

MEADOW BROOK MUSIC FESTIVAL

Meadow Brook 85

Where Summer Sounds Best

A CULTURAL PROGRAM OF OAKLAND UNIVERSITY

There's Music In the Air!

For the past 22 years, the Meadow Brook Music Festival has helped make summer a special time for concert lovers in the greater Detroit Metropolitan area. 1985 promises to be one of the most exciting summers ever! No matter what your musical taste—classical, popular, jazz, pops, folk, comedy or contemporary—Meadow Brook has something to make this summer memorable.

Nestled within the wooded hills of Oakland University's spacious campus, the Meadow Brook Music Festival offers music performed by some of the world's finest artists in a setting which is truly breathtaking. The combination of the world's greatest music and the Festival's beautiful setting create a concert experience that you won't forget. Concerts are held in the Baldwin Pavilion, a natural amphitheater widely acclaimed for the excellence of its acoustics.

The Festival grounds are open two hours prior to all evening concerts for picnicking or dining at Trumbull Terrace.

Subscribe Now for Best Seats and Savings!

In addition to significant cash savings and bonuses, subscriptions assure you the best possible seats for the concerts of your choice and make waiting in line and sell-outs a thing of the past.

Thursdays and Sundays are devoted to the classics at the 1985 Meadow Brook Festival and feature the world renowned Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Fridays and Saturdays feature some of the biggest names from all areas of popular entertainment.

This year there is a new series called the International Classical Series, which features great classical performers such as the London Symphony Orchestra, the San Francisco Ballet, James Galway, and Jean-Pierre Rampal.

Make the most of your summer! Subscribe now for the series of your choice at Meadow Brook, where summer sounds best!

Group Discounts

Discounts up to 30% are available for groups of 20 or more people at most Festival performances. The Meadow Brook Music Festival is the perfect site for any group activity.
