APPOINTMENT: Mr. Rhode has been appointed Assistant Director of Continuing Education effective Feb. 1. Mr. Varner said Rhode's appointment stresses the liberal arts accent in continuing education. Rhode will spend about one-third of his time teaching undergraduate courses.

GUESTS: MSUO will host the Detroit Chapter of the American Society of Training Directors on Wednesday, February 8. This will be an all-day institute for personnel managers and training directors of all the major industries in Southeastern Michigan. Mr. Eklund will participate in a panel that will discuss "Is Do-It-Yourself Training the Answer?"

RECORD REGISTRATION: The first annual MSUO Conference for Parents and Teachers received more than the 400 registrations the continuing education department could handle on Saturday, February 4. To accommodate the overflow, a second conference, also titled "Developing Study Skills--How Parents Can Help," has been scheduled for Saturday, February 18.

EKLUND SPEAKS AGAIN: The seventh annual Detroit Central Volunteer Bureau Workshop February 9 at the Wayne County Medical Society Headquarters in Detroit will hear Mr. Eklund speak on "Volunteering as a Growth Experience."

NEW SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE: The MSUO Foundation Macomb County Scholarship Committee was organized last Monday in Mount Clemens with Mrs. Philip T. Mulligan, 59 Ahrens, Mount Clemens, as chairman. Other members of the new group are Mrs. LeRoy Howard, 31214 Jefferson, St. Clair Shores, vice chairman; Mrs. H. Rollin Allen, 15744 Camden, East Detroit, secretary; Mrs. George Kurz, 11 Belleview, Mount Clemens, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Ten Eyck, 36717 Weideman, Mount Clemens, publicity chairman. The next meeting will be February 28 at MSUO.

MISSING MIKE: Jane Kendall requests faculty and staff to check their offices for a neck-style microphone missing from the Audio Visual Department.

FRIDAY REMINDER: Faculty-Staff square dance is tonight at 8:30 in the Student Center. Admission, 75¢ per couple.
