

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY OAKLAND
ROCHESTER, MICHIGAN

FE 8-4515
Ext. 2206-07

September 20, 1961
Rel.#920611 1p

ROCHESTER--Fabulous Meadow Brook Hall will again be opened to the public this spring for a gala ball to raise scholarship funds for Michigan State University Oakland.

The mansion on the Meadow Brook Farms estate of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson will be the scene Saturday, May 12 of a $100 per couple dinner and dance.

Co-sponsors are the Wilsons and the Executive Trustees of the MSUO Foundation. They are combining forces to help the fund-raising drive of the MSUO Scholarship Committee. Co-chairmen of the event are Mrs. William T. Gossett, 420 Goodhue, Bloomfield

Mrs. Gossett declared that the work of the Scholarship Committee is a community project of the first importance. Since the three-year old MSUO has no alumni yet, she said, it becomes a community responsibility to help raise the money needed to aid deserving youths in the area attend college.

Members of the Committee include: Mrs. John Blamy, Mrs. E.M. Estes, Mrs. J. S. Mahony, Mrs. S. D. Steiner, of Birmingham; Mrs. L. L. Colbert, Mrs. Thomas Eccles, Mrs. Maxwell Matthews, Mrs. George Huebner, Mrs. John Shenefield, of Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. Palmer Bundy, of Davisburg; Mrs. Paul Christensen, Mrs. Russell Nowels, Mrs. Walter Reuther, Mrs. Gene E. F. Shaw, of Rochester; Mrs. Ferdinand Gaensbauer, Mrs. Ralph Norvell, Mrs. Addison Oakley,