OU celebrates its employees of the month

By Jennifer Charney, OU Staff Writer

Oakland University will honor recipients of its Employee of the Month awards from the past year at a Tuesday, Nov. 13, dinner.

The invitation-only event begins with a brief reception at Meadow Brook Hall, followed by dinner in the Christopher Wren dining room. The dinner will conclude with an award ceremony conducted by Oakland President Gary D. Russi, who will present each honoree with an OU pin, and words of appreciation from Lynne Schaefer, vice president, Division of Finance and Administration.

"This is an event that we take great pleasure in organizing," said Hazen Wilcox, secretary II, University Human Resources. "Employee recognition is very important to University Human Resources. We are always looking for ways to make recognition more meaningful and fun. This particular event has been very effective in conveying a warm, personal message of appreciation."

Honorees who have received awards between October 2000 and September 2001 include:

Ray Mora, associate director, Plant Engineering and Construction Management, Campus Facilities and Operations (now retired)

Bonnie McNiell, administrative secretary, Department of Modern Languages and Literatures

Candy McLellan, administrative secretary, School of Engineering and Computer Science

Thomas Papandrea, printing and reprographics coordinator, University Services

June A. Fisher, administrative secretary, Department of English (now retired)

Filomena Micu, custodian II, University Housing

Darlene Mathiak, administrative secretary, School of Health Sciences

Steven Szalay, electronic resources manager, Office of Research and Graduate Study

Terri Eudy, assistant director for aquatics, Department of Campus Recreation

Brenda Pierce, business manager, Kresge Library

Xingning Rong, custodian I, Campus Facilities and Operations

Carolyn J. Johnson, business manager, Campus Facilities and Operations
