Parking Opponents Rapped by Officials

Mayor Answers Enemies of Plan in Sharp Blast

Hirlinger, Commissioner Add Protests to Efforts to Block Proposal

The anti-municipal parking group headed by Sam L. Stolorow was sharply criticized by the mayor and commissioners, the manager of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce and a spokesman for the "Committee for Five Cent Parking" at the City Commission meeting last night.

The one-hour discussion drew rounds of applause from the 40 spectators seated in the audience of the chambers.

Pontiac voters will go to the polls Monday to decide on the issuance of $600,000 in revenue bonds to boost municipal off-street parking spaces in the city to 1,038.

Saginaw Offers Bonds

SAGINAW (U) — City council voted 7-1 last night to sell a million dollars worth of revenue bonds to build a three-level downtown parking facility with a capacity of 606 cars. Parking fees will be pledged to bond retirement.

Included in the audience last night were two members of the opposition group and a stenographer. Neither commented when Mayor William W. Donaldson asked if anyone in the audience wished to be heard.

Donaldson, alongside a huge map of the city, answered charges hurled against him in a four-page publication released recently by James H. Little, working for the Stolorow group.

FLAILS ALLEGED SLURS

"This has cast doubt upon my honesty," the mayor angrily shouted. "You may question my judgment but not my honesty and get away with it."

He said a lot at 147 W. Lawrence St., next to his home and business office, was included in a ring of parking lots suggested by a parking study committee seven years ago.

Added Day in Leap Year for Calendar, Not Women

February 29 puts the "leap" in Leap Year, and we have Julius Caesar to thank for it.

He stuck the extra day into the calendar, creating the special year, but it wasn't just for the benefit of his female friends.

"Making the calendar year equal to the solar year was the original intention, however distorted it has become.

The trouble lies in the fact that the earth's speed around the sun does not fit into nice, round figures. Zipping along at about 19 miles per second, our globe makes the round trip in 365 days, six hours, nine minutes and 9.54 seconds.

Astronomers trying to divide that figure by the amount of time it takes the earth every day to revolve on its axis—23 hours, 56 minutes and 4.1 seconds—naturally came up with a mess too big to fit on a wrist-watch.

They've wrestled with the problem for centuries.

1 DAY TOO LONG

The old Roman calendar had been a pretty good solution, but unfortunately it was one day too long each year. It was three months ahead of the sun by the time Caesar inserted Feb. 29.

Actually, at the time of the change, February normally had 29 days. Caesar really added a thirtieth day.

But Caesar's successor, Augustus, was jealous. He wanted to name the eighth month after himself, but August then had only 30 days; whereas July, named after Julius Caesar, had 31.

STEALS A DAY

The power of an emperor is great: Augustus took a day from February and tacked it onto August. Had Augustus immoderately wanted more days than anyone else, he would have added two days to August and spoiled completely the old rhyme:

Reject Request to Limit Voting

Every Elector Qualified to Ballot on Park Plan, Attorney Rules

City Attorney William A. Ewart ruled last night that any qualified elector in Pontiac may vote on the parking bond issue next Monday, March 5.

The opinion was presented to the City Commission after a demand by a private parking operator that only property owners vote on the $600,000 proposal.

"The proposed municipal parking bonds will not be direct obligations of the City of Pontiac," Ewart said. "They are payable solely from the revenues received from the operation of all parking lots in the city and are not general obligation bonds under section 5.2377 Michigan Statutes Annotated."

Ewart cited two Michigan Supreme Court rulings and an opinion of the Attorney General of Michigan (dated 1940) to support his ruling.

Ewart's decision was confirmed by Claude H. Stevens, bond attorney, who said the cases mentioned in the ruling showed no liability on the people of the districts involved.

Blast in Trailer Kills Youngster

Two Brothers Injured as Oil Stove Explodes in Madison Heights

A year-old child was killed and his two brothers hospitalized by the explosion of an oil stove in their trailer home at 1551 E. Ten Mile Rd., Madison Heights yesterday.

Ronald Carter was pulled dead from the blazing trailer by his mother, Mrs. Steven Carter, 19. His brothers, Lawrence, 2, and Steven, 3, also brought out by the mother, were taken to William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, suffering from carbon monoxide poisoning.

The mother said she was talking with a neighbor about 40 feet away when the trailer burst into flames. Flames blocked the front door, but she managed to get in by the back door and found Ronald lying on the floor. She pulled him out, then went back in and brought out the other two boys.

Carter was away at work, police said.

City High School Student Council Backs Parking

The Student Council of Pontiac High School yesterday joined forces with some 55 other organizations in urging the citizens of Pontiac to vote for increased municipal parking in Monday's election.

A spokesman for the "Committee for Five Cent Parking" made this announcement at last night's City Commission session.

He said the group unanimously supported the city's stand on the proposal in a meeting held this week. The students are the first high school organization to formally endorse the proposal.

Eye County Site for Race Track

Farmington Officials OK Initial Plan for Large Course, Sports Arena

Plans for a $5,500,000 race track and winter sports arena in the Grand River-Ten Mile Road area were brought to light today, following tentative approval of rezoning a 244-acre site from residential to commercial designation.

Initial approval was given the rezoning petition at a special meeting Monday afternoon by the Farmington Township Board. B. F. Gregoric of Wayne, president of the organization which holds options on the property, requested the rezoning.

Site for the proposed development is on a parcel of land bounded by Nine and Ten Mile, and Haisted and Haggerty roads.

Floyd A. Cairns, Farmington Township clerk, said the developers expect to construct, in addition to a track for harness racing, baseball diamonds, tennis courts and heated facilities for winter sports events. A convertible-type roof would make the track adaptable for indoor and outdoor sports.

George Kovacs, owner of General Machine and Tool Works in Walled Lake and secretary-treasurer of the group planning the center, said his associates had not yet made a decision to locate their project in Farmington Township.

"We have four or five sites in view, with options on property in each," Kovacs said. "We have not yet decided on a location. Getting the township zoning approval is a matter of routine, and all the other sites will have to go through the same process. When that approval is given and we have made our choice, then we must still go before the Michigan Racing Commission to obtain a license."

Cairns said the Farmington Township Board tentatively approved the project, subject to review by the planning board and public hearings before presentation to the zoning board.

But Ike Has High Praise for Nixon; Will Report to Nation Tonight

(From Our Wire Services)

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower gave a dramatic "affirmative" answer today to the questions the whole nation was waiting to hear—he will be a candidate for re-election.

He told a jam-packed news conference: "My answer will be positive—that is affirmative." The President will make a nationwide radio and television broadcast tonight to explain his decision to the American people in more detail.

He declared today that his answer would not have been yes unless he thought he could last out five more years in office.

He made it clear that Vice President Richard M. Nixon is again his choice as a running mate.

But he said he will leave it up to the nominating convention to pick the vice presidential candidate.

Eisenhower said he would not allow his own name to go before the convention unless the delegates understood all of the factors involved in his decision.

These factors will be discussed in detail this evening when the President states his case before the American people.

The President said this broadcast will probably be sometime between 9:30 and 10:30 P. M. (EST).

Asked what the issues will be in the campaign, Eisenhower gave a blunt reply—he will campaign on the record of his administration.

The President had wrestled with his decision almost up to the moment of its announcement.

He said he was still arguing with himself yesterday and did not tell any one else what he would do until last night.

Eisenhower told a news conference electric with excitement over the big decision that he doesn't know whether the American people want him or not.

He made it clear he will lay all of his cards on the table, including a candid appraisal of his health five months after suffering a heart attack.

IN GOOD HEALTH

The President brushed aside questions on his health this morning, saying this is one of the points he will discuss tonight.

The Chief Executive appeared in robust health this morning as he answered almost every other question thrown at him.

ference in the old Indian Treaty room of the executive offices building across the street from the White House.

Eisenhower said he was going to be just as honest as he could be discussing his health during the campaign.

He added with a wry smile that even his political enemies seem to concede his honesty, though at times they may think he is stupid.

Asked whether he is hopeful of winning re-election, the President turned dead serious.

PEOPLE TO DECIDE

He declared this is a question in the hands of the American people, repeating that his campaign (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

Legislative Unit Kills Airport Bill

Move to Block Building of Warren Twp. Field Defeated by 6-2 Vote

LANSING (U) — A bill to block construction of a giant new Detroit airport in suburban Warren Township was killed last night by the House Aeronautics Committee.

The committee's action followed an hour-long blast against the airport by residents of Warren Township and Detroit.

"The bill was killed because of the future effect it might have on development of existing airports in other parts of the state," said Rep. Charles A. Boyer (R-Manistee), committee chairman.

Committee members said the vote was 6-2.

The bill would have required any city planning to expand an airport by condemnation to get the approval of the board of supervisors in which the airport lies.

Detroit already has 74 acres of land in the township and wants to obtain more by condemnation.

Chief spokesman for the groups protesting the airport site was Frank Runey, president of the Tri-County Civic Assn.

Runey, an insurance executive living in Warren Township, said public opinion is against the airport and there is no necessity for a new airport in the area.

The Wayne Major airport, west of Detroit, is ideally suited for development because of its present size and proximity to the expressway.

The proposed airport site is bounded by 12 and 14 Mile roads, Dequindre and Ryan.

Tax Charge Hits Ex-Teamster

Indict Samuel Marroso for Alleged Concealing Income in 1950-52

Another former official of a Pontiac Teamsters Local was indicted yesterday for alleged income tax evasion.

Samuel J. Marroso, 42, former business agent of Pontiac Local 614, AFL Teamsters, was accused of listing $19,464 less than he made during the years of 1950, 1951 and 1952.

Underpayment of taxes totaling $2,469 is charged.

In January, former teamsters official Daniel J. Keating was indicted by a federal grand jury for income tax evasion. He was charged with concealing some $29,000 in income during 1949-53.

U.S. District Attorney Fred W. Kaess said the hidden income was from bribes received from local contractors to avoid labor disputes.

Marroso, a Ufa resident, was also formerly business agent for a Detroit teamsters local.

Keating, Marroso and two other teamsters officials were given prison terms on charges brought by a labor racket grand jury in 1954.

The income tax investigation stemmed from that case, in which the union officials were accused of shaking down employers.

Keating stood mute when arraigned in Detroit federal court, and was released on $10,000 personal bond. No trial date has been set.

Add Leap Year Day to Equalize Calendar

cept February alone . . . and August, which hath 32."

It was discovered that Caesar had not entirely solved the problem. His year actually was 11 minutes and 14 seconds too long. By the year 1580, the calendar was way ahead of itself again, this time by 10 days.

DROP 10 DAYS
Pope Gregory XIII ordered ten days dropped from the year 1582 (it happened in October) and made this rule:

Leap Year will occur once every four years except in century years not divisible by the number 400.

As a result, the years 1700, 1800 and 1900 were not Leap Years. The year 2000 will be a Leap Year, though.

As things stand, the calendar year is now 25.95 seconds ahead of the solar year—a slight discrepancy, hardly long enough to explain why it exists. But by the year 4912, a whole day will be gained.

So 4912 will be a Backwards Leap Year. February probably will have only 27 days in 4912.

In 4913, the whole trouble will start over again.

Pontiac, Florida? Commissioners to Watch, Wait

Ever heard of Pontiac, Florida? This imaginary metropolis was brought to light last night at the City Commission meeting when Mayor William W. Donaldson read a letter from a Fort Lauderdale, Fla. realtor suggesting such a city.

It stemmed from a move by Dearborn's Mayor Orville Hubbard to set up a Dearborn, Fla. as a haven for retired Dearborn city officials.

Skeptically and humorously listening to the communication, the commissioners decided to take Donaldson's advice that Pontiac "wait to see how the Dearborn project works out."

Dairy Farmers Receive Backing

Motor City Creamery Agrees That Producers Warrant Price Boost

DETROIT (AP)—Dairy farmers fighting for higher milk prices had the support of at least one creamery today.

John Stewart, president of Twin Pines dairy, said yesterday at a hearing before a U. S. Department of Agriculture examiner that Twin Pines and other Detroit creameries "agree that farmers should receive more for the products they sell."

The hearing was called at the request of the Michigan Milk Producers Assn., which is demanding higher milk prices for dairy farmers. Some association members who have formed the Fair Share Bargaining Assn. have threatened to picket creameries unless their price increases are met.

Samuel T. Angott, president of the Detroit Milk Dealers, Inc. said increased payments to farmers would be reflected in higher milk prices to consumers. Angott said the creameries were "caught in a squeeze" between the Fair Share group and the MMPA.

Meanwhile, seven officials of the Fair Share group, who are attempting to supplant the MMPA as bargaining agent for the farmers, went to court today to fight expulsion from the parent association.

House Group Defeats Bill to Cut Costs of Blue Cross

LANSING (AP)—A bill designed to cut costs of Blue Cross and other cooperative hospitalization insurance plans was killed yesterday by the House Insurance Committee.

The bill, introduced by Rep. Allison Green (R-Kingston), would have required the cooperative plans to be deductible so that subscribers would pay part of the costs for the first days of hospitalization.

Green contended the bill would

Solons Hurrying to Dispose Bills

Deadline Approaching as Scores of Legislation Must Be Voted On

LANSING (AP)—Working against an imminent deadline, Senate and House committees hurried today to dispose of scores of bills still hanging fire under their control.

Included and apparently doomed were a number of the chief legislative recommendations of Gov. Williams.

Under House and Senate rules, all bills except taxation and appropriation measures not approved by committees in the chamber of origin by midnight will die.

A flurry of activity Tuesday produced these committee decisions on some of the important bills:

The Senate Taxation Committee killed a bill to permit cities, with voter consent, to levy a tax of up to one per cent on wages, salaries and net income of businesses and professional men.

The Senate Liquor Committee favorably reported a bill to take the state out of the retail liquor commission. Its enactment would result in closing of 99 retail outlets which do about four per cent of the state's 167 million dollar annual liquor business.

The Senate State Affairs recommended passage of a measure to enlarge state water resources commission powers to deal with water and sewage problems, and provide for a banding together of local communities facing such problems in water supply and sewage disposal districts.

A bill embodying the state school aid recommendations of Clair L. Taylor, state school chief, was reported favorably by the Senate Education Committee, but with some changes. It was referred to the appropriations committee.

Among bills approved by House committees was a measure sanctioning payment of state unemployment compensation along with private supplemental layoff pay.

Pair Confesses Part in Holdup of Tavern

Two men pleaded guilty yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court to taking part in the armed robbery of the Lake Orion Bo-Inn bar Feb. 4.

They are Thomas Bailey, 22, of 468 S. Broadway, Lake Orion, and Donald Smith, 31, of 451 S. Anderson, Pontiac.

Smith admitted he drove the car used in the holdup with Bailey and Gerald K. Davis, 28, of Avon Township, accompanying him. Davis has admitted he entered the bar, armed with a shotgun, and took $216.

The three will be tried March 12 along with John D. Fortson, 23, of Auburn Heights, who has admitted joining Davis in the $890 stickup Jan. 18 of Tom's Bar, 928 Mount Clemens St.

cut Blue Cross rates as much as 20 per cent. A 15 per cent Blue Cross rate boost has been approved by the state insurance commissioner and takes effect Thursday.

Rep. Andrew Bolt (R-Grand Rapids) said the bill had some good features but that the problems involved are too complex to solve in "rush" legislation.

He said a resolution would be introduced recommending a joint interim legislative committee to study the problem. A similar study committee is expected to be appointed by Gov. Williams soon.

Joseph A. Navarre, state insurance commissioner, told the committee the Green bill is premature. He urged that legislation be delayed until the studies are completed.

Also appearing at today's hearing were executives of Blue Cross, who said the bill would not improve the rate situation a bit.

Under the Green plan, patients would pay the cost of the first day and 15 per cent of the charges after the seventh day.

"It is unwise to make the deductible provision mandatory because times and needs change," said William S. McNary, executive vice president of Blue Cross.

McNary was asked whether doctors are in the best position to stop the abuse of Blue Cross benefits since they are the final judges as to whether patients should be admitted to hospitals.

McNary answered that many doctors told him that their patients had threatened to change to other physicians if they were not sent to the hospital.

Tax Deadline Today for Residents of City

Today is the last day for Pontiac taxpayers to pay 1955 city, school and county taxes, City Treasurer Walter A. Giddings announced.

Tomorrow all unpaid taxes must be paid at the Oakland County Treasurer's office along with installment payments on special assessments.

Starting tomorrow, a four per cent collection fee will be added to delinquent taxes and one-half of one per cent additional each month thereafter until sold at the annual tax sale for 1955 taxes.

The treasurer's office is on the first floor of the City Hall and will remain open today until 5 p.m.

Expect Dye Assault Trial to Conclude Late Today

In Oakland County Circuit Court today, a nine-woman, three-man jury was expected to begin weighing the fate of a former judge charged with attempted murder.

Only two witnesses remained to be questioned in the trial of Clifford B. Dye, 54, accused in the non-fatal shooting last Aug. 26 of Fenton tenant farmer William C. Clark, 27, who leased a farm from Dye's sister.

Dye was a magistrate in Louisville, Ky., before moving to Michigan in 1941, later serving as Fenton village attorney.

Clark, recalled to the stand yesterday, gave testimony conflicting with that previously submitted by a state police ballistics expert.

The farmer said three shots were fired, the one that hit him from 15 to 18 feet. The expert had testified there were powder burns on Clark's shirt and the bullet traveled about 18 inches.

Under cross examination by Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor, Dye said he had heard Clark's wife, Lois, 27, "lie many times and claimed another witness 'clearly perjured himself on the stand.'"

Mrs. Clark has supported her husband's story that Dye began shooting at Clark for no apparent reason after the couple and their two children had driven to the attorney's farm to feed cattle.

Ike Will Run Again if People Want Him

will be the record of his administration.

He was in jovial spirits through much of the questioning, and gave almost jocular answers to some queries.

Asked who had been taken into his confidence as he discussed his decision, he replied with a grin that he talked with everybody he thought was his friend and some he wasn't so sure of.

He said the First Lady and other members of his family told him from the beginning to make up his own mind—that the decision was his and his alone.

The first question asked at the 10:30 a.m. news conference was whether he would again want Nixon as his running mate.

NIXON A DEDICATED MAN

Eisenhower replied that he has a tremendous admiration for Nixon.

He said the 43-year-old Vice President has done a loyal and dedicated job.

He said his admiration and respect for Nixon is unbounded, but that it was up to the GOP convention to select a vice presidential nominee.

Under questioning, however, he made it clear that he disagreed with Nixon's recent reference to Earl Warren as a "great Republican chief justice."

The President said in emphatic terms that once a man has passed into the Supreme Court he is an American citizen and nothing else—not a member of any political party.

He kept the newsmen on pins and needles for several minutes at the start of the news conference as he discussed several other matters.

For the first eight minutes of the session, the President, calm and collected, tantalized the newsmen by talking first about various other matters—such things as the Red Cross drive for funds, the pending farm bill, and a water resources measure which is before Congress.

PERSONAL IN NATURE

With the tension mounting, Eisenhower finally turned to the subject everyone had been waiting for him to discuss—his attitude regarding a second term.

He said he had an announcement which was something more personal in nature, and recalled that he had promised the newsmen that he would disclose his second term plans to them first if it could be worked out that way.

Eisenhower then said he had reached a decision whether to bid for another four years in the White House.

He went on to say that his decision involves so many factors that it was impossible for him to express it in terms of a simple yes or no.

Eisenhower's announcement prefaces his nomination by acclamation at the party's Aug. 20 convention in San Francisco—unless some development meantime alters the situation.

Republicans from top leaders down through the rank and file have been hoping and praying that Eisenhower would consent to run again.

SOME WOULD DROP NIXON

In the absence of a definite nod from Eisenhower in behalf of Nixon, there remains some division of the party, however, about a vice presidential nominee. Some elements would like to drop Nixon.

It is generally accepted that Eisenhower can have anyone he wants as his running mate. And many party members believe he would want Nixon since the President has repeatedly spoken his high regard for him.

Just before Eisenhower ended his 23-minute meeting with reporters he said he never would have decided to seek re-election unless he thought he would live out the next five years.

That recalled his doctors' report on Feb. 15 saying the President appeared physically fit to serve "another 5 to 10 years" in a job like the presidency.

But, responding to one question, Eisenhower said his decision to run should not have the effect of excluding any other candidates if they want to get into the race.

SIX FRIENDS KNEW

At another point he said that maybe a half dozen persons were informed of the decision last evening after he had reached it. He did not name any of them.

Another question was whether he had made a decision regarding a second term before his September heart attack. With a chuckle, Eisenhower replied that is a secret he thinks he never will disclose, except possibly in his official papers after he has left the White House.

Billfold With $70 Taken From Woman's Purse

About $70 was in a billfold taken from a telephone booth in a downtown department store yesterday afternoon, Pontiac police were told.

Mrs. Martha M. White, of Waterford Township said the billfold was in her purse, which she left for a few minutes.

The Day in Birmingham

City Planners Request Talks on Office Zoning

BIRMINGHAM (AP)—The Birmingham Planning Board has called for a joint meeting with city commissioners on problems of rezoning residential property to professional and office use, as a bumper zone against the city's business areas.

Members of the board said they want ideas on rezoning to "small business" such blocks as the residential one on Hunter between Oakland and Madison, and Pierce north of 14-Mile road.

City planners met last night in committee session and eyed the requests of Dominic Caputo to rezone to Class "C" four lots on Pierce, and of Esther G. Barton and Mary, Paul and James F. Cammiskey, for rezoning in reference to five lots on Hunter.

The "bumper zone" between commercial and residential zones to be created by the "C" classification might not extend to such outlying areas, the planners feel, but have made no decision on whether to recommend approval in these two cases.

No date has been set for the joint meeting.

Deadline for voters to register for the April 2 election is at 5 p.m. March 6, according to City Clerk Irene Haney, who says special hours on that day are from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. and on Saturday, March 5, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Daily hours this week are from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. in her office in the Municipal Building.

There are about 12,300 voters now registered, she says, calling it an average amount for such an election.

not a sly, scheming trick of any commissioner or your mayor to place a lot near his place where he lived and worked," he said.

CPES SALE OFFER

After purchase of the lot from the former owner Robert A. Hagerman, Donaldson told the spectators he offered to sell it to the city for off-street parking as a future date when he was no longer a member of the commission.

"This deluge of untruths and half-truths is only a sample of what is to come. It shows that the lust for profit will not stop anybody from doing anything they see fit."

Denouncing Joseph A. Chircop, acting secretary of the Stolorow group, the "Committee for Five Cent Parking" spokesman, Ralph T. Norvell, introduced letters refuting posters about alleged municipal parking problems in other cities which are displayed at many private parking lots in Pontiac.

SAYS SIGNS FALSE

"We have information to prove these signs of Stolorow are entirely wrong," he said. He read letters from the Alton, Ill. Assoc. of Commerce, Albany, Ga.: Chamber of Commerce, Binghamton, N. Y.: Twin Cities Chamber of Commerce, Benton Harbor, Mich. and New Haven and Stamford, Conn. groups.

John W. Hurlinger, manager of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce, confirmed the blasts at the opposition group which has forced Monday's election on the bonds by referendum action taken last December.

"This man who owns 75 per cent of the parking in Pontiac has forced one after another of the small parking operators out of business," he said.

"When our commissioners and city officials are selfless enough by working to make our city the envy of many others, how can this selfish interest group turn around and say they are a bunch of crooks," he demanded.

LUTZ ADDS VOICE

"I didn't know we had people in Pontiac who would assassinate a person's character over a dollar," Commissioner Harry W. Lutz shouted.

Then Commissioner John A. Dugan told the audience and his fellow commissioners that Stolorow and Little "do not even live in our city."

"He will go to any length to mislead our citizens into voting against this parking ordinance," Dugan said.

"He is interested in one thing and that one thing is a monopoly on the parking business of our city."

"I hope the voters will give Mr. Stolorow one of the biggest beatings he has ever had in his life at this coming election," Commissioner John E. Carry stated.

Commissioner Floyd P. Miles said he was convinced the city's program is absolutely necessary and that he was "100 per cent for it."

"I have a firm belief municipal parking is as necessary as the new fire station, paved streets, and our water problem that faces us," Commissioner Philip E. Rowston added.

Commissioner Roy V. Cooley was out of town for last night's meeting.

Relieves Painful Monthly Cramps For 3 out of 4 Women Tested! Gives Greater Relief Than Aspirin!

Boston, Mass. (Special)—New promise of relief for women who suffer from monthly cramps and nervous tension is found in an amazing new tablet... developed especially to relieve this female discomfort. It offers greater relief than aspirin during that distressing period each month! Doctors report remarkable results. For 3 out of 4 women tested, pain and cramps were stopped or strikingly relieved. Even on the first day, many had no nagging headaches, no backaches or other functionally-caused distress... were also less jittery the trying week before their period! The new tablet contains not just one or two ingredients but a unique combination of special medicines. That's why this new discovery offers more relief than plain aspirin! Unlike such "general-purpose" remedies, it acts on the cause of distress. Has amazing power to calm uterine contractions, also works through a woman's sympathetic nervous system. Called "Lydia Pinkham's Tablets," the formula was developed by the world's largest manufacturer devoted exclusively to relief of women's ailments! Easy-to-take new Pinkham's Tablets are now available at all drug stores without a prescription. So don't suffer needlessly. Take Pinkham's Tablets yourself. See if you don't feel worlds better this very month. See if you don't escape much of the irritability and discomfort—both before and during those "difficult days." (For liquid form... ask for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.)

Scientific Base Airdrop Scheduled at South Pole

SAN FRANCISCO — A U.S. 18th Air Force survey party of seven men is back from the arctic with plans to airdrop an entire scientific base at the South Pole.

The base will consist of 485 tons of materials for buildings, radio towers, scientific equipment and supplies to sustain scientists at the polar station through January 1959 for studies connected with the International Geophysical Year. The region around the South Pole is a depression "like a saucer" some 200 feet deep and 15 to 20 miles wide, reported one of the airmen, 1st Lt. Ernest Schmid of Syracuse, N.Y.

Lt. Schmid is the first Air Force man to fly over both poles, but he "couldn't see a thing" at the South Pole, he said, because of a "white-out" in the atmosphere where ice crystals shroud the horizon and deprive airmen of their sense of direction and balance. Schmid said his plane tracked the contour of the ground by radar and that the pole is some 9,000 feet above sea level. Another in the party, Capt. Henry Partridge of Savannah, Ga., flew over the "pole of inaccessibility" or the geographical center of the antarctic continent some 400 miles away from the South Pole.

Capt. Arthur Grafe of Phoebus, Va., is the Air Force tactical operations officer in charge of the survey, which was part of Operation Deepfreeze preparing for the geophysical year's activities. The group of seven arrived yesterday.

The French, in 1955, not only earned more and spent more than in other recent years—they saved more, according to the National Credit Council in Paris.

During World War II more than 4,000 seagoing ships were lost. Together they exceeded 20,000,000 gross registered tons. Tennessee's "Great Lakes of the South," formed by Tennessee Valley Authority dams, cover more than 600,000 acres.

For 10 Years I Suffered The FIERCE PAIN of ARTHRITIS

If you suffer from rheumatism or arthritis and haven't found relief, you haven't tried O-JIB-WA BITTERS. Mrs. Bertha Van Anburg, 205 E. Corunna avenue, Corunna, Michigan, is glad to tell you her experience with this marvelous medicine.

"I suffered from arthritis for about 23 years, but the last 10 years were the worst. My knees were swollen to twice their normal size. There were times I couldn't get out of a chair, and when I could get up, the pain was so fierce, it would make me holler. The arthritis was all over my body, and even the joints of my fingers became disfigured, and pained terribly. I had trouble with my gall bladder too, and so much poison in my system, that I was forced to bed for days at a time, and was not able to sleep at night. I took shots and other treatments for seven years with poor results, and then read a testimonial for O-JIB-WA BITTERS.

mal size. There were times I couldn't get out of a chair, and when I could get up, the pain was so fierce, it would make me holler. The arthritis was all over my body, and even the joints of my fingers became disfigured, and pained terribly. I had trouble with my gall bladder too, and so much poison in my system, that I was forced to bed for days at a time, and was not able to sleep at night. I took shots and other treatments for seven years with poor results, and then read a testimonial for O-JIB-WA BITTERS.

In my paper, so thought I would give it a trial. I remember my grandmother gathering herbs when I was young, and how much good they did, so felt that O-JIB-WA BITTERS would help me, as they too are all herbs. Well, I took the medicine faithfully, but can't say that results came overnight, as it took longer than that. However, in three months, I was a lot better and could bend my knees and the pain and swelling was leaving. Now I am well again and feel better than I have in the last 10 years. My gall bladder doesn't bother me either, and my fingers have no pain in them. I've told a great many people how O-JIB-WA BITTERS helped me, and I know many that have tried it with equally amazing results. I don't know of any other medicine that will do so much for a person. I keep a bottle of O-JIB-WA in the house always, as sometimes my knees get sore, and I know that this wonderful medicine will take care of them right away."

Hal Boyle Says:

February 29th . . . It's Jolly Day for Witches

NEW YORK (AP)—Magic rides this morning.

This is the 29th of February, the holiday of witches.

Graciousness rides this day and lights all people born upon it who have a birthday only every four years.

WITCHES JOIN FUN

But the 29th of February is also the reverse of Halloween. Witches don't zoom off into the yonder; they brake their brooms downward and become part of the party.

Typical witch talk at an earth party:

First witch (elderly): "Oh, I say, the crowd sure has gone downhill since Shakespeare wrote about us, I must say."

Second witch (middle-aged): "You couldn't be more right, dearie. Ever since I lost my late husband (the poor devil) I've felt so . . . What's that, sir, are you in real estate, too? How unexpected, May I offer a suggestion on your new tenant rates?"

Third witch (young): "So many overpowering young men. What they see in me I really don't know."

Or do I? Why of course, Rumba . . . Oh, the Waltz? . . . The Waltz any witch from any times remembers. Never mind leading me, I'll lead you. "Da-da-da-da"—How can one forget it?—"Da-da-da-da"—won't it go on forever?"

The music goes on and on as if it would never stop, and the first witch finally says: "Listen, girls, we are losing our sense of social responsibility. At least under Shakespeare, we knew where the next pot we could cast an asp into was coming from."

"Oh, don't be so professional," sighs the second witch, who was working into a fast early Century Fox Trot. "I've just got my date at the point where he is telling me the sad story of his wife."

The music changes, switches to jitterbug, and the third witch's mouth flies open in the slack-day.

the Turkey Trot, the jawed posture common to this form of art. Movement? Obvious. Conversation? Impossible. Dawn cracks suddenly. The eldest witch cries, "Girls, you know we shouldn't be out after midnight."

All three witches mount brooms and fly away. "Just like women," grumbled the men. "Always breaking up the party."

The mystic quadrennial holiday on Feb. 29 is over—leaving many the old calendar problem: March 1.

LANSING (AP)—Dave Higbie, Lansing State Journal copy boy, often wondered how many steps he took a day running copy. A recent count for an eight-hour day added up that at a stride of 2 1/2 feet a step he walked about seven miles a day.

Karachi Texans Get Good Home Cooking

DALLAS (AP)—Five hundred pounds of chili, tamales, beans and tortillas are on their way to Karachi, Pakistan, to help a colony of transplanted Texans celebrate Texas independence day, March 2.

William H. Brooks, former Texan now foreign investment and trade advisor to the International Cooperative Administration in Karachi, said he needed the huge quantities of ingredients for the chili supper because "over here I find almost everyone is either a native Texan, married to a Texan, or aspiring to be a Texan."

Dulles' Comments Keep Dems Hurling Vocal Barbs

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—It may be Secretary of State Dulles talks so much that when the Democrats get mad at what he says they forget he said it before and, between times, perhaps just the opposite.

That the Democrats are getting very vocal in an election year may be only coincidence. But Dulles is pretty vocal himself. He has not only traveled more than any secretary of state in history but may hold the record for speeches and statements too.

He set the Democrats off over the weekend by his testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee Friday when he said Russia's policy of "intolerance and violence" had failed because of free world "firmness" over the past few years.

statements a number of times before without this reaction from the Democrats. He might have added, but didn't, that the policy of firmness had been laid down by the Democrats under President Truman.

Yet, Dulles last December seemed to say the exact opposite when he declared the Russians' zigzag policy had ended and they were opening dangerous new cold war fronts in Asia and the Middle East.

Why were they doing it? In December Dulles said it might be they were more confident because they were stronger. Friday he said they were in a "very bad way" although he acknowledged they were making great progress in heavy industry and in war industries.

On Friday he said the new Russian leaders had to ditch Stalinism. In December he said Russia's new tactics "do not mark a change of purpose" meaning world communism.

He said the same thing Friday. But then he added something which threw the Democrats into a tizzy. He said the Russians are changing their tactics because they realize "they must bring their system closer to ours rather than the other way around."

If this sounds rather optimistic, it is not unusual for Dulles, whose optimism sometimes has been badly upset by later events.

Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) asked Dulles Friday if he didn't think the Russians "seem to be making progress, especially in the Middle East?" Dulles said he didn't think so, that they had made very little progress in the past few years.

But on Jan. 11 Dulles, with Eisenhower's approval, issued a statement calling on America to "wake up" to "all the implications" of Russia's changed tactics.

Spinsters Lead Full Lives Today

By ANNE HEYWOOD
Today is Leap Year Day, and, all day, I've been thinking about my Great Aunt Mattie.

Aunt Mattie lived with my grand father and grandmother whom I used to visit when I was about 9 years old.

That was 33 years ago and in that time the status of women has changed for the better. Particularly single women, like Aunt Mattie.

In those days, the girl who didn't get married had a horrible life and that was all there was to it.

If she was lucky, she might get a job as a teacher, nurse, or— heaven forbid!—as a typist in a man's world of offices, which was pretty bold and not very nice.

NOT SO LUCKY

But single women weren't so lucky, then. Most of them didn't have any training. It was taken for granted that some man would marry them and take them off Daddy's hands.

If no man married them, their luckier sisters and brothers were forced to take them in, where they lived a second-hand life.

Aunt Mattie, as a matter of fact, had a pretty good life, as such lives go. Grandmother and Grandfather really loved her, gave her her own room and a little garden.

Of course, it was taken for granted that she would do a good deal of the housework and help with the children.

She was treated kindly, but it was clear even to me as a 9-year-old that she wasn't a very important person, that she had somehow failed in the important things of life.

DIFFERENT TODAY

But things have changed a good deal in 32 years and, in spite of criticisms from the conservative side, I think the status of women today is better in every way.

If Aunt Mattie lived today, she wouldn't get the heartbreaking kidding she used to get every Leap Year.

She would probably have a good job, a good education, a nice apartment of her own, a rich life.

More than that, she would look younger, be healthier and, quite probably, get married even in her 40s or 50s!

Golden Loaf Uses Up Egg Yolks

Mrs. Christensen Makes Airy Cake in Angel Food Style

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

What do you do with leftover egg yolks? Mrs. Lester Christensen suggests making a Golden Sunbeam Cake. This cake is light and airy, somewhat like a sponge cake.

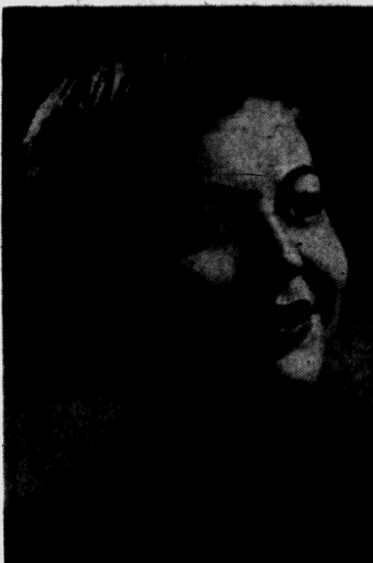

As a working homemaker, Mrs. Christensen must confine her outside activities to evenings. She belongs to a church group and a square dance club. For the past four or five years she has been a member also of the Boys Club Mothers Club.

GOLDEN SUNBEAM CAKE

By Mrs. Lester Christensen
3 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
Sift together three times.
10-12 egg yolks
3 cups sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
¼ teaspoon lemon extract
1 cup cold water

Beat yolks until thick and lemon colored, about 5 minutes. Add sugar gradually, beating well. Add liquid ingredients quickly but thoroughly in two or three parts.

Bake in an ungreased angel food pan for 1 hour at 350 degrees. Turn upside down and let hang until cold.

DONA WALL

Mrs. Michael Wall of Farner drive announces the engagement of her daughter, Dona, to Clyde L. Herring of Royal Oak. Mrs. John M. Rutherford of Sands Point, Long Island, N. Y., is his mother. He is a graduate of General Motors Institute.

Mrs. Granville Morse has returned home from a visit at the Bellevue Biltmore Hotel in Bel-air, Fla., where she visited her brother and sisters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard F. Powell.

Movie Firm Plans Fake Fashion Shop

The next fashion firm you hear of may be a "dummy"—the local color setup of the movie company making "The Fifth Season."

They are discussing setting up a full scale business on Seventh avenue, so the filming of the comedy about the garment industry will ring true in all details. Even plan to engage "technical advisors" from the fashion press etc.

Money Gift From Beau Not Proper

Girl's Mom Right to Protest Against Boys' Present

By EMILY POST

A reader tells me: "I had a birthday last week and my boy friend handed me a birthday card in which was enclosed a 10-dollar bill. He said that he didn't know what to buy me and to please use the money for something I really wanted."

"It sounded very practical to me but when my mother heard of it she almost hit the ceiling and told me in no uncertain terms how wrong it was for a girl to accept money from a man."

"I can't see what all the fuss is about as he would in all probability have spent this amount on a present anyway, and isn't it better to buy something I really need than to have him spend it on something useless? I would very much appreciate your opinion on this matter."

Answer: While your point of view is well taken, I have to agree with your mother. According to convention, a woman does not accept money from a man.

It is entirely proper for him to ask you to go with him and pick out one of several things that he has put aside for you to choose from, and buy it for you, but for him to give you actual cash is really taboo.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am a school teacher and throughout the school year I receive presents from some of my pupils. In writing thank-you notes for these presents, how should I sign my name?"

"I know that ordinarily Mrs. Jones is not a correct signature, but to sign my name Mary Jones does not seem right either in this particular case. Will you please tell me the correct signature to use in this situation?"

Answer: Such letters are correctly signed by whatever name they call you.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Does one open up the entire napkin before putting it across one's lap, or is it better manners to leave it folded in half?"

Answer: If it is a small one you open it entirely, but if it is a large one, you leave it partly folded across your lap.

GOODRICH — Service for Dr. Wells C. Reid, 69, was to be held at 1:30 p.m. today at Goodrich Methodist Church, with burial in Evergreen Cemetery.

Dr. Reid, superintendent of Goodrich Hospital for many years, died Sunday at his home at 10172 Erie St.

Born in Mundy Township, April 14, 1886, the son of Alfred and Isabel Reid, he was a resident of Goodrich for 36 years. Dr. Reid married Mary Harris Oct. 23, 1913, in Grand Blanc.

He was a member of Goodrich lodge No. 548, F&AM; member of the American College of Surgeons and of the Genesee County Medical Society. He was a graduate of Washington University, St. Louis, and a veteran of World War I, practicing medicine in Grand Blanc four years prior to going to Goodrich in 1919.

He is survived by his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Perry Rossman of Lakeview and Mrs. D. L. Weaver of East Lansing; a son, Dr. John Reid of Flint; eight grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Alonzo Torrey of Grand Blanc and Mrs. Russell L. Ballard of Mundy Township.

Leonard Family Night
Features 'Call of Navajo'

Dr. Zemmer Back
LAPEER — Dr. H. B. Zemmer has returned from a trip to Jacksonville, Fla., where he attended the meeting of the American College of Medicine. The doctor, his wife and Mrs. Charles A. Gordon who accompanied them, also visited Cuba, Miami and Sarasota during their trip.

Waterford Jaycees Slate Sports, Builders' Show

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — The latest in home appliances, hardware, building supplies and sporting goods will be displayed in more than 50 booths at the Jaycee-sponsored Sports and Builders Show, to be held March 23-25 at the Community Activities Inc. Building, 5640 Williams Lake Rd.

General chairman for the event is Frank Richardson. Assisting him are Harold Horn and George Scampland.

Other chairmen are: John Chase, manpower; Donald Bowen, building and grounds; W. C. Robertson, finance; Bud Marion, publicity; Gordon Brown, booth layout; Howard Barling, entertainment; Charles Elliott, booth sales; Charles Pappas, program advertising; Robert Wheeler, refreshments; and Donald Arsen, ticket sales.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary will have a bazaar booth. A few booth spaces are still available, and reservations may be made with Gordon Brown or with Richardson.

Members, who are between 10 and 21 years old, are pledged to unite head, heart, hands and health in "improving family and community living" this year, the clubs' continuing theme for '56. They are teamed up to work for better homes, schools, and churches in their own localities. There are nearly 89,000 local clubs in all 48 states, Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico.

The purposes of national 4-H Club Week are to provide members with a special occasion for evaluating past achievements and to make plans for future activities on their farms, in their homes, and in their communities.

Six top-ranking 4-H club members will spend the week in Washington, giving "a report to the nation." They will visit the White House, meet with Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson, and other government leaders and congressmen to tell about club achievements in the past year and about future club plans.

Those named this year as typically outstanding in club work who will visit Washington, are: Angela Heine, Ellendale, N. D.; Franklin McKay, Clayton, N. M.; Ann Guindon, Plankinton, S. D.; Eldon Rebhorn, Oswego, Ill.; Nellie McCullough, Cleveland, Tenn.; and William C. Thiesenhusen, Muskego, Wis.

President Eisenhower, who is honorary chairman of the 4-H National Committee, said in a special message of greeting to club members: "All of you have my warm best wishes as you look forward to National 4-H Club Week beginning March 3."

"In the past year you have added much to your fine record in farming, homemaking, community service and other activities. In saluting you, I pay tribute to the 352,000 local volunteer leaders who help make your achievements possible. I am confident you, your parents and your extension workers deeply appreciate the capable and generous guidance which those public-spirited men and women have given you toward learning to apply modern science on your farms and in your homes and toward developing a sound sense of values."

"As you improve your talents and undertake responsibilities for bettering your communities, you will continue to contribute to the strength of our free nation."

Special Events Mark Occasion

2,100,000 to Celebrate; Ike Greets Members in Special Message

WASHINGTON (INS) — More than 2,100,000 4-H Club members will celebrate national 4-H Club Week, March 3-11, with special events and programs throughout the nation.

Members, who are between 10 and 21 years old, are pledged to unite head, heart, hands and health in "improving family and community living" this year, the clubs' continuing theme for '56. They are teamed up to work for better homes, schools, and churches in their own localities. There are nearly 89,000 local clubs in all 48 states, Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico.

The purposes of national 4-H Club Week are to provide members with a special occasion for evaluating past achievements and to make plans for future activities on their farms, in their homes, and in their communities.

Six top-ranking 4-H club members will spend the week in Washington, giving "a report to the nation." They will visit the White House, meet with Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson, and other government leaders and congressmen to tell about club achievements in the past year and about future club plans.

Those named this year as typically outstanding in club work who will visit Washington, are: Angela Heine, Ellendale, N. D.; Franklin McKay, Clayton, N. M.; Ann Guindon, Plankinton, S. D.; Eldon Rebhorn, Oswego, Ill.; Nellie McCullough, Cleveland, Tenn.; and William C. Thiesenhusen, Muskego, Wis.

President Eisenhower, who is honorary chairman of the 4-H National Committee, said in a special message of greeting to club members: "All of you have my warm best wishes as you look forward to National 4-H Club Week beginning March 3."

"In the past year you have added much to your fine record in farming, homemaking, community service and other activities. In saluting you, I pay tribute to the 352,000 local volunteer leaders who help make your achievements possible. I am confident you, your parents and your extension workers deeply appreciate the capable and generous guidance which those public-spirited men and women have given you toward learning to apply modern science on your farms and in your homes and toward developing a sound sense of values."

"As you improve your talents and undertake responsibilities for bettering your communities, you will continue to contribute to the strength of our free nation."

THE POWERHOUSE

If you are wise, you will make a date with yourself to catch the Eastern Golden Gloves championships, 24 thrilling bouts, in the Garden March 7 and the New York-Chicago bouts, March 21.

The New York City Finals were among the finest I have witnessed in 30 years. There were dead game youngsters in all weights.

There were the usual debates among rooting ringsiders over decisions. And there was action, pure, undiluted slam bang action from first gong to last.

I believe the boys today are much better schooled than they were in earlier days of this great tournament. They generally exhibited more polish. Even the Sub-Novices came in equipped with passable left jabs and combinations.

You'd see a boy try to feint, invite a lead, crouch, bob and weave. You knew he had learned the rudiments in some modern, clean, well-equipped clubhouse gym.

GLOVES CLOWNS OF THE PAST ARE GONE

The clowns of the past are gone. The awkward, shaggy maned, earnest dock wallpapers who evoked gales of laughter are no more.

Each boy from flyweight to heavy showed certain faint skills that bespoke hours at the hands of a patient instructor.

Of course, some of the classy, jab, weave, parry-and-counter boys came all apart at the seams as they tired, or as an opponent connected and stung them into a riotous attack. But on the whole the show was smoother.

The skills were spread through all divisions. And the general effect was that of an improved breed of classy young athletes who love to fight and delight in the glory of an age-old contact sport.

ATHLETES DESERVING OF SCHOLARSHIPS

Perhaps our IBP (Initial Boxing Point) is high, or else we are becoming more tolerant and understanding as we grow older, but we just cannot go along with indignant West Coast boys who hang such labels as "Slush Fund" on aid-to-athletes bank accounts set up by enthusiastic alumni.

It was refreshing to learn the Rev. Charles Guenther, athletic moderator of Santa Clara University, agrees that the so-called slush fund to help poor boy athletes through school is a "fine thing" when properly administered.

I know from experience that this type of fund should be encouraged at all schools because many times it is the only way a poor student can go to college. He must have some outside help. Big business right now is helping put a lot of students through school so they will have proper training to guide industry in the future.

Higgins Sees Sammy White Hitting .320

Boxer Pilot Figures Player Will Increase Average 60 Points

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — Boston Red Sox Manager Mike Higgins, who rarely makes predictions, thinks catcher Sammy White will hit .320 this year.

"White will hit .320 this season," Higgins said yesterday after closely watching his ace receiver in a batting drill.

"All Sammy has to do is learn that strike zone and stop swinging at bad pitches," Higgins explained. "He swings at too many bad pitches, but he has all the tools and certainly he is a .300 hitter."

White, who hit only .261 last year and has an average of .273 since joining the Red Sox in 1931, is Higgins' top personal project as the spring training season gets underway.

White appreciates the aid from his manager and says he is learning all the time.

"I'm not a natural hitter," Sammy said. "I never, I'm learning all the time. I don't know about these other guys, but there never is a game where I don't pick up some tips."

Tigertowners Invited

Briggs Calls in Kuehn, Jorgenson, Others

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — President W. O. (Spike) Briggs Jr. called in shortstop Harvey Kuehn and 1st baseman Earl Torgeson today for a last-minute attempt to bring them to terms before regular spring training opens tomorrow.

Only Kuehn and Torgeson are unsigned, and officially will be classified as holdouts if they haven't signed contracts by tomorrow. Holdouts may not take part in training until signed, and both Kuehn and Torgeson are key Tigercats.

Manager Bucky Harris has invited six from the Tigers' rookie camp, running since Feb. 15, over

GI Fighter Highlights Chicago Gloves Tourney

CHICAGO (AP) — After a total of 162 bouts that provided 49 knockouts or TKOs, amateur boxing's big show, the Golden Gloves Tournament of Champions, tonight swings into the quarterfinals.

The "big fellows" took their turns last night, scoring 25 knockouts in 81 battles. Leading the way into the quarterfinals were light-heavyweight Jim Boyd, a Ft. Benning, Ga., sergeant who represents the Montgomery, Ala., team, and heavyweight Peter Rademacher, on the Nashville, Tenn., squad.

Boyd, 25, from Rocky Mount, N.C., was last year's All-Armory champion. He scored two knockouts in his bid to reach the finals like he did last year.

He flattened LeRoy Bogar of Minneapolis in the first round of the scheduled three and did likewise to Reuben Stevens of Tulsa, Okla., in the third.

Rademacher, 1953 National AAU champ, scored a first-round TKO over Billy Ray Smith of Memphis and then outpointed Ben Bankhead of St. Louis. Another favorite who lost out was Don Hurlinger of Toledo, Ohio, a welterweight who dropped his second-round match to clever Francis LaPlant of Billings, Mont.

St. Louis, seeking its third team crown, continued to lead in points among the 32 centers competing with 14 points. Montgomery was second with 11, followed by Louisville, and Nashville, each with 10.

St. Fred Drops 40-28 Decision to St. James 5

Rams Unable to Locate Basket in 4th Quarter in Game at Ferndale

St. Frederick couldn't find the target Tuesday night and dropped a 40-28 decision to St. James in a basketball game at Ferndale.

Gene Wright's cagers held an 8-4 advantage entering the 2nd quarter and still led at halftime, 15-14.

The Rams slipped into a 28-24 deficit as the last period rolled around, then could manage only four points. Dick Doyon's field goal and free tosses by Tom De-rocher and Wally Quarles were all the southsiders could muster while the Dales were netting a dozen.

Tom Orthals headed the St. James attack with 18 points. Doyon topped the Rams with nine, the 2nd time this season he has been limited to that figure.

The Dales' victory avenged a previous 58-57 loss to the Rams. St. Fred's overall record now stands at 6-8.

Despite a pair of 14-point efforts by Dick Nickerson and Bob Cross-dell, the St. Fred reserves bowed to the Dales in the preliminary contest, 52-40.

Big 10 Marks Face Assault

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — A field full of Olympic hopefuls and at least a four-team fight for the championship may produce a string of Big Ten swimming records in the conference's 46th annual water meet tomorrow through Saturday.

Iowa's 300-yard medley relay team is almost a certain record breaker. The trio of New Zealanders Lincoln Hurring, Glenn Johnson and Jim Cotes has been a team of a second under the record of 2:48.2 without straining.

Both Iowa and defending champion Ohio State are undefeated in dual competition but Indiana, loaded with Hawaiian talent, may have the balance to win.

Michigan State also is strong, but Michigan's chances probably vanished when the Scot twins, Jack and Bert Wardrop, were dropped from the squad last week. Jack is the world record holder at 220 yards.

Hard to Pick Dog Champion

GRAND JUNCTION, Tenn. (AP) — There's no doubt the judges in the National Bird Dog Championship would like to see an all-around quail hunt that would take them off the hook.

As the trial stood today, 30 to 37 prize bird dogs had made three-hour hunts. About seven ranked as possible winners, but all have roughly equal performances. A choice would be difficult.

Four of the seven pointers yet to show in the two-week long trial were up for judging today.

Home Again Mike, owned by W. C. Jones of Franklin, Va., ran with Newman's Delivery Dancer, owned by E. J. Newman of Sumner, S.C., in the early hunt.

GRAPEFRUIT League

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — Manager Charlie Grimm today had some encouraging words for Gene Bearden, the veteran left-hander who is working out with Milwaukee Braves on a trial basis.	WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Bobby Shantz, one-time ace hurler who has been plagued with arm trouble the past three years, pitched batting practice yesterday and brought smiles to faces in the Kansas City Athletics training camp.
"He could really help us in the bullpen," Grimm said. "We're going to give him every chance to make the club and I've got a hunch he will."	The little left-hander put in a 15-minute stint on the mound, cutting loose with mostly fast balls, sharp curves and changeups.

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — Clarence (Buddy) Hicks, a 28-year-old infielder with Buffalo last year, has been invited to move over from Detroit's rookie camp to the regular Tiger training camp tomorrow, but he isn't getting excited about it.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Manager Al Lopez of the Cleveland Indians plans the first intrasquad game tomorrow.

"We'll let the kids play," Lopez said. "That's the best way to size 'em up anyway."

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — The long process of developing a farm system is beginning to pay off dividends for the Chicago White Sox.

No fewer than 13 of the 43 players on the Sox roster are products of White Sox farms and the number could be upped to 15 with a stretch of the imagination.

MESA, Ariz. (AP) — Breaking into the Chicago Cub infield is no easy task with Ernie Banks at short, Gene Baker at second and Don Hoak ready to take over third-base chores.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — St. Louis Cardinal outfielder Rip Repulski said he is determined to go for average—not homers—this year. Then proved it with a perfect day at the plate.

Ralph Higgins has been Oklahoma A&M track coach 20 years.

I'll admit the challenge the job offers influenced my decision to go."

STATE COLLEGE, Miss. (AP) — Long-time buddies Darrell Royal and Wade Wadell faced a parting today, with Walker taking over as head coach at Mississippi State to fill the vacancy left when Royal accepted the challenge of the same post at the University of Washington.

Royal was named to the top football job at Washington yesterday and Walker, quickly got an offer to succeed him here.

"I hope to go up there this week," Royal said. "I've read about the situation up there and earlier this month."

Scoring Battle Looms Between Dewalt, Blondin

Saginaw Forward Close to PHS Star's Valley Point Leadership

Pontiac High's regular basketball season comes to an end Friday night on the home floor. Providing competition for this finale is a good, hard-fighting Saginaw Eastern club that has given leading Valley fives the jitters all season, although never managing a victory.

In this Valley windup for both clubs there's a good possibility that a hot scoring battle will develop. The two top shooters of the league are Pontiac's ace, Willie Dewalt and Trojans' star point-maker, Deb Blondin, both forwards. Willie carries a load of some 168 points. Blondin, has 180. Loop individual scoring championship may hinge on this affair.

Chiefs will have to win Friday to hang onto their current place in the standings. It is Trojan's last chance to shoot for a league win.

Pontiac's mentor, Art Van Ryzin, remarked today that we'll have to stop Blondin who banged in 49 points against Flint Central, last week in a losing cause (62-68), to help Willie, but we'll also have to stop him to win this ball game.

Starters for the Chiefs will be unchanged from last week—Dewalt, Rod Treas at forwards, Bud Ray at center; Larry Peet and Dave Diehm, guards. Blondin and Yates, forwards; Frost, center; Huerta and Griffin, guards, probably will start for Trojans.

Two Pontiac regulars and two second-stringers will play their last regular scheduled game Friday. They are Dewalt, and Treas, Jim Jones and Clyde Lewis. Jones and Lewis are the 2nd string men. "I hope all the rest will be back next year," Van Ryzin commented.

Preceding the varsity game at 8 p.m. reserves of the two clubs meet in a preliminary at 6:30 o'clock.

Chief Natators Bow to Wolves

Pontiac High's final 1936 swimming dual went right down to the wire at Bay City Central yesterday. But there Chief tankers were nosed out of a victory, 47-40.

The 100 yard relay did the trick for Wolves. Pontiac won four events, and lost at least four others on close decisions. Coach Bob (Des) Boyce reported today.

Boyce said George Bergstrom, Dennis Simonson, Wayne Ostrander, Tom Cross and the medley relay (Cross, Dick Dorris, Bob Keavy and Ostrander turned in terrific jobs.

Sonshine Quits Argonaut Post

Leaves Managerial Job to Straighten Out His Business Situation

TORONTO (AP) — Harry Sonshine, whose efforts to build a winning football club in Toronto were largely responsible for a costly player "war" between Canadian and U.S. professional leagues, has ended his connection with the Big Four Football Union team.

Sonshine resigned as unpaid manager of the Toronto Argonauts a year and a half after he took over the job with a promise to build a Grey Cup championship team. His resignation, revealed last week by President Bill Ross, came after the disclosure that a furniture manufacturing company of which he was part owner had gone bankrupt.

Ross said Sonshine's resignation had been presented some time ago and expressed regret that it was made public so soon after the bankruptcy. There was "absolutely no connection" between the two events, Ross said.

Sonshine said he had "no alternative" but to resign, explaining, "I must attend to personal business until I get things established."

LEO DUROCHER

Giants beat the Cubs in a game last season. Would you have done the same thing?

(R) stands for a right-handed batter or pitcher and (L) for a left-handed batter or pitcher.

The Giants are playing the Cubs at Chicago and the score is tied 2-2 in the top of the ninth.

Paul Minner (L) is on the mound for the Cubs. Paul Giel, the Giants' pitcher, opens with a double. Jim Davis (L) replaces Minner. Bobby Hofman (R) is the next batter with Whitey Lockman (L) and Don Mueller (L) scheduled to follow.

Would you:
a. Have Hofman sacrifice?
b. Let Hofman swing away?
c. Put in a runner for Giel and try a steal of third?

Result: B-Hofman hit away.
