

LGBT Health Awareness Week, March 28 - April 1

The National Coalition for LGBT Health is "committed to improving the health and well-being of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender individuals through federal and local advocacy, education, and research." Each year, they sponsor LGBT Health Awareness Week to encourage discussion of LGBT Health. This year's theme is OUTvisible: Redefining Stigma in LGBT Healthcare from Invisible to OUTvisible to raise awareness of stigma in LGBT healthcare and LGBT health disparities.

In celebration of the week, the Coalition is sponsoring a series of online educational activities. For more information, visit their website.

Student Corner

Student Printing in the Medical Library Study Rooms As a result of the University retiring GoPrint stations, medical students wishing to print in the Medical Library can now print directly to the printers in the Group Study Room, KL 100. Printing is free, but requires a little set-up on your computers. Check your email for more information or stop by the Medical Library Office with any questions about setting up your computer for printing.

Faculty Corner

Faculty Brown Bag Series Our 2016 faculty development series continues in April! Each session will be held on Oakland's campus in Room 478 O'Dowd Hall from 12:00 - 1:00pm. Anyone interested in the topic is welcome to attend. Please feel free to bring your lunch! Our next session will be:

- Wednesday, April 13: Disseminating Your Scholarship of Teaching - Revisiting MedEdPORTAL In this session, participants will be guided through the MedEdPORTAL submission process including reviewing guidelines for submitting to Publications, reviewing the new Educational Summary Report required for submissions, discussing copyright concerns, and hearing updates on MedEdPORTAL Publications.
