Weekly ERL Update: Celebrating Banned Books Week and National Hispanic Heritage Month

The week of September 23–29 is Banned Books Week. Visit the ALA Office for Intellectual Freedom website for more information and many resources available, which support the freedom to seek and express ideas.

The ERL has a display of recently banned and challenged books on the tables near the circulation desk, and there are free copies of the American Library Association Field Report 2018, which tells the stories behind the challenging/banning instances, including the resolutions and outcomes. Please stop by to browse and take a copy of the report.

National Hispanic Heritage Month is also being celebrated from September 15–October 15. The ERL has a display on the shelf tops in the Tradebook Examination Center at the front of the ERL with a selection of books that recognize the important presence of Hispanic and Latino Americans to the United States and celebrate their heritage and culture.

UPCOMING EVENTS

An Evening in the ERL – Wednesday, October 2

Parents are teachers too! If you are a parent or know parents of children grades K–3, please join us for an Evening in the ERL on Wednesday, October 2 from 6–8 p.m. Engage with faculty in the Reading and Language Arts Department; Erin Look, youth librarian from Auburn Hills Public Library; and Marcia Hudson in School and Field Services for this special night of learning, designed especially for caregivers.

The event will include information about the resources, strategies and practices that will help you nurture a love of reading, and support your child’s literacy development. Light refreshments will be provided and childcare is available.

Please register for Learning to Read in Grades K–3.

BIRTHDAYS

If you do not wish to have your birthday included, contact Trevor Tyle.

ABOUT THE SEHS BULLETIN

The SEHS Bulletin is a place where faculty and staff can share news and celebrate the wonderful things happening in SEHS. The bulletin is the perfect place to share information about your publications and awards, special projects and committee news, as well as announce events.

All are welcome to send items for inclusion. If you choose to do so, please ensure that your items are print ready, that you include all related links, and that you have permission to publish any photos being submitted. Please put “SEHS Bulletin” in the subject line and email your information to: ttyle@oakland.edu.

If you have questions about the bulletin, email Trevor Tyle at ttyle@oakland.edu.
