

Further Expansion in Pontiac Hospitals Opposed in Report

By PETE LOCHBILER

The Pontiac area doesn't have to expand its hospital facilities now, according to a report of the Greater Detroit Area Hospital Council yesterday.

Despite ambitious building programs planned at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital, the area already has too many hospital beds, as the council report saw it, and would continue to have if the council's recommendations were carried out.

This conclusion was drawn in an extensive, 14-month study of hospital needs in Southeastern Michigan. The report on the study recommended a $30 million construction and modernization program to bring hospital facilities up to an acceptable standard over a seven-county area.

It said more hospital beds are needed at William Beaumont Hospital in northern Royal Oak. It said additional facilities to serve South Oakland and Macomb Counties "would do much to relieve what apparently is an artificial demand existing in Pontiac."

The present overcrowding of Pontiac hospitals is due mainly the report indicated, to residents of those areas coming here for treatment because they do not have adequate facilities near home.

The report made no criticism of the Pontiac General Hospital 200-bed expansion that will be completed late this year.

Reuther Directs Strategy Today

Union Tells Workers
No Strike Now With Backlog of Cars

DETROIT (AP)—Walter P. Reuther was due back in Detroit today to direct United Auto Workers Union strategy in the climactic stages of contract talks with the auto companies during the next two weeks.

Reliable sources said the union has advised more than 300,000 members in General Motors locals to be prepared to report for work as usual after the current GM contract expires May 29 even if no new settlement has been reached.

Similar instructions are expected to be given 100,000 Ford workers and 70,000 Chrysler workers. The Ford and Chrysler contracts expire June 1.

Reuther has said the union has no intention of accommodating the companies with a strike when they have a backlog of more than 750,000 unsold new cars.

Ernie Ford to Appear

DETROIT (AP)—Showman Tennessee Ernie Ford and his troupe will make three appearances during the opening weekend of the 109th Annual Michigan State Fair here Aug. 29-Sept. 7. The musician and his company will appear Aug. 30-Sept. 1.

Auto Club Dedicates New Building

manager. Top city and county officials witnessed the ceremony and were guests of the AAA at a luncheon afterwards. Howlett told the group that 26 per cent of Oakland County motorists are AAA members, the greatest density in the United States.

Rebelling Judge Admits Defying Supreme Court

Lawyers Crowd Dingy
Lansing Room to Hear
Saginaw Jurist

LANSING (AP) — In an unprecedented hearing, Circuit Judge Eugene S. Huff today acknowledged to the eight justices of the State Supreme Court that he refused to carry out their order.

The Saginaw jurist was on trial before the high court on charges of contempt arising from refusal to accept a one-month assignment in Detroit.

The dingy but historic Supreme Court chamber was crowded, mostly by lawyers — many of them standing in the rear of the room.

In response to stern questions by Chief Justice John R. Dethmers, Huff, standing at a counsel table before the bench, acknowledged that:

He was aware of an assignment made at Dethmers' direction on April 23, a subsequent order of the Supreme Court on May 9, and was served with a second order in his courtroom at Saginaw on May 12.

He acknowledged that the May 12 order temporarily assigned Circuit Judge Timothy C. Quinn of Caro as a temporary successor as presiding judge of the Saginaw circuit.

"You were aware then that you were directed by order of this court to serve in the third judicial circuit of Wayne County from May 12 until June 12?" Dethmers asked.

"Yes, I was," Huff replied. "Did you go there as directed by this court?"

Looking Ahead... 3 Years

Don't Give Up the Trip!

Here's a progressive, wide-awake young lady who will make her mark in the world.

Her name is Dorothy Ann Wilson and she's thirteen years old. The Press receives a post card from her which reads as follows:

"Please don't do away with your New York Theater Tour for three more years, anyway. Mother says that she and I can take your wonderful trip in three years as I will be sixteen then."

Dorothy Ann Wilson.

Dorothy, bless your heart, we haven't any plans for three years away but after this letter from you, we certainly are going to mark the New York trip on the "must" agenda.

Spring to Stay, Cooler Tonight, Fair Tomorrow

Pleasant spring weather with clear skies and rising temperatures was the outlook for most of Michigan today.

The weatherman says fair and cool tonight with a low of 46-50. Generally fair tomorrow with the high near 82.

The five day weather forecast predicts temperatures will average slightly below the normal high of 69 and normal low of 49 degrees. Saturday and Sunday will be warm with temperatures somewhat cooler Monday through Wednesday.

Precipitation will total around one quarter to one half inch in showers Saturday night, Sunday and possibly Monday.

In downtown Pontiac the lowest recording preceding 8 a.m. was 47. The mercury rose to 76 at 1 p.m.

City Teamsters Vote Tomorrow

First Election Here in 5 Years to Restore
Local Autonomy

The first election of officers at Pontiac Teamster Local 614 in five years should come off as scheduled tomorrow and Sunday, despite contentions by one candidate that its results might be challenged.

More than 2,000 local members are eligible to vote to fill seven offices out of a field of 20 candidates, said Robert Holmes, vice president of the Detroit District Teamsters Council which is conducting the election on orders of the union's international executive board.

When the winners take office, local autonomy will be returned to the local for the first time since Oct., 1953, when it was placed under the trusteeship of James R. Hoffa following a shake-down scandal involving local officers.

Ballots will be counted Sunday night. Ballot boxes will be kept at Oakland County Jail Saturday night for safekeeping, Holmes said.

Candidate Charles Fetherlyn, was ruled by Holmes to be ineligible to run for the office of secretary-treasurer on grounds his dues were not continuously paid for the past two years.

Fetherlyn appealed this week to the executive board that the ruling was incorrect. But Holmes said he has not been instructed by the board to make any changes or hold up the election.

Assure Sullenger of Hospital Hearing

Dr. Neil H. Sullenger will get a hearing before Pontiac General Hospital authorities, but only after attorneys for the city hospital decide on who should take part and how the hearing should be carried out.

Dr. Sullenger, in a letter to the board last night, requested the hearing "at the hands of your appeal committee." He added: "Please make this a hearing that I also may attend."

Dr. Sullenger was suspended from the hospital last November after failing to appear at three board meetings which were scheduled to air alleged charges against the 42-year-old chest surgeon.

Red Animals Spacebound

MOSCOW (AP) — Prof. Eugene Fyederov, head of the Soviet Union's Sputnik program, said today the Soviets will launch animals again into space in the future but that Sputnik III carried no passengers — animal or human.

French Premier Winning Support

WILL GET EMERGENCY POWERS — Premier Pierre Pflimlin of France (right) is surrounded by newsmen as he leaves Elysee Palace where he pleaded for emergency police powers to deal with riots, and disorder in behalf of Gen. Charles de Gaulle. The National Assembly was expected to pass a bill today placing the country under virtual state of siege.

Extra Powers Given Premier by Assembly

Report Generals Held
by French Government for 'Subversion'

PARIS (INS) — Premier Pierre Pflimlin won overwhelming National Assembly support today for his request for extraordinary powers to deal with the twin threats of the army "insurrection" in Algeria and a Gaullist coup d'etat in France.

The formal vote on the measure was scheduled for later this afternoon, but passage of the "state of urgency" measure, which would give the premier the right to mobilize all the national resources in the struggle, was certain.

Several rightist generals and other officers reportedly were arrested during the night on charges of subversive activities. The government refused confirmation of the reports.

The ultimate victory of Parliament was open to question. They were pitted against the magic prestige of Gen. Charles de Gaulle and the French army in Algeria, together with militant right-wing Nationalists in Algeria and France.

Pflimlin, in a dramatic speech to a morning Assembly session, asked the powers because, he said, there is a carefully planned plot to overthrow the Fourth Republic.

The country was teetering on the brink of civil war. Paris was an armed camp. De Gaulle was in seclusion.

As amended, the bill Pflimlin submitted would empower him for three months to initiate emergency

De Gaulle 'Guarded' While Awaiting Call

COLOMBEY-LES DEUX IGLESES, France, (INS) — Gen. Charles de Gaulle sat silently in his heavily-guarded country home today, presumably hoping for the call to take supreme power in France.

Troops and police set up roadblocks on all roads leading to the de Gaulle estate in eastern France. Cars were stopped and the names of all persons approaching the little village of Colombey-les Deux Iglises were taken.

Some observers said de Gaulle was under what amounted to house arrest. But the Paris government insisted he merely was being protected against possible attack by bytes.

Newsman were permitted to pass through the police lines and several cars labelled "press" were parked outside the general's home. The reporters sent in a request for an interview. De Gaulle replied that he did not want to see anyone.

British newsmen Randolph Churchill, son of Sir Winston Churchill, rang de Gaulle's bell and told the servant who answered he wanted to pay his respects to the general. But de Gaulle refused to see him.

New City Public Safety Director Gets Top Commission Priority

A new Public Safety Director was given top priority by the City Commission last night.

Meeting in informal session to discuss the highly critical Public Administration Service report on morale and efficiency in the Pontiac Police Department, commissioners considered a good director as the key to carrying out the report's technical recommendations.

City Manager Walter K. Willman was asked to begin scouting for possible candidates. He believed the post should be filled by a man "thoroughly experienced in police work, public relations, personnel relations, well-versed in law and a top-notch administrator."

What the salary would be for the full-time job of putting the department back on its feet has not yet been determined.

The post has been nominally held by Willman since the former, part-time director resigned in 1952.

Commissioners decided they should also concentrate on other major recommendations: transfer of the traffic violations bureau from the police department to the municipal courts and repeal or amendment of the state civil service act, under which voters placed the department last year.

Willman recommended the transfer, but only if adequate safeguards to prevent "ticket fixing" were set up.

The civil service question was considered more complex. Commissioners generally considered that changes are necessary. They criticized various provisions and portions of the act, especially the one placing the police chief under civil service.

Supervising Crippled
"This provision cripples any serious attempt for the city to supervise its police department," said Mayor William W. Donaldson. "The top position must be controlled by the city."

Theodore Carlson, president of the Civil Service Commission, admitted the act could stand some changes. "But the law is being criticized prematurely, in my opinion, because poor conditions existed in the department prior to last year," he said in a letter to Willman.

Willman noted that the reaction of top police officials to the report was "varied and violent, as could be expected."

Among the others who made written reports to Willman, Police Chief Herbert W. Straley attacked the accuracy and methods of the PAS study and the personnel who made it, Willman said. Straley was personally criticized by the PAS report.

Only one police officer reacted favorably. That was Capt. P. Sousa, who was

State Jobless Pay Action Sputtering in Legislature

LANSING (AP)—Hope ebbed today for action on unemployment as the legislature sputtered toward its 1958 session windup.

The floundering lawmakers were at cross purposes whether to knock off for good before sundown or recess for 30 days, let alone harmonize the main House-Senate differences that brought them back to Lansing.

With a dozen substantive issues to settle, they produced a single agreement of consequence yesterday in giving final approval to a bare bones $6,500,000 capital outlay program for 1958-59.

Nearly 20 million dollars was voted for this purpose in 1957, and 36 millions in 1956.

The key was deletion from an item allocating $650,000 for a start on a new boys vocational school at Whitmore Lake or wording that would have handed a veto over the project to the Livingston County Board of Supervisors.

After a caucus of majority Republican senators, Sen. Frank D. Beadle (R-St. Clair) said GOP solons were split five different ways on what if anything to do for 60,000 laid off workers with exhausted jobless pay benefits, and more facing exhaustion prospects.

Beadle, the caucus chairman, said the caucus was held in a hung jury.

Hoffa Will Stand Trial on Tuesday

NEW YORK (AP)—James R. Hoffa, International Brotherhood of Teamsters president, has been ordered to stand trial Tuesday on a wiretap indictment following denial of his motion for dismissal.

U. S. District Judge Thomas F. Murphy turned down Hoffa's bid for dismissal yesterday. Hoffa is charged with conspiring to tap telephones of teamster subordinates at teamster headquarters in Detroit.

Owen B. Brennan, president of Teamsters Local 337, and Bernard B. Spindel will be tried with Hoffa on the same charges.

Their first wiretap conspiracy trial last December ended in a hung jury.

New School to Divide Top-Rated Musicians

Last PHS Band Concert Tonight

By SYLVIA de STEIGER

Tonight, the Pontiac High School Band's cymbals will clash for the last time when they open the 31st and final Spring Concert with the "Pontiac Fanfare," written especially for this band.

The opening number, composed in 1956 by Robert M. Peterson, instrumental music teacher, will be played for the last time by the present band. Next fall, band members will be divided because of the opening of a second Pontiac high school.

The first half of the program, which begins at 8:15 p.m. in the high school auditorium, will be under the direction of Dale C. Harris, supervisor of instrumental music for Pontiac schools and conductor of the band since it was organized in 1927.

Eighty students make up the band, which has received first place state and district awards for the past 27 of the 31 years it has existed.

The second number of the program will be the "Third Movement from Symphony I," by the Russian composer Kallinikow. The flute and pizzicato section will be featured in the next selection, "Waltz Comedienne" from "Suite Siciliana" by the Italian Marinuzzi.

"March Free Lance," by John P. Sousa will complete the band's first portion of the concert.

Leonard Falcone, professor of music and director of the Michigan State University band, will be the guest soloist of the evening.

Falcone will play "Fantasia Original" by Picchi, a euphonium solo. Waltzes and excerpts from Richard Rodgers' musical, "Carousel," also will be performed by the band. The basses, baritones and trombones will be featured in this selection.

GOLDMAN TO CONDUCT

The second half of the concert will be directed by the guest conductor, Richard F. Goldman, internationally known composer, conductor, teacher, lecturer and author of music articles and texts.

Goldman is now chairman of the Department of Literature and Materials of Music, Juilliard School of Music, in New York City.

Goldman will conduct two marches, "March Fanfare" and "March On The Mall," written by his famous father, E. F. Goldman, who died in 1936.

Other selections to be conducted by Goldman include: "Overture in C," by Gossec; "Fantasia in G Major," by Bach; "Chester Overture," by William Schuman, and "March Rifle Regiment," by Sousa.

Air Death Trial Jury Deadlocked

Can't Agree on Verdict in $200,000 Suit Over Area 2-Plane Crash

A Circuit Court jury yesterday agreed it was "hopelessly deadlocked" in attempting to reach a verdict in the $200,000 damage suit resulting from the aerial collision of two planes over Pontiac Municipal Airport two years ago.

Judge H. Russel Holland dismissed the hung jury after foreman F. B. Keeler, of 13701 Ludlow St., Oak Park, said jury members couldn't agree on a verdict. They had been deliberating since 1:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The suit was filed by Virginia E. Pickett, wife of the late James G. Pickett Jr. of Drayton Plains who was killed along with two other men on June 23, 1956.

Defendant in the case was Larry Trotter, son of Jess Trotter, 60, owner of the Almont Airport, who also died in the crash.

Keeler said that the majority of the 12 ballots taken by the jury were mostly in favor of dismissing the action against Trotter.

Pickett, 42, was killed when his plane, owned by Trotter's airfield, was struck by Trotter's plane, being piloted by Winston D. Mathews, 25, of Charlevoix. Mathews was the third person killed.

The suit charged that Mathews, flying the Trotter plane in a formation of three aircraft, should have yielded the right of way to the Pickett plane as it was about to land. It also said the Trotter plane was below an established 1,000-foot minimum altitude for planes passing over airports.

Judge Holland ordered the case set down for retrial.

Detroit Beer Strike Ends After 44 Days

DETROIT (U-P) — The 44-day Detroit beer strike ended today after a marathon 15-hour bargaining session.

Company and union negotiators agreed on a contract which will be submitted this weekend to 4,500 striking brewery workers for ratification.

The new pact gives workers immediate raises of 7 to 10 cents an hour. Both sides said it was "a good contract."

Union officials said brewers and bottlers will vote on the contract tomorrow. Truck drivers will vote Sunday. They said that if it is accepted beer will begin to move out to consumers Monday.

Charles Maley, a union bargainer, said "I consider the contract a good one. I will urge the membership to accept it."

Great Lakes Area Misses Nation's Scattered Rain

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Showery weather was indicated in scattered sections of the nation today.

Areas out of the rain belt were most of the Southeast, the Far West and from the northern Rockies eastward through the Great Lakes.

The major wet belt continued along an air mass boundary which extended from the Texas Panhandle eastward through central sections of the mid Mississippi Valley to parts of the mid and north Atlantic states.

Thunderstorms hit along the eastern slopes of the central and southern Rockies. Heavy rainfall was reported in some parts of Kansas, St. Joseph, Mo., was doused with more than 2 1/2 inches of rain yesterday in a thunderstorm.

The cooler air which invaded the northern Great Lakes region spread southward into the lakes area, dropping temperatures into the 40s and 50s.

Mild weather continued from the northern Rockies eastward to the extreme northern Great Lakes.

search, seizure, censorship, rationing and mobilization of the nation's resources. His authority would apply to Algeria. Pflimlin would not have the right to declare martial law and the powers would be lost if his government fell.

The Communists announced support of the measure before the vote was taken.

Rebel Judge Admits Defying High Court

"No, your honor," was Huff's reply.

The early stages of the hearing were marked by a tenseness that showed when Justice Dethmers stopped at one point to ask Huff to remain standing while he was questioned.

At another point, Dethmers directed Atty. Robert J. Curry, counsel for Huff, to take his seat.

Curry had sought to insist that he, as counsel for Huff, reply to the court's questioning rather than Huff directly.

"Judge Huff is in the best position to answer the questions of the court. You will be allowed to state your position, but a little later. Sit down, please," Justice Dethmers said.

While arguing a motion for a continuance, which the court denied, Curry said:

"Maybe you already have made up your mind he is in contempt, which, if you have, you shouldn't have done."

Dethmers sharply interjected:

"I would suggest you refrain from any such observations."

At the outset of the hearing the court announced that it was denying a motion by the Saginaw County Bar Assn. to intervene as a friend of the court.

An 11-year veteran of the circuit bench, Huff said he has never been reversed by the high court of appeal.

White Russians En Route to Brazil

Gadgets in U. S. Amaze Migrating 'Old Believers'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A shiny piece of glass, framed into a big box, suddenly came alive. Figures appeared on it, and sounds came forth.

Eighty-two refugees looked at the box in awe, then broke into smiles and laughter.

The 82 — members of a centuries-old Russian sect — had taken their first look at television.

The people are called Old Believers. They flew to Los Angeles yesterday from Hong Kong, on their way from Communist China to what they hope will be a permanent home in Brazil.

They went from Russia to China in the 1920s to escape persecution for their religious beliefs. They left China to escape their Communist overlords.

"These are a 100 per cent pure people," said a translator assigned them by the Federation of Russian Charitable Organizations. "They are a country people. They don't drink or smoke, don't use coffee or tea, and the men don't shave.

"They rise at dawn and go to bed at sunset."

The 82 White Russians are the first of 493 Old Believers being moved from China to Brazil by the Intergovernmental Committee for European Migration, the United Nations and the World Council of Churches. The rest are at Hong Kong.

At the airport they glimpsed their first helicopter — and stood transfixed. At suburban Wilmington, where they are staying while awaiting departure Saturday, firemen invited the children to examine their fire engines. A newspaper is arranging to take them to Disneyland.

There are 15 men, 18 women, 14 teenagers and 35 children in the pioneering group.

"We left Russia in the 1920s because of punishment for our religious traditions," an elder explained through a translator. "In China and Manchuria we organized into small villages.

"We had freedom of movement and lived on small farms. Now it is different. We have been forced to give all our farm production to the government. We have been treated more like prisoners than free men."

A freighter will carry the Old Believers to Brazil. A 6,000-acre tract of fields and forest land has been purchased for them by the National Council of Churches of Christ.

Students Vote Loud 'No' Against Honor System

CINCINNATI (AP) — University of Cincinnati students have voted, 2,084-793, against adopting the honor system whereby one would tell on others cheating in tests.

The News Record, school paper, which conducted the survey, said that while final decision in establishing the honor system rested with the board of directors, the vote would be a factor in any decision.

At present, the university follows the so-called proctor system. Under it, instructors or class proctors conduct tests with strict supervision.

Threat of Civil War Hangs Over Nation

French Army's Pride Hurt by Defeats

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

The threat of civil war in France stems from a combination of factors—the wounded pride of an army, intense nationalism and the smell of oil.

Army leaders who backed the "committees of public safety" that defied the home government have been fighting constantly for nearly two decades, with defeats in World War II, Indochina and now the frustrating battle against Algerian rebels. Many blame politicians at home for losing military victories scored abroad.

Europeans of French descent in Algeria are calling for an all-out war effort against the Algerian rebels because they fear they will be submerged by a Moslem population. The Moslems outnumber them 9,000,000 to 1,200,000. The Moslem population also is increasing by 250,000 yearly—thanks largely to French success in cutting down the mortality rate.

France's determination to stay in Algeria has been reinforced by the discovery of oil, which already is being shipped from the picturesque port of Philippeville to the homeland. It is only a trickle now.

But in the years to come the French hope they can satisfy their domestic requirements and not be at the mercy of Middle East sheikhs and a man such as United Arab Republic President Gamal Abdel Nasser, who controls the Suez Canal.

The French base their claim to Algeria on the fact that it was a bandit-ridden, unruly territory, the headquarters of the notorious Barbary pirates who preyed on Mediterranean shipping, until the French took over in 1830.

The French have poured billions of dollars worth of aid and improvements into the territory, which is more than three times the size of the state of Texas. French colonists, or settlers, have farmed and worked in Algeria for more than a century.

Paris has warned that if Algeria is lost, Western Europe also may be lost to the Communist world because of a Red outflanking movement in Africa. All Frenchmen want American support, but any Washington advice is resented. "Algeria is French and will remain so," say French political leaders.

But how to do it? The rebels, with perhaps 25,000 regulars, have pinned down 400,000 French troops and show no signs of quitting their battle.

The rebels, known as the Front de Liberation Nationale (FLN), are demanding French recognition of Algeria as a separate nation that would include the Sahara, which is potentially rich not only in oil but also in various minerals. They want direct negotiations for Algerian independence followed by free elections.

The French instead demand a cease-fire first, followed by negotiations. But neither the home government nor the French rebels in Algeria intend to give the Algerian nationalists complete independence.

Denies Recession
Started in Michigan

ROSEVILLE — "Some critics now are trying to say that the recession was started in Michigan," Gov. Williams told the Roseville Teachers Federation here last night.

Williams, campaigning for reelection, termed this "the weirdest statement of all."

"It implies that the automobile industry deliberately stopped selling automobiles to people from coast to coast," he said. "This charge would mean also that the automobile industry could reverse the recession anytime it chose simply by resuming the sale of cars across the nation."

Williams said the only reason the industry cut back in car production was because people cut back in car purchases. The record high cost of living and, until recently, high interest payments, were the major causes, he said.

Once the national recession is reversed, Williams said, "Our potential for growth is almost unlimited."

Seeks New Government

BAGHDAD, Iraq — King Faisal today was reported asking Ahmad Mukhtar Baban, former deputy prime minister and a colleague of Iraqi strongman Nuri Said, to form a new government. Nuri resigned last Wednesday and is in line to head the new federated government of Iraq and Jordan.

Men Show Odd Affection for Their Books

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE
NEW YORK (INS) — Men are more sentimental than women. More fiercely loyal. More doggedly devoted to old memories and new friends.

This can be observed by any wife at housecleaning time. The most troubling, not to say touching, part of that spring ordeal is the sight of a man trying to thin out his bookcases.

MUST BE WEEDED

The bookcases must be weeded occasionally, if the floor is not to cave in and the family dust-cloth wielder with it. But this only wives can see.

Husbands see, in the gentle suggestion to "sort out the books, dear—the Salvation Army needs them," a symbol that the household will lapse into illiteracy. Any book, no matter how battered and worthless, holds meaning for a man. Partly, it's sentiment ("Why, I've had that book since I was 14"), and partly it's pride ("I wouldn't have bought it if I didn't want to keep it").

Even when it is suggested that a paperback "Peyton Place" be pitched in the interests of neatness, husbands take on the pained expression of a boy who has been ordered to abandon "Poppy Ott" to make room for Webster.

MALES SULK

The most frequent reaction to such wifely advice is a pointed "Nuts!" and a lapse into a peculiarly male variety of sulking, wherein the man picks up the "Peyton Place" in question and begins to reread it avidly, as if it were the choice prize in his collection.

An occasional reasonable man, however, recognizes that the deed of discarding books must finally be accomplished.

And as he approaches the task, lips clenched grimly around whatever he smokes, eyes listless, shoulders set against the inevitable — this is a heart-rending spectacle.

One by one, he removes the top shelf's bounty of information, peers through the dust at its title, and sets it on the floor for further consideration.

He is weary when the top 30 treasures have been removed, and he sits on the floor to contemplate them.

He picks up the first book. It is titled "My Ten Years in a Quagmire," and is by Robert Benchley. His lips unset. He chuckles, and looks inside, begins reading. Fifteen minutes later, that book is laid aside — the beginning of a stack.

The next book has three dog's teeth engraved in the corner. It is a drab book otherwise. But he runs his thumb tenderly over the dog's teeth and smiles. It goes on the stack over Benchley.

"Dialogues of Plato" comes third. He flushes. There is a look men have when they run across a book they have bought and haven't tackled. He'll get to it, though, one day.

The stack begins to pile up: Books for reference, books that'll come in handy one day, books friends wrote, books friends sent, books his children may enjoy, books about places he may someday visit, books it would be sacrilegious to discard, books the Salvation Army would not appreciate, books that remind him of people, places, summers, winters, things he should do and things he shouldn't.

At the end, weary and exultant, he calls the Salvation Army and tells them to pick up a contribution at apartment 12B—four books on casserole cooking, one duplicate dictionary, a copy of "This Is My Beloved" autographed to his wife, and an untouched edition of "Golf Techniques of the Bauer Sisters."

He says now he hopes you'll let him have some peace for awhile.

Consumers' Price to Go Up if Request Granted

LANSING (AP) — The average householder would have to pay four or five cents extra a day if Consumers Power Co. receives its requested $15,300,000 annual electrical rate increase, a rate schedule expert testified yesterday.

Stuart W. John, New York utility expert, supplied the figure in the hearing before the State Public Service Commission.

Exceptions, he said, would be in Traverse City and Bay City, where the company proposes a standard rate to replace special rates that have been in effect for a number of years.

The proposed new Traverse City rate would be about six cents higher for the average residential rate payer and the Bay City rate about seven cents higher, John said.

Rutgers University was founded Sea pressures reaches seven tons per square inch at a depth of 6½ miles.

3 Receive Fellowships

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Three University of Michigan staff members were among 43 winners of national fellowships from the American Assn. of University Women. They are Manuela M. Cirre, Spanish instructor, who received $2,500; Elizabeth Wolgast, Survey Research Center assistant, who got $2,000; and Helen Hornbeck Tanner of the physical education department, who received $2,500.

Woman Dies in Blaze

DETROIT (AP) — Mrs. Janet Jennings, 34, of Detroit died Thursday when fire swept through her apartment. Police said she apparently was sleeping when the fire broke out.

Old Scouters Descend on Chicago

By JOE HAAS
CHICAGO — A score or more from Pontiac and vicinity today are numbered among the 2,000 Old Scouters gathered here for the 48th annual convention of the Boy Scouts of America.

HAAS

Our delegation represents the 12,000 boys and others actively engaged in scout work in Clinton Valley Council. This comprises most of the area in Oakland and Macomb Counties, including the cities of Pontiac and Mt. Clemens.

Our council, on account of the diversity of its membership, covering both city and rural areas, all contiguous to a large city, is regarded as quite unique in scouting work.

Despite this quite different position, geographically and otherwise, it has made such progress in scouting that it generally is singled out among the councils of the entire nation. The wearer of a Clinton Valley Council badge is usually accosted with, "How do you do it?"

Coming from every state and territory, as well as from some foreign countries, the 2,000 delegates have taken over the Conrad Hilton, the largest hotel in the world.

The delegates represent over three million scouts, largest youth organization in existence. The overall total of those actively engaged in scouting is approaching the 5 million mark.

The annual business meeting this forenoon showed the work to be at an alltime high. The reports marked the close of the second year of the "Onward for God and My Country" program.

Also at this meeting was set the foundation for the third year of the general program, started in 1956, with particular emphasis on the theme of "Conservation Through Safety."

At the regional luncheons this noon, Clinton Valley Council had 20 reservations at that of Region seven, which comprises the states of Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana and Michigan. Our own state's delegation was second in size, exceeded only by that of the host state, Illinois.

Region seven has the largest scout membership of any of the 12 regions. It also shows a greater percentage of growth in membership than any other region, thus far reporting.

Reservations for the opening luncheon this noon were held by the following from Clinton Valley Council: President and Mrs. John W. Hunt of Farmington, R. C. Cummings and John Ostrander of Pontiac, Stanley J. Filkins of Sylvan Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Ray D.

Baker of Green Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Case of Rochester, James Montgomery of Walled Lake, William Gennette of Milford, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence F. Barck, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Randolph and Ernest Lawrence of Mt. Clemens, and Joe Haas of Holly.

Executive Secretary Edward H. Leland and Field Executive William H. Wells of Clinton Valley Council, will be here for Saturday's sessions. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt were also here yesterday for the Presidents' Luncheon, a new convention feature.

Repair Work Done by Air Force, Navy

WHITE SANDS PROVING GROUNDS, N. M. — (INS)—The Navy and Air Force teamed up to solve the problem of how to repair a damaged weather instrument atop a 135-foot tower at White Sands Proving Grounds.

When portable scaffolding was over-ruled as too expensive, Holman Air Force Base Weathermen loaned a basket-carrying balloon.

A repairman was hoisted in the basket to the top of the tower and he made the necessary repairs. The plan was carried out successfully at the Navy's "Desert Ship," a concrete structure locked in the desert sands of the integrated missile testing range.

Dear Abby...

Past, Present Wives Just Don't Mix, Child

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: My Mommy and my Daddy were married for 15 years. Then they got a divorce and my Daddy married this other lady. They kept on being nice to each other. My Mommy says the other lady is good and we should like her. My Daddy and his new wife moved to our block around Easter time and all the ladies on our block gave a party to let Daddy's new wife know they like her. Mommy wasn't invited. She said she didn't feel bad but I saw her crying. Was this a nice thing for the ladies on our block to do?"

DEAR PUZZLED: It is sometimes embarrassing for the ex-wife and the new wife to be present at the same party so I think the ladies on the block did your Mommy a favor by not inviting her. Don't hold it against them.

"DEAR ABBY: Every time I'm with this girl she gets hungry. Regardless of where we are, no matter how romantic and tender the situation is, all she thinks of is food. I love her, Abby. How can I find out if she is using me for a meal ticket or does she want me romantically?"

DEAR NOT: Feed her first and find out.

"DEAR ABBY: After thirty years of married life my husband started to chase some trampy young girl who works at a drive-in. He was just fine all through the hard times and raising our family, but now that they are grown and married he says we have nothing in common. I had major surgery about three years ago and was de-female. Could that have anything to do with it? Should I divorce him? I am very lonely."

DEAR LONELY: No matter what kind of surgery you had—you are still a woman, and also this man's wife. Don't divorce him. Urge him to talk to a clergyman, marriage counselor or his family doctor. When the fling is flung he will "come to."

"DEAR ABBY: I have been married for three years and I love my husband. Recently a fellow I dated before I was married came to see us. He didn't know my husband but he made himself right at home. Now he has made a habit of dropping in all hours of the day and night.

I never invited him but my husband won't believe me. I have told him that my husband band doesn't like it, but he doesn't seem to care. This fellow is a pest and means nothing to me. How can I discourage him without hurting his feelings?"

IMPOSED ON DEAR IMPOSED: What feelings? Tell him in plain English that he isn't welcome.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "LEFT OUT": A "club" that is as "exclusive" as the one you describe is not worth joining. Dry your tears and start your own club.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

PTA Meets for Luncheon

Mrs. William Mihalek installed officers Thursday at the annual Malkin School PTA luncheon.

Taking office were Mrs. Howard McConnell, president; Mrs. Ray Hartung, vice president; Mrs. George Crisman, teacher vice president; Edgar Dewey, father vice president and Mrs. Glenn Holsington, secretary.

Others were Mrs. Arthur Allen, historian; Mrs. Mihalek, parliamentarian; Mrs. Albert

Gardeners Meet With Mrs. Cowe

The North Hammond Lake road home of Mrs. John C. Cowe was the setting for a Thursday morning breakfast of Better Home and Garden Club.

Mrs. John Armstrong, program chairman, was aided by Mrs. Earl Campbell, Mrs. H. T. Rombough, Mrs. Harry Martin, Mrs. Howard Simmons and Mrs. John Napley. Mrs. Dawson Covert was received into membership.

"The Fundamentals of Floral Arrangements" was the topic of Mrs. Hazel Dunlop of Detroit. She demonstrated flower arrangements with eight different settings, consisting of colored vases and compotes, driftwood and mahogany platter and board, using different types of foliage and flowers.

Linsenman, Mrs. Stanley Boyd and Mrs. Charles Adler, council delegates and Mrs. Ray Hartung and Mrs. Robert Kayga, alternates.

Malkin School orchestra directed by Raymond Fixel and a violin ensemble directed by Philip Mason entertained the group.

Members of the social committee were Mrs. Ralph Huttenhower, Mrs. John Morris, Mrs. Eugene Holsington, Mrs. Edgar Dewey and Mrs. Glenn Holsington.

Webster School PTA Headed by Mrs. Pack

Mrs. Robert Pack is president of Webster School PTA. Serving with her are Mrs. Howard Walder, mother vice president; Robert Stierer, father vice president; Mrs. Robert D. Boyce, teacher vice president; Mrs. Alex Humbert, recording secretary; and Mrs. Jack Strait, corresponding secretary.

Others are Mrs. Lloyd Fay, treasurer; Mrs. George Waters, parliamentarian; Mrs. Noyce Strait, historian and Elwood Bigler, Mrs. Andrew Gulacik and Mrs. Mike Andonian, council delegates.

Omega Alpha Plans Blood Donations

Plans were made for Omega Alpha Sorority members Wednesday evening to donate blood to the Leukemia Foundation. Mrs. George Ferguson hosted the group in her Summit street home. She was assisted by Mary Fought. Gifts for the Oakland County Youth Center are to be brought to the June meeting in the Sylvan Lake home of Mrs. George Morrow.

Group to See Film 'Anger at Work'

A film, "Anger At Work," will be shown Tuesday evening by Oakland County City-State Hospital at Birmingham Community House. The film considers constructive and destructive methods of relieving tension.

A dinner held at Edgewood Country Club Thursday evening closed the season for members of the New Sylvanites Club. Officers were installed at the annual affair. Here, (left to right), Mrs. Tom T.

Reese, new treasurer; Mrs. William Sanderson, secretary, and Mrs. Robert Hay, publicity chairman, gather to discuss the evening's activities.

Before entering the dining area at Thursday's New Sylvanites gathering, two new leaders of the group, Mrs. John Filippi, vice president (left),

Discuss MSU-O

Dr. Jones Speaks to Zontas

Dr. Sarah Van Hoosen Jones of Rochester discussed Michigan State University-Oakland and the history of land grant colleges when members of the Zonta Club met at Hotel Waldron Thursday.

Dr. Jones, a member of the MSU-O Advisory Board, has given 300 acres for the campus of the new school. Dr. Jones stressed the opportunity and privilege residents of Oakland County will experience in seeing a college born and observing its growth.

She stated that in all likelihood MSU-O would reach the size of Michigan State University in even less time than the East Lansing campus required to reach its present size. There will be no dormitories or residence halls on the MSU-O campus.

In discussing the land grant college Dr. Jones traced the history of colleges to the 1600's when for 200 years no sciences, graduate work, research, or extension work were known. She explained that the separation of church and education, like the separation of church and state, brought many changes, with the fight for coeducation originating.

"Educational reform and much change came with the emergence of science," she declared. Up to this point education had consisted of memory work with no reasoning or thought stressed.

Michigan State University really came into being in 1855, related Dr. Jones, when the governor signed a bill creating the first agricultural college in the United States. In 1931 Michigan's Agricultural College became Michigan State College expanding to include all functions of a modern university. It has 126 different areas of study, 65 on a graduate level.

PTA Hears Vera Adams

McCarroll PTA heard Vera Mae Adams in a program explaining Pontiac Central High School radio workshop Wednesday. Demonstrated were three types of radio programs which the group presents weekly.

Officers were installed by Mrs. Leon Wolverton. Installed were Mrs. Farris Stevens, president; Mrs. Dean Lacy, vice president; John Dugan, father vice president; Mrs. Ray Meggitt, secretary; and Mrs. Hercules Renda, treasurer.

Mrs. Fred Eastman and Mrs. Oren Clauson are council delegates. Refreshments were served by Mrs. LeRoy McCartney, Mrs. Ford Everett, Mrs. Virgil Allison, Mrs. Everett Peterson and Mrs. Cecil Mullinix.

Voters League Has 5 Guests at Orientation

Mrs. Austin Esler, Mrs. Fred Haggard, Mrs. James Hampton, Mrs. Joseph Shara and Jane Strom were guests at an orientation meeting of League of Women Voters Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Claire Hincley opened her Elsinore drive home for the event. Mrs. Fred Steinbaugh was in charge of the program.

Purple tapers flanked by bowls of spring violets decorated the tea table at which Mrs. James Cameron of Birmingham presided.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Steinbaugh, Amy Krueger and Mrs. John Borsvold.

On Recovery List

Maureen Moloney, daughter of Lawrence J. Moloney of Colonial trail, who was injured in an auto accident last month, has been released from William Beaumont Hospital and is recuperating at home.

75 Attend Sorority Banquet

Seventy-five members and guests attended the annual Founders Day Dinner held by Alpha Alpha Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority Thursday at Elks Temple.

Mrs. Carl Rose was chairman of the event and gave the welcome address to mothers. Introduced were Betty Lou DeGroot, junior past president of Michigan Executive Council of ESA; Mrs. Frank Jalosky, international social workshop chairman; Mrs. Elmer O. Johnson, treasurer of the council, and Mrs. Melvin Brim and Mrs. Paul Lampkin, sponsors of the local group.

Miss DeGroot gave the Founders Day message and Mrs. Ben Sweeney conducted the jeweled pin ceremony.

PINS AWARDED Receiving pins were Mrs. James Stone, Mrs. Ray Bauer, Mrs. Robert Williams, Mrs. Marvin Jones, Mrs. James Vincent, Mrs. Keith Clauser, Mrs. Jack Plympton and Mrs. Jerry Swanson.

Mrs. Frank Jalosky conducted the service pin awards, presenting 10-year pins to Mrs. Calvin Rhodes, Mrs. Ralph Wilson and Mrs. Edward Hummel Jr.

The installation of officers was conducted by Mrs. Sweeney. Installed as president was Mrs. Elmer O. Johnson; Mrs. Fred Baumgartner, vice president; Mrs. Fred Mueller, recording secretary; Mrs. Gordon Carlson, corresponding secretary, and Stephanie Linabury, treasurer.

CHAIRMEN NAMED Committee chairmen appointed were Mrs. Jack Andress, Mrs. Jack D. Holler, Mrs. Edmund Smith, Mrs. Harry Rhodes, Mrs. Ben Sweeney, Dee Brim, Mrs. Ralph Allen, Mrs. Robert Hasse, Mrs. Keith Clauser, Mrs. Donald Stone and Mrs. Winston Hopp.

Assisting with the evening's program were Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Marshall Rose, Mrs. Bruce Smiley, Mrs. Baumgartner, Mrs. Mueller, Mrs. Holler, Mrs. Hopp, Mrs. Jalosky, Mrs. Plympton and Miss Linabury.

Mrs. McKerrow Entertains Guild

Queen Mary Section of Needlework Guild met Thursday afternoon in the Miami road home of Mrs. Andrew McKerrow.

Reports were read from the welfare committee and Mrs. Alex Joss, knitting chairman. During the afternoon members knitted mittens.

Mrs. Henry Milligan will open her Belmont street home for the May 29 meeting.

Neighbors Meet

Loyal Neighbors Club of Going street met in the home of Mrs. Glen Abbott. Mrs. Carl Peterson and Mrs. George Thompson celebrated birthdays at the Thursday meeting.

Film Free for Club Use

Sigma Beta Sorority, Inc. will supply the film, "The Key," by Alvin Boretz to any interested organization, according to Mrs. Wallace R. Williams of Voorhees road, national treasurer.

The film explains the fight against mental illness, taking as an example a mentally ill woman and following through the various stages of her illness and recovery.

Psi Chapter of Pontiac is cooperating with the Mental Health Association of Michigan in presenting the film. For further information call Mrs. Joseph Benson of Chippewa road or Mrs. Williams.

A luncheon and fashion show with apparel by the J. C. Penney store will be given Tuesday afternoon by the Ladies Aid Society of St. John Lutheran Church. Mrs. Erzell Kohlhaas adjusts the chapeau of Betty Larson, one of the young models for the affair, while Betty's twin sister, Beverly, waits for inspection.

Parole Violator Flees,
Changes Clothes Fast

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—A California Youth Authority parole violator escaped from a Sacramento hospital wearing only a hospital gown.

Police traced James Reed, 17, to a nearby backyard where the trial ended.

On the ground was the hospital gown. Missing from the clothesline were a shirt and trousers.

Hollywood Headlines

Writer, Producer Team
to Establish New Firm

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—The combination of writer Robert Wilder and Al Zugsmith who produced "Written on the Wind" for U-I was very successful. It won Robert Stack an Academy nomination and Dorothy Malone an Academy award.

Now Al and Bob have formed the Producers Artists Corp. and their first picture will be Wilder's novel, "Walk With Evil." They are seeking Edward G. Robinson, Lee Remick, Robert Stack and Dorothy Malone for their movie.

Maybe you are asking how Zugsmith, who is at MGM and about to bring "The Vanguished," the William Faulkner novel, to the screen, can do all this. Simple. His contract gives him permission to do one outside picture a year.

More power to Sam Goldwyn who today made his 1958 creative writing awards at UCLA. Sam not only encourages talented students with his $1,000 and $250 cash prizes, but he gives much of his personal attention to this worthwhile project.

In his speech at the University Sam said, "Hollywood's basic problem is a lack of good stories—and nothing more. No matter how great the stars, the director, the producer, if the story is not sound it is impossible to produce a success."

One thousand students plus first prize winner Richard Stockton (for his stage play, "The House Shall Tremble") and Peter Renno (second place winner for his book, "Tales of Ibiza") applauded Sam.

Richard Thorpe, MGM director, just missed Vice President Richard Nixon's visit to Bogota, Colombia, by a few days. He was there looking for locations for a picture he's calling "Project 9."

"I saw enough," said Thorpe.

More power to Sam Goldwyn who today made his 1958 creative writing awards at UCLA. Sam not only encourages talented students with his $1,000 and $250 cash prizes, but he gives much of his personal attention to this worthwhile project.

In his speech at the University Sam said, "Hollywood's basic problem is a lack of good stories—and nothing more. No matter how great the stars, the director, the producer, if the story is not sound it is impossible to produce a success."

One thousand students plus first prize winner Richard Stockton (for his stage play, "The House Shall Tremble") and Peter Renno (second place winner for his book, "Tales of Ibiza") applauded Sam.

Richard Thorpe, MGM director, just missed Vice President Richard Nixon's visit to Bogota, Colombia, by a few days. He was there looking for locations for a picture he's calling "Project 9."

"I saw enough," said Thorpe.

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—The combination of writer Robert Wilder and Al Zugsmith who produced "Written on the Wind" for U-I was very successful. It won Robert Stack an Academy nomination and Dorothy Malone an Academy award.

Now Al and Bob have formed the Producers Artists Corp. and their first picture will be Wilder's novel, "Walk With Evil." They are seeking Edward G. Robinson, Lee Remick, Robert Stack and Dorothy Malone for their movie.

Maybe you are asking how Zugsmith, who is at MGM and about to bring "The Vanguished," the William Faulkner novel, to the screen, can do all this. Simple. His contract gives him permission to do one outside picture a year.

All About Men ... Chapter Five

Don't Always Say, 'Yes, Dear'

If you take marriage seriously, discount all the moonlight and roses and "love-forever-true" stuff.

You are entering the most sacred and important partnership of your entire life. It can be heaven on earth, whether in palace or trailer, or it can be hell on wheels.

I think it was Michelet who said, "If you wish to ruin yourself, marry a rich wife." And if Michelet didn't, Joe Peck does.

Don't rush. The right girl is loafing around some place, and I don't mean at a soda fountain. Your job is to recognize her.

You only have to live with your wife for 40 years or so, but the traits you two will hand down will have a direct bearing on the destiny of mankind. Size up the stock she came from.

If you knew a fraction of the ills due to indiscriminate matings, you would realize the importance of giving the matter the attention it deserves. If you want the Lord to bless you with healthy offspring, it is better to prevent now rather than try to correct later.

Among common diseases that run in families are allergy, deafness, a tendency toward heart disease, diabetes, migraine, cleft palate, many kinds of mental diseases, and tuberculosis in all its forms.

If only one side of the family has married, it will be a boon to your some of these diseases in its history, the chances are just half as bad as when both sides have the same weakness. Without too much trouble, you can find a girl who has inherited weaknesses different from yours.

I know farmers who spend a lot of time and money trying to keep dwarfism out of their cattle herds, but who show interest in their children's alliances only when one wants to marry out of the family faith.

Incidentally, after you do get children and grandchildren if you keep a medical record, just as families in my day used to record births and deaths in the family Bible.
