Early Balloting Reported Heavy Across U.S.

City Police Hearing Set

A judicial - type hearing to "find and expose facts" in the wage dispute between the city and Pontiac policemen will convene at 10 a.m. tomorrow in the City Commission chambers at City Hall.

City Manager Joseph A. Warren, who also reported on recent happenings in the dispute, said last night that the city had been notified of the fact-finding hearing.

Birmingham attorney Harry N. Casselman will preside at the hearing.

Warren told City Commissioners last night that a petition, which must be filed in order to have fact - finding, had been promised him since last Friday and only arrived at about 4:45 p.m. yesterday.

★ ★ ★

The city manager said it would be difficult to work out the answers to the charges contained in the three-page petition filed by the Pontiac Police Officers Association.

★ ★ ★

Warren said it would be understandable that the city could not have fully documented answers.

Meantime, the policemen claim:

- They have asked for longevity pay and a $1,276 a year salary hike.
- City officials have made no counter offer.
- The only reply from the city has been that the city does not have sufficient funds to grant the police requests.
- The city's reply has been made despite $800,000 the PPOA claims the city has available.

Warren also said last night that there has been no indication that the fact-finding petition by the Pontiac Firefighters Association will be considered at tomorow's hearing. Firefighters have also sought such a hearing.

In a related matter last night, District 5 Commissioner John A. Dugan asked city administrators to urge that a meeting of the Police Trial Board be called.

★ ★ ★

Dugan said the board has not met in about two years and several new appointments have been made in the interim. He suggested that the new members should be brought up to date on the board's rules.

Dugan did not mention possible trial board action if the threatened strike by police materialized because the city doesn't meet the PPOA wage demands.

LEAVE OHIO COURTHOUSE — Samuel H. Sheppard (center) leaves the Criminal Courts Building with his chief counsel, F. Lee Bailey, and his wife, Ariane, yesterday after a session in court where he is on trial in the murder of his first wife, Marilyn, in 1954. Sheppard is charged with second-degree murder.

First State Returns Almost Solidly GOP

POINTE AUX BARQUES (AP) — This tiny community on the tip of Michigan's Thumb stuck with its tradition today and voted almost solidly Republican.

★ ★ ★

Pointe Aux Barques, again following tradition, was the first place in Michigan to report its vote.

★ ★ ★

All its 13 votes were cast for Republican Gov. George Romney and Republican Sen. Robert P. Griffin. Their Democratic rivals, Zolton Ferency and former Gov. G. Mennen Williams, received no votes.

Use of Sprays in Viet Target of Resolution

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Communists threatened today to disrupt the harmony of the U.N. disarmament debate with a resolution apparently aimed at the United States. It would condemn as an international crime the waging of chemical or bacteriological warfare.

★ ★ ★

The surprise draft was circulated last night by Hungary for introduction in the General Assembly's main political committee which is discussing the disarmament question.

Citing the Geneva Protocol of 1925, which prohibits the use of poison gas, Hungary demanded that it be applied to the use of bacteriological or chemical weapons that might harm human beings or their means of livelihood.

Delegates interpreted the resolution as an attack on U.S. use of chemical sprays in Viet Nam to defoliate ground cover used by Communists to hide ambush preparations and movement of troops and supplies.

★ ★ ★

The Communist bloc has accused the United States also of using such means to kill human beings and destroy crops in Viet Nam, a charge American officials have denied.

SOVIET MOVE

Diplomats believed that the Soviet Union let Hungary put in the resolution, instead of introducing it itself, to avoid jarring the negotiations now going on between the United States and the Soviet Union on a treaty banning the spread of nuclear weapons.

The Soviets have maintained an unusually mild tone during the current arms debate.

Pile-Up Fatal in White Lake

2 Hospitalized After Three-Car Collision

A White Lake Township man was killed and two other persons hospitalized last night following a three-car collision on Highland Road near the intersection of Bogie Lake in White Lake Township.

Brian E. Beal, 22, of 4012 Ashford was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital about 10:40 p.m.

Mrs. Ronald Sleep, 35, of 5005 Lakegrove, White Lake Township, is in serious condition at Pontiac General while a passenger in her car, Clarence A. Carlson, 45, of 3324 Highland Court, Highland Township, is reported fair.

Robert R. Williams, 43, of 3660 Lakeview, Highland Township, driver of the third car, and his wife, Marion, 40, escaped serious injury.

★ ★ ★

Oakland County sheriff's deputies said the accident, still under investigation, apparently occurred when two of the cars collided head-on and a third vehicle skidded into the other two.

County Voters Will Decide on Proposals

Communities Have Other Issues Besides Choosing of Officials

A full slate of candidates faced Oakland County voters today as they went to the polls to elect state and local officials and to decide a number of proposals.

One contest expected to bring out the voters, according to county election officials, is the race for the U.S. Senate between Sen. Robert P. Griffin and former Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

County Clerk John D. Murphy estimates that 180,000 to 200,000 of the county's 350,000 registered voters will go to the polls before they close at 8 p.m.

In the last nonpresidential vote in 1962, some 257,000 county residents cast ballots.

★ ★

State election officials predict a turnout of about 2.7 million voters, roughly the same number who cast ballots in the 1962 election.

WEATHER EFFECT

The weather, laced with rain and snow in some areas, was expected to affect the size of the vote.

Much attention was directed toward Gov. Romney to determine if his popularity over his opponent, Zolton Ferency, will be enough to draw other Republican candidates into the winning column.

If Romney, generally regarded as the favorite over Ferency, proves he can help elect Republicans to Congress, the Legislature and other statewide offices, political observers feel this will increase his stature as a GOP presidential possibility in 1968.

★ ★

Oakland County voters are electing U.S. Representatives from two districts, the 18th and 19th, 10 state representatives an four state senators.

COURT POSTS

Also to be decided are three positions on the Oakland County Circuit bench and one in the Probate Court. Township official

Press Adds to Pony Fund

The Pontiac Press today added $500 to the reward for the arrest and conviction of the killers of Timber, the Shetland pony found shot Nov. 1 in Avon Township.

The announcement, made by Howard H. Fitzgerald II, publisher of The Press, brings the total reward to $660.

The pony was owned by Joseph Jurkiewicz, 1061 Glaser, Troy, but it was the special pet of the nine children of Richard Ayers, 3901 S. Rochester, Avon Township.

Ayers told the Press he had seen the pony locked safely in its pen on Halloween night before he went to work.

★ ★ ★

A vandal or vandals had apparently let the animal loose and then shot the helpless horse five times with a .22 rifle. An attempt to save the animal failed.

Other major reward offers have been made by Schaffer Lumber Co. of Jackson—$100; and the Michigan Animal Rescue League of Pontiac—$50 plus the use of its full-time investigator, Marshall London.

VOTES EARLY — Gov. Romney steps from a voting booth in Bloomfield Hills City Hall after casting his ballot this morning. Romney was among the first 100 voters at the polls after they opened at 7 a.m. His opponent, Zolton Ferency, planned to vote in his home district in East Lansing.

Will the Trend Help or Hinder Romney?

DETROIT (AP)—Voters turned out early and in impressive numbers today in a Michigan election which could point Republican Gov. Romney toward a 1968 presidential bid or kill any White House ambitions he might have.

A heavy turnout was indicated in the face of damp and cloudy weather. The polls opened at 7 a.m. and will close at 8 p.m.

Line-ups of voters appeared at polls in industrial Detroit and Flint prior to the start of voting. Other outstate cities reported similar heavy turnouts.

Michigan was choosing its first four-year term governor between Republican incumbent Romney and Democrat Zolton Ferency, rookie in top-flight election politics.

The state's voters also were making a choice between former Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams and Republican Sen. Robert P. Griffin for a full term in the U.S. Senate.

Romney, 59, former president of American Motors Corp., sought a third term in office. Ferency, 44, labor-backed, rested his hopes in part on his record as State Democratic chairman.

PREDICTION BACKED

The early voter turnout gave support to a prediction by election officials that 2.7 million persons would vote.

Michigan also chooses 19 representatives to the House in Washington and fills other state offices. Democrats now hold a 12-7 edge in Michigan's congressional delegation.

The voters also were deciding whether to extend the voting privilege to 18-year-olds. Michigan's legal minimum is now 21 years.

Romney entered the election heavily favored to win. A Detroit News poll Sunday gave Romney a 61 to 36 per cent margin over Ferency.

Forecaster Says More Rain to Hit This Damp Area

The weatherman reports he will drench the Pontiac area again tomorrow with rain or showers by late afternoon. There's a chance of a few showers this evening.

Temperatures reaching a high of 53 yesterday will drop to near 33 to 38 tonight and turn colder tomorrow, he said. Showers changing to snow flurries is the outlook for Thursday.

A mild 52 was the low in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. By 2 p.m. the mercury had reached 62.

Trend Indicates Record Total of 59 Million

Huge Numbers Turn Out in New York City During Mild Weather

WASHINGTON (AP) — Balloting was reported heavy in a number of crucial areas around the nation today as the American voter turned out to elect 435 House members, 35 senators and 35 governors.

The trend of the early balloting indicated the total vote might be around 59 million, a record for a nonpresidential year.

Mistaking the poll opening time, President Johnson turned up 39 minutes too soon to register his choices in the kitchen of the Pedernales Electric Cooperative at Johnson City, Tex.

Considering his position, poll officials let him and the First Lady vote right away, even though there had been brave talk about treating the chief executive as "just one of the boys."

To the surprise of no one, Johnson announced: "I voted the Democratic ticket."

★ ★ ★

In New York, where the weather was mild, a tight gubernatorial struggle between Republican Nelson A. Rockefeller and Democrat Frank D. O'Connor drew a heavy vote, at least in some places.

The early morning turnout was massive in New York City, where an issue with racial overtones was on the ballot.

This is a referendum challenging a civilian-dominated police review board. On the other hand the voting was extremely light in Buffalo.

In the suburbs of voteless Washington, balloting was reported extremely heavy in nearby Maryland counties and moderate to heavy in Northern Virginia.

Soon after the polls opened in these suburbs, officials noted heaviest voting in predominantly Negro areas. In Fairmount Heights, Md., largely Negro, campaign workers outside the polling place passed out literature calling for the defeat of the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, George P. Mahoney. A foe of open housing legislation, he is noted for his slogan "Your home is your castle—protect it."

Oxford Student Poll

Mock Vote Goes to Griffin

It will be a Griffin victory over Williams in today's statewide balloting, if the political pulse of Oxford High School students is beating with its usual accuracy.

"They've never been wrong in the major races — not even when Truman defeated Dewey," according to Township Supervisor Lee Valentine, who received the total class vote since he's running unopposed.

Political scanners might view with interest the outcome of the annual mock election yesterday by the school's three government classes.

Biggest surprise was the majority with which U.S. Sen Robert Griffin defeated ex-Gov. G. Mennen Williams, 63 to 37.

Like pluralities were awarded to Gov. Romney and Lt. Gov. William Milliken, Republicans.

Democrat James Hare retained his position as secretary of state over Republican George Washington 55 to 45.

The vote for attorney general was close as Republican Lawrence Lindemer nosed out Democratic incumbent Frank Kelley 49 to 48.

In another surprise, Congressman Billy S. Farnum defeated Republican Jack H. McDonald, 53 to 46.

L. Harvey Lodge, Republican candidate for state senator, beat incumbent Carl W. O'Brien, 55 to 44.

The closeness of the race between State Rep. Robert J. Slingerlend and his Republican opponent, Donald W. Bishop, was exemplified by a 49-49 tie.

PRIME INTEREST

Of prime interest to Oxford Township voters was the students' acceptance of liquor-by-the-glass sales. The vote was 44 to 42.

Oxford Township has voted two previous times on the measure with the last vote, four years ago, showing a considerably narrower margin of defeat than the first.

GIs Inflict Big Losses on Charging VC

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — American infantrymen battled an estimated 1,000 charging Viet Cong for four hours in Tay Ninh Province today and reported 302 enemy bodies counted after the fighting ended.

★ ★ ★

The battle resumed at 6 a.m. for troops of the U.S. 1st Division who lost contact almost completely Monday with the tough Viet Cong force that had battled American troops for four days.

U.S. officers at operational headquarters told Associated Press photographer John Nance tonight that 302 enemy bodies had been counted after the fighting ended, that large numbers of weapons, grenades and ammunition had been taken and that an 80-bed Viet Cong hospital had been found.

Associated Press correspondent John Lengel reported from the battlefield that some American officers estimated 500 of the enemy were killed today.

★ ★ ★

He reported one battalion of the 1st Division's 28th Regiment bore the brunt of the new fighting. American casualties were officially reported light.

In other scattered actions:

An American spokesman said a Viet Cong force of unknown size moved into a village 75 miles southwest of Saigon at 2:30 a.m. Monday and kidnaped the entire population of 90 to 110 persons. There was no immediate explanation for the raid.

★ ★ ★

Units of the U.S. 101st Airborne and 4th Infantry divisions moved in on a major Communist stronghold in Phu Yen Province, about 230 miles northeast of Saigon. The American troops reported uncovering three enemy base camps, some of them equipped with fortified bunkers, and a first aid station with facilities for about 100 men. The Viet Cong had fled.

Erhard Ignores Call for Confidence Vote

BONN, Germany (AP) — West Germany's Bundestag urged Chancellor Ludwig Erhard today to ask for a formal vote of confidence which he would almost certainly lose. Erhard said in advance he would not comply.

The vote was 255-246 on a Socialist motion which Erhard does not have to heed. The Socialists were joined by the Free Democrats, until Oct. 27 Erhard's allies in a coalition government.

★ ★ ★

The chancellor's Christian Democratic party voted against the motion.

Erhard had told the Bundestag that as a good democrat and protector of the constitution he refused "to take part in a show trial."

UNABLE TO AGREE

The Bundestag can only replace the chancellor if a majority can agree on a successor. So far it has been unable to do this.

Erhard repeated his previous statement that the search for a new cabinet and a new majority in Parliament "will not fail because of me personally."

★ ★ ★

Erhard lost his majority Oct. 27 when the Free Democrats, who have 49 members in the Bundestag, quit his coalition government in opposition to tax raises he planned to balance the budget and finance arms purchases the government had pledged to make from the United States. The United States demanded the purchases to offset the foreign exchange it spends on U.S. forces in Germany.

Comptroller Choice Told

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson disclosed today that he will replace James J. Saxon, the controversial comptroller of the currency, with a Treasury Department career official.

Johnson, emerging from his polling place here, said Saxon's term will expire Nov. 15. He said William B. Camp, the first deputy comptroller, will be nominated to take over Saxon's job.

★ ★ ★

Saxon, a Chicago bank attorney before becoming comptroller of the currency early in the John F. Kennedy administration, announced some time ago that he was not a candidate for a new term.

As the regulator of national banks, Saxon has pursued an independent course that has brought him into frequent conflict with the Federal Reserve Board and, on bank antitrust matters, the Justice Department.

LBJ 'Ahead' at Polls: He Voted Early

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson turned out to vote today 39 minutes before the polls opened — and local election officials let him cast his ballot anyway.

Johnson thought his polling place, 15 miles east of the LBJ Ranch, opened at 7 a.m., so with Mrs. Johnson, he drove up at 7:21.

★ ★ ★

Most Texas precincts did open at that hour, but because Johnson City is a community of only about 600, voting here normally begins at 8 a.m. The election judges and clerks were already on hand when Johnson entered, however, and they made no move to stop him from casting his premature ballot.

Dr. Sam Trial Eyes Weapon

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The missing murder weapon in the 1954 slaying of Marilyn Sheppard remained an issue today as the murder retrial of Samuel H. Sheppard went into a half-day session.

The jury of seven men and five women will be given the afternoon off by Common Pleas Judge Francis J. Talty so they can vote in the general election.

★ ★ ★

The theory that Marilyn was beaten to death with a surgical instrument was introduced into the retrial Monday by Dr. Samuel R. Gerber, Cuyahoga County coroner, who was the state's star medical witness in the first trial 12 years ago.

★ ★ ★

Sheppard, formerly an osteopath, was convicted in 1954 and served nine years in the Ohio Penitentiary before winning a retrial through federal courts.

POSSIBLE WEAPON

Gerber said the murder weapon could have been a serrated—toothlike—surgical instrument such as bone forceps.

★ ★ ★

During intensive cross-examination defense counsel F. Lee Bailey of Boston asked the coroner about a conversation Gerber supposedly had with a Dr. Max Don of Bay View Hospital June 4, 1954, a month before Marilyn was slain.

★ ★ ★

"Did you ever say you were going to get the Sheppard family?" Bailey asked.

"No," Gerber replied. "Whoever says that is a liar. I deny it."

★ ★ ★

Gerber injected the surgical-instrument theory when Bailey asked him to explain why the bloodstains on Marilyn's pillow could not have been made by doubling the pillow, as in fending off an attacker.

Orbiter Loses Guide, Delaying Maneuver

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A planned midcourse maneuver for Lunar Orbiter 2, on its way to photograph the moon, was postponed early today when the craft lost its lock on the guiding star Canopus, a spokesman at Jet Propulsion Laboratory said.

The spokesman said the windmill-shaped, 850-pound spacecraft lost contact with Canopus about 7:20 a.m. He said scientists were attempting to reestablish Lunar Orbiter's contact with Canopus but didn't know what caused the difficulty.

However, the midcourse maneuver can be made at any time during the craft's next 123,000 miles on its orbit around the moon, the spokesman said.

"The situation is not critical," he said. "We can make the maneuver any time."

2,200 M.P.H.

Lunar Orbiter 2, launched Sunday from Cape Kennedy, Fla., is speeding 2,200 miles an hour toward the moon to photograph 13 potential astronaut landing sites.

The craft was scheduled to coast until Thursday, when rockets will be fired to send it into orbit around the moon. Before the craft starts taking pictures on Nov. 18, the orbit will be tightened so Orbiter passes within 28 miles of the moon at one point.

★ ★ ★

Orbiter will develop its own pictures and radio them to earth, where scientists hope to discover new clues to the best terrain for men to land on.

Lunar Orbiter 1, launched last August, was unable to provide definitive answers because some key photographs were blurred.

★ ★ ★

Orbiter 2 was designed to take clear pictures of objects as small as three feet across.

Picture taking will end Nov. 25, but transmission of the photos will continue until Dec. 13.

360 Backers of Vote-Age Plan Turn Out

LANSING (UPI)—Adult voters today will solemnly decide whether to lower the state's voting age to 18, but a noisy group of those concerned enthusiastically demonstrated their support for the measure on the Capitol steps yesterday.

About 360 youngsters showed up to cheer on local candidates who back their cause and applauded letters in favor of the proposal from Gov. Romney and Democratic gubernatorial candidate Zolton Ferency.

★ ★ ★

Even though both senatorial contenders, Republican Sen. Robert P. Griffin and Democratic hopeful G. Mennen Williams, have also endorsed the proposal, the kids didn't seem too hopeful the idea would find favor with a majority of the voters.

"We haven't got a chance," said one energetic participant, "but you can't blame the kids for trying."

AF Again Asks Superbomber

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Air Force has again proposed to Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara that the United States build a new supersonic bomber to replace the B52's in the 1970s.

For several years, the Air Force has wanted a new bomber which has been given the project name of AMSA for advanced manned strategic aircraft.

But McNamara has permitted development work only on engines and certain electronics and withheld approval for actual production of a prototype aircraft.

It was understood that the proposed new design would have a variable sweep wing like the F111 fighter plane.

★ ★ ★

The wing would be extended almost at right angles to the fuselage for takeoff, landing and subsonic flight. It would be swept back for high-speed dashes over enemy territory with either nuclear or conventional bomb loads.

The AMSA would be capable of both high and low altitude bombing operations.

Sylvan Lake Council Race

Two men are running for the Sylvan Lake councilman's position held by Stanley J. Filkins of 1474 Benvenue in today's election.

The candidates are E. V. Geizer, 49, of 2714 Island Court and Joseph J. Leavy III, 35 of 1464 Benvenue.

Geizer is president of Tech-Matic Specialties, Inc., and a former Sylvan Lake mayor. Leavy is a supervisor in Production control at Pontiac Motor Division.

Filkins was appointed by the council last May to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Donald A. Tews of 1936 Lakeland. Filkins accepted the appointment with the understanding that he would not seek reelection.

Draft Cutback May Ease 2 Army Woes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's decision to reduce draft calls over the next four months eventually may solve two pressing Army problems: the huge backlog of untrained reservists and the failure to reach full combat readiness among U.S.-based divisions.

Pentagon sources said Monday the Army should be able to slash the reservist backlog — 133,100 as of last June 30 — to 60,000 by next summer. The Army training bases, officials said, should be training as many as 20,000 reservists a month by early next year. Right now the Army is scheduled to train only 7,000 reservists monthly.

★ ★ ★

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara announced the cutback at a news conference Saturday. He said draft calls — barring unforeseen contingencies — should average less than 25,000 through March, about half the current levels.

★ ★ ★

In past months the Army has been training more than 55,000 recruits a month but has been unable to reduce substantially the number of untrained reservists and National Guardsmen.

ENLISTMENTS

One factor has been the reserve units' continuing emphasis on enlistments: despite the backlog of untrained personnel, more than 24,000 men have been inducted into reserve units since July 1.

The large pools of untrained men have been a sharp target of congressional critics who contend the reserve program amounts to a haven for those men who otherwise would be drafted to fight in Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

Last month Congress voted legislation that gave President Johnson the authority to call up untrained reservists for active duty without declaring a national emergency. Johnson had not requested the legislation.

★ ★ ★

The eased draft calls, part of an over-all slowdown in the rate of troop deployment to South Viet Nam announced by McNamara Saturday, also could lead to the end of training duties for the 1st and 2nd Armored Divisions in Texas.

Taylor Corrects Misstatement

Emphasizing that Oak Park developer A. Alfred Taubman's record spoke for itself, Pontiac's mayor last night acknowledged that Taubman was not a graduate architect.

"I inadvertently made the statement that Mr. Taubman was a graduate architect—such is not the case!"

Taylor explained that Taubman had the equivalent of 4½ years of college, much of which was devoted to the study of architecture.

Taylor said in his statement, "This of itself, is merely a correction of my statement. It is not intended — and I reemphasize again and again—to negate or minimize Mr. Taubman's ability in the field of large-scale property development!"

★ ★ ★

The mayor detailed Taubman's developments in Ann Arbor, Taylor Township, Hayward and Concord, Calif., Roseville and Chicago, Ill.

OTHER PROJECTS

He also mentioned other projects by Taubman now under development in Grand Rapids, San Jose, Calif., and Milwaukee, Wis.

Taylor said these served as "dramatic testimony to his (Taubman's) ability to get things done . . . some of the largest retail establishments in the world!"

The mayor pointed out that Taubman used several registered architects.

★ ★ ★

He noted that a qualified architect would be secured for Pontiac's downtown redevelopment when the major tenants are ready, their requirements known and the plans submitted for City Commission approval.

Heart Pump Patient Dies After 11 Days

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Artificial heart pump patient Victorien Maboge, 38, died early today at Methodist Hospital 11 days after undergoing surgery.

A statement issued by the hospital said the warehouse worker from Rochefort, Belgium, died of liver and kidney failure. The statement said the malfunctioning of the kidneys and liver was the result of a prolonged serious heart condition he had suffered before undergoing the operation.

★ ★ ★

The Belgian has been in critical condition since Sunday.

Maboge received the pump Oct. 28, plus three plastic heart valves as replacements for his own diseased valves. He had been conscious and listed in satisfactory condition until a crisis developed early Saturday.

SHARED WORK

The pump, a left ventricular bypass, shares the work of the real heart's main pumping chamber, giving the heart a chance to heal.

★ ★ ★

Four previous patients have received the device in Houston operations. Only one, Esperanza del Calle Vasquez of Mexico City, has survived long enough for its removal and a return to normal life.

Industrialist's Will Admitted in Probate Court

The will of Royal Oak industrialist Jim Robbins was admitted yesterday in Oakland County Probate Court by Judge Donald E. Adams, but a complete inventory of the millionaire's assets won't be filed for another month.

★ ★ ★

Robbins' will, dated July 13, 1965, was filed with the Probate Court Oct. 5, ten days after he was killed in a plane crash in South Dakota.

★ ★ ★

The will gives no estimate of the worth of the estate. It does establish a trust fund for his heirs. Several business associates also are named beneficiaries.

Long Trip to Polls for Boston Resident

BOSTON (AP) — John W. McGarry will have a long trip to vote today.

McGarry, chief counsel to the Congressional Election Commission in Washington, expected to be in California this week, and so applied for an absentee ballot.

★ ★ ★

He never received the absentee ballot and because the law allows only one to a voter, he couldn't get another.

Secretary of State Kevin H. White said Monday he had word that McGarry would fly to Boston, his legal residence, to vote —then fly back to California.

County to Eye Status of Post

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors Thursday will weigh an opinion by County Corporation Counsel Robert P. Allen in deciding whether to reduce a full-time appointive position to part-time.

Slated for the supervisors attention is the vacancy on the County Social Welfare Board created by the death last August of John A. MacDonald.

A year ago the board appointed MacDonald to a new three-year term at an annual salary of $11,500. The other two members of the social welfare board serve part time and receive $500 annually.

In response to an inquiry by Delos Hamlin, chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, Allen gave the opinion that the position could be made part-time.

He added that the salary would remain at the $11,500 level fixed for the term but that an agreement could be entered by the appointee and the county in which the appointee would waive the full-time salary.

Allen pointed out that, while such an agreement could be made, it would be unenforceable if the person, or his estate, decided to lay claim to the established full salary for the position.

Supervisors also will appoint a road commissioner to a six-year term Thursday. Robert O. Felt, present commission chairman, is a candidate for reappointment.

Some county officials had urged that the road commission post also be reduced to a part-time job, but it was agreed last week at a joint session of three committees of the supervisors to maintain the full-time post.

In other business, the supervisors' legislative committee will present its proposed 1967 legislative program for consideration of the full board. Committee chairman Carl F. Ingraham will outline the recommended legislative matters.

This committee also will recommend to the board that the county's legislative agent John G. Semann be given a new contract with compensation of $10,500 per year.

Birmingham Area News

Shopping Center Zoning Is Rejected by Planners

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The Township Planning Commission last night refused to rezone eight acres of land at Big Beaver and Adams road from multiple housing to commercial.

In a unanimous decision, the commission denied the request of C. Allen Harlan and the Cranbrook Realty Co. to rezone the land to allow construction of a $1.5-million neighborhood shopping center.

The matter is closed, according to Township Supervisor Homer Case, unless Harlan decides to appeal the case. Attorneys for Harlan said future action has not been determined.

The rezoning request met with strong opposition from residents of the area at a public hearing last month. They objected to a commercial development in the area.

★ ★ ★

Case said the present zoning was upheld in Circuit Court two years ago following a similar rezoning request for the land from Harlan.

PETITION PENDING

A petition is presently waiting action by the Oakland County Board of Supervisors which requests annexation of the parcel to Birmingham.

The plat is bounded on the east by Adams, on the north by Big Beaver and diagonally on the south and west by the Grand Trunk Railroad tracks.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The City Commission meeting, scheduled for tonight, has been postponed until 8 p.m. tomorrow because of the election today.

BIRMINGHAM — The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Embury Methodist Church, 14 Mile and Croft, will hold its annual harvest dinner from 5 to 7 p.m. Thursday.

While the city administration reviews a citizens' proposal to solve traffic problems on Willits, immediate measures will be taken to ease the situation.

The city commission last night directed City Manager Robert Kenning to study the suggestions made by the home owners group and return in three weeks with a recommendation.

Meantime, Chief of Police Ralph W. Moxley assured area residents that he will increase radar patrols on the street and post 25 mile per hour speed limit signs.

★ ★ ★

Moxley noted, however, that traffic volumes and accidents on Willits are normal for a street located adjacent to a business district.

CROSSING GUARD

In a related matter, the commission approved the hiring of a crossing guard for the intersection of Willits and Chester for children attending Baldwin School.

The action was taken despite a report from Moxley in which he said he believed that an adult school crossing guard was not needed at this time.

County Votes on Proposals

also are being elected throughout the county.

Besides local proposals facing voters in a number of communities, three propositions appear on all ballots in the county.

★ ★ ★

These include two county proposals — a one-quarter mill tax increase for five years for a park system and a merit system for county employes — and a statewide proposal to lower the voting age to 18.

Waterford Township property owners are being asked to approve a one-mill tax increase to benefit the fire department.

Schools Equal? Study Slated

A citizens committee is to be named tomorrow night to study the equality of educational opportunities in the Pontiac School District.

Some 30 to 40 persons will be asked to serve on the committee, which will assess the district's present provisions for equal educational opportunity and make some recommendations for the future.

The extensive study is expected to take at least a year.

The list of nominees for committee membership has been narrowed from more than 100 submitted by organizations and individuals throughout the district.

They have been screened by Pontiac Board of Education members, civic leaders and representatives of the State Civil Rights Commission.

Official appointments are expected to be made during the school board's 7:30 p.m. meeting tomorrow.

End Window Problems!

Why Put Up With Old, Worn-Out House Windows Another Winter?

Nu-Sash gives a clean, modern appearance while giving superior insulation; keeps out dirt, dust, and noise; snap-out for easy inside-the-house cleaning; increase property value; raise easily—never stick or bind.

Nu-Sash is a window specifically designed to replace old, drafty, out-of-date house windows at amazing new low cost.

Old, loose fitting, rattling, out-of-date house windows — the major cause of cold, drafty, breezy rooms and sooty inside window sills — are a thing of the past since Nu-Sash. Homeowners everywhere are finding that by converting to Nu-Sash aluminum replacement windows, complete and maximum comfort is gained without major remodeling and other unnecessary and costly home improvement projects.

Nu-Sash is a window specifically designed to replace old, out-of-date windows. Furthermore, the Nu-Sash window is fully tested and proved by one of the greatest testing laboratories in the building products field.

One of the greatest features of Nu-Sash is that the window is installed without touching inside plaster and woodwork. This means no dusty and dirty installation work. Expert workmen remove the old sash and track, insert new aluminum jamb liners and tracks, then custom fit Nu-Sash securely into place. Complete installation, which is included in the new low cost of Nu-Sash, is done fast, safely and expertly.

Savings in heating bills will pay for a Nu-Sash conversion. Many more time and money saving features in Nu-Sash are gained since the anodized aluminum unit never needs paint, putty, caulking and other yearly household work and maintenance.

Nu-Sash qualify for low-interest home improvement loans. The window is rated superior to standards set up by FHA for new construction requirements.

The Nu-Sash window recently appeared in issues of the Better Homes & Gardens magazine. It was awarded the guarantee seal of that publication. For additional free literature on Nu-Sash, mail the coupon below. Price samples are also available upon request.

State Approves Land-Fill Plans

Brandon Awaits Word From O'Brien on Swap

BRANDON TOWNSHIP — Unexpectedly quick state approval of engineering plans for land-refill usage of the Brandon Township dump has placed the matter squarely before the Township Board.

★ ★ ★

A special meeting has been called for 8 p.m. Friday at the Township Hall.

The board will consider swapping the dump area, located on M15, for private parcels in a remote area, surrounded almost entirely by state conservation land.

Brandon Supervisor Richard Wilcox said he'd heard yesterday from State Sen. Carl W. O'Brien in regard to a land swap of state-owned land.

★ ★ ★

O'Brien reportedly told Wilcox he'd have an answer in time for the meeting Friday night.

PAST COMPLAINTS

Residents of the area near the present dump, used equally by Brandon, Groveland and Independence townships, have complained that a land-fill usage would permit pollution of their water supplies.

★ ★ ★

Wilcox said he thought the state Water Resources Commission's hasty approval of engineering plans meant that no further study would be made on the matter, and that according to the plans there was no possibility for pollution.

★ ★ ★

The dump has been closed since last August.

Avondale Fills Two Vacancies

The employment of two teachers for the Avondale School System was announced with some joy at the Avondale Board of Education meeting last night.

Schools Supt. John S. Dickey said William J. Glavan, holding a masters degree and a teacher for nine years, had been engaged to take over the industrial arts program.

Glavan will also provide counseling in the field of job opportunity for his students, Dickey said.

★ ★ ★

Miss Marcia O'Leary, holding a bachelor's degree from Marygrove, has been hired as speech correctionist.

EVALUATION INTERVIEWS

In other business the board authorized the principal to conduct evaluation interviews with principals only once a year rather than once a term as has been the rule.

★ ★ ★

The district's health and safety policy was amended to require tuberculin tests once a year rather than every two years.

★ ★ ★

The board instructed board member Ray Isanhart to carry its approval of the county's plan for vocational education back to the county committee.

Money Taken From Eatery

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — Theft of $426 in a break-in at a township restaurant was reported yesterday to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Raymond Brown, manager of the Country Kitchen, 2041 Auburn, told deputies the money, kept in a brown paper sack, was taken from a closet at the rear of the restaurant.

★ ★ ★

Deputies said entry to the building was gained by smashing a large front door window and then unlocking the door.

Club Social Set

ORCHARD LAKE—The Moms' and Dads' Club of St. Mary's Preparatory School will hold a social at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 15 at the P.N.A. Hall, 10211 Conant, Detroit.

Coin Show Is Sunday

The Royal Oak Michigan Coin Club will hold its fall show from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday at the American Legion Hall, 12 Mile at Rochester Road.

Timetable on School Bids Told

ROCHESTER — The launching of a building program in line with last spring's favorable $7.3-million bond issue is occupying board of education members these days.

The bonds will be officially sold Nov. 30, according to School Supt. Douglas Lund.

At last night's meeting, it was announced that the district hopes to ask for bids in two weeks on library and activity room additions to Woodward and North Hill Elementary Schools and for bids on the new 22-room Longmeadow Elementary School which will be built at the foot of Allston.

In five weeks the board hopes to let bids on the $1.1-million pool, auditorium and auxiliary gymnasium for Rochester Senior High School.

★ ★ ★

Lund said educational specifications and site negotiations are still being worked out for the new senior high school and there has been no date set for the letting of bonds on that project.

10 ACRES

The board is working with the federal government on its open-space program to acquire 10 acres at 1568 W. Avon as a site for another new elementary school — not to be built with the current bond issue.

The board is attempting to receive 50 per cent federal assistance on the cost of four of the 10 acres involved.

Meanwhile the option on the property owned by E. T. Phillips, has been extended to Jan. 2.

A recent survey in the schools found secondary students in want of a community recreation center, and a committee composed of Lund and board members Martin McMurray and Robert Williamson was asked to meet with civic organizations to see what can be done.

SELECTED FOR STUDY

A committee headed by Mrs. Paul Smith, principal of Baldwin School has been selected to study elementary school playground needs with a view to incorporating their findings in the new Longmeadow School.

An updating of other elementary school playgrounds is also proposed, according to Lund.

Lake Orion Gets Sewer Reprieve

LAKE ORION — The village has been given one year (until Dec. 1, 1967) to arrange for financing on a sewer project, which would stop pollution of Paint Creek.

The deadline had been yesterday.

The extension of time was made at a Circuit Court hearing yesterday morning before Judge Arthur E. Moore.

Along with the financing schedule, which village spokesmen feel will give them time to try again for federal aid, comes a June 1, 1968, deadline for the awarding of contracts for construction and a Sept. 1, 1969 completion date on a sewer program.

Village Attorney Robert Parenti said yesterday, "If we have no federal money forthcoming, I presume we will be back in court again. We keep hearing that (federal) money is coming, but so far there has been no official confirmation."

Mrs. Juanita Robbins, 622 Detroit, spokesman for the Lake Orion Homeowners Association, expressed her delight with the outcome of today's hearing.

'TOO EXPENSIVE'

"It proves that the sewer as presented was too expensive for the people of Lake Orion to pay for it alone. I think we'll get federal help within the year."

The Village cannot get approval to sell bonds from the Michigan Finance Commission as long as the homeowners continue litigation against the project. Without bonds, the village cannot raise the necessary money.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Robbins said today the suit would be dropped once federal financing became available.

Annexation Hearing Set for Holly

HOLLY TOWNSHIP — A public hearing will be held Dec. 14 on the proposed annexation of 418 acres of the township to the village of Holly.

★ ★ ★

The hearing, to be conducted by the boundaries committee of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, will be held at 7:30 p.m. at Holly High School, 920 E. Baird.

Residents of both the township and the village will have have an opportunity to air their views regarding the proposed annexation at the hearing.

After the hearing, the boundaries committee will make a recommendation and refer it to the full Board of Supervisors, which will hold another public hearing before ruling on the annexation.

★ ★ ★

Annexation attempts have come up several times over the past several years, according to Township Supervisor Seeley Tinsman. The last attempt was in 1960 when the request was turned down.

ANNEXATION

Part of the township east of the village was annexed to the village in 1957.

The land proposed for the latest annexation lies directly north of the village limits and contains a population of about 350 persons.

Tinsman said he has only heard a few comments from residents but that most of them have indicated opposition to the proposal.

★ ★ ★

The 1895 act, under which the village of Holly was incorporated, rules out an election procedure for annexation of adjacent land.

Turkey Dinner Slated

A turkey dinner will be held at noon Thursday at the Gingellville Community Club for members of the Oakland County Association of Retirees.

News of the Area

Rent Is Issue in Huron Valley

Is the Huron Valley School District administration spending too much money to rent office space for the next 18 months.

Yes, say some residents of the district. No, say members of the administration

The administration is moving today from its offices in the high schoolo to a new building at 7404 Highland, White Lake Township.

It's moving under a cloud of charges that the $3,720 it must pay for a year's lease on the building is "too much."

★ ★ ★

A spokesman for the administration points out, however, that the move will free a classroom and a half at the already crowded high school.

$25,000 COST

He said to build one classroom, it would cost $25,000. The smaller, or half-size room, will be used for special education classes which have been held on the stage in the past.

The new building, formerly a real estate agents' office, has 1,600 square feet of room compared to the 750 square feet at the high school.

It was cheaper than anything else investigated, according to administrators.

★ ★ ★

The proposed new building near the high school is to be built with funds approved by voters last spring as part of an $8,313,100 bond issue.

ADDITIONS PLANNED

It is to cost about $190,000.

Eleven classrooms are also to be added on to the high school with money from the bond is sue.

★ ★ ★

Bids are being let this week on two new elementary schools which are scheduled for completion in January 1968.

Orion Area JCs to Choose a Junior Miss

ORION TOWNSHIP — Orion Area Jaycees will pick a Junior Miss to compete in state and national finals in a pageant at 8 p.m. Saturday at Lake Orion Junior High School.

Chosen on the basis of academic standards, beauty, poise, personality and talent, the winner will be selected by a panel of judges composed of Wallace Crane, Lake Orion village president; Mrs. Howard Coffin, Oakland University housemother; and Ed Bagley, editor of the Lake Orion Review.

Senior Day Saturday at Christian College

AVON TOWNSHIP — Approximately 200 high school seniors from Michigan and surrounding states are expected to register for the second annual Senior Day activities Saturday at Michigan Christian College.

Senior Day is planned for the purpose of introducing young people to Michigan Christian College and its academic program, with a view to enrollment.

Highlights of the day, as outlined by Registrar Fred J. Alexander, are as follows: A musical concert by the MCC a cappella chorus and the faculty quartet, an address by Dr. Joseph Jones, academic vice president, and an afternoon basketball game between the MCC Warriors and Urbana College.

The game is scheduled at 3 p.m. in the Avondale High School gymnasium.

★ ★ ★

Information provided the students will include details on student financial aid, scholarships and curriculum.

Future of Students Lake Orion Topic

LAKE ORION — The Lake Orion Area PTA Council will sponsor a panel discussion entitled "After High School — What?" at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the Lake Orion High School cafeteria.

Dr. Kenneth Brown, deputy superintendent of Oakland Schools, will moderate a panel consisting of Schools Supt. Lewis Mundy speaking on administration; High School Principal Joseph Duris on curriculum; Calvin Darbel on counseling; and James Egner on extracurricular activities.

Duris, newly appointed principal of Lake Orion High School will be feted at an informal reception later.

Oxford Chamber Discusses Parking

OXFORD — The Chamber of Commerce yesterday discussed parking situations in the business district, but did little else in regards to renewal for the area.

★ ★ ★

R. A. Abrose, secretary, said no new discussions have been scheduled and that the matter is "pretty quiet" right now.

A recent survey put out by the Chamber showed about 90 per cent of the merchants interested in some form of renewal.

The business area suffered a $250,000 loss to seven stores through fire last February and has been slow to rebuild.

★ ★ ★

Some merchants reported do not want federal urban renewal because of the time-consuming legal aspects. These men are seemingly in favor of a more localized type of financial aid.

Open House Set for Ex-Area Pair

DAVISBURG — A surprise open house will be held Sunday to celebrate the 40th wedding anniversary of former residents Mr. and Mrs. Donald Turner, now of Midland.

★ ★ ★

It will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Davisburg Masonic Temple on Andersonville Road. All their friends are invited to attend.

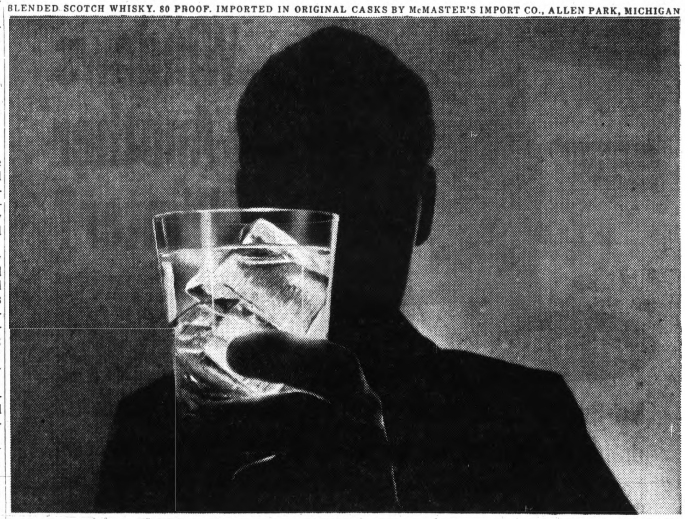
BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY. 80 PROOF. IMPORTED IN ORIGINAL CASKS BY McMASTER'S IMPORT CO., ALLEN PARK, MICHIGAN



You can tell it's an expensive Scotch, even in the dark.

By the taste not the price.

McMaster's® Scotch tastes expensive, smooth and mellow. You can tell that without looking. Try the McMaster's Scotch taste test: Pour McMaster's fine Scotch and your expensive Scotch into separate glasses. Have a friend blindfold you, rearrange the glasses. Taste both. Aren't you glad you tried McMaster's Scotch?

All you have to pay is $4.97 for a $7.00 value: how do we do it? We bring McMaster's fine Scotch over from Scotland in barrels. And bottle it only after it arrives in this country. So we save on taxes, shipping and handling. We pass the savings on to you so you save. The only expensive thing about our Scotch is the taste. 4.97 Tax Incl. 4/5 QT.

Car Specifications Set, Bid-Seeking Okayed

The Waterford Township Board last night approved vehicle specifications for 1967 model general purpose and police patrol cars and authorized Clerk Elmer Fangboner to advertise for bids.

The bids will be opened at the board's Nov. 28 meeting.

Eleven cars will be purchased — three to be used by the building department, two by police detectives and six by patrolmen.

All cars are to be four-door sedans, equipped with automatic transmission and power steering. Specifications for the patrol cars also include a minimum 360-horsepower engine.

★ ★ ★

Eight police vehicles will be traded in toward purchase of the new cars.

OTHER BUSINESS

In other business last night, the board tabled for two weeks a review of the recreation department agreement with the board of education.

Conducted on a one-year trial basis, the agreement places recreation department employes on the school payroll.

The Township Board and board of education, however, contribute equal amounts to the recreation department's budget.

★ ★ ★

Fangboner suggested formation of a group of citizens, other than township and school officials to decide whether the recreation department remain under dual control or be placed under township jurisdiction.

FUTURE PLANS

The community schools and recreation advisory board is expected to make a recommendation on the future operation of the recreation department at a meeting tomorrow night.

Township Utilities Manager Kenneth Squiers announced last night that construction is under way on the $49,000 Jeffrey Manor Subdivision sanitary sewer project.

Earmarked for completion in about two months, the project will provide sewers for 40 home owners on the west side of Scott Lake Road and three on Elizabeth Lake Road.

A report presented by Squiers to the board last night indicated that 43,406,000 gallons of water were pumped through the township water supply system last month or 11,727,400 gallons more than the previous October.

BUSY PUMPS

For the first 10 months this year, 481,253,640 gallons of water ave been pumped through the system.

Supervisor Dorothy W. Olson announced that township offices will be closed Friday in observance of Veterans' Day.

First notices were read on five rezoning requests.

Slated for board action Nov. 21 are requests to rezone from:

- Single family residential (R-1B) to local business (C-1) a lot on Telegraph between Premont and Lakeview for parking area for a B. F. Goodrich retail outlet.
- Single family residential (R-1A) to C-1 property at 3714 Sashabaw owned by the First Baptist Church of Drayton Plains.

★ ★ ★

- R-1A to multiple dwelling residential (R-2) property with frontage on Walton and Meigs near Meinrad for apartments.

Slated for board action Nov. 28 are requests to rezone from:

- C-1 to general business (C-2) three lots on the north side of West Huron near Josephine for a health club, dry cleaning establishment and office.
- R-1A to C-2 part of a lot on Hatfield near Dixie Highway for a retail furniture store and auction house.

News of Waterford

Building Permits Show Continued Valuation Rise

The Waterford Township Building Department last month issued 92 permits for new construction, additions and alterations estimated to cost $437,229, increasing to $8,781,238 the total valuation for the first 10 months of 1966.

This far exceeded the previous October when 131 building permits were granted for construction estimated to cost $969,400.

The $12,925,082 valuation figure for the first 10 months of 1965 likewise surpassed this year's total for the same period.

Last month's figures included issuance of 13 building permits for new home construction estimated to cost $219,828.

★ ★ ★

Other permits approved were for four commercial buildings, $56,900; seven additions and remodelings to commercial buildings, $49,550; 19 home additions, $44,415; 32 garages, $43,298; 10 home remodelings, $14,878; four commercial signs, $4,860; and one gasoline tank permit, $3,500.

BUSINESSES

The commercial permits included a laundromat and paint store at 5490 Dixie, estimated to cost $31,000, and a service station at 4189 Sashabaw, worth an estimated $15,000.

Permits issued for commercial improvements included an addition to the Bryny Manufacturing Co. on Seba Street, estimated to cost $18,500, and remodeling at the Buckner Finance Co., 4492 Dixie, worth an estimated $10,000.

Plea of Innocent

DETROIT (AP)—Chester Hall, 22, of Hamtramck pleaded innocent Monday on a charge of second-degree murder stemming from the fatal stabbing last Saturday of David M. Schisler, 25, of Detroit. Hall is a member of the Highway Men Motorcycle Club, which police say invaded an East Side bar and started a bottle-throwing brawl in which Schisler was stabbed. Hall was released on $2,500 bond pending examination No. 25.

Can Uncle Sam Carry the Load?

A growing assumption, strengthened by the Manila conference, is that long range plans of the Administration envision an Asian assistance role for Uncle Sam similar to that played in the economic restoration of Western Europe after World War II.

Such a program would be a prodigious one, making our dollar aid to the European continent seem like peanuts. Although the United States has ladled out $100 billion in foreign aid in the past two decades, a relatively small amount went to the industrial nations of Western Europe.

★ ★ ★

A total of $10 billion was given France, Britain, Italy and West Germany, with modest sums to other European nations struggling to recover from the war.

Western Europe is humming today, thanks in large part to initial U.S. assistance, and our investment there may be viewed as a good one.

But once used to spending to relieve war-devastated areas, we were soon spending to raise the living standards of backward nations. So far, $8.5 billion has gone to the Far East, $1.7 billion to Africa, $3 billion to Latin America, and so on.

Eventually the war in South Viet Nam will be over, and U.S. taxpayers will pick up the burden of our long range commitments in the Far East.

The prospect is that as we attempt to lift the lot of a billion hungry and destitute people in Asia, as President JOHNSON sees us doing, our investment in foreign aid will reach $1 trillion—$1,000,000,000,000!

With our domestic welfare programs assuming gigantic proportions in both scope and cost and the Federal government operating in the red year after year as inflation flashes danger warnings, thoughtful Americans may well wonder if the United States is sailing a shipwreck course.

Jet Contrails to Blaze New Trade Trails

A curious thing happened after the termination of last summer's strike of airline mechanics. People remarked that it seemed good to hear the jets again whistling overhead.

★ ★ ★

All of which proves again that the human animal is highly adaptable. It was not so long ago that the populace looked forward to the noise of the jet age with trepidation. In reality, it is not proving as noisy as many feared. The graceful giants drift across the heavens with no more than a subdued whine, and instead of being a nuisance they now offer reassurance that the affairs of men are going forward. Travel and commerce go hand in hand with peace and prosperity.

Especially is this true on the international scene. Not long ago, one of our major overseas airlines described two monster jet freighters it has on order. These freighters will produce over a million ton-miles of cargo a day. The big planes are designed with straight-in nose loading and will mark the true beginning of containerized freight air service.

Highway-size containers eight feet wide, ranging in length from 8 to 40 feet will be transported in these giant craft. Thus, through the medium of international air transport, overseas American-flag airlines will substantially advance the cause of peace and understanding among nations in a most practical way.

The sound of jets is the sound of progress.

Socialized Power Advocates' Zeal Undimmed

For more than a generation, a Federal power project called the Passamaquoddy tidal proposal was promoted by socialized electric power zealots. After many times around, it was finally dumped by Congress because the cost of the project far outweighed its benefits.

In conjunction with Passamaquoddy, however, another hydroelectric concept called Dickey-Lincoln was also under consideration. It has now been revived, and every effort is being made by public power enthusiasts to wring a nonessential expenditure of some $314 million from American taxpayers to put the government in the power business in northern Maine.

★ ★ ★

A study by the Council of State Chambers of Commerce shows that in this case, as in many other similar projects, the investor-owned electric industry stands ready to provide for every future electric energy need of the region at lower cost, and in the process, create new sources of tax revenue rather than eliminate them.

The Council calculated that the true economic cost of Dickey-Lincoln to taxpayers would be between $850 and $970 million. By the time the project would be ready to produce, equivalent power will be available to the same market from new private company facilities.

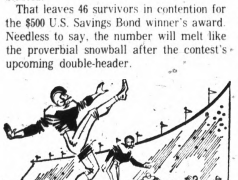
★ ★ ★

One can only ask why, in the name of common sense, are unneeded and unwanted tax-exempt, socialized Federal business ventures soberly considered at this time. Government is seaching for every possible source of tax revenue to sustain a war effort, cut deficits and at the same time expand costly welfare programs.

51 Slipped With Slippery Rock

Lock Haven not only crushed Slippery Rock, 22-6, on the gridiron Saturday, it dashed the hopes of 51 Press Annual Grid contestants who had backed the Rocks. The hopes of the lone tie-plugger were likewise blasted.

That leaves 46 survivors in contention for the $500 U.S. Savings Bond winner's award. Needless to say, the number will melt like the proverbial snowball after the contest's upcoming double-header.



Friday evening brings the action close to home with the annual clash between Waterford and Kettering high schools.

Contest support for the two is about as even as you could slice it—23 for Kettering, 22 for Waterford and—yep—another single diehard who'll figuratively die if the teams don't tie.

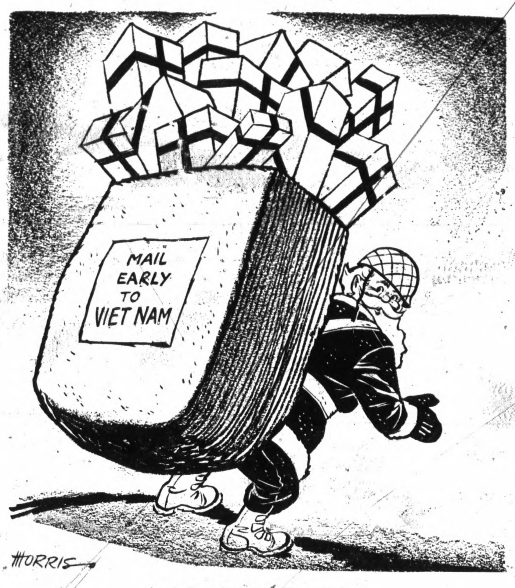
After a good night's sleep—ha!—the 20-plus who survive Part 1 of the weekend washout have only to steel themselves for the Yale-Princeton ruckus Saturday afternoon.

For this encounter, Princeton is favored by backers of both Kettering and Waterford. Should the former win, Princeton would have 13 cheering for them with 10 egging on Yale; a Waterford victory would set 16 to roaring for the Tigers with only six sicking on the Bulldogs.

★ ★ ★

Since no tie is predicted for the Ivy League rivals, the game would be scrubbed should a deadlock result, moving the contest on to the battle between Pontiac's high schools the following Friday evening.

That does it for now, folks. Next Tuesday's report should be reeeeely big, as Ed Sullivan would say.



And Don't You Forget It!

David Lawrence Says:

Public Relieved Campaign Over

WASHINGTON — Rarely has there been such a deep-seated feeling of relief in the country that a congressional campaign has come to an end.

LAWRENCE

For there are many important questions on which decisions have been purposely put aside. Now at last some action will have to be taken, and the nation will be able to get a clearer idea of what lies ahead not only on the domestic but on the international scene.

It will be possible presently to find out whether the announcement by the secretary of defense that a reduced draft call is planned was made as a preelection reassurance to anxious parents or whether some new turn in the Viet Nam war may be expected which will bring the adversaries to the peace table.

Most urgent of all are the decisions that have to be made on economic policies. The nation has been riding on the crest of a boom. This usually helps the party in power to keep the opposition vote at low levels, but growing anxiety that the climax — perhaps a recession — may not be far away hasn't been removed.

In both political camps it was taken for granted that some reduction in Democratic strength would be recorded. A stronger check on the executive was generally conceded because a diminution of the administration's majority was anticipated.

BIPARTISAN COALITION

The opportunities for a bipartisan coalition of dissenters on specific pieces of legislation are increased when a majority is cut down. This has a considerable effect on the legislative side.

Every election campaign is, however, directly related to the economic well-being of the people.

The cost of living has been a thorn in the side of the administration, but, with wage rates higher than they have ever been in American history the pain of inflation has not yet been felt as severely as it may be in the next two years.

Now that the 1966 election is over, the President can concentrate on the fiscal situation and on the best ways to halt further inflation.

Plans are in preparation to try to keep the economy from getting far off balance while preserving the kind of "prosperity" which politically makes votes at the polls.

Bob Considine Says:

U.S. Plans to Step Up Bombing of North Viet

NEW YORK — Prediction: We'll soon step up the bombing of North Viet Nam. The President has come around to the opinion, almost unanimous among his military people, that there is little danger of Red Chinese intercession (and no danger of Soviet intervention) lurking in a stepped-up bombing pattern.

CONSIDINE

There will be no attacks on population centers, as in World War II. The targets will continue to be of a military and strategic type.

The Air Force has been urging their elimination for months. They include certain (but not all) port facilities at Haiphong, electric power plants, oil stores, rail centers and repair shops, bridges and roads.

The aim will be to make the further waging of war next to impossible and life-in-general less endurable for the population.

The Air Force planners feel that such hardships would bring North Viet Nam to a state of open revolt against Ho Chi Minh, and he, in turn, would capitulate if offered as generous a deal as — say — that which was received by Emperor Hirohito.

TO AVOID TARGETS

Even a stepped-up bombing campaign will bypass certain targets which would have been regarded as primary bullseyes in World War II.

Chief among these could be the enemy's airpower, such as it is.

The North Vietnamese have been building airstrips and dispersement areas quite industriously of late. But, mainly, the foe parks his MIGs in orderly lines, up and down the taxistrips of his fields.

The philosophy about sparing these planes is interesting.

The President and those around him who guide the policy decided some time ago not to chew up Ho's planes because if we did there was a good chance he would then openly appeal to Peking or Moscow to send him not only another airforce but pilots to man the jets.

So we have let sleeping dogfights lie.

The stepped-up bombing in all probability will be abruptly canceled for the Christmas season.

More than Pope Paul's expected call for such a moratorium will be involved.

The will of the North Vietnamese to continue the war will be under stern scrutiny during that hiatus.

Voice of the People:

Support of Churches Is Believers' Responsibility

Your comments on the proposed tax on churches show you believe in separation of church and state, and so does this writer. It is more praiseworthy to pay taxes than to have the Government giving the churches tax-free property. I am not an agnostic, an atheist, pantheist or any kind of an ist. I am a sincere church worker.

If we understand the true separation of church and state, and believe churches should not receive anything from the state, taxes should be paid. No individual is an atheist for the true individual lives in God and nothing can separate us from His love.

Let us as free citizens share our responsibility to God and not have it supported by nonbelievers among the taxpayers. God will, with our help, see this come to pass. And we will have bigger and better churches as a result. Let's not accept these so-called gifts from the State.

LADY IN THE CONVERTIBLE

Question and Answer

When I mailed a package at the Post Office, the clerk asked me what was in it. Did I have to tell him, and if so, why?

INTIMIDATED

REPLY

Through it may appear to be idle curiosity, it's for your own protection. You are legally responsible for anything you mail, whether or not you are aware of any restrictions, and the postal officials may open any package they suspect violates Postal rules. You'll probably find it easier to tell the clerk what's in your packages than to memorize the 25 pages of regulations governing what can be mailed, how it must be wrapped, where it can be sent, etc. And if an improperly wrapped bottle of permanent ink breaks and runs all over the hand knit sweater you're sending your son in Montana, you'll appreciate the importance of the clerk's "nosiness."

In Washington:

Voters Expect No Fast Solution

By BRUCE BIOSSAT

WASHINGTON (NEA) — This may go down as the year when most Americans could not find the way to translate their obviously numerous anxieties into strong corrective action at the polls.

BIOSSAT

The one partial exception, observable clearly during the campaign season in Los Angeles, Chicago and some other places, was the white backlash — resistance to the pace of Negro advances, resentment against Negro riots and other violent disturbances.

Where this mood spilled over into the Old South, it was less an extension of backlash than a renewal of "frontlash," a revival of ancient southern resistance to racial change.

But backlash and its related southern manifestation were not a universal factor in 1966. In fact, some professional political figures believe, nothing was.

At campaign's end, Viet Nam was half puzzle, half bore. Few Americans liked our involvement in the war, but none heard from any source a truly practical alternative.

★ ★ ★

The feeling grew among voters that if there was a quick solution, President Johnson would long ago have stolen it.

Inflation annoyed a great many people, not least being the housewives across the country who boycotted supermarkets. But they liked the conditions of full employment and high income which produced it.

Crime, rising with headlong speed, frightened most Americans. But they seemed unclear as to how, realistically, to assess the blame politically.

Seen against the backdrop of earlier elections, these matters, in combination if not singly, looked big enough to stir really major voter shifts. Yet most of the professionally taken "attitude polls" indicated throughout the campaign that, again with the occasional exception of the backlash matter, they were not.

It has to be something of a curiosity that so many evidently genuine concerns (one analyst calls them "anxiety points") seem to have produced so little identifiable movement among the voters.

This same analyst argues that these anxieties did not become real issues because new office-seekers offered no clear way out of the various muddles — Viet Nam, inflation, crime.

Only the backlash vote was different. No program had to be offered. That vote could speak plainly as a "slow down" signal in the civil rights field.

It is also being contended, sometimes by the most expert pollsters, that Americans today are so beset by lingering anxieties that they have become disgusted—and increasingly distrustful of the prospect that any politicians, Democratic or Republican, will provide enduring solutions to their problems.

The net consequence of such attitudes, obviously, is to reduce the impact at the polls of concerns which, by any sane measure, seem major indeed. Big as they are, they tend to wash out.

What is left, in the view of at least two seasoned political judges, is the voter's normal impulse to correct political imbalance of the sort visited upon the nation by the Goldwater debacle of 1964.

Where the Republicans show gains in 1966, these men and some others are saying, it will generally reflect an almost instinctive voter judgment that the terrible two-party disparities produced in 1964 are politically unhealthy and should be sharply altered.

Nobody appears to be saying that Americans have learned to live with their anxieties. There is too much noisy grumbling for that to be so. But it is being argued, unmistakably, that they have learned not to act at the polls on their grievances unless they see brightly marked, loudly beckoning directions to move toward.

JOHNSON'S TEST SITE — This is the Brooke General Hospital at Fort Sam Houston, Tex., where President Johnson will undergo tests today in preparation for planned surgery.

Mrs. Wallace Heavily Favored

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A governor with his eye on the White House and his wife who hopes to succeed him as governor put their hopes today on the ballots of Alabama voters.

Gov. George C. Wallace's wife, Lurleen, carried the emblem of the Democratic party into the race for governor against a first-term Republican congressman, James D. Martin, and a physician-lawyer, Dr. Carl Robinson, running as an independent.

* * *

Characteristic of Wallace's long-standing political feud with President Johnson, the governor and his wife insisted again and again in campaign speeches that she was an Alabama Democrat with no allegiance to the national party.

A forecast of pleasant weather foreshadowed a possible record voter turnout. Polls are open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. EST.

MOTHER OF FOUR

The blonde, 40-year-old first lady, mother of four children, was heavily favored to win, perhaps by as much as 2-1.

Mrs. Wallace ran as a standin for her husband, a segregationist, with the promise to let him continue to make the major decisions. The state constitution prohibited him from running for a second consecutive term.

* * *

A victory for his wife, especially if the margin is substantial, almost certainly would send the governor campaigning across the nation again in 1968 as a "white backlash" candidate for president.

Despite the opinion polls which made Mrs. Wallace a solid favorite, Martin said he expected to win. So did Robinson, although there was little indication he would attract more than token support.

* * *

Martin, the Republican party's proven No. 1 vote-getter in Alabama, put on the most intensive GOP campaign in almost a century in a state where, until a few years ago, Democratic nomination was equivalent to election. Alabama has not had a Republican governor since Reconstruction days following the Civil War.

Loan to Calumet

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Department of Housing and Urban Development announced Monday a $722,112 loan to Calumet, Mich., for the construction of 50 low-rent homes.

Charges Mark Illinois Windup

CHICAGO (AP) — The issues of vote fraud, white backlash and age — as well as a profusion of names, some of them illustrious — faced Illinois voters in the general election today.

Despite a forecast of cloudy and cooler weather, four million persons were expected to cast ballots. The state's 10,767 polling places were to be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. EST.

* * *

The fraud charges mushroomed Monday when Sheriff Richard B. Ogilvie, a Republican running for president of the Cook County Board of Commissioners, assigned his investigators to check voting places in Chicago.

While Republicans attacked the Chicago Democratic stronghold, a leading Democrat, Sen. Paul Douglas, was making the same charges against heavily Republican Du Page County west of Chicago. He told FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover and U.S. Atty. Edward V. Hanrahan in telegrams that 13,000 names of nonexistent persons are on the voting lists in Du Page County.

'DUAL IMAGE'

Douglas also appealed to the Federal Fair Campaign Practices Committee in Washington with charges that Charles H. Percy, his Republican opponent, was circulating literature that indicates "that he does not want white voters to see what he is promising Negroes" and vice versa.

Percy, 47-year-old former industrialist, previously had filed charges with the Washington committee.

* * *

Percy said that Douglas, 74, whose age is a campaign issue, was illegally distributing a Negro-oriented piece of Percy campaign literature in white neighborhoods.

The committee held a hearing on the charges without entering a ujdgment, noting that its purpose was merely to inform the public.

* * *

Also seeking the Senate seat is Robert Sabonjian, mayor of Waukegan, an independent Democrat who campaigned as a write-in candidate.

Attention focused on Sabonjian last summer when Negroes rioted in Waukegan. He referred to the rioters at one point as scum and has said he would oppose open-housing legislation if elected.

Optimism Reigns

Big Vote Seen in Georgia

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Georgia voters ballot today in an election which might give the govenorship to a Republican, a Democrat — or throw the choice into a lengthy court battle.

Segregationist Democrat Lester Maddox predicted victory by an unprecedented margin; Republican conservative Howard (Bo) Callaway predicted a mandate for himself; election officials predicted a turnout of more than a million; the Weather Bureau predicted partly cloudy and mild.

One factor seen less clearly was the effect of a write-in movement on behalf of moderate former Gov. Ellis G. Arnall, who lost to Maddox Sept. 28 in a primary runoff. It could deprive either candidate of the needed majority.

The state constitution says that in the event no candidate gets 50 per cent of the votes, the General Assembly would elect a governor on a voice vote. However, a more recently enacted election code provides for a runoff election.

Should the matter be thrown into the legislature, the way would be opened for a court suit since a federal court has declared that body malapportioned.

Callaway, the state's only Republican congressman, is the first of his party to be listed on the ballot for governor of Georgia in about a century.

With him in the van, the GOP has launched a major campaign for power, posting candidates for 8 of the state's 10 seats in Congress and 92 of the 259 state legislative openings.

Remember How It Went 4 Years Ago?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's last nonpresidential election was just four brief years ago. How well do you remember it?

Here are a few reminders:

The one thing that was considered a possible national issue—the Cuban missile crisis two weeks earlier—did not seem to have any broad effect.

In California, Republican Richard M. Nixon lost the governorship race to Gov. Edmund G. Brown and said he was bowing out of politics.

In New York, Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller topped Democrat Robert M. Mergenthau by nearly a half million votes and leaped to the top of the heap of potential 1964 GOP presidential candidates.

ROMNEY WON

George Romney won the Michigan governorship. William W. Scranton was elected Pennsylvania's governor. Robert Taft Jr. was elected to Congress in an at-large House race in Ohio. Edward M. Kennedy was elected to the Senate by a landslide in Massachusetts. Iran Republicans who met defeat included Sens. Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin and Homer E. Capehart of Indiana and Rep. Walter H. Judd of Minnesota.

Resident Theater Troupe to Live in Mobile Homes

A "village" of homes for Meadow Brook Theatre actors is rolling onto the Oakland University campus this week to await arrival of the John Fernald Company Nov. 15.

The university has purchased 15 mobile home units for the company, soon to begin rehearsals for its first season.

Installation of seven of the units was expected to begin today.

Also scheduled to arrive in the near future are the two mobile units which will form an auxiliary dressing room block.

★ ★ ★

While director John Fernald concerned himself with organizing the company, his wife turned her attention to providing adequate housing for the troupe.

WELL AWARE

The English actress, known professionally as Jenny Laird, is well aware of the discomforts of temporary quarters endured by traveling performers.

She hit upon the idea of mobile homes as a way to provide comfortable housing easily accessible to the theater.

The residences of Michigan's first professional resident theater company will be installed south of OU's Science Building near the campus water tower.

They will be rented to the actors for a nominal fee which will allow the university to pay for the units over a three-year period.

WALKING DISTANCE

Because the community will be set up within walking distance of the theater in Matilda R. Wilson Hall, there will not be the transportation problem that would have occurred if the actors had rented places for themselves throughout the area.

Their location on campus also is seen as a cohesive factor in integrating the actors into one company.

The 14 two-bedroom and one one-bedroom units are being purchased from Champion Mobile Homes of Dryden and Detroiter Mobile Homes of Detroit.

★ ★ ★

The Dryden firm also is fitting two 12-by-50-foot units which will be joined on campus to create four dressing rooms with baths and a sitting room area.

A DONATION

Described as "luxurious" by a theater spokesman, the dressing rooms are being donated to the university by Champion Mobile Homes.

They will augment the dressing rooms now being created in Wilson Hall.

He Laid an Egg

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — Western State Fair officials here granted the request of a young man who sought to make a last minute change in his pigeon entry at the Idaho show. He told the official that the bird he entered in the male competition had just laid an egg and would not get off the nest.

An Election Twist: 'Don't Vote for Me'

BERLIN, N.H. (AP) — Robert Dumont, unlike thousands of political candidates awaiting the results of today's voting, hopes nobody will vote for him.

★ ★ ★

Dumont is Republican candidate for supervisor of check lists, a minor city office responsible for keeping records. He recently accepted a teaching job with New Hampshire Vocational Institute. As a state employe he can't run for public office, but he couldn't get his name off the ballot.

★ ★ ★

So on election eve, Dumont issued the plea "Don't elect me."

Grand Jury Queries More Detroit Police

DETROIT (AP) — Wayne County's one-man grand jury has apparently launched another investigation of the Detroit Police Department.

Two policemen appeared Monday before Grand Juror George E. Bowles, but Police Commissioner Ray Girardin said he does not know the purpose of the investigation.

"If there's any unfinished business, I certainly want it cleaned up," Girardin said.

Other sources said the present investigation was not expected to be extensive.

Vehicular Congestion

LONDON (UPI) — Britain, with 135.8 vehicles for every mile of highway, or one vehicle every 12.8 yards, believes it has the most congested roads in the world.

Panels Seek Answers to Top Needs

Pontiac's top priority problems — city finances and the housing shortage — are being studied by two separate citizens groups, Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. said last night.

★ ★ ★

While announcing the date for the first formal meeting of the Pontiac Financial Study Committee, Taylor said a second citizens group has launched a study of its own of the city housing situation.

The latter group, made of 21 community leaders, is gathering available information from a wide variety of sources on the city's housing shortcomings and needs.

Civic, business and labor are represented on the housing study group, which is to meet Nov. 14 to consolidate the data being gathered.

★ ★ ★

Taylor said the Civic Improvement Advisory Committee requested him to ask that they be represented on the housing committee.

FINANCE STUDY

Meanwhile, Taylor said the study of city finances for both short and long-range solutions to the city's financial crisis is about to get under way.

The mayor said the first formal meeting of the 39 committee members is set for 7:30 p.m. Nov. 17.

★ ★ ★

Taylor said a letter would go out today to the members of the finance group headed by Robert R. Eldred.

The committee is being formed by Eldred of Community National Bank, Edward E. Barker of Pontiac State Bank, and James L. Howlett, a Pontiac attorney.

State Gls Killed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department announced Monday the names of two Michigan men among 57 killed in action in the Viet Nam war. They are Army Pfc. Edward P. Austin, son of Mrs. Christine Krainiak of Alpena, and Army Pfc. Larry A. Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Rice of Montrose.

OEO Asks Reconsideration on Lease

County officials in charge of the War on Poverty have asked that the city reconsider its request for a two-year lease on its downtown office space.

★ ★ ★

The city is paying the rent on the second-story office at 7 W. Lawrence for the Oakland County Office of Economic Opportunity.

There is a six-month lease that expires Jan. 1, and anti-poverty officials want the city to pick up the tab for the next two years.

In the past, city officials, especially the City Commission, have been reluctant to go for a lease beyond six months.

★ ★ ★

In fact, when the present six-month lease was approved last June, the request had been for a 2½-year lease.

Commissioners last night received the lease request for later consideration.

In other business last night, the commission received title to four lots owned by the Motor Freight Realty Co. at the northeast corner of Jessie and Elm.

The lots were deeded to the city in a deal whereby the city will demolish two dilapidated buildings and then sell the land to recover the cost of demolition. The total city cost is estimated at $700.

★ ★ ★

The commission also received an offer from the Michigan Conference of Evangelical Brethren for the purchase of part of a city-owned lot at Mount Clemens and Featherstone for $3,100. The land is to provide added parking for the church.

FURTHER STUDY

The offer was referred for further staff study.

Final approval was given last night to an ordinance to regulate Christmas tree sales lots in the city. The new ordinance sets a $3 license fee and a $25 cleanup deposit for Christmas tree dealers.

The commission, also upheld a planning commission decision to deny commercial-2 rezoning for the south side of East Walton, from Highwood east for 400 feet.

★ ★ ★

A petition for residential-4 rezoning for 29 acres on the south side of Auburn west of the Belt Line Railroad was referred to the planning commission.

Sub Due Repairs

BRISBANE, Australia (UPI) — The U.S. submarine Tiru limped back into Brisbane yesterday to undergo repairs after running aground Thursday on a coral sea reef. It took three days to pull the sub 500 miles northeast of Queensland, but the vessel was not severely damaged.

Weeks Of Back Pain Now Relieved

"After weeks of pain in my back and hips, I tried DeWitt's Pills—got wonderful relief," says Mrs. R. Gardner, Waterloo, Iowa.

DeWitt's Pills act fast with a proven analgesic to relieve pain of backache. Their mild diuretic action helps to eliminate retained bladder wastes that can cause physical distress. If pain persists, see your doctor. DeWitt's Pills often succeed where others fail—quickly relieve minor muscle aches and pains, too. Insist on the genuine DeWitt's Pills. At all drug counters.

Waterford Kettering Sets Variety Show

By JUDY FRANCIS

"This Land Is Your Land" is the title for Waterford Kettering's 1966 variety show which will be presented Thursday and Saturday evenings at 8 in the school gym.

A nominal fee is charged with students showing activity cards admitted free.

This year's show has 24 specific acts which include skits, instrumental solos, monologues, pantomimes, dancing and a battle of the bands in Rodney Reinhart's, "House A-Go-Go-Midwest U.S.A."

Steve T. Peterson will be master of ceremonies. Organ selections will be played by Terry Mosher.

The grand finale will be led off by Sue Aeschleman and Debbie Baer singing "You're a Grand Old Flag," with the whole cast joining in. Gail Strader will be the accompanist.

★ ★ ★

Production staff this year consists of Patty Looman, adviser; Bonnie Bone, student director; Mike Roberts, script writer and Ed Gallaty, stage crew chairman.

An exhibition of new books are on display in WK's lobby this week for students to browse through.

These books are the latest publications from the publisher and are sent to schools all over the United States for students to look over and decide which books they would like to see in the school library.

After students see the display, they should take one of the pamphlets and find out which books the students preferred. She can then order them from the publishing house.

Waterford Kettering was selected to display the books because librarians at the recent Michigan Education Association's meeting visited Kettering last Friday.

WK's Girls' Athletic Association is busy making plans for future activities.

A Play Day for the G.A.A. is being looked into for Nov. 12.

For Rochester

Concert on Agenda

By KARIN HEADLEE

Nov. 27 Rochester High School German students will accompany Mrs. Elfi Werzer and students from Rochester's two junior highs to an Edward Strauss Concert at Detroit's Masonic Temple in Detroit.

The Rochester Timing Association (RTA) began its new year by electing Darryl Townsend, president; Jim Bair, vice president; Gary VanHorn, secretary, and Craig Fitsch, treasurer.

This organization promotes good driving habits, provides members with a better knowledge of mechanics, and emphasizes the importance of obeying the rules of the road.

Boys who belong are working on cars of members at the official RTA three-car garage.

★ ★ ★

The Literary Club, sponsored by Mrs. Robert Stevenson, will discuss J. D. Salinger's "Seymour" Nov. 15.

Rochester High Choir members were chosen to go to Warren Cousino High School to take part in a sight reading session on Friday.

Conservation Club members under the leadership of William Leonard and Dr. Max Mallon were weeding and planting tulips in the courtyards when the snowstorm hit, delaying plans.

Officers for the class of '67 are Pete Collins, president; Chet Beaver, vice president; Sue Talley, secretary, and Kathy Holforty, treasurer.

Elected junior class officers are Sue Zink, president; Jo Collins, vice president; Debbie Moody, secretary, and Kris Wells, treasurer.

North Farmington Plays Archrival at Homecoming

By KATHY KOURTJIAN

Homecoming is always an important game and an exciting event at North Farmington High School.

This is especially true this year because the homecoming game is also the annual "Ole Yule Log Game" played with our archrival Farmington High.

The homecoming weekend begins Friday night with a bonfire in back of the school.

Cheerleaders, Raiderettes, and the NFHS band will be there to spark enthusiasm and spirit for Saturday's game.

Halftime will be the highlight of the game, when the floats parade around the football field.

"Music, Music, Music" is the theme which will dominate. Floats will be based on song titles, lines of songs, and Broadway musicals.

The "Brown Jug" will be awarded to the best float.

Then the long-awaited moment —the crowning of the queen. No one will know who she is until she is crowned by Student Council President Greg Hendee.

She will then receive the traditional bouquet of red roses.

Seniors Mary Jo Hopkins, Judy MacKey, and Kathy MacLean; Jan Fagan, junior, and Denise Milne, sophomore, will comprise the homecoming court.

The dance is Saturday in the gym from 8 to 11 p. m. with music provided by the Van-Dells.

The gym will be decorated in a "Let's Take an Old-Fashioned Walk" theme. Refreshments of cookies and punch will be served.

Mock elections were held Monday for the senior class. Voting machines were borrowed and set up by the township clerk.

The junior class rings arrived Monday in the style decided upon last year.

Homecoming festivities will begin with Friday night's bonfire.

Frequent Visitor to Russia Speaks to Student Body

By SUE OWEN

Registration for the Utica High School mock election was held recently with its mock election last Wednesday.

It was set up to give students experience in voting and choosing the candidates best suited for the office.

The election, which was organized by Kay Skeels' government classes and Robert Watterworth, social studies teacher, was as much like an actual election as possible.

Students received ballots according to the area in which they lived. Ballots were issued for Utica, Sterling and Shelby Townships to permit residents in each to vote for local officials.

★ ★ ★

No machines were available because of the actual election. However, booths and ballot boxes were on hand.

Seniors and juniors voted during their social studies classes and sophomores during their English classes.

All voters had to be registered to receive a ballot.

UHS Student Council recently invited John Sheriat to talk to the student body on his travels around the world.

★ ★ ★

Sheriat has been to Russia eight times and has given many talks there as well as in the United States.

He dealt mainly on the differences between Russian and American teen-agers.

Fencing Club officers for this year are James Longtine, president; Cynthia Bandera, vice president; Gail Howard, secretary, and Coleman Gayhart, treasurer.

Future plans include attending Michigan State Fencing Meets and possibly competing with other high schools.

★ ★ ★

The Fencing Club meets on Thursdays. Vernal Morrow is the sponsor.

Spanish Club has elected Linda Schlutow, president; Tyler Harper, vice president; Lorinda Von Thurn, secretary; James Hall, treasurer, and Melvin Hall parliamentarian.

Snow Spurs Central Ski Club Action

By CHRIS BLAKENEY

With last week's surprising snowfall the Pontiac Central Ski Club has snapped into action.

Under the 1966 officers Alice Silverthorn and Kirk Lindquist and sponsor John Zimmerlee they plan to take full advantage of the snow.

Members will pay dues and receive special rates at Pine Knob and Mount Holly. The use of these rates will not be restricted to group outings but the members will be allowed to show their special tickets at any time during the week.

A New Year's Trip is scheduled at A. A. Zimmerlee's lodge, Wolverine Sports Camp near Boyne Falls.

The skiers will have their choice of many outstanding ski resorts in the area including Boyne Mountain. At night they will take buses to the "Ponytail" a popular teen-age dance spot.

To publicize the National Education Week the Future Teachers Association is sponsoring a student election to determine PCH's wittiest teacher, toughest teacher, female pupil's pet, male pupil's pet, and teacher with personality plus.

Voting will be tomorrow in homeroom. Each winning teacher will wear a sash.

The Fall Festival, held Nov. 1, surprised its audience by presenting George H. Putnam, Director of Music for Pontiac School System, a plaque in appreciation of his 20 years of service to the musical youth of Pontiac.

The Senior Girls' Ensemble dedicated its selection to him. The Pontiac Central A Cappella choir won the ticket sales contest and will be treated to a party by Pontiac Northern's choir.

At the choir hayride, held Nov. 2, first place in the talent show was awarded to Karen Rager. She sang "Georgia" and another song she had written herself.

Club Activities in Full Swing at Clarkston High

By LINDA HEATH

As the weeks rush by at Clarkston High School, clubs and organizations begin their activities.

Journalism Club, which was organized this year by Judy Munro, will publish the school paper every two weeks.

Chosen as editor and co-editor are Carol Quertermous and Judy Weeks, respectively.

Future Teachers had its organizational meeting, under the direction of Marilyn Hanson, adviser.

Elected as officers were Cilla Wice, president; Judy Weeks, vice president; Janne Shoots, secretary, and Patty Mulcrone, treasurer.

To mark Education Week, members of FTA will distribute apples to the faculty.

Nov. 12, the Junior Varsity cheerleaders will attend a cheerleading clinic at Steven T. Mason Junior High School in Waterford Township.

They will be accompanied by their adviser, Janet Gabier, and manager, Sue Bennett.

The squad includes Nancy Bullard, Cindy Ford, Nanett Giles, Sherri Jadwin, Terry Macdougal, Salli Radoye and Karen Craft, alternate.

★ ★ ★

The cheerleaders will sponsor a dance in the cafeteria after Friday's game with Rochester.

Because the game is the last of the season, it will be observed as Dad's Night, as members of the football team honor their fathers.

Alumni Days at Adelphian

By FREDERICK RISKER JR.

Last Friday and Saturday were designated by Adelphian Academy as Alumni Days.

Upon arriving on campus, the honored guests were given the red carpet treatment.

Saturday evening, a band concert in their honor was conducted by Dan Schultz, music department head.

Highlighting the homecoming was the alumni banquet to which the seniors were invited and their acceptance into the association.

Seaholm Announces 25 Top Seniors

By HOLLY ALFS

Among the top 25 students in the Seaholm senior class, as announced by Ross Wagner, principal of Seaholm High School are Don Borin, Lynn Cartwright, Julie Chamberlain, Doug Comb, Larry Deck, Carol Eibach, and Terry Germanson.

Others are Maggie Greenhalgh, Barb Hall, Judy Henkel, Margaret Honnold, Phoebe Hunter, Pete Jepsen, Bob Kushler, Sue Lyman, and Jay McAullife

Becky McCullough, Kay McNeill, Greg Oxford, Henry Perkins, Sue Snapp, Malcomb Smuts, Mary Steere, Karen Vannett and Kathie Welch conclude the list.

Nov. 15, Josh White Jr. will be at Seaholm to put on another hour-long singing preformance.

★ ★

White entertained last year and was so well received that the students asked him to come back again.

The Seaholm Assembly Club, headed by Dorothy Allen, sells candy every day during lunch. Proceeds go toward hiring performers that the students choose.

The 1967 Washington Group under the direction of Eugene Hubbard, is making plans for this year's senior trip.

Yearbook Staff at SLHS Busy

By JAMES PAKLEDINAZ

St. Lawrence High School yearbook staff will meet Saturday at L'anse Creuse High School.

Beginning Monday, the staff will seek patron members for the yearbook.

The Student Council will meet Friday at 8:15 a.m.

The days of reckoning have arrived with report cards being handed out today and tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

A new policy will be followed this year. Parents will come to the school and pick up the report cards.

And on these same two nights there will be parent-teacher meetings.

The Student Council is studying the idea of inviting a foreign-exchange student to St. Lawrence.

The senior play is progressing on schedule, according to Sister Colombiere.

★ ★

The Junior Classical League elected Janet Blanche, president; James Pakledinaz, vice president; Kathleen Hallman, treasurer, and Christine Domagaldki, secretary.

Sacred Heart Wins Coveted Gold Cup

By MARY ELLEN QUINN

Friday, Sacred Heart's field hockey team was cheered to victory in the final game of the year.

★ ★ ★

The game, against the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Grosse Pointe, is the most important of the season.

Victors of the match earn a gold cup. Grosse Pointe has held it for the past four years.

During lunch on Friday the school observed five minutes of silence for the intention of the game.

★ ★ ★

Cheerleaders Melinda Churches, Barbara Healy, Mary Anne Bebton, Kathy Conklin and Chris Lape then presented a short skit in which they predicted victory.

Class hockey games were played two weeks ago.

The sophomore class lost to the freshmen, while the juniors and seniors tied.

The winners of the junior-senior playoff will meet the freshmen in a match to determine the school champions.

Now that hockey season is over, the new gymnasium, completed last year, will enable the school to set up an extensive indoor sports program inder the direction of Beatrice Stumpf and the Committee of Games.

Members of this committee are Cathy Hill, Nancy Huber, Christine Lelich, Susan Reck, Anni Slavsky, Anne Oldani and Carole Sehn.

Beatle Split-Up Reports Fueled

LONDON (AP) — Amid reports that the Beatles may be breaking up, a spokesman for the mop-topped singing group said today they have no plans to appear together in the near future.

* * *

Brian Epstein, the quartet's manager, last week turned down an invitation for them to appear in a special television program for the benefit of residents of the Welsh village of Aberfan, where more than 140 persons were killed last month.

* * *

In the past year, they have struck out more and more on their own.

John Lennon, 26, has been making a movie in Spain and Germany for which his hair was cropped.

LEGIONNAIRESS — Patricia A. Smith, a 22-year-old WAC, is sworn in as a member of Post 342 of the American Legion in Flint yesterday. She became the first woman member of the organization in Michigan. A veteran of Viet Nam, she is home on a 30-day leave. Giving the oath is Harold Jones.

Resignation Hinted in Wake of Riots

India Police Reorganization Said Near

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Indira Gandhi was today reported preparing to name Defense Minister Y. B. Chavan, who reorganized the Indian army after its defeat by Red China in 1962, to do a similar job on India's beleaguered police forces.

* * *

A source close to Mrs. Gandhi said Home Minister Gulzari Lal Nanda, whose ministry controls the police and investigative agencies, had offered his resignation in the wake of New Delhi's rioting Monday, worst in nearly two decades.

Mrs. Gandhi was reported to have summoned Chavan from Bombay. Informed sources said he might be given the Home Ministry while Mrs. Gandhi takes over the defense portfolio.

* * *

Nanda, India's acting prime minister after the deaths of both Jawaharlal Nehru and Lal Bahadur Shastri, was blamed for failing to prevent the bloody rampage in the capital Monday. Seven persons were killed and 500 were injured as thousands of Hindus demanding a national ban on the slaughtering of cows roamed the streets in an orgy of arson, destruction and looting.

250 CARS BURNED

City officials estimated the damage at more than $1 million, including the burning of 250 cars, 100 motor scooters and six municipal buses.

* * *

With mob violence growing increasingly more frequent over the country, the executive committee of the ruling Congress party's parliamentary body took the government to task and censured Nanda. One of the party's most influential politicians, Atulya Ghosh, urged a major Cabinet reshuffle.

* * *

Railway Minister S. K. Patil reportedly said the entire Cabinet should resign if the government is unable to stem the spreading disorder.

* * *

Armed soldiers and police patrolled New Delhi streets today after the government lifted an overnight curfew but schools and markets remained closed. Public gatherings by five or more persons were prohibited for 14 days.

TWO BIGWIGS

Police arrested 100 persons in a night-long roundup, including Swami Rameshwaranand, a member of Parliament and of the right-wing Hindu Jan Sangh party which sponsored the march on Parliament Monday.

* * *

Hungry India has 250 million cows, one for every two persons, but their slaughter is banned in much of the country because the cow is sacred to orthodox Hindus. Hindu extremists are demanding a total ban and threaten that one of their number will burn himself to death before the presidential palace Nov. 20 unless the ban is on the statute books by then.

Exam for Draft Is Taken by Lynda's Beau

MUNICH, Germany (AP) — Actor George Hamilton worked on a movie until 4:30 a.m. today, then 3½ hours later went to the U.S. Army area command headquarters for predraft medical examinations.

Hamilton, a frequent escort of Lynda Bird Johnson, left patients at the local Army hospital agog as he walked into a private examination room wearing a sandy yellow suit.

LITTLE TO SAY

"Wish me luck," he told newsmen but made no other comment.

Military police drove him to the hospital in a staff car after he took a mental examination at the command headquarters.

* * *

The 27-year-old movie star has been in Munich since Oct. 10 filming "Jack of Diamonds," a German-American production.

Hamilton's romance with the President's older daughter has caused much criticism of his deferment from active service on the ground that his mother is dependent on him. Last month his New York draft board ordered him to take a physical "to get all the information possible into his record." A spokesman said at the time that even if Hamilton were found physically fit, he would not necessarily be drafted.

'Lois' Causes Little Concern

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurling 80-mile-an-hour winds around a lonely stretch of the Atlantic Ocean, Hurricane Lois churned toward the east northeast today.

She headed away from land and caused weather-watchers little concern.

* * *

No land area was threatened and forecasters said she likely would die in cold water before striking any.

At 5 a.m. Lois was about 1,250 miles northeast of San Juan, P.R., and 2,000 miles east of Miami

TWELFTH STORM

Lois, the 12th big storm of the season, became a hurricane Monday when winds reached 70 miles an hour. The storm began Sunday.

Lois thrashed through the Atlantic at 20 miles an hour, with gales and rough seas roaring out 100 miles from the storm's center.

* * *

"I doubt if North America will feel the storm but the Azores might," said forecaster Raymond Kraft of the U.S. Weather Bureau.

Gladstone Grant

GLADSTONE (AP) — The Office of Economic Development has announced a grant of $78,000 to Gladstone for building an industrial park. The grant is contingent on the city's supplying a similar amount for the 30-acre development.

Safety Contab for Teens Set at Northern

A teen-age Safety Conference sponsored by the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce will be held Saturday from 8:30 p.m. to noon at Pontiac Northern High School.

* * *

Several hundred Pontiac and Waterford Township students are expected to attend.

The program will include an address by Dr. Robert Nolan of the Michigan State Highway Traffic Safety Center, and a film entitled "Safety First."

Also featured will be four discussion groups on different aspects of teen-age driving.

The Traffic Safety Committee of the C. of C. led by Dean Wilson, driver education coordinator of Pontiac Schools, is organizing the program.

* * *

Wilson appointed Marty McReynolds, head of customer relations at Pontiac Retail Store, to coordinate the program.

Why a family on a budget can afford a KitchenAid dishwasher.

A KitchenAid really gives you your money's worth. It's built better to work better and last years longer. You can put your dishes in without hand-rinsing, and they'll come out really clean and dry. It'll hold a whole day's dishes easily. And KitchenAid has a fine service record. Ask any KitchenAid owner.

Come in soon and select your KitchenAid dishwasher. They come in many models and styles.

Don't be switched from the best...

KitchenAid.

HOMELESS HOUNDS — These three mournful-looking basset hound puppies are even sadder than most of their species. They're homeless. But the purebred pups probably won't stay that way long. They will be offered for sale at Chicago's Michael Reese Hospital tomorrow as part of a benefit drive.

Hot California Race Clouded by Weather

LOS ANGELES (AP) — One of California's hottest gubernatorial elections reached the voting booths today with weather adding an unpredictable factor to the battle between Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown and Republican Ronald Reagan.

Mostly fair weather was forecast for much of the state but in populous Southern California, the greatest November rainfall in Los Angeles history caused widespread damage and inconvenience Monday. Particularly hard hit was Los Angeles county, home of 37 per cent of the state's 8.34 million voters.

Forecasters said there was a 50-50 chance of more rain showers for Los Angeles.

That prompted Registrar of Voters Benjamin S. Hite to predict the county vote could be cut by 5 per cent. The secretary of state's office said rain would reduce the vote only 1 or 2 per cent statewide.

Unconcerned about whether the storm dampened voters' spirits, Brown and Reagan intended to be among the first in line at their polling places.

The governor headed for the San Francisco precinct in which he cast his ballots in his successful gubernatorial races against former Sen. William F. Knowland in 1958 and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon in 1962.

* * *

Reagan, an actor in his first political race, announced he would vote near his Pacific Palisades home in the Los Angeles area.

A Reagan victory would push him to an important position in the national Republican party, possibly with a say in picking the 1968 GOP presidential nominee.

DAY BEFORE PRIMARY

"Rain is Republican," said Reagan. "It rained the day before the primary and we had a landslide."

Nevertheless, his supporters assembled more than 5,000 plastic raincoats to give to voters.

* * *

"Rain or shine, we've got to get out the vote," said Brown.

Voters also decided on five other statewide offices, four posts on the tax-levying State Board of Equalization, 17 statewide ballot propositions, five State Supreme Court justices and all 120 members of the reapportioned legislature. Polls will be open from 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. EST.

TRAILS BY 2

The governor was trailing by two points in the latest public opinion poll, 44 to 42 per cent. But it showed 14 per cent undecided and Brown said the uncommitted would swing the election.

* * *

A sometime foe, Democratic Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh of Inglewood, offered last-minute help, comparing the election to "death and funerals. The closer a man gets to something so final as electing Ronald Reagan or dying, the more honest he gets."

Bellwether Districts

Here Are Vote Analysis Tips

WASHINGTON (AP) — Political analysts studying election returns tonight will be looking for trends, the rise and fall of potential presidential nominees and the effect of such widely discussed subjects as the white backlash and the Viet Nam war.

* * *

Here are some areas to watch:

Trends — Six bellwether House districts have reflected changes in congressional party lines over the past decade. The six are the Connecticut 4th, Pennsylvania 19th, Iowa 4th, Indiana 9th, Wisconsin 1st and Ohio 10th. They are among 44 House districts, currently represented by first-term Democrats, which were held by Republicans before 1964. Practically all of the 44 Democrats are solid supporters of the Johnson administration.

CONGRESS CONTROL

Congressional control — Democrats are assured of retaining Senate control and are expected to keep House control, but with a smaller majority than their current ratio of 295 to 140. A switch of just 25 House seats from pro-Johnson Democrats to anti-Johnson Republicans would have meant the defeat of such key Johnson domestic measures as Medicare, open housing, rent supplements and demonstration cities. Thus, even fewer GOP gains than the off-year average of 40 could mean Johnson might have to settle for a less ambitious domestic program over the next two years and might threaten funding for such approved programs as rent supplements and demonstration cities.

* * *

Effect on parties — Results might give a big boost to several Republicans prominently mentioned as presidential possibilities for 1968, including Govs. George Romney of Michigan and James A. Rhodes of Ohio, gubernatorial nominee Ronald Reagan in California and senatorial candidate Charles H. Percy in Illinois. Big GOP congressional gains might help Richard M. Nixon, the party's chief campaigner.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's national prestige may be affected by whether Democrat Karl F. Rolvaag is reelected governor of Minnesota. Sen. Robert F. Kennedy could receive a boost if fellow Democrat Frank D. O'Connor defeats Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in New York.

HUSBAND'S CHANCES

A big victory for Mrs. George C. Wallace as Alabama governor would increase the prospect that her husband will make a third-party presidential bid in 1968, as would victories by such anti-Johnson Democratic gubernatorial candidates as Jim Johnson in Arkansas and Lester C. Maddox in Georgia.

A recent survey showed that about 79 per cent of America's public school teachers are married.

McNamara Critical of Jeering Protesters

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara criticized the behavior of antiwar demonstrators Monday when they jeered him at Harvard University.

McNamara, leaving a Harvard residence hall after speaking to 50 students of the John Fitzgerald Kennedy Institute of Politics, was greeted by a crowd of 400 assembled on the steps of the Quincy House. Most of them carried placards and shouted slogans in support of the Johnson administration's policies in Viet Nam.

* * *

Others in the crowd were from a local student organization opposed to the war. They booed and jeered.

McNamara told the crowd he had spent some of the "happiest years" of his life at Harvard when he attended the Harvard Business School during World War II as an Army officer. He was drowned out by screams and boos.

VISIBLY ANGRY

Visibly angry, he said, "I might add that I was a lot tougher and a lot more courteous than you."

A short while later he declared: "I was tougher than you and I am tougher now."

Several hecklers kept shouting questions at him. Addressing them, he said, "Why don't you come up here and answer the questions. You've got all the answers."

* * *

McNamara was at Harvard Sunday and Monday to hold informal discussions with the Kennedy school students. The seminars were closed to newsmen.

The world population is expected to soar to 7.5 billion by the year 2000.

"Haste makes waste" is an adage that might well have been meant to apply to bridge. We don't recommend slow play but we know that careful planning at the start of play will actually speed up your game since you won't have to waste time later on trying to recover from early carelessness.

JACOBY

South's first thought was to lead a trump at trick two. He could draw trumps with two leads, concede a spade trick and eventually throw two spades on dummy's ace and king of diamonds and ruff the last remaining spade.

Then he noted that West might hold all three trumps and that he could guard against this by leading out ace and another spade. He did it and when both opponents followed to the second spade South was able to ruff two spades in dummy and set up his last spade. He never tried to get a discard on a diamond. He didn't need one because he had made his own hand good.

If South had played just one trump he would not have been able to make his contract. If he tried to establish two spade ruffs West would gain the lead with his king of spades and lead a second trump.

It is interesting to note that if West had opened a trump South should still make the hand. He would go after spades. A second trump lead by West would hold South to one spade to ruff but he would run off all his trumps and wind up with a diamond-spade squeeze against East.

He Certainly May Keep This Liquor

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: In our community it is the custom for the bridegroom to supply the liquor at his wedding reception. A bottle is put on each table and the guests help themselves.

Does the bridegroom keep the liquor that is left over, is it left for the club or hotel where the reception is held, or do the guests at each table decide which one of them will take it home?—J. Harris.

Dear Mr. Harris: The bridegroom definitely keeps the leftover liquor. He should ask one of the ushers to take charge of collecting the bottles from the table when the guests leave, and see that they are taken to his house.

POOR TASTE

Dear Mrs. Post: Don't you agree with me that to sit back and say, "I'm full," or worse yet, "I'm stuffed," after a big meal is disgusting?

I was always taught that this was in very poor taste, but I hear many people, including my husband, say it.—Mrs. Jones.

Dear Mrs. Jones: It is in very poor taste. It is most unnecessary to discuss your condition after a meal.

If you must say something, "That was delicious," or "What a wonderful meal!" will do nicely.

FLOWERS

Dear Mrs. Post: I know that it is correct to send flowers to a woman in a hospital, but is it right for a woman to send flowers to a man?—Louise K.

Dear Louise: Absolutely. It is purely an expression of sympathy and should not be construed as more or less. If he has a home of his own, a plant is more appropriate than cut flowers.

Her Knitting Isn't a Hobby, It's Screen for Bashfulness

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have a best friend I'll call "Agatha," who has come in for a lot of criticism behind her back because she takes her knitting everywhere she goes.

People say Agatha is very rude because she sits in company, knitting away without even picking her head up or saying a word.

What they don't know is that Agatha knits all the time so that she won't have to look people in the eye or say anything. You see, she is terribly shy, Abby, and self-conscious.

Please print this so Agatha's friends will understand why she knits all the time, and maybe they will be more understanding and quit criticizing her.

AGATHA'S FRIEND

Dear Friend: If you really want to help Agatha, tell her to leave her knitting home and to make an effort to contribute something to the conversation. She needs desperately to build her self-confidence.

If Agatha continues to use her knitting needles for "crutches," she'll become even more socially handicapped.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Someone gave me what is supposed to be a thorobred German police dog. I have the papers on him, but the older this dog gets the more he looks like a mutt. How about this? WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: Don't be deceived by his looks. Maybe he's in the secret service.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am a recent divorcee with an unusual problem. My husband's parents are the most wonderful people I have ever known. I couldn't love my own parents more than I love "moms" and "pops," which is what I've always called my in-laws.

Pops paid for my lawyers when I divorced their no-good son, who must have been a throw-back to the apes, but I won't go into that. I am welcome to visit their ranch any time I wish.

As an ex-daughter-in-law, what should I call them? And how do I introduce these grand, generous people who were once my in-laws? STUMPED

DEAR STUMPED: Continue to call them "moms" and "pops" if you wish. And introduce them by their names. And if, and when, further indentification seems necessary, they are your "former in-laws."

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: A reader asked, "How does a mother part with her child when an institution for the incurably handicapped is the only answer?" Your reply, "She prays for the wisdom and strength to put aside all thoughts of herself and to consider only what is best for the child." Abby, you will never know the amount of good your one-sentence reply may accomplish.

I have six children and one of them is retarded. I couldn't bear the thought of "institutionalizing" him, although his unruly behavior became more and more a problem. Finally I reached the point where I had to face the facts. It became a matter of what was best for the majority, so off he went to a state training school.

My prayers, work in the church and caring for the needs of my family saved me from a nervous breakdown. This was three years ago.

Today my son is happier than he has ever been. He comes home for visits and can hardly wait to get back to school. I only wish for his sake I had made that decision years before.

The Lord never places a heavier burden on us that we can carry. Sincerely,

SAW THE LIGHT

Hospital Ball Is Scheduled

The fifth annual Hospital Charity Ball sponsored by the Rochester Junior Woman's Club will take place Nov. 26 at the Hillcrest Country Club in Mt. Clemens.

Mrs. Lloyd Lake Jr. and Mrs. Thomas Madden are cochairmen of the event which begins at 9:30 p.m.

Proceeds will benefit the Rochester Suburban Unit of Crittenton General Hospital, now under construction.

★ ★ ★

In past years, the club has donated $10,000 to the fund.

Working on committees are Mesdames: William Keinath; James Reynolds; Stuart Meyer; Kenneth Hock and Donald Friebe.

Tickets may be purchased from Mrs. Keinath, other club members, Lake Jewelers and Welch's Gift Shop, both in Rochester.

OU Art Gallery Opens Season on Wednesday

The opening of Oakland University's first art exhibition of the year is set for Wednesday. The new art gallery is located in Matilda R. Wilson Hall, according to John B. Cameron, acting chairman of the department.

An opening tea, to which the public is invited, is scheduled for 3 p.m. The artists will be present.

Featuring a variety of works, including oil and water color paintings, drawings, prints, sculpture, collages, and photography, the exhibit will be shown through Dec. 2.

Gallery hours throughout the exhibition will be 12:30 - 4:30 p.m., Tuesday through Friday, and from 2-5 p.m. on Sundays.

Sheila Bird Is Honored

A luncheon and linen shower Saturday in the Forest Lake Country Club honored Sheila Hamilton Bird, who will marry Norman Oscar Norgren, Saturday, in the Birmingham Unitarian Church.

Hostesses were Mrs. William Bond, Bloomfield Hills, Mrs. Edward Klapproth, Roland Drive and Mrs. Elmer Bailey, Kernway Drive.

★ ★ ★

The honoree is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reilly Bird of Snowshoe Circle.

Her fiance's parents, the Walter Norgrens of Higgins Lake, formerly of Pontiac, will give the rehearsal dinner, Friday, in The Pagoda, Clawson.

The wedding reception will be in Orchard Lake Country Club.

Workshop, Luncheon for WNFGA Groups

Preparations for the Christmas Fair on Dec. 8 will highlight the Nov. 14 meeting of Birmingham branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association in the Birmingham Community House.

Preceding the 12:30 p.m. tea luncheon will be a workshop in the craft room beginning at 9:30 a.m. for members interested in making articles for the fair.

Mrs. H. E. Stavers, will bring to the group 25 years' experience which includes work at the Women's City Club, Detroit, the Charles Warren shows, and horticultural therapy at Wayne County General Hospital and the Livonia Convalescent Home.

She will show table, door and mantel decorations.

Mrs. James Butler, Mrs. Richard Kaltz and Mrs. Ralph Reed will serve as hostesses. Workshop items will decorate the tea table.

Brookside branch WNFGA will attend a Nov. 17 workshop in the Barrington Road home of Mrs. F. Milton Hathaway.

Articles to be sold at a scholarship fair early in 1967 will be made at this, and subsequent home workshops. The scholarship is presented to a woman student at Michigan State University each year.

Mrs. Eugene Nielens of South Pemberton Road was hostess for the November meeting with Mrs. Edward Sammut and Mrs. Hathaway assisting.

Mrs. Charles Galloway, charter member, was among those pouring at the recent International Tea for WNFGA in Flint.

Two Brookside members along with two from the Pontiac branch visit Pontiac State Hospital patients each Tuesday. They take flowers and encourage the patients to make corsages.

Sky's the Limit

NEW YORK (UPI) — The world of Elizabeth Rich revolves around jet planes and jewelry fantasies.

★ ★ ★

One of her full-time jobs is as stewardess on transatlantic jet flights. The other is helping with the design and distribution of a new line of costume jewelry.

The others in the triumvirate are Edward Dunn, 24, and Calvin Townsend, 21.

Their jewelry business had its beginnings when Miss Rich, a native of South Portland, Maine, and a graduate of Barnard College, was working at the Institute of International Education screening applicants for Fulbright scholarships.

There she met Dunn, who had studied at San Francisco State College and then bounced around the country acting or doing costume and set designs.

Townsend, a native of Tatum, N.M., and graduate of Arizona State University, was Dunn's roommate. He had come to New York to study piano.

ALTERNATIVES

The three often talked about other directions their creative talents might take, and the answer seemed to be in jewelry.

Miss Rich had made a hit at a party for Skitch Henderson with her exaggerated eardrops made from crystal chandelier parts she had spotted in a neighborhood shop.

The three incorporated as Maison De Fou, French for crazy house on July 8, the day the major airlines were struck.

★ ★ ★

"We started with a capital of about $20," she recalled in an interview at the brownstone where the firm is located.

"Now, we'd know better."

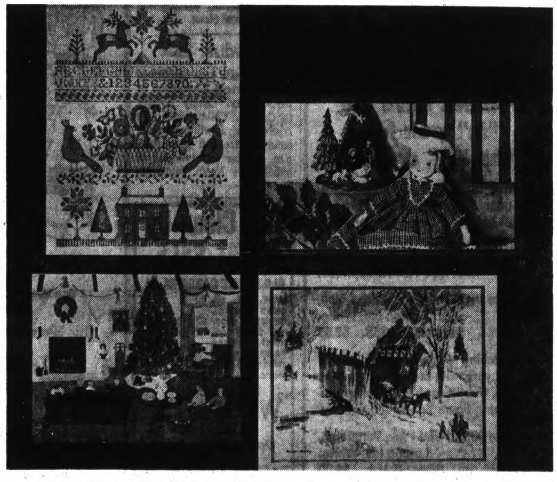
Mrs. H. W. Reeves of Sylvan Lake was hostess at the dessert luncheon.



Sentiment is still in style for Christmas cards. The sampler type card at the upper left is by Arnold Varga. An illustrator of children's books, Telka Ackley Beal, portrays a gingham doll made years ago by her mother. Artist Ralph Avery was inspired by an actual wooden bridge in Vermont in his pastel study of sleighing home the Christmas tree. And Grover Chapman paints the interior of his 200-year-old farmhouse in upstate New York. This is the 32nd annual collection of holiday art by the American Artists Group.

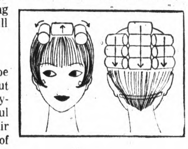
Hairdo How-To: 20

Don't Forget to Brush

By DOROTHEA ZACK HANLE
Editor, HairDo Magazine



Here are more common hairdo problems with hints on how to handle them.

★ ★ ★

Dry hair: Mousy and dull, lusterless with broken ends, often frizzy and flyaway — that's dry hair. Brushing, again, is necessary to stimulate the flow of natural oil along the hair strands and to the ends. A special-for-dry-hair shampoo and, after washings, special conditioning rinses or hair-dressings, will help.

FINE HAIR

If it is not thin, fine can be the loveliest kind of hair. But in order for it not to be fly-away hair, it will need careful cutting. A short, simple hair style is best for this type of hair — with a special taper cut in leaves and layers to create the illusion of more hair or thicker hair.

★ ★ ★

If hair is oily as well as fine, then frequent (almost every day) shampoos will be necessary to keep hair from looking and feeling limp.

★ ★ ★

Crescent quiches, deep bangs, and a crested crown mark this easy-do bob by Ila of New York. Just a few jumbo rollers set the crown and the rest of the hair is combed in place with heavy setting gel and taped at nape and sides. Brush out straight down, lifting crown.

★ ★ ★

Tension — nervousness and anxiety—can rob hair of its natural beauty and keep it from looking its best. Hair itself does not contain nerves, but a network of nerves surrounds the openings or follicles from which hair grows.

When you are tense, these nerves contract, cut off the supply of blood nourishing the hair roots. In addition, during periods of tension, the glands which help to make your hair glossy with proper amount of natural oil become overactive.

★ ★ ★

Muscles near the hair roots contract involuntarily when you experience stress or fright. No circulation, contracting muscles, too much oil—all spell disaster for your hair. You know how often your hair acts up when your menstrual period is due, or during the period itself—just a reaction to tension.

★ ★ ★

The same thing can happen to your hair when you have a cold or feel out of sorts. You see the results in hair that won't stay groomed, falls limply, lacks luster, elasticity, and body. You can overcome some of the effects of tension by giving your hair extra care during these periods: get that blood circulating again by brushing your hair more. Hold your head down and brush evenly, steadily for a full 10 minutes.

MASSAGE

Try massaging your scalp with the balls of your fingertips or your knuckles (never your nails), loosening the tightness of the muscles of your scalp. Anything that helps to relieve the pressure you're under—a good night's sleep, for one—will help bring the sparkle back to your hair.

Some oil is essential to healthy hair. Too much makes pretty hairdoing difficult. You'll know you've excessive oil if hair separates and looks and feels dirty and greasy the day after you've had your hair done. Check with your doctor if oiliness is way past normal. He may tell you your diet is at fault.

★ ★ ★

If both your hair and skin are exceedingly oily, you'll avoid fatty foods, stick to plenty of protein, leafy vegetables, fruit and milk. Frequent shampoos—formulated for oily hair—are a must. You may need daily shampoos, not only to clean the hair of oil, but to free it from the extra dust and dirt that oil attracts. Between shampoos a strict program of faithful brushing to regulate and distribute the oil will help.

★ ★ ★

For days between shampoos, when hair is specially oily, rub the hair with a clean terry towel. The towel will remove some of the extra oil and dirt, leaving hair more manageable.

Pregnancy and hair: The life and luster of your hair may suffer during pregnancy and for a while after delivery —anywhere from one to several months. The hair may seem droopy, fall out at a greater than normal rate, be difficult to manage.

★ ★ ★

This is a temporary situation which does not effect all mothers-to-be, and if it does occur, the best treatment is simply good, sensible care—brushing, shampooing properly and regularly, using special conditioners to help restore luster and sheen. The problem will clear up naturally in time.

Janet Sapelak Repeats Recent Marriage Vows

Vows were exchanged by Janet Aleatha Sapelak of Lansing, and Thomas Marshall Amos Jr. of East Lansing, Saturday, in the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church.

The Stephen W. Sapelaks of Wesbrook Avenue and the senior Mr. and Mrs. Amos of Roanoke, Va. are parents of the couple who will reside in Lansing.

White peau de soie with re-embroidered Alencon lace fashioned the bride's gown and cathedral train.

CARNATIONS

Miniature white carnations, repeated in her bouquet of white orchids, held her illusion veil.

Mrs. Carole Roberts was her sister's honor matron with attendants Karen Blahut, Arcadia; Colleen Navarre, Highland, and Norma Webb, East Lansing.

Best man was John B. Sartain of Dallas, Texas with the ushers Richard Amos of Roanoke, Paul Eastman, Dearborn; and William D. Sapelak.

★ ★ ★

The couple received guests in American Legion Hall on Churchill Road.

She will resume graduate studies at Michigan State University where her husband is a candidate for his doctorate.

R. L. Caswells Reside in City After Vows

At home on North Paddock Street after recent vows and reception in the Drayton Plains United Presbyterian Church are the Robert Lynn Caswells (Margaret Lillian Van Horn).

The Marvin Van Horns of Pickering Street and the Richard Caswells of Meigs Drive are parents of the couple.

Linda Schemelman of Utica was honor attendant for the bride who wore chapel-length white lace over taffeta. Her bridesmaid was Pamela Alexander.

Second Debut for Mother

Now Mother can smooth out her facial lines right at home—thanks to a new non-surgical simulated face-lift called 2ND DEBUT. It contains skin-smoothing CEF-600 (CEF-1200 for the face over 40). 2nd Debut is a moisturizing skin lotion that smooths out facial lines . . . helps return eyes, mouth, chin and neck to firm, more youthful tone and softness. The process is simple: it's based upon resupplying the skin with the natural ingredient through which the inner cells obtain and retain much-needed water moisture. This ingredient is called CEF . . . Cellular Expansion Factor. 2nd Debut is a non-surgical face lift that gives Mother a more youthful look fast. Get it at your drug or department store today.

Leaving Singapore Sunday on an Italian liner were Rev. and Mrs. Ronald J. Largent with their children, David, Beth, Grace and Bruce. He has been a missionary in Sumatra for some four years.

From Italy, the Largents will go by train to France then on to England and a homeward flight to New York on Dec. 5. Christmas will be spent with his parents, the Ronald C. Largents of West Cornell Avenue.

Follow Steam With Some Suds

If you are using one of the popular home steam cabinets to shape up, remember to follow up with a sudsy soak in the bathtub.

The steamy session loosens dead skin cells, releases dirt that clogs. It takes a soapy scrub to flush away all this waste material, leaving the skin clear and clean.

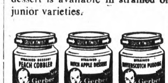
Bringing Up Baby.

Hints Collected by Mrs. Dan Gerber, Mother of Five

LATEST BABY BULLETIN

Serving a variety of foods to your baby is one of the best ways I know to make an appetite rise to every occasion. Variety is desirable for other reasons. It teaches baby the delights of different flavors. It lays the foundation for future good eating habits. Most important, variety gives baby a wider assortment of the many nutrients he (or she) needs.

What's new? I know you mothers like to hear about new products. Here are the latest delectables in the Gerber Dessert division. Each dessert is available in strained or junior varieties.



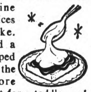
New! Peach Cobbler! Flavor-catch of the year! Juicy, ripe peaches are deftly blended with other ingredients for a "happy ending" if there ever was one. Vitamin-C enriched.

New! Dutch Apple Dessert! Applesaucy-good as all get out. Brightened with a sprinkling of cinnamon, smoothed with the tender touch of butter. (Vitamin C added, too.) Seconds anyone?

New! Butterscotch Pudding! A bonus in bliss for your lively little man or miss. Mellow, butterscotchy, dreamy smooth. Made with nourishing whole milk solids and eggs.

P.S. Don't forget those "old-time", all-time favorites: Gerber Strained and Junior Vanilla, Chocolate, and Cherry-Vanilla Puddings. Also on this tempting dessert roster: Strained Orange and Junior Banana Puddings, plus a delightful Fruit Dessert.

Easy-as-a-breeze Treat



Last minute, unexpected-company dessert: any of the Gerber Puddings make fine toppings on slices of pound cake. You can add a dollop of whipped cream to make the dish even more partyish. Try it for a toddler-and-whole-family treat. Gerber® Baby Products, Box 33, Fremont, Mich.

Case No. A569

Verbalize Your Love

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE, Ph. D., M.D.

CASE A-569: Frank T., aged 31, is the quiet husband who was in danger of losing his wife.

"Dr. Crane," he began, "Laverne says I don't tell her I love her.

DR. CRANE

"She grumbles about having to force me to say it.

"But if I didn't love her, would I come home to her every night?

"And would I give her my pay check every week?"

MYOPIC MEN

Millions of husbands are as myopic (shortsighted) as Frank.

They think their wives (and children) should be able to read a man's mind.

But women want words!

Especially sugary, complimentary phrases.

And the usual child is much more starved for a daily compliment from his parents, than for vitamins and orange juice!

Parents, wake up!

Delinquency and unwed pregnancies occur much more often in children where parents don't verbalize their love for each other, or for the youngsters.

Thus, these children aren't reassured daily that "pappa loves mamma."

And they soon develop the idea that they, too, are unloved and unwanted.

That's one reason why high school girls become so hungry for a word of praise or a kiss, that they lose their judgment and then must drop out before commencements as unwed-mothers.

Actually, the tongue-tied, taciturn parents are often as much to blame as the feuding dad and mother who make the home a cat-and-dog environment.

You don't always need to verbalize your affection, for a pat on the head or merely dropping your arm around your wife's or child's shoulders will serve as "sign language" to deliver your message.

But it is also smarter to verbalize your love in spoken words, every day!

Don't omit the pat or kiss or hug, but add spoken praise to it.

America is now too well fed in the realm of stomach calories.

But the heart hunger of Americans, even in cultured families, is shocking.

Far too many suburban families become "Worry Warts" about the medical condition of their youngsters, but forget the emotional and religious cravings of those children.

Heart hunger is the most common medical deprivation of children.

And I use that word "medical" advisedly, for such children become neurotics, hypochondriacs, delinquents dropouts, and other deviates from the happy way of life.

Much of our delinquency occurs among the children of the better class homes!

You may boast about membership in swanky Country Clubs and of your two cars and golf scores, yet your children may be emotionally so anemic and unhappy that he may even contemplate an overdose of sleeping tablets.

So by all means show your affection! Verbalize your love!

And also let your children see and thus vividly realize that "daddy loves mamma" and vice versa.

Quit fretting unduly about shots for polio and other ailments.

For far more children are stunted or even die because of love starvation!

So send for my 200-point "Tests for Good Parents," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents, and analyze yourself.

Give your mate and the children a daily spoken compliment!

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Have You Tried This?

Popovers Are a Treat

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Mrs. James Campoli is an efficient business woman and an active member of several organizations. She is also an accomplished cook.

Today she shares her favorite recipe for popovers. She says that many homemakers have never tried to make this interesting kind of hot bread which is really simple.

POPOVERS
By Mrs. James Campoli

2 eggs
1 cup milk
1 cup sifted flour
1 tablespoon salad oil
¼ teaspoon salt

Beat eggs until light. Sift flour and salt together. Add alternately with milk to beaten eggs, a small amount at a time.

Add salad oil and beat well, making sure there are no lumps. Batter will be quite soft.

Pour into oiled muffin cups. Bake for 30 minutes at 425 degrees. Reduce temperature to 350 degrees and bake another 15 minutes. Serve hot with plenty of butter. Makes 8 popovers.

Astronauts Checking Gemini 12 Flight Plan

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — America's Gemini series reaches the end of the road Wednesday when the Gemini 12 astronauts blast off on a four-day mission which may determine man's physical limitations in space.

Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Maj. Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. spent today reviewing their flight plan and talking with Gemini officials as launch crews prepared for the double lift-off.

★ ★ ★

An Atlas is to thunder skyward at 2:16 p.m. (EST) to boost an Agena satellite into orbit as a rendezvous target. A Titan 2 is to hurl the astronauts into space at 3:55 p.m.

The afternoon launchings were determined by three factors: lighting conditions required for the rendezvous; to avoid high radiation when Aldrin pokes his head outside the spacecraft at an altitude of 460 miles, and to place the astronauts in position Saturday to photograph a total eclipse of the sun over South America.

'WE'RE READY'

"Men and machinery are ready," a spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported.

The flight will close out the highly successful program which has tested all the techniques that American astronauts will use on Apollo man-to-the-moon flights. The first earth orbital flight of a three-man Apollo ship is scheduled early next year.

Highlights of the Gemini 12 mission will be a third orbit rendezvous and linkup with the Agena, practicing many maneuvers that Apollo astronauts must make during their return trip from the moon, three work sessions outside the spacecraft by Aldrin, and photography of the eclipse and of a sodium cloud to be released high above the earth by a French rocket launched from Algeria.

The extravehicular activity by Aldrin will be the most important goal of the flight. The 36-year-old former Korean combat pilot is to spend nearly five hours performing tasks outside during a space walk and two stand-up exercises in which he'll extend the upper half of his body into space.

SIMPLE TASKS

While performing simple tasks and pacing himself with frequent rests, Aldrin will attempt to determine what problems face a man trying to work in a vacuum in a pressurized space suit.

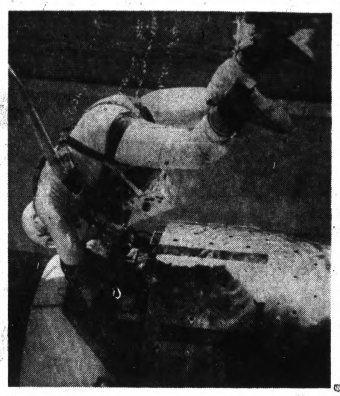
America's last three space walkers all had trouble during their excursions, primarily because of difficulty maintaining position in the weightless world. Two of the walks were cut short when the astronauts became fatigued doing simple tasks. The third was halted early because of a shortage of spacecraft fuel.

★ ★ ★

To help Aldrin move about outside, handrails, waist tethers and foot restraints have been placed along the Gemini craft and on the Agena.

Two "work benches" have been built on the Agena and at the rear of the spacecraft where Aldrin is to make electrical connections, mate rings and hooks, and loosen and tighten bolts.

The flight is to end Sunday afternoon with a splash-down in the Atlantic Ocean.



AP Wirephoto

UNDERWATER TRAINING — Astronaut Edwin Aldrin, pilot for the Gemini 12 manned space flight scheduled for tomorrow, is shown as he practices extravehicular duties during underwater zero-gravity exercises. He is working on the docking collar of the Agena target docking vehicle mockup using hand-holes to secure himself. Command pilot for the flight is astronaut James A. Lovell.

Up to Industry—Nader

'Safe at 50' Car Said Feasible

WASHINGTON (AP) — Auto safety crusader Ralph Nader says the auto industry could market for general use within six years a car that would protect passengers from serious injury in crashes at speeds up to 50 miles an hour.

"Such a car could eliminate 70 per cent of all traffic deaths even without eliminating a single accident," said the 32-year-old author whose criticism helped spur an auto safety bill through Congress this year. Auto industry sources in Michigan declined to comment on his statement.

★ ★ ★

Nader said general production of such a car would depend on the public—how demanding it is of the auto industry and the government. The new law requires the Commerce Department to draft safety standards for cars beginning with 1968 models.

"Personally, I think it will be a struggle to meet this goal—to have such a safety design included in 1973 models," Nader said.

'BACKED AWAY'

He said the industry again backed away from adding significant safety features as standard equipment to its 1967 mod cars.

"The industry, in effect, is catching up with obligations it should have met 30 years ago," he replied when asked about such newly standardized safety features as rear seat belts, energy absorbing steering columns, dual braking systems and recessed instrument controls.

★ ★ ★

"Virtually every one of those features was economically and technically feasible 30 years ago," he said.

Nader described as "absurd" the share of the 1967 model price hikes that the industry attributed to standardizing certain safety features.

'NEVER PROVEN'

"What does a safer door latch cost?" he asked. "The auto industry has yet to show why the reduction of glare from chrome or hood paint, for instance, requires an increase in costs."

★ ★ ★

Nader said the industry should have provided its 1967 models with antiskid brakes similar to those used on airplanes since the 1930s. He said there was no reason such brakes could not have been installed in cars 10 years ago.

Hoffa Settles 5 Tax Claims

DETROIT (AP) — Teamsters President James R. Hoffa has settled in U.S. Tax Court five civil income tax claims totaling more than $100,000.

Under terms of the settlement reached Monday before Federal Tax Court Judge Allen H. Pierce of Washington, Hoffa is to pay $24,371.62 in back taxes for the years 1952 and 1956-60.

★ ★ ★

A sixth claim of $44,566 for 1961 was postponed because the Internal Revenue Service expects to file further tax claims against Hoffa, an IRS lawyer said.

An IRS spokesman said the government contended that union-paid insurance, legal fees, hotel expenses and transportation were part of Hoffa's personal income.

Hoffa, he said, contended that they represented necessary expenses as a union official.

The U.S. Labor Department reported last year that Hoffa had spent $570,396 in Teamster funds for legal fees from 1962 to 1965.

The union president has been involved in several court cases in recent years, and an appeal of an eight-year sentence for jury tampering is pending before the U.S. Supreme Court.

S. C. Kids Act as 'Governor'

SPARTANBURG, S.C. (AP) — Deborah League says that if she were elected governor of South Carolina, she would "have no litterbugs or rioting and no high food prices so none of us would complain."

Deborah and other fourth and fifth grade pupils at Spartanburg's Jesse Boyd Elementary School wrote short themes on "If I Were Governor", on the eve of today's elections.

★ ★ ★

Many of the children said they would work to help Negroes. Almost all said teen-agers should not drive. One positively would pass a law to 'higher children's allowances."

Fifth grader Scott Caruth said he would "call all the people to the state house and tell them a new rule: No one may drink beer or any other kind of drink like that, or tell them no one must make moonshine."

LOWER PRICES

Sally Nan Barber would help make South Carolina beautiful and lower food prices while making sure farmers still make a good living.

Susan Ellenburg also said she would lower food prices — three cents.

Aphasia is the loss of memory.

GROWING OU CAMPUS—Opening with just two buildings in 1959, the Oakland University campus has expanded to 18 structures, 13 of which are shown in this recent aerial photo. It depicts the northwest corner of the 1,600-acre campus. A $46-million construction program is planned to keep up with the university's enrollment increases over the next five years. In the middle of the complex shown is Oakland Center. Vandenberg Hall, with its twin student residence towers joined by a dining area, is at the top of the photo. Moving clockwise, the other buildings are Hill House, Van Wagoner Hall, Fitzgerald House, Anibal House, Pryale House, the Sports and Recreation Building, Kresge Library, Science Building, South Foundation Hall, North Foundation Hall and Matilda R. Wilson Hall.

Minor Blaze Strikes U.S. Transport Ship

HONOLULU (AP) — The Navy transport ship Kula Gulf caught fire at its Ford Island berth at Pearl Harbor Monday night, but damage was not believed serious and there were no reports of injury.

A Navy spokesman said cause of fire has not been determined.

The Kula Gulf was built in 1945 and is operated by the Military Sea Transport Service.

Nixon Calls GOP Tide 'Strongest in 20 Years'

ANDERSON, Ind. (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, winding up a 35-state campaign swing for Republican candidates in today's elections, said the "strongest tide in 20 years" will bring GOP victories for governor in California, Georgia and Arkansas and for U. S. senator in Illinois and Tennessee.

Nixon, ending a two-month campaign that reached into 65 congressional districts, told a rally of 2,500 persons Monday that Republican Charles H. Percy would win over democratic Sen. Paul H. Douglas in the Illinois senatorial race by a margin of 750,000 votes.

★ ★ ★

He said there would be the "biggest brown-out in history" in California, a reference to the race for governor between Democratic incumbent Edmund G. Brown and Republican Ronald Reagan.

Republicans will elect governors for the first time in 100 years in Georgia and Arkansas and the first GOP U. S. senator in history will be elected in Tennessee, Nixon predicted.

GUBERNATORIAL RACES

The Georgia gubernatorial race pits Republican Howard H. (Bo) Callaway against segregationist Democrat Lester G. Maddox. In Arkansas, Republican Winthrop Rockefeller faces segregationist Democrat Jim Johnson. Rockefeller is the brother of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, who is seeking a third term in New York.

In the Tennessee senatorial race, Republican Howard H. Baker Jr., son-in-law of Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen, is up against Democratic Gov. Frank G. Clement.

Nixon continued his sharp criticism of the Johnson administration, saying the President erred in referring to the 89th Congress as "my Congress," because "Congress does not belong to any president, Democrat or Republican — it belongs to the people."

He said Americans should turn from Johnson to Congress for leadership, filling it with "men who will stand up for the people when the President is wrong."

★ ★ ★

On the war issue, Nixon said the Johnson administration should use more air and sea power in Viet Nam because "We're fighting the kind of war the Communists want us to fight, on the ground."

NEW TRIAL—Fred R. Black Jr., convicted of federal income tax evasion, was granted a new trial in Washington yesterday. Black, a public relations man, was an associate of Bobby Baker and former secretary to Senate Democrats. His conviction was overturned by the Supreme Court on the basis that his hotel suite had been bugged by FBI agents.

Suit by Dems on State Poll Is Dismissed

DETROIT (AP) — A suit by Zolton Ferency supporters to ban publication of a Detroit News political poll was dismissed Monday by Circuit Judge Harry J. Dingeman Jr.

★ ★ ★

The poll, by Market-Research Opinion Co., was published Sunday. It gave GOP Gov. George Romney a 61-36 percentage edge over Ferency in today's gubernatorial election with 3 per cent undecided.

Ferency supporters charged that the poll was false and misleading and that Romney, the pollster and the News had conspired to publish it to give the impression "that Romney cannot lose the election."

Gunmen Rob Food Fair Exec

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Three well-dressed young gunmen broke into the home of a national grocery chain executive Monday night and took jewels and cash totaling about $100,000.

The robbery occurred at the waterfront home of Henry Kramer, president of the Southern division of the Food Fair grocery chain.

Police said Kramer and his wife, Mariam, had just returned from visiting his wife's mother, when a young man posing as a florist's deliveryman appeared at the door.

Mrs. Kramer, who answered the door, said two men joined the fake deliveryman. All three drew guns and forced their way into the one-story home.

Kramer, in his early 50s, was undressing when he heard his wife's screams, police said. He ran to the door and was grappling with one of the bandits when he was struck from behind.

"One put a gun to my head and told me he would kill my wife and me if I tried anything else," officers quoted Kramer as saying.

Kramer received a small gash on his hand. His wife was unhurt as were his three grandchildren who were asleep in a back bedroom. His daughter, Mrs. Charles S. Hirsch, was taking a shower and wasn't aware of the holdup.

Both Sides Cry 'Unfair' in State Race

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — Supporters of U.S. Rep. Paul Todd, D-Mich., and his opponent State Sen. Garry Brown, R-Schoolcraft, indicated Monday night they each would file unfair campaign practices charges against the other, even though election day has arrived.

Stanley Everett, Calhoun County Republican chairman charged Democratic workers had been directing residents of Battle Creek and Pennfield townships to distant polling places when the residents indicated over the telephone that they would not vote for Todd.

Phil Power, Todd's administrative assistant said that Everett's charges were "an incredible distortion of the facts" and a "smear."

Powers said that on Friday, telephone workers at Democratic headquarters had confused part of the voter list for Battle Creek Township Precinct 4 for that of Battle Creek City Precinct 4.

30 MISINFORMED

Power said that as a result, about 30 people were incorrectly informed of their nearest polling place.

He said that the 30 included Democrats, Republicans and independents alike and not only supporters of Brown.

An effort to recall all of those incorrectly informed was made and the Battle Creek Township clerk was informed of the mistake, Power said.

TWO COLORS

The Underachievers—8

Bad Attitude on All Sides Can Discourage Scholarship

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the eighth in a 12-part series on the severe problem in today's schools — The underachiever — by Dr. Leslie J. Nason.)

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D
University of Southern California

Pity the reluctant underachiever.

His parents know that he is not even trying to work up to capacity — and so do his teachers. He is out of favor with all of them!

DR. NASON

The counselor is no comfort to him; he says that tests show the student has plenty of ability that he is not using. But the student feels he IS working up to capacity and there is no use trying to do the impossible.

He neither knows better methods of study nor how to use to better advantage what he does know.

In this situation counseling that is hurried, casual or trivial is of no help to the student. It only adds to his discouragement.

It's no wonder that students often become reluctant even to hear still more suggestions for the improvement of their scholarship.

Before a student will listen to any plan he must, somehow, be made to realize that it is, indeed, an approach that he has not heard before. Let me illustrate with an actual case.

NEGATIVE RESPONSE

Jim was an underachieving high school junior out of favor with his teacher and his parents.

* * *

His parents had tried encouragement and, at times, restrictions in their attempts to inspire Jim to better scholarship. Jim's response was negative. His parents were at their wits end. At this point I was asked to help.

As Jim and his father came up the walk for their first appointment, Jim lagged several steps behind. I heard his father say, "We are fortunate to get this appointment; Dr. Nason is a busy man and since it is costing me money you'd better listen to him!"

I didn't catch Jim's reply but he had a sullen, stubborn look on his face. They entered my office and chose seats on opposite sides of the room.

* * *

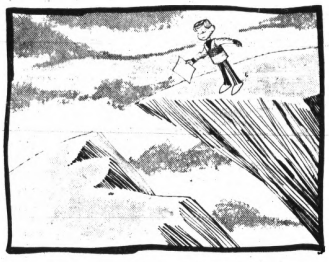
Reports from school which his father handed me stated that Jim was making no effort. I realized that before any progress could be made Jim must be convinced not only that he could succeed in school but that the conflict at home could also be eliminated.

REVIEW CASES

I started the conversation by reviewing case histories of high school students who had been in similar situations, and how, with well-planned study and test-taking procedures, they had solved their problems.

I suggested to the father that from this point on Jim and I would be responsible for his success or failure in school. Since he and Jim's mother would not now be concerned with his frustration in school, home could again be a happy place for all concerned.

The parents were to remove any restrictions that may have been imposed because of Jim's low grades in school. Mr. K. gave his immediate approval and left Jim and me together to lay plans for our part of the program.



Jim was just getting started in trigonometry, and a test was to be given in three days. We set up a study plan for the mastery of the essentials of the subject.

I explained that trigonometry, being an invention, the basic ideas must be learned so well that their recall takes no effort. They cannot be "reasoned out" at examination time.

FIXED IDEAS

To help fix these ideas in his mind, he was to work one or two problems of each type, starting at the beginning of the textbook. He was to practice writing all of the steps of each solution since this would give him time-advantage on the examination. It is faster to write all the steps than to try to do some of them in his head.)

Just before the test he was to make a last minute review of his list of problems.

Jim was to think, "What is the key in the way this question is asked that tells me how the problem is to be solved?" On entering the test he was to put his full attention on the first problem, deciding what kind of a problem it was then write out the solution neatly and completely.

He was to work rapidly enough to keep his mind completely centered on each problem in turn.

Having completed the test he would go back and give his full attention to a search for errors in arithmetic.

* * *

On his next visit Jim reported a better than usual score on the math test. He was now ready and willing to continue the planning that would lead to his becoming a good all 'round student.

His reluctance had disappeared.

AT THE DOCTOR'S COMMAND
A quarter-century ago, the average doctor saw about 21 people a day. He spent a lot of time with each patient, but there was little he could do except hope that nature would cure the ailment. Today, the doctor sees about 26 people a day. He spends less time with each patient — but he does a lot more than he was able to do 25 years ago. Junior Editors Quiz on GRAVITY

QUESTION: Which falls faster, an iron ball or a feather?

* * *

ANSWER: We know that gravity pulls objects toward the earth's center. For that reason, we might conclude that the heavier ball would fall faster, because there was more gravity pull on it.

Furthermore, in (1), John has released a coin and a sheet of paper at the same time and the heavier coin is falling faster. Ancient thinkers thus believed that heavier objects fell faster because they were heavier.

But this idea was challenged by the Italian astronomer Galileo, who reasoned that the resistance of the air was what made objects fall at different speeds.

In (2), John has bunched up the same paper into a tight ball; now it is falling almost as fast as the coin, because there is less air resistance than before.

When, in 1650, a pump was invented to draw the air out of a tube, it was found that in such a vacuum a ball or a feather or any other object would fall at the same speed.

To sum up: in the air, the iron ball would fall faster than the feather, but in a vacuum, the two would fall side by side.

* * *

FOR YOU TO DO: Find a bit of flat metal and cut a piece of cardboard the same size; drop them together. The metal falls faster because air resistance works the most on objects which are light for their size.

Game at Wisner Sunday Afternoon

Pontiac Arrows Back Home With Title to Face MFL All-Stars

After an absence of four weeks, with as many victories under their belts, the Pontiac Arrows return home this weekend, champions of the Midwest Football League and hosts to the MFL All-Stars Sunday at Wisner Stadium.

* * *

The Arrows, in their last home appearance October 8, came back from a 20-0 deficit to defeat the Dayton Colts, 26-20 in a last minute thriller, when Tommy Myers, now with the Lions hit for a 25-yard touchdown to Jim Johnson.

Since then, the Arrows have whipped Ypsilanti, 13-6; Lansing, 30-13, Dayton, 24-13 and River Rouge, 38-0, to finish 9-0-1 for the season.

* * *

Sunday's game will be the toughest test for the Arrows when they face the best players the MFL has to offer with game time at 1:15 p.m.

The All-Stars will have the leading quarterback in the MFL, Pete Mikolajewski calling their signals.

"Pistol Pete" Miko has impressed the Lions enough this year to be invited into training camp after Sunday's game as the No. 3 reserve quarterback behind Karl Sweetan and Myers, a former pair of Arrows.

* * *

Miko and his top crew of receivers, Chuck McElligott, Keith Smith and Dick Miller made the Dayton Colts the No. 1 offensive team in the MFL this year. All three receivers are on the All-Star squad.

DEFENSIVE STRENGTH

Ypsilanti and Flint will provide the defensive strength for the All-Star team with their huge linemen and linebackers.

* * *

All-League defensive linemen are Mike Cunningham, Denny Spencer, Gordy Jensen all 260 pounders from Ypsi, along with Len Christman, Jerry Leahy and Leroy McFadden, the big Flint trio.

Lansing contributes the No. 2 quarterback in Randy Powers and the leading pass receiver in Jim Stewart, a shifty flankerback.

* * *

Last year, the Arrows guided by Sweetan edged out the All-Stars, 7-6, in a hard played game, which saw Pontiac saved on a last minute fumble while the All-Stars were threatening to pull it out.

In two seasons in Pontiac, the Arrows have not been beaten at home. Last year they lost two games on the road and this year their lone tie was a 6-6 deadlock at Flint.

Flint is probably the most improved team in the league, having won five straight to close the season, after only a tie in the first five games.

Former Birmingham Seaholm and Detroit Lion grid star Tom Tracy is the head coach of the All-Stars with Bob Suci, another ex-pro from the AFL as his assistant along with Ed McCracken of Dayton.

Ron Bishop, former Shrine and U. of D. quarterback who took over when Myers was recalled by the Lions, will call Pontiac's signals to start.

Tony Odneal, another player from the Arrows who will go into the training camp of the Lions next summer, will join Jim Johnson in the backfield Sunday.

MFL Commissioner John Abel will be on hand Sunday to present the MFL Championship trophy to the Arrows and the awards to the All-League players.

* * *

The Most Valuable Players for the Arrows this season, offensively and defensively, will also be made known at the game.

Tickets for the game have been placed on sale at Osmun's, Griff's Grill, Bob-Ken's and the VFW Post No. 1370.

Neighborhood Pride at Stake in Prep Contest

Hills' Crew Bidding for 9th Straight Win

Clarkston Team Will Battle Milford Squad Tomorrow at 7 P. M.

Pride is enough to touch off a heated football battle and that's about all that'll be at stake in the high school games on the mid-week schedule.

Kayoed by the weatherman with his four inches of snow last week, Bloomfield Hills will visit West Bloomfield this evening at 7 o'clock in search of its ninth victory in a row.

Emmanuel Christian's final game with Warren Mott has been called off leaving the Pontiac team with a 0-5 mark.

Tomorrow, Clarkston will journey to Milford for a 7 p.m. contest and a share of second place in the Wayne-Oakland League will be riding on that game.

* * *

Bloomfield Hills has already sewed up its second straight Wayne-Oakland championship, so coach Bill Tunnicliff and the Barons will just be trying to remain No. 1 in their neighborhood in the short trip to West Bloomfield.

EVEN IN LOOP

Coach Art Paddy and the West Bloomfield Lakers are 3-3 in league play and 3-4 for the season, but they're not to be taken lightly.

* * *

Clarkston is 4-2 in league competition and 5-2 over-all, and the Wolves, with a victory, could tie Clarenceville for second place in the loop race.

It's the final game of the season for Milford (3-4), while Clarkston is still uncertain of its game with Rochester. The Clarkston-Rochester tilt was slated for Nov. 11, but called off because of the schedule problems last week and officials have not rescheduled the game.

The Wolves were not highly regarded in pre-season estimates, but the team has jelled in recent games and goes into tomorrow's encounter with a three-game winning streak.

* * *

After winning two of its first three, the Wolves stumbled and dropped a 12-6 decision at Holly, but since then, they have been impressive in winning three straight.

SCORING PUNCH

The Wolves found their offensive punch three weeks ago in pounding Brighton, 45-14, and they came back the following week with a 45-20 verdict over West Bloomfield.

Senior quarterback Dan Fife (6-2, 180) directs the Wolves attack, and the fleet signal-caller has scored five touchdowns himself.

* * *

Leading the Wolves' scoring attack is end Tom Allen, a 5-10, 165-pounder, who has caught six touchdown passes and added a pair of extra points for 38 markers. Halfback Mark Erickson has raced across the goal line six times.

A problem for the Wolves' defense will be Milford's Bob McFarland, a junior 145-pound halfback, who has eight touchdowns to his credit this season.

PULLING UPSETS — Brazil's tennis stars Jose Adison Mandarino (top) and Thomas Koch display the form that carried them to upset victories over two U.S. players yesterday in Porto Alegre, Brazil. Mandarino knocked off top-ranked Dennis Ralston, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4, 6-1, in the final match, while Koch defeated Cliff Richey of Texas, 6-1, 7-5, 6-1, as Brazil edged the U.S. team, 3-2, in the final matches of the Davis Cup inter-zone play.

U.S. Davis Cup Hope Shattered by Brazil

PORTO ALEGRE, Brazil (AP) — America's hopes for regaining the Davis Cup this year are ended, shattered by a stocky 25-year-old Brazilian tennis star who beat top-ranked Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., in a showdown match Monday.

Fans carried Jose Adison Mandarino around the court on their shoulders after his five-set victory over Ralston had climaxed a great comeback and given Brazil a 3-2 victory over the United States in the Inter-Zone Davis Cup semifinal.

* * *

It was Mandarino who defeated 19-year-old Cliff Richey of Dallas in the opening singles match, giving Brazil a glimmer of hope against the highly-favored American team.

But Ralston brought the Americans even when he whipped Thomas Koch and then teamed with Arthur Ashe of Richmond, Va., in Sunday's doubles victory.

That gave the Americans a 2-1 lead and put Brazil in a deep hole. A victory by either Richey or Ralston in Monday's final two singles matches would have clinched the semifinal series for the United States.

BOUNCED BACK

But Koch, who had been destroyed by Ralston in the opening singles, suddenly bounced back against Richey and whipped the tense teen ager in straight sets, 6-1, 7-5, 6-1.

The loss was the second for Richey, who was picked by U.S. Captain George MacCall over the more experienced and higher-ranked Ashe to share the singles matches with Ralston.

That left it squarely up to Ralston and Mandarino. The Brazilian ace, who had rescued his team with similar last-day heroics against Spain earlier this year, came through handsomely.

* * *

He stroked calmly and beat the taller Ralston regularly in volleys. Mandarino's beautifully placed shots kept Ralston from developing his habitual net game and eventually wore the American down.

Ralston won the first and third sets 6-4, 6-4 but dropped the second, 4-6. He seemed to tire in the ofurth set, losing it 4-6 and finally dropped the fifth set, 1-6.

Net Setback Costly for U.S. Tennis Group

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Lightning has struck the U. S. Davis Cup team for the second time in two years," Sydney Sun writer Ernie Christensen wrote today about America's tennis defeat by Brazil in the Inter-Zone semifinals.

The two countries that play in the Challenge Round share the profits so it is apparent the USLTA will lose plenty by not being there — $50,000 on the estimate of Bill Edwards, president of the Lawn Tennis Association of Australia.

"We sold the United States TV rights for $35,000 he said. "The way tennis is going in the States now we could have got an even higher figure this year."

Hills Rider Takes Cup

'Crys' Wins Feature

WASHINGTON (AP) — Trick Track, a clever jumper recently graduated from the green ranks, won the featured President Cup open jumping event Monday night as the Washington International Horse Show headed into its final session.

The chestnut horse was ridden by Crystine Jones, 19, of Bloomfield Hills, the youngest member of the U. S. Equestrian team, who left the junior ranks last year after winning the Horsemanship Championship at Madison Square Garden.

* * *

Frank Chapot, 34, of Wallpack, N. J., the heavy favorite to win the big silver trophy, failed to break into the winner's circle with any of his three qualified mounts — Good Twist, Manon and San Lucas, winner of the event in 1965.

Chapot hoped to win the feature with Good Twist, an unusually talented gray stallion, but the horse bobbled at a fence and Chapot fell, landing on his feet.

In spite of losing with his best bet, Chapot still was able to pile up 19 points toward the championship in the international riders division.

Miss Jones and Carol Hofmann of North Branch, N. J., another U. S. Equestrian team rider, each had 12 points toward the title.

The show will conclude tonight with an international jumping class and championships awarded in each division.

Tackle Loses Latest Round in High Court

DALLAS (AP) — Ralph Neely's playing days for the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League were dwindling today.

The giant offensive tackle's request that the U.S. Supreme Court reconsider its refusal to review a lower court ruling to against him was denied in Washington Monday.

* * *

Apparently his last chance to avoid going to the Houston Oilers of the American Football League, for whom he has said he would not play, rested with a state court here.

Dist. Judge Owen Giles has set a hearing Thursday on a Dallas club request for an injunction against Neely. The suit would prevent Neely from playing with any club except Dallas, whereas the Houston action, in federal court at Oklahoma City, would bar him from competing with any team except the Oilers.

* * *

Neely signed a contract late in 1964 to play with Houston and in January of 1965 he signed one with Dallas. He has played with Dallas ever since. He has contended the Houston contract was not enforceable.

Ullman Pacing Scorers

NEW YORK (AP) — It's been a rough week for Bobby Hull and Stan Mikita, Chicago's 1-2 punch in the National Hockey League.

Hull, the NHL scoring king last season, was blanked in two games last week while Mikita, the 1964-65 champion, lost his individual point lead to Norm Ullman of Detroit.

Ullman picked up a goal and two assists in three starts, boosting his early-season point total to 14. Mikita scored one goal and dropped into second place with 12 points.

Hull, with seven points in all, slipped behind his younger brother, Dennis, and into a six-way tie for 10th place.

The dinner is scheduled for 5:30 p.m., after Sunday's game, and with only two tables available to the public, only those making reservation by phone before noon Saturday will have dinner spaces reserved.

Cost of the dinner is $2.00 and reservations can be made by calling FE 5-4201.

Irish, MSU's Spartans Continue 1-2 in Grid Poll

By the Associated Press

The latest election day in the Associated Press' major-college football poll still finds Notre Dame holding a relatively small lead over Michigan State while Alabama is an onrushing third.

Alabama, the national titleholder in 1964 and 1965, was among five teams to gain ground in the latest poll based on games through last Saturday.

The Tide replaced UCLA in the No. 3 spot while Nebraska advanced to fourth, Arkansas to sixth, Southern California to seventh and Georgia to ninth.

The Bulldogs, 27-10 victors over Florida, replaced the Gators in the first 10. UCLA tumbled to eighth while Georgia Tech held fifth place and Tennessee 10th.

Their opponents this Saturday do not appear capable of posing a real threat to either among the top three teams. Notre Dame, 7-0, takes on Duke, 4-4. Michigan State, 8-0, faces Indiana, which has won one and tied one of eight games. Alabama, 7-0, plays South Carolina, 1-7.

COLLECT VOTES

Notre Dame and Michigan State face each other on the Spartans' field on Nov. 19.

The Irish collected 32 first-place votes to the Spartans' 10 in the most recent balloting by a national panel of 43 sports writers and broadcasters. However, on a basis of 10 points for a first-place vote, 9 for second etc., Notre Dame leads by a mere 25 points, 418 to 393.

Notre Dame trounced Pittsburgh 40-0 and Michigan State overwhelmed Iowa 56-7 last Saturday.

Alabama accumulated 333 points after blanking Louisiana State 21-0. Nebraska, Arkansas and Southern California each advanced two places.

The Top Ten, with first place votes in parentheses, season records and total points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1. Notre Dame (32)	7-0	418
2. Michigan State (10)	8-0	393
3. Alabama	7-0	333
4. Nebraska	8-0	271
5. Georgia Tech	8-0	230
6. Arkansas (1)	7-1	188
7. Southern Cal	7-1	144
8. UCLA	7-1	142
9. Georgia	7-1	71
10. Tennessee	5-2	68

Others receiving votes, listed alphabetically: Colorado, Florida, Houston, Purdue, Southern Methodist, Syracuse, Washington Wyoming.

Falcons to Start Rookie QB Sunday

ATLANTA (AP) — The Atlanta Falcons have announced that rookie quarterback Randy Johnson will be at the helm Sunday against the invading Baltimore Colts.

The team also revealed that two players were placed on waivers Monday and that offensive halfback Rudy Johnson formerly with San Francisco, has decided to retire.

One addition to the waiver list was rookie tackle Jerry Jones, Atlanta's fourth draft choice.

Charlie Scales, offensive halfback acquired this fall after he was dropped by the Cleveland Browns, also was placed on waivers.

In Favorite's Position

LUREL, Md. (AP) — Assagai, a 3-year-old American colt, has been established as a slight favorite to win the $150,000 Washington, D.C. International at Lurel Race Course Friday.

Substitute FB Pleases Duffy

EAST LANSING (AP)—Coach Duffy Daugherty of Michigan State has said he has no adequate substitutes for some positions, but MSU's one major injury this season revealed one top-notch backup man.

The major injury, of course, was to fullback Bob Apisa, MSU's leading ground gainer until Clint Jones ran wild in the Spartans' 56-7 victory over Iowa.

* * *

Apisa's substitute, sophomore Regis Cavender, ran 12 times for 92 yards against Iowa and Daugherty declared, "we're thankful to have someone like him to play."

Daugherty, who cringes at the word "injury," had an especially anxious moment when Cavender limped off the field late in the game. It turned out, though, Cavender merely had a cramp.

"I can remember years when coaches would say, "things are rough—the fourth string fullback isn't coming along as well as we had hoped,' " Daugherty told a news conference Monday.

MOVED OVER

Now he has just two fullbacks, Apisa and Cavender, and first string halfback Dwight Lee went in at the position after Cavender came out.

"I thought Cavender conducted himself in fine fashion," Daugherty said.

"He showed good speed, good blocks and good runs," he added.

But, said the MSU coach, "as good as Cavender is, there is no way we can be as good without Apisa as with him."

Apisa sprained his right knee Oct. 22 and banged it again Oct. 29. He worked with weights last week, but didn't run in practice, Daugherty said.

Dr. James Feurig, team physician, said Monday Apisa now is running.

"We'll have to play it by ear and see how fast he responds," Dr. Feurig said, adding there is a good possibility Apisa can make the 40-man traveling squad for the Indiana game, but not much chance he will start.

Indiana, the Big Ten's seventh place squad, has only a 1-6-1 record, 1-3-1 in the conference, and has lost two straight games.

But, said Daugherty, the hoosiers have been stopping themselves.

"They've got the ability to move the ball," he said. "And they're not a bad defensive team. They really come at you hard."

Daugherty added: "Indiana is one of the more dangerous teams we play, as we found out last year"—when Indiana went into the fourth quarter with a 13-10 lead over MSU.

The Spartans came back with a 43-yard scoring pass from Steve Juday to Gene Washington, a 27-yard field goal by Dick Kenney and a four-yard touchdown pass to Washington, rescuing the game 27-13.

Two Regulars Ready to Play for Michigan

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan coach Bump Elliott was cheered Monday by news that two of his injured regulars would be ready to play against Northwestern Saturday.

Elliott, putting his team through a light workout, said tight end Clayton Wilhite and defensive tackle Ken Wright may see action against the Wildcats.

* * *

Wilhite suffered a dislocated left shoulder against California Sept. 24. Wright was sidelined early in the season when he injured his left knee in a practice session.

Elliott said fullback Dave Fisher, who saw limited service in a 28-21 loss to Illinois last week, appeared to be fully recovered from a shoulder injury. Fisher, the Big Ten's leading ground gainer, carried only two times against the Illini and was thrown for three yards in losses.

GRID STAR AT WORK — Georgia tackle George Patton (76), shown here reaching across Florida blocking back Graham McKeel (43) to grab the arm of tailback Larry Smith (51), was named Associated Press Lineman of the Week for his play in the game. Patton led the defensive unit in the 27-10 upset of the previously undefeated Florida squad. In back of Smith is quarterback Steve Spurrier, who was kept off balance most of the game by Patton's rushes.

'It's Easy to Get Man With Ball'

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (AP) — "It's pretty easy to get the man with the ball," says Coach Pie Vann, whose Southern Mississippi football team seems well on its way to becoming the nation's No. 1 team in total defense again this year.

"Defense is a more natural part of a man," he said. "He doesn't have to be told he wants that man carrying the football."

After seven games, the Generals have given up only 115.6 yards per game and five touchdowns.

The other two years Vann's players led the nation in defense — 1963 and 1965 — they gave up 131.2 and 161 yards per game, respectively.

The Generals have a 4-3 record against major college foes this season.

Vann revealed some of his defensive philosophy that has aided his teams in compiling a record of 127 wins, 45 losses and two ties during his 17 years as head coach.

NEED PERSONNEL

"The secret of good defense most often is the result of good scouting reports, proper adjustment to meet the type of offense expected from the other team, and good personnel," he said.

Vann admits he has been fooled before. "You have to prepare for anything, but the basic thing is to gear your preparations to the scouting report," he said.

Vann said that in his 17 years as head coach he has stressed the fundamentals of the game — running, blocking, tackling and good physical condition.

* * *

"Hitting is the name of the game," he said. "You can't win unless you hit, and you sure can't hit if you're tired. Most ball games are lost when the basic fundamentals are not properly executed."

Vann was hesitant to single out any players as standouts, explaining the defense's success had been due to a team effort.

"However, I have to say I feel we have one of the finest linebackers in the nation in senior Ken Avery. He is the signal caller for the defensive line and has been one of the true leaders on th field."

Avery, from Miami, Fla., was the No. 1 future draft choice of the American Football League's Boston Patriots last year.

Southern travels to Norfolk, Va., this weekend to meet North Carolina State in the Oyster Bowl.

Leaders Triumph, Remain Atop State Football Poll

By The Associated Press

A fall snowstorm and the ending of some seasons cut into the Michigan high school football slate last weekend, but the leaders in the three classes held their positions in The Associated Press poll.

Battle Creek Central came from behind to beat Kalamazoo Central 34-17 and remained atop Class A. Class B leader Buchanan smashed Cassopolis 36-0 to hold onto its No. 1 spot.

Middleville, top team in Class C-D, ran over Nashville Maple Valley 20-0 and stayed first in the AP poll of sportswriters, and sportscasters across the state.

* * *

Class A saw a major upset when Ann Arbor, No. 5, lost to Lansing Everett 13-6 and fell from the Top Ten. No. 10 Flint Southwestern lost to Flint Northwestern and dropped from the Top Ten.

Next week's poll will be the final one of the year and will decide the mythical state champions in the three classes.

Bowl Committee Sends Out Scouts

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Orange Bowl Committee will have scouts watching five schools this weekend, undefeated Alabama, Nebraska and Georgia Tech and once-beaten Florida and Georgia.

"This is the most games we have covered this season," stated Orange Bowl President John Ring, "but we have a lot of irons in the fire to watch."

Ring indicated that the Orange Bowl would offer its bids on Nov. 21, the first date authorized by the NCAA, although both Nebraska and Georgia Tech face tough traditional rivals in their final games.

Oakland's Daniels in Statistics

NEW YORK (AP) — Clem Daniels, Oakland's man of many talents, has joined Matt Snell of the New York Jets as the only players in the American Football League among the top 10 in both rushing and pass receiving.

Daniels, who got off to a slow start this season, has picked up the pace in the last two games — he has scored three touchdowns in each — and is fourth in rushing and tied for 10th in pass receiving.

Daniels has gained 430 yards on the ground in 122 carries and added 466 receiving on 30 receptions and should beat Snell to the 1,000-yard mark.

Seymour Has Talented Reach

BERKLEY (AP) — Jim Seymour, Notre Dame's talented sophomore end, has been reaching for things ever since his fingers were long enough to hold on.

"We were always finding him on top of the refrigerator or someplace," recalls his mother, Mrs. Bart Seymour.

★ ★ ★

The Seymours, including four other sons and a daughter, live in a comfortable home in this Detroit suburb, a healthy punt from nearby Shrine High School in Royal Oak.

Seymour, a 6-foot-4, 190-pounder, has combined with sophomore quarterback Terry Hanratty to become one of the most exciting fighting Irish passing combinations in Notre Dame history.

Seymour has been sidelined since he suffered a sprained ankle in No. 1 ranked Notre Dame's 38-0 victory over Oklahoma Oct. 22.

Up to that point, he had caught 34 passes for 675 yards and five touchdowns. He had more yardage in his first college start than former Irish end Leon Hart did in a single season when he won the Heisman Trophy as the outstanding college football player of 1949.

But back home in Berkley, Jim is just a boy who strums a guitar, bakes cookies and plays with the neighborhood children.

"One of my brothers once told me he didn't think any of our boys would make very good football players because they were too gentle," says Mrs. Seymour.

Besides Jim, brother John, 23, now a missle officer at Fort Lewis, Wash., played first string halfback for Army for three years. Rick, 22, was a 6-foot-5 former Shrine High football and basketball star and now is working on a degree in mathematics at the University of Detroit.

PLAYS END

Paul, 16, already as big as Jim, plays end for Shrine's current football team. Mark, 12, plays football at Shrine elementary school. Some say he may be the best of the bunch.

Even Jim's sister, Mary Jane, an 18-year-old senior at Shrine, plays girl's basketball.

"They must be a lot different on the football field than they are around the house," said Mrs. Seymour. "Jimmy's so easy-going that when the little ones in the neighborhood get to making a mess out on our front lawn, I can't even trust him to shoo them away.

"When I send him out to quiet them down, he gets right in and plays with them."

Mrs. Seymour described her middle son as an average student who works hard.

"He was an active boy even as a baby," she recalled. "Always stretching and reaching for things. His left arm is scarred from where he once pulled a pan of boiling water off the stove."

★ ★ ★

The reaching comes in handy when Hanratty lofts a pass downfield to the rangy end, who often outjumps defensive backs to grab the ball.

Mrs. Seymour explained about the guitar and cookies.

GOOD ROLE

"We bought him a guitar one Christmas and he taught himself to play it," she said. "He even sang a role in the senior class presentation of the Music Man. Not the lead — not Harold Hill — but a pretty good role."

The cookies are a product of dull afternoons, she said.

"Jimmy would just get out the flour and eggs and things and mix up a batch of cookies," Mrs. Seymour said. "Really, he's quite a talented boy. And he's not embarrassed. He even likes to cook his own breakfast."

Big 10 Gridders Nursing Injuries

CHICAGO (AP) — Midwest Football Briefs:

Purdue — Senior linebacker Pat Conley has a shoulder separation and will miss the Minnesota game. Battling for the spot are sophomores Dick Marvel and Clanton King and junior Gary Kennedy.

Illinois — Defensive guard Al Waters is expected to play against Wisconsin after missing two games. Split end John Wright and fullback Carson Brooks, both believed to have suffered serious injuries, should be ready to go full speed Saturday.

★ ★ ★

Indiana — Nagging minor injuries forced the Hoosiers to curtail contact work. Coach Johnny Pont, however, said everyone should be ready for Michigan State this week.

Northwestern — For the first time in four games the Wildcats did not lose a starter because of injuries. Northwestern will be in its best physical condition in a month for the Michigan game.

Wisconsin — Four defensive regulars will miss the Illinois game because of injuries. Safetyman Bob Grossman and guard Don Bliss are out for the season while tackle Ed Hoffman and end Warren Dyer will be absent for at least a week.

★ ★ ★

Iowa — The Hawkeyes suffered more than humiliation in their 56-7 loss to Michigan State. Iowa is battered and bruised with minor injuries and all three linebackers are hobbled.

Minnesota — The Gophers, suffering no serious injuries against Northwestern, opened workouts for Purdue outdoors and then were forced inside because of darkness. The Gophers have been improving rapidly.

Harrier Meet Favors Pair

Iowa, Minnesota Hold Unbeaten Marks

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Unbeaten Iowa and Minnesota, matching blends of balance, stamina and speed, rank as co-favorites Saturday in the 52nd annual Big Ten cross - country championships.

Eleven of the top 15 finishers in the individual standings for the 1965 meet will return this year. But the frontrunner may be an Iowa ace who limped home 31st last time.

★ ★ ★

Larry Wieczorek, a Maywood, Ill., junior was hobbled by a cracked bone in his leg a year ago. He has the best time in the conference this fall with a 19:11.3 clocking for the four-mile distance.

Iowa has won four meets this fall, but is untested against either unbeaten Minnesota or perennial powerhouse Michigan State.

LACKS BALANCE

Defending champion Northwestern lacks balance this year but remains a darkhorse. The Wildcats are led by John Dufield, the individual runnerup last year to departed teammate Lee Assenheimer.

Michigan State is sparked by Dick Sharkey, who finished last fall and has a 19:32.2 clocking this year.

Kaat Highest Paid Pitcher at Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — Jim Kaat became the highest-paid pitcher in Minnesota Twins history today when he agreed to a 1967 baseball contract for a figure reported to be about $50,000.

Kaat, who also celebrated his 27th birthday today, compiled a 25-13 1966 record for the most victories in the American League and in Twins history. He also had the most innings and most games completed in the league.

The highest-paid Minnesota pitcher previously was Camilo Pascual, who received about $46,000 two years ago. Only slugger Harmon Killebrew, at about $60,000, has been paid more by the club.

Kaat said that he was extremely pleased at the terms and that he thought President Galvin Griffith was very fair.

Jack's Game Sizzles

TOKYO (AP) — Jack Nicklaus fired a three-under-par 68 — including his performance against on the par-35 front nine — at the Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., Sagami Country Club Tuesday was something of a warning to playing in an exhibition warm other Canada Cup competitors who were practicing at the nearby Yomiuri Country Club while the threesome was being played at Sagami.

* * *

The Canada Cup — the 14th edition of this major world tournament — will be played at Yomiuri Nov. 10-13.

Nicklaus, who arrived in Japan Sunday, racked up six birdies and a bogey on Sagami's first nine holes but poor approach shots sent him two over coming in.

Player had a 35-35—70, and Palmer a 36-39—75. Both of them arrived in Tokyo late Monday night and will have only one day of practice at the 6,962-yard, par-72 Yomiuri layout before competition begins.

U.S. TEAM

Seventy-two golfers from 36 countries are entered. Nicklaus and Palmer will represent the United States in the team competition.

Nicklaus, who put in a day of practice at the hilly Yomiuri course Monday, said it was "in excellent condition — very much like the layout at Madrid" where Player and his South African teammate Harold Henning won the Canada Cup last year.

* * *

"But," Nicklaus said, "there are lots of places at Yomiuri you can get into extreme trouble unless you drive straight, and there are plenty of out-of-bounds."

He estimated a score of 560 for 72-holes in the two-man team event would be low enough to win the coveted cup.

As for the individual trophy he said, "I'm not thinking about that. This is mainly a team event, and it's the team scores that are the most important."

Nicklaus, his teammate Palmer, and Player all said they would use the small ball (1.62 inches in diameter) for the Canada Cup "because it's easier to use."

"We'd prefer to use the large ball (1.68 inches in diameter) but most everyone will be using the small ball, we'd be giving away too much by using the large," Nicklaus explained.

Both Palmer and Player said they were under the impression that the Canada Cup would be played at the Yomiuri public course on which both have played before.

"We found out only last night when we arrived that it's a different one."

The Tokyo Yomiuri Country Club, a private course next to the public course, didn't exist when they were here before.

TIME OUT—Heavyweight champion Cassius Clay pauses for a moment during his workout yesterday in Houston, Tex., to give an autograph to a young admirer, Bobby Phillips of Baytown, Tex. Clay went two rounds in a sparring session in tuning up for his Nov. 14 title defense date with Cleveland Williams in the Houston Astrodome.

Brown Joining Cassius in Ring

HOUSTON (AP) — Cassius Clay took a layoff from the ring today as he awaited arrival of the former Cleveland Browns' fullback Jimmy Brown, who Clay said will "shove me around" in preparation for challenger Cleveland Williams.

The heavyweight champ knocked down 235-pound Ben Turnbow in Monday's workout. Then he got on the telephone with 40 newsmen to announce that Brown would be in Houston Wednesday to "show me some inside work he used in pro football . . . things that'll make me stronger in case I get penned up."

* * *

Williams, the Houston fighter due to meet Clay next Monday night in the Astrodome, skipped ring work Monday.

In a sparring session at the ranch of his manager, Hugh Benbow, Williams hit the canvas Sunday during a workout with Ben Black, who surprised him with a straight right.

Clay knocked down Turnbow after taking a few jabs to the chin, delivering the big punch late in the second round after a dancing exhibition.

The swift right sent Turnbow over sidewise, clutching for the ropes.

CALLED OFF

Clay's trainer, Angelo Dundee, halted the workout at that point and ordered today's layoff explaining: "I don't want him too sharp too soon. I'm amazed at the knockdown."

The crowd at the walk-up gym contributed $282 in entrance fees and $25 in autograph fees at one dollar a signature, to Clay's fund for the Harris County Boys Home, a biracial orphanage he took under his wing Saturday.

In the news conference, Clay assessed his opponent this way:

"I saw Williams against (Tod) Herring and he looked like he could hit hard.

"I can't fight The Cat (Williams) like I fought Cooper and Mildenberger and Liston. Williams has two hands and I don't want the fight to go very far.

Clay said he would unveil a new step called the Ali Shuffle at the Astrodome, a bit of footwork "so fast it can't be seen by the human eye."

Both fighters are due at the Hotel America at noon Wednesday for a preliminary physical ordered by Texas Boxing Commissioner Charles H. King Jr.

Loaned to Vancouver

Leafs Farm Top Rookie

TORONTO (AP) — The Toronto Maple Leafs have sent left-winger Britt Selby, the National Hockey League's rookie of the year last season, to Vancouver of the Western League.

Punch Imlach, the Leafs' general manager, said Monday Selby is on loan to the Canucks and subject to immediate recall.

TOKYO (AP) — Beppe Merlo, a member of Italy's Davis Cup team, is the top seed in men's singles at the Asahi Invitational Tennis Tournament, which begins Friday.

Merlo and countryman Franco Olivieri are favored in the men's doubles competition.

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israel's national basketball team leaves today for Antwerp, Belgium, where it will compete in the European championships before visiting the United States and continuing to Bangkok, Thailand, for next month's Asian Games.

During its U.S. visit, the Israeli team will set up a training base in New York and play against amateur teams from New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Cincinnati and Los Angeles.

Warrior Hikes Scoring Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Rick Barry of San Francisco, firing at a 40-point clip in five games last week, has widened his individual scoring lead in the National Basketball Association.

The 6-foot-7 Warriors forward scored 43 points against Baltimore last Sunday, bringing his total for the week to 181. He has averaged just under 38 points per-game in 12 starts over-all and holds a 169-point bulge over runner-up Guy Rodgers of Chicago, who has played two more games.

Of Barry's 455 points, 149 have come from the free throw line in 172 attempts, a percentage of .866. Adrian Smith of Cincinnati leads the free throw shooters with an .889 mark and Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain tops the league from the field with a .567 percentage.

Kathy Adds to Earnings in Victory

CINCINNATI (AP) — Kathy Whitworth won her second golf tournament in a row—a sudden death $1,500 playoff against Mickey Wright—last weekend in the Amarillo Open and boosted her earnings for the year to $29,652.50.

Miss Wright continued to close in on Sandra Haynie, who was second on the weekly list with $25,462.50. Miss Wright's earnings are $24,429.50.

The Ladies' Professional Golf Association said today there was no change in the list of top 10 money winners i the past week. But four other lady golfers passed the $10,000 mark.

* * *

Ruth Jessen came in third in the Amarillo tournament and the $1,000 prize money boosted her to 11th placeiwth $10,651. Sandra Spuzich, No. 12, and Susie Maxwell, No. 14, also went over the mark at Amarillo with totals of $10,527.50 and $10,078.50, respectively. Mary Mills is 13th with winning of $10,168.

Carol Mann is fourth in the listings with $22,686 earned while Clifford Ann Creed rounds out the top five with earnings of $18,906.50.

Police Cancel 'Trip' in Coffin

NEW YORK (AP) — Using the password "voodoo," police gained entrance Monday night to a 12-room penthouse where they reported finding a six-foot coffin that the apartment occupant allegedly used "to lie down in and take a trip to an unknown world" after taking the hallucinogenic chemical LSD.

Police said they found 20 pounds of marijuana and varying quantities of hashish, LSD and heroin valued at $20,000 in the apartment of Harvey Backer, 28. Backer was quoted as saying he was an author who did well enough to pay $450 a month for the apartment.

★ ★ ★

Police said they earlier seized Peter Thompson, 30, leaving Backer's building with a quantity of marijuana.

★ ★ ★

Backer and Thompson were charged with possessing narcotics with the intent to sell.

Exam Slated for Suspect in Romeo Spree

ROMEO — Larry DeLlowe, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester DeLlowe of 222 West, Rochester, stood mute yesterday on charges of malicious destruction of property, contribuiting to the delinquency of a minor and disorderly conduct.

He was heard before Justice James Schocke of Romeo who set examination for next Tuesday. Bond of $100 was set and posted.

DeLlowe was arrested along with a 15-year-old minor following last weekend's spree of air gun shooting which damaged car, home and business windows in Romeo.

He was also to be questioned regarding a similar spree in Rochester.

Police in Romeo estimated damage at $2,000. A similar estimate was put on like damage in Rochester.

★ ★ ★

The minor has been turned over to Macomb County Juvenile Court.

Trio Knock Down, Rob Pontiac Man

A Pontiac man was knocked down on a city street and robbed by three men of $235 in tools and personal items, Pontiac police were told.

Charles Mick, 34, of 161 N. Astor said he was walking on East South Boulevard near South Sanford when two men approached him and beat him to the ground.

★ ★ ★

His assailants, Mick said, then seized a toolbox and suitcase from him, fled to a car waiting nearby and they drove off with a third man.

Waterford Cave-In Injures a Worker

A construction worker suffered minor injuries yesterday at the Jeffrey Manor subdivision sanitary sewer project in Waterford Township when clay loam caved in on him as he was setting pipe in a ditch.

★ ★ ★

Injured was Brian Johns of Manchester, an employe of the D. N. Higgins Co., the sewer project contractor.

★ ★ ★

Johns was taken to Pontiac General Hospital and released. He returned to his job this morning at the construction site on Scott Lake Road and Herbell.

News in Brief

Three television sets were reported stolen yesterday in a break-in at Obel's TV, 3480 Elizabeth Lake, Waterford Township.

The theft from his parked car of a vacuum cleaner valued at $150 was reported to Pontiac police yesterday by Paul Gyselman, 72, of 78 Douglas.

In Destruction Spree

2 Avon Youths Arraigned

Charged with malicious destruction over $100, two Avon Township youths were arraigned yesterday before Pontiac Township Justice R. Grant Graham.

★

David H. Burnell, 18, stepson of Noman Pardike, 2550 Leach, and Martin L. Clason, 18, son of Harold Clason of 3031 St. Clair, demanded preliminary examination on the felony charges.

Graham set examination for Nov. 25 and released the pair on personal bond of $500 each.

Burnell and Clason were apprehended by Oakland County sheriff's deputies early yesterday after allegedly damaging some $2,500 worth of signs, windows, and mailboxes in Avon Township and Troy.

★ ★ ★

A similar outbreak of property destruction in Pontiac was reported early yesterday, but Pontiac police exonerated Clason and Burnell of guilt in any of the incidents.

Damage reported in the city included $1,900 worth of broken plate-glass windows at Pontiac Northern High School and a half-dozen shattered automobile windshields.

Ruby Defense Psychiatrist Dies in East

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Dr. Manfred S. Guttmacher, chief defense psychiatrist in the 1964 murder trial of Jack Ruby, died of leukemia at City Hospital Monday night at the age of 68.

The internationally known psychiatrist championed the cause of psychiatric science in the courtroom, and this led him into many noted cases—including the Ruby trial.

★ ★ ★

Guttmacher testified that Ruby, a Dallas nightclub operator, was legally insane when he killed Lee Harvey Oswald — the man identified by the Warren Commission as the assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

"I don't think he was capable of distinguishing between right and wrong or knew the nature and quality of his act at the time of the homicide," Guttmacher testified.

'GOOD CASE'

After Ruby was convicted, Guttmacher said he was convinced Ruby "had a good case from the point of view of legal irresponsibility."

In a report to the United Nations in 1948, after serving on a study commission, he said, "No man should be sentenced in a criminal court without the judge first obtaining a full social history of the accused."

FOE OF RULE

Guttmacher was a leading opponent of the M'Nathten rule, which holds that the test for insanity is the ability to distinguish right from wrong and has been a part of English law since 1843.

Guttmacher had been chief medical adviser to Baltimore Criminal Courts since 1930, and had published hundreds of papers and books on psychiatry and crime.

★ ★ ★

In 1954, at Guttmacher's urging, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia circuit adopted new legal tests of sanity.

GM Announces Extra Dividend

NEW YORK (UPI) — General Motors Corp. today announced a year-end extra dividend of $1.50 a share on common stock, raising the total dividend for 1966 to $4.55.

The extra dividend will be paid Dec. 10 to shareholders of record Nov. 17.

In 1965, the company's total dividend was a record $5.25.

The latest dividend distribution, a total of about $428 million, will go to holders of the common stock.

★ ★ ★

Frederic G. Donner, chairman of the board, and James M. Roche, president, said the dividend was considered to be warranted by current conditions and the long-term outlook.

Regularly quarterly dividends of $1.25 per share on the $5 series preferred stock and $0.9375 per share on the $3.75 series preferred stock were declared, payable Feb. 1, 1967, to holders of record Jan. 9, 1967.

Ex-Woman Medic Dies in Florida Home

Mrs. Stuart (Leila M.) Wilkins, head of occupational therapy department at Pontiac State Hospital until her retirement, died Friday in Seminole, Fla., where she made her home.

Graveside service will be 2 p.m. tomorrow at Riverside Cemetery, Kalamazoo by the Truesdale Funeral Home, Kalamazoo.

Surviving are two sisters.

A past president of Pontiac Council of Human Relations, Mrs. Wilkins was also past president of Pontiac Zonta Club and the Michigan Association of Occupational Therapists.

Mrs. Wilkins received part of her training at the State Hospital in Kalamazoo and her nurse's training at Harper Hospital, Detroit.

★ ★ ★

After leaving Pontiac State Hospital she served as head of occupational therapy at both Richmond and Petersburg, Va., state hospitals.

In November 1961 she was among six Michigan women honored as "history makers" by the American Occupational Therapy Association in Detroit.

Boats Now Used in Hunter Search

Most of the ice has left the Saginaw Bay marsh between Bayport and Sebewaing, allowing searchers to use boats today in an attempt to locate Gerald Stinson, 43, of 2093 Briggs, Waterford Township.

Stinson has been missing since last Wednesday when he went duck - hunting alone. Heavy fog hampered searchers yesterday and a low cloud cover has kept planes grounded.

Fake Inspector Sentenced

A former City of Pontiac chemist is on two years probation and has paid $100 fine and court costs after pleading guilty to impersonating a public health officer.

Clifton Washington, 37, of Detroit was handed the sentence by Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum.

★ ★ ★

Washington was arrested by Pontiac Policewoman Eleanor Mickens Sept. 30 following a complaint by a city woman that Washington had come to her home and asked to take a "cancer smear test."

Washington's identity was traced after the woman obtained his license number from the state-owned car in which he left the home.

Thieves Take Televisions

A color television and four smaller sets valued at $1,050 were stolen early yesterday in a break-in at a city appliance store, according to Pontiac police.

Burglars entered Bill Petrusha & Sons, 77 S. Telegraph, after smashing a plate glass window in the front door of the building.

The television sets were taken from the showroom, police said.

No Clear Favorite in New York Race

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Republican Nelson A. Rockefeller, 58, who says his White House ambitions are behind him, struggled down to the wire with Democrat Frank D. O'Connor, 56, today in an effort to hold onto the governorship of New York.

A record turnout of six million voters was expected to settle the close battle between the millionaire grandson of John D. Rockefeller and the career-politician son of Irish immigrants.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, who served as Rockefeller's campaign manager, saw national political overtones in the Rockefeller-O'Connor race.

The nation is watching, Javits said, to see how the moderate Republican governor fares in his contest, compared with the fortunes of conservative Republican Ronald Reagan in California.

NO CLEAR FAVORITE

There was no clear favorite in the New York race. Voter-preference polls gave Rockefeller and O'Connor each about 40 per cent of the vote, with about 15 per cent allotted to the two other entries — Liberal party nominee Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. and Conservative Paul L. Adams.

Some surveys showed a large segment of the electorate was still undecided.

Both major party candidates sought to sway this vote with eleventh-hour flying tours across upstate New York on election eve.

Rockefeller charged during his tour that O'Connor's programs would boost state spending by $610 million a year. O'Connor countered by claiming that Rockefeller, if reelected, would raise taxes "dramatically."

VICTORY CLAIMS

Both camps predicted victory. O'Connor maintained that he would win by 300,000 votes. Rockefeller, who described himself during the campaign as the underdog, said he believed he would win.

Republican campaign strategists hoped for a heavy vote, especially upstate, the traditional heartland of GOP strength. Democrats said privately they believed a modest turnout would work to O'Connor's advantage, since Democrats held a 3-2 advantage over the GOP in hardcore party enrollments.

★ ★ ★

The forecast was for cool and cloudy weather with occasional showers upstate.

Besides choosing their next governor, New York voters will:

Elect the state's 41-member delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives, the state legislature, a state comptroller and attorney general, 181 delegates to next year's state constitutional convention and numerous local officials.

12 QUESTIONS

They also faced 12 questions on the statewide portion of the ballot, including a proposed constitutional amendment that would authorize the state to operate a lottery to raise revenue for the public schools.

★ ★ ★

In New York City, voters were to decide whether the city should be allowed to continue its civilian-dominated police review board. The debate over this issue was so emotional as to overshadow the gubernatorial race in the minds of many persons.

Polls are open from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m., EST.

Two Women Fined in Local Vice Case

Two women arrested Oct. 14 in a Pontiac police raid on a suspected house of prostitution have been fined after pleading guilty.

Janet Brown, 21, of 102 Wessen, charged with soliciting, was fined $35; and Jean Rooks, 23, charged with prostitution, was fined $24, both by Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum.

The two women were among four apprehended by vice squad officers in a raid at the Wessen Street address.

Man Arrested at Holdup Site

A Pontiac man is to be arraigned today on a charge of armed robbery last night of the Lou-Mor Jewelers in The Miracle Mile Shopping Center, Bloomfield Township.

Robert T. McCullum, 24, of 96 Clovese was arrested by the owner, Louis Davidson, and a private guard, Byron Neeley, as he ran from the store following the holdup at 5 p.m., according to police.

McCullum allegedly took about $135 and some watches. He is being held in Oakland County Jail pending the arraignment.

His Star-Packed Audience Brightens 'Sands' Opening

By EARL WILSON

LAS VEGAS — Many new tales are being added to the legend of Frank Sinatra, who opened another engagement at the Sands, with Mia Farrow in his audience for the first time since she became Mrs. Sinatra.

WILSON

Looking slim, trim and long-haired, Mia attended the show in the company of such celebrities as Don Drysdale, Leo Durocher, Willie Mays, Richard Conte, Andy Williams, Al Hirt, Bobby Rydell and Frank's daughter Tina (with real estate man Sammy Hess).

Frank's orchestra was conducted by Gordon Jenkins. He sang "Strangers in the Night," one of his big hits, explaining he was following the lyrics from a paper in front of him because, "Believe it or not, I never learned the lyrics."

He then sang "That's Life," which he prophesied would be an enormous hit, adding that he didn't know the names of the authors. (They're D. Kay and K. Gordon). "The song is taking off," Frank said; it'll be part of his next TV special, Dec. 7.

★ ★ ★

Sinatra kidded with the audience, as usual, mentioning Pat Boone. He said, "If I had a son, I'd like him to be like Pat Boone—till he was three hours old."

Frank had built up this engagement to tremendous anticipation around the Las Vegas Strip. With Leo Durocher and other buddies trailing, he went to the Aladdin at midnight to catch a Joe E. Lewis show.

First he stopped at a blackjack table, got a fistfull of $100 chips and won about $3,000, stuffing several big chips in the pocket of a chum who had previously lost.

★ ★ ★

Then Frank and his friends sat down in the big room and, at two in the morning, people flocked in to watch him watching Joe E.

"I think you've come in to louse me up but you're too late." Joe E. grinned.

★ ★ ★

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

George Jessel's taking his girl friend, Audrie McGee, along on his next entertainment tour of GI bases: "And if I lose her to some good-looking soldier, it's my own fault." . . Leslie Caron, en route to N.Y. from Paris for the "Is Paris Burning?" hoopla, got weathered in at Halifax.

British singer Matt Monro opened to an enthusiastic audience at the Persian Rm. "I'm not an American, y'know," he announced, "—I ocme from the colonies" . . . Actress Rosemary Forsyth wore boots of lacquered newspapers at L'Aiglon, to match her coat.

★ ★ ★

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Page Morton likes to hear Hollywood actors make election campaign speeches—they always have happy endings.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "An acquaintance is a person we know well enough to borrow from, but not well enough to lend to."

EARL'S PEARLS: "The coin shortage has been so acute this year," reports Jill Sinclair, "that some people couldn't even put in their two cents' worth."

"I wear support stockings, a girdle and a padded bra," writes Phyllis Diller, "so— no matter which way I fall, I leave skid marks." That's earl, brother.

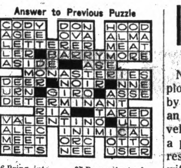
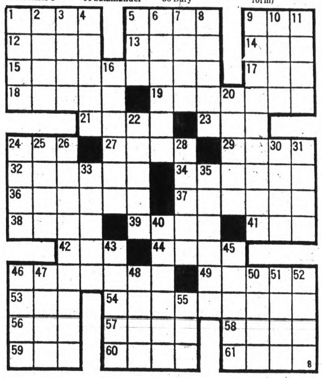
Answer to Previous Puzzle





Boom Is Unprecedented

Japan Buries the Past

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — Two decades ago, Japan was a defeated nation. Its industry was bankrupt, its spirit crushed, its people despaired of the future.

CUNNIFF

Japan today has pushed its economy to a height never before achieved by that nation. It is the world's largest shipbuilder. Its steel mills are the third most productive in the world.

★ ★ ★

Japanese businessmen today speak dispassionately about events of the early 1940s. Caught up in the "success begets success" cycle, they seldom dwell on their days of defeat.

When they do speak of the subject, they express an almost embarrassing gratitude to the United States for aid, equipment and technology with which they have reconstructed their country.

THEME ECHOED

This spirit of kinship with America was the theme of a recent meeting of 25 top Japanese and 25 American businessmen at Palm Desert, Calif.

A Japanese steel executive, for example, commended repeatedly that "you (America) are the teacher, we are the pupil."

★ ★ ★

American businessmen listened with politeness matching that of the Japanese. But they no longer considered valid the teacher-student relationship.

Rudolph Paterson, president of of the Bank of America, put it this way: "The respect is mutual now. Don't think we don't have a wholesome respect for them."

TRANSOCEANIC TRADE

Japanese and American businessmen now conduct what has been called the greatest transoceanic trade ever transacted between two nations, importing and exporting more than $4 billion of goods a year.

Japan must, in fact, trade or die. It has few raw materials. It must import 20 per cent of its food needs, and this includes alfalfa to feed its cows and rice for its people.

★ ★ ★

Its steel mills, most of which have been built since the war, must import iron ore from Australia. Even fuel for the mills must be imported.

Despite these obstacles, Japanese steel competes around the world.

How can they do it? First, American technology has been used abundantly. But technology would be worthless if the raw materials couldn't be shipped to Japan.

To close that gap, the Japanese shipbuilding industry now makes ships of a size nobody dreamed possible a decade ago. This has reduced shipping costs dramatically.

★ ★ ★

Tadayoshi Yamada, head of international trade of Yawata Steel Co., Japan's largest, says distance isn't a problem any more.

Yamada claims that by finding the highest grade iron ore — 65 to 70 per cent pure — and carrying it in ships with a capacity of 75,000 to 80,000 tons, the cost of transportation becomes almost minimal.

★ ★ ★

The Japanese nation, meanwhile, has made a concentrated effort to maintain a high standard of quality in all exported goods. This, also, has helped Japanese businessmen compete abroad.

The result is, that despite importing its raw materials, Japan now has a surplus in its balance of payments account.

Israel Arrests Tied to World Copper Plot

NEW YORK (AP)—An alleged plot to boost world copper prices by blowing up a vital bridge in an African copper country developed a new facet Monday as a prosecutor said that four arrests in Israel — including the wife of one of the defendants here — were "related" to the bridge-blowing scheme.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Steph Kaufman made the statement in arguing for high bail for Jay Aubrey Elliott, 31, and Rolf Dunbier, 36. They are accused of violating the Federal Neutrality Security Act by conspiring to damage property of a foreign nation with which the United States is at peace.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover announced in Washington Sunday that Elliott and Dunbier had tried to hire two Miami, Fla., engineers to blow up a vital railroad bridge in Zambia, thus crippling the copper supply from the Free World's largest exporter of the metal.

★ ★ ★

Elliott and Dunbier worked for a German metals firm. Government investigators said the scheme was to cut down on Zambia's copper exports, running up copper prices.

The engineers, Phillip Armstrong and Paul Caudell, had been promised $25,000 plus expenses for the job.

Jerry in Miami

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh left Monday for Miami, Fla., where he will speak at a meeting of the National Conference of Organizations, an urban affairs group. Following the Miami appearance, Cavanagh will go to Hartford, Conn., and return to Detroit in 10 days.

One of 2 Escapees Arrested in Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — One of two escapees from a prison camp near Ludington was arrested here Monday outside the home of his former wife.

Donald B. Martin, 28, escaped from Camp Sauble Oct. 17, crashing through a police road block and eluding searchers in a Northern Michigan swamp.

Martin, serving two terms for armed robbery, was held without bond late Monday on additional charges that he robbed the Parkview Bar in Detroit of $2,100 two weeks after his escape.

Planes Run Interference for Infantry Attack Force

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

OVER TAY NINH PROVINCE, South Viet Nam (AP) — The camouflaged jet fighter-bomber leveled off near treetop, spewing a shower of round, brown objects.

In the howling wake of the F100 Super Sabre jet, the close-packed green jungle exploded.

Two parallel rows of crimson flashes marched through the trees, like Chinese firecrackers going off in a string, and a slight concussion wave reached up to a tiny, single-engine silver plane circling the strike zone.

From the cockpit of this "bird dog," an Air Force forward air controller and this reporter watched the deadly cluster bombs hit home with a spray of killer pellets.

LEADER CHEERS

"That CBU was just great," exulted a voice on the spotter plane's sputtering radio. It was the commander of a U. S. infantry battalion deployed around the edges of the expanse of jungle.

The controller, Air Force Capt. David Halvorsen of Montevideo, Minn., said a battalion of perhaps 500 Viet Cong hard-core regulars was hiding under the heavy tree canopy.

His mission, and that of the fighter-bombers whose fire he directed was to soften up that battalion with high explosive, antipersonnel and napalm ordnance.

This was one corner of the battle of Tay Ninh Province which began last Thursday in a region long a Communist stronghold.

Nothing could be seen of the Communist soldiers shielded by layers of tropical growth 1,500 feet below the circling "bird dog."

But the U. S. operation commander — "Atlas 6" — was sure the Reds were there. U. S. infantrymen of the 196th Brigade had made contact.

Within three hours, U. S. and South Vietnamese fighter bombers loosed four air strikes on this mile-square patch of jungle.

Radio conversation crackled between Halvorsen, the fighter bombers, two infantry battalions identified as "Slugger" and "Boxer," and a general running the show from a helicopter hovering over the objective.

* * *

With purple, yellow and red smoke markers to guide them, the F100s screamed in one at a time, crisscrossed the tree cover with their bombs, then climbed into the lowering afternoon sun.

"A little bit to the right," Halvorsen coached into his microphone. "A little bit to the right of the smoke."

That's just where the next plane dumped its load, leaving behind a tall pillar of white smoke.

Next came the planes with napalm, the jellied gasoline that incinerates all it touches.

"Do you want this in any particular place?" a Super Sabre pilot asked.

"Generally on that trail we've been shooting over," Halvorsen replied.

In a moment, an F100 in mottled green and tan battle dress streaked low over the trail. Behind it, great sheets of red-orange flames engulfed trees, bushes and grass.

Then came five South Vietnamese propeller-driven A1 Skyraiders, burdened with heavy bombs.

PROTECTING A BUDDY — A member of the 196th Light Infantry Brigade stands guard with a scope-mounted M-16 rifle beside a wounded buddy at the edge of a jungle clearing in the Tay Ninh area near the Cambodian border. Fighting has been under way for four days in the region.

New State Hospital Licensing Bill Due

LANSING (AP) — Trustees of the Michigan Association of Hospitals will meet here Wednesday to draft a new licensing bill to be presented to the legislature.

Under current laws, Michigan requires licensing only for hospitals with an obstetrics unit and accreditation only for hospitals accepting welfare patients.

H. Allan Barth, executive director of the association, said Monday that Michigan's hospital laws are "a patchwork system." He said that his organization had previously backed legislation requiring tighter hospital regulation.

He said that the association probably would ask for broader controls than those of the Joint Commission of Hospital Accreditation, a nationwide nongovernmental agency that accredits hospitals with more than 25 beds. Generally the Joint Commission investigates only physical facilities.

The commission had accredited Fairwood Hospital in Warren, where 14 persons were arrested for violating medical practices and drug laws. Three doctors were alleged to have practiced at that hospital without Michigan licenses.

Elm Toll Wanes in Detroit's Land

DETROIT (AP) — Dutch elm disease is declining on city owned property for the first time in six years.

John M. May, general superintendent of parks and recreation, told the City Council Monday that last winter's emergency appropriation of $400,000 to control the elm blight was successful.

* * *

At the same time, May said that a new emergency appropriation of $250,000 will be needed this year to remove stricken elms.

He attributed the reduced request to the success of last years program, which has cut by 14 per cent the number of trees that have to be removed.

The council indicated that it would grant the money.

May added that despite the decline of diseased publicly owned elms, the number of stricken privately owned elms has increased over last year.

When you lock your car doors, you want to make sure they're locked. So do we.

Our engineers call it the passenger-guard door lock. It's on every door—front and rear—of every new Chevrolet, Pontiac, Oldsmobile, Buick and Cadillac. When you push the lock down, the door can't be opened until you pull the lock back up—even if someone should accidentally pull back on a door handle. And we didn't stop with a better lock. We also built you a better door to go with it, including the protection of new safety latches and hinges. From little things like locks, to big things like the GM-developed energy absorbing steering column, safety is one of the ways we've made our General Motors cars even better for '67. And can you think of a better way to make cars better? Neither could we.
