

Leadership Fight Tearing Party Apart, Barry to Tell Ike, Nixon

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater is ready to tell a Republican summit conference today he thinks the struggle over GOP leadership is tearing the beaten party apart. That was the word from a source close to the defeated Republican presidential nominee as Goldwater prepared to talk politics with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon. The conference was scheduled at 3 p.m. in a suite occupied by Eisenhower in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. There was no word as to exactly when or where the meeting would be held. An Eisenhower aide said the three would meet in the afternoon, but that details had not been worked out. "There is no agenda," said Republican National Chairman Dean Burch. He is here to attend at least part of the discussions that will bring together the three men who have carried the Republican colors in the last four presidential elections. "This is a very informal conference," Burch said. The embattled party chairman, handpicked by Goldwater, said he does not expect the Arizona senator will specifically ask Eisenhower and Nixon about the struggle now going on within the party. The source said Goldwater would explain his views on the battle which pits his conservative followers against GOP moderates. "He will explain that as far as he is concerned, this is tearing the party up," the source said. Eisenhower met twice with Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania at Gettysburg, Pa., yesterday. The talks were described as social with "no political significance." Burch, fighting for his job, said Monday he plans to take his case to the 132 committee members with a letter spelling out his ideas on the issues facing the party.

Urge U.S. Assault on Killer Diseases

WASHINGTON (AP)—A presidential commission called today for an unprecedented national assault on the three greatest killers of Americans—heart disease, cancer and cerebral strokes. Among its major recommendations is creation of a national network of 540 new treatment and other centers. The blue-ribbon group urged immediate implementation of its "realistic battle plan," saying nearly $3 billion in federal funds over five years would be needed as a starter. A spokesman said considerable additional funds and other aid from states and cities also would be required. The 23 physicians, editors, businessmen and others said, in their report to President Johnson, that immediate results could be expected. MANY LIVES Up to several hundred thousands lives a year are "now needlessly sacrificed" because available knowledge is not properly utilized, they said. The commission was appointed last March by Johnson—victim of a heart attack in 1955—to recommend steps to reduce the incidence of the three diseases from which he said two-thirds of all Americans now living would suffer or die unless something is done about it. Collectively, these "three deadly enemies of mankind" kill more than a million Americans a year and take a $30-billion annual economic toll in lost productivity and lost taxes due to premature disability and death, the report said. The commission also said it strongly endorses the conclusions and recommendations of the Surgeon General's Advisory Committee on Smoking and Health which termed cigarette smoking a hazard to health.

Delay Called in Baker Quiz to Plot Future

Senators to Study Whether They Should Explore New Charges WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Rules Committee delayed a public hearing today while its members debated whether to pursue new leads in the politically explosive Bobby Baker case. Hugh Alexander, counsel of the committee, told newsmen the senators were going over "everything that is pending" in an effort to reach a decision on the investigation's future course. Alexander also disclosed that Comptroller of the Currency James Saxon had been called for questioning at the afternoon hearing about the granting of a federal charter to the Redwood National Bank of San Rafael, Calif., last year. The committee was told yesterday that the charter application was approved shortly after the bank's organizers retained Wayne L. Bromley, Washington lobbyist friend of Baker, for $5,000. VENDOR WITNESS Alexander said another witness would be Fred Black Jr., an associate of Baker in the vending machine business, who was convicted earlier this year of income tax evasion. Black is appealing his conviction. Alexander declined to give any details about the committee's closed-door discussion, but he indicated that a decision was in the making on whether to explore new charges leveled by Don B. Reynolds, a local insurance agent, in secret testimony. One of the committee members has told reporters that Reynolds' undisclosed testimony was "pretty lurid."

Other Nations Asked to Copy Russian Move

Nikita, Son-In-Law Absent at Meeting of Russia Parliament MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Alexei N. Kosygin announced today a cut of 500 million rubles—$555 million—in the Soviet Union's military budget for 1965 and called on other major powers to follow suit. Kosygin told the Supreme Soviet, the Soviet Union's rubber-stamp parliament, that the Soviet cut and an expected reduction of military spending in the United States "constitute a definite positive step toward reducing international tension." He said the Soviet Union attaches great importance to the further reduction of the military budgets of the big nations. The new Soviet premier said the military budget next year will total 12.8 billion rubles, or 12.9 per cent of all government expenditures, as against 14.5 per cent in 1964. The military budget in 1964 totaled 13.3 billion rubles and was 600 million rubles less than 1963. Western officials contend that Moscow's official defense spending is disguised under nonmilitary items in the budget, and some Western military analysts believe total military spending this year is well over twice the budgeted figure. RUBLE VALUE The official value of the Soviet ruble is $1.11. Kosygin spoke at the opening of the first Supreme Soviet session since the ouster of Nikita Khrushchev on Oct. 14. Acting on a motion by Leonid I. Brezhnev, Khrushchev's successor as first secretary of the Soviet Communist party, the parliament approved Khrushchev's replacement as premier by Kosygin. Although still a member of the Supreme Soviet, Khrushchev did not appear for the session. Neither did his son-in-law, Alexei Adzhubei, former editor of the government newspaper Izvestia, who also is still a member of the parliament. Kosygin reaffirmed Soviet devotion to Khrushchev's policy of peaceful coexistence and (Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

CHICAGO (AP)—The nation's railroads have filed a petition in U.S. District Court seeking to prevent a scheduled strike 10 days before Christmas by three shop unions. The unions, representing some 53,000 workers, called a walkout yesterday for 6 a.m. Tuesday, after talks broke down in Washington over wages. A strike would cripple 187 railroads and terminal and switching companies which handle more than 90 per cent of the nation's rail traffic, a union spokesman said. Judge Joseph Sam Perry scheduled a hearing today on the railroad petition filed late yesterday.

Close Off Security Council During Debate on Congo

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—In a move to head off any demonstrations when debate on the explosive Congo question opens today, the U.N. has ordered the public barred from the Security Council chamber. Prompted by reports that the Black Muslims and other extreme nationalist groups planned to start an uproar in the council, the U.N. security force announced that only delegates, their aides and members of the press would be admitted during this afternoon's meeting. One nationalist suspected of sparking the violent riots that broke up a council meeting on the Congo in 1961 and injured 19 guards, was reported to have threatened a similar disturbance when the new debate gets underway. A bolstered force of guards and armed plainclothes officials was expected to watch all entrances to the council chamber. Smoldering differences inside the African bloc were expected to flare up during the Congo debate. The first sparks may fly when the council gives the floor to Liberia and Nigeria. Both defended the United States and Belgium against charges by other African nations that the American-Belgian rescue mission to Stanleyville was a flagrant act of interference in the Congo. A blowup was considered certain when Congo Premier Moise Tshombe arrives Saturday to tell the council of massacre and mutilation by the Congolese rebels and to accuse several African states of abetting the Communist-backed rebellion. A number of African governments have denounced Tshombe for using white mercenaries against the rebels and have accused him of seeking Western intervention to bolster his government.

Gemini Test Is Aborted at Last Second

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—The Space Agency tried to launch an unmanned Gemini two-man space capsule on a re-entry and recovery test today, but last second trouble resulted in shutdown after the Titan 2 booster rocket engine was ignited. When the countdown reached one second, flames burst from the base of the 90-foot-tall rocket. But they died quickly and the Titan 2 remained locked firmly on its pad, surrounded by a cloud of reddish orange smoke and apparently undamaged. The Titan 2 and the 5,900-pound spacecraft were saved from possible destruction by an electronic system which detected something wrong and sent a signal to stop the engines. The Titan 2 first stage has two engines generating a total thrust of 420,000 pounds. Massive steel arms are designed to hold the rocket on the pad for 3.5 seconds after engine ignition to give the electronic system a chance to find trouble. If there is none, the arms swing back and free the booster.

N-Force Objectives Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—British Prime Minister Harold Wilson said today his talks with President Johnson have been completely successful in setting objectives for the formation of a nuclear weapons force in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and laying guidelines for Allied consultation. Wilson also declared at a news conference winding up his Washington conferences that "we are prepared to go forward with all proposals" including a U.S. plan for an Allied jointly owned and mixed-manned nuclear surface fleet. West Germany would be a member of this force. Wilson expressed hope that the French government of President Charles de Gaulle will be interested in the new, broadened approach to a solution of the nuclear weapons problem in NATO which has been worked out here. "I hope they will come to see those problems as we see them," Wilson said. He declined to be drawn into a detailed discussion of the proposals which he made to Johnson, saying he will deal with them and with his policy toward the U.S. multilateral force plan in a speech in the House of Commons next week. DIDN'T SPECIFY He would not say at this time whether Britain would be willing to be an active member of the mixed-manned force or would help pay for it. Britain's primary interests, however, is in getting creation of the nuclear force to which the British would assign their bomber and prospective nuclear submarine units with Allied sharing of the costs as well as the strategic control. In two days of conferences ended last night, Wilson and Johnson agreed that the United States and Britain will start urgent consultations with other nations this week aimed at working out the broadened NATO nuclear program in more concrete detail. Most of the questions during a 30-minute news conference were concerned with the intricate problem of Western nuclear defense and the multilateral nuclear force known as MLF.

Wilson Says Talks Successful

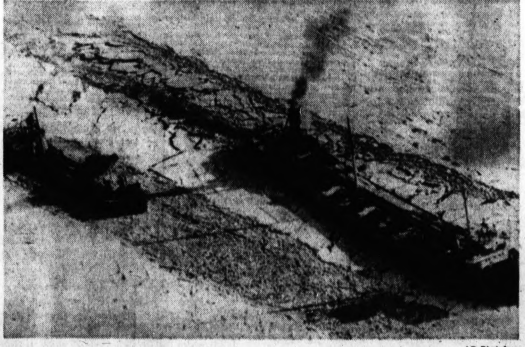

DETROIT (AP)—U.S. District Attorney Lawrence Gubow said today a federal grand jury has returned a 117-count indictment against State Rep. Daniel W. West, already accused of being a masquerader, tax cheat and vote manipulator. Gubow said the indictment includes 83 charges of falsely filing income tax refund claims and 34 counts of uttering and publishing (forgery). Maximum penalty on each of the false refund charges is a $10,000 fine and five years in prison. On the other charge, West could get 10 years in prison and a $1,000 fine for each of the counts. Gubow said West will be arraigned tomorrow. Government attorneys had asked the grand jury to indict the 44-year-old Democratic Detroit legislator in what federal men have called a $250,000 income tax swindle.

S. Viets Retake Key Hill; Yank Is Killed in Ambush

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Government forces won the battle of An Lao today by recapturing a strategic hill from Communist guerrillas. But fighting erupted at a dozen other places in central Viet Nam and another American was killed.

A U.S. infantry officer died in a Viet Cong ambush on Highway No. 1 in coastal Phu Yen Province.

The toll of Americans killed in combat in South Viet Nam in the last three years rose to 221. Deaths from other war-related causes are listed at 95. Nearly 1,500 Americans have been wounded. Ten are missing and nine are detained by the Communists.

About a dozen Americans have been wounded in various areas of South Viet Nam this week.

DEATH TOLL

The toll of dead and wounded among Vietnamese units heavily engaged with the Communists has not yet been announced, but is expected to be high.

TOKYO (AP) — Communist North Viet Nam charged that three U.S. and South Vietnamese warships shelled a North Vietnamese village today for 15 minutes. Peking's New China News Agency, in a broadcast monitored here, said a protest was filed with A. M. Rahman, Indian chairman of the International Control Commission in Hanoi.

ly engaged with the Communists has not yet been announced, but is expected to be high.

The An Lao Valley was the scene of a hard, three-day action.

One U.S. soldier was killed, another was missing and two were wounded at the end of the fierce fighting in the valley 30 miles northeast of Saigon. More than 50 Vietnamese government soldiers were believed killed.

The Communists suffered at least 30 dead but captured two 4.2-inch mortars—the largest in general use in Viet Nam—and 300 rounds of ammunition. They also destroyed or damaged five armored amphibious personnel carriers.

A Vietnamese division commander said American air power saved the day. "Except for the helicopters, I'm sure the district headquarters would have been lost," he declared.

GUNNER KILLED

The army said Pfc. Arthur A. Shelton of Loyalton, Calif., a helicopter gunner, was killed by small arms fire as his ship escorted a medical evacuation helicopter into the valley.

Spec. 5 William R. Hamlin of Seattle, Wash., was reported missing. He was with three armored personnel carriers that were destroyed by Viet Cong fire as they rolled into the valley.

The Viet Cong overran the hill Monday night, capturing two heavy 4.2 inch mortars and 300 rounds of ammunition from a Vietnamese camp atop the hill. They hung on through Tuesday night despite constant aerial bombardment.

A U.S. military spokesman said government troops attempted to dislodge the Viet Cong were "heavily engaged" with the enemy at midday.

Indonesia Shuts Down USIA Unit

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Indonesian officials closed down the activities of the U.S. Information Agency today in Surabaya, capital of East Java, saying there was danger of more anti-American violence.

Officials in Surabaya told the U.S. consulate the closing was necessary "in order to maintain law and order." USIA Director Paul N. Nelson told a news conference in Jakarta.

A mob pillaged the USIA library in Surabaya Monday night, burning books, furniture, a mobile unit and a car. Last Friday, another mob sacked the U.S. cultural center and its library in Jakarta.

Both mobs protested U.S. intervention in the Congo to save lives held by the Congolese rebels and an American support for Malaysia. Indonesia's President Sukarno has vowed to crush Malaysia.

DELAYS TRIP

U.S. Ambassador Howard P. Jones postponed a trip to Surabaya today to survey the damage after the ministry of police informed him at the airport that his presence in the East Java port might touch off new demonstrations.

Allan McLean, U.S. consul in Surabaya, reported two rooms of the library there were demolished and about 25 per cent of its 15,000 books were burned or torn up.

Nelson said the information service operated the library and two mobile units in the Surabaya area. He said the embassy was trying to obtain more information on the shutdown order.

The library in Jakarta also lost about a fourth of its 15,000 books but has reopened. The USIA library in Jogjakarta, in central Java, has been closed since demonstrators invaded it in August, protesting American support of Malaysia. The information agency also operates a library in Medan, capital of North Sumatra, and a reading room in Makassar, in South Celebes.

2 Prosecutors Plan to Resign To Enter Private Law Practice After Dec. 31

Two Oakland County assistant prosecutors, Daniel C. Devine and Charles J. Porter, announced today that they have resigned their posts, effective Dec. 31.

Both will enter private law practice with Prosecutor Richard P. Condit when he returns to the Birmingham firm of Condit, Denison & Devine.

Condit, whose term expires at the end of this month, was appointed prosecuting attorney by the county's seven Circuit Judges in March to fill a vacancy created by the resignation of George F. Taylor.

In the Nov. 3 election, Madison Heights Attorney S. Jerome Bronson was elected to the office. Condit did not seek the post.

Devine, 30, of 16121 Lauderdale, Beverly Hills, was appointed an assistant prosecutor in 1962, serving in both the Pontiac and Royal Oak offices on major felony cases.

Formerly Devine was with the Workmen's Compensation Department of Chrysler Corp. and also served as Oakland County Probate Court attorney.

The 28-year-old Porter, 2016 W. 12 Mile, Royal Oak, joined the prosecutor's office in 1963 and has been the assistant in charge of the Appellate Division. He previously had served as law clerk to Chief Justice Thomas M. Kavanagh of the Michigan Supreme Court.

Carter Trial in Flint Now in 2nd Week

The conspiracy trial of Flint businessman Samuel M. Catsman and former Pontiac and Flint City Manager Robert A. Flint moved into its second week yesterday in Genesee County Circuit Court.

Claude O. Darby Sr., a land purchasing agent at the time of the alleged conspiracy, testified before Circuit Judge Edward T. Kane of Port Huron.

Catsman, 58, and Carter, 48, are charged with conspiracy to cheat and defraud the city by obtaining money under false pretenses in connection with the now defunct Port Huron water supply system.

Catsman has waived trial by jury. Circuit Judge Kane, who is presiding, will decide Catsman's fate.

A jury of seven men and seven women will decide Carter's fate.

Darby, under questioning by prosecutor Robert F. Leonard, said Catsman asked him at one time if he wanted to work for the city in connection with the pipeline project.

Darby said this was several weeks before he was officially contacted by city officials.

Nab Bandit Suspect With Copter's Help

ATLANTA (AP)—A wild chase involving speeding police cars and a helicopter ended in the capture of a man today after an attempt to rob a bank.

A young woman was held briefly as a hostage, and a bank employee and his family had been held overnight before the attempted robbery of a branch of the Citizens and Southern National Bank in Northwest Atlanta. No money was taken.

The FBI said a search was under way for another man with a rifle who reportedly had been seen on the roof of the bank.

Police said at one time two automobiles were being chased through a fashionable Northwest Atlanta neighborhood. One of the cars crashed into trees, but the driver escaped in another automobile.

The young woman who was released by the fleeing man was identified as Susan Engle, a bank teller. She was taken to a hospital for examination, and later returned to the bank for questioning.

Police say Ray West, an employee of the bank, was with the fleeing man.

Gov. Romney Follows Through on Promise

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney invited 13 Democratic legislative leaders to meet with him Tuesday for preliminary discussions about the Michigan budget.

The invitations issued today followed through on a post-election promise by Republican Romney to consult with Democrats who will control both houses.

I hope you are able to meet with us at that time."

CNB Enters Low Bid Again

8th Straight Time on R20 Loan Notes

Eight was the magic number last night for Community National Bank of Pontiac.

The local bank, for the eighth straight time, was the low bidder on R20 urban renewal project preliminary loan notes.

A tabulation of eight bids was submitted to the City Commission last night with CNB lowest, asking a 2.00 per cent annual interest rate for $34.6 million in preliminary loan notes.

The commission authorized the sale to CNB.

MINOR CHANGES

First drafted in 1963, the amendatory makes minor changes in land use, boundaries and zoning, according to James L. Bates, Planning Director.

The principal change adds an area north of the old Clinton River channel, east of Saginaw, and north to Water.

Bates said that the boundary revision adds portions of two city blocks to the R20 project.

The amendatory also changes the projected use of about 3½ acres south of Auburn, east of Saginaw and west of Wide Track.

WAS SLATED

Previously, this area was slated for commercial and parking use. However, now it is planned to accommodate high-rise multiple housing, said Bates.

The amendatory application, which must be approved by the Housing and Home Finance Agency of the federal government, also adds several residential structures to the urban renewal project.

In addition to slightly enlarging the area of the R20 project, the amendatory seeks increased credits for city expenditures for the Clinton River Drain, avoiding any actual cash outlay by the city.

4 Hospitalized After Car Crash

Four persons were hospitalized last night following a collision on Sashabaw near Clarkson Road in Independence Township.

Lined in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital are David L. Marcum, 19, of 6889 Manson and Victor W. Sullivan, 19, of 3590 Breaker, both of Waterford Township; and Edward E. Day, 68, of 197 S. Jessie and his wife, Marguerite, 61.

Sheriff's deputies said the car Marcum was driving, which was traveling south, collided with the northbound Day vehicle, which was apparently making a left turn off Sashabaw.

Sullivan and three other youths were passengers in the Marcum car. Two of the three were treated for minor injuries at the hospital and released.

Marcum told officers that as he broke over the top of a hill he saw Day's car, but was unable to stop.

Water Ordinance Will Be Reviewed

Waterford Township Board members will review and consider for adoption a revised operating and water ordinance for the water system at a special meeting tonight.

Present ordinances were drawn for the former water systems bond issues. The revised ordinance will pertain to the townshipwide central system now under construction.

Louis Schimmel, financial consultant, Milton Thompson, bonding attorney, and Donald Ringler, deputy director of the Oakland County Department of Public Works, will be present.

The proposed ordinance will provide for operation of the water system, fixing rates and charges and establishing rules and regulations governing the system.

Birmingham Area News

Bloomfield Hills Force to Gain Three Patrolmen

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The city's police force will be increased by nearly 30 per cent in an effort to curb traffic problems here.

The City Commission last night, authorized the hiring of three new patrolmen, to be added as soon as possible to the existing staff of 11.

Salaries for the new men are expected to total some $20,000, according to City Manager Elmer Kephart.

The move is seen as one answer to the traffic problems under discussion before the commission for over a year.

Addition of the three men will allow changes in scheduling to provide that two patrol cars will be on the road more of the time, Kephart said.

THROUGHOUT CITY

He noted that increased enforcement will not be concentrated in any one area but will be spread throughout the city.

In other action, the commission denied the rezoning request of Birmingham developer Howard T. Keating, owner of several lots in Bloomfield Hills subdivision.

Keating had asked that the lots he owns be changed from multiple residence to commercial classification. The property in question, on the south side of Long Lake east of Woodward, is within the tentative route of the city's proposed peripheral road.

The city planning commission had recommended that the City Commission deny the request.

Alleged Tax Swindle

Call in U.S. Grand Jury in West Case

DETROIT (AP) — A federal grand jury was asked Tuesday to look into the activities of State Rep. Daniel W. West, alleged masquerader, tax cheat and voting manipulator.

Government attorneys asked the grand jury Tuesday to indict the 54-year-old Detroit legislator in what federal men have called a $250,000 income tax swindle.

West, twice in court already, is free in $10,500 bonds awaiting a federal examination Jan. 6, and his trial in a state court for alleged voting fraud. The trial starts Monday.

U. S. District Atty. Lawrence Gubow and his chief assistant, William Merrill, went before the grand jury 24 hours after West was freed in $10,000 bond in the false tax returns case.

SEPARATE ACTION

The latter proceeding was brought on a criminal information. The government's request for a grand jury indictment is a separate action for the same alleged offense.

West is accused of preparing fake income tax returns for taxpayer clients and bilking the government on refunds.

He is free in $500 bond in the vote fraud case. He is accused of influencing voters to falsify

U. S., India to Discuss New Taxation Treaty

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States and India plan to begin discussions soon on a new tax treaty designed to avoid double taxation and foster trade and investment.

A proposed treaty was signed in 1959 but was never made effective. It contained a tax-sparing clause under which the United States would have allowed credit to U.S. taxpayers for reductions given them by India under its investment promotion law.

their addresses in order to vote for him in Detroit's 24th Legislative District last November.

Even more charges may be brought against West.

FELONY WARRANTS

The Wayne County prosecutor's office said it is preparing to ask felony warrants against him, including charges of conspiracy and perjury.

A legislative committee meets Friday to consider West's status as a member of the House of Representatives in Lansing.

West, a two-term legislator, has been accused of using the reputation of a since deceased New York lawyer with a similar name to hide a criminal record and advance his own interests over a period of 10 years.

Bound Over for Trial in Bus Driver Slaying

DETROIT (AP) — James White, accused of slaying DSH bus driver Lucian A. Fryling, was bound over for trial on a first degree murder charge by Recorder's (Criminal) Judge Joseph A. Gillis Tuesday.

White, 32, an ex-convict, is charged with the fatal wounding of the 40-year-old bus driver in an attempted holdup Nov. 18.

Traffic Safety Reforms Urged

Hare Cites Inspection,
Tighter Laws on Teens

LANSING (AP)—Secretary of State James Hare said Tuesday that compulsory vehicle inspection, tighter restrictions for 16-year-old drivers and uniform licensing are the traffic safety reforms most needed in Michigan.

Hare testified before the special House Committee on Traffic Safety at the first day of a two-day hearing.

The committee was working basically from the report of the Governor's Traffic Safety Commission released earlier this fall which recommended 29 changes in state traffic law.

Hare said three of the recommendations were "the most important of an excellent report."

NEED INSPECTIONS

1. "Certainly we need motor vehicle inspection. The 19 or 20 states that have it all have better safety records than we do." He said he is most worried about older cars purchased by young drivers.

Hare recommended that the State Police administer the program "to keep it out of politics." He envisions the State Police licensing private garages to inspect vehicles for a fee of perhaps $3.50. Hare said it would be costly and impractical to establish a chain of state-owned inspection stations.

2. The secretary of state, responsible for driver licensing and records, said the department cannot discipline 16-year-old drivers because law prohibits their traffic violations from being counted in the Michigan point system.

"If you have an adult privilege to drive, you should have adult responsibility," he said. He called for tabulation of 16-year-olds' points and handling of their traffic cases in adult courts.

3. "We need a state agency to control driver licensing exams," he said. Licenses now are issued by local police or sheriff's offices "and they don't have a standardized process. We supervise but we don't have control."

How Children Fail—3

Many Pupils See School as a Job They Must Do

By JOHN HOLT

Copyright 1964 Princeton Publishing Corp.
Children see school almost entirely in terms of the day-to-day and hour-to-hour tasks that we impose on them. This is not at all the way the teacher thinks of it.

Teachers feel, as I once did, that their interests and their students' are fundamentally the same.

I used to feel that I was guiding and helping my students on a journey that they wanted to take but could not take without my help.

It seemed very important to give students this feeling of being on a journey to a worthwhile destination. I see now that most of my talk to this end was wasted breath.

The valiant and resolute band of travelers I thought I was leading toward a much-hoped-for destination turned out instead to be more like convicts in a chain gang, forced under threat of punishment to move along a rough path leading nobody knew where and down which they could see hardly more than a few steps ahead.

MUST GO

School feels like this to children: It is a place where they tell you go and where they make you do things and where they try to make your life unpleasant if you don't do these things or don't do them right.

For children, the central business of school is not learning, whatever this vague word means; it is getting these daily tasks done, or at least out of the way, with a minimum of effort and unpleasantness.

Each task is an end in itself. The children don't care how they dispose of it.

If they can get it out of the way by doing it, they will do it; if experience has taught them that this does not work very well, they will turn to other means, illegitimate means, that wholly defeat whatever purpose the task-giver may have had in mind.

GIVE HELP

They are very good at getting other people to do their tasks for them. I remember the day when Ruth opened my eyes. We had been doing math, and I was pleased with myself because I was doing it telling her answers and showing her how to do problems. I was "making her think" by asking her questions.

It was slow work. Question after question met only silence. Each time, I had to think of a question easier and more pointed than the last.

until I finally found one so easy that she would feel safe in answering it.

Suddenly, looking at her as I waited for an answer to a question, I saw with a start that she was not at all puzzled by what I had asked her. In fact, she was not even thinking about it. She was simply appraising me, weighing my patience, waiting for the next, sure-to-easier question. I thought, "I've been had!"

The girl had learned how to make me do her work for her. If I wouldn't tell her the answers, very well, she would just let me question her right up to them.

Schools and teachers seem generally to be as blind to children's strategies as I was.

Otherwise, they would teach their courses and assign their tasks so that students who really thought about the meaning of the subject would have the best chance of succeeding, while those who tried to do the tasks by illegitimate means, without thinking or understanding, would be foiled.

But the reverse seems to be the case. Schools give every encouragement to producers, the kids whose idea is to get "right answers" by all means.

In a system that runs on "right answers" they can hardly help it. And these schools are often very discouraging places for thinkers.

Jewelry Worker Found

Fatally Shot at Home

NEW BALTIMORE (AP)—Apparently shot by a robber, John Egry, 62, was found dead Tuesday behind a jewelry work counter in the rear of a frame home where he lived alone in New Baltimore. The room had been ransacked.

Sheriff Lester A. Almstadt said Egry had been shot in the back of the head. He operated a combination jewelry repair shop and retail store in his home at night.

Zeal of UF Workers Marks Drive Success

Plaudits aplenty are due the leaders and workers who participated in the 15th annual Pontiac Area United Fund drive that saw subscriptions exceed the goal by more than 10 per cent.

The amount raised, a record $900,000, also tops the total realized last year by nearly 6 per cent.

Under the general chairmanship of Bruce J. Annett and his four division heads, 4,000 volunteer workers gave praiseworthy time and effort to insure the success of the campaign for funds that are the lifeblood of 55 welfare agencies serving the area.

A bow of appreciation also goes to the citizenry of Pontiac and the six adjacent townships for another exemplification of humanitarian interest and generosity.

The Press warmly congratulates all who had a part in this inspiring support of civic and social responsibility and again commends the soundness of the "Give Once for All" concept of charitable participation.

Junked Auto Bodies Run Over Graveyards

Any society that can figure out a way to get rid of old razor blades can't be laughed off as an imperialistic nitwit, even by the Communists.

But can it also come up with a way to get rid of old autos?

It had better, or one of these days America the Beautiful is going to be just one unbroken coast-to-coast yard of abandoned cars.

There already are 8,000 auto junk yards scattered around the country, many in nature's beauty spots. And with five million old cars biting the rust each year, things are going to get worse unless and until our ingenuity gets better.

The razor blade disposal problem was alleviated by the sheer genius of cutting a slot in the wall and letting the law of gravity take over.

Maybe we could cut king-sized holes in the ground and inter the junkies there, or perhaps resort to the more bizarre ritual of burial at sea.

Nuclear Power Spread Should Be Contained

A new alphabetical symbol has evidenced itself and tended to thicken the international broth. The letters are MLF.

What it stands for is Multilateral Force, and it is further straining relations within another alphabetical entity: NATO — North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

MLF is a plan born in the United States for letting the 15 NATO members in on American nuclear might while braking their nationalistic urge to develop nuclear systems of their own.

Under the plan, there would be an independent force of 25 surface ships, such as freighters, to be equipped with Polaris missiles—the highly sophisticated and effective type of nuclear weapon with which the U.S. submarine fleet is armed.

Manning the flotilla of merchant ships would be crews of international mixture, with an MLF command separate from the NATO command. Control of the weapons would be multilateral. The United States alone could not decide to use them. Neither could any other country.

What is the attitude toward the plan by the nations involved? Generally, all are for it—with two exceptions.

France, which has developed its own nuclear capability and wants less European dependence on the United States, is strongly against it.

England, under the new Labor government that apparently wants to get out of the nuclear business altogether, is cool to it.

There is much to be said for the tactical flexibility of such a nuclear force envisioned by the MLF concept, its low cost compared with creation of an entirely new and separate international fleet of submarines. And perhaps more importantly, it would give leading powers of the world a finger in the nuclear pie while militating against country-by-country proliferation of the awesome specter of nuclear power.

'Unity' Depends on Point of View

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Somebody mention unity? There are about a dozen dictionary definitions of unity and this may explain the lack of it among Republicans who want their defeated party to unite.

Dean Burch says he wants unity although over the weekend some Republican governors said they want him fired as chairman of the Republican National Committee, a job he got through Sen. Barry Goldwater.

The governors in Denver issued a statement calling for party unity and, among other things, suggesting the national committee take a good look at its leadership.

Some of them said this wasn't aimed at Burch; some said it definitely was. Particularly Gov. George Romney of Michigan, Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania said they want Burch out.

Burch, whether or not he was a good chairman, was a terrible prophet, for on election night, Nov. 3, with the roof falling in on Goldwater, he cheerfully predicted: "This picture is going to brighten considerably as the sun moves toward the west."

The final news from the west was even worse. Goldwater lost every Western state except his own Arizona.

But Monday, in a statement which some interpreted as a move to soothe his critics and keep his job, Burch called for unity.

"It now remains for all of us, governors, senators, congressmen, state chairmen, national committee members and workers, to demonstrate that the Republican party seeks strength through unity—not weakness and even impotence through needless quarreling and disunity."

STRANGE TURNS
The urge toward unity among Republicans is not new although it has taken strange turns. It began right after the election.

Richard M. Nixon, former vice president who campaigned for Goldwater, said the party needs unified, not divided, and then attacked Rockefeller, who didn't campaign for Goldwater, as one of the principal dividers.

He called Rockefeller a "spoilsport" and Rockefeller called him "peevish."

Meeting Of The Minds

David Lawrence Says:

Let Military Plan for Defenses

WASHINGTON — Nobody wants war, including the Soviets, but what's going on now among the major Western powers is the same kind of political bickering that has served as a prelude to both world wars.

Moscow talks piously in public about disarmament, but Lawrence privately must be chuckling with satisfaction over what it is observing in the West — the utter disarray, confusion and, indeed, virtual breakdown of any effective military strategy either to deter or, if it comes to, win World War III.

To conduct a war is not the task of prime ministers or presidents. It is the specific obligation of men who have seen their lives studying the mistakes of past wars and the various contingencies that may arise some day in a nuclear or nonnuclear war.

Yet the impression conveyed today is that the prime minister of Britain, the president of the United States, and the president of France — or a civilian commission — can determine the best military strategy.

They are presumably to decide whether a multilateral mixed force of surface ships, or a broad consolidation of air, sea and land power, or a reorganization of NATO would furnish the best offense and defense.

SOUND PRINCIPLE

Actually, Mr. Wilson, who has been conferring here with President Johnson, has put forth one sound principle — namely, that a broad alliance of the Western powers with all parts of the military force joined together is better than separate contingents operating independently.

The United States, on the other hand, rightly takes the position that, while an attack at the start with nuclear weapons is a possibility, not a probability, the real danger lies in what is called "escalation" from a conventional to a nuclear war. So the defense mechanism has to be all-inclusive and sufficiently manned to fight a land war inside Europe.

President de Gaulle of France, arguing that the United States cannot be depended upon 10 or 15 years from now to defend Europe, insists on his own nuclear weapons and strategy. It is a form of sincere but misguided nationalism.

NO LAND FORCE

De Gaulle wants to rely on an all-out nuclear response to a Soviet attack. But American military men ask what would be done if the Soviets decided to attack.

tack with conventional forces and gain considerable ground because of the fact that France has no large or effective land force of its own to meet such an invasion.

The military experts of the United States, furthermore, believe in a strategy of a graduated defense which would be conventional if possible but which would become nuclear only when absolutely necessary.

It is essential that there be not only a comprehensive plan that stands a good chance of victory but one that has the wholehearted support of all members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

For the big problem is how to defend Europe and America this year and in the immediate future—not just 15 years hence.

An adversary will take grave chances whenever the other side appears to be disunited.

There is no simple answer to all this.

But the quicker the political leaders of the Western powers let their best military minds come up with the most effective plan for the defense of both Europe and the United States, and adopt it, the sooner the question of how or when the trigger shall be pulled or by whom and how the armament expenses shall be apportioned will be seen in better perspective.

Bob Considine Says:

JFK Would Be Leading Mental Retardation Fight

NEW YORK — If President Kennedy had lived he would have become the fight against mental retardation what President Roosevelt was to the war on infantile paralysis.

FDR was himself a victim of polio. JFK was raised in a household clouded by the retardation of Rosemary, the eldest of his five sisters.

He had planned to attend a dinner in New York just a year ago at this time to give Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation awards for medical achievement in this field.

Fortunately, President Johnson has lent his immediate prestige to continuing his predecessor's plans to stimulate a burst of interest and research in a malady that for so many centuries has meant shame, broken hearts, broken homes and colossal expense.

The scope of the challenge is best described by its blunt vital statistics: About 5,500,000 Americans suffer from mental retardation to varying degrees. The number is increasing at the rate of 125,000 a year.

INADEQUATE ATTENTION
More than one third of expectant mothers in big U.S. cities do not get adequate medical attention, the surliest safeguard against mental retardation in the child.

At least 60 per cent of those afflicted in this country do not have proper educational and recreational facilities at their disposal.

Mental retardation is not a disease. It is an impairment of the mind or intellect.

It has nothing to do with mental illness. That's a disorder of the personality of the emotions. Mental retardation is a subnormal intellectual development. It has nothing to do with

"bad blood," as centuries of superstition supposed. It can be caused by any of 200 diseases and conditions, including German measles contracted by the mother during the first three months of pregnancy. Excessive X rays during early pregnancy can cause it, too.

The crusade which JFK would have launched is on its way. The war has been picked up and carried forward.

Hoover Fights Back

New York Daily News

We're taking no sides in Federal Bureau of Investigation chief J. Edgar Hoover's fight with the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King.

We are in hearty sympathy, though, with the Hoover shot at the Earl Warren commission's charge of FBI negligence in connection with the murder of President Kennedy by Lee Harvey Oswald.

As Mr. Hoover well says, the FBI has a huge list of Commies, Pinkos, crackpots and plain kooks. But if all of these in any city were to be jailed while the President visits that city, we'd have a police state.

When Hoover pleads with "bleeding heart judges to have a little more guts when handing down decisions," he knows what he is talking about. When he argues that prosecutors and courts treat 16-year-old delinquents

'Need Stiffer Penalties for Sex Deviates'

There is probably a need for book burning but it isn't in the area that encourages normal sex relations between men and women. Our primary consideration must be given to eliminating the corrupting of our girls and women by the sexually perverted female.

We need to relax or eliminate many of the laws that tend to discourage normal sex relations and incorporate stiffer penalties for the female sex deviates that prey on our girls and women. Such a program would go a long way in assuring the "real" women that they haven't been totally deserted by the men.

Says American People Don't Want War

One can't help but look at the obvious mistakes made by our State Department and President in 1941. The same mistakes are being made today. In 1941 we sold scrap iron to Japan. In 1964 we sold wheat to Russia and scrap iron to the Red satellites. McNamara has seen fit to reduce our military strength, relying on missiles that have not been tested.

The American people did not want war in 1941 and don't want war today. Who thinks we'll have a chance to recover from a nuclear Pearl Harbor when we let our backbones be lulled to sleep by the aggressor and some of our top "egg heads"?

Michigan's Prison Population Dips to Lowest Total Since 1949

LANSING (AP)—State prison chief Gus Harrison hopes to live to see the day when the State Prison of Southern Michigan will be torn down.

Michigan has the doubtful distinction of owning the world's largest walled prison, at Jackson.

"Eventually, I hope, it will become obsolete," said Harrison, director of the State Corrections Commission. "Our population growth might defeat this. But in modern penology the ideal is for only very small custodial institutions taking care of the unmanageable prisoners."

Harrison's comments were prompted by figures showing that Michigan's prison population is at the lowest point in 16 years.

LOWEST SINCE '49

The last check showed 8,177 prisoners in Michigan institutions, lowest since the 1949 count of 8,137.

The prison population had soared to a high of 10,601 in mid-July of 1959.

There was a disastrous riot in 1952, attracting nationwide unfavorable attention to the walled prison at Jackson.

At that time, there were 6,481 men, many long-time desperate criminals, confined.

LATEST COUNT

The latest count shows a "J-Town" inmate population of 4,305.

But only 2,930 of these actually live behind the grim, gray walls.

Others are housed outside the walls, in the reception center, as trustees or in farm dormitories or at outside camps.

Younger prisoners now are being placed in such institutions as the Ionia State Prison so they won't be influenced and victimized by any old-timers.

OUTSIDE WALLS

More than one third of Michigan's total penal population now is housed outside walls.

"We believe in giving a man a chance," declared Harrison.

"There are a lot of evils in a walled-in prison that can't be eliminated.

Harrison spoke with pride of the Michigan policy of allowing eventual release for lifers — those who killed or were judged habitual criminals.

"On lifers, we've had about a 99 per cent success ratio," he said. "We also believe in the 'mercy' policy for old men who don't want to die in prison."

There has been a higher rate of probation in the last 10 years, Harrison said. He estimated an approximate 10 per cent probation jump in the period.

"Our probation rate is higher now," he added, "because during the current period of prosperity these men have jobs they can go to. We are moving men out of prison faster."

During the depression before World War II, Harrison said, there would be men eligible for parole but no jobs or sponsors waiting for them.

100 ELIGIBLE

"We had as many as 100 men eligible but jobless," he said.

Harrison said modern penology thinking—trusting the man and trying to help him go back to adjust to society—makes good sense in dollars and cents.

"It takes us about $1,200 to build a maximum security cell," he said. "It takes about one fifth as much to have a probation officer, a conservation officer or a farmer working with the same man trying to make him a useful citizen again."

Caution Is Urged on Ice in State to Avoid Deaths

LANSING (AP) — With the state's drowning record the worst in five years, State Police Commissioner Joseph Childs has urged care on early winter ice.

He cautioned youngsters, ice fishermen and other sportsmen that the ice still can be treacherously thin on many lakes and streams.

Childs reports that 286 persons have drowned in Michigan this year—at least 10 of them as the result of falls through the ice.

The freezing temperatures generally have not been prolonged or severe enough to produce ice about four inches thick—generally regarded as the minimum needed to bear human weight safely.

Anti-Communist Coalition Is Likely in British Guiana

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP) — An anti-Communist coalition government appears in prospect for this racially divided British colony on the north-east coast of South America.

With returns nearly complete from Monday's national election, Marxist Premier Cheddi Jagan had the most votes, but he failed to win the majority necessary to retain control of the National Assembly.

Returns representing 91 per cent of the vote gave Jagan's People's Progressive party 103,222 votes, opposition leader Forbes Burnham's People's National Congress 87,448, and industrialist Peter Daguilar's United Force 20,046.

On this basis, Jagan's party will get 24 seats, Burnham's 22, a Daguilar's 6 or 7. The opposition parties thus could outvote Jagan's forces.

PRO-WESTERN

Gov. Sir Richard Luyt is expected to call on Burnham, a pro-Western Socialist, to form a coalition government from his party and the United Force.

Burnham, 41, a massively built Negro lawyer, has his chief strength among the Negro population. Jagan's strength is among the colony's East Indians, who outnumber the Negroes 2 to 1. Terrorism and clashes between the two races during the past year have taken 167 lives and caused $1.3 million in property loss.

Jagan's failure to retain the legislative majority he won in 1961 resulted from a new system of proportional representation devised by the British to drive him from office.

With the assembly's seats allocated according to the total vote won by each party, he needed more than half the total vote to get a majority of the 53 assembly seats.

U.S. EDUCATED

Jagan, 46, is a U.S.-educated dentist of East Indian ancestry. His wife, Janet Rosenberg Jagan, is a native of Chicago who belonged to the Communist Youth League during her student days in Illinois.

American officials feared that Jagan, a Castro admirer, would turn British Guiana into another Cuba once it gained independence.

Britain has postponed any decision on independence, and the past year's upsurge of racial strife make the prospects for an end to British rule uncertain.

Cuba on Shot Fidel Aide:

'No Politics in Ouster'

HAVANA (AP) — Sources high in Fidel Castro's government say that Augusto Martinez Sanchez, who shot himself after he was removed as labor minister, was ousted "entirely for administrative reasons." They denied there were any political implications.

Martinez shot himself in the head Tuesday after learning he had been fired. He was reported in critical condition in a Havana hospital.

The official sources said Castro is determined to get rid of all "dead wood" in his government in order to revive the Cuban economy. Martinez was the third Cabinet minister to be removed this year.

A government communique said Martinez was fired because of "serious administrative mistakes which in no way affected his personal, moral and revolutionary honor and unquestionable loyalty to our cause."

SUDDEN OUSTER

The dismissal was sudden. Martinez had been scheduled to speak Monday night at a rally commemorating a Cuban hero. The meeting was canceled.

(Official circles in Washington saw the removal of the third Cuban Cabinet member this year as a sign of a critical power struggle within Castro's Communist regime. They said the struggle has been under way for many months but that it is too early to evaluate its seriousness.)

Martinez fought alongside Castro in the Sierra Maestra and after Fulgencio Batista was overthrown became judge advocate of the revolutionary general staff. He was acting prime minister in May 1959, when Castro visited the United States. Five months later he became labor minister, replacing exiled Manolo Fernandez.

Economic Minister Regino Boti was removed earlier and sent to the provinces to direct a powdered milk plant. Foreign Trade Minister Alberto Mora was dismissed and has not yet been given another job.

The Castro government also recently announced suspension from office of Joaquin Ordoqui, 70, a founding member of the Cuban Communist party and undersecretary of the armed forces.

In a broadcast Tuesday night, Castro made no mention of Martinez. He also ignored international matters, concentrating instead on Cuba's agricultural problems.

Thieves Pry Out 'Money on the Bar'

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP) — Over the years, hundreds of patrons of Poor Henry's Bar near Clinton inlaid silver dollars on the bar with the idea they always would have "money on the bar." All but two of the estimated 1,300 silver pieces are gone now, the sheriff's office said, in reporting a theft at the establishment 16 miles east of Missoula. Each dollar was pried out. Also reported missing was change from the bar and a collection of old silver dollars belonging to the bar owner, Mrs. Justine Bertholf.

Total loss was estimated at $1,400.

Etiquette Advice for Signing Cards

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — When a Christmas card is from the entire family, father's name should come first, then mother's, and finally the children, listed in order of their age, according to an authority.

When you're addressing a Christmas card to a business acquaintance, it's best if you send the card to the office. When there is also a social relationship, the card can go to the home.

Evergreen Decorations Once Were Forbidden

NEW YORK (UPI) — Until about 1775 A.D., the use of evergreens as Christmas decoration was forbidden by religious authorities. Evergreens had been closely associated with the garlands of pagan days and, on that basis, early church celebrations forbade their use.

Philippine Leader Dies

MANILA (AP) — Sen. Eulogio Rodriguez, 81, president of the opposition Nacionalista party since 1947, died today of a heart attack. Rodriguez, former mayor of Manila, had been in the senate since 1941 and president of the Senate for 10 years.

During World War II, military blimps escorted 89,000 ships. Only one of the lighter-than-air craft was lost.

California U. Students Hail Faculty Unit Resolution

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — The University of California faculty's Academic Senate has adopted a resolution it hopes will bring peace in the prolonged student-administration battle over political activities.

Leaders of the Free Speech Movement — the group which staged four massive sit-in demonstrations, one resulting in 814 arrests — proclaimed victory immediately after the vote Tuesday night.

They called off their strike until Dec. 18, when the university's board of regents meet in Los Angeles to consider the Academic Senate's five-point proposal. Regents must accept the resolution before it is effective.

Rebel students Tuesday night celebrated the Senate's vote and the 2nd birthday of Mario Savio, leader of the dissident group.

MAIN TARGET

University President Clark Kerr, a member of the board of regents and one of the main targets of the movement's attack, declined immediate comment on the 1,200-member faculty group's resolution, which went further in meeting student demands than a proposal endorsed by the administration on Monday.

Savio, Manhattan-born philosophy student, said free speech members now would concentrate on trying to get charges against those arrested at the Dec. 23 demonstration dropped.

Savio termed the Senate's action "magnificent."

A crowd of about 2,000 students, waiting outside Wheeler Hall, erupted with wild screaming when the Senate's vote was announced.

FACULTY PRAISED
The Free Speech Movements' steering committee issued a statement praising faculty members for their stand.

Only 829 Academic Senate members attended Tuesday's session, but all voted. Proposals won out, 824 to 115.

Prof. Joseph W. Garbarino, chairman of the Senate's freedom committee, termed the vote "an experiment in freedom."

The resolution would, in effect, give the faculty — rather than the administration — final authority over disciplining students who violate university regulations.

IN PROPOSAL
Included in the proposal were these points:

—That there shall be no university disciplinary action against students or organizations for activities prior to Tuesday in connection with political activities.

—That time, place and manner of conducting political activity on-campus shall be subject to reasonable regulation to prevent interference with normal functions on the university; that regulations now in effect shall remain in effect until after a report of the Committee on Academic Freedom. (Current regulations provide university discipline for off-campus law convictions resulting from activities started on-campus).

—That content of speech or advocacy should not be restricted by the university and off-campus student political activities shall not be subject to university regulations.

—Future disciplinary measures for political activities shall be determined by a committee appointed by the Berkeley division of the Academic Senate.

—A pledge by all members of the university community to back faculty efforts to return the school to its normal function.

Opera Star Will Keep Pet Squirrel

BALTIMORE (AP) — Whiskers won't be going to Frederick this winter after all.

Instead, the 5-month-old gray squirrel is comfortably situated in the sun room at Villa Pace, the home of retired opera star Rosa Ponselle.

Miss Ponselle rescued Whiskers last summer when he was little more than a tiny fur ball. He tumbled from a tree workmen felled on her Green Spring Valley estate north of Baltimore.

As the squirrel got older and larger, she decided to give him to Frederick in Western Maryland, which boasts a huge outdoor squirrel cage in its park.

COLD SNAP

The recent cold snap changed her mind. She was afraid Whiskers might not survive the rigors of outdoor living. Then, too, how would the incumbent residents accept the tiny interloper?

So Miss Ponselle wrote Robert A. Whiteford, Frederick city engineer, and told him she had changed her mind.

Tuesday, Whiskers moved into his new quarters in the sun room — a large specially built cage complete with a huge tree limb and a dish of cracked nuts.

SUITABLE WIFE

She wrote Whiteford asking if he could find a suitable "companion, a little wife."

"I'll have to check and see if we have any eligible females," Whiteford said.

Don't Chase Bachelor

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: I am a divorcee, 29, with two children and am considered attractive.

About a year ago, I spotted an eligible bachelor in town, so I moved into his apartment building hoping to make his acquaintance.

I made his acquaintance all right, but that's about all. He says hello pleasantly when we meet in the hall, but I've never been able to get him into my apartment.

I telephoned him one evening to tell him my bedroom window was stuck (it really was) so he sent a janitor up with a hammer.

He's not going with anybody special and he's not a goody-goody because I've seen him entertain women in his apartment.

None of them is as attractive as I. How can I get him interested without having it look like I'm chasing him?
GETTING NOWHERE

DEAR GETTING: It's not easy to tell him a man without having it "look like" you're doing what you're doing. Face it. He's not interested in you. And any more moves in his direction will make your scheming so obvious that he's apt to hide when he sees you coming.

DEAR ABBY: I was one of nine children in a very poor family so I had to quit school in the sixth grade. I always wanted to get a better education but I never had the chance. I feel so bad when my eighth grade son asks me to help him with his homework and I am too dumb to help him.

My husband can't help him either, as he never got through the seventh grade himself. I asked around and found

Party Is Slated for the Children

Pontiac Vasa Lodge No. 510 will hold a children's Christmas party and dance Saturday at the Knights of Pythias hall.

Mrs. Margaret Brooks is in charge of the program which will begin at 8 p.m. There will be a 7 p.m. business meeting. Committee members include Mr. and Mrs. James Brannstrom, the John Campbells, and Mr. and Mrs. Gunner Gustafson.

out there is a night school for grownups. I could go four nights a week from 6 to 8.

My husband laughed at me and said he never heard of a 29-year-old woman going back to school. My heart is broken. Please tell me what to do.
WANTS TO LEARN

DEAR WANTS: Your husband should quit laughing long enough to learn a few things. Adult education has been a lifesaver to many who have decided to complete their educations in their 40's, 50's and 60's. You are to be commended.

DEAR ABBY: I live in a very noisy neighborhood. Yesterday, the woman next door ran to her window the minute she heard a car pull up in front of my house.

I saw her peeking through her Venetian blinds. And she saw me, too. Then she called me on the phone and said, "I didn't mean to be nosy. I just wanted to see who it was, and by the way, I didn't recognize him. Who WAS he?"

Another neighbor stopped me in front of my house and said she had heard I was collecting Social Security and she was curious to know if I got it by the month or by the week and how much was it. I have always minded my own business and have never seen the equal of such nerve. I am not able to cope with it. What do you suggest?
FLABBERGASTED

DEAR FLABBERGASTED: Go on finding your own business and ignore those who insist on helping you to do it.

City Tuesday Musicales Was in a Holiday Mood

A holiday spirit pervaded the concert of Pontiac Tuesday Musicales at its December meeting at Central Methodist Church, Tuesday. An unusual program was heard in the chancel of the church where holiday decorations added to the festivities.

Featured was the Pontiac Tuesday Musicales Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Ferdinand Gaensbauer and accompanied by Helen Schmitz, at the piano. The chorus sang two groups of four numbers each.

The first set of carols were: "A Carol" by Jacobson; "Joyous Christmas Song" by Gevaert, which featured soprano Yvonne Smith and contralto Margaret Warczak; "Lullaby of the Christ Child," in which the voices of Yvonne Rathgeb, soprano, and contralto Annabelle Marshbanks were heard as soloists; and "Gloria to God in the Highest" by Hammerschmidt.

The concluding group consisted of "Snow" by Elgar; "Hear the Sledges With the Bells" by Robertson; "Ave Maria" by the contemporary composer, Hovhanness; and "Fanfare and Alleluia" by Knighton. The assistant Choral Director was Mrs. Charles Buck.

The Baroque Ensemble from Oakland University performed Telemann's Trio Sonata in F, on instruments of the Eighteenth century for which the composer wrote. The instrumentalists were James Hayden and Norman Susskind, recorder players, Todd Granaw, bassoonist, and Clive Henry, harpsichordist.

A vocal trio was heard in two numbers accompanied by the recorders. The group consisted of Mary Louise Lindquist, Annabelle Marshbanks and Jean Putnam who sang "The Christmas Nightingale" and "Bring Your Torches," both arranged by Wanser.

The Pontiac Tuesday Musicales, which is a member of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs, joined in the singing of a Christmas Hymn.

Republican Women Get Encouragement

Pontiac Press Women's Editor
The basic difference between liberalism and conservatism is a moral one. This is the considered opinion of Dr. John A. Clark, professor of engineering at the University of Michigan, and political speaker.

In a speech delivered to the Bloomfield Hills Republican Women's club Tuesday at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club, Dr. Clark stated that liberalism is more interested in a temporal expedient solution to problems. The conservative leans more toward eternal solutions.

Liberalism believes in using the full force of government in advancing socially, politically and economically. It determines what rights men shall have.

On the other hand, said Dr. Clark, conservatives believe that the Creator is the sole source of men's rights. This was stated in the Declaration of Independence and is a fundamental moral basis of that document.

In discussing the recent election, Dr. Clark (who still wears his Goldwater button) told the women not to be discouraged.

"It is improbable that anyone could have won. The GOP had six weeks in which to refute 30 years of liberalism."

"Goldwater was not beaten on his conservatism, but on the false image given him, and not on his philosophy which was never given a fair test."

The Republican party must remain basically conservative and must offer a haven to all who believe in that philosophy, whether members of the party or not.

The speaker listed things the party must do before the next election:

- Re-educate the American people

- Educate party members themselves

- Spell out concrete principles on the issues
- Form a strong organization and participate as Republicans
- Discuss issues within the party
- Establish communication

Individuals must participate and become involved in government and not leave it to the professionals. The Republican party won't have all the answers, but they aren't unique in this.

In the business meeting following the luncheon and speech, Mrs. Samuel Vetrano was elected president.

Serving with her during 1965 will be Mrs. John Costello, first vice-president; Mrs. David Ayers, second vice-president; Mrs. William Spinning, recording secretary; Eleanor Paton, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harold Rubel, treasurer; and Mrs. Robert Rugg, council delegate.

YW Units Celebrate the Holiday

Alice D. Serrell and Dr. Sarah Van Hoesen Jones took color slides of England and Scotland during a 2,000-mile motor trip through Britain last summer.

These will be shown Dec. 17 at 2 p.m. for members and friends of the YWCA, following a meeting of the board of directors.

The Pontiac State Hospital Y group will be visited by Santa at their party Monday at 7:30 p.m.

Golden Agers, who will have their Christmas program Dec. 22 following their noon dessert luncheon, have voted not to exchange gifts but to give an equivalent amount to the Y's building campaign fund.

Little girls from the Y's Lakeside Pigtailers club will have their party Dec. 28 at 1 p.m. Present and former members of the Y's staff will gather for their annual luncheon next Wednesday at 1 p.m.

During the week between Christmas and New Year's, several of the Y-Teen groups will have their pajama parties, with the last group scheduled getting to undecorate.

Officers elected Tuesday at a luncheon meeting of the Bloomfield Republican Women's club included (from left) Mrs. Samuel Vetrano, Bloomcrest Drive, president; Eleanor Paton, Bloomfield Village, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Robert G. Rugg, Rayburn Road, council delegate. The luncheon took place at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club.

MacDowell Chorus Scores Hit

By CLIVE HENERY
Monday night the MacDowell Male Chorus, under its conductor Jerry Libby presented its annual holiday concert in Washington Junior High School. Those of us who braved the snow flurries and slick roads were rewarded with a warm enthusiastic performance.

The unique qualities of the male ensemble were particularly appealing in the low-keyed arrangements this ensemble obviously prefers — at the same time giving the sonorous basses an opportunity to supply rich and mellow sounding lines.

In Gershwin's "Summertime" the chorus was joined by a young combo trio which successfully reinforced the infectious rhythm of this number.

GRAND FINALE
The first half of the program ended with a resounding version of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic; from an in-cipient undulating rhythm begun on the piano, a gradual crescendo grew and grew.

Two additional items were then presented. First, the Pontiac Central High School Senior Girls' Ensemble, under the direction of A. Michael Dempsey, gave glamorous renditions of "Ebb Tide," "Tenderly," and two other numbers.

Secondly, Mr. Libby returned prematurely and invited the audience to stand and sing some Christmas Carols.

The re-assembled chorus then presented the well known "Lost Chord" of Sullivan, a moving religious work by the composer of so many delightful operettas.

From "Shenandoah," sincerely sung, the group made an unsuccessful attempt to portray the simple and serene qualities of Palestrina, a composer who devoted his whole life to preserving the beauty and dignity of Catholic Church Music.

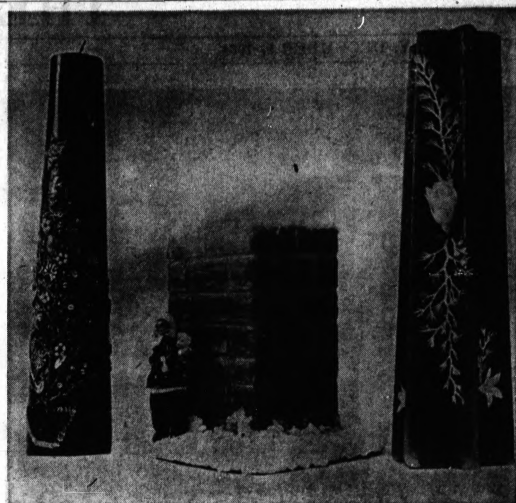

ACCOMPANIST

One of the most attractive features of the evening was the exciting musicianship of the accompanist, Gilbert Jackson, whose dramatic sense and rhythmic control is such an asset to the group. Here is a fine talent indeed.

$270 Million for Research

The National Institutes of Health awarded $270 million as grants for medical research facilities construction during the seven year period from fiscal year 1956-57 to 1963-64.

Congress has authorized nearly $1.5 billion for programs of the Office of Education during fiscal 1965.

Christmas candles made at home can add their own special glow to the holiday season. Even the beginner can make the Christmas chimney model and, after practice, can even create the two more elegant versions of this popular hobby.

Make Your Own Christmas Glow

Part of the glow of the Christmas season comes from the holiday's special candles. These can be even more special if you make them yourself. Using the correct techniques, it is simple and safe to go candle-creative. The results can be beautiful the first time you try. Normal care is all that is needed when working with melted wax. Remember that wax is inflammable and should be melted in a double boiler over low heat, never over direct heat. (You can use a food can in a pan of water and discard it after using.) Never splash water into hot wax or pour melted wax down the drain.

FIRST CANDLE

To make your first candle, assemble the following items: good quality paraffin, a crayon or other coloring materials, (not food coloring) wick, double boiler, egg beater, an ice pick (or your husband's electric drill) and a variety of molds.

Optional items are sequins and glitter for decoration.

An excellent wick can be made from bricklayer's or carpenter's chalkline, available at most hardware stores. If you prefer, you can buy commercial wick at the hobby store or use the wick from used dinner candles or small dimmestore candles.

Another source for wicks is: Holiday Supplies, Box 2758, Toledo, Ohio. Price — 15 cents a yard — minimum of three yards.

ALL BUT SINK

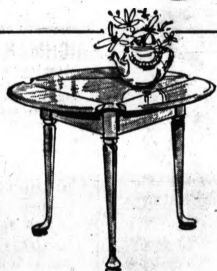

Molds can be almost anything around your kitchen including ice cream cartons, jello molds and cookie cutters. Always grease the molds, except for waxed cartons, with colorless vegetable shortening and chill before pouring wax into them. The wax should be slightly cool before pouring.

Step-by-step candle making instructions are contained in a booklet selling for 25 cents. Order the booklet by writing to: Specialties Division, Gulf Oil Corporation, P. O. Box 1519, Houston, Tex.

Sunday Tea Will Honor County Foster Parents

Foster parents who board children for the Oakland County Juvenile Court will be honored at a tea Sunday.

There are presently some 140 boarding families and 155 children in boarding homes.

Probate court judges Donald Adams and Norman R. Barnard will be keynote speakers for the foster parents, who will also have the opportunity to view the plans for the new Children's Village.

James VanLeuven, director of child care and institutions, who is in charge of the foster care department, states:

"We are extremely pleased to be able to honor our foster parents during this Christmas season for their efforts in offering the affection and security of their homes to these children who, on the most part, through no fault of their own, must be separated from their families."

"If it were not for these boarding homes they would have to remain in care in the institution."

"Foster parents are an important arm of the Oakland County Juvenile Court and join hands with the staff in meeting the needs of the children who come to our attention."

The boarding home department has wrapped numerous gifts for the foster children which have been donated by many local clubs and individuals. They will be presented to the parents at this tea.

Central Methodist Church will be the site of the tea from 2 to 4 p.m. with the program at 3 p.m.

Smoothly fashioned to skim the figure is this 100 per cent diagonal wool coachman's coat dress. In pink, powder and white, it is proportioned for the junior petite figure by Stanton.

Hose Have New Look

By MIRIAM NEAL

Tell your favorite Santa Claus that you'll fill your own stocking this Christmas.

There are, of course, other, less subtle hints you can drop and if worse comes to worse, you can always cut out this column and stick it in his wallet.

With so many new developments in hosiery it would be almost wasteful if one variety didn't show up in your mantle-hanger.

In the conventional stocking, companies have come up with stronger no-run hosiery sheer support stockings, and a new variety of colors bordering on the greens, deep grays and bronzes.

The textured styles have revealed a whole new world below the hemline. Tiny diamond patterned stockings come in white, black, topaz and taupe.

Evening-wear-only varieties include open fish-net patterned pairs in black.

For more casual wear companies are making tiny brick or herringbone patterned and ribbed varieties. They come in shades of white, red, brown, black, beige, taupe, olive and green.

In addition to eye-opening hosiery changes, companies are offering special Christmas "bonuses."

One offers a shiny red box with a holiday scene with three pairs and a luxurious gift box — meant for permanent use — for larger purchases.

Reader Wants Recipe for Whole Wheat Bread

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Instead of a recipe contributed by a reader today, we are answering a request for a whole wheat bread recipe. The many cooks who receive surplus foods may welcome these directions.

WHOLE WHEAT BREAD

¾ cup milk
3 tablespoons sugar
4 teaspoons salt
½ cup shortening
½ cup molasses
1½ cups warm water
2 packages yeast
4½ cups whole wheat flour
2 cups all purpose flour
Scald milk and stir in sugar, salt, shortening and molasses. Cool to lukewarm. Measure water into large bowl and when lukewarm dissolve yeast. Stir into milk mixture.

Mix flours and add half to milk and yeast. Beat until smooth and even. Stir in rest of flour mixture.

Turn dough out on lightly floured board. Knead until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl and let rise in warm place until double. This will take about an hour and 15 minutes.

Punch dough down and turn out on lightly floured board. Divide in half and shape into two loaves.

Place in greased bread pans. Cover and let rise in warm place until center of loaf is slightly higher than edge of pan. This takes about an hour.

Bake about 30 minutes at 400 degrees. Turn out on rack to cool.

All whole wheat flour may be used in this bread, but do not expect as light a loaf.

One cup of rolled oats or rolled wheat may be substituted for one cup of whole wheat flour for an interesting variation. Let either one stand in the warm water as it cools in the bowl, then proceed as directed above.

Tarnish Shield

Silver can be polished and kept free from tarnish if stored in plastic bags and kept air tight with twist-ties. Platters and serving pieces will be bright and ready for use after weeks of storage.

The name, "Christmas," did not come into use until about the 11th century. The word is an outgrowth of the Old English Crīstes mæsse, or "Christ's mass."

Why Grow Old?

by JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

In order to remain as youthful as possible for as long as possible we must fight the effects of gravity and inactivity. Flexibility is important.

If we become rigid as we grow older we cannot have good balance, a good carriage or move gracefully. We need to stretch our muscles and spine.

Today let me give you exercises which develop balance, coordination and flexibility.

This one is for coordination and balance. It is also stimulating and firming to the thighs.

Stand with your feet pointing forward, back straight and arms hanging at sides. Cross your arms in front of you as you swing the left leg out and up to the left side.

LEG SWINGS

Now the left leg swings across the front of the body as the arms swing out and up to the sides. Continue with a smooth rhythm. Keep arms and leg straight.

The arms swing like the pendulum of a clock and so does the leg. When tired take a little rest and then do the same exercise, swinging the right leg this time.

You may have trouble keeping your balance at first. Practice will make great improvement. That is just what this exercise is supposed to do—develop balance!

This is a spine stretcher. Stand facing a piece of furniture (the back of a chair) which is from three to four feet high, depending on your height.

SEPARATE FEET

Separate your feet comfortably and take hold of the back of the chair. Your trunk should now be bent to the horizontal position.

Arms should be extended, but elbows should not be stiff. Remain in this position, but let your head drop forward and lower your bust as far toward the floor as possible.

You will feel the stretch in the spine. Be sure you are far enough away from the chair to allow your back to be lowered into a horizontal position.

If you would like more exercises for balance and grace, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 57 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

both of Tawas City, attended the bride at the evening rite performed by Elder Guy Kramer.

Ronald Stroud performed the duties of best man, Daniel and Dale Bessey, with James and Douglas Proper, brothers of the bridal couple, were ushers.

Raindrop Prints Fall on Fashion

Rainwear gets some smart styling from top fashion houses.

Sarni produced a "raindrop" suit in brown silk with a splash print.

It was billed as water repellent even to the head scarf.

He used the same fabric in navy and white splash print for a late day dress—"for evening showers."

The easy pull-on "Popover" takes all of your tapered slacks gracefully into winter. It can be turned down to make an attractive cuff and is made of Royalon for durability. Dixie Suspects See Lawyers on Eve of Hearing

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP) — Sheriff Lawrence Rainey and Deputy Cecil Price confer with attorneys today on the eve of a hearing for them and 19 other white men charged in connection with the killing of three civil rights workers.

At a preliminary hearing at nearby Meridian Thursday, the Justice Department must show

U.S. Commissioner Esther Carter enough evidence to continue charges against the 21 until a grand jury hears the cases.

Informed sources said the FBI's information will be made available to Dist. Atty. W. H. Johnson for possible state murder and conspiracy charges after the hearing.

Johnson, who would prosecute state charges, had made no statement, but Mississippi Atty. Gen. Joe T. Patterson said Tuesday he had conferred at length with Johnson and felt certain the district attorney would call on his office for assistance.

MAY ASSIST

"I have no authority to take over," Patterson said. "The only thing the law says is that the attorney general may assist the district attorney."

The 21 were arrested last week in a sweeping FBI raid. Nineteen were charged with violating the rights of Michael Schwerner, Andrew Goodman and James Chaney, who disappeared in Neshoba County five months ago while working on a civil rights project.

Two other men were charged with criminal knowledge of the slayings. The FBI identified at least eight of the 21 as Ku Klux Klansmen.

The last of the 21 was released on $5,000 bond Tuesday at Shreveport, La. He is Horace Doyle Barnett, 25, of Cullen, La., who was arrested in Bogalusa, La. He moved from Meridian last August.

ACCUSED OF PLOTTING

Barnette is one of 10 the FBI accused of actually plotting to intercept, "threaten, assault, shoot, and kill" the three civil rights workers. He was the only one arrested in Louisiana.

Barnette's half brother, Travis M. Barnett, 36, a Meridian garage operator, was also among the 10 charged with the plot, as was Price.

Rainey and Price attended a meeting of the Mississippi Sher-

'Birch Membership Has Record Month'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The John Birch Society has enrolled more new members and established more new chapters in November than in any other month in its history, a spokesman reported.

John H. Rousselet, the society's director of public relations, told a news conference yesterday that it was not the society's policy to disclose membership figures, but added:

"California led the nation in new chapters and members."

He said in many law enforcement officers have joined the society, but added, "the society makes no concerted effort to recruit members of police departments."

iff's Association at Jackson Tuesday, where Patterson made the statements about the case.

Price had no comment about the attorney general's remarks, but said he and Rainey would leave the convention early to return to Philadelphia for a conference with attorneys.

A STEP AHEAD

"We've got to stay a step ahead of the FBI," Price quipped.

A group of Neshoba County residents have formed a secret fund to pay legal fees for the 21. A spokesman said Tuesday funds had been received, some from out of state.

The bodies of the trio were dug from a red clay dam near Philadelphia Aug. 4. The owner of the farm property and the contractor who built the dam were among the 21 arrested.

Rainey told newsmen after his arrest that federal agents had told him "three to five eyewitnesses" had revealed the details of the murder.

Rainey also said the FBI had offered to pay him "more than you'll ever make" to become an informer. The FBI denied the charge.

CHARLATAN, FRAUD

In his speech to the sheriff's association, Patterson labeled Negro leader Martin Luther King Jr. a "charlatan and fraud" for his attacks on FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

"In due time this character is going to be exposed for what he really is and not for what some people think he is," Patterson said.

He branded King "immoral, ruthless, a very smart and astute character dedicated to carrying out his mission of hate, discord and distrust."

Unit on Youth Sets Meeting

The Pontiac Citizen's Committee on Youth will hold a luncheon meeting tomorrow noon in the Waldron Hotel.

Dr. Lee Haslinger, director of the Pontiac School District physical education program, will speak on "Local Action for Youth Work - Training Programs."

A proposal for citywide family life education programs for interested parents will be discussed.

A review by the committee of the recent Salute to Youth program is also on the agenda.

Search for Fire Cause in Nuclear-Armed Plane

BUNKER HILL AIR FORCE BASE, Ind. (AP) — Air Force investigators today searched for the cause of a fire which destroyed a B58 jet bomber carrying nuclear weapons and killed one of the three crew members.

A team of officers first sought whether the fire originated inside or outside the $4.5 million supersonic Hustler which exploded on a runway yesterday during a practice alert at this Strategic Air Command base.

The plane burned nearly 12 hours, but officials stressed there was no danger of nuclear explosion because the weapons were not armed.

Col. Paul K. Carlton, commander of the 36th Bombardment Wing, said the bomber was carrying its maximum load of nuclear weapons and 14,000 gallons of fuel.

The plane's navigator, Capt. Manuel Cervantes Jr., 29, Dallas, Tex., was fatally injured when he ejected from the burning craft. Cervantes was catapulted 100 feet and fell back to a concrete runway near the plane.

CHUTE FAILS

A spokesman said his parachute apparently failed to open in time.

Col. Carlton said air samples were taken and no radiation was detected. He added there were some radioactive materials on the ground near the plane.

No one was permitted within 2,000 feet of the plane while the fire was allowed to burn itself out.

The Hustler's commander, Capt. Leary J. Johnson, 30, Clarkston, Wash., said he detected fire out of the corner of

Returns Cash Years Later

A wallet stolen from Mrs. James H. Peak Jr. in 1943 was finally returned to her recently — via airmail.

The billfold, which had contained $63 when stolen, was sent back with five $10 bills, neatly pressed.

Taft Not Interested in Burch's Job; Urges Republican Reshuffle

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Robert Taft Jr. called today for reorganization of Republican party machinery but said he is not interested in becoming GOP national chairman.

Taft, defeated for the Senate last month when Ohio went overwhelmingly for President Johnson, brushed aside as "rumor" reports that some party members were seeking to oust National Chairman Dean Burch. "Burch may rally behind as a possible replacement."

The Ohio congressman said in a telephone interview he has not concerned himself with the matter of the chairmanship because he feels it is much more important for Republicans to set up a continuing organization.

"We should set up a continuing party organization that gives all power centers and organizational units a part in policy formation," he said. "We can't get along just organizing the party for a presidential campaign every four years."

BACKS PROPOSAL
In this connection, Taft backed a proposal unanimously approved by GOP governors in a Denver meeting last week for formation of a policy council on which they, the National Committee, congressional leaders and others would be represented.

Burch, who faces a vote of confidence test at a Jan. 22 National Committee meeting, has endorsed the governors' proposal to expand the party leadership. He denied, as they indirectly charged, that he had

Religious Theme Is Favored for Christmas Cards

NEW YORK (UPI) — About 3.5 billion greeting cards are expected to be exchanged this Christmas, averaging more than 15 cards for every man, woman and child in the United States, according to the American Artists group.

The group, which was formed 30 years ago to use the medium of Christmas cards to popularize fine art, said trend analysis for 1964 shows public favor still swings largely to the devotional theme for Christmas.

Also strong in popular choice this year are the related theme of peace and international travel, said the group, whose cards represent the work of 400 to 500 of the nation's leading artists and illustrators.

"The trend to sentiment is shared by business leaders," it said. "Perhaps in reaction to automation with its diminution of personal contact, impersonal 'corporate cards' are fading away."

"More and more company officials make sure their friends and associates, in and out of business, are cordially greeted by cards representing their own individual taste (and not their secretaries' or purchasing agents'.)"

More than two-thirds of the people of Iran speak Persian, regarded as the nation's official language.

How You May

Never Take a Laxative Again!

New Miracle Regulator Keeps Waste Soft—So Bowels Move Naturally

New York, N.Y. (Special) — After 12 years' research, scientists have discovered a wonder-working substance that corrects constipation entirely without laxatives! Doctors say most constipation occurs when waste loses moisture in the colon—becomes dry, hard, difficult to move. To give relief, laxatives have to force action by flushing, irritating or distending the intestine.

The new miracle substance—known medically as dicyclo-sodium sulfosuccinate—works in a completely different way. It is not a laxative! It simply makes natural moisture in the colon moisten and soften dry, hard waste more effectively. Thus normal elimination follows naturally. Thus by working only on waste, not on you, the substance corrects constipation and restores regularity as no laxative can.

This new discovery has now been made available at drugstores under the name REGUTOL. It is safe—no habit-forming. No warning on the label—no prescription needed. Try REGUTOL—discover for yourself that you may never need to take a laxative again!

practiced as chairman any policy of "exclusion" of party progressives.

A scheduled New York meeting today between Sen. Barry Goldwater, the defeated presidential nominee, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and former President Dwight D. Eisenhower may produce some suggestions for party reorganization.

Taft, who did not subscribe to some of Goldwater's views in the campaign, said he thinks differences between Republicans have been exaggerated.

GENERAL AGREEMENT

"I think there is general agreement on the basic philosophy that there is real danger in continuing to build up the federal government," he said. "What differences there are about that is a matter of degree and emphasis."

But Taft said that he thinks there is one issue on which party differences cannot be compromised.

BURCH PRAISED

"The way things are now," he said, "a man can become a candidate and then go against the party policy."

Burch got praise Tuesday from Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky, head of the GOP Senatorial Campaign Committee, for his financial cooperation with that group and the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee.

Morton wrote Burch that there have been reports "indicating a lack of full cooperation between the Republican National Finance Committee and the two Capitol Hill committees."

"You and I know the facts," he said. "You inherited a situation in which a deficit existed and to your credit you finished the campaign with a surplus."

Jury Indicts in Kidnaping

CHICAGO (AP) — A federal grand jury accused three men Tuesday of kidnaping an Indianapolis purchasing agent who was found slain last month near Escanaba, Mich.

Conviction under the indictment could carry the death penalty.

Those indicted are Ray W. Thornburn, 37, alias Jerry Lee Rogers; Philip Battaglia Jr., 23, and Robert D. Lazzaro, 27. The victim of the alleged kidnaping was William R. Loomis, 39, whose body was found by deer hunters Nov. 21.

ANSWERED AD
The indictment said Loomis came to Chicago in October to sell his foreign built sports car and that the three defendants answered Loomis' advertisement.

They lured Loomis to their north-side apartment, the indictment added, where Thornburn drew a gun and had Loomis bound and gagged and driven to Michigan. The government accused Thornburn of taking Loomis from the car, marching him into the woods and shooting him to death.

Meeting Set on Capitol Space

House Dems Asking for More Room

LANSING (AP)—House Democrats—their ranks now swelled to 71—are asking for more elbow room in the capitol for all legislators, more stenographers and a bigger and better staff.

Rep. Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, the newly elected speaker of the House, said after a Democratic planning committee meeting Tuesday that legislators should be provided office space.

They want one stenographer for every four legislators, whether Republican or Democrat, increasing the size of the stenographers pool from 19 to 28.

The Legislative Service Bureau will have to be expanded under terms of the new constitution, as a legislative council which will do research, draft bills and recommend changes in law.

CHECK SPACE
The Democrats will meet with state property manager John Gaffner and Gov. George Romney "to see what can be done" about space in the state's 90-year-old Capitol Building.

Legislators, who begin drawing their new salary of $10,000 plus $2,500 in expense money when they convene Jan. 13, are expected to devote almost full time to their duties in Lansing. Kowalski said earlier.

"For 16 years I have been coming up here and had to work at my desk," he said Tuesday. "I don't want to wait two years to correct a situation that has existed since the capitol was put here."

Many state operations housed in the capitol "don't belong here," Kowalski said. He singled out the Department of Public Instruction. He would like to see the building devoted primarily to the legislative branch of government and the executive office.

UNDER CONSTRUCTION
Asked if this could lead to an eventual recommendation for a legislative office building, he answered: "Maybe." Two new state office buildings now are under construction.

The Democrats have about 62 positions to fill, including about 19 of the stenographers. Some of the present job holders, appointed during 25 years of Republican domination, will be asked to stay on, he said, especially those with technical skills. Some will be asked to remain in their present jobs until others can be trained to take their place.

In addition to nine stenographers, the 38 House Republicans would be authorized an administrative assistant to the minority floor leader, Kowalski said.

He said standing committees would have an approximate 2:1 ratio of Democrats to Republicans. This is about the same as the ratio when the Republicans were in power, he said, "except that we'll give them a better break than they gave us."

Bargaining Begins Today in Tariff Review

GENEVA (UPI) — The free world's most powerful trading nations opened talks here today in the biggest attempt ever made to boost international commerce by cutting tariffs.

Bargaining in the so-called "Kennedy round" of tariff cuts by the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) is expected to continue through next year.

The talks were inspired by the late President John F. Kennedy who proposed across-the-board tariff cuts of 50 per cent on all products bought and sold in the free world.

Few officials expect the final average tariff cut to come near the 50 per cent figure, but they predict some measure of success on the grounds that many nations will be unable to resist the chance of breaking into foreign markets through lower duties on their imports.

Bargaining began today on the basis of lists of goods which leading industrial states want to exclude from tariff cuts.

EXPLAIN WHY
Each nation now has to explain why these items should be exempted, a process expected to take several weeks.

After that, bargaining will enter a stage in which countries will offer to withdraw certain exceptions if other nations do likewise.

This is called the "justification and confrontation stage" of the Kennedy round.

Participants may only have a certain product, exempted from tariff cuts on grounds of overriding national interests.

HELD UP
The Kennedy round had been held up for months on technical grounds, mainly differences between the United States and Common Market on inclusion of farm products.

America wanted farm products included in an overall tariff-cutting plan while the Common Market wanted each agricultural item dealt with separately.

Eventually, the United States gave way. It is thought possible that the entire Kennedy round would have collapsed unless America had done this.

Now it has been agreed to liberalize trade in farm produce as far as possible without including these items in an over-all formula.

Bargaining will for the time being be concentrated only on manufactured goods.

SANTA and the SINGING TURTLE

By LUCRECE BEALE

(Synopsis—Prince Chad and the turtle are on the way to Santa Land to the music festival. They are followed by a man who is sworn to prevent the Prince from ever returning to his kingdom.)

CHAPTER FOUR

"Oh, dear," cried the Prince to the one-eyed Snowman. "There must be something we can do to save you!"

"Nothing at all," said the Snowman sorrowfully. "It happens to me every year.

"Children make us when the snow comes, then forget us when the sun shines. In a little while we melt away and no one even remembers we once were here."

"I know what we could do," said the Prince. He turned to George who only now ambled his slow way up to them. "We could take him to Santa Land with us! There it is always cold and he would never melt away."

George tossed his head and tapped an impatient foot. "He can't walk!" he said shortly.

"But I can!" protested the one-eyed Snowman. "If I have some place to go to, I can walk. Usually snowmen have no place to go to and that is why—"

"No, no," interrupted George. "You can't go with us. It simply makes too much of a crowd and all the commotion has already caused me seriously to neglect my singing."

"Was that you singing?" exclaimed the Snowman. "I heard you as you came down the road and I thought to myself I had never heard so noble a sound."

"Eh?" said George. "And is that why you were groaning?"

MOANED

"Indeed, yes. I moaned to think that I would never hear such sound again."

"I see," said George, puffing up as far as he could inside his shell. "It appears that you have a very good ear for music!"

"Well, I suppose it will matter too much if you come along with the Prince and me. Only, let's hurry along, for goodness' sake—and no more interruptions, please!"

The Prince gave the one-eyed Snowman a push to get him started. Then he held the fellow's arm to steady him until he got used to moving his big clumsy legs and was able to stagger along under his own power.

FLOODS ALONG

Meanwhile, George plodded along in his slow turtle way. Taking everything into consideration, it appeared to the Prince that it was going to take a very long time to get to where they were going.

It appeared that way, too, to Womp, the man with the very impatient to get his job over with.

But George was in excellent spirits. It was a fine, clear day—the very best kind of day for George's voice—and as he sauntered along he freely exercised his remarkable vocal chords.

He sang through two complete operas, taking all parts, for his voice could cover all ranges from soprano to basso profundo. He was about to begin a third opera when the Prince began to be truly worried and dared to interrupt.

HOW FAR?

"How much farther to Santa Land?"

"About 40,000 miles roughly," said George, opening his eyes for the first time since the walk began.

"Forty thousand miles! We can never walk that far in three days!"

"I don't intend to walk, your Majesty," retorted George. "We will go by Hoppy HopeandPray's underground railway, the entrance to which is not far away. In fact, if I have counted my steps correctly it should be around the next bend in the road."

Sure enough, when they rounded the next bend they came upon a hollowed-out oak tree. On it was a sign saying:

UNDERGROUND

"Hoppy HopeandPray's Underground Railway."

"What a strange name!" said the Prince.

"Not at all," replied George. "You just hop on and hope and pray you get there!"

70 New Dems to Be Greeted

Full Day Planned for U. S. House Freshmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's freshman orientation day today for some 70 new House Democrats — a time to receive sage advice and shake the hand of the President.

A long day, it starts bright and early with a discourse by Kenneth R. Harding, deputy House sergeant at arms, on the machinery of Congress and how laws are made.

In less than a month, the newcomers will be sworn in for the first session of the 89th Congress and quickly will be enmeshed in the job of legislating for the nation.

Following Harding is Lawrence F. O'Brien, the White House congressional liaison man, whose job it is to impress upon the Democrats on Capitol Hill what the man in the White House would like them to do.

LUNCH, SPEECHES

Then comes lunch — and speeches by the entire Democratic House leadership: Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, Majority Leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma and the whip, Hale Boggs of Louisiana.

Also Rep. Michael J. Kirwan of Ohio, who heads the congressional committee that provides funds and other assistance for Democrats running for Congress.

Experienced senior Democrats officiate at briefing classes in the afternoon, answering freshmen's questions.

Then, finally, comes the big moment: trooping over to the White House to meet President Johnson, onetime Texas congressman, and the Vice President-elect, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey.

White Lake Twp. Opposes Tax

Further nonresident opposition to Pontiac's income tax was given to the City Commission last night.

White Lake Township went on record as opponents of the income levy, slated to go into effect Jan. 1 unless referendum petitions are filed.

The commission received a resolution from the White Lake Township Board opposing the pending tax.

Signed by Township Clerk Ferdinand C. Vetter, the resolution was adopted by the township board Nov. 17 by a unanimous vote.

The resolution points out that city residents get benefits from paying for them just as non-Pontiac residents get benefits from the city while working here.

TOTALY OPPOSED

Calling the income levy "discriminatory, inequitable and inconsiderate," the township board is recorded as "totally opposed" to the tax, the resolution stated.

ANNUAL BUDGET

The fund makes up an annual budget of $28,549. In 1965, Pontiac Township may join the city, boosting the budget to $32,416 with state aid.

This money, said Warren, is used to pay portions of city staff time spent on the project and to provide books, supplies and transportation of the stock of books.

It would seem to be one more area where the city is acting as a core city in making available greater facilities to rural libraries than could possibly be

Sign for Billy Not Very Bully

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — A sign painter in the Alabama Highway Department undoubtedly is very certain of the spelling of Billy Watson's name — now.

When he painted some signs recently announcing that a highway had been named in honor of the long-time friend of Gov. George C. Wallace, he wasn't so certain.

The signs read "Billie Watson Highway."

The error drew only one comment from "Mr. Billy" — "He must have thought I was a girl."

The signs are to be repainted — with the correct spelling.

added if they were operating alone," said Warren.

A group of Waterford Township residents, commenting on the city's expected added revenue (the income tax), had another nonresident proposal before the commission last night.

RESIDENTS SIGN

A petition signed by 82 per cent of the residents in the Oakwood Manor subdivision, Waterford Township, was presented.

The township residents, citing in a letter the expected benefits from an income tax, asked for a fence on the west edge of Hawthorne Park.

The park's western border is on the city-township line. The township residents want the city to construct a Cyclone fence to keep park-users off their properties.

Taylor indicated a fence would be possible if the tax goes through.

LEGAL ACTION

In other action last night, the commission authorized legal action against Sam Allen & Son, Inc. 22 E. Congress.

Prompted by complaints from neighbors of the scrap yard, the commission has decided to seek an injunction in Circuit Court to stop alleged violations of city ordinances.

The scrap firm, according to the commission resolution, is charged with maintaining a public nuisance and violating city zoning laws.

Residents of the area have complained over operation of a new metal crushing machine at the scrap yard.

WEEDING BILL

A $2,366 bill for weeding cutting in 1964 on vacant lots was presented to the commission last night.

The commission authorized the city assessor to prepare a roll to assess the costs to the individual lot owners.

City Manager Warren reported last night on bus operations for the month of November.

Revenue increased last month from $14,387 for October to $15,452, according to figures furnished by Pontiac Transit Corp.

LESS PASSENGERS

However, local buses had less passengers during the month, reporting 65,077 as compared to 71,109 for October.

The passenger total was the lowest since the 57,348 riders reported in August of this year.

In still other business last night, the commission received a report from the city attorney on setting the quota for the number of liquor licenses in the city.

City Attorney William A. Ewart presented an opinion from the state attorney ruling that supported Ewart's 1963 ruling that the city could not set a quota that conflicted with the state formula.

LESSER NUMBER

In 1963, Ewart had said that the city's 1962 ordinance was null and void because it set a lesser quota than the state formula, which provides for one license for every 1,500 persons.

The City Commission was notified that the American Municipal Association has changed its name to the National League of Cities.

Orchard Lake Adopts City Charter by 230-75 Margin

ORCHARD LAKE — Electors in Oakland County's newest city yesterday adopted a charter for its operation by a 2-1 margin.

The 230-75 vote tally resulted in an even more emphatic "yes" than that which converted the village into a city March 3.

However, the voter turnout of 313 was less than that which passed the incorporation question 204-124. Eight of yesterday's ballots were invalid.

While adopting the charter, voters also elected a six-member City Council that will take office Monday.

High vote-getters were Frederick S. Leary Jr., 192, and Sylvester Leary, 186, who will serve three-year terms.

2-YEAR TERMS

Winners of two-year terms were Mrs. Katherine M. Baker, 177, and John C. Hall, 168.

Those who will serve one-year terms are Everett R. Casey, 162, and Kenneth Treacy, 161.

All served on the nine-member commission which drafted the charter, and Hall and Casey also sat on the now defunct Village Commission.

Unsuccessful candidates for the new council were Village President Fred J. Walls, 153; Village Commissioner Edwin M. Douglas, 118; Theodore Bloom, 116; and Harold Knisley, 107.

CHARTER COMMISSION

The latter three also were members of the charter commission.

Yesterday's unofficial tally awarded 221 votes to the single candidate for municipal judge, Martin J. Kabcenell.

Regular council terms after the new ones expire will be for three years.

The first governing body for the City of Orchard Lake will meet at 8 p.m. Monday at the City Hall to be sworn into office.

NEW COUNCIL

The reins of government then will be turned over to the new council and the unit will be divorced from the title of village and from its ties with West Bloomfield Township.

A mayor will be elected from the council ranks, in the same manner that a village president formerly was chosen by the commission.

Having a population of about 1,200 and assessed valuation at $3.5 million, the city retains former village boundaries.

Its borders on three sides are Cass Lake, Orchard Lake Road and the railroad tracks south of Pontiac Trail. The western boundary jags through Upper Straits Lake.

TO 29 MILLS

With the tax limitations raised from 15 to 20 mills, the city expects to add about $15,000 to its income of $73,000 from taxes and $25,000 in state refunds.

City property owners no longer will pay the township levy, this year set at 4.35 mills.

One of the first problems confronting the new council will be providing fire protection. Charter commissioners have said this can be rented from the township for between $8,000 and $9,000 a year.

The Township Board, which now has fire protection contracts with Keego Harbor and Sylvan Lake, has indicated such an arrangement cannot be guaranteed.

LIBRARY FEE

City residents using the township library will now be charged a $3 nonresident fee.

The idea of incorporating the unit as a city was offered by a citizens committee which last year backed the plan as the best way to maintain the attributes of the rural-residential community while protecting it from annexation or incorporation within a larger unit.

Rochester Gives Go-Ahead on Urban Renewal Project

ROCHESTER — Village residents, the vast majority of them property owners, gave the green light to the East Third Street Urban Renewal Project yesterday.

In a two-proposition election, voters passed a $190,000 bond issue proposal by a two-to-one margin and a charter amendment got their approval by almost the same majority.

Village officials were given permission to borrow $190,000 and issue bonds to cover that amount in order to finance Rochester's share of the cost of the renewal project by a 337-149 margin.

The 70 per cent in favor of the bond issue exceeded the needed minimum of three-fifths of votes cast, or 60 per cent. Only property owners could cast ballots on this proposition.

A vote of 343-144 gave the village permission to sell urban renewal property valued in excess of $2 per capita (about $12,000) without a village-wide vote.

TO SELL ACREAGE

This step was necessary in order that Rochester may sell the 31 acres in the renewal area to developers, who will then bring light industry to the 18 sites to be provided.

The $2 per capita maximum on land that can be sold by the village was set by the Village Charter. The amendment passed yesterday exempts only renewal land from this restriction.

Village Assessor and Urban Renewal Director Ernest C. Reschke said this morning that the results of the election indicate that the thinking of the people is progressive and that they have faith in Rochester's future.

Reschke said that he expects that contracts for the initial work on the land involved to be awarded after the first of the year.

TO BE RAZED

This work will include the razing of 90 per cent of the structures now on the property, including 26 rental units and eight owner-occupied houses.

The land will then be massgraded and improved, a process that will involve the straightening of Paint Creek, new railroad bridges over Paint Creek and Baldwin Avenue and a new street entrance to supplement the present steep Third Street approach.

The cost of improving the land is estimated at about $20,000 per acre.

Once prepared for light industry, the land will be resold by the village to developers at about $5,000 per acre.

LARGE PORTION

The large portion of the project's cost will be met with $331,778 in federal funds, but the village will have sole control and ownership of the land during the improvement phase of the project.

Present residents of the area will receive actual relocation expenses or a flat $200 relocation payment, plus help from the Urban Renewal Authority in finding a new place to live.

When completed, the project is expected to result in a tremendous increase in tax revenues from the area into village and school coffers.

With only 30 per cent of the land redeveloped and occupied by light industry, experts estimate village tax revenues of $30,000 and school tax intake of $100,000 from the renewal area.

This is compared with present village taxes of $1,700 and school taxes of $6,500 from the entire renewal area.

The Oxford Township drive will begin at 3 p.m. Friday and at 6 a.m. Saturday, running until dark.

Money collected there goes toward clothing for needy children in the township. Last year, the Lions collected $1,500 and spent $2,000 in this effort.

Highland Township firemen will begin their drive at 1 p.m. Saturday, working the major intersections until dark with a 20-man force.

Funds collected there will provide Christmas dinner baskets for the needy.

CLOTHING MONEY

About 25 Lake Orion Lions will begin selling papers as soon as they are available Friday and all day Saturday, aiming at collecting $1,200 for clothing and other necessities for needy families.

Chairman Jim Sheldon will be assisted by co-chairman Leo Sabatini in directing the sale.

Recount Confirms Bruce Twp. Vote

BRUCE TOWNSHIP — Local attorney Edward A. Jacob yesterday lost out on his bid to unseat Macomb Probate Judge-elect Francis A. Castellucci as township justice of the peace.

Jacob had petitioned for a recount of the write-in votes for both Castellucci and himself in the Nov. 3 election. He had received 10 votes to Castellucci's 15.

Yesterday, the Macomb County Board of Canvassers conducted the recount, which took about an hour and 35 minutes, and reaffirmed the township election committee's totals.

Present for the recount as challengers were Jacob's attorney, Gary Corbin, and Mr. and Mrs. John Fowler.

"Despite the findings of the recount, the challengers did not appear satisfied with the recount," said Edward Sutherland, township clerk.

VOTED FOR HIM

In his petition Jacob said 35 local citizens had told him they had voted for him.

According to Sutherland, these names did not appear on the ballot, with the exception of the 10 that were recorded, and no affidavits had been received saying that they had voted.

Also in his petition Jacob had said he had "reason to believe that because of the mistakes and or errors on the part of the election committee in charge of counting the votes, that some of the votes were not counted."

ONE PRECINCT

Jacob had petitioned for a recount just in one of the two township precincts — the one which covers the north half of the village. This is Precinct 1 in which he received eight of his 10 write-in votes.

Cost of the recount to the township was "over $200" Sutherland said. The petitioner's fee of $5 would have been refunded had the results been changed.

Corbin said today his client has accepted the recount decision and plans no further action.

SMOOTH WHITE SAUCE IS UNIVERSAL BASE

Everyone has at some time in life known a really superb cook. If you know more than one, you are indeed fortunate; and it just might be that you are one of these people yourself. Cooks perform their magic with a minimum of pots and pans, the simplest of ingredients and plenty of imagination.

One kitchen magician I know says the starts off with a white sauce and continues from there. A good basic white sauce can go on to be cream soup or a base for the casserole. It can be gravy or the difference between plain green beans and Green Beans Parisienne. Let's start with the white sauce itself, remembering that the magic is in the choice of ingredients. You use Keyko Margarine as a spread, have Keyko on the table and use it for baking. Make the white sauce with Keyko, too!

Melt 1/4 cup Keyko in saucepan over low heat. Blend in 1/2 cup flour. Gradually add 2 cups milk.

Always use low heat or make the sauce in a double boiler to keep the delicate Keyko flavor. Use a large spoon for blending the flour and keep stirring as you add the milk. When thickened, keep the sauce hot over boiling water. Add salt and pepper as needed, of course. 2 cups cooked, drained potatoes, 1/2 cup chopped chives and a little more milk makes potato soup. Slice up the cheese in the sauce and pour over the macaroni for a casserole. For gravy, simply add the basic white sauce to the pan drippings after the roast has been removed. Add a little curry powder in the sauce and serve on left-over lamb curry. Those beans? The white sauce, plus 1/4 cup chopped onion and a can of drained mushrooms with cooked green beans. The white sauce makes smooth, creamy, stirring constantly and you must start with the best ingredients, which simply means using Keyko Margarine. You supply the imagination yourself.

Annotator for the evening will be Joseph P. Sullivan of the speech department, Members of the Future Teachers Club will serve as ushers.

The finale will be the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah," with all three musical groups taking part.

No admission will be charged and no free will offering will be taken at the concert.

ROCK — The music department of Romeo High School will stage its annual Christmas concert Tuesday evening in the high school gymnasium.

The 8 p.m. program will feature the concert band under the direction of E. C. Ojala playing traditional and familiar yuletide music.

The concert choir and mixed choruses, directed by Raymond Voorhees, will present the Bach cantata, "For Us a Child Is Born," and a group of other holiday selections.

Cantata soloists will be Julie Womsey, Judi Gamm, Walter Schmidt and John Moore. Penny Roe is accompanist for the chorus.

Engineers Set Area Meeting

A history of township government and its prospects for the future will be presented to the Michigan Society of Professional Engineers of Oakland County tomorrow night.

West Bloomfield Township Supervisor John C. Rehard, a professional engineer, will discuss "Township Government — Past, Present and Future" at the 7 p.m. dinner meeting.

The event will be held at Devon Gardens, 1115 W. Long Lake, Bloomfield Township.

Rehard, township supervisor since 1959, is a member of the Oakland County Board of Supervisor's physical planning committee.

SCENE OF DEATH — In this $400,000 apartment building in Temple City, Calif., Todd Nicholson, 22, was shot to death yesterday. His twin brother, Timothy, is being held on suspicion in the death. He claims he shot his brother with a rifle accidentally, but police say two bullets were fired from the rifle and are continuing the investigation.

Asks Fight in Congress on Districts

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., called today for a session-long fight in Congress, if necessary, to set aside a judicial ruling on make-up of state legislatures.

Aiken said the recent U.S. Supreme Court repositionment ruling would turn the nation over to big city political machine control.

It is time, the New Englander said, for citizens, especially those in rural areas, to "rise on our hind legs and fight this infringement of our democratic rights."

Aiken, in a talk prepared for the American Farm Bureau annual convention, referred to a decision of the U.S. Supreme Court that membership in state legislative bodies must be based on population alone.

He said that this ruling would turn all governmental decision-making to urban areas, many of which, he said, are controlled by political machines.

Rural areas, he said, would lose out in government services such as roads, education and the like and would be subjected to taxes they could not pay.

Aiken called upon Congress to adopt a resolution submitting a proposed amendment to the federal Constitution to continue the practice of basing membership in one state legislative body on population and the other on other factors, including area.

In one of the strongest attacks ever made on the high court by a member of Congress, Aiken also appealed for action to curb powers of the tribunal, particularly in the area of ruling on the constitutionality of acts of Congress.

The Republican lawmaker said a Senate filibuster this year prevented the submission of a proposed congressional amendment which would give the states themselves sole power to determine the makeup of their legislatures.

Brother Fatally Shot

Ponder Charges for Twin

TEMPLE CITY, Calif. (AP) — Authorities pondered today whether to bring charges against wealthy, handsome Timothy W. Nicholson, 22, in the gunshot death of his identical twin.

They promised a decision today.

The youthful real estate operator, whose relatives control two of the nation's leading industrial concerns, awaited the news in the Los Angeles County Jail.

He was booked on suspicion of murder yesterday after sheriff's deputies said they found discrepancies in his story of how his twin, Todd F. Nicholson, was killed Monday night.

Another reason for the booking, the officers said, was that the death weapon — a 22-caliber rifle — had been fired twice.

CLAIMS ACCIDENT

Timothy maintained the shooting was accidental, and an attorney representing him told newsmen:

"This is another loaded gun tragedy."

The attorney said Timothy and Todd were talking when Timothy mentioned weapons he had owned, saying the 22-caliber rifle was the only one left. The lawyer gave this account:

"He took it off the rack, not believing there was anything in it."

One round was fired, accidentally into the carpet. Tim was astonished to see there was anything in the rifle. He thought he had cleared the rifle.

"Todd said, 'That's the way accidents happen.'"

"Tim said, 'Yes, that was a stupid thing to do, but it's clear now.'"

FIRES AGAIN

"Somewhere the trigger got pressed again. Todd clutched his chest. Tim ran from the room screaming, 'Call an ambulance. I've accidentally shot Todd, call an ambulance.'" Todd's death came in his quarters at a $400,000, 45-unit luxury apartment house here owned by the brothers.

The twins were owners also of the Sun Investment and Development Corp. in Phoenix, Ariz., but deputies said Todd was in the process of transferring their operations to Southern California.

Sheriff's officers said each twin inherited $500,000 when they reached their 18th birthday.

TWIN'S UNCLE

In Phoenix, Mrs. E. A. Cudahy Sr. said her husband is an uncle of the twins. Cudahy is honorary board chairman of the Cudahy Packing Co.

She said further that another uncle of the Nicholsons is Champ Carry of Lake Forest, Ill. Carry is the retired president of the Pullman Co.

An attorney said the brothers' inheritance came from a trust fund set up by their father, Edward (Teddy) Nicholson, an investment banker active in the Pullman empire.

Nicholson was divorced from Mrs. Roberta Nicholson, mother of the twins, at the time of his death. Mrs. Nicholson drove here from her home in El Cajon, Calif., near San Diego, upon learning of Todd's death.

10,000 Persons Fete

Thai King's Birthday

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — More than 10,000 persons attended a royal garden party last night to celebrate the king of Thailand's 37th birthday.

The party was held on the palace grounds at Bangkok. The guest list included the royal family, cabinet ministers, the diplomatic corps, ranking military officers and prominent businessmen. King Bhumibol Adulyadej was born in the United States and educated in Switzerland.

COOKIE CARDS — These Christmas cards made of molasses-cookie dough are a delightfully edible version of that nice tradition of sending the greetings of the season to one's family and friends. Junior cooks and bakers will love to help make these, and who wouldn't like to help eat them!

Spicy, Gingery

Send Out Edible Cards

What fun! What fun! A Christmas cookie - card. It bears a very special message which will be remembered long after the greeting itself has been consumed. It can be packaged and mailed, used as place card, or tied to a gift under the tree. By whatever route, it makes a delectable eating.

The cookie - cards are made from a basic molasses - cookie recipe; the same dough can be cut into other special shapes to suit the holiday season — or into animal or geometric shapes for enjoyment at other times of the year.

The white ornamental frosting may be tinted with a drop or two of vegetable coloring.

Christmas Card Molasses Cookies

1 1/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1/4 teaspoon baking soda
1/4 teaspoon ginger
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup light, mild or dark molasses
1/4 cup soft shortening
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
Sift dry ingredients together.

In a saucepan, bring molasses and shortening to a boil; cool slightly. Stir in flour mixture and lemon rind. Chill well.

Preheat oven to 375 degrees or moderate. On lightly floured board, roll dough out to 1/4-inch thickness. With sharp knife, cut dough into 4x6" rectangles. Or with Christmas cookie cutter, cut out Santas, reindeers, angels, etc. Place on greased cookie sheet. Bake 8 to 10 minutes or until done.

When cookies are cooled, decorate with Ornamental Frosting put through a pastry tube or clean envelope. Decorate with silver dragées and tiny varicolored candies. Makes about 3 dozen cut-out cookies.

Ornamental Frosting

1 pkg. (1 lb.) confectioners' sugar
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
3 egg whites
1/4 teaspoon vanilla
Sift sugar and cream of tartar together. Add egg whites and vanilla. Beat until so stiff that a knife drawn through mixture leaves a clean-cut path.

This Rye Bread Light-Colored and Sweet

This sweet rye bread will delight the youngsters.

Swedish Rye Bread

2 cups milk
2 tablespoons sugar
1 tablespoon salt
2 tablespoons shortening
1 package active dry yeast
2 1/2 cups warm water
1/2 cup light molasses
3 cups white flour
3 cups stone ground rye flour

Scald milk; stir in sugar, salt and shortening. Sprinkle yeast on warm water; stir to dissolve; add lukewarm milk mixture. Stir in molasses.

Add white flour and beat well to make a smooth dough. Add rye flour. Knead on lightly floured board.

Place in greased bowl, tucking grease top. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk — 1 1/2 to 2 hours. Punch down and let rise again for about 45 minutes.

Shape into 2 loaves and place in 2 loaf pans (each about 8 by 4 by 3 inches). Let rise until doubled — about 1 hour. Bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven for 10 minutes. Continue baking at 350 degrees for 35 to 40 minutes.

Cool, Not Icy

Don't store potatoes, sweet potatoes, dry onions, eggplant and rutabagas in the refrigerator. They keep well in cool rather than cold storage.

Early Day Treat

In Charleston, S. C., shrimp are a breakfast favorite. Freshly caught shrimp are purchased in the early hours of the morning from street vendors. The shrimp are sold by the plate, rather than by the pound, each plate containing more than a pound. South Carolinians like their breakfast shrimp pan-fried briefly in butter and served with hominy.

Fruit Touch for Squash

For the holiday meal, serve a vegetable as delicious as any other course on the menu — baked squash with a tangy fruit flavor, for instance.

Halve acorn squash lengthwise and remove seeds and stringy portion. Sprinkle each half with 1/4 teaspoon MSG. This adds no flavor of its own, brings out all the garden-fresh flavor of the vegetable.

Add to each cavity 1 tablespoon brown sugar, 1 teaspoon butter, 1 tablespoon orange or apple juice, a dash of salt, nutmeg and ginger. Bake in a 375 degree oven for one hour, or until tender.

Examine chicken livers before cooking and cut away any spots of gall.

Kids Will Complain

Spinach can do your family what it's done for Popeye and here's a way to spark vegetable bean soup and treat that family all at one time. Combine 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed vegetable bean soup and 1 can water; add 1/2 cup chopped fresh spinach. Simmer until spinach is tender—about 1 or 2 minutes, stirring now and then. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

New Cookbooks Full of Good Ideas

Post-Press Food Editor

To many women, getting a new cookbook is as exciting as receiving the latest best seller. This fall has been a bumper year for cookbooks. We're calling a number to your attention as possible Christmas gifts or for you to add to your own collection.

Cecily Brownstone, AP food editor, sent along her list with brief reviews on each. We're using part of that, then adding some of our own.

Cecily says:

"The Spice Cookbook" by Avanelle Day and Lillie Stuckey (David White) is a big book, both in size and scope, with a wealth of material. It has delectable lore, practical information and thoroughly tested recipes.

All the cooking categories are represented, and the recipes have been so well chosen — from both American and European sources — that they make a comprehensive collection for everyday and company cooking.

"The Art of Danish Cooking" by Nika Standen Hazelton (Doubleday) is a delight because the Danish cuisine is so worthwhile and because the author took pains to make her material authentic by collecting it during an extended stay in Denmark.

Her book, rich in background and written in a friendly style, is as interesting to read as it would be to cook from. All the good Danish foods are treated — from Smørrebrød to desserts.

Mrs. Hazelton tested all the recipes in this book in this country so that American cooks would have the best chance of using them successfully.

"Great Dishes of the World" by Robert Carrier (Random House) has striking format and color illustrations, beguiling introductions to each group of recipes, and a sampling of international dishes that the author particularly enjoys.

Robert Carrier is food editor of the London Sunday Times and his book has been a great success in England. Americans, too, should enjoy it.

Now, from our own reading we suggest these:

Elsie Masterion, secretary-turned-gourmet cook has a new cookbook called "Blueberry Hill Kitchen Notebook" (Crowell).

In addition to 300 recipes in chapters headed "You elegant few!" or "Some Starches I like" and others as facetious, there are dozens of hints, ideas and even pet hates.

The Kitchen Notebook is available alone or in a boxed slipcase with her two earlier cookbooks, Elsie refers to them as her "Blueberry Hill-ers."

Poppy Cannon is going to make a lot of people happy with her "Fast Gourmet Cookbook" (Fleet Publishing Corp.). In it she discusses 134 complete menus ready to serve in 30 minutes or less. It takes a bit of ingenuity and she cheats just a little once or twice.

But for the woman who combines a job and homemaking or for any harried cook, this book is a find.

Everything you would want to know about wine is between the covers of Greyton H. Taylor's "Treasury of Wine and Wine Cookery" (Harper and Row).

Written by a vice president and director of the Taylor Wine Co. in New York state, this book is an outgrowth of his interest. With the interest in My Fair Lady revived by the current movie, Emma Dempster's "My Fair Lady Cooks" (Peter Glenn Publications) should strike a responsive chord.

For six years Emma Dempster toured with the National Company of "My Fair Lady" while her husband played Colonel Pickering. She kept house and cooked in hotel rooms all over the country.

Her recipes are on the gourmet side and not inexpensive, by any means. But the book is delightful reading and lets you in on back stage life of a touring theatrical company.

Better Homes and Gardens has not only sold 10 million of its cookbooks, but now has a seventh edition.

Since 1930, this book has consistently reflected the cooking tastes of the average American cook. The gray ring-bound volume offers 1500 recipes, plus charts, menus, special helps and other kitchen information.

Better Homes and Gardens also has another new cookbook "Famous Food from Famous Places," giving recipes from interesting restaurants throughout the country.

AUTHORS — COOKS — Avanelle Day and Lillie Stuckey worked together to produce "The Spice Cookbook," a large and well-tested compilation of interesting recipes.

Keeping Olives

To keep ripe and green ripe olives fresh and glossy for hours at room temperature, drain and dry them on paper towels. Then roll the olives, one at a time, in a small dish containing a few drops of salad or olive oil. If desired sprinkle with a little dry mustard, chili powder or dehydrated onions.

Small, but Good

"Shrimp" meant "a little person or thing" long before the name was applied to the shellfish. The dictionary traces the word to the Middle English "shrimpe" or "puny person," which is closely akin to the old German for "wrinkle," the Swedish for "shrink," and the Latin for "curved." Get the connection?

Coffee Sweets Are Simple to Make

Teen-age parties are always in season, especially the informal kind. And there's nothing easier and more popular to serve than homemade candies or cookies — sure to win masculine approval, too!

Here are three recipes that are simple to make, pretty to look at and luscious to eat. They all have coffee flavor, combined with other popular favorites such as chocolate, peanuts, marshmallows, cashews, and crunchy cereals.

These and other unusual recipes with coffee flavor, or to serve with coffee, are found in a new pocket-size cookbook, "The (Maxwell House) Coffee Cookbook."

A glance at the table of contents shows the variety of ideas to be found there:

"Coffee And —," suggestions for foods to serve with coffee, "Coffee Break: England," "Very Very Cool," "Gifts From Your Kitchen" and many others. The 272-page book is just 38 cents at your book store or newsstand.

Coffee Cashew Kisses
2 egg whites
1 1/2 cups sugar
2 tablespoons instant quality coffee
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup chopped cashew nuts
1 teaspoon vanilla

Beat egg whites until foamy throughout. Combine sugar, instant coffee, and salt; gradually add to egg whites, beating well after each addition. Then continue beating until mixture will form stiff, shiny peaks. Fold in cashew nuts and vanilla. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto greased baking sheets.

Bake at 325 degrees for about 15 minutes, or until golden brown. Makes 3 dozen.

Mocha Peanut Clusters
1 package (6 oz.) glazed semi-sweet chocolate chips
16 large marshmallows, quartered
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 tablespoon instant quality coffee
2 cups salted peanuts
Combine chocolate chips, marshmallows, and butter in top of double boiler. Cook over hot water, stirring occasionally, until melted and smooth. Mix in instant coffee. Remove from heat and stir in peanuts. Drop from a teaspoon onto wax paper. Cool until firm. Makes about 3 dozen clusters.

Mocha Squares
3 cups sugar coated crisp rice cereal or honey-flavored puffed wheat
1 cup chopped nuts
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 cup light corn syrup
1/2 cup brewed quality coffee
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 square unsweetened chocolate
1 tablespoon butter or margarine

*Or use 1/2 teaspoon instant quality coffee dissolved in 1/2 cup water.

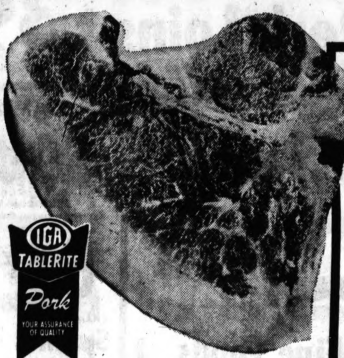

Mix cereal and nuts in large greased bowl. Combine sugar, corn syrup, coffee, and salt in saucepan. Bring to a boil over medium heat, stirring to dissolve sugar. Add chocolate and stir until melted. Continue cooking, without stirring, until a small amount of mixture forms a soft ball in cold water (or to a temperature of 234 degrees). Blend in butter.

Pour over cereal and nuts, mixing quickly. Pour into a buttered 9-inch square pan or 13x9-inch pan, or two 9x5-inch loaf pans. Chill until firm. Cut in small squares. Makes 6 to 8 dozen pieces.

Glaze for Ham

Pineapple luster glaze gives holiday buffet hams a handsome high sheen finish. Blend 1 (8-ounce) can crushed pineapple, 1/4 cup brown sugar, 1 teaspoon horseradish and 2 tablespoons catsup. Spoon on ham, small amounts at a time, last 30 or 40 minutes of baking. Arranging canned pineapple tidbits or slices in attractive pattern over ham before glazing adds to its good looks.

To a Man's Taste

Here's a soup that men will go for! Lightly brown 2 sliced sausage links and 2 tablespoons chopped onion. Add 1 can (10½ ounces) frozen condensed green pea with ham soup, 1 soup can water, ½ cup grated cabbage, and a dash leaf thyme. Heat slowly, stirring now and then. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

Basil Perfect in Tomatoes

This is a delightful way to vary canned tomatoes — and quick!
Phyl's Tomatoes With Celery
 1 can (1 pound, 12 ounces, tomatoes)
 1 teaspoon sugar
 1 teaspoon crushed dried basil
 Salt and pepper to taste
 1 cup very finely diced celery
 Heat the tomatoes with sugar, basil and salt and pepper. Just before serving add the celery and heat. Serve in sauce dishes if you like. Make 6 servings. (Use a brand of tomatoes packed so there is a minimum amount of juice.)

Ever mix cooked veal with cooked chicken — both minced — when making croquettes?

Olive Oil Improves Mayonnaise

A favorite hors d'oeuvre in Spain consists of hard boiled eggs covered with fresh mayonnaise and garnished with capers.

To give commercial mayonnaise a freshly-made flavor, simply add two tablespoons olive oil to each half cup of mayonnaise. This makes a superb sauce for any kind of seafood.

Blender Makes Quick Frosting

Why not mix up your own homemade mustard? It's sharp!

Mustard Pot Mustard
 2 tablespoons dry mustard
 1 tablespoon cider vinegar
 1 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon sugar
 1 tablespoon salad oil

In a mustard pot or other small container, stir together the mustard and vinegar until smooth. Add the sugar, salt and oil, still until smooth. Cover tightly and refrigerate for several days before using to allow flavors to blend and develop. Makes about ¼ cup.

Ever dip pieces of cooked chicken in a fritter batter and then deep-fat fry?

Tiny Ham Patties Are Fried for Appetizers

Hot hors d'oeuvre like these relish cocktail croquettes make a holiday hit.

Mix well together 2 (2½ ounce) cans of deviled ham, 1½ cup of sweet pickle relish, drained, 1 tablespoon of prepared horseradish, 1 teaspoon of paprika, 2 tablespoons of flour and 1 egg, slightly beaten. Shape level tablespoons of mixture into patties. Coat with fine dry bread crumbs, using total of about ½ cup crumbs. Fry in hot shallow fat until browned on both sides. Drain on absorbent paper. Makes about 14.

It is usually easy to remove wafer-type cookies from their baking pans if you use a pan-coating of fat and flour.

Fifth Annual Men's National Cooking Contest Open to Enthusiastic Male Chefs

In cooking, as in everything else, there's a woman behind every successful male cook, according to Marni Wood, Chief Nutritionist of the Fifth Annual Men's National Cooking Championship.

ing the 1965 U.S. cooking title and $1,000 grand award going with it.

Last year, over 120,000 men entered the Championship sponsored by the Potato Chip Institute International.

"Wives have strongly influenced every step of a husband's path to the cooking championship title," said Mrs. Wood. "Men are excellent cooks but need a little urging. They are shy about their skill at creating or preparing a main dish using potato chips. All they need is encouragement."

"Over 92 per cent of the winners never won an award before, and they thank their wives for their victories."

Any adult male may enter the Championship. No box tops, labels, or coupons are required.

He can send in as many recipes as he wants for original main dishes using potato chips as an ingredient to the

Professional chefs are barred.

A panel of leading women food experts judge the recipes on the basis of taste, texture, originality and appearance.

First, 50 State Cooking Champions will be chosen and awarded a handsome gold trophy; then 4 regional Champions will be selected from these State winners for the finals.

Each regional finalist will get a week's winter vacation for two starting January 31,

1965 at the luxurious Americana Hotel in New York City.

There is special kitchens set up for the Championship, they will prepare their prize dishes in the culinary battle for the National Cooking title plus $1,000. Runners-up receive $750 for second place, a $400 third award and a $300 fourth prize.

Nuns Make the Grade at Factory

EAST LANSING (AP)—Some habits had to be changed—in more ways than one—when two Michigan nuns went to work in a factory last summer.

For instance, "The first day we were there something went wrong on a job, and one of the men let loose with a loud and candid comment. You could almost hear an elbow hitting his ribs," said Sister Jean Lawrence of East Lansing.

In addition, she and Sister Janina of Detroit found the Dominican habits they wore—along with goggles and heavy gloves—were safer and more convenient to work in when a few modifications were made and aprons added.

"When we arrived at the plant to start work, it was just like dropping a bomb," Sister Jean Lawrence recalled.

COLORED WINDOWS

Their going to the Nobis Decorating Co. plant in North Canton, Ohio, was the idea of Mother Genevieve, superior at the Dominican motherhouse in Adrian.

The company makes faceted, colored glass windows for churches and other buildings. Mother Genevieve had been impressed with their colorful windows at the Church of the Sacred Heart in Caro, in Tuscola County.

Could she send two nuns to the plant to work during the summer as apprentices, she asked the owner, Rudy Nobis.

"Sure, any time," Nobis replied laughingly.

PUT TO WORK

"They had not really expected us," said Sister Jean Lawrence. "But they put us to work."

The two nuns, both school-teachers, began putting together four windows for the new Maria Hall for sick and aged nuns at Adrian.

"The men were a little upset by having women invade their private domain; especially the nuns," Sister Jean Lawrence added.

"But, after a while they seemed to get used to us," she said. "Whenever one of them would have a minor injury, we usually got the job of patching it up, since we were the only women in the shop."

TREATED DAILY

The factory workers, once they accepted the nuns as part of the work crew, treated them daily to soft drinks and coffee.

They also quickly came up with a name for the new workers. In their nuns' habits, goggles, gloves and aprons, and wielding hammer and chisels, they became known as the "chop-nuns."

12 Are Ordered off the Roads

Twelve area motorists recently had their drivers licenses either suspended or revoked by the Michigan Department of State.

Ordered to show proof of financial responsibility due to convictions of drunken driving were: Eugene Pryor, 462 Orchard Lake and John E. Vires, 580 East; and Harold Enliss, 411 Maple Hill, Avon Township.

Unsatisfactory driving records caused the following to be ordered off the road: Charlie Williams Jr., 363 Galing; Ronald L. Atkinson, 2215 Haynes, Farmington Township; Arthur Marcum, 880 Leinster, Avon Township; and Marvin L. Singleton, 7363 Shaker, Waterford Township.

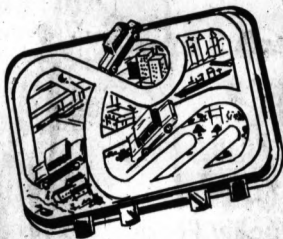

Ordered to show proof of financial responsibility due to an unsatisfactory judgment against them were: William L. Eddy, 426 N. Saginaw; Ronald Lee Atkinson, 2215 Haynes, Farmington Township; and David J. Hartway, 2960 Hensman, Keego Harbor.

Ordered off the road because of three convictions of reckless driving within a 12-month period was Michael L. Foster, 592 Watkins, Birmingham.

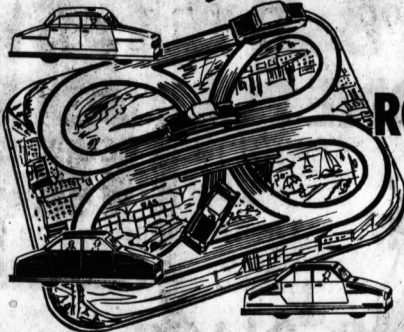

Clifford H. Berndt, 2103 Virginia, Troy, was ordered off the road for unlawfully driving away a motor vehicle.

Charge Scare Tactic to Quiet Criticism

IONIA (UPI) — Two Ionia State Hospital employees received suspension notice yesterday.

They immediately charged the action was a scare tactic to gag criticism at a possible legislative committee hearing into hospital conditions here tomorrow.

The two are Floyd Colley, a hospital attendant and president of the government employees union at the institution, and Donald Stanton, a ward supervisor.

They said they were given letters signed by Dr. Robert Peal, assistant director of the mental health department, informing them they would be suspended for two weeks starting Sunday.

They said they were told grounds given for the suspension was insubordination, stemming from an incident involving Dr. Peal Nov. 27.

FEARED REPRISAL

On that date, Dr. Peal made an investigation for his department of contentions that workers at the institution feared reprisals if they made any unfavorable comments about the hospital's operations.

A spokesman for the pair facing suspension, Holden Cook, said Colley and Stanton told Dr. Peal they had such information, but would divulge it only to the legislative committee.

Their refusal to give Peal the information triggered the suspension, Cook said.

He charged the suspension order was intended as a warning to other employees not to give unfavorable testimony.

BEATEN ON HEAD

Cook alleged Stanton was given an unfavorable assignment transfer for voicing criticism of hospital officials in a public letter after he was beaten on the head by a patient several weeks ago and had to be hospitalized several days.

A legislative committee investigation was requested after a patient who had been isolated for treatment of venereal disease committed suicide and the existence of more than 100 cases of the disease was uncovered at the all-male institution.

The investigation was asked by Rep. Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, who represents the district in which the suicide victim's parents live.

To Prepare for Possible Investigation

LANSING (AP)—Lawmakers will meet Thursday to set up ground rules for a possible investigation of irregularities at the Ionia State Hospital for the Criminal Insane.

Rep. David Upton, R-St. Joseph, said Tuesday the House Mental Health Committee meeting is being held at the request of House Speaker Allison Green, R-Kingston.

Green was asked to call for the investigation by Rep. Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, who will become House speaker next month, in the wake of the suicide of one of the inmates and reports of a high incidence of venereal disease at the hospital. The committee may visit the hospital Thursday afternoon "should preliminary hearings seem to justify immediate investigation," said Upton, committee chairman.

Ann Arbor Firm, UAW Agree on 3-Year Pact

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Kips Seely Thermos Co. and United Auto Workers Local 630 announced Tuesday they had reached agreement on a new three-year labor contract.

The new pact carries pension increases ranging from $200 to $452 annually, an added week of vacation, two additional holidays, full company payment of hospital-medical insurance and an additional $1,000 life insurance. It also continues an annual improvement factor wage increase and a cost of living allowance.

GLAZED HAM ROLLS — Maraschino cherries and pineapple chunks perch jauntily on top of little glazed ham rolls. This is an excellent way to use some of that leftover ham. Tuck the recipe away for your holiday entertaining.

Leftover Ham Put Into Glazed Rolls

Most homemakers have "two-way" recipes.

These are generally family favorites which can be glamorized for "company's coming" occasions.

A useful addition to the "two-way" recipe file would be Glazed Ham Rolls. These are especially timely for they can provide an appetizing means of "holiday leftovers" meal planning.

The holiday ham can be brought to meet the needs of a family supper or another round of entertaining.

The ham rolls are a tasty combination of the smoked ham with the addition of ground fresh pork and sparked by prepared mustard. And the glaze is a sweet-spicy mixture of cider vinegar, brown sugar, Worcestershire sauce, cinnamon and cloves.

For added glamour and flavor, garnishes of pineapple chunks and maraschino cherries are dipped in the marinade and placed in the centers of the ham rolls which are then returned to the oven for the last half hour of baking.

Glazed Ham Rolls

1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1/4 cup cider vinegar
1/4 cup water
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
1 egg, slightly beaten
1/4 cup milk
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup soft bread crumbs
1 pound ground smoked ham
1/2 pound ground pork

Heat oven to 350 degrees. For glaze, combine first 6 ingredients in saucepan; boil 1 minute. Combine egg with next 3 ingredients in large bowl; stir in bread crumbs; let stand 5 minutes. Add ham and pork to bread mixture; mix lightly but well.

Form into 6 rolls, 3 inches long. Place on rack in baking pan; spoon 1 tablespoon glaze over each roll. Bake 30 minutes, basting occasionally with glaze.

Turn rolls; bake an additional

30 minutes basting with remaining glaze. Spoon glaze from pan over rolls before serving. Makes 6 servings.

*For an added garnish, place a pineapple chunk and maraschino cherry on wooden pick; dip in glaze and insert in center of each ham roll. Finish baking as above.

TUNA MOLDED SALAD

EZY FRENCH WAY

I'm sure you've found, that the simplest dish is the one that brings cries of "Why don't we have this more often" from the family. Speaking of simplicity, often a simple change in an old favorite makes family and guests alike sit up and ask for second helpings. A good example of that idea is a recipe for tuna salad with Shedd's EZY French Dressing as the final touch that makes it something special... but still simple. Speaking of Shedd's EZY French Dressing, I've tried using it in many unusual ways. The spicy, tangy flavor does wonders for hamburgers, for instance. Just brush a little on each hamburger once or twice as it broils. You can make an excellent barbecue sauce using Shedd's EZY French Dressing as the base.

Add some chopped onion and chopped green pepper, a little brown sugar and plenty of black pepper for that one. And that recipe I mentioned? It's our old friend Tuna Fish in a molded salad to be served with a generous amount of Shedd's EZY French Dressing.

1 can tuna fish, chunk or flaked style
1 tbp. unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
1 1/2 cups hot water
1/2 cup chopped celery
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1/4 cup chopped sweet pickles or pickle relish
salt and pepper

Shedd's EZY French Dressing
Soften gelatin in cold water and dissolve in hot water. Cool till slightly thick and add other ingredients, which have been thoroughly drained and chilled. Pour into mold or pan and chill till set. Serve with Shedd's EZY French Dressing poured over salad and a bowl of dressing on the side, too. Tip: Use Lady Betty Cucumber pickles for added flavor.

Foods Fried Right Aren't Full of Fat

The current suspicion that fats in the diet may be linked to heart disease has led many people to shy away from deep-fried foods. However, foods fried properly in polyunsaturated vegetable oil, then drained on paper towels, contain a negligible amount of added fat — no more than those sauteed, baked or boiled with a little butter.

The National Fisheries Institute tells us that shellfish, such as scallops, are especially well suited to deep frying because their texture is firm and does not break apart in the bubbling fat. In addition, these shellfish are extremely low in fat themselves, so that even with the oil which clings from frying, they contain less total fat than most comparable protein foods.

The trick is to have the fat very hot, but not smoking, so that the scallops cook in a few short minutes.

Here's an interesting way to deep fry scallops in the Polyunsaturated manner with ginger, coconut and soy sauce added for the intriguing flavor of the South Seas.

Sea Scallops Tropical

1 pound fresh or frozen uncooked scallops
1/4 cup lime juice
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon ginger
2 tablespoons soy sauce

1 egg, well beaten
1 cup fine dry bread crumbs
1/4 cup grated or flaked coconut
1/2 teaspoon curry
Fat for deep frying

Thaw scallops if necessary and cut larger ones into two to four pieces. Combine lime juice, salt, ginger and soy sauce. Pour over scallops in small bowl and let stand one to three hours. Drain.

Pour egg over scallops and toss to coat thoroughly. Combine crumbs, coconut and curry in clean paper bag. Add scallops. Shake to coat thoroughly.

Heat fat to 365 degrees (bubbling, not smoking). Add scallops, using a frying basket to hold them, if you have one. Cook three to five minutes or until golden brown. Makes four servings.

Keep It Light

Pineapple Christmas snow is a light bit of perfection after a holiday meal. Heat until dissolved 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 1 (12-ounce) can pineapple juice, 2 tablespoons sugar and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Add 1 tablespoon lemon juice and 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel; chill until slightly thickened. Fold in 2 stiffly beaten egg whites and spoon into 4 (1/2-cup) molds. Chill firm.

Kedgerie Has Oriental Note British Style

Kedgerie brings to mind the sights and sounds of the Far East as well as the cool green of the English countryside. For although this famous fish dish originated in India, it has become very popular in England where it also goes by the name "cadgerie."

The original recipe consisted of fish sauteed in butter, served on a base of spiced boiled rice and covered with a rich cream sauce seasoned with curry powder. Later, chopped hard-cooked eggs were added to the fish mixture, and the cream sauce was omitted.

Kedgerie
1 cup uncooked rice
1 medium onion or 3 sliced scallions
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 cups flaked cooked fish
1 teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
1 pimiento, diced
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
2 teaspoons curry powder
1 hard-cooked egg, chopped
1 hard-cooked egg, sliced

Cook rice; set aside. Saute onion or scallions in butter, add fish, rice, salt, pepper, pimiento, chopped parsley, curry powder and chopped egg; toss gently to mix well. Heat in double boiler, or in greased casserole in 350 degree oven 15 to 20 minutes, or until heated through. Garnish with sliced egg and parsley. Makes 6 servings.

Testing Fruit Cake

Fruit cake is done when it begins to pull away from sides of pan. The usual cake test of toothpick inserted in center doesn't work so well for fruit cakes. Because of all the fruit, the toothpick is apt to come out moist.

Thick Chuck Steak Braised in Oven

This truly delicious steak dish is cooked slowly in the oven.

Braised Steak

3 pounds bone-in chuck steak (1 1/2 inches thick)
1/4 cup flour mixed with 1 teaspoon salt and 1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 can (1 pound) stewed tomatoes
2 large onions, chopped
1 large rib celery, chopped
1 large clove garlic, crushed

Trim most of fat from around meat; pound flour mixture over both surfaces of meat. Melt a little of the cut-off fat in a large heavy skillet with a heat-proof handle (or handles) and brown the meat rapidly on both sides; drain off fat.

Add remaining ingredients; cover tightly and cook in a slow (300 degree) oven for 2 to 2 1/2 hours or until meat is very tender. Spoon off surface fat. Cut serving-size portions. Makes 6 servings.

PNH Drops Squeaker to Highland Park

Huskies' Rally in 4th Period Fails, 65-62

Defeat 2nd in Row for PNH; Hayward Collects 20 Points

By FLETCHER SPEARS

A fourth-quarter rally fell short last night as Pontiac Northern dropped a 65-62 decision to a visiting Highland Park quintet.

The Huskies, absorbing their second loss of the campaign, went into the final frame trailing, 50-43. They rallied to tie the game at 56-48 with 4:28 remaining and twice held one-point leads, the last a 60-59 margin with 3:10 left.

Guard Jesse Williams tossed in a pair of buckets for the Parkers to make it 62-48 and the Huskies trimmed it to 63-62 with a minute left on a basket by Roger Hayward.

PNH had the ball again seconds later but two shots failed to hit the target and the Parkers took over. Guard Mike Wise was fouled with 10 seconds left and he stepped to the charity line and canned two shots to complete the scoring.

Northern led briefly in the opening quarter by four points, 9-5, but the visitors quickly closed the gap and took the lead at the end of the period, 13-11.

RAISE LEAD

The Parkers upped the lead at intermission to 32-27 and they were ahead by as much as 10 points in the third stanza.

Williams (5-9) was the big man in the Parkers' attack. He led all scorers with 22 points, picking up eight of them in the pressure-packed fourth quarter. Teammate Pete Browning followed with 18.

Hayward sparked Northern with 20 points and John Bailey contributed 18.

Northern was outmanned under the backboards during the opening half but came on strong on the closing periods to take a 45-40 edge in rebounds. Highland Park shot at a hot 46.6 per cent, hitting on 28 of 60 attempts. The Huskies pumped in 27 of 64 for a 42.1 shooting percentage.

Colts, Packers Pace All-Pros

NORTH (AP) — Baltimore and Green Bay each placed five men on the annual All-National Football League team selected Wednesday for the Associated Press.

The selections were made by a 42-man committee of three from each of the 14 league cities.

Quarterback Johnny Unitas of the Colts and fullback Jim Brown of Cleveland were near unanimous choices for the offensive team.

Johnny Morris, the Chicago Bears' record-breaking pass catcher, was an overwhelming choice for flanker back. Lenny Moore, Baltimore's big touch-down punch, scored decisively as the running back.

Frank Clarke of Dallas took over the split end job, won by the ailing Ed Stouter of the New York Giants in the previous three years. Mike Ditka, the Bears' powerful tight end, was one of seven repeaters.

Dick Schafrath of Cleveland and Forrest Gregg of Green Bay again were the offensive tackles, although Gregg moved to guard in mid-season when Vince Lombardi shuffled his Packer line.

Jim Parker of Baltimore, a hardy perennial, was an all-star guard again, but Ken Gray of the St. Louis Cardinals took over the other guard job, held for two years by Green Bay's Jerry Kramer, who recently underwent surgery.

Mike Tingelhoff, signed by the Minnesota Vikings as a free agent in 1962, took over the first string center job, beating out Jim Ringo of Philadelphia, the incumbent, Bob DeMarco of St. Louis and Mike Pyle of the Bears.

Green Bay put four men on the defensive unit, including Willie Davis at end, Henry Jordan at tackle, Ray Nitschke at middle linebacker and Willie Wood at safety. Gino Marchetti, veteran Baltimore end who came out of retirement just before the season started, and Bob Boyd, a corner back, were the Colts' contribution to the defensive team.

Kettering Nips Milford, 51-50

A short jump shot by senior Dave Dodd with 25 seconds showing on the clock carried Kettering to a 51-50 overtime triumph over Milford last night.

It was a heart-breaking setback for the Redskins, who came from behind to tie the game in regulation, 49-49, on a long shot by Mike Yeager with 15 seconds left.

In the overtime session, Milford scored first on a foul shot by John Kaspar to take a 50-49 lead, but Captains came back on Dodd's jumper to put the game away.

Milford still had a chance with six seconds to go, but Yeager missed his first shot from the charity line on a one-and-one situation.

In a pair of other games involving Tri-County League teams, Lapeer nipped Flint Kearsley in a non-conference outing, 73-72, and L'Anse Creuse dropped a 58-46 decision to Fraser.

FIRST WIN

The victory was the first for Kettering against one loss. The defeat was the second in a row for the Redskins. Kettering started strong.

COLTS, PACKERS PACE ALL-PROS

—Baltimore and Green Bay each placed five men on the annual All-National Football League team selected Wednesday for the Associated Press.

The selections were made by a 42-man committee of three from each of the 14 league cities.

Quarterback Johnny Unitas of the Colts and fullback Jim Brown of Cleveland were near unanimous choices for the offensive team.

Johnny Morris, the Chicago Bears' record-breaking pass catcher, was an overwhelming choice for flanker back. Lenny Moore, Baltimore's big touch-down punch, scored decisively as the running back.

Frank Clarke of Dallas took over the split end job, won by the ailing Ed Stouter of the New York Giants in the previous three years. Mike Ditka, the Bears' powerful tight end, was one of seven repeaters.

Dick Schafrath of Cleveland and Forrest Gregg of Green Bay again were the offensive tackles, although Gregg moved to guard in mid-season when Vince Lombardi shuffled his Packer line.

Jim Parker of Baltimore, a hardy perennial, was an all-star guard again, but Ken Gray of the St. Louis Cardinals took over the other guard job, held for two years by Green Bay's Jerry Kramer, who recently underwent surgery.

Mike Tingelhoff, signed by the Minnesota Vikings as a free agent in 1962, took over the first string center job, beating out Jim Ringo of Philadelphia, the incumbent, Bob DeMarco of St. Louis and Mike Pyle of the Bears.

Green Bay put four men on the defensive unit, including Willie Davis at end, Henry Jordan at tackle, Ray Nitschke at middle linebacker and Willie Wood at safety. Gino Marchetti, veteran Baltimore end who came out of retirement just before the season started, and Bob Boyd, a corner back, were the Colts' contribution to the defensive team.

OL St. Mary Tied for Lead Pontiac Northern Tankers Swamp Central by 68-33

Pontiac Northern took a 50-point lead in the battle with Pontiac Central for the Pontiac Press sponsored All-Sports Trophy with a 78-33 swimming victory last night. The Huskies pulled away in the final six events after leading only 26-22 following the Chiefs' Ken Franks' victory in the diving event.

PNH swimmers took firsts in the final six races. They swept both relay events.

Central's only victory besides the diving event was Ed Chase's win in the 58-yard freestyle. A disqualification ruled out an apparent win in the 200-yard freestyle relay.

Rick Johnson of the Huskies was the only double winner. He took the 200-yard individual medley in 1:50.9 and the 100-yard butterfly in 1:03.2. Twin brother Dick captured the 100-yard backstroke and was on the winning 200-yard medley relay.

Northern now has a 100-point win in cross country and won 50 points in last night's first of two swimming meets. PCH won 100 points in football.

Speedsters Pick NFL

By the Associated Press

The Dallas Cowboys and New York Giants, destined to finish far up the track in this year's National Football League race, should have speed to burn in 1965.

Sprinters Bob Hayes and Henry Carr, double gold medal winners at the Tokyo Olympic Games, signed contracts Tuesday with the Cowboys and Giants, respectively.

The NFL clubs, running sixth and seventh in the Eastern Division with one game remaining, outhit American League rivals for the speedsters, who hope to make the grade as flanker backs or defensive secondary men.

Hayes, who played his football at Florida A&M, was a future choice of both Dallas and Denver of the AFL in the 1963 draft. Carr, of Arizona State University, was a future pick of the Giants and Kansas City of the AFL in last month's pro draft.

Hayes could give the Cowboys a mercurial 1-2 punch in the defensive backfield and on kick returns.

NO-CUT PACT — "Just think about Hayes and Mel Renfro playing safety to gether and running back those punts," said Cowboys Coach Tom Landry after the "world's fastest human" signed a three-year, no-cut pact. Renfro, a rookie and former track star at Oregon, has returned kickoffs and punts for 1,383 yards.

Kimball Pins Crane Team

Five pins carried Royal Oak Kimball past Cranbrook's wrestlers, 34-18, yesterday. The victory was the Knights' second in two tries while Cranbrook was opening its season.

Frank Falconer (95), Sonny Smith (103), Mike Maldegen (127) and Joel Martin (138) scored pins in the first seven bouts and heavyweight Craig Irwin finished up with a fall for the winners.

Clarensville held the first home match in the school's history and defeated County Day, 42-6.

Weight Big Factor in Hunt

Lizzie Curtis used a rifle that weighs slightly less than one-tenth of her weight to shoot an animal that was 60 times her weight.

"I could hardly hold that gun up it was so heavy," said the 69-year-old woman as she sat in her home at 9152 Water, Rose Township, and described her experience while elk hunting.

The rifle, a 30-06 with scope, weighs about eight and a half pounds.

"I'm lucky if I weigh 80," said the diminutive woman. The cow elk she downed tipped the scales at 485 pounds before field dressing and 325 after.

Mrs. Curtis, her husband, Claude, and several others spent a week in the elk hunting area she had drawn near Atlanta. They saw only two elk before the season opened Saturday.

The cow was the first elk seen by the Curtises opening day.

"We were walking near a road when we saw the elk," she related.

"I'd only shot the rifle once before and I'd never used a scope until then. But I put the cross-hairs behind the shoulder and fired. The first shot did it, but Claude made me shoot the elk again."

Conservation Department field officers and reporters were close by.

The elk was quickly removed from the woods and taken to the Pigeon River area checking station where it was weighed and then field dressed.

The carcass now hangs from a tree in front of the Curtis home.

Mrs. Curtis is a veteran deer hunter who "normally" uses a 32 Remington lever action. "It's much lighter than that 30-06," she said.

The stock on the heavier caliber was longer, too.

Mrs. Curtis now has a bruise on her right bicep where the butt smugged when she shot the elk instead of against her shoulder.

Third Highest Deer Kill Recorded

Michigan hunters scored their third highest take in the state's history during the 1964 firearm season with a kill of nearly 118,000 whitetails, according to a preliminary estimate of the Conservation Department.

Results of the department's traffic counts, which will be cross-checked by a postcard survey of licensed sportsmen, point to a harvest of 68,850 bucks and 48,750 antlerless deer.

Both figures are down from last season when hunters took home 124,000 deer, Michigan's second best kill on record.

This year's dip in kill is traced to the northern Lower Peninsula where hunters were "trained out" during the afternoon of their Nov. 15 opener and bogged down by a snow storm in the upper parts of the region on the second weekend of the season.

Compared with a year ago, the region's harvest fell by about 8,500 animals, totaling 41,500 bucks and 35,000 antlerless deer.

In the "Upper Peninsula, sportsmen fared about the same as last season, taking 19,550 bucks and 12,550 antlerless whitetails. Overall, they came within 400 animals of matching their 1963 success.

As expected, shotguns in the southern third of the state set another record for buck kill in their region, topping last year's figure of 6,800 by 1,000 animals.

Added to this were 1,200 antlerless deer taken in 12 crop-damage areas of southern Michigan.

State-wide, deer license sales were estimated at upwards of $18,000, slightly above last season's all-time high.

Unusual Elk Taken by County Nimrod

A young bull taken by Edward Shedlowsky, 4654 Rockcroft, Waterford Township, may be the most unusual elk killed during the limited season now under way in Michigan.

The bull carried 18-inch antlers that were just starting to branch.

Conservation Department game biologists were intrigued by the fact that part of the velvet still remained on the antlers. The young bull, it appeared, was still in the process of removing the outer coating on the antlers by "rubbing."

Most elk, like deer, are out of the velvet stage by early September.

Shedlowsky and some friends piloted a jeep down snow-covered back trails near Canada Creek. They were walking when the bull was spotted Sunday.

The best set of antlers reported so far by the 25 county hunters among the 300 participating in the special season came off an elk downed by Daryl Larrance, 6060 Northrup, Waterford Township.

Larrance was hunting alone Saturday morning near Atlanta when he spotted three bulls at 80 yards. One shot from a 308 a half hour after he started filled his tag.

OLD SKIS

He skidded the nine-point (total) elk out of the woods on an old pair of skis. It weighed 438 field dressed. Larrance, 31, had hunted deer and ducks before he drew an elk permit.

Francis Merchant, 5471 Crescent, took a cow as did James R. Mitchell, 32 Murphy and Homer Murphy, 49 Valley Way, Bloomfield Hills.

Marvin L. Wilkie, 2333 Old Salem, reported one member of his party saw seven elk, but by the time he contacted Wilkie, the only one with a permit, the animals had vanished.

The Conservation Department's goal of 200 animals killed has already been topped with one weekend to go.

The upgraded prediction now is that the hunters will take 250.

Land Matters Before Commissioners

Land matters with a stake in public sport and recreation will headline the Conservation Commission's agenda during its meeting Thursday and Friday in the Jack Tar Hotel, Lansing.

Coming up for consideration is the Conservation Department's recommendation to buy nearly 200 acres of top-grade hunting lands for deer, grouse, and rabbits in southern Michigan.

Singled out for purchase are 140 acres at Vestaburg state game area, Montcalm county; 43 acres at Middleville state game area, Barry county; and 15 acres at Flat River state game area, Ionia and Montcalm counties.

Also scheduled for commission action is a proposed land exchange which would add 12 acres to the Pinckney recreation area in Washtenaw county.

Located on Half Moon lake, the parcel fits into department plans for developing a new public water access site.

In exchange for it, the state would give up a landlocked, 115-acre parcel which has 900 feet of frontage on Brill lake in Jackson county.

This property is sought by private interests to form part of a planned, multimillion dollar commercial resort lodge.

The commission's December docket will include several land exchanges aimed at blocking in public holdings for timber management, hunting and general recreational use in Alpena, Hardwood, Iron Range, Houghton Lake, and Chippewa River state forests and Maple River state game area.

Chief Steps Down

Charles E. Millar, chief of the Conservation Department's lands section since 1951, will end his 39-year career in state service in January for health reasons.

Leadership Fight Tearing Party Apart, Barry to Take, Nixon

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater is ready to tell a Republican summit conference today he thinks the struggle over GOP leadership is tearing the beaten party apart.

That was the word from a source close to the defeated Republican presidential nominee as Goldwater prepared to talk politics with former President

Dwight D. Eisenhower and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Precise arrangements for the New York conference were cloudy.

There was no word as to exactly when or where the meeting would be held.

An Eisenhower aide said the three would meet in the afternoon, but that details had not been worked out.

NO AGENDA

"There is no agenda," said Republican National Chairman Dean Burch.

He is here to attend at least part of the discussions that will bring together the three men who have carried the Republican colors in the last four presidential elections.

"This is a very informal conference," Burch said.

The embattled party chairman, handicapped by Goldwater, said he does not expect the Arizona senator will specifically ask Eisenhower and Nixon to back Burch's continued service as GOP chairman.

The Republican National Committee meets in Chicago Jan. 22-23 to decide whether Burch will retain his post.

A source close to Goldwater said the Republican nominee who lost in a landslide to President Johnson, wanted to talk with Eisenhower and Nixon about the struggle now going on within the party.

The source said Goldwater would explain his views on the battle which pits his conservative followers against GOP moderates.

"He will explain that as far as he is concerned, this is tearing the party up," the source said.

Eisenhower met twice with Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania at Gettysburg, Pa., yesterday.

The talks were described as social with "no political significance."

Burch, fighting for his job, said Monday he plans to take his case to the 132 committee members with a letter spelling out his ideas on the issues facing the party.

Urge U.S. Assault on Killer Diseases

WASHINGTON (AP)—A presidential commission called today for an unprecedented national assault on the three greatest killers of Americans—heart disease, cancer and cerebral strokes.

Among its major recommendations is creation of a national network of 540 new treatment and other centers.

The blue-ribbon group urged immediate implementation of its "realistic battle plan," saying nearly $3 billion in federal funds over five years would be needed as a starter.

A spokesman said considerable additional funds and other aid from states and cities also would be required.

The 23 physicians, editors, businessmen and others said, in their report to President Johnson, that immediate results could be expected.

MANY LIVES

Up to several hundred thousands lives a year are "now needlessly sacrificed" because available knowledge is not properly utilized, they said.

The commission was appointed last March by Johnson—victim of a heart attack in 1955—to recommend steps to reduce the incidence of the three diseases from which he said two-thirds of all Americans now living would suffer or die unless something is done about it.

Collectively, these "three deadly enemies of mankind" kill more than a million Americans a year and take a $30-billion annual economic toll in lost productivity and lost taxes due to premature disability and death, the report said.

The commission also said it strongly endorses the conclusions and recommendations of the Surgeon General's Advisory Committee on Smoking and Health which termed cigarette smoking a hazard to health.

Railroads Seek Injunction to Prevent Strike

Unions Set Walkout for Next Week After Talks Break Down

CHICAGO (AP)—The nation's railroads have filed a petition in U.S. District Court seeking to prevent a scheduled strike 10 days before Christmas by three shop unions.

The unions, representing some $3,000 workers, called a walkout yesterday for 6 a.m. Tuesday, after talks broke down in Washington over wages.

A strike would cripple 187 railroads and terminal and switching companies which handle more than 90 per cent of the nation's rail traffic, a union spokesman said.

Judge Joseph Sam Perry scheduled a hearing today on the railroad petition filed late yesterday.

The union — electrical workers, machinists and sheet metal workers — reinstated a strike call originally set for Nov. 23, but postponed for further negotiations.

SAID ILLEGAL

The railroads alleged in the petition that the strike deadline is an illegal attempt to compel the railroads to bargain directly with the three unions, rather than with the AFL-CIO Railway Employees Department, which had been authorized to bargain for them.

The carriers sought a temporary restraining order to prevent a strike, picketing or other types of interference with the movement of trains. The petition also sought a permanent injunction.

The railroads charged that a nationwide work stoppage would cost them a daily loss in operating revenues of $25,752,000.

The petition called the demands for the three unions "wholly inconsistent with the recommendations of the President's Emergency Board."

A presidential emergency board had recommended a wage increase of 27 cents an hour over three years.

Baker Quiz to Eye Bank Accounts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators plan to explore publicly today the bank records of Bobby Baker and a witness who accused him of engineering an alleged political payoff on a government construction contract.

The Senate Rules Committee said one of its investigators, Edward T. Hugler, would testify about an inspection he has made of the bank records of Baker and Don B. Reynolds, a local insurance agent.

Reynolds swore last week that he was the "bagman" for channeling $25,000 to the 1960 Democratic campaign fund from Matthew H. McCloskey, Philadelphia contractor.

McCloskey is a former Democratic fundraiser and former ambassador to Ireland.

The white-haired McCloskey, now retired, told the committee there was "not an ounce of truth" in Reynolds' testimony.

JUST A GOOF

He said an overpayment McCloskey & Co. made to Reynolds' insurance firm was just "a goof."

Before Hugler and possibly others testify, the committee scheduled a closed session to discuss its future course in its politically explosive probe of Baker's affairs while he was secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority.

Baker resigned under fire Oct. 7, 1963, from his $19,600-a-year post and has refused to answer questions in two appearances before the committee about the fortune he built up while on the Senate payroll.

Reynolds testified that under instructions from Baker he billed McCloskey's firm for about $35,000 more than was due on a performance bond for construction of the District of Columbia Sports Stadium.

As the "bagman," Reynolds said he kept $10,000 of the overpayment and gave the rest to Baker in five lots of $5,000 cash for relay for the 1960 Democratic campaign.

LBJ, Wilson Lay Groundwork

To Seek Out Allies on N-Fleet

WASHINGTON (AP)—British Prime Minister Harold Wilson said today his talks with President Johnson have been completely successful in setting objectives for the formation of a nuclear weapons force in NATO and laying guidelines for allied consultation.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States and Britain will start urgent consultations this week with other allies on a possible new approach to the organization of a nuclear weapons force in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The step was agreed on by President Johnson and British Prime Minister Harold Wilson in a two-day conference which ended last night.

Their meetings were devoted mainly to discussing the highly controversial nuclear issue.

The two leaders reportedly stopped short of trying to agree on a formula embracing the new, broader approach, but officials said they had reached accord on the general guidelines to be followed in the consultations.

A communique, released at the White House, bore out the evidence of accord on next steps, saying:

"They agreed that the objective in this field is to cooperate in finding the arrangements which best meet the legitimate interests of all members of the alliance, while maintaining existing safeguards on the use of nuclear weapons, and preventing their further proliferation."

Did Bus Driver Save Lives?

DETROIT (UPI)—School bus driver Cecil Smith may have lived long enough to call out directions that saved students from their own panic in yesterday's nightmare accident involving his bus and a huge fuel oil tank truck.

Forty suburban Taylor Center High School students were on the bus.

More than a score were treated for injuries and 17 were hospitalized following the crash along U.S. 24 on Detroit's western outskirts.

One of the students who suffered lesser injuries, Bradley Nordquist, 15, Taylor, said someone yelled to the children when "some of the kids started panicking and screaming."

Nordquist said he thought it was the bus driver who instructed the children "to open the back emergency door."

OUT WINDOWS

"Most of us went out that way," he said, "but some crawled out the windows," which had been broken by the impact of the head-on collision.

Smith was pinned in the wreckage and was dead before he could be taken to a hospital.

City Charter Is Approved by Orchard Lake Voters

Orchard Lake voters yesterday adopted a charter and thus became residents of Oakland County's newest city by a 3-1 margin.

Having dealt the charter a 230-75 win, they then elected six officers, who will serve on the first City Council, and one to be municipal judge.

The new Orchard Lake City Council will take office at 8 p.m. Monday.

Rochester voters have given approval by 2-1 margins to a proposed urban renewal project that involves a $190,000 bond issue and an amendment to the village charter.

The bond issue proposition passed, 357-149, and the charter amendment by 343-144. The latter allows the village to sell the renewal land without having to call for a village-wide vote.

S. Viets Retake Key Hill, Yank Killed in Ambush

Indonesia Shuts Down USIA Unit

JAKARTA, Indonesia (UPI) — Indonesian officials closed down the activities of the U.S. Information Agency today in Surabaya, capital of East Java, saying there was danger of more anti-American violence.

Officials in Surabaya told the U.S. consulate the closing was necessary "in order to maintain law and order." USIA Director Paul N. Neilson told a news conference in Jakarta.

A mob pillaged the USIA library in Surabaya Monday night, burning books, furniture, a mobile unit and a car. Last Friday, another mob sacked the U.S. cultural center and its library in Jakarta.

Both mobs protested U.S. intervention in the Congo to save whites held by the Congolese rebels and American support for Malaysia. Indonesia's President Sukarno has vowed to crush Malaysia.

U.S. Ambassador Howard P. Jones postponed a trip to Surabaya today to survey the damage after the ministry of police informed him at the airport that his presence in the East Java port might touch off new demonstrations.

Allan McLean, U.S. consul in Surabaya, reported two rooms of the library there were demolished and about 25 per cent of its 16,000 books were burned or torn up.

Neilson said the information service operated the library and two mobile units in the Surabaya area. He said the embassy was trying to obtain more information on the shutdown order.

The library in Jakarta also lost about a fourth of its 15,000 books but has reopened. The USIA library in Jogjakarta, in central Java, has been closed since demonstrators invaded it in August, protesting American support of Malaysia. The information agency also operates a library in Medan, capital of North Sumatra, and a reading room in Makassar, in South Celebes.

2 Prosecutors Nab Bandit Suspect With Copter's Help

To Enter Private Law Practice After Dec. 31

Two Oakland County assistant prosecutors, Daniel C. Devine and Charles J. Porter, announced today that they have resigned their posts, effective Dec. 31.

Both will enter private law practice with Prosecutor Richard P. Condit when he returns to the Birmingham firm of Condit, Denison & Devine.

Condit, whose term expires at the end of this month, was appointed prosecuting attorney by the county's seven Circuit Judges in March to fill a vacancy created by the resignation of George F. Taylor.

In the Nov. 3 election, Madison Heights Attorney S. Jerome Bronson was elected to the post.

Devine, 30, of 16121 Lauderdale, Beverly Hills, was appointed an assistant prosecutor in 1962, serving in both the Pontiac and Royal Oak offices on major felony cases.

Formerly Devine was with the Workmen's Compensation Department of Chrysler Corp. and also served as Oakland County Probate Court attorney.

JOINED IN 1963
The 28-year-old Porter, 2016 W. 12 Mile, Royal Oak, joined the prosecutor's office in 1963 and has been the assistant in charge of the Appellate Division. He previously had served as law clerk to Chief Justice Thomas M. Kavanagh of the Michigan Supreme Court.

Carter Trial in Flint Now in 2nd Week

The conspiracy trial of Flint businessman Samuel M. Catsman and former Pontiac and Flint City Manager Robert A. Flint moved into its second week yesterday in Genesee County Circuit Court.

Claude O. Darby Sr., a land purchasing agent at the time of the alleged conspiracy, testified before Circuit Judge Edward T. Kane of Port Huron.

Catsman, 58, and Carter, 48, are charged with conspiracy to cheat and defraud the city by obtaining money under false pretenses in connection with the now defunct Port Huron water supply system.

Catsman has waived trial by jury. Circuit Judge Kane, who is presiding, will decide Catsman's fate.

A jury of seven men and seven women will decide Carter's fate.

Darby, under questioning by prosecutor Robert F. Leonard, said Catsman asked him at one time if he wanted to work for the city in connection with the pipeline project.

Darby said this was several weeks before he was officially contacted by city officials.

LAND PURCHASE
Carter and Catsman are alleged to have been involved in the purchase of land near Port Huron and in subsequent sale of the land to the City of Flint for a higher price.

CNB Enters Low Bid Again

8th Straight Time on R20 Loan Notes

Eight was the magic number last night for Community National Bank of Pontiac.

The local bank, for the eighth straight time, was the low bidder on R20 urban renewal project preliminary loan notes.

A tabulation of eight bids was submitted to the City Commission last night with CNB lowest, asking a 2.99 per cent annual interest rate for $24-million in preliminary loan notes.

The commission authorized the sale to CNB.

The loan notes will finance continued operations in the R20 project.

In related business, the commission okayed the filing of an R20 amendmentary application.

MINOR CHANGES
First drafted in 1963, the amendmentary makes minor changes in land usage, boundaries and zoning, according to James L. Bates, Planning Director.

The principal change adds an area north of the old Clinton River channel, east of Saginaw, and north to Water.

Bates said that the boundary revision adds portions of two city blocks to the R20 project.

The amendmentary also changes the projected use of about 34 acres south of Auburn, east of Saginaw and west of Wide Track.

Previously, this area was slated for commercial and parking use. However, now it is planned to accommodate high-rise multiple housing, said Bates.

The amendmentary application, which must be approved by the Housing and Home Finance Agency today, and Edward R. Day, 63, of 197 S. Jessie and his wife, Marguerite, 61.

Sheriff's deputies said the car Marcum was driving, which was traveling south, collided with the northbound Day vehicle, which was apparently making a left turn off Sashabaw.

Sullivan and three other youths were passengers in the Marcum car. They and the three were treated for minor injuries at the hospital and released.

Marcum told officers that he broke over the top of a hill he saw Day's car, but was unable to stop.

West German Miners Receive Wage Boost

ESSEN, Germany (AP) — Union and management representatives agreed today a 7.5 per cent wage boost for West Germany's 350,000 coal miners.

The miners had threatened to strike. They demanded a total increase of 12 per cent — a 9 per cent wage increase and a three-cent hourly wage plus additional fringe benefits.

Flint Man Is Killed in Indiana Collision

NOBLESVILLE, Ind. (AP) — A two-car collision near this central Indiana city Tuesday night killed Mailey Thomas, 37, of Flint, Mich.

State police said a car driven by Gilbert L. Bransford, 30, Flint, was attempting to pass another vehicle and crashed head-on into a car driven by Russell R. Morgan, 48, of Noblesville, Bransford's son, Gilbert Jr., 12, and Thelma Bransford, 53, Flint, were listed in good condition at a hospital here.

Birmingham Area News

Bloomfield Hills Force to Gain Three Patrolmen

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The city's police force will be increased by nearly 30 per cent in an effort to curb traffic problems here.

The City Commission last night authorized the hiring of three new patrolmen, to be added as soon as possible to the existing staff of 11.

Salaries for the new men are expected to total some $20,000, according to City Manager Elmer Kephart.

The move is seen as an answer to the traffic problems under discussion before the commission for over a year.

Addition of the three men will allow changes in scheduling to provide that two patrol cars will be on the road more of the time, Kephart said.

THROUGHOUT CITY
He noted that increased enforcement will not be concentrated in any one area but will be spread throughout the city.

In other action, the commission denied the rezoning request of Birmingham developer Howard T. Keating, owner of several lots in Bloomfield Downs subdivision.

Keating had asked that the lots be changed from multiple residence to commercial classification. The property in question, on the south side of Long Lake east of Woodward, is within the tentative route of the city's proposed peripheral road.

The city planning commission had recommended that the City Commission deny the request.

BIRMINGHAM — A local woman heads the group of workers who today are sending out some $5,000 invitations to the New Year's Day inauguration of George Romney.

Mrs. Allen A. Strom, 1130 Wakefield, has been in charge of about 250 persons who have been laboring since late last month to hand address the invitations.

"The mailings could have been completed at an earlier date if we had used typewriters," said Mrs. Strom, who has been in charge of invitation mailings for both of Romney's inaugurations.

She said the mailing list this year marks an increase of about 10,000 over the figure for 1963.

It includes Democrat state legislators and top Democrat party officials as well as the Republican party faithful, Romney volunteers, Citizens for Goldwater-Miller and other Republican workers in the 1964 campaign.

Although still a member of the Supreme Soviet, Khrushchev did not appear for the session. Neither did his son-in-law, Alexei Adzhubel, former editor of the government newspaper Izvestia, who also is still a member of the parliament.

Kosygin reaffirmed Soviet devotion to Khrushchev's policy of peaceful coexistence and said: "We are in favor of the development of relations with the United States. There have been some developments in that field, although they have not been great."

But he denounced the "aggression of the Americans and the Belgians in the Congo" and repeated Soviet pledges "to render the necessary assistance" to Communist North Vietnam and to Cuba "if the aggressors dare to raise their hands against them."

4 Hospitalized After Car Crash

Four persons were hospitalized last night following a collision on Sashabaw near Clarkston Road in Independence Township.

Listed in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital are David L. Marcum, 19, of 6689 Manson and Victor W. Sullivan, 19, of 3590 Breaker, both of Waterford Township; and Edward R. Day, 63, of 197 S. Jessie and his wife, Marguerite, 61.

Sheriff's deputies said the car Marcum was driving, which was traveling south, collided with the northbound Day vehicle, which was apparently making a left turn off Sashabaw.

Sullivan and three other youths were passengers in the Marcum car. They and the three were treated for minor injuries at the hospital and released.

Marcum told officers that he broke over the top of a hill he saw Day's car, but was unable to stop.

Zeal of UF Workers Marks Drive Success

Plaudits aplenty are due the leaders and workers who participated in the 15th annual Pontiac Area United Fund drive that saw subscriptions exceed the goal by more than 10 per cent.

The amount raised, a record $900,000, also tops the total realized last year by nearly 6 per cent.

Under the general chairmanship of Bruce J. Annett and his four division heads, 4,000 volunteer workers gave praiseworthy time and effort to insure the success of the campaign for funds that are the lifeblood of 55 welfare agencies serving the area.

A bow of appreciation also goes to the citizenry of Pontiac and the six adjacent townships for another exemplification of humanitarian interest and generosity.

The Press warmly congratulates all who had a part in this inspiring support of civic and social responsibility and again commends the soundness of the "Give Once for All" concept of charitable participation.

Junked Auto Bodies Run Over Graveyards

Any society that can figure out a way to get rid of old razor blades can't be laughed off as an imperialistic nitwit, even by the Communists.

But can it also come up with a way to get rid of old autos?

It had better, or one of these days America the Beautiful is going to be just one unbroken coast-to-coast yard of abandoned cars.

There already are 8,000 auto junk yards scattered around the country, many in nature's beauty spots. And with five-million old cars biting the rust each year, things are going to get worse unless and until our ingenuity gets better.

The razor blade disposal problem was alleviated by the sheer genius of cutting a slot in the wall and letting the law of gravity take over.

Maybe we could cut king-sized holes in the ground and inter the junkies there, or perhaps resort to the more bizarre ritual of burial at sea.

Nuclear Power Spread Should Be Contained

A new alphabetical symbol has evidenced itself and tended to thicken the international broth. The letters are MLF.

What it stands for is Multilateral Force, and it is further straining relations within another alphabetical entity: NATO — North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

MLF is a plan born in the United States for letting the 15 NATO members in on American nuclear might while braking their nationalistic urge to develop nuclear systems of their own.

Under the plan, there would be an independent force of 25 surface ships, such as freighters, to be equipped with Polaris missiles—the highly sophisticated and effective type of nuclear weapon with which the U. S. submarine fleet is armed.

Manning the flotilla of merchant ships would be crews of international mixture, with an MLF commander separate from the NATO command. Control of the weapons would be multilateral. The United States alone could not decide to use them. Neither could any other country.

What is the attitude toward the plan by the nations involved? Generally, all are for it—with two exceptions.

France, which has developed its own nuclear capability and wants less European dependence on the United States, is strongly against it.

England, under the new Labor government that apparently wants to get out of the nuclear business altogether, is cool to it.

There is much to be said for the tactical flexibility of such a nuclear force envisioned by the MLF concept, its low cost compared with creation of an entirely new and separate international fleet of submarines. And perhaps more importantly, it would give leading powers of the world a finger in the nuclear pie while militating against country-by-country proliferation of the awesome specter of nuclear power.

'Unity' Depends on Point of View

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Somebody mention unity?

There are about a dozen dictionary definitions of unity and this may explain the lack of it among Republicans.

Dean Burch says he wants unity although over the weekend some Republican governors said they want him fired as chairman of the Republican National Committee, a job he got through Sen. Barry Goldwater.

The governors in Denver issued a statement calling for party unity and, among other things, suggesting the national committee take a good look at its leadership.

Some of them said this wasn't aimed at Burch; some said it definitely was. Particularly Gov. George Romney of Michigan, Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania said they want Burch out.

Burch, whether or not he was a good chairman, was a terrible prophet, for on election night, Nov. 3, with the roof falling in on Goldwater, he cheerfully predicted: "This picture is going to brighten considerably as the sun moves toward the west."

The final news from the west was even worse. Goldwater lost every Western state except his own Arizona.

But Monday, in a statement which some interpreted as a move to soothe his critics and keep his job, Burch called for unity.

"It now remains for all of us, governors, senators, congressmen, state chairmen, national committee members and workers, to demonstrate that the Republican party seeks strength through unity—not weakness and even impotence through needless quarreling and disunity."

STRANGE TURNS
The urge toward unity among Republicans is not new although it has taken strange turns. It began right after the election.

Richard M. Nixon, former vice president who campaigned for Goldwater, said the party needs unifiers, not dividers, and then attacked Rockefeller, who didn't campaign for Goldwater, as one of the principal dividers.

He called Rockefeller a "spillover" and Rockefeller called him "peevish."

Meeting Of The Minds

David Lawrence Says:

Let Military Plan for Defenses

WASHINGTON — Nobody wants war, including the Soviets, but what's going on now among the major Western powers is the same kind of political bickering that has served as a prelude to both world wars.

Moscow talks piously in public about disarmament, but Lawrence privately must be chucking with satisfaction over what it is observing in the West — the inter-dissay, confusion and, indeed, virtual breakdown of any effective military strategy either to deter or, if it comes, to win World War III.

To conduct a war is not the task of prime ministers or presidents. It is the specific obligation of men who have spent their lives studying the mistakes of past wars and the various contingencies that may arise some day in a nuclear or non-nuclear war.

Yet the impression conveyed today is that the prime minister of Britain, the President of the United States, and the president of France — or a civilian commission — can determine the best military strategy.

They are presumably to decide whether a multilateral mixed force of surface ships, or a broad constellation of air, sea and land power, or a reorganization of NATO would furnish the best offense and defense.

SOUND PRINCIPLE

Actually, Mr. Wilson, who has been conferring here with President Johnson, has put forth one sound principle — namely, that a broad alliance of the Western powers with all parts of the military force joined together is better than separate contingents operating independently.

The United States, on the other hand, rightly takes the position that, while an attack at the start with nuclear weapons is a possibility, not a probability, the real danger lies in what is called "escalation" from a conventional to a nuclear war. So the defense mechanism has to be all-inclusive and sufficiently manned to fight a land war inside Europe.

President de Gaulle of France, arguing that the United States cannot be depended upon to defend Europe, insists on his own nuclear weapons and strategy. It is a form of sincere but misguided nationalism.

NO LAND FORCE

De Gaulle wants to rely on an all-out nuclear response to a Soviet attack. But American military men ask what would be done if the Soviets decided to attack.

tack with conventional forces and gain considerable ground because of the fact that France has no large or effective land force of its own to meet such an invasion.

The military experts of the United States, furthermore, believe in a strategy of a graduated defense which would be conventional if possible but which would become nuclear only when absolutely necessary.

It is essential that there be not only a comprehensive plan that stands a good chance of victory but one that has the wholehearted support of all members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

For the big problem is how to defend Europe and America this year and in the immediate future—not just 15 years hence.

An adversary will take grave chances whenever the other side appears to be disunited.

There is no simple answer to all this.

But the quicker the political leaders of the Western powers let their best military minds come up with the most effective plan for the defense of both Europe and the United States and adopt it, the sooner the question of how or when the trigger shall be pulled or by whom and how the armament expenses shall be apportioned will be seen in better perspective.

Bob Considine Says:

JFK Would Be Leading Mental Retardation Fight

NEW YORK — If President Kennedy had lived he could have become to the fight against mental retardation what President Roosevelt was to the war on infantile paralysis.

FDR was himself a victim of polio. JFK was raised in a household clouded by the retardation of Rosemary, the eldest of his five sisters.

He had planned to attend a dinner in New York just a year ago at this time to give Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation awards for medical achievement in this field.

Fortunately, President Johnson has lent his immense prestige to continuing his predecessor's plans to stimulate a burst of interest and research in a malady that for so many centuries has meant shame, broken hearts, broken homes and colossal expense.

The scope of the challenge is best described by its blunt vital statistics:

About 5,500,000 Americans suffer mental retardation to varying degrees. The number is increasing, at the rate of 126,000 a year.

INADEQUATE ATTENTION
More than one third of expectant mothers in big U.S. cities do not get adequate medical attention, the surest safeguard against mental retardation in the child.

At least 80 per cent of those afflicted in this country do not have proper educational and recreational facilities at their disposal.

Mental retardation is not a disease. It is an impairment of the mind or intellect.

It has nothing to do with mental illness. That's a disorder of the personality of the emotions. Mental retardation is sub-normal intellectual development. It has nothing to do with

"bad blood," as centuries of superstition supposed. It can be caused by any of 300 diseases and conditions, including German measles contracted by the mother during the first three months of pregnancy. Excessive X rays during early pregnancy can cause it, too.

The crusade which JFK would have launched is on its way. The torch has been picked up and carried forward.

Hoover Fights Back

New York Daily News

We're taking no sides in Federal Bureau of Investigation chief J. Edgar Hoover's fight with the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King.

We are in hearty sympathy, though, with the Hoover at the Earl Warren commission's charge of FBI negligence in connection with the murder of President Kennedy by Red Lee H. Oswald.

As Mr. Hoover well says, the FBI has a huge list of Commies, Pinkos, crackpots and plain kooks. But if all of these in any city were to be jailed while the President visits that city, we'd have a police state.

When Hoover pleads with "bitching" — heart judges to have a little more guts when handing down decisions," he knows what he is talking about. Ditto when he urges that prosecutors and courts treat 16-year-old delinquents

Reader Sees No Problem in Wide Track Drive Exit

Why do people complain about the Oakland Avenue exit on Wide Track Drive? Peerless women drivers must have trouble navigating the turn. If the ladies were supposed to drive on the safety island, there would be lines painted on it.

If they don't like Wide Track Drive they can always take the bus.

'Need Stiffer Penalties for Sex Deviates'

There is probably a need for book burning but it isn't in the area that encourages normal sex relations between men and women. Our primary consideration must be given to eliminating the corrupting of our girls and women by the sexually perverted female.

We need to relax or eliminate many of the laws that tend to discourage normal sex relations and incorporate stiffer penalties for the female sex deviates that prey on our girls and women. Such a program would go a long way in assuring the "real" women that they haven't been totally deserted by the men.

Says American People Don't Want War

One can't help but look at the obvious mistakes made by our State Department and President in 1941. The same mistakes are being made today. In 1941 we sold scrap iron to Japan. In 1964 we sold wheat to Russia and scrap iron to the Red satellites. McNamara has seen fit to reduce our military strength, relying on missiles that have not been tested.

The American people did not want war in 1941 and don't want war today. Who thinks we'll have a chance to recover from a nuclear Pearl Harbor when we let our backbones be lulled to sleep by the aggressor and some of our top "egg heads"? BC

President Johnson long since decreed that Hoover can keep the job as long as LBJ is in the White House. We'll see whether the President has the courage to delay his "liberal" pals to the extent of keeping this promise.

GLAZED HAM ROLLS — Maraschino cherries and pineapple chunks perch jauntily on top of little glazed ham rolls. This is an excellent way to use some of that leftover ham. Tuck the recipe away for your holiday entertaining.

Leftover Ham Put Into Glazed Rolls

Most homemakers have "two-way" recipes.

These are generally family favorites which can be glamorized for "company's coming" occasions.

A useful addition to the "two-way" recipe file would be Glazed Ham Rolls. These are especially timely for they can provide an appetizing means of "holiday leftovers" meal planning.

The holiday ham can be ground to meet the needs of a family supper or another round of entertaining.

The ham rolls are a tasty combination of the smoked ham with the addition of ground fresh pork and sparked by prepared mustard. And the glaze is a sweet-spicy mixture of cider vinegar, brown sugar, Worcestershire sauce, cinnamon and cloves.

For added glamour and flavor, garnishes of pineapple chunks and maraschino cherries are dipped in the marinade and placed in the centers of the ham rolls which are then returned to the oven for the last half hour of baking.

Glazed Ham Rolls

1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
 1/2 cup cider vinegar
 1/2 cup water
 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
 1 egg, slightly beaten
 1/2 cup milk
 1 tablespoon prepared mustard
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 cup soft bread crumbs
 1 pound ground smoked ham
 1/2 pound ground pork

Heat oven to 350 degrees. For glaze, combine first 6 ingredients in saucepan; boil 1 minute. Combine egg with next 3 ingredients in large bowl; stir in bread crumbs; let stand 5 minutes. Add ham and pork to bread mixture; mix lightly but well.

Form into 6 rolls, 3 inches long. Place on rack in baking pan; spoon 1 tablespoon glaze over each roll. Bake 30 minutes, basting occasionally with glaze.

Turn rolls; bake an additional

Thick Chuck Steak Braised in Oven

This truly delicious steak dish is cooked slowly in the oven.

Braised Steak

3 pounds bone-in chuck steak (1 1/2 inches thick)
 1/2 cup flour mixed with 1 teaspoon salt and 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 1 can (1 pound) stewed tomatoes
 2 large onions, chopped
 1 large rib celery, chopped
 1 large clove garlic, crushed

Trim most of fat from around meat; pound flour mixture over both surfaces of meat. Melt a little of the cut-off fat in a large heavy skillet with a heat-proof handle (or handles) and brown the meat rapidly on both sides; drain off fat.

Add remaining ingredients; cover tightly and cook in a slow (300 degree) oven for 2 to 2 1/2 hours or until meat is very tender. Spoon off surface fat. Cut serving-size portions. Makes 6 servings.

Testing Fruit Cake

Fruit cake is done when it begins to pull away from sides of pan. The usual cake test of toothpick inserted in center doesn't work so well for fruit cakes. Because of all the fruit, the toothpick is apt to come out moist.

Foods Fried Right Aren't Full of Fat

The current suspicion that fats in the diet may be linked to heart disease has led many people to shy away from deep-fried foods. However, foods fried properly in polyunsaturated vegetable oil, then drained on paper towels, contain a negligible amount of added fat — no more than those sautéed, baked or boiled with a little butter.

The National Fisheries Institute tells us that shellfish, such as scallops, are especially well suited to deep frying because their texture is firm and does not break apart in the bubbling fat. In addition, these shellfish are extremely low in fat themselves, so that even with the oil which clings from frying, they contain less total fat than most comparable protein foods.

The trick is to have the fat very hot, but not smoking, so that the scallops cook in a few short minutes.

Here's an interesting way to deep fry scallops in the Polynesian manner with ginger, coconut and soy sauce added for the intriguing flavor of the South Seas.

Sea Scallops Tropical

1 pound fresh or frozen uncooked scallops
 1/2 cup lime juice
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon ginger
 2 tablespoons soy sauce

1 egg, well beaten
 1 cup fine dry bread crumbs
 1/2 cup grated or flaked coconut
 1/2 teaspoon curry
 Fat for deep frying

Thaw scallops if necessary and cut larger ones into two to four pieces. Combine lime juice, salt, ginger and soy sauce. Pour over scallops in small bowl and let stand one to three hours. Drain.

Pour egg over scallops and toss to coat thoroughly. Combine crumbs, coconut and curry in clean paper bag. Add scallops. Shake to coat thoroughly.

Heat fat to 365 degrees (bubbling, not smoking). Add scallops, using a frying basket to hold them, if you have one. Cook three to five minutes or until golden brown. Makes four servings.

Keep It Light

Pineapple Christmas snow is a light bit of perfection after holiday meal. Heat until dissolved in 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 1 (12-ounce) can pineapple juice, 2 tablespoons sugar and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Add 1 tablespoon lemon juice and 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel; chill until slightly thickened, fold in 2 stiffly beaten egg whites and spoon into 4 (1/2-cup) molds. Chill firm.

TUNA MOLDED SALAD EASY FRENCH WAY

I'm sure you've found, that the simplest dish is the one that brings cries of "Why don't we have this more often" from the family. Speaking of simplicity, often a simple change in an old favorite makes family and guests alike sit up and ask for second helpings. A good example of that idea is a recipe for tuna salad with Shedd's EZY French Dressing as the final touch that makes it something special... but still simple. Speaking of Shedd's EZY French Dressing, I've tried using it in many unusual ways. The spicy, tangy flavor does wonders for hamburgers, for instance. Just brush a little on each hamburger once or twice as it cooks. You can make an excellent barbecue sauce using Shedd's EZY French Dressing as the base. Add some chopped onion and chopped green pepper, a little brown sugar and plenty of black pepper for that one. And that recipe I mentioned? It's our old friend Tuna Fish in a molded salad to be served with a generous amount of Shedd's EZY French Dressing.

1 can tuna fish, chunk or flaked style
 1 tsp. unflavored gelatin
 1/2 cup cold water
 1 1/2 cups hot water
 1/2 cup chopped celery
 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
 1/4 cup chopped sweet pickles or pickle relish
 salt and pepper
 Shedd's EZY French Dressing

Soften gelatin in cold water and dissolve in hot water. Cool till slightly thick, and add other ingredients, which have been thoroughly drained and chilled. Pour into mold or pan and chill till set. Serve with Shedd's EZY French Dressing poured over salad and a bowl of dressing on the side, too. Tip: Use Lady Betty Cucumber pickles for added flavor.

Now you can prepare your favorite salad the EZY way—and still have that snappy, zesty, sassy tang. No matter what kind of salad—fruit, vegetable, molded or plain head lettuce, add the crowning touch with Shedd's EZY French Dressing. Just shake and pour. Delicious!

Fifth Annual Men's National Cooking Contest Open to Enthusiastic Male Chefs

In cooking, as in everything else, there's a woman behind every successful male cook, according to Marni Wood, Chief Nutritionist of the Fifth Annual Men's National Cooking Championship.

ing the 1965 U.S. cooking title and $1,000 grand award going with it.

Last year, over 120,000 men entered the Championship sponsored by the Potato Chip Institute International.

"Wives have strongly influenced every step of a husband's path to the cooking championship title," said Mrs. Wood. "Men are excellent cooks but need a little urging. They are shy about their skill at creating or preparing a main dish using potato chips. All they need is encouragement."

"Over 92 per cent of the winners never won an award before, and they thank their wives for their victories."

Any adult male may enter the Championship. No box tops, labels, or coupons are required.

He can send in as many recipes as he wants for original main dishes using potato chips as an ingredient to the

Professional chefs are barred.

A panel of leading women food experts judge the recipes on the basis of taste, texture, originality and appearance.

First, 50 State Cooking Champions will be chosen and awarded a handsome gold trophy; then 4 regional champions will be selected from these State winners for the finals.

Each regional finalist will get a week's winter vacation for two starting January 31,

There in special kitchens set up for the Championship, they will prepare their prize dishes in the culinary battle for the National Cooking title plus $1,000. Runners-up receive $750 for second place, a $400 third award and a $200 fourth prize.
