Black and Gold Day welcomes high school students

By Dawn Pauli, contributing writer

Oakland University will welcome high school seniors and their families to campus Saturday, Nov. 13, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. for Black and Gold Day.

"It's a one-stop shop. Students can find our information about their major, financial aid, services the university has to offer and can take a tour of the campus," said Christopher Wolfs, admissions adviser. "They'll learn everything they need to know to make a decision."

Wolfs said he is expecting 500 people to attend Black and Gold Day this year, some traveling from out-of-state and northern Michigan.

Students have the opportunity to hear presentations about the various majors OU offers, meet with representatives, tour the campus and attend information sessions about how to successfully transition to college.

High school seniors can sign up for Black and Gold Day using the online reservation system or by calling the Office of Admissions at (800) OAK-UNIV.
