

GLAD STORY OF EASTER

This is the miracle of their song,
That they should sing at all
In this world, in this time,
Singing together as a family.

For

Their song is of the dignity of life
And of an undefeated hope;
They know man's shame and hurts
Yet sing God's victory!

Then

Pray this Easter miracle be known
That from our walls and tombs
We hymn this lively victory of God
And all people, as a family, yet sing
This Easter song.

Antigovernment Riots Injure 149

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Strict security measures were enforced throughout Athens today following a night of antigovernment riots in which 79 policemen and 71 demonstrators were injured.

The pro-Western government of Premier Constantine Karamanlis blamed the violence on leftist extremists.

Police supported by 7,000 army troops and using tear gas and arrested.

Tito's Nation, Russia Agree

Joint Message Issued in Belgrade Tells About Accord on Policy

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (UPI)—Russia and Yugoslavia issued a joint communique today saying they agreed on basic international policy, including the need for peaceful coexistence between East and West.

The communique was issued while Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko flew back to Moscow to report to Premier Nikita Khrushchev on his five-day visit and talks with President Tito and other Yugoslav leaders.

According to the official Yugoslav news agency Tanjug, the communique issued jointly by Gromyko and Yugoslav Foreign Minister Koca Popovic said:

"In discussing the international situation, the identity or similarity of views on fundamental international problems through negotiations is the surest way for the relaxing and overcoming of international tension and for the stabilization of the world peace."

BROKE IN 1948

Gromyko was the first major Soviet official to visit Yugoslavia in recent years. Tito broke with the Kremlin in 1948 because of his brand of "national communism."

(In London, observers said the communique was significant because of the solidarity it showed in Moscow's and Belgrade's public views which have contrasted with those of the Communist Chinese who oppose Moscow's "soft" ideological peaceful coexistence policy with the West.)

Gromyko's visit came in return for Popovic's visit to Moscow. The communique called the two visits "useful and fruitful."

"The results achieved so far enable the further promotion of co-operation between the two countries—in political, economic, cultural and other fields," the communique said, according to Tanjug.

Both sides have noted that there are favorable objective possibilities, as well as mutual interest and readiness for such a successful development," the communique said.

More vehicles battled thousands of demonstrators for more than five hours. About 20 rioters and 10 policemen were reported seriously injured.

More than 240 persons were taken into custody during the rioting, but all but 41 were released this morning.

Nearly military units were taken off an all-night alert but reinforced police squads patrolled the city.

The rioting erupted when police tried to prevent an overflow crowd from attending a protest rally called by Center Union leader George Papandreu in defiance of a government ban on mass gatherings.

Papandreu, whose antigovernment campaign has support from the left, called the rally to denounce results of last October's national election in which Karamanlis claimed a landslide.

Police let about 800 followers of the Center Union into the square where Papandreu was speaking, then sealed it off.

The rioting did not reach the square where the meeting was held and Papandreu spoke without interference.

The Center Union leader again charged that Karamanlis used the rioting to justify repression and demanded that the premier resign.

In a statement, Karamanlis denounced Papandreu's defiance of the ban on public meetings as a miserable adventure.

HAS LEFTIST SUPPORT

The premier has brushed aside Papandreu's charges of election coercion, saying the 73-year-old opposition leader is a sore loser.

An electoral court investigating the October election found irregularities involving some 2,000 voters, but this does not affect Karamanlis' majority in Parliament.

Man Hired to Conduct Library Needs Survey

Papers Closed by New Disputes

Three Other Unions Protest News 'Lockout' During Teamster Strike

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Free Press and the Detroit News shared equally by the library and Weezman, associate professor of library science at the University of Minnesota, has been hired by the Birmingham Library Board and Bloomfield Township to conduct an area library needs survey. Weezman's fee of $2,000 will be the cost.

In addition to reviewing and summarizing previous studies, Weezman will survey all library facilities, including those in schools, so he can take into account such services in his final report.

In his survey on school library facilities he will give attention to future resources and services as well as those presently provided. He will recommend the type, level and approximate locations of libraries, along with an analysis of the financial support that would be necessary.

Various alternative solutions will be contained in Weezman's report as well as proposals to coordinate library growth and services.

A team camp and workshop will be inaugurated at the Echo Park Day Camp in Bloomfield Township when its summer program begins July 2.

Walter Baker, camp director, said the new program is geared to meet two prime needs of teenagers.

"First of all, they want to be with others their age, riding, swimming and engaging in other activities which teenagers enjoy, and secondly, the need to feel regarded as responsible individuals—which they are," he said.

Baker said participants in the Teen Camp and Workshop will in a real sense be staff members. They will attend all meetings of the camp staff, which supervises activities for groups, age 2 1/2 through 12.

The teen campers will be encouraged to initiate projects with younger children and will spend part of each day with them.

There will be two 4-week camp periods, July 2 through July 17, and July 30 through August 14.

Echo camp began March 1, 1961, when a group of Oakland County residents purchased 36 acres of the Newcomb estate at 475 Echo Road to develop a day camp and primary school.

Easter services tomorrow at St. James Episcopal Church will begin at 8 p.m. with Holy Communion, followed by 9 and 11:15 a.m. services.

The Women's Fellowship of the Congregational Church will hold its annual meeting to elect officers Tuesday, following a 12:30 p.m. luncheon.

Luncheon reservations must be phoned to the church office by Monday morning.

Japanese Newsman Dies in Tokyo Today

TOKYO (AP)—Masamori Ito, 72, Japan's foremost military commentator and adviser to the prime minister Saneji and president of the newspaper Asahi Shimbun, died today.

Ito served as chief chairman of the board of directors of Kyodo news service when it was established in 1945 after Gen. Douglas MacArthur as supreme commander of the Allied powers ordered the disbanding of Domei news agency.

A Waterford Township man was robbed of $96 last night when he stopped his car for a red light at Warren and Bagley Streets.

Charles Fournier, 42, 375 Scott Lake Road, told Pontiac police that one of his assailants jumped into the front passenger seat of the car and ordered him to drive around the block into an alley where the second assailant was waiting.

They reportedly took Fournier's wallet containing the money and fled on foot.

Overdue Ship With 9 Aboard Safe in Atlantic

NEW YORK (AP)—The Black Panther, a 71-foot schooner five days overdue on a trip from Bermuda to New York, was located early today by a U. S. Navy vessel. All nine aboard were reported safe and the vessel required no assistance, the Coast Guard said.

A Coast Guard spokesman here said the Navy ship, which was not identified, came upon the schooner at 1:45 a.m., about halfway between Bermuda and New York. He said the schooner was proceeding on its planned trip.

The schooner left Bermuda on April 10 and was due in New York last Monday.

The Coast Guard originally was alerted that the schooner was overdue by Wayne Ruppert, president of the York Shipping Club in York, Pa.

Mrs. Willie Sutton of Wood-Ridge, N. J., said her daughter, Irene Jacobs, 30, of East Rutherford, N. J., wrote that she and eight others were making the trip.

Mrs. Sutton said Irene is engaged to James Johnson, 28, the boat owner, also reported aboard.

Barbara Powers Seen Improving

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Barbara Powers, wife of U.S. pilot Francis Gary Powers, showed improvement at Georgetown University Hospital today where she was taken yesterday in a unconscious condition.

"She had breakfast, a good night and is able to talk now," a hospital spokesman said. This is an improvement... she is responding."

No diagnosis of her illness has yet been made, the spokesman said. It is expected to be under study for several more days.

Mrs. Powers was admitted yesterday suffering from what police described as an overdose of nontubal tablets, a sleep-inducing barbiturate.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle (right) chats with Tung-Sheng Liu, who aided some of Doolittle's raiders who landed on Chinese soil after their daring attack on Tokyo. Doolittle and 45 of the 80 raiders yesterday celebrated the 20th anniversary of their famed bombing mission. Tung-Sheng, who now lives in Dayton, Ohio, joined the party at Santa Monica, Calif.

Third Incident Along Border Shots Exchanged in Berlin

New Bloodshed Averted by Pact in Buenos Aires

Guido Wins Truce of Army Factions Girding for Battle in Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—President Jose Mario Guido won a truce today from embattled army chiefs who called out tanks and artillery in a threatened blood-spilling in the nation's crisis over Peronism.

Cavalry Gen. Enrique Rauch, who staged a lightning rebellion against the army high command and launched a column of tanks and troop carriers against the capital in support of the president, told newsmen the truce was reached at a summit meeting of military chiefs.

Gen. Raul Poggi, the army commander whose artillery and infantry units had encircled around the War Ministry, waved in disgust to newsmen and refused to talk as he left the meeting at President Guido's residence.

The clash of these two general's views brought the most warlike preparation this nation has seen since dictator Juan D. Peron was overthrown seven years ago.

The two generals had marshaled the nation's army behind them in opposing camps as the result of a crisis triggered by Guido's appointments of Rauch, to succeed Poggi, and War Secretary Gen. Martin Bartolome Carrera.

Later, Guido's office announced the president had offered the post of War Secretary to Gen. Juan Bautista Loza, and that he had accepted.

Captured Rebel Leader Questioned

May 15 Trial Likely for Salan

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

PARIS — French court officials interrogated ex-Gen. Raoul Salan, captured commander of the terrorist Secret Army Organization (OAS), today and informed sources said his treason trial probably will start May 15.

Salan was brought to the grim-looking Sante Prison from Algeria yesterday to await the trial that could lead to his death on the guillotine.

His arrival in handcuffs at the prison triggered a riot in which OAS prisoners broke out of their cells and clashed with security guards.

Pact Reasserts Sino-Soviet Ties

TOKYO (UPI) — Russia and Red China have signed a new trade agreement for 1962 and issued strong declarations of "undying friendship," the Communist radio reported today.

The Red broadcasts left some big questions unanswered — at least for the rest of the world — regarding Sino-Soviet economic relations.

The biggest of these was what Peiping is doing about repayment of Soviet loans and trade debts.

The only clue to this question, the Communist broadcasts afforded was a remark by Chinese Vice Premier Li Hsien-Nien at a Friday night banquet in Peiping.

"The Chinese people greatly appreciate the cooperation and assistance of the Soviet government, and people and thank them for this," Li said. "At the same time, the Chinese people are doing their best to supply the Soviet people with the materials they need."

This could be interpreted to mean that Red China is having difficulty in paying its Soviet debts. It is known that the Chinese Reds owe a huge trade debt to Russia, and that payments on Soviet loans extended in the early and middle 1950's are coming due.

The chief Soviet economic negotiator, Foreign Trade Minister N. S. Pautichev, was quoted by Peiping radio as saying that "the talks . . . would consolidate the close economic and trade relations between the Soviet Union and China and their everlasting, unbreakable friendship."

Troopers quoted Pence as saying he was traveling south on Mound Road and was passing another vehicle when he noticed the girl walking north in the northbound lane.

Pence said he was unable to stop in time and struck the girl, hurling her off the roadway, according to police.

Officials said 21 prisoners and five policemen were injured. His supporters in the Algerian army (OAS), infuriated by the arrest of their leader, ex-Gen. Raoul Salan, killed two French policemen and wounded three on the streets of Algiers today.

The secret army vowed to continue its desperate battle against Algerian independence, but many observers felt Salan's capture represented a crippling and possible death blow to the underground organization.

Salan, one of France's most decorated soldiers, was the great rallying symbol to several thousand European right-wingers and French army deserters.

The extremists have been terrorizing Algerian Moslems in hopes of forcing Moslem retaliation that would prompt the government to call off plans for self-determination in Algeria.

Word of Salan's capture in the heart of Algiers Friday plunged Algeria's European population into gloom. "We are lost," said a European resident of Algiers.

The news was hailed by the Algerian nationalist government in exile, stationed in Tunis.

U.S. Proposes Berlin Authority

13-Nation Commission Urged for Control of Access Routes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has proposed that an international authority of five Western, five Communist and three neutral nations be put in charge of access routes to Berlin.

Under the tentative U.S. plan for settlement of the dispute over the divided city, East Berlin and East Germany would have representatives on the authority.

BONN, Germany (AP) — Reports of a U.S. proposal to set up an international control authority to operate access routes to West Berlin met with an icy "no comment" in Bonn today.

The 13-nation control plan has been suggested to the Soviet Union and the Western Allies, but informants said Friday night the Russians have shown no interest in the proposal.

The matter is still being debated among the Allies. The West German government is reportedly opposed to any Berlin agreement that could be interpreted as extending Western recognition to the East German Communist regime.

On these grounds, it is understood, the West German object to having German Communist representatives on the proposed control group. The French government is said to have taken a similar position.

The Russians still insist on a Berlin settlement requiring withdrawal of Western troops from West Berlin and giving control of supply lines through 110 miles of East German territory to the East German Communist regime.

Commie Guard Starts Firing Across Barrier

Red Patrol Wounds West German Officer Candidate at Fulda

BERLIN — West Berlin and East German police exchanged gunfire and tear gas grenades near the Communist-built wall marking the third incident of violence reported today in the divided country.

The brief explosion was touched off by Western holiday visitors taking a look at the Communist barrier. No one was hurt.

In other exchanges Communist police today opened fire with machine pistols at a West Berlin police car patrolling a border street, and near the town of Fulda. East German police opened fire on four officer candidates of the West German army, wounding one seriously.

The injured man was hospitalized with lung and leg wounds in this West German city near the East German frontier, police reported.

CROSSED BORDER They said the four men were hiking through a forest when they strayed across the border, attracting police fire.

Following the exchange at the wall West Berlin police temporarily cleared people from the area, including hundreds of foreign tourists in sightseeing buses. Three French armored cars hurried to the scene with a patrol of jeeps.

The East Germans brought up an armored car and police reinforcements on their side.

The trouble began when some of the visitors went right up to the wall on the Bernauerstrasse in the French sector of the divided city. West Berlin police patrolling the area began to move them away. Then an East German border guard threw a tear gas grenade from a second story window overlooking the wall.

A West Berlin police report said that at another border point Communist authorities found one of their transport police apparently lifeless near a stretch of railroad track.

Most Are Disappointed

Friends Visit E. Germans

EAST BERLIN (UPI) — Good Friday was a day of reunion for some East Berliners, but a day of longing and disappointment for others.

Many families received visits from West German and foreign friends and relatives they had not seen since East German Communist leader Walter Ulbricht walled East Berliners off from the West on Aug. 13, 1961.

But East Berliners whose mothers, sons and life-long friends happen to be West Berliners had to settle for waving handkerchiefs across the Communist wall.

Rumors the East German would drop the bars for West Berlin visitors on Good Friday proved groundless.

Some East Berliners were lucky in their chosen rendezvous points. Occasionally a kind-hearted Communist policeman would look the other way to let East Berliners approach the barbed-wire topped barrier for a hurried chat in the afternoon sunshine.

At the Friedrichstrasse crossing point, long lines of Western visitors — many of them former Germans — shuffled through bareheaded Communist police controls.

The pretty, German-born wife of a British soldier carried a bundle of groceries, gifts for her mother and sister who found themselves walled off last Aug. 13.

"It's only coffee and bananas and a ham, things they can't buy usually," she said. "The Vopos (Communist Peoples Police) shook it over and write down who's getting it but my mother says they won't make trouble."

ANNOUNCES NEW
INSURANCE"

This year The Equitable Life Assurance Society introduced a new insurance program that helps protect you against loss of income caused by sickness or accident. We call it Living Income Insurance. Here's how it works: when you are sick or hurt and unable to work, Equitable will pay you a specified amount each month... up to $500 a month... for 15, 30 months or longer—depending on the plan you select and for which you qualify.

Living Income can mean real financial security for you and your family if you are laid up. Here's money to help pay your bills, protect your savings, keep you from losing your home. With Living Income Insurance you'll have money to go on living—when you need it most. Let your Man from Equitable explain it to you personally.

"I've got three packs of cigarettes in my handbag, though," she added in a whisper. "Sometimes the Vopos don't like Westerners bring cigarettes."

The flood of Western visitors turned East Berlin's usually grim downtown into an almost normal bustling city.

Well-dressed tourists swarmed the East sector's show street, the former Stalinallee — called Karl Marx Allee since de-Stalinization.

An American who asked for a newspaper in a restaurant near Friedrichstrasse railroad station was told all were sold out.

An old woman behind the counter said: "It doesn't matter... there are no papers printed here today anyway. Besides, why do you want one of our papers? You can buy a paper in West Berlin."

450 Models on Display

World Auto Show Opens

By BEN PHILEGAR
AP Automotive Writer
NEW YORK — The sixth annual International Auto Show, a glittering array of cars and girls opens an eight-day run at the New York coliseum today.

Some 450 models of cars from nine countries, and almost as many lightly clad females to add interest, were included in the displays.

Importers talked enthusiastically of booming sales by domestic cars this year and suggested their foreign products were in good position to share in the improving market.

Sales predictions for the imports ranged upward of 400,000 for the year, compared with 378,000 in 1961.

AIR OF OPTIMISM
The prevailing air was one of optimism, that an upturn was due after two straight years of sharply declining volume. The peak for imports was in 1959 when they represented slightly more than 10 per cent of all cars sold in the United States.

Carl Hahn, general manager of Volkswagen of America, the runaway leader among the imports, said his dealers sold an all-time record 16,480 cars in March.

Hahn estimated Volkswagen sales in the United States should reach 220,000 units this year, including 30,000 trucks.

"We will be limited only by shipments from the factory in Germany," Hahn said.

A. E. Birt, general manager of the British Automobile Manufacturers Association, said the British auto sales should show an increase of not less than 30 to 40 per cent in the United States this year.

He said British imports in the first three months totaled 20,000 cars, compared with only 5,000 in the first quarter of 1961.

Peter Nunez, general manager for Simca in the United States, told reporters he had revised his overall estimate of the import market upward in recent months. Nunez now estimates imports sales between 250,000 and 400,000 cars. Last fall he was talking 300,000 tops.

Fifty-two of the models at the show are being displayed in New York for the first time. Many of these, however, are prototypes or experimental versions which are not yet ready for sale.

Delaware Eases Tax
on Du Pont Owners

DOVER, Del. (AP) — Gov. Elbert N. Carvel has signed a bill designed to ease the state tax burden on Du Pont stockholders who will receive General Motors stock now held by the giant chemical firm.

Without the legislation, the GM stock distribution would have been regarded, for state tax purposes, as dividends.

The bill passed by the Delaware legislature provides less tax revenue for the state than one the governor had advocated. The new law classifies the distribution as a return of capital, half of which is taxable as income.

The Du Pont firm has estimated the law will net the state about $21 million over a number of years.

Cracks Down on Union

Romney Sets Talks to Local Party Heads

LANSING (AP) — George Romney and Republican state officials will start a series of private meetings next week with local party leaders throughout the state.

The groups will discuss party organization and strategy for the 1963 campaign, said George M. Van Peursem, state GOP chairman.

Romney, the likely Republican nominee for governor, will address each meeting, Van Peursem said.

The first of eight parleys will be held in Jackson Tuesday with party leaders in the 2nd and 8th Congressional Districts. A meeting with 8th Congressional District leaders is scheduled Thursday in Saginaw and six more, as yet unscheduled, are planned in May.

Negro Family Sent to North

Segregationist Group in New Orleans Puts 10 on Bus to New York

NEW YORK (AP) — A Negro family of 10, sent North by a New Orleans segregationist group, was scheduled to arrive here today by bus.

On Thursday, the Citizens Council of New Orleans gave Louis Boyd and his family a one-way bus ticket to New York, food to eat en route and $50 in cash. George Singelmann, a council board member, said it was part of a council plan to send north any Louisiana Negroes desiring to leave the South.

Boyd, an unemployed longshoreman, reportedly said he was leaving because he could not find a job and not because he was dissatisfied with the South.

'CRUEL ACTION'

Philip Sokol, New York City deputy welfare commissioner, said the council action was cruel. "This family is being misled," he said. "I don't think they are being given the proper advice."

Boyd is 41 and his wife is 38. Their children range in age from 3 to 12 years.

Sokol also said the family would not be eligible for relief, if it is coming simply for that purpose. "If that is the case," he said, "we will try to get the cooperation of Louisiana in having the family returned."

But if Boyd makes a sincere effort to find work and is unable to do so, added Sokol, he may possibly qualify for relief later.

Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and Raymond Houston, New York State commissioner of welfare, both criticized the council.

'USED AS PAWN'

Wilkins said: "The Boyd family is being used as a pawn. It's a naked pretense to maintain segregation. It's cheap, unconscionable."

Houston, in Albany, said "It's a cruel thing to send people with no resources or planning. Eventually we may have to send them back to New Orleans."

Construction has begun on the country's largest multi-stage flash evaporator for converting sea water into fresh water.

Argued Over Landing Priority

FAA Probes Midair Feud by 2 Pilots

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal Aviation chief N. E. H. Halaby says the FAA is looking into an argument between two pilots over which had precedence as they approached the same runway at Washington's busy National Airport.

In describing the incident at a news conference Friday, Halaby said it could have resulted in a collision but for alertness of the settled by tower. Halaby said that when both were about seven miles from the airport they began arguing over which had landing precedence on Runway 36. He said tower personnel, seeing the DC3 ahead at five or six miles distance, gave it the right of way.

The DC3 circled again, landing later on the same runway. The news conference had been called for Halaby to report on a man-machine error which left two airliners circling in the overcast at the same altitude over the suburb of Springfield, Va., preparatory to landing at National Airport last March 21.

The incident involved an Eastern Air Lines Electra, with 41 persons aboard, bound from Louisville, Ky., and a United Air Lines Viscount, with 20 persons aboard, from Huntsville, Ala., and Knoxville, Tenn.

men asked Halaby about it. He explained it this way:

A Northwest Airlines DC3 from Detroit and a DC3 owned by Holmes Drilling Co. of Houston both approached the airport from the south on gradually converging flight paths about 8:30 p.m. The weather was clear and the crews of each plane could see the other. The DC3 passed under the DC3, or the DC3 overtook the DC3, de-

It Seems to Me . . .

Are You Guilty of Tampering With the Souls of Americans?

Jenkin Lloyd Jones, editor of The Tulsa Tribune, delivered a powerful address recently which has been reproduced in many places. It is thought-provoking and challenging, and I reprint it in part.

By JENKIN LLOYD JONES

We have tablets describing the moral decay of Babylon and Chaldea and now I make some comments about the moral climate of America for I see much that disturbs me.

One thing is certain. We shall be given no centuries for a leisurely decay like Rome had. We have an enemy—remorseless, crude, brutal and cocky. However much the leaders of the Communist conspiracy may lie to their subjects about it, they believe implicitly we are in an advanced state of moral decline.

What scares me about the Communists is their dedication and self-sacrifice. The confidence that they are morally superior is there. In the schoolyard the children rush up to show you, not their Yo-yos, but their scholarship medals. The Russian stage is as austere as the Victorian stage. Russian literature is clean, and it glorifies the Russian people.

We are now at the end of the third decade of the national insanity known as "progressive education" where everybody passes, where the report cards are noncommittal and where all move at a small pace like a transatlantic convoy so that the slowest need not be left behind. The competition that breeds excellence was sacrificed.

Juvenile delinquency climbs. We have produced tens of thousands of high school graduates who read poorly and cannot write a coherent paragraph. We have engaged in the wholesale production of mediocrity. Our Puritan ancestors wrested livings from rocky land, built our earliest colleges, started our literature, caused our industrial revolution, and found time in between to fight the Indians, the French and the British.

They were a tremendous people. But all this has changed. The crime rates continue to rise and we speak of underprivilege. Yet the young men who swagger up and down the streets, boldly flaunting their gang symbols are far more blessed in creature comforts, opportunities for advancement, and freedom than 90 per cent of the children of the world. We have sown the dragon's teeth of pseudoscientific sentimentality, and out of the ground has sprung the legion bearing switchblade knives and bicycle chains.

Something is missing. Could it be something the rest of the world's children have been given—the doctrine of individual responsibility?

Relief is becoming an honorable career. The politicians weep over you. The state will give a mother a bonus for her illegitimate children, and she can save enough out of her ADC payments to keep herself and her boy friend in wine and gin. And when an harassed community like Newburgh suggests that able-bodied welfare clients might sweep the streets, the liberals arise and denounce it.

The welfare state taxes away the rewards for responsible behavior so that it can remove the age-old penalties for irresponsible behavior. It builds on a foundation of jelly. It is time we stop pretending there's no difference between the genuinely unfortunate and the mobs of reliefers who throw bottles when the cops try to make a legitimate arrest.

Finally, there are our entertainment and literature. The screen industry solemnly announced that henceforth perversion and homosexuality would no longer be barred, provided the subjects were handled with "delicacy and taste!" Good Lord!

It's time we quit giving page one play to the extramarital junkies of crooners and stopped treating the brazen shack-ups of screen tramps as glamorous. It is time we asked our Broadway and Hollywood columnists to find something decent and inspiring. An American touring company, sponsored by the State Department and paid for by your tax dollars, presented one of TENNESSEE WILLIAMS' depraved offerings in Rio de Janeiro. The audience hooted in disgust and walked out. And where did it walk? Right across the street where a Russian ballet company was putting on a beautiful performance for the glory of Russia!

We are showering youngsters with violence, cynicism and sadism piped into the living room and even the nursery. The grandchildren of the kids who wept because The Little Match Girl froze to death now feel cheated if she isn't slugged, raped and thrown into a Bessemer converter. "Lady Chatterley's Lover" is on sale in the corner drugstore to your high-school-age son or daughter. "Tropic of Cancer" which resembles a collection of inscriptions taken from privy walls is about to join Lady Chatterley.

Who is tampering with the soul of America?

Nations do have souls. When they regard their institutions with cynicism and their traditions with flippancy they will not long remain great. When they seek learning without effort and wages without work they are beginning to stagger. This is still a great, powerful and optimistic Nation. But there is rot and so there are cutting and filling to be done if we are to survive the hammer blows. The schools that permit children to develop a quarter of their talents are not champions of our liberties. The healthy man who chooses to loaf on unemployment compensation is not a defender of human freedom. It is time we brought self-discipline back into style.

Public handouts are producing sloth and irresponsibility. Let's quit being bulldozed and bedazzled by self-appointed longhairs. Let's blow the whistle on plays that would bring blushes to a Legion stag party. Let's not be awed by movie characters with barnyard morals even if some of them have been photographed climbing aboard the Presidential yacht.

I am fed up with the educationists and pseudo social scientists who have underrated our potential. I am tired of seeing America low-rated in the eyes of foreigners. And I am genuinely disturbed that to idealistic youth in many countries the fraud of communism appears synonymous with morality, while we are regarded as being in the last stages of decay.

Twice before our British cousins appeared heading into a collapse of principle, and twice they drew themselves back. In our own hour

Days of All Faiths:

Easter's Name Taken From Oestre

By DR. HOWARD V. HARKER

No one needs to be told that Easter is the Christian festival in commemoration of Christ's resurrection from the dead on the Sunday following His execution as a political agitator, which took place on Friday.

Here are some less known or frequently overlooked facts about this greatest of Christian days.

NAMED FOR PAGAN GODDESS

The word "Easter" is mentioned only in English Bibles and there only once—in Acts, chapter 12, verse 4—where it is told that Herod intended "after Easter" to bring St. Peter out of prison and put him before the people. St. Luke, who wrote the book of Acts, could not have said "Easter." He had never heard of it. He used the Greek word "Pascha," which came from the Jewish word for their Passover festival.

We got the word Easter from the Saxon goddess Oestre who was the personification of spring to our early pagan ancestors. The pagans held a great spring festival in honor of Oestre. The Christian church kept the name but changed the content of the celebration.

At first the Church had considerable difficulty deciding the right day for Easter. Some thought it ought always to be a Sunday because the Resurrection had actually happened on a Sunday. Others held that it had happened on the third day of the Passover season and ought to be kept then no matter on what day of the week it fell.

Even after they had all agreed on Sunday as the day, there was still a lot of uncertainty each year about which was the right Sunday. For several centuries, until they had the mathematics properly worked out, it was the privilege of the Patriarch of Alexandria each year to announce the date of Easter to the rest of the Church. This was not because he had any more authority than any other patriarch, but because Alexandria was then the intellectual capital of the world, and he had the best men available to do the calculating.

BORROWED TOMB

Jesus rose from a tomb provided by Joseph of Arimathea, a friendly outsider. The apostles, his closest companions, had deserted and fled when he was condemned to death and were not even in Jerusalem when the time came to claim the body, find a tomb, and bury him.

In the early days, the Christians put more emphasis on Christ's death than on His resurrection. This was because they were all Jews and therefore steeped in the Jewish sacrificial concept.

The fact that he died for them was the important thing. The significance of His rising for them was at first overlooked. Now, of course, almost all Christians see the Resurrection as the key to their faith.

of fear, confusion and self-doubt let this be the story of America. A great number of our people are ready. Let there be a fresh breeze, new honesty, new idealism and new integrity.

How about newspapers leading?

—HAROLD A. FITZGERALD

The egg has been a symbol of renewal of life to many people in many ages. Just as a living creature emerges from the egg after its long entombment there, so man will live again after his apparent death.

For 3,212 years the Jews have placed an egg on the table at their Passover supper to symbolize the rebirth of freedom that came to them when God delivered them from slavery in the land of Egypt.

It was natural that Christians celebrating the Resurrection should adopt the egg as an emblem. Just as a living creature emerges from the egg after its long entombment there, so man will live again after his apparent death.

Easter does not end when Sunday is over. The day itself is only the beginning of a 40-day season, which runs until Ascension Day (May 31, this year). The season commemorates the Lord's 40 days on earth after His resurrection. (Copyright, 1962)

Dr. William Brady's Mailbag:

Murmur Doesn't Mean You Have Heart Ailment

Life insurance examiner told me I have a slight murmur, but nothing serious, only I should not take violent exercise. . . I hate to give up skating, which I do twice a week. . . (Miss N. T.)

Ans. — If you enjoy skating and feel fine after skating, by no means give it up. A "murmur" doesn't necessarily indicate any heart trouble. If you have anything to complain about let your own physician determine what, if anything, is the matter.

Yesterday the doctor told me I have diabetes. I am 64 and have been feeble, unconscious, tired and sleepy in the daytime for three or four years; also gained considerable "slacker" flesh since forty. I didn't notice it, but realized when the doctor inquired that I have been drinking a lot of water the past year or two. . . (Mrs. H. C. A.)

Ans. — A familiar history. Most diabetics feel along with their overeating, excessive thirst, tired feeling, daytime sleepiness, etc., for a year or two before they discover what ails 'em. Send me 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope for Little Lesson 21, "Training for Diabetics."

Please state what influence nutrition has on resistance to disease, and tell us whether you believe over-refinement of most of our food impairs national health. (Mrs. E. S. M.)

Ans. — I don't know what "resistance" means. I believe, but have no convincing evidence to support my belief, that a person whose nutrition is good is endowed with a higher degree of natural immunity than one whose nutrition is poor.

It took several months but our little boy, who had six ugly warts, used castor oil and has now none. (Mrs. R. B.)

Ans. — It's difficult to judge from the vote, because it fails, people are likely to report their experience. On the other hand, as I am well aware, many who derive great benefit from a remedy suggested in this column do not bother to report their experience. So probably we shall never know whether castor oil cures warts. However, it can do no harm to try — rub each wart with a drop or two of castor oil night and morning for not less than a month.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

O you who dwell by many waters, rich in treasures, you end has come, the thread of your life is cut. — Jeremiah 51:13.

Washington Notebook:

Teas Welcome Foreign Visitors

WASHINGTON (NEA) — British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's conferences with President Kennedy the end of April will mark the eighth official visit to Washington by the hand of a foreign government this year.

This puts 1962 even with 1961, when there were eight such visits in the first four months, with 40 for the Kennedy administration's first full year.

The prospect of that many of official visitors in this election year has thrown Congress into something of a tizzy. All voting heads of state want to address joint sessions of Congress. But since a once-a-week basis while Congress is in session, it's hard to drum up a full crowd. Congressional staff assistants have had to be rushed into the seats to mark the House.

To avoid this embarrassment for the presidents of Cameroon and Togo, who spoke no English, Senate and House foreign relations committees held a tea at the Capitol in honor of their visitors. Official pleasantries were exchanged and translated, then polite questions were asked and answered. The atmosphere was reported by Congressman Francis Bolton of Ohio as much more relaxed and friendly than listening to a formal address. There's going to be more of that in the future.

Land Surveyor Tells How Fences Should Be Located

In last week's garden page an article was published regarding location of fences. Instructions were given to set the fence at least 12 inches into the property. Surveyors, attorneys and fence erectors have been trying to convince people that this is not the way to locate a fence.

All fences should be constructed on the lot line with the posts on the owner's side. Fences located otherwise give the adjoining owner possession rights to the property outside the fence; and by Michigan law after 15 years this occupation becomes permanent.

Mortgage and title insurance companies refuse loans on any lot which has a fence more than 3 inches onto the property.

Press Columnist Is Criticized

On second thought, I might add, from looking at Mr. Lawrence's picture, that if he were tried to smile his face would burst into a thousand little pieces.

'Suburban Areas Need Dog Control'

I wish we had meter readers in the country who report dogs. Maybe there wouldn't be so many dogs running around destroying lawns and shrubbery. If people love their dogs, why do they let them run all over other people's property and destroy? We have counted 11 dogs in one morning running over lawns.

A Taxpayer

Believes Kennedys Have 'Nerve'

That Kennedy clan has more nerve than any outfit in the past century. The President appoints his kid brother as attorney general and now the bouncing baby boy will run for Senator of Massachusetts.

He had to postpone his announcement for two months so he'd be old enough — thirty. Who wants 30-year-old sons of multimillionaires shaping national policies? How're we going to get rid of all this mess?

When the two Russians exchanged a few words in their native tongue, "Foreigners?"

"Yes," one of them replied.

When one of the thugs handed back the two wallets with the comment, "We don't want you to get any wrong ideas about what goes on in this country."

This story is told, but not vouched for, by Prof. Stephen Viederman, deputy chairman, Internal University Committee on Travel Grants at Indiana University, which arranges student exchanges.

"The only thing I'm afraid of about this story," he says, is that Pravda will pick it up and put on a new ending with the tag saying, "Here, comrades, take back your money! We're Communists, too."

E. C. L. Schiff, Netherlands minister counselor in Washington, recently laid it on the line before a woman's club here: "I think I am an honest diplomat — if that's not a contradiction in terms. And I'd like to say at the outset that, contrary to general impression, we Dutch are not just a nation of tulip growers and cheese makers.

Guards 'Remember' Jackson Riot of '52

By DON DUBST
Jackson Citizen Patriot
Written For The AP

JACKSON—Details of the nightmarish existence they led for four days in April 1952, as hostages of mutinying inmates at Southern Michigan Prison remain fresh in the minds of those men today.

Twelve guards shared that experience, in which their lives were at stake. All were released unharmed, physically.

Eight of them remain today, death having claimed four in the ensuing years.

Five of that number continue to work as custodial officers at SMP. The other three resigned.

Asked to look back upon that experience and comment briefly, the hostages responded as follows:

Joseph Dasi, 45, of Grass Lake—"I was scared. It was pure hell every minute, both physical and mental torture. They didn't beat me. They didn't have to. There was worse forms of torture than those of a physical nature. I thought of my family; the really short span of life I had lived; the things I wanted to do yet had not, and I thought of God.

"I've been asked a question that has forced me to relive those days. I've tried to think of how I really do feel now—10 years later, and I find myself suddenly thinking of the men in here.

"Probably the most amazing thing about it all is that I feel no hate toward them, nor do I want to (nor have I tried) to 'get even' for the hell a few misguided ones put me and my family through 10 years ago.

"I'd like to help them, and I try in my small way. Sometimes it's difficult. Other times it's worthwhile.

"I'm grateful for one thing—my personal experience with the now infamous riot of 10 years ago hasn't embittered me toward these men around me. I still would like to help them in any way possible."

John W. Holmes, 44, of Onondaga—"The four days I was held as a hostage represent a nightmare that I will never forget.

"After the riot was quelled and the hostages were released unharmed, some resigned. I was among those who returned to work after a short recuperative period.

"For the past nine years I have worked as an officer in the psychiatric clinic.

"Time had erased most of the scars the riot left on the officers, the inmates and the prison buildings. Time has even made the riot less and less a topic of conversation among those who were unfortunate enough to be in the prison when it erupted.

"I believe the security measures and more rigid custodial rules adopted after the riot make it virtually impossible for trouble of such proportions to erupt again.

"Also the better staffed and equipped psychiatric clinic is able to diagnose and evaluate the psychotic inmate better and faster than was possible 10 years ago.

"I feel that if such facilities and trained personnel of both a custodial and psychiatric nature had been available then, perhaps the riot would never have happened."

Harold J. Carrier, 33, of 816 Center—"Ten years have passed since the most costly prison riot in the state of Michigan. I was one of the first four hostages taken, as I was assigned to 15 block, where the trouble started, on Sunday, April 20, 1952.

"A lot of changes have been made during the past several years. The women's national AAU indoor swimming championships at Sacramento, Calif., and the Oxford-Cambridge crew race on the Thames River in England.

years to improve conditions for the inmates as well as the personnel, and I think the morale is higher in both cases.

"I do not think there will be another major disturbance at the prison, due to the fact that every angle could be stopped almost immediately."

Donnelly Rd.—"As far as the prison is concerned, I think we're better off today. They've done lots of things to make it better."

"I don't think the inmates could do today what they did before. We can get into the blocks now in case of trouble."

"And we're getting a different kind of cooperation from officials, so we can work together all the way around."

Kenneth L. Parsons, 45, of 719 Seymour—"I have worked in the tourist division since the riot."

"They have increased security measures inside the walls."

"Out here there is minimum custody. We don't have much trouble outside."

"They also have a good recreational program."

James Atkins, 49, of 248 Amos, now employed as a shop worker—"I believe the lack of inmate segregation was one of the contributing factors to the riot."

"I was 100 per cent for segregation then and I still am."

"I just can't see putting a hard-core criminal in with someone whose only wrong step was that he failed to pay his alimony."

"After all, it's supposed to be a place of rehabilitation."

Orville Hergert, Jonesville, who resumed farming after delinquency struck on his land—"Those days of operations are in progress."

Touching Tale of Faith—Actor Adopts a Child

By EARL WILSON
HOLLYWOOD—Eddie Albert—if he isn't careful—is going to give Hollywood a good name.

In these days when so many people don't believe anything—not even columnists—Eddie can touch you deeply with a story of how he flew to Spain and adopted a boy, untidy little girl that nobody else wanted . . . strictly on faith.

You've heard people who know fretting about exactly the type of child they hope to adopt.

"I came up from Africa to Paris after doing 'Roots of Heaven,'" Eddie told me, "and was flying back to Madrid to choose a child."

"It's a murderous, frightening decision to have to make . . . what child you want. You're worrying about the rest of your family. Some decisions you can't take on yourself."

"You might just as well lay back and let The Boss do it."

Eddie said a prayer in the plane, promising that he would take the first child, assuming it to be God's choice.

"The door opened and a nun led in a little girl, I stared at her, gulped and closed my eyes . . ."

Was somebody joking?

"For there in front of me stood — the toughest, most defiant, dirtiest four-year-old I have ever seen."

He flew her back to his wife Margo and son Edward in California and New York. Today Maria is a charming, neat, beautifully-behaved little 7-year-old glamour girl who speaks English fluently and now and then a little Spanish . . . not too much, because it brings back unhappy memories of people who thought of adopting her but didn't.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Broadway dialogue: "Boy, that Richard Burton sure has troubles" . . . "Yeah, but look who he has to tell them to!"

EARL'S PEARLS: Some husbands are so hesperetted that their idea of cheating is to peek inside their pay envelopes.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: A weary businessman finished his tax report and sighed, "This will be remembered as the year I'll blow my money on wine, women and Washington."

Richard Hayes said on his radio show that he had to change his name: "They make you do that if your name is like another entertainer's. No, not my last name. I had to change my first name—Helen. . . That's earl, brother. (Copyright, 1962)

Normal Loads Allowed Monday on Black Top

Normal load limits will return on black top, and gravel roads, Monday, the Oakland County Road Commission announced today.

The "frost law" weight restrictions have been in effect since March 12.

Israeli Liner Started

ST. NAZAIRE, France (U)—Workmen yesterday laid down the keel for the 23,000-ton Israel passenger liner Shalom, which is expected to be completed late in 1963. The ship is designed to carry 1,071 passengers between Haifa and New York. Luxury fittings are planned, including three open air swimming pools and a cabaret.

Ike Has Some Suggestions, but . . .

Ex-Presidents Lose Political Influence Quickly

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON—President Eisenhower has uttered some ands, ifs and buts about the 1964 presidential contest that can afford little aid and comfort for the leading GOP contenders.

Writing under his own by-line in the current Saturday Evening Post, the old soldier first says it is too soon to guess about the next presidential nominee, but then he adds:

"Maybe our candidate should be someone already well-known in business, education and the professions—whose should not be counted out . . . I know a great many of these people, and I am delighted by the kind of talent I see coming up in our party."

This is the kind of talk that could send shivers down the spines of such presidential front-runners as Richard M. Nixon, Nelson Rockefeller and Barry Goldwater, were it not for the latter's leanness that Harry Truman has learned since leaving office.

That scrappy gentleman, like Ike, knows the shock of trying to adjust to the role of Mr. Private Citizen, after eight glorious years in the free world's most powerful office.

As the only living Democratic ex-president, Truman cockily assumed that he would have a lot to say about the subsequent presidential nominees of his party.

Political memories are of short duration, however, when the power is gone. As Alfred Steingard reminds in a remarkably thorough biography, "The Man From Missouri," newly published by G. P. Putnam's Sons, Truman has had a political batting average of zero since leaving office.

NO ONE LISTENED
Truman descended on the 1956 Democratic convention with the avowed intention of nominating Averell Harriman. He was determined to stop Adlai Stevenson, whom he called a "defeatist," but the convention chose Adlai anyway.

Undaunted, Truman tried his luck again in 1960. This time, scorchingly dubbing John F. Kennedy a brash young man "unready" for the presidency, he came out solidly for Sen. Stuart Symington. He also angrily accused the Kennedy forces of "rigging" the Democratic convention, but Kennedy was on the first ballot.

It is really not surprising that ex-presidents have so little political influence. Even while they still were the mantle of office, neither Truman nor Eisenhower could rub off enough presidential glamor to elect the men they wanted to succeed them.

A Republican replaced Truman, and a Democrat succeeded Ike. This political shift came about despite the fact that both men vigorously spoke out in behalf of their own party's candidate.

PARADOX
It is extremely doubtful whether Ike will have any more influence on the choice of the '64 GOP standard-bearer than Truman did on the Democratic selections in '56 and '60.

Conversely, there is little question but that the man chosen to head the Republican slate will eagerly seek Ike's campaign efforts in his behalf, just as Kennedy welcomed Truman's. By now Nixon, too, has learned that lesson.

Until the very end of the 1960 campaign, Nixon purposely kept the off the campaign stump, because of a perverse notion that he wanted to win "on his own."

When he at last gave like some rein, the old soldier cut loose with such vigor that many felt an earlier start might have turned the tide for Nixon.

Thank You

To those who worked in my behalf, and every one who supported me at the polls I express my thanks.

I will continue to serve you to the best of my ability.

Since Ike is beginning to sound more like a politician all the time, it is highly probable that he will hit the campaign trail for the '64 nominee, even if party bosses won't let him do the picking.

Thank You

To those who worked in my behalf, and every one who supported me at the polls I express my thanks.

I will continue to serve you to the best of my ability.

LYLY FOR CHURCH—Penny (left), Candice and Judy Hart look over the Easter lilies as they choose a plant to send to church for Easter Sunday. The lilies are in competition with an array of azaleas, daffodils, cyclamen, tulips and many other potted plants. The children dressed in pink are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James Hart of 2369 Pontiac Lake Road.

Listen for Message of the Bells
"It was Easter. And when I heard the church bells ring, I thought I heard the Voice of God." So said one of the world's greatest men, Albert Schweitzer. Anyone listening to church bells ring out early Easter morning knew there was something special about them.

What is Easter? It is the giving of lilies, and other plants to those we love, the sick or to our church in memory of a loved one?

Is it a little boy or girl all dressed up in a new suit or dress and perky straw bonnet? Is it filling Easter baskets with colored eggs?

Easter is all these things and more. It is the family going to church. It is the notes of the organ peeling forth the majestic "Hallelujahs." It is the choir raising its voice in anthems and cantatas.

It is children, men and women standing or kneeling at altars banked with flowers, promising God they will try to live according to His will.

And it is believing that because Jesus died and rose from the dead we shall also rise again to live with God forever.

The festival of Easter is synchronized with many immemorial traditions. It is harmonized with the Jewish Passover and one of its most frequently used words in song is the Hebrew "Hallelujahs."

Easter has Christianized pagan customs such as hunting colored eggs which the early Saxons believed were brought by the "Ostern" rabbit.

Even the robin is a part of the Easter story.

Legend tells us that a bird placed a thorn from the crown when Jesus trudged His way to Calvary. Blood from the wound stained the bird's breast.

Trees, too, share in the story. The aspen, according to folklore, quakes because the Cross was made out of its wood. The palm tree bends low, recalling its branches welcome the Saviour into Jerusalem before His crucifixion.

Soon it will be Easter Sunday, and across the country bells will ring from towering steeples in churches old and new. Men, women and children will go to church to celebrate the hope of immortality.

Listen for the message of the bells.

Easter Play, Conference, Program at First Baptist
Young people of First Baptist Church will present the play entitled "He Is Risen Indeed" at the 6:30 Easter Sunrise service.

The annual missionary banquet will be held at 6 p. m. Saturday with Dr. Hillis as speaker. Reservations are required for the luncheon and banquet. The public is invited, the pastor said.

Other players are Martin Townsend, Marcus; Norm Mollagen, Verno; Jim Brien, Peter; Mike March, John; Juanita Law, Mary, and Lenore Schooner, Mary Magdalene.

Several musical messages are also a part of the play.

The final day of the Sunday School Contest will be tomorrow.

The choir will sing "Man of Sorrows" arranged by Peterson at the 10:45 a. m. worship service. Rev. Robert Shelton, interim pastor, will preach on "The Resurrection." Combined choirs will sing "The Easter Hallelujahs" by Lorenz, "He Is Risen on This Day" by March and "Glorious Easter Morning" by Youse.

The service will be transcribed for broadcast at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Ray Bauer will be soloist at the 7 p. m. service and Mr. and Mrs. George Underwood will sing a duet, "Easter Morn'g."

The choir will offer "No Name Has Meant So Much," and "Behold the Lamb of God."

The Men's Quartet will present "Shall I Crucify My Saviour?" and "Wonderful." A trio will sing "He Rose Triumphant."

A welcome will be given new members at the close of the service.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE
The 27th annual Missionary Conference will begin at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday with Dr. H. H. Savage, former pastor, giving the devotional message each evening. A missionary challenge will follow.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Skinner will be in charge of music.

Missionary speakers will include Dr. and Mrs. Reuben Larson from Leeward, Dr. Dick Hills of Overbrook, and Rev. and Mrs. Leo Quigg who represent Africa. Here from Bolivia will be Miss Leone Fletcher, and the interim pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. Shelton from Viet Nam.

The annual missionary luncheon will be at 11 a. m.

Reveal Numerous Jobs Performed in Field in 'Help Wanted' Call

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The modern Christian missionary must be prepared for many tasks beyond preaching the Gospel.

The numerous jobs performed by missionaries are revealed in a "Help Wanted" announcement from the Methodist Board of Missions.

It says the Methodist Church has 238 openings for overseas work in 1962.

WILLIAMS LAKE CHURCH — The congregation of Williams Lake Church of the Nazarene will move into the new building located on a six-acre site at 2840 Airport Road tomorrow. Erich and Friedman were the architects of the $94,000 structure. The Bersche Construction Co. was the builder. The present unit contains a chapel, office and an educational unit with seating in the sanctuary for 250 persons.

DIRECTS EASTER MUSIC — Choirmaster Eida Sutter runs over music she will play Easter morning at Bethany Baptist Church. "Easter Joy" by Cronham and "Light" by Scott are among the selections. The Easter anthems will be presented at the 11 a.m. worship hour.

Music, Baptism on Easter Program

Rev. Chalmers S. Martin, minister of education, will be in charge of the devotional following the Easter breakfast at 7 a.m. in Bethany Baptist Church.

He will give special recognition to young people home on vacation from school and service.

At the early worship service at 8:40 a.m. Dr. Emil Kuntz will administer the ordinance of baptism.

United Church of Christ Film Presents Views

NEW YORK — A challenging new approach to the role of the church in leading the way toward the solution of social problems was unveiled today at a press screening of a new film produced by the United Church of Christ.

The United Church of Christ, one of the nation's major denominations, was organized last year through a union of the Congregational Christian Churches and the Evangelical & Reformed Church.

The film, "Tomorrow?" was produced by the denomination's Council for Christian Social Action, and deals with the effects of automation. The various aspects of the problem are presented without offering solutions or any single, religious answer to it.

Views of management, organized labor, individual employees, religious leaders and others are juxtaposed to set forth the ethics and customs challenged by this impending revolution in industrial practices.

900 Ohio Catholics Ask English at Mass

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI) — More than 900 members of St. Clare's parish in suburban Cincinnati have signed petitions seeking permission from the Liturgical Commission in Rome to use English in the Roman Catholic mass.

The parishioners want to use English in the parts of the Mass appropriate to the people, not the prayers of the priests.

The petition was submitted following the granting of permission to Catholics in Poland to chant parts of the mass in their native language instead of Latin.

Asks Funds to Beat Embargo on Bibles

NEW YORK (UPI) — The American Bible Society has issued an emergency appeal for $250,000 in contributions to fill needs for Bibles in Indonesia because an embargo bans shipments of scriptures to that country on Dec. 23.

Dr. Robert T. Taylor, society executive secretary, said the Indonesian government, had placed an embargo on all foreign books published in locally used languages.

The move was made in an effort to strengthen Indonesia's economy by allowing the use only of such books published in Indonesia.

Lutherans Say Schools Teaching 7 Pct. More

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI) — The American Lutheran Church reports enrollment in its colleges and schools increased by nearly seven per cent, not counting a new school that opened in California.

Nearly 14,000 students are enrolled in 15 institutions supported by the church. This was 1,172 more than the 1960 enrollment.

Baptists to Break Ground for Crescent Hills Church

The ground breaking ceremony for the new Crescent Hills Baptist Church at 228 Crescent Lake Road will be at 4 p.m. Sunday with Rev. Arthur L. Farrell, executive secretary of Michigan Baptist Convention the speaker.

Rudy Schettling, moderator of the Crescent Hills Church, will give the invocation and John Waldo will lead the hymn sing. Rev. Jesse Brandon, former interim pastor will read the Scripture with Rev. Chalmers Mastin, minister of education, at Bethany Baptist Church offering prayer.

Turning the shovel will be Mrs. Loyd Edwards, Carl Meng, Leo Sutherland and Ray Ward.

William Frankfield is the architect and Amos Roe, the contractor.

Dr. Emil Kontz of Bethany Church will bring the devotional message. Closing remarks will be by Pastor Robert L. Adams.

The main section of the building will be 72 by 42 feet and the educational wing, 24 by 22 feet. The building of the church is a result of much hard work and concern of many people since its beginning in 1955, Pastor Adams said.

At that time a group of pastors and laymen from the American Baptist churches in the area conceived the idea of establishing a church in rapidly expanding Waterford Township.

In the spring of that year William Goding, a graduate student at Northern Baptist Seminary in Chicago, was invited to begin the

Pageant Portrays Inspired People

The pageant, "New Hopes," by Dorothy Abbott and Lee Ellis will be presented by the young people of the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church at the Easter Sunrise Service at 6 a.m.

In a series of episodes, people of today are shown to be tired and discouraged until some of the people of the past, connected with the Easter story, appear and reassure them. A business man is encouraged to pray for help in his work, by Peter whom Jesus helped with the wonderful haul of fish; a college boy who doubts the truth of the Resurrection is reassured by the disciple Thomas, who also doubted.

Other characters are similarly inspired by those of their kind who lived long ago. Gary Boves is the pageant narrator and Dave Drans, Jackie Gelson, Paul Kitchon and Judy Williams will portray various Bible characters.

Others having speaking parts include Jerry Shields, Ruth Benner, Judy Webb, Marilyn Cudman, Paul Marien, Karen Marien, Nancy Bain and Jack Girst.

Solos will be sung by Suzanne Weil, Cheryl Coffing and Ted Boves.

Easter Morning Festivities at Central

Three Easter services will be held in Jeanette Gray School by Central Methodist Church. A sunrise service will be held at 7:30 a.m., preaching on "It Is Not Finished," with Rev. Harold H. Johnson. The authors will be "On An Easter Morning" sung by the Junior Choir. For the solo Robert Wisdom will sing "Hosanna" by Granier.

Members of Senior High Fellowship will assist with this service. Charlotte Aldinger will give the call to worship; Susan Putnam, the collect; Harold Balmer, the affirmation of faith; and Leanne Poffenberger, the prayer. The responsive reading will be led by Robert Kibbie and Barbara Lake will read the scripture lesson. There will also be youth leaders.

Twenty-five young people will be received into the membership of the church at this service. They have been prepared in two study classes taught by the pastor, Dr. Milton H. Bank.

Two duplicate morning worship services and church school at 9:15 and 10:45 a.m. will follow the sunrise service. Dr. Bank will preach at both hours on "Ascending from A Mount." Anthems "This Joyful Easterday" and "Crown Him with Many Crowns" will be sung by the Chancel choir. For the solo Beverly Stief will sing "In The End Of The Sabbath" by Spinks.

At the 9:15 a.m. service there will be the sacrament of baptism for children. The second service will be broadcast. Only and toddlers' nursery service will be available to parents with children at all three services.

At 7:30 p.m. on Monday, in Fellowship Hall on the new property, Central Methodist Church will begin a school of churchmanship. This school will be held on five Monday nights and one Wednesday night.

Courses taught will be "The Bible and You" for church school workers by Rev. Mr. Johnson; and

"The Meaning of Suffering" taught by Dr. Bank and Mrs. P. G. Lathrop.

Presbyterians Present Drama Easter Morning

The drama, "Queen Quieris," derived from medieval liturgical rite and directed by Barnett Shepherd, will be presented at the Easter sunrise service of First Presbyterian Church at 7 a.m.

The cast includes Lyndon Salathiel, Mrs. Charles Hutton, Mrs. Lyndon Salathiel, Helen Thoma, Philip Doolittle and Edward Rightmire.

At 8 a.m. the congregation will gather in the dining room for breakfast served by the Women's Association with Mrs. Ann Dwyer, chairman of arrangements.

At 8:45 a.m. the sacrament of baptism will be administered to infants and children.

"Through Death to Life" is the topic of Rev. Galen E. Hershey's Easter Sunday sermon at 9:30 and 11 a.m.

The Chancel Choir will present "How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place" by Brahms. "Praise the Lord of Life" by Mascagni, and Children Will Perform

The children's department of the Macedonia Baptist Church will present recitations on "The Resurrection of Christ" at the church Sunday evening. Founder's Week will begin Monday with special services through April 28. The public is invited. Pastor L. R. Miner said.

Good Friday Breakfast Given by Church Group

Mrs. Edgar Thomas of Center Street (right) was general chairman for First Congregational Church's annual Good Friday breakfast which has become a tradition in the community. Pictured with Mrs.

Thomas as she offered thanks were (from left) Mrs. John Morrison, East Huron Street; Doris Bennett, Holly; and the guest speaker Mrs. Philip Gentile, Lathrup Village.

Behind the scenes in First Congregational Church's bustling kitchen many hands were at work preparing tasty dishes for the several hundred area women who annually attend the Good Friday breakfast, sponsored by Women's Fellowship members. Among the workers were (from left) Faye Donelson, Voorheis Road; Pamela Edwards, Mt. Royal Street, Waterford Township; and Mrs. Charles Andrews, Rochester.

Hostess Must Be at Big Table

By the Emily Post Institute

Q: I am giving a lunch party for a bride-to-be and am a little uncertain as to the seating arrangements. Due to the size of my dining room I cannot seat more than ten and will have to set up a card table for the other four in the living room, which is just off the dining room.

Will you please tell me whether I should sit at the large table or at the card table? Could I be considered rude if I sit at the main table and let my guests sit at the card table?

A: As hostess, your place is at the head of the dining table with the bride-to-be on your right. Seat your own family or most intimate friends at the card table.

Q: My husband and I are expecting our first baby shortly and we intend to send out birth announcements. I would like to know how our names should be filled in on these announcements. Should it be Mary and John, Mary and John Brown or Mr. and Mrs. John Brown?

Would the signatures vary according to how well we know the people to whom the announcements are being sent. In other words, would our signatures be the same for intimate friends as it would be to acquaintances who do not call us by first name?

A: To intimate friends you merely sign Mary and John, to others you sign Mary and John Brown. To sign Mr. and Mrs. would be bad form.

Q: At a small informal gathering of friends, is it not rude for two of the guests to carry on a private conversation to the exclusion of others? Shouldn't the conversation be general at all times?

A: You are quite right. A private conversation of any noticeable length that excluded others in the room would be rude.

Michigan Division of The National Secretaries Association has announced plans for a state meeting, May 18-20, at The Executive Inn, Warren.

Hostess for the meeting will be the South Oakland Chapter, one of eighteen chapters in the state.

Michigan Division President Mrs. Lenore S. Forti, certified professional secretary, revealed some program plans for the weekend meeting.

An open house, sponsored by the South Oakland Chapter, will begin festivities Friday evening, May 18. Entertainment includes a travel fashion show by Mary Gordon, an air line representative, and songs by Marian Stannard and her husband, both professional entertainers.

SPECIAL LUNCHEON
A special luncheon Saturday

features a contest to select a state Secretary of the Year from six contestants. The winner will be announced that evening.

A tour of the General Motors Tech Center in Warren has been arranged for the secretaries following Saturday's afternoon business session.

Final session of the convention Sunday morning will be highlighted by an address by International Great Lakes District Vice President, Melba House, whose topic is entitled "A Step Forward."

NSA Home Trust Fund Chairman Mary Hurst will also speak.

Coordinator for the meeting is Mrs. Lois Galgala of Birmingham, past president of the South Oakland Chapter.

There's a new look this year, for women of all ages — the matte look. And it's important if face make-up, dress fabrics and even in nail polish.

With the introduction of the new matte nail satin this spring, shine is out for your nails. The high polish will be replaced by an inner glow of subtle color.

NAIL TIPS
When you've completed your manicure except for the nail enamel, apply a special matte base coat and then three applications of the matte textured polish. Allow each coat to dry to a flat matte finish before applying the next one.

Here are a few manicuring tricks to help the new matte polish create the illusion of true nail beauty:
If your nails are wide, leave narrow margins on each side. To make them appear longer, be sure to cover the complete nail with polish. But if you have long, oval-shaped nails, they can be made to look even prettier if you leave a moon and a hairline tip.

You will find many wonderful shades of the new matte nail satin so that your polish can be matched or co-ordinated with your costume and other make-up.

His Wife Is Nice

Yes, Tell His Whole Harem What a Rotten Stinker He Is

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My boy friend told me he loved me and wanted to marry me. He said his wife was older than he was and he never loved her. He moved to Dallas and paid my way there so I could be near him while he waited for his divorce.

That was a year ago. Now I find out that two other women besides myself followed him there. One is a gray haired woman in her fifties who even divorced her husband and brought her grown daughter along!

All this time he has been feeding us all the same line. His wife is not older than he is. She's a nice-looking blonde woman.

Should I tell the other women he has made fools of us? (I feel kind of sorry for the old one.) I hate to hurt his wife by telling her, but I think she ought to know what a rat she married.

I am going back home, but why should that lar get away with anything?

DEAR ABIGAIL: I swear my wife has sleeping sickness. We both work to help pay off our house. She gets out of work before I do (half an hour) and falls asleep waiting for me. At supper time she is always the first one through, and she often lays her head on the table and falls asleep while waiting for me and the children to finish.

When I finish, I clear the table, put the children to bed, and then I wake her up so she can go to the bedroom, get into her nightclothes and go to sleep. She sleeps all night and wakes up at 7:00 a.m.

The next day it's the same story over again. When we go anywhere, she falls asleep in her chair. Her mother and father both have sugar diabetes and take insulin daily. Could this have anything to do with it? My wife refuses to go to a doctor. I am worried.

DEAR WORRIED: Your wife should see a doctor at once for a thorough check-up. Insist on it, and don't take "no" for an answer.

DEAR ABBY: My heart doesn't yearn for wall-to-wall carpeting and fancy clothes, but oh, Abby, how I would love to have my husband bring home some foolish little gift on some unspecial day. He's not a thoughtless guy, but when you have to "hint" it's no fun. He's a grand guy and a wonderful husband, and if he'd only do this little thing, to let me know I am as special to him as he is to me, I'd be the happiest woman in the world.

Two area women, Mrs. Agnes Moore and Mrs. Alice Kerns, both assistant cashiers at the Pontiac State Bank, are working on the hospitality and registration committees respectively.

Women holding executive positions are expected from Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, North and South Dakota and Wisconsin. Mrs. Lillian Jacques, assistant branch manager, Bank of the Commonwealth, Detroit, is chairman of the conference.

Silhouettes in Fluid Motion

(UPI) — Cotton up to the resort collections for '62 and you'll see a variety of silhouettes featuring airy, soufflé-like batiste, crisp organdy, textured pique, shimmering cotton satin and brocade.

These are designer favorites for decollete dance dresses, executed in delicate or dramatic prints, as well as elegant afternoon ensembles in patterns and solid colors.

They've All Become She Shirts Now

What's gown too long to be blouses, too short to be dresses? The tee shirt (left), the night shirt (middle) and the he shirt (right), now become all she shirts. White ones and ultra bright ones, once quite satisfied to share fashion billing with skirts, shorts and slim jims, now seek to shine in the sun all by themselves. The shirt styles like these by Queen Casuals, too long to be blouses and too short to be dresses, are most certainly adapted from the masculine wardrobe, but the feminine figure adapts them nicely.

2nd Annual Carousel Ball Slated May 19 in Detroit

The second annual Carousel Ball, sponsored by the Women's Division of the Greater Detroit Chapter, Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children, will be held May 19 at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel in Detroit.

Announcement of the social is made by Women's Division President and Ball Chairman Mrs. Roy A. Frushant.

Measured in dollars, the 1961 Carousel Ball was a success. It provided $60,000 toward to earn health and happiness for many of Michigan's disturbed youth.

Because the carousel has been a symbol of happy times for many a child, its name was given to the first Carousel Ball, in 1961.

FUNDS DISTRIBUTED

Of the funds from last year, $41,000 has already been disbursed in direct grants to institutions for program enrichment materials; as placement scholarship grants and a memorial placement scholarship; for a day school demonstration project, sponsored by Merrill-Palmer Institute and the Children's Center of Metropolitan Detroit; for public information and education through grants to the state association, MAEDC.

Alan L. Gornick, is president of the Greater Detroit Chapter, MAEDC.

Such disbursement of funds adds up to the fact that 15 children who might not have been helped otherwise are closer to recovery.

It means, too, that many others in state hospitals, residential homes for disturbed youth, juvenile courts in both Wayne and Oakland counties, plus several centers were provided with materials necessary for hopeful and permanent treatment.

In addition to naming committee chairmen for the benefit ball next month, Mrs. Frushant has announced that Mrs. John B. Swainson, wife of Michigan's governor, had accepted honorary presidency of the women's division.

Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh has also signified his acceptance of honorary chairmanship of the annual advisory board which Allan Shelden III heads. Roy A. Frushant is chairman of the project evaluation committee.

Contributions for the ball will be $10 a couple with an early cocktail hour slated to precede the dinner which will begin at 8:30 p.m.

LOMBARDO MUSIC

Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians will provide the "Sweetest Music This Side of Heaven" for the ball guests. The Charles Auld Trio will also be on hand.

Star of the evening though, will be Gordon MacRae, who will be making his own 21st wedding anniversary celebration at home to contribute toward the success of this year's Carousel Ball.

August vows are planned by Ann M. Pirochta, daughter of the Louis Pirochtas of Shimmans Road to Frederick J. Staronowicz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Staronowicz, Lake Bluff, Ill. She attends Michigan State University where her fiancé received his B. A. degree last June.

ANN M. PIROCHTA

The William J. Kellers of Ledgestone Drive, Waterford, announce the engagement of their daughter Beverly Ann to Helmut Berndt, son of the Emil Berndts of Wiesbaden, Germany. An August wedding is planned.

Just Stretch in Bed

Exercises Relax, Reduce

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
Stretching exercises are not only reducing to figure measurements, but they are also very relaxing. They are easy to do and, therefore, do not place a strain on the person who is unaccustomed to exercise.

You can stretch to your heart's content right in your own bed and yawn at the same time. These exercises are fine for doing just before going to sleep at night, or when awakening in the morning.

Lie on your back on your bed, legs straight. Lift your arms toward the ceiling. Reach for your right arm. Reach as far as comfortable so that you feel the pull over your shoulder blade. Relax. Now reach with your left arm. Relax.

Continue, alternating right and left. Do this exercise very slowly and you will get rid of many kinks. Wrist is relaxed. Reach with your arms, not your hands. While still lying on your back, bend the right knee up close to the abdomen. Slide right foot back to place. Do the same with your left leg and continue, alternating right and left.

Turn onto your left side on the edge of the bed. Let your right foot hang off the bed. Raise your right arm overhead, resting on your right ear. Stretch with the right arm and right leg. Relax. Stretch. After a while, turn onto the right side and stretch with the left arm and leg.

Lie on your back again with your legs straight and your arms overhead. Push back with the right arm as you push forward with the left leg and stretch. Relax. Now push forward with the right leg and stretch. Relax. Now push forward with the right leg and stretch. Relax.

Rebecca Circle of Oakland Park Methodist Church met Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Lorrin Schwartz on Lorber Lane, Waterford Township. Mrs. Clayton Gillies was a guest.

A Consumers Power Co. demonstration on low calorie foods and low budget meals was announced for May 1.

Officers for the coming year will be installed May 18 at the regular meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service, which also will include revelation of prayer pals.

The annual mother-daughter banquet is scheduled for May 17. Mrs. John Ritter gave devotions entitled "The Responsible Christian Citizen" and the meeting closed with Mrs. Lee Murphy's reading of the Easter story from the Bible.

back with the left arm. Stretch. Relax. Continue, alternating. Now just twist and stretch in all directions. Yawn! Be lazy while you do this. Feel that you have pulled every muscle. If you do all of these steps slowly, in a stretchy manner, you should be thoroughly relaxed now.

This stretching exercise not only reduces the figure measurements, but it is also very relaxing. Easy to do, stretching does not place a strain on the person who is unaccustomed to exercise.

Your Neighbor's House

Olsons' Union Lake Home a Haven

BY JANET ODELL

Pontiac Press Home Editor Raymond Olson, is due to retire from the Coast Guard in a little over a year. His 28½ years in the service have taken him all over the world. He and his wife have lived in California, Puerto Rico, Massachusetts, Wisconsin and many other states. He even took part in Operation Deepfreeze, living in the Antarctic for 3 months.

The above may explain why the Olsons will be happy to settle permanently in their home on Union Lake. Olson commutes to Detroit daily now.

Thirty years ago Mrs. Olson's family spent their summers in the Union Lake area. Her sisters across the road from her now and her parents come from Florida for long visits each summer.

When they bought the lot right next to the State Fishing Site, there was a basement already built. They extended it 16 feet out in the rear and planned their house within those boundaries.

Like many other do-it-yourselfers, they moved in before the house was done. Except for the exterior and cabinet work done by Ernie Diehl, the Olsons completed the house themselves. Her father helped occasionally.

WANTED SPACE

Olson had definite ideas about what he wanted in a permanent home. Having been cramped aboard ship for so many years, he wanted space in which to move around freely. He wanted BIG closets. He wanted a good-sized bathroom. He got them all.

You enter the house from Locklin Road, past the garage, under a canopy that extends to the back door. You are greeted with enthusiasm by three dogs, combination Chihuahua-toy terriers. They are mother and sons from two different litters.

There is a full basement in the house. The Olsons live down here most of the summer months, enjoying the screened porch with its view of the lake. Before the house was completed, they had to use a ladder to go from one floor to another.

The large living room, built across the front of the house, overlooks Union Lake. At the side you can see the Fishing Site, but the Olsons say that they are not bothered by noise at all. They are high above the lake and a fence completely covered with some thick plant screens them.

The draperies which Mrs. Olson made are aqua blue with a gold and white Oriental design. Walls are paneled in Japanese ash, Nakara wood. The rug is tweed. At one end of the room is a stone fireplace with a raised slate hearth and a stone mantel.

In a corner near the front windows Mrs. Olson has a cabinet filled with dolls collected all over the world. In front of it is a deep lounge chair and hassock in black and white tweed. There are two coral leather platform rockers, a pale green lounge chair and a gray sofa.

Occasional tables are walnut. A pair of armchairs has beige upholstery. In the east window is a desk with a pole lamp beside it.

The dining room is merely an extension of the living room, between it and the kitchen. Here the walls are coral. Furniture is walnut with cane inserts in the chair backs and the buffet doors. Woodwork is birch.

The kitchen has birch cupboards which are built in wherever there was vacant wall space. Counter tops are a marbled pink and gray. The end wall is coral. Floor tile is gold and beige. Only a sheer white ruffle is used over the sink window. There is a view of the lake here which shouldn't be hidden.

The Olsons' bedroom has the same oak floors that are throughout the house. Walls are gold. The extra big closets have drawers underneath the hanging space. Throw rugs are striped.

The prettiest piece of furniture is the carved camphor chest that Olson got in Panama, but that was made in China. Bedroom furniture is cherry.

In one corner is an antique walnut chair. A modern chair is covered with brown, pink and beige and green material, the same fabric used for curtains. The bedspread and skirt are old rose.

The bath room is large, the way Olson wanted it. The floor is a blue-gray ceramic tile with brown and peach wavy lines in it. Wall tile and the paint above are sea blue. Fixtures are peach. The diagonal bathtub fits into a square niche under the window.

SEA HORSES

A corner cupboard near the door has metal sea horse handles. Other sea horses decorate the walls. The soap is even made in sea horse shape. Curtains are striped.

There are 3 towel racks which give the couple and any guests individual racks. Toothbrush holders and a glass are on swing-around shelves that disappear into the wall.

On the wall of the hallway, opposite the coat closet is a tape cloth Olson brought from Samoa.

The guest bedroom has aqua walls and a gray rug. The curtains are beige with a gold and coral design. Furniture is lined oak with aqua tufted headboards. An interesting piece of furniture is the little old Lincoln rocker upholstered in red plush.

During the building of the Olson house he was gone for 2 years, except for weekends. Mrs. Olson stayed alone with the dogs. That may be just another reason why the couple is looking forward to the time they can spend every day in the home they both love.

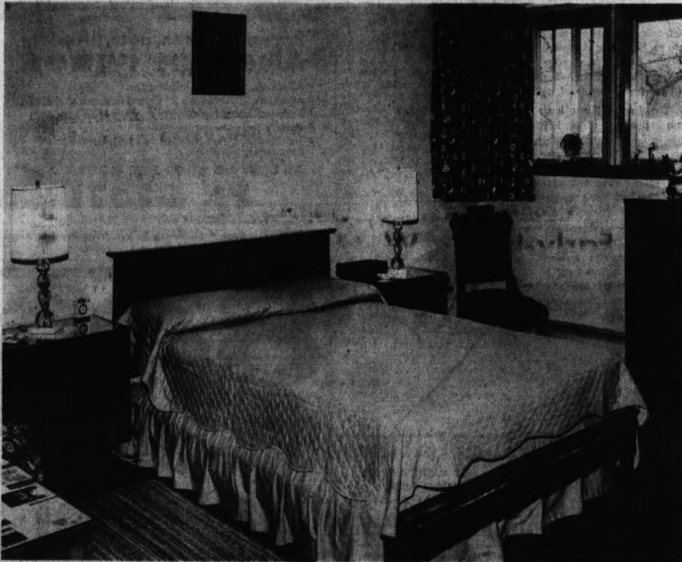

LUXURIOUS — Sea blue and peach are the colors used in this bathroom. Tile and walls are blue; fixtures are peach. Toothbrush holders and a container for cleansing tissue are built into the right wall above the basin. The door on the stall shower has an etched design. Elsewhere, sea horses are used as decoration.

KITCHEN CORNER — An L-shaped counter serves as a serving area for the dining room. The corridor kitchen has ample storage space. Cupboards are birch. From the window over the sink Mrs. Olson can see the lake as she works. She can also talk with anyone in the living room, just a few steps away.

COZY ROOM — This room is a quiet haven, even though it is only a few feet from a busy road. Walls are gold. There are striped throw rugs on the polished oak floor. Furniture is cherry.

Pontiac Press Photos by Ed Noble

The bedspread and skirt are a soft rose. The bedside lamps have attractive glass bases. This room has an enormous closet.

WELCOME — The three pups give Mr. and Mrs. Olson an enthusiastic welcome each afternoon when they return from work. The photographer posed them all in the living room. Mrs. Olson made the blue, gold and white draperies. Walls are paneled in Japanese ash. The carpeting is tweed. The room is filled with souvenirs of places the Olsons have lived, or where Olson has been stationed in the Coast Guard.

ON UNION LAKE — The Raymond Olsons own this home in Union Lake Village. They bought the lot with an old foundation on it, then planned their house to fit. The exterior is glazed asbestos shingle siding — cream with coral trim. The Olsons' lot is approximately 5000 sq. ft. and is located right next to the State Fishing Site. The Olsons did much of the interior work themselves. Note the nice downstairs screened porch.

Control Amount and Kind of Light

Let's put a little light on the subject of lighting.

Frank Vecchiarelli, a light control specialist for the Flexalum division of Bridgeport Brass Company, has a few suggestions to guide the home buyer in meeting the family's lighting needs.

First, says the Flexalum specialist, make the most of natural light. Aluminum venetian blinds, he points out, are the best way to control the amount of light entering a room while keeping out glare and insuring privacy.

Direct lighting, Vecchiarelli adds, should be used for illuminating desks, work surfaces and studies used for reading. It can also be used decoratively to play up specific furnishings such as a coffee table or a painting. Artificial direct lighting should be avoided to minimize glare.

Indirect lighting is best for general illumination in a room where eye comfort and pleasant surroundings are most important.

One new development, Vecchiarelli reports, is a combination switch and circuit that enables you to lower or raise the intensity of light in a room. In effect, he says, these controls perform the same function for artificial lighting that venetians do in adjusting the amount of daylight.

Electric Cabinet Dries Wash Without Wrinkles

Where space is a problem, a practical investment is a folding clothes dryer equipped with aluminum racks which hold all types of washables to dry in circulating warm air. It's made by Frantz Electric of Cleveland, O.

It operates on standard household current, needs no installation, shuts off automatically, and folds up to only 6 inches deep for storage. Hanging clothes up is said to leave fewer creases than tumble-drying.

According to a leading national architectural magazine, Architectural Forum, three-fourths of all new churches are being built with "engineered wood."

Look Around Your Yard for Extra Living Space

Are you short of room outdoors? Look again, says an outdoor living specialist.

According to Dana Richardson, of the Flexalum division of Bridgeport Brass Company, many homeowners are not taking full advantage of the space they have, limited as it may be. He lists

Venetian Blinds Go Sky High With Navy

Use of venetian blinds to control temperatures 21½ miles up in space was reported today by the manufacturer.

According to the Flexalum division of Bridgeport Brass Company, eleven aluminum blinds, similar to those used in homes and office buildings, were supplied to the Navy to participate in the highest flight ever made by a manned balloon.

The Navy painted one side of the blinds black and aluminized the other side, the company said. The blinds were able to give protection to the crew of the open gondola against radiation and temperatures which dipped to 94 degrees below zero Fahrenheit. As the balloon reached 10,000 feet, the blinds were lowered. When warmth was required the black side was turned outwards to absorb the energy from the sun. When the crew wanted to cool the gondola, the silver side was turned outwards. From a better view of the world below was needed, the blinds were raised.

Treat Plumbing Fixtures With Proper Cleaners

Although today's porcelain-finished and vitreous china plumbing fixtures are impervious to most household detergents and bleaching agents, some scouring powders can be harmful, says the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau.

To retain the naturally smooth, shiny appearance of bathtubs, lavatories, sinks and water closets, use only the cleaning powder recommended by your plumbing contractor or fixture manufacturer.

Cater to Kitty

Cats love to have a back scratcher. For outdoors or indoors, cover the lower part of an existing post with panels of Masonite Tempered Preswood, exposing the screen side which has the texture of canvas.

Venetian Blinds Can Hide Toys

If keeping a child's room in some kind of order has become a full-time job, here's a handy storage tip that will make life easier.

According to Eleanor Kandel, a venetian blinds specialist for the Flexalum division of Bridgeport Brass Company, venetians, in addition to their primary light control function, sometimes make excellent room dividers.

To solve the toy storage problem in a child's room, the Flexalum specialist recommends:

1. Setting aside one wall and adjoining space as a toy storage area.
2. Attaching a custom venetian blind to the ceiling a few feet from the wall. The venetian blind should match the decor of the rest of the room.
3. Storing toys in trunks, shelving or foot lockers behind the blind. When the toys are in use, venetians can be raised to permit use of entire room as play area.
4. At the end of the day, it will take only a few minutes to tuck toys back in receptacles and draw the blind.

Replace Old Heater to Avoid Trouble

It's good economy to replace an obviously old or underized water heater before it gives trouble.

Besides depriving the family of hot water, a sudden leak can cause a damaging flood very quickly. The cost and inconvenience of such an occurrence can easily be avoided by having a reputable plumbing contractor check the heater.

An old heater gradually loses its efficiency due to layers of lime and calcium that have built up over the years insulating the piping, coils and tank walls. This means more fuel is needed to heat the water, and even then it may not be as hot as you want it. And old heaters frequently deliver rusty water.

Many heaters wear out because they are not large enough to provide for a growing family. The parts are subjected to excessive wear when hot water is demanded beyond the heater's capacity. Besides rapidly wearing out, an undersized heater is naturally unable to constantly supply all the hot water you need.

Day or Night Use

Color stylists usually suggest that a room facing South or West should be painted in cool colors such as blue or green and that rooms facing North should be decorated in warmer hues such as members of the red, orange or yellow families. But if the room in question is used mostly at night, you can safely disregard these recommendations which are based on natural, not artificial, light. But be sure to select your colors under the type of lighting you use in the particular room.

Insist on Cast Iron Dampers for Fireplace

If you are building a home with a fireplace, here's a tip that can save you grief and expense in years to come.

Have the builder install dampers that are cast from gray iron. They'll last the life of the house; won't wear out in a few years as will other types of dampers.

Because cast iron is compatible with mortar, brick, and other building materials, a cast iron damper can be laid right in the brick of the fireplace and become an integral part of the chimney.

In addition, cast iron dampers will not warp and have draft doors with ground joints which close tightly, keeping out rain and cold air and keeping in heat when the fireplace is not in use.

Dampers of other materials, on the other hand, will warp under heat and moisture conditions, which means they will not close tightly, will not keep out the elements completely, and eventually must be replaced.

DECEPTIVE LENGTH:—An outdoor living room between the garage and main house and partially covered by the roof adds length to this fresh looking three-bedroom ranch. Another feature of the house is its well-designed, 216-square-foot kitchen. Total living area on the house is 1,478 square feet.

FLOOR PLAN: Hub of this house is its well designed kitchen, 216 square feet in area. Outdoor living room, linking main house with garage and partially covered by the roof, is another unusual feature. House contains 1,478 square feet of living area in overall dimensions of 29'3" by 78'1" wide.

Large Interesting Kitchen Makes House Different

By JULES LOH
How many times have you said this yourself: "I don't know why we even have a living room, everybody always winds up in the kitchen."

It seems to be a universal trait of Americans. Whether at a party, or a get-together with the neighbors, or just in the course of everyday, there always seems to be a congregation in the kitchen. The only trouble is, most kitchens nowadays can't handle the crowd. Somewhere during the past generation of home building—probably as a result of the headlong rush for "efficiency"—the American kitchen shrank.

Architect Rudolph A. Matern set out to restore it to its rightful place of prominence in his design of J-36 in the House of the Week series. The kitchen in this house contains 216 square feet—as large as many living rooms. With all its size, however, its U-shaped work area will save the housewife multitudes of steps. There is plenty of counter space, and an abundance of cabinets—nearly 33 linear feet of them.

Another striking feature of this house is the outdoor living room which connects the garage and the main house and is partially covered by the roof. From the front it looks like part of the main house, and adds length to the exterior view.

From the inside, too, this 170-square-foot outdoor area serves to enlarge the living room both visually and physically. The server bar should not be overlooked as an aid to outdoor dining and entertaining. All the bedrooms are of good size, with more than enough closet space—if that's possible. There are six closets in the master bedroom, three in the second bedroom and two in the third. Note how the bank of closets serves as a sound buffer between bedrooms two and three.

For all of its commodious rooms, the house still is well within the medium-size category. There are 1,478 square feet of living area, not counting the garage and outdoor living room, in over-all dimensions of 29'3" deep by 78'1" wide.

Rarely do you think of the basement steps as something glamorous, but take a look at these. A glass plaster bay or trellis from the ceiling to three steps below the floor level, creating a balcony effect for the kitchen breakfast area. The net result is that the kitchen becomes as attractive as it is functional, which is as it should be.

The planter bay also allows plenty of natural light on the stairway and into the kitchen, especially since it is side-by-side with the triple windows over the sink. The combination also makes for excellent supervision of the backyard.

EXTRA BURNERS

One other feature of the kitchen deserves mention—the two-burner unit on the counter nearest the breakfast table. It lets you toast the coffee hot, or the soup, without getting up from the table.

The main bathroom of this house is situated ideally, convenient both to the bedroom wing and the kitchen. It has double lavatories plus a second vanity on the opposite wall. The bathroom adjoining the master bedroom also has a large vanity, and a stall shower.

The formal living area is well-ordered and attractive. The main entry is covered, with side lights on each side of the front door, and the foyer is large and private. The fireplace is a design feature of both the living room and foyer, with vertically stacked brick and an adjoining planter.

A large bay window adds interest in the living room and assures plenty of daylight, along with the sliding glass doors to the outdoor room.

The exterior of this house has clean, low lines and a fresh, modern look.

Wood Loses Gallons of Water in Drying

An outstanding discovery at the Madison Wisconsin Forest Products Laboratory is this all-important fact—the value of wood expands as its moisture content contracts.

The federal scientists have determined that a log 16 feet long and 15 inches in diameter may contain as much as 70 gallons of water.

Gradually this moisture will evaporate. As it does, the wood cells contract and the wood shrinks. This loss of size is inevitable, regardless of species. The important thing is for it to occur before and not after lumber is in service.

Eight New Astronauts

To Start Space Training

NEW YORK (AP)—Eight more seasoned test pilots—seven Air Force and one naval officer—were selected Friday to train for future space projects.

The military project is related to but apart from the civilian space agency's selection and training of its astronauts. Some of the eight, the Air Force said, could be among the 5 or 10 astronauts the National Aeronautics and Space Administration plans to add to its original seven-man team.

MEN SELECTED

Following are sketches of the eight men:

Maj. Donald M. Sorie—39, born in Omaha, Neb. Married, five children; stationed at Wright Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio. Has been in service 17 years. A graduate of North Dakota State University. Once served as instructor of flying cadets at U.S. Military Academy, West Point, N.Y.

Lt. Cmdr. Lloyd N. Hoover—37, born in Springfield, Mass., graduate of U.S. Naval Academy, with nuclear engineering masters degree from Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Married, two children. Now based at Naval Air Training Center, Patuxent River, Md. In 1960, Hoover was one of three American pilots selected to train at the Empire Test School at Farnborough, Hampshire, England. He was awarded a trophy in Korea; received the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with four oak leaf clusters.

STARTED YOUTH

Capt. William T. Twining—34, born in Berwin, Ill. Married, two children. Stationed at Air Defense Command Headquarters, Colorado. Received a degree in mechanical engineering at University of Michigan. His mother recalls he began making model planes at the age of 8.

Capt. Albert H. Crews Jr.—33, born in El Dorado, Ark. Married, three children. Now at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif. Graduate of the University of Southwestern Louisiana; holds masters degree from the Air Force Institute of Technology. Entered the Air Force as a private, then selected for pilot training.

IN HIS PROGRAM

Capt. Charles C. Bock Jr.—36, born in Council Bluffs, Iowa. Married, three children. Stationed at Andrews Air Force Base, Md. Holds a degree in aeronautical engineering; a World War II navigator, and pilot during Korean War. Later commanded a B-50 that carried the X-15 experimental rocket ship. Holds distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal.

Capt. Robert H. McInnis—35, born in Brownwood, Tex. Married, three children. Stationed at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif. Before graduating from the Naval Academy at Annapolis, he spent two years as a Marine enlisted man. Flew 100 combat missions in Korea; received the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with four oak leaf clusters.

Maj. Byron F. Knole—38, born in Houston, Tex. Married, two children. Stationed at Air Force Space Systems Division, Los Angeles. Graduated from West Point; received a master's degree in engineering from the University of Michigan.

Capt. Robert W. Smith—34, born in Washington, D.C. Married, two children. Stationed at Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif.

Wife Quickly Follows Husband in Death

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—An elderly Tampa couple, married for 57 years, died within minutes of each other.

Doctors said both died of natural causes. The man, Jacob Lott Lightsey, 82, had been ill for three weeks, doctors said. He died early Friday.

His wife, Bessie Anderson Lightsey, 71, discovered the death a short time later and telephoned relatives and the family physician.

At 2:15 a.m., less than 15 minutes after the doctor arrived, Mrs. Lightsey died.

Need New Words for Modern-Day Pain in the Neck

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI) — "Telephone neck" and "shoulder drag" have been suggested as new words for our vocabulary.

Dr. J. Lamoine De Ruxha (D-R), dean of the Northwestern College of Chiropractic of Minneapolis, Minn., said the new words describe "headaches" of the neck and shoulders. He spoke at a meeting of the California Chiropractic Association.

"It seems modern conveniences such as air conditioning and car riding with open windows play a part in bringing on these conditions," he said.

"The year-round habit of tilting and rotating the head while on the phone, common among office workers, causes muscle pull to reposition the neck vertebrae, or bones, which then irritate nerves in that area causing pain and 'telephone neck'."

De Ruxha said poor shoulder posture produces the "shoulder drag" which results in irritation of the nerves of the head, neck, shoulders, arms and hands.

Swainson Family Plans Traditional Easter Sunday

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson and his family will spend a quiet Easter at home after attending services at Grace Lutheran Church here.

Son Stephen, 14, will be home from the Leelanau School at Glen Arbor to join his parents and sister Tina, 3, for a dinner featuring the traditional Easter ham. The Swainson's younger son Peter, 12, is at Mohonk-Cragmoore, school in Cragmoore, N.Y., and will not be home.

Mrs. Swainson's choice of an Easter costume is a pastel blue linen suit, accented with a blue and beige toile print blouse, and a black straw Brenton hat.

Steelworkers Sign Contract With Lukens

COATESVILLE, Pa. (AP)—The Lukens Steel Co. and United Steelworkers yesterday signed a two-year contract following the national pattern for the industry.

The signing came a few hours after negotiations for the company and USW Locals 1165 and 2295 announced agreement on a pact to replace one expiring June 30. Rank-and-file ratification was not necessary, a spokesman said.

FRACTURED SQUAWK

Sam's Eyesight Failing?

Snead's 50th Birthday May Herald Spectacles

NEW YORK (AP)—Sam Snead, who celebrates his 50th birthday next month—May 27—and guesses that he may get himself for a birthday present a pair of spectacles.

"Fred Corcoran says my putting troubles may be due to failing eyesight," the stammering man said. "Physically, I feel wonderful. The stammer said, 'I figure I can keep playing in tournaments until I'm 60.'"

"I'm not proud, I would wear binoculars if I thought they would help my putting," Snead said.

It is Snead's opinion, like that of Ben Hogan, that nerves—and not legs or eyes—are the first thing to go in big time competitive golf.

"I agree with Ben. It's the plain old-fashion type," Snead, winner of more than 100 tournaments in his career, said. "You start freezing on those three to six-footers. You can't hit it."

"I could have won the Masters this year if I'd been able to putt," he said. "I missed an easy three-foot putt on the 17th and three-putted from 35 feet on the 18th."

One year when I won the Masters (he won three) I had 25 birdies. You have to put to do that. This year I couldn't sink anything."

Corcoran, Snead's financial adviser and former PGA tournament director, said he had suggested specs to Sammy when he noticed several of the older golfers were squinting in trying to read their scorecards.

"How can a man read a green if he can't read the numbers on the green?"

It's July, Not May, for Release of Ball Players

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army said today a professional baseball player called to duty with the National Guard or Reserve last fall would be eligible for discharge in July, rather than in May.

A Pentagon spokesman told reporters yesterday ball players and other seasonal workers might be able to get out as early as May 1. But he said today this was an error.

Asked if special provision might be made to permit ballplayers to resign their teams, the spokesman said, "I would be unfair" to make an exception to a discharge policy which he said applies across the board.

Lary to Pitch at Celebration in Fenway Park

Boston Schedules Party for 50-Year-Old Field; Teams Idle Friday

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Red Sox were making plans today to celebrate the golden anniversary of their venerable stadium, Fenway Park—and the visiting Detroit Tigers were making plans to spoil it.

The two teams were to resume action today after taking off Friday off. Detroit manager Bob Clemons, former president of the Red Sox, was to present gifts to nine survivors of the 1912 team which opened Fenway Park and went on to the American League championship.

The nine players to be honored are outfielders Harry Hooper and Duffy Lewis, pitchers Smokey Joe Wood, Ray Collins and Hugh Bennett, catcher Bill Carrigan, reserve outfielder Orlan Hendrickson, second baseman Steve Yeggs and third baseman Larry Gardner.

On Fenway Park's first opening day—April 23, 1912—the first ball was thrown out by Mayor John F. Fitzgerald, grandfather of President Kennedy.

Today's first ball was to be tossed out by nine-year-old Thomas J. O'Brien, whose grandfather, Buck O'Brien, was Boston's starting pitcher in the 1912 opener.

Michigan Drops Big 10 Opener

By The Associated Press

Michigan's defending Big Ten baseball champions dropped their conference opener Friday, 1-0, when Illinois scored an unearned run in the first inning and pitcher Tom Fletcher made it stand up with a six-hit shutout.

Carl Peterson opened the game with a single, stole second, advanced to third on a passed ball and came home with third baseman Jim Newman three wild to first on a ground ball with two out.

The defeat was hard to take for southpaw Fritz Flaherty who limped the Illinois to four hits and struck out 10. Fletcher yielded six hits, walked three and struck out four.

In other conference games, Ohio State edged Wisconsin, 1-0, in 10 innings; Indiana crushed Northwestern, 20-3, and Michigan State smashed Purdue, 11-0. Minnesota defeated State College of Iowa, 4-0, and Bradley edged Iowa State, 7-5, in non-conference games.

Four Big Ten doubleheaders are scheduled today with Illinois at Michigan State, Northwestern at Ohio State, Purdue at Michigan and Wisconsin at Indiana. Minnesota takes on State College of Iowa and Iowa is at Bradley in non-league twin bills.

Michigan State scored six runs in the third inning and coasted past Purdue.

Joe Brown Favored to Remain Champion

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—World lightweight champion Joe Brown of Houston, Tex., rides his crown for an unprecedented twelfth time tonight and the experts think he will keep it in a 15-round match with break young Carlos Ortiz of New York.

The venerable 35-year-old titleholder, who began boxing professionally in 1946 and finally won the championship almost 11 years later, figures to be an 8-5 betting favorite.

A near capacity crowd of 7,000 is expected to sit in on the dual, plus a national television audience (ABC) starting at 10 p.m. EST.

Tigers Hope to Spoil Anniversary

Lary to Pitch at Celebration in Fenway Park

By The Associated Press

There's no stopping rookie Rich Rollins, Minnesota's man-of-the-month, from making plans to spoil the golden anniversary of their venerable stadium, Fenway Park—and the visiting Detroit Tigers were making plans to spoil it.

The unheralded 24-year-old third baseman continued his torrid hitting Friday night, striking a two-run single in the second inning, then starting the winning rally with a leadoff single in the 10th that led to the Twins' 9-7 victory over the Los Angeles Angels.

Rollins came up to the Twins after only two previous seasons in organized baseball, hitting .341 at Wilson, N.C., in 1960 and batting at a .270 clip for Charlotte during the 1961 campaign. But he began to impress as soon as he reached spring training.

He pushed three candidates—including Harmon Killebrew—winning the third base job, winning the post with his smooth swinging. And now he's the No. 1 hero for the Twins with another excellent performance that helped snap Minnesota's five-game losing streak.

Rollins tied for the league batting lead with Chicago's Floyd Robinson, who hit first place in honors with the White Sox's Jim Landis at four and is No. 2 in runs batted in with 12 while hitting safely in all nine games.

The loss kept the Angels from taking over first place in the AL from the White Sox, who lost 7-4 to Kansas City. In the only other game scheduled in either league, Baltimore edged Washington 5-4.

ANGELS PULL EVEN

The Twins got off to a 6-0 lead, scoring five in the second on Rollins' two RBI and a three-run homer by Killebrew. But they couldn't hold it as the Angels finally tied it in the seventh on a single by Steve Bilko, Lee Thomas' double and a single by Bob Rodgers.

Rollins got the Twins going again in the 10th, opening with a single and taking another on an error. Bob Allison's double brought him around and Earl Battey drove in Allison with a single. Trade acquisition Dick Siskman (1-0) picked up the victory while Art Fowler (0-1) lost it.

FITCHER HOMERS

A home run by winning pitcher Jerry Walker (2-0) got the A's off and running in the third inning before Norm Sieben's three-run homer in the fifth chased White Sox starter Juan Pizarro (2-1).

Walker left in the eighth with Norm McDevitt and Diego Segui finishing up. Segui had a run home with the bases jammed in the ninth, then got pinch hitter Sherm Lollar to ground out and end it.

The Orioles scored the clinching run in the eighth inning on singles by John Powell and Jim Gentile, an error and sacrifice flies by Jackie Brandt and Earl Robinson. But Hoyt Wilhelm had to come on in the ninth to preserve the victory for reliever Dick Hall (1-1), getting out of a one-out, bases-loaded situation on Chuck Hillman's strike back to the mound and a tap out of Danny O'Connell. Marty Kutyna (0-1) was the loser.

Bower May Return to Nets for Leafs

CHICAGO (AP)—The Toronto Maple Leafs, with a strong possibility that goalie John Bower will be back in the nets, hope to clinch the Stanley Cup championship in Chicago Stadium against the Black Hawks Sunday night.

In defeating New York, 4-2, in semifinal competition and grabbing a 3-2 edge over Chicago in the best-of-five final series, the Leafs have yet to win away from home.

Despite the fact the Leafs have been shouting they don't care if they are called a bunch of "homer," they would like nothing better than to clinch the championship in the stadium before the bosteros Chicago crowd.

Bower, who missed Toronto's 4-1 triumph Thursday night, might be in the nets Sunday depending upon his condition. He suffered a groin injury in game No. 4 when he made a great stop of one of Bobby Hull's slap shots and then fell during the splits.

Initial announcements were that the 37-year-old veteran would see no more action this season but one Maple Leaf official indicated that Bower would be in the nets Sunday night if he were anywhere near being fit.

ANYTHING BUT GREAT

Bower's substitute, Don Simons, was anything but a great goalie in Thursday's game. He made one fine save but let four Chicago shots get by him despite the fact the Hawks were playing poor hockey.

Should Toronto fail to wrap it up, the seventh game will be played in Toronto Tuesday.

Millford Runners Set Two Records in Howell Meet

HOWELL—Millford runners set two records here yesterday as the Redskins finished second in the Howell Invitational track meet.

Ted Nelson sped to a 15-year victory over Howell's Rick Zemper in a record 4:39.7 in his second victory over Zemper, one of the better miles in the state, this week.

Millard's mile relay team composed of Nelson, Bob Faught, Steve Skille and Dave Muehler was clocked in 3:27, a meet record.

Fenton was the team crown with 49% points, Millford posted 47, Howell 43%, Grand Blanc 39%, Durand 12% and West Bloomfield 3%.

Dan Mullins of Millford cleared 10 feet 6 inches to 10 feet 10 inches for first in the pole vault.

Gas Mileage Reflects Owner, Not His Car

By BEN FLEISAR

Automotive Writer
DETROIT — The next time your neighbor brags about his new car, congratulate him, don't try to top him or the odds are you'll be stretching the truth.

Gas mileage is a standard topic in the conversation of most car owners, a little like barbers and the weather. The mileage may be good, or it may be bad, but you rarely hear of anything average.

The truth is that most of the high claims are at least exaggerations and most of the complaints are the owner's fault. A good driver can get good mileage from any properly tuned car and a bad driver is lucky to get 10 miles to the gallon on a motor scooter.

For example, the driving record of Lou Viland, a neighbor for American Motors Corp., who is a veteran of the various gasoline economy runs.

This year, the 50-year-old Viland has won three economy contests. He took top honors with a Rambler American and with a Rambler Ambassador in the Pontiac Oil Trials at Daytona Beach, Fla., in January and he won his class in the Mobil Economy Run from Pasadena, Calif., to Detroit early this month in a Rambler American.

Previously he had won his Mobil class five times in a variety of cars, from big to little. At Daytona he got 23.73 miles per gallon. On the 2,497-mile run from California he averaged 31.11.

These two contests are considerably different. The Daytona trials use the NASCAR closed sports car course, 3.7 miles of twisting curves and straightaways. Cars have to average 40 miles per hour, travel 65 miles per hour over one stretch and make two full stops each lap. An entry is given one gallon of gas and the trial is over when the gallon is gone.

ALL KINDS OF ROAD

The distance run required an average speed of 42.39 miles per hour for the 2,497 miles. The course, kept secret in advance, included 272.5 miles of city driving, 1,394.2 miles of highway and 320.8 miles of freeway or turnpike driving. There were 256 traffic signals and 183 towns and cities along the route.

Mickey Thompson, better known for his speed feats such as his 600-mile-per-hour run on the Bonneville, Utah, Salt Flats, was a class winner in the Pasadena-Detroit run, as was his wife Willy. He says the key to success in concentration, the

Swanson Signs Bill on Obscene Books

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Swanson has signed into law a bill to tighten up Michigan's obscene literature law.

It adds "sadtistic or masochistic" to the law banning the sale of "obscene, lewd, lascivious, filthy or indecent" literature.

Two other minor bill signings announced yesterday will: —Allow custodians of a minor's property to transfer the property to the minor's guardian, except in cases where the court has been petitioned to remove the guardian.

—Allow the State Highway Commissioner to abandon rights of way when counties or other governments do not accept jurisdiction of trunkline highways relinquished by the state.

ability to follow directions with absolute precision.

On this run such directions come from a navigator who forms a team with the driver. It is his job to make sure the car maintains its average speed and hits stop lights right on the button.

Detect Diphtheria, Start Innoculations

HILLSBORO, Mo. (AP)—An emergency inoculation program is under way in Jefferson County because two cases of virulent diphtheria — first in the county in nine years — have been confirmed in the same family.

More than 500 children from five schools were given immunization shots yesterday as the state highway patrol rushed in 45 vials of serum.

The stricken children have brothers and sisters attending two schools in the district, which has 2,100 pupils.

County Health Director Carl Rice said inoculations would continue all day today and Monday — possibly longer.

He said officials were "concerned chiefly with children between the ages of 3 months and 12 years" and no inoculations of teenagers or adults was anticipated.

By SYDNEY ORBARE

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): If you expect others to completely agree with you, this would be day of surprise. If you listen this will be day of understanding and control.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20): Force may be fine during this week when you are attempting to push business deals. But patience is for patience. Delay or opportunity to sit back and talk with "them."

May 21 to June 21: You may do a lot of talking today today. Don't impress listeners. So on any day.

Cancer (June 22 to July 21): If you are on right track today. Follow it. Don't let others lead you into a trap. Listen to those with "you."

Leo (July 22 to Aug. 21): There is much to be learned today. If you do not learn from others, you will learn from your own mistakes. Listen to those with "you."

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 21): Wonder if you are doing things right. If you are, try to put thoughts on paper. Could be day of accomplishment, especially if you have words of spiritual advice.

Scorpio (Oct. 22 to Nov. 21): Friends or meeting with social group today could actually save the day. Listen to those with "you."

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Open back. Along with spiritual and physical needs. You are natural visionary. Try to see the future. Listen to those with "you."

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 21): If you seek greater understanding in your life, listen to those with "you."

Aquarius (Jan. 22 to Feb. 21): One of very best ways to spend this day. Wait till tomorrow for serious business.

Pisces (Feb. 22 to Mar. 21): There are details which should be worked out today. Don't let others lead you into a trap. Listen to those with "you."

Waterford to Consider Asking Federal Funds

A decision on whether to apply for federal funds for a general development planning program for Watertown Township is expected when the Township Board meets Monday night.

The urban planning assistance grant under Plan 701 was outlined to board members by township planning director Robert Dieball in February. Under the plan, in which the state acts as agent for the Federal government, the cost to the township would be less than 10 per cent of a total project cost.

The board took no action on the plan itself in February, but did authorize the planning department to hire a junior planner and a part time secretary. The board also gave the township engineer the go-ahead for the right to interviewing of prospective planning consultants.

Spade's American designer pattern

N-1130

Anne Klein Junior Sophisticates

For JUNIOR FIGURES

Anne Klein presents a striking tricolor agreement in an uncomplicated tent silhouette that requires only two basic pattern pieces and no fitting.

Starting in the morning as three lengths of fabric on your sewing table, this easy-to-keep a dress that can be altered wherever it goes.

Flattering softness flows above and below the elasticized waistline which is cinched by a contrasting silver of belt. Matching contrast bias strips border the neck and armholes and skirt between the alternating colors of the dress panels.

Originally shown in linen and palest beige, polished with flag blue trim—this sun-loving fashion whirls into summer looking fresh as all outdoors whether it's made in one or two or three colors.

Suggested fabrics are light silks or rayons, shantung, soft novelty cottons, jerseys, fine dacron and cotton blends or linen.

For a late date design in fall, choose silk or wool crepe in one color and use contrasting or matching wool braid or satin for the narrow trim.

From these corresponding body measurements select the size best for you. Our sizing is comparable to that used for better ready-to-wear.

Size 13 requires 2 yards of 36-inch fabric in one color and the same in a second color and 1/2 yard of 36-inch fabric in a third color for trim. To order Pattern No. N-1130, state size, send $1.00. Add 25 cents for first class mail and special handling. Pattern Books 17 and 19 are available for $1.00 each, and 20 and 21 for $1.50 each.

GLAD STORY OF EASTER

This is the miracle of their song,
That they should sing at all
In this world, in this time,
Singing together as a family.

For

Their song is of the dignity of life
And of an undefeated hope;
They know man's shame and hurts
Yet sing God's victory!

Then

Pray this Easter miracle be known
That from our walls and tombs
We hymn this lively victory of God
And all people, as a family, yet sing
This Easter song.

New Bloodshed Feared Soon in Shaky Argentina

Opposing Army Groups Wheel Out Artillery, Tanks, Dig Trenches

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — President Jose Mario Guido won a truce today from embattled army chiefs who called out tanks and artillery in a threatened blood-spilling in the nation's crisis over Peronism.

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Opposing army factions wheeled out artillery and tanks and dug trenches on the outskirts of Buenos Aires today as Argentina's government crisis threatened to reach a bloody showdown.

Gen. Enrique Rauch, leader of a lightning rebellion against army leadership, ordered his tanks and troops to march on Buenos Aires to back with armed might the nation's embattled president, Jose Maria Guido.

Guido was installed in office only recently after the armed forces ousted President Arturo Frondizi.

Gen. Raul Poggi, the army commander, ordered troops loyal to his command into battle positions to resist Rauch's advance. Poggi's men in battle dress wheeled out artillery and dug trenches.

Poggi is the leader of the military faction that has been demanding that President Guido, by executive decree, assume virtually dictatorial powers in suppressing Peronists.

Poggi's forces included the 1st and 2nd Infantry divisions in Palermo suburb — directly across the path of Rauch's armored column. Gen. Poggi's faction was in control of most of Buenos Aires.

Add an Umbrella to Easter Outfit — Rain Expected

Better include an umbrella in your Easter outfit. A few scattered showers with a high near 60 are predicted.

Tonight will be partly cloudy with a low of 42. Monday's outlook is fair and cooler.

Winds tonight and tomorrow will be southeasterly at 15 to 20 miles per hour. Forty-two was the lowest temperature reading in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The mercury climbed to a pleasant sixty-one at 1 p.m.

Captured Rebel Leader Questioned

May 15 Trial Likely for Salan

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

PARIS — French court officials interrogated ex-Gen. Raoul Salan, captured commander of the terrorist Secret Army Organization (OAS), today and informed sources said his treason trial probably will start May 15.

Salan was brought to the grim-looking Sainte Prison from Algeria yesterday to await the trial that could lead to his death on the guillotine.

His arrival in handcuffs at the prison triggered a riot in which OAS prisoners broke out of their cells and clashed with security guards.

Officials said 21 prisoners and five policemen were injured. His supporters in the Algerian terrorist campaign reeled under the impact of his arrest. The secret army vowed to continue its desperate battle against Algerian independence, but many observers felt Salan's capture represented a crippling and possible death blow to the underground organization.

ALGIERS (UPI) — Gumsen of the underground "secret army" (OAS), infuriated by the arrest of their leader, ex-Gen. Raoul Salan, killed two French policemen and wounded three on the streets of Algiers today.

Salan, one of France's most decorated soldiers, was the great rallying symbol to several thousand European right-wingers and French army deserters.

The extremists have been terrorizing Algerian Moslems in hopes of forcing Moslem retaliation that would prompt the government to call off plans for self-determination in Algeria.

Word of Salan's capture in the heart of Algiers Friday plunged Algeria's European population into gloom. "We are lost," said a European resident of Algiers. The news was hailed by the Algerian nationalist government in exile, stationed in Tunis.

Commie Guard Starts Firing Across Barrier

Red Patrol Wounds West German Officer Candidate at Fulda

FROM OUR NEWS WIRE
BERLIN — West Berlin and East German police exchanged gunfire and tear gas grenades near the Communist-built wall marking the third incident of violence reported today in the divided country.

The brief explosion was touched off by Western holiday visitors taking a look at the Communist barrier. No one was hurt.

In other exchanges Communist police today opened fire with machine pistols at a West Berlin police car patrolling a border street, and near the town of Fulda, East German police opened fire on four officer candidates of the West German army, wounding one seriously.

BERLIN (U) — East Germany's Communist authorities urged Mayor Willy Brandt today to call off a May Day demonstration "near the Berlin wall." They said the Reds were doing everything "as far as possible" to have no demonstrations of their own at the border.

The injured man was hospitalized with lung and leg wounds in this West German city near the East German frontier, police reported.

CROSSED BORDER
They said the four men were hiking through a forest when they strayed across the border, attracting police fire.

Following the exchange at the wall West Berlin police temporarily cleared people from the area, including hundreds of foreign tourists in sightseeing buses. Three French armored cars hurried to the scene with a patrol of jeeps.

The East Germans brought up an armored car and police reinforcements on their side.

The trouble began when some of the visitors went right up to the wall on the Bernauerstrasse in the French sector of the divided city. West Berlin police patrolling the area began to move them away. Then an East German border guard threw a tear gas grenade from a second story window overlooking the wall.

A West Berlin police report said that at another border point Communist authorities found one of their transport police apparently lifeless near a stretch of railroad track.

Pact Reasserts Sino-Soviet Ties

TOKYO (UPI) — Russia and Red China have signed a new trade agreement for 1962 and issued strong declarations of "undying friendship," the Communist radio reported today.

The Red broadcasts left some big questions unanswered — at least for the rest of the world — regarding Sino-Soviet economic relations. The biggest of these was what Peiping is doing about repayment of Soviet loans and trade debts.

The only clue to this question the Communist broadcasts afforded was a remark by Chinese Vice Premier Li Hsien-Nien at a Friday night banquet in Peiping.

"The Chinese people greatly appreciate the cooperation and assistance of the Soviet government and people and thank them for this," Li said. "At the same time, the Chinese people are doing their best to supply the Soviet people with the materials they need."

This could be interpreted to mean that Red China is having difficulty in paying its Soviet debts. It is known that the Chinese Reds owe a huge trade debt to Russia, and that payments on Soviet loans extended in the early and middle 1950's are coming due.

The chief Soviet economic negotiator, Foreign Trade Minister N. S. Patolichev, was quoted by Peiping radio as saying that "the talks . . . would consolidate the close economic and trade relations between the Soviet Union and China and their everlasting, unbreakable friendship."

Soviet ambassador to Peiping S. V. Chervonenko was quoted as saying that "the talks . . . would contribute to consolidating friendship between the Soviet Union and China."

Sterling Twp. Girl, 15, Killed

Car Strikes Teen-Ager Apparently Walking on Mound Road Pavement

A Sterling Township girl who apparently had been walking on the roadway was struck by a car and killed on Mound Road near Simms Street last night.

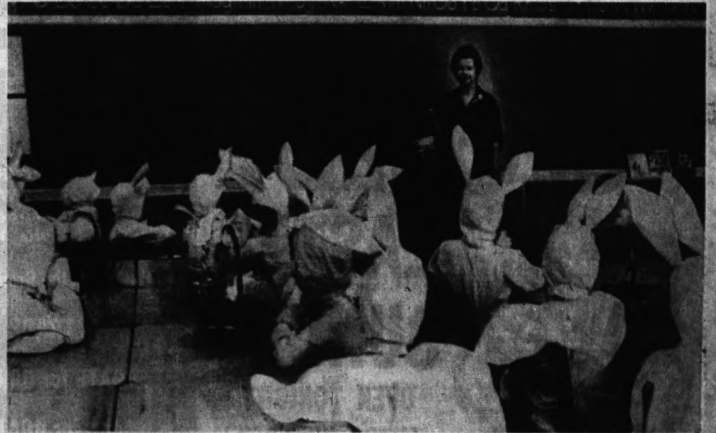

Dead is Frances Hannaford, 15, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Hannaford of 5385 Branch Road.

The driver, William Pence, 35, of 621 Florence St., Royal Oak, was questioned and released last night by Macomb County Asst. Prosecutor Robert Coburn. Centerline State Police said an investigation was still in progress.

Troopers quoted Pence as saying he was traveling south on Mound Road and was passing another vehicle when he noticed the girl walking north in the northbound lane.

Pence said he was unable to stop in time and struck the girl, hurling her off the roadway, according to police.

Most Are Disappointed

Friends Visit E. Germans

EAST BERLIN (UPI) — Good Friday was a day of reunion for some East Berliners, but a day of longing and disappointment for others.

Many families received visits from West German and foreign friends and relatives they had not seen since East German Communist leader Walter Ulbricht walled East Berliners off from the West on Aug. 13, 1961.

But East Berliners whose mothers, sons and life-long friends happen to be West Berliners had to settle for waving handkerchiefs across the Communist wall.

Rumors the East Germans would drop the bars for West Berlin visitors on Good Friday proved groundless.

ALLOWED TALKS

Some East Berliners were lucky in their chosen rendezvous points. Occasionally a kind-hearted Communist policeman would look the other way to let East Berliners approach the barbed-wire topped barrier for a hurried chat in the afternoon sunshine.

At the Friedrichstrasse crossing point, long lines of Western visitors — many of them former Germans — shuffled through bureaucratic Communist police controls.

The pretty, German-born wife of a British soldier carried a bundle of groceries, gifts for her mother and sister who found themselves walled off last Aug. 13.

"It's only coffee and bananas and a ham, things they can't buy usually," she said. "The Vopos (Communist Peoples Police) look it over and write down who's getting it but my mother says they won't make trouble."

An old woman behind the counter said: "It doesn't matter there are no papers printed here today anyway. Besides, why do you want one of our papers? You can buy a paper in West Berlin."

450 Models on Display

World Auto Show Opens

By BEN FIELEGAR
AP Automotive Writer

NEW YORK — The sixth annual International Auto Show, a glittering array of cars and girls, opens an eight-day run at the New York coliseum today.

Some 450 models of cars from nine countries, and almost as many lightly clad females to attract interest, were included in the displays.

Importers talked enthusiastically of booming sales by domestic cars this year and suggested their foreign products were in good position to share in the improving market.

Sales predictions for the imports ranged upward of 400,000 for the year, compared with 375,000 in 1961.

AIR OF OPTIMISM

The prevailing air was one of optimism, that an upturn was due after two straight years of sharply declining volume. The peak for imports was in 1959 when they represented slightly more than 10 per cent of all cars sold in the United States.

Carl Hahn, general manager of Volkswagen of America, the runaway leader among the imports, said his dealers sold an all-time record 16,500 cars in March.

Hahn estimated Volkswagen sales in the United States should reach 230,000 units this year, including 30,000 trucks.

"We will be limited only by shipments from the factory in Germany," Hahn said.

A. E. Birt, general manager of the British Automobile Manufacturers Association, said the British auto sales should show an increase of not less than 30 to 40 per cent in the United States this year.

He said British imports in the first three months totaled 20,000 cars, compared with only 3,000 in the first quarter of 1961.

Peter Nunez, general manager for Simca in the United States, told reporters he had revised his overall estimate of the import market upward in recent months. Nunez now estimates imports sales between 350,000 and 400,000 cars. Last fall he was talking 300,000 tops.

Fifty-two of the models at the show are being displayed in New York for the first time. Many of these, however, are prototypes or experimental versions which are not yet ready for sale.

Delaware Eases Tax on Du Pont Owners

DOVER, Del. (AP) — Gov. Elbert N. Carvel has signed a bill designed to ease the state tax burden on Du Pont stockholders who will receive General Motors stock now held by the giant chemical firm.

Without the legislation, the GM stock distribution would have been regarded, for state tax purposes, as dividends.

The bill passed by the Delaware legislature provides less tax revenue for the state than one the governor had advocated. The new law classifies the distribution as a return of capital, half of which is taxable as income.

The Du Pont firm has estimated the law will net the state about $21 million over a number of years.

Cracks Down on Union

TOKYO (AP) — Japan's semi-governmental National Railway Corporation cracked down today on 1,819 unionists who led a crippling rail strike March 31, dismissing 36 union leaders, suspending 275 union members and cutting wages of 344 others.

Romney Sets Talks to Local Party Heads

LANSING (AP) — George Romney and Republican state officials will start a series of private meetings next week with local party leaders throughout the state.

The group will discuss party organization and strategy for the 1962 campaign, said George M. Van Beursem, state GOP chairman.

Romney, the likely Republican nominee for governor, will address each meeting, Van Beursem said.

The first of eight parleys will be held in Jackson Tuesday with party leaders in the 2nd and 6th Congressional Districts. A meeting with 8th Congressional District leaders is scheduled Thursday in Saginaw and six more, as yet unscheduled, are planned in May.

Claim Daniel Boone Was Lean, Wiry Man

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Do you picture Daniel Boone as a big, burly, rough-looking man?

Not so says George Chinn, director of the Kentucky Historical Society. Chinn says Boone was a lean, wiry man who stood about 5-foot-10 and would have looked good in an Ivy League suit.

LILY FOR CHURCH—Penny (left), Candace and Judy Hart look over the Easter lilies as they choose a plant to take to church for Easter Sunday. The lilies are in competition with an array of azaleas, daffodils, cyclamens, tulips and many other potted plants. The children dressed in pink are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James Hart of 2989 Pontiac Lake Road.

Listen for Message of the Bells

"It was Easter. And when I heard the church bells ring, I thought I heard the Voice of God." So said one of the world's greatest men, Albert Schweitzer. Anyone listening to church bells ring on early Easter morning know there is something special about them.

What is Easter? Is it the giving of lilies, and other plants to those we love, the sick or to our church in memory of a loved one?

Is it a little boy or girl all dressed up in a new suit or dress and perky straw bonnet? Is it filling Easter baskets with colored eggs?

Easter is all these things and more. It is the family going to church. It is the notes of the organ pealing forth the majestic "Hallelujahs." It is the choir raising its voice in anthems and cantatas.

It is children, men and women standing or kneeling at altars banked with flowers, promising God they will try to live according to His will.

And it is believing that because Jesus died and rose from the dead we shall also rise again to live with God forever.

The festival of Easter is synchronized with many immortal traditions. It is harmonized with the Jewish Passover and one of the most frequently used words in song is the Hebrew "Hallelujah."

Easter has Christianized pagan customs such as hunting colored eggs which the early Saxons believed were brought by the "Ostere" rabbit.

Even the robin is a part of the Easter story.

Legend tells us that a bird plucked a thorn from the crown when Jesus treaded His way to Calvary. Blood from the wound stained the bird's breast.

Trees, too, share in the story. The aspen, according to folklore, quakes because the Cross was made out of its wood. The palm tree bends low, recalling its branches welcome the Savior on Jerusalem before His crucifixion.

Soon it will be Easter Sunday, and across the country bells will ring from towering steeples in churches old and new. Men, women and children will go to church to celebrate the hope of immortality.

Listen for the message of the bells.

Easter Play, Conference, Program at First Baptist

Young people of First Baptist Church will present the play entitled "He Is Risen Indeed" at the 8:30 Easter Sunrise service.

The cast of characters includes Dick Shaffer, Philae; Judy Brien, Claudia; Ron Toroni, Apples; Don Nichols, Caliph; Steve McGee, Lucullus; and Gene McLean, Joseph of Arimathea.

Other players are Martin Townsend, Marcus; Norm Molligan, Verno; Jim Brien, Peter; Mike Martin, John; Juanita Lay, Mary; and Lenore Schoonover, Mary Magdalene.

Several musical messages are also a part of the play.

The final day of the Sunday School contest will be tomorrow.

The choir will sing "Man of Sorrows" arranged by Peterson at the 10:45 a. m. worship service. Rev. Robert Shelton, interim pastor, will preach on "The Resurrection." Combined choirs will sing "The Easter Hallelujah" by Lorenz, "He Is Risen on This Day" by Marsh and "Glorious Easter Morning" by Youse.

The service will be transcribed for broadcast at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Ray Bauer will be soloist at the 7 p. m. service and Mr. and Mrs. George Underwood will sing a duet, "Easter Morn." The choir will offer "No Name Has Meant So Much" and "Behold the Lamb of God."

The Men's Quartet will present "Shall I Crucify My Saviors" and "Wonderful." A trio will sing "He Rose Triumphant."

A welcome will be given new members at the close of the service.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE
The 27th annual Missionary Conference will begin at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday with Dr. H. H. Savage, former pastor, giving the devotional message each evening. A missionary conference will follow.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Skinner will be in charge of music.

Missionary speakers will include Dr. and Mrs. Reuben Larson from Ecuador; Dr. Dick Hillis of Overseas Crusades; and Rev. and Mrs. Legg who represent Africa. Here from Bolivia will be Miss Leone Fletcher, and the interim pastor, Rev. and Mrs. Shelton from Viet Nam.

Three Services at Oakland Park

There will be three services in the Oakland Park Methodist Church on Easter.

The early service at 7 a. m. will be followed by breakfast. This is the traditional sunrise service. Young people of Youth Fellowship will be in charge with Ethel Eugene, chairman.

Lee Truba, a ministerial student at Adrian College, will be the guest speaker.

Amnette Foster and Susan Brown are assisting with arranging.

Rev. James W. Deeg, pastor, will conduct the regular worship at 10 a. m. The three choirs will sing "He Lives Again in Me," by Schilling, "O Joyous Easter Morning" and "Jesus Christ is Risen Today," a 14th century Latin hymn.

Pastor Deeg will preach on "The Resurrection and the Life." A duplicate service will be conducted at 11:15 a. m. This service will include baptism of children with boys and girls of the Sunday School attending the opening part of the service.
