Organized Gangs Prey on Park Visitors, Stealing Cars, Valuables, Police Warn

Visitors to parks in Oakland County were warned today to be on guard against a gang of young hoodlums that snatches valuables from cars while people are in swimming.

More than $1,500 in watches and other articles has been stolen in one park so far this year, and others report similar thefts.

The theft rings were revealed by another ring specializing in car thefts also is believed to be operating in crowded recreation area parking lots.

The theft rings were revealed today by Michigan State Police of the Pontiac Post and park officials. Both warned park visitors to take extra precautions, until the gangs are broken up.

They said the hoodlums have eluded arrest so far due to their method of posing lookouts who flash a warning to other gang members when plainclothesmen are sighted.

The gang breaking into cars appears most active between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m., the hours when the parks have the most visitors.

"We've been plagued with the breaking gangs about four years," said Paul Rearick, manager of Cass Dodge Park No. 4 at Cass Lake. "About $5,000 in valuables has been stolen, $1,500 of it this year."

He said anyone leaving valuables in his car, even if the doors are locked, is just asking for trouble.

"Besides spotting the police, the gang's outlooks also watch the motorists hide their valuables. When the people leave their cars, the hoodlums strike," Rearick continued.

The gang was termed a "well organized bunch of professional thieves."

"It seems to be operating in all the public parks in this area."

Rearick continued, "So far it has been impossible to stamp it out."

Thomas Haddon, clerk at the Pontiac Lake Recreation Area on Pontiac Lake, reported only two similar larcenies there, but said he was afraid the beach parking lot was "ripe for some more robberies."

State troopers admitted they don't have the manpower to patrol the crowded parking lots properly even though they know the situation is growing more serious daily. Cpl. Emmett Bradley of the Pontiac State Police Post said they "need full-time guards out there (Cass Dodge Park), but we just haven't the manpower to spare for the job."

He joined Rearick in a plea for visitors to be more cautious.

"Do not leave valuables in your car," signs are displayed prominently in the park, Rearick said. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

Late Demand by Red China Imperils Truce

Requests U.S. to Sign Cease-Fire Guarantees With Other Powers

GENEVA (UP) — French and British leaders met Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov today in a desperate effort to overcome a last minute hitch which the West feared might endanger an Indochina ceasefire agreement.

The trouble was reported caused by a sudden Red Chinese demand that the United States sign the ceasefire guarantees together with the other conference powers.

The United States already has stated flatly it will not sign a joint declaration with the Communists which would imply approval of conquest of Northern Viet Nam by the Indochinese Reds.

Undersecretary of State Walter Bedell Smith announced last Sunday, however, the United States would agree not to interfere with the peace by force or threat of force.

One British source described the last-minute Red demand as "rather ominous" and a French source said "apparently there is something wrong."

The full delegation of the nine conference nations—the United States, Britain, France, Russia, Red China, Viet Nam, Viet Minh, Laos and Cambodia—will meet in the former League of Nations Council chamber tonight in a final full session. It was here that the conference held its opening session 12 weeks ago on April 26.

British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden conferred with Molotov at the Russian villa. Later both Eden and French Premier Pierre Mendes-France met with the four Communist chief spokesmen.

Red China's obstinate demand came as Mendes-France raced against the clock in an effort to win peace before the deadline of 30 days which he set for himself expires at midnight.

Unless Red China delays a cease-fire, the documents are expected to be signed just inside the time limit Mendes-France announced when he took office exactly one month ago.

(Before the Red China hitch developed, Pravda, a Communist party organ which establishes the Red line, announced in a dispatch from Geneva that peace in Indochina "is at hand.")

Even though Smith refused to sign any document with the Communists that implied approval of Red conquest, his presence undoubtedly won France much better terms than she otherwise would have gained.

The United States remained aloof from the last-minute bargaining partly because it is not a belligerent in Indochina but mainly because it refused to be associated with an agreement which it thoroughly disliked.

Mendes-France held a midnight conference with Communist Viet Minh Foreign Minister Pham Van Dong before going to bed. He plans to begin work with his experts today.

Senator Sees Loss of Counsel as Red Victory

Aide Resigns Before Showdown Today With His Opponents

WASHINGTON (A P) — Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) today announced the resignation of Roy M. Cohn, chief counsel of his Senate Investigations subcommittee and No. 1 target of members demanding a staff shakeup.

McCarthy made the announcement in a statement just two hours before a scheduled meeting at which committee members seeking the scalps of Cohn and others were set to seek a showdown vote.

"The resignation of Roy Cohn must bring great satisfaction to the Communists and fellow travelers," McCarthy said.

"The sneers and pressures to which he has been subjected make it clear that an effective anti-Communist cannot long survive on the Washington scene."

McCarthy made public a letter in which Cohn said he was resigning because "there appears to be a lack of unanimity among the members of the investigations subcommittee upon the question of continuing my services as chief counsel."

Actually, the committee was reported to be lined up 4-3 in favor of firing Cohn.

Cohn's resignation letter was dated yesterday. McCarthy's prepared statement of comment on it bore today's date, and was released in his absence from his office.

While McCarthy did not state specifically that he was accepting the resignation, he spoke of the young lawyer's withdrawal as an accomplished fact.

He said: "The jury of the American people saw and heard him during the (McCarthy-Armey) hearings. They know first-hand of his ability and his effectiveness. I know that they will resent as deeply as I do the treatment to which he has been subjected."

Following is the text of the letter from Cohn to McCarthy:

"Dear Mr. Chairman: "As there appears to be a lack of unanimity among the members of the investigations subcommittee upon the question of continuing my services as chief counsel, I hereby tender my resignation."

"It has been a privilege to perform my duties under your inspiring leadership. The enthusiastic support which has come to me from the American people for the small part that I have played in this task of exposing Communist infiltration in key places has been an inspiring force and a great comfort. I extend to the great American jury my heartfelt thanks for its loyal support."

"Needless to add it is with much reluctance that I leave the challenging work of the committee, but I am certain that the fight against atheistic Communist influence will continue until every vestige of it is driven from our shores."

"Respectfully yours, "Roy M. Cohn"

Ford Shifts Jobs to Birmingham

Tractor and Implement Engineering Center to Be Established

Establishment of a major engineering center for tractors and farm equipment in Birmingham has been announced by the Tractor and Implement Division of Ford Motor Company. Irving A. Duffy, vice president and general manager, said the center will require a staff of over 500.

The center will have under one roof the facilities and manpower needed for research, design, engineering and laboratory testing of all types of farm machinery.

Duffy said that the division's tractor engineering department, now located at the Rouge with central engineering staff, will be transferred to Birmingham. Approximately 100 tractor engineering people are in this department.

The harvesting engineering activity of Wood Bros. Inc., Des Moines, Iowa, will also be transferred to Birmingham. Wood Bros. is a Ford-owned manufacturing subsidiary.

Realignment and expansion of facilities to accommodate the engineering center, as well as for other expanded staff activities, are now under way, and completion is expected by the end of the year.

The building area now occupied by the division's parts warehousing activity will be converted into an engineering shop and laboratory, Duffy said. The parts activity will be transferred to the newly acquired Tractor and Implement Division Parts Depot at Lincoln Park.

Expansion of several employee service facilities, including the cafeteria and parking lots are included in the program.

Scattered Showers, Cooler Is Forecast

Cooler air from Canada again will keep Michigan out of the grip of a blistering heat wave that has caused at least 246 deaths since it spread across the nation last week.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said temperatures would shoot into the 100's again today in Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska and southeast South Dakota.

On the fringe of the withering blast, Michigan is expected to cool down slightly tonight and Wednesday. Thunderstorms will usher in somewhat cooler weather in the Pontiac area today.

Forecasters predict a low of 64 to 68 tonight and a high from 84 to 88 tomorrow in this area. Above normal temperatures are due over the next five days, with scattered thunderstorms.

Yesterday's temperature in downtown Pontiac ranged from 61 to 86 degrees. The mercury rose from 68 at 8 a. m. today to 82

Lawyers Oppose Building Bonds

Bar Vote Is 25 to 20 Against Courthouse Because of Location

Oakland County Bar Association Monday afternoon voted to oppose the $450,000 bond issue at the Aug. 3 election for a new courthouse-office building because of the proposed location on Telegraph road.

Forty-five members attended a special meeting, and the vote to oppose the bond issue was 25 to 20.

The meeting had been called to vote on a proposal to back the bond issue, but the attorneys approved an amendment to oppose it offered by Clarence Smith.

Several county officials and Dr. Louis Friedland of Wayne University, who surveyed the county's building needs, attended to answer questions.

Following the vote Monday, Jack W. Hutson of Royal Oak urged that a mail poll of all members of the association be taken on the issue, because of the small representation Monday. Because the meeting had already adjourned no decision was made on his request.

In reply to the remark that no bus line serves the area Harry J. Merritt, county corporation counsel, said when the courthouse is moved to the "center" a bus line will run there "even if the county has to subsidize it."

Anthony Renne asked why the county didn't build a new courthouse several stories high on its present Huron-Saginaw street site, with an underground garage for parking.

Dr. Friedland answered that such a building would cost at least $2,250,000 more than the one planned — not counting the underground garage.

H. Lloyd Clawson, of Royal Oak, chairman of the supervisors special courthouse committee which recommends the building on Telegraph road, assured attorneys the county would consult with the bar association in making final plans for the court accommodations.

To Test Vaccine for 'Bad Colds' at Reformatory

BALTIMORE (UP) — Three microbiologists, hard on the trail of a vaccine for bronchitis, grippie and "bad colds," begin tests today on inmates of the Federal Reformatory at Chillicothe, Ohio.

Dr. Thomas G. Ward, associate professor of microbiology at the Johns Hopkins School of Hygiene and Public Health, and two associates have isolated strains of virus which they think may cause acute respiratory diseases.

However, Dr. Ward said this should not be confused with the still-elusive common cold virus.

During the last 11 months they have carried on tests for acute respiratory diseases among 60 volunteers at the Maryland State Reformatory for Men. By inoculating 250 inmates of the Chillicothe institution, they hope to confirm findings at the Maryland reformatory.

Dr. Ward said he and the other two scientists were looking for the common-cold virus when they branched off on a search for the ones that cause the more serious ailments.

Dr. Ward predicted such vaccine will be developed within a year if the Chillicothe tests prove successful.

Wyandotte Schools Ban 'Hobo' Attire

DETROIT (UP) — On the theory that "if you dress like a hobo you're more apt to act like one," suburban Wyandotte's Board of Education has banned blue jeans as school attire.

The schools have a duty to the community. Part of that duty is sending girls in slacks and blue jeans home for "proper dress" several years ago.

Clarence J. Whitney, high school principal, posed the psychological theory that hobo-dress brings on hobo-attitude to the board. And he also told it:

"The schis has a duty to the community. Part of that duty is teaching good taste and social standards. Dress is a good part of this. If these youngsters won't dress the way they should, it is up to the school to take the initiative."

Small Sued for $250,000 on Behalf of Lack's Sons

DETROIT (UP) — A $250,000 damage suit was on file in Circuit Court today against Dr. Kenneth B. Small, handsome society dentist who shot and killed Jules Lack when he found the wealthy New Yorker keeping a love tryst with his pretty wife.

A Detroit attorney, A. L. Schwartz, filed the suit Monday in behalf of Lack's two sons, John, 10, and Andrew, 7. Schwartz said he acted on the request of Mrs. Jean A. Lack, the slain man's divorced wife, and David C. Lewis, a former business associate of Lack.

The suit charged that the slaying of Lack deprived his sons "of his love and affection and income they would have received had he lived."

Small, still held in Allegan County Jail, early Saturday was found innocent of murder by reason of temporary insanity in the May 29 shooting. Defense attorney Leo Hoffman has started legal action to have the 31-year-old Detroit dentist declared sane and released.

Small's dark-eyed wife, Edith, 30, who had asked him for a divorce after falling in love with Lack, 45, during a Florida vacation early this year, said she didn't see how anyone could sue an "insane man."

"He (Jules) didn't support his children anyway," she said. Schwartz said he has been re- (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

Recall of Southfield Appeal Ends Delay of Tax Billing

Pontiac's delay in sending summer tax bills ended this weekend as Southfield Township withdrew action that could have changed tax values on all Oakland County property.

Southfield Supervisor William O. Roeser said his township "would rather pay a little more than our fair share of the total county tax than upset the whole applecart."

Pontiac City Treasurer M. M. Ashbaugh said the city will start adding up its 32,000 tax bills for property owners right away.

Taxes for Pontiac City and Pontiac Public Schools are usually payable July 1. This year they'll be payable Aug. 16 through Sept. 18—six weeks late. Pontiac Public Schools have already had to borrow $250,000 to tide them over until city residents start paying the delayed taxes.

Southfield Township June 1 asked Michigan State Tax Commission to check an equalized valuation of $30,163,997 Oakland county supervisors set for the township. This figure meant Southfield would pay 8.3 per cent of the tax levy to run county government.

Roeser said the State Tax Commission found the county's valuation on his township was almost $3,000,000 too high—under the county's formula. This reduction would have cut Southfield's share of the county tax levy to a little less than 8 per cent.

"But if we let the appeal stand," Roeser said, "the State Tax Commission would have set state equalized valuations on all Oakland County property. The state formula sets Oakland County's worth at $1,178,425,000—about 21 per cent more than the county supervisors' valuation. Out of consideration for our neighbors, we're dropping this appeal."

Harry J. Merritt, county corporation counsel, said Roeser was to be commended for his action.

"The tax allocation board has already set tax rates for the county and all its townships and schools," Merritt said. "If the state had put that billion-dollar value on the county, the board probably would have had to meet again and lower all the tax rates. Otherwise, every property owner's tax bill would have been 21 per cent higher—and the county, townships and schools would have collected more money than they needed."

The southern state of Cochinchina, centering around the nation's biggest city of Saigon, bursts with military activity and is full of fight talk. French transports land additional troops while cargo ships of all free nations fight for berthing space.

Saigon teems with soldiers: French officers, bereted French troops, Arabs of the French colonial army, Foreign Legionnaires, soldiers in fezzes and turbans, Senegalese soldiers so new in military service that the tribal knife marks on their coal black faces are still visible—many of them strolling the boulevards in pairs holding hands, a custom of the African homeland; youthful and rather sloppily uniformed French soldiers mingling with equally youthful but meticulously neat sailors from American warcraft.

Commission Asks Plans for a New Park Adjacent to East Side Fire Station

From Our Birmingham Bureau
BIRMINGHAM — Possibility of establishing a city park on eight plots of land adjacent to the new East Side fire station site is expected to be reported on by the City Planning Board within two weeks.

The City Commission last night assigned the plan board to review the request of residents of the Bowers-Forest-Adams-Elm area to create a park on the land.

Several owners of the eight parcels had previously petitioned the Commission to change the zoning classification on the property from single family residence to business.

Residents objected at that time, and have countered with the park proposal. The property is on the north side of Bowers street.

In other action, City Manager Donald C. Egbert was instructed to determine if a property exchange could be worked out to straighten out the Willets-Woodward-Oakland street jog.

Rates for the use by local residents of the Southeastern Oakland County Garbage and Rubbish Authority dump on East Maple Road were reduced approximately 40 per cent.

The city had power to reduce the rates to its individual residents because the land is city-owned, according to Jack Walker, assistant city manager.

The Rubbish Authority has already agreed to the price cut. Necessity hearings were set for August 9 on installation of water service to property at Eton, Mansfield, and 14-Mile road, and water and sewer lines on the east side of Southfield road.

Edward R. White Co. of Berkeley was awarded the contract for laying approximately 35,000 square feet of replacement sidewalk in the city.

Manager Egbert outlined a plan to continue the 1/4-mill tax which has been levied locally for Oakland County drain obligations. The final payment to the county from the levy was made last winter.

Egbert told the Commission he foresaw the need for new drains to the southeast, costing up to $30,000,000, of which Birmingham might have to pay up to $1,500,000.

Several commissioners raised the question of the legality of levying a tax for something not actually needed at the time of the levy.

Egbert also reported on the West Side interceptor sewer which would carry sewage down to Detroit for treatment.

Starting tomorrow and continuing the following three Wednesdays, the swimming pool facilities at Barnum School will be open from 7 to 9 p.m. for swimmers over 18 years old.

Strictly recreational, with no instructors provided, the weekly sessions are part of the Recreation Board's summer program. A 25-cent admission fee will be charged.

Another summer program project will be closed for an indefinite period, it was announced yesterday.

The rifle range setup at the police shooting range was closed down yesterday as workmen began filling in dirt behind the targets. The dirt being used is coming from street-widening operations on Maple.

Frank Whitney, director of the city's recreation program, suggested that those losing the use of the rifle range take advantage of the play program at Birmingham High School. Archery, basketball, badminton, baseball, volleyball and a trampoline are available at the school.

Bingo Verdicts Cause Conflict

Detroit, Millard Differ on Decisions Covering Voluntary Payments

Oakland County records indicate that a decision to condone voluntary-contribution bingo in Detroit conflicts with an earlier opinion from Atty. Gen. Frank G. Millard's office.

Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem quoted the opinion when asked by the Pontiac Press to comment on the Detroit situation.

In Detroit, Chief Assistant Prosecutor Ralph A. Garber has ruled in at least one case that a charitable bingo game played on a "voluntary, unspecified contribution basis" is legal. Ziem said the opinion from Millard's office seems to oppose the stand.

The county prosecutor said he asked for the opinion in a letter sent to Millard last Jan. 18. The reply on Jan. 29 was signed by Harry W. Jackson, head of the attorney general's criminal division.

Ziem said he sought a ruling on the legality of bingo games in which members of an organization are not charged a specific admission price, but can leave voluntary donations.

Jackson's reply said in part: "You ask whether or not we believe this to be illegal under our present laws. We would be inclined to believe that this is an illegal operation and that the donations constitute a mere subterfuge to by-pass the question of consideration."

Ziem said he would abide by the ruling as the attorney general's office is the top supervisory agency as far as prosecutor's offices are concerned.

Millard refused to comment when reached by telephone yesterday in his Lansing office.

Dondoro Pushing Bill for $890 Million Projects

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Dondoro (R-Mich.) said he hopes to get House action tomorrow or Thursday on a bill to authorize construction of floor control and navigation projects estimated to cost $890-million dollars.

The bill cleared the House Rules Committee yesterday. Dondoro, chairman of the House Public Works Committee, told the rules committee the bill covers 147 projects in 41 states. He said it was the first such bill to come before Congress since 1950.

The compromise bill, worked out in conference with the Senate which approved the President's program, would allow subsidy commitments on an additional 35,000 public housing units. But the commitments could be made only if necessary to house persons displaced by slum clearance or urban renewal projects.

Theoretically, that could permit construction of 68,000 more units over the next two years, including the 33,000 already committed and in the construction pipeline.

Adventurers' Raft Still Unsighted After Two Days

SANTA CATALINA ISLAND, Calif.—An inner tube raft carrying five adventurers on a 71-mile voyage here from the California coast is still unsighted two days after its departure.

Asst. Harbor Master Bob Trammel said the sea was a little rough today, with an offshore wind, and the raft "may just be drifting around."

The raft's skipper, John W. Strobel III, 22, had said he expected to complete the trip yesterday. The 15 by 31-foot craft, built of 100 inner tubes wired to a wooden frame, left Ventura Sunday.

The Coast Guard said it still was not officially concerned because the raft has not been reported overdue and no one has requested a search.

Loaded aboard the raft were a gas stove, canned food, five gallons of water, a compass and an outboard motor.

Dodge Strike Continues

DETROIT (INS)—A strike of 22,000 Detroit area Chrysler Corporation workers went into its second day today with pickets continuing to march in front of the Dodge Main Plant, the Winfield Foundry and the Lynch Road Garage. The walkout began yesterday as an outgrowth of a dispute over dismissal of two trim employees of the Dodge Main Plant.

Viet Nam Repelled by French Failure

stunned by the twin catastrophes of the last 90 days.

They seem actually dazed by Gen. Henri-Eugene Naraire at Dien Bien Phu, and the political decision in France to give up the long war even at the cost of all of Tonkin.

Although the sky was made difficult by the thunder of the big guns, there is none of the "on-with-the-fight" attitude which sparks Saigon 500 miles to the south. The French still in Hanoi believe Hanoi is lost, yet they do not leave.

Although most of the French families have gone, well-dressed French women still may be seen window-shopping the jewelry and gown shops, where the best merchandise in the Orient is displayed in tastefully dressed windows.

The French newspaper L'Entente, continues to appear daily.

"We cannot move our plant, so we might as well have the use of it up to the last hour," the director says.

The educated Viet Namese do not share the strange, slow-motion, nightmare inaction of the French. They have been leaving steadily, some of them in mounting panic. The Viet Nam businessmen with whom this reporter talked were openly resentful of the French.

The evidence at hand today, in a swing from one end of Viet Nam to the other and across the country from Laos to the sea, indicates that the tragic climax stems entirely from weakness and indecision in political and military leadership.

There is none of the frenzied fervor for communism evident in North Korea or in Shanghai or Canton before they fell. The Viet Namese seem to choose the rebel leader, Ho Chi Minh because they think he is going to win. As elsewhere in the Orient, everything is forgiven in Viet Nam except weakness.

BIRMINGHAM (AP)—Five million gallons of water were pumped yesterday, and 5,200,000 were pumped on Saturday, the high so far this year, according to Park Smith, assistant fire chief.

Broadfield is a state representative and a candidate for state senator.

Ike's Housing Bill Faces Likely Doom; Power Contract Foes Delay Atom Vote

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Supporters pledged a last-ditch effort to pass President Eisenhower's full public housing program today but they conceded privately the move appeared doomed.

The compromise housing bill expected to win house approval would stimulate private home-buying by lowering down payments but falls far short of the four-year, 140,000-unit public housing program requested by the President.

The compromise bill, worked out in conference with the Senate which approved the President's program, would allow subsidy commitments on an additional 35,000 public housing units. But the commitments could be made only if necessary to house persons displaced by slum clearance or urban renewal projects.

Theoretically, that could permit construction of 68,000 more units over the next two years, including the 33,000 already committed and in the construction pipeline.

Other congressional news: Atomic-Senate GOP leader William F. Knowland urged the Senate to halt a "filibuster" and start voting on the atomic energy bill today. But opponents of a proposed private power contract provision

3 Youths Waive Hearing in Theft of 12-Foot Boat

One Farmington and two Detroit youths waived examination yesterday on charges of boat theft, and were bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court for arraignment July 23.

The trio, Patrick Petty, 19, and Gerald E. Rousseau, 17, both of Detroit, and Ernest Kruschlin, 19, of 20837 Whitlock, Farmington, were unable to furnish $1,000 bond each set by West Bloomfield Township Justice Elmer C. Dietler, and are being held in Oakland County Jail.

According to Dietler, the three were arrested Sunday after they allegedly took a 12-foot boat, owned by Darrell Lantz of Detroit, at Union Lake, Commerce Township.

Detroit Dentist Sued by Lack's Ex-Wife

tained by the New York law firm of Newman and Katz, which is representing Lack's estate. He said the innocent verdict did not remove Small's "civil liability."

The dentist was expected to turn defense of the suit over to Hoffmann. When informed of the suit in his cell at Allegan, Small said it "sounds like baloney."

"Where would I get that kind of money?" Small asked. "My wife has it, but that's her inheritance and I don't think they can get into that."

Edith's brother, Julie Sandler, said that if any suit were filed in connection with his sister's romance it should be against Lack for alienation of affection. Sandler also said his sister should have sued Lack to recover $10,000.

Testimony in the trial confirmed earlier reports that Edith gave Lack the money to invest in the Majestic Air Conditioning Co. of New York City, of which Lack was president. She never got the stock she was supposed to have received.

Hunting Dates Set for Small Game

HIGHLAND (AP)—Small game and upland birds hunting seasons approved by the State Conservation Commission today were mostly unchanged from last year.

A 22-day pheasant hunting season from Oct. 20 through Nov. 10 was approved for the Lower Peninsula.

In the Upper Peninsula the southern part of Menominee County was opened to pheasant hunting from Oct. 1 to 10.

There was no essential change in the ruffed grouse seasons, set as from Oct. 1 to Nov. 1 in the UPPER Peninsula, Oct. 1 to Nov. 10 in the northern Lower Peninsula and Oct. 20 to Nov. 29 in the southern part of the Lower Peninsula.

The prairie chicken—sharp-tail grouse season was set from Oct. 1 to Nov. 1 in the Upper Peninsula. There will be no open season in the Lower Peninsula.

Members of the commission, meeting at Haven Hill Lodge, paused to pay tribute to the late Donald B. McLouth, Detroit industrialist and commission member, who died recently. Frank E. Burch of Detroit, executive secretary of the Detroit Sportsmen's Congress, named to succeed McLouth, attended his first meeting.

Bench Lovers Remain

SAFFRON WALDEN, England (UPI)—The town council has decided against moving park benches to more isolated sites after receiving complaints from homeowners that chattering young lovers keep them awake. Instead, the town fathers asked the young folks to tone their billing and cooing down to a whisper.

Cleary Tours Oakland County

Begins Final 2-Week Leg of Campaign for GOP Nomination

Secretary of State Owen J. Cleary toured northern Oakland County yesterday to start the final two weeks of campaigning for Republican nomination for governor.

A motorcade visited Pontiac, Rochester, Lake Orion, Oxford, Clarkston and Holly and ended at a luncheon in the Waterford Township home of his county campaign chairman, Bruce Annett.

Cleary addressed 125 persons at Holly and told them that the highest degree of cooperation between the governor and legislature will be necessary to solve future problems expected with the addition of 3,500,000 new citizens in the next 15 years.

An example of the cooperation necessary, Cleary pointed out, is in solution of the acute water shortage faced by Oakland County communities.

The problem "could be quickly solved, according to Cleary, if the executive office loaned its prestige and power to the establishment of a cooperative planning board to assist all communities."

The Bay City-Toledo turnpike would be much nearer reality today if the governor had shown more than an academic interest in aiding the authority which he appointed, according to Cleary.

Michigan agriculture must be assisted with more research, particularly in marketing, according to Cleary, to meet the challenge of a 50 per cent increase in population.

When he addressed 150 members of Oakland County's Republican Women's groups in Annett's home at 2799 Sylvan Shores Dr., Cleary told of an optimistic outlook for the state's welfare.

"I foresee expansion and development which the St. Lawrence Seaway will present to us, which can conceivably dwarf the boom which the automobile industry brought to Michigan in the first half of the century."

"This is the time for vision and vigor, not for retrenchment and reaction," he declared.

In stating his qualifications for the post of governor, Cleary told his audience of his record as a soldier for 28 years, an educator for 20 years, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee for four years, his post as secretary of state and his position as a member of the Liquor Control Commission and other agencies.

3 Identify Suspect in Indiana Murder

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—Police said today that a former Indianapolis cab driver has been identified from pictures as the "Jack O'Shea" in whose hotel room the body of 18-year-old Dorothy Poore was found Sunday, crammed in a drawer.

They said identification was made by a taxi driver and two elevator operators.

Urges Property Return

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee has urged that Japanese and German property seized by the government during World War II be returned to their owners.

Asks Bids on Separation at 8-Mile and Woodward

LANSING — The State Highway department will take bids in Lansing, July 28, for the construction of a large grade separation at Woodward avenue and Eight-Mile road. The area is at the south limits of Oakland County.

The intersection handles some 130,000 vehicles every 24-hour period making it the busiest highway intersection in the state.

Under terms of the contract to be made with the low bidder on the project, construction work is to be completed by Dec. 15, 1935. During construction, traffic on Woodward avenue and Eight-Mile road will be routed over temporary roads at the construction site.

The Woodward-Eight-Mile structure will be one of the largest highway grade separations ever built in Michigan. It will be a tri-level structure with the ground level used for turning movements. The estimated cost totals around $3,500,000.

The overall length of the Woodward separation will be 2,650 feet, extending from Alameda to Chesterfield streets. On Eight-Mile the length will approximate 2,800 feet extending from Hilton street to Queenston street.

Both Woodward avenue and Eight-Mile road will have three lanes of traffic in each direction at the new grade intersection.

On the ground level, to be used for turning movements, there also will be three lanes of traffic in each direction.

Also included in the project will be three service drives, one immediately north of Eight-Mile road and immediately south of Bennett street which will carry northbound Woodward avenue traffic. Another will be for southbound Hilton street.

Reporter Rates as VIP During Stay at Fort Riley

By LAURA Z. HOBSON
(International News Service)

FORT RILEY, Kan. — For several days my sons and I were guests of Maj. Gen. P. D. Ginder and the U. S. Army — and never was anybody so coddled!

Being lucky enough to know the commanding general of the 10th Infantry Division is, of course, pretty good "channels" for some special privileges, but when he invited us to "visit Fort Riley a while," I never dreamed how special they would be.

It wasn't simply being installed in the huge three-room visitor's suite in Carr Hall, with flowers in vases, electric fans all over and—surprising touch—a nice big electric refrigerator right in our living room, stocked with bottles of Coke, "pop," and canned fruit juices against hot Kansas thirst.

Nor was it the tennis courts and the five swimming pools on the post which my boys sampled constantly while I was high and dry at my typewriter, nor our easy access to demonstration rides in jeeps, tanks and planes.

Even the big evening party with the general and his staff and their wives didn't complete my feeling—though it was wonderful to be greeted by "The Sidewalks of New York," enthusiastically blared at us by Pfc. Lew Mochson of Brooklyn, Cpl. Joseph M. DiPaula of Baltimore, Pfc. Tony R. Gorenc of Milwaukee, Cpl. George C. Rapp of Pittsburgh, and Pfc. Dennis H. Knife-of Great Neck, N. Y.

The largest privilege of all was getting to see part of the United States Army in a kind of close-up, under the guidance of one of its famous young generals, about whom Gen. Mark W. Clark wrote, "Korea has provided the U. S.

with a bumper crop of leaders. . . I have in mind Maj. Gen. P. D. Ginder. . ."

Back home, where I first met Gen. Ginder and his wife Jean, who's now in London producing a play, his friends always call him "Phil." In the Army that changes to "P. D.," often sounding like "Pettie."

But at Fort Riley, where he's in command of 18,500 military personnel, I found myself addressing him half the time as "General"—and surprised each time to hear it come out that way.

I'd never seen him in his official capacity before, and in that $3,000-a-acre post, with 101 years of Army history and tradition behind it, "Phil" and "P. D." somehow got lost on my tongue.

Maybe it's because his aides told me he'd won the Distinguished Service Cross when he was 39, and still a colonel, for "extraordinary heroism" in Germany, that he also has the Purple Heart, Silver Star, Legion of Merit, Bronze Star with 2 oak leaf clusters and other honors.

Perhaps it's because they also told me of his French Legion of Honor and Croix-de-Guerre with palm, of his Korean Ulchi Medal and his high awards from Belgium, the Philippines and many other countries.

He's still the same genial "Phil Ginder" I knew at home, of course. But I kept remembering a summer night in 1952 when I was with his wife and some friends at their brownstone house on East 59th Street in New York. The phone rang and Jean Dalrymple Ginder answered.

"It's Tokyo," she said, and we all tried not to listen when the call came through at last.

"A star?" she cried a moment later, and our own babble of excitement all but drowned out the rest of her call.

That was the brigadier star. He won his second a year later, after Korea where he commanded the famous 45th Infantry, the "Thunderbirds," through the horrors and blood and deaths of Sandbag Castle, Christmas Hill and Heartbreak Ridge.

That was our host at Fort Riley, my sons' and mine. "Special privilege" is right.

Placed on Probation, Fined $200 for Shooting

James Orr, 27, of 328 Howard McNeill St., was placed on three years' probation and assessed $200 costs yesterday by Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick for wounding two men with a shotgun last June 26.

Orr pleaded guilty July 7 to going to his girl friend's home at 268 Fisher St. and firing a shotgun blast through the door, injuring two visitors. He was charged with felonious assault.

Pontiac Man to Serve 60 Days for Auto Theft

Denzil Bowman, 24, of 40 N. Cass Ave., was sentenced to 60 days in Oakland County Jail, placed on two years' probation and assessed $200 costs yesterday by Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick for auto theft. Bowman admitted stealing an auto here June 23 and driving it to Kentucky. He was returned by Pontiac Police.

Aussies Fitting Jigsaw of Spies

But Commission's Pace Is Slow; Petrov, Wife Called to Stand

MELBOURNE, Australia (UP)—The jigsaw of Soviet spying in Australia is being slowly put together before the royal commission of three judges sitting here in Melbourne.

The pace of this royal commission on espionage has proved painfully slow to Australians, who had expected sensation packed on sensation once Vladimir Petrov went into the witness box.

Petrov, who fled his post as third secretary at the Russian Embassy in Canberra, says he also was the chief Red spy in Australia. His request for political asylum started a chain of events that led to Russia breaking diplomatic relations with Australia.

Petrov, 47, short and plump, and his small, honey-blond wife Evokia, 40, both have spent many hours in the witness box. But they have given only a small part of their evidence because the inquiry has been split into what William J. V. Windyver, senior counsel assisting the commission, called compartments.

The idea is to fit cleanly into one piece the pattern of Soviet espionage and to give any person named as a Soviet helper an opportunity to get quickly into the witness box and tell his side of the story. Only two Australians have been named as helpers so far.

Petrov disclosed Russia had a special directorate in Moscow for technical and atomic espionage and described the system by which Russians serving in official positions outside Russia are watched by secret police who report back to Moscow.

Petrov said both he and his wife had come to Australia with orders to recruit agents. He said money was paid to some Australians who supplied information to the Soviet intelligence system. Some Australians, he said, were given code names by Moscow.

On Petrov's fifth day in the box, the evidence turned to money and Australians picked up their ears. Petrov told the commission he received 5,000 pounds ($11,250 from Deputy Director of Australian Security Richards on April 3, the day he left the Russian service. Newspaper headlines reflected Australian surprise.

The same day Petrov and his wife gave evidence about their pay checks. The size of these was an even bigger surprise to Australians.

Petrov said as an officer of the Soviet Internal Affairs Ministry's secret police, his salary at the beginning of 1954 was more than 4,000 rubles—$1,000—per month. This was four or five times the earnings of a skilled Australian tradesman.

Petrov said he was paid 101 pounds ($227.25) in Australian money and the rest was deposited for him in Moscow.

Following her husband into the box, Mrs. Petrov said her salary was the equivalent of 3,240 pounds ($7,290) a year. Australians quickly added the husband's and wife's salaries to total over 8,000 pounds ($17,000) a year. Only a handful of Australians earn that much money.

The end of the commission is not yet in sight and the sittings possible will continue into next year.

Plead Guilty to Aiding Escape of 3 Patients

Two men charged with helping three mental patients escape from Pontiac State Hospital last Thursday pleaded guilty before Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick and will be sentenced Monday.

Clarence J. McLatcher of Royal Oak, an ex-patient, pleaded guilty to the charge today and a companion, Aloysius Savoie, an ex-attendant at the hospital, entered a similar plea yesterday.

Each was returned to Oakland County Jail. The charge, a felony, carries a maximum sentence of four years in prison. Savoie told police he had duplicate keys made while employed at the hospital and returned last week to release a 15 and a 16-year-old girl and a 30-year-old woman.

The name dollar was adopted by congress in 1785, for the monetary unit of U. S. Currency because the Spanish dollar was the chief unit of money circulating in the colonies at that time.

PIGTAIL PRINCESS — Carol Brand, 10, makes with the cheese cake after being named "Miss Pigtailed of 1954" by the Children's Aid Society in New York City. Her braids were the longest and best-kept among the group of girls who vied for the title.

Liquor Commission Gets New Chairman

LANSING (UP)—New hands were in charge at the State Liquor Control Commission today.

Frank Blackford, former administrative assistant to Gov. Williams, was chosen chairman by the other two commissioners. Blackford recently was appointed to the commission by Williams.

At the same time, the former chairman, George J. Burke of Ann Arbor, moved over to the job of business manager which he recently won on a civil service examination.

The commission today denied three applications for new club licenses and granted two others.

Licenses were denied to the American Legion Post at Whitehall because the local governing body failed to approve, to the Tri-County Sportsmen's League of Saline because of an unfavorable survey, and to the Michigan Hunters and Anglers Assn. of Clark Lake because it failed to qualify as a club. A license was awarded to the Moose Lodge of Lincoln Park.

Montana Voters Put Finish on Quiet Campaign

HELENA, Mont. (UP)—An estimated 170,000 voters start to the polls today after one of the quietest primary election campaigns in Montana history.

Campaigning was so quiet that incumbent James Murray of Butte did not bother to return from Washington to contest the two candidacies opposing him for the Democratic nomination for United States senator.

Opponents of the 78-year-old Democrat, seeking his fourth full term, are Sam G. Frezell of Great Falls and Ray Gulick, Joplin farmer.

On the Republican ballot, Rep. Wesley A. D'Ewart is stepping out of his House seat to seek the senatorial nomination. He is opposed by Robert Yellowstone, a Crow Indian leader from Lodge Grass.

Three Democrats and four Republicans seek party nominations for the 2nd Congressional District seat being vacated by D'Ewart.

There Ain't Any Flies on These Orlando Guys

ORLANDO, Fla. (UP)—The U. S. Bureau of Entomology here decided there aren't enough houseflies in downtown Orlando.

Not enough, that is, to justify an eradication campaign. Surveyors could find only 41 flies—and some of those might have been repeaters.

The bureau now plans to turn to the bottle fly, another pest.

Heir's Mother to Testify Again

Mrs. Thorne to Tell of Whereabouts on Day Body Was Found

CHICAGO (UP)—The mother of Montgomery Ward Thorne will be recalled at his inquest to testify about her whereabouts on the day his body was found.

This was announced by Coroner Walter McCarron yesterday.

Meanwhile, stained bedding and other articles found in Thorne's room after his mysterious death June 19 were turned over to a team of four pathologists for examination and analysis.

Two housemaids, Elizabeth Lawton and Sheila de Leon, testified at the inquest that Mrs. Thorne went to nearby Lake Geneva, Wis., to attend a dog show at about noon on the day Thorne's body was found.

They said she returned when they notified her by telephone of her son's death.

The body of 20-year-old Thorne was found in his $75-a-month room about noon and doctors estimated he had died about 5 a.m.

Nine days before his death, Thorne, heir to a mail order fortune, revised his will leaving three fourths of his estate to his sweetheart, Maureen Ragen, 18, and her mother Helen.

His mother, who was sole beneficiary under an earlier will, was given only a one-eighth share.

The articles the pathologists will examine include a bed sheet, mattress pad, a handkerchief, a wad of cotton, part of a cigarette and a portion of what appeared to be a pill.

One of the pathologists, Dr. Otto Saphir, said the articles "may be very valuable evidence" in helping determine the cause of Thorne's death.

The inquest was continued to July 26.

Silver Chalice Scripting Was Intricate Job

By HUBBARD KEAVY (For Bob Thomas)

HOLLYWOOD (U-P)—Thomas Costain's 500-odd pages of narrative called "The Silver Chalice" turn out, in the movie script, to be only 134 pages long.

Yet none of the drama of Costain's story of the slave who fashions a receptacle for the wine cup used at the Last Supper will be missing, scenarist Lesser Samuels assures potential viewers. For the benefit of Costain's readers, and perhaps also for aspiring scenarists, Samuels explains how he did his job.

After reading the book carefully, he made notes on what he considered the necessary dramatic scenes. Primarily the difference between his job and Costain's was to emphasize some scenes for greater dramatic effect.

Then he listed each scene, with a brief description, on a small card. He remembers that he had 100 cards. He pinned these to a large board in sequence and studied them. He finally reduced the number of cards to 76—"The essential dramatic steps."

With the characters and the 76 scenes, Samuels wrote a 140-page "treatment," actually a synopsis. From the synopsis he wrote the first script, 140 pages of dialogue and stage directions. This preliminary work was used to determine how many actors would be needed and for how long and the number and size of the sets. Costs have to be estimated first, so the first script was little more than a budget guide.

The final shooting script took Samuels 10 weeks to write. Costain, who read it, was pleased with the faithful translation although he must have missed some scenes and characters he liked. The Chinese prince, for example, was an interesting character, but he had nothing to do with furthering the dramatic elements of the play. He and his long fingernails will not be in the film.

The chalice itself is no tin prop. Victor Saville, who is producing and directing, declared it must be of sterling silver and so went to a silversmith to have it cast.

Ray H. Jenkin's Name Will Appear on Ballot

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (U-P)—Ray H. Jenkins said recently he would not run for the Senate, but his name will be on the Republican primary ballot Aug. 5 anyway.

Jenkins neglected to give official notification needed to cancel qualifying petitions filed by friends after he gained the public eye as special counsel in the televised Army-McCarthy hearings.
