Supervisors Tighten Purse Strings, Grant Mental Health Funds

Supervisors yesterday tightened the strings on Oakland County's shrinking pocketbook, but not before pulling out $50,000 to care for the mentally ill.

At the same time, an economy squeeze forced Ways and Means Committee members to reject an extra appropriation of $20,000 for the Oakland County Child Guidance Clinic.

Members also ordered departmental requests for additional help, not included in the 1958 budget, screened thoroughly to see if they are emergency positions.

"If this present financial situation keeps up," declared Birmingham Supervisor David Levinson, "we are going to end up $1,000,000 in the red at the year's end."

But despite all this, supervisors placed a priority number one tag on securing funds and a place for the emergency care of the mentally ill.

They have sought such a place so that patients would no longer be confined to the county jail, where they have been taken in the past for lack of proper facilities.

The $50,000 will come from a $69,777 contingency fund, with the county hoping to get half this allocation back from insurance payments and from self-paying patients.

The committee called for a report in 90 days to see how these collections are coming.

NEEDS BOARD OK

The allocation must go before the Board of Supervisors at its next meeting. Approval is almost certain because of the urgent need for the money, officials say.

Members approved sending mental patients, after screening by a county doctor, to St. Joseph Mercywood Hospital in Ann Ar-

Dies of Injuries in Car Accident

Walled Lake Resident Involved in Fatal Crash Week Ago

Harvey J. Segnitz, 46, of 232 Wellsboro St., Walled Lake, involved in a fatal headon collision on Pontiac Trail a week ago, died yesterday at Pontiac General Hospital.

Segnitz was admitted to the hospital after the smashup with rib injuries, a broken nose and face cuts. At the time his condition was listed as "fair."

He was placed on the critical list Saturday morning and remained in critical condition until his death last night.

The accident, which occurred in heavy fog, took the life of a West Bloomfield Township mother, Mrs. Dora Charney, 46, of 7212 Colony Dr., who was driving the other car.

One of three girls in the Charney auto, Judith Ann Thompson, 13, of 133 Forbush Ave., West Bloomfield Township, is still in critical condition.

Segnitz, manager of the Hocking-Gilles Shoe Store, Keego Harbor, was active in many civic and fraternal organizations in Walled Lake. He was former chief of the Commerce Township Fire Department, and past president of both the Walled Lake Rotary Club and Commerce Township Goodfellows.

He was a resident of the Walled Lake area for 24 years. His body will be at the Richardson-Bird Funeral Home until 11 a.m. Monday.

No Tropical Climate but Still It's Warmer

The U.S. Weather Bureau still predicts partly cloudy and continued cold tonight. The low will be 16 degrees. A few snow flurries are also expected.

Saturday's outlook is considerable cloudiness, with scattered snow flurries. The high will be near 22.

Continued below normal temperatures with occasional snow is predicted for Sunday.

The lowest recorded temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 10. The reading at 2 p.m. was 24.

Missile Bases in China?

HONG KONG (AP) — The Hong Kong Times today quoted a "very reliable source on the China Mainland" that the Soviet Union will start this spring to build intercontinental missile bases in nine northeast provinces of Red China.

Appointed Robert C. Miller Named Acting City Postmaster

ROBERT C. MILLER

Pontiac's new acting postmaster is Robert C. Miller, 30, of 194 N. Berkshire Rd., Bloomfield Township.

The announcement was made today by Oakland County Congressman William S. Broomfield, two days after acting postmaster Leslie H. Dean announced he was retiring following more than 30 years with the Pontiac Post Office.

Miller's appointment will become effective Feb. 28, Broomfield said.

The new appointee is Cadillac sales manager for Jerome Motor Sales Co., 286 S. Saginaw St. He has been associated with the company since April, 1956.

Prior to that time Miller was chief investigator for the Oakland County Prosecutor's office for five years. He started this position in July of 1951.

SCHEDULE EXAM

Broomfield said Miller will serve as acting postmaster until the Post Office Department in Washington schedules a Civil Service examination to select a permanent postmaster. When this will be Broomfield could not say.

While Miller served as chief investigator he also held positions as associate judge of the Oakland County Court of No Record and acting chairman of the concealed weapons licensing board in the county.

Iraq and Jordan Merge in Pact

'Arab Federation' Setup Pro-Western Rival to Syria-Egypt Unity

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Iraq and Jordan joined today in the "Arab Federation"—Al Ittihad al Arabi—proclaimed shortly after sunrise on the Moslem holy day. Their merger created a pro-Western rival to the United Arab Republic Syria and Egypt proclaimed two weeks ago.

dynasty — agreed to merge their countries' finances, economies, armies and foreign affairs. They will retain separate local governments and their individual thrones but Faisal was named chief of state.

The federation ostensibly differs sharply from the U.A.R., which on paper will reduce Egypt and Syria to provinces of one highly centralized government to be run by Egyptian President Nasser. The Iraqui-Jordanian merger also cements the geographical wedge between Syria and Eyypt, posing Nasser the problem of controlling his new province from 120 miles away. Also in between is Israel.

Navy Contracts for 3 A-Subs to Fire Missile

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy today awarded contracts for three atomic - powered submarines to fire Polaris guided missiles. Two will be built by Electric Boat Division at Groton, Conn., and a third at the Mare Island, Calif., Naval Shipyard.

★ ★ ★

The first of the three Polaris submarines probably will be completed by Electric Boat, a division of General Dynamics Corp.

The first deliveries of the new missile firing submarines are expected in 1960, to coincide with the time when the ballistic missiles are expected to be ready for quantity production.

It has been estimated the first boat will cost between 105 and 110 million dollars, with the cost of the next two dropping to between 85 and 90 million dollars.

A supplemental appropriation bill passed by Congress this year carries 296 million dollars for starting the submarines. The Navy has asked that the initial program be expanded to a total of nine craft.

Hart May Discuss Financial Situation

Michigan's current financial state — which is certain to be a political hot potato this year — is expected to be defended by Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart tonight when he speaks at a Valentine's Day testimonial dinner in his behalf.

The dinner will be held at the Northwood Inn in Berkley beginning at 6:30.

Oakland County Democratic Committee Chairman Carlos Richardson, of Waterford Township, said 500 tickets have been sold for the dinner.

Hart this week announced he would be a candidate for Senator Charles E. Potter's seat in Congress in the November election.

Where Boy May Have Disappeared

FATAL SPOT? — Patrolman Bernard Tomas, of the Center Line Police Dept., gazes at the hole in the ice through which 6-year-old Gerald Thacker is believed to have disappeared yesterday while sledding on the Clinton River. The search for the boy's body in the river is continuing today.

Firemen Locate Lad 150 Feet From Hole in Ice

Gerald Thacker Lost Last Night Near Utica; Playmate Safe

The body of 6-year-old Gerald Thacker was found this afternoon at 2:25 by two firemen of the Brooklands Fire Dept., some 150 yards from the hole where the youngster fell in.

★ ★ ★

An all-night search for a missing 6-year-old Shelby Township boy continued today with skin divers probing the icy Clinton River near Utica for his body.

Police said they believed Gerald Thacker plunged through the ice while playing on the river at 7 p.m. yesterday.

A playmate, Raymond Cagle Jr., 6, told his mother that he and Gerald were on the frozen river together when the ice broke. "I ran home," he said.

Shelby Township police and firemen, Macomb County sheriff's deputies and emergency crews from Romeo and Roseville searched last night until 1:30 a.m.

Then they stretched a wire fence across the 18-foot river at the Auburn road bridge to catch the body if it moved downstream.

This morning four members of the Utica Scuba Skin Diving Club began operations in the Clinton.

Last night, searchers were led by Raymond to a hole in the ice where he believed Gerald fell in. A search of the Clinton at that spot failed to find the boy's body. The hole is at the foot of Parkdale street, north of Auburn and west of Mound roads.

Mrs. Thacker said Gerald left home around 5 p.m. to go sledding with Raymond and when he did not come home by 7:20 p.m., she called the police.

Mack Under Fire in TV Case

Harris to Support FBI in Probe of FCC Member

WASHINGTON (AP)— Rep. Harris (D-Ark) today promised full cooperation with an FBI probe of allegations that Communications Commissioner Richard A. Mack received "thousands of dollars" from an attorney in a Miami television case.

Harris said that the investigating subcommittee he heads will call Mack to testify "very soon" on the charges made by the group's ousted counsel Bernard Schwartz.

Testifying under oath, Schwartz said Mack has acknowledged accepting several thousand dollars from a lawyer Schwartz said was active in getting a television license for a firm rated by an FCC examiner as the least qualified of four applicants. He said Mack described the money as loans.

Mack could not be reached for comment.

SCHWARTZ TO RETURN

Schwartz has agreed to return Monday for further questioning on information he says he has about other FCC commissioners and Sherman Adams, President Eisenhower's top aide.

Schwartz was fired by the subcommittee Monday night in a dispute over the conduct of its probe of the regulatory agencies.

Schwartz produced from subcommittee files canceled checks totaling $2,650 which he said were given to Mack by Thurman A. Whiteside of Miami after Mack became an FCC commissioner.

The former counsel said Mack claimed the checks represented loans and that the commissioner said a portion of the loans had been forgiven and some repaid in cash.

The checks, Schwartz said, were subpoenaed from Whiteside, who he said had a reputation in Florida as a "fixer."

Schwartz said Whiteside represented Public Service Television, Inc., which won the grant for Miami's TV Channel 10 in a hotly contested case. Public Service is a wholly owned subsidiary of National Airlines.

Florida Mercury Creeping Upward — but Not Too Far

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Florida's mercury inched upward today from the season's fourth hard freeze and a record snowfall at the capital city, Tallahassee.

Slightly higher temperatures were forecast for today, but the Miami Weather Bureau said no real warmup is in sight.

Since early January it has been one wave after another, bringing Florida its worst winter on record.

North Florida residents awoke yesterday and found a carpet of snow spread from the Gulf to Jacksonville. A bright sun melted much of it.

A record 3 inches fell at Tallahassee, topping the old mark of 2 inches, set in 1886.

Snow fell as far south as Cross City near the Gulf in northwest Florida and to St. Augustine on the Atlantic.

The Weather Bureau said the current freeze shouldn't carry the same killing force on winter vegetables and citrus as that of Feb. 4-5.

Farmers, however, set out smudge pots and prepared fires in the hopes they could save the remaining acres of their frost-bitten crops.

George Cooper, a big south Dade County grower, said vegetables and tree crops, such as avocados, limes and mangoes, are more vulnerable now because previous frosts cost them much of their protective covering.

"Seventy - five per cent of the crops are already gone," Cooper said. "The remaining 25 per cent will go too unless we can salvage something from this latest cold spell."

Stranger Found Asleep in Home; Watchdog Dozes

Mrs. Thelma TerMarsch, of 3080 Catalpa Ct., got up at about 2 a. m. to find a stranger asleep in her husband's favorite chair, with shoes off and his feet propped on a register.

She called her husband, Larry, and they woke the intruder. He said his car was stuck in a ditch a few houses away, but he didn't know how he got into the TerMarsch's house.

Belle, a two-year-old collie trained as a watchdog, had remained asleep through everything.

HAFSTAD

It was the first demonstration of its kind with a full-size passenger car, indicating the possibility of a built-in guidance system for tomorrow's highways.

Dr. Lawrence R. Hafstad, vice president in charge of GM research staff, said the demonstration car, a 1958 Chevrolet, was guided by a combined electronic computer and servo system which takes over human steering control by following a magnetic path produced by low frequency power in the highway cable.

The car rolled along the two-lane check road and negotiated the banked turnaround loops at either end without the driver's hands on the steering wheel.

To turn off the road or pass another vehicle, the driver merely touched a switch on the steering gear which cut back into the manual steering system.

"This is a job put together to test the idea of electro-magnetic vehicle guidance," Dr. Hafstad explained. "The system was demonstrated in model form in 1953 by Radio Corporation of America."

Meanwhile, he said, RCA had set up a test strip near Lincoln, Neb., with the road equipment for a signal system.

"Our particular system," he added, "is still in the research stage and as yet is limited to steering control.

"We think of it as the first 'building block' in what may become a more sophisticated system for controlling vehicle spacing, detecting location of cars or giving the driver signals for throttle and brake control."

"Obviously, we can't predict what may evolve from this basic steering guidance technique. But it points out the kind of ideas we are exploring," Dr. Hafstad said.

★ ★ ★

The automatic guidance system has three basic parts:

A pair of tuned pick-up coils on the front bumper of the test car and straddling the magnetic field;

Variation in the voltage picked up by the coils if the car deviates from the magnetic field is transmitted to the computer, causing the steering unit to bring the car back to the predetermined course.

Hafstad said the guidance system "appears to offer long-range promise of a significant contribution to highway and vehicle operation."

"This isn't an impracticable dream. It reflects an extension of a steady trend toward greater reliance on automatic devices for both vehicle operations and traffic control."

Prefer Feb. 22 as Legal Holiday

Don't Want Veteran's Day

America's newest national holiday—Veteran's Day—seems to have lost its appeal as far as most Pontiac city workers are concerned.

Members of the Pontiac Municipal Employes Association have told the City Commission they don't want Veteran's Day, Nov. 11, as a paid holiday anymore.

The reason? According to John Waldo, the association's president, Nov. 11 doesn't seem to carry much patriotic meaning anymore. Once it did, as Armistice Day, the day World War I came to an end.

"Nowadays, we'd rather have Feb. 22 off, so we can space our paid holidays better," said Waldo.

Commissioners hesitated last night to grant the switch. "We might get into trouble with veterans organizations," they pointed out.

But one old World War I veteran, City Engineer Lewis M. Wrenn, told the commission that as an association member he voted for the change "and so did a lot of other veterans," he said.

And another World War I man, City Manager Walter K. Willman, observed, "Veteran's Day just doesn't mean as much to me as Armistice Day did. That was the end of the Big War, but there's been two other big wars since then."

City employes have seven paid holidays: New Year's, Memorial Day, July 4, Labor Day, Veteran's Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas. That's five holidays from Sept. 1 to Jan. 1 and only two for the rest of the year.

It was after the Korean War that President Eisenhower redesignated Nov. 11 as Veteran's Day.

2nd Annual Ice Show Set at Eton Park Rink Sunday

BIRMINGHAM—"Skaters' Holiday for 1958," Birmingham's second annual ice show, will be presented by the Recreation Board at the Eton Park at 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

Among the special features will be a figure skating exhibition by Marilyn Seiber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Seiber of 130 Riviera Terrace, Pontiac. A seventh grade pupil at Isaac Crary Junior High School, Marilyn is a member of the Pontiac Skating club and last year took top honors in club-sponsored competition.

Other soloists for the Sunday show will be Marjorie Hanck, Janis Cragie, Allison Wardrop and Helen Cole.

A novelty number will be performed by the German Band of Bill Muenchinger, Don Ritter, Neil Hull, Pat Devine and Phil Brown. A "Country Hoedown" will be done on skates, along with several displays of precision skating.

MARILYN SEIBER

A Birmingham girl yesterday was presented with the University of Michigan's top Hopwood award for creative writing. She was among nine freshmen at the university who received $350 in prizes for writing.

Janet E. Miller, of 811 Tottenham, Rd., Birmingham, winner in the essay division, was awarded $50 for "Art—the Mirror of Thought."

Sally Hanson of 5643 Putnam, Birmingham, was among the fiction winners. She received $30 for her short story "Too Good."

The awards were presented for fiction, poetry and essays by Arthur J. Carr, associate professor of English. Carr and Arno L. Bader, professor of English, were the judges.

Torry School PTA will hold a Valentine party and dance in the school gymnasium beginning at 9 p.m. today. Highlight of the evening will be the flower show presented by parents and teachers.

In keeping with the Valentine theme, corsages will be given to the ladies.

When Charles Fox, caretaker at the Fox and Hounds Inn, celebrates his 80th birthday Sunday, His family will represent quite a gathering. Fox has three daughters, 18 grandchildren, 14 great grandchildren and one great great grandchild.

Snows Dampen Ike's Vacation in South Georgia

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (AP)—Vacationing President Eisenhower, greeted by this south Georgia area's first ground-covering snow in 46 years, hoped for warmer weather today and a chance at quail hunting or golf.

The President found the temperature 34 degrees when he arrived by plane from Washington yesterday afternoon. Accompanied by Mrs. Eisenhower, he plans up to 10 days of rest with headquarters at Milestone, the plantation home of former Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey and his wife.

Eisenhower still is trying to get rid of the cold which he caught early this month during a weekend visit to Augusta, Ga. His throat still is slightly sore and his voice a bit husky. His physician had hoped this trip South would do the President a lot of good right from the start.

Rochester News Publisher Dies

Oliver C. Swords, 62, Known Throughout Area as News, Civic Leader

Oliver C. Swords, 62, owner and publisher of the Rochester News, died last night in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac. He had been in poor health since last November.

A longtime Oakland County newspaperman, Mr. Swords was instrumental in setting up the city form of government in Berkley. He was village president of Berkley in 1929 and served as secretary of the Berkley City Charter Commission in 1932.

At that time he was owner of the Berkley Review. He also established the Royal Oak Herald-Review and the Troy News.

Mr. Swords moved to Rochester in 1934 where he was employed by the Rochester Clarion and the former Rochester Era.

He was a member of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce and St. John Lutheran Church in Rochester.

Surviving are his wife, Helen C.; a daughter, Mrs. Monroe Moore of Pontiac; four sons, K. Oliver, Frederick W., Dwight H. and James E., all of Rochester.

Service will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Monday at Pixley Funeral Home, Rochester, with the Rev. Walter C. Gerken of St. John Lutheran Church officiating. Burial will be in Mt. Avon Cemetery.

Know the Weather

By E. H. SIMS

Does the weather bureau in the various sections of the country usually predict snowfall accurately?

No, one of the toughest predictions to make, accurately, is concerned with snowfall. The failure which U. S. weather bureaus seem to make most often (too often) concerned with snow, is the same they make with hurricanes.

The weather forecasts trail the actual event by six or eight hours, and often by twelve or eighteen. One recalls a hurricane in 1956 which was in and around New York, while the weather report still placed it off North Carolina.

This winter snow predictions have often come after what show was to fall had fallen. Yet weather reports would continue to be made predicting snow, when even an amateur observer could see the sky was clearing and that in the west it was clear—the snow over.

The remedy is for speedier transmission of reports and careful observation, up-to-the-minute visual observations, not over-reliance on instruments.

Iraq, Jordan Merge in 'Arab Federation'

MAY QUIT PACT

Although the new federation is expected to continue the pro-Western policy which both governments have followed individually, one of the first results is likely to be Iraq's withdrawal from the American-backed Baghdad pact. This would pave the way for Saudi Arabia—which borders the federation on the south—to join.

The signing of the federation proclamation came after more than seven hours of discussion that began last night after a state banquet. Senior ministers of the two governments joined in the talks that have been going on since Faisal's arrival in Amman Tuesday.

The agreement provided that all details of federation will be worked out within three months.

After the signing, the two young kings embraced and kissed.

"This is the happiest moment of my life," Hussein said. "We have taken a step toward greater Arab unity."

"I consider this the happiest moment of my life," Faisal replied; and I ask God to help us and bless this union which is for the good of all Arabs."

WEALTH, POVERTY JOIN

The new federation brings together about five million people in Iraq—a land of money-bringing oil and potentially fertile river valleys—with 1½ million Bedouin nomads and former Palestine residents in parched, poverty-stricken Jordan. Together the two countries total 210,000 square miles.

Saudi Arabia would bring to the federation more oil riches, about 800,000 square miles of mostly desert, an estimated six million people and King Saud's prestige in the Arab world. As the senior king, the 55-year-old Arabian monarch presumably would replace Faisal as chief of state.

Potter Wants Budget Action Now

'Let's Dig That Seaway'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Potter (R-Mich) today urged the Budget Bureau to recommend increased funds for deepening Great Lakes Channels to permit westward extension of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

The channel deepening, which Congress has authorized, was originally estimated to cost 141 million dollars with completion scheduled in 1962.

But the work is being delayed, Potter said, because "the Budget Bureau is holding money requests to a mere trickle."

Potter detailed his complaint in a letter to Budget Director Percival F. Brundage.

"The longer the stretchout on this work," he said, "the costlier it will be. Prices are constantly rising. Why saddle the taxpayer with this when it's not necessary?"

He urged Brundage to recommend a supplemental appropriation for the work in the year beginning July 1. He said this would place the channels project more in line with original completion plans.

Congress has thus far appropriated 18 million dollars for the work and another 18 millions has been recommended to be spent in the next fiscal year.

Potter said the latter amount should be upped to 35 millions to keep the project on schedule. As matters now stand, he said, the channel deepening won't be completed until 1965.

The channels authorized to be depened to a minimum depth of 27 feet are in the Detroit River, Lake St. Clair, the St. Clair and St. Marys Rivers and the Straits of Mackinac.

Such deepening will permit seaway traffic from the Atlantic to the westernmost port on the Great Lakes, Duluth, Minn., and Superior, Wis.

Without the deepening, larger ships traveling the seaway will be able to proceed no farther than Toledo, Ohio.

Detroit News Fills Two Executive Posts

Warren S. Booth, president and publisher, announced appointment of C. Arthur Weis general manager.

Weis comes to The News from the St. Louis Globe Democrat where he was president and general manager. D. Roy Merrill, vice president and general manager of The News since 1944, has been named executive vice president.

Laurence T. Herman has been named director of advertising, it is announced by D. Roy Merrill, vice president and general manager. Herman will succeed Max J. Gerstman who is retiring, but who is remaining with The News at the company's request for an indefinite period.

Herman, for the past two years, has headed the Waxed Paper Institute, Inc. and the Waxed Paper Merchandising Council of Chicago. Prior to that he was associated with the Chicago Daily News for 19 years.

Whiteside said. He said he had never "fixed anything in my life" and that he was never employed as an attorney in the Channel 10 case.

★ ★ ★

Whiteside also issued a statement saying Mack was an old friend and that he had loaned Mack money off and on for 20 years. Whiteside also said he had records of repayment of all but $250.

MADE RECOMMENDATION

As for the Channel 10 case, Whiteside said that in September 1955 he recommended to Mack that Public Service get the award. He said he did so at the request of Robert H. Anderson, then a lawyer and now a circuit judge. He said Anderson is a "friend of long standing."

★ ★ ★

Schwartz said Anderson, at the time the TV case was pending, was a member of a law firm that Schwartz said handled the Channel 10 proceeding for Public Service.

Schwartz quoted Anderson as telling subcommittee investigators earlier his law firm had hired Whiteside in the case.

Whiteside said he recommended Public Service because of what he termed the "fine character, high integrity and general reputation in the community" of persons involved in the application.

OVERRULED FCC

Mack was one of four commissioners who voted for Public Service, overruling an FCC examiners recommendation that the Channel 10 grant go to another applicant. Two commissioners voted against Public Service, and one abstained.

★ ★ ★

Mack, a Democrat, was appointed by Eisenhower to the bipartisan commission in 1955. The contest for the Miami TV channel started in 1953 and was decided by the FCC in February 1957.

Supervisors Tighten Strings on Purse

What funds were needed was based on an estimated 100 patients per year with an average stay of 21 days at $30 per day, as reported by county health officials.

Continuing their economic belt tightening, supervisors said all unfilled budgeted positions must be scrutinized to determine whether these jobs must be filled.

"When things get like this," said Fred W. Smith, supervisor from Royal Oak, "you have to tighten up on the vise a little bit."

One of the major reasons why this is necessary is that the present welfare case load is at the highest peak since 1937. Counties, like Oakland, must bear 70 per cent of these costs while the state picks up the 30 per cent balance.

"Other costs such as hospitalization have boomed too," remarked Robert Y. Moore, chairman of the Board of Auditors, who added that the county definitely will be confronted with a million dollar deficit at the end of the year.

Kingfish Visits Court With Wife at Side

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actor Harry (Tim) Moore, 70, who plays the Kingfish on the Amos 'n' Andy TV show, went to court arm in arm yesterday with his wife, who had charged him with assault with a deadly weapon.

★ ★ ★

He pleaded innocent. Superior Judge Maurice C. Sparling set his trial for March 24. Meanwhile, Moore remains at liberty without bail.

His wife Vivian, 38, told police he fired a pistol shot in their home Jan. 5 after complaining her relatives had eaten a roast beef from the ice box. No one was hurt.

Mrs. Moore had asked that the complaint be dropped.

Finds Birthday Present in Husband's Mouth

The couple was celebrating Mrs. LaTorraca's birthday at a Paramus restaurant when LaTorraca, who was eating oysters, found himself munching on a pearl.

The pearl, appraised at $30, will be set in a ring for Mrs. LaTorraca, her husband said.

Corn is a sacred substance to Pueblo and Navajo Indians in western United States. Ground into corn meal, it is used in their religious ceremonies.

Court-Martial to Get Espionage Statement

WASHINGTON (AP) — A court-martial trying M.Sgt. Roy A. Rhodes on espionage conspiracy charges gets today a purported statement that he peddled information to the Soviets in Moscow.

Relying heavily on this FBI document, the prosecution has said it will prove that the married, 46-year-old sergeant gave information to the Soviets under threats involving a drinking bout and a pregnant woman.

Rhodes has pleaded innocent. He faces possible life imprisonment if convicted. He could get as much as a year in prison on a lesser charge, of falsifying a loyalty certificate in which he denied espionage activities.

Oppose Naval Plant

DETROIT (AP) — The Michigan National Guard's hopes of acquiring a former naval ordnance plant in suburban Warren have been challenged by four nearby school districts. Officials of the Van Dyke, Fitzgerald, Center Line and East Detroit School Districts hope to convert the plant into a community college.

Man, 67, Married to Girl, 12, Given 6 Months in Jail

ROSLA, Mo. (AP)—A hill country old age pensioner who wanted a housekeeper has been given a jail term for marrying a 12-year-old girl.

James Harris, 67, was sentenced yesterday in Magistrate's Court to six months in jail for conspiring to falsify a marriage license in which Patsy Ellwood's age was listed as 18. He pleaded guilty.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ellwood of Belle, Mo., parents of the child and present when the license was issued, face trial on the same Missouri law, a girl cannot marry until she is 15 and must have parental consent if under 18.

Patsy, a seventh-grader, has been made a ward of the state and is in a foster home. The Jan. 8 marriage has been annulled.

The first Mrs. Harris died about a year ago.

Mrs. Ellwood, who is about 35 and has four younger children, defended the marriage. She said she married "an old man" herself and it worked out fine.

Wildings on Honeymoon

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Michael Wilding and the former Mrs. Susan Nell, London divorcee and interior decorator, arrived by plane yesterday after their Wednesday night marriage in Las Vegas, Nev. After a honeymoon weekend in Palm Springs, they said, they'll leave for the Caribbean and London.

'Poor' Junk Dealer Dies a Rich Man

DIXON, Ill. (AP) — A junk dealer who lived as a recluse died yesterday en route to a hospital in a police car he had called, saying he was unable to afford an ambulance.

★ ★ ★

Police said a search of his junk-littered home disclosed $500 in currency and $1,300 in checks. The Lee County treasurer's office said Adams owned about $300,000 worth of real estate, including a $60-an-acre farm in the Dixon area. His only known survivor is a sister, Mrs. Albert Bellars of nearby Sterling.

The largest amount of different colors that a human eye can distinguish are about 160,000. There is a machine, called the "spectrophotometer," which can distinguish two million different colors.

Finally Reach Boy on Ledge—Find Him Dead

SAN. BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP)—An expert mountain climber finally got down to a ledge where a boy lay by a waterfall, grotesquely twisted and still.

They knew then that the crumbly cliff had defeated them. Young Donald Burns was dead.

A day earlier, the 13-year-old eighth-grader from nearby Colton was walking along the top of the cliff on towering Mt. San Gorgonio. He and a schoolmate, part of a hiking party, had climbed from a snowy canyon to look from the top of a falls that tumbles 700 feet down in two steps.

Donald slipped on a path, went over the side. He landed on a small ledge about 100 feet down, but the water pushed him off and he fell another 200 feet to the ledge that forms a step in the middle of the waterfall.

The boy stayed there in falling snow that evening, crying out and waving intermittently. Another wave told would-be rescuers he was still alive yesterday morning.

But, because of a lack of rope and solid footing, nobody could get to him until John Mathews of the Sierra Madre search and rescue team made it down to the ledge on a rope.

The boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Burns, had been at the scene since early morning. Sheriff Frank Bland of San Bernardino county walked over to the mother and told her the boy was dead.

"Oh, no!" she cried. "Oh God! Don't let it be true."

Magazine Posts Bond for Slain Man's Wife

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP) — Mrs. Priscilla Rose, a material witness in the slaying of her airline engineer husband, was free on $14,000 bond today.

Mrs. Rose, held in jail for 10 days, was released yesterday under the bond posted by a detective magazine.

The 22-year-old woman said she intends to remain with friends in the Mineola area. She declined to discuss the slaying.

Mrs. Rose, who has been suffering from a cold, looked tired as she walked out of Nassau County Jail, accompanied by her attorney, Joseph Zalk. She was wearing a black dress.

Engineers in Oakland Plan Special Week

National Engineers' Week will be observed during the week of Feb. 16-22 by members of the Oakland Chapter of the Michigan Society of Professional Engineers.

★ ★ ★

A dinner meeting will be held Thursday, Feb. 20 at the Fox and Hounds Inn to commemorate George Washington's birthday. He was also an engineer.

Following the dinner, a panel discussion will be held and questions discussed.

Oakland PTA to Hold Course in Leadership

A leadership training program will begin in Waterford Township at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the high school will be sponsored by the Oakland County Council of Parent-Teacher Association.

The eight-week course will be under the direction of W. Ray Smittle, professor of educational administration at Wayne State University.

Major units included in the course will be national, state and regional information; counseling; local association's officer training; development of programing for local associations; public education in Michigan, and problems in home, school and community relationships.

Two of the main objects of the program are to provide factual information regarding purposes and policies in organization of associations, and to acquaint officers, committee chairmen and members with duties and responsibilities in in PTA work.

There are still a few openings left for registration in this all-important course, according to Chairman Mrs. J. E. Frankenfield.

DRINK YOUR FAT AWAY

Lose up to 9 pounds the first week, up to 24 pounds the first month with fabulous New NO-DIET Reducing Cocktail OR PAY NOTHING!

NEW! JUST RELEASED! NEVER SOLD BEFORE!

NEW LIQUID NON-ALCOHOLIC REDUCING COCKTAIL FORMULATED FOR PERSONS WHO CANNOT LOSE ENOUGH WEIGHT WITH PILLS AND TABLETS

At last! The miracle you've waited for! No more reducing pills as long as you live! No more doing without the foods you love to eat! No more self torture because everything you touch seems to turn to fat!

Now you can forget the curse of overweight as though it never existed . . . forget that you ever worried about excess weight . . . forget that you ever were fat!

Because you can drink that ugly fat away! . . . Drink off those excess pounds! . . . Actually drink yourself as slim and as trim as you want to be with the aid of the most fantastic NO-PILL, NO-DIET reducing medication ever conceived!

You see results start from the very first day! Watch as drink-by-drink, day-by-day, your ugly pounds of fat vanish!

It's amazing, astounding, like a wonderful dream come true! And all so incredibly easy, all so delightfully pleasant, because you never suffer those awful hungry moments, never give up all the foods you love so well, never take a single pill, tablet or capsule! And all thanks to fabulous new Du-Dol Reducing Cocktail!

JUST PICTURE THIS

You have a small bottle of a highly concentrated liquid reducing medication. You put a dropper full of that precious concentrated liquid into a glass of fruit juice, vegetable juice, water, even liquor, and you've got the most wonderfully delicious reducing cocktail you've ever tasted! Drink that delicious cocktail and that's it! Down comes your horrible craving for food, down comes caloric intake, and off comes your overweight!

You burn off those ugly pounds, you oxidize those pounds away. . . . You rid your body of those crippling, health destroying, figure-marring bulges of fatty tissue!

You lose up to 7 pounds the first seven days, up to 14 pounds the first two weeks, up to 24 pounds the first month so safely, so easily, you'll hardly believe it! You'll gasp in amazement, stare at yourself in disbelief as day after day after day you get slimmer, trimmer, more attractive! . . . As day after day you come closer and closer to the safe, normal weight you should be!

NO PILLS, NO DIETS

Imagine! You don't take a single pill, capsule or tablet! You don't follow a plan, you don't go on a starvation diet, you don't strain your heart with brutal exercise. You don't pour money down the drain on so called slenderizing massages!

You lead a sane, normal life. You sleep, work, play just like any of your thin friends. You eat foods you want to eat. You don't wrestle with your power, and all the while ugly pounds melt away quickly and pleasantly, the safe scientific Du-Dol way!

HOW IT WORKS

Perhaps this all sounds too wonderful to be true! Perhaps you are wondering how Du-Dol can perform these "miracles" when other products that promised so much failed. That's a logical question. Here's the logical answer.

Du-Dol has little or nothing in common with other products you may have tried. Du-Dol contains, for the very first time ever, a fabulous Doctor-proved, Doctor-prescribed reducing drug in liquid form! After having been tried, tested and used by countless Doctors throughout the nation, this powerful drug has been approved safe for use without prescription by the Food and Drug Administration.

Secondly, and just as important, is this big difference. Other products depend on one of three basic reducing principles. They fill your stomach with bulk material OR they try to fool your taste-buds into thinking you aren't hungry, OR they contain a drug which works to lessen your desire to overeat.

Only Du-Dol combines all three of these medically accepted reducing principles into one great new, entirely different reducing product . . . a product that works three ways at once to help melt your fat away more surely and more easily than anything you ever tried in your life.

In other words, when you take Du-Dol you get this powerful government-approved safe drug and you get appetite-satisfying concentrates to help ward off that overpowering urge to overeat, and you get hunger-satisfying bulk in the form of delicious liquids of your own choice!

PROVED BY DOCTORS

No wonder that when Doctors tested amazing new Du-Dol on overweight persons—many of whom had great difficulty in losing weight with ordinary reducing methods—they were amazed to find that in virtually every case, substantial losses were noted!

Patients lost pound after pound of ugly fat quickly, safely, and above all, pleasantly! And most important, they lost that weight without being told to diet . . . without being told what or what not to eat! . . . without depriving themselves of all the foods they loved!

In short, they lived like normal human beings! While they ate three delicious meals a day, they were losing weight! While they were enjoying mouth-watering chops, steaks, juicy roasts, vegetables, desserts and all the rest, off came ugly pounds, down came figure-marring inches from waist, hips, thighs, everywhere!

With less work, less effort, less discomfort than they ever imagined possible, they drank their fat away! . . . Drank off pounds that had made them miserable for years!

WHAT THIS MEANS TO YOU

After all the products you've tried . . . after all the suffering you've done . . . after all the tortures you've subjected yourself to for year after weary year, and now it's all over!

In your lifetime, the miracle you secretly prayed for actually happened! This brand new reducing concept . . . this fabulous new method, so safe, so easy, so astonishingly effective, is here at last! And it's yours to try . . . yours to prove to your own satisfaction, without one penny's risk or obligation!

Think of what this can mean to you! Can you imagine the glorious feeling when you live like other people live, eat what they eat, do what they do without worrying, without feeling guilty, without feeling afraid? That's what Du-Dol's help can do for you!

Perhaps you have tried other products in good faith and been disappointed. Perhaps you have even gone so far as to promise yourself that you would never try another reducing product again! But stop and think a moment. . . .

You've tried so often in the past, haven't you? Wouldn't it be foolish to quit now, just a few steps short of your goal! Wouldn't it be silly to give up now when the product you've waited for is finally here? Why not try Du-Dol? If not for your sake, for the sake of those you love, Try Du-Dol.

TRY AT OUR RISK

Send for it now while you are still thinking about it. Or better still, come in and pick it up yourself. Then try Du-Dol in your own home at our risk! If Du-Dol isn't every bit as wonderful as we say it is, don't keep it! Return the unused portion and we'll send you an immediate refund without asking you a single question!

You risk nothing, and at least you have the satisfaction of trying what we sincerely believe to be the finest reducing product on the face of this earth!

But please don't put it off. Supplies are limited! Stop in for Du-Dol, or fill out the order blank below and mail at once. You'll be so happy you did!

YOU MUST READ THIS

Do you remember the story of the boy who cried "help, wolf" just to attract attention? When a real wolf finally approached, the boy's friends ignored his cries for help because he had fooled them so often. They refused to believe him when it really counted!

Don't be like that boy's friends. Don't miss out on this fabulously effective reducing method just because you may have been fooled by other reducing products.

You see, DU-DOL really is different. It really does work . . . really does help you reduce more safely, more quickly, more easily, because it is a more effective product than other reducers now being sold.

If you really want to reduce, try DU-DOL. Spend the few moments it takes to fill out and mail this order blank. If you aren't delighted in every way, we will be happy to refund your purchase price immediately and without question. You have nothing to lose but a few seconds of your time.

MAKES EVERY OTHER REDUCING PRODUCT OLD-FASHIONED

DU-DOL is, in our opinion, the only reducing product on the market today to keep pace with the fantastic progress being made in other drug fields. For example, just as the drugs we relied upon yesterday are being out dated by the newer, better drugs of today, so do we believe that DU-DOL, because of its greater Doctor-proved efficiency in pleasant to take liquid form, makes other products now being sold, old fashioned.

What better proof is there than the fact that the very pills now being hailed as the last word in reducing aren't really doing the job you hoped they would? Perhaps that is because you are one of the many thousands of persons for whom pills and tablets just won't work. Surely that is reason enough to try this new reducing concept . . . a liquid reducer. Why not send for DU-DOL now? If you aren't delighted in every way, you get money back, so of course you really have nothing to lose.

DU-DOL IS GUARANTEED SAFE, GUARANTEED HARMLESS!

DU-DOL is a scientific formulation of safe, tested ingredients proved in Doctor-supervised clinical tests to be absolutely non-injurious. It has no unpleasant or dangerous side-effects . . . may be taken with complete confidence by any normally healthy person.

DON'T DELAY! SUPPLIES LIMITED!

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

Try DU-DOL in your own home for 7 days entirely at our risk. Weigh yourself before you start. Weigh yourself after. If you don't lose as much weight as you want to lose, if you don't look better and feel better, and above all, if you don't find DU-DOL so much more pleasant to take than any reducer you have ever tried in your life, don't keep it! Return the unused portion at once for your money back immediately, no questions asked. You must be completely satisfied in every way, or you pay nothing.

Court-Martial to Get Espionage Statement

WASHINGTON (AP) — A court-martial trying M.Stg. Roy A. Rhodes on espionage conspiracy charges gets today a purported statement that he peddled information to the Soviets in Moscow.

Relying heavily on this FBI document, the prosecution has said it will prove that the married, 40-year-od sergeant gave information to the Soviets under threats involving a drinking bout and a pregnant woman.

Rhodes has pleaded innocent. He faces possible life imprisonment if convicted. He could get as much as a year in prison on a lesser charge, of falsifying a loyalty certificate in which he denied espionage activities.

Oppose Naval Plant

DETROIT (AP) — The Michigan National Guard's hopes of acquiring a former naval ordnance plant in suburban Warren have been challenged by four nearby school districts. Officials of the Van Dyke, Fitzgerald, Center Line and East Detroit School Districts hope to convert the plant into a community college.

Man, 67, Married to Girl, 12, Given 6 Months in Jail

ROLLA, Mo. (AP)—A hill country old age pensioner who wanted a housekeeper has been given a jail term for marrying a 12-year-old girl.

James Harris, 67, was sentenced yesterday in Magistrate's Court to six months in jail for conspiring to falsify a marriage license in which Patsy Ellwood's age was listed as 18. He pleaded guilty.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ellwood of Belle, Mo., parents of the child and present when the license was issued, face trial on the same Missouri law, a girl cannot marry until she is 15 and must have parential consent if under 18.

Patsy, a seventh-grader, has been made a ward of the state and is in a foster home. The Jan. 8 marriage has been annulled.

The first Mrs. Harris died about a year ago.

Mrs. Ellwood, who is about 35 and has four younger children, defended the marriage. She said she married "an old man" herself and it worked out fine.

Wildings on Honeymoon

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Michael Wilding and the former Mrs. Susan Nell, London divorcee and interior decorator, arrived by plane yesterday after their Wednesday night marriage in Las Vegas, Nev. After a honeymoon weekend in Palm Springs, they said, they'll leave for the Caribbean and London.

'Poor' Junk Dealer Dies a Rich Man

DIXON, Ill. (AP) — A junk dealer who lived as a recluse died yesterday en route to a hospital in a police car he had called, saying he was unable to afford an ambulance.

★ ★ ★

Police said a search of his junk-littered home disclosed $500 in currency and $1,100 in checks. The Lee County treasurer's office said Adams owned about $300,000 worth of real estate, including a $60-an-acre farm in the Dixon area. His only known survivor is a sister, Mrs. Albert Bellars of nearby Sterling.

The largest amount of different colors that a human eye can distinguish are about 100,000. There is a machine, called the "spectrophotometer," which can distinguish two million different colors.

Finally Reach Boy on Ledge—Find Him Dead

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP)—An expert mountain climber finally got down to a ledge where a boy lay by a waterfall, grotesquely twisted and still.

They knew then that the crumbly cliff had defeated them. Young Donald Burns was dead.

A day earlier, the 13-year-old eighth-grader from nearby Colton was walking along the top of the cliff on towering Mt. San Gorgonio. He and a schoolmate, part of a hiking party, had climbed from a snowy canyon to look from the top of a falls that tumbles 700 feet down in two steps.

Donald slipped on a path, went over the side. He landed on a small ledge about 100 feet down, but the water pushed him off and he fell another 200 feet to the ledge that forms a step in the middle of the waterfall.

The boy stayed there in falling snow that evening, crying out and waving intermittently. Another wave told would-be rescuers he was still alive yesterday morning.

But, because of a lack of rope and solid footing, nobody could get to him until John Mathews of the Sierra Madre search and rescue team made it down to the ledge on a rope.

The boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Burns, had been at the scene since early morning. Sheriff Frank Bland of San Bernardino county walked over to the mother and told her the boy was dead.

"Oh, no!" she cried. "Oh God! Don't let it be true."

Magazine Posts Bond for Slain Man's Wife

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP) — Mrs. Priscilla Rose, a material witness in the slaying of her airline engineer husband, was free on $14,000 bond today.

Mrs. Rose, held in jail for 10 days, was released yesterday under the bond posted by a detective magazine.

The 22-year-old woman said she intends to remain with friends in the Mineola area. She declined to discuss the slaying.

Mrs. Rose, who has been suffering from a cold, looked tired as she walked out of Nassau County Jail, accompanied by her attorney, Joseph Zalk. She was wearing a black dress.

Oakland PTA to Hold Course in Leadership

A leadership training program will begin in Waterford Township at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the high school will be sponsored by the Oakland County Council of Parent-Teacher Association.

The eight-week course will be under the direction of W. Ray Smittle, professor of educational administration at Wayne State University.

Major units included in the course will be national, state and regional information; counseling; local association's officer training; development of programing for local associations; public education in Michigan, and problems in home, school and community relationships.

Two of the main objects of the program are to provide factual information regarding purposes and policies in organization of associations, and to acquaint officers, committee chairmen and members with duties and responsibilities in in PTA work.

There are still a few openings left for registration in this all-important course, according to Chairman Mrs. J. E. Frankenfield.

Do you remember the story of the boy who cried "help, wolf" just to attract attention? When a real wolf finally approached, the boy's friends ignored his cries for help because he had fooled them so often. They refused to believe him when it really counted!

Don't be like that boy's friends. Don't miss out on this fabulously effective reducing method just because you may have been fooled by other reducing products.

You see, DU-DOL really is different. It really does work . . . really does help you reduce more safely, more quickly, more easily, because it is a more effective product than other reducers now being sold.

If you really want to reduce, try DU-DOL. Spend the few moments it takes to fill out and mail this order blank. If you aren't delighted in every way, we will be happy to refund your purchase price immediately and without question. You have nothing to lose but a few seconds of your time.

MAKES EVERY OTHER REDUCING PRODUCT OLD-FASHIONED

DU-DOL is, in our opinion, the only reducing product on the market today to keep pace with the fantastic progress being made in other drug fields. For example, just as the drugs we relied upon yesterday are being out dated by the newer, better drugs of today, so do we believe that DU-DOL, because of its greater Doctor-proved efficiency in pleasant to take liquid form, makes other products now being sold, old fashioned.

What better proof is there than the fact that the very pills now being hailed as the last word in reducing aren't really doing the job you hoped they would? Perhaps that is because you are one of the many thousands of persons for whom pills and tablets just won't work. Surely that is reason enough to try this new reducing concept . . . a liquid reducer. Why not send for DU-DOL now? If you aren't delighted in every way, you get money back, so of course you really have nothing to lose.

DU-DOL IS GUARANTEED SAFE, GUARANTEED HARMLESS!

DU-DOL is a scientific formulation of safe, tested ingredients proved in Doctor-supervised clinical tests to be absolutely non-injurious. It has no unpleasant or dangerous side-effects . . . may be taken with complete confidence by any normally healthy person.

DON'T DELAY! SUPPLIES LIMITED!

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

Try DU-DOL in your own home for 7 days entirely at our risk. Weigh yourself before you start. Weigh yourself after. If you don't lose as much weight as you want to lose, if you don't look better and feel better, and above all, if you don't find DU-DOL so much more pleasant to take than any reducer you have ever tried in your life, don't keep it! Return the unused portion at once for your money back immediately, no questions asked. You must be completely satisfied in every way, or you pay nothing.

Waite's (Dept. 300) Saginaw at Huron

Costa Rica's Elections Example of Democracy

In contrast to most Latin-American elections the recent voting for President and Legislative Assembly in Costa Rica didn't make headlines because of orderly and democratic procedures.

President JOSE FIGUERES' candidate, FRANCISCO ORLICH, was defeated by MARIO ECHANDI of the National Union party. Another candidate who served only to split the vote for FIGUERES' National Liberation party, ran a poor third.

★ ★ ★

From a self imposed exile in Mexico, former President RAPHAEL CALDERON GUARDIA directed his Republican party in its return to power in the Assembly. During his term in office he had sponsored a far reaching social security system and a labor code. But even with Republican party support, the National Union party of Dr. ECHANDI, a strong minded conservative, will not have a majority in Congress.

★ ★ ★

President FIGUERES, who under the constitution cannot be re-elected during two succeeding terms, had introduced many social reforms, which although not to his liking, President-elect ECHANDI will have to accept.

Two years ago President Figueres created a supreme electoral tribunal in which a political neutral had the deciding vote. New registration lists were prepared and posted ahead of time in all localities, United Nations observers watched the compulsory voting and counting.

★ ★ ★

The Republic of Costa Rica is a small, 23,000 square mile Central American country northwest of Panama. It has been independent since 1821 and three-fourths of its foreign trade is with the United States. Its 915,000 people are mostly middle class and primary education is compulsory. On December 11, 1941, Costa Rica declared war on Germany, Italy and Japan and later became an original member of the United Nations.

★ ★ ★

Congratulations to President-elect ECHANDI, a former ambassador to the United States, and to the people of Costa Rica for again setting an example of democracy in action.

Building Trades Move to End Featherbedding

At their recent Miami Beach meeting labor leaders made plans to end "featherbedding," that is the practice of employing unnecessary workers or the performance of unnecessary work.

This has been particularly prevalent in the building trades and is unnecessarily expensive for employers and in the long run, not good for labor even when used to protect workers against unemployment. It's been an open invitation to abuses and racketeering.

Labor leaders and management representatives have been studying means of doing away with this practice and now have announced a national agreement between building trades unions and contractors. This agreement, announced at an AFL-CIO Executive Council meeting, will be put in force first, on heavy construction projects and then gradually applied to all building work.

A formula for avoiding jurisdictional disputes between craft unions and the CIO industrial unions which enroll all workers in a plant, and suggested months ago by Federation President George Meany, was adopted. Under it craft unions will have jurisdiction over new construction and industrial union members will continue to do maintenance work.

This will mean an end of opposition to labor saving technological improvements and may create some unemployment at first. But, as the late PHIL MURRAY once pointed out, a union should not protect its members by opposing labor saving innovations. It should make every effort to find new and productive work for them.

The wasteful practice of featherbedding has added millions of dollars each year to construction costs. It is to be hoped that the AFL-CIO will bring pressure for its elimination elsewhere.

What Won't They Do Next!

David Lawrence Says:

Political Dinners Now Big Issue

WASHINGTON — Is the millenium in politics about to be reached? Are the "appreciation" dinners at $100 a plate really to be tabooed? For what else, it might be asked, is meant by the hullabaloo over the dinner to which friends of natural-gas bill were invited recently in Texas to honor House Republican Leader Joe Martin?

LAWRENCE

The Republican national committeeman from Texas, H. J. Porter, was certainly lambasted for writing a letter urging friends to come to the "appreciation" dinner. He stressed the yeoman efforts of the Republicans in helping to pass the gas bill in previous sessions.

But Porter made only two mistakes—he should have invited certain prominent Democrats to the dinner who had also done yeoman service for the gas bill, and he should have never put his thoughts in writing.

For if "appreciation" dinners at $100 a plate are to be forsaken, a wonderful method of money-raising will be lost to the politicians of both parties.

Who puts up $100 just to go to a political dinner? Surely the average voter doesn't have that kind of money to space. If the political committees of both parties, state and local, were compeled to publish a list of all persons and organizations and companies that bought $-100 tickets for these dinners — and all this comes under the head of "entertainment" as a deductible expense on the tax side where companies are concerned—it would reveal the extent of the "appreciation" role in modern politics.

CONTRACTORS PULLED IN

An occasional glance at the attending personnel shows that in many instances big contractors on defense projects and public works are pulled into "appreciation" dinners. Some may not have had any favors bestowed upon them, but they do not dare to snub these dinners lest they incur the ill will of the politicians involved.

As for individuals, ambassadors, departmental secretaries and assistant secretaries, former assistants to this or that high official and also lawyers whose business it is to represent large companies in Washington, they must not fail to fork over $100 for these "appreciation" dinners.

"What Mr. Porter did deserves censure," remarks a New York Times editorial, "but is not very different in essence from what both Democratic and Republican parties and their respective candidates do every day — or whenever the opportunity offers. They solicit and obtain — perfect legally — large sums of money from interested donors and thereby inescapably place themselves under at least tacit obligation to their benefactors."

There have been many persons who have made big contributions to one or the other of the major parties because of "appreciation" for service rendered a particular cause or area. The bounty in the Roosevelt and Truman eras was rather big.

Federal officeholders, of course, are still solicited for funds to help the party in power. This has always been taken for granted in politics.

But if a millenium is to come in the political arena, there will have to be some other method of financing campaigns. It was suggested by this writer 20 years ago that all campaign contributions be limited to very smal sums. But, unfortunately, the cost of soliciting from a large number of persons by mail or in person is prohibitive, and nobody has come forward with an effective plan to lick that problem.

As for tokens of "appreciation," it may be asked where the line is to be drawn in the public service. Should a congressman or senator take a fee, together with expenses, for speaking before a labor-union convention or an employer association? Should members of Congress let lobbyists pick up the check for lunch or dinner? Where does the "conflict of interest" begin or end?

Maybe honest people, conscientious legislators and officials, will not need to worry about such things. But they will have to worry alot about those admirers who get up dinners and make a fuss about services rendered or to be rendered.

"Appreciation" dinners will doubtless continue, but letters of solicitation hereafter will certainly have to be more tactfully phrased.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Reader 'Down in Dumps' May Be Lacking Iodin

A Michigan reader reports that last winter, after 46 years of generally excellent health, she found herself in a long period of low energy and "down in the dumps."

DR. BRADY

It seems evident that "in the dumps" in this instance means low in spirit, gloomy, melancholy, pensive, moody, hypochondriac or, to coin a word, anhedonic.

This is a familiar state, especially in the Great Lakes basin and the goitre belt. It is a common manifestation of iodin deficiency.

Adults with iodin deficiency complain of always feeling chilly. Their body temperature is below normal. Neither a good night's rest nor a vacation refreshes them as it should. They tend to doze anywhere any time. They have cold hands and feet. They complain that their knees are weak.

Many such individuals discover that they feel pretty good for a while after a hearty meal, and so they overeat and accumulate pads of fat on the flanks. They have dry sallow skin, lustreless dry falling hair and usually prematurely graying of the hair.

Too often these poor souls resort to alcohol or other tranquilizer for the hour of warmth and comfort the drug gives. The primrose path to drug habit.

ESSENTIAL TO NUTRITION

Considering the great prevalence of iodin deficiency in growing children and adults, I think it unfortunate that doctors and people regard iodin only as medicine and have generally failed to recognize that it is essential for good nutrition.

In the past 30 years some health authorities have half-heartedly approved of (1), the mass administration of iodin to school children to prevent goitre and (2) the mass administration of iodin, in the form of iodized salt, to the general public.

I'm afraid very few school children get the iodin they need, and I believe the amount of iodin anybody is likely to get from iodized salt, even though it entirely replaces ordinary salt at table and in cooking, is less than the minimum daily requirement.

Whether you send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for the pamphlet "The Iodin Ration" or not, please remember:

"I do not advise any one to take medicinal iodin or iodide without medical supervision, and the nutritional iodin I do recommend for everybody can do no harm."

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Union Man's Wife Discusses Contest

What's our union coming to when it can call its own members liars (Leader, Thurs., Feb. 16)? How can we trust a union when it doesn't trust us? I'm sure no one wrote his milestone entry without reading the rules, and what we wrote in ours was the truth and we can prove it. If the union is so bitter, why doesn't it have a similar contest?

GM doesn't give something for nothing, nor does anyone else. Doesn't our union get paid from every member for what it does for us? And after all, we wouldn't be much of a country without both companies and unions. We must put our trust and love in both of them.

As for unemployment, you can't blame the companies. It goes much deeper than that, to the heads of our country and economy itself. When a union member is laid off he doesn't pay dues. With so many laid off, I wonder if the loss of money is hurting our union more than thinking of the poor man out of work. The union owes its members an apology.

French Remain Silent on Tunis Attack Order

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

The French government, which long has fought against so-called "internationalization" of the war in Algeria, has spurred the process by the air attack on a Tunisian border village.

Paris still has not revealed who gave the order for the retaliatory attack on the village whence an Algerian rebel anti-aircraft gun fired on French airmen. And although the French government defended the action of the military, many French politicians realize the raid was a heavy political blunder.

Algeria has been such a hotly controversial subject in French politics for so many years that it still is not clear who would give an order or decide on such an attack.

Robert Lacoste is the resident minister in Algeria. Did he give the order? He had been near the Tunisian frontier on the weekend before the attack.

Did Lt. Gen. Raoul Salan, the Army commander-in-chief, decide on the reprisal, or was it an Algerian Air Command acting independently of him?

Or was it the local commander near the frontier where the French vainly have tried to stop rebels slipping in and out of the Tunisian "sanctuary?"

It's no secret that Algerian nationalist guerrillas have been using Tunisian territory in their shadowy, merciless fight against the French. The Tunisian government politically and militarily has been unable to stop Algerian activity on its soil.

The French have erected electrified wire fences along parts of the long frontier but these do not stop the well organized rebels.

France has contended that since Algeria is part of France the war there is none of the business of the outside world, including members of the United Nations.

★ ★ ★

But France is a member of the Atlantic Alliance, which in part finances the French naval base at Bizerte. And the Tunisians now are telling the French to keep their ships out of that base and to remove French troops.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Praises People Who 'Plant Roses'

Joseph Sunnen must have a gigantic "green thumb" for he is planting so many wonderful roses that even the angels in heaven must be applauding his generous foresight. Churches, the YMCA and the CYO, plus Boy Scouts and other worthy groups should profit from this case and not delay any longer in procuring their camp sites.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case X - 329: Joseph Sunnen is a great YMCA rooter in St. Louis.

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane," said Mr. Vernon, "I am very much interested in one of your columns dealing with the need for camping facilities for the entire family.

"We are quite impressed with the many values that grow out of such all-family camping vacations.

"One of our board members, Mr. Joseph Sunnen, felt so keenly the vital importance of such character building experiences, that he has made a lasting contribution to the people of St. Louis.

"For Mr. Sunnen has great foresight and vision. He has thus been the major factor in creating a camp site for us. And he has also built a dam a quarter of a mile long which provides us with a lake that is a mile and a half long and half a mile wide.

★ ★ ★

"If you know Missouri, you will appreciate that this is a God-send to us. It offers a wide variety of wholesome recreation for our all-family YMCA camps."

Earlier this week I mentioned that men cannot be at peace with their consciences unless they "plant roses where thistles grew before," as Abraham Lincoln so aptly phrased it.

But many great souls not only plant roses as a part of their wholesome manufacturing or farming or professional life, but then they even spend their spare time planting additional roses.

Mr. Sunnen is thus a great player on God's team, for this wonderful YMCA camp permits Daddy and Mother, plus the kids, to duck away in midsummer from their hot city apartment and enjoy recreation in an ideal spiritual atmosphere.

Getting close to nature is a tonic to the soul of man. The great prophets of ancient Israel thus withdrew into the mountains to soak up inspiration through closer communion with God.

Jesus also did the same thing. Before he launched upon his three-year ministry, he spent 40 days in the wilderness.

And he liked to withdraw into the Garden of Gethsemane to obtain the spiritual perspective and courage needed to carry on.

There is a definite psychological merit in such "retreats" from man-made architecture. For we can then gaze on the vastness of the mountains and lakes, and peer into the limitless heavens.

Ancient Abraham might never have built up the faith that has carried down to us today if Lot had chosen the mountains and left Abraham the rich plains on which Sodom and Gomorrah arose.

But by that very fact, Lot indirectly saved morality for the human race here on this planet Earth, for Abraham nurtured ethics in that hill country.

BECOME IDOLATROUS

Farmers and mountaineers usually maintain their spiritual values better than city folks, for in man-made canyons like Wall

Street we become enamoured of our own mighty buildings and begin to feel that man is invincible.

Out under the stars, however, we get a truer perspective and begin to realize the vastness of God's universe.

So churches and YMCA boards should look ahead and procure adequate camp sites quickly. Our population is zooming and will double in the next 50 years.

Land is growing scarcer, so look far ahead and get your camp sites NOW. Throw up an earthen dam and have a lake by next summer.

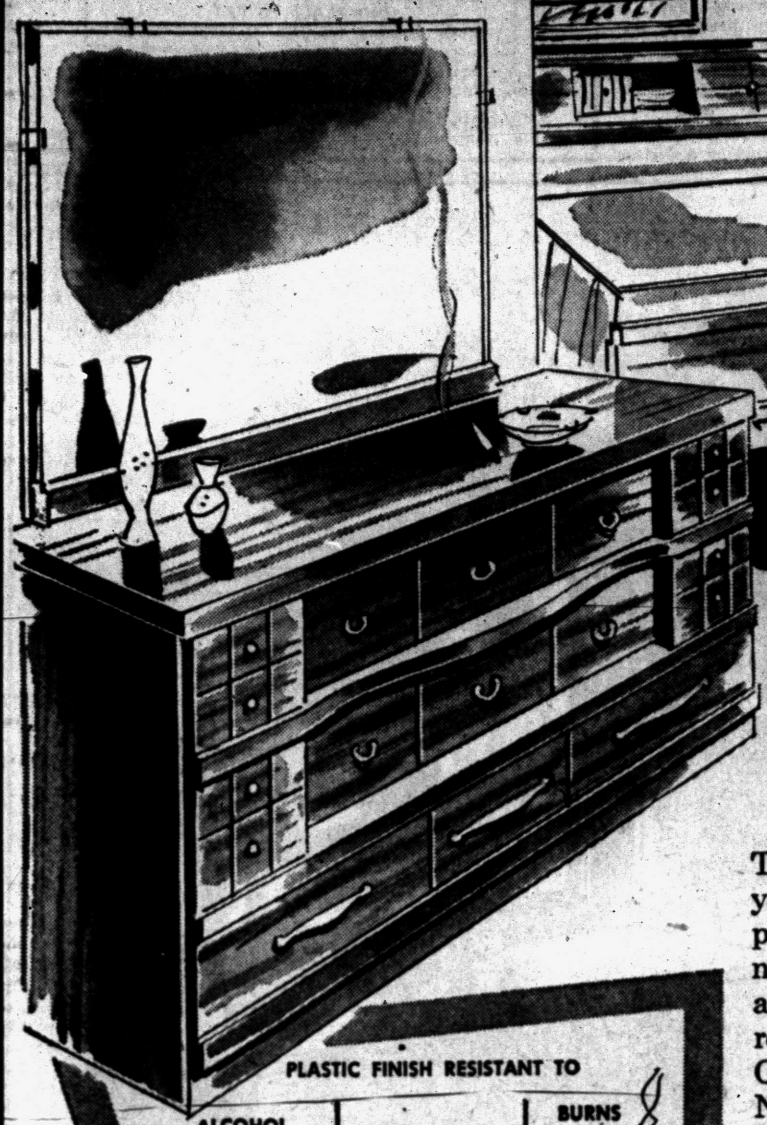

Camps for boys or girls are wonderful, but should be supplemented by all - family camps, like this one in St. Louis and many others mushrooming all over America.

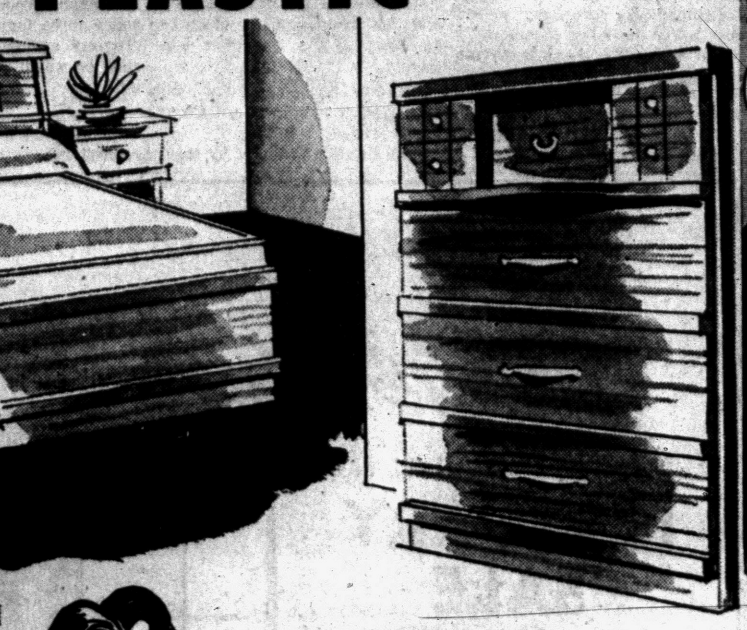

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs, when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Warehouse Fire Costs Millions

Erie Firemen Battle Flames in Freezing Temperatures

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — A spectacular fire, fed by drums of gasoline and chemicals and punctuated by explosions, destroyed a block-long warehouse last night. Damage was tentatively estimated at between two and eight million dollars.

★ ★ ★

All available fire equipment was summoned to the fire in the one-story brick and concrete structure 20 blocks from midtown.

Fire fighters were hampered by 14-degree temperatures. The entire area became a mass of ice.

Two firemen were injured. One was sent reeling by concussion but was not seriously hurt. Another slipped on the ice and was admitted to Erie Veterans Hospital.

Deputy Fire Chief John North said, "It was the worst fire as far as property loss is concerned that I have seen in my 31 years on the fire department."

Millard Irwin, owner of the warehouse, valued the building itself at a million dollars. He said an inventory taken Wednesday showed the contents — an assortment of goods ranging from television sets to drums of gasoline and chemicals — to be worth seven million dollars.

★ ★ ★

Irwin said the fire appeared to have started in an area with a considerable amount of electrical wiring.

Asks State's Help in Ecorse Cleanup

DETROIT (AP) — Mayor Eli Clungan of suburban Ecorse wants the state attorney general's office to join his campaign to clean up gambling in the downriver community.

Clungan met yesterday with Atty. Gen. Paul Adams and Circuit Judge Theodore Bohn.

The meeting followed by three days the suspension of four Ecorse police officers. One was suspended after being charged with making illegal drivers license sales. No reason was given for the other suspensions.

★ ★ ★

Clungan Wednesday gave his police force until Sunday to show progress against gambling or, he said, he would ask for state police aid.

★ ★ ★

Belgium Concert Artist Glues Strad Together

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Charles Foidart, Belgium concert artist here to play a recital, says he always carries a tube of glue to keep his $65,000 Stradivarius viola from coming apart at the seams.

★ ★ ★

"Temperature changes sometimes cause the instrument to separate at the joints," he told a newsman at the Belgian consulate. "I smear glue on and stick it back together. It doesn't look very good but at least it plays."

Mystery Sniper Attacked Five

Detroit Police Believe They Have Lead to His Identity

DETROIT (AP) — The mysterious sniper's number of attacks climbed to five—none of them injuring anyone—and police said today they believe they have a lead to his identity.

Two more persons told police last night they had found evidence they had been unknowing victims of the phantom shots that started a week ago. One bullet was found wedged in the front door of a house. Another was found in a yard.

Police said a tip gave them a tentative description of the attacker. The informant, his name kept secret by police, said he saw a crew cut man of about 20 driving away in a red and gray Ford after one of the attacks.

James Browne, 33-year-old employe of a Detroit bank, gave police a bullet he said he extracted from his door. He said he had heard a noise like a rock striking the door.

★ ★ ★

Daniel K. Kelsten, 37, turned over to police a bullet he found in front of his house.

The incidents were tied together after police studied the .32-caliber slugs under a microscope.

Two Bandits Hold Up Market in Afternoon

Two bandits held up Gerzanics Market, 750 S. Saginaw St., at 2:15 p.m. yesterday, locked the owner, John Gerzanics in the beer cooler and took $30 from the cash register.

The bandits, described as around 25 years old and wearing light jackets, walked in while the store was empty. One of them carried a revolver.

A woman customer who came in after the holdup, heard the owner pounding on the cooler door and freed him.

UAW Unit OKs 1958 Demands

Union GM Council Plots Bargaining Aims When Talks Start in Spring

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union's General Motors Council has agreed on contract demands it will present to GM when bargaining begins around April 1.

The demands, mapped out yesterday in a closed session of the 400 delegates, reportedly included approval of Walter Reuther's profit-sharing proposal.

★ ★ ★

Leonard Woodcock, vice president in charge of the UAW's FM department, said there were some arguments during the closed meeting but added: "All we need now is the agreement of General Motors."

Reuther, president of the UAW, was scheduled to address the closing session of the conference today. The delegates represent about 350,000 GM employes.

Meeting in the same building with the GM Council was the Michigan Labor Mediation Board which opened a three-day conference to prepare its 14 state mediators for collective bargaining activities this year.

"I think the parties at this time," he said, "are doing pretty much of their negotiations in the field of public relations. Until the picture has jelled, I don't think anyone can tell whether there is going to be a strike."

Novi Woman Held Up by Knife-Wielding Trio

Three young men held a Novi woman at knife point early this morning while they took approximately $100 from a cash register at the Novi Coffee Shop, report State Police.

Elizabeth Sikkils, 41, of 216 Wixom Rd., was tending the shop shortly past 1 a.m. when two men entered. One brandished a large hunting knife.

She told State Police from the Redford Post that the man with the knife was about 20 and the other was about 25 years old. An accomplice, who she said was in his teens, watched the door. The coffee shop is located at 25974 Novi Rd.

Tustin Loses Town Hall

Seeks WSU Speed-Up

DETROIT (AP) — Adoption by Wayne State University of a three equal terms program on a year-around basis has been recommended by a special committee. The plan is designed to seek operation of the university at full capacity by utilizing more fully the faculty and space. Under the system a degree could be attained in as few as 32 months.

Conlin Plan Snagged in State Legislature

LANSING (AP) — A deadlock over execution of the Conlin Plan darkened the state's fiscal outlook today but local schools got word that $28,500,000 in overdue state aid checks will go into the mails Tuesday.

* * *

Gov. Williams and Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton), originator of a proposal to give the ailing state treasury a quick 18 million dollar transfusion, each said it was up to the other to take the initial step.

Neither would budget first to get the state switched from a 30 to a 90-day basis on liquor purchases and the cash thus freed from inventory into the proper treasury fund. Action by both was required.

By Adding Stage to Jupiter

Hope to Shoot for Moon

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Put one more rocket motor on the Jupiter-C missile that launched the American satellite and you could reach the moon.

Scientists who designed Explorer I disclosed this yesterday at a news conference called to report on the satellite's progress through the heavens.

California Institute of Technology's jet propulsion laboratory has formally asked Defense Department permission to try to circle the moon with some future satellite.

There is no thought at the moment, scientists said, of trying this with Explorer II, the second U.S. satellite now being rushed to completion at the jet lab.

To reach the moon, a fifth rocket stage would be added to the four stages of the Jupiter-C. This stage, however, would be added to the nose of the missile, not the base.

Dr. Henry Richter and other scientists at the news conference said Explorer I is performing as they expected it would. Radioed information indicates that a human could live in a satellite. "Room temperature" is being maintained inside the satellite and measuring devices indicate no great peril from cosmic rays or small meteorites in space.

A radio receiver, which Explorer I does not have, is being installed in Explorer II at the jet lab.

"By means of this receiver we can tell Explorer II when to broadcast to us," Richter said. "A tape recorder in the satellite will save up information gathered while the satellite is farthest away from earth and send it to us, on command, when the satellite is nearest the earth."

Because the radio will not be transmitting all the time, its batteries will last longer.

Late Intangibles Tax Payments Forgiven

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams has formally proclaimed that anyone who admitted delinquency on intrigibles tax payments will be forgiven — except for a six per cent interest charge.

Williams said yesterday he issued the proclamation because the Department of Revenue has no funds to enforce or publicize the intangibles tax.

The tax is levied on stocks, bonds, investments and other paper wealth.

Williams said that until June 30, anyone who failed to file a return could now do so without penalty except for the six per cent interest.

After that, he said, full penalties would again be in effect.

Hal Boyle Says:

Here's Wedding Gown in New Perspective

NEW YORK (AP)—The tall slender bride was being married in her mother's gown, and she insisted that it be altered so that it would trail on the floor.

★ ★ ★

She was so fussy on this point, that John Van Drill finally asked her why.

"My fiance is shorter than I am—and sensitive about it," she explained. "So I am going to be married with my shoes off. Then I won't have to look down on him when I say 'I do.'

"That's why the dress has to sweep the floor. I don't want my feet to show."

This is one of many odd incidents that have befallen Van Drill, who is known as "the wedding gown king." As president of the Le Boeuf firm in East Orange, N. J., he is the nation's top specialist in cleaning and preserving wedding outfits.

Van Drill, a short, dark-haired kindly man of 44, is a self-made specialist. He got a job in a dry cleaning plant at 14, after his father's death. At night he read everything he could find in the library on cleaning, dyeing and fabrics. In time he became foreman.

"The plant wouldn't allow us to clean wedding gowns—they were too risky," he recalled. So Van Drill cashed his war bond savings borrowed money from friends, and went into business for himself.

Now he has customers across the land, many of whom send him for repair and restoration wedding finery that has been treasured in families for generations.

"In former times most wedding gowns were made by brides themselves, by their relatives or by dressmakers," he said. "And they made them out of everything from wool blankets to flour sacks, table cloths and lace curtains.

"One woman, asking us to be especially careful of her heirloom, told us it had been woven in a Union prison during the war by one of her ancestors, a Confederate soldier."

Today the nation's stores sell between 700,000 and 800,000 wedding gowns yearly. It's a 100-million-dollar industry. The gowns cost an average of $125, but range from $39 to $1,800. Van Drill himself says a bride can do right nicely for $69.

Many brides, of course, want to be married in the same gown worn by their mother and grandmother. But often the gown, left to hang in the attic, has fallen victim to mice, moths and moisture. The task of restoring it sometimes requires a fabric miracle.

"But brides are the best people in the world to deal with," said Van Drill. "They are approaching one of the most emotional moments of their lives, and they are deeply grateful for any help you give them."

On the other hand, a few wives have come to him later and wanted to pawn or sell their wedding gowns. One bride, who had been married twice in the same gown and lost both husbands, asked him to dye the gown blue for her third wedding.

"Maybe that'll change my luck" she said cheerfully. "After all, blue has always been my lucky color."

But the bride he remembers most is one he never met. She sent a brand new wedding dress, lovely and shimmering, to be preserved and sealed in foil.

With it came this note:

"I want to keep it all my life. It has never been worn and never will be. My fiance was killed in a plane crash on the way to our wedding."

Ralph Waldo Emerson said: "If great men make nations, then great nations are what mothers have made them."

To members of the adult set the Valentine observance may be just another work day, but in the fantasy-filled realm of childhood it's a time for many extra-special treats. Here we find 2-year-old Miss Maureen Ritter receiving in addition to that big lacy

Valentine—another extra-special treat in the form of an affectionate buss from brother Douglas, 6. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Ritter of Edgefield drive.

Martyred Priest Left First Valentine Letter

By MARGARET BROWN

The time of hearts and flowers is here again, and young and old throughout the world will remember one another with colorful Valentines today.

Have you ever wondered as you opened these affectionate and sometimes comic remembrances just how this idea of sending Valentines originated?

Most sources of reference take us into Roman history and legend for the story.

During the persecution of the Christians under the Emperor Claudius II, a Roman priest named Valentinus was arrested and imprisoned for comforting and giving aid to afflicted believers in Christ, an act considered a crime in that age.

After a year's imprisonment Valentinus was brought before the emperor to whom he witnessed and tried to win to acceptance of Christ, just as Paul, John, Stephen, and countless other defenders of the Faith valiantly had done in the past.

Impressed with the priest's dignity, Claudius attempted to have the man's life spared by converting him to the Roman belief in many gods and goddesses. At the king's pleading that he ". . . abide in amity and worship the idols . . ." Valentinus replied, "I say of the gods none other thing but that they were men mortal and merchant and full of ordure and evil."

For his defiant stand Valentinus immediately was condemned to be beaten with clubs, to be stoned, and to be beheaded outside Rome's Flaminian Gate.

From this point on, legend dominates in seeking an origin of this Feb. 14 celebration. It is said that while the priest was waiting execution, he was able to restore the sight of his jailor's blind daughter with whom he had become a close friend.

FIRST VALENTINE

On the eve of his martyrdom he left the little girl a farewell message, signing it "From your Valentine". He was buried in what is now Rome's Church of Praxedes, and legend has it that a pink almond tree blossomed near his grave.

How the life and death of this saint is associated with a lovers' day, however, is less certain. One source of information interprets the connection by relating the date of Valentinus' death with a Roman festival honoring the goddess Juno Regina.

During this feast the Roman boys drew by lot the names of girls who were their partners in the celebration. The Christians were appalled at this heathen worship, but as they were unable to abolish the festive celebration, added a touch of Christianity to the custom by substituting names of saints for the names of girls.

As time passed gradual changes in the name drawing practice evolved into our present custom of sending Valentines.

HEART SYMBOL

It is no wonder that the heart has been so linked with this special day. Consider the day's Christian origin and think upon the great significance of the human heart to mankind. Poets have found a wealth of material for their lyrical compositions in the heart. How have they been inspired to meditate so upon the heart?

★ ★ ★

The reason again appears to rest upon a religious theme, for consider these passages from the Scriptures: "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh" . . . "As a man thinketh in his heart, so he is" . . . and "Thy word have I hid in my heart that I might not sin against thee," to name only a few verses referring to the heart.

And on this, Valentinus' own day, those who stop a few moments to ponder the heart and the many ramifications of its application and associations in our daily life may find new depth of meaning in the heart's special product—true love.

Three-year-old Elizabeth "Lisa" Nevala, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nevala of Crocus road, carries out the Valentine motif by donning a white princess-style nylon frock featuring an American beauty red velvet cummerbund.

"Won't you be my Valentine?" That's what 19-month-old Florence Delbridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Delbridge Jr. of Birmingham, appears to be whispering as she reclines on the sofa. The little lady spent a busy day opening numerous Valentines which the mailman brought her.

"Sweets to the sweet," an overworked expression, perhaps, but Dominic "Donnie" Spadafore, 10, looks as though this is just his sentiment as he mounts the steps of his home with a box of candy for his mother. And maybe, if he's extra sweet, mother just might share a chocolate drop or two with him. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Spadafore of South Paddock street.

Voters Unit Sets Feb. 26 Meeting

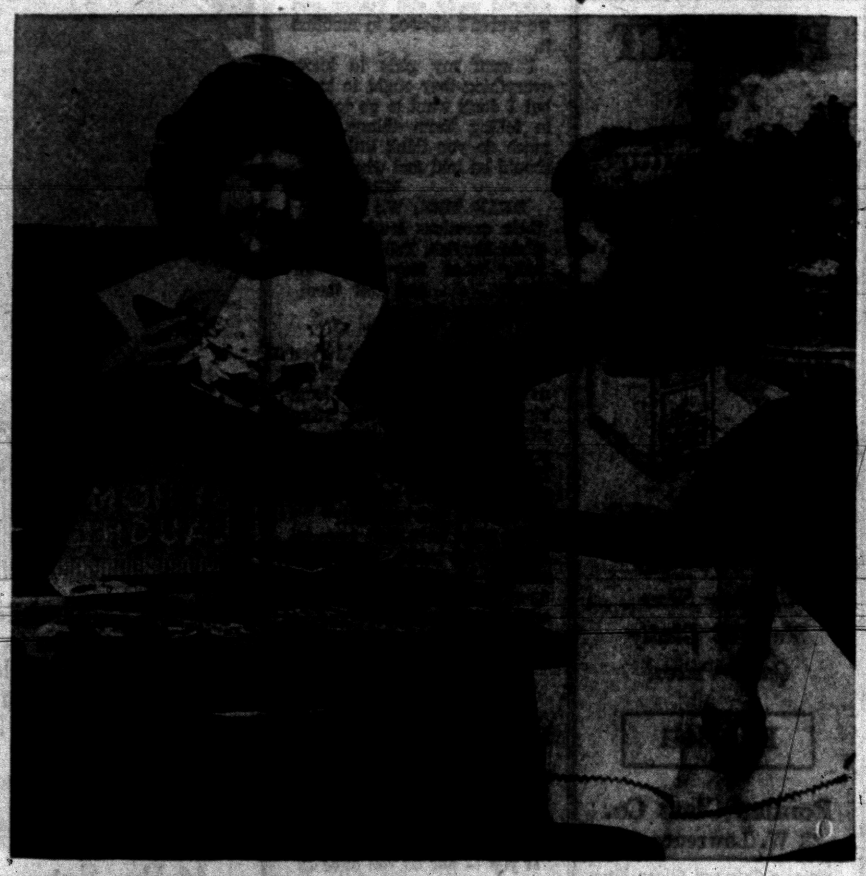

Candidates for City Commission will be invited to a Feb. 26 meeting of League of Women Voters of Pontiac to state their views and qualifications, according to Lillian Davidson, voters service chairman.

The decision to resume this event was made by Executive Board of the league at its meeting Wednesday evening in the North Johnson street home of Mrs. Fred Steinbaugh.

Speakers at the meeting were Mrs. John Rumsey and Mrs. Bernard Macgruder, both of Franklin.

They spoke of a study which has been made by a group from the Detroit and Birmingham leagues. The study concerns the multiplicity of governments and "overlapping" in areas such as Detroit and its fringe cities.

Nominating committee chairman Mrs. John Borsvold, reported on the progress of her group which prepares the ballot for the league annual meeting in March.

Rex Lawrence Emcees Dance

Rex Lawrence was master of ceremonies for Do-C-Do Square Dance Club's Valentine Dance Thursday evening in Central School.

Guest caller was Sam Joan with Mr. Lawrence, George Newton, George Harkless, John Streit, Gordon McLeod, Robert Newill and William Brown as callers.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Valuet, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Joan and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ladd were guests.

Decorations were made by Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Alward and Mr. and Mrs. Turris McCully.

Delta Kappa Gamma Fetes Students

Xi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society's annual recruitment meeting was given Thursday in the form of a Valentine tea in Hawthorne School's all-purpose room.

Twenty-eight students from local high schools who are interested in becoming teachers were guests of the group. Mrs. George Morrow, Cheri Littleson and Florence Gullstrand welcomed the guests.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Ralph Forman was chairman of the committee with Mrs. Thomas Turner, Mrs. Clare Hinckley, Adeline Hook, Virginia Luther and Margaret Luther aiding her.

Mrs. Forman introduced members of a panel who discussed the rewards of teaching.

Mrs. Everett Peterson told of working with kindergarten children; Vera Mae Adams discussed working in secondary schools, and Mrs. H. Erwin Gottschalk called attention to opportunities and rewards in working in special education with the handicapped.

State Mother to Be Chosen by Committee

Application blanks to enter nominees for the title of Michigan Mother of 1958 are available by writing Michigan Mother's Committee, Box 590, Pontiac.

Pontamix Club Plans Sadie Hawkins Party

Activities committee of Pontamix Club met Wednesday to discuss coming events. Plans were made for a Sadie Hawkins party Saturday evening. The group will gather in the Chamberlain street home of Marcee Hill prior to the dance.

Sunday tryouts will be held at St. Michael Hall for the play, "You Can't Take It With You," to be given after Easter.

If you look closely, you'll see that 1½-year-old Fredwin Carr Jr. and his sister Linda, 4, are displaying a nearly perfect heart-shaped stone they discovered while playing in their back yard before the snow began to fall. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fredwin Carr of East Walton boulevard.

40 Attend Meeting of Rebekah Lodges

Mrs. Maude Bibby of Pontiac 450 Lodge and Mrs. Dussie Lyons of Barryton Rebekah Lodge were guests of Welcome Rebekah Lodge 246 Thursday evening in Malta Temple.

Mrs. Eva Mathews, Mrs. Gene Elkins and Mrs. Russell Hetzer were in charge of the social hour

Panel Discussion Held at Bailey PTA Meeting

"The How of Better Communication and Relationships Between the Home and School" was the topic of a panel discussion at Cora Bailey School PTA meeting Thursday evening.

Participating in the program were William Wright, principal of Mark Twain School and director of special education for Pontiac schools; Mrs. Wright, past president of Pontiac PTA and program chairman for Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers; Dan Abbott, assistant principal of Washington Junior High School, and Mrs. Calvin Page, president of Cora Bailey PTA.

Moderator for the panel was Horton Southworth, principal of Cora Bailey and Crofoot Schools.

Chairman for the event was Mrs. Ellen Sheffield. Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Mr. Abbott and Mrs. Sheffield are members of the citywide home-school communications study committee.

Maximum Length Is Predetermined

Cutting Hair Won't Make It Grow

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "My friend told me that every time hair grows 8 inches you should get get it cut at least 1 inch and then it will grow another 8 inches. I had my hair cut very short and it hasn't grown very much at all. How can I grow very long hair?"

A. Cutting the hair has nothing to do with the length to which it will grow. Your hair will grow only to a certain length no matter how often you cut it.

Q. "Please tell me what to do about my teeth. I smoke filter-tip cigarettes and though I brush my teeth after each meal they still seem to turn yellow or brown in front."

A. This is one of the penalties of smoking and I know of no way to avoid it. This stain is removed when you have your teeth cleaned and your dentist probably can give you something to use once in a while in between prophylaxis. Ask him about this.

Q. "I am confused about my figure. Please tell me what is wrong with it and how to correct it. I am 14 years old, 5 feet 1 inch tall and weigh 93 pounds. My bust measures 30 inches, waist 24 and hips 32 inches."

A. You are underweight and should make a real attempt to gain. Eat three well-balanced meals daily and take milk, with a little cream added, at mid afternoon.

Also eat a little snack before going to sleep at night, perhaps more milk and cheese and crackers and fruit. Vitamin capsules may also help. Be sure to get plenty of sleep. Your measurements are normal for your age.

Q. "Since walking is one of my hobbies, would it be possible for me to lose weight in my legs by walking a few miles each day? I would diet at the same time."

A. You cannot lose pounds by just walking. If you are overweight, you will have to count calories. Walking would be helpful since it increases your calorie output. However, it will not cause you to lose in the legs especially.

Q. "Several years ago I lost 30 pounds with the help of your column and your calories chart. I feel that I still need to lose more. I am 5 feet 8 inches tall, weigh 146 pounds. My bust measures 39, waist 27 and hips 40 inches. My hands and feet are large boned but I am small through the shoulders. I am 19 years old."

A. You may be a little on the heavy side but not much for your height. Watch the extras for a loss of 5 or a few more pounds.

"This is Your Life," an account of Miss Nelson's life, was presented by Mrs. LaVern Westphal.

Thursday afternoon McConnell School PTA members observed Founders Day. Featured on the program were the Lively Blue Birds.

Mrs. John Vanderlind introduced the group and explained their work. The children presented a skit portraying children of different countries.

BAGLEY VS. MR. RUDE

"Bagley School versus Mr. John J. Rude," a play written and produced by Harriette Childress, was the highlight of Founder's Day program at Bagley School Thursday evening.

Mr. Rude's trial showed the objectives of PTA. The cast included Melvin Dewalt, Steven Johnson, Donald Gracey, Larry Glazier, Grethel Hunter, Gladys Daniels and Glenda Graham.

SCIENCE DEMONSTRATION

Richard Durnbaugh presented a demonstration of scientific experiments involving principles of magnetism when members of McCarroll School PTA met Wednesday afternoon.

Past presidents were honored Thursday afternoon when Wilson School PTA members observed Founder's Day.

Presented with corsages were past presidents, Mrs. Albert Rayner, Mrs. David Wells, Mrs. Bertha Fisher, Mrs. Charles Wheeler, Mrs. Ed Hopkins, Mrs. Elmer Hutson, Mrs. Cameron Wilkenson, Mrs. John Neaves and Mrs. Cebert Jeffries.

Mrs. Mary McVicar presented the program.

It was announced that after the Feb. 26 dinner there will be an annual memorial service, with Mrs. Samuel Smith, chaplain, in charge. A ceremonial will follow.

The U.S. Post Office said that in 1956 about 21 million letters were sent to dead letter offices because of illegible handwriting.

Dear Abby . . . .

With 2 Strikes, Be Sure of Hit

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: The story of my life would make a good book. When I was 15 I married a man I hardly knew just to get out of the house. He turned out to be wanted by the police so I went home after six weeks.

ABBY

I was married again when I was 18 to a guy I thought I loved and he was so drunk at our wedding my father had to hold him up. He drank like a fish so I got rid of him.

Now I am going with another man. He is 14 years older than me and was married twice and has seven kids altogether. I hate to take a chance on three divorces before I'm 20 but I have a hunch this one will work.

Should I marry him? He has to know before Wednesday.

CHERIE

DEAR CHERIE: Do not marry any man whose "warranty" runs out after Wednesday. If he is any good — he will keep. Two strikes is a bad score, young lady. Don't swing again until it's a cinch.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: One lady wrote in wanting to know what happened to "all those nice, old-fashioned store clerks" who let the customers take their time and look over the merchandise.

I think I can tell her. They all died from overwork trying to get their stock back in order after those customers messed it all up and departed — without buying anything.

"24 YEARS EXPERIENCE"

DEAR ABBY: I am a married woman with three little girls, 7, 9 and 11. I grew up in a home where sex was considered nasty and vulgar and we weren't allowed to mention it.

I want my girls to know everything they ought to know but I don't want to go too far in telling them things. How much do you think little girls should be told and when?

MRS. F.K.W.

DEAR MRS. W.: Answer their questions truthfully in plain English. Tell them exactly what they want to know . . . and tell them when they ask you.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Would you please settle a minor feud for us? I took my wife to a local night-spot and as we were sitting there, a man approached and with a very polite manner asked, "May I dance with your lady?" I replied, "No, you may not!"

My wife feels that because he was so polite, there was nothing improper in his request. I feel that he was a stranger to both of us and he was being very bold. Who was right?

PERTURBED HUSBAND

DEAR PERTURBED: You were right — there is plenty of polished brass around. You owed this stranger nothing.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO ETTA: Yes, he is making a fool of you — but do you have to give him so much help?

Elizabeth Wayne Is Speaker

144 From Pontiac Zonta Attend Inter-City Dinner

One hundred and forty-four members and guests of Zonta Club of Pontiac attended the Inter - City International Banquet Thursday evening at Devon Gables.

President Mrs. Chadd Mellinger introduced the four charter members still active in the club, Mrs. Ada R. Evans, Clara Nusbaumer, Lola Parkins and Adah Shelly.

★ ★ ★

Also introduced were district officers and members from Cass City, Dearborn, Detroit, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Flint, Lansing, Royal Oak, Saginaw, Ypsilanti and Windsor.

TALKS ON MUSIC

Speaker for the evening was Elizabeth Wayne of Detroit who spoke on "Music in My Path" relating experiences in music as she traveled in Europe. Countries visited with particular musical significance included Ireland, the Netherlands, Belgium and France.

Carrying out the international theme, Zonta members were entertained by Scottish lasses dancing to the accompaniment of bagpipes played by Scottish lads. Following the "Highland Fling," Mrs. Fumiko Takata performed two Japanese dances.

Mrs. James Rosenthal accompanied the group singing which concluded the program.

Program chairman for the evening was Maude Chambers. International chairman is Mrs. Thomas Horowitz. Arranging decorations were Mrs. Helen Reese and Mrs. Dorothy Brooks.

Auxiliary Hears Talk on Food

Grace Lutheran Church was the scene of the meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Pontiac General Hospital.

Guest speaker for the day was Mrs. Janet Odell, home editor of the Pontiac Press, who spoke on the subject "Changing food trends", discussing modern preparation of food for the consumer by pre-cooking, pre-mixing, pre-cleaning and freezing.

Mrs. Fritzi Stoddard was chairman of the luncheon. Hostess was Mrs. Robert Schapler, and reservations were handled by Mrs. James Jones.

Missionary Couple Honored by Class

A missionary Valentine party was held by members of the Loyal Berean Class of Christian Temple when they gathered in the church recreation room to honor missionaries, the Rev. and Mrs. Charles Mason of South Africa.

A comedy skit, "The Return of the Little Red School House," was presented under the direction of Mrs. Isaac Thurman.

2 Brownie Troops Have Valentine Party

Brownie Troop 300 of Wisner School acted as hostess for Troop 355 at a Wednesday afternoon Valentine party.

Need Mixer to Achieve Fluffy Icing

Mrs. Fahr's Recipe Called Foolproof, Can Be Varied

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Want a pretty creamy frosting for your Valentine festivities this weekend? Use Mrs. Russell Fahr's recipe for Miracle Icing and color it pink. This, she says, is a never-fail icing.

Two pre-schoolers keep things humming around the Fahr home. Both parents love to square dance and belong to the Do-C-Do club. Mrs. Fahr also bowls in a league and does some church work.

MIRACLE ICING
By Mrs. Russell Fahr

1 cup sugar
1 unbeaten egg white
¼ teaspoon cream of tartar
⅓ cup boiling water
1 teaspoon vanilla

Put sugar, egg white and cream of tartar in a mixer bowl. Add boiling water and beat at high speed until frosting is very stiff. Add vanilla.

For variety, use maraschino cherry juice instead of boiling water (heat to boiling) and fold in chopped maraschino cherries.

Cranbrook to Show Some Student Art

Galleries of Cranbrook Academy of Art will open a small exhibition of student work this weekend. It will remain in one of the lower galleries until the annual exhibition of student work is hung in May.

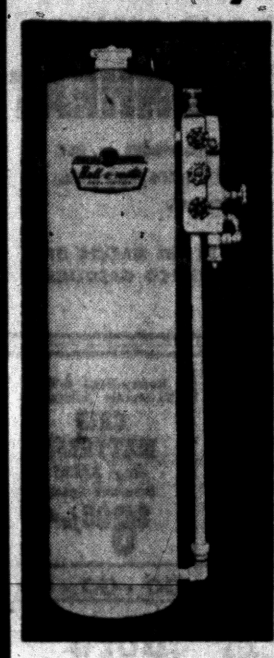

★ ★ ★

According to Wallace Mitchell, gallery head, some of the work is for sale, but the main purpose of the show is to allow students to observe their work in a gallery with work of other young artists.

Martins to Celebrate

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Noel E. Martin of West Rutgers avenue will be celebrated with an open house, to be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Everett M. Mansfield, on First street.

May Rescind School Order

Further Violence by Unruly Youths Seen in New York

NEW YORK (AP)—The order for immediate suspension of public school pupils accused of violence or insubordination may be rescinded by April 1, a school official said yesterday.

Dr. Clare C. Baldwin, an aide to School Supt. William Jansen, said the "intolerable situation" which led to the crackdown on student trouble-makers should be "more or less" resolved by that date.

Meanwhile, there was further violence in the schools.

Two intruders, described as Negroes between 16 and 18, invaded Macombs Junior High School in the Bronx and robbed seven students, including a girl, of four wrist watches and $6.

The victims, all white, were herded to a fourth-floor landing after two youths pushed past a student monitor to enter the building. One of the invaders was armed with a knife.

Principal Harry Flaum, saying this was the first such incident in his school, which has 1,790 students, added angrily: "These weren't juvenile delinquents; they were adult hoods."

Sterling Hayden Gets That Name Officially

Superior Judge Burnett Wolfson granted the actor's petition to replace the name John Hamilton, which he had legalized to keep from drawing attention to his movie identity when he joined the Marine Corps in 1942.

The actor's petition said he was born Sterling Walter in Montclair, N.J., but that when he was 10 his mother had his name changed to Hayden to conform with his stepfather's.

There are 26 federal dams built between Minneapolis and St. Louis for flood control.

Newlywed Allan Jones Sued for Back Alimony

She alleged he is $1,350 in arrears on $3,000 due since they signed a financial settlement Dec. 26. It allotted her $1,500 a month for life unless she remarries.

The U.S. Strategic Air Command established the fastest round-the-world flight on record in 1957 with three B-52s flying 24,325 miles nonstop in 45 hours, 19 minutes.

Journalism students from the five Inter-Lakes schools and Birmingham and Pontiac Central High Schools met yesterday at Waterford Township High School for the third Inter-Lakes Press Conference.

Representatives from the Pontiac Press and faculty advisers from surrounding high schools spoke on sports writing, careers in journalism, high school yearbooks, and women in journalism.

Pontiac Press representatives were John Fitzgerald, editor; Judith L. Clemence, women's editor; and Bruno Kearns, sports editor. Others were: Robert Beauchamp, director of publications at Pontiac Central High School, Harry Stapler, Detroit News sports reporter, Bruce Martin, radio announcer, and Vida McGiffen, faculty adviser at Birmingham High School.

Several students in the Speech II class will dramatize two skits celebrating the WTHS Parent Teacher Association's Founders Day program Thursday night.

Among those in the cast are Lanny Younger, Jim Green, Sandy Clemence, Dayton Thomason, Dick Finkbeiner, Brenda Lewis, Gus Nicholas, Gail Hesse, Dennis Snyder and Loetta Lyon.

West Bloomfield Plans Exchange Program Drive

West Bloomfield High School students main interest the past few weeks has been the foreign exchange program, better known as the American Field Service.

Tomorrow the local committee for the American Field Service will hold a breakfast and finance drive sponsored by the West Bloomfield Kiwanis Club.

Hostesses for the breakfast beginning at 9 a.m. at the West Bloomfield Town Hall will be the following: Mrs. Sylvester W. Trythall, Mrs. Don S. Connor, Mrs. Herbert W. Bretzlaff Jr., Mrs. John Haviland, and Mrs. Harry Warham.

SELECT FOUR CANDIDATES

Four candidates have been selected at West Bloomfield as prospective exchange students to a foreign country. They are William Grover, Kathy Olmstead, Sue Pierce and Don Wrigley. Final selection will be made in New York City.

About 60 students will meet at the town hall where they will be given instructions concerning the drive following the breakfast. Students are taking part in the "Share the Fare" day will be driven to their assigned areas by volunteer parents. In that area they will go to homes asking for donations.

It is hoped that this drive will contribute the major part of the $1,175 needed for a full program which pays for a student coming to West Bloomfield next winter and a student going to a foreign country in the spring. The money must be collected by the end of February.

Another event planned to raise funds for the exchange program is a rummage sale on February 22nd in the basement of the community library. Anyone wishing to contribute rummage for this sale can bring it the next Friday to be priced for sale.

TURN TABLES — Dan Cupid worked a little harder this week when he had to convince the girls at St. Frederick High School that they could and should ask a fellow to the Mardi Gras dance tonight on Valentines' Day. Dolores Dennen, 165 Navajo St., crosses her fingers after she got up enough nerve to dial the number of a fellow she would like to take to the dance. Judging from the expression on the face of the receiver of the call, Richard Powe, 15 Mariva St., he thinks Dolores' idea is great.

St. Fred Girls to Escort Fellows to Mardi Gras

By PATRICIA FOSTER

Tonight St. Frederick High School girls will take on the role of Sadie Hawkins as they escort their dates to the Mardi Gras dance sponsored by the Junior class.

The girls had to ask the fellows and will also foot the bills, open doors and take over the usual male escort's job.

The dance, held in the school hall, will be from 8 to 11:30 p.m. It is the last social function before the Lenten season. Admission is $1.75 per couple or $1 per person.

The Clefs, a five piece dance band, will provide the music.

Yearbook pictures of all clubs, activities and organizations were taken this week. Seniors received their proofs and placed orders for pictures which are expected to be ready within six weeks.

TO PLAY FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

The St. Fred's girls' basketball team walloped St. Michael's Sunday, 41 to 13. The junior varsity score was also encouraging at 28 to 7.

★ ★ ★

The varsity team will compete Sunday against St. Mary High School, of Mt. Clemens to determine the league championship.

★ ★ ★

Students who traveled to the University of Detroit recently for the sixth annual training school of sodality action included Douglas Presto, Dick Powe, Brian Dirker, Sharon Talbot, Julia Slowik, Carolyn Humphries, Judy Cosgrove, Susan Johnson, Chris Medina and Donna Needle. A general sodality meeting was held at St. Fred's to discuss the highlights of this two day convention.

Glenn Cunningham Talks at Walled Lake

Dr. Glenn Cunningham, former one mile champion track star from Kansas University, was the guest speaker at a student council assembly this week at Walled Lake High School.

Cunningham, called the greatest American miler, did most of his running during the 1930's and ran a world record-breaking mile of four minutes, 4.4 seconds.

Of the 32 entries which the Walled Lake Junior and Senior High schools had in the district solo and ensemble festival held at Ypsilanti Saturday, 13 were given first division ratings, 16 second, and three third.

11 SOLOISTS WIN TOP RATINGS

In the Senior High those who received the firsts were Frank Crawford, tuba solo and Dennis Garrels, trombone solo. Both will participate in the state festival later in the spring. The other seven Senior High entries received second division ratings.

Of the 11 firsts which the junior high collected, seven went to soloists. They were David Eicher, cello; Mike Crawford and Douglas Adams, drum; Joanne Welch, flute; Dick Benninger, French horn; Gary Weeks, tuba; and Terry Crawford, French horn.

The ensembles which earned first division ratings were a clarinet trio composed of Diane Fuller, Sandra Cummings, and Barbara Steckling; a flute quartette whose members were Joanne Welch, Judy Slinker, Lynn Ashby and Dodie Duckwitz; a horn quartette in which Terry Crawford, Dick Benninger, David Nicolay and Bob Hartle played; and a cornet trio which consisted of Bruce Attar, Paul Rand and Bruce Stanley.

Baptist Senior Class to Attend Circus

The senior class of Emmanuel Christian High School and their sponsor, Kay McCoy, will attend the Shrine Circus in Detroit tomorrow.

Thursday, members of the senior play cast will present a short preview of the play, "Too Many Girls," during the Parent Teacher Fellowship.

The play will be presented March 20.

Slate College Night Monday

35 Schools, Colleges to Be Represented at Rochester High

Thirty-five schools and colleges in Michigan and neighboring states will send representatives to the college night program at the Rochester High School Monday.

The evening, which will begin at 7:30, will be divided into three sections of about 45 minutes each. During the first two periods students and parents will remain in the room they attend while the college representative makes his complete presentation of information about his institution. The third period will be a "browsing" period.

Newcomers on the local scene this year include a representative from the School of Nursing in Evanston, Ill., the Ford Motor Company, Sullins College in Virginia, the American Academy of Arts and the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago.

★ ★ ★

The university's represented will be: Michigan State University, University of Detroit, University of Michigan, Wayne State University, Valparaiso University and Western Michigan University.

PANEL DISCUSSION ON RADIO

A group of eight juniors from Rochester High School were guests this morning on the Junior Town Meeting of the Air, at 9:30 a.m. on WEXL, Royal Oak.

Members of the panel were: Gary Robertson, Vance Jones, Barbara Baldwin, Ingrid Gievers, Sharon Doyle, Betsy Cook, Pete Grund and Harold Anderson.

The students discussed the main topic of "How can education best meet the challenge of a changing world." They stressed the new developments to conquer outer space, job opportunities in relation to education and the effects the Oakland branch of Michigan State University will have on the citizens of Rochester.

Parents, Students Date Tonight

By MICHAEL BUCHANAN

St. Michael High School boys will escort their moms and the girls will take their dads tonight to the "Sweetheart Serenade," a semi formal Valentine dance sponsored by the senior class.

The dance is open only to St. Mike students and their parents and will be held in the school hall from 8:30 to midnight.

Jerry Walsh and his five piece orchestra will provide dance music including two steps and waltzes especially for the parents, according to Father Michael J. O'Reilly.

Juniors Read Possible Plays

Future Homemakers to Sponsor Sock Hop at Avondale Tonight

Ten Avondale High School juniors are busy this week reading plays in order to select one for the class to present April 10.

They are: Nancy Pyke, Claudia Uhan, Pat Parker, Barbara Parker, Gerry Ann Randall, Janet Wisehart, Mike Walker, Dick Hutchinson, Tom Greenless and Judy Myhrs.

Dr. Glenn Cunningham, the greatest American miler of our time, was the guest speaker at an assembly this week.

Future Homemakers of America are sponsoring a sock hop after the Troy-Avondale basketball game tonight. It will start immediately after the game and last until 11 p.m.

It's Untamed and Unnamed

Central's Biology Club Buys Monkey

By WILLIAM BANK

Pontiac Central High School's biology club has purchased a Cebus capucinus!

Most people would recognize it by the name of ringtail monkey.

The monkey, purchased from a pet shop in Ann Arbor, comes from Central America. To date, it is untamed and unnamed and the members intend to get to work and do something about it.

Since his species is believed to be the smartest of the New World monkeys, the club plans to teach him various tricks including painting and handling small tools. They hope to have him ready for public demonstration for the Science Fair.

The fourth annual Science Fair sponsored by the Linnean Society of PCH will be held March 14 and 15 from 4 to 9:30 p. m. in the Boys' gym. Projects from any Oakland County student in grades one through twelve may be entered. Everyone is invited to come and see the displays and free science movies.

SELECT FAIR CHAIRMAN

The chairmen of the Science Fair committees are Martha Hodge, general chairman; Ron Hoekman, assistant chairman; Lucille Seibert, registration; Sue Smith, judges and ribbons; Richard Serwin, publicity; Jerry Powers, set-up and Marcia Shepherd, movies.

Others are Bud Baril, geology, physics and math; Jim Williams, chemistry; Douglas Roeser, biology; Bruce Berg, general science (grades 7-8-9); Mary Wood, elementary science (grades 1-6); and John Blamy III, club display.

★ ★ ★

Bachelors' Club Members Learn to Cook at Madison

The group of 20 seventh and eighth graders meet one afternoon each week to prepare to face the possibility that they either might wish to be or could become bachelors.

Under the guidance of Lois Smiley, home economics teacher, they are sure they can take care of themselves — at least when it comes to cooking. The boys are now learning to prepare a variety of breakfasts such as bacon and eggs, pancakes and muffins.

Their next project is to bake cookies and cakes.

A series of model airplane contests are being held at Madison as a part of the model club's activity. Under the direction of Norman Felt, the members of the club build their own planes and fly them in the gymnasium. Each contestant is graded according to his ability and first, second and third places are given.

All eighth grade social studies classes will participate in a field trip Monday touring Greenfield Village in Dearborn.

AT EASTERN

This week 100 ninth graders from Eastern Junior High School and their civics teachers boarded busses for a visit to the state capitol at Lansing.

The days' itinerary included a visit to state police headquarters, a tour through the state capitol building, lunch at the Stephen T. Mason building arranged by Rep. Leslie Hudson, and visits to the senate chambers and the house of representatvies arranged by Senator L. Harvey Lodge.

Neva Hartwig, English teacher, who has been conducting classes for students having difficulty with reading, reports that results are both encouraging and discouraging. Some of her pupils show no improvement. Others show as much as a year's progress in one semester. The greatest improvement is in comprehension.

A controlled reader, installed in Mrs. Hartwig's room last fall, has helped improve reading speed. Mrs. Hartwig is working for accuracy at present.

AT WASHINGTON

New leaders of the Washington Junior High School Student Council this semester are: Gary Henry, president; Darlene Woodhull, vice president; and Sue Ann Hathaway, secretary-treasurer.

The will serve until June when new officers will be elected for the fall term. New officers will also be elected at the March meeting of the Parent Teacher Student Association.

Washington, D.C. Tour club members chose room partners this week for hotel reservations for the trip this spring. Groups of four were organized with one person being responsible for the group. To date 184 students are planning to make the annual trip.

AT LINCOLN

Other new officers are: Caroline Dudley, vice president; Carolyn Mills, secretary and Sharon Burklow, treasurer.

The club has contributed $50 to the new roller skating project at Lincoln and they are also making plans to go to a ranch.

BACHELORS-TO-BE PREPARE — Still independent enough to think girls are "silly" and "not for them," these three Madison Junior High School seventh graders are preparing early to be ready if they aren't hooked up to a female. They belong to the Bachelors' Club and are now learning how to cook breakfasts. Left to right are: Bobby Tallon, 651 Third Ave.; Tommy Cordingly, 481 E. Mansfield Ave.; and Douglas Hoisington, 989 Northfield Ave.

Tod Young to Serve on Lake Orion PTSA

Lake Orion Community High School student Tod Young has been selected to be a member of the nominating committee for officers of the newly organized Parent - Teacher - Student Association by the student body this week.

★ ★ ★

The other members of the committee include Roy Vanette, school counselor who will represent the faculty and Mrs. Odes Case, for the parents.

The school wide March of Dimes campaign closed Friday with a total of $550, topping the goal of $400. The eleventh grade collected the highest amount, $210.

Wiser Milt Berle to Fill Role of John Doe

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Milton Berle, declaring himself a calmer and wiser man for having relinquished his responsibilities as "Mr. Television" is not a bit miffed, hardly, about what has happened to the famous comedians of TV.

"Who is the cause of keeping these great comedians off the air?" he asks, smiling easily. "The audience? . . . the public? . . . you think the public?"

Milton leaned forward, waggling his head and one finger. "It goes deeper than that," he says. "But I don't want to get into that; let's leave the thought hanging like a cliff-hanger. Let me just say that the great comedians haven't gone. They're still here, and they're still as funny as they've always been.

"I saw Sid Caesar the other night, and I laughed, and I cried. It was great to see him again. Let's just say the comedian went away from television for a little vacation. Women are wearing sack dresses again—how do you like that? Everything comes back."

Berle, who as everyone knows was the first and foremost comedian on television for nearly a decade, is coming back Feb. 19 in an hour-long drama on NBC. He will play a man in his late 30s with a fair job, and a house in the suburbs: "John Doe, darling, that's who he is."

Having built his reputation solidly as a comedian, one might imagine he would feel concern at the challenge of playing a straight role, without a gag. Not Berle.

Without sounding corny or square or hammy, let me say an actor is an actor. Nobody has to live the life of John Doe to act like him. Like the audiences know me as a one-line joke comedian — I don't have to be that way in real life.

"Don't forget I played in silent pictures from the time I was five till I was 17, and I want to tell you —it's a cliche, I didn't invent it— that there's a hair-thin line between comedy and drama. If I tell a comedy line, the point of it has to be dramatically right. A comedian is an actor who does comedy."

But will the audience accept him, or will they laugh in the wrong places, tickled by a facial expression that they have long associated with a gag?

Berle isn't contemplating beginning a dramatic career that shuts out comedy. Nor does he want another comic TV series.

"No," he says, "I want to come back now, if I decide to go into television, as an actor, but I also want to be diversified. Nobody loves to tell a joke—even if it isn't mine—better than I do."

Leslie Caron Takes Look at 'Time Remembered'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Leslie Caron, who flew all the way from Paris just to sing an additional song for "Gigi," is all but set for the Susan Strasberg role in "Time Remembered." Edward Knopf has bought the rights to the Helen Hayes play and he wants Leslie to come back to the U. S. A., when he's ready to go into production.

This will be Eddie's first independent. He's been with MGM for years and years, and it was he who produced Leslie's never-to-be-forgotten "Lili," one of the most charming pictures of any year.

Leslie is so changed since her happy marriage to Peter Hall. She's gay, bubbling over, and has really become a glamor girl instead of the little gamin she was for so many years.

I was curious how Marilyn Monroe could do "The Misfits," her husband Arthur Miller's original screen play, with her legal battle with Milton Greene not yet settled.

Seems "The Misfits" will be produced as an independent production, and not as a Marilyn Monroe production. Marilyn will make it this year and she feels it gives her the best chance she's ever had for acting.

There's a rumor that Ray Stark and Eliot Hyman will take over Milton Greene's interest in the Marilyn Monroe Co. In that case, Greene would automatically be out of the picture.

Sean Flynn, the strapping six-foot son of Lili Damita and Errol Flynn, heads for Hollywood when he graduates from Lawrenceville Prep School. He has his mind set on an acting career, and Errol has consented to guide him along those lines.

I can't believe this boy is old enough to be talking about a career, and Errol will have a real responsibility.

By the time Sean arrives here, Flynn will have completed his run in "Master of Thornfield," the play in which he opened in New York.

FCC OKs Sale of Radio Station

Purchase of WPON by Chief Pontiac Firm Approved

The Federal Communications Commission today approved the sale of Pontiac radio station WPON to the Chief Pontiac Broadcasting Co. for $275,000.

★ ★ ★

In announcing the sale, Gerity said Russell Gohring, WPON manager, would transfer his activities to Gerity's WNEM-TV station in Bay City, Flint and Saginaw.

The new owners have not yet over the operation of the station, indicated when they will take Gohring said today.

Medical Care Studied

PETOSKEY (UP) — Emmet County supervisors Thursday approved a study of a plan to provide medical care facilities for some 75 patients. The study will determine the cost of maintenance and construction of a wing to the Lockwood General Hospital in Petosky. Supervisors feel the state may close some Emmet County nursing homes requiring the county to pay $15 to $20 a day to keep bedridden patients in hospitals.

French-Tunisian Crisis Burning

U.S. Concentrating on Trying to Keep Situation From Growing Worse

WASHINGTON (UP) — U.S. officials saw little hope today for a quick end to the French-Tunisian crisis. They concentrated their efforts on trying to keep the situation from growing worse.

★ ★ ★

The greatest danger, in the view of Washington authorities, is of a shooting incident involving blockaded French forces and Tunisian troops. But the State Department is also worried about the possibility of a fight between France and Tunisia in the United Nations, and is striving to avoid a showdown there which would compel the United States to take sides between the two countries with which it has friendly relations.

★ ★ ★

Tunisia asked for an early meeting of the U.N. Security Council to discuss the trouble. There was speculation the Council might be called to meet next Monday or Tuesday.

It is understood here that both the Paris and Tunis governments have ordered their forces in Tunisia to avoid clashes which could deepen the crisis, but there remained a question how effective such orders will be in forestalling clashes if the troop issue is not quickly resolved.

★ ★ ★

President Habib Bourguiba has demanded that all French troops leave his country, and has blockaded French army garrisons and the naval base at Bizerte. The French government has flown in some supplies by helicopter, and Ambassador Herve Alphand said at the State Department that his government would not allow its forces in Tunisia to go without food.

Two Young Eastern Kings Deciding Fate of 7 Million

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Two 22-year-old kings and cousins are trying to decide the future of seven million persons.

That about sums up the task that Hussein of Jordan and Faisal II of Iraq have set for themselves in their current conference in Amman.

Their goal, it is believed, is some kind of political-economic federation, perhaps even a union in which Hussein would step down from his throne and become heir to Faisal.

There are some who say that the two young kings, fearful of Egypt's President Gamal Abdel Nasser and the new Syrian-Egyptian union, hope to induce King Saud of Saudi Arabia to join their monarch's federation.

Others see a union of Jordan and Iraq as another step to formation of a genuine Arab empire, the age-old dream of an age-old region.

Despite their age, Hussein and Faisal are veterans of Middle East conflict and intrigue. Both are short and slim, British-educated, addicted to sports cars, planes — and pretty girls.

But Faisal has by far the easier job. He became king at the age of three on April 4, 1939. While his uncle and mother ruled Iraq in his name, Faisal went to England to be educated at Harrow, Sir Winston Churchill's alma mater.

By the time Faisal assumed formal power in May 1953, he was a cultivated and knowledgeable young man surrounded by loyal and canny advisers. He is king of a rich country, based on oil and getting richer daily. Its people are proud, united and well-off, compared to those of Jordan and other Arab lands.

Hussein is balanced on a shaky throne and rules a discontented people. He, too, was educated at Harrow briefly, and at Sandhurst, Britain's West Point.

He became king in 1953 after his father, King Talat, was declared insane. From that time on, Hussein has been in trouble.

Israel lies to Jordan's west. Jordan has no oil but depends for existence on foreign subsidies. Hussein's throne has been in peril several times. The king has needed luck, as well as ability, to thwart domestic foes and Arab enemies.

Hussein undoubtedly has need for his cousin Faisal; and Faisal has the means to assist him. The results of their Amman conference could be of great importance to the West, as well as to the people they govern.

Panhandle Sued by Consolidated

Claims Firm Failed to Comply With Order to Sell Its Excess Gas

DETROIT (UP) — Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. has filed suit for 17 million dollars for what it says loss of revenue suffered when Panhandle Eastern Pipeline Co. failed to comply with a Federal Power Commission order.

★ ★ ★

Consolidated said in its U.S. District Court suit against Panhandle yesterday that the sum represents money lost from the alleged failure of Panhandle to carry out an FPC order directing it to sell excess gas to Consolidated.

William G. Maguire, board chairman and president of Panhandle Eastern, said the suit was "completely without merit."

Maguire described the suit as "merely another move by Michigan Consolidated in its continuing harassment of Panhandle Eastern."

★ ★ ★

Counsel for Consolidated said the suit was the largest of its kind in utility history.

Instead of complying with the federal order, Consolidated said in the suit, Panhandle "sold the gas to certain industrial customers, and made improper deliveries to a few selected customers."

Young GOPers to Meet

DETROIT (UP) — Young Republicans from 14 Midwest states will meet in Detroit Saturday. Sen. Potter (R-Mich) will discuss the Republican party's policies in the "space age."

Chrysler 'Agreeable' to Ad Agent Switch

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. says it was "quite agreeable" to the announced switch of its advertising representative McCann-Erickson, Inc., to the Buick Motor Division account formerly handled by the Kudner agency.

Buick announced yesterday it has awarded its multi-million dollar account to McCann-Erickson. The new agency takes over the account Kudner handled until last December when it was canceled by Buick.

The account has been described as one of the most lucrative in the car industry. It is estimated to be worth about 24 million dollars annually.

McCann-Erickson, slated to take over the Buick account as of June 1, said it will resign its connection with Chrysler Corp.'s Chrysler Division. It said it will carry out all present committments and aid Chrysler during the necessary transition period.

Plans Improvement

ST LOUIS (AP) — The city council plans an improvement program for the three-block business area here, including street widening and repaving. Bids for the project will be taken shortly.

Since 1940 the number of dwelling units using natural gas for central heating has increased by more than 400 per cent.

St. Michael's basketball team will meet Detroit St. Rita on Thursday night, Feb. 20, in the St. Mike gym, to complete a 16-game schedule for the season. The game will be the only one played on the Shamrock court this season.

★ ★ ★

The Class A and B City League basketball games scheduled at Pontiac Central on Wednesday night, Feb. 19, will now be held at Madison Junior High, assistant director John Streit has announced.

★ ★ ★

St. Clement of Center Line finally won a basketball game. The Crusaders had a 63-19 romp at the expense of Utica St. Lawrence Wednesday night for their first win in 12 tries.

★ ★ ★

St. Lawrence recently withdrew from the Pontiac Class C district basketball tournament, leaving five teams in the field. In view of the Utica team's crushing defeat by weak St. Clement, the decision to pull out makes good sense.

★ ★ ★

The Tournament of Champions of the Golden Gloves will be held in Chicago Stadium Feb. 24-26 and the finals March 6th.

Spartans Battle Illinois on TV

MSU Can Regain 1st by Winning Saturday; 'M' at Ohio State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Michigan State will try to regain the Big Ten basketball lead in a game Saturday with Illinois.

★ ★ ★

The contest, to be televised regionally, 4:30 p.m. will be on MSU's home court, where the Spartans are unbeaten in seven starts.

Victory would give MSU a 6-3 conference mark, breaking a tie for first place with Indiana. The Hoosiers are idle until Monday.

Illinois, although the highest scoring Big Ten team with a 79.5 average, shares last place with Wisconsin with a 3-5 standing. The Illini have won only once in six road appearances.

★ ★ ★

Because of Michigan State's chance of going in front of the closest title race in Conference history, the game takes feature status. Rounding out Saturday's schedule are night engagements sending Michigan (4-3) to Ohio State (5-5), Northwestern (4-5) to Minnesota (4-5) and Purdue (5-4) to Wisconsin (3-5).

Bruins Bomb Red Wings, 5-0

Detroit Pushed to 4th; Boston Ties for Second

Harry Lumley Scores 2nd Victory Against Motor City Crew

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Bruins shutout the Detroit Red Wings 5-0 last night and pushed the Wings into fourth place in the National Hockey League race.

The victory put Boston in a tie for second place with the New York Rangers, who were idle. Boston and New York each have 51 points. Detroit has 50.

Losers to Detroit in only three of their 11 meetings, the Bruins put together two goals in the first period and three in the second. Boston continued its blazing attack in the third. Bronco Horvath scored his 21st goal for the Bruins while Vic Stasiuk and Jerry Toppazzini each collected their 19th.

Stasiuk and Toppazzini got the first period tallies on tips-ins after long shots by defensemen Allan Stanley and Fernie Flaman.

Boston put the game away early in the second period. Horvath sent a 25-foot shot past wing - goalie Terry Sawchuk. Buddy Boone scored three minutes later and Leo Labine finished it off at 6:07.

This was the 8th time that Detroit has been shutout this season, and for Lumley it is his second win in as many starts against the Wings.

4 More Tigers Inked for '58

DETROIT (AP)—Four more Detroit Tiger players, including veteran outfielder Gus Zernial, returned their signed 1958 contracts.

Thus, the Tigers passed the two-thirds mark in player negotiations. With 28 players now under contract, only 11 remain unsigned. The unsigned list includes Harvey Kuenn, Frank Lary, Bill Hoeft, Charlie Maxwell and Reno Bertoia.

Frank Bolling and Joe Presko and Tom Yewcic agreed to terms yesterday.

Boone, Dark Collide in Players' Tourney

Dark, three times winner of the event and defending champion, qualified yesterday with an 82 to tie for second place with Darrell Johnson of the New York Yankees. Boone fired a 92.

Several Tiger Vets Report Early

Rookies Open Camp

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—The Detroit Tigers, armed with a fresh supply of players and considered stronger in most every department, opened their rookie camp at Lakeland today.

Only Florida's unpredictable weather could spoil the early camp that is sprinkled with several Tiger veterans who have new things to learn and new responsibilities to carry.

Manager Jack Tighe arrived with his family several days ago and settled down in a motel just outside of this citrus belt town. Most of his coaches have been on hand for a couple of weeks, overseeing the work at the Tigers' baseball school.

Their early arrival is a solid step in the direction the Tigers must follow if they expect to improve upon their 78-76 record that put them in fourth place last season.

All three suffered serious letdowns, and they are three of the Tigers' most important players. Kuenn batted only .277—a whopping 55 points under his 1956 average, and he drove in only 44 runs—just half the number of runs he drove across the previous season.

More important than anything else, Kuenn is scheduled to shift to a new position this season. He has been a shortstop for his entire six-year baseball career.

The Tigers say he will be tried in the outfield in 1958, and that newly acquired Billy Martin will be the club's new shortstop—unless it is discovered that the ex-Yankee and ex-Athletic cannot handle the shortstop job.

Too, Kuenn might be switched to third base, or even first base, if the outfield experiment flunks out. The crew-cut Kuenn has not signed as yet but Gen. Mgr. John McHale is in Lakeland and it would not be surprising if the two came to terms before McHale returns to Detroit.

Lary and Hoeft must be big winners if the Tigers are to be a contending team. The two combined for 41 victories two seasons back. Last year they accounted for just 20.

Ray Boone arrived in town several days ago but is concentrating on golf. He probably will not start heavy workouts until all the veterans are due on Feb. 26.

Watrous Retains Quarter-Century PGA Golf Title

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP)—Al Watrous of Birmingham, Mich., finished one stroke ahead of Dick Metz of Val Verde, Ala., and Charles Sheppard, West Newton, Mass., yesterday and successfully defended his PGA Quarter Century Club golf title.

Watrous shot a two over par 74 to go with an opening day 70 for a 36-hole total of 144.

The tournament is for pro golfers who have been in the PGA 25 years or longer.

Municipal Golf Fees May Rise

Increase Is Requested by City Commission for Public Course

Golfing fees at Pontiac Municipal Golf Course will probably be higher this summer to prevent a repeat of last season's $4,000 operating loss.

City Commissioners last night asked City Manager Walter K. Willman and David R. Ewalt, Parks & Recreation director, to decide together on new rates.

If possible, Commissioners wanted the increase held at 85 cents for nine holes weekdays and $1 weekends and holidays. The present fee for nine holes is 75 cents everyday.

Ewalt had suggested these fee hikes, covering weekdays, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays:

For nine holes, from 75 cents to $1; all day, from $1.60 to $2; twilight hours, 40 cents to 50 cents; and league play for nine holes, from 75 cents to $1.

Ewalt said Detroit had made similar raises on its public courses.

"There's no reason to raise our fees as high as Detroit's, if we don't have to," said Commissioner Floyd P. Miles. "We're not trying to make a profit at the golf course, just break even."

About half the golfers using the Pontiac course last year were from out of town, Willman pointed out. "That's because our rates are lower than any others in this area."

National Ski Jump Meet Sunday at Iron Mountain

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich. (AP) — For the first time in its 20-year history, the world's highest artificial ski scaffold will be the scene of the National Ski Jumping championships here this week-end and at least 100 riders are expected to fly through the air in quest of titles in three divisions.

The national meet, scheduled at 2:30 p.m. (EST), Sunday, will be preceded tomorrow by the 23rd annual Hiwanis Ski Club invitation tournament. The same jumpers will compete both days.

With such stars as Anstein Samuelstaun, Art Tokle and other members of the international team out of the way, the scrap for the senior national title is expected to be a two-way affair between Billy Olson and Keith Zuehlke, both of Eau Claire, Wis.

However, 22-year-old Ted Lahner, also of Eau Claire, outjumped both Olson and Zuehlke last Sunday to win the U.S. Central title and could do it again. Another favorite will be Wilbur Rasmussen of Ishpeming, Mich., former Olympic jumper who made the six-man international team but chose to remain at home.

★ ★ ★

The Junior division will be headed by defending champion Jon St. Andre of Ishpeming, while Lloyd Severud of Eau Claire will be bidding for his third straight title in the Veterans division.

St. Thomas Clips Eaglets' Wings

Paced by a pair of highly efficient shotmakers in 6-5 Hank Podeszwa and Arne Klott, a 5-10 guard, Detroit St. Thomas last night administered a 71-37 spanking to St. Mary's Eaglets on the Orchard Lake floor. Defeat was the 4th of the season for the Eaglets, their 3rd straight.

Podeszwa and Klott compiled 44 points between them, more than enough to outscore the Orchard Lake crew. Podeszwa had 12 baskets and Klott 10, hitting from all angles. Eaglets' best scorer was Chet Wlodkowski with 11.

St. Thomas' season's mark is now 11-2, St. Mary's 10-4.

The Blue Streaks led all the way, starting with a 19-6 first period score. Eaglets were never in contention.

Scoring Ace Baylor Hits 47

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Elgin Baylor appears to have the major college basketball scoring title in the bag, but even with his dominating 34.4 points-a-game average he's a long way from setting records.

The 6-6 junior, who played for Idaho as a freshman, swished 47 points for Seattle last night in a 99-69 victory over Regis of Denver. It was the 11th straight for the Chieftains, now 13-4 and ranked 16th in the Associated Press poll.

Baylor, who scored 27 in the first half after Regis junked a zone defense, now has scored 624 points in 19 games. He had a 33.7 average going into the Regis game. He hit 15 of 26 field shots and 17 of 19 from the foul line.

At his current average, Baylor is well back of the all-time one-season average record of 41.7 set by All-America Frank Selvy at Furman.

Only one of the top 10 clubs played last night. Maryland, ranked No. 9, breezed past Clemson 72-54 in the Atlantic Coast Conference. North Carolina, rated 11th, needed a pair of field goals from Bob Cunningham and Tommy Kearns to come from behind in the last 34 seconds and defeat Wake Forest 60-57 in another ACC game.

Denver barrelled from behind for a 77-60 victory over Wyoming that dumped the Cowboys out of a first place Skyline Conference tie with Idle Brigham Young.

Bob Ellis scored 29, grabbed 12 rebounds and collected four assists for Niagara in a 76-65 victory over Seton Hall. St John's of Brooklyn built a 15-point lead in the first half and rapped Manhattan 77-66 in the other half of the New York Madison Square Garden doubleheader.

Capt. Joe Hughes counted 17 of his 20 points in the second half as Holy Cross came from behind and defeated the Quantico Marines 71-65.

Jean (Feets) Lefebvre, Gonzaga's 7-3¼ Frenchman, scored 23 points before fouling out midway in the second half in an 83-68 victory over Seattle Pacific —but it was 5-9 Loren Anderson of the losers who was high, scoring 37. Once beaten Wheaton, the NCAA small college champs made it 14 in a row by beating Lewis 89-70.

Piston Ace 'Shocked'

NBA Is Rough--Yardley

DETROIT (AP) — George Yardley says he probably wouldn't be playing pro basketball "if I stopped to think how rough it is."

The Detroit Piston forward, leading scorer in the National Basketball Assn., was "shocked" when he saw a few games on television.

"I was really shocked when I saw how rough things are out there on the court — especially up under the basket," he explained. "But it's altogether different when you're out there yourself, playing instead of watching."

Yardley has plenty of scars to show for his five seasons in the NBA.

"There's a lot of talk about the number of stitches hockey players receive in a career," said Yardley, "but basketball players can give them a pretty good run for their money."

Opposing players generally bump Yardley in the arms and elbows in an effort to drive his shooting off. Since it is their practice never to hold onto another player for a long period of time, Yardley — who has remarkable fingertip control of the basketball — generally gets his shots off. His percentage of success is among the highest in the league.

Yardley wants to coach after his playing days are over, but he claims he never would coach in the college or professional ranks. "I'd like to quit after next season and go back into full-time engineering work — and work in some high school or junior college coaching on the side if I could."

The Piston star feels he has learned enough from his unusual experiences with four different coaches so that he could do a pretty good job on the high school or junior college levels.

"My coach at Stanford was Everett Dean," Yardley explained. "He's the finest man I've ever known in athletics. He taught young men how to behave, how to be a real man.

"My first coach when the Pistons were at Fort Wayne was Paul Birch. He was a real taskmaker and a fine teacher, but the boys didn't play well for him. He just couldn't handle men.

Marr's 63 Tops for Texas Open

Burkemo Had 71, Bone 76 in Yesterday's 1st Round

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Texan Dave Marr, one of the brightest youngsters coming up in golf, led the $15,000 Texas Open by a whopping six strokes going into the second round today.

★ ★ ★

He also showed they had been looking in the wrong place for the best bad weather player—he certainly could lay claim to the title with that 8-under-par 63 he banged out yesterday over the soggy, greens-frozen 6,490-yard Brackenridge Park course.

★ ★ ★

It was a day that saw only 15 of a field of 150 players able to better par and it was the first time in a long time that a par 71 was among the top 20 scores on opening round, in this tournament noted for its records.

Third OCSC Fox Hunt Set for This Weekend

Last of the season's fox hunts arranged by Oakland County Sportsmen's Club is set for Sunday over a site near Groveland. Sunday's hunt is the 3rd of the winter and hunters are asked to convene at OCSC headquarters at 8:30 a. m.

Hunting site is in the area about Wildwood road, between Grange Hall and McGinnis roads, three miles west of Ortonville and two east of Dixie Highway. Hot lunch will be served at noon.

Shotguns, with No. 2 or 4 shot loads only will be used, and hunters are told not to take dogs.

Oppose Haircuts Given Athletes

NEW HAVEN (INS)—Parents of four New Haven high school athletes were expected to formally complain to the school superintendent today about haircuts their sons were given during an initiation ceremony.

The parents reportedly will demand an investigation and possible discharge of the school coach who supervised the initiation. One parent was said to be considering asking for an assault warrant. Dale Gerou is varsity basketball coach.

The boys' long hairdos were cut very short during the initiation of seven athletic lettermen into the school's varsity club.

Buck Shaw Eagles' Coach

The 60-year-old former Air Force Academy and San Francisco Forty-Niner coach, signed a three-year contract at an estimated $20,000 a year. He becomes the sixth Eagles coach since 1950, succeeding Hugh Devore who was fired last Jan. 13.

The gray haired Shaw, recently resigned as head coach at the Air Force Academy and former San Francisco Forty-Niner coach, slipped into town last night. He came by plane from his home at Menlo Park, Calif., and was met at International Airport by Vince McNally, general manager.

Young Skaters Take Part in OCBC 'Review'

Oakland County Boat Club's location on Sylvan Lake will be the site for an ice-skating review for young skaters, Sunday afternoon, starting at 1 o'clock. Competition is for skaters from 7 to 16 years of age.

Co-sponsors for the review, which has many awards, are Sylvan Lake city and the Pioneer Highlands association, along with OCBC. John Benson is chairman.

Pontiac Skating club will put on a show and a hockey game will follow, between Bulldogs and Chiefs of the Birmingham league. Open skating will wind up the program, to which the public is invited.

Entries may be filed at the boat club up to 1 p.m. Sunday. Applications are available at the club today and Saturday.

KC's, Walled Lake City Loop Victors

Ten players broke into the scoring column for the Knights of Columbus last night as the K. of C. quintet routed Shaw's Jewelers, 67-47, in a Class A City League basketball game at Pontiac Central.

Hal Trott headed the attack with 18 points as the Knights took over 2nd place in the "A" loop. Dick Ayling scored 12 for Shaw's.

In Class B action at PCH, Bill Stafford poured 30 points through the hoop to lead Walled Lake to a 61-54 victory over Boys Club. Steve Kebler topped the losers with 15.

STRIKES AND SPARES

By Joe Wilman

As you take your stance and also as you deliver the ball, make sure that your hips are squared away to your target.

But while your hips remain parallel throughout your approach, the right shoulder may be drawn back a bit on the second and third steps as your arm swings into the backswing.

Today's drawing shows how the hips remain in a straight line even at the completion of the third step and as the ball is at the peak of the backswing. If the hips were to swing off-line at this crucial point, it would be difficult to bring them back on-line for the release of the ball. And if the hips are off-line at delivery, you won't be facing your target. Result? Your accuracy won't be what it should be and the ball may not take the direction you'd want it to take.

Avoid this by keeping the hips firm so that your body's in line and squared away to your target. Move them and you can count on a poor delivery.

Avondale Has Big Job Against Unbeaten Troy

By BILL CORNWELL

The unpredictable Jackets have surely had their ups and down. They got off to a winning start, then suddenly floundered in midseason and now find themselves fighting to break even for the year.

Oakland B League co-champions last season, the Avon cagers have no chance at all for an outright title and only vague hopes left for another share of the crown.

But Bye and his boys could salve a lot of wounds and smooth out many a bump this evening by doing what no other area prep quintet has been able to do during the current campaign — beat the Troy Colts.

Troy, the school which divided title honors with Avon a year ago, squares off against the Jackets tonight at the Avondale High gym in the No. 1 Oakland B attraction.

Undefeated in 13 games and the state's 3rd ranked team in the latest ratings, the Colts are already certain of a co-title and need only one more league win to take it all.

The Jackets will have a big additional reason wor wanting to spoil Troy's perfect record besides their feeble chances for a piece of the crown. They want revenge for the monstrous drubbing they received in the last meeting at Troy.

Bye thinks his lads can do it. "We slumped in the middle of the season," Bye said, "but we started to perk up a little bit in the 2nd half of the Fitzgerald game and we really began to look more like our old selves against Rochester."

Ray Goforth and Gary Acker have been the key figures in the Avon comeback. The other starters — Jerry Hill, Dennis Evans and Mike Walker — also show signs of reviving and these five players are Bye's chief hope for an upset.

The Jackets have an overall 6-6 record and are presently locked in a three-way tie for 2nd place with Lake Orion and Fitzgerald.

★ ★ ★

Packers Sign Gregg; Leaves Army Shortly

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Forrest Gregg, 6-4, 245 pounds, signed his 1958 contract with the Green Bay Packers and will be discharged from the Army in time for summer workouts the National Football League club announced today.

Gregg, a regular guard for the Packers in 1956, was an All-Army and All-Service tackle at Camp Carson, Colo. The Southern Methodist graduate was the Packers' No. 2 draft choice in 1956.

Pontiac Central Faces Big Task in SVC Action

Flint Central Also Expected to Be 'Up' to Protect Lead

"We should be keyed up for this game," said Van Ryzin, "we can still taste that defeat we took in December."

The loss by a 52-43 margin started the Chiefs into an SVC tailspin after holding a string of 12 straight wins in league competition.

Coach Joe Dowdy of Flint Central however has seen the scrappy Indians come a long way since that day and with an 11-1 mark, he feels his team has also improved enough to repeat against Pontiac.

Dale Lucas, who has started only the last two games for the Indians after the mid-year graduation of Chuck Hyslop, now teams with Felix Miller at the guard spots for a potent scoring combination.

Miller is the leading scorer in the league and Lucas has neatly pumped in 20 points in each of two starts.

PCH expects some help with the return of Jim Skinner, 6-3 senior who has been out with an ankle injury. Starters will probably be Dick Whitmer and Bill Hayward at forwards, Harrison Munson at center and Charley Barge and John Bandy at guards.

Flint Central will probably be "up" for this game also, in as much as a defeat could knock the Indians out of the lead and push rival Flint Northern to the top.

W. Bloomfield, Vikings Try to Play Spoilers

Walled Lake, Inter-Lakes Conference co-champion last year but battling to stay out of the basement this season, meets the title-bound Berkley Bears this evening at Walled Lake.

Berkley, the Vikings' championship partner a year ago, needs one more victory to clinch a share of the crown. Two more wins will hand the Bears their 3rd straight title.

League powers will be strongly favored in the Eastern Michigan circuit. Pace-setting Ferndale guns for its 10th consecutive win at Mt. Clemens, 2nd place East Detroit invades Port Huron and Birmingham plays at Hazel Park.

THURSDAY'S FIGHTS

Cranbrook and Farmington Win Chief Matmen Down FN

The Chiefs had to come from behind twice to win their 3rd straight match and 6th of the season. Pontiac downed Flint Northern 29-19 paced by successive pins by Sam Wiscombe, John Herron and Duke Relyea. Ray Ronquillo and Dave Payne took early decisions.

Although blanked without a pin, Cranbrook won eight matches to whip Southfield 24-16. John Kovach and Bill McKenzie had pins for the losers. The Cranes now have a 4-2-1 record.

Farmington warmed up for the Inter-Lakes event coming up next week by walloping Livonia Bentley 36-12 giving the Falcons seven wins in their last nine starts. Don Margherini, Don Hendricks, Tom Peckham, Amos Deavon, Frank DePostesta and Dan Ressler all had Farmington pins.

Waterford League Lead in 5-2 Knot

Victory for the White Swan club last night knotted the Waterford Recreation Basketball loop lead at 5-2, with Ryeson's Market sharing the spot, although the losers, 62-53, in a battle of top teams.

★ ★ ★

In the other loop contest Hutchinson Mobile dropped Jaycees into the cellar with a 57-48 win, although being forced to come from behind a 29-27 halftime deficit. Mobile outscored Jaycees 14-10 in both 3rd and 4th periods, led by Joe Umphrey with 21 points.

★ ★ ★

Swan and Ryesons had a nip and tuck scrap all the way, to the final period when winners compiled 22 points (10 by Dennis McConky who had 18 altogether), to 10 for losers. Cecil Dumbrigue had 19 for game honors. Mel Karrigan was outstanding as a playmaker for White Swan.

Kerosene Explodes, Four in Family Die

★ ★ ★

Sheriff Q. D. Jackson said Nathaniel Sanders was pouring the kerosene into a pot-bellied stove in an effort to get the fire to burn hotter. The Sanders farmhouse was destroyed.

★ ★ ★

The victims were Mrs. Sanders, 28, a 5-year-old daughter, Billie Ann, and two sons, Carroll, 3, and Dwight Eugene, 14 months. Two other children were seriously burned. Sanders himself was burned on the hands. Two youngsters escaped injury.

CHAPTER 38

She escorted the visitor upstairs, opened the door for her to pass in and then shut it. Lady Stoddart-West approached the bed with outstretched hand.

"Yes," said Emma, "I remember you quite well. Do sit down."

In the chair conveniently placed by the bed Lady Stoddart-West sat down. She said in a quiet low voice.

"You must think it very strange of me coming here like this, but I have a reason. I think it is an important reason. You see, the boys have been telling me things. You can understand that they were very excited about the murder that happened here. I confess I did not like it at the time. I was nervous. I wanted to bring James home at once. But my jusband laughed. He said that obviously it was a murder that had nothing to do with the house and the family and he said that from what he remembered from his boyhood, and from James' letters, both he and Alexander were enjoying themselves so wildly that it would be sheer cruelty to bring them back with him."

Emma said: "You think we ought to have sent your son home earlier?"

"No, no, that is not what I mean at all. Oh—it is difficult for me, this! But what I have to say must be said. You see, they have picked up a good deal, the boys. They told me that this woman—the murdered woman — that the police have an idea that she may be a French girl whom your eldest brother — who was killed in the war — knew in France. That is so?"

"It is a possibilty," said Emma, her voice breaking slightly, "that we are forced to consider. It may have been so."

"There is some reason for believing that the body is that of this girl, this Martine?"

"I have told you, it is a possibility."

"But why — why should they think that she was this Martine? Did she have letters on her — papers?"

"No. Nothing of that kind. But you see I had had a letter, from this Martine."

"You had had a letter—from Martine."

"Yes. A letter telling me she was in England and would like to come and see me. I invited her down here, but got a telegram saying she was going back to France. We do not know. But since then an envelope was found here addressed to her. That seems to show that she had come down here. But I really don't see —" She broke off.

Lady Stoddart - West broke in quickly.

"You really do not see what concern it is of mine? That is very true. I should not in your place. But when I heard this—or rather, a garbled account of this, I had to come to make sure it was really so because if it is—"

"Yes?" said Emma.

"Then I must tell you something that I had never intended to tell you. You see, I am Martine."

Emma stared at her guest as though she could hardly take in the sense of her words.

"You!" she said, "You are Martine?"

The other nodded vigorously. "But yes. It surprises you, I am sure, but it is true. I met your brother Edmund in the first days of the war. He was indeed billeted at our house. Well, you know the rest. We fell in love. We intended to be married, and then there was the retreat to Dunkirk, Edmund was reported missing. Later he was reported killed. I will not speak to you of that time. It was long ago and it is over. But I will say to you that I loved your brother very much . . .

"Then came the grim realities of war. The Germans occupied France. I became a worker for the Resistance. I was one of those who was assigned to pass Englishmen through France to England. It was in that way that I met my present husband. He was an Air Force Officer, parachuted into France to do special work. When the war ended we were married. I considered once or twice whether I should write to you or come and see you but I decided against it. It could do no good, I thought, to rake up old memories. I had a new life and I had no wish to recall the old."

She paused and then said, "But it gave me, I will tell you, a strange pleasure when I found that my son James' greatest friend at his school was a boy whom I found to be Edmund's nephew. Alexander, I may say, is very like Edmund, as I daresay you yourself appreciate. It seemed to me a very happy state of affairs that James and Alexander should be such friends."

She leaned forward and placed her hand on Emma's arm. "But you see, dear Emma, do you not, that when I heard this story about the murder, about this dead woman being suspected to be the Martine that Edmund had known, that I had to come and tell you the truth. Either you or I must inform the police of the fact. Whoever the dead woman is, she is not Martine."

"I can hardly take it in," said Emma, "that you, you should be the Martine that dear Edmund wrote to me about." She sighed, shaking her head, then she frowned perplexedly. "But I don't understand. Was it you, then, who wrote to me?"

Lady Stoddart - West shook a vigorous head. "No, no, of course I did not write to you."

"Then —" Emma stopped.

"Then there was someone pretending to be Martine who wanted perhaps to get money out of you? That is what it must have been. But who can it be?"

Emma said slowly: "I suppose there were people at the time, who knew?"

The other shrugged her shoulders. "Probably, yes. But there was no one intimate with me, no one very close to me. I have never spoken of it since I came to England. And why wait all this time? It is curious, very curious."

Emma said, "I don't understand it. We will have to see what Inspector Craddock has to say." She looked with suddenly softened eyes at her visitor. "I'm so glad to know you at last, my dear.

"And I you . . . Edmund spoke of you very often. He was very fond of you. I am happy in my new life, but all the same, I do not quite forget."

Emma leaned back and heaved a deep sigh. "It's a terrible relief," she said. "As long as we feared that the dead woman might be Martine — it seemed to be tied up with the family. But now, oh, it's an absolute load off my back. I don't know who the poor soul was but she can't have had anything to do with us!"

★ ★ ★

"Thanks, Miss Ellis, I shall be going home early today."

"I'm sure you ought really not to have come at all, Mr. Crackenthorpe," said Miss Ellis. "You look quite pulled down still."

"I'm all right," said Harold Crackenthorpe, but he did feel pulled down. No doubt about it, he'd had a very nasty turn. Ah well, that was over.

Extraordinary, he thought broodingly, that Alfred should have succumbed and the old man should have come through. After all, what was he — seventy-three — seventy-four? Been an invalid for years. If there was one person you'd have thought would have been taken off, it would have been the old man. But no. It had to be Alfred. Alfred who, as far as Harold knew, was a healthy, wiry sort of chap.

Nothing much the matter with him.

He leaned back in his chair sighing. That girl was right. He didn't feel up to things yet, but he had wanted to come down to the office. Wanted to get the hang of how affairs were going. Touch and go, that's what it was! Touch and go. All this — he looked around him — the richly appointed office, the pale gleaming wood, the expensive modern chairs, it all looked prosperous enough, and a good thing too! That's where Alfred had always gone wrong. If you looked prosperous, people thought you were prosperous. There were no rumors going around as yet about his financial stability. All the same, the crash couldn't be delayed very long. Now if only his father had passed out instead of Alfred, as surely, surely he ought to have done. Practically seemed to thrive on arsenic! Yes, if his father had succumbed — well, there wouldn't have been anything to worry about.

Still, the great thing was not to seem worried. A prosperous appearance. Not like poor old Alfred who always looked seedy and shiftless, who looked in fact exactly what he was. One of those small time speculators, never going all out boldly for the big money. In with a shady crowd here, doing a doubtful deal there, never quite rendering himself liable to prosecution but going very near the edge. And where had it got him? Short periods of affluence and then back to seediness and shabbiness once more. No broad outlook about Alfred. Taken all in all you couldn't say Alfred was much loss. He'd never been particularly fond of Alfred and with Alfred out of the way the money that was coming to him from the old curmudgeon, his grandfather, would be sensibly increased, divided not into five shares but into four shares. Very much better.

Harold's face brightened a little. He rose, took his hat and coat and left the office. Better take it easy for a day or two. He wasn't feeling too strong yet. His car was waiting below and very soon he was weaving through the London traffic to his house.

Darwin, his manservant, opened the door.

"Her Ladyship has just arrived, sir," he said.

For a moment Harold stared at him. Alice! Good heavens, was it today that Alice was coming home? He'd forgotten all about it. Good thing Darwin had warned him. It wouldn't have looked so good if he'd gone upstairs and looked too astonished at seeing her. Not that it really mattered, he supposed. Neither Alice nor he had many illusions about the feeling they had for each other. Perhaps Alice was fond of him — he didn't know.

All in all Alice was a great disappointment to him. He hadn't been in love with her, of course, but though a plain woman she was quite a pleasant one. And her family and connections had undoubtedly been useful. Not perhaps as useful as they might have been, because in marrying Alice he had been considering the position of hypothetical children.

Nice relations for his boys to have. But there hadn't been any boys, or girls either, and all that had remained had been him and Alice growing older together without much to say to each other and with no particular pleasure in each other's company.

She stayed away a good deal with relations and usually went to the Riviera in the winter. It suited her and didn't worry him.

Bob Considine Says:

Lawyers (27) Defend New York Boys

NEW YORK (INS)—Former U.S. Congressman Irwin Delmore Davidson, presiding at the trial of seven New York teenagers who will go to the electric chair if found guilty of first degree murder, is the father of three young sons.

The carefully picked all-male jury has perhaps a dozen or more other sons of ages roughly comparable to the teenagers on trial.

The 27 lawyers Judge Davidson appointed to defend the seven on trial for the pitiless murder last July 30 of a 15-year-old polio victim who tried to take a swim in a racially-disputed New York public pool, have many sons, too.

And so have the trial reporters, and perhaps even some of the curious people who queue up to get into Judge Davidson's court each day—as if it were a TV showing of "The Blackboard Jungle."

Maybe it is.

But it is a terrible and depressing thing for parents to watch, as it unfolds under the testimony of boys like Roger McShane, who barely survived the attack which pitilessly and without premeditation killed 15-year-old Michael Farmer.

One winces at occasional laughter in the court, as swarms of lawyers approach the court for consultation, or Asst. District Attorney Robert Reynolds clashes with the colorful Irving Mendelson, one of the attorneys of a well-scrubbed, fine-looking 15-year-old defendant named Richard Hills.

It seems a great obscenity to laugh in such an atmosphere. For here is ultimate tragedy—whatever the verdict—tragedy based on poverty, the erosion of authority at home, divorce, desertion, bad schooling, a collapse of moral training, loss of religion, man's inhumanity, public indifference to seething racial problems, horrible housing, murder.

The sheer quantity of the defense lawyers has been questioned. I asked the judge about this and he was incensed by what had been written and said.

His point was that in the interests of justice he called upon the best available men in New York and they had responded nobly. As a result, each of the seven defendants is supplied—at the expense of the state—with a known courtroom lawyer, a law book buff, and one or more investigators with legal training.

They have all agreed to split the $2,000 the state allows each defendant in a murder case of this degree; thus the internationally famed James D. C. Murray, a distinguished man who can command many thousands of dollars to represent a client in court, and has for 51 years, will work for perhaps three months on this case for $500.

Some of the older hands around the court swear that the jury will never send seven boys—including two 15-year-olds—to the chair.

They guess the judge, in his charge, will present (rather than offer) other degrees of murder, other shades of guilt. Still others among the knowing would bet they all go.

In the end it will come down to the judge's charge and the jury's and, as of now, nobody seems to have much appetite to go through with the horrid business at judicial hand.

Methodists Worship in Jewish Center

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The main chapel of Trinity Methodist Church was wrecked by fire Wednesday night. The neighboring Oxford Circle Jewish Community Center offered its building for regular weekly services and Sunday school classes.

Rabbi Paul Teicher of another nearby synagogue, recently discharged from the Air Force, contracted a Catholic naval chaplain and obtained a portable field organ from the Navy for use by Trinity Methodist. The synagogues have no organ.

Junior Editors Quiz on VALENTINES

QUESTION: How did the custom of giving valentines start?

ANSWER: February 14 is the feast day of three different martyrs, all of whom have the name of Saint Valentine. One was a Roman priest who was beheaded about 269 A.D. The second was a bishop believed to have been beheaded in Rome in 273 A.D. The third, about whom little is known, was a martyr in Africa.

There is no connection between these martyrs and the custom of sending cards and love tokens on Saint Valentine's Day. It just happened that the day selected to honor the martyrs fell on the same day as an ancient Roman festival in which lovers exchanged gifts. During the festival, young men and women who did not have sweethearts drew lots. The couples then exchanged gifts and cards and often married before the year was up. The cards eventually came to be called valentines, after the saints.

FOR YOU TO DO: For your mother or best friend, make a valentine by drawing a big heart on white paper, cutting it out, coloring it red, and writing a message on the back. Or can you design a better one than this?

(Today's prize of $10 for sending in this question goes to Kristin Goff of Midland, Mich. If you have a good question send it on a postcard to Violet Moore Higgins, AP Newsfeatures, in care of The Pontiac Press. Tomorrow: What was Esau's birthright and why did he sell it?)

Wayne Gets AEC Grant

Estimate 4-Year Life Expectancy for U.S. Moon

NEW YORK (AP) — Explorer, the first U.S. satellite, has a probable lifetime of about four years, an Army scientist said.

He also said that existing missiles could be used for a four-day trip to the moon — but that some improvement in the steering guidance system would be needed for accuracy.

These estimates came from Dr. Walter Haeussermann, chief of guidance and control for the Army ballistic missile agency. He headed the guidance work that aimed the Jupiter-C rocket and its satellite cargo at its orbit.

Dr. Haeussermann said that it takes larger and more complex guidance systems to hit a target with a ballistic missile than to put a satellite in orbit.

The guidance system of the Jupiter-C would not be sufficient to hit the moon, he said. He also said that the Jupiter-C rocket itself was not powerful enough to reach the moon.

Would-Be Extortionist Forgets to Investigate

DETROIT (AP) — This amateur extortionist didn't do enough basic research before he taped notes to two separate doors in a Detroit apartment building.

One note said: "If you don't leave $50 taped to the wall leading to the roof by Thursday, I will tell your wife you are fooling around with another woman."

Police said the tenant of one apartment is an unmarried woman. The tenant in the other is a bachelor.

Pontiac Man Guilty in Fatal Shooting

James Witherspoon, of 130 Wessen St., will be sentenced to the mandatory confinement Feb. 24 by Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

The jury deliberated about 20 minutes Thursday and returned the verdict of guilty of first-degree murder, climaxing a 2½-day trial before Judge Doty.

Witherspoon shot Wright three times with a .38-caliber revolver Nov. 18 in a shoe shine parlor at 92 Bagley St., following an argument over a $5 bill won by Wright in a dice game.

3 of 9 Olds Dealers Closing in St. Louis

ST. LOUIS — Three of nine Oldsmobile automobile agencies in St. Louis are going out of business.

One is "giving up" his franchise at the request of General Motors Corp., according to a G.M. spokesman in Detroit.

Another local Olds dealer is shutting down because of competition, and a third is closing as a result of a three-month long salesmen's strike.

An auto company spokesman in Detroit said the closing of Simms Auto Co. here "is the start of the realignment program" which was first discussed publicly a month ago.

Early Market Prices Mixed

Key stocks showed narrow changes, generally within a 1-point spread.

The opening was fairly active then turnover slackened. While the market stemmed a six-day decline yesterday it did no more than hold its ground. Today, corporate news remained spotty and usual pre-weekend caution was in evidence.

Rubbers, farm implements and radio-televisions were firm. Motors, steels, oils, rails, base metals and tobaccos were irregular.

Chrysler was fairly active and up a major fraction following publication of its 1957 financial report which included the highest dollar sales in history. Scant interest was shown in General Tire which also reported record sales.

Tobaccos, which have been market leaders, took a breathing spell. Lorillard was firm while American Tobacco dropped a fraction.

State Puts Skids to New Sewers

A halt to new construction of sewer and drain outlets connecting with the Southeastern Oakland County Sewage Disposal system was ordered today by the state health department.

The move was designed to prevent additconal overloading of sewers and drains in the fast-growing "Twelve Town" area of the county.

The twelve communities served by the system currently ae waiting for a court ruling clearing the wayy for a $50 million interceptor and relef sewer program.

W. F. Shephard, director of the health department's engineering division, said, "The Southeastern Oakland County area has grown by 75,000 in the past five years and another 80,000 are expected by 1965." We want to make sure that there will be ampple sewage capacity before houses are built for these people."

'Moon' Traveler 'Simmering Down,' Sleeping More

Sandman Slows Farrell

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Spaceman Donald Farrell was in the home stretch of his make-believe moon voyage today as Air Force scientists claimed the real thing could be done "very soon."

Farrell, six-foot, 23-year-old airman from the Bronx, N.Y., spent more time sleeping, but the head of the Space Medicine School at Randolph Air Force Base said the young man was only "simmering down" from nervousness of his first few days in the space cabin.

Farrell passes the 120-hour mark in the compact cabinet today. He'll emerge from the "trip," a simulated space voyage in nearly every way, Sunday, at 9:35 a.m., exactly seven days after he entered the chamber.

Lt. Col. George Steinkamp, head of the department on space medicine, School of Aviation Medicine, Randolph Air Force Base, said he believed Farrell would gain weight during the make-believe journey.

Steinkamp's briefing disclosed that a manned space flight is "practical very soon." Regenerating equipment modification and solution of problems connected with recovering a satellite remain as barriers.

Dr. Hubertus Strughold, a member of the Space Medicine School's staff and reputed father of space medicine, agree that modification would have to include weight as a main factor.

The chief duty of a man in a satellite will be to monitor electronic equipment, Steinkamp said. Man's reactions, he told newsmen aren't fast enough to pilot a space craft in the sense that a man pilots a supersonic plane.

Asked what he had learned up to date on the space cabin experiment, Steinkamp said: "We have learned that Airman Farrell on his fourth day in the cabin is in perfect shape and that the crews are a heck of a lot more tired than he is."

Dr. Strughold, a German scientist, said a man could be put into space next month if the mechanical equipment were ready.

"The main problem," Steinkamp added, "is bringing a man back to earth."

Valentine Pleas From Heart All Wrong, He Says

NEW YORK (INS)—Will lover boy's heart really "break" tomorrow if you turn down his plea to "be my Valentine?"

Dr. H. M. Marvin, former president of the American Heart association, says it is virtually impossible to break the human heart.

He admits that "heartbreak" long has been the leading cause of death among heroines of romantic fiction. In "You And Your Heart," he explains:

"Parted lovers, disappointed statesmen, grieving parents or children, cast off mistresses, deposed rulers, frustrated artists were said to have died of heartbreak.

"The heart was held to be the seat of emotions, probably because it was noticed that the beat was faster under stress of excitement or passion or fear.

"The language would be poorer for the loss of all this metaphoric embroidery, but perhaps general understanding of the heart would be a gainer."

LITTLE RESEMBLANCE

For one thing, the human heart looks more like an oversized ripe fig than the pert red affair on valentines. At its widest point it ranges in size from 4½ to 6 inches.

The human heart is a real workhorse. Every day it pumps from five to 10 tons of blood through your blood pipelines — and it weighs less than a pound.

Actually, if the Valentine makers wanted to pick a part of the body that "breaks" easily, they would have been more correct medically if they had selected the kidneys.

Medical science holds that these far from romantic organs are the weakest link in the body. And it is known that emotional upsets — like getting a "no" from a Valentine—can affect the kidneys much more than hearts.

Can you imagine getting a Valentine that says:

"If not, my kidneys will break."

Meany's Friend to Head Union?

Expect Delaney to Be Elected President of Operating Engineers

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Joseph J. Delaney of New York today was expected to be elected president of the 280,000-member International Union of Operating Engineers to succeed William E. Maloney.

★ ★ ★

Maloney quit a week ago in the wake of charges by the Senate Rackets Committee that his 18-year-old rule of the union of hoisting machine operatives had been marked by strongarm methods and lavish personal use of union funds.

Delaney, 61, is a lifelong friend of AFL-CIO President George Meany and was elected six months ago as secretary-treasurer of the engineers union.

Hunter P. Wharton of Pittsburgh, a union vice president and assistant to Maloney since 1950, was due to be elected secretary-treasurer in place of Delaney.

The union's executive board met here for the main purpose of naming Maloney's successor and filling other posts as required by the change in union leadership.

Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa named Einar O. Mohn, 51, as chairman of the Teamsters 11-state Western Conference. The choice was expected. Mohn replaces Frank W. Brewster.

★ ★ ★

Mohn, former Los Angeles Teamsters council head, has been administrative vice president in the union's Washington headquarters for five years. Brewster opposed Hoffa's election to succeed Dave Beck as president, and failed himself to be re-elected a vice president.

Republicans Bid for County Win

'No Holds Barred' Meet Set for Tuesday Night in Pontiac

Victory in the coming elections will be the target of Oakland County Republicans when they officially kick-off their 1958 campaign Tuesday night.

The occasion will be a public meeting at 7:45 in the auditorium at the County Office Building, 1 Lafayette St.

Several top state Republicans will be present to report on party accomplishments to date and outline objectives. Among them will be John B. Martin Jr., national committeeman, Larry Lindemer, state chairman, and State Finance Chairman Don E. Ahrens.

Ahrens, retired General Motors Corp. vice president, said he would review the financial status of the state organization. "It will be a favorable report," Ahrens, of 540 Haverhill Rd., Bloomfield Hills, said.

★ ★ ★

In addition to the state leaders, Senator L. Harvey Lodge, Rep. Farrell Roberts (R-West Bloomfield Township), Register of Deeds Daniel T. Murphy Jr., Arthur Elliott, county chairman, and Jack Gibbs, committee executive secretary, will speak.

Elliott urged all interested Republicans to attend the "no holds barred" meeting.

Ford Claims Edge Over Chevy in Sales

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. says final registration figures for 1957 gave its Ford Division a 37,329-unit edge over it nearest competitor, General Motors' Chevrolet Divison, in 1957 auto sales.

Ford said final new car registration figures for last year, compiled by R. L. Polk Co., automobile industry statisticians, gave Ford 1,493,617 registrations to 1,456,288 for Chevrolet. The figures cover the sales of 1957 and 1958 models produced in 1957.

Ford said Polk placed the total new car registration for 1957 at 5,982,342 units, and said its Ford Division gained 25 per cent of the 1957 automobile market.

The Polk figures, Ford said, gave it a lead of 23,670 units over Chevrolet in combined car-truck registrations in 1957. Ford had 1,770,918 to 1,747,248 for Chevrolet.

Ford said its share of the expanding auto market has increased 11 per cent in the last 10 years. Polk reported 3,490,952 new car registrations in 1958.

Bellaire Market Burns

BELLAIRE (AP) — Fire destroyed the Market Basket grocery in Bellaire Thursday with loss estimated at $15,000 by owner Robert J. Helms. Firemen from Bellaire and Central Lakes fought the flames in 18 below zero temperatures.

Business Notes

The appointment of Daniel Chieger, of 3406 Devon Brook Dr., Bloomfield Hills, as director of engineering for the automotive divisions of Young Spring and Wire Corp., was announced recently.

Chieger joined the company in 1942 as a member of the metallurgy department and was appointed assistant director of engineering in 1953. He has been in charge of sales engineering since 1955 and will now head the company's product development, tooling and plant engineering projects in the automotive field.

To Close Indiana Plant

KOKOMO, Ind. (AP) — Chrysler Corp. will close its automatic transmission plant here all next week and will recall its 2,800 workers on a five-day week basis Feb. 24. A company spokesman said the closing is intended "to balance inventory of production parts."

Chrysler Tells of Record Year

33 Pct. Jump in Sales Pushes Share Earnings to $13.75 From $2.29

NEW YORK (AP)—Chrysler Corp. says its 1957 sales achieved a new record high and its earnings last year were more than six times higher than in 1956.

L. L. Colbert, president, said yesterday Chrysler earnings jumped to $119,952,406 equal to $13.75 per common share from the $19,952,969 or $2.29 a share reported in 1956.

Chrysler said its sales rose 33 per cent last year to a record high of $3,564,982,510 and that the company accounted for 19.5 per cent of the industry total. The company's 1956 sales were $2,676,334,431. The previous sales high was $3,466,222,350 in 1955.

Chrysler Corp. models "won wide public recognition and approval of their advanced styling and engineering," said Colbert of the spectacular response to the swept wings and tail fins.

In 1955 and 1956, Chrysler claimed around 17 per cent of industry sales. Its share was 13 per cent in 1954 and over 20 per cent in 1953.

For the fourth quarter of 1957, earnings totaled $16,376,920 or $1.88 a share versus $13,680,617 or $1.57 a share in the same quarter the year before.

Directors declared the usual dividend of 75 cents on the common stock, payable March 14 to shareholders of record Feb. 24. Last year, Chrysler paid 75 cents in each quarter plus an extra of $1 in the closing quarter.

Produce Prices Still Climbing

Cost of Vegetables Up Because of Cold Waves Hitting Florida

NEW YORK (AP) — Housewives can expect higher vegetable prices for several months because of the cold waves that hit Florida this winter, produce men say.

Peppers, beans, cucumbers, eggplant and to some extent tomatoes have been the hardest hit by the cold weather — the worst in the 30-odd years of Florida's reign as major winter supplier of the nation's vegetables.

These vegetables are expected to show the biggest gains in prices, although others such as squash, sweet corn, escarole, lettuce, celery, cauliflower and cabbage also will be higher.

As examples of the price jumps, peppers hit a record $20 a bushel at the wholesale level this week compared with $4 to $4.50 a bushel a year ago. Beans sold at $13 to $15 a bushel compared with $7 to $8 a year ago.

Frozen orange juice sold at an average of 20.6 cents per can during the week ended Feb. 1 compared with an average of 16.36 cents per can a year earlier.

DIAGNOSIS

I was given a thorough examination by my agent! I am six years old and hale and hearty in my 5 rooms and bath. Because I am of masonry construction, and on an 80 x 112-ft. lot, I am expected to offer many years of service. My wiring is in excellent condition, my heating is capable of running a fever when the weather makes it necessary. My roofing is normal. My life expectancy will more than qualify me for a mortgage. My location will permit you enjoying Elizabeth Lake. I am worth more than $14,950, but will be happy if you continue to give me the good treatment I am accustomed to. TO SEE HOW WELL I LOOK, CALL NOW!

Western Rates as Good Gamble

Producer Claims That Series Filled Vacuum on Sunday Night TV

By CHARLES DENTON

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — A comparatively unheralded western with a little-known star is threatening to do to TV's two major variety shows what talking pictures did to vaudeville.

★ ★ ★

"Maverick," an hour-long film show turned out by Warner Bros., has both Ed Sullivan and Steve Allen ducking rating bullets like rustlers at a Texas Ranger station.

According to Trendex, the ABC-TV entry has topped Steve Allen on NBC 11 out of the past 14 Sunday nights, and has trampled Ed Sullivan on CBS seven times in the same 14 weeks.

If the trend of the Trendex continues, one or both of the big, flossy video vaudeville shows may be in for some budget pruning—or perhaps worse.

What's behind this apparent desertion of audience from the showmen who once thought they had the 8 to 9 p.m. Sunday night hour all to themselves?

30-MINUTE EDGE

No doubt one important factor is that "Maverick" hits the home screens 30 minutes ahead of Allen and Sullivan with an hour-long dramatic show. The ratings show that both Allen and Sullivan pick up viewers in the second half-hours of their shows—after "Maverick" has gone to the barn.

Another, according to "Maverick" executive producer William T. Orr, is that Allen and Sullivan created a "vacuum" in the prime Sunday night viewing time which was just waiting to be filled.

"'Maverick'," says Orr, "fills a vacuum that has existed for several years—a vacuum created by two competing variety shows which present name performers in vaudeville acts.

"These shows draw from a common pool of talent, and after several times around, the same faces pop up on the competing show. Outside of these programs, there has been a complete void, and that's exactly where 'Maverick' stepped in."

Although it might appear at first glance that Orr, like Bret and Bart Maverick, is a gambler, actually he wagered against fairly enticing odds when he put "Maverick" up against two of TV's most powerful shows.

COULD WHIP COMICS

As the pilot of "Cheyenne," Warners' only previously successful television venture, he learned that a solid, hour-long western series could whip the spangled pants off the likes of Phil Silvers, Edgar Bergen and Martha Raye.

"This proved a big point," he says. "It proved that a vast slice of the American viewing audience was ready and eager to accept a full hour of pure dramatic entertainment.

"The fact that it was a western drama made it even better for never in history has the western field enjoyed such peak popularity."

The gamble, if any, was in the selection of a star to play Bret Maverick, described by Orr as "a roamer, destination anywhere; a gambler, for money, laughs or life; a fighter, sometimes for something, often for nothing; a lover, a six-foot, three-inch prime target for the women who drift in and out of his checkered life."

Although a "name" star might have been indicated for such a chore as meeting Sullivan and Allen in a big-money showdown, Warners chose 29-year-old James Garner, a handsome 200-pounder who has wandered almost as far afield as Maverick in his day.

Garner was born in Norman, Okla., one of three sons of Weldon and Mildred Bumgarner. His mother died when he was five.

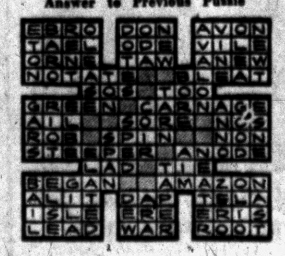

At the age of 16, he began drifting, first to sea with the Merchant Marine and later to Hollywood to join his father, who had gone into the carpet contracting business. He modeled bathing suits for a time, worked with his father and pumped gasoline in a service station.

During the Korean War, he served with the Fifth Regimental Combat Team of the 24th Division and earned a Purple Heart.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Diana Now Uses Pill in Fight Against Bottle

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The Barefoot Wife answered the phone barefoot and handed it to me. "It's Diana," she said.

"Diana who?" I asked.

★ ★ ★

"Now you know there's only one Diana?" shouted Diana Barrymore with a hoarse, cheery laugh. She was speaking from New Jersey. "You might be interested to know how I'm making out with the little pill I'm taking to beat the booze.

WILSON

"Yeah, honey, Antibuse," she hastened. "Violent! Why, they say if you take a drink, you don't die but you wish you could. I've been on it two months today. Take one little pill every day. I took some cough medicine that had a little alcohol in it and even that made me sick.

"I drank for five weeks in Milwaukee with my show without overdoing it. But the minute I wasn't working - - -.

"So now I'm doing 'Streetcar' in Fort Lee, N. J. They even held me over another week! For two months I've been swiggin' gingerale and no-cal orange juice. The way I feel now, I plan to stay on this forever.

"I thought you might want to know about this," Diana said, "because once when I gave you a story about me going on the wagon, you said: 'Now don't let me down.' I did though. Just wanted you to know the broad is really trying!"

★ ★ ★

The Wilson Girl nominations pour in. Which d'you prefer today—Ann Louise Forstenzer of Long Island or Robbi Palmer of N. Y., and Cleveland, a former Miss Ohio?

Disc Data and Chatter

Music in the Round

by Dick Saunders

Sometimes— entirely superior LPs in the it doesn't pay to be "top banana," as this week's list of top five sellers in the Pontiac area proves. For three straight weeks "Short Shorts" by the Royal Teens remained in second place, each time being beaten out by a slightly hotter disc.

The record seems destined for second, since this week it is topped again, only by a new item "Sweet Little Sixteen" by Chuck Berry. The catch is that all the other "top bananas" have fallen by the wayside while "Short Shorts" has stuck.

In third place, the poll shows "Twenty-Six Miles" by the Four Preps. Fourth in sales is "Maybe" by the Chantels and fifth is "Oh Julie" by The Crescendos. Whatsmore, all are well anchored, with no near ties in the balloting.

ALBUMS: Best sellers locally at this point is the Sam Cooks LP (Keen A-2001) which the teenagers seem to think is as basic to a record player as a turntable.

THE JAZZ NEST: As for the 14-album Newport series on Verve that we listed last week, there is much to be said on both sides. Briefly, there's plenty of jazz here, and the bad must be taken with the good. There are few — if any

Union Dispute Heard in Pontiac

City Board of Edueation Dealt Into Argument Between 2 Groups

The Pontiac Board of Education heard a report last night on a jurisdictional dispute between two unions representing maintenance and custodial workers from Assitant Superintendent Otto Hufziger.

The argument which has dragged on for months will be placed for settlement before a committee of two representatives from each union and a neutral person chosen by the board.

Involved are Local 719, AFL-CIO, and the independent United Skilled Maintenance Trades Employes.

The school administration has been negotiating for months with the USMTE to establish job definitions and pay schedules, while Local 714 operated under a contract which it said was satisfactory and required no change.

When the agreements were hammered out with USMTE, Local 714 said it would not sit by and see a smaller union receive gains it did not get and threatened to ask more money for its members than USMTE members got.

Last night, the board was prepared to consider strong action against both groups when the parties agreed to negotiate their differences. the board approved of the negotiations in executive session.

In other executive session buiness, the board chose a principal for Pontiac Northern High School, but no announcement of the choice will be made until certain technicalities are taken care of, Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent, said.

At its public meeting, the board accepted the low bid of $19,262.30 for library furniture and equipment for Pontiac Northern High School offered by F. F. Farnell Co. of Detroit.

The board also authorized the superintendent to enter into negotiations with the Grand Trunk Railroad for land on Cass Avenue to be used as a permanent driver training site.

The board is seeking a long-term lease, too, on land behind Wisner School which it now rents yearly from the Wisner Hostorical Society.

JOANNE CREIGHTON

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Granger of 4494 Granger Rd., Oxford, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Joanne Creighton, to Lt. John P. Lovell of Madison, Wis. Following her graduation from Michigan State University in 1954, Miss Granger faught art in Royal Oak elementary and junior high schools until 1957. The wedding date has not been set.

Pontiac Optimists Hold Ladies Day Luncheon

The Pontiac Optimist Luncheon Club held its second annual Ladies Day luncheon in observance of Valentines Day, Thursday at the Elks Temple, 114 Orchard Lake Ave.

★ ★ ★

An honor choir of 32 students from Baldwin School sang for the members and their wives as part of the program. The featured speaker was Rev. Edward D. Auchard of the Orchard Lake Presbyterian Community Church.

He spoke on "2,004 Children" which concerned orphaned children throughout the world. Each wife present was presented a corsage for the special luncheon.

DETROIT (AP) — Planning of tomorrow's churches will be discussed by more than 1,000 architects and church building experts meeting here Feb. 18-20. Alden P. Dow of Midland will be one of the speakers. Dow received a fellowship in the American Institute of Architects last year for contributions to the advancement of his profession. He also received the 1956 award of merit from the same organization for his design of the First Methodist Church of Midland.

At Detection Center

Find Cancer in 'Well' Men

NEW YORK (INS) — A cancer detection program has alerted 28 per cent of a group of 491 aircraft workers to "pre-cancerous" conditions.

One per cent of the "apparently well, actively employed men" were found to have cancer. Their ages ranged from 50-75.

Once a week since November 1955, about 20 of the aircraft workers traveled to the Strang Cancer Prevention Clinic at Memorial Hospital in New York.

Dr. O'Donnell said:

"With one exception, all of the men in whom the cancer and pre-cancer lesions were detected were free of any symptoms that would have caused them to seek medical attention.

"Significant medical abnormalities not related to cancer but requiring medical care were found in over one-third of the men.

City to Face Hospital Issue

Flath Urges $83,000 Bond Interest Be Paid From Taxes

A second big issue will be aired this month when the City Commission meets with the Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees.

Besides the $250,000 lawsuit brought by ousted staff surgeon Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger against the hospital and city, the question of $83,000 interest on 1952 hospital bonds will come up.

The interest is on the $3 million borrowed to build the hospital addition. In the past, the hospital has paid the annual interest out of its operating profits.

Now Hospital Director Carl I Flath says if the hospital is to get out of the red, the city has to pick up the interest.

The hospital, Flath has said, paid $82,500 in interest last year and wound up about $72,000 in the red.

City Manager Walter K. Willman told commissioners last night that if the city picked up the interest, it would not have to come out of capital improvement funds.

The city already has promised the hospital $950,000 out of capital improvement funds until 1960 to finish paying for the addition.

"We could take the interest out of the half-mill that we never levied for hospital bonds," Willman pointed out. Which portion of the budget would be hit was undecided.

Willman was asked to arrange a meeting with the hospital board Feb. 27. At that time, the board's report on steps leading up to Dr. Sullenberger's suspension Nov 13 and the subsequent litigation would be discussed.

The board submitted the report 10 days ago at the commission's request.

Open 'Valentines' Today for Lonely Ellis Island

NEW YORK (AP)—This is the day they open the Valentines addressed to forlorn Ellis Island, sitting out in the harbor and wondering if it has a lover left in the world.

The Valentines are in the form of bids to buy the 27 acres of land and three dozen red brick buildings through which 20 million immigrants passed to the land of freedom and opportunity.

Electrical Unit OKs Transfers

Waterford Board to Let in Five Journeymen, Contractors

Members of the Waterford Township Electrical Board approved transfer of five contractors and journeymen from other municipalities to the township when they met last night for the first time this year.

At the present time there are 26 electrical contractors and 91 journeymen licensed in the township.

Board members discussed the adoption of the 1956 National Electrical Code and it was referred to township attorney Paul Mandel to work out legal technicalities.

All interested heating contractors will be invited to the next meeting April 10, to discuss the possibilities of establishing a heating ordinance for the township.

A refrigeration code was also discussed and action on the matter will probably be taken on the matter at the next meeting according to clerk James Seeterlin.

Unemployment Talks Sought

Williams, 10 Other Dem Governors Offering Ike Six-Point Program

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams joined 10 other Democratic governors today in asking President Eisenhower for a conference on unemployment.

Eleven of the 29 Democrats elected as governor expressed concern about the national recession and offered to come to Washington to advise the President on a six-point program to check growing unemployment.

Joining Williams in the telegram were the governors of Minnesota, Massachusetts, New York, Oregon, Colorado, Iowa, New Jersey, Maine, Rhode Island and Washington.

The eleven Democrats offered to come to Washington to confer with the President.

1. Prompt progress on highway, hospital and other such construction.

2. An expanding of federal welfare, educational and health programs.

3. Better unemployment insurance.

4. Further easing of credit.

5. Richer farm support programs.

6. A tax cut to help lower income families.
