ACCOLADES AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Dr. Maxfield Featured in "Eye on Detroit" TV Segment

Former SEHS Interim Dean Robert Maxfield, was recently featured on CBS Detroit's "Eye on Detroit" segment as an ESL tutor for students in Pontiac. In the feature, Dr. Maxfield states "we need to provide opportunities for talents to surface," while also explaining how much these students enjoy interacting with their tutors.

IN THE NEWS

Caldecott Award Nominees and Contest

Stop by the ERL to browse the display of notable picture books that have been suggested as potential Caldecott Medal winners by various professional journals, libraries and organizations.

Can you predict the next winner of the Caldecott Award? In anticipation of the winning announcement at the ALA Midwinter Conference on Sunday, February 11, the ERL will be holding a mock Caldecott Contest. All are invited to vote for the book they think will win and then be entered into a drawing to receive a copy of the winning title. Paper ballots, along with guidelines for the contest can be found at the circulation desk.

To learn more about the Caldecott Award, visit the Association for Library Service to Children \(ALSC\) webpage.

ABOUT THE SEHS BULLETIN

The SEHS Bulletin is a place where faculty and staff can share news and celebrate the wonderful things happening in SEHS. The bulletin is the perfect place to share information about your publications and awards, special projects and committee news, as well as announce events.

All are welcome to send items for inclusion. If you choose to do so, please ensure that your items are print ready, that you include all related links, and that you have permission to publish any photos being submitted. Please put "SEHS Bulletin" in the subject line and email your information to: jmschmalz@oakland.edu.

If you have questions about the bulletin, email Jennifer Schmalz at jmschmalz@oakland.edu.
