GOP Floor Leader Beadle Sees Friday the 13th as Unlucky

From Our News Wires

LANSING — The Senate adjourned until Monday night at 10:30 a.m. today, six minutes after killing the last hope for a compromise ballot solution to Michigan's cash crisis.

In rapid-fire order;

—A Republican caucus rejected pleas of party leaders for a consideration of a compromise 100-million-dollar bond issue and the entire Senate voted 19-14 against a House-approved 50-million-dollar bond issue.

Only two Republicans, Sens. Haskell Nichols, Jackson, and Perry W. Greene, Grand Rapids, voted with the 12 Senate Democrats on the issue.

One senator missed the showdown vote — Sen. John Stahlin (R-Belding), who said he had "urgent personal business" in Florida.

House Speaker Don R. Pears (R-Buchanan) called the Senate action "disappointing." House Minority Leader Joseph Kowalski (D-Detroit) said it was "ridiculous."

Senate GOP leaders, who yesterday retreated from insistence on a sales tax hike and said prospects were good for a compromise, were instructed by a party caucus today to do a Friday-the-13th flip-flop.

GOP Floor Leader Frank Beadle (R-St. Clair) announced:

"We are more firm than ever that we will not accept any bonding proposal that does not provide means of payment.

Beadle, who said Friday the 13th usually was "my lucky day," said some Republicans still hoped "somebody will pull a rabbit out of a hat."

Beadle indicated he thought the caucus action was not politically sound.

"We will just have to take the consequences," he said.

DEMS ON SIDELINES

Williams and minority Democrats sat on the sidelines, prepared to take almost whatever Republicans agreed on short of a sales tax increase to retire the bonds.

The prospect of possible payless paydays and skipping poor relief checks about May 1 cast a long shadow over the proceedings.

Five caucuses occupying a total of three hectic hours yesterday failed to heal the breach that developed Wednesday night and early Thursday.

City's Residential Expansion Hinges on Proper Preparation

Pontiac can win new residential expansion, if it prepares for it, according to Edward A. Maier, president of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce.

"The building boom is going to continue, and it will continue here if we provide the right facilities," Maier told the Greater Pontiac Community Council last night, meeting to discuss the proposed $3,300,000 bond issue for more sewage treatment facilities.

"The areas that are willing to provide adequate facilities for new homes are the ones that will get the nod from developers for new building projects," Maier predicted, urging a favorable vote on the bond issue April 6.

Maier listed indications that home building will expand next year.

The number of new mortgages is up 28 per cent nationally, he said; FHA down payments have been sharply reduced and power companies are planning expansion in this area.

Pontiac has about six square miles of undeveloped land that is idle because the existing overworked sewage treatment plant couldn't handle the additional load if sewers were extended there, he said.

"Expanded treatment facilities are the key to residential expansion in Pontiac," Maier said.

Four other speakers also addressed the meeting.

City Manager Walter K. Willman said that expansion within the area Maier referred to could boost the city's tax base by $100,000,000.

John Hennessey, superintendent of the present plant, explained its deficiencies, while Harold A. Kelley, consulting engineer, told how new facilities would increase the plant's capacity by five million gallons a day.

ENOUGH FOR 20 YEARS

"That would bring us up to a capacity of 20 million gallons a day, enough to meet the city's estimated needs for another 20 years," Willman said.

Dr. John D. Monroe, acting director of the Pontiac Health Department, said that inadequate facilities represent a potential health hazard.

"Raw sewage from overflowing septic tanks lines drainage ditches after some heavy rains," he said. "Children do play in these ditches. They are being exposed to a grave potential danger."

Watch Mrs. Gall Steadily After Suicide Attempt

Constant watch was put on Mrs. Anne D. Gall yesterday after she attempted to take her own life by slashing her arms with pieces of a smashed light bulb.

Mrs. Gall, accused of the fatal beatings of her 12-year-old daughter, was discovered stretched out on her third floor cellblock bunk shortly before 10 a.m. by Mrs. Mary Cremer, matron at the Oakland County jail.

She called for help and an ambulance later hurried Mrs. Gall, still conscious, to Pontiac General Hospital. Here Dr. Isaac C. Prevette made about 20 stitches in the woman's wrists and at the bend of both elbows.

"They were mostly superficial lacerations," Dr. Prevette said. She didn't need a blood transfusion and remained conscious while he applied the sutures.

The 35-year-old mother of three is confined to the jail awaiting trial for first-degree murder in the Feb. 16 death of Judith Anne Gall. Judith, a doctor said, died of pneumonia brought on by a series of beatings with sticks.

Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem estimated that Mrs. Gall might be tried in the latter part of next month or early May.

Sheriff Frank W. Irons said Mrs. Gall apparently hoisted herself up on some bars to reach one of four light bulbs along a 35-foot passageway outside her cell.

She had been allowed to roam outside her cell in this locked corridor, Irons said, as long as another woman prisoner was with her.

IN OWN CELL

However, this second prisoner was in her own cell yesterday morning and apparently did not see or hear Mrs. Gall snatch the bulb, some nine feet overhead.

Nor did she hear Mrs. Gall crush the bulb to pieces under her bunk mattress as Irons theorized she did. Her cell had been searched at 9 a.m. and 9:15 a.m., Irons said.

"She'll be locked in her cell from now on," he said. Another woman prisoner will keep an extra close watch, Irons added.

Ike Asking 4 Billions for Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower warned Congress today that the United States might have to step up its military assistance program overseas because of the Soviet threat to Europe.

His statement was contained in an urgent, 7,000-word message to Congress appealing for approval of his $3,930,000,000 mutual security program in the next fiscal year.

Eisenhower said the spending is essential to survival in the face of a "growing Communist potential to launch a war of nuclear destruction."

He cautioned against reckless cuts, lest the United States become "the richest nation in the graveyard of history."

The President said the full amount is urgently needed to thwart "a fanatic conspiracy of international communism" which maintains 6½ million men under arms in about 400 divisions around the world.

Eisenhower's foreign aid requests have been cut sharply in past years, and have run into more criticism this year.

Democrats dissatisfied with amounts Eisenhower suggested for various domestic programs are working to increase these and offset the boosts with cuts in foreign aid.

The new funds Eisenhower is asking for the period starting July 1 would continue into a 13th consecutive year the government's

Islands Will Become Nation's Fiftieth State Within Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Hawaiian Islands will become the nation's 50th state within the year.

Congress answered the territory's half-century of pleading for statehood Thursday with a resounding 323-89 vote in the House. The Senate assented a day earlier with a 76-15 vote.

President Eisenhower gets the bill today. His approval is certain.

Presidential Secretary James C. Hagerty said the President is delighted.

In four to six months Hawaii could be a full partner in the union. It will take that long to set up elections for the nearly 600,000 people to choose their first state officers, their two U.S. senators and one representative in the House. Hawaii will qualify for a second House seat after the 1960 census.

There is a maximum time schedule set out in the state constitution which the people of Hawaii, tired of waiting, adopted in 1950.

The maximum is 160 days between the date the President signs the bill and the date of the general election. The actual time could be less.

Gov. William F. Quinn, 12th and last presidentially appointed governor of Hawaii, said he is inclined to favor a schedule on the slow side.

He said he thought that would be preferred by political leaders of both parties to get good candidates in the field. Quinn is a Republican and a candidate for governor. It is up to him to set the election dates.

John A. Burns, Hawaii's Democratic delegate to Congress, said he favored the shortest possible preliminaries to the ultimate proclamation of the President formally admitting the islands to statehood.

"Hawaiians are tired of living under the shackles of the appointive governor system," he said.

Showers or Snow Forecast for Tonight

Showers or snow flurries and turning colder is the Pontiac area weather forecast for tonight. The low will be 30 degrees.

Tomorrow's outlook is partly cloudy and colder with a high of 35, the U.S. Weather Bureau reports.

The five-day forecast is a little more encouraging. The weather bureau predicts temperatures will average about five degrees above the normal high of 43 and the normal low of 27.

Sunday will be warmer, turning cooler Tuesday and Wednesday. Precipitation will total about one-third of an inch from showers or snow flurries tonight and again Monday or Tuesday.

Lowest recorded temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 19. At 2 p.m. the mercury had reached 32.

First-Hand Report to The Press

'Pandemonium' at Waikiki

WAIKIKI BEACH — Hawaii's joyous statehood celebration was "pandemonium" to two Pontiac area vacationers caught up in the jubilation.

"I've never seen such excitement," said Eleanor Lockman, 4297 Ledgestone Dr., who is spending two weeks in Waikiki Beach with a friend, Norma Ainsley, 2219 Hartford Dr.

It wasn't until 3:30 a.m. this morning (8:30 a.m. Pontiac time) that the streets were quiet again, reported Miss Lockman by telephone to The Pontiac Press from her hotel room in the Reef Hotel.

The Waterford Township vacationers are both employes of The Pontiac Press.

They joined thousands of others who crowded Waikiki Beach last night as an hour-long display of fireworks burst gloriously over the bay.

"Hotel lobbies were so packed we could hardly get through," said Miss Lockman.

Before rain forced people indoors, she said, streets in front of the tourist center's plush hotels were filled with milling crowds.

Dance stands were set up in front of the leading hotels, and musicians bravely played on through the showers that dampened garments, but not spirits.

The Pontiac tourists found the celebration "orderly," but gaily punctuated with cheering, horn-honking and fire crackers. Lei-adorned celebrators filled bars where free champagne cocktails were served.

Waikiki Beach, like the rest of Hawaii, had closed up shop yesterday afternoon, beginning today's official holiday early.

Jet planes roared overhead, and Navy destroyers provided a bombardment, which the Pontiac couple missed. But the Navy promised to do it again today.

Around 6 p.m., before the rain, the press of the crowd in front of the Hotel Moana "was unbelievable," said Miss Lockman.

TV and movie cameramen were recording the scene. Front page headlines of the islands' two newspapers reflected the excitement.

"STATEHOOD!" proclaimed the Honolulu Star-Bulletin in huge red letters. "YES!" was the even briefer announcement of the Honolulu Advertiser, referring to Congress' acceptance of Hawaii as the 50th state.

"Tension had been building up here all week," reported Miss Lockman, who flew in Sunday.

"Statehood was the talk everywhere. We can't get over the fact that we were fortunate enough to be here when the big moment came."

At 10 a.m. yesterday, minutes before the House in Washington followed the Senate in approving statehood, the Pontiac women were with a tour at peaceful International Cemetery, located in historical Punch Bowl Crater overlooking the beach and the bay.

Suddenly, the sound of air raid sirens came floating up from Waikiki Beach, signaling statehood.

As the tour bus headed down to the town, children lined the road, Miss Lockman said.

"They waved to us happily and

Flag Makers Face 'Ruin' Over Hawaii

NEW YORK (AP)—Flag makers are in a flutter.

With the admission of Alaska to the union, the flag manufacturers began turning out 49-star versions of Old Glory at top speed to have a big supply on hand when the new flags became official July 4.

Now with Hawaii about to become a state also, the manufacturers are in a dither over the possibility that a 50-star version will be needed even before those with 49 can be used.

Digby Chandler, president of one of the industry's largest firms, pleaded for postponement of adoption of the 50-star flag until July 4, 1960. "The flag industry faces ruin," he said.

Chandler said the industry already had turned out about 300,000 49-star flags.

"If we are forced to throw all these away and start making 50-star flags for next July 4 there will be no flag industry left."

The flag makers are hoping that statehood approval by the people of Hawaii, plus adoption of a new design by the President's flag committee, will take so much time that the 50-star version will be delayed beyond next July 4. That would mean another year's grace.

Bird's-Eye View of 50th State:

Hawaii Is Comprised of 8 Principal Islands, 613,000 Residents

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The soon-to-be new state of Hawaii is made up of eight principal islands about 2,200 miles west of San Francisco with a total area slightly larger than that of Connecticut and Rhode Island combined.

Its 613,000 residents are 85 per cent native-born American citizens of diverse racial and national backgrounds. Twenty-three per cent of the total population is Caucasian, 37 per cent Japanese, 17 per cent Hawaiian and the remainder Filipino, Chinese, Korean and Puerto Rican.

Specifically excluded from the new state under the legislation enacted by Congress is Palmyra Island, a small family-owned atoll nearly 1,000 miles south of Honolulu. Palmyra is a part of Honolulu County, making it the longest county in the world.

The new state also will not include nearby Midway Island to the northwest nor Johnston and Sand Islands to the south nor Kingman Reef off Palmyra, all of which are U. S.-owned.

From the standpoint of size and population, Hawaii's most important islands are Oahu, where Honolulu is located, Maui, Molokai, Lanai, Hawaii and Kauai.

Sugar and pineapple production and tourism are Hawaii's major industries. Last year 200,000 tourists spent nearly 83 million dollars in Hawaii.

Hawaiians last year paid $166,300,000 in federal taxes, more than the total from 10 other states.

School Bus Driver Averts Train Crash

The quick thinking of an Oakland County woman school bus driver who avoided a train collision by remaining calm drew praise today from the Pontiac Police Dept.

Mrs. Fern Robertson, 43, of 1809 Petrolila St., West Bloomfield Township, was credited with averting possible tragedy when she drove her bus into a railroad pole to avert hitting a small, open trolley.

Driving a bus of the Oakland County Children's Home with 35 youngsters aboard, Mrs. Robertson said the brakes failed as she approached the W. Huron street crossing of the Grand Trunk railroad.

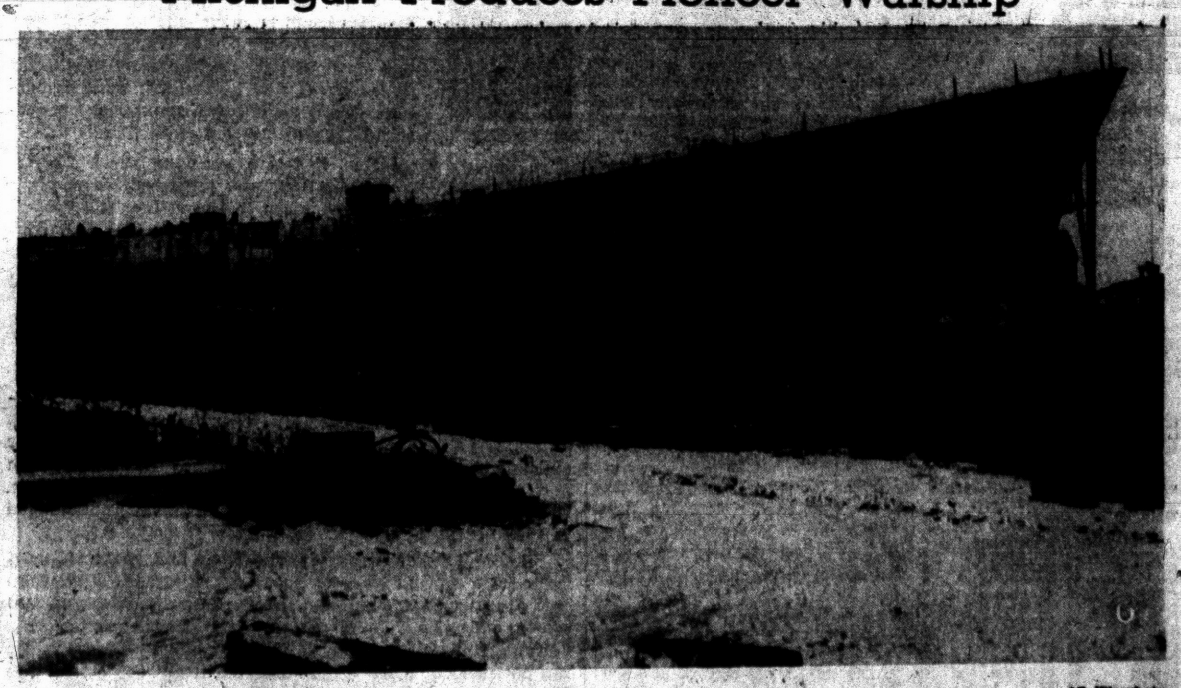

She spotted the small, motorized car carrying five railroad workers, and swung her bus into the pole supporting the warning blinkers.

Moments later two trains roared down the tracks.

No one was injured, and the only damage to the bus was a few scrapes on the bumper.

The children were being returned to the Children's Home from several schools in the area.

Hawaii Wins Statehood by Overwhelming Margin date for something, has not said which office he will seek.

Hawaiians will have other things to vote on, besides officers.

They must decide:

1. Whether they want statehood; they voted for it 2-1 in a plebiscite 19 years ago, but they must vote again.

2. Whether to accept the boundaries defined by Congress. This excludes Palmyra Island, a tiny privately owned, coral atoll 960 miles south of Honolulu.

3. Whether to accept the federal land grants and reservations specified in the statehood bill.

Hawaii consists of eight major islands and a number of smaller ones with a total land area of 6,434 square miles. Hawaii would be the 47th state in size, bigger than Rhode Island, Delaware and Connecticut.

In population, Hawaii now outranks Alaska, Nevada, Wyoming, Vermont, Delaware and New Hampshire.

Although 85 per cent of the territory's residents are American citizens, the bulk of the population is of oriental and Polynesian native Hawaiian ancestry. In the 1950 census, Caucasians comprised 23 per cent. The largest ethnic group was Japanese, 36.9 per cent.

Opposition melted in the final hours of House debate. House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex), long a formidable opponent of Hawaii statehood, issued a statement congratulating Hawaii. He said the territory will be "an asset to the United States."

Charges of communism in Hawaii played a significant part in the final debate. But Chairman Francis E. Walter (D-Pa) of the House Committee on Un-American Activities is convinced that under the new responsibilities of statehood, the patriotic people of Hawaii will break the hold of communism and labor leaders such as Harry Bridges and Jack Hall.

covers are in part due to the inadequacies of the existing plant, Hennessey said.

Built piecemeal since 1919, it could handle 15 million gallons a day, with improvements, but at present is overwhelmed by a heavy storm, he said.

In response to questioning from the small audience of 50 persons, Willman said that no decision has been reached as yet by the City Commission as to whether the city will undertake more sewage service for fringe areas.

"What we propose to build is solely for the benefit of Pontiac," he said.

Another person questioned the $93,650 earmarked for a new administration building, equipped with a lunchroom and washroom in addition to laboratories, office and maintenance areas.

"Working at a treatment plant is an unsanitary business," said Hennessey. "It's important that the men have a clean place to eat lunch and a place to wash their hands."

Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams, president of the council, expressed disappointment at the small turnout.

"As too often happens, the people of this community don't seem to care to learn about those issues on which they're going to vote in a few weeks."

By the time the sun reached Waikiki Beach, the excited Hawaiians were already preparing for celebration, Miss Lockman said, with stores closing up, the schools closed, and hundreds of children filling the streets with shouts and cheers.

Hawaiians were getting a little sleep before official festivities begin again today with thanksgiving ceremonies at Kawaihao Church.

DR. EDWARD V. HOWLETT

Doctor's Funeral Set Tomorrow

Served as Physician and Surgeon in Pontiac for Nearly 50 Years

Service for Dr. Edward V. Howlett, a Pontiac physician and surgeon for nearly 50 years, will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday at Donelson-Johns Funeral Home with Dr. William H. Marbach of First Presbyterian Church officiating.

Cremation will follow at White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Dr. Howlett died unexpectedly of a stroke yesterday at his home.

Long active in professional societies, Dr. Howlett had served as president of the Oakland County Medical Society and was a life member of the Michigan State Medical Society.

He became a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons and a Fellow of the Academy of International Medicine.

Dr. Howlett was born in Gregory Jan. 20, 1876. He was graduated from the University of Michigan Medical School in 1902.

Prior to coming to Pontiac in January 1910, he practiced in the community of Trimountain in the Upper Peninsula.

Two years later Dr. Howlett and Dr. Lucius A. Farnham joined offices.

A former chief of staff at Pontiac General Hospital, he took an active part in local civic affairs.

He was a member of the Rotary Club of Pontiac and for many years an avid golfer at Orchard Lake and Pine Lake Country Clubs.

In his earlier years the doctor made an annual event of venturing to the Ten Buck Hunting Club near Alpena for a period of complete relaxation.

He made his home at 1029 James K Blvd. with his wife, May, who survives.

Other survivors include two sons, Dr. Robert R. Howlett of Caro and Lucius E. Howlett of Pontiac; two grandchildren; and two sisters, Mrs. G. A. Reid of Stockbridge and Mrs. Howard E. Marshall of Gregory.

The family said memorials may be made to the American Heart Assn.

Trim Payrolls, Anderson Asks

Waterford Lawmaker's Bill Would Reduce State's Personnel

One way to cut down on state spending, according to Rep. Lloyd L. Anderson (R-Waterford Township), is to trim the number of persons on state payrolls.

With this in mind, Anderson this morning introduced a bill in the House of Representatives which would allow only half of any vacancies that might exist as of July 1 to be filled.

Beginning July 1, 1960, Anderson's bill outlines, the only persons appointed by State Civil Service would be those needed to fill 25 per cent of the vacancies in state offices.

This would be done until personnel in each department, bureau, division and commission of state government has reached 80 per cent of personnel employed as of the date the proposed act is enacted, Anderson said.

The bill would also grant to Gov. Williams the power to transfer personnel from one agency to another to fill job openings.

Giving Anderson's proposed bill "enthusiastic endorsement" was Arthur G. Elliott Jr., chairman of the Republican Committee of Oakland County.

Elliott sponsored a four-point plan, presented and adopted by the Republican State Central Committee, aimed at cutting state spending 10 per cent or more to help solve Michigan's cash crisis.

One of the points in Elliott's program calls for the governor to have each of 118 departments study current expenses to make "sure that taxpayers receive a full dollar in value for every dollar spent."

Gunman Gets $250

City Firm Held Up Today

A lone gunman held up the Sibley Coal and Supply Co. shortly after noon today and fled with $250.

J. Standish Sibley, a co-owner of the firm, told police he was alone in the company office, 140 N. Cass Ave., when the bandit walked in.

"Both of his hands were on a sawed-off shotgun or rifle," Sibley said.

"This is a holdup," Sibley quoted the gunman as saying. Sibley said he gave the bandit all the bills and change in the cash register and on his person.

The gunman ordered him into the back room when a customer was sighted approaching the front door, Sibley said. When he started for the back, the bandit darted out a side door.

Sibley said the customer, Kenneth Hughes, 1064 Crescent Lake Rd., Waterford Township, started after the gunman when he heard of the robbery but was unable to find him.

Sibley said he saw no car around the building.

The gunman was described as between 35-40 years old, about 5 feet 9, of heavy build. He was wearing a light brown jacket, and dark cap and dark pants, Sibley told police.

Auto Output to Dip as Plants Slow Down

DETROIT (AP)—Passenger car production in U. S. plants this week will total 131,096 units compared with last week's 133,540, Ward's Automotive Reports said today. In the corresponding 1958 week, 86,447 cars were built.

The decline this week resulted mainly from shorter operating schedules in several factories, where output was being balanced with new car sales. Ward's noted that Chevrolet in Los Angeles, two Buick - Oldsmobile - Pontiac plants and Buick's main factory at Flint operated on a four-day schedule, a Chevrolet plant at Tarrytown, N. Y., scheduled three days, and Mercury's Wayne, Mich., factory was closed all week.

The agency said truck output this week will be 24,422 units against last week's 23,492 and the like 1958 week's output of 16,952.

Gerber Firm Changes to Idle 700 for 6 Weeks

Courts Will Close at Noon Monday

All four Oakland County Circuit Courts in the courthouse will close at noon Monday and remain closed for the rest of the day in respect to former Circuit Judge Glenn C. Gillespie of Pontiac, who was killed in an automobile accident Wednesday in Oklahoma.

Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor said the arraignments and sentences scheduled for 1:30 p. m. Monday, before Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland, have been re-scheduled for 9:30 a. m. Tuesday.

All other county offices will remain open as usual Monday afternoon, according to Robert Y. Moore, chairman of the Board of Auditors.

Ike Seeks Billions for Mutual Security

massive military - economic programs in 70 friendly countries.

In his January budget message, Eisenhower put the cost of his new foreign aid proposals at 12 million less than he asked last year. Congress cut last year's figure by 650 million dollars.

The new program would set aside $1,600,000,000 for military weapons help to allied nations. This would go mainly to Middle East and Asian nations, with only 30 per cent going to European partners.

An additional 835 million dollars would be earmarked for defense support, or economic assistance needed to shore up the economies of countries carrying big defense burdens in critical areas.

These two defense needs account for 61 percent of the money asked—a drop of 8 percent in such spending compared to last year.

Seven hundred million of the $1,495,000,000 to be sought for strictly economic assistance would go for the Development Loan Fund, a favorite target of some congressional critics.

This fund was set up two years ago to extend low interest, long-term loans for economic development in overseas areas, especially those under Soviet pressure.

Under the administration's program, defense support would be channeled to 12 nations which otherwise could not afford the cost of maintaining some three million men in their armed forces. These countries are Korea, Nationalist China, Viet Nam, the Philippines, Laos, Cambodia, Thailand, Pakistan, Iran, Turkey, Greece and Spain.

The Day in Birmingham

2 High School Students Win Traub Travel Grants

BIRMINGHAM — At a special Bloomfield Hills High School assembly yesterday, the two winners of the Robert C. J. Traub Memorial Scholarship Travel Fund were named for 1959.

Stephen Thomas Manhard, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Manhard, 4375 Oakgrove Rd., Bloomfield Hills, received the art award. Vocalist Penny Holloway, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Holloway, 870 Bloomcrest Dr., Bloomfield Township, was the winner from the music department.

School Superintendent Eugene Johnson said "that in addition to the winners, Clason Shumard and Sue Woodside, music and art students respectively, were named alternates.

Clason, 17, is the son of Mrs. Harry James, 20486 Cameron Dr., Detroit. Sue, also 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Woodside, 148 Linda Ct., Bloomfield Township.

Manhard has done cartoons for his school paper and is the art editor. He also is the St. Dunstan Guild Players poster artist, and has maintained a three-year "A" average in art at school.

Penny is a member of the school choir and her church choir and sings with the Popular Jills, high school specialty group.

Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor Traub established the fund in memory of her late husband. It permits two young people to spend a summer in Europe before entering college.

At 8 p.m. Sunday the 70-voice Chancel Choir and soloists of the First Presbyterian Church will present the German Requiem of Johannes Brahms.

Guest pianist will be Kent McDonald of St. James Episcopal Church. Jack Ledingham of the Detroit Symphony will be guest timpanist, and Bruce B. Warnock, guest trumpeteer.

Organist and choir master L. Robert Slusser will conduct the program.

Durward B. Varner, chancellor of Michigan State University Oakland, will be the guest speaker at the Vaughan Elementary School Parent-Teachers Organization meeting at 8 p.m. Monday. The program will be held in the Bloomfield Hills High School.

Varner will discuss the plans for MSUO. PTO organizations in the area are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Pratt of 18162 Wetherby Rd. will be hosts to the potluck supper of the Baptist Church Stewardship Class at 6:30 tonight at their home.

A devotional period led by William Richardson and a film on California will complete the program.

Group Criticizes State Hospitals

Pontiac, Northville 2 of Units Hit for Mixing Children, Adults

A survey by the Michigan branch of the American Assn. of University Women (AAUW) has criticized the housing of mentally ill children with adult patients at six state hospitals, including Pontiac and Northville State Hospitals.

The survey showed there are 73 children at the Pontiac hospital and 119 at Northville. Other figures showed 128 at Ypsilanti, 73 at Kalamazoo, 27 at Traverse City, and 25 at Newberry.

This mixing arrangement is harmful to both groups, the report said.

It said there was a total of 445 mentally ill children at the six institutions. In addition, the report goes on, some children are housed with delinquents at the Pontiac, Northville and Newberry hospitals.

The survey quotes one superintendent as saying this situation comes about because many courts send delinquent children under the mistaken belief they are mentally ill.

"This concurs," the report points out, "with the opinion of some probate judges that the diagnostic facilities available to the probate courts are insufficient."

Berlin at a Glance

Crisis Heightens

By United Press International

WASHINGTON — White House says Eisenhower-Macmillan talks will take place at Camp David, Md. next weekend; Dulles may have limited participation in talks.

BONN — Macmillan-Adenauer talks in second day; Macmillan eases German worries about "disengagement" in Central Europe but Germans still suspicious Britain may be willing to bargain to detriment of West Berlin or West Germany.

MOSCOW — Soviet government newspaper Isvestia says West trying to solve Berlin crisis with tanks instead of negotiations wanted by Russians.

LONDON — Mikhail A. Suslov, No. 2 in Soviet Communist party presidium, flies to London on 10-day visit; Britain embarrassed because of arrival during negotiations with allies.

BERLIN—Khrushchev visit stirs barely a ripple on surface of West Berliners' lives; one says Khrushchev should liberate East Germany instead of worrying about West Berlin.

Lenten Guideposts: 'He Is As Thou'

Hate Is a Costly Ogre of Mankind

By DR. EVERETT R. CLINCHY
President, National Conference of Christians and Jews

In 1920 I was a minister in a small, friendly country parish in New Jersey. One of the trustees was a farmer of steel-like integrity, whom I deeply admired and respected.

One night a cross was burned by the Ku Klux Klan in a valley below our hill. The spirit of the entire community stiffened with hate, distrust, vicious rumors of lawless night raiders, all adding up to the same intent: "The Roman Catholics moving into the valley are going to be frightened out."

DR. CLINCHY

I was 28 then, and confident that America could be made safe for differences. I remember asking our church organization if we meant the things we fought for in the great war just ended; more important, if we meant the compassion, understanding, and love our faith taught us.

Shortly thereafter, it was a profound shock when the trustee, whom I admired and respected, so much, said: "The men met last night in the valley. The Protestant Churches had better remain quiet. The Klan is gaining strength."

I was painfully puzzled that a man with such moral depths could have this blind spot of intolerance.

Our friendship continued and endured, but I could sense the struggle in him.

Hate is not a natural and continuous state in men, particularly men who believe. My friend came to know the others, the Catholics. He discovered that hate was the ugly child of his own suspicions, the ignorance that comes from lack of knowledge. The "others," though different in faith, were as he. The truth burned a way to his heart and changed his mind.

Before I left New Jersey, the Klan had spent its brief fury. Some courageous souls spoke out. Churches other than ours also turned against the carriers of malice. Farmers and merchants quickly found out that hate is bad for business. Politicians discovered that it is a poisonous boomerang. As the goodness in more people asserted itself, the evil of the Klan died.

But the experience left its mark on me. It was then, as I look back now, that the great problem of building brotherhood chose me.

Directly after the New Jersey episode, the Federal Council of Protestant Churches met in Atlanta, Ga. (ironically, then headquarters of the Klan), and formed a Committee of Good Will between Christians and Jews to study "How Does a Klansman Get That Way?" Five prominent consultants of the committee formed the National Conference of Christians and Jews, and startled me by asking me to run it.

At our very first seminar I remember plastering the walls from floor to ceiling with hate posters I had collected, and the men who came were shocked into a first-time realization that such venom really existed in America, the cradle of tolerance.

At the suggestion of a Catholic priest, we began Brotherhood Week. It is now celebrated in 3,000 cities and towns and is a national institution, independent of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

In 1953, Elmo Roper completed a 12-year study of employe relationships in the U.S. He estimated the price of prejudice to American industry at $30 billion dollars a year in wasted manpower, production, and morale! That means that $10 out of every $75 paycheck is wasted on the phony luxury of indulging our prejudices. The figure cannot include the incalculable cost in human suffering and indignity.

"In his best moments every person feels the hand of God choosing him to work for the vision of brotherhood earthwide," Rabbi Le Baeck said. "Each of us may be different but each of us, by the Grace of God, is of God's substance."

Every "other" I began to realize, is my brother. This lighted a new meaning in the term, "my fellow man." It gave fresh significance to the words of Jesus, which are usually translated "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." The exact meaning is, "Thou shalt love thy other; he is as thou."

When The Master taught that what is done to the poor, the needy, the sinful, is done to Him, Jesus was expressing this concept of the "other" being "my own other," "my brother." The Bible has it; the poor, the needy, the sinner, the saint is "thy poor," "thy needy," "thy sinner," "thy saint."

It is a truism, that freedom from hate always brings the individual happiness. The Master told us that there is only one family for the world—the family of man.

Albania Capital Sits in Obscurity

Little Is Known About Soviet Satellite City by Western World

WASHINGTON—Albania's capital city of Tirane (Tirana), the seat of a Russian satellite government surrounded by what it regards as potential enemies, is today as little known as Tibet's Lhasa.

Tourists from outside the Soviet bloc are discouraged, and the few Western newspaper correspondents who have managed to visit Tirana since World War II have described it as "Europe's forgotten capital." Hardly any dependable reports of the city's development are available. Its population is unofficially reported to have jumped from 35,000 in 1939 to 150,000 today.

Tirana is located on Albania's coastal plain, some 20 miles inland from the Adriatic port of Durres, with which is connected by one of the country's two railroad lines, the National Geographic Society says. The city is almost equidistant from the nation's northernmost and southern boundries with Yugoslavia and Greece respectively.

Among Europe's capitals, Tirana has only a brief tradition as a center of government. It was selected in 1922 mainly because the then larger, more suitable city of Shkoder or Scutari was considered too close to the Yugoslav border and thus within the range of Yugoslav artillery. A British visitor pictured it in 1930 as "an untidy place" being transformed from a "quaint Turkish town" into a modern city.

Until Albania's occupation by Italy in 1939, Tirana's reputation was that of a comic-opera Balkan capital: a city of pretentious government buildings intermingled with oriental bazaars and Moslem mosques. The Parliament Building, clearly identified by a large painted sign over the door, was a former Italian casino. King Zog's royal palace was a simple Turkish town house.

World War II sent Tirana into an obscurity from which it has yet to emerge.

Ready Hills Choir, Band Spring Concert

The choir and band of the Bloomfield Hills High School will present their annual spring concert next Friday.

The program, under the direction of Clarence Luchtman, choral instructor and Wayne Tilton, band director, will begin at 8:30 p. m. in the school's gymnasium.

The vocal groups will feature Easter selections as well as tunes from "Showboat" and a medley of spring and rain songs.

Numbers from "The Wizard of Oz" will be a feature of the band's portion of the program.

Soloist Clason Shumard, and vocal groups the "Jills," "Hillsmen," girls' chorus, and boys' ensemble will be included in the program.

Helen O'Connell Wants Separate Maintenance

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Singer Helen O'Connell has filed a second suit for separate maintenance against author Thomas Chamales and says she fears for her life.

The former vocalist with the late Jimmy Dorsey's band said Thursday she has employed a bodyguard. She said Chamales—whom she married two years ago—threatened to kill her and her daughter by a previous marriage.

Miss O'Connell had dismissed an earlier separate maintenance suit after reconciling with Chamales. She asks $1,699 a month temporary alimony and child support.

NEW YORK (AP) — Chester T. Lane, 53, lend-lease administrator and deputy foreign liquidations commissioner in 1946 and 1947, died Thursday. Lane, who was born in London, at one time was general counsel for the Securities Exchange Commission and a special assistant to the U.S. attorney general.

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP)—Albert L. Viles, 71, former president of the Rubber Manufacturers Assn., died Thursday after a brief illness. Viles, head of the association from 1935 until his retirement in 1954, had been associated with the rubber industry since 1918.

Hal Boyle Says:

Gene Lockhart Still Alive to Daughter June

NEW YORK (AP)—Gene Lockhart, one of America's all-time great actors, appeared in hundreds of films, but the public knew very little about him.

He died two years ago, but he is still much alive in the thoughts of his actress daughter.

"Many people didn't know it, but father also was very active as a songwriter," said June Lockhart, currently starring as the young mother in the TV show, "Lassie."

"He wrote 60 or 70 songs, among them 'The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise.'

"Father was a very versatile, talented and kind man. He was a doer and a giver, and he gave more of that thing that is most precious to all of us—time.

"When he was young and poor he didn't even have an overcoat. My mother, who was also in the theater, noticed this and sent him one and I guess that's how she got him.

"Father, as he grew older, was a very devout man. He helped many people come into the church. He was a very dedicated man—dedicated to his fellow human beings. He used to spend hours every day helping people with their problems.

"He had tremendous drive and a great capacity for work. After a long day at the studio, he would write most of the night on plays, sketches, songs, letters to people in trouble. He never sloughed off a job, no matter how small.

"In the household he was boss. There was no doubt of that. But he had great humor.

"We had a very full relationship as father and daughter, and nothing that should be done was left undone, and therefore I did not grieve too much when he died. We had done so much together. We were very close."

With June Lockhart herself it has been pretty much a case of "like father, like daughter." She is blonde and blue-eyed, witty and pretty, warm-hearted and wonderfully likeable because she is still wonderfully natural.

It has been said she looks like the girl every man would like to be married to.

"I don't mind that. I think it's lovely," she said, smiling. "The trouble is that everyone who thinks that way is already married."

June never has had an acting lesson—and never needed one, since she was born to the theater. She made her professional debut when she was eight as Mimsey in the Metropolitan Opera's "Peter Ibbetson."

Her role as the ingenue in "For Love or Money" made her the toast of Broadway in 1947.

"They said I was the toast," June recalled wryly, "but the toast was pretty lonely. After most performances I would take a taxi home and eat an apple all by myself."

Since then June has appeared in a number of plays, some 15 movies, and scores of television plays. She is as hard-working as her father was, and has his same pride in his craft.

"I like being under a long term contract," she said. "If I play my cards right, I'll get to play Lassie's grandmother, and I'd like to."

This is her philosophy:

"It is important to face your problems in life, not to run away from them, and to face them with good humor. It is important also to do your job well, and to do this you have to have organization.

"I'm the most organized person I know. I keep endless books, charts, lists. I must be a bookkeeper at heart. I can tell you what I spent for medicine two years ago last month by looking it up in a little book."

Her hobby is politics, a field in which she thinks some of the best acting in America is done. In presidential years she likes to travel with the campaign trains.

"I have no desire at all to run for office myself," she said. "But the theatrical aspects of politics fascinate me. I do love to watch a really smooth politician perform."

Judge Glenn C. Gillespie

Oakland County residents are saddened by the tragic news of the auto accident which took the life of GLENN C. GILLESPIE. The "Judge," as Mr. Gillespie was known to his host of friends, had been enjoying excellent health and had been actively pursuing his practice of law.

A life-long resident of Oakland County, Mr. Gillespie's brilliant career spanned nearly half a century in Pontiac. After graduation from Michigan Law School, he opened his law practice here in 1911.

At an early age Mr. GILLESPIE's knowledge of law won acclaim and he was appointed Circuit Judge on the Oakland County bench. After 14 years he retired to private practice of civil cases.

During his long and colorful career the Judge was called on many times to represent his state and city in legal capacities. His knowledge of law and reputation were such that his opinions were recognized not only in the state but nationally.

Genuinely friendly, Judge Gillespie possessed the homespun knack of a storyteller. At any gathering of sportsmen, the "Judge" was usually at his eloquent best and could be counted on for some pungent and pithy remarks.

He was an ardent outdoorsman, and as much at home in the stream or bush as before a jury pleading a technical legal entanglement.

Pontiac and Oakland County lose a sound jurist, but his multitude of friends and acquaintances will be enriched by memories.

Foreign Aid Isn't New in American History

With a new Congress the perennial question of foreign aid programs is sure to cause a great deal of discussion in the ensuing weeks. It might prove interesting to have a look at the origins and reasons for foreign aid.

The general idea of helping other people is not new to Americans. Government foreign aid is an off-shoot of wartime lend-lease programs. It is big business and involves billions of dollars yearly.

Helping other people economically and technically as well as spiritually goes far back in American history. Long before the United States ever appropriated a nickel in foreign aid, American individuals and organizations conducted private foreign aid programs.

First were our missionaries who taught educational and technical methods to other nations along with their religious activities. This work went on for years in the Far East and Middle East long before there was any thought of our regular foreign aid programs.

Examples of this are American established universities in Communist China and Communist North Korea. Other countries with living monuments of American interest are Turkey with Roberts College and the American University in Beirut, Lebanon.

Since the war three private foreign aid foundations have been operating. Ford Foundation, in India and other nations of the Far East; the Near East Foundation, operating principally in Arab lands and the Rockefeller Foundation operating in Latin America.

True, none of this aid is in billions like our Government assistance, but nevertheless these agencies display our generosity toward other nations. In some cases, they have acted as sort of a pilot, guiding the way for the big projects.

Foreign aid is costly and should be handled efficiently as a natural expression of American ideals.

"IT WILL cost the first man to go to the moon $15 million," says a rocketician. That figures about $65 a mile, a highly exorbitant price, particularly considering the uninteresting scenery en route.

AS IN the case of the person who doesn't believe in ghosts but is afraid of them, many men don't believe in woman's intuition.

The Man About Town

City's Birthday

Pontiac Will Be 98 Years Old on the Coming Sunday

Female: The sex that has changed since 1940—they're now two years older.

It was on March 15, 1861, that the Michigan state legislature passed a special act creating the City of Pontiac. Our country town of about 3,000 population thus discarded its village swaddling clothes, that it had officially donned in 1837, the same year that Michigan became a state.

On that date in 1861, when the Civil War was just getting under way, we stood in 23rd place among Michigan cities. Today we are in seventh place.

Larger than Pontiac in 1861, in this order, were: Detroit, Grand Rapids, Jackson, East Saginaw, Kalamazoo, Adrian, Saginaw, Ann Arbor, Bay City, Muskegon, Port Huron, Battle Creek, Ypsilanti, Flint, Lansing, Monroe, Marshall, Niles, Coldwater, Hillsdale, Marquette, Manistee and Grand Haven.

Today the only cities in the state larger than Pontiac are: Detroit, Grand Rapids, Flint, Dearborn, Saginaw and Lansing.

In 1861 Pontiac was primarily a farmers' town. It had a few small factories, employing about 400, but its merchants depended principally on the rural trade for their business.

From that 3,000, not many more than a present village like Oxford, Lake Orion or Holly, it has grown to around the 80,000 mark, with an employment list close to 40,000, and has risen from a rural village to one of our nation's best known industrial cities.

As the 1959 tourist season approaches, I have it from that man who knows more about that subject than anybody else in Michigan, that last year the average out-state tourist spent $217 on his vacation here. Most of them said they're coming back in 1959, when we expect to take third place among the states in that respect. Last year we were in fourth place, behind New York, California and Florida. And the Pontiac area's many attractions will help us do it.

Clyde Furlong,

This area has two communities with the same name, with the exception of a capital letter in the middle of one of them. Lakeville is that beautiful assemblage of homes, business places and water resorts up toward the northeast corner of Oakland County, and LakeVille is over near Flint.

Mrs. Harry Beihl

of 27 Sylvan Ct. celebrates her birthday on this superstitious day, one of the few times during her 23 years that March 13 has fallen on Friday.

All That Goes Up Doesn't Come Down

David Lawrence Says:

Court OK's Jailing Innocent Man

WASHINGTON—In these days, when there is so much talk about upholding the constitution, it seems strange that the "civil rights" of an individual can be wiped out overnight—and he can be sent to jail for 15 months—not because he violated any law or was himself guilty of criminal conduct, but because he was afraid to testify in a case lest he suffer gangster reprisals.

LAWRENCE

Yet, by a vote of 5 to 4, the Supreme Court of the United States now orders to jail a man who is innocent of any crime against his fellow man.

One of the five votes is by a justice who has not yet been confirmed by the Senate. Technically, Justice Stewart is eligible to continue serving till the end of the present session of the Senate, though, unless confirmed, he must then leave the bench.

If, however, he had not sat on this case, the 4-to-4 decision would have had the effect of upholding the lower court's conviction just the same, but an unsound decision would not have become the "law of the land."

Where there is a tie vote in the Supreme Court, no legal precedent binding in other cases of similar nature is created. Some justices have for this reason declined to sit until confirmed.

The four who voted in dissent were Chief Justice Warren and Justices Black, Douglas and Brennan. Their opinion is a masterpiece of logic and sound law.

They have often been criticized in these dispatches in other cases, but the viewpoint they expressed this week on the right of an innocent man to be spared unusual punishment because of his refusal to testify before a grand jury is an excellent exposition of judicial morality.

It is a denunciation of the arbitrary way that criminal contempt cases can be handled by tyrannical judges.

The Constitution says that "The trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury." But "usage," based on the English common law, has caused the Constitution to be ignored.

Justice Black, in an historic opinion a few years ago, made an impressive argument for jury trials in criminal contempt cases.

Sen. Talmadge of Georgia has introduced legislation at the present session of Congress to require jury trials in all cases of contempt arising from the disobedience of any injunction or restraining order.

What was involved, however, in the case of Emanuel Brown was not a restraining order or injunction but the court's oral command that he testify before a grand jury.

He had already refused to do so, and was brought into court so that he could again be requested to testify and then punished.

The minority opinion deplores this as a violation of the Federal rules of criminal procedure and expresses a belief that the punishment was rather severe for the kind of offensive charged.

It gives a list of other cases with far less drastic penalties. The chief justice also says:

"The prosecutor indicated to the court that the inquiry (of the grand jury) though directed toward minor violations of the Interstate Commerce Act, was really part of an effort to discover facts concerning notorious gangsters suspected of complicity in the Victor Reisel acid-throwing incident and general racketeering in the southern district of New York.

"In view of the total absence of any intimation that petitioner (Emanuel Brown) had violated the Interstate Commerce Act or was himself guilty of criminal conduct, the actual basis for his refusal to testify may well have been fear of gangster reprisals, a not unreasonable fear in such circumstances.

"Regardless of the legal significance of such a defense, a hearing would have provided an opportunity for presentation of such facts to the judge and might well have affected the length of sentence."

The chief justice quoted aptly from a pertinent opinion by Justice Frankfurter in another case.

Had Frankfurter held the same view today, he would have supplied the fifth vote toward making the Warren opinion the majority.

But the record now is made, and judges throughout the country are bound by the precedent created.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Pyorrhea Primarily Due to Nutritional Deficiency

I don't know, but I believe chronic joint disability (rheumatiz) and chronic jaw disability ((pyorrhea) are both due primarily to malnutrition, that is, nutritional deficiency through the years from childhood to the present.

DR. BRADY

Now before you shrug this off as just another of Brady's pipe dreams, be sure you understand what we're talking about. Chronic, in my lexicon, means (1) insidious onset, beginning or development and ((2) long duration, not less than a year.

As in rheumatiz, so in pyorrhea, while the ailment or disability is slowly but steadily progressive, there are from time to time periods of inflamation, which are not at all essential or characteristic, such as gingivitis (gum inflation) and/or discharge of pus from tooth sockets.

Pus from tooth sockets is indeed what gives chronic jaw disability its popular name—pyorrhea. Unfortunately, even if treatment stops the discharge of pus, the chronic jaw disability progresses steadily unless . . .

Right here I'll sing my favorite ditty, They're All Out of Step but Brady, and tell you, whether you're physician, dentist or layman, that you are not qualified to have an opinion about chronic jaw disability unless you have studied "Nutrition and Physical Degeneration" by Weston A. Price, D. D. S., and "Not by Bread Alone," by Vilhjalmur Stefansson, as well as the standard textbooks of nutrition.

Any good dentist can treat chronic jaw disability as well as a "pyorrhea specialist" can, provided the dentist is abreast of progress in his profession.

The casual reader may infer from this and other pieces in this column that I think most everyday complaints are manifestations of malnutrition, nutritional deficiency. That is so. Most complaints—not all.

Among complaints I ascribe primarily to malnutrition (or nutritional deficiency) are rheumatiz, physical degeneration of joint tissues, and pyorrhea, physical degeneration of jaw tissues — bone, muscle, tooth sockets, mucous membrane, teeth and everything.

In the booklet Save Your Teeth (35c and stamped, self-addressed envelope) I give the best advice I can for the victim of chronic jaw disability. I believe that up to a point degeneration is reversible. Otherwise I would not dwell on the subject.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

"No behavior of a man is good enough if it can be made better."

Voice of the People

Letter About Mercy Death Prompts Case Against It

E. Church, while talking about interest of humanity in the case of euthanasia, is proving himself inhuman. The gift of life from God doesn't belong to me. I can't dispose of it. People are born and live on earth with life's joy, love, suffering in order to earn life in Heaven. Christ showed that the path of roses has painful thorns.

You cannot take life, because neither you nor doctors give life. Back up from the place only God can occupy. What you advocate would be legalized murder.

And if you don't believe in any God, before you say how to mercifully, legally murder, go back to the origin of life. I, for one, do not come from monkeys and gorillas. Mr. Darwin, in what next mess are your students going to fail?

More Discuss Race Problem

Reviewing the past five years the Negro knows the NAACP and his City Commissioners are with him, but what about the local Urban League? What has this organization done in past years with over $15,000 a year from United Fund?

With an executive secretary getting over $6,000, a "field" worker about $5,500 and a paid secretary, the Negro nor City has seen benefit of this money. The League is supposed to open up new jobs and improve housing for Negroes. From last year they can't point to even five new jobs they're responsible for and nothing in over five years to improve housing conditions. Over $13,000 in salaries in one year comes to quite a sum.

The Urban League has done little or nothing for the Negro community except provide a good living for a few people who are more interested in politics and impressing white people than in helping and being with their own people. Perhaps we made a mistake when we gave up our community center. A center would do more for our community and children than anything the UL and its people could attempt.

Negro Citizen

I hear about Brotherhood Week and wonder if some who call themselves fair treat their brothers well. I am of the race my light-skinned brothers hate and I often look at the money some of my people spend in the supermarkets and notice how few of my people you see checking groceries or clerking in the stores. We must get a job cleaning up after the people go home but we can't work on the floor. Wake up, Pontiac, give some of us a break. We will give you an honest day's work. We're not criminals.

Mrs. Ohio

How many people in Pontiac know they are supporting the NAACP and other Negro groups through United Fund financial aid. Why should the Urban League receive United Fund money? We gave for charity, not integrationists. The Urban League isn't a charity. It aims at racial integration and pushing of political policies in Congress and at home.

A. G. Y.

Mrs. J. H. M.'s letter was more a disgrace to the Negro race than Southern Negro's. Many appreciated Southern Negro's letter and they aren't all Negroes. I won't tell you to go South, but will ask you to reread your letter and search yourself and ask God to help you.

Another Prevails on Pet Thieves

I agree something should be done about the stolen pet situation. Mine is a cat, the only companion I have. How would those who take pets feel if we took their pets. I'm sure the animal shelter has all types of animals for the taking, but please leave others' pets alone. You could see my cat belonged to someone by the collar she wore and the way her fur looked.

Income Tax Notes

INTEREST INCOME

Interest which you receive or which is credited to your account is taxable unless it is specifically exempted from tax.

Most types of interest are taxable. The interest received on obligations of a state, territory, or political subdivision are nontaxable.

This does not apply to United States Savings bonds, however. If you own these bonds, you may elect to report the interest as it accrues each year, or you can wait until you cash the bonds and then report all the interest you have received.

You must report the same way on all this type of bonds that you own. Some of you may continue to hold the Savings Bonds past the original redemption date.

If you defer the reporting of interest, you may continue to defer such interest until the bond is actually redeemed.

Interest received from certain credit unions and savings and loan associations on your savings are termed "dividends" by these organizations.

These amounts paid as earnings on your savings are actually interest and must be reported as interest. These amounts do not qualify as dividends for the exclusion or for the dividend credit.

Read the instruction book for the answer to your tax questions. Where there is a doubt, telephone your local Internal Revenue Service office for the answer.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

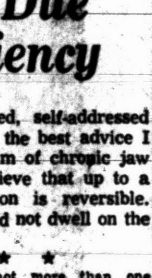

Try This 'Horse Sense' Diet Plan

Church ladies, by less strain on your girdles you can add an extra $1,000 to your church during Lent! Mary dropped from 172 pounds to an alluring 122 by the simple "horse sense" dieting method outlined below. And her mother lopped off 25 pounds which saved the family budget $2.50 per pound, so during Lent she thus contributed an extra $62.50.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE A-477: Mary B., aged 16, is the obese high schooler mentioned yesterday. Her weight of 172 was far too much for her 5' 4" height.

DR. CRANE

So I urged Mary and her mother to prepare their meals in the kitchen and then place the proper portions on their plates, before serving the latter in the dining room.

Dieters should NOT eat family style with heaping dishes of extra food in the center of the table!

For we subconsciously set our appetite to match the quantity of the food in sight.

Even a hungry hen will do the same, for a famous German experimenter named Bayer would starve a hen for 24 hours; then place her in front of a 100-gram pile of wheat.

Such a hen would now consume an average of 50 grams. But if she were placed in front of a 200-gram pile of wheat, she'd eat 80 to 100 grams!

So keep temptation away from the table and let the fixed portions on your dinner plate be your entire supply at that meal.

Excess weight is due to fluid and fat, so if you will cut down your fluid intake for the first 10 days, you can shed pounds faster.

Besides, as you get dried out, your mouth feels cottony. By the same token, your gastric juice seems to secrete in lesser quantity so you don't feel as hungry.

When church people are thinking of methods by which to raise extra money for worthy projects or do some penance, as during Lent, start a contest with reference to tobacco and obesity.

If the husbands smoke and the wives are too fat, let the husband cut out his cigarettes and donate the $2.50 per week spent thereon to the church budget.

If his wife loses even one pound per week, that saves $2.50 in groceries, so she can also add her $2.50 to the church collection.

LOSE 10 LBS.

To bolster your morale, you need a quick weight loss at the start, so I had Mary limit her calories to 800 per day.

But to help kill her hunger, I asked her to restrict her liquid intake to one full glass (8 ounces) the first day. She could then have 2 glasses the second and 3 glasses from the 3rd day through the 10th day.

If men want to go on this diet, they can take 1,200 calories in food, but hold to the same liquid intake, unless it is hot wather or they are doing heavy physical work that causes excess sweating.

But in cool weather, this restricted fluid intake will work without too much discomfort.

Some folks pour one glass of water in an empty ice tray and thus make many little wafers of ice. Sucking one on the tongue relieves thirst better than many times the same volume of water will do.

If you have a headache the first day, use an aspirin tablet to dull the pain. And include 400 to 500 calories worth of protein foods, for your body has plenty of sugar and fat stored away but no extra protein.

Your muscles, including the heart muscle, thus need fresh protein each day, so eat some meat, cottage cheese, beans, peas or other proteins daily.

And between meals then get away from food and candy, soft drink machines and similar temptations. Caffeine stimulates more gastric acid and thus makes you feel hungrier, so go low on caffeine beverages while on a diet.

Mary took off 11 lbs. in her first 10 days. Then she shifted to a slower diet for the long pull and got down to 122 by the end of the school term.

Send for my booklet "How to Lose 10 Lbs in 10 Days," enclosing a stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

Use it in your church to help raise $500 to $1,000 during Lent.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Cottage Blaze Kills 7 in Maine

5 Children Are Among Victims; Deep Snow Keeps Firemen Away

EASTON, Maine (AP) — Seven persons, including five children, perished early today in a fire that destroyed their five-room cottage in snow-bound Easton, about 10 miles from the Canadian border.

The victims were John Hersey, 41, five of his six children, and Carl Lundy, 50, an overnight guest.

The children were John, 12, Victoria, 8, James, 7, Elizabeth 5 and Cindy 4.

Hersey's wife, Christina, 40, and the only surviving child, Deanna, 13, escaped from the blazing 1½-story wooden dwelling by crashing through a first floor window.

Both suffered from burns, cuts on the face, chest and arms and from shock.

Snow drifts "four feet deep on the highways prevented help from reaching the scene in time.

An ambulance sent from Presque Isle, seven miles away, was able to maneuver only two miles in two hours before it bogged down.

Fire trucks sent from Mars Hill, eight miles away, could not get through at all. Only one heavy fire truck made it from Presque Isle.

Ironically, Hersey, a former professional boxer, was a firefighter at Loring Air Force Base, Limestone, Maine, 20 miles from his home.

Lundy was a laborer in Presque Isle.

Mrs. Dan Lovely, a neighbor, said she was awakened by screams in the Hersey residence. She said the house was enveloped in flames as she ran outside to help.

Mrs. Lovely gave first aid to Mrs. Hersey while another neighbor, Mrs. Charles Davis, helped Deanna. Mrs. Davis called the Easton fire department.

Ronald Lloyd, a neighbor, put heavy tire chains on his automobile to take Mrs. Hersey and her daughter to Gould Memorial Hospital. It took about an hour for the seven-mile trip.

Already Jailed 69 Years, Man, 83, Gets 3 More

DETROIT (AP)—Leon W. Hartent, who says he has spent 69 of his 83 years behind bars, has been given another three years in jail.

U.S. Dist. Judge Frank A. Picard sentenced Hartent Thursday for attempted bank robbery.

Bank guards grabbed Hartent when he walked into the National Bank of Detroit and handed a teller a note asking for $1,000.

Ding Dong Daddy About to Lose His 17th Wife

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Francis H. Van Wie's 17th wife filed for divorce Thursday.

"I had no idea," exclaimed Mrs. June Puckett Van Wie, 73. She said they were married in Lodi, Calif., June 15, 1957, and that Van Wie disappeared about a year later.

"He seemed like such a nice man and we were both so lonely," she added.

Van Wie, 72, is a former San Francisco trolleyman who was named the Ding Dong Daddy of the D car line after the number of his marriages came to light. He served two years in San Quentin Prison for bigamy and seven months in Los Angeles on a similar conviction in 1953.

Sen. Humphrey to Decide on '60

Will Know by Summer Whether He Will Seek Dem Nomination

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) said today he will decide by midsummer whether to be an all-out candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1960.

If he does decide to try actively for the nomination, he said in an interview, he will enter next year's Wisconsin presidential primary and others, primarily in the Midwest and on the West Coast.

But he said emphatically he would not enter state primaries where favorite son candidates might seek to tie down state delegations. One such is in California, where Gov. Edmund J. (Pat) Brown is expected to be entered.

Humphrey is mentioned as a possible Democratic presidential nominee next year along with many others. Sen. John Kennedy of Massachusetts, Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri, Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas, and Adlai Stevenson and others also figure in the speculation.

Asked about reports that he was seeking to block Kennedy in Wisconsin and other Midwest areas, Humphrey replied:

"I have a rule in my office that we are not against anyone. I do not believe in engaging in any movements to block anyone or to detract from the stature of anyone."

As to his own presidential plans, Humphrey insisted he has not yet made up his mind. He said his prime aim at this time is to seek re-election next year to a third six-year term in the Senate.

"One of my good friends told me the other day that 'you are in it whether you want to be or not'," Humphrey said. "The only only thing I can say to that at this point is that I am not saying."

Dice Game 'Witnesses' Get $11 Fine

MEMPHIS, TEnn. (AP) — One by one, five of the six men accused of shooting dice proclaimed their innocence Thursday before City Court Judge Beverly Boushe.

When it came George Drake's turn he hesitated and mumbled: "Well, I guess I'm the only one who was shooting."

Said the judge: "Drake, you can go. I'm fining everybody else $11 for witnessesing the first one-man dice game in history."

EOKA Survived Through Support of Greek Cypriots

(With peace restored to Cyprus, members of the Greek underground fighting arm which kept the Mediterranean island in turmoil for four years are beginning to emerge into the open. How did this small force keep up to 30,000 British troops baffled all that time? Webb McKinley, Associated Press chief of bureau in Istanbul, has been on Cyprus nearly two weeks seeking the answer. Here is his report.)

By WEBB McKINLEY

NICOSIA, Cyprus, (AP) — EOKA's war is over and the boys are heading home.

The wiry youths whom Britain so recently called terrorists now are hailed as heroes on the streets of Nicosia.

They do not look fierce. It is hard to imagine one padding silently along an alley, gun in hand, or waiting for the right instant to set off a land mine on a mountain road.

They look more like young clerks, accountants, students, electricians, lawyers or farmers — which in fact they once were.

But the four-year war they fought in EOKA, the Greek Cypriot underground, to free Cyprus from Britain was tough and ruthless. A total of 393 killings were attributed to EOKA. More than half the victims were Greek Cypriot civilians marked as traitors to the cause of Enosis, the union of Cyprus with Greece.

EOKA did not win Enosis. But on the advice of its leadership it accepted the plan for eventual independence for Cyprus.

The hatreds born in the struggle washed over into intercommunal fighting between Greek and Turkish Cypriots that took another 115 lives. All in all, including those killed by British security forces, the war left 601 dead and 1,260 wounded.

On the face of it, EOKA was battling hopeless odds. Its own hard core centered in the mountains probably never numbered more than 50 men, although the line of communication and part-time adherents ran into thousands. Against them, Britain threw in as many as 30,000 of its best troops.

How did EOKA do it?

The answer is Col. George Grivas, a Cyprus-born retired Greek army officer with the pseudonym of Dighenis, who formed the underground, led it and has now disbanded it.

"Looking back on it," a British intelligence official mused after Grivas called off the battle early this week, "he was ruthless, absolutely fearless, and a good organizer to the nth degree. In fact, he was the sort of chap you would want on your side if you had to do the same thing."

Grivas was 56 when he landed from Rhodes on the west coast of Cyprus the night of Nov. 9, 1954. Retired from the army in 1944, he had led a fanatically right-wing band in Greece after the war and gotten a name for hardness and efficiency.

He was called to Cyprus to organize a militant force to support Archbishop Makarios of the Greek Orthodox Church in his campaign for Enosis.

He immediately began to search for potential leaders in the Cyprus youth movement, discarding as he went along those with inadequate hardness or zeal. By the time his campaign opened, on April 1, 1955, he had around him a band of tough young men forming EOKA's inner core, and a second echelon of couriers, paymasters, quartermasters, recruiters and informants.

In the years that followed, EOKA had successes and some near disasters. By mid-1956, British intelligence was beginning to break through.

Even so, 1956 was the year that Field Marshal Lord Harding, the British commander in chief here, awoke one morning to find a time bomb in his bed.

In March 1957, when EOKA appeared to be near defeat, with many of its top men dead or captured, Britain accepted a truce.

But essentially, EOKA survived because it won almost complete support from the island's 400,000 Greek Cypriots, and because of its excellent organization and deadly discipline.

"We are all EOKA," the Greek Cypriot mayor of Nicosia once proclaimed.

On hundreds of occasions British troops would rush within minutes to the scene of a killing, only to find that the killers had vanished, furnished with escape routes by the populace. In the mountains peasants fed EOKA men and hid them.

Clown Injured in Hero Action

Carnegie Fund Says Judgment for Award Based on Risk

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—To qualify as a hero under Carnegie Hero Fund commission, an act of bravery must be preformed outside the line of duty and the hero must not be closely related to the person he saves. The final judgment is based on the degree of risk taken.

There was, for example, a tiny 27-year-old acrobatic clown named Alvin Schwartz at winter headquarters of the circus in Sarasota, Fla. On Dec. 9, 1954, he was watching aerialist Gladys Rimmer, 23, practice her act 25 feet up.

Suddenly, she slipped. Schwartz ran to a point directly beneath her. Gladys landed on his shoulder, suffering only minor bruises. The clown received fractured ribs and a kidney injury.

Carnegie once wrote: "I do not expect to stimulate or create heroism by this fund, knowing well that the heroic action is impulsive . . ."

Throughout the commission history, only two persons have reacted "impulsively" enough to win an award twice.

One was John J. O'Neill, 49, a road maintenance worker, who saved two women from drowning at Yonkers, N. Y., one in 1954 and the other in 1956. He received $500 and a bronze medal for each rescue.

In 1934, Henry Naumann, 46, saved a woman from being struck by a train at Hammond, Ind.

Three years later, he saved another woman's life at the same crossing. This time, one of his legs was crushed and had to be amputated. Naumann received a silver medal, $1,000 in disablement benefits and $80 a month for a year.

In trying to put his finger on what makes a hero, the late Dr. Thomas S. Arbuthnot, former president of the fund, noted that sometimes the "clay" of heroism, according to the "world's standards," is of "very inferior material."

The commission's assistant manager, Donald G. Sink, summed it up this way:

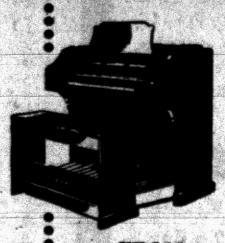

"I've been associated with the Hero Fund for 22 years in every phase. You meet the finest people in the world."

Can They Bear the New Hats?

Britons Must Choose Between Animals' Fur and Tradition

LONDON (AP) — Britons—who love animals as much as they love their traditional pageantry — are going to have to choose between the two.

On one side is the famed Brigade of Guards, whose tall, furry headgear is not what it used to be.

On the other side are shambling Canadian bears, who can provide the bearskins to make the hats.

The controversy began when former Royal Air Force man Peter Page complained in a letter to the London Times that the Guardsmen at Buckingham Palace were wearing bearskins that looked mangy and tattered.

Col. Michael O'Cock, whose Household Brigade supplies the palace guards, agreed the headgear was "a little scruffy." The Supply Ministry blamed a shortage of bearskins.

Mayor Leo De Villano of the Canadian town of Timmins, Ont., (population 28,790), cabled the Guards:

"We have heard you badly need bearskins for new hats. We feel we can easily supply — free — enough for the whole brigade by organizing a wide-scale black bear hunt. These skins are the best there are."

With War Office permission, Maj. Gen. Rodney Moore, commander of the Household Brigade, cabled accepting the offer.

Then someone wondered if the good townsfolk of Timmins realized what they were in for. A bearskin makes two hats. There are 3,000 Guardsmen in the brigade.

Said the brigade captain: "They're going to have to do an awful lot of shooting. I think we'll have to lend them a machine gun."

At that point the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals announced it was going to look into the bear hunt business.

Said an RSPCA spokesman: "The slaughter of 1,500 bears is a big task. To kill that number, gin-traps — banned in Britain — will probably be used."

He added: "Besides, the Guards would look just as elegant in imitation fur. Why can't they wear nylon bearskins?"

But that flouts tradition. The Guards have worn bearskins since 1832.

'Great Lover' Gets Five Days in Jail

CINCINNATI (AP)—Miss Hattie Tubbs told the court Thursday a stolen kiss was distinctly unwelcome.

Miss Tubbs, 23, testified in Police Court she was walking past a cafe when James Booker, 20, a stranger, stepped up and bussed her soundly.

Booker was charged with assault and battery. Asked why he kissed the woman, he said, "I donno."

"How much for the great lover?" asked prosecutor R. E. Cors.

"Five days," answered Judge R. E. Shannon.

Says Cohen's Girl Friend Lied About His Finances

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A federal grand jury says actress Liz Renay, ex-gambler Mickey Cohen's girl friend, lied about Cohen's finances.

The jury, investigating Cohen's sources of income for possible income tax violations, indicted Miss Renay Thursday on five perjury counts. The indictment accuses her of falsely saying she arranged for a third party to make loans of $2,000 and $3,500 to Cohen, and that Cohen repaid them.

Miss Renay was released on $1,500 bail.

Cohen served three years in federal prison after conviction of income tax evasion in 1952.

Dick Powell in Hospital

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Actor Dick Powell is in a hospital with a severe cold. He entered Wednesday and is expected to leave this weekend.

Soviets Seize Boats, Japanese Fishermen

TOKYO (AP)—The Soviets reportedly seized two Japanese fishing boats and 32 crewmen Thursday between Japan's northernmost island, Hokkaido, and the Soviet-held Kurile Islands.

The Japanese coast guard said Soviet patrol boats arrested the Sensho Maru and Koryo Maru about 13 miles off Shikotan Island, largest of the Kuriles.

The Soviet Union has now seized five Japanese vessels and 33 fishermen this year. Last year the Soviets captured 547 Japanese and 79 boats.

Moscow radio in a Japanese language broadcast warned that any fishing boat within 12 miles of a Soviet coastline would be captured.

11-Year-Old Has Formula for Guessing

CINCINNATI (AP) — Want to know how to win those guessing contests—how many beans in a jar, etc.?

Julia Colan of suburban Norwood has a formula.

Julia guessed within six ounces the correct weight of a big side of beef displayed here.

How?

"I took my age, 11, and put my grade in school in the middle," she said. "Then I substracted the six from the 11 to get the ounces."

Her estimate: 161 pounds, 5 ounces.

Julia won 161 pounds, 11 ounces of beef.

Policeman to Drink for Solons' Benefit

BOSTON (AP) — A Worcester policeman is going to get drunk at the State House next Monday.

The test was set up by the Legislative Committee on the Judiciary to determine the acceptability of evidence of drunkenness by machine tests.

The policeman — as yet unidentified — will be asked to drink six ounces of alcohol, about as much as is contained in a pint of 80 proof whisky.

The test is intended to show the degree of insobriety in a subject who has taken a known quantity of liquor.

The first United States coin containing nickel was a small one-cent piece issued in 1857. It was made of an alloy of 12 per cent nickel and 88 per cent copper.

Blue Cross' Birthday

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan Blue Cross will celebrate its 20th anniversary next Tuesday. The prepaid hospitalization-medical care plan signed its first customer on March 17, 1939 when it started as a three-man operation on a $10,000 loan from several hospitals. The program today covers nearly half a million families and pays benefits at the rate of 125 million dollars a year.

Bob Considine Says:

He Gave Full Measure in 'Favor' for Friend

NEW YORK—Did you gripe today while doing a friend a minor favor? Then let me tell you about a couple of Strategic Air Command officers I met the other night—Maj. Joe Maxwell of Norfolk, Va., and Lt. Jim Obenauf, Grayslake, Ill. Once upon a stormy night, the lieutenant did the major a little favor . . .

The 6-engined B47 from Dyess Air Force Base tooled over Texas on a training mission. The aircraft commander, Maj. Jim Graves, Joshua, Tex., held it steady at 34,000. The speed was better than 400 knots.

In the blind nose of the instrument-packed bomber, Maxwell, expert instructor navigator, leaned over the shoulder of the aircraft's regular navigator, Lt. John Cobb, Elko, Nev. He approved the way the younger man had "bombed" Amarillo and had now given the pilot a dead reckoning on Denver—next point on the night's mission.

Then, shockingly, terribly, the B47 shuddered under a sickening explosion.

"Fire! Let's get out of here! Bail out! Bail out! Bail out." It was the voice of Jim Graves. Somewhere, a million miles away, the alarm bell tried to make itself heard above the shriek of the aircraft as it slammed through the air. The right outboard engine was a blazing torch, hurling flying parts like a horrid pyrotechnic pinwheel. The swept-wing was sheathed in flame.

Cobb locked himself in his cramped little seat, released the hatch in the underslung jaw of the bomber, pressed the ejection trigger, and he and his seat shot down through the night.

KNOCKED UNCONSCIOUS

A skin-tearing blast of air struck Maxwell as he struggled to get into his chute. It ripped his helmet and oxygen mask off him, flung him along a narrow catwalk. He struck a bulkhead and was knocked unconscious. Flying debris covered him.

On the deck above, Graves pushed the lever which released the big plastic bubble that covered him and his co-pilot, Obenauf, seated behind him. He prepared himself for the shock of being catapulted upward and out of the way of the great sharp cleaver of the bomber's tail. But nothing happened. The ejection mechanics failed.

He took one last look at the burning engine, now shooting white-hot parts all around the swollen fuselage tanks, and climbed down to the open hatch in the nose. Two feet short of blessed escape, he realized he was still bound to his oxygen supply. He fought his way back to his seat, disconnected, and went down again.

In the black interior he could see Obenauf coming down from his own position. Obenauf's ejection seat also had failed. Graves dived head first through the open hatch. Obenauf prepared to follow.

SAW LIMP ARM

It was then that he saw Maxwell's arm extending limply from the debris that had collected at the back of the wind-tortured catwalk. Maxwell was stuck to the bulkhead like wet putty, and dying from lack of oxygen and exposure. It was 33 degrees below zero.

Dizzy from lack of oxygen himself, Obenauf fumbled helplessly in the stygian blackness, driven by the compulsion to find Maxwell's chute, somehow get the unconscious man into it, and throw him out.

He couldn't find the chute. He couldn't find Maxwell's mask. He was going to faint. The bomber, he sensed dully, was going to blow up like a bomb at any second. He had to get out . . . out . . . out. He owed it to his wife . . . his children. No man could blame him for leaving Maxwell behind.

In the eternity of the next few seconds, Obenauf made a decision which had to drain his soul. He turned his back on the escape hatch, clawed his way back to his co-pilot's seat, flung his full weight against the control (which had been locked automatically in the bailout process) and sent the B47 into a power dive for which it had not been built.

The wind cut at his eyes like a full-force fire hose of freezing water. Sand, which had collected in a thousand places in the open cockpit while the bomber was based on Guam, blasted his eyeballs.

The wind stream was so great he could not blink. He tried a plastic shield over his eyes, but then could not see the instruments. Obenauf cried "May day;" into his mike and leveled off at 5,500 feet. The fire in the engine had gone out. Maxwell was stirring.

Obenauf flew that big wounded bird 400 miles back to Dyess and was "talked down" to a perfect landing through turbulence and bad weather. From the air, he ordered an ambulance for Maxwell—and a bottle, for himself. He stepped out blinded.

This miracle of courage and friendship in its purest sense will be dramatized on NBC-TV's Goodyear Theater Monday night. It should be a reminder that we're still breeding first class men for our air force.

It should be a reminder, too, that perhaps you didn't do too much for your friend after all.

His Idea Switches Luck to Better Way

DETROIT (AP) — Kermit Schell's luck has taken a turn for the better.

Schell, a factory worker, had his car demolished in an accident several months ago. His wife, Ruth, was hospitalized for a major operation two months ago.

Two weeks ago, Schell, 50, was hospitalized for treatment of an ulcer.

Thursday, Schell was awarded $2,500 first prize in the employe suggestion program at the auto plant where he works. He suggested a new plan for painting auto fenders.

FLAT ROCK, N.C. (AP)—Poet Carl Sandburg, exhausted by travel, work and the pain of an ulcerated tooth, is taking a week's rest on doctor's orders.

His wife said Thursday that Sandburg, 81, biographer of Abraham Lincoln, has been on the move continuously since Lincoln's birthday anniversary Feb. 12.

Sandburg canceled a lecture set for Bangor, Maine, tonight.

Drop Oppenheimer School Name Honor

LEVITTOWN, Pa. (AP) — The school board for this commuters' community decided Thursday night that Woodrow Wilson would be a better name for its new high school than J. Robert Oppenheimer.

When the Bristol Township board decided last year to name the high school after the famed scientist, often called the "father of the atom bomb," the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars raised a hue and cry.

In 1954, the Atomic Energy Commission denied Dr. Oppenheimer security clearance, although affirming his loyalty to this country. The commission, during lengthy hearings, had asked him questions about alleged Communist associations in his younger days.

At a meeting attended by 400 people Thursday night, the board voted 4-2 to rename the school after the World War I president.

Common Market Outpunches Panzers

Mark May Conquer France

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Editor

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI)—The West German manufacturer remarked with a wry grin: "It may be we'll do with the mark what we couldn't do with the panzers."

In two world wars, Germany failed to conquer France.

What the manufacturer meant was that the Germans might do it now in peacetime with money. It was one of those exaggerated remarks which hold a kernel of truth.

Germany is in the common market which knocked down tariff barriers and was designed to encourage free trade among Germany, France, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg. For internal Germany, the common market which came into being at the end of last year had practically no immediate effect at all.

In 1957 the Germans had, all by themselves, lowered tariff barriers 25 per cent, meaning that scarcely any change was necessary when the common market came into being.

On the other hand, it did mean that both France and Italy had to make substantial changes.

Last year, for example, France permitted less than three million dollars worth of German automobiles to be imported into France, and permitted altogether from all common market countries only about five million dollars worth.

Under the common market agreement, France must open her markets to more than 40 million dollars worth of foreign automobile imports.

Automobiles are the outstanding example, but there are other important markets, too, previously limited to quota restrictions which now will be open to German manufacturers.

Meanwhile, as France moved toward convertibility of the franc, it was necessary that other countries give her help in guaranteeing that the franc would remain stable. One of the guarantors was West Germany to the tune of a better-than-60-million-dollar stand-by credit.

Entering into the French economic picture also are the anticipated heavy investment of West German money in French projects in Sahara Desert development.

Bees Fascinate Food Faddists

Pollen, Royal Jelly Have No Practical Value for Humans, Says FDA

(This is the third and final dispatch on phony food and drug claims and what's being done to stop the racket.)

By LOUIS CASSELS

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Some of the "health foods" sold to Americans have strange origins.

A few weeks ago, the U.S. Food & Drug Administration lowered the boom on a West Coast firm that was selling candy treated with pollen as a "wonder food" to repair worn-out tissues, relieve coughs and hay fever, and help you get a good night's sleep.

The price: $9.95 for a box containing 16 small pieces of candy.

The FDA said pollen is fine food for bees, but it has "no practical value for human nutrition."

Bees seem to fascinate food faddists. A perennial best-seller, which has survived repeated FDA investigations, is royal jelly.

This is a gelatinous substance secreted by worker bees and fed to the queen bee. Put up in capsules, it is sold at fabulous prices to people who believe that if they eat the queen bee's food, they will be able to emulate her long life and extraordinary reproductive prowess.

The fear of failing sexual powers is also exploited by peddlers of "Vitamin E" preparations.

The pitch here is that rats eat a lot of Vitamin E and everyone knows how fervent their sex life is. Actually, Vitamin E has no aphrodisiac qualities. Besides, it is so widely present in ordinary foods that it is practically impossible for anyone to be deficient in it.

Not all of the fad foods come in pills and capsules. Many people are convinced that there is something magical about yogurt and blackstrap molasses, and they strain both their taste buds and their pocketbooks to include these items in their daily diet.

Reputable nutrition scientists assert that:

1. Yogurt has the same nutritional value as the milk from which it was made.

2. Blackstrap molasses is not a great deal more nutritious than diluted sugar.

Most so-called "health foods" are harmless in themselves, becoming dangerous only when they are taken as a substitute for needed medical care.

But the American Medical Association warns that some preparations sold as "reducing aids" contain drugs that are dangerous to health.

Reducing aids are the reverse side of the food fad coin. They find a ready market because they are addressed to the only really serious nutritional problem that exists in America—20 per cent of the population is overweight.

A congressional committee last year conducted an investigation of "medicated" candies, bulk producers, appetite depressants, special cigarettes, and other products sold with the claim that they make dieting easy or unnecessary.

The committee concluded that such preparations are worthless—and that the best method to pare off excess fat is to "push yourself away from the table."

Young Rowdies Who Like Their Candy Ick Victim

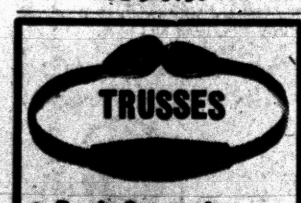

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI) — David Alexander, 6, complained that two young rowdies robbed him in broad daylight while he was on his way home from school—and then added insult to injury.

"What makes me so mad," said David, was that "when they turned me loose, they went right across the street to a candy store and spent my whole six cents right there."

Strange, Ominous Feature of Recovery

Joblessness Well Above 'Normal'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Although production is high and income has been breaking records from month to month, unemployment is still well above the "normal" mark.

This is a curious and possibly ominous feature of the recovery from the 1957-58 business recession.

The highest administration economists concede privately that it might mean the nation is in for a higher average level of unemployment than in the pre-recession period of prosperity.

Total output of goods and services now is perhaps a trifle larger than in the summer of 1957 before the recession began.

4.7 MILLION IDLE

But there were 4,724,000 persons out of work in January, or six per cent of the total labor force. The jobless total ran to only four and a half per cent of the labor force in the pre-recession period.

Why has unemployment failed to improve as rapidly as other aspects of the economic situation? Economists give these reasons:

—A workman can produce more in one hour today because of technological advances and greater investment by businessmen in better machines, drills, computers, forges and other equipment.

—The labor force has grown even faster than output and relatively fewer jobs are therefore available.

—As in all recessions, businessmen were left more cost-conscious and more apt to retrench until orders and sales pick up substantially.

A close look at the figures shows that joblessness is concentrated in manufacturing. It is precisely in this sector of the economy that labor's productivity has improved most.

Take automobiles, for example. Federal Reserve Board reports show that December production was down four per cent from December 1956, while employment was off by 20 per cent.

Economists point out that production always rises faster than job opportunities as the economy pulls out of a slump, since employers make fuller use of their facilities and lengthen the work week before hiring additional help.

Longer work weeks and higher pay rates explain why wage and salary incomes in January ran at a record annual rate of $244-500,000,000. Total personal income — wages and salaries, rents, interest, dividends, proprietors' earnings—climbed to an all-time high rate of $362,300,-000,000.

But there is a limit to overtime. Once it is reached and demands for a factory's goods still pour in, the boss has no choice but to hire extra hands.

DAY IS APROACHING

Administration economists say that for the nation as a whole, that day is now approaching.

By the end of 1959, they say, the jobless rate will be well below six per cent.

But they stop short of predicting it will drop to the four and a half per cent of pre-recession days. In fact, they say the so-called "normal" unemployment rate of the 1956-57 period may not be achieved again in the foreseeable future.

The labor force is growing by about 700,000 men and women a year.

In a few years, this growth may be even greater as the bumper crop of "war babies" reaches working age.

Can the economy find enough jobs for these new secretaries, plasterers, engineers, lawyers, salesmen, cobblers, chiefs, trainmen, etc.?

Most economists answer "yes."

But they hasten to add that in the coming months the outlook may not be too bright for the "hard core" of 1,375,000 Americans who have been out of work for 15 weeks or more.

The first successful interception of an airplane by a guided missile took place in November 1951, when the Army's Nike-Ajax destroyed a World War II-model B17 drone target.

Aching Feet Bring Thanks to These GIs

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — It's nothing new when GIs complain about sore feet after a 20-mile hike but it is new when their gripes draw a sincere vote of thanks.

The thanks came from the Franklin Institute Laboratories, which said the complaints played a vital part in development of the "FILPIP"—the Franklin Institute Laboratories Pressure Indicating Patch, which seeks out and measures body pressures.

The FILPIP is an electronic recording device developed by the laboratories after they were asked by the Army to determine if GI boots were adequately designed to take care of the pressures between the toes and between the boot and the ground.

Ike Sure U.S. Could Crush Russia in War

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's tough stand against the Soviet Union on Berlin apparently is based on the belief that the United States could smash the Soviets in an all-out war — if it comes any time soon.

Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy has expressed such a view repeatedly in recent weeks. So have others. They are basing their faith on American bombers, not on ground troops.

Eisenhower himself this week ruled out land war by conceding the United States and its allies are far outmatched by the Soviets on the ground. He did not rule out nuclear war.

Nuclear war would have to be carried out by the American Strategic Air Command, which could strike from bases around the U.S.S.R. American reliance on bombers will change as both this country and the Soviet Union develop missiles.

Democrats in Congress have protested that the administration is letting the Soviets gain an ever widening lead in missiles. Eisenhower replies that he knows exactly what he's doing.

The Western alliance is holding together against Premier Nikita Khrushchev's demand that the Allies get their troops out of Berlin. No one knows for sure why he chose to precipitate a crisis over Berlin now.

There could be several reasons: to gain Western recognition for the Communist East German regime; to weaken the West's will to resist just a little bit by trying to force the West into concessions to avoid a showdown that might mean war; or, through Western fear of war, weaken the whole Western alliance.

By not ruling out the possibility of nuclear war, Eisenhower actually raised the possibility of it. In a nuclear war the Soviets, even though being smashed at home, would seek to retaliate in kind, the nearest target is Western Europe.

What looks like a solid Western alliance now might fall apart if this country's European allies came up to the brink of their own devastation over the question of refusing to budge on Berlin.

If the Soviets in a few years have missile superiority—missiles that could crush Western Europe and missiles that could cross the ocean to hit this country — what will this do to American toughness and will to resist?

These are all questions simmering in the Berlin kettle and the arguments between the administration and the Democrats over future defense plans.

Airmen Shown Dress Uniform

Sergeant Models New Black and Silver Outfit for Non-Coms

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UPI) — Master Sgt. Tom Rhone has been conducting a one-man fashion show at the North American Air Defense Command here, but it ends in early April.

Rhone, whose regular duties are in the NORAD Office of Information Services, donned an unfamiliar black and silver uniform in early January and has been wearing it since.

The senior master sergeant is one of 15 from 14 different Air Force commands who have been working for months on the design of a new optional off-duty dress uniform for non-commissioned Air Force officers.

The uniform board held numerous conferences and finally came up with the all-black uniform with silver trimmings that Rhone is now wearing at NORAD headquarters. Rhone's job: to make sure the uniform is shown to as many NCO's as possible.

The uniform, a radical departure from the regulation Air Force "blues," came about as a result of a Pentagon decision that Air Force "noncoms" need a dress uniform adaptable to formal wear.

Besides the extreme change of the black-and-silver color combination, the insignia of rank has been moved to the forearm of the blouse. The usual Air Force patch has been replaced at the shoulder with the words "United States Air Force" in silver, and a silver strip has been added down the outside of each trouser leg. Buttons are the present official silver Air Force buttons.

The cap, also black, features the present insignia embroidered in silver. But the insignia is contained in the outline of a shield instead of the usual circle.

The 15 sergeants on the uniform board meet again in April for a final decision on the uniform. If adopted, it will be "optional," meaning the NCO will have to buy it out of his own funds if he wants one.

Rhone says he has attracted a lot of attention during his stint as a fashion model, most of it favorable.

But there's one exception: air and military policemen are continually stopping him for "being out of uniform."

In a Pickle Over Kraut

ST. CATHERINES, Ont. (UPI)—John Cer insisted he doesn't even like sauerkraut when accused of lugging home a three-gallon crock of sauerkraut from a party he had attended as a guest. Cer was found guilty anyway, but received a suspended sentence.

Au Revoir Hillman, Hello Une Maison Ranch

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — The American social-climber has had tough treading recently—largely due to a confusion in the automobile picture.

For years (since the height of the family TV aerial ceased to indicate social status), he has depended upon his car to be a symbol of success. Lately the situation has become muddled. Did the ultra-big car symbolize affluence? Or was it more chic to have a small model from faraway factories?

The social snob is bewildered. He finds he must now turn to other resources to prove he is better than the Joneses and durn near neck-and-neck with the Rockefellers.

According to Vance Packard, analyst of advertising and motivational research, the newest supposed symbol of success is the home.

In a forthcoming book called "The Status Seekers," he points out that the great multitude of up-striving Americans have come to realise that the auto is too easily obtainable by the masses. His status symbol in the immediate future will be a "house of distinction."

Home-builders, spotting the trend, are now turning out houses with "snob appeal," and advertising them accordingly. A check of the classified section in the newspapers proves Packard's contention. He states that French phrases will not only impress, but often will sell, the middle-income buyer—French being "the language of the snob."

So—a successful ad reads:

"C'est magnifique! Une maison ranch tres originale aveo 8 rooms, 2½ baths . . . 2-Cadillac garage . . . $21,900."

Other builders, quoted by Packard, refer to their parlors as "the living forum" or the "reception galleria." A small bedroom is "the sleeping chamber."

These, for the people who bought a small foreign car, and now progress further into the chico of the small foreign home.

But another aspect of striving ambition is a desire to insinuate one is descended from an early American family. These are the folks with spinning wheels in the foyer and antiques from pillar to hitching-post. A Connecticut antiques dealer is quoted as saying, "Only one buyer in 50 has any real interest in antiques. The rest are giving themselves family backgrounds."

Any day, in the newspaper, one can see the evidence of snob advertising for home sites. In Long Island, N. Y., one out of every two homes is called a "ranch." Others are called "estates," or "miniature mansions."

In Teaneck, N. J., a house is advertised: "Hark! Brick colonial. $29,500."

A building consultant reports that any lot larger than one-fourth acre can be reasonably described as an "estate," and anything larger than one-half acre is a "farm."

Another phase of what the experts call a "kultural kick" among home-buyers is their desire to appear intellectual, as well as affluent and old-family. The once-popular "recreation room" in the American home is now being called the "den" or "study." Soon it will be the "library," and books will be bought by the yard.

And here, in the library, surrounded by floor-to-ceiling assurances of their intelligence status, the family will gather cozily at night, to peruse the old classics...

He Got What He Wanted to the Tune of $50,000

TOLEDO, Ohio (UPI) — William A. Bodinus of Toledo joined the city's police force on July 5, 1893, because he wanted the security of a pension.

After 25 years on the force, Bodinus retired in 1918. He's 90 years of age now and has already drawn nearly $50,000 in pension payments.

U.S. Airplane Nearly Hit Our Ship—Reds

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio charged today a U. S. Navy plane swooped four times over a Soviet ship off Japan and almost hit its mast.

The Soviet report said a green-painted plane flew so low over the Soviet ship Aleksandr Mozhaisky Feb. 2 that the pilot's face could be seen. The broadcast said the magazine Soviet Russia published a picture of the aircraft flying low over the ship.

The plane's number was given as "135545" with the inscription "Navy UP19" on the fuselage and the figure "10" on the nose.

B. A. Grishin, captain of the Soviet ship bound for Vladivostok, complained: "Such flights by American aircraft over Soviet vessels in the Pacific and neighboring seas have become the rule."

A week ago the Soviets protested the U.S. Navy search of a Soviet trawler suspected of cutting transatlantic cables off Newfoundland.

Pontiac Press Photos

Here is Anna, (played by Marilyn Vernon) surrounded by the royal children of the court of Siam. Standing at the right is Nancy Donaldson, holding the poster she designed for the play. The Pontiac Central High School music and drama departments are presenting the musical from March 17 through March 21.

Looking on with disapproval is the palace guard, played by David Lemanski, as the two lovers, Luptim (Sharon Pike) and Luntha (Dennis Zimmerman) sing one of the romantic numbers from "The King and I."

Herrington PTA Holds Dads' Night

Fathers Night was held by Herrington School PTA Wednesday evening at the school.

Lester J. Davison, father vice president, presided and Paul Allison, of the board of education was guest speaker.

Officers elected for the coming year are Mrs. Fred J. Brom, president; Mrs. Leonard Buzz, mother vice president; Philip Kells, father vice president; Mrs. Hazen Reynolds, teacher vice president; Mrs. Ronald Black, recording secretary; Mrs. Delbert Dunn, corresponding secretary; Edward Lenon, treasurer, and Karnik Mossoian, member at large.

Refreshments were furnished by Virginia Fowler's fourth grade room. Mrs. Effie Mitchell and Mr. Davison served.

Joan Grahek Elected Head of Les Filles

Joan Grahek was named president of the Les Filles Club when the group met Wednesday at the home of Gretchen and Carolyn Gaensbauer on Illinois avenue.

Other new officers of the club include Pam Griffin, vice president; Marilyn Sharette, recording secretary; Susan Rogers, corresponding secretary; Sandra Shapiro, treasurer; Monita Calhoun, parliamentarian; and Shererie Dudley, historian.

February project of the club was a party to honor outgoing members. This month the charity project is sewing cancer pads.

To Run 5 Days at Pontiac Northern High

Musical Set to Open March 21

Pontiac Central High School music and drama departments are now in final rehearsals for "The King and I" by Rodgers and Hammerstein.

The hit Broadway musical will be presented March 17 and 19 at a matinee at 3:15 p.m., and March 18, 20 and 21 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium at Pontiac Northern High School.

This musical with its blend of humor, charm, and drama has captivated Broadway and motion picture audiences for nearly a decade. This is the story of Ann Leonowens, the young English widow who has been brought to Siam to import Western culture to the king's court. She manages not only to educate the king's numerous wives and children but the king himself.

BIG CAST

The following students from the Vocal Department will be participating: Lynn Walker, as the King; Marilyn Vernon as Anna; Sharon Pike as Tuptim; Charlotte Osmun and Sally Warren as Lady Thiang; David Brien, Louis; James McIntosh as Captain Orton; James Baker as the Prince and Dennis Zimmerman as Luntha.

Those who have speaking parts include James Bank, the Interpreter; Clark Davis, the Kralahome; Carl Pappas, Phra Alack; and Tom O'Brien as Sir Edward Ramsay.

Wives of the King are Evelyn Kerr, Marjorie Crowder, Ann Gillies, Martha Sousanis, Sandra McDowell, Kay Jerome, Peggy Warren, Charlotte Osmun and Karen Oxley.

CHILDREN TAKE PART

The Siamese children will be played by children in various Pontiac elementary schools. They are Marilyn Barnett, Crofoot; Susie Hollis, Webster; Robert and Sonja Hutchison, Whitfield; Earl E. Myers, Malkim; Roger Putnam, Webster; Michael Quick, LeBaron; Anita and Juanita Sadler, Willis; Roger Smith, Crofoot; and Johanna Lynn Yansen, Webster. Others are Laura Ochoa, McConnell; Nina Louise Cruicca and Kathy Bailey, Webster. Lynn Buchman is a preschooler.

A 24-piece orchestra will accompany the show. Twelve of this group will be high school students. They are: Mildred Metzer and Mary Mitchell, violin; Janet Reed, viola; Terry Wilkins and Michael Pierce, percussion; James Williams, bassoon; Ann Barnett and Richard DeBolt, clarinets; Sheila Kinder, flute; and Jerry Cunningham, Janice Pletsch and Charles Parmenter, trumpets.

Other Pontiac musicians who will complete the orchestra are: Cleobelle Coleman, Robert Peterson, Rodney Johnson, violins; George Eckroth, viola; Mrs. Jean Sturgeon, cello; Kenneth Hamilton, bass; Roger Welton, flute; Jay W. Young, trombone; and Frank Merwin, drums. Gary Relyea is pianist and the rehearsal accompanists have been Deanna Relyea and Carol Wargelin.

Mrs. Trachet Is Elected to Head LeBaron PTA

Officers were elected at the LeBaron School PTA meeting Thursday evening in the school multi-purpose room.

Mrs. Robert Trachet was elected president. Other new officers include Mrs. Earl Vought, vice president; Norris Smith, father vice president; Mrs. John Buchanan, teacher vice president; Mrs. John Kevorkian, secretary; Mrs. Melvin Raymer, treasurer; Mrs. Roy Church, historian, and Edward McKinney, auditor.

Special music was presented by the school's band under the direction of William Brown. Harry Avesian, physical education teacher, showed the group a film entitled "They Grow Up so Fast," followed by a student demonstration of their work from first grade through the sixth.

The program was concluded with eight boys showing the "Growth of a Child" in tableau form.

Mothers of children in classes of Bonnie Davidson and Mrs. Paula Kennerly served refreshments with Miss Davidson and Mrs. Kennerly pouring.

By JANET ODELL

"The world is so full of a number of things" that we can't possibly discuss them all. But we'll try to include a good many subjects in the home-making field.

We are embarking on a new column devoted to items and ideas for and about the home. We welcome any suggestions from our readers about subjects to cover.

Aren't you just aching to do something to relieve the monotony of snow and cold weather and headcolds and all the bedragglement of the end of winter? How about a new, inexpensive tablecloth?

MAKE IT GAY

Flower-printed chintz will lend a summery air to your round table. If you choose an all-over pattern, the seams won't show. After putting a narrow hem around the bottom, stitch on matching or contrasting fringe for a Victorian note. Use linen napkins in the same color.

We have found that both sailcloth and denim make excellent, long-wearing tablecloths. The denim we merely stitched down the middle. But we split one length of the sailcloth and stitched it to each side of a full length. Then we sewed contrasting tape trim over the seams. Both cloths wash beautifully.

A number of housewives are using self-adhering coverings to brighten up their kitchens. You know, the plastic material with an adhesive backing that comes in rolls about 18 inches wide.

We know it is being used instead of shelf paper in cupboards and drawers. You can carry the idea a step further and cover waste baskets and canister sets. Dress up a splash area. Make panel effects on cupboard doors.

EVEN ON SILLS

One authority even suggests covering window sills, especially if they are subject to water condensation. Once you start, you'll probably think of other ways to use the material.

A new book on home decorating came to our desk recently. Like the Arabian Nights, it has 1,001 ideas for perking up your home. There are a good many pictures in color which should spur you on to try some of the suggestions.

NEEDN'T SPEND A LOT

Becoming aware of just such a simple thing makes you realize that you don't need a lot of money to achieve an interesting, attractive home.

You can get this book from Consolidated Trimming Corp., 27 West 23rd Street, New York City. Send a quarter and ask for Book 16.

Portraits

By JAMES J. METCALFE

Psychiatrists for children are . . . An educated lot . . . And most are capable to cope . . . With almost any tot . . . Of course there are exceptions as . . . The doctor gives command . . . And some indulgent mother does . . . Not lend a helping hand . . . The mother can do so much more . . . If she will just obey . . . Instructions from the doctor for . . . Her life from day to day . . . The most important job is hers . . . To tackle and to do . . . Except, of course, the father must . . . Exert his efforts too . . . And so the real solution to . . . That family situation . . . Is mother, dad, psychiatrist . . . And full cooperation.

Rebekah Unit Plans March 26 Initiation Rite

Plans to initiate candidates on March 26 were made when 50 members of Welcome Rebekah Lodge No. 246, met Thursday evening at Malta Temple.

The charter was draped in memory of Mrs. Mary Ogden, who died March 6.

Mrs. Laura Keslar of Lansing's Rebekah Lodge No. 443, was a guest at the meeting.

Husband Needs Refresher Course—Abby

Time for This Wife to Seek Help

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: If I told you all that was wrong with my husband they would close down the paper. My biggest complaint is that he is stingy. He counts his money three times every night before going to bed because he thinks I might get up at night and pick his pockets. I want a store permanent for Easter so I had to borrow eight dollars off my mother. I can drive a car but he never lets me.

ABBY

"If he takes me anywhere I have to put in a dollar for gas. He calls me stupid in front of the children, doesn't believe in life insurance, and off and on, he acts like a single man. Please tell me what to do."

BREAKING POINT

DEAR BREAKING: Borrow bus fare from your mother and call on your clergyman. Your mate needs a refresher course in what a husband should contribute to a marriage. If you have no clergyman, consult your Family Service Assn. Their help is excellent, friendly and free.

"DEAR ABBY: Our daughter is marrying a young man in June. He's a country boy whom she met at college. We've never met his people but we know they live on a farm. We are city people and plan to have a formal church wedding. I doubt if the MRS. has a formal or the MR. a tuxedo and I'm sure their relatives have nothing but overalls. It would be a pity to ruin the looks of our wedding. I wonder how we can be sure these people will either dress properly or stay at home."

WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: You cannot get a written guarantee that these people will dress properly; neither can they be assured that YOU will dress properly. Farmers know what "formal" means so don't count your chickens before you catch the rooster.

"DEAR ABBY: I came home from school and told my grandmother that I gave my bus driver a picture of me. He is in his forties and is married to a very nice woman. Grandma said I should get the picture back. I said I gave him the picture as a person who had ridden his bus. If my grandma is right I will ask for the picture, although I can see no harm in him having it. Do you think I should ask him? I am 14 and the picture was wallet size."

BUS RIDER

DEAR RIDER: Since you already gave him the picture, let him keep it. But in the future, it's best to "trade" pictures only with friends of your own age.

"DEAR ABBY: We are having the worst time with our 12-year-old son. He shows a great talent for music. He can go to the piano and pick out a tune and he even plays the drum in the school band after only a few hours of coaching.

"Our problem is that we want to give him piano lessons but he doesn't want to take piano. He wants to take guitar. My husband says a guitar is no musical instrument and he isn't throwing out good money on that nonsense. I say let him take piano for a few years and then we'll give him a guitar. I'd like your opinion."

MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: The guitar IS a musical instrument—and a good one. If your son wants guitar lessons—give him guitar lessons.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MAUREEN: One whisker doesn't make a beard. Give him another chance and get off his back.

McCarroll PTA Elects Officers

Mrs. Sidney Olson was named president of McCarroll School PTA when members met Wednesday.

Others elected were Mrs. Farris Stevens, vice president; Mrs. John Dugan, father vice-president; Mrs. Jack Cole, secretary; and Mrs. Christian Schmidt, treasurer.

Mrs. Oren Clauson, Mrs. Elton Losey and Mrs. Truman Nelson were chosen council delegates.

Vincent Syracuse of the Leader Dog for the Blind training school at Rochester was speaker for the afternoon. He told of the work at the school and gave a demonstration of commands with his dog Prince.

The McCarroll band played several selections. Refreshments were served by homeroom mothers of Mrs. Howard Wooley's class.

Cleanliness is the basis foundation of good-grooming and with the aid of exciting toiletry items it should be no time at all before your youngster looks forward eagerly to her daily bath.

Others Won't Notice

Lipstick Helps to Reshape Mouth

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Q. "I am 14 years old and my bottom lip is larger than my upper lip. This ruins my profile. Is there anything I can do about it?"

A. When you wear lipstick you can pull the line in a little on your lower lip and take it out a bit on your upper lip. This will minimize the effect, front view. I do not know of anything you can do sideview, except forget it. This is much more noticeable to you than to others. They probably do not even think of it at all.

Q. "Please tell me how to add fat to my legs. I am on a diet because I am a few pounds overweight, but my legs are still too skinny."

A. The only way you can add fat to your legs is to gain weight. You can increase your leg measurement by developing the leg muscles. If you or any of my readers, would like to have my exercises for the legs, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 13, "Take Steps Toward Lovely Legs."

Q. "Is it good to use an ice cold cloth on a dry skin?"

A. We think of using ice cold cloths in order to close the pores. Enlarged pores more often are connected with oily skin than with dry skin. Therefore, we think of this more as a measure for oily complexions.

Q. "Is baby oil good to cleanse a dry skin?"

A. I think it is rather heavy. A cream would be better for cleansing.

Q. "Should a woman with dry skin ever wash her face or should she always cleanse it with cream or oil?"

A. If the skin is extremely dry, it probably is best to use no soap at all. If you do use some, be sure it is not high in alkali content.

Q. "I am 14 years old, five feet three-and-a-half inches tall and weigh 120 pounds. I think my waistline is too thick. Should I exercise or go on a diet or both?"

A. You are a little overweight. Do not go on a real diet but give up some of the in-between meal items and do not take seconds at meals for a while. If you will watch this, you soon will lose four or five pounds.

Q. "I am seventeen years old, 5 feet, 2½ inches tall and weigh 142 pounds. My bust measures 36, waist 28 and hips 36½ inches. I feel that I am overweight but my friends tell me that I am just right. I have a large frame. What do you think?"

A. I feel that you should lose some weight even though you do have a large frame. Your measurements are in good proportion. You might lose an inch or so from the waist measurement. Do not diet drastically for you need a well-balanced diet. Cut out trimmings, second helpings, take moderate portions at meals and leave off in-between meal snacks except for fresh fruit.

Tomorrow: Don't Neglect Arms; They Need Special Beauty Care."

Marmalade in the Cake Gives Unusual Flavor

Pontiac Press Home Editor

Did you ever make a cake with marmalade in it? Mrs. Elmer Dunlap of Hammond Lake says it is one of her favorite cakes. Use a creamy Orange frosting to emphasize the flavor of the cake.

Mrs. Dunlap loves to sew. She is interested in church work and often entertains church groups. Baking is another hobby.

MARMALADE CAKE
By Mrs. Elmer Dunlap

2¾ cups sifted flour
1½ cups sugar
1½ teaspoons soda
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon cloves
⅔ cup shortening
1¼ cups buttermilk
4 eggs
1 cup sweet orange marmalade
1 cup chopped nuts
1 tablespoon grated orange rind

Sift flour, sugar, soda, salt and spices in a bowl. Add shortening and buttermilk. Beat at low speed for 1½ minutes. (225 strokes by hand).

Add eggs and beat another 1½ minutes. Stir in marmalade, nuts and orange rind. Bake in two 9-inch layer pans that have been greased and floured on bottom only. Bake 45-55 minutes at 350 degrees.

Creamy Orange Frosting

⅓ cup butter or margarine
1 pound sifted confectioners sugar
1 unbeaten egg
½ teaspoon vanilla
¼ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
1-3 tablespoons orange juice
Orange coloring

Cream shortening, gradually add sugar. Blend in egg, vanilla, salt and rind. Add enough orange juice to make good spreading consistency. Add orange coloring.

GOP Chairmen Still Undecided

Nixon Lacks Backing, Says Pro-Rockefeller Man From Michigan

LANSING (UPI) — A Michigan Legislator, trying to organize "Rockefeller for President" groups throughout the nation, said he was surprised at how many Republican state chairmen were undecided on whom they would back in 1960.

Rep. George W. Sallade (R-Ann Arbor) said he had 25 or 30 responses from state party chairmen on his queries about getting organizations going to boost New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller for the Republican Presidential nomination.

"I was surprised at their taking a middle position," Sallade said, "because you would think that many of them would be boosting (Vice President Richard) Nixon at this point."

Rockefeller recently passed a strong test in his home state when he broke a GOP majority revolt in the state Legislature and pushed through a two-billion-dollar spending program and a tax boost to finance it.

Sallade said he was working now on starting an organization in Ohio and expected to have it under motion soon. He also indicated plans were forming for Connecticut, Florida and Indiana.

2 Years, $24,000 but Elusive Leak Still Not Found

WASHINGTON (AP)—Leaks in the autopsy room of the District of Columbia coroner's office are becoming a matter of deep congressional concern.

The problem is summed up by the following exchange that occurred during hearings of a House Appropriations subcommittee:

Rep. Louis Rabaut (D-Mich), subcommittee chairman: How much money have you spent to try to correct those leaks?

Dr. A. M. MacDonald, district coroner: A total of $24,000 in a two-year period to renovate the building.

Rabaut: You still have leaks. That is not very good management. Something is wrong some place.

Dr. MacDonald: The question is whether it is the roof that is leaking or whether it is the heating system.

Rabaut: How many years will it take to get this decision?

Dr. MacDonald: That is what I have been worrying about.

Rabaut: Let us look into it and have a report on that.

Truck Rumbles Out of Control

Injures 4, Clips 10 Cars, Scatters Blueberries on Pittsburgh Street

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A tractor-trailer driven by a Michigan man went out of control on a busy street yesterday and rumbled through a smal lpark, clipping 10 autos and scattering its cargo of blueberries along the way. Four persons suffered minor injuries.

The truck sideswiped three moving cars, smashed into a utility pole, rolled across a corner of west park and plowed into seven parked autos.

The impact with the pole sheared off the left side of the trailer. About 100 cans of berries tumbled out. Firemen flushed the berries off the street, and city workers picked up the damaged cans for dumping.

The truck driver, Edward J. Pastrick, 46, of Bridgman, Mich., said his brakes failed. Pastrick, who drives for the B. A. Peters Co., Benton Harbor, Mich., was treated and detained at a hospital for x-rays.

Direct Hit on Policeman Ends Yale Snow Fling

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — About 300 Yale students had a brief fling Thursday night. It lasted until one of them flung a snowball at a policeman.

The students were gathered near the campus throwing snowballs at motorists, police said. Motorists stopped, police arrived, and someone beaned a cop.

The result: eight patrol cars and paddy wagons arrived, and at least 21 students were charged with breach of peace. Police said 10 persons were slightly injured in the riot, three of them policemen.

Texas Man Survives 10-Minute Burial

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—Sam Scott, 42, of nearby Robstown, was completely buried for 10 minutes Thursday when a cesspool he was digging caved in on him.

His nephew, Wayne Muckelroy, 20, Robstown, frantically clawed loose sand from Scott's head until it was cleared. Oxygen was fed him through a tube and mask until the crushing sand could be dug away.

Scott was freed after 95 minutes and discharged from a hospital after treatment for an ear slashed by a shovel during rescue efforts.

'Blue Baby' Surgery Outcome Awaited

CHICAGO (AP) — David Stewart, 29-month-old "blue baby," who underwent a four-hour operation Thursday, was reported in satisfactory condition today.

Doctors said, however, the first 48 hours after surgery would be a crucial period and the boy would be kept under oxygen for three days.

Doctors said David's complexion was somewhat pinker, indicating the operation improved his blood circulation.

David, who could not feed himself, walk, crawl or speak, was brought to Children's Memorial Hospital from his home in the San Francisco Bay area. Thousands of Californians contributed nearly $10,000 to finance the trip and operation. His parents, Thomas and Jo Ann, came with him.

David was born with a complete transposition of the main vessels of his heart. A vein graft was used to reverse the flow of blood in a set of small veins leading to his heart.

Northern Staff Prepares Yearbook for Publication

By COLLEEN ADAMS

One of the busiest groups at Pontiac Northern High School this week is the Avalanche staff, which is working on the school's first yearbook.

All pictures were completed this week including those of Dedication Sunday, and clubs and organizations.

Groups which will appear in the book include the band, record club, library assistants, language club, Bible club, co-op club, projectionists club, bookstore, attendance office, pep club, cheerleaders, radio workshop, ushers' club, student council, Norsemen, Choral Bells and musical groups from the vocal music department.

Others are lab assistants, bowling club, student union, biology club, and baseball, track, golf and hockey teams.

The Avalanche is advised by Ken Ferguson. Co-editors are Joan Humphrey and Judy Thiese. Other editors are Dick Eley, sports; Johanna Lampi, faculty; Janice Lund, organizations; Carol Campbell, sophomores, Janet Lichvar, seniors, and Maryellen Ottesvig, juniors.

Ads are being purchased by local merchants to help finance the yearbook. Eddie Johnson is in charge of laying out the ads on the pages.

The staff is now in the process of finishing all copy. Everything was in today so the book is now ready to be put together.

The cover, designed by Dave Plourde, is being kept a secret and will be a big surprise to the entire student body when the book is ready for distribution.

Caps and gowns for seniors will be measured next Friday. They are to be red with red and white tassles on the mortar boards.

By JUDITH WOOD

"Club 59," a fashionable night club, will be the setting for the Holly Area High School Senior Variety Show, a comedy written and directed by Fredrica White, Holly senior.

The show, to be held Wednesday and Thursday evenings in the junior high school auditorium, will have three scenes.

Committee chairmen are Judy Myers, makeup; Ray Graves, scenery; Bill Hayes, costumes; John Perry, prompter; Mary Jean Schoenhals, programs and tickets, and Carl Watson, lighting.

Form Bowling League at Walled Lake High

By SALLY COLLINS

Something new has been added to Walled Lake High School. A girls' bowling league has been organized.

To date, 48 girls have joined the club which hopes to become affiliated with the American Junior Bowling Congress.

Nineteen members of the Jets, a mathematics club took part in the Michigan mathematics prize competition. The contest consisted of a two-hour test involving various mathematical problems.

Scholarships will be awarded to exceptionally high scorers. A gold medal will be given the highest scorer in the state and five silver medals will be presented to the five finishing next. The highest scorer in each school will be awarded a certificate of honor.

DANCE TONIGHT

The "Sham-Rock" will be presented tonight by the Future Teachers of America in the senior high gym. Dancing will be from 8-11 p. m. Records will be played for dancing by members of the Wave Wizards.

Chris Fish is chairman of the decorations committee. The refreshment committee is headed by Karen Eicher and Shirley Dawson is in charge of acquiring records. Betsy Clark is conducting ticket sales.

Dodie Duckwitz placed first and Renee Thibideau, second in the United Nations Contest at Walled Lake High. Their entries will be forwarded to the national contest.

Collect Vocational Articles at St. Mike's

By MARY SUE RITTER

In conjunction with vocation month, the Sodality of St. Frederick's High School are gathering religious pamphlets to give to students this week.

Sister Mary Davidica, archdiocesan supervisor of schools staffed by the Order of Immaculate Heart of Mary, visited the school Tuesday.

Mary Louise Theeringer has been appointed chairman of the annual patron and sponsor drive which is hoped to defray the cost of the senior play.

Slate College Choir at Avondale, Oxford

The Central Michigan College Concert Choir will appear next week at Avondale and Oxford high schools on its spring tour.

The 67-member choral group will sing at 2 p. m. Thursday, at Avondale High School and at 10 a. m. Friday at Oxford High School.

The college choir's programs will include sacred and secular numbers with a special section of popular songs. The Central Singers, a small group of outstanding voices formed from the choir, will also be featured during the concert.

Dr. Eugene Grove, director of choral groups at Central Michigan since 1953, will conduct the programs.

Planning Play at Lake Orion

Junior Class Practicing for Thursday, Friday 'Lost Horizon' Drama

By DIANE DOLECEK

A cast of 14 Lake Orion Community High School juniors will present the play, "Lost Horizon" next Thursday and Friday at the junior high school gymnasium.

Both productions will begin at 8 p. m. under the student direction of Patty Beraud and Karen Church.

The cast includes Mike Batinski, Sharon Taylor, Sue Weitschat, John McIntyre, Dean Callison, Ron Bellville, Tom Sura, Janet Workman, Al Garcia, Carroll Wiltsie, Carol Breeding, Carol Myers, Beverly Otyson, and Penny Christopher.

Chairmen of the junior class production are Dixie Stanaback, publicity; Richard Doobs, tickets, and Norma Balla, program.

Sunday the senior class will leave by train for New York City for the graduating class' trip. Representative talent from Lake Orion includes Carl Baber, Elaine Urban, Jeanne Hiatt, Pat Hanoute, Rose Cudnohufsky, Sharon Forbes, Janet Workman, Sandy Sheldon, Penny Christopher, Ernie May, Bill Toll, Barry Combs, Lanny Gilmore, Jerry Exline, Jim Johnson and Wendy Scharr.

All County Schools Can Enter

Central's Science Fair Opens Tonight

By BARBARA GRIFFIN

The 5th annual Pontiac Central High School Science Fair, sponsored by the Linnean Society, will be held tonight and tomorrow in the high school cafeteria.

All students in Oakland County are eligible to enter projects in the following divisions: elementary science, grades 1-6; general science, grades 7-8; biology, chemistry; and geology, physics and math, 10 to 12.

The public is invited to view the exhibits free of charge between 6 and 9 tonight and from noon to 4 p. m. tomorrow. Science movies will be shown in the audio-visual room today, 4 p. m. to 9:15 p. m. and tomorrow, 10 a. m. to 2 p. m.

The PCH Science Fair was started in 1955 by John Youngpeter with 40 biology projects submitted. The fair grew to 80 projects in 1956, 100 in 1957, 140 in 1958. At least 200 projects are anticipated this year.

Ron Hoekman is the general chairman of the fair with Rick Serwin assisting. Committee chairmen are Pat Kline, registration; Lucy Seibert, judges; Linda Crain, publicity; John Blamy and Bruce Benter, setup; Bud Baril, geology, physics and math; Carolyn Goines and Lois Arndt, biology and Jim Barton, chemistry. Others are Jim Colando, general science; Donna Helmcamp, elementary science; Sherry Fink and Janet Livingstone, movies; Joan Davis and Lois Arndt, club display and Peggy Warren Sue Koprince and Sue Smith, ribbons.

Judging of the projects will take place from 9 a. m. to noon, Saturday. Exhibits will be judged on creative ability, scientific thought, thoroughness, skill, clarity and dramatic value. The judging scale for the fair is: 90-100 points, superior; 80-89 points, excellent; 70-79 points, good, and 69 or less points, fair.

Through financial assistance of the Pontiac Kiwanis Club, there will be grand prizes awarded in each division. Ribbons will be awarded appropriate to the rating a project receives as determined by the judges. The award presentation ceremony will take place at 4 p. m. Saturday in the boys' gym.

TO ENTER DETROIT FAIR

Projects entered in the fair will be eligible for entry in the Metropolitan Detroit Science Fair, March 19-22. The two top winners from the Detroit Fair will have an expense-paid trip to Hartford, Conn., for the National Science Fair.

The PCH Student Committee of the American Field Service, sponsored by Barbara Rodal, will sell miniature green shamrocks Tuesday, St. Patrick's Day, as one of their many money making projects.

This committee has been working all year selling malts during lunch hour and basketball games to earn enough money so that PCH may have two AFS exchange students next fall.

The Easter edition of the Epistolae Scholae, the PCH Latin paper, will be sold Monday by Iama C. Hook's four Latin classes. All proceeds go to many charitable organizations, among them the American Red Cross, Girls Town and Boys Town and the Washington Cathedral. Nearly $4,000 has been contributed to various organizations since the Epistolae Scholae was founded in 1923.

The cover of this edition was cut by Danny Helmcamp. David Todd, Kay Cline, Barbara Alton, Judy West, Jim Wallis, Judy Proffitt, Becky Bryce, Viola Morris, Pat Freeman, Donna Helmcamp and Joan Whims submitted articles and poems to the paper.

Typists were Sharon Drew, Barbara Griffin, Judy Hinkley, Nancy Shaw, Kathy O'Brien, Donna Douglass and Pat Freeman. Students in charge of selling at various Pontiac schools are Kathy O'Brien, Northern; Peggy Warren, Washington; Sally Huntoon, Jefferson; Nancy Shaw, Madison; Richard Baal, Eastern; and Bill Webster, Lincoln.

HONOR SCHOLARS

James Freet and Sally Warren, have reached the finals of the 1958-59 National Merit Scholarship Program and have been awarded certificates of merit, according to Francis Staley, principal.

Richard Parr and Patricia Watson have also been commended by the National Merit Scholarship corporation for their outstanding performances on a nationwide test of educational development.

Waterford Juniors Plan Stag Masquerade Dance

By JEAN REXFORD

"March Whirl," a masquerade dance sponsored by the Waterford Township High School junior class, will be held next Friday from 8-11 p. m. in the school's gym.

All those attending must be in costume. Two cash prizes of $5 will be awarded, to one boy and one girl for the most original costumes. Students have been urged to come to the dance stag rather than in couples.

Chairmen for the dance include Bob Diamond, general chairman; Barb Miller, publicity; C. E. Saul, tickets; Dave Parker, cleanup and Janice McClain, entertainment.

"The Wizard of Oz" will be presented by the Children's Theater Wednesday at 3 p. m.; Thursday at 3 p. m. and 8 p. m. and Saturday, March 21, at 1 p. m. in the auditorium.

Nancy Robertson and Sandy MacAbee star in the double casted production as Dorothy. Don Stickler and Tom Goff will portray Toto, her dog.

Others in the cast include Tim Patterson, Marcia Cameron, Wendy Meyers, Dave Panks, Jim Rutledge, Bill Verhey, Tom Moore, Jim Hoke, Neal Cook, Bob White, Fred Gross and Jane Dovletian.

Carol Vought, Carl West, Richard Carlson, David Bills, and Marcia Cameron were jurors for Pontiac Teenage Traffic Court Monday in Pontiac.

The Michigan employment test was taken by seniors this week. This test will help them find a summer or full-time job. Also recently given to students was a mathematics test.

No school was held today, so teachers could attend Michigan Education Association meetings.

Troy Singers Prepare Sacred Music Program

Sunday from 3 to 4 p. m. the Troy High School Vocal Music Department will present a concert of sacred music in the high school auditorium.

Included on the program will be compositions by Mozart, Handel, Mendelssohn and Beethoven. "The Holy City," "The Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah" and several Negro spirituals will be featured.

The concert will be open to the public, and no admission will be charged.

U. of M. Glee Club to Give Concert at Oxford High

By FRANCIS FUJIOKA

The University of Michigan Men's Glee Club will present a concert at the Oxford Area High School auditorium Thursday at 8 p.m.

The glee club, under the direction of Dr. Philip A. Duey, toured Europe in 1955 for four weeks which included a command performance before the Queen of the Netherlands. They are planning another European tour during this year.

Tonight, the Latin Club's Roman Ball will be held from 8:30 to 11 p.m. in the student lounge.

Pupils to Assist in Giving Tests for Tuberculosis

By CAROL BAUER

Members of the Future Nurses Club of St. Michael's High School will assist nurses Tuesday in administering tuberculin tests to all students.

The club members helping give the tests which determine the possible presence of tuberculosis are Carol Sue Johnson, Jane Rindfusz, Marlene Tadlock, Jeanne Vanover, Carol DeJager, Cathy McCormick, Cathy Henretty, Judy Schlict and Loretta Heitjan.

Intra-murals began this week. The high spot will be the game between the winners of the intra-murals and the faculty.

Four senior girls are planning to attend open house and take scholarship examinations at Carnegie Institute tomorrow. They are Shelagh O'Rourke, Betty Lauinger, Carol Bauer and Judy Merithew.

3rd Clarkston Science Fair Scheduled for Tomorrow

By JOAN PAYNE

Clarkston High School's Third Annual Science Fair will be held tomorrow in the school gymnasium from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The fair, sponsored by the Biology Club, will include 170 projects. Movies will be shown throughout the day of the event which is open to the public.

Biology Club officers who planned the event are Joe Jennings, president; Barbara Jackson, vice president; Dianne Hersfall, secretary and Shanna Stewart, treasurer.

Officers elected recently for the band are Doug St. Clair, president; Tim Jockwig, vice president; Janet Tisch, secretary and David St. Clair, treasurer.

Disc Data and Chatter

Music in the Round

by Dick Saunders

SAUNDERS

The Capitol people came along and turned a dull March into something worth talking about with the release of a new batch of LPs this week.

There's some good stuff here for the fan who buys his LPs with mood or dance music in mind. Heading the list are two nice Paul Weston LPs with equally appealing covers. "Music for Dreaming" (T-1154) and "Floatin' Like a Feather" (T-1153). The latter is light and bouncy with some unexpected soloists popping up here and there.

"Dancing — Smooth 'n' Easy" (T-1156) is strictly for the dancing crowd featuring the bands of Glen Gray, Freddy Martin, and Guy Lombardo. Another goodie for dancers is "The Joy of Living" (T-1148), by Nelson Riddle.

Kenyon Hopkins, a talented composer-arranger, has been given an album of his own, "Contrasting Colors" (T-1158), and he does well by it. Good for both dancing and listening.

Going to the ultra-relaxed, Jackie Gleason's Orchestra with two full string sections and Bobby Hackett's superb trumpet will have you drifting with their LP "That Moment" (W-1147).

For a quick bracer the teenage crowd will find "Jackie Davis Meets the Trombones" (T-1180) good for a starter and "Hey Boy! Hey Girl!" (T-1160) a full course rocker.

The latter LP is by Louis Prima & Kelly Smith with Sam Butera and the Witnesses, who work together to create happy havoc with wild workouts on tunes from the motion picture of the same name.

We'll try and cover some of the Capitol vocal LPs of note, plus a few jazz items, at next week's meeting around the turntable spindle.

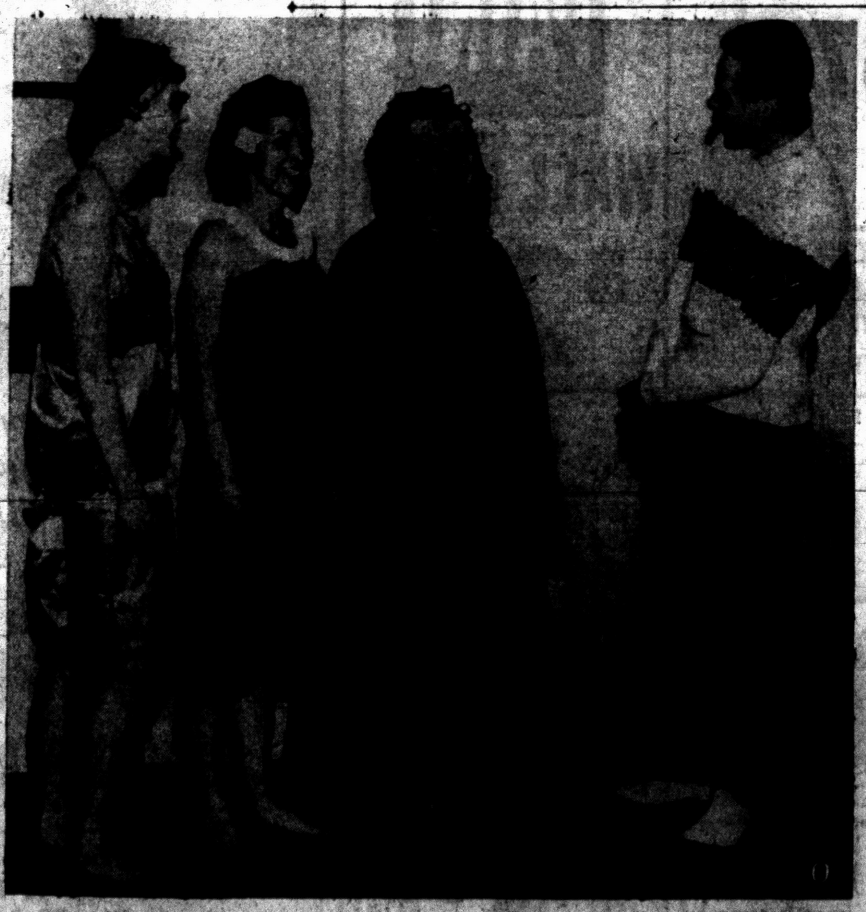

FIVE ACES: It's a far cry from the famed armless wonder, but "Venus" (Frankie Avalon) is first place among Pontiac area sellers this week in a close race.

The disc which has been red hot for several weeks has a battle on its hands this time with "Charlie Brown" (The Coasters), which made a strong bid for the top.

Third spot goes to "Tragedy" (Tom Wayne). A new disc in the upper crust and looking like a hot one is "Come Softly to Me" (The Fleetwoods), in fourth after failing to make the top five on its first time around.

Last place goes to "There'll Never Be Anyone Else But You" backed by "It's Late" (Ricky Nelson). Both sides are now selling and between them the record is doing very well.

Pleads Guilty in Ax-Murder

Charge Reduced to 2nd Degree

Graddy's Sentence Is Due March 30 in Death of Royal Oak Man

A man accused of murdering a Royal Oak railroad worker with a pickax last August will be sentenced March 30 after he pleaded guilty yesterday to a reduced charge of second-degree murder.

Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland accepted the plea of John U. Graddy, 27, a transient railroad worker himself. Graddy was returned to the county jail to await sentencing.

Graddy was originally charged with first-degree murder in the Sept. 6 death of George Scholar, 68. Scholar was attacked by Graddy with the pickax during an argument. Police say he stole $55 from the victim's wallet after the attack.

Graddy was nabbed in a Chicago tavern in January and returned to Oakland County to stand trial. Local authorities say FBI agents said Graddy admitted the killing to them.

Flannery Is Insane, Psychiatrist Finds

HILLSDALE (UPI)—Dr. Charles Tracey, Detroit psychiatrist, testified today that he considered Patrick J. Flannery, Berkley, insane.

Flannery is on trial on first degree murder charges in connection with the fatal shotgun beating of his roommate, Thomas Neitling, 21, Tecumseh, in their room last November.

"After examination of the defendant, I think he exhibits all the symptoms of schizophrenia," Dr. Tracey said, "I consider that he was insane before he committed the crime, that he was insane during the time, and that he is insane now."

Dr. Tracey said the symptoms exhibited by Flannery included "withdrawal from human companionship, disturbance of reality and disturbance of affects."

Oh yes, this triskaidekaphobia: It's fear of the figure 13.

FBI Investigates Area Forgery

Bloomfield Hills Youth Charged in County Bad Check Passing

ROYAL OAK—The FBI is investigating today the case of a Bloomfield Hills youth charged with forgery here Feb. 18 in Municipal Court.

Preston W. Smith 19, of 6601 Castle Dr. Bloomfield Hills, will face examination before Municipal Judge Fletcher Renton April 3 at 1:30 p.m.

Smith was originally to be examined today. But a postponement was given to permit the to conduct their investigation, according to Asst. Prosecutor Donald Brown.

The FBI is investigating to see if forged checks cashed recently in Kalamazoo have any bearing in the case, Brown said.

Royal Oak Police Det. Capt. Virgil Scott said Smith has admitted cashing over $300 worth of fraudulent checks in the South Oakland County area.

He was arrested Feb. 18 and charged with attempting to pass a forged check for $60 at Tom's Quality Market, 906 N. Woodward Ave. here.

Smith, the son of Mrs. Charles Otto at the Castle drive address is free on a $500 bond.

Eastman Makes Announcement

3 Police Officers Promoted

The promotion of three Pontiac police officers was announced yesterday by Public Safety Director George D. Eastman.

Detectives Herbert C. Cooley and James LaPonsie were promoted to sergeant and Sgt. Ray E. Meggitt to lieutenant.

MEGGITT

Cooley joined the police department on June 30, 1951, and was promoted in September 1955 to detective. He is a past president of the Pontiac Police Officers Assn.

LaPonsie, a police officer since June 19, 1949, was named a detective in July 1954.

Meggitt has been a Pontiac police officer since Feb. 16, 1946. He was made a sergeant in July of 1954.

The promotions marked the end of a long legal hassle between police officers and the city administration.

COOLEY

In a Circuit Court lawsuit, filed in June 1958, officers complained that City Manager Walter K. Willman and now suspended Police Chief Herbert W. Straley violated the State Civil Service Act by failing to promote them.

In a writ of mandamus issued Oct. 9, Oakland Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams ordered the promotions of Detectives James Bale and Herbert Cooley to sergeants, and Sgt. Fred Goines to lieutenant.

The city filed an application with the State Supreme Court for leave to appeal the ruling, but the application was turned down.

Bale and Goines were promoted Jan. 6.

On Feb. 10, Judge Adams granted the policemen's attorney, Paul W. Harty of Southfield, a motion to amend the original writ so as to spell out specifically which vacancies on the department the men must be promoted to.

LaPONSIE

By elevating Bale and Goines to positions created with the retirement of Claude A. Evans, the city was not complying with the writ, Judge Adams said.

Teachers Get Time for Study

Board Approves Early Release for Faculty's Arithmetic Probe

The Board of Education last night approved a request from the Mark Twain elementary school faculty for an hour of released time on the fourth Friday of March, April and May.

School will let out at 2:30 instead of 3:30 p.m. those days so teachers can consider ways of improving the arithmetic program.

The board also announced it will open bids for the Madison Junior High School addition at 2 p.m., Thursday, April 2, and for the Washington Junior High addition at 2 p.m., Tuesday, April 14.

The board also adopted a resolution thanking all persons connected with the dedication of Pontiac Northern High School and another praising Pontiac Central's basketball team, the Saginaw Valley Conference champions.

Civil Service Loses Backing

County AFL-CIO Unit Won't Support City Election Issue

Police civil service in Pontiac suffered a serious setback yesterday with the announcement that organized labor would not back it.

The Oakland County AFL-CIO Council failed to muster enough votes to endorse civil service at the April 6 election, said Fred V. Haggard, Council president.

Since the Council is largely composed of Pontiac delegates, lack of support indicated that few, if any, individual Pontiac locals would back civil service on their own.

The city is asking voters to repeal civil service for police, replacing it with the old trial board.

Civil service was voted in two years ago, with unanimous support from labor.

The Council did endorse the other two Pontiac issues on the April ballot—the $3,300,000 sewage treatment plant bond issue and the proposition letting Pontiac taverns open at noon on Sundays instead of 2 p.m.

Road Department Distributes Funds

The Michigan State Highway Dept. has announced payments which counties, incorporated cities and villages in the state have received from fourth-quarter collection of gasoline and weight taxes.

Oakland County's share of a total state collection for the quarter of $42,002,471 was $816,115.

Other amounts paid out were (deleting cents): Addison $1,347; Almont $1,981; Armada $3,030; Berkley $34,763; Bingham Farms $988; Birmingham $26,595; Bloomfield Hills $5,100; Clarkston $1,120; Clawson $9,321; Dryden $1,373; Farmington $6,361; Holly $4,796; Huntington Woods $8,871, Imlay City $8,185.

Keego Harbor received $4,168; Lake Angelus $118; Lake Orion $3,801; Lapeer $10,611; Lathrup Village $5,237; Leonard $1,222; Madison Heights $29,133; Metamora $1,058; Milford $5,070; Northville $4,868; Oak Park $16,712; Orchard Lake $2,143; Ortonville $1,391; Oxford $3,845, Pleasant Ridge $4,684.

Pontiac was given $146,463; Rochester $7,240; Romeo $4,284; Royal Oak $8,457; South Lyon $2,411; Southfield $45,479; Sylvan Lake $2,464; Troy $28,559; Utica $2,109; Walled Lake $4,755; Westwood (now Beverly Hills) $14,269 Wixom $3,837; Wolverine Lake $2,534, and Woodcreek Farms $1,299.

Newspaper Pressmen End Strike in Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A strike of newspaper pressmen ended on three Columbus daily papers Thursday night with ratification of a new contract.

The Columbus Dispatch and Citizen, afternoon papers, will make their first appearance Sunday since the strike crippled publication 15 days ago.

The morning Ohio State Journal which does not have a Sunday edition, will publish Monday.

Royal Oak Township Police to Ask Raise

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP — Policemen here will petition for a 25 per cent wage increase when the township board meets next Thursday, Patrolman Edward L. Watkins said today.

He is a representative of the Royal Oak Township Police and Firemen's Assn.

According to Watkins, the 25 per cent increase being sought will return the 10 per cent cut members of the police force received a year ago plus 15 per cent which he said is needed to bring their salaries up to the scale maintained in the rest of the state.

'Pontiac Bandstand' Will Open Tonight

"Pontiac Bandstand"—a weekly Friday night dance-talent show for Oakland County teenagers—will be inaugurated at 7 this evening in the National Guard Armory, 57 Water St.

Don Zee, former area disc jockey, will be the emcee for the grand opening tonight.

In addition to introducing talented teen performers, he will spin top records and give away free prizes and trophies to those who attend.

Scores of merchants already have contributed gift certificates for some lucky dancers, according to John Ferro, athletic director of the Pontiac Boys' Club.

Appearing on the entertainment bill tonight will be the Skee Brothers, the Ferros and Jaguars, and Jack Carbone of Ferndale, a singer.

Ferro said the idea of "Pontiac Bandstand" came to him when he received repeated requests from Pontiac teens to establish such a program.

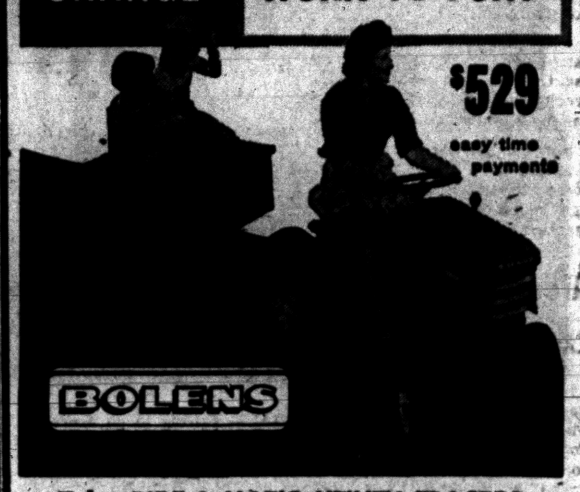

"The success of the Program," Ferro said, "depends on help from merchants and civic organizations, in contributing funds to sponsor this new teenage medium."

Chaperones for tonight's event will be provided by the PTA Mothers Club of Pontiac and the Emerson School PTA.

Trial in Barber's Death

DETROIT (AP) — Thomas U. Milligan, accused of killing a barber who refused him money, has been ordered to stand trial in recorder's court on a charge of first degree murder. Milligan, 36, of Roseville, was remanded to jail after his examination Thursday before Judge John P. O'Hara. He is accused of slaying Adam Michalski, 74.

Partial State Aid Sent to Schools

March Payments Leave Michigan $36 Million Behind on Education

LANSING (UPI)—A partial payment of state aid due school districts in March is in the mails today.

Lynn M. Bartlett, state superintendent of public instruction, reported the payment would total 25 million dollars—about three-quarters of the some 34 millions due the school districts.

The state now is behind about 36 million dollars in school payments, Bartlett said.

Bills to provide a supplemental appropriation to pay out the school aid formula in full have been in the House and Senate since the first week of the legislative session.

Meanwhile, school district borrowing for operating expenses since June 1 now tops 58 millions. The districts have been borrowing against anticipated state aid and local property taxes and will have to repay nearly two million dollars in interest.

"It is regrettable that this situation had to develop," Bartlett said. "This is money taken directly away from the education of Michigan youngsters."

Bartlett estimated that the two millions would build classrooms for some 1,300 students or pay an average year's salary for about 400 teachers.

Area Youth Waives Examination in Theft

ROCHESTER — The 20-year-old Rochester youth who is charged with robbing a Detroit Discount Company collector of $186 at knifepoint Wednesday night waived examination yesterday and was bound over to Circuit Court.

Robert J. Sox of 136 Main St. was arraigned before Justice Luther C. Green here. Bond was set at $5,000 which Sox could not furnish. He is being held in Oakland County Jail.

Robert E. Medenwaldt, 21, of 1215 E. Kaloma St., Madison Heights, reported to Rochester Police yesterday, that the youth, whom he had picked up as a hitchhiker in Detroit, pulled a knife on him and took his money. Medenwaldt is employed by the Doty Discount Corp. in Detroit.

Bay City Firm Pioneers for U.S.

It's 1st Missile Destroyer

DETROIT (UPI) — America's first guided-missile destroyer will be launched at the Defoe Shipbuilding Co. in Bay City April 22.

The ship will be the first warship to sail the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Details of the launching, and construction of the USS Henry B. Wilson were announced last night by William M. Defoe, executive Bay City shipbuilding company.

The Wilson is part of the largest shipbuilding contract ever let in Michigan and is the first vessel contracted for on the Great Lakes as a result of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

When finished and delivered to the Navy at Boston in November 1960, the Wilson will be armed with Tartar surface-to-air missiles and will be the largest destroyer ever built in the United States.

25 PER CENT

The Wilson represents 25 per cent of Defoe's 67 million dollar contract and is scheduled for trials on Lake Huron in September 1960.

Three other Wilson class (DDG) vessels have been ordered by the Navy from the Defoe yards. The second is scheduled for delivery in October 1960 and the other two late in 1961.

The Navy has contracted for 13 of the missile destroyers. The other ships will be built at Bath, Maine and Seattle.

Defoe built 156 Naval vessels during World War II under a process developed by Defoe's father, Harry J. Defoe, by which the ships were built upside down. Under the method a destroyer escort was built every 19 days and a patrol craft every five days.

The Bay City firm has construction facilities for ships 1,000 feet in length. Each of the Wilson class destroyers will be 437 feet long with a 47-foot beam and a 4,500-ton displacement.

The new ships will cost about 16¾ million dollars each. The vessels' functions will be submarine tracking and service as a long distance antiaircraft gun platform.

TO USE 1,400 MEN

Defoe said 1,400 men will be employed on the ships until the middle of 1961.

He said the Seaway has enabled Great Lakes shipyards to compete with East Coast shipbuilding facilities.

Noting a recent tanker-conversion order to a Toledo yard, Defoe said:

"Before the Seaway, yards on the Lakes had a captive market. This is a concrete example of the ability of lake builders and of the competitive position of lakes yards among themselves."

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI) — A Canadian diplomat has revealed a method whereby releasing compressed air from tubes along the bottom of the St. Lawrence Seaway can provide year-around navigation.

Gerald A. Newman, consul general in Chicago, said the device would circulate the water, preventing ice from forming on the inland waterway.

But, he said, the plan will not be put into operation unless there is sufficient demand from manufacturers and shippers.

Noting that icebreakers have kept open shipping channels on the St. Lawrence River below Montreal for the first time this season, Newman said the Seaway "could become an all-year-around artery to the Midwest. It can be done and I think eventually will be done."

Area Educators Attending U. of M. Workshop Today

Three area educators are among the 100 teachers and administrators from six counties attending a workshop on secondary science and mathematics today at the University of Michigan.

They are David Wells, director of mathematics education for the Oakland County Board of Education; William Watson, psychologist for the Royal Oak Board of Education, and Maude Price, curriculum consultant for the Royal Oak Board of Education.

Other educators are from Hillsdale, Lenawee, Macomb, Monroe and Washtenaw counties.

University faculty membrs and representatives of area schools planned the two-day conference which is sponsored by the State Science Committee of the Department of Public Instruction.

Purpose of the workshop is to stimulate school district action for science and mathematics improvement and provide an opportunity for exchanging ideas on improving the content of such courses.

Sen. Hart Slates Talk

Reports Monroe Engineer Safe After Iraq Turmoil

BAGHDAD, Iraq (UPI)—Arthur E. Crosby, a field engineer from Monroe, Mich., is reported safe at his home in the strife-torn northern Iraqi city of Mosul.

Wayne Rikerd, an American employe of a water well drilling firm, brought the news here from Mosul yesterday.

Rikerd said Americans in Mosul had taken shelter in basements of their homes and in a rest house during street battles and riots involving rebels this week.

Rikerd said Crosby is employed by Kuljian Corp. of Philadelphia.

Only Ice Delays Great Lakes System's Opening

Seaway Dream Comes True in April

WASHINGTON (AP) — A dream which was only a dream for more than half a century will come true soon.

The United States and Canada announced St. Lawrence Seaway tolls yesterday and the big waterway will be ready for business as soon as nature opens up its ice-bound channels next month.

The toll charges are the same as those made public on a tentative basis last June. They are lower than rates for the Suez and Panama Canals but are deemed high enough to pay off seaway costs in 50 years.

Opening of the 471-million-dollar seaway will permit large ocean vessels to move from the Atlantic into the Great Lakes and out again.

Sec. of Commerce Lewis L. Strauss said the event "will stimulate in time a tremendous impetus to the economic wellbeing of the heartland of the United States, with long range benefits for the country as a whole."

ALREADY HAS EFFECT

Even before the first ship passes through the seaway next month, the project is having an effect on the national economy.

Cities on the lakes are rushing ahead with port expansion programs and northeastern railroads are talking about sizable reductions in some freight rates to meet expected competition.

The Assn. of American Railroads denounced the tolls as "wholly unrealistic" and said they will cover less than two-thirds of total seaway costs.

"This indicates," the association statement said, "that the American taxpayer is about to be taken for another multimillion-dollar ride.

The minimum depth of seaway channels is 27 feet, compared with 14 feet before Congress authorized the vast project in 1954.

This permits the passage of vessels with five times more cargo capacity than those which could be handled in the past.

The tolls, worked out in negotiations between the United States and Canada, were announced simultaneously in Washington and Ottawa.

Officials estimate tolls will bring in 15 million dollars this year. They said this will rise gradually to a peak of 28 million dollars by 1969.

IN TWO SECTIONS

A ship passing through the entire seaway will pay 6 cents for each gross registered ton of the vessel plus 42 cents for each ton of bulk cargo and 95 cents a ton on general cargo.

The seaway actually is in two sections — one between Montreal and Lake Ontario and another through Canada's Welland Canal, which bypasses Niagara Falls between Lakes Ontario and Erie.

On the Montreal-Lake Ontario leg, the basic charge will be 4 cents a registered ton plus 40 cents a ton on bulk cargo and 90 cents on general cargo.

If a ship doesn't use all seven locks in this section, it will pay 15 per cent of the over-all charge for each lock used.

For the Welland Canal—hitherto toll free—the basic rate is 2 cents a gross ton plus 21 cents for a ton of bulk cargo and 5 cents on general cargo. Ships which don't use the entire canal will be charged half price.

A charge of 50 cents for each lock will be levied for passengers throughout the seaway system. The cost for a complete transit will be $7.50 a passenger.

F. Reese Harrill, chairman of the U. S. Tolls Committee, said the schedule of charges aims to:

1. Bring in enough revenue to pay off the construction debt in 50 years and meet all current expenses. U. S. law requires this.

2. "Provide economical rates to users and encourage traffic."

3. Get vessels through the seaway with a minimum of delay over assessment of charges and with minimum collection costs.

Harrill said the tolls will represent only a small fraction of a ship operator's cost in moving a vessel through the seaway.

Twenty-five million tons of cargo is expected to move through the seaway this year.

SPECIAL BREAK

The schedule of tolls gives a special break to cargo moving between one U. S. port and another or between one Canadian port and another.

Such goods automatically are classed as bulk cargo eligible for the lowest rate. If they are to be reshipped to another country, however, the regular tolls apply.

Canada will get all revenues from the Welland Canal and 71 per cent of the tolls collected between Montreal and Lake Ontario. The United States will get the rest. These ratios were based on the distribution of construction and maintenance costs between the two countries.

House Strikes Blow for Love and Romance

LANSING (AP)—In a vote of condidence for love and romance, the House yesterday killed a bill to raise the cost of a marriage license from $2 to $3.

"It's a silly scheme to soak the single," said Rep. Russell H. Strange Jr., (R-Clare), a 24-year-old bachelor.

"Let's give a break to young people trying to get a start in life," said Rep. Edson V. Root Jr (R-Bangor). "They'll be paying plenty of state taxes later on."

"I'm against inflation in marriage," chimed in Rep. Alexander Petri (D-Ecorse) in one of half a dozen speeches defending the institution of wedlock.

The House was less kind toward carriers of concealed weapons. It passed a bill to boost the license fee for carrying a pistol from $2 to $3.

MSU Students Protest Dormitory Tie Rules

EAST LANSING (AP)—Some 230 Michigan State University students forfeited their dinners last night rather than wear ties in conformity with dormitory dress regulations.

The tieless group—all residents of Rather Hall—marched in a body to the central dining room. When refused admittance, they turned away and left quietly.

Glenn Hartment, president of Rather Hall, said the demonstration stemmed from discontent over dress regulations issued by the Men's Hall Assn.—a student body representing all dormitories.

19,368 Aussie 'Decisions'

526,000 Hear Graham

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—Billy Graham announced today that attendance so far in his month-long Melbourne crusade has been about 526,000. Of these 19,368 came forward to make "decisions for Christ."

More than 100,000 are expected for the last Melbourne meeting Sunday.

Graham told a news conference this is the most moral big city he has ever visited.

The evangelist said he plans to spend a two-week vacation on Queensland's Gold Coast resting and writing a book.

"Today there is so much literature of despair," he said, "I want to write a book of hope. It has been burning inside me for a long time now."

He had been warned that a meeting today at Melbourne University might turn out to be rowdy but found it one of the quietest of his tour.

He cracked jokes about hillbillies and about himself to a crowd that listened intently. The audience overflowed into an adjoining lecture hall, where it watched by closed television circuit.

At his news conference Graham —who is from North Carolina—declined to be drawn into a discussion of the racial problem in American schools.

"It's not the sort of question you can answer in two sentences," he said, "but all our own meetings everywhere have been integrated, with Negro counselors and pastors."

Hollywood Headlines

Bikel Accepts Movie Role in 'Inherit the Wind'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD — It figures that after Theodore Bikel carried off the nomination for "best supporting actor" in Stanley Kramer's "The Defiant Ones," that Stanley would want him for another picture.

So Kramer has sent Bikel the script of "Inherit the Wind" from Australia and Bikel has agreed to play the H. L. Mencken role—Mencken covered the Scopes trial. Spencer Tracy and Fredric March have the star roles and Bikel the chief supporting part.

Come Academy time Bikel, who will be doing a one-man show in New York, flies out with Sidney Poitier, who was nominated as one of the five best actors for "The Defiant Ones." "We'll be rooting for each other," says Bikel, who is certainly a welcome newcomer to the Hollywood scene.

"I will not disregard the California divorce laws which demand a year before remarriage and I have no intention of remarrying before the required period is up," Deborah Kerr writes me from Klosters, Switzerland.

This is the first time Deborah has discussed her unhappy situation since Tony Bartley named Peter Viertel in a suit charging Viertel "enticed her affections."

"I go to Australia in September with Bob Mitchum and Fred Zinnemann to do 'The Sundowners' and I'm looking forward to the project. I visit London every weekend to see the girls who are in great form despite a hideous English winter."

Deborah said she is very thrilled about her Oscar nomination for "Separate Tables" and also the Foreign Press Golden Globe Award particularly as so many people were against her accepting the drab role of the spinster in the picture.

Took myself to the Paramount lot to see Lilli Palmer (the ex-Mrs. Rex Harrison), who is here for the Clark Gable movie, "But Not for Me." I hadn't seen Lilli since she left Hollywood 10 years ago, a very unhappy girl. Today she is a happy, gay Lilli, married to handsome Argentine-born Carlos Thompson.

She has just signed another agreement with Perlberg-Seaton. In addition to the three extra pictures already contracted for her, she will do five more over a period of years. Carlos Thompson, her husband, who is a very important actor abroad and was doing very well here when he left, has also signed a contract with Perlberg-Seaton. He'll play opposite Lilli in "Counterfeit Traitor," her first on her new contract. The Thompsons are leaving Monday.

While I was on the Paramount lot I visited the set of "Heller With A Gun" and saw both Sophia Loren and Tony Quinn and their director, George Cukor. Sophia told me that Carlo Ponti, her husband, is going with her when she goes to Italy in August to play opposite Clark Gable in "Bay of Naples."

Joanne Woodward expects her baby in four weeks and she says she will be able to report to Richard Shepherd and Martin Jurow for "Orpheus Descending" by May 15. That's the date that Anna Magnani and Marlon Brando are expected in New York to start "Orpheus" under the directorial aegis of Sidney Lumet. Let's hope Marlon finishes "One-Eyed Jacks" by that time.

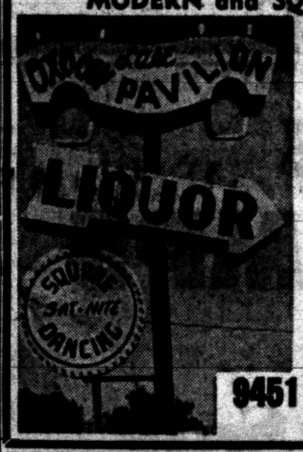

Joanne and Paul Newman are living in New York and since this picture will be made in the East she accepted it so that she could be near her husband.

Topic for White House Speculation

Where Will Ike Vacation?

By MERRIMAN SMITH
UPI White House Reporter

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Backstairs at the White House:

Recent travelers from Rhode Island report that the folks around Newport are expecting the Eisenhowers back there this summer.

It may be wishful thinking, but some people at the White House, Washington branch, are speculating to the contrary.

Despite the golf course, the fine fishing available and the hospitality of Newport, some of the President's entourage much prefers Denver for a summer White House. More variety of activity, for one thing.

There's still a large element of doubt, however, as to whether the Chief Executive would undertake a protracted stay in mile-high Denver where he had his heart attack in 1955.

Where else? Press Secretary Jim Hagerty likes to mention Hawaii just to tantalize the reporters. However attractive, a place like Hawaii would be too distant in time, even by jet, from Washington, for the President to stay there for several weeks.

This could be Eisenhower's last chance as President for a long holiday from Washington, speaking in terms of six or eight weeks. Next year, there'll be the political conventions and the national campaign.

Speaking of Hagerty and Denver, the question he remembers best from the more than 2,000 press conferences he, himself, has held during this administration was asked in Denver when the President was hospitalized for his heart ailment.

Hagerty had been reviewing the President's progress at Fitzsimmons Army Hospital, telling how the Chief Executive was beginning to sit up more each day. A serious young man leaned forward in his chair and asked Jim:

"You say the President sat up today for three periods of 30 minutes each. Does that come to an hour and a half, Mr. Hagerty?"

Jim doesn't remember his answer, but it was evasive.

Chiefs Tackle Bentley in 'A' Regional Final

Central Seeks Revenge; Holly, Romeo Go Again in Class B Ranks

By BILL CORNWELL

Revenge—a full measure of it—will be one of Pontiac Central's big objectives tonight when the Chiefs battle Livonia Bentley at 7:30 in the championship round of the Southfield Class A regional basketball tournament.

It was just a year ago that the Chiefs made the trek to the regional final to meet the same school. There was just one hitch, however. They had to face the Bulldogs in their own back yard—on the Livonia court.

While a king-sized number of Pontiac Central fans milled outside the school doors, unable to gain entrance because of the limited seating space, the Chiefs let an 11-point 4th quarter lead slip through their fingers and lost a 50-49 heartbreaker.

Now the situation is different. The Bulldogs have been drawn out of their friendly home kennel and they'll have to fight PCH on the neutral Southfield floor.

Atoning for that bitter defeat is by no means Pontiac's only goal this evening. To the winner goes the regional crown and a berth in next week's state quarter-finals.

The Pontiac-Bentley survivor will play the winner of Saturday night's Taylor Center-Dearborn Fordson game in the quarter-final round on Wednesday, March 18, at a site still to be selected.

Regional titles will be decided at three other Oakland County area centers tonight.

Romeo tangles with Port Huron St. Stephens at Pontiac Central's gym in a Class B final while host East Detroit meets Austin Catholic and Highland Park clashes with Hamtramck at Birmingham in Class A title games.

Two other county area quintets resume tourney action tonight. Holly faces Clio in the Class B regional semifinal at the Flint IMA and Class D Memphis of the Southern Thumb loop goes against Gaines in the semis at Ypsilanti.

One other Southern Thumb school stayed alive in last night's regional activity. Sparked by Nate Petty's 20 points, Thumb co-champion New Haven advanced to the Saturday Class C final at Birmingham by squeaking past Detroit St. Bernard, 54-52.

Grosse Pointe St. Paul gained the other final spot by eking out a 62-60 overtime conquest of Detroit St. Thomas yesterday. New Haven meets St. Paul tomorrow night for Birmingham "C" regional honors.

LAKELAND, Fla.—Will Tampa lose its two Major League "franchises" in the Grapefruit League?

This sounds like a question which has popped up many times in the past few years when Major League teams threatened to pull out of certain cities for various reasons from lack of support to poor parking facilities.

Right now several cities of Florida are engaged in a circle of feuds as one community accuses another of attempting to proselyte major league clubs.

Officials of the various cities have called on their citizens to "support our Major League teams before we lose them."

The city of Fort Myers has accused Sarasota of trying to steal the Pirates. Sarasota has accused Scottsdale, Arizona, of stealing the Red Sox, and Tampa is accusing Sarasota of trying to get the White Sox. Miami would like to get another team from Florida's west coast, possibly the Redlegs from Tampa or the Cardinals from St. Petersburg.

So, the tourist dollar, which accompanies a major league team to a Florida city for two months, is cause for an intra-state war of words

Most unhappy of the clubs are the White Sox and Redlegs who play their games in Tampa's Lopez Field. The game between the Sox and Phils last week drew only 517 fans.

Major League clubs depend on a percentage of the exhibition gate to help defray their training costs. The teams are happy with an average of 1,500 fans per game as most parks here are small and can accommodate between 2,500 and 5,000.

While the White Sox were drawing only 517 in Tampa, a crowd of 7,300 turned out in St. Petersburg to watch the Yankees and the Braves. This is a huge crowd for an exhibition game.

Thus, in an effort to keep the teams from moving to another city, the papers in Tampa, Sarasota, Fort Myers and Miami have been making appeals for support of "their" teams.

The sports editor of the St. Petersburg paper told the city of Sarasota in his column to stop making it "difficult for sister cities and jar loose with a few dollars and send a representative to Arizona to prospect for a team."

St. Pete is considered the best training camp city. The population is made up of older retired folks who have plenty of time to spend an afternoon at a ball game, unlike Tampa which does not have as great a tourist appeal and which draws poorly at the games.

The Tigers apparently are happy in Lakeland. The local Chamber of Commerce handles all the gate receipts of the games and awards the Tigers and the visiting teams a certain percentage of the gate.

Last Tuesday's game with the Dodgers drew 1,800 which is considered very good for a weekday. Henley Field holds 3,000 in full capacity and a weekday crowd of 1,200 is considered average.

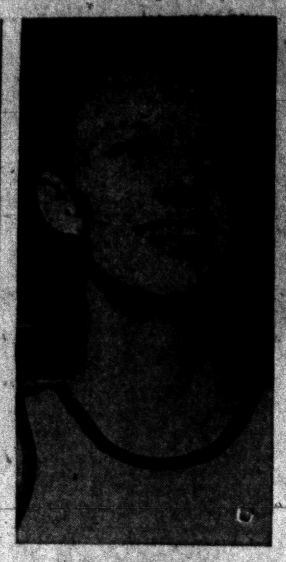

It is figured that the local citizens account for only 15 or 20 percent of the crowd at Tigers' games. Most of the fans are tourists from the home state or strictly baseball fans from Major League cities.

The city solons realize this and for this reason they want to hang on or proselyte a team.

Lakeland officials say that the presence of the Tigers from the start of rookie camp to end of exhibition season means at least $100,000 to the city in business from the players, club officials, press and radio without the tourist who stays over a day or two.

Add the tourist trade to this $100,000 in those three months and it will show good reason why Florida cities are trying to steal Major League franchises from each other.

BENTLEY-MINDED — The Pontiac Central basketball squad is Bentley-minded today and one of the most determined team members is All-State forward John Bandy, the Chiefs' leading scorer. Bandy and his PCH teammates meet the Livonia school tonight at 7:30 in the Southfield High gym for the Class A regional title.

Pancho Squares Matters at 5-5

Pro Net King's Temper Pops Once as He Beats Lew Hoad in Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—Pancho Gonzales, with only one outburst of temper, slashed his way through Lew Hoad's service last night and evened their professional tennis tour 5-all.

The fiery Latin from Los Angeles found the range on Hoad's cannonball serves after dropping the first set and won 4-6, 6-3, 6-2.

The improvement in Gonzales' play came after one of his protests of the officiating forced a change in one of the linesmen. Thereafter he was serene while his racquet was hot.

Hoad, a blond Australian in his second year on the tour, could hold his service in only three of the last 13 games. Gonzales rattled off 12 straight points late in the match.

Jack Kramer, 37, tour promoter who has returned to part-time action, lost 8-6 in one set to youthful Ashley Cooper, the 1958 Wimbledon and United States champion from Australia. Kramer filled in for the ailing Aussie Mal Anderson, who was limited to doubles play.

Cooper and Hoad teamed to defeat Gonzales and Anderson 8-5 in the doubles.

Boston Grabs Playoff Berth

BOSTON (AP) — Don McKenney, Mr. Consistency, has staked Boston to a National Hockey League playoff berth.

The 24-year-old forward from Smiths Falls, Ont., scored the deciding goal and produced three assists last night as the Bruins edged New York 5-4. It was his 29th goal, highest season total of his five-year major league career.

If the third-place Bruins lost their remaining five games and Toronto won its five, the teams would be tied at 65 points apiece. However, the NHL rules specify that in such instance the playoff spot goes to the team with the most victories.

The Bruins already have won 28. Five more triumphs would give Toronto 27.

12 Teams May Enter Jr. Legion Baseball Loop

Area American Legion officials have hopes of operating a 12-team Junior Legion baseball league this summer.

The Pontiac Boys' Club is considering entering two teams, Ferndale one and Birmingham may add its 2nd contingent. A Union Lake group has expressed interest in replacing Waterford, which dropped out during the 1958 season.

Another organization meeting will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the Birmingham Post.

Detroit Skipper Says It's as Good as Rest of AL

Norman Backs Tiger Hurling

LAKELAND, Fla. — Bill Norman says his Detroit Tiger pitching is as good as any in the American League.

Sometimes it is difficult to pin down Norman on specific subjects, and exceedingly hard to get specific answers to specific questions. But he was asked point blank if he would trade his pitching staff for any other in the league and he answered:

"Certainly not. We have the type of pitching that goes with a contending club. Mind you, I'm not saying we are a contending club. But our pitching is strong. If we were as tough in other departments the Detroit Tigers would be hard to beat."

Norman has seen his pitchers work in nine games, including "B" squad contests.

"I'm very, very pleased with what I have seen," he said. "We are in good shape physically and we're throwing hard. I have no complaints about the way our pitchers have looked. We must have a fine staff — the other clubs around the league are trying to work a trade for some of our pitchers."

Shoddy spring pitching has resulted in poor Grapefruit League showings by the Detroit club in recent seasons. This year Norman had his pitchers report a week early so they could keep up with the hitters, who apparently need less time to round into shape.

"We're not going to cry over the games we lose down here," said the manager, "but they are by no means unimportant. It's always good to win — everytime you go to the post — no matter what the circumstances."

It looks now like Frank Lary, Paul Foytack, Jim Bunning and Bill Hoeft will get the starting jobs. Behind them is the one-two bullpen punch of Don Mossi and Ray Narleski. For other relief chores and spot assignments the club has Tom Morgan, Hank Aguirre and George Susce.

That leaves only one or two spots vacant, depending upon the number of pitchers Norman will carry once the season begins. He likely will take 12 of them north when the club breaks camp April 8.

Making a determined bid for one of those spots now is George Spencer, whose name does not even appear on the major league roster. He won a game and saved another in relief early last season. But for some reason, that even present Tiger brass cannot explain, he was sent to Charleston.

There, he helped Norman's team win the American Assn. pennant with a 9-4 record in relief. He appeared in 41 games and had a scintillating 2.01 earned run average.

The former Ohio State University football quarterback is 32 years old and was a leading reliefer with the New York Giants for several seasons before he drifted back to the minor leagues.

The Tigers' game with the St. Louis Cardinals was washed out yesterday by heavy rain that brought cooler weather to Lakeland. The New York Yankees were due in town for a game today at Henley Field. Norman planned to use Bunning, Foytack and Narleski against Bob Turley and Art Ditmar.

MAYS SPIKED — San Francisco Giants outfielder Willie Mays leans back as Dr. Frank Bowman, team physician, closes up a gash on his leg. Seven stitches were required. Willie was spiked when he collided with Boston Red Sox catcher Sammy White in the 6th inning of yesterday's exhibition game at Scottsdale, Ariz.

Stroh Keglers in 4th Place

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI) — The Strohs Beer club of Detroit got off to a fast start in its bid to grab the leadership in the American Bowling Congress' team division last night, then slumped and had to settle for fourth.

Today's feature attraction will see Paul Krumske's Chicago Meister Braus, one of the few remaining major teams still to appear, in action.

The Strohs' 3,115 total marked the second straight night a team has been able to crack the top five in the open team division.

Tony Lindeman led Strohs with 683, Fred Ricilli had 645, Al Savas had 629, George Howard 618 and Bob Crawford 540.

However, the Strohs chalked up one record by becoming the first team in ABC history to register three successive series over 3,100. They shot 3,119 in 1957 and 3,205 in 1958.

Faces Marquette in Regional Twin Bill

MSU Starts NCAA Tourney

From Our Wire Services

Michigan State begins its campaign for NCAA basketball honors tonight, playing Marquette in the 2nd game of a big regional doubleheader at Northwestern.

The opener will match four-time champion Kentucky and Louisville. The Spartans and Wildcats are favored to tangle in the final Saturday at the same site.

MSU automatically made the playoffs by winning the rugged Big Ten race. State finished with an 18-3 record in making the tournament for the 2nd time in three years. The Spartans reached the finals in 1957.

Michigan State will be among the smallest teams in the NCAA games, but jumpers John Green and Horace Walker look like giants on the boards.

Kentucky, which represents the Southeastern Conference, is seeking its 2nd straight pennant. All-America Johnny Cox is the only starter back from last year. The Wildcats are not rated a great team, but lost only two of 25.

Marquette, 23-4, and Louisville, 17-10, had to win playoffs to make the tourney and both did so in impressive fashion. Ed Hickey, of St. Louis and Bradley fame, has put Marquette back on the hoop map. Louisville finished strong, following a 4-5 start, to become the darkhorse.

The Saturday victor will advance to the semifinals at Louisville next weekend.

The National Invitation got rolling at New York last night with Butler and St. John's opening round winners.

Butler hit 53 per cent on field goals in whipping Fordham 94-80 while St. John's failed to impress, but was able to eliminate a green Villanova team, 75-67.

An unusual factor in the Fordham loss was that Pat O'Donnell hit 24 points in the first half and nothing in the 2nd.

The 1st round ends Saturday afternoon with quarter-finals starting that night as Butler faces bigger Bradley, and St. John's faces St. Bonaventure.

Leg Injury Sidelines Willie Mays

By The Associated Press

Hopes of the San Francisco Giants for the 1959 National League pennant may have suffered a serious blow yesterday. Willie Mays, star centerfielder and hitter, suffered a gash in his right leg that will keep him out of the lineup for at least "three or four weeks."

Mays received the bone-deep gash that required 35 stitches sliding into home plate in the sixth inning of an exhibition game against the Boston Red Sox at Scottsdale, Ariz. He said he ripped his leg against the shin guard of Sammy White, Red Sox catcher.

The question immediately arose whether Mays' play would be affected on his return.

With Mays out of the game the Red Sox scored five runs in the eighth—four of them unearned — off Paul Giel for a 7-4 victory, their fifth straight.

Pitchers Herb Score and Mike Garcia of Cleveland, both plagued by injuries last year, saw action yesterday in the Indians' 6-5, 10-inning victory over the Chicago Cubs at Tucson.

Score's three-inning stint was sharp. For Garcia, who underwent an operation to correct a back ailment, his showing was unsuccessful.

Score, making his second appearance of the spring, pitched the first three innings and held Chicago hitless. Garcia was touched for five runs and nine hits in the next two innings in his second outing of the exhibition season.

Carroll Hardy's single in the 10th drove in the winning run for Cleveland. Pitcher Moe Drabowsky of the Cubs injured his right thumb when he fouled off an inside pitch. He is expected to be sidelined about six weeks.

In other games the Cincinnati Reds defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 9-4 at Tampa and the New York Yankees edged the Baltimore Orioles 10-9 in 11 innings at St. Petersburg. Five games were canceled because of rain.

The Reds broke a 4-4 tie with five runs in the seventh inning, bunching three hits, four walks and a wild throw at the expense of losing pitcher Don Rowe. Frank Robinson led the Cincinnati attack with a pair of doubles.

Billy Gardner's error with three bases loaded in the 11th inning enabled the Yanks to pull out their victory after they blew an 8-1 first-inning lead. Pitcher Duke Maas capped the opening frame with a grand-slam home run. Mickey Mantle returned to the Yankee lineup after nursing a sore right shoulder and delivered his first hit of the spring.

Elsewhere around the exhibition trail: Cincinnati asked waivers on utilityman Eddie Miksis while outfielder Roberto Clemente reported to the Pittsburgh camp after a five-month stint in the Marines. Washington has turned a cold shoulder to New York's offer of two minor leaguers for relief ace Dick Hyde. Milwaukee has had similar luck trying to pry Junior Gilliam away from the Dodgers.

Three City Cage Kings Crowned

K. of C., Grill, Royals Annex Titles in Classes A, B, and D

City League basketball champions were crowned in classes A, B and D last night with the Class C title remaining to be decided next week.

The Knights of Columbus annexed the Class A crown yesterday with an 89-70 triumph over the Sports Shop at Pontiac Northern.

Griff's Grill nailed down the "B" title, also on the Northern court, with a 72-70 conquest of Booth Homes, the regular season winner. The Lakeside Royals claimed Class D honors by nipping Welden's, 49-47, in sudden death overtime at Lincoln Junior High.

Hal Trott poured 29 points through the hoop to pace the K. of C. victory. Bill Spain tallied 20 in defeat for the Sportsmen and Bob McManus added 20 to the K. of C. offense.

George Lang's 17 points sparked Griff's well-balanced attack while Booth's Dennis McClelland took individual game scoring honors with 20. Allen Howze's field goal won the overtime decision plus the "D" title for Lakeside. Larry Douglas fired 25 points for the Royals while Bill Davis topped Welden's with 21.

Nelson Joins Bump's Staff at Michgan

ANN ARBOR Mich. (AP)—Jack A. Nelson has resigned as end coach at the University of Colorado to take a job as assistant to head University of Michigan football coach Chalmers (Bump) Elliott.

Elliott said the signing of Nelson yesterday completed the rebuilding of the Michigan staff. Nelson, 31, is a graduate of Gustavus Adolphus College in his native Minnesota.

Jack Blott, former "M" line coach, will take over as general manager of the University golf course and ice rink beginning April 1.

Harry C. Kaseberg, manager of the units for the past 12 years, has sent his resignation to the board in control of intercollegiate athletics.

'Sugar' Ponders Million Dollar Title Fight Offer

NEW YORK (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson today pondered over an offer of a guaranteed million dollar gate for what may be his last fight—a battle of champions with Archie Moore in Yankee Stadium in September.

The bid was made by promoter Bill Rosensohn in a conference with Robinson yesterday. He said he plans to follow it up with a talk with Moore, the 42-year-old light heavyweight champion.

Rosensohn, who has the Floyd Patterson - Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight set for Yankee Stadium in June, is aiming to sew up boxing's two greatest attractions for the big city.

The big bid means that Rosensohn is offering at least $600,000 for Robinson, the 38-year-old middleweight champion, and Moore to divvy up. Rosensohn said he had offered them 60 per cent of the million dollar gate plus the same percentage of the television and other receipts.

How would the 60 per cent be split?

"Down the middle of course," said Robinson, "30-30."

Moore has said that if he fights Robinson he would want "the champion's cut — 40 per cent. After all my title would be at stake, not his."

"That's the best offer we've gotten to date," said Sugar Ray. "This probably will be my last fight and I want to get as big a purse as I can. Archie also is in the twilight of his career and he wants a big one too for his next fight.

"I'm going to do a lot more talking with Rosensohn and his people. There's a lot to be ironed out. I want to make the best possible deal I can get. I'm mostly interested in spacing out the payments over a period of years.

"I'm discussing the fight with other promoters, too," said Robinson. "Truman Gibson has made a very good offer and I intend to see him again. I'm not at liberty to say what he offered but it was very nice."

Eliot Quits Grid Post

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — What prompted Ray Eliot to quit as University of Illinois football coach with 17 seasons behind him? "A guy has to quit sometime," he said today.

"The last few years, I took a look at myself and said 'How far do you go coaching and how do you end,'" explained Eliot, dean of Big Ten football coaches.

The 53-year-old Eliot, a bespectacled, bald man who switches from serious discussion to a quip in a flash, yesterday resigned as coach, effective after the 1959 season, to become assistant Illini athletic director.

"I said to myself," continued Eliot, "if an administrative position comes up, I'll take it. It did, in the form of assistant to Athletic Director Doug Mills, and I took it."

Eliot's Illini won two Big Ten titles, shared another, and had a 78-70-10 overall record since he succeeded the late Bob Zuppke as head coach in 1942.

"It sort of breaks your heart a little bit to leave the wonderful fellows I have met in the football world, particularly the coaches," said Eliot.

Steve Nagy New Falstaff Captain

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Steve Nagy, a top name in the sport of bowling, today was named captain of the Falstaff bowling team of St. Louis.

Nagy has signed a two-year contract with the team and will move his family here from Detroit.

Nagy replaces Buzz Fazio. Nagy, 35, has averaged 203 pins a game in 10 years of American Bowling Congress competition. He is a former standout with the Detroit Pfeiffer team.

Hawk Ace Sets 6 NBA Season Marks

Pettit Rewrites Records

NEW YORK (AP) — Bob Pettit is the National Basketball Assn. scoring champion this season—and an author of sorts, to boot. He almost singlehandedly rewrote the NBA record book, finals statistics revealed today.

The St. Louis Hawks star set six major records, breaking only one of his own. In addition, Bill Sharman, Bob Cousy and Bill Russell of Boston, and Kenny Sears of New York, also set new records.

Pettit, the former Louisiana State All America who led the Hawks to the NBA title last year, and the Western division title so far, this year, scored the most points, 2,105; had the highest per game average, 29.2; most free throws made, 667; and most 50-point games in a season, 3.

Syracuse's George Yardley saw three of his records, set with Detroit, go by the boards — all to Pettit. Yardley had the old season high of 2,001 point which Pettit broke two weeks ago; the most free throws attempted, 808; and made, 655; while Pettit broke George Mikan's 28.4 season average, set in 1950-51.

Pettit's teammate Clyde Lovellette lost his mark of 679 field goals for a season, set with Cincinnati in 1957-58. Previously, Pettit and Mikan shared the 50-point games with two each.

Sears field goal percentage of .490 broke Larry Foust's mark of .487 while Sharman upped his foul shooting percentage mark to .929 from .905 Russell grabbed 1,612 rebounds to better his mark of 1,564 and had the highest average, 23.0, to break his 22.7 mark.

The final leaders:

Top Area Prep Tankers Point for State Event

Pontiac Central, Birmingham and Royal Oak Kimball high schools will be represented at the state prep swimming and diving championships, today and Saturday at Michigan State University.

They are the area's leading teams, although Pontiac Northern, Southfield, Ferndale and RO Dondero also engaged in the sport on varsity level.

Chiefs will have five competitors. They qualified many more than that number, but only top performers will take part in the meet, held in the fine new Spartan pool. The 400-yard freestyle will be held tonight.

Pontiac Central's chief hope for a winner rests on husky Bruce Norvell, in the 100-yard orthodox breaststroke. Bruce has gone undefeated in this year's duals as a sophomore. This is also his first year of varsity competition. The smooth-stroking Saginaw Valley champion has never been hard-pressed at any time.

Other PCH entries are Ted Gaensbauer in the 200 and 400-yard freestyle (Ted was 2nd in the recent SVC "400"), Jerry Gavette in the 100-yard butterfly, Jim Gibbs in the 100-yard backstroke, and Barry Horst, freestyler. Gibbs, Norvell, Gavette and Horst will also swim the 200-yard medley relay, in which they placed 4th in the Valley meet.

Maples will have 18 in the meet, led by Dave Smith (backstroke, medley), Denny Collins (200-yard freestyle, medley), Jim Walls (backstroke, med. relay), Pete Palmer, Jim Elliott (fine freestylers), Bill Buick, Bob Sintz (fast 100-yard freestylers), and Bill Driver (100-yard breaststroke).

Royal Oak Kimball's top hope is speedy Barry Johnson in the 400-200 yards freestyle events. Dondero will have a very good medley relay team in contention.

'The Babe and I'

Ruth Hits Homer for Bride

By MRS. BABE RUTH
with Bill Slocum

(Condensed from "The Babe and I," copyright 1959, by Mrs. Babe Ruth and published by Prentice Hall, Inc.)

The Yankees went to St. Louis and our show to New Haven. Much to my surprise, the Babe called from St. Louis. He called every other night for the balance of the Yankee tour.

But if he was wooing me he didn't make any sounds that would suggest it. He was in a slump, and he wanted to talk about his troubles.

I listened and said the proper things. Also I asked for a report on his conduct and he assured me he was behaving himself.

It was all pretty prosaic talk, but it was endless, and I always had to cut it off with some variation of "I'm a working girl and need my sleep. It wouldn't be a bad idea if you went to bed, too."

When the show opened in New York and the Yankees returned he called, lower than ever. The trip had been a personal catastrophe. He said "I'd like to see you."

I invited him to my home. He met my mother, my daughter, and my two brothers. The Babe liked my mother. He hunted and fished with my brothers. He was crazy about Julia.

And the Babe and I fell in love.

ROAD BLOCK

These are the facts as I knew them:

I was not breaking up a home. It was broken.

Babe had met Miss Helen Woodford when he was with the Boston club in 1914. She was a waitress in Landers' Restaurant there. She was, I am told, very beautiful. She was 16 and he was 20 when they married. He had bought a farm outside of Boston and she was living there when we met.

Ours was a long courtship — more than five years — filled with frustration, and not a little humiliation.

We had the basic problem of Babe being a married man. If my conscience was clear, it did not lessen the problem in any way, because Babe was not just another married man out of love with his wife.

A UNIQUE PROBLEM

He was Babe Ruth, the idol of "the dirty-faced kids" of the streets of New York, and the idol of the presumably clean-faced kids of Glens Falls, Spokane, San Diego, Portland and what have you. And if there was one thing in all the world that Babe Ruth was aware of it was the place he held in the hearts of the kids of this country.

There was nothing in my own religious training at the time to make divorce repugnant to me.

The man had no home. He lived in hotels. My home became his. But I could never even have a picture of him in my home lest someone see it and gossip.

Babe's picture was in 10,000 American homes, I'm sure, but not in mine.

We couldn't go out to dinner. His was the most familiar face in the land.

It was an absolutely miserable position for me, bearable only because I was in love and because he, too, found it intolerable.

His anguished monologues on the matter always boiled down to: "I'm a Catholic, I'm married, and I've got a kid."

He didn't have a "kid," although neither he nor I knew it then. He was talking about Dorothy, a girl he and his wife had adopted in infancy. Dorothy was living with Mrs. Ruth but her final adoption papers had never been filed.

PRIEST ADVISED MARRIAGE

On January 11, 1929, Mrs. Ruth was burned to death in a fire at Watertown, Mass.

Babe went up to the funeral and left immediately after it for the Yankee training camp in St. Petersburg, Fla. He was distraught, frantic about Dorothy, and in a perfect mood to forget his troubles in his own distinguished way. But he worked hard, behaved and got into first class condition.

Naturally, he never wrote. But his telephone bill for the 1929 training period was $1,600.

When the team returned to New York he wanted to get married. So did I. But he wondered about marrying so soon after his wife's death. I felt I was in no position to counsel him. I suggested he talk it over with Father Hughes of St. Gregory's.

We both knew Father Hughes and he paid me the great compliment of advising the Babe to get married to me as soon as he could.

We were married on April 17, 1929. Opening day, no less!

We could not keep the marriage a secret, so we did the next best thing. We were married at 5 a.m., before first mass. Obviously that would avoid mobs.

HOMER FOR THE BRIDE

But it didn't. Not only was the church filled to capacity but, to my horror, there were more than 6,000 people outside on the sidewalk and street. Our wedding breakfast was an intimate little affair for my family and 10 of our closest friends—plus every darn reporter and photographer in the city of New York.

Things improved a little shortly thereafter. It rained and the game had to be postponed.

Next day I at last attended a game as Babe Ruth's wife. My enchantment was soon displaced by sheer terror. By the time I was seated half of my clothes had been torn off by a cheering mob.

Then the Babe came over to say hello and pose for pictures. That almost started another riot.

You may remember that the first time I met Babe he did nothing in the field. But this time he arose to the occasion. He hit the very first pitch over the LEFT field fence. Babe, being a lefthanded hitter, almost invariably hit his homers over the RIGHT field wall.

He trotted around the bases grinning, and as he touched third he tipped his cap to me and blew me a kiss.

Monday: A self-styled "bum" on the westerfront at 7, he finds understanding from a compassionate giant.

On the eve of their marriage: The Babe and Claire.

Ruth, Dorothy and the first Mrs. Ruth.

By BEN OLAN

There's bound to be a lot of confusion when it's discovered that a player has batted out of turn. But how is such a situation straightened out?

Here's a theoretical case in which a player bats in an improper spot in the batting order. Consider yourself a baseball expert if you can produce the correct answer.

The New York Yankees and the Red Sox are in the last half of the fifth inning at Boston. Pete Runnels starts off for the Sox with a double to left. Ted Williams approaches the plate and just as he does so, Yankee manager Casey Stengel rushes out to the plate umpire. Stengel claims that Don Buddin, not Runnels, should have been the first Boston batter in the inning. A check of the official batting order reveals that Buddin, Runnels and Williams should have batted in that order.

Do you think that:

a. Buddin is out and Runnels must bat over again?
b. Buddin is out and Runnels can remain on second?
c. Both Buddin and Runnels are out?
d. Runnels is out and Buddin is the batter?

Answer: B — Buddin is out and Runnels must bat over again. Because Buddin batted out of turn, he is out. Runnels becomes the proper batter, but he must bat again.

Women's Event in 3rd Session

Second Half of City Keg Tourney Will Begin Saturday Night

The 2nd half of the 26th annual City Women's bowling tourney begins Saturday evening with a full slate Sunday completing the third of four weekends.

Sponsored by the Pontiac Women's Bowling Association, the event is being held at Montcalm Centre.

Two Saturday squads will be made up of teams. All Sunday play will involve doubles and singles starting at 10 a.m.

Pontiac keglers currently lead only one of the three major divisions in the tourney open to all area P.W.B.A. members.

The Eleanor Needham-Marvel Szot duo hit 1238 the 1st week and it still stands as the best in doubles.

Goebel's of Utica took over 1st in team scoring last week with 2,961 as the top five teams dropped. Betty Given of Oxford has had no early threat to her early 600 in singles.

All events actual pacesetter is Rochester's Gerry Hintz with 1,590. Betty Driver has the 1st place mark in actual pins for game with 232. Bettey Given's 570 actual is the best series. Marvis Peterson heads the pack for handicap game at 277.

The women are battling for $3,299 in prize money and trophies. Teams will divide $1,460, top performers in doubles and singles will share $792 for each division and $255 is reserved for all events.

Eaves, who had conferred with Texas officials about a similar post, replied upon arrival from Texas that "I'll stay at Auburn."

Films Reveal Track Meet Errors

Big Ten Standings Altered

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Final team standing in last week's Big Ten indoor track meet were shaken up yesterday after movies revealed the judges were wrong on finishes in three events.

Indiana, which was reported as finishing fourth last week, switchd places with third place Ohio State, and Minnesota moved up to sixth place as Michigan State tumbled a notch to seventh.

Wisconsin track coach Riley Best and the meet's finish judge, Henry Spiker, announced the changes after inspecting the official movies.

Films showed that Al Phillips of Indiana took fourth in the 60-yard dash, instead of being unplaced as previously believed. The two points gained on Phillips' fourth place were enough to puh his team into its final third place finish.

Other changes in the 60-yard event placed Delbert Coleman of Illinois in fifth instead of fourth, and Willmer Fowler of Northwestern, announced as a fifth place finisher last week, was dropped from the final placings.

In the 70-yard high hurdles Dave Odegard of Minnesota ended in fourth spot and Wisconsin's Bob Guerts took fifth. Previously, both were listed as tied for fourth.

Fourth place in the 440-yard run went to Mike Johnson of Indiana and a fifth place tie was awarded to Ivar Kauls of Minnesota and Ted Storer of Ohio State. Originally, Storer was listed fifth and Kauls sixth.

Final corrected team standings: Michigan 71, Illinois 47, Indiana 27½, Ohio State 25¼, Wisconsin 16, Minnesota 14¼, Michigan State 13¾, Purdue 10¾, Iowa 4, Northwestern 1½.

Van Cliburn's Doctor Orders Rest, Rest, Rest

Piano Silent 1st Time in 21 Years

NEW YORK (AP)—For the first time since he was three years old, Van Cliburn's piano is silent.

The blond, bushy-haired 24-year-old Texan is under doctors' orders to stay away from a keyboard for two months, while the middle finger of his right hand heals from an operation. Then he will be allowed to practice only lightly for another month.

A complete rest is distasteful to Cliburn. He has practiced daily for 21 years, four hours a day before concerts. Now, after the operation on an abscessed fingertip, he is restless to resume his heavy schedule.

"The fact that I can't play is more injurious to my morale than the pain I sustained," the pianist, clad in pale blue pajamas and a blue plaid robe, remarked at the Hospital for Special Surgery.

Despite his weakness, he has kept busy in his private eighth-floor room, from which he can look northward at barges moving slowly along the East River.

Now he has a chance to watch television — "Something I never had much time for before."

"I've done a little reading, too," he reported. "Poetry, for the moment—poetry more than prose." A favorite is Lord Byron.

On his bed lay an orchestration of Samuel Barber's "Capricorn Concerto," and he had just finished playing a Metropolitan Opera recording of Barber's opera "Vanessa." Among the books piled on his table was "Olin Downes on Music."

An abscessed finger is more serious than it may sound, and Cliburn's physician has ordered him to rest in the sun when he is released from the hospital.

"Every concert is only postponed," he replied, smiling, to a question about cancellations. "I don't believe in 'cancellations.' Never close the door, you know.

"I have received several invitations to play with my good hand—some pieces like Ravel's "Left Hand Concerta"—but the doctor thinks I should rest."

One major regret was postponing a concert trip scheduled in the Soviet Union next month—the country where he became famous by winning the Tchaikowsky piano contest last April.

Cliburn thinks his finger became infected while he was clipping his nails — a necessary chore for pianists — and he apparently cut the one nail at an odd angle.

"I've had lots of sore fingers before, and played in spite of them," he remarked. "In fact, one finger was split down the side the night I won the competition in Moscow. But this one was so bad I could hardly play."

The five physicians who worked on his half-hour operation Feb. 27 had one unusual difficulty, due to his constant piano-playing — cutting through a callus one-eighth inch thick on his finger.

"I'm going to have a terribly tender hand," Cliburn predicted. "Not just from inactivity, but because I have to soak it every day."

Now Cliburn's major concern is waiting to see if the nail will grow back. He has the fingers of his other hand crossed on that.

Asthma Remedy Gets Three Oaks Man in Trouble

THREE OAKS (UPI) — Robert Johnson's asthma got him in trouble with State Police, but now it looks as though the whole thing has blown over.

Johnson, 43, lives on a farm near Three Oaks. When his asthma acted up last summer, he tried a number of remedies.

He had an abundant crop of some kind of weed on his farm and he even tried smoking that for his asthma. It seemed to help.

Last Saturday, State Police arrested Johnson on a charge of possessing marijuana. They confiscated a quart jar of weeds and sent it to Lansing for examination in the state crime laboratory. Johnson was released on bond.

Police got a report back from the laboratory yesterday. The report said the jar contained nothing but weeds—no marijuana.

Indiana police also had arrested a friend of Johnson's on charges of transportation and possession of marijuana. Charges against both men are expected to be dismissed shortly.

Ford Plans Plant in Argentina

BUENOS AIRES (UPI)—Henry Ford II is negotiating with the Argentine government for the construction of a 15-million-dollar truck assembly plant in this country.

Ford told a press conference that he cannot disclose details of the project because his company has not yet presented its final proposals to the government.

The American industrialist and his 11-year-old son Edsel II visited President Arturo Frondizi at the Argentine "White House" yesterday. Young Edsel had the run of the building, but he told newsmen later it didn't impress him as much as the Buenos Aires zoo.

Diesel locomotives cut railroad fuel costs from one-three to three-fourths, depending on the type of operation.

Soybeans Ease; Grains Steady

CHICAGO (AP)—Soybean futures eased slightly but the grains were steady to firm today in early transactions on the Board of Trade.

Activity appeared to be confined mainly to evening up operations in March contracts for which there are only five remaining trading days. There was no export business overnight and domestic demand was negligible.

With cash receipts light, probably curtailed by recent heavy midwestern snowfalls, hedging was light and covering by shorts a bit more active.

Soybeans had firmed up slightly near the end of the first hour with old crop wheat and rye holding well ahead. Wheat was unchanged to ¾ cent a bushel higher, March $2.07¾; corn ⅜ higher to ⅛ lower, March old type contract $1.18⅛; oats unchanged to ⅛ higher, March 65¾; rye unchanged to 1⅛ higher, March $1.43⅛; soybeans ⅝ higher to ⅛ lower, March $2.21⅝.

Citizens Warned to Be on Alert for Bogus Bills

A warning to local citizens to be on guard against bogus bills which have been circulated increasingly in Pontiac the past week was issued today by Pontiac police detectives.

Bogus cheeck passers are splitting bills lengthwise and passing them off to unsuspecting persons according to Detective John Williams.

The latest victim of the practice was a cab driver, Frank A. McDonald, of 3½ N. Paddock St. He told police yesterday a customer handed him a $10 bill, then asked for its return after receiving his change because a phone number was written on the bill.

Then, McDonald told police, the rider carelessly tossed another $10 bill on the front seat and walked off.

Hours later when McDonald looked at the bill he saw that one side was part of a $10 bill, while the other was part of a $1 bill.

Detectives today urged area residents to carefully examine all bills they receive.

Steels, Airlines Lead Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels, airlines and selected issues were in demand as the stock market advanced in heavy early trading today.

Gains of leading stocks ran from fractions to about a point. There were many small losers among various groups including rails and coppers.

Ford dropped about a point on the news the Ford Foundation plans to sell another 2,000,000 shares of Ford Motor stock to the public.

Avco was extremely active in the wake of news it had received more than 40 million dollars in new contracts in February. It opened on a huge block of 33,000 shares, up ⅜ at 14.

An unusual parade of very big blocks was traded, reflecting keen investment interest.

O'Hara of Utica Gives Up $1,500 U.S. Pension

Rep. James G. O'Hara of Utica (D-7th District) has announced that he's giving up about $1,500 a year to charity because he doesn't feel right about drawing two U. S. Government checks.

The congressman in Washington confirmed a report he's contributing his World War II disability pension to charity, and added:

"I'm not interested in getting any publicity about this. I just decided to do it when I was elected to Congress."

He said he contributes to various charities an amount equivalent to his disability check, "something over $120 a month."

He said the pension was awarded him after he contracted pulmonary tuberculosis while a paratrooper in the Pacific area.

"One thing though," he added, "I'm not interested in giving away my congressional paycheck too."

His Congressional salary is $22,500 a year.

Michigan State University Oakland is located in one of the most rapidly-growing population centers in America.

ORDERED BY B&O RAILROAD — This is part of the fleet of 491 GMC trucks being put into service by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Co. The picture was taken at the GMC Truck & Coach Division's manufacturing plant in Pontiac shortly before the vehicles were shipped out.

Part of B & O's Large New Commercial Fleet

GMC Pickup Truck Can 'Ride the Rails'

Some 491 new GMC trucks—including a number of pickups especially equipped to "ride the rails' like section cars — are being put into service by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, according to R. C. Woodhouse, general truck sales manager of GMC Truck & Coach Division.

This is one of the largest commercial fleet orders ever placed with GMC Truck Division.

Earmarked for track maintenance work, the vehicles will operate out of strategic rail centers throughout the B&O system.

The GMC fleet consists of 204 Model 375 stake trucks, 168 Model 253 panel trucks, 100 Model 101 pickups, 15 Model 253 cab and chassis with utility bodies, and 4 Model 453 dump trucks.

Many units are equipped with special devices for performing their work along rail right-of-ways. Sixty-nine of the stake trucks, for example, have winches mounted on the truck chassis and five have rear-mounted cranes.

Each pickup has two retractable rail wheels at each end. When lowered, these hold the vehicle on the track and permit it to travel along the top of the rails on its standard wheels. With all four tires gripping the rails, the pickup rolls along like it would on a regular highway.

These pickups give rail inspectors and supervisors a highly versatile vehicle that can switch between highway and rail travel by simply lifting or lowering the special rail wheels.

A Success Story

Bonds Financed Trip to Sweden

Gustaf (Gus) Persson, native-born Swede and a Pontiac Motor employe since 1927, needs no reminder that the purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds through the payroll deduction plan is a mighty handy way to meet unexpected expenses.

Through use of the savings plan the V-8 plant employe and his wife, Hannah, were able to satisfy the recent request of Persson's aging parents in Sweden for "one last visit."

The Pontiac couple, who reside at 291 Starr St., spent 90 days abroad during the middle of last year.

"Thanks to the bonds we made two fine people very happy," Persson said. Mrs. Persson, who met her in-laws for the first time, was also able to visit the birthplace of her own father.

"The bonds took care of 50 per cent of our expenses," Persson revealed. "And we traveled nicely aboard the Swedish Kungsholm and Gripsholm ocean liners."

Persson, who has purchased bonds for the past 20 years, has also found this type of saving helpful in meeting everyday living expenses.

"Bonds were a great help in the purchase of our home as well as in numerous home improvements," he explained. "The payroll deduction plan is an easy way to save and it is a good feeling to know I am contributing to this country's growth as well as my own."

Persson, a native of Varmland, Sweden, joined Pontiac Motor soon after stepping onto American soil in 1927. He became a U. S. citizen in 1939. Now a repairman in the V-8 plant's piston department, he recalls first working under a canvas roof while the new plant was under construction.

He and his Minnesota-born wife, Hannah, married in 1950 while she was employed with GM Truck and Coach. Mrs. Persson is currently assistant manager of a downtown beauty shop.

"We enjoy visiting Sweden but we will never leave this land of opportunity," Persson asserted.

Since Monday, firms and agencies in Pontiac have been participating in a week-long campaign, urging their employes to enroll in the "Share in America" payroll deduction plan by signing up for the purchase of Savings Bonds.

'Barron Pump' No News

The "Barron Food Pump"—an instrument that has figured importantly in the treatment of ailing Secretary of State Dulles and Gen. George C. Marshall—is no stranger to Pontiac General Hospital.

The hospital purchased its first Barron pump—named after its developer Dr. James Barron of Henry Ford Hospital — 1½ years ago, and now has five of them, said Harold B. Euler, Pontiac General administrator.

"There have been many days recently when all five have been in use proving in many instances to be life-saving machines," Euler said.

The pump is designed to introduce fluids slowly into the stomach of a patient who is unconscious or otherwise unable to swallow.

Developed two years ago, it is described as vastly superior to intravenous feeding in many cases Euler said.

Plastic tubes thinner than the average pencil lead are used in conjunction with the pump. They are inserted into the stomach through the mouth and the liquids pumped through them.

Some foods that can be reduced to liquid form and used in this fashion are steak, chicken, ham, fruit, fresh vegetables and eggs.

Stock Offered by Ford Motor

Foundation to Sell Two Million Block; Price Is Less Than 1st Deal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Million shares of Ford Motor Co. stock will be offered for public sale at the end of this month by the Ford Foundation.

The offering of common class "A" stock, at today's price, will be worth more than 110 million dollars.

The foundation notified the Securities and Exchange Commission Thursday of the intended sale.

Plans outling the sale said the offering price would depend on the price of Ford stock on the New York Stock Exchange just before the block of shares is released. Ford stock closed on the New York market Thursday at $55.37, up 62 cents on the day. This compares with the original offering price of $64.50 a share and a low of $35.87 in 1957.

The only earlier big offering of Ford stock to investors was in 1956, when the public was first invited into part ownership of the previously tightly held family corporation. That issue of 10,200,000 shares was the largest issue of equity stock in history.

The foundation is a nonprofit corporation organized for scientific, educational and charitable purposes. It owns 36,132,230 shares of Ford stock, acquired through gifts and bequests from Henry and Edsel Ford.

Starr to Head Engineers Panel

Pontiac Motor Man Will Lead Production Talks in Detroit March 20

B. E. Starr, general manufacturing manager of Pontiac Motor Division, will head a production panel on Friday, March 20, during the Society of Automotive Engineers National Automobile Week sessions in Detroit's Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel.

Starr's panel, which includes as secretary, J. J. Ryan, Pontiac's supervisor of quality control, will discuss "Economy of Correcting Assembly Troubles at the Source."

A veteran of 32 years of service with Pontiac, Starr joined the division after early experience with the Oakland Motor Car, General Motors Truck, and American Car and Foundry companies.

Beginning with Pontiac's experimental engine design division, Starr was transferred to manufacturing in 1937 as assistant superintendent of the engine plant. From 1941 to 1944 he headed Pontiac plants involved in the manufacture of weapons for World War II.

Starr was promoted to general superintendent over all Pontiac plants in May 1944, and held that position until his appointment as manufacturing manager in 1947. He assumed the duties of general manufacturing manager in 1951.

House Group Would Extend Jobless Pay

WASHINGTON (AP) — In apparent indifference to President Eisenhower's opposition, the House Ways and Means committee made ready to act today on a one-year extension of the federal unemployment pay law.

The emergency jobless pay act expires April 1. It was enacted last spring as a temporary anti-recession measure to provide additional federal benefits to workers who exhausted their unemployment compensation rights under state systems.

Its estimated cost for the initial one-year period is in excess of 400 million dollars.

The President has thrown his weight against any extension of the program for as long as a year, although his congressional lieutenants have indicated a lesser period might be acceptable.

Eisenhower told his news conference Wednesday that payments for the jobless are primarily a state responsibility.

A government count for February showed 62,722,000 persons employed and 4,749,000 jobless—both changed only slightly from January totals. An estimated 300,000 of the unemployed would be eligible for additional federal benefits after April 1 if the program is extended.

One of Nation's 2 Civil War Vets Battles for Life

KINGSPORT, Tenn. (AP)—John Salling, one of two surviving veterans of the Civil War, was waging the battle of his long life early today. Pneumonia closed in on the 112-year-old Confederate soldier.

Salling was brought to Munal Clinic, a private hospital here, from his home in Slant, Va., Thursday. Dr. John Munal confirmed the diagnosis, and said Salling was in very poor condition.

The only other survivor of the Civil War is Walter Williams of Houston, Tex., who was 116 on Nov. 14. He has been bedfast and in declining health for many months.

Two members of Salling's family — one a great-granddaughter 100 years younger than he—are in the same hospital. They are Mrs. Hobart Hawkins, wife of a grandson, who is recovering from recent surgery, and her daughter, Linda, 12, who is in good condition, also with pneumonia.

Hoffa Tries to Woo Oil Refinery Workers

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — James R. Hoffa, Teamsters Union president, told independent oil refinery workers Thursday night: "Join us and more than a million Teamsters will help you fight your battles with Esso Standard Oil Co."

Hoffa ignored criticism of 30 AFL-CIO unions in the area who protested his coming here. The unions ran newspaper advertising, and used radio and TV time to protest his attempt to bring the Independent Industrial Workers Assn. into the Teamsters.

He spoke to a crowd estimated at more than 1,000 at the United Mine Workers Union hall, only place the IIWA could obtain.

Hoffa made it clear he intended bringing all independent Standard Oil unions into the Teamsters.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR brother, August Vangeloff, who passed away March 13, 1956. Mrs. Michael Kerensky and Family.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF S. N. Gene Pearce who passed away just one year ago, March 13, 1958.

You have gone in vain
But still you remain
In the hearts of the ones who loved you so.
God taken you away
On that one day
And put you in heaven
Where they all stay
He has given protection, duty and all
But that one day was the end of all.
Sadly missed by mother, father and family.

Parliament Gals Stun Men With 'Vulgar' Quarrel

LONDON (AP) —"Oh, Edith, you really are an ass!"

"Vulgar abuse," came the retort.

It was strictly a woman's row in the House of Commons Thursday night between two stalwarts of feminine rights.

House Chairman Charles Rogers showed gallantry—or diplomacy—with the innocent explanation "I didn't hear a word" when some male complained of the unladylike language.

Dr. Edith Summerskill, a diehard Socialist, protested American companies were among firms flooding the British market with highpriced drugs.

Dame Irene Ward, a diehard Tory, objected and shouted the "ass" remark at her distaff colleague.

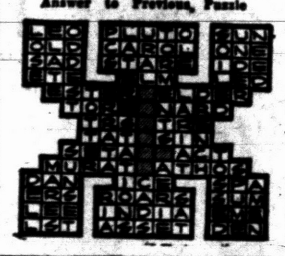

Male members o the House, who customarily address even their bitterest political rivals as "the honorable member," were stunned.

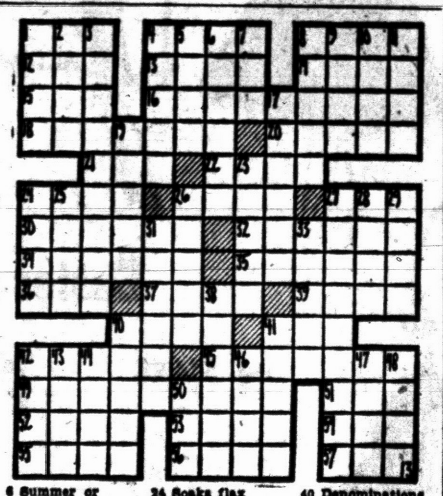

"I am surprised," said Dr. Edith, "that Dame Irene should be so feline."

"Well, really," replied Dame Irene, "it is too ridiculous to take that line."

Dr. Edith, 58, and an outspoken critic of legalized prize fighting, and Dame Irene, who refuses to disclose her age, are personal friends outside the political arena.

'Mature' Couple Says Teens Aren't Stupid

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — There's one thing that young people like Richard Zanuck (who's 24) are experts on. That's young people.

WILSON

Sitting at lunch with his 19-year-old bride who's expecting in September, behind a small mustache very much like Darryl Zanuck's, he spoke glibly of Hollywood croquet games, and of private planes, and when he mentioned a figure like "one" or "two" he referred to $1,000,000 or $2,000,000.

"One thing Hollywood can do is present the younger generation more mature subjects," Darryl Zanuck's son said. "If the only pictures we make are about werewolves, the teenagers will go, but they want something better."

Mrs. Zanuck—the former Lili Gentle—19 on March 4—sipped her milk like a good little mother-to-be.

"When they see this werewolf stuff, they laugh. They're not stupid!" she said.

"A guy 17 can be drafted into the army," pointed out young Mr. Zanuck, who after all, was Orson Welles' boss when they made "Compulsion." And he spoke of a preview of that picture held recently in Long Beach.

"I was pretty nervous—my first preview," he admitted. "All those leather jacket guys on motorcycles! Looked like a real bunch of tough guys. Like a gang. I thought, 'They'll tear us apart.'

ZANUCKS

"But they laughed at every joke right on time — they gave us an ovation—and on their cards they said the best scene was Orson Welles' courtroom scene playing Clarence Darrow—it was the most intellectual scene.

'For Whom the Bell Tolls' Both Awfully Good, Awful

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI) — The first section of "For Whom the Bell Tolls" unfurled last night on CBS-TV's Playhouse 90, was a curious alloyage of the awfully good and the awful.

Ernest Hemingway's novel of the efforts of some Loyalist partisans to blow up a bridge during the Spanish Civil War contains patches of some of the worst writing ever turned out by a major author—its love scenes are stupifyingly dull and its principal figure, Robert Jordan, is a cardboard man.

It's to Maria Schell's credit that those love scenes—fatuous, unreal, pubescent—were thumped alive last night.

Miss Schell, a player of luminous prescence, gave them extraordinary believability. She injected calories and maturity into them and unlumped them completely.

However, Jason Robards Jr., who was playing Jordon, was not quite as fortunate. As long as the action centered around Robards—and here I except the Schell-Robards love scenes—the play seemed flat, awkward, unfired.

But when the drama shifted its focus to another character, Pablo—beautifully played by Nehemiah Persoff—the screen exploded.

Persoff's Pablo was a hunk of meat playing. Bearded, boorish and beat, he swiped the show out from under everyone else.

He caught magnificently the mingleament of barbarity and civilization, butcher and shattered hero.

Next week, Playhouse 90 will turn to the final part of "For Whom the Bell Tolls" and I suggest you catch it.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Oscar Levant is signed in for the April 8 NBC-TV Milton Berle Show.

Barbara Stanwyck Theater, a hot possibility for an NBC-TV, berth next season, is going before the cameras at Desilu this month — Miss Stanwyck will star in about two out of every three shows of the suspense series.

Slash Bond to $500 in Alleged Death Plot

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Bond for Mrs. Ernest Gurley, accused of attempted murder in an alleged slay-for-pay plot against her husband, was reduced from $25,000 to $500 Thursday. Her husband took her home.

Gurley, 45, told Circuit Court Judge Vincent Giblin "My wife an dI will go on just as we were because I don't believe she meant to do this."

"Are you scared of her?" Giblin asked.

The state attorney's office contends Mrs. Gurley, 41, gave $100 to a Miami detective in the belief he was a killer for hire and promised him more if he would do away with her husband, a truck driver.

Police Look for Thieves Who Stole Water Tank

SOUTHINGTON, Conn. (UPI) — Police searched for thieves who stole a water tank, but couldn't figure out how they did it.

They said the tank was taken from the rear yard of the Wesson Heating Co. It was eight feet tall, a yard in diameter and weighed 1,100 pounds.

Says Lemnitzer to Head Army

Will Succeed Taylor as Chief of Staff, Claims New York Times

NEW YORK (AP)—Gen Lyman L. Lemnitzer, Army vice chief of staff, will succeed Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, whose second two-year term as chief of staff ends June 30, the New York Times said today.

Taylor is expected to retire, a Washington dispatch to the newspaper added.

The story said reappointments of three members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff will be announced soon.

Those to be reappointed to new two-year terms starting this summer are Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman o the Joint Chiefs of Staff; Gen. Thomas D. White, chie of staff of the Air Force; and Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations.

The second two-year term of Gen. Randolph McC. Pate as commandant of the Marine Corps does not expire until next Dec. 31.

Nat Cole Hits Rock 'n' Roll Record Era

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Good songs are still being written in this rock 'n' roll era, but the public rarely gets to hear them.

So says Nat King Cole, who has been riding high in the popular music world for 20 years.

"It doesn't take talent any more to become popular," the singer told a news conference Thursday. "It takes connections and push.

"They don't build performers like they did in my day." Cole will be 40 Tuesday.)

"The young kids (popular with the rock 'n' roll set) don't owe their thanks to the public. They owe them to the jukebox operators.

"Jukeboxes and the record companies—they're the ones that are killing us off. A guy with good songs, where's he going to take them?"

Cole, who describes himself as "a man with musical integrity," says he may have a partial answer.

"My next album is going to be all new songs." It was cut last summer and scheduled for the market in May while Cole is on a South American tour.

"This has never been tried before in the commercial market," Cole said.

Cole observed: "The kids are controlling the radio today. But they don't buy as many records as they think they buy. Album sales are 75 per cent of the record business. The young adults buy the albums, not the kids."

It's the young adult market Cole will be aiming at in his new album. Songs were picked from the 50 to 60 new numbers he sees weekly.

Nation's Grocers Show Confidence in Business

CHICAGO (UPI)—The nation's grocers are showing their confidence in business by building new stores at an increased rate, according to a trade publication.

The NARGUS Bulletin, published by the National Association of Retail Grocers of the United States, reported that association members will open 15,318 new stores this year at an average cost of $308,942 per store. That's 2,208 more stores than were opened in 1958.

Pressurize Those High Notes, Man

LONDON (AP) — Two learned professors today suggested that trumpet players adopt pressurized space suits to keep them from blacking out or getting dizzy when they hold those high notes.

Edward P. Sharpey - Schafer, professor of medicine at St. Thomas's Hospital in London, and Dr. M. Faulkner, associate professor of music at the University of California, made the recommendation in the British Medical Journal.

In a series of tests last summer at St. Thomas's they said they found when a trumpeter hits a sustained high note, his heart's pumping power falls and the supply of blood to the brain drops off. This often causes dizziness and sometimes blackouts.

Some orchestras even employe a spare trumpeter to take over in a prolonged difficult passage, they reported.

"For orchestras in severe financial difficulties," said the doctors, "it might be possible to dispense with the assistant if the trumpeter wore a pilot's pressure suit."

When the trumpeter gets red in the face from blowing high up the scale, the band leader could press a button on the podium and blow up the trumpeter's suit.

For orchestras which can't afford a relief trumpeter or a pressurized suit, the professors offer another suggestion — have the trumpeter play while lying on his back.

"Dizziness? Black outs? Rubbish. All I ever get is a sore lip," said a leading British horn man.

Fined a Dollar a Pound

BERLIN, Conn. (UPI)—Mrs. Delores R. Harrison, whose appearance in court on a traffic charge was delayed by the arrival of her baby, was asked by the judge how much the child weighed. Seven pounds, said Mrs. Harrison proudly. "I fine you seven dollars," said the judge.

What Will Be Effect on Consumers If U. S. Curbs Oil Imports, Prices?

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—By linking oil imports to the price of petroleum, the government may soon confer on gasoline the status of sugar.

The price of sugar has been subject to government supervision for years. It is controlled by raising or lowering the amount of sugar that may be imported into the United States.

The new curbs on oil imports are accompanied today by reassurances to the consumer that the government henceforth will police the price of oil and its products.

The broader question of curbing oil imports is complicated. It involves everything from health of the domestic producers (many of them small) to the health of those domestic refiners who depend largely on foreign oil; from encouraging more hunting for oil here to conserving our resorces by living off others; from protecting price levels the domestic industry deems bedrock to infuriating allied nations who find us the best market for their oil.

Leaving these industrial and political issues to others to tackle on this Friday the 13, let's look only at the consumer — in particular at the retail price of consumer oil products and government controls.

HOW IT WORKS

Here's how the government might step between you and your service station:

Most foreign oil can be produced and delivered to U. S. shore points more cheaply than can domestic oil. When oil imports rise, they weaken domestic prices. This is the chief complaint of the domestic producers and their fight for curbs on oil imports is natural.

When oil imports are curbed, this weakening of prices is less, or disappears altogether. If the curbs are strong enough, the domestic price may be in a position to rise. (Many domestic producers think it should rise right now if they are to make the profits needed to hunt for new oil sources.)

But the government is promising that if prices rise higher than it thinks the consumer should be asked to pay, it will step in and lower the import curbs until enough cheaper foreign oil flows in to force the price down to what the government deems right for you.

This protection for the consumer looks on the surface like a fine solution of the problem.

CRITICS' VIEW

Critics of government price controls, however, have long memories. They recall other times that the government has tried to clamp down on free markets that work on the law of supply and demand. Sometimes it has tried to reach its end by controlling supplies, as it is doing in the case of oil. Sometimes by trying to control wages.

Even in wartime, when the need for controls wasn't publicly challenged, controls have often led to black markets. In peacetimes they have sometimes led to open producer, labor and consumer revolts.

Critics of government controls also contend that controls tend to breed controls—new ones to make the old work, and new ones to ease hardships on others than those the first ones were intended to help.

So through all the din that will be sounded while the oil industry and the politicians and the diplomats struggle to adapt to, or to overthrow the new oil curbs, it will be interesting to watch the fate of the outsider—the consumer.

Teachers Given Okay to Punish

New York Assemblymen Pass Bill to Permit Use of Force

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Should teachers be free to use corporal punishment on pupils?

Yes, the Assembly said Wednesday. It approved, 100-43, a bill that would prevent school boards from adopting any policy that would bar teachers from using "reasonable force" to discipline unruly pupils.

The state penal law now prohibits criminal prosecution of teachers who exercise reasonable force. However, local boards of education, including the New York City board, have adopted rules against corporal punishment.

Advocates of the bill maintained that teachers needed new authority to deal with hoodlumism and other classroom disorders.

Opponents argued that the term "reasonable force" was too vague and the practice could lead to abuses.

The bill was sponsored by Joseph R. Corso (D-Brooklyn), who maintained the measure was needed to combat a wave of juvenile delinquency in New York City schools.

The bill needs Senate approval and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's signature to become law.

Is Extremely Complimentary

EVERETT, Wash. (AP) — Disk jockey Dan Dillon wrote an eastern recording company asking that his name be put on their promotional mailing list and requesting a complimentary copy of current releases.

Thursday Dillon received 5,000 copies each of the rock 'n' roll recordings of "My Only Love" and "Tell Me Little Darling." He assumes they are free promotional records, but is a bit puzzled about what to do with his windfall.

"I've thought of offering to mail the records to the person who can give the best reason for wanting 10,000 sides of rock 'n' roll," said the bearded Dillon, 21.

"Wow, that's a lot of records. I about broke my back packing them out of the post office."

Indians in the U. S. during 1952 received more than $15 million in bonuses, rentals and royalties from Indian lands which were leased for development of oil and gas.

George Bernard Shaw said it: "It is a woman's business to get married, and a man's business to keep from getting married." . . . If women are so smart, why does it take one an hour to describe a 15-minute phone conversation she's just had with another woman? — Earl Wilson.
