drive 100 miles east of here and see little sign of the disastrous dust storm of last week and the blow Monday that added insult to injury.

But once into Hugo, the Lincoln County seat, you know the dust has been there.

This is what I saw when I made a trip into the area:

Just a few miles to the south and the world turned gray. A few hundred yards off main Highway 109 on a section-like road you could see the first bitter evidence.

It looked curiously like an ocean beach with a few weeds rising above the wind-sculptured sand. There was moisture beneath it. Broken cedar fence posts looked like driftwood.

Bob White of Rocky Ford, who superintends 70,000 acres of Colorado farmland for the Baughman Farms Co. of Liberal, Kan., was driving by.

"This is hardly anything," he said. "Go to Haswell and Eads. It'll break your heart.

"See, this winter wheat is still green, even though it's sick and you can barely see the furrows that were here until last week. With moisture this will still make wheat.

"It's not as bad as it was in Texas in the 1930s, but I've never seen one storm do as much damage as that one last week."

Farther south you noticed that the fences not covered by dunes were blown thick with weeds, like brown hedgerows.

On a side road in northeast Crowley County you came upon a grader plowing deep-banked dust that looked finer than the sand crystals you had seen in Lincoln County.

"I've lived here all my life," said the operator, Henry Manweiler, 27, of Sugar City. "I was a kid during the dust bowl days. But I never saw one like this any time."

A woman was hanging out clothes to dry in the yard of a big ranch house near the Crowley-Kiowa County line.

"No, I won't tell you my name," she said. "I don't like publicity. But I can tell you about that dust storm last week.

"There are miles of broken fences all around here, but the cattle aren't wandering off—there's nothing out there to tempt them. . . .

* * *

"People are almost in a panic. They want to know where they can get a job, to carry them over. Fellow over that way said all he'd have to do to get ready to leave this county would be to back his truck up to the door; his wife would do the rest."

Cosmopolitan State

BOISE, Ida., (INS) — Travelers in Idaho might easily adopt the airs of international tourists—if they take seriously the names of the cities and towns they pass through. Without leaving the state of Idaho, a traveler may boast that he has been to Naples, Moscow, Troy, Cambridge, Ontario, Amsterdam, Bern, Paris and Geneva.

Woman Beats Husband at His Favorite Sport

ATLANTA (UP) — Some women sit on the sidelines while their husbands enjoy sports.

But Mrs. Guy Davis of Atlanta, tired of watching her husband sharp-shoot, took up his sport. One month after she fired her first shot, she qualified as a marksman under National Rifle Association rules.

Within the next three months, she won the women's division of an Atlanta match. A year later she took the Georgia state women's championship.

Then, she entered the same matches as her husband—and beat him in some of the .22 automatic rifle contests. At last year's midwinter Nationals in Tampa, Fla., she won high score for women with a .22 automatic, and second highest overall score for women. Her husband finished fourth in the civilian shooting class.

Mrs. Davis, mother of three preschool age children, said women often surpass men as marksmen, "because women have in-born timing and coordination."

Reports of Dust Hit Wheat Deals

CHICAGO (AP)—A little buying entered wheat on the Board of Trade today as several points in the winter wheat belt reported dust in the air this morning.

New crop wheat deliveries rose about a cent but dealings were not very active. Old crop months also were firm. Other grains eased early but soybeans recovered to post small gains.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ½ to ⅞ cent higher, March $2.17¼, corn unchanged to ⅜ lower, March $1.50 ⅜; oats unchanged to ⅜ lower, March 74¾; rye unchanged to ¼ lower, March $1.17⅝; soybeans ¼ lower to ⅜ higher, March $3.36½ and lard unchanged to 10 cents a hundred pounds higher, March $16.92.

Judge Grants New Trial to Detroiter

A 54-year-old Detroit man, who has served 17 years of a life term in Jackson Prison, was granted a new trial today by Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland.

Leo T. Luttrell's motion was granted after a Detroit lawyer, retained by friends, uncovered a technical error in a previous conviction in Oakland County.

The prisoner was termed an habitual criminal in 1941 while serving a 4 to 5 year term for auto theft. His record dates back to 1913.

NBC Says Sid Caesar, Imogene Coca to Part

NEW YORK (AP)—Top television stars Sid Caesar, Imogene Coca, and Max Liebman the man who teamed their comedy talents into a multimillion dollar NBC asset will split three separate ways, a network official said today.

The World-Telegram and Sun reported the amicable breakup at the end of this season, ending an association that reportedly brought NBC eight million dollars a year. Trade reports have circulated for months that separate shows were in the wind for the highly-awarded and highly-paid stars.

During a year's time trucks haul an average of 70 tons of freight for every person in the U. S., or about an average of 240 tons per family, based on freight statistics for 1953.

Market Climbs, Coppers Slow

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market advanced today, reversing a three-day declining trend in early dealings.

The turn ahead was not very vigorous, and plus signs were mostly in the smaller fractions with a one-point top. Losses were scattered.

Getting ahead were such groups as the railroads, steels, motors, chemicals, radio-televisions, electronics, and motion pictures. A somewhat backward air was found in the coppers.

Among higher stocks were New York Central, Chesapeake & Ohio, Amerian Telephone, Allied Chemical, Westinghouse Electric, General Electric, American Tobacco, Chrysler, and U. S. Rubber.

Former Auto Executive Elected to New Position

NEW YORK (AP) — James D. Mooney, former automotive executive, was elected president of R. Hoe & Co. Inc., by the board of directors Wednesday. He also was elected chief executive officer and a director, said Neil P. Cullom, board chairman.

Mooney, onetime vice president of General Motors and former president of Willys-Overland, succeeds Arthur Dressel who retired as president and director because of his health.

Young's Friend Buys Into NYC

800,000 Shares Sold to Two Texas Men for About $20 Million

CLEVELAND (AP)—Clinton W. Murchison, Dallas oil and gas millionaire and Sid W. Richardson of Fort Worth have bought the 800,000 shares of New York Central stock owned by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, the C. & O. announced today.

Murchison is reported to be a friend of Robert R. Young, now engaged in a battle for control of the New York Central system. The sale price was given as $25 a share. This would mean a total purchase price of 20 million dollars.

A brief announcement by Walter J. Tuohy, the C. & O. president, said the sale represented a profit of approximately $2,400,000. Tuohy said "the stock was sold at a profit to C. & O. shareholders. We have no further comment."

* * *

Murchison has extensive holdings in oil and gas but also is interested in banks, utilities, chemical companies, life insurance companies and holds several million dollars worth of securities in the Missouri Pacific Railroad.

* * *

The 800,000 shares are the largest single block of New York Central stock. They have been held in trusteeship by the Chase National Bank of New York, under a ruling by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Tuohy's announcement said the C. & O. directors meeting here today approved the sale of the entire block of shares. It was the first board meeting since Cyrus S. Eaton, Cleveland financier became chairman of the board.

He was named chairman in January when Young and his associates in Alleghany Corp. sold their C. & O. stock to Eaton and divorced themselves completely from the C. & O. This was a move to enable Young to initiate a new battle to acquire control of New York Central.

* * *

C. & O. began buying New York Central shares in 1948 while Young was chairman as part of Young's first move to gain representation in New York Central. Later, the ICC held that the two roads were serving the same general area and were competing and placed the shares in trusteeship to prevent Young and his associates from influencing the New York Central.

* * *

New York Central stocks closed yesterday at $24.

William White, NYC president said in New York last night that the C. & O. shares of Central stock had been purchased "by certain wealthy individuals who must have paid about 20 million dollars."

Young Spring and Wire Buys Hydraulic Firm

DETROIT (AP)—The L. A. Young Spring & Wire Corp. today confirmed reports that the firm had purchased the Daybrook Hydraulic Corp. of Bowling Green and Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

Daybrook produces hydraulic products and steel dump bodies.

N. D. Ely, president of L. A. Young, said operations of the new firm would be continued as the Daybrook Hydraulic Division of the L. A. Young Spring & Wire Corp.

Nash Motors Announces Single Unit Heater-Cooler

DETROIT (AP) — A single-unit cooling, heating and ventilating system for passenger automobiles soon will be introduced by Nash Motors.

Announcing development of the system Nash today said its factory price has not been finally determined. It indicated, however, the price tag will be sharply under those of any of the car cooling systems now in production.

New Railroad Car Shown

DETROIT (UP) — A new double-deck railroad car which carries six instead of four automobiles was unveiled Wednesday for manufacturers and trainmen. The auto loader, made by the Evans Products Co., of Plymouth is built on standard flat cars. It resembles an ordinary double-deck bed.

Webster School Parents See Teaching Methods Presented on Screen

The French Ministry of Education probably never heard of Pontiac's Webster School — but they have produced a film which depicts the school's teaching theories and techniques.

Several hundred Webster School parents reviewed "Passion for Life," a French education project, Wednesday night, prior to participating in their second parent-faculty workshop.

A PTA program, the workshops are designed to familiarize parents with teaching methods.

The first session was held in January. In March, a final evaluation meeting will take place with persons who have served throughout the workshops staging a panel discussion.

A picture in contrasting teaching methods, last night's film showed how a French village schoolteacher who believed in authority, firmness and discipline retired to make way for a young schoolman. The new teacher did not believe in regimentation but instead emphasized individual values and personalities in his classroom.

Amazed villagers watched, first with suspicion and then with approval, as boys and girls, hitherto believed to be mentally slow, became adept scholars.

Dr. Arnold Meier, from Wayne University and the Detroit Public Schools, spoke briefly saying that Webster school teachers were mindful of the individual differences and needs of each child.

He commended the workshops saying that parents who send children to school should know what is happening in classrooms and understand school methods.

The Stuart kings of England were enthusiastic devotees of cock fighting and it was long called the "royal sport."

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING

To the qualified electors of the Clarkston Community School District, Oakland County, Michigan.

Notice is hereby given, that a special meeting of the electors of the Clarkston Community School District, in the County of Oakland, and State of Michigan, will be held in the elementary school building in the Village of Clarkston, Michigan, on Thursday, the 4th day of March, 1954, at 7:00 o'clock A. M. Eastern Standard Time, to vote upon the following proposition:

Shall the limitation on the total amount of taxes which may be assessed each year against property in the Clarkston Community School District, County of Oakland, State of Michigan, for all purposes except taxes for the payment of interest and principal on obligations incurred prior to December 8, 1932, be increased as provided in Section 21 of Article X of the Constitution of Michigan, for a period of twenty (20) years from 1954 to 1973, both inclusive, by 1% ($10.00 per $1,000) of the assessed valuation as equalized, for the purpose of paying principal and interest on bonds aggregating not to exceed $600,000 in principal amount to defray the cost of erecting and furnishing an addition to each of the three elementary school buildings and an addition to the high school building, in said school district, and for the purpose of establishing a reserve for the payment of said principal and interest, with the provision that if in any year it shall not be necessary to levy all of such increase for the above purposes under the terms of the bond contract, then any surplus taxing power may be used to raise money for the building and site fund (it being understood that this is a resubmission of the proposition voted upon at an election held on February 2, 1954)?

Notice is further given, that the polls for said meeting will be open from 7:00 o'clock A. M., to 8:00 o'clock P. M. Eastern Standard Time.

The following statement has been received from the County Treasurer as to previously voted increases in the total tax rate limitation affecting taxable property in the school district, to-wit:

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR son and brother, Lawrence L. Bell.
Deep in our lives a lonely spot
Your bright face used to fill
But naught can take your memory
That shines there and always will
Sadly missed by mother, sister and brother, Mrs. Herbert Bell, Azel and Harold.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY darling husband Harry C. Taylor who passed away 2 years ago Feb. 25, 1952.
The joys we shared together
The memories I hold dear,
And the happiness you gave me
Keeps you forever near
Sadly missed by your wife, Bertha.

The EARLY BIRD gets the best LAKEFRONT for the dollar! On Townsend Lake near Waterford hill, we proudly present a 6 room brick ranch-home with full basement, 2 baths, 2 recreation rooms, over 100 ft. lake frontage. The stonemason owner used large quantities of expensive ledgerock inside and out. Compares favorably with $40,000 homes. Reduced for quick sale to $23,500, about 1-3 down. Be sure to see it!

Presents

LUCKY RIDER No. 4

Is This Your License Number?

MICHIGAN 1954

EJ 49-83

(This number also posted in our window)

If So . . .

You're Lucky Because You Have Cash Waiting AT

Cy Owens

Every day this week we're picking at random a license number of a car in Pontiac. If we pick yours . . . bring your registration certificate and we'll pay for your tags in good, cold cash. '53 or '54 licenses are all the same, we pay on either as long as it's the year and number appearing in our ad. Nothing to buy . . . nothing to do . . . no box tops or old fenders required. Just check our ad each day this week. YOU may be a Cy Owens Lucky Rider!

CY OWENS WISHES TO REMIND ALL AUTO OWNERS THAT THE DEADLINE FOR BUYING NEW LICENSE PLATES IS MIDNIGHT FEB. 27 1954. CO-OPERATE WITH THE SECRETARY OF STATE AND LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES AND PURCHASE YOUR NEW TAGS NOW!

A new CY OWENS LUCKY RIDER license number will appear each night this week . . . watch our ad . . . YOU may be it! (Cy Owens employees and members of their families not eligible.)

But . . .

If You Are Not Today's Lucky Rider You Can Be A LUCKY DRIVER

Forces His Way for an Audition

Berle Listens and Signs Him for Big Show on Television

NEW YORK — Charlie Applewhite is not one to do anything in half measures.

The young man from Texas came to New York last August seeking a vocal career and trudged the paths to agents' offices for two days without stirring any interest.

Then Charlie decided that the best way to start a career was at the top — and so he did.

Charlie got the office address of Milton Berle, walked to the building, rode up in the elevator, opened the office door, brushed past the office receptionist when he heard Berle's voice coming from an inner room, rushed into the room, closed the door behind him and said to the startled comedian, "Mr. Berle, my name is Charlie Applewhite, I'm a singer from Texas and I'd like to sing for you."

In a moment Berle recovered his usual composure and, intrigued by the lad's directness, said "Well, go ahead and sing!" Without benefit of musical accompaniment Charlie sang like he never did before.

At the end of his second song Berle's amusement turned to interest and within an hour he arranged an audition with a recording executive.

Charlie repeated his songs — this time with musical background — and was immediately signed for a recording contract.

Berle told the lad that he would spot him on his TV "Buick-Berle Show." His first performance on the Berle program last December brought enthusiastic response from critics and viewers.

The young singer is a product of Fort Worth, Tex., where he was born Nov. 25, 1932. He is the youngest of three children and the only one to show any interest in showbusiness.

Charlie's taste for a singing career prompted him to further his chances in New York.

Everyone considers Charlie as one of the "luckiest" persons in the world. No one is more amazed by his sudden success than Charlie is himself.

Norwegian Emigrant Receives Dutch Treat

MONTREAL (AP)—Edward Mydland, a Norwegian farmer emigrating with his wife and two children to a farm in Alberta, lost his wallet in Montreal's Central Station yesterday. In it were his baggage checks and nearly $200—all the money he had.

The wallet was found and returned by Robert Lampe, 8. He's Dutch, recently arrived with his mother and younger brother from their home in Gelsenkirchen, Netherlands, to visit relatives in Toronto.

Icebox Safety Boosted

TARENTUM, Pa. (AP) — To help eliminate abandoned iceboxes which are potential death traps for children, the Alle-Kiski Valley Chapter of the National Appliance and Radio-TV Dealers Assn. offers $1 to any youngster who brings in a lock or hinges from an abandoned icebox.

Firemen's Bill Is Tabled, Lacked One Vote to Pass

LANSING (AP) — House sponsors of a bill to limit the work week of firemen to 63½ hours may make an attempt today to turn defeat into victory.

The bill was voted down 50-39 yesterday, but sponsors kept it alive for a second vote by laying it on the table. It needed one more vote to pass.

If any of the 11 absentees from yesterday's session show up today and one of them can be persuaded to vote favorably, the bill will be reconsidered.

Yesterday's defeat was the closest to victory the bill had come in the many years it has been proposed. The vote was taken under the eyes of some 100 firemen from all over the state who hung intently over the rails in the gallery.

Rep. George M. Van Peursem (R-Zeeland) led the opposition. He said the 10-hour reduction of the present maximum work week would cost municipalities 14 per cent more to run their fire departments.

Favoring letting municipalities reduce the work week if they wanted to, Van Peursem said the bill was an invasion of the constitutional guarantee of home rule to municipalities.

Favorable debate was led by Rep. Howard R. Carroll (R-Mt. Clemens), a co-sponsor. Municipalities' rights are subordinate to the legislature's will, he said, which it imposes in many other cases.

The Legislature has taken away municipal employes' right to strike in the 1947 Hutchinson Act, he said, and the Legislature owes the employes protection.

The house passed 60-20 a bill permitting flood control districts to be set up in three or more counties. It was sent to the senate.

The measure could create water management commissions to govern the districts, coordinate flood control programs and assess local units for their support.

Rep. Louis R. Cramton (R-Lapeer) successfully sponsored amendments to prevent a minority of local units forcing a flood control district on a large area.

The amendments require that three or more counties must agree to initiate proceedings to set up the district if it is proposed to cover eight or more counties. The district commission would be required to pass major decisions, including assessments against local governments, by a two-thirds vote.

Saginaw County representatives unanimously opposed the measure, because, they said, they feared other counties in the Saginaw Valley would force them into a flood control district which Saginaw County would largely finance.

A bill taking away legislators' age-old right to a free set of Michigan law books every two years passed the House and was sent to the Senate.

The measure would permit lawmakers a full $75 set of the books only in their first and second terms.

The House State Affairs Committee reported it had killed bills to restrict advertising by mortuaries and to license and regulate television and radio repairmen, foresters and hoisting and rigging contractors.

Cleric Expects More Cold War

However, Archbishop of Canterbury Believes Danger Is No Greater

LONDON (INS)—The Archbishop of Canterbury believes Europe's cold war will continue but sees no increased danger of a shooting war as a result of the failure of the Big Four foreign ministers' conference.

The archbishop, Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, stated his position in answer to a questionnaire submitted by International News Service.

The questions and the answers of Dr. Fisher, 99th incumbent of the ancient archbishopric and leading English churchman, follow:

Q. Do you believe that the results of the Berlin conference have increased the danger of war in Europe?

A. I answer unhesitatingly "No."

Q. Do you believe that a meeting at a higher level should now be considered?

A. No.

Q. Since agreement is impossible for the time being on the German and Austrian questions, should the West proceed as swiftly as possible to implement the EDC treaty?

A. My answer to that would be "Yes."

Q. Do you believe the world must resign itself to a prolongation of the cold war?

A. There must clearly be a prolongation of the present unsatisfactory situation. It is less of a cold war than it once was, and I hope that it may go on getting less cold.

Element 100 Found by Atom Scientists

BERKLEY, Calif. (AP)—The list of known chemical elements has reached 100. Prior to the atomic age there were only 92.

Production and chemical identification of element 100 in the atomic reactor at Arco, Idaho, was announced yesterday by four scientists in the University of California radiation laboratory, the home of much atomic research.

Element 100, as yet unnamed, is by far the heaviest known, 254 times the weight of a hydrogen atom. It is more of a scientific curiosity than anything else. It is no good for atom bombs or atomic power.

Subway Opens Soon in Toronto

Fare on 4-Mile System Will Be 3 for a Quarter, Same as for Surface

TORONTO (NEA — Canadians will no longer have to travel south of the international border to find out what a New York subway is like in rush hours.

They can now find out at home on the new Toronto underground system which officially opens this spring, just four and one-half years after the first excavations began.

For a long time to come Torontoites expect they'll have the cheapest subway ride on the continent.

While it cost the municipally-owned Toronto Transit Commission close to $50,000,000 to build the four and one-half miles of subway under the city's main north-south thoroughfare, Yonge Street, riders will pay the same as on the surface system—three fares for 25 cents, with free transfers thrown in.

Late this summer fares are expected to increase to a straight 10 cents with free transfers.

Incidentally, the Toronto Transit Commission built the subway largely from surplus piled up over the years when fares were four for 25 cents. They were upped to the present only two years ago.

Riders will be able to tell their 12 stations by color as well as by name. The glass masonry walls will be either of egg shell, primrose or pearl gray, with bands of red, forest green, blue or black.

The subway cars, which were built in England, have been acoustically treated with cork and other sound deadening materials.

Rails have been set on rubber cushions on solid concrete slabs for quiet operation. And there are no dark tunnels. Even between stations the subway has been brilliantly lighted.

Sees Cows Given Too Much Protein

URBANA, Ill. (INS)—A University of Illinois dairy expert believes many dairymen are feeding their cows rations which are too high in protein.

Karl Gardner says dairy cows will not respond to a high protein ration, and adds that such a ration will not profitably increase production.

Therefore, he says, the farmer who puts too much protein in his dairy rations is going to a needless expense.

Edward II of England established the inch as the length of three barley corns laid end to end.
