Egypt Protests Use of Gunfire by U.N. in Gaza

Shots Put Down Demonstrations by Angry Arabs

Want Control of Strip by Egypt Government, Not World Body

CAIRO (AP) — Egypt announced today it had protested to U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold the action of U.N. forces in using gunfire to break up demonstrations by Gaza residents.

Abdel Kader, the Egyptian information director, announced the protest.

Hundreds of Arabs demonstrated in the Gaza Strip yesterday in favor of return of an Egyptian administration. A temporary U. N.-sponsored administration is being set up there following Israel's withdrawal last week.

Earlier Cairo radio reported that violent demonstrations were continuing in Gaza demanding an Egyptian administration.

Hatem announced also that Egypt had appointed Gen. Hassan Abdel Latif as governor of Gaza and that he would take over his duties immediately.

SPECIFIC PURPOSE

Hatem declared that Egypt had agreed that the U. N. Emergency Force could enter Gaza only for the specific purposes of preserving a cease-fire, and observing the withdrawal of Israeli troops behind the armistice lines.

"Any other task being carried out by the UNEF forces will be refused by Egypt," Hatem said.

The U. N. has set up its own civil administration in Gaza with Col. Carl Engholm of Denmark as military governor.

Egypt's radio carried broadcasts of the demonstrations in which shouts of "we want Egypt" and "long live Nasser, hero of Arabism," could be heard.

Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, the UNEF commander, and Dr. Ralph Bunche, undersecretary of the U. N., are in the Gaza area now on an inspection trip.

Senate Probe to Quiz Beck

Set to Subpoena Teamster Head, Seize Records

Union Chief Flies Home From Europe, May Go On to Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate rackets investigators prepared today to subpoena Teamsters Union President Dave Beck and seize his financial records unless he agrees quickly to "be cooperative." Beck indicated he would comply with their requests before being subpoenaed.

The Teamster chief returned unheralded from Europe yesterday, dodged reporters in New York, refused to be interviewed in Chicago, and flew on to his home in Seattle.

Arriving there, Beck said "I don't think so" when he was asked by newsmen whether he would wait for a subpoena. He said he expected to go to Washington "very soon." Beck declined to answer any other questions.

Beck's Teamsters Union — the nation's biggest — has been the focus so far of a special Senate committee's search for evidence of racketeering influences in labor and industry.

For the past two weeks, the committee has received testimony that West Coast Teamster officials were linked with underworld figures and some public office holders in efforts to take over vice and gambling operations in Portland, Ore. The hearings are in recess until tomorrow.

TO QUIZ ON FUNDS

The committee has said it wants to question Beck about charges that union funds were used to pay some of his personal bills, and about the activities of some of his lieutenants.

Informed of Beck's return, Sen. McClellan (D-Ark), chairman of the rackets investigating group, told a newsman:

"I just assume he (Beck) will get in touch with the committee now that he's back."

Meantime, Portland Mayor Terry D. Schrunk was due to take a lie detector test from Secret Service experts to check his denial that he once accepted a bribe.

MEMO TO CAESAR

Irate Listeners Turn on Jesus

(Fifth in a Lenten Series)

Tiberius Caesar called his mother, Livia, to him to hear the remainder of the strange letter Pontius Pilate had written from Jerusalem. Aloud he read: . . . In Nazareth, Junius followed Jesus into his place of worship on the Sabbath day and there heard Him read from an ancient scroll of the prophet Esaias.

The voice was clear and penetratingly magnetic as it put new meaning into the timeless sentences:

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised . . ."

After Jesus had returned to his seat in the place of worship, the eyes of everyone fastened upon Him as if they expected to hear more.

Slowly He said: "This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears."

"Isn't this Joseph's son?" they asked one another, referring to the Nazarene carpenter who was Jesus' father.

But suddenly, according to Junius, Jesus began speaking again. He reminded the people that in the days of olden prophets not everyone in the land was cured of his afflictions, but only certain ones were chosen for the miracles.

This angered the crowd. They pushed the young man, who seems to be about 30 years of age, out of the place of worship and into the streets.

"Take him to the hill. Throw him over the cliff." The crowd shouted and began moving to the edge of the city.

But somehow, Junius says, Jesus was able to walk quietly from the excited, milling throng so that when they got to the hill He was not with them.

They looked for Him everywhere, but He had gone to Capernaum.

May I hear, August Caesar, what you make of all this?

Wolfsons Called AMC's Largest Shareholders

Florida Financier Said to Favor Selling Firm's Auto Divisions

DETROIT (AP) — George Romney, president of American Motors Corp., said today that financier Louis E. Wolfson of Miami and his wife have become probably the largest two stockholders in the company.

The Wolfsons reported own 24,000 shares of American Motors, which has 48,000 stockholders and 5,670,430 shares outstanding. AM stock closed at $6.12 Saturday.

Regarding published rfeports that Wolfson proposes that American Motors sell its Nash Hudson, Rambler automotive divisions and concentrate on Kelvinator appliances, Romney told newsmen:

"I have seen Wolfson recently. I am always anxious to get the views of our shareholders. I don't know exactly what Mr. Wolfson has in mind in the way of changes or suggestions. I don't know if he has any definite changes in mind.

"As far as I am concerned, the auto division of American Motors is sound. It is a unique operation. There are growing opportunities. The market for the small car will increase."

Wolfson was not reached immediately at his Miami home for comment.

There was no immediate indication in Detroit of a tieup between Wolfson and a group of dissident American Motors stockholders headed by Sol A. Dann, a Detroit lawyer.

Dann's group lost a fight last month to oust Romney's management.

In a later statement Romney said he had held meetings with Wolfson and planned further conferences. He added, however:

"I would be opposed to a discontinuance of our automobile activities."

British Mother Loses

Judge Rules Out Plea to Set Aside Adoption

Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland today ruled against a mother's plea that her child she has never seen be returned to her.

He upheld a Probate Court decision and ordered dismissal of a petition by Mrs. Nona Hill, 33, for custody of her 20-month-old daughter, now adopted by a Berkley couple.

Basing his opinion "strictly on the facts in the case," Judge Holland overruled contentions the mother consented to the adoption under duress and in a weakened physical and mental condition.

As a result, little Lauren Rae Lewis will remain in the home of her foster parents, Alfred J. Lewis Jr., 38, of 4292 Kenmore Rd. and his wife, Jane, 36.

Whether Mrs. Hill, a British citizen who lives in New York City, will appeal the decision was not immediately known, said her attorney H. Malcolm Kahn, of Pontiac. Mrs. Hill temporarily lives in Detroit.

Commenting on the wide interest in the outcome of the case, Judge Holland after submitting his written opinion said his decision was "a tough one to make."

It revolved around Mrs. Hill's claim she was persuaded to place the baby up for adoption at the time of its birth June 10, 1955 in the Detroit's Women's Hospital.

Records show she consented to direct adoption five days later through Oakland County Probate Court. The Lewises were granted the child June 16, 1955 for a one-year trial period by Judge Arthur E. Moore, who ordered the adoption final June 28, 1956.

On July 27, 1956, Mrs. Hill withdrew her consent and began proceedings that led to the decision by Judge Moore Nov. 13 that the mother had legally consented to the adoption. Mrs. Hill then ap-

'No Comment': Beck

DODGES NEWSMEN — Dave Beck (center), president of the giant International Teamsters Union, waves off newsmen with a "no comment" as he was met by a swarm of reporters and photographers at the Seattle-Tacoma International Airport last night. Beck, who has been in Europe, has been invited to testify before a Senate subcommittee investigating racketeering in Oregon.

U.S. Tanker Slated to Dock in Aqaba Port

JERUSALEM (INS) — Government sources said today that a U.S. tanker is expected to dock sometime in April at the Israeli port of Elath in the Gulf of Aqaba.

To do so, the vessel would have to sail through the disputed Gulf waters.

The sources said the tanker will pump 10,000 tons of oil into the eight-inch Elath-Beersheba pipeline now being completed.

Two other American tankers, the sources said, are expected to follow the first at ten-day intervals.

Balmy Gulf Breezes Warming Pontiac

Strong southerly winds blowing warm air from the Gulf of Mexico are responsible for the warmer weather trend in this area.

Pontiac's lowest temperature prior to 8 a.m. was only 35 degrees, while a high near 55 has been predicted for today.

Windy and warmer with scattered showers and a chance of scattered thunderstorms, low 44 to 48, is tonight's forecast.

Tomorrow will be partly cloudy with a high of 46 to 50 degrees.

At 2 p.m. the mercury registered 42.

Low Supply of Vaccine Expected to Hit Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Salk anti-polio vaccine may be at a premium in starting late this month.

The State Health Department said Saturday that increased public interest had caused the supply to dwindle. It said it had enough vaccine on hand to last a week or 10 days.

The two major producers of the vaccine, Parke Davis & Co., and Eli Lilly & Co., said a new supply would be available by the second week in April.

Lawyers Eye Legal Action as County Voids Jury Issue

Legal action was threatened today against Oakland County Supervisors' move to take the question of a jury commission off the April 1 ballot.

Pontiac Attorney Mitchell L. Bacow today said strategy will be planned at a meeting of the Oakland County Bar Association Board of Governors this afternoon.

"The county was definitely victim of a fast shuffle," said Bacow, promising "any legal step possible to put the question back before the voters."

Bacow said he planned to ask an injunction setting aside the decision on the basis it violated supervisors' bylaws.

Supervisors Friday reversed a January decision to place a proposal sponsored by the bar association on the ballot.

ASKED 3-MAN COMMISSION

It called for a three-man, nonpartisan commission to select jurors on a countywide basis. Under the system now in effect, supervisors select the jurors from each individual community.

"I'm completely taken aback by what happened Friday," Bacow said. "The bar association was never notified that such action was contemplated, nor was there anything on the agenda to suggest that supervisors would take away from the public their right to decide on the question."

Bacow said he had doubts of the legality of the supervisors' move whereby consideration of the commission was unanimously shuttled back to committee.

APARENTLY 'TIMED'

"If we are going to have the question on the April ballot, we'll have to do it through the courts now," Bacow explained. "The supervisors' apparently timed their action so that now we don't have time to force the question in this election by means of referendum petitions."

Bacow said the board of governors will issue a public statement after today's meeting.

Search Harbor for Slain Woman

2 Admit Beating, Killing Americans at Acapulco; Stolen Jewels Found

ACAPULCO, Mexico (AP)—Police searched Acapulco Harbor today for a floating body believed to be that of a wealthy Brooklyn widow. She and a New York attorney were slain and robbed after he had put up a desperate fight for their lives.

The body was sighted shortly after midnight, but rough water prevented its recovery.

The victims of the murder-robbery plot were Mrs. Edith Hallock, 63, and her traveling companion, Joseph A. Michel, 70, who disappeared Feb. 20.

Police said a tourist agent, Luis Fenton, 33, and an unemployed boatman, Daniel Rios Osuna, 38, had confessed beating the couple to death during a nighttime boat ride, robbing them of $70,000 in cash and jewelry and dumping their weighted bodies from a boat into the sea.

Mrs. Hallock's jewels, or most of them, have been found hidden in the Acapulco garden of Fenton's brother-in-law.

Police said Fenton, described as a U.S. citizen of Mexican parentage, was in Mexico illegally. They said he is a former U.S. Navy man wanted in the United States on bad check charges and in Bogota, Colombia, in connection with a jewelry swindle.

Admits to Putting Strychnine in Milk

Det. Capt. Robert Duck said Mrs. Ruth Underwater admitted she put strychnine into a carton of milk. He quoted her as saying, "I really didn't want to kill them. I didn't intend for my daughter to get any of it at all."

Police tested the milk after Mrs. Underwater's husband, Joseph, 60, her daughter, Mrs. Judy Miles, 22, and Clifford Lybarger, 50, caretaker of the apartment building where she lives, became ill.

Mrs. Underwater was released on bond.

Playing Golf in North Holds Extra Hazards

GREENSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Aleon Deitch of Fox Chapel is suffering from a fractured right forearm today, and it's mostly because he tried to play winter golf in the North instead of the South.

Deitch and three of his friends were playing golf at Westermoreland Country Club Thursday. On the ninth hole, Deitch had a good drive that carried the ball within 75 yards of the green. For his pitch shot, Deitch selected a No. 9 iron but cut too deeply into the frozen turf and broke his arm.

Joe Haas Reports Standing Room Only in Florida

People Minus Reservations Sleep in Cars

KEY WEST, Fla. — Hotels and motels of the better class have been standing 'em up nights in Southern Florida this winter.

In fact, as you approach this southern tip of the nation, its only frost-free point, some of them are accused of cording up the tourists in a horizontal manner after they've been lulled to slumber by the soothing breezes off the Gulf Stream.

JOE

We've seen good people sleeping in their cars or on the ground, because they had no advance reservations. And they're a pitiful sight, especially when there are children or when it rains—which is does a plenty.

But the rains are wonderful when you have a place to stay, although it descends like a deluge. We'd call it a cloudburst in Pontiac. It is a real pleasure to stand out in it, although it is so dense that you must protect your nose and mouth with your hand or you'll drown standing up.

However, the flooded streets are all dry again within a few minutes after it ceases. An 8-ft. elevation on the Keys is called Mount Ararat and the motel on it is named Noah's Ark.

The shortage of accommodations starts even north of St. Petersburg which city's chamber of commerce has worked nothing into a multi-million annual business, and created a supreme jealousy in its neighboring double-sized Tampa.

For St. Pete, not much larger than Pontiac, has become world-famous, although it offers nothing in the climate line over any other location as far north in Florida. It really is too far north for the climate that makes Florida brag. But the C. of C. publicity keeps 'em coming.

Its benches haven't changed a bit since our first visit there 20 years ago, only there's a lot more of them. They still offer our nation's best evidence of a passive and acceptable non-resistance and contentment with a life of rusting out.

As the northerners bring their overcoats and electric blankets, they do not appear cognizant of the real Florida only a few miles away.

Within the past couple of weeks the mercury in St. Pete was flirting with that in Pontiac.

One of the best things about the city is the getting away from it over the new Skyway Bridge to Bradenton. That's a wonderful engineering feat and worth several times the toll.

We meet Michigan people everywhere we go. Down the west coast the Michigan car license plates exceed those of any other state except Florida, with Illinois and Ohio running neck and neck after us.

Grass Fires Harass City, County

Field Blazes Hurt 2 Fighters

City Hit by 50 Calls; Burning Rubbish Now Serious Hazard

Township and city fire departments were harassed by grass fires that scorched hundreds of acres of land and threatened homes throughout the county over the weekend, it was reported today.

Two fire fighters were injured and two fire trucks damaged as a result of the more than 200 calls to field blazes. High winds contributed to the "record breaking weekend."

The Pontiac and Waterford Township fire departments were hit the hardest, rushing to 50 and 45 fires, respectively, from Friday noon through Sunday.

Romeo and Washington volunteers fought with brooms, buckets of water and small extinguishers as a 100 acre field burned, threatening a number of homes in the vicinity. These two departments answered eight alarms Saturday afternoon.

One of the firemen, Peter Peraino, 35, of 7324 Smale St., Washington, was injured at a 100 acre field blaze at 29-Mile road and Mound road. He jumped off a moving fire truck to get a pump, lost his footing, and slid beneath the vehicle. Peraino's left leg was gashed by the truck door and the back wheel ran over his foot and ankle.

A raging grass fire in a field on Ewell street in Romeo threatened nearby Clinton and Dickenson street homes. Police said that flames, fanned by strong winds, reached heights of eight and nine feet.

A Lake Orion fireman was injured Saturday when his truck struck a bump in a frozen field. The unidentified fireman was thrown from the vehicle, but his injuries were not reported serious.

One of the Pontiac Fire Department's trucks was damaged Sunday when high winds, which caused the grass fires to spread so quickly, blew open the doors of Fire Station Number Four, Golenwood Ave. and Montcalm St., as the driver was backing the truck into the building.

Another Pontiac fire truck was slightly damaged Sunday when a curious driver skidded into the vehicle as it was parked at a field blaze on Woodward Ave. across from St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital.

Answering a number of such grass fire calls over the weekend were Lake Orion, 15; Rochester, 39; Romeo, 8; Bloomfield Township, 16; Troy, 22; Farmington, 5; Pontiac, 50; and Waterford Township, 45.

Fire chiefs say that most of the fires were caused by home owners burning rubbish and by youngsters who are not careful with matches.

"A rash of these grass fires breaks out every year at this time when the snow drys up and leaves the fields very dry," said Oakland County Sheriff Frank Irons.

"A carelessly thrown cigarette can touch off a field easily this time of the year. Not only are these fires hazardous and dangerous to lives and property, but a nuisance to fire and police departments that may be needed for more serious matters. A little extra caution will prevent this."

Paying for 100 M.P.H.

Clocked up to speeds of more than 100 miles per hour, Jake Cole, 39, of 75 Snyder St., Lake Orion, paid $85 in fine and court costs and was sentenced to three days in jail yesterday when he appeared before Orion Township Justice Helmar Stanaback.

Japan Asks Russians Suspend Nuclear Tests

Flint Man Says Billboards Will Go Up

Threatens 'Speed Trap' Action

A Flint motorist was threatening today that billboards may blossom on Dixie Highway, calling attention to a so-called "speed trap" by Waterford Township police.

That will be the result, said department store manager Jack L. Masin, if the township board tonight fails to promise action.

Masin said he and several other Flint residents will appeal to the board for measures correcting alleged police irregularities in ticketing drivers.

The appeal comes after an investigation by Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem produced no tangible evidence of charges by Masin and other Flint drivers.

'VERY WRONG'

Masin believed Ziem's conclusions were "very wrong," and added that "more and more people are getting very mad about the unfair police tactics."

If the board fails to take "corrective action," Masin said, an association of drivers will be formed, possibly at tonight's meeting.

"We've got $500 promised to start putting billboards along Dixie Highway with the general warning to motorists 'Don't Be a Victim.' We're going to go through with this campaign one way or the other," Masin said.

The charges against police have been flatly denied by Police Chief Frank Van Atta. They include:

Officers boost the actual speed of cars when ticketing violators; officers wearing civilian clothes ride in unmarked cars at night to fool drivers; and officers pounce on victims before they have had time to slow for speed zones.

Charges Union Violated Law

Supreme Court Indicts UAW for Using Funds to Back Candidates

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today reinstated, 6-3, an indictment charging that the United Automobile Workers violated federal law by paying for political television broadcasts with money from the union's general fund. The broadcasts were made over station WJBK-TV in Detroit in 1954.

The government contended the broadcasts were in support of particular candidates for Congress and the payments thus violated a section of the Corrupt Practices Act.

Judge Frank A. Picard of Detroit ruled the payments were not within the meaning of the word "expenditures" as used in the law. He dismissed the indictment. Appealing directly to the Supreme Court, the Justice Department asked reinstatement of the indictment and trial of its charge in the District Court.

Justice Frankfurter delivered the majority decision for himself and Justices Reed, who heard the case argued before his retirement Burton, Clark, Harlan and Brennan. Justice Douglas wrote a dissenting opinion, joined by Chief Justice Warren and Justice Black.

Frankfurter said Picard, in dismissing the indictment, had made an erroneous interpretation of the law which prohibits labor organizations and corporations from making contributions in connection with federal elections.

Haas Finds Florida Filled to Capacity This Season

plush resorts, where they come mostly to get away from troubles at home, and reflect on them in a quiet spot, New York and other eastern states beat us out.

We were at one of those places last winter, and that's why we have to detour around that area this time.

We've called on many Pontiac people, never to eat or sleep on them, as we never travel on our friends.

We're quite impressed with those who've shown such good judgment and understanding of the situation to buy or rent winter homes in such ideal locations as the Nokomis-Venice district on the Gulf Coast.

There we found them all happy. And they should be happy, for they're living where happiness is a habit. It's contagious, and nobody's immune.

That area is so ideal that a vacant waterfront lot costs almost as much as the very substantial house you'll build on it. We know, because we priced 'em —for somebody else.

The only complaint we heard in that vicinity came from one man. With him joy is otherwise absolutely complete, except that he has not been receiving The Pontiac Press. His subscription went in by air mail.

While it is the first city of any size within the really agreeable Florida west coast climate, Fort Myers somewhat resembles St. Petersburg in its winter population.

Its royal palms are world beaters, and are its principal attraction, coupled with the Edison-Ford estates. It savors of a rusting out spot for those who can afford to get beyond St. Pete.

The Tamiami Trail, so called for Tampa and Miami, across Florida's lower section and through its Everglades, is an extremely fascinating back-to-nature drive, especially if you take the side trip from Homestead.

There you see in its native surroundings animal, bird and reptile life you hardly knew existed in our entire nation. They're even quite chummy with you, as they've learned they're protected by law.

And wild life protection means just that in Florida. Today I read of three Detroit men each paying $150 for a quail apiece.

In Pontiac today you're eating fresh strawberries, tomatoes, celery, lettuce, carrots and other vegetables grown in the Homestead area in Florida. A long train of refrigerated railroad cars leaves there every night for the north.

I saw a carload of tomatoes consigned to a Pontiac store. I scratched my initials on a tomato. If you get it, phone FE 2-8181.

They are raised in a field exactly the same size as is Oakland County township, six miles on every side, with several hundred workers, and a fleet of employe buses larger than that of the Waterford Township schools. After the day's work is completed the roadsides abound in crap shooting.

The Florida Keys, prime object of our trip, will we dealt with in our next article. As a prelude, let me say that Key West hasn't much but climate and the means of getting to it.

Talks Resume in Oil Strikes

Union Leaders Arrive in Detroit to Bargain With Socony, Standard

Negotiations were resumed in Detroit today in continued attempts to put an end to a strike of two unions at Socony Mobil Oil and Standard Oil Co.'s.

Officials of Local 11-389 of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers' International Union were in session with Standard officials this morning. Tomorrow union representatives are scheduled to confer with the Socony company.

The president and administrator of Central States Petroleum Union arrived in Detroit to begin bargaining sessions between their union and both companies.

Local 102 of CSPU, representing drivers, loaders, and warehouse men, joined Local 11-389 last Thursday in the walkout at Detroit and Pontiac area terminals. The OCAW union walked off their jobs Feb. 28.

BEGAN PICKETING

Local 102 pickets at 7:30 this morning began picketing the non-union Birmingham terminal of Standard Oil Co. This stopped all deliveries from the yard, including fuel oil supplies to the Ford Motor Co. Tractor & Implement Division plant.

Deliveries have stopped at the Pontiac Standard Oil Co. yard, while a temporary injunction issued last week in Circuit Court have opened the gates to normal business at the non-union local Socony yard, 521 S. Telegraph Rd.

Contracts have expired between the two companies and the unions. Union members are asking wage increases.

Cecile Dionne Eyes Marriage

Quint Reportedly Falls in Love, Plans Wedding Next September

TORONTO (AP)—The Toronto Telegram said in a dispatch from Montreal today that friends of Cecile Dionne report she is in love and plans to be married next September.

The story says Cecile, one of the Dionne quintuplets, and Philippe Langlois, 25, already consider themselves engaged, although they do not intend to announce it until after Cecile's examinations as a student nurse in May.

The Telegram says the announcement may come on the quints' 23rd birthday, May 28. The four surviving quintuplets, Cecile, Yvonne, Annette and Marie, share in a million-dollar trust fund. They keep house together in a suburban Montreal apartment.

The fifth quintuplet, Emilie, died in 1954.

The Telegram adds that a romance also is developing between Annette, now completing a four-year music teacher's course at Nicolet, Que., and Germain Allard, a student at the University of Montreal. It says it is understood that there will be no serious talk of marriage until he is graduated next year.

The Day in Birmingham

Reports on Problems Slated for Commission

BIRMINGHAM —Reports rather than public hearings hold the majority spot on the agenda for tonight's city commission session. City Manager, Harold D. Schone, will report on such items as alley improvement, gas service, sewage disposal authority funds and replacement of worn forestry and police department equipment.

The cost figures on municipal building remodeling also will come up for discussion.

Additional items from the manager's office include a confirmation of the appointment of the water department superintendent the proposed fire prevention code and weight control on a number of city streets.

A date will be set for the review of the annual police report and plans discussed for the placing of memorial markers in Booth and St. James Parks.

TO PRESENT REVISION

City attorney Richard M. Adams will present the proposed revision of the off-street parking ordinance stressing changes in the present rulings.

Among the new items to come before commissioners will be the request from Mrs. Geraldine Schubeck to permit the development of city-owned land as a neighborhood playground. The land is located on Bowers street at the rear of the fire station.

Painting teachers at the Community House, Mrs. Kathleen Burch and Mrs. Virginia Shafer, judged the three categories in the school student poster contest sponsored by the Community House. Judy Anderson took first place, Rod Buchanan, second and Connie Gordon, honorable mention for the high school.

From the Barnum ninth grade Ene Allik was first with Kitty Doyle second. At Holy Name School Mary Ann Stone and Judy Larkens teamed up to prepare the winning poster.

Posters designed to support the current roll-call drive are being taken from the House this week and placed in store windows throughout the community.

Mrs. Hope Lewis will review the "Big Thaw" by C. L. Sulzburger, noted New York columnist, at the Ruth Shain International Relations Class in the Community House at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Birmingham Recreation Board said skating will be on a day-to-day basis now. "If the weather permits, there will be ice; if in doubt call the Eden Park Rink," the Board spokesman commented.

Spring is arriving in the Bloomfield-Birmingham area, heralded by robins, kites, baseball games—and grass fires.

Pontiac C. of C. to Discuss Aid

Will Evaluate 15 Issues Presented in Meeting With Detroit Group

Some 15 national issues—including proposed federal aid for education—will be discussed when the Governmental Affairs Committee of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce convenes tomorrow noon.

The issues were aired Feb. 28 at a "Congressional Issues Clinic" held in Detroit and sponsored by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. Seventeen members of the Pontiac Chamber attended the clinic.

According to John W. Hirlinger, Chamber manager, the purpose of Tuesday's session is to evaluate the issues discussed and take appropriate action directed toward Congress.

Besides federal aid for education, other matters to be discussed include reduction in federal spending and questions of increasing taxation.

The proposed reduction in federal spending, Hirlinger said, is directly related to the U. S. Chamber's recommendation to President Eisenhower on how he can cut his record 1957-58 $72 billion national budget.

Judge Rules on Plea to Upset Adoption

pealed the decision to circuit court, asking for a jury to consider whether her consent was made under duress while in poor condition.

After trial Feb. 28, the jury deliberated three days and then was dismissed when it failed to reach a verdict.

Since that time, Judge Holland said, he has been deluged by phone calls, sometimes at the rate of three an hour. Many of the calls, he said, were from adoptive parents, such as the Lewises, or from mothers who had given up their children.

Ruling the evidence showed that Mrs. Hill, whose husband had died and who was without employment, was "reluctant" to give up the baby but not under duress, Judge Holland criticized the brief period that elapsed between birth and adoption.

"It would seem that such a method should be discouraged if an adoption can be procurred through a responsible placement agency working with the court," he stated.

Newspaper circulation in the U. S. has about a 120 per cent coverage, as based on the estimate of the total number of American homes.

At 81, He Keeps an Eye on Future

Pope to Observe Date of Coronation

VATICAN CITY (INS)—The future will be very much on the mind of Pope Pius XII tomorrow when he celebrates the 18th anniversary of his coronation as supreme pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church.

Vigorous and alert, the Pope shows no evidence that he became 81 years old on March 2. But he is well aware that he could die suddenly.

Therefore, there are growing indications that the Pope will call a consistory of the College of Cardinals some time this year. The cardinals are the electors of the Pope and consistries are held every few years to receive new members.

The College of Cardinals traditionally numbers 70, although there have been rumors that Pope Pius may increase the membership in view of the rise in the world's Catholic population.

At present, there are 60 cardinals, 21 of them Italians. The marked increase in the number of American Catholics has led to speculation that the number of U. S. cardinals will be raised beyond the present four.

Among those reported under consideration for the red hat are Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, auxiliary bishop of New York; Archbishop Joseph Mitty of San Francisco and Archbishop Richard Cushing of Boston.

Britain's newly-installed archbishop of Westminster, Most Rev. William Godfrey, also is believed to be in line for a cardinalate. Other new cardinals, it is believed, may be named in Japan, the Philippines, Mexico and Africa.

CLOSE TO POPE

On just about everyone's list of cardinals - to - be are two Italians who are very close to the Pope and who have frequently been mentioned as Pius' possible successor.

They are the Most Rev. Gianbattista Montini, archbishop of Milan, and Msgr. Domenico Tardini, papal pro-secretary of state.

Another event on the papal calendar is May 11, 1957, the 40th anniversary of the consecration of the Pope, then Msgr. Eugenio Pacelli, as a bishop.

AMERICAN SAINT?

For Americans, there is special interest in the possibility that the pontiff may take under consideration the movement to raise to sainthood Elizabeth Ann Seto, foundress of the American Sisters of Charity. She would be the first person born in the U. S. to be canonized.

The Pope also will be busy planning the centenary observance of the first apparition, on Feb. 11, 1858, of the Blessed Virgin at Lourdes, France. The pontiff unquestionably will take a personal hand in considering a personal visit to Lourdes during the centenary.

Safecracker Not Safe

MONTREAL (AP)—Police believe a bungling job of safecracking caused the fire that destroyed a whole block of century-old buildings here last week. In the debris they found a looted safe that had been opened with an acetylene torch.

Everyday uses of nuclear energy were featured at the U. S. exhibit at the Napoes, Itayly, International Samples Fair this year.

Hal Boyle Says:

Housewife Bakes Path to Success

NORWALK, Conn. (AP) — Mrs. Margaret Rudkin, a self-baked millionaire, has a simple answer to the problems of the world's most frustrated woman—the middle-aged American housewife.

"Start your own business," she says.

"Women ought to have more courage about going into business for themselves. A woman is under no particular handicap. In some fields—the food field in particular—she has a distinct advantage."

Mrs. Rudkin, now one of the nation's best known businesswomen, became a success because 20 years ago she kneaded some dough—and kept kneading more and more of it.

Doing the unexpected has been characteristic of her all her life. As a young girl, blue-eyed, freckle-faced, red-haired Margaret Fogarty dreamed of becoming a famous newspaperwoman.

"I wanted to become another Nelly Bly, and travel around the world writing about its wonders," she recalled.

Instead, after studying journalism and finance at Columbia University, she wound up in Wall Street selling stocks and bonds. Then a stock-broker, Henry Rudkin, sold her on another proposition—marriage.

In 1937 Mrs. Rudkin, by then installed in a big stone manor house on a 300-acre estate near here, had become just another in the legion of suburban housewives, busy caring for her husband and three sons. Her business career seemed over.

One night she baked some whole wheat bread by an old recipe and a guest remarked, "it's so good you ought to market it."

Mrs. Rudkin went into her kitchen a few days later, got out her baby scales to weigh the dough, and began baking bread. She toted the first load in a basket to a grocery store, which agreed to stock it.

But the project seemed hopeless. Times were still bad.

"A 20-ounce loaf of bread then was selling for a dime," said Mrs. Rudkin. "I had to charge a quarter for a 22-ounce loaf."

But her stone-ground whole-wheat bread, named after the Rudkin estate, "Pepperidge Farm," caught on quickly. She moved from the kitchen to the barn, set up machinery, hired neighbor women to help her, and by the end of the year was turning out 4,000 loaves a week.

In the last two decades Mrs. Rudkin—joined in the enterprise by her financier husband and two of her sons—has baked nearly half a billion loaves, enough to provide a ham sandwich for every person on earth—if they had the ham.

Today the firm markets several kinds of bread, rolls, stuffing and cookies. It has seven plants, 500 employes, world-wide distribution, and will do a business this year of over $15,000,000.

At an age when her own grandmother was content to sit in a rocker, Mrs. Rudkin, who has four grandchildren, still guides company policy, knows where practically every loaf goes. She also finds time to collect art, decorate a new estate the family has bought in Ireland, and help employes with their personal problems.

She feels any middle-aged woman with initiative can make a success in business today.

"It is perhaps a mistake for a mother with very young children to try combine a career and marriage—unless she is an exceptional person and has a cooperative husband," she said. "But often, I think, it is a mistake for a middle-aged woman not go into business for herself.

"She will find the qualities needed by a good housewife are the same as those demanded by a business in the food field. And any woman who has brought up a family of kids should know how to get along with people, and handle personnel.

"Is business life too difficult or a housewife? No, I don't think so. It takes a bit of doing, but as the old Irish saying goes, 'God broadens the back to bear the burden.' Certainly in the last 20 years he's broadened mine."

House Republicans Ready School Bill

LANSING (AP) — A group of House Republicans is getting ready to bring in a bill for a 20 million dollar supplemental appropriation for school aid purposes.

The bill, which probably will be filed Monday or Tuesday by Rep. Allison H. Green of Kingston, Republican floor leader, would call for that much out of the general revenue fund to carry the state aid program through June 30.

One legislator who signed the bill said between 20 and 30 Republican members were expected to join in sponsorship.

This kind of support usually is a promising indication of early and favorable consideration.

The Senate has a Democratic-sponsored school aid bill for 17 million dollars but has done nothing with it.

Gov. Williams has come out for tiding over local schools with general fund monies for the current fiscal year, but there has been talk against this among majority Republicans in the Senate.

Plan Sweeping Probe Into Airline Interests

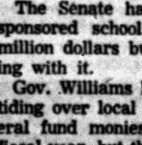

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Civil sweeping investigation of Pan American World Airways' financial interest in 13 other airlines and 14 other businesses.

The Board said yesterday the "broad review of the financial aspects of the relationships" will show if there is anything "adverse to the public interest."

The order listed one airline owned outright by Pan American and 11 in which it owns 20 to 50 per cent interests. One was included because of past affiliation.

The order said Pan American had "financial interest" in 14 other concerns ranging from airports to hotels.

The Board currently is conducting an investigation of the "leak" of a secret audit of Pan Am's books which was published by a trade paper. The article alleged that the airline collected excessive government subsidies because of its financial arrangements with subsidiaries.

Kennan Would Amend U.S. Policy

NEW YORK (INS) — This is part one of a talk with George F. Kennan, former U. S. ambassador to the Soviet Union and chief architect of the Truman-Eisenhower "containment" policy toward the U. S. S. R.

Kennan, a bald, scholarly native of Milwaukee, entered the Foreign Service in 1926 and held a variety of diplomatic posts before his appointment to Moscow in 1952. He is Permanent Professor of the School of Historical Studies and the Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton and has just been appointed George Eastman visiting professor at Oxford.

On containment — "The doctrine is responding to my best hopes. But we must be wise, and, above all, patient. Communism isn't static. It is subject to evolution, like all other things. We will always be presented with opportunities, beyond the H-bomb, for making life livable on this planet.

"We need to remain strong, of course. But perhaps here and there we've overdone the matter of military strength. I don't think for example, that we need so many bases in friendly or neutral countries. Low cement barriers across likely landing places might suffice in, let us say, Iceland. I don't consider this an extremely Liberal view. Gen. MacArthur operated this way in securing the Pacific.

"I don't think foreign soldiers—and we're the foreigners, you must remember — are ever popular for any length of time."

World War III—"There's nothing inevitable about a third world war. It's just that when there's so much stress placed on atomic arsenals, and means of delivery, people begin to think war is indeed inevitable.

"I think we've convinced the Russians, or they've convinced their own people, that we intend to take after them.

"I'm happy the Middle East resolution passed. It was wise of the Congress to give President Eisenhower what he wished. But I do think that it was an unnecessary action. Why confine it to the Middle East? If Russia moves anywhere across a frontier—with the possible exception of Afghanistan—it would mean war.

"Russia is not going to attack in the Middle East, or even send so-called volunteers. That was just a smart thing to threaten at the times.

"They have more problems than they can handle. I think we underestimate the colossal task of ruling a great multi-national empire. A lot of us think of the people in the Kremlin pushing a button and enforcing iron discipline from one end of the empire to the other. There's something called human nature that obstructs that kind of regimentation. Human nature is onery, obstinate, irritatble, courageous—as witness the events in Hungary."

Tourist Survey Eyed for State

Study Would Be Aid in Forming Programs, Says Council Official

LANSING (AP)—A proposal for a new survey of Michigan's vacation industry will be considered at a meeting of the Michigan Tourist Council tomorrow in Detroit.

"We know the tourist business trend is up," said Robert J. Furlong, council executive secretary, "but beyond that we must rely too much on projections of past surveys and past business."

It has been suggested that the study be conducted by the Bureau of Business Research at Michigan State University, which conducted similar surveys in 1947 and 1952.

"Such a study, coupled with a national vacation survey now being conducted by the bureau of census, would provide Michigan with a new and realistic foundation of statistics to help guide us in formulating future vacation promotional programs," Furlong said.

The council also will review its newspaper, magazine, radio and television advertising programs for spring and summer and will consider a proposal for state-wide distribution of "Welcome to Michigan" buttons as part of the observance of Michigan Hospital Day on May 21.

Two Suits Left: One He Wears, Divorce Case

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Until last Thursday night Harold W. Hester had 12 suits of clothing but he told Superior Court recently that now only two suits were left, viz: The one he was wearing, and the pending divorce suit with his wife, Renola.

Hester brought the other 11 suits of clothing to court. All were slashed and ruined. He said Renola did it.

She denied it and insisted she merely dropped by his Gardena home to discuss something unrelated to the divorce. Before it was settled police had been called, however.

"I don't feel that this is a case for reconciliation," commented Superior Judge Elmer D. Doyle. "But leave each other alone."

Hester was ordered to pay $50 monthly temporary alimony pending trial of the divorce suit.

Bogus Medic Asks Jail Time to Earn Degree

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A bogus Army surgeon who wanted to stay in prison long enough to finish a correspondence course in engineering is going to have almost time enough to get a college degree.

Frank Purness, 35-year-old Chicago truck driver now in the federal penitentiary at Terre Haute, Ind., pleaded guilty in Federal Court yesterday to impersonating a federal officer and transporting stolen goods.

When Judge William E. Stickler sentenced him to six more months in prison Purness said:

"You'd think I'm crazy, sir, but I'd like to stay there another year so I can finish a correspondence course in industrial engineering. I couldn't afford to complete it if I were on the outside.

The judge sentenced Purness to 11 years, with the three-year term starting in May when the current two-year term ends.

Federal officials said Purness left Chicago in his laundry truck in 1955 and took a 10,000-mile trip marked by a long series of worthless checks, a bigamous marriage and an amazing impersonation of an Army surgeon.

They said his knowledge of medical language was so extensive that he talked his way into the operating room at the Niles City, Mont., Veterans Administration hospital. He was arrested on a check charge later in Crossette, Ark.

Retirement in Florida Up for Dearborn Vote

DETROIT (AP) — The Dearborn City Council has approved an April 1 city vote on a charter amendment to allow the suburb to establish a retirement village in Florida.

The council action follows a decision by Circuit Judge Horace W. Gilmore to allow the city to vote on the issue.

The city wants to establish a community in Florida for retired residents of the city of Dearborn.

Jack Gilford recalls a husband-wife duel in which the husband, about to lose his temper, warned, "Careful, you'll bring out the beast in me." "Go ahead," sneered his wife. Hal Boyle Says:

Housewife Bakes Path to Success

NORWALK, Conn. (AP) — Mrs. Margaret Rudkin, a self-baked millionaire, has a simple answer to the problems of the world's most frustrated woman—the middle-aged American housewife.

"Start your own business," she says.

"Women ought to have more courage about going into business for themselves. A woman is under no particular handicap. In some fields—the food field in particular—she has a distinct advantage."

Mrs. Rudkin, now one of the nation's best known businesswomen, became a success because 20 years ago she kneaded some dough—and kept kneading more and more of it.

Doing the unexpected has been characteristic of her all her life. As a young girl, blue-eyed, freckle-faced, red-haired Margaret Fogarty dreamed of becoming a famous newspaperwoman.

"I wanted to become another Nelly Bly, and travel around the world writing about its wonders," she recalled.

Instead, after studying journalism and finance at Columbia University, she wound up in Wall Street selling stocks and bonds. Then a stock-broker, Henry Rudkin, sold her on another proposition—marriage.

In 1937 Mrs. Rudkin, by then installed in a big stone manor house on a 300-acre estate near here, had become just another in the legion of suburban housewives, busy caring for her husband and three sons. Her business career seemed over.

One night she baked some whole wheat bread by an old recipe, and a guest remarked, "it's so good you ought to market it."

Mrs. Rudkin went into her kitchen a few days later, got out her baby scales to weigh the dough, and began baking bread. She toted the first load in a basket to a grocery store, which agreed to stock it.

But the project seemed hopeless. Times were still bad.

"A 20-ounce loaf of bread then was selling for a dime," said Mrs. Rudkin. "I had to charge a quarter for a 22-ounce loaf."

But her stone-ground whole-wheat bread, named after the Rudkin estate, "Pepperidge Farm," caught on quickly. She moved from the kitchen to the barn, set up machinery, hired neighbor women to help her, and by the end of the year was turning out 4,000 loaves a week.

In the last two decades Mrs. Rudkin—joined in the enterprise by her financier husband and two of her sons—has baked nearly half a billion loaves, enough to provide a ham sandwich for every person on earth—if they had the ham.

Today the firm markets several kinds of bread, rolls, stuffing and cookies. It has seven plants, 500 employes, world-wide distribution, and will do a business this year of over $15,000,000.

At an age when her own grandmother was content to sit in a rocker, Mrs. Rudkin, who has four grandchildren, still guides company policy, knows where practically every loaf goes. She also finds time to collect art, decorate a new estate the family has bought in Ireland, and help employes with their personal problems.

She feels any middle-aged woman with initiative can make a success in business today.

"It is perhaps a mistake for a mother with very young children to try combine a career and marriage—unless she is an exceptional person and has a cooperative husband," she said. "But often, I think, it is a mistake for a middle-aged woman not 'go into business for herself.

"She will find the qualities needed by a good housewife are the same as those demanded by a business in the food field. And any woman who has brought up a family of kids should know how to get along with people, and handle personnel.

"Is business life too difficult or a housewife? No, I don't think so. It takes a bit of doing, but as the old Irish saying goes, 'God broadens the back to bear the burden.' Certainly in the last 20 years he's broadened mine."

House Republicans Ready School Bill

LANSING (AP) — A group of House Republicans is getting ready to bring in a bill for a 20 million dollar supplemental appropriation for school aid purposes.

The bill, which probably will be filed Monday or Tuesday by Rep. Allison H. Green of Kingston, Republican floor leader, would call for that much out of the general revenue fund to carry the state aid program through June 30.

One legislator who signed the bill said between 20 and 30 Republican members were expected to join in sponsorship.

This kind of support usually is a promising indication of early and favorable consideration.

The Senate has a Democratic-sponsored school aid bill for 17 million dollars but has done nothing with it.

Gov. Williams has come out for tiding over local schools with general fund monies for the current fiscal year, but there has been talk against this among majority Republicans in the Senate.

Freeway Dispute Calls for City's United Action

On Friday, The Press presented five important problems which this area faces.

This is truly a formative period in the development of the City and County. Some of the decisions we make now will have an influence that lasts far into the future. Therefore, they must be reached with prudence and wisdom. The location of the new road through Oakland County and the City of Pontiac can have far reaching effects.

If we secure Federal approval, eighteen of the twenty million dollars construction cost will come from Federal funds. Can we possibly afford to ignore this? We will be taxed sharply for our share of the nation's total. There is no escaping that. Therefore, we must secure our own share back.

With other communities qualifying, Oakland County can not delay too long or wait until the door is closed. Otherwise, we pay but never collect.

The subject falls into two categories: where should the road pass through the County proper; and where should it pass through Pontiac.

The Oakland County Planning Commission has studied the entire picture and recommends that it pass through the city a few blocks west of Saginaw Street. This route has been approved by the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce and by the Downtown Pontiac Association.

No other organizations have a greater stake in the road. Both of them are vitally concerned. Who else has as big an investment in what happens?

Downtown merchants believe that this highway will assist them in combating declining revenues. If the income of downtown Pontiac lessens permanently, the valuation of the property will shrink accordingly. Re-assessments on lower levels will follow.

The proposed highway would provide for rapid traffic through the city for those who do not wish to stop, and make it easier for those who want to come to shop.

Certainly there may be flaws. The proposed route may disrupt traffic on some streets. There will have to be adjustments. But everyone agrees that ANY NEW ROAD through Pontiac will cause some inconvenience somewhere.

It becomes a case of selecting the route that causes the least damage and then going ahead.

The Press believes the City must unite and then move forward. Study, investigation and planning are essential and necessary. But continuous delays and a do-nothing policy will defeat all ends. The counties and cities that move will succeed.

The recommended roadway looks logical, practical and it has important backing.

'In's' May Be Ousted if Budget Isn't Pared

According to our Washington sources, the "mail from back home" continues to pour into the District of Columbia.

By and large, letter writers do not "take pen in hand" to give forth with warm encomiums for jobs well done. Rather, they propose to take someone or something apart—and how.

The current budget alone has flooded both the Senate and the House Office Buildings with vigorous and earnest denunciations of practically everything pertaining to spending.

The voters want economy.

They want it now.

Also, they link the titanic government outgo with threats of inflation and this is a major bugaboo in the country at the moment. Of course, the continuous round of wage increases which the unions have been demanding will never let costs cease rising.

Interestingly enough, in the midst of this welter of protest, many individual writers take time out to approve of the highway program and additional funds for schools. The big need for these is apparent. The need for additional pabulum for our world allies isn't nearly as well established.

In the end, when enough unite, the people make their points stick. Sometimes it takes another election and an application of the old business of tossing the "in's" into the discard. But when the people get sufficiently wrathy, their might is tremendous.

If the Eisenhower budget isn't trimmed substantially, some of the Washington boys are going to be answering questions until they surrender to their keepers and go quietly.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Accomplish 50 Per Cent More

Martha's problem is duplicated in literally millions of homes. So scrapbook this case record and follow the "agenda" plan outlined below. Also, have your children send for the "Tests for Teenagers" so they can learn how to become better players on your family team. Then you can all accomplish 50 per cent more.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case U-325: Martha G., aged 34, is the mother of three children.

"But, Dr. Crane, I get so discouraged," she began, "at my failure to accomplish my daily quota of work.

"By the time I get breakfast and the children off to school, I hardly have time to clean up the house before they are home again.

"Then the process must be repeated. And at the end of the day, I am dead tired, yet my house is a mess and I have dozens of critical chores still facing me.

"It seems I am always fighting a losing battle. What can I do to increase my output per day?"

DO MORE

Housewives have the hardest job in the world, and also put in longer work weeks than any other type of employe.

For a woman is generally on duty 12 hours per day and seven days per week, so she averages an 84-hour work week.

Futhermore, Sundays and holidays, instead of being times of rest, are often her heaviest, for the children and even the grandchildren then barge in and expect Thanksgiving dinners.

But everybody can increase his output by approximately 50 percent just by applying modern efficiency engineering to his duties.

First of all, make an "agenda" (written list) of your tasks for tomorrow. Include big items like the laundry, plus smaller chores such as washing the breakfast dishes.

Post this agenda in the kitchen, where you can gleefully cross out each task as soon as you complete it.

This agenda is a reminder so when you get flustered and don't know what you should do next, just look at the written list on the wall and tackle an item that hasn't yet been crossed off.

TEAM-UP WITH MAMMA

If children are old enough to go to school, they should be diligently trained to work as members of the family team.

This means they should make their own beds and hang up their own clothes. They should polish their shoes and straighten the top of their dresser.

When they brush their teeth, they should clean the mirror of the flecks of toothpaste. And they should hang up their towels and wash cloths.

It is very unfair to mother to leave her the tasks of making three or four beds and tidying-up that many bedrooms.

Her own bedroom is her responsibility, but every child above kindergarden age should be responsible for his own bedroom and similar personal duties.

On a Pullman train, everybody who uses the wash basin is supposed to clean it thoroughly for the next person. It is wise to adapt some of this Pullman car policy to the average home.

TEST FOR TEEN-AGERS

In my "Test for Teen-Agers" I have a long list of the proper duties that all self-reliant young folks should be doing.

But this test is adaptable to all youngsters who are old enough to read, so I recommend that you send for a copy, enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

Then you children can rate yourselves thereon to see if you are carrying your normal load in the family.

Many schools also employ it to encourage children to be better players on their family team.

While you mothers operate from your daily agenda, let your kids rate themselves on this "Test for Teen-Agers." You'll all accomplish 50 per cent more.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Use Instantaneous Emetic for Croup or Emergency

"When I was a very small child," relates Mrs. O.F.K., who certainly does not agree with me when I say croup is never fatal, "I had a bad attack of croup. If my mother had not administered kerosene I certainly would not have been here to tell the story. I threw up a hard mass or ball of phlegm, and it stands to reason I would have choked to death . . ."

BRADY

Kerosene is not so poisonous as gasoline, naptha, benzine, or carbon tetrachloride, but nevertheless kerosene poisoning may occur if the kerosene swallowed accidently or intentionally is not removed, by vomiting or by stomach tube or "pump."

Spasmodic croup or "catarrhal" croup, as it was called in horse and buggy days, is comparatively rare today, for these reasons:

1. Because infants and young children today get more calcium and vitamin D.

2. Because most people know that CRI (any common respiratory infection) is communicable, and so they try to keep out of the range of cough, sneeze and conversation spray.

3. Because young children are not so much coddled with excessive clothing and overheated living and sleeping rooms.

IPECAC TOO SLOW

In any case the best first aid for croup is a good emetic — one the child cant keep down. A teaspoonful of Syrup of Ipecac is traditional for a baby, but is slower than all outdoors. It may take 10 to 15 minutes to produce vomiting.

It is hard enough to wait 10 minutes when the child is struggling for air. It is intolerable in an emergency when you believe the child has swallowed poison.

Try an emetic which is almost instantaneous — copper sulfate. For a young infant one grain of copper sulfate dissolved in a teaspoonful of water. For an older child or an adult four grains dissolved in a tablespoonful of water. (Jacobi's Therapeutics of Infancy and Childhood, Lippincott '95.)

I tried this quick emetic first on our own baby. One day she crept into the office, knocked down a vial of corrosive sublimate (bi-chloride of mercury) and her mother found her sitting happily eating the tablets.

In my emergency bag was a small vial of copper sulfate solution ready for just such use. The baby emptied her stomach the instant after the solution hit botton.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

African Future May Rest With New Land of Ghana

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Ghana, a new and independent state almost the size of Oregon, entered the family of nations last week.

Why all the international fuss over this development?

One answer is that only a few score years ago the area which came to be known as the Gold Coast was a wild, primitive area. It was the white man's grave—but the white man persisted in extracting black slaves, gold and other resources.

Now Ghana is the first African state to achieve independence within the British Commonwealth, and success or failure of the venture will have an impact on the future of the rich African continent.

The British themselves are aiding in the international festivities marking the birth of Ghana. In one sense it is their answer to the repeated cries of "Colonialism" by Red sloganeers.

Emergence of Ghana fulfills a proclaimed main aim of British colonial policy—to guide backward colonial territories to responsible, self-government within the commonwealth.

In recent years the Gold Coast has been moving rapidly toward this attainment. It was granted a constitution in 1950 which provided for government by a cabinet of ministers responsible to an elected legislative assembly. But Britain "reserved" rights in defense, foreign affairs, finance and justice.

There also were a number of "special members" representing various interests who were nominated by the legislative assembly.

In 1954 the special members disappeared, and last year elections confirmed definitely the position of Prime Minister Kwame Nkrumah's government.

Nkrumah (pronounced en-kroo'-mah), a former bush boy educated in an English mission school, studied in the United States and Britain, led the independence movement. He toyed with Marxism once, was jailed by the British and became a national hero.

On this 47-year-old Negro leader a heavy responsibility descended as the green, gold and red flag of Ghana arose in Accra, the new nation's capital.

'Teenager' Suggests Drills Rather Than Just Sirens

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

While I write this, the air raid siren is going, and do you know what the people are doing? They're walking and driving up and down the street as if nothing were going on. I don't think they'd know what to do if a bomb had been dropped and the siren warning were real.

Drills are what we need, so that people will know what to do and where to go for shelter in case something should happen. Why don't we start holding drills like other cities?

'What if Postmen Worked in Shop?'

Now wouldn't it be just dandy if all postmen worked in the shops? Shopworker's wife wouldn't get her mail, and I'll bet she'd be the first to complain.

Shopworkers come in droves to work at the post office when they are laid off, but they sure leave fast enough when called back. Postal workers are skilled workers and must study a lot on their own time. They must take an examination each year. After all, postmen are needed and we can't all be factory workers.

Many employes have left for better paying jobs. It costs just as much for mailmen to live as for anyone. Why begrudge them a living wage just because their work is a service?

'God Would O. K. House Cleaning'

A letter in The Press signed S. says we shouldn't destroy those pigeons for God would watch the act as He sees every sparrow fall. Well, He may see every fish that's caught in the sea, but if He does, He witnessed His own Son catching and eating them. There's a place for everything and that means there's a place for pigeons, but downtown Pontiac doesn't happen to be the spot.

Personally, I think the Lord would approve of cleaning up our downtown district and consigning those pigeons to everlasting extinction. I think He would frown on our shoddy housekeeping.

Another S.

Teenager Defends Pontiac Pigeons

I'm a teenager and in a sense know just how those pigeons feel, always being run down for things other teenagers (or pigeons) do. They have just as much right to be here as you, "Big Cruel Man." I think it's downright inhuman, so think it over.

Angry Teenager

'Put Sympathy in Right Place'

Put your sympathy where it belongs, "Mother of 9," with the children. What foresight, planning or love went into bringing those 12 children into today's world? You forget this woman burned a child and tied her to a bed, the children were dirty and unkempt, running around with no parents to protect them. Some management. Is this your idea of motherly love? I think the children will find help and kindness where they are, and I'm sure the judge was qualified to do what was best. I can see how "Mother of 9" would have compassion for a mother of 12, but not in this case.

'Grateful Family' Praises Welfare

Recently due to circumstances beyond my control, my family had to get aid from the Welfare and all I can say is thank God for such places and the very understanding and sympathetic people there.

I had to go through all kinds of red tape and waiting, but if that "all important woman" were not so sharp and strict, a lot of slackers would get aid and needy people would suffer. That woman and everyone in that office know just what they're doing. They hear hard luck stories every day, and it isn't easy to weed out those who are too lazy to work.

As for waiting, if you're really in need, you'll be glad to wait. Time is about the only thing you have or you would not need Welfare aid. If it weren't for those people, my family and others would be in a very sorry mess.

I want "in" on this pigeon debate. I have a very great misfortune with one of them on the corner of Saginaw and Huron. Should I send my dry cleaning bill to the City of Pontiac or the Board of Supervisors: It wasn't just the cost that bothers me, as you can well imagine. Have I a suit for damages?

Nautilus to Get Fuel Booster

See New Nuclear Core as Boon to Performance of Atomic Sub

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy says its atomic-powered submarine Nautilus is getting a new nuclear core embodying technical advances "which will greatly expand the fuel performance."

The first U. S. atomic vessel logged a spectacular 60,000 miles in two years on its first fuel charge. The Nautilus first sailed Jan. 17, 1955 and recently returned for refueling.

The Electric Boat Division of General Dynamics Corp., at Groton, Conn., said the fuel used in the submarine would represent a lump of uranium smaller than a light bulb.

The Navy has not disclosed how much uranium was used, but it said a conventional submarine traveling 60,000 miles would have required 22½ million pounds of oil —or the equivalent of 300 loaded tank cars.

In one test, the Navy said, the Nautilus traveled underwater from Key West, Fla., to Long Island, N. Y., in two days, averaging 20 knots for the 1,217-mile trip. This was 10 times farther than any sub had ever traveled under water without surfacing, the Navy added.

Cut Spending, People Cry, but Not Our Pet Subsidies!

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — This seems to be the era of "buck-passing" in government.

The executive says to Congress: "You cut the budget."

The Congress says to the President: "You cut the budget."

The American people say: "You —both Congress and the President —cut the budget.

LAWRENCE

But don't touch our pet projects —our agricultural subsidies, our business subsidies, our social security subsidies, our school lunches, our highway subsidies, and all the other things that make it possible for us in this community to get our share of the money that's being spent."

But whose responsibility really is it to cut the budget? The Constitution gives the President the power to "recommend" but not to legislate. The Constitution says:

"No money shall be drawn from the treasury, but in consequence of appropriations made by law."

This means that the final decision is up to Congress. But when Congress tackles the job what does it find? First, that 63 per cent of the total budget is for national security—assurance of survival in an atomic age.

FIXED BY CONGRESS

Next, 25 per cent of the budget is for programs fixed by Congress in laws passed in previous years. This includes veterans' benefits, agricultural price supports, soil bank payments, grants to the states for welfare payments and interest on the federal debt.

Thus we have 88 per cent in these two categories alone and, as the secretary of the treasury, George Humphrey, explained it in a speech in Detroit last week, "This leaves but 12 per cent of federal spending in which there is some elasticity in the opportunity to save money."

In actual totals this 12 per cent is a sum of $8.6 billions. It cannot all be eliminated. Mr. Humphrey says: "It therefore becomes quite obvious that while some savings can always be made by ferreting out waste, extravagance and duplication, the really substantial reductions in government spending can come only from changes in programs. These programs now in effect by decision of the Congress can be changed only by new decisions of the Congress.

WORK CLOSELY

"The executive branch must, of course, work closely with the Congress to arrive at the best judgments as to what the various programs must provide for. That is exactly what the Eisenhower administration is currently doing with the Congress in this campaign which has received so much public notice recently in searching to find ways and means of reconsidering existing programs so as to make substantial reductions in government spending without either impairing our security or the necessary services to be rendered the public . . .

"Whose job is it to cut federal spending? It is everybody's job. It needs the active support—not just the approval—of the public. Basically, it is the job of the American people, for it is with the people—at the thousands of crossroads over the nation—that the pressures for spending begin.

"A group of people who want some assistance or who get into trouble of some kind, turn to the federal government for help on the mistaken theory that money from the federal government does not cost anybody anything. The pressures applied are well known and are visible in Washington every day . . .

PUBLIC EDUCATION

"We need a campaign of public education so that the public will better understand the facts of life about federal spending. They must realize that there is no bottomless well of unlimited money in Washington . . .

"There is all too prevalent an attitude of 'getting our cut so long as everyone else is getting theirs.' "

The current budget can be cut by perhaps two or three billions —which is something. But what is more important is to prevent the budget from going even higher next year.

This is everybody's job which means the electorate really has to keep informed so that political demagoguery doesn't produce a rivalry in spending for welfare purposes and exploitation on the stump by one political party of the cuts made by the other party.

Mr. Eisenhower isn't going to run for office again but the Republican Party in Congress faces an election in 1958.

It can be defeated once more as it was in 1956 in the West because the Democrats deliberately blamed low farm prices in the failure of the Republicans to spend more money to subsidize agriculture. Only last week the Democrats were trying to push upward in Congress the soil bank payments despite all the talk about cutting the federal budget. It's the uninformed or short-sighted, selfish voter who really is responsible for past failures to cut the budget.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both— Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Save an extra nickel out of every dollar

—to help keep prices from going higher

Don't let anyone tell you that living costs have to keep climbing. We can check inflation.

One of the main causes of rising prices is overspending. If each of us will save only an extra nickel out of every dollar we earn, we will put a strong brake on inflation.

For this will produce billions of dollars in savings—money which is urgently needed to finance more factories, homes and schools.

And, of course, you get a personal bonus from your extra savings—the feeling of independence and security that a growing nest egg brings . . . the feeling that your house is in order.

As a second step to fight inflation, all of us should support every reasonable move to reduce government spending—federal, state and local.

Sure, all this means a sacrifice. But isn't it worth it, if this means continuing our prosperity—and keeping it sound?

Find Answers and Pot-O-Gold Money's Yours

Three hundred dollars are waiting for some lucky winner who figures out the right solution to this week's puzzle (that is, if there's no winner for last week's Pot-O-Gold). And subscribers get a bonus of $25. Check the clue words, solution clues and rules carefully. Then send us your answer. The money may be yours.

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

Disease of Laziness Thrives on Sun and Rum

'Panamania' Victims Scorn Ambition

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

PANAMA CITY (INS) — Of all the psychotic diseases which pierce the brain of modern man, none is more injurious to the system than "Panamania." When one contracts Panamania, his sense of system quickly withers away, along with his sense of time, of place, of action.

He becomes, in fact, a beachcomber who lives primarily on salt tablets and the salt of the earth. The only thing he inclines to worry about is why he isn't worrying about anything.

"They tell me that to hurry is normal in most of the civilized world," said one Panamaniac connected with the local government, "and I suppose that makes us abnormal. But if nobody minds, I'll save that problem for manana. Hurrying around here would upset the lack of routine."

As a resident of the rushing, pushing land of New York City, one at first finds it difficult to adjust to the laziness. Almost as difficult as did a buccaneer named Henry Morgan, who arrived in Panama in 1668, overloaded with energy.

Morgan literally set the town afire, leaving some of the most colorful rubble this side of Rome. What's left standing now is called "Old Panama" and is intact to charm U.S. tourists who particularly dote on old ruins."

"You see what energy gets you?" pointed out the Panamaniac . . . "A picturesque nuthin'."

It was some time after the pirate sacked the town before this city found the energy to rebuild, and an overall poverty—both physical and spiritual—saddened the isthmus. Many crude huts, now occupied by 20-member families, still shudder in the trade winds as reminders of that post-pirate period.

Then, in the 1840's, a man named Marshall found gold in his California backyard and the picture changed. With the gold rush, East Coast folks in the U.S. had to get to California to make a killing—without being killed by untamed Indians en route.

Since the Midwest was laden with scalp-devotees, thousands chose to sail down to Panama and cross to the Pacific by mule team.

Panama became famous as the safe route to the bountiful West, and in 1850 it was decided that a railroad must be built across the isthmus. Workmen were imported from various parts of the world to do the job.

Under the influence of a hot climate and too much energy output, however, they fell down on the job. Dead. The Irish workers couldn't stand the heat and were sent home.

The Chinese who came to replace them were afflicted with malaria and yellow fever, and great numbers resorted to opium to soothe their suffering. Crazed by the narcotic, they committed suicide—hundreds hanging themselves by night or burying themselves under the hot sands by day.

BUILT ON BONES

Finally, by the time the railroad was completed, 25,000 men had died in the job; and it was said that the Panama Railroad was built, not on wooden ties, but on human bones.

"It does not pay to be too ambitious," moralized the Panamaniac, "in the sun."

The story of the building of the Panama Canal, another ambitious undertaking, is renowned. It took more than 34 years, cost thousands of lives. Its designer, Ferdinand de Lesseps, lost his mind over setbacks during the project.

"Progress," says the Panamaniac, "is the root of most evil."

Today Panama City has been relieved of its dangers from malaria and yellow fever. It probably would be difficult even to locate opium.

How did it come about—Panamania being such a contagious contamination, leading to a mass indigence of industry?

"Some people, a very few, are immune to sun and rum," yawned the stricken one. Makes me tired to think about it . . .

Russia Salutes Women Workers With Time Off

MOSCOW (AP) — Women, who work as hard as any man in the Soviet union, were given half a day off today as part of the celebration of "International Women's Day."

They attended parties, concerts and lectures in their honor. For two days the Soviet government and the Communist party have been showering them with congratulations. Their husbands gave them gifts.

The newspaper Soviet Russia marked the occasion by commenting: "The working women of America need neither brains nor education. The American monopolists have reduced them to the role of cogs in a conveyor belt."

In all probability you feel—as we do—that you know a goodly number of things about him.

First of all, we would be willing to venture that he is a man who holds to high standards of achievement.

We would guess that he is held in high personal esteem by his friends and associates.

And we would suppose that he is a practical man who is keenly aware of the basic value and worth of the things around him.

The reason for all this is not far to seek.

For the motor car that awaits him at the curbside bears the beautiful crest of Cadillac. And here, beyond conjecture, is the most eloquent spokesman in all the realm of possessions.

In fact, the Cadillac car has, over the years, been so closely associated with the leading citizenry of our land that the two have become all but inseparable in the public mind.

And just as these many distinguished motorists have placed their trust in Cadillac, so Cadillac has given them everything they could hope for in an automobile.

Cadillac has given them unduplicated beauty and luxury . . . unsurpassed performance and comfort and ease of handling . . . and extraordinary quality.

PIPE THIS — Pictured here is a true collector's item—the pipe, not the girl. She's model Diane Danigellis, displaying a magnificently hand-carved German meerschaum pipe. The masterpiece, valued at $5,000, was formerly owned by Emperor Franz Joseph, of Austria-Hungary. The carving, which took 12 years, depicts a battle between the Austrian army and the Turks. It is one of 4,000 antique pipes put on display by a Chicago tobacconist, Stanley B. Levi, to celebrate his firm's 100th anniversary.

Hoped to See Chest of Toys Aboard

Mayflower II Disappoints Children of Southampton

SOUTHAMPTON, England (AP)—Town Clerk Norman Schofield says the Southampton schoolchildren are bitterly disappointed that the Mayflower II won't put in here on her voyage to America this spring.

The sailing ship, an approximation of the original, will leave Plymouth, England, for Plymouth, Mass., around April 19. She is a gift from Britain to the American people.

Originally the ship was to stop here to take aboard a treasure chest of articles made by the children. Backers of the project say now there is no time for the Southampton call.

Schofield said the children have been working for months making toys, dolls and other things to go into the Mayflower II's treasure chest.

"We wanted to show America the kind of things we do in our schools here," he said. "It was going to be a big thrill for our children, seeing the chest taken aboard just as the Pilgrim Fathers' chests were taken aboard the real Mayflower here back in 1620."

The clerk was not consoled because the chest now will be shipped up to Plymouth for loading aboard the ship and delivery to Mass.

"It won't be the same thing," he said. "The children were all going to dress up in 17th century costumes."

Mayor Kitty Cawte of Southampton joined in the protest. She said the whole trip will lose its significance if Southampton is bypassed.

"After all," she said, "the Pilgrim Fathers did sail from here. We understood this ship was going to sail along the original route."

The original Mayflower and her sister ship, the Speedwell, came to England from Holland, then sailed from Southampton. They put into Plymouth when the Speedwell was declared unseaworthy. The Speedwell's passengers were loaded aboard the Mayflower, and the voyage that made history was resumed Sept. 6, 1620.

CONSTIPATED?

new laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks

without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon. A "thrifty" colon is one that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

TO REGAIN NORMAL REGULARITY two things are necessary. First, the dry, shrunken contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE it and so, excite its muscles to action; to a normal urge to purge.

ONLY A BULK LAXATIVE can 1) re-moisten this dry, shrunken waste and 2) supply vital bulk to re-create a normal urge to purge. And, of all bulk laxatives, COLONAID, the amazing new lavative discovery is so effective that it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, yet is so smooth, so gentle it has been proved safe even for women in the most critical stages of pregnancy.

SUPERIOR TO OLD STYLE bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; does not interfere with your absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; and in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other side reactions.

IT'S A PHYSIOLOGICAL FACT: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Whether occasional, frequent or chronic, whatever your degree of constipation, get COLONAID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! Here's Dallas-to-Pontiac Style News Direct From Press Women's Editor

By JUDITH L. CLEMENCE
Women's Editor, Pontiac Press

DALLAS—Members of the visiting press arrived in Dallas Sunday to attend the seventh national press showing of summer fashions by the Dallas fashion creators.

In this fashion capital, which each year makes some notable contributions, there has been a marked change from a sportswear manufacturing center to a regional fashion capital.

CLEMENCE

Showings which begin Monday (at this writing it's still Sunday), sponsored by the Dallas Fashion Center, are under the direction of Clyda Johnson, managing director of the center. All of the showings will be held in the French Room of the Hotel Adolphus, where the members of the press are guests of the center.

Mrs. Johnson tells us that the city's summer fashion story will be told in five chapters; shirtwaist dresses, town and travel wear, active sportswear, formals and children's wear.

According to the director, the silhouette is softer and more graceful than last year. Dallas, she said, continues to cater to women of conservative taste who judge clothes on a basis of smartness of line and quality of fabric.

BID FOR LUXURY MARKET

This season the city sets out to attract women shopping on luxury as well as modest budgets.

You can expect news from the shirtwaist dress, and we hear you'll find it the prettiest look of the season. Two- and three-piece suits will be important in the Dallas story for town and travel wear.

Fabrics always continue to make news in Dallas with the combining of silks and cottons. Old King Cotton is never forsaken in this beautiful country. He's found in the most elegant of dresses and suits.

The Dutch Boy influence is important in this season's costumes, according to Mrs. Johnson, and will be noted in the number of double-breasted jackets and pegged skirts.

GOWNS FOR EVENING

We'll expect to see the beautiful evening gowns so reminiscent of "Gone With the Wind" and its heroine, "Scarlett O'Hara," that Dallas designers showed at last year's press showing.

Then, too, there's the Easter and vacation wear for the youngest ladies of fashion.

We learned that capes and pinafores will be important in children's fashions, and they will sport all the dainty ruffled lingerie of their older sisters.

Tomorrow we'll bring you first-hand news of the first Dallas showings.

MONDAY, MARCH 11, 1957 PAGES 11-18

Look to the back for the double buttons in this Charles Dickey fashion, with the added interest of bell sleeves and an easy full skirt. It's made of "touch and go" cotton that requires little or no ironing, and the fused cuffs are of linen.

The shirtwaist is important in fashions for summer. Here boveau rosebud embroidery encircles the bodice of a classic shirtwaist dress by Nardis of Dallas. The fabric of cotton and dacron assures easy care through the lazy days of summer, and the pleated skirt is designed for cool comfort.

Don't Be Awed by Expert Advice

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Writes a Mrs. G., "In your column you recently said that if a mother can't serve herself freely, her child may also resist serving her. This is helping me solve a problem of stubbornness in my daughter. But I don't always agree with you.

"I think you're away off the beam to say that parents shouldn't duplicate children's toys. We've saved a lot of friction between our two boys by doing just that . . ."

"If parents always agreed with everything this column says, I'd stop writing it.

Indeed, it is the motive of this column to have you question everything it says. The idea is not to swallow any of the ideas it advances without first thinking. "Is what she says true and nourishing for me—or isn't it?"

I've never taken or given a psychological test. Behind me is no school of psychiatry, no therapist experience in mental hygiene clinics to comfort you with the assurance that what I say is safe to trust. Upon this column is no seal of endorsement by any authority that can spare you the obligation of judging it for yourself.

ON YOUR OWN

You're on your own when you read it. The only support you've got is your own response to it—your own knowledge of its truthfulness.

It is this column's lack of abstract, superior, not-to-be-questioned authority that justifies its existence in an American newspaper.

In our country we all suffer from too much awe of professional authority. In parents, this awe is particularly foolish. As people who have to exercise their own judgment continually, we just can't afford to give so much awe to our child guidance experts that we forget to judge the worth of what they say.

Unfortunately, some of our experts encourage this awe instead of encouraging our judgment.

The wise people aren't like that at all, of course. Writes Dr. Theodor Reik, student of Freud: "Nothing said to us, nothing we can learn from others reaches so deep as what we find in ourselves."

As to Dr. Hilde Bruch, that loyal friend to parents, she says: "What is needed is a philosophy of parenthood that will permit parents to recognize their own inner resources and capacity for judgment."

Sisterhood Gathers at B'nai Israel Hall

Mrs. Morris Kampner, program chairman, conducted a panel quiz program and Mrs. David Utley was crowned queen for the evening at the Tuesday meeting of Sisterhood of Congregation B'nai Israel held at B'nai Israel Hall.

Plans were made to attend the conference of the Central Branch of the National Women's League to be held at Beth Israel Synagogue in Flint on April 1-2.

Mr. Steinhaus received his master of music from the University of Michigan and studied organ construction and voicing in Europe, the summer of 1955. He has also recorded Max Reger's organ compositions.

PROGRAM LISTED

This spring, he will appear as recitalist at the University of Texas, Austin, Texas. In June, he will lecture at the Cranbrook Church Music Conference on Church Service playing, and later will play a recital for the Regional Convention of the American Guild of Organists in Milwaukee, Wis.

Hostess Put on the Spot by Request

Friend Asks Her for Permission to Bring Extra Pair

By EMILY POST

Today's first letter tells me: "A friend invited my husband and me to a party at her house. At the last minute my brother and sister-in-law arrived from out of town. I telephoned this friend who was giving the party and explained the situation and asked if we might bring them along.

"She hesitated a moment and then said, 'All right,' but I could tell from the tone of her voice that it was not 'all right' and that she merely said it to be polite. Will you please tell me if I was wrong to call and ask if we might bring them along?"

Answer: What you should have done was to call the hostess and say, "My brother and sister-in-law have just arrived from out of town and as we cannot leave them alone we will not be able to come to your party."

Then if she had room for them she could invite them to come with you. But to call and ask point blank if you may bring extra guests to her party does put the hostess on the spot.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Recently I attended a concert given by the men's glee club of a university. The concluding number on the program was the 'Alma Mater' of that university.

"The young man I was with is a graduate of this school and stood up during the singing of the 'Alma Mater.' I remained in my seat. Was this the right thing to do, or should I have gotten up too?"

Answer: As you yourself are not a graduate of that university, it was not an obligation of yours to stand unless everyone else stood up.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When dining in a restaurant where the waitress happens to be a friend, is it proper to give her a tip, or might this place her in an embarrassing position?"

Everyday Expressions Neglect Some Muscles

Special Exercises Improve Facial Contour

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Daily special exercises can improve and preserve facial contour just as they do body contour. It is true that we use our facial muscles when eating, talking, laughing, crying and generally in our facial expressions. We also use the muscles of our body in daily life.

Many women feel that they get plenty of exercise while doing their housework and caring for their children and it is true that they do get a lot. However, special exercises use our muscles in a different way as evidenced by the soreness we experience when first beginning them. The results of figure-molding exercises might seem unbelievable unless you have tried them yourself or know someone who has.

Many of the most youthful women I know have indulged in facial exercises for years, and many readers write to tell me of the great improvement they have noticed after doing these exercises faithfully for a few months.

Always lubricate the face well before doing facial exercises. The following helps fill out hollows under the eyes: Stand or sit in front of a mirror. Make a face like you would if you were sniffing an unpleasant odor, lifting the muscles of the cheeks. Hold while you count slowly to eight. Relax and repeat.

There are several good exercises for the jawline. This is one: Open your mouth, pulling your lips back so that your teeth show. Keep the lips in this position as you bring the teeth together slowly, while resisting with the lower jaw. Rest and continue.

For the under chinline do this exercise: Lower the head backward until you feel the muscles underneath the chin pull. Slowly lift the head and try to touch the chin to the right shoulder. Again lower the head backward. This time lift the head and try to touch the chin to the left shoulder. Continue, alternating right and left.

I always have believed that positive emotions such as love, enthusiasm, keen-edged interest and eager anticipation have, literally, a magic effect on people. These emotions can change a plain woman into a fascinating and lovely looking one, and heaven knows what they do for us on the inside!

There is indication that they change the body chemistry and we know that they promote good digestion and circulation, to say nothing of how happily they may affect our glandular systems.

I also feel sure that negative emotions have just the opposite effect on the body and that boredom is an ager, if not a killer. Of course medical records report many cases in which unhappy emotions caused severe physical impairment.

In 1951 Doctor D. O. Hebbs, psychologist at McGill University, began a most interesting study in order to discover what effect long exposure to monotonous environment has on people. It would take too long and the experiment is too complex to detail here but I think you will be interested in the results.

The "guinea pigs" were college students. Each lay in a lighted cubicle for 24 hours a day except when they took time out to eat or go to the bathroom. Each wore a visor which transmitted some light but made it impossible to see objects or patterns.

Each wore cotton gloves and cuffs which extended past the fingertips so that they could not feel through touch. Hearing was limited by special pillows and the constant hum of air-conditioning.

CHILDISH REACTIONS

After a certain length of time it was found that the subjects saw images, exhibited childish emotional reactions and an impaired ability to think as usual. They seemed to lose their perspective.

Woodburn Heron describes this experiment in a fascinating article in a recent issue of Scientific American. In it he calls our attention to the fact that when a rat in a maze goes for its food it does not use the same route over and over again but will try to find new ones.

That surely makes us feel silly! We do the same things over and over again in the very same way. We seldom add new interests to our daily lives. We even do the same things with the same techniques, timing and sequence.

If we go for a walk we are apt to follow the same route time after time. Many people go to the same spot for their vacation year after year, eat the same foods month after month, wear their hair the same way, read the same type books and enjoy the same sports forever and forever.

Why not see some new places, try some new foods, learn some new skills, add some new interests to our daily lives?

Bread Is Unusually Delicious

Mrs. Deen Likes New England Idea for Tasty Loaves

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

A mutual friend told us that Mrs. William Deen of North Shores has a wonderful bread recipe. So we tracked down Mrs. Deen. Her bread turned out to be a favorite with us too, Anadama Bread. Anadama Bread was originally an old New England recipe. You'll like it.

Mrs. Deen, our cook for the day, is an enthusiastic gardener. Whenever she has freedom from her part-time job, she works with her flowers. She is also a member of the Eastern Star.

ANADAMA BREAD
By Mrs. William Deen

¾ cup cornmeal
3 teaspoons salt
2 tablespoons shortening
½ cup molasses
2 packages yeast
6½ cups sifted flour

Cook cornmeal in 2½ cups boiling water with salt until thick, about 2-3 minutes. Add shortening and molasses. Cool to lukewarm.

Dissolve yeast in ½ cup warm water. Add cooled cornmeal mixture and stir in 5 cups of flour. Work in the rest of the flour by hand and knead smooth. Place in greased bowl and let rise until double. This should take about an hour.

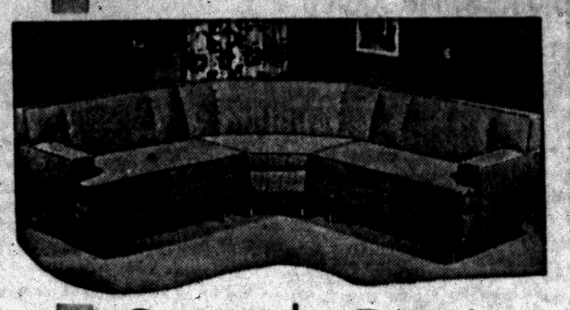

Punch down dough, cover and let rest for 10 minutes. Form into two loaves, place in greased 9x5x3 pans. Brush with melted butter. Mix together one tablespoon cornmeal with ½ teaspoon salt. Sprinkle over greased top of loaves. Let rise 45 minutes, or until doubled. Bake one hour at 375 degrees.

AAA Finds Travel Big Revenue Source

DETROIT (INS)—The Automobile Club of Michigan says its annual survey shows travel is now ranked among the three major sources of revenue for 24 states.

The annual report studied habits and patterns of vacation travel. It said travel now represents three per cent of "all services and goods produced annually

The numbers of Americans traveling in some form of vacationing each year, the report stated, has doubled the 1941 volume of 40 million annually.

In 1956, there were 53,000 motels for vacationers as compared to only 15,000 in 1940. About 1,500 to 2,000 motels are being added each year.

A breakdown of the motorists' vacation dollars shows 28 cents for food, 22 for lodging, 20 for retail stores, 19 for gasoline and oil, eight for entertainment and recreation and three for tires and repairs.

State Copper Prospects Brightest in Years

HOUGHTON (AP)—Only the unpredictable ups and downs of copper prices are dimming the brightest prospects in years in Michigan's Upper Peninsula copper fields.

New techniques of recovering the red metal form abandoned workings have meant increased exploration for more sources of copper. Government stockpiling since World War II has given stability to the industry.

But as in any business, copper mining depends on the price of copper. And it has been falling recently.

The present market price of about 32 cents a pound is the lowest in years. That's not far above the government-assured price of 29 cents—and contrasts with the 46 cents paid in the Korean war boom year of 1954.

MORE COPPER

On the bright side is the firm belief that there is still more copper in Michigan's famed copper country and the increasing search for commercial ore deposits.

The upper peninsula has the only mining of native copper deposits in the country. Unlike that found in other sections, Michigan copper has masses of the element itself—not chemically united with other elements.

Production of native copper declined about 1900 because of the depth to which mines had been worked and because new mines were found in the west. It stopped altogether during the depression days. But the industry revived in the World War II shortage, sparked by development of a process for reclaiming copper from refuse left by earlier refining operations.

The unique process breaks up ore and grinds it into fine particles so copper can be separated from the rock. New techniques make it possible to recover more of the copper from the stamp sands than formerly.

LOTS OF REFUSE

Sands from earlier operations now are being reworked. Four to six pounds of copper a ton are now being reclaimed from the old Isle Royale mine near Houghton, where there is an estimated 10 million tons of refuse.

The copper revival has been encouraged through government loans to expand the industry and by research funds on extraction and refinement of the metal.

The nation's first ores research department, set up at Michigan College of Mining and Technology in Houghton, is studying use of a new geophysical technique of exploration. Such devices as the seismograph, gravity meter and electro-magnetomer are used in the search for native copper.

Now copper hunters are looking into deposits—different from the native mass copper—in fire born rock or lava flows going

Wilfrid Been of Michigan Tech describes it as like "looking for plums in a pudding"—because deposits are so scattered. The state Conservation Department is being asked to lease state lands for further exploration.

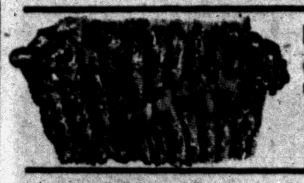

It has been found that shale beds, such as those in the noted white pine operation at Ontonagon, are favorable for highly mechanized mining. These offer good prospects for continued growth of copper mining in Michigan.

Hits at Reds, Nasser

DALLAS (AP)—Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison told a Kiwanis group that the Communists "are nothing more than racketeers and criminals, and the same goes for General Nasser of Egypt." Harrison, who negotiated the armistice in the Korean War, is executive director of the Evangelical Welfare Agency of Chicago, which sponsors placement of orphans in Christian homes.

Everything's OK, Says Wheeler

Optimist Works on Canal

By International News Service

From building the Panama Canal to clearing the Suez, Raymond Albert Wheeler has always been optimistic about getting the job done.

"I'm a Presbyterian," says the 71-year-old retired U. S. Army lieutenant general, "and I believe in the good old Presbyterian saying that everything works out for the best."

Ever since the United Nations picked him to direct Suez Canal clearance operations, Wheeler has maintained that the job would not take as long as many others thought it would.

Now, with small vessels once more steaming through the waterway, he seems to have been not only an optimist but a realist as well.

"What's more important," Wheeler has said, "is to get the job done, with the means at hand, today not tomorrow."

FIRST LESSON

He first learned that lesson from George Washington Goethals, builder of the Panama Canal. Shortly after his graduation from West Point in 1911, Wheeler was assigned to running concrete mixers and locomotives on the Panama project.

But as successful as he was at working with the tools of building, Wheeler was even more outstanding when it came to working with people.

He says: "The human approach is the one that wins out. I don't think of people as parts of a military machine, but as individuals, each working a bit different from the other."

PERSONAL CREED

He got a chance to practice this personal creed in Mexico before and in France during the first World War. Later, he served as district Army engineer in Rhode Island, North Carolina and Illinois before returning to the Panama Canal as engineer of maintenance.

During the second World War, he supervised the rebuilding of railroads and highways in Iraq and Iran. From there, he went to India where he directed construction of the famed 200-mile Ledo road linking China with India for the first time.

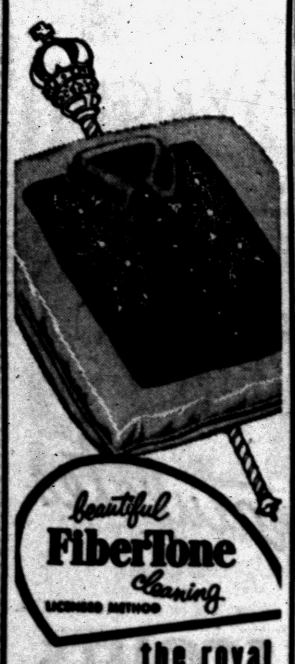

As for the Suez job, the tall, mustached Wheeler repeats what he's said before: "Everything works out for the best."

SEATO Ministers to Stress Stronger Links

Group Convenes at Australia Site

Treaty Members Plan to Intensify Resistance to Red Subversion

CANBERRA, Australia (AP) — The SEATO Council of Ministers opened its third annual meeting today to intensify the eight-nation alliance's fight against Communist political and economic subversion in Southeast Asia.

Representatives of the United States, Australia, Britain, France, New Zealand, the Philippines, Thailand and Pakistan met in the green-carpeted House of Representatives chamber of Australia's Parliament Building for the three-day conference.

The council, top policy-making body of the alliance formed in 1954, was expected to:

1. Recommend that member nations keep their military forces up to present strength and intensify measures to safeguard their internal security.

2. Lay plans to keep free Asian nations from linking their economies closer to the Communist bloc.

CULTURAL PROGRAM

3. Initiate a multilateral cultural program to promote mutual understanding among the member nations.

Council sources said Communist tactics in the area have been shifting in the past year from a threat of armed aggression to a wide program of political, economic and other penetration. A major Red aim is the promotion of neutralism.

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles told the council it could "confidently conclude . . . that international communism now imposed upon many of the peoples of Asia is a passing and not a permanent phase."

But Red Chinese support of Southeast and Eastern Asia, Dulles said unity and strength are being developed in South Viet Nam but a serious problem remains in Laos, where "communism continues to support the Pathet Lao insurgents."

He reported "growing strength" in South Korea, Japan and Nationalist China, which are outside SEATO but connected with it through their collective defense treaties with the United States.

Dulles also pointed out that the Federation of Malaya soon is to achieve independence from Britain and said "amiable and fruitful discussions are now in progress" regarding the future of Singapore.

OFF AND RUNNING — Well, almost. A pack of lumbering pachyderms break away from the starting point for a quarter-mile race in Vietnam. A favorite sport of semi-primitive native tribes in the high plateau region, the race was a high point of the recent Banmethuot Economic Fair. Each entry carries two "jockies," who flail away with sharp spikes. Even with such severe urging, the ponderous beasts averaged only about 11 miles an hour. Races like these are rare in modern times, even in Vietnam.

Alert Dispatcher Averts Tragedy

Guides Crippled Plane With 33 Michigan Men by Auto Lights

LAS VEGAS, N.M. (AP) — A pilot guided only by the headlights of a single automobile landed his crippled plane safely in pre-dawn darkness with 33 Michigan Naval Reservists aboard yesterday.

The alertness of an airlines dispatcher, Charles Brown, who heard the plane's distress signal, and the competence of pilot John Treher of Burbank, Calif., averted a major disaster.

Treher said there was no panic among the 33 reservists and the six other passengers during the emergency landing about 3 a.m.

Treher headed for the little Las Vegas airport as the nearest landing place when he lost one of his two engines. Brown drove his automobile to the end of a runway and turned on the headlights. The airport is not equipped for night landings.

The 33 reservists, all from the Lansing, Mich., area, were returning from a two-week cruise aboard the U.S.S. Stoddard.

Ike Aide Talks in Detroit

U. S. Prosperity Faces 3 Threats

DETROIT (AP)—A presidential assistant said today the threat of prosperity "burning itself out through inflation" is one of three problems to be solved if the economy is to be kept healthy.

Gabriel Hogue, special assistant to President Eisenhower on economic affairs, said the other two problems prosperity brings in its train are "the temptation to tamper with the market system in the name of improving the good times," and "the need to encourage savings to help sustain a healthy expansion."

In an address prepared for the Economic Club of Detroit, Hauge said prosperity with price stability should be the goal of public and private policy in seeking answers to the first problem —inflation.

He said "prudent restraints" should be used from time to time when an overloading of the economy threatens widespread price rises. He said these would include general monetary controls that affect the cost and supply of money, and fiscal controls that operate through government expenditure policies.

As for fiscal policy, Hauge said it is clear that when rising prices indicate pressure on the economy, public spending and demand for resources should be strictly limited to the nation's imperative needs.

Also, he added, public revenues should exceed expenditures and public debt management should not contribute to the shortage of savings to meet investment demand.

Hauge cautioned against what he called a tendency to use "governmental means to tamper with the market mechanism to improve the good times for the benefit of one group or another," and added:

"Competition is one of the greatest forces on which we must rely to keep our prosperity healthy. These efforts to limit the operation of competition are fraught with peril for the economy as a whole."

Michigan Lists 12 Dead in Weekend Accidents

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Michigan counted 12 dead in accidents over weekend. Ten persons were killed in highway crashes.

Nippy but clear weather over much of the state lured many motorists on country drives. Traffic was reported heavy for the pre-spring season on many highways.

Two deaths in the weekend toll were caused by suffocation.

A teenaged girl and a 34-year-old man were killed in a two-car collision in the Thumb area Sunday night. The dead girl was Carole Allen, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen of Ubly. Ernest Gotza of Ubly, driver of the other car, died at a hospital shortly after the accident. His brother Cass Gotza of Tyre, Mich., was hospitalized. The accident occurred on the crest of a hill near Bad Axe.

Five-year-old Eddie Whitaker of Coldwater died Saturday in University Hospital at Ann Arbor from injuries suffered Friday night when a car driven by his father, Wilson Whitaker, 33, skidded into a tree on a rural road near Coldwater. Whitaker, his wife, Yvonne, 28, and a daughter, Janice, 4, were injured critically.

Robert L. Boomfield, 32, of Garden City was killed late Saturday night when his car jumped a curb and rammed into a tree in Detroit.

Ted Ziolkowski, 39, and Mrs. Betty Semesine, 40, both of Detroit, were found dead Saturday in a car in a garage behind Ziokowski's home. They apparently were victims of carbon monoxide poisoning.

A two-car collision took the life of Robert E. Beach near his home in the Detroit suburb of Redford Township Saturday. Beach, 31, was alone in the car.

Frank Kunz, 79, of Detroit, was killed Saturday night when hit by a car while crossing a Detroit street.

Gary Crosby Leaves London and Romance

Ward said the 19-year-old Barbara saw Gary off at the London airport. The writer quoted her as denying there was any real romance involved.

She was quoted as saying, "Better call it a crush—but we both hope we will be able to meet again."

Gates Are Closed at The Dalles Dam

THE DALLES, Ore. (AP) — The huge, government-built The Dalles Dam choked off the Columbia River for 4½ hours yesterday to create a reservoir that eventually will add more than a million kilowatts to the nation's power.

Gates were closed and water piled up 60 feet deep before splashing over onto spillways. More gates will be closed next weekend to make the reservoir 25 feet deeper.

Almost no one downstream noticed the mighty river was throttled, because Bonneville Dam, below The Dalles, regulated its water release to keep downstream flow normal.

Power production will begin at the 260-million-dollar dam in November. At first it will be 156,600 kilowatts. By 1960 it will reach its planned 1,092,000 kilowatts.

4 Churches Oppose African Apartheid

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Four denominations this weekend announced opposition to a new bill before Parliament to apply the Nationalist government's apartheid (segregation) polices to church services.

The latest churches to come out against the measure are the Roman Catholic, Presbyterian, Baptist and Seventh Day Adventists. The Anglican Church already had indicated opposition.

All four churches indicated they would be compelled to disobey the proposed law if it should require them to seek permission to keep their doors open to Africans. They appealed to the government to avoid such a direct clash between church and state.

Warnings Cut Tidal Wave Loss

Aleutians Tremble Again With Vigorous Aftershock

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nervous northeastern rim of the Pacific continued to tremble last night in the wake of Saturday's mighty earthquake in the Aleutian Islands.

The restless earth that sent tidal waves crashing into villages in Hawaii and Japan rumbled again at 7:20:23 p.m., Pacific Standard Time (10:20:23 p.m., EST).

The University of California seismograph at Berkeley was still registering the shock 2½ hours later.

Research assistant John Denoyer said the new quake, apparently another vigorous aftershock of the Saturday quake, appeared again to be in the Aleutians.

Meanwhile, the Coast and Geodetic Survey office in Honolulu reported that Mt. Vsevidof on the Aletuan Island of Unmark was belching smoke after lying dormant for 200 years. Officials said it probably had been stirred to life by Saturday's big quake.

In Hawaii, where waves ranging from 3 to 9 feet high slammed up over the beaches Saturday along northern shores of the islands, Gov. Samuel Wilder King said 154 people were left homeless in two villages on Kauai while 4,000 others were isolated by washed-out bridges.

Unofficial damage estimates ranged up to two million dollars.

No direct loss of life was reported because of early warnings, but Paul O. Beam, veteran newsman, and Sarah Park, Star-Bulletin reporter, were dead in

Gov. King said he was waiting full damage reports before asking federal aid, but had declared a 10-mile coastal stretch on Kauai a disaster area.

Hours after the alert had ended in Hawaii, nine-foot waves crashed into fishing villages on Hokkaido, northernmost of the main Japanese islands. Police reported one house washed away with others wrecked and more than 50 flooded.

The 3½-foot wave that belatedly rolled into San Diego Bay late Saturday night yanked an 83-foot boat slip from its moorings and caused damage estimated at $5,000.

In Berkeley, seismologist Denoyer said he could not tell whether last night's aftershock, the fifth, would cause more tidal waves.

'Kayaks Down the Nile' Closes Waterford Series

"Kayaks Down the Nile," a color, full length motion picture, narrated in person by John Goddard, will be at Issac E. Crary Junior high school at 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 12th.

This adventure film will end a series of six programs appearing this season under the sponsorship of the Waterford Township Recreation department.

John Goddard of Los Angeles, and two companions, negotiated the 4200-mile long Nile River in Africa.

The two fragile kayaks negotiated 31 cataracts and countless whirlpools and rapids. The explorers often spent up to 27 hours trapped in their boats, unable to land because of swamps or towering cliffs. They faced jungle fever, wild beasts, savage tribesmen and 130 degree heat.

The public has been invited to attend this last travelogue of the year, and some single admission tickets will be available at the door, according to Tom Belton, Recreation director.

Walled Lake Voting Today on Reclassifying

WALLED LAKE — The Walled Lake School District is holding a special election today to determine whether the district should be reclassified from a fourth to a third class district.

The election was set after the Board of Education received petitions from more than 300 electors requesting the election.

The only change under the proposed classification which is mandatory is that the Board of Education would be changed from a five to a seven man board.

Polls in all five precincts will remain open until 8 p.m. and anyone in line at that time may vote.

Tree Growers Plan Meeting

To Discuss Problems and Hear Reports on Christmas Trees

Christmas Tree Growers in the Detroit and "Thumb" areas are encouraged to attend "The Thumb of Michigan Tree Growers Assn." meeting March 18, at 8 p.m. in Mayville Community School, Mayville. Lester Bell, MSU forester, will be present to discuss income tax reporting, production, and marketing of Christmas trees.

Many residents will be planting, shearing, spraying and cutting evergreens in the country weekends this summer instead of spending their leisure time at resorts. Specialized tree farming is a type of farming city residents can operate efficiently in their spare time. A fair profit may be earned from many healthful hours spent in the country.

In the past people have been mislead in believing enormous profits could be made in planting thousands of Christmas trees. Nature permits less than one-third of the trees planted to develop into saleable trees for Christmas. Insects, deer, fire and dry weather have caused complete plantation losses.

Competition is also cutting the profits in the Christmas tree business. There were approximately 2,000,000 Michigan trees sold in 1956. There were more than 10,000,000 seedlings planted last spring for Christmas tree purposes. In addition the consumer is demanding a higher quality tree. Low quality trees will not have a market in the future.

Realizing these factors growers and residents in the "Thumb" area of Michigan formed an association to provide educational information in growing and marketing Christmas trees to its members. Meetings are open to the public.

WXYZ Moving to Southfield

To $4 Million Site on 10 Mile

Land Planner Receives 400 Protest Signatures on 1,000-Foot Tower

SOUTHFIELD—Plans are under way for Station WXYZ to move from its present location to new $4 million quarters at Ten Mile west of Northwestern highway.

President James G. Riddell of the Detroit station said the firm's entire radio and television facilities will be moved into the new studio within two years, providing approval is given by Southfield, the Federal Communications Commission, and the Civil Aeronautics administration.

Plans call for three color television studios, three radio studios and complete administrative facilities in a colonial setting on the new site.

An option on a 93-acre tract has been acquired by the station, Riddel said, and added that only 40 acres would be used for the new radio and television station. The rest would be sold.

Riddel said the proposed 1,000-foot tower at the new site would give WXYZ-TV coverage as far as beyond Flint. He said the present 485-foot tower on the Massabees building, Detroit, is inadequate to reach the fast-growing suburbs.

In the meantime, residents in the area are already protesting the construction of the 1,000-foot antenna.

Southfield's Land Planner James H. Hickey said this morning he has received a petition bearing close to 400 signatures protesting the tower.

New Skim Milk Recipe Takes Off Weight Fast

By Ruth Whitney

A new "hi-vi" skim milk cocktail that helps you lose weight without feeling tired or suffering hunger pangs, has greatly impressed doctors today.

It's based on the discovery that your overeating of fattening foods can be due to a lack of vital nutrients in your body. To make up for this lack, you eat the foods that make you fat.

To overcome this deficiency, a new high-vitamin powder has been created. It is named Addit because you add it to a glass of skim milk (or water, orange juice or other liquid) and drink it before meals, 3 times a day.

The result is sensational. You lose those hunger pangs, eat less—lose weight fast. Addit actually contains food catalysts that help you "burn" fat away.

Then, as Addit floods your system with a concentration of 13 vitamins, minerals, other nutrients (and as you lose those excess pounds), you quickly lose that over-tired feeling, gain in vitality. As Mrs. Evelyn White says: "I'm no longer nervous and listless."

Inquiry Opened on Freak Crash

Plane Bounces, Flips in Landing; Injures 7; 2 From Michigan OK

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (INS) — An investigation was underway today to determine what caused an Eastern Air Lines plane with three crew members and 31 passengers aboard to flip over and skid 100 feet on its back while landing at Standiford field in Louisville.

Seven of the passengers were slightly injured yesterday in the freakist crash of the twin-motored plane which left the passengers belted to their seats, wrong side up.

The Martin 404 Silver Falcon, en route from Chicago to Miami, Fla., touched the runway in Louisville, and then strangely bounced 40 feet into the air and flipped over.

It hit the runway and skidded 100 feet to a halt.

Six of the seven injured passengers were given treatment on the spot but a seventh, William A. Brown, 61, of Birmingham, Ala., was hospitalized with what were said to be minor head and back injuries.

Lester Alverson of Roseville, Mich., and Mrs. Dwight Howell of Ann Arbor, Mich., were listed as passengers aboard the flight, but were not injured.

Crisis Worsens in Indonesia

South Sumatra Joins Rebels in Central Area as Discontent Grows

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Indonesia's political crisis was worsening today as mineral-rich south Sumatra joined the spreading rebellion against the central government.

The latest revolt caused open concern among Jakarta officials already trying to cope with rebellious groups who have seized power in central Sumatra, much of that island's northern sector and the islands of East Indonesia.

There were warnings of new defections as the sprawling nation of 80 millions waited tensely to see whether President Sukarno would carry out his controversial plan to bring Communists into the government. The rebel leaders still generally promised allegiance to Sukarno, although they demanded an end to the government of Premier Ali Sastroamidjojo.

Rumblings of discontent came from Borneo, world's third largest island and least explored territory in the 3,000-mile archipelago.

Local sources said the only thing that has delayed an outright coup in Borneo has been a political squabble among island officials.

As the Jakarta government's authority shrank to a small remaining part of north Sumatra, tottering Borneo and Java itself, word spread that the Cabinet would hold an emergency session Wednesday.

Informed sources said Sukarno might offer some compromise to his "guided democracy" plan which would permit him to save his own face and yet satisfy the rapidly unifying bloc of anti-Communist forces throughout the republic.

Teen Vandals—Old Stuff

BARRIE, Ont. (AP) — Vandalism among teenagers is no worse than it was in 1873, says A. B. Cohoe. He has a copy of a reward notice posted that year by the school board, offering $50 for information about the vandals who "perpetrated the outrages in the school house."

TOP TO TOE

1. Hats for a Girl

In days of old, when a knight was outfitted completely for battle and his head, hands and feet were armored, he was said to be ready "cap a pie" or head to foot — top to toe.

Long before that, men realized their head, hands and feet were necessary for existence and must receive special care. They learned to make head coverings to shelter them from the sun and cold and to ward off enemy blows.

As the years passed, hats developed from simple coverings into beautiful creations that added a touch of elegance to a fine costume and often showed the importance of the wearer.

The French headdress of the 15th Century had a counterpart fastened with a jeweled clasp and draped around under the chin and trailing down the back. Two horns of contrasting colors stood out at each side.

Paste this picture down on cardboard and color with crayons. Cut out the parts carefully. Fold the end panels forward on either side of the little girl. Then you can stand her up. Cut out the openings in the center of the hats so as to show the face. Fold back the tabs behind the head.

Shades of Pioneer Days

GUTHRIE, Okla. (AP)—Oklahoma is celebrating its 50th anniversary of statehood this year but every once in a while it is reminded of its pioneer days. Sheriff Tom Grunden reported one oldtime practice is still around—horse thieves took two horses and two saddles from a farm near here. Later, two boys were arrested—still riding the stolen horses.

Boycott Ended at Negro College

New Board to Screen Students Who Apply for Readmission

ALCORN, Miss. (AP) — Alcorn A&M College opened under a new administration today to receive students seeking readmission after a weeklong boycott at the all-Negro state institution.

The new president, J. D. Boyd, reopened the dining hall and dormitories over the weekend. He was given power by the State College Board to decide which students defied a board directive to return to class. These were ordered expelled.

In doubt was the status of Clennon King, the history professor whose newspaper articles touched off the student rebellion resulting in the firing of Dr. J. R. Otis as president.

Both Boyd and H. G. Carpenter of Rolling Fork, president of the all-white State College Board, denied King had been dismissed. King, however, said at his home in Hazlehurst he didn't plan to return because Boyd had fired him effective today.

King, 36-year-old minister of the Wesley (Methodist) Chapel in Hazlehurst, wrote a series of articles in the Jackson State Times. He criticized the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People for having done nothing locally for the Southern Negro.

King, who wrote that the Negro as well as the white needed to learn tolerance, said he doubted the boycott was spontaneous and suggested NAACP "moved in and spread confusion."

Otis said Saturday he thought as many as 95 students had sought readmission. He said 489 of the 461 students had signed withdrawal slips, but a number had asked to retract the action.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Don't let the fellow at the next desk look down his nose at you because he's a specialist. Tell him you're a generalist.

The word saw the light at House Appropriation Committee hearings on the civil defense budget. The proceedings published today show that Administrator Val Peterson was asked what was meant by the listing of generalists on his staff.

"Is this a superspecialist?" asked Rep. Yates (D-Ill).

"No," Peterson replied. "Our choice of terms may not be too good. This is a man who is jack of all trades. He can go out and do business in most of those fields."

"Now you are talking in language we can understand," remarked Rep. Thomas (D-Tex). "We can all qualify."

Tigers Split Weekend Tilts

By BRUNO KEARNS
Pontiac Press Sports Editor

LAKELAND, Fla. — The Grapefruit League has often been a sour beginning and ending for many major league rookie pitchers.

The Tigers handed several Boston Red Sox newcomers a 10-1 lacing Saturday. But yesterday a couple Bengal rookies became the victims as the Kansas City Athletics took a 13-4 decision from Detroit.

A couple shining lights did come out of the weekend activity, however, as the Grapefruit League officially got started.

Don Lee, a 23-year-old rookie from the Charleston club who is the son of former major leaguer Thornton Lee, put on the best performance of the eight Tiger hurlers to see mound action in the two games.

Lee relieved Paul Foytack who was being hit hard, in the Red Sox game, and in his three innings he faced only 10 batters. He gave up a lone walk and struck out four batters with a good fast ball and a tricky curve.

"What surprised me especially was the fine poise he had out there," said Manager Jack Tighe. Lee also contributed a line single into right field and scored a run against the Sox.

It was a different story against the Athletics. Duke Maas left the mound with the Tigers holding a 4-0 lead after three innings. But then Hal Woodeshick took the mound, and before the 4th inning was over, he was victimized with eight runs and nine hits.

Five A's batted twice in the big 4th which saw homers by Vic Power and Jim Pisoni, a double by Gus Zernial, triple by Curt Roberts and singles by Roberts, Pisoni, Zernial, John Groth and Joe Demaestri.

Chuck Daniels relieved Woodeshick but he could not stop the A's from picking up two more runs in the 5th. Three more runs in the 9th off Bob Miller accounted for the total of 13 for the A's.

Detroit started strong with a double by Jack Dittmer, singles by Charley Maxwell and Earl Torgeson and a homer by Al Kaline in the 1st frame. Dittmer's second hit, a single to drive in Harvey Kuenn who doubled, ended the Tiger scoring in the second inning.

In fact, Detroit could not get a hit until the 8th when Mef Clark singled as Athletic pitchers Ron Duren and Carl Duser held the Tigers scoreless.

Clark, who had been out of the majors for two years after a stay with the Philadelphia Phillies, has held a big bat in two games.

Against the Red Sox he got two singles, one with the bases loaded to drive in two runs, and yesterday had one hit in his lone appearance, giving him three for three thus far.

Maxwell has had three hits and a walk in five trips to the plate in the weekend series.

Jack Crimian made his debut since coming to the Tigers from Kansas City and he set the Athletics down in order in the 6th and 7th frames.

Today the Tigers went through an early morning workout and this afternoon the players and coaches will participate in an annual club golf tournament.

The Milwaukee Braves will play host to the Tigers at Bradenton on Tuesday, in Detroit's third game of the Grapefruit Circuit.

Dickie's Wins Title

A Pontiac team, individuals from Detroit and Ann Arbor, and doubles from Detroit and Plymouth are the 1957 Michigan Elks bowling champions.

Their selections became official last night when the 37th annual event closed here following eight weekends of heated competition with no new last-minute triumphs.

Dickie's Service of Pontiac topped teams in both divisions on the 2nd weekend and the scores of 3201 and 2832 were good enough to stand up.

Detroiter John Gavie, who bowled on the 2nd day copped singles laurels with 724 in handicap and 691 for actual. All-events winner was Ann Arbor's Jack Neilsen with 1855.

There was plenty of excitement in doubles where a record was set and a repeat of a championship was recorded. The Plymouth pair, William Fann-Vern Miller, established a new handicap mark at 1374 midway in the tourney. Only repeaters among several ex-champions taking part was the E. Walker K. Haviland duo of Detroit with 1217 in actual. They also won last year.

Eagle 3 Wins for Art Wall

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP)—A two-under-par three on the long eighth hole of the Pensacola Country Club Golf Course meant money in the bank to Art Wall Jr.

The eagle was the key to victory and the $2,000 top prize in the Pensacola Open Golf Tournament for the soft-spoken pro from Pocono Manor, Pa., yesterday. It enabled him to beat out Australian Peter Thomson by two strokes with a 72-hole total of 273, 15 strokes under par.

Thomson, playing in a three-some just behind Wall went for a birdie on the same 495-yard hole but failed and could do no better than a par five.

The tournament early had become a head-and-head duel between the 33-year-old Wall, a former Duke University basketball and golf star, and Thomson, 27, winner of the British Open the past three years.

YMCA Swimmers Win 2 at Owosso

Pontiac's YMCA swimmers closed out their dual meet season with a convincing 60-18 victory over Owosso Saturday. A 54-24 triumph by the Juniors gave the locals their 5th double sweep of the year.

The Prep team took firsts in every event, led by Jim Velky's triumphs in the breaststroke and butterfly races. The Juniors led all the way missing firsts in only two events.

Wings Drop 2 Over Weekend

Bruins, New York Use One Good Period to Dump Leaders

NEW YORK (AP) — Two-thirds of the way the Detroit Red Wings held their own, but a faltering in one period cost them two games over the weekend.

Boston's Bruins whipped the Wings 4-2 Saturday, scoring all four goals in a torrid five-minute spree in the second period.

And the New York Rangers scored three fast goals in the third period to dump the Wings 4-1 Sunday night.

Andy Bathgate, the highest point producer in Ranger history, scored two goals and assisted in two more in leading New York over Detroit.

Bathgate scored the Rangers' goal in the first period and then contributed one goal and two assists in the crucial third period to help extend New York's unbeaten string to seven games.

Boys' Club Team 4th in Sectional Tourney

The Boys' Club Mighty Mites of Pontiac finished in 4th place in the Sectional Junior Tournament held over the weekend at Highland Park winning one of three games. Both losses were to Detroit teams.

Major Findley, who paced the scoring in one tilt with 10, was chosen on the 2nd team all-tourney and Jim Blackburn made the 3rd all-star unit. He was high man in one contest with nine. Local boys Don Langford and Jim Joyce copped sportsmanship awards.

City Women Keg Leaders

Pontiac keglers got off to early leads in all divisions in the 1st weekend of the annual Women's Tournament open to all residents of Oakland County.

Class A Schools Enter Regional Tourney Play

Class A high schools will make the tourney picture complete by joining district winners from the three lower classes for regional competition at 23 Michigan sites, four in Oakland County.

Birmingham and Ferndale will be hosts to Class A regionals, while Pontiac is the center for a B-C tourney. A 'B' tourney is scheduled at Southfield.

Pontiac, Saginaw Valley Conference champion, and Waterford wade into a rugged eight-team regional at the Flint IMA. The Flint tourney opens Tuesday night, with Flint Central, Port Huron, Owosso, Lansing Sexton, Lansing Eastern and Flint Northern rounding out the field.

The Chiefs will meet Sexton Wednesday at 8 p.m., while Waterford faces Owosso tomorrow night, also at 8 o'clock.

Seven Class C squads are scheduled to play here, headed by Detroit All Saints. Others are Almont, Armada, St. Charles, St. Cecilia, St. Francis de Sales and Grosse Pte. St. Paul.

Drawings and pairings for the Pontiac regional will be conducted today at the high school at 4 p.m. Action gets under way Tuesday night.

The No. 1 Oakland County area casualty in district play over the weekend was Class C Imlay City. The Spartans, unbeaten in 17 games, were upended by Armada, 52-48, at Port Huron.

Van Dyke and Clarenceville in Class B and Memphis in the 'D' ranks were other area district casualties.

Baseball in Unique Role Following Court Rulings

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — The Supreme Court decision on pro football and the federal judge's ruling that the International Boxing Club violated the Sherman Anti-Trust Act has focused attention on baseball's unique position as a "sport" and "not a business."

It was inevitable that baseball also would come under fire.

It remained for a man name Leo DeOrsey, a director of the Washington Senators, to pop the question into print over the weekend. DeOrsey was an unknown in the baseball world until he spoke out of church and called the game "business and big business." His comment "as a lawyer not a baseballman,' caused scathing rebukes right up to Commissioner Ford Frick.

Who is Leo DeOrsey?

The name is better known in pro football and the entertainment business than in baseball. The attorney once was part-owner of the Washington Redskins, represents Arthur Godfrey and is a powerful, behind-the-scenes man in Ed Murrow's "Person to Person" TV show.

Courtney, Delaney KC Track Meet Winners

NEW YORK — Olympic champion Tom Courtney equalled the Knights of Columbus track record Saturday night by winning the 1,000 yard run in 2:08.8. Also winning as expected was Ron Delaney in the mile, while Morgan State ace George Dennis set a new high jump mark with a leap of six feet, nine-¼ inches.

Falcons in Finals of Union Tourney

The Local 594 Falcons routed the Local 594 Vikings, 70-49, Sunday at Jefferson Junior High to advance to the finals of the UAW-CIO League basketball playoffs.

Five Falcons scored in double figures, led by Gene George with 14 points. Mel Taylor and Chet Woodmore made 17 apiece for the losers. It was the 2nd straight win for the Falcons in the double-knockout tournament.

Local 596 eliminated Local 653 with an easy 56-37 triumph. Bill Pembroke tallied 22 points for Local 596 while the loser's Jim Herron had 13.

Detroit Pair Clinches Senior-Senior Crown

Madelyn and Joseph Birney of Detroit won the 3rd Senior-Senior contest held at the Rolladium Sunday skating the 'Society Blues."

Winners in Saturday's 5th race elimination of the 4th period were: Class A for girls—Marilyn Barnhart, B—Patricia Roughton; C—Barbara Field. Boys, A—Bill Sands B—Larry Wilmot; C—Kent Hamp. Diaper division was won by Mike Kelly.

Spartans Win Big Ten Swim Championship

MSU Depth Ends Reign of Buckeyes; Michigan Finishes 2nd

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Michigan State ended Ohio State's eight year reign in swimming, Minnesota clipped two-time defending champion Michigan for the wrestling title, Illinois maintained its grip in gymnastics with its eighth straight championship and Wisconsin speared the fencing crown.

Depth and victory in the final event brought Michigan State the swimming title. The Spartan 400-yard medley relay team, anchored by Frank Parrish, churned to victory and thwarted Michigan's bid for the crown.

The Spartans finished with 87 points to 79 for Michigan. Ohio State had 71, Indiana 56, Illinois 27, Wisconsin 23, Northwestern 21½, Iowa 20, Purdue 10 and Minnesota, the host school, was blanked.

MSU won only three of the 16 events but its strength in numbers was too much for both Michigan and Ohio State.

Minnesota won only one divisional wrestling championship but edged out Michigan, 55-54 at Columbus, Ohio, as three Gophers were beaten for other divisional titles.

Paced by Abie Grossfeld, a member of the 1956 U.S. Olympic team, Illinois turned the gymnastics meet into a runaway at Ann Arbor. The Illini piled up 143½ points while runner-up Michigan had 111½.

Chiefs 5th in SVC Swim, Diving Meet

Saginaw Arthur Hill's powerful tank team romped to an easy triumph in the Saginaw Valley swimming and diving championships over the weekend by scoring 116 points. Saginaw finished second with 53, Flint Central had 47, Bay City Central had 41, Pontiac wound up 5th with 24 and Flint Northern totaled 5.

Clarkston Rated 'Dark Horse'

By BILL CORNWELL

There's a Class B regional basketball tournament coming to Pontiac High this week and if you're looking for a dark horse, Clarkston fits the role.

Mighty Walled Lake, Utica, Orchard Lake St. Mary and St. Clair will complete the "B" field here and the strength of each team goes without saying.

But if the Wolves continue to play like they did in the weekend district tourney, their opposition should prepare for trouble.

Clarkston became a giant killer Saturday night in the 'B' finals at Pontiac High. The Wolves toppled favored Rochester, 66-61, in a sensational, see-saw battle to annex the district championship.

Their triumph was a great moment for head coach Dom Mauti. His jubilant players immediately hoisted him to their shoulders and gave him a victory ride across the gymnasium floor.

St. Frederick's hopes for a Class C district title ended in despair, however. The Rams bowed to Almont, 48-35, in the same PHS gym.

Anyone who thinks there is no longer a place for the little man in basketball will have to come up with a solid argument to convince Mauti. For the Clarkston mentor has two of them and they were the ringleaders in Rochester's demise.

George Lang and Leroy Parks, a clever pair of diminutive guards, ruined the Falcons. Lang fired 23 points, Parks accounted for 20, and their dribbling and deft ball-handling were beyond reproach.

The Clarkston-Rochester game was thrilling to watch from start to finish. Both teams played superbly and the decision could easily have gone either way.

Fourteen times the lead changed hands. The score was tied on 10 occasions, nine times in the 3rd quarter. At halftime the score was 30-30.

Clarkston gained the lead for keeps, 50-48, entering the final period. It was 63-61 with less than a minute to go and the Wolves added three insurance points from the foul line.

Dave Peters was magnificent in defeat. The classy southpaw tossed in 23 points in addition to starring on the boards. Three other Falcons broke into double figures, but this was a case where balanced scoring didn't win.

It was too much Larry Kersten as far as St. Fred was concerned. Almont's lanky center netted a dozen field goals and five free throws for 29 points. Most of his total was garnered underneath the bucket.

St. Fred held a 14-12 lead going into the 2nd quarter, but the Raiders forged ahead at halftime, 25-21. They never relinquished their advantage.

Vikings 'B' Champs

By CHUCK ABAIR

"Bring on those regionals," is the cry out at Walled Lake this week as the power-packed Vikings prepare to meet the area's best Class B quintets in the tournament slated for Pontiac High beginning Wednesday.

Walled Lake will likely enter the regional tourney in the favorite role on the basis of the easy style in which it handled Brighton and Northville in the District tourney at Walled Lake over the past weekend.

The Vikings, coached by Bill Ullenbruch, completed the sweep Saturday night by handing Northville an 81-57 trouncing in a razzle-dazzle type contest marred by repeated trips to both foul lines. A total of 97 free throws were taken in the game.

Inspired Northville gave the impression it might give the home club a battle by racing to an early 9-3 lead and holding on to end the 1st quarter in front by 14-13. But Walled Lake took charge from then on just as it had Friday after a close initial period against Brighton.

Scoring and rebound ace Larry Hughes pumped in two successive fields and Dennis McClelland added a 3rd to send WLHS ahead to stay in the opening minutes of round two. Another six-point spree followed a Mustang foul and it was a question of how high the final tally would go the rest of the way.

The half ended 34-19 and it was 60-39 following a red-hot 3rd quarter in which 46 points were scored in eight minutes, 26 by the victors. Both teams emptied their benches in the finale enabling a total of 28 players to see action, 20 of them garnering points.

Hughes paced all the scorers with 26, 12 in that 2nd period thrust that completely changed the complexion of the contest. He hit on 50 per cent of his floor shots and better than 66 per cent from the foul stripe.

Second in scoring but equal to Hughes as a sparkplug was southpaw Tom Willwerth with 18 points and some excellent all around play. Steady John Walker added 10, Dick Biery hooped 15 and Mac Burns swished 13 for the losers, who lost four players on personal fouls.

Ullenbruch who was carried around the court and almost tossed in the shower by his elated charges, had praise for every member of his squad but especially cited the big performances of Willwerth in the clinching of District crown.

"If he keeps going like that for us we could go all the way," commented the usually pessimistic Walled Lake boss, Willwerth was the tourney high point man with 37 big digits in two games.

Losing skipper Stan Johnston had nothing but praise for his team's conquerors following the final whistle. "We lost to the state champions. I don't see how anyone can beat them," he said.

With 32 Teams

NAIA Tourney Begins

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The week-long, 32-team National Intercollegiate (NAIA) basketball tournament opened in Municipal Auditorium today and there's only the slightest inkling which team will take the championship trophy home Saturday night.

Eight teams were seeded when the pairings were drawn up. Pacific Lutheran of Parkland, Wash., was given the top spot, primarily because its 27-1 season record included two victories over Seattle's AAU champions.

Texas Southern, which was beaten in the finals by McNeese State of Lake Charles, La., last year, was seeded 8th despite its 31-1 record, best in the field, and the fact it has all of its 1956 personnel returning.

The other high seeded teams include, Youngstown, Ohio, University (19-3), No. 2; West Virginia Tech (31-2), No. 3 Western Illinois (21-2), No. 4; Portland, Ore., University (17-11), No. 5; Hamline (19-3), No. 6; and Southeastern Oklahoma State (22-5), No. 7.

WEEKEND FIGHTS

HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—Jose Luis Cotero, 126, Los Angeles, outpointed Larry Bataan, 125, Los Angeles, 10.

Utica Wins at Troy

Eagles Stop Barons, 48-33

By H. GUY MOATS

A slow start made it rough for a time Saturday night for St. Mary's Eagles (OL). But former Eagles' star Rev. John Rakoczy sent his charges back in the 2nd half to grab the Bloomfield Hills "B" District title going away.

Eagles trailed early in the game, were tied at the half. They blew the game open in the 3rd period, went on to win easily, 48-33, over the host club, Bloomfield Hills.

Utica, tangling with Royal Oak Shrine at Troy High's gymnasium, also compiled 48 points to win the Troy District Class B crown. Shrine collected only two more points than Hills' 35.

Both St. Mary's and Utica will play in the Pontiac "B" Regional. Draw for this tourney was to be made today.

Win over the Hills boosted the Eagles' season mark to 17-1.

Hills put up a hot scrap during the first half, fell apart after intermission when they scored only 9 points. A lone basket by Chuck Mazey and a gift shot by Bob Barrett provided the last period production.

St. Mary's defense stiffened after the 24-24 first half, while the Eagles were flying in for layups and hitting from the corners. Barons' shooting was hurried and inaccurate, accounting for many lost points.

Three Eagles got in the double-figure class. Top man was Art Goisdzinski with 13. Stan (Stash) Moniuszko had 12 and Captain Pete Madelans collected 12. Madelans was the playmaker and the rebounder, along with Goisdzinski. Stocky Paul Franckowiak was a strong defensive player, added 7 points to the score.

Dave Drury, the big noise in the Barons' 64-46 win over Oak Park on Thursday night, suffered a drought Saturday, bagging only two goals compared to his 20-point production in the 1st game. Bob Elston, Randy Barrett and Chuck Mazey each had eight.

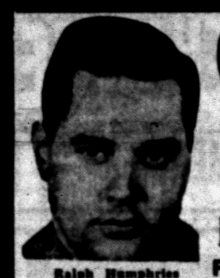

Utica grabbed a 2-point edge over Royal Oak Shrine at halftime 22-20, went on to pull away in the finale for a 48-35 count. Utica had a 33-28 edge going into the wind-up, of this Troy Class D district title test. First half was close.

Three of the winners' aces hit double figures, led by Lou Haase with 15, Ken Thompson with 14 and Jim Cole with 13. Tom Ropers' 15 led Shrine.

Vitamin Research Aided

LONDON — The University of Cambridge chemical laboratory, directed by Prof. Sir Alexander R. Todd, which has done outstanding work in determining the definite structure of vitamin B-12, has been given $87,000 by the Rockefeller Foundation to continue its studies.

Plan Court Test in School Issue

Will Force Decision on Bus Transportation for Parochial Students

Catholic parents voted 283-121 yesterday against going through with their threat to send 600-odd children into the already crowded public schools if bus transportation isn't provided by the city today.

Lawyers for both factions will confer on getting the test to Maine's Supreme Court.

Last Wednesday the City Council made a token appropriation of $100 to provide bus service to the city's two parochial schools — simply as a foundation for the legal challenge.

Claude Bourget, city solicitor and a Catholic, told a parents meeting they would have "absolutely nothing to gain" legally by enrolling their children in the public schools before the test case is decided.

Henry R. Albert, president of the Franco-American Club, and William Bean, 30-year-old father of six who had spearheaded the Catholic drive for bus transportation, went along with the majority.

Hollywood Headlines

Fischer Signs With 20th After Making Up With U-I

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — The threatened legal battle between Austrian born O. W. Fischer and Universal-International is amicably settled, and O. W. returns to Hollywood in June.

Late Friday, Buddy Adler and Fischer, flanked by his representative, Paul Kohner, made a multiple picture deal with 20th Century-Fox. Although Buddy says he does not have any property in mind for the handsome actor, I hear through the grapevine there are two pictures under discussion. One is "Hell Below," in which he would play a submarine captain, and the other "Young Lions." Fischer has a European film to make before he comes back.

Interestingly enough, the reports in the German newspapers of the battle between Fischer and U-I mostly favored the studio.

Walt Disney made a wise decision in signing Norman Foster to direct the new Disney "Zorro" series for television. It is Norman who directed the highly successful "Davy Crockett" TV shows that brought stardom to Fess Parker, and Foster also directed some of the Disneyland programs.

DOUGLAS STARRED

The late Douglas Fairbanks first starred in "Zorro," the romantic hero whose daring captivated Spanish California in the days of the Dons. Norman tells me he wishes there was a young Doug around for the new series and he's already at work testing candidates. "Zorro" starts in October over ABC in 39 weekly half-hour chapters.

Clark Gable certainly won't have much rest between pictures. He is still working on "Band of Angels" at Warners and his next, "Teacher's Pet," for Perlberg and Seaton, starts April 15.

Doris Day is his co-star, and Gig Young has an important feature role. When I talked to Gig at 20th he said that he has two of the best scrips of his life in "Desk Set" and "Teacher's Pet."

You'll also see Mamie Van Doren as a nightclub strip teaser who loses Clark to Doris.

I had an idea when I talked with Lana Turner that she would be glad to put miles between her and Lex Barker. While she was very careful what she said, knowing Lana as I do, I realized that she is very hurt over something, but she isn't telling.

When she returns to the U.S.A. from the Uruguay film festival next week she isn't coming home. She'll spend two weeks in New York and during that time she will make another TV appearance. She'll be on Perry Como's show March 23. She was also on the Bob Hope show.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Through the grapevine I hear the next Mrs. Sam Spiegel is a pretty girl named Betty Benson, age 23, and very highbrow.

List Aid by Protestants

NEW YORK (AP)—American Protestant churches sent 192,073,657 pounds of food, clothing, medicines and other supplies—worth $31,188,181—to impoverished peoples abroad during 1956, Church World Service, interdenominational relief agency, reports.

Mishap Victim Weds Broker in California

Boni and Blalack, 29, a San Marino, Calif., investment broker and social figure, were married here Saturday in the climax to an eight-month romance. They met on a blind date.

Boni walked down the aisle on an artificial leg. A cape on her dress hid the missing arm.

GM to Conduct Auto Body Repair Courses

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors today announced plans to conduct a school for automotive body repairmen at its 30 training centers in the United States

Myrle St Aubin, director of the General Motors Service Section, said all employes of General Motors' 18,500 car and truck dealers would be eligible to attend the school

"There has been a growing shortage of competent body repairmen for many years," St Aubin said, "with only a few formal schools where men could learn the trade Modern car styling has aggravated this shortage even more"

The program was designed to accommodate 900 students a year from Chevrolet, Pontiac, Buick, Oldsmobile, Cadillac and GMC truck dealers, he said

Steels and Oils Lose Ground

American Motors was a high-spot, leaping 1⅛ at 7¼ on an opening block of 20,000 shares following a statement by the president of American Motors that Financier Louis E. Wolfson of proxy fight fame and his wife have probably become the largest two stockholders in the firm.

The steels were softer on reports that steel orders for April delivery are declining below expectations. The international oils lost ground as further snags were reported in the Suez canal situation.

General Motors eased as it was reported that GM was the only member of the auto industry's "big three" to experience a decline in sales from a year-ago for the first two months of the year.

U. S. Steel, Bethlehem and Youngstown were all fractionally lower. Gulf Oil dropped well over a point and Royal Dutch around a point. Texas Co. and Standard Oil (New Jersey) lost fractions.

2-Month Sales Best in Ford's History

DEARBORN (INS) — Henry Ford II announced today that retail sales of Ford Motor Co., passenger cars in the first two months of 1957 were the greatest in the company's history for that period.

The Ford Motor Co. president said:

"Retail deliveries by our dealers in January and February of this year exceeded those for the corresponding two-month period in every other year including 1955, when both Ford and the automobile industry set all-time annual sales records.

Ford reported that sales of Ford, Mercury, Lincoln and Continental cars during January and February, 1957, totaled 293,008 units — an increase of 22 per cent over the 240,522 units sold during the same period in 1956 and slightly in excess of the 290,731 total for the first two months of 1955. Ford went on to post a record total of 2,075,182 passenger car deliveries in 1955.

Return to Home Town Triumphant for Eddie

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The music publishing guys are all flocking to Philly to see Eddie Fisher's triumphant return to his home town. They have great faith in his appeal to the teenagers . . . and incidentally, whatever happened to all the girl recording stars?

ABBE LANE

Eddie's piling people in, making a million disc jockey appearances, and getting ready for Boston and Las Vegas. He and manager Milton Blackstone are hitting it off fine.

"He just needs a record," somebody said.

"Don't we all?" wailed one of the publishers.

Abbe Lane's such a hit with the Xavier Cugat TV show that Coogie says, "What a switch! She used to work for me. Now I'm workin' for her" . . .

Phil Harris had a severe kidney attack and Alice Faye was plenty worried for a few hours. And Anna Maria Alberghetti arrived in town sick.

"Some men go to great lengths to shorten their lives" —Rube Rustic . . . Allen Scott, the Philly radioracle, told somebody he's studying "psychoceramics" and was challenged . . . "You mean psychosomatics, don't you?" . . . "Nope, psychoceramics," he insisted. "Crackpots."

How could they? The Sigma Chi boys at Southern Methodist didn't give Jayne Mansfield a tumble when they picked their "Sweetheart" in 1952. The college yearbook shows she was a brunette then!

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

MERRY ANDERS

Hope Hampton and her Egyptian prince called the romance off . . . Georgiana Carhart, once the bouncy hit of "Life Begins at 80," is in a N.Y. nursing home . . . Jayne Meadows will leave "I've Got A Secret" for two weeks to accompany Steve Allen to H'wood.

EARL'S PEARLS . . .

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "Marriage is the most expensive way I know to get your laundry done free."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Someone described a crabby character: "He's the kind who spreads good cheer wherever he doesn't go."

There'd be fewer divorces if women hunted husbands, with as much thought and care as they hunt bargains. That's earl, brother.

Quiz Whizzes Tell Techniques

How They Get Answers Amazing as Ability to Answer Questions

NEW YORK (INS) — Teacher Charles Van Doren and lawyer Vivienne Nearing will be mentally "squeezing," "associating" and "visualizing" tonight in efforts to break their tie on a big-money TV quiz show.

The two quiz contestants explained just how they think in separate interviews in New York before resuming their battle of wits and knowledge on TV's "Twenty-One."

Van Doren has beaten challenger after challenger to bring his winnings up to $143,000. Mrs. Nearing —"Television's Brainiest Blonde" —has tied him three times.

Tonight the winner gets $2,000 for each point difference in their scores—$42,000 if the score is 21 to 0—and knocks the loser off the program. If they tie again, the battle continues in the next game with the value per point raised to $2,500.

Van Doren and Mrs. Nearing agreed that the "Twenty-One" show atmosphere, the desire to win and the "isolation booth" create excellent conditions for dredging up the answers.

"The conditions of maximum anxiety," said Van Doren, "apparently make us think better."

Many answers, both find, are right on the tops of their minds. But often the answer isn't so easy.

"You recognize that the question is one you can answer," said Van Doren, "but the problem is to remember."

Vivienne Nearing finds association most helpful.

"If I have read it," she said, "and don't remember the answer, I try to remember where I read it, in what book. Or if I heard it in a conversation, I try to remember what conversation.

"Sometimes I think about something closely related. I was asked about the Teapot Dome scandal, and I worked out the answer by remembering the law suit involved."

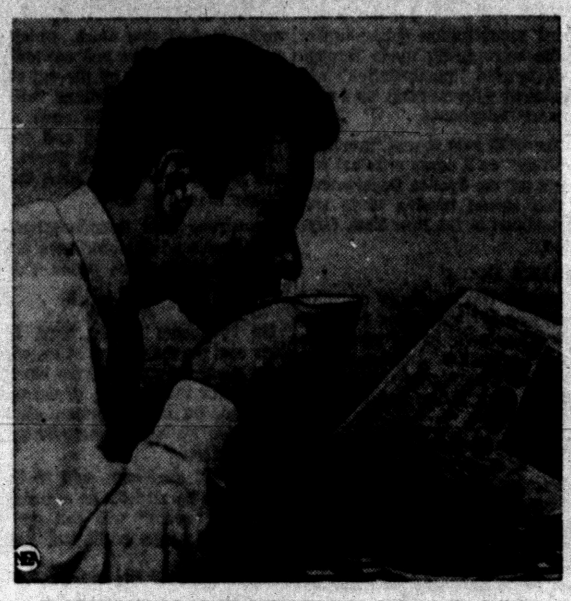

Both Van Doren and Mrs. Nearing also use a technique of elimination.

Mrs. Nearing was asked to name the last opera of Rimski-Korsakov. First she eliminated all those she knew had been played during his life, and then her mind "jumped to one I knew had been played for the first time after his death because of censorship problems —'Le Coq D'or'." She was right.

Van Doren was asked to give the date of the battle of Trafalgar, 1805. He said:

"I didn't know that I had ever known the date, but I knew I could figure it out from other things I knew about Trafalgar.

"I knew the news got to Napoleon immediately, and then he marched across Europe to win the battle of Austerlitz in 1805. I knew that from 'War and Peace'."

Iraqi Oil Pipeline to Begin Pumping

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — The Iraq Petroleum Co. announced today it would start pumping Iraqi oil for Western Europe through its sabotaged Banias pipeline across Syria within 48 hours. The company said the amount pumped would be 40 per cent of normal.

A 32-inch line runs to Banias and a 16-inch pipe to Tripoli.

Syrian army units sabotaged the pipeline pumping stations 127 days ago, when Britain and France launched their invasion of the Suez Canal Zone. Syria would not let the company begin repairs until Israel withdrew her troops from the Gulf of Aqaba area and the Gaza Strip.

Set Shelter Cost at $32 Billion

System Would Protect Only 60 Pct. of People, Say Defense Officials

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Civil Defense Administration says a nationwide system of nuclear war shelters would cost more than 32 billion dollars — and still protect only about 60 per cent of the people.

Civil Defense Administrator Val Peterson told a House Appropriations subcommittee the administration is studying some shelter proposals, but added that "we should not go off carelessly on a program of that magnitude."

He said the federal government eventually "will have to take a larger hand" in civil defense, heretofore defined by law as primarily a state and local function. He said his agency will propose that Congress make the responsibility a joint federal and local one.

Peterson's testimony, given Feb. 6, was published today.

He took issue with an estimate he attributed to the Navy Radiological Laboratory that a 38-billion-dollar shelter program could save 99 per cent of the people.

"We don't think so," he said. "We think you can save approximately 60 per cent . . . We are going to lose millions of people if we have a war. . . There is no easy answer to this thing except to have peace."

He said this is so even though his agency hopes, by May 1, to have reduced to one minute the time required to flash a warning of enemy attack to every city in the United States.

New Features Added to Show at Tulip Festival

HOLLAND (AP) — Two new features have been added to the spectacle of tulip time, scheduled May 11-18 in this west Michigan community of old world Dutch heritage.

Laverne Rudolph, president of Holland Tulip Time Festival, Inc., yesterday announced the added attractions as the costume show-opera and the west Michigan invitational high school choir festival.

The community's thousands of rows of tulips in blossom remain as the highlight of the festival, Rudolph said, but the celebration will follow the general format of previous years.

Spectators are treated to numerous street parades, street scrubbing, klompen (wooden shoe) dancing, flower show, band review and a stage presentation known as the tulip time varieties.

The festival opens traditionally with street scrubbing ceremonies with many prominent state and national figures expected to take part. A volk parade, featuring community residents dressed in old world costume, follows the scrubbing to set the pace for the three-day celebration.

One of the festival's most appealing spectacles is the children's parade in which thousands of costumed tots tour the business district behind school bands.

Van Doren Wins Again, Club Forced to Recess

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Charles Van Doren has won a victory over the Mens Club of the West Oak Jewish Community Center.

The club meets every Monday night. Each week Van Doren has remained as a contestant on the television quiz show Twenty-One, fewer members have shown up for meetings.

Club President Irv Miller has finally conceded defeat. He has rented four television sets for tonight and a recess will be called when Van Doren goes on the air in an attempt to get past the $143,000 mark.

Boys Club Cites Eastern Youth for Citizenship

NEW YORK (AP) — Joseph M. Meany Jr., 17, of Waltham, Mass., received the 1957 Junior Citizenship Award of the Boys Clubs of America from former President Herbert Hoover yesterday.

It was announced that young Meany will be the only American crew member aboard the reproduction of the Pilgrims' Mayflower, which will sail from Plymouth, England, to Plymouth, Mass., next month. He will function as a ship's boy.

Meany, who received a trophy, was cited for "outstanding service to his home, school, church, community and Boys Clubs."

He has been either president or vice president of his class during his four years at St. Mary's Roman Catholic High School in Waltham, from which he will be graduated this spring. His grades have always been in the 90s.

Predicts Slash in Aid Request

Senator Knowland Says $1 Billion Will Be Cut Off Ike's Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California predicted today Congress will cut about a billion dollars off President Eisenhower's $4,363,000,000 foreign aid request.

Chairman Bridges (NH) of the Senate Republican Policy Committee backed this up with a forecast of "substantial cuts" in the economic assistance program.

Eisenhower told his news conference last week he doesn't believe any "substantial cuts" can be made in aid funds "and still support the welfare of the United States and the world."

Despite this, Knowland told reporters the mutual security program is already in for "rough sledding," which he said could be made even more difficult if the administration agrees to make assistance available to Poland.

Polish negotiators now are here seeking about 200 million dollars in surplus farm products, as well as loans for mining machinery and other industrial development. They were invited here under a finding by Secretary of State Dulles that Poland's present government is not dominated by Moscow.

Knowland said extension of aid to Poland could be the "opening wedge for a Communist Marshall plan" that might involve a billion dollars a year in U.S. expenditures.

"If we start giving help to Poland it would be difficult to discriminate against Romania, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia and Hungary," he said.

Saves Burned Roast —1 Window Broken

CHICAGO (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. John B. Cramer were about to sit down to dinner with friends when Mrs. Cramer remembered — she had left a roast cooking in the oven.

Cramer called police.

Sgt. Joseph Brady dispatched two men who smashed a window to enter the locked apartment. The officers opened the oven and removed a scorched roast which was smoking heavily.

The policemen found some board, a hammer and nails and efficiently secured the shattered window opening against possible thieves.

City Juvenile Officer Completes Course

Officer James R. Lafnear, assigned to the juvenile delinquency detail of the Pontiac Police, was graduated Friday from the annual one-week Police Juvenile Training Course at Michigan State University, East Lansing.

Chief Herbert W. Straley said the program was designed to acquaint police officers with proper procedures for identifying and referring juveniles in need of assistance to the proper sources.

MSU's School of Police Administration and Public Safety and the Michigan Police Academy sponsored the course which also informed officers of their powers and limitations in dealing with juveniles.

The program, held on campus at Kellogg Center, was endorsed by the FBI and Michigan State Police.

City Man Listed as Fair After Auto Flips Over

Frank J. Wilson Jr., 181 E. Huron St., is in fair condition in St. Joseph Hospital this morning, after he lost control of his car and crashed, according to Waterford Township police.

Police said he apparently hit a bump at the side of Elizabeth Lake Road near Cooley Lake Road, and the car flipped end over end, landing upside down in a ditch. Skid marks indicated a high rate of speed, they said.

4 From Guidance Clinic Attend Chicago Meeting

Four members of the Oakland County Child Guidance Clinic attended the three-day annual meeting of the American Orthopsychiatric Assn. in Chicago which ended Saturday.

Attending were Madeleine Half, director; Mrs. Philip Lifton and Emil Zamorski, both psychiatric social workers; and Mrs. William Thomas, supervosor of the Birmingham branch.

Some 3,000 psychiatrists, psychiatric social workers and clinical psychologists were present.

Pontiac Board Reviews Taxes

Will Hear Complaints Concerning Real Estate Assessments

The Pontiac Board of Tax Review today moved into its second week of public hearings on 1957 assessments and taxes.

Today through Wednesday the morning and afternoon sessions in the assessor's office in the City Hall will be devoted to any questions or complaints citizens might have on real estate assessments.

Hours for the hearings before the five-man board are 8 a.m. until noon, and 1 p.m. until 4.

Approximately 350 persons appeared before the board last week seeking tax exemptions or reductions for reasons of retirement or diminished incomes.

James F. Spence is chairman of the board, while Gerald W. Kehoe and Bernon K. Archer are members. William A. Ewart, city attorney, and Oscar Eckman, director of finance for the city, are ex-officio members.

The assessments in question are those upon which city, school, and county taxes for the year must be paid by Pontiac residents.

Next week's session will be devoted to questions on personal property assessments, according to Mrs. Charles Boshears, clerk of the board.

American Imports Bulls as Ireland Eyes Export

They were bought for W. Houghton of Queenstown, Md., for an estimated $20,000 and are believed the first Irish-bred bulls ever purchased by an American breeder.

A government official said Ireland is hoping to build up exports of cattle to the United States, a field so far dominated by Scottish breeders.

Securities Group Begins Crackdown on Juggling and Fraud in Stock Sales

WASHINGTON (INS) — A new crackdown by the Securities and Exchange Commission on high-pressure stock sales may bring criminal charges against 125 persons in New York City alone.

Testimony released by the House Appropriations Committee disclosed multi-million dollar broker profits were being made through stock market "manipulation" and fraudulent salesmanship on long distance telephones.

The SEC said it was "working actively" on a dozen criminal reports for the Justice Department which should involve 75 to 125 defendants in the New York City area.

'BOILER ROOM'

One or two of these so-called "boiler-room" operations were reported to have been "nipped in the bud" in Los Angeles and a quick halt was made in others planned for Chicago and Washington, D. C.

The commission said six "boiler-room" operators sold nine million shares for 30 million dollars during one six month period last year. The loss to buyers in the first six months was 50 per cent, the SEC said, and early this year the loss rose to 75 per cent. The brokers were said to have reaped a profit of $4,500,000.

The report disclosed that a Canadian high-pressure operation "took $15,000 out of Spartanburg, S. C., in one week."

VIOLATED LAW

Chairman J. Sinclair Armstrong said the law was violated through "misrepresentation of the value, assets and earning power of the security; and most important of all, by a misrepresentation of its future appreciation."

Armstrong, describing the methods used by the fraudulent brokers, said: "The pitch they make is that this stock, which you can buy at two and one-half today, will be five by the 4th of July and next Christmas will be 20. They say, 'We have a block reserved for you and we are a fine firm on Wall Street,' and the next thing you know the money is coming in."

Armstrong said Canadian operators first send out brochures and then follow up with phone calls to make a sale.

He continued: "Then they, by their own purchases and sales, will manipulate the prices of the stock, either over the counter, or we understand, on the American stock exchange; we have some evidence to that effect."

The SEC chairman said if the stock goes up slightly as a result, the "boiler-room" will call up a victim and urge additional purchases.

Urge Outside Training

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration officials have urged Congress to approve a bill permitting all government agencies to send federal employes to outside training schools.

Frederick J. Lawton, member of the Civil Service Commission, told a Senate committee that one Air Force physicist, who received a $282 training course, later designed an improvised missile test control system estimated to reduce operating costs by several million dollars.

Arthur Eisenhower Completes Checkup

Arthur, a Kansas City, Mo., banker, entered the hospital Feb. 27 for the checkup and an examination of an eye condition. No surgery was performed, hospital spokesmen said.

Dinkelsbuhl, in German Bavaria, holds an annual pageant honoring the children who, in 1632, saved the town from destruction by a Swedish conqueror. Tradition says one of the youngsters in the market place reminded the conqueror of his own son who had died shortly before; so he ordered his soldiers not to loot and burn.
