

Swainson Proposes Budget for 'Tight' Year

LANGING UP—Gov. Swainson, bolstered by a penny increase in the sales tax, last night proposed a record $462.2 million budget designed to carry the state through "tight" financial straits.

The new chief executive, submitting his first spending blueprint to the legislature, also called for a $38.5 million revenue bond issue to pay for a "temporary" state construction program.

Swainson estimated general fund income in the 1961-62 fiscal year at $477.9 million, up $24.8 million from this year. He proposed setting aside $18.7 million to cut down a treasury deficit expected to approach $46 million by July 1.

In view of the state's continuing money problems, the governor said the legislature should continue a "tight budget policy."

"This budget does not represent all that should be done by a progressive and responsive state government," he said in a message to the lawmakers. "Rather it is what must be done in the light of our present fiscal situation."

Except for items over which he has no control, Swainson said, he allowed for only modest spending increases to meet "the most urgent and essential needs."

General fund spending would increase by about $27 million. Public schools and state colleges and universities would be the main beneficiaries.

The governor recommended $19-million bond issues for school aid, including a general three per cent increase in the aid level and allowance for an expected 45,000 rise in enrollments.

He proposed an $8-million increase in the state's $98 million share of the operating budgets of state colleges and universities.

The spending program takes into account $120 million in new revenue expected from a penny boost in the sales and use taxes which went into effect Jan. 1. It also anticipates that the legislature will permit a $50-million insurance tax package to expire on schedule June 30.

The insurance taxes, imposing new or higher levies on such items as liquor, beer, cigarettes and telephone bills, were enacted late in 1958 as an emergency measure to meet the state's nationally publicized cash crisis.

The revenue bond program probably will be the hardest item for the Democratic governor to sell to the Republican-controlled legislature. His budget earmarks only $17 million for capital outlays, mostly for alterations, repairs and like items.

Swainson recommended no appropriation to carry on a $19-million building program approved by the 1960 legislature after a virtual halt in new construction for several years.

He said at least $22 million is needed in fiscal 1961-62 to complete on-going projects already started. Another $15.3 million should be spent next year for other "urgently needed" buildings, he said.

The governor proposed to expand an existing public building corporation which handled construction of the Stevens T. Mason state office building in Lansing. Funds would be retained by annual legislative appropriations for rent.

The bonding plan, he said, would be "of a transitory nature pending a thorough overhauling of the tax and revenue structure of the state to the end that off fiscal position will be placed on a firm and permanently solvent basis."

Swainson said he would outline his proposed construction program in detail in a later message to the legislature.

Swainson Cuts MSU Budget

Recommends $263,000 Less Than University Officials Requested

By MAX E. SIMON

Gov. Swainson's budget recommendations for Michigan State University, Oakland for the 1961-62 academic year are $263,000 less than the figure sought by university officials.

The $137,000 for the two-year-old institution.

Swainson recommended an appropriation of $1,432,000 for the year-end fiscal year.

The MSU figure is in a breakdown of Swainson's lump sum appropriation recommended for Michigan State University. Swainson put MSU's appropriation at $715 million—including MSU.

MSU had asked for $74.6 million. The governor called for $117.4 million to be spent on higher education other than school aid.

The state's three biggest universities, the University of Michigan, Michigan State University and Wayne State, took the biggest cuts from what they asked.

The University of Michigan was recommended for $37.1 million, and Wayne State was recommended for $18.8 million after seeking $19.4 million.

The smaller colleges and universities, which make up the budget requests on a different basis than the big ones, came closer to getting what they wanted in Swainson's recommendations.

The smaller schools, their requests and Swainson's recommendations include:

Ferris Institute, $2.76 million—$2.79 million; Michigan Tech, $4.47 million—$4.1 million; Grand Valley College, $163,000—$150,000; Central Michigan University, $4.11 million—$4.15 million; Eastern Michigan University, $4.05 million—$4.54 million; Northern Michigan College, $2.42 million—$2.91 million; and Western Michigan University, $6.38 million—$6.73 million.

He was sentenced to 60 days in the Oakland County Jail and fined $75 plus $25 costs by Justice of the Peace Elmer C. Dieterle.

Public Stays Silent on '61 City Budget

The proposed 1961 city budget was the subject of a public hearing last night at which, as usual, no comments or criticisms from the public were voiced.

City Commissioners ordered City Attorney William A. Ewart to prepare the annual appropriations ordinance, based on the budget requests submitted by City Manager Walter K. Willman.

In its present form the proposed budget totals $6,620,000, about $2,000 more than it totaled when originally proposed in November.

Assistant City Manager Robert A. Stierer said the increase is based on estimates of increased operating costs.

Between now and Jan. 31, when the budget is to be adopted, commissioners must decide on a tentative 1961 tax rate and deal with requests for more than $250 in additional pay raises and benefits for municipal employees.

As the budget now stands, it is proposed that $4,054,000 be levied as property tax, $2,082,000 from non-tax revenues and $50,000 from unappropriated surpluses.

The tax rate is $22.50 higher than 1960's. The budget total is $60,651 higher.

The budget remains similar to last year's, except for a $300,000 jump in salaries and wages plus general increases in the estimated costs of operation.

His Economic Report Favors Inflation Curbs

Message's Bright Tone Contrasts With Gloom of Jan. 5 Dem Paper

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower predicted today that the faltering economy would advance soon into "a period of sound growth."

The President's annual economic report — his last major message to Congress — called for 14 pieces of legislation. None could be called an antirecession measure.

Instead, Eisenhower urged on Congress three policies for sustained prosperity: Keep his new $31 billion budget in balance. Keep inflation under control.

In tone and content, the message was in sharp conflict with the most nearly comparable Democratic document, the Jan. 5 report of President-elect John F. Kennedy's economic task force.

The Democratic group called for emergency federal action extending unemployment compensation for workers who have exhausted their policy pay, along with other programs boosting federal outlays by $3 billion to $3 billion in the fiscal year starting July 1.

Eisenhower conceded Congress should consider providing some supplement to jobless pay "in periods of especially high rates of unemployment." But his economic advisers told newsmen that the present rate—6.8 per cent—wasn't high enough to justify federal help.

The President's legislative agenda was topped by a demand that 1962 appropriations "be held within the limits of expected revenues."

It then repeated all the tax proposals of Monday's budget message and other measures—most of them identical with last year's requests.

They included: Postal rate increases to make the postal system self-supporting; removal of the 4 1/2 per cent interest ceiling on government bonds; additional Postage stamps to be issued by the federal government last March.

Another improvement, long eyed at the airport, is the development and extension of the secondary runway.

Chrysler Is Sued for $475,000 Total

From Our News Wire

Two former Chrysler officials took the auto firm to court today, seeking an aggregate of $475,000, and adding to the woes of the legally-battered firm.

Former President William C. Newberg is seeking to have set aside an agreement he signed giving $450,000 profit back to the firm.

He made it from firms doing business with Chrysler.

Both men are Pontiac area residents. Newberg lives at 1411 Kirkway Drive, Bloomfield Hills, and Minor at 1236 Dorchester St., Birmingham.

Chrysler also has several stock owners suing pending action at charging gross mismanagement. The auto firm has sued the holders of the stock owners group for slander and libel.

In an 18-page brief filed in Wayne County Circuit Court, Newberg, who resigned June 20, alleged that "false and fraudulent representations, undue influence, coercion and duress" were exercised upon him and his wife Dorothy by Chrysler and its agents.

The corporation said it had uncovered conflicts of interests because of Newberg's holdings in two firms which made parts for the auto company.

Last July 21 Chrysler said Newberg had agreed to pay the company $450,000 as high compensation for profits from these two companies.

In today's petition, Newberg said he and his wife paid $200,000 in cash in July, gave a note for $120,000 and assigned Chrysler rights to stock worth $125,000.

Newberg's attorney, Phil A. Koury, announced that noted Detroit attorney Joseph W. Louell had been retained by him.

"In the brief, Koury said that 'Chrysler benefited greatly from the competitively favorable transactions after sale of the Newberg Chrysler and the two sons' (Continued on Page 2, Col. 1)

Slays Wife, 4 Children and Himself

By A. F. MAHAN

GRAND BLANC (UPI)—"It sort of broke your heart. Tears welled up and spilled. You couldn't help it. I knew there had been a suicide, but not what I really was walking into."

Thus Undersecretary Richard Shannon, 36, described his emotions in undecipherable sentences he described as "by far the most shattering" in 10 years of police work.

What he walked into was a grisly murder and suicide. Thomas H. Heford, 47, a promising General Motors engineer, had slayed his family: his wife Janet Elaine, their two sons and two daughters, and himself.

"The youngest girl was on the bed, Shannon recalled Tuesday night. "Her long black hair draped over a shoulder, just like she was sleeping. She added a little top of animal of some kind."

Shannon made an attempt to hide the mistakes that revolved around the slaying, six hours after leaving the scene.

"REKEMED ANGLE?" "The first thing I thought of," said Shannon, "were my 13-year-old boy and my 8-year-old girl, who got hit on her back and was unconscious for a week and nearly died."

"The little girl looked like she was sleeping, had a tiny hole and a little powder burn on the side of her pajamas, she never knew what happened at all."

Two Ex-Officials Sue Chrysler

...from in which Newberg had been involved prior to 1958.

Newberg was granted a temporary restraining order against Chrysler and a hearing was set for Jan. 27. The temporary order will hold up a $60,000 payment by Newberg on the note Jan. 27.

Newberg, who has maintained silence since the incidents of last summer, claimed he had been falsely jailed into a sense of security by representatives of Chrysler Board Chairman L. L. (Tex) Colbert and other company officials.

Further he said he had disposed of some interests prior to becoming president of Chrysler last April. He said he was contacted routinely by surprise by the demand for his resignation without having an opportunity to consult or advise with anyone as to his rights.

INNOCENT VICTIM

He portrayed himself as an innocent victim of "an unlawful conspiracy entered into by and between L. L. Colbert, Louis B. Warren, W. Alton Jones, Eugene S. Benzel and Juan T. Tripp" and other unknown persons.

He alleged they sought to use him as "a scapegoat behind which to hide and conceal the incompetence, maladministration, neglect, breaches of duty and self-dealing of which some of the foremost conspirators were guilty."

Kennedy Needs Breathing Spell

Expected to Avoid Any Big Foreign Decisions for Several Months

WASHINGTON (AP)—The incoming Kennedy administration may postpone any major foreign decisions for several months after inauguration to get its policies in shape for major negotiations with the Soviet Union.

Well-informed diplomats believe President-Elect John F. Kennedy and his secretary of state designate, Dean Rusk, will seek to avoid any important new foreign commitments or proposals until next spring or summer.

Meantime Kennedy and Rusk will have to deal with crises as they arise. The most urgent of these at present is the situation in Laos where both the United States and the Soviet Union are involved through aid to the contending factions.

The breathing spell, as the diplomats see it, will be a period of intensive policy review in Washington and probably a brief hiatus in Laos.

There is some speculation that after a period of months Kennedy might be interested in arranging a completely informal, brief, talk with Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Certainly, it is believed here, Kennedy would want to meet with Allied leaders briefly and informally before any get-together with Khrushchev. There also is speculation that perhaps in the spring he would undertake a flying visit to Europe to see such men as British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, French President Charles de Gaulle and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany.

Arriving here Tuesday with his wife from the Florida villa where they now are staying, Kennedy said he would attend "just a few" of the many public and private events this week.

He said he would attend the inauguration ceremony Friday of President-Elect John F. Kennedy. And he was referred to the ceremony by the awarding in ceremony itself, because the elder Kennedy has decided against taking in much of the attendant merrymaking and winning and dining.

mittee of Cities Service. Tripp is a director and head of Pan American World Airways.

Newberg claimed the action against him was taken in anticipation of wholesale investigations into the company then being threatened by various Chrysler shareholders.

He said between the time he was elected president on April 28 and the time he was forced to resign he had for the first time come upon practices he "believed constituted favoritism and nepotism of certain friends, relatives and intimates of top executives."

He said he sought to correct these but Colbert "sharply after April 28, 1958" requested that Newberg would not be allowed to do so.

He said Colbert concluded that it was necessary to force the discharge of Newberg to protect himself and his administration.

Newberg said no one at Chrysler suggested he had done anything illegal until after he resigned. Then, he maintained, he was given "that amounted to a virtual threat by defendant's agents, Benzel in particular" that unless he paid the money he would be prosecuted and imprisoned for violations of the securities exchange act.

DIDN'T KNOW

These supposed violations had to do with failure by Newberg to disclose in the Chrysler proxy statement his interests in the supplier companies. Newberg said he was ignorant of any such provision.

He said additionally he was told he could become chairman of the board of Chrysler Pack and at a six-figure salary if he paid up.

If he didn't, he said he was told "his reputation would forever be destroyed, rendering him virtually ineligible for employment elsewhere, and his family would forever be ostracized by their friends and acquaintances, and then, conversely, if he acquiesced in such settlement, none of these consequences would be suffered, and Chrysler would protect against him."

Newberg said the pattern of action against him included a decision to represent to the public that he was discharging his duties "had acted in discovering and respecting the only abuse existing at Chrysler" and that further the alleged abuses were "caused" statements to be issued by independent and generally respected agencies that a full investigation was being conducted into the wrongdoing on the part of any Chrysler executive.

Chrysler's attorneys and auditors "had been told specifically to avoid any investigation of wrongdoing" by the New York law firm of Thomas E. Devery to review the investigation. All said they found no evidence of wrongdoing.

President Ike Very Happy He Kept Us Out of War

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today he considers the greatest achievement of his eight years in office was the preservation of peace in an era when weakness would almost certainly have brought disastrous war.

The President gave this appraisal in his last news conference, attended by 325 reporters who crowded into the ornate Inland Trust Room of the old State Department Building.

Eisenhower said election and inauguration day ought to be changed as a new president would have 30 days to get organized before he starts doing business with Congress.

Specifically, the retiring President said, there should be that much time to prepare messages to the State of the Union and the budget before Congress convenes.

Admission of Country to U.N. Is Probability in Future, Says Adlai

From Our News Wire

WASHINGTON—Adlai E. Stevenson said today that admission of Red China to the United Nations "may be impossible to prevent" and amounts to a "probability" at some future date.

The twice-defeated Democratic presidential candidate made the statement in testifying before senators considering his nomination to head the U.S. delegation to the United Nations in the Kennedy administration.

He said it would be "highly unlikely" to expect Communism in China to reform if allowed into the United Nations.

But he added: "On the other hand, it may be impossible to prevent."

Stevenson denied a suggestion by Sen. Bourke Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, in testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, that he had taken a "consistent position" of advocating U.N. membership for Red China.

He said this was not correct. But he added that the time will come when this country will "face the probability" that the Peiping regime will be admitted to the world organization.

Stuporously the Senate Commerce Committee—Luther H. Hodges, former governor of North Carolina, and promptly gave unanimous approval to his selection as secretary of commerce.

Hodges, a North Carolina industrialist before he went into politics, said one of his chief aims will be to stimulate foreign trade.

He also expressed hope it will be possible to step up the nation's economic growth rate.

But he said he does not believe an annual increase of 5 per cent the Democratic platform goal, can be reached immediately because of what he called the current economic readjustment.

The Senate Finance Committee today unanimously approved Douglas M. Costigan, of New York, as secretary of the Treasury and Gov. Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut to be secretary of health, education and welfare.

Legislation to assist chronically depressed areas; a "moderate" increase in the $1 minimum wage.

In all its 24-page length, the message never spoke of a recession, business dip, or downturn as marking the closing months of the Republican administration.

It referred to "moderate" late 1960 declines in production and employment as being mainly the result of industry's liquidation of an over-accumulation of inventories, and suggested that this may soon be stopped and inventory-building resumed.

"An increase in general economic activity should not, accordingly, be long delayed," the President said.

Ships Still Speculation

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four Soviet missile tracking ships standing by in the Pacific brought new speculation today that the Soviet Union was preparing for a spectacular space shot.

There was no reliable vote. Rules Chairman Howard W. Smith of Virginia told the caucus he would call a committee meeting to act on the increase as soon as the committee is formally created, probably next week.

CAUCUS VERY RUSY

It was one of the briefest caucuses in party history, lasting only about 15 minutes.

The action, subject to House approval probably next week, represented an initial victory for Rayburn in his drive to crack the Rules Committee control held in the past by a coalition of four Republicans and two Southern Democrats.

Northern Democrats had predicted in advance that the caucus would approve the change.

They were less confident about how the plan will fare on the House floor, where Republicans and Southern Democrats have combined in the past to have a dominant voice in the House.

Henry Is Given Absence Leave

Taking Trip to Ghana Wants Time to Choose Commission Successor

City Commissioners last night granted Commissioner Milton R. Henry a 60-day leave of absence prior to his official resignation as representative from District 1.

The 41-year-old lawyer said he and other leaders of his community wanted time to pick a successor for recommendation to the remaining six commissioners, who will fill the vacancy with an appointment after the two-month period is over.

During a five-minute internal huddle in City Manager Walter K. Wilman's office to discuss the resignation, Henry told the other commissioners that he "planned to return from Ghana, Africa, where he is traveling in two weeks."

Henry and three other Michigan men are planning a private development corporation there, specializing first in housing.

Henry said if the business succeeds, he'll stay in Africa. If not, he may return to Pontiac and his post on the commission, he indicated.

Mayor Philip E. Rowan said the other five commissioners will pay tribute to Henry during the official meeting. Commissioner William F. Taylor Jr. presented him with a double pen set and a farewell gift.

The meeting was Henry's last, unless he returns from Africa. He is scheduled to fly there from New York City Feb. 2.

HST Glad to See All Those Dems in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—Harry S. Truman, formerly of 2600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW, breezed happily into town today to see a new Democratic tenant installed at his old address.

Truman, looking fit at 73, came in by rail, the same route he took out of town when he laid down his White House duties.

"Whenever the Democrats are around, you're in good company," said Truman as he shook hands with well-wishers who greeted him at Union Station.

He was placed on probation again last year when he pleaded guilty in Municipal Court to forgery names on nominating petitions for an unsuccessful August primary election candidate.

VICTIMS OF FAMILY TRAGEDY—Police say college student George Kruszelnicki, 25, (right) killed his wife Patricia, 25, (center) a school teacher, and their two children Beth, 3, and Peter, 2, (right) with a shotgun Monday. Then Kruszelnicki apparently shot himself with the same gun. The tragedy occurred in Fresno, Calif.

Court Handles About $1 Million

Breakdown of Pontiac Bench Activity Shows 11,806 Civil Cases

Pontiac Municipal Court handled nearly $1 million in personal receiverships last year.

The court handled 11,806 civil cases, another 1,359 involving violation of city ordinances, and 128 based on state law. In addition there were 21,196 traffic and parking violations.

Of the civil cases 1,558 were contested. Only 313 traffic and parking tickets required trials. The court took in $166,233 in revenues based on fines, costs and fees, including $87,513 in traffic fines.

A further breakdown issued by Judges Maurice E. Finnegan and Cecil McCallum lists $15,763 from civil cases, $28,361 in city ordinance fines, $9,536 in personal receivership fees, $13,163 in state law fines, $978 in probate costs, $283 in forfeited bonds and $74 in jury fees.

There were 315 violations of city ordinances placed on probation for period of three months to a year.

Total amount banked in the personal receivership division reached $936,270. The amount paid to creditors was $275,400.

There was 683 receivership petitions in 1960, including 146 new ones.

Ex-Janitor Seeks Post as a Trustee of MSU

LANSING (UPI)—A Michigan State University graduate who worked his way through school doing janitorial work said today he would seek the Republican nomination for the university's governing board.

William G. Butt, Central Michigan University professor, said he would seek the party nomination to the MSU Board of Trustees at the GOP convention Feb. 3-4.

Leave Feb. 18 for Lake in Mexico

Jackson Skindivers to Hunt Mayan City

JACKSON (AP)—Two skindiver-party plans to probe four or five from Jackson will use their five other lakes in the area before underwater exploration. Korten variations next month to search returning. The expedition is ex-commented, "and that's right up for an ancient Mayan Indian city, expected to take two or three weeks, my alley."

Don Korten and Howard Smith plan to leave Feb. 18 for Lake Montebello in the Mexican state of Chiapas near the Guatemalan border.

Indians in the area say there is a pyramid in the lake which pokes its peak from the water at low level. Korten and Smith feel that, if the pyramid exists, there will be an entire city on the lake bottom.

"As far as we know, an earthquake of some sort caused the ground to sink and a lake to form in the area," Smith said in Jackson (Herald Tribune).

Since that time, the lake has been fed by either springs or surface drainage, so that now whatever was at the bottom is completely covered.

The Jackson men will travel with members of their expedition at Kansas City, Mo. The party will include Roy Weldon, an archaeologist, and an interpreter, photographer and another diver.

Smith is a rubber company employee and Korten is program director at the YMCA. They met while Smith was learning skin diving in a YMCA class taught by Korten.

Weldon was looking for someone to go down there and do the skin diving for him. Smith said in explaining how the trip originated, "Since I was then taking skin diving at the Y, I decided to take him up on it."

If the legendary city isn't found at the bottom of Lake Montebello, the city has issued a building permit for $300 worth of remodeling in the vacant shop at 11 N. Sedgewick St. in downtown Pontiac.

Melvin Eller, 1955 James K. Ryd, who obtained the permit, said the store will be used as a beauty shop. The building is operated by Dawson & Butterfield, Pontiac real estate, trust and insurance firm.

Will Give Attention to Adrian Plant Sale

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The chief-designate of the General Services Administration (GSA) has promised to give prompt attention to the sale of the abandoned Air Force plant at Adrian, Mich., Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., said Tuesday.

Hart said that he, Sen. Pat McCarran, D-Mich., and city officials will meet with GSA Administrator-designate John Moore "as soon as he comes in."

Hart told his weekly news conference that the Republican GSA year contributions was achieved in Administrator Franklin Pierce in 1958, when $372,000 was given to give no consideration to Adrian's plant. The fund now has raised economic plight when bids are $1,766,504 since organization in taken for sale of the plant.

Tickets Pull In $87,409 in Year

Traffic Bureau Counts 24,343 Driver Mistakes During 1960

The Traffic Violations Bureau collected $87,409 from ticketed drivers last year.

From the police department the bureau received and processed 10,570 tickets for parking meter violations, 7,264 for other parking violations and 6,509 in various other citations.

The total number of tickets was 31,343, according to a report from Municipal Judge-Master E. Finnegan and Councilman.

There were 14,637 tickets paid at the window in the Public Safety Building, the report said; 7,305 paid by mail and 3,425 collected through warrant officers.

Some of the tickets paid last year were issued the year before. Last year was the bureau's second year in operation.

U. of M. Alumni Fund Has Second-Best Year

ANN ARBOR — Contributions to The University of Michigan Alumni Fund during 1960 totaled more than $337,000, the second highest figure in its history.

Total donors reached 17,600, a 10 per cent gain over 1959, according to James K. Miller, fund manager.

Contributions support scholarships and fellowships, distinguished faculty awards, research grants and equipment, student aid and the President's Fund.

The all-time high in calendar year contributions was achieved in 1958, when $372,000 was given to give no consideration to Adrian's plant. The fund now has raised economic plight when bids are $1,766,504 since organization in taken for sale of the plant.

Admission Price to Rise a Dime at State Fair

DETROIT (UPI)—The 1960 Michigan State Fair made a profit last year, but it's still going to cost visitors to the fair an extra 10 cents admission come September.

The 1960 fair produced an operating profit of $1,258.46, which has been returned to the state general fund, according to a report submitted to the fair commission by General Manager Donald L. Swanson.

The commission voted to raise gate admission for the 1961 fair to $1.

Who Is Responsible for Ike's New Budget?

A couple of days ago President Eisenhower completed his last official major act by submitting his 1961-62 budget calling for $80.9 billion.

It seems unfortunate that the budget must be handled this way. Only four days elapse between the time Eisenhower presented it to Congress and the day Kennedy is inaugurated.

When you stop to analyze and study the budget the first thing that comes to mind is, just who's budget is it? It is easy to see that neither EISENHOWER nor KENNEDY will bear the full responsibility in any case.

And actually why should they? Should it be accepted by Congress (this will be done with Ike out of office and back home in Gettysburg. If Congress does accept it, Kennedy will be stuck with it, whether it balances or not. If it does not balance he can put the blame on Eisenhower.

Of course, Ike can come back and say that it was not carried out the way he had planned. It's sort of like the game who's on second. The easy solution for KENNEDY would be to pitch the whole affair and start over. But since it is such a complex problem this is almost out of the question.

The chances are the new President will leave most of it as is and hope to do a little juggling here and there. Even this is serious business since the slightest change could cause a major deficit. By necessity the budget is based on two factors: First, taxes which have not yet been collected and secondly, business upturns which are yet to come.

Apparently the law requires that it be done in this manner, but it would be so much easier if the incoming President could be working with his own budget and would be 100 per cent responsible for the results.

Land Reform in Nepal Encounters Difficulties

To aid in reforms and a degree of self-government, Nepal held its first nationwide election a year ago. The Nepali party headed by B. P. Koirala was swept into power and King MAHENDRA seemed disposed to allow it a free hand.

The greatest need, as in most less developed countries, was for land reform. So the new government started redistribution of some feudal estates. Regulations were passed governing compensation to big land owners and to give tenants security in holding the land they were farming or using for grazing.

But some big landlords resisted. Government agents and the landless reacted sharply in some instances. King MAHENDRA stepped in, jailed many government leaders and took over again with an iron hand. Land and other reforms are ended before they really get started.

Once deprived peoples are given hope of a better life the matter doesn't end there. Sooner or later the king and the land owners will have to share power and land for the good of all.

Director's Office Saves on Durable Passports

The passport division of the Federal Government announces that it has designed a new passport which not only will satisfy travelers but will save the country $59,000 a year.

Biggest change is in the cover. The old green one didn't wear too well and was badly affected in hot, humid climates. New ones are blue plastic, washable and heatproof. That, together with the smiling passport picture now permitted to show a new look to tourists and their credentials.

Smaller passports were suggested, purse size for instance, but FRANCES G. KNIGHT, passport director, points out that that would be impractical because some countries use visa stamps so large that they would not fit on a smaller page than that in the present one.

When Miss KNIGHT assumed office in 1955, it took weeks to get a passport. Now due to new efficiency, and perhaps less stringent rules and regulations, it can be obtained in three days or sooner in an emergency, so the Government says.

It is pleasant to know that the money saved is enough to pay the annual salaries of the director and three top assistants.

The Man About Town

Deepen Clinton

President's Budget Asks for Investigation on It

Shunk: Pussy cat with atomic weapon.

The budget message to Congress of President

Dwight D. Eisenhower has a recommendation that harks back to Pontiac's plowman days. It empowers the federal corps of engineers to earmark the $26 million recommended for improving the rivers and harbors of Michigan. Included in the rivers scheduled for investigation is our Clinton. Soon after the first white men came here, the most mileage to be actually dug in a statewide canal project used the waters of the Clinton River. And now, 130 years later, it is to be considered for deepening, probably in the Mt. Clemens area.

Proving that history repeats itself in the making in which the new Pontiac-made car is sweeping its field, is the opinion of

Isaac Roth of 679 Inglewood Ave., as Shakespeare also made such a hit with his "Tempest."

With stuffed-up tails as large as their bodies, some Oakland County fox are very beautiful animals, according to Jack Penney.

of Waterford wonders why somebody does not make a fortune out of our muck land, as they have in neighboring counties.

It'll always remember the plan of that long time builder of roads in Oakland County.

Luther D. Allen, who said the only way to assure an open winter was to keep the snow plows in town condition, and then they generally would not be needed.

"You're always pointing out that Oakland County is second in the state in most everything," writes Stephen R. Bloss of Flint, who wonders when will be claiming that it's first. We're well on the way, Steve.

David Lawrence Says:

President's Farewell a Masterpiece

WASHINGTON—President Eisenhower's farewell address to the nation and the world is a masterpiece of American prose.

It also is a historic message of advice to succeeding generations. With no trace of rancor or ill-will toward anybody, and with good wishes to his successor, Eisenhower maintained some penetrating suggestions. For here speaks a man who has spent eight years struggling with the pressures of various groups.

He warns especially against a "military-industrial complex" and the danger of developing a "scientific-technological elite" with too much influence on public policy.

The central theme of the speech could perhaps best be described as a call for "balance," as opposed to erratic digressions in behalf of goals that seem desirable but must be viewed in perspective.

He says: "Clear there will continue to be in meeting them, whether foreign or domestic, great or small, there is a recurring temptation to feel that some spectacular and costly action could become the miraculous solution to all current difficulties."

"A huge increase in new elements of our defense; development of unrealistic programs to cure every ill in agriculture; a dramatic expansion in basic and applied research—these and many other possibilities, each possibly promising in itself, may be regarded as the only way to the road we wish to travel."

"But each proposal must be weighed in the light of a broader consideration: The need to maintain balance in and among national programs—balance between the private and the public economy; balance between cost and hoped-for advantage; balance between the clearly necessary and the conditionally desirable; balance between our essential requirements as a nation and the duties imposed by the nation upon the individual; balance between actions of the moment and the national welfare of the future."

NEEDS BALANCE:

"Good judgment seeks balance and progress; lack of it eventually finds imbalance and frustration."

"Another factor in maintaining balance involves the element of time. As we peer into society's future, we—you and I, and our government—must avoid the impulse to live only for today, for tomorrow, for next week, for convenience, the pleasure of tomorrow. We cannot mortgage the material assets of our grandchildren without risk."

The Country Person

"I like to hear folks complain about having too much to do, then I know they won't have time to get in trouble."

The Other Cheek

These are words of wisdom which will be read and reread in the years to come by many a president of the United States. For they urge a dispassionate examination of so-called "welfare" proposals, and a realistic decision as to what can or cannot be afforded and to what projects priority must be given, irrespective of pressure groups or political demagoguery.

Eisenhower is a military man, and yet some passages in his farewell address might well have been uttered by some of the civilian critics of excessive armament in the past.

He intimates that a vested interest is growing up around the defense programs.

More than three and a half million men and women, he points out, are directly engaged in the defense establishment, and the government now spends annually on military security "more than the net income of all United States corporations."

"This conjunction of an immense military establishment and a large army industry is new in the American experience. The total influences—economic, political, even spiritual—are felt in every state house, every office of the federal government. We recognize the imperative need for this development."

"Yet we must not fail to comprehend its grave implications. Our toil, resources and livelihood are all involved; so is the very structure of our society."

The outgoing president does not say all is rosy. He expresses disappointment that progress on disarmament has not been greater. He speaks of the tragedy of war as a military man who has witnessed its horrors. He concludes wistfully:

"With I could say tonight that a lasting peace is in sight. Happily, I can say that war has been avoided. Steady progress toward our ultimate goal has been made. But, so much remains to be done."

Dr. William Brady Says:

You Don't Need Physiology to Know How to Breathe

In one sense it's comical, in another sense pathetic, the way the average person tries to breathe deeply at the examiner's request. The poor misguided one usually pushes out his chest, puffs out his belly, and pulls in his belly a la ballet.

The physiologists assert that in quiet breathing in the erect posture the respiration of man is the abdominal type and that of woman is the costal type— that is, the "stomach" and other tricks devised by physical culture freaks.

Standard textbooks of physiology still describe as normal two types of breathing, abdominal (referring to the ribs) or chest breathing and diaphragmatic or abdominal (belly) breathing.

The physiologists assert that in quiet breathing in the erect posture the respiration of man is the abdominal type and that of woman is the costal type— that is, the "stomach" and other tricks devised by physical culture freaks.

Baloney: The breathing of an unconscious, sleeping or anesthetized man is not at all different from that of a woman.

In the primer "How to Breathe," for which word 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope, I say:

"Secondary persons are certain to have more or less stagnation of blood in the veins, especially the veins in the abdomen" (that's the larger, lower body cavity) "even though they notice no undue fullness or prominence of veins on the surface. They are likewise certain to benefit from belching (belly) breathing if they practice it."

Well, then? You are equipped with a booster pump for your circulation. Use it

'Fidel's Women Followers Are a Frightening Sight'

When Castro—as he has done many times—faces an audience of women, the spectacle is frightening. Female eyes stare in bewitched entrancement or shine with fervent adoration.

Cheers, deliberately started by cold-eyed Communist girls, reach thunderous proportions. A gathering of female human beings becomes a cauldron of heat, rampant in their hate, raging at the enemies of their menfolk, demanding execution with hysterical shouts of "Farewell!" Gone are all the attributes of the gentle sex.

The female of the species, her fangs bared and her claws out, stands revealed in all her fury.

Miami

'Cuba Should Be Thankful if Invaded'

I read in a New York paper that Castro should be on bended knee for an "invasion" any time the U.S. conquers every time they were never accustomed to before.

Norman Duplinsky

'God Doesn't Care About Skin Color'

It is wrong for our Federal Government to overlook states' rights and override the citizens' rights by telling them what they can and cannot do.

God looks at our hearts so in His eyes we are all one, yet He permitted that there be different races and colors. What will happen to the arts, cultures and charms of these different races if we have no generations that are no competitors of ideas among races?

The NAACP has done a good job. Maybe a NAACP (for white) and a NAAPY (for yellow) would also be a good thing. Let's return to teaching our children about the different races.

I'm just a lonely Republican but I have definite hopes for young Kennedy if Great Grandma Roosevelt and Great Grandpa Truman can manage to mind their own business most of the time.

Fears Aftermath of Nuclear War

I agree with President-Elect Kennedy that there can be no nuclear war, only loss of a large-scale nuclear war, that until there is disarmament, the world will exist in a balance of nuclear terror.

Those of us who will never hear the war drums are sleeping. Those who are working would never make it to a public shelter, traffic congestion would be too thick to move from a side street to the main highway on a holiday weekend. What will it be like if we all intend moving at once?

How do we reach our children at school to know if they're safe? We dare not be out during a dangerous fallout. These are the questions that face us. There must be an answer.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Homosexuals Can Be Converted

Lorna's case is a classic to scribble on as an example of how a normal girl can be trained to become a homosexual. And send for the booklet below. See that it is available to all teen-agers. In fact, a full homosexuality is started before the teens.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case G-41: Lorna B., aged 27, is a very attractive girl.

"But she is a homosexual," her employer informed me.

"And it all came about because of a terrible emotional shock when Lorna was 10 years old."

"Along with her pregnant mother on the farm, Lorna was awoken one night by the screams of her mother, who went into labor."

"A storm was raging outside and the phone lines were down, so Lorna was the oldest available helper."

"Besides, her mother was a neurotic who kept screaming that she was dying."

"You can imagine the indelible shock on the emotions of this timid, 10-year-old girl."

"But thereafter, Lorna seemed abnormally afraid of boys. In high school, she assumed all dates and became volitional."

"Lorna's psychological complex against males could not completely dam up her romantic hunger, for she has a lush physical body."

"And this masculine roommate began to shower her with affection and caring. Lorna came under the sexual dominance of that roommate."

"Now Lorna works for me as my private secretary. And this physical education girl teaches in our local high school."

"When I take Lorna out to dinner occasionally, for an often must work late, her roommate keeps calling and paying Lorna at the restaurant, like a jealous sister."

"Even as we drive down the street in my car, this roommate will trail us in her automobile."

"She will then take a table nearby and glare at me all the time I am dining with Lorna."

"She has even threatened to commit suicide if Lorna ever gets engaged to a man."

"But Lorna must be growing somewhat bi-sexual, for she now seems to enjoy our dinners together and I think I could get her to accept a date for a movie, if I asked."

"Dr. Crane, it is possible for a homosexual to be changed back into a normal or heterosexual person?"

LOVE IN HABIT

"The potential desire for love is inherited, but whether we shall love our own sex or the opposite sex or even gold (as in Silas Marner) is a matter of education."

Lorna was so terrified by her mother's screaming, that she refused to kiss a boy or have a date, but she did have a similar horrendous experience. But that emotional scar can fade

My baby, come into my arms . . . And let me dry your tears . . . For I shall sing a cradle song . . . To chase away your fears . . . I'll sing to you of silent clouds . . . To place beneath your head . . . And of a blanket warm with stars . . . To bring you warmth again . . . My song will be of sunny skies . . . That follow crystal rain . . . And of the gentle moonlight . . . To bring you warmth again . . . I shall not forget to pray . . . Beside your cradle light . . . That all the years awaiting you . . . Remain as clear and bright . . . My baby, close your little eyes . . . And sleep within my smile . . . For in your dreams the angels will . . . Protect you all the while.

The Almanac

By United Press International Today is Wednesday, Jan. 18, the 18th day of the year with 347 more in 1961.

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning star is Mars. The evening stars are Venus and Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1281, Daniel Webster, American orator and statesman, was born.

In 1788, the first English settled in Australia at Botany Bay.

In 1919, the President of France formally opened the peace conference at Versailles.

In 1921, Moscow announced the lifting of the German siege of Leningrad.

In 1950, the U. S. Senate rejected the federal tax on oleomargarine.

In 1953, Chinese Communist captured Yikking . . . A Nationalist-held island 200 miles north of Formosa.

Thought for today: American statesman Daniel Webster said: "Justice, Sir, is the great interest of man on earth."

away, as Lorna's case above, if she lets herself go through the normal motions of dates with a man.

Go through the normal motions of dates with a man, and you will soon begin to feel the corresponding emotions!"

Since homosexuality is a juvenile emotional stage, everybody should deliberately train himself to become a mature emotional adult, meaning a heterosexual.

They're Crowded, Gaudy, Slightly Shoddy Nightmares

From Hectic Inaugural Balls, O Lord Deliver Us

BY RUTH MONTGOMERY
WASHINGTON — The lucky ones this inaugural week are the stay-at-homes who see the proceedings on television, dream about being there, or merely curl up with a good book.

Inaugural balls, parades and receptions are the most over-rated extravaganzas since we wined up to Santa Claus.

Society writers, slightly intimidated to do their gaudy bit, have woven a cocoon of nonexistent glamour around these events for so many years that out-of-towners are inevitably disillusioned when they spend their money and come to see.

It is exceedingly doubtful whether Jack and Jackie Kennedy, even with their admirable emphasis on eggheds, artists and courtiers can transform the inaugural ball into anything more glamorous than the media it has always resembled: A jam-packed hop in an overcrowded high school gym.

For weeks before the great day, a society column describes the gowns of the participants in rapturous detail. Actresses and television panelists parade on television the creations they will wear to the ball. The event begins to take on the exciting aura of a Queen's coronation at Westminster Abbey, with the crowned heads of Europe in attendance.

Alas, the big night actually dawns. Swollen feet, raw and half frozen from a combination of crammed receiving lines and the shoddy inaugural parade, are actually wedged into new spike-heeled sandals.

The precious gown, sweeping the floor in regal splendor, is modeled before a bedroom mirror which whispers that you will be the loveliest belle at the ball. Your husband, half choking in his slightly outgrown white tie and tails, proudly ushers you to the waiting cab.

As the vehicle nears the National Guard Armory, the bumper-to-bumper traffic crawls at snail's pace, if at all. Half an hour is par for the last two blocks. You would walk, except that it is either raining, snowing or sleeting and your gown and mink stole would be ruined.

Temper fluffed, you at last show your tickets and seek entrance to the armory. It is to laugh. Despite the high cost of your invitation, ten thousand others have pressed in before you—and virtually the only breathing space left in the armory is seven feet above the floor.

The cavernous concrete building which is ordinarily used for dog shows, horse shows and sporting events, looks wickedly through the miles of hangings that feebly attempt to disguise the rough structure as a modern Versailles.

Holding your breath to conserve space, you gingerly elbow your way past other sweating bodies. Someone steps on your new gown, and while you struggle to inspect the damage, you scream with the agony of a man's shoe grinding on your bunions.

You try to jump away, but a spike heel has firmly pinned your dress to the floor, and the satin rips away from the waistline.

The box seats all are reserved, and the bleacher seats are occupied. As you stagger miserably through the crowd, intent only on scrambling, the dance band strikes up "Hail to the Chief," and you judge by the excited bellows that the president and his lady finally have arrived.

You stretch dizzily but see only the backs of other heads.

Sure enough, you catch a fleeting glimpse of a smiling face you have seen on posters, but as you straighten up you upset someone's glass of champagne on your bodice.

Back in your hometown, rested and revived after an intervening week, you help to perpetuate the myth by sighing: "Wasn't it glamorous. Fred! Rubbing elbows with the president and all those important people!"

MEA Against Partisan Con-Con Delegate Picks

LANSING (AP) — The board of directors of the Michigan Education Association (MEA) Tuesday voiced objections to the selection of delegates to a state constitutional convention on a partisan basis.

The board said it has passed a resolution urging election of delegates on a nonpartisan basis. A special legislative committee has expressed preference to the partisan approach in the selection of delegates.

Clear 2 in Slaying of South Haven Girl

SOUTH HAVEN (UPI)—Lie detector tests have cleared two men of implication in the rape-slaying of 15-year-old Geraldine Williams.

LI. Fred O'Donnell said a 39-year-old ex-convict and 34-year-old unemployed South Haven man were given the polygraph examinations at the Paw Paw Post Tuesday.

"They cleared themselves and were released," said O'Donnell, who conceded his investigators now had a "pretty cold" trail to follow in tracking down the man who abducted the freckle-faced teen-ager a week ago, and then carried her to an abandoned farm house where she was raped and beaten to death.

Niles Housewife Bids for U. of M. Regency

NILES (UPI) — A Niles housewife has become the third Republican to announce her candidacy for the University of Michigan Board of Regents.

Mrs. C. C. Harrah has sent out letters asking for delegates' support at the state GOP convention. Mrs. Harrah is the secretary-treasurer of her husband's aircraft parts firm, Duke-Harrah, Inc., of Niles. She attended Columbia University and is the mother of two children.

Steel Problem 'Exaggerated'

Study Group Says Few Effects on Economy and Tolls Nation to Relax

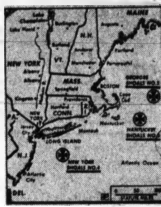

WASHINGTON (AP) — A government task force assigned to study the steel industry's labor troubles came up today with one word of advice to the nation—relax.

The whole problem and its effects on the national economy are highly exaggerated, according to the surprising findings submitted by a staff headed by Prof. E. Robert Luthringsch of the Harvard Graduate School of Business. Here are some of the task force's conclusions:

1. Actual adverse effects of steel strikes have not been of serious magnitude.
2. Neither have steel wage or price changes been serious in terms of the overall economy, or in influencing other price and wage levels.
3. Little can be gained from changing the labor laws for dealing with national emergency strikes. Existing economic pressures are more effective persuaders. If the government has to get into a steel dispute, it should be on an informal basis at "timely critical stages."
4. Serious consideration should be given to advance arrangements so that in any future steel strike a few mills would be operated to insure enough steel for national defense needs.

The quicker everybody realizes how the steel labor problem has been exaggerated in the public mind, the study suggests, less attention will be paid the periodic steel labor bargaining, and probably fewer strikes will ensue.

The average housewife buys four sheets at a time.

Life Insurance Firm to Be Wayne National

DETROIT (UPI)—Formation of a new life insurance company, based in Detroit, was announced Tuesday.

Edward Sirag Jr., president, said the new firm, Wayne National Life Insurance Co., had been granted authority to fund the company with a $500,000 stock issue. He said the company would begin operations as soon as the initial funding is completed and as soon as it receives a final certificate from the State Insurance Department.

Professions Group Appoints Varner

Durward Varner, chancellor, Michigan State University Oakland, has accepted appointment to the citizens committee of the Michigan Association of the Professions, it was announced by William M. LeFevre, M. D., Muskegon, president of MAP.

The citizens committee was created, Dr. LeFevre said, in order that MAP's activities may reflect the viewpoints of not only professional people but the community-at-large.

The advisory group is composed of recognized leaders in business, industry and civic affairs, he said, who will give expert advice to MAP in fields in which they excel or have valuable knowledge.

The group will meet officially at a luncheon in Detroit, Feb. 22, to review the association's policies and programs. The meeting will be held in conjunction with MAP's second Congress of the Professions to be held Feb. 22, 23 and 24 at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel.

MAP is an organization of men and women in the professions of architecture, dentistry, engineering, law, medicine, pharmacy and veterinary medicine.

Organized a little more than two years ago, MAP is receiving national recognition as the leader of the movement "to mobilize the potential strength of the professions and to speak as a single, powerful voice for all professions," LeFevre said.

Denies Canada Economy Relies on United States

OTTAWA (UPI)—The U.S. Embassy denied Tuesday that the Canadian economy is dominated by the United States and said Canada's trade imbalance should not be a source of worry.

Charge D'Affaires Willis C.
Armstrong, in the first public defense of U.S. interests made here during the current upsurge of Canadian nationalism, said U.S. investment was a small price to pay for capital which contributes to production and employment.

"If there is domination," he told a meeting of business paper editors, "its signs are not apparent to American officials concerned with Canadian-American relations."

A Wife Has Her Say— It's an Old Story . . .

CHICAGO (UPI)—Abe Cohen, 83, and his wife Ida, who'll celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary Sunday, had separate views today on keeping a marriage happy.

Mrs. Cohen, 77, urged a "nice, long courtship" — say four or five years — and you'll find out if your husband really loves you. It's the only way to be sure.

Husband Abe said they've been happy "because I let her talk."

Brazil is the largest U.S. motor vehicle export market. Brazil bought 86,000 vehicles last year, including 45,000 trucks.

Swimming Pools of Tomorrow to Clean Selves

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Swimming pools of tomorrow will clean and maintain themselves, according to Everett Landon of the National Swimming Pool Institute.

Landon noted that millions of dollars are being spent on pool safety, including electronic warning and safety devices designed to prevent accidents.

The swimming pool executive said the industry "is attaining billion dollar stature."

"Warning devices already are available that give instant alarm when any object falls into the water," Landon said. "Closed-circuit television surveillance systems for pools have been developed by electronic leaders."

But more than that, Landon said, is development of "the self-cleaning pool."

He pointed out that cleaning a pool now costs an average owner more than $20 a month, using long-handled vacuum cleaners and drainage.

According to Landon, a new device that "looks something like a miniature flying saucer" will solve this by automatically cleaning the pool floor and walls "with nothing more than the flow of incoming water."

Housewife Title OK With U.S. Women

NEW YORK (UPI) — America's housewives just want to be known as housewives, a copyrighted survey by Parade magazine showed.

At least 42.4 per cent of the women polled declared they were proud to be called housewives.

But 25.6 per cent thought the term "homemaker" more suitable. And 7.7 per cent preferred the title of "home manager."

Nearly 4 per cent of the women participating refused to commit themselves.

When It Comes to Theft She Puts Foot Down

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — When Mrs. Tekla Symonlak puts her foot down — she means business.

Three would-be bandits entered her grocery Monday and demanded money.

Mrs. Symonlak stamped her foot and said:

"This is a burglar alarm, run for your lives."

The three turned and ran.

Parking a Woe in Major Cities

Foreign and Compact Cars Eyed as Relief From Problem

NEW YORK (UPI) — The small foreign car and the compact American car may help solve a part of the parking problem in major U.S. cities.

This was the opinion of more than half of the municipal officials who responded to a survey conducted by the makers of a Japanese auto, (Datsun).

Of the 296 largest cities in the country queried, 94 responded.

Sixty-nine cities reported it has become difficult or nearly impossible for an average shopper to find parking space in a downtown area.

Fifty-one said that the increased size of standard model cars contributed substantially to the difficult situation.

Suggestions for alleviating the parking problem included: elimination of on-street parking; the building of additional off-street parking facilities; establishment of one-way street; increased turning radius at intersections and, synchronized signals.

The survey indicated that most experts believed the parking problem can be lessened with positive planning, and that smaller cars might be part of the answer.

JFK in Tip-Top Shape

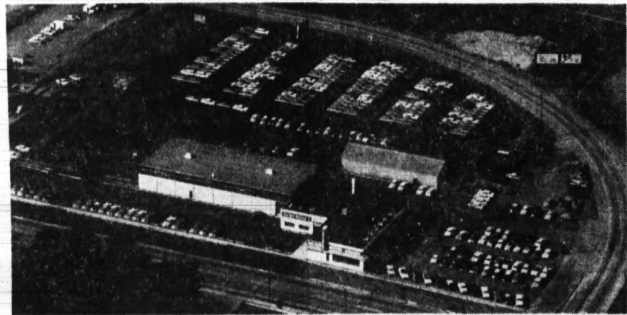

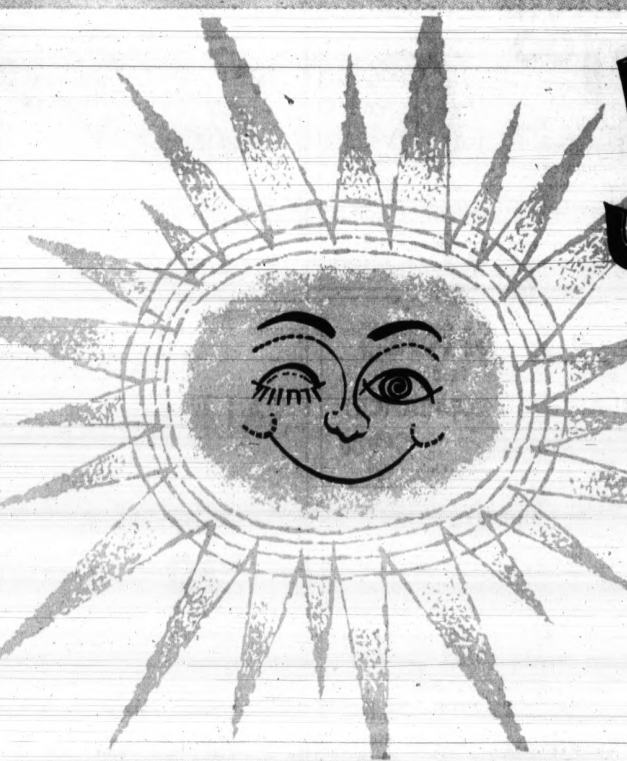

CHICAGO (UPI) — President-Elect John F. Kennedy, who has experienced a variety of ailments over the years, will begin his four year term in the White House in "superb physical condition," his doctors were quoted as saying Monday.

More than half of all U.S. passenger cars are less than six years old.

Silent Heart Attacks Are Cause for Alarm

CHICAGO (UPI) — Some 10 to 15 per cent of heart attacks among urban, middle-aged men occur without causing noticeable pain a group of Chicago physicians reported after a four-year study of 756 utility corporation employees.

The research team, headed by Dr. H. A. Lindberg, said the findings emphasize the advisability of electrocardiograms to detect such "silent" heart attacks.

Exams Loom for U. of M. Students

By SHARON WARREN

With semester examinations looming on the horizon, students have increased their study pace. Schedules are leaving less and less time for the extracurricular. All organizations plan final activities to take place a week before the exam period which is Jan. 23 to Feb. 1. Nevertheless some students are active right up to the last minute.

Eighteen students have been named to the staff of Challenge.

A University of Michigan organization designed to increase awareness of world issues through talks by noted personalities.

"The Challenge of Emerging Nations" will be the topic as the group enters its second active semester in mid-February. Elaine Grossbart of Bloomfield Hills and Wendy C. Manek of Middlebelt Road will be among Challenge staffers who will prepare a 15 to 20 page background booklet on each topic.

Elaine is a freshman enrolled in the college of literature, science and the arts. Wendy is a freshman enrolled in nursing.

Sheila Goldberg, a freshman from O'Leary Road maintains a balance between work and fun. She interrupted her chemistry studying to tell me that she is a member of Michigan's synchronized swimming group on campus. During the semester break, Sheila will be relaxing with her friends at Ohio State University. She is planning a career in medical technology.

Being activities chairman for Hunt House of Merckley Hall carries many busy days for Mary Bleckley of Birmingham. She planned and executed a mother's weekend, is organizing exam snacks for the girls in her house, and is planning spring weekend fun, just to mention a few of her activities.

Dec. 18 holds a special significance for Joannee Bush of Birmingham, for she was "pinned" to Paul Stottmeyer, a Phi Kappa Tau fraternity member, from Wayne, Ind., on that date. Joannee is a junior enrolled in the college of literature, science, and the arts. Her pinmate is a junior in engineering.

He graciously responded with a short, quiet, beautiful encore — The English folk song arranged by Percy Grainger, "Early One Morning."

The concluding number on the program was the American Salute: "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" by Morton Gould which made clever use of trumpet and brass and was enthusiastically received by the audience.

The largest audience of the season thus far gave Mr. Morse an outstanding ovation as he returned to the podium many times to receive the tribute of the audience and the orchestra.

He graciously responded with a short, quiet, beautiful encore — The English folk song arranged by Percy Grainger, "Early One Morning."

Symphony Concert, Artists Outstanding

By A. MICHAEL DESIMPLEY

The Pontiac Symphony Orchestra presented its third concert of the season last night in the Pontiac Northern High School Auditorium. It was an all-Pontiac program featuring local duo-pianists Gary and Deanna Relyea and guest conductor Richard L. Morse.

The program opened with the "Roman Carnival Overture" by Berlioz. This composition is a difficult work with many challenges to both orchestra and conductor.

Mr. Morse captured the numerous moods of the overture and the various sections and soloists within the orchestra responded admirably to the frequent occasions where perfection was demanded of them.

Berlioz' "Symphony in C Major" followed the overture. A beautiful glow came in the second movement highlighted this work. The balance and blend of the string section was particularly evident in all four movements of this symphony.

Much has been written on the respective merits of various orchestra seating arrangements. Many observers were of the opinion that the seating of the cellos on the conductor's right and the placing of the violins together in a large group greatly improved the intonation of the strings and added better balance to the section.

Guest artists Gary and Deanna Relyea opened the second half of the program with the playing of the "Bach Double Piano Concerto in C Minor." The Relyeas performed with their usual flawless technique and ease of performance throughout the work. The duo-pianists have a rhythmic and powerful style in their playing of Bach which especially captures the spirit and drive of the Baroque period.

Their general interpretation and use of dynamics showed exceptional musical maturity and a fine sense of ensemble. The Relyeas also played an encore, the familiar two piano number by the American composer Darius Milhaud, "Scarampache."

One of a group of lighter compositions which closed the program, "Gay but Worried" by Percy Grainger, had an appealing British folk song quality and was well played by the orchestra.

demonstrate to the community what can be done with the retarded child," he said.

CITIES COOPERATION
"Parents banded together in a common cause," he said, "can provide an opportunity for each other to talk out their problems." Through such groups practical assistance for children in institutions has been made possible by the purchase of needed equipment and furnishings and by the provision of entertainment and par-

The panel pointed up the changing role of the institution during the past 10 years. "Formerly it was the end point, a depository for all the problems no one knew what to do with," Presently, some institutions, such as the Plymouth Home, are seeing their role as a pivot point where, beginning with the young child, the mentally retarded can be helped over stress periods in growth and development."

Style Show at MSUO 8:30 Tonight

An hour-long fashion show presented by Orchestra, modern dance chapter at Michigan State University Oakland, will conclude the university's 10-day International Festival.

Set for 8:30 p.m. this evening at the Student Center, the program will be narrated by Fran Wheeler, coordinator of women's services of a national society.

Mrs. Inga Fritz has directed the models. She is adviser to Orchestra. President of the group is Gay Wilson who is working closely with the school's Hi-Fi Club to set up international music.

Student festival chairman Dimitri Genova and Betty Onigge have arranged for souvenir recipe folders to be distributed. The program is free and the public is invited.

To Square Dance

Wagon Wheelers Square Dance Club members will dance Thursday at Waterford Community Activities Building from 8 to 10:30 p.m.

The round dance of the month "Red Head" will be taught by Mel Sheffer, the club's caller. Officers will be elected at the close of the affair.

To Host Sorority Alumnae Group in Birmingham

Mrs. Duane R. Kincaid of Kimberly Road, Birmingham, will be hostess to the Detroit North Suburban Alumnae Club of Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority Thursday.

Mrs. Robert Lange will assist the hostess with dessert at 8 p.m. Plans will be outlined to members by Mrs. Paul J. King of Orchard Lake, chairman of the February telephone bridge party. Proceeds will be used for the sorority's national altruistic work with cerebral palsy.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Warren Nielsen of Royal Oak, altruistic chairman, will help the group make hand puppets for the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Will Debut With Severo Ballet Co.

Sandra Forsyth, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Forsyth of Edgewood Park Drive, Walled Lake, will appear in three ballets when the Severo Ballet Co. appears in a Severo Scholarship Fund performance Sunday. The program will begin at 3:30 p.m. in Ford Auditorium with accompaniment by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Miss Forsyth, who is in her first season with the company, will appear as a Blue attendant in "Savanna's Wedding" and will dance in "Concerto," an abstract, modern ballet. She also will appear in "Parade," a satirical number featuring a can-can.

Proceeds will benefit the dancers of the company, which offers membership to all qualified Detroit area dancers through audition. Funds will provide training in ballet and modern and ethnic dance, and bring to Detroit outstanding instructors.

Tickets may be obtained by calling the Severo Ballet, Inc., on Woodward Avenue in Detroit.

Nancy Mize Honored at Showers

Nancy Esther Mize of Menominee Road, who will marry Charles C. Crowley, was honored Saturday at two bridal showers.

Gifts of linens were opened in the afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Gale and daughter Sharon of Francesca Drive, Loon Lake. Mrs. George E. Mize and Mrs. Lyle D. Crowley of Waterford Township, mothers of the engaged couple, attended with Mrs. Alfred Gale and Mrs. C. C. Lippard, grandmothers of the couple.

Other guests were Mrs. Percy Walton, Mrs. Roy Stroupe, Mrs. Carroll Braid, Mrs. Arac Nahlich, Mrs. Gale Handell, Mrs. Gerald Hubbard, Mrs. Fred Kempe, Sally and Judy Kempe, Betty Crowley, Charles French and Martha Poir.

Coming from Waterford were Mrs. Charles Bartlett and Mrs. Don Bain, Mrs. Floyd Gale and Mrs. Raymond Lambke of Williams ton, Mrs. Albert Fivon of Birmingham and Mrs. James Braid of Detroit.

Janis Quick was hostess at the evening shower in her home on Dewey Street, Sylvan Manor. The guests included Mrs. Mize, Mrs. Crowley, Mrs. William Carr, Mrs. Robert Isgrigg, Mrs. Walter Stonehouse, Mrs. Carl Johnson, Mrs. Raymond Dobson, Mrs. Hardy Fair, Mrs. James Souders, Mrs. Gerald Hubbard and Mrs. Henry James.

Also present were Mrs. Bernice Karpelzer, Mrs. Carl Noever, Mary Ann Walsh, Kathy Walsh, Nicky Teichak, Cydney Williams of Detroit and Mrs. Owen Whitkop of Olivet.

Concluding the list were Ann Dekanian, Charlotte Johnson and the bridegroom—Charles' sister, Betty, who will be attendants at the Jan. 28 wedding.

About 24 million tons of concrete were used during the construction of the Grand Coulee dam that straddles and uses the Columbia river.

Plan OES Get Together

Pontiac Chapter No. 228, Order of the Eastern Star, is completing plans for a dinner and reception Monday in honor of officers of the Grand Chapter of Michigan: Elks Temple will be the scene of the affair.

Mrs. James M. Shaw of Walled Lake, worthy grand matron, will exemplify the degree of the order at 8 p.m., assisted by her grand officers and the grand committee. Dinner will be served at 6.

Mrs. Clarence D. Curry, worthy matron, has invited past matrons of the Pontiac Chapter to be hostesses.

Mrs. Roy Wilton will be in charge of housing; Mrs. Claude Coons and Mrs. Floyd Levey, reservations and tickets; Mrs. Earl Ross, Mrs. Sylvia Clark and Mrs. Joseph Minton, guest book and badges; Mrs. Elton Swartz and Mrs. A. J. Latozas, decorations; and Mrs. Leo Morrison and Mrs. Levey, gifts.

Janet Keane and Mrs. John Tietzen are new members of the order. They were presented by the Bible Degree Team at initiation ceremonies.

Beauty Clinic DEVELOP CHARM

by Edythe McCulloch

Not everyone can be beautiful but it is some consolation to know that we can all develop our own personal way of being charming. Webster says that this illusive word is the power to allure or delight. Use all your skill or trying to put other people at ease. Never think of yourself as the only one strange to your current situation. Think first of who else might share your plight and put them at ease immediately by working your situation out together. You can be so busy thinking of others that you will have time to worry about yourself. And others will think of you as charming.

Prize Winning Pie Has Almond and Cinnamon

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor
Kathy Callan's first pie went to the dog because no one would eat it. Her cherry pie Saturday took top honors in the Oakland County Cherry Pie Baking Contest. That's some improvement.
Kathy now has 10 days to do any more practicing that she may feel necessary before competing with other county winners at the state contest in Grand Rapids Jan. 26-27. The state winner goes to Chicago to try for the national title.

Kathy lives on a dairy farm and pitches in to help whenever needed. In addition to cooking, she has 4-H projects in gardening, sewing and leather craft. Kathy has all the earmarks of a good homemaker at the age of 14.

Here is her pie recipe: CHERRY PIE By Kathy Callan

Crust: 1 1/2 cups sifted all purpose flour 1 teaspoon salt

Honeymoons in North

Mary Jean Stone Weds

Airman 2.C. Jack E. Peck and his bride, the former Mary Jean Stone, left for a honeymoon in Northern Michigan following their marriage Saturday in the First Baptist Church.

Standing beneath an archway of white gladioli, the couple repeated vows to the Rev. Gerald Rapelle, pastor of Memorial Baptist Church.

Parents of the newlyweds, the Glyn D. Steggs of Sanford Street and the Kenneth Pecks of Clarkston, greeted some 250 guests at a church reception.

The bride's floor-length gown of white Chantilly-type lace over tulle was styled with molded bodice, scalloped neckline and wrist-point sleeves. Fingert velling of silk illusion fell from a headpiece of seed pearls.

ORCHID TOPS BIBLE: She held a white lace-covered Bible topped with a white orchid.

Soft fabric roses and streamers gave back interest to a dress of apricot tulle with crisscrossed tangerine cummerbund for honor matron Mrs. James McClrath Jr., sister of the bride.

Mrs. Glyn D. Stone served her sister-in-law as bridesmaid, with Sharon Nichols. Their dresses of tangerine tulle featured apricot-shade cummerbunds. All attendants carried tangerine carnations.

Frances McCurdy, wearing white organza, carried a basket of tangerine and apricot rose petals. Russell Sylvis of Clarkston, cousin of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

The new Mrs. Peck changed to a suit of Italian wool tweed with red accessories for the honeymoon.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Stone appeared in a blue wool sheath dress and black and white accessories. The mother of the bridegroom chose light blue lace with navy accessories. Both wore shoulder corsages of white carnations.

The bridegroom is stationed at Kelly AFB, San Antonio, Tex.

Among out-of-town guests were the bride's grandmother Mrs. Alfred Shanley of South Haven and Mrs. John Sylvis of Ludington and Mrs. Warren Peck of Clarkston, grandmothers of the bridegroom.

He'll Call the Tune

Allendale Square Dance Club met at the John D. Pierce Junior High School Saturday evening with Sam Joan calling the steps.

Group Psychology WorksForm a Marathon Club

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
I offered you my Eight-Week Self-Improvement Marathon last week. Thousands and thousands of my readers joined. I think the fact that so many are "in this" together is one reason for the Marathon's popularity. Although you cannot see them, you know that many other women you have never met are exercising and counting calories just as you are, to see how much they can improve their appearance in eight weeks' time.

It is so much more fun and so much easier when you have company. It would be a good idea to form a Marathon club in your neighborhood. In different parts of the country women have done this with great success and a good time for all.

One such group met to exercise together twice a week and had a delicious luncheon once a week. They brought their charts to this weekly luncheon and compared results in weight loss and in measurements. After that, if they had time, they played bridge.

One of the members of this group told me that they all were ashamed to bring their record sheets unless they had stuck to their calorie counting and exercise. Each member carried on with her diet and exercise on the days she did not meet with the others, but the three-times-a-week meeting was a great spur toward success.

Many women could do this for just eight weeks. If there are others in your neighborhood who would enjoy this adventure, why not talk to them about it? It's a special fun when you have a jolly bunch.

The first two weeks are the hardest when reducing. After that the stomach will have shrunk some and you will not feel so hungry. Also, remember that the bulky, but low-calorie foods such as celery and carrot sticks, are good to chew on between meals. They are healthful and filling and have few calories.

If you missed my Eight-Week Self-Improvement Marathon last week you still can join if you wish. 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for the Marathon booklet to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

The Library of Congress and its annex cover more than 36 acres of floor space.

Use Attached String To Turn Spaghetti Straps

Dear Mrs. Farmer,

"I would like to make those narrow shoulder straps that are used on ready-made dresses but I can't get them to turn out right. I nearly always wind up doing them by hand to get them the size I want. Would sure appreciate your help with this."

Mrs. O.W.F.

The narrow straps you refer to are often called spaghetti straps. They can also be used as belts. Cut bias strips of your fabric 1 1/4" wide. Machine stitch a narrow cord or heavy string to the end of the RIGHT side of your strip.

Fold this strip, right side in, with cord inside, and using your zipper foot, machine stitch about 1/4" from this fold. The 1/4" stitching will make a very narrow cord. If you desire a wider cording, machine stitch farther from the fold.

Trim the cut edges of the fabric 1/4" from the stitching line. Clip a little closer at the end where you attach the string. Pull the string CAREFULLY and slowly until it begins to turn the fabric. If your stitches are breaking, you have used too small a machine stitch. When the entire cord has been turned you will have a finished cording.

Dear Eunice:

"I have a dress of acetate and rayon woven satin and it was too short. I let the hem down and now I can't get the creases out. Have you any suggestions?"

Mrs. M.M.M.

Rayon is the most stubborn of all fabrics when it comes to removing a pressed crease. If this hem has been pressed many times, it is doubtful if it will ever come out.

I would advise you to remove the hem so that the fabric is flat. Now take it to the dry cleaners and see if they can get the marks out by applying a cleaning solution to the hem marks.

They can then clean your dress and if it is at all possible to remove the marks, they will be removed.

Now you can decide whether it would be best to make the hem in the original place, or if you will be able to make it longer.

Dear Mrs. Farmer,

"I always have a sleeve problem as they are always too large for the armhole. Try as I can, I can never ease all the fullness in without my sleeve looking gathered. How can I overcome this without cutting the armholes larger?"

Mrs. E.W.

From the hundreds of letters I have received about sleeves, I am convinced that this is one of the most difficult techniques of sewing to master. Because of the limited space, I can't go into each detailed step as I would like in this column. I have prepared a leaflet with detailed instructions on sleeves which is available to you. Please send 10 cents and a large, stamped, self-addressed envelope to Sew Simple, in care of your newspaper and request your copy of "All About Sleeves."

Two Lose Lives in Area Blazes

A 16-year-old Highland Township inside the front doorway and the housewife and a 64-year-old 10-year-old son were killed in a fire which broke out in their homes in fires which occurred within four hours of each other yesterday.

The victims were Mrs. L. (Gertrude) Reddick of 302 Jackson Blvd., Highland Township and Eugene Green of 238 Dickinson St., Romeo.

Flames from the Highland Township and White Lake Township departments found Mrs. Reddick's body in her bedroom as a blaze was raging in her nursery. Cause of fire at about 3 p.m.

Flames gutted the interior of the Reddick home and did an estimated $12,000 damage, according to Highland Township Asst. Fire Chief Kenneth Hovson.

Hovson, who said his department had been called to put out a fire at the same home six months ago, reported that it took firemen from the two departments over two hours to extinguish the blaze.

However, the fire which claimed Green's life did little damage to his home.

Romeo police said Green's clothing caught fire when he used kerosene to light a small coal stove in his residence.

When Romeo-Larson entered the home shortly after 11 a.m., they found Green's body lying just

KERCACH ARMSTRONG

Mendon Church Set for Moody Glee Club

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP—The Men's Glee Club from the Moody Institute in Chicago will present a public concert of sacred music at the Mendon Lake Community Church at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

The 40-voice choir is directed by Kerchal Armstrong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Armstrong of Fremont Avenue, Pontiac, and a graduate of the Moody Institute.

A 1915 graduate of Pontiac Central High School, Armstrong attended the National Music Camp at Interlochen on a scholarship. He is now on the faculty of the Moody school and performs extensively in the Chicago area in musical groups.

The glee club is composed of students from all over the country, many of whom are studying to be pastors, missionaries, Christian education workers, evangelists and church musicians.

The Mendon Lake Church is located on Round Lake Road, just north of Cooley Lake Road.

In Ortonville, North Branch 2 Post Offices to Be Built

The Post Office Department today announced plans for construction of two postal buildings in the area, one in Ortonville and the other in North Branch.

The Ortonville post office building will be erected on a 125x57-foot lot on the south side of Mill Street, between Pond and Church streets.

Ortonville Postmaster Frances Leece has been informed by the department that the structure will contain about 2,000 feet of floor space.

The land on which the building will be located has been optioned from Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Boschman of 19 Church St.

The 115x75-foot lot on the north-east corner of Lincoln and Banker streets in North Branch was optioned from Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Podvin of 8874 Jefferson St.

The North Branch post office building will include approximately 2,200 feet of floor space, according to Leroy G. Holman, the village's postmaster.

Both sites will have space for loading platforms and parking.

The two new facilities will be constructed under the government's commercial leasing program, which utilizes the resources and investment funds of private enterprise to obtain needed postal buildings.

Building forms, specifications and other data will be made available to bidders in about six weeks by the Post Office Department.

Under the program, the site option will be transferred to the successful bidder who will purchase the land, construct the building and lease it to the government on a long-term basis.

Discussion Set for High School PTA Meeting

ORCHARD LAKE — Techniques used in teaching high school students to read will be discussed tomorrow by a panel of teachers at the 8 p.m. meeting of the West Bloomfield High School Parent-Teacher Association.

Teachers participating in the program are Mrs. Ruth Baker, head of the English department at West Bloomfield High School, and Sue Eckley, remedial reading teacher at the Lincoln Junior High School in Pontiac.

The other panelists are Mrs. Lorraine Leland, substitute teacher in the Pontiac School System and John Buchanan, head of the English department at Lincoln Junior High and father vice president of the West Bloomfield High School PTA.

Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Cash Register, Tires Are Stolen in Troy

TROY — Thieves escaped with three tires and a cash register containing an unknown amount of cash early today after breaking into a gas station owned by a Pontiac man.

Police said the culprits gained entry to Brown's City Service Station at 1409 E. Maple Road by breaking a window on the west side of the building. The station is owned by Leroy Brown of 114 E. Howard St., Pontiac.

Back 4-Mill Tax in Walled Lake

School Levy Renewal Endorsed by Jaycees; Vote Set Jan. 30

WALLED LAKE — The proposed renewal of a four-mill school operation tax in the Walled Lake School District has been endorsed by the Junior Chamber of Commerce here.

The Walled Lake Jaycees announced today their full support of the campaign to retain the tax levy in the Jan. 30 special election.

The current four-mill tax for day-to-day operation of the schools was approved by voters in 1957 and expires this year. If the proposal passes, it would be continued for another four years.

The special tax levy brings approximately $250,000 into the school district annually, according to Supt. Clifford H. Smart, and represents about 28 per cent of the total school budget.

The Walled Lake School District has a total operating tax of $14.12 for each $1,000 of assessed valuation.

This includes $8.12 allocated by the county and another $2 special levy voted by the people several years ago. The additional two-mill levy expires in two years.

Planning Board Vote to Come Up April 3

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP—Take a test before a permit is issued to them.

It was first believed that a homeowner was required to take an examination before qualifying for a permit. All wiring done, however, will have to be checked by an electrical inspector, Fish explained.

The action follows a meeting last week of the township board at which the potential of a planning board was explained by Clyde Cook, of the Oakland County Planning Commission.

Cook's explanation was related to the 40 persons in the audience last night and, according to Supervisor Edward Chey, the proposal was greeted "enthusiastically."

If the proposition is approved in April the present zoning board would be abolished. Township officials would have one year to transfer the duties of the zoning board to the planning board.

The township planning board was created by a state act in 1959 and gives greater powers in preparing for future needs of the community.

The object of the planning board is to make recommendations and suggestions toward the physical development of the township. It also would prepare a master plan.

However, the township board has the authority to reject the ideas if it so desires.

In other business the township board approved a plan for a 130-lot subdivision to be located on Union Lake Road just south of Ellizabeth Lake Road.

It will be known as Erwin Farms Subdivision. Ground is expected to be broken at the site in the spring.

A clarification regarding the reciprocal trade code and the proposed electrical board was explained by Donald Fish, township building inspector.

Fish told the township board that homeowners wanting to wire their own homes do not have to

Detroit Woman Hurt in Crash Near Romeo

ROMEO—A 31-year-old Detroit woman was reported in satisfactory condition today following a head-on collision at Van Dyke and Camp Ground Road about six miles south of here yesterday.

Injured in the two-car crash was Mrs. Charles E. (Della) Bradley whose husband was driving the car in which she was riding when it collided with one carrying four Warren youths.

Driver of the other car was Frank A. Guerra, 17, of Warren. State police said Guerra was traveling south on Van Dyke. He was ticketed for an improper left hand turn.

The collision occurred as Guerra was turning left onto Camp Ground Road in front of the Bradleys' northbound car, police reported. Mrs. Bradley suffered severe lacerations of the neck, face and head. No one else was hospitalized.

Set 1st General Meeting

'Friends' to Get Rolling

AVON TOWNSHIP—The new-town public service institution—formed Friends of the Library group will adopt bylaws and elect charter officers at its first general meeting in Woodward Memorial Library at 8 p.m. Friday.

The Friends of the Library movement was started recently by residents who believed that the township's library facilities were not keeping pace with the rapid population growth of the area.

According to Mrs. James Headlee, spokeswoman for the new group, the township library currently operates on an annual budget of $12,000 which has to provide expenses for heat, light and salaries for the librarian and her assistant.

The amount that is left over after the expenses are paid is used to purchase books, she said.

"The group's mission is to bring the public library up to date— from a 12,000 to a 21,217 population."

The whole situation could easily be remedied with donations from every family in Avon Township and from parents in Oakland Township whose children are in the Rochester Junior High School.

The Rochester Junior Woman's Club is sponsoring a stage show, "Red Stocking Review," to help the Friends of the Library reach their goal.

The show will be presented March 18-19 at Rochester Junior High School.

The rainfall in the Hawaiian Islands ranges from less than 20 inches annually in some areas to a maximum of about 500 inches in others.

SHARON LEE WOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence G. Wood of 74308 Spencer St., Ann Arbor, announce the engagement of their daughter Sharon Lee to Daniel F. Chrysler, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Chrysler of Capac. No date has been set for the wedding.

School Funds Smart's Topic at Decker PTA

WALLED LAKE—The financing phase of the Michigan schools study will be discussed Monday by Superintendent Clifford H. Smart at the 8 p.m. meeting of the Decker Elementary Parent-Teacher Association.

The proposed renewal of a 4-mill tax levy for operational needs of the school district also will be explained by Smart.

The special election on the proposal will be held Jan. 26.

A half-hour before the meeting parents will be able to visit teachers and see the classrooms.

Teaching materials and aides as well as PTA publications will be displayed in the multipurpose room.

A majority of all homes in the U.S. have six electric appliances. They include the electric iron, radio, electric clock, refrigerator, electric washer and the toaster.

Try to Restrict Parking of Commercial Vehicles

FARMINGTON—A proposed ordinance restricting commercial vehicles from parking in residential areas has been introduced to the City Council for study.

On adoption the ordinance would prohibit commercial vehicles weighing more than one ton from parking on residential streets.

However, if the vehicle can be housed in a garage it will be permitted in the residential district. The ordinance also will apply to taxicabs.

Commerce OES Chapter Holds Friendship Night

COMMERCIAL TOWNSHIP—Some 250 members and guests were held by the Commerce Chapter 331, Order of the Eastern Star, at its annual friendship party last night.

Representatives of 21 Oakland County OES chapters attended the event held at the Commerce Masonic Temple.

Lovesick Note to Area Girl Found in Italy

ROME (AP)—A love letter purporting to be from a heartbroken American youth to his girl friend has washed up on an Italian shore.

According to the scratchy handwriting on the envelope, it was from R. C. Morrison of 1994 Inkster Road, Detroit, Mich., to Miss Rima Danielson of 504 N. Vermont, Royal Oak, Mich.

The letter was dated Oct. 22, 1960, and the envelope bore a seven-cent U.S. airmail stamp that apparently had not been postmarked. Two Italian girls found it Sunday inside a sealed plastic container on Lavinio Beach near Rome.

The girls took the letter to the Rome newspaper, Parce Sera, which published an Italian translation of the contents.

The writer, who signed himself Ralph, said he was going to throw the letter into the sea "because I love you too much." He said he had been trying "or over a year to forget Rima but couldn't."

"You will always be my love," the letter said. "May God bless you."

At her home in Royal Oak, Mich., Miss Danielson said Morrison is serving in the Navy. She said she had met the youth at a dance and the last time she saw him was last September.

NEW CUBS — These six youngsters became Cub Scouts at a Bobcat Indian Ceremony held Monday night at Mark Twain Elementary School. They are now proud members of Cub Pack 53. Officiating at the ceremony is Cubmaster Albert Koop. Receiving their bobcat pins from their mothers and den mothers are

Area Jaycees to Reveal Outstanding Man Today

Pontiac's "outstanding young man of the year" will be announced this evening at the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce's annual Bosses Night banquet at Devine Gables Inn.

He will be selected by three independent judges. Milo Cross, president of Pontiac State Bank; Ralph T. Norvell of Norvell Insurance Agency in Pontiac; and Horace Lodge, assistant vice president of Community National Bank.

The Jaycees also will select an "outstanding boss of the year," and a "key man" from their group.

Members will be accompanied by their bosses at the banquet scheduled for 7-11 p.m.

The outstanding young man will not be necessarily a Jaycee. He will be chosen for his services to the Pontiac community outside of those connected with his employment, and will receive the coveted Distinguished Service Award. The outstanding boss will be chosen on the same basis.

The key man will be selected for his contributions to Jaycee activities over the past year.

Commemorative plaques will be presented to the key man and boss by the Pontiac Jaycees.

Gus Stager of the University of Michigan, who coached the U.S. swimming team in the Olympics at Rome this summer, will be the main speaker at the banquet. He is swimming coach at the U. of M. Chairman of tonight's program is Dr. Leo Wasserberger, a Pontiac dentist. Glenn Griffin, board of education member, will be toastmaster.

Shift Pilots in Congo

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Ten Argentine air force officers left Tuesday for El Salvador, the Congo. They will replace 10 Argentine pilots who have been flying transports for the U.N. force in the Congo for several months.

Accusing U.S. Again

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev in a statement published Tuesday accused the United States of taking measures for intervention in Laos to convert it into a SEATO (Southeast Asia Treaty Organization) base.

Greek fire, a mixture of petroleum with various chemicals, was used by Constantinople to maintain naval power in the Mediterranean for centuries.

DAVID S. TEEL

Administrative Aide to Willman

David Teel, 25, Spent 6-Month Internship at City Hall

City manager Walter R. Willman has appointed David S. Teel, a student of governmental administration, as his administrative assistant.

Teel, 25, comes to the $3,615-a-year post after spending six months at City Hall in an administrative internship from the Wharton School of Business and Governmental Administration of the University of Pennsylvania. He will specialize in urban renewal and civil defense.

A graduate of Michigan State University with a degree in political science, Teel expects to receive his master's degree in governmental administration next month from the University of Pennsylvania.

During the past six months, Teel has aided Willman and Assistant City Manager Robert A. Storer in the areas of urban renewal and civil defense, and in the preparation of Willman's six-year capital improvement program.

The position of administrative assistant has been vacant since Storer, who once held it, was appointed assistant city manager a year ago.

Teel, married, lives at 718 DeSoto Place.

Fire at Home in Bloomfield

A grandmother, her three daughters and their four children escaped a $2,000 fire in their Bloomfield Township home yesterday afternoon.

One of the daughters, Mrs. Martha Long, 25, discovered the fire at 608 Highland Ave. when she spotted smoke pouring upstairs in the kitchen from the basement of the two-story frame house.

She roused the grandmother, Mrs. Eloise Long, 44, who was sleeping in a bedroom and together with the other two daughters, Mrs. Mary Kille, 21, and Mrs. Emma Shellen, 20, they ushered the four youngsters, ranging in age from 12 months to five years, to safety. Pontiac firemen fought the flames in the six-room house for 1½ hours before they were extinguished. An overheated coal furnace is believed to have caused the fire.

More than one-third of the male doctors in America earn more than $20,000 a year, according to a recent survey.

Make Hot or Cold Mushroom Appetizers

Early Roman records show that mushrooms were considered a food of the gods and for the enjoyment of aristocracy. It's easy to see why a food so delicious and so versatile should have gained such regal status. Fortunately for us, however, mushrooms are grown in such abundance today that all can enjoy them at moderate cost.

Modern cooks and those who appreciate good food have learned to add mushrooms skillfully to many dishes to give that aristocratic touch that has been an enduring characteristic of this fine food over the centuries.

The interesting flavor of mushrooms, however, is important enough to plan recipes around and that's what we've done in these hors d'oeuvres which have been designed for special occasion functions for the holidays or throughout the year whenever groups gather for fun. The preparation of each is simple enough to serve for the most impromptu occasion yet elegant enough for the most important occasion.

Since an assortment of hors d'oeuvres usually includes some hot-some cold, we've given you both to fit the particular mood. And in line with the versatility of mushrooms, you'll find they have a completely different flavor when used hot or cold and do something very different when used whole or chopped. A little experimenting will surely bring mushrooms into a place of importance in your parties from now on.

To start with, here are four suggestions we've tried with success which we want to share with you.

Mushroom Burger Hors d'oeuvres
1 pound ground beef
2 cups (1 cup each) mushrooms stems and stems, drained and chopped
1 teaspoon onion powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 package (1 1/2 cups) sliced sauté rye bread
Combine all ingredients, except bread; mix lightly. Spread mushroom-meat mixture over rye bread slices. Place on baking sheet. Broil about 4 inches from heat for 5 minutes or until meat is browned. Garnish with sliced mushrooms, if desired. Serve hot. Makes about 3 dozen hors d'oeuvres.

Savory Mushroom Cheese Dip
1 package (8 oz.) cream cheese, not fat
1/2 cup (1/4 cup) mushrooms stems and stems, drained and chopped
2 drops Tabasco sauce
1/2 cup (1/4 cup) mushrooms stems and stems, drained and chopped
1/2 cup (1/4 cup) mushrooms stems and stems, drained and chopped
Combine cream cheese, French dressing, dry mustard and Tabasco. Beat until light and fluffy. Add mushrooms and parsley; mix well. Chill, covered, several hours or overnight to blend flavors. Let stand at room temperature for about one hour to soften before serving. Serve with potato chips, crackers, cucumber slices, carrots or celery sticks. Makes about 3 1/2 cups dip.

Mushrooms Borsai
1 cup (1/2 cup) each: whole mushrooms, stems and stems, drained and chopped
1/2 cup (1/4 cup) mushrooms stems and stems, drained and chopped
1/2 cup (1/4 cup) mushrooms stems and stems, drained and chopped
1/2 cup (1/4 cup) mushrooms stems and stems, drained and chopped

Slowly cook mushrooms and instant minced onion in butter or margarine for about 10 minutes, stirring often; sprinkle with parsley. Blend sour cream and curry powder. Serve hot mushrooms with cocktail picks to dip into cream mixture. Makes about 8 servings.

Mushrooms Italiano
1 can (14 oz.) whole mushrooms
1 can (14 oz.) tomato spaghetti sauce

In teaspoon leaf oregano
Grated parmesan cheese
Heat mushrooms and drain. Combine spaghetti sauce and oregano in saucepan; simmer for 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Serve sauce hot in chafing dish or dish with candle warmer. Provide cocktail picks and bowl of cheese for dipping hot mushrooms. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Coconut brings a touch of the tropics for winter eating. And you can pick a good one says the Marketing Information Agent, M. A. Josephine Lawver. Select fresh coconuts that are heavy for their size. This indicates plenty of milk. Coconuts will keep in the home refrigerator a month or more. Coconuts will stay fresher and will be a better product when you are ready to eat them, if you store them with the eyes down.

Chicken Is Kind to Waist, Purse

This is shape-up time in the kitchen. The holiday season has taken its toll of budgets and bellies, and has left its aftermath of good resolutions and jaded appetites... a double challenge to the family meal-planner.

To perk up palates without putting any undo additional strain on the pocketbook, we suggest the exotic economy of chicken, skilfully cooked in the oriental manner. Chicken is a real bargain, in price and in calories, and it's low in the saturated fats that tend to put a strain on weight watchers' diets. And, when it's prepared in this unusual, Far Eastern manner, the penny and pound wise dish is sure to generate plenty of mealtime excitement.

Fried Chicken Oriental
1 fryer, dressed
Pungent vegetable oil to depth of 1 inch in skillet
1/2 cup (1/4 cup) mushrooms stems and stems, drained and chopped
1/2 cup (1/4 cup) mushrooms stems and stems, drained and chopped
1/2 cup (1/4 cup) mushrooms stems and stems, drained and chopped
1/2 cup (1/4 cup) mushrooms stems and stems, drained and chopped

Brown chicken in vegetable oil. Remove chicken and drain off oil but 2 tablespoons oil and browned bits. Brown onions lightly. Add remaining ingredients, cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until thickened. Replace chicken, covered and simmer 10 minutes. Four servings.

Belgian Unrest Rooted in Age-Old Conflict

By PHIL NEWSON
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Aside from the huge financial losses suffered in Belgium's postwar boom, Socialist-led strikes, Belgium's very form of government is threatened.

The Congo triggered the strikes but other causes go deeper and at least one of them is not confined to Belgium.

Strike issues currently are estimated at around $14 million, or nearly $20 million more than Premier Gaston Eyskens' government hoped to save annually by its unique austerity legistion which the Socialists so vigorously oppose.

Socialist opposition to the law which last weekend the government rammed through the chamber of deputies springs from the charges that its new taxes would rest most heavily upon lower income groups.

Labor also bitterly opposed cuts in public expenditures for social insurance and education and in subsidies for uneconomic coal mines and railroads.

Current unrest has accentuated the differences between the French-speaking Walloons in the south and the Dutch-speaking Flemings in the north which have existed since Belgium became an independent nation in 1830.

Traditionally, the Walloon districts have made up Belgium's chief industrial areas.

Its metallurgical plants were the biggest employers and it prospered from the flow of iron and other minerals from Katanga province of the Belgian Congo.

Pay scales were higher than in the north and for more than 100 years the Walloons, although outnumbered by the Flemish, dominated Belgian affairs.

In recent years, the tide has been turning.

One of the keys is the decline of Southern Belgium's coal mines.

As surplus coal stocks piled up at pileheads all over Western Europe and as the use of coal declined before the advance of other fuels, the un-economic mines in Southern Belgium could not compete.

Whereas in 1957 the mines employed 152,000 men, in August 1960 they were employing 105,000. Partial unemployment also rose sharply.

At the same time new, more profitable coal mines have been opened up in the north. Foreign business stepped up its investments in the north to take advantage of lower wage scales and proximity to the sea.

Premier Eyskens' ruling Christian Society party drew its main strength from the Flemish districts. The Socialists predominant in the industrial areas of the south.

Now there are charges from the Walloon Socialists that the Eyskens government discriminates against them, and there have been grow-

Charged in Slaying of Wife, 11 Children

BEDFORD, Que. (AP) — Crown prosecutor Claude Noleux said he will charge Abel Vothburgh, 68, with murder today in the death of his wife and 11 children, whose bodies were found in their burned shanty home Dec. 29.

A coroner's jury Tuesday night found Vothburgh, sole survivor of the fire, criminally responsible.

As a crowd of 300 persons milled around outside the hearing room, Vothburgh denied he caused the fire and kept his family from escaping.

Cardinal's Visit Gives Stricken Dr. Dooley a Lift

NEW YORK (AP) — Cancer-stricken Dr. Thomas Dooley, the famous Los Angeles doctor, was buoyed up when Francis Cardinal Spellman paid him a 34th birthday visit at Memorial Hospital and bestowed his blessing Tuesday.

The doctor's brother, Malcolm, said the visit gave the doctor the biggest lift he had had since he entered the hospital Dec. 27.

The cardinal praised Dooley for his medical accomplishments.

Hospital authorities, who had limited visitors to members of the family, made an exception in the case of Cardinal Spellman.

The board of directors of Community National Bank yesterday elected Frank G. Androni, a former bank examiner, as vice president.

At the annual meeting, all directors were re-elected and all other officers re-appointed.

Androni, 31, has been head of the Detroit district of the federal bank examining department for the past two years.

For 10 years previous he was an examiner in the seventh federal reserve district in Chicago.

Married with one child, Androni plans to move his residence here from Detroit.

Request Is Backed

LANSING (UPI)—A request by Gaylord for local airline service was supported by the Michigan Aeronautics Commission at its monthly meeting Tuesday.

The commission will intervene in behalf of Gaylord before the Civil Aeronautics Board, a commission spokesman said.

Gaylord officials contend the area has adequate summer and winter passenger traffic potential to support local service.

It is estimated that corn plants diffuse two and one-half tons of water into the air while they are producing one bushel of corn.

Agriculture
Farewell for Benson

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Erza Talt Benson listed "certain facts about agriculture" Tuesday in his last news conference as agriculture secretary. The record he laid out appeared to be a challenge to the Kennedy administration.

Benson will relinquish his job Friday to former Minnesota Gov. Orville L. Freeman.

"It has always been this administration's position that the management of our farms and ranches is best left in the hands of farmers and ranchers themselves," Benson said in listing what he called "benchmarks."

"Local, state, and federal governments can and should provide sound help but farmers must be free to control their own operations and permit policy to play its traditional role in directing production and consumption."

Governor Tags Big Part of Budget for Education

LANSING (AP)—Education took the lion's share of the 1961-62 record budget recommended to the legislature last night by Gov. Swainson.

The governor asked that some $117.4 million be spent on education — nearly one quarter of the entire budget, and an increase of $9 million over the current fiscal year.

Of this, $106.1 million — an $8 million increase — was earmarked for higher education, including higher salaries.

"We cannot rest on our accomplishments," Swainson said. "There are serious challenges confronting our educational institutions."

To help meet these challenges, the governor recommended a $100,000 expenditure to finance a state council on higher education, $50,000 toward the start of a state scholarship program and $100,000 for a state foundation program.

Another new item was the program for the education of children of migrant workers, for which he recommended a $15,000 appropriation.

For community colleges, Swainson urged state aid payments of $215 per student, up $10 from the current payment.

The State Council on Higher Education would be assigned the task of setting up studies directed to uniform statewide policy within the college-level area.

The budget recommendations fell $23.5 million short of the amount requested by educational institutions and agencies.

For the University of Michigan, the cut was some $4.7 million short of the approximately $48.9 million asked.

Michigan State University's request for about $37.6 million was cut by more than $6 million. Wayne State took a $2.5 million cut in its request for about $19.4 million.

For the state's six other smaller colleges and universities, Swainson recommended an overall increase of some $3 million.

Recess Gas Rate Talks

LANSING (AP)—State Public Service Commission hearings on a Consumers Power Co. application for a $13.5 million annual gas rate increase have been postponed until Jan. 24.

OICUR4M2

But Ike, I'm Numb From Numbers

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — It's been more than 15 years since I looked at my dog tags, but I can still remember my army serial number. It was 2322670.

The telephone exchange to which my line is connected has assigned me No. 3355. My house number is 1053.

If I am sick enough to go to the hospital, I fill out an insurance form as Certificate holder 3322670. Should surgery become necessary, it would be performed upon Certificate No. 5859-190.

When a cup slipped me last week for ignoring a stop sign, he took down the number of my driver's license (408140). Then he handed me Ticket No. 9425.

It will exhaust my bank account (No. 2032) to pay the fine, but I need not worry. Three oil companies will sell me gasoline on credit upon the presentation of cards numbered 34729208, 34720270 and 248877015.

And in another 25 years, the government will take care of me under Social Security Account No. 69036831.

These are by no means all of the numbers that I represent. They are just the numbers that I happen to remember of "could find on cards in my wallet."

I compiled this partial list after reading in the new federal budget a proposal by President Eisenhower that we start paying our taxes by the numbers.

"Legislation should be enacted to authorize the adoption of tax account numbers which are needed for mechanical and electronic processing," the President said.

I assume this means that each taxpayer would be given a number so that his income tax return could be checked by a machine. If the machine found something wrong, the taxpayer would soon find himself wearing a federal prison number.

I want to be the first citizen to go on record as opposing this plan. It would only hasten the day, already close at hand, when names will become strictly meaningless.

If the numerical system of nomenclature is inevitable, what is needed is not another number to cope with, but a way to reduce the digital volume that we already have.

It would simplify matters if the government would assign each of us a single, all-purpose number which we could have tattooed across the forehead to spare us the trouble of carrying all those cards.

Dr. Proud Discusses School Counselors

Dr. Philip Proud, assistant superintendent of Pontiac schools, addressed the Oakland Area Counselors Association today at Madison High School, Madison Heights.

He discussed research being conducted in the Pontiac schools to determine how counselors use their time. It is an hourly account of how much time is spent in interviews, occupational counseling and record studying.

NEW ORLEANS BEIGNETS—Surprise your family and friends with piping hot fluffy doughnuts called Beignets. Served in the New Orleans

French Market, they are enjoyed by all who try them. They're simple to make at home.

French Market Beignets Enchant All Who Eat

Whenever you get to New Orleans, be sure you don't forget to go to the French Market. You'll share the same enchanting old world atmosphere that has drawn New Orleansians to it for a century and a half. Flower girls still sit beside their baskets, and turbaned vendors still hawk hot rice cakes. And, always, shoppers stop at the famous coffee stalls.

If you go there, you'll join the thousands who daily sip cups of coffee, frequently dunking hot, fluffy doughnuts called Beignets into the cups. And like most people, you'll want to be able to make these Beignets at home later.

For Beignets are a unique kind of doughnut—square, without the usual hole in the middle. To be at their best, they should be served piping hot, with a generous sprinkling of confectioners' sugar.

If you stay a while at the French Market, you'll discover that mink-coated society dowagers sit side by side at the marble-topped coffee counters with dungareed fishermen. No one is too rich or too poor to enjoy Beignets and coffee.

And north or south, these wonderful southern doughnuts are a welcome addition to the coffee hour.

New Orleans Beignets

1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening
1 package active dry yeast
1/2 cup very warm water (110-115)
1 egg, beaten
2 cups sifted flour (about)
Scald milk; stir in sugar, salt and shortening; cool to lukewarm. Sprinkle yeast into very warm water; stir until dissolved. Add lukewarm milk mixture, egg and half the flour. Beat well with mixer or spoon for one minute. Add remaining flour and more if needed to make soft dough.

Turn out onto lightly floured surface; knead until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl; cover and let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled, about 1 hour. Punch down and let rise again about 1/2 hour.

Roll out into square a scant 1/2-inch thick. Cut into 2 1/2 to 3-inch squares. Place on greased baking sheet; let rise until light, about 1 hour. Do not handle while rising or they will fall.

Fry in deep fat, heated to 375 degrees, for 2 minutes or until brown on each side; drain on absorbent paper. Serve piping hot, sprinkled generously with confectioners' sugar. Makes about 2 dozen.

You Can Always Try a New Dip

Serve a gay, deviled ham dip that's a snap to prepare, distinctive to taste and simply spectacular to look at for parties in the postholiday season. It's just made of lively-flavored deviled ham and cream cheese sprinkled brilliantly with specks of green pepper and relish. Be sure to serve it with king-size corn chips that are deliciously crisp, always tender, fresh and perfect for dipping.

Deviled Ham Dazzle Dip
1 1/2-ounce can deviled ham
1 3-ounce package cream cheese
1 tablespoon red pepper relish
1/2 cup chopped green pepper

Soften cream cheese and add deviled ham and most of the red pepper relish and chopped green pepper. Transfer mixture to party dish; garnish with remaining relish and pepper and accompany with king-size corn chips. Makes 1 cup.

Denies Killing Mate's Victim

Wife Asserts Husband Beat Her Before His Assault on 6-Year-Old

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (UPI)—Richard A. Lindsey's wife denied through her attorney today that her husband had killed a 6-year-old boy, a claim that she said he made after he was charged with the slaying of the child. Mrs. Dixie Lindsey, 23, mother of the child, said she was not present when her husband was charged with the slaying of the child. She said she was at home at the time and was not aware of her husband's whereabouts. She said she was not aware of her husband's whereabouts at the time of the slaying. She said she was not aware of her husband's whereabouts at the time of the slaying.

She claimed Lindsey threatened to "do her in" if she tried to stop him from assaulting the blonde, blue-eyed girl.

Lindsey, 20, a former mental patient, claimed Tuesday when Rose Marie's body was found in a field about an hour's ride from here that he raped and choked the child with his wife's consent, and that his wife then held the child by holding her on the head with a tire iron. An autopsy showed Rose Marie had been hit at least 19 times on the head by the wrench found along with an empty whiskey bottle of the scene. Two of her front teeth were knocked out by the blows and she had been raped, the autopsy showed.

Judges' Secretaries Get Together, Tour

The three secretaries to the Macomb County circuit judges were in Pontiac today visiting the free secretaries to the Oakland County circuit judges.

The visiting secretaries were taken through a tour of the court house, watched several courts in operation, and then had a luncheon at the Waldron Hotel.

Hostesses were Mrs. Reginald Bird, Judge William J. Bee's secretary; Mrs. Ralph Derrington, Judge Clark J. Adams; Mrs. Robert Williams, Judge H. Russell Holland; Mrs. Frank Cook, Judge Stanton G. Dandern; and Mrs. Harry Culwell, Judge Frederick C. Zim.

Invite Shows Foresight

HILLSIDE, N.J. (UPI)—Township Committee member Charles S. Mancuso, a Democrat, revealed an invitation last Friday, the 13th, to the inauguration of President-elect John F. Kennedy. The envelope, which was postmarked from Washington Feb. 12, 1961.

Waterford to Discuss Projects

$5-Million School Building Program in Final Phases

The last projects of Waterford Township's $5-million school building program, approved by voters two years ago, will be one of the main topics of discussion at tomorrow night's school board meeting.

The board will review final plans and specifications for the additions to the maintenance building on Pontiac Lake Road, and the board of education offices on Walpole Road at Clintonville Road.

Since the approval of the $5-million school bond issue in March 1958, three new elementary schools have been built and are presently being occupied; two more are under construction; and a $3.5-million senior high school is well on the way to completion.

Additions have been made to four elementary schools, at a total cost of $155,000; two future school sites have been purchased; and minor repairs have been made on five of the older schools.

Construction of additions to the maintenance and school board buildings have been estimated at $100,000. The board is expected to give the final stamp of approval to the plans at tomorrow night's meeting, school officials said.

Further consideration of the two sidewalk propositions to be voted on at the Feb. 20 primary elections will be on the agenda along with recommendations by the board of education personnel committee.

Consideration of a school board representative to sit on the town.

To Be Our First Lady

Jackie Off for Capital

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy, rested by six weeks of privacy in the Florida sun, leaves today for Washington to become the nation's first lady.

The 31-year-old brown-eyed, brunette beauty, accompanied by her two secretaries, went to leave about noon aboard the Kennedy family plane that carried President-Elect John F. Kennedy to Washington and New York Tuesday.

The two Kennedy children, Caroline, 5, and John, almost 3 weeks, will stay behind in Palm Beach for the next week or 10 days until their mothers are ready at the White House. Mrs. Kennedy missed out on the big party tossed by her sister and brother-in-law, the Stephens Smiths, Tuesday night at their Georgetown home.

But she plans to take in some of the other festivities beginning Thursday night when she steps out in the town with her husband to attend a concert at Constitution Hall and the gala where many of her friends will be on stage.

On Friday she will be one of the star attractions when her husband takes the oath of the presi-decy and later that evening when she makes her rounds of five inaugural balls in their honor.

Actor Found Guilty

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Actor Jay Adler, 60, was convicted Tuesday of misdemeanor drunken driving by a Municipal Court jury and ordered to return to court Friday for sentencing. Adler was arrested Oct. 21 following a minor traffic accident.

There's Only One Way

GAINESVILLE, Ga. (UPI) — The Gainesville City Council approved a resolution Tuesday calling for a city ordinance that would make it illegal to eat fried chicken any way except with the fingers.

To Give MSUO Scholarship

Tool Engineers Society to Convene on Campus for Presentation

The American Society of Tool & Manufacturing Engineers, Oakland County Chapter No. 68, will present an engineering scholarship to Michigan State University Oakland at its January meeting tomorrow night.

Featured speaker for the meeting will be Chancellor Duward B. Warner.

The meeting will be at MSUO and is scheduled to begin at 7.

The chapter will award the Victor E. Nelson scholarship to the university. It is the first scholarship to be awarded by the chapter. The MSUO engineering building will open next fall.

The scholarship is for $279 annually and is named in honor of the late Victor E. Nelson, founder of Universal Oil Seal Co., first affiliate member of the ASTM in Oakland County.

The chapter plans to award one or more scholarships each year in the future, and eventually establish a student chapter at MSUO.

Salinger Makes Sweet Music on Paar Show

NEW YORK (UPI) — Pierre Salinger, President-Elect John F. Kennedy's press secretary, made his piano debut on national television Tuesday night on the Jack Paar show.

Salinger, who was a boy prodigy before he took up newspaper work, played a composition of his own which was received with applause by the show's orchestra.

He had appeared on the NBC-TV show with Merriman Smith, UPI White House reporter, to talk about the press corps' relations with the Kennedy administration.

To Honeymoon in Spain

MADRID, Spain (AP) — Princess Astrid of Norway and her common-law bridegroom John Martin Fawcett arrived by plane from Paris Tuesday for honeymooning in Southern Spain.

There was a time when people would rather watch TV than eat — till they discovered they could do both at the same time. . . . A scientist reports the earth's crust is 73 miles thick; this should be a great relief to some fretting golfers. — Earl Wilson.

GOP Assures a Future Role for Departing Dick

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon packed today for his departure from Washington with the assurances of GOP colleagues that future national service awaits him.

Nixon was said by aides to be undecided yet on which of several offers he will accept from law firms in California.

The Nixon home in a fashionable Washington residential district is up for sale. Whether his two daughters will remain in school here until June hasn't been decided.

Several of his Republican senatorial colleagues told Nixon Tuesday that though he may be leaving office Friday because of his narrow defeat in the presidential race, they expect him to be back in harness again.

STILL A CONTENDER

Nixon is regarded as one of the likely contenders for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination. He has indicated he does not plan to run in 1962 for any California office.

Nixon touched off a 75-minute series of tributes—including some from Democrats—when he said goodbye to the Senate Tuesday.

The vice president left behind a gift of two three-minute glass sound timers. He said subsequent presiding officers could juggle them to enforce the three-minute rule on speakers in what the Senate knows as its "morning hour."

STILL A CONTENDER

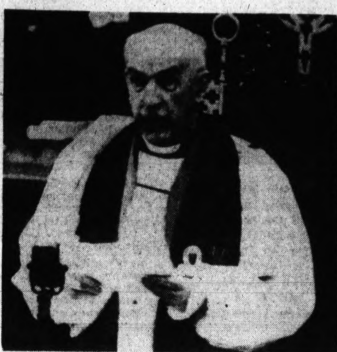

Nixon is regarded as one of the likely contenders for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination. He has indicated he does not plan to run in 1962 for any California office.

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., observed that while this was the last time for four years members would have the opportunity to call Nixon "Mr. President," that there may be a repetition of this opportunity goes without saying.

Another potential candidate for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination, Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., said all the tributes to Nixon on his departure reminded him of a wake.

Bit of Second Guessing

RALEIGH, N. C. (UPI) — Dr. Elvis J. Stahr Jr., who will be secretary of the Army in the new administration, said Tuesday night he was "not at all sure I was wise" to accept the appointment from President-Elect John F. Kennedy.

ARCHBISHOP TO RETIRE — Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, Archbishop of Canterbury and spiritual head of the Church of England, announced in London Tuesday that he will retire May 31. Dr. Fisher, who will be 74 May 5, said he feels it is time to hand over his duties to a younger man.

Five Waterford Township PTAs to Meet Tomorrow

Attorney Is Sought in 'Triangle' Slaying

Science and health education and police training will be the topics for tomorrow night at five Waterford Township School District Parent Teacher Association meetings.

DUBLIN

"Parents Can Help in the Instructions of Science" is the topic Dr. Julian Greenlee has chosen for the meeting at 8 in the Dublin School, White Lake Township.

Dr. Greenlee is director of science education in the Oakland County schools and works throughout the county as a teacher-consultant in science.

FOUR TOWNS

Meeting at 7:30, parents and teachers at the Four Towns School will hear school nurse Mrs. Janet Lemon discuss children's heart diseases and rheumatic fever. Charles Bryan, fifth grade teacher, will demonstrate how the heart works.

WATERFORD CENTER

The Waterford Center father's night meeting at 7:30 will feature state trooper Wilbur Rykert who will talk about police training programs. He will show color films to illustrate. A coffee hour will follow.

LEGGETT

After a talk by Bernard J. Heaney, principal of Isaac Crary Junior High School, members of the Leggett PTA will disperse into small groups under the leadership of teachers, to discuss the principal's talk.

Plans for a box social for Feb. 16 will also be discussed, and committees appointed.

SCHOOLCRAFT

Asst. Supt. of Schools Dr. Charles Reid will be guest speaker at the Schoolcraft School meeting beginning at 8. There will be a question and answer period, and later refreshments will be served.

Ancient Egypt's impressive looking cargo vessels were so frail that they had to receive support from a great twisted hawser that was lashed over supports from bow to stern.

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Police today sought a husky, brown-haired attorney for questioning in the shotgun deaths of his wife and a man who was a member of a prominent Cleveland law firm. Love letters found at the scene linked the victims, detectives reported.

The body of Nancy Shepler Lashak, 29, was found Tuesday night in an apartment in the University Circle area on Cleveland's East Side. A shotgun lay across her body.

A trail of blood led from the apartment to a car outside, where the body of Charles D. Johnson, 42, was found slumped over the wheel. Johnson, a partner in the firm of Baker, Hostetler & Paterson, apparently lost consciousness as he tried to drive away in his 1960 station wagon.

Mrs. Ladulko, a granddaughter of the late William L. Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, had passed her bar examination and was a librarian with Johnson's firm.

Livestock to Liven Friday's Festivities

Inaugural Parade Will Be Horse-Powered

By ARTHUR EDSON
WASHINGTON (AP) — Everything seems about ready for John F. Kennedy's big presidential inauguration Friday, including 275 horses, 22 mules and 1 burro.

This livestock statistic was hurried out today by a breathless inaugural committee.

Many of its earlier tidbits dealt with the latest formidable weapons and the electronic gadgetry aimed at keeping the parade on time.

But in news release No. 185, issued today, the committee did a complete about face.

"In no other parade," the committee proudly reported, "have there been so many horses."

This seems surprising since horses were standard presidential locomotion in the old days and Warren G. Harding was the first to break them and ride to his inauguration in an automobile.

But admittedly 275 add up to a lot of horseflesh, and of course the Army is prepared. Two horse ambulances, each with a veterinarian and an assistant, will be paraded along the parade route to assist any beast needing first aid.

BURRO IN PARADE

The mules wear miniature fences between their ears. Their sponsors are the Colorado Springs, Colo., Al Kaly Temple of Shriners. The burro, symbol of the Democratic party, will pull a miniature float preceding the mule train.

The U.S. Park Police horse-mounted troop has been drilling for the parade with workouts in beautiful Rock Creek Park here.

As they drill, a loud recording of crowd noises is played so that the dazed Kilgore remanded to jail to await sentence. Police said the victim was shot as the two men argued at the Kilgore home.

Judge Claude Venderploeg ordered Kilgore remanded to jail to await sentence. Police said the victim was shot as the two men argued at the Kilgore home.

Officials of the inaugural committee, when you can coax them to stand still long enough to answer a question, say this is going to be the liveliest inauguration yet—as well as the best horse.

Find GR Man Guilty in Slaying of His Kin

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Samuel Kilgore, 34, was convicted of manslaughter Tuesday by a Superior Court jury which deliberated nearly seven hours in reaching a verdict in his trial on charges arising from the fatal shooting last July of his brother-in-law Pearlie Clipse, 27.

Judge Claude Venderploeg ordered Kilgore remanded to jail to await sentence. Police said the victim was shot as the two men argued at the Kilgore home.

What started out as one inaugural ball Friday night has now branched out into five. Two more were added Tuesday, which will give us dancers room for whirling, or watching, away in four hotel ballrooms and the National Guard Armory.

No one seems to have paused long enough to count the tickets sold, but the figure usually used is 25,000, a fair-sized crowd when you remember that the cheapest ticket costs $25 and that a box seating eight brings in $320.

RUNDOWN ON ACTIVITIES

In case the whole inaugural picture is beginning to get a little blurred for you, let's give a quick chronological rundown.

The big things really begin late this afternoon with a reception for distinguished ladies.

At 6 o'clock tonight a reception will be held for Vice President-elect and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson. After this, a loyal, untrifling party member can either attend a dance given by the Young Democrats or a pre-inaugural review featuring military bands and drill teams.

Thursday will bring a reception for governors, followed by an inaugural concert and the big Democratic gala, featuring Hollywood and New York stars.

At noon Friday comes the point of this whole business: that solemn moment when John F. Kennedy is sworn in as president. Then the parade down Pennsylvania Avenue, with the widely scattered balls at night.

Incidentally, if some indelible character wished to take his wife to each attraction, and wanted the best seats everywhere, he would have to come well fortified with the green stuff.

His bill for tickets alone would come to $416.

JACKIE'S PAINTING — This is the painting made last summer by Mrs. Jacqueline (Jackie) Kennedy depicting the triumphal return to Hyannis Port, Mass., by her husband, President-Elect John F. Kennedy, after he won the Democratic nomination at the Democratic

NY Labor Head Moves on Strike

Seeks Meeting of Both Sides in Tug Walkout With Mayor, NLBB

NEW YORK (AP)—Harold A. Felle, New York City labor union leader, today announced action to settle the harbor craft strike that has caused a vast rail commuter tieup and halted service of the New York Central's main line between here and Albany.

Felle sought to set up a top-level meeting of both sides in the strike. Mayor Robert F. Wagner and representatives of the harbor craft councilmen led to consultation of the service for the New York Central's 40,000 commuters in the metropolitan area Tuesday.

Thousands of long-distance passengers were forced to use buses between New York City and Albany because of the stoppage of Central trains into and out of Grand Central Terminal.

Legality of Jury Question Delays Bad Check Trial

Trial of Pontiac ex-convict Frank M. Zielon on a bogus check charge has been delayed in circuit court until next Tuesday while his attorney questions the legality of the present jury panel.

Judge H. Russell Holland postponed until 4 p.m. Jan. 24 a ruling on a motion from Pontiac attorney Milton R. Henry that the 75-member panel was selected improperly and did not come from a large enough jury list submitted by townships and cities.

Henry also argues that the 1,175 persons on the list—he says it should be closer to 2,000 based on the county's population—results in so-called professional jurors.

School Fund Unfair, Charges Cardinal

NEW YORK (UPI)—Francis Cardinal Spellman charged Tuesday that President John F. Kennedy's task force report on federal aid to education discriminates against parochial and private school children.

The task force report outlined a general program of financial assistance for all public schools. It recommended $20 per annum per pupil based on average public school attendance and other assistance.

These recommendations are unfair to most parents of the nation's 6,800,000 parochial and private school children, the cardinal said.

"No Catholic schools or schools of other religious denominations are included in the task force proposal," he said.

Executive Lauds Newspapers as Top Ad Media

CHICAGO (UPI)—The president of R. H. Macy & Co., one of the world's largest department stores, has urged advertisers to pay more attention to advertising in a local level, particularly in local newspapers.

Whedon H. Hingham told a meeting of the Newspaper Advertising Executives Association that newspapers still represent the most important advertising media.

He cited a recent decision by the Shell Oil Co. to spend a large part of its advertising budget in newspapers as an indication of increased appreciation of newspapers for advertising purposes.

Hingham asked the newspapermen to give more editorial mention of retailers' products, since this was of real interest to women readers.

At the moment, he said, retailing was often the "orphan child" in this respect.

350 Escape Burning Steamer in Colombia

MAGANGUE, Colombia (UPI)—Fire swept the luxury river steamer David Arango near this Magdalena River town Monday night, but all of the 350 passengers and crewmen aboard escaped.

The boat was a total loss, and all cargo and baggage aboard were destroyed by the flames.

January Warm, June Wet

'60 Weather Like Crazy Quilt

By MAX E. SIMON

Pontiac weather in 1960 was about as predictable as a race horse at the starting gate.

Winter, for instance, came last year.

But it didn't make much sense. January was unpleasant, it's true, but not like it should have been. Maybe there was snow 13 days, and rain 4, and drizzle 3. But the lowest temperature of the month was only nine degrees. For January, it was just too warm.

February was just as odd. The low was 12. After many, many summer days, six inches of snow once fell capriciously on Pontiac. But no good snow does not a winter make.

Winter finally came in March. It was cold. It was wet. The wind howled and blew. Snow fell like sand from a hopper.

And then, on the 27th, March did an abrupt about-face. Successive high temperatures of 55, 47, 54, 59 and 50 were recorded the last five days.

April's name was mad last year. There was rain, snow and thaw, and the combination equaled mud, mud, mud. It was monstrous, especially when your car bogged down in the muck.

Many of those April showers came in May. It was sunny 12 days and rainy 12. But you never knew what the next day would bring.

JUNE WAS WET June was pretty wet, too. It rained in downtown Pontiac totaled 4.10 inches, up from the month's usual.

Three Real Estate Men Lose State Licenses

LANSING (UPI)—Corporations and Securities Commissioner Lawrence Gabow has revoked the licenses of three real estate men. The license of broker Lester L. Lodge, owner of the Greater Monroe Realty Service in Monroe, was revoked for "dishonest and unfair dealings" among other charges.

The licenses of salesmen William R. Vanderhook and George H. Potter, two former employees of the State Wide Real Estate Service of Bay City, were canceled because they represented themselves as brokers and failed to report their dealings to their employer.

average of 3.37 inches for the area. There were warm days too. For the first time, the mercury climbed to 60.

Old Sol beamed down on Pontiac in July, and it was sunny all but two days. But early on July 18, the temperature fell to 58, a 51-year-old record low.

Although the mercury never hit 90, August was hotter than usual.

The month's average temperature was 71.5 degrees, up from the average 70.9 of past years. Total rainfall was 2.92 inches, way up from the average precipitation of 2.08 inches.

The year's high wasn't reached until September. It was 94 three times. For the month as a whole, the average temperature was way above normal—67.6 degrees. The usual average—63.5.

Then there was September's fury. Fifteen hours after the month began 60 mile-an-hour winds lashed the city. Trees toppled, and utility wires were down all over the county.

October had its warm spots. But, as weathermen are the first to admit, that's the weather for the month's high was 80 degrees, and you.

Soybeans Decline in Selling Market

CHICAGO (AP)—The grain futures market started off under selling pressure again today and all contracts weakened with soybeans declining more than two cents a bushel on old crop months.

Brokers said the setbacks in soybeans were expected in view of their advance of nine cents or more on the first two days of the week and a weaker market for both soybean oil and soybean meal.

The selling was described as strictly for cashing profits but, as in Tuesday's opening trade, it appeared to fairly well absorbed. The grains generally eased small fractions.

Will Lay Off 200 at Fisher

Due to Alteration of Production, Says Plant Spokesman

Some 200 production workers at the Fisher Body plant in Pontiac will be laid off, starting next Monday, it was learned today.

A plant spokesman stated that the layoffs were due to an alteration in production schedules, which becomes effective next week.

There was no indication of the length of the layoffs.

* GMC Truck and Coach Division, meanwhile, announced that it was adding between 250-300 workers to its payroll over a 10-week period.

The additional workers were being added as the company begins production of new intercity party coaches, a division spokesman said.

GOOD NEWS — Mrs. Mary Jane Jefferson, who chose jail rather than give up custody of her children following a Florida divorce decree, reacts as a county jail warden tells her an Illinois court has designated the children as wards of the state in Chicago. She is awaiting a hearing on extradition to Florida where her divorced husband has custody of the children under the decree.

Knudsen Named to DAC Board of Directors

Norman J. Knudsen, general manager of Pontiac Motor Division, was among eight prominent area persons elected to the board of directors of the Detroit Automobile Club Tuesday.

Knudsen, who is also a vice president of General Motors, lives at 3150 Highland Road, Birmingham.

Others elected were: Norman J. Fredericks, president, Koenig Cold and Supply Co.; Edwin O. George, vice president, Detroit Edison Co.; Harry L. Lloyd, president, Parker Davis & Co.

Richard E. Cross, partner in law firm of Cross, Work, Miller, Vison and Kelley; Norman Ford, vice president, Ford Motor Co.; Walter A. Crow, corporate secretary, F. L. Hudson Co.; and Leo Hills, executive officer and vice president of the Detroit Free Press.

The members of the board will meet Friday to elect officers.

Saturday Is Bad Day for Texarkana Traffic

TEXARKANA, Ark. (UPI)—A report prepared by the Texarkana Police Department for the National Safety Council shows that nearly one-fourth of the city's traffic accidents during 1959 — and a rising percentage of its fatal ones — occurred on Saturdays.

Of the 438 accidents investigated, 107 were on Saturday. Only 47 Monday accidents were reported during the year. It was the safest day of the week.

Industrials Pace Mart Rebound

NEW YORK (AP)—Risks and selected industrials paced a fairly sharp stock market rebound early this afternoon. Trading was lively. The Associated Press average of 50 stocks at noon was up 1.10 to 228.06, with industrials up 1.40, rails up 1.60 and utilities unchanged.

The advance more than wiped out Tuesday's mild "correction." Chemicals, Steels, some autos and nonferrous metals joined in the rise. Rubbers were off. Farm implements were mixed. Electrical equipments eased.

The market was slightly higher at the start and trading was quite active. After some slackening of activity, prices picked up as the ticker tape lagged.

Commission May Open Lakeside Project Center

A proposal to reopen the community center in the Lakeside Housing Project was taken under study by the City Commission last night.

Commissioners called for a report from David R. Swait, director of parks and recreation, on his recommendations for the future of the center.

The center was closed last month after a series of Saturday night street brawls in its vicinity.

The planning commission reported that it favored the change.

Introduced were ordinance amendments to rezone from residential to commercial the four lots on the northeast corner of Paddock and Jessie streets and the area between Mill Street and 36 St. Clements St. and 33 E. Huron St.

A new request for rezoning from residential to commercial of the five lots on the southwest corner of Cass and Florence avenues was referred to the planning commission for study. A petition for the change was signed by 68 per cent of the affected residents.

Confirmed was the assessment roll covering financing of the Kennerly Road water main, Stanley to Carlisle.

Deputies said Brydges admitted breaking into the lumber yard office, and told them he threw the money away while the boys were chasing him.

Missing from a cash box was about $5.

Entry had been gained through an unlocked rear window, deputies found.

Brydges was charged with breaking and entering in the nighttime. He was to be arraigned today.

Birmingham Woman Injured in Crash

A Birmingham woman suffered facial cuts and fractured ribs in a two-car crash on Dixie Highway in Waterford Township yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Joseph Common, 41, of 321 Miller Way was reported in satisfactory condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

She was a passenger in a car driven by her husband when it collided with the second, concerning car attempting to make a left-hand turn.

Driver of the second car, Darby R. Stephenson, 17, of 625 Willow Lake Road, Waterford Township, was issued a traffic summons by Pontiac state police for failing to yield the right-of-way.

He and Mrs. Common's 3-year-old husband were treated at the hospital for minor injuries and released.

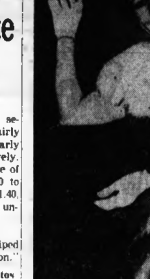

Police Make Drive to Nail Criminals

Waterford Township Police Chief Millard J. Pender said that his department is making an all-out effort to track down the thieves who cracked open three safes last week, and the culprits who broke into 12 homes in the township over the weekend.

Pender added that his detectives have questioned several suspects and are running down leads on clues to the crimes. Lt. William Stokes and detective Ernest Mann are working on the case in conjunction with other police departments.

Stronger Rights
Bill IntroducedDems Join 2 GOPers as Sponsors, Ask That JFK Give Full Backing

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating and Jacob K. Javits of New York introduced a seven-part Civil Rights bill Tuesday and urged President John F. Kennedy to give it his full support.

They said presidential action to end racial discrimination in education, housing, employment and voting "is not adequate to do the job and will not remedy the inequities gaps which exist."

Several other senators, including Democrats, joined in sponsoring the bill.

The measure would authorize the attorney general to intervene in civil rights suits brought by individuals, provide technical and financial aid to communities trying to integrate schools, establish a commission to end discrimination by firms with government contracts and extend the life of the Civil Rights Commission, due to expire in September.

It also would provide that any person with a sixth grade education would not have to provide further proof of literacy for voting purposes, eliminate the poll tax and property requirements as qualifiers for voting and make it illegal to deprive any person of his rights under the 14th Amendment, such as the right to a fair trial.

Scout to Be President

URBANA, Va. (AP) — When ex-Tenderfoot Scout John F. Kennedy is inaugurated next Friday another precedent will be shattered.

He'll be the first former Boy Scout to be president of the United States. As president, ex-Scout Kennedy also becomes honorary president of the scouts.

Kennedy's old scoutmaster,
Donald MacKinnon, today recalled those days when Kennedy was in Troop 2 in Bronxville, N.Y.: "He was a regular scout."

Red China Trade

Experts Also Ask Plan to Help Areas Injured
by Foreign Imports

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President-elect John F. Kennedy has received a recommendation that the United States take a new look at its restrictions on trade with Red China.

A study by the Senate Commerce Committee staff, submitted to Kennedy Tuesday, said the review should be undertaken "in light of restrictions applicable to trade with other Communist countries."

It added, however, that the review should be "in the context of prevailing consideration of foreign policy toward the Peking regime."

The staff experts also proposed a program of "adjustment assistance" to domestic areas or industries hard hit by competing foreign imports as an alternative to cutting back imports.

Committee Chairman Warren G.
Magnuson, D-Wash., presented a 15-page statement summarizing the findings to Kennedy. A Magnuson aide said Kennedy favored publication of the proposals but did not specifically endorse them.

The recommendations, dealing with some 25 phases of foreign trade problems, will be submitted soon to the full commerce committee.

Ex-Detroit TV Star in Hollywood

Soupy's Name Is His Fortune

Sales, the pride and joy of Detroit television, has moved to Hollywood.
His claim to fame is a Saturday noon TV show beamed for the nation's youngsters. And his stock in trade are two invisible dogs named White Fang and Black Toth.

Characters have arrived in town with more going for them.
It's true, but Soupy is an empire builder.

For seven years in Detroit Soupy starred in 11 shows a week—a five-day-a-week "Lunch with Soupy" show for kids and a nightly half-hour program of variety antics, in addition to his Saturday ABC show.
Finding the Michigan city somewhat limited for his talents, Soupy set out to conquer Hollywood.

"This is a good time to start Hollywood," Sales noted. "I need some new comedy faces."

"Soupy qualifies. He has a prominent nose and a starting point to go along with a set of teeth that look like imported china."
He takes great pride in the fact that his monicker is for real.

"Soupy Sales is my legal name, but not my original one," he confided. "My original name is a secret."

It's not that Soupy is ashamed of the name he was born with, or that he's wanted for questioning anything compared with Soupy.
Sales would seem somewhat pale.
Old Soupy can now take his place alongside such other brilliant names as Rip Torn, Clu Gulager,

Letters Rap
Blue Cross Rate Hike

LANSING (AP)—State Insurance Commissioner Frank Blackford says a recent Blue Cross-Blue Shield rate increase request has brought on the heaviest shelling via the mail his department has ever received.

He said he expects the reise-which has already dumped more than 1,100 letters of protest on his desk, to continue and even get heavier for 15 to 20 days.
They are coming in at a rate of 125 to 150 a day, he said.

Not one of the letters has upheld the rate increases, and about 60 per cent of the writers threaten to drop the lawsuit medical insurance, he said.
The heaviest percentage of the letters come from retirees, women and members of the Michigan Farm Bureau.

People on fixed incomes are feeling this request for a hike, Blackford said.

"These letters reflect the tremendous financial equities of these three people are experiencing.
We have letters from widows with two, three or four children who say they just won't be able to carry the insurance any more. These people are starting to feel somewhat deperate," he said.

Blackford attributed the large, strong public reaction partially to the fact that both groups are requesting simultaneous rate increases.

Blackford, who is also besieged with letters and phone calls at home, said state workers are protesting that the increase would nullify a recently adopted plan whereby the state pays half the cost of their health insurance.

TV News and Reviews

Conformity Spout Brunted
by The Need to Conform

By FRED DANZIG
NEW YORK (UPI)—"The Art Carney Show," billed as a comedy revue, evoked sadness last night.
The NBC-TV hour, subtitled
"Everybody's Doin' It," was devised and advertised as a special that would skewer the cult of conformity upon some plerking comedy sketches and songs.

Unfortunately, "Everybody's Doin' It" didn't do much of anything. The attack was blunted by, well, the need to conform to the same fashion in TV variety

And so the go-called spoof of conformity conformed to such predictable, safe targets as TV commercial TV violence, TV conformity, female fashion, the battle of the sexes and, of course, beastials.

The sketches had to be stretched out of shape to conform to the overall theme of the show. This sort of treatment details all too many of our TV revues; material that can go off in more revealing directions gets jammed into the confines of the show theme, fails to sustain momentum, gets repeti-tious and binds the proceedings in dullness.

Costarring with Carney were Alice Ghostly, Mel Tormé, Jonathan Winters and Lee Remick, all intelligent, willing performers who were hampered, it seems,
by inspired material.

There were, however, a few glimmers of fun. Carney, relegated to the role of nonperforming host through much of the hour, did get a few moments in which to pose as the beef-drinking TV-watching husband.

He's one of the wonders of the wild comedy world in that role, but last night this talent wasn't exploited. Winters did a funny one-man, four-voice routine about space flight. It had nothing to do with conformity. But then, neither did the rest of the script.

CHANGE OF COMMAND
The significance of last night's TV address by President Elen-hower wasn't lost here. I'm fully aware that on Friday Robert Mon-gomery leaves the White House and Peter Lawford goes in.

ances — from that rainy day to

NEW YORK — The Marlene Dietrich-Carol Channing feud's sure to explode. For five years, Marlene's hoped Carol would give up a "leggy-grandmother-in-a-negligee" impression of her. In her new "Show Girl" revue, Carol "cut" it—from 3 minutes to 10—and has Marlene doing appalling new gymnastics and saying to a beau, "Be let's talk about YOU. How DO YOU like my costume?"

Marlene dislikes it so, she doesn't acknowledge flowers Carol sends her, now that it's lengthened, the two leggy ones are going to tangle.

4 Asian U.S. Allies
Meet on Red Threat

MANTILA, the Philippines (UPI)
—The foreign ministers of four Asian allies of the United States today opened an unusual two-day meeting without their big western partner to discuss a common effort against the growing threat of communism in the Far East.

The meeting — held by the Philippines, South Viet Nam, Nationalist China and the Republic of Korea — grew out of the explosive situation in Laos and fears that the United States might soften its attitude toward Communist China.

Moscow Radio and Communist China's New China News Agency denounced the conference as a new tool of imperialist aggression — and "a part of the U.S. policy for military intervention in Laos."

Lumumba Badly Beaten on Way to Katanga Jail

ELISABETHVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The Katanga government announced today that deposed Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba and two close associates had been transferred to a jail in Katanga Province because their army confinement near Leopoldville was not considered secure.

Swedish U.N. troops at the Elisabethville airport when the ex-premier arrived Tuesday said European-officered units of the Katanga police beat the three prisoners unmercifully. Lumumba was reported badly bruised.

The Katanga government—headed by an arch enemy of Lumumba, Provincial President Moïse Tshombe—said the captives were taken to a place outside Elisabethville.

A Swedish source said they were in jail at Jadobville, about 60 miles from Elisabethville.

Lumumba has been held at the military camp at Thysville, 50 miles southwest of Leopoldville, the Congo capital, but was freed briefly there Friday when members of the garrison rioted over pay. The ex-premier did not get away from the camp, but rumors that he was free set off a panic among anti-Lumumba Belgians and Congolese in Leopoldville.

ASKS FOR TRANSFER

A Katanga government communique said Congo President Joseph Kasavubu had requested Lumumba's transfer because "the Thysville prison did not offer sufficient guarantees."

Swedish U.N. troops on guard at Elisabethville airport when Lumumba arrived said he and two other prisoners with him got "a terrific beating" from Katanga police at the airport. The other two prisoners were the youth minister in Lumumba's Cabinet, Maurice

Public Works Trio Returned to Office

The Oakland County Board of Public Works, governing body of the department of public works, yesterday re-elected its three officers to new one-year terms.

Chosen to continue on its chairman was Delos Hamlin, Farmington supervisor and chairman of the board of supervisors. Hamlin has served since the board's inception in 1957.

Re-elected to a second term as vice chairman was John G. Seaman, Berkeley supervisor. Royal Oak Supervisor Harry W. Horton was re-elected to his second term as secretary of the board.

Double Year Ago Here

Jobless Pay Figures Up

Unemployment is on the rise in the Pontiac area according to figures released today by the Michigan Employment Security Commission's Pontiac Office.

The statistics show more than twice the number of unemployment claims filed last week as were a year ago.

There were 5,503 compensation claims filed at the local office last week as compared to 5,171 the previous week.

One year ago there were 2,582 claims filed during the corresponding week.

"The unemployment trend has been steadily upward since mid-November," said Paul Kimball, branch manager.

"This is not a normal trend for this time of year. It's heavier than usual," Kimball asserted.

"We hope it won't continue, but have no reason now to believe there will be any drastic change," Kimball declined to make any prediction for the coming month.

"Unemployment figures are almost impossible to predict in advance," Kimball explained.

"Much of the current unemployment is due to seasonal layoffs in construction and other industries. In the Pontiac area, auto industry layoffs are not a particularly important factor right now, according to Kimball.

"At the present time, most auto layoffs affect people who live in the North Oakland area, but work in the Detroit area," said Kimball.

"Generally speaking, the unemployment claims lead reflects a decline in business following the Christmas season."

The unemployment claims lead was 2,508 in mid-November and has grown gradually each week since then.

Former Pontiac Banker Named to VP Position

Albert W. Holcomb, a former vice president of Community National Bank in Pontiac, was promoted Tuesday to vice president of the Detroit Bank and Trust Co.

Holcomb, 40, joined Detroit Bank and Trust in 1946, and was an assistant vice president there when he joined the Pontiac bank in 1957. He rejoined the Detroit bank last year.

Unusually Big Mumps Total

116 Cases are Reported to City, County in Week
—70 in Pontiac Alone

Judging from mid-January reports from the Pontiac and Oakland County health departments, the county may be headed into a "mumps" year.

Last week 116 new cases of mumps were reported to the two departments.

Of these, 76 cases were in Pontiac and 40 were elsewhere in the county.

Health department officials described the total as "unusually high," but added that some of the cases may have been contracted during Christmas vacation and reported later.

The rise was extreme in Pontiac. For the week ending Jan. 7 there was only one new case reported.

There had been only 12 cases reported in the county that same week.

There also were increases in chicken pox and measles.

In Pontiac, new cases of chicken pox went from none to 10 last week. Measles went from 1 to 7.

There were two new cases of scarlet fever in Pontiac; the first week of January and one new case last week.

The following is a list of new cases of communicable diseases reported to the county health department during the past two weeks.

City	Week Ending Jan. 13	Week Ending Jan. 20

Arraignment Set in Auburn Break-In

Charged with breaking into the Kregg Hardware Store in Auburn Heights Monday night, James O. Vandever, 22, of 820 St. Clair St. and Jerry W. Key, 18, of 3107 Caroline St., Auburn Heights, are scheduled for arraignment in Circuit Court Monday.

Both waived examination before Pontiac Township Justice of the Peace R. Grant Graham yesterday. Bond for each was set at $2,000.

Vandever, who was arrested the pair in Avon Township early Tuesday morning when they were charged after they or for having caused a faulty tailight, said they found 12 guns among other stolen items in their possession.

Eight guns had been stolen from the Kregg Hardware store at 3330 Auburn Road.

County GOP Vote Bloc Is Prize Catch

With their favorite son out of the race, Oakland County's rich bloc of 149 uncommitted votes are the prize catch as state Republicans hold conventions tonight to select delegates to next month's state convention.

Meeting in the Pontiac Central High School auditorium at 8 p.m., Oakland Republicans can expect some votes from state candidates, seeking the county's vote, the largest to be cast at the Feb. 4 convention in Detroit.

Some of the taster of tonight's gathering was rubbed off yesterday when county Chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr. pulled himself out of the race most had already considered him in—the battle for Lawrence B. Linder's $114,000-a-year job as state chairman.

The county convention, called primarily to finalize a list of delegates and alternates selected earlier in legislative district caucuses, had been billed as a lock-off to Elliott's campaign. If he had announced himself as a candidate, Grand Rapids realtor John R. Stiles, an announced candidate for the chairmanship, has staved upon the opportunity of Elliott's withdrawal and will visit the Oakland delegation in search of votes.

The local committee has extended similar invitations to other state candidates for 11 offices to be voted on April 3.

There was no advance word whether former congressman Robert J. McNamara of Port Huron, also bidding for Linder's post, would follow his opponent into Pontiac.

Stiles is expected to bring with him copies of his 20-page brochure entitled "Victory Is A Plan for GOP Future Success," which he released to the press yesterday shortly after Elliott withdrew from the race.

A county spokesman said he expected no endorsement to be made tonight for either Stiles or McNamara.

"Perhaps the best man hasn't come forward yet," he said.

It is no secret that local Republicans, as well as others, are searching for a compromise candidate. Prospective Oakland GOP leaders are expected to be carefully scrutinized tonight.

The convention will also act on 18 resolutions.

Swainson Proposes Budget for 'Tight' Year

LANSING (U-P) Gov. Swainson, bolstered by a penny increase in the sales tax, last night proposed a record $482.2 million budget designed to carry the state through "tight" financial straits.

The new chief executive, submitting his first spending blueprint to the legislature, also called for a $3.5 million revenue bond issue to pay for a "temporary" state construction program.

Swainson estimated general fund income in the 1961-62 fiscal year at $471.3 million, up $34.3 million from this year. The proposed setting aside $11.7 million to cut down a treasury deficit expected to approach $66 million by July 1.

In view of the state's continuing money problems, the governor said the legislature should continue a "tight budget policy."

"This budget does not represent all that should be done by a progressive and responsive state government," he said in a message to the lawmakers. "Rather it is what must be done in the light of our present fiscal situation."

Except for items over which he has no control, Swainson said, he allowed for only modest spending increases in most "the most urgent and essential needs."

Swainson recommended no appropriation to carry on a $13-million building program approved by the 1960 legislature after a virtual halt in new construction for several years.

He said at least $22 million is needed in fiscal 1961-62 to complete or continue projects already started. Another $16.5 million should be spent next year by other "urgent" needed buildings, he said.

2 Ex-Officials Take Action Sue Chrysler for $475,000

From Our News Wire

Two ousted Chrysler officials took the auto firm to court today, seeking an aggregate of $475,000, and adding to the woes of the legally-bested firm.

Ousted former president William C. Newberg is seeking to have set aside an agreement he signed giving $450,000 profit back to the firm which he made from firms doing business with Chrysler.

Jack W. Minor, former marketing director for Chrysler's Plymouth-Vaultant-Dodge division, filed a $250,000 suit to recover funds he said he invested in a company stock program.

Swainson Cuts MSUO Budget

Recommends $263,000 Less Than University Officials Requested

By MAX E. SIMON

Gov. Swainson's budget recommendations for Michigan State University (MSU) for the 1961-62 academic year are $263,000 under the figure sought by university officials.

MSU's request for a state appropriation of $1,420,000 has been played over the MSU Board of Trustees and forwarded to the legislature.

Lumumba Badly Beaten on Way to Katanga Jail

ELISABETHVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The Katanga government announced today that it had beaten Congolese Premier Patrice Lumumba and two close associates badly on the way to a jail in Katanga Province because their army confinement near Leopoldville was not considered secure.

Swedish U.N. troops at the Elisabethville airport when the fiery ex-premier arrived Tuesday said European-offered host the three prisoners unmercifully. Lumumba was reportedly badly bruised.

Has New Ideas on Capitol Dates
Eisenhower in Favor of Election, Inauguration Time Changes

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today election and inauguration dates ought to be changed to a new president would have 90 days to get organized before he starts doing business with Congress.

Specifically, he said, there should be that much time to prepare messages on the State of the Union and the budget before Congress convenes.

He said he has just sent Congress his views in these fields, as required now the incoming administration of John F. Kennedy will set about revising the programs to meet his ideas.

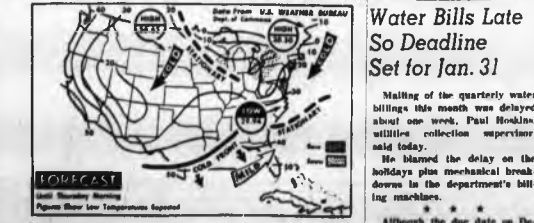

Eisenhower told his 133rd and final White House news conference he has some radical ideas about changing the schedule of transition from one administration to another.

He said he favors a constitutional amendment which would change the time of the national elections and of inauguration of a new president to a point where the new executive would take office 90 days before he meets with his first Congress.

Loveisick Note to Area Girl Found in Italy
ROME (AP)—A love letter purporting to be from a heartbroken American youth to his girlfriend has washed up on an Italian shore.

According to the scratchily handwritten note on the envelope, it was from R. C. Morrison of 15941 Inkster Road, Detroit, Mich., to Miss Rita Danielson of 504 N. Vermont, Royal Oak, Mich.

The letter was dated Oct. 22, 1960, and the envelope bore a seven-cent U.S. airmail stamp that apparently had not been postmarked. Two Italian girls found it Sunday inside a sealed plastic container on Lavinio Beach near Rome.

The girls took the letter to the Rome newspaper Paese Sera, which published an Italian translation of the contents.

The writer, who signed himself Ralph, said he was going to throw the letter into the sea "because I love you too much."

He said he had been trying for over a year to forget Rita but couldn't.

"You will always be my love," the letter said. "May God bless you."

At her home in Royal Oak, Mich., Miss Danielson said that she was serving in the Navy. She said she had met the youth at a dance and the last time she saw him was last September.

Henry Is Given Absence Leave

Taking Trip to Ghana; Wants Time to Choose Commission Successor

City Commissioners last night granted Commissioner Milton R. Henry a 90-day leave of absence prior to his official resignation as representative from District 1.

The 41-year-old lawyer said he and other leaders of his community wanted time to pick a successor for recommendation to the remaining six commissioners, who will fill the vacancy with an appointment after the two-month period is over.

During a five-minute informal session in City Manager Walter K. Willman's office to discuss the resignation, Henry told the commissioners that he was "probably won't" return from Ghana, Africa, where he is traveling in two weeks.

Henry and three other Michigan men are planning a private development corporation there, specializing first in new housing.

Henry said if the business succeeds, he'll stay in Africa. If not, he may return to Pontiac and his post on the commission, he indicated.

Mayor Philip E. Rowston and the other five commissioners will be paid tributes to Henry during the official meeting. Commissioner William F. Taylor Jr. presented him with a double pen set and stand as a farewell gift.

The meeting was Henry's last, unless he returns from Africa. He is scheduled to fly there from New York City Feb. 2.

The Day in Birmingham

Narcotics Will Be Topic for Education Minister

BIRMINGHAM — The Rev. Fred M. Bailey, minister of education at the Congregational Church of Birmingham, will be the guest speaker tomorrow at the monthly meeting of the church's Child Study Club.

Rev. Bailey will discuss "Narcotics and Youth" at the 12-45 program that will be held at the home of Mrs. Max Morden, 317 N. Glenhurst St.

Rev. Bailey's background includes being a staff occupational therapist at Riverside Hospital, North Brother Island, New York.

The Riverside hospital, organized in 1951, is the only narcotics treatment center for adolescents in the United States.

He was formerly on the rehabilitation staff at Willard State Hospital, operated by the New York State Department of Mental Hygiene.

Minoru Yamasaki, noted Birmingham architect with offices at 1025 E. Maple Road, will be among three men receiving honorary degrees.

Professors Group Appoints Varner

Durward Varner, chancellor, Michigan State University, has accepted appointment to the citizens committee of the Michigan Association of the Professions. It was announced by William M. LeFevre, M. D., Mankin, president of MAP.

The citizens committee was created, Dr. LeFevre said, in order that MAP's activities may reflect the viewpoint of not only professional people but the community-at-large.

The advisory group is composed of recognized leaders in business, industry and civic affairs, he said, who will give expert advice to MAP, in fields in which they excel or have valuable knowledge.

The group will meet officially at a luncheon in Detroit, Feb. 22, to review the association's policies and programs. The meeting will be held in conjunction with MAP's second Congress of the Professions to be held Feb. 22, 23 and 24 at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel.

MAP is an organization of men and women in the professions of architecture, dentistry, engineering, law, medicine, pharmacy and veterinary medicine.

Organized a little more than two years ago, MAP is receiving national recognition as the leader of the movement "to mobilize the potential strength of the professions and to speak as a single, powerful voice for all professions," LeFevre said.

Denies Canada Economy Relies on United States

OTTAWA (UPI)—The U.S. Embassy denied Tuesday that the Canadian economy is dominated by the United States and said Canada's trade imbalance should not be a source of worry.

Charge D'Affaires Willis C. Armstrong, in the first public denials of U.S. interests made here during the current upsurge of Canadian nationalism, said U.S. investment was a small price to pay for capital which contributes to production and employment.

"If there is domination," he told a meeting of business paper editors, "its signs are not apparent to American officials concerned with Canadian-American relations."

Retarded Children's Growing Better—Panel

Oakland County District Nurses Association heard panel experts Tuesday evening on "The Mentally Retarded Child in the Community." Examining a display of literature on the subject were speakers (from left) George Bown, director of social work at the Plymouth Home and Training School; John F. Holland, executive director of the Metropolitan Advisory Committee for Retarded Children; and Dr. Robert I. Jaslow, clinical director at the home.

"The emotionally disturbed child and the child with vision and hearing problems or other physical handicaps may appear retarded," Dr. Robert Jaslow told members of the Oakland County District Nurses Association Tuesday evening at Pontiac General Hospital.

Dr. Jaslow, clinical director of the Plymouth Home and Training School, appeared as a panelist for a discussion of "The Mentally Retarded Child in the Community." The physician spoke of diagnosing mental retardation in the child and stressed the importance of a thorough physical examination.

Dr. Jaslow informed members of the Plymouth Institution's new program which features a limited outpatient service. The facility will use the present staff for diagnosis and consultation.

PICTURE CHANGING

"The typical picture of the past — long rows of retarded individuals sitting with vacant stares — is disappearing with an enlightened program," said the doctor. "The person is taught to care for himself where possible and is being given the opportunity to enjoy some of the pleasure enjoyed by other human beings."

Citing the public's attitude of interest as the most important community resource for the retarded child and his family was George Bown, director of the social work department at the Plymouth institution.

He urged the nurses to assume a role of community leadership by educating others to the problems of the retarded child and by encouraging community action to meet the child's needs.

Mr. Bown said that it costs the taxpayer a million dollars to erect a building to house 200 patients and an additional $20,000 a year to care for 100 retarded persons.

"Therefore, anything that can be done to help a family care for a retarded child at home means a saving of money for the taxpayer community, a family kept together and a human resource kept for the community's benefit."

Concluding his remarks, Mr. Bown said, "Existing institutions cannot possibly provide care for the estimated 210,000 retarded children in Michigan.

There is placement available for only 5,100. The lack of buildings and qualified personnel accounts for this. There are currently 1,250 people on the waiting lists, with a net increase of 50 a month."

A parent's view in the discussion was presented by Sam Brenner, member of the Friends and Relatives group in Oakland County and president of the Down River Association of the Michigan Association for Retarded Children.

He spoke of the programs of day care centers, organized through parents' efforts, to provide a self-help program for the young child. "Such centers demonstrate to the community what can be done with the retarded child," he said.

CITIES COOPERATION

"Parents banded together in a common cause," he said, "can provide an opportunity for each other to talk out their problems." Through such groups practical assistance for children in institutions has been made possible by the purchase of needed equipment and furnishings and by the provid-

The panel pointed up the changing role of the institution during the past 10 years. "Formerly it was the end point, a depository for all the problems no one knew what to do with."

Presently, some institutions, such as the Plymouth home, are seeing their role as a pivot point where, beginning with the young child, the mentally retarded child can be helped over stress periods in growth and development."

John Holland, executive director of the Metropolitan Advisory Committee for retarded children, moderated the panel. He is the first director of the new organization.

A display of literature on the retarded child was set up with the cooperation of the Oakland County Department of Health and the Detroit Association for Retarded Children.

A coffee hour, served by the Pontiac General Hospital's staff, preceded the program.

The Oakland County District Nurses Association's Public Health Nursing section sponsored the meeting.

By SHARON WARREN

With semester examinations looming on the horizon, students have increased their study pace. Schedules are leaving less and less time for the extracurricular. All organizations plan final activities to take place a week before the exam period which is Jan. 23 to Feb. 3. Nevertheless some students are active right up to the last minute.

Eighteen students have been named to the staff of Challenge.

A University of Michigan organization designed to increase awareness of world issues through talks by noted personalities.

"The Challenge of Emerging Nations" will be the topic as the group enters its second active semester in mid-February. Elaine Grosbark of Bloomfield Hills and Wendy E. Maneck of Middlefield Road will be among Challenge staffers who will prepare a 15 to 20 page background booklet on each topic. Elaine is a freshman enrolled in the college of literature, science and the arts. Wendy is a freshman enrolled in nursing.

Sheila Goldberg, a freshman from Oneida Road maintains a balance between work and fun. She interrupted her chemistry studying to tell me that she is a member of Michigan, a synchronized swimming group on campus. During the semester break, Sheila will be relaxing with her friends at Ohio State University. She is planning a career in medical technology.

Bring activities chairman for Hunt House of Markley Hall creates many busy days for Mary Bleasley of Birmingham. She planned and executed a mother's weekend, is organizing exam snacks for the girls in her house, and is planning spring weekend fun, just to mention a few of her activities. Mary is a junior in elementary education.

Dec. 18 holds a special significance for Jeanne Busch of Birmingham, for she was "pinned" to Paul Stettinmeyer, a Phi Kappa Tau fraternity member, from Wayne, Ind., on that date. Jeanne is a junior enrolled in the college of literature, science, and the arts. Her pinmate is a junior in engineering.

Symphony Concert, Artists Outstanding

By A. MICHAEL DEMPSEY

The Pontiac Symphony Orchestra presented its third concert of the season last night in the Pontiac Northern High School Auditorium. It was an all-Pontiac program featuring local duo-pianists Gary and Deanna Relyea and guest conductor Richard L. Moore.

The program opened with the "Roman Carnival Overture" by Berlioz. This composition is a difficult work with many challenges to both orchestra and conductor.

Mr. Moore captured the numerous moods of the overture and the various sections and soloists within the orchestra responded admirably to the frequent requests where perfection was demanded of them.

The concluding number on the program was the American Salute. "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" by Morton Gould which made clever use of tympani and brass and was enthusiastically received by the audience.

The largest audience of the season thus far gave Mr. Moore an outstanding ovation as he returned to the podium many times to receive the tribute of the audience and the orchestra.

He graciously responded with a short, quiet, beautiful encore — The English folk song arranged by Percy Grainger. "Early One Morning."

Burel & "Symphony in C" Major followed the overture. A beautiful solo solo in the second movement highlighted this work. The balance and blend of the string section was particularly evident in all four movements of this symphony.

Much has been written on the respective merits of various orchestra seating arrangements. Many observers were of the opinion that the seating of the cellos on the conductor's right and the placing of the violins together in a large group greatly improved the intonation of the strings and added better balance to the section.

Guest artists Gary and Deanna Relyea opened the second half of the program with the playing of the "Bach Double Piano Concerto in C Minor." The Relyeas performed with their usual flawless technique and ease of performance throughout the work. The duo-pianists have a rhythmic and powerful style in their playing of Bach which especially captures the spirit and drive of the Baroque period.

Their general interpretation and use of dynamics showed exceptional musical maturity and a fine sense of ensemble. The Relyeas also played an encore, the familiar two piano number by the American composer Darius Milhaud, "Scar-amouche."

One of a group of lighter compositions which closed the program, "Gay but Wistful" by Percy Grainger, had an appealing British folk song quality which was well played by the orchestra.

Sisterhood Hears Review of Book

Mrs. Nathan Hershfield reviewed Alexandra Levin's "The Stairs of Lombard Street" at a meeting of Temple Beth Jacob's Sisterhood Tuesday.

Luncheon committee members were Mrs. Kenneth Dickstein, Mrs. Herman Dickstein, Mrs. Robert Guff, Mrs. Julian Levine and Mrs. Nat Morrison.

Bad Play No Call to Be Rude

By The Emily Post Institute
Question: When playing bridge at a bridge party, is it proper to criticize someone for a wrong play? I am not used to people doing this but since I have moved to this city, I find this practice quite prevalent.

I have been told that this criticism is meant to be constructive and that I am just too sensitive, but in my opinion it is not only embarrassing to the person receiving the criticism but is downright rude. Am I wrong?

Answer: It is very poor sportsmanship to criticize one's partner, no matter how stupidly she may have played.

Question: My daughter is going to be married next month. There will be a rehearsal dinner at my house the night before the wedding.

I would like to know if the ring bearer and flower girl should be included at this dinner. Also, the young woman who is to be the maid of honor is engaged, and I would like to know if it is obligatory to ask her fiancé to this dinner?

Answer: The ring bearer and flower girl are surely much too young to be included at an evening party. The maid of honor's fiancé should be invited.

Question: When a salad is served on a small separate plate but with the meat course, where should the plate be placed?

Everyone seems to take for granted it belongs on the left whereas I think it not only is less convenient to reach across the plate to eat it from the left, but there is also less space to stand it on the left if a bread-and-butter plate is used. What about it?

Answer: The plate for salad served with the meat course is correctly placed on the left, and the bread-and-butter plate is also placed on the left above the salad plate.

Abby Tells 'Em How

Kids Would Play Cupid

DEAR ABBY: We need your advice. We are 200 seventh grade students. We have a teacher who is very pretty, but she is already 27 years old and she isn't married, and we are afraid she is going to be an old maid.

There is a darling policeman who is a bachelor and would be just right for her. He wants to meet her, but he is quite shy. How can we get them together? Thank you.

"200 CUPIDS": The next time your school has a social function, (P.T.A. visiting night, a school play or a hop) one of your boys should invite this policeman to come as his quest. Then one of the girls should tell the school teacher that the policeman was invited because he was interested in meeting her. Then all your "cupids" should disappear.

DEAR ABBY: Please print this for all the people who complained about the price of haircuts: Barbara, along with clergymen, firemen and policemen, belong to the "sacrifice" group. The public expects them to work for nothing.

I have the most trouble with baldies. They can comb their hair with a wash rag, yet they come in and ask for a haircut. ("Just trim it around the ears a little.") They gripe because I took off too much.

THE BARBER
DEAR ABBY: According to the way things should be $5.

And when the barber has to work half an hour fixing up a home haircut after it has been butchered by an amateur, he should charge $7.50.

Do you know it costs a barber $50 to go to school 15 months' apprenticeship, $30 for a set of clippers, $25 to take his barber test and $30 a year for a license? You tell 'em, Abby.

JOE
DEAR JOE: I guess that settles it. A barber shop is no clip joint.

DEAR ABBY: I am going with a woman who has been legally separated from her husband for six years. I want to marry her but she says she can't get a divorce because of her religion. What do you advise me to do?

RICHARD
DEAR RICHARD: Quit wasting my time.

Kennedy Needs Breathing Spell

Expected to Avoid Any Big Foreign Decisions for Several Months

WASHINGTON (AP) — The incoming Kennedy administration needs a foreign policy breathing spell of several months after inauguration to get its policies in shape for major negotiations with the Soviet Union.

Well-informed diplomats believe President-Elect John F. Kennedy and his secretary of state-designate, Dean Rusk, will seek to avoid any important new foreign commitments or proposals until next spring or summer.

Meantime Kennedy and Rusk will have to deal with crises as they arise. The most urgent of these at present is the civil war in Laos where both the United States and the Soviet Union are involved through aid to the contending factions. The breathing spell, as the diplomats see it, will be a period of intensive policy review in Washington and probably top-level Allied consultation. There is some speculation that after a period of months Kennedy might be interested in arranging a completely informal, brief, talk with Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Certainly, it is believed here, Kennedy would want to meet with Allied leaders briefly and informally before any get-together with Khrushchev. There also is speculation that perhaps in the spring he would undertake a flying visit to Europe to see such men as British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, French President Charles de Gaulle and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany.

Flag Down Son of Rocketteller for Reckless Driving

BERLIN, Conn. (AP) — Michael Rocketteller, 22, son of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, has a date in court here Feb. 2 to answer a traffic charge.

Rocketteller's youngest son was arrested on the Berlin Turnpike by state police during a snowstorm Sunday night for driving 60 miles per hour in a 45 m.p.h. zone.

A trooper said he chased young Rocketteller's car for half a mile before he caught him.

Rocketteller was charged with reckless driving and released an hour later when his family wired $100 bond.

The youth paid a $20 fine for speeding last September near Gray, Maine.

Planes Open Fire in Havana

Fly Low Over Prison, University; Blast Away With Machine Guns

HAVANA (AP) — Machine gunners opened fire on a low-flying plane in the area of Principe Prison and Havana University Tuesday night.

An official announcement indicated the plane got away, reporting there were no known casualties from the gunfire.

The gunfire was the heaviest veteran foreign newsmen could recall in Havana in the two years Castro has been in power.

Armed guards diverted all civilian traffic from the area of the prison, where about 3,000 persons—half of them political prisoners—have been held.

The firing brought a half-hour blackout at the Hotel Nacional, which is now a multinational headquarters. The Malecon sea-wall drive also was closed.

The U.S. textile industry was started in 1873 in the old Sailer mill in Pawtucket, R.I., and the mill is an historic landmark now.

Area Jaycee to Announce Outstanding Man Tonight

Pontiac's "outstanding young man of the year" will be announced this evening at the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce's annual Besses Night banquet at Devon Gables Inn.

He will be selected by three independent judges. Milo Cross, president of Pontiac State Bank; Ralph T. Norvell of Norvell Insurance Agency in Pontiac; and Horace Lodge, assistant vice president of Community National Bank.

The Jaycees also will select an "outstanding boss of the year," and a "key man" from their group.

Members will be accompanied by their bosses at the banquet scheduled for 7:15 p.m.

The outstanding young man will not be necessarily a Jaycee. He will be chosen for his services to the Pontiac community outside of those connected with his employment, and will receive the coveted Distinguished Service Award.

The outstanding boss will be chosen on the same basis.

Accusing U.S. Again

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev in a statement published Tuesday accused the United States of taking measures for intervention in Laos to convert it into a SEATO (Southeast Asia Treaty Organization) base.

The following are top prices covering sales of locally grown produce by growers and sold by them in wholesale package lots. Quotations are furnished by the Detroit Bureau of Markets, as of Monday.

Pivotal Issues Nudge Upward

NEW YORK (U) — The stock market nudged higher in moderately active trading early today.

Most pivotal issues made small gains. A number were unchanged. Small losers were scattered throughout the list.

The recovery movement which started late last Tuesday's declining market showed some follow-through, but it was not impressive.

Rails continued their rise of the previous session. Baltimore & Ohio added another 2. Fractionally higher were New York Central, Pennsylvania Railroad, and Southern Railway.

Steels, motors, and oils showed little change.

Texas Instruments, resumed its latest recovery drive, adding more than 2 at the start, then settling the gain to about a point.

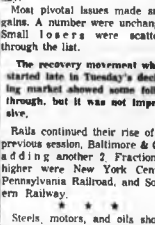

Ling-Temco, shakey by profit-taking Tuesday, took the upbeat again, rising 1/4 to 24 1/4 on an offering of 7,500 shares and in liquid.

Gains of about a point were made also by Revlon and Republic Aviation, the latter traded in a string of stable blocks.

The ticker tape lagged briefly at the start, then trading fell off. Du Pont was down a full point then traded unchanged. Westinghouse Electric, Goodyear, and Douglas Aircraft were losers.

Commission May Open Lakeside Project Center

A proposal to reopen the community center in the Lakeside Housing Project was taken under study by the City Commission last night.

Commissioners called for a report from David R. Ewell, director of parks and recreation, on his recommendations for the future of the center.

The center was closed last month after a series of Saturday night street brawls in its vicinity.

On the subject of zoning, a public hearing was held and two zoning changes introduced.

There were no objections raised during the hearing on the proposal to remove from residential to commercial five lots on the south side of Auburn Avenue, Clifford to Russell.

The planning commission reported that it favored the change.

Introduced were ordinance amendments to remove from residential to commercial the four lots on the northeast corner of Adcock and Jessie streets and the area between Mill Street and 90 Mt. Clemens St. and 83 E. Huron St.

A new request for rezoning from residential to commercial of the five lots on the southwest corner of Cass and Florence avenues was referred to the planning commission for study. A petition for the change was signed by 68 per cent of the affected residents.

Boys Help Law to Nab Burglar

Four boys assisted the sheriff's department yesterday in rugging down a burglar in Daviessburg, according to sheriff's deputies Rod Pleas and Mendon Westcott.

The boys, all of Daviessburg, are Gregory Prose, 11, of 12671 Andersonville Road; Danny Gray, 11, of 8125 Eaton St.; Rodney Fuller, 11, of 73 Broadway St.; and his brother Leo, 4.

They were passing the Daviessburg Lumber Co. office at 1310 Andersonville Road at 8:41 p.m. when they spotted the burglar inside through the front window.

When he came out, the four boys chased him, but he slipped away. Deputies were questioning the boys when Walter G. Brydges, 18, of 563 Daviessburg Road stroled up.

Gregory Prose immediately identified him as the burglar.

Deputies said Brydges admitted breaking into the lumberyard office, and told them he threw the money away while the boys were chasing him.

Missing from a cash box was about $5.

Entry had been gained through an unlocked rear window, deputies noted.

Brydges was charged with breaking and entering in the nighttime. He was to be arraigned today.

Arresting Set in Auburn Break-In

Charged with breaking into the Keego Hardware Store in Auburn Heights Monday night, James O. Vandervort, 22, of 850 St. Clair St., and Jerry W. Key, 19, of 2107 Caroline St., Auburn Heights, are scheduled for arraignment in Circuit Court Monday.

Both waived examination before Pontiac Township Justice of the Peace R. Grant Graham yesterday. Bond for each was set at $500.

Sheriff's deputies, who arrested the pair in Avon Township early Tuesday morning when they were chased after their car for having a faulty taillight, said they found 12 guns among other stolen items in their possession.

Eight guns had been stolen from the Keego Hardware store at 3320 Auburn Road.

Police Make Drive to Nail Criminals

Waterford Township Police Chief Millard J. Pender said that his department is making an all-out effort to track down three sales last week, and the culprits who broke into 12 homes in the township over the weekend.

Pender added that his detectives have questioned several suspects in the last 48 hours, but have not yet closed in on the crimes. Lt. William Stokes and detective Ernest Mann are working on the case in conjunction with other police departments.

Will Lay Off 200 at Fisher

Some 200 production workers at the Fisher Body plant in Pontiac will be laid off, starting next Monday, it was learned today.

A plant spokesman stated that the layoffs were due to an alteration in production schedules, which brings effective next week.

There was no indication of the length of the layoffs.

GMC Truck and Coach Division, meanwhile, announced that it was adding between 250-300 workers to its payroll over a 10-week period.

The additional workers were being added as the company begins production of new Intercity parlor coaches, a division spokesman said.

Birmingham Woman Injured in Crash

A Birmingham woman suffered facial cuts and fractured ribs in a two-car crash on Dixie Highway in Waterford Township yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Joseph Common, 41, of 3371 Miller Way was reported in satisfactory condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

She was a passenger in a car driven to her husband when it collided with the several-tonning car attempting to make a left hand turn.

Drivers of the second car, Darrell B. Simpson, 17, of 825 Williams Lake Road, Waterford Township, was issued a traffic summons by Pontiac state police for failing to yield the right-of-way.

He and Mrs. Common's 43-year-old husband were treated at the hospital for minor injuries and released.

Joe Kennedy in Washington 'for the Pahy'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — With a smile, as broad as his new England "pa", the father of the next president of the United States quietly insisted, "I'm just here for the pahy."

By party, 72-year-old Joseph P. Kennedy meant the inauguration Friday of President-Elect John F. Kennedy. And he was referring pretty specifically to the festive ceremony itself, because the elder Kennedy has decided against taking in much of the attendant merrymaking and winning and dining.

Living here Tuesday with his wife from the Florida where their son has been staying, Kennedy said he would attend "just a few" of the many public and private events this week.

First Divers Get Into Submerged Tower

NEW YORK (UPI) — Divers made their first entry into the submerged wreckage of the storm-wrecked radar tower off the New Jersey coast today in an effort to locate the tower.

In the first penetration of the tower's living quarters the divers found only debris. The search will continue until all parts of the superstructure have been explored.

Twenty-eight men are presumed to have died in the tragedy which occurred Sunday evening.

He added that his supporters did not plan to ask for further concessions and said that from now on they will judge each issue facing the Senate on its merits as it comes up.

Referring to the solid 12-vote support he received from the Democrats, Fitzgerald said, "We've made absolutely no deals. They asked absolutely nothing, and we promised nothing."

Iowa Town in Confusion After Bank Embezzlement

SHELDON, Iowa (AP) — The State Bank was deluged with requests for aid in solving money needs.

Townpeople had great difficulty believing Mrs. Geiger embezzled the bank funds. Many whom she had personally aided refused to credit the report.

Mrs. Geiger was held at Sioux City on a charge of embezzlement for a grand jury set to convene there Jan. 30. She waived a hearing and did not immediately make bail set at $10,000.

The bank was closed for liquidation by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. after a routine audit by federal bank examiners turned up the shortage Monday night.

Officials of the FDIC were checking the records of deposits which were insured up to $10,000 each. The bank's last statement on Dec. 31 listed total assets at $1,995,000. The embezzlements were estimated at $2,106,839.

One of Fitzgerald's staunchest supporters

Sen. Harry Litwisch, R-Benton Harbor, said he regarded "a man like Fitzgerald as a potential leader of the Republican party, and we wanted to have him in a key position of committee responsibility."

Fitzgerald has been named specifically as a possible GOP candidate for governor at some future date.

As for his committee's important job of screening Gov. Swanson's appointments, Fitzgerald said:

"I have no preconceived notions about any of them. I don't know a single one of the new appointees."

He said the committee would question each of the new ones before passing judgment on them.

If the GOP majority leader, Sen. Frank Besler, R-St. Clair, said he expected the fight over the committee chairmanship would leave some sore spots for a couple of weeks, but added that ruffled feelings probably would be smoothed over in time.

Pick Breech, Hannah

DETROIT (UPI) — Ernest R. Breech, former board chairman of Ford Motor Co., and John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State University, were elected Tuesday to the board of directors of Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit.

His father, W.P. Iverson, 83, president of the bank for 63 years, could only say: "I'm all choked up."

Stronger Rights Bill Introduced

Dems Join 2 GOPers as Sponsors, Ask That JFK Give Full Backing

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating and Jacob K. Javits of New York introduced a seven-part Civil Rights bill Tuesday and urged President-elect John F. Kennedy to give it his full support.

They said presidential action to end racial discrimination in education, housing, employment and voting "is not adequate to do the job and will not remedy the legislative gaps which exist."

Several other senators, including Democrats, joined in sponsoring the bill.

The measure would authorize the attorney general to intervene in civil rights suits brought by individuals, provide technical and financial aid to communities trying to integrate schools, establish a commission to end discrimination by firms with government contracts and extend the life of the Civil Rights Commission, due to expire in September.

It also would provide that any person with a sixth grade education would not have to provide further proof of literacy for voting purposes, eliminate the poll tax and property requirements as requisites for voting and make it illegal to deprive any person of his rights under the 14th Amendment, such as the right to a fair trial.

Kennedy 1st Scout to Be President

URBANNA, Va. (AP) — When ex-Tenderfoot Scout John F. Kennedy is inaugurated next Friday another precedent will be shattered.

He'll be the first former Boy Scout to be president of the United States, his old scoutmaster says. As president, ex-Scout Kennedy also becomes honorary president of the scouts.

Kennedy's old scoutmaster, Donald MacKinnon, today recalled those days when Kennedy was in Troop 2 in Brookline, N.Y. "He was a regular scout,"

NARROW ESCAPE — Neither David C. Fisher, 22, of Peru, Ind., nor Fred Kelsay, 23, Amboy, Ind., were seriously injured when this car driven by Fisher failed to negotiate a turn and struck a utility pole west of Converse, Ind., early Tuesday. The car snapped a utility pole and left it suspended in midair.

Westerlies Wilting; Here Comes Winter

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The High Westerlies have gone sluggish again, so get set for new invasions of cold wintry air from the north.

This was the word today from Jerome Namias, chief of the Weather Bureau's extended forecasts section. The outlook for some time ahead is not good for the east, south, and central parts of the country.

Last fall the High Westerlies were blowing straight and strong across the Northern United States. The effect was to block Arctic air masses trying to thrust their way southward.

Around the middle of November, the westerlies went flabby and got on an undulating course which left the country wide open to attack from the frigid north. The result was an early onset of winter.

The high winds, which circle the northern hemisphere constantly in a west-to-east direction, reached a low point in vigor around Dec. 20.

Then something began to pep them up, and in the past couple of weeks over America they were flowing powerfully and reasonably straight. During that period most of the country enjoyed mild weather.

But about a week ago over Europe the westerlies began to show "signs of decay," Namias said. This condition worked its way westward, against the current, so to speak, and now the symptoms of enfeeblement are pronounced over both North America and Pacific.

Ask More Pay in Congo

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Thirty Congolese policemen were arrested in the Leopoldville police camp Tuesday for agitating for more pay. Fifteen escaped before they could be taken out of the police camp.

Double Year Ago Here

Jobless Pay Figures Up

Unemployment is on the rise in the Pontiac area according to figures released today by the Michigan Employment Security Commission's Pontiac Office.

The statistics show more than twice the number of unemployment claims filed last week as were a year ago.

There were 5,563 compensation claims filed at the local office last week as compared to 5,171 the previous week.

One year ago there were 2,582 claims filed during the corresponding week.

"The unemployment trend has been steadily upward since mid-November," said Paul Kimball, branch manager.

"This is not a normal trend for this time of year. It's heavier than usual," Kimball asserted.

"We hope it won't continue, but we have no reason now to believe there will be any drastic change," Kimball declined to make any prediction for the coming month.

"Unemployment figures are almost impossible to predict in advance," Kimball explained.

"Much of the current unemployment is due to seasonal layoffs in the Pontiac area, auto industry layoffs are not a particularly important factor right now, according to Kimball.

"At the present time, most auto layoffs affect people who live in the North Oakland area but work in the Detroit area," said Kimball.

"Generally speaking, the unemployment claims load reflects a decline in business following the Christmas season."

The unemployment claims load was 2,558 in mid-November and has grown gradually each week since then.

Air Force Tries to Injure NASA, House Unit Says

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Space Committee said today an "unhealthy competitive atmosphere" has been created by Air Force pressure groups and some missile makers aimed at "degrading" the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The space committee, in a preliminary staff study on America's large space boosters, said the competition has resulted from a lack of national leadership.

The report said "Many of the basic decisions required to give this program impetus and direction have yet to be made."

De Gaulle Said Set to Pacify Rebels

PARIS (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle was reported ready today to delay much of his reorganization plan for Algeria so as not to block peace talks with the Muslim rebels.

De Gaulle summoned his cabinet to study the Algerian provisional government's statement which urged the start of negotiations to end the six-year-old war.

The French Algerian affairs committee took up the question of putting into effect a new provisional administration for Algeria as approved in the recent national referendum.
