LECTURE-CONCERT SERIES: Dr. Wright, of the University of Minnesota English faculty, is the first guest of the 1961-1962 lecture-concert series. He is a Fulbright Fellow and has won several other prizes and study grants in recognition of his work in literature. Among these is the Robert Frost Poetry Prize. He is the author of two poetry collections, "The Green Wall", published in 1956 in the Yale Series of Younger Poets; and a new book, "Saint Judas". His lecture will be augmented by readings from his works.

COLLATERAL PROGRAM: Dr. Hoopes will lecture on the tradition of "courtly love" that grew up in the late middle ages, and has profoundly influenced both literature and life in the West.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT: Dr. Collins announces that the Minneapolis Symphony has agreed to perform with MSUO University Chorus on March 3. The composition to be performed is "The Song of Fate (Schicksalslied)" of Brahms. Faculty and staff are reminded that they are welcome to participate.

Mr. Collins has just been appointed to the National Choral Committee of the Music Teachers National Association.

LECTURE: Dean Mary A. Cusack will speak before the Greater Detroit Nursery Council, October 14, at State Hall, Wayne State University. Her topic is, "Why Children Watch TV".

FACULTY WOMEN'S CLUB: The Faculty Women's Club will meet at 1 p.m. Tuesday, October 17, at the home of Mrs. Laszlo Hetenyi, 763 Cambridge Drive. Dr. Sarah Van Hoosen Jones will be the guest speaker. Baby-sitters will be available at the University Presbyterian Church at a charge of 45 cents per child, 90 cents maximum. Please call Mrs. William Hammerle, FEderal 8-6482, to make arrangements for this service.

INVITATION: Mr. Stoutenburg reports that faculty and administrative staff members are invited to attend a community reception in honor of foreign students at colleges and universities in the area. The reception will be held at the International Institute, 111 East Kirby Avenue, Detroit, on Sunday afternoon, October 22, from 4:00 until 10:00 p.m. A reception and tea is planned from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m., program from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. and informal dancing from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m.

CONTINUING EDUCATION: A record 1040 persons have enrolled for evening Continuing Education courses for the fall term, a 73 per cent increase over last fall's figure of 594.

Twenty-five per cent of the students registered for liberal arts courses with courses in French, Spanish, German and Russian accounting for 101 students and fine arts courses for 60. Best attended liberal arts course is the "Development of Western Institutions and Social Ideas" taught by Dr. Gerald Straka. A seminar in Small Business Management has attracted 54 students.

CHALLENGES TO A CHANGING WORLD: Mr. Czetong Song will speak at the Birmingham Community House Auditorium at 8:15 p.m. October 24. His talk, "Eight Years After the Korean War", is the second in a series of three lectures conducted by the Continuing Education Service under the sponsorship of the Altrusa Club of Greater Birmingham. Mr. Samuel Shapiro will conclude the series with his talk on Latin America November 14.

STUDENT-FACULTY RECREATION: An archery competition is planned for 1:00 p.m. Wednesday, October 25, on the campus archery range.
