

WOMEN IN WAR – WOMEN ON WAR

My Home — Your War

This film offers an extraordinary look at the effect of the Iraq war through the eyes of an ordinary Iraqi woman. Shot in Baghdad over three years that span the time before, during and after the invasion of Iraq, this profoundly moving film brings a perspective that—until now—has rarely been available to U.S. audiences.

The film combines insightful interviews with Layla Hassan and her family, vibrant scenes of Baghdad and intimate footage shot by Layla herself to paint a compelling picture of how the war has affected average Iraqis.

Lioness

A story of a group of female Army support soldiers who were part of the first program in American history to send women into direct ground combat.

Through intimate accounts, journal excerpts and archival footage, as well as interviews with military commanders, the film follows five Lioness women who served together for a year in Iraq.
