OU ALERT: Updated Oct. 1, 8:15 p.m.

Earlier today, the Oakland University Police Department alerted the campus community about a vague threat written on a restroom wall on campus. The OUPD has conducted extra patrols throughout the afternoon and evening class periods, and they are reporting no unusual incidents.

At this time, all classes are in session as scheduled.

The OUPD continues to ask the campus community for any tips or information about suspicious activity or individuals. If you have any information, please contact the OUPD at (248) 370-3333 via cell phone, 911 via campus phone, or by e-mail or text to 911@oakland.edu.
