STARTED HERE — It was in this Western Auto Supply Store that the fire which destroyed six Clare business places last night is believed to have started. Fifteen persons fled from apartments over the stores.

Fire Burns Out Business District Block of Clare

None Injured as Blaze Destroys Five Stores in Sub-Zero Weather

CLARE (AP) — A fast-spreading fire, originating in the basement of a supply store, last night burned out the west-side of a business district block, destroying five stores and causing damages estimated at $800,000.

No persons were injured in the fire. Six families, living in apartments above the stores, were forced to flee into zero weather.

One woman, Mrs. Leda Booth, 63, an occupant of one of the apartments, was taken to Clare Community Hospital for treatment of smoke inhalation. Her condition was good.

The fire was discovered at 10:30 p.m. in the basement of the Western Auto Supply store. It spread through the Fred Guiette Paint and Wallpaper Co., the Grove 5 & 10 Cent Store, the Charles Tavern, and Gambel's General Equipment store.

Firemen from Clare, Mt. Pleasant, Cadillac and surrounding communities fought the blaze.

The firefighters from Cadillac had to speed 46 miles to fight the fire.

Clare Fire Chief Stanley Parish said:

"The biggest single thing that saved us was Cadillac's ladder truck. It allowed a hose to be played down on the flames and stopped their spread.

"We also were worried that the sub-zero temperatures might cause a water supply failure."

4 DEGREES BELOW

The temperature dropped to four degrees below zero during the struggle to keep the fire under control.

Ammunition in one of the stores was exploded by the flames, and fumes from stocks of the paint store hampered firemen.

Clare's business district, along U.S. 27, is roughly four blocks long.

'Red Tape Battle' Being Won by U.S. Post Office

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Post Office Department today proudly announced a major victory in the "battle against red tape."

The department said that in the past four years it had eliminated 1,685 different forms "which formerly plagued the public and postal personnel."

In addition, the department said its program has resulted in "greatly simplified use" of many of the remaining forms and reduced the use of others.

And soon, the department said, 8,000 forms now used in major post offices will be pared down to 119—plus 55 newly designed forms.

Oakland Pilot Bomber Victim

Lt. Thomas H. Higgins Killed in Crash at Base in Texas

A 24-year-old Walled Lake Air Force officer was killed yesterday near El Paso, Tex. as his B57 jet bomber crashed on landing at Briggs Air Force Base.

First Lt. Thomas H. Higgins, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Higgins, of 3216 Stanforth St. died in the crash, along with First Lt. Russell E. Hanson, 24, of Cudahay, Wis.

The bomber, attached to a target tow squadron, smashed into the motor pool of the base, destroying two trucks and damaging several others. Parts also hit two other buildings. Civilian employe Gordon Jordon was injured.

Higgins and Hanson were flying alone at the time of the crash. The Walled Lake man's wife, Sandra, lives in El Paso.

School Lockers Show Fire Damage

HIT BY FLAMES — A damage estimate of $200,000 has been placed on the fire which consumed portions of the Utica Junior High school early this morning. Some 500 pupils got an unexpected holiday because of the blaze, which followed a basketball game held in the gym last night.

Pontiac General, St. Joseph List 3-Way Raises

Cost to Patients Soar on Room, Nursery and Baby Delivery Services

Two dollar per day room rate increases for both Pontiac General and St. Joseph Mercy Hospitals, were disclosed today by hospital officials.

Both local hospitals also approved increased rates for baby deliveries from $25 to $30. Nursery room rates also were hiked $2 per day.

Officials said the increases were necessitated by higher expected operating costs and salary boosts to hospital personnel. All new rates become effective Monday.

Approved unanimously by the 11-member Pontiac General Board of Trustees last night was a five per cent hike in the surtax charged to persons living outside the city and using the hospital. The charges went up from 10 to 15 per cent.

Nursery room rates at the city hospital were upped from $5 to $7, while at St. Joseph Mercy, rates went from $10 to $12, and from $11 to $13.

The trustees approved increases at their monthly meeting last night, while Sister Mary William, St. Joseph Mercy Hospital's administrator, followed suit this morning.

"Our hospital did this under a mutual agreement based on the fact that our costs are practically the same," she said.

OSTEOPATHIC RATES HOLD

Harry H. Whitlow, Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital administrator, said this noon no increases were contemplated.

Louis Swatzburg, comptroller at Pontiac General, said the increases there would bring an additional $305,742 in receipts.

The recommendation in a recently-completed management study of Pontiac General that more executive personnel be employed was another reason behind the increases, according to Miss Lauretta Paul, director.

Trustees Willis M. Brewer and Mrs. B. B. Roush voted against the room rate hikes. Three of the four new Board members, Cecil J. Cosgrove, Edward P. Barrett, and James Clarkston, abstained from voting.

Favoring the increases were: Rev. Theodore R. Allebach, Harold B. Euler, Joseph Jones, Harold S. Goldberg, William P. Babcock, and Charles E. Yeager.

The new Pontiac General rates will be: Ward rooms from $16

GOP Heads Divided on Good, Bad Effects of 'Stassen' Telegram

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans maneuvering toward the choice of a new national chairman weighed today the effects of a telegram which later was branded as "fraudulent."

H. Meade Alcorn Jr., Connecticut national committeeman, appeared still to have the inside track to succeed Leonard W. Hall Feb. 1, but the name of former Sen. Harry Darby of Kansas was entered in the speculation by some who prefer a new chairman from the West or Midwest.

Several others also have been mentioned, among them New York State GOP Chairman L. Judson Morhouse and Presidential Asst. Howard Pyle, a former governor of Arizona.

Harold E. Stassen described as "false and fraudulent yesterday a telegram purportedly sent by him to 40 or 50 GOP National Committee members saying "The "the time has come for liberals to take a stand. But not all those to whom it went are considered in the party's liberal wing.

The telegram urged support of Alcorn for the post, but could have had the opposite effect by stirring antagonisms within the party.

MAY HELP ALCORN

Two supporters of Alcorn, Senators Bush and Purtell of Connecticut, contended today the net effect of the telegram and its repudiation could help the Connecticut man's candidacy.

Bush commented that "I hope every member of the national committee and every loyal Republican will be offended by, and resent this fraudulent attempt to interfere with the election of a national chairman."

Utica School Gutted by Fire

Early Morning Blaze Makes Junior High Unusable for 500

A pre-dawn fire today gutted Utica Junior High School on Brownell street in Utica.

The blaze was discovered at 3:20 a.m. by an off-duty policeman, Frank W. Coluzzi of Utica, who was on his way home from work.

It was finally extinguished around 5 a.m., after Shelby Township firemen came to the aid of Utica's Volunteer Fire Department. The fire may temporarily idle approximately 500 pupils

Floyd H. Ebeling, superintendent of public schools, today commended firemen for their outstanding work in the near-zero weather.

The school was built in 1929, and houses 11 rooms and a gymnasium-auditorium. The center of the school was gutted, with most damage in the gymnasium and hallways.

Though a basketball game was held at the school last night, officials believe the fire started near the stage from defective wiring.

The school's estimated worth is $250,000, and officials, still conferring with insurance inspectors, are not certain of the amount of damage.

Mayor George Albrecht of Utica said, however, that he estimated it would cost about $200,000 to repair the building.

Officials, meeting in session with Supt. Ebeling this morning at 9:30, believe the school will be unusable for a long time.

They plan half-day sessions for the sixth, seventh and eighth graders in the newer annex of the school.

The Trinity Lutheran Church nearby has also offered the use of a vacant parish house for classrooms.

No Taxes in 1957? Tell Us the Secret

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—The 175 residents of Bethany Borough in Wayne County aren't going to pay local taxes this year.

Last night, members of the Borough Council met, looked over the financial situation and announced that there was sufficient cash on hand to run the northeastern Pennsylvania community for the year.

Lee Paynter, Council president, said the $4,000 in the treasury would be more than enough to tide the historic community through 1957. Last year, an impost of 5 mills was levied.

Parents Ask Youth Be Sent to Hospital

YPSILANTI (AP)—The parents of a teenage boy who slashed a school teacher with a razor last month have asked the youth be committed to Ypsilanti state hospital.

Harold A. Nielsen, county juvenile officer, said yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Avery Woods, the parents of Billy Woods, asked probate court to commit their son.

Young Woods slashed Ypsilanti Junior High School Principal George W. Canfield when the teacher reprimanded the boy. It took 20 stitches to close wounds on Canfield's cheek.

The boy has been in the University of Michigan Neuropsychiatric Institute for examination. A court hearing on the case is scheduled for next month.

California Road Patrol Buys 300 Pontiac Cars

Purchase of three hundred 1957 Pontiacs by the California Highway Patrol is announced by Frank V. Bridge, general sales manager of the Pontiac Motor Division.

The sale was made by C. B. Weltner, San Francisco Pontiac dealer.

Hospital Director May Resign Following Pay Boost Rejection

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Miss Lauretta Paul, Pontiac General Hospital director, said today she was "not decided" whether she would remain or resign after the Board of Trustees last night rejected a proposed $2,000 salary increase for her.

"There's an awful lot of good hospitals around to pick from," Miss Paul said from her home this morning.

Climaxing a five-hour discussion on the hospital's 1957 budget, the new 11-member board did approve, by a 6 to 5 vote, a $1,000 increase bringing the director's salary to $13,000.

Voting against the $13,000 payment were Harold S. Goldberg, Joseph Jones, Charles E. Yaeger, Harold B. Euler and William P. Babcock.

Prior to the vote, Goldberg told his fellow trustees: "Any vote giving her less than $14,000 would be asking her for her resignation."

Voting for the pay hike were Trustees Willis M. Brewer, Mrs. B. B. Roush, the Rev. Theodore R. Allebach, Edward P. Barrett, James Clarkson and Cecil J. Cosgrove.

FIRST SUPPORT

It was the first time that Mrs. Roush and Brewer, who openly have criticized Miss Paul's work at the hospital, have voted for an increase. Both voted down $1,000 boosts last January and July.

"I never told them I would resign," a bitter Miss Paul said today. "I don't feel very good about what they have done."

"They didn't give full consideration to the amount of responsibility that goes with administering two hospitals (the city hospital and annex) and for building a third one," she said.

"Right now I don't know what I am going to do," she added. "I realize that there still remain Possible brief respite from the cold wave which has much of the nation frosty-breathed was sighted today, with local predictions including a high of 12-16 today, dropping to 8-12 tonight. Last night's low was 3.

Tomorrow looks even better for the Pontiac area, which has suffered near-zero weather for the past five days.

U. S. Weather Bureau predictions indicate partly cloudy, with a high of 16-20. Snow flurries are probable.

However, the five-day forecast says temperatures will average 5-15 degrees below normal, which mean further bouts with frozen cars, water pipes and balky furnaces for area residents.

Preceding 8 a.m. the lowest temperature recorded in downtown Pontiac was three degrees above zero.

At 2 p.m. the mercury reading was 13 above.

Across most of the nation hit by the cold wave, the forecasts today indicated warmer, but still pretty frigid mercury maneuvers.

The University of Michigan has added a happy note to those glum about the outdoor conditions. Professor E. Wendell Hewson says it isn't so cold, and he has the charts and figures to prove it.

His charts show the average yearly temperature in Michigan has risen from 48 degrees in 1905 to 52 in 1956.

The annual snowfall, meanwhile has diminished from a 43-inch average in 1912 to a 32-inch average in 1956, he discloses.

By the year 2500, Hewson says Michigan winters, even in the frigid upper peninsula, will be pleasant.

U. S. Jets on World Flight

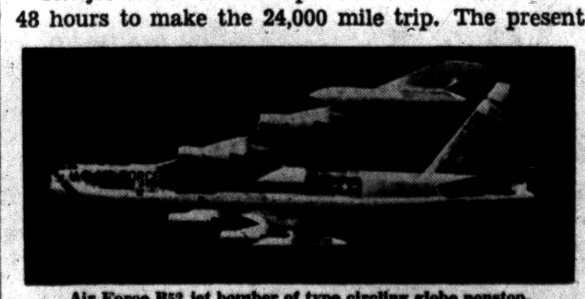

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Air Force has announced that 3 B52 intercontinental jet bombers have completed a 24,325-mile non-stop flight around the world in 45 hours. The average speed was 525 miles per hour.

MARCH AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (INS)—Three American B52 jet bombers were expected to land at March Air Force Base (about 3 p.m., Pontiac time) today after a history-making, non-stop flight around the world.

The Air Force would not officially confirm that the flight was in progress, but issued a statement saying "an event of historical importance" would terminate at March Base about 11 a.m. PST (3 p.m. Pontiac time) today.

The jet bombers were expected to have taken about 48 hours to make the 24,000 mile trip. The present record for a round-the-world flight is 94 hours, one minute—set by the "Lucky Lady" in 1949.

Today's Chapter of FBI Story: Murder in Alaska

Test of Slug Dug From Cabin Wall Traps Killer

Eritor's Note: The following article is the eleventh in a series of accounts from the exciting new book "The FBI Story," by Don Whitehead. Today's account is one of 30 chapters about the fabulous history of the Federal Bureau of Investigation appearing daily in The Pontiac Press.

By DON WHITEHEAD

The United States marshal at Nome, Alaska, had a problem in murder to be solved.

In mid-March of 1936 a blizzard swept out of the North. The icy winds moaned across the Alaskan mountains and the flatlands, driving men and animals to shelter.

John Nilima, an oldtime prospector and trader, retreated into his log cabin at a remote place called Old Buckland Village.

In the fury of the storm, a man stole to a sheltered side of the cabin, looked through a window, raised a rifle, took careful aim and shot John Nilima through the head.

Quickly the killer opened the door and stepped inside. He looked at Nilima to be certain he was dead; then he found the trader's cashbox and hurried back into the blizzard. The snow soon covered his tracks.

BULLET DISCOVERED

The U. S. marshal searched the cabin but the only clue was the bullet from the rifle of the killer.

The slug had gone through Nilima's head and embedded itself in a log. The marshal pried the bullet loose.

In the days that followed, the marshal found himself with two suspects. The first was an ex-convict, a known enemy of Nilima's, who had once threatened to kill the trader because of an argument over prospecting. The marshal noticed stains on his socks.

"Is that blood?" the officer asked.

"Yes," the ex-convict said. "I shot a reindeer and some of the blood dripped on my socks while I was dragging it home."

The marshal checked the ex-convict's rifle. It had been fired and hadn't been cleaned. Despite the man's protests of innocence, the evidence seem strong against him.

The marshal knew the FBI had a technical laboratory in Washington, D. C., where evidence was examined by scientific means.

It was a new development in law enforcement but worth trying out. Carefully he bundled up the rifle, the blood-stained socks and the bullet fired from the killer's gun. He mailed them to the FBI.

The marshal's second suspect was a young Eskimo who had been spending more money than usual at a trading post near his village.

He, too, insisted he was innocent, and he stubbornly refused to account for the source of his money. The marshal took the Eskimo's rifle and mailed it to the FBI also. Then he waited for the answers.

In the laboratory, the pieces of evidence were given to the men who had helped launch this project less than four years before. The stains on the ex-convict's socks weren't human blood.

And a ballistics expert found

County Sets Curb on News Releases

Acts to Control Data on Plans

State Rep. Anderson Asks Halt on Publicity Unless 'Cleared'

Lloyd L. Anderson, newly-elected state representative, took a slap at "unwarranted publicity" yesterday as he said farewell to the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

Supervisors gave him their unanimous support. They passed his resolution aimed at a public announcement by the county planning commission last month.

The resolution calls for all future announcements by the planning commission to be cleared by the supervisors first.

The announcement in question, Anderson said, concerned the possibility of a six-lane expressway passing through Pontiac as a link in the Detroit-to-Bay City interstate chain of highways.

Anderson did not specifically mention The Pontiac Press, which printed the story Dec. 4.

FAILED TO CONSULT

He said the announcement was made public without prior consultation with members of the supervisors' Road Committee.

This should be the standing policy of all activities controlled by the supervisors, he indicated.

The Waterford Township supervisor was a member of the supervisors' board six years.

In other action taken yesterday, supervisors decided on another step to stamp out rabies in the county. They approved a special $3 price for rabies vaccinations for dog owners who cannot afford the standard $5 price charged by veterinarians.

The lower rates will be administered by the county dog warden in cooperation with private veterinarians. The service will be on a cost basis to the county.

Resolutions were adopted concerning the recent gift of the Meadowbrook estate and mansion in Avon Township to Michigan State University for a branch college.

The resolutions expressed appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson, who made the gift, and to the university.

The board approved reappointment of Stanley J. Filkins as Deputy Oakland County Drain Commissioner.

It heard that Detroit, as owner of the Detroit Zoo and Rackham Golf Course in Royal Oak, will not join in the Twelve Towns Drain project in the southern part of the county. Detroit officials questioned the legality of the city's participation.

There were reports by the buildings and grounds committee, the civil defense committee, and the bylaws committee.

Gleason, Carney Planning Split

Jackie's Plans for '58 Will Not Include Art Who'll Go It Alone

NEW YORK (AP)—Art Carney and Jackie Gleason will part company says Carney's manager, after Carney's contract expires in June.

Carney and Audrey Meadows have been Gleason's two chief mainstays in his rise to the top as a television comic in the last five years.

William McCaffrey, Carney's personal manager, yesterday confirmed reports that Carney would leave Gleason's weekly show.

McCaffrey, saying the parting was amicable all around, added: "Gleason has other plans for next year and they don't include Carney. That's to Carney's liking too. We think he's ready to fly on his own.

"Our contract with Gleason ends in June. I don't presume to speak for Jackie or comment on what he's going to do. Art and I are very friendly with Jackie. Art owes a great deal to him.

"But my concern is Art. He has had a most successful engagement with Jackie and now Art and Jackie are going their separate ways."

There have been reports that Gleason may abandon his weekly show on CBS next season in favor of occasional spot shows.

CBS said yesterday it had no notice of Carney's decision. McCaffrey said, however, Gleason knows about it and did not raise any objections.

George Durgom, Gleason's manager, said yesterday the star "is not breaking up any company."

When asked if Carney's contract expires in June, Durgom replied: "Not that I know of."

Durgom said Gleason planned to reduce the number of his television appearances next season but did not intend to abandon the medium.

'MUST STOP'

"We've got to stop somewhere," Brewer said explaining his negative vote. "We're one of the highest-rated hospitals in the state."

Approval of the increases came during discussion of the hospital's 1957 budget, amounting to $3,896,477, some $870,473-004).

The Board approved the budget and referred its acceptance to the City Commission.

Trustees pointed out that the larger budget was necessary because of the appropriation to the annex ($595,809), wage increases totaling $127,125, payment of Social Security benefits to employes for the first time ($55,106), and payment of interest on general obligation bonds used to finance the new addition ($85,125).

Miss Paul May Quit in Pay Hike Dispute

two persons on the board whose primary purpose in life is to get me fired." She named the two as Mrs. Roush and Brewer.

Including Miss Paul's salary, the board approved, during acceptance of the budget, other salary hikes for executive personnel amounting to $127,125.

New Comptroller Louis Swatzburg was granted a hike from $8,500 to $9,500. Assistant Director Warren W. Simonds received a $500 boost bringing his 1957 salary to $9,500.

Other increases went to the accountant ($725), credit manager ($881), the chief engineer (to $6,750), and to the director of nursing, the laundry manager and the new assistant to the director Miss Shirley Dovre.

"I would be the very first one to vote for a good director's salary if we could get a more capable administrator," Brewer said.

Both Brewer and Mrs. Roush failed to respond to challenges from several trustees that they make a motion to dismiss Miss Paul.

Brewer did admit later that the work of Miss Paul "had improved to some extent since the report came out."

His reference was to the James Hamilton report completed last May on the management of the hospital. It was requested by the Board.

In the report, a recommendation was made that Miss Paul be granted "a reasonable period of time to strengthen the executive management and improve the internal operations of the hospital."

It also suggested her salary be increased to $12,000 at the time the report was completed, and to $15,000 in three years.

Stressing that several Board members were emphasizing the alleged weaknesses of the director, Yaeger said: "The report quotes that the 'position of director is inadequately enumerated.'"

New Trustee Edward P. Barrett failed in an attempt to table the salary increase discussion, stating that, "I'm not going to vote for this 17 per cent ($2,000) increase and I'm not sure I'm right in voting against it."

After a 20-minute recess at midnight, the Board returned and Barrett withdrew his motion. Brewer moved for the $13,000 payment to Miss Paul.

Mohn Challenge to Senate Quiz

'Lack Proper Authority,' Refuses All Questions on Union Policies

WASHINGTON (AP)—A top official of the giant Teamsters Union today challenged the authority of senators investigating alleged labor racketeering and refused to answer their questions.

Einar O. Mohn, executive vice president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, the nation's largest union, said he didn't believe the Senate Investigations subcommittee had "proper authority" for the inquiry it has launched.

"And for that reason," he said, "I decline to answer any questions."

The subcommittee called Mohn for an explanation of telegrams which it said he had sent to other officials of the union in behalf of Dave Beck, the teamsters general president. Beck is visiting abroad.

The telegrams, calling the committee's probe a "fishing expedition," urged the union officials to challenge the group's authority before giving any testimony or producing their records.

Mohn first was called before the subcommittee yesterday but questioning was deferred when he said he wanted to have his counsel present.

At the time the investigating senators said they wanted to find out if the teamsters' union was encouraging witnesses to "hide and conceal facts" about alleged racketeering.

Today's first witness was Dominick Santa Maria, 49, who refused to say whether as a custodian of funds of Local 227 of the old United Automobile Workers Union (AFL) he ever gave its members an "honest" financial report. He pleaded a truthful answer "might incriminate" him.

Fine Manufacturer $50 for Bad Sausage

Detroit sausage manufacturer John Lewis, of the Airplane Sausage Company, 1629 W. Philadelphia, Detroit, was found guilty Thursday and fined $50 for selling pork sausage in Pontiac containing too much fat.

Lewis, under investigation since last fall, appeared before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum. According to Sgt. W. Baerwolf of the Pontiac Police weights and measures department, pork sausage containing more than 50 per cent fat is under violation of a state food law. The sausage sold by Lewis' company contained 69.5 per cent fat, Baerwolf said.

City Youth Bound Over on Breakin Charge

The youth was arrested by city police Tuesday. He is to appear Jan. 28 on the charge of entering the Shamrock Dairy Bar Sept. 19.

Airline Increase Seen

FLINT (AP) — Domestic airlines will carry an estimated 115 million persons by 1970, compared with 42 million last year, Jennings Randolph, assistant to the president of Captial Airlines said in a Flint speech. He said U. S. airlines have more than two billion dollars worth of new planes on order — and more than half that amount has been spent for jets.

The Day in Birmingham

Pay Tribute to a Nurse of County Public Health

BIRMINGHAM — Orchids, roses and other blooms joined verbal bouquets last night to pay tribute to Anyce Gillette, public health nurse in Birmingham since 1943. A program sponsored by the Kiwanis Club here, had the assistance of the Soroptimist Club and Businesswomen's Club.

Mrs. Gillette was given special recognition by her 'boss' Evelyn Kidneigh and Dr. John Monroe of the Oakland County Health Department.

She served with the county department prior to coming to Birmingham and was praised by Dr. Monroe for her work at the county contagious hospital. Richard Gibson, new Kiwanian president, in making the presentation of a camera to Mrs. Gillette told the group there that when he called to notify her of her appointment she suggested that she sit down with him and help him 'find someone more deserving of this honor'.

"That," he said "is the kind of a woman Anyce Gillette is." Several present and past city officials along with officers of the clubs bore out his testimony in their own words of praise for Mrs. Gillette.

At the 'Flowers for the Living' it was noted that her husband George A. Gillette had bypassed a dinner being given in his honor for a recent promotion by the Ford Motor Car Company.

A native of Iowa, where she trained as a nurse, Mrs. Gillette came to Oakland County in 1926 and worked under the direction of the county board in Pontiac. She became well-known throughout the area for her skill as a nurse, sympathy and understanding of her patients and especially for her sense of humor which brought spots of joy into many an otherwise dreary life.

Mrs. Josephine Bronson, exemplified this is a poem she has written especially for Mrs. Gillette called 'A Tribute to a Nurse'.

An unlocked door at the Woodward avenue branch of the Detroit Bank and Trust Company was spotted and reported to Birmingham police by an alert passerby early last evening. Officers said that so far as they could determine nothing had been removed from the bank. They were left on standby duty until a proper official could come and make an inspection before locking the door.

The Saturday Morning Club, Baldwin Public Library from 10:30 to 11 will see youngsters from kindergarten to sixth grade listening to 'Peter Humbug and White Cat' and 'The Husband Who was Left to Mind the House'.

Sexton Testifies to a 'Blackout'

Admits Drinking Beer Before 2 Were Shot January 27

Former Pontiac patrolman James B. Sexton, 30, testified this morning he "blacked out" during the off-duty shooting of two friends almost a year ago.

Sexton admitted he had been drinking beer on and off for almost 10 hours proceeding the shooting early Jan. 27, but testified the first thing he remembers was "standing there with the gun in my hand after it had gone off."

His attorney Clarence L. Smith said he plans to show by medical testimony that Sexton was under the influence of a brain injury when he admittedly wounded Archie McCowan, 25, and James K. Stephens, 30, with his service revolver. Both men recovered.

During cross-examination, however, Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor, was allowed to question Sexton about his previous drinking.

Sexton admitted he had been drinking when he received a severe head injury April 1, 1955. On this occasion he was beaten by a man Sexton was attempting to arrest for illegal liquor sale.

Taylor said Sexton was making the arrest after three beers and while off duty.

Smith said this injury and three others to the head caused Sexton to suffer brain damage similar to epilepsy.

Judge H. Russel Holland overruled a prosecution motion to admit Sexton's previous plea of guilty to the shooting as evidence. The change of plea last summer resulted in a long delay before Sexton's trial.

Stephens testified yesterday he did not know why Sexton shot him. He said Sexton had been drinking but did not believe him to be drunk.

McCowan's testimony at the pretrial examination was allowed as evidence because he is absent from the state at present. This testimony agreed with Stephen's.

Sexton is charged with felonious assault. The trial heard by five men and seven women.

South Pole Crew 'Sweltering' at 10 Above Zero

While Pontiac area residents shivered in sub-zero weather yesterday, some 220 men "basked" in 10 above summer temperatures at "Little America" at the South Pole.

But residents shouldn't get discouraged and pack up for the 10,000 mile jaunt, as the "vacationing" men report that down here we're pretty fortunate.

"We haven't seen the sun up here since Christmas," was the report from the Pole.

This information was gathered by "ham" radio operator F. Keith Hills, of 36 Union St. He makes contact with the Pole many times a week.

He reported that the men at the Pole don't even bat an eyelash to the 10 above mercury reading. And why should they? Last winter the mercury almost plunged out of sight when it reached 78 degrees below zero.

Honored at Charlotte

CHARLOTTE (AP)—Carl Rochester, 34, Charlotte insurance agent, was named "Outstanding Young Man of the Year" Thursday by the Charlotte Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Your Income Tax

This is one of a series of articles prepared by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service to help you prepare your Income Tax Return.

BREAK YOUR ARM IN 1956?

If you did, and were absent from work due to that injury, or any injury, and your employer continued to pay your salary — you have a tax saving.

Just subtract the wages received during your absence from work from gross income, but do not subtract more than $100 for each week of absence.

The same benefits apply if the absence from work was due to an illness and you were hospitalized at least one day during the illness.

If not hospitalized during the period of illness, only the amount received after the first seven calendar days can be subtracted from gross income, but not to exceed $100 for each week after the first seven calendar days.

Of course your employer must include these wages on your Form W-2, before you can subtract the exclusion for injury or sickness.

Further information on income tax problems is available, without cost, to taxpayers at the Internal Revenue Service office, 53½ West Huron St. Phone FE 2-0208.

Seeking Waterford Township Opinion

Petitions Follow Year-Long Study

By REBA HEINTZELMAN
of our
Waterford Township Bureau

For more than a year, members of the Waterford Township Taxpayers Study Committee have been working on the pros and cons of incorporation, annexation, and charter township possibilities.

Tomorrow, members of the group will start circulating petitions throughout the township to begin incorporation proceedings, to be voted on by residents at a special election.

Not all of the 36 members who make up the Taxpayers Study Committee agree with incorporation of the township, at this time, according to Dave Hertler, 4146 Airport Rd. chairman of the group.

The entire committee, however, agreed that the only way to find out how the resident-taxpayers felt about the matter, was to get the petitions distributed in the community, and the voters would determine the next move by the Study Committee.

Members in favor of the home rule city government, contend that the Waterford Township type of government was originally set up by the state for a rural community of 5,000 residents.

The present township population is well over 40,000 people and will be close to 90,000 by 1970, according to a Detroit Metropolitan Regional Planning Commission estimate.

Those in favor of incorporation say that home rule cities have more control. Their legislative power is greater and they can plan for the future in a more efficient manner.

Some of the disadvatages stressed by Dr. Louis Friedland, head of the political science department at Wayne State University, were that upon the formation of city government, its citizens feel that more service should be provided; hence higher tax rates inevitably develop.

The fact that it is usually advisable to take advantage of the maximum tax rate of 20 mills, allowed under the constitution, seems to stimulate a desire on the part of the governmental officers to spend up to that maximum, thereby increasing expenditures.

Other officials of the Taxpayers Study Committee are W. G. Manchester, vice-chairman, Mrs. E. L. Windeler, secretary and Gerald Zubalik, treasurer. Grant McDonald heads the industrial improvement sub-committee.

Members include; Willis Lefurgy, Oscar Loomis, William Schunck, Mrs. Dorcas Tibbals, Louis Barry, Lloyd L. Anderson, Charles Pappas, Ray Harrington, and Mrs. Helen Reese.

Others are Mr. & Mrs. F. M. LeRoy, Eldon Johnson, Mrs. Maud Foss, Mr. & Mrs. Grant McDonald, Mr. & Mrs. W. Garfield Manchester, John Kosky, Lester Arie and Sam Garras.

Still others include O. T. Waller, Mrs. Rethel Bradley, Lee Kains and Col. Fred Thompson, Edward Sugar, John Hepler, Roy M. Gallup, Walter Finley Patrick Daly, Paul Willhite, Elma R. Johnson, Benny Mercado and Willard Johnson.

The next meeting of the Taxpayers Study group is scheduled for Tuesday, January 29th in the cafeteria of the Waterford Township high school.

McDonald Tells of 'Shock State'

Also Blames Sedatives for Discrepancies in Changing Story

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Marie McDonald, emerging teary-eyed from a grand jury hearing, blamed discrepancies in her kidnap stories on sedatives and a state of shock.

She repeated for newsmen yesterday a little of what she said she told the Los Angeles County grand jury investigating the case:

"I was in a state of shock when I made the statement in Indio," she said, "and I never had a chance to correct it." She said she had previously been given sedatives.

It was at a hospital in Indio, a small desert city 150 miles from Los Angeles, that the blonde actress first told her story of being abducted from her home by two swarthy men.

Later she re-enacted her story of the kidnaping at her Encino home as police cameras filmed the scene. She said that the jurors asked her about details of the first version. They ewre "very kind," she said, adding:

"I'm glad to clear up these so-called glaring discrepancies in my statement taken in Indio."

The jurors took evidence for almost nine hours and then adjourned without action until 10 a.m. Tuesday, when they will resume deliberations on possible indictments.

Quick Thinking Preserves Life

Doctors in Wisconsin Successfully Shock Heart With Lightcord

ST. CROIX FALLS, Wis. (AP)—William Fruehling was alive today because three quick-thinking physicians used an ordinary lamp extension cord to administer shock treatment after his heart stopped beating.

Fruehling, 49, was on the critical list but "doing as well as can be expected" and unaware of yesterday's drama to save his life.

He was walking in the business section of St. Croix Falls Wednesday when he suffered a heart attack. He was rushed to the town's small hospital.

The three physicians, who asked that their names not be used, then gave this account:

"The man's heart stopped beating. Without waiting for a washup we made an incision.

"One of us spread his ribs over the heart, reached in and massaged the heart with a bare hand. Another began giving artificial respiration. Oxygen was tubed directly into the lungs.

"The first reponse we got from the message was a quivering—a spasm of the heart.

"Such a quivering ordinarily is that of a dying heart.

"We didn't have the equipment that a large hospital would have for administering electric shock so we pulled the end off an extension cord. We gave direct shock to both sides of the heart muscle twice without results. The third shock stopped the quivering.

Farm Organizations at Odds

Disagreement on Drought Relief Plan

WASHINGTON (INS)—Heads of the country's two largest farm organizations are at odds over proposed participation by states in drought disaster relief work.

American Farm Bureau Federation President Charles B. Shuman told a Washington news conference his organization favors creation of a "permanent program" for drought problems which would include the matching of federal drought relief funds by some states.

Herschel D. Newsom, master of the 700,000 - member National Grange, said in an interview "We don't agree with that." Newsom added: "Our folks have refused to endorse state matching of disaster relief funds. We haven't condenmed it but we haven't endorsed it."

The national master pointed out that some state granges have been trying to get state participation in federal disaster relief measures but that the national organization has a hands-off policy on the issue.

Newsom likewise declined to go along with Shuman's endorsement yesterday of Ezra Taft Benson as Secretary of Agriculture for the next four years. He said his organization would work with any man holding down the job. Shuman, however, heaped praise on benson, saying:

"I don't know of anyone in the United States who would be doing a better job. I'm endorsing him (for another four years) as long as he continues to do an effective job. I might have to change my mind tomorrow, but on the basis of what he's done so far, he's done a good job."

Shuman and Newsom also differed on the outlook for net farm income in 1957. The farm bureau leader predicted "some improvement in prices and income" this year based on the same level of production.

Siberia Holds Record Cold

CHICAGO (INS) — New York state residents who suffered through the 55-below-zero temperatures this week may find some solace in the report of the Chicago Weather Bureau that it was far from a record low in the northern hemisphere or even the United States.

The world's official lowest temperature of 90 degrees below zero (Fahrenheit) was recorded at Oimekon, Siberia, in February 1933, and earlier at Verkhoyansk, Siberia, on Feb. 5 and 7, 1892.

In the United States the official lowest temperature was 70 below, recorded at Rogers Pass, Mont., on Jan. 20, 1954.

Unofficial readings have been even much lower. In 1938, Oimekon reported a low of 108 below zero.

A minimum-recording thermometer left at an altitude of 15,000 feet on Mount McKinley in Alaska during the first successful ascent in 1913 showed a low of 95 below when it was found 19 years later.

Meteorologists, however, said they found the thermometer slightly inclined with the bulb end uppermost, indicating a temperature lower than 100 below.

In the Western Hemisphere the lowest official reading of 87 below was recorded in Greenland at an altitude of 9,820 feet on Dec. 6, 1949. The Greenland Icecap is believed to be the coldest spot in the Western Hemisphere with low readings near 100 below.

Other official low temperatures were:

Fort Selkirk, Yukon, 85 below, on Feb. 3, 1947.

Snag, Yukon, near Alaska border, 81 below, Feb. 3, 1947.

Tanana, Alaska, 76 below, in January 1886.

The lowest temperature in the Antarctica was 83 below, recorded on July 21 and 22, 1934, by the R. E. Byrd expedition at Bolling Base.

Court Refuses Ballot Place to McWilliams

LANSING (AP)— The Michigan Supreme Court has turned down John T. McWilliams in his bid to get on the Feb. 18 primary ballot as a candidate for circuit judge in Wayne County.

McWilliams, an associate municipal judge in Dearborn, urged the court to upset refusal by the state canvassing board to certify him as a candidate. His plea was rejected yesterday.

The board last Sunday ruled that McWilliams's petitions of candidacy fell short of the required number of authentic signatures, holding that more than 10,000 of those he presented were not obtained in compliance with the state elections law.

McWilliams contended the board acted in an "arbitrary" manner in throwing out the signatures, and argued they should be presumed valid unless proof was made to the contrary.

How to Rinse Away Your Blackheads

By CLAIRE HOFFMAN

New York, N. Y.—A leading skin doctor today showed an audience of men, women and skin-troubled teenagers how to clean oily skin and shrink enlarged pores with a 10-minute home medical treatment he has perfected. Then he demonstrated how you may rinse away externally caused blackheads, whiteheads and dry up adolescent pimply skin eruptions.

Before our very eyes the doctor selected a 36-year-old woman with typically oily skin. This woman had blackheads around her nose, enlarged pores and whiteheads visible to the naked eye. To this woman's face the doctor applied a cream. Within moments it firmed into a plastic-like mask. Next he sprinkled her face with water, and handed her an ordinary washcloth to rinse the mask from her skin. To her utter astonishment, clinging to the washcloth were not only grimy streaks of dirt...but several blackheads which had marred her beauty for years.

As we stared at the washcloth in disbelief, the doctor's assistant turned to us and said: "You have just seen what looks like a miracle. Yet, what has just been done for this woman's skin, you can do at home just as easily. But to understand how this formula acts to help clear skin troubles you must first knock out of your head some silly notions most people have about their complexions."

The Truth About Cosmetics

Has it ever occurred to you that you lavish more care on your face than any other part of your body ...yet isn't that where you find the most pimples, blackheads, blemishes and enlarged pores? So what do you do about it?

Nine out of 10 women simply don't or won't understand that if they have oily skins, blackheads, pimples or enlarged pores, they may not only have a cosmetic problem...but a medical problem as well.

Now why is this so? Shocking as it seems, if nature gave you either a normal or oily skin, your face is always dirty! Why? Because 24 hours a day your face is always exposed to soot, smoke, factory dirt, car exhaust, coal dust, noxious fumes and other germ-laden dirt that pours into the air. It clings to the natural oils of your skin.

Your pores become choked and clogged. Your natural oils are stopped up and hardened into blackheads or pimples. They try to push out, forcing your pores to open wider and wider. Once this condition starts (especially during adolescence, when glandular disturbances make your skin extra oily) the condition usually grows worse and worse as you grow older. And when this happens...isn't it obvious that it may become impossible to correct unless you start to change your complexion care immediately?

Do This For A Cleaner Skin

If you want to rid your face of ugly blackheads, enlarged pores and externally caused skin eruptions, these are the three things you must do:

First you must soften the hardened dirt and oils that may have accumulated in your pore openings! Second, you must remove that dirt. (But don't squeeze it out. Squeezing only forces part of the dirt deeper into your skin.) And third, you must try to tighten your skin with shrinking and antiseptic agents, not only for beauty, but to guard you against reinfection! And unless you are prepared to do all three things, it's likely you will go on wasting your time and your money the rest of your life looking for "miracle cures!"

What Happens When You Apply This Doctor's 3-Way Formula

First to prepare your skin for treatment we are going to soften and loosen the buried dirt cemented into your pores. The scientific pore cleanser which is Part One of this famous skin doctor's treatment is unlike any other cleanser you have ever used in your life, regardless of how much you can afford to pay. And here is how you can prove it on your skin.

Apply the doctor's scientific pore cleanser. Tissue it off! Now look at the tissue!

When you see the gray streaks of dirt that come off—even after having creamed your face with any other cleanser—then will you begin to understand why you need a drastic change in complexion care.

(2) The second part of your doctor's treatment is a medicated masque which you apply.

Apply it to your face with your fingertips as you would any cream. A little thicker around the "danger area"...namely around the nose, lips, eyes and cheeks.

The first 3 or 4 minutes you will feel a strong stimulation. This is the massaging action of the medical ingredients going to work on your skin. Your face will feel alternately hot and cold. You will like it. Your skin will feel refreshed. It is like a massage without irritation, bringing fresh, purifying blood to your face to draw off the blemish causing wastes in your pores.

After a few minutes this hot and cold action goes away and a wonderful relaxation of all your tense, over-worked facial muscles sets in. Your pulse tends to slow down and you are so relaxed you feel a great tendency to fall asleep. In another moment you will feel your skin getting tighter and tighter. What is happening is this: A wonderful medical absorbing agent doctors call ARGILLA is drying on your skin. It is turning the cream on your face into a firm, plastic-like mask. You get a pleasant, drawing feeling, a relaxing feeling, there is a corrective action, there is an astringent action and an antiseptic action. You feel the ARGILLA drawing on the blackheads. Everything it touches perspiration, pore dirt, hardened oils even blackheads and whiteheads that have resisted removal for months.

After 10 minutes rinse the mask away. Hot or cold water makes no difference. It dissolves in a second. Your skin feels clean, refreshed, sparkling, smoother! Like velvet! But wait...you haven't finished your first treatment yet!

Now Apply Step 3 of Your Treatment...The Astringent

This is not merely a perfumed alcohol that tickles your skin for a few seconds. It's medicated. It penetrates into your pore openings. Kills bacteria lurking there. And even more important, leaves an invisible germ-destroying film on your skin that kills germs for hours.

Now Look Into Your Mirror!

Some of your blackheads should be gone with the very first treatment! Look for softened pimples and whiteheads that may break or be drawn out in your next treatment or two. Look at the corners of the nose, around your mouth, your cheekbones! See how your enlarged pores have tightened! Your skin will feel alive! And you will be amazed to see minor wrinkles softened—almost ironed out! And this fresh, buoyant, youthful effect will last for hours.

Is This For Normal Skin, Too?

Certainly. Simply because this is a doctor's formula doesn't mean that you have to have a "sick skin" to use it. You may be a woman past 30 who has never had a really serious skin problem, but who suspects that your skin is not as beautiful and freshlooking as it could be... but your cosmetic creams can't give it to you. In that case...we think you'll be thrilled by the sheer, smooth, silken beauty that one or two treatments can give you.

On the other hand...if you have an adolescent, broken-out skin; if you are a man who is troubled by blemishes or a "sandpaper skin" and you are sensible enough not to be ashamed to use a so-called "woman's treatment" in the privacy of your own home...or if you are a woman who has abused her complexion with improper and inadequate cosmetic preparations... then this is vital.

We promise you dramatic improvement with your first 15-minute home treatment. Your mirror will show it to you, and we promise you further rapid improvement for the next 14 days.

After 14 days, you will discover whether you have to keep using all or part of the treatment every day, once a week, or once a month, depending on how fast your complexion begins to clear.

Try This Skin Treatment In Your Own Home Without Risking A Penny!

The name of this 3-day doctor's formula is the Queen Helene Skin Treatment. It is named in honor of the nurse who worked at the doctor's side for 15 years while this formula was being developed. Your Queen Helene 3-way formula, enough for 33 home treatments, includes your scientific cleansing cream, your medicated mask cream and your medicated pore astringent. The cost is $3.98...less than 13 cents a treatment. Yes, less than 13 cents for a skin specialist's 3-way skin and beauty treatment.

Follow your daily progress in your mirror and after each treatment, if your Queen Helene treatment does not do for your skin everything we have led you to believe it will do. If you don't see dramatic improvement after just one 15-minute treatment, if you don't see a further improvement each day for the next 14 days, return the unused portion. We'll thank you for trying it, and refund your full purchase price.

But act today! The longer you wait the worse it is bound to get. And like any other condition, the worse it gets, the longer it takes to get well. So right now, while you're determined to help yourself, send coupon today!

Expert Sees Early End to Southwest's Drought

President Eisenhower's current six state tour of the drought stricken Southwest raises the question of what can be done, aside from immediate relief, for the suffering farmers.

One of the Nation's weather experts, Dr. Hurd C. Willett of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, thinks the end of the drought is in sight.

In an interview in U.S. News & World Report this eminent meteorologist says that lack of winter storms from the Pacific coming through in a southerly route caused the Southwest drought. This area gets most of its moisture from that direction. The Central Plains are dependent for rainfall mostly from the Gulf of Mexico.

The more northerly route of Pacific storms at this time can't be explained definitely but sunspots — disturbances in the sun's atmosphere — are considered to be responsible. The spots come and go in cycles every 10 or 11 years and seem to have a definite effect on the earth's atmosphere.

Dr. Willett thinks we are almost at the peak of a double sunspot cycle and now should be at the beginning of the end of the drought. If the weather pattern repeats as in the past, we can expect the 1960s to be a comparatively wet period in the drought area, he believes.

The scientist is of the opinion that the drought area now is in for quite a few years of better conditions and bumper crops. Based on the sunspot theory it will be 45 to 50 years before there is another drought extending northward as seriously as this.

Long range weather prediction is one of the most complex studies in the world. If scientists knew all the answers, it would save billions of dollars and a lot of heartbreak and suffering.

Canada's Boom

After an 18 months study, a Royal Commission in Canada has issued a preliminary report on the country's economic outlook.

The commission thinks that by 1980 the population will have grown to 27 million from the present 16 million and that the gross national product will have tripled from its estimated 1956 rate of $45 billion.

During postwar years Canada has had an exceptional growth. Discoveries and development of oil, nickel, copper, uranium and other minerals have required more man power and capital. Territories far north to the Arctic Circle are being opened.

The report points out the need for more foreign capital to develop industry and stresses the necessity for a higher ratio of domestic investment. It is estimated that of the $48 billion invested in Canadian industry in the past 16 years, nearly one-quarter has come from the United States.

Another suggestion was a change in government policy to permit the export of electricity to the U.S. Also counselled against was rigid insistence that metals and minerals be processed in Canada instead of being exported as raw material.

Our neighbor's vast storehouse of natural resources is a comforting thought to this country. The whole continent will benefit. As Prime Minister St. Laurent of Canada said recently "no other two nations benefit more from genuine mutual understanding and close cooperation with one another."

Malayan Federation Given Independence

Under terms of an agreement with Britain, the Malayan Federation will become independent this year and remain within the Commonwealth.

Both countries have been moving steadily toward this important development. Britain will give substantial financial aid to the new nation for the first five years and will have the right to maintain in Malaya such military forces as are necessary for internal and external defense.

Communist terrorism in Malaya cost thousands of lives and millions in property damage and got the Reds nothing. Malayans (Malays and Chinese) had capable and honest leaders who were not taken in by Communist propaganda. While terrorism hasn't ended completely, it has been curbed effectively.

The Federation will have to be kept strong and both Britain and Malaya recognize that. Both countries are to be congratulated on the political progress made.

Colder Times in Former Years; Signs of Spring

Thermometer: A forgotten device, except when it reaches for the top or the bottom.

"You begin to hunt for records when it drops below zero," writes of Drayton Plains, but according to his diary, there rarely was a winter previous to 1940 when it did not go at least 20 below, and "one winter we had a whole week when it never got above zero."

Writing from Detroit,

says he well remembers that big storm of 1886, when he was a boy in Pontiac, and helped dig tunnels through the snow drifts so Saginaw St. merchants could get customers into their stores.

Butterflies hatching out in zero weather is the joyous experience of

of Rochester. She gathers the cocoons in the fall and keeps them in a sunny window.

Giving tulip, hyacinth and daffodil bulbs an outside start in the fall,

Robert H. Gorsline

of Milford keeps them well covered until Christmas, then brings them into the house, and they bloom all winter.

There are indications of spring, in spite of what the thermometer says, according to

of 576 Hospital Road. With the mercury around zero, a wren arrived at the Johnson home Wednesday evening. It refuses to associate with their parakeets, so it has been given free run of the house.

Several people have told me about the valiant, but futile work of the White Lake Fire Department, in their efforts to save the life of young

David Lawrence Says:

Nasser Regime Shortly Doomed

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — The beginning of the end of the Nasser regime in Egypt is in sight. The fact is that within a year or so the United States may be seriously considering aid to the Egyptian people due to the plight in which they may find themselves because of the misguided policies of Nasser.

This is the emerging picture of the Middle East. It may explain why the Eisenhower administration is declining to say at this time just which countries it will eventually help with the economic measures being considered by Congress.

Secretary of State Dulles, in the testimony he gave in closed session to the House Foreign Affairs Committee this week, a portion of which now has been released, said that several Middle East countries are faced with economic chaos as a result of the closing of the Suez Canal and the blowing up in Syria of the oil pipeline from Iraq. Mr. Dulles declared that there are no immediate plans to use any funds to aid Egypt financially but that he hoped Egypt would be free of Communist influence "in a year or two" and then would become eligible for help. He added:

"I do not think the fact that they once perhaps made a reckless transaction and mortgaged much of their crops to finance arms should bar them from help at all times."

This is but another way of saying that Nasser's mistakes will not be held against the Egyptian people, who presumably will take care of the Nasser blunders themselves with a new government of their own choosing. This country is not concerning itself with Egypt's internal affairs, but the handwriting on the wall is plain—Nasser has all but ruined the economic future of his own country and alienated neighboring countries with oil to sell.

When the Egyptian people wake up to what has happened, they will remove him from office, not because of what Britain and France have said about the impossibility of doing business with Nasser but because the commercial groups of every major nation have come to the same conclusoin.

Why, for example, should any investors throughout the world put up any money for the widening of the Suez Canal or otherwise to improve it for future expansion if Nasser at any moment might seize their properties and do with them as he pleases?

In fact, there is grave danger that the Suez Canal will not be the same important waterway in the next ten years that it has been in the past. New pipelines to Mediterranean ports from the Arab countries, by-passing Egypt, are a virtual certainty now. The United States government doesn't have to participate in the financing of such projects. They will be developed in the natural course of events by business leaders of various countries in constructing projects that will insure a steady flow of oil through friendly countries. The Arab countries, moreover, which have been hurt by Nasser's tactics and want to sell their oil will cooperate in building the new pipelines.

Also, larger and larger tankers are being ordered which in a few years will carry more and more oil around the Cape of Good Hope and avoid passage through the Suez altogether. The large-size tankers can transport more oil and do it more economically than the smaller ones that go through the Suez Canal. It takes a little longer voyage, but the expense is about the same. Already the tanker construction business everywhere is one of its biggest booms, and Nasser is really the man these builders of giant tankers have to thank.

For many weeks there have been two fallacies widely published and widely believed. One is that Nasser was provoked by the withdrawal of American funds for the Aswan dam and hence seized the canal as a reprisal. This isn't true. The American government has evidence that the Egyptian dictator intended to seize the canal long before the offer of money to help build the big dam was withdrawn.

Another fallacy is that Nasser's prestige has been enhanced by the American policy of siding against the British and French when they resorted to military action in and around the Suez.

Actually, it has worked the other way. From the day the British and French took the initiative and used force, the Nasser regime was doomed. For it meant that businesses of all kinds in Western Europe would be wary of Egypt.

The end of Nasser as a dictator and a reversal of his policies are inevitable if Egypt is to survive as an independent nation.

"How come you're getting gray hair, Pop?"

Dr. William Brady Says:

Doc's Ol' Hoarse Remedy Takes Kick Out of Cough

Before you undertake to do something about that cough, whatever the cause may be, it would be wise to consider whether coughing in the circumstance is beneficial or harmful. A reasonable amount of coughing improves circulation in the great body cavities abdomen and thorax.

Coughing aids expectoration or drainage from the breathing passages — an important matter in many cases of winter cough, chronic bronchitis, emphysema, and particularly bronchiectasis (dilation, ballooning of bronchial tubes, forming a cavity or cavities).

In Volumette 5 of the Pocket Cyclopedia of Health, titled "Call it CRI" (35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope), I give instructions for whipping up a batch of foolproof cough medicine when any member of the household really needs something for a cough. I call it foolproof because even if a child should swallow the whole batch while you are not looking no serious harm would be done.

But before you attempt to add Ol' Doc Brady's Foolproof Cough Medicine to your Family Medicine Cupboard it would be well to try to purchase, say, an ounce of sodium citrate (citrate of soda) and two ounces of whole flaxseeds and an ounce or two of glycerin and a lemon and perhaps a wee bit of essence of peppermint.

GET INGREDIENTS

First get your sodium citrate. Then steep for 20 to 30 minutes a heaping teaspoonful of flaxseeds (whole seeds, not ground flaxseed meal) in a pint of water.

Dissolve an ounce of citrate of soda in the flaxseed tea and add the juice of a lemon and an ounce (Two tablespoonfuls) of glycerin, stir a little and finally add a drop or two of essence or oil of peppermint or any other flavor essence you prefer. Finally strain the pint or more of cough medicine.

This homemade foolproof cough medicine is good for man or child —when any member of the household needs something for that cough, give him a 24-hour course of Ol' Doc Brady's Homemade Foolproof Cough Medicine. It can do no harm in any circumstance.

For adults the dose is a tablespoonful every 2 hours for a day or two. For infants or young children the dose is a teaspoonful every 2 or 3 hours for a day. Continue it longer if you wish, but usually a day is enough.

Keep it in a cool place, preferably in the refrigerator, but throw it out and make a fresh batch if it is more than 48 hours old.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Tells Aged, Ailing to Keep Moving

Grandpa Miller has shifted from hobbling on his cane and crutch to walking more swiftly by means of a light aluminum "walker." If you have arthritis, by all means keep in motion. Walk your daily quota of city blocks or your joints may "freeze" so you then become bedfast invalids or slaves to a wheelchair.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case T-377: Eli Miller, aged 94, is my father-in-law.

Several months ago I mentioned his grief over the loss of his faithful bird dog, which had been his sole companion for many years.

Hundreds of you readers wrote very gracious letters of sympathy and made many helpful suggestions, so I shall give you a follow-up about Grandpa Miller.

We obtained a new dog for him from the dog pound at Crawfordsville, Ind. It was apparently a cross between a terrier and a greyhound, being white with a few brown spots.

Grandpa named her Belle, after a dog he had owned 60 years earlier, and he soon shifted his affection to her.

Now he proudly exclaims he wouldn't take $1,000 for Belle if anybody would lay that amount of money on the table to buy her.

ARTHRITIS CURES

But he still lives in our farm house and hobbles around with his cane and crutch.

In recent months, however, we have persuaded him to employ an aluminum walker, which has four legs with rubber tips thereon.

I have noticed that he maintains far better posture when using the walker and thus doesn't twist his pelvis and hip as much as formely.

Besides, he travels much faster with this very light aluminum walker than he ever did with his cane and crutch.

If any of you readers suffer from arthritis, as he does, by all means keep in motion!

Don't sit around in idleness, meekly watching TV all day long. Fight and fight some more to keep your feet moving.

When we pass the age of 65, we are only two feet from slavery!

And those 2 feet are our own pedal extremities.

So stand on your feet and use them, or ultimately your joints will "freeze" tight and you'll be a bedfast invalid.

And as soon as you can no longer walk, you are then a slave to the attendants who wait upon you.

Remember, therefore, that you are only two feet from slavery! So get on your "dogs" and keep them moving every day.

Keep a large wall calendar in your kitchen and mark thereon the number of city blocks you have walked every day.

Also, get yourself a pedometer, which is a little gadget that Boy Scouts use to measure how far they hike. It will help prod you into walking your daily stipulated distance.

Old folks shorten their lives by sitting still, so keep in motion.

PROD GRANDPARENTS

Help prod your grandparents into thinking forward. Encourage them to make plans for the future.

And don't direct their attention to their "innards," as by asking: "Howdy, Grandpa, how are you feeling today?"

That's a medical query so leave it for the physician. Besides, it just causes Grandpa to launch on a tale of his aches and pains.

Instead, ask him questions about politics or his garden or inquire about Grandma's quilts or African violets, etc.

Turn the attention of your elderly relatives outward. Don't steer them toward their medical "innards."

And be sure they get to church every Sunday. Never let them vegetate but urge them into action.

And write to your elderly relatives more often to build up their ego for a fractured ego can shorten their life as readily as a fractured hip!

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

'Surround Young People With Beauty and Culture'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Mrs. F.J.C. writes to ask why the Board of Education is planning an ultra-modern high school in place of the conventional type. She wonders whether the children "learn more" because the grounds and surroundings are more beautiful.

I think they do. Mr. George G. Booth once said he built Cranbrook as beautifully as he could for he believed young people were entitled to the finest surroundings possible during the formative years of their education. Kingswood is the most beautiful girls' school in America and the quality of the work is in keeping.

I believe it is easier for young people to work extra hard when they labor in beautiful surroundings. Art, sculpture and wonderful architecture are an inspiration in themselves. They promote a realization of bigger values in life. They induce a finer outlook and a more friendly spirit, I believe beauty is contagious. I believe it's an incentive.

I can't prove all these things, but boards of education all over America agree with me. Let's enrich Pontiac. Let's contribute to her cultural progress whenever we can. Let's struggle eternally towards a City Beautiful. Let's sacrifice to surround ourselves with as much art and as many cultural things as possible. We have built too heavily here on a material basis.

Personally, I went to school in a drab, colorless, uninspiring structure. I revel in the fact my two younger children may have the thrill and the supreme satisfaction of "going to high school" in a magnificent setting.

We're in reasonably modest circumstances, but the few extra dollars it costs us in taxes will be well spent.

'Carlotta' Laughs at Cold Shower

I get a snicker when I think about these "cold shower every morning" boys. I don't mean the ones that break the ice in the lakes and challenge pneumonia. I mean the group that takes a cold shower every morning at home and brags about it all day. I mean the hardy battalion that is wooing heart attacks, arthritis and gout. How are they progressing these snappy days? Haw, haw, haw!

'Cold Wave Slight Next to Drought'

It got down to zero but compare that with these drought areas where they haven't had any crops in several years. Think what the economy must be there: no cash, no jobs, no business and no prospects. Picture 29 million acres of that.

Michigan is a pretty swell state and Pontiac is a high class city. We aren't perfect but we don't suffer the horrible misfortunes that seemed to be visited on others.

This Is the Mideast

Cautious Arabs Tilt Ears to West

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

Grinning with satisfaction, a prominent Arab leader showed me a message.

It informed him the sheiks of Kuwait, wallowing in oil riches, were to contribute huge sums to Egyptian relief after the British-French-Israeli attack.

"The sheiks were nudged," he admitted, "and his quick reply is a symptom. The sheiks, like most Arab rulers, are afraid."

The sheiks showed, the only way they knew how, that they were on the side of the Arab people—the young, the unpropertied, the frustrated, the angry people restlessly seeking change. Arab rulers, long aloof from their subjects, seem to sense danger.

Against such a background, President Eisenhower has the leaders of the Arab East listening intently—perhaps hopefully.

But they are far from agreeing.

The Arabs have heard him say the United States will resist Communist-dominated armed aggression in the Middle East and consider a new program of economic aid. The Arabs will find much wrong with this declaration — but the most significant fact is that they are listening. They seem to be saying: "Let's start from the Eisenhower Doctrine and talk."

But the fact that the President made his declaration at this tense moment tends to fill one of a number of menacing voids in the Middle East. In effect the President committed the United States to fight if Comunist armed forces move into the area and the affected nation asks help. That would tend to plug up one avenue of danger.

The heart of unrest in the area is the Palestine problem. The Eisenhower Doctrine said nothing about it. But unless there can be some easing of the tension it generates, there can be no hope of making a start toward calming and stabilizing an area which can mean life or death to West Europe's economies.

Arabs protest that Eisenhower spoke only of aggression from a Communist source and mentioned no other source of attack. Other Arab critics say the doctrine centers on open Soviet aggression, skirting what is more likely to happen—attempts at indirect political and economic infiltration.

Other Arab leaders — particularly those whose economies depend on oil — are aware that Europe is their only market. The Russians don't need the oil. The Arabs can't use it themselves. They have everything to lose and nothing to gain by continued chaos in the area. These leaders too are listening.

Next: Problems the doctrine doesn't solve.

Khrushchev Had Called Him Mass Murd

Stalin 'Model Communist' Says Turn-About Leader

MOSCOW (AP)—Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev, who called Stalin a mass murderer last February, now says the late dictator was a model Communist fighter for the working class.

Khrushchev made his latest declaration of Stalin at a reception on Stalin at a reception given for Kremlin leaders last night by visiting Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai. It was in keeping with Khrushchev's startling defense of Stalin at a New Year's Eve banquet in the Kremlin.

As the Chinese plied their guests with Soviet brandy and Chinese wine, Khrushchev grabbed a microphone to declare that he is a Communist.

"But some people say you are a Stalinist," Soviet Premier Bulganin interjected.

"I am a Stalinist," Khrushchev asserted, "but I don't separate Stalinism and Stalin from communism. As a Communist fighting for the interest of the working class, Stalin was a model Communist. . . .

"We have criticized Stalin," he continued, "we still criticize him, and if necessary we will do it again. But we do not criticize Stalin as a bad Communist as far as the interests of the working classes are concerned.

"Stalin had his bad points. Lenin saw them before we did and pointed them out. They were borne out. The defects were bad. But in the things that counted, that is the interest of the working class, God grant that every Communist should fight for the interest of the working class as Stalin did."

Loud applause went up from the audience, which in addition to the Soviet leaders included diplomats from countries that have recognized Red China. Western newsmen also attended.

Khrushchev, flailing his arms while his listeners laughed and applauded, continued his defense of Stalin and rejected Stalinism as a term of abuse. Bulganin tried to get him away from the microphone, but he kept speaking. The party boss denounced capitalism, saying its death is as inevitable as the fact a pregnant woman must give birth.

Chou gave the party for the Soviet bigwigs after a flying trip to Hungary and Poland.

Left Alone, Sleeping, Infant Dies in Fire

FLINT (AP)—A fire broke out in a remodeled garage home on the outskirts of Flint yesterday, killing a 13-month-old baby.

State Police said Mrs. Gerald Earegood had left the infant, Richard, sleeping while she visited her mother-in-law nearby.

She returned home about a half hour later to find the house in flames.

State police said Mrs. Earegood had been drying clothes inside the one-story house near a gas heating unit. The clothes, troopers appearently brushed the heating unit and caught fire.

The baby had just been fed and was sleeping.

Its father was at work when the blaze broke out.

NEW YORK (INS)—The spry, gentle, wonderful father of my friend Vincent X. Flaherty of the Los Angeles Examiner passed away recently in Washington, D.C.

In a note to me about the sad occasion, Vinnie writes something that one seldom thinks about. Read this:

"You know the old thing about being lucky for having had a beloved mother or father so very long—the full life sort of thing—really doesn't add up. The longer you have them, the harder it is to lose them, and the more they are missed.

"I felt good just sitting out here in California because I could phone Pop any old night and he'd be there. Whenever I got as far east as Chicago I'd fly in to see him, and I spent vacations back there.

"I really spent a lot of time with Pop since moving out to the coast . . . but not enough. Not enough."

The whole world has its eye on the plight of the Hungarian people. There were collections being taken up in Australia, Singapore, Bangkok, Hong Kong, Tokyo and Honolulu when I came through there last month.

There was warmth and affection everywhere for these people, and bravos everywhere for the way in which the people of the U. S. have pitched in to render aid.

To beat these desperate people back from escape hatches at this stage of the humanitarian work, because here and there might be a decoy, would chill the heart of the free world and make is resemble a lion fearing a mouse.

There is urgent need for much more immediate aid, comfort and hospitality at the border. The Hilton Hotels and Pan American World Airways are doing something constructive about it, and other organizations and transportation media might follow suit.

COLD PREVENTION

In case you missed it, this was Common Cold Prevention Week. Probably too busy catching a cold.

The Grove people, who have both an ax and a pill to grind, figured on the company Univac that 48,000,000 people will catch cold during prevention week. One shudders at what the toll might have been without adequate warning.

At that, colds cost the nation $5,250,000,000 in lost wages each year, leading pill company statisticians swear.

They add, resignedly, "There is no positive way to prevent colds, other than tying a transparent plastic bag tightly around the neck." A transparent bag apparently is called for so the family can see the cold preventer smother.

Other "weeks" upcoming: Large Size Week, which naturally lasts 10 days; National Television Serviceman's Week, Better Bedding Month (May), National Canned Hamburger Month (also May), National Fun Day (get set folks for massive chuckles on April 26), National Cage Bird Week, National Can Opener Week (beginning on my birthday, ominously enough) and Rock'n Roll Week, Sept. 16 to 21—an admirable time to leave the country.

Satellite Unrest Causes Drain on Economy

Kremlin Leaders Fear Ike Program; See Need for More Than Propaganda

MOSCOW (AP)—Foreign diplomat in Moscow say the Kremlin genuinely fears President Eisenhower's Middle East program and is trying desperately to find an effective counterattack.

The diplomats have talked with Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov and other Russian leader. They say the Soviet reaction sums up to this:

1. The Russians see the Eisenhower doctrine as another step toward Western encirclement of the Soviet Union.

2 Their opposition is not just anti-West propaganda.

3. The Kremlin knows it has to come up with something concrete, not just propaganda, to defeat the new U. S. move.

The foreign diplomats point out, however, that the satellites are draining the Russian economy so heavily the Soviet Union can't hope to match U. S. dollars.

Several diplomats in Moscow, including some friendly to the West, also say emphasis on the military side of the Eisenhower program, on the heels of the British-French invasion of Egypt, was a mistake.

"If the military aspects had been dropped or minimized, the program would have been hard to beat," one commented.

One diplomat after discussing the Eisenhower proposals with Soviet leaders said he believes the plan "still has the Soviet bosses off balance. They fear it and are seeking effective means of combatting it."

Red Press Hits at Rock 'n' Roll Craze Now Popular Behind Bamboo Curtain

HONK KONG (INS) — Rock 'n' roll, cha-cha-cha and other Western dance rhythms have penetrated the Bamboo Curtain.

And they are spreading fast, much to the concern of the Communist Chinese authorities.

Open and clandestine dancing parties are being held in Shanghai as well as Peking almost daily, lasting into the early hours of the morning.

The picnic, however, will be short-lived. The authorities have already taken note of what they describe as "the undesirable tendency fostering moral degeneration and slackness in discipline."

The Communist Chinese press also has complained about students refusing to participate in political studies and factory workers refusing to attend political meetings, preferring to pass their time reading comics, thrillers, or dancing.

One Communist newspaper reported that students and factory workers even performed the rock 'n' roll and cha-cha-cha in parks along the famous Shanghai Bund, "singing ribald songs and swaying in a fantastic manner."

The Shanghai newspaper Hsin Wen Jih Pos commented that "unrestrained dance party activities have now developed into a social problem deserving serious attention of the Shanghai community."

The dance craze, apparently introduced into Communist China through recordings sent or brought from Hong Kong, has resulted in the reemergence of dance hostesses who are now much in demand at both open and underground dance parties. These parties, according to the Communist press, are patronized by minor government officials as well as young factory workers and students.

The demand for admission tickets to dance parties is so great that a black market has come into existence—a nominal five-cent ticket selling for as high as 80 cents.

Describing one clandestine dance party, the newspaper said that "on the crowded floor, underground dance hostesses, clad in strange, provocative dresses, rubbed shoulders with nearly 100 juvenile delinquents and rascals of both sexes in fancy dress and rocking the steps commonly done by American sailors."

Departments Clamor for State Fund Hikes

LANSING (AP)— Proposals for steep increases in state spending during 1957-58 piled higher and higher around Gov. Williams today as he entered the fourth and last day of state budget hearings.

Requests for 20 million dollars more from the State Mental Health Commission and 5½ million dollars more from the Social Welfare Commission were aired before him yesterday.

Late in the day, the governor appealed to mental health officials for a maximum "exercise of ingenuity" in trying to hold their expenditure proposals within manageable limits.

The Public Health Department and the State Water Resources Commission were among a half dozen state agencies which went before Williams to argue for more funds.

Drastic Action Taken to Get Rid of Extra Cash

WEST POINT, Va. (AP) — The town council here had some difficult fiscal decisions to make — there was too much money in the treasury.

The city fathers came up with this solution — water bill minimums to be $1 instead of $2, and town auto licenses to be reduced from $5 to $2.50. If this fails to get rid of the surplus more drastic steps will be taken.

May Regain Sight, Says Victor Riesel

FALL RIVER, Mass. (AP)—Labor columnist Victor Riesel, blinded by an underworld acid attack last April, was hopeful today that "some sight will be regained in the right eye."

He said he consulted eye surgeon Maurice Whiting while in England recently and was told that a series of minor operations would do the job.

The operations would be performed in the United States, Riesel said.

Hal Boyle Says:

Top Stardom Beckons Eli Wallach

NEW YORK (AP) — Nine years ago Eli Wallach was on the verge of becoming a postman. Today director Elia Kazan predicts he will become "the screen's next most exciting actor."

Wallach, a former Army medic and veteran of 15 Broadway plays, won national attention as a star in his first movie, "Baby Doll," the controversial drama of lust, frustration and revenge among a group of human boll weevils in the Deep South.

He says he doesn't quite understand all the fuss and clamor raised over "Baby Doll."

"Certainly, it isn't any indictment of the South itself," he said. "The same things could happen in almost any setting—in the Midwest, in New England, or on Broadway."

The slender, mobile-faced actor paused reflectively, then said, grinning:

"Oh, boy, and how they could happen on Broadway!"

Hollywood made a quick convert of Wallach, one of the charter members of the Actors Studio here, a professional laboratory of the theater which is highly praised by some in the profession, denounced by some as "the torn T-shirt school of acting."

"I like the movies" Wallach said. "I used to have the typical New York actor's idea of the films—that they got a handsome filling station operator, had him do the multiplication table in his head, and called it acting.

"But I've found film work exacting, and challenging. The hardest thing to get accustomed to was the fact that the scenes aren't filmed consecutively, as they take place in a play, where the emotions are built up as you go along.

"It's a little like asking somebody to pick his teeth before he's had his meal, but it is a real challenge. It isn't a medium to sneer at, once you work in it."

Wallach, son of an immigrant Brooklyn candy store owner, wanted to act from the time as a child he used to pitch a blanket over his bed and pretend he was a "member of the Foreign Legion, dying of thirst in the desert."

"In a hot Brooklyn summer that wasn't hard to pretend."

He spent five years in the Army Medical Corps, entering as a private and emerging a captain, following overseas duty ranging from Hawaii to North Africa, France and Germany.

From 1945 to 1948 he appeared in several Broadway plays but he had to work as a swimming instructor and camp counsellor to keep alive.

"In 1948 I thought I had failed as an actor and was about to apply for a Civil Service job with the post office," he said. "Then director Josh Logan saw a play I put on for the Actors Studio and put me into the cast of 'Mister Roberts'."

After that Wallach starred in such plays as "The Rose Tattoo," "Camino Real," and "The Teahouse of the August Moon," in which he played the role of Sakini over 800 times here and in London.

Wallach has no desire to be a matinee idol, would rather go on "creating interesting character roles until they cart my bones to the graveyard.

"I don't want to be pointed out when I walk along the street. I enjoy a feeling of anonymity."

Wallach, equally facile in roles demanding a comic touch or emotional intensity, is now in the $50,000 to $100,000-a-year bracket, but says security is no longer a goal for him.

"Acting is an insecure, crazy business by its very nature," he said. "What makes an actor anyway? I think it's the desire to be something you are not. Actually, it's a form of illness."

Dearborn Won't Pay for U. of M. Sewers

DETROIT (AP) — The suburb of Dearborn says the University of Michigan will have to finance its own sewage and water systems for its planned branch college on the Ford Fairlane estate.

Newbert Schlaff, administrative assistant to Mayor Orville L. Hubbard, told a meeting of U. of M. officials that since the general Dearborn population was not going to use the university extension facility, the city felt it could not finance water and sewers.

Schlaff suggested the university ask the Ford Motor Co. for aid in financing the two facilities. It was the Ford Motor Co. which last month gave the estate and 210 acres of land to the university.

At the same time it was reported that Dearborn is negotiating with Ford for land adjacent to the U. of M. grant as a site for a junior college.

Ford still owns 1,200 acres surrounding the U. of M. grant.

1,000 to Get Decrees

ANN ARBOR (AP) — More than 1,000 University of Michigan students will graduate Jan. 26 during the first mid-year exercises since the end of World War II.

Ask Food, Drug Office for City of Detroit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Potter (R-Mich) said that a $260,000 Food and Drug Administration field office in Detroit, called for in the new federal budget, "should eliminate the handicap under which Detroit shippers have been operating."

The laboratory would be staffed by 45 to 100 persons. If money for it is voted by Congress, it would take about a year to build, the senator said.

He said that shippers have been forced to wait for examination and clearance samples by food and drug offices in other parts of the country.

Potter said this procedure resulted in loss of time and money for Detroit shippers. "The new laboratory," he added, "should be completed in time to be of maximum use for the additional trade that the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway will bring."

CONSTIPATED?

New laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken, constipating contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be remoistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE it to action; to a normal urge to purge.

And, of all laxatives, only COLONAID, the amazing new laxative discovery possesses COLONAID'S great moisturizing capacity, plus COLONAID'S stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, COLONAID is yet so smooth, so gentle it has proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.

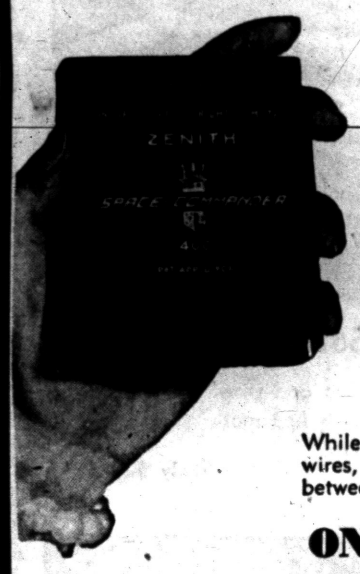

Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions.

It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Get COLONAID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! Only 98c for the 60 tablet package, brings positive relief at less than 2c per tablet.

Slug Found in Cabin Wall Helps FBI Trap Murderer

that the fatal bullet hadn't been fired from the ex-convict's rifle. Both reports supported the ex-convict's claims.

Then a test shot was fired from the Eskimo's rifle into a cotton-filled box. The bullet was placed under a microscope beside the death bullet.

Slowly the two bullets were revolved until the trained eye at the microscope saw that the grooves and lines etched on the bullets by the gun barrel matched perfectly.

'PERSONAL AUTOGRAPH'

No two gun barrels are alike in minute detail. The inside of each barrel has its own peculiar imperfections in the metal which leave tiny lines and grooves on the bullets fired through the barrel.

It might be said that these bullet markings are the personal autographs of each gun barrel.

When the expert saw the same lines and grooves on both bullets, he knew the bullet that killed John Nilima could have come from one gun only—the gun owned by the Eskimo.

The ex-convict was freed. The Eskimo confessed to the murder and was sentenced to serve 20 years in a federal penitentiary, trapped by the scientific crime fighters through methods now accepted as routine.

In less than a quarter of a century, the FBI's scientific tools for use against crime and subversion have become more and more complex, and progressively more effective.

With a borrowed microscope, ultraviolet light equipment, an instrument for examining the interior of a gun barrel and a few other odds and ends, the FBI laboratory was officially in operation on Nov. 24, 1932.

Twenty-four years later, this million-dollar laboratory had become an institution in American law enforcement, with the services of its experts and equipment available to local law enforcement agencies without charge.

Official examinations in the laboratory's first 11 months of active operation total 963. During the fiscal year 1956, the laboratory made more than 140,000 examinations of evidence submitted by agents and by local law enforcement agencies.

The FBI laboratory is divided into a number of different sections and units. For example, the physics and chemistry section has units which handle firearms, blood, toxicological, hairs and fibers, metallurgical, petrographic and spectrophotometric examinations; the document section handles handwriting, typewriting, forgeries, fraudulent checks, obliterated writing, extortion letters, inks, papers, charred documents and related examinations; and the electronics section is engaged in designing and developing new electronic equipment for use in the field and in setting up and maintaining a network of radio stations for use in the event of an emergency.

Reference files include photographic copies of forged checks and anonymous letters; type specimens from virtually every known make of American typewriter; animal hairs, including some from a wallaby and a wombat; rubber heels and tire prints; samples of the paints used by automobile manufacturers; and about 42,000 different records of watermarks in paper. Day after day, these files provide the clues which help to link a suspect with a crime.

3rd Charter Commission Election April 1 at Southfield

Rush to Beat June Deadline

County's Supervisors Approve Election; OK Farmington Vote

Southfield's third charter commission election will be held April 1, just two months before the quasi-city will revert to township status unless a charter is approved at another election.

The election was approved yesterday by the County Board of Supervisors.

Commissioners elected April 1 are expected to make few changes in the charter which just was defeated by a mere 43 votes.

Speed is necessary, because the proposed charter must go to the governor for approval before it is submitted to voters.

Under state law, Southfield had from April 1, 1955, when it voted for incorporation, until June 1, 1957 to adopt a city charter.

The charter submitted by the first-elected charter, commission also was defeated. A new charter commission must be elected each time a charter is prepared for an election.

The Board also approved a special election April 1 for the annexation of approximately a mile square parcel of Farmington Township to Farmington City.

It approved at a special hearing the annexation of a smaller parcel of Milford Township to Milford Village. This parcel is south of the village and east of Milford road.

Numerous dwellings have been built in the area. A proposal by the subdivider to extend village water and sewer facilities to these homes at no cost to the village helped prompt the annexation. No election was necessary.

Bloomfield Hills Man Seriously Hurt in Fall

A 49-year-old Bloomfield Hills man was in "poor" condition this morning at Pontiac General Hospital where he is being treated for severe head injuries received when, police said, he fell down steps leading to the restroom of the State Theater, 38 S. Saginaw, Thursday.

Police report that Nels Gustaf Swanson was found about 4:30 p.m. at the foot of the second landing of the stairway leading from the lobby of the theater to the men's restroom.

Arthur Nicholas, 355 Orchard Lake Rd. and Richard Dempsey, 393 E. Montcalm St., told officers they found Swanson conscious after they heard someone fall. He was taken to the hospital by the Pontiac Firemen Emergency Squad.

Cause of the fall has not been determined.

30 Acres on Hospital Road

Waterford Gets New School Site

Deed to a third Waterford Township Junior High School site has been obtained and was presented to Waterford Board of Education members at the regular meeting last night.

The new school will be on a 30-acre seceion on the east side of Hospital Road, just north of Elizabeth Lake Road. Plans and specifications will be presented at a meeting in mid-February, according to James Den Herder, assistant superintendent. Bids will be accepted during the month of March.

The new junior high, as yet unnamed, will house about 1500 students and will be the same size as Waterford Township High School. It will be "Hub-type" construction with three extending wings.

George D. Mason has been the architect for the Isaac Crary, the two new elementary schools and the new junior high school.

Bids for two new elementary schools will be opened at a special meeting to be held Feb. 7. The school board plans to offer the 2½ million dollar bond issue for sale at the same meeting.

All of the new schools are part of 3½ million dollar bond issue approved by residents in last February's election.

The Board of Education refused the request of parents of children of the Elizah Seamon Leggett for bus transportation within a one mile radious west of the school.

DenHerder explained that it is not a policy to provide transportation within a one mile radius and that it was impossible to make one exception.

Electors to Vote on Annexation of Area School

NORTH BRANCH—On Monday, Jan. 21, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., the qualified electors of Sweet Elementary School, in Deerfield Township will vote on whether they will annex to the North Branch Area Schools.

Four propositions are to be voted on.

They include the question of annexation itself, tax rates, and bond indebtedness.

A "yes" vote means that the children of Sweet Elmentary will be assured high school education, patrons of Sweet Elmentary will maintain a complete elementary program in their community, will be levied a lower tax rate, but broader tax base for all school purposes.

DPW Meets in Royal Oak

Vote to Continue Picket

ROYAL OAK — Royal Oak City Workers have voted 100 per cent to continue their demonstration.

Members of the DPW met with City Manager, E. M. Shafter at the city hall last night after it had closed its offices for the day. Shafter indicated that nothing could be done until his budget goes before the commission in May.

Before working hours this morning, members of the DPW (local 270 International Union of State, County and City CIO) held a meeting of their own.

All agreed that the conference at city hall was unsatisfactory and voted 100 per cent to continue their demonstration in front of City Hall until they get a 10 cent hourly raise.

The men have been picketing on their own time since last Monday night.

May Give Dag Job of Troop Removal

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — A new mandate for U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold to engineer the ticklish job of getting Israel's remaining troops out of Egypt shaped up today in the General Assembly.

The Arab states, Russia, the United States and Israel herself all appeared agreed on this main goal—with variations.

There seemed little doubt the Assembly would give solid approval to an African-Asian resolution calling on Hammarskjold to report completion of Israeli withdrawal within five days.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. announced support of the 24-nation resolution but went a step further. He recommended that U.N. Emergency Force units move in at once to fill the breach left by Israeli withdrawal from the Gaza Strip and the strategic Sharm el Sheikh area, commanding the Gulf of Aqaba waterway to southern Israel.

Drop Slavery Count Against St. Clair Pair

MT. CLEMENS (AP) — A suburban St. Clair Shores couple, accused of holding a deaf mute in bondage, was freed yesterday of slavery charges.

Robert Lee Merritt, 33, and Mrs. Marguerite Rood, 35, also deaf mutes, were charged with holding John LeJeune, 25, of Fremont, Ohio, in voluntary servitude.

They had been accused of holding LeJeune in the Rood home while they took most of the money he earned peddling sewing kits in area bars.

LeJeune took the witness stand before Justice Francis A. Castellucci, but the jurist ruled LeJeune was unable to communicate properly.

Castellucci concurred in a prosecutor's moton that the charges be dropped.

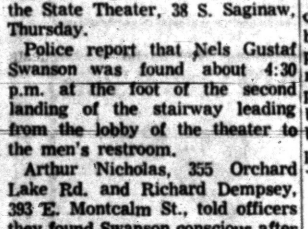

Real Speed(y) Decision

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—The Legislature favored a 70 m.p.h. speed limit. The state police wanted a 60 m.p.h. top. A court test resulted in the judge ruling, in effect, that any speed was okay if it was "reasonable and prudent." But don't step on the gas passing through. State police say they don't think anything over 60 is either reasonable or prudent.

Ingrid Flies to America for Award

Actress Emotional as She Ends Exile of Seven Years

PARIS (AP)—With a lump in her throat, Ingrid Bergman flies to the United States tonight for the first time since she began her self-imposed exile seven years ago.

"I can't help being emotional about the trip," she said in her hotel suite before the departure. "I love New York and I miss it terribly."

She will be in New York just 36 hours — long enough to receive the New York Film Critics' Award as best actress of 1956 and to see "My Fair Lady," the Broadway hit musical.

"I've been wanting to see that show for months," explained the actress. "Friends have been giving me records of 'My Fair Lady' and this will be a wonderful chance to see it."

Then she will rush back to Paris — leaving New York Sunday night — in time for the curtain on Monday night's performance of Robert Anderson's "Tea and Sympathy," the play in which she is starring with great success. The play will close for three days so Miss Bergman can make the trip.

The blonde, swedish-born actress has not been in the United States since she left to make the film "Stromboli" with Roberto Rossellini in Italy. She and the Italian film director had a son and then married after Miss Bergman's divorce from her American husband, Dr. Peter Lindstrom.

Her daughter by Lindstrom, Jenny An (Pia), is a college student in Colorado but Miss Bergman says her visit will be too short for them to have their first meeting in years.

"To see Pia," she explained, "I would need a lot of time and privacy. I couldn't very well do it with all the publicity and television that will undoubtedly accompany my trip."

Sitting in the living room of her hotel suite surrounded by her three children by Rossellini — 7-year-old Robertino and 4-year-old twins Isabella and Ingrid — Miss Bergman insisted she is perfectly happy with her European career.

"Movies are made all over the world, not only in America," she said. Then, as an afterthought, "But maybe one day I'll return to America."

She said she is still getting fan letters "from all over" the United States. "Apparently they're not very angry with me," she laughed.

Malkim and Wever PTAs Hold Thursday Meetings

The PTAs of Malkim and Wever Schools met Thursday at the schools.

Wever PTA

Mrs. William Hill, Mrs. Kenneth McQueen and Curtis Cheek were appointed a nominating committee at the afternoon meeting of Wever PTA held in the school library.

Mrs. Irwin Mills, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Eva Davis and Mrs. Janet Gauthier, Pontiac school librarians, whose topic was "Know Your Library."

Mrs. Gauthier stated that since 85 per cent of education depends on a child's ability to read, it would be well for each home to have a quiet time for reading each day. She also recommended the encouragement of children to read stimulating, imaginative books to broaden their scope.

Announcement was made of a mother and son banquet Feb. 14 and a special meeting scheduled for next Thursday at 8 p.m. to discuss the camping program.

Mrs. Keith Pawley was chairman of the social committee assisted by Mrs. Ray Vess, Mrs. James Patterson, Mrs. Laverne Silvis, Mrs. Harold Miller, Mrs. Virgil Vandecar, Mrs. Loran Yarbrough and Mrs. Robert Grant.

Others were Mrs. August Pannette, Mrs. Walter Millage, Mrs. Robert Pence, Mrs. Bernard Jones and Mrs. Raymond Oliver.

Widower Should Be Able to Remarry Successfully

Man Who Has Chosen One Good Wife Has the Wisdom to Find Another

By RUTH MILLETT

If a man in his youth can choose a good wife, the same man in late middle-age ought to be able to choose wisely again.

A widower in his 50s who says his first marriage was a happy one, writes that he is lonely and would like to marry again but figures he has only a 50-50 chance of getting a good wife and isn't sure whether or not he should take the risk.

How he arrived at his odds I don't know. But if he had sense enough to pick a good wife once, he should be able to do it again.

In fact, it should be easier the second time. He has lived with a woman long enough to know what qualities make a woman a good marriage partner.

He presumably has learned that marriage isn't a matter of one person making the other happy but of both trying to make each other happy and to make their marriage a satisfying way of life.

He ought to know by now that happy marriages aren't a matter of luck but of mutual love and trust and cooperation.

And he should know what he wants from marriage and have sense enough to look for it in a woman of about his own age with similar tastes and interests, and with his own desire for companionship through the middle and late years of life.

A man can make a fool of himself in a second marriage even though the first was a happy one.

But there's no reason for that. He's older and should be wiser.

'Fair Lady' Influences Male Shoes

Maker of Footgear Sees Men Donning Buckled Styles

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

The next time your husband or nearest male critic makes fun of your silly shoes, you might tell him that the world's biggest shoe manufacturer says men soon will be wearing buckled shoes, and may even rival women in foot fashions.

Five pages today in Women's Section

The prediction comes from Walton Maxey Jarman, a Baptist deacon's son from Tennessee, who has made a small Nashville shoe factory into a giant corporation which now turns out most of the country's shoes in all price brackets.

Jarman also is the man who bought Tiffany's.

Over a luncheon table the other day Jarman expounded his ideas on diamonds and shoes.

"We just sort of picked up Tiffany's in a package deal," he drawled. "It came along with a string of women's specialty shops. Interesting place. Never specialized much in diamonds before, but I'm learning quite a bit about them. Funny thing, the women in the family seem to take more interest in the jewelry business than the shoe business."

The "package deal" took place when Jarman's company, General Shoe Corp., recently bought the Hoving Corp., which includes Bonwit-Teller and Tiffany's in New York and six other women's specialty shops in other parts of the country.

About men's shoe fashions of today and tomorrow —

"Well, you can laugh if you want to, but the hottest thing in men's shoe styles right now is the 'My Fair Lady' look. David Evins designed a line of men's shoes all in this general feeling, with longer, more pointed toes. One of them is a slip-on style called Lancia.

"Wouldn't surprise me a bit to see men wearing buckles on their shoes soon. Men like fashion too, though it takes them longer to admit it. But our Founding Fathers wore buckled shoes, and nobody could call them sissies."

Republican Women Eye '58 Election

Mrs. Peter Gibson of Michigan Takes Top National Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Peter Gibson, a veteran of 20 years in Michigan politics, took over officially Wednesday as president of the National Federation of Republican Women.

She says the role of the federation, an educational arm of the Republican Party, is "to see that we have good government."

The federation claims a half million members.

The program she says she'll push in her two-year term will concentrate on "the Congress situation in 1958." The Republicans are in the minority in the new Congress.

Blue-eyed, with graying hair, trim Catharine Gibson of Monroe, Mich., comes into her new post from the vice chairmanship of the Michigan GOP's State Central Committee.

She has been a member of the federation's board of directors for eight years, and is the first to move from the post of first vice president into the presidency.

Mrs. Gibson and six other officers were elected at the group's Chicago convention last September. They were sworn in at the start of a two-day directors meeting Wednesday.

The federation was organized in 1939 during the Democrats "New Deal" era.

Mrs. Gibson, now 49, then was just getting started in politics. She had her first taste of it in 1936, helping a friend collect absentee ballots.

She says she got into politics chiefly because she was concerned about a drift toward one-party government. Today, she adds "the general public feeling toward a two-party system has improved and "the attitude more generally broadened on the need for open discussion."

The federation is dedicated to the principles of the Republican Party and has a "constant interest in recognition of women in politics, Mrs. Gibson said.

Through expansion of federation services, increased membership and more programs of interest to the general public, she said, "we can become the best example possible of the importance of women in a political role."

Mrs. Gibson's husband, associated with the automobile industry, will have to be content with a commuting wife for the next two years. The Gibsons have one daughter, Mrs. Douglas Taylor of Chicago.

Ready for inauguration with Mrs. Gibson were Mrs. Richard Simpson, wife of the Pennsylvania congressmen, first vice president; Mrs. Gladys Leggett Penland of Berkley, Calif., second vice president; Mrs. Harold McGeorge, St. Petersburg, Fla., third vice president; Mrs. J. B. Parks, Pueblo, Colo., fourth vice president; Mrs. W. H. Detweiler, Hazleton, Idaho, secretary; Mrs. Henrick L Matson, Avoca, Minn., treasurer.

Fellowship Class Gathers at Church

Twenty-two members of the Fellowship Class of Baldwin Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church met in the church recently. Devotions were presented by Mrs. Harold Pearsall.

The group made plans for a fish dinner Friday at the church. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Emerson Kirby and Mrs. Leslie Bell.

Jocelyn Watt Plans Feb. 9 Wedding

BIRMINGHAM — Jocelyn Ann Watt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Watt of Yorkshire road, and George Richard Glass, son of George K. Glass of Royal Oak and Mrs. Andrew Gawley of Detroit, have completed plans for their Feb. 9 wedding.

The ceremony will be solemnized in the Presbyterian Church at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, with a reception following at Devon Gables.

Mrs. Alan Spencer Traugott of Mansfield, Ohio, will be her sister's matron of honor, and bridesmaids will be Barbara McGrath of Grosse Pointe and Mrs. Richard L. Brehm of Ann Arbor.

Janet Watt, niece of the bride-elect, will be junior bridesmaid, and two other nieces, Christine and Kathryn Watt, will be flower girls.

Richard A. Lawrence of Royal Oak will be the best man.

Among the parties already given for Jocelyn was the dessert and 'round-the-clock shower at which Miss McGrath and Mrs. Brehm were hostesses Tuesday evening in the latter's Ann Arbor home.

And scheduled for Feb. 1 is the luncheon to be given by Mrs. Donald A. Waples in the home of her mother, Mrs. Harry N. Gruber on Knox avenue.

It takes more than the loss of a front tooth to keep Barbara (Mrs. Fred A.) Erb off the ski slopes. Accident took place last week at Otsego, where she and Fred and their three youngsters spent several exhilarating days.

Today they left again, but this time sans young fry and with Boyne Mountain their destination. They'll be houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Nordlie in the family summer home at Charlevoix — only about 20 minutes from Boyne.

Others in the group, all of whom will return Monday, are Mr. and Mrs. James R. Longwell and the John Stoutenburgs.

Mrs. Holmes Feted at Pink, Blue Party

Mrs. Jack Caverly and Mrs. Gerry Fitzgerald were cohostesses at the former's home on Arlene street Thursday evening at a pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Maynard Holmes.

Guests attending were Mrs. Jerry DuBois, Mrs. John Voorheis, Mrs. Buhl Burt, Mrs. Charles Holmes, Mrs. Justeen Slayton, Mrs. Robert Scharf, Mrs. Donald Steele, Mrs. Delmer Fields, Mrs. Robert Houseman, Mrs. Harold Sharpe, Mrs. Richard Butler, Mrs. Tom Roe, Mrs. Ezio Bisogni, Mrs. Jack Kudrey, Mrs. Jerry McKay, Mrs. Edward Manley and Linda and Phyllis Burt.

A harem-draped panel front falls from the sweetheart draped bodice of this short evening gown by Edith Small of California. Four shades of silk taffeta are combined in the dress and the dramatic front panel.

When you are tired, take five minutes to relax and you might avoid being a victim of another accident. It's when a person is "dog tired" that things go wrong; hands fumble, feet trip over things and eyes fail to see possible dangers.

Parents of Adolescents Need Code

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Recently this column discussed the problem created for a teenager's parents by her friends' fathers and mothers. They leave home when their children have parties.

The girl's parents felt that this unrestricted freedom was unwise. I urged them to act on their own feelings, not on those that belong to other parents.

Now a reader asks if I disapprove community "codes" to regulate teenage hours. She is soon to vote on one proposed by her PTA.

She says, "You recently said that parents should decide these matters for themselves, not let their neighbors do it for them. Does this mean you wouldn't vote for such a code?"

No. It just means that if I saw little wisdom in my neighbors' action, I wouldn't feel compelled to duplicate it. But if I saw wisdom in it, I'd join them in it.

WOULD BACK CODE

As I'd see unusual wisdom in their effort to regulate teenage hours, I would enthusiastically vote for their code.

Usually such community controls are put on young people through the thing we call "tradition."

One of America's big discipline problems is the absence of any generally accepted tradition that tells young people what we expect of them. This melting pot is still cooking so many different traditions that it hasn't had time to boil down one we can all subscribe to.

The situation has put a fearful burden on American parents, making our control of adolescent young solely dependent on their personal affection for us instead of mixing it with restrictions by impersonal, community-endorsed tradition.

Even the most uncivilized tribes recognize parents' need for help in preparing the teenager for adult responsibility. In their solemn, painful puberty rituals, they say to the child in the most dramatic way, "See, this utmost endurance and loyalty is what we expect of you."

INTEREST ADMITTED

The savage community admits its increased interest in the child who is approaching the world's hazards, and does not leave his parents alone to make and execute standards for his social and sexual conduct.

We are tired of struggling with just that job. These new codes represent our deep need for some of the security which tradition has immemorially arranged for other parents in the world.

We're a wonderful people. Maybe we're going to start pioneering ourselves a tradition now just as we pioneered our Declaration of Independence.

White House Chinaware on Display

Variety of Patterns Used Since Era of Washington

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — Americans interested in the china off which their presidents have dined over the years can get a good gander at representative pieces now displayed in glass cases at the Smithsonian Institution.

The White House collection of presidential porcelain and china in the executive mansion may be viewed only through special arrangement made by your congressmen, or other officials, but anyone can get a good look at some of the interesting pieces in three good-sized wall cases recently set up in the Smithsonian Institution's First Ladies Hall.

On display are quite a few pieces of Washington china, a gold-rimmed white Sevres plate and bowl used by the first president as banquet service, a cup and saucer from the state china with the names of the ten existing states in links around the border, and other items.

There are examples from the John Adams administration as well as pieces from the administrations of Madison, Monroe, John Quincy Adams, Jackson, Van Buren, Polk, Lincoln, Grant, Hayes, Garfield and Harrison.

The Lenox dinner and service plates used during the Wilson, Harding, Coolidge and Hoover administrations are also displayed, as well as the Lenox dinner plates used by Roosevelt and Truman, and a service plate, dinner plate and cup and saucer of the Truman and Eisenhower administrations.

PRESIDENTIAL SEAL

The Lenox, the first American-made china, introduced in the White House during the Wilson era, has the seal of the President near the wide gold banding of the outer rim of the dinner plate, while the service plate bears the seal in the center and has stars rimming the outer circle between two gold bands.

One set of china was bought by Theodore Roosevelt in 1902 after the first remodeling of the White House. Chosen from a large number of designs by Mrs. Roosevelt, it is of Wedgewood with simple colonial pattern traced in gold.

This design bears a replica of the Great Seal of the United States adopted in 1782. Mrs. Taft, in the following administration, only filled in for the broken pieces in this set for 100 covers.

The Wilsons ordered 1,700 pieces from the Lenox Potteries in Trenton, N. J. Franklin Roosevelt ordered another Lenox set and helped plan the design.

The Truman-Eisenhower Lenox bears a wide outer and a narrow inner band of gold with the presidential seal in the plate's center surrounded by stars on a white ground.

Daughters Plan Party on Feb. 4

Plans were made for a card party Feb. 4 when members of Daughters of Isabella, Our Lady of the Lakes Circle 479, met Wednesday evening in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Rubber Floor Mat Keeps Car Cleaner

Whether you belong to a car pool or just take family jaunts, a rubber floor mat will keep the car cleaner. Held firmly in place by a fabric backing, the diamond-design top traps mud and crumbs.

It's quick and easy to wipe clean with a sponge dipped into hot sudsy water. After every week or so of muddy or slushy weather, slip the mat out of the car into a tub of hot soap or detergent suds for a real cleansing job.

Choosing Perfume Isn't Matter of a Sniff

When starting to wear a new perfume, keep in mind that a few "sniffs" of the fragrance cannot tell you about the scent any more than a glance at the newest hat will tell how it will fit and look!

Try new fragrances on several times—get to know them—as you do, you discover new depths and subtleties, as in a beautiful painting. Appreciating good perfume is truly an art.

Change Powder Puff as Hygiene Measure

Change the powder puff in your compact frequently both as a good grooming and good hygiene measure.

This is especially necessary if you're unfortunate enough to be suffering from any skin condition at the moment. A dirty puff is a grand place for germs to breed.

About once every 50 minutes on the average someone is burned to death in the United States.

It's Unfair to Overestimate People

By ANNE HEYWOOD

It is just as unfair to overestimate people on sight as it is to underestimate them.

To think "How awful he is" is no more cruel than to think "He's absolutely perfect."

Eleanor has this problem.

When she is being interviewed for a job, she inevitably decides that this boss is absolutely perfect — brilliant, fair, honest, capable and above reproach.

So she goes to work for him and tells all her friends about this tremendous paragon.

A few weeks go by, and Eleanor begins to see that the boss is a member of the human race—part angel but also part sinner.

He suddenly becomes a dreadful person and she doesn't understand how she failed to realize in the beginning that he was just putting on a wonderful act.

So Eleanor resigns.

SIX TIMES SO FAR

This has happened six times, so far, and she's only 27!

The tendency—which many of us have — to view people as all black or all white causes most of the tragedies in human relations, both in the home and the office.

It's so silly, too, because we have ourselves as a standard of reference. We know very well that we have our bad qualities as well as our good ones.

And if you can't see any bad qualities in yourself, you really are in bad shape!

The best way to get over this devastating habit is the one I recommended to Eleanor.

LIST OWN QUALITIES

First, make a list of your own good and bad qualities. Be honest! When you're finished, face the fact that you are part good and part bad, and that so is every living soul you will ever meet.

Do the same thing, —privately, of course—with the people you know well.

Start with the people you can't stand and force yourself to list their good qualities. If you can't see any, you'd better just keep trying until you do.

Next, consider the people you admire the most and list their bad qualities — they'll have some, don't worry. Then quietly contemplate your list and bear it in mind whenever you meet new people.

If you'll look for the good in so-called bad people, and the bad in good people, you'll see humanity as a whole and you will have personal relationships that are a source of continuing happiness to you and to the people you know.

Students earning these honors and awards, first the certificate, then the silver and gold pins and the highest honor awarded, the gold guard, must be outstanding in scholarship, service, citizenship, character and leadership.

Marilyn Vernon, president of the school, introduced Carolyn McBurney as chairman of the event.

THE SILVER 'L'

Ninth grade students receiving the gold pin were Diane Flicker, Sue Beltz, Judy King, Maryann Waring, Claudia Williams, Ruth Bell, Carolyn Gaines, Karen Rognaldson, Lois Arndt, Nancy Robinson, Jody Whatson, Tom Devany, Marlene Kitchen, Kim Nixon, Jane Saari, Connie Smith and Patsy Christian.

Othres were Judy Johnson, Judy Lembke, Carolyn Robertoy, Phyllis Burt, Ed Santala, Jerilyn Gallaher, Sharon Nelson and Betty Turner. Ralph Forman, assistant principal, made the presentation of gold pins.

The fourth and last candle was lighted by Phyllis Burt to honor the group earning the highest award, the gold guard.

Philip Wargelin, principal, presented this highest honor to Marilyn Vernon, Patricia Hoyes and Carolyn McBurney.

OATH OF OFFICE

Marilyn Vernon gave the oath of office and installed Mary Pike as president of Lincoln Junior High School for the coming year. Sharon Nichols, the new vice president, was given the oath of office and installed by Anita Bowers.

Miss Pike appointed Linda Tabor and Boyd Ferguson as inside flag supporters and Ruth Bell and Tom Devaney as outside flag supporters.

Kim Nixon was chosen captain of the hall guards and Tom Eley, lieutenant. Mike O'Brien, the retiring captain, administered the hall guards' oath of office.

The program was opened and concluded with the school band presenting "Pontificale Grand March" by Gounod.

Invitations Cannot Be Paid Back

Woman Who Lives at Club Asks How to Show Gratitude

By EMILY POST

Today's first letter explains: "I have several friends who invite me to their houses quite often for dinner. I do not have a home of my own but live in a furnished room at one of the women's clubs.

"Can you tell me how I may show proper appreciation to these friends for asking me to their houses? It embarrasses me not to be able to return these invitations."

Answer: You do not have to return invitations in kind. A few flowers to your hostesses would be perfect, or if the club you live in has a good restaurant, you could very properly invite them to a meal.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I've been asked to give a list of names for a shower that several of my friends are giving me. They don't know all of my friends and that is why they had to let me in on the secret and ask for these names.

"I wanted to send these same people announcements after the baby arrives, and wonder if it will make them feel that they are to give another present. I wouldn't want this."

Answer: Announcements carry no obligation whatever! An invitation to a shower does. Therefore, only best friends of yours should be asked to the shower; whereas announcements may be sent to all who are likely to be interested in the news.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My wedding is in a few weeks and already gifts are being sent to my house. Naturally they are addressed to me and I open them as they arrive. My fiance thinks that since the presents are intended for both I should wait to open these gifts in his presence. Is he right about This?"

Answer: You have a right to open them if you choose to, but as long as he is interested it would be kind to wait until he can open them with you.

Bending Exercises Slim Waistline

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "I would appreciate it so much if you would give us a few exercises which can be done without lying on the floor. I want some to tone and slim the waist and the hipline."

A. You are fortunate because the bending exercises are best for slimming the waist and these can be done standing. There are dozens and dozens of them. This is a good one:

Stand tall with your feet separated. Raise your arms overhead, one arm by each ear. Bend over and try to touch your fingertips to your left foot. Raise trunk and arms and stretch upward. This time bend over and try to touch your fingertips to your right foot. Raise trunk and continue, alternating left and right.

Q. "What causes warts and is there any way to get rid of them? Has it to do with the blood?"

A. No one seems o know what causes warts. Have them removed by a dermatologist.

Q. "I have been sleeping in a bra for many years. Why do you say it should not be done?"

A. It seems to me that it might be too restricting or bruise the bust.

Q. "I am 18 and so discouraged with myself. In the morning and afternoon I do not eat in between meals but after supper I can't keep from eating. Every 15 minutes I am eating something.

Sometimes I eat the leftovers from supper and cake with milk and ice cream. I keep on eating until I am so full I am uncomfortable. It seems that I will never break this habit. I am 5 feet 2 inches tall and weigh 135 pounds."

A. The fact that you do not nibble in between meals until after the evening meal suggests that you may be a victim of emotional obesity. You seem to be busy during the day but perhaps are bored at night.

Are you bored with your home life? You did not say what your home life situation is, whether or not you are married or whether you have dates.

If you are eating in order to comfort yourself, the mere fact of recognizing this in yourself will help you break the habit. Also add more interests to your life. Develop new friends.

Join study groups, or take dancing lessons, or enter into some of the evening activities at your local YWCA. AND count those calories, the ones you consume after supper, too.

Sandwich Date Mix in Cookies

Mrs. Kimber Uses Grandma's Recipe for Filled Treats

By JANET ODELL

Dates have been plentiful this year. They make an excellent filling for cookies such as these filled oatmeal cookies of Mrs. George Kimber's Oatmeal, you know, adds the important B-vitamin to your diet.

Living on the outskirts of Lake Orion, Mrs. Kimber is enjoying her rural life. In the summer she uses a small part of their thirty acres for a flower and vegetable garden. An annual corn roast is an anticipated feature of their entertaining. Church work and golf are other interests of Mrs. Kimber's.

OATMEAL COOKIES
By Mrs. George Kimber

2 cups oatmeal
2 cups sifted flour
1 cup brown sugar
1 cup lard or other shortening
½ cup sour milk
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 pound pitted dates
½ cup water
¾ cup brown sugar

Cook dates, water and ¾ cup of brown sugar until thick. Let cool. Cream shortening and brown sugar. Add vanilla. Sift dry ingredients. Add alternately with sour milk. Stir in oatmeal last. Chill dough for easy rolling.

Roll on floured board, cut into rounds. Place a spoonful of date filling on one round, cover with a second round. Bake 12 minutes in a 350-degree oven, or until brown.

May Be Ready for 10,000- Ton Ships by March

Over Half of Canal's Obstacles Cleared

Associated Press Newsfeature

A United Nations salvage force, working in an atmosphere of political tension, has cleared away more than half the war-made obstacles that have blocked shipping through the Suez Canal for the past 2½ months.

The brief Anglo-French-Israeli invasion of Egypt left 51 sunken ships and shattered bridges obstructing the canal itself. Others were in the entry harbors of Suez and Port Said at either end of the 103-mile waterway.

As of last weekend, less than two weeks after full-dress salvage operations began, at least 17, possibly 20, obstructions remained in the canal. A dozen others balked the approachs. All are shown on the accompanying map.

American Lt. Gen. Raymond A. Wheeler, U. N. salvage commander, says he hopes to have the canal open for 10,000-ton vessels—including most of the oil tankers—by March and for all ships by May.

Biggest individual task confronting the multi-nation salvage crew is removal of the sunken 7,000-ton Egyptian LST Akka.

The Akka, loaded with concrete and scrap iron, lies on its side 2-3 submerged across the channel at the southern end of Lake Timsah, midway between Port Said and Suez City, the canal terminal.

MAY REMOVE WHOLE

At first it was feared salvagers would have to dismember the ship and remove it piece by piece but Gen. Wheeler, after another survey, says he thinks removal might be carried out by giant crane ships.

The collapsed western span of the Ferdan Bridge, midway between the canal towns of Qantara and Ismailia, was classed as a major obstruction until Dutch cranes hauled it out of the water over the weekend.

Removal of the shattered eastern span early in the salvage operation opened the canal to small vessels and it was planned to leave the western span for a later clean-up.

A second inspection, however, disclosed that the steel span was in danger of breeaking and tumbling into the newly cleared channel.

The other canal obstructions—mostly small craft and not expected to give the 36-ship U. N. salvage fleet much trouble—are concentrated in two general areas.

In addition to the Akka, 11 vessels are on the canal bottom between El Cap, 22 miles south of Port Said, and Lake Timsah; and five more, including the 1,200-ton frigate Abukir, lie in the Suez City area.

Eleven obstructions are listed in the Port Said approach to the canal and another — the 4,000-ton ship Zamlek—is blocking Suez Harbor. Also, three vessels are believed sunk in northern Bitter Lake.

Gen. Wheeler has planned the salvage operations in three stages —first, removal of major obstructions, then clearance of the remaining obstacles, and, finally, restoration of canal facilities.

The restoration stage will include resumption of the fight against the encorachment of sand and silt which threatens constantly to clog the canal. Regular dredging was suspended at the time of the invasion.

The salvage fleet is truly rpresentative of the United Nations. It includes ships from the Netherlands, Italy, Sweden, West Germany, Belgium and Denmark. British and French craft in the fleet must leave by Jan. 31.

Salvage operations did not get under way until almost two months after the brief war ended because of tensions between the Anglo-French and the Egyptians, who refused to allow the U. N. ships in until British and French forces were out.

Then the elearance project was delayed about a wee by an Egyptian claim that the canal still was mined and by bickering over the presence of French and British ships in the salvage force.

Court Asked to Halt Carland Grand Jury

FLINT (UP) — Circuit Court Judge Philip Elliott was asked yesterday to halt the Carland Grand Jury investigation of alleged tie-ins between Flint police and gamblers.

Attorneys Stewart Newblatt and Charles White contended the one-man grand jury law violates both the Michigan and United States Constitutions.

The two lawyers represent three men who have been charged with conspiracy as a result of police gambling raids and have been subpoenaed to testify before the Grand Jury.

The three are George M. Allen, 60; Charles Williams, 33, and Joe Childress, 63, all of Flint. They were arrested Jan. 5.

Terrien Wins 'Oscar' at Toastmaster Club

Gerald A. Terrien won the "Oscar" trophy last night at the weekly meeting of the Waterford Township Toastmaster Club.

This was the second club award Terrien has won in this month.

A Feb. 28 organizational meeting for a Waterford Toastmistress Club was scheduled.

Free St. Clair Mayor Pending Appeal

MT. CLEMENS (UP) — Mayor Thomas S. Welsh of suburban St. Clair Shores was free on bond today, pending appeal of his Grand Jury contempt citation before the Michigan Supreme Court.

Meanwhile, counsel Irving G. Little of neighboring Warren was under a contempt citation by the same jury.

Circuit Judge Timothy C. Quinn of Caro, named to conduct the one-man grand jury probe of alleged graft in St. Clair Shores and vote fraud in Warren, handed down the citations in both cases.

Judge Quinn ordered Welsh jailed when the Mayor refused to answer some Grand Jury questions. He cited Little when the councilman gave what Judge Quinn described as "false and evasive answers" to questions.

Little was ordered to show cause before Circuit Judge Edward Kane of Port Huron Tuesday why he shouldn't be jailed.

January Pontiac High Graduates Enter Final Week

By JACK HENDRICKSON

The Pontiac High School January Class is visiting favorite haunts for the last times this week, as pupils of PHS.

Lunch hour is looked forward to more than any other time of the school day. Here the students can talk to each other without the worry of studies.

these seniors, with mixed emotions, as they have their class luncheon next Tuesday.

Mrs. Agnes Buckley met with the Future Nurses Club, which she advises, last week to elect officers for the new semester. They chose Carolyn Leacher as president; Delores Gustavson, vice president; Babs Sanford, Patricia Grandstaff; Peaches Carter, Diana Treinan; Birdie Lavern, Eleanor Hatfield; Aunt Caroline, Jean Myre; Sylvia, Kathleen Abbey; Asma, Betty Spezia.

Area Activities Buzzing

A variety of activities occupied students in the area schools this past week. Activities ranging from career day to sports events and . . . final exams.

AT WEST BLOOMFIELD

The approximately 500 students of West Bloomfield Township High School spent Wednesday in a Career Day session with representatives from many fields of occupation imparting career information to the students.

Fields represented included agriculture, homemaking, air service, armed forces, the arts, journalism, teaching, law enforcement, professional nursing, therapy and business and industry.

AT TROY

The Senior and Junior classes of the Troy High School will sponsor the semi-formal, mid-winter prom, "Let It Snow," on Jan. 26, from 9 to 12 o'clock.

The games were followed by a Sno-Ball dance sponsored by the Junior class, which was enjoyed by all in attendance.

The newly formed Pep club at Troy gave much support to the Troy basketball team Friday, Jan. 11, at the Troy, Fitzgerald game.

AT AVONDALE

A low moan, broken with sighs of relief, could be heard everywhere at Avondale High School Tuesday and Wednesday. The source of the sound was found to be the Avondale students working feverishly to finish the semester exams.

Avondale's All Sports Banquet, held Wednesday night, was well attended and enjoyed. The dinner, honoring all Avondale athletes, was highlighted by films of the Central Michigan College homecoming football game. Bill Kelly, head football coach at Central, narrated the films and gave a short talk.

The junior class is busily preparing for the J-Hop, which will take place, Jan. 26, from 9-12 p.m. in the school gym. The dance is the first formal affair of the year.

AT LAKE ORION

With exams on Wednesday and Thursday of this week all activities at the school were practically non-existent.

However the final tryouts for the Junior Class Play were Monday night and the following cast was chosen: Tom Arsdale will be played by Walter Cudnohufsky; Oke Stimson, Vincent Butera; Alfred Murgatoyd, Ed Fry; Dean Marlow, Pat Caswell; Mr. Arsdale, Jack Reed; Chuck Mayo, John Dombrowski; Jovita Benevides, recording secretary; Myrla Henry, treasurer; and Marva Lowe as correspondence secretary.

The French classes of Mrs. Ann Marrow have had their projects in the display cases in the main hall for students to view this week.

At the recent Projectionists Club meeting officers for the coming semester were elected. Charles Chandler will assume the presidency; Worley Smith, vice president; Marcia Smith, secretary-treasurer.

The group held its semester party at the YMCA to honor the club's graduating seniors, John Ortez, Dale Corbin, and Bill Sigler.

This Wednesday night the Playcrafters Club held a Parents' Reception in the Auditorium. They staged three plays "Three on a Bench," "I Shall Be Waiting," and "Nobody Sleeps."

At their recent meeting the group elected officers: Donna Chilvers, president; Bob Skinner, vice president; Judy Lauckner, recording secretary; Janet Eilender, correspondence secretary; Chuck Williams, treasurer. Mary Parrish will again be the faculty director.

The present project of the Biology Club, John Youngpeter adviser, is the feeding of algae to mice in their regular diet. It is Youngpeter's theory that this will add weight to the mice faster. He will test it three ways. (1) A regular diet, (2) regular diet plus the algae, and (3) just algae alone.

New officers for the club are Constantine Sousanis, president; Martha Hodge, vice president; Pat Kline, secretary; Sally Warren, treasurer; and Sharon O'Connor, historian.

Youngpeter also invited all high school students to enter the Science Projects in the coming Science Fair.

Mrs. Betty Fournier accompanied her journalism classes on a tour through The Pontiac Press this week.

This Monday the Library held its 13th semi-annual tea in honor of the Library Assistants. Faculty members and guests were also present.

The prom for the junior class is tomorrow night from 9 to 12 in the girls' gym.

Next week is the week that tells the tale. Exams! Nearly 2,500 students will dive into the tests Tuesday and Wednesday. Report cards will be issued Friday.

March of Dimes Dance Heads Agenda

By SANDY WHITE

Rounding off the semester and semester exams will be a March of Dimes dance planned for Jan. 23, by the Waterford Township High School Student Council.

Mike Penn, sophomore, will act as student disc jockey and will spin the records for evening dancing. Featured during the evening will be Robin Seymour, Detroit disc jockey from the "Bobbin with Robin Show" and his special guest celebrities.

Heading dance committees are: Marlene Lazenby, general; Ruth Ann Burt, decorations; John Richardson, publicity; Jean Hoffman, admissions, Joanne Doyle, entertainment and Judy Boardman, cleanup.

High School Debaters won the Interlakes trophy and ended up with a seven-one victory Jan 14, when the Waterford affirmatives defeated Farmington negatives and Waterford negatives defeated Walled Lake affirmatives. The next step to national victory comes when Waterford travels to the State eliminations.

Substituting permanently until April is W. Robert Kester a '56 graduate of Michigan State University. After graduating from Pontiac High he also attended Michigan College of Mining and Technology in Sault Ste. Marie.

Skippers meet Southfield home tonight in the gym. Spectators are still recuperating after last week's exciting game with Walled Lake. Tuesday brings a game with Milford, away.

"Twentieth Century Showboat," the annual mid-winter program and variety show prepared by the juniors, has been divided into various eras of the 20th Century. Student chairmen of each of these parts are: Brenda Lewis, Nancy Young, Stephanie Hill, Dayton Thomason and Jackie Winters.

Cecil Meyers, organizer and head of the Science Department at Waterford has urged all science teachers interested in Physical Science to attend the next meeting of the Oakland County Physical Science Teachers Club which will be held Jan. 23 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school.

A representative from Michigan Bell Telephone will present a program on "Communication Skyways," which will include demonstrations by the use of technical equipment.

Junior High Officers Take Over

AT WASHINGTON

Last Friday was Washington Junior High election of Student Council Officers. The results are as follows: John Roush, president; Ken Shaw, vice president, and Carolyn Harrington, secretary-treasurer. Friday, these new officers for the coming semester, were inaugurated by the previous Student Council officers.

Other candidates for the offices waged a strong and aggressive campaign which was beneficial to both themselves and the student body in making their selections.

Next Thursday the 9A's will present their final assembly of the year. President Eleanor Miteff will preside. Richard Brown, vice president of the class will introduce Dean Rockwell, who will give a short address to the student body. Rockwell operates a personnel agency in Detroit and was a former outstanding athlete and coach. His topic — "The Fork In the Road."

AT LINCOLN

Lincoln Junior High is buzzing with questions. "How do you spell statistics? "Who is the U. S. Ambassador to England?" "How do you find the area of a circle?" No, it isn't a quiz show. It's just Lincoln students getting ready for final exams as the first semester ends on Jan. 25.

Honors and Awards Assembly today will conclude the activities of the week as 59 students receive honor certificates, 44 students are granted Silver L's, and 25 students win Gold L's. Three students receive Lincoln's highest award, the Gold L and Guard for outstanding achievements. Ralph Forman, assitant principal has arranged the impressive program to be presented to parents and students today.

Phyllis Dooley heads the Girls' Service Club for the second semester with Judy King as vice president, Claudia Williams as secretary; and Marilyn Drumm as treasurer. Naomi McVean is the sponsor of the club.

The 9A's with their homeroom teachers, Sally Peck, Forest White, and Cres Barner enjoyed a Class Day at the YMCA on Tuesday afternoon with dancing, swimming, and games. This activity is arranged by Phillip Wargelin, principal of Lincoln, as a special pleasure for the students who leave Lincoln for Pontiac High.

AT MADISON

Graduating ninth graders held Class Day Wedneday at Madison and celebrated the occasion with the morning spent at the YMCA swiming and playing badminton.

Tuesday the Student Council will hold election from the floor to fill two vacancies — vice president and secretary-treasurer, — positions left by 9A students.

AT EASTERN

The chief topics of conversation among students at Eastern this week have been final exams, honors and awards, graduation, and "Who'll you have for —— next semester?"

One hundred twenty students at Eastern were awarded at an impressive candlelight bronze, silver, and gold E's service this week. It is a custom for the 9A student receiving the most honor awards to be chairman of the program.

This year that honor was a tie and was shared by Judy Harountunian and Karen Oxley who have earned the same number of awards during their three years at Eastern.

AT ROCHESTER

Friday night was a busy and triumphant one for the Rochester Jr. High basketball teams.

The Latin Club resumed its activities when it held a tobogganing and skating party at the home of Anne Metcalf. After the club members enjoyed the cold outdoors hot cocoa was served inside to complete a neat Monday night.

Right Pot-O-Gold Answers Explained

The following are answers and explanations for the Pot-O-Gold puzzle which appeared in last weeks' Pontiac Press.

1. BOOB is preferred. The mistakes of a Boor a very ill-mannered person, would surely pain any hostess, sophisticated or not, A BOOB is not necessarily bad-intentioned, and may even be quite funny in his blunders.

2. HIP is correct. Since HIP is the name applied to the ripened fruit of a rosebush, it fits the exact statement of the clue. Hop can be picked over before it's ripe, its name having no relation to ripening.

3. BITER is the choice. It would be redundant to call a Brute savage, as savagery is implied in the word. Any savage BITER is sure to be dangerous.

4. PELF is more appropriate. A play producer can't get a share from a Flop because there is no profit to share. A FLOP costs more than it makes. Any producer (productive person in the business sense) must get his share of PELF, for it is highly unlikely that he works for nothing.

5. VIAL is better. Any Dial, part of a medical machine indicating temperature, blood-pressure, etc., certainly has more than one exact measurement. For this reason you must choose VIAL, a medicine bottle. A VIAL has instructions for one exact dose for the patient.

6. PAGAN is correct. A Paean was specifically an invocation sung to Apollo, and it would be unnecessary to say that a song "like this" was sung to him. A PAGAN song, or one like a PAGAN song would be an idolatrous song. Any song worshiping such a deity would be PAGAN, even a paean.

7. BOY is chosen because a good Buy is too inclusive a statement to be satisfactory. It may be an excellent buy but far too expensive for mother. A good BOY will always please a mother.

8. TERSE is better. Aside from the fact that purists distinguish poetry from Verse, in the common sense poetry is verse, so TERSE fits the "witty" idea more neatly.

9. FOOL is good. It doesn't pay to Cool a prospect, but a prospect who doesn't buy can't be called a customer. It doesn't pay to FOOL a customer, for the customer can complain to the company, and spoil the salesman's chances by telling others how he was fooled.

10. WINE fits the phrasing because WINE can correctly be called invigorating, and according to the amount taken, and one's reaction to it, it can bring a flush to the cheeks. However, an invigorating Wind would positively make the cheeks glow, in cold weather, when it could be called invigorating.

11. MODES is better. Savages have sometimes adopted the MODES of explorers and invaders. That is, they can quickly accustom themselves to the physical advantages offered by a more developed culture, using the guns, liquor, even the clothing of their invaders. But they are resistant to the Mores, the traditional customs of the invaders. They prefer their own.

12. RUMBLE is apt. A circus RUMBLE would be the sound of an approaching circus, or the sound of one giving a performance. A single circus Tumble would not be enough to be called delightful to a small boy. The entire circus, or even its mere approach, would be more delightful.

13. SALLY must be chosen. How can a final Tally be effective? A tally is a count, and nothing else. In counting a vote, it's the distribution that is effective. In counting things, a tally merely shows quantity. A final SALLY would be the last witticism spoken, and could be effective.

14. POD fits because it is a word element meaning "foot" or "footed," as in podiatry, decapod, etc. A Rod, the measure of 16½ feet, would have a more definite connection with feet than with the singular foot.

15. KNOB is better. A KNOB is made for the purpose of turning. A KNOT is designed to hold, not turn.

16. COMEDY is better. However attractive a Comely actress may be, such a person is hardly a novelty. In fact, it's almost the rule for an actress to be comely. It is extremely good to watch a COMEDY actress, for to watch is to look at for quite some time. Everybody likes COMEDY acting ability, whereas, women spectators may very well be unmoved by a Comely actress.

Alert Police Get Scared Robbers—False Alarm!

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. (AP)—It looked like a perfect bank robbery setup and the police got their men just two blocks from the scene of the crime.

Detective Conrad Koltys of the Macomb County sheriff's office told it this way:

He was half a block from the First National Bank yesterday when he heard the bank's burglar alarm go off. He spotted two young men runnig from the bank. They hopped in a car which had been cruising slowly down the street.

Koltys drew his pistol and stopped the car.

He found three scared young men and $210 in cash.

Three police squad cars then screamed up. The young men were taken to police headquarters

They arrived about the time the bank called to report the alarm had gone off by accident.

The young men said one of them had withdrawn $210 from his account.

Apologies were accepted.

Quite a Collector! 22 Traffic Warrants

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Sidney Herman gets to show his collection of traffic tickets today — in Municipal Court.

He was stopped by a policeman for jaywalking on Hollywood Boulevard.

Officers, suspicious because he tried to flee, checked the 27-year-old Herman's record.

They found that he had 22 traffic warrants against his name, with citations adding up to bail of $496. Booke at city jail, Herman said — according to officers: "I've been collecting traffic tickets for a couple of years. I never pay them. I move every few weeks."

Holdup Man Gets $200 From Ann Arbor Movie

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A lone holdup man with his hand in his pocket robbed the State Theater in the University of Michigan campus area of nearly $200 Wednesday night and escaped.

Miss Kathleen Kirwan, 24, the cashier, told Ann Arbor police the man handed her a printed note that said, "This is a stickup; give me all your large bills" she said she did.

Detroit Police Ban Prize-Winning Novel

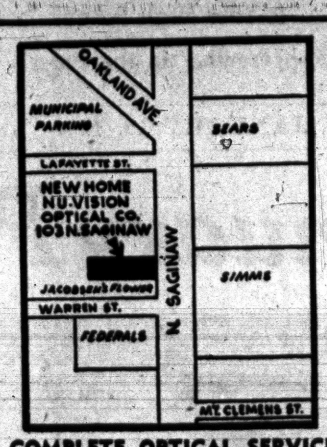

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit police censorship on books—previously confined to the inexpensive paperback editions—has been extended to the regular clothbound editions for the first time with the banning of John O'Harra's prize-winning novel "Ten North Frederick."

The ban was announced personally by Police Commissioner Edward S. Piggins. It applies to both the paperback and hard back editions and to public libraries.

In New York City, Random House, which published the book, said it would fight the ban.

O'Hara, in Williamsburg, Va., questioned whether Piggins was competent to determine what is "obscene."

Annual rainfall of 562 inches has been recorded at Mauri in the general Hawaiian Islands group.

Concentration May Win Loot in Pot-O-Gold

You'd better start concentrating very hard on your puzzle solutions, because the money is on its way up again. It might just as well be yours as another's, so study the clues and clue words carefully. And don't forget the rules. Your entry is no good if you have overlooked them.

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

THE BERRYS By Carl Grubert

Just One Night for Governor in Old Mansion

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) — One night in the executive mansion was enough for James T. Blair Jr., Missouri's new governor.

He and his family moved bag and baggage back to their own home in Jefferson City. He was inaugurated Monday.

"The place is uncomfortable," Blair said. "The beds are as hard as rocks."

State Sen. John W. Noble said he didn't blame the governor "for not wanting to live in that rat-infested fire trap."

Missouri built the 32-room, three story mansion in the French-Italian style in 1871 for $50,000. It sits high on a bluff overlooking the Missouri River, right above freight yard where bawling cows and squealing hogs can be heard distinctly.

Blair reported there are 140 steps from basement to third floor, which has the only modern plumbing in the house.

Blair said the rugs are worn out, the plaster is cracked in many rooms, so are the mouldings, and the furniture has been rebuilt so many times at the state penitentiary that it is uncomfortable.

Sen. Noble promised to push legislation for a new mansion.

About one out of every five adults employed in the United States is engaged in some form of handling or processing of the food supply.

Set Special Tax Election

MONROE (AP)—The Monroe Board of Education will hold a special election in May on a five-year extension of a five-mill building and site fund tax. The levy, first voted in 1947 and extended in 1952, has paid for the construction of a junior high school, two elementary schools, an addition to Monroe High School and a new school administration building—all without bond issues.

The compound microscope was invented in about 1590.

Bogart's Tough Hide Hid Soft Heart

(This is the last of three articles on the screen triumphs and off-screen life of actor Humphrey Bogart, who died Monday of cancer.)

By LEE BELSER

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Humphrey Bogart, say his pals, was the best loved and best hated actor in Hollywood.

And under the tough, crusty front he showed the world, they add, he had a heart of purest platinum.

Not long before his death, Bogey had anchored his yawl, the "Santana," in Catalina Harbor when a tumbledown boat smelling to high heaven of fish limped in and pulled alongside.

Most of the "gold coast" yacht owners held their noses and pulled away in horror. But Bogart discovered the fisherman had serious engine trouble.

With a wry grin, the two-fisted actor hauled his luxurious vessel around and towed the fisherman and his smelly ketch 10 miles to a boat works at Avalon.

The same Bogart once got involved in an altercation with a theatrical press agent that ended in Bogey's spilling his drink in the agent's face.

HAD A TEMPER

One of his favorite yachting companions was his makeup man, Robert Schiffler, who also was his pet backgammon partner.

"Bogey was the world's worst backgammon player," Schiffler insisted, "but he thought he was the best. He got so mad when he lost you had to wear a fighter's sparring helmet to protect yourself."

Once Bogart got so furious at Schiffler he tossed a pair of dice in his face.

But his pals considered Bogart just a rank sentimentalist, and most times unlike the tough screen roles he created in more than two decades on the top of the film world.

READY TO HELP

When a canyon flooded, Bogart was like any other good citizen, standing in the streets directing traffic, helping to push stalled cars.

When a rattlesnake bit one of his dogs, Bogart sought the snake out and crushed it with his bare foot.

The same day he discovered a wildcat on his grounds, promptly dashed for his gun and shot the beast down.

Some of the bluster left the stormy Bogart private life in the 10 years he was married to Lauren Bacall.

Bogart had been married three times previously. His third wife was actress Mayo Methot, and their seven years together produced a number of celebrated brawls.

Bogart and "Baby" made the movie "To Have and Have Not" in 1945 and a few weeks later they were married. They adored each other, and Lauren knew just how much leeway to give Bogey before reining him in.

Bogart insisted his private and film lives were two separate entities, and when he was called to account he summed up his attitude on the ever-present problem of Hollywood stars once and for all:

"I don't owe my public anything except a good performance. That's what they pay for."

Report Ike, Nehru Trade New Notes

NEW DELHI India (AP)— Informed sources say Prime Minister Nehru and President Eisenhower have exchanged new personal messages on the Middle East situation.

It was believed Eisenhower sought to assure Nehru the United States is not trying to move into the area, but is seeking to keep the Soviets out.

The White House announced Jan. 7 the President had sent Nehru a personal message. Nehru has replied and Eisenhower has sent a second message, the informants here said.

Nehru's message presumably repeated his views that any power vacuum in the Middle East must be filled by the countries of that area.

Begin Producing Snark, Sea-Spanning Missile

HAWTHORNE, Calif. (INS) — Northrop Aircraft reports that it is now in production on America's first intercontinental guided missile, the Snark.

The firm said that the missile has a range of some 5,000 miles and can deliver nuclear charges.

Northrop officials said they have developed a mobile launcher for the Snark and it will be shown publicly for the first time when the Snark is displayed in the President's Inaugural Parade in Washington Jan. 21.

Guard Selwyn Lloyd After Phone Threat

ROME (AP) — The Rome police tripled their guard today around British Foreign Minister Selwyn Lloyd after an anonymous telephone threat.

Lloyd is on the last day of a three-day official visit to discuss proposals for creating a West European trade union.

More than a score of plainclothesmen hovered about the Briton—who had a major hand in the Suez invasion—as he looked at paintings and sculptures in the city museum. Police kept other sightseers at a distance.

A source at the Italian Foreign Ministry said someone had telephoned that an attempt would be made on Lloyd's life. The source said the caller spoke in Italian, but "had a funny accent — as though he were a foreigner."

The Agriculture Department said today an agreement has been signed with the Canadian Forestry Assn., providing for a cooperative fire prevention effort, with Smokey as the symbol for the two-nation program.

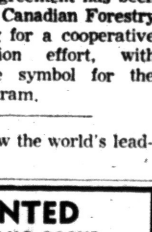

The U.S. is now the world's leading toymaker.

Editor's Dramatic Story Will Be Made Into Movie

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — I am very glad to say that my friend Jim Richardson's book, "For the Life of Me," has been sold to John Payne and Ed Beloin for a motion picture.

Jim, who is city editor of the Los Angeles Examiner, has written a powerful newspaper story. But more than just a newspaper saga, it's the dramatic tale of a man's rehabilitation.

Jim went through a bad time, hit bottom, and it's to his credit that he came back to the important job he now holds and has held for many years.

The price paid is $15,000, and the deal was arranged by Jimmy McHugh Jr. John, who did such a good job in "The Big Boss" and for TV in "The Big Slide," is playing Richardson, and Beloin is writing the adaptation and co-producing with Payne.

The last time I saw Janet Leigh she told me she was getting ready to return to motion pictures, and this week it happened. She'll co-star with Charlton Heston in "The Badge of Evil," which Orson Welles will direct and Albert Zugsmith produce.

Janet was all set to go East with Tony Curtis for the premiere of "Sweet Smell of Success" when the offer came from Universal-International and she accepted.

She hasn't made a picture since last June when she took time out to have Kelly Lee, her baby daughter, and since that time she has been busy taking care of the young lady.

OFFER FOR AUDREY

I can't think of anyone who would be better as the heroine of pert French authoress Francoise Sagon's best seller, "A Certain Smile," than Audrey Hepburn—and producer Henry Ephron thinks so, too.

For the last three days Henry's been on the phone from his office at 20th, to Audrey in New York, telling her of the newest developments on the script being written by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett. They won many honors for their Broadway hit, "The Diary of Anne Frank."

Both the book and the authoress have had plenty of publicity, which gives an added zest to the offer, which I'll bet Audrey will accept.

Even Bing Crosby, who is accustomed to the sound of big money, is knocked cold by the offer from a syndicate backing the Palace Theater in New York of $400,000 (yes, you're reading right) for four weeks of personal appearances at the famed old two-a-day vaudeville house!

Do I need to add that this is the most fabulous cash bid ever made to anyone in show business and it makes me dizzy just to type all those ciphers.

On the set of "Man on Fire" at MGM, Bing said he hadn't made up his mind, "but you don't turn down a thing like that without sleeping on it."

Judy Garland just closed at the Palace and Jerry Lewis opens there after playing a week's return engagement at the Sands in Las Vegas starting Monday.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: At Cobina Wright Sr.'s farewell cocktail party, Cobina Jr. whispered in my ear that she and Palmer Beaudette expect another baby in the late summer. They have three boys so they hope for a girl.

I didn't see it myself, but someone told me that Zsa Zsa Gabor and her former husband, Conrad Hilton, were lunching at the Beverly Hills Hotel with their daughter, Francesca. What no Beverly Hilton?

The death of Toscanini, famous conductor, brought back the memory of 1937 when we met him at the home of Max Reinhardt. He was conducting an opera at the Salzburg Festival. Another great man is gone.

Sergeant Loses Savings, Fears Facing His Wife

LONDON (INS) — M/Sgt. Earl Caves, a very rough looking U.S. Army training instructor, admitted he is scared to go home to California to face his wife — and with good reason.

He lost a year's savings—more than $3,000 — Wednesday on a London sidewalk while stopping off on his way back to California from Iran.

Caves said he apparently lost the money when he took some of it out of his pocket to pay a tailor's bill.

"I guess it's my own fault for carrying so much money around," he added, "but I'm shocked and I hate to think what my wife will say."

Hawaii Folks Alerted Against Enemy Mines

HONOLULU (AP) — Hawaii residents have been alerted to watch out for enemy mines—not because of any current crisis, but from World War II and the Korean conflict.

The Navy said eight Japanese World War II mines have floated up here in the past 18 months. More are expected.

And, the warning said, Russian-made mines sown by the North Koreans are expected to break loose and float here. Several of the mines already have killed persons in Japan, the Navy said.

Ted Continues Scoring Streak With 21st Goal

Detroit Stays in 2nd Place Behind Montreal by Four Points

BOSTON (AP)—Ted Lindsay continued his scoring streak with a neat deflection of Gordie Howe's blue line shot to pull the Red Wings into a 2-2 tie in a National Hockey League game against the Boston Bruins last night.

It was Lindsay's 21st goal of the season. The hot-tempered left-winger has scored in each of the last four games Detroit has played.

Flitting past Boston rookie goalie Norm DeFelice, Lindsay flicked his stick at the soaring puck, banking the shots into the nets.

Bill Dineen had shot Detroit into an early lead with a goal at 6:36 of the opening period. Dineen lined home a 25-footer for his 3rd goal in 22 starts since an early-season injury.

The game was Boston's first since goalie Terry Sawchuk left the team.

DeFelice, who had filled in for Sawhuk earlier this year, appeared nervous in the first period but settle down to hold off 34 Detroit shots. Detroit goalie Glenn Hall had 26 saves.

Sawchuk announced he was quitting hockey Tuesday and immediately was suspended by the club.

The tie kept the two clubs in their same positions in the NHL standings. Detroit is in second place four points behind front-running Montreal. Boston trails Detroit by two points.

Referee Frank Udvari called 19 penalties during the game. Five of them came after a stick-swinging rukus between Red Wing Johnny Bucyk and Boston's Jack Bionda.

Bionda got a major and two minors while Bucyk got a major and one minor.

GOALIE COMES HOME — Terry Sawchuk, Boston Bruin goalie, says goodbye to a friend, Joe Catalano, as he boards a train for his home in Commerce Township, after vowing that he has quit hockey for good. Sawchuk was named to the NHL mid-season all-star team only a few hours before coach Milt Schmidt suspended him for failure to report to practice as ordered.

Sawchuk Leaves Boston

The mysterious disappearance of Boston Bruin goalie Terry Sawchuk was expected to be cleared up with the return of the hockey star from "somewhere unknown" to his home in Commerce Township today.

Mrs. Sawchuk said yesterday Terry had called her earlier this week to inform her that he was quitting hockey.

The goalminder informed the Bruins of his decision on Tuesday and since then he had not been seen.

The Boston club had placed him under suspension indefinitely because of his actions, but last night Sawchuk was found boarding a train from Boston to Detroit, and he emphasized that he "had quit, and that was it."

Mrs. Sawchuk, the former Pat Morey, said Terry was expected to be back in time to appear on a nationwide television show tonight from his home.

"Terry made the commitment long before he quit the Bruins, and even though he would rather not appear on the TV broadcast, he probably will make the appearance," she said.

There was activity in the Sawchuk household yesterday as TV lines were being installed for the show.

Though Sawchuk was suspended by the Bruins following his failure to attend the Tuesday practice, which under hockey law could be a lifetime ban, general manager Lynn Patrick says Sawchuk still may return.

When asked if the door still is open, Patrick replied: "Yes, if Terry comes back to us and says he has made a mistake and is sorry, we'll take him back. He is human and so are we."

Coach Milt Schmidt, reviewed his final talk with Sawchuk and he said Sawchuk told him he was leaving the game because of his nerves.

However, he said Terry promised to let the Bruins know if he had a change of heart after several weeks at home.

Boston papers reported that Sawchuk was angry over their stories and as he rushed by reporters going to the train he shouted, "I'm mad and when I get home, I'm going to sue four Boston newspapers for what they said about me."

Mickey Wright Gets 24 Stroke Penalty for Extra Club

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Fay Crocker, first round leader in the $5,000 Tampa Women's Open golf tournament, had to share the spotlight with a golfer who took 32 strokes more than she did yesterday.

That golfer was Mickey Wright. The reason she stood out was a record penalty of 24 strokes assessed when she called herself for carrying an extra club.

The tall, pleasant young lady from San Diego, who won the Sea Island tournament Sunday, thus found herself almost out of sight with a 104 instead of being in the running for a second straight victory, as had been expected.

The penalty amounted to two strokes for each of the 12 holes Miss Wright played before she caught the error. That did not seem to affect her game, which was not as sharp as usual anyway. Her score of 40-40—80 compared to par 36-37—73 over 6,066-yard Palma Ceia course.

Three former winners, defending champion Betsy Rawls, Patty Berg, and Louise Suggs tied with Gloria Armstrong of Oakland, Calif., for second at 75.

Chalk up another success for the Father and Son banquet of the Pontiac Elks. The event, which since its institution 20 years ago by Ray Gorsline, former Exalted Ruler of Lodge 810, has grown annually to become one of the banquet highlights of Oakland County.

The leading sports figures of all the top athletic and educational institutions in the state are making it a habit to mark their calendars for this annual affair, and last night it was no different.

Celebrities from the fields of athletics, politics and industry took their bows and passed their words of wisdom to the youngsters attending with their dads.

With the able Bob Reynolds acting as toastmaster, former and present stars of baseball took their bows. Hal Newhouser, Dick Wakefield, Steve Souchak, Joe Ginsberg, Bob Swift, Bob Miller and Paul "Dizzy" Trout were introduced and in his inimitable Trout-talk, Dizzy found the audience appropo with a few hilarious tales about his own children. And he should have had the stories, with eight youngsters in his household.

From the football ranks there were Michigan's Bob Holloway, Michigan State's Doug Weaver, U. of D.'s Lloyd Brazil, Lions' Dorn Dibble, Hillsdale's Muddy Waters along with several area high school coaches.

Basketball had Bob Calihan in attendance and boxing was represented by Chuck Davey.

Michigan's ambitious Lt. Gov. Phil Hart was the outstanding guest among the men of government.

The men had their laughs, the boys had fun and everyone enjoyed themselves. It was a job well done.

ELKS KEEPING BUSY

Speaking of the Elks, the Pontiac lodge is the host this year for the Michigan Elks State Bowling tournament which gets underway tomorrow and continues for eight weekends.

It will bring to Pontiac thousands of bowlers from 41 lodges in the state and we hope the citizens of Pontiac will be friendly to our visitors.

Let's say—welcome, Elks bowlers.

Unbeaten Otis High School in Otis, Kansas, was flying along with huge scores against its rival basketball teams, and boasted it was going to run up at least 100 points against its arch-rival Bison, Kansas.

Bison got wind of this and started stalling as soon as it got the ball.

The final score read, Otis 7 Bison 2. Must have been an "offensive" spectacle.

Elks Keglers Ready to Roll

By CHUCK ABAIR

The curtain goes up tomorrow on the 1st of eight action-packed weekends of bowling here as the Pontiac Lodge stages the biggest Elks bowling tournament in Michigan history.

Teams from Pontiac, Detroit and Traverse City and local doubles and singles entries are scheduled to open hostilities in the 37th annual event beginning at 2 p. m. following a short opening day ceremony to inaugurate the 1957 event.

Six past presidents, headed by Pontiac's own J. Earl "Cap" Holliday, will throw the first balls down the alleys to officially open the tourney after a 1 p. m. luncheon for guests and tourney committees.

General chairman Russell M. Dodd will serve as master of ceremonies for the pre-tourney program. He will introduce the Past Presidents, A. D. Bonnell, Elks National President in bowling, Michigan President Robert Managh, and several others as well as members of the various committees working on the event.

Twenty-five of the 106 Pontiac teams entered will get into action Saturday at the Elks with 24 more set to go on Sunday. Detroit will have two teams bowling Saturday, while nine from Traverse City will compete on the 1st weekend. Doubles and singlest contestants from all three cities will be competing at the Huron Bowl. Pontiac tops the list in entries for all divisions.

Similar schedules have been arranged through March 10 in order that the record number of entries can have sufficient time to take part. A total of 41 lodges, including the first in history from Sault Ste. Marie, will be represented. Other newcomers are Adrian, South Haven, Mt. Pleasant and Otsego as the event grows each year.

The keglers from every part of Michigan will divide up the richest plum in Elks tournament history with the total cash prizes to be awarded to total $14,490.

The first three teams in the five-man event for actual pinfall will split $150 with $75 to the victors. Awards of $15 and up will go to the highest 254 teams in handicap play with the winners taking home $150.

In doubles, the leading duos will divide $4,683. The actual pinfall titlists will earn $40 and the champs in the handicap division will get $80. A total of 772 singles entries will gain prize money, three in actual pinfall. Top man there gets $25. First place in handicap will be worth $50.

Most of last year's champions will go back to try repeat showings as will some former title-holders of other seasons.

Little Horns of Pontiac captured the five-man handicap trophy last winter and will be bowling for Chuck's Shack this term. The actual pinfall kings, Lockage Store for Men in Muskegon, are also entered again. Doubles champions from Lansing and Niles will be defending their hard-earned crowns as will Walt Mitchell, of Ann Arbor, and Reuben Grover, of Saginaw, who tied for actual pinfall in singles.

Some of the top names to see action sometime during the tourney will include Pontiac great and 1952 Elks champ Les Rothbarth, Hal Allen, of Detroit, part of a brothers team that won ABC and Elks honors, Detroiter Ed Haines, an ex-national and state title holder, and Ed Duba, former ABC star and city champion of Grand Rapids.

Easy Victories in City League

Walled Lake Super Market and Stadium Inn were easy winners in adult City League basketball games Thursday night at the Pontiac High School gymnasium. Both contests were in the American division.

The Super Market quintet breezed to a 75-58 triumph over the Boys Club, despite a 28-point splurge by the loser's Bob Johnston. Walled Lake's Jim Bates was not far behind with 26 points.

Stadium Inn had no trouble lambasting the Clarkston Merchants, 75-50, with Stadium's Dick Warren meshing 20 points. Roger Voorheis scored 18 points for the Merchants, who suffered their 6th straight setback.

Each semifinalist has dropped one decision in the double-elimination tourney. The winner will tangle with Nestor's All-Stars for the title on Sunday morning at 8:30.

If an additional game is required to determine the championship, it will be played Saturday, Jan. 26, also at 8:30 a.m.. Nestor's is the only unbeaten team remaining in the tournament.

The tourney champion will participate in an exhibition game on North Side ice during the annual Pontiac Ice Carnival, co-sponsored by the Parks and Recreation Department and the North Side Community Club.

Key to SVC Throne at Stake at PHS

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor Pontiac Press

The stage is set for the top basketball clash in the state tonight when two cage giants, Pontiac and Saginaw, battle for the throne of the Saginaw Valley conference.

Winner of the PHS gym fracas will be cosidered as the successor to Flint Northern for the SVC title.

The Chiefs, unbeaten in six regular season games, hold a 4-0 mark in league, while Saginaw, 5-1 for the season is 3-1 in the loop.

The rangy Trojans have a high powered offensive unit with any one of six players capable of hitting double figures. Five of the Saginaw players led by Deb Blondin are among the top 20 scorers in the SVC, while Pontiac is represented in the elite group by three.

Interest in Saginaw has been building for the game. The Trojan quintet, unimpressed by Pontiac's record, point to the narrow escapes the Chiefs had in several games which by comparison of common foes were won handily by Saginaw.

The Trojans are trying for a unique position, from cellar-dwellers of 1956 to the champions of 1957.

Coach Larry Laeding started the season with seven lettermen but the loss of big Ron Frost, 6-foot-5 center was a big blow for Saginaw.

The loss hurt, but 6-foot-4 Gary Potts has moved ino the pivot spot and has performed admirably in the Trojan surge.

Big Hudson Ray will have his hands full in backboard duties. Along with Potts, Saginaw moves to control the boards with the help of 6-foot-2 Dick Yates and 6-foot Deb Blondin.

Yates and Blondin will start at the forwards, but ready to move in is Dick Jones, a 6-foot-1 junior who has picked up an average of eight points per game in a reserve role.

At one of the guards is 6-foot-1 Bill Halliday who moved back to Saginaw after a years residence in Ann Arbor. He owns an 11 point average per game.

Coach Art Van Ryzin calls this the "key game" in the Chief schedule.

"A two game lead in the conference would alleviate a lot of pressure and give us a pretty good head start," said Van Ryzin.

The Chief coach will be after his 103rd victory since taking the helm of the team 10 years ago.

Van Ryzin has decided to go along with Dick Whitmer and Jim Skinner at the forwards and Dave Diehm and Larry Peet at the guards. The court play of Charley Barge in the Northern game a week ago set up the possibility of his starting tonight, but Van Ryzin is sticking with Peet's experience against the Trojans.

A capacity house is expected for the encounter with general admission tickets slated to go on sale at 6:00 p.m. at the gym windows.

There were no reserved seats remaining early this afternoon, and additional demand has indicated a quick disposal of the remaining general admission ducats at the windows.

In other Saginaw Valley action tonight Flint Central is at Arthur Hill and Bay City Central is at Flint Northern.

Game time at PHS is 8:00 p.m.

Animal Rescue Work Benefits From Show

Pontiac Kennel Club officials today were hopeful of a big attendance at their first winter show, set for Saturday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. at the Waterford Community Activities building. Prime reason for this hope is that the show will be a benefit affair. All its gate receipts will go to the Pontiac Animal Rescue League's building fund, to help pay for the new shelter now nearing completion here.

An entry list of 473 dogs of many and interesting breeds has been announced for the unbenched competition. Ribbons, awards and trophies will go to place winners and to the best in show. A two-division junior showmanship class is one feature.

Tam's Gene Bone Getting Closer to PGA Payoff

Now playing in his 5th golf tournament of the winter PGA circuit, Pontiac's Gene Bone is just about ready to get in the money. In a note to this department, the young Tam O'Shanter assistant professional writes that he hopes to win his first PGA cash during the current Agua Caliente Open at Tijuana, Mexico, after being just out of the money in his last two efforts.

This is Gene's first PGA winter tour. He is sponsored by Tam 'O Shanter members and a Louisville, Ky. merchantile firm.

Gene carded 74-76-78 at West Palm Beach, Fla.; had 70-70-70-69—279 in Sanford, Fla. Open (3 out of money); missed qualifying in Crosby's clambake with 79 (77 qualified); shot 73-72-74-74—294 in LA Open (1 stroke off).

"Whew! we're getting close," Gene writes, "All I have to do now is to shake those one or two bad holes I get now and then, and I'll be in."

The Pontiac golfer is traveling with Dick Bury of Lochmoor club, and will make the complete winter PGA tour, returning to Tam O'Shanter in the spring.

Leagues in Spotlight for Prep 5's

By BILL CORNWELL

Oakland Countys heaviest high school basketball program of the 1956-57 season is scheduled tonight.

A total of 33 games, including full cards in eight area leagues, are on the agenda.

The emphasis is definitely in the camp of conference action. Many of tonight's league games are of the critical variety with 1st place at stake.

A confusing picture could develop in the Eastern Michigan League. Port Huron's Big Reds can tie East Detroit by beating the undefeated Shamrocks on the Huron court and Ferndale can further complicate the situation by upending the Mt. Clemens club at Mt. Clemens. A virtual four-way deadlock for the lead is possible.

A three-way knot for 1st place is a possibility in the Inter-Lakes loop. A Farmington win over Walled Lake on the Viking floor coupled with a Berkley triumph over host Van Dyke would create that situation. Winless Southfield invades Waterford for tonight's remaining Inter-Lakes contest.

Lake Orion's unpredictable squad seeks an upset win over unbeaten Troy in the Oakland B League and Madison certainly hopes so because an Orion victory combined with an Eagle verdict at Roseville would cause a 1st place knot. Avondale's improving team faces Clawson at Avondale.

Northville's towering quintet will be the favorite, but runner-up Clarkston can gain a share of the Wayne-Oakland Conference lead by dumping the Mustangs at Northville. Other W-O games are Holly at West Bloomfield and Clarenceville at Milford.

Orchard Lake St. Mary grabs the spotlight in the Suburban Catholic League. The Eaglets clash with St. Benedict at Highland Park in a struggle for top spot. Both teams are undefeated.

St. Michael hopes to bounce back into the win column against St. James at Ferndale, choice over St. Rita at Hazel St. Frederick rules a heavy Park and Royal Oak St. Mary entertains Center Line St. Clement to round out the SCL slate.

Tonight's leading attractions on the non-league and independent fronts are Romeo at Lapeer, Fitzgerald at Rochester and Detroit Country Day at Bloomfield Hills.

Top Conditions for Skiing Fans

By H. GUY MOATS

With best skiing conditions of the winter all sports areas around Pontiac are set for their most active weekend on the season, providing there is no change in weather. Similar conditions obtain at all other Michigan winter sports resorts, according to late reports.

Fast-growing interest in skiing in this area since proper outdoor weather has arrived, is pointed up in the number of new, beginner groups showing up at Mt. Holly and other Oakland county areas.

During this week Mt. Holly has had a daily group of Detroit policewomen trying the easy slopes on days off. These groups number between 10-12 each day. Similar groups of Flint nurses have been enjoying the sport, while the latest group included a half dozen Pontiac housewives who are water-ski addicts in summer, but have decided to take a whirl at the chillier winter sport on the "boards". Now, instead of getting baby-sitters for their children they are taking them along.

Suit Against NFL Now Up to Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—Professional football's freedom from federal antitrust laws rested with the Supreme Court today.

The court heard arguments yesterday in a session highlighted by Chief Justice Warren's discussion of the reserve clause used in professional sports contracts.

The suit raising the point was brought by William Radovich of North Hollywood, Calif., a former lineman for the University of Southern California and the Detroit Lions of the National Football League. He charged the league with violating antitrust laws.

District and circuit courts in San Francisco threw out Radovich's suit for $105,000 in damages from the league and some of its member clubs. Radovich, now a retail grocer, contended he was blacklisted for jumping in 1946 from the Lions to the Los Angeles Dons for the now-extinct All America Conference. He said this prevented him from landing a job with the minor league San Francisco Clippers.

Radovich charged the NFL seeks to monopolize professional football. But the lower federal courts, in dismissing his suit, held that football, like baseball, is entitled to exemption from the antitrust laws. The Supreme Court has so ruled in the case of baseball.

In arguing that Radovich's suit should be allowed to come to trial, attorney Maxwell Keith of San Francisco said the NFL victimized Radovich in the course of what Keith said was a planned effort to bring about "suppression and ruination' of the All America loop.

But Bernard I. Nordlinger of Washington, representing the NFL, told the court "The league may very well be destroyed" if the high tribunal orders Radovich's suit tried. Nordlinger said the result might be "expense, harassment and utter chaos."

Among other things, Radovich complained of the contract reserve clause, which binds a player to a club. Such provisions are standard in both baseball and football.

"In football," Warren went on, "a man gets no chance. He plays for the team that drafts him or he doesn't play at all. Here you are taking college boys who never even said they want to be in professional football."

'Weeb' Stays at Baltimore

Colts Retain Ewbank for One More Season to End Speculation

BALTIMORE (AP) — Three years and four days ago, Wilbur (Weeb) Ewbank came to the Baltimore Colts with the "sole idea to start a regime" in the National Football League. Today, he had a one-year reprieve to get that idea in high gear.

Ending weeks of speculation that the roly-poly football scholar was through in Baltimore, principal owner Carroll Rosenbloom announced last night:

"Weeb Ewbank is going to remain as our head coach. . . ."

Ewbank has one year remaining on a three-year contract.

On Jan. 14, 1954, the same day Ewbank publicly set his goal, Rosenbloom said: "We've promised the people of Baltimore a winner. Until we give it to them, we won't be happy."

There was no secret after the Colts broke stride last mid-season that the millionaire with a smoldering hunger for a league championship was unhappy. But he said a decision on Ewbank's future wouldn't be made until after the season ended.

He also said the decision would be dictated by what he felt was best for the Colts and if he thought it necessary to buy up Ewbank's contract to get a winner, he would do so.

Tiger Jones Meets Smallwood in Bout

CLEVELAND (AP)—Ralph (Tiger) Jones, rated No. 3 among middleweight contenders, is looking beyond tonight's fight at Cleveland Public Music Hall toward a possible chance at the title some time this year.

Jones, who lost to Gene Fullmer in a close fight last April, will be facing Hardy Smallwood of Brooklyn in tonight's 10-round nationally televised bout.

Jones wants another crack at Fullmer, who took the middleweight championship from Sugar Ray Robinson some nine months after his fight with Jones here. Tiger says he gave Fullmer "just about all he was able to handle" last April.

Houston Still Searching for Football Coach

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The University of Houston still was in the market for a new football coach today.

The University's athletic council met twice yesterday, but did not select a new coach. No official announcement was made, but indications were that interviews with candidates would continue.

Four coaches are known to be under consideration. They are: Jim Owens, assistant at Texas A&M; Harold Lahar, head coach at Colgate, and two assistants who served under Bill Meek for the past two years, Jim Larue and Marvin Franklin.

Meek resigned to accept a 10-year contract at Southern Methodist. He plans to take his entire staff with him, including Larue and Franklin unless they get the Houston post.

Dodgers Sign Maglie at Reported $30,000

The 39 - year - old righthander agreed to terms yesterday at a reported $30,000 salary. Sal won 13 games and lost five after being picked up on waivers from Cleveland in May. Included among his victories was a no-hitter against Philadelphia last Sept. 25.

Weather Halts Flow of Hungary Refugees

VIENNA (AP)—Only 270 Hungarian refugees have crossed into Austria in the past 24 hours, apparently because of severe cold and heavy snow.

Austrian police reported a woman refugee froze to death and her 21-month-old daughter suffered severe frostbite when they got lost in a snowstorm during the trip across the frontier.

The Vienna newspaper Bildtelegraph said that a Hungarian state folk dancing troupe of 86 passed through en route to an appearance in Paris would remain in the West.

The word "magnet" comes from Magnesium, the name of the city in Turkey where the magnetic qualities of lodestone were first noted in 500 B.C.

Stock Prices Lose Ground

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices lost ground today as a sinking spell knocked the props from an early rally.

Key issues showed losses of fractions to around a point or more.

In some cases the switch from plus to minus signs was a complete reversal.

The market was active and higher at the opening. Prices improved in farily active dealings. Then weakness developed, but with no pickup in volume.

Bethlehem steel, which had been up 1½ in active early trading following formal approval by stockholders of the 4-for-1 stock split, showed a net loss of about the same amount. Youngstown, an early 1-point gainer, was off a major fraction.

Losses were taken by Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Caterpillar, United Aircraft, Radio Corp., Consolidated Natural Gas, Allied Chemical, Du Pont and U. S. Gypsum.

Gains were held by Goodrich, Homestake, Westinghouse Electric, Southern Railway, Royal Dutch and Eastern Airlines.

The market's early rally was a continuation of late yesterday's upward trend in a generally lower market. Wall street observers had no immediate explanation of the reversal today.

Love for Music Record Causes Jail Record

A Ferndale music lover began a 10-day sentence in the Oakland County Jail Thursday after pleading guilty to stealing a long playing record from a Ferndale department store last Jan. 12.

Joseph H. Whipple, 24, of 10570 Foxton Ct., was jailed by Ferndale Justice Earl Nash after failing to pay fine and costs totaling $50.

He was arrested by police there shortly after the theft was reported. The record, by singer Al Hibbler, was valued at $4.50.

Examination Waived

Thomas R. Bushey, 18, of Royal Oak, waived examination yesterday and was bound over to Circuit Court on a charge of larceny in a building.

Bushey is accused of stealing jewelry valued at $500 from a Royal Oak store Jan. 12.

Planes Built to 'Fit' Flyer

Test Pilots Now Working With Engineers in Design

DETROIT (AP)—Aircraft engineers were told today they must expect airplane and missile speeds of 3,000 miles an hour and more and that these supersonic speeds create new problems of design and manufacture.

They were also told that test pilots now have to work with engineers in designing and developing new aircraft because they can be built too fast to handle.

The views were presented in papers prepared for consideration at group meetings of the Society of Automotive Engineers midwinter convention.

Anthony W. LeVier, a test pilot for Lockheed Aircraft Corp., described what he called "a simple high speed run in a new supersonic fighter." In 11 to 12 minutes, he said, such a test run could cover a ground distance equivalent to a day's travel by automobile.

LeVier said that continuing attempts to build faster planes that go higher take aircraft and pilots into new frontiers.

"These unknown areas," he said, "have a frightening way of exposing man's ignorance. We find bugs we've never imagined, simply through lack of knowledge. Risking a pilot's neck is the only sure way we've found of exploring each new frontier."

LeVier said the pilot has almost become a part of preliminary design. "Today," he said, "the airplane must be designed with a human's limitations in mind. It must be designed within pilot capabilities.

These problems will become even more difficult as speeds and altitudes continue to rise."

He recalled that, starting with the Wright brothers, aircraft speeds have doubled about every 10 years.

"The pace," he said, 'is getting sizzling fast."

Here Are the Facts, M'am: 'Noah's Ark' Is Capsizing

No wonder actors like to be on TV. Where else can you reach 40,000,000 people—who can't reach you? . . . If you're inviting a bachelor to dinner, remember the dish he's usually fodest of is about 21, and blonde—Earl Wilson.

Webb Decides to Drop Series

Blames Poor Ratings for the Early Death of Television Show

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Transcript of interrogation of Sgt. Joe Friday, alias Jack Webb. Location: his sumptuous office at Mark VII Productions. Description: black crew cut, sober face, sport shirt, slacks and casual sweater.

Q. May I have the facts, please?

A. The facts, indeed. Okay, shoot!

Q. Is it true that you have let NBC off the hook on Noah's Ark, the TV series you were producing and directing?

A. That is correct. We had a contract for 39 films in color, but we are quitting with the 23rd.

Q. Why are you quitting?

A. Because apparently the client is not happy with the show. I've had an eight-year relationship with the sponsor and it has always been a happy one. I want to keep it that way.

Q. Doesn't the cancellation mean a loss to you?

A. Yes, the company would have been paid $52,000 a film for the remaining shows. I make no money from it; it's hard to show a profit in the first run. But there would have been the potential profit from reruns.

Q. Why did the show fail?

A. I just don't know. It's hard to second-guess the public these days. Maybe I was wrong in my conception of it. For that reason, I let Frank Burt, who had written some of the shows, direct what turned out to be the last one. We got a lot of good mail on the show and we made changes that were suggested. The show seemed to have a lot of appeal for kids. Perhaps if we had been on at an earlier hour, we might have survived.

Q. Did the ratings kill the show?

A. Yes. It was unfortunate that it happened before we had a chance to build. I knew it wasn't going to be the type of show that would hit the top 10, and I thought it did better than a lot of shows that started at the same time. It was hitting a Nielsen of around 20 which is not bad.

Q. Are you antiratings then?

A. No. How can I buy the ratings on Dragnet, which has always done very well, and not on Noah's Ark?

Q. What are your future plans?

A. I expect to make a feature picture, then begin 78 more Dragnets.

THROUGH WITH NOAH — Jack Webb has canceled his "Noah's Ark" show which failed to win favor with either NBC-TV or the sponsor. However, Jack will continue to produce and play Sgt. Friday in the "Dragnet" television series (8:30 p. m. Thursdays, NBC) and will also make a feature-length movie.

'History Will Justify Our Action and Britain Still Great'—Macmillan

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan says Britain is still a great nation and is going to stay great.

In a nationwide TV and radio speech devoted largely to Britain's future, Macmillan declared: "Every now and again since the war I've heard people say, 'Isn't Britain only a second or third class power now? Isn't she on the way out?

"What nonsense! This is a great country and don't let's be ashamed to say so. It has a superb record of achievement of every kind. . . . It has no reason to quiver before temporary difficulties."

Macmillan also declared Britain's partnership with the United States will be preserved and strengthened, but said, "We don't intend to be satellites."

In his only reference to the Middle East attack which led to the downfall of Sir Anthony Eden as prime minister, he said: "I believe history will justify what we did.'

Protects Licensed Dogs

LOS ANGELES (AP)— The City Council has approved unanimous- from turning an impounded dog over for medical research purposes if it is wearing an unexpired license. The prohibition remains in effect even if the dog's owner does not wish to claim it.

Suggests Coining Word 'Bogartism' After Actor

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—"Well," Humphrey Bogart used to say when I was beginning an interview with him, "who can we louse up this time?"

Frequently Bogie'd louse himself up with right-thinking people by preaching me several thousand words on the alleged merits of being a heavy drinker — which he commanded me to rush into print the next edition if possible.

"All I'm doing," he'd proclaim over a few scotches at 21, "is pointing out the right of a man to get a little drunk."

In fact, it seems to me the English language could use a new word, "Bogartism," standing for his particular school of philosophy.

"He was the unphoniest man who ever lived," says Frank Sinatra. "He couldn't be deceitful or hypocritical."

BOGART

He detected phonyism. Once he wired Katharine Hepburn, "I went to see Christopher Fry's play. I have quit seeing Christopher Fry's plays."

After I printed it, he said, "You know, I was going to have everybody at Western Union fired for giving out the contents of my telegram. Then Baby told me I'd had a couple drinks and told you myself."

I asked him in 1945 if he was going to marry Lauren Bacall.

"You're —— —— right!" He banged a glass on the table. "You know something? I'm in love again—at my age!"

Then he said, "Did you ever see Baby?"—using for the first time (for publication, anyway) the nickname that went around the world. He kept bragging about her till a sodden friend shouted, "Are you still talking about her? You're very boring."

"I'm in love, do you mind?" Bogie laughed.

There was something about his naturalness that's associated with big men. A young press agent asked me once if Bogie'd been natural like this before he hit the big top. I truthfully answered, "He's always been natural since I've known him, but then he's always been at the top since I've known him." The young guy said, "Maybe that's why." Maybe it was.

DORETTA

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Johnnie Raye, at Lilo's opening said he's playing the London Palladium . . . Abbe Lane and Xavier Cugat are negotiating to take over the Eddie Fisher TV time since Abbe's triumph on the Steve Allen show. The staid St. Regis told Doretta Morrow to cut out her audience participation number, but lets her show her pretty legs.

Earl's Pearls . . .

In Hollywood a husband is sometimes just someone to have around till the right man comes along—LaVerne Baker.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: All men want to succeed, but some want to so much they're willing to work for it.—Ham Park.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: "In our society," claims Jerry Lieberman, "a man is judged by the company he owns." . . . That's earl, brother.

Prime Refugees for Science Jobs

21 Talented Hungarians Study English, Civics at Rutgers University

CAMP KILMER, N.J. (INS) — Twenty-one refugee scholars, representing the top scientific talent among Hungarians who fled to the U.S., are going back to school at Rutgers University.

They will spend eight weeks on the university campus, not far from the Camp Kilmer reception center, studying English language and American civilization before they move on to responsible jobs in the U.S. scientific community.

Names of the scholars will not be made public in order to protect relatives in Red-ruled Hungary.

The project is part of the National Academy of Science's program to make sure refugee scientists are utilized to their own advantage and the advantage of the U.S.

U.S. BACKS PROGRAM

Government officials backing the Rutgers project frankly stated refugees will help alleviate the shortage of scientific manpower in this country.

The 21 scientists, chosen after intensive interviews, are the vanguard of a program that will involve over 100 refugee scientists, engineers and technicians.

Of the 21,500 Hungarian refugees who have been admitted to the U.S. since the October-November revolution against Soviet domination, an estimated 2,000 are students—many of them with technical backgrounds.

Peruvian Adjudged Father of Twin Girls

LOS ANGELES (AP)— Peruvian composer-dancer Moises Vivanco has been adjudged the father of 2-year-old twin daughters born to Miss Maureen Shea, 24, former secretary to his wife, singer Yma Sumac.

Superior Judge Jesse J. Frampton said yesterday Miss Shea presented a "very strong case, and, conversely, the evidence of the defendant was weak and not convincing."

The court has not yet ruled on Miss Shea' demand for $500 monthly support for the girls. She testified that she and Vivanco engaged in intimacies while traveling about the world with Miss Sumac from February 1952 to March 1954.

Snow Camouflage

Here is Tommy, a Canadian boy, in a snow suit and fur-topped boots.

While playing in the woods he notices footprints in the snow but can't see any animal. Suddenly he spies some white rabbits or hares. It is difficult to see these little animals in their winter coats because the color of their fur blends with the surrounding snow. This is nature's way of protecting the hare against the enemies that hunt for him.

First color the picture with crayons. The evergreens in the snow are green. There also are many blue shadows in the snow for you to color. Give Tommy a bright snow suit.

Now paste the picture down and cut it out along the outside lines and fold forward down the middle dotted lines. Then Tommy will come face to face with a rabbit.

Driver Warms Up Auto but Also Sets It Ablaze

PHILADELPHIA P — Firemen had no trouble discovering the cause of the blaze they put out in a burning automobile here yesterday.

The owner of the car told them it had frozen up on him in 13-degree weather. So he built a fire under the machine to thaw it out.

Magic Number 7 Could Be Charm; On With the Job!

OGDEN, Utah (AP)—Then there's the saga of the Army's supply depot here. Its name was changed yesterday for the seventh time in its 16-year history.

In 1941 it started as the Utah General Depot. The next year, it became the Utah Quartermaster Depot. By 1943, it was the Utah Army Service Forces Depot. Then in 1946 it became the Utah General Depot again.

The next year it was the Utah General Distribution Depot, but it reverted to the Standby Utah General Depot in 948.

Yesterday, the Army came up with this one: "U.S. Army General Depot, Utah.".

Unimpressed, Ogden residents continue to call it simply "Second Street." It's located there, and the odds are it can' be moved as easily as it can change its name.

HOLLY—The village is purchasing property for a municipal down town parking lot. It fronts on Broad Street between Maple and Martha Streets, and is close to the rear of stores on the east side of Saginaw Street, and in the heart of the business section.

It has space for about 35 cars, and that many meters are to be installed by a company which accepts payment of one-quarter of their receipts until their collections cover their total price.
