

Brief Prison Rebellion Ends

AFTERMATH — Some of the 46 rebellious convicts were ordered to lie face down near their barricades at the Arizona State Prison after lawmen ended their brief insurrection. The convicts tore up hospital blankets and mattresses (foreground) to use as barricades after taking over the hospital and a captain's office.

Brave Arizona Prison Riot to Rescue Hostage Guards

FLORENCE, Ariz. (AP)—A steel-nerved warden led 25 lawmen storming into barricades at the Arizona State Prison Thursday night and rescued two guards held by rebellious convicts.

Despite warnings from the 46 insurgent prisoners that they would kill their hostages if attacked, Warden Frank Eymann decided to call their bluff—and won his desperate gamble.

Eastern Air Line Strike Continues

Chance of Pact With Machinists; Engineers Far From Pact

By the Associated Press

The 12-day-old strike against Eastern Air Lines continues, with some hope that striking machinists will settle but with a continued deadlock between EAL and its flight engineers.

Eastern has offered a 45-cent hourly wage increase to 5,000 members of the International Assn. of Machinists. The union demands 49 cents, but negotiations were continuing.

However, both sides acknowledge no progress in efforts to resolve demands by EAL's 550 flight engineers. In addition to wages, the dispute involves company insistence that the engineers take jet pilot training.

With the bulk of IAM machinists already voting in Kansas City to accept a tentative agreement with Trans World Airlines, TWA hopes to be back in business by 12:01 a.m. Monday.

TWA machinists in New York, Los Angeles and other areas were expected to vote today.

American Airlines continues to operate under a temporary injunction against a walkout by the Air Line Pilots Assn. A ruling on making the injunction permanent is expected next week.

Contract talks continue between Pan American World Airways and the Transport Workers Union, with no interruption in service.

Gives Self Away

PORTLAND, England (UPI)—Escaped convict Edmund G. Dowton gave himself away yesterday when he asked a station attendant what time the next train left for Weymouth. The attendant informed him the last train between Portland and Weymouth ran six years ago. He then called police who arrested Dowton.

Funeral Service Held in Chicago for Fire Victims

CHICAGO (AP)—Twenty-eight small coffins lay in a military armory today for last solemn tributes to the young victims of Monday's parochial school fire.

Black and purple draperies softened austere setting, and a portable altar stood at the front of the big drill hall. There was no church big enough for the funeral.

The Most Rev. Albert Gregory Meyer, Roman Catholic archbishop of Chicago, will offer the Solemn Requiem Mass for the 28 children, Francis Cardinal Spellman, archbishop of New York, will attend.

The Mass in the 6,100-seat armory was not opened to the public. Families of the 28 children were given 150 tickets each to distribute among parents, relatives and close friends.

Nineteen of the 28 will be buried in Holy Innocents Shrine, a special place for children in Queen of Heaven Cemetery. Burial for the others was planned in three cemeteries.

Four of the 87 children and three nuns who died when flames swept Our Lady of the Angels School were buried Thursday. Private services will be held in churches today for many of the other children. Other services will be held Saturday.

His Lucky Number!

READING, England (UPI)—Loftus Thorne, a retired government employee, said today he used his old army serial number 53442 in two competitions based on attendance at this year's London Automobile Show. He won a new car each time.

Eymann and the two guards gave this account: Hunt, Wright and another guard went to the isolation ward to bring one of the convicts some medicine. As Hunt and Wright entered the ward, the prisoners seized them.

The prisoners then phoned Eymann with this message: "We are going to take your prison. We have the keys. And we're going to Cell Block 1."

Then the convicts split into two groups. One took over the hospital and the other commandeered a prison captain's office. Each held a hostage.

Eymann fired several shots to launch an assault. After a few minutes, the lawmen recaptured the hospital and the office and rescued the guards.

The prisoners were held in the courtyard and searched. Guards confiscated five homemade knives and one pocket-knife. Then they were returned to the isolation ward. Eymann ordered the doors welded shut.

City Hospital Studies Halt to Emergency Care

By PETE LOCHBILER

The possibility that patients will be turned away from the Pontiac General Hospital emergency room was under consideration today as hospital trustees sought ways of bolstering a deficit budget of $3,217,150.

The budget was adopted at a special meeting last night and sent to the City Commission for approval. It was the first hospital budget officially passed since 1957, and predicted net operating losses next year of $45,420, unless new sources of revenue are found.

Number one target was an estimated $100,000 a year loss in unpaid emergency service bills.

Trustees went on record demanding that the city reimburse the hospital for the unpaid bills run up by Pontiac residents — an estimated $50,000 a year.

This was expected to emerge as a big issue when trustees and city commissioners meet soon in a joint discussion of hospital finances.

STUDY GROUP NAMED
A special committee — made up of William P. Babcock, T. M. Bradford, Isaac Smoot and Lynn Allen Jr. — was appointed to study emergency losses and come up with a policy recommendation next month.

"Either the area governments reimburse us for the unpaid bills run up by their residents or we cease taking them as emergency patients. This should be our policy and it should apply to the city of Pontiac as well," Babcock said.

Bradford went one step further: "We should collect from Pontiac on all the unpaid bills and then let the city collect from the other communities," he said.

Board chairman James Clarkson angrily noted that the city had not provided for emergency room reimbursements in its proposed 1959 budget.

"It was my understanding that the hospital and the city had agreed to an emergency room subsidy. Now the city is telling us to go whistle for the emergency charges," he said.

Under an agreement announced in July, but never formally approved by either the hospital or the City Commission, the city agreed to make up unpaid emergency bills of Pontiac residents.

At the same time, City Manager Walter K. Willman undertook the job of getting surrounding communities to do the same for their residents.

Willman noted this fall that the plan had failed. Out of 35 Oakland County communities contacted, most never replied to his queries, a few turned him down flatly, and only a couple showed even mild interest.

Rackets Group Probes Mobster Terror, Trickery

Cites Evidence of Use in Juke Box, Vending Machine Industry

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Rackets Committee said today it has evidence that mobsters used terror and trickery to muscle into the juke box-vending machine industry.

Chief counsel Robert F. Kennedy told reporters the evidence as it unfolds in public hearings next year will show a pattern of violence and conniving.

He said stories will be told of wrecking rivals' machines, setting up labor unions specifically to help smother competition, and inter-union fights in which unionists sometimes picketed each other.

Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) said the inquiry is designed to show the extent of underworld takeover in the industry, which he estimated does a $1.5 billion dollars of business every year. The committee will study also whether new laws are needed.

McClellan said there is no contention that all juke box and vending machine enterprises have been infiltrated.

The committee heard testimony Thursday that Frank Cammarata, a former Detroit gangster, used his influence with big shot mobsters to help settle "wars" between juke box operators in Detroit and Youngstown, Ohio.

Cammarata, just out of a Michigan prison and under orders to leave the country or be kicked out, refused to answer the committee's questions. He pleaded that answers might incriminate him.

The Elizabeth Kenny Foundation is "definitely interested" in establishing a rehabilitation center for polio and other cases at the vacant Oakland County Contagious Hospital.

E. J. Rollings, executive vice president of the foundation, and Howard N. Maynard, foundation president, appeared before a special committee of county officials Thursday studying future use of 80-bed facility.

"We are definitely interested in operating an in-patient rehabilitation and acute polio care center in Oakland County," Rollings told the group.

The two-story hospital at 1075 N. Telegraph Rd. has been vacant since August when Pontiac General Hospital discontinued using it as an annex.

Western Firms Arousing Ire of Top Communist

But He Doesn't Say What Action Is Planned Against 3 Concerns

BERLIN (AP)—The threat of Communist interference mounted today against busy American, British, and French airliners shuttling in and out of isolated West Berlin.

One of East Germany's top Communists, Politburo member Hermann Matern, told a West Berlin election rally Thursday night that the airlines — Pan American, Air France and British European Airways — have no legal right to fly over East German territory.

"This situation must be brought in order," he declared. He did not say what action the Communists have in mind.

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, who addressed an election rally in another part of West Berlin, said the Western powers would hold the Russians responsible for keeping open all routes to Berlin, including the air corridors.

He said he had a personal letter from U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles reaffirming that position.

Guinea Wants to Enter U.N.

Sweden Clears Way in Face of Opposition From France

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Despite behind-the-scenes opposition from France, another former member of her shrinking African empire today appeared sure of admission to the United Nations.

Sweden, which heads the 11-nation Security Council this month sidestepped French talk of delay and consulted Council members about acting next week on Guinea's application for membership in the world organization.

Council approval of the application would be followed by ratification in the General Assembly. Sweden's move to clear the way for Guinea was a victory for the 23-nation Asian-African bloc, which pressed for early action despite French contentions that speedy acceptance of Guinea would be premature.

The Oregon-sized Negro nation of 2,125,000 on the Equatorial West African bulge was the only French territory to reject Premier Charles de Gaulle's new constitution. It thus won its independence automatically Oct. 1.

De Gaulle's government has not yet recognized Guinea, although the United States and the Soviet Union have. Premier Sekou Toure of Guinea says he wants to negotiate a future association with France, "a free and dignified marriage and not a divorce," and to keep his country's currency tied to the French franc. Presumably the French would like to use U.N. membership as a bargaining point in the negotiations with the former colony.

Other Western nations were reported somewhat unhappy over admission of Guinea because Toure has shown Communist sympathies in the past.

Government Seeks More $$ Without General Tax Boost

By JAMES MARLOW Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—This looks like a solid guess for next year: no general increase in the tax rate and no general tax cut.

But the government needs money so what may happen is this:

Some changes in the tax laws to plug loopholes; perhaps a boost in the gasoline tax or postal rates. And there is talk of boosting the tax on insurance companies, of removing some exemptions and preferences affecting individuals and corporations.

President Eisenhower expressed the brave hope of reducing government spending in his last two years in office. But spending is likely to go up, not down.

This year government spending will run around 80 billion dollars and government income—because of the economic slump—around 67 billions. This means a gap of 12 to 13 billion between government outgo and income.

And this week the No. 1 tax man in Congress—Rep. Wilbur D. Mills (D-Ark), chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, where all tax changes start—said he doesn't see government spending next year running less than 80 billions.

Instead, he thinks next year the bill may be around 83 billions with revenue at no more than 78 billions. That would mean another deficit, this time of about five billions.

So the government's dilemma comes down to this if it hopes to live somewhere within its income:

1. Reduce expenses. This is so tough to do—particularly because of the need for defense spending—that it can be almost ruled out.

2. Raise taxes generally on individuals and corporations. It's unlikely. The politicians don't want to have to face the voters in 1960 with a bigger tax bill in their hand.

3. Find some way to get more federal income from taxes without a general tax increase. That could be done in a number of ways, such as those suggested at the beginning of this story.

Administration officials indicated last month Eisenhower is almost certain to ask Congress for a boost in the gasoline tax so the cost of superhighway construction won't strain the federal budget. These officials also disclosed that Budget Director Maurice Stans and Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield recently conferred on the possibility of urging another increase in postal rates.

Mills offered various ideas on getting more revenue from taxes: such as removing some exemptions and tax preferences for individuals and corporations.

But from the way Mills talked to the Tax Foundation in New York this week it would seem his committee is going to move very cautiously, at least in 1959, in trying to get some changes through Congress, and perhaps try a little more in 1960.

A major problem of Algeria in North Africa is still water supply. More than 22 dams have been built by the French government to provide irrigation.

There's an Explanation for 20 Pink Elephants

KARIBA, Rhodesia (UPI)—Pilot Paul Rex said he definitely had not been drinking when he saw 20 pink elephants on a flying trip up the Sanyati Valley about 25 miles from here. A game officer who was with Rex at the time suggested the elephants had been rolling in a river bottom full of red mud—and it was sunset.

Music in the Round
by Dick Saunders

LPs of Christmas music are in great evidence in the local music shops, and they seem to be selling well both as gifts, and also as a pleasant yuletide decoration to the ear drums.

Cream of the crop of this year's Christmas LPs include "The Mormon Tabernacle Choir Sings Christmas Carols," "Merry Christmas" by Johnny Mathis (Columbia), "To Wish You a Merry Christmas" by Harry Belafonte, "Christmas With Grandma Moses" with reminiscing by G. Moses & music by Skitch Henderson and the Ralph Hunter Choir (Victor).

Others include "Caroling, Caroling" by The Gene Lowell Chorus (Warner Brothers); "Won't You Spend Christmas With Me?" by Dorothy Collins (Everest); and "The Star Carol," Tennessee Ernie Ford (Capitol).

It seems a shame that Mahalia Jackson doesn't appear on an album of Christmas music this year. Her great LP "Sweet Little Jesus Boy" (Columbia) of several seasons back was one of the finest albums of Christmas music ever made.

A top-notch single by Stan Freberg on Capitol goes much further than most albums by not merely "reminiscing" us through repetition of the age old carols. If you get nothing but laughs out of his "Green Christmas" (& that's no misprint) you are immune to sharp biting satire at its recorded best.

FIVE ACES: The big news this week lies below the surface (fourth place to be exact). While "To Know Him Is to Love Him" (The Teddy Bears) is way out in front and "Whole Lot of Loving" (Fats Domino) ranks second, neither may hold their lofty positions for long.

"It's Only Make Believe" (Conway Twitty) is on very shaky ground in third spot.

The earthquake is created by David Seville, of Bing-Bang-Walla-Walla-Bing-Bang fame, who has come up with another hot disc "The Chipmunk Song."

President to Be Installed at New Colombiere College

REV. ARA F. WALKER

SPRINGFIELD TOWNSHIP — The president of the new Colombiere College on Big Lake road near Clarkston will be the Rev. Ara F. Walker, S.J.

Father Walker will be installed Monday, according to the Very Rev. John A. McGrall, provincial of the Detroit Province of the Society of Jesus, who made the announcement.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Father Walker is presently the president of St. Ignatius High School in that city.

Colombiere College will serve as the four-year novitiate-juniorate house of studies for the Jesuits of the Ohio-Michigan area.

The first group of about 40 novitiates will move into the new school sometime in January. They will be coming from Milford, near Cincinnati, Ohio. Later in the year, 140 scholastics, 20 priests for faculty and administration and 40 brothers will be located at the college.

As president of the new college, Father Walker will be religious superior of the faculty and scholastics of the Detroit Province through the first four years of their religious training.

Father Walker, who was ordained in 1938, was appointed assistant principal for the University of Detroit High School in 1940, and from 1941 to 1948 was principal of Loyola Academy in Chicago.

From 1948 to 1953 he was professor of history and education at St. Mary of the Lake Seminary, Muncie, Ind., after which he received his appointment as president of St. Ignatius High School in Cleveland.

Each of the church choirs, including the primary, junior, youth and senior groups, will present individual programs, and all will unite in singing the Hallelujah Chorus, as a climax to the program.

Pastor of the church, the Rev. William J. Richards, will present a brief meditation of Christmas verses to close the evening's program.

All area residents, regardless of religion or creed, have been invited to attend this annual affair.

Romans Clothed Dogs in Armor

Man's Animal Friend Traces Ancestry Back 50 Million Years

WASHINGTON — Since that unrecorded day when a dog first licked man's hand instead of biting it, the relationship between the canine and his best friend has grown ever closer.

Ancient Roman dogs earned the name "Fido" (Faithful). Medieval dogs, wearing tiny suits of armor, trotted loyally behind their knights.

Today the man-dog partnership has led to an enormous variety of industries, from greyhound race tracks to poodle primping parlors.

The ancestry of canis familiaris may be traced back some 50 million years to a small, tree-climbing creature called Miacis. This ungulate patriarch was also the progenitor of the bear and raccoon.

From Miacis came the Eurasian wolf which, zoologists generally agree, was the precursor of domesticated dogs.

BIRD IN THE HAND — Thirteen-year-old Michael Bower shows off a swan in Chislehurst, England. The big bird was part of an Elizabethan England menu marking the 400th anniversary of

News Coverage Rearranged

In a move designed to bring better news coverage, The Pontiac Press has assigned a full-time reporter to cover communities in the northern and western portions of the county.

In the past, news from these sections had been gathered by correspondents working part-time.

Staff reporter Lee Winborn will handle news from the following areas:

Auburn Heights, Rochester,

Lake Orion, Oxford, Ortonville, Romeo, Utica, Lapeer, Dryden, Leonard, Metamora, Imlay City, Seymour Lake, North Branch and surrounding townships.

Because she will be out in the various communities most of each day, messages for reporter Winborn and news of these areas will be received by The Press county desk, FE 2-2481.

All other county news areas will continue to be served through correspondents as in the past.

MSU Library Has Collection of Rare Books

EAST LANSING — A university librarian is always proud of an ample book collection to feed the inquisitive minds of students. But what sometimes brings a gleam to the librarian's eye is his lesser known collection of rare books.

There is something about a centuries-old volume that makes a book lover's hand itch to touch it. Scholars enjoy studying it to note the changes in paper, typography and printing methods, new trends in thought and writing style.

The rare book program at Michigan State University was personalized and strengthened in 1943 with the founding of an organization known as the Friends of the MSU Library. The group includes some 200 dues-paying alumni and faculty members.

When the modern new MSU library building was opened in January 1956, it included a Friends of the Library Room with a special exhibit case to display rare books contributed by members of the group or purchased with its funds.

Princess Grace Flees Crush at New York Ball

By WILLIAM GLOVER

NEW YORK (AP)—Princess Grace of Monaco gave high society a surprise sample of royal displeasure Thursday night—with abrupt flight from the dance floor.

Caught in a swirling crush of spectators, guards and photographers at a ball in her honor, the former movie star made her sudden exit with lips set, chin high and trailing a slightly bewildered escort, her husband Prince Rainier III of Monaco.

A spokesman at the royal box explained moments later that the princess had found the throng just too much when someone stepped upon her white satin slipper.

The royal wrath subsided swiftly, however, and the girl from Philadelphia remained for the midnight "Beauty and the Beasts" tableaux, and presided at the drawing of grand prizes for lucky ticket holders.

But although she smiled, she danced no more.

The incident highlighted a night-long barrage of adulation which started when the royal couple arrived for the chic fiesta in the grand ballroom of the Hotel Astor.

Directing the chorus will be Mrs. George Putnam, alto soloist and director of the junior choir of Central Methodist Church. Mrs. Putnam received her M.A. degree from Columbia Teachers' College and taught music in the Pennsylvania public schools.

Mrs. Donald Hogue will be accompanist for the chorus. Choral numbers to be presented on the first portion of the program are "God Rest You Merry Gentlemen," arrangement by Hollstrom and "Jesus, Jesus Rest Your Head," Appalachian carol arranged by Bement and Niles with Mrs. J. K. Helvey as soloist.

Weather Has to Be Terrible

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: Last night my husband and I were invited out to dinner at the house of a friend who lives on the other side of town. It so happened that the weather was very stormy and the roads quite dangerous because of ice. I telephoned my friend and said we would not be able to come because the weather was too bad, and apologized.

"I understand she was very much put out over this and thinks we should have kept the appointment fair weather or foul. Was I wrong to cancel this dinner engagement or should we have gone even at the risk of having an accident?"

Answer: It depends entirely upon how great was the risk. If the streets were really all ice and you could hardly have gotten there without an accident, then I think you were right, and your hostess should have understood. But the storm would have had to be really bad to excuse your staying away.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I will soon be celebrating my seventeenth birthday. I had planned on giving a party and inviting many friends to help me celebrate. I have been told that it would be in bad taste to give my own birthday party. Will you please advise me if this is true?"

Answer: The best thing for you to do is to invite your friends to a party, and only tell them after they arrive that you wanted to have them with you on your birthday. In this way none of them will feel embarrassed because they have brought no present.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My family thinks a large reception for a widow is out of order. My first wedding was during the war when everything was of necessity very brief. I am now being married in church and I do want all our friends and relatives with us—particularly since the groom was never married."

Answer: There is no reason whatever for not inviting everyone who is a real friend of either yours or his—no matter how many these may be. The groom may have as many ushers as necessary for the size of the church. You should not, however, have more than one attendant.

Diet for Teenagers

P Stands for Protein—Power, Punch, Poise!

By RUTH WEST

For poise, self-confidence, feed yourself plenty of protein as well as calcium. (Milk products package them together beautifully.) Many studies show that poise and protein go together.

The protein you eat makes the solid part of your body. Your skin. Your hair. Your nails. Your lungs. Your muscles.

There are poor-quality proteins— incomplete proteins. Look for complete proteins. Because too much incomplete protein can do you physical harm. But too little protein is your main concern.

YOU'LL SEE CHANGE

Every 180 days sees a complete turnover of your body's protein "building blocks." It follows that in six months of good eating you may well see a dramatic improvement in your looks and life.

The change will be quick, dramatic and astounding. Especially if you've been short-changed on complete protein (and chances are you have!).

You'll have a clearer skin, brighter eyes and hair, better muscles and posture, infinitely more energy, self-confidence, and fun.

Often, when your spirits are low, it's simply because your blood-sugar level is low. The Rx for this is protein. It is true that sweets will raise that blood-sugar level, but only for minutes. Then it drops like a plummet.

Protein raises your blood-sugar level, holds it high for hours. A high-protein, low-calorie breakfast can keep up your spirits and energy for as long as six hours! So you see, the kind of calories you eat is just as important as the number.

TIME TO SNACK

Next time you have that all gone feeling, head for a high-protein, low-calorie snack for a pick-up that lasts.

A glass of skim milk, or two or three hardboiled eggs, or a cold chicken drumstick. Or a Mondae—a Sundae made of a big scoop of snowy, fresh-tasting cottage cheese topped with fruit: pineapple chunks, apricot halves, slices of orange or grapefruit.

You won't feel the same craving for sweets if you keep your blood-sugar level high with these snacks.

You need more than twice as much protein as a person who has finished growing—between 75 and 100 grams every day.

Poor people almost invariably don't eat enough protein. But surveys show that 60 per cent of the people who can afford any amount of the most expensive protein also eat far less than they need.

Some teens don't like cottage cheese. This is tough—unless they're capable of change. It's nice if you find yourself relishing your breakfast toast spread with two big tablespoons of cottage cheese (plus all the sugarless jam you want), instead of high-calorie butter.

GOOD ON TOAST

The slice of toast and the two tablespoons of cottage cheese chalk up a good 12 grams of the finest protein.

That is why you will do well to plump your sandwiches with cottage cheese. Add a tablespoonful of cottage cheese to your two scrambled eggs and sneak in another 5 grams of thinning protein. With a tablespoon of chipped beef, you've laid in another tasty, low-calorie, 7 or 8 grams of protein.

Now, your plate of scrambled eggs totals 27 grams of protein instead of 13! With the two slices of toast, your meal is a handsome 43-gram affair: almost the "thinnest" 470 calories' worth of good eating you can assemble.

Lean Days Ahead for Husky Cagers

Cincinnati Ace Spotlights College Action

Oscar Back in Stride With 45

United Press-International
Bad back and all, Oscar Robertson still is an All-American.

The six-foot-five University of Cincinnati star, who led the nation's major college scorers last season with a 35.1 per-game average, tossed in 45 points last night despite a painful pulled muscle in his back to lead the Bearcats to an easy 88-67 victory over New York University.

Hardly anyone in the crowd of 12,000 that turned out for the first college basketball program of the season at Madison Square Garden was aware of the fact, but Robertson almost didn't play. And how he stood up under a severe battering by N.Y.U.'s more rugged rear guards even was a mystery to Cincinnati coach George Smith.

"Up until just before the game started, I wasn't sure if Oscar would be able to play," Smith explained in the dressing room after the Bearcats had gained their second win in as many starts this season. "He pulled a muscle while working out in the afternoon, and from the way it was bothering him, we weren't even going to let him leave the hotel."

Ice packs were applied and Robertson insisted that he would like "to give it a whirl," Smith said, "so who was I to stop him?"

And what a "whirl" he gave it. Oscar scored his team's first eight points and wound up the first half with 16 to earn Cincinnati a 33-33 tie. Once the second half got underway, so did Robertson. Although he fell 11 points short of the Madison Square Garden record of 56, which he set himself against Seton Hall last season, Robertson managed to drive the N.Y.U. defense silly.

He scored on layups, tap-ins, sets from the side and driving one-handers. He even hit once while almost flat on his back after being jarred by a defender, and the Garden, which was inaugurating its 25th season of collegiate basketball, rang with the cheers of an appreciative crowd.

St. John's of New York opened the doubleheader with an easy 73-55 victory over Providence, with Tony Jackson and Al Seiden scoring 48 of the points between them. St. John's led by only six points — 36-30 — at the half, but pulled away in the second half to win coasting.

Francis Saunders' rebound with two seconds left to play earned Seattle a wild 60-58 victory over the University of San Francisco before a crowd of 6,000 in the Dons' new $1,000,000 basketball pavilion.

Ron Cox, a Don guard, scored eight points with less than three minutes to play to boost San Francisco into a 58-57 lead, but center John Cunningham fouled Jerry Frizzell as time ran out. Frizzell made good on his first shot for a tie and then Saunders poked in the second when it rolled off the rim.

Elsewhere around the nation, Mississippi State set an all-time school scoring record by burying Union, 121-78; Georgetown abandoned its first half cautiousness to rout Kentucky Wesleyan, 93-73; Georgia Tech scored 13 points in the last three minutes to defeat visiting Baylor, 65-56; Toledo U. handed South Dakota, the N.C.A.A. defending small college champions, an 81-70 beating; Furman routed Presbyterian, 82-68, and Boston College upended ancient rival Holy Cross, 72-63.

PNH 5 Meets Rochester in Second Game

Soph - Laden Quintet Stays on Road Until January 9th

Everything is new at Pontiac Northern including its basketball team.

Coach Dick Hall actually has two cage squads in as much as the varsity and the junior varsity are made up mostly of sophomores, thereby leaving much to be had in the way of experience.

All the mistakes sophomores can possibly make in athletic competition will come out in the wash this season for Pontiac Northern giving indication of a long lean year for the Huskies.

Tuesday night the Huskies opened varsity basketball competition at Lake Orion and were beaten 48-42. Tonight the story at Rochester is expected to be the same.

Rochester has four of its five starters back from last year and the Falcons got off to a fast start by drubbing Milford 47-34 Tuesday night.

This game originally scheduled for the new PNH gym was changed to Rochester because the Husky court is yet not completed.

This means PNH will be a traveling squad until January 9th when it opens at home against Detroit Thurston.

Rochester is led by Gene Lohery and Bruce Ennis each of whom scored 15 points against Milford. Ennis starts at forward with Chuck Ebersole, while Gene Hoff and Bill Mason make up the guard posts.

Pontiac Northern will have Mike Fedynik and Dennis Vincent at the forwards with Dick Eley at center and Bruce Norton and Jim Dempsey at guards.

Fedynik was Northern's lead-pointmaker Tuesday with 12 points followed by Norton with 9.

The Huskies failed to take advantage of the free throw line against Orion by missing 18 of 26 charity attempts.

The main event pits Gene Gresham, Michigan lightweight king, against Bobby Rogers of Chicago.

Powell and Rosana are welterweights. Powell has 11 victories in 13 professional bouts and a victory Tuesday night would put him in line for a main-event bout.

STANLEY C. HOPE

New President Picked by NAM

Stanley Hope Succeeds M. C. Lightner as Head of Business Association

NEW YORK (AP)—Stanley C. Hope, a business leader who launched a second career at the age of 65, is the new president of the National Assn. of Manufacturers.

Hope was elected at the annual NAM convention Thursday night to succeed Milton C. Lightner, board chairman, the Singer Manufacturing Co., Elizabeth, N.J.

In a statement of acceptance, Hope suggested NAM "could afford to change its name to the National Assn. for Manufacturers."

He declared, "We must be for and not against. We must be for government expenditures but on a reasonable basis; we must be for taxation but on an equitable basis; and we must be for labor relations but on an honest and constructive basis."

Hope said the present era should become an "age of reasonableness." Many problems could be solved, he said, if a "reasonable" attitude were shown by the Soviet Union, leaders of organized labor and the U.S. government.

The new NAM president retired as president of Esso Standard Oil Co. last July after spending 46 years with several affiliates of Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey. He immediately assumed the presidency of SoundScriber Corp., North Haven, Conn., manufacturers of dictating equipment.

He served notice at the time he would organize his business so that his work week would be three days for the balance of the year.

Hold Three for Burglary

Boy, Two Men Admit String of Break-Ins in Pontiac Area

A juvenile and two Pontiac men were arrested by two Waterford Township patrolmen early this morning.

Officers Frank Randolph and Merrill Finkle spotted a suspicious looking auto driven by Joseph Molina, 19, of 259 Raeburn St., pulling away from the Leonard Gas Station at 3510 Elizabeth Lake Rd.

In the car with Molina were Shannon McGregor, 20, of 780 Melrose St., and a 15-year-old Pontiac youth.

Officers stopped the car and while searching the three found a wooden club and pair of gloves hidden under the boy's shirt.

Upon questioning, the trio admitted attempting to break into the gas station, police said. They also admitted an attempted break-in earlier at an area drive-in restaurant and said they were on their way to another gas station on Crescent Lake road.

Police said the suspects admitted break-ins at two Pontiac coal and fuel companies this week, as well as a grocery store, restaurant and several other service station burglaries in the past.

They were being held today for investigation of attempted breaking and entering in the nighttime. Police said they would question the suspects before seeking a formal charge.
