Chiang Fears Islands Will Be Bartered Away

Chou Refuses to Send Envoy to U.N. Parley

Claims Formosa Talks Constitute Meddling in China's Affairs

LONDON (AP) — Premier Chou En-lai said today Communist China would attend a United Nations debate on the Formosa situation only if Nationalist China was ousted from the Security Council in her favor.

TOKYO (AP) — Premier Chou En-lai of Communist China yesterday refused to send a representative to the United Nations to discuss the critical Formosa situation.

Chou's message, addressed yesterday to Dag Hammarskjold, U. N. Secretary General, led off by saying he supported the resolution laid before the Security Council by Russia concerning "acts of aggression by the United States."

Chou said he was of the firm opinion that the Security Council should condemn the United States "for its acts of aggression against China and call upon the United States to stop immediately its aggression against China ... and withdraw all its armed forces from Formosa and the Formosa Strait."

Chou repeated his thesis that Red China's determination to "liberate" Formosa could not be the cause of world tension because this was an internal matter.

Chou lashed out at New Zealand's proposal in the Security Council to consider the matter of hostilities around Formosa—a measure designed to open up the question of a cease-fire.

"This is obviously to intervene in China's internal affairs and to cover up the acts of aggression by the United States against China, and is therefore in direct violation of the fundamental principles of the United Nations charter," Chou's message said.

Chou declared that his government "is firmly opposed to this proposal to intervene in China's affairs."

Crews Bring Aid to Tornado Areas

TUNICA, Miss. (AP) — Tornado relief workers wrestled today with the problems of arranging burial for the dead, healing the injured and helping the homeless.

Red Cross disaster specialists directed volunteer crews in bringing order in the delta farm area where 22 were killed by tornadoes Tuesday.

The twisters killed 19 on the 8,000-acre Leatherman plantation at Commerce Landing, Miss., and three more in the wreckage of a rural school near Olive Branch, Miss.

Draft Extension OK'd

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Armed Services Committee today approved 32-0 a bill extending the draft for four more years. The House is expected to consider it next week.

Chinese Nationalists Stay on Alert

BAYONET TRAINING — A Chinese Nationalist soldier, in training on Formosa, which is threatened with invasion by Chinese Communists from the mainland, goes through a bayonet drill. Chiang Draftees Undergoing Stiff Infantry Training

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — Motorcades of young Chinese Nationalist army draftees snake through the streets of this capital city daily on their way to rugged infantry training.

The automobiles bearing the young draftees—80 per cent of them native Formosans—are festooned with bright banners calling for a staunch defense of Formosa. The draftees pitch out crackling strings of firecrackers.

After their big sendoff, the men are loaded on trains and taken to Nationalist training camps, where their terms of service range from 3 to 10 months. Younger soldiers get the longer terms.

Draft age is 18 to 44 but the vast majority of draftees appear to be the minimum age.

The Nationalists say 100,000 men have been drafted for this service in the last five years. After their training is complete, the men are released but are kept in the army reserve.

Training in many units is crisp and efficient. Chinese Army units are organized from battalion down almost exactly like American units and are equipped with the same weapons and vehicles.

The troops wear the dull green fatigue uniforms of U.S. soldiers but the suits are altered to the high-neck Chinese style for both officers and men. Training is heavy on camouflage.

They're Sure to Say, 'Better Hire a Train'

DRIGGS, Idaho (AP) — Postal authorities are planning to switch mail deliveries from trains to highway vehicles on a route that passes through here. They were scheduled to tell Driggs residents yesterday why the move means better service for them.

A crowd waited for several hours but the postal officials never showed up. Seems the roads, in the wake of a snowstorm, were too bad for travel.

America Reels as Winter Lands 2nd Heavy Punch

By UNITED PRESS

Winter hit the nation with its second heavy blow of the season today, sending the mercury skidding below zero in New York City and whipping sunny California with cold, destructive winds.

Meanwhile, a growing storm dumped up to 13 inches of snow on Wyoming and moved into New Mexico and Colorado on the heels of 50-mile-per-hour wind gusts.

The second invasion of icy Arctic air in two weeks blanketed most of the nation from the Mississippi Valley to the Atlantic Ocean.

Northern New England, which didn't even have a letup from last week's cold wave, was hit hardest. The temperature went to 23 below zero at Newport, Vt., nine below at Albany, N. Y., and zero at Boston, Mass.

The Arctic front swept into the east on Ground Hog Day yesterday hitting New York City with a 3.7 inch snowfall, the heaviest of the year in the metropolis.

Manhattan also shivered in its coldest temperature of the season when the mercury went a fraction below zero early today. Low-

4 Above Zero Recorded Here

More Cold Weather Forecast as Winter Returns to State

Winter hit Michigan and the Pontiac area with renewed vigor today as temperatures throughout the state dropped to near and below zero.

The Detroit weather bureau said a cold air mass invaded the state from the northwest and shoved out warm air which had brought a few balmy days to the shivering state.

In Pontiac, the temperature dropped to four degrees this morning, and is expected to drop to 5-9 degrees tonight.

Pellston was the coldest spot in the state last night with 19 degrees below zero. Sault Ste. Marie had 10 below while Battle Creek and Gladwin had 6 below.

Detroit was the warmest spot in Michigan's lower peninsula with seven above while Marquette was high in the upper peninsula with 15 above.

Forecasters said they expected the cold wave to continue through tonight and tomorrow with a possible warming up spell tomorrow night, accompanied by possible snow.

Meanwhile, the Automobile Club of Michigan reported that roads in the northern half of the Lower Peninsula and in the western half of the Upper Peninsula were slippery in spots. It said other roads in the state were clear.

Tomorrow's high will be near 25, dropping to a low of 10 Friday night. Saturday will bring more deep freeze and light snow.

Today in downtown Pontiac at 8 a.m. the mercury stood at five degrees, dropping to four at 9 o'clock and rising to 17 by 2 p.m.

Bishop Emrich Urges Church Desegregation

DETROIT (AP) — The Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, bishop of the Michigan Episcopal diocese, has called on churches in the diocese to accept members of "every racial and cultural background."

At the annual diocesan convention, he urged the churches to do "on the basis of love" what the U.S. Supreme Court did "on the basis of law and justice." He referred to the court's ruling last year against segregated schools.

Boxcar Rams House; 6 Hurt

Part of Derailed Train Plunges Into Ohio Home as Family Sleeps

LONDON, Ohio (AP)—Six members of a London family were injured early today when one of 19 freight cars derailed in a New York Central railroad accident crashed into their home as they slept.

All New York Central trains on the Big Four division were being rerouted through Dayton, some on the Pennsylvania line.

Ralph Scurry, 43; his wife Gladys 43; and their four children were injured as the derailed boxcar left the tracks with the other 18, struck a residence garage and then slammed into the bedroom of the Scurry home.

Scurry was pinned in his bed in the demolished room, with the boxcar towering over him. Mrs. Scurry climbed out though the big hole punched out of the wall, to summon aid. She suffered cuts and bruises.

And in Salem, Ohio, six cars—five sleepers, and mail-express car—of the Pennsylvania Railroad's eastbound Gotham Limited derailed early today at nearby Leetonia.

The PRR said the cars remained upright after leaving the track and nobody was hurt. The derailment occurred five miles east of Salem about 7:50 a.m., shortly after the train passed over a small stream.

The train was en route from Chicago to New York.

Mendes Regime Likely to Topple on African Issue

French Premier Loses Support of Colleague Rene Mayer

PARIS (AP) — Premier Pierre Mendes-France's government was in grave danger tonight.

Radical Socialist Rene Mayer told Mendes-France, a fellow party member, that he would vote against him in the present debate on the Premier's North African policy.

Mayer's decision probably means the crumbling of Mendes-France's majority in the National Assembly and the downfall of his government.

Mayer spoke to a hushed Assembly at the start of the second day of debate on the North African question. He was applauded frequently by what appeared to be more than half of the approximately 350 deputies present. Joining in the applause seemed to be many followers of Gen. Charles de Gaulle, who also has supported Mendes-France in the past.

Mayer, in the dramatic conclusion of his hour-long speech, addressed the Premier directly and said, "In the past you have often asked for a renewal of confidence. In this case I cannot renew mine."

The Premier was expected to call for a confidence vote sometime before midnight, requiring him to resign if he loses. The vote should come early Saturday.

The government was accused yesterday both of going too far and not going far enough in offering greater self-government to the North Africans.

Several Communist deputies charged the government had done too little. But other speakers, chiefly from the extreme right, insisted trouble in Algeria had been fomented only after the government showed weakness in France's protectorate of Tunisia, where negotiations for local self-government have dragged on for months.

Alert Dogs Save Two Families

Residents Warned of Fire by Animals' Barking This Morning

Eight persons, three adults and five children, today owe their lives to man's best friends—a mongrel and a German Shepherd dog.

A Pontiac fireman's wife, Mrs. Lawson Evans, 38, of 240 W. Ann Arbor, had continuously complained to her husband, Lawson, "to get rid of "Champ," a German Shepherd which the firefighter brought home six months ago.

Now, according to Evans, "she won't let go of champ for love or money."

Evans was on duty at 5:30 a.m. today. His wife and two children, Pamela, eight months and Douglas, two were sleeping.

Champ was lying asleep in the kitchen, suddenly the dog smelled smoke.

He rushed into Mrs. Evans' bedroom, barking and licking her face. When Mrs. Evans awakened she smelled smoke coming from the space heater which had overflown. Flames were shooting high and touching the wall.

She immediately turned off the oil burner and called her hus-

Health Authorities Urge Fluoridation of Water

DETROIT (INS) — Medical specialists from the U. S. and Canada joined last night in urging more widespread adoption of water fluoridation to prevent tooth decay.

Dr. Thomas Parran, former surgeon general of the U. S. Public Health Service, said the fluoridation process has been proved scientifically to be "simple, cheap, effective and completely safe."

Dr. Parran, who currently is dean of the University of Pittsburgh Graduate School of Public Health, was one of the speakers at a banquet at which the Detroit District Dental Society marked the completion of the ten-year

Local Petitions Ask for Vote on Fluoride

In some copies of Wednesday's Pontiac Press it was stated that petitions are being circulated here to ban water fluoridation in Pontiac. Actually the petitions ask that the issue be put up to the voters who will be asked to vote on a proposed ordinance to ban fluoridation of Pontiac's water supply.

study of fluoridation in Grand Rapids.

Dr. Parran asserted:

"Those who oppose fluoridation are the same kind of people as those who opposed chlorination of the water supply and pasteurization of milk.

"They overlooked the important point that only through these measures could water and milk be made safe."

He added:

"Every scientific organization having any competence in the field has joined in endorsing fluoridation."

Extension of the fluoridation process also was recommended to the dental society last night by Dr. William L. Hutton of Brantford, Ont., Canada's leading authority on fluoridation.

The 66-year-old physician declared:

"Let me assure you of this: "Brantford has been fluoridating

Premiers Take Economic Pulse

Commonwealth Chiefs Keep Anxious Watch on Formosa Crisis

LONDON (AP)—The British Commonwealth prime ministers turned today to an examination of the economic health of their nine nations but kept an anxious watch on the explosive Formosa situation.

Britain's Chancellor of the Exchequer Richard A. Butler was scheduled to give the conferring premiers a general survey of the Commonwealth's economic and financial position.

Informants said Butler's report would deal with the prospect of liberalizing trade with America.

They expected him to examine the problem of making the pound sterling convertible into other currencies without setting any timetable for realizing that objective.

Meanwhile, the Colombo powers, three of whom — India, Pakistan and Ceylon — are represented at the Commonwealth meeting, were seen as possible intermediaries in Formosa if the United Nations Security Council fails in its peace moves.

Representatives of the two other Colombo nations—Indonesian Ambassador to London Raden Supomo and Burmese Charge d'Affaires Sod Boonwdat, called on India's Prime Minister Nehru yesterday.

U.S. Reluctant About Guarding Quemoy, Matsu

Evacuation of Tachens Stalled; Nationalists Hit Red Land, Ships

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — Nationalist bombers and outpost island artillery pounded Chinese Communist land targets and shipping yesterday and last night along a 350-mile oceanic front from Formosa Strait northward into the East China Sea.

There were no reports of Communist action.

While Chiang Kai-shek's airmen and gunners carried on the furious civil war, the whole issue of a Nationalist pullout from the menaced Tachen Islands 200 miles north of Formosa appeared to be hanging in the balance today because of U.S. reluctance to give clear-cut guarantees for the protection of the offshore islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

Reports from London claim that Red China might agree to an unwritten cease-fire in the troubled Formosa area in exchange for the islands.

This produced angry reaction here today.

Said one Nationalist officer:

"We start by talking about the evacuation of the Tachens in the interest of peace and now we are talking about giving up every outlying island."

Chiang Kai-shek's people fear the crisis, precipitated by Communist seizure of tiny Yikiangshan, will wind up in what they consider the old and discouraging pattern of more concessions to the Reds.

It was also felt here that disagreement between the Nationalists and the United States is playing into the hands of those who are willing to give the maximum to Communist China.

Until a few days ago there were indications that if Chiang agreed to evacuate the exposed and threatened Tachens, the United States would agree to help him defend Matsu and Quemoy.

But Washington reports, at least as interpreted here, now make it

Subzero Weather Fails to Deter Tax Increase

MIDDLEBURY, Vt. (AP)—A hundred and fifty Middlebury voters turned out for the annual village meeting in subzero weather last night — and voted themselves a 16-cent tax increase. Middlebury's population is 4,780.

MONROE, Mass. (AP) — Ralph L. Ballou, 73, says he will retire from public service March 7, leaving a vacancy in eight town jobs. He is town treasurer, clerk, sealer of weights, fence viewer, measurer of wood and bark, measurer of lumber, burial agent and assessor for this Berkshire town of 174 residents.

Your Food May Be Spoil-Proof

Human Guinea Pigs Will Test Diet Treated by Radioactive Cobalt Rays

DENVER (INS) — Atomic age food know - how is expected to be greatly benefited from an experiment which begins March 1 at Fitzsimons Army Hospital at Denver. On that day 10 conscientious objectors begin a regular diet of foods bombarded by ionized radiation from radioactive cobalt.

The experiment in using ionized radiation to preserve foods, will be conducted by experts of the U. S. Army Medical Nutrition Laboratory located at Fitzsimons Hospital.

Scientists at the University of Michigan, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the National Meat Institute and many other government and university research committees are cooperating in the tests.

Laboratory spokesmen emphasized that food to be consumed in the experiment will not be subject to "atomic" radiation, but rather ionized radiation from cobalt, long employed in the radiological treatment of cancer.

Experimentation thus far has proven that light exposure to the ionized radiation kills bacteria in certain foodstuffs, which already have been canned.

The work indicates that if kept relatively cool, the foods are apparently rid of the danger of spoilage. Over-radiation will ruin the foods, but its effects on the digestive system are not known because such tests have not yet been made.

Biggest question to be answered, however, is whether the radiation destroys any of the nutritive qualities of the foods treated.

To check effects of the irradiated food, the group of 10 conscientious objectors, all volunteers, will eat food exposed to radiation at the Atomic Energy Commission's laboratories at Idaho Falls. The food will be packed in dry ice and shipped to Denver.

The Army's medical nutritional laboratory, in preparation for the unique experiment, began last July an organization of laboratory facilities to eliminate all possibility of error once the actual feeding starts.

The 10 participants' food intake will be watched closely.

They will not be permitted off the Fitzsimons reservation with-

Young Drinkers Draw Sentences

4 Avon Youths Given Terms in County Jail for Possessing Beer

Four Avon Township youths charged with illegal possession of beer, drew a total of 10 months in the Oakland County Jail when they pleaded guilty before Pontiac Township Justice Robert W. Hodge.

The four, arrested yesterday by Oakland County sheriff's deputies, are Robert Sampson, 19, of 2500 Longview, James Maybee, 18, of 2627 Frankson, Clement Berger, 18, of 3035 John R, and John Crase, 17, of 2540 Frankson.

Hodge said he gave Crase the alternative of paying a $25 fine and $20 cost, but sentenced him to a month when he was unable to pay. The other three, because "of past records" were sentenced to two months each, but were given an added month each when they failed to pay $20 costs each.

Maybee and Berger, Hodge said, had been on probation for breaking and entering in the nighttime and were involved with a group of youths recently when a 17-year-old girl was shot in the back by an Oxford farmer. Sampson had served a 45-day sentence for drunk driving.

The four were picked up yesterday in an auto driven by Sampson, after the father of a 15-year-old boy complained the youths forced his son to give up his newspapers while making delivieries. The boy said the four youths tore the papers to shreds. Police said the youths had been drinking at the time of their arrest. A case of partly consumed beer was found in the car.

appear that agreement is out — at least in specific form.

They might at that, but they will be under considerable pressure to accept a cease-fire.

President Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday that American plans for Quemoy and Matsu are tactical details about which the government cannot afford to be too specific.

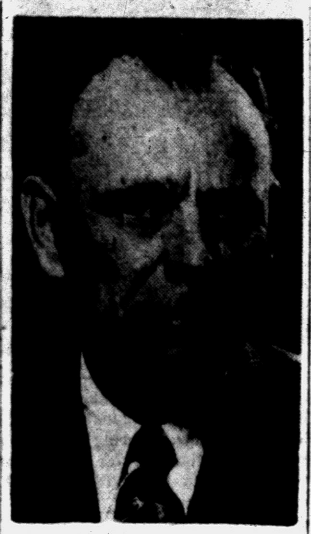

Warships of the U.S. 7th Fleet rode in heavy mists waiting for possible orders on their role in evacuation of the Tachen Islands.

Drizzling rain washed across their decks.

Reverses Road Stand

Half-Cent Gas Tax Hike Proposed by Governor

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams, suddenly reversing himself, today proposed a half-cent a gallon increase in the gasoline tax and a 25 per cent boost in truck license fees, to finance an "integrated arterial highway system" for Michigan.

Apparently trying to regain the initiative from Republican legislators pushing their own counter-proposal, Williams gave up his long standing opposition to an increase in gasoline taxes.

He said his tax increase would finance half of a 500 million dollar highway construction bond issue and that this, with expected increases in federal aid to the states and the toll road programs, would permit a $1,230,000,000 arterial system program in the next six to 10 years.

The other half of the bond issue cost, Williams said, could be paid out of existing Highway Department funds for new constructions without depleting any of the road construction in cities, villages and counties.

Williams' proposal, for which he said he would stump the state, ran directly into a House Republican plan for a two-cents a gallon gas tax increase—from 4½ cents to 6½ cents—and permission for local governments to use part of the new money to finance road construction with revenue bonds.

The House bill, known as the Peltz "Package," may come out of committee today but the sponsor, Rep. Emil R. Peltz (R-Rogers City), said he doubted whether debate could start before Wednesday and he expressed doubt that a vote could be obtained before the middle of next week.

Both Williams and the Republicans are under extreme pressure to get their proposals on the April ballot. To do so they must clear their plans through the Legislature by mid-February at the latest.

Both Williams' and the Peltz plan would both have to go to the voters for approval.

Williams emphasized strongly that his plan would build up the main traffic arteries in the state without taking any money away from rural roads and city street construction.

He figured that the 500 million dollar bond issue would require 31 million dollars a year for 20 years to finance.

The state Highway Department, he said, has programed about 31 million dollars of new construction a year for state trunklines out of its share of highway taxes.

Thus, he argued that the Highway Department could take the 16 million dollars in new revenues his plan foresees, and 15 million dollars of its regular construction budget to pay off the bond issue.

He said the Highway Department's contribution to the bond issue financing would be taken from main arteries which the bond issue would rebuild instead.

The remaining 15 million, he said, would still be left for expenditure on lesser highways according to present plans.

Williams would ask the voters to do three things:

1—Approve the 500 million dollar bond issue with the money earmarked for highways eligible for federal aid—most of those in the state—but which also could show a high degree of need.

2—Create a highway council to decide which roads should have priority.

3—Raise the gas and truck license tax to pay for half the bond issue.

Williams said his plan essentially called for a 10-year plan for giving Michigan a $1,230,000,000 "integrated arterial system" from a state bond issue and increased federal aid expected to be recommended to Congress soon by President Eisenhower.

The Day in Birmingham

Junior Achievement Units to End 4-Day Open House

BIRMINGHAM — Birmingham's eight Junior Achievement companies will end their four-day open house at 177 S. Woodward tonight, with hours from 7 to 9, but this doesn't by any means imply that they're closing up shop.

On the contrary, either local citizenry or representatives of firms which might sponsor added JA groups are invited to watch the business executives of tomorrow, any time Mondays through Thursdays from 7 to 9 p.m.

Here, age makes the difference. In the case of some 250 students, it's serious business to make and sell products that will result in profit and not losses when companies are dissolved at the end of the school year.

Companies, backed by business firms and organizations, are working hard—manufacturing and selling worthwhile items—like Unalco, which sells a lintless cleaning cloth; Socco, a beverage server; JA Magicraft, cuff links; Birmingham Alumico, an aluminum candle holder; Wee-Ma-Kit Co., spot remover kit; and T.N.T. Products, a vanity lamp.

Perhaps most unique of the companies is J-Ad, which is just what the name implies. Only service company of the group, J-Ad handles direct advertising for JA companies all over the Detroit area. Junior Achievement Week is currently being celebrated nationally.

Growing upward is Jacobson's store at 336 W. Maple. Architect's plans for two more floors, which will double present floor space, are now being prepared, Wilbur R. Mason Jr., local manager, said today.

So new is the project, exact use of the added floors will be announced later, he said. Some sections of the store will be enlarged, and new departments will be created, he stated.

Dress rehearsal will be held tonight for the Feb. 23 recital planned by Junior League Musicale members. The meeting will be at 7:30 at the Westchester Way home of Mrs. D. L. Tate.

Regular meeting of the Business Women's Club will start off with dinner at 6:30 tonight at the Community House.

Colored sound films of England and France will be shown when young adults of the YMCA meet tonight. Plans will also be completed for a Valentine box social scheduled for Feb. 9.

Given first aid at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, following a two-car collision on 14 Mile road yesterday was Rosalie Fleming, 17, of Royal Oak.

She was a passenger in a car driven by Myron E. Winegan, 18, of Royal Oak. Ticketed was Valeria V. Manturuk, 42, of Clawson, for failure to yield the right of way to oncoming traffic. Police said Mrs. Manturuk turned her car into the path of Winegan's as she attempted to pull into a driveway.

Woman Driver Ticketed After 105 M.P.H. Chase

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Police paced the auto of Frances M. Carr, 20, of 100 W. Rundell St., Pontiac, at 90 miles per hour yesterday afternoon and chased her for four miles on Woodward Ave at speeds up to 105 m.p.h. in a vain attempt to stop her.

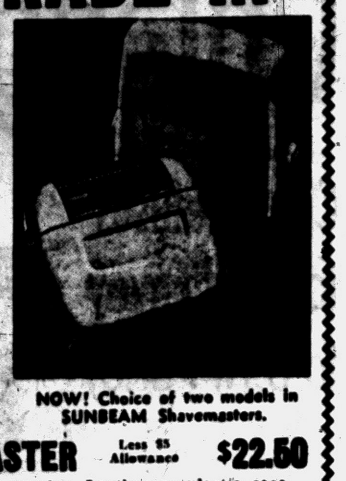

They issued her a reckless driving ticket after alerting Pontiac Police to apprehend her. Miss Carr told police she "was in a hurry."

State Hospital Plans Open House in May

Plans for making the ninth annual open house at Pontiac State Hospital the best ever are being pushed by Dr. Ivan A. LaCore, hospital director and Miss Marguerite M. Parrish, director of occupational therapy.

The event will take place during Mental Health Week, and the hospital will be host to the public on May 1-4.

Twelve youngsters from 10 to 17 years old, residents at the hospital, attended the auto show in Detroit Monday. Tickets were donated and children were escorted by a representative of the hospital and a Red Cross worker.

The death rate from polio in 1954 was about the same as in 1953, although there was a rise in the number of cases in 1954.

Reports Burning Beans

CLEVELAND, Tenn. (AP)—Volunteer fireman Herbert Benton was en route to a fire when he saw smoke coming from his own house. He reported the "fire" but learned it was only a pot of beans burning on the stove.

9,000 GIs to See Spring A-Tests

All Services Will Send Men to Participate in Nuclear Experiments

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department said today about 9,000 men from all the armed services will take part in the atomic weapons test to be held in Nevada this spring.

The tests, it said, have been designed to evaluate the effects of "new and improved nuclear weapons" on the training that the military services have been undergoing for atomic warfare. "Much progress" already has been made in developing organizations and tactics for that type of combat, the Pentagon said.

Some 2,100 Navy and Marine Corps officers and men will take part in exercises that will include an atomic explosion. The announcement did not say whether Army or Air Force units will train with actual atomic explosions.

The exercises at Desert Rock will be under the over-all direction of the armed forces Special Weapons Project Field Command Headquarters, located at Sandia Base, Albuquerque, N.M.

The Army will put about 4,300 men and officers, including an armored task force, into its phase of the exercise which has been designated Desert Rock VI. The whole operation has been given the name Teapot.

Air Force participation will include men and equipment from the Air Force Special Weapons Center, Kirtland Air Force Base, N.M., and units from both the Strategic and Tactical Air Command. The Air Force units, the Pentagon said, will operate not only from nearby bases but also from stations in distant parts of the United States and from overseas.

The Marine Corps will be represented by the 3rd Provisional Atomic Exercise Brigade and will demonstrate the use of helicopters on a battle field where atomic weapons are employed.

The announcement contained no hint as to the type of nuclear weapons or explosions that will be set off.

JURY TO HEAR LOVE STORY—A jury is being impanelled in Cleveland to hear the tangled love story of a youth who plans to marry the high school girl whose father he is charged with shooting to death. Charged with manslaughter is Archie Faggaini. Waiting to testify against him, but praying he will be acquitted so they can be married, is Maxine Webb, 15. Faggaini is pleading self-defense in the shooting which took place during an argument with Maxine's father over Faggaini's intentions.

Taxpayers Forget Date to Revenue Men's Delight

WASHINGTON (AP) — There's an air of quiet satisfaction at revenue service headquarters for an unusual reason: a lot of people apparently have not caught on to one provision of the new tax law.

A number of taxpayers evidently think the income tax filing deadline is still March 15, as it was for 40 years. But the 1954 tax law moved the date to April 15, effective this year.

Since this change was widely publicized, the revenue service had glumly expected a dull January followed by a mounting crush of calls for help in making out returns during February, March and early April.

It just isn't developing that way. A headquarters telephone check of some major tax filing points today disclosed that business is as good this January as a year before—better in some places.

And a check of one long line of taxpayers waiting for advice in the Washington area disclosed that something like 80 to 90 per cent of the people in the line thought the income tax deadline was still March 15.

The revenue service is continuing last year's drive to give priority to returns calling for a refund.

Also, last year's program of giving an especially close look at returns calling for big refunds is being repeated. Oofficials never have said where they drew the line between "big" and "small" refunds, but it was reported to have been at or near $200 last year, with all refund claims over that amount being set aside for special scrutiny. The line may have been dropped to around $150 this year, but officials would neither confirm nor deny this report.

Situation Is Explosive

KONOSU, Japan (AP)—Police are looking for 300 sticks of dynamite missing from a load of 1,800 sticks that spilled from an overturned truck. Passers-by picked up some of them. Police are worried because they resemble kairo sticks a fuel which Japanese use in portable warmers.

Take It From a Princess, Girls, and Give Up Milk

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Princess Irene Mdivani has come up with a succinct appraisal of American women.

The White Russian princess formerly headed the Paris house of Schiaparelli. She said yesterday: "The American woman drinks too much milk. She is too preoccupied with her bust measurement. She dresses unwisely to please herself rather than a man, and she worries too much about staying young. Otherwise, she's quite nice."

Records indicate that the first apple tree was planted in what is now the United States in 1629.

Woman Protests 'Third Degree' Over Trash Can

DETROIT (AP) — For lack of an adequate rubbish can, Mrs. Shirley Ann Duckett, 24, was haled into a police station yesterday.

"They shot questions at me like it was the third degree," Mrs. Duckett protested. "Just like I'd committed some sort of a crime."

She said police fingerprinted her, asked her if her parents were born in the United States, if she or her husband ever had been arrested, requested her height and weight and made her sign her name.

Then they threatened to lock her up, she said, until her scheduled court appearance today. Her three young daughters accompanied her to headquarters in a police cruiser.

Police said Mrs. Duckett was warned last July to get an adequate rubbish can and to maintain her half of the alley in a sanitary manner. She was ticketed in November and the warrant was signed in January.

But the petite young wife of a salesman, just back from a long Miami vacation, said she bought a new rubbish can two months ago so threw the November ticket away.

"Besides," she added, "there's a woman down the street who doesn't even have a rubbish can."

Sewage Plant Opened

LAKE ODESSA (AP)—The community's new $235,000 sewage disposal plant was opened officially Wednesday. Construction on the project was started last May.

In many of the states the will of an unmarried woman is deemed to be revoked when she marries.

Figures Show TB Cases Nearly Equal Unused Beds

Two events within recent weeks have served to emphasize the great progress that has been made toward the conquest of tuberculosis.

The first of these was the closing December 1, for lack of patients, of the Trudeau Sanatorium at Saranac Lake, N. Y. The other was the threat by State Sen. Porter of Blissfield, appropriations committee chairman, to wield the economy knife on tuberculosis sanatorium funds because there are more beds than patients.

The Trudeau institution was the country's oldest sanatorium. When it was founded 70 years ago the TB death rate was terrific. Fifteen years later in 1900, the rate was 200 deaths per 100,000 population. Today it is only 12.6 per 100,000.

Back of Sen. Porter's economy threat is the fact that there are 833 beds in the four State sanatoriums but only 484 patients. It also is a fact that there are 12,660 beds in county institutions and that 2,771 of them are vacant.

The large number of unoccupied beds is an aftermath of the 1951 "pork barrel" expansion of TB facilities. But the number of vacant beds may be deceiving. That, at least, is the contention of Dr. John A. Cowan, the State's expert on TB control.

The answer, he says, is not to close sanatoriums but "to get into the hospitals those patients who have the disease, who aren't hospitalized and who can endanger the rest of the population." He puts the number of such known active cases at 2,976, including 1,805 who have the disease in an advanced stage.

The number of patients who have left sanatoriums against medical advice increased 71 per cent between 1949 and 1953. That increase is attributed to the widespread belief in the magic of the so called wonder drugs. It also may result from the fact that while the law can commit a TB patient to a sanatorium, it can't keep him there.

The Press favors all reasonable sanatorium economy. But it seems to us that Dr. Cowan's contention deserves consideration. Getting more TB victims into hospitals not only would fill many of the beds but would speed the final conquest of this disease.

Driver Exams Stiffened

In a praiseworthy effort to reduce further the terrible toll of highway traffic, Michigan's Department of State is stiffening its examinations for new drivers.

Henceforth applicants for first licenses will be required to answer 100 instead of 40 "check the correct answer" questions. These were developed by the State Police with the help of Northwestern University's traffic institute.

After testing 345 high school students and 65 National Guardsmen, two Michigan State College professors decided that to pass this test one must not have more than seven wrong answers.

This test also must be taken by new residents of the State and by drivers who have allowed their licenses to lapse. Applicants for new licenses who are under 18 must be accompanied to the licensing office by a parent. Drivers seeking renewals need only to pass the eye test.

The aim of this stiffened test is to make as sure as humanly possible that all of the thousands of new drivers know the rules of the road.

Secretary of State Harr's department is to be commended for this latest step toward greater traffic safety.

Manila Reoccupied 10 Years Ago Today

It was on February 3, 1945, that U. S. forces under Gen. Douglas MacArthur, reoccupied the Philippines' capital city of Manila.

The return of our forces came two years and nine months after the last American had surrendered to the Japanese on Bataan peninsula.

After their landing on Luzon's Lingayen Gulf, our forces had almost unchallenged command of the air and sea. This enabled them to envelop Manila quickly from three sides, although it was some days before the last Japanese snipers' rifles were silenced.

In the 10 years since that historic date, the Republic of the Philippines was born with our blessing and it continues to be a show case for democracy in the Orient.

So prosperous were Americans in 1954 that they could afford four million new babies — a figure that represents considerably more than half the number of new cars they were able to acquire!

"Money talks" — and it's a great pity that in so many cases it talks loud enough to drown out the voice of conscience.

The Man About Town

Delinquent Parents

Pontiac Man Tells of His Work in City of Detroit

Truth: The longest word in the English language—it's stretched so much.

An example of parental promotion of juvenile delinquency comes to me from a Pontiac man who has been working on a house to house solicitation job in Detroit. When he has been making a call on a home and is about to leave, he finds that the children have hidden his hat, and will not produce it unless they get a 50 cent tip. Parents uphold their children in the racket, and often brag about the money they collect that way. The practice has become so prevalent that it adds $5 or more per day to the solicitor's expense account. The architect of this column is sure no Pontiac family would stoop so low.

Too many people when they make up their minds do not wish to be confused with the facts, according to a statement with which most of us will agree.

Secretary and Treasurer of the Pontiac Coon Hunters' Club, tells me that the sport still is quite popular in this area. The club's recent annual meeting was attended by 78 hunters of this smiling faced animal.

Lewis M. Wrenn,

Wooden highway bridges, of which Oakland County once had several hundred, now are quite a rarity. Our older residents remember the rattling planks. Do you know of any still in use?

A new power ice shaver is in operation at Oakland County's largest outdoor skating rink at Kent Lake Park, just south of Milford, and says it keeps the ice in top shape. The rink is lighted at night, with shelters at hand, and is patronized by thousands. It is on the property of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority and open to everybody.

Now in Florida on his winter vacation, writes that he saw a traffic sign in Georgia: "A drinking driver needs a cop for a chaser."

George Weymouth

Competitive neighborliness is shown by a sign on the door of a Flint restaurant: "Closed today, but they serve good meals next door."

Ellsworth Christopher,

well known Pontiac resident in the closing years of the last century, and now in the possession of his daughter. He spent a week at the Chicago World's Fair of 1893 at a total cost of $18.53. Of this $5 went for his round trip railroad fare to Chicago, $7 for board and room there for a week, $3.50 for seven admissions to the fair, and $3.03 for "incidentals."

"No, I'm Not a Bull or a Bear—Guess Again"

David Lawrence Says:

TV May Force President to Hold Dual Press Talks

WASHINGTON — Maybe, President Eisenhower will have to give consideration soon to the idea of two separate press conferences — one for the television cameras and one for the newspapermen who are not interested in dramatic effects but solely in news.

With characteristic good nature and sense of fairness, the President, through his able press secretary, James Hagerty, arranged to have certain sections of his regular press conference released for the films. So unfamiliar are the cameramen with the customs and traditions of newspapermen that immediately a hue and cry was set up that the White House was "censoring" the news. On Capitol Hill it was even whispered by partisans as a consequence that the President was releasing only the stuff that would make good political propaganda.

What was overlooked by the cameramen was that "censorship" is a word used to describe suppression. Because certain sections of the conference were not released for TV didn't mean that what the President said was withheld.

All the newsmen — and they represent every press wire service — and all the commentators who give news broadcasts on TV or radio were still permitted to write everything they heard but not, of course, in first-person quotations. Because a stenographic record is kept of these conferences and is available a few hours afterward, the news writers can paraphrase in the third person and give it all to the public the same day.

It was most unfortunate that any of the cameramen spread the idea that some kind of censorship was being introduced.

Actually, for many years it has been customary for presidents to speak off the cuff and then later on, if they liked, to release for first-person quotation various sections of the transcript which the newspapers might have requested for use without the paraphrase.

It so happens that, with the TV cameras and film machines recording the transcript for the first time all that the White House did was to use the same rule that had been applied previously — it selected certain sections for first-person quotation. For, after all, it would not be possible to have the TV cameras carry on their networks any quotations that were denied to the news writers.

Even if the White House were disposed to release certain sections of the transcript of a presidential press conference to the newspapers and radio and not to TV, it would be within its rights. For there are times when a President stumbles in giving an answer, and this could produce an adverse impression to the eye. But thus far anything that has been released for first-person quotation to the press has been given to the cameramen to use in the newsreels or the TV.

It is, of course, questionable whether in the long run the coverage of the press conferences by films will redound to the political advantage of the President or will be good for TV, either. This is because in a prepared speech the President can speak more effectively than in an impromptu talk.

The public also may get bored with the press conferences on TV because most of the time the camera is focused on the President and there is little of the atmosphere of being present at a conference. The face of none of the questioners was shown, for instance, in the first press conference that was filmed on TV. If the entire conference were shown on the screen, then the President would appear distant from the eye because it takes place in a large room with a couple hundred correspondents in it.

Many of the questions and answers at a press conference may be important to those familiar with the subject matter, but a mass audience will not long take an interest in a rambling discourse on the number of kilowatt hours that needs to be furnished through a Dixon-Yates contract or the fine points of a security-problem checkup.

If the TV folks want a theatrical showing, they could get a better one by having a separate filming in which the President carefully acted out for their benefit certain parts of his conference with the press or if the TV men themselves staged something more dramatic. But the present arrangement can only in the end prove less and less valuable as a means of getting information needed as background.

For a President who feels he is going to be checked up and called a suppressor or censor of news because he hesitates to release everything he says at a press conference is likely to wind up with a "no comment" habit on vital matters.

What's important is not the development of the press conference into a show but its continuance as a serious institution wherein the people, represented by the press, can get a maximum amount of information from the President in any way he chooses to give it — off the record or on the record, in the third-person paraphrase or in first-person quotes.

Voice of the People

'One of the Social Security Victims' Tells of Becoming Blind Before Reaching 65

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

After reading the recent letters regarding the lowering of Social Security payments to 60 years of age, I heartily agree.

After paying into Social Security for many years, I awoke one morning to find myself totally blind at the age of 59 and not able to earn another nickel.

I went to the Social Security office and stated my case. They were very sorry for me, but there was nothing they could do until I was 65. But I would not have anything to worry about because my wife could collect what I have into it right away if I should die.

Now what was I supposed to do until I got to be 65?

One of the Social Security Victims

Social Security Unsound, Says 'Thinking Taxpayer'

Let's take the bugaboo out of Social Security. Is it sound? Thinking people do not think it is sound and do not think we can get something for little or nothing.

How is it possible for a man age 63½ to work 1½ years and pay into social Security only $252 and then retire at age 65 and get $108.50 per month for life and if his wife is living and age 65, to get a total of $162.80 per month for life?

Any life insurance company would go broke offering to do so because they are not miracle workers and neither is your government. That is one reason it is not sound.

Your employer is now paying 2 per cent of the first $4,200 of income you earn. You are paying another 2 per cent of the same first $4,200 of income each year. This means that you are paying $84 a year and your employer $84 a year for you, totaling $168 per year.

If you and your employer pay in for 43 years, starting at age 21, and if you and your wife die by the time you are age 64 and the government pays only $255 at death and no more, what have you and your employer paid in? Answer is $7,224.

A life insurance company would at least return the $7,224 you and your employer paid into an annuity.

Thinking Taxpayer

Sees Need for Earlier Social Security Payments

In answer to "Nearing 60," I am greatly in favor of Social Security payments starting at the age of 60. Although it won't help me as I am nearly 65, but for others like myself, after 55 or 60 no one wants you.

No matter how much experience you have, how well you can perform your work, when you apply for a job it's always, "I am sorry but I can't use you." I have had that thrown at me for 1½ years.

Wonder how this government expects people to exist on air after 60, or even 55. No one realizes it till it's their turn at nearing 60.

Nearing 65

Suggest Social Security at 60 Be Optional

We think that Social Security should be drawn at the age of 60 if so desired. On the other hand, if a person wants to work until he is 65 he should be allowed to do so.

A lot of people are not able to work at 60 and a lot of them would rather die than sit around and do nothing. Why couldn't this be put to a vote so some action would be taken on it?

We also would like to know why Pontiac doesn't have student prices at all shows and places of entertainment like other cities around here have.

The teenagers could afford to go more places and that would keep more of them off the streets.

States Poison No Basis for Fluoridation Rejection

Opponents of fluoridation are going to rather extreme limits in their "Poison campaign." Practically everything is poisonous in great concentration. One part in a million does no harm and much good.

Disapproves Smoking in the Wrong Places

I wonder if another old timer feels like I do about smoking? I have seen so many women smoking in public, it sure is disgusting. Yes, women smoking in schools and men too, even when there are "positively no smoking" signs in the rooms.

I don't object to smoking but I know two old timers who still chew tobacco and I am thinking of carrying a wad of that and plenty of gum to the P.T.A. meetings in our local schools to offer those adults who don't know enough to use the lavatory to smoke in when a lounge room is not provided.

Says Fluoridation Costs Taxpayers Too Much

I'm against fluoridation. It costs about twenty-five cents a year for each taxpayer. I'd rather have the twenty-five cents.

Earl Wilson's Column Immodest, Says Reader

Earl Wilson's column creating immodesty and lust of the flesh is contrary to our Christian ethics. It is another major factor contributing to our juvenile delinquency. It is no doubt that our young people have obtained the wrong conception of the life of man, as revealed by Dr. Whitmer and the school staff recently.

We, as individuals, and institutions should be dedicated to the creating of the very finest we can produce.

This column could easily be publicizing examples of great achievements and good works through some of the salt of our land, or the apples of our eyes.

Baering Down

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

The victory dinners are $100 a plate but you cannot afford to lose. That's $100 a plate too.

At the last $100-a-dish basket party a Vermont guest demanded a recount. He preferred to hitch his star to a wagon lunch.

George Washington ate a victory dinner at Valley Forge of snowballs. When he got back from Trenton he put raisins in 'em.

The next triumphal brunch was staged by Sam Houston at San Jacinto. Sam ate corn-on-the-cob the hard way. No butter and no teeth.

These el scoffos are expensive. When I pay one hundred clams for a dinner I want my teeth picked by a certified public accountant. I don't want to cheat myself.

The idea behind the idea is still another idea. A big sirloin is brought in with the waiter wading in the gravy. Then the host asked the guests, "What'll you have?" and takes it himself. The food is so rich they boil down the paper napkins for the birds.

All this business is televised in color so us voters can see what stains are going to be popular on white vests.

The diners who watch their hats and overcoats at the $100-plate dinner are silly. They have a better chance of having their trousers stolen.

Wife Can Save a Waning Marriage If She Decides to Use Proper Strategy

Laura's husband grew tired of her prima donna behavior in the bedroom, so he told her off. She had browbeaten him for almost 25 years before he revolted. And now she wants to win him back again. Do you readers think it is possible for her to do so?

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case N-340: Laura M., aged 49, is a cultured wife.

"Dr. Crane, my pride has prevented my coming to you for the past year," she began, "but now I am desperate.

"For 25 years I have been a self-centered wife, conceited, arrogant and frigid.

"To hold my husband without being an affectionate person, I have been neurotic and a constant patient of physicians. But two years ago he quit submitting to my rule of the household. In fact, he revolted.

"Then he gave me my choice. Either I could get a divorce or I could stay on as his wife for public purposes, but he would pick a paramour for affection.

"Now he is his own boss. He goes when he pleases and where he pleases without even consulting me.

"He is really a wonderful man and I love him. But your sex bulletins weren't available 25 years ago so I started off on the wrong foot.

"Now I wish I could change the past. Is it too late to revive a waning romance with one's husband? Could I possibly regain his love and admiration? I'll do anything, for I now see my tragic mistakes."

In the field of religion, Jesus showed that repentance could occur even with one's dying breath. One of the two thieves who were crucified beside Christ, thus repented at the last moment.

And the same last-minute change can occur in love if you face the situation honestly and utilize the correct strategy.

So I urged Laura to give her husband my bulletin "Sex Problems in Marriage." Discuss its contents with him. Then frankly admit that she had been wrong and promise to cooperate for a happy marriage.

The odds almost always favor a wife if she plays her cards seductively. For most men seldom fall deeply in love with more than one woman. Thus, the wife has the halo of respectability, plus the romantic appeal of being the one woman.

A paramour possesses novelty and thus helps resurrect some of those stagefright reactions of the courtship days.

But soon the paramour loses her novelty. And it is far more effort for the usual husband to maintain the social pace of dances, night clubbing etc. required to keep the paramour content.

So the two-timing husband eventually begins to grow tired of his bargain. The strain begins to tell on him. He wishes to return to the more restful and entirely respectable role of a husband.

If his wife will curb her tendency to dig up the past and throw accusations at him, then his home will be restful and thus more attractive.

Remember that men like to go where they feel most happy. They don't relish nagging, either from a paramour or a wife.

They crave compliments and praise. So a smart wife, who will learn to fight the paramour's fire with seductive home fires, can easily beat the average siren.

You wives should slenderize and even change your perfume. Also learn how to banish mankind's secret dread of impotence, by sending for the bulletin "How to Prevent Impotence," enclosing a stamped return envelope plus a dime.

It helped Laura win back her husband within six weeks, and she now knows how to prevent him from ever straying again.

Prolonged Joint Ailment Is Probably Rheumatiz

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

After two years of treatment with medicine and shots for so-called "arthritis," I realized I was steadily getting no better. So I discontinued the doctor's treatment, wrote for your pamphlet on Rheumatiz, began Ca, D and B complex as you suggest. That was in April, '54.

Have never seen my doctor since. All of the pain has left my knees and I feel fine. Married 46 years, now in my 70th year and hoping we celebrate our golden wedding . . . so I am enclosing stamped, self-addressed envelope for "The Iodin Ration." We are grateful . . . (Mrs. E. J. C.)

Now, see here. The pamphlet Calcium and Rheumatiz is available on written request, if you provide stamped, self-addressed envelope. When you send for it you had better inclose ten cents and ask for The Iodin Ration, too.

Drat it, I was about to subject the amiable Mrs. E. J. C. to a brisk round of choice grade A investive. I might have asked whether the Rheumatiz pamphlet is too long, or whether the print is too fine, or whether my language is not intelligible. In short why in the — why do so many readers start on the Ca and D and the B-complex and become interested in I only months later, if at all?

But by bitter experience I have learned at last not to blow my top like that until I have checked and double-checked.

This precaution probably saves me some embarrassment. On the other hand, when I discover on examination of the rheumatis pamphlet that I have omitted mention of iodin deficiency as one of the factors that must be corrected, I am so perturbed that—well, it's lucky for you poor souls with the rheumatis that I can put these petty problems out of my mind and hie to the bowling green this beautiful sunny afternoon.

After the game I'll decide whether to scrap the last printing of the Calcium and Rheumatiz pamphlet and order a new printing to include instructions for correcting iodin deficiency, or whether to continue the pamphlet as is, and send along with it the Iodin Ration pamphlet, without charge.

Meanwhile let me remind you that in my judgment joint disability of more than a year's duration is usually not arthritis at all (joint inflammation) but rheumatiz (degeneration of joint tissues) due to prolonged, probably lifelong nutritional deficiency.

Signed letters not more than one page or 350 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, sent to Dr. Brady, care the Pontiac Press, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed. (Copyright 1955)

Ex-Teletype Operator Retires to 6 Other Jobs

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP) — Retirement proved too boring for a former teletype operator, so now he is handling six jobs in suburban Amherst, where he lives.

When Charles S. Woodin, 69, first retired two years ago, he occupied himself with chores around the house. This quiet life did not satisfy him after 25 years as a teletypewriter man and Morse telegrapher and ended up with the following jobs:

Secretary to the police chief, clerk of the town court, clerk of the Williamsville village court, secretary to two judges, registrar for the local draft board and property clerk for the police department.

Human Body Converts Codeine Into Morphine

BERKELEY, Calif. (UP)—When codeine is taken into the human body, a part of it is converted into morphine, a study at the University of California has shown.

The research has been continued in an attempt to determine how quickly and how much codeine is converted.

If the amount is significant, the scientists believe it would indicate some of the biological effect of codeine may be derived from its conversion to morphine.

Both codeine and morphine occur naturally in opium. Codeine, like morphine, is used in medicine for relief of pain.

Driver Caught Changing 'Flat' Tire on Wrong Car

PORTLAND, Me (UP) — Bob Llewellyn pulled up alongside Waldo Pray on a downtown street and asked "Watcha doing?"

"What do you think?" replied Pray. "Changing a flat tire."

Pray stepped back in annoyance. Then he did a double-take.

In returning to the scene after borrowing a jack, he had jacked up the wrong car, an identical one parked in front of his own.

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Justice W. E. Richburg ordered an estranged husband to leave town.

But the man was back in jail the next day, charged with being drunk and smashing his wife's television set.

Bluff Mao Lacks Polish of Chou

Top China Red Called One of World's Worst Juvenile Delinquents

By International News Service

Mao Tse-Tung, the man who will make the final decisions in Red China's struggle with the United States and Chinese Nationalists over Formosa, has been called one of the world's greatest "juvenile delinquents."

He fought bitterly with his father at the age of 12, finally ran away from home to join the army, and to make his ruthless climb to power.

Today at 61 he is the top Chinese Communist as the late Stalin was the No. 1 Red in the Kremlin.

He and his Red aides control a vast country whose population is estimated variously to be between 585 and 600 million, with approximately 50 million of them engaged in some category of compulsory "volunteer" or slave labor in the swift Communist attempt to industrialize backward China in the image of the Soviet Union.

Mao is of peasant stock. His polished teammate, Premier and Foreign Minister Chou En-lai, comes from an aristocratic Mandarin family.

Both are fanatic Communists and have been since their youth. Chou does the diplomatic road work for the bluff Mao, who speaks the idiom of the peasant, likes to lumber through fox trots, dabbles in poetry and is an omnivorous reader.

What kind of man is the chubby, moon-faced Mao, who is somewhat taller than the average Chinese and who has somewhat feminine facial lines?

Correspondents who knew him in the old revolutionary days when he was accessible say he is a many-sided person who did not fit into several grooves.

There is the intellectual Mao, the man who has read Adam Smith, Darwin, John Stuart Mill, Herbert Spencer, and of course Marx, Lenin and Stalin, the man who has been a prolific pamphleteer, orator, essayist on the arts and education, who wrote a manual on guerrilla warfare—learned the hard way.

Then there is the hard-bitten Mao who scoffed at intellectualism and said it had no place in his way of life and could not match the bitter, practical experience of the battlefield and political fighting.

He was once quoted as saying to party workers in his Yenan hideout: "I urge those who have only book knowledge but have not come in contact with realities to recognize their defects and be more humble in their attitude."

Yet Mao depends much on the well-educated Chou in the diplomatic field.

Mao is rated as very shrewd, which seems natural enough considering what he has been through and how he came out on top in the deadly game he waged through the years against Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalists. He has been in undisputed command of the Chinese Red party since 1934.

The game he now is waging "to liberate" Formosa is considered dangerous by Western officials because some of them wonder if Mao has learned the limit of present Chinese power.

45-Star Flag to Fly Till Someone Buys Another

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP)—When it was pointed out to City Librarian Fred Mulholland that the flag flying over the main library had only 45 stars, he hauled it down and counted.

The 45 stars meant the flag had been made between 1896 and 1907. The flag, donated by the widow of an Army colonel, had been used four or five months.

"We'll continue to use it until we get funds to buy another," he said. "It's the only one we have."

Trinidad Takes Royal Holiday for Margaret

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad (AP)—Trinidad took a royal holiday today to watch Princess Margaret tour this capital city. Early birds staked out claims to sidewalk vantage points for her state drive, with thousands expected to jam the route.

The princess, who landed in Trinidad Tuesday to begin a month-long tour of the British West Indies, was given a preview last night of the islands' gala carnival later this month.

Almost 800 singers and dancers appeared in the hour performance that followed a big reception at Government House. Margaret tapped her feet to the rhythm of a Calypso song written and sung in her honor by Vernon Roberts, nicknamed "Mighty Panther."

The last guest Margaret greeted at the reception was James Byran, of Dillon, S.C., who came to Trinidad in 1941 as an American soldier and stayed. Byran, who is crippled, was sitting in a wheel chair. The crowd applauded as the princess first passed by, then turned and walked up to him.

Danish Ship Reported Sinking in Baltic Sea

COPENHAGEN (AP)—The lightship marking Gedser Reef, south of Denmark's Falster Island, was reported sinking today after a collision with an unidentified ship.

The announcement of the collision from the Danish navy's information service made no mention of any casualties.

The navy said the collision occurred in foggy weather, about 10 a.m.

Falster Island is south of the big Danish island of Zeeland and north of the arm of the Baltic Sea leading to the Kiel Canal.

Jury Will Quiz Self-Styled Liar

Ex-Red to Be Asked to Explain Backtracking on Testimony

NEW YORK (AP)—A federal grand jury has subpoenaed ex-Communist Harvey Matusow, apparently to explain his repudiation of testimony he gave as a prosecution witness at the trial of 13 second-string Communist leaders on conspiracy charges.

Federal Judge Edward J. Dimmock, who presided at the 1952 trial, yesterday turned down a request by counsel for the 13 Reds that he kill the grand jury subpoena which called for Matusow's appearance tomorrow.

Instead, the judge set next Monday for Matusow's grand jury appearance. He also asked that briefs be submitted tomorrow on the motion to quash the subpoena.

Last Monday, counsel for the 13 Communists asked for a new trial on the basis of an affidavit by Matusow that he had given false testimony against several of the defendants, all subsequently sentenced to fines and prison terms.

TV Siren's Car Abandoned Near Pacific Ocean

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The sporty convertible of Voluptua, sultry 6-foot blonde fired two days ago from a television program because she was too sexy, was found abandoned early today on a highway bordering the Pacific Ocean.

Detectives were attempting to locate the Brooklyn showgirl, who appeared in negligee before TV audiences.

In the car, registered to Gloria Pall, Voluptua's real name, were three newspapers carrying accounts of her ouster and two scrapbooks, detectives said. There were no signs of a struggle. The car was parked on the highway. Its keys were gone.

"We don't believe it's a suicide," said Det. Lt. Clifford Shannon. "In virtually all suicide cases, clothing is found on the beach. And no clothing was found there."

Police checked an address on the 1954 registration certificate but got no response.

Station KABC-TV said it was dropping Voluptua for commercial reasons. However, there were reports that her sensuous introductions to old movies were in bad taste.

But she had little reason to feel depressed about losing her job. Yesterday she was hired for a part in another TV show.

Between 1939 and 1952 industrial wages in Sweden rose by about 200 per cent.

U.S. Aid Forced on Ohio County

Court Rules Area Must Participate in Federal Welfare Program

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Rebellious Harrison County, struggling four years to stay free of federal aid, has lost its fight.

The Ohio Supreme Court yesterday ruled the county must participate in a federal aid program for Ohio's totally and permanently disabled.

Harrison County's flat refusal of the money threatened to cost Ohio three million dollars a year in U.S. grants. Of the state's 88 counties, Harrison County alone remained aloof.

To officials of the coal-mining county one thing was clear—they demanded the privilege of taking care of their own. Harrison, with some 19,000 residents, is located in eastern Ohio.

County commissioners said they neither needed nor wanted the federal money. They said their handicapped were cared for under their poor relief program.

When prolonged negotiations failed, State Welfare Director Henry J. Robison turned to the state's high court. In a 5-2 decision, the court allowed Robison a writ of mandamus requiring the conty to accept the federal funds. Attorneys said the amount would total about $400 a year.

In its decision, the court said:

"The board statutory authority of the (welfare) department to make rules and to require accounting ad reports as to persons permanently and totally disabled in the county . . . cannot be questioned by the county."

'Joke' Investments Amount to $300,000

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Armin H. Schmidt, $80-a-week shipping clerk whose talk about investments and retirement was taken as a joke by fellow employes, left an estate worth more than $300,000.

A Probate Court inventory filed yesterday listed the estate's value at $80,251 but it included 10,085 shares of stock carried at only $1 a share. Some are worth more than $100 each.

Schmidt, 54, retired last August and died Nov. 21. Three fourths of the estate goes to his daughter with the remainder left in trust for his widow.

Truman Sees No World Left Without Peace

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Former President Truman, urging the world to work for the brotherhood of man, said last night, "If peace doesn't come, there will be no world left."

"We are facing the greatest age in history," Truman said. "We must meet it. All we need to do is meet the situation with which we are faced, and we should meet it on the principles of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man.

"If peace doesn't come, there will be no world left. You are listening to one who knows what he is talking about and I say that advisedly."

Truman, later in his speech, said he had reference to the use of atomic energy. He was the main speaker at a testimonial dinner honoring the Rev. Dr. Harold L. Reader, a fellow 33rd degree Scottish Rites Mason.

Talking with reporters after the dinner, Truman wouldn't comment on the Formosan situation "as a matter of policy," but said reporters could say he didn't appear worried about the Pacific.

"The man in the White House has my sincere sympathy," he said.

Base Provoo Appeal on Long Trial Delay

BALTIMORE (AP) — John David Provoo, 37, former Army sergeant accused of treason in wartime by aiding the Japanese after the fall of Corregidor, was due in federal court today in an attempt to obtain his release from the charges.

Provoo's lawyers have filed a habeas corpus petition, contending the lapse of time—nearly 13 years—since some of the alleged treasonable acts, bars prosecution in view of constitutional provisions for a speedy trial. Provoo is scheduled to be retried here March 14.

The onetime San Francisco bank clerk was sentenced to life imprisonment in New York federal court in 1952. A federal appeals court reversed the conviction, saying the trial should have been held in Maryland.

'Red Tide' Fight Goes Forward

Researcher May Soon Know Method to Curb Gulf Fish Killer

GALVESTON, Tex. (UP) — A marine biologist here soon may have the answer to a question that has baffled scientists since a strange "red tide" began killing millions of fish off Florida's Gulf Coast.

William Wilson, biologist of the U. S. fish and wildlife station, has succeeded in reproducing the deadly tide, something that has not been done before because no one has been able to keep a going culture alive.

Wilson will team up with Mrs. Jacqueline Hynes, a University of Florida researcher, to find the way to eliminate the destructive fish-killer. Mrs. Hynes recently reported she believes dusting coastal water with charcoal may be the answer.

The organism, the one-celled Gymnodinium brevis, ordinarily is present and quite harmless in coastal waters.

However, and this is what has puzzled scientists, it will suddenly run wild and form colonies of highly poisonous "blooms."

The "blooms" color the waters crimson, cause an irritating odor, deprive resort and fishing industries of business and prevent persons from using beaches in competition with dead and dying fish.

Only recently did marine biologists culture the microscopic organism in a collection of glass tanks, bottles, jars and vials here. But they couldn't make it "bloom" into the deadly "red tide."

Wilson found out what particular weather conditions and what abundance of particular food caused the organism to breed with fantastic speed to produce the swarming. He introduced some fish to the "bloom," and they died, quickly.

For some reason or other, the "red tide" has never appeared in volume on the Texas Gulf Coast. The Florida coast has been the worst hit. The coastal shores of California, Africa and Chili also have been affected in the last five years.

Mrs. Hynes is expected here in the near future to try her new method on the organisms in Wilson's tank laboratory.

She said the method looks "promising" because activiated charcoal absorbs food elements vital to the "red tide" organisms.

"We hope by this method to simply starve them to death," she said.

Much of th eonce-fertile soil of Iran, Syria, Greece, Italy and North Africa has now become barren land because of extensive soil erosion.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—No burglar ever left an easier trail than the one who raided the home of Edward A. Portz. The loot was $400 worth of jewelry—and two tickets to a sports event.

Deputies did the obvious thing: They went to the game.

In the seats Portz had purchased they found the burglar and a friend.

Montana Waits 'Hoppers

HILLSDALE, Mich. (AP) — Twelve prisoners got themselves locked so fast in the Hillsdale County jail that even the sheriff couldn't get them out. A lever mechanism on the door leading into the cell block became jammed. A locksmith had to be called from St. Louis, Mo., to fix it.

Married Bliss Can Be Kept, Justice Rules

MADISON, Wis. (UP) — A Wisconsin supreme court justice who handled hundreds of divorce cases as a Milwaukee circuit judge before moving to the state's highest court has some advice about how to stay married.

"There is no such thing as a completely frictionless marriage and many tensions disrupt the flow of married bliss," according to Justice Roland Steinle.

"The small things keep piling up until a couple can no longtr endure the sight of each other. If you ask them why, they can't tell you. All they can say is that it is a lot of things."

He gave these seven rules for easing the tensions and making married life happier':

1. Be as nice to your spouse as you are to yourself.
2. Maintain a sense of humor.
3. Don't take your problems to outsiders.
4. Don't forget small attentions.
5. Advice of parents should be sought only on infrequent and really important occasions. Most problems should be worked out between the husband and wife.

While cutting up a tree, he smashed his saw blade when it bit into the shoe, imbedded out of sight in the wood. Miller thinks someone hung the shoe on a limb at least 20 years ago and the limb grew around it.

U.S. Importing New Game Bird

Black Francolin From Pakistan to Be 'Planted' in Southwest

WASHINGTON — The government expects soon to introduce a new game-bird into the United States. It is the black francolin, a beautiful, non-migratory creature from Pakistan that will probably be "planted" in the Southwest.

The male of the black francolin is half again as large as a bobwhite but slenderer, says the National Geographic Society.

It is mottled brown and black spotted with white on the back and black on the breast and underparts. White cheeks and chestnut collar mark the head. The less attractive female wears a grayish or brownish coat.

Also called the black partridge (not to be confused with the black grouse of Scandinavian origin), the bird inhabits grassy or cultivated ground, feeding on grain and insects. It is fast both on the ground and in the air.

Dr. Gardiner Bump, Fish and Wildlife Service biologist in charge of foreign bird introductions, now is heading for Karachi. He hopes to send back a few hundred black francolins, several times the minimum number necessary to make a successful "plant."

Last year Pakistan gave 20 males to Dr. Bump, thinking he wanted them for an American zoo. Since they were useless for breeding purposes, he donated them to the Karachi zoo.

The black francolin is closely related to the 194 gray or brown francolins introduced into Arizona from Pakistan last year.

A federal - state program, financed by excise taxes on sporting arms and ammunition, seeks to restock game birds in the United States, mostly in the dry southwestern portion where there are now few upland game birds. Under it, the government has brought in more than 3,700 chukor partridges from Turkey in the last three years.

Other game birds finding new homes in the United States in the last three years include nearly 270 Spanish red leg partridges, 40 see-see partridges from Pakistan and Turkey, 55 Hungarian partridges from Turkey, five sand grouse from Turkey and three Turkish pheasants.

The most famous game bird transplanted into the United States is the pheasant, successfully imported from China in 1880.

Many other species have been tried in vain. One was the migratory (Old World) quail of Italy and North Africa mentioned in the Bible as supplying sustenance for the Children of Israel. A group of sportsmen "planted" some of these quail in New England. Living up to their name, they migrated, never to return.

Metal Tube May Aid in TV Transmission

NEW YORK (AP)—Bell Telephone scientists are working on a small, hollow metal tube which will radically step up transmission of television impulses and telephone calls over long distances.

Bell Laboratories announced yesterday that successful experiments have been used employing a metallic tube about two inches in diameter and with a hollow center.

The tube itself is not solid metal but is made of thin, tightly coiled copper wire wrapped inside a flexible coating that holds the wire in place.

The present coaxial cable has a copper wire running down the center. The new wave-guide transmission, experiments show, would carry many times the capacity of present coaxial cables and microwave radio relay systems.

Caring for Baby Is Easy, Until You Get Him Home

By MARGARET LATROBE

There couldn't be much to it—taking care of a baby. Look at the millions of people who bring wee ones home from the hospital without hiring a nurse to stick around a week or two—that's what she said. Look at all that money we'll save—that's what he said.

So they brought the first-born straight home to the apartment. No nurse, no fuss. Just the extra quart of formula and instructions as to how to fold the diapers.

Daddy carried his boy. The minute they laid the little blue and white bundle in his arms, he was a different fellow. This was his son, his heir—even though he had just left the inheritance with the hospital cashier downstairs.

He could take care of his wife and child. Taking off 10 days to sort of help out with things at home. Sort of see how much fun it could be with a baby around the house.

Around the house? All over the house—if you called a two-room apartment a "house." Walking in the door with his precious cargo, he nearly stumbled over a four-foot stack from the Stork Diaper Service. "What's all that stuff for? We didn't have quintuplets—we've only got this one—how could any kid use so many in just one week?

They had just delivered the bathinette, the bassinet, the crib, the play pen, the stroller, the carriage and the toys. Well, so he had felt pretty good on hearing it was a boy. A man sort of goes to pieces at a time like this, don't he?

"Honey—he's crying. Make him stop. Tell him he's home. Do something—here, take him. And he's—ugh, wet or something. Heat the bottle?—What bottle?—I'll have to run to the drugstore for some bigger ones—these are the wrong size. Oh. With a hot needle? Where are the needles? I'll ruff to the drugstore for some needles. Do you think he doesn't like it here, or what? I never heard such howling. Do something, dear. Are you pinching him, or what? It's too dark in here. He was used to lots of light and lots of noise. Gee, I hope he likes it here. You think we ought to move, or what? Okay, but what do I do with the wet ones? 'Listen, dear, you're his mother — what do I know about babies? I'm calling the doctor right now—this just isn't normal, all that yelling. Say doc——? Oh. He says put him down. But doc, he's still yelling. Oh. He says put him on his tummy. Listen dear, I just happened to think—the office, there was something very important I forgot about. Remember that nice nurse? She said if we needed her just to call and she would take over for a few days. Here's the number. I'm too shaky to dial.

"Migosh, I'm a father."

Well, They Tried

MANCHESTER, Conn. (UP) — Police, puzzled by slow-moving traffic, found three youths parked with a sign reading "Radar Ahead." The unofficial tipsters were arrested promptly because they had unwittingly set up their warning service outside a policeman's home.

Hogs trample and eat any snake they see, says the National Geographical Society. Their thick layer of fat protects them from bad effects of poisonous bites. Deer also stamp on any serpent.

Advice Is Given on Tax Returns

Residents Urged to Fill Out Own Forms to Save Time

Pontiac residents were urged to make out their own federal income tax returns, even though they plan to seek expert advice on filling out their forms.

Lyle D. Russell, administrative supervisor of the Internal Revenue Bureau office at 53½ W. Huron St., said taxpayers could save themselves a long wait by having their forms filled out when they come to the office.

"Our tax advisers will check the forms immediately," he pointed out, "and taxpayers who have their returns filled out won't have to stand in line.

"If any changes are required, we'll make them at once. But the whole job can be done a lot quicker if the taxpayer already has all the information written down on a return form."

Russell said about 800 persons a day have been coming to the Pontiac office to file returns, since the rush period began a week ago. Fifteen advisers are on duty at the office Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Taxpayers with questions about their forms can also phone the office and save themselves a trip, Russell said. The number is FEderal 2-0208.

Five tax advisers will be on hand each weekday through Feb. 18 at the Royal Oak Veterans of Foreign Wars Home, 214 E. Fourth St., to assist taxpayers in the southern part of the county.

Pontiac Family Keeps Red Fox as Children's Pet

If you knew Susie, you'd probably be as fond of her as the Jay C. Brock family of 108 W. Longfellow Ave. is.

Besides being friendly and rather playful, Susie has big, dark eyes and beautiful long, red hair.

Susie, of course, is a young red fox, but the Brocks regard her as one of the family. Nobody knows for sure, but it's just possible Susie doesn't know she's a fox.

She eats dog food, comes when she's called, romps with the Brocks' three boys, and spends most of her time playing with her girlfriend Queenie, a 2-year-old registered beagle.

Just a little more than a year old now, Susie was given to the Brocks by a group of hunters who dug her out of a den last year. She quickly became accustomed to her new surroundings, and now stays close to home even when loose outdoors.

Although she has quite a bit of competition, including three other beagles, a bird dog and two canaries, Susie is easily the favorite.

As Mrs. Brock put it, "We wouldn't ever part with her, she's a regular baby."

And if you knew Susie, chances are you'd feel just the same—she's quite a gal.

Disabled Vessel Escorted to Port

NEW YORK (AP) — A freighter with a crack in the hull labored through choppy North Atlantic under its own power today with a U.S. military sea transport for an escort.

The Liberator, of Panama registry, was making 6½ knots under close watch from the MSTS Gen. William O. Darby, the Coast Guard here reported.

The Liberator was half way between Newfoundland and England and headed for England. The ship with a crew of about 30 men, had left Halifax without cargo.

PRINCESS REVIEWS HONOR GUARD — Princess Margaret, radiant in the warm West Indies sunshine that greeted her on her first visit to the new world, reviews a Trinidad police guard of honor upon her arrival at Port of Spain. She landed at Piarco Airfield after flight from London's blustery cold. The princess will spend a month touring British possessions in the West Indies.

American, Indian Will Head Atoms-for-Peace Meet

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—An American and an Indian will be top men at the first world scientific conference of atoms-for-peace in Geneva next August. The U.N.-sponsored parley will disclose scientists' estimates of the prospects for nuclear power in the next 25 to 50 years.

The American, Walter Gordon Whitman, 59, of Concord, Mass., will be the secretary general, in charge of arrangements. He is a pioneer researcher in aircraft propulsion for the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, member of the AEC's General Advisory Committee and director of the Defense Department's research board.

Homi Jehangir Bhabha, 45, of Bombay, chairman of India's Atomic Energy Commission and secretary of its Department of Atomic Energy, will be conference president, enpowered to rule out political discussion.

U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold announced their appointments last night in letters inviting 84 countries—10 of them Communist—to send five official delegates each to the congress.

He enclosed an agenda and rules for the "International Conference on the Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy," to start Aug. 8 in the old League of Nations Palace and last 12 working days.

The rules, formulated by a seven-nation advisory committee of scientists which met here Jan. 17-28, specify that the conference is for exchange of information only. One provision reads: "No proposals requiring adoption by voting shall be submitted or entertained by the conference."

The committee also agreed that the conference proceedings will be published.

To guard against the propaganda exchanges which have impeded so many postwar international conferences, the rules also provide that reports will be "presented only from the scientific and technical points of view" and that the president "may call a speaker to order if his remarks are not relevant."

Hammarskjold also sent with the invitations an announcement that the Soviet Union plans to report to the conference on "the U.S.S.R.'s first atomic power plant for industrial purposes and methods of developing atomic power." The Russians say they began operating such a plant, generating 5,000 kilowatts of electricity, last summer.

The United States already is producing electricity at two small experimental plants, one at the AEC's reactor testing station in Idaho and the other at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

The U. N. General Assembly called for the conference in a resolution adopted unanimously last Dec. 4 as the outgrowth of President Eisenhower's "atoms - for - peace" speech a year earlier.

Cousins Born in Two Nations Almost Identical

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UP)—Victor and Albert Liberatore, presently serving with the Army at the port of embarkation, Bremerhaven, Germany, are a confusing twosome.

The Buffalo soldiers were born on the same day of the same year and look enough alike to be twins—but they're only cousins.

On Jan. 2, 1934, Albert was born here to Mr. and Mrs. Cesidio Liberatore, and 4,000 miles away in Aquallai, Italy, Victory was born to Mr. and Mrs. Attilio Liberatore.

Brothers Casidio and Attilio didn't realize what look-alikes the boys were until Attilio moved his family to this city in 1948.

"No one can figure out," said Albert in a letter from overseas to his mother, "how we have different parents when we have the same birth date and same name."

7 Firms Lose FHA Business

Agency Takes 1st Step Under Law Designed to Quash Housing Abuses

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Federal Housing Administration has severed business dealings with seven firms in the first action of its kind under a law designed to stamp out abuses in the FHA program.

This was disclosed today by FHA Commissioner Norman P. Mason who said that additional actions are pending against "a substantial number of persons and firms." A spokesman said the number would run into "the hundreds."

FHA declined to reveal the charges against the seven firms, but officials said Mason took the action after hearings were held and decisions made that there were violations of federal housing laws.

Mason's order stemmed from a law proposed last year by the Senate Banking Committee as a step to safeguard FHA and prevent further abuses in the massive loan insurance program.

The statute empowered the FHA chief to deny benefits of all FHA programs to any persons or firms "who knowingly and willfully violate the National Housing Act" or fail to carry out their contractual obligations.

Officials said FHA has never before taken such drastic action to reprimand companies accused of alleged improper business dealings with the agency.

Discussion Set for Wednesday

Meeting to Explain Oakland's Place in Development Plans

The Oakland County Plan Commission will take the "initial step" Feb. 9 toward close coordination of development programs by governmental planning agencies in this section of Michigan, according to J. Robert F. Swanson, chairman.

The commission has specifically invited three outside planning groups to a meeting plus extending a general invitation to all other persons concerned with programing this area's growth, Swanson explained.

The general public is also welcome at the meeting in the supervisors' room of the county office building, 1 Lafayette St., at 1:30 p.m.

The program includes a report from the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission by its Executive Director T. Ledyard Blakeman.

The director will explain his group's program over the past year and outline future plans. "Blakeman is expected to throw light on how Oakland County fits into the general metropolitan picture," said George N. Skrubb, director of the Oakland planning group.

Oakland County has allocated the Detroit area commission between $60,000 and $70,000 over the past five years, Skrubb stated, to aid studies which include the county.

A representative of the Detroit City Plan Commission will discuss effects of Detroit's mushrooming expressway system and redevelopment planning on Oakland County.

The Detroit man also will describe traffic and other problems arising at the Oakland - Wayne boundary which might be solved by joint planning.

The Detroit city group has the largest planning staff of any such organization in this area with about 60 persons, Skrubb explained. The metropolitan commission has around 15 and Oakland 4.

Also present will be members of the Rochester, Avon, Oakland Area Planning Commission.

They have presented a road-development plan for their area to the county group for criticism, said Skrubb.

"We are now evaluating the plan," he explained, "and will present any ideas we have as to how it might be improved."

"This meeting is only the first step in what we hope will be an area-wide effort toward coordination of planning between units," Swanson stated.

"The interdependence of the Oakland-Wayne region in all ways is becoming more and more apparent. Traffic, drainage, zoning recreational and other problems don't stop at governmental boundaries.

"They concern the whole area and are best solved on a joint basis.

"We hope to cement relations between Oakland County, the City of Detroit and other units in the metropolitan area and bring them closer together in planning thought."

County TB San Holding Open House Today

Open house is being held from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium today. The program includes a tea and tour of the buildings.

Organizations to be represented include church, veteran and civic groups, Girl Scouts, Business and Professional Women, Michigan Bell Telephone Co., Fisher Body Safety club and the Kiwanis.

Emancipation?

Moslem Wives Studying Nation's Marriage Customs

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—How many wives does your husband have? Does he let you help spend his income? Did you have any voice in choosing your husband?

These are some of the questions being asked of 5,000 Moslem wives by the All-Pakistan Women's Assn. It aims to set up a bill of rights for the country's women, after analyzing returns from its questionnaire.

The association was founded by Begum Liaquat Ali Khan, Pakistan's ambassador to Holland. She is the widow of the country's first Prime Minister.

Behind the questionnaire is a tradition. Moslem husbands have dominated their wives, keeping them at home and also pampering them. The pampering has contributed to the domineering, and vice versa.

Husbands of years ago, when nomadic raiders considered women a top prize, tried to protect their wives by segregating them and making them stay home. The tradition of purdah—where a woman is secluded from the sight of all men except her husband — grew up. Wives began to wear veils. In public they sat behind perforated stone screens.

The father often determined whom a girl could marry. The husband was allowed four wives. He controlled their finances and decided on almost anything they might want to do.

When Pakistan became independent, moves were made to reform Moslem society and emancipate the woman. Many of the traditions broke down.

The All-Pakistan Women's Assn., originally started to aid refugee women, entered the controversy as the practice of polygamy persisted despite many attempts by women to stamp it out.

Paper Reports Jet Takes Off, Lands Vertically

BUFFALO, N. Y.—The Buffalo Courier-Express says the Bell Aircraft Corp. will soon unwrap a revolutionary airplane that can take off and land vertically and fly with jet speed.

Bell, the newspaper said, developed the plane at its Niagara Falls plant and has already put it through a number of test flights.

Designated the VTOL, the plane differs from other vertical takeoff planes in that it is (1) powered by jet engines and (2) lands and takes off from a normal flying position, rather than from a "tail-sitting" position.

It is powered by two Fairchild J44 turbojet engines mounted on the fuselage just under the wing, the newspaper said. The engines are swiveled at takeoff so the jets blast at the ground vertically. Once airborne, the engines are rotated close to 90 degrees to permit forward movement.

Strictly Cool, Man

NEW LONDON, Conn. (UP) — Two fire companies answered the alarm put in by a passter-by who sighted "smoke" pouring from a boxcar at the New Haven railroad underpass at Walbach street. The smoke was vapor from dry ice used in a refrigerator car.

Reds See Better World If They Handle Atoms

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Russians, rather coy about taking part in the Atoms-for-Peace conference, have told the world they see a better life if they can handle the atom.

They have told the United Nations that they have plans for using atomic energy to irrigate deserts, to make power for industry and to do away with the need for coal and oil.

They have told the world that they have projects that "under capitalism they cannot be turned to practical account."

They have told the world that they have plans to do away with the need for coal and oil.

License Plate Sale Picks Up

40,000 to Be Issued Before Deadline at End of Month

Sale of license plates is picking up speed, Willis M. Brewer, manager of the Pontiac Secretary of State's office, said today.

About 450 of the new 1955 plates are being issued each day, and Brewer said he plans to add two more employes this week, bringing his staff to seven.

Approximately 22,000 plates have been issued to Pontiac area residents so far this year.

With the Feb. 28 deadline only a little more than three weeks away, about 40,000 licenses remain to be issued.

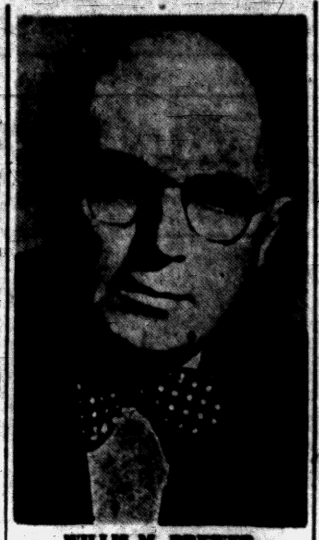

Last year the Pontiac office handed out 64,000 tags, and more are expected for 1955.

The secretary of state's office, located a half-block north of the municipal parking lot at 83 N. Parke St., is open from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. weekdays and 9 a.m. until noon Saturdays.

Brewer reminded car owners they must bring their titles with them when applying for licenses. No plates can be issued without the certificate of title, he said.

The moss that is used to start seeds is called sphagnum.

WILLIS M. BREWER

Testimonial Dinner Planned for Brewer

A testimonial banquet honoring Willis M. Brewer "for his years of public service" will be held Feb. 23 at 7 p. m. in the CAI Building, Waterford Township, according to Mrs. Robert Phillips, publicity chairman.

Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart will be speaker at the family style dinner. "We hope all of Willis' friends will attend, both Democrat and Republican," said Mrs. Phillips.

Brewer is present manager of the secretary of state's office in Pontiac, a trustee of Pontiac General Hospital and immediate past Oakland County Democratic chairman.

Tickets are available from Mrs. Phillips by phoning Royal Oak Lincoln 3-1432.

Deputies in Stitches Over Sew-Sew Joke

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (INS)—Seems as if there's gagwriter material among Onondaga County deputy sheriffs.

Officers William Hayford and Wallace Breed raced to a rural home and extricated the finger curious 2-year-old Colleen Dwyer had gotten lodged into mommy's sewing machine.

At the end of the report appears the comment:

"As she would sew, so did she weep."

Human Guinea Pigs Test Radiated Food

out escorts and they will be fed irradiated meats with a supplementary diet of vegetables and fruits.

All participants will be under constant observation of doctors, and will undergo tests to determine effects of the irradiated foods on metabolic rate, blood pressure, reflexes, body wastes, breathing, sensory perception and ability to do a stated amount of work in a given period of time.

Under the civil works program for conscientious objectors, the men will be paid $1,800 annually, determined as minimum salaries, for the work they are doing.

A laboratory spokesman said: "The process of irradiating foods should help canning methods by cutting down on processing time and leaving a relatively fresh taste in food. Successful use of radiation as a sterilization medium will mean that foods may be kept for indefinite periods of time as long as they are protected against recontamination by bacteria."

The spokesman added that development of a perfected system would revolutionize the vast industries now handling, shipping, marketing and storing foods, and could conceivably do away with refrigeration.

To eliminate any possible health hazards from the irradiated foods, a screening test was conducted by a number of investigators, including Dr. Herman F. Kraybill, one of the civilian nutrition experts on the medical nutritional laboratory staff.

Over a period of many months, Dr. Kraybill's group has fed irradiated foods to many hundreds of animals without any demonstrable toxic effects due to the radiation treatment.

Ex-County Publisher Succumbs in Hastings

HASTINGS (UP) — C. B. (Bill) Keister, 51, publisher of the Middleville Sun and the Caledonia News, died yesterday at Pennock Hospital following a heart attack.

Keister was a brother of Fred D. Kiester Jr., publisher of the Ionia County News.

President Instructs Nixon on Central America Tour

WASHINGTON (UP)—Vice-President Richard M. Nixon received thorough instructions from President Eisenhower yesterday for his good will tour of the Central American and Caribbean republics.

The two met in a private breakfast huddle at the White House. Nixon was expected to brief reporters accompanying him on the trip.

The Vice-President and Mrs. Nixon will leave here by air Sunday on a four-week good-will tour that will take them to 10 countries in Central America and the Caribbean. They will be accompanied by Henry F. Holland, assistant secretary of state for inter-American affairs.

The President feels Nixon's visit will serve as a dramatic reminder that United States relations with Latin America play an important role even at the height of a Far Eastern crisis, officials told the United Press.

Latin American diplomats have complained that since World War II growing United States involvements in Europe and Asia have led to a corresponding drop of interest in Latin American problems.

Aware of this criticism, the administration is using every opportunity to repair the injured feelings of some of the sister countries of the Western Hemisphere.

Shortly after his inauguration in 1952, President Eisenhower sent his brother Milton, a university president, to survey the economic problems of South America. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and other high ranking United States officials went south to attend the recent intra-American conferences at Caracas and Rio de Janeiro.

band at fire station No. 1, who took control of the matter expertly.

Evans said today that the dog probably saved the lives of his family.

"I'm sure I can keep the dog now," he said.

In a similar case, "Buttons," a mongrel owned by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McKinney, awakened his master this morning when an overheated register ignited paper in the living room of their apartment at 58 S. Parke St.

McKinney and his wife, Dorothy, took their three young children, Pamela, 5, Gordon Jr., 3, and Coral Lee, 2, out of the house and called the fire department.

McKinney suffered hand burns, but the other members of the family were not injured. Damage was estimated at $1,500.

Fire Marshall Charles Metz said the apartment has only one exit and warned owners of multiple dwelling units that apartments must have two exits.

"The owner of such buildings are held responsible for loss of life or injury occurring in buildings which only have one means of exit. The law requires two means of exit. I'll carry the matter to its ultimate end in prosecuting such matters if the law is not complied with," he said.

er temperatures gripped the suburbs.

Gotham motorists were urged to keep their cars in garages and extra police squads were called out to handle jammed subway trains. Flights were canceled for a while at LaGuardia Airport and were delayed up to an hour at International Airport.

The snow prompted principals of 31 New York City schools to send their pupils home yesterday and there was no indication early today whether classes would be resumed. In New York Harbor incomin, ocean liners were delayed two hours in docking.

On the other side of the nation, chilly winds of near-gale capacity were expected to return to the Los Angeles area.

The winds, which reached peaks of 48 miles per hour at International Airport yesterday, toppled trees, smashed windows and ripped down power lines throughout southern California.

Temperatures dropped to near freezing in Los Angeles suburbs and were as low as 26 above in some areas.

2 Petitions Demand Wilkowski Seating

LANSING (INS) — Two petitions were filed in the State Supreme Court yesterday in a new effort to seat Detroit Democrat Anthony J. Wilkowski in the Senate.

The petitions, filed by attorney Arthur Cyrowski, claimed that the Senate did not have the necessary two-thirds vote for an ouster and that Wilkowski is being expelled from the Senate for the second time for the same cause.

Wilkowski served 26 months for fraud in conducting a recount of votes for secretary of state in 1937.

He was a member of the State Senate at the time.

The petitions bore the names of Henry Les and James L. Maskey, both of Detroit. They claim they were disenfranchised by the Senate's action because they had voted for Wilkowski.

The "double jeopardy" petition, brought by Maskey, is based on a previous Legislature's refusal to seat Wilkowski because of his prison record.

$100,000 Bid for Porter Turned Down

DETROIT (UP) — The Detroit News said today that the Detroit Tigers have turned down a $100,000 offer from the Chicago White Sox for outfielder J. W. Porter, who is due to be discharged from the army later this month.

The News said the offer was made last Sunday in New York by Frank Lane, general manager of the White Sox.

President Spike Briggs of the Tigers turned it down, the News said.

Briggs and other Detroit officials were not immediately available for comment.

Health Authorities Urge Fluoridation

its water since 1945 and the results are almost too marvelous to describe. There are no ill effects whatsoever."

Dr. Hutton is director of health for Brantford, which was the first city outside the U. S. and the third city in the world (behind Grand Rapids, Mich., and Newburgh, N. Y.,) to fluoridate its public water supply.

The doctor, a University of Toronto graduate, asserted he is no man to seize upon new ventures "just to be different."

He wears long underwear because "it keeps me warm," pearl grey spats because "I don't like drafts on my ankles," and uses a straight razor because "there was no such thing as a safety razor when I learned to shave."

Referring to the disease he smilingly said was afflicting opponents of fluoridation, he said:

"I call it fluoriphobia. All scientific men have been saddened by the appearance of this new disease — which actually is a disorder of the human mind."

He added:

"Stout hearts and common sense are needed to tread our way through the tumults which daily assault our intellectual integrity. It is indeed hard to distinguish between the wise man and the wise guy.

"What are people to think when it is falsely stated, as it has been, that sodium fluoride, used in water fluoridation, turns into hydrofluoric acid and slowly disintegrates the human body?"

Wants Health Agencies Ready for Salk Results

LANSING (UP) — If the Salk vaccine proves effective in preventing paralytic polio, state and local health departments should gear themselves to distribute the vaccine to physicians and schools, Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, declared.

Dr. Heustis spoke before the sixth annual Commissioner's Conference for local health officers, continuing at Lansing through Friday.

Detroit Ups Taxes Near Civic Center

DETROIT (AP)—Increases in property assessments are being tagged on land parcels near Detroit's growing Civic Center along the Detroit River.

City Assessor Thomas M. Corcoran said that in some instances assessments have been boosted from $75 to $300 a front foot, four times what they were last year.

Corcoran said assessors decided on the increases because property value in that area has risen sharply because of building projects in the civic Center. He said new expressways allowing easier access to the downtown district also have increased the value of property there.

Gillespie Seeks $5 Boost in Fox Bounty

LANSING (AP) — Rep. George A. Gillespit (R-Gaines) introduced a bill today to increase the fox bounty from $5 to $10.

Gillespie's proposal was directly opposed to a recommendation of the conservation commission that the bounty be abolished altogether.

The festival is being conducted under the asupices of southeastern Michigan District 4, Michigan School Band and Orchestra Assn.

Students receiving first division ratings in the competition will participate in the state finals, scheduled for March 26 at the University of Michigan, according to Dale C. Harris, instrumental music director for Pontiac schools.

Students from Pontiac High, Eastern Junior and Washington Junior High Schools will attend, Harris said.

Molotov's Job Reported Shaky

Red Foreign Minister Believed to Be at Odds With Malenkov

PARIS (INS) — Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov's job is reported at stake in a behind-the-scenes Kremlin struggle over future East-West cold war negotiations.

The tough, skillful veteran diplomat, only member of Moscow's ruling team who worked at the side of Lenin in the eary days of the revolution, was said to be pitted against no less a protagonist than Premier Georgi Malenkov.

Allied diplomatic sources reported that the Supreme Soviet was convened ahead of schedule today to vote authorization for the Soviet government to renounce its friendship and aid pacts with Britain and France if West Germany is rearmed.

Malenkov was declared to be opposed to denunciation of the pacts with the two Western powers, and wants East-West talks pursued even after ratification of the Paris accords to rearm the Germans is completed.

But Molotov, still a dominant figure in the Soviet ruling echelon even though he is believed to have slipped smewhat in influence after Stalin's death, is pictured as being adamant on the issue.

He wants the automatic denunciation of the pacts with Britain and France once ratification of the Paris accords is formally settled.

According to diplomatic sources, Molotov has staked his entire career on blocking ratification of the Paris agreements.

And if Malenkov wins out, and agrees to pursue East-West talks on settlement of the German unification issue, Molotov's dismissal is expected to follow.

Looks as if Teachers Need Heavenly Help

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (INS) — This would have been the neatest trick of almost any week, if it hadn't been just a misprint:

In Syracuse University's second-semester curriculum booklet, among courses offered was "teaching visual communication to the d e a d and hard-of-hearing."

Later editions corrected the word "dead" to read "deaf."

Dollar Brings Small Fortune

Junk Picker Bequeaths $13,000 to Woman Who Befriended Him

CHICAGO (AP)—A Joliet, Ill., woman who gave a skid row junk picker one of her hard earned dollars 10 years ago is the sole heiress to his small fortune, the Chicago American said.

The newspaper said Mrs. Anna Belding Meads, then a charwoman, befriended Sam Gallo, who died Oct. 31 in his squalid, flophouse room. A widow then, she has since remarried. Gallo was 58.

The American told the following story:

At State and Madison Sts. the shivering junk picker asked Mrs. Belding for a "dime for a cup of coffee." It was bitter cold, the holidays were imminent, so she handed him a dollar.

Now she is named as beneficiary and executrix of an estate which attorneys have estimated may run from $13,000 to upwards of $50,000 in a will handwritten by Gallo Sept. 24, 1954, and witnessed by three truckdrivers.

After Gallo died evidence of his wealth appeared. A bank book issued by the Silver States Building and Loan Assn. of Las Vegas, Nev., showed he had deposits of $6,221 there. In addition, a suitcase found under Gallo's bed yielded stocks and bonds of undetermined value.

There were no known heirs, so the Public Administrator's Office took charge. The junk picker who reportedly got his food out of garbage cans was buried with scant ceremony.

Bogus Check Suspect Waives Examination

Ronald A. Leach, 22, of 3181 Dartmouth, Oxford, who Tuesday attempted to get a bogus check County Prosecutor Robert D. Long, waived examination and was bound over too circuit court yesterday.

Appearing before Orion Township Justice Helmar C. Stanaback, Leach was ordered held in the county jail in default of $1,000 bond, pending his arraignment Monday.

Leach was arrested Tuesday when he walked into Long's office and asked the prosecutor, "Will you authorize a check for a friend of mine?"

Inviting Leach into his office, Long recalled that sheriff's detectives had been looking for him on suspicion of passing bad checks. Long called Undersheriff Elmer McQuern from an outside telephone while Chief Investigator Robert C. Miller kept Leach engaged in conversation. McQuern, who arrested Leach immediately, also recalled that a Lake Orion store owner, Mrs. Daisy M. Wisema of 495 Bellevue, recently complained that she had cashed a $21.72 bogus check signed with the name of Frank B. Leach who is reported to be Ronald's father.

Goa Deadlocks Portugal, India

Dispute Over Territory Threatens to Drag On Interminably

LISBON (UP)—The struggle between India and Portugal over Goa now in uneasy deadlock, threatens to drag on interminably.

The two countries appear too far divided on the basic issue to reach agreement, observers here said.

New Delhi demands that the Portuguese pull out of India, where Portugal owns three enclaves totaling 1,470 squares miles. The Portuguese say they'll fight to the death to keep their Indian possessions.

The dispute reached a climax Aug. 15, 1954, with the failure of a long-heralded "march on Goa." Since then, there have been similar marches in which small unarmed bands of Goan expatriates and Indian "stayagraphis" waving Indian flags, walked into Goa and were arrested.

Two big demonstrations which might have touched off real trouble were broken up by Indian police before the marchers could reach Portuguese possessions. The Indian government has forbidden Indian subjects to take part in the marches.

After a heavy back-and-forth of diplomatic notes during which India and Portugal failed to reach common grounds for negotiations, Foreign Minister Paulo Cunha said that if Indian interference in the Portuguese possessions didn't stop, Portugal might appeal to NATO.

Under article four of the NATO treaty, Portugal could ask the West to "consult" on the Goa question. Portugal is not a member of the United Nations, and there has been no mention of any appeal to that body.

Dr. Cunha pointed out that India has refused Portugal access to the two territories of Dadra and Nagar-Aveli, overrun by "anti-Portuguese volunteers liberators" in Jyly. Even with the taking of those two parcels, however, only 40,000 of the 650,000 population of Portuguese India has so far been "liberated."

Porgugal has had Goa for more than 400 years and, according to observers here, is likely to keep the enclave for a long time to come, if India refuses to use force.

More than 165 million tons of coal have been saved by the U.S. Bureau of Mines by controlling fires in inactive deposits, and the cost is negligible.

Buffalo Corrects Speech Defects

Cleft Palate, Hare Lip Cases Are Treated by Team of Specialists

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP) — Children with cleft palates and harelips, once destined to be social outcasts, are now taking their normal places in the world because of work being done by a well-integrated team of Buffalo specialists.

These handicapped children are being treated by the J. Sutton Regan Cleft Palate Foundation, a pilot program financed largely by the state's department of health. They are among 250,000 persons in the United States with one or both of the congenital defects.

Some few years ago these children would have been ridiculed by their playmates for their appearance and "funny" speech, rejected or overly protected by their parents, denied the vocational opportunities for while they were otherwise qualified.

Through the treatment at the clinic, however, the youngsters obtain correction of physical and psychological defects,

The cleft palate team, headed by Dr. William E. Mosher as administrative director, consists of two plastic surgeons, two orthodontists (who correct irregularities of the teeth), a prosthetic specialist (who constructs and fits mouth appliances), a pediatrician, a speech therapist, an otolaryngologist (nose and throat specialist), a dentist and a social worker.

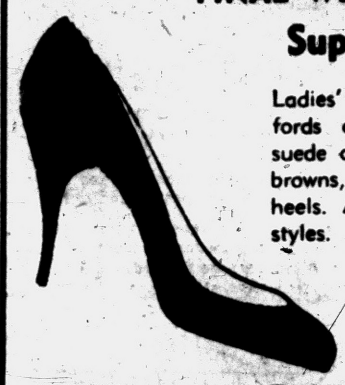

These specialists, meeting semi-monthly at the Children's Hospital, decide the extent of treatment needed, the most propitious time for carrying out the various procedures, and generally discuss the individual cases from all angles.

Masonic Leader Dies in Saginaw

SAGINAW (AP)—William H. Parker, one of Michigan's best known Masons, died in St. Luke Hospital yesterday. He was 70 years old.

Parker, a past master of the Michigan Masonic Grand Lodge, suffered a stroke at Winter Park, Fla., a week ago. He lived in East Tawas since his retirement in 1945 as a Michigan representative for U.S. Steel. Previously he lived at his native Otisville.

He was a 33rd-degree Mason and had honorary life memberships in Masonic lodges in eight Michigan communities. He was also an Elk and a Kiwanian.

Hal Boyle Says:

Weather Could Become Weapon to Conquer World

NEW YORK (AP) — The snow is falling outside my window, softening this harsh jungle town with its white feathers.

Each passing year I enjoy snowfalls more, because they arrive by the free will of heaven and wear no man's label.

Mother Nature has been put in harness in so many ways by man that it still is pleasant to some of her wayward children to see the old girl kick up her heels and show she has a mind of her own.

Snowfalls and rain still have an emotional quality for mankind because they still have the freshness of surprise. They are awesome too, because they are still wild and free demonstrations of a massive power that yet lies beyond our ability to control.

But how long will this last?

"Everybody talks about the weather, but nobody does anything about it," said an editorial in the Hartford Courant in 1890. No, Mark Twain didn't write it. His friend, Charles Dudley Warner did.

But the remark is no longer true. The trouble with the weather today is that too many people are trying to do something about it.

One of man's oldest dreams is the wish to control climate and the weather. It would be a fine thing to avert the disasters caused by hurricanes, hailstorms, tornadoes and floods.

But there is considerable doubt that if man had the ability to muscle the weather around as he chose it would prove an unalloyed boon.

To begin with, the first nation that learned how to steer the weather would probably develop it first for war rather than peace.

It is a weapon that could win the world.

"You other nations better do as we tell you," the nation with the big secret would say, "else we'll send you a 40-day rain that'll drown you and your crops and make Noah's flood look like a heavy dew."

This isn't really a ridiculous concept. How many scientists do you think right now are working on the possibility of ultimately using the weather as a weapon?

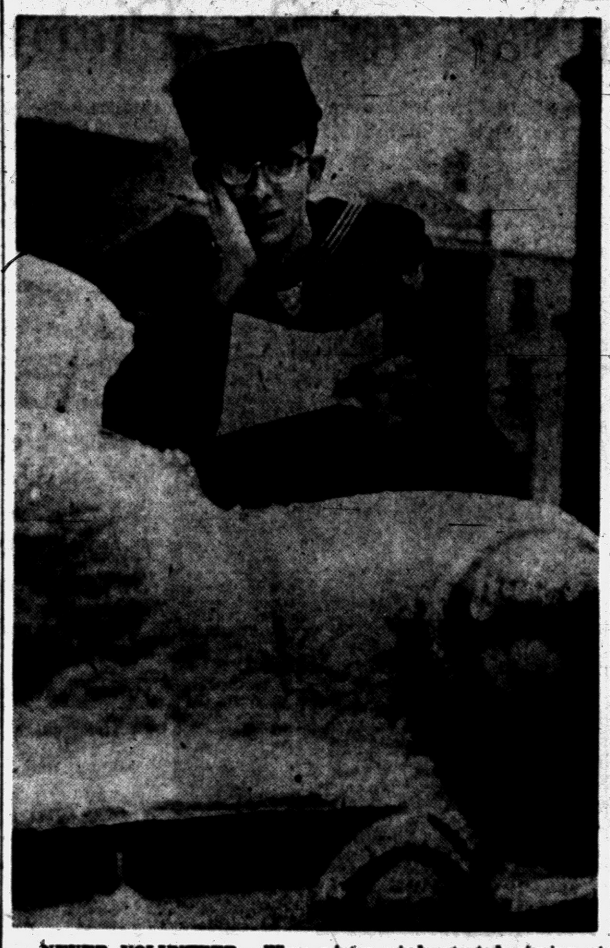

But even if this power were finally gained and employed for peaceful purposes, look at the turmoil it would cause. The summer vacationists would be howling for hot clear days so they could get a suntan, the farmers screaming for more rain to save their corn and wheat.

The long national quarrel over Daylight Savings Time would be a bush league hassle compared to the problem of what kind of weather to have—and where and when. Politicians would be afraid to take a stand for either wet or dry, and national party platforms would contain only this noncommittal plank: "We stand four-square behind a program for a longer full moon."

The worst thing about a government-controlled climate is that it would completely ruin what is left of the art of conversation.

Why would anybody bother to say, "Well, how do you like the weather?" If the weather were already custom tailored to suit you, you would take the weather for granted then, as you do electricity, now that it has been tamed and put in wires.

How long has it been since you heard anyobdy say, "Well, how do you like the electricity today?"

NEVER VOLUNTEER — When winter winds started nipping at Yeoman Edd Brueggen, of Dayton, Ky., stationed in Cincinnati, he started reading Navy "see-the-world" literature. Eddie just hates cold weather. He decided it would be warmer in South America and asked for a transfer. He got it all right—he's ordered to Moscow where he'll be attached to the U. S. Embassy. Here he practices shivering for the Russian winters.

Superman Grounded

Rubinstein Will Lists 2 Women

Friends to Get $10,000 Each; Remainder Left to Family, Employes

NEW YORK (AP)—Serge Rubinstein, slain millionaire draft dodger, left $10,000 each to two women friends, in addition to providing for a secretary, his mother and two children, his will disclosed.

The women friends were listed as Miss Mary Payne, 16 Boulevard Periere, Paris, and Miss Betty Reed of Manhattan, the latter a frequent night-clubbing companion of Rubinstein.

He left $5,000 to Billie Kane, his secretary.

The financial wizard provided $500 a month each to his daughters, Diana, 8, and Alexandra, 7, but stipulated they were not to receive the principal of his estate until they are 50 years old.

To his mother, Mrs. Stella Rubinstein, 78, he provided $1,000 a month until her death.

His will, on being filed for probate today in Surrogate's Court, formally valued the estate at "over $100,000" although a business associate has estimated it at 10 million dollars.

Rubinstein's children live with his divorced wife, the former Laurette Kilbourne, who since has married John Lochhead, operator of a Las Vegas, Nev., hotel.

The international financier, strangled in his Fifth Avenue mansion last Thursday, left $10,000 to William Morter, the butler who discovered his bound and gagged body.

He also left $10,000 to Theodore Schultz, of Manhattan, not further identified in the will.

The will was filed as police investigated new information they said they had found in his residence.

Accidents killed more than 90,000 people in the United States in 1954.

Science Fiction Going Feminine

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (UP) — A University of Illinois professor believes that science fiction today is "going feminine."

Adrian Janes, old time science fiction enthusiast, said that the "mad scientist" yarns are giving way to a more realistic form of science fiction writing.

The reason, he believes, is more and more women are entering the field, both as writers and readers.

The result, Janes said, is that science fiction characters behave more as individuals, talk more about everyday things and even have grandmothers and families.

This isn't bad, he added but, "a lot of time is taken up with housekeeping that could be used to conquer outer-space."

Investments Call to Women

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP) — If Mrs. Rita M. Welly had her way, there'd be more women in the investment field.

Mrs. Welly is the militant president of a new all-woman organization known as the Investment Women of Western New York. Its purpose is to further the interest of women in the investment and securities business.

The group, which Mrs. Welly "got the idea for" years ago, would like to establish a scholarship "to educate women" in the investment field.

Mrs. Welly, who has spent some 28 years at selling and trading securities, says women can combine their kitchen and office talents and do a good job at both. But unfortunately, she added, most men have little confidence in women in the securities business.

"I don't think that's right," said spunky Mrs. Welly. "Women know as much and can do as much as men."

Remove Heat Mark With Oil and Cloth

Heat marks on furniture often can be removed with camphorated oil. The best method of application is to stroke the spot lightly with a cloth moistened with the oil, then rub immediately with a dry cloth. don't use a linty cloth; the fuzz may stick to the wood. The final step is a new coat of wax.

First commercial creamery in the United States was established in Orange county, New York, in 1856.

J-Hop Claiming Interest of Michigan Students

By SUE GILBERT

ANN ARBOR—With exams over and the new semester not yet started, what is more natural for college students to do but have a party. And what a party it is—it's Michigan's annual J-Hop.

J-Hop starts Friday evening with a formal dance. The bands will be the Dorsey brothers who will alternate during the evening with the Commanders. Many of the fraternity houses are abandoned by the men while their dates move in for the weekend festivities.

Parties in the various dorms and fraternities proceed and follow the all-campus parties which include, besides Friday evening's affair, an informal dance at the Union on Saturday night, skating and toboggan parties and movies.

The theme for this year's formal, which is to be at the Intramural Building, is "Bali Hai." Tropical fountains complete with running water and gold fish will set the mood. South Sea murals will provide the backdrop for arrangements of potted plants and palms.

J-Hop is traditionally non-corsage, so every girl will receive an orchid upon entering the dance; and even band members will be bedecked with flowers — each has been provided with a lei to wear during the evening.

Members of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity and their dates will start off this evening with a dinner at Webers and then proceed to the big dance. Among those attending will be Delt Sig president, David Rathwaite of West Iroquois road, with his date, Mary McConville of Kenilworth, Ill., and Dan Hunter of West Iroquois road, whose lady, Kathie Heirich, is coming from Wilmette, Ill., for the weekend.

Bud Osman of Spokane drive, will escort Carol Stickels of Detroit. The Delt Sigs plan a breakfast after tonight's dance and Saturday evening there will be an informal dance at their fraternity house.

While the rest of the members of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity and their dates are dancing to the music of the Dorsey brothers, Bob Dernberger of Oriole road, and his fiancee, Irene Jackman, Bellows Falls, Vt., will be preparing breakfast for the crew. Bob, incidentally, has just been elected social chairman of Phi Sig for the coming semester.

John E. Baxter, Third avenue, has invited Nadine Leach, Nelson street, to Ann Arbor for the party weekend. Their plans include the dance for Friday evening and the Michigan — Los Angeles State basketball game on Saturday.

An area couple who will be enjoying the weekend activities are Sharon Blanchard, and Robert Potero, both of Rochester.

Another Rochester couple on the dance floor will be Barbara Howlett and Robert Borst.

Dick Hartman, North Genesee avenue, who is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity, has invited Judy Bradley of Spokane avenue, to be his guest. As if one night of dancing wasn't enough, Dick and Judy plan to take in the Union dance on Saturday.

Ralston Schultz of Birmingham, will be escorting Carolyn Beckwith of Benton Harbor, for the weekend. His fraternity, Chi Phi, is one of the houses that will be abandoned by men for the weekend to let the ladies take over. A party is planned for Saturday night.

The freshmen get into the social whirl too. Patti Jean Smith of Waldo avenue is attending her first J-Hop with John C. Nagele of Berrien Springs. On Saturday evening they will be present at a party at his fraternity house, Delta Tau Delta.

Judy Dickstein of Chippewa road will also be in on the weekend of parties. Her escort is John Shepherd of Detroit. Kenneth King of Detroit has asked Cincy Irish of Watkins Lake, to be his weekend date. Shirley Baylis of Spence street will be the date of Robert Wiegand of Detroit. Dick Souslin of Savoy drive, also is back on the campus for J-Hop. His date is Pat Johnston of Detroit.

Hosiery Lingo Is Explained

AMES, Iowa (UP) — Women should have a hosiery "wardrobe," with different weight stockings for different occasions.

Buying nylon hose with their particular use in mind is both sensible and possible.

Remember that denier is the principal guide to sheerness. Denier is the weight and thickness of the nylon yarn. The higher the denier number, the heavier and stronger the thread. Yarn for nylon hosiery is made in eight different deniers — 10 and 12 for "dress up" occasions; 15, 20 and 30 for general wear; and 40, 50 and 70 for heavy duty.

Gauge affects the sheerness of a stocking, too. The gauge number tells the number of stitches for each inch and a half around the stocking. To provide best wear, always buy the highest gauge available for any given denier.

New Flexible Brush Follows Hair Curl

The newest in hair grooming equipment is a flexible brush designed to follow the curl of your hair. The brush's lucite back is divided into five sections, bound together securely with imbedded nylon bands.

The bristles also are of nylon. The manufacturer says the flexible action makes brushing easier and the hair softer.

State Officers Welcomed by Auxiliary

Mrs. Albert Milford Tells Group Statistics of AMEF

Mrs. Albert Milford, president of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Michigan State Medical Society spoke on the American Medical Education Foundation at the Wednesday tea sponsored by the Auxiliary to the Oakland County Medical Society.

Gathering at the Nurses' Home at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, members heard Mrs. Milford discuss the importance of the foundation, saying that "25,000 of what the University of Michigan received from AMEF was used to buy the radioactive cobalt for the Alice Lloyd Cancer Laboratory.

"Through this fund Michigan has been able to retain at Ann Arbor young men who are particularly interested in research in atomic medicine." At Wayne University, she said, this money was used to get a full-time obstetrician on its teaching staff, and a full-time radiologist.

It is felt, Mrs. Milford pointed out, that by doing this the society maintains high standards of medical teaching.

Part of the money also has been used for symposiums which are open to doctors in the field which in turn helps others. Statistics prove, the speaker said, that 20,000 doctors return to school for advanced study yearly.

Both Michigan medical schools send teams of doctors out into the rural areas to teach and lecture as rural doctors often can not leave their practices to attend conventions.

President Mrs. N. E. Durocher introduced state officers including Mrs. Delbert MacGregor of Flint, president-elect; Mrs. A. C. Stander of Saginaw, first vice president, and Mrs. M. L. Shadley, state recording secretary.

Special program for the afternoon was a duo-piano presentation by Mrs. Addison K. Oakley and Mrs. Ferdinand Gaensbauer.

Mrs. Robert Segula announced the dinner dance to be held Feb. 26 at Red Run Country Club. Plans were furthered for a fashion show to be held in April at Devon Gables.

Sam Joan and James Thompson introduced the novelty dances. Other callers were Jack Price, Robert Bunce, Harry Anderson, Sid Olson and Fred Kline. Mr. Kline was master of ceremonies.

On the guest list were the Wayne Hesselgraves, the Richard Drakes and the Joseph Boucars. A hobo dance will be held on Feb. 16.

More than 36,750,000 babies have been born in the United States in the last 10 years.

Card Party Set by Auxiliary

Preparations are being made for the Americanism program in May when members will report on Philip Wylie's book, "Tomorrow," an activity recommended by the state Americanism and civil defense chairman.

Members of the group will sign up for work with the Central Volunteer Bureau. Sewing for hospitals is planned for the next meeting.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Orrin Huntoon and Mrs. Margaret Bickerstaff.

Fire Spotter Has Lonely Job

NEGLEY, Tex. (UP) — Mrs. Juanita Westbrook believes she has the loneliest job in the world.

She's a forest fire spotter — guardian of 58,000 acres in northeastern Texas.

Few persons will brave the 126 steps to her lookout tower. The climb makes them dizzy. Most of those who start give up about halfway to the top.

Mrs. Westbrook traverses the steps at least three times a day. Her house is just a few hundred yards away. Since February, 1953, when she took over the tower, she has been off duty only two months.

She has spent so much time looking at fires that she can tell the difference at a glance between a "legal" and an "illegal" fire. A "legal" fire is one set by a rancher to burn brush.

An "illegal" fire, she explained, is one set deliberately or accidentally. This type is the destructive one, and is the kind Mrs. Westbrook must spot early.

Authority Says Specialization Is Key to Successful Teamwork for Retired

Supplement to Income Often Needed

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Many retired couples need to have some kind of activity to supplement their pensions and social security. Recently, a great many have asked my advice about woodworking projects.

They have some tools and equipment, and frequently this has been the husband's hobby for years before retiring. But what to do with it, and how to make a profit?

The first rule is to specialize. You can't expect to turn out all kinds of gadgets—toys, furniture, lamps, etc. and get anywhere. Your expenses will be too high, because you'll need a variety of tools and materials.

If you stick to one item, or one service, your costs will be lower, and you can create a demand for that one thing which will give you a regular market.

Second, let each of the partners have his or her own work to do, and stick to it. This makes for more efficiency, and less battles! If hubby is doing the actual woodworking, let wife do the painting or refinishing, and perhaps the marketing. However you break it down, be sure each has his own duties.

Here are a few specialties which people I know of have handled successfully:

1. Furniture repair and refinishing, handled beautifully and inexpensively. This couple does work for antique shops and furniture collectors, and charges slightly less than some of the top names in their community. The husband does the work, the wife makes the contacts, gets the business, and in a station wagon does the pickup and delivery.

2. Dog houses. This couple makes dog houses, charming ones, and has built up quite a reputation and quite a nice business.

3. Old-fashioned doll cradles. This couple makes lovely cradles, based on an old Dutch design, which are in terrific demand for Christmas, and for little girls' birthday presents.

4. Toy wheelbarrows. This couple makes small replicas of grown-ups' wheelbarrows, just the right size for small boys who want to help around the yard. They are sturdy and well built, and sell regularly at a good price.

IF not five feet high—

Keep all detail high on your tiny person, preferably above the waistline. Straight pleats and cropped jacket charming.

Mrs. F. H.—The problem of what to wear as a span-season outfit before summer-weight cottons and linens is solved by the beautiful new dark silk prints. Both slim and full silhouettes with particular emphasis on pleats in the first spring dresses.

Woman on Ship Likes Her Job

SOUTH HAVEN, Mich. (UP) — Being the only woman member of a ship's crew is fun, says Aase Norman, a former stenographer in Oslo, Norway, who now is a member of the crew of the Norwegian freighter Ravnefjell.

Three years ago, Miss Norman quit her job in a government office. Two months later she was aboard ship as a "mess girl."

Since then, Miss Norman has been all over the world. Most of the time she has been the only woman aboard the ship, which landed here with a load of wood pulp.

What's it like being the only woman on a ship?

"It's no problem at all, Miss Norman said. "The men are very nice."

Miss Norman has no trouble getting a date in port. She's been out with most of the 23 men on the ship and they've taken her to some of the most expensive nightclubs in the world.

For a season when most women want to show as much hair as possible, this little headdress-hat is the answer. Important, too is the fact that it is white. Stylized bow-knot effects of draped white straw braid give it an airy, easy look.

Note Should Accompany Belated Gift

Bride's Parents Responsible for Announcements

By EMILY POST

A reader tells me: "Due to circumstances beyond my control, I did not send a wedding present to the daughter of a very dear friend at the time she was married.

I had wanted to send something, and still want to very much, but am at a loss to explain its lateness. Shall I send a note explaining in part why the gift is being sent so late, or shall I simply send it and explain nothing."

If I were you, I would write "With belated but very best wishes for your happiness" across my visiting card. To someone you know very well, you might explain more fully: "I wanted so much to send this in time for the wedding, but it was impossible. It goes to you now with my love and all best wishes for your happiness."

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it ever proper for the bridegroom's family to send out announcements of their son's marriage? My son was married quietly in another city and he tells me that the bride's family do not intend to send out wedding announcements.

We have a great many friends and relatives whom we would like to notify of our son's marriage. Can we send out the announcements, and if so, how should they be worded?

Answer: Under the unusual circumstances you describe, I think it would be best to let your friends and relatives know of the marriage by word of mouth, or by writing letters. You should not send out formal announcements.

Dear Mrs. Post: A friend of mine has told me that when addressing wedding invitations or other social envelopes, it is not proper to write the city and state on the same line but that each should be written on separate lines. Will you please tell me if this is correct.

Answer: This is not very important, but to write the state on a separate line is preferable.

Women distrust men who flatter them and dislike those who don't.

Leather Shoes Soles Help

Wet Feet Cause Colds

A miracle cure for the common cold is in the offing, a medical research team reports, but in the meantime family doctors continue to use a verbal vaccine that was probably first prescribed by Hippocrates himself:

"Keep your feet warm and dry, and don't sit aroud in drafts."

Chilled, wet feet are one of the most common causes of colds, the medical men say, and can touch off a lot of foot troubles, too. But this doesn't mean you should suffocate your feet in extra-heavy socks and shoes made of impermeable materials.

They'll make your feet perspire, leaving them prey to blisters, skin irritations, and even frostbite when the weather gets cold enough to freeze the unevaporated moisture.

To keep your feet at a comfortable temperature, doctors recommend the wearing of medium-weight hose and all-leather shoes. Leathers finely interwoven fibers are a natural insulating material, permitting the feet to "breathe" and thus quickly evaporate foot moisture, while allowing cool, dry air to enter the shoes.

Your feet will weather the winter months better—and give your respiratory system greater resistance to cold germs—if you treat them to a nightly soak in warm water, followed by ta short exercising session that will loosen up the numerous tiny muscles and ligaments and whip up blood circulation. Before you go to bed, try walking on tiptoe two or three times around the room, then rub the soles of your feet vigorously with a dry towel.

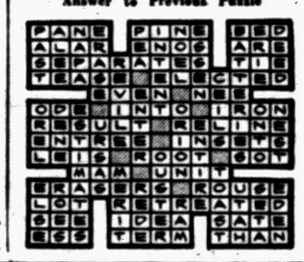

To sum up, here's a simple three-point winter plan for healthier feet and fewer colds: (1) Don't let your feet stay wet; (2) Wear all-leather shoes; (3) Wash your feet once a day and limber up your foot muscles at night.

Prepare Zesty Peas

Zesty flavor highlights this dish. Cook a minced garlic clove in butter, along with a large red onion, cut into rings. When transparent, add the liquid from a can of peas and cook down to about one-third cup. Add peas and heat through. Put in serving dish, and sprinkle with grated Parmesan cheese.

Add tiny cubs of jellied cranberry sauce to a grapefruit aspic. Delicious with roast meat or baked or broiled fish.

Sphinx-Like Gentleman Is Problem

Counselor Says He Gains Confidence From Chatterbox

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

Some boys are complete chatterboxes. They take as many prizes as the girls do for talking a lot and all the time. They're never at a loss for words—on any subject.

Jaws well-oiled at the hinges, ideas scurrying around in their heads. They're very easy to talk to because they do most of the talking.

There are sphinx-like gentlemen, however, who take all the prizes for resting their vocal chords most of the time. They turn up, look interested, but have absolutely nothing to say. A girl can dig up all the masculine subjects in the book in the hope of prying sounds out of him—with no results.

With a clam, a girl has to talk about herself. And that's what I'd recommend to this girl, who writes:

"Dear Miss Woodward: He's very quiet and nice and I've been to several dances with him and like him very much. I'm not too sure how he feels about me, or about anything, for that matter.

" 'Cause I just can't seem to make him talk. I've tried to get him interested in me by talking about things he likes—cars, mechanics and such—but nothing seems to get him talking. It makes me so mad! Please tell me what else there is to do?"

This lad is obviously the clam type with an aggravated case of locked jaws. He can't talk even about things that interest him. Because he doesn't know how to talk to girls, probably. And he may be more than a little intimidated by you.

He likes you well enough to take you to one dance after another which is a very good sign. He doesn't know how to pay you compliments, make you pretty speeches, or follow up the conversational leads you toss him.

Yet he likes to be with you. And the better he gets to know you, the more comfortable he'll feel with you, and the less terrified.

But how's he going to get to know you better, if you don't talk about yourself and the things you like? You may be showing yourself up as a ninny if you talk about too many things you don't know too much about. Talk quite openly and gaily about what you think, feel, hope, did and saw. Confide in him.

Just drop your chatter in his ears without any hope of getting any back talk. Happily set about telling him how you tick with occasional pauses for "or perhaps you don't agree with me?"

He'll be hearing more about you all the time, getting to feel that he knows you better, surer of how you're going to react and what you're going to do next. And if he's as timid as he sounds, that sort of confidence in you is what he needs in order to open up.

Paint Can Be Removed From Tile

By HUBBARD COBB

Last week or last month or maybe it was last year, we mentioned the case of the sad couple who used lacquer thinner to remove the paint from the plastic tile they had just installed in their bath and how the thinner removed not only the paint but most of the tile.

This is because lacquer thinner and plastic tile don't always get along. It also gets us around to what you can use to remove paint and varnish from plastic tile and the answer to this one is pure turpentine.

Now there are a lot of things that pass as substitutes for turpentine and some of them may work for certain jobs but for removing paint and varnish from plastic tile, be sure that it's pure turpentine. Any other solvent may damage the tile.

You'll find that after removing the paint or varnish from the tile, the surface will be slightly dulled and this can be fixed up by polishing with powdered chalk and water mixed into a paste.

Use a soft clean cloth to apply this polish and then wipe the area clean with a dry cloth.

Scratches in plastic tile or areas damaged by small amounts of solvents can often be polished out with fine pumice stone and water. This, of course, will leave a dulled surface that will require polishing with the powdered chalk and water as mentioned above.

The liquid in the average home most likely to damage plastic tile is nail polish remover which is about the same thing as lacquer thinner. If remover is used around plastic tile, care should be taken not to allow any to spill on the tile.

Canned Beef Gravy Adds Flavor to Stew

Bubbling with flavor is beef stew made with a can of beef gravy, cooked meat and vegetables. It's ready in just half an hour of simmering. Cook the seasonings first (1 large onion, chopped, and 1 clove garlic, minced); brown them in 2 tablespoons butter or margarine.

Pour in 1 can beef gravy (1¼ cups) and add 1 cup cubed cooked beef, 2 large carrots (thickly sliced) and 2 medium potatoes (cubed). Sprinkle in salt and pepper as desired. Cover and cook about 30 minutes. The family will clamor for repeats on this.

Youngsters Scattered Around Globe 'Attend' Calvert School in Maryland

BALTIMORE (NEA) — Dr. Archibald Hart, assistant headmaster of the private Calvert School, read the composition again.

It was not very good and he wrote a note across the paper asking the student to review his grammar again.

Then he put the theme in an airmail envelope and dropped it into his "outgoing" box.

Within a week it would be delivered —by mail launch—to a 10-year-old student whose classroom and home was a 60-foot schooner now anchored at Hawaii before setting sail for the Philippines.

The same mail from the Calvert School's faculty at Baltimore would be delivered to another 8,000 students in every land under the sun by dog sled, dugout canoe, camel back, mule pack or parachute.

For the Calvert School is an unendowed, non-profit institution that offers home study courses from the first to ninth grades to any child anywhere who cannot attend regular schools.

The youngster on a world tour on his father's schooner would pick up his lessons, books, pencils and paper in Malaya, Ceylon, India, Saudi Arabia and Egypt before his trip was ended.

And in every one of those lands he could have found students taking the same course from the same school in Baltimore.

In some places, the children live at U. S. embassies, Army posts, missionary quarters or in homes provided by American industry working on international jobs.

In the United States, children take Calvert courses because "it is 45 miles to the nearest school" or because there is "6 feet of snow on the roads during the winter."

Many of the children are shut-ins because of illness and accident. Many are on the road with their show-business parents.

But all of them are up on their studies and could, if conditions permitted, move right into a regular classroom school without losing any time in make-up work.

The Calvert curriculum is approved by the state of Maryland and, therefore, all U. S. schools.

Although there are Calvert students in every state in the union and in every land in the world, the course of study is not limited to Americans.

The son of an Arabian banker, the daughter of a Venezuelan diplomat and a Lisu orphan in northern Burma, for instance, are subscribers to the school.

The business of out-students began nearly 50 years ago when the Calvert School had already been dealing in education for a long time.

Baltimore had a whooping cough epidemic in 1905. And the study-by-mail course was set up to keep students from missing work.

By the time the epidemic was over, enough permanent shut-in students had been enrolled to keep the program going.

For the most part, Calvert is known around the world only by word-of-mouth. Because it is a non-profit organization, advertising has been a tiny part of the school budget.

Tuition fees paid by students —about $80 per year—are turned back into materials, texts and curriculum matters that are mailed in 25-pound packages to each student for each course.

Every course is tried out at the student body at the Calvert School in Baltimore before it is mailed to students around the world.

Additional time and money are poured into the teacher's manual that will go to the parents who must become teachers to their children.

But most of the money goes into revising school books every three years. Besides fundamental courses, the Calvert list includes astronomy, art history, mythology.

In the words of school headmaster Edward Brown: "We've got to be very careful about keeping our books up to date. After all, we're not just talking about the world. We're talking to students who are there."

Linguists Stop Trying to Stabilize Language

CHICAGO (UP) — The people who write dictionaries have stopped trying to set up language standards.

Ignace J. Gelb, a University of Chicago language expert, made a study of dictionary - making and concluded that dictionary editors are not longer "shocked" by words in common usage.

Instead, he said, they describe language people use and try to define words instead of criticizing usage.

Dictionaries themselves are more than five thousand years old, he added, dating back to ancient Sumer in Mesopotamia.

Samuel Johnson set up the first English dictionary in 1755, and Noah Webster published his first American dictionary in 1829.

No Visa for Malay Trip

SINGAPORE (UP) — Americans can now enter Malaya without entry visas—if they are coming for a visit. The arrangement is expected to encourage American tourists.

Americans who arrive to take up residence will still be required to obtain entry visas.

Family Knows Breakfast Value

A BETTER BREAKFAST FAMILY—Mr. and Mrs. M. Paul DeRose of Garden terrace, Lower Straits Lake, believe in eating a good breakfast every morning. Son Danny also approves of a hearty breakfast. We suggest all our readers follow the good example set by the DeRose family.

Curried Ham Has Star Role on Buffet Menu

A handsome buffet table can bring a glowing note into winter entertaining. It's difficult these cold days to make the effort to invite folks in for dinner, but why not plan a simple buffet menu for a few friends—it will help speed along the wintry days!

Your menu might be:

Curry-Glazed Picnic Ham
Baked Beans
(kept hot in a chafing dish)
Frozen Fresh Pineapple Chunks
Big Green Salad
with Canned Asparagus Spears
Chocolate Cake Coffee

You'll like the hint of curry flavor in this glaze for ham. Of course, you can use this same glaze for a whole or half ham, a canned ham or a ham slice. However, the picnic ham is inexpensive and an ideal choice when entertaining a small group.

Curry-Glazed Picnic Ham

1 cup brown sugar
½ cup pineapple juice
½ teaspoon curry powder

Mix ingredients together. While ham is baking, baste frequently with curry-flavored syrup until baked and nicely glazed.

Straw shoes for horses were used when iron shoes were introduced.

Top Off Sundaes With Apricot Sauce

Try this unusual dried fruit sauce for winter ice cream sundaes.

Golden Apricot Sundae

¼ pound dried apricots (1 cup)
2 cups water
Dash of salt
½ cup sugar
½ cup chopped, blanched almonds
1 quart vanilla ice cream

Soak apricots in water for about four hours. Cook, covered in same water, 15 to 20 minutes, boiling easily until apricots are tender.

Press through a sieve and save all the juice. Add salt and sugar and stir until dissolved. Add almonds.

Makes 1½ cups. Serve with vanilla ice cream.

Pineapple Tops Meat

Tiny pineapple-topped meat loaves: Arrange five or six pineapple tidbits in a petal design in the bottom of six large muffin pans. Fill pans with favorite meat loaf mixture. Bake 25 minutes in moderate oven (375 degrees). Run a thin blade knife around the edge of each little loaf to loosen and invert over serving plate. Serves six.

Paul De Roses Know the Value of Morning Meal

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

"We're breakfasting well every morning in 1955." Can you say that at your house? February is designated the first Better Breakfast Month of the year, and we take the opportunity to talk about this important meal.

On Saturday we had breakfast with a family that believes in a good morning meal, the Paul M. DeRoses of Lower Straits Lake.

Paul, a tall, athletically built man, needs a filling breakfast just to keep him going. Anne is a busy homemaker and mother who watches her weight. She knows the importance of eating a good meal early in the day so that she won't be tempted to nibble all morning.

Young Daniel, aged 13 months, wants to eat any time his parents do.

Although Anne says her family rarely ate breakfast at home, she wouldn't think of skipping it now. Because Saturday is a more leisurely day for the DeRoses, their breakfast was a bit more elaborate. Orange juice, bacon and eggs, two kinds of rolls, coffee and milk.

They always drink milk for breakfast, regular for the males, skim for the female (counting calories, you know).

We were interested to see that in addition to butter and jam, Anne had cheese spread on the table. Here is an idea for any mother who has trouble getting enough protein foods into her family at breakfast time. Cheese spread on toast will give valuable protein to those who object to bacon and eggs.

Every family must work out its own pattern of eating. All any homemaker can do is to know what is essential and to provide it insofar as she is able. Let's review the elements of a good breakfast:

Fruit of some kind is the first must; at this season of the year we naturally think of citrus fruit and its juices. With a record crop on hand, prices are reasonable.

Cereal versus toast is a subject for debate in some households. The Basic Breakfast consists of fruit, cereal with milk, bread and butter and a beverage. Any food budget can stand this thrifty meal.

But many individuals prefer to eat eggs, bacon or sausage in place of one of the cereal foods. That's fine; eat the combination you choose.

Children, of course, should have milk. If the adults can include a glass of milk with their breakfast, that will mean better nutrition for them. They will probably want a hot beverage also.

Breakfast is the most important meal of the day. Don't short-change your family by letting them skimp on what they eat. Follow the example of our Better Breakfast family, the DeRose family, and breakfast well every morning.

Turn Black Eye Peas Into Something Special

For any day in the year, here is that special dish of black eye peas.

Cook two slices of bacon until crisp; remove. Cook a sliced small onion and some chopped green pepper in the fat until tender. Add the liquid drained from a can of black eye peas, and cook down to about half. Add the peas, and heat through.

Put in serving dish and top with crumbled bacon. Canned pickled beets go nicely with the peas.

Almost all of the world supply of rubies come from sources in India.

Beans, Mushrooms Drenched in Cream

Frozen green beans—succulent, bright and really fresh flavored—a favorite vegetable anytime. Next time you serve them, try frozen green beans with these simple additions—mushrooms, sour cream and parsley. Sound easy? It is. And the flavor's wonderfully zestful!

Green Beans With Zippy Sauce

1 package frozen green beans
½ cup sliced fresh mushrooms
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1-3 cup prepared sour cream
1 tablespoon chopped parsley

Cook green beans according to directions on package; drain. Saute mushrooms in butter or margarine; add to green beans. Mix in sour cream, put in serving dish and sprinkle with chopped parsley. Amount: Three to four servings.

Fruit Cocktail Makes Tangy Chop Stuffing

"What a pity," says a current woman's magazine, "that an old favorite like fruit cocktail is used with so little imagination." Especially when it can so easily act as a fine picker-upper for all manner of foods. But, then it doesn't have to be so.

In an article called "Take a Can of Fruit Cocktail," there is a recipe using fruit cocktail that will really make any family's mouth water. It's Pork Chop Surprise . . . fruit cocktail baked inside of a pork chop.

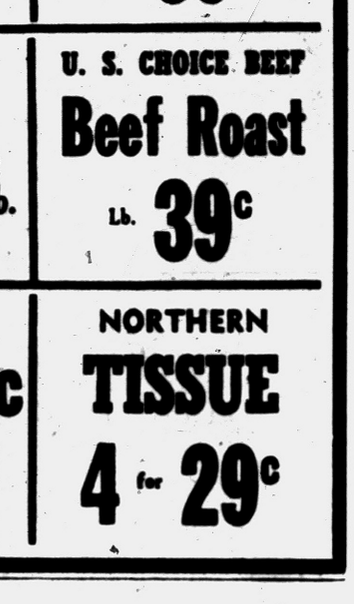

To make it, slit a pocket along the bone side of four rib pork chops, cut one inch thick. Fill the pockets with fruit cocktail (about 4 tablespoons per chop) and sprinkle the chops with salt. Then brown lightly.

Remove the chops. Cook 3 tablespoons of chopped onion and 1½ cups of chopped celery in the pan for five minutes. Add 6 slices of bread, cubed, and 1½ teaspoons of poultry seasoning.

Spread the entire mixture on the bottom of a shallow baking pan and add the leftover fruit cocktail. Place the chops on the stuffing and bake in a 350-degree oven for 1 hour, 15 minutes.

The number of households in the United States increased 23 per cent from 1940 to 1950.

MOM'S NIGHT OUT!—This dinner is easy enough for the family to prepare on Mom's night out . . . and good enough for a repeat performance. It's a quickie for your busy days and can be produced from a can or jar of baked beans, or pork and beans.

Let Dad, Kids Try Chef Role

If you're to be gone at dinnertime some evening, leave this easy menu in the hands of Dad or the kids, and you'll know the family is eating well.

Have things laid out for them, with a list of last-minute tasks for each. They'll be proud and well-fed with this hearty dinner that they "fixed themselves."

Mom's Night Out

Chilled Canned Tomato Juice
Baked Bean & Deviled Cheese Casserole
Cabbage Carrot Slaw Relishes
Corn Sticks and Butter
Ice Cream Sundaes
Coffee Milk

Junior: Pour tomato juice. Grate cabbage and carrots, and mix with dressing.

Sis: Use cornbread mix. Follow directions on box and bake in cornstick pans.

Baked Bean and Deviled Cheese Casserole

1 can (1 pound) pork and beans, or baked beans
4 thick slices American cheese
1 small can deviled ham
2 teaspoons prepared mustard

Put pork and beans in casserole and arrange slices of cheese on top. Mix deviled ham and mustard; spoon onto cheese slices. Bake in a moderate oven 350 degrees about 30 minutes, or until ham mixture is lightly browned. Four servings.

Thrifty Lamb Cuts Will Vary Menus

Let lamb give a lift to your menus. So many homemakers forget the tasty lamb cuts such as shanks, shoulder chops and stew meat which can lend variety to their dinner menus.

Here are cooking tips for preparing two of these cuts:

Braised lamb shanks, a famous German dish, is prepared by browning seasoned shanks in hot fat, adding water or tomato juice and seasonings and cooking over low heat about two hours.

After 1½ hours, onions, celery, potatoes and carrots may be added.

Lamb shoulder chops, braised with lemon and thyme, make an interesting dinner meat. Brown the chops, season with salt, pepper and a pinch of thyme.

Turn heat low and add the juice of one half lemon and one half teaspoon of sugar. Cover the skillet and cook slowly for one half hour or until the chops are tender.

Applesauce Chicken Bake Delights Guests or Family

For this wonderful dish you buy a roasting chicken, have it quartered and then bake it to a tender, golden brown under a blanket of applesauce spiced with fragrant herbs and seasonings.

The chicken takes unto itself some of the good apple flavor and delicate spiciness; and the sauce tastes a bit of the chicken. Succulent, delicious eating, every last morsel!

When to serve it? When you have guests, of course! But it is sure to rate as a family favorite, too — a delightful variation of the ever popular roast chicken. And first time, second time, any time you serve this chicken, it will "do you proud."

The dish is easy to prepare, a decidedly practical virtue from your standpoint. The sauce starts with ready-prepared applesauce, the kind you buy in cans and jars at your market.

This because ready-prepared applesauce has the lively zest and tang and the right consistency required for top success. So with ready-to-use applesauce on hand, you go on from there like this:

Applesauce Roast Chicken

4-pound roasting chicken
Salt, pepper
6 tablespoons butter
1 cup sliced onions
½ teaspoon rosemary
2 cups canned applesauce
½ cup slivered toasted almonds
¼ cup chopped parsley

Quarter chicken; place in roasting pan. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Dot with 2 tablespoons butter; cover. Bake in moderately hot oven, 375 degrees, one hour.

Saute onion in remaining butter; add rosemary and applesauce, pour over chicken or around chicken in roasting pan. Cover, continue to bake one hour, or until chicken is tender.

Arrange on platter; sprinkle with slivered toasted almonds and parsley. If desired, serve with hot cooked seasoned asparagus tips. Yields four servings.

Make Zippy Spread of Chicken Livers

1 chicken liver
1 hard-cooked egg
1 tablespoon commercially-prepared tartar sauce
Salt and pepper

Add hard-cooked eggs and tartar sauce; mash well with liver. Add salt and pepper to taste.

Use chicken liver mixture as spread for sandwiches.

Cut sandwiches attractively and arrange on plates with garnish of olives and such raw vegetables as carrot strips, radishes and watercress or tiny lettuce leaves.

Here's Refresher Course for Lunch-Packing Moms

By JANET O'DELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

On Monday of this week most of the children in the Pontiac area started a new semester at school. Some of them had new classes; many of them had new teachers. But all the mothers go right on packing lunchboxes: It seems time for a refresher course on school lunches.

Among the books I bought during the end-of-the-year sales was the revised edition of The Lunch Box by Florence Brobeck (Greystone Press, $2.95). This book would be most useful to anyone packing lunches every day.

I disagree with one thing the author says. She stresses the need for variety in daily lunches.

Any mother who packs sandwiches, etc., for young scholars knows they have definite likes and dislikes; they want the one or two sandwiches they like; and they look with suspicion on anything new you introduce in their lunchboxes. For older eaters she's right.

I suppose we could try some new food combinations for lunch on weekends and use the ones that proved successful. But the main thing to remember is that any lunch should provide one-third of the day's food requirements for child or adult.

Dieters have to eat lunch as well as anyone else. They are a special problem. Miss Brobeck suggests a recipe for stuffed eggs that will have fewer calories than eggs fixed with mayonnaise.

Stuffed Eggs

4 hard-cooked eggs
6 tablespoons deviled ham
2 teaspoons chopped chives
1 tablespoon vinegar
1¼ teaspoon prepared mustard
¼ teaspoon sugar
Parsley or watercress

Cut eggs in halves lengthwise. Mash the yolks and mix with the ham, chives, vinegar, mustard and sugar.

Refill the whites and garnish with parsley or watercress. About 180 calories per whole egg, instead of 200 when made with mayonnaise.

That wonderful standby, peanut butter, can be combined with almost any food for a sandwich. You might like to try this combination on your children.

Peanut Butter and Orange

1-3 cup peanut butter
3-ounce package cream cheese
1 tablespoon orange juice
½ teaspoon grated orange rind

Mix the cheese and the peanut butter. Add the juice and rind and mix smoothly. Spread one slice of bread with the filling. Top with lettuce leaves, then with the second slice of bread spread with salad dressing.

Dessert in the lunchbox is always looked forward to, especially by the children. As the last new idea for your consideration, I give you this unusual sweet.

Turnover Bits

½ cup shortening
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1¾ cups flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 egg
1-3 cup milk
1 heaping cup chocolate bits

Cream shortening with sugar and vanilla until light and fluffy. Sift flour and measure it. Then sift three times with baking powder and salt.

Beat the egg and combine with the milk. Add dry ingredients to the shortening mixture alternately with the liquid, starting with the dry ingredients. Mix well. Chill the dough.

Roll on a lightly floured board to one-eighth inch thick and cut in 2¼-inch rounds. Place six or seven chocolate bits on half of each cookie round. Fold over the other half on top of this. Press edges together with a fork. Sprinkle top with sugar.

Bake on ungreased cookie sheet at 400 degrees for 8-10 minutes. Makes 4 dozen turnovers.

Add Corn to Breads

Have you tried dressing up various hot breads with canned whole kernel corn? It gives nice flavor and texture addition to pancakes, waffles or muffins. Just add drained whole kernel corn to your regular recipe and cook as you would the plain ones.

Ever try adding a little maple accompaniment to steamed pud- syrup to hard sauce? Wonderful dings for cold weather dinners!

Hamburger Rates as Family Favorite

A smart weekly marketing purchase always is a few pounds of hamburger. Price-wise it's a real attraction — and it's the handiest of meats to have around.

Junior loves hamburgers for lunch and Dad finds them the most satisfying of late evening snacks.

In addition, the family loves its tasty dinners of meatballs with spaghetti and chili con carne.

When you bring hamburger home from the store, if you do not expect to use it that day or the next, freeze it.

If you don't have a regular freezer, you can freeze the hamburger in your ice cube section for a week.

In freezing hamburger, it's a good idea to make it into individual patties and wrap these in freezer paper or foil.

Then when you want to cook a patty on short notice, you can whip one out and cook it without thawing.

Rave Notices Are Won by Chunky Applesauce

Remember the good - tasting, chunky applesuace of your childhood? Well, here's a modern streamlined version of it that will bring the family back for more:

Shop coarsely the slices from a can of apple slices. Combine with a can or jar of applesauce. Add a tablespoon of butter and warm up. If you like, add a touch of spice or lemon juice. Wonderful on gingerbread! Nice going all by itself, too.

Kids Will Gobble Up Chocolate Clusters

These cookies are just right for the lunchboxes or the after-school cookie jar.

Chocolate Raisin Clusters

1½ cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup butter or margarine
1 cup firmly packed dark brown sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 egg
2 squares (2 ounces) unsweetened chocolate, (melted)
1-3 cup milk
1½ cups light or dark seedless raisins (rinsed in hot water and drained)
½ cup coarsely chopped walnuts

Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Cream butter, brown sugar and vanilla; beat in egg well. Blend in melted chocolate.

Stir in sifted dry ingredients with milk until smooth. Stir in raisins and walnuts.

Drop by teaspoonfuls onto greased baking sheet, a couple of inches apart. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 12 to 15 minutes.

Remove from wire rack to cool. Makes 3½ to 4½ dozen cookies.

Note: Watch cookies carefully so as not to over-bake; if baked longer than necessary, chocolate will have a bitter flavor.

APPLE BRAN CAKE—To top off a meal on snowy winter evenings; to serve as late evening refreshment; to surprise the family at breakfast—this American version of an old German favorite will rate cheers from your family and guests.

Apple Bran Cake Brings Old Favorite Up to Date

Every cook of German extraction has her favorite recipe for Apple Cake. But few will come up to this American version. For it was developed with efficient cookery in mind.

Steps in preparation are reduced to a minimum, and advantage is taken of truly American foods, such as ready-to-eat cereal which is added for extra flavor.

Seasonings have been selected so that they blend in just the right fashion. See if the family doesn't like this cake served as a dessert, or as a brunch treat.

Apple Bran Cake

⅓ cup shortening
1 cup sugar
1 egg
½ cup ready-to-eat-bran
1 cup coarsely grated raw apple
1½ cups sifted flour
¼ teaspoon baking soda
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon ground cloves
½ cup cold coffee brew
1 teaspoon vanilla flavoring

Blend shortening and sugar; add egg and beat well. Stir in bran and apple. Sift together flour, soda, baking powder, salt and spices; add to first mixture alternately with coffee and flavoring.

Spread in greased 8x8-inch pan. Bake in moderate oven 375 degrees about 40 minutes. Remove from oven, spread with topping. Return to oven and bake about five minutes longer.

Topping

1 tablespoon butter or margarine
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ cup confectioners' sugar

Blend butter, sugar and cinnamon together with fork or pastry blender until mixture is crumbly. Sprinkle evenly over cake. Yield: Nine servings.

Serve Squash Soup

Did you know you could make a delicious golden soup from left-over mashed squash? Proceed as for cream of potato soup and season lavishly with salt, ground black pepper and ground nutmeg.

Filbert Frosting Is Nutty but Nice

Filberts, the little round nuts found in many assortments of fruits and nuts, have found their merry way into a luscious cake filling and frosting.

Under this frosting is a cake abounding in richness — a deep-layered devil's food, made from one easy-going package of cake mix.

Bake your cake in a jiffy and follow the recipe below for a frosting treat that is nutty — but, oh, so nice!

Filbert Devil's Food Cake

Prepare one 20-ounce package of devil's food mix according to package directions. Pour batter into two round 8-inch layer pans, which have been lined on bottoms with paper.

Bake in moderate oven (350) 30 to 35 minutes. Cool. Spread filbert filling between layers and frost top and sides of cake with filbert frosting.

Filbert Filling and Frosting

1 cup coarsely ground filberts
½ cup light cream
⅔ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
2 egg yolks, unbeaten
2 teaspoons butter
¼ cup butter
3½ cups confectioners' sugar
3 tablespoons milk (about)

Combine nuts, cream, sugar, salt and egg yolks in saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly until mixture thickens and turns brown.

Add 2 teaspoons butter; mix well. Cool. Set aside one-half cup cooked filling to be used in frosting. Spread remainder between two 8-inch layers of cake.

Cream together one-fourth cup butter and part of the confectioners' sugar. Add one-half cup filbert filling; blend. Then add remainder of sugar alternately with milk to spreading consistency, blending well after each addition.

Pink ice: This refreshing pink ice makes an attractive scoop for chilled fruit cups or fruit salads.

Crush one pound can of jellied cranberry sauce with a fork. Add 1 cup pineapple juice and flavor with one-fourth teaspoon of peppermint extract. Pour into freezing tray of refrigerator and freeze. Serve immediately.

Singapore Dish Goes American

Shrimp Singapore — now there's a dish with an exotic name. It's an exotic dish, too, borrowed from the Far East, where shrimp, bananas, rice and curry seasoning are top favorites.

The Shrimp Association of the Americas has taken the Oriental recipe and adapted it for Western appetites and methods of food preparation, because in the United States, too, these foods are popular and easily available.

Shrimp Singapore

1 pound shrimp, fresh or frozen
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon curry powder
½ teaspoon salt
Dash of cayenne pepper
1 cup chicken stock*
2 bananas

Clean and cook shrimp. If shrimp are extra large, split in half, reserving a few whole shrimp for garnishing.

Melt butter or margarine in a frying pan or saucepan. Remove pan from heat and stir in flour, curry powder, salt and pepper. Gradually add chicken stock, stirring until smooth.

Return pan to heat and cook, stirring constantly, until sauce is smooth and thickened. Peel bananas, cut in half crosswise then split halves lengthwise. Place in sauce.

Cover pan and let cook gently, stirring frequently, about five minutes, or until bananas are tender. Add shrimp and cook only enough for shrimp to heat through.

Serve on hot fluffy rice. Makes three to four servings, or serves two generously.

*In place of chicken stock 1 chicken bouillon cube dissolved in 1 cup boiling water may be used.

Glorious Stew Good With Beef, Lamb or Veal

No apologies are needed for a glorious stew. Beef, lamb or veal may be the meat for the main makings.

Shoulder meat cut into 1 to 2-inch pieces is best for stew. Remove gristle, excess fat and bones.

Beef stew is most flexible as to companions but all stews have a similar beginning. Roll each shapely chunk of beef in well-seasoned flour to coat evenly.

Then brown slowly but conscientiously in a little hot fat. Now add liquid—water, broth or tomato juice, as you will—but don't drown the meat. A cup of liquid for a pound of meat is ample.

Add seasonings such as a pungent bay leaf, a shake of meat sauce, or a pinch of herb. Be daring in trying new flavors but be parsimonious in measuring.

Cover. Let it simmer, never boil, for 1½ to 2 hours. Add more liquid if needed to keep the pot bubbling.

For the final touch, add prepared sizable pieces of vegetables, such as carrots, celery, potatoes, onions, green beans, limas, or the bold-flavored parsnip, rutabaga or cabbage.

But one strong flavor is enough; don't abuse the flavor senses.

Cover. Cook another half hour, then arrange for service with the skill of an artist.

A good company dessert . . . Bing cherry sauce over cream puffs filled with custard or whipped cream. Gourmet looking, too!

Team Up Sausage and Spanish Rice

On one of those busy days of committee work or shopping, quick cooked dishes are more than welcome.

Here's a timesaving pork sausage and Spanish rice dinner dish which is tasty and filling:

Pork Sausage Spanish Rice

1 pound pork sausage meat
½ cup chopped onion
2 cups cooked rice
2 cups canned tomatoes
2 tablespoons catsup or chili sauce
Salt, seasoning salt, and pepper

Fry sausage and onions until brown. Pour off drippings. Add rice, tomatoes and catsup or chili sauce.

Cover and cook slowly for 30 minutes. Season to taste with salt, seasoning salt, and pepper.

Quick Tuna-Macaroni Is Shoppers' Salvation

Shopper's Special: When you have stayed out shopping longer than you planned to, here's a quick supper dish you can get.

Drain a can of tuna and separate with a fork into rather large chunks. Do this in a baking dish. Add a couple cans of macaroni in cheese sauce and a little grated onion; mix gently but well. Top with grated cheddar cheese. Bake in a hot oven until bubbly.

Cauliflower, high in quality, can be served in elegance for about 8 cents per person.

Old-Time Boiled Dinner Hits Spot on Cold Nights

Among all the regional recipes which have been handed to us like heirlooms of old, New England Boiled Dinner stands out as one of the best. At this time of the year it's particularly welcome as hearty, good food for family meals and informal supper parties.

Probably this old-time dinner began as our American answer to the French "pot-au-feu" — or "pot-on-the-fire of meat, broth and vegetables." At least, it's a very old version of today's easy one-dish meals.

Vermonters claim to be the originators of the dish. Supposedly, the first cookstove was sent to St. Johnsbury, Vt., in 1808. Dr. Lord was its owner and it had been sent to him from Scotland by way of Montreal.

The stove was a great curiosity and was so monstrous that a kettle could be placed inside the oven.

That oven, according to the story, inspired the dinner, although most old recipes disagree with Dr. Lord and designate cooking on top of the stove.

This recipe is an up-to-date version of the time-honored dish. Serve it as the New Englanders did from early fall until late spring with baked Indian Pudding for dessert.

New England Boiled Dinner

3 to 4 pounds corned beef
4 peppercorns
1 bay leaf
¼ teaspoon thyme
6 small potatoes, peeled
6 carrots, scraped
1 small head cabbage

Place meat in large heavy kettle with enough water to cover. Add peppercorns, bay leaf and thyme. Bring to boil. Reduce heat and cook, covered, 3 to 3½ hours, or until tender.

Meanwhile, cut potatoes and carrots into halves or quarters, if large. Cut cabbage into four to six wedge-shaped sections.

About 30 minutes before meat is done, add vegetables to meat stock and cook until tender. If necessary, lift meat from kettle to make room for vegetables, then place it on vegetables to keep warm while vegetables are cooking.

To serve, lift meat from kettle and remove surface fat before transferring to a heated platter. Remove vegetables from stock with a slotted spoon and place around meat.

Serve with horseradish sauce or mustard. Makes six generous servings.

Sale Will Close Hi-Point Farms

Plan Saturday Auction on Former Estate of E. F. Fisher

ROMEO—Saturday's auction sale will mark the end of operations at E. F. Fisher's Hi-Point Farm, northwest of Romeo.

Three sales were scheduled when the purchase of the property by the Ford Motor Co. was announced last summer. The first, on July 31, 1954, offered purebred dairy cattle on the auction block.

The second, which had become an annual event in cattle circles throughout the country, was the Hereford dispersal sale, held in October.

The third and last sale is scheduled for Saturday, when farm machinery and orchard equipment will be offered for sale, beginning at 10 a.m.

Hi-Point Farms manager Allen Rush announced today that the farm office will close April 1, with only a few head of cattle left to be shipped before May 1. The tenant farmers will also move into new quarters by May 1, and Rush himself will occupy his new home on Dequindre road around April 1.

Warrant Issued After Shooting

Woman's Niece Struck by Slug While Trying to Get Into House

A warrant charging felonious assault was issued today against Williamina Purdy, 28, who, state police say, fired a .22 slug which wounded her niece last Friday.

Recovering in Pontiac General Hospital is Mrs. Eleanor M. LaRousa, 33, of 714 Raeburn St. She went to the Purdy home at Whipple Lake, Independence Township about 3 a.m., police stated, and attempted to gain admittance.

Two youths accompanied Mrs. LaRousa from a gas station at Walton Blvd. and Joslyn Ave. where she bought gas on credit and said she would get the money at the Whipple Lake home.

They said she threatened to "bust the door down" if not let in. The shot was fired after the victim had broken a door window with her fist, the youths stated.

Miss Purdy said she did not know it was her niece and became afraid when the window was knocked out. She will be arraigned before Springfield Township Justice Emmett J. Leib at a later date, according to Assistant Prosecutor William E. Lang.

Artist's Son Hurt in Fencing Match

BRYN MAWR, Pa. (INS)—Peter B. Rockwell, 18, son of Norman Rockwell, the noted magazine illustrator, was reported in a critical condition in Bryn Mawr Hospital today from a wound received in a fencing match between Haverford College and Princeton University.

Rockwell, a freshman, returned to the Haverford campus two weeks ago after an AWOL trip to New Orleans with another student.

Dr. William E. Cadbury Jr., dean of the college, said Rockwell was hurt when the sword of an unidentified Princeton fencer struck him under the protective jacket. The blade entered his right lung, pierced the outside of the heart and then entered the left lung.

Physicians at the hospital said after an emergency heart operation that such a wound was usually fatal. Rockwell was taking part in the epee event of the meet, and it was believed the tip of his opponent's epee fell off just before the accident occurred.

Woman Given $12,000 Award

Sues Bar Owners for Serving Minor Who Caused Fatal Accident

A Lake Orion woman was granted $12,000 damages yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court against owners of four bars who she claimed sold liquor to a minor leading to a traffic accident which killed her husband.

Mrs. Oma Mae Stewart, 33, sued proprietors of the Avon Inn, 3982 Auburn Rd.; Country View Inn, 2701 Lapeer Rd.; Fowler's Bar, 2531 Opdyke Rd.; and Chuck's Shack, 28 Opdyke Rd.

She alleged the bar owners' selling of liquor to Edward R. Duncan, 19, formerly of 163 W. Yale Ave., led to his running a red light at E. Montcalm and Perry Sts. Feb. 7, 1954 and colliding with a car driven by her husband, Clyde, 34, who died later at Pontiac General Hospital.

Mrs. Stewart, who was riding with her husband, received minor cuts.

Duncan was convicted of manslaughter last Oct. 25 and is in Jackson state prison serving an 18-months to two year term.

During the hearings before Judge Frank L. Doty, Mrs. Stewart charged the bar owners, or their employes, sold Duncan liquor despite the fact he was a minor, according to her attorney Robert P. Sauer.

The youth became "intoxicated or partially intoxicated," she alleged, which caused him to drive at "excessive speed and in a careless . . . manner" resulting in the accident.

The bar owners denied having sold the liquor to Duncan.

Turkey and Iraq Hang Onto Pact

Will Cement Alliance Despite Opposition by Arab League

ROME (AP)—Turkish Prime Minister Adnan Menderes declared today his government will go ahead with its mutual defense alliance with Iraq despite the opposition of other Arab League countries.

Leaving for home after four days of talks with Italian officials, Menderes said other Arab nations were still welcome to join the Iraqi-Turkish alliance, but "we don't care about the attitude of other Arab countries, nor do we care about their reaction."

Lebanon's government announced last night that Iraqi Premier Nuri Said had agreed to meet Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser in Beirut in an effort to smooth the split in the Arab League caused by Nuri's agreement with Menderes. But in Cairo, Nasser, after a meeting of the Egyptian Cabinet, said no decision had been made on whether he would meet Nuri and the Cabinet had approved Egypt's withdrawal from the Arab League if Iraq, a league member, signs the treaty with non-Arab Turkey.

Lebanese Premier Sami Solh and leaders of three other Arab nations are now in Baghdad trying to iron out the squabble. Egypt charges the proposed pact is a threat to the neutral position she contends the league should maintain in the East-West cold war.

Testimony Resumed at Mine Wage Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Over the protests of lawyers for the small mines, which John L. Lewis has dubbed "dogholes," the United Mine Workers union has resumed testimony supporting its drive for a minimum wage on coal dug under government contract.

Farm Income Higher for Many Products

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Agriculture Department report showed today that despite a general decline in farm product prices in 1954, returns farmers received for many commodities averaged higher than in 1953.

But average prices received for wheat, cotton, corn, peanuts, crude pine gum, soybeans, hay seed crops, hogs, potatoes, hops, grapefruit and pecans were higher than in 1953.

LIFE IN THE ARCTIC

The Polar Bear—4

The polar bear found in the Arctic is often nine feet long and weighs from 600 to 700 pounds. His thick fur is white and he can move quickly across the ice to catch a fish or a seal. Here is a polar bear for you to set up along with the other northern friends you are meeting this week.

1. Using crayon or paint you can color the fish green and shade the bear a little gray around the edges.

2. Use white library paste to mount the picture smoothly on cardboard. Cut out the fish and the two parts of the bear. Applying paste only to the dotted circle on the hind part of the bear, attach the front part to the hind part. Now the bear looks like he does in the small drawing. Fold the feet forward so they will sit flat on the ground, and spread the two parts of the bear so he will sit up.

3. Cut a slit along the line of the bear's mouth so that he can hold the fish. That should make him happy.

Maybe Aussies Will Figure Out Frankie Laine

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Frankie Laine departs today for Australia, where he'll probably add another chapter to his amazing success.

Laine has long baffled the experts. Even his own mother wouldn't term him handsome. He has a figure that resembles a barrel. He half sings, half shouts his songs in a voice that seems to some of his critics more suited for calling hogs. When he performs, he waves his arms like an aggravated windmill.

Yet he manages to draw a comfy half-million dollars a year and charm enthusiastic followers from Down Under to Scotland. How does he do it? I have always claimed that he is one of the last of the minstrels. He seems to be cut from the Al Jolson tradition of songster. Though he lacks vocal finesse, he more than makes up for it with enthusiasm and a superb lyric sense.

And sincerity. He can put his heart into weird pieces like "Mule Train" and "Wild Goose" and make you believe them.

I chatted with Frankie before his Australia hop. He was finishing up another of his Columbia musicals, "Bring your Smile Along."

Frankie (born Frank Paul Lovecchio) discussed his contract with Columbia Records, which is one of the most envied in the business. He gets paid at least $50,000 a year for 10 years, and his accrued royalties continue five years after that. He makes a minimum of 16 sides per year, plus an album. One of the stipulations of the deal is that he must go out and perform before the public at least 26 weeks a year.

"The company knows the value of keeping your name alive with the public," he said. "It's all right with me. One TV show is counted as a week's work, so I can do a few guest shots, a couple of Las Vegas dates and some other night club and theater engagements and I'll have had it for the year."

His success in the record field has been phenomenal. Bing Crosby has sold more records in his long career. But no singer—not even young Eddie Fisher—has sold so many platters in such a short span. Laine has been a record star only since 1947, but his discs have been estimated at 25 million.

Deaths on Job Drop

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Bureau of Labor Statistics estimates 14,000 persons were killed on the job last year, the lowest figure in the 18 years for which records have been kept.

Baseball Players Today Look at Home in a Tux

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Once upon a time, a baseball player was out of place in a dinner jacket as a horse in a garage or a hog in Sunday school.

(To go back to some Middle Western expressions of my youth.)

But today Leo Durocher, Bob Feller, Joe DiMaggio and Yogi Berra are well-tailored dudes, mingling in High Society. And when they step up to the plate, they always know what fork to bat with.

★ ★ ★ ★

I went to the Baseball Writers' banquet at the Waldorf, where Willie Mays looked very slick on the dais in his form-fitting single-breasted tux—and where "Dusty" Rhodes caused some comment by not coming duked up in formal outfit.

DUROCHER

"Dusty," I heard somebody say, "is the one in the no-bow tie."

But Hollywood's silver-tongued Leo Durocher word-painted the New York Giant's great Alabama-born pinch-hitter as being the greatest rules violator of sports . . . at least the most successful.

On a barnstorming tour in Japan, Durocher was leaving the team's hotel at 9:30 a. m. when he saw Rhodes in the lobby.

"You going out or coming in?" Durocher asked Rhodes—"Comin' in," replied Rhodes candidly.

"He hit three home runs that afternoon," Durocher said.

Once after Rhodes had made a game-winning hit here, Durocher poured him some bourbon into a popular soft drink.

Dusty glowered darkly about the soft drink's defiling the bourbon.

"That'll kill you, that stuff will," Dusty said—about the soft drink.

DUSTY

"When he's going to bat, I've said to him, 'Are you all right, Jim?' He says, 'Of course, I'm all right. It's the pitcher that's worried!' "

Leo was the speaking star of the show, as he always is, but Willie Mays — who knows? — may some day wind up in a TV spectacular or in the movies. He did very well when Sports Writer Lou Effrat asked him, "Who do you think is the greatest manager in baseball?"

Looking toward Durocher, he merely said, "Why d'you want to bring that up?"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Betty Reed, one of Serge Rubenstein's girl friends, was planning to marry a handsome young opera star just a month ago. She studied music at famous Stephens College and was in the road company of "Oklahoma!"

Sunny Ainsworth, ex of Tommy Manville, wed Chicago broker Julian Marx and is honeymooning.

Sammy Davis Jr.'s wearing his new artificial eye; he can control its movement . . . Dorothy McCarthy, questioned in the Rubenstein case, worked on a TV show as a model Sunday . . . Eileen Todd's making her N.Y. cafe debut at the Town and Country Club.

Gloria Vanderbilt will take ballet and singing lessons . . . The Johnnie Ray-Marilyn Morrison romance is off again—she's back helping her father at the Mocambo . . . Martin and Lewis changed their minds and won't make "Wish You Were Here."

MISS TODD

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "Two kinds of families are likely to have a house full of antique furniture: the kind with money and the kind with kids."—Marshall (Ky.) Courier. That's earl, brother.

Milton Eisenhower to Talk on Americas

DALLAS (AP)—Dr. Milton Eisenhower says communism hasn't a chance in Latin America as long as its people "can achieve their just economic aspirations."

How the United States is helping along this line is expected to take up much of a speech tonight by Dr. Eisenhower, adviser to his brother, the President, on Latin America before the Dulles Council on World Affairs.

The talk has been billed as a major review of U.S. policy in Latin America.

Dr. Eisenhower said at a news conference that he was satisfied with the way his proposals have been received.

An example, he said, is the President's recommendation for an international finance corporation—a supplement to the World Bank which would lend to private enterprisers rather than governments.

"Productivity in Latin America is now increasing at a rate of 2.5 per cent per person, the highest rate in the world," he said.

'I Was Robbed,' Yells Bank Robbery Suspect

WACO, Tex. (AP) — Bobby Jack Howard, 29, charged with robbing the Farmers State Bank at Meridian, Tex., of $3,800 Monday, is a little irked about one thing.

After his capture at the home of an uncle in a rugged central Texas area, officers recovered about $3,000 in cash from Howard's pockets.

Five dollars of it, Howard said sourly yesterday, belonged to him.

Protest Pirate Raids

Newsman Receives Award for 2nd Time

NEW YORK (INS) — Pierre J. Huss was named today as winner of the George R. Holmes Award for outstanding excellence by an International News Service reporter in 1954.

Huss, chief of the INS United Nations Bureau, thus becomes a two-time winner of the 16-year-old annual award established to commemorate the late George R. Holmes, famed INS Washington Bureau chief who died in 1939.

Huss was honored for consistently outstanding year-long coverage of the United Nations, climaxed by his spectacular "scoop" on Dec. 17 revealing that U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold had decided to fly to Peiping and try personally to obtain the release of 11 imprisoned U.S. airmen.

The award, consisting of a cash prize and embossed plaque, was presented to Huss at a luncheon attended by a group of INS executives, editors and writers.

Supreme Soviet Meets as World Tensions Grow

MOSCOW (AP)—Russia's Supreme Soviet (Parliament) today opened its first session since last April.

Assembling as the Formosa crisis tightened world tensions and with Russia's campaign against West German rearmament at full steam, the deputies were expected to hear top Soviet leaders outline the nation's domestic and foreign policies.

One of the chief items set for discussion undoubtedly was the new call by the Soviet Communist party's powerful Central Committee for an all-out effort to raise the nation's farm production while further increasing heavy industry.

The order was issued as a decree, published yesterday by Moscow newspapers. In addition to demanding a drive to increase the output of grain, livestock, milk, wool, poultry and eggs, it said the party still "regards as its major duty a further increase of heavy industry, which forms a solid basis for the whole economy and for the indestructible defenses of our country."

The new wonder drugs have been found to be without any effect on the common cold although they sometimes control secondary infections.

Deeds Office Files 13,513 Documents

A total of 13,513 documents were filed with the Oakland County register of deeds during January, an increase of about 35 per cent over the 10,132 total for January of last year.

Last month's total includes 3,123 deeds, 1,726 mortgages and 4,978 chattel mortgages. Photostats numbered 1,300 and miscellaneous papers passing through the office totaled 2,386.

Recepts of fees in January came to $21,214.60, Register of Deeds Orrin McQuaid said. This compares with $14,589.95 for January 1954.

ROK May Join U.S. if Shooting War Develops

SEOUL (AP) — Defense Minister Sohn Won Il today said South Korea's armed forces might automatically join the United States in case of a shooting war with Communist China.

He told a news conference that such action would be justified by the recently ratified U.S.-South Korean Mutual Security Treaty in which both countries agree to come to each other's aid in time of attack.

Asked if South Korean forces would be deployed toward Formosa or north toward Manchuria in case of such a war, Sohn said:

"We must not forget the United Nations Command has the operational control of our armed forces. We will act in complete coordination with U.N. forces."

Pork Looks Like Best Bet for Weekend Food Buying

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pork looks like one of your best bets for weekend shopping in the nation's food stores.

Loins of pork will be widely featured, with reductions of as much as eight cents a pound. As usual, pork chop prices will come down with the loins. You may find them two to six cents a pound lower.

Smoked picnics, smoked hams and spareribs also will be featured in some stores.

Pork prices are expected to remain on the low side into this spring.

In some stores, beef prices will be down slightly from a week ago and various cuts will be featured. Items mentioned by a number of stores as weekend specials include ribs of beef, chuck roast and round roast.

Leg of lamb prices are holding about the same and meat men consider lamb a pretty good buy.

Frying chicken prices are up this week in some stores and a trifle lower in others. There will be occasional specials on fowl and roasting chickens.

In the fish line, haddock fillets are a favorite with many markets.

Egg prices still show an upward tendency. Butter is little changed overall.

There's not much change in the best buys in vegetables: potatoes, onions, old crop cabbage (Danish type) and turnips continue to be recommended to thrifty shoppers.

New cabbage is rated as a good buy and that includes the domestic type as well as red and Savoy cabbage. Also on the good buy list are topped carrots, escarole and endive. Western lettuce, corn and rhubarb.

Spinach and tomatoes are considered moderately priced. Among vegetables going higher during the week in the wholesale markets were squash, celery, cucumbers and root parsley.

Company M Faces Inspection Monday

Pontiac's National Guard infantry unit, Company M of the 125th Michigan Regiment, will stand a pre-federal inspection Monday in the Water street armory.

A heavy-weapons company, the outfit is commanded by Capt. A. J. Largent of Rochester. Strength at present is 102 enlisted men, one warrant officer and four commissioned officers.

Equipment, which will be inspected along with the personnel, includes a 75-mm. recoilless rifle, heavy mortars, and eight machine guns. Inspecting officers will be state advisory group members from 5th Army headquarters in Chicago.

CD Survey Planned

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—The City Commission has appropriated $1,500 to help finance a civil defense survey of the Grand Rapids urban area. Spokesmen said the funds will be matched by the state.

CHICAGO (AP)—Sirens have been ordered disconnected on 80 traffic patrol cars to induce policemen to drive more carefully and thus reduce accidents.

New York Narrows, Mackinac Lead in Ambitious Bridge-Building Projects

NEW YORK (UP) — Engineers plan to build the longest suspension span in the world across the narrow between Brooklyn and Staten Island at the entrance of New York harbor.

The bridge's 4,400-foot center span would be 200 feet longer than that of the Golden Gate Bridge at San Francisco, which has ranked as the world's longest since 1937.

And the Narrows Bridge, which the Port of New York Authority hopes to see completed by 1960, may be the longest for only a short time.

Within the next decade Italy hopes to build a suspension bridge with a 5,000-foot center span across the Strait of Messina connecting the toe of Italy with the island of Sicily.

Thus the superlative in length of suspension bridges would pass to the old world from the new, which has virtually had a monopoly on it since the late 19th century.

The 16 largest suspension bridges and all but one of the 27 largest cantilever bridges are in the United States and Canada. The United States has 9 of the 14 largest steel arch bridges and 10 of the largest continuous truss bridges.

The world's highest suspension bridge vaults across the Royal Gorge of the Arkansas River in Colorado at a height of 1,053 feet.

Engineers now are embarking on the most ambitious bridge constructions projects since the 1930s, when most of today's leading suspension bridges were built.

After the Golden Gate, the longest suspension bridges are the George Washington crossing the Hudson between New York City and New Jersey (3,500 feet); the Tacoma (Wash.) Narrows across the Puget Sound (2,800 feet); San Francisco Transbay (two spans, 2,310 feet each), and the Bronx-Whitestone across the East River in New York (2,300 feet).

This lineup will be changed in 1957 with completion of a suspension bridge crossing the Straits of Mackinac between the Upper and Lower Peninsulas of Michigan. This bridge will have a center span of 3,800 feet, ranking it longer than the George Washington but shorter than the Golden Gate.

In making comparisons of the length of suspension bridges engineers use the distance between the two towers rather than the distance from anchorage to anchorage. If the distance between anchorages were used, the accepted ranking of the world's greatest bridges would be different.

The Mackinac Straits Bridge, for instance, would be the "longest" on the basis of its 8,614-foot length from anchorage to anchorage. The New York Narrows Bridge, which will have a longer "span" or tower-to-tower length than the Mackinac Straits, will measure 7,200 feet from anchorage to anchorage.

Suspension bridges have been getting longer and longer ever since steel cables were used to replace rope and iron chains in their construction.

The Brooklyn Bridge, the first to use steel cables, was completed in 1883 and its main span length of 1,595 feet still ranks it among the top 10.

New York Narrows Bridge has been an off and on project for years. One question was what would happen if the bridge were hit by an atomic bomb and its wreckage blocked the entrance to the strategically important Port of New York?

This possibility bothered defense officials for many years, and not until 1949 did they give the bridge an okay.

Modern techniques of cutting up underwater debris, the Army said, make it unlikely the harbor would be blocked more than a few hours if the bridge fell in.

Kansas in 1861 was the first State to give women a vote, but that was only in school elections.

In 1946, he was appointed assistant principal of Pontiac High School, a post he occupied until he became principal at Washington Junior High. Mr. Kuijala is a member of the Board of directors of the Pontiac Urban League.

At the close of the service, Rabbi and Mrs. Hoschander will tender a special reception in honor of the birth of their son, Avrohom, to which all are cordially invited.

Tories Deny Claim of No Air Defense

LONDON (AP) — Britain's government denied an opposition charge yesterday that defective fighter planes and a lagging guided missile program have left Britain with "no air defense whatever."

Laborite Woodrow Wyatt touched off the exchange in the House of Commons, demanding, "When is it expected that defects in the Hunter fighter, which causes engines to stall when guns are fired, will be cured?"

George Ward, undersecretary of state for war, admitted that the Royal Air Force Hunter — only faster-than-sound jet fighter available to the RAF in squadron strength—has developed "bugs" in simulated combat.

"It may be necessary to make certain modifications . . ." Ward said, "but as it is, the Hunter is a formidable aircraft and could go into action tomorrow."

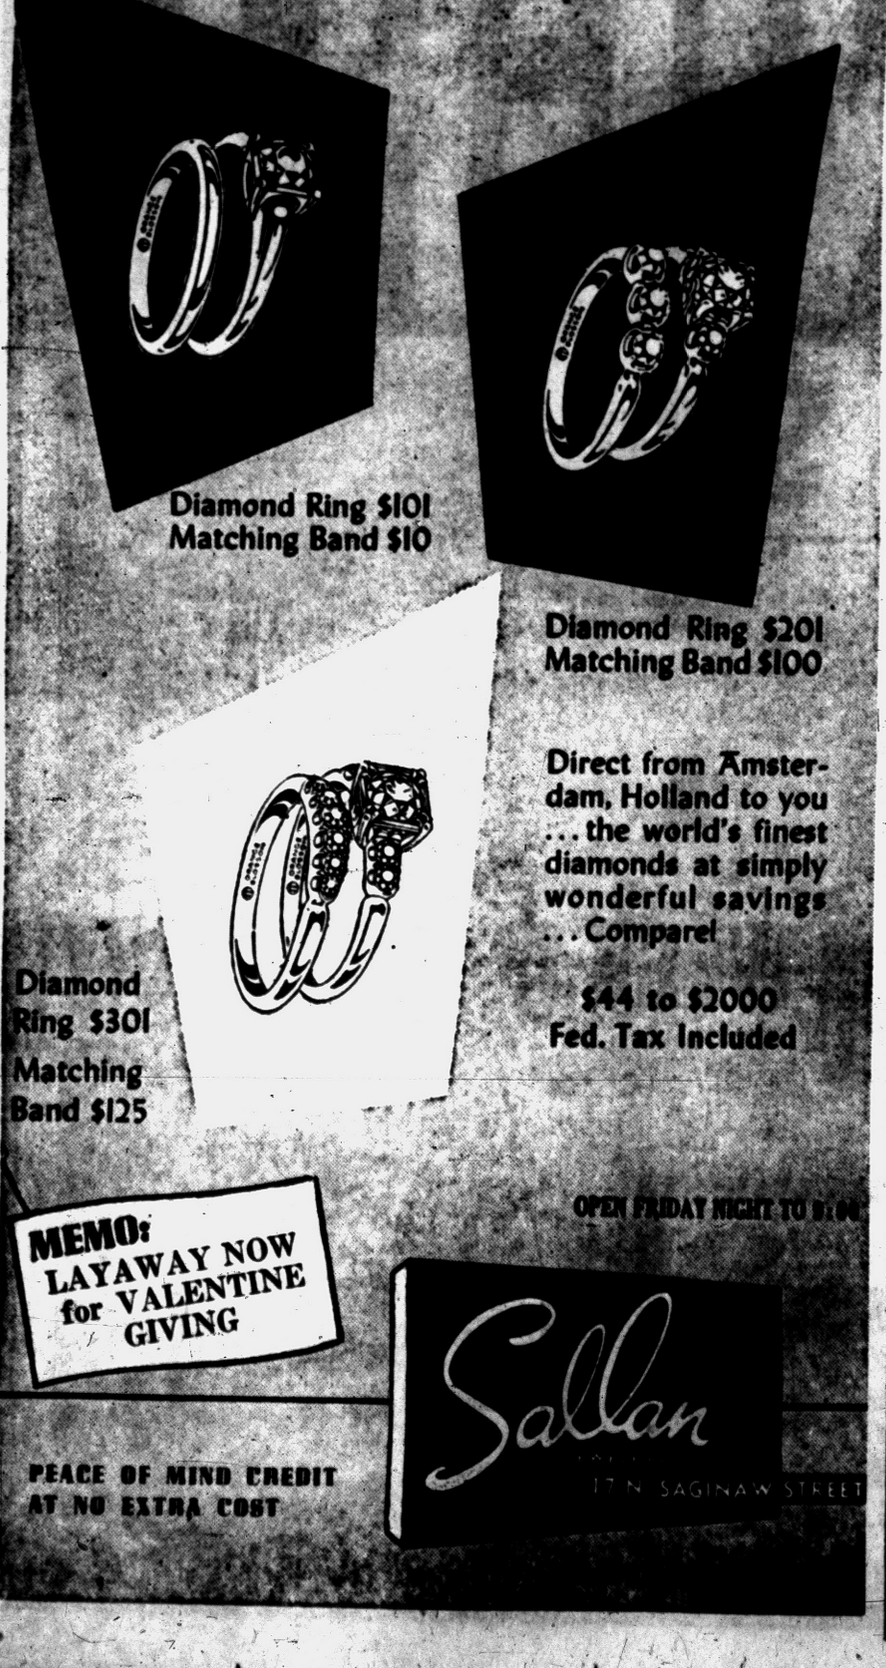

Sharpshooter Wasted

TYLER, Tex. (AP) — Miss Betty King, 22-year-old pistol expert, has been named a deputy sheriff of Smith County. Her skill as a marksman, however, will be confined to the practice range. She is an office deputy, handling police radio, bookkeeping, and filing.

Prep Cage Races Enter Critical Stage

By JACK SAYLOR

The prep basketball season is heading down the home stretch with every game listed as a crucial one for teams still in championship contention.

A 30-game schedule is on tap for Oakland County area quintets Friday with the accent heavily on league play. Here is the way things are shaping up as the conference races reach the critical stage:

INTER-LAKES — League-leading Berkley and 2nd-place Southfield are two of the county's hottest teams at the present. Working their way towards a Feb. 11 meeting, Berkley defends a 6-game winning streak against Van Dyke and Southfield puts a 5-game string on the line against Waterford.

Walled Lake goes to Farmington in Friday's other loop encounter. Both Southfield and Waterford will have added help for their game. Steve Klamik, a 6-foot junior letterman, is back in action for the Bluejays after missing the 1st half of the campaign with a sandlot football injury.

He played half of Tuesday's win over Redford Union and scored 11 points. Rebounding help is offered the Skippers with the addition of seniors Jack Campbell and Steve Kebler.

Campbell, 6-5, is a transfer student who jus. became eligible, and Kebler, 6-2, has been sidelined by a leg injury incurred in football.

WAYNE - OAKLAND — Milford with six straight wins, is bent on revenge Friday against West Bloomfield, which handed the Redskins their only loss in 10 games, 52-51, on Frank Rogers' last-second shot.

The Keego team must pull an upset to retain any title hopes. Clarkston, a half-game back of Milford, goes to Holly. The Wolves who haven't played since having their 7-game winning streak snapped by Milford, beat Holly easily in the 1st meeting, 66-41.

OAKLAND B — Co-leaders Madison and Roseville (5-1 each) tangle at Roseville. Both are among the area's best Class B quintets, but Roseville appears to have the edge. The Wildcats' only loss in 10 games was a one-point overtime decision at Troy, which was later reversed, 54-30.

Roseville has the home floor advantage and the schedule ahead looks rosy, while Madison still must play at Troy.

EASTERN MICHIGAN — Birmingham, rolling along with a 9-1 record and 7 straight wins, is seeking help from some other EML entry. The Maples only loss was to Mt. Clemens, and nobody else was able to beat the Bathers in the 1st round.

John Petrakis takes his team to Ferndale Friday, while Mt. Clemens meets Hazel Park. The rematch between the Maples and Bathers is March 4 at Birmingham.

THE OTHERS — Imlay City is making a waltz of the South Central race and Almont is doing likewise in the Southern Thumb. These two Class C powers play an interesting non-league affair Tuesday.

Utica seemingly is untouchable in the Bi-County. Undefeated in 9 games, the Chieftans will face their closest rivals in the 2nd half on the home floor. Barney Swinehart has uncovered a sophomore gem in Lou Haase, 6-2, who fits in well with junior Dick Cole and seniors Fred Hoscila, Ken Hilliard, Pat Schutte and Dick Duvall.

Best of the independent games Friday sends Lapeer to Rochester. Each has a 4-game winning streak going. Oxford plays at Romeo and Lake Orion entertains Northville seeking to crack a 5-game losing skid.

Chief Cagers Still Hoping for Share of Valley Title

Arthur Hill	6	0	Saginaw	2	4
Pontiac	4	2	Bay City	1	4
Flint Central	3	2	Flint Northern	1	5

Pontiac High's basketball team, still hopes for a piece of the Saginaw Valley Conference title after losing two of its last three starts. The club resumes league play Friday night at Flint Central.

Chiefs, who toppled the Indians 70-59 the last time the two teams met, will be rated definite underdogs this time.

Central has lost only one other game—that a 1-point decision to league-leading Arthur Hill — in eight season starts. Coach Joe Dowdy's crew is the highest-scoring team in the circuit with a lofty 69.4-point average.

Indians have piled up more than 65 points on five occasions, and never have been held to less than 52 points. Both of their losses came at the free throw line after they had outshot opponents from the floor.

Top scorer in Dowdy's lineup is 6-foot 2-inch senior center Joe Quarles, who leads Valley point-makers with a 20.2 average. Quarles, who boasts a 20.9 mark for the season, has hit for 22 points or more in each of his last three games.

Teaming with Quarles will probably be Paul Harper (6-4) and Chuck Crickmore (6-3) at forwards and Dale Kingsbury (6) and Ed Nyberg (5-11) at guards.

PHS Coach Art Van Ryzin plans at least one change in his starting lineup. Junior Rod Treais, who turned in promising performances in the last three games, will get his 1st starting assignment at forward.

Walt King, whom Treais replaces, may move to center in another possible switch. King, an outstanding rebounder despite his lack of height, would give the Chiefs more strength on the boards. He probably will alternate with 6-foot 4-inch Dick Blacklaw, the team's top scorer, at the pivot spot.

A 3rd shift may be necessary at one of the guard berths if regular Bob Johnston's ankle injury keeps him out of action.

Johnston collected 14 points against Flint Northern last Friday, but left the game early in the 4th period with a twisted ankle. Clay Williams, a 5-foot 4-inch speedster, will start if Johnston isn't ready. Forward John James and guard Walt Poe will be at their usual posts.

Two Records Set in Meet

North Carolina Tankers Establish Marks,' but UM Wins

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — The North Carolina State College Athletic Assn. swimming team bettered two American records last night but dropped a 52-32 decision to Michigan.

The state team represented the athletic association in order that freshman star Dick Fadgen and Don Sonia could compete. Sonia has completed his eligibility but is still a student.

Fadgen bettered the U.S. record in the 200-yard breast stroke, at 2:26.5 compared to the old mark of 2:26.9 set by Don Stolz of Georgia in 1954.

Fadgen was on the State relay team which swam the 400-yard medley relay in 3:36.3. Old mark of 3:57.1 was set by Yale in February, 1953.

Boxer, 39, Wants to Get Back in Ring

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Ralph Zannelli has brought to the State Supreme Court his fight to be permitted to return to the boxing profession at the age of 39.

The court reserved decision Wednesday on Zannelli's appeal from rulings of state boxing officials that he's no longer fit for the prize ring.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Francis J. Fazzano told the court:

"Maybe he's fit to take on some 13-year-old boy, or me or even you," referring to John Quattrocchi Jr., ex-boxer and Zannelli's laywer, "but that isn't what this is about."

Waldorf and Erdelatz Join MSC Clinic Staff

EAST LANSING (AP) — California coach Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf and Navy coach Eddie Erdelatz will head the visiting staff at the Michigan State College football coaching clinic this spring, coach Duffy Daugherty announced today.

Coaching clinic will be held May 5 through May 7 and will feature the annual green and white intersquad game that will wind up spring practice for the Spartans.

Wings Offer Tryout to Schoolboy Star

HALIFAX (AP) — A 15-year-old youngster still eligible for midget hockey has accepted an offer from the champion Detroit Red Wings to attend their training camp next fall.

The youth, Dave Amadio, compares favorably with most National Hockey League defensemen in build. He stands 6 feet 3 and weighs 215 pounds.

Amadio was recommended to Wings' general manager, Jack Adams, by a Halifax sportsman and will report to the Detroit camp if he gets his parents' consent.

'Knothole Gang' Given $10,000 for Box Seats

KANSAS CITY (AP) — They're breaking up that old knothole gang in Kansas City.

The knothole boys will be able to watch the American League athletics play from choice seats. They've got a $10,000 fund at their disposal.

Cliff C. Jones Sr., a 76-year-old baseball fan who is president of an insurance company, has set up the $10,000 foundation. It will be used to furnish free tickets for boys, veterans and persons who cannot afford to pay for them.

The city welfare department will distribute the tickets.

Arcaro Set Down for Erratic Ride

ARCADIA, Calif (AP) — Not only did Eddie Arcaro blow the winner's share ($87,000) of the Santa Anita Maturity for Calumet Farm, but the stewards have grounded him for failing to keep Miz Clementine straight last Saturday in that thrilling stretch duel with Determine.

The filly crossed the wire first, but bumped Determine en route.

'Elevators' Fail LA 5

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Inventive Sax Elliott has come up with his answer to a short basketball player's dream.

It isn't the pogo stick. It isn't the medieval stretching rack. It isn't stilts either, but you're getting warm. It is shoes with elevated soles — some up to a half-foot thick.

Elliot, coach of the Los Angeles State College team, displayed the shoes for the first time Wednesday night against the University of Utah. The Utes won, 77-38.

If Elliot was discouraged by the lopsided loss, he didn't show it. "Utah is the best team in the country," Elliot said. (The Utes are No. 5 in The Associated Press poll). "And if they hadn't used a full-court press we would have given them trouble."

One player already 6 feet 5 inches tall, Glen Abney, wore elevators six inches thick. He clumped around in the shoes for five minutes, staying under his own basket, without scoring a point or gathering in a rebound.

Elliot admitted they were clumsy. "But we practiced with them only once," he said.

"These can bring the end to the penalization of the short man in basketball. In the future, we could make up lack of height with these shoes. Teams could be matched inch for inch."

Elliot is a confirmed dabbler in basketball innovations. Some of his previous gimmicks include putting officials up on a platform above the basketball court; the "64-point" game in which the first team to hit 64 wins; ear plugs for officials to prevent them from being influenced by the crowd; spotting the visiting team six points to offset a home court advantage, and canned cheers — recordings of yells and songs which a visiting team takes with it on a road trip.

* * *

He said the elevators weren't against the rules. But he admitted they probably would bring a rule change, "maybe day after tomorrow."

Bruins Making Run for Third

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It wasn't so long ago that the Boston Bruins were in danger of dropping into 5th place in the National Hockey League. Now they find themselves closing in on 3rd.

The resurgent Bruins, who have perked up since Milt Schmidt took over the coaching helm at the end of December, edged the cellar-dwelling Chicago Black Hawks 3-2 in the only game played last night.

Ed Sandford's goal midway in the 3rd period gave the Bruins their victory and moved them to within seven points of the 3rd place Toronto Maple Leafs. Boston also is nine points ahead of the 5th place Rangers.

Women Athletes Bid for Pan-Am Berths

CHICAGO (AP) — The nation's best women track athletes, seeking berths on the U. S. team for the Pan American Games next month, will compete Saturday night in the National AAU Senior women's indoor championships at the University of Chicago.

The first three finishers in six special events will qualify for the team which will fly the U. S. colors in the games at Mexico City March 12-26 and become prime candidates for the Olympics at Melbourne, Australia, next year.

Signed by Orioles

BALTIMORE (AP) — Two more rookies, second baseman Don Leppert and pitcher Bill Diemer — have signed Baltimore Oriole contracts, bringing to 28 the number of Birds who have come to terms for the 1955 season.

Leppert, who came to Baltimore in the big deal with the New York Yankees, hit over .300 in four of his five seasons in professional ball. Regarded as a sure fielder, the stocky 5-foot-8, 175-pounder hit .313 for Birmingham of the Southern Assn. last year.

Harris Among Four Track Stars Lost to UM Team

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Eligibility is always a big headache for coaches. They feel the crush of final examinations almost as hard as their players.

During this latest school semester, most Michigan teams came through in fairly good shape. Football, of course, is of no concern now. But basketball, wrestling track, swimming, hockey and gymnastics are.

Track coach Don Canham, whose team is heavily loaded with talent this year, suffered the major blow.

With several grades not in, Canham was sure he had lost Pete Sutton, Bob Bullock, both lettermen, and sophomores Alonzo Harris and Jim Wheeling.

The condition of Canham's squad would still be good, however.

Canham also learned he would lose pole vaulter John Hilberry because of a discrepancy in transfer credits from another school.

On the basketball team, reports that forward Ron Kramer was flunking didn't hold up. Kramer soared through his exams, but his football teammate, Tom Maentz, stumbled on an economics course that has a reputation of being tough. Maentz will not be eligible for sports in the spring semester.

All other sports are through the scholastic hurdles, although hockey coach Vic Heyliger learned more than a month ago he would lose center Tom Rendell through transfer difficulties.

Aims at 1st Division

That Is Where Richards Hopes Orioles Finish

By PAUL RICHARDS

WAXAHACHIE, Tex. (AP) — Our goal for 1955 is to finish in the 1st division. I think we can do it for the simple reason that we have a improved club over last year.

We are improved in both offense and defense. The Orioles finished 7th last year because of lack of base hits. The pitching was fine, but you've got to get runs to win. We didn't get enough.

We've made a lot of changes this year. That's bound to help us greatly. The key new acquisitions, I believe, are four men. They are outfielder Gene Woodling, catcher Hal Smith, 3rd baseman Billy Cox and 1st baseman Gus Triandos, of course, we also expect help from such fellows as Harry Byrd and Jim McDonald.

If three of these fellows come through, I feel sure we'll finish in the 1st division. You can be certain of one thing. Everybody will get an equal opportunity to win a regular job. Another thing, I'll use every available man in order to win games.

It may drive the scorekeepers crazy but we intend to platoon our starting lineup at practically every position and we won't hesitate to make multiple changes in midgame if our opponent switches pitchers.

The trades we made have given us what I consider real depth. By platooning lefthanded hitters against righthanded pitchers and vice versa, we'll be getting the very best out of our bench.

Right now I've got to say that New York and Cleveland are the class of the league but we're not conceding a thing to anybody else.

Kentucky Cager Quits; Hits at School Attitude

Puckett Charges It's a 'Life or Death' Matter Regarding Game

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Linville Puckett, quit the University of Kentucky and its basketball team Wednesday after blasting what he called its "life or death" attitude on the sport.

Just before the 6-foot junior guard from Winchester, Ky. issued his announcement, the university released a statement in which Coach Adolph Rupp hinted at violation of training rules.

There have been reports of dissension within the squad for some time and the sport's world was shocked recently when Kentucky, the nation's top-ranking team, was beaten twice by lowly-ranked Georgia Tech.

Puckett said he was leaving because he felt basketball had become over-emphasized at Kentucky.

"It isn't regarded as a game but as a matter of life or death with resemblance to one's going to war," Puckett said.

Puckett said he wants to continue his basketball career and "to finish out my two years of eligibility at another school." He added that he had two or three schools in mind.

He said he was leaving Kentucky without ill feeling, and added:

"But where basketball is emphasized in such a manner that it is hard to secure your education or plan for the future — which after all means more than basketball — one must evaluate conditions."

Puckett was the Wildcat's fifth-ranking scorer.

Clarkston Five Earns Tie for Class A League Lead

Clarkston moved into a tie with Shaw's Jewelry for 1st place in City Basketball League Class A standings last night after swamping Chuck's Shack, 85-58.

Led by Ed Hintz, who pumped in 20 points in the 1st half, five Clarkston players hit for double figures in scoring. Winners held a 43-27 halftime advantage and a 69-46 3rd period edge.

Griff's Grill remained undefeated in Class B, chalking up its 7th straight triumph at the expense of Courtesy Floors, 71-47. Chet Woodmore led Griff's with 12 points, but game honors went to Jim Coombs of the losers with 16.

In Class D action, Boys' Club won its 7th victory in eight starts, 46-26, over Lakers. George Thrasher sparked the victory with 22 points. Slaybaugh's, paced by Art Poe's 18 points, downed Meteors, 48-38.

Valiant Leads Yachts; Slowed by Light Winds

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The 21 sleek sailing yachts, whose race from Miami to Nassau was slowed down to a sedate cruise by too little winds, neared the finish line at the entrance to Nassau Harbor today.

The Big Valiant, an 80-foot yawl owned by William Carl of Corpus Christi, Tex., was reported leading the pack but closely pressed by the Ticonderoga, a 73-foot ketch owned by John Hertz Jr. and raced out of Miami.

Garver Signs for Reported $26,000

DETROIT (AP) — Pitcher Ned Garver, who had a 14-11 record with the Detroit Tigers last season, signed his 1955 contract yesterday for a reported $26,000.

The figure was a boost from his last year's pay estimmated at $24,000. A club spokesman said Garver merited the raise on the basis of his 1954 record in which he compiled a 2.82 earned run average.

Garver is the 25th player to sign out of 44 on the roster.

Ex-Illini Star Agase Joins Spartans' Staff

EAST LANSING (AP)—Lou Agase, former star lineman at Illinois, is joining Michigan State's football coaching staff as a line tutor.

Appointment of Agase, a spectacular player for Illinois in the '40s, was announced over the weekend by athletic director Clarence (Biggie) Munn.

Appointment is subject to approval of the Michigan Agricultural Board, governing body of Michigan State. The board's next meeting is scheduled for Feb. 18.

Chisox Playing Cupid in Sale of '55 Seats

Fans In Adjoining Box Seats Finally Marry; Still Get Seats

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago White Sox are running 22 per cent ahead of last year in advance ticket sales for the 1955 season and playing Cupid, to boot.

Among the more than $325,000 already in the till, ticket manager Tommy Maloney reported Wednesday, was payment for two adjoining seats for Mr. and Mrs. Stan Kasper of suburban Berwyn, Ill.

Every season for the past five years Ruth Mason of Chicago had box 62, tier 6, seat 8 at Comiskey Park, Kasper had box 62, tier 6, seat 9. Romance bloomed between the two fans and this winter they were married.

Maloney mailed them the same two seats for 1955.

Weather Is Big Factor in Phoenix Open

Barnum Wins Pro-Am Event; Palmer Shoots Hole-in-One

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — A balky field of 153 golfers fire the opening round today in the $15,000 Phoenix Open tournament with the weather as big a factor as any.

A couple days ago with warm, sunny skies, the golfers burned up the Arizona Country Club course. Then Wednesday a chill wind blew out the fires and the hottest round was John Barnum's three-under par 67 in the pro-amateur preliminary. More wind was forecast today.

The temperatures in the mid 50's also bothered Ed Furgol who won this event and the United States Open in 1954 despite a crippled left arm. Ed has been nursing ailments in his right arm this winter, but said before going on the course that it felt better. He admitted after a 72 that the arm still was giving him trouble.

Only eight of the approximately 100 professionals taking part in Wednesday's play posted scores under par for the 6,694-yard course. The winds of up to 30 m.p.h. received and deserved much of the credit for soaring scores.

Johnny Palmer of Charlotte, N. C., declared that if winds persisted during the 72-holes of the event, he'd be happy to post a final score of 275. Johnny thrilled the onlookers, and himself, with a hole in one on the 130-yard 15th hole of the pro-am. His No. 8 iron shot hit about eight feet short of the cup and bounced in. It was, he says, the first ace of his 23-year career.

This marks the first year the Phoenix open has been played at the new par 34-36—70 Arizona Country Club course under a policy of alternating the event with the Phoenix CC which has been the scene in the past.

Winners of the earlier 1955 tournaments all are on hand—Gene Littler, Los Angeles Open; Cary Middlecoff, Pebble Beach; Tommy Bolt San Diego, and Shelley Mayfield, Palm Springs.

Barnum, of Grand Rapids, Mich., paired with amateur Bill Boskell of Phoenix, to win the pro-am with a best-ball of 62.

Something New, Something Old, Something Blue; That Was Collegiate Basketball Last Night

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There was something new, something old and something blue in college basketball last night.

What Los Angeles State tried (unsuccessfully against Utah — elevator shoes — was new. So was the game between Boston College and Tufts at Boston Garden. It was played under professional rules.

What Hank Iba's Oklahoma Aggies did to St.Louis' Billikens at Gallagher Hall in Stillwater, Okla., was old. The Aggies won, 67-54. And Eddie Hickey, boss man of the Bills, was blue. He hasn't won at Stillwater since 1948.

Boston College upset Tufts 63-54 in the pro go at Boston. Both teams got a little rattled in the first half trying to avoid the 24-second violation (the pros have to take a shot within that time limit after gaining possession), but they calmed down in the second 20 minutes.

Only clear-cut decision after the experiment: Garden officials said the game, paired with a St. Anselm's-Bridgeport game played under orthodox college rules, made it the fastest college double-header ever played in the Arena. St. Anselm's whipped Bridgeport 81-58.

Only two other ranked teams were at work, and both won easily against lesser competition. LaSalle No. 3, rocked Georgetown 85-59 with All America Tom Gola hitting 12 of 17 field goal shots for a 24-point total. Duquesne, No. 4, ran over Westminster (Pa.) 79-56.

Texas Christian and Texas A&M also had something "new" — four Southwest Conference free throw records as TCU strengthened its league lead 92-62. The records came about when Dick O'Neal of TCU sank 22 foul shots. The two teams aimed 102 free throw attempts and made 70 and 62 bagged 40 of them.

Lions Have Plans for 4 State 'Draftees'

DETROIT (AP) — Coach Buddy Parker of the Detroit Lions picked with purpose when he selected four players from Michigan schools in last week's National Football League draft.

The canny Parker, with some $20,000 in scouting reports in front of him, caused a mild surprise when he chose halfback Lee Riley of the University of Detroit in the 4th round; halfback Bert Zagers of Michigan State in the 7th round; tackle Walter Jenkins of Wayne University in the 9th round; and quarterback Duncan McDonald of Michigan in the 26th round.

In the past, Parker generally made his choices from distant places. His only successful draft pick from Michigan was end Dorne Dibble, former Michigan Stater who blossomed, as predicted by Parker, into a professional star last season.

This time the Lions' coach is, to a degree, enthusiastic about his Michigan choices.

"We picked Riley as high as the 4th round because we knew he was a good two-way player," Parker explained. "Players of this type usually are hard to come by."

Wally Fromhart, Riley's coach at Detroit, thought the Lions made a sound choice in selecting the fleet halfback.

"The pros go for durable players—and Riley certainly is durable," Fromhart said. "he is one of the best defensive backs I have ever seen."

It was no secret that the Philadelphia Eagles had an eye on Riley. They had scouted him in several games but Parker beat them to the punch.

Parker has definite plans for Zagers, a mainstay at Michigan State for several years.

"We plan to use him as an offensive halfback to catch passes," Parker said. "He has good speed and can hold onto a football. We'll use him in the same manner we do Doak Walker and Jug Girard."

Selection of Jenkins, Wayne's giant 220 - pound lineman, was made at the recommendation of Lou Zarza, who recently was dismissed as Wayne's coach.

"We didn't know much about Jenkins," Parker said. "we picked him entirely on Zarza's say-so."

And what about McDonald, the question mark quarterback at Michigan? The Lions didn't pick him until the wee hours of the morning, when the draft meeting became a mere guessing game.

"Just say we think he can pass," Parker said.

Furman's Floyd Leads U.S. in Points, Average

Southern Ace Hitting 37.1 Per Game; Dalton Passes 2,000 Mark

NEW YORK (AP)—The field is falling farther and farther behind Furman's Darrell Floyd, hooting along on a 37.1 game average in major college basketball and branching out into the total points lead as well this week.

Only two other scorers are hitting 30 points or better on the average at this stage—Ohio State's Robin Freeman (33.5) and Virginia's Buzz Wilkinson (31.6). Freeman's mark is based on 11 games, with an ankle injury putting him on the bench last week.

Floyd took over the point lead for the first time in the statistics compiled by the NCAA Service Bureau through last Saturday's games on a 557 total in 15 games. A 69-point total in two games last week carried him into the No 1 spot.

Wilkinson is the only other player to reach the 500 mark, totaling 537 in 17 games.

George Dalton of John Carroll also made a move during the week, becoming the fifth player in major college history to push above the 2,000-point career total. He now has 2,015 in his fourth varsity season.

LaSalle's Tom Gola and Dick Hemric of Wake Forest also hit the 2,000 mark this season, joining Jim Lacy of Baltimore Loyola and Frank Selvy, Furman's former record breaker, who were the first to do it.

Doesn't Like Altitude

Santee Wants Mexico City Appearance for Pan Am 1,500 Meters to Be Brief

NEW YORK (AP) — Wes Santee wants to make a "hit and run" affair of his 1,500-meter race in the Pan American Games at Mexico City next month.

"If I'm chosen for the American team—and I'll be shocked if I'm not—I'll ask to be allowed to fly down the night before the trials and again the night before the main race and then get right out again," the Kansas miler said.

"Because of the altitude—It's around 7,500 feet above sea level, I think—I wouldn't want to do any preliminary training there."

America's premier miler, whose time of 3:42.6 was certified as the world record for the 1500 meters, is in New York to continue his assault on the indoor mile mark. He set the record with 4:03.8 last Saturday in Boston and will try to lower it in the Millrose Games Saturday at Madison Square Garden.

"Olympic officials have asked me about the prospect of doubling up, in Mexico" Santee said. "I told them no. I said I would run only in the 1500 meters."

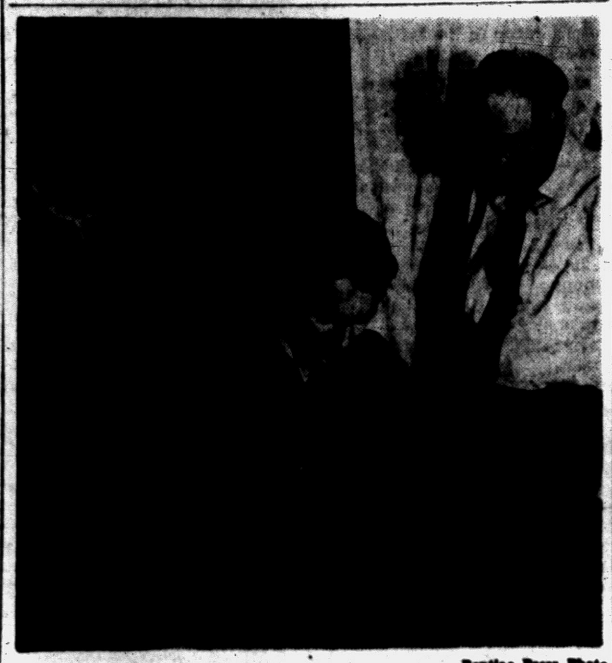

The Kansas cowboy, who has done 4:00.6 outdoors and predicts he'll lower the present mark of 3:58 held by John Landy, said in order to make his best showing at Mexico City he wanted to arrange a schedule so he'd be there just for the day of the race.

"The games start March 12 and the first 1500-meter trials are Feb. 17. I plan to run in Milwaukee on March 12, fly to someplace in Texas on Sunday and stay there until Wednesday night when I'll go to Mexico City.

"Then after the trials I'd like to go someplace like Acapulco, which is sea level and about an hour away and wait until the final race Saturday."

The lean, 22-year-old Kansan, who is aiming at a 3:55 for the mile before the end of his career, said his biggest disappointment was not being allowed to run against Roger Bannister and John Landy in the miracle mile at Vancouver last summer.

Bannister was the first to break the 4-minute barrier with a 3:59.4 race at Oxford and Landy later lowered the mark to 3:58. But Bannister, with a terrific kick, won the head-to-head duel in the British Empire Games in 3:59.6.

Father Always Knew Caswell Would Be a Pro

Guy Caswell, 72 Home street, always knew his son, Marvin was going to become a professional baseball player. Marvin has signed a Tiger Class C contract for 1955.

"Why, back when 'Butch' was a little shaver, he always was talking about growing up to be a professional ball player. We felt he would do just that because it seemed to be his one big future aim," the senior Caswell explained. "We are all for it, now."

How come Marvin turned down a college education at this time? "Butch's" dad was asked.

"Well, he figured that he was eventually going to become a pro, so why not get right into it as soon as possible. He hopes to be given a chance in the big time after a few years seasoning in the minors.

"And, I guess, 'Butch' has always wanted to line up with the Tiger organization."

The Caswells plan to leave about a week ahead of the start of drills at Tigertown, Lakeland, Fla., to take Marvin down and visit Mr. Caswell's sister, Mrs. Clarissa Vermett at Kissimmee, enroute. It will be the first glimpse of Florida for the family.

"Butch" already has a fan club started. Neighborhood youngsters have made him promise to keep them informed of his progress in the South and at Idaho Falls, Ida. in the Pioneer League where he will get his first professional start as a righthanded hurler.

All but 4 Sox Signed

CHICAGO (AP)—Only four Chicago White Sox players remained unsigned for 1955 Wednesday as outfielder Joe Szekely returned his signed pact.

Szekely, who was 28 Wednesday, was obtained from Havana of the International League Jan. 19 in a swap for outfielder Don Nicholas. Szekely batted .261 for Tulsa of the Texas League last season.

Old Injury Forces Reynolds to Quit Game

OKLAHOMA CITY (UP) — Allie Reynolds says he has pitched his last major league baseball game. The decision to retire after 12 years in the big time comes as a result of a back injury and his doctor's advice.

In eight years with the New York Yankees, the big righthander established himself as one of baseball's all-time pitching greats. His lifetime record is 184 victories and 104 defeats. Reynolds, always the "money" hurler, won seven World Series games for the Yanks and dropped only two.

In 1953, Reynolds suffered a severe back injury when the Yankee bus crashed into an underpass in Philadelphia. He was out of action for six weeks and the injury has been bothersome ever since.

His doctor recently warned him against the possibility of aggravating the injury and the chance that major surgery would be required if his career continued. That's when the 37-year-old Reynolds decided he would quit, announcing his retirement Wednesday night.

Reynolds made the difficult decision reluctantly.

"Some may think you approach something like this with a detached attitude," commented Allie as he wrote off a career which saw him help the Yankees to six world championships — five in succession.

"But when you get around to it the old, close ties are awfully hard to cut. From a standpoint of years I had lots of good pitching left. There's nothing wrong with the arm. I can throw as hard as ever.

"But you look at it a lot of different ways. I can't risk permanent injury at my age; I never had any intention of keeping on as anything less than a whole ballplayer and certainly I'd never do anything to hurt the Yankees' chances."

In Glendale, Calif., Casey Stengel, Yankee manager, didn't know that Reynolds was quitting. "If it's true I can only say that he'll be mighty hard to replace."

Stengel touched on Reynolds capacity as a workhorse. "Allie started ball games every four days and he could step in there and do a fine job of relief work, and as the TV fella says, 'you just don't get them no more.'"

In 1951, the Super Chief — called because of his blazing fast ball and his Indian heritage — hurled two no-hitters.

Reynolds came up to the majors with Cleveland late in 1942 and stayed with them through 1946. His best year with the Tribe was in 1945 when he won 18. The Yanks landed Reynolds in a deal for Joe Gordon and he broke into a New York uniform in 1947 with 19 victories. He never dropped below the 13-win mark. Last year, when he was mostly in the bullpen, Reynolds won 13 and lost 4.

'Bucky' Aiming Tigers Toward First Division

Pitching Help to Back Up Garver, Gromek Is No. 1 Necessity

DETROIT (UP) — Bucky Harris, back for a 2nd hitch as manager for the Detroit Tigers, said today he'll be "very disappointed" if the team fails to land in the 1st division this season.

The 58-year-old Harris who has managed major league teams for three decades rated the Cleveland Indians, New York Yankees and Chicago White Sox as the teams to beat in the American League race but cautioned that his Tigers can't be overlooked.

"Freddie Hutchinson kept the Tigers near the top for the 1st two months last year," Harris noted. "If we can improve the pitching a little we can hang up there a lot longer this season."

Harris, baseball's boy wonder when he managed the Washington Senators to the pennant in 1924 at the age of 27, succeeded Hutchinson as manager of the Tigers last October after Detroit turned down the latter's demand for a two-year contract. Harris had previously piloted the Tigers from 1929 through 1933.

"We've got a couple of top-flight pitchers in Steve Gromek and Ned Garver," Harris said, "but we've got to come up with two or three more consistent winners to be a threat."

He listed Billy Hoeft and Frank Lary as two hurlers who could be a big help. Hoeft, who fired a pair of one-hitters against the Yankees last season, finished with a dismal 7-15 record. Lary is a 23-year-old recruit who won 15 and lost 11 at Buffalo last year.

One of the main attractions will be the Southern Rocky Mountain jumping championships. Participants will include Keith Wegeman, Ansten Samuelstuen, Marvin Crawford, Buddy Werner and Norris Durham of the Steamboat Winter Sports Club.

Other skiing points which have announced they will have entries include Iron Mountain and Ishpeming, Mich., and Eau Claire, Wis.

Boston Doge Comes From Behind to Win 8th Race

MIAMI, Fla. (UP) — Boston Doge, the unbeaten colt, convinced the skeptics that he can come from behind when he whipped 13 other 3-year-olds in the $20,500 Bahamas Stakes at Hialeah Park Wednesday.

It was the New England speedster's eighth straight victory and established him as a real threat in the $100,000 added Flamingo Stakes to be run Feb. 26.

The Bahamas, at seven furlongs, was Boston Doge's longest race and he won it with a brilliant stretch run to grab the winner's share of $14,925.

In Boston, his jubilant owner, Paul Andolino said, "now that the 'Doggy' has shown us what he can do, we're going to enter him in the Kentucky Derby, the Belmont Stakes and the Preakness."

Before the Bahamas, Boston Doge hadn't been asked to go more than six furlongs and some of his critics doubted he could go the extra eighth of a mile, but he did.

"He broke evenly," said jockey Eric Guerin, who was making his first appearance on Boston Doge. "What worried me was other horses started passing him. 'What the heck happened to this horse?' I asked myself.

"I found I couldn't go outside, but I found a hole and laid it into him. He never gave a big burst of speed but was going away at the end."

MSC-Titan Grid Revival Is Sought

LANSING (UP) — A Detroit businessman has asked members of the state legislature to intercede in an effort to revive the annual football games between Michigan State College and the University of Detroit.

Ben Levinson, president of a mortgage firm, told 42 members of the house and senate that their interest in the problem was "imperative" and a virtual necessity to keep football alive at Detroit.

He pointed out that two West Coast schools — Santa Clara and the University of San Francisco — dropped football because of sagging gate receipts.

Rider Gets 3rd Triple

NEW ORLEANS (UP) — For the second straight day Ray Broussard rode a triple at the Fair Grounds Wednesday. His latest winners were Wabash Moon $3.80, Flat Side $19.40 and Good Question $4.60.

Bob Considine Says:

Frenchie Breaks Watch So He Can Give New One

NEW YORK (INS) — Now, every time I see somebody given a plaque or a silver service for meritorious work in baseball or the parsnip industry, I am reminded of a presentation story I ran across in researching the Las Vegas series.

The late Sen. Tobey, the Kefauver committee's voice of conscience, was questioning Barney Ruditsky, former New York detective who went to work in an assortment of trades in California after retiring from the force. The main topic was Benny Siegel but Tobey veered off to the famous Atlantic City meeting in 1932 at which the top figures in gangland conferred.

Sen. Tobey — Who called it?

Mr. Ruditsky — It was called by Big Frenchie. He was with Owney Madden. He called this meeting and the purpose was to apportion the rackets to the different people. The syndicate was going to maintain it but there wouldn't be any cutting in and they decided to stop killing one another.

"I don't know what went on at the meeting but they assigned different parts of the country to different men; different parts of the rackets.

The ex-cop then laughed and continued:

"At that time a very funny incident occured. They presented a watch to Owney Madden. Big Frenchie was to present the watch to him. Now he never had made a speech in his life. But got up to the dias and he said:

"'Owney, have you got a watch?' Owney said yes and took it off and showed it to Big Frenchie. Big Frenchie didn't quite know what to do. So he dropped Owney's watch on the floor and stepped on it and he said, 'Gee, I'm sorry I broke your watch, but here's another one for you,' and presented him with this watch.

Sen. Tobey — I am not sure that that isn't a better speech than a lot of senators make.

Mr. Halley — turning now to the Las Vegas area.

Sen. Tobey's efforts to condemn the long - since - dead Siegel crowd the Kefauver reports. When the committee was questioning Moe Sedway, associate of the extenct gangster, this transpired:

Mr. Halley — Siegel represented a certain amount of muscle from Los Angeles, didn't he?

Sen. Tobey — He was a rat, wasn't he?

Mr. Sedway — A rap?

Sen. Tobey (indignant, no doubt) — Rat, R-A-T.

Mr. Sedway — Maybe. I don't know.

Sen. Tobey — He got what was coming to him, didn't he? Good thing, wasn't it?

Mr. Sedway — I wouldn't comment on it.

Sen. Tobey — If you had your life to live over again, would you play the same kind of a game again?

Mr. Sedway — No, sir.

Sen. Tobey — You are in cahoots with a lot of people like Bugsy Siegle was and I wonder why men do these things. I look upon the people of my state of New Hampshire who till the soil and make $2,000 a year as a lot richer than these people you know. My people have peace of mind and can look everybody in the eye.

Mr. Sedway — Senator, you see what it got for me, three coronaries and ulcers.

Fellow writes from Baltimore, regarding the Las Vegas series: "You left out the prices on food, rooms, etc., which I think is very important to the average reader. Why didn't you quote the average cost of living in Las Vegas by the week, not counting gambling? Ed. note: I'd say anywhere from $25 to $25,000,000).

"P.S. — Is there any way of winning on dice in Las Vegas? Say, if you bet the dice wrong and then took the odds for the same amount— would that do it?"

Am turning this query over to Joe E. Lewis, prominent threadbare authority on the sport.

English of Top Concern at Tennessee College

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The University of Tennessee decided that college students ought to be able to speak and write English—and that too many of them can't. Now instructors in every class—from agronomy to zoology—will grade their students not only on the subject at hand, but also on their ability to use English.

If two or more of the professors find a student deficient, he'll be required to attend a special, non-credit workshop.

"It is a matter of national concern," says English Prof. Kenneth L. Knickerbocker."

Safety's Not Very Safe

Tucker Asserts Firm Debt Free

Fights U.S. Claim for $3 Million Against His Defunct Auto Business

CHICAGO (AP) — Preston Tucker, former head of the Tucker Corp., says his defunct automobile firm doesn't owe the government a cent.

Tucker, the Ypsilanti, Mich., industrialist whose dream of producing a revolutionary new car blew up with heavy losses to investors, appeared yesterday before Austin Hall, federal referee in bankruptcy, to answer a government claim for $3,374,075.

The government claims that is the figure the corporation owes for rent and other charges on a Chicago plant which Tucker leased from the government as an automobile factory. The firm turned out only a few cars before it went bankrupt in 1948.

Tucker, who has a tool plant in Ypsilanti, testified the Tucker Corp. paid the government one million dollars in settlement of its debt and now owes it nothing.

The only remaining asset of the bankrupt auto firm is Air-Cooled Motors of Syracuse, N.Y. Its value has been estimated by trustees at about 2½ million dollars.

Charter Change Can Equalize Districts

Because of mechanical error, several lines were dropped from a story on Page 1 of yesterday's Press detailing proposed redistricting in the city. The following will clearify the portions which were incomplete:

The charter revison, to be voted on in the April 4 election, would shift two precincts from Deistrict 1 to District 2 and two precincts from District 2 to District 3.

Should the electorate approve the shift, District 1 would have 5,683 voters, District 2 would have 5,086 and District 3 would have 5,626, according to statistics compiled by Mayor William W. Donaldson.

Districts 4, 5, 6 and 7 would not be affected by the charter change. Donaldson's figures reveal that those districts now have, respectively, 5,825, 6,380, 5,412 and 5,696 voters.

The revision is designed to bring to closer balance the number of voters in each district.

Mrs. Gariepy Loses Suit Against Pearson

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal jury has cleared columnist Drew Pearson and the American Broadcasting Co. of libel and slander charges brought by Mrs. Mary Gariepy, of Royal Oak.

Mrs. Gariepy charged in a $225,000 suit that her reputation had been damaged by a Pearson broadcast on Jan. 30, 1949, saying the government would prosecute her estranged husband, Dr. Bernard Gariepy, in an income tax case.

Defense attorneys contended that Pearson merely reported, without malice, information given to him by T. Lamar Caudle, then head of the justice department's tax division.

The jury returned its verdict yesterday after three hours deliberation. It was the second trial of the case. The first jury was unable to agree on a verdict.

Unusual Strike Rules in Effect at Wyandotte

DETROIT (AP)—An unusual agreement intended to assure a peaceful strike goes into effect today at the Wyandotte Chemical Co., where some 2,400 workers walked off their jobs Sunday night in a contract dispute.

Company officials and representatives of United Mine Worker District 50 (Ind.) came to the agreement yesterday in a meeting with Circuit Judge Joseph A. Moynihan.

The company conceded the union had a right to peaceful picketing and pledged to hire no one in the place of any striker "during strike negotiations."

The strikers, in turn, promised peaceful access to the plant of supervisory and clerical employes and others not directly involved in the strike.

The court understanding followed a company petition asking an injunction against picketing. It came after Judge Moynihan explained strike laws to both parties and asked them to settle between themselves any differences relating to the conduct of the strike.

Chief issue in the strike is the company's demand for the right to require employes to work overtime. Wages, as such, are not involved.

The company-union contract expired Sunday night.

Mrs. J. Wendell Green of 1643 Eason St., Watkins Lake, today reported to Pontiac Police the theft of silverware, valued at $100, taken from her auto which was parked last night in the rear of 29 Auburn Ave.

"KIDNAPPED" — "I was kidnapped," said Mrs. Kathryn Lang, 25, in Federal Court in Columbus. She charged that Charles Noonan, 25, of Columbus, forced his way into her car in Pittsburgh, Pa., and drove her to Cambridge, Ohio. When he got out, she ran the car over him. Noonan appeared in court on crutches.

Police Probing Fatal Accident

Mail Truck Driver Being Questioned in Death of J. R. Smith

Pontiac's third fatal accident in which J. R. Smith, 30, of 241 N. Saginaw St. was killed yesterday, was still being investigated by the Oakland County prosecutor's office today.

Assistant Prosecutor Edward H. Shigley said that statements from a U. S. Mail truck driver, Kenneth B. Jackson, 35, of 4189 Solvay, Drayton Plains, and three other witnesses were taken today. The investigation, he said, is pending another statement from a fourth witness.

Smith was killed yesterday shortly after noon when his 1951 Cadillac struck a tree on Perry just north of Giddings road. According to police, the car went out of control when it swerved to the right of the road, hit some guard wires and bounced into a tree on the opposite side.

Shigley today quoted the three witnesses as saying Jackson was making a U-turn on Perry. As he was about to complete the turn from north to south, the front end of the truck sideswiped the left side of the auto. Jackson's statement, according to Shigley, corresponds with others.

The force of the impact cut the auto in half, pinning the driver between the tree and the front seat. Medical authorities pronounced Smith dead at the scene.

Smith, a Pontiac Motor division employe, had been living with his father Elmer at the Saginaw street address.

This is the city's third traffic fatality in the past eight days. Last year Pontiac didn't experience its first fatality until Feb. 7. Five were reported killed in 1954.

The two others who lost their lives in traffic accidents this year are Mrs. Max W. Wells, who lost control of her auto and hit a tree at Mt. Clemens street near the city limits Saturday, and Andrew F. Chunovich who was struck by an auto at Oakland and Ojesta Aves. where the pedestrian attempted to cross.

Schools to Use State Valuation

County Superintendents Reminded About Budget Presentation

Oakland County School districts will use the 1954 state equalized valuation as a basis for estimating their school budgets, according to William J. Emerson, Oakland County superintendent of schools.

Reviewing the method of budget presentation at the monthly meeting of the Oakland County Superintendents' Assn. in Birmingham on Wednesday, Emerson said that a fourth state aid payment is expected for this year, providing an additional $3.50 per child.

School districts must present their budgets for the coming year the third week in April for review by the Oakland County Tax Allocation Committee.

To insure uniform computation on district budgets, a committee on school budgeting establishes a policy for all districts to follow in figuring their budget. This committee is composed of William Shunck, Waterford Township superintendent of schools; Reil Ambrose, Oxford superintendent of schools, and Emerson.

Assuming that the present state aid bill, which is being prepared by the State Department of Public Instruction, is passed by the State Legislature, districts will be allowed $177 per secondary student and $157 per elementary pupil.

This represents an increase of $7 per child over last year, said Emerson.

From the Primary Fund, $24 per child will be forthcoming with the two deductible items including the primary money and two mills on the 1954 state equalized valuation.

County Schools Share Bell Tax

Receive $549,492 Out of Phone Firm's Record $7.2 Million Payment

Oakland County schools received $549,492 of the record $7,235,000 paid to the State Primary School Fund by Michigan Bell Telephone Co. in 1954, it was announced today.

E. J. Novak, district commercial manager, reported that $87,909 of the county's share went to Pontiac schools.

He said the state property tax payments were based on a school census of 20,309 in Pontiac and 126,339 in the county.

Divided by the state school census of 1,664,726, based on 1953 figures, the tax amounted to $4.35 for each youngster in the state between the ages of 5 and 19.

Novak explained that Michigan Bell, along with railroads, Pullman, railway express, telegraph and other telephone companies, pays the tax earmarked for the primary fund in lieu of other property taxes.

Service managers from the 19 GMC Truck & Coach Dicision zones throughout the nation will attend a two-week meting designed to acquaint them with service operations of the 1955 models, soon to go into production.

"Uniformity of Service Operations Across the Nation" is the theme of the meeting, which begins Feb. 7.

At this morning's meeting, the Pontiac Life Underwriters Assn. heard E. M. Squires, superintendent of agencies of the Confederation Life Assn

Injunction Halts St. Clair Fill-Ins

LANSING (INS) — The attorney general's office obtained a temporary injunction yesterday restraining the City of St. Clair shores and three property owners from filling in the shore of St. Clair Shores.

Asst. Atty. Gen Nicholas B. Olds said more injunction suits would be filed within a few days.

Besides St. Clair Shores, those named were Miller Boats, Inc., William C. Miller and his wife, Lottie; and Ralph T. Martin and his wife, Florence.

Olds said the Millers had extended one lot 340 feet into the shallows, another 450 feet and a third 600 feet.

The injunction restrains encroachment on lands set aside by law for the preservation of fish and wildlife for the public.

Follows Scene in 'Yellow Jack'

Red Skelton's Red Hair Dyed Deep Scarlet for TV Colorcast

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS) — Jackie Cooper's "Yellow Jack" performance drew compliments and no complaints but there is a rapidly growing pile of admiring mail for Rod Steiger's sensitive, delicate neo-Brando love scene in the same telecast with Eva Marie Saint; many viewers didn't catch Rod's name in the listings as the show went on the air. . .

It did have a lovely delicate TV air to it. . .

Brand New Yorkers who wish to give the home folks elsewhere a peek at them turn up regularly in the sidewalk lineup outside the windows of the Dave Garroway street-level TV studio. . .

It would be a shame if they discouraged that gentle larceny of the expensive NBC air. . .

Ethel Barrymore will help make the General Electric Theater even more splendidly effective Feb. 13 when she stars with Ronald Reagan in Bret Harte's "Prosper's Mother."

Orson Bean, who can't seem to find his TV groove, has been signed for movies by 20th Fox, which may do better by the Boston Bean. (Right name: Dallas Burrows; no relative of Abe.)

Red Skleton's famous red hair wasn't a deep enough scarlet for "Show Stoppers" so he had it dyed a lighter hue for said hue-cast. . .

Jack Benny will pitch a change-up again soon in a Four Star Theater dramacast . . . Benny, who will be 39 years old Feb. 14, 1933, has had a remarkably fine TV career, starting off neatly enough, but growing in solid style since. . .

Aforesaid Rod Steiger might be the star of a Manhattan Waterfront series to be called (tentatively) "Dock Street" if Rod decides not to hie westward and make Hollywood fillums. . .

"Meet Millie" is in tragic crisis since the death of writer-director Frank Galen; its success rested heavily on his light sense of fun. . .

Rosemary Clooney expects a CBS series a la Dinah Shore, Jane Froman and distaff TV stuff like that there. . .

Networks say the thing they need most is kiddie-show ideas; the ones on TV hit their peak soon after they start, run downhill quickly thereafter. . .

Lew Ayres, after all those MGM years as "Dr. Kildare," will be "Dr. Sigmund Freud" Sunday on CBS radio's Hall of Fame. . .

Balladeer Harry Belafonte will be called just plain, if a little preciously, "Belafonte" in a TV film series. . .

Producer-writer will be Jay Richard Kennedy, author of the best-seller "Prince Bart," who also is Harry's manager.

The smile on the face of Liberace could be the contracted cash already posted for his three Las Vegas weeks: $150,000!. . .

Radio dead? Not for Edison Green Room bandleader Henry Jerome, happy with his nine network radio shows per week. . .

Dennis James is writing a mystery novel about a TV star killed on camera spang in the middle of his show; if this one's true-to-TV, every critic will be suspect.

New Guinea was so named because early explorers thought the natives resembled those of Guinea in Africa.

Ex-Teacher Indicted on 2nd Check Charge

A second forged check indictment was brought this week against a Royal Oak Township woman who was teaching at the George Washington Carver School until her arrest last month on a previous bad check charge.

The new count accuses Mrs. Magnolia Simms with passing a bogus U. S. Treasury check for $200 last April 21, according to Chief Assistant U. S. District Attorney George E. Woods.

She has pleaded innocent to the first charge of issuing an illegal check for $307.70 to a boarder in her home. No arraignment date has been set on the second count, said Woods.

Your Heart's in Your Hands

Here's What Goes Wrong in Your Heart

By DR. WILLIAM A. BRAMS

NEW YORK (NEA) — What goes wrong in your heart to give you a heart attack? And what are the usual symptoms?

To the thousands of persons who've had such attacks — and the millions of others who fear them — these are important questions. The answers can help them greatly to understand their condition, or to recognize signs of danger.

Defined simply, an attack of coronary thrombosis is the interruption—often sudden and dramatic—of the work your heart has performed so well since your birth.

But to give you a clearer picture, we'll suppose that you've had a heart attack that's severe and includes all the symptoms. Actually, severe attacks are not the commonest; if they seem so, it is because they are the most certain of being identified and are the most distressing and exciting.

Pain is your most urgent symptom. There are so many kinds of pain that doctors have a variety of names for them: Oppressive, squeezing, crunching, burning. It may range from a slight feeling of pressure, in some lucky individuals, to the f e e l i n g you're caught in a vise which is rapidly crushing your ribs.

Fortunately, the condition itself is often not as grave as the pain may lead you to think. An acutely painful attack is not necessarily a sign that your heart is extensively damaged. It may mean that you are more sensitive to pain than the average person, and not that your illness is more severe.

The opposite also is true: about five per cent of very severe attacks produce no pain at all and a much larger proportion have no pain with milder attacks.

The pain may last for 15 or 30 minutes, or even for one or two days. It rests in or near the center of your chest — where your heart is actually situated—and not inside or near your left breast, where most people think it is.

The peculiar feature is that resting will not assuage it. When you realize that the pain is brought on by the fact that your heart's supply of oxygen has been drastically cut by a blood clot, you will see that neither rest nor activity will change things.

Your trouble is in one or the o t h e r of the coronary arteries, two large blood vessels that encircle your heart like a wreath.

These are not a part of the general circulatory system of your body. Their purpose is to convey a supply of blood to the heart itself, for its own maintenance.

Your heart is actually a pump made out of sturdy muscle which drives the blood in an endless circuit around your body. As long as it gets enough blood to give it the proper nourishment, it is able to keep up its work day after day and year after year.

But suppose the feed line is clogged? Now the fuel supply is not enough and the pump operates under difficulties. And with the pump out of order, the whole body must go without its full supply of blood and can barely operate.

A clot of blood — thrombus is its technical name—formed in one of the arteries and dammed up the vital blood stream. And the pain, the weakness and shortness of breath came on when the heart, all at once, had to keep on doing its job despite the shortage of fuel.

As we are supposing your case is serious, you will show signs of shock, such as a wounded soldier shows after excessive bleeding. Your face turns ashen gray and you break out into a cold sweat. You may retch, belch gas and vomit. And you're usually very afraid.

Some patients complain of palpitation—the sensation that the heart is beating abnormally hard and fast. This is uncomfortable and annoying, but not dangerous in itself.

You breathe with difficulty—gasping and struggling for air as though you had acute asthma. After a day or two, you show a slight touch of fever, as the body begins to mobilize for the job of repairing the damage.

All this time, I have been describing a heart attack at its worst. But, remember, we're only pretending.

None of these symptoms alone, or even all in a bundle, should be taken to indicate heart disease until your doctor has said so. By far the greatest majority of patients who go to a doctor's office fearing they've had a heart attack have hearts that are actually sound. Diagnosing yourself can bring you needless unhappiness.

Finding out what is wrong with you is never a simple matter — not even for your doctor.

Let him be the judge of your symptoms.

Tomorrow: Your heart may heal itself.
